Flood Waters Sweep South Texas Cities

KINGSVILLE, TEXAS.—(AP)—Kingsville sheltered hundreds in refugee centers and prepared for its worst flood in history Saturday night.

Tranquitas Creek, fed by two days of torrential rains, was a half-mile wide at points in the northern part of the city. It swirled into six or eight hundred homes—three to four feet deep in most houses, six feet deep in some.

All trucks available were called to help get families out of their flooded homes. Kingsville is a city of some 15,000 population in South Texas, 44 miles southwest of Corpus Christi.

Water at Weslaco was reported draining "pretty fast" Saturday night, but four or five inches still remained in some homes. Almost 250 persons were reported out of their homes, and 50 to 60 families were housed for the night in a Catholic church.

The International Boundary and Water Commission at San Benito warned that the Rio Grande would approach flood stage in the lower valley Sunday morning or during the day. A 20-foot rise was reported at Falcon Dam, up the river toward Laredo.

Not much damage was expected in the lower valley because of flood-control works. (Continued On Page Four)

Governor, Appeals Court Act In Cases Of Condemned Men

AUSTIN.—(AP)—The governor and the Court of Criminal Appeals acted in two separate death cases Saturday.

The Court of Criminal Appeals ruled it had no further jurisdiction in the case of Albert Edwards. He had been saved from the electric chair August 29 by a combination bench warrant and last minute stay of execution.

Gov. Allan Shivers granted another 30-day stay of execution for Bob Wall, who had been scheduled for execution September 18.

In the Edwards case, the appeals court wrote no formal opinion. It just sent back to San Antonio District Court an appeal from a habeas corpus action lost there by Edwards with the notation, "No jurisdiction."

Edwards was sentenced to death for the fatal shooting of Paul Walker in Houston May 26, 1949. His new execution date is September 29.

Wall was under death sentence for slaying 66-year-old Jacob Coleman in Waco in August, 1950. Wall had been granted a stay of execution July 14. The next execution date is October 19.

Awakes In World Upside Down, And There's A Reason BALTIMORE.—(AP)—When Roy Rodgers woke up Saturday, the world was upside down, he was chilly and there was a pain in his right ankle.

He was dangling by one foot from a second story window in his underwear. "I had a nightmare," he told police later. "Two men were after me. I didn't know what happened until the window dropped on my right ankle and it started to hurt."

The unnamed pilot, anticipating a wave-off, got a signal to cut his motor. He dove for the deck, hitting at an angle and striking an arresting wire so violently it broke the plane in two. The front half of the plane churned through three barriers before finally coming to a halt.

Building Permits Soar $757,450 In Single Week Here

Midland, one of the few cities in Texas showing any great gain in construction during 1951 as compared with 1950, posted a whopping $757,450 in building permits issued last week to bring the year's total to $9,771,080.

At this time last year the total was $7,078,921. Last week, R. J. Stone was issued a permit for a four-unit, two-story, brick veneer apartment house with accessory building at 501-507 Estes Street, costing $140,000.

Twenty-eight permits, each $4,900, for frame houses in the 3100 and 3200 blocks of Roosevelt Street were issued to Raymond Thomason, Sr.

The permit for a $125,000 addition to the South Elementary School was issued to P. C. Gibson, builder for the Midland Independent School District.

Whitmor Home Builders Association received permits, each $7,000 for 13 masonry and frame residences in the 400 block of East Spruce in the Loma Linda Addition.

A $75,000 permit was issued to Houston Hill, builder for St. Andrews Presbyterian Church, for a new church plant north of the David Crockett School. The structure will be 93 by 87 feet, of masonry construction.

Brick Veneer Residence G. C. Ponder, builder for B. L. McFarland, took out a permit for a $40,000 brick veneer residence at 1506 Cuthbert Street, and Franklin Davidson, builder for G. M. Graham, was issued a permit for a following a mass break at Draper Prison.

Hundreds of law enforcement officers pressed the manhunt into nearby streets for the fugitives, believed to be heavily armed. In all, 19 prisoners got away Friday night from the prison at Spangerville, Ala., after the guard on the gate to the cellblock was knocked unconscious.

Eight convicts had been rounded up by noon Saturday. State Prison Director J. M. McCullough promptly fired two front tower guards, promising a crack-down on prisoners and a general tightening up in the guard system.

There might have been even more trouble had not the Draper warden walked into the corridor of the main cell block and ordered hundreds of prisoners who were milling about back into their cells.

11 Convicts Still Being Sought After Mass Prison Break MONTGOMERY, ALA.—(AP)—Eleven convicts, including two convicted murderers serving life and one of Alabama's most notorious desperadoes, still were at large Saturday following a mass break at Draper Prison.

Hundreds of law enforcement officers pressed the manhunt into nearby streets for the fugitives, believed to be heavily armed.

Time Short For Arming, NATO Told

OTTAWA.—(AP)—Secretary of State Dean Acheson was reported Saturday night to have called on the North Atlantic Treaty Organization (NATO) Council in blunt words to get to the business of arming against aggression or run the risk of being too late.

An informed source said Acheson told a secret meeting of the 12-nation council, "The time is running short."

The disclosure of the Acheson talk came as the council decided to have a night session in an effort to conclude its review of the world situation on its opening day here. Talks start Monday.

It will be in position then to begin discussion Monday on an agenda adopted Saturday afternoon. British Foreign Secretary Herbert Morrison and French Foreign Minister Robert Schuman also spoke at the afternoon closed session. Acheson gave the council a review of the American-British-French talks held in Washington.

The council agreed to take up a U. S. proposal that Greece and Turkey be brought into the defense alliance to safeguard the Eastern Mediterranean against aggression.

The council president, Paul Van Zeeland of Belgium, warned the council earlier that war may come before the Atlantic defense force is ready unless delays and deficiencies are eliminated quickly.

Delegates arriving at the Parliament buildings had to skirt around a Communist picket line, bearing anti-American slogans and urging Canada not to conscript soldiers for use in support of U. S. ventures.

Document Sealing Rites Slated Monday WASHINGTON.—(AP)—The United States Constitution and the Declaration of Independence are about to get protection at last from the "natural enemies" that slowly but surely have been destroying them.

On Monday, in a ceremony President Truman plans to attend, the precious parchment documents will be sealed in gas-filled glass-and-bronze cases designed to keep them in the present state of preservation for centuries.

Shapely Blonde Who Caused It All Visits Beaten Actor Franchot Tone Via Hospital's Fire Escape HOLLYWOOD.—(AP)—Shapely Barbara Payton climbed a fire escape and pushed her way into Franchot Tone's hospital room Saturday in defiance of orders from the actor's physician.

The blonde for whom Tone took a severe beating early Friday from muscular Tom Neal spent two hours in the room. For part of the time Tone's special nurse allowed her to visit him alone.

Accompanied by a friend, Jerry Blais, Miss Payton also left Tone's second-floor room at California Hospital via the fire escape.

Meanwhile, detectives and reporters fanned in the corridor. They were abiding by the edict of Dr. Leo E. Siegel that Tone wasn't ready for visitors yet.

The first visitor giving Tone's side of the Friday morning fracas came late Saturday from one of his attorneys, Kenneth N. Chantry. He also got in to see the actor briefly.

At Least 20 Hurt In Air Show Mishap

FLAGLER, COLO.—(AP)—Nineteen persons were killed and at least 20 others hurt Saturday afternoon as a low flying airplane cartwheeled into a crowd of a thousand persons at an air show.

The disaster turned this prosperous Eastern Colorado farming town of 793 into a center of grief, sorrow and confusion as hearses and ambulances sirened to and from the airport.

Witnesses said the plane, a low wing monoplane, was doing a snap roll when a wing snagged either on the ground or a car and smashed across the packed spectators and mangled automobiles.

One wing and the landing gear was sheared off on the first row of cars. The engine hit the second row of cars, and the tail assembly came around and hit the third row of vehicles. Most of the dead and injured were in cars. At least nine children were among the dead. One woman 100 feet away from the plane was injured by flying fragments as it disintegrated.

"I could see parts of the plane fly over the cars," said the Rev. Edward Dinan, Flagler Catholic priest. "The plane more or less splintered into bits." He moved among the dead, dying and injured, offering aid and comfort.

Like End of World Denver Post Reporter William J. Barker said the "chaos that followed is beyond description. Children died beside their parents. Women could be heard screaming the names of loved ones." It was like the end of the world.

Farmers moved in with pick-up trucks to evacuate dead and injured before ambulances arrived. Crowds gathered at the Flagler Hospital. Motorists drove amiably up and down the streets.

Barker said the pilot, Lt. Norman L. Jones of Lowry Air Force Base, near Denver, was no more than 200 feet off the ground and upside down when he started to roll over in the civilian plane.

"But he never did go up," Barker said. "He went straight for the mass." (Continued On Page Four)

Special November Elections Called In 11 Texas Districts

AUSTIN.—(AP)—Gov. Allan Shivers Saturday called special elections November 13 in 11 legislative districts to fill vacancies in the House of Representatives.

His action was expected to stir up interest in the people's vote of five constitutional amendments which will be held the same day over the state.

The legislative elections will be in these districts (with name of resigned House members and counties): District 11, Paul S. Wilson (San Augustine and Sabine); District 29, M. B. Etheredge, Jr. (Walker and San Jacinto); District 42F, William A. Swindell (Rains and Hunt); District 46, Austin E. Westbrook (Cooke); District 61, Jimmy Adams (Limestone); District 84F, William R. Stump (Burnet and Williamson); District 86, Callan Graham (Bandera, Crockett, Edwards, Kerr, Kinney, Mason, Menard, Real, Schleicher, Sutton); District 84, Earl Huddleston (Hamilton and Frey); District 97, Hiram Steton (McLennan, Falls); District 111, Vernon McDaniel (Wichita, Place 2); District 114, John E. Morris, Jr. (Foard, Hardeman, King and Knox).

Midlander Named Treasurer Of Oil Marketing Group

HOUSTON.—(AP)—E. D. Chapman, Sherman, is the new president of the Petroleum Marketers Association of Texas.

He was elected at the close of Saturday's business session. Other officers are J. E. Reese, Nacogdoches, first vice president; C. R. Fitzpatrick, Edinburg, second vice president, and Richard Hinkle, Midland, treasurer. Eight new directors also were chosen.

The wholesalers went on record as opposing the government's move to put them under the Fair Labor Standards Act in one of several resolutions passed at the final session.

Charles A. Lyons, Shreveport, said oil depletion allowances should be raised to conform with the present higher costs of bringing in new oil.

LATE NEWS FLASHES

TOKYO.—(AP)—Red propagandists Sunday charged new Allied violations of the Kaesong neutrality zone, further dimming prospects of any resumption of the suspended Korean armistice talks.

BEAUMONT.—(AP)—Kathleen Doucet, three-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Doucet of LaBelle, near Beaumont, died Saturday night in a hospital here, eight hours after being bitten by a five-foot rattlesnake at her home Saturday afternoon.

BOISE, IDAHO.—(AP)—Eleven federal prisoners, enroute from Kansas to McNeil Island Prison in Washington, escaped from the Canyon County jail at Caldwell Saturday night, the Ada County sheriff's office reported.

Constitution Day Ceremony Slated

PEEOS.—(AP)—Ceremonies commemorating Constitution Day will be held at 9 a.m. Monday in the U. S. District Courtroom here, Federal Judge R. E. Thomason of El Paso said Saturday.

U. S. Attorney General McGrath has requested all federal courts in session that day to observe Constitution Day.

Speakers for the occasion will be Charles F. Herring, Austin attorney recently appointed U. S. attorney for the Western District of Texas; Herring's assistant, Francis C. Broadman, Midland attorney.

A naturalization class for aliens seeking to become U. S. citizens will follow the ceremony.

Wichita Wolves Get Going Early

WICHITA FALLS.—(AP)—The football season has just started, but Coach Joe Golding was hung in effigy Friday night.

Golding is coach of the Wichita Falls Coyote football team, 1950 Texas schoolboy champions. Friday night, the Coyotes dropped a 6-6 decision to Vernon.

The effigy was found hanging from a water tower back of Coyote Stadium Saturday. Attached to the figure was a placard with Joe Golding's name on it.

Hollywood.—(AP)—Shapely Barbara Payton climbed a fire escape and pushed her way into Franchot Tone's hospital room Saturday in defiance of orders from the actor's physician.

The blonde for whom Tone took a severe beating early Friday from muscular Tom Neal spent two hours in the room. For part of the time Tone's special nurse allowed her to visit him alone.

ADMITTED TO HOSPITAL
Mrs. Irene Luce, Midland, was admitted to Midland Memorial Hospital Friday for minor surgery.

MEDICAL PATIENT
Calvin Ray Lockett, 500 South Adams Street is a medical patient at Midland Memorial Hospital.

1,500 School Pupils Tested In First Week Of Health Program

The Midland Public School Health Program for 1951-52 is now in progress and 1,500 children have been checked for defects in vision and hearing during the last week.

Mrs. Enzema Pierce and Mrs. Marjorie Hendrick direct the testing program.

Mrs. Pierce Thursday completed Snellen eye tests for all except first grade pupils at North Elementary School. First grade students will be tested later in the year.

Every child enrolled in the Midland public schools will have the opportunity to take part in this phase of the program during the year.

Mrs. Hendrick administered the audiometer test to eighth grade students at Junior High School and to Senior High school students.

School officials emphasized the purpose of the tests is to detect, not treat, defects of vision and hearing. Results of the tests are revealed only to parents. Children needing further diagnosis and treatment should be taken to the family physician.

First aid supplies also were provided all schools last week as a part of the health program. An announcement that nurses would be available for emergency duties at the schools was made.

WEEKEND VISIT TO DELEON
Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Madderra and son, Harold, are spending the weekend in DeLeon visiting Mrs. Madderra's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Hunsinger.

The chief ports of Israel are Haifa and Jaffa. Tel Aviv accommodates light draft vessels.

National Kids Day Program Set Here

Next Saturday will be National Kids Day.

In Midland, the Kiwanis Club will be host to youngsters of junior high school age and younger in a downtown special movie. Kiwanis International sponsors National Kids Day.

Jim Wheeler, chairman of arrangements for the Midland club, said the young guests will meet at the junior high school at 9:30 a.m. Saturday. With the junior high band in the lead, they will parade to the Yucca Theater where the show will begin at 10 a.m.

Neurological Surgeon To Address Medical Society Meet Here

Dr. William M. McKinney of Fort Worth, neurological surgeon, will be guest speaker at a meeting of the Six-County Medical Society in Midland at 7:30 p.m. Thursday in Hotel Scharbauer.

Dr. McKinney's subject will be "Surgical Treatment of Intractable Pain."

A special guest at the meeting will be Dr. Allen T. Stewart of Lubbock, president of the Texas Medical Association.

Dr. Lex Smith of Midland is secretary of the six-county society, which includes physicians of Midland, Ector, Howard, Martin, Glasscock and Andrews Counties.

MEDICAL PATIENT
Mrs. Gene Ellis, 904 West Broadway Street, entered Midland Memorial Hospital Friday as a medical patient.

May McAvoy, Early Film Star, Now Doing Bit-Parts For MGM

By ERSKINE JOHNSON
NEA Staff Correspondent
HOLLYWOOD — Movies Without Popcorn:

The clock's been turned back to the era when rugged profile boys tenored "I love you" and aristocratic movie queens sounded like Judy Holiday on the set of MGM's "Singin' in the Rain."

It's a musical about the advent of sound movies and low-slung limousines and autos of the period. Everything except Jack Benny's Maxwell is driven up to a replica of Grauman's Chinese Theater. Gene Kelly, Jean Hagen, Donald O'Connor and Debbie Reynolds are the principals pretending to be stars of 1927 attending a gala premiere.

Among the people lined up on the street, I notice a familiar face and do a double-take. May McAvoy, a high-powered star of the '20s, is working as an extra today.

It was in 1927 that "The Jazz Singer" was premiered and May herself trod the plush carpet and listened to the wild cheers of the public. Now she's just another dim face in the background of a Hollywood movie.

The rain machines are spewing water over Clifton Webb in Fox's "Eloquence" and the celluloid Mr. Belvedere shiveringly speaks his lines to Anne Francis, William Lundigan and Evelyn Varden. The moment the scene is finished, Webb starts for his dressing room.

"This picture," he snaps through the chattering of his teeth, "should be called 'The Frogmen and Girls.'"

Quiet Puhlease
A comedy sequence in a bar near an Army camp is being filmed for Sam Goldwyn's "I Want You" and I watch Farley Granger, as a private, work with Martin Milner, Peggy Maley and Ann Robin. Behind them soldiers and pretty extra girls jitterbug, but there is no foot-shuffling.

Later I find out that all the dancers have been equipped with felt overshoes so that the dialog spoken by Farley can be heard on the sound track.

Even an atomic bomb wouldn't dare make a sound exploding in Hollywood if a big star was speaking an important line.

Two screen newcomers, Cleo Moore and Ken Garcia, are playing a torrid love scene in Hugo Haas' third independent production, "Thy Neighbor's Wife," at Motion Picture Center.

The story takes place in Morocco in 1941 and it is clear from the dialog and action that Cleo is enacting the role of a highly "Amber"-dextrous man-killer.

Haas supervises a kiss of the Garbo-Gilbert variety, with Cleo bending over Ken's face. But first Haas orders her to push back her blonde braids so that moviegoers will get a peek at her camisole.

"We want people to see what's important," he explains.

Just A Day's Work

Ida Lupino and Robert Ryan play a tense, hair-raising scene in "Days Without End" on the RKO lot and even onlookers who are aware of the camera and crew are caught up in the make-believe of the two stars.

It's the yarn about a widow who is held prisoner in her own home by a maniacal killer.

Audiences who see this movie will be held in the grip of the scene a little longer than the set observers, however.

The moment the action is over, Ida, a terrorized woman a few seconds before, announces:

"I'm going to my dressing room to get my feet massaged. They're killing me."

Judy Canova is grinning as a rowdy barroom brawl sequence for her new starring film, "Oklahoma Annie," is being rehearsed at Republic. She points out an Amazonic blonde bit player, who has been swinging a balis wood axe too realistically and already has knocked out a male extra.

A few moments later, Director R. G. Springsteen and Associate Producer Sidney Pickler go into a huddle about the enthusiastic axe-swinging.

"Take away the axe from that dame before she kills somebody," Pickler finally orders. "This is 'Oklahoma Annie,' not 'Oklahoma Lizzie Borden.'"

BETTY THURMAN NAMED NAZARENE YOUTH PREXY
Betty Thurman has been named president of the recently organized High School Nazarene Young People's Service of the Church of the Nazarene. Sherlene Marlow was appointed secretary-treasurer, and the director is Mrs. Louie Barron.

The group meets for a program at 7 p.m. each Sunday in the church. The adult NYPS also meets at 7 p.m. each Sunday.

Thailand has an area of 200,148 square miles and a population of 17,977,000, about 4,000,000 more people than live in Canada.

Texas Construction Awards Dip Sharply
AUSTIN—(P)—Contracts totaling $13,024,444 for all types of building were let in Texas last week, three million under the week before.

Total for the year so far is $792,814,444. Residential building accounted for about two and a half million dollars last week. The Texas Contractor reported. Non-residential was on top with nine million plus.

Correct name of the jackrabbit is prairie hare.

Dirt, Squirt and Quirt

— FARM, DAIRY AND RANCH NEWS —

The market was steady to fairly active on 820 head consigned at the Midland Livestock Auction Company sale Thursday. Prices were little changed from the week before. Fat calves and yearlings brought $32 to $35, mediums $19 to $23, commons and culls sold from $23 to $28. Fat cows were bid from $23 to $27, canners and cutters $13 to $19, and bulls sold from $23 to $27.50.

Better grade stocker calves brought $34 to $39 and cow and calf pairs moved at $200 upward.

Eighty conservation plans covering 54,204 acres of farm and ranch land, were approved by supervisors of the Martin-Howard Soil Conservation District at their regular meeting last week.

The supervisors also discussed the wind erosion problem and agreed to encourage district cooperators to leave crop residues and plant winter cover crops.

They further set October 2 as the date for an election to name a new supervisor for Zone Three, Howard County, and authorized the purchase of a grass seed drill and power mower to be used by farmers and ranchers in Midland County.

Supervisors attending the meeting were Edgar Phillips, Morris Patterson and Warren Skaggs. W. S. Goodlett, Jr., and Calvin C. Boykin, Jr., of the Soil Conservation Service also attended the session.

Phillips, incidentally, has conducted an interesting experiment on his farm land this year. Grain sorghum crop residue from last year was worked into the soil, and this year planted in cotton. An adjoining field was devoted to cotton in 1950 and 1951. He says the rotated land is four times better than where cotton is planted following cotton.

This first bale of cotton business really is something up Lubbock way. A world's record price of $3.70 a pound was paid by Bob Wombie, automobile dealer, for Lubbock County's first 1951 bale of cotton, grown by Carter Caldwell, Slaton farmer, at an auction held last week in Lubbock. The record-shattering price exceeded the $3.01 a pound paid for the first bale to be received in Houston this year.

But the $3.70 a pound wasn't all the lucky Slaton farmer received. He got $1,724.80 in cash premiums and merchandise awards raised by the Lubbock Chamber of Commerce, auction merchants and the Slaton C. of C. The premiums, with the $1,850 Caldwell received for the bale of cotton, ran his take to $3,913.80.

It was the idea of the Lubbock Jaycees to beat the Houston price, and sure enough, they did—much to the delight of one Carter Caldwell, who thought it was a mighty fine idea. Caldwell, by the way, is 32 years of age. The Jaycee age limit is 35 years. Maybe the Lubbock Jaycees can get a membership fee out of the deal anyway.

They also did pretty well for the Howard County farmer who produced the county's first bale, at a recent auction held in Big Spring, under Chamber of Commerce sponsorship. The sale-premium price there was $1.70 a pound.

Jimmie Greene, veteran manager of the Big Spring C. of C., tried a new plan in that city's first bale auction. It seems an alarm clock was set to go off during the auction, with the premium bidder making the last bid at the sound of the gong getting the bale of cotton. It so happened at Big Spring that the bale of cotton cost the last bidder only $5. Bidders, incidentally, paid the difference between the previous bid and their bid. Pretty good gamble.

The first Martin County bale brought $1.10 a pound, and the first Midland bale, $1.

Someone remarked it looks like Midland County's first bale might be its last bale also. Pretty short crop over all this section.

George Grayum, chairman of the Retailers Committee of the Midland Chamber of Commerce, declined Delbert Downing's invitation to auction the first bale here. Grayum said he has helped pick many a bale of cotton, but he never tried auctioning it.

might good while it lasted the other night. The only trouble was it didn't last long enough and didn't cover enough country. But the rainfall was appreciated where it fell. And some mighty dry spots got a taste of it.

Some spots around Crane received as much as three inches of moisture in last week's "rainy" spell. There reportedly is one small spot in the Crane area which received six inches of rain during August. Nice moisture if you can get it.

DSQ almost has given up, but not quite, in predicting a general rain for West Texas. Last week's showers were most encouraging, so now we come out with a "reliable" forecast. Here it is... General rains will drench this country by October 1, 1951. Ho-hum...

Tony, the original "Old Gray Mare" in Ken Boen's well-known rodeo comedy act, died of pneumonia recently. He was 18 years old. Ken performed in the World Championship Midland Rodeo last June, his act being one of the best ever presented here.

Homer Pettigrew of Chandler, Ariz., well-known in Midland rodeo circle, was the top money winner at the recent Boulder, Colo., rodeo.

Farm and Ranch land prices in Texas rose an average of 12 per cent during 1950, the Associated Press reports in a story from College Station.

The figure is based on a study made by the U. S. Department of Agriculture and the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station in 24 representative counties.

The study also showed that the number of land transfers increased by 20 per cent over 1949 and the acreage changing hands increased by more than 50 per cent.

A substantial decline in the average selling price occurred in the Panhandle wheat area, the Edwards Plateau and Central Basin, and the Northeast sandy lands, and a slight drop occurred in the High Plains and Trans-Pecos grazing area.

The largest increases occurred in the Grand Prairie, with 49 per cent; the Rolling Plains, with 36 per cent; and the North-Central grazing area, with 31 per cent. Gains of 20 per cent or more occurred in seven other areas.

Price Spread Narrows

The economists report that since 1939, the beginning of the rise in land prices, a narrowing of the price spread between the "best" and the "poorest" land has been noted in most areas of the state.

In a special study made of the 1950 land market in Jones, Ellis and Nacogdoches Counties, farmers who owned other land were found to be the chief buyers of land, as has been the case throughout the World War II and postwar periods.

The number of sales increased 60 per cent in Ellis County over the 1949 level and acreage sold almost doubled. In Jones and Nacogdoches Counties there was little difference in the number of sales and average sold during 1949 and 1950.

The average price of land in Jones County increased $21 per acre over 1949, an increase of about one-third. A slight drop in the average price occurred in Nacogdoches County, while prices in Ellis County continued a steady increase that has been underway since 1942.

Teddy Phillips Orchestra To Appear Here Wednesday

Teddy Phillips and his nationally-known orchestra will be in Midland Wednesday night for one performance with an all-star cast of entertainers from stage, screen, radio and television.

The orchestra leader claims to be second only to Wayne King as the vaude king. The 14 musicians feature a violin section which tends to make the music soft and sweet.

Along with Phillips on the variety bill will be Charlie Aarons, master of ceremonies; Jimmy Vey, with something different in his xylophone musical arrangements; Mack Russ and Owens Trio, a comedy team which recently completed a tour with Edgar Bergen and Charlie McCarthy; Lynn Hoyt, pretty and talented vocalist; Harris and Shore, comedy dance team; the Langs, acrobatic sextet; and Professor Backwards, claimed to be one of the finest comedy acts. The professor has mastered the spelling and pronouncing of the language in reverse.

Also featured will be the George Moro Dancers, a line of pretty dancing girls.

This musical variety production is sponsored by the Midland Shrine Club. The show will begin at 8:30 p.m.

LAUGHS AND GASPS—The Langs, a sextet of entertainers who will appear in Midland Wednesday night in the Midland High School Auditorium with the Teddy Phillips variety stage show. The Midland presentation is sponsored by the Shrine Club. The Langs, with their acrobatic somersault, balance routines and clowning keep their audiences gasping one moment and laughing the next.

Army Has New Theme In Campaign To Get Officer Candidates

"Now you can be an officer" is the theme of the U. S. Army's new drive to secure large numbers of urgently-needed officers. Sgt. TC Shelby Wheeler, U. S. Army and Air Force recruiter for the Midland area, announced Saturday young men and women with a high school education or the equivalent may enter the Army's officer candidate schools directly from civilian life.

The first step is to contact the recruiting station where applicants will be told how to submit application and take the required physical and mental examinations. Those who pass these examinations may enlist specifically for the Army's officer candidate school. The civilian status of those who are not accepted is not affected in any way.

Those who complete the six months training and study as an officer candidate will be commissioned second lieutenants in the Organized Reserve Corps of the United States Army. To qualify, men must be 19 but not more than 28, and women 19 but not more than 27 when they enter officer candidate school. Officers commissioned under this program will serve at least two years of active duty with the Army. They will be assigned as officers to Army units in this country or overseas.

Camp For Migrant Workers Planned By Martin Farmers

STANTON—Martin County cotton farmers took steps Friday afternoon to ease their critical labor shortage. At a meeting in the district courtroom of the Martin County Courthouse here of more than 100 farmers, a committee was formed to make plans for an attractive migrant worker camp to be completed by spring. The farmers said most cotton harvesting labor had been bypassing Stanton's area.

Plans for the structure will be submitted to the board of directors of the Martin County Chamber of Commerce Oct. 4. Meanwhile, speakers said, farmers would depend upon Mexican Nationals to harvest this year's crop. James Jones, president of the Tarnan Marketing Association, said he hoped Mexican labor would be arriving this week. Whit McMorris, manager of the Tarnan association, is in charge of labor recruiting for this area.

Jones, in explaining the 1961 agreement between the Mexican and United States governments, urged the farmers to write their congressmen and the U.S. Department of Agriculture and ask that a person who actually employs Mexican labor take part in next year's negotiations. In 1960, it was revealed, it cost $14 to bring a Mexican national into this country. This year, the cost rose to $38.

Jones urged the farmers to study the use of mechanized cotton pickers. Welcomed by Mayor "The farmer mechanizes everything else but goes back to 'stool labor' to harvest cotton," he said. B. F. White presided at the session. The farmers were welcomed in an address by Mayor R. B. Whitaker, who also is president of the Martin County Chamber of Commerce. Whitaker pledged the Chamber of Commerce would work closely on any project to benefit Martin County as a whole.

A. E. Pittman, president of the Martin County Underground Water Conservation District, urged the farmers to organize to put over their programs and to make it more attractive to labor to work in the county.

The committee to draft plans for a labor camp includes County Agent Ralph Jones, representing the Martin County Farm Bureau; Joe Stewart, S. J. Forman, Jack Bentley and Jones, all representing the Chamber of Commerce; with Jones, McMorris and Pittman representing the Tarnan Marketing Association.

Thla Weathers, manager of the Chamber of Commerce, spoke on "Human Relations" and urged the farmers to look at the human aspect in employing workers. Greenville Auto Salesman Killed In Fight At Cafe GREENVILLE, TEXAS—A. C. D. Gary, about 33, was shot and killed after a fight in a cafe here Saturday. Officers arrested W. A. (Shorty) Waldrop, 32, Greenville, at the cafe. He was charged with murder and held in jail. Officers said he had made a statement. Gary was used as a salesman in Greenville. Witnesses said he was in the cafe drinking a cup of coffee when Waldrop came in and said a few words to him. When Gary got up to leave, they said, Waldrop stopped him and a fight followed. Gary was shot three times.

Radioactive Process Is Developed For Oil Well Acidizing Work

The successful application of radioactive isotopes to the control and evaluation of oil well acidizing work was announced by Dowell Incorporated. The isotopes, produced at the atomic energy plants at Oak Ridge, Tenn., are Iodine-131 (molecular weight 131). This announcement culminates more than a year of research which has been carried on jointly between Dowell and Radioactive Products, Inc., of Detroit.

Dowell has performed several acidizing treatments using the isotopes. These jobs were on wells in the Kansas City-Lanain and Ar-Jack limestones in West Kansas, and in the dolomitic wells in Oklahoma. ### Blonde—

(Continued From Page One) Tonia and Miss Payton were talking about. Newsmen at the hospital were unable to see Miss Payton's eyes because she was wearing glasses. But later agreed that if she had a black eye, she had done a neat job of concealing it with paint and powder. Earlier, Dr. Siegel said Tonia was showing satisfactory improvement from the mauling, but that he still was dazed.

"He remembers what happened, but is still hazy on details," Dr. Siegel told a reporter. Detective Sgt. A. W. Hubka asked if he could question Tonia and Dr. Siegel replied, "Perhaps tomorrow." The officer also asked if Tonia had made any request or prosecution of Neal. The doctor said Tonia hadn't mentioned it. "We're handicapped in our investigation because there hasn't been any formal complaint from the victim," Hubka explained. The officer criticized Dr. Siegel, saying he should have called police when he first was called to treat Tonia at Miss Payton's home.

May Be Sporting Shiner Dr. Siegel said Tonia's condition was such that he couldn't leave him to go to the phone, and he had asked Miss Payton to call the Hollywood Police Hospital. Apparently she didn't. Barbara, incidentally, suffered a bump over one eye when shoved by Neal. Dr. Siegel said he conceded she might be sporting a shiner. Neal claimed Tonia started the scrap with a wild haymaker, but Miss Payton declared Tonia "is not the sort of man who would strike anyone first."

Neal, a former Golden Gloves boxer and Northwestern University athlete, gave a graphic account of the embroglio which went along these lines: "He swung, I ducked and hit him with a right that knocked him back 10 feet. Then a left and a right, and a left and a right and a left and—he was out cold." "As Good As Ever" A neighbor said he heard "30 blows." Tonia suffered a brain concussion, a broken nose and cheekbone. It took two hours of surgery to patch up his face, but the doctor assured newsmen "He'll look as good as ever."

The Hollywood triangle came apart at the seams after several months of juggling by Miss Payton, in which first Tonia, then Neal, then Tonia again, appeared to be first in her affections. Neal and Miss Payton were scheduled to have been married Saturday in San Francisco. When Barbara went out with Tonia Thursday, Neal decided to keep a vigil at her home. He was waiting when the couple arrived in the wee hours Friday.

Tonia, 46, weighs 155 pounds; Neal, "about 35," is a well-muscled 180. Neal, a bar-bell advocate, is employed in "B" pictures calling for athletic skill. By mid-afternoon, skies were clearing over much of the lower Rio Grande Valley but the forecast was for more scattered rains. The rain which fell Friday night was spotted—very heavy in some areas, light only short distances away.

The U.S. Weather Bureau at Brownsville gave these rain figures for the 24 hours ended at 6:30 a.m. Saturday: Rio Grande City 2.20 inches, Mercedes 3.58, McAllen 2.45, Weslaco 4.80, Raymondville 1.88, Harlingen 2.88. It gave these figures for the three-day rains: Rio Grande City 6.40, Mercedes 3.23, McAllen 4.95, Raymondville 2.58, Harlingen 8.53 and Brownsville 3.10. Don Hinga of the Houston Chronicle reported after a flight over the flood area Friday that from Palacios to Alice, south through Falfurris to Corpus Christi and for 75 miles or so back toward Houston, "it looked like a vast rice field that had been irrigated a little to well."

Hinga quoted R. B. Horine, head of the Jim Wells County Red Cross, as saying about 600 persons were evacuated at Alice by trucks, boats, amphibious equipment from the Corpus Christi Naval Station, and cars. "If I ever heard anyone say again that we need a real hard rain," one Alice farmer told Hinga, "I'm gonna get my gun and shoot him."

Ezell Nominated As Kiwanis Prexy

Herschell Ezell, Midland insurance man, has been nominated as president of the Kiwanis Club. Ezell's name was submitted by the club's nominating committee and the election will be held Monday at the club's luncheon-meeting in Hotel Scharbauer. Other nominations by the committee included Reese Cleveland, first vice president; Oliver Haag, second vice president; and Lee Weathers, T. R. Hargrove and Tom Campbell, directors.

Flood—

(Continued From Page One) ways big enough to take care of the expected small overflow. No drownings in the South Texas area—where rains started floods at Alice Thursday—were reported. One man, Jose Hernandez Arredondo, 44, was killed at San Perilla, near Raymondville, Saturday, when he walked into a 10-foot line that had been struck by lightning and had fallen. Kingsville Police Chief Jack West said flood damage there already was "up in the millions." He said police boats had evacuated more than 200 families from their flooded homes. One hundred families were housed at the Kieberg School there.

West said water was flowing ten miles an hour and three feet deep through the sewage disposal plant, but so far no backwaters had developed to break down the sandbag system. Kingsville ran out of sandbags, and more were flown in. Using four rowboats, Weslaco volunteer firemen and national guardsmen evacuated marooned families to community welfare centers and to the St. John of Arc Catholic School. Widespread suffering was certain among low-income Latin American families, whose flimsy homes were worst hit. Many of Weslaco's 21,000 citizens are of Mexican descent.

Eleven-Inch Deluge The 11-inch deluge began about 9:30 p.m. Friday and continued without let-up until about 10 a.m. Saturday. Weslaco has no creek to carry off the water and drainage ditches, long dry because of the historic Summer drought, were clogged with underbrush. At Driscoll, flood waters receded Saturday but momentarily were expected to rise again with arrival of a new crest of San Diego Creek. Driscoll is down-river from Alice, where 15 inches of rain caused an estimated $1,500,000 damage Friday.

At Weslaco radio station KRGV's rain gauge overflowed after recording 11 inches. Emergency arrangements were made to feed and clothe families. The Missouri Pacific Railroad tracks, running along the coast south to Brownsville, were washed out in innumerable places. What was left of the tracks was holding water back from the east sections of both Driscoll and Weslaco. At Driscoll, water 18 inches deep covered that part of the city to the west of the tracks and the city's water system was not functioning. Petronilla Creek was on the rise on both sides of the city and many homes on the east were surrounded by water.

Kingsville, which reported an unofficial 11 inches of rain, was on the northern edge of the rainstorm. A dam recently built on Escobedo Creek was washed out and a dam on Santa Gertrude Creek on King Ranch also broke. The Kieberg County farmers Co-op Gin, six miles south of Kingsville, was surrounded by six inches of water. The huge Celanese Corporation plant at Bishop was standing in hub-deep water but appeared to be in no great danger.

Water was six to eight inches over the curbs at San Perilla, a small farm community 10 miles east of Raymondville, after an estimated six inches of rain. Raymondville itself had its streets flushed by heavy rains but suffered no damage. Water was reported waist deep on highways eight to 10 miles west of Raymondville. By mid-afternoon, skies were clearing over much of the lower Rio Grande Valley but the forecast was for more scattered rains. The rain which fell Friday night was spotted—very heavy in some areas, light only short distances away.

The U.S. Weather Bureau at Brownsville gave these rain figures for the 24 hours ended at 6:30 a.m. Saturday: Rio Grande City 2.20 inches, Mercedes 3.58, McAllen 2.45, Weslaco 4.80, Raymondville 1.88, Harlingen 2.88. It gave these figures for the three-day rains: Rio Grande City 6.40, Mercedes 3.23, McAllen 4.95, Raymondville 2.58, Harlingen 8.53 and Brownsville 3.10. Don Hinga of the Houston Chronicle reported after a flight over the flood area Friday that from Palacios to Alice, south through Falfurris to Corpus Christi and for 75 miles or so back toward Houston, "it looked like a vast rice field that had been irrigated a little to well."

Horine, head of the Jim Wells County Red Cross, as saying about 600 persons were evacuated at Alice by trucks, boats, amphibious equipment from the Corpus Christi Naval Station, and cars. "If I ever heard anyone say again that we need a real hard rain," one Alice farmer told Hinga, "I'm gonna get my gun and shoot him."

HERE FROM NEW MEXICO Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Clements and son, Melvin, of Lovington, N. M., are weekend visitors in Midland. They are former Midland residents. HOSPITALIZED Mrs. Georgia Elms, 807 South Jefferson Street, was admitted to Western Clinic-Hospital Friday as an emergency patient.

Witness Tells Of Short Cut In RFC Loan To Lithofold

WASHINGTON—(AP)—Senate investigators were told Saturday the RFC waived its usual reviewing methods to grant a $466,000 loan to the American Lithofold Corporation in 1949. Ernest B. Howard, veteran of 19 years with RFC and then chief of its business loans branch, supplied this testimony to a Senate Investigations subcommittee. The subcommittee is probing charges Democratic National Chairman William M. Boyle, Jr., used his influence to get RFC funds for the St. Louis company after its previous applications were turned down. He has denied any connection with the loan.

Senator Mundt (R-SD) said the subcommittee has evidence "some people" got "gratitudes far greater" in this case than those which brought quick dismissal Friday to one RFC official. Handled Upstairs Oliver B. Kraft, assistant manager of the RFC's St. Louis branch, was fired within hours of his testimony that a Lithofold official paid his expenses of $262 on a five-day vacation with a gift of ceramics made by his wife, valued at $200 to $250. Howard, answering a question, said ordinary review procedures had been completely bypassed when Lithofold got its $466,000 loan in September, 1949. He said he had a "faint recollection" of a conversation reported by Toole—that Howard had told Toole the matter had been "handled upstairs" by RFC directors.

Howard said the loan was handled by his branch. But it was assigned to a different examiner than usual and was not reviewed by the customary official, he said. The witness said at one point he had been unable to find out why and at another point that he made no effort to determine why. SUFFERS FOOT WOUND Mrs. L. O. Hutson of North Cowden was given emergency treatment Friday at Western Clinic-Hospital after she suffered a foot wound when a clerk at a Midland drygoods store dropped a pair of scissors on the foot.

Johnny Davis Back On Police Force

Johnny Davis still is in uniform but he's out of the U. S. Marines. He's back with the Midland Police Department after a hitch of a year and seven days of military service. The popular patrolman returned to police duty Friday. He was a member of department at the time of his recall to active duty, Sept. 8, 1960.

Mexican Holiday Is Celebrated Here

Midland Latin Americans Saturday night were celebrating the anniversary of the start of a revolt in 1810 which succeeded in gaining the independence of Mexico. The revolt began on Sunday morning, Sept. 16, 1810, in the village of Dolores. South of the border, the anniversary extensively is celebrated annually. Here, a Saturday night "fiesta" dance marked the observance.

RECOVERING Anne Eason, eight-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Eason of Terminal, is recovering from severe head wounds inflicted when she was bitten by a dog. She underwent surgery at Western Clinic-Hospital. MEDICAL PATIENT Joe Rhodes, 321 South Baird Street, was admitted to Western Clinic-Hospital Friday as a medical patient. T. E. BIZZELL IN HOSPITAL T. Elmer Bizzell, veteran Midland County farmer and stockman, who Friday underwent surgery in Midland Memorial Hospital, was reported by attendants Saturday to be "resting comfortably."

FILM STAR TO WED DETROIT—(AP)—Mrs. Cleo P. McCain, 43, a welfare worker here, Saturday announced she and Edward Arnold, film and radio actor, plan to marry October 8. MEXICAN ACTRESS KILLED MEXICO CITY—(AP)—The mayor of Iquala reported Saturday that Nelly Montiel, Mexican movie actress, was killed Friday night in a collision between her car and a truck on the road to Acapulco. First accident insurance company in the United States was founded in Connecticut in 1863.

Cold Wave—

(Continued From Page One) noon, making driving a hazard. Lightning was reported in a line of storms north of Lubbock. A low of 48 was forecast for Lubbock. At 3 p.m., Berger had a temperature of 52 degrees—a drop of 20 degrees in two hours. The Dumas weatherman estimated Dumas' temperature was in the high 40's at that time. At 4:30 p.m., the cold front had passed, Childress and Lubbock. Behind it, Amarillo had a temperature of 48 degrees and north, northeast winds 27 miles an hour. Childress had north, northeast winds 28 miles an hour and 50-degree temperature. Lubbock had north winds 24 miles an hour and a 52-degree temperature.

By 4 a.m. Sunday, the front was expected to be well into Texas as far as a line from Texarkana through Dallas, San Antonio, and Marfa to El Paso. But Sunday, all of West Texas except the Del Rio-Eagle Pass area, and the north and central portions of East Texas were expected to get it. ### Uncle Dan Vinson To Play Santa Claus To 3,000,000 Kids

OKLAHOMA CITY—(AP)—Uncle Dan Vinson, who played Santa Claus to more than a million children of convicts last year, is going to add two million underprivileged children to his Christmas list this year. However, as in the past, few of the three million children will know their benefactor. It is a jolly asphalt salesman who spends most of his time during the year planning for their Yuletide. Uncle Dan—as he is known to all—wants to give toys to police departments for distribution to the underprivileged. The toys will go to the police without any strings, and Uncle Dan's only wish is that officers give them out as their personal gifts. Why did Uncle Dan pick the police department? "This Summer, while taking some underprivileged children to camp, I was startled to find that virtually all of them hated policemen," he explains.

Stanton Loses, 6 To 0

Dogies Score Late

STANTON — Eleven boys who never before had started a football game lost a 6-0 battle to the Big Spring 'B' team here Saturday night, but covered themselves with glory before the Stanton homefolks.

Coch Charles Read's vastly outnumbered and outweighed Stanton High School Buffaloes fought the Dogie eleven to a standstill, only to lose in the last two minutes when 170-pound Richard Blalack, Big Spring quarterback, slipped 25 yards around his own left end and crossed paydirt for the one and only score of the game.

But even then, fireworks still were in order as Stanton gave the faithful who braved a howling north wind and sandstorm a thrill by marching back in a determined drive that ended with the game.

The Buffs found themselves with their collective backs to the wall early, as they had to rally against the Big Springers, who had the stiff north breeze behind their offense. Glenn Cross, Stanton center, held the line firm as the invader's first split T thrust was held 15 yards shy of the goal line.

Stanton promptly was in hot water again, fumbling on its own 27 with Big Spring taking over. After the Dogies drove for a first down on the seven-yard line, Back Billy Rowden flopped on a fumble at the Stanton seven again to stymie the threat.

Booster Polk, Stanton back who played a whale of a ball game, kicked nicely against the wind to midfield as the Blasons pulled out of the hole.

Another Big Spring fumble near the half was recovered by the Buffs' Paige Eiland on the Dogie 25. Little Norman Blocker, 115-pound back, gained seven Buff yards as the half ended.

Polk galloped 25 yards to the Big Spring 35 early in the second half, and the Buffs drove on to the 26 before losing the ball on another of many fumbles.

This boy Polk boomed a 46-yard punt out of bounds nicely early in the fourth quarter, with the ball slicing out only two steps away from the Dogie goal line.

"Freak" First Down
Then came a "freak" play which helped contribute to Stanton's defeat.

A pair of Buff linemen surged through to block partially a punt by Big Spring, but the ball was recovered by the Dogies on their own 21 for a first down.

Ronnie Gilbreath stopped Blalack as he ripped off a gain to the 48, being the lone defender guarding the same stripe at the time.

Glenn Cross stopped Jack Hollis after an 11-yard advance, again being the last defensive man. Stanton got tough in the line and Big Spring punted, but the Buffs couldn't go and kicked short.

Two plays later, the Dogies scored as Blalack, a whale of a ball game, took off on his non-stop journey. Stanton came back, and with Eldon Hopkins quarterbacking, picked up a first down running and gained 11 and five yards as Hopkins hit Rowden with a couple of passes. But Hopkins was swarmed to the ground for a 10-yard loss as the game ended.

NBC Names Texan Sandlotter Of Year

WICHITA, KAN. — Pat Hubert, 23, pitcher with the national champion Sinton, Texas, Plymouth Oilers, was named "Sandlotter of the Year" by the National Baseball Congress Saturday.

Named to the congress' All-American team for the second straight year, Hubert was the leading hurler in the Southwest Conference last season, winning 13 games for the Texas Aggies. He was an all-conference selection last year.

CAMP PICKETT, VA. — Art Houtteman, pitching star for the Detroit Tigers before he donned a military uniform almost a year ago, was given a medical discharge by the Army Saturday. He was a private first class.

Giants Gain Full Game In Loop Chase

CHICAGO — (AP) — The New York Giants uncorked three homers in an 11-hit barrage against three opposing pitchers Saturday to defeat the Chicago Cubs, 5-2, and gain one full game on the National League-leading Brooklyn Dodgers.

Bobby Thomson slammed his twenty-seventh homer of the season in the first inning off loser Paul Minner. Willie Mays cracked his twentieth in the fourth off the same hurler, and Don Mueller clouted No. 16 off Walt Dubiel in the eighth.

The victory left the second-place Giants five games behind the Dodgers who were trounced 11-4 by the Pittsburgh Pirates.

The Cubs ended their season series with the Giants and with a record of only seven wins in 22 meetings with the New Yorkers.

The Cubs' defeat dropped them back into last place in the National League standings.

Odessa Defeats John Reagan, 21-10

HOUSTON — Julius Johnson's Odessa Bronchos battled back from a 10-0 halftime disadvantage to lick the John Reagan Bulldogs of Houston, 21 to 10, here Friday night.

Reagan scored all of his points in the last minute of the first half, scoring on a pass, converting, recovering the ball on the kickoff and booting a six-yard field goal.

Odessa moved 28 yards to tally in the third, Swain Adams going over from the one. Jack Cramer, end, blocked a punt for the Bronchos and recovered 27 yards away from paydirt, also in the third quarter Tommy Ward went 25 yards on a pitch-out to score.

Guard Walter Cooley recovered a fumble on the Reagan 21-yard line in the final quarter, with Jack Freeman going over from two yards out. Bob Baker converted all three Odessa extra points.

Florida Gators Shut Out Wyoming, 13-0

JACKSONVILLE, FLA. — (AP) — Hayward Sullivan threw a slippery football just like it wasn't raining Saturday night to give Florida's Gators and upset 13-0 victory over Skyline Conference Champion Wyoming.

Sullivan, the six-foot, four-inch quarterback, passed 24 yards to End Jim French for one touchdown and set up the other with a 35-yard toss to End Don Brown.

Wyoming's Cowboys, favored by one to 11 points, had the kind of weather they figured would help their single wing power attack. But they didn't reckon with Sullivan, who looked even better than in 1950, when as a sophomore he completed 51 per cent of his passes for 1,098 yards.

This was Wyoming's second loss in its last 21 games and the first time the Cowboys were shut out since Denver did it in 1948.

BIG BROOKS—Ralph Brooks, Bulldog tailback, rams seven yards to the San Angelo 10-yard line as the Purples drive for their first touchdown Friday night. Bobby Cast, tackle, moves up behind a San Angelo defensive player.

Betsy Rawls Holds Women's Open Lead; Babe, Marlene Next

ATLANTA — (AP) — Betsy Rawls' nerves almost gave way Saturday under the strain of a three-day march toward victory in the National Women's Open Golf Tournament, but the little Texan settled her jitters to score a 74 and hang onto the lead.

Should 23-year-old Betsy win Sunday, Texas would score a great triple victory in 1951.

Ben Hogan of Fort Worth is the men's Open champion and Billy Maxwell of Odessa Saturday won the men's National Amateur championship.

Betsy's two-over par 74 on old Druid Hills course gave her a three-round total of 218—three strokes better than Babe Zaharias and Marlene Bauer.

All three of the leaders are, or were, Texans. Betsy's home is Austin, Marlene's Midland, and the Babe once lived in Dallas.

Other scores:
Pat Garner, Midland, 73-81-76-230.
Alice Bauer, Midland, 80-75-77-232.
Polly Riley, Fort Worth, 72-79-81-232.

Kentucky Blasts Tennessee Tech

LEXINGTON, KY. — (AP) — Kentucky employed the deadly passing of Vito (Babe) Parilli and the down-the-middle bursts of Bill Leskovar to grind out a 72-13 football victory over Tennessee Tech here Saturday.

Warming up for bigger things to come—starting with Texas next week—Kentucky used the season opener mainly to give its sophomores and freshmen experience.

Athletics Vanquish White Sox By 5 To 4

PHILADELPHIA — (AP) — Shortstop Eddie Joost singled in the 12th inning to score Bobby Shantz and give the Philadelphia Athletics a 5 to 4 victory Saturday over the Chicago White Sox.

Gus Zernial homered with two on in the sixth and Dave Philley with the bases bare in the ninth to account for the other A's runs. Don Lenhardt homered with one aboard in the second to give Chicago its first two runs.

There's an old cutie riddle that asks: Where was Moses when the lights went out?
The answer: In the dark.

And that's exactly where we are when the time arrives to appraise the Midland High School football team, Tugboat Jones coached and 1951 model.

For when the Bulldogs were romping past the San Angelo Bobcats with a minimum of effort Friday night, it was extremely different to determine if Midland was that strong or San Angelo that weak.

The answer, probably, is a little bit of both.

Prior to the contest, we had no qualms about the Midland offense, figuring it would be capable of scoring three times—which it did.

But we also thought the defense would be weak and the Bobcats would score three or four times—which, as you know, they definitely didn't.

All in all, the performance was puzzling. The kids started out fast, after recovering from a San Angelo threat early, and kindled the embers of their offense which they built into a roaring blaze going into the second quarter. But the Orange and White put out the fire, and although Midland wasn't pressed, the offense lost some of its steam.

In fact, "steam" could be the success—or downfall—of the Bulldogs this season.

Midland's boys kinda ran out of gas along about the third quarter and admittedly were peeped before the time-keeper peeped the gun.

If the boys train properly and get into better shape, Jones' team might have a good year, for the coaching is top-level and seems to be better-than-average.

But the physical condition is, right now, a question mark. And therein lies the key to a successful season for the locals.

That ACC-Texas Western grid clash set here October 6 is no less attractive after ACC's 19-7 loss to Drake Friday night.

Drake plays in a rugged loop, meeting such teams as Oklahoma's A&M, Tulsa and others of a similar stature—and the Iowa lads do all right.

We'll be bringing you interesting data on the two teams to meet here under Optimist Club supervision, within a few days.

Official attendance at the Midland-San Angelo game wasn't announced, but we estimated it at 7,500—others said it might be more, but that was pretty close.

The crowd should be larger when Crosier Tech comes here September 28. The Dallas club will use SMU type plays, and that means fun for the spectators.

It probably will mean fun for some Midland defensive boys, too, who will have a busy and interesting evening trying to stop the Tech "stuff".

Jordan Hurls Phils To Win Over Reds

CINCINNATI — (AP) — The Philadelphia Phillies, behind the effective pitching of young rookie Niles Jordan, defeated the Cincinnati Reds 5-2 Saturday. The 24-year-old southpaw held the Reds to two hits until the eighth inning. Herman Wehmeier, who was sent to the showers in the ninth, was the loser.

Cardinals Get Easy Victory Over Braves

ST LOUIS — (AP) — Five walks to Solly Hemus and Del Rice's two-run homer helped the St. Louis Cardinals to an easy 10 to 1 triumph over the Boston Braves Saturday in their battle for third place in the National League race. Hemus' five walks in one game tied a league record held by several other players.

MHS Bulldogs Surprise Bobcats, 21-6

Score Three Times At Game's Outset

By LARRY KING
Reporter-Telegram Sports Editor

Combining a steady ground attack with a deadly aerial thrust, the Midland High School Bulldogs successfully opened the 1951 grid season with a 21-6 verdict over the inept San Angelo Bobcats here Friday night.

Striking with sudden fury, the Bulldogs rolled to three touchdowns the first three times they got the ball.

After the early outburst which put the Bulldogs in front 21-0 at 1:52 of the second quarter, the attack slipped as Midland's eleven seemed to tire. San Angelo, woefully weak for a 1-AAAA outfit, started with a bang, kicking off and recovering the ball on the Midland 40 when it hit a Midland lineman and bounded away. Loren Roberts killed the Bobcats' initial drive, falling on a fumble by San Angelo's Lon Slaughter at the Midland 17.

It was from here the Purple cranked up and moved 83 yards to paydirt, Ralph Brooks highlighting the offensive.

Brooks fired an incomplete pass on Midland's first play, but Johnny Kennedy ran the first of many Midland reverses for 11 yards and a first down on the second attempt. Brooks then faded back, tossed a pass to End Jimmy Linebarger on the Bobcats 45 and he scooted to the Angelo 17 before he was hauled down from behind. The play gained 55 yards. Big Brooks smashed five yards, Dick Spencer dug for two, Brooks smashed to the seven for a first down and then, two plays later, scored from the three yard line.

Larry Friday converted the first of three extra points and Midland led 7 to 0 with only 4:45 of the game gone.

Coker Standout
Midland's line, headed by Stan Coker who made a large percentage of the Bulldog tackles, stopped the Bobcats cold following the kickoff. Don Black returned a punt 10 yards to the midfield stripe, but the Bulldogs were pushed to their own 35 for clipping.

But, undaunted, they moved 65 yards again to hit paydirt. Roy Kinsey running for 12 on a reverse, Spencer digging for four and two yards, Kinsey hustling for 11 more with good power, and the drive was underway. The payoff came when Kinsey started to his left side, cut back and danced eight yards into the end zone. Friday converted, 14-0, Midland.

On the last play of the first quarter, Dan Black gave Midland its next scoring opportunity by hauling down a pass tossed by Quarterback Duane McCullough and shooting 22 yards to the visitor's 33-YL.

Brooks ripped 11 yards to the 22 for a first down, then got four to reach the 18 yard line. Kinsey slanted off to the left and reached the eight, again went into the line for four and Brooks plunged it over. Friday's automatic toe made it 21-0, Midland.

The remainder of the first half was uneventful. San Angelo tallied the only touchdown of the penalty-riddled second half, moving 70 yards to a score after taking the third-quarter kickoff.

Instrumental in the drive was a 21-yard run by Slaughter, but the scoring thrust came when McCullough tossed 30 yards to End Buddy Sanders, who raved 12 more down the left sideline to tally. That brought the score to 21-6 and it stayed that way when Coker and Pete English deflected Joe Mays' try for extra point.

From that point on, the game was a nightmare as the officials' whistles tooted with every other play and both teams seemed physically unfit. Midland did drive from its own 41 to the Bobcat 32 before faltering late in the fourth quarter, with Brooks and Spencer carrying the ball on most of the plays.

In the line, Coker, English and Jimmy Linebarger were Midland standouts with Brooks, Kinsey and Spencer carrying the brunt of the offensive attack. Larry Friday, Midland signal caller, blocked nicely in addition to his extra point kicking.

San Angelo had a good boy in McCullough, another in Slaughter and a fine end in Jimmy Campbell—but they gave the impression of having a rough year ahead in rugged 1-AAAA. Midland plays at Ysleta (El Paso) next week.

Lamesa Upsets Paschal, 27-14

LAMESA — The passing arm of Jerry Millsaps, Lamesa's triple-threat quarterback, carried the lighter and underdog Tornados to an upset victory over Paschal High School of Fort Worth here Friday night.

Millsaps and his Lamesa mates chopped the Cowntowners down, 27 to 14.

Ed Macaulay of the Boston Celtics in the NBA is working during the off-season as a sports commentator for a radio station in St. Louis.

Yankees Bow To Detroit

NEW YORK —(AP)— The Detroit Tigers tossed a monkey wrench into New York's pennant drive Saturday, smashing four home runs to defeat the Yankees, 7-4.

Vic Wertz was the Yankees' most grief. The slugging Tiger right fielder drove home four runs on a pair of homers. Former Yank Dick Kryhoski and starting Pitcher Martin Stuart also homered for the Tigers.

Johnny Sain was the victim of the vicious Tiger bombardment. Sain worked the first six innings and yielded six runs. The loss was Sain's first in three decisions since his arrival from the Boston Braves.

Stuart, beaten five straight times, was relieved by Dizzy Trout in the fifth after the Yanks had threatened to get back into the game. The Yanks scored a run on four walks with two out before Trout came in and stamped out the rally by getting Yogi Berra to ground out with the bases loaded. Berra won Friday's game with a grand slam homer.

Trout, dean of the Tiger pitching staff, checked the Yanks on two hits the rest of the way and gained credit for his ninth victory.

Seminole Upsets Levelland, 12-0, As Sparks Shines

LEVELLAND—Underdog Seminole caused a lot of eyebrow raising here Friday night, drubbing highly-regarded Levelland, 12 to 0, in a non-conference contest.

Levelland, who last week outscored Pecos, the District 8-AA favorite, found Seminole of the same loop too tough. Seminole stopped Langford Sneed and his power-packed mates on the ground, and by that simple formula held the Lobos scoreless.

Jackie Sparks, a sure-fire all-state performer if the last two games are any indication of his ability, whipped the Lobos almost single handedly offensively.

He led a 65-yard Seminole surge for a touchdown early in the third quarter, picking up yards on runs of 12, four, six, three and 35 yards to advance the ball to the three-yard line. Marshall Crawford, 126-pound Seminole back, scored from there on a quickie play.

Late in the final stanza, Alfred Sims intercepted a Lobo pass and sped back to the Seminole 40. Sparks really came through this time, ripping off 10 yards at tackle, circling his right end for 20 yards, then running 24 yards around his left end to score after his teammates had picked up six yards in three attempts.

Levelland reached the Seminole goal line once to score, but the play was called because of an illegal formation. Seminole braced and held on the five-yard line as End Kenneth Ivey and Center Billy Hicks held the line firm.

Three Levelland players and one Seminole starter were banished from the game for unnecessary roughness during the rugged contest. Seminole, still unscored on after two games, led in first downs, 14 to 10.

Patterson Leads McCamey To 20-19 Win Over Wolves

By TANNER LAINE
Reporter-Telegram Staff

McCAMEY—Friday was "Mack Patterson Night" here as he and the McCamey Badgers nipped the Colorado City Wolves, 20-19, in a thrilling grid season opener.

The 160-pound Patterson, a fine running back if ever there was one, contributed the following to the McCamey cause for the night:

Ran 70 yards for a TD from spread formation early in the first quarter after the visiting Wolves had scored in the first two minutes—putting McCamey very much back in the ball game.

Sped back 56 yards for a touchdown, after taking a punt in the first quarter to put McCamey ahead, 13-12, after the Wolves of Colorado City had struck fast to post a 12-7 advantage.

Recovered a Colorado City fumble which occurred on the McCamey five-yard line still in the first quarter, as the two well-matched clubs battled toe-to-toe.

Intercepted a pass of Colorado City in the third quarter and ran it back to the Wolves' 18-yard-line as they again threatened.

Rammed over from the one-yard line for a touchdown in the third quarter.

Intercepted another Colorado City pass in the third quarter stopping a desperate drive of the enemy.

Albert H. Harding, about 40, suffered a heart seizure at 7:30 p.m. Friday in McCamey while assisting with the parking of cars for the McCamey-Colorado City football game.

He died about 10 minutes later. At the time of his death, Harding was unemployed but he had been an employee of the Shell Oil Company quite a few years. He had been in ill health the last two years.

The body will be taken to Winters, Texas, for funeral services. Harding is survived by the widow and a daughter, Karla, a third grade student at McCamey.

The "inter-sectional" game between Colorado City of 5-AA and McCamey of 5-A opened with a bang! Colorado City kicked off to the home Badgers and the ball promptly was fumbled. Byron Wilkinson, Wolves' end, recovered on the McCamey 18-yard line. In four plays the Wolves were over. Steve Scott nudged the last seven yards with a handoff. Berman Corbell's place kick extra point was wide. The game was seconds old and Colorado City led, 6-0.

McCamey promptly scored and went ahead, 7-6. Patterson took off on his 70-yard touchdown jaunt the first play from scrimmage after the kickoff. He started to his left, cut back sharply to the right, picked up some key blocking about the middle and then went to touchdown land all alone with a wave of white-shirted Badgers between him and the Wolves. Raymond Garrison place-kicked the important extra point.

Here they went again. Colorado City scored without releasing the ball after the kickoff. Corbell shot a lancing, long aerial of 35 yards to George Swann, back, who was over the double stripe. Corbell's placement was low. Colorado City now led, 12-7.

All this, and it still was the first quarter.

Not only that, McCamey and Patterson weren't through for the initial stanza. The Badgers were forced to punt after running around in the next series of downs. Colorado City also couldn't gin and the Wolves punted. This boy Patterson took the punt on his own 44-yard line and scampered all the way (56 yards) for his second tab of the evening. Garrison's kick was good but McCamey was offside and after the penalty, he missed the extra-point try. It was McCamey 13, Colorado City 12.

McCamey never relinquished the first-quarter lead, but what a ball game it was before the finish. The second quarter was scoreless. They had each other's numbers now. That is, with the exception of Patterson's. He recovered a Colorado City fumble at a crucial moment on the McCamey five-yard marker in this quarter.

iced it up. McCamey apparently iced it up in the third quarter. Patterson, that's right, again, intercepted a Colorado City pass and brought it to the Wolves' 18-yard line. Charles Dixon went to the 11-yard line on a keeper. Patterson bumped to the seven. Patterson threaded into the line to the three. Dixon bulled to the one. Guess who—Patterson thundered over for a TD. Whether this extra point was the most important or not—Garrison pumped it through and McCamey led, 20-12. Colorado City wasn't licked yet.

Early in the fourth quarter, the Wolves scored. Billy Post, a back, intercepted a McCamey aerial and ran it back to the Badger 21-yard line. With Swann and Corbell moving, the CC Red Shirts marched to the six. Swann then took a handoff and angled over for a touchdown. Corbell place-kicked the extra point that he wished could count two points or more as the score was McCamey 20, Colorado City 19.

And that's the way it ended.

Crane Gets 14 To 12 Win

JAL, N. M. — The good people of Crane, Texas, got a chance to rejoice here Friday night as the Crane Golden Cranes captured their first football victory since the 1949 season, defeating the Jal Panthers, 14 to 12.

Malcom Garrett paced a sturdy Crane ground attack which rolled up 225 yards rushing. Jal countered with passes, tossing 28 and completing eight for 180 yards.

Garrett romped 23 yards to score the first Crane TD in the first quarter, then kicked goal. Crane led at halftime, 7 to 0.

Jal came back to score two times in the third quarter, using passes to move down.

But Garrett roared 85 yards late in the same stanza to score, then again kicked point as he accounted for all of the Golden Crane's points.

That, for all purposes, was the ball game. Bill Grey, center, Harold Hunter, end, and Doyle Lakin, tackle, were like standouts for Crane. First downs were tied at nine each.

Quanah Comes From Behind To Defeat Steers, 27 To 14

QUANAH — Big Spring roared off to a 14 to 0 lead over the Quanah High School eleven here Friday, then saw the Quanah eleven roar back to win, 27 to 14.

Big Spring made six first downs, Quanah 12.

ACC Win Streak Ends; Drake Wins 19 To 7 Grid Contest

DES MOINES —(AP)— Drake beat Abilene Christian College 19-7 Friday night to end the string of the Christians at 11 straight.

ACC hadn't lost a game since 1949 until dropping the decision here. The Christian were undefeated and untied and victors in the Refrigerator Bowl last fall.

Pampa Runs Over Sweetwater, 40-12

PAMPA — Coach P. A. Gerald's Sweetwater Mustangs were shocked by the powerful Pampa Harvesters, 40 to 12, here Friday night.

Second and third stringers played half the game for Pampa, as the Mustangs became rattled when Pampa roared of to an early lead and led 27 to 0 at halftime.

There's That Man Again—Fry Leads Brownwood To Win

COLEMAN — Leonard Fry, Brownwood's classy back, took over Friday night where he left off last season as he paced the Lions to a 33 to 12 win over the Coleman Blue-cats.

Don Earp, fast Brownwood half-back, turned in several sparkling runs during the contest.

Tigers Win By 6 To 0

By BOB ADAMS

MONAHANS — Snyder's Tigers downed the Monahans Lobos, 6 to 0, Friday night in a game that produced only sporadic outbursts of offensive football.

A fumble by a Monahans back deep in his own territory in the first quarter set the stage for the winning marker. Here's how the score was set up:

Snyder's N. J. Harrison kicked out of bounds on the Monahans 15 yard line. After Lobo back Kenneth Reamy gained five yards through the center of the line, back Bill Shoemaker was stopped on the line of scrimmage where he fumbled.

Snyder took over and advanced the ball through a series of off-tackle slants to the four yard line where Quarterback Bill Cain scoot-ed through for the touchdown on a quarterback sneak. Burney Hagin's kick was wide of the mark and for all good purposes the game was over.

Playing in ideal football weather, the teams, which have been tagged for the cellar in their respective districts, sparred around between each other's 30-yard lines.

The light and green Monahans team could spring its backs through the line on quick opening plays but they bogged down in the Snyder secondary.

Jimmy Jenkins, a 145 pound senior half back for Monahans, was an outstanding runner for the Lobos despite the fact he had only been out for practice for a week before Friday's game.

But when it came to passing, it was a different matter. The few times that Jenkins had sufficient time to get the ball off, it landed nowhere near his receiver.

Not so with the Tigers. Snyder's Bill Cain shows real promise of developing into a top notch passer. Cain completed a pair of 28 yard heaves but one was nullified because of a penalty.

Drive Stopped
Friday's game produced few spectacular plays of the sort that keeps "Gus Fan" on his toes. But Monahans' Reamy gave Snyder as well as Lobo fans cause for a little anxiety when he spearheaded a late rally in the last quarter.

The revolving hand on the time clock became the center of attention after Reamy had made a first down in the vicinity of Snyder's 30-yard line. Two succeeding plays lost 15 yards though and Snyder took over to run the time out on the clock.

Abilene Defeats Jackets 20 To 14

ABILENE — Rolling up 287 yards on the ground, the Abilene High School Eagles nudged Arlington Heights of Fort Worth, 20 to 14, here Friday night in the first grid game of the year for both teams.

The Eagles rolled up a 20 to 0 lead in the middle of the second quarter, holding a 20-7 halftime lead. Arlington Heights solved the Abilene attack in the last half and scored once on a pass play.

Roscoe Plowboys Outscore Rotons

ROTAN — The Roscoe Plowboys launched a well-organized ground attack here Friday night to outscore the Rotan Yellowhammers, 27 to 18.

More than 3,000 fans saw the non-conference clash.

Andrews Is Defeated By Littlefield

By RICHARD VENATOR Reporter-Telegram Staff

ANDREWS—The Littlefield Wildcats rolled up an amazing 433 yards on the ground here Friday night to defeat a green Andrews Mustang grid squad, 19-13, but the over-anxious visitors almost lost the ball game as they were penalized a total of 185 yards.

Sonny Earle, 180-pound Andrews quarterback, kept the Wildcats defense busy battling at his passes all night and it was his successful toss to End Jerry Spears which opened the night's scoring in the first quarter and sent the home team off to a 6-0 lead.

Tommy Jackson, substitute center for the Mustangs, recovered a Littlefield fumble by R. L. Rhoten on the Andrews 40-yard line to set the Wildcats back on their heels. The touchdown play was set up a few minutes later by a 14-yard pass, Earle to Halfback Don Huestis. A 37-yard pass, Earle to End Billy Sparks, was good for six points. The conversion attempt failed.

The half ended as Earl completed a 15-yard toss to substitute Fullback Green to put the ball on the Wildcat 30.

The Cats took the ball on their five on receiving at the opening of the third quarter. They were penalized 15 yards and then Walden carried to the 38 on a pitch-out. Rhoten handed off to Northam who dashed 62 yards to score, putting the tally at 19-6, Littlefield.

With a little more than three minutes left in the ball game, Andrews recovered a Littlefield fumble on the Wildcat 36-yard line. After short ground gains, Earle gave Olsen Jobe, fullback, a pitch-out and Jobe scattered 29 yards for the final TD of the game. Sparks took a pass from Earle to convert.

Andrews' Green toted the ball to the Littlefield one-foot line, in the second quarter, on a two-yard plunge but a 15-yard penalty saved the day for the Wildcats. This close call for the victors was set up after a Littlefield punt and a pass from Earle to Greene took the ball deep into enemy territory.

The Mustangs had 15 incomplete passes and completed seven for a total of 96 yards from Rhoten to Walden, in the third quarter, resulted in Walden racing 34 yards to cross the goal but a Wildcat penalty nullified the play.

Northam took the pigskin over from the one-foot line in this quarter, also, but there was a red flag on the play.

Rugged Kermit 11 Romps Past Hobbs Eagles By 13 To 0

By COPE ROUTE Reporter-Telegram Staff

HOBBS, N. M.—The rugged Yellowjackets of Kermit High School, displaying a magnificent defensive strength that crushed the offensive spirit of the Hobbs High School Eagles in the first half, won their second football game of the season here Friday night by a 13-0 score.

Three times in the first half, the Eagles powered their way within the 10-yard line and three times the Yellowjackets stopped them.

And this same fighting Yellowjacket line set up the opportunity in the third quarter for two quick touchdowns in succession.

The actual scoring was done by halfback Benny Carr who sneaked across from the one-yard line and Fullback Jimmie Harmon, a converted guard, who bulled his way across from the two.

The lone extra point was booted by Jack Barnett after the second touchdown.

And that's just about the story of the ball game, except for the performance of the officials who stepped off more yardage in penalties than either of the teams gained on the ground.

The heavier and favored Eagles started off before the more than 7,000 fans as if they meant business.

On the first play after the kick-off Halfback Billy Mitchell fumbled on his own 21-yard line and the whole Hobbs team jumped on the ball.

The smart boys had said Kermit's pass defense was weak and the Eagles would rip them to pieces with an aerial attack.

Well, The Eagles started their passing attack but abandoned it quickly after the first two heaves did no more damage than knock over a few blades of grass. On the third attempt, Jack Kennedy was trapped behind the line and thrown for a seven-yard loss.

The Yellowjackets tried to push back up field after taking the punt but after one first down, their drive was stalled and Chuck Williams booted out to the 36.

The Eagles began their drive anew, abandoning the airways.

Fullback Bill Burke, a hard-driving 190-pounder, ripped off three first downs in a row and, with Don Spoonmore and Jack Kennedy taking over some of the ball-carrying chores, the Eagles pushed on down to the nine-yard line.

Again they stalled and again Williams booted out to the 43-yard line.

The Eagles drove right back, this time reaching the seven-yard line early in the second quarter before their offensive machine bogged down.

And that was the end of the Eagles' offensive.

In the opening minutes of the third quarter Burke dropped back to kick but he never got it away as Burns, Kermit guard, broke through the line to pull him down back on his five-yard line.

Mitchell picked up four of the yards and Carr then squeezed through the middle of the line to score six points.

Carr Blocks Kick

In the closing minutes of the third quarter, the Kermit line battered down the opposition and Carr rushed in to block Burke's attempted kick, recovering it on the Eagle 35-yard line.

In six plays, including a twisting 24-yard sprint by Halfback Don Handlin through left tackle, the Yellowjackets had scored again, with Harmon bucking over.

The Eagles tried their passing game again in the final quarter in a desperate effort to overtake Kermit.

A sharpshooter named David Murrell came in to launch a flurry of aerials but only one of them found a receiver and that was only for three yards.

Kermit threatened once more when Jack Krodell intercepted a Hobbs pass but the Yellowjackets bogged down on the 13-yard line.

Hobbs chalked up eight first downs to seven for Kermit and rolled up 163 yards rushing, compared to the Yellowjackets 158. Kermit completed four of nine attempted passes for 28-yard gain while Hobbs completed only two of 16 for 11 yards.

Kermit was penalized 160 yards and Hobbs 95.

Winning Tournaments Is Old, Old Story To Golfing Maxwells

BIG SPRING—Winning tournaments is an old story for Billy Maxwell's golf-playing family, but his National Amateur victory Saturday provided an all-time thrill.

"This is the happiest spot in West Texas," said his twin brother, Bobby, who was last year's state junior college golf champion.

Another brother, W. O. Maxwell, Jr., is pro at the Municipal Golf Club. Billy's father, who runs the golf shop at the club, started his children playing golf soon after they learned to walk.

A sister, Mrs. W. P. Watts of Abilene, teamed with her brothers to win first in a Big Spring pro-amateur tournament last year.

"I knew he would win when I found out his putting was good," said the senior Maxwell.

W. O., Jr., said: "I told mom not to get excited after Billy won Friday, but she can hardly contain her enthusiasm."

Lining the walls of the Maxwell home are trophies won by Billy and Bobby, who have been playing title golf for almost half their 22 years.

Started in 1943

Billy began his rise in 1943 by shooting into the championship flight of the Big Spring Invitational as a 14-year-old. Last year he won the title.

He won the Wichita Falls Invitational in 1946 and the Southern Intercollegiate title earlier this year. He plans to return to North Texas State.

Billy has been sponsored by the Odessa Country Club the last two years.

Several years ago Billy shot a 62 at the Municipal Golf Course to defeat Byron Nelson in an exhibition match.

The great Nelson, himself in retirement after winning every championship golf had to offer, picked Maxwell as the fellow most likely to step into the national limelight when the Texas golf greats—Hogan, Demaret, Mangrum and company—pass on.

Maxwell never has indicated he will turn professional.

Maxwell Is U. S. Amateur Champion

BETHLEHEM, PA. —(P)—Billy Maxwell, poker-faced, 22-year-old college boy from Odessa, Texas, chopped down giant-killer Joe Gagliardi with a relentless streak of par golf Saturday and became the youngest player since the great Bobby Jones to win the United States Amateur Championship.

The stocky, imperturbable redhead, deadly with his irons, defeated the 39-year-old Mamoroneck, N. Y., barrister and father of five children, 4 and 3, in their 36-hole final over the water-soaked Saucon Valley course.

Jones was the same age—22—when he won the first of his five amateur titles at Merion in 1924, but the youngest man to capture this championship was Robert Gardner, who did it at 19 in 1909.

Saturday's battle of "unknowns," which was expected to produce mediocre golf, turned instead into a terrific battle of birdies, with spectacular shots repeatedly bringing gasps from the crowd of more than 5,000.

When Maxwell closed out the mild-mannered lawyer on the thirty-third hole, he was even par for the day over the 6,979-yard, par-71 layout, which played long and heavy from Friday's torrential rain.

Through 149 holes of match play covering seven matches, the tight-lipped Texan was only eight strokes over par, by far the best individual showing of the tournament.

Almost Unbeatable

Gagliardi played the finals loaded with medicine to alleviate the pain of a stabbing toothache. He had three abscesses in his mouth lanced Thursday and another cut open Friday night.

However, Gagliardi's toothache apparently had little to do with the outcome of the match, since Maxwell played almost unbeatable golf.

The North Texas State student, straight with his drives and pin-hungry with his approaches, moved over Saucon Valley like a well-oiled machine—bringing natural comparisons with Ben Hogan and Byron Nelson of his Lone Star State.

Eye-Filling Color Accents Bulldog-Bobcat Grid Clash

Memorial Stadium's bright green grass may have eased the eyes of San Angelo fans from the pain of the scoreboard figures Friday night.

San Angelo resided on parched lawns most of the Summer under strict water rationing rules.

But the lush grass was a handicap in the eyes of Assistant Midland Coach Red Rutledge, from where he sat in the high press box. Rutledge telephoned down to the coaching bench when he saw a Midland runner fall without an opposing hand touching him.

"Don't run there anymore," he said. "The grass is too deep."

Friday night weather was just right for the 7,500 fans, especially those who remembered to bring along wraps. They had the spirit, the Bulldogs had the punch.

Bright colors, both on the field and in the stands, presented a panorama of technicolor. The green grass, then the white suits and golden helmets of the Midland team; the gray pants and orange jerseys and helmets of the Bobcats—and the red flags tossed frequently by the penalty-minded officials. This was the color scheme.

New Band Uniforms

The Midland pep squads in the east stands never ceased their chanting for a bigger score, and the San Angelo boosters backed their losing team without a let down.

The fans got their first look at the new Midland band uniforms. The 38 bandmen, directed by Ralph L. Mills, wore a military-style uniform of silver gray, trimmed in purple and gold, with sleeve ornament, lapel patch and trouser stripes of purple. The West Point shako was covered with mother of pearl plastic, with white visor and a seven-inch flowing fountain plume.

With Drum Major Allan Harris directing, the band at half time formed an intricate outline of Texas to the tune of "The Eyes of Texas," and a more intricate oil derrick with a pump and a rocker arm moving rhythmically up and down.

The 38 girls of the Half-Timers, in purple blouses and white skirts, were in mid-season precision drilling form.

Indians, Washington Split Doubleheader

WASHINGTON—(P)—Cleveland's infield virtually came apart in the second game of a doubleheader Saturday and allowed Washington to escape with a 7-6 victory.

The Indians won the first game 4-3, but made four errors in the second contest.

The split put the Indians one game ahead of second-place New York, beaten by Detroit.

The first-game win was Pitcher Erby Wynn's nineteenth.

The Indians grabbed a 6-3 lead in the second game after a five-run outburst in the fifth inning against Julio Moreno and Mickey Harris, but the Senators tied the score in the eighth, when Mike Garcia hit a wild seventh inning. They got the winning run when Mike Garcia in the eighth, threw wild past Catcher Birdie Tebbetts after Mike Guerra had been trapped between third and the plate.

First game.

RAISE CHINCHILLAS For Pleasure and Profit

If you are interested in a full or part time business that is pleasant and fascinating, yet offers an exceptional opportunity for real profits, then it will pay you to investigate Chinchilla Raising. It is very simple. You can start with one or two pairs in your garage, basement or spare room. If you prefer, we will ranch them for you for a limited time.

The Chinchilla is the cleanest animal known, carries no body odor whatsoever, and the fur is so dense vermin cannot penetrate. Being a vegetarian, the diet is simple and inexpensive. They are hardy animals. Chinchillas are an individual, family, and entirely unrelated to what is known as "chinchilla rabbits."

Fur experts have readily accepted Chinchilla as having the finest texture, and as being the most luxurious of all furs, and the only known fur which cannot be imitated. The market has always been greater than the supply, but at present the Chinchilla industry is almost altogether a "Breeder's Market," since the demand for breeding stock is too great to permit much selling. With this two way market, you can readily see that Chinchilla Raising is today a firmly established American industry.

We can supply you with high grade, pedigreed and registered breeding stock, and we will help you in every way to become a successful Chinchilla Breeder. We are offering a few pairs for sale at the present time which we guarantee to litter within 60 or 90 days. Start your Chinchilla herd now as a hobby or sideline and let them develop into a profitable enterprise. It is being done and it's no secret. Write us for free pamphlets and information or better still visit our Chinchilla Units located at Belen, New Mexico.

Our animals are graded under the WILLARD GEORGE grading system. Carrying pairs for sale at this time.

NC State Wolfpack Routs Catawba, 34-0

RALEIGH, N. C.—(P)—Tailback Alex Webster ran 95 yards for a touchdown Saturday as North Carolina State's football Wolfpack reaped a harvest of blocked punts and recovered fumbles to rout Catawba College, 34-0.

Webster, a fleet 205-pounder from Kearny, N.J., also scored two other touchdowns.

Bob Nieman Edges Grant Dunlap For TL Batting Crown

DALLAS—(P)—Bob Nieman of Oklahoma City is the official batting champion of the Texas League. He won it by a fraction of a point.

Nieman finished with 3239 on 161 hits in 497 times at the plate and that shaded Grant Dunlap of Shreveport, who wound up with 3235 on 165 hits in 510 tries.

Final averages announced Saturday by Statistician W. B. Ruggles showed Nieman and Dunlap finished 13 points ahead of the next eligible batter—Ford Garrison of Beaumont, who hit .311.

The league produced only two 20-game pitching winners.

Al Papp of Houston was the heaviest winner. The veteran knuckleballer posted 23 wins against nine losses. Bob Turley of San Antonio won 20 while losing eight. The best record on a percentage basis went to Tommy Reis, who won eight and lost two for an average of .800. The strike-out leader was Wilmer (Vinegar Bend) Missel of Houston, who fanned 257.

Bob Balena of San Antonio led in runs with 114. John Temple of Tulsa hit with 180. Frank Kellert of Oklahoma City in doubles with 42. Omer Tolson of San Antonio and Gino Cimoli of Fort Worth tied for the lead in triples with 12 apiece. Gerald Witte of Houston led in home runs with 36, and Jim Dyck of San Antonio in runs batted in with 127.

Oklahoma City finished deep in the second division but led the circuit in batting with .262. San Antonio was second with .260.

SMU's Gene Roberts Declared Ineligible

DALLAS—(P)—Southern Methodist University authorities announced Saturday that Gene (Chicken) Roberts, veteran safety man and ace pass defender, had been declared scholastically ineligible for the coming season.

This automatically ends Roberts' college football career. This is his fifth year at SMU.

El Tee Discovery In Dawson Flows Oil At 40 BPH Rate

The El Tee Oil Company No. 1-96 Briley, Northwest Dawson County wildcat has assured the opening of a new Pennsylvanian lime oil field.

The project kicked off and flowed oil, with a little drilling mud, and a slight amount of acid residue at the estimated rate of an average of 40 barrels per hour for several hours.

Some observers estimated that during the last hour of flowing the well made in excess of 70 barrels of pipe line oil.

Through Open Tubing

The flow was through open two-inch tubing and it came from perforated section at 8,575-90 feet, in the top of the Pennsylvanian lime reef.

That interval had been washed with 500 gallons of mud acid. After operator had swabbed out the load and residue from the acid washing the well kicked off and made the flow.

It was flowing steadily when operator shut it in after all of the steel mud pits on the location were filled.

The oil which has been produced will be saved, operator representative said Saturday.

Will Build Tanks

The new discovery is shut in while tanks are built, flow lines are laid and control equipment is installed. When that work is completed operator will complete the new oil well.

This exploration is bottomed at 8,641 feet in lime. A string of 7-inch casing is cemented at total depth.

Testing of this well has been held up more than two weeks while operator fished out junk in the bottom of the hole.

All of that material has not been recovered. However, the hole is clear to 8,636 feet and a retainer is set inside the casing at that point.

The El Tee No. 1-96 Briley topped the Pennsylvanian lime reef at 8,570 feet, on an elevation of 3,091 feet.

Total Depth Is 8,641 Feet

It drilled to total depth of 8,641 feet and ran a drillstem test at 8,600-41 feet.

The tool was open three hours. No fluid came to the top while the tester was open. Recovery was 4,030 feet of clean oil and 430 feet of salt water.

After that test was completed an electric log was taken and it showed the pay extended up the hole to approximately 8,750 feet.

With the saturated section going up that high operator does not plan to take any chance of developing bottom water by perforating below the point where the retainer is now set.

May Take It As It Is

If an extended producing test should show that the well will produce at the 40-barrel rate it has already indicated from the interval at 8,575-90 feet the project probably will be completed without any deeper perforating.

Location is 600 feet from north and 800 feet from east lines of section 96, block M, EL&RR survey.

The wildcat was originally projected to 12,000 feet to test Ellenburger—unless it found production in a higher zone.

Permian Basin OIL & GAS LOG

James C. Watson
Oil Editor

tended test of the open hole zone at 10,630-640 feet in the lower Pennsylvanian pay.

After Acid Treatment

That production came after the zone had been treated with 3,500 gallons of acid. There was no formation water with the oil.

Operator has now perforated the 7-inch casing, which is cemented at 10,630 feet, and is preparing to test that zone. Those perforations are at 10,590-64 feet.

That interval will be acidised and then tested. A drillstem test on that section, taken before the casing was set indicated that it would produce petroleum in commercial amounts.

Location is 2,400 feet from west and 1,320 feet from north lines of section 12, Charles F. O'Neal survey.

Fisher Wildcat Gets Good Shows On Core In Sandy Lime Zone

Sinclair Oil & Gas Company No. 1 Bessie McClesky, one location south of here, to a recently completed Strawn sand discovery in Central-North Fisher County, is at total depth of 5,744 feet in sandy lime taking a drillstem test.

Operator cored from 5,732 to 5,744 feet. Recovery was seven and one-half feet of sandy lime with good porosity, stain and odor.

No markers have been reported in the project.

The discovery well is Sinclair No. 1 Belle Hunsaker. It was completed through perforations in casing opposite the Strawn at 5,710-5,720 feet for a daily flowing potential of 240 barrels of oil and no water.

No. 1 McClesky is 330 feet from north and west lines of the northeast quarter of section 182, block 2, H&TC survey.

Five Important Midland Wildcats In Active State

Greenbrier Oil Company and associates No. 1 O. H. McAllister, northeast Midland County wildcat, two miles southeast of Germania, is drilling ahead after a drillstem test in the Spraberry.

The test was taken over the interval from 8,061 feet to 8,180 feet. Tool was open three hours. Recovery was 200 feet of mud with no shows of oil or gas.

The Spraberry was entered at 7-322 feet, on a datum of minus 4,610 feet.

Location is 600 feet from north and east lines of section 40, block 37, T-1-S, T&P survey.

Projected To Devonian

It is projected to 12,000 feet to explore into the Devonian.

Three-quarters of one mile northwest of the Hi-Lonesome-Wolfcamp field of Northwest-Central Midland County, The Texas Company No. 2-D Clarence Scharbauer took a drillstem test at 6,885-7,915 feet in the Spraberry lime and sand.

Tool was open six hours. There was a slight blow of air throughout the test. Recovery was 170 feet of clear salt water and 20 feet of drilling oil.

Operator is now drilling below 7-971 feet in lime and sand.

Location is 1,980 feet from south and 600 feet from west lines of section 19, block 39, T-2-S, T&P survey.

The Blackwood & Nichols Company No. 1 Hofferkamp, wildcat in North-Central Midland County, is making hole below 10,539 feet in lime and shale.

Location is 1,980 feet from south and 600 feet from west lines of section 19, block 38, T-1-S, T&P survey and two and one-half miles northeast of Midland.

The same operator's No. 1 B. L.

SW Martin Wildcat Is To Perforate And Test Pennsylvanian

The Blackwood & Nichols Company No. 1 Stimson & Burley, wildcat in Southwest Martin County, drilled and reamed to 10,800 feet and is now preparing to perforate and test above that depth in the Pennsylvanian where operator encountered some interesting shows of oil.

Location is seven miles north of Midland and 600 feet from west and south lines of section 36, block 39, T-1-N, T&P survey.

The Texas Company No. 1 McClain, Central Martin County prospector is drilling below 6,239 feet in lime.

Drillsite is 1,983 feet from south and 600 feet from west lines of section 38, block 38, T-2-S, T&P survey. It is one and one-quarter miles southeast of Lenora.

Making More Hole

Sinclair Oil & Gas Company No. 1-A Harry Lester, East-Central Martin County test, is progressing below 7,423 feet in sand and shale, after failing to develop commercial production in the upper zone of the upper Spraberry. It will dig on down to test the lower Spraberry.

It is 600 feet from north and west (Continued On Page Eleven)

J. V. Morrissey, Veteran Oil Well Shooter, Dies

PORT WORTH—(P)—John V. Morrissey, 61, veteran in the shooting of oil wells with nitroglycerin, died early Saturday of a heart ailment. The Fort Worth man, also an oil operator, was sales manager of the Independent Eastern Torpedo Company.

He was the son of the late Thomas F. Morrissey, pioneer oil man and one of the founders of the Panhandle Producers and Refining Company. The firm built one of the first refineries at Wichita Falls.

Services will be held here at 10 a.m. Monday.

A Chinese empress, Si-Ling-Chi, raised silkworms and in 2700 B.C. learned how to unwind the threads from cocoons.

240 Completions Reported In Week

AUSTIN—(P)—Texas had 240 oil well completions last week, the Railroad Commission reported Saturday.

Of these, eight were wildcats. During the same period, 117 wells were plugged.

Last week's completions brought the total for this year to 7,897, compared with 7,643 in the same period last year.

Drilling applications are running far ahead of last year's, the commission report showed. There were 14,703 applications to date in 1951, compared with 11,961 during the same months in 1950.

Drive Against Imports Hinted In IPAA Action

By JOSEPH HUTTLINGER
Reporter-Telegram Washington Oil Correspondent

WASHINGTON—A drive against bill imports, and warnings of a possible drive against natural gas imports from Canada came last week from the Independent Petroleum Association of America.

In the oil action, the IPAA told the Tariff Commission it wants to be heard October 2, when hearings start on the Administration's new plan to reduce the duty on crude oil and products from Venezuela. The Committee for Reciprocity Information takes up the matter a week later.

The duty is 10.5 cents a barrel on imports up to five per cent of the previous year's runs to 11.5 stills, and 21 cents after that. This hike went into effect this year, from a straight 10.5 cent figure, as a palliative to producing segments suffering under imports' a year ago.

Under "most favored nation" procedure, any tariff concession automatically spreads to all countries. A lowering of the duty, if carried out, would mean more income for importing companies, possibly $10,000,000, since most of them elected to absorb the extra cost when the tariff went up this year.

Under "uphill fight" due to an upsurge in oil prices, it is due for petroleum producers, since the "uphill fight" criteria to be considered include the level of income and profits, of jobs and general industry health. Domestic producers get a Grade C on this, indicating to government they can stand more imports.

Further, the cry is out for capacity crude production, and a government estimate last week is a record of 6,360,000 barrels daily from American fields for the rest of this year. But predictions are hazardous, since the new Tariff Act has not been tested before.

Empire State Petroleum Association was the first marketing group to say it would appear, presumably in favor of lower tariffs. But the National Oil Jobbers Council is expected in, and many federal agencies including the Office of Price Stabilization, always crying oil shortage, are ready to back up the State Department's "cut-the-duty" drive. Months are ahead before final action, but the government is aiming at a new petroleum tariff in effect by the end of the year.

In the natural gas action, which sets a precedent, the IPAA asked to intervene in a Federal Power Commission proceeding where in the Montana Power Company seeks to construct a 52-mile pipeline line to carry up to 10,000,000 cubic feet of gas a year from Canada to Mon-

Phillips Officials Think Highly Of Spraberry Trend

Phillips Petroleum Company thinks well of the Spraberry Trend area of the Midland Basin—and its future.

That is attested in a statement issued a few days ago by K. S. Adams, chairman of the board and Paul Endocott, president, of the concern from their headquarters in Bartlesville.

The statement: "In an area of particular interest at this time, the prolific Spraberry sand trend of West Texas, Phillips owns oil and gas leases on approximately 30,000 net acres.

"An aggressive program is now underway to develop this acreage. To date the company has completed 25 producing wells and is now drilling 22 other wells. "It is estimated that 500 additional wells will be drilled on the company's holdings in the heart of the Spraberry Trend in areas now regarded as proven for production."

TIPRO Directors Will Discuss Steel Allocation Program

AUSTIN—The new oil industry steel allocation plan arising out of a meeting earlier this month between representatives of 14 oil associations and the Petroleum Administration for Defense will come up for discussion and interpretation at the mid-year directors meeting of the Texas Independent Producers and Royalty Owners Association in Tyler September 28.

The meeting with PAD resulted from a telegram from TIPRO PAD voicing the protest of small independent producers who were unable to obtain pipe under existing allocation procedure. Definite assurances were given that the program would be revised to increase the flow of oil country tubular goods to small producers.

In addition to the five per cent now stockpiled for wildcat wells, an additional five per cent will be made available to operators drilling from one to 11 wells a year, including those with no previous drilling history. Other provisions of the plan adopted at the meeting will be released soon by PAD.

"We are particularly pleased with the five per cent increase in stocks to be made available to small operators who otherwise are unable to place their orders for steel however badly needed," said TIPRO President R. L. Foree of Dallas. "Likewise we welcome the provisions which will include in the five per cent hereinafter reserved for wildcat wells the addition of extension wells, offset well, and wells drilled to meet contractual obligations."

Guest speakers previously announced for the TIPRO directors meeting are Russell B. Brown, IPAA general counsel, Olin Cuberson, Texas Railroad Commission chairman, and Harrington Wimberly, Federal Power Commission member.

On the subject of natural gas, which is expected to take the spotlight at the meeting, a report is being read on the action of the Office of Price Stabilization in setting a maximum wellhead price on gas in the Woodland field of Henderson County.

Jimmy Hudnall of Tyler will deliver a talk on "new oil discoveries in East Texas."

Committee To Meet The TIPRO executive committee and special committees, including resolutions and gas, meet at 2 p. m., Thursday, September 27. Approximately 200 directors from every part of Texas gather the following morning for a day-long meeting.

The morning business session, to be addressed by IPAA General Counsel Russell B. Brown, will be presided over by President R. L. Foree of Dallas. Judge Olin Cuberson, Railroad Commission chairman, will address the luncheon, with Guy I. Warren of Corpus Christi presiding. At the afternoon business session, featuring an open forum, Bryan W. Payne of Tyler will preside. Will Man Richardson of Tyler will serve as toastmaster at the dinner, at which FPC Commissioner Harrington Wimberly will speak.

AAODC Will Meet In Fort Worth For Annual Gathering

The growing stature of the drilling contractor in providing technical knowledge necessary to meet increasing demand for petroleum and its products will receive recognition at the eleventh annual meeting of the American Association of Oilwell Drilling Contractors to be held in Fort Worth, September 23-25.

Percy Graig Spencer, president of Sinclair Oil Corporation, who will give the key-note address, at the closing banquet of the meeting, will discuss "Contributions of Contractors Toward Oil Needs of Tomorrow."

A paper on "The Drilling Contractor and the Oil Company" will be presented at the general session on Tuesday morning, September 25th, by A. C. Rubel, vice president in charge of exploration and production for Union Oil Company of California.

"Fundamentals of an Employee Relations Program" will be the subject of a paper to be presented by Ray H. Horton, manager of industrial relations for Humble Oil & Refining Company, Houston.

A. W. Thompson, A. A. O. D. C. President, has predicted a record attendance of drilling industry representatives from throughout the country to hear these speakers, and technical men from within the drilling industry who will discuss possible solutions of various problems facing the industry today. It is expected almost 1,000 delegates will attend this meeting.

WTGS Is To Meet On Friday Night To Hear Address By Leighton

Dr. M. M. Leighton will speak on "Natural Resources and Geological Surveys" at a meeting of the West Texas Geological Society at 8 u. m. Friday. The place of the meeting will be announced at a later date. This will be the first meeting of the organization for the 1951 Fall season.

Leighton will discuss the history of the science of geology, the role played by state and federal geological surveys in development of this science and the importance of resources in present and future economic development.

This discussion will be of particular interest to oil geologists as well as those engaged in other industries concerned with the development and utilization of all natural resources. Has Wide Experience

Leighton received academic training at the University of Iowa and the University of Chicago. He has been chief of the Illinois Geological Survey since 1923 and has previously been associated with several universities.

He has many publications to his credit, covering various aspects of geology and mineral industry development, and has become widely known as administrator of one of the leading state geological surveys in the country.

Leighton is making a tour under the sponsorship of the Distinguished Lecture Committee of the American Association of Petroleum Geologists and is speaking before several of the affiliated geological societies in the Midwest and Southwest states.

Additional chapters on ground water, petroleum history and statistics, and mineral resources are planned as well as detailed road logs, and maps and sections pertinent to the field conference route.

Areas to be covered will include the west edge of the Rio Grande trough, the Lucero uplift, Mt. Taylor syncline, Zuni Mountain area, Defiance uplift and Chuska Mountains. Registration will start at 2:00 p. m., October 11, at the Administration building of the University of New Mexico in Albuquerque.

Registration Required A registration fee of $10.00 will be collected in Albuquerque from each participant by the society to help defray the expenses of the conference and tour. This registration fee entitles each person to a copy of the guidebook.

Reservation deposits will be applied on the registration fee. Personal expenses for meals and lodging will be borne individually. All inquiries concerning the conference and all requests for hotel reservations or other accommodations should be sent to Dr. Eugene Callaghan, secretary-treasurer, New Mexico Geological Society, Campus Station, Socorro, N. M.

New All-Weather Grease Does Multiple GI Jobs A new all-weather grease that performs equally well in tropic heat or arctic cold has been developed by Army lubrication experts.

The grease, the result of extensive tests over the past three years is expected to replace at least six other greases formerly required for Army vehicles and artillery pieces. It will eliminate the job of converting to cold climate operations a vehicle that had been lubricated with ordinary-weather greases, thus saving about 30 man-hours per vehicle.

New Motion Picture On Living Standards Sponsored By OIIC

NEW YORK — The dramatic story of how man has been able to wrest today's high standard of living from Nature and the Land is the theme of a new motion picture produced under the sponsorship of the Oil Industry Information Committee.

Entitled "Man on the Land," the action-packed motion picture was made for the committee by United Productions of America—the firm which won an Academy Award in 1930 for an animated motion picture. The same style of animation and color is used in "Man on the Land."

The new movie—the third produced in as many years by the Oil Industry Information Committee—emphasizes that throughout all history man has been able to progress and prosper only in those periods and places where he has been free to work, think and produce in a competitive atmosphere.

"Man on the Land" tells the story of agriculture in 16 swiftly-paced minutes—from the time that man first scratched the earth with a forked stick to the present age of oil-powered tractors, petroleum fertilizers, insecticides and other petrochemicals with which he is making the very desert "blossom like the rose," as the Bible predicted.

Shows Benefits It illustrates graphically how every one of the nation's 150 million people benefit in one way or another from the side by side progress and the inseparable relationship of two of America's great industries—agriculture and petroleum.

"Man on the Land" is regarded as an outstanding motion picture among institutional and industry films. In full technicolor, it utilizes animation rather than live characters, and a ballad singer carries the story, instead of the conventional narrator.

The new picture is now being made available to oil companies, trade associations, agriculture societies and organizations, and other interested parties. It is available in both 35 millimeter and 16 millimeter prints. Wide Audience Appeal

Since it is designed basically for wide audience appeal—youthful and adult, rural and urban—it is expected to receive thousands of showings from coast to coast, particularly during the period of October 14-20, when the industry observes Oil Progress Week.

Production of the motion picture was supervised by Film Counselors, Inc. of New York, and a subcommittee of the OIIC, headed by Philip C. Humphrey, public relations director for The Texas Company, New York.

Previous motion pictures produced by the committee were "Twenty-Four Hours of Progress," and "The Last Ten Feet." These two are still in use throughout the country, and have been enjoyed by audiences running well into the millions.

Two Tulsa Oil Firms Plan Move To Dallas

DALLAS—(P)—The British-American Oil Producing Company and the Toronto Pipe Line Company will move headquarters from Tulsa to Dallas about July 1, 1952, Leo F. Corrigan said Saturday.

The Dallas real estate man said the oil firm offices would occupy two floors of the Corrigan Tower Office Building, now under construction.

C. D. Miller, executive vice president and general manager of both companies, said headquarters are being moved to Dallas "to be closer to the pulse of the oil industry."

OIL MAY BE MEANS OF BOOSTING BENZENE SUPPLY

Consumption of benzene, critical raw material used in some 50 important products, has increased five-fold since 1940, but supply has not gone up accordingly. Cost benzene now comes from coke ovens, while production from petroleum is a recent development which is growing rapidly.

A possible additional source is coal hydrogenation. However, one oil researcher has estimated that enough coal-hydrogenation plants to meet the demand would cost $25,000,000 and take two to three years to construct. To produce this same amount of benzene from naphthenic petroleum would take one third the time and one tenth the money, he estimates.

DeGolyer Has Been Elected Honorary Member Of AIME

Dr. E. L. DeGolyer, world renowned geologist who heads the firm of DeGolyer and MacNaughton in Dallas, has been accorded one of the highest tributes of the engineering profession.

DeGolyer, who has spent the greater part of his 65 years in the location of oil producing areas of the Western Hemisphere, was elected an honorary member of the American Institute of Mining and Metallurgical Engineers, one of the foremost professional societies for engineers in the United States. His election was effected this week in New York City by the board of directors of the AIME.

Announcement of his election to honorary membership was made in Dallas by Joe B. Alford, executive secretary of the petroleum branch, AIME.

Only 20 men may hold the office of honorary member of the AIME at any one time and election to that coveted status is made only after careful consideration of a candidate's professional and scientific contributions to both the AIME and the industry which it serves.

Born In Kansas Born in 1886 near Greensburg, Kansas, DeGolyer first worked under eminent geologists at the University of Oklahoma where he received his B. A. in geology. Since that time he has located producing oil wells in most important areas of the hemisphere.

It was in 1909 when he was but 23 years old, that he located the famous Potero del Liano No. 4 in Mexico. This "find" has alone produced in excess of 100 million barrels of oil.

In 1919 he organized the Amerada Petroleum Corporation and in 1925 its subsidiary, the Geophysical Research Corporation. He served for a number of years as president of the firm as well as chairman of the board of the former.

In 1914 he became a member of the petroleum division of AIME. His contributions to this scientific-engineering organization have been his service as chairman of the petroleum division from 1923 to 1925, as president of the Institute in 1927 and as a director in 1928 and 1929. Served On Committees

He has served on various committees of the Institute throughout his membership. He has been a lecturer at Princeton University and the University of Texas and is a member or fellow of number of scientific organizations in the United States and England.

The United States Government has solicited his advice and service during a number of times of emergency. He is a charter member of the National Petroleum Council, the Military Petroleum Advisory Board and the Advisory Committee on Raw Materials of the Atomic Energy Commission.

DeGolyer is still active in the present accelerated search for new petroleum reserves as head of the geological and engineering consulting firm of DeGolyer and MacNaughton.

Increased Crude Oil Demand Seen

AUSTIN—(P)—The forecast of demand for Texas crude oil next month by the Bureau of Mines was reported by the Railroad Commission Friday at 2,720,000 barrels daily. That is 30,000 barrels a day more than the bureau estimated for September demand.

Texas' daily allowable as of Saturday was 3,104,798 barrels. A statewide proration hearing is scheduled September 19.

Eight Wildcats Are Slated For Drilling In SE New Mexico

HOBBS, N. M. — Eight wildcat explorations, two discovery offsets, one field outpost and one deep pool test were reported for Southeast New Mexico.

The deepest of the wildcats will be drilled by Sun Oil Company in the extreme northeast corner of Sierra County, 15 miles east of Elephant Butte reservoir. It will be dug as No. 1 Victoria Land & Cattle Company, 600 feet from south and 1,980 feet from west lines of section 25-10S-1W. It is to go to a possible bottom of 11,500 feet.

In extreme Southeast Roosevelt County, one-half mile west of Cochran County, Texas, Paul L. Davis will drill his No. 1 Ralph Nix as a 5,000-foot San Andres wildcat.

Drillite is 600 feet from south and east lines of section 32-7S-3E. The Texas Company will drill No. 1-AZ State as a wildcat 1,980 feet from north and west lines of section 20-14S-3E and in Central-West Lea County.

It is slated to go to around 9,800 feet. Drillite is two and three-quarter miles north of Texaco No. 1-AS State, recently completed Wolfcamp discovery.

Three of the eight wildcat projects will be drilled in Eddy County. Two and one-half miles northwest of the Black River field and in the Southwest-Central part of the county, George E. Bauerdorf No. 1 Schrup will be dug 1,980 feet from north and east lines of section 4-24S-26E. It is to go to around 2,000 feet.

Reeder & Sheldon spotted No. 1 Continental-State, wildcat in Northwest Eddy County, will be drilled 1,980 feet from south and 600 feet from west lines of section 24-26S-27E. That puts it three miles northwest of Riggs No. 1 Welch, a recent shallow discovery.

No. 1 Continental-State is contracted to 700 feet. Four miles south of No. 1 Welch, H. N. Smith spotted location for No. 1 W. W. Simpson, Jr., a 750-foot wildcat. Drillite is 1,980 feet from north and 600 feet from east lines of section 29-21S-27E.

Gulf Oil Corporation will drill its No. 1-U State in Central-South Chaves County, 50 miles west of the closest production in Eddy County. Located 390 feet from north and 600 feet from east lines of the northwest quarter of section 10-18S-16E, it will go to around 5,800 feet or granite.

DeKalb Agricultural Association, Inc., and others No. 1 A. E. Elliott will be drilled as an 850-foot wildcat in Central Chaves County, four miles east of Roswell. Exact location is 330 feet from north and east lines of section 21-10S-26E.

George Williams will drill a three-quarter-mile northeast outpost to the Robinson field of Central-West Lea County as No. 1 State. Location is 2,310 feet from north and east lines of section 30-16S-32E. It is contracted for a 3,800-foot bottom.

Half a mile west of Texaco No. 1-AS State, Texaco will drill its No. 1-AX State, 600 feet from north and 1,980 feet from west lines of section 6-15S-32E. It will be projected to a possible bottom of 9,750 feet. The project is in Central-West Lea County.

Tide Water Associated Oil Company No. 1 Dora E. Meyers, will be drilled as a age-location northwest offset to its recently completed No. 1-P-D State, Strawy discovery in Central-East Lea County. It is projected to 11,000 feet, 600 feet from west and 1,980 feet from south lines of section 33-16S-37E.

Amerada Petroleum Corporation will drill its No. 8-SB State as a Pennsylvania project in the Saunders field of Central-West Lea County. Operator set site 1,980 feet from south and 600 feet from west lines of section 3-15S-33E. It is to go to around 10,000 feet.

Shell Oil Company No. 2-A State is a new oiler in the Saunders field. It was completed from plugged back total depth of 9,982 feet for a daily flowing potential, natural, of 780 barrels of 4.25-gravity oil and no water.

Pay was topped at 9,878 feet and the oiler was drilled to total depth of 10,107 feet. The final was on a one-half-inch tubing choke. Gas-oil ratio was 1,457-1 and tubing pressure was 500 pounds. The daily potential was based on an actual 12-hour flowing test.

Location is 600 feet from south and east lines of section 34-14S-32S. Southern California Exploration Company No. 2 Reid-Federal is to be drilled as a 2,900-foot project in a recently opened Delaware sand field in Southeast Eddy County.

At present there are two producers in the field, which was opened with the completion of Southern California No. 1 Valley Land Company.

Site for the new test is 2,310 feet from north and east lines of section 7-24S-26E. Magnolia Petroleum Company No. 1 J. D. Black, wildcat eight miles west of the Denton field of Central-East Lea County, and possible Permian-Pennsylvanian discovery, was coring below 10,376 feet after a core from 10,350 feet to 10,368 feet failed to develop oil shows.

Location is 1,980 feet from north and west lines of section 9-15S-36E. Magnolia No. 1-B Santa Fe, one and one-half miles west of the Crossroads-Multitray field of North-east Lea County, is at total depth of 12,130 feet in lime waiting for cement to cure on seven-inch casing.

This project topped the Devonian at 12,128 feet. No tests were made of the two feet cut, but operator believes structural position is favorable for a Devonian producer.

As soon as cement cures operator will drill plug from the casing and deepen into the expected pay. Drillite is 600 feet from north and 1,980 feet from west lines of section 29-9S-36E.

Los Nietos Company No. 1 Elliott-Federal, projected 12,000-foot wildcat in Northeast Lea County, is at total depth of 11,668 feet in lime fishing. The Mississippi was topped at 11,422 feet, on a datum point of minus 7,520 feet.

A drillstem test of the basal Pennsylvanian was made from 11,378 to 11,408 feet. Tool was open two hours. Recovery was 1,000-foot water blanket and 10 feet of drilling mud with no shows.

Location is 600 feet from south and east lines of section 27-11S-39E. Stanolind No. 1-W State, Southeast Lea County wildcat, has been plugged and abandoned on "total" depth of 9,965 feet in lime. Site was 600 feet from north and east lines of section 15-18S-37E.

WELDER BURNS EYES George P. Smith, 1111 East Hamby Street, burned both eyes Saturday while using an electric welder. He was given emergency treatment and released at Midland Memorial Hospital.

50 YEARS FROM NOW...

A half-century from today, this beautiful home will be even more lovely than it is today... the selected Austin stone and the heavy cedar shake roof will weather with the years into softer shades, retaining all the natural strength and grace of line.

And the interior of the home, while in the modern design, will also mellow with the passing years into an increasingly charming home. No expense has been spared in the builder's effort to create the ultimate in gracious living... a place of lasting beauty.

The stone passageway beckons the guest into the entry hall, which leads off to the kitchen, the living room and the hallway to the bedrooms. The kitchen is utilitarian loveliness itself, featuring ceramic tile to the ceiling, sheet rubber floor covering with cove base, 3-speed exhaust fan, a multitude of cabinet units, and a breakfast area.

The living room utilizes the trend to glass walls, with a view of, and access to, the completely enclosed back yard. A raised stage, elevated fireplace that burns logs or gas, and colored plaster walls are featured points in the over-sized living room.

Off the living room is the enclosed, outside dining area that leads to the California-designed barbecue pit and the terrace.

The three bedrooms are roomy and comfortable, with ready access to two ceramic tiled bathrooms with dressing rooms included. The third all-tile bath is located in the den, which also features full cork floor, etchwood panelling and massively beamed ceiling.

The many expensive refinements in this exceptional home include a two-car garage with completely finished interior, paved circle drive and parking area, recessed lighting throughout, sliding panel doors, 140,000 B.T.U. central heating unit, 8,000 C.F.M. cooling system, built-in chests of drawers, phone jacks in master bedroom, kitchen and den, leather folding door between kitchen and dining area, and many, many more. The front and back lawns are fully developed.

Why not make an appointment now to see this Austin stone beauty? The builder will be delighted to show you through...

Half-Timers

The Midland High School has a new form of sparkling half-time entertainment at football games this year.

Furnishing the entertainment will be the Half-Timers, 38 pretty and high-stepping Midland High School coeds. They will replace the Gold Jackets as a pep legion. They performed for the first time at the opening game Friday.

The Half-Timers' uniforms include white pleated skirts, purple jerseys, white berets and saddle oxfords. In chilly weather the girls will wear white coat sweaters.

Instead of the strictly military marching style, the Half-Timers will do a variety of feature dance routines. Mrs. Eugenia Wilson is their director.

The five smartly dressed majorettes will take turns leading the Half-Timers. They are Barbara Whitson, Emily Hamilton, Barbara Ware, Barbara Long and Jean Waddill.

Members of the newly organized Half-Timers are Betty Spurgers, Pat Curran, Shirley Henderson, Jan Dickerson, Margie Hensley, Simone Walker, Joyce Bailey, Kirk Kuykendall, Faye Henshaw, Estelle Hooper, Judy Wolcott, Patsy Edgmon, Mary Row, Fifi Pryor.

HALF-TIME ENTERTAINERS—Thirty-eight MHS coeds, called the Half-Timers, and five smartly dressed majorettes will entertain during the half time period at the Midland football games this year. Five energetic cheer leaders will lead Midlanders and high school students in yells for their home team—the Bulldogs.

FULL DRESS—Diane Nichols, left, and Janet Hooper model the full dress of the Midland Half-Timers. The white coat sweaters will be worn during chilly weather.

Most Cities Plan To Observe Home Fall Fashion Time

DALLAS—A special committee will direct the state-wide program for Texas Fall Home Fashion Time—September 23 through October 1,—it is announced by officials of the Retail Furniture Association of Texas.

Texas Fall Home Fashion Time will be observed in virtually every city in the Lone Star State during that period, with the aim of making it possible for Texans to have "more friendly homes," leaders in the association declared.

This is the purpose of the special event, which will be sponsored by all segments of the furniture and home furnishings industry, including manufacturers, wholesalers and retailers, said F. C. Allen, Jr., of Corpus Christi, president of the Retail Furniture Association of Texas, who heads the special state committee.

Mrs. Jimmie L. Olson

LaVerne Estes And Jimmie Olson Wed

In a double-ring ceremony Saturday, LaVerne Estes became the bride of Jimmie Left Olson. The ceremony took place in the First Baptist Church, with the Rev. J. Q. Woodard, assistant pastor, officiating.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bennie T. Estes of Midland. Olson is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Left Olson of Midland.

Verla Lee Collins read the poem "How Do I Love Thee?" The musical program included "Clair de Lune," "Through The Years," "I Love Thee," "Because," "Always," "At Dawning" and "The Lord's Prayer." Mrs. Duke Jimerson was the soloist and the organist was Mrs. Joe Mims.

The sanctuary of the church was decorated with a background of tall woodwardia fern trees and seven branched candelabra. Each of the trees was centered with a sunburst arrangement of white gladiolus and maroon. The chancel rail was accented with smaller sunbursts of the same flowers. The pews for the family were roped with satin streamers and the pew corsages were of maroon daisies and a satin shower.

Attendants Listed
Mrs. A. F. Weaver of Mineral Wells was the matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Barbra Adams and Martha Lee Adams of Lubbock and Virginia Stewart of Midland. Alan Olson, brother of the bridegroom, was the best man. Ushers were Wayne Euker of Fort Leonard Wood, Mo., Clem Barnes, Joe Anderson, Billy Stan Erskine and Roy Edwin Kinsey of Midland and Buddy Adams, Lubbock.

Mary Louise and Ruth Ann Erskine were the flower girls.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride chose a wedding gown of imported French lace and nylon net over satin. It was fashioned with a sheer yoke framed with a small lace collar. The fitted lace bodice outlined the yoke with elaborate appliques extending into a tiny sleeve and terminating with deep points at the waistline. The full skirt was of layers of nylon net. A lace overskirt swept into a chapel length train.

She wore lace gauntlets and her fingertip length veil of silk illusion was joined to a crown of orange blossoms interlaced with seed pearls. She carried a bouquet of lily of the valley and stephanotis centered with white orchids and surrounded by tufts of illusion with a satin ribbon shower in which love knots and stephanotis were tied.

Attendants Wear Pink
The attendants wore gowns of rose pink net and taffeta fashioned with a strapless bodice and net sleeves. The bodice was fashioned with a wide fitted midriff of taffeta. The full ballerina length skirt was of net over taffeta.

The maid of honor carried a styled bouquet of Virginia pink carnations with pink illusion tufts and streamers. Her bandeau was pink carnations.

The bridesmaids carried styled bouquets of dubonnet carnations with satin streamers and illusion tufts. Their bandeaus were of matching carnations. The candle lighters wore wristlets of pearl-gonium carnations and bandeaus of dubonnet carnations.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Estes chose a navy blue dress with turquoise and white accessories. The bridegroom's mother chose a royal blue dress with pink accessories. Both mothers wore white orchid corsages.

After the ceremony a reception was held at the Midland Country Club.

The bride's table was centered with the wedding cake. The base of the cake was surrounded with maidenhair fern and stephanotis and a small cluster of stephanotis accented the top of the cake. The five branched candelabra on each side of the cake held long white tapers and were entwined with maidenhair fern. The corners of the table were accented with table corsages of white carnations.

House Party Listed

Members of the house party were Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Erskine, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Gibbins, Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Epley, Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Young, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Monroe, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Martin, Mr. and Mrs. Arch Clevenger, Mr. and Mrs. Bruno Schabarum, Mr. and Mrs. Peyton Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Hazlip, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Bauman, Mr. and Mrs. L. F. Shiplett, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Kelley, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Beaky, Mr. and Mrs. John Parker, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Payne, Dr. and Mrs. C. S. Britt, Mr. and Mrs. S. P. Hazlip, Dr. and Mrs. V. P. Neisai and Mr. and Mrs. Bob Franklin.

For the wedding trip to Rudoso, N.M., the bride wore a champagne colored suit with purple velvet accessories. Her corsage was a purple orchid.

The couple will be at home in Lubbock after September 21.

P. E. O. Names Vice President

Mrs. G. E. Mershon was elected vice president of the BS Chapter of P. E. O. recently at a meeting in the home of Mrs. L. E. Patterson, Jr.

Mrs. Mershon was named to replace Mrs. Patterson who recently resigned.

Others attending were Mrs. Mittie Norman, Mrs. Herbert A. Hemphill, Mrs. Van Camp, Mrs. W. David Henderson, Mrs. James N. Allison, Mrs. Clint Dunagan, Mrs. W. H. Brimm, Mrs. Paul H. Kolm, Mrs. K. C. Heald, Jr., Mrs. John Casselman and Mrs. Andrew A. Bradford.

ANDREWS—Dr. and Mrs. Jacob LeBeau returned Friday to Austin where he will resume his duties as professor in the engineering department at the University of Texas. Dr. LeBeau was employed by the Stanolind Oil Company during the summer months.

Judge Milton Ralusey, Gene Irwin, Winifred Hudgen, Carl Betenbough and H. B. Walters, Mayor W. M. Peoples, City Secretary L. B. Parrish and Councilman Hal Lonis will go to Austin Monday to meet with the State Highway Commission on widening of Highway 87 as far west as the Andrews cemetery.

Bill Dingle, a former Stanolind employee here, and now a student of law at the University of Texas was a business visitor here Wednesday and Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Clovis Bostwick will move to Midland Friday to make their home. Bostwick is a driller with the Henry S. Black Drilling company.

Recent guests in the M. O. Wolam home were three of Mrs. Wolam's brothers and a sister. The guests included Carol McGuire of San Diego, Calif., Gene McGuire and Mrs. Frank Abbot both of Hot Springs, N. M., and Mr. and Mrs. Walter McGuire of Dora, N. M.

Mrs. Bob Preston was elected president of the Alathean Class of the First Baptist Church when it met Friday in the home of Mrs. J. E. Hill.

Other officers elected were Mrs. G. G. Hazel, membership chairman; Mrs. Hill, fellowship chairman; Grace Wallace, ministerial chairman; Mrs. Fred Gunter, stewardship chairman, and Mrs. Fred Wycoff, secretary-treasurer.

Mrs. Hill's home was decorated with Fall flowers.

Others attending were Mrs. C. M. Goldsmith, Mrs. C. A. Barton, Mrs. G. C. Rhodes, Mrs. T. P. Drew, Mrs. J. J. Kirby, Georgia Bryant, Mrs. Lenton Brunson, Mrs. W. A. Stahl, Ruth Stumbo, Roberta Taylor, Annie Pitts, Mrs. J. A. Tuttle, Mrs. M. D. Cox, Mrs. J. R. Harrison and Louise Barron.

Provided you don't object to the design of your printed fabrics, you can re-dye them quite successfully. Since the original pattern will show through, whatever new color is produced, it's a good idea to choose your dye with that in mind. Dark dye-shades will help tone down patterns somewhat.

Farewell Party Honors Bauers

ANDREWS—Mr. and Mrs. Roy Bauer were complimented with a going away party held recently in the County Park. Bauer, who is employed in the engineering department of Stanolind Oil Company, has been transferred to the Midland office.

The honorees were presented with a table lamp. Those attending were Mr. and Mrs. Frank Clements, Mr. and Mrs. Derral Brewer, Mr. and Mrs. Jake LeBeau, Mr. and Mrs. O. R. Williams, Jimmie May, Wilbur Yeager and Jack Schrinkle.

Anyone who's ever tried to pry hardened paraffin from the top of a jelly glass will appreciate this tip. Before pouring the paraffin over freshly-made jelly, place a piece of ordinary string across the top of the glass or jar. With the two dangling ends, the paraffin can be easily removed when it's time to serve the sweet.

University Of Texas Chemists Get Grant

AUSTIN — University of Texas chemists have received a $90,000 Air Force grant to develop an improved method for analyzing aluminum and steel alloys used in aircraft.

Dr. G. H. Ayres is directing the project. Dr. E. H. Simonsen is assistant director.

The researchers' job is to perfect a test to determine amounts of metals in an alloy from one sample. Vital aircraft production will be speeded if they are successful because current analysis methods usually require a separate sample and test to find the amount of each metal in an alloy.

Because an alloy's properties vary greatly with slight changes in the amounts of metals it contains, manufacturers must keep a constant check on materials going into aircraft production.

The University scientists will try to develop an analysis method utilizing a colorimeter.

In Rectangular Case
The device, housed in a black rectangular case about seven inches wide, nine inches high, and 30 inches long, allows a known amount of a given color (wave length) of light to pass through an alloy in solution. Each metal is sensitive to a particular color and absorbs it.

Theoretically the chemists can pass the color a given metal "likes" through an alloy in solution, and measure the amount of light coming out. By subtracting that from the amount of light that went in, they can determine how much was absorbed by the metal, and consequently, how much metal is in the alloy.

The researchers' task is to find the correct wave-length of light and solution conditions for testing each alloy metal.

Questions on Altrusa information were answered by the members and a study for the coming year will be made on this subject. Ada Phillips, international relations chairman, made a plea for clothing to send to Korea. She also reported the number of medicines and clothing sent there last year by the club.
Mrs. Phillips read a letter from In-Ai Yang, a student whose education at Vanderbil University was sponsored by District 7. The letter stated she had adopted a 17-month-old girl whose parents were killed in the war.
Reservations Made
Grace Wallace, second vice president of Altrusa International, announced reservations are now being made for the District 7 meeting (October 26 and 27) in San Angelo. District 7 includes Texas, Louisiana, Oklahoma, Arkansas, Guatemala and Korea.
The program will include a chuck wagon party and a banquet honoring the governor, Bernice McGee, dean of women at the Masonic Home in Fort Worth.
Mrs. Wallace read a letter from Teresa de Estaban, Altrusa grant-in-aid student from Argentina.
Seventeen members attended the meeting. Guests attending were Mildred Cross and Mary Alice Tidwell.

Banquet Honors OES Grand Matron
CRANE—Mrs. Lucille Dufrer of San Antonio, worthy grand matron of the Order of the Eastern Star, was honored recently with a banquet in the Community Hall.
D. M. Holcomb was the master of ceremonies. Mrs. R. V. Wilson introduced the following grand officers: Mrs. Dufrer, Mrs. Ethel Dupree, grand chaplain; Mrs. Gladys Shoffett, district deputy grand matron of District 2; Mrs. C. A. Shaffer, deputy grand matron of District 2, Section 8.
A color scheme of yellow and black was carried out in the decorations. Black and white cloths covered the tables which were centered with arrangements of sunflowers. Black candle-holders containing yellow candles were used and places were marked by cards with sunflower designs. Arrangements of yellow mums completed the decorations.
Girls who served the meal were Illa De Owens, Dorothy Crittenden, Johnny Sue Buchanan and Betty Fields.
On the program an acrobatic number was presented by Carol Jean Birdsong and Ginger Maxwell. Brenda Owens, Sandra Russell and Gwin Nix, accompanied by Mrs. Wayne Ervin, presented a toe dance. Mrs. L. R. Mills led the group in singing "Sunflower Girl" and C. A. Carroll gave the benediction.

Congratulations To
Mr. and Mrs. John Ausburn of Terminal on the birth Thursday of a daughter weighing seven pounds, five ounces.
Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm Davis, 2306 West Kentucky Street, on the birth Wednesday of a daughter weighing nine pounds, four ounces.
Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Walker, 1900 West Louisiana Street, on the birth Thursday of a son weighing seven pounds, four ounces.
Mr. and Mrs. Dew, 201 West Noble Street, on the birth Thursday of a daughter weighing eight pounds.
Mr. and Mrs. John L. Higdon, Jr., 2610 Roosevelt Street, on the birth Thursday of a son weighing six pounds.
Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Roberts, 1001 North Loraine Street, on the birth Thursday of a daughter weighing six pounds.
Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Carver, 1610 South Big Spring Street, on the birth Thursday of a son weighing eight pounds, three ounces.
Plastic bags are handy when you're giving a picnic; put sandwiches and hard-cooked eggs in them as well as celery and carrot sticks. These containers help keep the food fresh.

Jimie Alexander Services Scheduled
ANDREWS—Funeral services for Fireman Jimmie Lee Alexander of the U. S. Navy will be held Saturday in Brownwood.
Alexander died early in August on the Philippine Islands from head injuries received in an automobile collision.
He was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Coke Alexander of Andrews. The family has resided here for the last six years.
Survivors include the parents, two daughters, two brothers, Ray and Ronny Jack and a sister, Jo Pay.

EAT PLENTY AND TAKE OFF UGLY FAT

Many people have reported amazing results with this home recipe. It's easy—no trouble at all and costs little. Just go to your drugstore and ask for 4 ounces of liquid Barcostrat. Pour this into a pint bottle and add enough grapefruit juice to fill bottle. Then take two tablespoonfuls twice a day. That's all there is to it. If the very first bottle doesn't show the simple way to lose bulky fat and help regain slender, more graceful curves; if reducible pounds and inches of excess fat don't just seem to disappear almost like magic, from neck, chin, arms, bust, abdomen, hips, calves and ankles, just return the empty bottle for your money back.
Lost 39 Pounds
"I was really happy and surprised with the results obtained taking Barcostrat," says Mrs. Lillian Flowers, 214 Burnett St., San Antonio, Texas. "I have lost 39 pounds and feel so much better and look 10 years younger."
Lost 15 Pounds
Mrs. D. C. Baker, Box 31, Bryson, Texas, writes as follows: "I weighed 115 pounds when I commenced to take Barcostrat. After one month I have lost 15 pounds and am going to continue taking it until I am down to 100 pounds. I have several of my friends taking Barcostrat and they are losing weight also."

Greenwood Club Elects Officers

Pauline McWilliams, county home demonstration agent, outlined plans for the club year Thursday at the 3rd Fall meeting of the Greenwood Club.

The group met in the cafeteria of the school. Ada Jane Metcalf and Jeanette Newcom were chosen as candidates for the grand steward.

The club, because of its size, was divided into two groups for the election of officers. Joycelyn Busic was named president of the senior group. Other officers are Joyce Graham, vice president; Sally Harding, reporter; Betty Hughes, song leader; and Mrs. Lather Eggleston, adult leader.

Others attending the senior meeting were Betty Bray, Tommie Bray, Mary Forman, Carolyn Thomas, Edith Eggleston, Flora Oles, Sandra Roberts, Linda Dobbs and Edna Massingill.

Patsy Morgan was chosen president of the junior group. Other officers are Jimmell Rutledge, vice president; Joanna Brooks, secretary; Linda Gale Branch, reporter; Naomi Reed, song leader; and Miss Newcom, junior leader.

Also attending were Kathy Harrison, Janette Lee Moore, Mary Eva Lindsay, Patsy Allredge, Minnie Pearl Hart, Dorothy Dunn and Patsy Morgan.

Series Of Parties Compliment Mrs. Jim Olson, Midland Bride

Mrs. Jim Olson, the former La Verne Bates, was the honoree last week at a series of pre-nuptial parties. Mr. and Mrs. Olson were married Saturday in the First Baptist Church in Midland.

Mrs. Bob Franklin was the hostess Thursday at a breakfast in the Midland Country Club.

The table was decorated with a bridal bouquet fashioned of asters in the bride's chosen colors. A gift and a corsage were presented to the honoree.

Guests, in addition to the honoree and her mother, Mrs. Jennie Bates, were Mrs. Leif Olson, mother of the bridegroom; Mrs. Stanley Brakins, Mrs. Glenn Barnes, Mrs. Alvin Bauman, Mrs. Joe Anderson, Mrs. Cecil Young of Mineral Wells and Mrs. J. Collier Adams of Lubbock.

son, Arthur Olson, Wayne Wuerhe, Alan Olson, Marianne McRae, Mr. and Mrs. Cecil R. Young of Mineral Wells, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Brakins, Mr. and Mrs. Adams and the engaged couple.

Mr. and Mrs. Payton Anderson were hosts recently at a buffet supper on the lawn of their home.

The centerpiece on the table was a miniature wedding cake with the words, "Good luck to Jim and La Verne," inscribed on top.

Guests were the honoree, Jim Olson, Mr. and Mrs. Bates, Mr. and Mrs. Leif Olson, Arthur Olson of Tulsa, Okla., Mr. and Mrs. John Parker, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Barnes, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Payne, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Anderson.

A gift was presented to the honoree.

The honoree was complimented Wednesday with a dinner party in the Midland Country Club. Hosts were Mr. and Mrs. Jack Hastip and Mr. and Mrs. James Martin.

A gift of silver was presented to the honoree. An arrangement of wedding bells and white asters centered the table.

Those attending were Mr. and Mrs. Bates, Mr. and Mrs. Leif Ol-

Mrs. Olson was fete Tuesday at a luncheon in the Petroleum Club. Mrs. B. R. Schabarum was the hostess.

Pink and white, the bride's chosen colors, were used in the decorations. The honoree and her mother wore white gardenia corsages and the honoree received a gift of silver.

Others attending were Mrs. Leif Olson, Mrs. Barnes, Mrs. Anderson, Mrs. Al Bauman, Virginia Stewart, Betty Bobo and Martha Lee Adams of Lubbock.

Sylvia Cearley Is Club Hostess

Members of the Alpha Phi Chapter of Spafon Sigma Alpha were hostesses to the Theta Pi Chapter at a meeting held recently in the home of Sylvia Cearley.

The annual program was outlined and discussed. Two welfare projects were discussed.

New officers for the Alpha Phi Chapter are Miss Cearley, president; Pat Smith, vice president; Bobby Watson, corresponding secretary; Betty Pope, recording secretary; and Nancy Caldwell, treasurer.

The following committees were appointed: Jo DeBarbie, educational director; Ann Tolbert, social committee; Zaks Rabensburg, contact committee; Martha Glenwinkal, ways and means committee, and Lena Steward, publicity committee.

The next meeting will be held at 7:30 p. m. Tuesday in the home of Mrs. William Caldwell.

McCAMEY SCHOOLS INCREASE BUDGET

McCAMEY—The Board of Trustees of the McCamey Independent School District adopted a budget last week amounting to $376,708 for the new fiscal year. Last year's budget was $337,192.

School officials said most of the increase was due to adding seven teachers and two maintenance men to the staff.

The islands of New Zealand stretch from the tropics to Antarctica.

Baker, Bullock Exchange Vows

McCAMEY—Joan Baker became the bride of Billy Earl Bullock Tuesday in the Eastside Baptist Church. The Rev. G. A. Rowell, pastor, officiated.

For the wedding the bride wore a gunmetal grey dress with black accessories.

After a wedding trip the couple will be at home in Vincent.

Webb, Klingler Wed In Home Ceremony

In a home ceremony Thursday, Nancy Webb became the bride of John T. Klingler, Jr. The wedding took place in the home of the bride's parents, with the Rev. Clyde Lindsey, pastor of the First Christian Church, officiating.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Webb, 1902 West Ohio Street. Klingler is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John T. Klingler, Sr., 2308 Brunson Street.

The ceremony was performed before an archway of greenery flanked with candelabra and flowers in a full motif.

Traditional wedding music was played by Mrs. Marian Allen, pianist, Mrs. Larry Meiser, vocalist, sang "The Lord's Prayer."

Bride Wears Pink
For her wedding, the bride chose a street-length dress of winter pink wool jersey fashioned with long sleeves.

The wide crushed belt was accented with rhinestones. She carried an orchid surrounded with white maline and shatterd carnations.

Mrs. John S. Brown of Denton, sister of the bride, was the matron of honor. She wore a ribbed tulle dress with black velvet accessories.

John T. Klingler, Sr., was his son's best man.

After the ceremony, a reception was held in the home. The table was covered with a white linen cloth and centered with an arrangement of asters. The tiered cake and punchbowl completed the decorations.

Reception Held
Mrs. Meiser and Mrs. Brown presided at the refreshment table. Nancy Klingler, sister of the bridegroom, presided at the guest register.

For traveling, the bride chose a tailored suit of gold and brown checked wool with brown and sage accessories. Her corsage was an orchid.

The couple will make their home in Cambridge, Mass., where Klingler will resume his study at Massachusetts Institute of Technology. Mrs. Klingler will attend the Boston Conservatory of Music.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Klingler are graduates of Midland High School.

Religious Scholars Unveil Catalog Of What Light Modern Study Has Shed Upon Bible

NEW YORK (AP)—What new light has modern investigation and study shed on the Bible?

For seven years, 146 leading Protestant theologians and ministers in this country and abroad have been compiling data to answer this question.

They have issued the first of a 12-volume series detailing the accumulated information.

Entitled "The Interpreter's Bible" it seeks to tell all mankind has discovered about the scriptures from ancient times to the present.

Some 200 religious leaders and educators last week attended a dinner for presentation of the initial volume.

"Unquestionably this is the most important publication in the religious field for over half a century," said Dr. Halford Luccock, a top Biblical scholar, of Yale Divinity School.

"A magnificent achievement," said Methodist Bishop G. Bromley Oxnam.

The new work, said Dr. Samuel McCrea Cavert, executive secretary of the National Council of the Churches of Christ in the U. S. A., "will help keep scholarship from being sterile and preaching from being superficial."

About $1,000,000 has been poured into the job of research and assembling material.

Encyclopedic Detail
With encyclopedic detail, the discoveries of archeological excavations, new-found manuscripts and historical and geographical research are presented concerning each Bible verse.

Such questions as these are answered: Who wrote this book of the Bible? When was it written? Where? Under what conditions and in the midst of what circumstances?

In the series, both King James and Revised Standard translations of each verse are shown in adjoining columns. Below this appear brief exegeses (explanations) telling what has been learned about each verse.

The series is being published by the Abingdon-Cokesbury Press, of Nashville, Tenn., the publishing branch of the Methodist Church.

The other remaining 11 volumes will come out on scheduled dates during the next six years. The first volume, dealing with the books of Matthew and Mark, actually is number seven in the series. It will be available to the public October 8.

Controlled Material Plan To Be Explained In Sweetwater Meet

SWEETWATER—The new controlled material plan which becomes effective October 1 will be explained here Monday night at an area meeting of builders of both public and private projects.

Participating as sponsors of the area-wide meeting will be representatives of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce, the Sweetwater Board of City Development and district offices of the U.S. Department of Commerce's National Production Authority.

Discussion will include such questions as what building may be commenced prior to October 1 without NPA authorization; status of building now under construction, construction which requires NPA authorization, and quantities of controlled materials which may be used in construction, as well as numerous other building problems. Questions from the audience will be answered.

The sponsor urged all area builders to attend, including general contractors, electrical, heating and plumbing contractors, owners, building suppliers, architects, engineers, county, city and school officials and others interested in construction. The meeting will begin at 7 p.m. in the Bluebonnet Hotel.

Andrews Fair Sets Dates For Show

ANDREWS—The 1951 Andrews County Fair will be held October 5 and 6 and booth space will be allotted to civic organizations instead of business firms.

E. L. Hurley has been named president of the Andrews County Fair Association, succeeding Roy Bennett. Other elected officers include Mrs. Gordon Cox, secretary; Carl Seeley, treasurer, and O. D. Huckabee, parade chairman.

Gordon Cox will be in charge of farm entries and Mrs. Hattie G. Owens, home demonstration agent, will assist the home demonstration clubs with the exhibits.

Let's Park Parallel

Parallel parking will be instituted in the City of Midland immediately. That is the final, once-and-for-all edict of the City Council, by vote of a majority of its members.

Well, if that's it, let's try parallel parking to see how it works in easing Midland's serious traffic problem, which is becoming worse daily. Let's try it willingly and in the right spirit in order that the measure may have a fair trial. That is the only way we can find out.

Parallel parking may or may not help in solving the traffic problem. There is a difference of opinion on that score. But surely it is worth trying.

Tempers have flared and heated discussions have taken place as a result of the parallel parking edict, the announcement of which brought forth conflicting views, arguments, threats of restraining orders, and, yes, even some compliments.

Perhaps it was the sudden and somewhat arbitrary action of the City Council which caused much of the resentment. Certainly, no public announcement was made that the controversial matter even was to be considered at the recent meeting, which saw the parking edict voted suddenly and with an air of finality.

The timing of the council action and the manner in which the parallel parking matter was handled was not to our particular liking either, but that is neither here nor there. We believe a public hearing should have been held before final action was taken by the council.

Even when representative Main Street businessmen and taxpayers met with the council Thursday afternoon to question the parking action, a move was made to declare the matter closed, even before the visitors had had a chance to fully plead their case. The mayor insisted the taxpayers be heard. That is as it should be. Maybe the citizens were wrong in their views, but surely they had a right to be heard. The council members also could be wrong.

The councilmen voting for the parallel parking proposal indicated they did so in the interest of most of the citizens of Midland, and we give them credit for acting in all sincerity and in good faith.

That is why we plead for harmony on this occasion, recommending that parallel parking be accepted graciously, and that it be given a fair and impartial trial here. Everyone wants to see the traffic situation improved, and if parallel parking will do it, well and good. Maybe we can learn to park parallel.

But parallel parking alone will not solve the traffic problem entirely. We hope the City Council recognizes that fact. It is only a small part of the overall picture. It is hoped the City Council will continue its efforts to improve the condition.

There are those who think a city bus system would do much to ease the congested traffic problem. Previously such an opinion has been expressed. The council seemingly has dragged its feet in bringing bus transportation back to Midland, but now that the council is out to cure the traffic ills, perhaps action on a bus matter will be the next step.

But that isn't all either. The ills cannot be cured overnight or at one council meeting. An improved traffic pattern, safety education, improved traffic rules, enforcement, and additional parking facilities are a few more of the urgent problems which face the problem-burdened City Council. Each requires study and more study.

But back to parallel parking. It is with us, so let's use it to the best advantage. Parallel parking has worked in specified sections of the city, so let's give it the benefit of the doubt as we try it on a citywide basis.

This is no time for disunity in our city.

Watch Out For 'Volunteers'

An ominous report from the Korean front states that 2,000 Eastern European troops are encamped in North Korea ready to do battle in any new Communist offensive against United Nations forces.

Military sources are cagey about speculating on the nationalities of these "Caucasian volunteers." They may be Russians. Robert Allen, columnist, said recently that a Czech anti-aircraft regiment was among those present in Korea.

Whoever they are, their activities must be closely observed. It is to be hoped, too, that UN intelligence will be able to determine quickly any serious increase in Caucasian forces. We may recall unhappily with what disbelief our commanders greeted first reports last fall of heavy Chinese Red numbers on the Korean front.

The days of formal war declarations are gone. The days of open, admitted participation of organized armies in any war also appear to be ended. Now a nation's entry begins quietly with a few thousand "volunteers" who slip into the line almost unnoticed. Soon they may be there in droves, fighting with a coordination which belies their "volunteer" status.

The Washington Merry-Go-Round

By Drew Pearson

(Copyright, 1951, By The Bell Syndicate, Inc.) Drew Pearson says: Economic stabilizer silences senator; Manufacture of TV sets to be curtailed; Military at fault for housing cc'ltions around service camps.

WASHINGTON—Senator Bricker of Ohio, Republican, got his ears pinned back by a fellow Republican at a secret debate on price controls before the Senate Banking Currency Committee.

The fellow Republican was Economic Stabilizer Eric Johnston, who holds a record in serving longer than any other man as president of the U. S. Chamber of Commerce, and who patriotically has held one of the most thankless jobs in the nation—trying to regulate wages, prices, and rents.

Johnston was summoned to appear before the Senate committee as it considered modifications to the new Stabilization Act, including abolition of the Caperhart amendment. This is the amendment permitting manufacturers to pass increased costs along to the consumer, under which Ford and Chrysler have asked for auto price hikes.

Johnston gave convincing details showing how the Caperhart amendment cut the ground out from under any real price controls. The committee listened attentively. Finally, Ohio's handsome Bricker spoke out.

"Why are you bellyaching before you have tried the law out?" he asked. "You haven't even attempted to operate under this new law. You don't know whether it will work or not; yet here you are coming up here, bellyaching and wanting change."

"Senator," replied Johnston, "I don't have to ask anyone whether I jump off the Washington Monument it will kill me. I know it. And I don't have to ask anyone whether this law will work. I know it won't. I have lived with this business of stabilization. I have spent all hours of the day and night with it. I am your expert on it."

"I don't want the job. I've got a good job waiting for me while I am on leave without salary, and I'd be delighted to have you take over and try your hand at stabilization. But until you come down and work at my job and know what it entails, you have no right to call me a bellyacher."

"I would like to get out of the job. But while I am in it, I'm obligated to tell the truth, and the truth is that this law will not work." There was no reply from Bricker or other senators present.

No More TV Sets There's one big reason why the manufacture of television and radio sets will cut off before too long a time—jet airplanes.

Jet engines use cobalt—also essential for TV and radio sets. And with the increasing tempo of jet-airplane manufacture, there just won't be enough cobalt and its alloys to go around. Already jet planes are taking 60 per cent of all the cobalt this nation can lay its hands on. There has been intensive effort to find a substitute from the Belgian Congo which is one reason long realized by the public why relations with Belgium are important. Another big reason is uranium.

It so happens that at present dealers' shelves are loaded with surplus TV sets. They are a glut on the market. But the Federal Communications Commission is in the process of allocating 70 new high-frequency TV channels, which together with the new coast-to-coast TV cable, will so boost the sale of television sets that production probably won't be able to keep up with the demand.

month. In the same area an Army sergeant lives with his wife, mother-in-law and three children in an old dollhouse 14 feet wide and nine feet deep, with no water, renting for $35 a month.

Shacks, converted barns and garages with no indoor plumbing rent for $40 up in the Camp Artillery area, Indiana, while apartments formerly renting for from $20 to $45 a month now cost $100. A four-room, unfurnished apartment rents for $135 a month in Topeka, Kan., but if the tenant has one child the rent is $150. One room was rented to an Army officer in Topeka for $250 a month.

Small bungalows in Topeka that rented for $65-$75 a month prior to the reopening of Forbes Air Base now cost as high as $125. Children are banned by many landlords in critical housing areas or cost a premium of $10-$15 for each child.

The list is too long to cover here, but other places where housing and rental conditions smell to high heaven include San Diego, Calif.; Wichita, Kan.; the big defense manufacturing center at Moline and Rock Island, Ill.; Port Leonard, Missouri; and Camp Rucker, Alabama, and Cook, California.

Q—How does the average income in the United States compare with that of the Soviet Union? A—Average incomes in the United States are almost five times more than in Russia. The average in the U. S. is $1,440; average in Russia is $310.

Q—Woodrow was a notable feature of Woodrow Wilson's inaugural ceremony? A—For the first time in inauguration history, the administration of the oath was recorded by motion picture.

Q—What do they call Indian Summer in England? A—St. Martin's Summer.

JACOBY ON BRIDGE

By OSWALD JACOBY Written for NEA Spectator

East was dealt so many low cards in today's hand that he gave up hope. He was sure the opponents would get to a game—perhaps a slam, and he wasn't really surprised when they eventually bid six spades. Instead of looking for a chance to set the contract, East played listlessly and carelessly. One slip was enough to let South make the contract.

West opened the king of clubs, and dummy won with the ace. Declarer hopefully tried two rounds of trumps, since the slam would be unbeatible if all the trumps could be drawn in two rounds. When it became apparent that West had a third trump, South had something to worry about. West had already bid clubs and supported hearts. He was obviously short in diamonds.

This all flashed through declarer's mind very quickly. Without stopping for breath, he continued with four more rounds of trumps. On one of these East casually threw a low diamond from his "worthless" dividend holding. That set up South's last diamond and assured the slam contract.

East's play was very ill-advised, but he was sure. The bidding would have told him that his diamonds were more precious than gold or silver. It was clear that West and dummy had the clubs between them and that West and East had complete control of the hearts.

South had nothing much in hearts and nothing much in clubs, why had he bid so vigorously? Obviously he had a spade-diamond two-suiter. Equally obvious, the defender who held diamonds had to keep them no matter what else he parted with.

CARD Sense

Q—The bidding has been: North 1 Diamond, East 1 Spade, South 2 Diamonds, West 2 Spades. What do you do? A—Bid three clubs. Your hand is strong enough to give you some sound reason to hope for game. You can afford a second response at the level of three. You may still stay out of game, but this bid of yours suggests that you have a very good hand and urges your partner to be hopeful even if he has a near-minimum opening bid.

TODAY'S QUESTION The bidding is the same as in the question just answered. You, South, hold: Spades K-Q-7-2, Hearts 4, Diamonds K-Q-6-3, Clubs 8-5. What do you do? Answer Monday

GOP Could Do A Lot Worse. Than Run Earl Warren In 1952

By PETER EDSON NEA Washington Correspondent

SAN FRANCISCO—Gov. Earl Warren of California is a nice guy. And as the world well knows, there's only one thing finer than a nice guy.

In a way, Governor Warren is too nice a guy to be in politics. But that's the wrong way to say it. The right way is to say there ought to be more nice guys—like Earl Warren—in politics.

He is easy to meet and easy to talk to. What's more, he doesn't talk all the time. He knows how to sit back and listen, even when people talking to him may not have anything very interesting to say.

He speaks quietly. There is firmness and conviction about what he has to say. But he says it without dogmatism and demagoguery. And there is no table pounding, no loud-mouthed know-it-allism, no profanity to emphasize his words. His conversation is modulated to the level he might use in talking to his own fine family of three boys and three girls. In short, the guy is a family man and a gentleman.

If this brief characterization gives any impression that Governor Warren is colorless, that is wrong. He has a very positive personality. He makes friends. He creates a most favorable impression on everyone he meets. And as a vote getter, he has demonstrated his ability by being elected governor of California three times, running on both tickets.

Net Ready Well Known It's too bad that Easterners and Southerners don't know California's governor better. They will have a chance at closer acquaintance in the near future. Governor Warren will attend the American Bar Association convention in New York September 17 to 21. Then he will go to the Governors' Conference at Gatlinburg, Tenn., September 30 to October 3.

If on this Eastern visit Governor Warren should speak out on some of the political ideas that are on his mind, he would create a lively discussion in Republican ranks. With his fresh, detached, western viewpoint, the man could stimulate a lot of useful soul-searching among the ultra conservatives.

What the governor had to say during the course of an interview in San Francisco seemed to make complete political sense.

He believes the Republican Party should have a real knock-down, dragout fight within its own ranks to decide what it is going to stand for. The party never has had a showdown.

Governor Warren believes the Republican platform of 1944 and 1948 were excellent. He says he himself never has advocated anything not found in those platforms. He calls attention to the fact that Senator Taft was chairman of the resolutions committees that drew up those platforms and that they were adopted unanimously.

Between platforms, between presidential election campaigns, Governor Warren says the Republicans in Congress have not stood for that platform. They have repudiated its policies. If Senator Taft were to run on his record as a senator, and not on the party policies as stated in the platform, Governor Warren thinks the GOP would be defeated.

Governor Warren thinks the effort, promoted by Senator Karl Mundt of South Dakota, to form an alliance between Republicans and Dixiecrats, is a disgraceful thing.

So They Say

Too often chairmen or members of important committees are not satisfied to make a thorough investigation and publish the results as a public document, but they yield to temptation of selling this information (in magazines and speeches) enriching themselves.

Rep. Usher L. Burdick (R-ND).

I'd like to make it an even two dozen.

Mrs. Robert Page, after giving birth to her twenty-third child.

I don't think the Republicans want to let Acheson go. They want him as a target.

Sen. Paul H. Douglas (D-ILL).

The growing practice of character assassination is already curbing free speech and it is threatening all of our other freedoms. I daresay there are people... who have reached the point where they are afraid to explore a new idea.

President Truman.

What's RIGHT?

You have a 3 o'clock appointment at a beauty salon.

WRONG: Feel that it is all right if you arrive 10 or 15 minutes after the hour.

RIGHT: Arrive on time or you will throw your operator behind schedule for the rest of the day.

"Oh, no," cried Holly Dunston, Steve Trucey!

Nothing could have kept her from following Elsa Porter then. She would have gone down to the village alone after that. It had been bad enough when she thought Steve would have to face trial for espionage and plotting against the government, for at least she had hoped for justice, but this was nightmare. The comic opera atmosphere of the arrest of Steve had vanished, and the comedy had turned into a stark tragedy.

She didn't know what she could do. No plans were forming in her mind as she ran down the red clay street with Elsa. A group of women caught up with them, linked arms with them and pulled them along, singing, laughing and shouting.

The red glare grew brighter, the shouts grew louder and the gunfire more frequent, as they came closer to the village.

"It isn't a fire!" Elsa shouted over the din. "It's a red flare!" The square was packed with shouting, surging men and women working toward the center of it. There a pole had been set up and brush set around it. As they pushed toward it Holly saw a man touch a match to the brush and caught the outline of a figure tied to the pole.

Elsa screamed. "It's Steve!" "No, no!" cried Holly. "It isn't Steve, it's an effigy." They worked around the other side of it, and got a closer view of the effigy which the flames were already attacking. There was no mistaking it for the rotund form and ornate clothing of Senator Hernandez!

"The people gathered closer and shouted and sang and threw things at the burning effigy. One of them caught Holly and danced her around madly, shouting

"Well!" gasped Elsa as they began to climb the red clay road to the plantation house. "Will someone tell me what all this is about?"

"Tell me too," begged Steve. "I've just as confused as you folks. First I was in the hoosegown, spy and arch enemy of the republic and generally in the doghouse. Then I'm being taken out in the cold grey dawn to be burned at the stake, and here I am walking up the mountain side with the sunrise and the birds singing. Will you explain in English words of one syllable what the heck happened?"

Ray laughed. "It couldn't happen anywhere but here! Dago Vegas and his men were actually plotting the things you were arrested for, and Jose Montoya and Hernandez knew it. That's why they were so excited about your article. But now the revolution has come and Steve's a hero because he struck the first blow in the uprising by socking Jose, the chief of police."

RAY PORTER explained the rest of it after they reached the plantation house.

"I'll make us some coffee," Elsa said, "and then get breakfast started. After all the excitement I'm starved!"

"Whew!" Ray shut the door behind him and mopped his brow. "I'm glad that's over! You aged me 10 years, feller!"

"You aged! I aged 20," said Steve.

"And I don't have to marry Jose!" said Holly in such a surprised tone of voice that everyone laughed.

"If there's any marrying to be done by you around here it'll be with me," said Steve.

He advanced upon Holly, and she grew crimson and retreated, remembering Ray and Elsa were watching.

But then she stopped remembering, for his arms were around her. She curled up even closer into them, and put her arms around his neck, and her hands up into his hair. And Ray and Elsa Porter didn't matter, for she was being kissed again—and with an expert!

Whistler, the artist who is famous for the painting of his mother, once sent for a great London physician. The doctor hurried to Whistler's home, thinking some member of the family was sick. When he arrived, he found that Whistler had sent for him to treat his dog.

Soon after, the physician sent for Whistler. The artist went, thinking he was going to be commissioned to paint a portrait. The doctor said, "I want you to paint my barn."

DADDY RINGTAIL

Daddy Ringtail And Tintinabulations

Mugwump Monkey, the monkey boy, was sick in bed in the monkey house, high in the top of the very tall tree, there in the middle of the Great Forest. What on what was the sickness about?

Daddy Ringtail didn't know, and now he was waiting by the door while the happy sound of fast running came racing along the Elephant Path. The happy sound stopped in a cloud of dust where the runner skidded up to a stop, and then up the tree Doctor Shoobug climbed in a hurry.

"Happy day, Doctor Shoobug," said Daddy Ringtail.

"Uh, yes," said Doctor Shoobug, and in they hurried to the room where Mugwump Monkey was sick in bed with a sickness no one knew what it was. But they would find out, they would. Doctor Shoobug would find out for them.

Said Daddy Ringtail: "I haven't let him swim in the Duck Pond, all because he might get sick with the Tintinabulations."

By WESLEY DAVIS

"Uh, yes," said Doctor Shoobug, but he knew that people sometimes had the tintinabulations without going swimming in the Duck Pond. It could be done.

Well, Doctor Shoobug looked at Mugwump's throat, and he put a thermometer in his mouth, and he thumped his knees, and felt his back, and he felt his neck.

"Um, yes," said Doctor Shoobug, with a look of various doctor business, although a very friendly fellow is who he was. "Um, yes," said the good doctor, and then he thumped little Mugwump's head with his finger, and when he did! Bong!" was the noise that rang like a bell, and so Mugwump indeed had the tintinabulations, all right, all right.

"Yipee!" shouted Mugwump, because he knew that people had the tintinabulations only once in their life, and so now he could swim in the Duck Pond all he wanted, when once he was well again.

And Mugwump knew he really was going to get well again all right, all right, and he will, too, because Doctor Shoobug says that people most often get well again when they really know they will. Happy day! really and true.

Elephant Safety Campaign Symbol

HALIFAX —(AP)— He says "hello" by waving his nose. His eyes are bright, his smile friendly. His name is Elmer the Elephant. Canadian Kinmen Clubs, at their national convention here recently, chose him as a national symbol for a safety campaign for school children.

Soon his picture will hang in hundreds of schools across Canada. Already Elmer pennants fly from many schools' flagpoles. The Elmer-for-Safety idea, originated by a Toronto newspaper, "The Telegram," has helped make Toronto a safe city for children.

When Kinmen delegates return to their home clubs they will outline the convention-endorsed plan to their membership and cooperate with police departments, school teachers and parents in furthering the campaign.

Midlands Woman's Club To Sell Historical Plate Of Midland

A historical plate, showing pioneer and modern scenes of Midland, will be offered for sale in November by the Midland Woman's Club, Inc. It will be handled by 11 affiliated clubs.

Those contributing photographs for the plate were Mrs. C. M. Goldsmith, Addison Wadley, Lum Daugherty, Cordelia Taylor, Fannie Bess Taylor and the Midland Museum.

Those on the committee to select photographs were Mrs. O. J. Hubbard, Fine Arts Club; Mrs. Neta Stovall, Perennial Garden Club; Cordelia Taylor, B&PW, and Mrs. J. L. Dillard, Texas Garden Club.

The proceeds from the sale of these plates will go for the building of a Woman's Club Building.

The plates will be 10 1/2 inches in diameter, of cream porcelain, with printing in brown or maroon. They are suitable for serving plates or decorative plates.

The plates will be centered with a modern skyline of Midland. Other scenes will include the old Llano Hotel in 1886, Midland school, the court house in 1904, modern derricks, bucking broncos and scenes of early Midland about 1884 and 1891. The border of the plate will be cattle brands and longhorn steer heads. The steer heads were designed by Hella May Williams.

Those attending were Mrs. C. D. Johnson, Mrs. C. A. McCamy, Mrs. Pauline Kirk, Mrs. Clay Grimes, Mrs. L. C. Hobbs, Mrs. J. E. Bosarth, Mrs. Neta Stovall, Betty Hays, Evangeline Theis, Frances Eubanks, Jo Winders and May Shofner.

Midland Churches Plan City-Wide Religious Survey

A group of Midland churches is planning to make a city-wide religious survey September 30.

Churches participating will be St. Andrews Presbyterian, Bellview Baptist, First Methodist, St. Mark's Methodist, First Baptist, Asbury Methodist and First Presbyterian.

Any other churches wishing to participate should contact R. S. Watkins at the First Methodist Church.

A planning meeting was held Wednesday. Watkins was named general chairman and the Rev. J. H. Goins was named chairman of the surveying committee. Another meeting will be held Wednesday.

The survey will begin at 2 p.m. September 30. Participants will assemble at the First Methodist Church for instructions. The information received during the survey will be made available to all participating churches. Each church has been asked to solicit its workers and report the number to the general chairman.

Canines Are Readied For Odessa's Fifth Annual Show Sunday

All area canines entered in the Fifth Annual Breed Dog show scheduled for Odessa Sunday have been combed and curried and are ready to strut.

Because of the large number of entries received, 351, the judging time has been moved back from 9 a.m. to 8:30 a.m., according to George Woodford of Midland, who is vice president of the West Texas Kennel Club.

The show will get underway Sunday morning at the County Pavilion in Odessa and will continue all day.

The short and squat bull dog, an animal that reminds one more of a portable canine army tank than a thing of beauty, will rumble across the judging stand first, followed by the Boston Terriers.

According to the American Kennel club rules, the judges must trot the animals through the judging lines at a rate of at least 20 per hour.

All of the 44 different breeds which are entered will be judged during the day and Sunday night the best dog in each group, will compete against each other.

Price of Admission
It will cost the general public 50 cents for adults and 25 cents for children to witness the exhibition.

Woodford said in the last four years the show has been staged it has been carried out without mishap except for a few minor skirmishes between the dogs.

Local classes of dogs, featuring animals which are owned by residents living within a 75 mile radius of Odessa, will be a top attraction at the show.

Junior showmanship classes will be held again this year for the youngsters. Quality of the dog will not be considered but the child's ability to handle and show the dog will be judged.

Boxers head the list of entries with a total of 44, followed by others in this order: Dachshund, 21, English Bulldog, 18, German Shepherd, 17, Chow Chow, 15, and Weimaraner, 11.

Among the breed of dogs which are comparatively rare are the French bulldog, Yorkshire Terrier, Pug Dog and the Golden Retriever.

Finals will be held Sunday evening and the top dog in the show will be chosen at 10 p.m.

Wanda Bunt, Gene Miles Wed In Midland

Wanda Bunt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy A. Bunt, and Gene Miles, son of Arthur Miles of Lovington, N. M., exchanged vows Friday in the Asbury Methodist Church.

The Rev. Cecil C. Hardaway, pastor, officiated.

Mrs. J. P. Carson, Jr., pianist, played "Because" and the traditional wedding marches, and accompanied Shirley Bunt, sister of the bride, who sang "I Love You Truly."

The church was decorated with candelabra and baskets of white gladioli. The bride, escorted by her father, wore a ballerina length dress of blue lace over mauve taffeta. The dress was fashioned with three-quarter length sleeves, shirred up one side, and a full skirt.

She wore blue satin shoes which matched her dress and a two-strand pearl necklace. Her headdress was of white carnations. She carried a white Bible topped with gardenias.

Attendant Named
Jeanie Bunt of Midland, sister of the bride, was the maid of honor.

She wore a blue crepe dress with black accessories and a white carnation corsage. Tommy Johnson of Midland was the best man.

Candlelighters and ushers were E. P. Lawson and Jerry Roberts, cousins of the bride.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Bunt chose a grey suit with red accessories and a white gardenia corsage.

A reception followed the ceremony. The room was decorated with baskets of gladioli and candles. A color scheme of blue and white, the bride's chosen colors, was carried out.

Sonja Bunt, sister of the bride, presided at the guest book and Frankie Bunt, also the bride's sister, served the cake. Mrs. Tommy Johnson served the punch.

When the bride left for a wedding trip to New Mexico, she was wearing a grey gabardine suit with red accessories. Following their trip, Mr. and Mrs. Miles will be at home in Midland.

SILVER CAKE

Sift once and measure 6 cups cake flour
Add and sift together three times 8 teaspoons tartaric acid or phosphate, or 6 teaspoons S.A.S. baking powder
1 1/2 teaspoons salt
Cream thoroughly 1 cup butter
Add gradually, then cream until fluffy 3 cups sugar
Add alternately with flour, beating well after each addition 2 1/2 cups milk
Add 1 teaspoon lemon extract
Fold in quickly and thoroughly 8 egg whites, stiffly beaten

Preheat the oven of the gas range to 370° F. Bake in four greased 9-inch layer pans for 25 to 30 minutes. Spread your favorite lemon frosting between layers and on top and sides of cake.

If you do you will be very impressed with what you see. Turn the thermostat on a new GAS oven and you get any heat you set. More important, you get the same exact heat in every corner and on every level at once. Take a peek into a modern gas range oven and you will see the results of constantly circulating air... distributing heat so perfectly you can bake 4 cake-layers at one time—and not be able to tell them apart. ## Hints Listed For Cutting Home Building Cost With No Sacrifice Of Quality

Since careful planning is required to effect the greatest cost savings, the family planning to build its own home should consult a good architect and building contractor in the winter when they are not rushed. Most of the expensive changes that later crop up thus can be made on paper before building starts in the spring.

Among the basic principles to remember: A two-story house costs less than a one-story dwelling because of the larger plot required for a one-story house of the same area as the two-story house. Added to this is the cost of the greater amount of roof area, foundation and wall perimeter, interior partitions and more costly floor and ceiling construction of the single-story house.

A square or rectangular house without angled walls, offsets and dormers and gables costs considerably less. Simple straight lines are most economical and usually permit better use of the interior space.

Cost-Savers Listed

After the style and shape of the house are chosen, here are a few of the many cost-savers that can be used in construction.

Dry wall construction instead of plaster; if plaster is wanted, use rock lath instead of wood or metal lath. Insulation of the walls full-thickness with batts and blankets of mineral wool, together with complete insulation of the attic with this naturally fireproof material, costs less at time of construction than later. Of equal importance is that architectural engineers have found that mineral wool insulation will allow a smaller heating plant with a saving of 23 per cent to 30 per cent.

Let the wide overhanging eaves shelter the porches. Use truss construction instead of conventional rafter framing for the roof if a high attic is not wanted. Not only do the trusses go together faster, but they permit less costly interior partition construction, and eliminate time-consuming cutting of rafters at ridge and eaves.

Modular Planning

Recent experience shows that room dimensions planned on a 4 inch module will effect a 10 per cent saving in over-all cost. Large sheets of structural board for sheathing costs less than conventional tongue-and-groove lumber. Prefabricated closets save money. Another money-saver is the use of ordinary wide window-steps to make baseboards instead of wide, expensive millwork.

Other than a periodic cleaning and waxing, veneer surfaces need only to be dusted to bring out their full beauty and luster.

'National Home Week' Points Up Housing Needs

NEW YORK—Despite the post-war housing boom, keynoted today by the public opening of model homes inaugurating the fourth National Home Week, too many of the nation's present 45 million homes are suffering from serious obsolescence.

Tom McDonald, vice president of the Minneapolis-Honeywell Regulator Company, who issued this warning on the eve of the nationwide observance, pointed out, "one out of every ten homes today is lagging behind in modern standards of living and comfort."

"Although homeowners bought or built some seven million new homes in the last five years, they also bought an equal number of older ones in the same period," McDonald said. "Actually 23,600,000 or 50 per cent of existing homes are at least 30 years old. About one out of every seven still is without running water, two out of five have inadequate heating systems, one in three lack private bathrooms and four million do not have electricity."

New home construction no longer can be counted on to improve the quality of the nation's housing, he stressed. Homemakers themselves, particularly those living in the older houses, should take the initiative in bringing their homes up to minimum living standards, McDonald said.

The sparkling model homes being displayed this week may inspire homeowners to renovate their own homes, McDonald hopes. If so, he said, this serious obsolescence can be arrested.

Accumulated Savings

While the owners of older homes may not be in a position to buy new homes, most of them are in a good position, financially, to spruce up their homes, McDonald pointed out that recent Federal Reserve Board figures indicated these homeowners have the greatest accumulation of savings of any age group.

Another factor seen encouraging improvement programs among owners of older houses is the fact most 30-year-old homes are clear of mortgages. This would make it relatively easy for owners of those dwellings to obtain loans for improvements and alterations.

Suitable living environment, McDonald said, has been recognized by no less authority than the Public Health Service as important in determining the health of the individual, the family and the community.

Healthful housing, therefore, is extremely important today, he said, with the nation shouldering a part-war economy.

Homemaker Usually Makes Own Decisions In Decorating Rooms

Who is your interior decorator? Nine times out of ten, it's you. A recent study by a leading merchandiser of goods for the home revealed that 90 per cent of American homemakers cannot afford to consult a professional decorator. They make the decisions themselves concerning the interiors of their homes.

One result of this situation has been that the manufacturers of upholstery fabrics, draperies, wall coverings, floor coverings and furniture have been challenged to offer as wide a variety of colors as possible from which the "amateur" decorator can choose in fitting out her rooms. The range of colors in durable clay tile for walls and floors, for example, runs to 200 shades, with the emphasis on pastels which most women favor. Records of the industry show that more pastels are used in bathrooms and kitchens than any other colors.

The study showed that most women who "do" their own homes have a practical eye and select colors and materials with which they will want to live a long time.

Another revelation of the report is that ease of housekeeping is a primary factor in housewives' selection of interiors. Unlike their grandmothers, they shun gewgaws and dust-catching trimmings as they would down-on-the-knees scrubbing.

San Marino, a republic situated near Rimini in the heart of Italy, has an area of 38 square miles and a population of 12,100.

Plumbing Should Be Kept In Good Repair

With the national defense program steadily taking bigger bites out of the available supply of metal products, it is essential that a homeowner keep his plumbing system in good repair, says the Construction Research Bureau, national clearing house for building information.

"If repair of minor defects is neglected, complete replacement often will be required," a Bureau spokesman says. "If plumbing is outmoded and replacement is planned, it should be done now while materials still are available."

The heart of any plumbing system is in its piping, yet pipe takes only 10 per cent of the plumbing dollar, while labor takes 30 per cent and fixtures 60 per cent.

Recommended Pipe Sizes

Pipe that is too large wastes water and also the fuel used to heat the domestic hot water supply; pipe that is too small usually is noisy and fails to furnish the quantities of water needed. Recommended sizes of copper or brass pipe are 3/8-inch diameter for lavatory, toilet, kitchen sink and laundry tubs; 1/2-inch for bathtub, shower and outdoor water tap. If iron or steel pipe is used, at least one size larger should be specified because rust slowly closes up the pipe.

Adequate Hot Water

One source of irritation in many plumbing systems is insufficient hot water supply. This is because the storage tank is too small for the family's needs. No storage tank should be smaller than 30 gallons. For a family of more than four or where automatic laundry equipment is used, the tank should be of 50-gallon capacity, if heated with gas or oil.

Because electrical heaters are slower to recover after water is used, the minimum size tank for such installation is 82 gallons but for a family of four or more the capacity should be 80 gallons.
