The Truth About BLUE-WHITE DIAMONDS

Don't be fooled by commonly used terms "Blue-White" and "Perfect" when selecting a diamond! What many jewelers consider a "blue-white" diamond may actually be tinged with yellow.

Only a Registered Jeweler can offer you the assurance and protection of scientific diamond grading. Diamonds vary in value according to four factors:

- (1). COLOR.
- (2). CARAT WEIGHT.
- (3). COMPARATIVE ABSENCE OF IMPERFECTIONS.
- (4). CUTTING.

National diamond grading examinations for the Registered Jeweler assure you of better diamond values. A Registered Jeweler knows the facts about scientific diamond grading and must observe the American Gem Society's standards which protect his customers from purchasing low grade diamonds.

BE SURE YOU SEE A REGISTERED JEWELER BEFORE YOU BUY ANY DIAMOND!

Actress Will Not Adopt Irish Baby

LOS ANGELES.—Actress Jane Russell says she has no intention of adopting the 15-month-old boy she brought to America from London.

She merely brought him to this country in hopes somebody else will, Miss Russell said after her arrival here Wednesday night. "His mother said she was ill and had two other children and knew the little boy would get a good home in America. I just couldn't resist," she said.

Witnesses Describe Open Bars, Gambling in Galveston County

GALVESTON.—Newsmen who say they saw liquor sold by the drink and viewed gambling in Galveston told their story to a county grand jury Wednesday.

It was the first day of hearing into vice conditions in Galveston County. The jury will resume hearings at 3 p.m. Tuesday.

Six newspapermen, four Galveston County law officers and a Texas Ranger testified Wednesday.

Three of the witnesses, all employees of the Texas City Sun, told reporters before the hearing started that they had visited three Galveston night spots and seen liquor by the drink sold at two. A dice game was underway at the third.

The hearing was called after Editor Clyde Ragsdale of the Sun and Reporter Thomas Mahr of the Houston Press wrote stories saying gambling and sale of liquor by the drink existed in Galveston County.

John Barrymore, Jr., Would Like Studio Switch To MGM

By ERSKINE JOHNSON
NEA Staff Correspondent

HOLLYWOOD.—John Barrymore, Jr., as an MGM star?

"There's nothing I'd like better," the youngster of the Barrymores quipped, "but so far it's in the top of my mind. It would be wonderful."

"After all, my father, my aunt Ethel and my uncle Lionel were all at the studio," John's living with his sister, Blythe, in Hollywood these days and is as wide-eyed about her upcoming role in "Andros and the Lion" as he is about his own movie career.

He told me: "My sister's a very talented actress. She's very serious about a movie career. I used to need her about acting, but she kept saying that she wasn't interested. Now she's had a change of heart."

"I always knew it would happen. We're both a couple of slices off the old ham."

It's hush-hush but Paul Henreid's "For Men Only" revolves around fraternity hazing based on an actual campus incident. It's as controversial as Fox's sorority-backed film, "Take Care of My Little Girl." . . . Band note: Song-bird Peggy Barrett is leaving Frankie Carle's band for Jimmy Dorsey.

Buddy Bear, between scenes of "The Big Sky": "I'm a terrific alibi. I never forget anything once I hear it."

Norma Shearer's radio emoting in "Waterloo Bridge" has turned the trick and the movie scripts are rolling in. She tells intimates she turned down the lead role in Susan Yorkie's "The Widow" because the heroine was too young.

Tip-off to Norma's change of heart about a movie comeback: She's enrolled her kiddies in schools near Hollywood instead of sending them to Switzerland.

I asked the bar-bells king of Hollywood, granite-fisted Tom Neal, if it was true that he had a publishing offer to write his memoirs under the title, "I Was on Him Like a Cat."

Neal frowned and said: "Where did that come from? The news-men misquoted me. I didn't say it. I don't talk that way."

Now that Marlene Dietrich's "The Blue Angel" is playing the TV circuit, there's talk of a remake with her daughter in the title role. . . . Dean Martin and Jerry Lewis are all set for "Summer Camp," in which the boys will play Boy Scout instructors.

Hedy Lamarr will have Arturo de Cordova and Gar Moore as her costar in "Gentle Murder," the picture she'll make south of the border.

Shelley Winters is playing another starring role for Jerry Lewis in a 16mm. home movie. This time it's "The Re-Enforcer," with Shelley playing Rocco, a lady bookie. Her theme music is the love tune from "A Place in the Sun."

Phyllis Kirk denies that "Point of No Return," the Broadway play in which she will co-star with Henry Fonda, is a title tip-off to her feelings about Hollywood. "Hollywood has been good for me," she told me. "You learn things about yourself here—the unflattering things."

She was in five films at MGM, but says, "Let's just say I was involved in them. I was always the girl in the musical who didn't sing or dance."

John Bromfield, actor-hubby of Corinne Calvet, resumes his movie career after a wait of almost two years as the star of Monogram's "Hit That Line." He asked to be released from his Hal Wallis contract on grounds that he wasn't the type for indoor, boudoir movies.

Stanley Kramer will appease the Navy's "honor" to obtain naval cooperation for his film version of the best-selling, "The Caine Mutiny." There will be a new title to eliminate the word "Mutiny" and the psychopathic skipper of the mine sweeper will not be pictured as an Annapolis grad.

Body Of Missing Film Writer Found

SANTA MONICA, CALIF.—The body of the film writer William Scott Darling, 53, missing since October 29, was found a mile offshore Wednesday by a fishing vessel.

His son-in-law, William Cook, identified the body. Darling's wallet was found in the water nine days ago. His car was parked on the shore highway.

An autopsy was to be conducted Thursday by the coroner's office.

KIDNEYS MUST REMOVE EXCESS WASTE

Nagging backache, loss of pep and energy, headaches and dizziness may be due to slow-down kidney function. Doctors say good kidney function is very important to good health. When some everyday condition, such as stress and strain, causes the important function to slow down, many folks suffer nagging backache—feel miserable. Minor bladder irritations due to cold or wrong diet may cause getting up nights or frequent passages. Don't neglect your kidneys if these conditions bother you. Try Doan's Pills—a mild diuretic. Used successfully by millions for over 60 years. It's amazing how many times Doan's give happy relief from these discomforts—help the 12 miles of kidney tubes and filters flush out waste. Get Doan's Pills today!

Girl Scout Troops Plan Future Events; Two Elect Officers

Election of officers and plans for the future events of the Girl Scout troops took place in meetings Wednesday of three intermediate and five Brownie troops.

Gale Parker is a new member of Brownie Troop 62.

Officers elected by Brownie Troop 43 are Mariann McCarthy, chairman; Nancy Bucher, vice chairman; Dorothy Kelly, secretary; and Carol Wright, monitor.

The Brownie Promise was learned by Troop 65. Future plans were made for learning potato stamping. Closing the meeting, the girls formed a friendship circle with each one making a wish.

Plans were made by Troop 39 for gifts for their mothers for Christmas. The Brownie Promise was said and the song was sung.

A hike on a ranch was planned by Brownie Troop 10 as well as what they are going to make for Christmas presents.

A Girl Scout movie was seen by Intermediate Troop 21.

Intermediate Troop 15 had a discussion of badges and decided which ones to begin work on.

Officers elected by Intermediate Troop 17 are Virginia Warren, chairman; Sassy Rinker, assistant chairman; Kay McKoy, secretary; Linda Williams, treasurer; Sue Lynn Gregory, reporter; and Nancy Darden and Patsy Kimball, housekeepers. The Pine Tree was chosen for the troop crest. Linda Williams is a new member.

METHODIST CLASS TO HAVE PARTY

The Mr. and Mrs. Sunday School Class of the First Methodist Church will have a party at 8 p.m. in the Fellowship Room. The nursery will be open.

EMERGENCY PATIENT

Mrs. James Wilson, 1303 West Dakota Street, was given emergency treatment Wednesday at Western Clinic-Hospital.

Justified Skepticism

The post of national party chairman demands certain special, practical talents and background. Hence it is not surprising that President Truman bestowed the Democratic Party generalship on a man well-grounded in the hurly-burly of organization politics.

Frank McKinney, the Indianapolis banker who got the job, is a veteran associate of the Frank McHale Democratic machine in Indiana. He needs no schooling in the hard slamming that marks a major campaign. He knows the aggressive techniques of party fund-raising.

To those who looked for the President to select a man unswayed by the grime of political combat, McKinney's appointment may be a disappointment. Yet a chairman who would fit this requirement of spotless public attire, of aloofness from the rough and tumble hardly would fill the bill.

McKinney's inaugural remarks show, however, that the Administration is not unaware of the unsavory atmosphere clinging to Democratic national headquarters as a result of the Boyle regime. The proponents of purity were given recognition.

The new chairman went out of his way to assure that henceforth his office would be free of any taint of influence-peddling, favor-dispensing, and the like. He announced he would waive the $35,000 salary the post normally carries with it.

Certainly these gestures are welcome to a nation which wants the moral tone of government and politics elevated. But they necessarily must be taken with an attitude of reserve. For they may prove nothing more than fancy window-dressing for an untidy situation.

Too much already has been unearthed in many quarters of the Administration for the public to accept at face value any professions of good moral intent—however genuine. Had Truman and his top officials themselves moved swiftly and courageously to cast out past offenders, skepticism would not now be so widespread. As it is, only the proof of improved performance is likely to impress the earnest citizen.

Truman, in acknowledging McKinney's accession to the chairmanship, did little to dispel the skepticism. He chose to take no note of the moral issue conceded by McKinney. Instead he heaped abuse upon the Republican Party as the alleged sole proprietor of the "loathsome technique" of political smear, slander and vilification.

Nobody who prizes the American system would condone for an instant the excesses of politics. But students of U. S. history—recent times included—tend to distribute responsibility for such excesses more impartially than does the President.

He was no help, either, in his rather arrogant insistence that only the Democratic Party is "right" on the issues. His concept of a Democratic mortgage on righteousness seems to reduce to hypocrisy his reference to the "two-party system," since he manifestly is convinced the opposition is never deserving of victory.

McKinney's arrival on the national scene truly may signal the start of a better day for public morality. But the prospect would be far more heartening if his boss showed a disposition to admit error, to see some virtue in the "other side," to attack weakness and corruption in his party ranks with the full courage his high office demands.

Get Their Man

You really have to admire the Communist anti-spy activities on the Korean front. In their dogged pursuit of enemy agents, they netted an 11-year-old South Korean boy. For 19 days he was held as a spy.

Actually, the lad was traipsing after a UN convoy when Chinese Red guards seized him at the Panmunjom bridge. He was merely curious, or perhaps in search of candy.

To explain away their ridiculous, humorless conduct, the Reds rehearsed the boy in a silly statement which seemed to convict him of serving South Korean troops. But with the guileless habit of a child, when he finally was released he told UN officers: "I just said what they told me to say."

On the basis of this showing, it ought to be time for a shake-up in Communist counter-espionage.

Tips For Newshawks

President Truman continues to engage in banter with newsmen over his 1952 intentions. The other day he hinted he might let his secret out fairly early in the new year. But then again, he may hold off until almost convention time.

Reporters might get a more accurate indication if they set up a watch on the Truman residence in Independence, Mo. There they could well keep a special eye out for piano tuners and Bess Truman's old bridge partners.

This Makes Us So Eager To Pay The New Tax Hike

The Washington Merry-Go-Round

By Drew Pearson

Washington — Republicans consider Eisenhower a babe-in-the-woods politician; like cut ground out from under Senator Duff. Facts behind disarmament proposals.

WASHINGTON — Republicans for Eisenhower heaved a big sigh of relief when their proposed candidate finally climbed on his plane and flew back to Paris. During the short time he was here, they estimated their man helped Senator Taft pick up about 100 additional delegates for the GOP nomination.

"He may be a great general," mourned one Republican active in the Eisenhower-for-President organization. "But he certainly is a babe-in-the-woods when it comes to politics."

What caused Eisenhower supporters to tear their hair was the way their man cut the ground out from under his chief backer from the statement that he hadn't heard from Senator James Duff of Pennsylvania "directly or indirectly for a long, long time."

In the first place this was not true. For, earlier in the day, Ike's own aide, Lt. Col. Robert L. Schulz, had telephoned Senator Duff from Louisville. He telephoned around Sunday noon, and Eisenhower's disclaimer to the press was Sunday afternoon.

Second, word was sent to Senator Duff two weeks before Eisenhower arrived that he was coming and to keep November 4, 5 and 6 open.

Third and more important, Duff had been waging a steady though quiet campaign to organize district leaders throughout the country and take delegates from Taft. Last month, for instance, he made two speeches in North Carolina urging Eisenhower for President. Immediately following the two speeches, John Gordon Bennett, son of the famed New York Herald editor, went to North Carolina, began the actual work of picking delegates. Before he finished, he had pretty well undercut Taft's North Carolina look for Ike.

Most essential part of the Bennett-Duff sales talk, naturally, had to be that Eisenhower was a Republican, had given definite assurances that he would be a candidate, and would not leave his followers out on a limb. Without such assurances, no local politician wants to deal.

Imagine their horrified surprise, therefore, when local friends read in the press that Eisenhower hadn't heard from Senator Duff "directly or indirectly for a long, long time."

Immediately long-distance phone calls began coming into Eisenhower headquarters from various parts of the country. "You said Jim Duff was masterminding the general's campaign," protested one North Carolina Republican. "How can he mastermind the campaign when he hasn't even been in touch with him? You said Duff had assured Ike he would run. But Ike says he hasn't heard from him."

"In view of that," continued the irate North Carolinian, "we're getting in touch with Dave Ingalls (Taft's campaign manager) as fast as we can. We've got to protect ourselves."

Note — What the North Carolinian had in mind was the way Eisenhower rebuffed various Democrats who wanted to draft him in 1948, making them too late to catch the Truman bandwagon. Truman never has forgiven Senator Paul Douglas of Illinois, Jimmy Roosevelt, Senator Olin Johnston of South Carolina and others who plumped for Ike. Republicans know this, and figure Taft might be just as vindictive as Truman.

Also, what local politicians live for is patronage, and if a new Republican in the White House doesn't like them, they are out of luck on postmasters, U. S. marshals, tax collectors and everything else.

Those are some of the sordid but essential ABC's of politics which Eisenhower doesn't understand, but will have to learn if he is going to run for President.

Ladies of the press who almost swooned before the handsome duke of Edinburg last week now are back at work, but they haven't forgotten one remark made by a male colleague—Frank Van Der Linden of the Wilmington, N. C., Star-News.

Moving through the press and radio reception, the duke observed women news reporters busily scrawling notes. "Why is it," the duke asked Van Der Linden, "that the women are the only correspondents who write things down?" "They can't remember a thing," Van Der Linden replied. "We men carry it up here."

He pointed to his forehead. Behind The Peace Besides the genuine desire for peace, two key factors are behind the American disarmament proposals in Paris. 1. A report from U.S. Ambassador Allan Kirk, just returned from Moscow, that both Stalin and the Politburo are suffering a case of war jitters, think the U. S. A. is ready for war, and that Russia should get the drop on us. Kirk warned that there is grave danger Russia may start war for this reason; therefore urged the President to be extremely careful about all public statements on Russia—at least until the war hysteria dies down. 2. The effective manner in which Russia has put across the idea that it is the real advocate of peace and that the United States is war-mongering. In Berlin, last Summer, this writer saw visual results of this propaganda. The blue and white flag of peace: the words Pax, Paz, Mir, Béké—peace in every language—were plastered all over East Berlin. Talking with both East German and West German youths, it was obvious this propaganda had sunk home. This also was true to some extent.

JACOBY ON BRIDGE

By ORSWALD JACOBY

Written for NEA Service. Ninety-nine players out of a hundred would go wrong with the South cards in the hand shown today. Half of those ninety-nine South players would be rescued by a mistake on East's part. (That makes forty-four and a half bridge players, to be sure. The half bridge player has been my partner hundreds of times.)

When West opens the four of diamonds, the ninety-nine Souths play and ten of diamonds from dummy. Half of them are saved when East covers with the queen.

Bridge hand diagram showing North, South, West, and East cards and a table for 3 N.T. Pass Pass Pass.

South can now win with the king, cash the ace and king of clubs, and get to dummy with the jack of diamonds to win a trick with the queen of clubs.

Half of those poor South players find themselves in trouble when East plays the six of diamonds on dummy's ten. Dummy is in the lead at this time but will never be in the lead again. It is impossible to cash the queen of clubs because the ace and king are still in the South hand. Without the queen of clubs there are only eight tricks.

One South out of a hundred makes the sure-fire play at the first trick. He plays the low diamond from dummy, leaving both the jack and the ten there for later use. East plays the six of diamonds if he is a timid reader, but South wins with the king no matter what East does. The important point is to leave both the jack and the ten in the dummy, with two small diamonds in the South hand.

Having won the first trick with the king of diamonds, South gets the ace and king of clubs out of the way. Now he can lead a low diamond to dummy's ten. Either the ten or the jack of diamonds is bound to win a trick, allowing dummy to cash the queen of clubs. By this line of play, nine tricks are as good as ice.

Q—The bidding has been: East South West North 1 N.T. Pass 3 N.T. Pass Pass Pass

You, South, hold: Spades Q-10-9-7-5, Hearts K-J-4, Diamonds Q-7-5, Clubs A-2. What do you lead?

A—Lead the ten of spades. Your first decision is, of course, to lead your own long suit. The correct card to lead from a suit headed by Q-10-9 is the ten.

TODAY'S QUESTIONS The bidding is the same as in the question just answered. You, South, hold: Spades Q-10-7-5-3, Hearts K-J-4, Diamonds Q-7-5, Clubs A-2. What do you lead?

British connection with the Sudan region of Africa began after the opening of the Suez Canal in 1869.

She knew she sounded prosaic but she had to say it. She had made her friend Ollie despite her inward agreement.

"Ollie's hobbies have been his profession, Miss Brownell," Riggs explained dryly. "Moths, stamps and fishing flies. He's never done a lick of real work."

"You've forgotten the papayas and coconuts," Allstair reminded. Elizabeth refused to be drawn into a dissection of Ollie's character. "Undoubtedly he's one of the interesting people who live up to the world for its own matter-of-fact characters as our a few eyes" she pointed out and added, "I bid four no-trump."

With what her hand contained it was an outrageous bid. Aaron Riggs knew it. He refused to respond to the Blackwood convention. She went down three doubled, giving the game to Lee and Allstair who ragged her unmercifully. After another fruitless rubber she excused herself for the evening. It was 10:30.

ELIZABETH'S room was separated from that of her patient by a bathroom, either door of which contained a long pier glass. By bracing the doors at certain angles, the young nurse could lie in bed yet see her patient by the dim night light. Any motion of Mrs. Steinhart could be seen and attended to instantly.

Though she shut her eyes and composed her body, sleep would not come. The occupants of Black Firs performed in her thoughts like jerky puppets manipulated by strings.

She had almost slipped over the edge of consciousness when there was a faint creaking sigh in the hall and she sat up abruptly. Her door was opening slowly, pushed by a hand unseen.

Automatically she reached for her robe and switched on the bedside lamp. Lucia was standing just inside her door, wearing a Nile

WASHINGTON COLUMN

Southern European Defense Is Vital To Entire European Effort

By PETER EDSON

NEA Washington Correspondent

NAPLES, ITALY—U. S. Adm. Richard B. (Mick) Carney has been given the somewhat curious job of defending only the western half of the Mediterranean Sea. As commander in chief, Allied Forces Southern Europe, his mission is to insure the defense of Italy and to hold open the lines of communication to that area.

Pointing to a big relief map of the Mediterranean which covers one wall of his temporary headquarters in a new apartment building on the heights overlooking Naples Harbor, Admiral Carney emphasizes the importance of his command. It is perhaps not generally understood in the United States.

If the Russians and their satellites should attack Western Europe, the loss of the southern front would mean that the flank of General Eisenhower's central front would be exposed. The loss of the southern front also would mean that the Middle East might be lost to the Western powers.

On the other hand, if the Western powers should meet with reversal on the central front—Germany—it would not necessarily mean that they would lose the Southern European front. Italy's northern frontier offers a good defense line.

For the defense of the Middle East, however, Admiral Carney has been given no responsibility. Draw a line between the southernmost tip of Greece on the North Mediterranean shore to the boundary between Algeria and Tunisia on the Southern African shore of the Mediterranean. That is the eastern limit of Carney's command.

There is no Allied command over the vital Eastern Mediterranean, for purely political reasons. Today the ships of the U. S. Sixth Fleet—approximately two carrier task forces—are free to move into this Eastern Mediterranean area. They make routine visits to Greek and Turkish ports two or three times a year. But that is all.

British Command The British island of Malta is excluded from Admiral Carney's command, although it is in his area. So is the British base at Gibraltar excluded. British naval forces in the Mediterranean, although weaker than the U. S. Sixth Fleet, are not allocated to Admiral Carney's command. Neither are French ships in this area nor the two French infantry divisions located in North Africa.

No strategic air power has been assigned to the Southern European command, although it has some tactical air—largely Italy's embryo air force, under command of Maj. Gen. David M. Schlatter of the U. S. Air Force, with headquarters at Florence. It of course could be supplemented by the Sixth Fleet's carrier air forces.

The only ground forces assigned to Southern European defense are the ready Italian forces under Gen. Lazzaro de Castiglioni, with headquarters in Northern Italy. These forces now include three infantry divisions, a brigade of Alpini and an armored brigade. Nine additional Italian divisions now in the process of formation are not assigned to North Atlantic Treaty defense because of insufficient equipment and training. Italy's contribution further is reduced by treaty limitations.

Southern European defenses, in summary, still are pathetically weak

Peter Edson

And they further are handicapped by political limitations. The Adriatic Sea is included in the Southern European command, although Yugoslavia is not, because it is not a NATO country. Spain also is excluded, because of political opposition from France and England, although Spain geographically falls naturally into any Southern European defense plan.

Defense Is Complex Admiral Carney points out that Greece naturally belongs in any Mediterranean defense scheme. Turkey's defense must be planned from two points of view. The Turks have indicated they wish to ally themselves with the West. Turkey's defenses must be supplied from the West, through the Mediterranean. Geographically, however, Turkey is closely linked to any Middle Eastern defense plan against Russian aggression. But coordinated Middle Eastern defense is non-existent.

Thus far, says Admiral Carney, the flare-up between Egypt and the British has had no impact on the Mediterranean situation. He points out, however, that Allied control of the Suez Canal is essential to defense of the Middle East.

The British formerly considered Alexandria as a Royal Naval base. The British still maintain a hold on Cyprus, the big island in the Eastern Mediterranean. The British want a British supreme commander for any Middle East or Eastern Mediterranean theater.

So far, the British have retained complete freedom of action in the entire Mediterranean area. But considering the close relationship of Eastern and Western Mediterranean tactical and strategic problems, it is difficult to see how this aloofness can be maintained.

All these problems may come to a showdown when the North Atlantic Treaty countries meet in Rome next month. Inclusion of Greece and Turkey in the North Atlantic Pact necessarily will mean that the Mediterranean must be considered as one lake, and not two.

So they say

The world is rearming everything except the Venus de Milo. —Michael V. Disalle, price administrator.

We'll have to bomb Manchuria if a cease-fire is not agreed upon. —Gov. Thomas E. Dewey, of N. Y.

We are determined to have them (new atomic weapons) first, and in greater quantity than any potential enemy. . . . There is no prize for the runner-up. —Robert A. Lovett, defense secretary.

This is the best time (for the American Legion) to give them (political parties) the needle for what we want done (which is) . . . either to win the war in short order or else admit we can't and get out. —Eric Cocke, Jr., retiring American Legion commander.

Kitten in the Woods

By Kathleen Briggs

THE STORY: The visit of Courtney Brown, a business man, and Aaron Riggs, trustee of the Blackwood, to Black Firs, where Elizabeth Brownell is nursing Mrs. Lucia Steinhart, an invalid, brings an unrelated reason to the place. The family bickers and quarrels and Elizabeth is drawn into a bridge game with others of the family.

THE bidge game was a miserable failure. Elizabeth played as well as Allstair, better than Lee, yet Aaron Riggs seemed sorry he had made the suggestion. Evidently he belonged to the expert school, bored by those whose play and methods of bidding were not up to his standards. After a few hands his attention wandered. His flinty eyes and chiseled features turned often to the door through which Lucia and Courtney Benson had gone for their stroll. Finally he went over to close it, muttering about the evening chill.

Just as the lawyer reached the door, Ollie bounced in. His expression was jubilant, his peevish mood of an hour before forgotten. "Found a whole swarm!" he laughed excitedly.

Minutes later, he disappeared again armed with net, lantern and several jars. "Sometimes I envy Ollie's absorption in his hobbies," Riggs said lightly.

There was disparagement in his tone, as if he meant, "Ollie's a simple fool but he's my host and my business so I have to be nice to him."

Elizabeth knew then that she disliked Aaron Riggs and didn't trust him. She wondered why the Steinharts did.

"He's an unusual personality, isn't he?" she said. "Unusual?" Allstair laughed. "Unk's a downright screwball. Brownie"

"It isn't screwball to have a hobby. Every doctor recommends it, especially as people get older. A hobby can be a life-saver."

A man who lived in a corner of the county asked the wealthiest man in the county seat for $25. When the request was turned down, the man said, "But everybody between here and my town says you are the most free-handed giver in this part of the state." The wealthy one asked, "Are you going back that same route?" "Well, as you return, please deny that rumor, will you?"

green taffeta negligee so starting in effect that Elizabeth at once suspected it was a relic from one of her mother's more bizarre theatrical roles.

LUCIA crossed to the bed and stared down at Elizabeth. The eyes that had been narrowed in suspicion widened in disbelief when she noted the plain dark blue tailored robe and the freshly washed, faintly creamed face. Her voice was tinged with derision.

"I came to see if you knew where Courtney was but I see I've wasted my time," she explained. "The last time I saw him he was with you going for a walk."

"A lot of privacy we had with UN fitting around the woods with his lantern and butterfly net. We had to go clear to the dam to ditch him."

"The dam?" "The mill race," Lucia said impatiently. "on White Water Creek." "You came back together, didn't you?"

"No," Lucia actually looked uncomfortable. "He—well we had an argument and I left him. Hours ago."

"Isn't he in his room?" "As soon as the words left her lips, Elizabeth realized that they were impertinent. But apparently this escaped Lucia. She shrugged. "No, I went there first. I hung round years older than this girl standing beside her bed. Were Lucia's motives always so transparent? Obviously she had had a quarrel with Courtney Benson which she now regretted. Probably she had spent the last hour making herself up for her big reconciliation scene and now the supporting player who was also to be the audience was missing.

"Why don't you go to bed. I'm sure he'll turn up safe and sound in the morning."

Lucia stared at her insolently. "Nursery advice but I don't think I'll take it. If you think I'm going to let the only attractive man I've met in months pull a disappearing act on me, you're mistaken!"

She had swung herself out of the room without another word of reconciliation. (To Be Continued)

Use Common Sense to Take Off That Ugly Fat

Overweight can be a menace to health, but common sense should be the watchword to get rid of the extra pounds. A rigid diet over a protracted period of time, can also do harm.

Who not try the Barcenate way as countless others have done, with remarkable results? Barcenate contains no harmful drugs. In fact, it contains ingredients to make you feel better. Just go to your drugist and get 4 ounces of liquid Barcenate. Pour into a pint bottle and add 12 ounces of canned grapefruit juice. Then take 2 tablespoonful twice a day. That's all there is to it. If the very first bottle doesn't show you the way to take off bulky fat, just return the empty bottle for your money back.

Here Is the Proof
"I have taken Barcenate and gotten wonderful results," writes Mrs. B. L. Terry, 724 E. 41st St., San Angelo, Texas. "I have lost 14 pounds and I feel so much better. I get rid of all my blood and gas and can now get a good night's sleep. I ate anything I wanted."
Lost 13 Pounds
"Barcenate not only made me lose weight, but it made me feel so much better," says Mrs. Ida C. Johnson, 702 Scott St., Dalhart, Texas. "I have already lost 13 pounds taking Barcenate."

FHA Observes Special Week

Midland members of the Future Homemakers of America are observing National FHA Week this week.

A formal installation of officers will be held at 8 p.m. Thursday in the home economics department of the high school. Following the installation service, a movie on home life will be shown.

The group plans to attend a district meeting in Sterling City Saturday. As part of the program, they will present skits depicting the right and wrong way to baby-sit, and Maria Sheffer, high school student from Austria, will sing two songs in German.

Sunday the group will attend church together. A contest is being conducted to choose the FHA beau. He will be selected from among 15 candidates nominated by the home economics classes.

Plans for the week were completed at a party Monday night in the home of Barbara Delay. Approximately 20 new members were initiated. Tuesday at the ceremony in the high school home economics department.

Play Readers Meet With Mrs. Beakey

Mrs. J. C. Beakey was the hostess to the Play Readers Club when it met Wednesday. Mrs. James B. Martin presided.

It was voted to hold the next meeting November 14 instead of November 21.

The next reader will be Mrs. Wade Heath. Guests attending the meeting were Mrs. C. B. Coleman, Mrs. James C. Chauncey and Mrs. O. J. Colwick.

Simmer, rather than boil, corned beef if you want it to be tender rather than tough and stringy; and be sure to slice it across the grain as you carve it.

Permian Basin Oil And Gas Log—

 A small pumping discovery from the Spraberry sand in Central Martin County, 12 miles northwest of Stanton.

It finished for a 24-hour potential of 11.65 barrels of 38.9-gravity oil plus 50 per cent water. Completion was from open hole at 7,840-8,590 feet. That section had been treated with 3,000 gallons of Hydratrac and 2,000 gallons of acid. Pay was topped at 8,190 feet. Gas-oil ratio was too small to measure.

Location of this strike is 330 feet from south and west lines of section 17, block 38 T-1-N, T&P survey.

Humble Schedules Deep Wildcat In SE-C Dickens Area

Ten miles southeast of the town of Dickens and in Southeast-Central Dickens County, Humble Oil & Refining Company spotted location for an 8,500-foot rotary wildcat.

It will be dug in the No. 2-F Matador Land & Cattle Company, 1,930 feet from south and west lines of section 27, block A. S. J. S. Callaway survey.

Operations are to start at once.

Two Oilers And Two New Sites Listed In Upton

Two new producers and two new locations have been staked in the Spraberry area of Northeast Upton County.

Phillips Petroleum Company No. 3 Warren has been finished in the Pembroke-Spraberry field through a one-half inch choke from open hole between 6,913 feet and 7,170 feet for 132.6 barrels of 37.3 gravity oil in 24 hours.

Total depth was 7,170 feet. Seven-inch casing was cemented at 6,913 feet.

Was Hydratrac The open hole section was treated with 4,500 gallons of Stratrafac. Gas-oil ratio was 712-1.

Location is 1,980 feet from south and 650 feet from west lines of section 27, block D, D&W survey.

Ashland Oil & Refining Company No. 1-20 Braden, Weener-Flloyd oiler was completed for a daily pumping potential of 83.22 barrels of 36.6 gravity oil plus three per cent water.

Production was from open hole between 6,940 and 7,146 feet. Total depth is 7,146 feet. The interval was Hydratrac with 6,000 gallons.

Operator set seven-inch casing at 6,940 feet.

No. 1-20 Braden is 685 feet from north and 682 feet from east lines of section 20, block 37, T-5-S, T&P survey.

New Projects Set

American Republics No. 4-46 V. P. Tippet and others will be drilled in the North Pembroke field and 660 feet from south and east lines of northeast quarter of section 46, block 38, T-5-S, T&P survey.

Rotary tools will be used to go to 8,235 feet.

Hensley Drilling Company spotted No. 1-13 University in the Bendum field 1,962.62 feet from south and 2,021.77 feet from east lines of section 13, block 38, University survey.

Contract depth is 7,800 feet. That makes it a Spraberry project.

Glasscock Field Is Extended One Location To East

The southeast side of the Glasscock County section of the Weener-Flloyd Spraberry field was extended one location east by completion of the Sohio Petroleum Company

Midland, Glasscock, Upton Trend Areas Get Oilers, Sites

Seventeen more operations have been reported for the Spraberry Trend areas of Midland, Glasscock and Upton Counties Wednesday.

Eleven new oilers were completed and sites were staked for six more tests.

In the Tex-Harvey field of Central-East Midland County, Lomax Brothers Production Company, E. E. Fogelson and Edwin W. Pauley and Sohio Petroleum Company each reported a new well.

Lomax Brothers No. 3 Judkins-Walton-Limpia, 660 feet from north and west lines of the lease in section 48, block 37, T-3-S, T&P survey, was completed for a 24-hour potential of 36-gravity oil and no water through a one-half-inch tubing choke and from open hole at 6,908-7,315 feet. Gas-oil ratio was 870-1 and tubing pressure was 175 pounds. Operator used 4,500 gallons of Hydratrac in completing the well.

Fogelson and Pauley No. 1-40 Walton-Judkins, 660 feet from south and east lines of section 40, block 37, T-3-S, T&P survey, was completed for a daily flowing potential of 172 barrels of 38.6-gravity oil and no water through a one-half-inch tubing choke and from open hole at 7,085-7,315 feet. Gas-oil ratio was 162-1 and tubing pressure was 75 pounds. Operator used Hydratrac in the open hole.

Sohio No. 4 M. H. Fisher, 660 feet from north and west lines of the lease in section 32, block 36, T-2-S, T&P survey, was finished for a 24-hour flowing potential of 360 barrels of 37.8-gravity oil and no water through a one-half-inch tubing choke and from open hole at 7,009-7,140 feet. Gas-oil ratio was 655-1 and tubing pressure was 100 pounds. Operator used 1,500 gallons of Hydratrac to final the oiler.

At the extreme north end of the Pembroke-Spraberry field of East-Central Upton County, James H. Snowden and Associates and Ralph Pembroke completed their No. 2-19 Graham for a daily flowing potential of 398 barrels of 36.4-gravity oil. Production was through a one-half inch tubing choke and from open hole at 7,131-7,214 feet. Gas-oil ratio was 742-1. Operator used 3,000 gallons of Hydratrac to final the well. Location is 660 feet from south and 1,980 feet from east lines of section 19, block N, HE&WT survey.

Four Corner Seven of the new Spraberry producers were completed in the Four Corner area of the trend.

In the Southwest Glasscock portion of the sector, Sohio finished No. 3-A X. B. Cox, No. 9-B R. S. Davenport and No. 4-C R. S. Davenport.

No. 3-A Cox was completed for a daily flowing potential of 533 barrels of 37.2-gravity oil and no water through a 24 64-inch tubing choke and from open hole at 6,818-6,976 feet. Gas-oil ratio was 592-1 and tubing pressure was 230 pounds. Operator used 1,500 gallons of Hydratrac in open hole. Location is 1,980 feet from north and east lines of section 1, block 37, T-5-S, T&P survey.

Davenport No. 9-B Davenport, 1,980 feet from south and west lines of the section of the Four Corner area, was completed for a 24-hour potential of 273 barrels of 42.5-gravity oil and no water through a one-half-inch tubing choke and from perforations in five and one-half-inch casing at 10,430-490 feet.

Gas-oil ratio was 1,255-1. The acid treatment was 6,000 gallons, but no total is available.

No. 1 Tippet is 660 feet from west and south lines of the lease in section 18, block 40, T-4-S, T&P survey.

It was a one-location south offset to the same concern's No. 1 Hunsaker, flowing discovery from a sand in the Strawn.

Had Slight Shows The No. 1 McClesky had slight shows of oil and gas. Operator set casing and made extended tests on the zone which carried the petroleum signs, but none of the testing developed any sort of commercial production.

Location was 330 feet from north and west lines of the northeast quarter of section 182, block 2, H&TC survey.

The failure was nine miles north and a little east of the town of Rotan.

Bay Spots Location For Fisher Explorer Bay Petroleum Corporation No. 1 W. E. Melton is to be drilled as a 6,500-foot rotary wildcat in North-Central Fisher County, two and one-half miles southeast of Rotan.

Drillite has been staked 500 feet from south and 300 feet from east lines of section 115, block 2, H&TC survey.

Business-Education Day Event Postponed Until December 4

Midland's first annual Business-Education Day will be held Tuesday, December 4, rather than November 19 as previously announced, it was decided Wednesday afternoon at a conference between members of the Education Committee of the Chamber of Commerce and representatives of business firms.

Business firms participating in the program will be hosts to faculty members of the public school system on B-E Day, according to the plan of procedure as announced by Chamber Manager Delbert Downing at the conference. Classes will not be held in the public schools that day.

E-B Day Planned Next Spring, an Education-Business Day will be held, at which executives of the business firms will be the guests of the school system at programs held in the public schools.

Downing said the program is designed to better acquaint school personnel with the free enterprise system under which businesses function, and in turn to acquaint businessmen with functions and problems of the school system.

Approximately 15 business firms have agreed to participate in the program, Downing said, whereas a minimum of 25 is needed. Additional concerns will be contacted this week.

December Crude Demand Up Slightly AUSTIN—(AP)—A December market demand of 2,780,000 barrels of Texas crude oil a day has been forecast by the U. S. Bureau of Mines.

This is 30,000 barrels a day more than the advance estimate for November but 197,338 barrels below the present allowable, Texas Railroad Commission Chairman Olin Culbertson observed Wednesday.

The regular statewide oil hearing will be held next Thursday.

LACERATIONS TREATED James Williams, 212 South Front Street, a roughneck for the Parker Drilling Company, received lacerations of the third and fourth fingers of his left hand Thursday morning when it was caught between a drill collar and an elevator in an oil field accident. He was given emergency treatment at Midland Memorial Hospital.

EMERGENCY TREATMENT Mrs. Clyde Smith, 109 West Washington Street, received emergency medical treatment at Western Clinic-Hospital Wednesday.

TREATED AT HOSPITAL Prentiss Wayne Blansett, 3011 West Louisiana Street, was given emergency medical treatment Wednesday at Western Clinic-Hospital.

Duff Silrs Up Static In Texas GOP Camp By Ike-Boosting Tour

SAN ANTONIO—(AP)— Senator James H. Duff (R-Pa.) believes Gen. Dwight Eisenhower is the type of "spectacular leader" who can unite Republican factions and find great favor among Southern Democrats.

He told reporters here he already had bumped into some pro-Eisenhower sentiment among Texas Democrats he had talked to at Houston. He said he found similar views among Democrats in Virginia and North Carolina. He plans to talk to more Democratic leaders before he leaves Texas, but he would not say who.

Senator Duff Thursday officially started a four-day Eisenhower-boosting tour of Texas. He bumped into a red-hot local and statewide row between Republicans and quietists said he was not in Texas to stir up antagonisms.

"A winner would be the best possible unifying force," he told reporters here.

"There are rivalries everywhere. But everybody will be back of the nominee and I believe the nominee will be General Eisenhower."

"I'm not against anybody. I'm just for Eisenhower."

Out Into Open The Texas GOP fuss was brought into the open Wednesday when Mike Nolte of San Antonio, state GOP treasurer, said the senator is rendering a "great dis-service to General Eisenhower" by his visit to Texas.

Nolte, among the Republican big wheels not invited to meet with Duff, said the senator's visit, instead of producing harmony, "is taking on the appearance of a personal endorsement by General Eisenhower of Jack Porter's candidacy for national congressman from Texas."

Porter was defeated for the office a year ago by Henry Zweifel of Fort Worth. He generally is considered to be in the race again.

The Duff tour is being promoted by Porter. The senator goes to Fredericksburg for a dinner and Eisenhower Friday Thursday night, then to Midland Friday.

Most of the GOP organization's leadership has not been asked to take part in the Duff tour. In 1948, the Texas Republican delegation was for Senator Taft. Nolte said Wednesday it might have to get back on the Taft bandwagon as a result of Duff's visit.

DEFENSIVE CHANGES MADE— Bulldogs, Steers Continue Series

Midland and Big Spring will meet in a district football game for the thirteenth straight year Friday night when the Bulldogs journey to Big Spring to battle Carl Coleman's Bovines.

Kickoff time for the contest is 8 p.m.

Tugboat Jones sent his Bulldog charges through their last rugged workout of the week Wednesday and Thursday the team was to take it easy.

Offensive maneuvers occupied the greater part of the practice time Wednesday. Jones said his team expects to be ready to go with no serious injuries Friday night.

Defensively, Jones and his assistants made a few changes Thursday. Johnny Kennedy and Terry Fuglar were working at the line-backer posts and Larry Friday was running from the safety position.

Big Spring, with a 1-1 record in conference 1-AAA play, will be fighting elimination from title consideration. The Bulldogs, with a 2-4 record in loop work, will be striving to keep their perfect conference record intact and stretch their superiority over the Steers to four straight years.

Midland leads the series with the Steers, 7-5. Big Spring's last win was in 1947, when it was 20 to 0.

Jones Thursday said the mental attitude of his charges was "pretty good."

"I just hope we don't have a let-down," he said, "as Big Spring could beat us over there if they play ball and we don't."

The Bulldogs will average 182 pounds in the starting line to 178 for the Steers. Big Spring, however, can field a team well over 190 pounds if the heaviest combination is started.

Midland-Big Spring scores: 1939—Midland 21, Big Spring 13. 1940—Midland 0, Big Spring 6. 1941—Midland 0, Big Spring 38. 1942—Midland 14, Big Spring 19. 1943—Midland 18, Big Spring 0. 1944—Midland 25, Big Spring 8. 1945—Midland 9, Big Spring 4. 1946—Midland 0, Big Spring 4. 1947—Midland 0, Big Spring 20. 1948—Midland 37, Big Spring 0. 1949—Midland 13, Big Spring 0. 1950—Midland 34, Big Spring 7.

OIL WORKER INJURED
Eugene Hewitt, 2305 West Kentucky Street, an employe of the Layne-Texas Company, received emergency treatment at Western Clinic-Hospital Wednesday for a knee injury suffered when a water pump fell on it.

Andromeda, the horse, was not named after the mythological character, but was so called after a famous old San Francisco saloon.

In 24 seasons, the Harlem Globetrotters, famed negro basketball team, have won 3,570 games losing only 246.

Boros Leads North-South Golf Tourney

PINEHURST, N. C. —(P)—Soft-spoken, stoop-shouldered Julius Boros, rated as one of the comers among golf's youngest professionals, nursed a two-stroke lead as the North and South Open Golf Tournament swung into Thursday's second round.

Boros shot a steady 34-34—68 over the rugged 7,007-yard No. 2 championship course of the Pinehurst Country Club to lead Henry Picard, Cleveland, and Tommy Wright, Kingsport, Tenn., by two strokes in Wednesday's initial firing by the field of 110.

Sharing third place at 71, one over par, were these five: Tommy Bolt, Durham, N. C.; Francis (Bo) Winger, amateur from Pleasantville, N. J.; and Manuel de la Torre, Milwaukee.

Five more including Sam Snead of White Sulphur Springs, W. Va., gunning for his third straight here, were bracketed at 72.

Oldtimers here got a bang out of Picard's 70. The former PGA champion, who will be 44 later this month, won this tournament in 1934.

Snead, still the choice to take down the top money of $1,500 recovered after an uncertain 38 to bag two birdies and seven pars for an incoming 34. It was the tough backside that proved the undoing of several players who had started in sub-par style.

Britain's Ryder Cup team, beaten here in the biennial matches with the U. S. team earlier in the week, came up with three of the first day's 73 shooters—British Open Champion Max Faulkner, Harry Weetman and Dal Rees.

A mass raising of eyebrows resulted when Frank Stranahan, peerless Toledo amateur, came in with 82, 10 over par, after starting with four pars.

Eighteen holes Thursday and Friday, will be followed by the final round Sunday. Saturday is open to avoid football conflict.

Mason Rudolph of Clarksville, Tenn., won the junior amateur golf championship last year at the Denver Country Club in Colorado.

Pioneer Arranging Special Grid Flights

Due to the demand for special football flights during the weekend of November 3, Pioneer Air Lines again will arrange for special planes to the SMU-A&M. Baylor-University of Texas and Rice-Arkansas games the weekend of November 10.

Harding L. Lawrence, vice president of traffic and sales, has announced. One special flight will operate from Midland and San Angelo to Austin and return for the Baylor University and University of Texas tilt while another will provide service from West Texas, Fort Worth and Dallas to College Station for the Southern Methodist-University of Texas A&M College grid classic.

Other service south from all points will be to Houston for viewings of the Rice-Arkansas game.

These special flights will be in addition to the regular service provided by Pioneer. For instance, there are six daily flights between West Texas, the Midland, San Angelo and Houston and six trips between Houston and College Station.

Pioneer also has two roundtrip flights daily from the Dallas-Fort Worth area to College Station.

"We will provide as much service as possible for the fans to all three of the games," Lawrence said.

He urged all those desiring to make any of the games to telephone their Pioneer office now so that special arrangements can be made.

TONSILLECTOMY
Russell Duane McCormick, two-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank McCormick, 101 East Oak Street, underwent a tonsillectomy Thursday at Western Clinic-Hospital.

Mason Rudolph of Clarksville, Tenn., won the junior amateur golf championship last year at the Denver Country Club in Colorado.

Don't know why, but that sneaky little inner voice keeps whispering things aren't going according to form Friday night in Big Spring.

Yeah, sure, it sounds crazy in view of the past records of the Midland and Big Spring High School teams, to even consider the Steers in the running.

But somehow, the disturbing little voice just won't be silenced. Even though we picked Midland 26 to 7 in our frantic little football forecast Wednesday, we still don't feel "right" about the game.

Maybe it's because Midland teams have found it rugged in Big Spring in the past. Several times the Bulldogs have been surprised at Steer Stadium.

It could be a long trip back Friday night for Midland fans if the Midland eleven happened to be "down" when the contest starts.

Though that sounds darn silly, as we said, when you compare the records.

But somehow we can't feel that either team is going to waste too much time comparing records Friday night.

A while back we hinted that the Dave Bauers and daughters, Alice and Marlene, would be leaving Midland for Sarasota, Fla., soon.

Bauer now is back in Midland and says its true. The Bauers are making plans to leave soon and will play out of the Sarasota Country Club.

Some of the latest gridlers to be nominated for The Associated Press All-American team include Tackle Jarrell Price, Texas Tech; Tackles Ken Caner and Harley Sewell, Baylor; Center Hugh Meyer, Texas A&M; and defensive backs Yale Lary, Texas A&M, and Billy Burkhalter, Rice.

One hundred twenty-six nominations have been made for the mythical eleven, which will be picked December 1.

Still plenty of tickets for the Midland-Big Spring go, Wesley Martin informs us.

They are on sale at the Midland High School Auditorium, and will be until 5 p.m. Thursday. Friday, they'll be on sale from 9 a.m. until 2 p.m. at the same place—including the lunch hour.

Plenty of seats still are available on the west side, Martin said.

A fan asks us to tell Bill Werley, Vernon scribe, the Lions had about as much of a chance to beat Midland as Vernon had to beat Lefty Erlie Nelson when he hurled for the Midland Indians. And the Dusters always were Nelson's "cousins."

Don't forget that clinic and exhibition to be given by Betty MacKinnon, famed fem golfer, at Midland Country Club Thursday, November 15.

Carver To Face Abilene Friday Night
The Carver High School Hornets will meet Carter G. Woodson of Abilene in a negro conference grid football game at 8 p.m. Friday in Memorial Stadium.

Carver's annual homecoming celebration will start at 3 p.m. Friday with a parade of floats, decorated cars and band music. Kickoff time for the game is 8 p.m.

Coach Johnny Williams' Hornets will face the Abilene team with an eleven weakened by injuries. Abilene has not lost a conference game this year.

The records:
Carver 25, Odessa 7.
Carver 24, Vernon 7.
Carver 18, Lubbock 24.
Carver 6, Amarillo 20.
Carver 37, Hobbs, N.M. 20.
Carver 6, San Angelo 13.
Carver 46, Plainview 7.
Carver 12, Odessa 12 (tie).

Abilene 0, San Antonio 7.
Abilene 33, Dallas 0.
Abilene 32, Odessa 6.
Abilene 19, San Angelo 12.
Abilene 18, Amarillo 13.

INJURES HAND
Norman Robinson, Worth Hotel, employe of a drilling company, was treated at Western Clinic-Hospital Thursday after he suffered a hand injury at a rig. The hand was caught between joints of drill pipe.

SUFFERS SEVERE BURNS
Netty Brown, a cafe cook, suffered first and second degree burns of the arms and legs Thursday when hot grease spilled on her. She was given emergency treatment at Western Clinic-Hospital.

Scribe Picks Texas, Rice, Texas A&M

NEW YORK —(P)—Two of the season's biggest games are scheduled this weekend with Notre Dame the guest of Michigan State while Southern California and Stanford tangle on the West Coast for the coast conference Rose Bowl honors.

Only two defeats mar the records of these four teams. Notre Dame lost a thriller to Southern Methodist, 27 to 20, and Southern California was spilled by Camp Pendleton, 27 to 17, in the first half of a gridiron doubleheader on September 29.

Here's how the crystal ball says the games, plus others on Saturday's schedule will turn out:

Michigan State over Notre Dame: The Spartans have had a week's rest to get set and allow their injuries to heal although Notre Dame got little more than a scrimmage in defeating Navy last Saturday.

Southern California over Stanford: Any team with Pat Cannamela in its lineup must be favored. Illinois over Iowa.

Maryland over Navy. Princeton over Harvard. Georgia Tech over Virginia Military.

Tennessee over Washington & Lee. Wisconsin over Pennsylvania. Texas over Baylor: If Baylor wins this one you can be sure it was engineered by Larry Isbell.

Texas has the sounder team. Michigan over Cornell. Kentucky over Tulane.

Skipping over the others in a hurry: Friday night: Hardin - Simmons over Texas Western; Miami over Chattanooga.

Saturday: East: Army over The Citadel, Boston University over Oregon, Dartmouth over Columbia, Holy Cross over Marquette, Ohio State over Pittsburgh, Penn State over Syracuse, Princeton over Harvard, Villanova over Detroit.

Middlewest: Iowa State over Nebraska, Indiana over Minnesota, Kansas over Loyola of Los Angeles, Northwestern over Purdue, Oklahoma over Missouri, Tulsa over Kansas State.

Other Games: South: Alabama over Mississippi Southern, Georgia over Florida, Houston over Louisville, Louisiana State over Vanderbilt, Mississippi over Auburn, South Carolina over West Virginia, Virginia over North Carolina, William & Mary over Virginia Tech.

Southwest: Rice over Arkansas, Texas A&M over Southern Methodist, West Texas State over New Mexico A&M.

Far West: California over Washington, Colorado over Utah, Temple State over Arizona, UCLA over Oregon State, Wyoming over New Mexico.

Arterburn Paces Texas Tech Offense

LUBBOCK — Vernon (Punk) Whitaker, who confounded the Texas Aggies by running across an extra point, has discovered an easier way to convert for Texas Tech's Red Raiders.

Whitaker, a first-year guard from Batesville, Miss., just kicks 'em now and has a record of 18 conversions out of 23 tries. In Tech's early-season, 20-7 loss to A&M, a slightly-high snappack was batted into Whitaker's hands, and he set sail untouched around the Aggies' right end.

To strengthen his unchallenged leadership in that department for Tech, he kicked three straight, then muffed the final one in the Raiders' 27-7 win over Texas Western Saturday night.

Other Leaders: Other statistical leaders stayed on top, too. Although Olney's Jim Turner, with 88 yards against Western, shaded him by seven, Bobby Cavazos of Kingsville retained No. 1 spot among Tech's rushers with 537 yards. Turner has 349, ahead of quarterback Junior Arterburn of Ranger, with 285.

Arterburn heads the total offense column, thanks to 350 yards passing gained on 22 completions of 50 tries. All told he has accounted for 635 yards from scrimmage, better than a third of Tech's 2,191 team total.

Berra Selected Most Valuable In American League

NEW YORK —(P)—Yogi Berra, squat New York Yankee catcher, Thursday was voted most valuable player in the American League for 1951 in an astonishing finish to a wide open race.

Tabulation of votes from the 24-man committee of the Baseball Writers Association of America showed Berra, Ned Garver of St. Louis and Allie Reynolds of the Yanks each had six first-place ballots.

The result was sure to start tongues wagging around the circuit for Berra slumped badly in September and finished with a .294 batting average. The 26-year-old Berra led the Yanks in runs batted in with 88 and hit 27 home runs.

Berra won on points with a total of 184 on the basis of 14 for a first place vote, nine for second and so on down to one for tenth.

Garver Scored: Garver, baby-faced 20-game winner for the last place Browns, was a close-up second with 157 points and Reynolds, who threw two no-hitters for the world champs, was third with 125 points.

Voting was distributed among 33 players with another 15 receiving honorable mention in the closest finish in years.

With Berra in the American and Brooklyn's Roy Campanella in the National this was the first year two catchers were named most valuable. In fact you have to go back to the league awards in 1924 to find two winners who played the same position—Dazzy Vance, Brooklyn pitcher, and Walter Johnson, Washington fireballer.

No less than eight men drew first place votes in this split-ticket election. Phil Rizzuto of the Yanks, the 1950 winner, drew one first but finished eleventh. So did Yankee Eddie Lopat, who finished twelfth.

Berra won on the strength of five seconds, four fourths, a fifth, two sixths, a seventh, an eighth and two ninths. He was mentioned on 22 ballots, more than any other player.

Garver (20-12) pitched the most complete games, 24, and accounted for about 40 per cent of the Browns total victories.

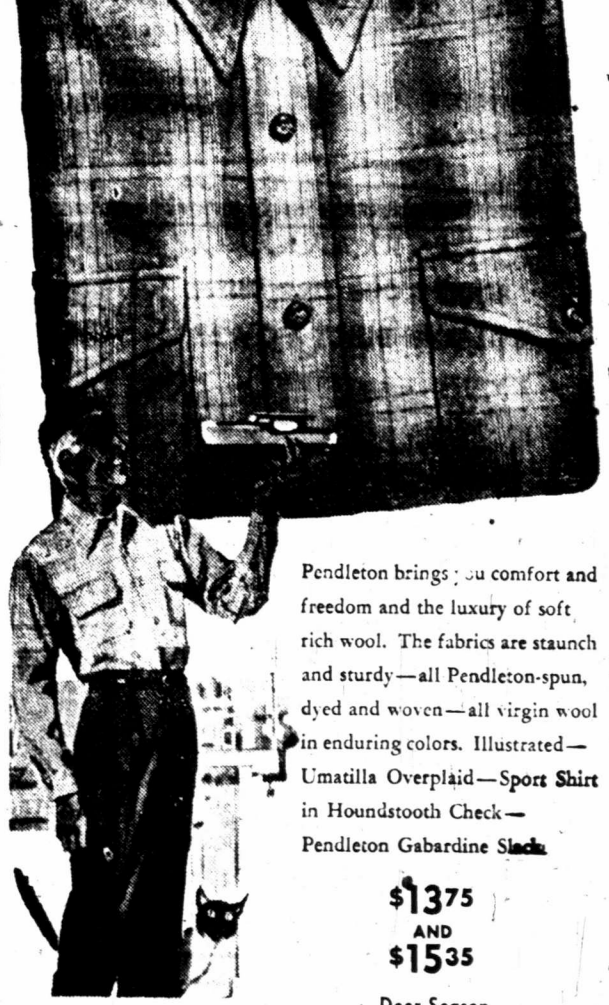

Reynolds' second no-hitter clinched at least a tie for the Yankees in the last week of the season. Both Lopat and Vic Raschi topped him in wins, but his 17-8 record included seven shutouts.

Orestes Minoza, Chicago, was fourth with 120 points; Bobby Feller, Cleveland, fifth, 118; Ferris Fain, Philadelphia, sixth, 103; Ellis Kinder, Boston, seventh, 66; Vic Raschi, New York, eighth, 64; Gil McDougald, New York, ninth, 63, and Bobby Avila, Cleveland, tenth with 49.

Iran's Spokesman Praises U. S. Plan
PARIS —(AP)—The former president of the United Nations Assembly, Nasrollah Entezam of Iran, Thursday hailed the United States challenge on arms reduction as "very constructive."

Entezam said the speech by U. S. Secretary of State Dean Acheson to the assembly calling on Russia to end the Korean war and act sincerely for peace had opened the door for further negotiations.

Longhorns To Be At Top Strength With Defensive 11

DALLAS—(AP)—The University of Texas Longhorns came up with an announcement Thursday that should chill Baylor: The Longhorn defensive team will be at full strength Saturday for the first time this season.

It looked like Texas had a pretty fair defensive team before. It leads the score-happy Southwest Conference in that department after giving up only 68 points in seven games. And the defensive team is just about as much a scoring threat as the offensive starters.

But when the Bruins meet the Longhorns in Austin Saturday in a decisive kickoff game, Texas will have Don Menasco back in the defensive lineup. He's been sidelined with a back injury for some time.

Texas, fresh from last week's victory over SMU and one of the nation's better passers, Fred Benner, has been concentrating again this week on pass defense. Reason is Larry Isbell, spark of the Baylor eleven.

Fullback Byron Townsend and Halfback Red Mayes are the only Longhorns definitely out of the crucial Saturday tilt.

It's a showdown for both teams. The loser will be out of the championship race for all practical purposes.

Texas, ranked tenth in the nation this week, has a loss on its league record, while Baylor, ranked sixteenth, has a loss and a tie. Texas has two victories in loop play and Baylor has one.

All the Bruins are taking part in drills this week except John Hancock, who recently underwent an appendectomy.

Rice, still in the conference chase with only one loss, takes on powerful Arkansas at Houston in the only league night game of the weekend.

Arkansas, which just about killed Texas A&M's chances at the championship last week, has had no rough practice this week because of snow and mud. The Forkers worked outside Wednesday for the first time this week and Coach Otis Douglas said there would be no scrimmage before the Rice game. The squad is night.

THE REPORTER-TELEGRAM, MIDLAND, TEXAS, NOV. 8, 1951-9

After Slow Start, Pecos Team On The Move

PECOS—Fans believe their Pecos Eagles finally have arrived. Pre-season 8-AA favorites, the Eagles disappointed with non-conference losses to Levelland and Wink, then dropped their first 8-AA tilt to Seminole—and all looked lost.

But the Eagles of Coaches Don Mouser and Mitford Johnson bounced back last weekend to upset favored Kermit, 14 to 13, and get back in the District 8-AA flag chase.

With Son Langham running and Orlando Gutierrez passing, the Eagles figure to be too tough for the Andrews Mustangs here Friday night.

Andrews has yet to win a loop game, and has copped but one decision in eight ball games—and this will be the Mustangs' last chance as they close their season here Friday night.

Here's Place To Get Grid Needs Filled In Fine Style

ABILENE—P—Dallas had its college football doubleheader last year when Texas played Oklahoma in the afternoon and Southern Methodist engaged Oklahoma A&M at night.

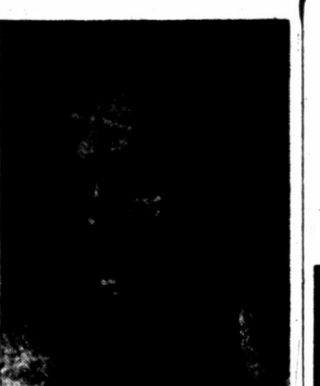

Abilene has a college doubleheader coming up this weekend and will have three college games in two nights and one day.

Friday night Hardin-Simmons plays Texas Western in the Border Conference.

Saturday afternoon Abilene Christian and Austin College get together and Saturday night McMurry plays Howard Payne, both games in the Texas Conference.

It just so happens that all three of Abilene's colleges will be playing at home this week.

MIDLAND FLASH — A

155-pound scabback from Midland, Marvin Brown, is writing football history at East Texas State College.

Brown is the leading scorer in the Texas Conference with 66 points. Two weeks ago, against Sam Houston State, Brown scored five touchdowns—one of them on a 105-yard kickoff return. A sophomore with two years of eligibility remaining in college, Brown is the foster son of J. M. White, Jr., 711 Proctor Street, Midland.

Gavilan Stops Tony Janiro In Fourth

DETROIT—P—The "Keed" from Cuba, welterweight Champion Kid Gavilan, traded his famed bolo punch for left hooks here Wednesday night, and belted Tony Janiro way back down into the middleweight ranks.

Gavilan floored the Youngstown veteran three times in the fourth round of their 10-round non-title bout, and was awarded a technical knockout. It promised him a January date with England's Randy Turpin, one-time conqueror of Sugar Ray Robinson.

Last Six Survivors Of Pacific Disaster Rescued Thursday

SEATTLE—(AP)—Six more survivors of the American freighter George Walton, abandoned after a fire and explosion in the North Pacific, were rescued early Thursday.

Revised Coast Guard figures listed a total of 30 survivors, one known dead, and five missing and presumed drowned of the original crew of 36.

The Coast Guard cutter Wachusett radioed headquarters here that six men were found near the scene of the disaster, some 300 miles off the Washington coast about 5 a.m. (CST).

The rescue came after two nights and one day of searching.

Details were not reported.

A terse radio message said: "Missing lifeboat found with six survivors. All are well and all taken aboard."

Only Five Lives Lost

One man was killed when the grain laden ship exploded and caught fire late Tuesday. Five others were lost during rescue attempts by merchant vessels which hurried to the scene.

The survivors, the Coast Guard said, will be brought in as soon as weather permits.

The Coast Guard cutter North Wind was ordered to remain at the scene and try to extinguish the fire still burning on the Walton and to tow her to port.

Twenty-four of the 36 men who were driven to life craft by the fire and explosion were pulled from the stormy Pacific Wednesday by the Japanese freighter Kenkon Maru and the Panamanian Katherine.

THE FIRST THANKSGIVING

The leaders of the Pilgrims wanted to go ashore and found their colony on Massachusetts Bay.

Many contested this decision, pointing out that this territory was not in their patent from the Virginia Company.

To quell this dissent, the Mayflower Compact was drawn up and signed. It organized the Pilgrims into a civil government, and all signers pledged loyalty to their tiny state.

Shooting Of Negro Rapists Sets Off Four Investigations

EUSTIS, FLA.—(AP)—Four separate investigations were pointed Thursday toward this little mid-Florida town following the shooting of two negro rapists.

The pair had been granted a new trial after receiving death sentences for the rape of a young white farm wife.

Samuel Shepherd, 23, was killed and his companion, Walter Lee Irvin, 23, was wounded seriously Tuesday night by Sheriff Willis B. McCall of Lake County.

McCall, who said he acted in self-defense, is confined in a hospital here. Doctors said he was suffering shock.

Investigations were underway by the Justice Department, the Lake County Grand Jury, the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, and by Gov. Fuller Warren's office.

Shepherd and Irvin were shot while being taken to Tavares, near here, for a hearing on two motions in connection with a re-trial.

Connally Advises Chapman Against Tidelands 'Grab'

MARLIN.—(AP)—Senator Tom Connally of Texas, in a telegram Wednesday to Interior Secretary Chapman, said the Tidelands issue should be settled by Congress and not some bureau or executive agency.

Tidelands states' officials have become fearful in recent days after they discovered federal departments were studying ways of administering the oil-rich Tidelands.

The Supreme Court has held that the federal government has paramount right in the offshore areas formerly claimed by the states. Bills have been introduced in Congress to give the states clear title to the areas, but action was not completed at the last session.

Connally's message followed a scathing letter by Rep. J. Frank Wilson of Texas to Chapman. He said that if the federal government takes over the Tidelands, it would be an "unconstitutional grab of congressional power."

From his home here, Connally said such "contemplated action would be official misconduct subject to action by Congress."

He said it might mean impeachment proceedings against officials "summing to act without authority."

He said: "Such contemplated action would constitute confiscation of the oil properties without due process of law. It would be a bald-faced attempt to defy Congress and to defy the American people."

Precision Bank Robbery Lands Three Young Men, Red-Haired Girl In Jail

MILWAUKEE.—(AP)—A quick round trip ended in Milwaukee Wednesday night for three young men and their red-haired girl friend—13 hours after a precision-planned bank holdup which netted them $93,569.

They exchanged banter but there was visible trembling as the four appeared before U. S. Commissioner Floyd Jenkins. He jailed them under $50,000 bond each on identical charges of violating the Federal Bank Robbery Act.

"That's reasonable," one of them said.

Jenkins set next Wednesday as arraignment date for James Joseph Leather, 36, Chicago. Harold Dennis Nall, 19, who gave his last address as Los Angeles, Glenn Dale Maroe, 21, who also said he was from Los Angeles, and Anife Snyder, Chicago.

There was nothing like that in their plans when the three men stepped out of a snowstorm into the Northwestern branch of the First Wisconsin National Bank at 10:30 a.m. Wednesday.

Two of them, armed with a rifle and shotgun, took up posts at the door while the third vaulted behind the cases and scooped money into a pillow case.

Car Switch Proves Futile

Soon one of the men at the door began counting loudly.

"Twenty-two, 21, 20 . . ."

When he reached seven, he shouted:

"Come on boys, let's get out of here."

They were gone into the snowstorm and speeding westward in a dark colored sedan. But six blocks away they switched cars. The value of that maneuver was lessened by a postman who saw them get into a light blue, later model sedan.

The four rode the main route to Chicago—Highway 41—to the Wisconsin-Illinois border. Lake County, Ill. Deputy Sheriffs Clayton Tiffany and Thomas Coker, alerted about the holdup, spotted the car. Their suspicions were heightened when one man kept turning to watch them.

The deputies halted the car and jumped out with guns ready. But they met no resistance. Miss Snyder was in front between two of the men, while the third man was hidden under blankets in the back seat.

The FBI reported the loot was recovered, some already on the persons of the bandits but most of it with the bank tape still around the bundles of bills.

Christmas Test Run Is Flop For Jackie

SANTA CLARA, CALIF.—(AP)—Thoughts of Christmas started Jackie Cambra, six, on a test run.

He climbed the trellis of his home here, crossed the roof, clambered into the fireplace chimney, and started down. He got stuck.

It required the combined efforts of his mother, several neighbors, and the fire department to pull him the rest of the way down—sooty and quite doubtful about impending events.

Regan Criticizes Excessive Spending In Aftosa Campaign

EL PASO.—(AP)—Rep. Ken Regan of Midland cited the Foot and Mouth Disease Commission in a criticism Wednesday of what he called "excessive" spending for "questionable projects."

Speaking before the Texas Sheep and Goat Raisers Association convention, he said the Aftosa Commission had completed its mission long ago.

The three-day convention ended Wednesday with selection of San Angelo as the site for the next convention and the naming of John T. Williams, Sanderson, as president.

Other officers elected were Penrose Metcalf, San Angelo, first vice president, and Walter Pfluger, Eden, second vice president.

THE DOCTOR SAYS

Proper Diet Is Important To Relieve Irritated Bowels

By EDWIN P. JORDAN, M. D.
Written for NEA Service

If I fail to write about spastic colon for a few months a number of correspondents are sure to write for information on this subject. Consequently, although nothing really new has developed about spastic colon or irritable bowel, here I go again.

First diarrhea and then constipation often accompanied by discomfort in the abdomen and growling sounds are the common signs of this widespread ailment. Most of those who have a spastic colon think they are constipated because after a period of fairly loose movements, there may be a delay of a day or more before another occurs.

This idea is wrong. The waste material is passing through the bowels too fast rather than too slowly. The wave-like motions of the intestines which carry the waste matter downward occur too often and produce discomfort. When there is nothing remaining in the bowel, there can, of course, be no bowel movement no matter how the wave-like motions occur.

People who are nervous, thin, and easily upset are especially likely to become afflicted. The nervous system sends unconscious messages to the bowel which causes the intestinal waves to come more frequently. This, of course, makes the symptoms of a spastic colon worse. Almost everyone who has it, therefore, notices that the symptoms are worse when they are angry, anxious or annoyed.

Some foods, particularly raw fruits and vegetables, irritate the walls of the bowel and stimulate the intestines to increased peristaltic waves. Cathartics do the same thing only more so.

Diet Important

The strain of modern living, therefore, has an unfavorable effect. The diet, too, of course is important. The laxative foods and cathartic drugs should be avoided. A diet which contains a high proportion of what are called bland foods therefore is desirable.

Such a diet consists largely of such foods as cooked cereals, milk products, creamed soups, eggs, and fish. Drugs may help somewhat but it is best whenever possible to do without any drugs as they merely bring temporary relief.

A disappointing feature of this uncomfortable but not dangerous condition is that even when recovery seems to be complete, almost any nervous strain or indiscretion in eating will start it off again. Spastic colon, however, has no relation to cancer.

Arms Plan—

Treaty "incompatible" with membership in the United Nations.

Vishinsky said the West's plan "truly seeks to prevent any sort of atomic control."
Addressing the Russians, Acheson declared that achievement of an armistice in Korea "could open the door to broader consultations of other aspects of the Far Eastern situation." In addition, he challenged Russia to agree to impartial investigation of conditions for a free election in all Germany, agree on a peace settlement with Austria, withdraw objections to Italy as a UN member, and grant basic human rights to all persons living in Russian dominated areas.

Stock Answers
Vishinsky had stock answers to most of these points, and as for the whole Western peace appeal, he had this to say:
"I could hardly sleep all night last night because I could not keep my laughing. Even from this rostrum I cannot hold back my laughter."

Here were his answers to the main points of Acheson's proposals:
Disarmament: The Soviet delegation will repeat its call for unconditional prohibition of atomic weapons. The U. S. S. R.'s proposal, turned down by the non-Communist part of the UN, would outlaw the A-bomb, but would not permit unlimited inspections as a check.

German elections: "American gold has been pouring into Germany in order to enlist Germany into the aggressive block." He did not refuse specifically to discuss Western proposals on this point.

Says U. S. Started War
The Far East: He said the U. S., not the Communist, started the war in Korea, and could end the conflict if it wanted. As for the overall Far East question, "Nothing exposes the U. S. position so much as the Japanese treaty—that farce held at San Francisco—directed by the U. S. It is clear that the San Francisco treaty is no peace treaty. It is a contract for the preparation of a new war."

Speaking directly to the Russians, Acheson said achievement of an armistice in Korea "could open the door to broader consultations of other aspects of the far eastern situation."

"The Soviet Union has talked a great deal about peace," Acheson said. "But when it comes to achieving peace through deeds or to uniting for peace, they obstruct. They call for a new five-power peace pact but refuse to carry out our 60-power pact—the UN Charter."

Acheson Blames Russians
Acheson blamed the Russians for the tremendous burden of armaments weighing on the world and repeated President Truman's pledges that a free world would make every effort to reduce it.

Emphasizing the West's determination to win security by overwhelming military strength, if necessary, Acheson said:
"The Soviet policies have obliged free nations to begin building up armaments to the levels necessary for defense. But we do not want an arms race."

"We are determined to do all in our power to ensure our safety, but we are no less determined to continue to explore, as we have been doing for many years, every possible way of bringing about a safe reduction in armaments."

Acheson said he believed the proposition in the three-power declaration Wednesday night, later expanded by President Truman in a Washington radio address, "could lead to an agreed program here in the United Nations, if all nations approach them with good will and a sincere desire for peace."

Beauchamp Head, Britain's majestic chalk promontory overlooking the English Channel, is 385 feet high.

Truman Urges Reds To Accept Western Proposal For Peace

WASHINGTON — (AP) — The Kremlin was confronted with an urgent appeal from President Truman Wednesday night to accept a "foolproof" Western plan for worldwide disarmament. But official Washington strongly discounted chances for favorable Russian action.

Wholeheartedly endorsing a three-point plan which the United States, Britain and France are placing before the United Nations in Paris, the President declared:
"I urge the Kremlin to accept this proposal."
Secretary of State Acheson outlined the plan in a policy statement Thursday before the General Assembly.

President Truman described it in a nationwide address as providing for:
1. An inventory of armies and armaments all over the world, including eventual disclosure of information about atomic weapons—the number of which presently is top secret in both America and Russia. "This inventory would develop into a permanent international inspection system."
2. The negotiation of specific arrangements for reducing armed strength and determining the size and composition of forces which each nation should have. Ultimately, atomic weapons would be prohibited.
3. Actually putting the reductions in effect "as soon as that can be done with full knowledge and fairness to all."

VA To Review Training Requests Of Korean Veterans

WASHINGTON — (AP) — The Veterans Administration Thursday said it will review all the applications which it has rejected from veterans of the Korean campaign who asked for vocational training.

VA said in a statement it wants to determine whether some 200 rejected veterans since have become eligible for training under a new law enacted October 11. The agency added the review will be automatic.

Veterans whose requests had been turned down need not file new applications, VA said.
"Those who are eligible under the new law will be notified."

Before October 11, vocational training for Korean veterans was limited to those whose disabilities resulted from combat, or from extra-hazardous service outside of combat.

Under the new law a veteran may be eligible for training if he was disabled in service any time after June 27, 1950, and not necessarily in combat or under extra-hazardous conditions. Furthermore, the disability may have occurred anywhere in the world.

Zweifel Suggests Taft-MacArthur As Ideal GOP Ticket

HOUSTON — (AP) — Senator Taft and General MacArthur are "the team that can best do the job for the Republican Party and the nation as a whole," Henry Zweifel, Fort Worth attorney and Republican national committee member for Texas, declared Thursday.
Zweifel, who in the last presidential election year favored Taft for the GOP nomination, denied however, that he was pledged to the Ohio senator or anyone else.

"That is why I was announced some months ago favoring an uncommitted delegate from Texas—every delegate to vote as he pleases," Zweifel told members of the Houston Women's Republican Club.

Frankie, Ava Snub Newsman In Secret Nuptials, Honeymoon

PHILADELPHIA — (AP) — Frank Sinatra and Ava Gardner snubbed a newsman in secret nuptials, honeymoon.

The wedding itself came from a press agent for Universal Studios, and from Emmaline Manner, Sacks, vice president of the Radio Corporation of America, who attended the ceremony at the home of Sacks' brother, Ernest.

Despite all the secrecy, there was considerable furor about the affair. Frankie threatened to punch a photographer. And there was a wild auto chase in an effort to throw newsmen off the trail.

Neighborhood residents, many of them girls in bobby socks, joined the newsmen in their vain vigil pleading with the vigilant policemen for "just one peek" at the couple.

The 10-minute ceremony Wednesday began at 6:45 p.m. with Judge Joseph Sloane officiating. Mamma Sacks gave away the bride. Band leader Axel Stordahl and his wife, June Hutbo, were best man and matron of honor.

Others in the party were Dick Jones, a friend of Sinatra's, who played the wedding march on the piano. Sinatra's mother and father, and Hoboken, N. J.'s Ava's sister, joined the newsmen in their vain vigil pleading with the vigilant policemen for "just one peek" at the couple.

The 10-minute ceremony Wednesday began at 6:45 p.m. with Judge Joseph Sloane officiating. Mamma Sacks gave away the bride. Band leader Axel Stordahl and his wife, June Hutbo, were best man and matron of honor.

Rotarians Hear Of 'Things To Come' In Phone Service

"Things to come" in telephone communication were explained and demonstrated by Don Hanson of the Southwestern Bell Telephone Company, Dallas, at the regular meeting of the Midland Rotary Club Thursday noon in Hotel Scharbauer.

Hanson, who was introduced by Al Case, manager of the telephone company's Midland office, discussed in detail the long distance service of the future, which the telephone user will dial direct to obtain a desired connection in a distant city. He said this proposed service now is in the experimental stage.

"It will be here before you know it," he stated.

The speaker also described the operator-dial toll service, which now is in use between Midland, Fort Worth and other points.

The operation of Midland's dial telephone system was demonstrated by the guest speaker, who explained how this city's 64,000 telephone calls daily are handled by the automatic system.

He urged the important relay switches the "heart and soul" of the dial telephone and its almost magic ability to handle the ever-increasing number of telephone calls with maximum efficiency.

Hanson used portable equipment to demonstrate the operation of the improved telephone systems of today and tomorrow.

Cold Snap Chills U. S. Mid-Section

Cold weather chilled the nation's snow struck mid-section Thursday and a wind and rain storm which hit the mid-Atlantic states has moved out to sea.

The East Coast, buffeted by gale force winds, heavy rain and sleet, saw the storm shift from the land to Atlantic waters off New England. The storm at its height swamped an area stretching from North Carolina to Maryland.

As the storm moved seaward, special warnings were posted for shipping.

There was some snow and showers in the New England area. This was the same storm which earlier in the week had given the Midwest a snowy deluge, snarling traffic in metropolitan areas and taking a heavy toll on icy highways.

Only light snow fell in the Midwest Thursday—over the lower lakes region and upper Ohio Valley. But temperatures were low with Chicago and St. Louis at a freezing 18. Braddock, Ill., was one of the coldest spots with three above.

Freezing temperatures also were reported Wednesday night in the South Atlantic and East Gulf states. The warm air brought into the East by the rain and wind storm gave New York an early morning temperature of 52 Thursday. It was 47 in New Orleans, 60 in Miami, 59 in Los Angeles.

COTTON

NEW YORK — (AP) — Cotton futures soared on a rush of buying orders in forenoon trading Thursday, following a much lower government estimate of the 1951 cotton crop than had been expected in the trade. Noon prices were 45 cents to 95.35 a bale higher than the previous close. December 41.70, March 41.42 and May 41.10.

Dockers Beat Picket Line To Unload Ship

NEW YORK — (AP) — More than 400 non-striking longshoremen beat a rebel picket line to the docks Thursday to unload the French liner De Grasse.

The De Grasse docked in the Hudson River at the foot of 48th Street, a mid-Manhattan area heavily picketed by dissident members of the International Longshoremen's Association who are striking in opposition to a new contract negotiated by the non-striking union members.

The non-striking union members went to the pier in small groups during the night, and were on the dock when the pickets appeared early Thursday.

Odessa Negro Is Charged In Rape

An Odessa negro man was charged Thursday with rape in connection with an attack late Wednesday night of a 14-year-old Midland negro girl.

The charges were filed with Justice of the Peace L. C. Stephenson against Joe Rose, who was identified by the girl as her assailant.

The girl's mother reported her daughter was seized late Wednesday night as she was walking home and dragged into a car.

Her daughter said the man drove her on a lonely country road where he threatened her with a gun if she tried to escape.

The man was arrested a short time later by Odessa officers.

'Theft Without License' Is Shivers' Description Of U. S. Tidelands Grab

CHICAGO — (AP) — "The Tidelands belong to the states; the national Administration is trying to steal them, and I'm against it," Texas Gov. Allan Shivers said Thursday.

Shivers flung the blunt accusation in a speech to the American Petroleum Institute.

Mysterious Disease, Carried By Chinese, Afflicts UN Soldiers

TOKYO — (AP) — A mysterious new disease, apparently brought to the battle lines by Chinese Communist troops, has infected an undisclosed number of United Nations soldiers in Korea.

Brig. Gen. William E. Shambora, Far East Command surgeon, disclosed the presence of the disease Thursday. He said it was new to Western medicine and its exact nature has not been determined.

However, he said, it bore a striking resemblance to a malarial fever called epidemic hemorrhagic fever, which the Japanese discovered in Manchuria in 1939.

It also is known as songso fever and kokka disease.

The number of Allied soldiers infected was not disclosed.

Six weeks ago an anti-Communist North Korean told Allied doctors the disease was present among troops of at least one Chinese army and had been contracted by some North Korean civilians.

The North Korean said victims first suffered from high fever, headaches, loss of appetite and yellowing of the skin. He said the disease spread rapidly, and often resulted in death within 24 hours.

He said a Communist medical officer referred to "recurring fever." It is not known how prevalent the disease is in North Korea—whether the North Korean who reported it saw only a few isolated cases or whether it was general throughout much of the Communist-held territory.

An Army doctor told The Associated Press the disease was present among Chinese troops north of the battle line before it was found among Allied troops. He said the majority of the cases affecting UN soldiers were reported from the west central sector.

Shambora said sulfa and antibiotics have failed to stem the disease. Blood transfusions from men who have recovered seem to ease its severity, however.

Astronomer Will Start Search For Meteor Fragments

PORT WORTH — (AP) — Astronomer Oscar Monning flew to Oklahoma City Thursday to start a search for fragments of a meteor believed to have disintegrated over Oklahoma at 7:12 a.m. Wednesday.

Monning said any pieces found probably would be within a 30-mile radius of Oklahoma City.

"Although the explosion seemed to be the loudest at Hinton, which is west of Oklahoma City," Monning explained, "I think the best area for finding fragments will be east of the Oklahoma capital."

He said reports the meteor passed over Dallas or Fort Worth were false.

"It was just an optical illusion," he said. "Actually, it was over Oklahoma when seen in Texas, although it may have looked to be right on you."

Monning estimated it probably was 30 to 40 miles above the ground when first sighted and maybe 20 miles when it exploded.

Residents of four states—Texas, Oklahoma, New Mexico and Arkansas—saw the streaking ball of fire.

Cabot Carbon Firm Honors Employees For Safety Record

(NEA Telephone)
ELECTED—Luis Padilla Nervo, of Mexico, above, was elected president of the Sixth UN General Assembly in Paris, succeeding Iran's Nazroollah Entezam.

ODESSA — F. M. (Steve) Neely of Kermit was just about as proud here Wednesday night as the big and gruff man could be.

For the second time in 16 months one of his gasoline plants at Kermit completed 10 years without an accident resulting in a loss of time.

And the men who were responsible gathered at the Hotel Lincoln Wednesday night for a big banquet given in their honor by the Cabot Carbon Company.

Neely is general superintendent of Cabot's gasoline division and has charge of the two plants at Kermit and the one at Wicket.

The first Kermit plant—the Keystone plant—had posted its 10-year safety record in April of 1950 and the second plant—the Walton plant—reached the milestone last August.

"It was the men who were responsible," said Neely, "although with a well-organized safety program which kept them thinking about safety."

Plaque Is Presented
Neely received a plaque from E. L. Green of Pampa, vice president of the company in charge of oil, gas and gasoline, and he presented it to R. H. Hall, superintendent of the Walton plant.

The 30 men who operate the plant also heard words of praise from Higgs "Buck" Burdette of Pampa, vice president and general manager of Cabot's industries in the Southwest.

"Your record," he said, "indicates that you have been happy on the job. Such an attitude is far more important than the record you established."

William L. Kerr, Midland attorney and principal speaker at the banquet, suggested that the system of periodic safety inspections, used at the plant, might be applied to governmental units.

Need Thorough Inspection
"We need," he said, "a thorough inspection of our government at the local level every two years and a national inspection every four years and constant observation of the work habits, hazards and waste of our government."

The workers who were honored at the banquet included B. M. Autrey, J. E. Bryan, Jr., J. B. Coffey, T. M. Coffey, R. H. Ellis, J. J. Fulton, M. D. Hardin, J. M. Hause, S. P. Hays, N. L. Horner, A. B. Willbanks, Lois Wilson, S. L. Woods and J. F. Carr.

Tommy Thompson, Kermit school superintendent, was toastmaster.

Instructor Of Crime Detection Class Held On Burglary Charges

SANTA BARBARA, CALIF. — (AP) — Dr. Gwynne Nettler, 38, sociology professor who teaches a class on crime detection, is in jail Thursday charged with burglarizing homes here and in nearby Montecito.

The athletic, handsome bachelor also is accused of carrying a pistol concealed in his car.

Nettler, unofficially known as the "best-dressed prof" on the Santa Barbara College campus, was arrested Wednesday on a tip from a woman. Officers said she told them he had mistreated her, but did not elaborate.

One of the sociology professor's classes is on methods of crime detection. In a recent lecture he said, "Almost every person commits several 'crimes' each week," and blamed "social disintegration" for the prevalence of criminal tendencies.

The workers who were honored at the banquet included B. M. Autrey, J. E. Bryan, Jr., J. B. Coffey, T. M. Coffey, R. H. Ellis, J. J. Fulton, M. D. Hardin, J. M. Hause, S. P. Hays, N. L. Horner, A. B. Johnson, C. T. King, Zola Kinaird, Bula Lott, R. M. Myers, H. E. Odom, J. L. Osman, H. H. Ratliff, Rea Britton, C. O. Sims, C. L. Stewart, H. H. Stewart, C. W. Tierce, A. L. Warnick, W. B. Willbanks, Lois Wilson, S. L. Woods and J. F. Carr.

Tommy Thompson, Kermit school superintendent, was toastmaster.

Published Report Of HST Offer To Back Ike Brings Denials

WASHINGTON — (AP) — President Truman Thursday said there is no truth to a published report that he had offered to back Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower as a presidential candidate next year.

The New York Times in an article by its Washington correspondent, Arthur Krock, reported the offer was made during Eisenhower's visit here earlier this week. Krock said Eisenhower neither accepted nor specifically rejected it. Krock added the report likely would be denied.

"There's not a word of truth in it—that's the only comment I've got," Truman told reporters at the airport just before leaving for a Florida vacation, he added.

"If Walter Winchell or Walter Trohan had written that, there wouldn't be anything to it but I never thought Arthur Krock would do it."

"Purely Fictional"
Winchell is a columnist-commentator. Trohan is chief of the Chicago Tribune's Washington Bureau and consistent critic of the Truman Administration.

Krock's story said Truman made the offer at his private luncheon with Eisenhower in the Blair House last Monday.

Officers at Eisenhower's headquarters in Paris also had described the Times report as "purely fictional."

Krock wrote that "categorical and even angry denials" were likely to result from his story but that the qualifications of his source were such as to merit publication.

Krock noted that the reported Truman offer of support "necessarily concerned only the Democratic nomination."

A COMPLETE SELECTION

Three bedrooms, paved street ideal location near schools. Complete price is $14,000.00.

New, two bedroom home on corner lot, Northwest Midland. $7,250 - $3,000.00 down payment, balance like rent.

Two bedrooms and den, two baths, four acres of ground, knotty pine kitchen, extra large fireplace. Priced to sell. Shown by appointment only. Three bedrooms, den, two tile baths, four acres, basement, servant quarters. Located North of Midland Country Club. A real buy.

Four bedrooms, two tile baths, paved street, corner lot. Excellent neighborhood. New. Air conditioned and centrally heated.

FOR SALE

Nice 320 acre farm located about 20 miles South of Colorado, 160 in cultivation and most all of the balance can be put in, just half mile off paved highway. School bus and mail route. Four room house. Leased for oil. One-half acre participating royalty reserved. You get the lease money and money rentals. Creek runs through land. Well of water and mill. The farm land is creek bottom land, and very fine dark valley land. The price is $80 an acre. Wants cash for equity. Owe around twelve thousand loan. Part can be paid off, balance short term loan. This is a good buy the way lands are selling.

We also have some nice Tourist camps for sale.

We also have calls for producing royalties that will pay out 5, 6, or 7 years.

Have nice 320 acres near Portales, New Mexico for sale. 160 in cultivation, balance grass. Has 2 wells fine water, 5 room stucco house, lots and sheds, on mail route. School bus and milk route. For sale at only $60 per acre. Might take some trade. Has small loan on land. This is located in the Portales Valley irrigating district.

Green Suede Shoes For Men? Sure, And Red Ostrich, Too

NEW YORK (NEA)—If you believe what you see in the men's shoe showrooms, by next Spring men's feet will be wearing the gayest things this side of a hallucination. Personally, I'm inclined to think of the whole thing as a bad dream—I cannot picture myself in green suede.

It's not that the shoe designers have gone overboard. There are no open-toed moccasins or wedge brogues—yet. But there are a few new styles that look more like Christmas tree ornaments than the usual men's shoe.

Lester Morse, director of store merchandising for a shoe chain took me on a tour through this clodhopper fairland. He was very careful to explain that the extreme in shoe fashions make up only about 20 per cent of the sales; the rest of the 80 per cent prefer the old stand-bys to stand in.

But, for that showy 20 per cent, the shoe architects have come up with some nifties. There was a black patent leather creation with laces that were tipped with tassels. There was a shoe made up of half maroon suede and half black patent leather. There were shoes with buckles, shoes with the laces at the side, shoes with no laces at all.

They were in all possible shades of brown, ranging from mustard through raw liver to sirokin steak, well done. And blue and greens and maroons and blacks and grays, to boot.

Morse pulled out a shoe in a light shade called tawny. It had a sole that stuck out at the side, coming almost to a point. It looked like a ping-pong paddle with uppers.

"This," he said, "is the spade last. Now we'll sell a few of these any place. But in the Pittsburgh area, this will be the best seller. Almost a quarter of our sales in Pittsburgh are shoes with that type of last. It's strange how sections of the country take to different styles."

He turned to another shoe, which was a reddish color like a frankfurter. That color, he explained, and colors similar sell in St. Louis. And there has to be a stitched line up the side, at the front of the heel, called a "thread-needle." Without that line, the shoe won't sell.

"In the Pacific Northwest," Morse said, "taking down a shoe with a thick sole, 'they like their soles big.' This one is the thickest we make. Yet somebody in Tacoma or Portland will buy this, then go across the street and have a shoemaker put another sole right on top of this one."

Morse held up a copper-colored shoe with a quilted effect, green welting around the side and green laces.

"Here's a funny thing," he said. "We always make what we call a 'window' shoe—you know, something to stick in the window and attract attention. This was a 'window' shoe, but people bought it. We had to make more. You never know."

There's a trend now, he said, toward print leathers. That's plain leather made to look fancy.

Dangerous Time Is Here For Pedestrians

CHICAGO (AP)—The most dangerous time of year for pedestrians is here, said W. Dean Keefe, director of safety engineering for the Kemper Insurance group. He warned drivers to reduce speed at dusk and asked pedestrians to be cautious at intersections.

Pedestrian deaths usually are 40 per cent higher during the last three months of the year than the average of the first nine months, he says.

Reasons for the startling increase in pedestrian fatalities are:

1. The shift to dark winter clothing makes it hard to see the pedestrian.
2. More traffic in hours of darkness.
3. Increased holiday travel, shopping and drinking.

SAME ALL OVER

SINGAPORE (AP)—This British crown colony city, like much of the rest of the world, has a housing shortage. So when the Singapore Improvement Trust announced it would receive applications for new houses, a crowd of 8,000 stormed its offices. Police had to be called to control throngs clamoring to get application forms.

England had often been overrun before the Norman conquest of 1066; among the conquerors were the Romans, Saxons, Danes and Norsemen.

Industrialist Sees Pepper For Dollars

SINGAPORE (AP)—More pepper will bring more U. S. dollars. This is the opinion of the proprietor of one of three Chinese companies responsible for the recent revival in the pepper-growing industry in Singapore.

It was pointed out that the United States always has been the main purchaser of pepper. Singapore's soil does not meet requirements for pepper, but modern methods of fertilization can set this right.

The claws of the California condor, which has the widest wing span of any North American bird, are so weak it can scarcely walk on them. The bird needs a lurching run or a sharp cliff to make a good takeoff.

A Spanish explorer named Juan Diaz de Solis, searching for a southern passage between the Atlantic and Pacific in 1516, was the first of the Plata River in South America.

ORIENTATION SASKATOON, SASKATOON (AP)—The Saskatoon Public School Board is establishing a class in basic English and in Canadian citizenship for 20 Chinese boys and one Chinese girl, all of whom arrived in the city during the last year.

WEDDING ANNIVERSARY MACLEOD, ALBERTA (AP)—Mr. and Mrs. Harry Maunsell, the second couple ever to be married in Lethbridge, have just celebrated their 65th wedding anniversary. Maunsell is 92 and his wife is 87.

Youth Center Chatter

By GAIL BAKER
Well, howdoo, everybody! How are you all? Okay, we reckon! (We hope so, anyway!)
Well, girls, Wednesday was the last day of the "great" (ugh!) TWIRP SEASON. How do you feel? It seems everyone enjoyed Twirp Season, but the boys evidently got a bigger "bang" out of it than we gals. What about that?
Wedding bells rang out not long ago for Gwen Roberts and Harrie Smith, both of whom graduated from dear ole MHS last year. Congratulations, Gwen and Harrie!
Last Thursday night Dot Bradshaw was honored with a shower given by Melba Preston and Jo Ann Drake. Dot and Don Bradshaw also are newweds of Midland.
Melba and two others are giving a shower Sunday for Dot (Strawn) Fraze, another Midlander—rather ex-Midlander—who recently was married in Lubbock. Dot is planning to visit Midland this weekend.
Parties! Parties! Parties! Barbara Whitson gave Lanetta Early a surprise birthday party Saturday. Were you surprised, Lanetta?
"Back To Tulsa"
Last weekend Jackie Brady and her family "ventured" to Tulsa, their "old home town." When asked why they went, Jackie answered, "Just to be GONE!" Good enough!
Well! Well! We get to "thank up" another for being right again in saying we were going to beat Vernon, which we did by a 14-13 score. (We've only missed two out of seven prophesies!) ... and without a crystal ball, too!
Guess we will go so far as to say it again! THE BULLDOGS ARE GOING TO BEAT THE BIG SPRING STEERS ... we hope! We play Big Spring (there), as you oughta know, Friday night.
While at Vernon, Peggy O'Neal was stricken with food poisoning (that's easier to spell than the "scientific name") and was put in the hospital there. We hope you are better real soon, Peggy!

In assembly last week, we learned that the United States manufactures more than 92 per cent of the world's bathubs! (That's ONE clean thing about us, isn't it?)
Monday—guess what! We have a holiday! Yip, it's Armistice Day! Pretty neat, isn't it?
Most of the journalism students still are having nightmares of "MONGERS! MONGERS! MONGERS!" (At least, we know WE are!)
"School Marms"
Tuesday afternoon some of the high school girls were called upon to help out at South Elementary. Ann Ashby taught geography; she told her class of her trip to Europe last Summer.
Carolyn Paris was embarrassed because a bunch of fifth grade boys whistled and said she was cute! Poor Carolyn!
Carol O'Donnell led her fifth grade class in some hillbilly songs. (The "modern teacher" at work!)
Pris Fields had to teach Spanish to a fourth grade class; she probably wishes she had "brushed up" on her Spanish before she took up her "teaching career!"
Watch the Bulldog Sunday for the announcement of the Catoico Queen and her attendants!
The Twirp Dance Saturday night surely was nice. Everyone says it was one of the nicest dances in a long time! We think so, too.
At the dance we noticed Buzzy Bray sporting a handsome corsage given to him by his date! It was a baby orchid set in a large lavender-colored ribbon! Buzzy surely was proud of his "corsage!"
Ohhh, Bill Crenshaw "went and cut off his curly hair"! Yes, he got himself a burr hair cut!
At the dance we noticed a group who did the "shag"—John McGuigan and Joan Turner, Paxton Howard and Emily Hamilton, and Nancy

Steedman and Buzzy Bray. Everyone really enjoyed watching this "exhibition."
"B" Squad Wins
The "B" squad defeated Grandfalls 13-0 last Saturday. Good deal, eh? They say they are going to beat the Kermat "B" this Saturday afternoon, too. Bet they do, too!
Monday morning 23 of our Student Council members journeyed to Lubbock to a district meet. They all had a real good time—mainly, "going and coming!"
Some exes were home visiting last weekend and were in-and-out of the Center. Jack Burris was home from Texas Western in El Paso; Arnold Drake from Sul Ross; Frank Ingham from John Tarleton; Pat Fields from Stephens College; Alan Olson from Texas Tech in Lubbock; Suzanne Young and Sue Johnson from Texas University in Austin. Good to see all of you!
The Youth Center has just finished a boys' pool tournament, which was held in order to decide the seats in a later tournament to begin as soon as Bill Glidewell, director of the YC, returns from Abilene next week. (Mr. Glidewell is going to Abilene Monday to take his army physical examination.)
The winners of this tournament were A. W. Booth, first place; "Snooky" Roberts, second place; Jim Ervin, third place; and Jim Atwill, fourth place.
The Youth Center will be closed November 13 and 15, as the building will be used for the elections. You who eat at the YC at noon may eat at the high school cafeteria those two days.
Tennis Tournament
Anyone wishing to play in a city-wide tennis tournament, be sure and give your name to Mr. or Mrs. Glidewell real soon. (Anyone may play.) There will be boys' and girls' singles and doubles. There will be no mixed groups. Trophies are to be awarded the winners.
Word has been received that Susanne Young and Roane Puett hold first and second places (respectively) in their math class rankings at the University of Texas. Mrs. Philippus, their high school math teacher, is extremely proud of these two people ... and so are we! Have we missed anything? (Probably so!) But we hope not! Till next Thursday—"Au Revoir", you all!

SANTA CAME EARLY—Little Tommy Haring, age 4, of Palmis, N. J., enters all the glow and spirit of Christmas without knowing that Santa had to come early for him because he's not expected to live until Dec. 25. Held by his mother, Mrs. Walter Haring, Tommy left the hospital as a hopeless victim of leukemia.

The MATURE PARENT

Why Older Children Are Sometimes Ignored

By MURIEL LAWRENCE
Relatives have come to visit Howard Gibson Brown III. He is undeniably something. Sprayed on his stomach, he eyes the red plastic rattle his mother has placed in his crib just out of reach. Suddenly, without warning, he elevates his fat rear, discovers that he is endowed with knees. For a breathless moment, he holds the immemorial crawling stance that is going to introduce him to the world of voluntary locomotion. He dives for his rattle and gets it. As he tries to stuff it in his mouth, his mother, grandmother and aunt burst into loud applause.
At the end of his crib, watching his four-year-old sister, Betty, puts her thumb into her mouth. An hour before, at lunch, Betty had navigated her mug of milk to her mouth without spilling it. She had not dropped apple sauce on her bib. But nobody noticed, nobody applauded.
I do not have to suggest that this is cruel and prejudicial treatment of Betty. We all know it. The books are available and most of us are intellectually aware that it is just as wonderful for four-year-old Betty to drink her milk without spilling it as it is for her baby brother to grab a rattle at the age of five and three-fourths months.
Excessive praise of Howard is criticism of his sister.
Why, when we have been told so often how unjust it is to give babies star billing in the home, do we persist in giving it?
We can't plead the excuse of forgetfulness, because experts on the vagaries of the human mind tell us that we do not forget what we want to remember. We can't get away with the alibi of lack of time, because we have plenty of time to smirk with self-gratification when Howard is given a big hand.
So, mindful of the indignant reactions which may come my way, I am suggesting that we give Howard the spotlight and deny it to his sister because that is exactly the way we want it to be.
Babies are convenient as well as intriguing creatures. As they have no powers of voluntary locomotion, they do not get under our feet when we're trying to produce dinner. They lie in their cribs and cannot grab at the mixing spoon we are just ready to use. They do not alarm us by refusing to wait for green lights on street corners and do not humiliate us by saying "I hate you" before others. They permit themselves to be picked up and put down when we feel like doing either. When put to bed, they stay there.
Howard is always controllable. Betty isn't.
If, in our hidden selves, there exists a small splinter of resentment at Betty for making greater demands upon our emotional and mental strength than her brother, we should be brave and honest enough to admit it. There is nothing unnatural or wicked about resenting someone who forces us to put forth creative effort.
None of us really enjoys thinking when thinking involves self-examination. So it is very foolish indeed to pretend that this splinter of resentment doesn't exist. The creative thing to do is to face it, because by facing it we are led to the realization that Betty is our dear and precious friend.
A good part of Betty's young life has been spent in teaching her mother lessons she is using to make Howard's babyhood a far more comfortable experience than was her first adventure into motherhood. To Betty goes the credit for advance in skills and confidence that are benefiting her little brother.
Instead of resenting her for making us think harder, we should feel great tenderness and gratitude to her. She is responsible for much of Howard's charm.

North Korean Kid Deserts Commies

WITH THE FIRST MARINE DIVISION IN KOREA —(P)— Escorting one North Korean prisoner to the rear was like taking a 13-year-old orphan for a walk in the park and climaxed the outing with an ice-cream cone.

He was just a kid; no bigger than 10-year-old boys in your neighborhood. The mascot-sized soldier had deserted from the North Korean People's Army believing that Americans would not mistreat him. He carried a usian-type rifle two inches taller than he.

Status Is Changed But No Type Of Job

BERKELEY, CALIF. —(P)— John H. Kilbuck was a civilian doing important research on dehydrated foods at the University of California Agricultural Experiment Station. Although the armed forces ship many dehydrated products overseas, Kilbuck was called to active duty with the Navy.

What did they do with him? Sent him right back to his same job at the University of California doing the same thing.

Chicken Capri Is Different

FRIED CHICKEN TARRAGON is served with boiled barley and soft drinks.

By GAYNOR MADDOX
NEA Food and Markets Editor

Everyone is eating a lot of chicken these days because it is certainly cheaper than meat. Of course, people like it, too, and it's also first class protein.

But some different way of cooking it, the use of an ingredient out of the ordinary, makes cooking news. That's why these two recipes, using carbonated beverage to turn a flavor trick with your fried chicken, may be good news for you and the family.

Fried Chicken a la Capri
(Serves 4-6)

One frying chicken (2 to 3 pounds); 2 tablespoons butter, salt, pepper; 2 small bottles lemon-lime carbonated beverage; 2 tablespoons vinegar; 1 small onion sliced.

Disjoint chicken into frying-size pieces. Melt butter in large skillet. Put in chicken and cook over high heat about 10 minutes, turning pieces frequently until brown on all sides. Sprinkle with salt and pepper; pour over carbonated beverage and vinegar; cover with sliced onion. Reduce heat to low. Cover skillet, and allow chicken to simmer until tender—about 20 to 30 minutes.

Fried Chicken Tarragon
Omit onion from the above recipe. Combine vinegar with one bottle of the carbonated beverage and add 2 tablespoons dried tarragon leaves; allow to steep for about 30 minutes, then proceed as for Chicken a la Capri, adding tarragon leaf mixture along with the second bottle of beverage.

Boiled Barley
(Serves 4-6)

Two quarts boiling water; 1 tablespoon salt; 1 cup pearl barley.

Add salt and barley to boiling water. Boil about 30 minutes, or until water is mostly absorbed if desired. Serve with fried chicken. (Note: Finished chicken may be transferred to baking tin and kept warm in oven, while cooked barley is put in skillet and stirred to coat it with remaining juices from fried chicken.)

Paper Gets Is License Returned

SINGAPORE —(P)— The colonial secretary has authorized the Malay daily newspaper, "Melayu Raya," to resume publication.

The secretary withdrew the printing license last January because of the publication of certain articles dealing with the court fight over custody of Moslem-reared Dutch "Jungle Girl," Maria Bertha Heretogh.

NEW YORK (AP)—Brooklyn has a good double play combination that hasn't muffed a chance in at least 15 years.

They're two gas meter readers who together have handled flawlessly 2,218,737 chances. Charles V. Dillon has been at it 19 years. His counterpart, George P. Woll, has been calling 'em as he sees 'em for a mere 15 years but claims to have handled 85,743 more chances.

The company they work for, Gas Appliance Manufacturers Association, checks up on them all the time too. Review clerks check the gas man's reading against the average billing for the particular customer's home. They still have to chalk up that first error.

PARKING PENNIES

BERKELEY SPRINGS, W. VA.—(AP)—Customers of John W. Fulton, local merchant, have been freed of the problem of remembering to carry parking-meter change. Fulton has placed a cup in front of his store, filled it with pennies and attached a sign—"Free Parking." The rate here is 12 minutes for each cent.

'High-Style' Your Baked Apples

BAKED APPLE HALVES with almonds are a seasonal budget dish that is very easy to prepare.

By GAYNOR MADDOX
 NEA Food and Markets Editor

Apples are one of your best buys now. So why not gather a few new recipes. Here's one from New Jersey, an apple state, that has "style" and delightful flavor.

Baked Apple Halves with Almonds (serves 4)

One-half cup almonds, blanched, 1 cup sugar, 1 cup water, 4 large Stayman or McIntosh apples, 2 teaspoons butter, 8 maraschino cherries, red or green.

Cut almonds lengthwise into halves. Boil sugar and water to make a syrup—about 5 minutes. Cut unpeeled apples into halves, core with ball cutter, and brush with syrup. Place 16 halved almonds flat side down in a circle on each apple.

Fill cavity with very little butter (peanut size), brush apples with syrup again, and place in baking dish. Pour remaining syrup in bottom of baking dish, cover and bake in moderate oven (375 degrees F.) for 30 minutes.

Uncover and bake for another 20 minutes. Or put apples under medium boiler to brown almonds slightly. Put a maraschino cherry in center of apple before serving.

"Apples in Appealing Ways" is a new booklet put out by the U. S.

Department of Agriculture, Leaflet No. 312, it costs 10 cents. Address Government Printing Office, Washington 25, D. C. The booklet gives many tested recipes as well as lots of valuable information about apples. Here is one good recipe:

Applesauce Puff (4 servings)

Four slices bread or plain cake, 2 tablespoons butter or fortified margarine, 1 1/2 cups applesauce, 1 teaspoon cinnamon, 1 1/2 cup brown sugar, 1 egg, 1 cup milk, 1/4 teaspoon salt.

Spread bread or cake slices with butter or margarine and arrange in the bottom of a greased baking dish. Cover with applesauce, sprinkle with cinnamon and about half the sugar. Beat together egg, milk, salt and rest of sugar. Omit sugar in this mixture if cake is used. Pour over mixture in baking dish. Set in pan of hot water and bake at 350 degrees F. (moderate oven) about 40 minutes.

Guests Wash The Dishes To Put Up At This Hotel

EAST LANSING, MICH.—(NEA)—There's a new $2,000,000 hotel on the Michigan State College campus, and all the employees—from the manager to the dishwasher—are students. The hotel actually houses special courses for restaurant and hotel operators.

The structure is ultra-modern, seven stories high and is called, officially, the Kellogg Center for Continuing Education. The courses are expected to attract 125,000 students during 1951.

These men are paid regular college wages and serve as assistant managers, bellboys and busboys. They service the 193 hotel-type double rooms and the restaurant that can serve 1,000.

Seven rooms on the sixth floor are experimental: guests help choose the most suitable furnishings, colors and lighting. Available to guests is a choice of four radio programs or a television show from the college's closed-circuit TV network. The wiring includes a public address system that doubles as an emergency alarm.

Each floor has a room numbered 13, a practice almost universally avoided in the commercial hotel field.

Students will be spared the job of removing snow from the building's sidewalks this winter: radiant heat from imbedded pipes will do the task.

But don't drop in at the hotel and expect to be registered as a guest. It doesn't compete with commercial hotels and is open only to members of conferences or study groups and official guests of the college.

Has No Bar

Room service is conspicuous by its absence, and under college rules there is no bar.

But these rules are of little consequence to the hotel and restaurant management students and others for whom Kellogg Center was built—farmers, businessmen, homemakers, laborers, 4-H members, workers, educators and professionals.

They are mainly concerned with packing into one, two or three days as much information as possible and getting back to do their regular jobs a little better.

The unique structure, foremost of its type in the U.S., represents the near-completion of a $35,000,000 postwar building program at MSC. Most of the money came from the Kellogg Foundation of Battle Creek, Mich.

Because cottage cheese is an excellent protein food at low cost, it should be included often in family menus. It is delicious served with a hot bread and jelly, to accompany a main course, or serve a mound of the seasoned cheese with a salad of iceberg lettuce and sliced tomatoes.

Class Work: James Graulich, of West Orange, N.J., student at Michigan State's school for hotel men, practices one of the basic arts of inn keeping.

Gas Well Results From Wiener Roast

PARKERSBURG, W. VA.—(AP)—Everett Hostetter started out to have a wiener roast in his backyard and it now looks like he will wind up with a gas well.

After the roast Hostetter and his family scattered the coals. Next morning they discovered the fire still burning. Four times they tried to put it out but no "luck." Suspecting gas seepage, Hostetter then dropped a match on the ground and it blazed up. "There are no pipelines nearby."

Although he has received an offer to lease the ground, Hostetter, an employee of the American Viscose Corporation, plans to develop his own backyard bonanza.

NO BUCK PASSER

IPSWICH, MASS.—(AP)—Aladino Minicucci of Gloucester didn't pass the buck this time. As he drove along the road here a large deer ran into his car. The impact killed the deer and the car had to be towed from the scene.

Daddy Ringtail

By WESLEY DAVIS

Daddy Ringtail And Witchie

Mugwump Monkey, the monkey boy, was sick in his bed at the monkey house, high in the top of the very tall tree, there in the middle of the Great Forest. Mugwump was sick with mumps. Oh, he wasn't very sick, I am happy to say, but the mumps had made his face look big and fat.

Mugwump lay in bed and tried to decide if he was lonesome. He thought about it until he decided that he was lonesome indeed. Daddy Ringtail was busy in the forest somewhere. Mother Ringtail was busy in the kitchen. There was no one for Mugwump to talk to. The Huffen Puffen, the friendly wolf, could not come to see Mugwump with the mumps, because the Huffen never had had the mumps just once to be through with them and the Huffen might get sick with the mumps himself.

Yes, Mugwump was very lonesome, he decided, and then he happened to look over by the window. Uh-oh. Oh me! There stood a play-like Halloween witch who was practicing riding on her broom. "Whoa!" said the witch to the broom.

FUNNY BUSINESS

said Mugwump when he saw how ugly she was. But Mugwump was lonesome, remember, and so he said: "Happy day, Mrs. Witchie." The old witch smiled a witchie play-like Halloween smile, and then she said: "Call me 'Witchie,' Mugwump, my boy. Call me 'Witchie.'" And so Mugwump promised to call the old witch "Witchie" to make her happy, if—and Mugwump said "if"—if she would come back next Halloween to take him for a ride on her broom.

The old witch turned pale to hear these words. Take Mugwump for a ride on her broom when Halloween's time should come again! Oh, she couldn't take him for a ride. Why she was only play-like, and so was her broom play-like, and so she couldn't give anyone a ride. Sorry, but she simply couldn't.

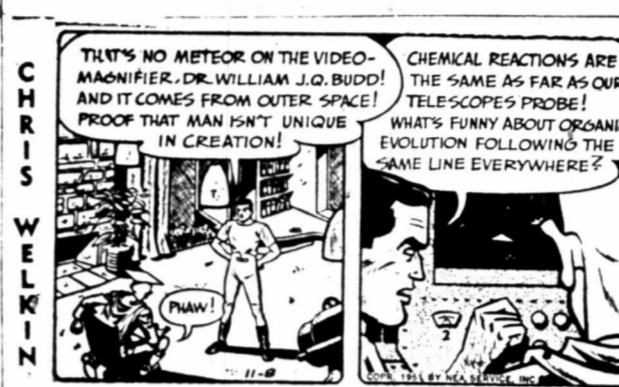

"Couldn't you even take me for a play-like ride?" asked Mugwump, and Witchie answered of course she could take him for a play-like ride, and she did right then and there, because a play-like something is almost as much fun as the real thing, when the real thing really isn't. Happy day!

Cranberry Teams With Banana

FRESH CRANBERRY and banana pie makes a tempting Thanksgiving dinner dessert.

By GAYNOR MADDOX
NEA Food and Markets Editor

Fresh cranberries and fresh bananas join their flavors in a wonderful pie for Thanksgiving dinner. It's a lighter dessert to follow the big feast.

Cranberry-Banana Surprise
(Makes 6-8 servings)
One package hot roll mix, 1 cup water, 1 1/2 cups sugar, 3 cups fresh cranberries, 2 bananas, sliced.
Prepare hot roll mix according to package directions for sweet dough. While dough is rising, combine sugar and water in a saucepan and boil gently for 5 minutes. Add cranberries and continue to cook 5 minutes longer. Set aside to cool. After dough has risen, roll one-third of it out to a ten-inch circle 1/16-inch thick. Place in greased 8-inch round cake pan.

Fill shell with alternate layers of cranberry sauce and banana slices decorating top with bananas. Brush edges of dough with egg yolk or milk. Bake in moderately hot oven (400 degrees F.) about 30 minutes or until done.

Note: To use remaining dough roll out and cut into 3-inch circles. Brush with egg yolk. Place a small portion of cranberry sauce in center of each and bake about 15 minutes.

Here's a treat for the breakfast toast:
Cranberry Peach Apricot Jam
(Makes about 5 cups)
Two cups finely ground cranberries, 1/2 cup finely ground dried apricots, 1/4 cup finely ground peaches, 3 cups sugar, 1/2 teaspoon cloves, 1/2 teaspoon nutmeg.
Combine cranberries and dried fruit in saucepan. Bring to a boil stirring constantly. Add remaining ingredients. Boil rapidly 5 minutes. Pour into jelly glasses.

JACOBY ON CANASTA

By OSWALD JACOBY
Written for NEA Service

"I can understand watching the discards of the player at your left," writes a Minneapolis fan, "but I don't see the big advantage of watching your partner's discards. I find it very difficult to remember even one player's discards, and I dread the thought of doubling the job. Is it really necessary?"

Unfortunately, it is. I should begin by saying that everybody has trouble remembering discards when he starts to play Canasta. After you've played it for a while, your memory seems to become better.

There's a good reason for this, too. A beginner has the job of remembering a group of meaningless cards. To the experienced player, each card has a meaning, and it is therefore much easier to remember them. You might compare it with memorizing a speech in a language that you don't understand. That's a hard job, but it becomes much easier when you begin to understand the language.

Getting back to Canasta, let's see why it's important to remember your partner's discards. The most important time to remember them is when you want to meld out in a hurry. This is particularly true when you must decide where to place a wild card.

For example, suppose you hold—after drawing—three aces, two kings, two queens, two deuces, and three miscellaneous cards. Your opponents have already melded aces and have picked up the discard pile a few times. Your side has melded nothing, and you need 120 points for the first meld.

At this point you decide to meld correctly enough. You must put down the three aces, of course, and you may put down both deuces with a pair of kings or with a pair of queens. It would be possible to put one deuce with a pair of kings and the other with a pair of queens, but this might leave you a long way from melding out. Your best chance is to guess which pair of pictures your partner is in position to add to.

That's exactly why you must remember your partner's previous discards. If your partner has previously discarded kings, he may be saving queens, but cannot be saving kings. If your partner has discarded both kings and queens, this is probably a poor time to make your initial meld. Wait until you can put your deuces with a pair that your partner is likely to have in his hand.

Braised meats taste best when they are browned slowly on all sides in a heavy utensil. After that a small amount of liquid should be added and the meat covered tightly. Cook at low temperature, adding a little more liquid if necessary, until the meat is tender.

THAR'S URANIUM IN THEM THAR HILLS!—First discoveries of uranium in Chile's fabulous "Valley of the Moon," above, were announced by President Gonzalez Videla. Geologists of the U. S. Atomic Energy Commission, working with the Chilean Development Company, made the important find. Large-scale investigations will follow in this mineral-rich northern desert area, which produces a third of all copper consumed by U. S. industry—500,000 tons a year. Photo shows South America's biggest copper mine at Chuquibambilla, in the Valley of the Moon.

Pipe Line Engineer Dies Atop Oil Tank

HOUSTON—Roy Joseph Luckenbach, an engineer for the Texas-New Mexico Pipe Line Company, was dead on arrival at a hospital Wednesday after he was found unconscious atop a crude oil tank. CAN YOU COMPLY WITH THE NEW Safety-Responsibility Law?

★ The NEW Texas Motor Vehicle SAFETY-RESPONSIBILITY Law, designed to protect the public and make our streets and highways SAFER, becomes...

EFFECTIVE JANUARY 1, 1952

In the event of an accident there are three ways to comply with the law. The easiest way is to have Automobile Liability Insurance. Why not buy this insurance from this Texas company which sells DIRECT and returns resulting savings to policyholders in DIVIDENDS.
