The Right Move for MORE COTTON MONEY

Now's your chance to "jump" and make the winning play for More Cotton Money in 1951.

Government restrictions on acreage are removed and all things point to a scarcity in Cotton with depletion of reserves before another Cotton crop can be gathered.

So make your move now for good planting seed, sufficient supplies of insecticides and fertilizer and "sew up the game" with the best cotton year you've ever known.

SHERMANS FOR THE SHAH—U. S. Sherman tanks are unloaded from a freighter at a port in Iran. They are the first to arrive in the country under the Mutual Defense Assistance Program. The oil-rich nation, bordering on Russia, is considered a likely spot for future Red aggression.

HARRY'S ALIEN—Mrs. Veronica Donovan Jolly, shown here in a recent passport photograph, has been identified as an alien office worker in the White House. Secretary to Maj. Gen. Harry H. TES Report Shows
Tightening Labor Market In Midland

The tight labor market in Midland even is affecting the institution which tries to locate employees for concerns reporting job vacancies.

J. D. Bechtol, manager of the Texas Employment Commission office here, reports an opening for an interviewer in the Midland office.

Requirements are either a college degree, or two years of college plus a year's full-time employment gathering information, interviewing or counseling. Bechtol prefers to fill the vacancy with a woman, although males may apply.

The starting salary for the interviewer is $207 a month. Applicants also must be five-year residents of Texas and in good health.

Other Job Listings
Lockheed Aircraft Corporation, which is in charge of the aircraft reactivation project at Pyote, has listed several jobs with the Midland TEC office. Among the vacancies are flight line mechanics, aircraft engine mechanics, aircraft inspectors, electricians A C, electrician A C installers and accountant. Further information may be obtained at the TEC office.

Bechtol reminds that the demand for experienced stenographers, secretaries and rapid typists still is prevalent. Other openings for women include full-time maids, bookkeepers, and an IBM machine operator-trainee.

A male or female bank teller, with or without experience, also is needed. A combination pantry man-salad maker, male or female; accountants, male stockroom clerk, around 30 years of age; experienced automobile mechanics with tools, and experienced automobile body repairmen also are needed by Midland employers.

IRO Official Nabbed
In Try To Smuggle
Gold In Meat Cans

FRANKFURT, GERMANY —(AP)— An attempt to smuggle $40,000 worth of gold into Germany in meat cans has led to the arrest of an American official of the International Refugee Organization.

U. S. District Attorney James F. Phelps of Houston, Texas, told an American court U. S. agents arrested IRO Administrative Officer Arthur Gershon when he picked up several cans marked "kosher meat" at the U. S. Army postoffice in Bremen.

Phelps said the cans contained 40 pounds of gold with a black market value of $40,000.

Officials speculated whether it might be part of a big smuggling operation with links in New York. They recalled an attempt had been made recently to send gold to Europe in the body of automobile. The car was seized in New York as it was being loaded on a ship.

Linkup Suspected
Authorities also thought the gold traffic might be linked with diamond smuggling uncovered recently in New York, where several persons were arrested as they tried to bring concealed jewels into the United States. The official theorized that perhaps the gold is being sent to Europe in exchange for diamonds.

An anonymous letter in German received three weeks ago by U. S. Customs officials here warned to watch for packages labeled "meat" and addressed to an IRO officer.

When the packages arrived at the Bremen Army post office last week, an officer said, one can broke open, disclosing strips of gold packed in cotton and paper.

The cans had been addressed to apparently fictitious names at Camp Grohn, an IRO center for displaced persons near Bremen. As postal officer at the camp, Gershon was permitted to collect the mail for the DP's.

Gershon is being held under $10,000 bond in the U. S. military stockade in Bremen. Phelps said he was preparing charges against Gershon.

Tobacco-Chewing Texan Chisels On
New Stone Of Scone

GOLDTHWAITE, TEXAS. —(AP)— A tobacco-chewing Texas monument maker is chipping out a replacement for Britain's missing Stone of Scone just because he's friendly.

As stocky E. B. Adams of Goldthwaite wrote the British Ambassador: "We are well aware that there can be no recompense for the sentimental value of the symbol. But we do feel that our proposal also will result in a gift that will carry its own sentiment—the expression of friendship between your people and our people."

The Stone of Scone, ancient symbol of the British kings, was ripped from its place under the coronation chair in London's Westminster Abbey and spirited away last Christmas Day. Scotland Yard believes Scottish nationalists stole the stone, which was taken from Scotland by England's King Edward I.

Adams hunted until he found just the right kind of sandstone. He rounded up magazine pictures showing details of the original Stone of Scone. And he wrote his letter to Ambassador Franks, closing: "I will appreciate your advice as to how the presentation should be made."

Now he's chiseling away at the new Stone of Scone and awaiting his reply.

Crisis-Studded Career Fails To Ruffle Ballet Director

Choreographer Florence Rogge, whose ballets at Radio City Music Hall have been seen by 150,000,000 people, gives her girls last-minute instructions at dress rehearsal. She's trained 2000 dancers.

By GAILE DUGAS
NEA Staff Writer
NEW YORK—When the lights go down and the girls of the corps de ballet twirl on stage at Radio City Music Hall, it's a diminutive blonde who's responsible for the pretty pictures seen by the cash customers over front.
She's Florence Rogge, choreographer for the world's largest ballet company. Her ballets have been seen by 150,000,000 people and she's trained 2,000 dancers in the last 20 years.
She was born with the desire to dance and she's lived ballet since she was a small girl, when her idol was the great Pavlova. She came to New York from Detroit to study. When she got a chance to join a ballet company touring Canada, she took it. Then she opened a ballet school in Toronto. The late S. L. Rothafel saw her dance and asked her to join his New York company. When "Rogge" opened the Music Hall in 1932, she went along as choreographer for the company. And she's been there ever since.

Her biggest problem is creating big pictures for the vast stage in the largest theater in the world. "I have to paint with a big brush," she explains. "I can't use fine detail. It would get lost. It takes great care to get the right effect when you have lots of people, lots of color, lots of movement."
She does a new show every time a new picture comes into the theater. If a picture runs, say, seven weeks, she has more time to paint her own big pictures. If a movie stars just a week, things are hectic backstage. There are four shows a day, plus costume fittings and early morning rehearsals. Costumes are designed and completed at the theater by Miss Rogge's sister, Harriet Rogge.
She has one principle which has become a standard for every ballet seen at the theater: a ballet whose movements can't be understood shouldn't be seen. That doesn't eliminate the classic ballet, since "Swan Lake," "Scheherazade," and "Bolero" are all easily understood. They've all been seen at the Music Hall.

Youth Center Chatter

By Joyce Howell and Gail Baker

The calendar tells us today is Thursday, so here we are again. Every day is a busy one for the leavers of Midland, and the Youth Center is the meeting place for everyone.

Friday is the night of the High School Operetta, the first one to be presented by the Midland High students. A record turnout is expected. The name of the Operetta? "The Chimes of Normandy"! The plot? Well, we will just let you attend and find out for yourself.

The A Cappella Choir is presenting it and there will be a fourteen piece orchestra to supply the background music. Members of the "Silver Strings," a group well-known to many Midlanders due to their appearances at the Midland Music Club, and six members of the high school band are in the orchestra. The stage sets were made by the art and shop classes. A lot of work has been put into this operetta and the tickets have been selling rapidly. Tickets will be on sale at the door or may be purchased from members of the A Cappella.

Style Show Scheduled

An event of next week will be the style show in the high school auditorium. Several members of the Youth Center will model teen-age fashions from various Midland stores. The style show will be presented Monday night and tickets may be purchased at the door also. It is being sponsored by the Women's Auxiliary of the Midland Memorial Hospital, and it is a benefit performance.

We are sorry to have made an "egghead" out of a "carrot" top. Last week we named Lyndon Cope among those who had a "burn" haircut. Since then we have discovered Lyndon has black wavy hair.

"Oh, we are the girls of the chorus—" If you had passed by MHS Friday noon, you would have heard just this ringing out very loudly. Yes, we had some very "talented" (and we use the word loosely) chorus girls right in our midst. Our "chorus girls" were Tommy Vannaman, Guy Vanderpool, Richard Hull, Roy Ripley, Glen Baker and Fred Underwood. Richard decided they needed a slim "end girl," so whom did they choose for this position but, yep, none other than 219-pound Stan Coker. He made a very sweet "end girl" as Richard called him.

If the YO seemed a little vacant Monday after school, it was for the simple reason the A Cappella choir went to Odessa to attend a musical clinic and to attend a program. We warned you.
We have been warning you—but a lot of people still were surprised Thursday when they started to go in the center only to discover the membership cards were being checked. There will be a big formal Spring dance in the Center soon, and it will be for members only, it really will pay to buy your 1951 membership cards now.

Mr. Glidwell has a new, and a very clever idea. He bought two electric cookers for the Center, and on cold days he can heat the chili dogs for those who buy them during the noon hour.
"Did you knock down both poles?" "Well, I just knocked down one!" Yes, you guessed it, two more of our YO members succeeded in the hard task of getting their driver licenses. Jane Stuart and Sara Hendricks were downtown Saturday afternoon taking their driving tests. Both girls got their licenses, even though the parallel parking was quite difficult.

We didn't realize so many members of the YO are carriers for The Reporter-Telegram. While at the newspaper office we saw quite a few of the industrious boys working hard at folding newspapers. Some of those we saw were Russell Moore, Gaylon Hammon, Jack Burris and Wade Feaster.

Another member of the Center has received his draft notice. Arnold Drake is to report for his physical February 28. Many people have wondered whether they will have Arnold driving tanks or just what. Some have been heard to say, "At least he has the nerve it takes to drive a tank."

The "Freshman Frolics" production is well underway. (Of course, the play won't be presented until April.) While at a meeting of the freshmen who will be in the Frolics, it was discovered that "The Milk Spots"—Bill Mims, Russell Rutledge, Jim Hammet and Milton Jones—are mighty big boys to be so bashful. They had to be begged, but so far they are planning to sing in the frolics.

The tennis team has started organizing. A few of the Center members who are going out for tennis are Sue Ann Francis, "Frit" Fryor, Pat Bales, Nancy Roberts, John Zant, Mark McKinsey and Bill Crenshaw.

Mrs. Magee's geometry classes have been very busy lately. They have been working on a play about geometry for next week's assembly program. Some of the YO members working on this production are Harold Atkinson, Jack Wright, Jimmy Adams, Chris Heidelberg, Bill Spence, Ray Leggett, Cliff Wilcox, John Van Buskirk and Jack Jerome.

Chill Supper Served
Carolyn Cook, Jo Ann Nelson, Marijann Forrest, Beverly Kelding, Susie Young, Margie Cramer, Sara Hendrix, and Gloria Anguish were a few of the girls at a meeting of Senior Girl Scout Troop 8 who had a lovely "chill" supper Monday night. Nancy Steedman had a grand time eating Fritos before "dinner" was served. Daffy Tabor was the head chef for this delicious (another word we are using loosely) meal while Sue Johnson did her bit by pouring water in the chili while it was cooking. Patty Hammon was another of the before-dinner tasters.

After eating and doing the dishes (a most distasteful task even for Girl Scouts!) a few of the more energetic ones danced to the juke box.

We have heard news from one of our ex-Midland Youth Center members, Pat Emmons. Mrs. Emmons came through Midland recently and told us Pat is having a wonderful time at Oklahoma A&M where she is a freshman. Pat's brother, Bill, still is attending Texas Tech.

Pat Douglass who is well-known to many teeners for his ability to play the piano, was one of a group who went to Big Spring Tuesday night to play for the Veterans Hospital. Pat also plays the piano with a group of boys who play popular music.

We have noticed two "war casualties" among the band members this week. Horace Greenstreet now is wearing a large white bandage over one eye. He spilled some chemical last Saturday. Earl Chapman is another victim. He has a bandage on his left hand.

We were glad to see Bobby Holt who was here last weekend. Bobby is attending Greenhill School in Dallas.

"Cow Country" Horn
"Mooooo—Mooooo." For a minute we thought there was a cow in back of us! We were surprised to hear an unusual horn sounding from a blue pick-up in front of the Youth Center. We later found out the horn and car belong to Dan Black.

Five Midland High students took a trip to Waco last weekend. Ruth Biebers, Jean Ferguson, Royce Measures, Joe Barnett and Clifford Wilcox drove to Baylor University in a school car driven by Miss Verna Harris. The group left Friday and came back Sunday. The purpose of this little jaunt was a debate meet at Baylor. Both the girls and boys teams won several of their debates.

That is about all the news this week, so we'll just say good-bye until the next time our calendar reminds us it is Thursday.

QUICK LUNCH
For a quick lunch spread lightly toasted English muffins with soft yellow cheese, top with tomato or bacon slices, and put under the broiler.

Burmese Campaign Against Reds Asked

RANGOON—(AP)—Burma Democratic Party President Thakin Ba Sein has called for a nationwide campaign to stem the increasing momentum of the Communist movement in this country.
He said Burmese "civilization and culture are doomed" unless the people now unite against the "dangerous ideology that's communism."

Shoes To Be Made From Skins Of Dogs

LONDON—(AP)—You may be stepping on Pido when you buy your next pair of shoes. Because of a general leather shortage and the high cost of goatskin and lamb-skin, British manufacturers now are processing dog skin for lining shoes. Semi-processed dogskins are being exported in good quantities to the United States, for use in lining shoes and in gloves.

Home Lubricant Is A Help For Zippers

Zipper troubles glide away, thanks to a new stainless steel product which makes possible re-lubrication of balky fasteners at home.

By ALICIA HART
NEA Staff Writer

Zippers, which seem to have an instinct for jamming at the most crucial moments in everyone's life, may now start earning good conduct stars, thanks to a new product designed to end such troubles.
Since most zipper balkiness results from loss of lubrication through dry cleaning, laundering or just plain use of a garment, makers of this new product decided re-lubrication was the answer.
Their lubricant, which is made from the same formula used by zipper manufacturers to give easy glide to new slide fasteners, may be applied at home from the handy lipstick-like dispenser. It's stainless, makers claim, and will not harm fabrics.
Not only does this product insure smoother running slide fasteners, but it actually prolongs their usefulness, according to the manufacturer. It's the jerking and straining at stubborn zippers that usually cause their eventual break-down, they say.

Church and Other Organizations Make Money on Meadolake

Sherman, Texas. Many church, club, service and other non-profit organizations are receiving checks these days from the Mrs. Tucker folks of this city who are currently offering these non-profit groups five cents for every Meadolake Margarine carton end flap with Mrs. Tucker's picture on it. The end flaps roll in and Mrs. Tucker's checks roll out to these organizations that are buying needed equipment and doing good service with the money.
The church members, Boy Scouts, Campfire groups, garden clubs and service organizations working in this Meadolake Margarine campaign are enthusiastically creating more demand for this "better spread for our daily bread." Members are asking their friends to use Meadolake and give them the valuable end flaps, and these friends are reported in increasing numbers as thanking their "benefactors" who recommended this well known margarine to them. The fresh-from-the-farm flavor of Meadolake makes a hit at every table, and repeat orders are making steady users as the carton end flaps earn more and more money for the organizations.

This generous offer, according to Mrs. Tucker of shortening as well as margarine fame, is not to individuals; it is to non-profit organizations only. Inquiries are invited and explanatory leaflets for all members will be mailed to all who ask Mrs. Tucker for them. Eligible groups are urged to make announcements about the Meadolake offer at all meetings, to write their members often, and to collect the valuable carton end flaps every week or so. Just mail the end flaps with Mrs. Tucker's picture on them often to Mrs. Tucker, Sherman, Texas, and your check—5¢ for each correct end flap—will be returned as promptly as possible. (Remember the Meadolake Margarine carton has two end flaps, but only one of them has Mrs. Tucker's picture printed on it.)

Glass Scheduled For New Roles

TOLEDO, OHIO—(AP)—Glass may be used to replace many metals which are being restricted for the current mobilization program, says Dr. George B. Watkins, director of research for Libbey-Owens-Ford Glass Company.
In World War II, glass was used successfully as a substitute for aluminum. For example, the Federal Communications Commission used it as backing on records for its recordings file. Glass evaporator plates in air conditioning equipment replaced steel plates. One kind of glass today eliminates the need for almost all metal framing and cross-pieces on store doors.

Coiffure, Clothes, Cosmetics Create Past-Fifty Beauty

By ALICIA HART
NEA Staff Writer

Women past 50 who blame their age alone for sit-at-home evenings are forgetting two other important factors, according to Eddie Senz, noted hair stylist and make-up consultant.

Your attitude and your appearance are both keys with which you may unlock the doors of your loneliness, he states.

He begins first with attitude, dividing women in their 50's into three classes. There are those who pretend they no longer care about their looks and deliver themselves into premature antiquity with styleless clothes and yesteryear hair-dos.

There are those who care too much, feeling they are losing all beauty because they no longer fulfill youthful standards.

Finally, there are those who realize life's pleasures can't be measured with a calendar. They make the best of themselves without regard to age.

In order to list yourself with the third group, Senz suggests you avoid some common pitfalls.

Don't abandon make-up just because you've passed the mid-mark. Now, more than ever before, you need skillfully applied make-up to help nature along.

Instead of continuing to dab on cosmetics the way you've done it for years, regard your image in the mirror with a fresh eye. Then develop new make-up techniques to make the most of the woman you see there.

Your complexion has changed, and so have the contours of your face, so toss away your old cosmetic notions and start anew.

No matter how attractive you looked in your 20's with a cupid's mouth, that's not the thing for your lips today. Bring the color out smoothly to the corners of your mouth. If your face has grown plump during the years, a bold horizontal lipline will break the apparent width of your face.

Tight, tiny circles of rouge are also out of date, as well as the spreading blotches of color that women used to rub right into their hairlines. Try instead this method, devised by Senz, for adding a seemingly natural blush tint to your cheeks.

To do this, lift a bit of cream on your finger to the back of your left hand. Now rub the same finger along your lipstick, and gather enough color to work the cream into a "rouge." Next, tint your cheeks, fading the color out at the edges for perfect blending.

In choosing a hair style, remember that hair brought high off your temple will slenderize your face. This is particularly important if you've gathered pounds while collecting years.

Give up "youthful" looking clothes. Select instead well-cut, mature designs with deep necklines. And remember—a comfortable fit is more important than clinging to the size you wore when you were 20.

Czechs Set Out Mulberry Trees

PRAGUE—(AP)—Sixteen million mulberry trees, important in silk culture, were planted in Czechoslovakia last year and the country now has 40,000,000 of them, the weekly "Hospodar," (Economist) says.

They are expected to number 100,000,000 by the end of the 1949-53 five-year plan. The leaves are food for silkworms being raised to lessen the dependence of Czechoslovakia's silk industry upon foreign sources of raw material.

Snail Fever Shows Decline In Luzon

IRONEN, LUZON—(AP)—A government zoologist reported outbreaks of "snail fever," which afflicts more than 600 persons a year in this small South Luzon community have been lowered one-half in the past six months.

The disease is spread by snails which inhabit nearby streams. It is known medically as schistosomiasis, a type of liver fluke. Zoologist Benjamin Santos said there were three fatalities among the 600 cases reported.

Lotion An Aid In Avoiding Chapped Hands And Windburn

By ALICIA HART
NEA Staff Writer

Almost every woman is an outdoor girl these days—whether she boards a ski train every weekend or confines her cold weather excursions to trips to the grocery store.

If these ventures and their after-effects sometimes turn into ordeals, chances are you've forgotten to winterproof your charm.

This is a simple matter, provided you remember your body needs special coddling against the cold. Your skin in particular requires protection, else you'll probably pay the price in chapped hands and wind-burned cheeks.

Baby lotion is an effective lubricant in guarding against these unpleasanties. Try moistening your fingertips with the lotion and working it into your bathroom splashing each morning. Rub in an extra bit around your nose, lips, knuckles and other danger points you've discovered from painful experience.

Anytime that you plan to be in the open for an extended period,

This outdoor girl raids the nurse's kit for baby lotion to protect her face against wind-burn, her hands against chapping.

remember to apply a heavy coating of lotion just before going out. Muffle your neck with a heavy scarf and protect your hands with mittens or gloves.

Television-Dental Connection Noted

BALTIMORE—(AP)—Television's role in the development of youngsters has gained new prestige here. The visual medium recently got a kindly pat on the antenna from the Baltimore Dental Society.

At a meeting here dentists noted there is an increase in the number of youngsters who want their front teeth deformities corrected. They claim youngsters are quick to notice deformities of performers on TV, particularly the chipped-teeth variety which appears on small-fry programs. Children today feel such deformities divert attention from their talents.

SQUEEZE EXPECTED

DES MOINES—(AP)—The Iowa production and marketing administration says a total U. S. corn supply of about 3,990,000,000 bushels is expected in 1951, but that heavy feeding operations and industrial needs may but a real squeeze on corn supplies to develop.

oil and lanolin, not only aids in keeping your face and hands soft and smooth, but it serves as an effective powder base as well, according to its manufacturers.

Zamzam Water Has To Be Replenished

KHARTOUM, SUDAN—(AP)—When Moslems die, they want their body washed before burial with sacred water from Zamzam, a holy well near Mecca.

Fatima Es Shaid, an old woman living near here, has been expecting death for years. She has had the Zamzam water on hand but has had to renew it several times in the last 30 years because it evaporated. She doesn't know how old she is—maybe more than 100, she says. She has eight children, 17 grandchildren and 36 great grandchildren and she remembers all their names.

Daddy Ringtail :: By WESLEY DAVIS

Daddy Ringtail And Seen An Arrow

Mugwump Monkey, the monkey boy, had a bow and arrow. He shot it in the air, and then "Eeow!" was the shout that came from the place where the arrow had fallen behind some bushes.

"Oh-oh!" said Mugwump. Up he climbed to the monkey house in a hurry. He put his bow away in his chest, and then down again he slid to the ground. He hurried away up Elephant Path, on his way to see the Huffen Puffen, the friendly wolf. A few minutes later, Mugwump knocked on the door of the

Said the Huffen: "And when it fell down, did a someone about 'Eeow!' real loud like an arrow had hit him?"

"Sure," said Mugwump.

"And," said the Huffen, "you want me to look for the arrow, so that maybe if I find it, a someone will try to get hold of me for thinking I shot them with it?"

"Sure," said Mugwump.

"Would this be the arrow you lost?" asked the Huffen, and he held it in back of him. "Eeow!" shouted Mugwump now in great fright, because he thought for sure that the Huffen was the one who was shot with the arrow. Oh, but no one really had been shot. I as happy to say. The Huffen had shouted out loud in the first place only because the arrow had missed him very close. Yes, and people can never be too careful with shooting a bow and arrow—or things. Happy day!

Huffen's hollow tree house. The Huffen chuckled when he open the door. He chuckled and said: "Happy day there, Mugwump my boy. Welcome to the Huffen's hollow tree house."

"Sure," said Mugwump, "but Huffen, would you like to have a real arrow to shoot with a bow?"

"That I would, I would," said the Huffen.

"Well," said Mugwump, "I shot one up in the air white ago, and it came down; you can have it if you find it."

Said the Huffen: "Did it fall down over that way?" The Huffen pointed with his hand, and Mugwump looked. "Sure," said Mugwump, "that's where it fell down."

UNLUCKY THIRTEEN

The superstition that the number 13 is unlucky may have originated in the Norse myth of the banquet to which Loki came, making the 13th at the table, and at which Balder was slain. Another explanation is that there were 13 at the Last Supper.

WTCC Appoints Membership, Public Relations Manager

ABILENE—Alden L. Cathey has been appointed manager of the Membership and Public Relations of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce.

Alden L. Cathey

Department of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce.

Formerly employed by the Chambers of Commerce at Port Arthur and Waco, Cathey also directed the major portion of the last statewide USO campaign.

Experienced in all phases of Chamber work, Cathey will work in community-level activities of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce in that part of its re-organizational program designed to strengthen its relations with local Chambers of Commerce.

His work during the last two years in membership activities has brought him widespread recognition in Chamber of Commerce circles.

He was graduated from Texas A&M College in 1942 with a degree in Business Administration.

In military service for four years, he was discharged with the rank of captain.

Cathey is a native of Port Worth and is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ed V. Cathey of that city.

Sock Tones Down Honking Of Sax

NORFOLK, VA. —(P)— Ever get the urge to stuff a saxophone? Someone here did.

And when an elderly woman returned the sax to the shop where she bought it because it sounded "like it's got a cold," the salesman found a bottle of ink wrapped in on a sock inside.

Said the salesman philosophically: "Not everybody likes sax music."

Village Abandoned Following Eruption

CAGAYAN, MINDANAO ISLAND, PHILIPPINES — (P) — A village where 2,000 Filipinos lived little more than five months ago has been completely abandoned on Camiguin Island since the eruption last September of Hibok Hibok volcano.

The village of Agoho, on the slopes of the still smoking volcano, has been entirely evacuated. Boulders cover the remaining houses and a huge crack splits the ground through the site of the village school, reports the provincial governor.

Frozen Green Peas Are Favorites

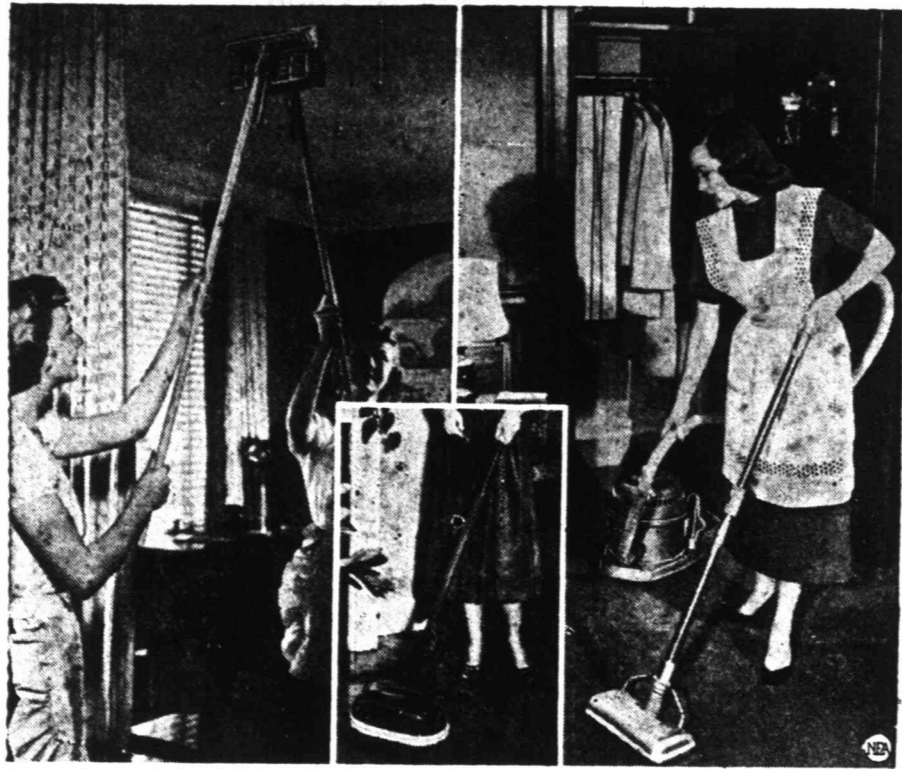

WASHINGTON, D. C. — (P) — Green peas are by far the most important single frozen vegetable, according to the U. S. Department of Agriculture. The 1950 frozen green pea pack set a new record of more than 154,000,000 pounds, the department says.

The Bureau of Agricultural Economics notes consumption of frozen peas in recent years has cut into the demand for fresh peas, particularly during the winter harvest season in Southern truck areas.

SOUR CREAM DRESSING

To prepare a delicious sour cream dressing for slaw add a teaspoon of salt and one of sugar, a dash of freshly-ground pepper, a tablespoon of lemon juice and two tablespoons of vinegar to a cup of thick sour cream. Mix thoroughly and allow to stand in the refrigerator for a while to blend flavors.

Today's Homemaker Finds Cleaning Easy With Latest-Type Household Gadget

New equipment designed to take the drudgery out of housework includes this self-wringing sponge mop (left) and floor polisher with built-in headlight (center). Vacuum cleaner (right) rolls, with no tugging, on dolly which holds attachments handy for use. New rug nozzle combines revolving brush action with vacuum suction.

By ANNE LARSEN
NEA Staff Writer

NEW YORK — Spring housecleaning, which used to leave a homemaker as limp and wrung-out-looking as a rag mop, is rapidly becoming a thing of the past.

If modern equipment - makers have their way, today's housewife can breeze through her chores on a daily or week-to-week basis.

Vacuum cleaners, long highly regarded for efficiency in whisking away dirt, have become increasingly easy to use. One company, investigating the reasons women tend to leave their cleaners in the closet except for special occasions, has done much to make their model a cleaning tool for everyday use.

Innovations include a rack, designed for attaching to the inside of a closet door, which holds hose and wands ready assembled for instant use. The time usually devoted to fitting various sections together is thereby saved. Paint and moth sprayers are also stored in this rack.

More frequently used cleaning attachments - floor and dusting brushes, upholstery and crevice tools - are kept handy upon an aluminum dolly which also supports the lightweight cleaner offered by this company. A gentle pull upon the hose propels the rubber-castered dolly wherever it is needed.

A new rug nozzle offered by the same company combines vacuum suction with revolving brush action. The brush, which is self-cleaning and self-adjusting, according to the manufacturer, adapts its own height to the thickness of the rug.

The nozzle resembles a carpet sweeper, and may be used similarly, without attachments to the vacuum, for quick clean-ups. Its special advantages include a low-slung design, for reaching under close-to-the-floor furniture, and light weight, which is claimed to be about half that of the average carpet sweeper. It is automatically self-emptied since litter and dust are drawn into the cleaner when the vacuum attachment is used.

Added features include a disposable dust bag, which need be replaced only after about two months of normal use, and a dust filter made of gay plaid fabric.

To ease the task of keeping floors sleek and shining, a well-known firm presents a lightweight floor polisher with built-in headlight for dark corners.

In addition to brushes, it offers two sets of buffing pads—one of felt and one of lamb's wool. A fingertip switch insures instant starting and stopping of the ventilated motor.

The homemaker can choose this year from a variety of mops to suit her own individual needs. A sponge mop with a five-year guarantee has a chromium self-wringing attachment.

The cellulose head, which is set at an angle to facilitate reaching into out-of-the-way corners, may be used for drying-up as well as cleaning. The sponge is capable of absorbing up to 20 times its weight in water, according to its makers.

BLACK WATER STAIN

To give an imitation ebony finish to a piece of furniture, apply black water stain with even strokes to avoid unevenly colored areas. Two or three coats may be necessary. Sand after each coat has dried, as water stain raises the grain of the wood. Give final coating protection with thin coat of shellac. After it is dry, dull the gloss by rubbing lightly with a piece of fine, worn sandpaper.

MUSICAL LAMP

Smart and gay is a new lamp for children that actually will help put the tykes asleep. All you do when Junior is ready for the Sandman is press the button and the music will start as the light gradually dims. The music plays four minutes, and when it ends, the light is completely extinguished, and Junior should be asleep—you hope.

India Looks Forward To Big Paper Output

NEW DELHI —(P)— India will come close to achieving self-sufficiency in paper production within the next two years as existing mills are expanded and new ones built.

This was disclosed recently when paper manufacturers held a meeting with the National Planning Commission here. The manufacturers said they planned to expand six of the 15 mills now operating and that four new units will be built. They stated production capacity for all varieties of paper will be raised to 180,000 tons annually.

TOSSED GREEN SALAD

To make a good tossed green salad choose a bowl that is large enough to toss the greens in it comfortably. Rub the inside of the bowl with a piece of crushed garlic, if you like, before adding the vegetables. Add the salad dressing carefully, pouring a small amount over the greens first, then tossing lightly before seeing whether more dressing is needed.

a means of achieving a youthful appearance.

This, according to Perc Westmore, noted make-up man, is a mistake. Hardly any choice could be less flattering, he stresses.

White reflects the light upward, spotlighting crepey skin and over-plump folds.

Since flesh doesn't reflect light, it's a better plan to wear a plain, untrimmed V-neckline. This will draw the eye away from a sagging chin, whereas collars, ruffles or ruching emphasize lack of firmness.

He suggests, as a test, holding a piece of white paper beneath your chin. Your own mirror or the comments of family or friends should add reinforcement to his statement.

Early Tooth Care Basis For Beauty

Understanding the importance of early tooth care, this young mother sets daughter on path to health and beauty with semi-annual dental check-ups (left), a properly-balanced diet (upper right) and training in tooth brushing.

By ALICIA HART
NEA Staff Writer

Most girls become interested in beautiful teeth at about the same age they begin yearning for their first formal. But, unfortunately, a lovely smile can't be acquired as easily.

Since the foundation for this important aspect of a woman's charm must be laid in childhood, it's every mother's duty to guide her daughter through the routines of teeth care in those important early years.

Attitude is all-important — both that of the parent and the child. Tooth-brushing should become a pleasant routine; trips to the dentist should be made as free from worry as possible; healthful meals should be without dire threats of what happens to the teeth of slanders who don't drink their milk.

Best results usually are achieved by a casual approach. When the time comes for your child's first trip to the dentist—sometime between his third and fourth year—mention it as nonchalantly as if it were a shopping tour.

Never discuss in your daughter's presence your own trials in a dentist's chair; never attempt to bribe her into going; and, above all, don't promise the dentist won't hurt. He might. There's a 50-50 chance that minor repair work, such as the filling of a small cavity, will be needed.

If you have your daughter's cavities filled shortly after they develop, you'll be insuring her a minimum of pain as well as guarding against the unpleasant developments that follow neglect. It's well worth the expense to take her for a check-up every six months.

Your child should begin brushing her teeth at the age of two, or perhaps a bit before. The exact time should be set, not through an arbitrary decision on your part, but through hints of interest given by your daughter.

Buy her a small toothbrush of her own just after you've observed her reaching for yours for the first time; you'll catch her at the peak of her yen to be just like mommie. She should brush her teeth after each meal, if possible, paying par-

Use Pretty Evening Purse For Allure And Efficiency

By ALICIA HART
NEA Staff Writer

Small tricks of feminine wit, devised by every generation of women to enhance their charm, are as effective today as in the age of the flutney ostrich feather fan.

It's a wise woman who recognizes this and gives attention to the small details that add up to allure, particularly on important evenings. One way of achieving this effect is to choose—and use—a suitable evening purse. The woman who prefers to cram her cosmetic needs hither-yonder into her escort's pockets is not only trying his patience, but missing an opportunity to veil her beauty in becoming mystery.

Your date is less likely to be enchanted by the bloom upon your lips if it's forcibly brought to his attention that all the color comes from a smeary lipstick tube currently streaking the lining of his best coat.

A new clutch bag offered by a well-known firm sheathes practically with glamor. Gold kid, overlaid with black lace, conceals an efficient purse fitted with compact, lipstick holder and comb. Two side pockets are provided for the extras that most women like to carry.

Lacy evening purse, well-equipped for mid-evening renewal of glamor, adds feminine touch to formal gown.

PINEAPPLE TURNOVERS

A quarter of a slice of canned, drained pineapple may be placed on a square of pastry and sprinkled with cinnamon and sugar; the pastry is then folded to form a triangle and the edges pressed together. The turnovers should be baked in a hot oven for about 10 minutes.

ticular attention to the bedtime brushing, which is most important. Ordinary baking soda from the kitchen makes a good dentifrice, since it cleans the teeth and alkalizes the mouth without abrasive action which might scratch or wear the tooth enamel. Not only is it economical for wasteful little tooth-brushers, but it's also simple for them to use. A bit of soda, poured into the palm of small hands, can easily be gathered onto the bristles of a dampened toothbrush. Soda also is effective when used in solution as a mouth rinse. Dental check-ups and brushing care should be backed up with healthful, tooth-building diets. Plenty of nourishing foods—vegetables, fruits, whole grain cereals, bread, milk, dairy products, eggs and meat—are necessary if your daughter is to dazzle her beau with a sparkling smile in later years. Edgar Allen Poe once lived on boiled dandelions for nine days, when he was out of funds.

WASHINGTON — (AP) — Americans are consuming eggs at almost a record rate, U. S. Department of Agriculture records show. Beautiful Lawn Tips Cited
By Williams Feed & Supply

The wise home owner who is getting ready for a beautiful lawn this Summer can get some good suggestions from the Williams Feed and Supply, whose stock is complete from seeds and fertilizers to preparations for keeping down weeds and other undesirable growths.

Among preparations for treating the lawn, shrubs and flower beds are chlordane, copperas and aluminum sulphate. Williams has stocked these in anticipation of a large demand.

A good line of grass seed, including Blue Tag rye, Kentucky blue grass and white Dutch clover may be found on the shelves at Williams Feed and Supply, located at 1403 East Highway 80. The telephone number is 2011.

The new 16-20-0 fertilizer is recommended by Williams, since it goes twice as far as the ordinary fertilizer. It was found to be one of the most popular used in this section last year.

Organic fertilizer for flower beds also is stocked by the concern. Blactex, which is recommended for this purpose is slow acting and won't burn except in very rare instances. It provides the maximum of safety in fertilizing flowers and shrubs. Bulk and package garden seeds are stocked by Williams, in addition to peat moss, gardeners' supplies, John Bean power sprayers and livestock sprays, including lindane, DDT and toxaphene.

Williams also is taking orders for chicks. These orders are coming in fast in view of the high beef prices. A complete line of Purina chows is featured by the concern. Miscellaneous hardware items also are stocked by Williams.

SHREWSBURY, ENGLAND. — (AP) — Clifford George Moyle, 20, was not getting enough to eat at his lodgings, so he stole 12 dozen jam tarts from his employers. He ate nine dozen of them. Moyle was put on probation for two years, ordered to pay $2.10 costs, and the probation officer was told to find him new lodgings.
