Court Orders Halt In Rail Walkout

Railmen Put Under Threat Of Contempt

CLEVELAND—(AP)—A federal judge Tuesday ordered three rail unions to end their strike and to keep the walkout from spreading to other lines.

Judge Emerich B. Freed granted a government suit to end immediately the strike started Sunday morning against the New York Central Lines west of Buffalo and the St. Louis Terminal Line.

He scheduled a hearing March 19 on the government's request for a permanent injunction. The hearing will start two days before the 10-day temporary injunction granted Tuesday expires.

Unless the engineers, firemen and conductors call off their strike, they are liable to fines and imprisonment for contempt of court.

"The railroads are part of our lifeline," Judge Freed declared in overriding union attorneys' objections to the restraining order. "The emergency is so great, and the crisis so apparent, that this court must issue a temporary restraining order."

Since the surprise strike started Sunday, only the New York Central lines west of Buffalo and the St. Louis Terminal have been targets of the three brotherhoods. About 6,000 men are on strike, and an additional 25,000 New York Central employees have been laid off.

The injunction came after heads of the three unions meeting here took no action on an Army demand they end the walkout. The Army, which has controlled the railroads since Aug. 27, 1945, said the defense effort could not permit an interruption in transportation.

The strike has slowed freight shipments, caused some industrial layoffs and forced about 20,000 daily NYO passengers to find other rides.

Education-Business Day, B-E Reversed, Scheduled March 19

Education-Business Day, the reverse of Business-Education Day which was held here last Fall, will be observed March 19, Frank Monroe, superintendent of public schools, announced.

The occasion, Monroe explained, will be a return visit on the part of the businessmen of the city to the Midland public schools. During B-E Day last Fall, teachers visited the city to learn the story of business from a free enterprise system. On E-B Day, the teachers will be hosts to visiting businessmen to show them the "inside" of the school system.

The E-B program will start with a general assembly at 9:30 a. m. in the Midland High School Auditorium. After a short briefing period the representatives of business firms will be divided into groups for visit to the various schools. Insofar as possible, each person will visit the grade level of his choice, Monroe stated.

Some principals have arranged informative and interesting sessions for each group. Luncheons will be served in the school cafeterias. An afternoon assembly is scheduled as a concluding feature of the observance.

Monroe asked that reservation cards be returned by the participating business firms as promptly as possible.

11 Counties Vote Contract To Rainmaker

Representatives of 11 West Texas counties including Midland Monday night voted in a meeting in Lamesa to enter into a rain-making contract with the Water Resources Development Corporation of Denver, Colo.

B. T. Graham, Midland Farm Bureau president, was named a member of the nominating committee to select officers for the West Texas Water Improvement District. They will assume their duties when final contract with the Denver firm to produce additional rain is completed.

County Agent Charles Green, Johnny Dublin, Jr., and Burvin Hines, assistant manager of the Midland Chamber of Commerce, joined Graham in attending the Lamesa session. Dublin and Graham are chosen representatives of the Midland segment of the water district.

The district will pay $60,000 to the corporation headed by Dr. Irving Krick, noted "rainmaker." More than $24,000 has been contributed toward the cost of operations to start April 1. A payment of $15,000 is required when the contract is initiated with similar amounts to be paid quarterly until the $60,000 annual charge is erased. A total of 6,350,000 acres is represented in the program with two other counties considering participation.

Silver-iodide generators will be used in the cloud-seeding operations. The cloud-nucleation service has been reviewed in national publications.

Col. T. R. Gillenwaters, legal counsel of the Denver concern, and Lee Cox, a field executive, outlined Krick's program at the Lamesa gathering.

Labor Party Backs Bevan Over Attlee

LONDON—(AP)—Aneurin Bevan Tuesday defeated an attempt by Clement Attlee's Moderates to ensure him for backing the Labor Party's views on rearmament.

The census motion was defeated, 172-62, at a party meeting in which Attlee at one time was booed.

American Jets Turn Red Base Into Blazing Ruins

SEOUL, KOREA—(AP)—American jet pilots turned a huge, camouflaged Red supply base into blazing ruins Tuesday in the most intense attack of the Korean war with flaming jetted gasoline.

Flames spread over a four square mile area of the supply depot.

"It looked like hell itself," said some of the pilots, who flew a total of 250 sorties in waves.

Swarms of Red jets streaked down from Manchuria to try to protect the base near Sinmak, 30 miles northwest of the truce village, Panmunjom.

U. S. Sabre jet pilots shot down three MIG's in air battles, probably destroyed another and damaged five.

That boosted Red planes KO'd to 10 in two days. The Air Force reported seven MIG's downed and three damaged Monday, U. S. losses, if any, are reported only weekly.

F-80 Shooting Stars attacked the western supply depot, camouflaged so it "looked like an innocent farming village." Pilots said they could see it was a fake. Then they let loose.

They poured 33,300 gallons of searing napalm (jelled gasoline) on the area, blasted it with 300,000 pounds of explosive, and raked it with 45,000 machine gun bullets.

They attacked through a curtain of anti-aircraft fire. The Shooting Stars unloaded their bombs, roared back to base and came back with new loads.

Pilots said they demolished at least 32 Red anti-aircraft positions but count of the number of installations and Red troops destroyed.

The U. S. Fifth Air Force said they still were attacking the flaming area at nightfall. The entire Eighth Fighter-Bomber Wing sided in the record strike. Lt. Col. Levi R. Chase of Courtland, N. Y., said every officer and man in the outfit was loading or flying.

Majors and colonels were on the air strip helping load the jets with napalm, bombs and bullets, and refueling them for renewed attacks.

"There isn't much of anything left of that place," one pilot said.

Windfohr Blasts Government Controls, Compulsory Unitization Of Oil Fields

Lashing out at government controls and expressing definite opposition to any compulsory unitization program, R. F. Windfohr of Fort Worth, president of the Texas Mid-Continent Oil & Gas Association, addressed petroleum and business leaders here Monday night.

He was the guest of honor at a dinner-meeting held at the Midland Country Club. More than 200 persons from Midland and Permian Basin Empire cities attended.

H. E. Chiles, Jr., of Midland, the association's district vice president for the Permian Basin Empire, and local directors were hosts. Chiles presided, and the guest speaker was introduced by Tom Sealy, Midland attorney and a regent of the University of Texas.

Price control of crude oil was cited by Windfohr in his address as an example of "big government control for the sake of control and not because of the need for control."

Spread of Socialization He named price controls as one of the several examples of government trends which fit the Marxist pattern for the spread of socialization in America.

"Only competition in a free market can dictate a realistic price level, one that presumably takes into account current future supply and anticipated future demand," Windfohr said. "This means eliminating petroleum and its products from price control."

Without advocating any specific figure as a desired industry goal, Windfohr called attention to figures of the Bureau of Labor Statistics, which show, as of Sept. 11, 1951, today's price of crude, to be on a parity with all other commodities exclusive of farm products, would be $3.20 per barrel for 40 gravimetric Mid-Continent crude, up 57 cents from today's price.

Windfohr rejected the possibility of an artificial price rise because of no scarcity of the commodity and because "there is no way to hoard it." He pointed out that in the last 25 years the wholesale price of petroleum products has increased only 17 per cent.

The Texas Mid-Continent exhibit is on the second phase of his tour of the state. In January he was guest of honor of the association's district vice presidents and local directors at each stop of his South Texas and Gulf Coast tour. He described the association as the oldest and largest of the oil and gas associations in the world.

Eisenhower Grabs Early Voting Lead

CONCORD, N. H.—(AP)—General Eisenhower held a slight lead over Senator Taft in the first-in-the-nation Republican presidential preference primary Tuesday in the first two tiny towns to report.

The towns—Waterville Valley and Millsfield—gave Eisenhower seven votes and Taft four. The combined population of the two places is only 26.

Eisenhower got all his votes in Waterville Valley and Taft got his in Millsfield.

Two Democratic votes were cast in Millsfield. President Truman got one and Senator Kefauver—his only opponent here—got the other.

Harold E. Stassen, a third Republican candidate, got one vote in Millsfield.

There was no way to gauge the big city vote because the polls don't open in Manchester until noon in Concord until 3 p. m.

In the smaller City of Claremont, however, there was a heavy vote of 500 in the first two hours, despite a steady rain. Observers said this was twice as many votes as in an ordinary primary.

In Waterville Valley, Senator Taft got two write-in votes for vice president and Stassen got one.

The vote for delegates to the national convention followed the pattern of the balloting on the presidential preference side.

Political observers expected the vote to go over the 100,000 mark, setting records for many communities. National and even international attention was focused on the election. Correspondents from both London and Paris were on the scene to cover the story, as well as American newsmen from virtually every part of the country.

Tax-Paying Rush Starts

The line continued to grow Tuesday on the third floor of the Midland County Courthouse as taxpayers begin the last-minute rush to beat the annual income tax return deadline.

Deputy Collectors Josh P. Wilson and Charles Van Geen will keep the office open daily from 8:30 a. m. to 5 p. m. through Friday.

Tax returns can be filed at the office here or mailed to the Collector of Internal Revenue at Dallas.

Wilson said that since Saturday, March 15, is not an official workday, returns may be filed until midnight Monday without being delinquent.

Texas Grets Confident Taft With Rebel Yells, Loud Amens

SAN ANTONIO—(AP)—A confident Senator Taft brought his campaign for the Republican presidential nomination to San Antonio Tuesday and told a shivering crowd of approximately 1,500 at Municipal Airport that "I don't know why Taft can't win. I always have won."

Speaking from a ramp used for loading passengers into airliners, the Ohio Republican outlined briefly his political beliefs.

"We have a big job to do and we are undertaking to change the Administration," he asserted, "feel just like the Republicans on the major issues of this campaign."

The DC-3 carrying Senator Taft arrived at the airport at 8:45 a. m. The crowd began gathering at the airport about 7:45 a. m.

Overflowing crowds, rebel yells and a verbal fight with Senator Connally marked Taft's initial Texas appearance in Houston Monday. He told more than 5,000 persons jammed in the Houston City Auditorium the main issue between Republicans and Truman Democrats was "liberty against socialism."

His tiff with Connally was more or less one-sided. Connally tore into the Ohio senator with a blistering speech in the Senate.

It came in answer to remarks Taft made Monday to an overflow crowd of more than 700 at a luncheon as he pushed his campaign for the Republican presidential nomination.

THE OLD AND THE NEW—President Carlos Prío Socarras of Cuba, left, deposed in a swift and almost bloodless "revolution" headed by Cuban strong man Fulgencio Batista, right, has taken refuge in the Mexican Embassy and will seek political asylum in Mexico. Batista has proclaimed himself boss of the island republic and pledged observance of all Cuba's international treaties.

Batista Becomes Boss Of All Cuba

HAVANA, CUBA—(AP)—Fulgencio Batista, Cuba's resurgent strong man, Tuesday formally proclaimed himself in charge of "all powers and functions" of both the executive and legislative branches of the government.

The former president and behind-the-scenes dictator, who rose to power again Monday in a swift, almost bloodless revolution, announced a series of "statutes of government," including a 45-day suspension of the right to strike.

With the army backing, Batista ousted the government of President Carlos Prío Socarras before dawn Monday. Two men killed in a brief gun battle at the presidential palace were the only reported casualties.

Batista's forces were reported in command of police, army and navy stations in Cuba's five outlying provinces.

The 51-year-old Batista, who ruled the Caribbean island country from 1934 until 1944—first as a behind-the-scenes dictator and then as president—this time called himself "chief of the revolution." He named a 15-man cabinet of civilians, replaced top military and police officers as well as Havana's mayor and said he, himself, "might as such, head of the government."

Batista is barred from the presidency until October, 1952, by a Cuban law requiring an ex-president to stay out of the office eight years.

President Prío, who had left the presidential palace just ahead of Batista-controlled army tanks, took refuge early Tuesday in the Mexican Embassy. He was expected to ask asylum in Mexico, where he lived in exile from 1935 to 1946.

Batista, during his former presidency, maintained close ties with the U. S. and visited President Roosevelt in 1942. The new cabinet published a decree Tuesday promising compliance with all international treaties and with obligations to the United Nations.

There was no hint of communism in the latest revolt.

Four "Shaken Up" In Auto Collision

A 34-year-old Midland man and three children he was taking to school were shaken up at 8:35 a. m. Tuesday when the car in which they were riding collided with another automobile in the 1000 block on South Jefferson Street.

Treated at Western Clinic-Hospital and released were John Woodruff, driver of one of the vehicles, his children, Betty and Jaston Woodruff, and Bobby Stafford, another passenger.

Suspect In Slaying Still Held In Jail

Robert Marion Boykin, 48-year-old bricklayer, remained in the Midland County Jail Tuesday morning, awaiting grand jury action in connection with the slaying early Sunday in a cafe here of Lelden Charles (Trestop) Smith.

Boykin is being held under a murder charge in connection with the slaying in an all-night Midland restaurant. Bond has been set at $5,000 by Justice of the Peace L. C. Stephenson.

Police said Boykin told them he killed the 38-year-old oil field worker after hearing reports of an affair between his wife and Smith.

Hitchcocks Are To Complete San Andres Discovery In Gaines

E. C. Hitchcock & Son of Midland are preparing to complete a discovery from the San Andres-Permian line in Southwest Gaines County at their No. 1-B Dunbar.

This project is 1,880 feet from north and 800 feet from east lines of section 5, block A-28, psi survey.

It flowed 24 hours through a one-half inch tubing choke and made an estimated 175 barrels of pipe line oil, plus 30 barrels of water.

Building Tanks

During the last 60 minutes of that 24-hour period the well flowed 30 barrels of fluid with approximately the same percentage of oil and water as was shown during the full 24 hours of testing.

The production is coming from open hole in the San Andres at 4-310-78 feet. That zone had been treated with 1,000 gallons of acid. The 24-hour flow came after the load-and-residue from the acid treatment had been swabbed out.

Hitchcock No. 1-B Dunbar is now shut-in while tanks are being built and a separator installed. When that work is completed operators will complete the new well.

Was Taken Over

This project was originally drilled by Texas Pacific Coal & Oil Company to a total depth of 1,332 feet in barren Clear Fork-Permian.

That concern turned the exploration over to Hitchcock to test further and retained a 1 3/4% override on the well and on the 400 acre lease on which it is located.

Hitchcock & Son plugged the hole back to 4,378 feet and cemented 5 1/2-inch casing at 4,310 feet. The open hole was acidized and the flow reported above resulted.

Near Another Well

This new producer is slightly more than one mile southeast of Hitchcock and Elder No. 1 Dunbar, in section 25, block A-12, psi survey, which was completed several weeks ago as a small producer from San Andres pay above 4,318 feet.

Operator is now moving a spudder to that well to deepen it 50 feet in an effort to try to increase its petroleum yield.

Barnhart Is Now Operating Project In SE Iron Area

Paul F. Barnhart of Houston has taken over the operation of Frank and George Frankel No. 5 Tankersley, project one-half mile west of the Wolfcamp discovery in the Tankersley field of SE Iron and one-half mile east of Deafshines production in the same field.

Barnhart will drill the project as No. 1 Tankersley Estate. Location is 2,000 feet from south and 1,984 feet from east lines of the southeast quarter of section 10, GC&SF survey, abstract 1121, certificate 3-411.

It has already started on its 7,500-foot rotary contract. At last report operator was preparing to drill out cement and deepen after setting surface pipe at 325 feet.

Location is 11 miles southeast of Mertzon.

Deep Wildcat Is Spotted South Of Rankin In Upton

Seven miles south of Rankin and four and one-quarter miles northeast of the shallow Crockett field of Southeast Upton County, Dan Auld of Kerrville spotted location for an 8,600-foot Ellenburger wildcat.

Drill site is 660 feet from south and west lines of section 11, block B-2, GC&SF survey.

The deep test well to be drilled as No. 1 Ella M. Corbett.

American Liberty Devonian Wildcat Scheduled For Lea

American Liberty Oil Company of Dallas spotted location for a 10,500-foot Devonian wildcat in Central Lea County, 12 miles west and slightly south of the Denton-multipay area.

It will be drilled as No. 1 State-Sun, 660 feet from north and 1,980 feet from east lines of section 12-168-35E.

George P. Livermore of Lubbock No. 1 David O. Bliberry, 4,450-foot San Andres failure in Southeast Roosevelt County is to be deepened to 9,000 feet for a test of the Siluro-Devonian.

1951 Failure

Location for the project, which was temporarily abandoned July 3, 1951, is 1,980 feet from south and 660 feet from west lines of section 1-78-37E.

Operator was drilling in new hole below 5,500 feet on last report.

Ed Wynn Wins Battle Against Trick Shots And Chalk Marks

By ERSKINE JOHNSON
NEA Staff Correspondent
HOLLYWOOD—On TV: Biggest TV fight of the year hasn't involved wrestlers or boxers, but Ed Wynn and the network bosses who have held him down.

The Wynnah! Mild, non-belligerent Ed! He's won the right to go back to the formula that made him one of the most beloved clowns on the stage, on his "All Star Revue" show. "It's my fault if TV hasn't captured the veteran comedian," Groucho Marx's comedy in a walter routine on Edio Pinza's recent show. "Jerry Lewis rehearses with the camera, then does exactly what he feels like doing during a show. But I've been standing on the spot they've marked for me. No more, though. "The camera is going to follow me from now on. No more standing on chalk marks. There are too many cameras shooting this way and that way in TV. "And there are too many people who keep wanting to photograph Jack Benny through harp's rings. "I claim that you can put the camera on a great comedian and the cameraman can then go out to lunch. "TV's mowing down more and more big radio stars and the handwriting is on the wall that they'll be off the air and on television exclusively next fall. "Slated to fade off the air: Bing Crosby, Bob Hope, Edgar Bergen, Jack Benny and Red Skelton. "Bergen has hush-hush plans for this summer. He'll go overseas to shoot a 13-week series of films starring himself. "Martha Raye will sign for 8 to 11 appearances on NBC-TV next year. High brass is all smiles about her cleaned-up humor and willingness to listen to TV directors. "Top 10 TV program types, according to the latest pulse survey, are: "Boxing, comedy-variety, Westerns, comedy situations, drama and mysteries, talent, musical variety, basketball, kid shows and wrestling. "Bruce Cabot is replacing Michael O'Shea in the "Bruce Bradley, FDA Inspector" series of telepictures. "Walter O'Keefe has vetoed all story line ideas offered him for TV and will pop up with an audience participation show along the lines of "Double Or Nothing" in the fall. "A TV-minded father to his wife after having his view of the parlor screen blocked by the kiddies: "Honey, if we have any more children, let's have glass ones." "Jack Carson's Broadway stint in the revival "Of These I Sing" removes him from the list of stars alternating on NBC's "All Star Revue." "Gail Patrick, the same gorgeous Gail of movie fame, is turning video producer. She's in on the rights to Earle Stanley Gardner's best-selling "Perry Mason" mysteries and will turn out the pilot film for Bing Crosby Enterprises. "The experts are huddling on a question-and-answer show for Fred Allen in hopes a Groucho Marx-type quizzer will bring back the old Allen spark on video. "Let's All Clap Hands "Parlor Huzzahs: Dorothy Collins' wholesome beauty and stinging style on "Hit Parade." Groucho Marx's comedy in a walter routine on Edio Pinza's recent show. "CBS' "See It Now"—intelligent, dramatic and entertaining. Vivian Blaine's TV appeal. But what happens to Pinky Lee on the same show shouldn't happen. The sponsor's decision to put "Playhouse of Stars" on film starting in April. It may turn the tide toward filming all dramatic shows for better all-around eye-appeal. "Good news for movie fans: United Artists is on the verge of releasing 150 triple-A movies to the home channels. "Danny Thomas is unhappy about TV. He's where Fred Allen would like to be in the popularity polls, but growls: "I just wish it were fun. It's not fun. You strike like crazy for something and you'll never make it." "Promised, and hoped for: Red Skelton's in training with a parakeet. The bird's being taught never to leave his shoulder during his punchdrunk fighter bit. "Frankie Laine and Nan Gray are set for a "Mr. and Mrs." show starting in June over CBS-TV. "George Williams founded the Young Men's Christian Association in London in 1844.

Daddy Ringtail

By Wesley Davis

Daddy Ringtail And Lippy Loppity

Sonny Bunny is a rabbit boy. The name of his sister is Honey Bunny. They live there in the Great Forest where Daddy Ringtail lives in his monkey house.

Lippy, lippy—loppity, loppity, along the Elephant Path. Sonny Bunny's feet were making the noise of lippy, lippy against the ground. Honey Bunny's feet were making the noise of lippy, loppity. Lippy, lippy—loppity, loppity. It was a pretty thing to hear, but Sonny Bunny and Honey Bunny didn't like to hear it at all. They said they didn't.

"Now! Now!" Daddy Ringtail said. "What seems to be the trouble here?" Daddy Ringtail sat on the ground with his back against the tree. He was ready to listen to whatever the rabbit children had to say.

"It's Honey, said Sonny Bunny. "Not it isn't," said Honey. "It's Sonny."

Both of the rabbit children were trying to talk at once to say what the trouble was. And everyone knows that you can't understand anything when everyone talks at once. Daddy Ringtail couldn't understand them until they took turns with their talking.

Daddy Ringtail smiled to hear the trouble Sonny and Honey smiled, too, when Daddy Ringtail smiled, and their ears pointed up in the sky. Those rabbit ears were waiting to hear whatever Daddy Ringtail was going to say about the rabbit trouble of lippy, loppity—lippy, loppity.

It seems that Sonny wanted Honey's feet to go lippy, loppity like his were doing, but Honey wanted

Sonny's feet to go loppity, loppity like hers were doing. But Sonny's feet didn't know how to go loppity, loppity, and Honey's feet didn't know how to go lippy, lippy. And the rabbit boy and girl thought that people wouldn't know they were brother and sister if their feet didn't make the same noise together.

But Daddy Ringtail said everyone knew they were brother and sister because they had great ears alike. And Daddy Ringtail said that nobody's feet could make that noise if they were not brother and sister. Brother and sister are always a happy thing to be, wouldn't you say? Happy day!

Next War Will Bring Germ Bombs, Not Atomic Blasts, Says K&F Club Speaker

Use of the atomic bomb in any future warfare was discounted here Monday night by Dr. Gerald Wendt, foremost international scientist.

"We have too much of a lead in development of the A-bomb," Dr. Wendt assured the Midland Knife and Fork Club and guests assembled in the high school cafeteria.

Dr. Wendt believes that our potential enemies in war are concentrating on other weapons in view of our leadership in development of the atomic bomb.

He cautioned that the Soviet Union may be counting on biological warfare as its chief weapon. Science of the Russians indicates such a step, the goateed speaker pointed out.

Dr. Wendt, considered to be the best informed scientific writer in the United States, showed how the Russians avoided strategic bombing and other destruction in World War II while American planes ripped German cities to shreds.

He envisioned the Soviets attacking the United States by polluting water.

Dr. Gerald Wendt, distinguished scientist, doesn't find rain-making such a puzzling operation.

"All you need is a cloud and then be able to push it where you want it," he told the Midland Knife and Fork Club Monday night.

But he wasn't encouraging for the rainmakers, at that.

"We will still have to get rid of the water we need from the ocean," he said, adding, "find a way to purify large quantities of it."

greater production and "more time for living." He told of one complete automatic factory in Great Britain.

Shortage of labor may bring the temptation to use such arrangements in American factories, Wendt said.

"Production capacity expansion will bring increased wealth," he continued. "We may then have more things than we will know what to do with. Our children will have relatively little to do with more time to live."

Dr. Wendt predicted the atomic submarine by 1953, the atomic plane by 1950 with enough fuel built into the plane to last the life of the craft.

"Thirty tons of fuel will be reduced to 30 tons of cargo and passengers, thus greatly reducing the cost of this type of transportation," the scientist forecast.

One pound of energy in the atomic bomb equals that of 1,500 tons of coal, Dr. Wendt cited. The amount of explosive in the atomic bomb is 20 tons concentrated into a lump the size of a grapefruit, he explained.

"Machinery for setting it off has been reduced in size and improved," he went on.

Wendt answered questions from his audience following his hour-long talk marked by a refreshing sense of humor. He looked the part of an 18th century ambassador to the Court of St. James, displaying a suave, urbane manner with great personal charm. It was Dr. Wendt's third visit to Midland under the sponsorship of Knife and Fork International. He was to continue Tuesday to Lubbock on his whirlwind tour.

Dr. Wendt was introduced by Delbert Downing, Thornton Hardie, president of the Midland organization, presided and introduced Downing.

National Leader Of Little League Lauds Baseball Program

Carl Stutz, national commissioner of Little League baseball, addressed the Optimist Club Tuesday noon at a luncheon attended by representatives of most Midland civic clubs and other persons vitally interested in youth activities.

"Any program as powerful as the Little League is a great program," Stutz said. "The success of the Little League is going to be measured not by the number of people attending the games, nor by the team winning the championship, but whether or not the program will result in a wholesome effect on the community."

The founder of Little League baseball said he has "heard of the good work being done in Midland in Little League ball," and stated "the program for youngsters also is rapidly expanding throughout the country."

Stutz, who is to speak at Sam Houston Elementary School at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday, was introduced by John Redford, Jr., commissioner of Little League baseball here.

Veeck Calls Hornsby Best Pilot Ever

By GAYLE TALBOT
LOS ANGELES (AP)—

Restless Willie Veeck has blown into town for a quick look at his refurbished St. Louis Browns, and he is both voluble and effusive about everything he sees, as perhaps was to have been expected. Bill never was a man to know his own.

The young genius with the plunging neckline already has been granted a couple of brief interviews by his manager, Rogers Hornsby, and has applied for another. The Rajah is the busiest man on the West Coast as he whips his remarkable collection of rookies and ambulant veterans into a fighting ball club, but he obviously intends to meet Veeck halfway.

"Don't worry about Rajah and me getting along," Bill laughed. "I'll have a lot of fun with him, but I know how far to go. I didn't hire him because I wanted a companion. If that was what I wanted you see (Climax) (Charlie Grimm) sitting here right now."

At the time of which Bill spoke, Hornsby had been tucked in bed for four or five hours, full of steak and dreams of cut-off plays. He had taken his leave with the gruff comment that he had a job to do.

"I hired Rajah because I think he is the greatest baseball manager in the world," Veeck continued. "He was my idol when I was a kid. Peddling peanuts during the games. Between us, we're going to give somebody trouble. Ask Rajah if up to now I haven't given him every player he asked for—every one. There'll probably come a time when he wants a man I can't get for him, but he knows I'll try."

"Rajah has only one thing in mind—to win a pennant. Neither of us has ever been interested in second place and we never will. Nobody remembers who finished second. Who was second in the American League two years ago? Boston? Wrong. It was Detroit, and nobody even knows it now."

"We won't win it this year, of course. Cleveland probably will—another set of my boys, incidentally. But we'll set a few records and we'll show you a young hustling ball club that intends to go places. I think we'll have the most rookies in our line-up at every start. There'll probably be only one player in there on opening day who was there a year ago. Bobby Young at second base."

Though Veeck did not say so, the metamorphosis of the Browns extends beyond the playing field. As though conscious of their new-found class, they have moved across the tracks from their former lively quarters among the lights of Hollywood to a more sedate community of homes and formal gardens and king-size swimming pools.

When you pull up to the entrance of their present abode the chances are close to even that you'll have to stand aside in a light rain while a formal wedding party makes its exit. This was not true of former Browns hotel, though this is not meant as a rap at the latter. Hornsby, himself, dwells in a bungalow out behind the big house, but there is no danger of his growing soft. The great batter of another era recalls all too vividly that only a few years back he was managing a club in the outlaw Mexican League.

Jorge Was Boss
"I guess I shouldn't have hit that home run," he says wryly. "This was a big money series, see. If we had split the first two games we would have drawn a full house for the third. Jorge was anxious for it to come out that way, Jorge was the boss."

"We won the first one, all right, and were comfortably behind in the last inning of the second when we filled the bases and Pasquel asked me to pinch hit. When I saw that ball going over the fence I knew I was out of a job. I was, too, a couple of days later."

Vic Wertz, outfielder for the Detroit Tigers, worked as a member of the sales staff of a Detroit tool company during the off-season.

LARRY KING

A man who makes a habit of telling the truth—strange as that may seem in this period of scandals and exposures—and who knows the Longhorn League through and through from five years of association in same, hints things may not be too rosy at Odessa as the Oilers prepare for Spring workouts.

This gentleman doesn't wish to be named, but he tells us he recently had a conversation with Oiler Manager Bob (Pepper) Martin, who was moanin' low.

Martin is said to have stated the Cuban players A. D. Ensey dug up aren't "too hot" and said he doubted "if any of them could help us much." Fact is, the entire lineup at Odessa—with an exception here and there—has Pepper running in tight little circles.

Martin wants to replace Elroy Herrera, the good-field no-hit Oiler at shortstop. Currently his top prospect is Marlon Treadaway who once had a brief trial with the Midland Indians and who is a native Midlander.

Treadaway is improved as a hitter, but is a fair fielder. He lacks baseball savvy which can only be gained by playing, but he is a good prospect.

Martin's best laid plans went astray late last week when the draft board beckoned to Harold Berry, 21-year-old husky who was to toil in the outfield for the Oilers.

This, says Pepper, leaves him only one fly chaser—Bamron Loyko, who isn't known as a power hitter.

In spite of the Oiler woes, however, they do have some good hands returning. Martin himself isn't half bad, and Pitcher Evlio Ortega and First Baseman Barney Balson are two good performers.

Granted, Martin will be hard-put to win with these three alone, but perhaps his problems will be solved by the time Spring workouts are over. Those problems have the darndest way of working themselves out.

Several Indian fans have called us wanting to know where this player and that player is from, etc. So here's a run-down on the Midland players in Spring training camp by position.

Pitchers: Bob Tanner—Rookie with no pro experience stateside, he played in Mexico during the Winter. Is Catcher Gordon Tanner's brother.
Dave McKenzie: Played with Midland last season, won nine, lost 10, particularly effective in the latter part of season as reliever. Right-hander. Hits well for pitcher, batting .250 last season and hitting in clutch.

Emil Ogden: Former fly-chaser turned hurler who did smattering of pitching here last year. Right-hander, limited service. Hit .286 last season.
Catchers: Gordon Tanner, limited service man who did some catching for Midland last year. Left-hander at the plate, hits long ball. Ended with .274 average in '51.

Bill Brown: Purchased from Erie, Pa., in Middle Atlantic League. Little known about him.
Eddie Menapace: Aard from Erie and described by Midland officials as "big and strong." Near-300 hitter, limited service.

Second baseman: Bill Crumley, formerly of Roswell and with Midland some last year. Light hitter (.269) with not much power but one of best glove men in league.
Third baseman: Julio de la Torre, purchased last year from Artesia. A veteran, de la Torre is smooth at the third sack and socked .340 last season for the entire year. (Actually hasn't reported, but due by Wednesday.)

Woody Pennington, played here some last year. At times brilliant fielder, other times very erratic. A "streak" hitter he slumped badly late last year for 241 average.
Shortstop: Bob Gordon, rookie, all-state semi-pro in New Mexico with batting average over .400. Bonura considers him good prospect.

Outfielders: Hayden White, limited service, last year led Midland home runs with 18, batted .298, hit many doubles. Fair fielder.

Roxie Humberston, recently joined Indians, last year with Tampa City, Fla. Six-year vet who never has hit under .300.
Jack Blacklock, played two games with Indians last year. Hit .000. Made three errors. Rookie.
Stan Wilcox, came here late, hit with fine power and had .335 batting average for stint in Midland. Considered prime prospect this season, will be a veteran.

Little info is available on Dick Cassidy, new third sacker. We hope to have the poop soon.

Indians Get Rugged Workout

Four More Players In

LUTCHER, LA. — Manager Zeke Bonura had another rugged and lengthy Spring training drill set for the Midland Indians here Tuesday, after a fast workout Monday in which the Tribe wasted no time.

The Indians went through a stiff ordeal of calisthenics, base sliding into a sawdust pit and roadwork around a quarter-mile cinder track, as the Midland officials stressed conditioning. This, says Bonura, is the pattern for the rest of the week.

Four new arrivals Monday increased the total to 17 Indians in camp with more to stream in each day until early next week.

Catcher Gordon Tanner, who played with Midland last year, his brother Bob, a rookie pitcher, and Third Baseman Dick Cassidy, 22-year-old third baseman from Minneapolis, and Joe Tehter, New Orleans rookie were the new arrivals. Tehter is an infielder.

The Tanner brothers played Winter ball in Mexico City this year. Julio de la Torre, Enrique Gonzalez and Israel Ten—the Cuban element in the Midland scheme of things—haven't reported as yet but are due at any minute. Also expected within the next few days are Shortstop Robert Dubano, First Baseman Dick Wertz and Pitcher Bruce (Gabby) Blumenthal.

The missing Ten is a pitcher as is Gonzalez, while de la Torre is a third baseman.

Dubano has not come to terms with the club, and has been given until Monday to report before being classified as a holdout.

Keith Nichols, pitcher from the Erie club, is due to arrive Wednesday, officials said.

A storm cut the workouts to three and one-half hours Monday, sending the players to the showers a half-hour early. Tuesday was another good baseball day.

Mrs. Tex Carleton of Midland was an interested camp visitor Monday and described the training facilities as "just wonderful."

Marion Flynn, president of Midland Baseball, Inc., is to arrive here late Tuesday.

Johnny Mize Hits As Yanks Triumph; Giants Fall Again

TAMPA, FLA.—(AP)—Frank Smith is on relief now-days, but the Cincinnati pitcher doesn't seem to mind at all.

It's only natural for a hurler to want to be a starting pitcher, but Smitty received a thank you note in the form of a salary increase for his work last season and that helps salve any lost glory.

He worked 50 games in 1951 and was effective most of the time.

The tall right-hander, who will turn 24 next month, knows that a relief pitcher who can stop a rally is a very, very important man in the modern scheme of baseball. That's why this hero stuff may not have the appeal for him it once did. The Reds whacked Philadelphia's Phillies Monday, 10 to 4.

SARASOTA, FLA.—(AP)—Veteran First Baseman Johnny Mize of the Yankees is up to his old tricks—hitting in the clutch.

Mize, who figures to be used primarily as a pinch-hitter this year, socked a two-run double Monday as the Yanks downed the Boston Red Sox, 7-4, at St. Petersburg.

TUCSON, ARIZ.—(AP)—You'd think Cleveland sent its sluggers to school, as well as the sluggers. Steve Gromek, Dick Rozek and Red Faber—none of them upper crust in Tribe hurling circles—held the New York Giants to five hits Monday. Cleveland blanked the National League champs, 4-0.

LAKELAND, FLA.—(AP)—The Detroit Tiger pitching staff is so slim the squad's rookie hurlers are getting extra-frequent mound duty.

"After you get beyond our first six or seven pitchers, we don't know just what we've got," said Manager Red Wolfe.

Assuming Wolfe will carry a staff of 10 or 11, the scramble for the other three or four positions is wide open for eight rookies and one veteran.

The freshman, who resides in Dayton, Ohio, has batted seven times, including two triples and a double in 12 times at bat against the New York Giants the last three days.

Fridley stands the best chance among the newcomers of sticking because he is a right-handed hitter.

The right-handed relief artist has appeared in the first three Phillies exhibition games, allowing three hits in 3 1/2 innings on the mound.

Konstanty, the National League's most valuable player in 1950 when Philadelphia won the pennant, slumped to a 4-11 record last year.

CLEARWATER, FLA.—(AP)—Once again the big question in the Philadelphia Phillies training camp is: Can Konstanty come back?

The right-handed relief artist has appeared in the first three Phillies exhibition games, allowing three hits in 3 1/2 innings on the mound.

Konstanty, the National League's most valuable player in 1950 when Philadelphia won the pennant, slumped to a 4-11 record last year.

PARADISE, CALIF.—(AP)—The Chicago White Sox, who have taken some chiding from Rogers Hornsby, will meet his St. Louis Browns Tuesday in an exhibition game and use their second team.

Richards said his decision to use his "B" team against the Browns has nothing to do with any remarks Hornsby may have made.

"I merely want to see my second stringers play baseball," he said. "Richards' pitchers will be Skinny Brown, Harry Dorish and Marv Grissom. Brown and Grissom won 36 games between them when they were with Hornsby at Seattle last year."

MESA, ARIZ.—(AP)—The Chicago Cubs have made their first cut of the Spring by sending Pitcher Andy Carga to their Los Angeles farm club.

If the 21-year-old southpaw proves ready for triple A competition he will be optioned to Los Angeles, if not he will be tried at Des Moines or Nashville.

ST. PETERSBURG, FLA.—(AP)—Minor injuries showed up on the St. Louis Cardinals squad Monday with Wally Westlake, out of action because of a pulled leg muscle and Solly Hemus, out with a lame elbow.

The Cardinals Monday defeated the Braves, 5 to 3.

TUCSON, ARIZ.—(AP)—Jim Fridley was just another name on the Cleveland roster when Spring training began but now the husky boy is up there, having hit at a .583 clip and almost half his blows have been for extra bases.

The freshman, who resides in Dayton, Ohio, has batted seven times, including two triples and a double in 12 times at bat against the New York Giants the last three days.

Fridley stands the best chance among the newcomers of sticking because he is a right-handed hitter.

The only other orthodox candidate among the outfield candidates are Bob Kennedy, Rookie Bud Hutson and Dino Bestelli.

Founder Of Little League Baseball Speaks Here Tuesday

Carl Stotz, founder of Little League baseball, will address interested persons at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday in the Sam Houston Elementary school here.

The Williamsport, Pa., man is on an extensive tour of the Southwest. He formed Little League baseball 13 years ago and it now is a nationwide program.

Stotz also addressed the Midland Optimist Club at Ranchland Hill Tuesday noon.

Area Little League officials are to hear the Tuesday night address.

Seventeen U. S. presidents served their country in uniform.

Amateur Grid Plan Of Austin College Gets Cold Shoulder

By The Associated Press
Austin College can make football "amateur" by abolishing athletic scholarships and other athletic aid but its fellow members of the Texas Conference aren't having any, thanks.

Reaction from the other four members—Howard Payne, McMurry, Abilene Christian and Texas A&I—was quite similar to a proposal from the trustees of Austin College that intercollegiate athletics be on purely an amateur basis which, they said, would mean cutting off all aid to the athletes although professional coaches would be retained.

What they want to do is to eliminate any kind of financial help for a boy because of his participation in athletics. They called on the other colleges to follow suit.

But conference members voiced a loud and emphatic "No."

Some felt football builds better students, others said they just want a strong, well-rounded sports program and others said if the conference were "strictly amateur" it might fold up completely.

Death Threats To Grieving Family Stir Grim Manhunt For Salesman's Murderer

NEW YORK—(AP)—Death threats to a mourning family and to a garage man involved in the arrest of bank robber Willie Sutton Tuesday spurred New York City's grimmest killer-hunt in a dozen years.

For 19,000 policemen the "No. 1 job" was to trap the slayer who in gangland-style Saturday night shot down pants salesman Arnold Schuster, 24. The latter's tip led to Sutton's arrest.

The scope of the manhunt was emphasized Monday night when Mayor Vincent R. Impellitteri said he would ask the City Board of Estimate to vote a $25,000 reward "for the capture of the murderer."

Not since 1940 has the city put up such a high reward, and then it was in the killing of two detectives. Even as Schuster was interred Monday, the reports of new death threats extended the shadow of terror over Brooklyn.

A report said that just two hours before the funeral, Schuster's family received this warning: "One death isn't enough; there will be others."

Police had no comment on this report. Police Commissioner George P. Monaghan noted that a special 24-hour guard had been placed on the family.

Garageman Threatened
Young Schuster received several threats before his death, and police said later he had rejected offers of a guard.

While the Schusters were at the funeral, a threat was directed at Jack Peene, a garageman who was helping Sutton with a stalled car shortly before his capture February 18.

A man telephoned Peene's wife, Mary, that she should advise her husband "to take out a larger insurance policy and not to take long walks."

Peene immediately was given a police guard at his service station, while his wife and their two small children were sent under guard to an undisclosed shelter.

Monaghan said police were "passing up nothing." They roamed used-car lots and garages for a suspected murder car. They followed up more than 100 "crackpot calls and boasts by barroom drunks." They rounded up dozens of known hoodlums in underworld haunts.

Young Schuster's funeral also came under tight scrutiny as a score of detectives and swarms of uniformed police, hoping to find a clue, watched a crowd of some 2,000 persons.

Mourners muttered threats of vengeance. Women wailed. Schuster's father, Max, and mother, Ethel, had to be supported. The mother collapsed at one time.

The only name mentioned in the police hunt thus far is that of Frederick J. (The Angel) Tenuto, a convicted murderer who broke out of Holmesburg, Pa., prison with Sutton in 1947.

Other theories are that Schuster might have been shot by a crackpot hero-worshipper, who took it upon himself to avenge Sutton, or by underworld figures who sought to make his death a warning to other citizens not to tip police.

Monaghan, who suggested the $25,000 reward to the mayor, promised that any one who won it would not be named publicly.

Rewards totaling $12,000 already have been posted in the Schuster slaying by two New York newspapers and a television station.

Windfohr—

sociations in Texas with a membership that produces about 90 per cent of the state's oil. The association's role is to look after the whole oil family and does not participate in industry factional disputes, he said.

Windfohr called attention to changes in the industry's problems that have developed during his 30 years as an independent producer.

"We've switched from a civil war in our own ranks to a war against a common enemy," he declared.

Regarding the industry's tax burdens, Windfohr said that recent efforts to reduce the depletion recognition from 27.1 per cent to 15 per cent would have yielded no more than $250 million in federal taxes, less than one-half of one per cent of this year's budget. This action would cripple or destroy the nation's third largest industry, which now pays $3,500,000,000 in taxes, in order to raise revenues temporarily, he said.

In referring to the tidelands, Windfohr declared "At this point the planners have a legal hunting license to bag one property and one industry after another. Make no mistake about it, nationalization of the oil industry has been one of their favorite targets since 'Honest Harold' Ickes set it up on the bureaucratic rifle range in the middle 1930's. They will proceed, however, only so fast as they think the nation will tolerate it."

"Remember, we in America are the only independent producers and royalty owners in the world, except a very few in Canada," he stated. "Elsewhere the minerals already belong to the corporate state."

★ THE DOCTOR SAYS ★

Glandular Fever, Usually Mild, May Be Caused By Virus

By EDWIN F. JORDAN, M.D.
Written for NEA Service

It is by no means certain that infectious mononucleosis or glandular fever is a new disease, but certainly one hears more about it than 20 or 30 years ago. Also there are some disturbing signs that occasionally, at least, the disease may bring more serious complications than was formerly considered likely.

The fear of sterility as expressed by one correspondent, however, is quite remote.

This disease is almost certainly an infection, probably caused by a virus. Slight loss of appetite and vague pains are common early symptoms. Low fever is the general rule. In some people there is nausea, vomiting, and a little pain in the abdomen.

In mild cases there may be headaches and lack of pep. Enlargement of the lymph glands in the neck, in the arm pits, groin and elsewhere is common.

The blood shows changes which are important in making the diagnosis. The number of white cells in the blood, sometimes called the leucocyte count, is increased. When the blood is smeared on a glass slide stained, and examined under the microscope, it will show a peculiar type of cell which was formerly called a monocyte which has given the name now applied to the disease.

Except for these cells and a complicated special test of the blood called the heterophile antibody test, the symptoms of infectious mononucleosis are like those of many other infections. For this reason the diagnosis is often long delayed and sometimes not made at all.

Infectious mononucleosis is particularly common in young people. It is difficult to tell how long the condition will last because the beginning is often so vague. Usually, however, the fever lasts less than two weeks, though in a few it may persist for a long time.

There is as yet no satisfactory treatment for infectious mononucleosis although some encouraging results have been reported with antibiotics. But the disease is usually mild and recovery takes place without treatment in a short time.

The disturbing feature is the apparent increase in the number of those who develop complications.
