ROYAL ENGAGEMENT AHEAD?—A visit by the Earl of Dalkeith, 28, above, to Princess Margaret Rose at Sandringham, the king of England's private estate, rekindled London rumors that announcement of a royal engagement may be expected soon. Dalkeith, heir to a fortune and most eligible young man in Britain, has been listed as a strong contender for the hand of the 21-year-old princess for the last three years. Princess Margaret insists she's in no hurry to wed, may wait until she is 25.

'Letting Yourself Go' Involves More Than Your Appearance

By RUTH MILLETT
NEA Staff Writer

When we talk about a woman's "letting herself go," we usually refer to her looks. We mean she isn't interested in looking her best as she was once upon a time.

But there are many ways in which a woman may let herself go, that are just as much of a mistake. She may let herself go when it comes to friendships. For example, the woman who becomes so wrapped up in her family that she has no time for friends.

She may let herself go when it comes to outside interests. That is exactly what she does if she fails to replace worn-out interests with new ones, or becomes a half-hearted member of a number of organizations, instead of a working member of a few.

She may let herself go when it comes to personal charm. The woman who nags, the one who whines

Scents Add Charm To Outdoor Sports
By ALICIA HART
NEA Beauty Editor

The season for skiers is on. All the enthusiastic snow-skimmers are taking to the slopes with gusto and spirit. From early reports, women have donned their ski togs in earnest, and are well represented wherever outdoor sport fans gather.

ADD A fragrant touch to outdoor life through the scent of toilet water. It will be a refreshing, stimulating and utterly delightful accessory.

You confine your skiing skills to big hills or little ones, you can increase your confidence by wearing the "right" fragrance.

What you want is something with a blithe-spirited scent that will send you soaring before you even take off.

Since you won't want to appear on the scene with one of your delicately bottled fragrances, a world famous perfume creator has enclosed one of his exclusive toilet waters in an oval, hand-fit flacon with a black-and-white houndstooth band encircling its base, and with a cap to match.

Brush the toilet water over your hair, wrists, throat and temples. It may not help you to ski, but, oh, how wonderful you will feel.

When you've had enough of snow and sun, you can always seek the fireside. Before you get too comfortable, take a minute for another toilet water application. You will find it as relaxing as the fire.

SLEEPING COUPLE ROBBED

SELANG, MALAYA—After looking a sleeping couple in a bedroom, burglars cracked open a safe in another room and stole $4,000 worth of jewelry and cash. Then, for reasons unknown, they filled each box-drawer in the safe with water. The burglary was not discovered until the following morning when the couple awoke.

Moslems Ask For Death Reprieve

SINGAPORE—(AP)—Leading Moslems and thousands of their followers in this British Colony have sent a petition to the governor asking for the reprieve of a Pakistani sentenced to death for killing a British soldier in the December riots of 1946.

The petition, addressed to Gov. Sir Franklin Gimson, requests that A. K. S. Othman Ghany be spared from execution for the murder of Cpl Peter Hugh Bell. Ghany's appeals were rejected earlier in the year by two courts.

Youth Center Chatter

Well, here we are again and this time it looks as if it is for good. We sure hate to see "our Gail" go, but if she has to she has to. Here's hoping "yours truly" can take over the job and do just about half as good as she did. As you all know Gail Baker is going to Highland Park High School the rest of her high school days.

Well, the time has come and gone for those "dreadful" tests. This time it was not only six week tests but mid-term tests. The first and third were on Tuesday; second and fifth,

Wednesday; and fourth and sixth, Thursday. Here's hoping everyone passed.

We hope we get in all that has happened this week. Between playing the organ, studying for tests, practicing the piano, getting ready for Rainbow Initiation as worthy advisor, and then on top of all that, the flu, hope that everything is in.

The students of M. H. S. (rather the more talented ones) presented a talent show for the rest of us. Those participating were Larry and Bill Mayfield, Bob St. Clair, Dan Ratliff, Betty Campbell, Nancy Cooper, Don Forrest, Barbara McMillan, Agatha Tabor, Arthur Dean, Peggy Read, Cherry Page, Judy Edwards, Ann and Joan Fitzgerald, Jane Seakey, Emily Hamilton, Eldon Kinkin, Peggy O'Neal, Linda Davis and Audrey Young.

Assembly Program
Last Wednesday, for assembly, Miss Perkins with the help of her English class and other worthy classes, gave several skits, or maybe since this is literature, maybe we should say a few scenes from different acts of well-known poems.

Those participating were Dona Ingham, Dick Countiss, Helen Golliday, Betty Sivalls, Connie Shambien, Jerry Geisler, Raymond Leggett, Jane Stuart, Mary Ann McRae.

While we are speaking of assemblies, General Motors finally got to M. H. S. and Thursday afternoon representatives of the firm gave demonstrations of various things, scientific things, that is.

The basketball boys journeyed to Pecos Friday to participate in an invitational tournament there. Boys making the trip were Roy Kinsley, Larry Friday, Jesse Hatfield, John Van Buskirk, Bob Johnson, Bill Mims, Robert Keating, Jimmy Counts, Corky Moss, Ralph Brooks, and the two coaches, Rutledge and Gull. We didn't win any honors, but that was okay, boys.

By the way, last week it was overlooked about the results of the Odessa invitational tournament. Midland took over the title, honor, and trophy of consolation. Bob Johnson, a Midland guard rated the All-Tournament team by racking up 49 points in three games. Say, that was mighty fine, Bob. We're shore proud of you all.

The "flu" has taken the "pep" out of many of our friends, so our advice to you is stay away from that thing called "flu." Among those on its list are Nathan Tinkle, Anna Bess Doyle, Larry Mayfield, Nancy Cooper, Jimmy McClatchy, Grace Boles, Martha Prick, Dick Spencer, Nell Curran, Scotty Gray, Larry Friday, Alan Harris, Jimmy Mashburn and a million others, it seems. Hope to see all of you back at school by Monday, at least.

Jeanne Bridges, assistant director of the YC, also has had the flu, but was back on the job Tuesday. "Pay Year Dues!" We were asked to remind you about those things called "dues," and state that the dead line is February 1.

Another thing is let's watch how we handle things in the Youth Center, as they are there for your use, and you know that if something is the matter with the pool table, you fuss and gripe about it. After all it isn't every city that is fortunate enough to have a Youth Center and let's show the people of Midland we are proud of what they have us.

Martha Prick will leave town this weekend for Oklahoma to be in her cousin's wedding. She is to be a bridesmaid. We bet she makes a cute one.

The fifth period Home-Bo boys were mixing, we mean cooking, some ??? well what was it? Oh, yes, in the beginning it was roast, they cooked it and then, well you can just imagine what it ended up to be. They passed it out to some of the "mis-fortunate" students in Miss Reeves' fifth period typing. For boys' cooking we guess it was as good as could be expected. No, seriously, boys, the plate it was on was very pretty!

The M. H. S. Band will give its annual concert February 5.

Congratulations go to Harriet Higgins upon her installation Sunday afternoon as Worthy Advisor of the Order of the Rainbow for Girls.

If any of you have nick-names will you please let me know? We really would like to have all nick names.

Volleyball Players
There seemed to be quite a few people interested in the game of volleyball Saturday afternoon at the Y. C. You could have seen Ann Hamilton, Mae Whitson, Nanette Hayes, Jayman Edwards, Ramona Leigh, Glenda Adkins, Diane Gardner, Charles Worthen, Jim Ten Eyck, "Pella" Patterson, Gail Black, Betty Bolter, Pete English, Ray Phillips, Gary Dee Howard, Tommy Johnson, Ruth McEntire, Bobby Proctor, Phillip Hubbard, and John Tom "Myrt" Baker. Say just how many are on a team, anyhow?

There will be a Valentine's Dance at the Youth Center February 9, and it will be formal, and on top of that an orchestra will furnish the music. So everyone be sure and plan to go.

Speaking of dances, we are going to start having dances, semi-formal, rather just your school clothes, every Friday night. Now this plan was suggested by a lot of energetic teenagers so let's always take part in the things we help start. The dances might begin Friday, but we aren't sure about that.

Picnic Scheduled
Saturday week, there is to be a picnic for all Youth Center members. It possibly will be at Cole Park. We can meet at the Youth Center and go out in cars, on bicycles, or walk, if you like. Say that walking sounds interesting, doesn't it?

The ping pong tournaments will be held beginning Monday.

After the pool table covers have been fixed, the pool tournaments will begin. The date is not yet certain.

This is about all we could find for this week, so we will say "good-bye," and don't forget to pay your membership dues. See all of you next week. Sure hope the flu has gone by-bye.

Wife Of Professors To Receive Degree

NEW YORK—(AP)—Dr. Carl Hammer, Hunter College mathematics professor, will be glad when February 8 comes this year because he's getting tired of having one of the students around the house doing her homework.

On that commencement day his wife, Jeanette, 36, a former model and fashion illustrator for 10 years, will get her sheepskin. She finished her interrupted collegiate career with Phi Beta Kappa honors. After gathering bits of learning at Salinas Junior College in California and art schools in Chicago and Kansas City, she decided in 1948 to finish the job at Hunter College. She was so impressed that she suggested that her husband get a teaching job there.

Mrs. Hammer's mother, Mrs. Nettie M. George, 97, will receive an M. A. in education in June from the University of Idaho.

Maine was the first state to ratify the proposed 22nd Amendment to the U. S. Constitution. It would limit to two the number of terms any person may serve as President of the United States.

Commies Organiz Kashmir Students

SRINAGAR, KASHMIR—(AP)—Kashmir's small but well-known Communist party is concentrating on the creation of cells or pockets among Kashmir students.

Officials here said a procession of Srinagar students against "the British government's policy in Egypt" was Communist-dominated, and blamed the same left-wing organizations for a student strike against higher tuition in the state's schools.

Daddy Ringtail And Myself Coming Back

The Whispering River was frozen all over and covered with ice. It was wintering, you know. The Huffen Puffen, the friendly wolf, was wanting to put on his ice skates. He was wanting to skate down the river all the way to the ocean. He was wanting to see if the ocean waves were still coming in and out on the sand.

"I know it, I do," said the Huffen. "But I was going to start out early in the morning."

"Yes, but Huffen," said Daddy Ringtail, "we are going to have a fine dinner of scrambled coconut tomorrow at the monkey house. You are supposed to eat with us."

"I know it, I do," answered the Huffen. "But I thought I would skate on down and back real fast."

"Too far," said Daddy Ringtail. "Much too far and too little time to do it. Why, you would meet yourself coming back."

"Huh?" asked the Huffen, and so Daddy Ringtail explained that the Huffen would have to skate so fast to skate to the ocean and back before dinner—why, he would meet himself coming back.

The Huffen laughed to hear these words, and then away he hurried to home and to bed. He went to sleep that night with thoughts in his head of meeting himself skating back from the ocean. The Huffen slept. He dreamed.

He dreamed he woke up in the morning. He went to the river. He put on his skates. Away he skated to skate to the ocean. He skated with his hands behind his back, and his nose pointed up in the air, and his eyes half closed in a happy smile.

Oh, but his eyes were opened wide when he bumped bersnack into a somebody who looked exactly like him. Yessir, while he was skating down to the ocean, there he had met himself coming back. Well, the Huffen told himself how sorry he was that he had bumped together, and then he hurried home to sleep until time to put on his clothes for dinner at Ringtail House. Ah yes, what a happy dream the Huffen had dreamed. Happy day!

You'll Enjoy Oatmeal Popovers

MORE STEAK IN THE FUTURE?—The average American ate less meat during 1951 than in any year since 1947, because of high prices and scarcity of the commodity. However, the U. S. Department of Agriculture says he may do better in 1952 with the average rising to 144 pounds. Newschart above shows average meat consumption per person since 1947.

GOLDEN POPOVERS, made of left-over oatmeal, and filled with creamed chicken, make a delicious and thrifty dish.

By GAYNOR MADDOX
NEA Food and Markets Editor
Believe it or not, light popovers can be made of leftover oatmeal! They are delicious, golden brown, and have a flavor that is particularly good when filled with creamed chicken, ham or seafood.
Top Hat Oatmeal Popovers (Makes 6 Popovers)
One cup cooked oatmeal, 2 egg yolks, 1 cup sifted enriched flour, 1 teaspoon baking powder, 1 teaspoon salt, 1 cup milk, 2 egg whites, stiff-beaten.
Grease glass custard cups or popover irons and heat in oven while making the batter.
Combine oatmeal and egg yolks. Sift together flour, baking powder and salt. Add with milk to oatmeal-egg mixture and stir in lightly. Fold stiff-beaten egg whites into oatmeal mixture.
Fill hot custard cups or popover irons 2/3 full of batter. Bake in hot oven (425 degrees F) for 30 minutes.
Make a 1/2-inch slit in the top of each popover for escape of steam. Reduce heat to moderate (350 degrees F) and bake 35 to 40 minutes longer. Remove from baking pan.
Cut the top of each popover and fill with creamed chicken, ham or tuna fish. Replace top and serve as a luncheon dish.
Note: These may also be served plain with butter and jelly as a breakfast bread.
Oatmeal Fritters (Makes 10 to 12 cakes)
Two cups cooked oatmeal, 1 egg,

Institute Slates Mt. Everest Climb

ZURICH, SWITZERLAND.—(AP)—The Swiss Institute for Alpine Research is planning a Mt. Everest expedition in 1952 hoping not to tread on the toes of a British expedition which is due to climb the same mountain at the same time.
The government of Nepal recently gave the Swiss formal permission to launch the first postwar effort to climb the world's highest peak. At the same time, the Swiss learned a British expedition was also preparing to renew the attack on unconquered Everest next year. Both expeditions are believed to be planning the ascent by the southern route from Nepal in the early fall of next year.
The institute is lining up Himalaya-trained scientific and mountaineering experts to join the Swiss group. The expedition, complete with the most up-to-date equipment, is expected to leave Switzerland early in April.

DRILL DIAMONDS
Fragment of diamonds frequently are used for the points in diamond drills, but "black diamonds," an impure but very hard form of carbon, extensively is used for that purpose.

American Taxpayer, Hit Hard Last Year, To Pay More In '52

WASHINGTON (AP)—The average individual paid about 17 per cent more income tax in 1951 than he did in 1950.
And he'll be paying more in 1952. The percentage is somewhat smaller for persons in the higher brackets but they also got heavier whacks in the pocketbooks.
The heavier tax payments resulted from increases which went into effect Oct. 1, 1951.
The first increase pushed 1951 taxes up about 13 per cent over 1950. That resulted from repeal of a tax cut which had been voted by the Republican-controlled 80th Congress over a presidential veto. This reduction was in effect in 1948 and 1949.

In those years, a taxpayer figured his income tax at the current rates and the reduced it by 17 per cent on the first $400 of tax, by 12 per cent of any part of his tax above $400 and under $100,000 and by 9.75 per cent on any tax over $100,000.
The repeal did not take effect until Oct. 1, 1950, so taxpayers were permitted to take about three-fourths of the reductions on their 1950 returns. The reductions were wiped completely out for the 1951 tax.

Filed on top of this was an increase of 1 1/4 per cent for most persons, effective Nov. 1. Persons in the higher brackets were given the option of paying nine per cent of the amount they had left after paying their taxes at the regular rates. The increases affected one-sixth of 1951 income.
Since the second increase will be in effect for all of 1952, the tax will be higher. A man who pays $102 in taxes for 1951 will have to pay $111.76 for 1952.
