But should the war by some chance be ended by that date, the conviction is strong in many quarters that Congress would allow control legislation to die.

Apparently some capital lawmakers already are arguing that if the Korean war ends the defense program can be curtailed, with consequent easing of inflationary forces.

The men who take this position appear to have missed the point of the rearmament effort. It is only indirectly related to Korea. Its primary aim is to prepare the United States and its Allies for possible war with the Soviet Union.

public but it was understood Balinger and Winters offered Webb $5,000 to move the club to Ballinger with a guarantee of enough fans to handle operating costs and the club payroll. Webb still would own the club and franchise, had he accepted that offer.

But Webb said to the Midland fans who approached him Sunday, 'I want the club to stay in Midland if the people want it."

crowd that packed Hotel Scharcauer's Crystal Ballroom, Webb said he thought it was "about time I got out of Midland." He first priced the club at $30,000 the amount he earlier has asked-and talked to the fans concerning the assets of the club and its equipment.

Re listed as assets, present Indian players Eddie Jacome, Bruce Blumenthal, Bill Reed, Donald Blair, Dave McKenzie, Kenny Gordon Tanner, Dick Campbell, Woody Pennington, Eddie Melillo, Scooter Hughes, and Hayden White: contracts of former Midland players Ralph Blair, Quinten Basco, Bob Phillion, Lou Dawson and Tex Stephenson, all of whom now are in the Army; Gus Pena, who is out of organized baseball this year, and Jim Prince, who is on the voluntary retired list, a bus baseball equipment and uniforms, two soft drink vending machines. office equipment, a popcorn machine, several hundred steel chairs, lights at the park two hot water heaters, an air conditioner, mattresses and beds in the player's clubhouse, the clubhouse itself, and present ticket supplies. Players Bill Hornsby and Rudy Escobar are on option and not outright property of the club.

After a meeting of the appointed directors, it was agreed the price would be $20,000; Webb would pay any outstanding debts of the club, but would retain money for box advertising. Webb said some of the ad money hadn't been collected, and would go to the new organization when paid. 'No III WIII'

In closing, Webb said he wanted to thank Midland and Midland people for "their support here and I'm sorry we couldn't make a go of

"I bear no ill will toward Midland," he said, "and I hope Midland bears no ill will toward me."

Asked about his future plans, Webb said he would "rest and go fishing" for awhile and then cracked: "I may take up umpiring in the Longhorn League.'

But he then said seriously he would attend to pressing business duties in Fort Worth. "I'll also be glad to help Midland obtain players if they want my help," he said.

Meanwhile, officials of the new organization said a stirring campaign to raise the needed funds would get underway here. Fans were asked to contact either John P. Butler at The First National Bank, Delbert Downing at the Chamber of Commerce, or Larry King at The Reporter-Telegram to purchase stock in the ball club.

Midland players were elated over nation, is suffering from neglect, the sale and promised to "play as well as we can and hustle" for their new owners, the people of Midland. Several had stated their intention of quitting baseball if the franchise was moved to Ballinger.

Webb managed Midland to a spot in the first division each season, with the exception of last year, and won the pennant in 1948. The 1951 team is in the lower confines of Longhorn League standings, World By Touch according to the fans of Midland. "It won't be that way long."

LONDON - The world's international police are being turned on the job of safeguarding airline cargoes.

Announcing this, Sir William P Hildred, director general of the International Air Transport Association declared: "Pilferage of airline cargoes is extremely rare . . . in-ternational air cargo has become established as the safest way to ship, and we mean to keep it so." So the world's scheduled airlines are cooperating with the International Criminal Police Commission to improve safeguards for cargoes help prevent smuggling by air and ports, it was announced.

PUSHING 'EM BACK IN KOREA-Here's what a close air support mission looks like to the pilot of a Navy Douglas Skyraider as he dives to bomb Chinese Communist forces in Korea. UN troops were pinned down along irrigation ditch (upper right) and UN tanks are halted on road to their right. Chinese forces were laying down heavy mortar fire from buildings in center. UN commanders called for close air support. The planes blasted the Chinese, who held the line indicated. The frag and napalm bombs flushed them into the open and they fled across rice paddies under aerial strafing to new positions shown at lower left. Photo was taken by Cdr. Richard C. The answer to the first question appears to be that vague evidences of "middle age" occur in some men and not in others. When they do they are likely to be the result of some definite physical ailment or defect in living habits, such as insufficient sleep, poorly chosen exercise or recreation, poor diet, oversmoking or drinking or similarly easily identifiable cause.

It seems inexcusable that middleaged men bould be bombarded with advertisements suggesting that they treat themselves with male hormone. There is conflicting evidence on the usefulness of methyl testosterone, and it is especially doubtful that this substance can ever restore the pep and vigor of Pretzels started in Rome when they were given to children for saying their prayers properly, says the National Geographic Society. The shape of the pretzel is said to represent little arms folded.

Water Purifying Device Introduced To Midland Market

A water purifying device that is said to remove all bacteria from water is being introduced to Midland consumers.

The purifier, a product of the Ogden Filter and Puriving Company of Los Angeles, it distributed in Midland by John G. Feely, 1017 North Whitaker Street.

Feely's distributorship was anrepresentative of the Ogden firm. De Vaux, formerly of Breckenridge This inquiry raises two important said his visit here had the dual questions: whether lack of pep, purpose of introducing the purifier vigor and other vague symptoms in to Midland buyers and conducting middle aged men is something requiring treatment; and if it does, in the oil industry.

Boys Dish Out Bum Steer To Runners; Then Go Thataway

QUINCY, MASS. -(AP)- One of the biggest "bum steers" in a long to a dead end Sunday.

Forty runners broke away from the Municipal Stadium in the annual Knights of Columbus jaunt and at the first marker two men had spurted well out front.

As they started to make a turn on their course, two boys standing by the roadside yelled: "Hey, that's the wrong way.' The runners pulled up a second and then took off in the direction Minutes later the two were smack up against a dead end street and minutes after that the whole field was pulling up and behind them and all was confusion. It was so bad officials said the ace would be run over again next Sunday. What about the boys? They went thataway.
