Oil Editor

Two PB Discoveries Report Completions

Continental Oil Company reported the completion Monday of two discovery wells 165 miles apart in the Permian Basin.

The concern finished its No. 1 C. D. Harris, new field opener in Northwest Crockett County, 18 miles northeast of Rankin, for a 34-hour potential of 1,099.44 barrels of 47-gravity oil flowing through a one-half-inch tubing choke.

No water was made on the completion test.

Open flowing tubing pressure was 350 pounds and shut-in casing pressure was 300 pounds. Gas volume was 2,140,000 cubic feet per day. Gas-oil ratio was 1,947-1.

Production in the new well is from perforations opposite a lime, thought to be Devonian, at 8,510-22 feet. Total depth of the well is 8,945 feet. Casing is cemented at 3,394 feet.

Exact location is 1,980 feet from north and east lines of section 15, block 3, WCRR survey.

The same operator's No. 2 Swenson-Land & Cattle Company, 165 miles to the northeast and in Northeast Garza County, 20 miles northeast of Post, was completed on the pump for a 24-hour potential of 332.13 barrels of oil and no water.

The new field opener was completed from perforated section opposite the Pennsylvania at 6,355-95 feet. That interval had been treated with 1,000 gallons and with 4,000 gallons of acid.

The above potential was previously reported as a production test, but it was later decided to be the potential.

Location of the No. 2 Swenson Land & Cattle Company is 1,980 feet from north and east lines of section 43, block 2, H&GN survey.

The wildcat had drilled to a zone below the one which is producing oil. The lower sections did not show for any production and the hole was plugged back to its present producing depth.

Free Oil Found In Midland Prospector

A second possible pay section in the Wolfcamp has been found in The Texas Company No. 1-B Clarence Scharbauer and others, wildcat in West-Central Midland County nine miles southeast of the City of Midland.

A seven-hour drillstem test was made over the interval from 9,600 to 9,790 feet in the Wolfcamp. Gas was at the surface in 16 minutes at the rate of 40,000 cubic feet per day.

No fluid surfaced while the tool was open. Recovery was 1,080 feet of heavily oil and gas-cut mud and 340 feet of free oil.

Open flowing bottomhole pressure ranged from 1,500 to 590 pounds. Shut-in bottomhole pressure after 15 minutes was 2,875 pounds.

The prospector previously indicated as a producer on a drillstem test in the top of the Wolfcamp at 9,455-9,500 feet.

Recovery was 180 feet of heavily oil and gas-cut mud and 670 feet of fluid. That fluid was 30 per cent heavily oil-cut mud and 70 per cent oil.

Location of the No. 1-B Scharbauer is 1,980 feet from east and 1,987 feet from south lines of section 35, block 40, T-2-S, T&P survey.

Shallow Wildcat Is Scheduled For Pecos

D. G. Ash has filed application with the Railroad Commission of Texas requesting permission to start immediately on a 2,000-foot cable tool wildcat in extreme East Pecos County, which is to be drilled as the No. 1 Ash and Weatherford.

The exploration is to be dug 2,310 feet from north and 990 feet from east lines of section 5, block 194, (Continued On Page Five)

Blazing Gun Battle Ends In Death For Two Rugged Texans

MINEOLA, TEXAS.—(P)—Two rugged Texans Sunday settled a mysterious feud in frontier fashion with blazing guns that left both dead.

Standing ten feet apart in a hotel cafe, they shot it out before just one witness—a wide-eyed waitress.

The gunfighters were Rufus Browning, 55, a cattle dealer, and Joe Henderson, 45, a railroad conductor.

The dying Browning crawled to the already dead Henderson and with his last strength "cut up" the conductor with a long-bladed knife.

Justice of the Peace Dick Pendleton called it double homicide.

Police Chief Bill Knippel said the men had been enemies for some time, but he didn't know why.

"I wasn't scared," said Mrs. Kate Womack, the waitress, "I didn't duck behind no counter."

She wouldn't talk further to reporters.

"You talk to the law," she said. "I gave my report to the law."

Came In For Coffee

This was the story she told Knippel.

Browning came into the cafe for a cup of coffee. A few minutes later Henderson entered.

"Keep your hands right where they're at," said Henderson. "I'm going to kill you."

"I'm just going to drink my coffee," Browning said.

While he drank, Henderson cursed him.

Browning drained his cup and backed toward the door.

Henderson drew a 9-mm. German pistol and started shooting. Browning whipped out a .38 caliber revolver and fired back.

Browning was hit in the heart and stomach.

After both fell to the floor, Browning drew his knife, opened it, crawled to Henderson and slashed the dead conductor.

Both men lived here.

Browning, a widower, is survived by two sons and two daughters, all of Mineola.

Henderson, divorced, is survived by two sons.

Truman To Ask Postal Rate Hike

WASHINGTON.—(P)—President Truman told his congressional leaders Monday he is sending Congress a message this week recommending increases in second class postal rates.

Second class mail covers the publication field—such as daily and weekly newspapers and magazines.

House Speaker Rayburn (D-Texas), one of the congressional leaders who met with Truman at the White House, declined to discuss details of the President's message, which he expects to send to both houses by Thursday.

Hearing On Motion To Dismiss Murder Charge Underway

One county official and three former jury commissioners denied in 70th District Court here Monday that negroes deliberately had been excluded from service on a Midland County grand jury.

Their testimony came as attorneys for 24-year-old James Mitchell Woodbery, negro, sought to gain the dismissal of a murder indictment on the grounds that members of his race "systematically and deliberately" were excluded from grand jury service.

Testimony in connection with the motion delayed the beginning of the murder trial before Judge Charles Sullivan, Big Spring, who is sitting as an exchange judge in the place of Judge R. W. (Bob) Hamilton.

Called as the first witness by Defense Counsel Ed Stitt and Perry Pickett, District Clerk Nettie Romer.

One venireman was excused quickly from jury service Monday morning when he reported in 70th District Court.

Judge Charles Sullivan decided he had a good excuse.

The prospective juror was Lee Boone, the official court reporter, who must take down in shorthand every word of testimony during a trial.

admitted that no negroes had served on a grand jury since she took over her office in 1930.

"Have you ever heard of a jury commissioner expressing prejudice against a negro going on the grand jury?" asked Stitt.

"No," she answered.

Under cross examination by District Attorney Stitt, Henderson testified that a negro man had been summoned on a grand jury panel in May, 1948, but he did not serve because the 12 men were selected.

Three Members Of Odessa Family Die In Highway Crash

ODESSA.—Three members of an Odessa family were killed in an auto collision four miles east of here on U. S. Highway 80 late Sunday.

Dead are Mr. and Mrs. John Shown and their small son. A young daughter the Showns is in a critical condition in an Odessa hospital.

Investigating officers said the automobile, in which the Shown family was riding, collided with another driven by Jose Sanchez of Odessa.

Sanchez was charged with negligent homicide. State highway patrolmen said his truck was on the wrong side of the highway when hit by the Shown car.

Mrs. Shown was a sister of Richard Harp, a watchmaker employed by Houck's Jewelry of Midland.

Not To Mention Robbers, Thieves

BELGRADE, YUGOSLAVIA.—(P)—The demon statistician of the Zagreb Daily Vjesnik, who recently counted 191 mentions of Prime Minister Stalin's name on a single front page of Pravda, came up with a new batch of figures Monday.

In one recent two-column article on the Korean war, Pravda called United Nations soldiers bandits 12 times, barbarians 10 times, cannibals eight times, monsters seven times, savages four times and invaders twice. That's a total of 43, which stands as par for the present.

Cool Front Brings Rains In Panhandle

By The Associated Press

A squall line, pushed by a weak cool front, sped down Texas Monday.

It brought rain and slightly cooler temperatures. But the Weather Bureau said it was expected to disappear somewhere in South Texas Monday night and a mid day was the general outlook for Tuesday.

Good rains were reported as the squally weather passed through the Panhandle. Amarillo had .58 inch during the last 24 hours. Lubbock had .25 inch.

Showers also were reported at El Paso, Del Rio, Dallas, Fort Worth, Austin, Palestine, San Antonio, Corsicana, Waco, Texarkana, Salt Flat and Dalhart.

Texas Rites Set For Orla T. Hutt, 75, Mrs. Dewey's Father

SHERMAN, TEXAS.—(P)—Orla T. Hutt, 75, father-in-law of New York Gov. Thomas E. Dewey, will be interred here Wednesday.

A spokesman for the governor in Albany said the governor and Mrs. Dewey, along with their sons, Thomas E. Jr., and John M., will come here for the rites.

Bradley Cites Need For Draft Revision

WASHINGTON.—(P)—Gen. Omar N. Bradley Monday disclosed that about 250,000 Americans in all branches of the armed services now are fighting in the Korean campaign.

The chairman of the joint chiefs of staff, testifying before the House Armed Services Committee, did not give a breakdown of figures for the Army, Navy, Marines and Air Force.

"Over in Korea," Bradley said, "there are approximately a quarter of a million Americans who are fighting for this nation and our position in world affairs."

The committee is considering a compromise military manpower bill which would lower the draft age to 18 1/2 years and set up machinery for universal military service as part of a long range program.

Secretary of Defense Marshall also was due to testify, but he was sick and unable to testify.

Bradley said world conditions, which caused the joint chiefs of staff to recommend a "partial mobilization" of 3,500,000 men, "may persist for 10, 15 or 20 years." He said such a size force as has been recommended may have to be maintained for some time to come.

The general said if the situation (Continued On Page 10)

ROK Marines Seize Third Ko-Red Island

WASHINGTON.—(P)—South Korean Marines Sunday landed on Sindo, a third island off the Korean east coast port of Wonsan, the Navy announced here Monday. Two other islands previously had been occupied.

The newest landing, following 12 days of continuous bombardment by American warships, was made without opposition from ground forces. Communist shore batteries fired at the U. S. bombardment force without scoring any hits, the Navy said.

Two Snyder Men Die In Road Crash

SWEETWATER.—(P)—Two men were killed and three others injured critically Monday in a two-car collision five miles west of here on U. S. Highway 80.

Thomas Harvey Pinkerton, 27, of Snyder was dead on arrival at the Roscoe Hospital. Joe Herman Goss, 27, also of Snyder, died about two hours after the smashup.

They were both passengers in a car driven by Robert Rollins, 32, of Snyder.

Rollins and the two men in the other car, Vernon H. Warren, 30 of Big Spring and J. R. Hatch of Big Spring, are in critical condition at the Roscoe Hospital.

Almond Calls Red Pullback Virtual Rout

TOYKO.—(P)—Doughboys of the U. S. Seventh Division knifed ahead Monday on the right flank of the 8th Army offensive in Central Korea to a point six miles north of Pangnim.

A patrol of the crack division met rifle and anti-air fire, but air observers reported the Reds were withdrawing.

Monday's action was the first time the Seventh Division, only American units to reach the Manchurian border, has been identified in combat since it withdrew from the Changjin Reservoir to the Hungnam beachhead in December.

The American Second Division, sloping north through the mountainous terrain on the left flank of the Seventh, reached a point 10 miles north of Chechon, its jumping off place when "Operation Killer" began last Wednesday.

The Second and Seventh were spearheading the cautious Tent Corps advance along the mountainous spines of Central Korea.

Retreating Reds fought only rear guard actions. Nevertheless, they lost another 1,861 killed and wounded Sunday as United Nations forces advanced as much as three and one-half miles.

Escape UN Planes

The Red pullback from a threatened UN trap was so rapid Lt. Gen. Edward M. Almond, Tenth Corps commander, called it "a virtual rout."

An estimated 14,000 Korean Reds escaped as a giant Allied pincer bogged down in deep mud left by heavy rains and an early thaw. They continued to flee northward Monday in groups of 100 to 2,000, pounded by U. S. fighter-bombers.

Communists also were pressed by UN infantrymen, sometimes so far in advance of supply lines they had to get food and ammunition from air drops or Korean peasants with pack horses.

But Red bulldozers, truck convoys slipping down from the north at night, and new entrenchments indicated the Communists were preparing to make a stand in the mountains ahead to halt the creeping advance of the 100,000 man UN army.

Similar defense preparations were observed around Seoul, Red-held former South Korean capital.

Small, Day-Long Fights

Three small, but day-long fights were reported on the eastern flank near Pangnim. Pangnim, now in Allied hands, is a road junction five miles north of Pyongyang. Associated Press Correspondent Nate Polowetzky reported a new Red counter-attack.

Blount Puts On Heat For Levy On Gas

AUSTIN.—(P)—Rep. R. E. Blount of Big Spring Monday demanded that the legislature start economizing only after "natural resources have kicked in their ante."

"The natural resource exploiters go about their normal, methodical and merry way, permissively raping the State of Texas," Blount said in a letter to all members.

His was the latest in a parade of statements and interviews by lawmakers recently on the subject of state finances. Mostly they have urged strict economy, saying Texans must choose between economy or new taxes.

"But why haven't any of these reports come mentioned a tax on the natural resources of gas, which is a possible solution to this vital and pressing problem?" Blount asked.

He said economy should not come at the expense of the state hospital inmates, the public school children, faithful state employees, or the young people in the colleges.

Blount suggested that the state would realize 100 million dollars a year in new revenue if it would set a minimum price of 15 cents per thousand cubic feet of gas, tax it 10 per cent and place a $5-a-ton tax on sulphur.

Month-Old Ceiling On Pay Raises May Be Raised Slightly

WASHINGTON.—(P)—The month-old ceiling on pay raises may be lifted upward a little Monday or Tuesday for the great majority of wage earners.

Eric Johnston, head of the Economic Stabilization Agency, was reported about ready to sign the formula, and informed officials predicted that in so doing he would order this further relaxation:

Wage boosts provided in "escalator" clauses would be honored up to June 30, provided they were written into contracts signed before the wage-price freeze of a month ago.

However, aides of Johnston denied reports there would be any "extensive" alteration of the formula to him ten days ago by a 6-3 vote of the Wage Stabilization Board headed by Cyrus S. Ching.

That formula would permit an increase of up to 10 per cent since January 15, 1950. It would remain in force until midyear, when a revision is scheduled, with revision if that is found necessary.

Collazo Goes On Trial For Killing White House Guard

WASHINGTON.—(P)—Oscar Collazo went on trial for his life Monday on a charge of killing a White House guard during an attempt to assassinate President Truman last November 17.

The 37-year-old Puerto Rican Nationalist, neatly dressed in a dark brown suit, was brought to the courtroom of Federal Judge T. Alan Goldsborough handcuffed and under heavy guard. The handcuffs were removed as he entered the room.

Collazo sat directly behind his three court-appointed attorneys, listening with apparent interest to the trial preliminaries. Two deputy marshals sat behind him.

Collazo faces a possible sentence of death in the electric chair if convicted on either of two counts in the indictment against him.

Bunn was riding with Myrick in the automobile and Elmore was driving a Homco chemical truck.

Navy To Launch Undersized Killer Submarine Friday

WASHINGTON —(AP)—The Navy will launch the first modern anti-submarine submarine—a small and deadly killer of its own kind—on Friday.

The K-1 (K for killer) will go down the ways at the Electric Boat Company, Groton, Conn.

Packed with the latest in electronic and sound detection gear and underwater weapons, the K-1 is only 195 feet long and displaces only 750 tons. This is small compared with the big fleet type submarines—311 feet and 1,500 tons.

However, the mission of the killer sub is not to roam far out in search of Naval and merchant ships but to hunt down and sink enemy submarines. Just about everything concerning the K-1, except her dimensions, is rated secret by the Navy.

Women Outnumber Men, Census Shows

WASHINGTON —(AP)—For the first time in U. S. census history, women outnumbered men in last Spring's big head count. The ratio: 1,000 women to 981 men.

This was one of the points in a report on the 1950 census made public Saturday night by the Census Bureau. Among the others:

The number of children under 10 years old increased 40 per cent between 1940 and 1950.

In the same decade, the number of persons over 65 increased 37 per cent.

Two out of every three Americans over 14 years of age are married.

During the 12 months which preceded the census, about one-sixth of the population moved from one house to another.

Pre-War Star Rosemary Lane Is A Post-War Homemaker

By ERSKINE JOHNSON NEA Staff Correspondent HOLLYWOOD—There's no movie comeback cooking for Rosemary Lane of the famous Lane sister trio who made pre-war movie headlines.

Rosemary, now the wife of UI make-up boss Buddy Westmore, debunks the career-and-happy marriage idea with: "You can't run a home and raise children and be in on what the children do and have a career too."

The Lane sisters — Rosemary, Priscilla and Lola — crashed the screen in "Four Daughters," with Gale Paige. Their last film together was "Four Mothers." With the exception of Lola, all took the title seriously.

Rosemary has a five-year-old daughter, Bridget, Priscilla just had her second baby and Gale has four children.

Katharine Hepburn and William Prince, her leading man in "As You Like It," aren't speaking off-stage. The feud started at a party when Kate challenged Bill to a wrestling match in front of the other guests. Kate lost the match. Why not team her with Gorgeous George?

'Macbeth' Has Attracted Great Stars Of Theater

Great thespians down through the years have found themselves irresistibly drawn to the roles of Macbeth and Lady Macbeth. The gradual disintegration of character under the goad of overweening, ruthless ambition presents a rich challenge to actors aspiring to mastery over difficult but supremely rewarding roles.

In Orson Welles' screen presentation of "Macbeth," William Shakespeare's timeless drama of treachery and violence in eleventh century Scotland, which will be shown at the Yucca Theater Wednesday and Thursday, Welles and radio star Jeanette Nolan essay the roles of the Scottish tyrant and his infamous consort.

The illustrious actor Burbage, who previously had held London spellbound with his rendition of Hamlet, played the title role of the play for the first time in the Bard's own Globe Theater on April 20, 1611. In 1744 the great David Garrick took the boards as Macbeth.

Much-loved, raffish Peg Woffington was a triumphant Lady Macbeth ten years later. The outstanding English actress Sarah Kemble Siddons reached her pinnacle as the female murderer in 1785, a role which was to remain her finest and the one in which she departed from the stage almost 30 years later.

Other theatrical great ones who have performed in "Macbeth" include Edmund Kean (1814); Edwin Forrest (1836); William Charles Macready (1820); Charlotte Cushman (1836); Henry Irving and Ellen Terry (1888) and Forbes-Robertson and Mrs. Henry Campbell (1898). In recent times there have been John Oliegud and Marita Hunt (1930); Charles Laughton and Flora Robson (1934); Laurence Olivier and Judith Anderson (1957); and Maurice Evans and Judith Anderson (1941).

The film production is presented here under the sponsorship of the Beta Sigma Phi Sorority, in cooperation with the theater management.

Typhus Among Chinese Reds Could Alter War's Course

By EDWIN F. JORDAN, M. D. Written for NEA Service

Recent news reports tell of a severe epidemic of typhus among Chinese Communist troops fighting in Korea. An Army spokesman was quoted as saying that the disease has "materially reduced their fighting capabilities." If this is so it would not be the first time that typhus had altered the course of human history.

Typhus is one of the great scourges of mankind which has periodically swept over armies or entire peoples sickening them by the thousands and killing them right and left. The epidemic form of the disease is carried by lice, those tiny creatures which are familiar to so many who fought in the first World War. But most of the armies were lucky that time, and typhus, except in the Middle East, was not as serious as many feared would be the case.

The actual cause of typhus is a tiny organism belonging to the group known as rickettsias, which are named after Howard Taylor Ricketts, who discovered them, and himself became a martyr to science by dying of one of these infections. The rickettsia of epidemic typhus is carried by lice, that of the murine typhus which is not epidemic but is a more constant problem, by fleas.

What About Allies? If typhus has attacked the Communist troops, are not those of the United Nations also in danger? Fortunately not much, because better methods of prevention are available. First in DDT and other insect poisons, it is possible to keep even combat soldiers pretty well free of lice. Second, there is now a good vaccine against typhus which serves as a protection.

Undoubtedly these measures are being used, and at the time of writing these words there have been no reports of typhus among the United Nations troops. Perhaps we are as far ahead in preventing illness and saving life as in inventing methods of human destruction. We must take what satisfaction we can from that.

Three Killed, Four Hurt As Truck Rams Into Funeral Cortege

SLATON, TEXAS —(AP)—A truck's trailer Sunday jackedknifed into a funeral procession in a blinding rain and three persons were killed and four hurt.

Killed near this South Plains city were Irene Salaz, four; Desiderio Salaz, 37, her uncle; and Luis Salaz, 45, her great uncle.

Injured were Tomitilla Salaz, about 25, the little girl's mother, two sisters, Gloria, two, and Virginia, three, and the great uncle's wife, Secundina, about 40.

They were on their way to the funeral of Pedro Salaz, 101. All were his descendants.

After ambulances carried away the dead and injured, the procession continued here for services for Salaz.

A car had stopped to let the funeral procession pass. Following it in the blinding rain was the truck, a semi-trailer. When the first car stopped the trailer jackedknifed into the Salaz car behind the hearse.

Don't Go Through Life ... Not Sick Enough To Stop Working; Not Well Enough To Work Well

Many people go through life not sick enough to stop working, but not well enough to work well. Some folks do something about it, others just talk a good game. Mrs. J. H. Digby, Cedar Glades Rd., Hot Springs, Ark., could offer a word of advice to those folks who postpone doing something to help themselves. Her advice would be ... take HADACOL for Mrs. Digby found that by taking HADACOL, she was giving her system Vitamins B1, B2, Niacin and Iron which it lacked. And taking HADACOL helped her overcome those deficiency-caused ailments; she keeps right on taking it now that she is feeling good, to keep those troubles away.

Here is what Mrs. Digby says: "I am 51 years old and I have suffered from stomach distress for some time with bloating and gas. I was weak and nervous and I couldn't sleep at night. I read in the paper about HADACOL. I started taking it and I have taken five large bottles. It helped me from the start and now I feel fine. I wish everybody that had stomach distress would try HADACOL. I can truthfully say it is fine." Copyright 1951, The Leblanc Corp.

Capitol Hill Generals

The most responsible lawmakers of both political parties agree it is wholly fitting and desirable that Congress press its views on the big question of sending a sizable force of American soldiers to Europe.

In the Senate hearings now getting under way, that program will be thoroughly examined. And no doubt the Senate's final attitude will be given concrete character through action on a formal resolution of some sort.

It is a military—not a political—decision to state that only a certain number of troops, let's say 100,000, should be sent to Europe. That might be a perfectly satisfactory total. But it's for the generals to say, not our senators.

The men in the Senate who today are contending it is their business are declaring in effect that our military men are unfit for their jobs. They are seeking to superimpose their judgments on those of the best military minds in this country.

Now if our military leaders really are as incompetent as this suggests, then we in America are in a very uncomfortable fix. We are in a position where we might have to fight a general war from the floor of the Senate and House.

Fortunately, though, the outlook is probably not that dark. In spite of the pronouncements of a growing force of Capitol Hill generals, there is a good chance that our military leaders really DO know their business.

When the test comes, the American people almost certainly will rest their confidence in the generals to decide military issues. For they understand that we are beyond hope of saving if the men who must guide our military destinies are not equipped for their responsibilities.

We Must Open Our Eyes

One of Russia's great advantages in dealing with the free world is the persistent reluctance of people outside the Iron Curtain to recognize a world conspiracy in Soviet plans.

Yet the evidence mounts in frightening mass. It may come from any quarter of the globe at any time. From Paris come reports that Russia may be getting strategic metals from the Belgian Congo, source of copper and the uranium used in atom bombs.

Then, down in troubled Yugoslavia, Marshal Tito learned to his sorrow that two German technicians he'd hired were Soviet agents (they'd posed as pro-Tito). The technicians inoculated hundreds of sorely needed cows, horses and pigs with poison, and escaped before being discovered.

These are but two incidents in the conspiracy that proceeds relentlessly everywhere, every day of the year. It's no small thing we're dealing with.

A Good Pair To Represent The Party

DREW PEARSON ON THE WASHINGTON MERRY-GO-ROUND

By The Bell Syndicate, Inc. Drew Pearson says: Government to control scarce metals down to last pound; This column will answer G.I.'s questions; Senators have affidavits on Mississippi 'job-selling' scandal.

WASHINGTON — Mobilization Boss Charles Wilson will assume drastic powers over aluminum, copper and steel, beginning the middle of June. He will put these strategic metals under a controlled material plan, which will give the government authority to regulate their use down to the last pound.

Wilson spelled out his plan behind closed doors to the joint congressional committee on defense production. "The controlled materials plan is one that will operate on scarce materials absolutely," the mobilization boss explained. "I mean, it will have the control of all the material in the particular line that is short."

However, Wilson added ruefully: "Once you start to control things, it is a terrific job. That is why I hate controls, and from the very bottom of my heart I hate controls."

The reason for this drastic control plan, Wilson said, was the dangerously short supply of aluminum, copper and steel in the face of the tremendous armament program. He warned that the steel shortage will be the most critical, but that the copper and aluminum picture is not so gloomy. For example, he reported: "We will continue to have an aluminum shortage for this current year of maybe as much as 180,000 or 190,000 tons."

"Yes sir," smiled Wilson. "Job-Selling" Scandal Here is the inside story on the Mississippi "job-selling" scandal. Mississippi's two senators have affidavits from 20 rural mail carriers, postmasters and contractors who say they were charged as high as $1,500 for jobs and favors. The senators' constituents claim to have been approached by representatives of the so-called Truman faction of the Democratic Party.

Jobs were sold at the following prices: $1,500 for rural mail carrier, a position not requiring Senate confirmation; $300 to $400 for acting postmaster (this payment is small, since postmasters must be confirmed by the Senate); $300 for county director of price stabilization. Contracts also paid $200 to be placed on a non-existent eligible list for war contracts. A Columbus, Miss., contractor reported he was warned his name would be put on a blacklist if he did not pay the fee.

JACOBY ON BRIDGE

By OSWALD JACOBY Written for NEA Service "Please tell us how an expert would have guessed this hand," asks a Detroit correspondent. "South won the opening club lead in dummy with the king of clubs and lost a finesse to the queen of hearts. West returned another club, knocking out dummy's ace."

"Declarer then drew two more rounds of trumps and led spades. East took the second round of spades with his ace and returned a third club. "South ruffed the third club and now had to lead diamonds. He decided to finesse the nine from dummy. This finesse lost, and declarer was defeated."

"How does an expert find out where the jack of diamonds is?" An expert doesn't find out who has the jack of diamonds, but he plays the hand in such a way that he doesn't care. One simple precaution will make the hand safe against any defense.

The play begins in the same way. Dummy wins the opening lead, and a trump finesse loses to West. Dummy is then permitted to win the first round of spades. At this point, declarer must ruff one of dummy's clubs.

CARD Sense

Q—With both sides vulnerable, your partner deals and bids one spade. The next player passes. You hold: Spades K-8-4-2, Heart 6, Diamonds A-J-5-3, Clubs K-8-7-2. What do you do? A—Bid three spades. You get better than an average hand, together with fine trump support and a singleton. These values are worth a force to game.

WASHINGTON COLUMN

'Austerity' Period May Last Only Two Or Three Years

By PETER EDSON NEA Washington Correspondent

WASHINGTON—An American three-year plan of defense mobilization gradually is taking shape in Washington. The promise of good news in this is that it puts a limit on the period of belt-tightening.

Up to now the general consensus has been that there would have to be high taxes, controls and shortages for 10 years or more—as long as the cold war lasts.

In case of a shooting war, all bets of course would be off. Open Russian aggression in Western Europe would mean all kinds of austerity and sacrifice for the duration. Now barring war, defense planners now seem to feel that things should get better by 1954.

By the end of 1953, the bigger peacetime armed forces will be built up and fully equipped. American arms aid to Europe will have been completed. U. S. defense production lines, on a one-shift operation, will be able to keep the forces then mobilized fully supplied.

If war should break out in 1951 or 1952, the going might be tough. But if war does come, these production lines will be geared so that they can be shifted into high gear for a two or three-shift operation to support all-out mobilization.

'Posture of Defense' If war does not come, the outlook would be for maintaining what General Marshall has called "a posture of defense" on top of a normal, full-employment domestic economy. General Marshall has told Chairman Carl Vinson of Georgia, chairman of the House Armed Services Committee, that the defense budget eventually can be leveled off at around $3,000,000,000 a year.

So far, the Truman Administration has not done a very good job in explaining this program to the American people. Soon, however, C. E. Wilson director of defense mobilization, and Eric Johnston, director of economic stabilization, are expected to take to the airwaves. Their radio reports to the nation are expected to indicate that the present emergency doesn't have to last forever.

Back of this determination to find a way out is the general recognition that controls are unpopular and that their effectiveness eventually wears off. The remedy for this is to remove the causes which have made the controls temporarily necessary. This means first of all increasing the supplies of scarce materials so there will be enough for both military and civilian production. The 30 per cent shortage in aluminum is to be made up by increased production in 1952. As more aluminum becomes available, it will be used as a substitute for copper, now 15 to 20 per cent short. Steel, now 20 per cent short, may take longer to get in full supply. Synthetic rubber production will be expanded.

Old Boxy Inflation U. S. gross national product of goods and services now is running at the rate of $300,000,000,000 a year. The defense effort will take $50,000,000,000 of this for the next two years. But by the end of 1953 there is hope that gross national product will be $350,000,000,000 to take care of $50,000,000,000 defense program on top of a normal $300,000,000,000 civilian economy.

These figures are given at today's prices and do not take the inflationary factor into consideration. Checking that comprises the second part of any three-year plan. First requisite here is to increase the production of all agricultural commodities—food crops, livestock, cotton and wool. Prices cannot be brought down till there is greater supply.

Price controls can be effective for only a couple of years at the most. Whether or not the cost of living can be rolled back is problematical. Best that can be hoped for, realistically, is to stabilize prices at mid-Summer levels.

If price stabilization can be achieved in the next two years, then there is some chance that demands for new wage increases can be held to a minimum in the three-year period.

The Gold Mannequin By Myles Connolly

THE windows of "Jean Paul," uptight New York designer, offered a bright defiance to the chill, drizzly March day. The hats on their chaste pedestals were like flowers and birds, from a summer garden, and the saucy mannequins in their smart spring prints looked, if very much not too exacting, very much like debutantes on parade.

It was a brave front the windows put up. There was no question about that. But upstairs, in the apartment on the fourth floor where the owners of the shop lived, there was anything but brightness and bravery.

Mr. Paul Panciera, elegant, urbane, paced the deep carpet of the luxurious living room, nervously fingering his thin black moustache. His partner and chief model, Jean Roland, lounged listlessly in a great chair, her long, slender body limp and careless.

"It can't be," Mr. Panciera said. "It just simply can't happen to us." "But it has," the girl said emptily. "We're broke."

"Please don't put it that way, precious," Mr. Panciera's fine sensibilities were hurt. "It sounds so common, so plebeian." "Dear, dear," Mr. Panciera was distraught. "Why must we have to have money?"

"It's lovely stuff." The girl drew her body together, getting ready to rise. "Nice to have around. Nice to spend. Nice any way you look at it." "You are so materialistic, my sweet," Mr. Panciera complained.

"Darn tootin' I am." The girl rose languidly to her feet. "I'm going over to Cochet's and get my old job back." MR. PANCIERA was alarmed. "No, no. You're not going to walk out on me, are you?"

"Not!" She was cool, offhand. "Cochet's been calling for weeks now. He's offering me $50 an hour to model for him—" "But here you're a member of our firm," Mr. Panciera interrupted.

She laughed softly. "A member of the firm and broke. Excuse me, bankrupt." "Dear, dear," Mr. Panciera moaned again. "Even our conversation has become common. What has happened to our destiny? I don't understand it."

"I do. As a designer, Paul, you are a delightful conversationalist. You haven't sketched an idea in six months that anyone would look twice at except when it was on me, and then they weren't looking at the dress. You're just a plain, ordinary don. my love."

Jean Roland was the top model in Manhattan, an arresting young woman with a tall, slender body, haloed with silvered blonde hair.

Mr. Panciera shook his head sadly. "How I hate honesty," he said.

THE girl went into the back of the apartment, returned with a top coat. Mr. Panciera, in distress, faced her.

"This can't be, Jean," he said again. "This just simply can't be. It's completely too crude for people like you and me."

As he spoke the door buzzer sounded. Mr. Panciera went to the door, opened it. An office girl stood there with a large Manila envelope in her hand.

"This just came special delivery, registered," she said. "I thought it might be important." Mr. Panciera shrugged, took the envelope. "Nothing is important any more."

He closed the door and, looking at the envelope turned back to Jean. "Special delivery, registered. Well, somebody must still love us." "Another way of sending a bill probably," Jean was not interested.

Mr. Panciera read aloud the return address on the envelope. "Teresa, General Delivery, Cedarbrook, New York. It's nothing. Nothing. Just another nitwit who thinks we run a mail order house." He sighed, tossed the envelope unopened on to a table. "I thought perhaps it was destiny buzzing at the door just now."

"I think you'll hear the sheriff buzzing first," Jean went to the door. "So long, my love." She smiled her cool little smile, waved and went out.

Permian Basin Oil And Gas Log-

GCHSF survey and 10 miles west of Iran.

Spraberry Oil Is Recovered In Borden

Standard Oil & Gas Company No. 1 R. C. Miller, wildcat in North-Central Borden County, developed 800 feet of clean, sweet oil in the top of the Spraberry on a drillstem test from 8,270-8,426 feet.

A tentative top of that formation was called at 8,280 feet. Operator is now running electric log surveys at total depth of 8,468 feet.

On the drillstem test, the tool was open for two hours and 45 minutes.

NE-C Dawson Test Shutin For Fillup

James H. Snowden No. 1-30 Carrie S. Dean, indicated Spraberry discovery in Northeast - Central Dawson County 12 miles northeast of Lamesa, swabbed 79 barrels of oil with a slight trace of water during the last 24 hours tested.

The possible new field opener was shutdown Sunday at 5 p.m. for a 24-hour hole filling.

The production is coming from perforations opposite the Spraberry at 7,288-98 feet.

Operator probably will install a pumping unit after the next swabbing test and try to complete the No. 1-30 Dean as a pumping discovery.

Location is 660 feet from north and east lines of section 30, block 1, J. Pottevant survey.

Prospector Staked In SW Scurry Area

R-Y Oil Company of Miami, Okla., is to start drilling immediately on its No. 1 C. E. Trevey, prospector in the Sharon Ridge Clear Fork field of Southwest Scurry County.

It is to be drilled 330 feet from south and 2,141.2 feet from west lines of section 143, block 97, H&TC survey. That puts it seven miles northwest of Ira.

N-C Lea Wildcat Reports Oil On DST

Sharples Oil Corporation of Midland and Denver No. 1 Seth Alston, indicated Pennsylvanian discovery in North-Central Lea County, N.M., is drilling below 11,303 feet in that formation after a drillstem test from 11,103-11,303 feet.

The tester was open for three hours. Gas was at the surface in 22 minutes. Maximum gas volume was 30,000 cubic feet per day. Minimum was 13,000 cubic feet per day.

No fluid surfaced while the tool was open. Recovery was 684 feet of oil and gas-cut mud. It was from 20 to 50 per cent oil.

Open flowing pressure ranged from 120 to 280 pounds. Shutin pressure after 30 minutes was 1,470 pounds.

The prospector indicated as a discovery on a drillstem test from 11,168-11,268 feet. Recovery on that test was 1,420 feet of oil, heavily gas and mud cut. Gas was at the surface at the rate of 70,000 cubic feet per day in 17 1/2 minutes. The gas volume near the end of the test was 25,000 cubic feet per day.

Location is at the center of the southwest quarter of section 17-13a-35e and nine miles southwest of the town of Tatum.

Salt Water In Reef At NE Gaines Tester

Robert S. Brennard, Jr., of Midland, and Clarence L. Norworthy, Jr., of Dallas found salt water and no shows of oil or gas in the reef lime in their No. 1 Sarah Bice, Northeast Gaines County wildcat.

The water came in a drillstem test at 9,801-41 feet. The tester was open two hours. Recovery was 100 feet of drilling mud and 1,800 feet of salt water.

The prospector was drilling deeper. It was originally started to test the reef lime, or to go to 10,500 feet. No definite decision has yet been made as to how much deeper the wildcat will go. There were no shows of petroleum in the upper section of the reef.

Location is 660 feet from north and east lines of section 2, block C-31, psi survey. That makes the project one and one-half miles east of the Adair field, and five miles northwest of the Clear Lake field.

Top of the reef in the No. 1 Bice was picked at 9,462 feet. Elevation is 3,175 feet.

C-N Dawson Wildcat Drilling After DST

Amerasia Petroleum Corporation No. 1 Adcock, Central-North Dawson County wildcat, four miles northeast of Hindman, is drilling at 9,300 feet in lime after a drillstem test from 9,064-9,150 feet developed 1,806 feet of salt water.

The test was taken in the reef which was entered at 9,124 feet, elevation 3,002 feet. Contract destination of the No. 1 Adcock is 10,500 feet.

It developed salt water on a drillstem test in the Spraberry when that formation was drilled.

Drillite is 467 feet from south lines of section 106, block 34, D&SE survey, T-7-N.

Salt Water In Lime At NW Mitchell Test

Deep Rock Oil Corporation No. 1 Chester L. Jones, Northwest Mitchell County wildcat, had a slight show of gas and some salt water in a drillstem test of a lime stringer in the Pennsylvanian at 7,529-90 feet. There were no shows of oil.

The tester was open 90 minutes. Recovery was 90 feet of gas cut, rily drilling mud and 780 feet of muddy salt water.

The project went into shale at 7,591 feet and then entered another lime stringer at 7,718 feet. The lime continued to 7,728 feet, and operator is now running a drillstem test at 7,718-28 feet.

Interested observers say that the prospector has not yet reached the reef lime in the Pennsylvanian.

Location is 660 feet from north and 1,880 feet from west lines of section 61, block 20, Lavaca Navigation survey. The exploration was started under a permit to dig to 7,500 feet.

NW Scurry Explorer Slated For Plugging

The Wilshire Oil Company is preparing to plug and abandon its No. 1 Whitley, Northwest Scurry County wildcat, three miles south of Fluvanna.

This project had developed 15 barrels of oil in 12 hours of swabbing naturally, on perforated section at 5,575-5,810 feet.

Operator then treated those perforations with 500 gallons of acid. After the injection the section swabbed dry and showed only a small amount of gas. No more oil was produced.

Location was 660 feet from north and east lines of section 406, block 97, H&TC survey.

The wildcat drilled to the Ellenburger and made water in that formation. It did not log any shows of possible production in the Pennsylvanian.

W-C McCulloch Test Plugged, Abandoned

Frederick Oil Company of Dallas has plugged and abandoned its No. 1 Manueleta Shelton, wildcat in West-Central McCulloch County about eight miles northwest of Brady, at 1,567 feet.

The project topped the Ellenburger at 1,335 feet.

Location was 1,010 feet from south and 3,305.8 feet from east lines of section 107, H&TC survey.

WILL SPEAK—Claude L. Griffin of Oklahoma City will address the February meeting of the Permian Basin Section of the American Institute of Mining and Metallurgical Engineers at 6:30 p.m. in Odessa's Roski Club.

Midland To Join Rest Of Nation In Red Cross Campaign

Midland will join the rest of the nation next month to raise $25,000,000 needed to finance the greatest program in the 60-year-old history of the American Red Cross.

Midland County Red Cross workers now are laying plans for joining 1,500,000 other volunteers throughout the nation in conducting the fund-raising campaign.

E. Roland Harriman, national Red Cross chairman, points out that this 1961 goal represents an increase of 27 per cent over last year's quota.

"The $18,000,000 boost in this year's goal," he said, "is due entirely to the enormous load placed on the Red Cross by expanding military forces and by the civil defense program."

Chairman of the national drive is Brig. Gen. David Sarnoff, chairman of the board of Radio Corporation of America.

"The job to be done by the Red Cross for the military and for civil defense," said General Sarnoff, "plus maintaining its normal day-to-day activities, adds up to what can be the biggest task the Red Cross has ever undertaken."

DADDY RINGTAIL

Daddy Ringtail And Featherman Worries

By WESLEY DAVIS
"Worry! Worry! Worry! . . . And worry!" the Featherman said. He said it to Daddy Ringtail while he was sitting there on a log by the Elephant Path. The Featherman put his head down between his knees so that he could worry better. Daddy Ringtail sat down beside him. He knew that the Featherman's worries had something to do with feathers, for the Featherman, as everyone knows, liked feathers better than anybody, and nothing much else could ever worry him. "Worry! Worry! And worry!" the Featherman said. "Well now," Daddy Ringtail said, "maybe if you told me about it I could do something."

"It's my feathers," the Featherman said, "all the beautiful feathers I have in my nest."

"Is someone trying to get them?" Daddy Ringtail asked. The Featherman shook his head from one side to the other between his knees. "Nope," the Featherman said. "No one is bothering them yet, but Mr. Fixit is going to do it, I know."

Daddy Ringtail knew about Mr. Fixit, of course. Mr. Fixit is a very little man no bigger than your thumb. His name is Mr. Fixit because fixing things is his business. Why, Mr. Fixit always said that he could fix anything, put the leaves back on the trees of the forest, put feathers back on the birds! Feathers! Put feathers back on the birds! So that was what was worrying the Featherman, Daddy Ringtail decided. The Featherman was afraid that Mr. Fixit would get all the feathers and put them back on the birds. "Did Mr. Fixit say he was going to get your feathers?" Daddy Ringtail asked. "Nope," the Featherman said, "but he might get them." Daddy Ringtail laughed. "Yes," he said, "there are so many unhappy things that might happen, but we can't go around worrying about them."

The Featherman thought about this. Maybe Daddy Ringtail was right. There were many unhappy things that might happen, but most of them never had happened. "Maybe you can save your worrying," Daddy Ringtail said, "and use it if he ever does bother your feathers." The Featherman decided that it might be better to save his worrying until he really needed it—when trouble really came—and that's a good thing for anyone to do, I guess. Happy day! Record Attendance Expected At K&F Meet Monday Night

A record attendance is expected at the dinner-meeting of the Midland Knife and Fork Club Monday night, when Mr. and Mrs. Robert Magidoff, famed correspondents, writers and lecturers, will be the guest speakers.

The meeting is scheduled at 7 p.m. in the Midland High School Cafeteria. President Carroll L. Thomas will preside.

For years, Magidoff was one of the outstanding foreign correspondents in Russia, having been the top NBC broadcaster in Moscow during most of the time.

He returned to Russia a bit later and he met his wife there. He reported the entire World War II from inside Russia, made 14 trips to the Soviet-German frontier and covered the lend-lease shipments from the United States to Russia via the Persian Gulf.

His wife came to the United States in 1944, becoming a citizen the next year and speaking for the United War Relief during the balance of the fighting. She is a well-known writer in her own right.

"We cannot maintain such forces by voluntary enlistments," he added.

Besides providing huge numbers of men through the draft, Bradley said, there is an urgent need for a system that will provide training of others through reserve components.

Representative Cole (R-NY) asked Bradley whether he sees any hope of cutting the military manpower goal in the foreseeable future.

The general replied that world tension has not eased in recent months and he thinks there is "little chance that the ominous threat to our security will decrease."

"We mustn't be lulled" "Despite the peace talk going around," Bradley testified, "we're in just as much of an emergency now as we were six months ago. We mustn't be lulled into false security."

The five-star general said one of the big aims of the military now is a plan of rotation of troops to relieve battle-weary fighters in Korea. He said this will be put into effect as soon as manpower requirements are met.

The House committee tentatively has approved a compromise which Chairman Vinson (D-Ga) said would authorize induction of youths at 18 1/2 with the understanding they would not be sent overseas until they turn 19.

Formal Organization Of Midland's Cancer Clinic Is Completed

Completion of formal organization was announced Monday for the Midland Cancer Clinic, which opened four weeks ago at the Midland Memorial Hospital.

Selection of the 12 shareholders of the organization was announced as members of the staff prepared to meet Monday night in the Nurses Home at the hospital to hear an address by Dr. Ernest Muirhead, Dallas, of the Southwest Medical School.

Invitations to this meeting have been sent to 225 doctors in 30 West Texas counties.

The organization of the clinic itself is patterned after that of the Midland Memorial Hospital.

The 12 shareholders include nine doctors and three laymen, with Jack Wicker as chairman of the group. The doctors include Dr. Fred W. Gaarde, Dr. Tom C. Bobo, Dr. Henrie E. Mast, Dr. H. B. Johnson, Dr. C. S. Britt, Dr. James H. Chapple, Dr. J. S. Roden, Dr. L. W. Leggett and Dr. Kurt Leksich, clinic director.

The laymen are Wicker, Winston Hull and M. L. McGee.

Purpose Cited The clinic, which already has attracted many out-of-city patients, was endorsed February 15 at Big Spring at a meeting of the Six County Medical Society.

With the stated purpose of being organized to "recognize and diagnose cases of malignant growth," the clinic has set out the following policy:

1. Appointments for examination and investigation shall be made through the family physician or company physician.

2. Charges for diagnostic service (laboratory, pathology, X-ray and biopsy) shall be made on an expense basis only. Consulting professional services are voluntary.

3. It is planned to accept indigent cases within the limits of funds available.

4. Upon completion of the investigation, a joint decision will establish diagnosis and treatment. The recommendations are to be submitted to the referring physician without delay.

5. For the purpose of keeping the staff members of the clinic informed on the current advancement of the cancer problem, it is planned to have an outstanding research worker as a guest speaker each month.

Midlander's Father Dies At Ballinger

BALLINGER—A. C. Willingham, 65, Runnels County farmer and father of C. H. Willingham of Midland, died Saturday in a San Angelo hospital.

He was born at Old Runnels, first county seat of Runnels County, Sept. 23, 1885, and was married to Vida Estell Compton of Ballinger, Dec. 5, 1909. He had been a member of the First Christian Church of Ballinger since boyhood.

Funeral services were held Sunday afternoon here, with the Rev. L. A. Isenbooth, pastor of the First Christian Church, officiating. Interment was in the Evergreen Cemetery.

Survivors include the widow; three sons, Leonard of Coleman, C. H. Midland and Ray of Houston; a brother, R. E. Ballinger; a sister, Mrs. J. Whit Patterson, Ballinger, and six grandchildren.

Hearing—

She added that negroes had served "many times" on petit jury panels. Former jury commissioners summoned included J. D. Hunter, T. P. Tarwater and T. Paul Barron.

"Was the selection of a negro ever discussed by the jury commissioners?" asked Britt.

"I believe the question came up," answered Hunter, "when one of them asked if we knew of any negro qualified to serve. No one knew of any."

Similar testimony came from the other two.

"Have you any jury commissioner ever showed any discrimination against negroes, Mexicans or any other race," asked Shafer of Tarwater.

"No, sir," answered Tarwater. Barron said he didn't "recall any negro's name ever coming up; we took them as we came to them."

In the defense motion, Woodbery's attorneys said that exclusion of negroes from grand jury service was in violation of the 14th Amendment to the U. S. Constitution.

Shafer asked that the motion be denied on the grounds that the array of the grand jury, which returned the murder indictment, never had been challenged, and that the allegations stated in the motion itself "are untrue."

Woodbery is charged in the slaying last year of his aunt.

Allies Gain—

Fifteen miles to the west, fighter-bombers found many targets near Haanlung, where large Communist concentrations were reported. An air strike ended a skirmish between an American platoon and a withdrawing North Korean force six miles northwest of Haanlung on the road to Hoengsong.

Planes and artillery helped South Koreans recapture a ridge overlooking Hoengsong, from which grenade-throwing Reds had driven them the day before.

Six miles to the west, two counter-attacking Chinese battalions temporarily had halted a UN advance Sunday. The fight was to keep the Allies off the road leading from Hoengsong toward Seoul, 50 miles to the west.

This is in the Ninth Corps sector, where Marine Maj. Gen. Oliver P. Smith became temporary commander. He succeeds Maj. Gen. Bryant E. Moore, who died Saturday after his helicopter crashed.

The slowdown in the Allied advance came as General Almond announced his Tenth Corps had destroyed the immediate effectiveness of two North Korean corps that drove on Chechon last week.

"We believe the Fifth Corps is out of food and ammunition," Almond said, "and that the shiny new Third Corps—the hell pounded out of them—doesn't have many soldiers left."
