Shivers Democrats are those who oppose Truman, who would like for Texas to stay Democratic, but who aren't sure or aren't saying what they would do in case the Democrate nominate Truman.

Governor Shivers himself said if Truman is nominated, he would come back home for new instructions from the Democrats.

Among those who said Eisenhower would carry Texas if it narrows down to him and Truman were a West Texas district judge, several newspapermen, lawyers, insurance men, a machine-shop operator, a Hill Country ranch owner, an independent oil operator, a former member of the Legislature.

into our farms," he said. A West Texas public official spoke typically on the other side.

"I took a walk the last time Truman ran and I wouldn't vote for him if it cost me my job," he said. This elimaxed a bitter catalogue of complaints: extravagant spending, corruption, taxes too high, trend toward statism. Nolen McKean said his large squad Monday workouts.

"Unless our boys start coming back Wednesday night," McKean said, "then I guess we will have to call off the tournament, After all, there's not much use in our having one if we don't enter, is there?"

Optimist officials were hopeful Wednesday however that the planned fight-card may be carried on here anyway. Odessa has promised to send 20 boxers to the bouts and San Angelo definitely has placed the stamp of approval on 12 or 15 boys fighting here.

At least three other cities are probable entries here. Brownwood has indicated it might enter 10 boys. Hobbs, N. M. is thinking of bringing a half-dozen to the tourney and Andrews is a strong possibility to enter three or four scrappers.

We are going ahead and make our plans for the card here, because we think the Midland boys want to fight," one official said. "We don't think they will miss a chance to show their wares before lost record and gave the B team a the home folks."

After patrolling the area thoroughly, authorities gave up again. All they found were huge footprints where the beast had ducked under a bridge. Authorities believe the animal escaped from some small circus, whose owner has been afraid to report his

Economic Equality

One of the great but false boasts of the Soviet Union is that the Communist regime has built a society in which people are more nearly equal in income than anywhere else in the world.

The truth is that American capitalism, which the Reds revile as the exploiter of ordinary humanity, has gone farther than any other economic-political system to narrow the spread between the highest and lowest incomes.

Even Socialist Britain, with its determined effort to achieve this very end, has not succeeded as have we in the United States.

Obviously the reason cannot be because the rich in this country are less rich than the most privileged in Russia and Britain.

The British systematically have sought to cut down the wealthy, and the top bracket Russians, although far better off than they want the people to realize, don't range very high by American standards.

The real story, as pointed out recently by Peter F. Drucker in the Saturday Evening Post, is that the "poor" people of the United States are so much more fortunate economically than the wretched lewer classes of Europe

The National Bureau of Economic Research, an outfit studying long range trends and not given to spectacular statement, calls what has happened to America's average individual incomes in the last 25 years "one of the greatest social revolutions in history."

More than 50 per cent of America's families now have what is considered a "middle class" income. Back around 1900, only 25 per cent of the families were that Crosser tried to bring pressure on the Securities and Exchange Com-

And these gains have been made despite a notable of financier Cyrus Eaton, who has to step up the step inflation that finds the 1952 dollar worth roughly onethird of the 1900 dollar.

For instance, the yearly income of the average U.S. factory worker has zoomed to $3,000 today, against about $500 at the turn of the century.

That's a sixfold advance, and means his real income has doubled despite the cheapening of the dollar.

Drucker calls attention to another striking trend that Drucker calls attention to another striking trend that tional Association of Securities Dealis lifting up this country's lower income groups and diminers has suspended Eaton for two man had appointed McDonald withishing the range between high and low.

This is the remarkable tendency of ordinary folk to participate in the ownership of the country's largest busi-

The Bell Telephone System now has 1,000,000 stockholders. Of course, some 200,000 are company employes, to be investigated by a congression-Standard Oil Company of New Jersey has 220,000 stock- al committee and shortly thereafter holders, including many workers.

Altogether, 15,000,000 Americans, one out of every 10 men, women and children, today are stock owners. In other words, they have a financial stake themselves in the operation of our capitalist economy.

If you add to these all the people who have a share in business indirectly, through savings deposits and life insurance payments which afford business a prime source of capital, you get a much larger figure.

So the country which Communists-and Socialists too voters than men in the United -constantly excoriate as the despoiler of the masses is in | States, fact doing far better by the masses than the enemies of capitalism have any hope of doing.

The kind of equality they talk about is the kind we already have and steadily are getting more of.

The sort the Reds are achieving is largely accomplished by leveling the top brackets, except for the privileged few of the ruling regime.

It is a destructive process that seeks to make a virtue of "organized depression."

Our increasing economic equality is attained not by leveling but by raising up the low brackets toward a stand-

Not A Free Agent

Attorney General McGrath's choice of Newbold Morris, 1949 Republican mayoralty candidate in New York City and a long-time fighter for good government, probably assures that the inquiry into corruption which he will lead will be as fair and full as the limits upon him permit.

The limits are, of course, that this is to be the Administration's investigation of its own house.

In the light of the scandals already exposed, there is utterly no reason to imagine that the general public really would be satisfied by anything less than a thoroughly independent inquiry, conducted by an impartial commission free of any strings to the present Administration.

This is President Truman's political answer to an issue that ought to transcend politics.

It's surprising the number of young men who are incapable of raising a mustache, says an English writer. So they have to take it on the chin.

You can't expect much of the spokesman who won't put his shoulder to the wheel.
