

Rowan Gets Shows Of Oil In San Andres At Cochran Wildcat

Rowan Oil Company and associates No. 1 Willie L. Grimes, slated 12,900-foot wildcat in Southwest Cochran County has found interesting shows of possible production in the San Andres-Permian lime.

The project is making more hole below 5,410 feet and will drill on to its original objective, or a test of the Devonian at a lesser depth.

Took Drilling Test
It took a 65-minute drilling test in the San Andres at 5,035-72 feet. Recovery was 15 feet of oil and gas cut drilling mud. There were no signs of formation water.

The samples from 5,072 feet to the present level of digging had shown oil stains, fluorescence and porosity.

No drilling test has been taken on that interval.

South of Bledsoe
Location is 12 miles south of Bledsoe and 683.85 feet from north and 682.95 feet from west lines of the northwest quarter of the southeast quarter of section 3, block 2, pal survey.

That makes it six and one-half miles northwest of the Landon multipay field.

Sinclair Completes Flowing Discovery In W-C Upton Area

Twenty miles northwest of Rankin and two and three-quarter miles north of the Wiltshire-Ellenburger field of West-Central Upton County, Sinclair Oil & Gas Company completed its No. 6 McElroy Ranch Company as a flowing discovery from the Pennsylvania.

Operator reported a daily potential of 65 barrels of 43.3-gravity oil through open two-inch tubing and from perforations at 9,810-25 and 9,855-75 feet. Gas-oil ratio was 6,323-1 and tubing pressure was 50 pounds. Pressure on casing was 400 pounds.

The perforations were washed with acid.

The new field opened has been assigned an allowable of 63 barrels of oil daily.

Location is 1,966 feet from south and east lines of section 132, block D, CSDA-RONG survey.

Two Wildcats Are Spotted In Mitchell; One To 7,500-Feet

Two wildcats have been staked for immediate drilling in Mitchell County. One of them, S. F. Huribut and others No. 1 Ina Wallace, will drill to 7,500 feet.

Huribut No. 1 Wallace will be dug 660 feet from north and west lines of section 24, block 13, HATC survey and 15 miles southwest of Colorado City.

The other wildcat will be dug as a shallow 250-foot cable tool test 15 miles south of Colorado City.

It is Ed P. Ross and others No. 1 Ellwood Estate.

Drill site is 330 feet from north and east lines of the southwest quarter of section 21, J. P. Smith survey.

Phillips No. 1 Berry, Glasscock Wildcat Is Due To Run DST

Phillips Petroleum Company No. 1 Berry, Northwest Glasscock County wildcat, 17 miles northwest of Garden City and four miles southeast of the Germania field of North-east Midland County is at a total depth of 11,476 feet in an unidentified lime and is trying to loosen and recover stuck drill pipe.

When the pipe is recovered operator will clean the hole to bottom and then will take a drillstem test.

The section at the present total depth is unidentified. Some sources report it may be the Ellenburger. That report has not been officially confirmed.

Location is 658 feet from west and 664 feet from north lines of section 35, block 36, T-2-S, T&P survey.

This prospector has logged some possibilities of producing oil and gas in the Wolfcamp section of the Permian and in the Pennsylvania.

AT&PC Is To Drill West Offset To Oil Field In C-E Scurry

American Trading & Production Corporation of Midland is to start drilling in the near future at its No. 1 Elmer Howell, which is to be a one location stepout from production in the Hernaligh-Ellenburger field of Central-East Scurry County. Drill site is 660 feet from north (Continued On Page 12)

State Called Into Mystery Of Fire Death

An investigator from the State Department of Public Safety Friday entered the investigation of the death of an unidentified man whose charred remains were found in the glowing embers of a tent fire near here early Wednesday.

County Attorney Reagan Legg said he had requested Glenn McLaughlin, chief of the Bureau of Identification and Records at Austin, to send a laboratory technician here to aid in attempts to identify the fire victim.

The investigator, McLaughlin said, will arrive in Midland Saturday.

Meanwhile, Justice of the Peace L. C. Stephenson ordered an autopsy, at the request of Legg, of the charred bones and flesh remaining of the fire victim.

"Our main concern at this time," said Legg, "is to determine whose body we found in the ashes."

As officers awaited the report of the autopsy and the arrival of the state investigator, they said they were unable to find any new leads as to the man's identity.

The only inkling they have is the story told by 36-year-old James T. Wooten, who owned the tent, which was located at the Durham Drilling Company campsite two and one-half miles southeast of the city, and who at first was thought to be the victim.

Located a few hours after the fire, Wooten told officers he had taken "a nice old fellow from Oklahoma" home with him because he had no place to sleep.

He said they had met the man at Jim's Place, an all-night restaurant operated on the Garden City highway by Jim Wilkerson, former Midland police captain.

Wilkerson told officers later, however, that Wooten had not left with his companion but had left with two younger men, neither of whom had been located Friday morning.

Wooten told officers he fled the tent when an oil stove exploded and forgot about someone else being inside.

Area WTCC Meet Set Here March 5

An area membership meeting of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce will be held at 7:30 p.m. March 5, in the Crystal Ballroom of Hotel Scharbauer here, Delbert Downing, Midland Chamber manager announced Friday.

More than 100 WTCC members from the organization's Districts 6, 7 and 8 are expected to attend the dinner-meeting here. Similar meetings are scheduled at various points over the 132-county area included in the confines of the regional organization.

District vice presidents will be elected, and projects and activities and the 1952 budget discussed at the banqueting here.

Fred Husbands, executive vice president and general manager of the WTCC, and Aiden Cathey, manager of the Public Relations and Membership Department, will conduct the Midland meeting.

Threatened Oil Strike Could Cost Nation Millions Monthly

By The Associated Press
A mammoth oil strike, set March 3 to "hit where it hurts," may idle millions of automobiles and cost workers, royalty owners and land owners millions of dollars.

Some Gulf Coast merchants, remembering other walkouts, feared bankruptcy in the midst of the lush wealth of the famed "Gold Coast area."

"The state would lose millions in taxes," Union sources say thousands of Texas oil workers—most of them in plants along the Texas Gulf Coast—are ready to quit work to back up demands for a 35-cent hourly wage boost.

And a qualified industry spokesman says such a strike would knock out 1,100,000 barrels of refining capacity a day, cost the workers $2,407,000 a week in wages, cost the state $4,387,000 a month in taxes, and cost royalty and land owners 14 million dollars in monthly revenue.

The walkout would knock out 90 per cent of the state's refining capacity, the industry spokesman said Thursday.

If all the refineries listed by the Oil Workers International Union are struck, the area around Port Arthur, Beaumont and Houston would be hit hardest.

At Beaumont and Port Arthur, where the Beaumont Journal says some merchants are talking of shutting down if the strike comes, some oil workers already are hunting other employment.

One of the two refineries at Wichita Falls would be affected by the strike. Some 2,900 workers at Texas City, employed by five plants, would be affected.

Twenty-two unions, but chiefly the CIO-OWIU, are banded together in the demand.

PUTTING ON THE DOG—Coats, hats, booties and sweaters are among the doggie items to be purchased at a swank dog shop in the British sector of Berlin. "Henley," seven-month-old cocker spaniel, is all decked out in the highest of fashion—but he'd just as soon not be.

Midlander Shoots Himself As Wife, Officers Look On

A 23-year-old Midland man remained in a serious condition at Western-Clinic Hospital Friday morning as the result of what Midland officers described as a self-inflicted bullet wound.

Eddie Campbell, 1111 South Colorado Street, a roughneck for Alma Petroleum Company, was shot at 3:40 p.m. Thursday while his wife and two Midland policemen looked on.

The police officers, A. B. Stuckney and Al Barron, said they had just arrived to investigate a complaint of disturbance at the address when the shooting occurred.

"When we walked into the man's room," Officer Stuckney said, Campbell was standing at the end of a bed in the bedroom and his wife was seated on the bed.

"We asked him what the trouble was and he replied 'I'm just a little bit crazy I guess,' then whipped up the gun and shot himself."

Campbell crumpled to the floor immediately, but the officers picked him up and placed him in a chair.

"He told his wife—'Well I've done it,' the officers said, "then asked her for a drink of water."

Both officers said the gun was not visible when they first confronted the man because he was holding it at his side.

When questioned at the hospital following the shooting, his wife, who appeared to be calm and composed, told a Reporter-Telegram staff member Campbell shot himself while cleaning a gun.

Meanwhile, doctors at the hospital Friday had been unable to locate the bullet. It entered Campbell's body just above the waist, in the left abdomen.

The doctors speculated that the bullet may have lodged against the spine.

Pilot Killed In Guard Plane Crash

DALLAS —(P)—A single-engine F-51 Air National Guard fighter plane crashed at 10:45 a.m. Friday on Mountain Creek road, killing its pilot. The plane was based at Hensley Field.

Sheriff's officers established identification of the pilot but withheld a release pending notification of next of kin.

The plane exploded as it crashed to earth and wreckage was spread over a 150-yard area.

Post Office Workers Celebrate Holiday

Windows in the Midland Post Office were closed Friday as postal employees observed George Washington's birthday.

There was no mail delivery in the city and only a skeleton crew of postal workers was on hand to distribute incoming mail in the boxes. Midland's three financial institutions also were closed. They are the First National Bank, the Midland National Bank and Midland Federal Savings and Loan Association.

GI's Smash Red-Inspired Prison Riot

PUSAN, KOREA —(P)—Combat-hardened troops of the U. S. 27th Wolfhound Regiment smashed a Communist-led riot in a Korean civilian prison compound Monday. The fight left 70 dead and 165 injured.

American authorities said Friday 750 U. S. troops and 1,500 interned Koreans were involved. The fight lasted three hours.

Announced American casualties were one killed, one wounded and 22 injured slightly.

The other 69 dead and 142 injured were interned Korean civilians.

News of the riot in the Koje Island stockade off South Korea was withheld four days.

U. S. authorities said the rioters attacked with a vicious array of homemade weapons—steel pickets, blackjacks, iron pipe, metal tent pole spikes, barbed wire snails, wooden clubs, rocks and knives.

A U. S. Eighth Army spokesman in Seoul said at least one flash of what appeared to be gunfire from the mob was reported, but no guns were found among the Reds.

About 3,500 of the 5,000 Korean civilians in compound No. 63 on Koje stormed in a screaming mob against the U. S. guards. Authorities said no Communist prisoners of war took part in the outbreak.

The Eighth Army said the riot was Communist-planned and led. "Careful organization and planning were evident in the collection of weapons manufactured for this assault," the Army said.

Drizzle Dampens Eastern Texas, But West Remains Dry

By The Associated Press
A warm front that pushed into Texas from the Gulf of Mexico Friday spread light rain and drizzle from Laredo to Texarkana.

Precipitation was light and promised little relief.

Light drizzle wet down Dallas, College Station, Galveston, San Antonio, Austin, Laredo, Del Rio and Tyler. Light rains fell at Longview, Texarkana and Cotulla.

The moisture fell from low stratus clouds that obscured the sky over the entire state, except for the northern Panhandle.

Temperatures early Friday reached minimums that ranged from 69 at Brownsville to 27 at Dalhart. Thursday's high readings touched 80 at Brownsville and dropped to 57 at Wichita Falls.

Rainfall totals for 24 hours ended at 6:30 a.m. included 13 inch at Austin, Houston 33, San Antonio 27, Beaumont 49, Galveston 48, Laredo 52, Victoria 31, Wichita Falls 58, Texarkana 13, Palacios 12 and Cotulla 46.

Big Spring Lad's Champion Steer Sells For $12,200

SAN ANTONIO —(P)—Baby Face, grand champion steer of the 1952 San Antonio livestock exposition, was sold Friday to the St. Anthony Hotel for $12,200.

James Shortz, 17, Big Spring, raised the steer.

Shortz was pleased with the results of the sale. The price, he said, was "very fair."

The 1950 champion, exhibited by Floyd Woodward, Starr, sold for $8,550.

ROME —(P)—The U. S. aircraft carrier Tripoli docked at Brindisi Friday with 16 American jet fighter-bombers for Greece and Turkey.

TOKYO —(P)—Ensign Joe Akagi, a native of Sheldon, Texas, and the first Japanese American to be commissioned an officer in the U. S. Navy, will make his first visit to his father's homeland from his ship, the USS Valley Forge, returns to a Japanese port from Korean waters, the Navy announced Friday night.

SAN ANTONIO —(P)—An early morning drizzle turned into a downpour of short duration at noon Friday, and for a time water ran curb deep on many downtown streets.

High Speeds, Car Spotting Perils Aired

Preparation of an ordinance governing the speed of trains moving through Midland, the parking of box cars on sidings in the business section and the construction of traffic gates and signals was ordered Thursday afternoon by the City Council.

City Attorney Edwin T. Stitt was instructed to begin immediate preparation of such an ordinance for action by the council.

The instructions were given Stitt after the council discussed with a delegation from the Junior Chamber of Commerce sitting by "just to see what happens"—the railroad crossing situation in Midland.

The discussion was prompted by the death at the Marienfeld Street crossing Tuesday night of Margaret Ann Lamb, 23-year-old oil company draftsman.

City Manager W. H. Oswald reported he had held a conference earlier Thursday with railroad officials and they had promised to construct a traffic gate at the Main Street crossing and a signal light at the Lee Street crossing.

"They said they already had ordered some of the materials for these installations," said the city manager, "but they didn't expect delivery for several months."

Red Try At Allied-Held Island Fails

SEOUL, KOREA —(P)—South Korean Marines beat off a Communist amphibious invasion of an Allied-held island off the northeast coast of Korea in a 33-hour battle, the Allies announced Friday.

The Korean Army said its Marines sank 13 of the 20 invasion boats.

Seventy invaders were reported killed and six captured. Prisoners included the commander of the amphibious attack.

Nine South Korean Marines were killed and six wounded, the Navy said.

The assault was made by a Red battalion—about 800 or 1,000 men. It was not indicated whether they were Chinese or North Koreans.

The battle began about 1 a.m. Wednesday and lasted until 10 a.m. Thursday, when the last of the attackers fled back to the Red mainland in their remaining boats.

The assault was directed against Yang Island, about 16 air miles from the Communist east coast port of Songjin.

Yang is believed to be the northernmost island held by the Allies. It lies midway between the 40th and 41st parallels and serves as a lookout post off the Red Coast. The island presumably is one the Allies would give back to the Communists if an armistice is signed.

Republic of Korea (ROK) Marines have occupied the island since last Summer.

Truce Negotiators Again Swap 'No's'

MUNSAN, KOREA —(P)—Allied and Communist truce negotiators offered each other compromise package deals on troop rotation and ports of entry Friday.

Each side said "No!" But their differences were narrowed to only one port of entry and 5,000 men in the monthly rotation ceiling. Originally the difference was nine ports of entry and 70,000 men.

Plan For Super-Highway Through City Completed

Beginning of construction on the proposed Front Street super-highway is awaiting final right-of-way clearance. District Highway Engineer F. L. Faltinson said here Friday.

Faltinson, in Midland for a conference with City Manager W. H. Oswald, said the plans for the project have been completed and now are in Austin.

As soon as final right-of-way is received, he said, the job will be advertised and the contract awarded. Whether this will be done at the March letting, scheduled late in the month, depends on how fast the remaining right-of-way is transmitted to the State Highway Department.

County Judge Clifford C. Keith said right-of-way to only a few parcels of lands still was needed. "We have already filed three condemnation suits," he said, "and we hope to have it all in by March 1."

CAP Finds Wrecked Navy Plane, Pilot

WICHITA, KAN. —(P)—Wreckage of a missing Navy AD-1 single-engine attack bomber was found five miles southwest of Ocala City, the Civil Air Patrol Search Headquarters reported here Friday.

The CAP report said, "The plane was found and the pilot has been taken to Forbes Air Force Base at Topeka, condition unknown."

Name of the pilot has not been released.

John Payne Likes Wild, Woolly, Rootin'-Tootin' Movie Roles

By ERSKINE JOHNSON
NEA Staff Correspondent
HOLLYWOOD—Guys and Dolls: They're calling John Payne "Mr. Five O'Clock Shadow" over at Pine-Thomas, where he's been starring a series of rugged, action thrillers, and danged if John doesn't glory in the title.

He doesn't care whether he ever gets a clean-shaven role again. Whiskers and grime and heart-ostons characters have upped John's

John Payne

Peck continue to duck television producers. Rugged, dark-eyed Tony co-starred with Helen Hays in an hour-long play from New York, and vows that the part would never have come his way if Clark or Gregory had been available.

Back in Hollywood to menace Errol Flynn in "Against All Flags," Tony still talks about Helen Hays!

"She's full of humility about television. She doesn't say that she knows it all. Why, that great actress approaches TV as if she were a beginner in the acting art."

Names are getting longer in Hollywood. First it was Betsy von Furstenberg who caused the marquee-keepers to groan and now it's Anna Maria Alberghetti, Paramount's 15-year-old singer from Italy.

Anna Maria, who knocked moviegoers for a loop in Bing Crosby's "Here Comes the Groom," and is currently shaking art house theater chandeliers with her bell tones in "The Medium," is slated to face the camera soon in her starring movie, "The Goddess."

Her 22-letter name? "Daddy thinks maybe it should be plain Anna Maria," said the coloratura soprano who looks like a junior version of Rosalind Russell.

"The studio hasn't said anything about changing my name, though."

Hollywood's newest "Deanna" started singing at the age of 6 and was appearing as a concert star throughout Europe by 1948. A U. S. tour brought her many offers of movie contracts.

"Daddy thought that Paramount would do better for me. After all, MGM has Kathryn Grayson and Jane Powell."

Anna Maria's "Daddy" is Daniele Alberghetti, a former baritone and cellist who began training her when she was a toddler.

The heads of some mighty big singers are going to roll and it's the TV bogy-man that's going to bowl them straight down the alley to obscurity.

That's what noted Hollywood vocal coach Al Berkman says, shuddering as he predicts that some million-dollar best-sellers on records and radio won't make the TV grade.

Berkman blames it on the all-seeing camera eye of TV that picks up things like fish mouths, too much eye-blinking, lip puckerers, self-conscious movements and the vertical mouth-shapes made by over-trained baritones and sopranos.

"Diana Shore's made a TV home run, but some of the other song kings and queens aren't going to get to first base," Berkman said.

"The public will be seeing a whole crop of new singers on TV."

"A great voice is no longer all-important. TV audiences want to enjoy looking at singers."

Laborite Leader's Wife Asks Respect For Queen's Privacy

LONDON—(P)—Jennie Lee, wife of Laborite rebel Aneurin Bevan and herself a Labor member of Parliament, asked Britons Friday to quit prying into the private life of their new young Queen Elizabeth.

"The queen mother, in a moving message, has told us the young queen needs the love and protection of us all," Miss Lee wrote in the Weekly Tribune. She continued:

"One thing we can at once do is to insist that the queen's private life be respected, and she be given not only time enough but peace of mind to live her private life. x x x"

Working Women Howl For Income Tax Allowance To Cover Child Care Costs

By DOROTHY ROE
Associated Press Women's Editor

U. S. working women are good and mad because they cannot deduct from their income tax the amount they must pay to have their children cared for while they work.

Judge Sarah T. Hughes, Dallas, president of the National Federation of Business and Professional Women's Clubs, voiced the feelings of most of the 10 million married women now holding down jobs when she told me:

"I have felt for a long time that all women who work should be entitled to a deduction for a maid to take care of their households."

"Sweden allow a such a deduction, and it seems only fair, as a necessary business expense."

"The woman who has children and who must pay for their care in order to earn an income has particularly strong grounds for complaint."

"Now that more and more married women are taking jobs every day, this has become an issue more important than ever before. Today 85 per cent of all U. S. working women are married, many have children, and must subtract the cost of a maid, baby sitter or day nursery from their pay checks.

"I believe that if enough of them protest vigorously enough, the law eventually will be changed. It's a matter of education, and it may take a long time. But the married working woman is a growing force in our national economy and her views should carry weight."

The mail that has come to my desk in recent weeks since writing another column on income taxes indicates resentment against this provision of the income tax laws. A typical letter from an Iowa working mother runs like this:

"I have to have a job in order to meet expenses, as my husband's salary can't stretch any further. I have three small children, and it costs me $6 a week to send them to a day nursery. I'd like to afford a real nursery school, or have a maid to take care of them at home, but I could never afford that."

"Since this is an expense I must pay in order to earn an income, I don't see why it cannot be deducted from my income tax."

Others have felt the same way and there have been a number of test cases on the subject, a spokesman from the Department of Internal Revenue in Washington tells me. In each case the courts has ruled against the taxpayer. The government holds that the expense of a maid, baby sitter or day nursery is a personal matter.

Vernon Firm Lists Low Bid On Road Job In Glasscock

GARDEN CITY—Lucie and Sheppard, Vernon contractors, were apparent low bidder on 25 miles of road construction in Glasscock County. Estimate was $132,266.17.

The contract award probably will be made next week. Bids were opened Wednesday but tabulations not completed until Thursday.

Other bidders: Daily and Hollifield, San Antonio, $152,281.77; Cagle Brothers, San Antonio, $163,031.78; Carl J. Cahill, Sonora, $164,871.60; Strain and Brown, Inc., San Angelo, $166,699.83; and Parker and Parker, Odessa, $168,103.03.

The project, with Greif and Coker as consulting engineers, will be to join portions of the Glasscock County area with existing roads for better transportation to and from oil fields.

It was then John Ford, her father, appealed to the medical world for help. Dr. Haentges, who reported success in similar cases, called the Ford family.

Bue held her own six weeks, took a turn for the worse before the Belgian arrived, then seemed to improve slightly. But two weeks ago she lapsed into a coma and never regained consciousness. Haentges, who had planned to stay only two weeks, kept at her bedside day and night until death came.

Industrialist, 74, To Wed Third Time

CHICAGO—(P)—Robert Hall McCormick, 74-year-old member of the International Harvester Company family, is to be married on March 3 to Virginia Stonelifer, 37.

The marriage will be the third for McCormick, who was divorced in 1947 from the former Mrs. George Baker Robbins of San Francisco. His first marriage to Eleanor Morris McCormick ended in divorce in 1944. They had been married 41 years and had three children.

Miss Stonelifer, a Northwestern University graduate, said she will give up her business career. McCormick is a grandson of Leander J. McCormick, one of the founders of the Harvester Company.

BART RULED HIT-RUN POOCH

LOS ANGELES—(P)—Bart's in the doghouse. Accused of being a hit-and-run dog, he was convicted Thursday.

A jury unanimously voted to assess $3,500 damages against Bart's mistress, Mrs. Elen Weiser. Mrs. Grace Kay, 74, had sued for $10,000, alleging Bart had knocked her down and hurt her seriously while he was chasing another dog.

Tiny Tumor Victim Dies Despite Efforts Of Belgian Doctor

SAN ANTONIO—(P)—Tiny Sue Ford, whose father appealed to world medical authorities to save her life, died Thursday.

At the bedside of the six-year-old brain stem tumor victim was Dr. Roger Haentges, Brussels, Belgium, physician who believed he had a new treatment for tumors without surgery.

Sue had been critically ill and in a coma two weeks. Dr. Haentges flew to her last January 14 after seeing an Associated Press dispatch telling of her illness and her engineer father's appeal.

San Antonio doctors made an exploratory operation December 2 and said surgery on the tumor would be fatal. They gave little Sue two months to live.

It was then John Ford, her father, appealed to the medical world for help. Dr. Haentges, who reported success in similar cases, called the Ford family.

Bue held her own six weeks, took a turn for the worse before the Belgian arrived, then seemed to improve slightly. But two weeks ago she lapsed into a coma and never regained consciousness. Haentges, who had planned to stay only two weeks, kept at her bedside day and night until death came.

Washington Set High Mark

In George Washington one feels pre-eminently a sense of dedication—to his country and to freedom.

Possibly Washington and his towering associates in government would have been as troubled and confused by the events of this age as our present leaders.

They—and we—can only feel regret that men of such measure are not more numerous among today's public figures.

Nowadays the feeling seems to be that there is no escape from what are termed the political realities, which usually comprise all those things that can damage the candidacy of any politician facing the polls.

A man who has espoused a particular cause on principle for several years suddenly may do an about-face when he learns this attitude imperils his reelection.

There is a too easy yielding to the nation that the practical political approach determines all, that wholehearted service to ideals of public conduct spells political death.

Washington set a high standard at the start. No one conceives that we should match that continuously.

The one consolation for the harassed husband who has to eat out is that he has an opportunity to give an order.

Fault has never been so easy to find that people stopped looking for it.

Why do chiggers have to bite during vacation time? It's hard enough now to get the country out of the red.

JACOBY ON BRIDGE

By OSWALD JACOBY, Written for NEA Service

The annual Vanderbilt Cup Tournament, now in progress in New York, always attracts most of the country's best bridge players.

Take the case of the hand shown today, for example. When it was played in the 1950 Vanderbilt Tournament, the East player in one room was guilty of a bidding crime.

Bridge hand diagram showing North (D) 22, West 495, East 10842, South AK87, and a list of cards for each player.

then could have set the contract with the ace of diamonds.

When East failed to double, West decided against a club opening.

Instead, West led a spade. Thereupon Johnny Crawford, playing the South hand, promptly took 13 tricks for a score of 1,460 points.

In the other room, Sam Stayman (one of Crawford's teammates) held the East cards and made it perfectly clear that he wanted a club lead.

North East South West 1 Club Pass 2♥ Pass 3♠ Pass 4♥ Pass 5♥ Pass 6♥ Pass

Stayman was willing to go to five diamonds as a sacrifice bid after his partner showed diamond support.

His partner naturally led a club against the contract of six hearts, and the slam was duly set.

Congress Faces Tough Job Revising Old Immigration Law

By PETER EDSON, NEA Washington Correspondent

WASHINGTON — A major hassle over revision of U. S. immigration laws will develop in Congress within the next month or so.

So experts consider it important that there be full public discussion and understanding of the problem.

Fundamentally, the issue is whether the country should have tight limitations on admission of immigrants, accompanied by stricter regulations for deportation of many aliens.

The alternative to this is a policy to admit more immigrants. Supporters of this view point to the fact that the U. S. largely was built up by unrestricted immigration.

To reverse this policy now, it is argued, would be an affront to presently over-populated friendly nations.

These two sharply conflicting points of view are to be presented to the Congress in two sets of bills.

The major bill for a tighter U. S. immigration policy has been introduced by Senator Pat McCarran of Nevada, chairman of the Senate Judiciary Committee.

There is a similar, although slightly more liberal bill in the House, introduced by Rep. Francis E. Walter of Pennsylvania.

He is ranking Democratic member of the House Judiciary Committee and chairman of its immigration subcommittee.

To present the case for a more liberal immigration policy in the House, Rep. Emanuel Celler of New York, chairman of the Judiciary Committee, proposes to offer a series of amendments to the Walter bill.

In the Senate, a group of 15 senators headed by Herbert Lehman of New York have introduced a short bill to amend present immigration laws.

Four of this group are Republicans and five are members of the Senate Judiciary Committee.

The McCarran bill in particular is the result of a two and a half years study of the American immigration law.

Senator Lehman also has in preparation an omnibus bill which would completely revise and re-codify present immigration laws along more liberal lines.

The McCarran bill in particular is the result of a two and a half years study of the American immigration law.

The jump is therefore nearly worth an opening bid and that includes a very fine fit for partner's suit.

TODAY'S QUESTION: The bidding is the same as in the question just answered. You, South, hold Spades K-10-3, Hearts K-J-5, Diamonds K-10-5-3, Clubs K-J-9-4. What do you do?

Answer Tomorrow

and naturalization system. This was authorized by the Congress in 1947.

Basic U. S. immigration law goes back to 1924. That was when the quota system first was put into effect.

It limited U. S. immigration to 150,000 a year. Eighty-five countries were allowed an annual quota.

These quotas ran from 65,000 a year for Great Britain, 25,000 for Germany, 17,000 for Ireland, 6,000 for Poland, 5,000 for Italy, 3,000 for France, The Netherlands and Switzerland, and so on down to 100 a year for 85 of the minor countries.

These quotas were in proportion to historic immigration patterns.

This system was established to cut down on heavy immigration after World War I.

World depression and World War II effectively cut off almost all immigration.

Depression And War: From 1931 to 1945 immigrants numbered less than 100,000 a year, with only 29,000 in 1933 and 1943.

At the end of the war the displaced persons immigration program came along. Its purpose was to relieve the refugee problems in some of the over-populated countries of Western Europe.

Immigration went from 100,000 in 1946 to 188,000 in 1949, and 250,000 in 1950.

The program to admit 400,000 DP's to the U. S. will be concluded this Fall. This program was bitterly fought over in Congress.

Opposition to admitting any large number of these war refugees was beaten down only by instituting the tightest kind of inspection and restriction against undesirable aliens.

This DP program delayed general revision of the immigration laws. But with 60,000,000 refugees still at large in the world, population pressures remain. This creates new demands for immigration law revision.

On the other side of the picture is growing concern over the large number of alien subversives and undesirable immigrants remaining in the United States.

All things now make it necessary to take a long new look at U. S. immigration policy and law.

Have a Laugh

By Boyer House

Two drunks were driving on a highway at night alongside a railroad track when a fast passenger train, going in the opposite direction, rushed by.

The first drunk said, "Shay, didja notice how that town was all lit up?" "Yep," said the other, "and the first house was on fire."

"Thing? What thing?"

"The housekeeper shrugged. 'How should I know? But whatever it was, it seemed to sort of carry Mr. Warburton in front of it. I saw him stagger and throw out his hands, as if he were trying to grab something and hold himself back. But there wasn't anything to grab. And he was too close to the edge. He just . . . went over.'"

"Pushed?" I put in. "You're sure about that, Mrs. Ring?"

She regarded me bleakly through her specs. "I'm sure about nothing, young man. I'm only telling you how it seemed to me. But you're probably thinking that Mr. Warburton stumbled."

She was even sharper than the looked. I had been thinking something like that.

"Well, he didn't. It was too quick, too—er, violent. I believe that something either pushed or struck him, hard. And that," she compressed this lips, "is everything I can tell you."

"I take it," I pursued, somewhat senselessly, "that you didn't see this thing that struck him. I mean, you couldn't give us an idea about what it was?"

"I didn't see it or I would have told you what it was."

That settled me, temporarily. Cravath tumbled. "Humph! What was the boy doing out there at that time of night?" Mrs. Ring evidently considered this unworthy of reply.

The Peacock Path

THE STORY: Shortly after Jim Orth, a private detective, arrives at the home of Mrs. Cravath, he is invited to have a drink with her.

With him was the gaunt woman who talked to him slightly like a Dutch aunt on the grounds. She didn't look so gaunt now, fully dressed in respectable and elderly black. But her eyes were sharp behind steel-rimmed specs.

FOR the second time I walked into Cravath's trophy-littered sanctum. The gaunt woman encoined herself immediately upon a straight-backed chair. She put her feet together and assumed a non-sense expression which, I thought, practically came natural to her.

"Better not touch anything," I said, "before the police get here." He shot me a who-are-you-to-give-orders look, but he straightened up without touching the watch.

Dumont sat, snapping off his torch. "That's Ames Warburton's watch, all right. I saw him fiddling with it in the office the other day."

It was then decided that Cravath and Dumont would remain with the body. Sladen, Sally and I were to go back to the house where Sladen would call the police. Cravath made these arrangements and I was in no position to interfere.

Nonetheless, I would rather have stayed with Cravath. The three of us negotiated that steep climb back to Windover and scarcely a word was said on the way.

At the house, Sladen disappeared immediately to do his phoning and Sally went upstairs to inform Eve Wheeler of the tragedy.

The police came finally and I kept in the background. Marston Cravath and Dumont talked to them briefly in the living room and went with them while, I supposed, the officers examined the ground at the end of the Peacock Path and the medical examiner viewed the body on the rocks.

The city of Oslo, Norway, was founded more than 900 years ago.

WASHINGTON (AP)—Washington faced another test on St. Patrick's Day. Down revealed an effigy labeled "Paddy" above the cabins of Irish frontiersmen. Seizing weapons, Morgan's riflemen swore to avenge their unit's honor. Only Washington's timely appearance prevented disaster. Diplomatically, he soothed both the Irishmen and their prank-playing foes. The Pennsylvania Daily, by ordering "all the army to take a holiday."

But Washington's crowning hour of glory was to come in May with the announcement of the French and Spanish Alliance. Cannons fired a salute. And for the first time the entire Army drilled together. The men who had staggered into camp on a dark and snowy December night, leaving a trail of blood and defeat behind them, marched with the alert, springy steps that were to carry them to victory. An Army had been born. A month later, with their triumphant march to Philadelphia, the last words of a glorious chapter in American history had been written—one which may still inspire whenever the path of history seems to darken.

Arnall, New Price Boss, Pledges War On Soaring Prices

ATLANTA (AP)—Chubby, energetic Ellis Arnall was sworn in Thursday as the nation's price boss. The 44-year-old former Georgia governor promised a "brass knucks" fight on inflation when he took the oath as head of the Office of Price Stabilization.

President Truman appointed him to succeed Michael V. DeSalle, who resigned to run for the United States Senate in Ohio.

Arnall conceded that some of his forthcoming decisions as price stabilizer would not always be popular, and added: "I'm hoping for the best but fearing the worst."

The regional head of the Wage Stabilization Board, DeWitt Roberts, presented Arnall a pair of boxing gloves which he said the OPS chief would need in his battle with prices.

ANOTHER NAME FOR HOT AIR

WASHINGTON (AP)—"Breath," said the label on packages received here from Seattle by United Air Lines.

United's cargo agents became curious and investigated. Sure enough, the packages contained just that—"real human exhalations."

Each metal container held samples of the breath of naval workers who had been subjected to radioactive material.

The airline said it found the government makes routine checks of the breath of such personnel.

Ottawa Males Face Powder Puff Justice Leap Year Day

OTTAWA, ILL. (AP)—Ottawa men, married or single, will get fined in a Powder Puff Justice Court February 23—Leap Year Day—if they are found guilty of any of these offenses:

1. Failing to agree with the judgment of a woman.
2. Arguing with a woman.
3. Planning to leave town February 29 (and getting caught in advance).
4. Making unkind remarks about woman drivers.
5. Complaining about getting a summons to the Powder Puff Court.
6. Allowing their sons to remain single.

Members of the Ottawa Junior Women's Club are mailing summonses to Ottawa's males. The summonses are lively looking with red hearts and flowery sentiments—but they are stern. The only way the males can avoid their court appearance is to mail in a fine in advance.

Ottawa's women will take over various public offices for the day, including the City Council, Police and Fire Departments, and Justice Courts.

The Leap Year Day was planned by the Ottawa Junior Woman's Club to raise funds for a new first aid truck for the city's Fire Department.

At first it was planned to stick only the bachelors, a time honored tradition of the day. But many bachelors decided to take it on the lam. Then the program was revised to include all males.

Among the eligible bachelors is Phil Bailey, mayor of Ottawa, which has a population of some 16,000 and is about 60 miles southwest of Chicago.

MacArthur Disclaims Support For Ike, Hatred For Truman

By The Associated Press

Gen. Douglas MacArthur was on record Friday that he does not support Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower "for political office."

And, he said in a statement issued in New York Thursday night, he has no "personal hatred for President Truman."

"I have no personal feelings whatsoever with reference to him," he said.

The statement followed publication by Newsweek magazine of an article that said MacArthur favored Ohio Senator Robert A. Taft for the GOP presidential nomination but would support Harold E. Stassen or Eisenhower if either beats Taft.

MacArthur said this was "erroneous speculation." He said he has a warm personal feeling for Eisenhower, but:

"I do not support his candidacy for political office as I have no slightest knowledge of his political beliefs or his views on many grave issues which now confront our nation."

The New York Daily News said it learned on "unimpeachable authority" that Eisenhower backers had mapped out a new strategy to get their man home from Europe well before the July GOP convention: Get the Senate Foreign Relations Committee to invite him to Washington next month to testify before Congress.

The paper said its information was that Senator Lodge (R-Mass.), the general's campaign manager, would seek the invitation and predicted "Democrats will not oppose it."

This touched off another denial. Lodge said in Beverly, Mass., that he planned to make no such motion, and "any report to the contrary is complete fabrication."

Lodge said the Eisenhower-for-President forces "are doing very well as we are, with our man 3,000 miles away."

In Washington, however, Senator Hendrickson (R-N.J.), disagreed. Hendrickson often backs Taft's Senate leadership, but he said he believes Taft is gaining and Eisenhower is "slipping" in the presidential race.

He said Eisenhower's continued silence is hurting the general's chances.

Taft speaks up

Taft himself was far from silent Thursday night. Appearing on a New York television program with Tex McCrary, an Eisenhower backer, the Ohio senator engaged in a hot, arm-waving dispute that touched off an audience reaction which almost stopped the show.

McCrary, columnist and radio-TV commentator, said Taft hadn't told the truth when he said in his book "A Foreign Policy for Americans" that President Truman did not confer with Congress on the Korean war until weeks after it started.

McCrary said Truman talked with nine Democratic and five Republican congressmen 61 hours after the outbreak of hostilities.

Taft snapped that his own statement was right because "14 senators are not the Senate of the United States."

The audience broke into boos and cheers.

Taft added that McCrary had called him a liar, and demanded that he withdraw the statement.

Korean President Sends Condolence To Lubbock Woman

PUSAN, KOREA (AP)—South Korean President Syngman Rhee has sent condolence to the wife of Lt. Col. George A. Davis, Jr., Lubbock, Texas, missing in action after a battle in MiG Alley February 10.

Rhee's message, cabled to the Korean Embassy in Washington, read:

"The tragic report of the loss of your heroic husband, Major Davis, Jr., has brought deep sorrow to us and all of the Korean people. We are mourning over the loss of a great friend who fought to the finish in defense of our nation and the common cause of all free nations. We still hope and pray that Major Davis' precious life in some miraculous way will be preserved. Please accept the sincere condolence of this grateful nation."

Three Men Injured In Feed Mill Blast

PORT WORTH (AP)—Three men were burned, two critically, when an explosion ripped the top floor of a feed mill here Thursday.

The blast, at the eight-story Purina Mills, shook the Fort Worth business district a dozen blocks away.

Tom Harrison and L. B. Stroud were taken to All Saints Hospital with critical burns. A third man injured, Earl Spracklin, was believed only slightly hurt.

The blast wrecked the floor and ripped heavy steel window frames from the building and blew them and bags of grain a block away. The steel frames cut utility lines and knocked out power. Frames and the loaded bags smashed parked autos.

A company executive said cause of the explosion probably would not be known for some time. Firemen an hour after the blast, brought fire under control.

DESTINATION WELL KNOWN

ELIZABETH, N. J. (AP)—An Air Force private mailed a post card from St. Louis, Mo., addressed to "Airplane Crash, N. J." and it reached this city without any delay.

The message on the card read simply:

"Just wanted to see if this gets to you."

Buick even keeps the Sun in its Place

Of course, this new glass—which reduces glare and incoming sun-heat—is a Buick feature in '52

WITH all the new things we've had to talk about in 1952 Buicks, we're just getting around to this one.

It's called "Easy-Eye Glass"—a new kind of glass with a cool, soft, blue-green tint, which filters the sun's rays entering your car—cuts down their glare and heat.

You'll appreciate the "glare control" at any time—and when you hit your first stretch of hot-weather driving you'll find that this glass does a great job of keeping the heat out of your lap.

We know—because thousands of happy Buick owners already have this new comfort feature. The rest of the automobile industry is just beginning to discover what Buick discovered a year ago. It's a great idea, which costs you very little extra if you order it when you're buying a new car.

But this still leaves the other folks with a lot of catching up to do.

You'll look a long way before you'll find anything that approaches a Buick's million dollar ride.

You'll look a long way before you'll find anything so completely satisfying as Dynaflo Drive.*

You'll find it hard to match the style and beauty and harmonious good taste of a 1952 Buick's interior trim and fabrics. And when it comes to what you get for what you pay—we'll gladly match price tags with the field.

Have you had a good look at the '52 Buicks? That's something you ought to do soon.

Equipment, accessories, trim and models are subject to change without notice. *Optional at extra cost—available on most models. (Not presently available in Minnesota.) †Standard on ROADMASTER, optional at extra cost on other Series.

up and down, on his way to see sick people. Doctor Shoobug is the doctor for all the animal-people in the Great Forest.

Once upon a time when the night was late—after Doctor Shoobug had been very busy seeing sick people to make them well—he was almost ready to slip off his clothes and fall in bed to sleep a happy sleep. Suddenly, on the door outside, came the light knocking of a little knock.

"Ah me," said Doctor Shoobug to himself. "Can there be another sick someone for me to see about tonight?"

He went to the door and opened it. He looked out into the night where a great moon was shining high in the sky. Doctor Shoobug looked "this" way down the Elephant Path. He looked "that" way up the Elephant Path. No one did he see who had come a-knocking on his door, and so he closed it. "It must have been the wind," said the doctor to himself. But hardly had he sat down on the edge of his bed again—hardly had he pulled his shoe off—when again came the knocking on the door. Again the doctor opened it.

"Here we are!" cried a wee small voice. And there outside by the doctor's feet stood Little Fellow Monkey with a sick cat in his arms. Oh, the cat was sick, all right. His tongue was out the side of his mouth, and his eyes were closed to look like an X.

Well, it was Doctor Shoobug's doctor business to look after only sick folks who were animal-people or people. It wasn't his business to see about cats who were sick.

But Little Fellow Monkey said: "Doctor Shoobug, please make him well again. He only looks like a cat outside, because inside he is really people, and what shall I do if you don't help him? I guess I'll be sick myself."

"Um-mm," said Doctor Shoobug. "Come in!" And so Doctor Shoobug did the things that had to be done to make cat-people well again. But Little Fellow Monkey had known he would do it. Doctor Shoobug is a mighty fine doctor, and a very dear friend. Oh my yes, and your doctor would like to be your very dear friend, too. Happy day!

Yellowjackets Nip Monahans, 37-34, To Tie Up Playoff

MONAHANS—The Kermit Yellowjackets evened the score with Monahans in the playoff for the District 8-AA crown here Thursday night, downing the stubborn Lobos, 37 to 34.

Tuesday night, Monahans had copped a 30 to 25 battle to go ahead in the series.

The two tangle at 8 p.m. Saturday night in Odessa's Broncho Feedhouse to determine the definite district championship.

Jimmy Bolf led Kermit scoring with 13 tallies. Eleven of these came in the first quarter, but Bolf fouled out early in the second period.

Sleepy Hughes paced the Lobos with 10 points; Bulls scored eight. Monahans never was ahead, although it did tie the game at 20-20 just as the third quarter ended. Kermit led at halftime, 21-18, after running up a 14-8 first-quarter margin.

Earl Stewart At Head Of Pack In Houston Open Meet

HOUSTON—Two unknowns paced the $10,000 Houston Open golf tournament Friday by shooting the "big names" on the play-for-pay circuit were in a good position to take the lead.

Jerry Barber, Pasadena, Calif., and Earl Stewart, Jr., Dallas, shot identical 34-34-68 Thursday over the wind and rain-swept Memorial Park Course to take a slender lead. Right behind at 69 were Jack Burke, Texas Open champion, Ivank Gantz, Elwood, Ind., and Stan Horne, Montreal.

Bracketed at 70 were Veterans Ed Oliver, Lemont, Ill., Fred Haas, Jr., New Orleans, and Johnny Revolta, Evanston, Ill.

Grouped at 71 were John Barnum, Grand Rapids, Mich.; Jim Ferrer, San Francisco; Al Zimmerman, Portland; Jack Mann, Fort Worth; Bill Nary, Albuquerque; Loddie Kempe, Kansas City, and Jim Simpson.

Resting at even par 72 or close to it were most of the top players on the pro golf trail. These included, Barton Smith, Detroit; Cary Middlecott, Memphis; Vic Ghess, Inwood, L. I.; Dave Douglas, Newark, Del.; Frank Stranahan, Toledo, and Jimmy Demart, Ojai, Calif.

Winds of 20 to 25 miles an hour sent scores soaring. The field will be cut to the low 60 pros and 10 top amateurs after Friday's round.

TCU Might Sack Up SWC Title Saturday

By The Associated Press
Texas Christian can clinch the championship of Southwest Conference basketball Saturday night. A couple of things would have to happen:

1. Texas Christian defeat Baylor at Waco.

2. Texas A&M beat Texas at College Station.

In those events, TCU would have a record of 9-1 and Texas, in second place, 6-4. With two games to play, TCU would have the title in the bag.

Anyway, TCU is expected to clinch at least a tie for the title by beating Baylor.

Also on the schedule Saturday night is a game between Arkansas and Southern Methodist, both out of the race.

TAAF Basketball Tourney Play Starts Friday Night

Teams were ready Friday to jump into action in the District TAAF Basketball Tournament which begins here Friday night.

Ten cage outfits will vie for positions in Odessa's State TAAF Tournament, to be played at a later date.

Rotary Engineering Company of Midland already has landed a berth in the state meet by copping the city tournament here.

But indeed, Rotary may have its hands full Friday night in the opening TAAF district round here, going against Phillips Petroleum Company, the Midland city-loop runner-up.

Phillips, strengthened by the return of Gerald Tucker and Kenny Jastrow, might turn the tide against the Engineers. This game, starting the tournament, is scheduled at 8:45 p.m.

The second game pits Dibrill's Sporting Goods Store of Big Spring against the unofficial Odessa Junior College team.

McCamy News Publishing Company—probably the strongest team in the tournament—tangles with Cook-Houston Feed Store of Garden City in the third game Friday at 9:15 p.m.

Play also continues Saturday night, Borden's of Midland taking on Holder Grocery of Odessa at 8:45 p.m., New Era Firestone Station of Big Lake going against the Odessa-Big Spring winner at 8 p.m. and Western Plastic of Midland meeting the McCamey-Garden City winner. Semi-finals are slated Monday, championship and third-place battles Wednesday.

All play is to be held in the John M. Cowden Junior High School Gym.

KING'S ROW

Way back there—before butter was a buck a pound, when you could get your hair cut for less than $1.25, before the "poodle" hair-do and, yes, even before basketball scandals—men were men, especially in the professional fight profession.

At least, that's the way the oldtimers tell it—especially the oldtime fighters.

While the cock can't be blamed much for crowing the cock's praises, perhaps some of these "Til-molder-the-bum" statements should be taken with a grain of salt.

Especially when they come from such "never-weres" as Jack Sharkey, ex-heavyweight champ and Tony Galento, who arose even himself in flooring young Joe Louis in 1939 before the Brown Bomber came up off the floor to pound the human beer barrel into bloody submission.

Perhaps some may think we were a little strong in placing Sharkey in the "never was" class, as he did win a few fights and actually held the heavyweight top-spot briefly.

But to hear him spout off about current fighters, you'd think Sharkey was a man-eater in his time.

Actually, about his most noteworthy accomplishment was taking Max Schmeling, der furber's old pal, in a 15-round decision for the championship, and then fading like a light, being knocked out in the sixth round by Primo Carnera.

Now Sharkey has charged Rocky Marciano, the young heavyweight challenger, as having a "stupendous build-up."

Jack's memory is rather short. Carnera, a clumsy giant from Italy, was later exposed as having all his fight—or at least almost all—fixed in such a manner there would be no doubt as to the outcome.

Whether Sharkey fell in with this plan, or simply fell because he ran into a crude Carnera-propelled left-hook isn't exactly clear.

At any rate, neither is much to be proud of and that might be considered when Sharkey again gets on his soap box to denounce modern-day fighters.

To be sure, the current crop of cauliflower ear experts is far from beautiful, but a few seemingly-good clouters are around in most all weights—even heavyweights.

Marciano, while about as graceful as a GI overcoat, nonetheless is as strong as the proverbial mule.

Too, coming along fast is Harry (The Kid) Matthews, who some experts say is another Gene Tunney—only, they say, he can hit much better than Tunney ever could.

Of course, the champion right now isn't anything like Jack Dempsey in his prime, or the young Joe Louis. Maybe there has been a half-dozen who could whip ancient old Joe Walcott in less time than it takes to say eight-nine-ten.

But we seriously doubt if either Sharkey or the suds-guzzling Galento could turn the trick.

Still around to do some campaigning in the heavyweight circles is Emard Charles, although we never were impressed with the Cincinnati chocolate child when we saw him waltz through a few bouts a couple of years back.

Beginning with Charles and progressing rapidly downward, it definitely is hard to find any fighters of mentionable merit, especially by trying to compare them with the Johnsons, the Dempseys, the Tunneys, the Corbetts, the Fitzgeralds, the Sullivans and the likes.

But using the talkative Sharkey, Galento and other such "good-old-day" fighters, as models we can dig up a baker's dozen of equal caliber and still not exhaust the list.

Sal Maglie Signs For Reported Salary Of $36,000 Per Year

NIAGARA FALLS, N. Y.—(AP)—Holdout Sal Maglie, wood back into the New York Giant fold by club President Horace Winstenham at a reported salary of $36,000, predicted he will win 30 games this year.

Although Pitcher Maglie's reported new salary is more than twice that he got for winning 23 against six losses last season, Sal told a newsman Thursday night:

"I think I can do as good this year. I won't say better. But I think I can win 30."

Maglie's salary in 1951 was $17,000. And for that sum he played a big part in the Giants' rush for the National League pennant they pulled down the hard way on Bobby Thomson's famed homer.

Liberty Sues Major Clubs

CHICAGO—(AP)—Baseball's broadcast difficulties were further entangled Friday as the result of a $12,000,000 suit by a big radio network against 13 major league clubs, their league presidents and commissioner.

The Liberty Broadcasting System filed the suit Thursday in U. S. District Court. Liberty charged violation of the Sherman and Clayton anti-trust laws and a "continuing conspiracy to monopolize and restrain competition in broadcasting and recreating play-by-play accounts of professional baseball games."

The suit said the Liberty Network had been frozen out of the 13 major league ball parks although it had offered more money than other bidders for broadcast rights. As a result, the suit said, Liberty has had to cancel plans for its Game-Of-The-Day broadcasts for 1952 and has lost four million dollars.

It asked triple damages totaling $12,000,000.

Defendants are Warren C. Giles and Will Harridge, respective presidents of the National and American leagues, Commissioner Ford Frick, and all major league teams except the Brooklyn Dodger, Cincinnati Reds and Chicago White Sox.

The Dodgers, Red and White Sox were omitted for "legal" reasons, said Gordon McLendon, young president of LBS.

Liberty claims to be the nation's second largest radio network in number of stations served.

Sneed, MacKinnon Have Trouble But Come Through To Win

ORLANDO, FLA.—(AP)—Sam Sneed and Betty MacKinnon faced trouble on the fourth hole in the international mixed two-ball golf tournament Thursday, but took the next five straight to eliminate Bernie Powers and Mrs. Joseph Miller, 6 and 5.

Mrs. Mildred Babe Zaharias and Al Bealwin also got in trouble but managed to win over Peggy Kirk and Carl Dann 1-up.

Mary Lena Faulk, Thomasville, Ga., and her partner, Don Bisplinghoff, Orlando, pulled the upset of the day by defeating Louise Suga and Tony Penna, 3 and 2.

In the bi-districts Lameza meets Brownwood, Paris plays Gladewater, Bryan-Palestine engages Galena Park and Alamo Heights-Victoria clashes with San Benito. The four survivors go to the state tournament.

Class AA has 32 districts with eight to a region. District champions determined in this division include Childress, Stamford, Bowie, Van, Jacksonville, Brenham, French (Beaumont), Refugio and Weslaco.

Halfback Chuck Colley and tackle Homer Merrifield on the Colgate grid squad were employed as life guards during the summer.

Steel Union Again Postpones Walkout

PITTSBURGH —(AP)—The nation will escape a steel strike Saturday but a walkout may come March 23 unless a bitter contract controversy is settled.

Top strategy makers of the million-member CIO United Steelworkers did as expected Thursday in postponing their strike. They issued this warning:

"We hope that a strike may be averted but the patience of our members is running out."

The union decided to cancel its weekend strike threat in order to give the Wage Stabilization Board more time to recommend a settlement.

The union headed by Philip Murray, also president of the CIO, has been working without a contract since January 1.

The USWA's Wage Policy Committee, in adopting unanimously a resolution of the executive board to set back the strike date 29 days, made it clear it expects the final settlement will be fully retroactive to the contract expiration date.

The Wage Policy Committee added:

"We call upon the Wage Stabilization Board promptly to make its recommendation for fair and equitable terms of settlement of this dispute and to enable the board to do this we extended the present postponement of our strike until midnight, March 23, 1952.

"And we authorize President (Philip) Murray to call a strike in the steel industry at any time after midnight, March 23, 1952, in the event a fair basis for an equitable settlement of the dispute is not forthcoming by that date."

Permian Basin Oil And Gas Log—Humble Abandons SW Scurry Test

It is projected to 7,000 feet or production in the Ellenburger at a lesser depth. The prospector is 10 miles east of Snyder.

Ashmun & Hilliard To Test Permian In Pecos Wildcat

Ashmun & Hilliard of Midland No. 1-3 Water Improvement is a new wildcat location in North Pecos County two miles east of the Malicky field.

Location is 330 feet from south and west lines of north half of north half of section 11, block 9, H&ON survey and on a 320-acre lease.

Cable tools will be used to drill to 2,500 feet to test the upper Permian. Operations will begin at once.

Drill site is four miles west of Imperial.

Some signs of petroleum were logged in the Wolfcamp-Permian. Operator plugged back to 5,757 feet and tested those shows, but they were not commercial and the exploration was abandoned.

NW Crockett Test Fails To Find Oil In Ellenburger DST

J. S. Abercrombie of Houston No. 1 Phelps, wildcat in extreme Northwest Crockett County, failed to find oil on a drillstem test of the Ellenburger from 5,740 to 5,800 feet.

With tool open 30 minutes, recovery was 10 feet of drilling mud with no shows of oil, gas or water. The Ellenburger was topped at 5,740 feet, elevation 2,394 feet. The project was being drilled below 5,826 feet.

Drill site is 1,960 feet from southwest and 860 feet from northwest lines of section 15, block 31, H&TC survey and three miles southwest of the Crockett-Devonian field.

Ellenburger DST In NW Lynn Area Fails To Find Oil

Anderson-Prichard Oil Corporation and Ronald Jarret No. 1 Mrs. R. E. White, Northwest Lynn County wildcat, 12 miles northwest of Tahoka failed to find any shows of oil or gas in a drillstem test in the top of the Ellenburger.

That zone was tested for 15 minutes at 10,794-804 feet. There was a slight blow of air for 15 minutes which died. The tool was closed when the blow stopped.

Recovery was 20 feet of drilling mud with no shows of oil, gas or formation water.

The prospector is to drill deeper. Location is 660 feet from south and west lines of section 154, certificate 708, HE&WT survey.

Top of the Ellenburger by samples is at 10,794 feet. Elevation is 2,329 feet.

Swabbing To Test Is Underway At NE King Opener

Stanford Oil & Gas Company and Ard Drilling Company No. 14 R. E. Masterson, Burger sand discovery in Northeast King County, was swabbing to test and complete.

During the last eight hours reported, recovery was 194 barrels of oil from perforations in casing at 4,982-4,998 feet.

Location is 660 feet from north and 1,960 feet from west lines of section 18, Sam Lazarus survey and 10 miles northeast of Guthrie. That puts it one-half mile south of Ard's Canyon reef lime discovery five miles southwest of the JY-Canyon field.

NE Runnels Area Is Location For 4,100-Foot Test

La Gloria Corporation and others No. 1 W. P. King will be drilled as a 4,100-foot rotary test in Northeast Runnels County, three-quarters of one mile southeast of Blackwell Oil & Gas Company No. 1 Gehart, recent southwest extension to the Cree-Sykes-Gardner field.

Drill site is 2,050 feet from south and east lines of John Barfoot survey No. 20 and one mile northwest of Crews.

HAIRCUT COSTS HIGH IN PECOS

PECOS — A self-styled negro barber lost $63 on two haircuts recently.

A Pecos woman left two sons in a shop to wait for the barber, who was out to lunch. Meantime, the shoeshine boy cut the youngster's hair and charged them a dollar apiece. But the mother was highly displeased with the unprofessional job.

Judge W. R. Glascock fined the enterprising negro $65 for practicing without a barber's license. Sheriff Charlie Fitzgerald, Jr., said the defendant is laying out the fine in jail.

150 Persons Expected At Pecos Event

PECOS—A crowd of more than 150 persons is expected for the annual Chamber of Commerce banquet in the Community Center at 7:30 p.m. Friday.

Tickets are selling at $1.50 a plate, and will remain on sale until the last minute, said Alton Hughes, Chamber of Commerce manager.

Principal speaker will be James G. Allen, dean of student life at Texas Tech. Providing entertainment will be the Pecos Lions club band.

Four new directors are to be presented at the banquet. A president will be selected for the ensuing year.

Dean Allen received his BA degree in English from Southern Methodist University in 1924, working his way through college by leading a dance band. He received his MA from Harvard in 1927, and since has studied at the University of Chicago, Harvard and the University of Texas.

The dean is a 32nd degree Mason. His wife is an assistant professor in the Tech journalism department.

Barber To Plead Innocent, Says Defense Attorney

DALLAS —(AP)—Robert Barber, charged with slaying one detective and wounding two others, will plead innocent, his court-appointed counsel says.

Attorney Bert Ashby said Thursday he would file a motion for a change of venue this weekend because of the publicity given Barber.

He said Barber will plead innocent on the grounds detectives forced their way into his Fort Worth home without showing a proper warrant. Detective H. E. Cleveland was killed in the gunfight.

The detectives contend they had a warrant and that Mrs. Barber invited them in. She is charged with murder for "aiding and abetting" her husband.

Colburn Condition Still Is Serious

For the third straight day, John Colburn, 35-year-old Odessa man, remained in serious condition in Western Clinic-Hospital as a result of injuries received Wednesday in an oil field accident.

Colburn suffered multiple fractures of the skull when struck, apparently, by the tongue of a heavy trailer while attempting to connect it to the tractor of a truck.

No one saw the accident occur. The truck driver of the wrecked truck which was moving the trailer, into place, said he looked around and "saw Colburn lying on the ground."

The accident occurred in the Tex-Harvey field, 23 miles southeast of Midland.

JANITOR MAKES CLEAN SWEEP

ST. JOSEPH, MICH. —(AP)—The janitor at the Berrien County Courthouse looked over the basement and decided it needed cleaning up.

So he gathered up a lot of papers and had a junk dealer cart them away. That was Wednesday.

Court officials were horrified Thursday to find a lot of valuable records gone. They caught up with the dealer just in time to recover the records, some dating back to 1831.

The records had been baled up for shipment to a Kalamazoo pulp mill.

Mardi Gras Casts Spell Of Splendor On Crescent City

NEW ORLEANS —(AP)—The magic and mirth of carnival cast a spell of splendor over this gay city of the Bayou Country Friday.

Merry-making Mardi Gras visitors from across the nation joined with fun-loving natives to jam the streets, pack the hotels and overrun the legendary night spots.

A carnival air is everywhere. Momus—god of mirth and son of night—led his 15 rainbow-hued floats through the heart of the city Thursday night, drawing cheers from the tens of thousands of spectators who lined his route.

Hermes and his krewes come out Friday night to continue the festivities. Nine other major parades and numerous balls are scheduled before next week's windup.

Two Face Charges Of Beef Smuggling

MARFA —(AP)—Two men have been charged with illegal transportation of beef from Mexico to Texas.

C. M. Wilks, area supervisor for the Bureau of Animal Husbandry, said Thursday Nieto Gordero and Hilberto Rios, both of Redford, Texas, were arrested Wednesday night with half a beef.

The pair was bound over to the grand jury in El Paso after U. S. Commissioner Charles Shannon set bond Thursday at $500 each.

Libya Departs Foe Of Western Allies

TRIPOLI, LIBYA —(AP)—The Libyan government Friday deported Beshir Bey Sadawi, the desert kingdom's strongest foe of Western military bases there, on charges he incited election trouble.

The tall, distinguished-looking Sadawi is the leader of the anti-Western National Congress Party, resoundingly defeated by pro-Western government supporters in last Tuesday's election of a House of Representatives.

Riots, which police blamed on the Congress Party, Thursday took one life and brought injury to 12 others as police fought off two bomb-throwing mobs which marched on the government building.

Neighbors Will Reconsider Vote Against Chinese Family

SOUTH SAN FRANCISCO, CALIF. —(AP)—Some of the all-white Southwood Tract residents who voted against accepting a Chinese family as neighbors meet Friday night to reconsider.

Mrs. Warren Mooney said she had a change of heart since she voted with the majority last Saturday. She said she'd "have voted against anyone, whites included" on the basis of misinformation circulated about Sing Sheng and his family.

"But now I know better and I hope to persuade others to change their stand," she added.

Sheng had asked for a vote when told he wasn't wanted in the tract. He lost, 174 to 26. He's a Pan-American Airways employe and former Chinese Nationalist Army officer. He had made a $2,950 down payment on a $12,000 tract home.

He has a wife and two-year-old son—and expected another child Friday.

Many who opposed the Shengs remained adamant. They said they feared their property values would fall if the Chinese moved in.

Sheng said, "I wouldn't know what to say" if invited to Southwood now.

Stassen Asks Probe Of McGrath's Gains In Public Career

NEW YORK —(AP)—Harold E. Stassen wants a congressional probe of what he calls "confidential reports" that Attorney General J. Howard McGrath has become a millionaire during his 12 years in public office.

Stassen's statement brought this reply from the Justice Department, headed by McGrath:

"The attorney general said he has no desire and there is no necessity to comment beyond thanking candidate Stassen for the compliment."

Stassen, bidding for the GOP presidential nomination, spoke Thursday night at a National Republican Club dinner.

The former Minnesota governor, now president of the University of Pennsylvania, said a telegram he sent last Monday asked McGrath if "persistent confidential reports" were true that he had become a millionaire during the years of his public office holding.

Stassen said the telegram also said:

"If it is true, I further ask for a general description of the principal sources of your new wealth during these years."

Saying he had received no answer from McGrath, Stassen added: "I therefore ask that an immediate congressional investigation be launched inquiring thoroughly into the accumulated wealth of the attorney general and the source thereof."

DRIVE BRINGS $600 STANTON—More than $600 was collected in the one-day Boy Scout fund drive directed by O. B. Bryan, Martin County finance chairman of the Buffalo Trail Council.

MEXICO CITY —(AP)—Mexico has turned town U. S. offers of military aid, and both sides have agreed to end discussions on the touchy subject. Observers blamed Communist pressure for the Mexican action.

A U. S. mission, which came a month ago and held five sessions with officials here, returned to Washington. It had sought a strong Mexican anti-Red declaration in return for aid in building a hard-striking land force.

A Foreign Office announcement of the breakdown said the talks probably would resume "when the two governments believe it advisable." Political observers took this to mean after the general elections in July, when internal political considerations are less critical.
