Waters Threaten St. Louis

ST. LOUIS, MO. (AP)—Emergency crews worked feverishly Wednesday to bulwark dikes and check rising water that already has caused a loss of almost $1,000,000 to factories and rail yards in the immediate vicinity.

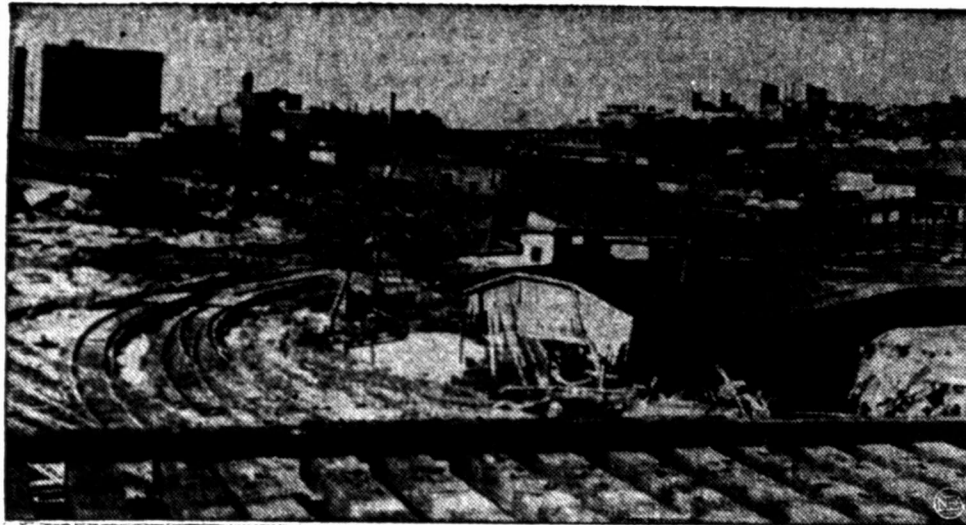

Four hundred residents of West Alton, Mo., and vicinity ignored warnings to evacuate their low-lying homes as Army Engineers, Coast Guardsmen and other workers abandoned efforts to strengthen dikes to the point where they could hold back the torrents.

As St. Louis was bracing for the flood, already the nation's costliest, President Truman made a first-hand aerial survey of conditions, and the federal government rushed efforts to rehabilitate vast areas of Kansas, Missouri and Oklahoma.

The situation at St. Louis was becoming worse hourly as the mighty Missouri continued to pour its tremendous volume of flood waters into the Mississippi.

St. Louis city officials said there appeared to be no danger to the City of St. Louis, where there already has been an estimated loss of $750,000 in the waterfront area.

Nevertheless, they and Red Cross officials met to prepare emergency flood plans, just in case. Nature of (Continued On Page Nine)

FLOOD AFTERMATH—As the Kansas (Kaw) River returned to its banks after Kansas City's most disastrous flood, havoc wrought by the torrents is revealed. In the stockyards district, the cattle building in foreground sags, pens are jumbled and a whole section of the covered, wooden ramps through which cattle are driven from yard pens to packing plants is missing. The tall building at left is the Livestock Exchange. The stockyards were flooded completely. Part of the downtown Kansas City skyline is visible at upper right.

Seminole Oil Flow Reduced

AUSTIN (AP)—The Texas Railroad Commission Wednesday ordered minor changes in production schedules of two fields to boost the state's August oil allowable to 2,953,452 barrels daily. This is a 2,623-barrel-a-day increase over the present figure.

In line with testimony of major oil purchasers at the statewide production hearing, the commission retained a statewide producing schedule of 24 days for August. The East Texas field will remain on 19 days despite a 6.02-pounds-per-square-inch drop in bottomhole pressure during June.

The Willmar field in Willacy County, Southwest Texas District 4, was returned to a 24-day permissive flow after being on 12 days several months. This is a 4,038-barrel-per-day increase effective August 1.

To Limit Gas Flaring
The Seminole field in Gaines County, West Texas District 8, was cut to 22 days, which will slice its allowable by 1,412 barrels each day.

Curtailment of Seminole field production was ordered to limit the flaring of casinghead gas. Commissioner William J. (Bill) Murray said the allowable would be restored after the regulatory agency can hold a hearing and decide how much to reduce the permissible gas-oil limit.

There was little testimony offered at Wednesday's hearing concerning the oil industry's condition. Commission Chairman Olin Culberson had to prod company representatives to "put something in the record on which we can ostensibly hang our hat (base the oil order)."

Single Major Point Blocks Final Parleys

SEOUL, KOREA (AP)—Allied and Red envoys agreed Wednesday on two points of the cease-fire agenda, but a dispute over "at least one major point" is blocking the start of actual Korean war armistice negotiations.

The United Nations announced this Wednesday night after negotiators returned from their longest session this week. It was the first report of agreement on any part of the agenda.

Vice Adm. C. Turner Joy, head of the UN cease-fire team, accepted Communist wording for two agenda items at the close of Tuesday's conference, the announcement said.

When he did so, "the entire Communist delegation seemed to show gratification, perhaps mixed with a certain element of relief," said Brig. Gen. William Nuckols of the U. S. Air Force. Nuckols attended the session in Kaesong.

And when Adm. Joy presented the Allied view on the major unresolved question, Nuckols said, the two "Chinese members of the Communist delegation nodded and appeared to appreciate the United Nations viewpoint."

Neither Nuckols nor the formal headquarters announcement disclosed the points agreed upon in the sixth day of conference. Nor did they say what was the major stumbling block to reaching a "mutually acceptable agenda."

Essential To Success
But Gen. Matthew B. Ridgway, supreme Allied commander, described it as "essential" to the success of the cease-fire conference.

The UN communiqué said: "At least one major issue remained unresolved when the conference recessed for the day."

"Agreement on the key point is essential to the successful negotiation of the first phase of the negotiation."

Observers speculated that the key question was whether to discuss withdrawal of foreign troops from Korea. The Communists want this negotiators do not.

Three Face Charges In Bus Crash

BIG SPRING (AP)—Charges of negligent homicide were filed Wednesday against drivers of three vehicles involved in a bus-truck crash which killed four bus passengers here Monday.

Those charged are B. L. Powers, Peecos, driver of the Greyhound bus; B. E. Furlow, Odessa, driver of the gasoline transport truck into which the bus skidded, and S. D. Hayes, Big Spring, driver of a gravel truck.

Highway Patrolman F. O. Williams quoted Furlow as saying he parked on the highway shoulder behind the stopped gravel truck because rain had reduced his visibility. Williams said Powers applied his brakes when he saw the parked transport, after which the bus skidded sideways.

Two In Critical Condition
Two of the nine persons hospitalized after the smashup were reported still in critical condition Wednesday. They are Frank Jacob Kilser of Chicago, whose mangled leg had to be amputated; and Willie Lee Watkins, 27, of Atoka, Okla., whose ruptured spleen was removed by surgery.

Other still hospitalized here Tuesday night are: Mrs. Henry E. Thomas of Los Angeles, who was reported to have had a "poor night;" Mrs. Thomas' husband; Mrs. Ada McClelland of Richmond, Calif., who was reported in fair condition; Sidney Duncan, 43, of Oakland, Calif.; Mrs. Dora Denton, 45, of Globe, Ariz.; and L. V. Fleming, address not given.

T. C. Overall of Chattanooga, Tenn., one of the 21 injured, was transferred to an Abilene hospital Tuesday for treatment of back injuries.

Dismissed From Hospital
Overall and four other persons were dismissed from a Colorado City hospital, where they were taken by an unidentified motorist.

Funeral arrangements were being made for four who died in the crash.

The body of Pfc. Rafael A. Mendoza of El Paso was taken to Goodfellow Air Force Base at San Angelo to await transportation to Juarez, Mexico.

Bodies of Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Harvill of Farmersville, Calif., are to be returned to California. Relatives of the fourth victim, Mrs. Mary E. McDaniel, were enroute here from Douglassville.

Completion Reported For Sohio Discovery In SE Midland Area

Sohio Petroleum Company has completed its No. 1-B D. L. Hutt and others as a discovery from the Spraberry in Southeast Midland County.

It was finalized for a daily flowing potential of 147 barrels of 38.4-gravity oil and no water. It was completed through a 42/64-inch tubing choke.

Tubing pressure during the final test averaged 40 pounds.

It is located one and one-half miles north of Sohio No. 1-A Hutt, recently completed west ender to the Driver-Spraberry field, and two and three-quarter miles west and slightly south of E. E. Fogelson and Edwin W. Pauley No. 1-46 Judkins-Walton, recently completed one and one-half mile southwest extension to the Tex-Harvey field.

No. 1-B Hutt was completed from open hole at 7,175-7,325 feet. The Spraberry was topped at 7,230 feet. No elevation has been reported.

Open hole was treated with Hydracrac.

Exact location is 660 feet from south and east lines of section 6, block 37, T-4-S, T&P survey.

Final Is Taken At US&OC Wildcat In C-S Martin Sector

Union Sulphur & Oil Corporation has completed its No. 1 Snyder and Arnet, Central - South Martin County wildcat as a small producer and the opener of a new area for the Spraberry.

This well is four miles southwest of Stanton and is almost on the north and west lines of the southwest quarter of section 30, block 36, T-1-S, T&P survey.

The project reported a 24-hour pumping potential of 35.88 barrels of 34.4 gravity oil, plus 75 per cent water.

The project showed a gas-oil ratio of 106-1, but the gas was not sufficient to flow the well regularly and a pump was installed to lift the fluid.

Top of the pay in the Spraberry is at 7,185 feet. Total depth is at 7,245 feet. The 7-inch liner is cemented at 7,160 feet.

Top of the Spraberry is at 7,184 feet, which is 4,505 feet below sea level. The new producer is four miles north of the nearest producers in the Germania field.

The pay section had been Hydracrac.

New Shallow Pay Discovery Finaled In SW Gaines Area

Ralph Lowe of Midland has completed his No. 3-B Helen Cunningham as the discovery for a new and shallower producing zone for the Doss multiphase field in Southwest Gaines County.

This exploration is located 660 feet from south and east lines of the southwest quarter of section 4, block A-24, ps1 survey. It was originally started to try for production in the Pennsylvanian lime.

It drilled to a total depth of 8,906 feet in the Pennsylvanian and found that formation barren. It also failed to find production in the lower Clear Fork zone, above 7,200 feet, which is the first pay horizon developed in the Doss field.

The No. 3-B Cunningham set casing on bottom and then plugged back to 6,336 feet. It perforated the pipe at 6,300-36 feet and treated that interval with 3,000 gallons of acid.

On potential test from that formation, which is the upper Clear Fork the well pumped 115.86 barrels of 31.1 gravity oil, plus two-tenths of one per cent water.

There is no other production in the Doss area from the 6,300-36 foot horizon.

Operator has filed an application for a discovery well and for the designation of well as the opener of the Doss-6,300 foot field.

SE Martin Test Flows 50 BFPH After Hydracrac

Ryan Consolidated Petroleum Corporation No. 1 Willie Peters, possible Spraberry discovery in Southeast Martin County, kicked off and flowed 50 barrels of fluid in one hour after swab was pulled twice following Hydracrac treatment.

Some of that fluid was new oil. The rest was load oil and acid residue. No estimate has been made on the amount of new oil flowed.

At last report the project was still flowing.

Open hole section from 7,088 to 7,187 feet in the Spraberry was given a 1,500-gallon Hydracrac treatment.

Drilling Regulations To Be Discussed At Stanton Water Meet

STANTON — Drilling and production regulations will be discussed here Thursday night at a special called meeting of the Martin County Underground Water District board of directors.

The meeting was called by President A. E. Pittman at the request of the Colorado River Municipal Water District, which has purchased extensive water rights in Martin County.

For several weeks the Martin County group has been studying by-laws and regulations to govern the drilling of water wells and the production of water from the 75-square-mile area in the district.

While these regulations have not been announced, the Colorado River group reportedly is concerned over plans to control the water production.

The Colorado River district, which will supply water to Odessa, Big Spring and Snyder, plans to supply water from Martin County to supplement these cities' own supply during the five years it will require to build its own reservoir for surface water.

The meeting Thursday will begin at 8 p. m. in the Martin County Courthouse.

City Council To Get Bus Proposition At Meeting Thursday

A proposal to give Midland its first public transportation system since last November will be made Thursday afternoon to the City Council.

City Manager W. H. Oswalt said Wednesday two experienced bus operators, who once before had offered to establish a bus system here, are ready to begin the service "almost immediately."

The two men are Leroy Spinks of Monahans and his cousin, C. C. Spinks of Brownsville.

Leroy Spinks conferred at length Tuesday with the city manager, who reported later, "They definitely are still interested in beginning operations here."

The two had submitted a proposal to the City Council several months ago but it was turned down because they said they planned to use—at least at the start—school-bus type buses.

Efforts Have Failed
At that time, councilmen said they hoped to interest operators in establishing a system using the modern pusher-type buses. Efforts to bring such an operation here, however, have failed.

Oswalt said the Spinks have on hand three new school-type buses. "They said they could get immediate delivery on three additional pusher-type buses and would be ready to start almost immediately," said Oswalt.

He said the men planned to begin operations with the six vehicles, with five cross-town routes to bring convenient service to every section of the city.

While the matter of fares was discussed, no definite figures were set.

Oswalt said he would report the offer to the council at its regular weekly meeting at 3 p. m. Thursday.

A 43-year-old Dallas man was found dead Wednesday morning in the room of a hotel here.

He was identified through papers in the room as Chester Arlington Duke, a certified public accountant.

A spokesman for the hotel said Duke checked into the room Monday night and was seen last Tuesday afternoon.

The body is being held at the Newbie W. Ellis Chapel pending funeral arrangements.

Justice of the Peace L. C. Stephenson returned a verdict of death due to natural causes.

All Aboard Saved As Fire Sinks Freighter

AALBORG, DENMARK. (AP)—The Greenland Freighter G. C. Amstrup sank early Wednesday off Norway's south coast after a six-hour fire.

The 14 Danish passengers—including five children—and the crew of 29 abandoned the 900-ton wooden ship and were landed at Skagen, on the northernmost tip of Jutland, Denmark.

Captain L. Coulet-Svensen said he did not know what caused a mysterious explosion that set off the fire. Ten minutes after the explosion, all aboard took to the boats.

She and her husband, Harry, said they would go to Folkestone to set up a training camp this weekend. The date of her channel attempt will depend on the weather, but it probably will be made next month.

Here's How Hollywood-TV Slugfest Will Shape Up

BY ERSKINE JOHNSON

HOLLYWOOD — Behind the Screen: The future shape of things in the Hollywood-TV television battle now is as pronounced as Jane Russell's shadow.

Here's my private crystal-balling — and remember I told you so: Current: A wholesale stampede of big name stars into the TV channels while major film studios concentrate on unknowns and "the play's the thing" ballyhoo.

Next year: Collapse of New York's live TV shows in favor of made-in-Hollywood films. All shows except news and sports events on film.

Heddy Lamarr still is playing Delilah. She persuaded hubby Ted Stauffer to trim his long hair and is beaming over the results. She won't dye a single strand of her white tresses, either.

Justice Department Backs Price-Cutters

WASHINGTON —(AP)—The federal government bluntly has moved promptly and vigorously with criminal prosecutions against those who seek to coerce cut-rate outlets into putting their price-tags up to "agreed" minimum levels.

It was indicated that grand jury action is in the offing in some areas against this type of activity, described by the department as illegal under the Sherman Anti-trust Act. The department's public warning and prospective action stems from the Supreme Court decision of May 21, pulling the rug out from under a principal provision of the so-called "fair trade" laws in effect in 43 states.

The Justice Department said that since this ruling, there have been dozens of efforts to circumvent the court and "prevent price competition" by the cut-rates. The attorney general called on the public generally to report promptly to the FBI or the department's anti-trust division any information on coercion to maintain fixed or minimum resale prices.

Wichita Falls —(AP)— Republicans were expected to put up a candidate Wednesday for the soon-to-be-vacated congressional seat from Texas' 13th District. County judges of the district met here Tuesday and set August as the deadline for candidates to file for the special election on September 8. A man will be chosen then to fill out the unexpired term in Congress of Rep. Ed Gossett, who is resigning.

John Amos West, spokesman for Wichita Falls Republicans, has said his party probably will run a candidate and that the likely man is Joe Jackson, Wichita Falls oil man. The district's county judges ruled that candidates named on the ballot will not be designated by party. They said the law states there are no party candidates in special elections and that the candidate who polls the most votes wins.

In a special election in the Panhandle last year, Ben Gull of Pampa, a Republican, won a plurality and became Texas' first Republican representative in more than 20 years. Gull polled more than 8,000 votes against almost 30,000 split among 10 Democrats in the race. He later was beaten in the regular election by a fellow townsmen, Walter Rogers. Texas Republicans hope they again can elect a congressman because the Democratic vote will be divided among at least five candidates.

Boeing said the new craft, with tanker equipment removed, can carry 134 equipped troops or 79 litter patients with attendants.

Officer Wounded By Negro Prisoner

GREENVILLE, TEXAS —(AP)— A Hunt County constable was wounded critically Tuesday by a negro who seized the officer's pistol and shot him. Constable Carl Pierce was shot twice in the left shoulder and one of the bullets cut a finger from his left hand. His condition was reported as "fair."

Oney Burton, 22, of Fort Worth was charged with assault to murder after he was captured by Sheriff Frank Lane and Deputy Tom Warren. Burton earlier had been charged with burglary and car theft, along with another Fort Worth negro, Robert Henry Smith. Game Warden Joe Brower said Pierce had taken Burton to the slaughterhouse area in Greenville to recover a rifle that had been thrown over a fence. This is the way officers placed the shooting together: Constable Pierce had recovered the rifle and as he turned his car around, Burton grabbed his pistol, struck him in the head, then shot him and ran.

These demonstrations will include suggestions of many money-saving ideas.

In addition to special prizes to be given during the school will be awarded to the homemakers in the audience. The cookery demonstrations will be given by Anna Bines, home service director of the Texas Electric Company and nationally known home economist, cooking school lecturer and authority on the use of home electric appliances. SOCIETY

Both Convention, Trip Are Fun For Midland Altrusa Delegates

Grace Wallace, the newly-chosen second vice president of Altrusa International, had but one reaction to her recent election. "I was surprised," she said.

Mrs. Wallace was chosen for the office at the annual Altrusa convention July 8-12 in White Sulphur Springs, Va.

Others attending from Midland were Mrs. Annie Ford, Mrs. Virginia Hoffman and Mrs. Maurine Mink.

The trip, as well as the convention, was an attraction for the Midlanders. Traveling by air-conditioned car, the group crossed 12 states and 14 rivers during their two-week trip.

En route to the convention they visited points of interest in Arkansas, Tennessee, North and South Carolina and Washington, D. C. On the return trip they added Kentucky and Ohio to the itinerary.

Describes Trip Highlights

One of the highlights of the trip, Mrs. Wallace said, was driving over the new parkway which crosses the mountains north of Asheville, N. C. They also were impressed with the drive to the top of Lookout Mountain in Tennessee and with the Feast of Creation, an open air pantomime presented at Natural Bridge near Lexington, Va.

A total of 739 delegates from the United States, Canada, England, Mexico, South America, Guatemala and Puerto Rico attended the convention. The only Altrusa country not represented was Korea.

"I presented the Korean flag at the ceremony Sunday afternoon," Mrs. Wallace explained, "because Korea is in the Seventh District, which is the same one Midland's in."

Turning to election talks, she added, "One of the most surprising things about the whole election, was the way in which it was conducted. There was no electioneering of any kind. Everyone voted and that was that."

Other Officers Listed

Other international officers chosen were Lena Clauve, dean of women at the University of New Mexico, president; Gretchen Vanderschmidt, owner of Vanderschmidt Secretarial School in St. Louis, president-elect, and Lillie Mae Smithies of Washington State, first vice president.

The officers were honored at the President's banquet Thursday in the Greenbrier Hotel.

Mrs. Ann Eberley of Big Spring also attended the convention from this area. After the Midland Altrusans returned home Saturday, they were entertained with a picnic in the backyard of Mrs. H. N. Phillips' home.

The delegates will give their reports on the convention at the Altrusa meeting to be held Thursday night in the home of Mrs. Lennie Davidson, 900 West Storey Street.

The McAlpines have been a roving family. Originally from Houston, they have moved four times in the last two and a half years. "I think we're going to stay awhile in Midland," Mrs. McAlpine declared. "At least I hope so!"

Her husband, an A&M graduate, is employed as a petroleum engineer for Texas and Pacific Coal & Oil Company.

During his spare time, McAlpine trains his camera upon his favorite model, Susie. Soon he will have another subject for the McAlpines are expecting another child this month. Mrs. McAlpine hopes it will be another girl.

The McAlpines now reside on Burleson Street, but they are planning to move to the South Park Housing addition.

Japanese Peace Treaty

In the past, peace treaties usually have been harsh and vindictive. But the United States has determined upon a wholly new approach in drafting terms for vanquished Japan.

The chief treaty draftsman, John Foster Dulles, describes the proposed pact as "truly one of reconciliation." It would allow the Japanese to rearm and to build up their industries without restriction.

There will be some reparations payments, however, in the form of labor. Some of Japan's former enemies will be permitted to ship raw materials to the Japanese islands for free processing.

In the matter of territory, Japan would be asked to renounce all claim to Formosa, now held by Chiang Kai-shek's forces; to the Kurile islands and the southern part of Sakhalin island, all given to Russia at Yalta; to the Caroline, Mariana and Marshall islands, run by the U. S. under UN trusteeship; and to the Bonin and Ryukyu islands, also under American control with UN trusteeship blessing.

Japan will pay no other major penalty for its part in World War II. To many families and individuals who suffered at Japan's hands, this may seem small punishment to pay for having wrought so much death and destruction. But there is another side.

The history of vindictive treaties is a recital of failures. More often than not, their harsh features have proved unenforceable. At any rate, they have not been enforced. Worse than this, tough treaties have sown the seeds of new wars.

The projected Japanese pact is designed to avoid these results. It is aimed at restoring Japan as an honorable and useful member of the world society. Japan's loss of territory already is an accomplished fact, needing only legal sanction. None of the other treaty terms is in any serious way discriminatory.

Japan's performance under postwar Allied occupation merits this conciliatory approach. The Japanese have set themselves upon the path of democracy with apparently firm resolve. They have toiled industriously toward economic recovery. They have shown every desire to become part of the family of free nations.

This last fact is of especial importance in the chaotic Far East. The free world needs Japan on its side as an island bulwark against Communist domination of Asia. Japan, powerful industrially and potentially strong in arms, is the really decisive element in the Asiatic picture. In Red hands, Japan would just about mean the end of Western influence in the Pacific.

All these things have been in the minds of the men who so painstakingly put together the Japanese treaty draft which will be submitted to the victorious powers at San Francisco September 4. The advantages to be gained from a sound, lasting treaty almost are immeasurable.

Dulles and others who have had a hand in this work have exhibited imagination and courage. Their bold experiment in conciliation at the treaty table will be watched keenly by all the world.

The Washington Merry-Go-Round

By Drew Pearson

(Copyright, 1951, By The Bell Syndicate, Inc.)

Drew Pearson says: Chinese delegate dominates North Korean colleague at truce table; Utah's Senator Watkins blackballs opponent's brother; St. Lawrence Seaway gets political boost.

WASHINGTON — Here are some backstage highlights of the Korean truce talks: Although North Korean General Nam Il is spokesman for the Communists, Chinese Delegate General Tung Hau really pulls the strings. General Nam speaks out, is serious, pleasant, doesn't look round for cues from colleagues. However, when he makes a mistake, Chinese General Tung Hau interrupts and the North Korean goes into reverse.

Two Different Senators: Two senators were approached recently regarding an official request for two appointees from their states. One was Senator Watkins, Democrat, Florida Democrat, the other isolationist Senator Arthur Watkins, Utah Republican.

St. Lawrence Seaway: The long, bitter battle for the St. Lawrence Seaway got an unexpected boost regarding the other day from Ohio's puffy Congressman Clarence Brown, a friend of Taft's and a power among House Republicans.

Have a Laugh: The Kansas, who is a picker of Palomino horses as well as politicians, frankly admitted he had no chance from Eisenhower that he was a candidate or that he was even a dyed-in-the-wool Republican.

JACOBY ON BRIDGE

By OSWALD JACOBY

When the first official world's championship was held in Bermuda last November, the American team won. An important reason for the victory was the tight brand of defense that our team displayed.

Table with columns for NORTH, WEST, EAST (D), SOUTH and various card symbols like ♠, ♣, ♠, ♣.

With the king of diamonds. West shifted to the eight of clubs, and East won with the club ace.

Now East had a terrible problem. He needed two more tricks to defeat the contract. Did his partner have the ace of spades, or had he shifted to a singleton club?

After much anxious thought East returned a club. This was duck soup for Rapec, of course. He won the club, drew trumps, and ran the clubs to discard both of his losing spades.

In the other room the English declarer also let West hold the first trick with the king of diamonds. The American defender, Sidney Bolor, of Philadelphia, gave this partner no problems.

Silodor knew that his side needed three more defensive tricks. There would be available if his partner had the ace of clubs and one of the black kings. In either case it could do no harm to lay down the ace of spades to eliminate all further guesswork.

This card got an enthusiastic signal from his partner, so Silodor led another spade. Then East took the ace of clubs to set the contract.

I don't want anybody to get the idea that the British team put up weak defenses as a general thing. On the contrary, they play magnificently. Fortunately for us, our team played even better.

Q—The bidding has been: North 1 Heart Pass, South 2 Spades Pass, East 3 Clubs Pass, West 4 Clubs Pass.

Q—You hold: Spades Q-J-9-6-4, Heart 8, Diamonds 7-6-4-2, Clubs K-J-7. What do you do?

A—Bid three spades. Partner has invited a game, and you have just about enough strength to accept the invitation. If North has good three-card support for spades he will raise to four spades; otherwise, and he will bid three no-trump. You will accept his decision.

TODAY'S QUESTION: The bidding is the same as in the question just answered. You, South, hold: Spades K-7-5, Hearts 8-4, Diamonds 7-6-4-2, Clubs K-8-7. What do you do?

There'll Be Opposition Galore Against College TV Grants

By PETER EDSON

WASHINGTON—Last round in the great educational television debate gets going before Federal Communications Commission July 23. This is where some 800 local comments on FCC's proposed allocation for 1,900 available TV channels have to be heard, or somehow disposed of.

More than 400 of these comments are in opposition to what the FCC has proposed to do in making these local allocations. So a lot of people are going to be unhappy, no matter what ultimate decisions are reached. No one has even the remotest idea of when the fight will be over.

Included in the commission's so-called "third proposal" of allocations, frequencies are being set aside for 209 educational TV stations. This is 10 per cent of the total number of TV channels available in the radio spectrum. There now are 107 TV stations in operation.

The main arguments over whether there should be some channels set aside for the exclusive use of educational TV already have been heard. What's at stake now is the specific allocation. In general, any community having three or more TV channels will have one reserved for non-commercial, educational TV.

FCC Chairman Wayne Coy admits there is a startling lack of data on how many institutions are ready, willing and able to use the TV tool in education. Nevertheless, he would give state legislatures and boards of trustees a couple of years in which to pick up the channels set aside for educational TV.

FCC Commissioner Frieda Hennock has been the principal bomb thrower for educational TV. She thinks 25 per cent of the total allocations, or 500 channels, should be devoted to educating people, whether they want to be educated or not.

Her point here is that some children now are spending more time in front of TV sets than they do in school. It is folly for educators to ignore this new instrument. Since it's bound to affect children, the question is what kind of influence will it have?

Shall it show them 93 murders a week—as one Los Angeles station put on recently—or shall it be used to make a garden, play a musical instrument, or learn to dance?

Commissioner Hennock recently has been appointed to a federal judgeship by President Truman. This was the job she wanted in the first place. If confirmed to it by the Senate, her honor's interest in educational TV will become academic rather than professional. But other commissioners may carry on the crusade.

Commissioner Paul Walker, speaking before the National Education Association assembly in San Francisco, put in a good plug for educational TV. If colleges and universities can spend millions of dollars for stadiums and student union buildings—if city boards of education can spend more millions on the question just answered. You, South, hold: Spades K-7-5, Hearts 8-4, Diamonds 7-6-4-2, Clubs K-8-7. What do you do?

WILD WEST CHARITY STANDISH BY CHARLES JUDAH

KEN MONTIJO took his knife away from Duke Roger's throat. "Must I leave him unharmed?" he asked Charity Standish.

Charity looked at the unhappy Duke. His eyes were swollen, his lips cut, his mouth bleeding. "He's damaged some," she pointed out mildly.

Kenneth Montijo raised the knife's point, but he still held Duke. "I might scalp him," he said hopefully. "I've always wanted to try it. You can have his hair as a souvenir."

Rogers and Ken Montijo. And if keen eyes watched the victor emerge with Charity (undoubtedly the conqueror's prize, the spoils for which the battle had been waged) they remained discreet—in dark corners or behind heavy shutters.

Ken, not at all satisfied that it had been wise to leave Duke at large, hurried Charity away from the Four Aces. But when they reached the shadows their steps lagged until, as if by mutual consent, they stopped. He fumbled in his pocket where he had stuffed the money swept off the dice table, until he found a slip of paper, Charity's I.O.U. He gave it to her. "Take it up."

She obeyed. The white scraps of paper floated to the ground. "Where are you staying?"

IT was the end of adventure. Only the hotel room remained with its packed trunk and Doug lying drunk on the floor.

"Do I have to go home?" she asked.

The blood of Kenneth Montijo's cautious Scotch mother warred momentarily with that of his reckless Spanish father who, reversing the Yankee procedure had made a fortune trading between New Mexico and the East. Yet Kenneth's mother had not been too cautious to give her heart to Louis Montijo, not to follow him to New Mexico Territory, a thousand miles in distance and 200 years in time, from St. Louis where she was born.

Now he looked at Charity and Spain won an easy victory. "Like to go up to the warred casino? The casino will still be open."

At the thought of more gaming tables, more whiskey, more stale smoke laden air, Charity shuddered.

"No," she said. "What would you like?"

Suddenly she knew.

"Let me take you someplace." In half an hour they were at the hill's crest overlooking the valley. She had never before seen it at high noon. The moonlight it was even lovelier than by day.

"The moon's been misbehaving, too," Charity said. "I got drunk and splashed its light all over the valley; and look at the stars, someone dug a million new ones out of the black pit of night since I last saw the sky in Ohio."

Kenneth did not know that Charity was talking thus to escape the memories of hours spent here with Doug. He was uneasy. Accustomed as he was to poetry in nature, in words it embarrassed him.

"You see more stars here than in Ohio on account of the altitude," he volunteered.

Charity did not like to be winged in mid-flight. She came fluttering back to earth.

"Darn the altitude," she said succumbing to the sun's heat. "The altitude; if the nights are cold, it's the altitude; if a man gets drunk, it's the altitude. Everything that happens in New Mexico Territory is the fault of the altitude. I wouldn't be surprised if I fell in love all on account of the altitude."

"Night have been at that," Kenneth agreed amiably. "Who is the guy? Does he live around here?"

CHARITY realized with a shock that he was, after all, a stranger. An impertinent stranger who listened uninvited to her conversation and gave her officious advice. She burst into laughter. He grinned sympathetically.

"What is it?"

"It's me—on a hill top in New Mexico in the middle of the night with a man whose name I don't even know."

"I'm Ken Montijo."

"Charmed, Mr. Montijo, may I present Miss Charity Standish, though I'm afraid no one in Ohio would believe it." She came closer laughing her lips brushed his cheek. "Now I know they wouldn't."

"I thought you said you were in love," he said slowly.

"I did. I am, I mean I was—"

El Paso Convict Slain By Guard At Prison Farm

HUNTSVILLE —(P)— A 29-year-old prisoner was shot to death late Tuesday during a hand-to-hand battle with a guard near the Ramsey State Prison Farm, in Brazoria County.

Prison officials said Robert Lawrence Macklin, who ran off from a work squad in the fields, was tracked down and killed by Dog Sergeant Gus Morgan. The guard told Warden C. L. McAdams he shot Macklin after the prisoner attacked him in a clump of underbrush.

Morgan said he tracked Macklin down with bloodhounds, then entered some brush to search for him when the trail stopped.

Macklin was serving 30 years from El Paso County for robbery. Prison records show he entered the institution July 21, 1950, and made an unsuccessful attempt to escape Oct. 31, 1950.

Officials said Prison Manager O. B. Ellis Tuesday night made a personal investigation of the slaying.

Finally Cpl. Wayne E. Talafuse of Cameron, Texas, investigated. He reported: "One very dead roast pig kept us up all night."

Slaying Of Paper Company Executive Is Puzzle To Police

CHICAGO —(P)— Police delved into the business and personal affairs of Charles Crane, 37, a wealthy paper company executive, Wednesday as they hunted a motive for his mysterious slaying.

"We have no clues at all," said Lt. John Golden, chief of homicide detectives. "The motive may have died with him."

Crane, who in 10 years rose from a $50-a-week dock hand to virtual operator of the Thomas Paper Stock Company which grosses from $6,000,000 to $8,000,000 a year, was shot to death Tuesday.

Crane was sitting in his car outside the company plant in the Goose Island district—on the city's northwest side—when a green-shirted gunman approached. He fired two shots. The bullets struck Crane's face and head at close range, killing him instantly.

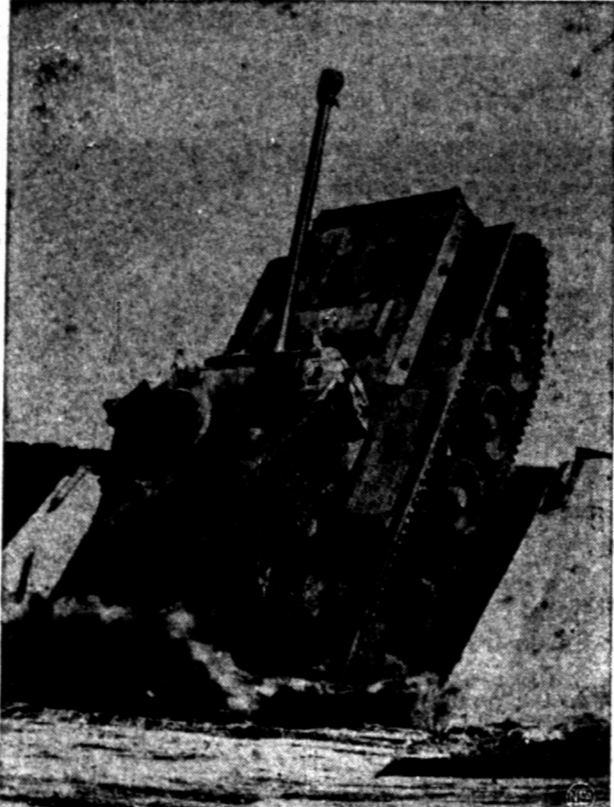

The gunman fled to a car parked nearby and drove away with a companion. Police said three men heard two shots and saw the slayer running from Crane's car.

No Apparent Motive
Police said Crane was on three years' probation in federal court after pleading guilty in 1949 in a $1,267,512 income tax case against the paper company and its president, Alvin E. Sandroff, 49.

Sandroff, who also pleaded guilty and was sentenced to prison for two years, was paroled last September because of ill health. Crane paid $22,000 of a tax liability of $24,558.

Police said Sandroff told them he was unable to advance a motive for Crane's slaying.

The firm's president, who estimated the gross annual business at $6,000,000 to $8,000,000, told investigators Crane kept most of the company's affairs in his head. However, he added, an outside auditor checked the company's books each month. They were in good order, he said.

Three Attendants Are Convicted In Hospital Slaying

MILLEDGEVILLE, GA. —(P)— Three attendants at the State Hospital for the Insane were convicted of involuntary manslaughter Tuesday night after testimony that revivifying brutality led to the death of a 23-year-old patient.

A Superior Court jury recommended that the attendants be punished as for a misdemeanor. Judge George S. Carpenter said he would pronounce sentence Wednesday.

The three attendants, C. W. Beckum, Alton Lincoln and J. A. Huff, were tried jointly for the death of Lloyd Hooks, whose body was found March 1 in a hospital bathroom with a handkerchief stuffed in his throat.

At state witness testified that on the day Hooks died he saw the three attendants force the inmate to lick vomit from the floor and then forced him to eat a soiled handkerchief. The witness also testified that he saw the attendants beat and curse Hooks for four days prior to his death.

Hooks had been committed to a building for the criminally insane at the hospital after a charge of driving while intoxicated.

Vacation-Mooching Relatives Give Farm Folk A Headache

By RUTH MILLETT
NEA Staff Writer

This time of year letters start coming to me from farm wives who dread the influx of self-invited guests. Summer always seems to bring them. The one that came in today's mail is typical. I'm reproducing it here. Maybe some city folk who are thinking of writing to Aunt Minnie or Cousin Sue, suggesting that Johnny would love to spend his vacation on the farm, will stop to consider just how much they are asking.

Writes this farm wife: "Will you please comment on my situation? I am a farm wife with two small children and my aged mother to care for.

"We moved to the country from a city where my husband and I both have large families living. I honestly dread the coming of summer each year because it is just one family after another coming to spend their vacation with us from June until September.

"With all the work of cooking for extra people all the time added to the extra Summer jobs such as gardening and canning, it is almost more than I can hold up under. It's a big expense, too—feeding extra people all summer long.

"But of course we treat every one so that they feel most welcome: have good food, comfortable beds and pleasant atmosphere, so they always like to come back. Is it just one of those situations I can do nothing about?"

It's hard once they've got the habit of descending on you to put a stop to it without hurting feelings. This you obviously don't want to do, or you wouldn't have been so hospitable in the past.

But it is an imposition for city folk to expect a free vacation every year with their country relatives. You could try a little strategy this summer that might pay off in another year. You couldn't mention to each city guest that you'd love a vacation in the city this Winter—and tell them sweetly you'll write them when it is convenient for you to come.

Or you could take to your bed—just call it physical exhaustion—and let your guests worry about the cooking, canning, and other chores. But maybe you won't have to do either. Maybe your relatives will see this column, notice how the shoe fits and put it on.

DADDY RINGTAIL

By WESLEY DAVIS

Daddy Ringtail And Is This The Gentleman

The Huffen Puffen, the friendly wolf, was asleep one day at his hollow tree house. "Tap! Tap! Tap!" came a gentle tapping on his door. "Tap! Tap! Tap!" The Huffen jumped up and opened the door to see who it was.

She had glasses on her nose, and a bonnet on her head, and a shawl around her shoulders, and an apron all tied at her back. "Pardon me, Sir," said the little old lady to the Huffen in the sweetest voice that ever was.

"Pardon me, but is this the gentleman I am looking for?" "Huh?" asked the Huffen. "I mean—Ma'am?"

And again the little old lady asked the Huffen if he could be the gentleman that she was looking for? She was looking for a gentleman, she said, who would row her across the Whispering River in a boat, all so she could go ahead with her journey to see her children far away.

Said the Huffen: "But little old lady, you are much too little, you are, and much too gentle and old and kind to be traveling by yourself. 'But I shall not be by myself,'" said the little old lady. And again she explained she was looking for the gentleman who would help her across the river, and once she had crossed to the other side—why, there another gentleman would meet her to help her on her way. Well, the Huffen mumbled and grumbled about the gentleman ought to be waiting to row the little old lady across the river. But when the gentleman did not come along, the Huffen borrowed Daddy Ringtail's boat and rowed her across the Whispering River. Once they were there on the other side, the little old lady spoke to a strange man passing, and said: "Is this the gentleman who will help me on my way to see my children?"

"I am," said the man, and he let her lean on his arm to help her walking, even though the man had never seen her before. And so then the Huffen began to understand. The Huffen knew that the little old lady always would be looking for a gentleman to help her, and the gentleman would help her all right, just as the Huffen had helped her, and the gentleman then would have a happy feeling all over with the happy thing he had done. Blushing Boatmen Balk At Bountiful Blessings Of Beauty

LONDON (AP)—The blushing boatmen of the Thames taxi fleet voted to resume work Wednesday after a 24-hour strike against too much cheesecake.

A leader of the 250 strikers told newsmen, "If the employers don't do something about our grievances, we'll go out again."

One of the grievances is that the boatmen have been seeing far too much of women.

It makes them blush, they say, to have to load female passengers in such a way that their skirts hike up around their pants. What's more, it takes their mind off their work.

Some 250 boatmen manning 80 water taxis that ply the Thames between Greenwich and Kew walked out Tuesday in a dispute over working conditions. They claim their docking facilities are not suitable.

In fact, they are so unsuitable that one boat captain said all the sights of the trade are not confined to the banks of the historic Thames.

"The only way women can get into our boats from some piers is to sit down and slide in," he said. "Their clothes ruck up and it becomes really indecent."

GOP Group Names Dies As Possible 'Union' Candidate

CINCINNATI (AP)—A Republican committee for North-South union with the Republican Party Wednesday called for nomination next year of a Midwestern Republican for president and a Southern Democrat for vice president.

The candidates would run on the GOP ticket in the North and on the Democratic ticket in the South.

The committee was started here 17 months ago at a conference attended by a number of Republican leaders from Ohio and Texas. William J. Reardon, Cincinnati attorney and industrialist, is chairman of the organization.

Reardon said in a statement Wednesday, "x x This committee is convinced that the welfare of the nation requires practical political cooperation between constructive Northern Republicans and constructive Southern Democrats in 1952."

"Accordingly, this committee intends to support for president a candidate such as Senator Taft, Senator Dirksen, Senator Wherry, Wayland Brooks of Illinois, Senator Mundt, or other kindred Republicans.

"For vice president on the Republican ticket, it intends to support a candidate such as Martin Dies of Texas, Senator Byrd of Virginia, Senator Kefauver of Tennessee, Mayor Morrison of New Orleans, or other candidates approved by representative Southern leaders."

14-Year-Old Backs His Snake-Dealer Story With Proof

JACKSONVILLE, FLA. (AP)—Fourteen-year-old Gene Berman and his 28 snakes were nearer Drexel Hill, Pa., and home Wednesday. Berman picked him up Tuesday, thinking he was a runaway.

They found he was carrying in a box a four-foot, seven-inch boa constrictor, 21 baby constrictors, and a three-foot Everglades rat snake.

Gene told horrified policemen at the juvenile department of headquarters he was a dealer in snakes, that "it pays my expenses for trips," and that he had left home July 3 with a friend who since has gone on to New Mexico.

Berman said he got the snakes trading around in Florida, but he and his friend found "a handsome coral snake the other night when we were camping near Lake City in a pine grove."

The friend took the coral, but Berman said "I have half interest in it."

Police gladly allowed him to resume his hitchhiking trip north.

Man Fined $200 On Liquor Charge

Garlin Herbert Cain, 49, was fined $200 in County Court Tuesday afternoon after pleading guilty to a charge of "possession of liquor for the purpose of sale."

Cain was arrested at his home at 504 South Colorado Street at about 2 p. m. Tuesday, officers said. Thirty-two half-pints and 16 pints of whiskey were confiscated by inspectors of the Texas Liquor Control Board.

Arresting officers were Inspectors Lloyd W. Owens and James E. Dale of the TLQB. Police Capt. J. W. Wilkerson, Lieut. R. M. Hemingway and a member of the sheriff's office.

Big Spring Rodeo Boosters Pay Short Visit To Midland

Rodeo boosters from Big Spring roared into Midland late Tuesday afternoon with a strident-sounding police escort to proclaim the Big Spring Rodeo and Cowboy Reunion, opening Wednesday for a four-day run.

The boosters, 20 strong, unloaded from their special bus in front of Hotel Scharbauer shortly after 5 p. m. for a short but loud and snappy program.

Two selections were played by the Big Spring High School German Band while six pretty Rodeo-ettes handed out rodeo advertising amid ear-piercing Western whooping and hollering. The Rodeo-ettes also presented a selection of songs.

The boosters were met at the Midland city limit by a welcoming committee, including W. A. Hutcherson of the Midland National Bank, Assistant City Manager Morris Howard, Police Chief Rube Hemingway and Police Captain J. W. Wilkerson.

Heading the visiting group were Grover Cunningham, Jr., chairman of the Big Spring ABC Club committee sponsoring the tour, and Graham Purcell, president of the ABC Club.

The Rodeo-ettes were Wanda Petty, Ann Crocker, Bobby Adams, Mary Ann White, Janie Collins and Daury Garrison. The five-piece band was composed of Merlin Peterson, Jimmie Bennett, Gordon Myric, Ronnie Sanders and Udonald Butler.

The boosters made an all-day tour, visiting Lamesa, Tahoka, Lubbock, O'Donnell, Levelland, Brownfield, Seminole, Andrews, Odessa, Midland and Stanton.

The rodeo, sponsored by the Big Spring Cowboy Reunion, will be held Wednesday through Saturday nights in the new Big Spring Cowboy Reunion Bowl, located two miles west of Big Spring, and will feature seven event groups with a $3,400-plus purse.

SUNDAY—DAY OF BIG NEWS-BREAKS—Sunday continues to live up to its reputation as a day of big wartime news-breaks. The latest was, of course, the meeting between Communist and UN officers to discuss a cease-fire that could end the Korean war. Other important news-breaks that came on Sundays are listed above.

'Old' Soldier Decides To Retire And Let Army Life Just Fade Away

Cpl. Carl D. Shaffer of the Second Infantry Division, U. S. Army, figures old soldiers should retire, so he's getting out at the end of his hitch in March.

Shaffer is 19, fresh from the fighting in Korea with 11 months of overseas duty behind him.

He is visiting a sister, Mrs. Leonard Smith, 407 South Jefferson Street, and an aunt, Mrs. Ruth Rotan, of 400 South Fort Worth Street.

The youth, whose home is in Blackwell, Texas, joined the Army at the mature old age of 15, after his parents had given their signed permission.

Back in the States on rotation, Shaffer will report to Fort Sill, Okla., in a few weeks where he expects to get some artillery training.

The youthful veteran of much bitter fighting in Korea isn't yet certain whether he'll go back to high school or get a job and settle down.

At any rate, he doesn't plan to make the Army a career, not that Army life goes too much against his grain. It's just been a big adventure in his life.

Supplies Slow

Shaffer says the morale of the fighting men in Korea has been good, even during the early part of the undeclared war when supplies were slow in reaching them and the cold was almost unbearable.

He was promoted to the rate of corporal last April 25.

The young corporal is wearing the Asiatic, Korean Campaign, Good Conduct and UN ribbons, with three battle stars.

He was lucky to escape frostbite or wounds and survived four days of entrapment at Kun-ri and five days of being trapped at Chip-Yong-Ni.

"Our losses weren't especially heavy," he said of the entrapments. Thirty tanks of the First Marine Division rescued his outfit at Chip-Yong-Ni. Supplies were brought to them by air while they were cut off by the Communist forces.

Corporal Shaffer has a brother, Roy, who also is in the Army. Roy joined about four months ago and is in training at Fort Jackson, S. C.

U. S. Forces Pass First Death-Free Day In Korean War

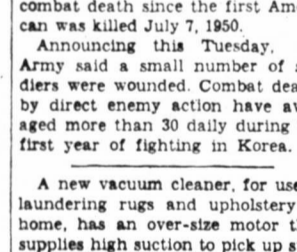

WASHINGTON —(P)— No U. S. soldier was killed in Korea in the 24 hours ended at 5 p. m. (Korean Time) Tuesday the first without a combat death since the first American was killed July 7, 1950.

Announcing this Tuesday, the Army said a small number of soldiers were wounded. Combat deaths by direct enemy action have averaged more than 30 daily during the first year of fighting in Korea.

From Bloomers To Bikinis

It's the turn of the century, and taking a look at the bathing suits of that era, is it any wonder the century turned? With her covered-up look, it's a good thing grandpa had imagination. If it wasn't for the come-hither look in this "swimmer's" eyes, she could be a he. Just for curiosity, let's analyze a 1900 beach costume item by item: At left, is a vintage-somewhere-around-1900-bathing-cap. How did this job keep the hair dry? It didn't have to—the girls seldom went in the water. Next is the main part of the suit. It had the sleek, feminine lines of a tuxedo. This is high fashion around 1900—but it looks more like low comedy. Below are legs, clad in the 1900-type bloomers and black stockings. At the bottom of the legs were usually sandals. At the top was a girl.

Waters—

(Continued From Page One) the plans was not disclosed but they were believed to cover an emergency water distribution system in case the city's plants are put out of commission.

Even as St. Louis prepared for the onslaught of the mighty torrents, thousands of persons still were homeless in the Missouri-Kansas flood area upstream.

Water was subsiding at Kansas City, but the major portions of the flooded industrial districts still were under water—eight to 10 feet deep in some places.

The same was true at Topeka, where almost 8,000 persons still lived in refuge centers because of deep flood water pouring over their homes.

Capital City Safe The crest of the Missouri was approaching Jefferson City, the state capital, in the center of the state.

Most of the damage through Missouri is to farm land, although there is some flooding in smaller communities. A portion of Jefferson City may be inundated, although most of the city is on a high hill and apparently safe.

President Truman's flight Tuesday was over Kansas, Missouri and Oklahoma. In his party was Charles E. Wilson, defense mobilization chief.

Wilson said key federal agencies would work swiftly to alleviate "the awful conditions the flood has caused."

Relief Bill Signed The President returned to Washington shortly after 11 p.m. Tuesday and less than 10 hours later, signed a $25,000,000 flood relief bill passed finally by the Senate Tuesday afternoon. He acted as soon as the measure reached his desk.

During his aerial trip, the President saw at least 1,000,000 acres that were inundated or had been under water. His plane flew over flooded industrial districts, wrecked bridges, smashed residential areas and ruined farms.

Damage in Missouri and Kansas alone has been estimated in excess of $750,000,000—and receding waters are uncovering additional losses daily. The death toll is 23.

High waters continued to drop in the Kansas City area, and in flooded Eastern and Central Kansas and Northeastern Oklahoma.

Fish do not drink water; they get enough moisture in their food.

Hillbilly Composer Of 'Joli Blon' Dies In Austin Jail Cell

AUSTIN — Officers Wednesday sought to find out what caused the death of Harry Choates, 28-year-old composer of "Joli Blon" and other hillbilly hit tunes.

An inquest ordered Tuesday by County Physician H. M. Williams was underway. He was awaiting the outcome of laboratory tests before giving a verdict.

The young fiddle player and composer died in the county jail, where he had been committed on a Jefferson County warrant charging contempt of court in a wife and child desertion case.

Choates died half an hour before Chief Deputy Sheriff T. O. Grant of Jefferson County arrived to return him to Beaumont.

Prisoners reported Choates appeared to be ill shortly after 2 p.m., and an ambulance was called. The composer died in his cell before the ambulance arrived.

Choates originally was from Louisiana. While he won national fame for "Joli Blon," he also had written such minor successes as "Poor Hobo," "Catting Around" and "The Port Arthur Waltz."

Choates has been well-known in this area about three years. He played frequently at Dessau Hall, and devotees of hillbilly music said he really could make his fiddle talk.

Cuba has one of the oldest universities in the Americas, founded in 1728.

Monahans Man Shot In Foot

MONAHANS — One Monahans man was shot in the foot in an argument here Tuesday night and another was being held for questioning by police.

Pole said Pete Stewart, a truck driver, was shot in the foot with a foreign-made revolver. He was under treatment in a Monahans hospital. The gun first was pointed at Stewart's chest, they said, but it failed to fire.

Truce—

"In order to hasten the conferences to their ultimate goal," the UN announcement said, "the United Nations senior delegate (Admiral Joy) accepted two points presented by the Communists on the phraseology of agenda items, after placing on the record the United Nations understanding of their basic intent."

"Some additional progress" was made at Wednesday's sessions, which lasted two hours and 50 minutes, the Army said.

The seventh day's meeting was scheduled at 11 a.m. Thursday (7 p.m. CST Wednesday).

"Today's meeting moved rather ponderously, as had the previous meetings, due to language difficulties," the Army said.

"Since three languages—Chinese, North Korean and English—are used in the conferences, it was necessary for each statement from either side to be translated two times."

Sheriffs' Sale Set For Salvage Firm

All assets and stock of the James K. Boyce Auto Salvage Company will be sold to the highest bidder at a sheriff's sale July 23.

A notice of the sale says the auction will include "all junk, scrap metal and used parts and tools" used in connection with the operation of the company.

The sale will be conducted at the company's location on West Highway 80, but no definite hours have been set, Sheriff Ed Darnell said Tuesday.

The sale is the result of an $8,300 judgment in 70th District Court in favor of Ted Heath and C. H. Shepard against James K. Boyce, the notice said.

Air Force To Reopen Base At Clovis, N. M.

WASHINGTON — (AP)—The Air Force hopes to begin reactivation of Clovis, N. M., Air Force Base about September 1.

Officials Tuesday notified Representative Dempsey (D-NM) the base definitely is to be reactivated but whether the reopening will begin September 1 depends on passage of appropriations legislation.

Dallas Salesman Pays Fine For Slighting Remark About Negro

LON. ANGELES — (AP)—A Dallas, Texas, salesman paid a $100 fine Tuesday after negro singer Josephine Baker arrested him on an accusation of making a slighting remark against her race.

The salesman, 43-year-old Frank Harlan, waived a jury trial and submitted his case to Municipal Judge Clifford Higgins on the arrest report, signed by Miss Baker.

Harlan, formally charged with disturbing the peace, chose to pay the fine instead of going to jail for 10 days.

Miss Baker said that after her last performance at a downtown theater she was at the Biltmore Hotel when Harlan, at the next table, announced: "I won't stay in the same room with niggers."

Oil Flow—

He said crude oil stocks were not too high but the "products build-up is, I think, becoming ominous."

He said the Kansas floods had inundated some refineries and pipe lines and predicted gasoline stocks probably would back up in refineries, forcing some shutdowns in refinery runs.

Midland Hearing Planned H. S. Lane of Crown Central Petroleum Corporation said if Dittler knew of any excess oil to be purchased, his company would like to have it. He said Crown Central had been unable to buy any sizeable amount, even though allowables have been high.

Herman Presler of Humble Oil & Refining Company, Raymond Myers of Magnolia Petroleum Company, and J. C. Edwards of The Texas Company agreed the August allowable should be based on 24 days statewide and 19 in East Texas. Edwards got a laugh when he said his company really would like "about 24 1/2 days."

The next statewide oil hearing will be held August 16 at Abilene.

Murray said the Seminole field reduction was at the suggestion of field operators, who thought fewer producing days or a reduced permissible gas-oil ratio limit would be the best way to prevent flaring of casinghead gas.

Murray said it appeared from a recent hearing on the flaring gas problem in several West Texas fields that one of the reasons for flaring is "the failure to produce oil—and consequently, casinghead gas—on a uniform schedule throughout the month and throughout the day."

"We can't order a uniform flow schedule. However, in the interest of trying to work this out, we are contemplating holding a series of conferences at Midland with the operators to work it out," he said.

Fighting Vanishes On Korea War Front U. S. EIGHT ARMY HEADQUARTERS, KOREA — Fighting almost vanished from the Korean war fronts Wednesday. Beyond the lines Allied bombers hammered steadily at highways and railroads to prevent Communists from moving in new troops.

Only one Allied patrol found any Communists. It bumped into a Red patrol in the no-man's-land northwest of Inje, on the eastern front. Two Reds were wounded.

Flow Of Hydrant Swamps Fireman

SAN FERNANDO, Calif. — Blaine R. Kenaley says he was nearly drowned while fighting a fire. The city fireman was manning a hose at a residential blaze when the hydrant broke. A great gush of water knocked him against a nearby engine and the stream kept beating at him. After coughing out the water, he was treated at an emergency hospital for a fractured collar bone.

Man Goes To Sleep In Wrong Residence

CENTRALIA, Ill. — A tired oil pipe line worker gave the cabbie his Carlyle, Ill., address and, on arrival, promptly hit the hay.

A neighbor told Sheriff Henry Klutcho who awakened the sleeper to tell him he was in the Ed Drannamans' house. And they were away.

In a quick double take, the man found he was in a house with the same street number as his own. But his house was three blocks away.

Hearing Called To Unfold Story Of Influence Peddler

WASHINGTON — (AP)— Senate investigators have dug up evidence about an "influence peddler" whose operations rival the gag about the slicker who sold the Capitol to a wide-eyed rube.

The Senate Investigating Committee has called a hearing Thursday morning to unfold the story.

It revolves, committee members said, around the man's success in convincing people the government plans to go underground to escape an atomic attack and that he could snap up present government buildings for bargain leases.

Chairman Hoey (D-N.C.) told a reporter testimony taken in closed sessions showed the man had collected "a right considerable sum."

Hoey said he represented himself as having influence to obtain government contracts and particularly leases on government warehouses and other buildings.

He added, however, that the committee has no evidence the man ever got any contracts or leases or ever contacted any government officials.

Another committee member, Senator Mundt (R-SD), told a reporter testimony already on the record indicates the money taken in by the man "runs into six figures."

The committee did not identify Thursday's witnesses, who are persons who gave him money.

Red 'Bail Angels' Returned To Jail For Indefinite Stay

NEW YORK — Millionaire Leftist Frederick Vanderbilt Field was back in jail Wednesday, for an indefinite stay.

But unlike his first trip behind bars earlier this month, the great-grandson of Commodore Cornelius Vanderbilt had company in the case of the "bail angels" for four fugitive convicted-top Communists.

Two of his fellow trustees for the Civil Rights Congress Bail Fund—mystery writer Dashiell Hammett and W. Alpheus Hunton—also languished in cells as involuntary guests of the federal government.

In addition, they had the company of 11 second-string Red leaders whose Civil Rights Congress bail was revoked Monday.

For the Reds, the prospects of release were rosy. They could obtain their freedom as soon as they supplied bail acceptable to the government. They needed a total of $140,000 "unfettered" bail money.

But for Field, Hammett and Hunton, their confinement on contempt of court sentences had indications of being extended. Their temporary bail pending appeal, was canceled Tuesday by federal appeals judges.

Thieves Break Into Office At Ball Park

Thieves broke into the office of the Midland Indians at Indian Park Tuesday night.

Only one thing was missing—a souvenir baseball, stitched with gold thread, which recently was presented to Manager Zeke Bonura.

LOST 70 POUNDS WITH THIS HOME RECIPE

Barentrate is the original grapefruit juice recipe for taking off ugly fat. It's simple. Just go to your druggist and ask for 4 ounces of liquid Barentrate. Pour the contents into a pint bottle. Add 12 ounces of canned grapefruit juice. Then take just two tablespoonsful twice a day. That's all there is to it. If the very first bottle doesn't show the simple, easy way to lose bulky fat and help regain slender, more graceful curves—12 reducible pounds and inches of excess fat don't just seem to disappear almost like magic from neck, chin, arms, bust, abdomen, hips, calves and ankles, just return the empty bottle for your money back. No starvation diet with Barentrate.

Lost 70 Pounds
"I have lost a total of 70 pounds taking Barentrate and am feeling fine," writes Mrs. J. A. McEe, Box 88, Devine, Texas.

Lost 10 Pounds
"I am very much satisfied with Barentrate. I lost 10 pounds in 2 weeks," says Mrs. Albert Stevens, 1425 E. Van Duren, Brownsville, Texas.

This one says You've Arrived

HERE pictured is an automobile that may well be the fulfillment of any man's dream of a fine motorcar.

For you've a right to expect, when you pay a fine-car price, that your money will buy more distinction, more comfort, more performance than are to be found in vehicles of lesser worth.

So mark well the things that a ROADMASTER offers.

No other car on the American scene has a prouder bearing.

No other automobile has more spacious dimensions, more luxurious comfort, or finer appointments.

No other car has a ride more serenely smooth on curve or straightaway, highway or byway.

And no other car, at ROADMASTER'S price or above, has Dynaflow, and the supreme command of every traffic condition which it provides.

So you, at the wheel of Buick's biggest and best, have a right to feel distinguished.

But there's a joy of possession which goes deeper than visible things.

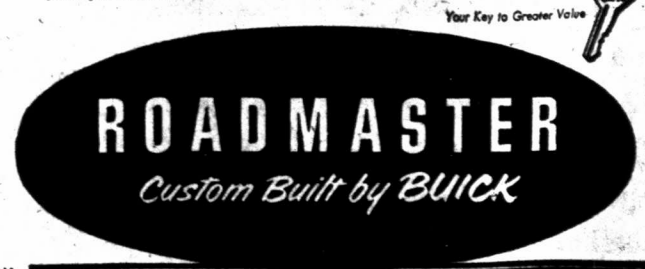

There's the feel of a power plant as brilliantly eager as this great car's valve-in-head Fireball Engine—and the satisfying companionship of a brawny traveler instantly responsive to your every wish.

And there's one thing more, which only ROADMASTER can give you in such generous measure. That is the pride of a wise investment, based on the fact that this car stands alone in price per pound, among fine cars similarly equipped.

So why not take that very important first step—and come in and see us soon?

Equipment, accessories, trim and models are subject to change without notice.

MIDLAND MOVES TO SIXTH PLACE—

Indians Whip Artesia Drillers, 10-2, With Nelson On Hill

Old Soldier Ernie Nelson returned to the friendly confines of Indian Park Tuesday night, baffled the Artesia Drillers with his southpaw offerings and won his first start of the 1951 season, 10 to 2.

The veteran left-hander shut the door on the Drillers after the first inning—when they scored both their runs—and held them hitless from the third frame until the eighth. All told, Nelson allowed but eight hits in his winning appearance—seven of them singles.

Nelson's teammates supported his performance with a 12-hit attack that included doubles by Rudy Escobar, Hayden White, Kenny Jones, Zeke Bonura and Bill Crumley. In addition, the Tribe infield performed two double plays to help Nelson win his initial start. The win boosted Midland into sixth place over the Drillers.

The Drillers scored first in the game's first inning as the leadoff man doubled, three more men singled and two Indian errors were committed. A double play—Eddie Melillo to Crumley to Bonura—kept the situation from getting worse.

Indians In Front
 Midland got one of the runs back in the first inning as Rudy Escobar laid down a bunt and beat it out. Scooter Hughes singled and J. B. Gibbs followed with a hit, scoring Escobar. It was tied up in the third when Gibbs again singled, scoring on Hayden White's twenty-ninth double of the year. The Indians broke the game open in the sixth, as Kenny Jones singled, taking third on Zeke Bonura's automatic double as the ball bounced over the center field fence. Eddie Melillo drew an intentional walk to load the bases, and Crumley popped up. Then came the night's disputed play.

Nelson hopped an infield fly off the end of his bat to field fly rule was on, meaning Nelson was an automatic out, with the runners allowed to advance at their own risk. Bonura turned, trying to get a man off base, the ball dribbling out of his hands. Jones crossed the plate from third, Bonura went into third and Eddie Melillo streaked for second. The Drillers had tagged second, trying for a force play, and Umpire Weikel ruled it was the third out. But after a pow-wow with excited Indians, Nugent, the plate umpire, conferred with Weikel and the play was ruled in favor of Midland, with the run counting. Escobar then doubled in two more runs to make the score 5-2, Midland.

Nelson Whiffed Six
 In the seventh, doubles by Jones and Crumley featured a three-run uprising. Hits by Hughes and Jones highlighted the eighth as the Indians built the count to the final margin of 10-2.

Artesia got a pair of hits off Nelson in the last frame, but he whiffed the last man—his sixth strikeout of the night—to end the game. The same two teams meet at 8:15 p.m. Wednesday here.

Ezzard Charles Is 4-1 Favorite Over Walcott In Match

PITTSBURGH —(AP)—A threat of late evening showers hung over the outdoor Ezzard Charles-Jersey Joe Walcott heavyweight championship fight as the gladiators sweated out the hours for their third title clash at 8 p.m. (CST) Wednesday.

This is Pittsburgh's first heavyweight title scrap and the Forbes Field card has caught on big in the Smoky City. The only answer to the unusual stir over this road show is Charles. The 30-year-old Cincinnati negro considers this his second home town and his appearance here in defense of his crown is a fulfillment of an old promise.

Charles is a 4 to 1 favorite. In the event of a postponement, the bout will be staged Thursday.

Longhorn League—Colts, Oilers, Broncs, Indians Win Tuesday Games

By The Associated Press
 The front-running San Angelo Colts are leading the Longhorn League by a nice margin and are showing no sign of letting up. The Colts take them as they come and always manage to win more than their share of the games.

Tuesday night it was the Vernon Dusters to suffer at the hands of the leaders. The Colts took a 7-2 victory behind the masterful pitching of Bob Garza. Garza gave up 10 hits but kept the Dusters away from the plate in all but the fourth inning for his twelfth win.

Big Spring, trailing by six and one-half games, are staying right on the heels of the leaders. They held the pace with a 12-0 romp against Sweetwater. Juan Lawrence, recently acquired from the Sherman-Denison twins of the Big State League, notched his fourth win against no losses. He scattered eight hits.

Pepper Martin, manager of the Odessa Oilers believes in leading his club. His home run with one out, base in the fourth inning helped the Oilers take a 4-2 decision over Roswell and move into third place in the pennant chase.

Odessa passed Roswell with the victory to trail San Angelo by 8½ games. Roswell is nine games off the pace.

In a battle of second division clubs the Midland Indians spanked Artesia, 10-2. The victory jumped the Indians by the Drillers into sixth place but they are twenty-four and one-half games behind the leaders.

Ernie Nelson, a veteran left hander of the League, came out of retirement to join the Indians and pitched a fine eight-hitter to register his first win.

WT-NM League Home Run Robs Priest Of New Pitching Record

By The Associated Press
 Jesse Priest, Albuquerque moundsman, missed a new West Texas-New Mexico League record Tuesday night when the Lubbock Hubbers defeated the Albuquerque Dukes, 2-1, in a mound duel. Priest had won 17 games in a row to tie the old record.

Paul Bodkowski hit a two-run home run in the bottom of the sixth inning to snap the winning streak and rob Priest of a new record. Albuquerque had gone ahead in the top of the inning.

Front running Abilene lost to Borger, 3-1, and third-place Lamesa took a 12-2 pummeling at the hands of last-place Clovis.

To round out the card Amarillo trounced Pampa, 7-3, in a battle of second division clubs. Six Pampa errors helped Amarillo.

Martin To Pilot All-Star Outfit
 DALLAS —(AP)—Manager Hershel Martin of the Albuquerque Dukes will manage the North team in the West Texas-New Mexico league all-star game at Borger Thursday night.

Martin was chosen by popular ballot among the players of the squad. This is the fourth straight year he has managed a team of all-stars in the annual game.

League President Milton Price said the South team has not yet finished balloting for its manager.

MAJOR LEAGUES—

Chisox Nip Yankees In 10 Innings

By JOE REICHLER
Associated Press Sports Writer

The White Sox fold? Don't tell that to Casey Stengel and his New York Yankees.

They know better after what happened to them Tuesday night. They had Chicago whipped only to see Paul Richards' amazing Sox snatch the victory right out of their mitts with a three-run blast in the eighth inning and the "decider" in the tent.

Chicago won, 4-3, after trailing 2-0 in the eighth. The triumph gave the Sox sole possession of second place in the American League, only two percentage points behind the pace-setting Boston Red Sox.

Cleveland climbed into a virtual third place tie with New York, defeating the Red Sox 8-6 as Bob Feller became the first pitcher to rack up 13 triumphs. Only a game and a half separate the four clubs.

The White Sox, uphill victory emphasized Richards' pre-game statement that his club will not crack up. "We don't intend to fold," he said. "The Yankees, Red Sox and Indians will fold before we do. We'll be on top at the end."

Did Paul realize he had picked the White Sox to win the pennant? Did he want that statement to stand?

"Yes," he replied. "I want it to stand. I know it's going to get tougher but that's how I fell about my ball club. We're going to win."

Outlook gloomy? We're going to win. The outlook was gloomy for Chicago as the Sox faced Allie (No-Hit) Reynolds in the eighth trailing because of Hank Bauer's two-run homer in the seventh.

But, as on so many previous occasions, the never-say-die White Sox refused to concede. A walk, successive singles by Nellie Fox, Eddie Stewart and Minnie Minoso—and the score was tied at 2-2. Eddie Robinson grounded out and Stewart crossed the plate with the lead run.

A near-capacity crowd of 45,580 saw big Saul Rogovin go the distance for his sixth win. Rogovin was making his first start since his heart-breaking 17-inning loss to the Red Sox last Thursday.

Feller Wins
Feller yielded eight hits including home runs to Lou Boudreau and pinch hitter Charley Maxwell as the Indians moved to within three percentage points of the third-place Yankees.

The Tribe collected nine hits off three Boston pitchers and scored five unearned runs in the third. A pair of bunts by Dale Mitchell and Bob Avila, a walk to Feller, a passed ball, an error by Boudreau (playing first base), singles by Luke Easter and Al Rosen and a double by Bob Kennedy finished Mel Parnell.

The smallest night game crowd ever to see a game in Detroit—15,746 fans—watched the Tigers whip the Philadelphia Athletics, 8-5. Tommy Byrne of the St. Louis Browns shut out Washington, 2-0, on four hits after Sandy Consuegra had pitched the Senators to a 7-2

'Ladies Night' Set Wednesday; Gabby Blumenthal To Hurl

Bruce (Gabby) Blumenthal will take his speed ball to the mound for Midland at 8:15 p. m. Wednesday, when the Indians meet the Artesia Drillers in the second game of a two-game series.

Blumenthal's fans Wednesday will be made up largely of the women of Midland, as the club has its second "Ladies Night" of the season.

The ladies will be admitted free by presenting a coupon from the sports page of the Reporter-Telegram to the gate keeper. The coupon appeared in the Sunday, Monday and Tuesday editions of the Reporter-Telegram. The Reporter-Telegram will pick up the tax check for the affair.

Standard Gets Even With Win

Milt Montgomery's three-hit pitching earned Standard of Texas a 9-3 decision over Western Plastic Company Tuesday night, and evened the playoff series for the City Major Softball title at one game each.

All three Plastic runs were scored on errors, as Montgomery had the highly-touted Plastics on his hip. Sellie, Standard first baseman, helped the Standard cause with a home run in the fifth inning. His four-ply blow came with the bases unoccupied. Hal Sherrod paced the winners with three hits in four attempts, while Tommy Flournoy's two hits in four trips was tops for Plastic.

The Standard nine jumped on Phil Brock, loser, for three runs in the first inning and three in the second. That was enough, the way Montgomery was pitching, but Standard added three additional runs to its margin before it finally called it quits.

Play Again Wednesday
At 8:15 p. m. Wednesday, the third game of the series will be played at Wadley Park, under supervision of the Midland JayCees. Jack Dunlap will pitch for Western Plastic, with Chester Campbell on the hill for Standard of Texas.

The series will run through Friday if necessary. The title playoff is a best three-of-five games affair. The score:

Standard 330 021-9 9 5
Plastic 011 010-3 3 3
Montgomery and Davis, Brock and Simpson.

Midland Boys To Enter State JayCee Golf Tournament

Five Midland youngsters will represent the Midland Junior Chamber of Commerce in the state JayCee Golf Tournament to be played at San Angelo Thursday and Friday, JayCee Athletic Director Chuck Heringer said Wednesday.

Roane Puett, Teddy Kerr, Raymond Leggett, Doyle Patton and Marcelino Moreno will enter the 36-hole meet.

Winner of the San Angelo meet will receive an expense-paid trip to Durham, N. C., for the National JayCee Tournament to be unrec'd August 13 through 18.

Heringer said the Midland boys would have their expenses paid by the Midland JayCees.

Stallcup Works His Way To Base

CINCINNATI —(NEA)— Although myriad stories have been written about baseball players who get the most bases on balls, seldom, if ever, is anything said about those who earn their way to first every time.

In five seasons in the National League, Virgil Stallcup of the Reds was given a free ticket 47 times—twice by being hit. During his club's first 65 games this season, he was walked once in 185 trips to the plate. Last year, he drew 17; in 1949, only nine. In 1948, he was put on 18 times, in 1947, not at all.

Crane, McCamey Meet For League Honors

McCAMEY—Crane's Gulf Oilers come here Wednesday night for the first game of a final playoff series for Permian Basin Softball League honors.

The second game of the series will be played in Crane Thursday.

Home Mortgage Debt Hits All-Time High

WASHINGTON —(AP)— The outstanding home mortgage debt in the nation reached $46,900,000,000 at the end of last year after an unbroken rise since 1944, the Home Loan Bank Board said Wednesday.

Texas League— Buffs Lick Eagles To Go 10 Games Up In Loop Flag Chase

By The Associated Press

The Houston Buffs, studded with stars and known in these parts as the "Little Cardinals," are about to make a run away of the Texas League pennant race. The Buffs took their second game in a row from the Dallas Eagles Tuesday night to build their first place lead to 10 games.

The Buffs trimmed Dallas, 4-2, to knock the once high and mighty Eagles into a three-way tie for second place. On July 1 the Eagles were battling the Buffs for the lead with the two clubs tied, but not any more.

While the Eagles were losing to Houston, the San Antonio Missions trimmed Fort Worth, 4-2, and Beaumont blanked Tulsa, 6-0, to move into a tie with Dallas.

Shreveport made it two in a row over Oklahoma City with a 9-6 win in the other game.

Hayes Shelled
Tom Gorman gave up nine hits but was tough with men on the paths as he pitched Beaumont to its shutout over Tulsa. It was Tulsa's seventh loss in a row and was the sixth straight win for Gorman.

The Fort Worth Cats were charged with four errors as their defense fell apart and San Antonio was quick to take advantage of the lapse. Although led to four hits and out-hit by the Cats, the Missions led all the way.

Shreveport shelled Al Gerhauser and Leon Hayes for eight straight hits in the first inning to count seven runs. They scored two more in the fourth then stood off threats by the Indians in the late innings.

Ole Satchel Paige Says He's 'Ready For 'Em' Now

ST. LOUIS —(AP)— "They come tougher in the American League than where I've been this year, but I think I'm ready for them."

That was Leroy (Satchel) Paige talking as he prepared for his first starting assignment with the St. Louis Browns.

"I've been here before and I think I can handle them," the negro right-hander added.

Paige will face the Washington Senators Wednesday night with Bob Porterfield his probable opponent.

The veteran hurler signed his contract Tuesday with Brownie Owner Bill Veeck looking on. It was Veeck who brought Paige into the majors with the Cleveland Indians in 1948.

Paige said he expects to stay in the game as long as he can. Most predictions are that he will stay about four innings, then be lifted for a relief hurler.

That's what he has been doing with the Chicago Giants, a negro professional team. Using that system, Paige pitched every two or three days.

In 1948 Paige was second in the league with an earned run average walked 25 men and struck out 45 walked 25 men and struck out 45 in 73 innings.

A year after his ERA jumped to 3.04—eighth in the league—and he turned in four victories against seven losses. In 83 frames he walked 33 and fanned 54.

Need Crowd Puller
Veeck hoped Satch will do as well with the Browns. And he also hopes Paige will be a crowd puller. The Browns need both spectators and

DOTS AND DASHES—Zeke Borura now is general manager as well as field manager of the Indians. He replaces Tex Carleton, who served as temporary general manager for awhile. Eddie Melillo was very sharp at third base Tuesday night. We think Eddie performs better at the hot corner than at any other position. Hayden White is two doubles ahead of Kenny Jones in their race now. White has 29, Jones 27. Bill Crumley, of Tribe's new second sacker, gave a performance the fans liked in his first appearance here Tuesday night. And so did Ernie Nelson. Just before Ernie took the mound, Charlie Cummings played "Old Soldiers Never Die" over the public address system. One wag said it was for Nelson. But he didn't fade away. Notice the similarity of the delivery of Little League Bennie Sanchez and the Indians' Eddie Jacobs? And Larry Cooper has a cross-fire pitch like Bill Reed's. Jacobs umpired the Little League contest Tuesday night. He was in for a lot of good-natured kidding from the fans, who called him "Sykes." And that's the height of something-or-other in Indian Park. Little Wayne Kiser tossed his bat away in disgust after striking out in the LL game. Yes, Jim Owen, the six-foot tall youngster who was in the game for the Yankees-Eagles-Cards is only 12 years old. Wonder if Hank Iba, the Oklahoma A&M basketball coach, has heard about him yet? Washington Redskins to open grid training camp Thursday. Don Sunderlage, the Illinois basketball star, now is a second loopy at Reese Air Base, Lubbock. Frank Leahy singing the blues again, saying his Notre Dame team will "lose seven games." That's his annual cry though, and his ex-star quarterback, Johnny Lujack, says he looks for the Irish to be "mighty good." No announcements yet on the starting lineups for the Longhorn League all-star game to be played in Roswell Thursday. In a recent game here when the Midland Black Indians defeated the Lubbock Indians, they performed a triple play. It went from Williams to Grant to Harrison to Phillips. That's pitcher to home to first to third. End of the Row for now.

Conrad Medalists In Junior Tourney

SAN ANTONIO, JULY 18—(AP)— Red-Headed Joe Conrad of San Antonio, a package of golfing dynamite, fired a 7-under-par 64 to win medalist honors Tuesday in the state junior golf tournament.

Conrad, current Texas amateur champion, sliced three strokes off par on the front nine and was four under on the back side. The tourney is being played over the par-72 Brackenridge Park Course.

Floyd Addington, who finished earlier in the day, looked like the sure medalist when he posted 5-under-par 66. Then Conrad began taking the course apart.

Five others posted sub-par scores Tuesday. John "Buddy" Weaver of Houston and Ray Moore of Beaumont scored 68's. Sammy Reynolds of Wichita Falls, Elwyn Stobaugh of New Braunfels and Ken Burnette of San Antonio all shot 70's. Match play started Wednesday.

UNDERGOES SURGERY
J. S. Gaines, 2505 West Outhbert Street, underwent surgery Tuesday at Western Clinic-Hospital.

Are you sufficiently protected with insurance on your home and furniture. Valuations have increased so rapidly—perhaps since your present policy was written. The extra cost is so small compared with a loss you may have by fire. Re-check your policies today and if not fully protected, call us immediately.

Rules Panel Clears Tideland Measure For House Action

WASHINGTON—The House hasn't set time for debate, but the Rules Committee has cleared for floor action a bill giving clear title to lands under marginal seas. The committee acted Tuesday on the controversial Tideland measure.

Several states, especially Texas, California and Louisiana, have disputed with the federal government several years over ownership and control of oil and minerals under the submerged lands off the coast. Since a Supreme Court ruling the states have concentrated their campaign for clear title in Congress. The court ruling said the federal government owns land seaward of the ordinary low-water mark and outside inland waters.

If You Want To Lose Weight Don't Talk—Be Conscientious

The first step in reducing is to want to lose weight—not just as a subject of conversation at the bridge table while munching cookies or chocolates—but a real wish to achieve a normal size and shape. This genuine desire is what most often is lacking; witness the constant search for an easy, quick way to get it all over with. What usually happens is that a fat person suddenly decides to do something about it: starts doing rolls on the floor, goes to a massage parlor, sweats several times in a Turkish bath, or takes some diet for a couple of weeks.

He or she then hopes to forget the whole matter and go on eating as before. No, to do the job requires intention, will power, stick-to-it-iveness and knowledge of how to go about it and how much weight to lose.

The problem of reducing is really simple. Food supplies the fuel which the body burns. One either can burn more food or put in less; the latter is much more practical. If less food is taken in than the body uses up in energy, the body will start burning the fat and it will begin to disappear.

But, someone says, "how about thyroid and other drugs? Can't we use these and burn off the fat without bothering to eat less?" Rarely or never will this do the trick.

Drugs Dangerous
Perhaps the most promising exception is amphetamine (benzedrine) in various forms. And this apparently does not burn calories faster but merely acts by reducing the appetite. Furthermore the usefulness and dangers of drugs of this group still have not been finally estimated.

Far and away the best method of losing weight is to have the ideal weight calculated, the energy output measured and then start in with a definite diet of so many calories which are less than the daily output.

If such a diet really is followed consistently (that is without cheating) it will result in whatever loss of weight is desired.

Old, Sick Man Gets Wish—Term In Jail

MIAMI, FLA.—Fred P. Roberts got his wish—he is going to prison. Roberts, 64, was sentenced Tuesday to two years in state prison by Criminal Court Judge Ben C. Willard on a charge of embezzlement. He was accused of accepting $500 from a building supply company for rock lath that never was delivered. Roberts, who has a long record of arrests, recently told the Dade County solicitor's office he wanted to go back to jail. "I want to die in jail," he said, "away from a world that has speeded up too fast for an old, sick man."
