Mac Defends Views On Far East

Defendant Admits Holdup Of Western Union Office Here

Twenty-two-year-old Jimmy Parks threw himself on the mercy of a 12-man 70th District Court jury Thursday morning.

In a drama-packed session before Judge R. W. (Bob) Hamilton, the dark-haired Air Force veteran admitted holding up the Western Union office in Midland last November.

And he added that he had committed two other armed robberies in Odessa and passed a number of forged checks in half a dozen West Texas cities and towns.

"I know I was wrong," he testified as the final witness in his own defense, after friends and members of his family had asserted he had been a model boy.

"When I sobered up I knew I had to pay the price."

"And now," asked Defense Counsel W. G. Abbott, "you expect to be punished?"

"Yes, sir," answered Parks. "I expect to be punished and I want to get it all behind me."

Wife Expecting Baby
"My wife is going to have a baby now. I want to see that baby sometime. I want to come out of prison and see my baby, with a clean record."

A few minutes after Parks concluded his testimony, District Attorney W. O. Shafer said the case was ready to close and the case was expected to go to the jury Thursday afternoon.

The son of an Oklahoma bank robber, Parks said he "had lived under that shadow," and when his wife left him last Fall "I just didn't care anymore what happened."

The morning session was taken up by the defense, with the state resting its case Wednesday afternoon after calling only two witnesses to the stand.

Held Up At Gunpoint
They were Nancy Poore, the night manager of the Western Union office, who was held up at gunpoint last November 4, and Texas Ranger John Wood, who returned Parks to Midland after he surrendered to officers in Carlsbad, N. M., two weeks after the robbery.

The first defense witnesses were Carl Rushing and Roy Fitzgerald, two Plains ranchers, who testified they had known the youth for nine years and that his reputation was good.

"This is the first thing I ever knew Jimmy to be into," said Rushing.

Similar testimony came from George Lantrip, Plains, field superintendent for the Plymouth Oil Company.

Then came Park's grandmother, gray-haired Mrs. J. R. Newell, who had raised him from the time he was 13 months old, when his mother and father were separated.

She said Parks had been a good student in school and a good boy at home.

"Until he went to the Army, he never took a drink of whiskey and

UN Patrols Probe Area Near Seoul

TOKYO —(P)— Allied tank-infantry patrols, fanning northward out of Seoul, fought a series of sharp engagements Thursday with Chinese Reds roughly 10 miles from the old South Korean capital.

One patrol went into Uijongbu, key point some 11 miles north of Seoul, against only minor Red resistance.

Another patrol, southwest of Uijongbu, brought back to United Nations lines two Allied tanks that had been abandoned previously.

The day's most sizable action was a two-hour fight east-northeast of Seoul. An Allied patrol killed an estimated 200 men and brought back 21 prisoners after a brisk fight.

Red Forces Regroup
"We probably killed a lot more than 200, but we only reported what we actually knew," the patrol commander related.

Still another patrol northwest of Seoul ran into the vanguard of an estimated Red division.

From the pattern of the day's skirmishes, an American staff officer said the Communists appeared to have established a line about 10 miles north of Seoul which they hoped to hold while regrouping for a new drive.

While the Reds were digging in, the officer warned, "They are not going on the defensive—the enemy has not quit yet."

In the air, two American F-80 Shooting Star jets were downed by Red gunfire.

On the central front, Allied ground troops fought a six-hour skirmish with 150 Reds dug in atop

Navy Man Is Killed In Crash

A 39-year-old Navy enlisted man was killed instantly and his buddy critically injured Wednesday night when their automobile collided with a truck four miles west of Midland on U. S. Highway 80.

The victim was identified as Charles Rice Harless, San Juan, Texas, whose body was crushed badly in the head-on collision.

In a critical condition in Midland Memorial Hospital Thursday was Frank Newton Wyatt, 27, Smithville, Texas.

Wyatt suffered a fractured skull, fractured jaws, fractured legs and chest injuries.

Enroute To California
Deputy Sheriff F. S. Buckalew, who investigated the mishap along with State Highway Patrol John White of Odessa, said the two apparently were returning from sick leaves to the U. S. Naval Hospital at Mare Island, Calif.

Buckalew said they apparently were attempting to pass a line of other automobiles as they drove west.

The driver of the huge van-type truck, headed in the opposite direction, saw them coming and brought his vehicle to a stop.

The passenger car, said the officer, tried to swerve to avoid the collision but spun into the truck's side, crushing in the driver's side of the automobile.

The truck driver, whose name was not learned, was not injured.

Kermit Prepares To Welcome 600 On 'Herb Petry Day'

KERMIT — This Permian Basin city is planning a gala Western welcome to more than 600 persons expected here Saturday for a "Herb Petry Day," sponsored by the Lions Club.

Petry is president of Lions International.

Delegations from all of West Texas are expected.

A chuck wagon dinner will be served in the new high school gymnasium and Petry will make an address. Other program numbers are being arranged.

The Kermit Chamber of Commerce is working in close cooperation with the Lions Club in preparation for the event.

District governors of all Lions units in the state have been invited.

Thundershowers Dampen East Texas

By The Associated Press
A warm sun boosted temperatures over most of the state Thursday after the mercury sank to a chilly 34 degrees at Dalhart Wednesday night.

Skies were clear in West Texas, but the coastal area was cloudy and most of East Texas was partly cloudy. Scattered thundershowers were forecast for the extreme east portion of the state.

More than half an inch of rain fell in the Houston area early Thursday. In the 24 hours ended at 6:30 a. m. Austin had 1.5 inch, San Antonio 1.2, Beaumont .16, Lufkin .08, Bryan .12 and Tyler a trace.

Heavy rains fell in the Luling area Wednesday, with some hail. No damage was reported.

Midland National Bank Doubles Its Capital Stock

The Midland National Bank Thursday doubled its capital stock, increasing it from $300,000 to $600,000 by the sale of additional stock to present stockholders.

The announcement was made following receipt of an order from the comptroller of the currency in Washington, D. C., approving the increase.

The Midland National's surplus totals $275,000, and its undivided profits and reserves, $219,000, bringing its total capital structure to $1,094,000.

Deposed General Says Staff Chiefs Backed His Plans

WASHINGTON —(P)—Gen. Douglas MacArthur testified Thursday the joint chiefs of staff recommended last January 12 a naval blockade of Red China, air operations over Manchuria and supply support of Chinese Nationalists.

MacArthur told senators in testimony behind closed doors that the joint chiefs had presented to the secretary of Defense on that date the exact recommendations he made to Congress April 19 for prosecution of the Korean war.

In that speech to Congress, MacArthur had said he understood his views were shared in the past by the chiefs of staff from the military standpoint.

The Defense Department has issued a statement saying the White House had authorized it to say President Truman's decision to fire MacArthur from his commands was unanimously approved by his principal military and civilian advisers.

MacArthur testified to the Senate Armed Services and Foreign Relations Committees. They are making an inquiry into his dismissal and into Far Eastern policy.

MacArthur predicted that a few ground troops could wind up the fighting in Korea if backed up by the air and naval effort against Red China which he has urged.

Quotes Recommendations
MacArthur said the January 12 views he attributed to the joint chiefs were arrived at in conference between his headquarters and Washington, adding:

"I was in full agreement with them then, and now."

The five-star general quoted to the senators the following recommendations he said were presented by the joint chiefs to the secretary of Defense:

"That we were to continue and intensify our economic blockade of trade with China."

"That we were to prepare now to impose a naval blockade of China and place it into effect as soon as our position in Korea is stabilized or when we have evacuated Korea."

Deck Hulcy Named USCC President

WASHINGTON —(P)— Dechard A. (Deck) Hulcy, 59, who started as a poor Texas farm boy and became head of a big gas company, is the new president of the United States Chamber of Commerce.

Hulcy was elected Wednesday to succeed Otto A. Seyferth of Muskegon, Mich.

The Dallas executive is president of the Lone Star Gas Company and also president of the American Gas Association, which speaks for the gas utility industry.

Among new regional directors of the chamber is R. H. Nichols, publisher of the Vernon, Texas, Daily Record.

Hulcy was born on a Texas farm. His formal education didn't go beyond the eighth grade. But he educated himself through correspondence courses. In 1920, he went to work for Lone Star Gas as a clerk.

In 1940, he became president of the company. Since then it has doubled in size.

Three times Hulcy has been president of the Dallas Chamber of Commerce. He had been a director of the U. S. Chamber five years and was vice president last term.

Cothran Visits VFW Post Here

James W. Cothran, national junior vice commander-in-chief of the Veterans of Foreign Wars, visited the Midland VFW Post Wednesday night while enroute to the New Mexico state convention in Hobbs.

The national officer was met at the Air Terminal by Midland VFW leaders, including John D. Henderson, post commander; Leonard Miller, state deputy chief of staff; Clint Creech, senior vice commander; Wilburn Ray, junior vice commander; and Pat McMullan, past commander.

Following inspection of the Midland post, the group was given a steak dinner at the Ranch House by L. M. Freels, a VFW member. The Midland group accompanied Cothran to Hobbs late Wednesday night.

Cothran, whose home is in Bishopville, S. C., plans to return to Texas the last week in June to attend the state VFW meeting in Dallas.

Sohio To Dig Four Spraberry Wildcats In Midland Basin

Sohio Petroleum Company has staked locations for wildcats to test the Spraberry sand in four counties. The prospectors are all to be in the Spraberry Trend regions of the Midland Basin.

They are to be in Southeast Midland, Southwest Glasscock, Northwest Reagan and Northeast Upton Counties.

The Southeast Midland venture is to be Sohio No. 3 D. L. Hutt, et al, trustees. It will be 660 feet from south and east lines of section 6, block 37, T-4-S, T&P survey. It is projected to 7,500 feet.

The drillsite is approximately two miles northwest of the nearest completed producer on the northeast side of the Driver-Spraberry field.

In Glasscock County
Sohio No. 1 R. S. Davenport will be the Southwest Glasscock County wildcat.

It is 660 feet from south and west lines of section 14, block 37, T-5-S, T&P survey. That makes it 22 miles northeast of the opener of the Welner - Floyd - Spraberry field, which is in the extreme northeast corner of Upton County.

No. 1 Davenport is projected to 7,900 feet and will start operations at once.

On Williams Land
The Northwest Reagan County prospect will be Sohio No. 1 E. F. Williams, et al. It is located 660 feet from south and west lines of section 19, block 36, T-5-S, T&P survey.

That makes it four miles east of the Welner-Floyd-Spraberry field, and three miles southeast of the location of Sohio No. 1 Davenport in Glasscock County.

The No. 1 Williams is slated to dig to 7,800 feet and it is to start operations within 30 days.

In Northeast Upton
Sohio's Northeast Upton County prospect is to be that concern's No. 1 Ralph W. Clark. It is located 660 feet from north and west lines of section 11, block N, HE&WT survey.

That makes it two and one-half miles northwest of the Pembroke field and 10 miles southwest of the Welner-Floyd-Spraberry area.

It is scheduled to dig to 8,100 feet, or production in the Spraberry at a lesser depth. Drilling is to begin in the near future.

Martin Prospect Is To Try To Complete

Union Sulphur & Oil Corporation is moving off drilling rig from its No. 1 Snyder & Arnett, Central-South Martin County wildcat and will then make production tests and try to complete the project as an oil well and the discovery of a new Spraberry oil field.

This exploration, located four miles north of the Germania field, and four miles southwest of the town of Stanton had swabbed 15 barrels of new oil, cut with 10 per cent salt water in three hours.

From Spraberry
That production is from the Spraberry pay between the top of that formation at 7,184 feet and the total depth at 7,245 feet.

That zone, which is in open hole, had been hydraulically fractured with 1,500 gallons.

The 7-inch liner is cemented at 7,160 feet. The top of the Spraberry at 7,184 feet is on a datum of minus 4,505 feet.

At total depth of 7,345 feet the No. 1 Snyder & Arnett is 128 feet above the total depth of the deepest producer from the Spraberry so far completed in the Germania field, four miles to the south.

Some Water In Germania
That well has not found the bottom hole water in the Spraberry. Interested observers point out that most of the Spraberry oil wells in the Midland Basin make a little water from thin streaks scattered through the oil column. The water shows a gradual decrease as the well are produced.

The Union Sulphur & Oil wildcat is showing a good fluid fill up and is showing a fair amount of gas.

Operators who are most interested in the project think it has a fair chance to make a commercial oil well from the pay zone already penetrated.

May Drill Deeper
After the 7,184-7,245 foot section is tested fully the prospect may be drilled deeper. It should have at least another 100 feet of scattered Spraberry pay, according to interested observers.

Location is 660 feet from north and west lines of the southwest quarter of section 30, block 36, T-1-S, T&P survey.

SW Youkum To Get 5,800-Foot Wildcat

Two miles northwest of production in the extreme northwest edge of the Wasson field of Southwest Youkum County, George G. Johnson and B. A. Ray staked location for their No. 1 Fillingim which is to be drilled as a 5,800-foot wildcat.

Drillsite is 660 feet from south and east lines of the northwest quarter (Continued On Page Eight)

Mass X-Ray Search For Tuberculosis To Start Here June 23

A mass X-ray search for tuberculosis in Midland County by the State Department of Health was set for June 23 through July 5, at a meeting here Wednesday night.

Charles H. Hoover, Austin, field representative of the tuberculosis division of the state organization, met here with members of the Midland County Tuberculosis Association, Midland County Health Department and the Midland County Medical Society.

Dr. Lex B. Smith and Dr. F. E. Sadler were named to a committee to arrange for additional sponsorship of the campaign here and to nominate an overall chairman.

Hoover said the unit to be set up here could X-ray more than 2,000 persons a day if the response was that great.

Additional committees to aid in the survey here will be named within a few days, according to Dr. Smith.

Attending the Wednesday night meeting in addition to Dr. Smith were: Morris Howard, Fred B. Rhodes, Mrs. Annie Ford, Dr. Fred Gaarde, Dr. and Mrs. T. J. Melton, Mrs. Johnnie Starr, Mrs. Wright Cowden, Mrs. Cothran Hiett and Mrs. Lennie H. Davidson. The latter is executive secretary of the Midland County Tuberculosis Association.

Mrs. Plummer, 89, Dies; Rites Friday

Mrs. Lorlane Plummer, 89, of Midland died Wednesday night in Stanton following a lengthy illness.

Funeral services will be held at 10 a. m. Friday in the Newline W. Ellis chapel, with interment in Greenwood cemetery.

Born May 20, 1861, in Louisiana, Mrs. Plummer moved with her husband to Midland more than 25 years ago.

A granddaughter, Mrs. Virgil Casbeer, of Midland, is among the survivors.

Other survivors include a son, Wright Odell, Delhi, Calif.; a daughter, Mrs. Molly Creel, San Jose, Calif.; and a number of grandchildren.

Winkler To Vote On Liquor Saturday

KERMIT — Winkler County voters Saturday will say yes or no in a special liquor election.

The county presently is "wet" for both beer and whiskey sales.

No spirited campaign by either side has been evident.

Mrs. Clarke Is Member Of Committee

Mrs. R. L. Clarke of the Midland Palette Club was chosen as one of 16 members of the educational evaluation committee which recently rated San Marcos Academy. The committee included instructors, librarians, deans, special directors and superintendents from Austin, San Antonio and nearby towns.

Mrs. Clarke's task was to evaluate the school's program in terms of the educational philosophy adopted by the academy. The committee used the "D" and "J" forms of "The Evaluative Criteria," 1950 edition, as the basis for its ratings.

The visiting committee was entertained by special student assemblies, a cadet review and a semi-formal dinner in the senior dining hall.

During her stay Mrs. Clarke was the guest of her sister, Mrs. Margaret Gordon, secretary to the president of the academy. She also visited her nephew, Jimmy Gordon, a lieutenant in the junior cadet battalion. Mrs. D. C. Coleman accompanied Mrs. Clarke on her trip.

The academy received a rating of 3.6 out of a possible five, with a three rating classified as good.

Callers were John M. Mills, R. F. Rood, Charley Blacklock, L. E. Floyd, Hollis Newnam, G. N. Donovan, Jay Johnson and Dell Taylor. Guests were Paul Neuneyer, Gloria Hicks, Helen Short, Martha Nelle Chastain, Gerry Chastain, Linnie Davidson, Mrs. Annie Ford, Mrs. Cotter Hiett, Lu Wertha Hiett and Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Tuttle.

Approximately 50 members were present.

Highway Patrol Emergency

Right here in oil-rich Texas, citizens will receive a fourth less service from the Highway Patrol between now and September 1.

That is the stern announcement of Col. Homer Garrison, chief of the state's Department of Public Safety, in disclosing that operation of State Highway Patrol cars has been reduced 25 per cent because of insufficient funds.

He said the cut will affect only the actual patrolling, which is a most important phase of the department's duties.

Colonel Garrison might have added the period from May 1 to September 1 perhaps is the time when highway patrolling is needed most. Thousands upon thousands of Texas automobiles will be on the highways, along with additional thousands from out of state.

It is the vacation period and it is most unfortunate that highway patrolling will be curtailed during the time of peak travel.

A shortage of funds caused the curtailment, according to Colonel Garrison, who blames the situation on rising costs in all kinds of operation. He said it is something which simply could not be anticipated. Appropriations for the new fiscal year will not be forthcoming until September 1.

What is to be done in the meantime? Colonel Garrison has no alternative but to curtail operations.

It seems, however, that an emergency appropriation might be granted by the Legislature to relieve the critical financial situation in the State Department of Public Safety. Economy surely must be practiced, and we are for more of it, but certain services must be provided.

In this case, human lives are at stake and funds should be provided to meet the emergency.

Our highways should be better patrolled than ever during the Summer months when travel is heaviest.

Sydney R. Montague, a former member of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police who addressed the Midland Knife and Fork Club recently, hit the nail on the head when he said that Texas Rangers do a superb job, but are handicapped by the lack of operating funds, "even in wealthy Texas." He went on to say that Texas seems to provide ample funds for most everything else but law enforcement.

Funds should be provided the Department of Public Safety so it may go forward instead of backward in highway patrolling and in all phases of law enforcement.

DREW PEARSON ON THE WASHINGTON MERRY-GO-ROUND

(Copyright, 1951, By The Bell Syndicate, Inc.)
Drew Pearson says: House committee withholds important testimony on Chiang Kai-Shek; Taft found MacArthur politically costly; Herbert Hoover had his general.

WASHINGTON — Locked in the files of the House Foreign Affairs Committee is dynamite-laden evidence by a former adviser to Generalissimo Chiang Kai-Shek, which would be of great interest to the MacArthur-Truman debate if it were made public.
Secret testimony was given April 6, 1949, before the Foreign Affairs Committee by Maj. Gen. David G. Barr, former military adviser to Chiang. At that time Barr testified, among other things, that Chiang's staff officers were incompetent, lazy, derelict and in some cases downright dishonest. He described the surrender of some Manchurian cities to the Communists by Chiang's general as so suspicious as to raise possible doubts of a sell-out to the enemy. In some cases, Chiang's staff officers were not even present when the troops under them surrendered.
General Barr also told how great quantities of American equipment which we supplied the Nationalist forces fell into Communist hands, and in turn made the Red conquest of China much easier and quicker.
In one case a big allied supply base at Chinchow was left virtually and mysteriously undefended. Considering the amount of American equipment stored there, the actions of the Nationalist Chinese had all the earmarks of a sellout to the Communists who shortly thereafter captured it. It was not long before all Manchuria fell to the Communists.
General Barr testified that he believed Chiang himself was honest, but that his troops, lacking leadership, long ago had lost the will to fight. For a while the war against the Communists on the Chinese mainland simply depended upon how rapidly Mao Tse-Tung's men wanted to travel.
For reasons best known to himself, John Kee of the House Foreign Affairs Committee has been sitting on this testimony two years.
Note — Another witness who could shed great light on Chiang Kai-Shek's fighting qualities and his real feeling toward the United States is Col. James McHugh, retired Marine Corps officer, McHugh was aide to Chiang Kai-Shek during the war, speaks Chinese, and is one of the few Americans who have written a textbook in the Chinese language. Experts such as Colonel McHugh and General Barr, who have lived in China and know Chiang Kai-Shek intimately, should be called as witnesses before the Armed Services Committee.

Friends of Senator Taft report that the senator's visit with General MacArthur at the Waldorf Tower, New York, netted only two things — Taft's firm conviction that MacArthur meant what he said about keeping out of politics, and second, that the general could out-talk the rather loquacious senator from Ohio.
Taft went to see MacArthur to find out discreetly whether the general had any political intentions; and second, if not, to lay some diplomatic groundwork so that the general might later get on the Taft bandwagon.
MacArthur was cordial, but politically negative. He gave Taft a shortened version of his congressional speech, quoting it in such verbatim detail that it almost seemed as if he had memorized it. Taft, who is no mean talker himself, hardly could get a word in edgewise.
Taft's friends say he did not tell the general that he, the senator, was a candidate for the presidency though he did hint that the Republicans were most grateful to MacArthur for what he had done and that they certainly would want him to be a leading defense planner if they won in 1952.

However, MacArthur was noticeably cool toward every political opponent, and in effect repeated his ambition to "fade away."
Herbert Hoover, who has been the chief confidante of General MacArthur during the present big debate, paradoxically was on the other end of a somewhat similar situation when he was President of the United States.
Hoover made the mistake of ordering the court-martial of Maj. Gen. Smedley D. Butler, a popular Marine Corps figure, after Butler had stated in a lecture that Benito Mussolini, then dictator of Italy, had run over a child with his car but failed to stop. General Butler's court-martial was ordered after Italian Ambassador Di Martino had protested officially.
But immediately there arose a tremendous outcry from the American press and public, and for weeks Hoover was the butt of possibly more scathing criticism than Harry Truman.
The situation was somewhat comparable to the present MacArthur debate in that the admirals did not like General Butler any more than some of the leaders in the Pentagon love General MacArthur.
It also was significant that Hoover's popularity at that time had sunk to an extremely low ebb, comparable to that of Truman's today.
In the end, Hoover did what Harry Truman has not done. He abjectly surrendered and called off General Butler's court-martial.
Note—Hoover privately has been something of an admirer of President Truman, extolled his virtues at a Gridiron Club dinner, and has expressed private appreciation of the fact that Truman brought him back to Washington in various advisory capacities after the thirteen-year, anti-Hoover boycott by FDR.

JACOBY ON BRIDGE

Yesterday we showed how to bid with a hand that is too strong for one no-trump but too weak for two no-trump. You bid one of a suit and then jump in no-trump at your second turn. Today we show the exception to that rule.

If South responds with one of a suit, North jumps to two no-trump. When South makes the weak response of one no-trump, North raises to two no-trump.
Note that this raise shows a very strong hand. North knows that South has very little, but he is still willing to invite a game. This takes real power.
South has a trifle more than might be expected. He knows that North has roughly twice the value of an average hand. This is just right, for North actually does have two aces, two kings, two queens, two jacks, and two tens.

In the play South makes the contract by refusing the first diamond trick. He takes the second trick with dummy's king of diamonds and can develop either hearts or clubs, as he pleases.
For example, if declarer knocks out the ace of clubs, East cannot return a diamond. Hence South can win any return and knock out the ace of hearts without a care in the world. Even if declarer tackles hearts first, all is well. West takes his ace and continues diamonds to establish his suit. However, West can never regain the lead to take his tricks.

See how different things would be if South were foolish enough to win the first trick with the king of diamonds. South's natural play, then, is to lead clubs, and down he goes.
East takes the club ace and leads his remaining diamond. Now West's suit is established, and he still has the ace of hearts as the entry to it.
South can make his contract in any case if he tackles hearts before clubs—but how can he guess which ace to knock out first? By refusing the first trick he spares himself a guess.

OPS Specialist To Be Here On May 9

Price specialist Alton Taylor of the district office of Price Stabilization in Lubbock will be in Midland May 9 to assist businessmen of this area in complying with the federal pricing program.
Taylor is a specialist in the food and restaurant branch of the OPS but he will be able to give information concerning other regulations, particularly the general ceiling price regulation.
The OPS office plans to have a price specialist in Midland every Wednesday to assist businessmen of this area. Specialists from different branches will rotate in order to cover completely the regulations within the shortest possible time.
All businessmen are invited to consult with the OPS representatives regarding specific problems.

KILLER'S PACE BY JULIUS LONG

He was waiting for me with this. I took out the nickel-plated revolver and passed it over to Merica.
"I took it away from him, and the excitement was too much for his heart. Or his blood pressure. Anyway, he killed Frannie Martin—that's certain. He heard me promise to turn in the killer in 24 hours, and he figured I had the goods on him."
MERICA eyed me disdainfully. "You're off the beam, Marshall. Prater couldn't have killed Frannie Martin. We know all about that mink coat Prater gave her. He looked sure-fire when we found out he was at the club that night. He, Wertheim, his sales manager, and two prospects. They all sat through the first show. Then they left. Later they came back and watched the second show, Prater and the two prospects, that is, Frannie wasn't in the second show—she went off the bridge during it."
"Of course. There were plenty of witnesses as to the time of the crash and lots more as to Prater's whereabouts. The two prospects were respectable undertakers. I'm as sure of Prater's alibi as I'm sure of going to sign that affidavit against you for messing with the evidence at the Bidault house!"
"So you'll take the affidavit of a man who broke into my apartment and tried to kill me!"
"You say he did? It could be the other way around."
I would have laughed if I hadn't known it would come out sour. I sat around woefully while the ambulance was coming, and when the crew had carried out fat-so, I told Merica:
"Fardon my manners, but I'm fagged out. Mind taking a walk?"
They left. But I hadn't said that I meant to get some sleep, and I

WASHINGTON COLUMN

International Scholarship Plan Is Fulbright's Pet Project

By PETER EDSON
NEA Washington Correspondent
WASHINGTON—Arkansas Senator J. W. Fulbright would much rather talk about his international scholarship plan than he would about mink coats and influence peddling in the Reconstruction Finance Corporation. The RFC investigation which he headed was a necessary evil in line of duty. But the scholarship plan which he founded and pushed through Congress is his real pride and joy.

In the very near future, the names of from 90 to 96 Fulbright State Scholarship winners will be announced. There are supposed to be two winners a year from each of the 48 states, the District of Columbia, Alaska, Hawaii and Puerto Rico. Some states, however, nominated only one candidate. The full quota would be 104.
This will be the first year that the Fulbright plan itself now is entering its fifth year of operation, heretofore the scholarships have been awarded on a national basis only. It was to broaden interest in the plan that the idea of having each state hold competitive examinations to nominate two winners a year was put forward.
The 90 or more state winners will be only a small part of this year's full Fulbright quota. In all, 700 scholarships will be awarded. The 700 are being picked from more than 5,000 applications. That shows how much interest there is in this plan. Selections are made by a Board of Foreign Scholarships. It is made up of 10 leading educators and is headed by Dr. Walter Johnson, professor of history at University of Chicago.
Graduate A.B.'s
Each Fulbright scholarship winner, who must be a graduate A.B., gets a full year's study abroad, all expenses paid. The winners may study, lecture, teach or conduct research on approved programs.
In addition to the American students who are financed for study abroad, an approximately equal number of foreign graduate students are given travel expenses for a year's study in American colleges and universities. And a still larger number of foreign students are given scholarships for study in American schools in their home country. Altogether some 3,300 students will be beneficiaries this year.
The money to finance all this advanced study comes from the sale of U. S. surplus war property in foreign countries. When all the military stores which the United States had shipped overseas were disposed of at the end of the war, it was foreseen that the purchasing countries would not be able to pay for what they bought in U. S. dollars.
Senator Fulbright, a former president of Arkansas University and a Rhodes Scholar at Oxford, then came forward with his plan. As an amendment of the surplus property act, he proposed that a part of the receipts from these sales, in foreign currencies, be made available to finance scholarships. Senator Fulbright advanced his idea as something that would help promote international understanding and world peace. It caught on and was adopted.

player at your right deals and bids one diamond. You hold: Spades K-J-2, Hearts A-Q-J-9-8, Diamond 5, Clubs Q-10-4-3. What do you do?
Answer Tomorrow

Sooner or later the problem of extending these grants and financing them from some other source is going to arise. Rhodes scholarships were financed by a private trust. They have been of tremendous help to the British empire in spreading its ideas to foreign countries. But whether the American taxpayer should be asked to finance a similar undertaking is another problem.

So They Say

I am convinced that America, upon whom the leadership of the world has been thrust, should lead in peace as well as in other lines. I am an American. If America goes to war, I go with her.

We may be losing the right to differ. We are justifiably concerned with security, but... thinking men and women must be equally concerned with a preservation of individual liberty.
—Dr. Athena K. Hotel, president, American Association of University Women.

My office looks clean. Yet if I empty an ashtray on the carpet the room would be classified as dirty—with no more filth in the place than before. (So) actually there is no such thing as dirt.
—Dan Fraad, Jr., part owner of world's biggest cleaning firm.

didn't intend to do for some time yet. I went into the bath and got out a little box of pills. I'm not a benzodrine addict, but I realized that it was high time I began to kid my brains around a little so my bright answer would come to the top.
I wondered why Merica and Cost had dropped in on me. Maybe they had meant to grab me. The deadline had been almost up.
I went back into my bedroom and reached under some shirts into the back of my middle dresser drawer. I found the automatic I had come back to my apartment for.
I loaded the gun and put it in my holster and felt much better. Then I put out the lights and left my apartment without bothering to lock it. Everybody seemed to know how to make the lock.

I DROVE to the Brentwood Arms and parked in the drive. I went in the front door and up to the desk. The clerk looked me over with forgivable curiosity.
"Mr. Marshall to see Mr. Larry Stone."
The clerk looked as if he didn't think there was a chance that I would see him. He asked perfunctorily:
"Mr. Stone expecting you?"
"No, but he'll see me. You ring his apartment."
The clerk did so. There was hesitancy on the other end of the line, then the clerk turned back and said:
"Go right up, it's 10B."
"I know." I went to Stone's apartment. I pushed the button and Stone opened the door.
"What do you want, Marshall?"
"To talk to you, Inside."
He frowned. "I haven't time. I'm busy."
"But not that busy?" I had the automatic out. Stone's eyes widened, and he paled. "Open up!"
He opened up. "All right, Marshall. I'll talk to you. But put that gun away!"
"Not just yet." I gestured with it, and we went into Stone's sitting room. There was a half-empty highball glass on a coffee table before a davenport, and a cigar tray filled with stubs.

Mrs. Best Is Modern Study Club Speaker

A luncheon honoring Mrs. Joseph Best, president of the Eighth District, Texas Federation of Women's Clubs, was given Wednesday by the executive board of the Modern Study Club. It was held in the Midland Country Club.

An arrangement of ruby-colored snapdragons and iris centered the table. The honoree was presented with a corsage of white spilt carnations.

Board members attending were Mrs. Carl Westlund, president; Mrs. Bryan Denison, second vice president; Mrs. C. C. Keith, recording secretary; Mrs. Harrie A. Smith, treasurer; Mrs. R. E. Morgan, parliamentarian, and Mrs. Brandon Rea, reporter.

Following the luncheon, Mrs. Best was the guest speaker at the club's regular meeting in the home of Mrs. Lamar Lunt. Her topic was "International Friendship."

Far East—

"Remove now the restrictions on air reconnaissance of China, on operations of the Chinese Nationalist forces and give such logistical (supply) support to those forces as will contribute to effective operations against the Communists."

MacArthur said that "as far as I know, the joint chiefs of staff have never changed those recommendations. If they have, I have never been informed of it."

As he has before, the general protested that the United Nations forces are not permitted to carry out the "great strategic concept of stopping the supplies of troops, or preventing the build-up" of enemy troops and the disorganization of supply lines.

"If you would take off (the prohibitions) and permit them their full capacity, I don't believe it would take a very great additional component of soldiers to wind this thing up," he said.

If this isn't done, MacArthur said, "you would not be able to supply enough ground troops in Korea to be able to safely clear North Korea."

No Threat From Russia

MacArthur had been questioned earlier whether there was any great threat of Russian action. He said he does not believe Russia is in position to "launch any predatory attack from the Asiatic continent."

The general said he believes Russian forces in Siberia "are largely defensive."

In this connection, MacArthur observed:

"I believe that the Soviet has so often repeated the incorrect statement that we are planning to attack him that he has finally begun to believe it himself."

Senator Russell (D-Ga.), chairman of the combined committee, called for an estimate by MacArthur on Russian strength in the Far East.

Part of what MacArthur had to say on that was deleted from the transcript given reporters.

In that connection, Senator Hugh Butler (R-Neb.), on leaving the hearing earlier, had told reporters MacArthur also said he doesn't believe Russia could move more troops eastward because the Trans-Siberian Railroad already is taxed to its limit.

No Danger To Japan

The transcript recorded Russell as asking MacArthur about the hazard of having removed all U. S. garrison troops from Japan to Korea when the war broke out last June.

"If Russia had seen fit to have moved at that time, I assume they could have captured Japan, could they not?" Russell asked.

"I would doubt it very seriously, Senator," MacArthur replied.

He added that he does not believe Japan could have been taken except by an amphibious effort. Then he said:

"As long as we held control of the sea and of the air over that sea, I would doubt that the Soviet Union would have been able to overrun Japan in any coup de main."

Two Senate committees, meeting jointly, called MacArthur as the first witness at a general inquiry into his differences with the Administration and the whole question of U. S. Far Eastern policy.

Reporters were barred from the hearing room on grounds that matters of vital importance to national security might come out in the hearings.

To inform newsmen, and through them the public, an arrangement was made to give out a censored stenographic report of the testimony.

Senators Jam Hearing

The five-star general was smiling and appeared at ease as he entered the hearing room. The doors swung closed behind him at 9:30 a.m.—half an hour late.

The delay was occasioned by a meeting of the two committees conducting the inquiry at which they reversed an earlier decision and voted to invite other senators to sit in as observers.

Because of the decision, the hearing was moved from the smaller Armed Services Committee room to the Senate Caucus Room.

MacArthur made his way to the hearing room through office building corridor jammed with Senate secretaries and other office workers. They applauded when he came in sight.

Outside the building, a group of pickets were marching with banners protesting that the hearings should be open to the public.

Some of them carried placards addressing such pleas as this to President Truman: "Harry, you're off key again," and "Don't be a Missouri mule."

Exchange Student From Germany Is Rotary Speaker

United States aid to Western Germany is saving it from Communism, Ulrich Hungsberg, an exchange student from that country, told Midland Rotarians at their regular meeting Thursday noon in Hotel Scharbauer.

Hungsberg was flown to Midland from Amarillo by Hank Avery to address the Rotary Club here. Avery introduced the guest speaker, who is a senior student in Amarillo High School.

"If all of America is as I have found it in Amarillo and West Texas, then I know that America has a big, kind and helpful heart," the speaker said. "I never before saw so much friendliness."

Conditions Compared

Hungsberg, who lives north of Frankfurt, three miles from the Russian border, told of conditions in Germany and explained how he was selected to come to America as an exchange student. He said his father is a teacher in a trade school. The student came to America last September and will return to his native land in June.

He compared living conditions, school life, church activities and shopping habits with those in Germany.

"My year in America has been a very great experience," Hungsberg stated. "I now have seen democracy in action and I like it very much."

Teachers—

Drive Aims—

(Continued From Page One) (R-Wis.), a Foreign Affairs Committee member and a leading Acheson critic, said he would spearhead the drive and offer the necessary amendments if no one else does. He predicted their overwhelming approval by the House.

Representative Cox (D-Ga.), who often bespeaks the views of Southern Democrats generally, said he would support any drive to force Acheson out. So did Representative Rankin (D-Miss).

"This will cut the ground out from under him and he will have to quit or President Truman will have to fire him," Cox said. "The vote in the House will be so overwhelmingly against Acheson that he will have to get out."

Administration leaders privately expressed doubt they could stall the drive. Their main chance, as they see it now, is to delay consideration of the State Department money bill in the hope sentiment about Acheson will change.

On-Spot Unloading Bill Becomes Law

AUSTIN (AP)—The bill authorizing on-the-spot unloading of overloaded trucks found on Texas highways was signed Thursday by Gov. Allan Shivers.

The bill goes into immediate effect. However, tank trucks hauling liquids are given six months' time in which to make adjustments to their tanks.

WOOL SHEARERS IN MONEY SYDNEY (AP)—Despite a sudden fall in the price of wool sold at auction in March, the price of Australia's most important product still is a lot more than it was a year ago.

Recent agreements between employer and employe organizations give expert shearers and woolclassers the chance to make up to $222 a week. New rate for shearers is $17 for 100 sheep. That should give and average shearer $88 a week.

'Pet' Bull Gores, Tramples Two Women To Death

DECATUR (AP)—Two women were gore and trampled to death near here Wednesday by a "pet" bull one of them had raised from a calf.

Dead were Mrs. Minnie Lee Shelton, 64, and her daughter, Ethel Shelton, 46.

Their bodies were found in a lot near their home, two and one-half miles northeast of here, by the husband and father of the women after he returned home from a fishing trip.

UN Patrol—

This fight was southeast of Chunchon, about 45 miles east of Seoul. Allied warplanes strafed Communists caught in the same area and to the northeast.

Most planes flew north to blast the Red buildup for a new assault along the western and central fronts.

Action up to dusk Thursday was light—as on the preceding day, one of the quietest of the war. The Eighth Army estimated Red casualties Wednesday at 435. Air strikes accounted for about that many more. The figures were unusually low.

Ground troops took advantage of the break to swim, play and rest. "This lull has done wonders for our morale," one front line officer said.

But the Reds were busy—out of range of Allied artillery. Intelligence officers reported three Communist divisions were preparing to strike at Seoul from the northwest. Other forces were building up in the hills around Hwachon Reservoir, north of the Central Korean Plain.

The buildups emphasized the warning of Lt. Gen. James A. Van Fleet, commander of the Eighth Army, that the Reds were capable of striking another heavy blow at UN forces and probably were preparing one.

UNDERGOES SURGERY Mrs. Vann Mitchell, 1111 East Nobles Street, underwent surgery Thursday morning at Western Clinic-Hospital.

Widow To Receive Monahans Award

MONAHANS — Monahan's outstanding young man will be given a posthumous award Thursday night.

Mrs. Doris Stuckey, widow of Charles W. Stuckey, who died April 13 of a heart ailment at the age of 30, will receive the first annual Junior Chamber of Commerce distinguished service award in the name of her husband.

Stuckey had been selected as the city's outstanding young man but the announcement was to remain secret until the award banquet was held.

Stuckey, owner and manager of a radio station, was a civic leader. He was elected to the Monahans-Wickett school board shortly before his death and was president of the Ward County Sheriff's Posse, chairman of the county Red Cross chapter and the community aid program and a director of the Chamber of Commerce. He also was a Mason and a member of the Methodist Church.

Ed Costello, Odessa, will present the award and the principal address will be made by Charles Gibson, national Jaycee director from El Paso. The banquet will be held in the high school cafeteria. Stuckey's daughter and son and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Stuckey, will be among the honored guests.

Israeli, Syrian Fighting Recurs

TEL AVIV, ISRAEL (AP)—Israeli and Syrian forces battled again Thursday in the tense frontier area north of the Sea of Galilee. This was reported by an Israeli military spokesman who claimed Israeli troops killed more than 20 Syrians in driving them out of the disputed area Wednesday.

Israel's losses were put at four killed and six wounded.

Thursday's renewal of hostilities came after Jewish workers were fired on along the eastern shores of Lake Galilee between the villages of Ein Ghab and Neugeib, the spokesman said.

He said the bodies of the 20 Syrians were found "in our territory west of the demilitarized zone from which they were expelled during the course of an Israeli counter-attack."

TO UNDERGO SURGERY G. O. Leatherman, 1610 South Big Spring Street, a drilling company employe, was admitted to Western Clinic-Hospital Wednesday. He was to undergo surgery Thursday.

Who said You can't Afford a Fine Car?

WHEN you look at all a ROADMASTER has to offer, it's only natural to conclude that it's priced with the rest of the fine-car field.

Sweeping proudly past you, it bears a distinction that few cars can equal.

Stepping nimbly away from a stop light, it has the willing surge of power that the very exclusive combination of a 152-horsepower Fireball engine and Dynaflo Drive* delivers.

It rides the road with majestic smoothness, and comes to a smooth and gentle halt, in response to the finest brakes that Buick engineers ever developed.

Inside, it has spacious room, from side to side and front to back and seat to roof—plus a softness of cushions and a richness of fabrics which bespeak the custom standards to which it is built.

All you could want in a fine car is here in abundance.

But don't let that mislead you into deciding "it's too rich for me."

If you've looked into 1951 car prices generally, you'll discover this:

You can own a ROADMASTER for just a shade more than an ordinary car will cost—and for several hundred dollars less than the price tags usually found in "the fine-car field."

Why not look into this today?

JET JOCKEY RIDES SIDE-SADDLE—He's not a jockey on a miniature space ship. He's just an Air Force mechanic at Hawthorne, Calif., making final adjustments on a wing tip tank of a Northrop Scorpion F-59. The 600-mph jet is the Air Force's new standard all-weather interceptor.

Carl Jones Named Phillips Attorney

Carl W. Jones has been promoted to Division Chief attorney of Phillips Petroleum Company here, succeeding Raymond A. Lynch, who resigned recently to enter the private practice of law.

Jones, who resides at 1308 West Tennessee Street with his wife and three-year-old son, is a graduate of the University of Texas and the School of Law. He received his law degree with honors in 1945. He was elected to membership in Phi Delta Phi and the Chancellors.

In World War II, Jones transferred from the Texas National Guard from which he was inducted into federal service and fought as navigator of a B-17 of the Eighth Air Force in Europe.

Before moving to Midland in 1946 as a member of the legal staff of Phillips Petroleum Company, he practiced law in Fort Worth. Jones was born in Austin.

CONSTRUCTION MAN DIES IN ELECTRICAL ACCIDENT

CROCKETT—(P)—A construction man was killed instantly and power was shut off here about 30 minutes Wednesday when the man's head struck a high voltage line.

Tomrell Junot, 30, Navasota, was killed. He was an employee of the Walker Construction Company of Dallas.

Professor Proves Most Folks Don't Know What They See

WACO—(P)—If the eye-witness says you shot your butcher, and you didn't, tell the judge what happened in Prof. Dudley Rouse's class.

Dr. Rouse is a psychology professor at Baylor University.

The other day, while he was lecturing, a girl entered the room. She asked for "Bill." Seconds later, Bill came in. He questioned her. She admitted she had been unfaithful. He shook her. There was a struggle. She broke loose, screaming, and fled. He followed.

This happened in a minute and 22 seconds. After Dr. Rouse quieted the class—by explaining the drama had been staged—he asked them to write what they had seen.

Results:
The man's red hair was described variously as black, brown and red. His black tie was reported red, green, blue, brown and yellow.

Several students said the flowers in the girl's hair were white. She was not wearing flowers.

One said the man fired a gun with his right hand. There was no gun.

Although the girl called "Bill" name twice, students said she called for John, Joe, Gerald and Jack.

Dr. Rouse concluded: (1) Eye-witnesses accounts are not dependable, and (2) women are more dependable witnesses than men.

House Delays Action On Grain-For-India

WASHINGTON—(P)—House action has been postponed until next week on a $150,000,000 grain-for-India bill. The measure had been scheduled for consideration Wednesday.

Representative Richards (D-SC), acting chairman of the House Foreign Affairs Committee, said one factor in the decision to postpone action was a statement by Indian Prime Minister Nehru that U. S. aid would not be acceptable if strings were tied to it.

Panhandle Mother Tries To Save Son From Electric Chair

BORGER—(P)—The mother of a man "who sometimes thinks he is the Lord" is trying to save him from the electric chair.

A petition circulating in the Panhandle is the latest attempt by Mrs. Frances Stull to save her son, Richard McGee, 26, from a sentence of death.

Addressed to the governor and the State Board of Pardons and Paroles, the petition asks for McGee's death sentence to be commuted to life imprisonment.

McGee was convicted more than two years ago of murdering R. L. Allison, a Lubbock grocer. Allison was shot to death after he and McGee allegedly argued over the younger man's attention to Allison's daughter.

Claims Son Insane
"I realize my son did a tragic and inexcusable thing in killing Mr. Allison," Mrs. Stull said. "But being his mother, I know he has been insane all his life."

The mother said that two years service for McGee in the Air Force ended with his discharge as a dementia praecox case. He later was confined in a Veterans Administration hospital at Waco. Over her protest, Mrs. Stull said, she had

Husband's Shocking Behavior Jolts Wife

SOUTHEND, ENGLAND—(P)—Arthur Whybrow, 39, was charged Wednesday with attempting to murder his wife. Police said he rigged up a 230-volt line to the bathtub and switched on the current when she got in.

Mrs. Whybrow was jolted out of her bath—unhurt.

to remove him from the hospital.

McGee has been in the Lubbock jail since his arrest. His death sentence was affirmed by the Court of Criminal Appeals, which has overruled two motions for rehearing.

Mrs. Stull said her son is anxious to get to death row at Huntsville. He wants to preach to the men there, she said, like he has been preaching to his fellow inmates at Lubbock.

"Sometimes," Mrs. Stull said, "he thinks he is the Lord."

FATHER AND SON TEACHERS

PUEBLO, COLO.—(P)—Pueblo Junior College has a father-and-son combination on the faculty. Walter De Mordaunt, local architect, joined the staff to teach architectural drawing. His son, Walter De Mordaunt, Jr., is an instructor in freshman English.

Britain Bans Free Specs, False Teeth

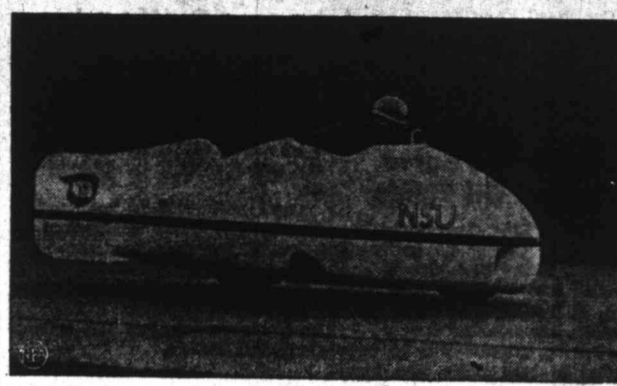

LONDON—(P)—The socialist Wednesday voted an end to free false teeth and eyeglasses for Britons—but not before a lot of Labrites complained at length about the new charges.

The House of Commons approved a bill to curtail the free health services by a vote of 262 to 3. Opponents, who insisted on being heard, prolonged debate until early morning.

The bill will require Britons to pay half the cost of the specs and dentures for the next three years.

WARM WELCOME

STERLING, COLO.—(P)—Albert Bangs got a warm introduction to his job as a vocational agricultural instructor at Sterling High School. In his first day, Bangs singled his hair in helping students put out a gasoline fire in a school shop.

IT'S A MOTORCYCLE—Encased in a streamlined shell, Wilhelm Hertz, of Munich, Germany, hits a record-breaking 190-mile-an-hour clip down the Munich-Nuernberg super-highway on his specially constructed motorcycle. Former record, set in 1937, was 172.5 miles an hour.

ADMITTED TO HOSPITAL

Mrs. Marie Kubena of Rankin was admitted to Midland Memorial Hospital Wednesday for surgery.

Parks Admits Robbery—

never was drunk. He was home every night. "Did he help you around the house?" asked Abbott. "He sure did."

"Did he go to church with you?" "He wasn't no great hand for church but when he didn't go we knew just where he was."

"Then came her daughter, Mrs. W. O. Cantrell, Parks' mother, who now lives in Goldsmith. Stays With Parents She told him of separation from her husband when the boy was 13 months of age. She worked in private homes while little Jimmy stayed with her parents.

She testified that after returning from the service her son had married but his wife left him late last Summer.

"Did that upset him?" asked Abbott. "It sure did," she answered. "He was at work and when he came home, she was gone. He started drinking."

"Tell this jury, Mrs. Cantrell. If they show him any consideration, is it your opinion that he will make a man of himself and profit by his experience?" "I sure do."

"Why did you come here to testify?" "As any mother knows, I wanted to do everything I can to protect my child."

"As he took the stand, Parks described a normal life until he returned one day, several weeks before the robbery, to find his wife had gone.

"I stayed with the bottle for a week," he said, adding that from then on he worked a while and then drank a while.

"What prompted you to be involved in these robberies?" asked Abbott, who was appointed, along with Pete Turner, by the court. "Was it money?"

"No, sir," he answered. "I had money. But I just reached the point where I didn't care any more."

He said he was arrested for the two armed robberies in Odessa and released on bond. Two weeks later he held up the Western Union office.

"If Nancy Poore hadn't given you the money," asked Abbott, "what would you have done?" "I would have turned around and walked out."

"Are you sure of that?" "Yes, sir, I didn't want to kill the woman."

Details of the robbery itself were related Wednesday by Miss Poore. Called as the first witness for the state, Miss Poore calmly told her story of the robbery, under the questioning of the district attorney.

She said she was working in the Western Union office about 8:30 p.m. when the man identified as Parks walked in.

"I asked him if I could help him, and he said he wanted to cash a check," she related.

"Since we don't cash checks, except Western Union money orders, I asked him what kind."

"I walked over to the counter and then he pulled out his gun and asked for money. I was scared and he had to ask me again. He said he didn't have all day."

"I handed him the bills." "She said the man then left."

"Do you see that man in this courtroom?" asked Shafer. "Yes, sir."

"Will you point him out?" "Yes, sir," she answered, pointing to Parks sitting in the courtroom with his attorneys.

"Is that Jimmy Parks, the defendant in this case?" "Yes, sir."

"Why did you give him the money, Miss Nancy?" "I felt I had no other choice."

She added that after the man asked her for the money, he put the pistol back in his pocket but "kept his hand in his pocket while I got the money."

Under cross-examination by Turner, she repeated that the man had come in and asked to cash a check. Finger On Trigger "Isn't it true," asked Turner, "that he reached in his pocket, pulled out his pistol and said, 'This is my check'?"

"I couldn't say," Miss Poore answered.

She said, however, that he had his finger on the trigger. "Did he say, 'Give me your money or I'll shoot you?' or asked the defense counsel.

"No, sir. I guess I was scared, because I stood there a moment without moving and he said he didn't have all day. Then he put his pistol back and put his hand in his pocket."

"Then, he just stood there with both hands on the counter?" "No, sir. One hand was in his pocket."

Cotton NEW YORK —(P)— Thursday noon cotton prices were $1.25 a bale lower to five cents higher than the previous close. May 48.35, July 45.05 and October $4.41.

SUFFERS ARM CUT James Brooks, 12, of Route 1, was given emergency treatment Wednesday at Western Clinic-Hospital for an arm cut suffered when he was riding a calf and was thrown into a barbed wire fence.

Davenport Brothers Begin Prison Terms McALESTER, OKLA.—(P)— Two Texas thugs, Chester Lee and Norman Davenport, began 25 year terms Thursday for armed robbery. The brothers pleaded guilty in Pryor Wednesday to robbing and abducting State Trooper Loyd Francisco February 13. He was set free unharmed after a seven-hour ride. The brothers were captured in Wichita Falls.

Joe Louis, Without Kayo Punch, Bests Omelio Agramonte

DETROIT—(AP)—If Joe Louis can't kayo the lesser lights with his best punches, what'll happen when he tackles someone like Lee Savold?

Louis said Thursday he was satisfied with his righthand punch. Maybe he is, but many of the 7,004 fans at Olympia Stadium Wednesday night weren't.

They thought the former heavyweight champion might knock out Omelio Agramonte of Cuba in the way that made Joe a great heavyweight champion for 12 years.

But Joe couldn't finish off the janky Cuban in the 10-round fight, although he floored him once. Joe won a unanimous decision. And now it's on to Lee Savold, British and European champion.

Beat Sgt June 13

Louis and Savold will meet June 13 in a 12-round bout at the Polo Grounds, the International Boxing Club announced Thursday.

If Joe can beat Savold, who figures to be tougher than Agramonte, the Brown Bomber hopes to tangle with world Heavyweight Champion Ezzard Charles again.

In the second round, Louis—trim-looking but still minus the block-busting right that ruled the heavyweight world till last September—floored Agramonte. It was the first time in five comeback fights Joe knocked a fighter to the canvas.

In the ninth round he battered and dazed Agramonte, who weighed only 188 1/2 to Louis' 208 1/4. But again he couldn't kayo Omelio, who's not a big name in the boxing world.

Indians Get 16 Hits But Lose 19-11

BIG SPRING—The Midland Indians swatted seven doubles and a home run among 16 base hits here Wednesday night, but committed eight errors and allowed Big Spring 19 hits as the Broncos humbled the Indians for the second night in a row, this time by a 19-11 count.

Glenn Patton took the loss for Midland, going six

Longhorn League—Colts Stay At Top Of Heap; Pitchers Have Rough Time

By The Associated Press

The pitchers do all the work and the hitters get all the credit in the Longhorn League.

The Midland-Big Spring game Wednesday night was a good example.

There were 35 hits on both sides in one of those slugfests.

Big Spring outlasted Midland to win 19-11. Mike Fornieles was the winning pitcher although raked for 16 hits. But you should have seen the other fellow—Glenn Patton of Midland. He was bounced around for 19 hits.

Fornieles did have a little fun though. He collected four hits and helped make life miserable for Patton.

In other games front-running San Angelo nipped Odessa 8-7. Sweetwater beat Vernon 7-5 and Roswell licked Artesia 10-5.

Roswell and Sweetwater moved into a tie for second place. Vernon slipped from second to fourth.

Torres Wins No. 4

Ray Drake went the distance for Roswell, scattering nine hits and striking out six men.

Jesse Torres doled eight hits to pitch Sweetwater to its win. It was the fourth victory of the season for Torres.

A single and an error gave San Angelo an unearned run in the top of the tenth inning and victory over Odessa. Dutch Funderburk's single to left got by Exelio Ortega to allow a run to score from first and break a 7-7 tie.

The scores: R H E
Roswell..... 010 510 120—10 9 0
Artesia..... 110 000 210—5 9 2
Drake and Sanders: Wallendorf, Rodriguez, Miller, Marshall and Garcia.

WT-NM League—Hapless Amarillo Drops Another Game

By The Associated Press

Buck Faucett resigned Wednesday as both general and field manager for the Amarillo Gold Sox but the move made no difference. Amarillo took the field under new management to drop its tenth game in 11 starts this season in the West Texas-New Mexico League.

Catcher Les Mulcahy took over as temporary manager after the unexpected move and directed the club as it lost to Borger 6-5.

In other games, Abilene retained its game lead in the race with a 13-7 victory over Lamesa, Albuquerque nipped Clovis 7-6 and Lubbock defeated Pampa 13-6.

Bill Haley singled with two outs in the top of the tenth inning to score Dom Chloia from second base, giving Albuquerque its win over Clovis. The Ducks tied the score in the ninth.

Lubbock used big innings to down Pampa in a game played in chilling weather. H. G. Sargent homered in a four-run first frame.

J. W. Wingate, Lamesa's negro shortstop got a homer and two singles but his bat was not enough to give the Lobos a victory over Abilene. The Blue Sox scored seven runs in the second inning to cinch the victory.

Texas League—Sports Push Tulsa Deeper Into Cellar

By The Associated Press

Slide up to Al Vincent these days and ask him, innocently enough, what he thinks about the state of baseball. The atomic explosion at Hiroshima might be mild in comparison.

The veteran Texas League manager, who hasn't been accustomed to losing baseball, ought to be totally gray by now.

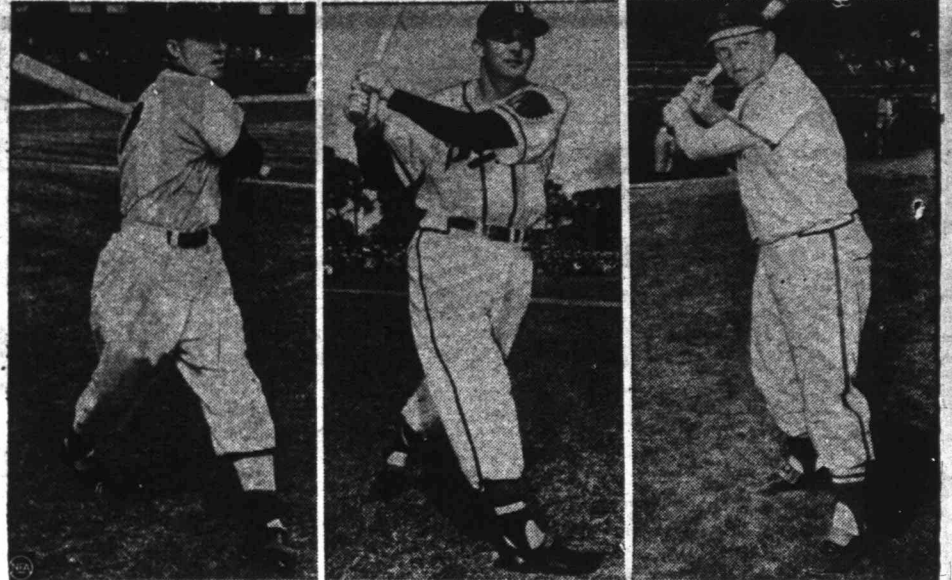

His Tulsa Oilers were picked by most everybody to make a wild dash through the Texas League and end up with all the marbles. But here the race is rushing through its first month and Tulsa is so far in the cellar it would take a steam shovel to do any good.

The Oilers have won just six games and lost 15. Two defeats were added to the string only Wednesday night with Shreveport doing the dirty work. The Sports whipped the Oilers 10-4 in the first game of a double bill then eked out 6-5 in the nightcap cut to eight innings so Tulsa could catch a train and get out of town before being killed or something.

Rain Cancels Pair

Only three games were played in the circuit Wednesday night. In the other one Beaumont whammed Oklahoma City 4-1. Dallas at San Antonio and Fort Worth at Houston were postponed because of rain.

San Antonio, in first place, picked up a half-game on runner-up

Midland Youngsters Set For State Meet In Austin Friday

The Big Show's set to start in Austin Friday. Approximately 650 lithe teen-age high school track stars will open the state track and field meet.

The spotlight is focused on Odessa's defending champion Bronchos in the AA conference, with Brady, Pease and Andrews set for battle in the Class A circuit. White Deer is the 'B' favorite.

Midland High School will have two representatives in the meet—Sprinter Roy Kimsey and W. H. Black, pole vaulter. Kimsey will enter the 100, 220 and 440-yard dashes.

Golf favorites Graham Mackey, Marcelino Moreno, Roane Puett and Johnny Ward from Midland are rated as the best of the schoolboy lot on the links.

Coach Thurman L. (Tugboat) Jones and the Midland boys departed for Austin late Wednesday.

It is essential that the proper tool be used to remove cylinder head bolts, or the end of a spark plug is apt to be broken.

King's Row

By LARRY KING

For once we are going to agree wholeheartedly with Odessa scribe Spec Gammon and Ben Peeler. The two have been staging a two-man campaign to move Longhorn League games a bit faster and eliminate much of the unnecessary stalling and time killing.

Naturally it's pretty difficult to hasten a contest when one team—or both teams—insist on pounding out 30 hits and committing sins and errors aplenty by the dozen. About the only thing that can be done in that situation is stick it out and hope you beat the milkman home.

But umpires in the loop could see to it that at least an attempt is made to move the game along.

Players could be given the word to hustle to and from their fielding positions, pitchers should be warmed up before being brought to the mound and all such nonsense as walking slowly to the plate to bat and prolonging disputes with umpires could be eliminated entirely.

We've seen umpires call strikes on batters who walk slowly to the plate and wave to Aunt Minnie in the fourth row as they tie their shoelace. That usually speeds them up considerably thereafter.

As for the prolonged discussions with the men in blue, there's absolutely no use in that. The umpires have the right to wave, chase or run a player from a game. If they exercise their powers more frequently the fans would get home earlier and the umpires wouldn't kick up nearly so often.

MAJOR LEAGUES— Braves Take Over In National Loop; Indians Tip Bosox

Cleveland's Indians rode at the top of the American League Thursday. They got there by whipping Boston's Red Sox for the second straight time.

Warren Spahn pitched the Boston Braves into the senior circuit lead, blanking the dethroned St. Louis Cardinals 5-0.

The crafty southpaw, who led all National League pitchers with 21 victories last year, pitched the Braves back into first place. Only one Cardinal passed second base.

Pittsburgh's surprising Pirates made it two in a row over Brooklyn when Murry Dickson set the Dodgers down with five hits to whip them 4-3. The little right-hander, who now has a 3-0 record, couldn't beat the Dodgers all last season. Don Newcombe dropped his first decision.

A two-bagger by Connie Ryan and a single by Grady Hatton featured a two-run ninth inning uprising that gave the Cincinnati Reds a 6-4 triumph over the Phils in Philadelphia. Ewell Blackwell scored his third win.

A couple of rookies collaborated to lead the Giants to an 8-1 victory over the Chicago Cubs at the Polo Grounds. George Spencer pitched a neat six-hitter and Catcher Ray Noble singled in two runs to open the gates for a six-run seventh inning. Johnny Schmitz was the loser.

Lemon Plus Brissie

The hitting of Rookie Harry Simpson and the pitching of Bob Lemon and Lou Brissie highlighted the Indians second straight over the Red Sox. Simpson slapped out four hits in as many times at bat. A three-run homer by Lou Bourdreau accounted for all Red Sox runs. Mel Parnell was the loser.

Nat Pitcher Sandy Consuegra limited the Browns to five hits for his third victory without a defeat.

Scoring five unearned runs on a couple of Chicago errors, the injury-riddled New York Yankees came

WESTERN PLASTIC AT TOP OF JAYCEE SOFTBALL LOOP
Western Plastic took an undisputed lead in the City Major Division of the Jaycee Softball League Wednesday night by virtue of its 9-7 triumph over previously unbeaten Shell Oil Company. It was the Plastics' third win without loss. Phil Brock, winning pitcher, helped his cause with a home run in the fourth inning. Left fielder Tommy Flournoy smacked one for the winners in the first inning. Shell got 18 hits but never could bunt them for scores. Marion Treadway, catcher, led Shell with four hits in five trips. Rogers was losing hurler. He gave up 11 hits. Second Game

In the second game, Standard of Texas won its first game of the year by shading Rendezvous 7-4. The loss shoved Rendezvous into the cellar.

Winning pitcher Chester Campbell gave up eight hits, including a home run by Rendezvous Catcher McDonald in the third. Bodie Nell, Standard First Baseman, smacked a home run in the second canto. Tom Brown was losing pitcher. He was touched for 10 hits.

Thursday night action will feature make-up games that were postponed Monday night because of bad weather.

Permian Basin Softball League Opens Friday
CRANE—The opening game of the Permian Basin Softball League gets underway for the Crane Gulf Oilers in a game here at 7 p.m. Friday. Fort Stockton will furnish the opposition.

Two games will be played each week in the league. Crane, Fort Stockton, Monahans, Odessa, McCamey and Kermit make up the loop.

A shaggy playoff at the end of the regular season—pitting the four top teams—will determine the champion.

Vernon Co-Ed Named Baylor University's Freshman May Queen
WACO—(P)—Joyce Middlebrook, a pretty blonde, is the 1961 freshman queen of the May at Baylor University.

The Vernon girl was selected Wednesday night by a student vote. She won 67 1/2 other girls.

Another election saw Bradford Corrigan of Hamilton elected to the student body presidency to succeed Frank Boydston of Oklahoma City.

The events were features of Baylor's annual All-University Play Day.

Tennis Courts Now Lighted For Play
Three tennis courts at John M. Cowden Junior High School now are lighted for night play and are available to the public.

Lighting of the courts was a Lions Club project.

The courts will be supervised by the schools. The Lions Club installed the lights and other equipment for night play.

The estimated fee for 30 to 40 minutes of play under the lights is 25 cents.

North Carolina Man Kills Eight Children And Ends Own Life

LENOIR, N. C. —(AP)— An unemployed sawmill worker shot his eight children to death, then ended his life with a shotgun Wednesday night.

The bodies of Ralph Gragg, 34, and the children, ranging in age from three to 15 years, were discovered in their blazing home 10 miles north of Lenoir.

"The man killed the children and then shot himself" to death, said Coroner Marshall Kincaid. He said no inquest would be held.

Sheriff George D. Greer said Mrs. Gragg had been living in another part of the county the last month with a brother.

The bodies of the children lay two in a bed in the six-room frame dwelling in the Collettsville Community.

Neighbors told the sheriff the house "lit up all of a sudden" about 8:15 p.m. Wednesday.

Gragg's body was found in a hallway. Beside it were a five-gallon can and a shotgun.

The coroner said the skulls of several of the children bore fractures.

The sheriff said Gragg was injured in an accident last November and had been unable to work since.

The children were: Katherine, 15; Christine, 13; Jimmy, 10; Peggy, nine; Carolyn, seven; Paul Edward, six; Judy, four, and Rebecca, three.

The sobbing, heart-broken mother came to Lenoir Thursday and viewed the charred bodies of the children at a mortuary.

Officers said the presence of the five-gallon can indicated Gragg had saturated part of the home with fuel oil and then set off the fire.

BEAUTIFUL LIPS
The French government forbids the practice, among natives of its African possessions, of stretching the lips with wooden disks. It had come to be a mark of great beauty to have enormous lips.

Woman Sounds Fire Alarm To Get Her Infant To Hospital

CHICAGO —(AP)— Mrs. Helen Morgan, 27, sounded a fire alarm Wednesday to get firemen to rush her six-months-old daughter, Janice, to a hospital.

She dashed into the street with her baby after she found her choking, wheezing and turning blue in the face. She saw a fire alarm box and pulled the handle.

In a few minutes the 1400 block of North Halsted Street was cluttered with four fire engines, two hook and ladder trucks, a high pressure truck, a water tower, an inhalator unit, an insurance patrol, three battalion fire chiefs' cars, and three police squad cars.

"There were lots of people, too, all looking for a big fire.

A fire rescue squad took Janice to Children's Memorial Hospital and firemen administered oxygen throughout the 10-block ride.

At the hospital Mrs. Morgan anxiously watched as attendants upended Janice and patted her gently on the back.

From the baby's mouth dropped a marble.

"That's all there is to it," they told Mrs. Morgan. Janice, the youngest of her six children, would be all right—but they kept her in the hospital overnight.

Japanese Woman Chosen Catholic Mother Of 1951

NEW YORK —(AP)— A Japanese-born mother—three of whose 13 children are U. S. war veterans—has been selected as the Catholic mother of 1951.

The winner is Mrs. Teresa Matsudaira, 49, of Seattle, Wash.

Her selection was announced Wednesday night by the National Catholic Welfare Conference, which annually chooses the Catholic mother of the year.

Mrs. Matsudaira, who will receive a gold medal on Mother's Day, May 13, was converted to the Catholic faith in 1929. Her husband, a Seattle restaurant worker, became a Catholic in 1942.

Mrs. Matsudaira came to the United States with her husband after their marriage. During World War II, she and members of her family were interned in Idaho. However, three of her sons served with the U. S. armed forces.

Records Show MacArthur Saw 'Very Little' Chance Of Chinese Intervention

WASHINGTON —(AP)— Records of the Wake Island talks between President Truman and General MacArthur left unsettled just what sort of reassurance the general gave about Chinese Red intervention in Korea.

To Truman's question about the chances for "interference" by the Chinese or Soviet, MacArthur replied, "very little."

But he went on immediately to discount the chances of success if they should intervene, leaving the possibility that when he said "very little" he may have been speaking of the Reds' chances for success rather than actual intervention.

A 5,000-word summary of the talks in transcript form, some portions of which had been deleted, was made public Wednesday night by two Senate committees on the eve of a closed inquiry into MacArthur's ouster and Far East policy.

From Longhand Notes
Maj. Gen. Courtney Whitney, MacArthur's aide, said in New York the document had about as much bearing on the present situation in Korea as would "a report on the military operations on Bunker Hill."

Whitney also referred to the October 15 conference on Wake Island. He said no mention had been made to MacArthur that any record of the talks would be made.

In a letter to Senator Russell (D-Ga.), presiding at the inquiry, Gen. Omar Bradley said the account was pieced together on the return from Wake from longhand notes made by a number of those who took part, plus a stenographic record of some portions.

Much of the talk, as it was put down in the summary, concerned what should be done in Korea when the fighting stopped. Everyone evidently assumed it would stop soon.

The conference took place about two weeks before the mass intervention by the Chinese Reds, which MacArthur said created "a new war."

The summary said Truman started the conference by asking MacArthur about rehabilitation of Korea. It continued:

MacArthur: "It cannot occur until the military operations have ended. I believe that formal resistance will end throughout North and South Korea by Thanksgiving. There is little resistance left in South Korea. x x x

Daniel Warns Oil Industry Against 'Men With Money'

WASHINGTON —(AP)— The Texas oil industry has been warned to check carefully any questionable character wanting to invest large sums.

These are the words of Attorney General Price Daniel of Texas, who commented Wednesday on reports by the Kefauver Crime Committee that thugs are trying to infiltrate the oil industry.

"We don't want them in Texas," Daniel said. He is here for conferences of the Tideland issue.

Loss Of Jet Tanks Is Blamed On Winds

BELLEVILLE, ILL. —(AP)— Strong winds tore loose two wing-tip fuel tanks of an Air Force jet trainer April 24, causing the tanks to drop on Abilene, Texas, the Air Training Command at Scott Air Force Base reported Thursday.

No one was injured, the report stated, and damage was less than $500.

The pilot, Capt. Connor Robinson of Abilene, was enroute from California to Tyndall Air Force Base, Fla.

He reported encountering strong winds which made the flight difficult. Noting both tanks missing after he regained control, Robinson circled over the area to watch for possible explosive fires, he said.

Yearby, Woodard Attend Meeting

The Rev. Vernon Yearby and Music Director J. Q. Woodard of Midland's First Baptist Church Thursday were attending a meeting of the executive board of the Palsano Encampment.

The meeting was held at the encampment grounds between Alpine and Marfa to complete plans for the annual Summer encampment, July 30 to August 5.

Mr. Yearby is a member of the board. The First Baptist Church of Midland has a large dormitory on the camp grounds for use of members during the encampment. Some repairs and improvements to this dormitory will be made during the Summer.

Tennessee Plane Crash Kills Texan

JAMESTOWN, TENN. —(AP)— A Fort Worth real estate and airplane dealer was killed Wednesday when his plane crashed and burned near his mother's home here.

John E. Bell, 38, had circled the house and called to his mother, Mrs. Fannie Bell, to meet him at a nearby airstrip.

Moments later, the Beechcraft Bonanza plunged into a thicket and burned. Witnesses said the plane apparently stalled.

MacArthur May Accept Bid Of Texas Lawmakers

NEW YORK —(AP)— General MacArthur's first stop in a public appearance tour may be before a joint session of the Texas Legislature.

If the general makes the expected appearance in Austin, it would be acceptance of an invitation already sent him by the Legislature.

Wednesday, MacArthur's aide, Maj. Gen. Courtney Whitney, said the general probably would kick off his tour by accepting the Texas bid.

Courtney said the date would depend on when MacArthur winds up his testimony before a Senate committee in Washington which has said it wants to know more about the MacArthur strategy and Far East policy.

Japan Tieless Days Fade Away With Mac

TOKYO —(AP)— The tieless days of the MacArthur occupation soon will fade like the old soldier.

The headquarters of General MacArthur's successor, Lt. Gen. Matthew B. Ridgway, ordered occupation troops to don ties with Summer uniforms.

MacArthur—like those gals on television—favored the open throat.

Mrs. Anna Mary Robertson Moses, better known as Grandma Moses, began her art career when she was 78 years of age.

Amelia Anthony's Story Is Down-To-Earth Account Of Fight On Juvenile Delinquency

Working with children and living with them are two different experiences. Miss Amelia Anthony does both. She is the founder and director of Girlstown, U.S.A., a refuge and home for neglected girls, a project built on faith and dedicated to prevention of juvenile delinquency. It is not far from Midland—as the West Texas drive—and the rambling ranch home now housing 64 girls lies on the flat High Plains of Cochran County, near White face. Girlstown, U.S.A., is 1,425 acres of pasture land given to the humane effort by a Lubbock couple, Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Duggan, Sr.

Miss Anthony, a stately-beautiful blonde, pretty, fascinating and determined, was in Midland this week to tell about Girlstown, its hopes, purposes and needs. Her story was a practical, down-to-earth account of the attack on juvenile delinquency. It was not complicated with a lot of theory.

Taught To Be Wives
"We try to teach our girls to be wives, as grandmother was," she said. Her girls were delinquent through no fault of their own—neglected by parents.

Girlstown, U.S.A., is 10 years of planning and scripping, searching for the cause of juvenile delinquency among young girls and arriving at the cure, which is, she concluded, Girlstown.

This project was born March 13, 1920, when Miss Anthony walked out of another phase of social service work to devote her life to young girls trapped in neglected home life. She labored for six months to remodel a barracks at Buffalo Gap. Her first ward was a baby. She learned about babies from this one.

The Associated Press told the story of Girlstown and these dispatches attracted "Uncle Tom" and "Aunt Elsie" Duggan. They visited Girlstown, then gave the surface rights to the Cochran County ranch.

Girlstown doesn't accept girls who have been classified as delinquent.

"We are a prevention of juvenile delinquency," Miss Anthony said. "Our girls applied for admission to our family and we now have 600 on the waiting list, from every state."

With six adult members of the "family," the girls maintain Girlstown. They live as well-organized families live. Theirs' housework, painting, refinishing, menus, budgets, milking, gardening, the laundry, making of clothes, and all the things that train young women for life with a family of their own.

Then, of course, there is school. Girlstown girls range from infancy to 15 in years. When they finish high school in Whiteface those considered to be college material commute to Texas Tech at Lubbock. Others are sent there to business school.

Girls Have Dates
"We are a family," Miss Anthony said. "Our older girls have dates and are accompanied by an adult member of the family."

Girlstown is a partnership with contributors. The Plains people built the $125,000 home and civic and service organizations have become partners. A board of incorporators meet regularly to conduct business of the home and contributors also meet regularly at Girlstown.

Girlstown affairs are an open book to the public, even though it is private enterprise. There's one exception—no one can look into the social history of any of the girls.

The cost averages $40 a month to maintain a girl and this must be borne by private donors.

As to her hopes and plans, Miss Anthony is as equally determined to accomplish the growth of Girlstown as she was to start it.

By March 13, 1929—the tenth birthday—she will have 500 girls. The immediate project is a dining hall, The Barn, which will also be used for recreation, stage plays presented by the girls, and other activities.

The goal is $1,500,000.

In her modulated voice, the Girlstown director told of her fears: "We cannot stand by again and let war do these things to girls."

For a different luncheon dish serve creamed peas and mushrooms on top of toast spread with deviled ham.

Youth Center Chatter

By Joyce Howell and Gail Baker
"Hello, everybody, hello. Hello is the greeting that makes you feel so fine . . ." Yep, here we are again, telling you the news we have gathered in the last week.

This week our congratulations go to the A Cappella and Choral groups of MHS. These two groups earned first ratings in the Interscholastic League Contest last weekend. This year the choral contest was held in Midland and many teeners from other cities visited our Youth Center during the day. We were glad to have all the out-of-the-city visitors.

Monday was a "Glad Day" for the high school teeners as they were dismissed at 2:30 p.m. while the teachers attended In-Service Training Courses. The Youth Center was opened early—and as usual—filled with many MHS'ers.

Tuesday night we saw a lot of the teeners at the last of the Civic Music Association Concert in the MHS Auditorium. The guest performer for this last concert was a well-known concert pianist, Leonard Pennario.

Navy Band Here
Thursday afternoon the famous Navy Band was to give a concert for school students. The Navy Band is in Midland under the auspices of the Lions Club. They will present another program Thursday night in the auditorium.

Our congratulations go to another MHS organization, the high school band. It presented its annual Spring concert last Friday night.

The pool tournament at the Youth Center really is attracting a lot of attention. Six girls' teams now are on the "ladder" for the girls' championship.

We usually try not to cover too many of the incidents which happen in the high school, but we just can't resist passing on this one incident to you! Mrs. Philippus, one of the math teachers in MHS, found some strips of paper in one of the halls with the name, Raoul Duffy on them. Mrs. Philippus immediately sent Wanda Burnside to the office to check on this person—after all, paper should not be thrown down in the halls. Mrs. Philippus certainly was surprised when Wanda returned to tell her that Raoul Duffy was not registered in the office, but he was one of the most famous American artists! She still is laughing about the mistake!

A few weeks ago we told you just how happy Jane Beakey was because she had been given a convertible. Well, this week Jane was made happy again—she passed her driver's test! Congratulations, Jane!

Popular Sun Tans
As only natural this time of year, sun tans once more are popular in Midland High. Stormy Coleman has started a new fad—taking sun baths on the roof of her home. She has passed her "fad" on to another teener—Gail Dixon. Both girls are getting head starts on Summer tans.

Earl Padgett, a stranger to all Midlanders until recently, was here on a visit again last weekend. Two of Earl's friends—Wayne Stroud and Lyndell Ross—were here with Earl. The boys are from Lubbock.

We have heard of peroxidized hair, red hair, brown hair, black hair, white hair, green hair, and all the "civilized" color of hair—they are "civilized", because we actually have seen these colors on people. But it took Margaret Gibson to think up pink hair! Yes, Margaret has put a pink streak in her hair.

While walking down Illinois Street the other day, we passed the Blackmans' house and saw Adele Davenport—a used-to-be Blackman—sitting by the window with her son John. He surely is a fine and cute boy. You better watch all these Midland High girls when they see him, Adele!

Alstrin's Ducks
Giffert Alstrin is the owner of three baby ducks. Mary Ann McRae and Peggy Simmons gave them to him the other day.

Since one of the conductors of this column has the mumps, we now know how so many of the MHS teeners have felt who have had them recently. But we are glad to see Sadie Nugent, Pat Douglass and Jim Ervin now over the mumps.

Girl Scout Troop 12 has been quite active lately in square dancing. They are going to Fort Stockton soon for a square dancing exhibition.

Speaking of Girl Scouts, Troop 8 has been busy lately also. The members have been planning a trip to Mo-Ranch for the weekend of May 11. Have fun, girls!

Also Troop 4 had a slumber party for its members about a week ago, but we forgot to mention it then.

The Midland High Band Barquet is planned for May 12. It is to be formal. It is for all the band members and their dates.

Two of our YC members—Larry Watts and Basil Weaver—went on a trip to Sweetwater last week. Did you boys have a good time?

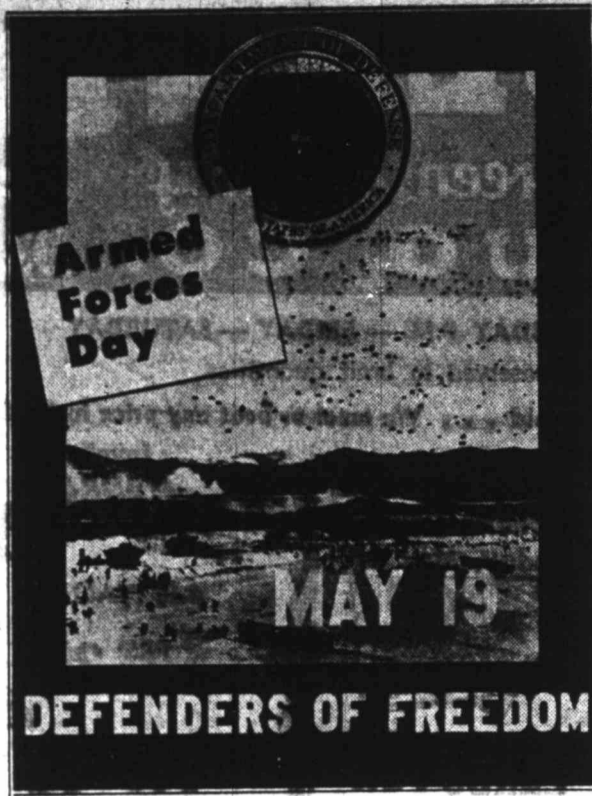

We forgot to mention last week that Peggy Reed went with her family to the Ice Capades of '31 in Fort Worth recently. Peggy says she had a wonderful time.

Also we forgot to mention that one of our freshman members, Mary Ann Hill, took a trip with her older sister to Old Mexico.

Some of the teeners nowadays have some of the most peculiar nicknames. Do you know any of these people by their nicknames?

"Little Chief" Morningstar, "Speck" Culppepper, "Frog" Bradshaw, "Hampshire" Coker, "Legs" Frasier, "Kirk" Kuykendall, "Doll" Miller, "Tight" Luce, "Weed" Johnson, "Lil' Un" Grisham, "Bro" Gilmore, "Foya Ohappelle" Ohapple, "Aggie Mack" Hill, "Smooch" Steadman, "Doogie" Cooper, "Ace" Bland, "Babe" Deavenport, "Tony" Paden, "Kita" McKinsey, "Tony" Dunagan, "Little Ashby," "Cookie" Cook, "Gator" Tabor, "Duffy" Tabor, "Lil' the Bull" Whitson, "Bones" Boles, "Droopy" Bradley, "Timber" Farrest, "McGee" Harris, "Sissy" Harris, "Romeo" Mayfield, "Tubby" Frick, "Talulah" Birkhead, "Rick" Robinson, "Tojo" Wright, "Toots" Woods, "Squaw" Wright, "Hamm" Burris, "Junior" Cox.

OFFICIAL POSTER—Here is the official poster calling attention to the observance of Armed Forces Day, Saturday, May 19.

Texas Baptists Give To Hospital Fund

DALLAS—Texas Baptists will observe Mother's Day, Sunday May 19, by giving to a special hospital charity fund in their churches.

The churches of the Baptist General Convention of Texas will take the offering in cooperation with the seven Baptist hospitals in the state. The money given on this day each year goes to the hospitals for care of patients who are unable to pay for treatment.

The theme of this year's observance is "Be a Good Samaritan in 1931."

Each Baptist is urged to give one day's care for one needy patient. The average cost for one day's hospitalization is $16.25. Churches and church organizations are being asked to provide for one or more patients for a week. The average cost per patient for seven days is $113.75.

"Hat" Cline, "Featherhead" Weathered, "Chimp" Dixon, "Monk" Padgett, "Boogie" Douglass, "Fuzzybo" Scoggins and "Red" Johnson. Our sympathy is with Peggy Luce who had an acute attack of appendicitis. We hope you recover real soon, Peggy!

Congratulations to Arnold Drake, Frank Ingham, John Midkiff and George Glass who had a very nice Western dance Friday night.

We said at the beginning of the greeting "hello" makes everyone feel so good, but "goodbye" always makes one feel sad; we are sorry, but we just don't have any more news of interest (?) to tell you, so we must say "Goodbye" for this week, but you'll hear from us again next Thursday.

Students Show Their Art Work

An all-schools art exhibit opened Thursday in Midland and will continue through May 25. The works of all the art students will be on display.

Students in grades one to three will display their drawings in their own rooms under the direction of their home room teacher.

Drawings, paintings and crafts of those in the fourth grade through the eighth will be shown in the rooms of their art teachers. These include Mary Louise Yoe, North Elementary; Lucille Carroll, South Elementary; Lottie Sue Chaffin, West Elementary; Betty Caffall, Crockett; Mary Logan, Terminal; Kittings Owings, De Zavala; and Maurine Horton and Tom Tibbitts, Junior High School.

Through Eighth Grade
Every student through the eighth grade will have art work on display during the exhibit, according to officials.

In the high school, Inez Parker, art teacher, and art director of the entire school system will show representative work of each of her students.

This practice of showing art work in the individual rooms is new this year. It takes the place of the Fine Arts Festival held in former years.

"We believe more parents and friends will view the exhibits in the individual schools," said Miss Parker.

Add finely diced celery and sweet pickles along with mayonnaise when you are making salmon salad; garnish with hard-cooked eggs and serve on lettuce.

For a coffee milk shake shake together a cup of cold milk, a half-cup of cold strong coffee, a tablespoon of sugar, and a dash of cinnamon. To make this into a frosted, add a small scoop of vanilla ice cream and shake again until well blended.

When you buy a teakettle make sure that the handle is large enough and that you can grasp it easily. The outside surface of the teakettle should be smooth and easy to clean, since it is likely to get splattered often as it stands on the range.

BOUQUET ICE CREAM CAKE, with pink marshmallow frosting, is dessert treat for Mother's Day.

Mother's Day Dessert Banquet

By GAYNOR MADDOX
NEA Staff Writer

How's this colorful idea for the cake young daughter serves as a gala surprise on Mother's Day—a pink layer cake topped with alternating petals of strawberry and vanilla ice cream. To complete the ice cream flower, a ball of vanilla sprinkled with coconut is placed in the center. To carry out the nose-gay picture, there is a base of lace paper doilies and a ribbon bow.

Nothing difficult about this. Use a prepared white cake mix and buy the ice cream in bulk. The pink marshmallow frosting recipe is very easy to make.

Bouquet Ice Cream Cake

One package prepared white cake mix, few drops red coloring, 1 pint strawberry ice cream (bulk), 1 pint vanilla ice cream (bulk), 1 recipe pink marshmallow frosting, 1/4 cup yellow-tinted coconut (shredded).

Prepare cake according to package directions, adding coloring to liquid. Bake cake in two 8-inch pans covered with cookie sheets to preserve pink color. Place one layer on round plate with dolly edging under plate. Cover with icing and arrange second layer on top. Ice sides only, with pink frosting.

Scoop ice cream from container with large oval tablespoon to form petal shapes. Place petals on ice cream freezer tray and replace in refrigerator until ready to use. To serve, cover top of cake with alternate strawberry and vanilla ice cream petals. Sprinkle coconut on center to give pollen effect or else roll scoop of vanilla ice cream in coconut and place in center.

Pink Marshmallow Frosting

Six marshmallows, 6 tablespoons milk, 1/8 teaspoon salt, 3 tablespoons butter, few drops red food coloring, 1 teaspoon vanilla flavoring, 2 1/4 cups confectioners' sugar. Combine marshmallows, milk and salt in top of double boiler; heat over hot water until marshmallows

1951

Down through the years Furr's Super Markets has played an important role in the food retailing picture in West Texas and New Mexico.

Out of the stir and dust of the first Furr's unit, the Kirkland Mercantile Co., in Kirkland, Texas, just out of Childress, Texas, has come 31 super markets, headquartered at Lubbock, Texas. Some 25 more are out of the Amarillo division.

It was C. W. Furr, now deceased and father of Roy Furr, president of Furr's, Inc., Lubbock, who founded the first store, in 1904. In 1925 he moved to Amarillo, Texas, and began operations there. In 1929, Roy Furr moved to Lubbock with the purchase of six M-System stores. They were located at that time, three in Lubbock and one each in Littlefield, Idalou and Shallowater.

Since then the progress of Furr's Super Markets has been rapid. Furr's now has stores in El Paso (8), Lubbock (8), Odessa (2), and one each in Childress, Plainview, Brownfield, Levelland, Littlefield, Lamesa, Big Spring, Snyder, Odessa, Midland and Monahans in Texas and Carlsbad, Hobbs and Roswell in New Mexico.

Furr's operates a meat packing plant, a cannery, a creamery, bakery and egg plant in Lubbock as well as a wholesale house in El Paso. Some 800 persons are on the payroll, and with such volume prices have been kept to a minimum what with such buying power.

With Roy Furr is C. B. Boverie, vice president; Clifton H. Cummings, secretary-treasurer; his son Don G. Furr, personnel director and a host of other executives who handle supervision of the operation.

In 47 years Furr's family has grown to a huge one, one which has its growth in many towns of West Texas and New Mexico, where families are a strong part of these communities.

50,000th CUP—Salvation Army Capt. F. M. Gaugh passes the 50,000th cup of coffee served by The Salvation Army Servicemen's Center at Love Field airport in Dallas to Armed Forces inductee Benny Turner of Burk Burnett. The interested onlooker is Colonel John F. Taylor, area commanding officer for recruiting and induction. "Your efforts, Colonel Taylor told Salvation Army officers and canteen volunteer workers, 'make these men realize that they are not forgotten by the folks at home when they make the rapid transition from civilian to soldier life.' Men and women in the Armed Forces from all over Texas get free refreshments through strategically located Salvation Army canteens. Electrolysis Seems Best Way To Remove Excess Hair

By EDWIN F. JORDAN, M. D.
Written for NEA Service

There must be few conditions which cause more distress to sensitive women than excessive hairiness. Miss R. B. writes: "I am 23 years old and so hairy it is pathetic. I was considering electrolysis but it seems an endless task and I understand it causes the skin to dry out..." A correspondent who signs herself "Wondering" asks whether electrolysis is dangerous and whether it can be done on a child. Mrs. E. wants to know whether electrolysis should be done with one needle or more.

These and other questions show how many people are deeply concerned about excessive hair which they consider a blot on their looks. The first thing to say about excessive hairiness is that it hardly ever is the result of disease. Why some women have more than others is hard to say, though it is often blamed partly on inheritance.

What are the alternatives for a woman who has so much hair that it interferes with her peace of mind? She can, of course, make the best of it, do nothing, and try to forget it. This may be best if the hairiness is not too conspicuous. Then there are the temporary things such as shaving (this tends to thicken the hair in time), bleaching or dyeing the hair to make it less conspicuous, removing it with a wax or some other substance which pulls it out by the roots, or rubbing the hairs off.

One manufacturer of a well-known device for rubbing the hairs off wrote me in distress when I did not indicate approval of this method on a previous occasion. It is not permanent, but I understand many women have found it helpful. Then there are the permanent methods of hair removal. One of them, X-ray, has been warned against by skin specialists and official medical organizations because of the dangers. But in electrolysis, when properly performed, there is a safe and permanent method of removing excessive hair. It does not dry the skin seriously (Miss B. take notice). Whether one or more needles should be used may be left to the operator, Mrs. E. It can be used at any age.

Less Painful New

In the past electrolysis was time-consuming and rather painful. Now I am told (though I have not tried it) new methods of destroying the bed of the hairs make the process not only many times as rapid as in the past but also practically painless.

Perhaps excessive hairiness seems more of a cosmetic problem than a medical one, but it often has an effect on the mental attitude which seems out of proportion to any direct physical action.

United Celebrates 23rd Anniversary

The United, Inc., 121 North Main Street, will open its twenty-third anniversary celebration Friday with a big storewide sale offering many special values.

Date for ending the sale has not been set, according to John Biggs, manager.

"We want all of our friends and customers to come in during this celebration and see for themselves the quality merchandise they can buy at savings prices during this celebration," Biggs said.

The anniversary is being observed in the other United, Inc., stores in Big Spring, Pecos, and in New Mexico and Arizona.

JACOBY ON CANASTA

By OSWALD JACOBY
Written for NEA Service

Most experienced players know that it is very unwise to make an initial meld from the hand that uses up a substantial number of cards. You get caught without enough cards in your hand to fight for the discard pile.

For example suppose you need 90 points for the first meld and that you draw from the stock and hold: A-Q-J-10 9-9-8 8-8-8.

You are able to reach the minimum by melding all the tens, nines, and eights. Then you would have to discard, after which you would have two odd cards left.

However, this would be a very poor meld to make. You would have practically no chance to get the discard pile, and you would need remarkably luck to meld out quickly.

Better policy with this hand is to keep the cards all in your hand and hope for a good break. Perhaps a ten, nine, or eight will be discarded to you; and you will then get a discard pile. Perhaps your partner will be able to get the pile or to meld more economically from his hand.

The situation would be different, however, if you needed 50 points and held, after a draw from the stock, such a hand as:

A 7-7-7 6-6-6 4-4-4

Your best play is to meld your sevens, sixes, and fours. Then you discard the ace, save the deuce in your hand, and wait for developments.

The chances are very good that your partner will add enough to one of your melds so that you will be able to make a canasta and meld out at your next turn—or perhaps the turn after that.

The big argument in favor of melding at once is that you have practically no chance to do yourself much good if you hold up. Even if you get the discard pile you won't be able to make a big hand. There are too many high cards and wild cards available to the opponents, so that they will be able to stop your parade before it even gets started.

Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Bridges and Granville Graves recently visited in the Henry Bridges' home at Lamesa.

Mrs. B. P. Burselson of Streetman, Texas, recently visited here with Mrs. Viola McClane.

Dutch ovens come in two styles: they either have two side-handles, or a ball handle with one side handle for balancing. They are usually made of heavy aluminum, stainless steel, or case iron. A good Dutch oven has a close-fitting cover.

Serve with fresh strawberries and cream.
For ease and speed of preparation make these downy-textured cupcakes with an instant cake mix. For convenience, bake in paper baking cups (set in muffin pans) to eliminate scrubbing cupcake pans.

On each of six of them, make one letter of word MOTHER with little silver or green candies, then arrange alphabetical cakes in order to spell out their salutation.
Downy Coconut Cupcakes
(Makes 18 cupcakes)
One package white cake mix, 3/4 cup shredded coconut, cut 2 egg yolks, unbeaten, 1/2 cup milk and 2 3/4 cup milk, lemon frosting.
Turn cake mix into bowl. Add remaining 2 3/4 cup milk. Blend.

Ranchmen Staging Drives Against Coyotes, Bobcats

McGAMERY—Ranchmen in north-west Upton and Crane Counties have been suffering severe losses for the last three or four weeks from coyotes and bobcats which have been destroying lambs and chasing ewes.
Several drives against the wild animals have been staged by ranch owners K. P. Looney, Canon Lyles and A. O. Beavers, assisted by Mutt Black.
Four drives have been staged recently with the ranch owners and their hands taking part, with 13 to 25 cowboys in the chase, and with the help of two airplanes. These cowboys have been assisted by the federal and county trapper, Dinger Barfield. The airplanes were employed at the expense of the area ranchers.
On the first three drives a total of three wolves and two extra large bobcats were trophy.

In one drive, 25 riders and pickup staged a push and were able to kill a giant male coyote that had been doing considerable damage on the Beavers ranch. This animal not only had killed lambs but had been running the ewes during lambing season.
These drives have been starting at the Pecos River and running eastward. According to the different ranchmen, the predators have been coming into Crane and Upton Counties from the Grandfalls, Buena Vista area and from the Cowden and McElroy country.
The noon meals for drivers have been served at the Looney and Lyles ranches and the next meal will be served at the A. O. Beavers headquarters ranch.
Ranchman Beavers says, "If you don't think that the big coyotes and bobcats are coming into this country, just go out west on Highway 67, beyond Lancaster's Drive-In, and take a look at some of them hanging on the fence."
Prince Albert introduced the Christmas tree into England.

Miller To Meet With Odd Fellows
MONAHANS—Leonard H. Miller of Midland, grand warden of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows, Grand Lodge of Texas, will be here May 18 at a district meeting of IOOF lodges.
Miller, who visits lodges over the state, especially in West Texas, was elected to the third highest IOOF post of a state level in a March meeting held in Fort Worth.
On May 10 he will attend a district meeting in Corsicana.

Civil Service Needs Medical Specialists

Medical doctors, dentists, nurses and medical technicians are on the urgent list for positions at various hospitals in Texas, Paul H. Figg, Director, Fourteenth U. S. Civil Service Region, said Tuesday.
The need for increased personnel has been brought on by the vastly increased rearmament program, Figg said.
Necessary forms for making application for these positions may be obtained at the Midland Post Office, or at any first or second-class post office in the state.
Lentil soup with frankfurter slices makes a good Sunday night supper dish. Add a salad and pumpernickel bread to the menu, and for dessert serve cheese and crackers.

Pure Spring Water At Its Best-Ozarka

The Ozarka Water Company, 402 South Big Spring Street, brings to Midlanders pure spring water from the world's greatest health region. Because of the therapeutic value of the pure spring waters which supply the Ozarka firm here, the United States government opened its first national park in Arkansas in 1832. Thousands of persons visit the famous resort at Eureka Springs, Ark., each year and hundreds of thousands more are aided at home by drinking this fine water.

Ozarka water has diuretic and slight antacid properties which make it especially valuable in all gastric disturbances due to acidity and hyperacidity. It is excellent for the sick and the well, according to B. H. Spaw, manager of the Midland firm.

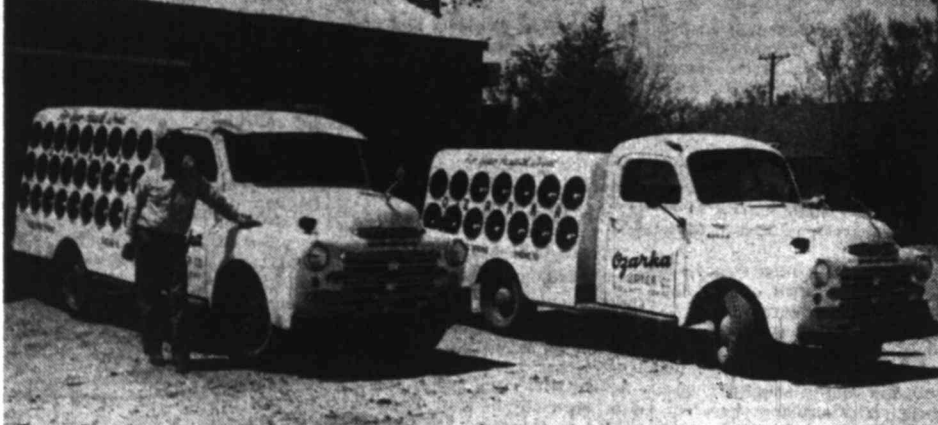

Delivery Service
Spaw has been a Midland resident 22 years and has been associated with the Ozarka firm the last seven years.

The concern operates two trucks here, supplying retail outlets, and also features home delivery. The telephone number is 111. Cooler rental service and drinking cups also are provided. Delivery service is free.

The Eureka Springs water flows from the base of a lofty limestone and granite mountain. After the water is tested for purity it is shipped to Midland in glass-lined tank cars. Here it is tested again before being bottled.

Spaw invites you to try Ozarka water and take advantage of its wonderful benefits.

NO BUMPS IN 21 YEARS
DENVER —(AP)—Capt. Ivan Olson, pilot for Continental Air Lines, this year began his 21st year of flying with 23,000 hours airborne behind him. He says he never has even scratched an airplane. Every time he completes another 1,000 hours, Olson passes out candy to the passengers.

RIGHT TO YOUR HOME—The Ozarka Water Company, 402 South Big Spring Street, will deliver pure spring water right to your home. This water comes from Eureka Springs, Ark., which is located in the world's greatest health region. Ozarka water also is available at grocery stores and other business establishments. The telephone number of the Ozarka Water Company is 111.

B&B Butane Service Routes Cover All Parts Of County

B&B Butane Service, 321 South Fort Worth Street, has routes covering all part of Midland County and if you still are using one of the old methods of cooking and heating then you are requested to get on the list for butane service. The telephone number is 2102, day or night.

The management can point out to you that living away from natural gas lines or other convenient fuel services need not mean you must be denied the conveniences of modern living.

Butane is one of the cleanest fuels obtainable. In fact, many users are hailing it as clean as electricity for cooking. Its economy is undebatable. Morris Snider of Midland and H. S. Blocker of Stanton are co-owners of B&B Butane Service. The firm has been operating more than a year.

Appliances In Stock
In addition to butane gas, the firm handles appliances, including heaters and cooking ranges, hot water heaters and other related items.

Complete service, from installation of tanks to servicing equipment, is provided.

Heaters with or without vents are available at B&B.

The B&B also handles Presto-Gas, which is used by plumbers.

The cook stoves handled by B&B are equipped to burn either natural gas or butane, and there is nothing extra to buy when switching to either fuel.

Plumbing fixtures handled by B&B include bath tubs, commodes, kitchen sinks, septic tanks and chrome-finished brass fittings, traps, and related items.

Everything But Red In Real Estate Deal

DUBOIS, PA.—(AP)—Attorney Leo Brockbank saw everything but red while closing a real estate deal. Here's what happened:

Roland and Mary White sold their property to John and Nancy Gray. John Green, William G. Brown and Charles Black witnessed the transaction.

Brockbank says blue ink was used.

First Class Service Is Pledge Of Basin Electric

The Basin Electric Company, located at 306 North Weatherford Street, has the qualified personnel and the fixtures and quality materials to give you a first class wiring job on residential or commercial structures.

T. A. Gamblin is owner and manager of the firm, which is the successor to the Webb Electric Company. Gamblin has been in the electrical business in Midland more than three years, having come here from Brady.

Basin Electric will be glad to give you estimates on that wiring contract. Just telephone number 3904. You are invited to come in and look over the beautiful array of lighting fixtures which are designed for all purposes. Basin Electric has the right fixture and the prices are right, too.

Service calls are another specialty of the Basin Electric Company. There are five experienced service men ready to answer your trouble call without delay. Gamblin asks that you try this service if anything goes wrong with the electrical service in your home or business establishment.

Other Items Stocked
In addition to lighting fixtures, the Basin Electric Company carries a stock of other items, including Nutone chimes and exhaust fans and medicine cabinets.

Recessed lighting fixtures are other items which are proving popular among Midland residents. These can be cleaned much more easily than the standard type, since you just push up the glass to release it. After dusting it slips back into place with the greatest of ease.

Beauty-O-Lite venetian blinds are stocked by the Basin Electric Company and installation also is done by the firm. The venetian blinds are custom made and are of metal and aluminum types.

A recent commercial job, which is a fine example of the work done by Basin Electric, is the new Texas-New Mexico Pipe Line Company Building here.

MacArthur Papers Only Small Part Of Still 'Secret' Files

WASHINGTON — (AP) — Documents involved in the General MacArthur firing case aren't the only ones in the military's still "secret" files.

Those files contain some a century old and still "secret." They date back before the Civil War and run on up to the present.

The reasons for other still-secret

Bridge In California Is Placed On Block

SANTA BARBARA, CALIF. — (AP) — Wants buy a bridge? The county supervisors have one up for sale. It's a 1,200-foot steel span, built at a cost of $714,892 in 1917, which crosses the Santa Ynez River north of here. It was made useless when the highway it served was rerouted. The supervisors don't expect anyone to buy it for transportation to another site. They hope someone will be interested in salvaging the steel.

in the Civil War. She was arrested as a Confederate spy, then released under an amnesty order signed by President Lincoln.

Why do the documents on this little footnote to history still bear the red secret stamp? The Defense

BATON TWIRLER — Beautiful, brunette Norma Kniffen, national champion baton twirler the last two years, will highlight the appearance of the famed Hardin-Simmons Cowboy Band at the National Intercollegiate championship rodeo in Fort Worth's Will Rogers Coliseum May 9-13.

Department says their publication, even after these many years, would "bring embarrassment to families of the deceased."

Building Methods, 1860 — Army engineer office workers say that somewhere in the files of that office are records dating back "long before" the Civil War, still classified secret. It may be they concern some then-new method of bridge building, classified secret and just never changed.

The State Department only in recent years has released documents concerned with events leading up to and during World War I.

The secret stamp on the official report on operations of the American Expeditionary Force in Siberia in 1919 wasn't removed until last year.

When Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower became Army chief of staff soon after World War II he set out to make available a quantity of military material on that war. He named a board which made a study of the documents. Some of the material was released for publication. But a substantial part wasn't.

Why? Among the explanations given at the Pentagon now is that almost all of the European campaigns and at least part of the Pacific campaigns were conducted in joint operations with or at least under joint planning by our World War II Allies. The United States cannot, by itself, release documents which concern other friendly powers, like Britain.

Security Not Involved — For these reasons and probably others, some of the original reports dealing with some famous World War II campaigns—the so-called "operational" and "after-action" reports of the generals who planned and fought the battles—still are secret.

Occasionally the secret stamp is used for reasons that have no relation to military security. There was the instance of Gen. John J. Pershing's funeral. The AEF chief of World War I was critically ill several years before his death. The Army got ready a detailed plan for his funeral, including even the uniform he was to wear and the medals for the uniform.

Finally Pershing died one night. Army public relations officials hastened to get ready the information regarding funeral plans—only to find they had to wait until the next day. The plans bore a "secret" stamp and couldn't be used until someone in high authority had signed an order removing the classification.

Daughters Are Baking Cakes For Mothers

Daughters, granddaughters and daughters-in-law are "turning the tables" this Mothers Day by baking Mrs. Tucker's Special Mothers Day Cake for their own mothers.

The beautiful, Fresh Orange Layer Cake is a special Speed-Mix recipe developed by Mrs. Tucker's Homemakers' Department. The recipe and a special Mothers Day card may be had by addressing Mrs. Tucker, Sherman, Texas.

CRANE—Mrs. H. G. Huffman, superintendent of the Crane County Memorial Hospital, recently attended the annual convention of the Texas Hospital Association held in San Antonio.

Mrs. Roy Ward and Mrs. J. K. Price attended a domestic sewing and instruction school in Odessa. Mrs. Theo Price is a new employee of the Wesberry Insurance Agency, taking the place of Mrs. R. E. Fletcher who is on vacation.

Rus Brandon recently was admitted to a McCamey hospital. David Drew Lockhart, four-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. D. K. Lockhart of the Sandhills Camp, a polo victim. He was admitted to a San Angelo hospital.

Darrell Tomlinson, a 1950 graduate of Crane High School, now a freshman at Tarleton State College, recently appeared on a radio program over a Dallas station. He played with the Western Swingsters Band. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Tomlinson and was voted the "Most Musical Boy" of Crane High when he was a senior.
