Clashes. Mark Martin Water Rules Hearing

STANTON—Proposed regulations to govern the drilling of wells and production of water in the 75-square-mile Martin County Water Conservation District were laid before the public Wednesday night for the first time.

In a four-hour hearing before the district's directors, the regulations were discussed and a consulting engineer outlined his findings in several months of the study of the water-rich area which has been converted into the state's first underground water conservation district.

The meeting was marked by clashes between the attorney for the district and the attorney for the Colorado River Municipal Water District.

When it was over, District President A. E. Pittman called another meeting of the board at 8 p.m. Friday to take final action on the proposed regulations.

Basically, the proposed regulations provide:

- New wells can be drilled and old ones increased in capacity only on permit from the secretary of the board.
- Wells must be so equipped that regular measurements can be made of water levels. Drilling logs must be furnished the board on all new wells.
- Spacing Regulations

Drugs, Not Beer, Killed Dallas Baby

DALLAS —(P)—An autopsy report filed Thursday held that drugs, rather than beer and soda water administered by teen-agers, caused the death Saturday of one-year-old Stephen Leslie Fletcher.

Justice Pierce McBride said he would postpone a verdict, pending an investigation to determine whether the baby accidentally took one of the tablets or was given it.

The autopsy report said the drugs were a medical mixture containing phenobarbital which the child's grandmother was taking.

The new development might clear Richard Harold Tucker, 17, of charges of murder without malice. The youth was filed on after admitting to police that he gave the infant beer and soda water shortly before his death.

HUMAN GUINEA PIG—Bruce Graeber, 30-month-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Graeber, Belleville, Ill., suffering from epilepsy and complications, has been offered by his parents for medical research in hopes that in treating his case a technique will be discovered to aid others similarly afflicted. Bruce, with nurse at Christian Welfare Hospital in East St. Louis, Ill., is in a critical condition.

Iranian Oil Crisis Nears Fever Pitch

LONDON —(P)—Britain will stand firm in Iran in the hope Tehran will bow to President Truman's request to cancel an order expelling British technicians from the Abadan Refinery, informed sources said Thursday.

The British cabinet was reported so to have decided after Prime Minister Attlee received a personal message from President Truman, urging caution in the explosive Iranian situation.

With the crisis over Iran's oil nationalization boiling to ominous proportions, the U. S. President appealed to the Iranian government to back down on its ultimatum, and told both Britain and Iran the U. S. is ready to help them to find a peaceful settlement.

These developments came as Iran's frail, aged premier Mossadegh made a street speech in Iran before a wildly shouting crowd whose members cried death threats for Britons. The British government has been considering sending troops to Abadan to protect the Britons and the British position.

The sources did not say whether the British cabinet has decided to try to hold Abadan by force if Tehran refuses to cancel the edict. The decision to stand pat suggests that Britain will make at least one more effort to negotiate an agreement with Iran.

If Iran rejects the appeal of President Truman to cancel the expulsion order, Britain probably then must consider whether force will be used, despite U. S. advice against this.

Moscow dispatches said Russia was watching the Iranian developments closely. The Russians have a treaty with Iran providing for Soviet intervention in the case of foreign invasion.

With Iran's forces in Khuzestan Province, site of the Abadan Refinery, placed on an alert, rumors that the British might land forces brought nationalist tempers in Tehran to a fever pitch.

Attempt To Break Truce Parleys Seen

TOKYO —(P)—The Allies Thursday suggested resuming negotiations for a Korean armistice at a village in northman's land, with demarcation of a buffer zone as the first order of business.

General Ridgway's public information office followed this move with a statement that the Reds may be trying to force the United Nations to break off the talks "out of sheer frustration and futility."

Truman Asks Law To Curb Bad Conduct

WASHINGTON —(P)—President Truman Thursday asked Congress to require its members and all top government officials — including generals, admirals and judges—to give a public accounting each year of their total income.

Truman said such legislation would help prevent "improper conduct" and "unfounded suspicions."

In a lengthy message, sent to the Capitol in the midst of a Senate inquiry into charges of political influence in government loans, the President said:

"In operations as large as those of our government today, with so much depending on official action in the Congress and in the executive agencies, there are bound to be attempts by private citizens or special interests groups to gain their ends by illegal or improper means."

Party Officials Included

Truman said he would favor including "the principle that national party officials and employees be among those persons required to file annual statements."

Specifically, the President recommended to Congress the prompt enactment of a law—

"Which will require all full-time civilian presidential appointees, including members of the federal bench; all elected officers of the federal government, including members of the Congress; and all other top officials and employees of the three branches of the government—say those receiving salaries of $10,000 or more, plus flag and general officers of the armed services—to file annually a statement of their total incomes, including amounts over and above their government salaries, and the sources of this outside income."

Jury Finds Negro Defendant Innocent In Wife's Slaying

A 70th District Court jury deliberated only two and one-half hours Wednesday afternoon before freeing 34-year-old James Abram of a charge he murdered his common-law wife.

The verdict of acquittal was returned by Judge R. W. (Bob) Hamilton by Jury Foreman V. C. Maley on the third day of the trial of the San Antonio negro.

Abram admitted he stabbed Marie Jackson on March 4, 1950, but said he had pulled out his knife only after she had attacked him with another knife.

Other members of the jury were J. S. Patton, Wesley C. May, John N. Moffet, Charles Haynes, Joe H. Rockwood, Harold W. Shaner, Donnie Collins, Henry G. Krauss, Walter C. Beadle and Charles H. Dobbs.

Being selected Thursday morning was another jury to hear the trial of Phillip Benjamin, Midland negro charged with murder in the September 4 slaying of Roosevelt Leaner.

Benjamin is being defended by Merritt F. Hines, Midland attorney.

Operators Consider 80-Acre Well Units In Spraberry Area

FORT WORTH —(P)—An estimated 25,000 oil wells and 4,590,000 tons of steel would be required to develop the "million-acre Spraberry Trend of West Texas under the 40-acre spacing plan," a Fort Worth oil operator said Wednesday.

Pegasus Field Shut-In Threatened

AUSTIN —(P)—The Pegasus field of Upton and Midland Counties Thursday was under a Railroad Commission threat to be shut in unless a pressure maintenance program is put into effect and gas flaring halted.

The commission has set a public hearing October 31 in Austin and ordered the field's operators to show cause why such action should not be taken.

The commission said the field is flaring 15,000,000 feet of gas daily.

President Signs Bill Making 500,000 Childless Husbands Eligible For Draft

WASHINGTON —(P)—President Truman Wednesday signed new draft regulations which make childless married men eligible for military service.

The presidential action also makes other changes in Selective Service rules in keeping with the draft law passed by Congress last June.

Of major effect, however, is the permission to draft childless married men, a change Selective Service officials believe will make 500,000 men formerly deferred eligible for duty. Brig. Gen. Louis Renfrow, acting director of Selective Service, said about 200,000 of this total may be drafted.

OPS Relaxes Home Slaughter Regulations

WASHINGTON —(P)—The government Thursday decided farmers who slaughter livestock for their own use don't have to have the beef graded and labeled after all.

Previously, the meat regulations required every person slaughtering livestock to have the meat graded and marked. The Office of Price Stabilization (OPS) said Thursday this placed an unnecessary burden on farmers, livestock raisers and others.

The new ruling is effective October 1.

$200,000 Fire Guts Odessa Supermarket

ODESSA — Fire of undetermined origin broke out in the large Safeway supermarket here late Wednesday, causing losses estimated at $150,000 to $200,000.

About 50 shoppers were in the store when the fire first was discovered, but all fled out and no one got panicky, according to F. M. Segal, a stock clerk in the store.

Segal said the fire apparently started in the motor room, a space in the back of the building housing the refrigeration units, and had a good headway before it was discovered.

"I've never seen a fire spread so fast," Segal said. "In five minutes time, two-thirds of the building was engulfed in smoke."

Two Odessa firemen were overcome by smoke temporarily in fighting the blaze, while a third, William A. Rutledge, broke his ankle.

Elizabeth, Philip Set New Date For Journey To Canada

LONDON —(P)—Princess Elizabeth and the duke of Edinburgh will leave for their postponed Canadian tour by air on October 7, they said Thursday.

They will begin carrying out their tour schedule at Quebec October 9. This means there will be only a one-week delay caused by postponement of the trip because of the king's serious illness. They originally had planned to arrive in Quebec Tuesday.

The royal couple will disclose later whether it still will be possible for them to visit President Truman in Washington.

They had planned to visit in Washington October 24-26.

The decision to postpone the tour after only a seven-day postponement apparently means King George VI is believed making a normal recovery from his dangerous lung operation of Sunday.

The Midland Service League, for more than a year now, has been working and planning to establish a day nursery here as an aid to working mothers who cannot afford to pay the average baby-sitting fees. It is a major project of the Service League. The need for such a nursery is apparent.

Now, the Midland Service League is ready to go on the project, but actually it has no place to go.

A five or six-room house in need on a rental basis. The League expects to pay a fair rent on the property. A near downtown or South Side location is preferred.

"If we had the house we could start our day nursery tomorrow," a League representative said. "We are in dire need of a suitable house for the project."

Battle Looms Over Montez Estate Unless Will Looms

By ERSKINE JOHNSON
NEA Staff Correspondent

HOLLYWOOD — Exclusively Yours: Unless a will eventually turns up, there will be a big Paris-to-Hollywood legal battle over the estate of Maria Montez. No will has yet been found and both Jean Pierre Aumont and Maria's family are consulting attorneys. Aumont's friends here expect him in Hollywood within a month with Maria's daughter, five-year-old Maria Christina.

Lou Costello, who had to sell his palatial yacht to get even with Uncle Sam's income tax boys, now expects a big refund from Washington. A check of his books over a five-year period revealed that in one year alone he forgot to take a $150,000 deduction. He's blaming "horrible" financial management.

If Howard Duff and Ida Lupino are in the same mood five weeks from now—when her Nevada divorce is final—they're a cinch to wed. Howard ducked a straight "Yes" or "No" to the wedding bell question but he put it on the record:

"We've talked about it but we can't say anything about it until she gets her divorce."

Trouble Gators
As if Lana Turner doesn't have enough trouble, she's also in a hassle with ex-husband Steve Crane, now in Hollywood after fleeing from Paris when his French actress wife, Martine Carroll, sued him for divorce. He claims Lana won't let him see their daughter, Cheryl.

Rita Lupino, Ida's sister temporarily has given up her movie and dancing career. She's working as a cocktail waitress at a Santa Monica bar.

The good news from the sneak preview of "Lone Star" is that Clark Gable at last has found the role and vehicle to zoom him back to his pre-war sizzle with the fans. Thelma Houston's more wild Injuna than Buffalo Bill, rides faster than Randolph Scott, tumbles like Fairbanks and bone crushes Ava Gardner like a TV rasher.

Deflation note: There's merely five pounds to go between Rita Hayworth's present weight and her pre-Ally Khan scale stippage.

Private Vic Damone and Joan

Benny, who were talked out of a too-young marriage by Jack Benny and Mary, have agreed to delay their Mr. and Mrs. act until Joan's graduation from Stanford University in 1955, but—

"But anything can happen before that," Vic, with Joan nodding in assent, told me. "My Army term is over in 18 months. I may come back to Hollywood and say to Joan, 'Hey, let's get married right now.'"

Fay Kanin, who wrote Madeline Carroll's 1948 Broadway hit, "Good-bye, My Fancy" (Joan Crawford did the film) will play the starring role herself at the Pasadena Community Playhouse October 1.

"I'm really sticking my neck out," she said. "I can't blame the author if I lay an egg." When did she get the idea to play the part?

"When I wrote it," she confessed, "most authors are frustrated actors."

Hopalong, Crooner Frankie Run Afoul Of Process Servers

LOS ANGELES—(AP)—Hopalong Cassidy and Frank Sinatra have run afoul of process servers.

A Hollywood press agent, John A. Daley, sued Hopalong, less well known as William Boyd, for $180,000, alleging the movie cowboy made $500,000 last year and was to have paid Daley three per cent of it under an agreement. Daley wants an accounting, too.

A law firm sued Sinatra for $12,250, claiming he owes that much in fees in his domestic relations litigation with Mrs. Nancy Sinatra. The plaintiff is the firm of Pacht, Tennenbaum and Ross.

ALWAYS TIRED? NERVOUS? CRANKY? CONSTIPATED? LISTLESS?

These symptoms may occur when the daily intake of B-Vitamins and Niacin is less than minimum needs over a prolonged period. In themselves, they do not prove a dietary deficiency as they may have other causes or be due to functional conditions.

Don't let these symptoms rob you of AN ACTIVE, HAPPY LIFE!

Amazing new medical formula combines essential B-vitamins, iron, and trace minerals known to be essential in human nutrition!

BEXEL SPECIAL FORMULA, the wonderful new vitamin compound, may be exactly what you need to put you on your feet again if you... like so many, many others... are suffering from common symptoms of specific deficiencies.

With all the medical knowledge of vitamins now made available by science and health research, it is senseless for you to continue feeling excessively weak and over-fatigued. Where such conditions are due to lack of B-vitamins, iron, and trace minerals known to be essential in human nutrition, Bexel may be the "miracle drug" you are looking for.

GAIN NEW VIM, SPARKLE... NEW JOY IN LIFE!

It doesn't matter who you are or how old you may be—start taking Bexel today and see how much it may help you.

Every Bexel capsule contains these Vitamins and Minerals:

More than 6 times the minimum daily requirement of Thiamine Hydrochloride (Vitamin B<sub>1</sub>), 2 times the minimum daily requirement of Riboflavin (Vitamin B<sub>2</sub>), and 5 times the minimum daily requirement of Iron, plus the full daily requirement for Ascorbic Acid (Vitamin C) together with Pyridoxine Hydrochloride (Vitamin B<sub>6</sub>), Calcium Pantothenate, Folic Acid, Desiccated Liver, Choline Dihydrogen Citrate, Inositol, Mixed Tocopherols, Potassium Iodide, Copper Sulfate, Manganese Sulfate, Zinc Sulfate, Magnesium Sulfate... plus important Vitamin B<sub>12</sub>.

ONLY 6¢ a day!

Potency Guaranteed

You take just ONE easy-to-swallow capsule a day, any time of the day... and that's all! It costs you only about 6¢ a day... a tiny price to pay to protect yourself against symptoms which may occur when you are deficient in B-vitamins, iron, and minerals known to be necessary in human nutrition.

Saddler Beats Pep In Nine-Round TKO

NEW YORK —(AP)— Unless they take their act on the wrestling circuit, the Sandy Saddler-Wille Pep featherweight series is over with Slashing Sandy still the champion.

Four times is enough—and to many fans too much—for this furious feud between the ring's best 126-pounders. A battered, bleeding and disgruntled pep quit on his stool after the ninth round at the Polo Grounds Wednesday night to give the skinny Harlem negro a nine-round technical knockout and a 4-1 edge in the series.

It was almost a duplicate of last year's battle between the two.

Texas Tech Coach Is Worried About A&M Passing Game

LUBBOCK —More than Bob Smith's running worries Coach De Witt Weaver as he prepares his Texas Tech Red Raiders for their game with the Texas Aggies in Dallas Saturday night.

An unheralded but potent passing attack as displayed by the Aggies last week is responsible for the Red Raiders emphasizing aerial defense. Dick Gardemala and Ray Graves's passing helped A&M score a 21-14 victory over University of California at Los Angeles.

Weaver warned that the Red Raiders' 46-7 victory in their opener over West Texas did not mean that Tech's grid "comeback" was an accomplished fact.

"Remember, we had three weeks to prepare for the Buffaloes, and we had several men wanted revenge for last year's loss. Also this wasn't the same West Texas ball team that beat Tech last season," he continued. "When the Buffaloes hit their stride, they'll be hard to beat, but it's too early in the season to expect replacements for the key men Kimbrough lost to be at their best."

Not only was it a debut for Tech's new coaching regime. It marked the first time for Weaver to head coach a team. Except for naval duty, Weaver had been an assistant coach since 1937. He came to Tech from Tulsa.

Oklahoma, Texas Golf Meet Begins

WACO —(AP)— A 36-hole open tournament for Texas and Oklahoma golfers starts Thursday.

Among the favorites to capture first money is Henry Ransom of Dallas, one of the nation's top professionals who shot a three-under par 67 Wednesday as low scorer in a pro-amateur.

Raymond Gafford, Dallas pro and L. T. Murray, Waco amateur, however won the pro-amateur with a nine-under-par best ball of 61.

Gafford shot a 68 over the 6,373-yard Ridgewood course.

Billy Maxwell of Odessa, the National Amateur Champion, ran into putting trouble and shot a one-over-par 71.

A LONG WAY TO HAMILTON

TUSCALOOSA, ALA.—(AP)— The University of Alabama's individual scoring record in football is held by Mullie Lenor, 1920 halfback. He tallied 144 points on 24 touchdowns. Tops in the Crimson Tide's Southwestern conference history is Fred Grant, 1948 fullback, with 68 points on 11 touchdowns.

GIANTS, BROOKS Keep Pace With Important Wins

By ED CORRIGAN
Associated Press Sports Writer

BUT YANKS STUMBLE—

The desperate Brooklyn Dodgers, who have seen their once-mighty 13 1/2-game National League lead dwindle to just one game, go into Thursday's big test against Boston's Braves with Preacher Roe (22-2)—their stopper—on the mound.

The New York Giants, panting down the Brooks' backs in the mad chase for the flag after winning 35 of their last 42 outings, will spend the day watching and waiting. They don't get back into action until Saturday against Boston.

Actually, the Brooks are in an advantageous position and the Giants will have to get the breaks to win the bunting.

Wednesday's 15-8 conquest of the Braves did a lot for the Dodgers, even though the Giants came right back at night and polished off the Philadelphia Phillies with equal emphasis, 10-1. For one thing, it indicated the Brooks have not cracked up completely after their double defeat by the Braves Tuesday night.

For another thing, it showed Don Newcombe, who had been trying to win his nineteenth game for a long time, again could be trusted with top assignments.

In the American League, the New York Yankees made no progress in their efforts to sew up the flag. They were completely ineffective against the slants of little Bobby Shantz and dropped a 4-1 decision to the Philadelphia A's.

So the combination still is two for the Yanks—two triumphs or two defeats the Cleveland Indians, who were idle Wednesday. The Yanks have five games left to play and the Indians only two. The Tribe winds up the season's business with single games at home against the Detroit Tigers Saturday and Sunday.

The Yanks play all five of theirs against the Boston Red Sox. Casey Stengel's men have only one worry about the Sox now. With their 7-3 loss at the hands of the Washington Senators Wednesday night, the Beantowners can't possibly win the pennant. If they win all six of their remaining games, and the Yanks lose all five of theirs, Steve O'Neill's team will tie.

Giants On Spot

The Giants were on the spot Wednesday night. The Dodgers already had won three games, and Leo Durocher knew his hired hands would have to win to stay in the race. They came through nobly behind Larry Jansen, who racked up his twenty-first victory.

Jansen's task was made easy when his mates presented him with four runs in the first inning, then three more in the third.

Monte Irvin was the big boy in the Giant's attack with a three-run home run in the first, a triple and a double.

The Dodgers gave the Braves the same treatment the Giants gave the Phils. They pushed over four runs in the first, then added four more in the fifth and seven in the eighth.

Newcombe gave up only eight hits, although two of them were home runs by Bob Addis and Earl Tor-

City Golf Tourney Set At RH Club

The first annual City of Midland Golf Tournament begins Wednesday at Ranchland Hill Country Club.

Qualifying rounds now are underway, with all contestants due to finish by starting time Wednesday. The tourney gets underway at 9 a.m.

All golfers in the city are invited to participate, Vann Ligon, Ranchland Hill official, said.

If as many as 10 flights are in the play, a $1,600 purse will go to winners. All flights will include 16 golfers.

Next year, the tournament is to be held at Midland Country Club. A large trophy will go to the winner of the tournament.

A long-driving contest is to be held at 4 p.m. Wednesday.

Wednesday night, a barbecue will feature the program, while a dance highlights the activity at Ranchland Hill Club Saturday night.

Miners, Aggies Looking For First Victory

EL PASO — Texas Western College and New Mexico A&M, football rivals since 1914, meet for the thirty-first time Saturday night on Kidd Field.

The Border Conference game will bring together two rookie-dominated squads, each looking for their first victory of the young season.

New Mexico A&M has been licked by the University of Arizona and Stephen F. Austin State College, while the inexperienced Miners dropped their only encounter, a 33-0 loss to powerful North Texas State.

In spite of the loss to North Texas, Coach Mike Brumbelow found a lot of bright spots in the way his Texas Western squad preformed. Particularly impressive was the fine work of sophomore Dick Shinnaut in his debut as a quarterback.

Russell Young, first string defensive guard, received a knee injury in the North Texas game and will be the only Miner on the casualty list when the Orangemen try for their fifth in a row over New Mexico A&M.

Seeking to rebuild the Aggie football fortunes is Joe Coleman, former Odessa High School coach. As his assistants he has two former Texas Western greats, Raymond (Sugar) Evans and Harvey (Pug) Gabrel.

"Slingshot" Sammy McGowan one of the top passers in the nation, dealt a blow to Aggie hopes Wednesday when he withdrew from school due to family illness.

Kick-off time for the Saturday game is 8 p.m.

"What are Midland's chances for an unbeaten football season this year?" the voice on the other end of the telephone questioned.

Which set us to thinking madly and caused the questioning party to ask again and swear because he thought his connection had been broken.

We could have put the question to Tugboat Jones, but since we had a headache anyway, his anguished cry probably wouldn't have done us any good.

So we promised the fellow we'd study the problem and answer later. The problem has been duly considered—but there isn't any answer from here.

Perhaps it would be well to review what each coming Midland opponent has done. That won't give an answer, but it will help evade the issue.

Here goes:

Crozier Tech—Lost to Tyler, 25-6 and Milby Houston, 19-12.

Brownwood—Oh, brother, are the Lions ever loaded! Wins over Coleman, 23-12 and Lamesa, 49-13. All this and Leodous Fry too! Poly of Fort Worth—Lost to Forest, Dallas, 13-6.

Lamesa—Defeated Paschal, Fort Worth, 27-13, then was swamped by powerful Brownwood.

Vernon—Unscored on after two contests. Took Wichita Falls, defending state champion, 6-0 then, routed Altus, Okla., 32 to 0.

Big Spring—Midland will be favored here, at least. Steers lost to Quanah, 27-14, and to San Angelo, 44-12.

Sweetwater—You can bet the Mustangs will be tough by November although they've lost to Pampa, 40-12, and Abilene, 32-6.

Plainview—Two games, two losses—but to two good teams. Fell to Lubbock, 27-6, and Amarillo, 19-7.

To be sure, Midland's offense this season is more versatile than it was last season and the team has more speed.

Defensively, too, the team has been strong—much stronger than was anticipated.

But the record?

Ask us about December 1—perhaps we can tell you then.

O'Shaughnessey Wins At Midland Club

Barbara O'Shaughnessey fired a 36 to take lowest honors Wednesday in the Ladies' Tournament at Midland Country Club.

Low cuts winners, with 13's, were Mrs. Payton Anders and Sunny Hardiker. Sue Chamlee's 56 score was good for high net. Dorothy Glass won the prize for having the most sevens.

The women golfers shoot in a tournament at MCC each Wednesday.

Bulldogs, Crozier Meet Friday Night

Tugboat Jones' "Giant Killers"—the Midland High School Bulldogs—meet their third AAAA team Friday night.

Crozier Tech's winless Wolves invade Memorial Stadium at 8 p.m. for the non-conference contest.

The biggest worry Jones had Thursday was stopping the Wolves' passing game.

The Dallas eleven has scored all of its 18 points via the air line this year, on passes from E. L. Jones to End Jesse Paredes.

The Bulldogs will hold a weight edge of approximately nine pounds per man in the line, and two pounds per man in the backfield. Midland's forward wall expects to average 163, while Tech's will go in at 174. The backfield weights are 164, Midland, and 162, Tech.

Number Three
Midland, rated as the state's number three team in the AAA classification, expects to use a combined air and ground game in going after its third win over AAAA competition. The Bulldogs hold wins over San Angelo, 21-6, and Yaleta 7-0.

Brain Specialist, Freed Of Death Charge, Is Insane

MUSKOGEE, OKLA.—A brilliant brain specialist, described by his wife as "a sick man," was in a hospital for the insane at her request.

Dr. Harry E. Hewitt, Jr., 41, was committed Wednesday to Central State Hospital at Norman in a straitjacket following a violent struggle with four deputies in his office.

The action came three weeks to the day after dismissal of first-degree manslaughter charges filed against the highly regarded physician in connection with the death August 9 of a woman patient.

Hewitt was accused of drunkenly administering drugs to Mrs. Allene Shuler for a headache. The Borger, Texas, woman collapsed and died within 24 hours after treatment.

At his preliminary hearing in City Court September 5, Hewitt testified Mrs. Shuler died of a stroke. He denied being drunk.

The case was dismissed by Judge J. F. Beavers after five doctors refused to venture a professional guess as to cause of death.

County Judge James L. Powell disclosed Mrs. Hewitt signed a petition for her husband's commitment on the day of Mrs. Shuler's death but asked that he withhold action until after the hearing.

Some recovered mail dated back to November, 1950.

SWC Elevens Prepare For Big Intersectional Foes

By The Associated Press

Southwest Conference football clubs worked for improved air and ground defense Wednesday. Six games will be played Saturday.

The schedule:

Texas A&M vs. Texas Tech at Dallas (8 p.m.).

Rice vs. Clemson at Houston (8:15 p.m.).

SMU vs. Ohio State at Columbus (2 p.m.).

TCU vs. Nebraska at Lincoln (2:30 p.m.).

Arkansas vs. Arizona State at Fayetteville (2 p.m.).

Texas vs. Purdue at Lafayette, Ind. (2 p.m.).

Baylor, a favorite this year and killer last week of Houston (19-0), has an open date. The Bears play Tulane at New Orleans October 6.

SMU, upset 21-7 by Georgia Tech, concentrated on defense against Buckeye plays in Wednesday's workout.

At Austin, injuries and the Purdue passing attack were the main worries of Ed Price as the Texas Longhorns prepared pass defense again featured the Longhorn work-out. The Texans leave by plane Friday morning for Lafayette.

Texas, victorious over Kentucky last week, 7-6, is favored in the Purdue game.

Nightly Texas A&M, victors over UCLA by a 21-6 score last week at Los Angeles, stressed offensive running assignments, pass patterns and defensive measures Wednesday. Ray George tested all his passers' arms in preparation for Saturday's game with Texas Tech in Dallas. The Aggies are big favorites.

Dutch Meyer was reading his crew for Nebraska. John Harville was moved from TCU's No. 1 defensive spot into John Medanch's half-back position. Medanch hurt a shoulder Wednesday.

Arkansas was prime and healthy and ready for its Saturday bout with Arizona State of Tempe.

Rice went through a brisk scrimmage of more than two hours as the Owls wound up heavy drill for their season opener with Clemson Jess Neely said he wasn't too pleased with the defense. The Owls, meeting the winner of last year's Orange Bowl and crowded with sophomores, are expected to fall before Clemson.

In Dallas, Rusty Russell of SMU turned prophet. He said Ohio State would beat his team by at least three touchdowns Saturday.

There is no prospect of an upset like the Methodists staged last year, the SMU coach asserted.

"They may be a little short on manpower," he said facetiously. "They only have about 50 members of last year's squad back. Maybe we better lend them some men."

"They're really ready for us and they have what it takes to give us a first class licking. Why, you know they have more experienced men than I have men on my entire squad."

Russell said he realized this was the game Ohio State was pointing for—that the Buckeyes were ranked by SMU beating them in an opening home game for the first time in history.

"They ought to have played a game last week so we could scout them," he observed. "We played one and they found out all about us. However, that wouldn't have made any difference anyway so far as they are concerned—they'd beat us without scouting us."

Russell said his was a green team if ever he had one.

"Only two of the seven boys I used in the secondary last week against Georgia Tech ever had played in a college game before

Braves Vow To 'Get' Mighty Dodgers; Durocher Is Praised As Fine Manager

BOSTON.—An aroused Boston team, led by its equally irate manager, Tommy Holmes, has vowed to "shoot the works" Thursday in an all-out effort to knock off "high and mighty" Brooklyn.

The Braves, who inflicted two stunning defeats upon the Brooks Tuesday to cut their National League leading margin over the New York Giants to one game, were on the receiving end Wednesday. The Dodgers literally ripped them to pieces with a 15-5 shelling.

Seven Persons Killed In Wisconsin Tornado

WAUPACA, WIS.—A spiraling black finger of a tornado dotted a line of death and ruin across two rural areas in Central Wisconsin Wednesday, taking seven lives.

Due eastward across Lake Michigan from the state, a tornado struck the village of Bitley, Mich., at night and left one woman dead.

The lower part of Wisconsin's Waupaca County was ripped by a "roaring and terrifying" twister which killed six persons and injured at least three. Four of the victims, members of one family, were carried into a swamp a quarter of a mile from where the tornado engulfed them.

Then some 45 minutes later—4:30 p.m. (CST) and about 50 miles to the south—a funnel-shaped cloud hopped across a 15-mile path in Columbia County, killing a woman and injuring her three children by picking up their farm home and smashing it down 250 yards away. Seven others were reported injured.

A deputy sheriff said buildings were crushed "like matchboxes."

FAYETTEVILLE.—An athletic endowment plan that will allow Arkansas individuals and business concerns to participate under University of Arkansas supervision was announced Thursday by John Barnhill, university director of athletics.

The boy to receive the athletic scholarship must meet high standards of scholarship, athletic ability and character, as well as economic need, Barnhill said.

The scholarships are for undergraduate work only, are to be renewed annually, and carry a stipend equal to the maximum benefits allowed by the Southwest Conference.

Selection of candidates will be made by the president of the university, the chief financial officer, the director of athletics and two other members of the faculty appointed by the president.

Top U. S. Editors Say Truman Will Beat Taft In '52

SAN FRANCISCO —(AP)—American top editors predict President Truman and Senator Taft will be nominated for the presidency next year—and that Truman will be re-elected. Further, they say General Eisenhower could beat either if he chooses to run on either ticket. Delegates to the annual meeting of the Associated Press Managing Editors Association voted, 115 to 7, that Truman will be the Democratic standard bearer. The seven votes went to Chief Justice Fred Vinson. They voted, 91 to 32, that Truman could beat Taft—whom they gave a 75 to 41 margin for the GOP nomination over Eisenhower. If General MacArthur should be the Republican choice, the editors predicted, 79 to 31, that Truman could defeat him. The editors balloted, 105 to 13, that Eisenhower could whip Truman, and 103 to 10 that the general could beat Taft.

After Three Weeks, Verdict In Adamic Death Still Suicide

FLEMINGTON, N. J. —(AP)—Suicide still was the verdict Thursday after a three-week police probe into the death of left-wing writer Louis Adamic.

While nothing has turned up to change the previous tentative conclusion of suicide, all hints of foul play will be tracked down. Hunterdon County Prosecutor Herbert T. Heisel said Wednesday night.

Police have been looking into the possibility that Yugoslav-born Adamic was slain by Stalinist agents in his flaming farmhouse in nearby Reigelville.

He had been working on a book upholding Marshal Tito's brand of communism against the Soviet Reds when he was found dead September 4 with a bullet wound in his head and a rifle across his knees. Kerosene-soaked rags were scattered throughout the burning house.

Adamic's widow said she thought he killed himself, but several prominent ex-Reds said clever Communist agents could have made it look like suicide.

92-Year-Old Drunk 'Feels His Oats'

PECOS — Reeves county jail had a spirited "roomer" who was old enough to be the grandfather of the officers who arrested him.

Sheriff Charlie Fitzgerald, Jr. received a call that a drunk man was using vile language and otherwise violating the law at the Pecos bus depot.

Ready to hurl a few choice words at the sheriff was a 92-year-old man who told one member of the sheriff's department, "I was on the Kansas City Police Force before you was born!"

The spicy old man was arrested in Odessa the day before for the same offense, but later released only to show up here the following day. He said he was enroute to El Paso.

He was confined overnight and personally escorted aboard a west-bound bus, from which he bade officers a profane farewell.

★ THE DOCTOR SAYS ★ Worry Is Believed To Be Chief Cause Of Insomnia

By EDWIN F. JORDAN, M. D.
Written for NEA Service

Just about one-third of the average person's lifetime is spent asleep—or trying to sleep. Sleep recharges the batteries of life. A good night's sleep should leave a person refreshed and ready for a day of active work or recreation.

On the other hand, too little sleep at night leads to a feeling of fatigue and lack of energy which interferes with the best results from either work or play.

Insufficient or restless sleep is common particularly among those who live in cities or are engaged in intellectual or desk work. Actually, many of those who complain of insomnia sleep better than they realize and they often make the situation worse by unnecessary worrying about not sleeping.

Apparently worry is the principal cause of insomnia. This worry can result from thinking about one's business or profession just before going to sleep, concern over family or financial troubles, or anything else which keeps the mind active when it should be relaxed and free of thought.

This gives the clue as to what can be done about it. Some people are able to get into a proper frame of mind for falling asleep by engaging in some physical work just before bedtime. Others find reading quietly to themselves or aloud produces the desirable state of pre-bedtime relaxation. Violent exercise before bedtime or eating heavily usually interferes with sleep. A short stroll might be all right and a drink of warm milk or some other fluid often is equally helpful. In other words, each person who suffers from insomnia should experiment with what pre-bedtime occupation is best suited to his own needs.

How much sleep does a person need? At about the age of 15 years it is considered to be from nine to 11 hours. At 20 years, eight to nine hours is considered best.

Inadulthood there is considerable variation. Some people need as many as nine hours a night and others not more than six. As long as someone sleeps reasonably soundly and feels refreshed in the morning, it can be assumed that enough sleep is being obtained.

Finally, I should like to mention an experiment conducted by a group of former nervous and mental patients called Recovery, Inc.

This organization has trained its members to regard insomnia as a myth, and I have been told that the group of more than 300 patients has succeeded in reducing sleeplessness to a thing of the past. Put in simple terms, a person's attitude toward sleeplessness has a great deal to do with whether it is a minor or a major problem.

PHILADELPHIA —(AP)—A former funeral home in Northeast Philadelphia, where the decomposed bodies of five men were found by police, was under quarantine Thursday.

Meanwhile, police sought the owner of the establishment, William H. Beard, whose license as a funeral director was revoked August 15 by the Pennsylvania State Board of Undertakers.

Police forced their way into the locked and shuttered former funeral home Wednesday. There, they reported, they found the bodies of the five men in the basement work-rooms of the three-story building.

WOOD-RIDGE, N.J. —(AP)—A strike of some 10,000 Wright aeronautical workers continued Thursday to hold up almost a billion dollars of defense orders, including a new type jet engine.

Water Rules—Operators—

The basis of surface area, a still-undetermined formula by which only so many inches per acre can be produced.

In opening the meeting, attended by 30 persons, Pittman explained that the board's engineer, George Green of Lubbock, had made extensive surveys of the water reservoir and the board wanted "to be fair to all concerned."

"We have some proposals here," he said. "Understanding, they are tentative proposals. The board will amend them if it sees fit that they shall be amended as a result of this meeting."

George Thomas, Big Spring, attorney for the board, then read a copy of the proposed regulations and called Green as a witness.

The engineer said he had obtained his data and made his computations on the basis of information obtained from 70 water wells now used in the district for irrigation purposes.

Formed By Infiltration
He said the average thickness of the main water-bearing formation is 75 feet, topped by a 35-foot formation of less porosity or production. The average well is pumping slightly less than 1,000 gallons a minute.

"What is the source of this water?" asked Thomas.
"The reservoir," answered Green, "was formed by infiltration from the surface downward. It has accumulated over a period of thousands of years."

"Is it being replenished to any degree by infiltration from the surface?"
"I have estimated it receives about two inches of water per year,"

"Does the reservoir receive water by lateral flow from other reservoirs?"
"It is practically negligible."

Green then discussed the porosity of the formation, the rate of flow through it and other technical computations.
"Have you computed the amount of water in this reservoir?" asked Thomas.

Green estimated there was a 14.4-foot thickness of solid water available for pumping on a practical basis.

Spill Encroachment
"Have you found any encroachment of salt water or other water considered not fit for consumption?" he was asked.

"In the central west portion of the district," answered Green, "I have found some water of a highly mineralized or salt nature. It will work its way in as the reservoir is lowered."

"Have you made any estimate of the life of the basin at various rates of pumping?"
"If the pumping were uniform over the district and six inches were withdrawn annually, it would have a life of 43 years; at the rate of eight inches, 29 years; at the rate of 10 inches, 21 years; 12 inches, 17 years; 15 inches, 13 years; 20 inches, 10 years; 25 inches, eight years, and 30 inches, six years."

Victor Bouldin, attorney for the Colorado River Municipal Water District, which has large water rights holdings in the district, cross-examined Green.

Under questioning, Green said approximately 12 per cent of the district now is under irrigation, principally for cotton, which needs from 24 to 30 inches of water, including rain water.

Cushion Against Drought
"If every farmer in this district irrigated cotton at that rate, how long would the reservoir last?" asked Bouldin.

"Six years," answered the engineer. "But, remember, the irrigation water is only a cushion against drought. Some years the cotton may not need any irrigation water."

After questioning him further about earlier testimony, Bouldin asked Green to furnish him a copy of his engineering report.

"I will have several copies," answered Green, "but I will turn them over to the board. It's up to them what to do with them."

Bouldin then addressed a request to the board for a copy of the report.

"I'll recommend that the board furnish you with the engineering data if you will furnish us with all your engineering data," said Thomas.

Heated Word Exchange
The two attorneys then had a heated exchange of words about whether the report was a public record and available to anyone.

Thomas repeated his original statement.
"Well," said Bouldin, "I just wanted to get the attitude here."

"That's my attitude," retorted Thomas.
Bouldin then formally requested that his group be furnished a copy of the completed regulations, before they are acted on by the district.

"We'll give you exactly what you're entitled to under the law," said Thomas.
Henry Orson of Midland, whose family owns property in the district, joined the discussion.

"Would it be in order for a common owner of land in the district to ask to see a copy of the proposed regulations before they are adopted," he asked.
"What one can see, all can see," said Thomas.

RECEIVES THUMB INJURY
Thomas B. Jackson, 204 North Marfield Street, received an injury to his left thumb Thursday morning after his hand was caught in a pipe rack. He was treated at Midland Memorial Hospital.

Pembroke Pool
Humble Oil & Refining Company No. 10 Ralph Pembroke, new oiler in the Pembroke field of East-Central Upton County, was finished for a 24-hour flowing potential of 121 barrels of 36.5-gravity oil plus seven-tenths per cent water. Flowing 773 barrels of 40.8-gravity oil in 24-hours, Slick-Urschel No. 1-S-D Dixon was finished in the Benedum-Spraberry field through a one-half-inch tubing choke. Total depth is 7,375 feet. Gas-oil ratio was 1,104-1. Location is 416 feet from south and 468 feet from west lines of the lease in section 5, GC & SP survey.

On Stanolind Farmout
It is on a farmout from Stanolind Oil & Gas Company. It is two miles north of Stanolind No. 1 Wade, and four and three-quarter miles east and slightly north of James H. Snowden and Lloyd H. Smith, Inc., No. 1 Greer, both pumping discoverers from the Spraberry pay.

Operations are to start immediately at the Morgan and Brennan No. 1 Sugg.

Correct Location For Spraberry Wildcat In NE Reagan Given
Correct location of Morgan Drilling Company and Robert S. Brennan, Jr., both of Midland, No. 1 J. D. Sugg estate, slated 7,500-foot Spraberry wildcat in Northeast Reagan County is 660 feet from north and east lines of section 211, block 2, T&P survey.

'Dear King, Don't Worry,' Is Advice Of British Child

FAIRLOP, ENGLAND—(P)—Fifteen months ago, Clement Price Thomas removed part of Jill Stebbings' lung.

On Sunday, the same surgeon performed a similar operation on King George VI.

Eight-year-old Jill wrote her king a thoughtful letter Thursday. "Dear king," it said. "Don't worry. Look what Mr. Price Thomas did for me.

"I am writing to tell you not to worry, as I had a serious lung operation done by him. Now I am fit and well.

"He is a kind and clever man. "Love, Jill Stebbings."

Texas Democrats Snub Proposal For Dixie-GOP Alliance

SNYDER—(P)—The State Democratic Executive Committee Thursday adopted unanimously a resolution urging the national Administration to avoid any tendency "to restrict the free flow of news."

The committee also by unanimous vote adopted a resolution against the proposal of Senator Mundt (R-SD) for a coalition between Southern Democrats and Republicans.

This resolution said the committee opposed "the scheme of Senator Mundt" to divert Texas Democratic "rumblings of discord."

The Democrats entered the called session amidst rumblings of discord. Governor Shivers and staff members were on hand and making every effort to smooth rough spots.

Shivers told the committee he thought the much discussed new election law had more good than bad in it. If anything, he said, it should stimulate Texas Democrats to attend the important pre-presidential election precinct meetings next Spring.

Discussion of the new election code, which has been attacked as being potentially destructive to the Democratic Party, was one of the chief reasons for Thursday's meeting.

"A lot of bugaboos have been mentioned that aren't even in the new law," Shivers said.

Announcement Of Higher Meat Prices Due Late Thursday

WASHINGTON—(P)—The new and higher meat prices housewives will start paying Monday may be announced late Thursday by the Office of Price Stabilization.

The increase is expected to be one and a half to two cents a pound. It is being ordered to let wholesalers pass on to customers the hike in wholesale prices authorized last week.

Meanwhile, the nationwide drive to enforce the beef price control program has resulted in charges of violations against 222 slaughterhouses in more than 50 cities. An OPS official said this means actual violations turned up in the drive which began Monday will run high in the hundreds.

COTTON
NEW YORK—(P)—Thursday noon cotton prices were 20 to 90 cents lower. October $7.40, December $7.21, March $7.09.

Discovery In Sand Finaled In Runnels

Vincent & Welch, Inc., of Midland and Lake Charles, La., have completed a new discovery from a strat, unidentified sand in the Pennsylvanian at their No. 1 Ellwood E. Brown, Jr., Northeast Runnels County wildcat.

The well was completed for a 24-hour flow of 52.41 barrels of 41-gravity oil plus 20 per cent water. Gas-oil ratio was 1,850-1.

Through Perforations
Production is coming through perforations from 3,751 to 3,761 feet and through a 40.64-inch tubing choke. Casing is set at 3,950 feet which is the plugged back total depth.

The section was Hydratrac with 1,500 gallons.
Caddo Was Barren
The project was drilled to 4,256 feet in barren Caddo lime. The Gardner sand, which is above the lower Fry, showed commercial gas but operator does not intend to develop gas at this time as there is no market for it.

Location for the new discovery is 3,500 feet from south and 330 feet from west lines of the 249.25-acre lease in S. F. Austin and S. M. Williams survey No. 263. That makes it nine miles southeast of Winters and four miles east of the Elm Creek field.

C-N Stonewall Test Plugged, Abandoned

Bianco Oil Company, Al Buchanan Drilling Company and Rowan & Hope have plugged and abandoned the No. 1 Gib Calloway, wildcat in Central-North Stonewall County, after a 40-minute drillstem test from 6,417 to 6,502 feet recovered 40 feet of salty drilling mud.

Air, Ground Action Steps Up Sharply In North, East Korea

UN COMMAND, KOREA—(P)—Fighter-bombers smashed home savage attacks Thursday on Communist artillery dug in on the rugged mountain slopes of Eastern Korea.

Thirty-two F-51 Mustangs and 24 Navy Corsairs dropped napalm fire-bombs and high explosives on Red artillery and mortar positions in the "Heartbreak Ridge" area.

Communist fire slackened off at once.

In the third straight day of aerial dogfights, 24 F-86 Sabre jets tangled with 50 Russian-made MIG jet fighters and damaged two Red planes. One Allied warplane was damaged but returned to its base.

The Far East Air Forces reported this three-day battle score:
Reds losses 26—Five shot down, two probably destroyed, 19 damaged.
Allies—One U. S. jet destroyed; one Australian jet damaged, but returned to base.

Red Shells Still Fall
Red artillery and mortar fire still fell on the positions of American and French soldiers of the U. S. 23rd Regiment north of Yanguu. The Red barrage, one of the heaviest of the Korean campaign, kept the UN infantry away from the strategic high ground on the north-south ridge line.

Planes struck more than 50 Communist rail points and attacked up to 2,500 Red vehicles. One of the largest truck concentrations was in the Kumchon area, 20 to 30 miles north of Kaesong. Allied pilots said traffic has been heavy there almost a week.

After their one challenge Thursday, Red jets shied clear of aerial combat. There was one brief skirmish over Sinanju, but no damage was done to either side.

Take Time To Live, Guest Speaker Tells Midland Rotarians

The real value of life is determined by the fulfilled moments therein, Paul Hicks told members of the Midland Rotary Club at their regular meeting Thursday noon in Hotel Scharbauer.

"In this age of confusion, uncertainty and hurrying after material things, we often do not take time to live," he stated.

Hicks, a member of the Midland Toastmasters Club and a winner of the annual speaking contest sponsored by Toastmasters International, was introduced by Rotarian Hank Avery.

The guest speaker said many really big businessmen have learned how to always leave some empty spaces on their calendars—spaces where they can stop, relax and rest.

"That should be the goal of all of us," Hicks declared.

"We must have a little bit of time to be ourselves, or else we become slaves."

"We want national freedom, yet we deny it to ourselves by not having time in this busy world to be ourselves."

"We can and should cease being slaves to material things by taking time to be ourselves—by stopping to relax, plan and live, while lifting our eyes always to Heaven."

Allen Crowley, Jr., Dies In Fort Worth

FORT WORTH—(P)—Allen Frank Crowley, Jr., 52, died enroute to a hospital early Thursday after he was stricken at his home.

Crowley, a native of Fort Worth, had been ill about four years. He had been a partner in Crowley Livestock Commission Company.

Surviving are the widow; a daughter, Mrs. David McMahan of Fort Worth; three sisters, Mrs. Blanche Craddock and Mrs. Leta Pate, both of Fort Worth, and Mrs. A. S. Bird of San Antonio; a brother, George T. Crowley of Fort Worth, and a grandchild.

Hockley Project To Drill To Ellenburger

Production possibilities of the Ellenburger are due to be explored in Honolulu Oil Corporation and Signal Oil & Gas Company No. 1 W. F. Brown.

The wildcat was originally started to drill to approximately 9,500 feet to try for production in the Pennsylvanian lime reef which is the pay section in the Ropes field, one and one-half miles south.

Honolulu & Signal No. 1 W. F. Brown is four miles south of Snyder and 694 feet from north and west lines of labor 23, league 4, Jones CSL survey.
Reef Made Water
It entered the reef lime horizon at 9,917 feet. It is now making hole at about 10,069 feet. At that depth it had found no shows of oil or gas. The section from 9,900-95 feet showed only salt water.
This showing of water and the absence of oil and gas in No. 1 Brown, show that the reef formation is at about 10,069 feet. At that time have now filed an amended application with the Railroad Commission of Texas requesting permission to continue drilling on to tion will not produce oil. Operator commercial production between its present depth and 11,000 feet.
Some geologists think this wildcat will likely find and explore the Ellenburger.

Cool Front Puts Crimp In Texas' Autumn Heat Wave

By The Associated Press
A cool front with a 10-degree temperature drop swept into Texas Thursday behind record autumn heat in North and West Texas.

Strong northeast winds in gusts up to 40 miles an hour hit Childress on the South Plains at 7:30 a.m., and blowing dust reduced visibility to two miles.

The front was expected to move into Central Texas to the Shreveport-Ablene-Lubbock line by 5 p.m. Thursday.

Temperatures passed the 100-degree mark in at least six Texas cities Wednesday. Presidio had 105 degrees. The high of 103 at Wichita Falls was the hottest September 26 on record. Abilene's 102 also was a record for the day, and Big Spring's 102 matched a previous record. Wink had 103 degrees and Midland 101.

South Texas flood waters fell rapidly at Kingsville and Bishop after cloudbursts there Tuesday.

UN Proposal—

The site Ridgway proposed is near the village of Songhyun, six miles southeast of Kaesong.

Red China's Peiping radio called Ridgway's proposal an "attempt to escape from responsibility for the air and ground violations of the neutral zone."

The broadcast said Ridgway has "for the third time dashed the hopes of the world for the resumption of the Kaesong armistice conference."

Ridgway said the new site should be kept free of armed troops. The allied commander told the top Red commanders talks could be resumed immediately if they agreed.

Arctic Drive Of Reindeer Epic Memory

AP Newsfeature
SANTA BARBARA, CALIF.—The great Alaskan reindeer drive—a dramatic five-year trek of 11 men and 3,000 animals across 1,000 miles of frozen polar wilderness—is today as almost forgotten chapter in Arctic history.

But its perils and hardships are still fresh in the mind of Dan Crowley, the man who led it. "It was just 16 years ago that Crowley herded his flock into a small Eskimo village on the Arctic sea and turned it over to the Canadian government, mission completed. After a lifetime in the far north, Crowley has retired to a pleasant redwood cottage here. He likes to talk about his epic adventure, but "I'd never to it over again. I've had enough of gales and ice."

Takes Five Years
 The drive across the lid of the world was supposed to last 18 months but actually took five years. In 1929 Crowley was field manager for the Lomen Reindeer Corp., which had contracted with King George V of England to deliver 3,000 reindeer to straining Eskimos in Canada.

The herd was rounded up north of Nome. Its destination was Kitikotuk, a village east of the delta of the Mackenzie river in Canada. On a map the distance is about 1,000 miles. Crowley estimates he traveled over 3,000. He had to zigzag, follow-in trails where food was available and avoiding high mountain passes. Crowley charted a course after scouting the terrain by plane. Their path led through a bleak land almost unknown to white men and peopled only by roving bands of Eskimos. It was entirely within the Arctic circle.

They started on Christmas day, 1929. Ahead of them were famine, blizzards, temperatures of 70 degrees below zero, stampedes and continual stock losses to arctic wolves.

Overtakes Herd
 A few months out, fawning season overtook the herd. When it was over the herd had increased from 3,000 to 4,000. Crowley ordered 1,000 driven back to the starting point—3,000 "were enough trouble," he said.

The herders found themselves short of deer trained to haul food sledges.

They had to halt to "break in" deer from the herd, no mean feat. An untrained animal, hitched to a sled, will bolt and head for the hills, trying to shake loose the contraption which it thinks is chasing it. When 100 deer were trained, the trek resumed.

Next obstacle was the Baird Mountains. There was no way to skirt them. They had to be climbed. Crowley settled on a route through

British Television Boom Is Reported

LONDON—British radio manufacturers have received so many orders for television sets at the national radio show, being held in London, that they have started to ration dealers.

No figures were announced of sales in the opening stages of the show. Main reason for the spurt, however, was said to be that the public is getting ready for the BBC's new north of England television station, which begins broadcasts at Holme Moss, Huddersfield, October 12.

DONKEY MARKET SLOW IN ADDIS ABABA

ADDIS ABABA—No Ethiopian will buy a donkey with his tail cut off. This hark back to old stories about cunning conductors of donkey caravans who would sell some of the donkeys in their charge while on trips, then tell the owner the beasts had died or fallen over a cliff. But, so the folklore goes, one equally sharp owner hit on an answer. He demanded that his drivers produce the tails of the dead donkeys as proof of death. The custom still holds.

the Redstone River canyon, but because the ground was boggy they had to wait for the Fall freeze to firm it up.

Before they left 1,000 deer escaped, driven to flight by mosquitoes. Area Is Bare
 The area on the other side was not timbered. The party ran out of fuel for tents and stoves. They pushed on through temperatures of 50 degrees below zero.

The deer were hard to drive because they were blinded by clouds of steam that hovered over the herd. Vapor from animals' nostrils froze and ice spread over their eyes. Driving over mountains and tundra, halting during fawning seasons, they trekked for three years before reaching the delta of the Mackenzie.

The first crossing of an 80-mile stretch of Arctic ocean ice that blocked their way was attempted in January 1934. The great danger was from storms. In addition, the stretch offered the reindeer nothing to eat. The deer stampeded, racing for the mainland. The herd had to be reconditioned for another attempt.

It was not until March 1935, more than a year later, that a successful crossing was made. The following month, five years and four months after it started, the herd was delivered to the Canadian government.

SKY LIGHTS—Aerial traffic lights are a new feature of the Boeing KB-29 and KC-97 tankers that refuel bombers in mid-air. Here, a mechanic at Renton, Wash., checks over the one green and four red lights which automatically tell the receiver plane's pilot when his ship is in and out of position to transfer fuel. The new lights enable the Air Force to train in night refueling operations

Singapore Refuge Taken By Revoltists

SINGAPORE —(P)— The Singapore Standard reported a number of Thais involved in the abortive revolt against Premier Pibulsonggram last June are taking refuge in Singapore.

It is said these included two former Thailand naval officers. The newspaper added that more than 10 Thais have taken refuge in the Federation of Malaya.

It is understood they have federation identity papers and would not be liable to extradition to Thailand since they can claim they are political refugees.

Winter-Summer temperatures in Madrid, Spain, vary between 10 and 110 degrees.

Stomach Fuller Than His Voice

WICHITA, KAN. —(P)— Critics wrote of Mario Lanza's "full voice" when the singer of operatic and movie fame appeared recently in this southern Kansas city. "Unlimited range," "flexibility," "emotional color" were descriptive terms some of them added.

At 3:30 p.m., before the concert, reports hotel chef Joseph Lanna, here's what Lanza ate:

Six ounces of soup. One whole onion. One whole grapefruit. Three pounds of trimmed steak.

The chef said Lanza ate 12 net pounds of steak in four meals during his stay at the hotel.

Apple Pie Is Good Anytime

GROUND BEEF with trimmings makes a delicious meat loaf.

By GAYNOR MADDOX
NEA Food and Markets Editor

A different kind of apple pie is good news. This one is a super dessert, beautiful to look at and wonderful in flavor.

Apple Egnog Pie (Makes 1 9-inch pie)
One envelope unflavored gelatin, 1 1/4 cup orange juice, 3/4 cup hot water, 1 tablespoon grated lemon rind, 1 tablespoon lemon juice, 1/4 cup sugar, 1/4 teaspoon salt, 3 eggs, well beaten; 1 3/4 cups apple juice, sherry flavoring, one 9-inch baked pie shell, 1 cup heavy cream, whipped; 1/2 cup broken walnut meats.

Soften gelatin in orange juice; dissolve in hot water. Add lemon rind, lemon juice, sugar and salt; stir until sugar dissolves. Beat in eggs. Cook over hot water until mixture thickens, stirring constantly.

Remove from heat; add apple juice; cool. Add sherry flavoring to taste. Chill until consistency of unbeaten egg white; beat with rotary beater until very light and fluffy. Spoon into pie shell. Top with whipped cream and walnuts. Apple fritters go wonderfully with pork chops or chicken. Freda DeKnight, author of "Date With a Dish," give this recipe:

Apple Fritters (Serves 4-6)

One and one-half cups flour, 2 teaspoons baking powder, 1 1/4 teaspoon salt, 1 egg, 2 3/4 cup milk, 2 sour apples.

Sift together flour, baking powder and salt. Beat egg, add milk and stir in dry ingredients. Pare and core apples, then dice. Drop small pieces into batter. Stir. Drop by spoonfuls into deep fat and fry to a delicate brown.

Mrs. Tucker's Foods Offers Bond Prizes

If you know the right reasons for the famous statement "Mrs. Tucker's wanted in kitchens" you may win a $500 government E bond, according to advice from the Mrs. Tucker's Foods folks in Sherman.

Then, if you know why "Meado-lake is wanted on tables" you may become the owner of another bond of $500 maturity value.

Yes, it is reported the "dear old lady" of shortening and margarine fame is offering her users "twirl" contests every week for 10 weeks with bond prizes totaling $10,000. Each of these competitions ends at midnight Saturday, October 6, through December 8. There is a new contest on Mrs. Tucker's Shortening and another one on Meado-lake Margarine each week; with the winners in both to be announced in Mrs. Tucker's advertisements on the following Fridays.

"All you do in Contest No. 1," said a spokesman for Mrs. Tucker, "is to finish this sentence in 50 words or less: 'Mrs. Tucker's wanted in kitchens because...' Statements should be sent to Mrs. Tucker, Sherman, Texas, along with a Mrs. Tucker's Shortening carton top with the 'Tested and Guaranteed' seal on it, or a tin key strip from a Mrs. Tucker's can. For the best such statement each week postmarked before midnight Saturday a $500 bond will be given."

"Then, for Contest No. 2 each week," continued the informant, "you are invited to finish this sentence in 50 words or less: 'Meado-lake is wanted on tables because...' Send statements to Mrs. Tucker, along with a Meado-lake carton end flap with Mrs. Tucker's picture on it."

Exercise Can Mold Natural Curves

To acquire a rounded bust, wasp waist and smoothly curved hip-line, this young woman devotes herself to helpful exercises. To minimize her midriff, she chooses a side-swinging routine (left) in which correct body position plays an important part. With the help of phonograph records (left inset), she finds she is better able to maintain the rhythmic movements which give best results in exercises to strengthen the bustline (right inset) and to erase lumps and bulges from her hips and thighs (lower right).

By ALICIA HART
NEA Beauty Editor

Not since the early part of the century has there been so much emphasis upon the womanly figure—in the old-fashioned sense of the term—as there is currently.

Placing changing clothes trends the ideal feminine form has the gamut during the past half-century from curves to boyish flatness to a combination-figure featuring constraint here and exaggeration there. Now there's a return to rounded naturalness in hips and bust, with a tiny waist pointing up the importance of both.

An aid to women who wish to revamp their figures to fit the current ideal is a series of exercises worked out by Manya Kahn, body-molding expert, who recently published a home course entitled "Lovely to Look At."

The first of her suggested "body rhythms" which were designed to correct posture and to develop grace as well as to beautify the figure, is an exercise for the bustline. This may be done either seated cross-legged on the floor, or else standing tall in a free area.

Begin by straightening yourself into an erect, vibrant posture—head up, chest lifted, abdomen in. Place your fingertips upon your shoulders, your elbows pointing straight downward. Drop your head limply forward, then inhaling deeply, raise your head slowly up and back.

Keeping your fingers upon your shoulders, bring your elbows forward and then up and back, following the lead of your head. When your arms have made a full circle, exhale, lower your elbows and begin the movement again from the starting position. Five times around should be enough to give you, after each exercise session, a sense of tautened pectorals and loosened shoulders.

It's important, Miss Kahn explains, to keep your body in balance and to bend with your muscles in the way that they naturally go. A waist exercise is much more than just simply flopping your torso from side to side. She suggests this one, cautioning you to keep your body in line, avoiding swaying awkwardly to the front or to the rear.

Stand with your feet spread apart, and your hands clasped high above your head. Next, bend sideways, three times to the right, then three times to the left.

As you swing, unclasp your hands and hold them in a palms-outward position. As you move to the right, swing your right arm downward; as you move to the left, your left arm follows suit while your right arm is again elevated above your head.

It is then time to flow into the final position of this exercise. Swing back to your original stance and then shift your right foot away from your left as far as you can reach. Bend your right knee and raise your left hand. Stretch and swing your body three times to the right and then to the left. Reverse the foot positions, then, and swing for another three times.

To coax your thighs and hips into feminine curves, try a floor exercise which combines the benefits of rolling with stretching. Sit upon the floor, legs outstretched straight before you. Roll your torso to the left, bringing your arms around to the left to support your weight. Place your palms flat upon the floor.

Raise your right leg, then, bending your knee and pointing your toes. Lightly touch your left knee and then swing your right leg into the air as high as you can manage, remembering to keep your knee perfectly straight. Eventually you should be able to kick sufficiently high to grasp your right heel with your right hand. This will require torso elasticity as well as limberness of leg.

Glamor Specs Aid Beauty

By ALICIA HART
NEA Beauty Editor

Beauty is largely a state of mind. This being the case, the small touches that add to a woman's morale have an importance far greater than they might seem to have at first glance. There's something about a brand new dress (or an old one in which a woman has confidence) that adds a glow that affects a woman's entire appearance—the way she carries herself, her facial expression, the lilt in her voice.

The same thing is true when a woman knows she is wearing the right glasses. Her attitude toward her spectacles affects, more than the practical-minded would admit, the way she actually looks in them.

Fortunately it's possible today to obtain such becoming frames that the modern miss is able to go about her daily activities with no feeling that her looks are being spoiled.

There are still a number of women, however, who feel belligerent toward their glasses when they're dressed up for an important evening. The spectacles that they accept quite cheerfully for daytime wear suddenly become an embarrassment when they're going all out for glamor.

For women with this psychological set, special evening glasses have been designed, featuring gleaming metal and glittering fake jewels. So handsome are these designs that the donning of these glasses is an occasion for pride and rejoicing.

One company offers dress-up frames in a special lightweight metal, which you may choose in color to blend with your costume or in an attention-flagging gold plate. At one side is attached a delicate ornamentation of pseudo-jewels—rhinestones, pearls, sapphires, rubies, emeralds and a variety of combinations.

CANOES FOR PAY
KHARTOUM, ANGLO-EGYPTIAN SUDAN —(P)— Government officials report the Murlie tribesmen in Upper Nile province have asked to be paid in canoes instead of cash for work on the local roads. There are no suitable trees in the area for making canoes but they can be brought from neighboring areas.

Many cooks like to rinse away the oil from canned tuna fish before adding the fish to a salad or cream sauce. Others like to use the oil in the salad or as part of the shortening in making the cream sauce.

Comforting Announcements

Dr. Conant of Harvard thinks we're overplaying atomic energy and that the harnessing of solar energy will be the real triumph of the twentieth century.

Yet even without this last stage, the development is tremendous. One such atomic bomb may equal the force of several thousand ordinary artillery shells.

So we stand secure in the knowledge that we have not only a great number of atomic bombs, but an increasing variety of them. Moreover, we have available the three richest-known sources of uranium, the bomb's basic raw material.

Bedford May Have Machine Tool Problem Solved In 1952

By PETER EDSON NEA Washington Correspondent WASHINGTON—Since joining Defense Mobilization Charles E. Wilson's staff as special assistant on production, Clay Bedford has been concentrating on the machine tool problem.

Bedford doesn't claim that the machine tool problem now is licked. The most he will say is that we should be in good shape by the end of 1952.

Aviation trade journals already are accusing Bedford of talking through his hat in claiming that the machine tool situation now is licked.

It is believed that the industry can and will go to work under these orders. If it does, Bedford will start looking for his second bottleneck to boost general defense production.

Youth Center Chatter

By GAIL BAKER

Here we are—as usual—sitting at this old dilapidated typewriter raking and scraping to find and report all the news of the last week.

The best of all the happenings is that we "chalked up another" victory Friday night at Ysleta. We "CALPED THE INDIANS" by a 7-0 score. Everyone is proud of that. You could tell this by simply going into the halls of the high school and looking around for the posters—some very clever ones having been made by art students concerning our victories.

Naturally, many pep rallies preceded the Midland-Ysleta game. One was held Thursday morning in front of the MHS building.

The "victory" assembly was held Thursday in the high school gymnasium. The football boys were presented big, red apples. This "great ceremony" will be repeated this Friday in another rally.

The school was like the "hole without the do-nut" Friday, as many of the MHSers "shizzed via auto" to Ysleta to support the Bulldogs.

Friday night the Bulldogs battle the Crosier Tech (Dallas) football team. (Of course, we Midlanders are quite confident we will win! The YC director, Bill Glidewell, has picked Midland to win 28-7. So... here's hopin'!)

On Saturday night, October 6, Midland will be host to two college football teams—Texas Western of El Paso and Abilene Christian College of Abilene. Kick-off time is 8 p.m. Tickets may be purchased at "Tallortine."

The cast for the junior play, "Ever Since Eve," has been chosen and rehearsals are underway. We are sure the play will be very good, as Miss Verna Harris, director, has presented some grand productions. The play is scheduled October 22 and 23.

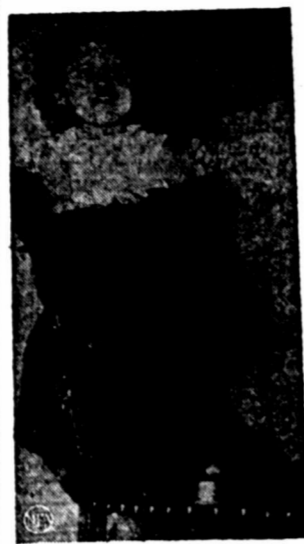

Howdy Week Slated

"HOWDY! MY NAME IS —" You will see and hear these words quite often next week, as almost all Midland High students will wear tags bearing this phrase. Yep—Howdy Week is back again. Our Student Council is sponsoring its third Howdy Week observance. This week especially is for the freshmen and the new students to get acquainted with the "old timers." It is to exercise the word "friendliness."

Girl Scout Troop One had its third meeting of the year Monday night. During the first meeting the troop "re-drafted" Emily Hamilton as president. Related congratulations, "Em!"

Not only did the "A" squad defeat Ysleta Friday night, but the "B" squad is boasting of its victory over the Snyder team Saturday night. (Midland 46; Snyder 6.)

All the teenagers seemed extremely happy to have been "let out" of school at 2:30 Monday afternoon. Shore feels good, doesn't it? Congrats to Nancy Klingler who will go in as Worthy Advisor to the Rainbow Girls Saturday.

Some enthusiastic cheers could have been heard from Betty Pitzer's house Friday night. Betty, Jane Beakley, Georgia Stump and Peggy Reed were the "voices behind the yells."

Also many heard the game at the YC. Here, there, and everywhere were "rooters" for the Bulldog gridsters.

Well, well, Bobby Pina. We are told you took over the position as "study hall teacher" in the Ag room the other day.

Navy Man Visits

Charles Sheppard visited the high school and the YC recently. Charles is in the Navy, stationed at San Diego, Calif., and is home on leave. The YC has gotten back its "pole goal" for basketball, which had been undergoing repairs.

There was quite a basketball game going on outside the Center Monday night. Members on the teams were Tommy Johnson, Charles Hendrix, Ralph Brooks, Don Rokkar, Don Roderick, John Crowley, and numerous others.

YC Hours Listed

The Youth Center hours now are:
Sunday—2-5 p.m.
Monday through Thursday—11:30 a.m.-1 p.m.; 7-9 p.m.
Friday—11:30 a.m.-1 p.m.; 7-11 p.m.
Saturday—2-5 p.m.; 7-11 p.m.

The Senior Advisory board met Monday night in the Canteen, at which time it was decided the Center should be closed at least one day a week. This, of course, will not mean a "holiday" for Mr. Glidewell.

U. S. Education Ideas Accepted

FRANKFURT, GERMANY—(AP)—The American idea of free schooling for everybody has at last been accepted by every state in the U. S. some of Germany. American officials have been preaching this idea to the Germans for six years—ever since the war. But progress was slow until the last year. Then state after state began to fall in line. Wurttemberg-Baden was the last to yield. It finally passed the law in August, 1961.

So far, however, it is only a promise in Wurttemberg-Baden. Its law provides that the present tuition fee will be reduced gradually every year for five years until they are wiped out in 1966. Bavaria, also slow in adopting the principle, has a law providing for free tuition beginning with the next school year. The free schooling extends only through elementary and high schools in most states. But Hesse carries it clear through the university.

Children still must pay tuition in most of the British and French zones.

Water Pistols Are Banned In Malaya

KUALA LUMPUR—(AP)—It's dangerous even to carry a toy water pistol in Malaya while there's a war on against Red terrorists. You could be sentenced to death.

Under the state of emergency, capital punishment may be inflicted on persons carrying unlicensed firearms. Although it might be difficult to class a water pistol as a firearm, it's nevertheless an offense to possess one.

SENTENCED TO HANG

IPOH—(AP)—A man on a stretcher has just been sentenced to hang. Toong Fah, 24, wounded in a clash between Red terrorists and security forces, was carried into Perak high court to be condemned to die for possessing ammunition.

He will use the day to clean up the YC, wax the floors, or whatever else needs to be done.

Mr. Glidewell, with the aid of Jim Veivin, Jr., is making a trophy case in which the Youth Center and JayCee trophies will be placed.

A dance will be held as usual immediately after the football game Friday night—lasting until midnight. All are invited to attend. Refreshments will not be served, but the Snack Bar will be open. The "B" squad plays Big Lake Saturday night in Big Lake. We shore do hope to win—we probably will!

So long for now! See ya around next Thursday.

Daddy Ringtail

By WESLEY DAVIS

Daddy Ringtail And Tinnhorn Unicorn

Daddy Ringtail, your monkey friend, was up on the porch of the monkey house, high in the top of the very tall tree, there in the middie of the Great Forest. He was almost asleep in the swing, when from down on the ground came a monstrous noise. The noise was really a crowd of people. Daddy Ringtail slid down to the ground. Mercy me, and how many people there were! The Huffen Puffen, the friendly wolf, was there. So was Old MacDonald who has a farm, and the Featherman, and Doctor Shoobug, and many more of the forest folks. They were all in a ring around something in the middle. Yes, and the something looked like a horse.

really a horse, oh no! A unicorn has a horn like a spear, right in the middle of its forehead. "Daddy Ringtail," said the Huffen Puffen, "this is a unicorn. It is. See the horn in the middle of its forehead?"

Daddy Ringtail saw the horn, all right, and the other folks saw, and the unicorn was proud and happy for everyone to see it. The unicorn whinnied and neighed like a horse does, and then it stood up high on its back feet and pawed at the air. What a fine unicorn it was! And then the unicorn blew a noise like a car horn from the horn in the middle of its forehead. "Ta-ta ta-ta!" was the noise of the horn.

"Oh me! and imagine that!" said everyone standing near. But the Huffen Puffen whispered to Daddy Ringtail: "Daddy Ringtail, this is only a tinnhorn unicorn. It is, because the horn is really made of tin, and the unicorn really is a circus horse who likes to pretend that a unicorn really is what he is." "Uh yes," said Doctor Shoobug when he heard these words that the Huffen said. "Yes, indeed," said Daddy Ringtail, because he was happy with all the excitement, and because now he saw that the unicorn really was a tinnhorn unicorn indeed, all play-like for fun. And until a real unicorn comes along (which it won't), a tinnhorn unicorn really is a happy thing because it isn't dangerous. Happy day!

Give Meat Loaf New Flavor

APPLE EGGNOG pie is a super deluxe October dessert.

By GAYNOR MADDOX
NEA Food and Markets Editor

For the budget's sake, stretch meat with tender cereal. For appetite's sake, add extra flavors to your meat loaf with mushroom garnish.

Beef Loaf with Mushroom Garnish
(4 servings for 3 meals)

One-half cup granulated rice cereal or fine dry bread crumbs. 1 cup undiluted evaporated milk. 1.2 pounds chopped beef. 1 egg. 2 teaspoons salt. 1.4 teaspoon pepper. 1.4 teaspoon nutmeg. 1.3 cup finely diced onion. 3-ounce can broiled mushrooms.

pack into greased small loaf pan, about 8 x 4 inches.

Bake in moderately hot oven (375 degrees F.) until done, about 45 minutes to 1 hour. Invert on serving platter and surround with mushroom crowns which have been heated in their own broth. Leftover meat loaf can be served cold in slices, makes excellent sandwich meat.

Squash and Meat Pie
(4 generous servings)

One-half pound chopped beef. 3 tablespoons granulated rice cereal. 3-ounce can chopped broiled mushrooms. 1.4 cup finely diced onion. 1 teaspoon salt. 1.8 teaspoon nutmeg. 1 pound package quick-frozen squash, about 2 cups; 1 egg, beaten; 2 tablespoons butter, melted; 1.2 teaspoon salt. 1.8 teaspoon pepper.

+ Jacoby On Canasta +

One good reason for the popularity of canasta is that there are so many different circumstances to consider in actual play. You can have the very same cards ten times in a row and play them differently each time because the situation is different.

For example, suppose your side has melded Joker-A-A-A-A, Joker-K-K-K and Q-Q-Q. You hold K-K, Q, 3, 2 (the three being black, of course), and you draw an ace from the stock. What should you do?

If you wish, you can add the ace and the deuce to your meld of aces, plus completing a canasta. On the same play it is possible to meld the kings and the queen and discard the black three, thus melding out. That is one way of playing the hand.

Another possibility is to discard the black three and meld nothing. A third plan is to ask for permission to meld out. A fourth plan is to meld some, but not all, of your cards. A fifth plan is to discard the deuce, freezing the deck. And so on.

What are the reasons for adopting one plan rather than another? Suppose the opponents have not yet melded but have put down all four red threes. If you meld out you can set them back 800 points in addition to the count of their cards. If you play on, they will probably meld sooner or later; and then they Blend chopped beef, rice cereal, broth drained from can of mushrooms, onion, salt and nutmeg thoroughly together. Pack evenly over the bottom and sides of a greased 8-inch pie plate. Combine squash with egg, drained mushrooms, butter, salt and pepper, whipping well with fork. Pie lightly over the meat lining the pie plate, spreading fairly evenly. Bake in moderately hot oven (375 degrees F.) until meat is done and squash is thoroughly hot, about 45 minutes. Serve hot cut in wedges like a pie.

Wholesale Food Prices Edge Higher

NEW YORK—(AP)—Wholesale food prices, as measured by the Dun & Bradstreet index, edged slightly higher this week for the first time in seven weeks. The index advanced one cent to 66.78, compared with 66.61 a year ago. The figure represents the total cost at wholesale of one pound each of 31 foods in general use.

Crop Increase Termed Possible

RALEIGH—(AP)—A $41,000,000 increase in the annual farm crop income of North Carolina can be achieved simply by changing to recommended varieties of corn, small grain, and tobacco, believes W. E. Colwell, head of the Department of Agronomy at North Carolina State College.

"It is shocking to realize," says Colwell, "that of the State's huge tobacco crop, four acres out of every 10 are planted to varieties which are not recommended and which discard the black three and wait for your partner's reaction. With two six-card melds on the table your partner is very likely to complete one of the canastas. In fact, your play invites him to do so. The moment he does so, you are in position to complete the other canasta and meld out.

have even been shown inferior. If only the best varieties were grown, the tobacco farmers of North Carolina would produce an additional 44,400,000 pounds of tobacco per year which would mean an increased income of more than $23,000,000." Similarly, he points out, only about one-third of the State's corn crop is planted to high-yielding hybrids. The loss from failure to follow recommendations in choosing the type of corn to plant amounts to almost $16,000,000 each year. The story is the same, Colwell adds, for small grains, although the acreage of these crops is smaller.

Small squares of bread, fried slowly in olive oil or butter or margarine until they are very crisp, are irresistible in a green salad. But don't add them until the very last minute—after the salad has been tossed with the dressing, not before.

Olympic Runner Takes To Woods

BOLTON, ONT.—(AP)—The housing problem doesn't bother Art Bolton, who has left both the running track and the beaten track far behind.

Art took to the woods near this town and pays a farmer $1 a year for rental of a wooden shack on the banks of the Humber, not far from Toronto. He and his collie pup live there all year round.

He traps and fishes, has an ample supply of wild berries and makes his own maple syrup. During his 20-year stay in the woods he has acquired wide knowledge of wildlife and woodlore. He earns enough money for his few needs from civilization by helping district farmers during harvest season and by selling skunk oil to stable hands for $1 a quart. The oil is one ingredient in a rub-down mixture for horses. Art, incidentally, found that skunk stew, flavored with wild carrot, is as "tasty" as rabbit.

For a changeover from plain creamed chipped beef, add a little curry powder to the sauce.

New, Double-Duty Shampoo Aids Your Troubled Scalp

By ALICIA HART
NEA Beauty Editor

There are few things more disturbing to those who fancy themselves as fastidious than a troubled scalp. Not only are such things as red spots, flakiness, itchiness or excessive oiliness prone to dim the loveliness of your hair and add to your general discomfort, but you're also likely to find them socially embarrassing.

If you are included among the many women who are attempting to combat this problem, you may find helpful a shampoo with a corrective foaming action. Derived, according to its makers, from a dermatologist's prescription, this product is said to work itself into the scalp, as well as cleansing surface soil and oil from the individual hairs.

For a special treatment, try washing your hair as you usually do—shampooing, then rinsing and then shampooing again. But instead of following this routine with a final rinse, try leaving the shampoo in your hair for a 20-minute period to allow antiseptic action to take place. Wrap your hair in a towel during this treatment period.

After the proper duration, continue the pattern of your normal shampoos, sluicing well with clear, fresh water until all traces of this hair cleanser have been rinsed away. Since it contains an easy-rinse ele-

Indelible Lipstick An Aid In Retaining Elegant Look

By ALICIA HART
NEA Beauty Editor

There's far more to the elegant look than fancy clothes and a haughty expression, as any woman knows who tries to achieve this elusive quality in her appearance.

One important factor that is frequently overlooked is simple grooming. No matter how glittery your diamonds, your unpowdered nose is likely to outshine them! No matter how sleek your furs, unkempt hair outrages the observer's eye.

The same rule applies to your lipstick. Smooth, sophisticated lines of a gown are likely to emphasize adversely the smeary margins of a mouth that's been painted lavishly but not well. Rich, lustrous shades of rich fabrics may well draw attention to lips that have lost their color from eating, drinking or simply through prolonged wear.

An aid to women who attempt to keep their entire appearance up to par and in harmony with their dressier costumes is a new indelible lipstick which offers, in addition to long-lastingness, a special creaminess which makes for adept application.

It features, too, a lustrous quality which is in keeping with today's trend toward gleaming textures.

If you're interested both in sheen and stickability, try applying this lipstick carefully, then blot it carefully after it has set for two minutes. Finally apply lightly a second coat to provide a moist, glowing look.

The first armed conflict in the American Revolution took place at Lexington, Mass., on April 19, 1775.

Realizing sleek grooming is as necessary to a look of elegance as luxurious clothes, this young woman chooses a creamy, long-lasting lipstick that will see her through a gala evening with flying colors.

Tiny bread cubes, mixed with melted butter or margarine, make a delicious topping for many casserole dishes. To make the cubes just stick three slices of bread, cut off the crusts if you like, then cut the bread into tiny cubes.

History In Hotel Capsule Military

ST. LOUIS —(P)—History was drawn into a close, condensed form for hotel manager Maurice Fayon here recently. During one weekend he had as hotel guests:

A group of Spanish-American war veterans holding a reunion.

World War I veterans in town for a state convention.

Members of the 555th Anti-Aircraft Battery (World War II).

A group of young veterans just in from the Korean War.

Primitive Tribe's Discovery Reported

DARWIN —(P)—A completely walled-in village inhabited by primitive tribesmen, who had never seen a white man before, has been discovered by a Dutch patrol deep in the Dutch New Guinea jungle.

The story of the discovery was told by the chief justice of Dutch New Guinea, Dr. Bernard Damen, who visited Darwin recently. Dr. Damen said the village had been built into a fortress against hostile tribesmen, and the patrolmen had to crawl singly through a small hole in the wall.

The astonished tribesmen advanced on them in a threatening manner with spears and bows and arrows. Patrol leader Den Haam calmed the villagers by singing them some native peace songs, and then gradually won their confidence by giving them presents.

Fur-Lined Suits Are Versatile

By GALE DUGAS
NEA Woman's Editor

NEW YORK —The woman who wants to make a sound clothes investment for Autumn will take more than one look at the suit with a fur-lined, reversible short coat.

She will get, for her money, double wear from the coat. Fur on one side, wool on the other means a coat that is twice as useful. And she will also get a suit that is itself a complete costume, to be worn as such. But further, she'll have the skirt for wear with sweaters, with blouses, with odd jackets.

Handsome tweed in red-and-gray, given wide cuffs and reversible lining of gray muskrat, makes a suit, left, that could be a mainstay through Fall and Winter. Designed by Seymour Fox, it has wide revers and a fullness that permits deep wrapping. Shoulders are smoothly rounded, lines are sound good taste. A straight skirt in red has a single pleat at front center to allow for walking comfort.

The wrap coat appears again, right, in a suit of wine fleecy by this same designer. Here, the lining is black broadtail. There's an edging of the fur for this reversible coat. Cuffs are wide and notched. A front center pleat appears again in the smooth, straight skirt.

One Letter Makes All The Difference

TORONTO —(P)—There's only one letter's difference between "pet" and "pelt," but it's a big difference to 13-year-old Audrey Hinds. Audrey, who lives in suburban Willowdale, has a pet fox called Freddy and she is getting a little weary of people telling her Freddy would make a better pet than a pet.

Freddy was found playing with the Hinds' two dogs on their lawn four months ago. Older sister Pat captured the fox and gave it to Audrey. Although he takes an occasional nip at strangers, Freddy is there to stay and has no intention of running away.

Reds Murder Three For 'Drifting Away'

KUALA LUMPUR —(P)—That big crime of "deviationism"—often prevalent in Communist Party circles in Eastern Europe—also seems to crop up among members of the Malayan Communist organization.

Information received here said Siew Lau, alias Pang Yee Foo, a Red terrorist leader in Malacca State, his wife and a friend all had been executed on the orders of the politburo of the Malayan Red Party.

The three were shot because Siew Lau had become a "dangerous drifter" away from the party line.

Aussie Envisions Paper From Grass

CANBERRA —(P)—Arthur Neville, a 76 year-old western Australian farmer, believes Australian buffalo grass and New Guinea Kunal grass can be used to make high quality paper.

Neville arrived in Sydney recently carrying a big bundle of buffalo grass which he brought from the Northern Territory. He told reporters that the grass had plenty of cellulose, but that it must be boiled in caustic soda at 600 degrees F. for more than four hours to be effective as a source of paper. He said he intends to submit samples to the Commonwealth Scientific and Industrial Research Organization for testing.

Parmesan cheese, mixed with fine dry bread crumbs, makes a good coating for fish fillets that are to be fried. Dip the fish fillets into slightly beaten egg before rolling in the cheese-crumbs mixture.

Operatic Star Sings Praises Of Modern Woman's Progress

By ANNE LARSEN
NEA Staff Writer

NEW YORK—It's difficult to explain about your own country to someone who's never been there. Conchita Gaston, Filipino prima donna now in the United States for a concert tour, tried for a time, eyes flashing with enthusiasm as she sold of the part women are playing modernizing her islands.

But talk about social changes in another land can be pretty high-flown and abstract. Conchita thought a moment, and then she excused herself and went into the adjoining room.

When she returned, her intention became clear. Clothes are a language any woman can understand. With the deftness of a quick-change artist, she had substituted for her smartly-tailored American suit a resplendent gown from her own country.

She explained about its fabric, a lustrous silk-like material called just, and about its style, which was traditional to the Philippines. Then she touched the full, stiffly-starched sleeves which rose in a peak above her shoulders. "Chaperones," she said, and smiled.

Just as knee-length skirts in the twenties marked the emergence of a new kind of American woman, so, too, are these sleeves indicative of a growing independence and freedom of action of Philippine women.

In days gone by, no young lady was allowed to set foot outside her home without her duenna—an older woman appointed to protect her from improprieties—in attendance. Now, thanks to the sleeves, she is permitted, more and more to go about alone.

Ballooning out as the sleeves do around the upper arms and shoulders, they act as barriers to young men who are loath to keep their distance, Conchita explained. Crumpled sleeves at the end of a date report quite as much to observing parents as the most strict and tattling duenna.

Just because Philippine women

Conchita Gaston, operatic prima donna: In her native Philippines, starched sleeves are beginning to replace duennas as chaperones for sheltered young ladies gaining new independence.

have, until quite recently, been extremely sheltered is no sign, she insisted, that they have led strictly homelody lives, with interests only in their kitchen, children and church.

The list of civic activities in which Conchita herself has been actively involved would successfully challenge that of almost any American woman. Not only has she played a large part in organizing and encouraging such groups as the Philippine League of Women Voters and the Business and Professional Women's Club, but she has also been instrumental in expanding educational opportunities both for homemakers and for career women.

The daughter of the late governor of one of the largest islands in the Philippine chain, she has been interested since childhood in promoting social progress among her people.

By this she's careful to explain, she doesn't mean modernism in the crass, brassy sense of the word. One of her major interests is the preservation of native folk songs, which are in danger of becoming juke-box casualties unless permanently recorded. Not only has she made a large personal collection of the visayas, melodic songs of love, but she has also included arrangements of these haunting native themes in her own concert repertoire.

As a professional Conchita is very closely associated with America. Not only did she sing a leading role in the first opera ever televised in English, but she also starred last year in New York City Center's presentation of "Carmen." She has, however, no desire to Americanize the women of her country. Rather, she hopes, the Philippines will "integrate American influences with their own in order to help build our new freedom."

The golden jubilee of the founding of the Australian Commonwealth is being celebrated in 1951.
