Order To Halt Fight Creates Military Snafu

By JOHN RANDOLPH

SEOUL, KOREA—(AP)—White House denies that it ordered a halt in the UN ground action in Korea did nothing Thursday to solve the mystery of where the instructions came from.

Despite all official denials, they are known to exist at the Eighth Army level, where they first had been classified as "top secret."

Army officers, alarmed at the furore the news has caused in Washington and elsewhere, refused to talk any more.

But the facts of military life are so well known that it is possible, with considerable hope of accuracy, to make some deductions.

First, calling a halt to Allied offensive action in Korea is not entirely a military matter. Like most major decisions in this war, it involves political policy and decision.

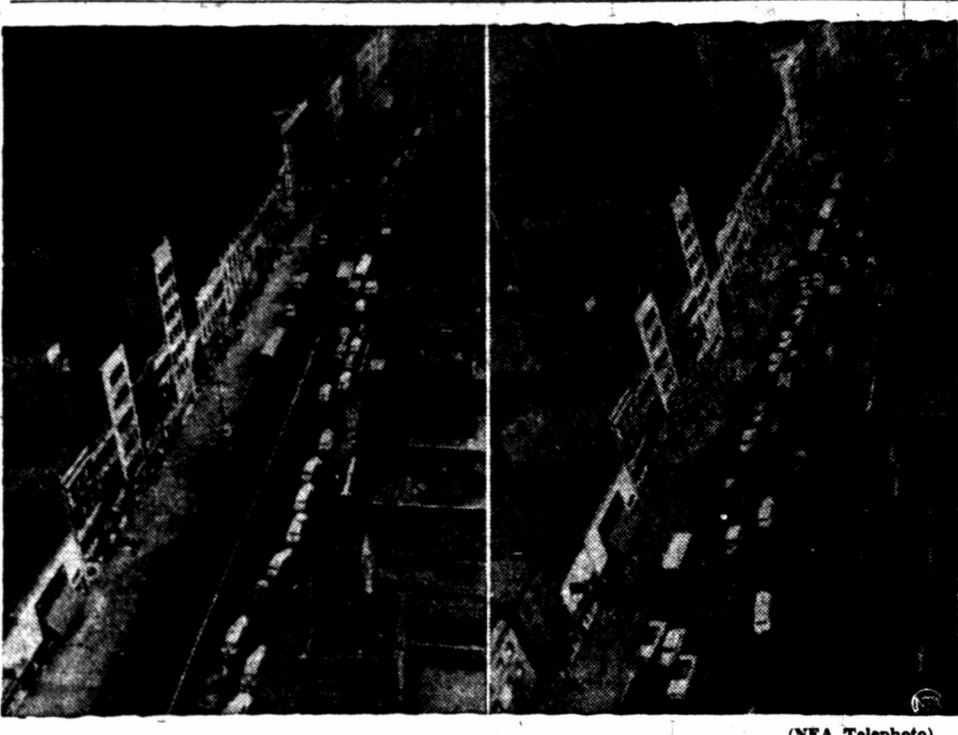

Consequently, it is logical to assume that the orders did not originate at Gen. James A. Van Fleet's Eighth Army headquarters. Backing this up is another piece of evidence—Van Fleet's often-repeated statements that he opposes inaction and stalemate in his Army in order to prevent it "going soft" and becoming ripe for a sudden enemy attack.

Higher Than Ridgway

The next higher command above the Eighth Army is Gen. Matthew B. Ridgway's Far Eastern headquarters in Tokyo.

Even at that level, although "SCAP" does deal in political matters—mostly involving Japan—it is stretching belief too far to think

AIR ATTACK TEST—All traffic is stopped and all pedestrians, excepting police and air raid wardens, have been sent to shelters at height of an air attack test in New York, left. This is 34th Street, looking east from 8th Avenue. Right, a few minutes after the city's air attack test ended, 34th Street was back to this busy normal mid-morning traffic.

All Top-Level Sources Deny Calling Truce

SEOUL, KOREA—(AP)—Allied artillery resumed long-range shelling of the Reds Thursday after a strange 36-hour lull in the ground fighting which the U. S. Eighth Army commander attributed to misreading of his secret orders to the troops.

Infantry of both sides stuck close to their lines, however, with the exception of two small actions on the eastern front.

In the air, Russian-built MIG's fought American jets in a series of battles during which 320 Red planes were sighted—the greatest number of any single day. Three U. S. Sabre jets and one MIG were reported damaged.

In the armistice talks, where agreement on a provisional buffer zone last Tuesday had led to the odd, off-again-on-again ground war, the chief Allied negotiator accused the Communists of seeking a peace treaty instead of merely an armistice.

The negotiators were hung up on the issue of behind-the-lines supervision to insure that an armistice will be observed. They have 30 days from November 27 to complete an armistice or start over on a buffer zone definition.

Front Lines Fall Silent

A high Allied source in Rome intimated that the conferees had agreed on the cease-fire supervision issue, but his meaning was unclear and there was no hint of any such development from the Allied truce camp at Munsan, Korea.

On Wednesday, the front lines had fallen strangely silent and it was reported a cease-fire had been ordered by the highest Allied quarters.

Both President Truman and the United Nations commander, Gen. Matthew B. Ridgway, denied any such order and reiterated that there could be no cease-fire until an armistice actually was signed.

On Thursday, however, Gen. James A. Van Fleet, commanding the Eighth Army, acknowledged he

City Plans To Welcome Breck Fans

Midland will go all-out in welcoming and entertaining football fans who will be here Saturday for the Midland-Breckenridge bi-district championship game, according to plans mapped Wednesday afternoon at a meeting of the Sports Committee of the Chamber of Commerce.

Chairman Frank Monroe said the plans also call for the entertaining of representatives from District 1-AAA schools, who will attend a district meeting here Saturday. The officials will be guests at a noon luncheon in the Petroleum Club, and will be introduced at the game.

"Welcome Breckenridge" tags will be worn on game day by students and adults alike. The tags will be distributed by the Chamber of Commerce to business firms and offices in the downtown section.

Chamber Manager Delbert Downing said every Midlander should consider himself a member of the host city's "Welcome Breckenridge" Committee.

Pre-Game Ceremonies

Just prior to the kickoff of the game at Memorial Stadium, Mrs. Gene Shelburne Jr., will sing "The Star Spangled Banner" accompanied by the Midland High School Band. The singing of the national anthem will precede a special flag-raising ceremony. The invocation will be by Dr. R. Matthew Lynn, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church.

Other special events are planned prior to and during the championship game. A mortar shell will be exploded as the two football teams come on the field for the encounter. Mortars also will be exploded at the end of each quarter, and following each touchdown and extra point attempt.

Colorful halftime ceremonies will be presented by the Midland and Breckenridge High Schools.

Monroe said members of the Midland High School Student Council will be official hosts to student council members from Breckenridge during the stay of the visitors in Midland.

White Paper Bares British Warning To Nile Kingdom

LONDON—(AP)—British Thursday revealed a warning to Egypt that refusal to join the proposed Middle East Command would lay the Nile kingdom open to a double invasion—by aggressors from the northeast and by the Western powers to expel the aggressors.

The warning was given July 6 during British-Egyptian talks on Suez Canal defense and the fate of the Sudan, according to a British government white paper published Thursday. The talks ended in disagreement July 26.

Champ Steer Sells At Surprising Low Of $6.75 A Pound

CHICAGO—(AP)—Toby, the 1,200-pound Aberdeen Angus grand champion steer of the International Livestock exposition, sold for the surprising low price of $6.75 a pound Thursday.

This was only slightly more than half as much as the $12-a-pound last year's champion, a Hereford, brought.

Toby, owned by Iowa State College, Ames, was bought by the Triangle Packing Company, Chicago.

"The sale price was the lowest since 1944, when a Hereford brought $4.50 a pound during the wartime exposition.

Last year's champion was owned by a 15-year-old Texan, Lloyd Robinson of Big Spring, a Future Farmer of America member.

Caudle said the $5,000 was a commission paid him for arranging the sale of an airplane to the tax investigator, and that the transaction was approved by Attorney General McGrath.

Caudle was on the witness stand the fourth day before a House Ways

Children Migrate As Polio Incidence Mounts In Odessa

ODESSA—(AP)—A polio scare here brought an exodus of children Thursday while city officials hurried to clean up Odessa.

The eighth polio death of the year was confirmed Wednesday. Forty-two polio cases have occurred this year.

The migration of children included both pre-school and school-age youngsters. No accurate figure was available on the number.

Children have been sent to Dallas, Fort Worth, Eastland, Peking, Ill., and Summer homes at Rudoso, N. M., Thomas H. Smith of the Odessa American reported. Mothers were moved to farms and ranches in the area.

Four new cases were diagnosed Wednesday. Of the 42 cases this year, 38 have been confirmed since October 1.

The American reported Odessa has a large number of outdoor toilets. Several sections outside the city have no garbage collection.

Alarmed city and county officials held two sessions Wednesday on the problem. Plans were discussed for increased insecticide spraying, more careful handling of garbage, new rules for sewer connections in outlying districts and formation of a county-wide sanitation district.

The National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis sent word it was sending two iron lungs to increase the number here to three. The foundation also is sending trained personnel to help.

To ease crowded facilities, some cases have been sent to Big Spring, San Angelo, Dallas, Amarillo, Plainview and Texarkana for treatment.

Two polio deaths were reported Wednesday. James P. Mackey, 34, of Odessa died Wednesday afternoon in Amarillo. He was admitted to an Amarillo hospital Sunday. Funeral services were planned in Dumas.

The death of Robert Horne, eight, son of Mrs. Mavourne Horne, was reported Wednesday. The Odessa boy died in Big Spring Monday night but his death was not reported as due to polio until Wednesday.

Midlanders Report New 'Ball Of Fire' In Skies Over City

Another fireworks display, lasting about two seconds, was observed in the skies above Midland late Wednesday afternoon. At least three persons here saw the display, telephoning The Reporter-Telegram to report the incident. Two other persons at Barnhart reportedly saw the object.

The witnesses telephoning The Reporter-Telegram said they saw a huge "ball of blue flames" streak across the heavens to the southwest shortly after 5:30 p.m. The object seemingly had a shimmering, long, blue tail. It was moving in a general northwesterly direction. The "ball of fire" seemed to disintegrate in mid-air, with particles showering out in all directions.

Will Rogers, Jr., Film Career Will Be Only One-Picture Shot

ERSKINE JOHNSON
NEA Staff Correspondent
HOLLYWOOD—There will be no movie star career for Will Rogers, Jr., who reports to Warner Brothers December 1 to star in the life story of his famous dad.

It's a one-picture shot for the 40-year-old publisher of the Beverly Hills Citizen, who told me: "I'm not going into the movie business to become a star. I'm going to play Dad and when the film is finished I'm going back to the paper."

The assignment of Mike Curtis as director, young Will says, was responsible for his consenting to do the film—his first acting stint since college.

"Mike is an old family friend of many years—he used to play polo with Dad. I'm not an actor but on his say I'm going to do the picture. I'm putting myself in Mike's hands."

As Will sees the role, it will be an impression of his father's character rather than a copy. He says: "I'm not going to copy his mannerisms or his accent, but if it comes naturally that's fine."

Farley Granger isn't worried about Shelley Winters' return-from-Europe flash that she's in love with Italian actor Vittorio Gassman. It's fashionable this season for movie queens to announce overseas loves but Shelley's heart still belongs to Farley.

Paulette Goddard and novelist Eric Rasmussen are a European blaze. Mickey Rooney's ready to leap into TV now that MGM's given him the green light. His two films a year deal at the studio restricted, until now, his video career.

Charles Laughton and Elsa

Lanchester insist those separation rumors are way off base.
Spent The Cash

The inside on Jim Thorpe's poor financial condition—everyone thought he collected a bundle for the film version of his life—is that he sold his story to MGM in 1932, and spent the cash. MGM sold the story to Warner Brothers, where Thorpe worked on a weekly check during filming of the picture.

Dick Powell, set to test his directing talents on "A Likely Story" at Paramount, shrugged his shoulders when I asked him if he's ready to quit acting in favor of a straight director's ticket.

"I'm going to try on this picture," he said. "If I like it and if the film turns out well, there's a chance I will. Sometimes I think I've been acting long enough."

"They're losing out" "The Key-stone Girl" title at Paramount and coming up with a new treatment of the Mack Bennett biography that's already cost the studio a quarter of a million dollars in preparation.

Says Paul Douglas, who will play Bennett: "Now it's going to be a history of early Hollywood. The last script I saw was designed for Betty Hutton and was all musical numbers. There wasn't enough of Bennett to hide behind a custard pie."

Compare Alan Young's brand of comedy with Charley Chaplin's and he beams. Chaplin's his idol. Says Alan: "I've always remembered reading Chaplin's success theory for comedians. 'Do something funny but don't be funny doing it.'"

Carey Surprises
Macdonald Carey has been a big surprise to theater patrons on his current p. a. tour. Instead of a mere beg-off speech of "I'm happy to be here," he's doing a 30-minute act featuring songs and dancing.

Bobby Driscoll, the kid actor who grew up, just played a Chris Weik-type inter-planetary spaceman in a TV film, "Space Conquerors."

Leslie Caron will do a big ballet number based on the St. Louis Blues in MGM's "Glory Alley." Charles O'Curran will be the dance director.

Fire At Sea Kills Captain, Two Others On Freighter Bataan

LOS ANGELES—(AP)—Fire which burned 30 hours, at sea aboard the freighter Bataan, caused the deaths of the captain and two passengers.

The 6800-ton Olsen Line vessel docked here Wednesday. The fire started early Tuesday while the ship was 50 miles off the Mexican coast, 600 miles south of here. Her radio out of commission, she was unable to summon help.

The dead: Capt. Charles Olsen, 52, Oslo; Harold Loken, 72, who boarded at Oslo; Mrs. Barbara Tippen, 73, returning to her home in suburban San Pedro after a visit in Norway.

Three crewmen were burned fighting the fire and another passenger, Sidell Knudsten, 19, Oslo, suffered burns as flames engulfed her cabin. She escaped through a porthole.

The ship radio and bridge were burned out in the first rage of flames. Emergency controls were rigged to bring the vessel to port.

Western Oil Men Are Skeptical Of McCarthy Venture

CAIRO—(AP)—A French oil man, Dr. S. De Lovozert, Wednesday said he and a Swiss firm had formed a syndicate with Texas oil millionaire Glenn McCarthy to develop Egypt's oil reserves.

Dr. Lovozert identified the Swiss firm as the Hofman Bank Aitlen Gellshaf of Zurich. The syndicate, he said, has signed an "agreement in principle" that it would buy 51 per cent controlling interest in the National Petroleum Company of Egypt.

He said the deal hinges on points McCarthy had made earlier—that the Egyptian government change its law which requires that Egyptians hold 51 per cent of the stock of any foreign company exploiting Egyptian oil reserves.

Western oil men here are skeptical of the McCarthy deal. They point out that Standard Oil Company of New Jersey abandoned its interests in Egypt because it could not obtain a satisfactory agreement with the government.

The pilot circled the field while attendants shooed the cattle away, but the delay forced him to take off for Acapulco in the dark. Tilman said and the plane either ran into a hole, or hit a post and burst into flames.

Mrs. Sidwell Is Guest Speaker

"Religion and Education" was the topic of a talk given by Mrs. Ernest Sidwell Tuesday at a meeting of the Twentieth Century Study Club in the home of Mrs. James O. Simmons.

Mrs. Sidwell, guest speaker, has been a Bible teacher for many years. Teaching children to be happy, she told the group, is the American way of life, but youngsters also should be educated to meet disaster.

She pointed out that education for girls should be planned to prepare them for the life they probably will lead, rather than following boys' educational standards. She also traced the history of education.

Mrs. H. H. Redding, Mrs. W. G. Epley and Mrs. W. H. Rhodes reported on the recent state convention in Denton. It was announced that a luncheon honoring Mrs. Hiram Cole Houghton, president of the General Federation of Women's Clubs, will be held December 6 in the Ranchland Hill Country Club.

The group voted to give to Girlstown instead of having a gift exchange among the members. They also voted to buy a bond for the Tuberculosis Association. Roll call was answered by telling a school day memory.

Others attending were Mrs. Lex B. Smith, Mrs. C. Harrison Cooper, Mrs. Frank L. Key, Mrs. Jack Walcher, Mrs. J. B. Bain, Mrs. H. S. Collings, Mrs. James L. ### Pelican Problem Puts Winston Churchill On Spot With Princely State Of Pakistan

LONDON—(AP)—The Times thanked the States of Texas and Louisiana Boy Scout troops which have their gifts of pelicans to St. James' Park.

It also expressed gratitude to Pakistan and Nairobi which entered, belatedly, the race to replace Peter and Paul, the park pelicans who died last month.

"The donors," said the Times, "may rest assured that Londoners and many others are touched and grateful at so much world-wide generosity."

The editorial said the passing of Peter and Paul has had "not one, it seems, but several happy endings."

It noted that James Carter, news editor of the Galveston News, already had delivered the Texas pelicans—Gal, Vera, Tom and Tex—in his official capacity as Texas ambassador to the Park of St. James in charge of pelican affairs. The Foreign Office has instructed the consul general in New Orleans to accept another pair offered by Louisiana, which was somewhat miffed by the quick Texas draw.

Unfortunate Hassle

The editorial added: "The unfortunate malentendu (hassle) between the two American states is not, however, the only international repercussion. It appears that one of the first tasks of the Commonwealth Relations Office under Mr. Churchill's government was to request the United Kingdom high commissioner in Pakistan to seek the cooperation of the Pakistani authorities to restore the line of pelicans which their Peter had so long upheld.

(Peter, believed to have been almost 60 years old, arrived in England from Karachi in 1898).

"While gestures of Anglo-American good will from Texas and Louisiana are appreciated in Pakistan, it is felt regrettable that Whitehall in a matter of such ancient tradition should look outside the commonwealth."

The aim of Pakistan's premier princely state has accordingly now offered Pelicans from Bahawalpur—presumably, like Peter, large white pelicans with black stripes x x x.

In the meantime one further pelican has arrived from a private donor in Nairobi x x x Truly Londoners may rejoice that the tradition of Peter and Paul x x x will live at least, it may be assumed, until the end of the century."

A Fall theme was carried out in the table decorations. Mrs. Don Rigor poured. Mrs. Delbert Downing reviewed "Missions to America," the book which has been the mission study for the last six months.

Mrs. S. P. Hall, project chairman, reported 10 boxes of clothing had been sent to Jarvis Christian Institute in Jamaica and the Juliette Fowler Home.

Plans were discussed for the Christmas party to be held at 3 p.m. December 17 in the home of Mrs. Frank Williamson, 1400 West Indiana Street. It was announced that the fellowship was selling plates bearing a picture of the new Christian Church. The group discussed possible "white gifts" to be sent to the Fowler home for Christmas.

The gifts are to be brought to the church December 10.

Mrs. Hall led the opening prayer and Mrs. Paul McHargue gave the devotional, "Thy Kingdom Come."

WAC Captain Quits For Good Of Service

CAMP BRECKINRIDGE, KY.—(AP)—Capt. Johnita Heslinga, commanding officer of the WAC detachment here, resigned "for the good of the service" and nothing else.

That statement was issued Wednesday by Col. Barney Daughtry, chief of staff at Camp Breckinridge. He denied there was any connection between the resignation and the recent conviction of six WAC sergeants for beating another WAC.

Miss Heslinga returned to her home at New Sharon, Iowa. She declined to comment on her resignation.

Daughtry was asked if she was requested to resign. "I will say only that Captain Heslinga resigned her commission for the good of the service," answered Colonel Daughtry, who refused to explain further.

The six WACs were court-martialed and convicted November 8 of beating Pfc. Carol Ann Kierce, 20, of Mount Vernon, Ohio.

They were given prison terms ranging from one to two and one-half years on an assault and battery conviction. All are being held here pending a review of the case by the Camp Breckinridge commanding general.

The WACs allegedly beat Private Kierce on October 4 after she testified at a courtmartial involving Cpl. Frances Menusan, a friend of the convicted women and the daughter of Dr. Henri Menusan, research entomologist at Pennsylvania State College.

Miss Menusan, 25, was given a general discharge.

Caudle—

 Cases of five of those fired Wednesday were turned over to the Justice Department for possible prosecution. Five other employees still are under suspension, while their records get further study.

Caudle told the House group yesterday:
 1. His wife still owes $900 on a $2,400 mink coat purchased last Winter through Jacob Landau, New York tax attorney. He testified his wife paid $1,500 on the coat, purchased at wholesale, but now she's awfully embarrassed about it.

2. Mrs. Caudle also arranged for the purchase of two more mink coats by the wife of Senator McClellan (D-Ark) and the wife of Kenneth Royall, former secretary of War. McClellan and Royall said they paid for their wives' coats.

3. His daughter, Rose, got a mousie coat—"that's a little cheap sheepskin coat"—through Landau, but that his wife paid $125 for it. That was $25 more than the same coat would have cost him in Washington, he said.

4. T. Cohen, Atlanta tax attorney and former partner of Landau in a Washington law firm, later testified that his firm paid for the mousie coat and also for still another coat for the wife of Turner Smith, then Caudle's top aide in the Justice Department tax division. Smith resigned this Fall and now is in private business.

Cohen said he was told the cost of the two coats was $363, and was charged off to firm "business expense." The coats, he said, were treated as Christmas presents.

Cohen testified that Caudle and Smith both expected to pay for the coats. He said Smith actually sent a check, but that it was torn up.

Desperado Bill Cook Sentenced To Death By California Court

EL CENTRO, CALIF.—(P)—The criminal savagery of William Edward Cook, a 23-year-old, pint-sized desperado who kidnaped nine persons and killed six of them, has been halted by California Justice.

Cook, product of wretched environment in a bleak and desolate abandoned mining section near Joplin, Mo., was sentenced Wednesday to death in San Quentin gas chamber for the murder of a Seattle oil salesman, Robert H. Dewey.

The five-foot, four-inch self-styled badman already was under five sentences of 60 years each in connection with the kidnap-murders of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Mosser and their three children of Atwood, Ill. The sentences were to be served consecutively.

The federal director of prisons, James V. Bennett, now may order the transfer of Cook from the Federal Prison at Alcatraz Island to California's San Quentin, where the killer will await action of the State Supreme Court on his appeal for a review, automatic under California law.

The federal director of prisons, James V. Bennett, now may order the transfer of Cook from the Federal Prison at Alcatraz Island to California's San Quentin, where the killer will await action of the State Supreme Court on his appeal for a review, automatic under California law.

If no reversible error is found by the high court, the federal authorities then may surrender technical custody, so that Cook may pay the supreme penalty. The Department of Justice said in Washington that the attorney general will await receipt of formal papers before transferring Cook to California's jurisdiction.

Army Ousts—

 to the major foreign-policy problem facing the Arab states—whether to join in the Middle East Defense Command proposed by the Western powers. Egypt has refused to participate. The rest of the Arab nations have taken no formal stand alongside Egypt.

It was a dispute over this issue that led to the downfall of the Syrian cabinet under pro-Western Premier Hassan El Hakeem 18 days ago.

Shishkeky had not issued any statement specifically endorsing or rejecting the defense command. But he is believed to harbor no special bitterness against the West and to have little sympathy for the Soviet bloc.

But there was too much evidence and too many witnesses to explain away the fact that Wednesday, the Allies called off their ground attack against the Communists for the first time since the war began June 25, 1950.

Snafu—

 Ridgway would act entirely on his own.

A command as important as Ridgway's likely would have some discretion in phrasing such an order, or in timing it, but it is inconceivable—militarily speaking—that even "SCAP" would call off the ground war without consulting superiors.

The only higher headquarters Ridgway answers to are the Pentagon and the President, as commander in chief. The Washington denials by White House Press Secretary Joseph Short said there was no "cease-fire" in Korea.

Strictly speaking, that is true. There is firing from both sides, although very little by normal standards. But the denials did not deny that a damper had been put on offensive ground action.

It is now known that the orders at Eighth Army were classified as "top secret"—the highest government category of secrecy. As required by regulations, they went only to officers directly concerned with the action required—in this case the chain of command.

Consequently, Army information officers and censors were by-passed and not informed and had no prior knowledge. But when the orders finally reached the troops—at least 100,000 men were told—secrecy naturally vanished. The orders having been broadcast, the classification was compromised and no serious effort was made to deny their existence Wednesday night.

Associated Press Correspondent Milo Farneti saw one copy of them in black and white. Keyes Beech, Pulitzer prize-winning correspondent of the Chicago Daily News, heard one officer paraphrase the orders aloud from a coded teletype message.

Officers Bewildered
 Some officers who had seen the orders were bewildered and even indignant at being placed in a false position by the stateside denials.

Others explained the action as a reasonable desire not to guarantee immunity to the frontline Communists by publishing the Allied plans for restraint in the fighting.

Still following the requirements of the "top secret" classification, everything was denied officially.

The sudden halt in Allied offensive action could, of course, end as suddenly. A simple order from the same source of the "cease-fire" order could start the UN ground war raging again almost in a matter of minutes.

But there was too much evidence and too many witnesses to explain away the fact that Wednesday, the Allies called off their ground attack against the Communists for the first time since the war began June 25, 1950.

Long-range Red mortar fire also was reported at some spots.

Allied "defensive" patrols went out Thursday all along the 145-mile-long Korean front, but encountered no Chinese. They pulled back at some points when fired on sporadically.

Two minor shootings by patrols were reported on the western front. Allied patrols withdrew in both cases.

An Eighth Army briefing officer said the word "aggressive" was not used in the Army's report of Allied activities for the 24-hour period ended at midnight.

Bob Pierpont, Columbia Broadcasting System correspondent, made a flying visit to the eastern front Thursday morning and said there still was plenty of firing in the Heartbreak Ridge and Punchbowl sectors.

"We were with one company for 15 minutes and during that time the Communists threw in four mortar shells," he said. "The company commander told us he had received no orders to stop firing unless fired upon. He added that except for sending out UN patrols, it was business as usual in that sector."

15 Fishermen Die When Texaco Tanker Rams Into Trawler

BOSTON—(P)—Fifteen fishermen of a 17-man crew died Wednesday night when the 10,000-ton tanker Ventura smashed into the stern quarter of the 170-ton trawler Lynn in Boston Harbor.

None of the 50 crewmen on the Texas Oil Company tanker was injured.

The sea was calm and the night clear at the scene of the crash—a 500-yard-wide channel only six miles from the Boston fish pier.

Coast Guard observers said 13 of the victims went down with the trawler, "trapped in its steel hull like sardines in a can," while eating their evening meal or working in the engine room.

Artillery—

 had issued orders to his Army which apparently suffered "distortion of meaning" when passed down to the troops. He said he was sending out clarification.

General Van Fleet, said "I am not at liberty to disclose the contents of the instructions which are related to future operations of the Eighth Army."

Order Still Kept Secret
 The renewed artillery firing in almost normal volume followed shortly thereafter.

While strongly stating there was no mention of a cease-fire, Van Fleet did not disclose either his original order or his clarification.

Bill Boss, a Canadian Press front-line correspondent, said the gist of the original was this:

"During the remainder of the armistice negotiations, every effort will be made to avoid casualties and demonstrate our willingness to honor a cease-fire."

This apparently is what caused some commanders at the front to order their men to maintain purely defensive positions.

The Chinese Reds on the western front Wednesday played volley ball in no-man's-land in full view of allied soldiers, indicating that they, too, thought a cease-fire was in effect.

When the Allied artillery firing began about 1 p.m. Thursday, the Chinese were under cover.

While the orders to artillerymen were reported to be "shoot to kill," an Eighth Army public information officer, Col. Kenneth Booth, told correspondents General Van Fleet's clarification order had not changed the original "basic directive" for continuing hostilities.

"Anything appearing to be a change at the front is solely the result of the clarification ordered by General Van Fleet," Booth said.

A U. S. Third Division officer on the western front told AP correspondent Milo Farneti it was "a typically light day," with guns firing on Chinese troops and installations.

Long-range Red mortar fire also was reported at some spots.

Allied "defensive" patrols went out Thursday all along the 145-mile-long Korean front, but encountered no Chinese. They pulled back at some points when fired on sporadically.

Two minor shootings by patrols were reported on the western front. Allied patrols withdrew in both cases.

 the Garfield Street crossing when their automobile sped into the path of a freight train.

"I explained to him," said the mayor, "that with the development of the oil fields south of the city and the tremendous growth of the city itself, the crossings were carrying more and more traffic each day.

"I am convinced that some type of safeguards are needed, not only for the protection of the motorists but the railroad itself."

He received Volmer's reply, he said, Wednesday.

"I am keenly interested in the situation at Midland," the railway company president wrote, "and recognize the many mutual problems we are having to face.

"You have my assurance that all of us on the T&P will work toward a solution of these problems in the same cooperative spirit which has existed between the people of Midland and our railroad."

Muldrow Aerial Surveys Firm To Hold Open House

The public is invited to view the operations of the Muldrow Aerial Surveys Corporation, 313 North Colton, during open house hours from 4 to 7 p.m. Friday.

The company recently completed a three-fold program—that of modernizing the plant, adding new equipment and reorganizing and rearranging present equipment to obtain maximum efficiency in operation.

"All of our personnel will remain on their jobs during open house hours, so that public can see—first hand—just what we have and how we operate," said Mrs. M. Ellison Muldrow, president of the corporation.

In addition to taking the public on a tour through the plant, the firm will give out flowers for the women, cigars for men and candy for children at the open house.

Included on the modernization work was a major face-lifting job on the front of the building with the installation of plate glass windows across the entire front.

A color scheme of photographic grey was used on the exterior of the building in keeping with the mapping business.

The lobby of the building was modernized by dropping the ceiling and installing indirect lighting. New exterior canopies and outside lighting were added.

Reorganization of the company was made possible in February, 1951, when Muldrow Aerial Surveys, Inc., was split into two corporations—the Muldrow Aerial Survey Corporation and the Muldrow Reproduction Corporation.

Mrs. Muldrow said the corporation was split into two different concerns because "Muldrow, Inc., actually was handling two kinds of business with different clients and the operations of both were made independent so that greater efficiency could be obtained among the personnel in both companies."

As a result of the change, the mapping section of the Muldrow Aerial Surveys Corporation was moved to 307 West Ohio Street.

The large drafting room formerly occupied by this section was converted into the main workshop for reproduction work.

The reproduction company equipment formerly occupied a small space in the rear of the MASC.

The building has been completely air conditioned with an interchangeable unit for warm and cool air.

Muldrow Expansion Makes Firm One Of Southwest's Finest

The expansion program recently completed by Muldrow Aerial Surveys Corporation made the concern one of the most complete shops in the Southwest.

Job orders now are being taken from such far away metropolitan centers as Los Angeles, Houston, Dallas, Fort Worth and Oklahoma City.

A total area of 644,800 square miles has been mapped by the firm over a four-year period, with a proposed program to map an additional 840,000 miles in the next five years.

The states of North Dakota, South Dakota, Oklahoma, New Mexico, Kansas, Arizona, Colorado, Wyoming, Utah, Texas and a portion of Nebraska have been mapped by the firm.

New equipment added by the corporation to an already well equipped shop is in keeping with the organization's slogan of "quality and service."

Listed among the equipment is the only continuous blueprint machine in a commercial shop in the Permian Basin. A blueprint is completely processed from beginning to end in one operation.

Two dry printers are used by the company which makes it possible to develop direct prints with ammonia thus saving changes in scale incurred when water washed. Two electric driers also are in use.

Enlarged 12 Times

A blue printing machine used by the firm prints two to five yards of material a minute while a copy camera with three different lenses, along with a vacuum easel can enlarge copy to 12 times its size or can reduce it to one-twelfth its size.

A photocopy room, equipped with two photocopy machines, is a complete unit in itself. It has its own developing tanks and drier and offers speed and privacy. Photocopy can be printed, developed and delivered in 30 minutes.

A 14-foot frame, the largest one in West Texas, is used for blue printing when exceptional quality is required. It is especially designed to accommodate the large maps

Breck Rates As Two TD Favorite Over MHS Bulldogs

More defense against the Breckenridge T formation was in store for the Midland High School Bulldogs Thursday, as they looked toward their Saturday Class AAA quarter-final playoff game with the Buckaroos here.

Work against the tricky Buck T took up most of the time Wednesday as the Bulldogs had a long contact session which also featured work on extra points and field goals by the Bulldogs.

Jones Thursday said his boys "look good and have made up their minds to play the best game possible."

It probably will take that for a win, as Breckenridge is a general favorite by two touchdowns and favored by 40 points in comparative scores.

Ralph Brooks, tailback, and Jimmy Lineberger, end, have been elected captains for the game by their teammates. Both are seniors.

The Bulldogs will carry a weight advantage of seven pounds per man in the line into the game, and will have a decided edge in the backfield as far as weights go.

But Breckenridge, a team which has won nine of 10 games and which has a powerful offensive both in the air and on the ground, remains the favorite to clip Midland and advance to the Class AAA finals against Temple. Temple is rated the number one team in the playoffs.

Jones said his team would do little Friday as the boys await the kickoff at 2 p.m. Saturday.

Mystery Surrounds Death Of Gridder

PHILADELPHIA—(AP)—Nick Liotta, 22-year-old Villanova College football co-captain, was found dead in a dormitory basement Wednesday. Police say death was by hanging. The coroner's office ascribed it to natural causes.

Radnor Township police said they found Liotta's body under a strip of piping, a coil of telephone wire twisted around his neck. The wire, police said in their official report, had been looped over a pipe.

Joseph Tercha, Delaware County coroner, said Dr. John Turner of Bryn Mawr informed him Liotta died of natural causes, apparently of a heart attack. He added that no autopsy is planned.

The college, operated by the Roman Catholic Order of St. Augustine, announced only that Liotta was dead and that the cause of death was unknown. Beyond that most officials held to steadfast silence.

Liotta, who was a candidate for All-American honors as a guard, was reported to be under strict orders from college authorities to say nothing. Reporters seeking to talk to the players were turned away from the dormitories.

Already Liotta had been chosen by the Football Writers Association of America as a member of its All-America team selected for Look magazine. He also had been named to the Associated Press All-Pennsylvania football squad.

One college official said Liotta had been dependent since Villanova lost, 20-13, to Boston College before his family and home town fans at Boston two weeks ago. The official indicated Liotta's low spirits were more noticeable after Villanova took a 45-7 lacing at the hands of Louisiana State last week.

Although the college's official statement on the 225-pound player's death said he had been ill for the last two days, it was learned he practiced for the scheduled Tulsa game on Tuesday. The game, booked for Oklahoma City Saturday, has been cancelled. It would have been the windup of a nine-game schedule in which Villanova won five and lost three.

His father, Peter, a barber, told friends Nick "always was carefree and a great favorite with his classmates when he attended Everett High."

Strong Line Keeps Kermit In AA Race

KERMIT—Last year, Kermit High School went to the state finals before losing, 13-9, to Wharton in a bruising grid game.

But before that loss, Kermit had won 14 straight games—and one of its stronger points was a fine line. Coach Neil Dillman of Kermit recently said: "This year's Kermit line is the best I have ever coached."

And that might be the tipoff on the Yellowjackets, an eleven which was unimpressive at the first of the year but has come on with a rush lately.

The Jackets, with eight wins and two losses, meet the unbeaten Anson Tigers—who have won 10 straight—at 2:30 p.m. Friday in Odessa in a Class AA second round playoff game. Anson, on the strength of the record, should be favored. But West Texans will take Kermit, thanks.

Anchoring that tough line are such boys as Guard Keith Wharton, Tackles Kenneth Ives and Dale Williams and Center Jackie Bolf to name a few.

Kermit probably will play Friday without the services of Don Handlin, who was the Jackets ace back all year. Handlin suffered a leg injury in the opening moments of the 31 to 6 bi-district win over Littlefield last week.

But Freshman Don Hixson, a stubby 120-pounder, took over for Handlin in that game and was the game's leading rusher.

Other than Handlin's injury, both the Yellowjackets and Anson expect to be in top form.

As wrestling cards go, the personnel on the program promoted Wednesday night at VFW Hall by Pat O'Dowdy wasn't too bad.

The accommodations, however, were strictly bush league.

"Ringside" seats extended back to the bleachers in the back of the house. Many people who bought so-called "ringside" seats told us they couldn't get near the ringside and had to stand in the back of the house or perch on tables near the rear.

We know for a fact that working sports writers had to sit in the rear of the building and climb on a table to see the ring.

Too, there were no numbers on most of the seats and fans had to sit where they could find a vacant spot.

The ring looked as if it would fall down—and it probably would have if O'Dowdy hadn't worked on it during some of the matches—and there was no public address system.

Except for the feature attraction, no announcement was made of the participating wrestlers.

Promoters in the future will have to handle the situation differently here or won't be able to draw a crowd at first-rate prices and present a second-rate show.

Frank (Dunny) Goode, the ex-MHS star who now is running wild for H-SU, needs but 177 yards to break the all-time Border Conference rushing record.

He probably won't get it, however, as the Cowboys play rugged Texas Tech Saturday and 105 yards is the most any Cowboy ever made against the Raiders. Hook Davis did that.

Two touchdowns would give Goode the all-time H-SU scoring record. He's scored 31 TD's since he's been at H-SU and Davis had 22.

Dunny already holds the all-time H-SU rushing record and the national record for most carries in one season.

DOTS AND DASHES: Odessa's Spec Gammon picks Breckenridge to thump Midland... so does Fort Worth scribe Phil Collier... But we picked Midland... And believe we'll be right... Gorgeous George ranted at "all your filthy Texans" here Wednesday and told one little boy: "Aw, shuddup, you're coming down with polio"...

End of the Row for now!

Southwest Elevens Set For Last Games

While eyes of Southwest Conference football fans turned Thursday to College Station for the belated Thanksgiving Day clash between Texas and Texas A&M, four other schools prepared for weekend clashes which probably will determine the champion of the loop.

If Texas Christian can bounce Southern Methodist Saturday at Fort Worth, then the Christians have the conference title all sewed up.

If TCU loses, then a number of "ifs" enter the picture. Baylor, Rice, TCU and Texas by winning Thursday still would figure in the title chase.

Baylor, which has the best chance to grab the crown if Texas Christian slips, spent a long workout Wednesday concentrating on defenses.

The Bears wind up practice Thursday and fly to Houston Friday.

To the Southern Methodist Mustangs the game with TCU is more than just playing out the schedule. The rivalry between the schools, only 30 miles apart, is strong. All but 3,000 tickets have been sold.

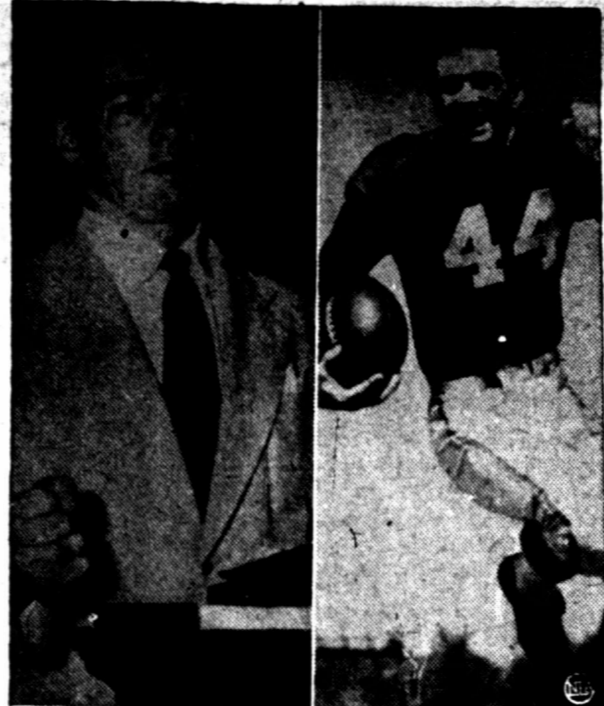

Texas Christian reported it was in good shape, one of the few times it has been able to say that this season. Thursday it concentrated on defense against the Mustangs who can rack up impressive scores when they click.

Cowboys Rope Eagle For San Antonio Zoo

SABINAL—(AP)—Three cowboys who roped a golden eagle on the E. B. Kincaid Ranch have given it to the San Antonio Zoo.

Ray Ware, foreman of the ranch, Bobby Wooten and Gerod Schmidt hemmed the eagle against a high wire fence, roped it and tied it. They are keeping it in a large chicken house until Zoo Manager Fred Starcke can transport it to San Antonio.

Clarence Henry, 24-year-old Los Angeles heavyweight fighter, born in San Antonio, and schooled in Seattle, Wash. He won 28 of his first 31 fights, 15 by knockouts.

Twenty-year-old Jerry, from Tulsa, Okla., is a sophomore ministerial student at the university in Waco, Texas.

Gorgeous George, Murdock Win

Gorgeous George, Frankie Murdock and Vic Weber came off the winners in Pat O'Dowdy's wrestling card at VFW Hall Wednesday night.

But before these grapplers received the "decisions" they turned in the usual hammy wrestling performance which would rival the antics of silent movie stars.

Weber, in the opening bout, took Joe Perez with a body press and leg lock, putting Perez to the mat at 19:17 in the one-fall affair.

Bearded Frankie Murdock, the Waxahatche pig raiser, used up 41 minutes in disposing of "Gentlemanly" Howard Cantonwyne in two falls. The winner used what he termed a "pygmy" hold to take Cantonwyne, slating that the hold could put any wrestler to sleep. It almost worked on the audience.

Gorgeous George went through his usual amount of Tom-foolery before getting down to the business at hand of grabbing two of three falls from Alex (The Mad Russian) Kasabovki.

Jeffries, George's valet, first came to the ring attired nattily in a Tuxedo and sprayed perfume over the ring, placing a mat of welcome on the canvas for George to step onto.

After a haughty stare at his common surrounding, George teased rose petals to the crowd, disrobed from the bright red robe with yellow ruffles and, after giving his curly blond locks an assuring pat, went into battle.

He lost the first fall 14 Kasabovki at 17:14 when a flying block put him on the canvas and a leg lock kept him there.

After ranting at the crowd before falling, going into the audience and stomping his feet at booping spectators, George returned to flip the Russian down at 30:16 for the second fall and put on the coupe de grace at 51:11. A series of fancy flips with an arm lock applying the pressure gave George the fall.

A full house, from both Midland and Odessa, watched the going-on.

St. Mark's Forms Men's Organization

The first step toward organization of a men's club of the St. Mark's Methodist Church was taken at a dinner meeting held Wednesday night in the Blue Star Inn.

Hank Arrowsmith, Stanley Myers and Raymond Jenkins were chosen as directors to plan the next meeting at which a permanent organization will be formed.

The organization will furnish the Christmas tree for a church party soon. Also it will supply bags of fruits, candy and nuts for the youngsters.

The Rev. James Sharp, pastor, presided at the dinner meeting. Present were Dale McReynolds, Sam Crews, Eugene Nearburg, Gaulin Parker, John McDonald, James Merriman, Bub Brewer, Bill Matthews, Chester Tyrn, D. K. Coffman, Bruce Good, Jenkins, Leroy Hale, Fred McCarroll, Richard Olson, John M. Speed, Jr., Leon Ditzell, Mr. Sharp, E. Story, M. C. Williams, A. E. Patterson, W. M. Johnson, Jerry Merket and Tanner Laine.

ANNUAL TENNIS MEET
NEW YORK—(AP)—The 71st annual meeting of the U. S. Lawn Tennis Association will be held here January 19. The USLTA executive committee will meet the previous day.

Tech, H-SU Winner To Sun Bowl

EL PASO—(AP)—People in West Texas are considered right friendly, pardner. But it won't look that way Saturday. There's a first-rate neighborhood brawl scheduled.

The fight will be between two football teams, Hardin-Simmons University and Texas Tech College. They're located only 150 miles apart—in each other's back yard by West Texas reckoning.

And the team that manages to walk off the field winner very probably will get a coveted bid to the El Paso Sun Bowl.

Wednesday, the other Sun Bowl team was announced—colorful College Of Pacific.

Which will make Hardin-Simmons even harder to get along with Saturday. For the Cowboys—if they win and get the bowl bid—will be shooting for a rare chance: To avenge an early-season lacing suffered from COOP.

College Of Pacific defeated the Cowboys, 33-7, while the season still was young. Gene Bonahue, chairman of the Sun Bowl Selection Committee, said Wednesday that will make little difference if Hardin-Simmons wins Saturday.

He brushed off the Cowpokes' loss this way: "Hardin-Simmons has a powerful, high scoring team. They lost their first game of the season. It might not have happened later in the season."

Also riding on Saturday's game at Lubbock will be the championship of the up-and-coming Border Conference. Neither team has suffered a league defeat.

Bowl Veterans
Hardin-Simmons is a bowl veteran. One year it boasted four bowl contests—a January 1 clash in 1948 in San Diego and three more at the end of the 1948 season.

Earlier, Athletic director Earl Jackson said the school's board of athletic control reversed a previous decision not to accept the bid from the Sun Bowl. The board reversed itself at the team's request, Jackson reported.

College of Pacific has won six and lost four. Hardin-Simmons has the same record. Texas Tech has won five and lost four.

FROSH KICKING STAR CORAL GABLES, FLA.

—(AP)—The University of Miami has come up with a freshman punting sensation in Bill Sutton of Waynesville, N. C. Six of his first half kicks in one game traveled more than 50 yards.

Buddy Craig of Raleigh, Tenn., is the lightest player on the University of Mississippi grid squad. He weighs 150 pounds.

Stanky About 'In' As Cards' Manager

NEW YORK—(AP)—Eddie Stanky is certain of succeeding Marty Marion as manager of the St. Louis Cardinals.

No definite agreement has been reached as yet, but Presidents Horace Stoneham of the New York Giants and Fred M. Saigh of the Cardinals will meet within the next few days with the hope of closing the deal, brewing since the World Series.

The transaction may not be announced until the minor league convention in Columbus next week.

The Cards will be asked to turn over Pitcher Max Lanier and Outfielder Chuck Diering for Stanky, who then will sign as a player-manager with the Redbirds for a two-year contract at $35,000 per season.

Although Saigh has been quoted as saying that he had three men in mind for the job, he has not seriously considered anybody other than Stanky.

It was only a question whether Stoneham was willing to part with the Giants' scrappy second baseman, admittedly the inspirational spark who drove the team to the National League flag last season.

Stoneham is loathe to lose the brainy "quarterback" of his infield, but is agreeable to the transaction only because he does not want to be accused of "blocking Stanky's chance of realizing his dream" of managing a big league club.

Saigh, who had rejected an earlier New York request for Enos Slaughter and Harry Brecheen, is equally reluctant to part with Lanier. Finally convinced, however, the Giants won't back down on their latest demand, the Redbird boss is ready to give up his veteran southpaw.

In acquiring the colorful Stanky, Saigh is getting the kind of manager he always has yearned for—an aggressive, firebrand type of leader who, from his record, is bound to instill fight and hustle into any club he is connected with.

Saigh's criticism of Marion was that Marty wasn't aggressive enough and didn't devote as much time as he should have to running the club. That is a fault he won't find with Stanky, who talks and thinks baseball every waking hour of the day.

Reached in his home at Fair Hope, Ala., Stanky refused to discuss the matter until it was made official. However, he did say he was definitely interested in managing a big league club.

"I feel I am now ready to handle a job as a major league manager," he said. "However, I have not talked to Mr. Saigh."

The Records
Stanky played in 145 games last season. He batted a disappointing

★ THE DOCTOR SAYS ★

Surgery Is Considered To Be Best Treatment For Piles

By EDWIN F. JORDAN, M. D.
Written for NEA Service

Piles, or hemorrhoids, are one of the most common disorders of this day and age. Bleeding is perhaps the most frequent sign of this condition. Generally there is no severe pain though itching is frequent.

If such warning signals are ignored, the bleeding is likely not only to keep on but will get worse. Sometimes hemorrhoids develop suddenly after some strain, but more often they set in gradually.

Hemorrhoids are clusters of enlarged veins at or around the outlet of the rectum. They may be internal or external. Chronic constipation, a long-continued cough, childbirth, and muscular strain from work are examples of what will tend to slow down the flow of blood through the hemorrhoidal veins and favor their enlargement.

If untreated, the hemorrhoids become larger and larger and more symptoms develop. Painful ulcers and cracks may form which add to the discomfort.

The treatment of piles includes avoidance of chronic constipation, or unnecessary muscular strain. Once hemorrhoids have developed, however, this is not enough to make the veins return to their natural state. Other things have to be done.

Surgery Is Best
Usually the best treatment is by surgery. The enlarged veins are cut out. Surgery does not guarantee that the veins will not enlarge again. Therefore, it is advisable to take whatever steps necessary to avoid a recurrence.

An interesting question on the treatment of hemorrhoids comes from L. L. S., who says "I am troubled with hemorrhoids, and have obtained relief by injections. Now I am told that this is a bad practice which may cover up symptoms of cancer. Other doctors disagree with this. What is your opinion?"

When symptoms of hemorrhoids are present, the person should be carefully tested for cancer. When this is done there should be no reason for confusing the two.

December 7 Set Aside As Operation Democracy Day

AUSTIN—Gov. Allan Shivers has designated the tenth anniversary of the attack on Pearl Harbor as Operation Democracy Day in Texas. Operations Democrat is sponsored annually by the State American Legion to promote greater citizen participation in local, state and national government affairs. Leading the program for the third straight year is John Ben Shepperd, chairman of the American Legion Americanism committee.

The December 7 program will be highlighted by poll tax sales as a part of the Legion's year-in, year-out campaign to increase the turnout in all elections. State Legion Commander Charlie Gibson announced in Amarillo, "On that day Legionnaires and members of the Legion Auxiliary will be deputized as poll tax collectors in more than 600 communities."

Special luncheons will be staged at noon across the state by the Legion in cooperation with other civic organizations, Gibson said. A poll tax receipt will be required for admission to the luncheons.

Fate Of Nation
In setting aside December 7 as Operation Democracy Day, Governor Shivers referred to the growing lack of interest shown at the polls by the nation's eligible voters. He described the Legion campaign as a program seeking to "make the voice of the people ever more powerful in determining the fate of a nation rich in heritage but poor in acceptance of the ideal that each citizen shall take an active part in local, state and national affairs."

"Democracy at its best will be the ultimate victor over corruption and greed at home and over the forces of communism abroad," the official memorandum declared.

He urged all Texans to participate in the all-day series of programs to dramatize that "fires of freedom still burn bright in confidence of final victory over the forces of evil confronting us today." A morning go-to-church program will open the December 7 observance. Schools have been invited to hold oratorical or essay contests on the subject, "Voting—Insurance of Our Freedom." At 7 p.m. hundreds of "Fires of Freedom" will spring up simultaneously across the state to stress that voters are the keepers of the liberty fires.

Flying Safecracker Covers Many Miles

DENVER—Around Stapleton Airfield, they call Robert Tripe the "flying safecracker."
Tripe has flown more than 10,000 miles on emergency calls when his special skill was needed to snap open a stubborn safe or coax a balky lock to co-operate.
Tripe was an aerial gunner during World War II and had ambitions to become a commercial airline pilot. But he also wanted to get married and the Mrs. Tripe-to-be said she had no desire to become a fly boy's wife.

However, she admits now that in a locksmith's business, there are times when he has to take to the air to get the job done in a hurry.

Ballet Dancing Gives Relief From Arthritis

LOS ANGELES—Mrs. Nellie Anderson, 84, took up ballet dancing a year ago to seek relief from arthritis.
"It worked, too," she says. "I haven't been back to my doctor since." The gray-haired mother of four married daughters said that before she turned to ballet she had spent six months in a wheel-chair and doctors "had all but given me up as a hopeless invalid."
Afraid the arthritis would spread from her legs to other parts of her body, she joined a mother and daughter ballet class and does many of the intricate sequences of the art. Her instructor, Madame Kathryn Etienne, says Mrs. Anderson performs right along with women 40 or 50 years her junior, but "I still won't let her toe dance."

Central Oregon's Wind Cave, a lava tunnel some 12 miles south of Bend, is approximately a mile long and considered one of the best specimens of this type of cave in the nation.

Youth Center Chatter

By GAIL BAKER
Hello, everybody, hello! Here we sit at the typewriter (as we are each week about this time) . . . but this time we don't have a whole lot to tell you.

We do have something very special, though—our new director arrived Monday. He is John Tom Baker (what a coincidence!), but he prefers for everyone to call him "Mert." We noticed that as he was being introduced to many of the YC members, he seemed to really fit in . . . everyone seemed to like him a lot.

Well, chalk up another victory for the Bulldogs! Last Thursday we beat Plainview 24-8. Sure hope we do as well with Breckenridge as we have with most of our opponents this year.

Bright an' early Thursday morning some 111 ole gals surely were feeling good. They were busy chattering and painting away 'til they had most of the neighborhood awake. Jackie Brady, her folks and her sister, Barbara, Betty Campbell and Barbara McMillan were painting the Brady's car, which we must say really looked neat. It had BEAT PLAINVIEW in large letters on each side and THERE GOES MIDLAND on the back. (A few of the Plainview "locals" didn't appreciate it, either!)

They still were in great spirit when they reached Lamesa. At one of the restaurants they walked in and with a "war-whoop" yelled "MIDLAND!" There were few replies from Lamesa and Vernon fans!

Exes Attend Game
We saw a bunch of exes at the game, too—Beverly Kelting from SMU; Bobby Jenkins, Morris Bassham, and Y. E. Brown from Texas Tech; Kenneth Wright from Texas Western; and Swan Haglar from Baylor.

Also Russell Moore, Leo Hatfield, Billy Crissett, Frank Hatfield, Peggy (Charleston) Brooks, Raymond Doyle, Ronnie MacFadden, Harold Drew and Jerry MacDonald (all exes) were at the game.

Over the weekend many more grads, besides those at the game, were home—Buddy Stovall, Earl Chapman, June Hazlip, Max Schaffer, Alan Olson, "Doogie" Cooper, Mary Nell, Bob Burks, Billy Evans, Don Fraser, Lynn Griffith, "Daffy" Tabor, Martha Scharbauer, Tony Dunagan and Russell Huckaby.

Lynn Griffith introduced us to her roommate at Baylor, who was visiting with her over the Thanksgiving holidays. She is Marilyn Jacobs from Dallas.

Friday night the Rainbow Girls sponsored a formal dance, and from some of the comments, it was a huge success.

The Youth Center had a semi-formal Thanksgiving dance Saturday night. Everyone that went had a swell time!

This week we said "goodbye" to Charles Hendrix and Keith Franklin who entered the U. S. Navy. Sure sorry to see you all leave.

Peroxide is back again! Earlene Hancock is very proud of a little curl she has bleached.

Tuesday in homerooms nominations were made for the Best All-Round Boy and Girl.

Basketball Time Again
It doesn't seem like that time again, but it is. The basketball boys have started their practice sessions and training is in order. This year is sure "a-flyin'", isn't it?

Christmas decorations already have been put up, top! And gals have been scurrying around the town looking for new formulas. There are shore some pretty ones, too!

Well, we are all holding our breath until the "big day."

Saturday at 2 p.m. will be the kick-off time for the Midland-Breckenridge game. We surely are hopin' to win—and we have a good chance, too!

Corky Moss, head cheerleader, says there will be another "snake dance" through town Friday night. Everyone really is looking forward to it.

Wedding bells rang out for another ex-MHS couple last Saturday. MISS Jo Underwood, became MRS. Bill Adams Saturday in Carlsbad, N. M. Bill is to be stationed (with the Air Force) in California, and Jo, who now is employed with Shell Oil Company, is going to join him there December 15. Congratulations, Jo and Bill!

Redheads Are With Us
Lee Wood has asked us to say something mean about redheads this week—however, he'll probably murder us when he sees HIS name in here, too! Lee's reason for this is that several girls have put red rinses on their hair. It does look rather . . . well, different!

SOS . . . SOS . . . ANYbody who might be interested in coming to our rescue for two weeks—from December 14 to January 1—please tell us! We are leaving town for that period, and there will be two issue dates unfilled unless aid is forthcoming.

CONVERTIBLE CAR-CYCLO—You might call it a car or a motorcycle, but a better tag would be "convertible." The 4.5 horsepower, three-wheeled vehicle was shown in the international bicycle and motorcycle exhibition at Frankfurt, Germany. Its top, made of plastic, is inflated like a balloon to keep out rain. In fair weather, it's folded into a small handbag. (NEA-Acme photo by Staff Photographer Hans Jaeger.)

WEATHER'S GOT HER DOWN—Doris Walters, St. Louis office worker, had "coffee to go," and it really went when the young lady lost her footing on an icy sidewalk and ended up flat on her back. She didn't really lose her head, as it appears. It's just hidden by snow. Her fellow worker, Peggy Wolkamp, right, assisted to a stop and began rescue operations. The Missouri city was digging itself out from under the worst snowstorm in history for so early in the season.

Mrs. Oldewell asked us to announce there will be a VICTORY dance at the Center Saturday night beginning at 8 p.m. At least we HOPE it's a victory dance. We'll sign off as we came on "Goodbye, everybody, goodbye," till next Thursday.

Lion And Man Bound On Identical Mission

DURANGO, COLO. —(P)—Bob Reilly, out hunting deer, spotted a mountain lion bound on the same mission.

"I drew a bead on it and could have shot it three or four times. Then I got to thinking. There might be a fine for shooting the things—so I let it go."

Reilly thereby lost himself $50. He found out later that's the bounty the state pays for every lion killed.

Jap Competition Becomes Weaker

SINGAPORE —(P)—Japan cannot produce as freely and as cheaply as she could before the war because her workers now demand more pay and better treatment, says Dr. Alagappa Chettiar, a visiting Indian textile magnate.

He said no country need now be afraid of Japan's commercial competition. The change in outlook in Japan, he commented, is healthy for all, including Japan.

Make Cookies From Cake Mix

THESE DELICIOUS HOLIDAY cookies are equally suitable for Christmas gifts or for your own parties.

By GAYNOR MADDOX
NEA Food and Markets Editor

As Christmas gifts or for your own holiday parties, a batch of beautifully flavored and eye-appealing cookies is a festive thought.

Here is the triply tested recipe for the pinwheels, swirls of chocolate and vanilla, made easily with white and devil's food cake mix.

Party Pinwheels
(10 to 12 Dozen Pinwheels)

To make white cake dough: One-half cup butter or margarine (at room temperature), 1 1/4 teaspoon vanilla or almond extract, 1 egg yolk, unbeaten; 1 package instant white cake mix.

Cream butter until soft. Add flavoring and egg yolk; blend. Then add cake mix and work together with spoon, pastry blender, or fingers until dough is formed. (Dough will be firm like pastry.)

To make chocolate dough: One-half cup butter or margarine (at room temperature), 1 1/4 teaspoon vanilla or almond extract, 1 egg yolk, unbeaten; 1 package devil's food cake mix.

Cream butter until soft. Add flavoring and egg yolk; blend. Then add cake mix and proceed as directed above.

To make pinwheels: Roll half of each batch of dough on floured waxed paper into a rectangular shape about 1 1/8 inch thick. Turn the rolled white dough into the rectangular sheet of chocolate dough and remove waxed paper. Roll as for jelly roll. Repeat with remaining dough. Chill until firm.

Cut into 1 1/8-inch slices. Bake on ungreased baking sheet in moderate oven (375 degrees F.) 8 to 10 minutes, or until done. Cool cookies a few minutes before removing from baking sheet.

Note: Part of these cookies may be baked at one time and part at another time. Just keep the rolls wrapped in waxed paper in refrigerator until ready to use.

Door Lock Dates Back 4,000 Years

AP Newfeatures
CHICAGO—Did you know the lock on your door is one of the world's oldest inventions?

It's more than 4,000 years old. A forgotten Egyptian invented it. His solution to the security problem was to house several pins or "tumblers" inside a massive wooden block. When the locking bolt was shot its full length, the tumblers dropped into corresponding holes bored in the bolt. It could only be opened with a key.

The key was a straight piece of wood with pegs on one end. These were located in position opposite the tumblers. When the key was inserted in a slot in the huge lock, the pegs raised the tumblers flush with the top of the bolt. As the key was lifted, the lock was unlocked.

A recent exhibition of antique locks was a feature of the National Builder's Hardware Exposition. Among the collections of ancient locks were those owned by Henry R. Towne, the Rothschilds of Austria, and Andreas Dillinger, a European scientist and collector.

A Valuable Collection

The items traced the history of locks and man's attempts to play sly tricks on thieves. The antique locks were insured for $100,000.

Among the locks was a wooden model imitated with mother of pearl. It worked on the principle of the Egyptian lock. It is said to have been used by King Darius III of Persia about 336 B. C. It was found in excavations at Abydos.

The Romans made wide use of padlocks. This simple device was a favorite lock of all Mediterranean and Eastern peoples, especially the Chinese. But most Roman locks were made of iron and few have survived the rust of time.

The first warded locks seem to have been made by the Etruscans in Northern Italy. They operated on the principle of blocking the turning of the key with obstacles. Only a key with the correct bit would pass the wards and move the bolt. Similar locks are used in homes today.

But through the centuries locksmiths have devised all sorts of combinations of keys and locks to make it difficult to open doors, chests, and cabinets. Multiple key-holes and locks were common.

In 1415, Isabelle of Bavaria, it is said, had a lock made to protect the apartments of her ladies-in-waiting from intruders. The lock required five keys to open it.

Henry II of France probably was the first user of the master key. He placed three separate locks on the door of his mistress's apartment. None of the locks worked with the wrong key, but all three opened with his master key.

A Booby-Trap Lock

An early chest was booby trapped. Its security didn't depend on its lock, but what lay inside. The thief opening the lid saw an empty tray with several holes. It was figured by its designer that it would only be natural for him to thrust his fingers into the holes in order to lift the tray. As the snoopers lifted, a spring snapped shut and his fingers were hopelessly caught.

About 100 years ago several American locksmiths tried new designs. The ambition of every locksmith in that day was to devise an unpickable lock. Contests were held and locksmiths would make a game of picking each other's locks. But the only unpickable locks are time-locks.

The modern cylinder lock employs the principle used in the mechanism of the early Egyptian lock. In Connecticut, Linus Yale, Sr., patented the first cylinder lock in 1844. His son Linus Yale, Jr., improved and perfected it in patents issued in 1861 and 1865. It has become famous as the Yale cylinder lock.

Christmas Party Suggestions

HERE'S PORKY (upper) a perfect gift for hospitable friends. He's a hors d'oeuvres holder made of California redwood. Below are pine millers, used for crushing garlic and spices for salads.

By GAYNOR MADDOX
NEA Food and Markets Editor
This is the season for friendship—and that means parties. My long-time friend, Edith Barber, known all over the country for her ideas on food and entertaining, has just written a valuable and inexpensive little book called "The Party Sampler."

We've been to her parties and they were good. So is her book. Here are some of her buffet supper menus (styled to please men guests, too).

Supper: Baked glazed ham, casserole of sweet potatoes, tossed green salad, buttered rye and white bread, pumpkin or lemon meringue pie, coffee.

Supper: Cold boiled tongue, creamy horseradish sauce, macaroni and cheese, grapefruit salad, hot rolls, party devil's food, coffee.

Supper: Roast turkey, cranberry sauce, scalloped potatoes, old-fashioned cole slaw, hot buttered bread, macaroni-bavarian cream, wreath cookies, coffee.

Supper: Swedish meat balls, potatoes with parsley, braised carrots, endive salad, hot muffins, date torte, coffee.

Her barbecue sauce for beef is an answer to many a hostess' prayer.

Barbecue Sauce for Beef
One-half cup butter or salad oil, 1/2 cup brown sugar, 1 cup chili sauce, 1 cup vinegar, 1 tablespoon chopped onion, 1 clove garlic, peeled and minced, 4 lemon slices, 1 tablespoon Worcestershire sauce.

Combine ingredients and cook over low heat until thoroughly blended. Roast may be brushed with this while cooking or sauce may be served separately.

Looking for an unusual Christmas present for an hospitable friend? Then take a look at the Porky and Piggy snack and hors d'oeuvres holders, hand carved from blocks of California redwood. They have holes for 24 plastic food picks. They are practical and new.

So are the redwood or pine millers in which you crush spices or garlic. Really a novelty geared to the spirit of Christmas giving.

Birds Are Hit By California Drouth
RIVERSIDE, CALIF. — (AP) — Southern California deserts, in the throes of one of the longest dry spells on record, 7 years, are turning an uncolorful gray and even the most drouth resistant shrubs are dying.

Even with the return of normal rainfall, it will take nature many years to replace these plants, said Edmund C. Jaeger, naturalist and authority on desert flora and fauna.

Jaeger said the desert birds have been especially hard hit during the current dry spell. When the plants die the insects disappear, and they are an absolute necessity in the diet of baby birds. "If the mature birds find a scarcity of insects they won't nest," he said. "This means that the birds, naturally short-lived, will die without reproducing."

NO STEPS TAKEN
NANAIMO, B. C. — (AP) — A couple who were rescued from a grounded gasboat were each fined $15 on charges of causing a disturbance. Officers of a police boat that answered their call for help said the couple could have stepped ashore.

Approximately five-eighths of the area of Panama is unoccupied.

LONDON — (AP) — The De Havilland Aircraft Company announced here it expects to deliver late in 1952 two Comet jet airliners ordered by Canadian Pacific Airlines. ## Ingenuity Brings TV To Community

HAZARD, KY. — (AP) — In spite of the surrounding Kentucky hills which hinder reception, local ingenuity has brought television to this little community (pop. 10,000).

Located in a natural bowl, the Hazard residents nonetheless licked their problem by building a large tower atop a 1,900-foot hill and stringing house-to-house coaxial lead-ins. They carved a road to within 200 feet of the peak. Materials were toted the rest of the way by hand. The TV cables were run down the hillside from the tower, strung along poles of the local utility company and fed into the homes of set owners. This gives Hazard reception from two TV stations in Cincinnati, one in Huntington, W. Va., the nearest of which is 90 airline miles away.

DADDY RINGTAIL

Daddy Ringtail And Monkey-Catching

Uncle Bunkum lives at the zoo. He likes to live there in his monkey cage. Why, if Uncle Bunkum wants anything at all, all he has to do is holler. The Monkey Catcher comes running.

Yes, Uncle Bunkum likes to live at the Monkey Catcher's zoo, but Daddy Ringtail, your monkey friend, would not like to live at the zoo at all. Oh no! Daddy Ringtail likes to live in the Great Forest, up in the top of the very tall tree, right there in his monkey house. He likes to have his happy adventures, just as you like to hear about them.

Well, everything would be all right, except the Monkey Catcher sometimes has a feeling of wanting to catch another monkey to live in the cage with Uncle Bunkum. Yes, that Monkey Catcher is a stupid, fat old fellow with a chain-whisker on his chin, but he can cause trouble. Oh my yes, and he was wanting to cause some trouble on the day I am trying to tell you about. It was monkey-catching trouble.

The Monkey Catcher drove his firetruck out of his garage. A firetruck is a happy thing to have, you know, if ever there is a fire. But there wasn't now a fire. Oh no! The firetruck now was to be used for monkey-catching mischief.

The Monkey Catcher put all his monkey-catching things in the firetruck. He put in a net, and a trap, and a rope, and his Monkey-Catcher cap, and some scrambled coconut, and he even put in a book he had bought. The name of the book was "HOW TO CATCH A MONKEY."

At last the Monkey Catcher climbed in the firetruck seat and started the motor. He drove away with the motor roaring and the siren making its siren noise. Yes, and the firetruck bell was ringing too. This noise woke Uncle Bunkum when he was sleeping in his monkey cage. "Help! Help!" shouted Uncle Bunkum when he saw what the trouble was. It was monkey-catching trouble! "Help! Help! Save Daddy Ringtail!"

But there was no one to save Daddy Ringtail, and so Uncle Bunkum slipped out a secret door in the bottom of his cage. He hurried away to go to the forest and save Daddy Ringtail himself. Yes, people do things themselves, when there's no one else to do them, and that's the story I'll tell you tomorrow. Happy day! (Copyright 1961, General Features Corp.)

Fine Cosmetics Offer Package Luxury Gifts

By ALICIA HART

Few things please a woman more at Christmastime than small offerings of packaged luxury—the sort of thing she continually yearns for, but somehow never gets around to buying.

Fine cosmetics come under this heading, particularly for those women on your list who limit their own purchasing strictly to work-a-day make-up. For them, it's really femininity and glamor you're presenting when you choose a fine dusting powder, an exciting perfume, or an extravagantly-packaged lipstick.

For elegance-on-a-budget, you'd be sure to please with a richly-brocaded little evening purse that Luxury at budget prices is offered by these two gifts in elegant brocade. Attractive jewelry box (left) contains three purse-sized bottles of perfume nestled within its removable tray. Tiny evening purse (right) contains mirrored compact and has a loop at top for lipstick case. Present them separately, or as duo.

This stalwart snowman, standing poised before his drum of dusting powder, conceals a bottle of cologne beneath his sparkling white jacket.

Smiling in anticipation of her mother's pleasure in her choice, this little girl happily ties skin sachet into perky package. Trio of hand lotion, beside her, is next for wrapping.

contains a small mirrored compact fitted with its own automatic powder puff. Lipstick fits into a brocaded loop at the top.

Designed also to make a woman feel cherished is a brocaded jewelry box which contains, nestled in the removable silk-lined tray, a selection of three purse-size perfumes.

If you're seeking something in perfume that will grace her dressing table with magnificence, a new scent by a noted French perfume house is an excellent choice. The bottle, resting in a white satin niche, is patterned lavishly with gold leaf, contains a matching stopper laced with gold.

Also for the luxury-gift lists of discriminating shoppers this year are dusting powders so lavish both in quantity and quality as to make a woman feel beloved for months to come.

Nearly two-and-a-half pounds are contained in a box of red silk for those with tailored tastes. A somewhat smaller box, containing a still-generous quantity of 19 ounces, is the height of feminine frivolity in pink or blue shirred chiffon. Also for the tailored woman is a bath powder in a celebrated French scent, boxed handsomely in black and white hound's tooth check.

If you like a bit of whimsy at Christmastime, an elfish Santa with a minute round nose peeking out above a fluffy beard is a good choice for you. His body is a bottle of cologne, one arm a matching purse perfume, and the other arm a color-right lipstick.

Lipsticks are lavish this year. If you're feeling extravagant, take your choice of lipstick cases sheathed in ranch mink, ermine, broad-tail or leopard. Or, if gems are more to your fancy than fur, a red suede case be-dazzled with bogus turquoise may take your eye.

Those who feel they wish their gifts to be a little more special than simply a bottle of cologne or a box of dusting powder may find a happy answer in a duo of these cosmetic products offered by a well-known firm.

A snowman, concealing under his white snow-fountain rotundity a bottle of magnolia-scented cologne, boasts merrily upon a drum which is in actuality a box of fragrance-matched bath powder.

Small fry who are looking for attention-flagging gifts for mother at penny-bank prices might consider a new trio of hand lotions packaged in a transparent case to show their delicate colors. The lotions, one pink, one blue and one ivory, are all scented with the light fragrance of blondest fresh flowers.

Another gift well within the reach of juvenile purses is liquid skin sachet, which is distributed for Christmas in a see-through pyramid twinkling with stars and angels.

New Firm Starts Producing TV Sets

CLEVELAND—(AP)—A new firm said it had started production of a home television set that will project an image 30 by 40 inches on a beaded screen.

D. M. Kerr, president of the Visionic Company, said the projection device is based on the Schmidt optical system, a Dutch invention manufactured in this country by North American Phillips Company of Mount Vernon, N.Y.

REAL REASON

There are some justification for the idea that rattlesnakes do not live where white ash trees grow. White ash grows generally on a rich, moist soil in thick woods and near water, while rattlesnakes prefer, as a rule, open, dry, stony, sunny places. Thus, they are not likely to be together.

For Sunday night supper arrange thin slices of broiled ham on split toasted English muffins; top with poached eggs and Hollandaise or rich Cream Sauce. Garnish with sprigs of parsley.

WORLD TRADE CENTER—This is the architect's conception of the proposed $75,000,000 World Trade Center to be erected along the San Francisco waterfront opposite Market Street. Six massive structures dominated by a 30-story center tower would be on the site of the famous ferry building. The plan provides centers for the Pacific area, Pan-America, Europe, auditoriums and exposition halls as well as docks for ocean liners. There would be offices and exhibition space for importers and exporters, trade associations, foreign consulates, banks, custom brokers, transportation agencies and showrooms for domestic and foreign products.

Christmas Breakfast Menu

Cranberry butter sauce, poured over breakfast waffles, gets Christmas off to a happy start.

By GAYNOR MADDOX

Christmas is a busy day—and all to the good. Nevertheless Christmas breakfast should be important—it's the first meeting of the excited family on one of the greatest days of the year. The meal should be substantial but not elaborate. There's a new cranberry butter sauce, Christmas red in color, that suggests hot waffles or griddle cakes.

Cranberry-Butter Sauce
(Makes about 1 3/4 cup)
One cup brown sugar, 1 2 cup water, 2 cups fresh cranberries, 1 2 cup butter or margarine.

Boil sugar and water together 5 minutes. Add cranberries and boil, without stirring, until cranberries pop—about 5 minutes. Stir in margarine; boil 2-3 minutes longer. Serve hot over pancakes or waffles.
With the waffles and cranberry butter, have fruit juice first, then crisp bacon or little link pork sausages.

Another menu suggestion for the Christmas stocking breakfast is this to eat meal: Orange juice, oven-baked eggs and bacon, drop biscuits, butter, strawberry jam, coffee, milk.
The biscuits, bacon and eggs for this breakfast are done in the oven at the same time. The biscuits are put in first, then the bacon and eggs after 10 minutes. At the end of 20 minutes—breakfast is ready. While breakfast is cooking in the oven prepare the orange juice—fresh or frozen—and set the table.

Drop Biscuits
(14 to 16 biscuits)
Use prepared biscuit mix and follow package directions, or sift together 2 cups sifted flour, 3 teaspoons baking powder, and 1 teaspoon salt. Cut in 4 tablespoons shortening with pastry blender until the mixture resembles coarse corn meal. Add 1 cup milk stirring with a fork. Drop by tablespoonfuls on baking sheet or turn into greased muffin pans. Bake in a moderately hot oven (400 degrees F.) 20 minutes.

Oven Baked Eggs
Use individual baking dish or 1 large shallow baking dish. Grease baking dish, carefully break in 1 or 2 eggs in each dish; add 1 tablespoon cream or top milk for each egg; sprinkle with salt and pepper and dot with butter. Bake in moderately hot oven (400 degrees F.) 10 minutes or until firm.

Oven Cooked Bacon
Put strips on rack and place in shallow pan. Bake in moderately hot oven (400 degrees F.) 10 minutes, or until crisp.

For a little extra Yuletide early in the day eating, these two recipes have holly in their heart.

Tabasco Scrambled Eggs with Sausage
(6 servings)
One dozen eggs, 3 4 cup milk, 1 tablespoon salt, 1 2 teaspoon Tabasco, 1 4 cup butter or margarine.
Beat eggs with milk, salt and Tabasco until well combined. Melt butter in large skillet; pour in egg mixture. Cook over medium heat, stirring bottom and sides as eggs become firm. Continue until eggs are thick and creamy. Serve immediately with link sausage.

Sausage
Place link sausage in cold skillet and cook over low heat, turning frequently until browned, about 12 to 15 minutes. Pour off fat as it accumulates.

MALARIA EPIDEMIC
JOHORE, BAHRU, MALAYA — A malaria epidemic ravaged the village of Bengit and killed 134 persons before being stamped out, a Johore medical officer reports. At one stage 80 per cent of the residents were infected with the disease. The epidemic started last January.

If a recipe for angel food cake calls for a cup of egg whites, you will need the whites from eight to 10 eggs.

Navy Hero Receives Frigid Assignment

BOSTON—(AP)—Commander Robert (PT) Kelly, who won fame in World War II as the skipper of an "expedient" tiny torpedo-boat squadron in the hot Southwestern Pacific, now has a much colder assignment.

He recently returned from the Arctic where the icebreaker Atka, which Kelly commanded, brought supplies to U.S. stations there. The Atka led the "interference" through the icefields for cargo ships which followed close astern.

In some of the darkest days of U.S. history, Kelly was in command of the lead boat in the four-craft PT squadron which evacuated Gen. Douglas MacArthur, his family and staff from Corregidor in 1942.

Kelly, 38, was appointed to the U.S. Naval Academy in 1931. He makes his home in Somerville, Mass.

Dressing For Ski Jumping Expensive

DENVER—(AP)—Plenty of skiers dress for less, but a de luxe outfit can cost as much as $250.

Let's assume you want a pair of the new Head skis which have become quite popular in the West in the last few years. The cost is about $75 a pair. A new ski boot... making its appearance here has a $1.50 price tag. You can pay as high as $40 for ski pants, $40 for a hand-knit sweater, $10 for gloves, $12 for poles, $5 for a hat, $7 for glasses, $3 for socks and $10 for "longies."

Of course, you can always pull on blue jeans or a pair of old wool slacks, dig out a couple of sweaters and then rent skis, poles and boots from a sporting goods store for $250 a weekend.

Santa's Gift To Midland

Santa Claus visited Midland Tuesday night, and along with the candy he brought the youngsters, he had glad tidings of good cheer for water-conscious Midlanders in the form of a water report received by the City Council the same evening.

The encouraging report, prepared and submitted by a consulting engineer, estimates that land held under option by the city as a new source of water supply, is capable of producing water, along with the present capacity, to adequately supply the demands of 50,000 to 60,000 persons.

The City Council immediately authorized the purchase of two sections of land and ordered exploratory work to continue on adjoining properties. The cost of the two sections is $128,000—a fairly reasonable figure in the face of its estimated average producing capacity of 3,000,000 gallons of water daily.

The engineer's report was even more encouraging concerning adjoining land, which may be even more prolific. The entire area, it is estimated, is capable of more than doubling the city's present capacity, which hit a record high this year.

Still more encouraging is the statement that the quality of the new water is as good or perhaps better than the present water supply.

Yes, Santa Claus was on the job early in so far as the city of Midland is concerned, but we must admit he had considerable help from the West Texas Geological Society, which recommended exploratory work in this particular section after having made an extensive study of water possibilities in the area.

It is said the work done by the geological society on the project saved the City of Midland perhaps a million dollars. Surely, the West Texas Geological Society, with headquarters here, is deserving of all the thanks and appreciation Midlanders can bestow upon it.

The development of this new water supply, of course, perhaps a year and a million dollars in the future, but the important thing is that water to meet the ever-increasing needs of this fast-growing headquarters city is available, and fairly close by.

In the meantime, work done on the present wells reportedly will increase the available supply next Summer 1,200,000 gallons daily. The city manager says the beds of the city next Summer can and will be met, which another encouraging factor.

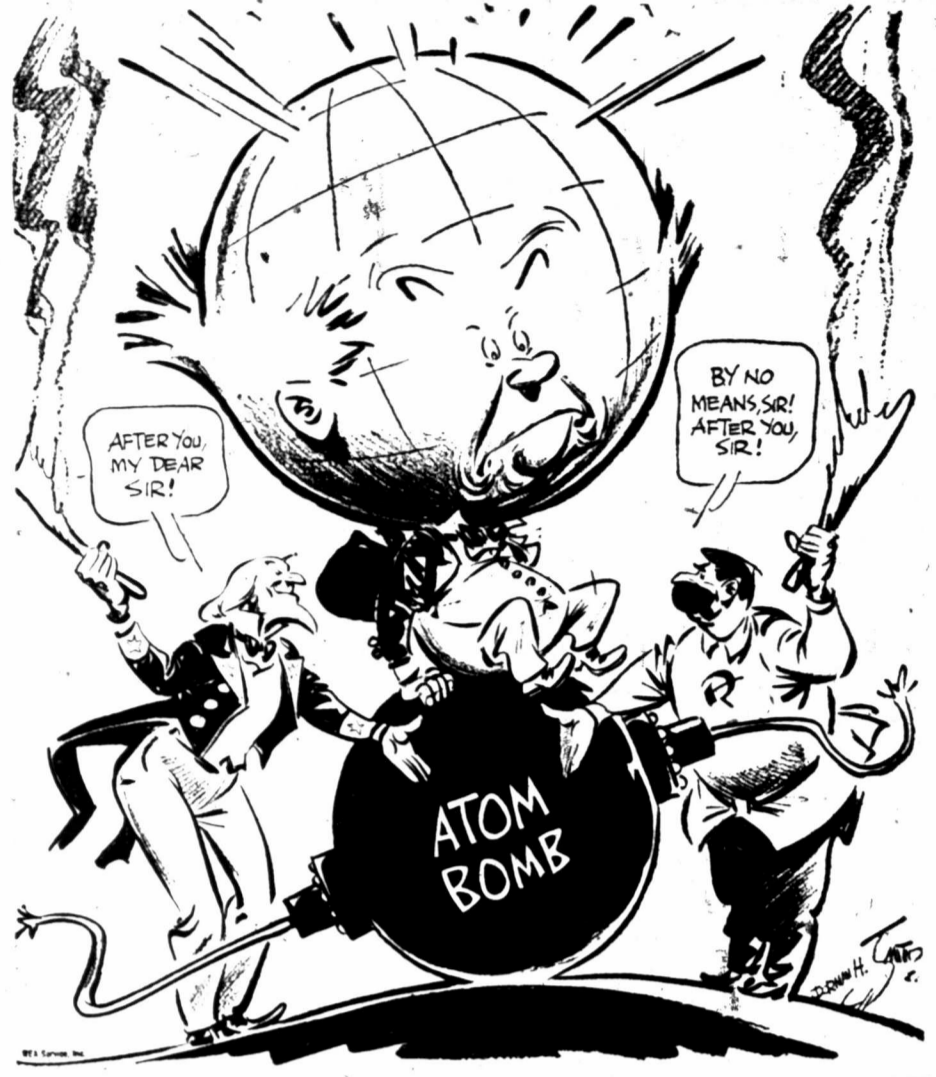

All in all, it appears that Midland's water situation is hand for at least the time being—a fortunate condition indeed in West Texas.

The water program cannot and must not end here, however. First must come the prompt development of a new source, and then must follow a continued program of exploration to discover new fields to meet the expected demands of the even greater Midland of the future.

Cool, cool water—and lots of it.

Middle East Defense Problem Still Needs Practical Solution

By PETER EDSON. NEA Washington Correspondent.

PARIS—The question of command for Middle East defense against Soviet aggression still is regarded as "a can of worms" at General Eisenhower's SHAPE headquarters here.

Middle East defense problem is considered so big it can't all be solved at once. Bites will have to be taken on it one at a time.

While Turkey and Greece want to be counted in Eisenhower's command, there is much feeling here that the whole Middle East is too far away from SHAPE headquarters for control.

Simplest explanation of General Eisenhower's NATO defense plan is to consider Western Europe as a peninsula which must be protected from invasion.

Biggest eyesore on the landscape near this capital is the vast number of uncompleted buildings.

By 1948, when Tito broke with Moscow, Yugoslavs had made great sacrifices to contribute their 73 per cent of the cost.

Yugoslavia paid heavily in corn, timber and minerals, but got only a few pieces of machinery from Eastern Germany.

There's a story here about the man from Montenegro who saw the first shipment of American supplies come into Yugoslavia.

"What gratitude the Americans have, to send us such fine, white flour, such warm underwear and such strong shoes."

"Logical, isn't it? Besides, I found out a good deal today."

HE refused to explain further. Despite the waiter's annoyed looks, they ordered more coffee and lingered until Aaron Riggs and his blond stood up to leave.

"The client foots the bill. Modern authors give unlimited expense accounts to these cel-brained shamuses they create."

They followed a block behind Aaron Riggs' car. He drove with the same maddening slowness he had in Avondale.

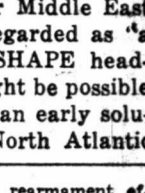

"He had to draw the line somewhere, I suppose."

"Can you help me out? I'm to meet a friend of mine here. He's with a tall, attractive blond lady who has an apartment in this building."

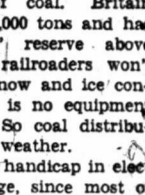

"Don't bother," Bill said quickly. "We're expected."

Volcanoes Expert Will Make Movie

AUSTIN—A University of Texas expert on volcanoes will make a movie on Stromboli.

Dr. Fred M. Bullard, professor of geology, will film the island's volcanoes as part of scientific studies to be conducted in the area of the Italian peninsula and Sicily.

The volcanologist who has made investigations in Hawaii, Mexico and Central America, will leave in February for a year's study of the "classic" volcanoes, including Vesuvius and Mount Etna.

On a Fulbright fellowship, he will be attached to the University of Naples.

"Volcanoes offer our best means of studying the earth's interior," Dr. Bullard said. "And there appears to be a definite relationship between them and earthquakes."

Dr. Bullard will seek basic information on the classic volcanoes for comparison with those on the American continent. "There is relatively little information available on Western Hemisphere volcanoes," he explained. "Some are yet to be explored."

Professor's Work To Shed New Light On French Period

AUSTIN—New light will be shed on an exciting period in French history—1820 to 1860—when the University of Texas professor edits letters purchased by the Library for its Rare Books Collections.

Dr. Aaron Schaffer, Romance Languages chairman, has been granted a research leave for the Spring semester to edit 294 letters of Emile Deschamps, one of the leaders of the French Romantic movement. Deschamps was closely associated with Victor Hugo and other prominent writers, such important composers as Berlioz and Meyerbeer and well-known painters and sculptors.

The letters reflect much of the artistic, political and social activities of France from 1820 to 1860," Dr. Schaffer reports.

Once-Gay Vienna Becomes Drab City Under Four-Power Control

Vienna's people are shabbily-dressed, reflecting their post-war change. These businessmen stop on the way home to read the latest news from the Wiener Kurier, the newspaper issued by the U. S. Information Service, on the fashionable Kaerntnerstrasse.

Vienna's beauty still exists, physically at least. This is the Stefans Platz, the heart of the city, with the beautiful Gothic Stefans Cathedral. The church was burned by withdrawing Nazi troops, but the roof has recently been refitted.

Vienna's sensitivity is offended by the gaudy, showy Red display hung on the "Burg," or Castle of Vienna. The building, which houses the Russian Army headquarters in the city, is decorated with a big Red star and a portrait of Stalin.

VIENNA, AUSTRIA—(NEA)—power red tape and the shortage of raw materials. Once the capital of wine and music, Vienna is today living only on its memories. Tourists are the main source of income in this city of almost 2,000,000, which witnessed some of the heaviest fighting between Russian and Nazi troops as the war drew to its close. Most of the large prewar factories were either destroyed or else they are virtual shut-down because of four-is broken only by the Russians' blue-and-red uniforms and the khaki and green worn by the U. S., British and French occupying troops. Most newcomers blame the occupation for the disappointing lack of "gemuetlichkeit" (good fellowship) but Viennese despondency is traceable to deeper reasons. Most Viennese bear little resentment against any of the four occupying powers as such. They would like to see the Russians go home but they would also like to see the western powers go home. They have politely named two of the city's best known squares "Roosevelt Platz" and "Stalin Platz."

Some sensitive Viennese, and most foreign tourists, are offended by the gaudy red stars and the showy portraits of Stalin and Lenin which look down upon the sleepy city from most of the beautiful palaces occupied by the Red Army. The "Burg," or Castle of Vienna, in which gaily-dressed soldiers and their ladies waltzed through the nights before World War I, is headquarters of the Russian Army in Vienna. Most Viennese give it a wide berth to avoid running into the stiff Russian patrols walking across the once-beautiful Belvedere gardens facing the castle, or to avoid looking at the unsmiling faces of Stalin and Lenin staring from the ancient and sedate building.

But those less fortunate find Vienna a drab gray city. The monotony of shabbily-dressed people a tourist has to leave the inner city, which is controlled in turn by the four powers, and spend an afternoon in the Prater, now in the Russian zone. But here, too, the presence of troops may spoil the enjoyment of the pleasant amusement park. The Schoenbrunn palace and garden in the British zone, once the residence of Emperor Francis Joseph and until recently headquarters of the British Army, is a favorite with Viennese housewives taking their children for an afternoon in the park. But the best way of spending a real Viennese afternoon is in one of the many coffee houses which line the main streets, especially the famous Ring-strasse which runs around the inner city. Here, for about 30 shillings ($1.20), the delicious pastries, "cafe mit schlag" (coffee with whipped cream), and the melodious Viennese waltzes played by aging musicians will recapture the atmosphere of the Vienna of 50 years ago. To the hard-tolling Viennese, however, the problem is not whether times are as pleasant now as they once were. They would like the Big Four to get together, sign a workable peace treaty and then go home for good. They feel that once left alone, they can get back some of this city's prosperity and the charm will follow automatically. To find some of this city's charm,

Moscow Orders West Europe Reds To Speed NATO 'Downfall' By Strikes, Sabotage

PARIS—(NEA)—Cominform orders which may give some clue to Moscow's latest strategy in the hot-cold war have been issued to all Red parties in the West, according to French Communist sources.

"The fate of the dying capitalist order has finally been sealed," the Kremlin's instructions to its fifth columns state. "The relation of forces on the international arena is becoming increasingly unfavorable for the imperialist (Western) camp."

Faithful Reds are therefore urged to speed the "disintegration" of the North Atlantic Treaty countries through political strikes, violence and increased acts of sabotage.

The orders were the main topic of discussion at a secret meeting of the Cominform in East Berlin November 15. To encourage Western Reds, they listed four "major defeats" already "suffered by the international reactionaries":

1. The creation of the Chinese People's Republic and the "historic victory" of the Chinese people.
2. The establishment of the pro-Soviet German "Democratic" Republic.
3. The "victory of communism" in the countries behind the Iron Curtain.
4. The "national liberation upsurge" in Korea, Iran, Egypt, North Africa and other "colonial" and dependent countries.

Moscow is obviously convinced that "the undermined position and growing weakness" of the West "add to the rage of the imperialists."

But the western democracies are not expected by the Soviet Politburo to "withdraw voluntarily from the historical arena." On the contrary, "the aggressiveness of the imperialist camp headed by the United States is being intensified."

Western Communists have been ordered to exert every effort to

Children Can Make Candies

EVEN CHILDREN CAN make these tempting marshmallow krisps which would delight Mother or Grandma as a Christmas gift.

NEA Food and Markets Editor
Imagine grandma's surprise if her favorite grandchild gives her a box of Christmas marshmallow krisps he made all by himself. Or mother's delight if her little daughter presents her with a holly-wrapped box of chocolate cherries she had made in secret? Well, such things are possible. Our own young son actually tested these recipes, himself—with only a little restrained supervision. So we know other youngsters can make them, too. And they taste good, too.

Marshmallow Krisps
(Makes 24 2 1/4-inch Squares)
One-quarter cup butter, 1/2 pound marshmallows (about 32 marshmallows), 5 cups oven-popped rice cereal.
In a double boiler, cook over hot water butter and marshmallows until syrupy. Beat thoroughly. Put oven-popped rice cereal into a greased bowl and pour on marshmallow mixture, stirring briskly. Press into greased shallow pan, 9x13 inches. Cut into squares when cool.

Easy Chocolate Cherries
(Makes 3-4 Dozen Chocolate-Covered Cherries)
2 tablespoons butter, 3 1/2 tablespoons marshmallows (about 40 cherries), One cup drained whole marshmallows cold water, 13/4-pound package fudge mix.
Place cherries on paper towel. In the top of a double boiler, over boiling water, combine butter and cold water. When melted, add contents of package of fudge mix. Stir 3-4 minutes, or until glossy. Pick up marshmallow cherries with prongs of fork; dip in fudge mix, turning to coat evenly.
Push off with another fork onto waxed paper. Repeat until all cherries have been dipped. Let harden thoroughly before storing in a covered box.

Ohio Grandparents Use Up Old Tuition
CINCINNATI, OHIO —(AP)— A pair of grandparents who had some unused tuition coming to them from the University of Cincinnati decided recently to use it up.
Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Wulffhorst had withdrawn from school in 1923 because of a change in Wulffhorst's employment after he had earned a bachelor of science degree in five and one-half years of evening school study. In the meantime they have raised a family of three and now have three grandchildren.
Although the university now has a five-year limit on credit memos for tuition the crumbling yellow slips were honored and grandma and grandpa are now back in school.

Alec Templeton Gets His Pheasant
ESTHERVILLE, IOWA —(AP)— Alec Templeton, the blind pianist, did better than a lot of Iowa hunters—he got his pheasant.
This occurred recently when Templeton came to Estherville to appear in a concert. A pheasant struck the car in which Mr. and Mrs. Templeton were riding.
Templeton picked up the bird and had it prepared for his dinner at an Estherville hotel. He remarked that the pheasant struck his car "in the pitch of E flat."
