

I wish to send a word of praise for the very interesting article that Corporal Henry wrote for your "Here in Hico" column. For you fortunate people who live there it might not mean so much. But it has been 22 years since I was there, and reading that article was like a brief but pleasant visit.

The paper is a great pleasure to me. The copy that had a picture of Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Everett gave me a thrill. Velma was my friend and classmate.

There you are, folks. We've been telling you all the time that some Good Samaritan ought to take it upon themselves to take up where Corporal Henry left off. Several other letters similar to that from Mrs. Nash have further convinced us.

Tommy Leeth, who likes Hico a whole lot more than he or any other Hamiltonian will admit, has been helping his dad, Jack, and Grandpa Nontle around the local store during summer vacation from school. Tommy accompanied his dad on a business trip to West Texas last week, and Jack sold their car out from under them so they hitched a ride back as far as Cisco and came in from there Sunday afternoon by MKT.

Close contender for the title of Official Night Owl on the NR street for the past two weeks has been Sam O. Elder, new proprietor of the tailor shop across the street. The newspaper office manages to outstay him, but Mr. and Mrs. Elder and Mrs. Blakley open up earlier most of the time.

That bunch around the drug store always tries out superciliousness on the editor. A few days ago it was a new vitamin "guaranteed, in fifteen days, to make you feel and act like you are fifteen years old."

United War Chest Workers to Meet With Officials At Temple

Special to The News Review:

MCCLOSKEY GENERAL HOSPITAL, Temple, Tex., Sept. 5.—Dr. A. J. Koen, Hamilton County Chairman and Special Gifts Coordinator, Mrs. Alma Yates, Publicity Chairman, and G. W. Barkley, Treasurer, will attend the meeting of the County Executive Board of Region 7 of the United War Chest of Texas at McCloskey General Hospital on Tuesday, Sept. 12, as the guests of Brig. Gen. James A. Bethea, commanding general.

The first session of the conference will be held at 10 a. m. in Red Cross Auditorium No. 2. A motion picture entitled, "Memo For Joe," which depicts the activities of the National War Fund, will be shown, and the plans for the Drive in Region 7 will be discussed.

Following the luncheon, a tour of the hospital will be made at 1:30 o'clock. Patient guides will show the delegates around the hospital, and the tour will include the post library, occupational therapy, wards, brace shop, and other points of interest.

Paper Salvage Campaign Over Half-Way Mark

Twenty-five thousand pounds of waste paper is the goal set for Hico in the current collection of this vital war material.

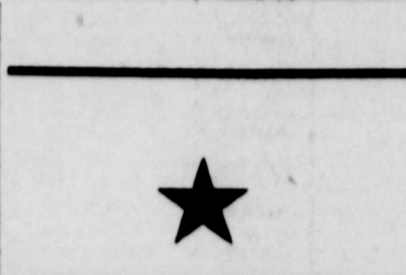

George Stringer, local salvage chairman, reported Thursday afternoon that 15,000 pounds of this amount had been collected and shipped. Every person is asked to be responsible for 20 pounds of waste paper.

"Modern Way" Is Name Selected for Dadd's New Store

L. E. and Bob Dodd announced this week that their new market and grocery will open Saturday under the name of "Modern Way."

The new enterprise is housed in the McAnely Building on Main Street, where considerable remodeling has provided quarters that are a credit to a town of this size. Modern fixtures, well arranged, are attractive and efficient.

The children of Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Burnett gathered into the Burnett home last week to celebrate the 59th wedding anniversary of their parents, also the 79th birthday of Mrs. Burnett.

MYRT'S SLEEPING UNDER BLANKETS—WISHES SHE WAS HERE, WE'LL BET

Plainview, Colo. August 28, 1944

The Hico News Review: Hello All of You: Darn the luck anyway—having to have a fire in August, Pardon my French, but here I sit trying to get a fire to burn and the darned thing simply refuses. Wonder if I could inveigle some of the nice citizens of the home town to come up and build fires for me? Maybe someone who is tired of the heat and climate would like a change.

Well, this guy on the line is hollering, "Pain, copy a bundle." So I guess I better do just that. I'll be seen 'ya.

BETTIE (CARLTON) SOWDER SAYS THEY'RE COMING BACK AFTER WAR FOR BIG PARTY

3226 Camp Bowie Blvd. Fort Worth, Tex. September 2, 1944

Dear Mr. and Mrs. Holford: We just received the good old Hico paper and I thought it about time to take my pen in hand and give you an account for this family.

First, "Flopp's" wife from Kentucky came and visited a week with us. Believe it or not, but she likes Texas.

Another bit of news which is now old news is that I married a sailor the 29th day of April. He was here last week on a ten-day leave before going back to combat duty where he was for 18 months.

"Ma" Carlton is coming back when the war is over and give all the kids a big bang-up party like we used to have.

Thanks for the paper about Othar's receiving his Air Medal. We're awfully proud of him.

MR. AND MRS. E. W. CRIST HAVE HEARD FROM SONS HELPING IN THE INVASION

Pfc. Harold T. Crist has written his parents here, Mr. and Mrs. Ed W. Crist, that he had been in a hospital in England for a week at the time the letter was written.

Navy Distributing Booklet On Rights of Discharged Veterans

Dallas, Sept. 5.—Distribution of a booklet published by the Re-training and Re-employment Administration Office of War Mobilization is being made to all discharged Navy personnel of the Eighth Naval District, according to Lieutenant Commander L. H. Rhudy, USNR, District Civil Re-adjustment Officer.

The booklet is to give each discharged veteran a quick picture of the rights and benefits available to him and his dependents.

Part two discusses the benefits to which he is entitled. These include: mustering out pay; continuation of government insurance; getting a government job; business training; vocational training; what to do if unemployed; how to procure loans for homes, farms or business; procedure for resumption or continuance of education; availability of hospital care and medical aid; disability pensions; care in national soldiers' homes; legal protection; adjustments of income tax payments; claim for back pay; review of discharge; review of retirement; and assistance with special problems.

JACK'S TOO NICE TO US—HE MUST WANT US TO FURNISH THE "DUCK"

Advance Base New Guinea August 24, 1944

Dear Mr. and Mrs. Holford: After reading my first copy of the paper since I have been overseas, I feel as though I should write and tell you how nice it is to get the news from home.

Well, I must sign off and go to bed, so keep up the good work and I am sure you will be rewarded for it.

Yours truly, JACK.

Always in the past I have admired your nerve, Jack, but that last remark may bring down upon your head the wrath of boys in other branches of service.

TELL YOUR TROUBLES TO THE CHAPLAIN, SERGEANT. WE DON'T RUN RAILROADS

Sgt. Mattie Ellen Greer came in from Fort Ogilthorpe, Ga., Saturday night to spend as much of her 10-day furlough with relatives and friends as travel conditions would allow her.

Mattie's account of her trip home under congested conditions on the train sounded like a combination of Gulliver's travels and the trials and tribulations of Job. But when she started out with saying she had stood up all the way to Fort Worth the editor invited her to tell her troubles to the chaplain.

Laredo, Texas 28 August 1944

Dear Holford: I finally received a copy of the paper, the first one in a month. I had made up my mind that if I didn't get the d— thing this week I was going to demand a refund on my subscription.

Now to get down to the clippings enclosed. One, as you well know, is from your paper, the other from The San Antonio Light. If you will check closely, both stories are exactly alike except the town and the Social Security Board manager.

Let's take the second possibility, which I'm inclined to believe is the case. This could be another of those propaganda stories that circulate around these days.

Well, what do you think? Am I right or wrong in my deductions? If you find out anything, let me know. This is just to let you know I'm on the beam and read the papers.

Hico Superintendent Reports Ready For New Term of School

"Wars may come and wars may go but school goes on forever," said J. E. Lincoln, new superintendent of Hico Public Schools, on the eve of the opening of a new term.

"Beginning Monday, Sept. 11, the public schools of Hico again open their doors to the boys and girls of this community. We trust that all who possibly can do so will be there to register and receive books for the coming year.

The boys and girls of America have done a great job toward winning the war, but Uncle Sam says that he wants to see every boy and every girl of school age back in school this fall.

Registering will begin at 9:15 and be over by 12:00. Pupils need not bring their lunches.

Convention Picture Seems Brighter for Roosevelt Forces

Austin, Sept. 5.—"The Dallas convention picture looks better for the Roosevelt forces every day now," declared Mrs. Alfred Taylor, state secretary of the pro-Roosevelt organization formed last June to fight for electors pledged to support of the party nominees.

The safe majority of delegates that was reported for us immediately after the county convention is growing rapidly as more people learn the significance of the plot to throw Texas' votes away," Mrs. Taylor explained.

Despite rumors to the contrary, there is adequate housing in Dallas for all of the pro-Roosevelt delegates," she added. "A housing bureau has been set up at 903 Southland Life Building in Dallas and reservations are being taken for hotel rooms. Those in charge of the bureau urge that the delegates make their applications as soon as possible."

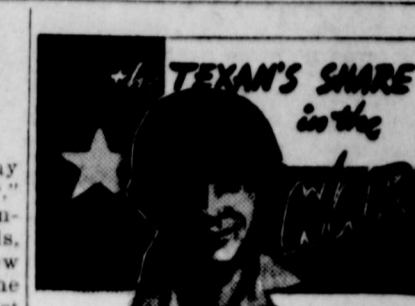

School Children Especially Need Hot Breakfasts

Austin, Sept. 5.—"Breakfast should supply everyone, young and old alike, with from one-fourth to one-third of the day's food needs," says Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer.

Dr. Cox discussing the dietary needs of school children says, "In many homes the line of least resistance is followed. The children when offered food at breakfast time may reply that they are not hungry, they do not have time, or in some instances will even say that breakfast makes them sick.

Whether young, middle aged or older, a good health practice is to break your fast with a good breakfast. The day's first meal is an important one. Parents cannot escape the obligation to see that their children are fed properly at the day's beginning."

Names make news, in war as elsewhere. So here are capsule paragraphs about Texans on the fighting fronts:

Sgt. R. W. Fuiks of Luling, Flying Fortress gunner, has been given the Distinguished Flying Cross for "extraordinary achievement" on bombing raids over Europe.

Sgt. Bill Robinson, Honey Grove, has the Air Medal with two Oak Leaf Clusters, won over Germany. But now he is a prisoner of war, having been shot down on a recent bombing flight.

The Japs will stop at nothing short of death," warns Pfc. Judy Cox, Brownwood boy who has seen much fighting on Saipan. Back home to recover from wounds, he tells of hundreds of Japs who killed themselves rather than surrender.

Capt. Freddie Hobrecht, Beville, set some sort of a record recently when he bailed out of his riddled plane behind the German lines in France. Instead of becoming a Nazi prisoner, he made his way back to Allied lines, bringing a German prisoner with him.

Among Texans recovering from wounds received in France are these lads now at McCloskey General Hospital, Temple: Pfc. Gerónimo Saucedo, El Campo; S/Sgt. Joshua Traut, Center; Sgt. J. P. Suringer, Tenaha, and Lt. Henry Chaplan, Austin. Lieutenant Chaplan, who served in England and France, says robot bombs in flight "look like comets."

Pfc. Tom Kenworth, who lost a leg at St. Lo in France, says the fighting was so close that often they could hear the Jerries "hollering when our bullets hit them."

And an Anson boy, also back home to recover from wounds, tells how a Nazi shell hit his unit, knocking him unconscious and killing six Americans. He is S/Sgt. Harry Frye.

Lt. Jim McPherson of Kerrville, 21-year-old navigator of the Eighth Air Force, wears the Air Medal as result of bombing raids on German war industries. Lt. Ed Nolte of New Braunfels has been awarded the DFC, as well as the Air Medal and three Oak Leaf Clusters.

Back home for a rest after 22 months service in the Asiatic theater, is Pfc. Joe Pyles of Mansfield. And fighting Japs in the Jungles of Assam are two Texas generals—Maj. Gen. Howard Davidson, commanding the Tenth Air Force, and Brig. Gen. Aubrey Moore, the Tenth's chief of staff. General Davidson's home is Wharton. Both generals are graduates of Texas A. & M.

And on the Texas home-front, plans are swiftly taking shape for the state-wide drive on behalf of the National War Fund. Wayland D. Towner, general manager of the United War Chest of Texas, is now touring the state and meeting leaders who will spear-head the drive for approximately $5,000,000 "For Our Own and For Our Allies."

Corn Producers and Buyers Urged to Co-Operate On Ceiling

The OPA ceiling price on yellow or mixed No. 2 shelled corn is $1.24 per bushel delivered to warehouse or elevator in this area.

In a meeting recently held, the wholesale and retail dealers of Hamilton established a processing charge of 7 1/2 cents per bushel, making the price they agreed to pay for No. 2 yellow and mixed snap and ear corn in Hamilton County $1.16 1/2 per bushel.

The buyers and producers are urged to cooperate and attempt to buy and sell within this price.

THIS AND THAT

By JOE SMITH DYER

TWO SIDES TO EVERYTHING: Without a sense of humor we would all join the long-faced class of people and turn into cranks. Without a little comedy we would all go crazy. A sense of humor must be developed. Life to a baby seems so serious and sometimes all that the father and mother can do to get the baby to laugh falls. As we grow older we become all tangled up in life's trials and we forget to smile and this is a mistake.

A little laughter, a little comedy, a sense of humor often saves a situation and makes it bearable.

I once heard of a young husband who was anxiously pacing the corridors of a hospital. The doctor came out and said:

"Control yourself, young man." But the young man said, "I can't control myself because I am simply scared to death." And the doctor said, "You need not be scared. I have brought over 800 babies into the world and in all that time I have never lost a single father."

In almost every situation in life a reasonable amount of comedy serves as a shock-absorber. Lincoln's experiences were the most difficult of any man who had lived in this country up to his time, but his sense of humor often saved him from the deepest despair. Every day, and almost every hour, some serious situation can be helped by a little fun. The masters of ancient literature, the popular writers of today, the motion picture people, and many others have used comedy. We must always see the serious side of every situation in order to be successful but we must also see the funny side in order that we may live long and be happy while we are living.

There are two sides to everything, you know.

Wee Bits of GESTURE

[Opinions expressed in this weekly feature are the writer's, and not necessarily those of the News Review.—E.D.]

It has often been said that opportunity knocks only once. But, folks, to me this old theory seems to be incorrect. As a matter of fact, I believe opportunity knocks once and if you don't respond to the first knock it uses the very same tack as a "bill collector"—just keeps right on knocking. Of course the "knocks" are not always in the same field of endeavor, but offer new fields in which new ideas are developed.

Our late Senator Norris once remarked that "changing circumstances require changing attitudes." We find this philosophy to be entirely correct on most phases of our daily life. So far as I know, history doesn't record any time that Eve ever became dissatisfied with either her fig leaf dress or her own appearance. Yet in later years when the mirror came into use, women became "mirror gazers" and continued their "woeful" gazing on down through the years until finally in desperation one of their sex shouted, "We can do something about this, too!" From that time on, a billion dollar business in beauty parlors was in the "makings." Husbands were quickly assigned to "kitchen posts" and the Little Woman would spend most of the day in beauty parlors. When she returned in the evening completely disguised from the world was poor hubby to know he was kissing the "wrong woman" at the "wrong time" and calling her by the "wrong pet names"? Why, it's no different to under-cover methods.

Yes, sree, folks, as I have already said, opportunity knocks in new fields and you just mark my word and see if a lot of the youngsters of today are not soon taking a course on how to recognize political speeches. Why, the dickens, it's getting to where a fellow can't say or do anything without being accused of having "political ambition." Well, I guess those critics will be pouring it on me next, but business is business to me and I'm going right ahead and send for my free "Trapper's Guide" and I don't give a hoot what they say.

Anyway, I'm not going to get all "worked up over it" like the little boy who once angrily informed me he reached for a ground anole. "You're not going to accuse me of having ancestors on my back."

ALL SET FOR SCHOOL But Are They?

Off they go! New books... new clothes... but what about eyesight protection? Eighty-seven per cent of all that children learn they absorb through their eyes. Their ability to get ahead in school and win advancement in later life depends to a large extent upon their eyesight. So don't take chances. Give you children enough light and the right kind of light for easy seeing when they play or study at home. Better light means better grades!

Five Simple Things You Can Do to Assure Better Light for Home Study

1. Make sure bulbs in each reading or study lamp total at least 100 watts.
2. See that each lamp is properly shaded to prevent glare from exposed bulbs.
3. Keep bulbs, shades and reflector bowls clean. Replace blackened bulbs.
4. Place lamps close enough to working area to provide maximum amount of useful light.
5. Provide enough general room illumination to prevent eye-tiring contrasts of light and shadow.

In order to assure our nation of adequate automobile transportation, it is estimated that over 10 million cars should be replaced by July, 1945.

Whether the gasoline or rubber restrictions are relaxed or not, it is therefore imperative that cars continue to be treated with care and used as little as possible.

"Yes, I noticed the red arrow on that paper I wait for every week," wrote Ray C. Connolly from San Antonio last week, and enclosed (the chiseler) a check lacking four bits of being enough to pay for a whole year's subscription. But in view of the nice remarks he made about the paper and the town, we will just wait until his first visit to hit him up for the balance. He added, in his note: "I hope by the time this subscription is out, I'll be getting the NR at the Hico post office. I'll certainly be back the first day this war is over. . . . I was very sorry to hear of Mr. Jess Paire's death; as you know, he was like a lot of Hico folks, my friend."

CARD OF THANKS
I want to take this means of thanking my friends, neighbors and relatives for the cards, letters, and gifts you have sent me during my recent illness. I feel that each one was just a step to my being home and able to walk again.
Thanks again.

RECITAL AT WOLFE HOME PRESENTS MISS HENDERLITE, PROMISING YOUNG PIANIST

A recital at the H. N. Wolfe residence Sunday afternoon introduced to Hico Miss Margaret Henderlite, native of Stephenville, graduate of John Tarleton College, and student at the Chicago Conservatory of Music. Miss Henderlite has completed her first year in Chicago and is looking forward to continued study there this winter, after which she will begin her career as a concert pianist.

To a throng of enthralled listeners, Miss Henderlite revealed the wonders of Beethoven, Chopin, Debussy, and Liszt. She concluded the programme with the ever-popular "Rhapsody in Blue." Her renditions showed not only considerable talent in her chosen field but also hours of work and practice. Guests discovered later over delightful refreshments of punch and cookies that Miss Henderlite possesses, in addition to her musical gift, an interesting and charming personality.

Miss Henderlite and Mrs. T. U. Little, also of Stephenville, were house guests of Mrs. Wolfe and her son, Paul, all day Sunday, and returned to Stephenville late that afternoon.—P. P.

Church News

Methodist Church

Where were you last Sunday? What were you doing last Sunday while your pastor was holding the morning worship service? Don't try to answer these questions. It might prove a little embarrassing to answer them. Just answer present next Sunday morning and let's make it a big day in the service of our Lord. The pastor's sermon subject for the 11 o'clock hour will be "The Rest Call of Jesus."

"Sunday Religion will be the first in a series of sermons on "Christianity and Modern Life." If you want light on how a Christian should use his Sundays, come and hear this sermon Sunday night. If you want help on being a better Christian, come and hear the series of six sermons.

Sunday school begins at 10 a. m. Youth Fellowship meeting at 7:45 p. m. Evening worship at 8:30.

We had a good service last Sunday morning with two added to the church. We received a great blessing from the worship and the Lord's Supper. Don't rob your soul by staying away from the house of worship.

FLOYD W. THRASH, Pastor.

CHILDREN'S DAY—Sunday in the Baptist church will be Children's Day. We trust that each one of our boys and girls will come to all the services next Sunday. You are going to be given special seats. You are going to be our special guests. So we will be looking for you.—Brother Carpenter.

WORKERS CONFERENCE—Next Monday, Sept. 11, the Hamilton County Baptist Workers Conference meets at the Baptist church in Hico. A good program is in store and a good dinner at the noon meal is planned.

Prayer meeting each Wednesday evening at 8:30. The Book of Acts is being studied by the group and taught by the pastor.

O. D. CARPENTER, Pastor.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to thank each and everyone for the many kindnesses shown us at the death of our loved one and for the beautiful floral offerings. We are more grateful than words can express and we pray that God will bless each of you.

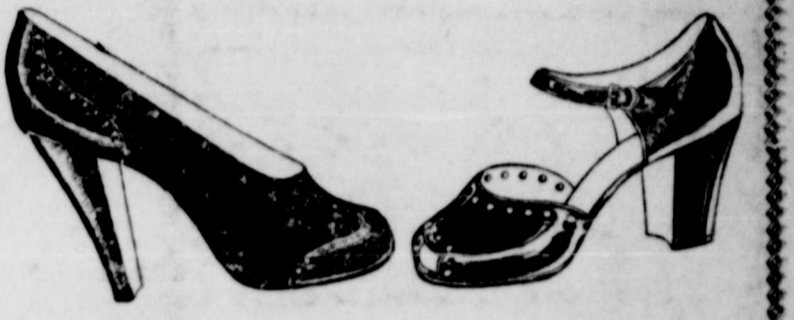

MRS. W. J. CHRISTOPHER AND CHILDREN.

Mr. and Mrs. M. L. "Dutch" Hancock of Elsa, Texas, accompanied by his mother, Mrs. W. A. Hancock of Clifton and Mrs. Jane Morgan and Miss Ann Haley of Laredo, were in Hico a short time Monday. They were on a hurried trip over Labor Day, and said they had lots of relatives and friends here they would have liked to see, but they had to get back home that night so Dutch could go to work the next morning. In his work of crop-dusting with airplanes, he does work which the OPA figures would require 100 men with hand machinery. He has nine planes going on citrus fruits, cotton, tomatoes, potatoes, peas etc., and says his job keeps him so busy he doesn't get to do all the deep-sea fishing he would like to.
