Sinclair Wildcat Extends Field In SW Midland Area

Pennsylvanian producing limits of the Pegasus-multipay field of Southwest Midland County have been extended one and one-half miles northeast with the completion of Sinclair Oil & Gas Company No. 7 June Tippet, wildcat in section 8, block 40, T-4-S, T&P survey. Operator reported a daily flowing potential of 145 barrels of 45.9-gravity oil through open two-inch tubing and from perforations at 10,395-10,455 feet. The formation had been acidized through that set of perforations. Gas-oil ratio was 1,423-1. Location is 660 feet from south and 1,890 feet from west lines of section 8, block 40, T-4-S, T&P survey. It is one-half mile north of Sinclair No. 3-C Sanders, recently completed Ellenburger discovery. It also is approximately one mile northwest of Superior Oil Company No. 6-16 Windham, wildcat which is now bottomed at 12,397 feet taking a drillstem test in an unidentified line with packer set at 12,124 feet.

Grisham To Finish Culberson Wildcat As Gas Producer

M. A. Grisham and associates are to complete their No. 1 Grisham fee, Central-East Culberson County gas discovery from the pay it has already drilled.

Informed sources report that a contract has been signed with a gas company—presumably El Paso Natural Gas Company—for an immediate outlet to be provided for the gas.

Top Of Pay Picked
The project is still bottomed at 9,654 feet in an unidentified formation. A string of 7-inch casing has been cemented at 9,630 feet, which point is being called the top of the pay.

The plug from that casing is to be drilled out and the well tested and completed without drilling it any deeper.

It has shown sweet, inflammable gas at the estimated rate of 40,000-50,000 cubic feet per day in a drillstem test about two weeks ago at 9,630-54 feet. No fluid was developed from that zone.

Some Estimates Higher
Some observers estimate the well is capable of making up to 60,000,000 cubic feet of gas per day.

El Paso Natural has a large gas moving pipe line about 25 miles north of the Grisham discovery.

Location is 660 feet from south and west lines of section 10 block 60, T-5, T&P survey. It is 30 miles north of Kent and 30 miles northwest of Tufah.

Some geologists think the project is in the Devonian. Others hold the idea that it is in the Mississippian and still others think that the gas is coming from a Pennsylvanian zone.

Sinclair Is To Drill Ellenburger Wildcat In NW Glasscock

Sinclair Oil & Gas Company No. 1 G. T. Hall is to be a wildcat to 10,900 feet to explore the Ellenburger in Northwest Glasscock County. Drilling is to start shortly. Location is 1,980 feet from north and 660 feet from west lines of section 6, block 34, T-2-S, T&P survey.

That puts it eight miles southeast of Stanton and 16 miles northwest of Garden City. The prospector is to be 10 1/2 miles east of the Germania-Sparberry field of Northeast Midland County.

Phillips Wildcat In Andrews Has 120 Feet Of Pay

Phillips Petroleum Company has proven 120 feet of pay in the Ellenburger in its No. 1-EE Texas University, Southwest Andrews County wildcat, and is preparing to drill deeper.

The top of the Ellenburger pay is at 10,655 feet, which is the top of the Ellenburger formation.

The zone from 10,655 feet to 10,715 feet developed large amounts of free oil on drillstem test, but no oil flowed out at the surface while the test tool was open in that section.

Latest Test
The zone at 10,750-785 feet was the latest tested. It flowed to tanks for one hour during a four-hour and 30 minute drillstem test and made 66.4 barrels of 55 gravity oil during that period.

Stalin Says World War Not Near

Russian Chief Sends Replies To Questions

NEW YORK—(AP)—Prime Minister Stalin said Tuesday a third world war is no closer now than it was two or three years ago—that is, before the Korean outbreak. The Soviet leader sent this message to a group of U. S. newspaper and radio editors who had solicited his views. The answer was another in a series of statements that have come from the Kremlin in response to requests from the West. Some U. S. officials say Stalin answers such queries when the action fits Russian propaganda aims.

Jury Finds Actor Willie Sutton Guilty

NEW YORK—(AP)—Master criminal Willie (The Actor) Sutton was convicted Tuesday of staging a $64,000 bank holdup while he was the nation's most-sought fugitive.

An all-male jury returned guilty verdicts after more than nine hours of deliberations against Sutton and his key henchman, Thomas (Scup) King.

Queens County Judge Peter T. Farrell remanded the pair to jail for sentencing. No date was set.

Sutton, 51, and King, 45, were charged with holding up the Sunnyside Branch of the Manufacturers Trust Company in Queens on March 9, 1950.

Sutton, for five years the nation's most sought bank robber and jail breaker, was arrested in Brooklyn last February 18 after a young clothing salesman spotted him on a subway train and pointed him out to police.

The salesman, 24-year-old Arnold Schuster, was shot and killed outside his Brooklyn home last March 8. Police still are seeking the slayer.

For Sutton, the jury's verdict was academic. When arrested, he pleaded guilty to the illegal possession of a gun. It was his fourth felony, and under New York state law, a fourth offender faces life imprisonment.

Big Spring Man's Death Ruled Murder

HOT SPRINGS, ARK.—(AP)—The death of a 66-year-old stablehand at Oklawaha Park has been ruled murder.

Garland County Coroner Allyn Power Monday night said Clyde Bailey of Big Spring, Texas, who died last Thursday, suffered "a terrific blow behind the left ear."

Power said the probable motive was robbery. Power said police have no clues.

April Fool! You Still Can Buy Auto Licenses Tuesday

County Tax Assessor-Collector J. M. Speed had a delightful little April Fool joke Tuesday for a lot of motorists.

"They still can buy their 1952 automobile license tags without paying the 20 per cent penalty."

Although Monday had been hailed as the final day for beating the penalty, Speed said Tuesday morning that the motorists, who have delayed this long, still have one more day. "Monday was the last day," he explained, "but this is absolutely the last day. The penalty goes on after midnight tonight."

Wary deputies in his office took care of the last customer at 11:50 p.m. Monday and then closed shop for the night.

A brisk business still was being done Tuesday morning. Speed said approximately 11,000 passenger plates had been sold and that other types of plates probably will send the total number to approximately 14,000.

Loyal Democrats Tag Shivers 'Secret Nominee Of Dixiecrats' For President

By DAVE CHEAVENS
AUSTIN—(AP)—Fagan Dickson, executive secretary of the "Loyal Democrat" organization, Tuesday called Governor Shivers the "secret candidate of the Dixiecrats" for President.

Dickson issued a written statement saying Shivers' comment on President Truman's withdrawal as the Democratic candidate "conceals a treacherous design to betray" the party.

Dickson said he was joined in the statement by Walter G. Hall of League City, chairman of the "Loyal Democrat" group, which was organized for the avowed purpose of making sure the party in Texas supports the national convention nominee.

Queen Juliana of the Netherlands

Dutch Queen Takes Off For U. S. Visit

SCHIPHOL AIRPORT, AMSTERDAM—(AP)—Queen Juliana of the Netherlands—cheered by thousands of her subject—left by plane Tuesday for a month's visit to the United States and Canada.

The 43-year-old monarch's four-engine Constellation left the sunny, snow-patched airfield just before noon. The queen is due in Washington.

The queen will be the first guest of President and Mrs. Truman in the rebuilt White House.

Her program in the capital includes a speech to Congress, visits to Mount Vernon and Arlington National Cemetery, three receptions and two state dinners—one given her by the President, the other her bread-and-butter party for the Truman's.

After three weeks in the United States, Juliana is to spend a week's private visit in Canada, where Princess Margaret—the third of her four daughters—was born during the Dutch royal family's wartime exile.

The queen will get back to her own land of dikes and tulips just in time for the April 30 national holiday celebrating her forty-third birthday.

WASHINGTON—(AP)—A transcript of Attorney General McGrath's statement that he didn't know whether he would answer a questionnaire about his personal income was turned over to the White House Tuesday.

Representative Chief (D-Ky) told reporters the White House had asked for it.

Morris-McGrath Wrangle Dumped Into Truman's Lap

McGrath Monday told the House Judiciary Committee, which Chief heads, he wasn't sure whether he would answer the questionnaire submitted by Newbold Morris.

Morris is the man President Truman named to investigate corruption in Washington. He was named on McGrath's recommendation.

But McGrath, in his testimony Monday, said if he had to do it all over again, he wouldn't choose Morris.

Chief said he acted on request from the White House. He added that the request was telephoned to him Tuesday by President Truman's counsel, Charles Murphy.

Tuesday is the deadline for the Justice Department to tell Morris the names and home addresses of its top officials receiving forms for reporting to him their out-of-government sources of income.

Representative Keating (R-NY), a member of the House inquiry committee, said in a radio broadcast Monday night, "Somebody will have to yield to one side or the other—there may be some resignations in the offing."

Keating recalled that Morris had said he would ask the President to order the dismissal of anyone who refused to fill out the questionnaires. And if the President failed to back him up, Morris said he would quit.

Atomic Flash Sets Off New Nevada Tests

LAS VEGAS, NEV.—(AP)—A flash of fire, clearly visible in the bright daylight, signaled the start of a new series of atomic tests Tuesday.

The blast was timed at 11 a.m. (CST) and apparently was an aerial burst, although its elevation could not be determined by observers here.

The test ground is at Yucca Flat, in a wide desert flatland 80 miles or so northwest of this Southern Nevada city.

A reddish orange sheet of flame against the horizon was visible from Las Vegas.

There was no shock or sound noted immediately in Las Vegas.

A faint, grey cloud of the typical mushroom shape associated with atomic detonations rose into the sky.

But as viewed from Las Vegas it dissipated quickly against a haze over the flats of the test area.

This time there was no brilliant color display visible here, as in some previous blasts.

There was little excitement in Las Vegas, the gambling resort town which has become blasé about atomic explosions. A handful of persons in the streets idly waited for the blast. A few watched from rooftops.

The Las Vegas Review Journal had only one telephone call—a request about the expected time of the explosion.

Another Summery Day For Midland With Dust, Wind

Midland had another summery day Tuesday but weather observers promised more sand Tuesday afternoon with wind gusts up to 35 miles per hour. The velocity was expected to drop to 15 mph about 5 p.m.

Mostly clear skies prevailed over Texas. The Associated Press reported that noon Tuesday. The mid weather followed drenching rains in some South Texas spots Monday. Galveston had four inches of rain.

The mercury climbed to 84 degrees in Midland Monday, CAA observers reported. The minimum was 53. Little change in temperature was anticipated.

Four Major Firms Trim Coffee Prices

NEW YORK—(AP)—At least four major coffee roasting firms have trimmed their prices of vacuum-packed coffee by one to one and one-half cents a pound.

The companies are General Foods Corporation, Standard Brands, Inc., Savarin Coffee Company and J. A. Folger Company.

EARLY MORNING VOTER—Mrs. James G. Noland, 3123 Delano Street, was out early Tuesday to cast her vote in the municipal election. The wife of a Midland attorney is shown voting at the Youth Center shortly after the polls opened at 8 a.m.

Heavy Vote Seen In City Election

Midland voters began turning out in record-breaking numbers Tuesday to select two members of the City Council.

The total votes neared the 400 mark at 11 a.m. and election officials predicted the 1,000 mark would be passed by the time the expected heavy noontime rush subsided.

High interest in one of the council races, as well as the distribution of the voting into four precincts for the first time in a city election, was given credit for the heavy turnout.

There was no early indication of the voting trend in any of the boxes and election workers were not scheduled to begin counting until late in the day.

Holding top interest in the balloting was the race for Place No. 4 on the City Council with four candidates—L. M. Freels, Ray O. Howard, Don Oliver and J. C. Williamson—seeking the post.

In the Place No. 5 voting, J. T. Baker was unopposed.

New Ace Emerges As 10 MIG's Go Down

SEOUL, KOREA—(AP)—U. S. Sabre pilots Tuesday shot down 10 Communist MIG-15 fighter planes, the second highest bag for any day in the Korean war.

The U. S. Fifth Air Force said they also probably destroyed three other MIG's and damaged 10.

The greatest number of MIG's destroyed in one day in the Korean war was 13 last December 13. Fifth Air Force Sabres destroyed 10 MIG's last January 25 but that day they scored only one probable and three damaged.

In one of Tuesday's separate battles, Col. Francis S. Gabreski, of Oil City, Pa., commander of the 51st Fighter Interceptor Wing, became the eighth U. S. jet ace by shooting down a MIG in an ambush. It raised his total for the Korean fighting to five and one-half MIG's. Five kills make an ace.

Four Persons Die When Hotel Burns

SAN FRANCISCO—(AP)—Four persons died as flames roared through a four-story residential hotel in one of San Francisco's older districts early Tuesday.

More than a dozen, mostly old age pensioners, were injured.

The statement said the Texas governor never has answered the question of whether or not he will support the national party's nominee, adding:

"The reason he won't answer this is because he wants to leave the door open so that he can walk out of the Democratic National Convention and become the Dixiecrat candidate for President. The reason he wants an uninstruced delegation is because he does not want to have to stay in the Democratic National Convention and vote for any candidate. When the platform is brought in he wants to be free to leave and later vote for himself."

James L. Wick, Miles (Ohio) Publisher, Announces Tuesday's Exchange, as follows:

Q. Is a third world war closer now than two or three years ago?
A. No, it is not.

Q. Would a meeting of the heads of the great powers be useful?
A. Possibly it would be useful.

Q. Do you consider the present moment opportune for the unification of Germany?
A. Yes, I do.

Q. On what basis is co-existence of capitalism and communism possible?
A. Peaceful co-existence of capitalism and communism is quite possible if there is a mutual desire for cooperation. If there is a readiness to fulfill the undertaken obligations, if there is observance of the principle of equality and no interference in the internal affairs of the other states.

Q. Wick was one of 19 editors who returned by plane Tuesday from a one-month fact-finding tour of Europe. He said the editors telegraphed the questions to Stalin from Rome several weeks ago.

Q. Wick said two Russians brought the answers and identified themselves as S. K. Tsaryan, alternate Soviet Russian representative to the United Nations, and A. K. Starostin, second secretary to the delegation.

Rain-Seekers Pick Leaders

LAMESA—The West Texas Weather Improvement Association was organized officially here Monday night with A. L. Muldrow of Brownfield becoming president. Parson Ekols of Lamesa had been temporary president.

Other temporary officers assumed permanent roles. They are R. C. Anderson of Lamesa, vice president; Joe McDaniel of Loop, secretary, and Doyle Hankins of Lamesa, treasurer.

The officers were authorized to select a manager and set up district offices expected to be in Lamesa. The offices should be functioning by May 1. A state charter has been granted.

Midland County was the only one of 11 in the association which reported its share of the annual payment of $60,000 to Dr. Irving Erick's rain-inducing company had not been raised. B. T. Graham of Midland said only $1,300 had been obtained but that larger portions were due to send in checks soon.

The association made its initial quarterly payment of $1,000 to Erick. Lee Cox and Col. T. R. Gillenwater, representatives of the Denver firm, told the Monday meeting of planned operations with more than a dozen silver iodide generators at widely separated points.

Steel Wage Talks Still Are Pending

NEW YORK —(P)—Union leaders waited Tuesday for steel industry officials to signal the start of new wage talks to avert a steel strike threatened for April 8.

Negotiations were to have started Monday. They were postponed at the last minute at the request of the steel company officials, who said they hoped to be ready Tuesday to meet with delegates of the CIO United Steelworkers.

John A. Stephens, vice president of the United States Steel Corporation, announced the postponement Monday. He said the talks had been delayed "temporarily pending further developments."

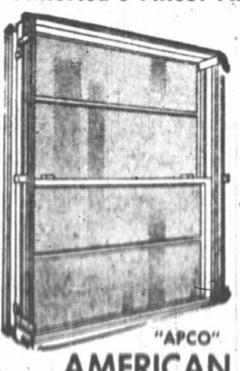

Stephens declined to elaborate. One report was that the industry representatives were reexamining their position following the sudden resignation over the weekend of Defense Mobilizer Charles E. Wilson.

Bing Almost Certain To Be On TV Screens This Fall

By ERKINE JOHNSON
NEA Staff Correspondent

HOLLYWOOD — Hollywood on TV: It's a closely guarded secret, but Bing Crosby already has faced the TV movie camera.

A TV screen test of Bing's singing and clowning, written by Sid Silvers, was shot behind closed doors by Bing's own TV production company. It adds up to an almost certain bet that Bing will have his own video show in the fall.

CBS-TV is plotting a video version of Lucille Ball's one-time radio hit, "My Favorite Husband." Martha Stewart has been in huddles with Harry Ackerman, coast CBS boss, over playing "Lucy's" role.

Private Kills Officer As 'Way To Get Out Of Army'

LAMPASAS —(P)—A 19-year-old private shot a young officer to death as a way out of the Army Monday while bewildered onlookers sat motionless.

Officers Tuesday were attempting to decide whether military or civilian authorities should make charges in the case.

District Attorney James K. Everts of Belton quoted Pvt. Michael F. Kunak of Baltimore, Md., as saying, "I decided the best way to get out of the Army was to kill a man."

Everts said Kunak made an oral statement to him, other officers and to the presence of a newspaper reporter regarding the fatal shooting of Second Lt. Howard Williamson, about 22, of Washington, N. C.

Williamson was shot in a Long Horn maneuvers bivouac. Witnesses said a young soldier walked into the officers' mess tent of the 82nd Airborne Division Signal Company, leveled a .30 caliber carbine at Williamson and fired.

Home-Made Bullet

Then the soldier told startled officers, "I don't have any more ammunition."

Everts said Kunak told of numerous attempts to get an Army discharge. "I had nothing against the man," Everts quoted Kunak as saying. "There's nothing straight in my mind. I know I was wrong."

Maurice Chevalier may be on the parlor screens in the fall in a series of musical shorts. Fred Frinklehoff and Arthur Leser are putting the deal together for filming in Paris.

Sally Rand says she's ready to shelve her ostrich feathers if she can land a TV mistress-of-ceremonies job. Broderick Crawford quietly snagged his TV rights from Columbia studio—one of the few top stars free as a bird in video. Nina Bara, who plays a heroine in a space-ship show, says she's called off an announced trek to the altar.

Says Nina: "I'm a space widow."

Alice Fay won't join Phil Harris on TV in the fall. Says she'll rest on her radio laurels. "First 'Buffalo Bill' telefilm, starring Jimmy Ellison, will be directed by Lewis Collins, the big screen veteran. A dozen TV film shorts, plugging Eisenhower for prez, will be filmed in Hollywood.

The television gold is stacked for the taking if Harpo Marx will become a talking comedian and babbie like brother Groucho, but the silent, horn-squeaking, poodle-wigged member of the mad Marx tribe is still saying:

"There's no sense to it. I've built up an illusion. Why break it now?"

As a voiceless comic, Harpo's in the second lap of a five-year contract with NBC-TV to do six guest shots annually, plus six walk-ons. He earned over $100,000 in 1951 for his pantomime sanyiam and harp-twangling.

"One appearance on Donald O'Connor's show," said Harpo at the Last Frontier in Las Vegas, "brought me more mail than all my years on the stage and in 18 Hollywood movies."

New Definition Of TV

Bill Baldwin's definition of TV as reported by Jack Heilman: "Two puppets dressed as cowboys wrestling on rebuilt sewing machines in the middle of an old movie."

Lloyd Nolan is unhappy with his sponsor's refusal to film the "Martin Kane, Private Eye" show. His contract permits him to do other TV stints, provided they are not in the "whodunit" pattern, but the pressure of doing the Kane show live prevents him from collecting extra checks.

NBC will soon make the official announcement that Fred Allen will be the star of a mammoth audience-participation show on the TV channels.

The idea, it can be told, was bitterly opposed by the baggy-eyed comedian at first, but he finally was convinced that Groucho Marx is at a high peak in his comedy career as chief dispenser of acid on "You Bet Your Life" and that Fred's radio brand of humor has so far failed to click with home audiences.

Fred talked with Groucho while making "We're Not Married" for Fox in Hollywood recently, studied Groucho's quiz-master technique and decided to take the plunge.

The show will be filmed in New York for better editing and censorship of Fred's barbs.

Jury Indicts Six In Reno Burglary

LAS VEGAS, NEV. —(P)—Federal indictments have been returned against six persons accused in the $150,000 burglary at the home of a Reno millionaire last month.

The grand jury charged all six with transporting stolen property across state lines. They are Jeanne d'Arc Michaud, Bentley H. Robinson, Leona Rogers, Andrew Robert Young, John Triffel and Frank Joseph Sorrenti, Jr.

Ball will be set at $50,000 each.

"Auld Lang Syne" was Andrew Jackson's favorite song.

THE MIDLAND REPORTER-TELEGRAM, TUESDAY, APRIL 1, 1952-3

Famous Opera Star To Present Concert

Blanche Thebom, mezzo-soprano of the Metropolitan Opera, will appear at 8:30 p.m. Thursday in the Midland High School Auditorium.

Her performance is sponsored by the Midland Civic Music Association. Miss Thebom, now on her tenth consecutive concert tour, recently was seen in the movie "The Great Caruso."

Her eighth season at the Metropolitan will be marked by her bow in two roles: Dorabella in the new production of Mozart's "Così Fan Tutte" and Prince Orlovsky in "Fledermaus." In addition, Metropolitan audiences will see her in both Wagnerian and Italian roles, including Amneris in "Aida," the Princess of Eboli in "Don Carlo" and Waltraute in "Die Gotterdammerung."

Miss Thebom began her current season in San Francisco where she appeared in the title role of Bizet's "Carmen" and also was seen for the first time as Octavian in "Rosenkavalier." Four performances on the Telephone Hour, several television programs and an engagement as soloist with the Bach Aria Group of New York, round out the singer's crowded schedule.

Miss Thebom has made an extensive series of recordings, the most recent of which is "Fireside Favorites," an album of familiar semi-classical songs.

A steel-worker's daughter from Canton, Ohio, the mezzo abandoned a secretarial career for the operatic stage. Her 1944 Metropolitan debut as Fricka in "Die Walkure" was hailed by the New York Herald-Tribune as "the most remarkable first appearance in 17 seasons."

'Womanhood' To Be Convention Topic

"An Informal and Responsible Womanhood" is the theme of the thirty-first annual convention of the Seventh District, Texas Federation of Women's Clubs, to be held April 17, 18 and 19 in Borger.

Mrs. Bryan Edwards of Lubbock is convention program chairman and Mrs. Robert Lindsey of Borger is the general chairman of the convention.

Fluid Political Front

President Truman's "I will not run" statement Saturday night came as quite a surprise to almost everyone, with the exception of Mrs. Truman, daughter Margaret, and a few others.

The politicos, caught flat-footed by the startling statement, have been sounding-off in a furious manner ever since, trying to catch-up with the fast-moving events of this important election year.

Almost everyone who rates or who would like to rate in national politics has issued at least one statement concerning the President's announcement and its possible effect on national and international affairs. The press association wires have been hard pressed to handle all the subsequent statements which have been uttered—or muttered, in some instances.

General Eisenhower's comment, "I haven't had time to read the papers yet," was one of the briefest statements. Most statements have been somewhat lengthy and involved.

The statement of Gov. Allan Shivers that Trumanism still is the issue and the President's withdrawal hasn't settled differences within the party, perhaps is among the soundest.

The governor stands firm in his belief that Texas should send an uncommitted delegation to the Democratic national convention, and maintains that Texas Democrats have a right to review which candidate the national convention picks and what its platform is.

"The issues boil down to whether we are going to have a candidate and a platform that will continue Truman policies, or whether we are going to get a candidate and a platform that will carry out at least some of the desires of the people of Texas and elsewhere," the governor declared.

We are in accord with Governor Shivers in his desire to see who the national candidate is and what he stands for before taking a party loyalty pledge. We also go along with the governor in his statement that Southern Democrats must not relax.

Shivers stated further he would not accept the nomination for vice president, but is interested in getting good candidates. We think Shivers readily could qualify as a "good candidate."

We have no way of knowing right now who will wind up with the nomination, but one thing is for sure—Truman's statement leaves the Democratic choice wide open.

The Democrats have the opportunity now of really cleaning house by nominating a candidate unalterably and unequivocally opposed to Truman policies. It is hoped they will do just that.

In the meantime, we are in accord with many Southern Democrats in that the title "Ex-President" will become Mr. Truman.

No Comfort In The Crystal Ball

The Washington Merry-Go-Round

By Drew Pearson

(Copyright, 1952, by The Bell Syndicate, Inc.) Drew Pearson says: Matt Connelly injects politics into Korean Truce; Lobbyists coach Senate debate on Tidelands oil; Senator Taft's son worked for ECA.

WASHINGTON—The job of White House Secretary Matt Connelly, is solely to arrange presidential appointments. He has to decide who should see the President, who should see him and for how long his duties end there.

The President has Cabinet members to decide such policy matters as foreign affairs and the question of peace or war. These never have come under the jurisdiction of a White House appointment secretary in any other period of American history.

All this was why the joint chiefs of staff rubbed their eyes, with amazement when Matt Connelly injected politics into the question of a truce in Korea.

Connelly's advice came in the form of a handwritten note which read: "I wish to God this thing wouldn't drag out until November in the interest of the party."

He signed the note simply "Matt" and attached it to a sheaf of secret papers sent from the White House to the Pentagon.

This is the first time anyone has placed a frank political label on the Korean peace talks in writing—although hints of politics came when Democratic Chairman Frank McKinney indicated that if peace came in Korea, the President would not run.

Following this statement, Secretary of State Acheson telephoned the President at Key West and expressed concern that McKinney's statement would give the Communists the cue to hold out for further concessions. Acheson had been talking to Secretary of Defense Lovett and said both were concerned. Acheson didn't say so, but in the State Department it was felt that the McKinney statement was almost equivalent to letting the Chinese select the next President of the United States.

This was the reason for the President's quick denial next day. About this time General Ridgway was quite upset over a truce concession suggested by Washington which eliminated Pyongyang, the North Korean Capital, as a port of entry for truce negotiation teams. Pyongyang is the hubcap of the Communist operation in North Korea and Ridgway wanted it opened to neutral observers during the armistice.

Washington at first ruled otherwise, but now it looks as if Ridgway was quite upset over a truce concession suggested by Washington which eliminated Pyongyang, the North Korean Capital, as a port of entry for truce negotiation teams.

Once before, during the Hoover Administration, Senator Hiram Bingham of Connecticut, Republican, allowed a lobbyist for the Connecticut Manufacturers Association to sit in on secret Tariff Committee hearings. As a result Bingham officially was reprimanded by a vote of the entire Senate and later defeated for reelection. Today Senate ethical standards appear to have sunk to a lower level than in 1930. Although Senator Taft has been a consistent critic of the Marshall Plan, aid to Europe and has voted against many of these appropriations, most people don't know that one of his sons appears to disagree with him. At least, he has been accepting a salary from the funds which his father voted against.

The son is William Howard Taft, III, named for the late President of the United States, who went to work for ECA—the Marshall Plan—on Sept. 7, 1948, at a salary of $7,000 and was boosted up to $9,000 by Aug. 25, 1951, when he left. During his almost three years of service with the ECA, young Taft was assigned to one job—chief of the industry and tourism office in Dublin, Ireland. His duties were to stimulate industry and tourist trade in Southern Ireland, and since there is little industry in Southern Ireland Taft's main duties were devoted to the tourist trade.

Jacoby On Bridge

By OSWALD JACOBY, Writer for NEA Service

Don't try to make much sense out of the bidding in today's hand. The hand was played in a rubber bridge tournament many years ago by my friend and associate Alfred Sheinwald. He needed a slam to beat his opponents on the last hand of the match. Bidding the hand normally would get him nowhere, so he just bid the slam.

West opened the king of diamonds and Sheinwald won with the ace. He immediately finessed dummy's queen of hearts, discarded a club on the ace of hearts, and ruffed a low heart with the ace of spades. Even if the hearts had broken 3-3 declarer would have had only elev-

West naturally played the four of spades, and dummy's eight was finessed to win the trick. This allowed declarer to ruff another heart with the king of spades and still get back to dummy on the third round of spades with the jack of spades to run the rest of the hearts.

All of these shenanigans impressed West vastly. Forgetting that South was obliged to bid a slam or give up meekly, West decided that declarer must have the ace-queen of clubs for his hold bid. West could see that dummy would soon get down to only three cards: one diamond and two clubs. He feared that he would be thrust

THE STORY: George Kendall, a new hand in the profession of being a private detective, is going broke at it when Albert P. Sutworth appears at his office and asks him to protect his daughter from an "unscrupulous fortune hunter."

GEORGE KENDALL was still clouded with confusion. "Let's start over again, Mr. Sutworth, but slow. Real slow. This Chief Big Bear for instance. What is he—an Indian?"

"He's no more an Indian than I am. I tell you, Mr. Kendall, if I were about 30 years younger I'd cut this Unhorn four-flusher in two." His face was red and his lips had begun to tremble.

Kendall was puzzled. He leaned across the desk and scratched his head. "Mr. Sutworth, this is still nothing but a hodge-podge to me. Let's try to put the pieces together."

The old man mopped his brow with a handkerchief. "You'll have to excuse me for being a little excited, but I'm afraid this thing is getting the best of me. You see, the name 'Sutworth' has always represented considerable standing in the community. My daughter will some day inherit this standing."

"And this Chief Big Bear—Kendall started. "Yes, Chief Big Bear has designs of his own. Much as it hurts me, Mr. Kendall, I'm forced to admit that my daughter, Marilyn, is probably the most spoiled, pampered, unpredictable brat anywhere in the city of New York."

Kendall shook his head. He was beginning to appreciate the seriousness of Mr. Sutworth's problem. "She's had everything," the old man continued, "and that's her trouble. She went to finishing school, was Phi Beta Kappa in college, but she still prefers blue jeans and juke boxes to formal and Beethoven. And her taste in men—Mr. Kendall, it's absurd."

"Sounds like quite a girl," Kendall commented. "You have utterly no conception. First, there was a saxophone player with buck teeth, and then a bald-headed lumberjack, and after him, a Portuguese track star. Now, this Chief Big Bear."

"Well," Kendall said, suppressing a grin, "you have to admit she likes variety." The old man pounded his fist on the desk. "It's no joking matter, and I'm sure you didn't come here to be amused."

Kendall felt his face flush. He straightened up. "Yes, of course," he said soberly. "I want you to break up this romance, and furthermore," he said, waving his finger in George Kendall's face, "I don't give a dang what methods you use. Spank her, do anything you please, but this four-flusher has to be stopped now before it's too late."

THE case looked like an uncomplicated one and George was pleased. He smiled. "I'm sure we can handle the situation, Mr. Sutworth," and, he said, "with gratifying results for all concerned."

"Money is no obstacle," the old man said, drawing out a check-book. "However, you'll be paid according to my terms." Kendall's resentment flared, but only momentarily. "I'll pay you $500 a day plus expenses. Till write you a check for 500 dollars as a retainer. Is that satisfactory?"

Kendall studied the picture and was filled with disappointment. His chin dropped perceptibly. Marilyn was a sure thing and if there was anything attractive about her, it was well-hidden. The girl in the picture wore jeans and a man's dress shirt with the tails hanging outside the jeans. She had piggy eyes, wore glasses, and had a dream of chasing after Mr. Sutworth's beautiful, voluptuous daughter met a sudden and hasty death. He mustered a smile. "Charming."

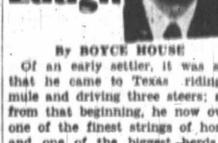

"That remains to be seen," Mr. Sutworth returned the wallet and checkbook to his pocket and withdrew a letter. "I received this letter earlier this week. Read it."

Kendall opened the envelope. The handwriting was of a jerky, backhand style.

Dear Papa: Your black-sheep daughter has once again been pleased by Cupid's arrow, and this time it's the real thing. His name is Chief Big Bear and he is looking anxiously forward to meeting you. He hasn't asked me to marry him yet, but I expect him to pop the question most any day. Please don't be angry with me and don't try to stop us. Hoping you can hop the next train down here to extend your blessings. I am, Your loving daughter, Marilyn.

1,300,000 Voters March To Polls In Nebraska, Wisconsin

By The Associated Press Something like 1,300,000 voters were trooping to the polls Tuesday in Nebraska and Wisconsin, with 48 Republican and 40 Democratic presidential nominating votes riding on the outcome.

In Wisconsin, observers looked for a record 1,000,000 votes. Interest, spurred by a hot three-way Republican race and President Truman's bow-out on the Democratic side, was at fever pitch.

Clear, crisp Nebraska weather was expected to draw perhaps 300,000 voters to a big, unwieldy ballot. Write-in drives by Republicans and a Kerr-Kavanaugh duel among Democrats were the features, plus nominations for governor, two senators and four representatives.

Contending for Wisconsin's 30 GOP presidential nominating delegates are Senator Robert Taft of Ohio, Gov. Earl Warren of California and former Gov. Harold Stassen of Minnesota. Senator Estes Kefauver of Tennessee seemed a shoo-in for the 28 Democratic delegates—two pro-Truman slates opposing him were left stranded when the President withdrew.

Wisconsin does not count write-in votes. Taft forces and backers of Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower grabbed the stage-center in Nebraska with a hotly-contested campaign for, write-in support. Only the names of Stassen and Mrs. Mary Kenny, who says she is a stand-in for Gen. Douglas MacArthur, are on the GOP ballot.

Sheriff Finds It Difficult To Convince Man Car Taken

A Midland automobile dealer finally was convinced Monday one of his automobiles had been stolen. But Sheriff Ed Darnell had to show him the motor number and explain to him that the two thieves were in jail after admitting the theft.

The two—one 15 and the other 16 years old—were arrested Sunday night at Fabens after a state highway patrolman spotted their automobile without license tags.

The youths, said Darnell, quickly admitted they had taken the car from a dealer in Midland.

The dealer said none of his cars had been stolen and stuck with his story until the motor number was produced.

Chief Deputy Sheriff Ed Edwards left for Fabens Monday night to return the pair to Midland.

Barkley Expected To Announce Soon

WASHINGTON—(AP)—Friends of Vice President Alben Barkley expected an expected nod from him Tuesday to push him into the scramble for the Democratic presidential nomination.

They looked for him to be in the race within a few days. "Now that President Truman has stepped aside, Mr. Barkley is the only man who can unite the various wings of the Democratic Party this fall," Senator Gillette (D-Iowa) told a reporter.

"He's the best vote-getter in the Democratic Party and he owes it to the party and to himself to make a formal announcement immediately," Gillette added.

Two veteran Democratic senators, Hoey of North Carolina and George of Georgia, predicted in separate interviews the 74-year-old Barkley will be in the presidential derby before the week ends.

And Senator Underwood, from Barkley's home State of Kentucky, said Barkley would "carry all the doubtful states" and assure continued Democratic control of the House and Senate.

Hoey said he has no inside information but is confident Barkley will "announce his candidacy this week."

George, who is backing his Georgia colleague, Senator Russell, for the nomination, said Barkley must seek the presidential nomination, even if he is only shooting for another term as vice president.

All congressmen and party leaders apparently have accepted at face value Truman's dramatic weekend announcement that he will not run for reelection.

Most of them also appeared confident Truman would not attempt to name his successor, leaving that to the Democratic National Convention in July.

Technically it won Senate approval Monday, after some confusing parliamentary maneuvers, as a rider to a multi-million-dollar "cost-of-living" pay boost for the more than 3,500,000 persons in the uniformed services.

The entire measure now goes to the House, which on January 15 approved a much more liberal pay boost for the services. The House took no action on combat pay.

The House measure would boost by 10 per cent the base pay and allowances for food and rental of everybody from privates and recruits to top generals and admirals.

The Senate bill would hold the base pay increase to three per cent, and deal with allowances on a dollar basis rather than by percentages. The average increase in total military pay under the Senate bill is 5.6 per cent.

The bill carries living cost increases for the four regular fighting forces—Army, Air Force, Navy and Marines—and four other uniformed services—the Coast Guard, Coast and Geodetic Survey, Public Health Service and Maritime Service.

Purse-Snatcher Has Little Time To Spend Money

A 16-year-old negro purse-snatcher had little chance Monday night to spend his $2.50 loot.

Mrs. Jessie Mason, 700 North Main Street, reported to police that she was walking in the 200 block of North Colorado Street when the negro grabbed her purse and fled.

That was a few minutes before 8 p.m. and 30 minutes later Deputy Sheriff F. S. Buckalew and Constable Jack Merritt received a report a negro youth was prowling in automobiles in the 200 block of North Baird.

They rushed to the scene in time to see the youth fleeing.

Merritt chased him a block on foot and caught him.

The negro handed back the money and then led the officers to the spot where he had thrown away the purse.

Four Soldiers Die In Maneuver Mishaps

KILLEEN, TEXAS—(AP)—Traffic accidents among soldiers taking part in Exercise Long Horn took four lives Monday night and Tuesday. A fourth soldier was hurt critically.

Two members of the 82nd Airborne Division were killed near Ding Dong Monday night when a truck crashed through a bridge over the Lampasas River.

Four others were injured as the heavy truck fell 25 or 40 feet to the river bed. Ding Dong is about 12 miles southeast of Killeen.

About 3:30 a.m. Tuesday, one soldier was killed and a second hurt critically in the collision of their car and a Southwestern Transit Bus on Highway 190 between Killeen and Nolanville.

The fourth soldier killed died about 5 a.m. when his car rammed into a barricade on U. S. Highway 81 about nine miles north of Waco.

Identities of the soldiers killed were withheld pending notification of the next of kin.

Staff Officers Give Up On Russian Issue

MUNSAN, KOREA—(AP)—Staff officers gave up Tuesday on the Russian question and handed it to top Korean peace negotiators to settle.

An armistice subcommittee meeting was adjourned Thursday to take up the arguments on whether Russia should be named a "neutral nation" to help police a truce in Korea.

Communists, who first raised the issue in a staff meeting six weeks ago, insisted on the switch to the higher level. The Russian issue is one of three major stumbling blocks to an armistice.

Daddy Ringtail And Don't Tell Anybody!

"I won't tell anybody," Daddy Ringtail promised. "Huh?" asked the Huffen. Daddy Ringtail said it again. "I won't tell anybody," he said. "You won't?" asked the Huffen, a little disappointed. "No indeed," Daddy Ringtail promised.

The Huffen held his hand up to his forehead to keep the sun from shining in his eyes. He looked away up the Elephant Path. He didn't see anyone. He looked away down the Elephant Path. He looked all around and still he didn't see a lion, or a tiger, or Old MacDonald, or the Featherman, or Minny Moo, or the Monkey Catcher, or even Mug-wump.

"Huffen Puffen," Daddy Ringtail said, "why all the looking for people who aren't here?" "Shhhh!" said the Huffen. "Daddy Ringtail, you won't tell anybody."

Daddy Ringtail explained that he couldn't tell anyone at all, because he didn't know what it was that the Huffen was talking about. "Oh yes you do know too, you do!" said the Huffen. "I told you about it yesterday, I did." And of course the Huffen was talking about the wonderful thing that had happened to him. His uncle in the land of Spingles and Spangles was sending him a million spingles and spangles to make the Huffen the richest wolf in the whole Great Forest. "And you mustn't tell anybody, you mustn't," said the Huffen.

A BOY AT CALVARY

In the eyes of Sokron and his friends, adventure began and ended with Barobbas. His was the prize role when they played 'Rebels and Romans,' their favorite game, with wooden swords and shields.

Always the swiftest robber chieftain triumphed. His sword and his horse were the swiftest. Seizing arms and silver from the hapless Romans, Barobbas would thunder across the desert to the secret caves of his army.

By Jay Heavilin and Walt Scott

But one spring day Sokron sat disconsolately at the village gates, his eyes turned toward Jerusalem. He had learned of Barobbas' imprisonment in the Judean capital. Would it be possible to see his hero?

Joe Beakey Named Posse's Captain

Joe Beakey was elected captain of the Midland County Sheriff's Posse at a meeting held Sunday in the organization's clubhouse at Midland Fair Park.

Other officers for 1952 are H. E. Woolcock, adjutant; Jim Willis, lieutenant; J. P. (Bum) Gibbins and J. M. White, Jr., drill sergeants; Charles Bush, corral boss; and Eddie Simms, R. T. German and Jim Tuttle, directors.

Enthusiastic plans for a banner year in posse activities were mapped by the large number of possessors attending the "round-up."

Another meeting of the group is scheduled for 3 p.m., Sunday, April 30, at the clubhouse.

The number of U. S. farms declined from 2,800,000 in 1935 to 2,380,000 in 1950.

Wool Price Support Set At 54.2 Cents

WASHINGTON —(AP)—The Agricultural Department has announced it will support grower prices on 1952 crop wool at a national average of 54.2 cents a pound, grease (unprocessed and uncleaned) basis. The Department said Monday prices will be supported by means of loans to producers of wool stored in approved warehouses. In the past, prices have been supported by means of outright government purchase on wool.

Ahead—the Nicest Miles in the World!

Well, the day has come! You have your beautiful Golden Anniversary Cadillac—and are off on that cross-country journey you've so eagerly awaited.

You're full of hope and anticipation—but almost afraid it's too good to be true. Can any car perform and handle the way people say this one does?

You come to the end of the street that opens into the cross-town thoroughfare—and the big, easy-acting brakes settle you down to the softest, smoothest stop you ever experienced in all your life.

You touch the throttle, and the great engine starts you out like the flight of an arrow—smoothly and swiftly and quietly.

Almost before you know it, a light turns red—and, once again, that easy, velvety stop. And then the green—and again that swift, eager move into action.

Stop and go—red and green . . . and pretty soon it dawns upon you that you never dreamed of driving a car that handled and performed like this.

Wonderful in city traffic—no doubt about it!

And then the cars thin out about you—the traffic lights stretch farther and farther apart—and you find yourself on the open road.

Instinctively, your foot goes down on the throttle; but, quickly, it eases up again. For you find yourself really rolling in a couple of hundred feet! So you do a little experimenting until you find the spot where the accelerator belongs for sane and sensible driving—and then you settle back and relax.

You scarcely seem to be moving at all. You handle the wheel with the weight of your hand. You're comfortable—resting—at peace with the highway! The sun rises higher and the road beckons on.

"Where did we plan on stopping tonight?"

"Better take a look at the map and see what's on down the line. We're going to get a lot farther than I ever dreamed we could!"

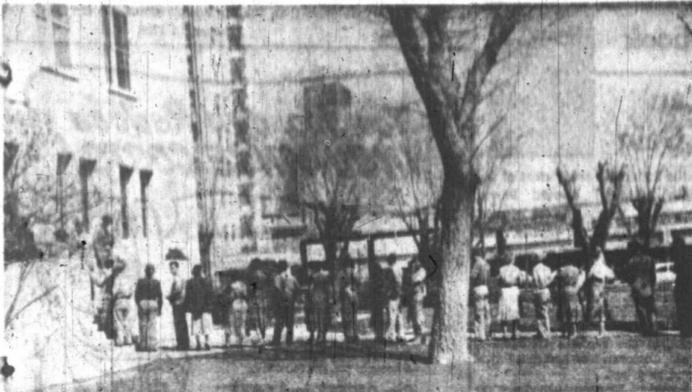

Yes, it's true what they say about Cadillac. Better come in and see it—and drive it—while you're in the mood!

New System To Slow Down Rotation Rate From Korea

SEOUL, KOREA—(AP)—A slow-down in rotation went into effect Tuesday for Regular Army soldiers and draftees in Korea.

It won't affect National Guardsmen. They must be discharged by August.

Under the new system men in the front line can expect to go home after 10 or 11 months.

Men in artillery battalions and supporting units who live in tents near the front and are fired on occasionally can go home after 13 or 14 months.

Those at rear headquarters of an infantry division, or in Seoul or Pusan, will be kept in Korea for about 18 months.

The new, complex, slow-down system went into effect as the 300,000th American soldier went home from Korea. He is Cpl. Freddie Leon Clark of Indianapolis.

Eighth Army spokesmen said the new system was put into effect to make up for the loss of the guardsmen and because of the difficulty of getting replacements.

Complex Point Count

In Washington, the Army said it was "a more equitable system based on hardships and hazards actually encountered by individuals in Korea."

The slow-down also will affect American troops in the Ryukyus and the Philippines.

Rotation is based on a complex point system. A man is sent home after receiving points for "36 constructive months service."

Under the new schedule a man in (1) an infantry battalion at the front gets four points a month; (2) at regimental headquarters, division forward headquarters, or in a direct supporting unit receives three points; and (3) at corps headquarters or other rear area gets two points.

The middle group, known as the "intermediate combat zone," is a new designation.

Auto Liability Rates To Increase

AUSTIN—(AP)—Like almost everything else, liability insurance rates on most Texas cars are going up.

A new schedule posted Monday by the State Board of Insurance Commissioners will bring about increases for the great bulk of Texas policyholders, said J. P. Gibbs, casualty insurance commissioner.

It will mean an eight per cent boost generally on comprehensive insurance and four per cent on deductible collision. There are some reductions for certain types of vehicles in fire, theft, comprehensive and collision, he said.

Flying West Texans Tell Midland Of Easter Plans

Three West Texans flew to Midland Monday to increase interest in the annual Heart of Texas Sunrise Service to be held near Mercury, between Brownwood and Brady.

The trio included Gordon Bjornson, owner and pilot of the touring plane; Cecil Striegler, representative of the Brady Chamber of Commerce, and Fred Thorman, chairman of the Heart of Texas organization, from Mercury. They arrived at the Midland Air Terminal at 10:30 a.m. and stayed 30 minutes. A group from the Grace Lutheran Church greeted the fliers.

Dr. E. R. Bertermann, director of the International Lutheran Hour, will be the speaker this year at the Mercury services. Singing will be provided by the famed Springfield Seminary Lutheran Hour chorus. A new colored film motion picture, "Life of Christ," will be shown from 4 to 5:30 a.m. the morning of April 13.

The flying West Texans were to have continued on to Lubbock and Plainview from here. They planned to spend the night at Wichita Falls. Tuesday their itinerary called for stops at Fort Worth, Waco, Austin, San Antonio, Kerrville and back to Brady.

Ex-Marines Sign Sufficient Number To Join In League

Organization of a Midland chapter of the Marine Corps League will be decided upon at a meeting of ex-Marines in this area at the Naval Reserve Building at 8 p.m. April 14.

The announcement followed a meeting of the former Leathernecks at the Airpark Monday night. Jack Little, leader in the league movement, said all prospective charter members will be urged to attend the April 14 session and participate in the decision. If the group votes to form a chapter, officers will be elected, Little said.

Six ex-Marines attended the Monday meeting and others contacted Little to assure their support of the chapter. Little explained it was thought best not to act on chapter formation until all charter members could be present.

Kansas Loss Cuts Nation's Crude Output

TULSA, OKLA.—(AP)—A big loss in Kansas lowered the country's daily average crude oil and condensate production for the week ended March 29 by 7,875 barrels under the previous week's record high.

The Oil and Gas Journal reported Tuesday.

Kansas fell 26,750 barrels to 306,000 barrels to offset increase in nine of the 30 other reported producing areas.

The total daily average for the week was 6,429,400 barrels. Only four other states recorded declines, and Oklahoma's 800-barrel drop to 523,100 barrels was the largest. The others were Nebraska, down 300 barrels to 6,000; Florida, off 275 to 1,450; and Utah, 200 to 4,000.

Major increases were in Wyoming, up 7,500 barrels to 180,000; Mississippi, up 6,550 to 105,700; Illinois, 3,000 to 166,300; and Indiana, 1,500 to 20,500.

California and Michigan each added 600 barrels to 978,500 and 39,600, respectively; Kentucky increased 700 to 35,000; the Eastern area was up 599 to 58,000, and Colorado gained 200 to 83,400.

Production was unchanged in Alabama, 2,700 barrels; Arkansas, 81,200; Louisiana, 672,425; Montana, 24,000; New Mexico, 162,050; and Texas, 2,958,075.

Scout Area Council Has Camp Planning Meeting In Pecos

PECOS—The quarterly meeting of the Permian Basin Area Council of the Girl Scouts was held Sunday in the Pecos Community Building. M. C. Puckett of Fort Stockton, president, presided.

Mrs. M. W. Cottle, Jr., of Midland reported on the distribution of the camp folders and announced 100 registrations had been received in the first two weeks. A total of 280 girls can be accommodated in the eight weeks of camping at the Davis Mountain Camp.

Mrs. J. J. Black of Midland, camp director, reported the camp will open June 8 with a full staff. J. P. Patee, treasurer, gave a financial report.

Area Office Moved
It was announced the area office was being moved to the Girl Scout House in Pecos. Mrs. J. N. Wildman of Monahans, chairman of the membership nominating committee, told of the acceptance of the nomination of Casey Farrington of Balmorhea as candidate for vice-president of the council.

M. W. Cottle of Midland reported the improvements in the sanitary facilities and the water system at the camp. Plans call for the installation of a chlorinating unit; purchase of new equipment for the senior unit; building a unit shelter, and the installation of a new telephone line to Alpine.

Much of the work is being made possible through contributions to the Camp Mite Peak Improvement Fund. The City of Midland donated fire extinguishers to the camp.

A work weekend was set for April 25, when men and trucks will meet at the camp and install 10 miles of telephone line.

It was announced the next meeting of the camp committee and area council will be held at the camp July 4. Mrs. M. C. Puckett will prepare the fortieth anniversary program.

Those attending from Midland were Mr. and Mrs. Cottle, Mrs. Black, Betty Jo Greene, Mrs. Carl Covington and Mrs. L. A. Searies. Other cities represented include Rankin, Pecos, Kermit, Andrews, Monahans and Fort Stockton.

New Jersey Convicts Give Up After 45-Hour Rampage

TRENTON, N. J. — Twenty-three of the meanest convicts in New Jersey State Prison surrendered to their keepers Monday night after a 45-hour display of defiance and violence.

Sullen, hungry and cold, the 23 trooped singly from a three-story segregation building they had all but destroyed in a desperate bid for privileges they said were denied them.

Killers, thugs and sex offenders, the gang had been placed in the building with 22 others to keep them all from mingling with the prison's 1,300 other inmates.

Early Sunday, a riot broke out in the building. Somehow, yet unexplained, the men smashed cell doors, ripped out plumbing, set mattresses afire, broke up beds and demanded better treatment.

Six prisoners assigned trusty posts in the building were held captive. Prison guards lobbed tear gas grenades into the building, but they had no effect. By dawn a detachment of state police was on hand and the show of force convinced 22 to surrender.

The others held out. They kept the trusty group prisoner. They threw plumbing equipment into an exercise yard. They fashioned weapons out of lead pipe and electric cables. They defied prison guards to come in and get them.

Two Trenton fire trucks pumped heavy streams of water into the building two hours. The convicts huddled against walls to avoid the water.

More tear gas was hurled into the building by prison guards. But the gas floated away harmlessly through broken windows.

By nightfall, the convicts reduced their demands.

Finally, the holed up convicts surrendered.

ANDERSON, IND. — The Indiana Woman's Christian Temperance Union has ordered 27,300 cans of fruit juice to be sent to servicemen in Korea.

Beaumont Group Asks State Primary, Party Loyalty Vows

BEAUMONT — The Jefferson County Democratic Executive Committee wants Governor Shivers to call a special session of the Legislature for the purpose of setting up a state-wide presidential preference primary.

The committee Monday night asked other county groups in Texas to join them in the demand.

Also approved by the Jefferson County Democrats was a resolution recommending that all delegates to the National Democratic Convention be instructed and mandated to cast their votes for the candidate receiving the most votes in the primary of their party.

The resolution further recommended that no delegate be named to the national convention of either party who is unwilling to support the party's nominee, and that all delegates must cast their votes for the nominee of the party they represent.

New York To Open Special Narcotics Court On May 1

NEW YORK — A special narcotics court, believed to be the first of its kind in the country, will start handling cases of young men and women addicts on May 1.

Chief Magistrate John M. Murtagh said Monday the narcotics court of magistrate's court will open shortly before the state's new River-Side Hospital starts functioning. He said the hospital is the first in the nation specifically for adolescent narcotic users.

A new adolescent narcotic users' law becomes effective May 1 in New York State. The law provides for treatment of youths adjudged addicts.

BABY SUFFOCATES UNDER MELTING SNOW

LEPPING, ENGLAND — (AP) — Melting snow killed 10-month-old Jack Watling Monday as he lay in his baby buggy outside his home here.

Mrs. mother found the child suffocated under a pile of snow which had been eased from the house roof by the warm afternoon sun.

Legally, a will or codicil may be signed any day, including Sundays and legal holidays.

PETER EDSON'S Washington News Notebook

Capital's Jefferson-Jackson Fete Can Net Democrats About $675,000 Gain

WASHINGTON — (NEA) — Democratic National Committee stands to clear about $675,000 from the $100-a-plate Jefferson-Jackson Day dinner in Washington's National Guard Armory. Cost of the food itself, prepared by two Washington hotels, was around $12 to $13 a plate. Cost of the hall and decorations was $11 to $12 a plate. This included printing a very elaborate menu, program and seating arrangement. Allowing a total of $25 for expenses, the profit would be $75 on each of the 9,000 guests.

Record-Making Session
Present session of Congress may go down in history more for bills it killed than for legislation it passed. Thus far, universal military training and statehood for Alaska and Hawaii have left the six Congresses haven't even begun to think about tax increases which President asked for, and probably won't.

Need For Flexible Law
Best bet now seems to be for a one-year extension of present Defense Mobilization legislation. This will include price and wage control authority. But several Senate Banking and Currency Committee members — Chairman Maybank of South Carolina, Capehart of Indiana and others — are working on automatic price decontrol formulas. They're intended to make removal of controls automatic if prices fall below set ceilings. Big question now is whether to make reconrol automatic, in case prices go up again.

Frisco Shows Way
Jens Larson, head of General Services Administration, the government's top housekeeping agency, has had little luck in trying to set up a motor pool for hauling government officials to Capitol Hill and around town. As a result, a special bill has been introduced in Congress to force the Washington agencies to adopt the motor pool plan as an economy measure.

In San Francisco, where government-wide motor pool has been established to take the place of cars run by the separate agencies, the number of automobiles has been reduced from 360 to 90—a saving of 75 per cent.

Greek Support
Behind U. S. Ambassador to Athens John E. Peurifoy's recent "interference" in Greek internal affairs is an involved story. Before last Fall's Greek elections, the U. S. government used its "influence" to have the king name Field Marshal Papagos as prime minister. When Ambassador Peurifoy found that there was considerable personal dislike of the king for the field marshal, this effort was dropped.

Next Nicholas Plastiras came to Ambassador Peurifoy and asked American government backing for his political support. Plastiras' principal argument was that it now was his turn to be prime minister. This appeal was denied and the U. S. embassy in Athens kept hands off of the September elections.

In this election, the Papagos Greek Rally party won 114 seats in parliament. The Plastiras Progressive party won 81 seats. Former Prime Minister Sophocles Venizelos' Liberal party won 57 seats. Nobody had a majority of the 285-member Parliament. Plastiras became prime minister by forming an alliance with Venizelos. Actually, Plastiras has been ill much of the time and Venizelos has been running the government.

General Papagos now has called for new elections with simple majority-wins system to replace the proportional representation system by which the present Parliament was chosen. In the interest of obtaining maximum use of American aid to Greece, Ambassador Peurifoy has supported this reform. Plastiras favors it, too, but Venizelos opposes it because he would lose by it.

If a simple majority voting system like the American system were put into effect in Greece, General Papagos' party probably would win and he would become prime minister.

This would fit in perfectly with what Ambassador Peurifoy has thought all along would be in the best Greek interests. He is being supported by most of the Greek press and public opinion.

For the State dinner which Queen Juliana and Prince Bernhard of The Netherlands will give at the Dutch Embassy in Washington on April 4, some of the food will be flown over special, from Holland.

This will include fresh sole from the straits of Dover, pate de foie gras, cheeses, liquors and Netherlands-grown strawberries.

There's plenty of resentment among temporary government officials in top defense agency jobs at having to fill out Corruption Investigator Newbold Morris' 16-page questionnaire on their private income and assets. For government career men, they think the questionnaire is in order. But the men on leave from their companies—in Washington to do defense jobs and much preferring to be back home in private employment—feel that their outside income, cars, lock boxes and their wives' fur coats are personal business they should not have to disclose.

Last-minute efforts now are being made to stir up more interest in the hundredth anniversary of the death of John Howard Payne, author of "Home, Sweet Home." Payne died in Tunis, April 9, 1852, where he was serving as American consul. Thirty years later, at the urging of William H. Corcoran of Washington, Payne's body was brought back and enshrined at Oak Hill Cemetery, near Dumbarton Oaks, in the capital's Georgetown area. Corcoran first had met Payne there as a boy.

President Truman named a commission, with Senator William Benton of Connecticut and Rep. Francis Bolton of Ohio as government members, to celebrate the centennial. They introduced a bill to get a little money for the observance. Congress killed it because it had too many other requests for too many other local ceremonials.

The university of Idaho, founded in 1889, is one year older than the state of Idaho. The word "hotel" first was used by Joseph Corre, a New York innkeeper, in 1790.

Red Raiders' Bid For SWC May Be Their Last Attempt

By HAROLD V. RATLIFF
Associated Press Sports Editor

DALLAS — (AP) — Texas Tech's bid for a place in the Southwest Conference has a finality about it. This is it. If Tech is turned down in May when its application is presented formally to the conference, look for the West Texas school to give it up and enter the Missouri Valley Conference.

Texas Tech folks are confident they'll make it this time. While passes have been made at the conference by Tech in the past, this is the first time to go at it through the administrative level.

We recall there was much the same confidence in 1948 when the Red Raiders tried and yet could not muster the necessary two-thirds majority.

Six of the seven schools won't say publicly what their stand is, but unofficially it appears most of them right now favor Tech. What they'll think when the meeting comes is something else.

Tech appears eligible for the place and be a valuable addition.

Of course, much of Tech's furtherance of its bid comes through its football record against members of the Southwest Conference. Taking the cold figures, the record is not sensational. However, the record is quite good under the circumstances.

The Red Raiders have played 48 games against Southwest Conference teams since the school was founded in 1923 and won 13 of them while losing 45 and tying one. They never have been able to beat Texas, have defeated Texas A&M twice in 12 tries, downed Baylor four times and tied once in 13 efforts, won over Rice once in nine attempts, licked Southern Methodist twice in five games, beat Texas Christian four times in 12 contests and never have played Arkansas.

Record is Good
This record is good for the simple reason that Tech was working under a handicap. Tech was unable to compete with the Southwest Conference schools in getting the top material because it was not a member of the Southwest Conference. Dewitt Weaver did a very thorough job of bringing in the athletes last year—his first with Tech—and results were good. But he didn't get many of the "name" boys. He did sell the school to the West Texas athletes as he and his coaching staff worked night and day. Then the coaching staff developed the material it did get.

Texas Tech is a big school with a lot of enthusiasm and a desire to really be big-time in college athletics. It has a tremendous territory from which to draw its athletic support.

Fem Golf Tourney Opens In Arizona
PHOENIX, ARIZ. — (AP) — The Trans-Mississippi Golf Association, which prides itself for an excellent record of developing young players, launched its twenty-second annual tournament Tuesday with a record field of 176 women contestants slated to tee off in the qualifying round.

By nightfall the lucky low 32 scorers will have qualified for the championship flight and the start of match play Wednesday.

The scene is the Arizona Country Club—a course sprawling 8,397 yards over the Arizona flatlands hard by the picturesque Camelback Mountain east of Phoenix. Par is 38-37-75.

The defending champion is Mary Ann Downey from Baltimore, who will be hard pressed to retain the crown she won at Quincy, Ill., a year ago.

Her main challenge probably will come from her golfing friend, Marjorie Lindsay of Decatur, Ill., who won the Trans-Miss in 1950 and was runnerup to Betsy Rawls of Austin, Texas, in 1949 at Lincoln, Neb.

Proposed Fem Golf Tourney For Midland Turned Down
An official of the Midland Country Club Monday declined to hold a proposed Women's Open Golf Tournament here because of financial reasons.

Larry King, Reporter-Telegram sports editor, had proposed such a tourney Monday in his column after talking with the famous golfing sisters, Marlene and Alice Bauer, in New Orleans. King is in Litcher, La., with the Midland Indian baseball team.

The Bauer sisters had suggested to King that such a tourney be held in Midland because several of the top women golfers had expressed a desire to "play" in a Midland tournament.

Meanwhile, in New Orleans, Fred Corcoran, head man of the Women's Professional Golf Association, expressed disappointment that the proposed tournament had been declined.

Corcoran told King "We had some golfers who wanted to play there, but perhaps we can work something out with the club for a Fall tournament."

Yankees Favored In AL; Cardinals Are Dark Horse

By ED CORRIGAN
Associated Press Sports Writer

With the start of the major league season only two weeks away, this is shake-down time. The managers have quit experimenting with rookies and now are starting their jaunts north and east with the hopes of getting the regulars in shape.

Here's what has happened in the American League:
New York—Casey Stengel's operations still are the ones to beat, even with the loss of Joe DiMaggio and the probable departure of Jerry Coleman to the Marine Corps. The Yankees still have a top pitching staff, backed by plenty of power and some smooth newcomers, namely young Andy Carey, who probably will take over third base.

Cleveland—The Indians have the best "big four" pitching staff in baseball, and if any team is going to beat out the Yankees, it should be the Tribe. Bob Feller, Mike Garcia.

Indian Game Called—Rain
LUTHER, I.A. — (AP) — A pouring rain forced postponement of the Midland - New Orleans baseball game Monday night. It will be played at 8 p.m. Friday.

Influenza has hit the Midland camp. First baseman Tito Santiago and Bruce (Gabby) Blumenthal were confined to quarters Monday.

No practice was scheduled Tuesday because of the flooded ground.

Jimmy Carter Faces Mexico Challenger
LOS ANGELES — (AP) — "I want to win this one for Mexico," says Lauro Salas, a determined little challenger who climbs into the ring Tuesday night trying to upset Jimmy Carter of New York, the lightweight champion.

He feels he has a real chance of becoming the first native of Mexico to capture an undisputed world's boxing title. Lauro, who lives here, came to the U. S. in 1947 from Monterrey. He still helps support his family there.

Neither Lauro nor the sharp hitting champion ever has been counted out, so Tuesday night's battle at the Olympic Auditorium may well go the 15-round limit. There will be no radio or television.

"I'm in the best shape ever," says Salas, the California featherweight king who has done most of his scrapping among the 126-pounders.

Cue Wizard Mosconi Faces Rugged Test
BOSTON — (AP) — Cue Wizard Willie Mosconi of Haverston, Pa., meets his closest challenger Tuesday night in the world pocket billiard championship after a two-day playoff.

Mosconi, who boasts a 6-0 record as he battles nine challengers for the crown, has held the last two years, will play Arthur Cranfield of Syracuse, N. Y.

Cranfield ran his slate to 5-1 Monday night with a brilliant eight-inning victory over Donald De Coy of St. Louis, 350-36. An unseeded player, he is the surprise of the long round-robin series which concludes next Saturday.

12 Airmen Killed, Two Injured In Two Japanese Crashes
TOKYO — (AP) — Bodies of 11 U. S. airmen have been recovered from the wreckage of two American bombers, the Air Force reported Tuesday. One other is believed dead. Two survived.

Both warplanes crashed Monday in rainstorms.
A B-29 Superfort, enroute to Korea with 10 tons of bombs, crashed 40 miles northeast of Tokyo. Two crewmen were thrown clear. The Air Force said neither was hurt seriously. They were hospitalized from burns and shock.

Nine bodies were recovered from the wreckage.
A B-29 bomber plunged into the ocean off Northern Japan. Two bodies were recovered. The Air Force said the third member of the crew was presumed to be dead.

All names were withheld.

Lubbock High Hurler Signed By Detroit
LUBBOCK — (AP) — Benny Day, former Lubbock High School southpaw pitching star, has been signed by Detroit of the American League.

Kansas Meets Peoria For Olympic Spot

NEW YORK — (AP) — LaSalle's gritty Explorers had no formula for stopping big Clyde Lovellette, and as a result Kansas will meet the Peoria Caterpillars in the finals of the Olympic basketball trials Tuesday night in Madison Square Garden.

Lovellette, the nearest thing to a scoring robot, stuffed 40 points through the cords Monday night as Kansas overcame the determined Explorers from LaSalle, 70-65, in perhaps the most thrilling game seen here this season.

In the opener, Peoria repeated its AAU title win over the Phillips Oilers by whipping the Bartlesville, Okla., club, 64-50, with surprising ease.

By winning Monday night, Kansas and Peoria qualified seven players for the U. S. Olympic team which will journey to Helsinki this summer.

Picks Five Seniors
Kansas Coach Phog Allen picked five seniors—Lovellette, Bill Lienhard, Bob Kenney, John Keller and Bill Hoagland—and juniors Dean Kelley and Charley Hoag.

Willard Womble, Peoria coach, said he had recommended to the Olympic Committee that five of his players and two from other top AAU teams be selected.

Womble did not mention any names, but it seems like a safe bet that his first team of Ron Bon Temps, Frank McCabe, Marcus Friberger, Dan Pippin and Howie Williams will be chosen to make the trip to Finland.

So the only thing to be decided Tuesday night—other than prestige—will be to determine who will be head coach of the Olympic team, Womble or Allen.

If Kansas wins, it will be the complete and absolute ruler of amateur basketball. It would give the Jayhawks, already NCAA champions over the AAU, NIT (LaSalle) and NAIB (Springfield, Mo. State) titles.

Baseball Accidents Fatal To Two Boys
SEATTLE — (AP) — Two teen-age boys—one in Seattle and one in New York—suffered fatal injuries in baseball accidents Monday.

James Morningstar, 15-year-old West Seattle High School freshman trying out for his school team, collided with a fellow player while going after a pop fly. He died two hours later of an internal hemorrhage.

In New York, Howard Price, a junior high school student, was killed by a thrown ball while watching some of his friends play catch in the Bronx.

Touring Pro Golfers Have Three Questions To Settle

AUGUSTA, GA. — (AP) — With the lid of secrecy knocked off "the Corcoran affair," touring professional golfers Tuesday considered three big problems:
How to win the Masters Tournament beginning Thursday.
The weather.
And, whether Fred Corcoran, newly signed Tournament Committee promotion director, will win approval and backing reportedly necessary to complete the setting up of a new Professional Golf Association bureau.

The new bureau not only is designed to promote tournaments and golf in general, but plans call for the bureau and Corcoran to assist in relations between touring golf stars and tournament sponsors.

A PGA meeting is set for April 21-23 in Chicago to consider tournament plans and the signing of Corcoran.

It was revealed to The Associated Press Monday and later confirmed by numerous golfers and officials that Corcoran—deposed tournament director from 1936-1947 for the PGA—had been signed to a contract March 1.

Depends On Vote
Several reliable sources said that if Corcoran gets a strong vote of confidence in Chicago he will assume the duties given him by the contract.

The secret contract, negotiated during the winter between the tournament committee and Corcoran and his lawyers, calls for the deluxe promoter to set up a New York office. It is proposed that he operate a promotional clearing house, supply information on tourney sites, dates and records; act as a public relations man and help in repairing relations between the stars and tournament sponsors.

Should he get backing in Chicago, Corcoran is expected to remain in full all other commitments and jobs.

A light rain Monday afternoon cut short practice rounds for the Masters. The Weather Bureau said unfriendly weather would continue at least until Wednesday.

New Bowling Leader Crops Up At Tourney
MILWAUKEE — (AP) — A new leader cropped up Monday in the American Bowling Congress Tournament.
He is Robert Kaye, 39-year-old Indianapolis 16th operator.

Kaye came up with the highest series—499—shot to date in the regular year event in pacing Kay Jewels, Indianapolis, to a 3,808 series and a tie for fifth place with the Harry's Men's Wear outfit of Elmwood, Ohio.

Yankees Lose Jerry Coleman

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. — (AP) — Jerry Coleman, New York Yankees' second baseman who has been recalled to the Marine Corps, was to leave for Jacksonville, Tuesday for his physical examination.

He'll report Wednesday to the Navy Air Base about 15 miles outside the city, along with Ted Williams, the Boston Red Sox slugger, who also has been called back.

DENVER, Colo. — (AP) — Just a year ago, Don Mueller didn't know how he stood in the plans of New York Giant Manager Leo Durocher. Now he's the team's regular right-fielder with no questions asked.

"I'm up there swinging with confidence now," he said.

MIAMI, Fla. — (AP) — Who's going to take the place of 20-game winner Don Newcombe on the Brooklyn Dodgers' pitching staff?

Clem Labine, said Manager Chuck Dressen Tuesday.

Said Dressen: "Labine could take up the slack for us. I think he can win 18."

DENVER — (AP) — Because his pitchers are "rounding into starting form," Cleveland Manager Al Lopez established a new policy Tuesday.

Starting pitchers will go seven innings or longer.

Mike Garcia was to go against the Giants Tuesday, and Bob Lemon pitches against them Wednesday.

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. — (AP) — Who's on first for the Detroit Tigers? That's a question with three different answers.

Manager Red Rolfe put Don Kolloway in the problem spot Monday announced he'll start the veteran right-hand hitter against south-paw pitchers. Rolfe said Rookie Ben Taylor will get the job against right-handers.

Vic Wertz, who had a long try-out at first, was back in right field.

SAN ANTONIO — (AP) — Manager Paul Richards of the Chicago White Sox is preparing to swing the axe hard to cut his squad to 30 before the team arrives in Chicago next week.

Players most likely to be removed are outfielders Don Nicholas and George Wilson, catcher J. W. Porter, infielder Willy Miranda and pitcher Floyd Penfold.

SAN ANTONIO — (AP) — Manager Phil Cavaretta has five reasons for his Chicago Cubs' surprising Grapefruit League record of 14 wins in 21 games.

"First, our hitting is much better," he explained. "Our pitching has been more consistent. We've got more spirit. Then there are two fellows who have really helped us a lot."

"Eddie Miksis at second base has given the infield balance and steadiness."

"Hal Jeffcoat in the outfield has been responsible for giving us a lot of fire."

The Cubs seek their fifth straight victory Tuesday against the Chicago White Sox whom they have beaten four out of five games this Spring.

CORPUS CHRISTI — (AP) — Manager Rogers Hornsby of the St. Louis Browns has moved Tom Wright, who didn't get a hit in his first appearances as a pinch hitter this Spring, into the cleanup batting spot.

Tom has come a long way after a slow start and currently is leading the Browns' hitters with 459.

ST. PETERSBURG — (AP) — Eddie Stanky has his own version of Shakespeare's Merchant of Venice.

The St. Louis Cardinal manager has posted the weights he wants every player to have when training camp breaks up Tuesday.

used for that test. Gas surfaced in two hours and 23 minutes after the tool was opened. Heavily oil and gas cut water blanket flowed out at the top in three hours. The fluid was run to pits for 25 minutes and then turned to tanks for an hour and it was during that period that the 46.4 barrels of oil was produced.

Shakeout
Shakeout was from five per cent to 10 per cent drilling mud. Gas-oil ratio was approximately 370-1. The fluid left in the pipe when the tool was closed was reversed out. It was 260 feet of heavily oil and gas cut mud. There was no formation water.

Open flowing bottom hole pressure was from 3,550 pounds to 3,975 pounds. The tool failed on the try for a shutin pressure gauge.

The wildcat had also flowed on the section a 10,712-750 feet. The tester was open four hours on that zone. Gas surfaced in one hour and 18 minutes.

The water blanket started flowing in two hours and 45 minutes. Clean oil came to the top in three hours. The section flowed 28 barrels of 43.1 gravity oil in the one hour. Size of the choke was not reported.

Gas Volume
Gas-oil ratio was 1070-1. The gas volume was at the rate of 116,000 cubic feet per day. Shakeout was 10 per cent basic sediment.

Open flowing bottom hole pressure was from 1,050 pounds to 3,375 pounds. Shutin bottom hole pressure after 25 minutes was 3,375 pounds.

Location is 1,980 feet from south and 665 feet from east lines of the west half of section 17, block 12, University survey. That makes it 22 miles southwest of the town of Andrews.

It is adjacent to production from the Clear Fork-Permian in the Block 12 field. There is no Ellenburger production in the immediate area.

The test will be six and one-half miles southeast of Forest Oil Corporation and Southern Minerals Corporation No. 1 Monroe, dry hole at 8,894 feet.

Keeps Over-Ride
Alexander took the leases several weeks ago. He turned them to Texas Pacific for an unreported cash consideration, an over-ride on all of the acreage, and a checker-boarded spread of 640 acres out of the block.

Acreage included in the block is in section 41, 42, 43, 44, 45 and 46 in block 1, I&NG survey. Negotiations for the acquisition of the block from Alexander and for the drilling of the deep test were worked out by Billy J. Moore of Midland, division landman for Texas Pacific for the Permian Basin of West Texas and Southeast New Mexico.
