

C-N Midland Project Sets Pipe And Will Test Several Zones

The Blackwood & Nichols Company No. 1 B. L. Moss, Central-North Midland County wildcat is bottomed at 13,161 feet in Ellenburger dolomite and is to set and cement 5 1/2-inch casing at the total depth and then make production tests.

Previously the total depth had been reported as 13,140 feet. An electric log corrected that point to make it 13,161 feet.

Top on the Ellenburger on the old measurements was at 12,949 feet. Elevation is 2,829 feet.

Several Possible Pans This exploration, located five miles northwest of the city of Midland has indicated some possibilities of production in the Ellenburger, the Fusselman, the Devonian and in the Spraberry.

Operator will start from the bottom up and test each of those possible producing zones through perforations in the casing.

It is currently planned to stop and complete from the first pay that may be developed.

Location is 660 feet from north and west lines of section 9, block X, H. P. Hilliard survey.

None of the sections to be tested have shown any great amount of free oil or gas. However, the drilling samples and the electric log indicate that there could be petroleum in each of the four possible pay sections.

Testing Of Sterling Prospect To Await Building Of Tanks

Honolulu Oil Corporation No. 1-A A. A. Sugg, Southwest Sterling County wildcat which has indicated the discovery of a new oil field from the Spraberry is shut in to allow operator to build tanks to provide storage for making extended production tests.

This exploration, located 15 miles southwest of Sterling City, and 660 feet from south and east lines of section 55, block 2, T&P survey, had flowed oil at the estimated rate of seven barrels per hour, naturally, during a drillstem test in the top of the Spraberry at 5,131-51 feet.

There was no formation water. The flow came during a four hour and 45 minute drillstem test. Gas surfaced in 20 minutes and oil started flowing at the top in one hour and eight minutes.

The oil flowed through a 5 8/16-inch bottom hole choke for the remainder of the test period. All the fluid which was left in the drill pipe when the tester was closed was clean oil. Amount of the oil has not been reported.

After that test was completed operator ran tubing and loaded the hole with oil and swabbed the project. It kicked off and flowed eight hours through a 1 1/4-inch choke.

A total of 200 barrels of oil was recovered during that eight-hour period. That filled all storage on the lease and the well was then shut in.

Operator representatives calculate that there was about 200 barrels of load and drilling oil in the hole when the flowing started.

They are unable to tell whether any of the oil which was recovered during the eight hours of testing was new oil or all load oil.

Expected To Flow Interested observers feel sure the wildcat will flow new oil in commercial amounts when all of the load has been brought back to the surface. That is evidenced by the seven-barrel per hour flow on the drillstem test.

It is expected that the extended production tests will be started early next week. Most interested operators expect Honolulu No. 1-A Sugg to be completed as a flowing producer and the opener of a new Spraberry oil field.

Five Oil Workers Die In Crash

Cars Smash Headon At High Speed

Five Midland oil field workers were killed Wednesday night when the two automobiles in which they were riding collided headon at a terrific speed 18 miles south of Midland on the Rankin Highway.

The dead: Weston Leonard Townsend, 38, 313 East Oak Street, driver of one of the automobiles. James Alexander Wales, 18, 405 East Mississippi Street, a passenger.

James Junior Almond, 25, 900 South Johnston Street, another passenger. Thomas Elmer Bennett, 49, 106 West Louisiana Street, another passenger.

Reuben Lengfeld, no age or address available, driver of the second automobile.

Wales and Lengfeld apparently were killed instantly. Townsend and Bennett died en route to a Midland hospital, and Almond died in a Midland hospital at 2:45 a.m.

Townsend and the three men in his car were members of a drilling crew and were employed by the Midwestern Drilling Company of Midland.

Vehicles Demolished State Highway Patrolman Oesle Renfrow said both vehicles were demolished by the impact and three of the men were pinned in the wreckage.

The accident occurred as Townsend and the members of his crew were heading south to report for work.

As they reached a point 18 miles south of Midland, Lengfeld's automobile was approaching from the south, headed toward Midland.

Details of the crash were furnished by Hugh Weathersby and F. E. Siever, both employees of the Technical Oil Tool Corporation of Odessa.

Weathersby told Justice of the Peace L. C. Stephenson that he and Siever were driving home from the Driv-er oil field south of Midland about 10:30 p.m.

"We saw the car with the four men in it approaching us," Siever explained, later, "and then saw the lights of a car behind us."

"We were going along about 55 or 60 miles an hour but the car behind us quickly caught up. It was traveling at a terrific speed."

He said that as he and Weathersby approached the automobile head-on (Continued On Page 10)

Guarantee Is Asked Against Repetition Of 'March Of Death'

MUNSAN, KOREA.—(P)—The Allies Thursday demanded the Reds guarantee there would be no "death march" of Allied prisoners in Korea.

"No progress of any sort" was reported by a truce subcommittee on prisoners, but spokesmen for both sides indicated another subcommittee soon might break a 17-day deadlock on how to police an armistice.

An official UN command spokesman said the Reds may hold many prisoners in camps far to the east of Panmunjom, where the Communists want to trade prisoners.

"We don't want our prisoners to have to walk hundreds of miles," said Lt. Col. Howard S. Levie. "We don't want a (Bataan) death march in reverse."

A tough talking American admiral told the Reds there would be no "blind payment" on prisoner exchange until the Communists gave assurances of the safety of Allied fighting men they hold.

Sinister Reason Seen Levie said statements of Rear Adm. R. E. Libby implied "the Communists have some sinister reason for withholding information."

Levie said the United Nations wants the Communists' prisoner lists now because "if we get the names of five, 10 or 15,000 we will know that we will get at least that number back. If we get a figure we consider completely out of line with our estimates, there is going to be quite a bit of discussion before we come to agreement."

The two subcommittees will meet in Panmunjom again at 11 a.m. Friday.

Chinese Maj. Gen. Heeh Pang opened Thursday's truce supervision session with a 45-minute tirade against the latest UN proposal. Then he expressed confidence a solution could be found if both sides searched for one.

Four Die, Damage Heavy In Collapse Of Big Water Tank

TUCUMCARI, N. M.—(P)—A 3,000,000-gallon water tank collapsed before dawn, killed four persons, and caused damage estimated in millions here Thursday.

Giving way with a deep rumble, the tank loosed a flood through the business district about 4:10 a.m. The cause was not determined.

Water up to waist deep spread devastation over an area three blocks wide and, in a lessening degree as the distance grew, a quarter-mile long.

Two business places, the City Warehouse and about 15 homes, mostly of adobe, were laid waste. Another establishment, a motor firm, was damaged by water. Pieces of three-eighths-inch thick steel from the tank were scattered over a city block.

Bodies Recovered Rescuers, including quickly mobilized National Guardsmen, recovered four bodies and there were no reports of any persons missing. The last to be found, a boy three or four years old, was under a 250-foot section of the tank.

The dead, after a recheck, were identified as: Dee T. Elliott, 44. Mrs. Elliott, his wife, 43. Tony Elliott, one of couple's 18-month-old twin sons. Steve Gallegos, 13.

The tank was one of several supplying the 11,000 residents of this Eastern New Mexico city. Its collapse left Tucumcari without water.

"I don't know what'll do in case of fire," Editor Walt Rogal of the Tucumcari Daily News said.

There also was a brief power failure immediately afterward.

Engineers said the tank did not explode and definitely was not over-loaded or under excessive pressure. Several persons told of seeing a blue flame (Continued On Page Ten)

Mediation Service Moves Into Steel Wage Negotiations

WASHINGTON.—(P)—The Federal Mediation Service Thursday moved into the steel wage negotiations at Pittsburgh.

Mediation Chief Cyrus S. Ching announced he has asked Clyde M. Mills, assistant director, and Walter A. Maggioni, acting general counsel, to confer with representatives of the CIO Steel Workers and the steel industry.

Ching said the two would meet with the representatives Thursday and Friday and report back to him on the status of negotiations.

The CIO union and U. S. Steel Corporation, bellwether of the industry, have been negotiating on a new contract for three weeks.

The union has said publicly it wants a substantial wage increase over the average hourly $1.95 pay its million members now earn. It also is seeking a union shop, a guaranteed annual wage, and improved premium and incentive pay.

The same demands have been presented to most of the other steel producers, who usually wait for a U. S. Steel settlement to follow as a pattern.

The contract between U. S. Steel and the CIO is due to expire December 31, leaving the workers free to strike.

A spokesman for the mediation service said Ching's announcement is a "formal preliminary step" on the part of the service.

Asked if this meant negotiations have struck a snag, he declined to comment.

LATE NEWS FLASHES

CHICAGO.—(P)—The village president of suburban Cicero and six other persons were indicted Thursday by a federal grand jury which investigated race rioting in Cicero last Summer.

PARIS, TEXAS.—(P)—Postal inspectors Thursday filed charges of theft against George L. Smith, 51, of Mount Pleasant, who operates a motor car on the Mount Pleasant to Paris Railroad. The inspectors said the thefts involved approximately $2,500 worth of women's clothing taken from parcel post packages.

WITH U. S. FIFTH AIR FORCE, KOREA.—(P)—Despite Thursday's record-breaking victories over Communist MIG's, the Fifth Air Force cautioned against wishful thinking that the Reds are fading out of the North Korean skies.

SURE SIGN OF CHRISTMAS—When crowds like this jam Petticoat Lane, famed Sunday-morning street market in London's East End, it's a sure sign the Christmas shopping season is here. It's almost enough to remind you of your favorite department store. In Petticoat Lane, there's scarcely a limit to the variety of merchandise available to bargain-hunters these days.

Job Must Be Completed

This city's "Clean-Up Midland for Christmas" campaign got off to a marvelous start Wednesday, but the pick-up phase of the drive was only half completed in the one-day effort.

More than 200 truckloads of trash and debris were hauled to the specified dump pit, but at least that much more rubbish still is stacked in alleys, awaiting removal.

Actually, the situation is worse now than it was prior to the clean-up campaign. There is a great concentration of debris of all kinds, many alleys literally being blocked by the accumulations of rubbish of all kinds. The trash must be picked up and hauled to the dumping grounds immediately.

The response on the part of householders in the drive was excellent. It appears they cleaned their properties as never before, stacking the debris in the alleys. The cooperation from business firms who had been asked to furnish trucks and volunteer laborers, however, was not so good.

The 30 or more trucks on the job Wednesday were furnished mostly by oil companies. There were few volunteer laborers. Several trucks were released because there was no personnel to man them.

Now, another appeal is issued by Mayor Perry Pickett to Midlanders to "roll up their sleeves and complete this important assignment."

Friday is the day set to complete the task. Thirty to 50 trucks and 150 to 200 volunteer laborers are needed to get the job done. The cooperation and assistance of all individuals and business firms is urged.

To turn the job over to the city now would stymie its regular trash and garbage pick-up service for months. The clean-up task was launched by Midlanders in good faith. IT MUST be completed in the same manner.

Let's gather at 700 South Main Street at 8 a.m. Friday to finish this all-important assignment in typical Midland fashion.

Injuries Are Fatal To Billy Cornwell

Billy Cornwell, 22-year-old trucking company employe, died in a Midland hospital Wednesday night of injuries suffered December 4 when pipe fell on him as he was unloading it in the Tex-Harvey field.

Cornwell had been hospitalized since that time. He was an employe of Cox's Trucks. He had been in Midland only four days when the accident occurred.

Funeral services will be held at 3:30 p.m. Friday in the First Baptist Church at Gorman, Texas.

Survivors include: the widow, Mrs. Margie Nell Cornwell, Gorman; a daughter, Brenda Elise, Gorman; the parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Cornwell, Gorman; four brothers, C. W. of Whiteface, I. V. of Ventura, Calif., George of San Antonio and Curtis of Dublin; three sisters, Mrs. N. F. Dennis of Gorman, Mrs. W. M. Brown of San Antonio and Mrs. Ed Harvey of Colorado City; a half-brother, Odell Cornwell of Edgewood, Texas, and a half-sister, Mrs. C. C. Hale of Willis Point, Texas.

Cornwell was a member of the Masonic Lodge.

West Texan, Top Jet Ace, Bags Four To Bring U. S. Fliers' Total For Day To 13

SEOUL, KOREA.—(P)—American Sabre jet pilots won history's biggest all-jet victory Thursday. They bagged 13 Communist MIG's probably knocked down two others and damaged one in two slashing air battles over North Korea.

Four of the MIG's went down before the blazing guns of America's hottest jet ace, Maj. George A. Davis, Jr., of Lubbock, Texas. In 16 days Davis has bagged 12 planes, including nine MIG's.

On the ground, a series of minor battles flared as Allied infantrymen carried the war to the Reds for the second time in 24 hours.

New Agency Will Fight Corruption

WASHINGTON.—(P)—President Truman Thursday promised what he called continued drastic action to clean house in the government.

He indicated he will set up a special agency to fight corruption, probably Friday or Saturday.

Allowing himself to be quoted directly at one point on the scandals in the tax collecting and some other agencies, Truman told a news conference:

"Wrongdoers have no house (sic) with me no matter who they are or how big they are."

In response to questions, the President said he has no plans to fire Attorney General J. McGrath or Democratic National Chairman Frank McKinney.

Several Republican members of Congress have demanded the dismissal of McGrath as a result of disclosures in the House investigation of tax scandals.

Chairman King (D-Calif.) of the House group publicly has said he believes T. Lamar Caudle, assistant attorney general in charge of the tax division, was unfaithful to his public trust.

Truman fired Caudle last month. McKinney has come under fire because of the disclosure he made a $68,000 profit on a $1,000 investment in a tractor firm headed by a man whose wartime government ordinance contracts were criticized sharply by Truman, then a senator.

Truman's news conference, always well-attended, drew an even heavier than usual attendance of reporters who anticipated he might announce some dramatic action in connection with the newest disclosures.

Rain Showers Fall In City Thursday

Hurray, Midland had rain Thursday. And every little drop counts.

Morning showers peppered down and a moisture measurement by the CAA at Midland Air Terminal showed .07 of an inch at 12:25 p.m.

The light rains were enough to wet pavings and sidewalks in the business district but had not begun to affect the hard dry ground crust in the residential districts.

More precipitation was promised in the early afternoon.

Verdict Of Murder Asked Against Hardy

ATLANTA.—(P)—The State of Georgia asked for a verdict of murder against John R. (Fats) Hardy, after two days of testimony in which he was blamed for the 38 poison liquor deaths here in October.

The defense of the 360-pound convict was wrapped up late Wednesday.

Superior Court Judge E. E. Andrews said he would charge the jury and submit Hardy's fate to the 12 men sometime Thursday.

Hardy, 44, is charged with murder in the death of John W. Blount, a negro who died after drinking a concoction of wood alcohol, water, and moonshine whiskey.

In addition, Hardy is under indictment for murder in four other cases.

Auto Inspections To Begin Christmas Week

AUSTIN.—(P)—Inspections of Texas automobiles under the state's new vehicle inspection law will get underway Christmas week.

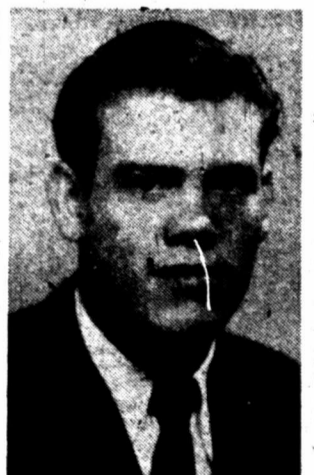

The Texas Department of Public Safety announced Thursday it had approved 300 inspection stations. An additional 2,200 applications for station designations are pending.

The new law requires that a vehicle must pass inspection before new license tags can be secured. April 1 is deadline for securing the license tags without penalty.

Jan Sterling Is One Actress Who Wants To Be 'Typed'

By ERSKINE JOHNSON
NEA Staff Correspondent
HOLLYWOOD—Guys and Dolls: Jan Sterling's saying what Edgar Allan Poe's raven said, about her try at playing a straight role in the movie, "Rhubarb."
Decorative dolls, even the type with comedy sneezes, are out for Jan, who's returning to the sultry, flossy Paris that skyrocketed her to stardom in "Johnny Belinda" and "Ace In The Hole."
"I'm a believer in the theory that you have to be typed in pictures," she told me. "If it doesn't happen, you're dead. I'm through with straight glamor. It's silly. You get all made up and you can't show any emotion. You're afraid you're going to crack your makeup or lose your false eyelashes."
Jan's on loanout now to UI as the damsel who teaches Tony Curtis the facts of life in "Here No Evil" and calls it "my best role."

an egg and look just as un-hatched."
Marilyn Monroe is peeling off those labels that proclaim her as the new Lana Turner and Jean Harlow as fast as they are being slapped on her curvey chassis.
It's yawn stuff to Marilyn, who says that "somebody's always another somebody in Hollywood and I'm not like anybody else."
Even in the roles I play, I have to play parts that are a little twisty. If they aren't a little twisty, I can't give them anything."
A new crop of Shirley Temples and Jackie Coogans is on the way to cure the box-office blues.
Director Norman Taurog, who's Uncle Norman to Hollywood moppets, slipped me the word on the set of "Room for One More," a comedy starring Cary Grant, Betsy Drake and assorted small fry actors.
"We're over the binge of psychological and cause pictures," Taurog said. "Now we're back to making family pictures and the public will be seeing some great new kid stars."
Some of the former junior emotes guided by Taurog: Judy Garland, Deanna Durbin, Mickey Rooney, Jackie and Robert Coogan, Freddie Bartholomew and Virginia Weidler.
"I never worked with a disrespectful kid," Taurog tells it. "Child actors don't deserve the reputation they have. They're not temperamental or precocious. They simply believe that they are the characters they are playing on the screen."
Warner Brothers aren't shouting it, but "About Face," with Gordon MacRae, Aileen Gates and Eddie Bracken, is a musical remake of "Brother Rat," Aileen's the doll who toured for 10 months in the road company of "Inside U. S. A." and then spent a year inside Paramount without facing a camera. Bracken, who missed the first film version, is back in the stage role he created.

Sandpaper in your voice?
Hurry to Hollywood where a new-comer as raw-throated as Andy Devine is being hailed as a find in the leading-man department at Columbia studio.
"If the public can stand my voice," wheezed Aldo Ray, "then there's a chance for everybody."
"I didn't know how awful I sounded until I saw my first rushes. I realized why all my life people have been asking me if I had laryngitis."
Aldo got into pictures by answering a call in the San Francisco newspapers for football players for "Saturday's Hero." He explained:
"My brother persuaded me to drive him down to Hollywood to see the casting director. I wasn't interested in acting. I just wanted to see what those Hollywood jerks looked like."

Shivers Points Out Oil 'Danger Line'

LITTLE ROCK—(AP)—Gov. Allan Shivers of Texas warned Wednesday that there is a dangerously thin margin between the amount of oil being produced and the amount being consumed.
In his formal report as chairman of the Interstate Oil Compact Commission, Shivers said the petroleum industry is producing slightly more oil than is being demanded.
But, he warned, the excess producing capacity "remains a dangerously thin margin between 'just barely enough' and 'not quite enough.'"
He said the oil industry, the commission and the nation as a whole must work together to produce more oil.
Gov. Sid McMath of Arkansas was elected chairman of the commission to succeed Governor Shivers.

For Your Financial Protection—
According to the new Texas "Safety Responsibility Law," effective January 1, 1952, all owners of motor vehicles must be financially responsible to a certain extent for damages incurred by accidents. Let NEELY AGENCY, Crawford Hotel, telephone 4-7291, advise you further on this new law and give you friendly counsel on your insurance needs. For your own financial protection be sure to have auto liability insurance.

The Color Magic Of Paint—
There's nothing like paint to give your home a look of newness, inside and out. And J. C. YELVIN LUMBER COMPANY carries a complete line of famous "paint-up" needs. Go in and let a salesman help you paint your way to new beauty and freshness for your home this winter. Paint protects as well as beautifies — it's an investment in good living.

Want To Buy—
Here's a chance to clean out your clothes closet and make some spending money. That sounds interesting doesn't it — with Christmas just around the corner. LARRY LOGSDON, Rankin Highway, has announced that he will buy good used clothing for cash. The clothing must be clean and in good condition, of course. So, if you have mens' suits, jackets, overcoats, and what have you, that you cannot use, Mr. Logsdon will take them off your hands. Dial 4-5678 for more information or stop at Mr. Logsdon's place on Rankin Highway.

Housing Curbs At Big Spring Eased

WASHINGTON—Real estate credit restrictions were relaxed Wednesday to stimulate construction of 300 housing units in the Big Spring, Texas, area. Housing at Big Spring is intended for civilian employees and military personnel of the Big Spring Air Force Base. Of the 300 units at Big Spring, 270 must be two-bedroom apartments to rent for not more than $67.50 a month. The other 30 may contain three or more bedrooms with a top rent of $77.50. Of the two-bedroom units, 80 may not rent for more than $60 a month.

A few extra minutes at your washline may save you hours over your ironing board. Try these tricks for hanging clothes to cut down or eliminate ironing. Avoid pinning hankies, pillow cases or towels by their corners; hang them straight over the line with their edges carefully smoothed out. Place the hems of sheets together and throw them double over the line. To keep dresses and men's shirts in shape, try putting them on hangers before placing them out to dry; try wire stretchers to re-shape wash trousers while they are wet. Remember, in any case, to hang a garment by its strongest point. Dresses should be suspended from their seams; shirts from their tails, trousers by their waists.

Girl Scouts Plan Christmas Activities, Make Yuletide Gifts

Christmas party plans, gift making, cooking and a report on a Scout trip to Ruidoso, N. M., were the main subjects and activities at Girl Scout and Brownie Troop meetings Tuesday in Midland.

Girl Scout Troop 13 met in the First Presbyterian Church and wrote "thank-you" notes to persons who assisted the troop on its week-end trip to Ruidoso.

The troop left Friday and returned Sunday. Members of the group participated in sled riding in an 18-inch snow fall and the most unusual experience for the girls was washing dishes in melted snow. Water supplies were hampered by a blizzard. Approximately 16 Scouts attended and were accompanied by Mrs. W. W. West and Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Williams.

New members of the troop are Nancy Herold, Marion Eddleman, Garcielle Wright and Janice Michener.

Christmas gifts were made by members of Brownie Troop 42 at its regular meeting in the Girl Scout Little House. Games were played and refreshments were served.

Brownie Troop 50 also held its meeting in the Little House. Mrs. William C. Madison is the leader and Mrs. W. T. Moore is the assistant leader.

Cookies were made and members present were Judy Barstow, Shirley Christy, Susan Gallagher, Blanche Cooper, Jean Hawkins, Cindy Madison, Patti Hall, Ruthie Schneider, Janice McMinn and Judy Morgan.

The Christmas party for Brownie Troop 66 will be held December 18 in the home of Mrs. D. A. Chase, troop leader. Mothers of the members will be guests of honor. Other party plans were discussed at the meeting held Tuesday in the Little House.

An investiture service also was held. Nine members were present.

Dr. Lynn Is Guest Speaker At Fine Arts Club Meeting

Dr. R. Matthew Lynn, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, spoke on "Ecumenical Movement" at the Fine Arts Club Christmas party Wednesday in the Petroleum Club.

In his speech Dr. Lynn said Christians are to the world what the soul is to the body. Christianity is threatened today as it was in the third century. "The Bible recognizes no time or geographical boundaries. People of the world need to understand one another. The World Council of Churches is the greatest achievement toward world unity. There are 160 organized groups in the World Council of Churches."

Hostesses were Mrs. Harvey Sloan and Mrs. George Kidd. Mrs. Foy Proctor presided. It was announced that a box of clothing and a check was sent to Gristown, U. S. A.

A string trio, composed of Mrs. E. W. Vanderpool, Mrs. Warren Scobey and Mrs. Addison Bruton, played "Three Little Trios" by Bohm.

EMPLOYEES OF UNITED HOLD CHRISTMAS PARTY

Employees of United, Inc., 121 North Main Street, held their annual Christmas dinner party recently in the store. Approximately 30 employees and their families attended.

RECEIVES HEAD, KNEE INJURIES

Roy E. Huff, Midland, an employee of the Henson Drilling Company, received an injury to his right knee and the head Wednesday when boards on which he was standing while working slipped, causing the injuries. He was given emergency treatment at Midland Memorial Hospital.

WMU Sends Gifts To Children's Home

Gifts for the Baptist Children's Home at Round Rock were packed for mailing at the regular meeting Tuesday of the Women's Missionary Union of the West Side Baptist Church.

The meeting was opened with prayer by Mrs. Jerrell Stallo and Mrs. Homer Langford gave the closing prayer. Thirteen persons attended.

SUFFERS HEAD INJURY

Louis Ogee, 811 West Wall Street, a roughneck for Norwood Drilling Company, was given emergency treatment at Midland Memorial Hospital Thursday after he received an injury to his head. The brakes failed to hold on the traveling block at the rig on which he was working and the block struck him.

Mrs. Younger Reviews Book

Mrs. John Younger reviewed the book, "The Husband of Mary," Wednesday at the meeting of the Progressive Study Club in the home of Mrs. R. W. Stuart.

The book was written by Elizabeth Hart. Mrs. Robert Gray and Mrs. Charles Linehan were guests at the meeting.

Others attending were Mrs. Sol Bunnell, Mrs. W. E. Cox, Mrs. J. Wilmont Hunt, Mrs. Donald N. Johnson, Mrs. A. A. Jones, Mrs. H. C. Jones, Mrs. Lindley Latham, Mrs. Hugh McCullough, Mrs. Pete Tyler, Mrs. Haden Upchurch, Mrs. W. B. Yarborough, Mrs. Harold Welch, Mrs. J. K. Ridley, Mrs. Thomas M. West and Mrs. H. A. Wienold.

Typhoon Death Toll Mounts To 569 As Storm Doubles Back

MANILA—(AP)—The death toll from a typhoon which rose to 569 as the same storm doubled back Thursday to strike the islands again.

The Weather Bureau forecast the center of the storm would strike Friday on the west coast of Luzon Island about 100 miles north of Manila. Torrential rains drenched Manila.

A second typhoon, coming in from the east, veered so much the Weather Bureau said it probably would just graze the east coast of Luzon.

The center of the typhoon was 200 miles southwest of Manila. The second storm was 500 miles due east of the city.

Swing North Of Leyte
Both are swirling well north of Leyte Island, which suffered the heaviest blow from the 130-mile winds Monday.

The Red Cross and mayors of Leyte towns reported 457 persons were killed on the island by the storm and by landslides. Torrents of muddy earth cascaded over coastal villages at the height of the storm.

They struck with such a roar that earthquakes were reported. Seismologists said there were no quakes, but the slides themselves might have caused local tremors.

Belated reports to the Red Cross listed 27 dead on Samar Island. Previously no deaths had been reported from there.

Other revised death tolls by islands were negroes 52, Cebu 29, Panay 4.

The storm left 150,000 homeless and caused untold millions in property damage.

WELDER IS KILLED

Shell Celebrates Its Fifth Birthday In Midland Area

The Midland area of the Shell Oil Company has celebrated its fifth birthday.

It was Nov. 1, 1946, that the West Texas Division, a part of the old Texas-Gulf area, became a full-fledged exploration and producing area.

Since then the Midland Area has come a long way. A recent count showed 1,133 Shell-operated producing wells in the area as compared with 734 wells five years ago.

Growth of the area also is reflected in the number of employees which almost is double the 1946 count. Area operations now require 576 and 438 operating-employees—a total of 1,014.

Henry M. Glass, personnel supervisor, was one of the first Shell people to settle in Midland after the area was created. Since that time, he has watched Midland and the company's Midland Area "grow up."

The city has become one of the nation's oil capitals and the Midland area plays an increasingly important role in the company scheme of things.

Johnny Reid and Ernie Pannell were sent out here for field experience. They came from the Houston office. Reid was the first of a group to arrive in Midland. He arrived a day ahead of Glass and R. C. Byars. Ann Rush and Chris Swamy arrived by train one day after Glass and Byars drove into town.

Here To Greet
Two of the present area staff were to greet them all. They were Unappell Davis and M. T. Smith.

Dear Santa—
Dearest Santa:
I am eight years old and enjoying a nice school year. For Christmas, I want a British Army set, band, football, two guns and a General Pershing tank. Remember all my friends.

—Love you,
John Daugherty

Dear Santa Claus:
I am four years old and am really in a rush for you to make your visit to my house again.

I want two guns, new skates, nuts and candy.
"Santa, please remember all of my little friends."
—Sam Daugherty

Dear Santa Claus:
I am a little boy seven years old. I want a TV set. I want a tool chest, Lone Ranger cowboy suit. I want some house shoes and a big red wagon. My big sister and I want a monopoly set.

"P. S. And a bear."
"Aunt Billie will have some fruit cake on the table for you. I love you, Santa. Thank you. I want a BB gun and some BB's."
—John Sikes, Jr.

Dear Santa:
I have been good. I would like to have a Tom doll. Love."
—Sue McDearmon

Dear Santa:
I have been good. I would like to have some boots. Love."
—Larry Warren Prescott

Dear Santa:
I want a bicycle. I want an electric train."
—Jo Tommy Jones

Dear Santa:
"Will you bring me a telephone and a doll and some doll clothes. I am a little girl seven years old. Love."
—Annie Pearl Gary

Dear Santa:
I am in the first grade. I want some Chinese checkers, football tool box, two guns, pair of moccasins, house coat, cowboy suit, crayola and stencil set. Love."
—Gary Carpenter

Dear Santa Claus:
I am a little girl four years old, so I'm getting my mother to write this letter for me.

"I've been a pretty good little girl and I'd like to have a baby bed, Tiny Tears doll and a table and chairs. I love you, Santa Claus."
—Lianne Midkiff

Dear Santa Claus:
I am a pretty good little five-year-old boy.

"I would like a tent, long barrel guns and an axe.
"I hope I have been good enough to get these things."
Love,
Monte

By way of comparison, the former West Texas Division office occupied only the eleventh and part of the twelfth floor of the Petroleum Building. Today, the 12-story structure practically is all Shell, with offices occupying all floors from the fourth up and a part of the third.

Retail Ceilings Set For Ford Firm's Cars

WASHINGTON—(AP)—The Office of Price Stabilization has set dollar and cent retail ceilings for Ford, Mercury and Lincoln passenger cars.

The order also placed lids on prices of extra equipment sold with the Ford Motor Company automobiles.

The specific ceilings reflect price increases recently allowed by OPS. The OPS also extended from December 20 to December 31 the effective date for auto dealers to apply dollar and cent ceilings for all makes and models of used passenger cars.

Mrs. Bissell's Father Dies In New Jersey

William H. Maines, 80, father of Mrs. C. E. Bissell of Midland, died Wednesday at his home in Fair Lawn, N.J., according to information received here. He had visited here earlier this year.

Funeral services will be held Friday morning in the Church of the Messiah in Paterson, N.J.

Mrs. Bissell and her daughter, Mrs. Peggy Anderson, left late Wednesday by plane for New Jersey to attend the funeral services.

It's new to Midland. But to countless thousands of Texans in other parts of our state—Lone Star Beer is an old favorite. It's a leading favorite in South Texas!

More than 13 million times a month—Texans "Take a Break" for a cold Lone Star! Now, Lone Star is winning new friends fast in this area. And its popularity grows and grows!

Every day, more people ask for it, like it, and keep on buying Lone Star. To keep pace with constantly increasing demand—the Lone Star Brewery in San Antonio expanded capacity more than fifteen times in 11 years. Today, it's one of the biggest and best equipped in the South! The Brewery's latest expansion now makes it possible to bring Lone Star to this part of Texas.

That's convincing proof of Lone Star's popularity. And good reason for you to try Lone Star today! You'll find Lone Star has a wonderfully smooth, clean taste—a flavor that's Double Mellow because every drop is Double Aged. And Lone Star's clear, golden color is so inviting.

Of course, Lone Star is brewed with only the choicest grains and hops. But it has the added advantage of being brewed with fine artesian water. Tests show that the water from Lone Star Brewery's own deep artesian wells is comparable to the water used in brewing at Munich, Germany—renowned as the best anywhere. Your own taste will tell you the right water makes a world of difference in the taste of beer—when you try Lone Star!

So get acquainted with Texas' Fine, Light Beer. Today—"Take a Break" for a cold Lone Star!

Lubbock, Temple Picked By Scribes

By HAROLD V. RATLIFF
Associated Press Sports Editor

Lubbock will edge Baytown for the Class AAAA championship and Temple will beat Breckenridge easily for the Class AAA crown in Saturday's Texas schoolboy football finals, say the sports writers.

Thirty writers over the state cast their votes in a poll taken by The Associated Press and here's how they picked them:

Lubbock vs Baytown at Dallas—Lubbock was selected by 15. Baytown by 13 and there was one who forecast a scoreless tie.

Temple vs Breckenridge at Abilene—Twenty-two picked Temple and five took Breckenridge.

Some writers did not select on both games.

Two writers picked ties. Bob Cole of the Wichita Falls Record News forecast a 14-14 deadlock but thought Lubbock would win on first downs. Dan Cook of the Beaumont Enterprise said it would be a scoreless tie.

Other predictions:
Hugh Welch, San Angelo Standard-Times—Lubbock 34, Baytown 13.
Temple 21, Breckenridge 14.
Harry Boughton, Houston Post—Baytown 13, Lubbock 7. The Gauders may need an assist from the weather but no more than six points worth. Solid offensive power and better defensive play will do it, with more overall weight and reserve strength a secondary factor.
Temple 20, Breckenridge 6. Any club which held Baytown to six points has got to be good. Temple defense to make the point-making easier for Doyle Traylor and Company.

John Tucker, Waco News-Tribune:
Baytown 14, Lubbock 7, Temple 20, Breckenridge 13.
Collier's Choice:
Phil Collier, Fort Worth Star-Telegram—Lubbock 27, Baytown 14, Breckenridge 20, Temple 14.
John Trobridge, Dallas News—

Baytown over Lubbock, Temple over Breckenridge.

Walter Robertson, Dallas News—Lubbock over Baytown, Temple over Breckenridge.

Jerry Ribnick, Houston Chronicle—Lubbock 13, Baytown 7. I think the Gauders have one of the top defensive teams in the state but will meet the best offensive club in the West Texans. It should be a real climax to a great 1961 state schoolboy football season. Temple 27, Breckenridge 14.

Collier Parris, Abilene Reporter-News—Baytown 20, Lubbock 14, Temple 20, Breckenridge 13.
Dick Oliver, Port Arthur News—Baytown 14, Lubbock 7, West-erners' outscore-'em tactics in for-rude shock from great Gauder defense. Temple 19, Breckenridge 13. Traylor decisions Ford in passing parade.

Spec Gammon, Odessa American—My pick in state championship games are Lubbock 14, Baytown 6, Breckenridge 20, Temple 14.
Woody Montgomery, Temple Telegram—Baytown 20, Lubbock 7, Temple 47, Breckenridge 6.

Dan Cook, Beaumont Enterprise—Saturday's Cotton Bowl battle between Baytown and Lubbock looks like a scoreless deadlock from this corner. Both lines are superior to opposing backs. Traylor and Company has too much for Breckenridge so mark it down Temple 21, Breckenridge 7.

ACC Tops Texas Conference All Star Grid Eleven

ABILENE—(AP)—Led by Little All-America Tackle Les Wheeler, Abilene Christian College placed nine players on the 1951 all-Texas Conference football squad.

The Wildcats got six men on the offensive team, three on the defensive platoon. Tommy Hinson of ACC, the loop's leading scorer and ground-gainer, tied with McMurry's Sabin Hendrickson for the offensive fullback position.

Howard Payne and Texas A&I, which shared the conference crown with ACC, each placed two men on the offense and three on defensive teams.

Howard Payne's passing sensation, Curtis Davenport; Jack Sportsman of A&I, and Quarterback Ted Sitton of ACC fill out the offensive backfield.

Austin College got one berth. Tackle Charles Granstaff. Besides Hendrickson on the offense, McMurry had three men on the defensive team.

Davenport was voted most valuable player and Sabin Anderson of Howard Payne was named Coach of the Year. This was Anderson's first year at the Brown-wood school.

The Texas Conference all-stars are annually honored by the Abilene Exchange Club which presents medals to each of the all-conference picks.

All-conference teams

Two Major Quintets Handed First Defeat

CHICAGO—(AP)—Chicago's two major college basketball teams—Loyola and DePaul—lost their first games of the season Wednesday night.

Loyola succumbed as expected to Illinois at Champaign, 74-66. DePaul, which had been averaging 80 points a game, was humiliated by little Northern Illinois State at DeKalb, 74-69.

Illinois, rated the country's third-best team in this week's Associated Press poll, won its second game of the young season in polishing off Loyola, winner of three previous games.

Kansas State, ranked fifth in the A. P. poll, was upset by San Francisco, 55 to 52, in an intersectional game at San Francisco.

In other games Brigham Young nipped Toledo, 58-57. Maryland edged William and Mary, 54-53. Tulsa took Arkansas, 48-44. Louisville beat Eastern Kentucky, 72-70. Miami (Ohio) just got by Dayton, 61-60, and Mississippi State defeated LSU, 59-54.

Yankees Retire DiMaggio's No. 5

NEW YORK—(AP)—First it was uniform No. 3 to be retired by the New York Yankees in honor of one of its most famous players. Then it was No. 4, and now—No. 5.

The Yankees announced No. 5, worn by Joe DiMaggio for 13 years as a Yankee, would be taken out of circulation and sent to the Hall of Fame with which he hit his last home run.

Soon after Babe Ruth left the Yankees in 1935, his No. 3 was retired. Four years later Lou Gehrig's No. 4 followed suit.

Bulldogs To Meet Odessa Five Friday

Odessa's Bronchos invade Midland High School's gym Friday night for a pair of games. The curtain-raiser at 6:30 p.m. sends the Odessa B team against the Midland B, while the varsity tilt follows.

The Bronchos have been delayed in opening their season, with three games being canceled due to the Odessa polio epidemic. Midland started its season Tuesday night, losing to powerful San Angelo, 52-33, in the varsity tilt and dropping the B game by a 33-22 score.

Coach F. D. (Red) Rutledge probably will go along Friday night with the same outfit which started against San Angelo. That would be Jesse Hatfield, Bill Mims, Robert Keising, John Van Buskirk and Robert Johnson. Corky Moss, Harold Paden and Larry Fry are other boys who probably will see considerable action.

Odessa has five lettermen, with all-district Guard Frank Gee leading the pack. The Bronchos last year took Midland, 49-47 and 30-28. The game here Friday night is a non-conference game.

TCU Grid Team In Sessions For Bowl

FORT WORTH—(AP)—The TCU football team, which means Kentucky in the Cotton Bowl January 1, went through its second workout Wednesday in preparation for the game.

Another session will be held Friday. Next week, the Frogs return to one-a-day practice routine.

Gerald Staley, 31-year-old right hander, pitched the St. Louis Cardinals to 19 victories last season.

All things considered, Coach F. D. (Red) Rutledge was right when he said his Midland High School basketball team would "be better than last year's and put on a better show."

While Midland did lose its first game by a 52-33 margin, the team definitely is an improvement over last season's outfit.

It must be remembered San Angelo had played six previous games—winning five—and Midland was in its first contest of the year. San Angelo just had too much fitness and experience for the MHS youngsters. Even so, Angelo only made five more field goals than did Midland—17 to 12. Midland fell behind on the free shot tossing, missing but nine while the Bobcats canned 18.

As for "putting on a better show," it's a fact the local cagers seem about a bit better than they did last season. John Van Buskirk seems to have really found his "eye" on long set shots.

The cagers miss Spec Culppepper, the smooth little B boy who last year averaged 20 points per game. He's out now, catching up on his studies. He hopes to return by mid-term and get in on the conference action.

We aren't going to try to sell you the idea Midland has a team capable of taking the conference title or even approaching it, at this early date. But you'll see some victories before the year is out.

Around the district, Vernon expects to be about the strongest team with Lamesa rated high also. Vernon has four starters from last year's outfit returning, including Ramon Towers, who was named all-district.

Lamesa, however, has dropped several titles including a 13-point defeat to San Angelo. The Tornados, now, though, are playing without the services of Jerry Millsaps, star guard, who is out with a broken finger. Big Spring was defeated by San Angelo, by 12 points—so those teams, on the record, don't seem to outclass Midland.

Plainview and Sweetwater seem to have fair outfits. Each team has a couple of wins, although Sweetwater lost to Big Spring, 30-28, in a tournament recently.

Both expect to do all right when conference play begins. The loop seems to be in for a close race.

In the Midland Area Wrangler—a publication put out by Shell Oil Company—pictures of a "Small-America" football team may be found. The "Small-America" players are youngsters from the homes of Shell employees. Pictured are Roger Walker, guard, Midland North Elementary; Douglas Hampton, center, Midland West Elementary; Douglas Hatfield, tackle, John M. Cowden Junior High; Andy Elliott, Jr., quarterback, Midland North Elementary; Paul Hammack, tackle, Crockett Junior High, Odessa; Curt Stuart, tackle, Midland West Elementary; Sonny Lucas, halfback, Crockett Junior High, Odessa; David Lee Brooks, quarterback, Denver City High School; Larry Nichols, end, Midland North Elementary; and Johnny Brooks, wingback, Denver City Junior High School.

Jimmy Goodman, small son of Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Goodman of Midland, is shown as a center from Colorado School of Mines—1957.

Bill McColl Named Lineman Of Year

NEW YORK—(AP)—Bill McColl, a big factor in Stanford's winning of the Pacific Coast Conference football title and the Rose Bowl spot against Illinois, has been selected as the Lineman of the Year.

The 21-year-old, 225-pound end from San Diego was the choice of 103 sports writers and sportscasters participating in The Associated Press poll.

"The greatest lineman I have ever seen," said Coach Chuck Taylor of Stanford.

Big Bill, named on The Associated Press, all-America offensive team, received 17 votes for his feats of catching 42 passes, seven for touchdowns, and picking up 607 yards.

Two All-America tackles, Don Coleman of Michigan State and Jim Weatherall of Oklahoma, tied for second place with Bob Ward, Maryland's All-America guard, right at their heels.

Rotary Takes Lead In JayCee Loop; Plastic Team Wins

Rotary Engineering Company jumped in front in the Midland JayCee Independent Basketball League Wednesday night, slamming Shell Oil, 46 to 19, at the John M. Cowden Junior High Gym for its second win in two nights of league play.

Borden's five went to the extreme the other way, losing to Western Plastic Company, 30-21, for the second team loss in two nights.

The next league play is scheduled Monday night, with Western Plastic meeting Phillips Oil at 7:30 p.m., and Borden's trying Shell in the windup.

Rotary rolled up a 12-2 margin at the end of the first quarter over outclassed Shell, going in front 23-7 at halftime. Smooth-working Rotary used Tom Collins to pop in 16 points while Leland Huffman tallied 13. Bill Ward's nine points led Shell.

The Rotary five meshed points both from the outside and in close in taking the win.

Tall Western Plastic had trouble with Borden's in the first and fourth quarters but did all the good in the second and third frames for its 30-21 victory. Holding a 7-6 slim lead at the end of the first frame, the Plastics turned on the steam for a 19-6 halftime bulge and ran it to 27-11 at the end of three quarters.

Borden's finally found the range in the last quarter and outscored the winners, 10 to three, but couldn't close the gap. Dyes topped Plastic with seven points; Roy Price canned seven for Borden's.

Howton Gets Most Valuable Grid Award
HOUSTON—(AP)—Bill Howton, star Rice Institute football end, was presented the George Martin Award for the second year at the annual Rice Association Banquet Wednesday night.

The award, voted by the team, goes to the most valuable player.

Attendance at the first four home football games at the University of Miami this year totaled 175,689 as compared to 170,994 for the first five home games last year.

McDonough admitted some schools may set up physical education schools which aren't too tough just for athletes.

But, he said, "I don't think it is prevalent."

But Thomas E. McDonough of Emory University in Georgia, president of the College Physical Education Association, told the educators:

1. Physical education is no snap, and
2. Athletes shy away from it.

"You have to take biology, chemistry and physics," he told reporters.

McDonough admitted some schools may set up physical education schools which aren't too tough just for athletes.

But, he said, "I don't think it is prevalent."

Charles Gets Fifth Win Over Maxim

SAN FRANCISCO—(AP)—Former Heavyweight Champion Ezzard Charles has finally convinced Light Heavyweight Title Holder Joey Maxim, after five beatings, that it is a hopeless cause to challenge him.

Charles, who confidently expects to punch the crown off Jersey Joe Walcott's head in their return fight early next year, dashed Maxim's hopes for a successful foray into the heavier division at the Cow Palace Wednesday night.

The lean Cincinnati negro out-punched the 175 pound kid to win a unanimous 12-round decision handily. Charles weighed 190, Maxim 178.

There were no knockdowns and not much sustained action. Neither was damaged or even in trouble. The crowd of 10,827 boomed at times in dull moments when Maxim engaged in his frequent clinches.

Both Charles and Maxim immediately looked forward to championship fights not too long off.

Charles expressed confidence of regaining his crown from Walcott and said he expected the fight to be scheduled for February or March.

The site, said Matchmaker Al Weill of the International Boxing Club, is open to bids. Weill added that the Charles-Walcott winner definitely will defend his crown against Marciano in New York, probably in June.

Charles declared "I can whip Rocky Marciano. Rocky is a very good boy, strong with both hands, but I think I can whip anyone in the world until they beat me."

That's what Walcott did last July when he kayoed Ezzard in a surprise win.

Maxim, who whipped Irish Bob Murphy in defense of his championship a few months ago, is going to campaign in his own division. He said he was ready to take on the principal contenders, Harry (Kid) Matthews of Seattle or Veteran Archie Moore of St. Louis anytime.

Arkansas Loses To Tulsa Five, 48-44

TULSA—(AP)—Arkansas fell before Tulsa University, 48-44, in a nip and tuck basketball game Wednesday night.

Center Toar Hester, seven-foot Arkansas star, racked up 14 points in the first half but accounted for only six in the last half.

He was closely matched by Tulsa's center, Glenn Dille, who tossed in 16 points.

The University of Arizona scored a 167-0 victory over Camp Harry Jones during the 1920 football season.

Nine more MIG's were destroyed in the afternoon. Pilots reported two shot down.

Sixty-four Sabres were matched against 145 MIG's in the two battles. The Fifth Air Force's total reported score against MIG's now is 148 shot down, 31 probables and 298 damaged. These figures do not include those hit by B-29 gunners.

Davis bagged two planes in each flight.
"Yeah, I went up twice today," he said. "We were just north of the Sinanju River when we saw a flight of about 50 MIG's. I just led my 12 planes into the middle of them."

This was the second time Davis has bagged four enemy planes in a single day. On December 5 he shot down three Communist TU-2 bombers and a MIG. His first two jets were destroyed November 28. He added two more December 5.

U. S. Eighth Army Headquarters said an Allied raiding team battled Red ground troops north of Koriangpo on the western front most of Thursday morning. The raiders returned to their own lines before noon under cover of an artillery barrage.

An Allied unit battled for seven hours Wednesday with Red troops south of Panmunjom, site of the truce talks.

On the eastern front Allied troops threw back three Red probing jobs Thursday west of the Munding Valley. The central front was quiet.

"It sounded like a jet plane going over the house," said Mrs. Claude Moncus, wife of the sheriff. She was asleep in an apartment above the courthouse, a block from the tank.

"I saw shadows flashing across the wall after the noise," Mrs. Moncus recounted. "The shadows were reflections of the debris flying through the air."

Her husband, reporting the death of the Gallegos boy, said: "I helped pull him out from under a wall. He was about 80 feet from the tank."

The tank stood one block west from Tucumcari's principal hotel, the Conchas, which was not damaged.

ing toward them, the car behind pulled out.

"Hugh" shouted Siever, "he's going to try to go around us."
Weatherby pulled his own car off to the shoulder to give the other vehicle room to get by.

"But just as he pulled up even with us," said Siever, "the two cars collided."
"It sounded just like an explosion and there was a big ball of smoke or dust rising from the wreckage."

As soon as they could stop their own car, Siever and Weatherby returned to the scene.
Lengelfeld was thrown about 10 feet from his automobile.

Already Dead
"He and one of the other men were already dead," said Siever. "Townsend's legs were pinned in the wreckage but his head and shoulder were lying on the pavement."

"He asked me 'How bad am I hurt?' He put his hand on a deep cut in his head and said 'What is that?'"
"That's the last thing he said."

Weatherby and Siever halted approaching cars with their flashlights and sent one motorist into Midland to summon officers and an ambulance.

Within a few minutes, Patrolman Rentrow, Stephenson, Deputy Sheriff F. S. Buckalew and Police Lt. Chester Sprague were at the scene.

The youngest of the victims, Wales, had lived in Midland almost all his life. He was graduated last year from Midland High School and had been working in the oil fields for the last three or four months.

Services for Wales will be held at 3 p.m. Friday at the Newline W. Ellis Chapel with the Rev. Vernon Yearby, pastor of the First Baptist Church, officiating. Interment will be in Fairview Cemetery.

Survivors Listed
Surviving are his mother, Mrs. Morris L. Pritchett, two brothers, Sanford E. Pritchett and Philip Pritchett, a sister, Kay Pritchett, his grandmother, Mrs. Laura Abbott, three aunts, Mrs. Mary Jane Abbott, Mrs. Edith Wilson and Mrs. Velma Jones, and two uncles, Buster Abbott and T. R. Abbott, all of Midland.

Bodies of the other victims will be forwarded elsewhere for funeral services and interment.

Townsend, who is survived by his wife, Mrs. Ruby Townsend, and a son, had been a resident of Midland for about two years. His body will be forwarded to Graham.

Bennett's body will be forwarded to Ada, Okla., for services. He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Bonnie Bennett, a step-daughter, Mrs. Arthur Herst of Midland, his mother, Mrs. Victoria Garrett of Florence, Ala., a brother and two sisters.

Almond, who observed his twenty-second birthday on Tuesday, is survived by his wife and two daughters, Thelma Diane and Carol, all of Midland. His body will be forwarded to Haskell.

Officers said they had little information on Lengelfeld but said he was believed to have lived in Midland and was an oil field roughneck. His body will be forwarded to Gatesville.

New Agency—

President declared with firm emphasis that his Administration always has acted swiftly to eliminate wrongdoers from its ranks and will continue to do so.

He said his administration did exactly this, through its loyalty boards, in the case of Communists who were found to be working for the government.

These were brought to trial and convictions were obtained by the attorney general, just as they should have been, despite a great deal of ballyhoo to the contrary, the President said.

He declared the public officials recently fired—including Caudle—were being investigated by the executive branch of the government before their names turned up in congressional investigations.

He said the Administration was wise to Caudle, who has been accused of taking favors from persons involved in tax difficulties with the government, long before such charges were made by the House Ways and Means subcommittee investigating the tax scandals.

Caudle's resignation would have been asked even without the committee's intervention, the President added.

A reporter expressed surprise at this, recalling that McGrath, who was Caudle's boss, told the House investigators only last Tuesday that he personally never had any suspicions against Caudle.

Truman replied crisply that he doesn't keep the books for his attorney general.

The President was asked if McKinney had been correct in telling reporters earlier this week that the President feels he has been "sold down the river" by federal employees who have proved faithless to their trust.

Well, who wouldn't feel that way? The President said.

He went on to say that he had been a firm fighter for clean government ever since his first election to public office in 1922.

He declined to say what sort of special agency he might set up to police the federal service.

Told there were reports that FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover might head such a body, Truman would not comment.

Ohio Mother Who Turned Down Estate Answers British Critics

By MRS. JAMES N. GAPE
As told to Doyle F. Smece
CUYAHOGA FALLS, OHIO —

(NEA)—Lots of persons gave the Gapes free advice when we were in a quandary over whether to move to England to qualify for Cousin Sibyl's inheritance.

Much of it was good, much of it mercenary and some of it from sheer crackpots.

But it was a woman newspaper writer in the London Daily Express who really set my blood boiling with her scathing comments that appeared under the heading, "So Mrs. Gape wouldn't live in England—at any price!"

It set me burning at first. I should say—because, after my original "lemme-scratch-her-eyes-out" reaction, the article really set me to thinking.

I might explain that the clipping was given me by a gracious neighbor, who held it until several weeks.

Mrs. James N. Gape is the wife of the Cuyahoga Falls, Ohio, valve salesman who inherited $700,000 from an English cousin—but only on condition the Gapes move to England and live on the old estate which had been in the family for 500 years. The Gapes' tentative rejection of their English inheritance in favor of a comfortable suburban home and an American upbringing for their children touched off a wave of criticism from England—criticism which inspired Mrs. Gape to tell this story.

after the "storm"—a storm that included not only our tough decision over the will, but a set-to with measles, mumps and the birth of our third baby.

The neighbor figured that the English newspaperwoman's comments would just upset us more. She was right.

"No, Mrs. Gape," the British lady wrote, "America wouldn't be my choice."

"Not for me a daughter who is a specimen of that astonishing phenomenon, American womanhood—the best dressed and the most spoiled, the best looking and worst educated, the broadest smilers and the worst cooks . . ."

"Wow! . . . spoiled . . . worst educated . . . I'll have her know I'm a good cook—and, what's more, most of the young housewives I know are, too."

The last paragraph was the clincher, however. It said: "But they (that's the Gapes) plumped in the end for the country that believes absolutely in creating something new—but perhaps has not learned the pleasure of keeping alive something old."

Maybe she has something there. Maybe here in America we HAVE failed to keep alive that "something old." Maybe that's why our papers have so many stories about tax scandals and other dishonesty in government, about gambling fixes of sports events, shoecking dope and sex stories involving our youngsters.

Why Morals Low
Maybe it's why public morals have sunk so low, why the morale of our

The General Assembly, meanwhile, again deadlocked in voting to choose between American-supported Greece and the Soviet Union's White Russia for the eleventh seat on the Security Council.

Eight ballots last week failed to settle the issue. When seven more still brought no decision, Assembly President Luis Padillo Nervo suspended further voting until next week.

On the fifteenth ballot Greece had 36 votes, White Russia 23. Forty votes are required for election.

This may foreshadow victory for the Greeks when the Assembly tries to make its choice again next week.

Some countries, such as Britain and France, are expected to shift their support to the Greeks since they picked up eight votes in Thursday's balloting.

Tom Cline, 409 West Nobles Street, was given emergency treatment at Midland Memorial Hospital Wednesday after the calf of his right leg became caught in a line while he was working on a rig. He was treated for abrasions of the leg.

BACK FROM HOSPITAL

Mrs. J. E. Simms has returned to her home here from Temple where she underwent medical treatment in a hospital there.

TREATED AT HOSPITAL

Dan Oxedine, drilling company employe, was given emergency treatment at Western Clinic-Hospital Wednesday for a back strain suffered in an accident at a rig.

Many weed seeds are so hardy that they can lie sleeping in a farmer's field for 10 to 30 years, then sprout and flourish. In general, weed seeds will remain ready for growth under field conditions for 10-year periods.

"I don't want to move anywhere," Mrs. James N. Gape sits in her living room at Cuyahoga Falls, U. S. A., with daughter Grace, five. The Gapes have two other children, David, eight, and a four-month-old son. Their belief that conditions in England "surely aren't good for raising children" stirred up the bitterest of all criticism over turning down British estate.

country has sagged, why Americans are confused and unhappy in the midst of plenty.

"We've moved so fast to get so much that we've thrown overboard our great traditions, dishonored our nation's founding fathers. Men like Washington, Jefferson and Lincoln had so much that was good—still good today—but the school children hardly encounter it, and by the time they're grown the names are just something out of history books."

I think we need in America, more than anything else, a good example. Something unassailable and above reproach. The English have it in their royal family. We don't have anything like it. As a result, we're groping blindly for something, and we can't tell for sure what it is.

The family here in America isn't what it used to be. The tendency is to let the children take command, run things to suit themselves, and where could you find worse tyrants than among undisciplined, over-coddled kids? They manage this better in England, too. I must admit.

Termed Real Experience
It was a real experience for me to see my two youngsters (there are three now) react to our Aunt Kitty when we went to England early this year. Aunt Kitty is a stately person, dignified, somewhat like Queen Mary.

David and Grace were crazy about her. But, they were awed by her, too, and treated her with great respect. It was the sort of respect Aunt Kitty was accustomed to receive from English children of their age.

To me, it pointed up the difference in training youngsters get in a well-run, everything-on-schedule English household, compared to the hurry-scurry, hair-pulling, kids-in-command rat-race that sometimes passes for the American home.

Don't get me wrong, please. I'm not running down this great country of ours. It's the greatest in the world, to be sure. And don't forget the Gapes chose it in preference to a stable fortune in England. But, still, I think there are things going on here that we ought to worry about.

Things we should criticize frankly, and things we should get up on our hind legs and do something about. Most Insecure

With all our social security, insurance against everything and other pre-fabricated securities, I believe Americans are among the most insecure people on earth.

My grandmother had a woman come in and do her washing, and still she worked 10 times as hard as I do. Yet I believe Grandmother and the washerwoman both enjoyed more real security than I and my automatic washer put together.

Maybe the answer lies in a return to faith, more faith in ourselves, more faith in God. Maybe we'll find that example we need in our churches. But not nearly enough of us go to church. It's a real effort to get a young family out of bed on Sunday morning, get everybody shined up and off to church—but, once you've done it, everybody feels a lot better for it.

Maybe part of the answer lies in our schools. They've been neglected far too long. The British lady says "the American standard of education is as far below ours as ours is below the French."

Why should America's educational system be below anybody's? If we're the richest, most fortunate people on earth then we deserve the best schools, the best teachers, the best educated people on earth.

All the good things, all the comforts and conveniences that America can give us, won't amount to anything unless we become mature, integrated individuals, with as the books say peace of mind and soul.

Now, don't, please, write me nasty letters and say, Mrs. Gape, if you don't like it here, why don't you go over to England and live? I haven't said I don't like it here. I do.

After moving 10 times in 10 years, to keep up with the Navy and with my husband getting readjusted to civilian life, I don't want to move anywhere. I like it fine right here, in Cuyahoga Falls, Ohio, U. S. A.

But, I feel strongly, as I said, that there are things we ought to improve here. And I believe that every one of us ought to give real thought and effort to finding ways to erase our country's black marks and make America better. This is just one of the ways I've elected to try to help do it.

Knife & Fork Club Directors Name New Officers For 1952

Vaughn C. Maley was elected president of the Midland Knife & Fork Club for 1952 at a meeting of its directors Wednesday afternoon. He succeeds Carroll L. Thomas who continues as a director of the organization.

Thornton Hardie, Jr. was named first vice president, and Max

V. C. Maley

David, second vice president. A secretary-treasurer will be named later to succeed Newbie W. Ellis, Jr.

Directors, in addition to the officers, are Thomas, Mrs. Frank Stubbeman, L. E. Patterson, Charles A. Haynes, James C. Watson and W. H. Pryor. Directors whose terms of office expire this year are C. E. Nelson, Mrs. Erma Mancill and John Parker.

Membership renewal notices will be mailed to all members this week. It was announced at the meeting. Members are requested to advise club officials by January 5 whether they intend to continue their memberships next year.

The K&F Club now has 500 members, with a large number of persons on the waiting list.

Mossadegh's Backers Hold Demonstration Before Parliament

TEHRAN, IRAN—P—Some 30,000 Nationalist supporters of Premier Mohammed Mossadegh massed before Parliament Thursday and roared "death to the enemies of Mossadegh!" The crowd appeared menacing, but broke up later without violence.

Inside the Parliament Building, the Majlis (Lower House) discreetly decided to postpone until Sunday a public meeting originally scheduled for Thursday. Instead they met in secret session.

Watchful police and troops lined the huge Majlis Square during the rally, announced as a demonstration against "British intrigue."

However, most of the threats and vilification were directed at Iranian opponents of the aged premier who led the successful fight to nationalize Iran's British-controlled oil industry.

More than a score of trucks, filled with troops bearing rifles and machine guns, blocked the main gates to the Majlis.

Apparently anxious to avoid a recurrence of last Thursday's bloodshed, husky youths wearing arm bands checked the identity of everyone entering the square. In last Thursday's clash between Nationalists and Communists, at least eight persons were killed and more than 200 injured.

Loud Speakers Compete
Loudspeakers vied with one another in praise of Mossadegh and vilification of his opponents.

A metallic voice boomed through the square "Where's Jamal Imami?" "Gone to hell!" the crowd yelled back.

Imami is the leader of the sit-down by 15 opposition deputies and a like number of opposition editors who have taken refuge inside the Majlis building for the . . . at seven days, seeking Mossadegh's overthrow.

Again the loudspeaker: "Imami, if you dare come out of the Majlis, you and your friends will see how the people support Mossadegh."

Tough-faced youths led the organized shouts of "Death" as the loudspeakers rasped the names of the opposition deputies and editors who were inside the building. Another speaker boomed: "Long live Khalil Tahmasebi!"—the assassin of the late Premier Ali Razmara, who opposed oil nationalization.

Political, student and religious organizations rallied their forces into Majlis Square, filling it with colorful flags and posters. Iran's chief religious leader declared a half-holiday to encourage Moslems to take part in the demonstration.

Approximately 60 per cent of the world's mica, more commonly known as isinglass, comes from the province of Bihar, India.

Christmas package may be beautifully Gift Wrapped without charge.

Teens Can Make A Lot Of Christmas

By ANNE LARSEN

Teen-agers who are faced with the problem each Christmas of stretching a short budget over a long gift list often feel that inexpensive is synonymous with cheap. Your presents need not look that way at all, if you're willing to start your holiday planning early enough to allow your creative talent to get into the act.

Almost any male on your list would be pleased with a tie with a custom-made look about it. A gray flannel one, adorned with machine-worked coin-dots in a lighter tone of gray, is sure to win his praise and pride.

One of your dad's old ties can serve as a pattern. Pin this guide to your new fabric and cut, making sure the old tie is placed on the bias of the fabric. Roll and baste a quarter-inch hem on both points of the tie, and machine stitch in place.

Add your polka dots before folding the tie. To make the dots quickly and easily, use the new stitching technique for machine embroidery. You don't need a special attachment. Simply drop the feed of your sewing machine, and thread the bobbin with embroidery thread. Use silk on the spool pin for your upper threading, and you're ready to make your dots, moving the needle in a spiral stitch.

If you're a novice at sewing, expert guidance in learning this and other techniques for decorative stitching may be obtained at your local sewing center.

When your dots are all completed, fold your tie, following the original fold line of your pattern, turn under the raw edges of fabric, and slip-stitch both sides together.

A bright plaid tobacco pouch is a good choice for the pipe smoker on your list, and very simple to make.

Begin by purchasing—for the lining—a plain commercially-made tobacco holder, of plastic or oiled silk. Then measure the length of this liner, remembering to add additional inches for the part that folds up to form the pocket.

Next measure the width, and add one and a half inches to both measurements for hems. Cut a rectangle this size from a sturdy plaid fabric, and, turning under all raw edges one-quarter inch, machine-stitch around its outlines.

When this is finished, pin the plaid material to the plastic pouch, folding the fabric edges over the plastic one-half inch all around. Machine-stitch in place, and the job is done.

A book cover should please those friends, or members of your family, who are students or collectors of special volumes. These, as you know from making brown-paper covers back in your grade-school days, are easy to concoct. Use a standard school book or a favorite volume borrowed from their shelves to get necessary measurements.

Make the cover of a gay, sturdy fabric, and, for a decorative touch, choose a bright-colored yarn and whip-stitch by hand around all outer edges of the cover.

Almost any girl whose wardrobe is comprised of skirts and sweaters or tailored dresses would appreciate a belt made from grosgrain ribbon and ordinary hinges from the hardware store.

Open the hinges out flat and thread narrow red grosgrain through the holes in each end, stitching on wrong side to hold. Thread narrow green grosgrain through center holes, across the hinge joint. Then sew the hinges to the wide black grosgrain in a geometric pattern, using the gold ribbon to form a border that repeats the tawny color of the hinges and accents the black ribbon. Close with snaps. A matching bracelet can be made in similar fashion, from measurements fitted to the individual wrist.

An attractive jabot for your mother can be made from velvet ribbon which has been looped up at each end to conceal cut edges. Strips of rhinestone trimming, available at notion counters, add twinkle.

Interesting gifts may also be made from woven-straw mats, according to Dorothy Layfield Murray, who is noted for her designs in this material.

An inexpensive photograph album may be glorified by folding mats around the front and back stitching designs appropriate to the recipient's interests.

A handsome desk blotter may be made by stitching together two mats and adding both name and decorative trim of millinery braid. A commercial blotter, in a shade to match the braid, is slipped inside. A pencil holder may be made from a strip of matting, a circle of cork for the bottom, and braid fastened into place with carpet tacks.

SAIGON, Indochina.—(P)—A fleet of Italian-built sound trucks is carrying the word of truth to the people in the rice paddies, jungle-covered mountains and villages of Indochina. These, called mobile information units, are operated as part of Amer-

ECA headquarters say the mobile units have been singularly effective in telling the people what America is doing to help put Indochina on a firm economic basis.

Dear Santa Claus:
"I am a little girl nine years old. I want a doll that can walk when you touch her skin—if you have it in stock, about a 20 or 30 size house coat, some house shoes, a doll buggy and some clothes for my doll, if possible."
"And I want you to bring my little brother a Texas spur set and boots."
—Elanya Sikes

P. S. And Santa, my aunt, Billie, will have some fruit cake and some coffee for you on the table.
P. S. (2) I love you, Santa, and hope you can bring me at least some of the things I want. But if you don't have the doll bring me another doll but not a little doll but a big one.

Dear Santa:
"I am eight years old. I have a sister and two big brothers. We want a basketball, football, electric train, wrist watch, bath robes and slippers."
"Please bring lots of toys to Midland, there are a lot of children here."

Walgreen's YOUR CHRISTMAS GIFT STORES

STYLE AND POWER FEATURED—The 1952 Chrysler New Yorker Newport, powered by the 180 horsepower Fire Power V-8 engine, is an example of the sleek massive beauty which is typical of the luxurious new Chrysler line. The new 1952 models go on display here Friday.

New 1952 Model Chryslers Go On Display Here Friday

Refinements throughout the line, rather than revolutionary engineering innovations, characterize Chrysler's 1952 models, which will be on display Friday in the Hargrove Motor Company showrooms here.

There are two fundamental reasons why changes are less sweeping than generally is the case with the introduction of a new Chrysler line, as explained by P. R. Hargrove, Chrysler dealer.

"The demands of the rearmament program have created a situation in the machine tool industry that would preclude the extensive tooling program entailed by drastic model changes," Hargrove said.

"Furthermore, Chrysler introduced more important new features in its 1951 line than ever before were offered by any manufacturer in a single year. These included the 180-horsepower V-8 FirePower engine, Hydramatic power steering, Oriflow shock absorbers and Fluid-Torque Drive torque converter.

"The tremendous public reception of the 1951 cars, plus the shortage of materials, prevented our coming anywhere near filling the demand for them this year and we carry into 1952 a bank of orders that will be augmented by the improvements in our new line. We believe our current vehicles are far ahead of the times."

Refinements Listed

The refinements available in the 1952 cars are contributors to performance, appearance, safety, economy and comfort. Certain features heretofore available only in certain models have been extended to cover the entire line. Dimensionally, all body styles are the same as corresponding models of the 1951 line.

The number of body styles offered by Chrysler has been reduced considerably by eliminating those of smaller production and those that are approximated by others retained in the line. Despite this reduction, however, there remain 18 body styles, so that the customer has a wide selection.

Stolen Wealth Aiding Commies

KUALA LUMPUR, MALAYA—A Malayan leader says communism in Malaya is "nothing more or less than a fabulously wealthy racket."

W. M. MacLeod, member of the Council of the Malayan Association, said he estimated conservatively that the Communists in the jungles were collecting something like $3-300,000 monthly from the sale of stolen rubber.

Authentic Handcuffs Backfire On Stage

PORTLAND, MAINE—Authentic handcuffed on the stage here.

Actor Philip Young insisted on borrowing official police handcuffs for his role with the Portland Players.

In the middle of the third act, a young woman in distress. He couldn't get the handcuffs off and there wasn't a key in the house. So the whole cast moved to police headquarters where a police captain removed Young's manacles so he could sign a "confession."

Christmas Cake Is Old Custom

By GAYNOR MADDOX

The delicious tradition of baking cookies and small cakes for Christmas is centuries old.

The Christmas cookie had its birth in old Germany hundreds of years ago. Honey rich Lebkuchen, spicy Pfefferkuchen and Springerle with anise seed are part of Christmas all over Northern Europe.

According to Ruth Andre, a distinguished food expert born in the little Minnesota town of Thief River, America loves its cookies, too. She grew up, she reports, in the heart of the cookie country. Today, as director of the Pillsbury Mills test kitchen in Minneapolis, she perfects cookie recipes not only for her two young sons whose father was killed in the war, but for home bakers throughout the country.

Mrs. Andre, in cooperation with this column, gives a few of her favorite Christmas recipes, some of them garnered from the nationwide annual Pillsbury Recipe Contest.

From France, noted for her delicate creations, comes these lacy "French Tulle," contributed by Mrs. Marian Wells of Washington, D. C.

French Tulle

Three-quarters cup (5 to 6) egg whites, unbeaten; 1 2/3 cup sugar; 1 1/4 teaspoon salt; 3/4 cup melted butter, cooled to lukewarm; 1 1/4 cup melted shortening, cooled to lukewarm; 1 cup sifted enriched flour; 3/4 cup blanched almonds, finely chopped.

Combine egg whites, sugar and salt; stir until sugar is dissolved and mixture is thick. Add butter and shortening; mix thoroughly. Blend in flour and almonds and beat until smooth. Drop by level teaspoons onto ungreased baking sheet.

Place 5 inches apart to allow ample room for spreading. Bake in moderate oven (350 degrees F.) 8 to 10 minutes. Let stand 1 1/2 minutes, then quickly and gently remove from the baking sheet one at a time and mold over rolling pin until cool (about 1 1/2 minutes).

If cookies harden before they are molded, reheat in oven for a few seconds to soften again. For easier handling, bake cookies a few at a time. Makes 5 dozen cookies.

Not to leave the U. S. A. out of the picture, Mrs. Andre says Missouri Waltz Brownies, as created by Mrs. Natalie Townes of Kirksville, Mo., belong in the Christmas cookie list.

Missouri Waltz Brownies

Three-quarters cup sifted enriched flour; 1 1/2 teaspoon double-acting baking powder; 1 1/2 cup sugar; 1 1/2 cup shortening; 1 cup sugar; 2 1 1/2 squares (2 1/2 oz.) chocolate, melted and cooled; 1 teaspoon vanilla; 1 1/2 cup chopped nuts.

Sift flour, salt and baking powder together. Cream shortening, add sugar gradually, creaming well. Add eggs, chocolate and vanilla. Blend in dry ingredients and nuts. Mix well. Pour into well-greased and floured 9x9x2 inch pan. Bake in moderate oven (350 degrees F.), 25 to 35 minutes. Cool and frost. Cut into bars or squares. Makes about 1 1/2 dozen brownies.

Mint Cream Frosting

Combine 1 1/2 cups sifted confectioners' sugar and 1 1/2 cup light cream or evaporated milk in saucepan. Cook over direct heat until a little syrup dropped in cold water forms a soft ball (232 degrees F.). Remove from heat. Add 1 tablespoon butter and cool to lukewarm (110 degrees F.). Add 1 1/4 teaspoon peppermint flavoring and 1 drop green food coloring and beat until thick and creamy. Frost cooled brownies. Spread 2 squares (2 oz.) melted chocolate over frosting. Cut into bars or squares when thoroughly cool.

And now to the old German favorite with these sure-fire recipes.

Pfefferkuchen

Four and one-half cups sifted enriched flour; 1 1/4 teaspoon soda; 1 1/2 teaspoon each: cloves, nutmeg, salt; 1 1/8 teaspoon cinnamon; 1 1/4 teaspoon black pepper; 2 teaspoons anise seed; 4 eggs, slightly beaten; 2 cups firmly packed brown sugar; Sift together flour, soda, cloves, nutmeg, salt, cinnamon and pepper. Add anise seed. Combine eggs and brown sugar; add to dry ingredients and mix well. If desired, dough may be chilled. Shape dough with well-floured hands into balls the size of walnuts. Place on greased baking sheets. Cover cookies with a towel. Let stand at room temperature overnight. Bake in moderate oven (350 degrees F.) 20 to 25 minutes. Shake warm cookies, a few at a time, in paper bag containing confectioners' sugar. When cold, store in tightly covered jar. Makes about 4 1/2 dozen cookies.

Springerle

Three and three-fourths cups sifted enriched flour; 1 1/2 teaspoon salt; 4 eggs; 2 cups sugar; anise seed.

Sift flour and salt together. Beat eggs until thick and lemon colored. Add sugar gradually, beating constantly. Continue beating for 15 minutes. Fold dry ingredients into egg mixture.

Roll dough to about 1 1/2 inch thickness on lightly-floured board, keeping rectangular shape. Press springerle board well into dough. Or use a rolling pin on which springerle forms are marked. Cut Place on ungreased baking sheet, sprinkled with anise seed.

Cover dough with towel and allow to dry overnight. Bake in moderate oven (375 degrees F.) 5 minutes, then reduce heat to 300 degrees F. and continue baking for 25 minutes. Makes 5 dozen cookies.

Saddle Men Are Kept Busy By Fancy Pistol Packers

AP Newfeatures

DENVER—"Since the last war it seems everybody wants to carry a pistol," says Claude Parr, holster maker.

"Orders come from everywhere, for every kind of gun," says Parr, who is plant superintendent for the Herman H. Heiser saddlery in Denver.

"But no matter how odd their gun, chances are we have a model somewhere in a pile of 600."

A month ago they had a telephoned order from the Egyptian Embassy in Washington for a shoulder holster for Egypt's King Farouk. They built the holster on a model of a 38 caliber official police pistol, and two days later it was in Washington for shipment to the king.

Cast models are on hand for an ancient single action cowboy style 44 in. fashion 60 years ago. Or for the Lugers, Mausers, Berettas and other foreign models brought home by GIs.

"If your gun should be an oddity which is not found in Heiser's pile of casts, you give them a complete description and they model it in wood, building the holster on their model.

The superintendent of the holster department, Niels A. Hansen,

Antabuse Tablets Are Fatal To Boy

SYDNEY, AUSTRALIA—A three-year-old boy died here after having swallowed antabuse tablets which his father had been taking to cure alcoholism.

Sydney doctors said the boy's death was the first they had known from the drug. Doctors believe the boy took about 15 of the antabuse tablets 48 hours before he died. One tablet a day is the normal dose.

Dear Santa—

Dear Santa: "Please bring the trucks to Lakeland, Fla. and leave the wagon here. Please don't bother with the puppy. Mother and father will buy it here. Thank you for everything. Love,"

—Frank Ryan Monroe

Dear Santa: "I am seven years old and I would like for you to bring me a set of 24-inch building blocks, a football and a bicycle. I would like to see you if I knew what time you would make a visit. I would set the alarm and get up. Very Merry Christmas."

—Jim Hyde

Dear Santa Claus: "I am a little girl seven years old. I want a Tonil doll for Christmas, and a cowgirl suit. I've tried to be a good girl. Love"

—Sue Dyess

Dear Santa: "I am a little boy eight years old. I want a football suit and a football. I've tried to be a good boy. Love"

—Clark Dyess

Dear Santa: "I am a little girl seven years old. I am in the second grade. My teacher is very nice. "I want a doll and a purse. Please fill my stocking with lots of nuts, candy and fruits. I have been pretty good this year. "Sister wants a doll, too. She is twelve. Please bring her anything else. She wants nuts, candy and fruit. "We have fussed a little. Please give all the other good boys and girls something, too." All our love. Patricia and Evelyn King.

Dear Santa: "I'm seven years old. Please bring me a Tonil doll, set of dishes, and a doctor set. Mother said that I have been a good girl."

With all my love, Dolores

Dear Santa: "I'm eight years old. I want a big doll like you brought Dolores, a big sack full of candy and nuts. Thank you."

Shirley

Dear Santa: "I'll be five years old, April 27. Please bring me a dolly, table, chairs and a set of dishes. Mother says I have been a very good girl. Thank you very much."

Sandra Kay

Dear Santa: "I want a Brownie Sweater and a bride doll with some clothes, some games and a basket for my bicycle. "Please don't forget my little sister, Linda. She wants a baby doll and some dishes. "I have been a good little girl so please don't forget me." Carole and Linda Holly

Dear Santa: "I am a little boy five years old. I have tried to be a good little boy but haven't always been able to. But if you will bring me a gun holster set, a shotgun and a big truck, I will try to be better next year."

Mike Cartmell

Dear Santa: "I am a little girl almost five years old. I have been a good girl and helped mother take care of my little brother. Please bring me a Roy Rogers gun holster set, machinegun, blackboard and something for mother and daddy and a lot of little toys for my baby brother."

Jeanne Caddell

Dear Santa: "Please bring me two cap guns so I can play two-gun Pete. Bring me a hat, too. My other big holster is old and dusty so bring me a new holster. Bring me a rope so I can rope cows, a small part rope will be all right. "I am three years old, Santa. "We have a baby boy and he is called Robby. Bring Robby some toys, Santa. "And bring Sadie some toys, too. Sadie is my pet dog. Thank you, Santa." Arthur Frenzel

Dear Santa: "I will be four years old in January and have tried to be good. Will you please bring me the same thing my big brother gets and also bring my mother and daddy and my pa-pa and granny something, too." Buddy Cartmell

Real Danger Involved

The name of Chief Justice Vinson crops up repeatedly as a presidential possibility whenever talk swings around to the prospect that President Truman might not run next year.

If the President should decide to retire and wish Vinson to run on the Democratic ticket as his successor, important questions automatically will be raised both for the chief justice and for the Supreme Court.

Vinson is known to be receptive to a possible presidential request, provided he is not compelled to go directly from the high court to the political arena. As some have put it, he wants a "disrobing room," an interim job of prestige and distinction which will be deemed a proper reason for his leaving the court and will not mar either his own or the court's dignity.

According to numerous accounts, he was to have had Secretary of State Acheson's job if and when he resigned. But Acheson plainly has no intention of quitting, and Truman will not fire him. And it now is altogether too late for Vinson to take that post without seeming to be "just passing through."

There is some speculation Truman might create some sort of assistant presidency for him, as President Roosevelt did when he lured James F. Byrnes off the Supreme Court. Certainly few established jobs in Washington fill the very special requirements of Vinson's situation.

Aside from his personal dilemma, there is the matter of what such a move will do to the court. Whatever device is restored to, the fact will be ill-disguised that the court will have been used as a steppingstone to high political office.

Any American, regardless of his calling, should be able to aspire to the presidency. No bar should exist for distinguished jurists as such. Nor should the people be denied the chance to select a man from any facet of American life.

But there is a real danger in turning to the Supreme Court for candidates. It was done in the case of Charles Evans Hughes in 1916, and has been talked of many times since. Yet the court can only suffer in consequence.

The judiciary is a distinct and independent branch of our government. The Supreme Court is its highest manifestation. Service on this tribunal should be viewed as among the highest duties a man can perform—as indeed it is.

To make it a recruiting bureau for political office—even for high appointive executive jobs—is to demean its stature. The court already has been damaged by being treated as a political Nirvana, the Great Reward for deserving politicians who understandably seek relief from the recurring anguish of election campaigns. It should not be further harmed by conversion into a way station on the route to the White House.

Possibly the die is cast in Vinson's case. If it is, jurists and statesmen alike thenceforth should be resolved to keep the high court apart from the political maelstrom, to turn to the bench for a candidate only when the country's need of him is extraordinarily compelling.

"Hope They Don't Bother You"

The Washington Merry-Go-Round

By Drew Pearson

Drew Pearson says: Rayburn warns Truman to clean house; Lovett won't swap steel mill for Oatis' release; GOP leaders look out for their health.

WASHINGTON — Speaker Sam Rayburn grimly has warned President Truman to take the initiative in cleaning up the administration, or have his legislative program wrecked. The speaker recommended that a crusading attorney general be named to start prosecutions.

The shrewd Texan, a veteran of many political storms, is described by friends as "extremely concerned" by the scandals. He told the President, if he did not act quickly, mink coats would be thrown at the administration on every bill sent to Congress from 1,600 Pennsylvania Avenue. Under these circumstances, Rayburn warned, Democratic leaders would have no hope of controlling even a majority of their party members.

In private the speaker has gone much further. "Harry Truman is a dead duck politically right now," Rayburn has told friends, "and the party will be just as dead unless we can prove to the people we're cleaning out our own black sheep. If the administration won't move, it's up to Democrats in Congress to do it. After all, every one of us is concerned. The tax scandals are hurting us badly."

Rayburn also has intimated it might be necessary for party leaders on Capitol Hill to repudiate the Truman Administration—unless the President moved energetically.

Capital News Capsules: The price of Bill Oatis — Defense Secretary Lovett has told the State Department he never will agree to swap a steel mill for release of AP correspondent William Oatis from a Czech prison. The Czech government has told the United States the price for Oatis' freedom is delivery of a $22,000,000 steel mill ordered from the United States in 1946. The mill was completed and paid for by the Czechs but the State Department has been holding up delivery.

The Defense Department now contends that the Czech offer is pure blackmail and no matter how much it wants Oatis released it won't hand a steel mill over to Czechoslovakia.

P. S. troops in Japan — Real reason for John Foster Dulles' quick trip to Japan was not personal, as he announced, but because the Japanese want to oust U. S. troops from the big cities. Now that they have a peace treaty, the Japanese have served notice they will decide where U. S. troops will be stationed, and propose moving them to smaller towns, out of sight of a majority of the Japanese people. U. S. military men say this interferes with the proper defense of the country, and Dulles will try to persuade Japanese leaders to change their minds.

Behind the Iron Curtain — Word from Moscow is that Stalin has ordered Russia's top atomic scientists to produce atomic artillery for the Red Army by June first—otherwise, U. S. observers say there's evidence Stalin and the Politburo are shocked at America's success in perfecting this new battlefield weapon, and realize that, unless the Russians catch up in the next six months, the Red Army will be hopelessly out-dated. Until recently, Stalin's advisers had told him the United States was bluffing and that it did not have any tactical atomic weapons. But latest tests in Nevada have proved this to be false, so Stalin now has ordered an all-out production campaign. Unfortunately, the Russians already have made substantial strides toward developing atomic artillery and U. S. experts fear they will be ready to test their first shell some time in March.

Kefauver boom — Friends of Senator Estes Kefauver, the crime-buster, are practically lighting firecrackers under him urging him to announce as a Democratic candidate for President. The more Truman's stock sinks as a result of tax scandals, the more enthusiastic become Kefauver's friends.

They're already making plans in California, Illinois, and may thumb their noses at Gov. Puffer Warren of Florida by putting their man into that state as a direct challenge to the governor who refused to testify before Kefauver's crime committee. Jim Farley has been sounded out at a possible Kefauver campaign manager, also Gov. Adlai Stevenson of Illinois.

The vacant post of GOP Senate leader is going begging, largely because of the Kefauver boom.

Q—What is the name of the African dog which cannot bark? A—The basenji. They are about 15 inches high and weigh around 23 pounds. In color they run anywhere from shiny jet black to equally bright bay. The tail is curled like a pug's and the face is wrinkled somewhat like a bloodhound's. The coat is short and soft.

Q—What happens when the President of the United States vetoes a bill? A—It is returned to Congress with a message explaining his objections. To become law, the bill must pass both houses of Congress again, with a two-thirds majority. Few measures command a two-thirds vote to become law over the veto.

Q—From what was indigo formerly prepared? A—Now obtained from coal tar, indigo, used in tinting paints, formerly was made by fermenting legume plants which grew principally on hillsides in India.

Q—When was railway service established? A—In 1838, when President Martin Van Buren signed the act establishing it.

JACOBY ON BRIDGE

By OSWALD JACOBY

Most bridge players think of a trump coup only when they are in a very high contract. Occasionally, however, this rare play can be employed in a lowly part score, as may be seen from today's hand originally played by Alexander Nusinoff, New York bridge expert.

The bidding was very tame, logically enough, and Nusinoff won the opening hand lead in his own hand with the ace, not expecting any fireworks in the play. He promptly laid down the ace and king of diamonds, discovering the bad trump break when West discarded the eight of clubs.

Unshaken by the bad break, Nusinoff entered dummy with the king of hearts and returned a heart through East. This put East on the horns of a dilemma. Whether East ruffed or discarded, South could fulfill the contract.

East actually ruffed with the ten of diamonds, and Nusinoff discarded a club. East next returned a club to dummy's ace, and another heart was led back.

What was East to do now? If he ruffed, South could over-ruff and draw trumps. Hence East discarded a club, whereupon South ruffed with the south of diamonds. At this point, South had already won six tricks and could afford to lead any black card from this hand.

The defenders could take their clubs and spades, but eventually South would make his queen-nine of trumps, fulfilling the contract.

Retain George Allen's Name; He'll Be Around A Long Time

WASHINGTON—The one man in the United States who probably can make the shrewdest prediction as to who will be the presidential candidates in 1952 is George Edward Allen.

He is most easily identified as George Allen, the White House jester. The implication in the title that Allen is merely a jovial buffoon couldn't be more inaccurate. Allen is a cool, smart individual who has parlayed a marvelous, ingratiating personality into big money and a position of influence in American government and business enjoyed by practically no other person in the country.

Allen's unique status behind the national scene, as all of his innumerable close friends admit, is due to "who" Allen knows and not "what" he knows. That's true. But Allen also happens to know a lot of "what."

Allen's really close association with President Truman began during the '44 campaign when Truman was running for vice president. Allen accompanied Truman on most of his travels during that campaign, helping write his speeches, ironing out problems along the way and generally being a genial traveling companion.

Well Liked Person: Truman, like everybody else who has had much association with Allen, became very fond of him. The President's door always is open to him.

Thus, if the President gets another four years, Allen's comfortable and influential position in Washington is undisturbed. But what if the President does not run?

That leaves the most likely Democratic candidate as Chief Justice Vinson. And it just so happens that Vinson probably is even a closer personal friend of Allen's than Truman. They are poker-playing cronies.

Even if somebody else is selected as Democratic candidate, Allen is his friend. Allen is a buddy of every big-shot Democrat in the country.

Should General Eisenhower be nominated by the Republicans and then win, George Allen would remain just as welcome a visitor to the White House as he is right now. When the general was called to Washington recently by the President, the only purely social event was an evening with Allen.

It was George Allen who handled the whole deal on General Eisenhower's purchase of a farm in Gettysburg, Pa. It gave the general residency in a state with a lot of delegates to the Republican National Convention.

The way Allen has become associated with important people is amazing. Milton Eisenhower, the general's brother became a good friend of Allen's back in 1932 when Milton was working for the Department of Agriculture.

Through Milton, Allen had heard of brother Dwight. But he didn't get to know him well until later in the early stages of the war when Allen was in London on a special mission for President Roosevelt.

In his hilarious book, "Presidents Who Have Known Me," Allen tells how he predicted that Ike would get the job of European commander purely by accident one night at a big dinner. When his prediction came true, he says, everybody in London thought he was a great wheelchair. "I hope I didn't startle you," said the older woman. "My chair runs very quietly and I sometimes forget it's like sneaking up behind someone on rubber soles."

"Oh hello, Mrs. Denton!" said Alma. She wasn't surprised, now that the first shock was over, at seeing the doctor could maneuver her chair with ease and was a frequent visitor in all parts of the House.

Mrs. Denton took every advantage of her helpless condition, and her appearance was affected; somehow she contrived to remind one of Whistler's famous portrait of his mother, though Alma sensed that under the soft costume and the mild air of sweetness, sad resignation, was a will of iron.

"Was there something special you wanted, Mrs. Denton?" "No," the voice was at once both plaintive and bravely cheerful. "I just came up to say goodbye. I leave on my vacation very soon."

"Oh yes! Joe's talking you to Mexico, I hear!" "The doctor thought the sunshine might do me good. Well, I'm sorry to have missed the others. I'll be too busy to get back upstairs before I go. Not that I suppose they care whether they ever see an old wreck like me again."

MRS. DENTON dabbed at her eyes with a large cambric handkerchief, leaned back wearily, and dropped the handkerchief to the floor. Alma watched the witch-like face anxiously for a moment, until Mrs. Denton pulled herself together with an apologetic smile.

"Well, I must be going!" she said. "My handkerchief... would you mind, dear? I can't quite reach it."

Alma retrieved the handkerchief and received a too-grateful smile. "I hope you and Joe—have a pleasant trip, Mr. Denton."

"Thank you, my dear! Goodbye!" Alma watched the woman wheel herself off and then deliberately delayed putting away her work in order to avoid having to go down in the same elevator.

THE STORY: Alma Conroy, designer in an exclusive jewelry firm, goes to lunch with Joe Denton to tell him wonderful news of her husband Tommy's promotion. Tommy, Joe and Alma are in a taxi. But at the taxi stand, they see Tommy, who had told Alma he was going to be out of town, in company with another woman. Joe confesses his love for Alma and says that he wants to marry her if she will leave Tommy. Believing there must be another explanation for Tommy's conduct, Alma gives him a chance to explain and Tommy says the girl was Brett Marshall, ex-girl-friend of Brightman Munroe, son of the president of the firm for which the Conroys and Joe Denton work.

Alma. The pair of clips had been enlarged to what the journeyman called "litter," a necklace of almost identical clips, which could be separated into clips, a breast pin and bracelets. The stones were mostly medium small diamonds with some sapphire "shavings"—thin stones to be worked off into a floral design. The jewels were not in stock but the private accumulation of a customer who wanted them reset. It was a job carrying extra responsibility because the stones did not belong to The House.

Alma was grateful for an absorbing task and set about it with a sort of fury which she hoped would obliterate her personal problems. She did not intend to allow herself to think and she was not going to face Joe Denton.

AT noon she refused to go to lunch, but had a sandwich and coffee brought to the bench. She drank the coffee but could not eat and returned to her labors almost without stopping. From time to time throughout the afternoon, Old Victor watched her anxiously and when just before closing time he got ready to depart, he touched her lightly on the shoulder.

"Stop!" said he. "Everyone is leaving early because of the floor. Come, cherie, you have done enough for the day!" Alma turned heavy eyes on him.

"It'll stay a while," she said, trying to smile, "just long enough to finish this one clip. Please don't urge me, Papa Victor; I really want to do it."

He shrugged and left her, reluctantly, and when he had gone the big room seemed very silent and empty, but Alma was not conscious of the fact. It was only when she felt another presence close to her, that she looked up from her work. Then she saw Mrs. Denton, smiling at her from the

So they measure the animals and sure enough, the black horse was half an inch taller than the white horse.

DADDY RINGTAIL

Daddy Ringtail And Soup Bone

Daddy Ringtail, your monkey friend, stopped to visit at the hollow tree house where the Huffens Puffen, the friendly wolf, lives inside.

"Happy day, Huffen Puffen," said Daddy Ringtail, and the Huffen chuckled and answered: "Happy day from your old friend, the Huffen Puffen, and the Huffen is who I am."

Daddy Ringtail said he knew who the Huffen was. The Huffen said he knew Daddy Ringtail knew who he was, but he liked to say it anyway. Besides, the Huffen had a fine soup bone, he did, waiting now to be made into soup. Would Daddy Ringtail like to stay for the soup making, and maybe stay to eat some?

"Indeed I would, Huffen," said Daddy Ringtail. Together they went to the Huffen's kitchen to begin the making of soup with the soup bone.

"I left it here on the table, I did," said the Huffen. But where oh where was the soup bone now? Why, it wasn't there on the table at all, and a soup bone never runs away.

It is only a bone, you know. Well, the Huffen and Daddy Ringtail tried to think what might have happened to the soup bone, but they couldn't. And while they were still trying to think, from outside on the Elephant Path, they heard a happy noise of whistling. Yes, and through the window they could see who the whistler was.

The Whistler was Dog-people, a great big dog with floppy ears and a barrel collar that his Cousin St. Bernard had sent him to be a present. Dog-people was whistling now and walking along on his two back legs. Under one of his arms he carried a monstrous soup bone.

"Help!" shouted the Huffen. "Stop him! Somebody stop Dog-people with my soup bone!"

By WESLEY DAVIS

"Calm yourself, Huffen," said Daddy Ringtail, but the Huffen would not calm himself. He jumped out the window and shouted at Dog-people: "Dog-people, you come here with that soup bone!"

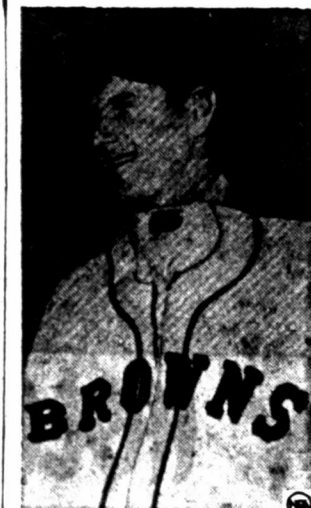

But would Dog-people do it? No sir, he wouldn't. Instead he began to run, and the Huffen began to chase him. What a running and chasing race it was! And I'll tell you about it tomorrow. Happy waiting to hear it. Happy day!

Treasure-Stuffed Stockings

By ALICIA HART
No matter what her age is, chances are the woman on your Christmas list is sufficiently young in heart to thrill to the numerous small, attractive gifts that have been designed to spill from her stocking or hang from her tree. So simple a thing as a lipstick can become a part of holiday fun when it's disguised to resemble a bright, gay Christmas bulb. Even its package is in keeping with the theme—a corrugated jacket. Another Christmas novelty is a mammoth die of white styrofoam, marked in the conventional fashion with golden dots. Hidden treasures inside the square are stick cologne and lipstick.

A gold-colored butterfly adorns the shepherd's-crook handle. A gleaming Christmas bell, topped with a perky ribbon bow, accompanies a tree-hanging lipstick; and a glittering plastic snowflake decorates a tiny bottle of perfume. Another timely and useful ornament, a large cardboard dangle bright with red, green and white design, holds a package of quality note-paper. A sure-fire gift for a career girl, or for any other woman who does a major amount of primping from her purse or traveling case, is a Tiny gifts make a big impression when they're packaged as stocking-stuffers or tree-hangers. Bringing pleased smile to face of young woman (above) is a bogus Christmas bulb, disguising a lipstick, and its like-real corrugated container. To further delight the young in heart on Christmas morning are (spilling from stocking) party snappers containing lipstick or cologne, fitted make-up wallet containing pressed powder, lipstick and rouge, and mammoth dice containing lipstick and stick cologne.

Atmosphere rolls right out of the stocking along with holiday snappers which are brightly cased in pink, midnight blue or silver with pink labels, fringed at each end in traditional style. The prizes in these snappers are lipstick or stick cologne. For those women who dislike carrying bulky make-up purses, a neat little leather case of unusual shape, which folds flat when open, provides one answer. Lipstick pressed powder and rouge, all resplendent in a golden-plaid design cluster compactly together when the case is snapped shut. Tree-hangers this year, offered by various firms, vie with each other to add sparkle to the holiday scene. Quaint and old-fashioned is a white net parasol, trimmed with neat little leather case of unusual shape, which folds flat when open, end of a lipstick protrudes to form

THE SONGS OF CHRISTMAS

It was far from a tranquil Christmas Eve that night in 1818. Outside a blizzard raged. Inside the Alpine home the young priest, Joseph Mohr, gave his blessing to a new-born babe.

On his way home from his mission the wind died down and the storm stopped. The moon came out and stars twinkled in the sky.

Illustrated by Walt Scott

Inspired by this calm and beauty, as well as by his visit to the young mother and child, he hurried home and began writing. The first words were "Silent Night, Holy Night."

Congressman Almost Too Late For Tea

SINGAPORE—(AP)—A group of American congressmen passing through Singapore almost missed tea at the University of Malaya. They arrived 80 minutes late—just as the tea and cakes were being removed from the tables. The party was given in honor of Dr. G. V. Allen, vice chancellor of the university. The congressmen said their transport failed to show up at the hotel. The congressmen are members of a House expenditures committee and are traveling around the world to investigate problems arising from the flow of supplies to American bases. They are headed by Rep. Herbert C. Bonner (D-N. C.).

Tough Competition For White Yuletide

SANTIAGO, CHILE—(AP)—A white Christmas is going to face tough competition from the local type of Yuletide this year in Santiago. Plans are under way for a festive celebration in a park. Stalls sponsored by the embassies of different countries will bring the traditional Old World touch to an occasion which will take place in mid-Summer heat. Cotton snow and paper mache reindeer are the best that can be produced. The traffic through several of the main streets in the downtown area is diverted, and colored lights are strung across the streets from the buildings. Crowds stroll along in the evenings, enjoying a breath of air and perhaps feeling cooler for having seen the shop displays with cotton powdered with borax, and the warm-clad Santa Claus.

Riches Are Elusive In Great Britain

HARROGATE, England—(AP)—No Briton going into business these days has much chance of making a fortune. Sir Patrick Hamilton, chairman of a group of engineering companies, told a conference here. Addressing the British Institute of Management, Sir Patrick said about the only chance of getting into the big money is to seek a career in something new—avoiding large concerns whether nationalized or private enterprise. Living standards of top executives in Britain today, he said, are somewhere around that of a junior manager in prewar days.

PREHISTORIC JAWBONE

JEFFERSON, Iowa—(AP)—A 55-pound lower jawbone of one of Iowa's native elephants was found recently by Lynn Deal on his farm near here. Excellent preserved, the bone was identified as that of a hairy mammoth. The mammoth, a pleistocene-age relative of the elephant, roamed this part of the world 50,000 years or so ago. It was about the size of the modern elephant.

Driving Learned By Teen-Agers

DETROIT, Mich.—(AP)—Teen-age automobile drivers are learning in school courses how to do a better job behind the wheel. Almost 8,000 high schools, 40 per cent of the total, offered either classroom or classroom and practice driving courses. A total of 662,370 or 43 per cent of those eligible, participated, according to a report issued by the Association of Casualty and Surety Companies covering the 1950-51 school year. The report showed an increase of almost 18 per cent in the number of students participating over the previous year, and an increase of 10 per cent in the number of schools offering driver-training courses.

RIDING PRESIDENT

In February, 1909, President Theodore Roosevelt created a temporary newspaper sensation by covering 98 miles on horseback between daylight and dark. He made use of three horses in his 17 hours of riding.

Whatever your health problem—whether it be overweight, fatigue, nervous tension, complexion, rheumatic pain, or poor circulation, if massage is indicated, Niagara has the right size and price of massage unit to suit you. These units give from 10,000 to 35,000 massage actions per minute. While Pettit Wagner, owner and manager of Niagara Massage Units Co. at 5016 Alameda, Houston, Texas, reclines on the vibrating full-length combination table, Technician Judy Love gives her home demonstration of portable units. The foot and leg relaxer is not only used to trim hips, legs, and ankles, but to invigorate the back and stomach muscles. The hand unit has many uses.

Circulation-building, vitality-producing Niagara Massage Units are providing hundreds of Houstonians with the benefits of a healthful gym workout right in the privacy of their homes.

Niagara technicians, trained in massage, say their home demonstration service usually convinces the customer in 10 minutes.

Surges of sensation (from 10,000 to 35,000 massage actions per minute) revitalize tired limbs when Niagara gently massages your body. Skin, tissue and muscles feel the effects.

Muscles that become weak and flabby from dieting become firm and supple when you use Niagara exercise. A few minutes workout and even the most tense person goes off to sleep.

Niagara is Underwriters Laboratories-approved, bears the Good Housekeeping Seal of Approval, fully guaranteed and may be bought with a small down payment and convenient monthly terms. For a demonstration that will make you feel so much better, phone 4-8241 for a trained technician to call at your home, or you may visit the health room of Niagara Massage Units Co. at 5016 Alameda, Houston, Texas.

Remember, doctors recommend Niagara.

Youth Center Chatter

By GAIL BAKER

Howdoo! Well, this is our last column (just for us, that is) for three weeks. As we told you, we are going on a trip—leaving Friday and returning January 2 or 3. We are leaving everything with Nancy Klingler and others and we surely hope they don't have too much trouble reportin' everything to you all.

We had quite a basketball battle with the San Angelo Bobcats Tuesday night, but we think we did pretty good—the final score being MIDLAND 33; SAN ANGELO 52. The "B" squad lost by a 32-22 score.

We play the Odessa Bronchos here Friday night. Shore hope we win. We were supposed to have played them last Friday night over there, but the game was postponed.

State play-offs are scheduled Saturday for Breckenridge and Temple and for Lubbock and Baytown. The former teams will play in Abilene, while the latter are to "battle it out" in the Cotton Bowl, Dallas.

MHS Grad Visits
The other day we noticed Charles Sutton, an MHS grad of '50, visiting at school. Charles recently suffered a collar bone injury. We hope you get along okay, Charles.

Hmmm. We hear Jim Ten Eyck has seven new girl friends, as of last Friday night—can you tell us why, Jim? Maybe if you won't tell us, Roy Kinsey and Bill Erskine will! Ya reckon so?

Last Thursday night a banquet was held honoring the "B" and "C" football squads and the Half-Timers. Alan Harris and his band, including Larry Watts, Larry Mayfield, Horace Greenstreet, Pat Douglas, Jimmy McClatchy and Jimmy Smith, furnished the music for the gathering.

The Christmas holidays will extend from Wednesday, December 19, until Wednesday, January 2.

The Youth Center has planned a semi-formal dance for Saturday, December 22, with music furnished by the dear ole juke box.

Holiday Formal
The BIG annual holiday formal dance will be held at the YC on New Year's Eve—music will be furnished by an orchestra.

The seniors still are struggling through their research themes of ONE THOUSAND WORDS—and no less! They vary from the history of jazz to the life history of some famous person.

Almost every time they are in the Center, Nancy Steedman, Sara Hendricks and Emily Studdert entertain the members by dancing the "shag."

Last weekend 20 members of our band ventured to Lubbock for a band clinic. When they arrived home Saturday afternoon, they surely were "dragging."

Madelon Schabarum and Gregory Lovelady (along with Miss Wanda Myrick, went to Dallas last weekend for a journalism meet.

To Attend OLV
We are losing another of our Youth Center members at mid-term. Carla Mae Lea is going to finish school this year at Our Lady of Victory in Fort Worth. Surely hate to see you leave, Carla, but we are sure you will like OLV.

Jackie Brady and her family are planning to spend their Christmas vacation in Tulsa, Okla. Have fun!

Well, so long—see you in about three weeks. Be sure and look for the YCC, though, under Nancy Klingler's name.

FINES REDUCED

IPO, MALAYA—(P)—The Appeal Court has reduced fines of $80 imposed on two engineers who locked up a sentry when they found him sleeping on duty at the Perak hydroelectric company's dam. The two company engineers felt they were wrongly convicted of confining the special constable. They felt it their duty to see the Communist terrorists don't damage the dam and a sleeping sentry with his gun at his side was not of much protective value.

STILL PACKING 'EM IN

SAIGON, INDOCHINA—(P)—The film "Gone With the Wind," even though it's ancient now as American movies go, still is drawing crowds at cinemas in Saigon. A single seat costs $3.50.

Dear Santa Claus—

Dear Santa Claus:
"Please bring me twin dolls and a pair of skates, a cowgirl suit and a pair of cowgirl boots. I love Santa Claus. I will see you this Christmas."
—Barbara Ann Kirksey.

Dear Santa:
"My mother says I try to be a good boy. I would like a canary in a big cage, punching bag and boxing gloves, and typewriter. I am going to leave you some cookies and candy. I am six years old."
—Harry Miller.

Dear Santa Claus:
"I am a little girl six years old, but I haven't started to school yet. I have tried to be a good girl this year. For Christmas, I would like dishes, telephone, small hoister set and a doll chair chair. Please bring all little children what they want. Don't forget, we live in McCamey. Oh yes, Santa, don't forget to bring me some clothes for my twin dolls and Bonny Braids."
—Sharon Singleton McCamey, Texas.

Dear Santa Claus:
"I am almost three years old. Please bring me an air gun (illustrated), that will shoot. Also bring me an Indian chief (illustrated). And lots of pretty toys. Bring me some candy and bring me a surprise. I love you."
—Mark.

P. S. Please bring my presents to Sweetwater, I will be there Christmas.

Dear Santa:
"I have started to school this year and I'm six years old. I have made good grades. I want a set of guns, football and suit, punching bag, and don't forget Sharon. Love."
—George Singleton McCamey, Texas.

Dear Santa:
"Sharon asked me to write for her as she isn't old enough to write. She would like for you to bring her a Bonny Braids doll, kitchen cabinet,

Cost Of Vice In Singapore Grows

SINGAPORE—(P)—The cost of vice is increasing in Singapore. Young girls and women are going up in price on the market.

Racketeers are paying as high as $650 for the purchase of a 17-year-old girl for prostitution purposes. Plenty of easy money and the soaring cost of living have resulted in increased sales of women by poorer families.

"We cannot wipe out prostitution," said an anti-vice officer, "but we can make things difficult for the operators." There have been many cases of girls under 18 used for prostitution. Reports tell of 14 and even seven-year-old girls found in brothels. They had been sold into prostitution.

Excess Fluid In Body Often Causes Loss Of Balance

By EDWIN F. JORDAN, M. D. Written for NEA Service

A reader asks for an article on the organs of balance in the middle ear and what causes them to get "out of kilter" and cause periods of dizziness. This question refers, I think, to a condition known as Meniere's syndrome, which has been discussed in this space several times before. Before talking about this common and distressing condition, a word might be said about what controls balance in the human body. There are three: the eyes which can observe such things as stairs and the position of the feet on them, the sense of position in the legs themselves called the proprioceptive system, and a system of canals in the internal part of the ear. The condition to which the question refers is a disturbance in the inner portion of the ear and not in the eyes or the proprioceptive system. The symptoms of Meniere's disease are irregular attacks of dizziness, occasional ringing in the ears and deafness. Its cause is believed to be a drop in the deep portion of the ear called the inner ear, or labyrinth. This dropical condition—accumulation of fluid—does not often develop in young people, but beyond the age of 45 becomes increasingly common. Some patients who drink a lot of fluids find that an attack comes on a few hours afterwards—probably because of the increased accumulation of fluid in the labyrinth. This has given a clue leading to the use of some forms of treatment aimed at cutting down the intake of fluids or removing excess fluids from the body. Several medical treatments, such as the use of histamine or atropin, have met with some favor and surgery also has been tried with varying degrees of success. For many people with Meniere's disease, treatment brings some but not complete relief.

The term "Meniere's syndrome" (not disease) is used loosely for several different diseases of the inner ear, the symptoms of which are alike in that there are attacks of dizziness or vertigo (there is a slight technical difference), ringing in the ears and increasing difficulty in hearing. More recently it was realized that various conditions could bring about the same symptoms and that it was important to find out exactly what was at fault in order to select the correct treatment. Infection, fractures, tumors and injuries may all cause similar symptoms.

SANTA and the MAGIC MIRROR by LUCRECE HUDGINS

SYNOPSIS: As Belinda and Tommy grow back to their real selves the balloon falls swiftly, landing them in a snow drift. They see hundreds of lights and know they have reached Santa Land. Knocking on Santa's door, they hear "Come in," and open the door, only to scatter the thousands of cards the funny little dwarf Tweedleknecs is sorting into packs. In a rage, Tweedleknecs chases them from the house.

CHAPTER NINE

A GIFT FROM THE GIANTS

"FOR shame!" cried Santa to Patrick Tweedleknecs who had frightened Belinda away. "Go after her and bring her back."

"Won't do it!" shouted Tweedleknecs. "Look at the damage she did!"

"Nonsense," said Santa. "It was my fault. I told her to open the door. Go and get her now for she must be cold and frightened outside."

Tweedleknecs stomped to the door. "You'll be sorry someday," he muttered. "I'll just resign. Then what will you do?" He threw open the door. It no longer mattered about the wind for it could do no more damage. "All right, you careless, thoughtless, useless creature," he screamed from the door. "You can come in now."

Suddenly Santa himself was there. "Why—there are two of them!" he exclaimed. "Poor children! What a dreadful thing to happen to you on your first visit here."

"You'll get used to Tweedleknecs," said Santa as he helped the children off with their coats. "His fussing means no more than the buzzing of flies. Inside he has a heart as soft as a cream puff."

"Hmp!" snapped Tweedleknecs from under the bed where he was retrieving cards. "Some day you'll find out how mad I can get when I really try!"

"My!" gasped Belinda, hardly knowing whether to be afraid or not. "He sounds as mean as Mr. Lump!"

"Who may I ask is Mr. Lump?" snapped Tweedleknecs.

"Mr. Lump," corrected Tommy. "He is my father."

"He is dreadfully mean," said Belinda. "And he never gives Tommy any Christmas at all even though he is the richest man in town."

SANTA sat down by the fire and pulled the two children into his arms. "Tell me about Mr.

Santa Pulled the Two Children into His Arms.

Lump. I can see that he is why you are here." "Oh, it was good to be there with Santa's arms around them? Tommy felt as though his heart would burst with happiness and love. And Belinda felt as though she were home with Poppy safe and sound once more.

They told Santa everything that had happened. About Poppy being a wonderful Santa at a department store. And about Belinda meeting Tommy and feeling sorry for him because he'd never seen a Santa Claus or hung up his stockings on Christmas eve or even had a Christmas tree.

"So I took Tommy to see Poppy because he's such a wonderful make believe Santa," said Belinda.

"But my father thought I had been kidnapped and had Poppy put in jail," said Tommy. "And now I really have run away and I'll never never go back until my father says he is sorry to Poppy!"

When they had finished the story Santa just sat there rocking and thinking and never saying a word. Presently the door opened and in came Mrs. Claus carrying an enormous box wrapped in red striped paper and tied with golden ribbons.

"Here's a Christmas gift I found on the steps for Santa," said Mrs. Claus. Then she noticed the two children. "Goodness me!" she exclaimed. "What dear children! Was it you who brought this gift?"

Santa told Mrs. Claus the children's story and Mrs. Claus rushed right to the kitchen to prepare something good for them to eat. Santa read the card on the Christmas gift. "To Santa with love from the Horrible Hobblins!" Opening the box he found a red flannel night gown.

"Imagine!" exclaimed Tweedleknecs. "Only six months ago the Horrible Hobblins hated you!"

"Who are the Horrible Hobblins?" asked Belinda. "They are giants," said Tweedleknecs. "They used to be very cruel but suddenly they changed and now are as sweet as new born babies."

Santa said, "Now we must find out what caused them to change." "Why should we care?" protested Tweedleknecs. "Because," said Santa. "If we find out the secret of the Horrible Hobblins perhaps we'd know how to soften the hard heart of Mr. Lump."

Meat Stew Is A Tasty Treat

CATSUP MEAT STEW on fluffy rice is easy to prepare and is sure to make a hit with the whole family.

By GAYNOR MADDOX
NEA Foods and Markets Editor
For a good dinner everyone will like, try this recipe:
Catsup Beef Stew
(Makes 4 or 5 servings)
One-quarter cup flour, 1 pound round steak, 2 slices bacon, cut in 1 1/2-inch pieces, 1 1/4 cup chopped onion, 1 tablespoon fat, 3/4 cup catsup, 3/4 cup water, 1 teaspoon salt, 1/8 teaspoon pepper, 1 1/2 cups packaged pre-cooked rice, 1 1/2 cups water, 1/2 teaspoon salt.
Pound flour into meat. Cut into 1 1/2-inch cubes. Fry bacon until crisp in large pan. Remove bacon and set aside. Sauté onion in bacon drippings until golden brown. Remove and set aside. Add fat to drippings, then add meat and brown, stirring frequently.
Add catsup, water, salt, pepper, bacon and onion. Cover and simmer about 1 1/2 hours, or until meat is tender, stirring occasionally. Combine rice, water and salt in saucepan. Mix just until all rice is moistened.
Bring quickly to a boil over high heat, uncovered, fluffing gently once or twice with fork. (Do not stir.) Cover and remove from heat. Let stand 10 minutes. Arrange rice on serving platter. Top with beef stew.
Oysters belong in the American holiday tradition. Roasted and served in their own shells, they are really wonderful eating.
Long Island Roast Oysters
Thirty-six oysters, 8 tablespoons melted butter, 2 tablespoons finely chopped parsley.
The oyster shells must be cleaned very thoroughly (scrubbed with a brush). Place oysters in shell on a baking sheet and roast in hot oven (450 degrees F.) about 15 minutes or until shells open. Serve on cup side of shell, pour the melted butter and parsley over each oyster.

Dear Santa Claus—

Dear Santa Claus:
"Please bring me a Christmas tree, horse, gun, machinegun, cowboy boots, truck, wagon, flag, cars, and I guess that's all. Oh yes, a cowboy hat. I love you very much."
—Carl Lynn Raynes.
P.S. Also fruits, nuts and candy.

Dear Santa:
"I am a little boy five years old. I have been a good boy all year. I would like for you to bring me a ranch set, bow and arrow set, cowboy hat and anything else you want to bring me.
"I will leave a big piece of cake on the table for you."
—Jody Bell.
P.S. Thanks for the things you brought me last year.
P.S. Two—I can't write so my mother is writing this for me.

Dear Santa:
"I have been a good boy. I take care of my grandmother while my mother works.
"Please bring me a bike, a drum and bus station. Please bring grandmother a dress and shoes. I am seven years old."

Love,
Carl Touchstone.

Dear Santa:
"I am three and one-half years old. Will you please bring me a rubber doll any anything else you might have.
"Don't forget my two little sisters and all the other good little boys and girls."
—Shirley Ann Martin.

Dear Santa:
"I want a doll, table that folds up and four chairs. Bring Barry a Cub Scout suit, gun and rooking horse, also scabbard."
—Ann Cook.

Dear Santa:
"I have been a pretty good girl some of the time. I would like you to bring me a permanent doll, a paint set and a doctor set. I would also like some candy cigarettes. When you bring these—thanks for the presents. I am four years old."
—Margaret Anne Miller.

Dear Santa Claus:
"I'm in the first grade. I won't ask for much. Please bring me a Hopalong Cassidy two-gun holster, big blackboard and tool set. That's all. Thank Lou."
—Buddy Kraus.

Dear Santa:
"I have been a good girl. Will you bring me Bonnie Braids, tea set and cradle? I love you."
—Mary Ann Greene.

Dear Santa:
"I am two years old. Please bring me a baby doll and anything else you think I might like. Don't forget my big sister and little baby sister. Be good to all the other little children."
Love,
—Patricia Lynn Martin.

P. S. Spell Patricia with only one "l" please.

Dear Santa:
"May I have an iron and ironing board? And may I have some fairly large size dishes?"
—Martha.

Cost Of Public Housing Estimated

PORTLAND, ORE.—(AP)—Federal spending for public housing may soon reach a rate of one billion dollars annually. Norman Strunk of Chicago told the Oregon Savings and Loan League's recent convention.
"This increase pressure from the subsidized housing program will mean the difference between holding or not holding the line on construction costs and prices in many communities," said Strunk, who is executive vice president of the U. S. Savings and Loan League. He cited Congressional appropriations authorized for $2,300 family dwelling units in 13 months ending July 1, 1952. "At a maximum cost per unit of $8,450," he said, "it is possible that an early outlay for construction alone will total $780,000,000. This is exclusive of land cost."
