Snowden, Barnhart Each Final Wildcat In Spraberry Sand

James H. Snowden and Associates and Paul F. Barnhart each have completed a wildcat from the Spraberry to extend the trend to the east.

Barnhart No. 1-10 J. O. Bigby, four and one-half miles east and slightly south of El Capitan Oil Company No. 1 Whitehouse, recently completed Spraberry discovery in Southwest Glasscock County, has been completed for a daily flowing potential of 406 barrels of 36.9-gravity oil and no water.

Open Hole
It was finished from open hole section at 6,710-6,908 feet after the interval had been treated with 4,500 gallons of Hydratrac.

Gas-oil ratio was 780-1 and tubing pressure was 180 pounds. The potential was gauged on a full 24-hour test through a 24/64-inch tubing choke.

Location is 660 feet from north and east lines of the northwest quarter of section 10, block 36, T-3-S, T&P survey and 22 miles southwest of Garden City.

James H. Snowden and Associates No. 1-37 Oldney, six miles south and slightly east of Barnhart No. 1 Bigby and in Northwest Reagan County, was finished for a daily flowing potential of 225.48 barrels of 37.3-gravity oil and no water on a one-half-inch choke.

Completion was from open hole at 6,431-6,495 feet. The sand was topped at 6,447 feet. Gas-oil ratio was 481-1.

Pressure on tubing during the completion test was 50 pounds. Open hole section had been given a Hydratrac treatment.

No. 1 Oldney is nine miles east of the closest producer from the Spraberry to the west. Exact location is at the center of the southwest quarter of section 37, block 36, T-3-S, T&P survey.

Spraberry Trend In Upton County Is Extended West

Spraberry trend production has been extended three and one-half miles to the west in East-Central Upton County with the completion of Soligo Petroleum Company No. 1 A. P. Hill.

The new discovery was finished for a calculated daily flowing potential of 694 barrels of oil and no water from perforations, opposite the Spraberry, at 7,945-7,110 feet.

The potential was based on an actual six hour flow of 171 barrels of oil through a one-half-inch tubing choke. Tubing pressure was 360 pounds.

The perforations were washed with 1,500 gallons of Hydratrac.

Ellenburger Falls
No. 1 Hill was plugged back to 7,110 feet for completion in the Spraberry after failing to find production below that depth in going to 12,478 feet in the Ellenburger.

The new discovery is three and one-half miles west of the closest completed producer in the Permian Basin and 600 feet from north and west lines of section 2, block K, D&SE survey and 18 miles north and a little east of the town of Rankin.

Gulf Plains Stakes 6,000-Foot Wildcat In C-E King Area

Gulf Plains Corporation of Corpus Christi staked location for a rank wildcat in Central-East King County, 15 miles northeast of Guthrie.

It will be drilled as the No. 1 Masterson Ranch, 330 feet from south and east lines of section 6, block A, R. M. Thompson survey.

It will operate under permit to 6,000 feet.

Drillsite is seven miles north of the Ross Ranch-Pennsylvania field which produces above 5,000 feet.

Large Sum Paid For Interest In Oil Wells In Midland County

G. E. (Blondy) Hall of Midland is reported by unofficial sources to have sold his working interest under 200 acres of leases in the Sweetie Peck multiphase field of Southwest Midland County for $1,000,000.

Hall is unavailable for confirmation of the report. However, it comes from sources which are supposed to be informed and which are generally reliable. Identity of the buyer has not been disclosed.

Nine Wells Involved
Included in the transaction was Hall's interest in nine producing oil wells in the Sweetie Peck field. (Continued on Page Twelve)

Ridgway Prepares Reply To Reds

'HONEYMOON' ENDS—Held by the FBI in Los Angeles on suspicion of embezzling money from the employe credit union at Wright-Patterson Air Force Base, Dayton, Ohio, is Mrs. Bernice S. Emerick, 49, above. Under the name of Cynthia Shaw, Mrs. Emerick reportedly wed Dell Lyman, Manhattan Beach, Calif., businessman and city councilman, following their meeting in a Las Vegas, Nev., bar about two weeks ago. Legal husband of the gay grandmother is Ariens E. Emerick, a Dayton barber.

TOKYO —(P)— Word from Gen. Matthew B. Ridgway that the stalled Korean armistice talks will be resumed was expected at any time Monday. Wednesday appeared the earliest likely date the Allied negotiators could meet the Reds again at Kaesong.

Vice-Adm. C. Turner Joy and three other members of the five-man United Nations delegation flew to Tokyo late Monday and conferred privately with Ridgway.

An aide said later Ridgway was preparing a reply to the Communist apology for presence of armed troops in Kaesong Saturday.

Joy was at his home in Tokyo early Monday, so any resumption of the Kaesong meetings before Wednesday, seemed only dimly possible.

The supreme commander called off the talks Sunday morning. He charged the Reds with "flagrant violation" of Kaesong's neutrality. Assurances Demanded.

In breaking off the talks Sunday morning, Ridgway demanded assurances that armed Red troops would not again violate Kaesong's neutrality.

About 150 Chinese soldiers marched within a few hundred yards of the UN staff house during the luncheon recess Saturday. They carried rifles, machine guns and hand grenades.

The Reds apologized over Patping Radio Monday, and asked that talks be resumed immediately. They said it was an "accident," and that steps were being taken to insure the incident wouldn't be repeated.

They also replied directly to Ridgway.

Senior Zone Problem
If the talks resume Tuesday, the "Senior and Junior" again will need to grips on the problem of a cease-fire buffer zone.

The UN wants it "in effect the line now generally held by the UN forces," much of which is in North Korea.

Military Budget Okayed

WASHINGTON —(P)— A record $56,062,405,890 peacetime military budget was approved Monday by the House Appropriations Committee.

It is $1,542,608,500 less than the President requested and does not include $4,500,000,000 for public works construction to be considered later this year. Neither does it include financing of fighting in Korea since June 30, the bill for that to be footed in a later measure.

With that one exception, the present measure is to finance the Defense Department for the fiscal year ending next June 30.

Accompanying the big money bill to the House for debate starting Wednesday was a statement by Rep. Mahon (D-Texas). It sharply rebuked the military for wasteful manpower and procurement practices. Mahon is chairman of a subcommittee that wrote the bill after several months of hearings.

For Military Hardware
More than half the bill's total is for buying military "hardware"—tanks, planes, guns, rockets, weapons and other supplies for a military manpower force of 3,800,000.

About $15,000,000,000 is for aircraft and component parts to give this country what the committee called "the most powerful striking force ever placed in the hands of any nation."

Midland Is Stamped As Superior Market

(Special to The Reporter-Telegram)
NEW YORK —(P)— Midland residents earning more money and spending more freely than in the average community in the nation, the city is stamped as a richer market, with a higher standard of living than most. The figures are contained in Sales Management's copyrighted buying power survey of the United States and Canada.

Midland's 7,100 families recorded net earnings in 1950, after deduction of income taxes, of $33,766,000. On a per-family basis, dividing income by number of families, the average locally was $4,756. This was considerably more than earnings generally in the United States, $4,521 per family. It was more, also, than was earned in the West South Central States, $3,784 per family, and than the Texas average of $4,277 per family.

The figures are mathematical averages, notes Sales Management, and are somewhat higher than the median figures to be produced later from the census.

Just how good a year it was is indicated by the fact that Midland should have accounted for only 0.146 per cent of the nation's income to meet its quota, on the basis of population, but actually turned in 0.169 per cent.

Larger Buying Power
The larger buying power was reflected in the amount of business done in the local retail stores. Cash registers in Midland stores rang to the tune of $30,281,000 in the year.

This rate of spending, $4,270 per family, was greater than elsewhere in the country, where the average was $3,777 per family. In the West South Central States it was $2,910 and in Texas, $3,270 per family.

The rating of a market depends on various considerations, including the number of people there, the amount they spend and the amount they might have spent. Such factors were taken into account in arriving at a "quality of market" index for Midland. The city is rated in the survey at 128 on such a basis, or 23 per cent better than the national average.

Midland's August Dollar Day Attracts Near-Record Crowds

Shoppers from Midland and other Permian Basin Empire cities were on the streets Monday, taking full advantage of the hundreds of dollar-saving specials offered by Midland merchants in this city's August Dollar Day.

The weather was warm, but so were the merchandise specials, and shoppers apparently were unmindful of the temperature as they shopped the Midland stores. And the package-laden customers seen on the sidewalks indicated merchandise buying was progressing at a rapid clip.

Back-to-school and end-of-season specials were featured in most retail stores of the city.

The crowds in the downtown section were unusually heavy and street and sidewalk traffic was congested during the morning hours.

Observers, predicting near-record sales for the day, said it was one of the best-attended Summer Dollar Days ever held here.

Baldwin, Editor Of Waco Papers, Dies

WACO —(P)— Frank Baldwin, 58, editor of the Waco News-Tribune and Times-Herald, died at 10:30 a. m. (CST) Monday after suffering a stroke.

Baldwin was a former Texas legislator.

Except for a break in the middle 1920's, Baldwin spent most of his Texas newspaper career in Waco. At one time he worked for the Texas Power and Light Company. He also worked in the Dallas Bureau of the Associated Press for a short time.

LATE NEWS FLASHES

WEST POINT, N. Y. —(P)— Earl (Red) Blaik, head football coach at the U. S. Military Academy, said Monday he would welcome a congressional investigation of the recent cadet dismissals.

WASHINGTON —(P)— The House passed a bill Monday authorizing Texas and Louisiana to negotiate a compact providing for equitable apportionment of waters of the Sabine River. The stream is part of the boundary between the two states.

SEATTLE —(P)— Navy district headquarters announced the crash Monday of a Navy patrol bomber into Puget Sound with nine men aboard. All were believed lost.

NO SYMPATHY FOR 'CRIBBERS'—West Point Cadet Capt. William Geatches, of Linton, Ind., tells reporters he and his comrades feel no sympathy for the 90 cadets expelled for cheating on exams. Typical of sentiment heard at the academy was, "They violated our honor code, so I am glad to see them go." Cadet Geatches declared that disclosure of the code violations was not a sign of weakness in the Academy's powerful honor code, but an indication of its strength.

WASHINGTON —(P)— The federal government moved Monday against the bank accounts of tax-rebelling Marshall wives and found several had withdrawn their money.

Two Internal Revenue Bureau agents reached the Marshall National Bank with federal seizure warrants, and orders that accounts of the wives and their husbands be made available for inspection.

Boyle Says He'll Retain Demo Post

WASHINGTON —(P)— William M. Boyle, Jr., conferred with President Truman Monday and said afterward he has no intention of resigning as chairman of the Democratic National Committee.

Boyle asserted: "I have always conducted myself honorably."

Boyle's name has been brought into published accounts of a $350,000 government loan to a St. Louis printing firm. The St. Louis Post-Dispatch said the loan was turned down three times but was granted after the firm retained Boyle.

Boyle has denied he had any connection with the loan, but there have been demands in Congress for an investigation of it.

Senator Resignation
Senator Byrd (D-Va.) has declared that if Boyle used his influence to get the loan for the firm, then Boyle should be fired, then Boyle should resign from his party post.

Boyle spent 30 minutes with Truman, his first call at the White House since the Post-Dispatch published his stories that he received fees from the American Lithoid Corporation, the RFC borrower.

Boyle said he had discussed the matter with Truman.

As to what he intends to do, Boyle said:

"I was elected by the Democratic Party to serve until after the Democratic Convention.

"My intention is to serve out my full term, which lasts until the convention in July, 1952."

Byrd said he was drafting a bill to bar any officer or employe of a national political committee from appearing before or attempting to influence the decisions of any federal agency.

Boyle denied he helped American Lithoid get the RFC loan, He asserted:

"I had nothing to do with the preparation of the application. I had nothing to do with the presentation of the case. I never discussed the loan with anyone in the RFC. In short I had nothing to do with the granting of the loan."

One Dead, Three Hurt In Collision

A 25-year-old Midland woman was killed and three other persons injured, two seriously, in a two-car crash half a mile beyond the north city limits at 8:15 p. m. Sunday.

Dead is Mrs. Thomas Taylor Hart of Route 2. Her five-year-old son, Tommie, suffered severe burns over most of his body from battery acid splashed on him in the wreck.

Roy Maxey, 36, of Tarzan also was severely hurt with head injuries.

Mrs. Hart's husband, about 26, received scalp and face lacerations.

All the injured were taken to Western Clinic-Hospital, Maxey and Tommie Hart were reported, improved to a "fair but still serious," condition Monday morning by hospital officials.

To Be Released
Maxey remained in a semi-conscious state. Tommie Hart received second degree burns on his body, legs and arms. His father was to be released from the hospital Monday.

Mrs. Hart's mother, Mrs. L. C. Hicks, 48, of 1301 East Golf Course Road, suffered a heart seizure when she was notified of her daughter's death at 11 p. m. Sunday. She was taken to Western Clinic-Hospital for treatment and was to be dismissed Monday.

Wallace Hawkins, Oil Executive, Is Shot To Death By Son, 16

DALLAS —(P)— A slender, teenage youth told police he shot his wealthy father to death Sunday because, "He kept after me for staying out late at night."

Slain was Wallace E. Hawkins, 66, vice president and general counsel of the Magnolia Petroleum Company. Detective Capt. Will Fritz

They then handed over copies of federal seizure warrants requiring Young to write checks for the exact amount of Social Security taxes and penalties due the government April 30.

Young produced the accounts. The Treasury agents raised their eyebrows, but said nothing, when it became apparent seven women and their husbands had withdrawn their deposits.

Young checked he would write the requested checks against other accounts. The Treasury agents said they would follow the same procedure later at Marshall's other bank, the First National.

Carolyn Abney, spokesman for the rebellious wives, said:

"The women are now acting individually and they are all now consulting their individual attorneys. They petitioned their government in an orderly manner and asked a hearing. An answer to an American (Continued on Page Twelve)

Stalin's Mustache Causes Boycott

NEW YORK —(P)— A short briefing on cold-war subtleties and a second look at a picture Monday convinced stevedores it would be patriotic to work on a Yugoslav ship, after all.

What really changed the minds of the dock hands is Joe Stalin's mustache.

The problem arose Sunday when a 35-man crew of the AFL International Longshoremen's Union balked at having anything to do with the new, 9,240-ton Yugoslav ship, Crna Gora.

They said they saw pictures of Stalin and Soviet insignia aboard the ship.

They also claimed they had learned the ship was going to take aboard a cargo of munitions for Russia.

But the crew, a bit embarrassed about the whole thing, agreed to end their boycott after Army and other officials explained to them the picture of the clean-shaven generalissimo aboard the ship is Yugoslavia's Marshal Tito, and not Russia's bearded Stalin.

Odessa Man Is Found Shot To Death After Wounding His Son

ODESSA — A 68-year-old Odessa man was found shot to death here Sunday afternoon a short time after wounding his 33-year-old son with a blast from a 16-gauge shotgun.

Justice of the Peace Thomas D. Murphy ruled the dead man, Martin William Quain, had taken his own life after wounding his son in a leg.

The son, Joe Quain, said his father had been drinking for several hours prior to the shooting. He said he had made several trips from the apartment to buy beer and on his return from the last one, found the door shut.

He forced the door open, after his father ordered him not to come in, and was met by the blast from the shotgun.

He said he fled the house and collapsed. Sheriff Ernest Broughton and Constable George Carney, who arrived a short time later, ordered the father to come outside. They said the man fired one ineffective shot at them and then apparently turned the gun on himself. He was found a few minutes later sprawled on the floor, a shotgun wound in his chest.

WEST POINT, N. Y. —(P)— Mothers and fathers of cadets facing dismissal from the U. S. Military Academy for violating the school's honor code said Monday they would appeal to Congress for support of the youths' position.

"I think the Army is to be congratulated for stepping in and cleaning up their own house, and there is no need for a congressional investigation," Johnson, a former chairman of the Senate Military Affairs Committee, told a reporter.

Johnson said it costs an average of more than $30,000 for each young man appointed to West Point.

JACOBY ON BRIDGE

By OSWALD JACOBY
Written for NEA Service
"A big dispute about penalty doubles has split our bridge club right down the middle," relates a Pittsburgh correspondent. "One group says that a penalty double is not to be monkeyed with. You double when you can surely beat the contract, and a partner who takes out your penalty double is one degree lower in the social scale than a horse thief."
"The other group says that most penalty doubles are merely bids. Like other bids, they are offered

25 Persons Are Dead As Result Of Texas' Weekend Violence

By The Associated Press
Hot weather, hot tempers and traffic accidents took the greatest toll of deaths in Texas during a weekend in which 18 persons were killed.
Six persons died of heat prostration. Eight others were shot to death during the weekend. Traffic, usually the deadliest killer, caused seven reported deaths. Four died of other causes.
Nathan Young, 45, Joe Willis, 45, and Leon Bennett, 26, died in the 106-degree heat in Dallas Sunday. Sam Willis Smith, 79, of Austin, was stricken by the heat Sunday as he was driving home from a visit with a daughter in Temple.
Die Of Injuries
Mrs. Anna Musgrove, 78, and her daughter, Mrs. Viola Wheeler, about 50, both of Austin, died after being hit by an automobile at a street intersection.
Wallace E. Hawkins, 58, vice president and general counsel of the Magnolia Petroleum Company, was shot to death in Dallas Sunday. John Michael Hawkins, 16, told police he killed his father.
The proprietor of a drive-in cafe in San Antonio, Robert H. Kube, 46, was shot to death by one of his employees. Justice Otto Markwardt said Emmett F. Church of Schertz shot Kube and took his own life.
Mrs. Thomas Hart of Midland was killed in an auto collision there Sunday night.
At Houston two cousins were shot to death Sunday. David Strong Reynolds, 17, was found shot four times. His cousin, Don Lewis Daughtry, 23, was found in the yard of their home, shot once.
WAC Pvt. Georgia M. Miller was killed in an automobile crash Sunday near Bandera.
Hobbs Woman Dies
Mrs. M. K. Watkins, 45, of Hobbs, N. M., died Sunday at Corsicana of injuries suffered in a two-car collision near a streetman Saturday night.
Charles R. Osborn, 51, of Dallas died Sunday of auto injuries.
Jo Manning of Frio was shot to death at Dallas Saturday. Police are searching for his slayer.
Owen Nelson (Slim) Hayes, 34, former convict, was found shot to death Saturday in a Dallas tourist court.
Sgt. Leo Szaskewycz, 21, of Auburn, N. Y., was killed Saturday when his automobile crashed seven miles east of Killen.
William Speight, 17, was electrocuted Saturday by a high voltage wire at the ice cream plant in Weatherford.
Mrs. George F. Huffman, 50, of near Tyler, was found dead Sunday in her car in a garage. A garden hose had been taped to the exhaust pipe and run through a window.
Charles Leake, 51, negro, of Athens was shot to death at Henderson after an argument over an auto collision. Another negro was held.

without absolute assurance and may be taken out fearlessly even by respectable maiden ladies.
"The argument started as a result of this hand. Nothing very terrible happened on the hand, as you will note, but the argument is fierce just the same.
"South was set two tricks at two spades. West opened the king of hearts, shifted to a spade, and got a heart return. West continued hearts, and East discarded a club on the fourth round. This limited South to two club tricks and four trump tricks.
"Nobody had any complaint about the play of the cards or about South's third-hand opening bid of one spade. The argument was about North's double of two diamonds and South's run out to two spades.
"Should North double two diamonds? If not, why not? If he does double, should South accept 1 or run out to two spades?
"No expert would double two diamonds. Such a double warns the enemy to find a better spot. If they do so, the North hand is worthless both offensively and defensively. For example, if West runs to two hearts, he will make it. Even if West stays at two diamonds, he will probably be set only one trick.
"If North does double, South's correct course depends on what he thinks of North's game. If North is a good player, South should unhesitatingly bid two spades. If North is a poor enough player to double on a hand that's worthless except against diamonds, South may pass. Even so he might be forgiven for bidding two spades.
The subject of penalty doubles cannot be cleared up in a single day, so I intend to continue the discussion in other articles this week.

Church Water Bill Pleasant Surprise

Water bills can be surprising—both ways.
Gene Nearburg, chairman of the Board of Stewards of St. Mark's Methodist Church, was late for a meeting Sunday night. When he arrived, he asked to be briefed on the meeting in which his fellow stewards had approved routine accounts.
"Well, we got our water bill," said Pat Patterson, board secretary.
"How much was it," Nearburg asked eagerly?
"It was two and a quarter," Patterson said.
"What!" exclaimed the chairman. You mean we got a water bill for $225?
Board members roared with laughter.
The bill was for $2.25.

Daredevil Killed In Niagara Plunge

NIAGARA FALLS, ONT.—(AP)—William "Red" Hill pressed his luck too far and lost his life trying to go over Niagara Falls in a home-made rubber barrel.
But already his younger brother, Lloyd, is preparing to try the same daredevil feat—in a steel barrel. Lloyd said he'd probably make his attempt next Sunday.
The 38-year-old "Red" had teased fate for years on the treacherous rapids of the Niagara River.
His ambition was to become the fourth person to go over the falls and live.
But Sunday with 200,000 spectators lining the river banks, his rubber barrel failed him and he was swept to death over the 165-foot Canadian Horseshoe Falls.
He was the third person to die in the attempt.
Searchers found Hill's body in the lower river basin, at the Maid of the Mist Company's Canadian dock.

Ezell Receives Insurance Honor

NEW YORK, N. Y.—Herschel F. Ezell, of Midland, Texas, a representative of the New York Life Insurance Company, has been named a member of the 1961 Nylc Top Club Council. It was announced Monday by Dudley Dowell, vice president in charge of agency affairs of the company.
The Nylc Top Club Council includes about 350 of the foremost members of the New York Life field force of 5,000 agents from throughout the United States and Canada. Ezell has been invited to attend an educational conference of the Top Club Council August 13-17 at The Greenbrier, White Sulphur Springs, W. Va., at which home office staff members and leading agents will speak on current developments in the life insurance business.
REGENT VISITS HERE
C. W. Voyles, Austin oil man and rancher and member of the University of Texas Board of Regents, has been visiting for several days in Midland and other West Texas cities where he has business interests.

Jeanne Crain Is Excited Over Her New Adult Role

By ERSKINE JOHNSON
NEA Staff Correspondent
HOLLYWOOD — Behind the Screen: "I found out that I wasn't the only person bored with myself. Other people were bored, too."
Jeanne Crain being straightforward - the shoulder about the breathless fass in gingham and pigtail that she's been playing on the screen.
It's a new Jeanne with the snipped light brown hair in "People Will Talk" and the short tresses give her the look of a doll who can handle a movie wolf without yelping for mama.
"I did seven years of young-thing parts," Jeanne told me. "I was the only actress in Hollywood with a husband and babies who wasn't allowed to be mature on the screen."
"What broke my heart was doing 'Pinky' and then being sent back into the old groove."
She's a grown-up again in "The Marriage Broker" and anybody with any ideas of putting her into a jazzed-up version of "Pollyanna" is going to run into the Crain wrath.
"It's death for an actress to keep copying herself," Jeanne said, looking as wise as Greer Garson, Lana Turner and Ava Gardner. "You slip backwards."
Best TV Bound
George Brent joins the TV world rush with pick and shovel this Fall in a series of 39 one-half hour films based on "Raffles"—a character not unknown in flicker alley.
Large-screen movies for George, who's been reported retirement minded?
"I won't have much time for them with TV," he admitted on the set of "FBI Girl." "And I haven't been too busy about my film career. It's hard to get good material. In pictures today, it's 'Print it if they can see you and hear you. Ten years ago we took longer to make pictures, but it was worth it. The result was beautiful and it paid off at the box-office."
I asked George what he thought of the comeback of Bette Davis, his co-star in "Jezebel" and "Dark Victory."
"Snapped George: "It's not a question of a comeback for an actress of her caliber. The trouble in Hollywood is that you're prone to specialize in kids with dimples. Just because a person has had bad pictures doesn't mean that they're supposed to hang you out to dry and run you out of town."
It may be tough from now on for blondes who can clip on a black wig, glue fish-skin to their eyes and come out looking like Madame Butterfly.
Hollywood's latched onto the real McCoy in Shirley Yamaguchi, a bona-fide Nippon belle who co-stars with Don Taylor and Marie Windsor in "East is East." Shirley was introduced to Hollywood on a visit as the Japanese Bette Grable, but now she says: "Before I mostly make musical pictures. Now I am dramatic actress in Hollywood. Maybe now I go back to Japan as Japanese Bette Davis."

IN HOLLYWOOD

When Shirley first hit movie-town, one historian of the movie scene cabled to Japan to find out if Shirley was a genuine Miss Rice Cake, or just a beauty with slant eyes out to pull a hoax on filmdom.
"Oh, say," said Shirley. "It makes me very surprised. I am, of course, Japanese. All that embarrass me is people who write that I am number one movie star in Japan."
"I don't say I am biggest. I am one of five biggest, like Lana Turner and Betty Grable."
The Yamaguchi reaction to being the first Japanese star in Hollywood since Sessue Hayakawa:
"Makes me very happy."
Meet the doll who's never asked to shake a leg when Hollywood's looking frantically for a dancing cutie who won't tower over Gene Kelly or Fred Astaire: Adelle Mara, Mr. Dance Director. She can hoof with the best of them, but producers keep telling her to climb mountains or gallop into the sunset in action thrillers.
Wally Adelle:
"They forget that I'm a dancer. Nobody's ever said, 'Hey, wait a minute, let's give Adelle a chance.' Dancing on a trick MGM ceiling for her after some of the movie stunts she's done at Republic in movies like the current "The Sea Hornet," opposite Rod Cameron.

Denton Makes Plans For Second Annual 'Old Maids Day'

DENTON—August 15 has been set as the date for the second annual "Old Maids Day" in Denton.

The plans include a tea at the Denton Country Club, a theater party with special entertainment at the Campus Theater and gifts from local business men. The Fort Worth Cats will designate an "Old Maids Night" at which the unmarried girls will be special guests at the ball game.

National recognition was received last year through the press and radio when 300 old maids attended the first party.

Since the announcement of the date this year Dorothy Babb, member of the faculty at North Texas State College and originator of the idea, has received a letter from a spinster in Cleveland, Miss., saying she and several friends plan to attend this year's party. Mayor Mark Hannah has received a letter from Switzerland requesting the address of Miss Babb so that a gift can be sent to her this year.

Recognition, not men, is the purpose of the old maids at North Texas State College. Eligibility for membership in the club is just being an old maid. There is no restriction on age. All old maids are invited to attend "Old Maids Day" as guests of the city of Denton on August 15.

GFWC Schedules Fine Arts Festival

The General Federation of Women's Clubs will hold its Fine Arts Festival September 4, 5, 6 and 7 in Estes Park, Colo. Mrs. Joseph M. Perkins of Eastland will serve as chairman of the music division of the national federation's art department.

Mrs. Perkins, along with other chairmen within the art department, recently participated in a conference to complete plans for the general program.

The programs in each department will feature demonstrations, workshops and discussion groups. The Stanley Hotel, Estes Park, will be headquarters for the festival. Additional information may be obtained from Mrs. P. A. Pettit, GFWC Fine Arts chairman at 406 E. Kaskaskia in Paola, Kan.

TFWC Receives Third Place In Art Contest

A 13-pound record book of reports won third place for the Texas Federation of Women's Clubs in the American Art Week Observance contest conducted by the American Artists Professional League. Mrs. J. Howard Hodge of Midland is the TFWC president.

The prize "West Side Manhattan," a large oil painting by mural painter Nils Hogner, has been received by A. M. Carpenter of Abilene, TFWC art chairman. Following its formal presentation at the annual convention in November, the painting will be hung permanently in the state headquarters art gallery in Austin.

First and second places in the contest were won by the Louisiana Federation of Women's Clubs and the Massachusetts Federation, respectively. Wyoming and New Jersey were awarded fourth and fifth places and honorable mention were received by Florida, Oklahoma, Indiana and North Dakota. Record books were submitted by 42 states.

According to the judges' announcement, points upon which the awards were based included beauty of presentation, constructive ideas and originality, value to local visual arts, art activities throughout the state, initiative, intelligence of program and orderly classification of press clippings and other material in the record and album.

Miss Carpenter attributed much of the credit for the award to Mrs. Hodge and the eight district presidents and art chairmen.

District art chairmen are Mrs. M. R. Overman, Arlington, first district; Mrs. S. C. Howell, Dallas, second; Mrs. C. D. Kelley, Groesbeck, third; Kate Edmunds, Waco, fourth; Mrs. Chester Slump, San Antonio, fifth; Mrs. Verden Scott, San Saba, sixth; Mrs. F. M. Neal, Amarillo, seventh; and Mrs. Louise Pinkerton, Monahans, eighth.

Party Compliments Daniels, Roberts

ANDREWS—A farewell party and chicken barbecue was given recently for Mr. and Mrs. L. V. Daniels and Mr. and Mrs. Warren Roberts. Mr. and Mrs. C. V. Campbell of the Stanolind Camp were hosts.

Daniels and Roberts, both clerks in the Stanolind office, have been transferred to the Fort Worth and Oklahoma City offices respectively. The Daniels have lived in Andrews four years and the Roberts one year.

Approximately 75 guests attended. Out-of-city guests included Mr. and Mrs. John Fletcher, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Belean and Mr. and Mrs. George Wight of Midland.

Stearmans Chosen Best Matched Couple At Shamrock Hotel

Mr. and Mrs. Don W. Stearman, while vacationing in Houston and Galveston, were selected as the best matched couple at a recent celebration in the Emerald Room of the Shamrock Hotel.

The best matched couple, the best dressed woman and the most charming woman were selected by two French youths and Houston newspapermen.

Mr. and Mrs. Stearman are on their second honeymoon after Stearman returned from 11 months of combat duty in Korea with the First Marine Division. The couple had been married three months when he was recalled to active duty.

Stearman was with the First Division when it fought its way out of the mid-Winter Changjin Reservoir trap. Also a veteran of World War II, he saw combat on Okinawa and several other small Pacific islands and was stationed in North China to guard a strategic railroad from Chinese Communists.

Stearman is the son of Mr. and Mrs. E. Patton, 1508 North Big Spring, Street.

After leaving Houston and Galveston the vacationing couple will go to St. Louis, Chicago and Dewey Lake, Mich.

After the vacation they will return to Midland to make their home. Stearman will be an employee of the Standard Oil Company.

Girl Scout Day Campers Give Varied Program

"Camp Scout About," the annual Girl Scout Day Camp, closed Saturday with a full day of activity at Cole Park.

During the morning, the Girl Scouts and leaders evaluated the week's program, rehearsed for the closing program and elected a representative from each group to serve as a Junior Day Camp Committee for the year, 1951-52.

After the 110 Girl Scouts cooked their lunch and cleaned up the campsite, they entertained their parents and friends with a program. The program included songs and original skits showing the things they had learned of Girl Scouting in other lands.

Mrs. W. P. Crosby, camp director, introduced the unit leaders and the senior program aides.

A representative for the junior day camp committee presented $100 to Morris Howard, assistant city manager and park director, to help buy a sign for the entrance gate to Cole Park.

The Scouts explained that the money was saved from the camp budget by parents furnishing cars each morning to take the Scouts to the Park and back to town. It was a presentation from Midland Girl Scouts in appreciation for the use of the park for Day Camp.

Mrs. Crosby was presented a "Thank You" Badge, the highest award in Girl Scouting, for her contribution to the year's camp and her work as Volunteer Trainer for the Midland Girl Scout Council this year.

Talk Won't Stop Floods

All up and down the Missouri, which lived up to its name again and left its "Big Muddy" imprint on the cities and towns, the farms and industries of the river valley, the battle cry is "it will never happen again."

Currently, the Pick-Sloan Plan seems to have the approval of Congress. In the last six years, more than a billion dollars have been appropriated for this system, a 10-state inter-agency affair.

Thus far it is 25 per cent completed, but a lot of the rest of the plan has been passed by Congress for urgent defense work.

There is other criticism which embraces the whole idea of the Pick-Sloan Plan. Opponents claim it is a piecemeal program enmeshed in politics and conflicting local interests.

With this year's damage in Kansas and Missouri already estimated at almost a billion dollars, it would seem to be a time for action, rather than argument, for argument will not hold back the flood waters.

If the Missouri Valley people are determined "it will never happen again," the differences between the two plans must be resolved quickly to bring about measures that will work in the near future.

Then Congress must do its part in working out the necessary legislation, remembering that stemming the Big Muddy is urgent defense, too—against a billion dollar enemy.

Must Have Little To Do

What with the heat and all the grim headlines—to say nothing of the log jam of bills awaiting action in Congress—it's a little hard to figure what made the solons pick this time to investigate organized baseball.

Since the lawmakers have gotten themselves into such a jam of unfinished business that there's no chance to get out to the ball game, it could be that the congressmen figure they'll bring the ball game to Congress.

On the other hand, it's also probable that if they keep on investigating instead of legislating, a lot of congressmen are going to strike out.

Planning your future helps to keep you from regretting your past.

"B-B-Bon Voyage..."

The Washington Merry-Go-Round

Copyright, 1951, By The Bell Syndicate, Inc. Drew Pearson says: Communist medical units on Bulgarian-Yugoslav border inspire Marshall's war-warnings; Senator Hayden stymies crime probe; White House should live up to Army Secretary Pace's standards.

WASHINGTON—Reason behind the alarming war-warnings made by Secretary of Defense Marshall and Army Secretary Pace is the latest intelligence from the Balkans. This report, among other things, that Communist medical units have arrived along the Bulgarian-Yugoslav border.

Medical units do not participate in ordinary troop maneuvers. They are the last to arrive before military action begins.

Maneuvers along the Yugoslav border in themselves may not mean much. They have been going on for months, and when I visited the Bulgarian border last February, I interviewed refugees who had just escaped from behind the Iron Curtain with news of new Russian concentrations in certain areas.

However, latest U. S. intelligence indicates that this has increased. Bulgaria's army of around 200,000 men is now reported equipped with Soviet combat vehicles, heavy artillery, and new type fighter planes more powerful than the Yak. The Bulgarian army is under General Atanasov, a Soviet citizen trained in Russia, though of Bulgarian origin. His command post has been moved from Sofia to the field.

All along the Rumanian and Bulgarian sides of the Yugoslav border, a strip of land has been completely cleared and a siegried line of pillboxes built behind it.

This could be part of the war nerves against Tito, or it could mean that the Kremlin is ready to give Tito the business late August or September, after the harvest is in, always has been the time when dictators get trigger-happy.

Crime Probe Stymied. Senator Carl Hayden of Arizona, one of the most conscientious and respected members of the Senate has taken a strange stand regarding the crime committee. It puzzles his colleagues in the Senate.

As chairman of the powerful senate rules committee, Hayden has flatly refused to authorize more money to be spent on the crime probe. This has caused the crime committee, now chairmanned by conscientious Herbert O'Connor of Maryland, to withdraw its investigators from New York and other

Washington observers are wondering whether the White House is going to follow the excellent precedent set by the Secretary of the Army, Frank Pace, regarding gratuities.

Secretary Pace relieved Brig. Gen. David J. Crawford when he found that Crawford's overnight hotel suite was paid for by an Army contractor, also used Army trucks to haul shrubbery for his home. Pace's forthright action met approval everywhere.

Meanwhile, the President has at his right hand some gentlemen who also accepted favors. For instance: 1. His military aide, General Vaughan, accepted deep freezes from a company needing favors from the government.

WASHINGTON COLUMN

See Taft Speech As Tip GOP Will Make Yalta A '52 Issue

By PETER EDSON, NEA Washington Correspondent. WASHINGTON—Sen. Robert A. Taft of Ohio, in a Maryland Republican political rally speech the other day, again made the Yalta agreement of 1945 a target for attack.

So, if what happened at Yalta in 1945 is to be the pitch for an important Republican campaign issue in 1952, it behooves every studious voter and political wisecracker to get out his history books and start boning up on the subject.

A good occasion to do this may shortly be provided by release of a new report on Yalta, prepared by W. Averell Harriman. Harriman is President Truman's foreign policy adviser and was President Roosevelt's ambassador to Moscow.

Ambassador Harriman had originally been scheduled to testify on Yalta before the Senate investigation into the firing of General MacArthur. To shorten the hearings, it was decided not to call him as a witness. Instead, it was arranged that Sen. Brien McMahon of Connecticut would ask Harriman for a statement on Yalta.

The Harriman statement was completed before he went to Iran as President Truman's mediator in the Anglo-Iranian oil dispute. Following Senator McMahon's return from Europe, the Harriman report was turned over to him. No decision has yet been made on how it will be released. But when it does come out, the six-year-old agreement may again be dusted off as a fresh political issue. Who were the others at Yalta? Fleet Adm. William D. Leahy, President Roosevelt's chief military adviser, gives the list of principals in his book, "I Was There." Where are they now?

President Roosevelt, Secretary of State E. R. Stettinius, and Harry Hopkins are dead. James F. Byrnes is now governor of South Carolina. Alger Hiss is in jail.

Still in the State Department are H. Freeman Matthews, now deputy undersecretary in charge of political affairs, and Charles H. Bohlen, counselor. Both are career foreign service officers and generally admitted to be among the best men in government. But their roles at Yalta were minor, as was that of Hiss. Bohlen was Roosevelt's translator. Matthews and Hiss were secretary-advisers to Stettinius.

Admiral Leahy is retired and so is Fleet Adm. Ernest J. King, wartime chief of naval operations. Gen. George C. Marshall is Secretary of Defense.

Lt.-Gen. Brehon Somervell, Vice Adm. Emory S. Land, Vice Adm. C. M. Cooke, Jr., Maj.-Gen. J. R. Deane and Maj.-Gen. F. L. Anderson are all retired.

So, of the top 20 men at Yalta, the eight still in government are responsible and reliable men holding positions of great trust. The only person who has suggested that they all be fired because they were part of the "Yalta crowd" is Senator McCarthy.

Against the seven retired Army, Navy and Air Force general and flag officers there has never been the slightest suspicion of disloyalty. In fact, the best military brains that the United States possessed, then or now, seem to have been assembled at Yalta.

As the Joint Chiefs of Staff, they wanted Russia brought into the war against Japan. They believed that the only way Japan could be defeated was by invasion of the main islands. They thought this would be a bloody and costly operation, and they wanted all the Russian help they could get. Fleet Admiral Leahy alone, of all this group, is on record as having been opposed to bringing Russia into the Far East war. He was outvoted. And so the deal at Yalta was made.

MADE OTHER LANDINGS. Plymouth Rock was the third landing place of the Pilgrims. They first landed at Provincetown, then at Clark's Island, and finally at Plymouth.

"SHOTGUN" PILOTS. In the early days of World War I, when two enemy planes met, the pilots blazed away at each other with shotguns filled with bolts and scrap iron.

Henry VIII had two of his six queens beheaded. He died at 56 after a reign of 38 years.

The EMERALD CRESTED HOOPOE by Gordon MacCreagh. Illustration of a hoopoe bird.

ALAN BARTON had not thought he would stay in Saigon. He was on his way home from Singapore from where he had just shipped several tons of wild animals on the hoof. These had been trouble enough. Here Alan didn't like these barbed wire entanglements in the streets, still on the alert against another night raid of Ai-Quoks, slinking more murderously than the leopards he had shipped.

Alan was burned teal brown, he was sweated bound lean. He was tired and he wanted home. If there had to be murder, Alan thought it ought to be his decent, as least, as leopards did it.

Everybody in the world, it seemed, knew that Indo-China was the next hotbox trap that would spring southeast Asia open to the Communist wave that was as sure as the next high tide. They were waiting for it, all these underfed, animal-housed millions.

But, Alan wasn't going to wait for it. It was just that his Messageries Maritimes steamer had tied up at Quai Quatreme and so he was taking a ricksha to pop in and surprise his old friend Jimmy Draper, who was American Consul.

His ricksha dropped him off in the Rue Tabard opposite to the six block-square wall in park of the governor general's palace. Jimmy Draper pumped his hand and called him his old horse thief and how's the fat and lazy business.

Called of ketchumelative. And Alan called Jimmy you old bum and how's the back-breaking business of consulting an American business that isn't any more.

"Eh," said Jimmy, and he was quickly serious. "Only four Americans here and one of them killed off this morning." He clawed the air in impotent irritation. "Some coolies fished him out of the Arroyo Chinois and because he was American they brought him here. Knifed about two days ago. Looks too neat for a knife fight. You know about these things."

"Not about your Annamese; though they may be the same as Malay. But I'll look at him."

"The body lay on a string cot. I guessingly as the Consul had described it. Alan's nose wrinkled as he studied the exactly horizontal gash. He said only, "How did the coolies know he was American?"

"This isn't just somebody's peeve. Looks to me more like a Chinese hal-hueh, done slow to make him talk, and he wouldn't. What'd you know about him?"

"Nothing. He didn't bother to report in at this office. But I've got his gear and there's a scribbled sort of diary. Come, I'll show you."

"In his office the Consul shook off the unpleasant sight of the veranda. "Here, you ought to be able to tell me, you being a half-baked sort of a scientist. What's a deadly upupa?"

"You're thinking," Alan told him loftily, "of your eighth grade reader. It doesn't exist." Both men joked banally to shake off the impact of death.

"But," said Jimmy, "It's here in the guy's diary. Upupa epops smaragdensis, and he says it's a deadly bird."

"That doesn't exist either," Alan said. "It's extinct. It's the emerald crested hoopoe."

"This guy had some info that was worth killing him for, I wish you luck in your soft job, Jimmy."

The Consul walked his floor, kicking dusty little splinters from its matting. "Look, Alan. Birds aren't so far out of your line. I wish you'd take a run up there and snoop around under cover

What's a hoopoe?" "I should have said, fourth grade," said Alan. "It's Minerva's bird. She was hot and the hoopoe spread its wings over her to make shade, so she gave it the crested crown and made it sacred. The hoopoe winters around the Mediterranean and nests around the southeastern migratory flight lanes. Meaning here, it had Hindu legends amongst the old Indian cultures, too. If it hooped at the right time it meant good luck, at the wrong time it meant a king would die. There're three or four species but the emerald crested hasn't been reported in a hundred years. It's extinct."

"All that is a whole heap to know for sure," Jimmy said. "So let me tell you some more. This guy says—here I look—Upupa epops smaragdensis is to be found in Ual Prah Keo. That's the jungle district around Pnom Penh."

"The devil he says! That could be a scientific find!"

"The man seems to have been there quite recently."

"Whee-ee! Is he reliable? I mean, does he know what he's talking about?"

"I don't know any more than his name, Norman D. Willis; and his diary says, 'but this bird had better be left in peace, for it is deadly.'"

"Boloney! A hoopoe is the size of a thrush and it eats insects and fruits."

"So now the man found it and he's dead." The Consul's look was worried.

"Alan's elbow touched his side. "D'you know you're being watched?"

THE Consul peered trying various angles. "I haven't your jungle eyes. Don't see him."

"Alan made a quick stride to the wall, took the Consul's rifle off its rack, flung open the casement and aimed at the banyan trees.

A patch of green silk headress that looked like a leaf cluster ducked out of sight. Branches hurriedly rustled a quick stride to the wall.

"You wouldn't—" the Consul caught at Alan's arm. "The Consul Alan grinned at him. "No. But that ape didn't know. So that adds up to this guy had some info that you could collect. You could collect some extinct whatsis and teach 'em to hoop at the right time for luck or whatever. Peddle 'em right here to the government staff that sure needs it. Boy, you'd make a killing."

Both men grimaced at the inadvertent allusion. Alan tried to laugh it off. "You don't make killing attractive enough. This guy finds a bird and makes a crack it's deadly. Now he's dead. I don't get government insurance and pensions for sticking my neck into murders."

RICKSHA riding between rain showers to the steamer dock. Alan shut his eyes against the sun glare and the whole depressing scene. Therefore, he didn't see the accident until he was in it.

Rickshas coolies in all the world where there are rickshas have ever been careless of traffic rules. But here there was a conflict of ideologies. A "Smiler" adherent, a Ho-Chi, and a "Guardian," a Bao, each thought maliciously to scratch a little point off the other's vehicle. So wheels locked at top ricksha speed—15 miles in the springs—and one spidery wheel came off. Then there was Alan's white suit in the rainy season mire and on top of him some sort of a woman's white dress, and arms and legs and much yelling. Alan shoved the woman off his face and lifted her out of the splinters.

"Why didn't you 'tidy' your foot!" she said in English. As Alan gaped, she snapped: "I mean stop your coolie when you saw he was deliberately heading for us!"

Alan grinned at her with dawning appreciation. She wasn't a woman, he made a distinction—she was a girl. She had a smear of dirt over her one eye and the other was blue and there were freckles on a short nose and she was very mad.

Court's Power In U. S., State Fusses Would Be Limited

SEATTLE, WASH. —(AP)— A constitutional amendment limiting the power of the U. S. Supreme Court in deciding disputes between states and the federal government such as Tidelands dispute—was urged Monday by the president of the National Association of Attorneys General.

Harry McMullan, North Carolina attorney general and retiring president of the association, said without such an amendment the federal courts may "completely destroy the sovereignties of the several states."

In an address to the association's convention, McMullan referred to suits between the federal government and Texas, California, and Louisiana over ownership of tidal oil lands. In each case the Supreme Court ruled in favor of the government. The House has voted to give states ownership of submerged lands seaward for three miles and in some cases further. The bill is in the Senate.

County Road Work Set For Discussion

Midland County Commissioners Court will hold a special meeting with a district engineer of the State Highway Department at 1:30 p.m. Tuesday to work out details on construction of a Y-shaped farm-to-market road in the southern part of Midland County.

Short lengths of the road are to be projected into Upton and Ector Counties.

Cost of the road in Midland County has been estimated at $318,000 by the State Highway Department.

The road is to be financed in part under the federal secondary road program and partly by state funds. Midland County is to provide right-of-way for the project.

County Judge Clifford C. Keith said Monday the road is to run from the Rankin Highway to the west county line with a branch to the south county line.

About one mile of the road will go into Upton County and two and a half miles will project into Ector County, Judge Keith said.

Negro Sergeant Guilty Of Slayings

RIVERSIDE, CALIF. —(AP)— A young negro Air Force sergeant, Lawrence Walker, may spend the rest of his life in prison for the slaying of a young mother and father on a lonely road.

A jury of 11 women and one man returned a verdict of first degree murder Sunday after 21 hours of actual deliberation. The jurors, who got the case last Friday, recommended that Walker be sent to prison for life. He will be sentenced August 15.

The 20-year-old defendant was tried on seven counts and was convicted on four of them. The three counts on which the jurors could not agree involved the rape of Mrs. Betty Maund, 22, in a Riverside ball park last February and the pistol whipping of her escort.

Walker was convicted of shooting down Richard Cook, 18, on a desolate back road March 26; of kidnaping Doris Cook, also 18; of assaulting her with intent to rape her, and finally, of murdering her, too, as she fought off his advances in an old rock quarry 11 miles from the scene of the first murder.

Young Cook's body was found sprawled beside the road. Near him lay his infant son, playing happily and unharmed on a pink blanket. Searchers discovered Mrs. Cook's body two days later, shot in the back.

DADDY RINGTAIL

Daddy Ringtail And Vacation Time

Old Mr. Sun was big and bright and hot in the sky. Summertime had come to the Great Forest, and summertime was vacation time. How excited everyone was there in Daddy Ringtail's monkey house. Vacation time had come again!

"For our vacation," said Daddy Ringtail, "we shall go down the river to the sea, because the sea is a happy vacation place indeed." And so all that day, Daddy Ringtail and Mother Ringtail and Mugwump were busy with putting vacation things into boxes all ready to go. Then at last the work was finished. The things were packed and ready to go when morning light had come again, and so everyone went to bed and to sleep.

Everyone was asleep, almost, and then: "Oh me," said Daddy Ringtail, sitting up in bed. "Mother Ringtail, I keep on thinking and thinking how maybe we have forgotten a something we ought to take with us on our vacation."

"Now, now," said Mother Ringtail. She was tired and sleepy from all the work of packing. "Got to sleep, Daddy Ringtail," she said. "Maybe we haven't forgotten a something."

But Daddy Ringtail could not go to sleep for trying to remember the something he was sure he had forgotten. Why, last year at vacation time he had forgotten to take the can opener. Another time he had forgotten a flashlight, and once he didn't take the matches. "Worry, worry, and worry," he said.

"Now, now, and please go to sleep," said Mother Ringtail. "But Mother Ringtail," said Daddy Ringtail, "we always forget to take a something with us for our vacation."

"Now, now," said Mother Ringtail once more in a very sleepy voice. "Daddy Ringtail, don't we always have a wonderful vacation, even though we always forget to take a something with us?"

Daddy Ringtail smiled to hear her words, because he knew indeed they always had a wonderful vacation, even though they always forgot to take a something with them. Mother Ringtail was right, and now he was ready for happy dreams of vacation time. What a fine vacation they are going to have! Wonderful things are about to happen, and I shall tell you about them all this week. Happy day! Happy vacation too.

Jacome Wins 20th Loop Game

Hits His First Home Run Of Pro Career

ODESSA—Veteran Eddie Jacome long will remember Midland's 9-8 victory over the Odessa Oilers here Sunday.

For Jacome hung up his twentieth pitching win of the year to join the 20-game winners circle—the second pitcher to do so in Longhorn League play this year—and hit the first home run of his professional baseball career.

The 23-year-old right-hander slammed a pitch by Juan Guerrero over the left field fence in the sixth inning, to account for Midland's last tally. The four-bagger, which cleared the left wall with plenty to spare—was the first home run hit off Guerrero in Oiler Park this year.

Jacome latched on to a sweeping curve ball that broke over the plate, and that accounted for the eventual winning run. Odessa rallied for seven later runs, but Jacome settled down in the ninth after Lee Palmer had hit a bases-empty homer to retire the side. Palmer was the only blight on Jacome's brilliant day, as he got four hits in five trips to the plate. Jacome's record now is 20 wins, 12 defeats.

Midland supported Jacome with a 10-hit attack that was packed mainly into the second inning. The Tribe tallied eight runs in that frame on a home run, a triple, three doubles and a single. Hayden White led off with a Shortstop Sooster Hughes then stepped to the plate, swung his bat and pumped his right hand over the left field wall. It accounted for three runs, and came off Loser Was Ortiz.

Guerrero then relieved Stan (The Man) Wilcox kept the rally alive with a triple. Julio de la Torre doubled him in. White, up again, reached base by error and de la Torre scored the eighth run. Kenny Jones then bounced into a twin-killing to end the outburst.

After that, Jacome hit his round-tripper and Odessa played a futile game of catch up.

Blaik May Resign At West Point

WEST POINT, N. Y. —(P)—The question of whether Col. Earl (Red) Blaik will resign as Army's head football coach was tossed about in sports circles Monday after the order dismissing 90 cadets—many of them his top gridiron stars—for cheating in examinations.

The Army refused to name names. Reports said 40 or more football players were among the 90 involved in the scandal that rocked the military academy.

Two players who figured prominently in Blaik's plans for another great Army team are among the cadets ordered dismissed.

Three others have disclosed through their parents that they were not connected with the violation of the academy's sacrosanct honor code.

Bob Too? If reports are true, Blaik's varsity squad has been ripped asunder.

Graduation last Spring took 10 of the team that rolled through 28 straight victories before losing to Navy, 14-2, last Fall. And now the dismissal order, taking players that figured to again make the Black Knights the feared power of the gridiron.

Blaik had built his offense around his son, Bob, No. 1 quarterback last season. Young Blaik him-

NEW YORK —(P)—Norman (Red) Strader said Monday he has been fired as football coach of the pro New York Yanks.

Strader has directed the Yanks since 1946.

He said Ted Collins, owner of the football team, asked him to sign a statement of resignation.

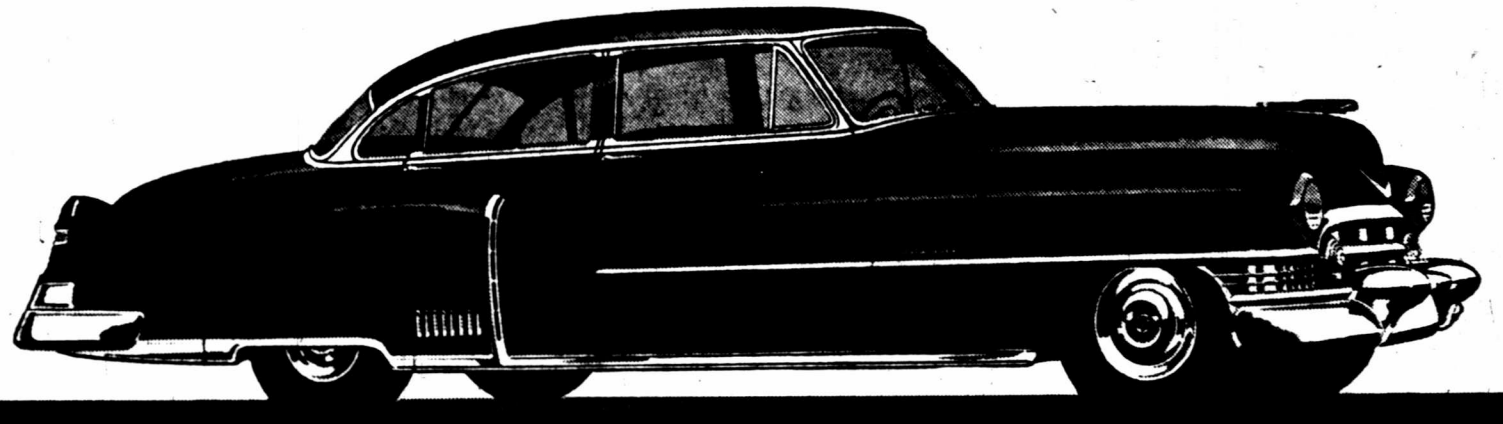

"I wouldn't sign, so I was fired," Strader added.

He said no reason was given for his release. His team won seven games and lost five last season.

Reports are that Earl (Greasy) Neale, former coach of the Philadelphia Eagles, will succeed him.

A Little Patience.. and It's Yours!

Standard equipment, accessories and price illustrated are subject to change without notice.

In all the world of manufactured products, there is nothing more difficult to wait for—once you have decided to own it—than a Cadillac car.

If it is to be your first Cadillac, it is doubtless the fulfillment of a long-cherished dream—and it is hard to wait for one's heart's desire, once it is so close at hand.

And if it is to be a replacement for your old love—well, experience has taught you how consistently and completely the good things come from Cadillac—and your curiosity is a force to reckon with!

To make it worse, temptation is all about you. Down the street and around the corner are cars to be had almost as soon as your signature is on an order blank.

But be patient and be firm—for there is a reason why other cars may be had so readily—while there is some delay in delivery of a Cadillac.

It is because so many wonderful people, like yourself, want only Cadillac—and will accept no compromise.

If we already have your order—turn a deaf ear to those who would have you compromise your preference for the sake of earlier delivery.

And if you want a Cadillac, but have not yet placed your order, come in and do so. We will talk with you frankly about delivery, so you may know about what to anticipate.

Remember—there is only one car which is recognized wherever highways lead as the Standard of the World—and that car is Cadillac.

... AND IT'S SUPERIOR IN TASTE, TOO!

The moment your family tastes the freshness, the sweetness—'t's Cabell's milk for your family from now on! And Cabell's Regular milk is Vitamin fortified! Yes, fortified with 400 units of Vitamin D, that provides vitamin.

And that's just one of the ways that Cabell's milk is superior! Higher standards of sanitation and refrigeration lead to the sweet freshness!

Is it any wonder Cabell's milk tastes better—and keeps longer? And is it any wonder that thousands of families drink Cabell's Milk—and so other brands?

IS FOG SPRAY The Answer To POLIO? Science has so far been unable to determine very much about polio. But it is generally known and agreed that the common house fly, and perhaps other house pests, aid in spreading this dread disease. Marked decrease in the incidence of polio have been noted following campaigns against flies and other insects. Complete safety for your family, your pets, and for delicate fabrics is assured with the TIFA Fog Spray application. Here is your opportunity AT VERY LOW COST to rid your home of the discomfort and health hazard of flies and other insects. The nationally known and widely endorsed TIFA application is your best answer to house pest problems. Call us today for free estimate on insect-proofing your home or other buildings. A DREAM HOME! IMMEDIATE OCCUPANCY!

Ranch Style, 3-Bedroom IN BEDFORD PLACE - NEAR COUNTRY CLUB

All of the refined features you have wished for are to be found in this beautiful red brick ranch style home, just completed by Edwin Brown at 1203 Princeton. Let us take you on a tour through this lovely home. Entering through the front door you step into an entrance-way with cloak and hat closet immediately to your left. A few steps to the right and you are in a cozy den with wood-burning fireplace, built-in book cases and lots of light streaming in through the windows that line one wall. Is of knotty pine throughout that lends an atmosphere of coziness and comfort. A doorway from the den leads into the kitchen that is a domestic's dream, with multiple storage space, file drains, double sink, hooded space over cook stove that has electrically controlled vent fan, connections for either gas or electric range, electric wall plugs galore, large closet for washing machine and another large closet for water softener and water heater. Also has circulating hot water. Adjoining the kitchen is a spacious breakfast nook from which a door opens into the large double garage, while another door leads into the dining room. After entering the front door, a turn to the left leads one down a hallway past two huge closets and the two large tiled bathrooms on the one side and the three spacious bedrooms on the other. One bath is with shower, dressing table, built-in mirror and modern appointments. Here, too are to be found two other spacious closets. The bedrooms, all with southern exposures, are decorated in subdued, harmonizing colors. The large living room, which is situated between the bedrooms and the dining room, has a wood-burning fireplace, and practically all glass southern exposure. Double louvre doors lead into the dining room, while French doors lead from the dining room onto the large back terrace. This home has best grade clear Redwood floors throughout, beautifully finished. Three phone jacks are an added convenience. A system of ducts connect all rooms for air conditioning. The large double garage has 8-ft. overhead doors and an enclosed 5'20" storage room across the rear. The house and garage is 104 ft. frontage. The built-up double wood shingle roof has 3 1/2 ft. overhang all around. Teraoed lot. Frontage is 120 ft., 140 ft. deep. Is located in one of most desirable residential sections of Midland, near Country Club, and flanked by homes of similar proportions. An early appointment is suggested.

Recently Opened Glasscock Sector Gets Third Oiler

Another producer, the third, has been added to the recently opened Spraberry area in Southwest Glasscock County by El Capitan Oil Company No. 1 Whitehouse.

The new oiler is Sohio Petroleum Company No. 1 Charles J. Cox, located at the center of the southeast quarter of the northeast quarter of section 47, block 37, T-4-S, T&P survey.

Operator finished the oiler for a calculated 24-hour flowing potential of 620 barrels of oil and no water. The potential was based on an actual six-hour flow of 155 barrels of oil through a one-half-inch tubing choke.

Pay was topped at 6,948 feet. Total depth is 7,070 feet.

Completion was from open hole at 6,907-7,070 feet after that interval had been given a 1,500-gallon hydraulic treatment.

Tubing pressure on the final test was 190 pounds.
The new oiler is one location north of El Capitan No. 2 Whitehouse which was completed as the second well in the area. It is one location north of No. 1 Whitehouse.

Midland Tex-Harvey Gets Eight Locations

Locations for eight more projects have been staked in the Tex-Harvey field of Central-East Midland County, four by Phillips Petroleum Company and four by Frank and George Frankel.

Frankel No. 8-H Floyd will be 664 feet from south and 671 feet from west lines of the same section.

SE Irion Wildcat Gets Oil On DST

G. W. Stark of Houston No. 1-B Mrs. Lillian Winterbottom, wildcat in Southeast Irion County, is drilling below 6,890 feet in a shale section after heading oil after a drillstem test in an unidentified sand section.

The test was taken from 6,590 to 6,608 feet. Tool was open 90 minutes. The project headed oil as the test tool was being pulled.

Final recovery was 2,100 feet of 40-gravity oil with no water, and 40 feet of oil-cut mud. The amount of oil headed was estimated to be between 200 and 500 feet.

Open flowing bottom-hole pressure was 250 pounds. Shut-in pressure after 20 minutes was 2,475 pounds.

The bottom two feet of the section tested was shale.
Location is 660 feet from north and west lines of section 30, block 21, H&TC survey and two and one-half miles north of the Schleicher County line.

Drillsite falls 11 miles southeast of Mertzon.

Medalo Evans Bound Over To Grand Jury

AUSTIN — (P) — Unless she makes bail, pretty Medalo Frances Evans must remain in jail at least until January on a charge of impersonating a Women's Air Force officer.

The redhead who fast-talked her way across the country in military aircraft until her arrest last week at Bergstrom Field was bound over to the January grand jury by U. S. Commissioner Robert N. Sneed Monday.

Holt said he might file an appeal with Federal Judge Ben Rice, Jr., if his client continued unable to make bail.

He said Mrs. Evans had been receiving some fan mail, including $5 from an Odessa man who offered her more help "when and if" she gets out of jail.

One Dead—

The accident occurred at the intersection of North Lamesa Road and Ranchland Hill Country Club Road.

State Highway Patrolmen Mac Stout and Bob Bigler reported the automobile occupied by Maxey and others was headed north on Lamesa Road and crashed into the side of the Hart automobile, which was traveling east on Ranchland Hill Country Club Road.

The Hart car, a convertible, was thrown across the intersection and into a telephone pole by the impact, the officers said.

The other car overturned and landed with its front end on top of the convertible. Stout and Bigler said Mr. and Mrs. Hart and Maxey were thrown from their cars. Maxey was knocked unconscious. The top of the car's battery was sheared off and its acid was sprayed over the Hart boy's body.

Mrs. Hart was killed instantly, the patrolmen said.

Her survivors, in addition to the husband and son, include the parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Hicks; two sisters, Virginia Hicks and Mrs. T. S. Beckham; a brother, Jimmy Hicks; and a nephew, Travis Beckham, Jr., all of Midland. Also surviving is another brother, Cpl. Lloyd C. Hicks, Jr., who is stationed in Japan.

Funeral arrangements were pending at the Newbie W. Ellis Chapel.

Budget OK—
"To build sufficient forces as soon as practicable to act as a deterrent to further aggression; to create sufficient power to prevent disaster in the event war is forced upon us; to provide an immediate capability for quick and strong retaliation in case of an attack upon us; and to produce a firm base upon which to build, as quickly as possible, that power necessary to assure victory should we be forced to engage in all-out conflict."
Deep cuts were made in funds requested for civilian personnel and military procurement. The aggregate $145,130,500 chopped off civilian personnel funds is designed to cut planned white-collar and blue-collar working forces by close to $80,000. This still would leave the military forces tens of thousands more civilian employes than they had during the last fiscal year.
The committee's criticism was not reserved for the Defense Department alone. It noted that the President didn't submit the budget until late in April, more than three months later than the legally-prescribed time, and said it wants the budget sent to Congress "on time" hereafter.

Housewives—
The wives say it is unconstitutional to ask them to serve as tax collector by withholding taxes from domestic servants. They have said they will carry the fight to the U. S. Supreme Court.
The exact number of warrants served could not be learned. Langford said they numbered "less than two dozen." There have been about 18 active members of the rebellious group.
The Marshall News-Messenger said one of the Marshall National Bank accounts to be levied against was that of Marshall City Commissioner Charles Spangler. Mrs. Spangler said she had a separate account at the other bank; but that the Treasury agents moved against her husband's account at the Marshall National Bank.
Reporters were not allowed to see the seizure warrants nor the order requiring inspection of the accounts. They obtained their information from the account-holders after the warrants were served.
Kenneth Abney, Marshall attorney and husband of Carolyn Abney, said the women will ask the Internal Revenue Bureau that money taken from their accounts be refunded. If they don't get the money back in this manner, Abney said, they will ask Rep. Wright Patman to introduce a bill permitting them to sue the government.

Hawkins—
(Continued From Page One) School, young Hawkins told Captain Fritz he and his father also disagreed over future plans. "My two sisters will get here tomorrow or the next day and until then I will have nothing to say," the youth told reporters.
The boy first told police he had found his father slain. He changed his story after questioning.
Fritz said Hawkins told him he took the 22 rifle apart and put the walnut stock in an upstairs closet. He said he then drove to a creek about four miles away and threw the rifle barrel into the water. Police later fished it out.
Young Hawkins told authorities he had just returned from a trip to Canada and California and he was tired and nervous.
He said he handled his own money, sometimes buying and selling stocks at a profit.
The elder Hawkins was a member of the executive committees of the Texas Mid-Continent Oil & Gas Association. He received the General Mid-Continent Oil & Gas Association's distinguished service award in 1947.
