Testing Time Nears

The Hoover Commission's recommendations on government reorganization and economy were among the boldest and most hopeful proposals ever offered for the betterment of our federal system.

In the beginning, both the President and Congress seemed to realize this, and they moved energetically and with some courage to put these recommendations in force. By the time the 81st Congress was well into its second year, half the program had been adopted, and savings of consequence were foreseen.

At this juncture, however, the streamlining drive gradually bogged down. Truman sent up to Capitol Hill certain proposals which were modified with apparent political intent. The lawmakers balked at these, and then stubbornly refused to approve other important features of the commission plan.

The 82nd Congress, which convened last January, allowed the unfinished portion of the program to languish in the backwaters. Nothing was done.

Thus we stand, with perhaps the most vital half of the Hoover proposals still awaiting action almost three the Hoover proposals still awaiting action almost three he hadn't "heard from Senator" New York dock strikeers didn't halt one person who in private business with the dummy's eight of diayears after their original presentation.

PAD To Make Public Of Oil Field Steel

By JOSEPH HUTTLINGER The Reporter-Telegram

Washington Oil Correspondent WASHINGTON —A decision to nake public tonnages of oil country tubular goods alloted each quarter to 153 of the nation's largest oil producing companies was announced Thursday by Deputy Director Bruce K. Brown of the Petroleum Administration for Defense.

The publication would be designed to "allay questions as to equitable treatment," Brown said in telegrams to the 153 companies.

Brown also asked the companies those drilling 40 or more wells a year—for permission to publish, in well drilling programs and inventories of oil country tubular goods pertaining to each of the companies. He would make public the past and forward well drilling program information "only by total wells

Two Killed, 21 Hurt Sideswipes Freight

NAHUNTA, GA.-(A)- Two persons were killed and 21 others injured Thursday night when the Atlantic Coast Line Railroad's "Havana Special" sideswiped a freight train and demolished the depot at nearby Hortense crossing.

Sheriff J. Walter Crews of Brantley County said A. H. Byington, engineer of the passenger train jumped at the instant of impact and was killed by the fall

James Strickland, 24-year-old Hortense station agent, died beneath the wreckage when the passenger train's three diesel units were hurled almost 100 feet from the tracks, the sheriff reported. None of the injured was hurt seriously.

General Manager L. T. Andrews of the ACL said at Wilmington, N. C., that the cause of the wreck has not been determined.

A railroad official at the scene said nine passenger cars left the tracks in addition to the three locomotive units.

Witnesses said the freight was entering a siding when the pas-senger train sideswiped it.

Millionth Traffic Death Draws Near

CHICAGO -(P)- As the on millionth traffic death since the advent of the automobile drew near. the National Safety Council Friday geared its statistical service to s weekly basis.

It reported that as of Friday there have been 995,600 deaths in automobile mishaps since gas buggies began scaring horses off the roads around the turn of the century.

The council estimated that the one millionth death will occur during the third week of December.

"This tragic event would make a mockery of all that Christmas stands for," Ned H. Dearborn, council president, said in a statement, appeal to everyone to drive and walk with extreme caution during the next few weeks. The millionth traffic death can be delayed if everyone does his part.

"Don't you be one in a million!" Throughout the years the .council has collected death and accident statistics on a monthly basis from state accident record bureaus. From now into December reports will be gathered on a weekly basis.

Baptist Minister Jailed For Slashing Soviet Union Flag

ENGLEWOOD COLO -P-The Rev. Kenneth Goff, Englewood Baptist minister, was arrested on charges stemming from the slashing of the Russian flag on United Nations Day, October 24.

Arapahoe County Sheriff Charles Foster arrested Goff Thursday in the Denver suburb and he was taken to the Denver Police Station to be booked on charges of maliclous mischief and disturbance. The minister was released on $500 bond. The Russian flag was slashed and torn while on display in the Denver Civic Center Similar charges against Goff and his wife were dismissed last month by Municipal Judge Frank E. Hickey served improperly. Goff will face the same judge November 21. Goff blasted the flying of the Soviet flag as a "slap"in the face of every boy fighting in Korea."

Full Mail Service For ROK Scheduled To Resume Tuesday

WASHINGTON -P- Full civilian mail service between the United States and South Korea will be resumed next Tuesday, the Post Office Department announced Fri-

Beginning that day, all types of mail destined for that war-ravaged country will be handled.

The department suspended civilian service to the Korean Republic July 11, 1950, shortly after the North Korean Communists swept down over the 38th parallel. Later, in November, U. S. postal officials worked out arrangements for handling air mail only-but no packages for civilians in the republic. With resumption of full service. parcel post packages for Korea will limited to 22 pounds, with the rate at 14 cents per pound.

Egypt Agreeable To Plebiscite On Sudan Control

PARIS -(P) - Egypt Friday told the United Nations she is willing to withdraw her officials and armed forces from the vast, cotton-growing Sudan to permit a plebescite if Britain will do the same.

Egypt's Foreign Minister Moharhmed Salah-El Din, speaking in the general debate of the 60-nation international organization, said the "necessary machinery, atmosphere and preparation could be provided with the cooperation of the United Nations."

He added, however, he was "more than sure than British would yet.

HERE IS THE ANSWER!

JAMES M. HILL South Hangar, Mathis Field, San Angelo

1600 Harvard Drive Austin Stone

Here is a very charming home in one of the most desirable locations in Midland. It wouldn't be fair to deny your family and yourself the pleasure of owning this derling. There are two specious bedrooms with extra specious bedrooms with extre large wardrobe closets; lovely living room with dining area; cozy den; and two baths. The gracious kitchen is the answer to any woman's dream. She'll have oodles of cabinet space and the arrangement is such as fo make every day a happy day for the little lady, And, too, you will find a good size rumpus room for the kiddies. The large single car attached garage has plenty of room for extra storage. A feature that dad will like is the work shop that has been included. Well-to-wall carpeting has been faid throughout. If you want comfort and beauty you will want to more than the work shops and trees surrounds this dreamland. And a sturdy tile fence for the little lady. And, too, you land. And a sturdy tile fence has been built. It is being sold (furnished or unfurnished) by the owner. Dave Bauer. As you probably have heard, the Bauer sisters, Midland's great golf duet, have accepted a position in Sarasota, Florida, and the family want to remain together hence this home is being sold. Why not drive out with the family and inspect this wonder-

Johnston To Retire From Stabilization Post November 30

WASHINGTON - (A) - Eric Johnston has resigned as head of the Economic Stabilization Agency (ESA) to return to his job as president of the Motion Picture Association. A search, so far unfruitful, is President Truman announced acceptance of the resignation Thursday at his vacation headquarters in Key West, Fla. He did so with "real regret" and "extreme reluctance, Truman said.

In an exchange of letters, the President thanked Johnston for building ESA into an "efficient and going concern to cope with the problems that lie ahead."

Johnston wrote that as a private citizen he would "continue to do everything within my power to promote a national policy to prevent inflation."

Johnston will leave the government November 30. He already has overstayed the nine-month leave of absence he took from his motion picture post to head up ESA.

Charles E. Wilson, director of the Office of Defense Mobilization, has the task of finding a man to replace Johnston. Speculation as to successor has been widespread.
