Magnolia Gets Pay High In Stepout To Andrews Discovery

Magnolia Petroleum Company No. 1 S. E. Nolley, third project to be drilled in the Nolley-Wolfcamp area of Central-North Andrews County is indicated that it should be completed as the best producer in that region.

Located one-quarter of a mile north and three-quarters of a mile west of the same concern's No. 1 Tom Peay, opener of the field, the No. 1 S. E. Nolley topped the Wolfcamp reef at 8,970 feet. Elevation is 3,164 feet.

High To Discovery
That makes it 280 feet high on the top of the Wolfcamp reef to the same point in the discovery well of the field.

It is 2,315 feet from south and 690 feet from east line of tract 5, league 214, Gaines County School Land survey.

It drilled and cored to 9,013 feet and then took a four-hour and 45-minute drillstem test at 8,973-9,013 feet. A 5 1/2-inch bottom hole choke and a 3/8-inch top choke was used.

Flows Oil For Two Hours
Gas surfaced in nine minutes.

The gas volume was at the rate of 300,000 cubic feet per day. Drilling mud started flowing out at the top in two hours and 35 minutes and oil began to flow at the surface in two hours and 45 minutes.

The section flowed 39.90 barrels of 37.1-gravity oil in two hours. Shakedown was 4.10 of one per cent formation water.

Gas-oil ratio was 811-1. Surface flowing pressure was 28 pounds. Open flowing bottom hole pressure was from 375 pounds to 1,980 pounds.

Is To Go Deeper
Shut-in bottom hole pressure after 15 minutes was 3,540 pounds. Operator is preparing to run casing and will then core deeper.

The second well drilled in the Nolley area is Magnolia No. 1 Bertha Nolley. It is one location southeast of the discovery.

It failed in the Wolfcamp and completed from the Wichita-Albany at 3,125-59 feet for a daily potential of 118.13 barrels of oil pumping. Magnolia No. 1 Tom Peay completed from the Wolfcamp at 8,227-50 feet and at 8,270-200 feet for a daily flowing potential of 375 barrels of 38.2-gravity oil. It was finished in September, 1951.

Sinclair Will Drill Deep Exploration In Borden Sector

One location north of the discovery well of the Myrtle-Pennsylvanian field in Northeast Borden County, Sinclair Oil & Gas Company spotted location for No. 1. Roy Reeder.

Contracted to 8,500 feet, this exploration well will be drilled 660 feet from south and 1,980 feet from east lines of section 410, block 97, H&TC survey.

There are two producers in the Myrtle field which was opened by Vickers Petroleum Company No. 1 McKnight. The two others produce from the Pennsylvanian above 7,800 feet. The 8,500-foot destination for No. 1 Reeder should allow for a test of the Ellenburger.

Drillsite is 13 miles northeast of Gal.

NE Lynn Is Site For 4,500-Foot Wildcat Explorer

Six miles east of Wilson and in Northeast Lynn County, Duncan Drilling Company spotted location for No. 1 Martha Fortner which is to be drilled as a 4,500-foot rank wildcat.

Site is 330 feet from south and east lines of section 8, block 1, S&F survey.
Elevation at drillsite is 3,110 feet. The project will be drilled on a 320-acre lease.

Tex-Harvey Stakes Ellenburger Wildcat In NE Sterling Area

Tex-Harvey Oil Company spotted location for a 7,800-foot rotary wildcat to test the Ellenburger in extreme Northeast Sterling County.

It is No. 1 Jessie Ellwood Chapell and others, 690 feet from south and east lines of section 43, block 18, SP survey, and 18 miles north and slightly east of Sterling City. Location is approximately three-

Shivers Declares Trumanism Still Is Issue

Governor Stands Firm In Fight On 'Loyal Democrats'

AUSTIN—(AP)—Trumanism still is the issue and President Truman's withdrawal as a candidate hasn't settled differences within the party, Gov. Allan Shivers said Saturday.

Shivers stood firm in his belief Texas should send an uninstructed delegation to the Democratic National Convention. He maintained the Democrats of Texas have a right to review what candidate the national convention picks and what its platform is.

He said he wanted the Texas delegation to fight what he called domination of the party and the national convention by Truman and Senator Hubert Humphrey (D-Minn.).

It was the Texas governor's first comment on Truman's statement of Saturday night that he will not seek reelection.

Shivers lashed out at the Loyal Democrat organization in Texas, as a group seeking to divide the party. He said in effect the only way peace could be achieved with that faction would be for them to join his side.

The issues boil down to this, the governor said at a press conference: "Whether we are going to have a candidate and a platform that (Continued On Page 10)

Hopes Of Averting Steel Walkout Dim As Wilson Resigns

WASHINGTON—(AP)—Charles E. Wilson has quit as the nation's mobilization chief. He told President Truman he decided to resign because he doesn't believe in the Administration's plan for settling the steel dispute.

Wilson's resignation is effective Monday. Truman appointed John R. Steelman, presidential assistant, temporary director of mobilization and instructed him to do what he can to reach a settlement between the CIO's United Steelworkers and the steel industry.

A strike is scheduled to begin April 8. The sudden resignation of Wilson, who once headed the General Electric Company, dimmed hopes of averting the steel strike and left the future of controls over wages and prices pretty much in doubt.

Steel industry and union leaders resumed peace talks in New York Monday afternoon and the industry found itself with no assurance of a price boost to offset the government-recommended increase of 17 1/2 cents an hour.

Senator Maybank (D-SC) broke off hearings of his Senate Banking Committee on the extension of the (Continued On Page 10)

TELEGRAPHERS DELAY WALKOUT

WASHINGTON—(AP)—A strike of 31,000 Western Union Telegraph Company employees was postponed Monday at the government's request. It was due to start at midnight.

The postponement was announced by Federal Mediation Commissioner J. R. Mandelbaum, who said the AFL-CIO Commercial Telegraph Union probably would set a new strike date later in the day.

The strike delay was arranged, Mandelbaum said, to provide the government with more time to seek settlement of the labor dispute between the company and the union.

BARKING METER—It shouldn't happen to a dog but it did. Forlorn Fido was "parked" by his master, who went shopping in a nice warm store during the recent record-breaking blizzard in Minneapolis, and for once, Fido would like to have been in the doghouse.

McGrath Turns On Corruption Hunter

WASHINGTON—(AP)—Attorney General J. Howard McGrath said Monday he wouldn't appoint Newbold Morris, government corruption cleanup man, as a special assistant if he had to do it over again.

Testifying before a House Judiciary subcommittee, McGrath also said he has not filled out the financial questionnaire sent him by Morris and does not know whether he will do so.

Morris, as his first step in a "cleanup" of the government, has sent several thousand top officials a questionnaire asking for detailed information on their outside income and net financial worth.

Morris, a prominent New York lawyer and a Republican, was appointed to the job by President Truman but technically is a special assistant to the attorney general.

McGrath was in the witness chair of the House group, which is investigating the way he has run the Justice Department.

Representative Keating (R-NY), who fired the questions about Morris' deadline for answering the questionnaires is April 7.

"He asked whether McGrath had filled out his yet.

"No, sir," the attorney general replied.

Keating: "You intend to, of course."

McGrath: "I am not sure whether I will or not."

"I haven't decided either whether I'll fill it out or whether I will advise anybody else in the government to do so."

McGrath went on to say he hasn't distributed the questionnaires in his department and will not do so until he decides whether the questions are such that should be asked of government employees.

Navy Plane Grabs Nine Off Ice Pack

BARROW, ALASKA—(AP)—Nine stranded men were snatched from an Arctic ice pack and landed here safely Monday by their Navy rescue plane.

The plane rescued the seven Navy men and two civilian scientists from their four-day isolation and brought them to a safe landing at this northernmost tip of Alaska at 8:30 p.m. (12:35 a.m. CST).

The pickup from the ice, where the men had been stranded by a takeoff accident of their own plane last Thursday, was made only about 500 miles from the North Pole.

The men reported the greatest danger of the daring operation came in the landing on the ice pack.

The crewmen of the downed "Flying laboratory," an R4D, had cleared a 2,500-foot long runway on the ice.

The rescue plane came within 10 feet of an eight-foot high ridge of ice at the end of the runway before it could be stopped.

The plane normally requires a 4,500-foot runway.

Members of the rescue party were in good health and good spirits.

LITTLE MAN OF BIG SURPRISES—

History May Rate Truman Most Human President Since Lincoln

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK—(AP)—How will history rate Harry S. Truman, who has staked out a "for rent" sign on the White House?

When the partisan din of our times dies away, the chances are he will be allotted a greater niche than many of his critics now suspect.

This little man of the big surprises may rank as the most warmly human President since Abraham Lincoln. For surely one of the greatest sources of his appeal has been the fact that he looked and talked so much like the average citizen.

His great office was thrust upon him unexpectedly, and any American could look at his picture and say, "Why, the same lightning might have struck me." That was a big advantage to him—any voter could imagine himself being put in Harry's spot.

Even his act of voluntarily removing himself from the 1952 presidential race—the latest of many unpredictable acts—some people are sure to say, "Well, there's a man that finally listened to his wife."

And they will feel they understand him even better.

If he now goes on and steps out of the political scene altogether, his final stature in the story of our nation will begin to emerge more clearly.

The small legends of leadership will cluster around his name and fame, molding him into the pattern that after generations will know.

How they will remember Harry? They will remember him as a man who would rather be senator than President, and would rather be a Medal of Honor winner than either.

They will remember him as a man who could pitch a baseball with either hand and look in a horse's mouth and tell its age.

They will remember him as a man who helped his wife dry the dishes and insisted she edit all his speeches.

They will remember him as a man who went broke in business, spent 30 years clearing off his $20,000 debt, and went on to spend more money than and peacetime President in history.

They will remember him as a man who assumed his high office with a feeling of unpreparedness, but who went on to make vast decisions of breath-taking boldness.

They will remember him for his fantastic, stubborn loyalty to his friends—and be in more of a position to judge whether that was a virtue or defect.

They will remember him as one who rose personally unimpaired from a corrupt political machine to practice the trade of professional politician with an art probably unmatched since Lincoln.

Historians are sure to write of him as a man less simple than he seemed, and they will label as the greatest mistake of his enemies the error they made of low-rating his profound knowledge of people in the mass.

"That boy could plow the straightest row of corn in the county," his mother once said of Truman. "He was a farmer who could do everything there was to do just a little better than anyone else."

But he himself said: "I've worked hard all my life. That's the only recipe for success I know."

Truman always has been proud of being a professional politician. How would he himself like best to be remembered—this man who called the White House "the finest prison in the world."

The key probably can be found in two statements he made during his presidency:

"Government is politics and in the hands of able and honest politicians government is likely to prosper. So many men who have been attacked as politicians while they were alive have gained fame after their deaths that I think the best description of a statesman is a dead politician."

"Nothing in my life amounts to anything but world peace. That is all I am working for."

But it is too early to determine yet how Harry Truman will be most remembered. For the issues of his lifetime still are undecided.

Opera Stars Wed In Jewish Rites

NEW YORK —(AP)—Metropolitan Opera stars Robert Merrill and Roberta Peters were married here Sunday—after the bridegroom showed up half an hour late.

Merrill was delayed by a Greek Independence Day parade crowd and most of the 2000 guests already were at the Park Avenue Synagogue when he arrived.

So were some 1300 other persons, who crowded about the entrance to watch humorous guests of the opera world arrive.

Merrill pushed through the crowd, almost losing his top hat. But, otherwise, everything went off as planned.

Much of the ceremony, appropriately enough, was in Hebrew. And Rabbi David Putterman and the synagogue chorus sang; unaccompanied by the presence of the Metropolitan Opera staff and company.

Merrill is 34, Miss Peters 21.

Jacoby On Bridge

By OSWALD JACOBY
Written for NEA Service

Most bridge hands stand or fall on a single line of play, but occasionally we see both sides trying one maneuver after another. The running battle in the hand shown today is one of the most interesting I have seen in a long time.

West opened his singleton club, dummy put up the queen, and East won with the ace. When East returned a club South had his first chance to make a mistake.

If South discards a spade, West ruffs and returns a spade. Now the natural play is for declarer to ruff a low club with the jack of diamonds and try to draw trumps. Unfortunately, however, this play would set up a second trump trick for West.

THE CARD SENSE

Q—The bidding has been:
North East South West
1 Spade Pass 2 Clubs Pass
2 Spades Pass

You, South, hold: Spades 8-2, Hearts K-J-6-3, Diamonds J-10 Clubs A-K-Q-8-4. What do you do?

A—Bid three hearts. It is possible, but unlikely, that you will strike a heart fit in partner's hand. Your bid describes your hand, shows strength, and indicates that you cannot bid no-trump for lack of a stopper in diamonds.

Greece Executes Four Reds As Spies

ATHENS, GREECE —(AP)—Four Greek Communists convicted of leading a giant spy ring were executed before dawn Monday by a firing squad.

The Reds were sentenced March 1 after a hearing that attracted world attention. The sentences of four others condemned to die were commuted to life imprisonment.

Of 29 persons brought before the military court, 22 were found guilty of aiding the ring which radioed Greek military secrets to Communists in neighboring Iron Curtain countries.

Executed were Nicholas Belyaninis, the ring leader, and three other top Reds—Nicholas Calimmenos, Demetrios Batis and Elias Argyriades.

Moscow radio, heard in London, was quick with charges that the execution was an "atrocious crime" engineered by the United States.

Two Little Birds

Kathy Kelly, 11 months old, gets the bird, and she loves it. The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Kelly of Cedar Rapids, Iowa, has a devoted pet and companion in "Echo," a parakeet. Echo, like Kathy, hasn't yet learned to talk but they get along fine with bird-and-baby language. The parakeet has the run of the house, and thinks cages are for cats.

"NOT very dainty, but you can eat in a hurry using your hands," says Echo. Kathy approves of this method.

KATHY listens intently to words of advice from her parakeet companion regarding matters of etiquette.

ECHO rewards Kathy with a kiss for eating up all the spinach (and also gets a taste for herself).

ECHO'S very helpful. She keeps Kathy from drowning by holding her up by the hair. It's a hair-raising stunt.

Gable Wouldn't Relish Having A Film Heroine Named ' Sylvia'

By ERSKINE JOHNSON
NEA Staff Correspondent

HOLLYWOOD — Exclusively Yours: If Clark Gable stars in the planned "Mogambo" at MGM, the studio will have to change the heroine's name. Right now she answers to the script name of Sylvia, a name Gable's remembering to forget.

Denise Darcel's Hollywood pals are wagging their fingers and screaming "No, no, Denise" about her recent romantic involvement. His name would stagger you.

There's feud for thought in the script that's developed between Joan "They're both in 'Budden Fear.'" Angela Lansbury's cooling. She's shed that unmetamorphic poundage and is back to the slyly chasmic she sported when she first arrived from England.

Some of Michael Wilding's ex-flames are giggling about his sudden age drop to 39 to keep his marriage to Lis Taylor from seeming less than a May-December affair. And "Darling, I Am Growing Younger," the film Cary Grant is making at Fox, is positively not Wilding's life story.

Casting call in a movie trade paper for Stanley Kramer's next film, "The Dirty Dozen," a World War II battlefield story.

"Dream Girl Wanted. There is a lady calligrapher sex appeal in Hollywood. Must be the type who would appear in a lonesome man's drooling dream of romantic Paradise."

What is calligrapher sex appeal? Look it up, I had to.

Glenda Swanson's denials, in the east, of plans to wed Brandy Brent were no surprise to her Hollywood pals, who know her heart belongs to a Mr. Moneybags in New York. Brent's her business manager.

The film biography of Dutch Meyer, the Texas Christian U. grid coach who put the razzle-dazzle into football, is in the script writing stage with Alan Ladd being mentioned to play Dutch.

Judy Canova's shooting her pilot TV reel at Republic studio. Boss Herbert Yates, who gave her his blessing, has changed his mind about video, since his battle with Roy Rogers over his TV rights.

Overheard: "She dyes her hair so often she's got technicolor dandruff."

Talking about the movie cutie, Director Richard Thorpe said: "Her grasp of international affairs is masterful—she thinks Free China is something you win at a movie theater."

"It's Orson Wells vs. Robert Taylor in the fight for French ballet d'azzler Ludmilla Tchérina's heart.

Inside reason given by insiders for Evelyn Keyes' decision not to wed wealthy Argentinian Miguel Angel Lopez Lucube: Too much dictation from the groom-to-be on how Evelyn should live her life.

Sonja Henie's denying she asked for 75 per cent of the boxoffice take for a London engagement of her ice revue.

"Honey," she said, "I didn't even plan on London for this year's tour..."

Sign of the times adv. in same paper: "Movie Star's Mink Jacket—Like New. Cost $3,000. Will sell for $350 cash."

She Switched To TV: An ex-radio announcer is the wolf-whistle bait in the new Jeffrey Jones "private eye" TV films.

But no cracks, please—she's a perky doll named Gloria Henry.

Dear Fellow Midlanders:

The CHURCH OF CHRIST gladly presents to Midland the GOSPEL OF CHRIST in a special series of sermons, March 31st through April 6th. We would count it a pleasure to have you in attendance.

We honestly believe that the Church of Christ offers you something that is not to be found elsewhere; something you need in order to live a full, happy life, in humble obedience to God and His Son, Jesus Christ.

It offers you a spiritual home—a place where you can have a part in the worship of God in strict accordance with the New Testament pattern, and here receive the inspiration and stimulus so necessary to your daily life. AND MOST IMPORTANT OF ALL, salvation now and in eternity is to be found in the church of our Lord Jesus Christ.

We have planned a week-day morning worship especially with the business men and women of Midland in mind. This worship will begin promptly at 7:00 a.m. and conclude promptly at 7:40 a.m. What an excellent way to begin the day! The morning worship will begin Tuesday morning, April 1, and continue through Saturday.

Tax Bureau Reforms

A big step has been taken toward cleaning out corruption in the Internal Revenue Bureau, and the country can feel good about it. The plan, now in effect after recent Senate approval, is designed to eliminate the evils of political patronage from the bureau.

Heretofore, appointments of the 64 collectors theoretically have been strictly political plums. Actually, there were a lot of lemons.

Of the 64 collectors who served during the last year or so, 17 were chosen from and served under Civil Service. None of them has been sucked into the current wave of scandals in the bureau.

Under the new plan, the collectors are replaced by not more than 25 district commissioners and 70 deputy district commissioners. There will be at least one deputy to each state.

The top man, the commissioner in Washington, will have three assistants. One will be an inspector charged with the job of spotting and wiping out any corruption before it can do the great damage it has in recent months.

A second assistant will be the man through whom the 25 district commissioners report direct to the head of the bureau in Washington. A third assistant will be head man for the paper work.

Salaries of the top 99 men in the rejuvenated bureau will range from $12,090 to $14,800. Not enough to get rich on. Not so little that a man will be tempted to take money from the outside to get along.

Taxes, themselves, are high. It's hard to get them paid. But the tax collecting business in general is looking up.

This is the season when all of the early birds should stay on the job so we wouldn't have to worry about biting into a chestnut.

With some girls, it's love at first sight of the fellow's bank account.

Lack Of World Disarmament Is Directly Traceable To Russia

By PETER EDSON NEA Washington Correspondent

WASHINGTON—New efforts by the U. S. government to obtain United Nations agreement on international disarmament may look somewhat futile. In the face of stalemated peace negotiations in Korea, proposals for a $51,000,000,000 U. S. defense budget, almost $8,000,000,000 more for foreign aid and the building up of General Eisenhower's European army, any talk of reducing armaments may sound like a waste of time.

TOMBOY BY ED BARCELO

THE Kendall Detective Agency was not bustling with activity. In fact, it was not bustling with anything and George Kendall was sadly contemplating bankruptcy and the eighty-second floor of the Empire State Building. He was seated in a swivel chair facing the window, his feet propped on the sill.

"Things couldn't be any tougher. No clients and we've got one was getting prematurely old. SUDDENLY, they both heard the door of the outer office open and shut. Verna shoved the compact into her skirt pocket and hurried to the outer office. Meanwhile, George Kendall grabbed a batch of papers and assumed a sudden spirit of industry.

State Legion Commander To Visit 16th District

ODESSA—State Legion Commander Charles Gibson of Amarillo will visit American Legion posts in the 16th Congressional District during the week of April 9-April 15, it was announced here Monday by John F. Crooks, Jr., Legion district commander.

Crooks said the state commander will open his tour in Alpine Wednesday, April 9, and make scheduled stops at Pecos on Thursday, Fort Stockton on Friday, and Sanderson on Tuesday, April 15. But Gibson is expected to continue his custom of stopping over at several other towns along the way to meet other Legionnaires, he said.

At Legion headquarters in Austin, Gibson paid tribute to the 16th District, which he regards as one of the best in the state. He is a former 16th District commander and before his election last year headed the 5th Division, an area comprising the 16th, 17th, 18th, 19th and 21st Congressional districts.

He was elected state commander at the convention in San Antonio on August 19. His one-year term will expire on the closing day of the 1952 state convention, set for August 8-19 in Dallas. He is the first World War I veteran to be named state commander in several years. He served 16 months in France with the 36th Division.

Interest High In Pecos Vote

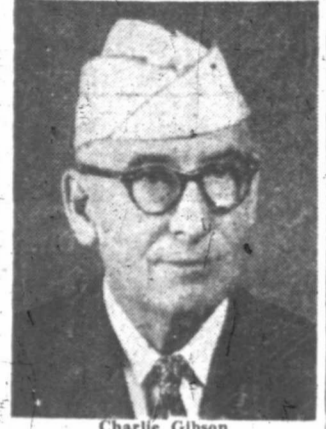

PECOS—A record number of voters are expected Tuesday to choose five men who will take seats in the City Council. Fifteen men are in the race, which along with other factors, would account for the unusually high interest.

Mrs. Harry Clinton, county clerk, disclosed that only 14 absentee ballots had been cast in the city election. Deadline for absentee balloting fell at midnight Friday.

Meantime, Mrs. Pearl C. Barker, county tax assessor-collector, announced that there are in the neighborhood of 2,900 qualified voters in the city limits.

Interest in the election began picking up last week, and over the weekend had soared to an action-packed climax. Keenest interest appears to be centered on the mayor's race between Bill Turpin and Emmett Beauchamp.

Some candidates have purchased elaborate radio and newspaper advertisements to further the interests of their candidacies. Solicitous letters were mailed to qualified voters at least two weeks ago, and a distinguished service record in the state organization.

Gibson, assistant to the publisher of the Amarillo Globe Times, has been a member of the Legion for 20 years, and holds a distinguished service record in the state organization.

CERTAIN SIGN OF SPRINGTIME

NEW YORK — It's Springtime again, and that means circus time.

The big show, Ringling Brothers and Barnum and Bailey, moved into Madison Square Garden Sunday to prepare for the opening of its new season here Friday night.

A 37-car circus train brought the menagerie and equipment here from the show's winter quarters in Sarasota, Fla., on Saturday.

Sunday, 24 trunk-waving elephants, led a procession of animals, wagons and clowns to Madison Square Garden from the Bronx yards of the New York, New Haven and Hartford Railroad.

Hundreds of youngsters watched the parade.

Army Reveals Long Range Missile Plans

WASHINGTON — The Army is developing a guided missile that can knock down aircraft flying 15 miles above the earth, researchers have told Congress in asking 450 million dollars to continue experiments.

The new anti-aircraft weapon was discussed in testimony, made public Sunday before a House Appropriations subcommittee considering budget requests.

The Army's 14-billion-dollar budget for the fiscal year beginning July 1 includes 450 million in new funds for research, a 23-million-dollar increase for that purpose over last year.

Included in the 450 millions is a request for almost 50 millions to continue experimentation in atomic, biological and chemical warfare and to obtain material A-51, which is believed to be working on new nerve gases and which that U. S. development of germ and chemical warfare is "very urgent."

Quits Laxatives — finds amazing relief

"Had tried method after method to relieve constipation, until I lost faith," admits New Jersey woman. "Then I started to eat Kelllogg's ALL-BRAN daily and was amazed at the fine results!" Delicious ALL-BRAN may bring back your youthful regularity if suffering has been due to lack of bulk in diet. It's the only type ready-to-eat cereal that supplies all the bulk you may need. ALL-BRAN is rich in iron, high in cereal protein, provides essential B and D vitamins. Not habit-forming. Eat 1/2 cupful of Kelllogg's ALL-BRAN daily; drink plenty of liquids. If not satisfied after 10 days, send empty carton to Kelllogg's, Battle Creek, Mich., and get DOUBLE YOUR MONEY BACK!

Tax Bureau's 'Operation Racketeer' Aims At $180,000,000 Take From U. S. Criminals

WASHINGTON — The government expects to collect at least 180 million dollars in income taxes from the crime world this year as the result of the Internal Revenue Bureau's "Operation Racketeer."

Bureau officials said Sunday more than 80 millions already has been collected from 4,851 racketeers. At this rate, they expect to round up as many as 16,800 crooks and tap them for 180 million dollars all told.

Almost 300 racketeers have been indicted in the last seven months for criminal tax frauds, and the bureau thinks it will jail possibly 600 during 1952.

"Operation Racketeer" was launched last Spring after several months of organization work that included recruiting more than 2,000 agents in 117 squads which then were given special training.

It has been so successful and has produced so much new tax money that James J. Guthrie, chief lieutenant to Revenue Commissioner John B. Dunlap, predicts the current reorganization of the tax service may make the rackets squads a permanent division.

The jolting drive on the crime world started with a master list of 27,734 known or suspected racketeers furnished by local police, Senate Crime Committee investigators, newspapers and others. It now has grown to 37,400 and is expanding at the rate of 1,200 a month.

So far, about seven out of every 10 racketeers checked have been found in arrears in their taxes. The average collection has been $18,652. The largest assessment was $3,334,805 against Josiah M. Kirby of Costa Mesa, Calif.

Most officials declined to comment but Danish Foreign Minister Ole Bjorn Kraft probably spoke for all governments west of the Iron Curtain when he said Western Europe would follow the presidential election with the expectation, "whatever the outcome," that the U.S. would continue the "major lines of policy which during President Truman's term of office, have contributed so decisively to the safeguarding of peace, freedom and democracy."

Most non-Communist papers had some editorial applause for the President's record in office. Italy's Communist organ, l'Unita di Roma, sounded the Red keynote with another scathing denunciation of Truman and U. S. policy.

The Moscow press so far was silent but was expected to write similarly. With the Soviet government, Truman has been the most unpopular American President since the Soviet Union was launched 30 years ago.

DADDY RINGTAIL

Daddy Ringtail And Spingles And Spangles

The Huffen Puffen, the friendly wolf, came walking along the Esplanade Path. The Huffen was swaggering and swaggering, walking his very important walk. He was a very important fellow, he was. He was very important indeed, he thought. He stopped at last beneath the very tall tree, the one with Daddy Ringtail's monkey house in the top. The Huffen called: "Yo-hoo! Daddy Ringtail! It is I, your old friend, the Huffen Puffen!"

Daddy Ringtail and Mugwump Monkey, the monkey boy, slid down to the ground. "Happy day there, Huffen," Daddy Ringtail and Mugwump said.

By WESLEY DAVIS

The Huffen chuckled. Said he: "I am a very important fellow, I am. I am. I am the Huffen Puffen." Daddy Ringtail and Mugwump waited. They knew the Huffen was thinking important thoughts, and when the Huffen is thinking important thoughts, there's nothing to do but let him think them. Yes, and you have to let him say the words he wants to say.

Right then, the Huffen said, he was wanting to say his Huffen Puffen speech. Daddy Ringtail and Mugwump let him say it. Said the Huffen: "I am the Huffen Puffen, I am, I am, and I can huff, and puff, and puff, and huff, and even blow houses in, I can. Phew!"

"Does he have to say that all the time?" asked Mugwump.
"Now, Mugwump," said Daddy Ringtail. "Let's hear what is making the Huffen feel so extra special important today."

"Now don't you folks tell anybody," said the Huffen.
"Huffen Puffen," said Mugwump, "how can we tell anybody? You haven't even told us yet."

And so the Huffen told them. The Huffen explained that a letter had come from his uncle who lived far away in the land of Spingles and Spangles. Yes, and his uncle was going to send him a million of the spingles and spangles, all for the Huffen to be a very rich wolf. "I'm rich! Rich!" shouted the Huffen. And while the Huffen shouts

Imaginative since birth, the curly-haired boy had been named Sakron, meaning curious. He was thirteen and lived in Mocado, a city on the flat summit of a mountain in Judea, most important province of ancient Israel. On clear days, Sakron could see the Dead Sea twinkling in the east.

Besides a majestic view, Mocado boasted an encircling wall with 37 turrets, and was an excellent place to store grain because its pure mountain air prevented spoiling. Sakron's father was a miller.

The fortress wall had been built to protect the legions of Emperor Augustus Caesar. Ruling Israel with a bloody hand, the Romans feared raids from revenge-motivated zealots, like Barabbas, the Robber.

Seven Years In White House Carry Truman Past Important Milestones

By WARREN ROGERS, Jr.

WASHINGTON — Seven years as President of the United States have carried Harry S. Truman past historic milestones, domestic and foreign crises and bitter duels with Congress.

He signaled a halt to that Saturday night when he announced at the Jefferson-Jackson Day rally: "I shall not be a candidate for reelection x x x I shall not accept a renomination."

The terse statement of his intentions, a closely-guarded secret during a year of hot speculation, ranks with the classics of withdrawals from presidential races. These include:

William Tecumseh Sherman in 1864: "I will not accept if nominated and will not serve if elected."

Calvin Coolidge in 1928: "I do not choose to run."

Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower in 1948: "I am not available for and could not accept nomination to high political office."

Eisenhower, being boomed by some Republicans as Truman's successor in 1952, has expressed a willingness this time to serve.

Truman's tenure began April 12, 1945, when he stepped up from the vice presidency on the death of

Franklin D. Roosevelt. Two weeks later, at San Francisco, he faced history — the launching of United Nations at the end of World War II. Unbroken line of Crises

In quick succession came what an Associated Press reporter called "a virtually unbroken line of crises." These were in foreign and domestic policy, in politics and in Truman's "goldfish-bowl" life as a public figure.

There were successes and there were failures. The 67-year-old President himself, in the just-published book "Mr. President", has summed up his Administration this way: "We have prevented a third world war. And we have kept the American economy on an even keel."

Perhaps Truman's most historic decision was to drop the atomic bomb on Hiroshima and Nagasaki, Japan, in August, 1945. With it dawned the atomic age.

Other milestones in the foreign field:

The rise of communism and the cold war with Russia.

The atomic race spurred by the beginning of work on the hydrogen bomb.

The hot war in Korea beginning June 25, 1950.

Formation of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization (NATO), the first peacetime military alliance between the U. S. and European nations.

Establishment of the European Recovery Program, the Point Four Program of technical aid to backward nations and the Truman Doctrine of military and economic aid to countries fighting communism.

The Berlin blockade of 1948-49, set up by the Russians and broken after 327 days by the 250-million-dollar airlift.

Ratification this year of the Japanese peace treaty and related Pacific pacts.

'Fair Deal' Program

On the domestic scene, there were crises like:

Continuing congressional opposition to the "Fair Deal" program.

The "great debate" of 1951 over how much military authority the

Two Airmen Killed, Three Others Hurt In Bomber Crash

OMAHA — Two men were killed and three others injured, one seriously, shortly before 1 a.m. Monday when an Air Force B-25 bomber crashed while attempting to land at Offutt Air Force Base.

A Strategic Air Command spokesman said the plane, based at Offutt was coming in for a landing at the end of a routine flight to Burbank, Calif. Apparently one engine was out.

The plane overshot the field, tried to pull up and crashed about three miles northwest of the base, the spokesman said. The wreckage was strewn over a 300-square yard area.

The wings were torn completely from the fuselage. Persons who reached the scene shortly after the crash said there apparently had been a fire.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Whitted, who farm nearby, said they heard the sound of the engines and suddenly looked out and saw a slight flicker of flame.

Names of the Air Force personnel aboard were withheld pending notification of the next of kin.

John D. Rockefeller founded the Standard Oil Company.

Unidentified Plane Brings Air Alert In Panama Canal Zone

BALBOA CANAL ZONE — An unidentified plane flying over the Panama Canal caused a 37-minute air raid alert in the Canal Zone Sunday night.

There was no information available from U. S. Army headquarters after the alert at 12:08 a.m. Monday on whether the plane had been identified. It was spotted first by an anti-aircraft post on the Caribbean side of the zone and later flew south, over the vital canal locks at Pedro Miguel and Miraflores.

The air raid sirens, sounded first at 11:11 p.m., brought a blackout at military installations, but street and home lights stayed on.

The armed forces radio station repeated announcements that "this is not a practice" and directed all military personnel to their stations. Civilians were told to go to the nearest safe place.

Traffic was uninterrupted. Armed sentries were posted throughout the zone.

Neighboring Panama has no alarm system but the sirens in the canal zone were heard clearly and brought alarmed residents into the streets.

Frisco Killings Touch Off Roundup Of Juvenile Gangs

SAN FRANCISCO — A teenage gang killing in front of San Francisco's City Hall touched off a sweeping police round-up Monday of juvenile gangsters.

Two young men were killed and three wounded in the burst of gun play in Civic Center early Sunday. One of the wounded may die.

Robert A. Ransom, 19, was jailed as the gunman. Homicide Inspector Al Neider said Ransom admitted shooting down five members of the rival Fillmore gang with a .45 caliber automatic he carried in a shoulder holster.

The shooting was the culmination of a long feud between the Fillmore and Portola gangs. But it was the first time a gun had been fired in their gang fights. Previously, Neider said, they fought with chains, belts, knives, clubs, feet and fists.

None of the five shot was armed. Norman Bothelo, 20, and Andrew Ulbricht, 19, were killed. James Erickson, 21, shot in the abdomen, was in critical condition. James Bennett, 21, and Thomas Hinman, 20, suffered flesh wounds.

Trouble started at the butcher's ball in Civic Auditorium. Inspector Neider said Ransom invited Bothelo outside. Each was backed by half a dozen members of his gang when they met in the Civic Center. Three girls were there, too.

Ransom told reporters his gang was outnumbered two to one and rival mobsters tried to get behind him so he pulled his gun.

"Then," Ransom said, "Norman got pretty wise. He told me I was afraid to use the gun. He said he was going to take it away from me."

"The next thing I knew I started shooting."

Ransom was caught three hours later. He made no attempt to use the gun as police tracked him down. He was booked on "suspicion of murder" and "suspicion of assault with intent to commit murder."

First Woman Pilot Resigns CAA Post

WASHINGTON — The first American woman flier to win a federal pilot's license has quit her government job because she says the Truman Administration is socializing civil aviation.

Phoebe F. Omlie resigned as special assistant to the Office of Aviation Development of the Civil Aeronautics Administration during the weekend. She told a news conference:

"I resigned from CAA because—after devoting 31 years of my life to aviation—I can no longer willingly sit by and watch the Truman Administration socialize civil aviation in the United States."

He is expected to offer his resignation within the next few days to Sidi Mohammed El Min Fasha, the bey of Tunis. The bey, the country's nominal ruler, bowed to French demands on Friday and named Baccouche premier to succeed Mohammed Chenik, a Nationalist leader.

Baccouche Fails In Try To Form Tunisian Cabinet

TUNIS, TUNISIA — Premier Salah Eddine Ben Mohammed Baccouche failed again Monday to form a cabinet and difficulties were said to be increasing for the 69-year-old pro-French political leader.

Baccouche told friends he is finding it impossible to get enough Tunisians to round out a cabinet for this French North African protectorate.

He is expected to offer his resignation within the next few days to Sidi Mohammed El Min Fasha, the bey of Tunis. The bey, the country's nominal ruler, bowed to French demands on Friday and named Baccouche premier to succeed Mohammed Chenik, a Nationalist leader.

DONALD M. OLIVER

The Reason Why

DONALD M. OLIVER

Is A Candidate For

Place No. 4 on the City Council

Some of my friends and acquaintances have asked me why I would be willing to devote the time and effort required to serve on the City Council of the City of Midland, Texas.

I have told them that in these days every citizen ought to be interested in good, clean, efficient, economic, democratic government. It is my feeling that we are fortunate in enjoying this kind of government in the City of Midland and as far as I am concerned, I am willing to do what I can to keep it that way. I, therefore, am willing to serve as a city councilman and, if elected, I will try to do the best I can to serve all the people in a way that will bring credit to the community.

Pecos Moves To Alleviate Crowded School Conditions

PECOS—Movement is afoot here for a vast expansion in the public school system in an effort to alleviate the West Texas city's "growing pains."

Voters are soon to be asked to approve the issuance of $525,000 in school improvement bonds. The school board meets Tuesday night to set a date for the election and to arrange a conditional sale of the bonds.

The latest plans were made by the trustees in conference with Fred Buford, architect of the firm, Buford and Feinberg of Dallas.

The money is proposed to provide for a long list of school improvements. They include:

1. Erection of a new elementary school in the air base area.
2. Installation of a cafeteria at the elementary school.
3. Four classrooms to be added to senior high school.
4. Shop building and mechanical drawing room at high school.
5. New negro school, complete with home economics department.
6. Administration building to house the superintendent, business manager, the school tax office, large warehouse and vault.
7. Foundation repairs and re-ramping of junior high school heating system.
8. New field house for athletes.

Architects' estimate of the program comes to $560,000. Other budgets will be cut to raise the difference between the cost and the $525,000 proposal.

New Pecos Water Well Flows 300 Gallons A Minute

PECOS—Pecos' newest water well has surprised water officials by proving on a test Friday that it can be depended upon for 300 gallons a minute, or 432,000 gallons every 24 hours.

Water Superintendent John Oglesby said, Monday, that during a 10-hour test run Friday the well pumped as high as 400 gallons a minute.

"It's the best looking we've seen yet these since the middle of December," Oglesby vetered.

Although indicating it feels positive, more optimistic over the city's water sources, Oglesby said "I think we need at least one more well. The newest well makes 10 the city has in operation."

The drilling contractor J. L. Trotter of Toyahvale was scheduled to make a new location about 1,200 feet east of the newest find.

Shivers—

will continue Truman policies—drinking socialism, the doctrine of paramount federal rights as contrasted to states' rights, continuation of abnormally high taxes, or whether we are going to get a candidate and a platform that will carry out at least some of the desires of the people of Texas and elsewhere."

"The only way to do that is to have an unfrustrated delegation free to make its choice" at Chicago.

Speaking slowly and without notes, Shivers opened the press conference with a 20-minute statement outlining his views. It was recorded for radio broadcast.

Here in essence is what he had to say on several questions:

He still wants to see who the national candidate is and what the candidate stands for before taking a party loyalty pledge.

He would not accept the nomination for vice president. "I'm interested in getting good candidates—not in being a candidate."

He still favors Senator Richard Russell (D-Ga.) for the presidential nomination.

Unofficial Straw Vote

There might be some kind of unofficial straw vote at the second Democratic primary in August to determine how Texans feel about the national convention's candidate and platform.

He doesn't believe in splinter parties—differences should be fought out within the established parties.

Shivers emphasized his view that Southern Democrats should not renege.

"I hope the national convention will be free and open and not dominated by Senator Humphrey and others in that wing of the party," he said. "Call it Humphreyish or Trumanism—we're not for it."

Shivers said he didn't know what the so-called Loyalists in Texas will be loyal to now. He had once called the organization one of "Trumanera" and they had denied it Monday he asked:

"Kefauvercrafts? It looks as if they are going to use Senator Kefauver to further divide the party." Shivers said he hadn't been able to find out what Senator Kefauver stands for. He said he had sent the senator a telegram asking him to support the Texas Tidelands bill but that it hadn't even been acknowledged "much less replied to."

Hints At Third Party

Shivers said he had not communally caucused with Senators Russell or Byrd (D-Va.) since the Truman statement.

He reiterated his statement that he would come home in July, after the national convention, to determine the opinions of Texas Democrats on candidates and platform.

"Would one of the possible courses of action include a third party?" he was asked.

"I think they would include a third-party so far as I am concerned," the governor replied.

He said some sort of a survey could be taken to find out the views of Democrats after the national convention. The possibilities would include something along the line of a straw vote or whatever would be legal, he explained. "The details can be worked out later."

Shivers said the September convention legally may do or undo anything its majority wants.

Child Dies In Road Collision Near Pecos

PECOS—The three-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Wyatt of the Las Vegas, Nev. Army Base was killed Sunday night in a head-on automobile collision six miles east of Kent.

Mr. and Mrs. Wyatt and the driver of the other car, C. D. Lee, 30, of Sundown, Texas, were injured but were not in critical condition.

FALLS FROM SCAFFOLD

W. W. Bennett of Odessa, Phillips Petroleum Company employe here, was given emergency treatment at the Midland Memorial Hospital Sunday. He fell from a scaffold at the Phillips warehouse.

TOO DRY EVEN FOR ANTELOPE

MARFA—The drought is causing antelope to come into town for food.

A. E. Ligon found three does and three fawns on his front lawn here the other night.

Another drove was seen Saturday around the cattle loading pens on the East Side.

THE YOUNG MAN who wears "the right clothes at the right time" learns early in life that clothes make a big impression. This Spring suit of gray worsted flannel is worn with an Eton cap with tassel and matching tattered handkerchief. He also wears a white broadcloth shirt, a multi-colored bow tie and brown shoes.

PIANO TUNERS TO FEEL BLOW

FORT WORTH—Many piano tuners hate to see Truman leave the White House, F. X. Friedel of Cleveland said here Monday.

Friedel is treasurer of the National Association of Piano Tuners, holding a regional convention here.

The piano-playing Chief Executive was "of great service to our profession," said Friedel, and piano tuners reached a new popularity peak.

Friedel believes the piano helped make Truman a successful politician as "Music keeps a man sharp, keen and alert."

The association has not taken a preferential poll, Friedel added, but "even a bad piano player is better than none at all."

Steel Strike—

Defense Production Act, which expires June 30, "until the air has cleared."

The future of controls, Maybank said, should not be deliberated in a "wave of hysteria and confusion, charges and countercharges." Some legislators have urged the scrapping of controls.

Maybank praised Wilson, former president of General Electric Company and executive vice chairman of the War Production Board in World War II, as a "great American." The committee, he said, definitely will want to know who will administer controls as Wilson's successor.

The President, in accepting Wilson's resignation, declared the wage terms recommended by the Wage Stabilization Board were "by no means unreasonable." He said he believed steel profits were "many times higher" than the proposed new wage costs.

Wilson's letter of resignation told the President Wilson could not "accept public responsibility for major stabilization actions which I can not control."

The President voiced regret and paid tribute to Wilson's "vigor, competence and effectiveness."

Originally, Wilson favored neither wage nor price increases in steel. He told associates they would have the widest inflationary repercussions.

Truman Changes Mind

When the Wage Stabilization Board this month adopted the 17 1/2-cent-an-hour recommendation, he protested that it was "a serious threat" to economic stability. But he finally conceded that it must be the basis for negotiation between the industry and CIO's 650,000 steel unionists.

Convinced that "no settlement could be reached unless part of the cost" were offset by assurance of a steel price ceiling boost, his letter disclosed, Wilson flew to Key West last weekend and obtained what he regarded as an "understanding" to that effect with Truman.

But last Friday, Wilson told the President, "you changed your mind."

This was the day Truman talked at length with Economic Stabilizer Roger I. Putnam and Price Director Ellis Arnall, both known to oppose any price boosts beyond the existing ceiling formula.

By that time, however, Wilson had indicated to the steel companies the government's willingness to adjust prices if necessary. The figure of a $5-a-ton increase has been mentioned unofficially. The "Big Six" steel producers promptly invited the union into the New York negotiations Monday.

Now the price assurance is gone. Truman is on record as strongly supporting the wage board and doubting any need for price compensation.

Officials voiced pessimism of early success in the New York talks—and some steel companies will start banking their fires on Friday in anticipation of a shutdown.

Doctors To Hear Dallas Specialist

Doctors of Midland and the surrounding area will hear an associate professor of the Southwestern Medical School of Dallas at 8 p.m. Wednesday in a meeting in the nurses reception room at the Midland Memorial Hospital.

Dr. Harry M. Spence will discuss "Malignant Diseases of the Genito-Urinary Tract." The Midland Diagnostic Club is sponsoring the meeting as a part of its educational program.

Morris Will Return To El Paso Hospital

Air Force Captain Jim Morris, injured last December in Korea when a bomb exploded unexpectedly, will leave here Monday afternoon to return to the Army hospital in El Paso.

Although his leg has been in a cast, he has been working here as a police dispatcher the last month.

He said the cast will be removed from his leg in El Paso and he will remain there for another month for further treatment.

SURGERY SCHEDULED

Wayne M. Riley of Hadacol Corner was admitted to Midland Memorial Hospital Monday. Surgery may be required to remove part of his little finger, hurt in a drilling accident.

ADMITTED TO HOSPITAL

David LaRue, son of Mr. and Mrs. B. J. LaRue, Midland, was admitted to Western Clinic-Hospital Sunday as a medical patient.

Truman Withdrawal Leaves Democratic Choice Open Event

WASHINGTON—(AP)—Now that President Truman is out of the running, who are the most likely choices for the Democratic nomination?

Here are the current possibilities, keeping in mind that a dead-locked convention might settle on someone who isn't even being mentioned at present:

Vice President Alben W. Barkley, Supreme Court Justice William O. Douglas.

Senator Estes Kefauver of Tennessee.

Senator Robert S. Kerr of Oklahoma.

House Speaker Sam Rayburn of Texas.

Senator Richard B. Russell of Georgia.

Gov. Adlai E. Stevenson of Illinois.

"Of these only the three Senators, Kefauver, Kerr and Russell, actively are seeking delegates."

R. R. Russell Opens Collection Service

R. R. Russell, a Midland resident the last 12 years, has announced the opening of a collection service business in Midland.

The well-known Midlander pledges personal, bonded, reliable and persistent service for all clients.

Russell has established an office at 209 East Wall Street, dial No. 3-3751. He also may be contacted at his residence, 811 North D Street, dial No. 4-4901.

Midlander Joins Exclusive Organization For Far-Reaching 'Ham' Radio Operators

R. L. Mims, 1212 W. Ohio, has been awarded membership in the DX Century Club, exclusive society of amateur radio operators who have made two-way short-wave radio contacts with at least 100 of the more than 200 countries of the world.

Mims is the 1468th amateur station to achieve the 100-country contract since the war. The station, set up in his home, uses the federally-assigned call letters W5-BZT, which have become well known to amateurs throughout the world. All contacts were made using radiotelegraphy.

All his communications have been proved, as required by the rules of the club, by written confirmation in the form of QSL (acknowledgment) cards, which bedeck the wall of his radio-operating room.

Thousands of American "hams" have contacted the "easy" countries where there are a large number of amateurs, such as Canada, Mexico and Australia.

Mims is now working to extend his total well above the 100 mark, to obtain endorsements on his certificate for additional 10-country groups.

Louisiana Debt Is Sixth Largest

BATON ROUGE, LA.—(AP)—The Louisiana Public Affairs Research Council says it would cost every man, woman and child in the state $83.75 to pay off the state debt.

That debt, the council reported, is the sixth largest in the nation and the second largest per capita debt.

It reported the debt as of June 30, 1951, at $224,527,620.

Only Delaware has a higher per capita debt. In Delaware it is $941.56.

Five states—New York, Pennsylvania, Illinois, California and Michigan—have larger total debts but each has a population much larger than Louisiana's.

Easter Island, a lonely speck in the South Pacific, is a national park of Chile.

Reds Ask Renewed Truce Policing Talks

MUNSAN, KOREA—(AP)—Communist staff officers Monday proposed that top level negotiators try to break the deadlock over whether Russia should help police a Korean truce.

The Reds suggested the joint subcommittee on armistice supervision meet for the first time in more than two months at 11 a.m. Tuesday.

COTTON

NEW YORK—(AP)—Monday noon cotton prices were $1.50 to $2 a bale higher than the previous close May 41.23 July 40.35 and October 37.50.

ENTERS HOSPITAL

I. D. Johnston, 1206 South Terrell Street, was admitted to Western Clinic-Hospital Saturday as a medical patient.

McGrath—

tionnaire to McGrath with a request that McGrath distribute them to top employes of the Justice Department.

Keating asked whether, in the event McGrath decided to fill out the questionnaire, he would be willing to let the committee have access to the document.

"That's one of the problems I have to decide," McGrath replied.

"If I should classify it as strictly confidential—which I undoubtedly would do if we take that course—the information would not be available to this committee except on direct order of the President."

Keating asked whether McGrath would object to letting the committee examine his income tax returns.

"I haven't decided on that; I won't say yes or no," McGrath replied.

"Have you decided whether any person who refused to fill out the questionnaire should be discharged?" Keating asked.

McGrath: "I guess that would be up to the President."

Keating: "But Mr. Morris has made an announcement to that effect."

McGrath: "Mr. Morris has made a lot of announcements. I haven't tried to keep up with them all."

At that point, Keating asked if McGrath would appoint Morris a special assistant now, in the light of developments.

"I would not," McGrath said firmly.

WHAT'S THE MOST VITAL THING ADVERTISING DOES FOR YOU?

- ★ BRINGS INFORMATION TO MAKE SHOPPING EASY.
- ★ GIVES YOU BETTER GOODS FOR LESS MONEY.
- ★ RAISES STANDARD OF LIVING.
- ★ MAKES JOBS MORE SECURE.
- ★ ENTERTAINS AND AMUSES.

This Case History Shows How Advertising Gives You Greater Personal Security

TAKE this actual case of a brand of soap. A big company had developed a better, faster-acting soap powder that washes dishes faster, makes clothes whiter with less work.

How could they sell it at such a low cost as to be able to sell it cheaply? Only through advertising.

Today they sell millions of dollars of this soap powder per year—making hundreds of new jobs in a huge factory, hundreds of jobs with firms who supply the raw materials, more and better jobs in stores that handle that soap—and in banks, railroads, truck lines, insurance companies, all of whom have more work to do—and more money coming in—because of this added soap business.

Nobody Lost

For the amazing fact is—this new brand of soap didn't take money from other soap companies. The product and its advertising increased the total consumption of soap. So there was more business, better business—more and better jobs.

You're More Secure

Apply this very prosaic soap story to the more glamorous fields of automobiles, refrigerators, clothing, furniture—everything you buy. You'll see plainly how advertising acts as the spark plug of business. You'll see how advertising—today and tomorrow—is creating opportunity for you, and making your present job more secure.

What Others Say:

LABORER—There are no layoffs when things are busy. A rush means overtime for me. So when advertising sells goods for my firm, I get more in my pay envelope.

EXPRESSMAN—My job depends on goods being shipped. And the main reason goods are shipped is because they are sold. So by selling goods, advertising helps me be sure of steady work.

HOUSEWIFE—It's a perfect circle. When advertising makes us women go to the store to buy, we stimulate business. And it's when business is good that our husbands are secure in their jobs. So let's be grateful for advertising.

SAILOR—A ship's business is to transport goods. Always there has to be a buyer—or we tie up. So advertising to sell goods is important in giving sailors steady work and a chance to get ahead.

Advertising... BY SELLING MORE GOODS TO MORE PEOPLE Makes your job more secure

THIS FAT TIP COST HIS JOB

A Midland taxicab driver had lost his permit to drive Monday after helping himself to a fat $33 tip.

Mrs. Mary Watson, 2400 North Edwards Street, reported to police that she had ridden in the cab after arriving in the city Saturday night.

When she arrived home, the $33 was missing.

Police Lt. Dick Hemingway located the driver, made him return the money and then ordered his taxicab permit revoked, after the woman declined to file charges.

Soviet Press Makes Propaganda Use Of Stolen Grow Diary

MOSCOW.—(P)—The Soviet press has started to make fullest use of the secretly photographed diary of Maj. Gen. Robert W. Grow, former U. S. military attache in Moscow, to drive home Soviet charges that the United States plans war.

Two leading publications—the Communist Party newspaper Pravda and the magazine Bolshevik—discussed the general's diary following publication of excerpts by the Literary Gazette.

Grow's diary had comments favoring immediate war against Russia, discussed possible bombing targets and said every method of fighting should be used. It was quoted and partly reproduced by photographs in a book written in East Germany by Richard Squires, identified here as a former British officer.

U. S. Army officials have admitted the authenticity of the published excerpts from the diary. They said apparently a Red agent stole it, had it photographed and replaced it while Grow was attending a U. S. Army meeting in Frankfurt, Germany, last Summer. The general since has been recalled from Moscow.

Officers Get Help From Businessman, Capture Burglars

A Midland businessman and a couple of police officers joined forces Sunday afternoon to apprehend a pair of burglars.

Ray Gwyn, operator of a printing and office supply company, was sitting in his office at 110 South Baird Street about 2 p.m. Sunday, when he saw a man crawling through the window of the nearby Hays Motor Service Company.

He notified police but before Officers Johnny Davis and B. G. Greer arrived, the intruder came back out and hurried away with another man.

Gwyn pointed them out and the two officers caught them a few minutes later after a foot race down the alley.

The two men were being held Monday, awaiting filing of breaking and entering charges.

Nothing was reported missing from the motor company.

Long Horn Defenders Claim Battle Tide Turned In Atomic Attack On Aggressors

FORT HOOD.—(P)—Defending forces claimed air superiority in the Long Horn maneuvers Monday after a surprise mock A-bomb attack on "aggressor" air bases in South Texas.

The attack weapons, officials said, were simulated tactical atom bombs xxx destructive but not ungovernable.

Commanders of the defying forces said the attack turned tide of battle in the sixth day.

Without warning Sunday, planes of the Ninth Air Force made the mock atomic strike on Alice and Laredo, in South Texas. It caught numerous "enemy" aircraft on the ground, denied the invader bases of operation, and completely disrupted his command structure, the communiqué said.

Complete details of the tactical employment of the simulated A-bomb and the method of delivery were not announced.

However, Major Gen. E. J. Timberlake, commanding general of the Eighth Air Force and deputy maneuver director for Long Horn, emphasized that the weapons devastation could be controlled to a considerable extent.

"Given a real situation," he said "it would have been quite possible with careful pre-planning and with adequate forecasting to the public, to have delivered tactical atom bombs that would have pulverized the enemy air potential in this theater without loss of life to our citizens living in the same time as the target. At the same time we would have been kept to a minimum of damage."

"The tactical atom bomb is destructive but not ungovernable. Using proper techniques we can predict the range of destruction and safely control its use," he said.

EVEN LOOKING'S MORE EXPENSIVE

LONDON.—(P)—The price of admission to the statey homes of England went up a few pennies Monday. The lords and ladies say times are getting tougher.

Rising costs were blamed for a new boom in prices for the chance to see what Britain's great used to live in. The annual open house season begins Tuesday and a full run of big houses will be available again on a pay-and-look basis, all corners welcome.

The new prices—up seven cents usually—average about 35 cents a visit. And there'll be no free tea.

The way things have been in Britain these last few years, many baronial halls and manor houses had to be put on exhibition to help pay the bills. Present occupants generally live in one or two small wings of the great establishments.

French Drive Reds From Delta Sector

SAIGON, INDOCHINA.—(P)—The French Army claims 273 Vietminh troops killed and 106 captured in a four-day drive to rout five battalions of Communist rebels from Delta rice lands southeast of Hanoi.

The Red concentrations, behind a ring of fortified villages about 50 miles from the North Indochina's chief city, were described as the core of Rebel forces trying to gain a foothold within French-held territory.

The Army said it cleared 125 square miles of rich territory, restored almost 70 miles of roads damaged by the Reds and replaced four blown bridges.

Three White Men Charged In Traffic Death Of Negroes

DELAND, FLA.—(P)—Three white men were jailed here Sunday and accused of deliberately causing an automobile wreck in which four negroes were killed.

State Highway Patrolman Jim Tapscott testified at a coroner's inquest that evidence indicated a car driven by Ronald Smith, 21, of Deland, ran the negroes' car off the road before it crashed into a tree.

Smith was charged with culpable negligence while intoxicated in the deaths. Donald Harper, 23, of Palatka and Charles Monk, 18, of Forest, Miss., were charged as accessories. They were passengers in the Smith car. Bond was set at $1,000 each.

Smith, Harper and Monk said at the inquest that the negroes' car sideswiped them earlier. They testified they gave chase to stop the negroes' car but denied running it off the road.

Two Priests Hold Youthful Burglar

SAN ANTONIO.—(P)—Two priests held an 18-year-old "worshipper" at gunpoint here until police arrived.

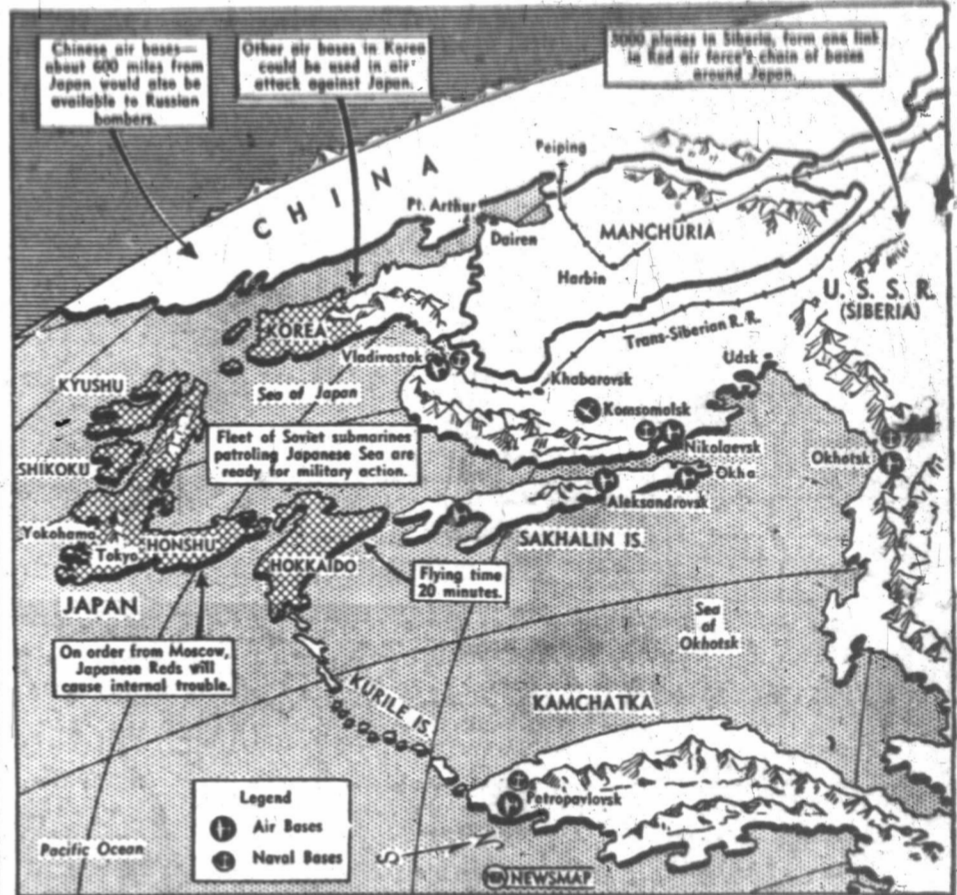

The Rev. Allen Black, associate pastor of St. Henry's Catholic Church, and Msgr. James T. Lockwood, the pastor were struck by the oddity of a man "praying" at the poor box in their church.

Then they noticed he had a 30-inch crowbar under his shirt.

A companion of the 18-year-old youth fled before the priests could search him.

Father Black said the church had been robbed several times recently.

HOW RUSSIA THREATENS JAPAN—Newsmap above shows precarious position of Japan with Communist air power surrounding her. According to Gen. Matthew Ridgway, Russia has just completed building a fast-striking military force in Siberia which could be used against Japan at any time. In addition to this military threat from abroad, Japanese Communists are trying to take-over labor unions, media of communications, and are forming cells advocating violence. This is the same pattern used by the Chinese Reds in their victory in China, Ridgway said. U. S. troops would stay in Japan after a peace treaty to oppose such Soviet Ambitions.
