Wildcats Are To Be Drilled At Glasscock And Hockley Sites

Drilling is to be started in the near future on wildcats in Southwest Glasscock County and in Central-East Hockley County.

The Glasscock exploration will be Magnolia Petroleum Company No. 1 J. C. Bryans. It is to be an 11,000-foot project. That destination is calculated to take it into the Ellenburger.

Drill site is 1,980 feet from north and west lines of section 25, block 33, T-4-S. That makes it eight miles southwest of Garden City.

Northeast Of Discovery

It is approximately 10 miles northeast of Paul F. Barnhart No. 1 Bigby, a recently completed flowing discovery from the Sprabery sand.

L. P. Oil Company of Houston will drill the Central-East Hockley County prospect as its No. 1 Henry Mahoney.

Location is 600 feet from south and east lines of the west half of section 53, block P. C&M survey. It is less than a mile west of the Lubbock County line.

The project will be about seven miles northeast of Snyder.

Operator has applied for a permit to drill it to 6,200 feet, which would take it into the Glorietta of the middle Permian.

Spartan Appears To Be Assured Of Major Extension To Parks

Spartan Drilling Company appears to be assured of a one and one-quarter mile east extension for the north side of the Parks-Pennsylvanian field in West-Central Midland County.

Spartan No. 1-A Mary Scharbauer, 100 miles southwest of the City of Midland, and one and one-quarter miles east of the nearest producers in the field is bottomed at 10,940 feet in the Pennsylvanian lime.

Will Test And Complete

Operator has set and cemented a string of 7-inch casing at 10,920 feet. When the plug cures it will be drilled out and the open hole will be treated with acid and then production tests will be run.

This prospect, located 2,400 feet from west and 1,200 feet from north lines of section 12, C. P. O'Neal survey, has shown on a series of drillstem tests that it would produce from both the upper and lower Pennsylvanian pay zones.

The upper pay is now cased off and operator plans to produce only the lower section at this time.

Sinclair Is Running Casing In Indicated SW Midland Opener

Operator is conditioning hole to run five and one-half-inch casing in Sinclair Oil & Gas Company No. 2 June Tippet, indicated Ellenburger discovery in Southwest Midland County.

Pipe will be set on bottom at 13,092 feet and the Ellenburger tested through perforations.

The wildcat proved for additional pay on a drillstem test from 13,043-663 feet. Tool was open five hours. A 9,000-foot water blanket was used. Gas surfaced in one hour and 50 minutes. Recovery was the water blanket, 3,980 feet of 51.6-gravity oil and 120 feet of heavily oil and gas-out mud. No formation water was present.

Open flowing bottom hole pressure was 2,450 pounds and shut-in bottom hole pressure after 30 minutes was 4,950 pounds.

Location is 1,980 feet from north and west lines of section 17, block 40, T-4-S, T&P survey.

Pennsylvanian Reef Opener In Prospect At Howard Wildcat

Another Pennsylvanian reef lime discovery has been indicated at Deep Rock Oil Corporation No. 1 J. O. McCray, project in Central Howard County, six miles north of Big Spring.

Operator ran a drillstem test from 9,038 to 9,064 feet. Tool was left open 40 minutes. Gas surfaced in four minutes, mud in 12 minutes and oil in 15 minutes.

Oil, gas and mud sprayed during the remainder of the time tool was open. It continued to spray as operator started out with the drill pipe.

This prospective discovery is 1,800 feet from east and 600 feet from north lines of section 1, block 23, T-1-N, T&P survey.

Operators are continuing to pull the drill pipe at last report.

Reds Face Final Defeat At Parley

Film Siren Found Dead In Bathtub

PARIS —(P)—Movie actress Maria Montez died Friday, apparently from drowning in her bathtub.

She was found unconscious by her sister, who called a doctor and firemen. The firemen used artificial respiration three hours but were unable to resuscitate her.

She had appeared in many pictures which emphasized her siren-like qualities of sex appeal. These pictures included: "The Invisible Woman," "That Night in Rio," "Moonlight in Hawaii," "South of Tahiti," "Arabian Nights," "Cobra Woman," and "Siren of Atlantis."

Married To French Actor

The actress was married to Jean Pierre Aumont, French actor. It was in their home in suburban Suresnes that she died.

Miss Montez was a native of the Dominican Republic.

The fiery 31-year-old actress left the United States for Europe early this year after winning a court suit in Los Angeles awarding her $38,000 in back salary for one of her last American pictures, "Siren of Atlantis," in which she co-starred with her husband.

She was noted for her Latin temperament and disputes with the front office.

She appeared on the screen in many a siren and leopard skin as queen of exotic fantasies. She said she had been "treated badly" for a girl who had made the studio $17,000,000.

A child, Maria Christina, was born to the couple six years ago.

Maria's first husband was William O. MacFeters, an Irish officer in the British Army.

Her real name was Maria Africa Gracia Vidal de Santos Salas Aumont.

LONELY STEER—Only one lone steer remained in Kansas City's stockyards after yard officials ordered an embargo on cattle shipments when flood waters of the rampaging Kansas (Kaw) River threatened to engulf the stockyards district for the second time in two months. With the passing of the flood crest without major damage, the embargo has been lifted.

American Wife Dies After William Tell Incident In Mexico

MEXICO CITY —(P)—An American woman died Thursday night of a bullet wound inflicted, police were told, by her husband, who tried to shoot a glass of gin off her head.

Police said the husband, William Seward Burroughs, formerly of St. Louis, Mo., was held for questioning.

The story of the William Tell shooting was told, police said, after Mrs. Burroughs, the former Joan Vollmer, died in Red Cross hospital from a bullet wound in her forehead. She was described as 27 years old. Her husband is 37.

They came here from Panama as tourists and were said to own two ranches in Texas.

The police version said the shooting took place at a drinking party in the apartment of another American, John Healy.

Police said Burroughs told them two stories. First, they said, he told of wanting to show his marksmanship with a newly-bought pistol, placed a glass of gin on his wife's head, fired but missed and shot her in the forehead.

After talking with a lawyer, police said, Burroughs told them his wife was wounded when he accidentally dropped the pistol.

Term Of Franchise Stalls Final Action On City Bus Lines

Final action to establish a bus transportation system for Midland was delayed further Thursday when City Council failed to come to terms with the two men seeking the bus franchise.

Raymond Thomason, Jr., and Bill Acklund of Abilene, co-partners in the proposed bus line, asked the council for a 20-year franchise.

However, the council told the men the city charter limits the operation of a franchise to five years unless it is placed before Midland citizens for a vote.

Thomason and Acklund were in accord with the city council on all other points of the franchise.

The co-partners explained the situation this way: They are going to invest a considerable sum of money in the project and the risk is such that they could not adequately protect themselves without a long franchise. It's a long range operation, they said, and the bus line would operate at a loss for quite a while until Midland residents become re-acustomed to riding buses.

Action was postponed until the two men could confer with City Attorney Ed Stitt in regard to the franchise.

Texas Owners Rush To Clear Premises Of Outlawed 'Slots'

By The Associated Press

The possession of slot machines and most kinds of marble machines in Texas Friday will bring felony charges.

The law went into effect at midnight. There was a grand rush to get rid of the slots.

So many slot machines were turned in to Sheriff Bill Decker of Dallas County that he was hard put to find a place for them.

They came from swank clubs, slot machine operators and some folks who had a few around to amuse the guests. One Dallas club sold some machines to operators in Nevada, where the machines are legal.

Houston Check Planned

Transporting them there offered some hazards.

Houston Chief of Police L. D. Morrison had a list of 89 machines on which federal taxes were paid. He planned to have his men check them later to see what became of them.

Houston police picked up 10 machines from a lodge hall which had asked the officers to come for them. Sheriffs deputies picked up an old model machine at an electric company, which had had it in a shop for amusement of employees.

Austin and Fort Worth reported no slot machines were turned in there.

Beaumont officials had received a number of inquiries on what to do with slot and marble machines, but none had been turned in to officers. Many Beaumont owners were destroying marble tables.

Early Christmas Idea Is Painful

An eagerness to bring on the Yuletide despite the ailing temperatures here resulted in a painful injury to Dolores Oswald, two-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Willie Oswald of Terminal.

Dolores was playing with a Christmas tree bulb Friday when it exploded and she swallowed bits of the fine glass. She was taken to Midland Memorial Hospital, where she was given emergency treatment and released.

Burning Navy Plane Makes Safe Landing

WASHINGTON —(P)—A two-engine Navy plane made an emergency landing with one engine ablaze at National Airport Friday.

The Civil Aeronautics Administration, which reported the landing, had no immediate information on the number of occupants aboard the craft. No one was injured.

Fall Cool Front Continues Stalled In Northern Texas

By The Associated Press

A cool front that has hovered over North Texas and Oklahoma moved south a bit Friday.

The front hit Sherman and brought temperatures there down to 74.

The Weather Bureau said the cool front would bring cool showers and lower temperatures to parts of North Texas, but was not expected to move much further south immediately.

Thursday, Mineral Wells showed 104 degrees. Fort Worth and Co-tulla had 103; Dallas, Waco and Alice 101. Presidio, with 105, was the hottest.

The lowest maximum was 89 at Maria, Houston and Dalhart were both up in the nineties—Houston 95, Dalhart 93.

It was a flat 100 at Lubbock, Tyler, Del Rio, Laredo, Austin and Abilene.

City Hikes And Adopts 1951 Budget

A total operating budget of $1,406,863 was approved unanimously by the Midland City Council Thursday afternoon after an additional $12,000 had been added to the budget for the park improvement fund.

John J. Redfern, Jr., of the City Planning Commission, appeared before the council and told them: "I'm surprised that out of a city budget of more than a million dollars only $12,000 has been allocated to provide additional recreation for youngsters in the city."

"A lot of us talk about what we need to do to provide recreational facilities for the kids, but I don't see how we can do anything if we don't have sites on which to build."

Redfern told the council the $12,000 originally provided in the budget would begin to pay for the purchase of additional sites. He said at least five more sites should be purchased in various parts of the city so the city could begin a long range project of park improvement.

Mayor Pickett agreed with Redfern.

After Redfern finished, Midland Mayor Perry Pickett agreed with Redfern.

"The situation is acute and we should do something now," he said.

A motion by Councilman Johnny Starr to provide an additional $12,000 for the park improvement fund was passed unanimously.

It brought the total park development budget to $60,070 for the coming fiscal year as compared with a budget of $26,896 for the current year.

Meanwhile, City Manager W. H. Oswald explained that the budget for the coming year, which is a substantial increase over last year, is a result of major increases in four city departments.

"Police Department, Fire Department, Sanitation and Parks Improvement are the four departments (Continued On Page Twelve)

160-Mile-An-Hour Hurricane 'Easy' Spins Toward Florida

MIAMI —(P)—Hurricane "Easy" spun its 160-mile or higher winds past Puerto Rico Friday to an ocean area about 900 miles east-southeast of the Florida coast.

The center was 350 miles north of San Juan, Puerto Rico. Around the dead calm of the center eye, the hurricane whirled its violent winds in an eccentric circle measuring about 480 miles in diameter. Winds of hurricane force extended 100 miles from the eye in the northern semi-circle and 60 miles in the southern semi-circle.

San Juan, capital of the sugar-rich United States' insular possession, was just out of reach of the storm. The weather there was breezy, but good.

Ships using the busy New York-South America route past Puerto Rico sped out of the path of the mighty hurricane.

"Easy" so named because it is storm No. 5 and "E" is the fifth letter of the alphabet, was slowing down its forward pace. It was moving forward at about 12 miles an hour.

As "Easy" continued its menacing approach, another tropical storm tailed it a thousand miles to the rear.

The Weather Bureau at San Juan reported hurricane "Fox" was centered about 875 miles east-northeast of Antigua, in the British West Indies, and 2,200 miles from Florida.

Alpine Newsman Dies Of Heart Ailment

MARFA —(P)—Fred H. Gaston, 75, Alpine newspaperman and writer, died Friday of a heart ailment.

Gaston had lived in Alpine eight years. He was a native of De Moines.

Gromyko Has Close Call In Traffic Snarl

SAN FRANCISCO —(P)—Andrei Gromyko and his Russian delegation, center of speculation concerning a possible walkout, were the first to arrive for Friday's sixth working session of the Japanese peace conference, which opened at 11:12 a.m. CST.

A strong police escort with screaming sirens accompanied the Russian limousines. This lent some color to a report that White (anti-Communist) Russians had plotted to assassinate Gromyko through a fake motor accident on his way in from suburban Hillsborough Friday morning.

A truck did overturn on the route to the conference, but advised said the accident happened before the Russians left their retreat at Hillsborough, 17 miles south of San Francisco.

The police escort, with screaming sirens, led the Russian party safely past the scene of the accident. The Russians then reached the conference without incident.

Gromyko appeared calm and neat in a gray business suit.

Less than one-fourth of the 83 national delegations were in the San Francisco Opera House at the scheduled opening time. Second to arrive was Bulgaria's two-man team, followed by the Japanese, minus Premier Shigeru Yoshida.

The opening was the tardiest since working sessions began Wednesday. Percy C. Spender of Australia was presiding.

Communist Last Chance

The three-power Communist bloc had its last scheduled chance to stall or discredit the Japanese peace treaty.

It wasn't much of a chance. General speculation was that the delegation of Russia, Poland and Czechoslovakia would walk out after Pomeroy's speech.

Red Charges Fly As War Tempo Rises

TOKYO —(P)—New Communist notes swirled Friday in the brimming cauldron of wasted words that left peace in Korea as remote as ever.

Sharp fighting flashed again on the explosive western front while the Kaesong armistice talks remained suspended for the fifteenth straight day.

Two Allied outposts fought their way out of Chinese Red traps northwest of Chorwon.

The main United Nations lines braced for an expected Communist offensive.

The new Red notes rejected the latest Allied denial of responsibility for neutrality zone violations at Kaesong, Korea. There was no Red answer to Gen. Matthew B. Ridgway's insistence on selection of a new truce site.

Two New Messages

Red China's Peiping radio broadcast the two new messages from North Korean Lt. Gen. Nam Il, senior Red delegate, to Vice Adm. C. Turner Joy, top UN negotiator.

Both notes rejected Joy's three denials Tuesday of Red charges as "completely unsatisfactory."

One note brushed aside Joy's insistence that no Allied plane dropped a flare inside the Kaesong neutral zone the night of August 29.

"Your side's grave responsibility for these incidents can by no means be turned aside by your message, which disregards the facts and denies everything," Nam said.

James W. Gerard, Former Ambassador To Germany, Dies

SOUTHAMPTON, N. Y. —(P)—James W. Gerard, 84, U. S. ambassador to Germany before this country entered World War I, died Thursday at his Summer home here.

He had been ill with a bronchial ailment some time. His wife, his only close survivor, was at his bedside when he died. She is the former Mary Daly, daughter of the late Marcellus Daly, a Western copper magnate.

Gerard, born in Genesee, N. Y., was a corporation lawyer and lifelong Democrat. For many years he was treasurer of the Democratic Party.

He was a New York State Supreme Court Justice before he resigned in 1913 to go to Berlin as U. S. ambassador.

Forceful Diplomacy

Gerard had been in Berlin about a year when World War I started. During the ticklish days before the U. S. entered the conflict, the crisis brought to the fore his bluntness and forceful diplomacy.

After the United States severed relations with the Kaiser's government, the Germans ordered Gerard to sign certain documents before he could leave Germany. The diplomat replied that he would "stay here until hell freezes over" before signing. He won his point and finally was allowed to leave Germany.

German officials once warned Gerard that 500,000 Germans in America would side actively with the Kaiser if the U. S. entered the war. Gerard replied that America had 500,000 lampposts on which to hang any half-million Germans who tried it.

After returning from Germany, Gerard quit the diplomatic service and went back to his law practice. He had been active in his business affairs almost up to the time of his death.

Forger Assessed Three-Year Term

Waiting jury trial and entering pleas of guilty, the following received suspended sentences: James Floyd, burglary, five years; Mrs. D. E. McRight, forgery, two years; John Turner, theft, three years; John Harper, burglary, three years.

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. —(AP)—UN Secretary General Trygve Lie Friday said the time has come for Russia to give definite proof its cease-fire suggestion for Korea was made seriously by moving the truce talks to a new location and making a new start.

SAIGON, INDOCHINA —(AP)—Viet Nam Friday signed an economic agreement with the United States, covering extension of ECA aid to this Communist-threatened Southeast Asian country.

LONDON —(AP)—Rudolf Slansky, architect of Communist Czechoslovakia's vast purges, has been relieved of his duties as secretary general of the Communist Party, the official Czech News Agency reported Friday.

GOP Solon Says U. S. Has More Than One Devastating New Secret Weapon

WASHINGTON —(P)—Senator Young (R-MD) Friday disclosed that the United States has more than one devastating new secret weapon—powerful "beyond imagination"—and that they all probably would be ready to use if war should come suddenly.

"They are in a high state of development," Young said as the Senate Appropriations Committee met to give expected approval to a $5,000,000,000 increase in defense funds for air power, including an Air Force of at least 56 wings.

This increase would push the total of the record-breaking bill above $41,000,000,000. It contained more than $56,000,000,000 as passed by the House.

Asked if the ultra-powerful weapons—first mentioned by President Truman earlier this week—might be used in Korea in case truce talks finally break down, Young replied: "That would be a military decision."

He indicated Army leaders, who pledged senators to secrecy in disclosing the "fantastic" new secret weapons, had not outlined probable uses.

Could Destroy Civilization

President Truman said they could destroy civilization and that he hoped they never would be used.

Both Young and Senator Ma-back (D-SC), another committee member, agreed that the mysterious new weapons were devastating and non-alienable.

Otherwise, official secrecy shrouded the nature of the weapons. Pledged to secrecy, other senators did not even want to be quoted by name about them, and Pentagon officials remained tight-lipped.

Young pointed to Truman's speech in San Francisco this week in which the President said "new weapons could wipe out civilization."

"It is fantastic what can happen with the use of the new weapons that are now under construction in this country—not only the one that we all fear most, but these are some other weapons which are fantastic in their operation," the President said.

Young said, "The President certainly was not exaggerating."

Senate Considers Restoring Cuts In Delivery Of Mails

WASHINGTON —(AP)—Agitation for restoration of two mail deliveries a day in residential areas Friday prompted to delay Senate action on a bill to boost postal rates almost $400,000,000.

Among other changes, the bill would up the cost of letters from three to four cents and of postcards from one to two cents.

Earlier, the Senate passed by voice vote and sent to the House a bill to reduce present size and weight limits on parcel post packages.

★ IN HOLLYWOOD ★ Glenn Ford's Home Life Is Upset By Westerns On TV

By GLENN FORD (Subbing for Erskine Johnson, NEA Staff Correspondent)

HOLLYWOOD—Like everyone else I'm convinced television has unlimited possibilities. And like everyone else, I suppose, I have a grievance concerning TV. I'm looking for the guy who introduced westerns to television.

My grievance is based upon the fact that western pictures on TV have been creating chaos in my home life the last several years. My wife, Eleanor Powell, and I have a son, Peter, a friendly, likable six-year old.

Until this character who merged TV and western pictures came on the scene, Peter and I had a good, normal father-and-son relationship. And I was doing very fine until we got ourselves a television set. That did it. I found myself coming into all these western stars for prestige in my son's eyes.

The pictures I've been making rarely have been of the "western" type, lately. The fact I was also an actor and appeared in pictures with Rita Hayworth, Evelyn Keyes, Bette Davis, Anne Baxter, and others, made no impression on him at all. Their names weren't as bewitching to him as Topper, Champ, Silver, Tony, etc.

Peter was impressed.

Breakfast at our home used to be gay, friendly affairs, full of plans for the day. But after television, Peter's interest plummeted to zero when I started to talk about my pictures. Peter would always get back to what the western stars were doing on television, and how great they were.

Things reached such a desperate state I was forced to come to breakfast complete with chaps, guns, and range talk. When I got to the studio, everyone figured I was going through one of those "daffy" stages, and were exceedingly kind and gentle.

The novelty of having me dress western wore off for Peter in a few weeks. I had to resort to another fraud. I carefully built up the fiction that I was having a peek of trouble with Indiana.

My parting shot each day as I left the house, with Ellie giving me

Permian Basin Oil And Gas Log—Cores Bleeding Oil Taken From Wildcat In NW Reagan Area

Cores bleeding oil have been recovered from the Spraberry in Boli Petroleum Company No. 1 Leonard Proctor, wildcat in Northwest Reagan County.

The Spraberry sand was topped at 6,717 feet, elevation 2,714 feet. The project is now at total depth of 6,804 feet and operator is preparing to core ahead.

Operator started cores at 6,708 feet. The first 12 feet recovered was black shale. The next 36 feet was sand bleeding oil and the next 26 feet was black shale with sand streaks bleeding oil. No description is available on remainder of cores out.

Location is 660 feet from north and 1,980 feet from east lines of section 32, block T-3-S, T&P survey. That puts it two miles southeast of John No. 1 Williams, recently completed, long extender to the Driver field.

Salt Creek Stepout In Kent Finds Reef At Favorable Point

Charles B. Wrightman No. 1 Frank Stewart, Northwest Kent County prospector, three-quarters of a mile north of the Salt Creek-Canyon field topped the Pennsylvania limestone reef on a tentative, unofficial call of 6,250 feet.

That gives the exploration a datum of minus 4,186 feet. It progressed to approximately 6,200 feet and was running electric log surveys. Will Make Tests

After that work is finished and the surveys are studied operator probably will run casing and drill a little deeper and then make production tests and try to complete as a producer and an extender to the field.

Informed sources say No. 1 Stewart should be finished as an oil well.

It is 1,300 feet from south and 1,630 feet from west lines of section 5, John Rodman survey and 10 miles northwest of Clairmont.

That makes it three-quarters of a mile west of Flory.

Rotary tools will be used to drill to projected depth of 9,300 feet, beginning at once.

No. 1 Peay was completed for a flowing potential of 375 barrels of 39.2-gravity oil and no water from perforated sections in the Wolfcamp at 9,227-50 feet and 9,275-9,300 feet. Both those intervals had been washed with 500 gallons of mud acid.

Laws Protect Reds

When the federal government seized seven reported Communists in Hawaii on charges of conspiring to teach violent overthrow of the U. S. government, bail of $75,000 each was demanded for them.

But Federal Judge Delbert Metzger cut the figure to $5,000, adding the comment that "bail was never intended as a punishment before trial."

The request for high bail evidently was dictated by the fact that several top Communist leaders, including four already convicted of conspiring to advocate overthrow of the government, recently have jumped bail and gone into hiding.

Senator O'Mahoney of Wyoming assailed Metzger for his action, and predicted he would get scant consideration for re-appointment when his term expires September 28.

But it is clear that Metzger acted in accord with the law as he saw it. There is no evidence he was motivated by any undue consideration for the alleged Communist conspirators.

Possibly the law is at fault. Under the Smith Act which led to the prosecution of the original 11 top Communists and now has brought the arrest of many others, the Communist Party as a whole cannot be condemned as a conspirator.

Thus, until otherwise proved, a Communist is in the eyes of U. S. law merely a member of a legitimate political party. As such he is entitled to all rights and privileges protecting every U. S. citizen in the expression of his political views.

Yet the trial of the original 11 Reds, plus a voluminous historical record of communism, makes it clear that Communist Party members are by the fact of their membership agents of a foreign government, namely, the Soviet Union.

They have no legitimate political purpose. Their only aim is the goal dictated by Moscow: overthrow of democratic government everywhere. Iron party discipline sooner or later rules out the soft-heads captivated by the Kremlin's "socialist objectives."

If Communist Party members actually are Russian agents in some degree or other, why shouldn't American law recognize it? Why shouldn't they be denied the privileges of citizenship which they would outlaw the moment they gained power?

Then judges like Metzger wouldn't have any great trouble deciding between the law as they understand it and the Communist menace as it is.

A statute labeling all party members automatically as Russian agents would have its drawbacks. The Reds would go to extremes to conceal membership. In the effort to ferret them out, many innocents could be hurt. But that would call for no better safeguard of our civil liberties than we need right now.

A man who left an estate of $100,000 had been in the soup business. Now the beneficiaries are in the gravy.

The Washington Merry-Go-Round

By Drew Pearson

(Copyright, 1951, By The Ball Syndicate, Inc.) Stefan Osusky says: Lowering Iron Curtain was a human disaster; 'Ballooning' may determine peace or war; Iron Curtain people want national security.

WASHINGTON — The lowering of the Iron Curtain after the close of World War II was not only a national tragedy for those countries which thus found themselves segregated from the rest of the free world, but a human disaster which tore the hearts out of man.

Soviet Russia did her devil's best to impress upon the nations of Central and Eastern Europe they had been forsaken by the West. The Iron Curtain limited contacts to official representation, reliable party members and fellow travelers, making it possible for the Kremlin to demonstrate convincingly to these unfortunate peoples that they had been completely abandoned and forgotten by the West.

So far, the crusade for freedom by "ballooning," championed by Drew Pearson, has brought the initial stages of its great liberating mission to successful completion. It has furnished the peoples of Central and Eastern Europe with tangible proof not only that they have not been forgotten by the American people, but also that the walls of

Motor Launch Service Proposed

SINGAPORE—(AP)—Many Singaporeans soon may be going to work in their downtown offices by sea. A proposal has been advanced to start a motor launch service from the suburban Katong District to Clifford Pier in the heart of Singapore. Its backers say this would do much to relieve the morning and evening motor traffic jams.

Daddy Ringtail :: By WESLEY DAVIS

Daddy Ringtail And Sitting Pretty

Daddy Ringtail, your monkey friend, once heard about an Indian man who lived in the mountains. The name of the Indian was Sitting Pretty.

Ah me, because Sitting Pretty was not pretty at all, people said. He was really skinny and scrawny. No str, Sitting Pretty was not pretty, but Sitting Pretty was sitting. Oh me, how Sitting Pretty liked to sit. He would sit and sit and sit. And so he sat and sat and sat in

"Ugh, watch!" said Sitting Pretty. And so Daddy Ringtail stood aside to watch while some people—people came walking up to the mountain. They were coming to see old Sitting Pretty, and they did see him, and they were happy to do it. "Imagine!" said the people—people. "We are looking at a real live Indian man, and he does nothing but sit and sit and sit."

And, ah yes, now Daddy Ringtail knew that Sitting Pretty was always sitting to make people—people happy to see him do it. Yes sir, and it's always a happy thing to make people happy, I think, don't you? Happy day!

Shall I force my child to go to Sunday School and Church?

Yes, definitely!

Startled? Why? How do you answer Lucy when she comes to the breakfast table and announces, "I'm not going to school today!" You know, Lucy goes.

How do you answer when Lucy comes in besmudged with dirt and says, "I'm not going to take a bath!" You know, Lucy bathes.

How do you answer when Lucy, threatened with illness, says, "I'm not going to take that medicine!" You know, she takes it.

Why all this timidity, then, in the realm of spiritual guidance and moral training? Going to wait and let her decide what Church she'll go to when she's old enough? Don't fool yourself. By that time she'll probably believe that a decision neglected by her parents during her first twenty years might not be necessary at all. You didn't wait until she was "old enough" to decide she should go to school.

Afraid she'll later succumb to the old story about "... too much religion when I was young ... parents made me go?" This tale is obviously false. Just because she takes a bath tonight doesn't mean she'll discontinue them at the age of twenty-one.

What shall I say to Lucy when she announces she doesn't like Sunday School and Church. That's easy. Be consistent.

By firmness and example you can show her that church-going is a necessity. And in later years, she will thank you for bringing into her life the greatest values a mature person can possess—Christian habits and ideals.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL ... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his sake of his community and nation. (2) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Indians Capture Double-Bill

Defeat Rockets By 11-3 And 9-0 As Campbell Gets Hits

ROSWELL, N. M.—Banging out a total of 28 hits in two seven-inning contests, the red-hot Midland Indians swamped the Roswell Rockets in a double bill here Thursday night, by scores of 11 to 3 and 9 to 0.

Dick Campbell, Tribe second baseman, was the big gun at the plate, smacking a triple in the first game to drive in two runs and getting another three-bagger in the second contest. It was good for three runs.

Lafy Hill Reed and Israel Ten were the winning pitchers. Reed whiffed seven in hurling his sixth win as against 13 losses. Ten, in hurling his third straight shut-out, fanned only three but had near perfect control. He walked only one man.

Midland scored eight runs with a sixth-inning explosion in the first contest, breaking a 2-2 tie that had existed since the third inning. No less than 13 Indians came to bat in the frame, with Campbell's triple and doubles by Scooter Hughes and Kenney Jones instrumental in the scoring.

In the second game, the Indians led it away for keeps in the last inning, after posting an early lead. Campbell's triple with the bases loaded, a double by Rudy Escobar and a single by Stan Wilcox accounted for the five tallies.

The twin win moved Midland a full game ahead of the Vernon Dusters, separating the Indians in sixth place. Roswell and Midland meet here Friday night in a single contest, the last regular-season tilt for both teams.

Big Lake Eleven Has 14 Lettermen

By LARRY KING
 Reporter-Telegram Staff
 BIG LAKE—So McCamey and Wink will fight for the District 5-A title this year with little outside competition? Brother, have you heard of the Big Lake Owls? Unheralded and overlooked by grid forecasters, the Owls just might slip up on someone's blind side. Coach Franklin Horton has no less than 14 lettermen with which to fight his 5-A battles.

To be sure, the Owls will field a light team and its admitted long shot to say they'll be in there knocking at the door during the conference season. But, at least, the experience is there and with no pressure, the Owls just might have a lot to say about the eventual crown-wearer.

 DETROIT—(NEA)—Ted Generalo, recruit end of the National Football League Lions, earned three letters at Pittsburgh although he didn't play high school ball.
 The University of Colorado is the only newcomer to the Michigan State football schedule this fall.

KING'S ROW
 BY LARRY KING
 The overall look is for a light, fast team which could and probably will win some games. It is slated to lose — but because of the size, a title isn't looming in the immediate picture.

Sinton Oilers Win National Tourney
 WICHITA, KAN.—P—The Sinton, Texas, Oilers are the new National Semipro Baseball Tournament Champions, ending a four-year reign by an Indiana team.
 Sinton won the title Thursday night by beating the Atwater, Calif., Packers, 3-0, to end the lengthy double-elimination tournament.
 Port Wayne, Indiana, had held the championship four years in succession but this year it failed to reach even the semi-finals.
 It was the first time a Texas team won the title in the 17-year history of the meet.
 A field of 32 teams started the tournament three weeks ago.

Borger, Abilene Sweep Twin Bills
By The Associated Press
 The West Texas-New Mexico season ends Friday night.
 Borger and Abilene swept doubleheaders Thursday night. Borger squeaked by Pampa, 7-8, in the first game of that card, then romped to a 12-4 victory. Abilene bested Clovis, 5-3 and 9-8.
 Albuquerque shaded Lamesa, 3-1, in a thriller, and Lubbock went 10 innings to nose out Amarillo, 14-11.

Seminole Loses Two Tackles From Football Squad
SEMINOLE — Seminole's grid hopes received a severe jolt Friday when Coach Bill Zoller dropped Clarence Smith, a three-letterman tackle from the squad, and Bill Trammell, a tackle in from the B team received an injury.
 Smith refused to carry out Zoller's orders in workouts, according to reports, and was banished from the squad. He was dropped once last year, but later was reinstated.
 The double-loss of tackles left the Indians with only three—one a letterman, one a converted halfback and one an inexperienced freshman.

ARMY'S HOPE—Candidates for West Point's football squad leave the campus gymnasium on their way to the practice field under the scrutiny of fellow cadets. Fifty-two of them, half the normal number of tryouts, are faced with the rugged task of replacing the powerful team which was wiped out by a wave of expulsions following the recent cribbing scandal. Top Teams Rained Out In Majors

By The Associated Press
 The major league pennant chases were stalled Thursday by rain. The interruption was hardest for the New York Yankees and the Boston Red Sox, who now must play eight games against each other in 10 days.
 A doubleheader between the Yanks and the Red Sox was rained out. Pace-setting Cleveland was not scheduled.
 Rain wiped out games between front-running Brooklyn and Philadelphia and the runner-up New York Giants and the Boston Braves in the National League.
 The St. Louis Cards trimmed the Chicago Cubs, 10-2, in one of the two National League games getting into the books. The Pittsburgh Pirates downed the Cincinnati Reds, 7-4, in the other.
 The Chicago White Sox trounced the St. Louis Browns, 9-4, in the only American League game. Washington at Philadelphia was rained out.

200 Grid Games On Tap Friday For Schoolboys
By The Associated Press
 Three games Thursday night opened the Texas schoolboy football campaign. More than 200 contests are on Friday night.
 Headlining the card will be the Denison-Port Arthur game at Port Arthur in the super AAAA division. Both teams are among the top-rated eleven of the state.
 In Class AAA, New Braunfels entertains Wharton, the champion of Class A last year but now in Class AA. New Braunfels and Wharton were ranking powers of the A division until a reclassification this season put them in different classes.
 New Braunfels plays at Wharton Friday night.
 Mission, a class AA team, stunned San Juan-Alamo of Class AAA, 13-7, Thursday night.
 In Class AA, Nederland lost to independent Bishop Byrne of Feet Arthur, 36-6.
 In Class B Stinnett licked Perryton's B team, 27-0.

Ten-Foot Models Of Planes, Missiles Of Future Zoom Into The Atlantic At 3,000 Miles An Hour

WALLOP'S ISLAND, VA.—(NEA)—Scale models of the 300-mile-an-hour airplanes and guided missiles of the future are being fired at this lonely sand spit on the Atlantic ocean. It is in the heart of Virginia's famed Cincoague oyster beds.

Until now the experiments have been carried on here by scientists of the National Advisory Committee on Aeronautics in almost oyster-like secrecy. Even the natives of this area haven't been too sure of what has been going on at Wallop's Island.

It can now be told, however, that five to 10-foot models for jet fighters like the Air Force's F-91 and XF-92A, the Navy's delta-wing XF-4d, and the ultra-fast research airplanes like the X-2 and X-3, have been tested at this research center.

It takes five years or more to develop a new airplane. The tests made here at Wallop's Island are in the intermediate stage of that development.

First come the tests of tiny scale models in wind tunnels. Then come tests with larger models in free flight. They help determine such characteristics as wing lift, drag and resistance to roll. This data paves the way for final tests with full size models at proving grounds like Muroc Lake, Calif.

It is hard to believe that the flights of the models fired at Wallop's Island last only a minute or less. In that time they may attain a speed four times the speed of light. They may reach an altitude of 20,000 to 30,000 feet—over five miles. Some go 100,000 feet up—20 miles.

The flights are powered by small rockets, sometimes assisted by additional booster rockets for an initial take-off. The fuel is a rapid burning combination of nitroglycerine and nitrocellulose. This charge, which goes off with a tremendous whoosh and roar, may burn for only three seconds. But in that period it develops a 6000-pound thrust.

At the end of each test flight, the models fall into the Atlantic Ocean, 10 to 20 miles off shore. No effort is made to recover the models. Each one serves a different purpose. Each model therefore has to be different, and old models that have served their purpose are no good.

In the half-minute upward flight of each model, it provides technical data that engineers may take. A highly ingenious radio transmission sends technical data from the model itself, and it is recorded on high speed moving picture film on boys-sized "mechanical brains." The flights are also tracked by automatic radar gear.

Each model is a jewel-like model of technical precision. As much as 2,000 man-hours may go into the building of each test model. Two or more designers may be assigned to a project, such as determining proper wing thickness, shape or degree of sweep-back for supersonic flight.

They may work for six months getting their model ready. This is done at the Langley Field NACA Laboratory. The flight itself, lasting less than a minute, is followed by still longer translation of results into working models.

Much of the data is highly classified, particularly on guided missiles. But two general conclusions

Wings for tomorrow: A delta-wing research model of what may some day be a fighter plane is prepared for launching at the NACA pilotless aircraft research station on the Virginia coast.

Tracking The Future: The radar unit these men operate at Wallop's Island, Va., provides running record of the 3000-mile-an-hour speed of scale models of planes and rockets.

The mentors explained the high school athletic program at MHS and gave an account of individual boys who will play for Midland this season.

DANES HAVE PROBLEMS

NEW YORK —(AP)—Hamlet, the melancholy Dane, still has a lot of relatives in Denmark. The suicide rate in Denmark is far higher than in Holland or Finland, and so is addiction to drugs, says a report of Dr. Alf Yde in the journal of the American Medical Association. He says this indicates a far higher incidence of mental depression in Denmark.

The first broadcast from the Metropolitan Opera House in New York took place on Jan. 13, 1910 to some 50 listeners in a Times Square Hotel, according to G. L. Archer's "History of Radio to 1926."

Red Charges—

denial of Red charges that South Korean troops killed Red military police in the neutral zone on August 19 and 20.

Said Nam Friday: "No denials of facts can free your side from the serious responsibility that you must bear for these two incidents. Our side has adequate witnesses and material evidence to confirm the inescapable responsibility of your side."

No New Site Named
Responsible Allied sources still had no indication what site might be suggested by the UN command for resumption of the talks, broken off by the Reds August 23.

Friday, an "unofficial" release from Ridgway's headquarters said "Kaesong has gone from bad to worse to incredible as a conference site."

It insisted: "Just one way remains for the armistice conference to get back on the track of common sense and real accomplishment."

"This is the move the whole conference, now completely blocked by Communist passion for lies and fraudulent accusations, out of Kaesong."

"Red control of Kaesong is the real basis of power the enemy exerts through garbled charges. xxx"

City Budget—Services Slated In New Crane Church

where the major increase has been made," Oswald said.

Lower Tax Rate
While the budget has been increased substantially, Oswald said it was based on a lower tax rate. The cut in tax rates is from $1.75 to $1.45 per $100 valuation.

Oswald attributed the decrease in tax rates to three things, principally cost of operating the city government has been decreased so that each individual contributes less for upkeep.

The Water Department now is self-sustaining and is paying its own way.

Midland Air Terminal, only other business venture of the city, has had its operating costs cut $30,000 a year while its income has been increased $15,000.

The 30-cent reduction in the city tax rate brings it near the 1946 level of $1.40. In 1947, it was $1.40; 1948, $1.80; 1949, $1.75; 1950, $1.75; and 1951, $1.45.

Oswald said the tax reduction for the most part could be based on the fact that the city carries out its operations like any other private business.

Included in the new budget will be a flat $20-a-month pay increase for city employes.

Bus Line—

legal interpretation of the charter provision.

Thomason and Acklund said they felt the charter possibly might allow them to get an option from the city to continue the bus line after the five-year franchise was up.

If an agreement is reached with the city council, the bus line would start operating from 60 to 90 days after the approval.

Five new 31-passenger buses would operate over four routes, according to the tentative schedule.

Such service would operate from 6:30 a.m. until 7 p.m. on weekdays and Saturday. The line would run a special schedule for football games and other such events.

Service would be extended, as business demanded, they said.
