Gulf Gets Flowing Pennsylvania Oil In Upton Wildcat

Gulf Oil Corporation is assured of a commercial producer and the discovery of a new oil field at its No. 1-H McElroy, Northwest Upton County wildcat.

This exploration flowed 122 barrels of new oil and four barrels of basic sediment and drilling water in eight hours through a one-half inch tubing choke.

The flow was at the rate of 398 barrels of oil per day. Gravity was 41.3 degrees. Gas-oil ratio was 1,298-1. There were no signs of formation water.

From Pennsylvania Pay

The production is coming from open hole in the Pennsylvania lime between the bottom of the 7-inch casing which is cemented at 9,109 feet, and the plugged back total depth at 9,250 feet.

That interval had been washed with 500 gallons of acid. Operator is now preparing to re-wash the pay section with another 500-gallon dose of mud acid.

After it is cleaned up the potential test likely will be run and the new field opener will be completed.

It is 1,980 feet from east and north lines of section 169, block B, OCS&D&RGNG survey. That makes it six miles northwest of the Wilshire - Ellenburger - Pennsylvania field and two miles east of the northeast side of the shallow McElroy pool.

Gulf No. 1-H McElroy got sulphur water in the Ellenburger in drilling to a bottom of 12,385 feet. It then plugged back to 9,250 feet.

Big Swab, Flow Gauge Reported In Midland Test

Operator reported a swabbing and flowing gauge of 204 barrels of clean oil in two hours through open two-inch tubing at Sohio Petroleum Company No. 1-A Hutt, assured producer slightly more than one mile west of the closest completed Spraberry well in the Driver field of Southeast Midland County.

The project is now shuttin while tanks are being erected on the lease. The above swabbing and flowing gauge came after open hole from 7,130 to 7,223 feet has been given a 2,250 gallon Hydracrac treatment. During the first hour of swabbing it made 87 barrels.

This important west extension of the Spraberry trend area is 660 feet from north and east lines of section 18, block 37, T-2-P survey, T-4-N, T-2-P survey.

Sohio No. 1 H. T. Boone, important link between the Tex-Harvey and Gerganilla fields, is at total depth of 7,130 feet with electric log surveys being run. Operator will drill to 7,140 feet and Hydracrac. There are 4,000 feet of clean oil in the hole.

Location is 660 feet from north and west lines of section 42, block 36, T-2-S, T-2-P survey.

Spraberry Fields In Upton Extended

Long extensions to two Northeast Upton County Spraberry fields have been reported to the Oil & Gas Division of the Railroad Commission of Texas.

Flowing 189.30 barrels of 36.9-gravity oil in 24 hours on potential test, Ashland No. 1-48 B. Sherrod extends the North Pembroke field two miles to the southeast.

Production is from open hole at 8,982-7,129 feet. The completion was made up a one-half-inch choke. Gas-oil ratio was 478-1. The open hole section was acidized with 3,000 gallons.

Location is 1,980 feet from south and 660 feet from east lines of section 48, block 38, T-5-S, T-2-P survey.

Extending the Weiner-Floyd field one and one-quarter miles southeast, B. L. McFarland, Inc., of Midland, formerly carried as Ted Weiner, et al, No. 1-28 Leonard Producer was finished for a 24-hour potential of 215.2 barrels of 37.4-gravity oil flowing through a one-half-inch choke.

Production is from open hole at 8,900-7,040 feet. Location is 1,980 feet from south and 660 feet from west lines of section 28, block 37, T-5-S, T-2-P survey.

Six Locations Set Near Howard Open

Spartan Drilling Company has staked locations for six tests around its Clear Fork discovery in Northwest Howard County.

The new field opener, No. 1 Phillips, is still shuttin for potential.

Spartan No. 2 Phillips will be drilled 900 feet from north and 350 feet from east lines of the southeast quarter of section 19, block 25, (Continued On Page Nine)

Marshall Warns Of 'Buildup'

WASHINGTON — (P) — Secretary of Defense Marshall, appealing to Congress to move "as quickly as possible" on military aid for the free nations, said Friday "the buildup on the other side is rather ominous."

"Aside from the tragedy of the casualties, Korea is an incident in the world picture," Marshall soberly told the House Foreign Affairs Committee.

He did not elaborate on the meaning of his terse assertion there was an ominous "buildup" of forces among the Communist nations.

Earlier, Marshall had declared "a crucial test of the success of the mutual security program must be met in Western Europe."

The United States, he said, must expect to maintain for "at least" three more years a multi-billion dollar level of spending for foreign military aid.

Fears Letdown

Marshall made plain he feared a letdown in the event of a Korean truce. It was one of the "most serious considerations," he declared, adding:

"The world picture requires us to continue building up our strength and in some ways to increase it."

America's future position in Korea and the Far East, Marshall said, depends largely upon the state of (Continued On Page Five)

Eight Navy Men Die In Plane Crash

KEY WEST, FLA. — (P) — Eight Navy men were killed and one escaped with a broken leg Friday in the crash of a patrol bomber.

One of the men taken from the water by rescue craft died of injuries later.

The plane, a PBM, fell in the Florida Straits off a nearby island. It was based at the Key West Naval Seaplane Station.

The big twin-engine plane was taking off when the accident occurred.

The identity of the crew members will be made public after notification of next of kin.

Witnesses said the two-engine aircraft cartwheeled before it sank upside down in 12 feet of water.

Navy divers were rushed to the scene by truck and boat and diving operations are underway to secure bodies which apparently still are in the upturned plane.

Leaders Of Junior Baseball Will Present Their Story To City Council Saturday

The men behind Midland's junior-grade baseball will tell their story Saturday to the City Council.

The 10 o'clock hearing Saturday morning was called Friday after one of the leagues announced it had suspended play for lack of a playing field.

And, at the same time, the council ordered a thorough study of what Mayor Perry Pickett termed a "sad lack of overall recreation facilities in Midland."

The storm over the recreation program broke into the open after a protest against baseball games in the area east of Midland Stadium was voiced Tuesday night by a delegation of residents in the neighborhood who appeared before the City Council.

They said the games not only stirred up too much dust but that

The body of the lieutenant is scheduled to arrive by train Friday night with military escort.

Pilot of a P2-V Neptune, Lieutenant Sevier was killed when the big patrol bomber crashed while landing at Kodiak Naval Air Station, and overshooting the runway upon returning from a routine patrol flight. Three crewmen were injured and six were unhurt.

The Midlander was a squadron commander and only recently had been sent to Alaska for overseas training.

He was a graduate of Midland High School and attended Texas A&M College. He entered Navy service after taking the Naval V-12 training in college. He was a commissioned officer before taking flight training.

U. S. Tries To Keep Iran Oil Flowing

TEHRAN, IRAN — (P) — U. S. Ambassador Henry F. Grady appealed anew to Premier Mohammed Mossadegh Friday for concessions that would insure the flow of oil to the West from the world's largest refinery at Abadan.

Grady talked with Mossadegh, then said chances for easing Iran's oil crisis "don't look too bright" despite Mossadegh's promise to suspend anti-sabotage legislation opposed by the British. But British officials, with the refinery under the guns of one of their cruisers, appeared more hopeful.

Grady said he would propose to the British that they keep their technicians on the job at Abadan.

A British Embassy spokesman said employees of the Anglo-Iranian Oil Company, which operates the refinery and produces virtually all of Iran's oil, would not be withdrawn so long as the refinery stays open. Withdrawal of the technicians would close the refinery.

The U. S. ambassador made clear that the premier would not budget on the nationalization program. At Khorramshahr, near Abadan, Iran's National Oil Commission took over AIOC's general executive offices.

Grady said Mossadegh refused to make even a temporary concession in the dispute with the AIOC over oil tanker receipts. Iran refused to let the tankers sail without such receipts and AIOC ordered the tankers to unload their cargoes and pull away from the docks. The receipts indicate payment to the Iranian National Oil Company.

Previously AIOC had hinted the technicians will be withdrawn from the refinery when all the storage tanks fill up. There are tanks available to handle another eight full days of production.

(In London, British Foreign Secretary Herbert Morrison said there still is hope Iran will negotiate a settlement. He advised AIOC employees to stick together until normal operations can be resumed at the refinery.)

Contents Of Government Note Secret

WASHINGTON — (P) — The government Friday sent Gen. Matthew B. Ridgway general instructions on negotiation of a cease-fire in Korea.

Just what they are was not disclosed in the official word given out here. But informed sources in London said they had the support of all the 16 United Nations members with fighting forces in Korea.

The move pointed to some early action—perhaps within hours—to determine whether a truce can in fact be arranged.

William J. Sebald, U. S. diplomatic chief in Japan flew to Pusan, Korea, and conferred with John J. Muccio, the U. S. ambassador to Korea. No official announcement was made as to their discussions.

A spokesman for the South Korean government, Clarence Ryan said he felt the shooting war would stop within "the next few days."

South Koreans Unhappy

The South Koreans were unhappy however, over the prospect of a cease-fire along the 38th parallel—the old border between North and South Korea. Their legislature adopted unanimously a resolution opposing it.

In Congress here, there also was (Continued On Page Five)

Front Quiet As Talk Of Peace Grows

TOKYO — (P) — The fighting war virtually disappeared from the Korean front Friday under a mounting wave of cease-fire talk.

A small, fierce fight raged throughout the afternoon for a single hill northwest of Yonchon on the western front. The ridge changed hands six times before Allied forces withdrew, leaving Communists still holding the hill.

Chinese Reds threw some small probing attacks at the center of the line.

Elsewhere ground action was confined to patrol activity.

United Nations patrols screening the lower half of the "Iron Triangle" were turned back by heavy, though inaccurate fire.

"The Chinese don't shoot unless we provoke them," one officer commented. "They sit tight until we come in gun range, then they let loose."

The whole battlefield was like that. The U. S. Eighth Army took only 108 words Friday night to (Continued On Page Five)

Council Authorizes Advertisement Of Sewage Plant Bids

Advertisement of bids for Midland's long-planned new sewage disposal plant, which will cost an estimated $300,000 and serve a population of at least 50,000 people, was authorized Thursday afternoon by the City Council.

The council formally accepted final plans for the facility which will be constructed with part of a $3,000,000 bond issue approved by taxpayers last year.

The action came two days after the council authorized the purchase of a half-section of land southeast of the city as a site for the plant.

City Manager W. H. Oswald said the $300,000 estimated cost includes the mechanical equipment for the plant, which was purchased several months ago. It does not include the $64,000 cost of the site.

Jail Funds Voted

Other actions by the council at its weekly meeting included:

Authorization of advertising for bids for a $91,000 project to extend water lines in the Baumann Heights and Garden Heights additions.

Appropriation of $1,200 to pay the cost of keeping city prisoners in the county jail for the remainder of the fiscal year, following the abandonment of this week of the city jail.

Approving a resolution authorizing intervention, along with the Chamber of Commerce, in the application of Continental Air Lines to extend its service from Tulsa, Okla., to Kansas City, Mo.

Authorizing the purchase of 4,000 feet of 10-inch clay sewer pipe at a cost of $3,600 and $2,350 worth of iron pipe fittings.

Appropriation of $2,500 for the annual independent audit of the city's finances.

Hemingway Takes Over Friday

Charles R. (Rube) Hemingway is expected here Friday night to take over duties as chief of the Midland Police Department of which he has been a member for the last five years.

The 35-year-old police officer left Washington, D. C., immediately following graduation exercises at the Federal Bureau of Investigation's National Police Academy he has been attending for the last three months.

Hemingway, former police captain, was named last month to succeed Police Chief Jack Ellington, who resigned, along with Milan N. Plavick, director of the city's department of public safety.

The directorship still is vacant and City Manager W. H. Oswald said there are no plans for filling it immediately.

Hemingway will be the second Midland police officer to return this week from a police school.

Sgt. Jimmie J. Joyce returned Wednesday from a 12-week session of the Southern Police Institute conducted at Louisville, Ky., by the University of Louisville.

Sergeant Joyce, who received his promotion while attending the police school, is expected to be named identification officer to succeed Lt. Robert Branson. Branson has resigned, effective June 30, to enter private employment.

The new police chief is one of 86 officers from throughout the United States to be graduated Friday morning from the forty-seventh session of the police academy.

Czechs To Release Two Western Fliers

WASHINGTON — (P) — The State Department said Friday Czechoslovakia has agreed to release two Western pilots and their U. S. jet fighter planes. They have been held since they made emergency landings near Prague June 8.

It said the Czech Foreign Office gave Ambassador Ellis O. Briggs a note which promised to free the pilots and the planes, but did not state when. The Czech note was in response to a vigorous protest made this week by Briggs.

The planes, on a training flight in the American occupation zone of Germany, made emergency landings near Prague on June 8.

The pilots since have been held incommunicado while the Communist Czech authorities have carried on an "investigation" and complained that this was one of a long series of American "provocations."

The fliers are Lt. Luther G. Roland of Hummelstown, Pa., and Lt. Ejoern Johansen, a Norwegian training with the U. S. Air Force.

Midland Marine Back From Korea

Cpl. Don W. Stearman, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Patton of 1508 North Big Spring Street, has arrived in Midland after 11 months' combat duty in Korea with the First Marine Division.

For Stearman it also meant a return to the girl he married just two months before his recall to active duty almost a year ago. His wife, Jane, has been residing with her parents in Dallas.

The couple plan to make their home in Midland, where Stearman was employed as a draftsman for Standard Oil Company before his recall. The Marine expects to be discharged from active duty soon.

Called up with a group of Midland Marines last July, Stearman was with the First Division when it fought its way out of the mid-Winter Changlin Reservoir trap.

Also a veteran of World War II, he saw combat on Okinawa and several other small Pacific islands and was stationed in North China to guard a strategic railroad from Chinese Communists.

He was graduated from high school in Dallas and attended the University of Texas in Austin.

Loyalty Dinner To Launch St. Andrews Building Campaign

A $80,000 finance campaign to build the first unit of a new church plant for the recently-organized St. Andrews Presbyterian Church will be launched at a Loyalty Dinner scheduled Monday night, the Rev. Lewis O. Waterstreet, pastor, announced Friday.

The dinner will be held at 7 p.m. in the Midland High School Gymnasium, with all members of the St. Andrews Church invited and urged to attend.

Dr. Hubert Hopper, pastor of the Memorial Oaks Presbyterian Church of Houston and a former pastor of Midland's First Presbyterian Church, will be the principal speaker at the dinner-meeting.

John W. Drummond, chairman of the Building Fund Committee will preside at the gathering. Funds will not be solicited at the dinner, sponsors said.

Follows Master Plan
The immediate building program of the St. Andrews Church calls for the erection of the initial unit of a master plan. Each of the rooms will be used for various purposes until the second unit can be erected. The Fellowship Hall will double as the sanctuary. It is designed to seat 150 persons for worship services, Mr. Waterstreet said.

The congregation, which now is meeting in the auditorium of the David Crockett Elementary School, was organized Dec. 10, 1950, under the sponsorship of the First Presbyterian Church, St. Andrews held its first services last December 17.

The decision to launch the finance campaign as a joint project of the two Presbyterian Churches here was reached June 10, and organization work has been underway since that time. Headquarters have been established in the First Presbyterian Church.

Dallas Lawyer Tells Of Getting Divorces For Californians

DALLAS—(AP)—A Dallas lawyer told the district attorney here he has been getting Texas divorces for Californians for more than 10 years.

This was the latest development in a probe of a California-Texas "quickie" divorce mill.

District Attorney Henry Wade Thursday said the lawyer signed statements in which he denied he had known he was defrauding Texas courts or his clients. The lawyer said a Dallas bondsman had steered the cases to him originally.

Wade said this apparently occurred: lawyers in Dallas would go into court with negroes using the names of the Californians, and the divorces would be granted in the Californians' names. He said some of the names used were Hungarian, Italian and Bohemian.

In Signed Statements
The district attorney said the lawyer also said in signed statements: negroes would turn up at the lawyer's office saying they had been sent to get divorces. The lawyer said he carried through in good faith. He estimated he had handled 250 cases over 10 years, but said he did not know until recently that white persons were involved in the transactions at all.

The arrest of a negro law student in Los Angeles June 9 started the probe. The student, Willie Hawkins, was accused of telling California couples he could get them divorces in Texas in 30 to 60 days without requiring legal residence in Texas.

Wade said the investigation here had started with two lawyers, but had been broadened to include a third lawyer, a bondsman and a notary public.

Wade said correspondence seized indicated several divorce cases also were handled in Fort Worth.

The MATURE PARENT Blow-Up Is Good For Us If It Nips Child Tyranny

By MURIEL LAWRENCE

I recently heard a child guidance expert tell a group of parents, "An occasional blow-up is good for us. I'd be worried about the parent who doesn't blow up now and then."

I'm for blow-ups, too—but not for the kind that merely releases anger and temper.

Blow-ups that explode personal grievances may give us a temporary relief. But they don't clear the way for the kind of new understanding between us and a child that ends the need for further blow-ups.

We are not going to get too far with 14-year-old Jane when we blow up because she monopolizes the telephone. We'll just make her sullen and angry when we scold her for failing to appreciate that a delayed grocery order will delay dinner. Jane frankly is bored by having to interrupt her social conversation to make way for our call to the grocer. She is far more interested in making a date. Appealing to her for an understanding she is not prepared to give will only annoy and irritate her.

Our blow-up is a failure. We don't get what we want from Jane. We just get a chance at the telephone.

But blow up because we're convinced that a tyrant is an intolerable person to live with—and we'll get through to Jane so fast you wouldn't believe it until you've done it.

Personal Grievances
Of course, to do a good job of denouncing tyranny to Jane, we can't afford to be angry with her. We've got to use every bit of indignation we feel on the tyranny, if we want to do it up brown. If we are angry with her attitude, rather than with Jane herself, we can speak with compelling authority.

We can say, "A tyrant is someone who takes advantage. Give him one privilege and he sneaks another. When you protest, he complains or blusters—just as you are complaining. Now stop acting as though permission to use the phone means that you own the phone. Give it to me—and let's have no more nonsense."

I don't think we should find it hard to deal with our young people's tyrannical impulses. By this time, I should think we'd be so allergic to big dictators that we could blow up convincingly at little ones when they try to take advantage of us.

Personal grievances are poor stuff to offer children when we have at hand the lessons taught us by the Hitlers and the Stalins with their terrible talents for putting things over on people.

Death Of District Event

It is regretted that officials of the Midland Livestock Show found it advisable to discontinue its annual district show, which served 4-H and FFA Club members of Midland, Martin, Glasscock, Upton, Andrews, Crane and Ector Counties.

Inadequate facilities in which to show livestock was cited by Chamber of Commerce and stock show officials as the main reason for discontinuing the area attraction.

Midland County voters two years ago turned down a bond issue proposal which would have provided funds for erecting adequate facilities for the staging of stock shows and other special events.

Another encouraging factor is the statement that "open to the world" livestock shows again may be held in Midland if and when adequate facilities are available.

Surely a first-class livestock show should be staged annually in Midland, the headquarters city of a vast and prosperous ranching area, and it is hoped the Chamber of Commerce and the Midland County Livestock Association will strive diligently toward this goal.

In the meantime, citizens of the seven counties formerly served by the Midland Livestock Show should give full support and cooperation to their own respective county shows held each Spring.

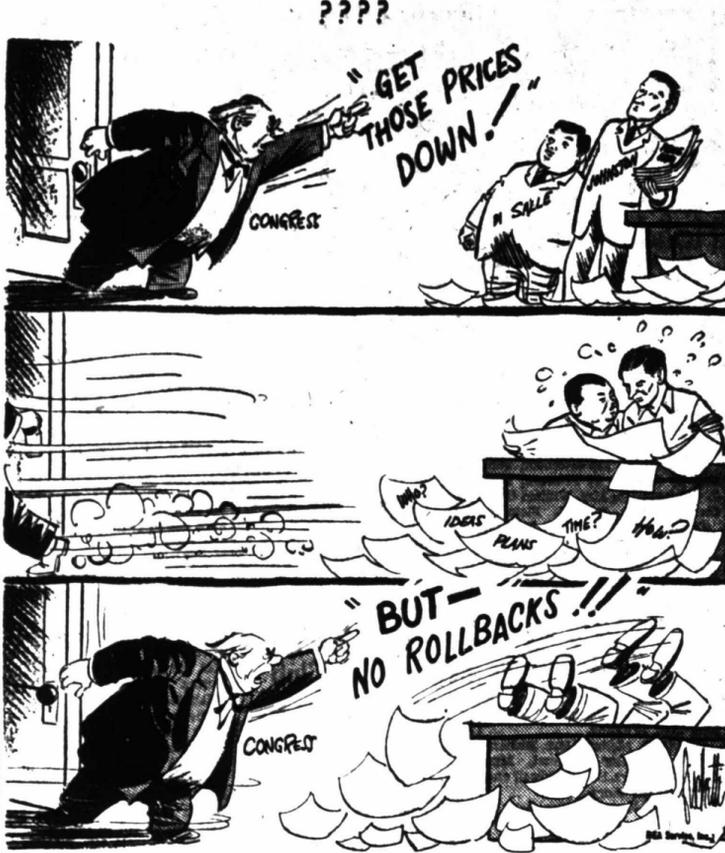

Midland retains the same interest in the success and accomplishments of area club boys and girls although the district club show will not be held here next year.

The Washington Merry-Go-Round

By Drew Pearson

(Copyright, 1951, By The Bell Syndicate, Inc.) Drew Pearson says: Mild Senator Aiken defends women and children, U.N. members differ on truce tactics; Congressmen learn ABC's of beef.

WASHINGTON—Senator George Aiken was once governor of the rock-ribbed Republican State of Vermont, one of only two states voting for Alf Landon in 1936. Aiken is a frugal gentleman as most Vermonters, but he writhed as he sat listening to Senator Byrd of Virginia lead a drive to cut appropriations for school lunches, juvenile delinquency, the women's bureau and the children's bureau.

Finally Aiken could stand it no more. "An $80,000 ship is being built at Newport News, Virginia," he told Senator Byrd, who used to be Governor of Virginia. "It will be turned over to one of the shipping lines for $28,000,000 or a gift by Uncle Sam of $50,000,000. That gift is 50 per cent more money than we plan to appropriate for maternal and child welfare work in this country under the budget cuts."

"Does a five-year-old child have any cash value?" continued the usually mild-mannered Vermont Senator. "What is it worth to restore a crippled person to a place where he is self supporting? What is the cash value of a healthy mother, as compared to a sick one? Are we to determine this in terms of dollars and cents, and decide the fewer cents the better off the country will be?"

"To hear the talk this afternoon," Aiken added bitterly, "one might assume that we ought to drown all our children and mothers and get them out of the way. Then they wouldn't cost us anything."

Washington Pipe Line The subpoena which the Senate Crime Committee is issuing for Governor Fuller Warren of Florida will set a precedent which some Senators think should be applied to Governor Dewey. They want to question Dewey as to why he released Lucky Luciano when Luciano had a 30-50 year jail sentence yet to serve.

David Lillenthal, ex-head of the Atomic Energy Commission, made a special call at the White House to warn Truman that the new AEC is giving out entirely too much secret information in its press releases. A gold mine for the Russians is in the AEC press announcements, Lillenthal told Truman.

The above terms were somewhat similar to those which President Truman sent to General MacArthur which MacArthur subsequently issued as his own. MacArthur's jumping the gun was one fact which contributed to his ouster. The President, however, is in no position to oust Comrade Malik for likewise jumping the gun when he heard that the U.N. and the U.S.A. were working on a truce.

Here are some ABC facts on beef which Mike DiSalle is supplying Congressmen in his desperate fight to retain price controls: 1. Since January, 1950, cattle prices have gone up 53 per cent while the prices paid by farmer have gone up only 13 per cent.

2. If Congress permits DiSalle's proposed rollbacks, beef—even after all rollbacks—will still be selling higher than in any year prior to 1946. Previous all-time high was $22.40 a hundred pounds. After rollbacks it would be $24.

3. While cattle prices went up 53 per cent, wages of manufacturing workers rose only 10.6 per cent since January, '50. The level of consumer prices in the same period went up only 9.7 per cent.

The price of cattle in the last 18 months has risen three times more than the price of food items, four times as much as the prices paid by farmers and more than five times as much as the wages of manufacturing workers.

4. The middlemen who feed cattle for the packer and thus produce a higher grade of meat also claim they don't have enough "incentive" under the proposed rollbacks. Real fact is, however, that even after the rollbacks the cattle feeders will make an average profit of about $40 an animal. And for the past 10 years the feeders have been quite content with an average profit of $22.91 a head.

Note—Mike DiSalle is now asking: How much "incentive" do the cattlemen need? THE station telegraph key started chattering. As he moved toward it, the telegrapher said, "You're Mrs. Leigh, ain't you?"

"I—yes. It would be foolhardy to try to explain that, since Bart Jonathan knew I was Mary Tobias, there was no need to continue the deception."

"Thought so." He ripped off an answer on his sending key; then, "Friend of yours was here a while ago, thought you might be takin' the 1:09—"

JACOBY ON BRIDGE

By OSWALD JACOBY

Bridge players are usually at their best when playing with old friends. They meet various common and uncommon hazards and learn how to handle them as a partnership. That is why bridge tournaments are usually won by players who both come from the same city. They have had the best possible chance to develop a partnership by playing together.

When the Eastern States Championship was held in New York this year, one of the titles was won by an unusual combination—Aron

Table with columns: NORTH, WEST, EAST, SOUTH (D), and a list of card hands.

Baron, of Chicago, playing with Phil Globach, of Brooklyn. The boys had little chance to develop a partnership, but they certainly gave a good account of themselves.

When today's hand was played in that tournament, Globach opened a trump from the West hand. Declarer drew three rounds of trumps and then finished the queen of clubs. On this trick Baron dropped the nine of clubs from the East hand.

Dummy continued by cashing the ace of clubs and Baron completed his echo by dropping the seven of clubs. This was the tip-off to Globach, who promptly dropped his king of clubs.

Declarer decided that West had no more clubs, so he cashed the ace of diamonds and put West in with a king of diamonds. Now West produced the eight of clubs, which went to East's jack. The heart return from the East hand gave the defenders two more tricks to set the contract.

South would have made his contract if West had kept the king of clubs in his hand. Dummy would then lead a third round of clubs, putting West in with the king. If West then leads diamonds, South loses no trick in that suit; and if West leads a heart, South loses only one heart trick.

Once to Die

By Addie McGeehan

THE STORY: As soon as I learned that Carl Metzker was a Communist courier, I had to be sure I assumed the identity of a Caroline Leigh, whom Carl had killed, and convinced Bert Jonathan, her dead husband's lawyer, that I was her. But Carl followed me closer to Hollister, I barely escaped Carl and now I'm waiting at the railway station for a train to take me away from Carl again. I called Bart, but he only told me to "stay there and be sensible."

"The station telegraph key started chattering. As he moved toward it, the telegrapher said, 'You're Mrs. Leigh, ain't you?'"

"I—yes. It would be foolhardy to try to explain that, since Bart Jonathan knew I was Mary Tobias, there was no need to continue the deception."

"Thought so." He ripped off an answer on his sending key; then, "Friend of yours was here a while ago, thought you might be takin' the 1:09—"

"My heart went on beating, but it pumped ice water, not warm blood. 'Twasn't Bart Jonathan, neither.' The man looked wise, nastily wise. 'You in trouble, Mrs. Leigh?'"

"This—this man— I ignored his question—what did he look like? Fortwink! Your height, only he's! Sandy mustache?"

"Ma'am, the man paid no attention to the insistent key at his elbow, 'you have got trouble. That's him.'"

I had known it would be, and I had been a fool not to know that Carl would have thought of the train. I looked at the clock. It was after midnight now, still almost an hour—

"Where—which way to Jonathan's?"

WASHINGTON COLUMN

Two-Year Extension Would Put Price Control Out Of Politics

By PETER EDSON

WASHINGTON—One angle of the drive against inflation may not have been sufficiently pointed up. It is the idea that price control authority which Congress was asked to extend beyond June 30 is logically a two-year plan.

This probably should be said some other way to avoid that hated word, "plan," which always seems to connote socialistic government. But the idea is simply that if anti-inflationary controls can be kept on for a couple of years, till supply catches up with demand, then the controls can be lifted and a free economy again restored.

Early in 1951, Defense Mobilization Director Charles E. Wilson put forward a three-year plan of this type for industrial raw materials. It generally has been accepted without too much protest. It makes sense.

It involves principally the allocation of steel, copper, aluminum and other scarce materials. Defense production gets first call on available supplies. Civilian production gets cut back.

In this process some businesses naturally are going to get hurt. But the government does not hold out to these hurt industries the prospect of only continued shortages for the indefinite future. Defense agencies immediately took steps to increase the supply of these scarce materials. Steel and aluminum production were stepped up.

Industry was told, in effect, "If you'll just ride along with us on these necessary allocation controls, by the end of 1953 we'll have enough steel and aluminum for everybody. We'll have materials enough for continued arms production and for all civilian demands as well. Then we'll take off the allocation controls."

Fails To Hike Production On food supplies and most consumer goods, the planning does not seem to have been so smart. Or rather, the planning may have been all right, but the execution was faulty.

Economic Stabilizer Eric Johnston, for instance, has made several statements that he was asking for economic controls for a limited period only. Knowing that price controls become irksome to buyers and sellers alike, and soon lose their effectiveness, Johnston has argued that he was asking business and the public to put up with these inconveniences during the mobilization period alone.

"The critical test will come during the next two or three years," Johnston told the Commonwealth Club in San Francisco. "Time is short and controls must be made to work as a bulwark against inflation until our expanded plant capacity permits production to keep pace with demand, both military and civilian."

"And we can be rid of controls!" Johnston told the U.S. Chamber of Commerce annual meeting in Washington. "My burning ambition is to scoop everybody with a proposal to write controls off the books. And that's exactly what I'm going to do the minute I feel controls are no longer necessary."

This was all right as a declaration of intent. It paralleled Mobilizer Wilson's three-year plan for too-many shocks of the night and he let me cry. Away from the depot and with no signs of pursuit, he leaned over and turned on his lights. "Listen, lady the cops—I mean—you—"

I took a deep breath. "I haven't killed anybody. My voice sounded wooden. 'It—they're trying to kill me.'"

He made another turn; Main Street, better lighted than the others, loomed ahead again. He sounded skeptical as he said, "Sure it's not your imagination?"

I didn't answer. Then: "You're Paul Leigh's widow, aren't you?"

"No, I'm not!" I snapped. "I said 'No, I'm not'—because— I stopped. How could I tell him? Why try? I said, 'How far is it to the police station?'"

"Back past the depot." So that was why the circuitous route through town. Another detour, in justice. I looked at him, held sitting angrily forward, as if he were searching the darkness beyond the fan of light from his headlights.

The car had slowed, but I had the feeling, suddenly, that all time was getting away from me. "What if Bart—what if they get to the police first? I mean—"

"Now, lady, look—"

I sat back, properly slapped down, murmuring, "I'm sorry, I—"

HE pulled up beside a building whose one-story rear graduated to a two-story front. "If it's Jonathan you're afraid of, want me to look inside first?"

"The back way?" "Sure, Mrs.—uh, lady. 'I'll come with you.' Already I was getting out. 'Being left alone—"

There was a frosted glass door at the side, but he walked past it toward the rear and I followed. "Watch it, it's dark," he warned, going ahead of me around the corner of the building.

I hesitated. There had been no light beyond that frosted glass. It was too late. Carl Metzker stepped in front of me, a gun in his hand. (To Be Continued)

Questions and Answers

Q—What is distinctive about the eyes of the African chameleon? A—The eyes are mounted in conic tubes jutting from each side of the head and work independently in their peculiar, turret sockets, each capable of revolving in any direction. Q—What use is made of sugar by the human body? A—Sugar is easily assimilated in the human body and it supplies energy more rapidly to the body than any other food. Q—What use are rice hulls commercially? A—Rice hulls are a good abrasive for polishing metal castings because they have a relatively high silica content. Q—Why is it that "The Mystery of Edwin Drood" apparently ends in the middle of a chapter? A—Charles Dickens was working on "The Mystery of Edwin Drood" at the time of his sudden death in 1870. This accounts for its being unfinished. Q—What makes waves on oceans and lakes? A—Waves in general are caused by the wind. A breeze of as little as three miles per hour is enough to start ripples from one to three inches between their crests. A gale of 100 miles per hour, blowing over a thousand-mile stretch, may raise waves that average 70 feet in height and are almost a mile apart.

If we fail, civilization as we know it falls with us and there shall triumph a tyranny unequalled in the blackest pages of history. —Bernard Baruch.

The road to peace is long and hard. There are no shortcuts. The men who raise the challenge to our foreign policy would have us fight before we are fully prepared to fight. —Maurice Tobin, secretary of labor.

Whatever else may be said (about the moon's influence on organic life), we are all electrical systems. As such it would be difficult to imagine our being unaffected in measurable ways by changes in the electrical properties of the atmosphere. —Dr. Leonard S. Ravitz, psychiatrist of Duke U.

Front Quiet—

(Continued From Page One) cover the entire ground action in the briefest communique it has issued this year. There was more activity in the air. UN F-51 Mustangs tangled Thursday with Red jets. One Russian-made jet was damaged, the Mustangs unhurt, Far East Air Forces said. Two American jets were shot down by ground fire. On the ground a few hundred Reds struck in the early morning darkness Friday in the Kumhwa area. A series of earlier Chinese attacks in this same corner of the old "Iron Triangle" were beaten back during the night and daylight hours Thursday. Talk Is Ignored Communist radios at Pyongyang in Korea and Peiping in China ignored cease-fire talk. A high South Korean government source predicted the shooting war would stop within "the next few days." In Tokyo Gen. Matthew B. Ridgway, supreme Allied commander, was reported ready to carry out at a moment's notice any instructions he might receive from Washington to end the war. Front line dispatches said Thursday night was one of the quietest nights of the war and there was little change Friday. A headquarters communique said UN ground troops Thursday encountered strong enemy resistance on the central front and again repulsed several determined counterattacks. The Air Force reported slashing bombing raids Friday morning severed Communist road and rail arteries in 16 strategic places. War planes resumed strikes against Red air fields after tearing up 14 strips Thursday within 40 miles of Pyongyang, North Korean capital. One American destroyer was hit in sea-to-shore battles fought off the east coast Thursday. The Navy said damage was superficial.

Ridgway—

(Continued From Page One) some opposition expressed to a cease-fire on the old border. The official announcement that instructions had been sent to Ridgway, the United Nations commander in Korea, was made by Robert A. Lovett, deputy secretary of Defense. Lovett gave no information about those instructions, but did say Ridgway would have to report back to Washington on any proposed terms for ending the fighting. Despite the general hope, some American officials still were taking a finger-crossed attitude. Some State Department officials have been skeptical of the cease-fire suggestion from the moment it was advanced last weekend by Jacob Malik, the Russian delegate to the United Nations. Lovett, in telling reporters instructions had been sent to Ridgway, took occasion to say also he feared any relaxation by the United States would confront the nation with an appalling situation. He said it may be that relief from pressure in Korea, if the fighting is stopped there, may make it possible for the Communists to exert pressure elsewhere in the world. Regardless of a cease-fire in Korea, the tensions in the world add up to a dark picture, Lovett said. And, calling for continued preparedness, he said the U. S. would most certainly be courting disaster if the United States let the Soviet Politburo write the American defense program. He told a news conference the instructions, being sent through the Defense Department, have the approval of President Truman and were developed by the National Security Council in discussions with the State Department. The council is the nation's top advisory body. It includes President Truman, Vice President Barkley, Secretary of State Acheson, Secretary of Defense Marshall, and the chairman of the National Security Resources Board. The latter office is now vacant.

Four Children Hurt When Car Overturns

Two small boys were hospitalized Thursday night with bruises and abrasions suffered when the car driven by their father overturned four miles west of Stanton on U. S. Highway 80. James Pruitt, six, and Charles Pruitt, seven, sons of Alvin Edward Pruitt of San Bernardino, Calif., were admitted to Midland Memorial Hospital for observation. Two other children in the car, Robert Broadhead, five and Dennis Wayne Broadhead, three, of Snyder, were released after emergency treatment at the hospital for minor injuries. Sheriff Kyle Shoemaker of Stanton reported Pruitt's car overturned after it pulled off the pavement onto a soft shoulder. The accident occurred about 8:30 p.m., Shoemaker said.

JayCees Hear Redfern On Boy's Baseball Problems

"Play definitely will continue in the Shorthorn and Little Leagues," John Redfern, Jr., told members of the Midland Junior Chamber of Commerce at noon Friday. "We in the boy's baseball loop have been accused of drinking beer and using obscene language at our games," said Redfern, "but I have never heard one of our boys use rough language and I know there has been no beer drinking going on." Redfern said a small group of citizens, bothered by the dust coming from the baseball diamond near Memorial Stadium in Northwest Midland, had gone to the city council to complain. "But in their enthusiasm to get across their point, they strayed from the truth," he said. Redfern called upon the JayCees, to whom he spoke at their weekly luncheon in Hotel Scharbauer, to "get behind the city council and city officials, and boost for better recreational facilities in the city." "We need ball diamonds and parks easily accessible to youngsters," he continued, "and not in out-of-the-way places they cannot reach." "There has been too much talking done about a recreational program here, and too little action," Redfern said. Chuck Heringer, JayCee sports director, urged the JayCees to help in the fight to keep boys baseball going. "It is a question of letting a small group hurt an entire city," he said. JayCees adjourned early to get free chest X-rays at the court house.

Convicted Reds Told To Appear

NEW YORK —(AP)—The 11 convicted Communist leaders were ordered Friday to surrender Monday in the federal courthouse here to begin serving their sentences. The order came from United States Attorney Irving H. Saypol. His action followed the U. S. Supreme Court's June 4 decision affirming their convictions on a charge of conspiring to teach and advocate overthrow of the U. S. government by violence. Saypol said he sent telegrams to the 11 defendants, to their lawyers and to the Civil Rights Congress, which posted $20,000 in bail, notifying them that the government was asking for the surrender on Monday. Ten of the defendants were sentenced to five years imprisonment. One was sentenced to three years.

Marshall—

(Continued From Page One) U. S. power in the Pacific and the "military posture of the rest of the free world." Continued American assistance in organizing the defenses of the free world "is a project of self interest for this country of the highest and most pressing urgency," Marshall said. Before Committee He testified before the House Foreign Affairs Committee on the Administration program for $8,500,000,000 of U. S. economic and military aid abroad during the fiscal year starting Sunday. This program earmarks $6,300,000,000 in foreign military aid alone, the bulk of it for Western Europe. While acknowledging the extent of future military aid spending would be shaped by world events, Marshall said he saw no prospect now of any reduction in foreign needs before 1955. "All things being equal, and I realize that things will not remain static," he said, "I feel that the same requirements for funds for our military assistance program will be at least the same level in fiscal year 1953 and fiscal year 1954 as is being requested for this year." "Thereafter, most of the European countries should be in full production, their initial armament well under way, with general financial capabilities to maintain such a level of defense, so that their requirements for military aid items from the U. S. can be substantially reduced."

He said they probably would stay in England two or three days before taking off on the return hop. The planes left Carswell field near Fort Worth at 5 a.m. (CST) Thursday. The first one arrived just before 3:30 a.m. (CST) Friday. The third touched down an hour later. OIL WORKER INJURED Ira R. Baseball—

(Continued From Page One) things they said should go unchallenged." The area near the stadium was used by two leagues—the Shorthorn League for youngsters 13 and 14 years of age and the Little League for those from 9 to 12. The Shorthorn League suspended operations Thursday as City Manager W. H. Oswalt instructed that a backdrop be removed from the area and transferred elsewhere. He said the Little League would continue to use the other diamond. Violent Reaction News of the charges voiced before the council and the suspension of the league's play brought violent reaction Wednesday and Thursday. "I guess I've had more than 25 calls," said the mayor. "I think it's unfortunate that the situation had to be brought to a head in this fashion. But it has pointed up the fact that there is a sad lack of overall recreation facilities in Midland." Councilman J. B. McCoy said numerous parents of boys playing in the league had protested to him. "Everyone I've talked to," he said, "were just flabbergasted about the beer-drinking reported." "They said they'd been out there and they'd never seen anyone drinking beer or anything else." The city manager said several persons had talked to him about the situation. "The overwhelming sentiment was that the boys should continue playing ball," he said. After hearing the protests at its meeting Tuesday night, the council endorsed the proposal submitted by Oswalt that a recreational area be developed in the Wadley area. But league officials apparently rejected this idea and Redfern said because Wadley was located three miles north of the business district. "It presents transportation problems which are practically insurmountable." Thursday afternoon Oswalt said he had discussed with league officials the possibility of using the old college site in the west section of the city for baseball. Redfern said Friday that situation is being studied. Meanwhile the IOOF Lodge here offered the use of its block-square youth park on East Florida Street as a location for the Shorthorn League diamond. "They are welcome to use it on either a permanent or temporary basis," said James L. Kendrick, spokesman for the organization. At the meeting Thursday afternoon, Pickett said the problem was greater than the finding of a baseball diamond. "We need other recreation facilities," he said. "I think we should make a survey of the present parks in the city. It looks to me like they are just there to look pretty and serve no other purpose." Pickett suggested the appointment of a special committee to make an immediate study of recreational needs and submit a plan for the council to consider. The council, however, decided to submit the matter to the park commission for recommendations.

Galveston Gets New Police Chief

GALVESTON —(AP)—Galveston had a new police chief Friday and the Maceo interests said their famed Ballroom would open Friday night. Police Commissioner Ambrose Lukovich named Detective Lieutenant William Whitburn acting chief Thursday in place of William J. Burns. Burns reverts to his former post of chief of detectives. A spokesman for the Maceo interests said the Ballroom would reopen "because we could not cancel our band contracts covering the next several months." Lukovich and Burns were among the Galveston residents who appeared in Austin Tuesday at the Texas Crime Committee's probe of Galveston gambling and vice. Reporters' questions whether the Ballroom gaming room would be reopened or drinks would be sold brought a "no comment." The same reaction came to questions whether other Maceo clubrooms would be reopened.

DADDY RINGTAIL

Daddy Ringtail And A Mile Deep

Daddy Ringtail, your monkey friend, was swimming in the Whispering River with the Huffen Puffen, the friendly wolf. They were swimming down near the place where the Whispering River flows into the ocean. The day was a happy vacation day. They swam and splashed and stopped and rested, and then they swam and splashed some more, all with much laughing, of course. Why, they even swam out where the water was so deep they couldn't reach down and touch bottom with their feet. "How deep is the water right here, Daddy Ringtail?" asked the Huffen Puffen. "Oh," said Daddy Ringtail. "The bottom is as far from the top of the water as the floor from the ceiling back home." Well, water as deep as the floor to the ceiling didn't seem so very deep to the Huffen, and he wasn't afraid at all. He laughed and swam and splashed in the water. Daddy

By Wesley Davis

"Oh," said Daddy Ringtail, "the water right here is about a mile deep, I guess." "OHHHHH!" said the Huffen, because he thought he was scared by the thought that the bottom of the ocean was a mile down beneath the top of the water where he was swimming. "Steady, Huffen!" said Daddy Ringtail, and he meant for the Huffen please to forget how far away the bottom was; forget how very much water was beneath them; yes, because the top of the water where they were was all they would ever use for swimming, and swimming is a happy thing to know how to do. Happy day! (Copyright 1951, General Features Corp.)

JETS LIKE 'DRINK' JORD The fact that liquids boil at much lower temperatures at high altitudes than they do at sea level is giving plenty of headaches to oil men and designers and pilots of jet airplanes. These new ships climb so fast that as much as 10 per cent of their fuel may boil away before the sub-zero temperatures in the stratosphere chill it below its high-altitude boiling point. Oil company researchers, who work closely with Uncle Sam in getting—and keeping—our Sabres and Shooting Stars in the air, are working on a theory that refrigerated fuels or pressurized tanks may solve the problem.

The reference in the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy, will be "Divine metaphysics is now reduced to a system, to a form comprehensible by and adapted to the thought of the age in which we live. This system enables the learner to demonstrate the divine Principle, upon which Jesus' healing was based, and the sacred rules for its present

These lads may not know why they enjoy the freedom that is the heritage of American youth, so it is up to you to tell them what freedom means.

When you do so, explain how the flag and all the symbols of our great democracy are possible because of the Church.

The historical fact is that freedom in the state, as we know it, is the natural and logical result of Christian teaching of equality and justice. It was through the powerful influence of our Christian forefathers that the fundamental idea of a free civil government was developed.

When you think of the American way of life, which we all cherish, remember it is our heritage from the founding fathers. Then be grateful for their rugged fidelity to religion and to the Church.

To become a member of the Church—the greatest of all institutions—is the least you can do to show gratitude for the priceless privileges you enjoy today.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For the sake of his children's sake. (2) For the sake of his community and nation. (3) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

12-YEAR OLD ALSO WINS—

French, Campbell Impressive In First Match Play Of Midland Country Club Invitation Meet

Medalist Bob French led a field of 160 golfers into second round play Friday in the annual Invitation Tournament at Midland Country Club, after posting a one-under-par 71 in defeating Midland's F. G. McClintock 3 and 2 Thursday.

French's 71 was three strokes over the 68 he fired Wednesday in earning medalist honors.

Best score turned in Thursday was by Midlander Charles Campbell, who toured the course in an excellent 34-34-68, defeating San Angelo's Hezlie Carson only 1-up. Campbell was in the unique position of being two-under-par at the halfway point, but was two down to Carson and had to rally to win.

Youngest entry in the tournament—12-year-old Phil Lobstein of Brownwood—ousted Bobby Floyd 5 and 4 in a ninth flight match.

Probably the most fruitless round was turned in by Odessa sports scribe Spec Gammon, who hooked up with Neal Collins, Odessa, in the longest match of the tournament before losing 1-up in 21 holes.

Consolation play began in the tournament—which concludes Sunday—early Friday, as did second round play.

Texas League— Teams Slaying Put In Loop Flag Race

By The Associated Press

You may not like the way the Texas League baseball race shapes up, but you've got to admit it's stable.

The same four teams—Dallas, Houston, San Antonio, and Beaumont—have filled the first division for two weeks. Days and days ago, Beaumont and San Antonio were trading third and fourth back and forth, but that's even stopped now.

Everybody stayed put Thursday night as Tulsa knocked off pace-setting Dallas 2-0. Beaumont blanked Houston 13-0, San Antonio smothered Shreveport 13-1 and Oklahoma City cooled Fort Worth 7-0.

Roy Selvers, the major league "Rookie of the Year" in 1949, started eyeing the road back Thursday night. In his first appearance since being sent down to San Antonio, he got a single and a three-run homer, scored three runs and swiped a base.

Bob Curley blanked Dallas on four hits and Duke Markell gave up the same number in stopping Fort Worth.

Beaumont got 21 hits to hand Houston its worst loss of the season before 5,166 fans in the Bayou City.

Swatters Get Pressley, Two Rookie Pitchers

SWEETWATER — Hard-hitting Julian Pressley has signed with the Sweetwater Swatters. Pressley has performed for Midland, Roswell and Artesia in the Longhorn League. He is an outfielder.

Two pitchers also have reported to the Swatters. They are Carlos Guerra and Calvin Brasler, both rookies. Brasler posted a 3-4 record with Vernon before being released.

8—THE REPORTER-TELEGRAM, MIDLAND, TEXAS, JUNE 29, 1961

Broncs Trip Tribe 7-2

The Odessa Oilers and Midland Indians tangle at 8:15 p.m. Friday in Indian Park. Members of Midland's Shorthorn League will be special guests at the game, and will be honored with introductions. The youngsters are to enter the field from the right field entrance. No starting pitcher for the Indians has been named.

BIG SPRING—The Big Spring Broncos defeated the Midland Indians 7-2 here Thursday night, with a three-run outburst in the second inning sending them well on the way. Loser Bill Zupnik had trouble with his control in the second, walking three, hitting a batter and allowing a single. An error also helped the Broncos to their runs.

Scouter Hughes homered for the Indians with the bases empty in the third. It was his fifth four-bagger of the season.

Midland's final tally came in the last inning. Dick Campbell walked and Manager Zeke Bonura got a pinch-hit single before Fiem Flott doubled Campbell home. Flott paced the Indian hitters with three hits in five attempts.

The loss, coupled with Artesia's 4-3 win over Roswell, dropped Midland into seventh place in the Longhorn League standings.

Days and days ago, Beaumont and San Antonio were trading third and fourth back and forth, but that's even stopped now.

Everybody stayed put Thursday night as Tulsa knocked off pace-setting Dallas 2-0. Beaumont blanked Houston 13-0, San Antonio smothered Shreveport 13-1 and Oklahoma City cooled Fort Worth 7-0.

Roy Selvers, the major league "Rookie of the Year" in 1949, started eyeing the road back Thursday night. In his first appearance since being sent down to San Antonio, he got a single and a three-run homer, scored three runs and swiped a base.

Bob Curley blanked Dallas on four hits and Duke Markell gave up the same number in stopping Fort Worth.

Beaumont got 21 hits to hand Houston its worst loss of the season before 5,166 fans in the Bayou City.

Three Tie For Medal In PGA Play

OAKMONT — It was man against man, instead of man against Oakmont, as match play started Friday in the 33rd PGA championship.

Sixty-four of the nation's sharpest shotmakers survived Thursday's qualifier — shooting 154 or better — and they'll be whittled down to 16 in Friday's double round of 18-holes.

The first three-way tie for the medal in the classic's history popped up, with Pete Cooper of White Plains, N. Y.; Claude Harmon of Mamaroneck, N. Y.; and Palm Beach, Fla.; and Lloyd Mangrum of Niles, Ill., deadlocking at 142, two under par.

Harmon won the three-way playoff on the third hole with a par, after he and Mangrum had birdied the second.

Qualifying scores of Texans: Ray Hills, Houston, 75-73-148; Chuck Klein, San Antonio, 72-71-143; Ray Gafford, Dallas, 73-73-146; Sam Spear, McAllen, 80-44—no card; Jack Harden, El Paso, 77-72-143; W. A. Stackhouse, Laredo, 81-82—no card; Jack Burke, Jr., Houston, 77-73-150.

WT-NM League— 'Pitchers Battles' Highlight Play

By The Associated Press

The West Texas-New Mexico League, long known as a hitters' league, has been in danger of losing its hard earned reputation—but not any more. The circuit reverted to form Thursday night.

The 'best' game of the night saw Berger and Amarillo battling more than three hours before Amarillo took the decision 18-16. There were 35 hits and nine errors in the game in which nine pitchers saw action.

The next best saw Abilene 'eke out' a 17-9 victory over Lamesa with 32 hits being collected, 20 by Abilene. Only four pitchers were used in this one with Charlie Davis going all of the way for the winners.

Lubbock and Pampa engaged in a tame contest with Pampa winning 10-6. Albuquerque and Clovis battled 10 innings with Albuquerque winning a thriller 3-2.

The game was close until the sixth frame, when the winners scored 10 runs. Dennis Patton highlighted the outburst with a grand-slam home run—his second this week.

The score: R H E Cards 020 21 (10)—15 11 1 Eagles 000 001 —1 1 7 Adams and Hillin; Kaiser and Capps.

A five-run second inning off Johnnie Williams gave the Cubans a lead the Black Indians never could overcome.

Longhorn League— Odessa, Broncos, Drillers Move Up In Loop Standings

By The Associated Press

The Longhorn League clubs juggled the standing Thursday night as three clubs improved their positions in the pennant chase.

The action was sparked with a protested game. Roswell, loser to Artesia 4-3 played the game under protest from the last of the eighth.

Odessa, Big Spring and Artesia moved up in the standings as Sweetwater upset Vernon 10-6, Odessa won its second in a row from San Angelo 7-5 and Big Spring trimmed Midland 7-2.

Odessa took over second place, moving ahead of Vernon. Big Spring, in a tie with Roswell, took undisputed possession of fourth place, and Artesia moved into sixth place ahead of Midland—although their victory is being questioned.

Al Monchak, Roswell manager, played the game under protest after umpire Baird Hutchison had ruled no catch when Rocket third baseman Bill Cearley caught a foul ball "off the playing field."

Roswell had scored three runs in the third; Artesia counted one in the first and three in the sixth. There was no change in the final score after the protest.

Sweetwater broke loose with six runs in the sixth inning to overtake Vernon. The Swatters added two more for good measure in the seventh.

Three walks, a hit and an error gave Big Spring three runs in the second inning. They never were in danger after that point.

Odessa lost 10 straight to San Angelo before breaking the ice Wednesday night. The Oilers came from behind with four runs in the last three innings to make it two in a row.

San Angelo . . . 011 020 100—5 14 1 Odessa . . . 011 102 11x—7 12 3 Saidana and Schneegold; Guerrero and Castro.

Major Leagues— Giants, Yanks, Winners

By The Associated Press The Chicago White Sox are fighting desperately to hang on to their lead in the American League. They have seen a comfortable lead dwindle away in the last two weeks with the New York Yankees close on their heels.

The White Sox were forced to sit idly by Thursday and watch the Yankees clip another half game off their margin. Rain kept the Sox idle against Detroit. The Yankees shout the Washington Senators, 3-0. The Sox now lead by a half game.

The pennant chase in the National League also tightened up as the New York Giants eked out a 5-4 victory over the front running Brooklyn Dodgers to take a 2-1 advantage in the current series. The victory trimmed the Dodger lead to five games, still a comfortable span.

Cliff Mages was the hero of the Yankee victory over the Nats, stealing the thunder from rookie pitcher Tom Morgan. Mages came in as a pinch hitter for Morgan in the eighth with the bases loaded and slashed a double off the right field wall to drive in the three runs and break up a mound duel between Morgan and Washington's Sid Hudson.

Monte Irvin was the big gun in the Giants' victory over Brooklyn. He collected two home runs, one with two men on base in the eighth inning that provided the margin of victory.

Irvin's circuit clouts made up for a lapse in fielding on the part of third baseman Hank Thompson, whose three errors handed the Dodgers two runs and set up another.

Only two games were scheduled in the American League. The National had a full card with Philadelphia going 10 innings to nip Boston 3-2 in the other daylight game. Pittsburgh beat Cincinnati, 7-5, in a game interrupted several times by rain and the Chicago Cubs shutout the St. Louis Cards, 8-0 in night games.

Ayrel Duzan's 1950 Ford F-1 Pickup with Power Pilot was one of more than 5000 Fords in the nationwide Ford Truck Economy Run. Entrants travelled a total of 80 million miles and represented every type of hauling job.

"I haul feed, grain, pigs - for 2 1/4¢ a mile!"

"My Ford Truck with the Power Pilot has helped me keep down my running costs," says Ayrel Duzan.

"During the six months of the Ford Truck Economy Run, I drove my Ford Pickup 6,882 miles, usually with capacity loads. The daily expense records show that gas, oil, maintenance and repairs cost a total of $154.52. That's a running cost per mile of only 2.24 cents! Naturally, I got periodic service from my Ford Dealer during the Ford Truck Economy Run."

The Ford Truck POWER PILOT gives you the most power from the least gas . . . saves you money every mile!

The buying trend is to FORD Trucks! 1950 vs. 1949 registration figures show Ford Trucks sales gain is over six times greater than all other makes combined!

FORD TRUCKING COSTS LESS because Ford Trucks Last Longer!

Big load space! . . . the 1951 Ford F-1 Pickup body is one of the biggest in the half-ton field. Low 24" loading height. New steering-column gearshift! New wide-vision rear window! Choose V-8 or 6-cylinder power. Ford makes over 180 models—all with the gas-saving POWER PILOT! Choice of two new Ford cabs for '51!

Here is "Your Reward"

The health of yourself and your family is a mirror which reflects YOUR INTELLIGENCE, YOUR EFFICIENCY, and your COOKING METHODS. If you purchase your foods wisely, plan your menus carefully, prepare meals with minimum nutritive loss, and see that each body requirement is supplied to every member of your family daily, then you, your children, and your husband can probably possess vibrant, buoyant health. With this degree of health come beauty, clear thinking, co-operativeness, cheerfulness, and freedom from bickering and quarreling as well as freedom from illness and infections.

To the mother of such a family come pride of accomplishment and deep satisfaction of a job well done. To her comes ego-gratification infinitely more satisfying than she may once have obtained from such trivialities as preparing fluffy-textured cake or delectable white bread. When she hears her physician praise the beauty of her children, when she sees her husband young beyond his years, succeeding because of his energies, when she feels the surge of vibrant health in her own body, she will realize that she is largely responsible. She has shouldered her tasks and has seen to it that good health has come from good food.

Lumber Yard Blaze
Kept From Spreading

A fire broke out Thursday night at the Cunningham Lumber Company yard in the 2500 block of West 11th Street but quick work by city men kept it from spreading. Police said the blaze was limited to a sawdust pile and small pieces of lumber located at the rear.

Arkansas supplies 93 per cent of the bauxite ore (aluminum) mined in the United States.

Governor Signs All But 10 Of Legislature's Last Bill

AUSTIN —(AP)— Gov. Allan Shivers put his signature on all but 10 of the 52nd Legislature's last bills on his desk Thursday. Those 10, he vetoed.

When the governor finished work he had approved bills to keep the state government operating two more years, to make drivers pay for damage they cause in accidents or lose their licenses, and to slow down violations of the right-to-work law.

He also signed a bill redefining insurance laws after Attorney General Price Daniel ruled the new act would not prevent the state's collecting a tax on gross insurance premium receipts under an old law.

A bill reappropriating roughly $3,000,000 for soil conservation won the governor's endorsement after the attorney general ruled the bill was drawn properly.

Killed by the veto power was a bill which would have granted a two per cent refund to retail gasoline dealers of the state tax on motor fuel sold.

Shivers said a competent authority estimated the state would lose $1,600,000 a year on such a refund.

—$1,200,000 being lost by the highway fund and $400,000 by the public free school fund.

Dislikes Amendment

He vetoed a bill which originally dealt with changes in procedure on forfeiture and restoration of hunting and fishing licenses. Shivers said he turned it down because an amendment had been tacked on which would have repealed the mandatory suspension of drivers' license on conviction of drunken driving.

The governor signed the general appropriation bill, which calls for an outlay of $151,000,000 from the general revenue fund to pay for state services the next biennium.

He had delayed action on the bill to get the attorney general's opinion on whether he could veto "riders" in it. Daniel ruled he couldn't veto anything except an "item" making a specific appropriation and not including general provisions, conditions, limitations and restrictions.

This means the bill will put into law the "riders" that a state employee cannot draw his salary unless he swears he has never been a Communist and has not belonged to a subversive group the last 10 years.

Another controversial provision which goes into law as part of the appropriation bill is one setting a sliding scale on architect fees, but not to exceed five per cent, on state building jobs. Architects said the scale was too low.

The drivers financial responsibility act will go into effect next New Year's Day. Owners and drivers of cars must be prepared to prove ability to pay $15,000 for injuries and damages in case of accident. If unable to prove financial responsibility, they will lose drivers' license and car registration.

The new labor control law permits $1,500 a day fines for persons who enter closed shop agreements in violation of the "right-to work" law.

A preliminary count indicated the hard-working 52nd Legislature put approximately 506 new laws on the books. Roughly 36 were vetoed.

Among the last bills signed were ones which do these things:

Make an appropriation to the State Department of Agriculture for operation of two or more market news stations, effective September 7.

Authorize the state to enter agreements with the federal government to extend federal old-age and survivors insurance coverage to city and county employees, effective September 7.

Allow the State Board of Education to sell or exchange U. S. Treasury bonds, notes, or certificates for account of the permanent school fund, effective immediately.

Provide for employment of retired members under the teacher retirement system of Texas, effective September 7.

Two Persons Die In Auto-Train Crashes

EL PASO —(AP)— Two El Paso men were killed and at least one other person was injured Thursday night when the Texas and Pacific west bound passenger train No. 501, the Texas Eagle, struck two automobiles in separate accidents.

Dead were Joseph Lee Fulton, 40, an unidentified man, both of El Paso.

The first accident, in which Fulton was killed, happened about 10:30 p.m. one-half mile east of Tornillo, Texas.

The second train-car collision occurred on the outskirts of El Paso. An unidentified man was killed. Critically injured were Jesus Navarez, 26, of El Paso.

J. W. Orr of El Paso was engineer on the train which originated in Fort Worth.
