Pure To Attempt To Finish Upton Wildcat As Wolfcamp Oiler

The Pure Oil Company is to attempt to complete a discovery from the Wolfcamp section of the lower Permian at its No. 1 R. S. Windham, West-Central Upton County exploration, 16 miles northwest of Rankin.

Operator will perforate the 7-inch casing at 9,135-51 feet and at 9,157-62 feet and test those intervals. Had Flow of Oil

The prospector flowed 16 barrels of 42.7 gravity oil in two hours from the section at 9,060-9,175 feet through a three-quarter inch tubing choke, on a drillstem test about four weeks ago.

After that flow the exploration drilled on down through the Pennsylvanian and into the Barnett shale. It is now bottomed at 10,550 feet. The 7-inch casing is cemented at 10,550 feet.

It is understood that if the Pure No. 1 Windham makes well from the Wolfcamp it probably will not be drilled any deeper. It started out to go to a possible bottom of 12,500 feet to explore the Ellenburger.

Location is 800 feet from north and west lines of section 107, block D, CCSD&RGNG survey. It is one location south of Anderson-Prichard Oil Corporation and Greenbrier Oil Company No. 1 Windham which has also shown for flowing production from the Wolfcamp and has indicated production in two zones in the Pennsylvanian.

That development is now drilling ahead below 12,341 feet in the Simpson and is slated to continue until it finds, penetrates and tests the Ellenburger.

The Anderson-Prichard and Greenbrier No. 1 Windham is at the center of the southwest quarter of the southwest quarter of section 108, block D, CCSD&RGNG survey.

Ohio Stakes Site For 8,400-Foot Andrews Wildcat

Twenty-five miles southwest of the town of Andrews and in Southwest Andrews County, The Ohio Oil Company spotted location for an 8,400-foot Devonian wildcat.

Drill site is 1,900 feet from north and 600 feet from east lines of section 28, block 11, University land survey. That puts it 5,600 feet southwest of Phillips Petroleum Company No. 1-DD Texas University, recently completed discovery from the Devonian.

Operations will start within 30 days. It will be drilled as No. 1-5056 University.

Long Outpost Is Staked By Texaco In NW-C Midland

The Texas Company No. 3-A-NCC-1 Clarence Schaubauer is to be drilled as a long west outpost to production in the Wolfcamp pool of Northwest-Central Midland County.

It will be 6,400 feet from the closest Pennsylvanian producer and 1,900 feet from south and west lines of section 24, block 41, T-2-S, G&P survey.

It is contracted to 10,950 feet. It is 660 feet from north and 1,900 feet from west lines of section 18, Sam Lazarus survey. It will drill to 46,90 feet with rotary.

Drill site is 19 miles northeast of Guthrie.

Glasco, Greer Stake Ellenburger Wildcat In SE Upton Area

L. M. Glasco and George Greer of Dallas will drill a 12,000-foot Ellenburger wildcat in Southeast Upton County, two miles northwest of Rankin.

It is to be dug as No. 1 Tom Owens on a farm out from Sunray Oil Corporation. Location is at the center of the northeast quarter of the

Daring Sabre Pilots Plaster 10 MIG Jets

SEOUL, KOREA—(AP)—Daring American Sabre jet pilots Friday shot down at least 10 Red jets in four flaming air battles over Northwest Korea.

Two Communist MIG-15's exploded almost in the faces of American pilots. The blast blew out the jet power in two Sabres, and the Americans had to go into long dives before their jets flamed into action again.

Two other Reds spiraled down in fiery streamers. A fifth went down in long loops, its pilot still trying to regain control, and exploded as it hit the ground.

It was one of the biggest jet victories of the war.

The Fifth Air Force announced 10 Russian-type jets definitely were destroyed, one probably destroyed and three damaged.

The air war grew in fury as the day wore on while the ground war lay relatively quiet under a blanket of fresh snow. Here's the story of the air battles, all fought in MIG Alley:

1. One Red jet damaged in a morning fight between 18 F-86 Sabre jets and elements of a flight of 30 MIG's.

2. Two Red jets blown up, one set afire, one damaged, when 15 Sabres jumped 16 MIG's near the Yalu River in the afternoon.

3. Five MIG's destroyed, one damaged by 17 Sabres who took on elements of a formation of 80 Reds late in the afternoon.

4. Three MIG's destroyed at about the same time in a five-minute battle between 18 Sabres and 25 MIG's.

Two Texans, Lt. Robert H. Moore of Houston and Capt. Robert T. Lathaw, Jr. of Amarillo, were credited with definite MIG "kills" in Friday's battles.

Hearing On Martin Water District Suit Slated February 25

STANTON—The Martin County Underground Water Conservation District will go into court February 25 to defend its right to control production of water from a 75-square-mile area.

This is the date which has been set for the trial of a suit brought by the Colorado River Municipal Water District, which already has obtained a temporary order restraining the Martin County group from enforcing its production regulations.

The trial will be held in the 126th District Court in Austin.

The Martin County district will not go into court alone.

County Judge James McMorris Friday said two similar districts in the state had entered the suit as "friends of the court."

He said Martin County would be assisted in the trial by attorneys for the Dallas County Underground Water Conservation District and the High Plains Underground Water Conservation District.

Truman Again Confuses Politicos By Hinting At Seeking Return To Senate

WASHINGTON—(AP)—Congressmen reached widely differing conclusions Friday as a result of remarks Thursday by President Truman about leaving the door open for him to run for his old Senate seat instead of seeking another White House term.

His mention of the Missouri situation only fogged the picture for the crystal ball gazers.

But there did appear to be general agreement about one thing—that Truman probably planned his words to add to the mystery regarding his plans.

No one professed to know for sure, but there were renewed predictions Truman (1) will seek reelection to the presidency, (2) won't run for anything, (3) very well may bid for the seat he once held as a Missouri senator.

The President himself revived

Russia Wins First Major UN Victory

PARIS—(AP)—The UN Political Committee, over strenuous U. S. objections, Friday adopted a Russian resolution calling on the Security Council to reconsider membership applications from 14 countries, including Italy and five Soviet satellites.

The United States said it had no objection to reconsideration of the candidates but vigorously opposed the resolution because the Soviet Union made it clear in debate that the proposal was designed to have all 14 admitted in one package deal.

It was the first time in UN history that the Political Committee adopted a major Soviet resolution over American opposition.

The vote was 21 to 12, with 28 abstentions.

The Russian resolution calls on the Security Council to admit in one group 14 countries who have applied for UN membership—Albania, Bulgaria, Hungary, Romania, and Outer Mongolia, all backed by the Soviet Union, and the Western-sponsored countries, Ireland, Italy, Ceylon, Finland, Nepal, Austria, Jordan, Libya and Portugal.

Soviet Delegate Jacob Malik told the committee during the debate that if the council brought the applicant countries up in one package, Russia would refrain from using the veto, which so far has blocked the admission of the Western candidates.

The United States, which also has the veto in the council, insisted that each candidate be judged on its individual merits.

UN Negotiators Desire To Delay Airfield Problem

MUNSAN, KOREA—(AP)—Allied truce negotiators Friday suggested that the thorny question of airfield construction be set aside temporarily and staff officers start work immediately on other details of policing a Korean armistice.

Chinese Maj. Gen. Hsieh Fang promised to study the proposal and reply later. He did not say when.

"Basically, this is another effort of the UN Command to achieve a realistic armistice as rapidly as possible," said Brig. William P. Nuckols, Allied spokesman.

The issue of whether the Communists have the right to build and repair military airfields in North Korea during an armistice has deadlocked truce supervision negotiations since January 9.

NOW, IT'S 'SNOWVIEW LODGE'—Most of the view at Lakeview Lodge, Emigrant Gap, Calif., is covered by 30-foot drifts of snow. The three-story building is covered by high drifts near the site where the streamliner City of San Francisco was snowbound three days.

Veteran Film Comedy Star Polly Moran, 68, Dies Of Heart Ailment

LOS ANGELES—(AP)—Polly Moran, 68, famed comedy teammate of the late Marie Dressler, died Friday of a heart ailment at Cedars of Lebanon Hospital.

Miss Moran, who entered films as a 1915 Mack Sennett bathing girl, was stricken late last Autumn at the Laguna Beach home where she had lived since 1944.

Her physician, Dr. Arthur L. Kobl, reported that she received the last rites of the Catholic Church earlier this week. She died shortly after midnight.

The actress retired from screen and stage in 1940 and made a brief comeback in 1949, when she played a part in "Adam's Rib."

She was the wife of Martin T. Malone, an attorney. They have an adopted son, John Michael Moran.

She was transferred to Cedars of Lebanon on Tuesday when her condition worsened.

Born in Chicago in 1883, Miss Moran began her stage career at the age of 14 in a small-time vaudeville act. By 1920, she and Marie Dressler were established comedy favorites in the movies.

Miss Moran's pictures included "The Callahans and the Murphys," "London After Midnight," "Bringing Up Father," "Hot for Paris," "The Bishop Murder Case," "Caught Short," and "Alice in Wonderland."

McMahon Pulls Out Of Illinois Primary

WASHINGTON—(AP)—Senator McMahon of Connecticut Friday asked that his name be withdrawn from the Illinois Democratic presidential primary.

McMahon made the request in a telegram to Illinois Secretary of State Edward J. Barrett.

Senator Kefauver (Tenn) also has been entered in the primary.

There had been speculation McMahon's name was entered by supporters of President Truman with the idea chiefly of preventing the Illinois vote from going to Kefauver by default.

McMahon's withdrawal was announced Friday by a spokesman.

McMahon had been an invalid several years and only recently suffered a stroke. His body was found at the foot of his wheelchair in the center of the room.

Flippen had been a prominent corporation lawyer here until his retirement two years ago. A native of Bryan, he came to Dallas to open a law practice in 1899.

Mrs. Flippen, known to many Dallasites as a patron of the arts, was the daughter of a former Texas lieutenant governor and governor, the late Barnett Gibbs.

Fireman O. G. Ogeltree said there was no doubt the two women were trying to save Flippen.

County Paychecks Hit By New Tax

Something was missing Thursday from the paychecks of Midland County employees.

For the first time, they began participating in the federal Social Security plan and the first deductions were made from the monthly checks distributed Thursday by County Treasurer Minnie Doster.

The deductions amount to one and one-half per cent of the first $2,000 of their annual salaries.

City Council Still Opposes Military Plans For Airpark

The City Council turned a deaf ear Thursday afternoon to the pleas of a government engineer and a colonel and major from the Air Force.

The city, the council reiterated, doesn't want Air Force planes taking off from the runways at Midland's Airpark and zooming over the rooftops of its citizens.

If the government wants to go ahead and take over the airport facility, the council said, that's the government's business. But the councilmen themselves want no part of it.

So there remained Friday a question mark still hanging over the future use of Airpark by the Air Force, which is seeking it as a temporary auxiliary landing field, to be used by students at the reactivated Big Spring Air Force Base.

"We have to think first of our citizens and their safety," Councilman Jack Wilkinson, told Col. E. F. Wackwitz, the air base commanding officer. "We realize your problem and we hope you realize ours."

The council previously had sent a resolution to the Air Force, protesting its use of Airpark.

G. B. Green of Fort Worth, representative of the real estate division of the Corps of Engineers, accompanied the officers to the council meeting.

Green explained that the Air Force desired to execute a five-year (Continued On Page Nine)

Brother Of American Actor Named Governor General Of Canada

LONDON—(AP)—Vincent Massey, one-time farm implement manufacturer and elder brother of Actor Raymond Massey, was approved Friday by King George as the first Canadian-born governor general of Canada.

Buckingham Palace said Field Marshal Viscount Alexander, whom Massey succeeds, will take on "other responsibilities." He is expected to be named minister of Defense.

There are only six more days for the payment of the tax but they are coming in good now. Our only worry is whether we will have enough receipts."

Speed said the county started out with 10,000 blank receipts and it is possible this supply will be exhausted.

In addition, almost 1,000 persons have obtained exemption certificates.

★ LATE NEWS FLASHES ★

AUSTIN—(AP)—The Legislative Budget Board Friday told its research staff to cut state spending by at least 28 million dollars per year in its next budget recommendations.

TUNIS, TUNISIA—(AP)—France Friday landed fresh troops in strife-riddled Tunisia to fight Nationalist uprisings in which almost 50 persons have been killed and hundreds have been injured in the last 10 days.

SYDNEY, AUSTRALIA—(AP)—More than a dozen persons collapsed in Sydney Friday as the city's temperature soared to a 10-year record high of 105.1 early in the afternoon.

CAIRO, EGYPT—(AP)—The independent newspaper Al Ahram Friday reported 27 persons were killed and 287 wounded in a clash between students, demonstrating against the rule of Dictator Adib Shisheki, and Syrian army officers at Aleppo, Syria.

Supply Called Adequate For Future Years

The City of Midland wound up the first phase of a vast water development program Thursday afternoon, apparently assured of enough water to supply a city of more than 60,000 population.

After only a short discussion, members of the City Council authorized the purchase of the water rights to an additional two and three-quarter sections of land.

The sections are those adjoining the two sections previously purchased and the entire area of almost five sections will be developed immediately to bring Midland its additional water supply by the Summer of 1953.

The additional area will be purchased from Midland Farms for a consideration of $131,000—at the rate of $75 an acre—bringing to approximately $260,000 the amount paid for the water rights in the entire area.

"I think," said Councilman Jack Wilkinson, after the vote was taken, "that this is one of the most important things which has happened to Midland in a long time."

"I certainly agree," added Councilman R. B. (Bum) Cowden. "Even if we never need that much water it will be a good investment in attracting new industries and new citizens."

Councilman J. W. McMillen, who presided in the absence of Mayor Perry Pickett, and Councilman J. B. McCoy also formally approved the purchase.

Thus the City of Midland placed its hopes for an adequate water supply in a five-square-mile area lying along the north side of the Andrews Highway, approximately six miles northwest of the city.

The approval of the purchase marked the end of a period of exploration, which started almost a year ago when the West Texas Geological Society, after extensive studies in this area, recommended that

Suspended Chicago Policeman Convicted In Youth's Slaying

CHICAGO—(AP)—Michael Moretti, a suspended state's attorney's policeman, was convicted Friday of murder in one of Chicago's most sensational criminal cases.

A criminal court jury set Moretti's punishment at life imprisonment. The case has been in the public spotlight five months.

The state had asked for the death penalty.

Defense attorneys said the case would be appealed "clear to the Supreme Court, if necessary." Hearing on a motion for a new trial was set February 5.

Moretti, the father of four children, was tried for the slaying last August 24 of Arthur Gaminio, 15-year-old West Side youth.

Edward Salvi, 21, was killed in the same shooting and Leonard Monaco, 21, was wounded. The three were shot as they sat in an automobile in a West Side vacant lot.

Monaco was the state's chief witness. He testified that Moretti fired without provocation on him and the two youths.

Jet Stirs Talk Of Falling Stars, Flying Saucers

A high-flying jet put Midlanders in a questioning mood Thursday afternoon.

The Air Force pilot streaked over the western section of Midland, leaving a vapor trail. The vapor hung leisurely in the sky, illuminated by the sinking sun.

Bright momentary flashes were observed as the plane from Hensley Air Force Base at Dallas sped into the west. CAA authorities at Midland Air Terminal said the flashes resulted from the sun rays striking the aircraft.

Flying at 40,000 feet, the jet was enroute to Chandler Air Force Base in Arizona. The pilot checked with the CAA as he passed over the terminal. Shortly thereafter, excited calls reached the CAA. Telephones in the Reporter-Telegram office rang frequently as members of the newspaper staff passed along the explanation of the CAA.

The clinging vapor trail brought Midlanders into downtown and residential streets in large numbers. Observations ranged from falling stars to flying saucers.

Council Asks Telephone Company Owner To Discuss Complaints Before Council

PECOS — City councilmen have voted to invite the owner of the Pecos and Northwestern Telephone Company to appear before a special session of the council to investigate complaints registered against the company by local telephone users.

City Secretary John Hogan was directed to contact Ralph Sparks, company owner, asking him to appear for the hearing "as soon as possible."

Decision to call Sparks was an outgrowth of an appeal made to the council by Walker McCutchen, who recently purchased a local grocery store.

McCutchen complained that his office phone had been placed on a four-party line, that long distance and local business calls often are delayed by other persons using the line.

He related that originally the store had enjoyed a private line, but despite protests from the former owner, the telephone company tied in with other users.

McCutchen's appeal launched a series of observations by the councilmen upon other complaints.

Pecos does not have a dial system.

TIDELANDS MONTH PROCLAIMED—Texas Gov. Allan Shivers signs the official proclamation setting the month of February as Tidelands Month in Texas. "Naturally," says Shivers, "Texans would pick the biggest February in years (29 days this year) to stage their fight to retain the Tidelands." The slogan "Remember the Alamo" now is "Remember the Tidelands." Witnessing Shivers' signature is M. K. Weitzel, secretary of the State-wide Tidelands Committee.

Andrews County Women Organize 1952 Club Work

ANDREWS—Andrews County club women are now entering into their fifth year of club work. This was first introduced into the county in the Spring of 1947 when Mrs. Hattie G. Owens, Ector County agent, met, upon special request, with a group of interested women to take further steps on securing an agent for this county.

Mrs. Owens assisted this group and four charter clubs were organized during the remainder of the first year. She later became the agent, serving both Andrews and Ector Counties, a position she still fills.

Charter clubs organized were the Fullerton, initial club; Andrews Proper, Sew and Sew and Phillips 66. All but the Sew and Sew Club, continues this work.

Other clubs organized the past three years are El Paso Camp Club, Dollarhide Club, Magnolia Club, and Sunshine Club.

All of the clubs in the county start the new year off with the installation of officers. Lessons for January are on personality and grooming and "How to choose materials and patterns and matching plaids and stripes."

In 1952 the women will receive instructions on Family Life Education; Clothing and Work Simplification; Home Food and Work Simplification; and Home Management and Work Simplification.

Will Milton Berle, King Of TV, Lose His Crown This Year?

By ERSKINE JOHNSON
NEA Staff Correspondent

HOLLYWOOD — Milton Berle's hint to Hollywood friends that this will be his last season for his Texaco sponsor has posed the question: Will Milton Berle be unseated as the king of television in 1952?

It's the biggest on-the-quiet, behind-the-scenes story of the new video year. There are two versions—and take your choice.

Uncle Milton's story is that the show has been "nothing but headaches," and that he's had a long series of differences with a vice president of the advertising agency handling the account.

One of his beefs was Sid Stone's middle commercial. Sid recently was dropped from the show.

The other version is that the King of TV the last three years, and still the top man, will be slipping in the ratings now that Hollywood's big-name, big-time comedians are moving into video contention.

If and when the sponsor's axe falls on Berle's head, he'll still do an hour show for NBC, where he's under long-term contract.

Guy Madison and his pal, Andy Devine, are set for five years of Wild Bill Hickok films. Andy, veteran of 25 years in the movies, claims he's received more fan mail since the show went on the video waves last Fall than during his entire Hollywood career.

That's a real eye-opener for film stars who are still sneering at the small-screen entertainment.

Joan Davis is set for an NBC-TV show starting in the Fall. Now the big argument is whether it will be on film or live. Joan's holding out for celluloid.

George Raft and Lou Costello are the latest telefilm partners. Lou will finance George as a two-fisted but guileless television detective. The first half-hour picture releases February 14.

Mercedes McCambridge, who does "Defense Attorney" on the air, will do the telefilm version. Craig Stevens replaces Joel McCrea in

Young Mickey Cohen Now Is Michael Crane

LOS ANGELES—(AP)—Mickey Cohen, 11, grew tired of being razed by his schoolmates. So he appeared in Superior Court Thursday and obtained legal approval of his new name, Michael Crane.

The boy, the lawyer said, had been "subjected to considerable ridicule, embarrassment and notoriety" because his name was the same as that of the celebrated mobster.

Michael's father, Milton Richard Cohen, and his mother, Edna Rose Cohen, changed their last name to Crane, too.

Young Pianist Plays Without Lucky Ring

Midland music lovers didn't know it, but the concert presented Thursday night by 19-year-old pianist, Sylvia Zaremba, was different from all the others.

For the first time since she was 10 years old, Miss Zaremba was playing without the moral support of a gold ring with a diamond set given to her by her grandmother. The ring was lost somewhere in Midland Thursday. Anyone finding such a ring should contact Mrs. J. E. Beakey, president of the Midland Civic Music Association, which sponsored the concert.

450 Junior Colleges Fight Pentagon Plan For Limited UMT

WASHINGTON—(AP)—A Pentagon plan to start universal military training quickly through volunteers was termed a "clear subterfuge" Friday by a representative of 450 junior colleges. Military leaders last week proposed starting a limited UMT by taking 60,000 volunteers for six months' training and 18 months active duty. Col. James L. Conrad, chairman of the Legislation Research Committee of the American Association of Junior Colleges, Friday called this a "subterfuge" in a statement prepared for the House Armed Services Committee. As the committee continued open hearings on UMT, there were these related developments in the drive to build up U. S. armed forces:

1. Selective Service, seeking to level off induction ages of draftees in each state, ordered draft boards to try to fill the $2,400 February quota with men who will be at least 21 years old when inducted. This means many younger men who faced the February draft may get a breathing spell, but some childless husbands may be called into service.

2. Mobilization Director Charles E. Wilson said a survey shows two million disabled Americans could be put to work in America's defense program. He said they not only would add to the nation's labor force, but would be converted from "tax consumers into tax producers." He said it was "sheer waste" not to use these persons now.

THE MIDLAND REPORTER-TELEGRAM, FRIDAY, JANUARY 25, 1952-5

Young Concert Pianist Knows Three B's As Well As Three R's

YOUTH met age Thursday night in the Midland High School Auditorium when a 19-year-old pianist presented a program from the works of such old masters as Brahms, Beethoven and Bach.

Concerts are nothing new to Miss Zarembo who has been performing publicly since the age of seven. Her recital here was under the sponsorship of the Midland Civic Music Association.

Bach was the first composer represented on the program. Miss Zarembo played "Jesu, Joy of Man's Desiring," a piece taken from a Bach cantata and arranged by Myra Hess, and followed this up with "Thirty-Two Variations," Beethoven.

She presented four movements from Chopin's "Sonata in B Flat Minor, Opus 35," including the familiar "March Funere" around which the sonata is thought to have been written.

After intermission Following the intermission Miss Zarembo led off with two numbers by Brahms: "Intermezzo, Opus 117, No. 2" and "Rhapsody, Opus 79, No. 2."

Among the best-received numbers on the program were "Jeu de l'Eau," a tone poem by Ravel depicting the rising and falling of the waters of a fountain, and "Etude, D Flat Major," reputed to be one of Liszt's favorite compositions.

She concluded her program with "Caprice in A Minor," originally composed for the violin by Paganini and arranged for piano by Liszt. Encores were "Prelude in G Sharp Minor," Rachmaninoff; "Polonaise in A Flat," Chopin, and "Mala-guena," Ernesto Lecuona.

Miss Zarembo has performed as soloist with the Cleveland, Philadelphia, Montreal, Chicago and New York Philharmonic Orchestras in addition to giving individual concerts. Her program here was presented before a near-capacity crowd.

Painful cramps of "Monthly Periods" stopped or amazingly relieved

In 3 out of 4 cases in doctors' own tests!
Women and girls who suffer from those functionally-induced cramps, backaches and headaches of menstruation—who feel upset and irritable on certain "particular days"—may often be suffering quite unnecessarily!
Such is the conclusion from tests by doctors in which Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound gave complete or striking relief from such distress in 3 out of 4 of the cases tested!
Yes! Medical evidence shows Lydia Pinkham's thoroughly modern in action. It exerts a remarkably calming effect on the uterus—without the use of pain-killing drugs! The effectiveness of Lydia Pinkham's needs no proof to the millions of women and girls whom it has benefited. But how about you? Do you know what it may do for you? Take Lydia Pinkham's through the month. See if you don't get the same relief from the pain and weakness of "those days" if you don't feel better before and during your period!
Get either Lydia Pinkham's Compound or new, improved Tablets, with added iron! If you're troubled with "hot flashes" and other functional distress of "change of life"—you'll find Lydia Pinkham's a wonderful relief for that, too!

Lydia Pinkham's has a quieting effect on the uterine contractions (see chart) which often cause menstrual pain!

"Out of thin air" comes the HIGHEST HORSEPOWER in Buick history

NOTE FROM YOUR BUICK DEALER:
Presented here is the story of a great new engine development, as told by the men who did the job. We reprint the story here in its entirety—as we couldn't beat it if we tried.

No, we didn't have to build a new engine to do it. We took Buick's Fireball Engine—which is a valve-in-head that lets you make the most of high compression. We drew on 12 patient years of Buick carburetion research—an experience which few can equal and no one can top. And the results in words of one syllable are: we came up with more might, more miles, from gas—right out of thin air, in more ways than one. When you talk about "miles per gallon" you naturally think of fuel, because that's what you buy. But air's free—and for every gallon of gasoline, a busy engine can gulp more than 8,000 gallons of air. The problem has always been—to deliver air in the right proportions, throughout the full range of speeds at which you drive your car.

A conventional carburetor—big enough to supply the rush of air needed at full throttle—can be wasteful in stop-and-go driving. A carburetor sized only for thrift in city traffic literally smothers your engine when you really give it the gun. So Buick engineers came up with the Airpower carburetor—a four-barrel automatic—and here's how it works. When you want to loaf along, two barrels are working, two stay closed. There's even a governor that keeps them shut during warm-up periods. And you get a low-speed thrift and smoothness that's out of this world. As you pick up speed, the "stand-bys" smoothly come into play—feeding not just more gas, but more air too—which means that you keep on getting maximum power from each drop of fuel. You have 170 effortless horsepower when you need it—a tremendous reserve of power ready to go into instant action at the nudge of your toe. You have the satisfaction of knowing that you get this power with a frugal use of gas. At 40 you use less gas than you formerly used at 30. And, where the law allows, you can step from 40 to 60 in less than 8 seconds.

That's the story of Airpower carburetion in facts and figures straight from the factory. But no facts and figures can tell you the breath-taking joy of heading for new horizons in a great-powered new ROADMASTER out on the road. When can you do that? Better come in soon. Lots of other folks are flocking into our showroom these days to see the greatest array of new Buicks we've had in years.

Sure is true for '52

DADDY RINGTAIL

Daddy Ringtail And The Old Codger

Daddy Ringtail looked out the window at his monkey house, and sure enough, down below on the ground was his old friend, the Huffen Puffen, the friendly wolf.

The Huffen seemed very excited, and of course he was excited indeed. Great things were about to happen, Daddy Ringtail knew. Sure enough, in a few minutes, Daddy Ringtail and the Huffen were going down the Whispering River in Daddy Ringtail's riverboat. Daddy Ringtail sat in the back of the boat to run it, while the Huffen lay on his back in front with his legs crossed and his hands beneath his head.

WRIGLEY'S SPEARMINT CHEWING GUM
ENJOY CHEWING EVERY DAY!

By WESLEY DAVIS

How lucky they were, the Huffen was thinking. They were going down the Whispering River to the sea where an old codger had caught a fish with a dollar in its mouth. Oh yes he had! The Huffen had heard about it on his radio, and the radio had said how the old codger had caught a fish by the sea, and the fish had held the dollar tight in its mouth.

Why, before long now, folks from everywhere, almost, would hurry down to the sea to try to catch a fish with a dollar in its mouth before everyone else had caught them all gone. Oh, the Huffen would soon be rich, he thought, and a famous fellow, indeed. He laughed and chuckled to himself with thoughts of what a famous wolf he soon would be.

The Huffen must have fallen asleep with these happy thoughts because the next thing he knew, they were there. I mean they had come to the place by the sea where the old codger lived who had caught the fish with the dollar in its mouth. The house was really a great big box with a door in the side, and it might not be the house they were looking for, but Daddy Ringtail thought it was. He knocked on the door politely, and called: "Is Mister Codger at home?"

The Huffen watched with both his eyes to see who would come to the door. The Huffen had never seen an old codger—or a young codger either, as far as he knew—and so the Huffen was very curious to see what an old codger was.

Footsteps were coming! The Huffen could hear them. And something that happened next is something I will have to wait and tell you Sunday, because there isn't room enough to tell you in the paper today as you can plainly see. See? Happy day!

New, Tough Federal Law Spurs Hope Of Halting Upsurge In Dope Addiction

WASHINGTON —(AP)— There is rising hope today that a new and tough federal law against narcotics peddling has halted the alarming upsurge in teen-age addiction to drugs.

For more than two years, a growing number of teen-agers have been dragged into the slave-world of narcotics that has trapped some 50,000 addicts in the U. S.

But in the last two months, U. S. Narcotics Commissioner H. J. Anslinger, reports, there has been a decline in juvenile narcotics addiction. The number of youngsters being treated as addicts also has tapered off.

It's the brightest news that has come out of the battle against the dread habit in many months.

Anslinger gives credit to a new federal law increasing penalties for violation of the narcotics and marihuana laws.

Stiff Prison Terms

The new law fixes a minimum prison term of two years and maximum of five for the first-time violator. It bars suspended sentences for those convicted a second time. It increases prison terms to a possible 30 years for third offenses.

Anslinger has been directing the government's fight against the narcotics traffic for years. He is convinced tough federal and state laws—strictly enforced—will do more than anything else to frighten peddlers and drive the dope traffic from the sidewalks of America.

Anslinger is supported in those views by Federal Judge Guy L. Fike of New Jersey, who has had long experience in dealing with narcotics addicts.

Judge Fike has said: "If we could teach the young what a terrible thing it is, it might x x x frighten the life out of anyone who would think for one moment of trying it, even on a dare x x x Why this narcotics addiction is worse than leprosy, a thousand times worse, and it spreads, one to another.

Nation Alerted To Menace

Judge Fike contends the kindest thing a judge can do for an addict is to sentence him to five years detention—time enough to shake off the craving for the drug and develop a new mental outlook.

And he favors stiff penalties for the peddlers.

Fortunately, the nation has been alerted to the menace and the size of the narcotics slave-world. Education programs are being conducted in schools and churches and civic centers in some cities to give teen-agers a hint of the dangers in narcotics.

City, state and federal agents are making narcotics peddlers their special targets. The UN is trying to get agreement among its members on the control of narcotics manufacture and export. Investigations have spotlighted the situation.

In the long parade of addicts who have gone before investigators, there is the recurring theme: "If I had only known what it would do to me—I never would have started using narcotics."

Addicts Have Ideas

The addicts have their own ideas too, about how the traffic should be controlled.

One woman addict, 26, said: "If they once had the idea of what they were going to go through x x x, after all you are giving up your freedom, and you are certainly losing a good deal of self-respect, pride and those things mean a lot to a person—then I think they would definitely not do it. If they were informed of it, there would be fewer of our young addicts."

A youth, 19, said: "I don't think the fact that it (narcotics) is dangerous will keep teen-agers off drugs when they reach 18 years old, because they are subject to be drafted anyway and to be sent to a foreign country and placed in conflict. There is danger all around them, and the fact that it is dangerous doesn't solve the problem."

"x x x if you can more or less help the addict himself, and not the potential addict, then you can lick the thing."

Another said: "It seems as though there should be some kind of a consultation that a teen-ager coming up can go to and someone to refer to when he has problems. It seems now that the majority of fellow and girls coming up, they seem to be neglected somewhat by their parents' general affection."

Favors Death Penalty

Still another said: "I believe x x x the only way you can actually stop or begin to stop teen-age addiction is through some sort of a revision of the Harrison Act x x x If they can obtain their drugs through a doctor for a small amount of money, they won't go to the peddlers. It won't be profitable for the peddlers to sell drugs in the streets."

And a young doctor who became an addict said: "Any peddler who would take a child or just a kid and sell him narcotic drugs, particularly some kid who doesn't know the effect of it or what lifetime slavery it might lead to—I would say that a man who sells narcotics to that person should have the electric chair."

"x x x it would be better to blow his (the youth's) brains out than to get him started on narcotics. Then he loses his life. If you give him narcotics, he will lose his soul, too."

There is no known cure for narcotics addiction—except a desire within the addict himself to want to be cured and enough will-power to keep away from drugs. But that desire and will isn't strong enough in most cases.

That's why the fight goes on against the underworld which has enslaved so many men, women and children with its evil traffic.

Ponder Quads Hit Scales, Get Names

MURFREESBORO, Ark. —(AP)— With all the fanfare of champs being weighed in for a big bout, the Ponder quads hit the scales Thursday and at the same time received their given names.

Donna Fay and Dicky Gay each tipped the scales at three pounds even. Danny Kay weighed in at two pounds, 12 ounces. The light-weight, Dewey Ray, was two ounces less at two pounds, Tennessee.

Dewey Ray was named after Dr. Dewey M. Duncan, who delivered the quads January 14 at the Ponder Home near here.

The tiny Ponders took the weighing-in ceremonies at the Nashville (Ark.) Hospital, well in stride. Nurse Minnie Powers said the quads didn't cry when they were removed from their incubators. "They just stretched and yawned."

Efforts To Break Texas Shipyard Walkout Continue

By The Associated Press

Meetings were held Friday at Beaumont and Galveston in efforts to break the deadlock in negotiations keeping some 1,500 striking APL shipyard workers from their jobs.

A two-hour meeting at Beaumont and a similar gathering at Galveston Thursday failed to end the walkout, now in its ninth day.

About 1,000 workers at Beaumont and about 500 at Galveston are involved. All have asked a 13 per cent across-the-board wage boost, equal to 13 to 21 cents per hour. All are members of the APL Metal Trades Council.

Sources in both cities Thursday said progress had been made in the meetings.

Georgia Educator's Ex-Wife Acquitted On Shooting Charge

ATHENS, Ga. —(AP)— The former wife of the dean of journalism at the University of Georgia was acquitted Thursday night of a charge of shooting the woman who now is his second wife.

It was the second trial for Mrs. Kathleen Merry Drewry for the pistol attack on the former Miriam Thurmond.

Dean John E. Drewry, head of the university's School of Journalism for many years, also was shot at by Mrs. Thurmond on the night of Dec. 23, 1949.

They recovered and were married three months later.

The dean's former wife, who was divorced from him in July, 1948, first was tried in April, 1950 for shooting Mrs. Thurmond. Charged with assault with intent to murder, she was convicted then and sentenced to four years in prison.

The Georgia Supreme Court set aside the verdict and ordered a new trial.

The attractive, 48-year-old defendant heard the verdict calmly Thursday night but with a show of happiness.

"I just knew I would be vindicated," she said.

Her 30-year-old son, Milton, embraced her.

Mrs. Drewry based her defense mainly on a plea of temporary insanity.

MacArthur Takes Name Off Illinois Candidate Roster

SPRINGFIELD, Ill. —(AP)— The name of Douglas A. MacArthur was removed from the Illinois Republican presidential primary Thursday after an official request from the general.

Daly's protest will be referred to the State Electoral Board, which passes on names of persons to go on the April 8 primary ballot.

Senators Robert A. Taft of Ohio and Harold E. Stassen have filed for the primary on the Republican ballot. Senator Estes Kefauver of Tennessee and Senator Brian McMahon of Connecticut have filed on the Democratic ballot.

YOUNG PHILOSOPHER

You can have your Plato and your Socrates. I have my own philosophy, and I think it's pretty good.

The way I see life . . . you have to grow. You have to be a little bit bigger tomorrow than you are today. Otherwise, you'll never become the man your father wants you to be.

The trouble with a lot of people is that they stopped growing a long time ago. They figured when their bodies stopped growing, their souls might as well stop too.

Now that's a shame. 'Cause when the body is full grown, the soul is only partly grown. In fact it's still so undeveloped that if a man doesn't let his soul keep on growing, he'll soon begin to wonder whether he has a soul at all.

There's a Church down the street where I go to keep my soul growing. Why don't you come with me . . . every Sunday. Remember what I said — you have to grow or you'll never become the man your FATHER wants you to be.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For the sake of his community and nation. (2) For the sake of his children's sake. (3) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Allies Fear 'Another Korea' In Indochina

Statements by President Truman, Winston Churchill and Anthony Eden indicate the Allies fear another "Korea" is shaping up in Indochina, where for more than five years the French and Indo-Chinese have waged a strange, hit-and-run war against Communist-led Viet Minh rebels. Uncle Sam has poured hundreds of millions of dollars worth of military material into this fight—which is, in fact, a battle to save all of rich Southeast Asia for the free world. This area is Asia's "rice bowl," and the nations threatened are also rich in tin, rubber and other valuable raw materials. The "Korea" threat comes from behind the Chinese border, where 300,000 Red troops are massed. Fear is that a Korean armistice will send them pushing southward and perhaps dealing the death blows in what has been an indecisive, stalemated war.

WAR HAS COST FRANCE DEARLY

War, now in its sixth year, has cost France 30,000 dead and about $2.5 billion. In addition, it has tied down the hard core of her Army—12 divisions—badly needed for Western European defense. Above, French paratroopers land in a soggy rice paddy, and (right) machine gunners stand ready for Communist assault in an unnamed city. Weapon is probably a U. S. 30 caliber light machine gun.

VIET MINH REDS HIT, BURN AND RUN

Red flag waves symbolically before village burned and pillaged by Viet Minh rebels. Red forces, numbering about 300,000, are based up in mountains and jungles. They make sporadic raids, usually at night, on Viet Nam cities and villages.

UNCLE SAM SUPPLIES MUCH EQUIPMENT

U. S.-built jeep and weapons-carrier cross crude plank bridge in rain-drenched jungle. Exact amount of U. S. aid to French in Viet Nam is secret, but it represents hundreds of millions of dollars. Many units are entirely American-equipped.

Area Social Security Office One Year Old

ODESSA—The Odessa Social Security office celebrated its first birthday this month, Jack Calvert, manager, pointed out Friday. Since its opening on Jan. 1, 1951, the Odessa Social Security office has received and processed more than 900 claims for old age or survivors insurance benefits; has issued more than 6,400 original and more than 2,500 duplicate social security account number cards, as well as carrying on its other related activities.

Calvert showed that during the year 1951, the number of persons receiving old age or survivors insurance benefits in the 18-county area which his office services increased from less than 1,700 to an estimated 2,200, and the amount of benefits increased from $55,525 per month to an estimated $65,000 per month. Calvert estimates that during 1951, more than $720,000 was paid in old age and survivors insurance benefits in the entire 18-county area serviced by his office.

As of Dec. 31, 1951, Calvert estimates that there were at least 250 persons in Midland County receiving more than $7,800 per month in benefits. In Martin County there were about 23 persons receiving more than $677 per month. In Glascock County there were an estimated 31 persons receiving monthly benefits of more than $1,074.

Other county estimates were: Andrews County, 47 persons, $1,083; Crane County, 35 persons, $1,073; Howard County, 420 persons, $12,000; Pecos County, 121 persons, $3,459; Reeves County, 112 persons, $3,243; Upton County, 83 persons, $2,502; Ward County, 193 persons, $5,614; and Winkler County, 105 persons, $3,500.

Calvert said that there still are quite a few persons in this area that have not filed claims for benefits because of misunderstanding of the eligibility requirements. He suggests that every person get in touch with his office when they become 65 years of age, so that their individual entitlement may be explained to them. They do not have to be in need to receive old age insurance retirement benefits. To receive benefits the worker must be retired or not earning more than $50 per month on covered jobs.

In death cases, the survivors should immediately get in touch with the nearest Social Security office.

As a service to the citizens of Midland and vicinity, Calvert said that a representative of his office is in Midland every Thursday morning. Through January, his representative will be contacted at the Texas Employment Commission Office, 200 East Wall Street.

Beginning the first Thursday in February, the representative will be in the Commissioner's Courtroom, in the Midland County Courthouse, between 9 a. m. and noon.

Persons living in other areas should ask their postmaster for the date and place where a representative may be contacted, or write to the Social Security Administration, 113 West 9th Street, Odessa, for an appointment.

Hobo Concesses Killing Nine Men

SACRAMENTO, CALIF.—(AP)—A 28-year-old bearded hobo, lounging in his county jail cell on a vagrancy charge calmly wrote a confession that he killed nine men in two and a half years.

Then Lloyd Gomez told surprised officers Thursday, "I'm getting tired of living this way. I'm getting weak. I guess."

Gomez gave robbery as the motive but said his total loot was less than $50.

Undersheriff Harry Knoll said the accuracy of Gomez' descriptions left little doubt he was telling the truth.

Authorities last Fall undertook a statewide search for a man they suspected of from seven to 12 transient slayings in Hobo Jungles.

Airpark—

lease for joint use of the airport for $1 a year.

He said the Air Force would use its runways six days a week, from 8:30 a. m. to 4:30 p. m. The only facilities needed beside the runways and taxiways would be a crash base and quarters for crash crews, along with a briefing room.

Operating out of the field would be T-24 advanced training planes, which would be flown to Midland each morning from Big Spring and would be returned each afternoon.

"We have in mind the establishing of permanent auxiliary fields," he said, "but this will take time. We plan an auxiliary field at Colorado City for F-80 jets and in Martin County of the T-28's."

"I would like to paint by own picture," said Colonel Wackwitz. "Frankly, I am caught in a bind. April 4 has been set as the date for the beginning of operations at Big Spring and General Vandergriif has told me to open on that date."

Daily flights "And I have no auxiliary fields." He said that after the 40 to 45 planes were flown to Midland each morning, there would be five more classes "airlifted" each day to Midland in C-47 transport planes and then flown back after their period of flight exercises.

Maj. R. B. Cyper of Waco, with the flying training headquarters of the Air Force, minimized the danger to residential areas of the city. "I don't think," he said, "there would be any more danger than there is connected with commercial aircraft flying from the field at the present time."

"These planes will be able to execute their turn patterns even before they reach the boundaries of the field and never will fly over the residential areas."

But the council merely shook its head again. "I don't think there is any chance in the thinking of the council," observed Councilman R. B. (Bum) Cowden.

"I think that is what the people want. After we first protested about the Air Force using the field, I had 50 or 75 persons tell me they approved of our action. I can see no reason for any change," he said.

Wind Shift Ends Prospects Of Rain

By The Associated Press Texas lost its chance for a good, soaking rain Friday when winds shifted to the southwest and began bringing dry Mexican air into the state.

Strong southerly winds pushed moisture into Texas from the Gulf Thursday, but southwesterlies started blowing it northward Friday.

This ended hopes of quick relief from the Texas drought of 14 months. Skies were clear west of a line from Ardmore, Okla., to Fort Worth to San Angelo. East of that line, low, souly clouds blotted out the sky.

Low temperatures early Friday ranged from a minimum of 34 at Presidio to a 68 at Brownsville.

Fort Worth Stock Show Opens Friday

FORT WORTH — (AP)—The Southwestern Exposition and fair stock show opened its 1952 run Friday in its most favorable setting since the classic made its debut in 1896.

An all-Western parade at 2 p. m. was the curtain raiser for the formal opening of the show, although preliminaries got underway Thursday with the elimination of cutting horses. Eighty-six horses entered the event and 27 were selected to compete during the 19 performances of the rodeo for the Southwestern championship.

BIRTH ANNOUNCED Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Wahlenmaier, 1121 North Carrizo Street, Friday announced the birth of a daughter. The baby has been named Joan.

Army Orders Three Of Six Jailed WAC's Freed Immediately

WASHINGTON—(AP)—The Army Friday lopped time off the sentences imposed on four of the six WAC's accused of beating up a fellow woman soldier at Camp Breckenridge, Ky., last November.

The official announcement gave no reason for the action.

Under the Army order, three of the women will be released immediately. They are:

Sgt. Marjorie L. Stuck, Santa Cruz, Calif., originally sentenced to 18 months. Her term was reduced to 12 months and the judge advocated she may be released at once.

Sgt. Edith M. Brown, San Antonio, Texas, originally sentenced to one year officially.

Sgt. I. c. Mary G. Long, Fort Madison, Iowa, originally sentenced to one year.

Reduced Sentences The other three must serve out their terms, but for a reduced period of time. These three are:

Sgt. Grace L. Morton, San Lorenzo, Calif.—term reduced from 30 to 18 months.

Sgt. Juliette V. Mente, Pecos, N. M.—term reduced from 24 to 12 months.

Sgt. Edna H. Whiteman, Preble, N. Y.—term cut from 30 to 18 months. But she must serve only 12 months under the new order.

The six were convicted of assault and battery on a fellow WAC, Pfc. Carol A. Kierce, of Mt. Vernon, Ohio, last October 4. Pfc. Kierce had testified at a previous court martial involving a friend of the six sergeants.

that particular area be given further study, as a potential water source.

Scores of test wells were drilled and the information obtained from them was correlated by H. N. Roberts, Lubbock engineer, who made the formal recommendation for acquisition of the acreage.

70-Foot Water Sand And what lies beneath the mequite covered surface?

According to Roberts, there is a huge reservoir of water with water-bearing sand up to 70 feet in thickness.

The reservoir is fed from the sand dunes of Andrews County.

The reservoir, said Roberts, is capable of being produced at the rate of 3,200,000 gallons of water per day indefinitely, with the reservoir being replenished at that rate.

Or, for a period of 10 years, it can be produced at a rate of 5,600,000 gallons daily.

The city presently consumes an average of approximately 4,000,000 gallons of water daily, produced at the present well fields at Wadley, Cole Park and Rosedale.

The city began the exploration work after formally rejecting an offer to join the Colorado River Municipal Water District, which will supply the cities of Odessa, Big Spring and Snyder from a surface reservoir and from wells in Martin County.

Cheaper Than CRMWD "How do we compare," asked Wilkinson of Roberts, "with our position if we had joined the district?"

"Well," replied the engineer, "you're certainly better off financially and the water is there in sufficient quantity."

"Of course, your water will not be as good a water as you would have gotten from the district but, at least, it is water."

City Manager W. H. Oswalt estimated that, even after the city expends another $1,500,000 for the development of the supply construction of a transmission line to Midland for minor items, the total cost will be less than half what water from the Colorado River Municipal Water District would have cost.

Lamesa Trims Midland, 39-36

Tornadoes Take Over 1-AAA Lead

By BOB ADAMS
Reporter-Telegram Staff

An inability to sink their charity tosses cost the Midland High School basketball boys their first defeat in conference play here Thursday night as they fell before Lamesa, 39 to 36. Lamesa now leads the conference with three wins against no defeats.

Midland previously had defeated Big Spring and Plainview in conference play to chalk up two wins against no losses.

The Bulldogs could cash in on only five of 13 free throws while their opponents were sinking 11 of 17 at the charity line.

Even so, the game was in doubt until the final minute when Jerry Millsaps of Lamesa sank a goal from the field, then added a free throw to make the three-point difference in the ball game.

With versatile Spec Culpepper showing the way, the Midland team jumped into a one-point 11 to 10 lead at the end of the first quarter but the score was reversed at the half-way mark when Lamesa edged out in front, 23 to 22.

Culpepper was unstoppable in the first half, making shots which seemed almost impossible. However, Lamesa bottled the little scoring wizard up in the last half and held him to one point.

In fact, the performance of the Midland team as a whole was a little erratic in the last half. Five consecutive times the Bulldogs started down the court with the ball and five times they lost it through careless passing.

However, to give credit where credit is due, it must be said that Lamesa solved Midland's tight zone defense better than any team which has faced the Bulldogs lately.

The Golden Tornadoes made the Bulldogs spread out until they could work a man over in a corner of the court where they then fired a deadly barrage at the basket.

Don Stevens and Millsaps paced the winners with 17 and 11 points, respectively, while Culpepper and Kimsey led the losers with 13 and 8 points, respectively.

Dutch Meyer To Talk At Football Banquet

The Football Booster Club's annual banquet honoring Midland High School coaches and players will be held at 6:30 p.m. Friday in the high school cafeteria.

Dutch Meyer, coach of Texas Christian University, will speak to the Bulldogs, their coaches, and members of the Booster Club.

Coach Tugboat Jones will present football letters to members of the 1931 Midland varsity, who won the District 1-AAA championship.

Frank Monroe, superintendent of schools, will act as master of ceremonies. A short program will be presented by a group of Midland High School students.

FIGHT ACTION—Bill Leonard, left, Midland-light-heavyweight, works on opponent Joe Martin of Odessa in Golden Glove action. Leonard lost a split decision to the Odessa scrapper in the Thursday night bout in Odessa.

Blaik Will Continue At West Point

WEST POINT, N. Y.—(AP)—Earl (Red) Blaik will remain in command of Army's gridiron forces but don't look for any miracles when the Cadets take to the football field this Fall.

Speculation whether Blaik would be back this Fall ended Thursday with an announcement by Maj. Gen. Frederick A. Irving, superintendent of the United States Military Academy.

General Irving said Blaik would remain as both football coach and athletic director, positions he has held since coming to the Point from Dartmouth in 1941.

And Blaik added after talking with General Irving: "I intend to remain at the military academy as long as I can be of service."

Off-printed reports had Blaik, crushed by the honor code scandal that cost him most of his 1931 football team, including his son, Bob, contemplating leaving for another football post or a position in the business world.

The veteran coach, whose Army teams have won 77 games, lost 18 and tied six in 11 years, was quick to point out, however, that his decision to remain at the academy doesn't mean that Army's football fortunes will improve immediately.

"In fact," Blaik said, "I'll be happy if we do as well this Fall as we did last year." Army defeated only Columbia and The Citadel of its nine 1931 opponents and was whipped by Navy, 42-7.

Blaik pointed out next Fall's team will be much the same as last year, except for some half-dozen players who will graduate.

"I don't know if I'll be permitted to use plebes," he added, "and if we are, there still are very few who can carry the heavy class work required and still play varsity ball their first year here."

General Irving said he considers athletics an integral part of training, but there will be no over-emphasis at West Point.

"Colonel Blaik fully supports the athletic policy of the military academy," the statement said, adding: "The policy, as in the past, will require all intercollegiate participants to abide by the same regulations, to take the same courses, to measure up to the same standards and to have the same obligations as those who do not compete in varsity athletics."

"We shall endeavor to encourage young men, athletes and non-athletes, who have the qualifications to become career officers, to compete for entry to the military academy."

General Irving said special privileges are not accorded to athletes at West Point.

Washington 'Skins' To Name Grid Coach

WASHINGTON — (AP) — The Washington Redskins are expected to name their football coach within a few days.

Dick Todd, who took over the head coaching chores during the past season, is in town and heads the list of those likely to get the job.

As a matter of fact, the job is Todd's—if he wants it. But Todd has said he doesn't want it. However, since Todd has come from his home in Texas to talk to George P. Marshall, Redskins president, the assumption is that he may change his mind.

Another outstanding candidate has been Jordan Oliver, former coach of Loyola in Los Angeles, which has dropped football.

The Washington Post says that it expects Marshall to name Todd head coach sometime Friday.

The Los Angeles Examiner says it expects Marshall to give the job to Oliver.

Marshall himself has been quite coy. Reporters waited in his office all afternoon Thursday to find out what his plans are. He never showed up.

Baylor To Lead SWC Teams Into Spring Workouts

Southwest Conference members start falling into Spring football training next week with Baylor's Bears the first to hit the practice field.

The Bears open ahead of all others, beginning their 18-day stint next Tuesday. Coach George Sauer said he wanted the early start in order not to interfere with Spring sports. A number of the gridgers play baseball or participate in track.

Texas opens practice February 7, Southern Methodist, Texas Christian and Rice start February 11. Texas A&M starts February 25 and Arkansas begins the grind March 1. All the schools are limited to 18 sessions in a 25-day period this year.

Now that Ted Williams has been called to service with the Marines, perhaps it will give us a chance to find out how much Ted means to the Boston Red Sox.

It long has been held by one school of thought that looking Williams might turn out to be a blessing in disguise for the Red Sox. The logic, if any, behind this theory is that Ted is an incurable individualist whose brilliance is a handicap to the club because it bedazzles his teammates and prevents them from developing into a cohesive unit.

If, however, the Red Sox should react in the opposite direction, long overdue vindication would be Ted's claim for the salary cut from approximately $100,000 to $7,200 a year, which accompanies the change of uniforms.

Regardless of whether Ted is an individualist, it is difficult to imagine a ball club not missing a .318 batter (quoting his latest and lowest figure as a major leaguer) who hit 30 homers, batted in 126 runs and had a slugging average of .556 last season. Those figures cover a multitude of temperamental sins.

There is a chance, however, that with Williams gone such players as Dom DiMaggio, Vern Stephens, Billy Goodman or Johnny Pesky will burst into bloom, although it will be a little late for some of them whose blooming period is way behind them. Still, perhaps now that the boys mentioned above know the chips rest on their shoulders, they might come through.

This well could be the end of Williams' career, if he definitely is accepted by the Marines. With the international situation in such a jittery state, Ted could be a rusty old man before he is released from the service. He's 33 now, and he has an arm which isn't in the best of shape due to running into outfield walls.

The best information available as to just how long Ted will serve is that an officer called back into service involuntarily is required to serve only 17 months. Even so, that would mean two full seasons away from baseball for Ted and in his mid-thirties a ball player can collect a heap of rust in that length of time.

Well, the MHS cagers almost made it at that. We didn't see the tilt with Lamesa Thursday night, due to Golden Glove commitments in Odessa, but Bob Adams, our side-kick, tells us Red Rutledge's boys have nothing of which to be ashamed.

By continuing to play a good brand of ball, the Bulldogs might defeat the Lamesa five yet before the season is over.

Adams, by the way, was very impressed with the play of Spec Culpepper and Roy Kimsey in particular Thursday night.

Don't forget the Bulldog Booster banquet Friday night. It's at 6:30 p.m. in the high school cafeteria. Dutch Meyer, TCU's clever mentor, is principal speaker.

Southwest Teams To See Cage Action

By The Associated Press

Three of the nation's top six defensive teams see basketball action in games involving Southwest Conference quintets this weekend.

Oklahoma City University, second in the nation's list of defensive stalwarts; Texas A&M, third; and Texas Christian, sixth, all are involved.

The Southwest Conference leader—TCU—endangers a glittering 14-1 season record Saturday night in Oklahoma City in a game with Oklahoma City University.

In two games Friday night, winless Baylor plays Rice, winner of one conference game, at Waco, and the Texas Aggies play the University of Houston at Houston.

The OCU-TCU game may be one of the season's lowest scoring games between major basketball powers. OCU has gained its second place defensive position by allowing the opposition only 46.2 points per game in 13 starts while TCU has given up 48.1 points in 15 starts to rank sixth nationally on the defense.

Savitt Loses Bid To Meet Sedgman In Australian Play

ADELAIDE, AUSTRALIA.—(AP)—Dick Savitt's bid to retain his Australian National Tennis championship failed Friday.

The big American from Orange, N. J., waged a valiant, but losing semifinal battle before Australia's Ken McGregor. He was beaten, 6-4, 6-4, 3-6, 6-4.

Thus Savitt's hopes of meeting Frank Sedgman, the Aussies' No. 1 player in the final on Monday and demonstrating that possibly a mistake had been made in leaving him off the American team in the Davis Cup Challenge, went up in smoke.

Sedgman had little trouble reaching the final. He showed his best form of the tournament in taking only 53 minutes to drub his south-paw countryman, Mervyn Rose, 6-2, 6-4, 6-2.

Sedgman and McGregor completed a victorious day for the Aussies by trouncing Savitt and young Hamilton Richardson, of Baton Rouge, La., 6-2, in the fifth and deciding set of their postponed semifinal doubles match. This averted one of the greatest doubles upsets of this or any other season.

The doubles match had been called because of darkness Thursday after each side had won two sets. The final score for the Aussies was 6-3, 3-6, 4-6, 6-3, 6-2.

Pat Garner Upsets Polly Riley, 1-Up

MIAMI, FLA.—(AP)—Pretty Pat Garner of Midland, Texas, beat veteran Polly Riley of Fort Worth, 1-up, Thursday for the biggest upset of the first round of match play in the Doherty Golf Tournament.

It was the first "big" win for Miss Garner, who has copped smaller tournaments in Texas, but who had gained only experience in playing in the larger meets.

She turned in an 82 here Thursday, playing a steady game against her more experienced opponent. Miss Riley—a Fort Worth girl—won the amateur tourney here two years ago and tied for second in the qualifying round here Thursday. She drove into a ditch on the sixteenth hole and lost the match when she missed a putt on the eighteenth.

Defending Champion Claire Doran of Cleveland declined Mrs. Ann Sparrow Robertson of Miami. Medalist Mae Murry of Rutland, Vt., scored an easy 4 and 3 win over Charlotte DeCoozen of Montclair, N. J.

Miss Garner Friday was scheduled for a semi-final match with Helen Gery, Barrington, Rhode Island. Miss Gery defeated Mrs. G. McDonald, Atlanta, 1-up.

Others still in the running include National Amateur Champion Dorothy Kirby, Edean Anderson, Barbara Romack and Evelyn Odum.

Pat Garner won the fem club title and the Women's Invitational Tournament at Midland Country Club last Spring. She also captured tournaments at Brownwood and Hobbs, N. M.

Russia To Enter Olympic Contests

LONDON.—(AP)—Russia probably will field teams in about half the events at the Summer Olympic games at Helsinki.

Just how strong their teams will be this year remains to be seen. For prestige reasons, it's a pretty safe bet the Russians, who do come to Helsinki, will be absolutely the best the Soviet can find.

Until now Russia has shunned all Olympic Competition. Under the Czars, the Russians made one brief Olympic jaunt to Stockholm in 1912 and wound up without scoring a point.

Other officers for 1932 include B. M. Stodghill, vice president, and O. L. Gaines, Lee Daniels and Spruill, directors.

Holdover directors are J. A. Scoggin, Elmo Glass, Gene Hixson, R. H. Hall, G. W. Robertson and George Addison.

ODESSA BOWIE DEFEATS MIDLAND

Coach Jimmy Williams' ninth grade cagers lost a 41-36 contest to a similar outfit from Odessa Bowie here Thursday. William Brooks led Midland with 10 points, Jim Davis getting 16 for Odessa.

Other Midland scoring was done by McEntyre, nine points; Narrall, six; Long, four; Lee, six, and Johnson, one.

Skidmore, Reeves Win Bouts; Three Midlanders Lose

By LARRY KING
Reporter-Telegram Sports Editor

ODESSA—Midland's flu-weakened boxing club took one novice division bout and one junior bout here Thursday night as Odessa's regional Golden Gloves matches got underway before an enthusiastic first-night crowd.

John Skidmore, 107, Midland, took a three-round clear-cut decision over Richard Maxwell, 107, Odessa, in novice division. Leroy Reeves, 84, Midland, decided Joe Font, San Angelo, 86, in a junior bout.

Bill Leonard, Midland's light-heavyweight, was upset in a split nod by Joe Martin of Odessa; Larry Sapp, Midland, lost a split decision to Joe Perez, 108, San Angelo and Luther Mooney faded in the final round to lose another split nod to Dan Robles, San Angelo.

San Angelo and Odessa fighters led the meet with three points each in the novice tournament. Midland has one; Andrews one. Points are scored on the basis of one for each victory. A win over a boy from the same city does not count as a point. Junior bouts are not counted in the team totals, either.

The bouts continue Friday night, finishing up Saturday night. Open class boys begin their milling Friday night.

Skidmore got Midland's novice win by landing frequently to the head and face of Maxwell, winning the first and third rounds by large margins. The second round was about even.

Leonard was judged the loser in his bout with Martin, although the crowd and several ringside patrons went against the decision. Leonard floored his opponent in the first round with a straight left to the chin, and got in telling body punches all through the fight. Martin grabbed his kidneys a la Max Schmeling in the third round, claiming to have been rabbit punched and he was allowed a one-minute rest. He was a bit better boxer than the Midland puncher, but didn't have as much power. He got two votes to one for Leonard for the decision.

Larry Sapp, 113, Midland, just couldn't handle "Wild Man" Joe Perez of San Angelo. Perez carried the fight to Sapp, who was content to counter-punch and the SA boy earned a split decision.

Luther Mooney, 120, started off in the first round as if he would slaughter Dan Robles, 119, San Angelo. He scored a knockdown over his San Angelo opponent, hitting him in the face and about the head at will and had his foe groggy and bleeding when the first round was over.

But in the second round Mooney—who got out of a sick bed to enter the meet—tired badly and took some punishment. He took an eight count in the third round, got up and staggered Robles but was very exhausted and couldn't press his advantage. He also lost a split decision.

Little LeRoy Reeves was 84 pounds of classy boxer for the Nolan McKean-Frank Willis coached club, as he easily decided Joe Font, 86, of San Angelo. The boys mixed it up nicely in this one.

In other bouts, Heavyweight Jack Freeman of Odessa, 184, knocked out Bob Joyce, 185, Odessa in the first round. Freeman—an Odessa High School football fullback—took the Open class bout with a withering body attack which left his opponent stunned and helpless on the ropes. He exhibited the "killer" instinct by pounding away until Joyce slid limply to the canvas. The bell ending the round came at the count of four, but Joyce was out for several minutes.

Bill Green, 136, Andrews, knocked out the meet's tired boxer and took some punishment. He took an eight count in the third round, got up and staggered Robles but was very exhausted and couldn't press his advantage. He also lost a split decision.

The fifth fight brings E. P. Birkhead, 163, Midland, against Joe Perez, 108, San Angelo, in a (novice bout, John Skidmore, 108, Midland, gets Connis Fisher, 111, San Angelo, in the sixth fight, a novice affair.

And Midland is certain to win the novice welterweight title. Two Midland boys—Robert Whitaker, 143 and Edward Jonas, 142—angle for that honor in bout number 13.

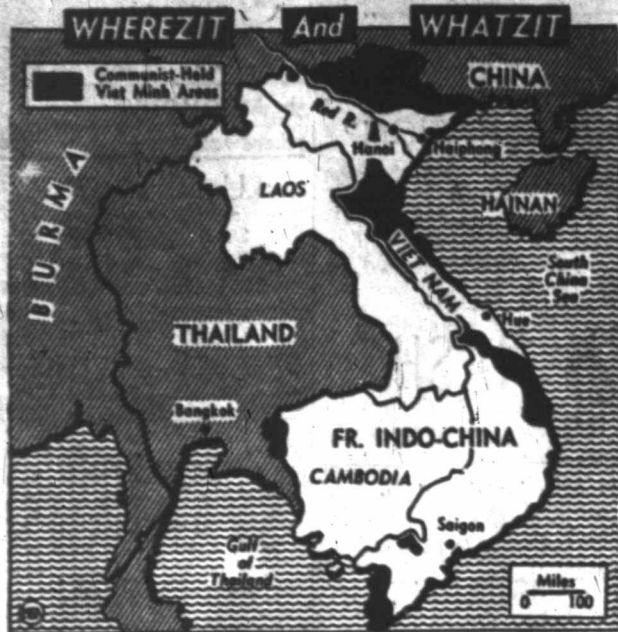

Sickle Image, one of America's most traveled race horses, is expected to race in Hialeah, Florida this season. The filly is now racing in California.

UNVARNISHED REPORT—Texas Highway System Failing, Says Thornton

HOUSTON—(AP)—A Highway Commission drive to present an "unvarnished report" of what the group calls a critical road problem has been revealed by the body's chairman.

E. H. Thornton, Jr., the chairman, Thursday said the state needs to spend $219,000,000 annually on its roads, $100,000,000 more than is being spent now.

Thornton said he and other commission members, Fred Wemple, Midland, and R. H. Potts, Harlingen, planned to take an "unvarnished report of the critical road problem" to every major city in the state.

Thornton pointed to "great progress" in farm-to-market road development in Texas but said the state's primary roads had deteriorated greatly.

Thornton said 12 1/2 per cent of the 16,000-mile primary road total in Texas had passed its normal 20-year life expectancy and that fully half was more than 10 years old.

Thornton said a program, if continued, would "get the farmers out of the mud but we won't be able to get him to market."

The highway commissioner suggested that additional funds needed for a better highway system might come either from an increased road-use tax or that road funds should be used for roads only instead of being channeled for other purposes.

Chisholm Remains To Be Re-Interred Near Famous Trail

OKLAHOMA CITY—(P)—The remains of Jesse Chisholm, pioneer trail blazer of the Southwest, will be moved from the unintended grave near Okarche, Okla., to a plot near Enid along U. S. Highway 81—the Chisholm Trail.

Directors of the Oklahoma Historical Society approved the removal plans Thursday.

Enid citizens had proposed moving the grave of the mixed-blood Cherokee trader whose name became attached to the most famous trail leading north to Kansas from Texas.

Chisholm's present grave was located and identified in 1930. It is on the North Canadian River, in Blaine County.

Pentagon Delivers Recommendations On Spanish Bases

WASHINGTON—(P)—The Pentagon has turned over to the State Department its military recommendations of the politically touchy matter of a U. S. Spanish bases and arms aid agreement.

The secret report of an American mission which went to Spain last August has been delivered to diplomatic officials after prolonged review by the joint chiefs of staff and Defense Department leaders. It was learned Friday.

The Pentagon's advice, based on the report of a three-man mission headed by Maj. Gen. James W. Spry of the Air Force, reportedly was confined to presenting information and guidance on purely military aspects such as (a) the desirable locations of U. S. sea and air facilities, and (b) the military assistance requirements of Spain.

It is described as keeping cautiously clear of the diplomatic perplexities involving the actual bargaining with Generalissimo Francisco Franco and convincing the Western European members of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization that a U. S.-Spanish arrangement wouldn't spy on aid away from them. Secretary of State Dean Acheson sought to assure the NATO members of that last July but some of the major Western European powers are still concerned.

Alger Hiss, Now Serving Prison Term, Asks For New Trial

NEW YORK—(P)—Alger Hiss has asked for a retrial based on what he says is new evidence that he can prove he told the truth when he said he did not give American secrets to a prewar Russian spy ring.

The one-time top State Department aide Thursday appealed for a third trial. The jury in his first trial was dismissed when it couldn't agree. The second trial resulted in a five-year sentence.

Hiss said he had new facts to back up his defense that he was convicted partly by typewriter forgery.

And he attacked key testimony of Whittaker Chambers, self-styled courier for the spy ring, and a second trial surprise witness who identified himself as Chambers' former maid.

Hearing February 4

The new plea came 10 months after Hiss, a right-hand man for the late President Roosevelt at Yalta, began serving his term. The motion will be argued February 4.

At both trials the government contended Hiss used a battered old Woodstock typewriter to copy State Department documents and gave copies to Chambers.

The typewriter was a key exhibit at both trials.

It was generally accepted there—as elsewhere—that each typewriter unmistakable traits of its own.

But Hiss' motion Thursday said engineers had built him a special typewriter that would type just like the old one.

He said this indicated that Chambers, his principal accuser, somehow could have forged the documents.

Furthermore, his petition said, the old typewriter used at the trials might even have been "a plant" and not the machine Hiss once used.

Ray, Harris Will Test San Andres In Reagan Wildcat

O. F. Ray, Jr., of Dallas and Dave R. Harris of Midland have not plugged and abandoned their No. 1 Calvin H. Sugg, wildcat in North-east Reagan County, as had been reported previously in error.

The exploration, which had no possibility of production in the Spraberry, is now at total depth of 6,065 feet in the lower section of that formation.

Rotary has been moved off and operator is preparing to plug back to around 3,000 feet and test the San Andres from 2,185 to 3,000 feet with a portable unit.

Location is 660 feet from north and west lines of section 35, block A, TC survey.

Strawn Sand Has Oil In Jameson Area Of NW Coke

Chester Hunter of Dallas No. 1 E. E. Stagner has found flowing oil in a Strawn sand on the west side of the Jameson-Strawn lime field in Northwest Coke County.

Nearest Strawn sand production to the new strike is three and three-quarter miles south and a little east of the Hunter well in the Lygay field. There is no Strawn sand production in the Jameson field.

The prospector is reported to have flowed 108 barrels of oil in 14 hours through a one-quarter inch tubing choke from perforated section at 5,920-6,075 feet. That zone had been fractured.

To Complete Soon
Hunter is due to complete his No. 1 Stagner in the near future.

It is 467 feet from south and east lines of the 320-acre S. M. Conner survey. That makes it 1,127 feet west and a little north of the closest Strawn lime producer on the west side of the Jameson field. That oil well is Sun Oil Company No. 17 C. E. Mathers.

Hunter No. 1 Stagner drilled to total depth of 6,380 feet in the Strawn lime. It cemented 5 1/2-inch casing at 6,350 feet. The open hole zone was acidized and tested.

Lime Was Barren
No possibilities of production were developed in that zone and the project plugged back and perforated the section opposite the Strawn sand for the testing which has been done.

Gravity of the oil from the new well is about 47 degrees. Flowing tubing pressure during the 14-hour flow was 475 pounds of water has been developed in the pay.

Hunter is to start soon on drilling his No. 2 E. E. Stagner, which will be 812 feet north of his No. 1 Stagner and 1279 feet from south and 467 feet from east lines of the S. M. Conner survey.

Packer Fails On DST Attempt In Schleicher Test

Fullerton Oil Company is conditioning hole at total depth of 6,408 feet in lower Pennsylvanian lime after packer failed on drillstem test attempt in its No. 1 P. McIntosh, indicated gas discovery in South-east Schleicher County.

The drillstem test was tried in the interval from 6,384 to 6,408 feet. That section drilled soft, had good porosity, oil stain, oil cut and had 25 per cent fluorescence.

Packer failed immediately and there was no test.

Location is 660 feet from south and west lines of section 83, block K, GH&SA survey. That puts it 11 1/2 miles southeast of Eldorado.

NW Nolan Field Gets West Offset

Honolulu Oil Corporation spotted location for a west offset to production in the Rowan-Hope-Canyon reef lime field of Northwest Nolan County.

It will be dug to around 6,500 feet as No. 1 Mary E. Hale and others. Drillsite is 695 feet from north and 660 feet from east lines of section 48, block 23, T&P survey.

NW Andrews Pool Gets West Outpost

Neville G. Penrose, Inc. For Worth will drill a three-quarter mile west outpost to the Littleman San Andres field of Northwest Andrews County.

It will be drilled as No. 2 Lydia Littleman, 2,223 feet from south and 467 feet from west lines of section 6, block A-29, psi survey. It will go to 4,750 feet.

Dewey Again Urges Action To Halt Red Aggression In Asia

NEW YORK—(P)—Gov. Thomas E. Dewey, in a soberly worded warning, Thursday night said the free world is courting catastrophe if it fails to take prompt action against aggression in Southeast Asia.

He repeated again his month-old demand for a mutual defense treaty of free Pacific nations and said:

"We should make it clear that we will not hesitate to use every weapon at our command and every weapon we may develop in the future in the manner that hurts the aggressor most."

"If we do not issue such a warning," the two-time Republican candidate for president added, "I believe we will have war."

Dewey, who traveled widely last Summer in the Far East, called attention to the fact that the United States is committed to the defense of Japan, the Philippine Islands, Australia and New Zealand.

"But, as it stands today, we have guaranteed either too much or too little," he said.

Poised For Invasion
Poised for an invasion of Southeast Asia, the New York Governor said, are a quarter-million seasoned Red Chinese troops.

Of this threat to Burma and Indochina, he said:

"If we wait for an attack by Red China upon Southeast Asia and then take the case to the United Nations, the Russians will stalemate action until all is lost."

"If the free world does not take action to prevent that Chinese invasion, I make the prophecy that the world will face the greatest catastrophe of our time."

"Three hundred million people—twice the population of the United States—would be lost to Communism."

"Raw materials essential to our survival would fall into the hands of the Soviet."

And, he warned, "the defense of America would shrink back to Hawaii or to the coast of California."

Dewey spoke at a meeting of the National Industrial Conference Board, a business and industrial organization that sponsors fact-finding through scientific research. His speech was heard by a nationwide radio audience.

Cub Scout Knowledge Saves Life Of Child

SAN ANTONIO—(P)—James Cobb 11, was credited Friday with saving the life of Roger Tobin Lohrke, five.

Tobey's fringed cowboy shirt caught fire from a campfire near which the boys were playing Thursday and James put his Cub Scout knowledge to quick use.

He caught the frightened younger boy and smothered his blazing clothes with his own shirt.

Doctors said his quick action saved the smaller boy's life. Friday James thinks maybe he'll be a fireman when he grows up.

And Tobey says he'll play with no more fires.

Arkansas Farmer Dies In Well Cave-In
FOUKE, ARK.—(P)—Clyde Kemp had just cleaned away the last bit of tile from the abandoned well on his farm near here. He stood at the bottom of the 21-foot-deep shaft and waited for a rope to pull him to the surface.

Then the walls gave way, and the 36-year-old farmer was buried in the cave-in of dirt and clay.

That was shortly before noon Thursday. About six hours later, after neighbors and rescue workers dug frantically with their hands and shovels, Kemp's body was removed from the well.

The body was taken from the shaft by Kemp's brother, Clarence, and a neighbor, Merle Overmyer. They were lowered into the well by means of a hand-made winch.

The rescue workers once freed Kemp's head and shoulders but another cave-in occurred before they could get him out of the hole.

North America has more than 500 different species of native trees.
