FALLING FUEL TANK DID IT — Mrs. Beatrice Kingsbury, of Hatboro, Pa., comforts her five-year-old daughter, Karen Lee, in the Abingdon, Pa., hospital after flying metal from one of two fallen jet plane fuel tanks broke the child's leg. The two 200-gallon tanks also narrowly missed two houses and showered Karen and four other children on a playground with gasoline and dirt.

Hands Off In Steel Dispute, President Warns GOP Solons

WASHINGTON —(AP)— President Truman told the Senate Monday that if it restricts use of government funds for operation of the seized steel mills it may result in "paralyzing the operations of the government in an emergency."

In a letter to Vice President Barkley, the President hit out vigorously at Republican-sponsored moves to deny any funds for government operation of the mills.

His said enactment of the GOP proposals might lead to a complete shutdown in steel and "immediately reduce the ability of our troops in Korea to defend themselves against attack."

"Further, the President contended, much of the debate on the matter has been of 'extreme and misleading character.'"

"If the Communists stage another offensive in Korea this Spring, the success or failure of that offensive may well depend on whether or not we have kept our steel mills in operation. This is a consideration over and above the drastic effect a steel shutdown would have on our total defense effort."

Truman reported what he had said in a message April 9—that he ordered "temporary operation" of the steel mills by the government "with the utmost reluctance; that the idea of government operation of the steel mills was thoroughly distasteful to me; and that I wanted to see it ended as soon as possible."

His letter to Barkley reminded the senators, too, that he had indicated his willingness to "cooperate in developing any legislative proposals the Congress might wish to consider" for dealing with the steel crisis.

"The message was sent to Barkley while Truman continued his cruise aboard the presidential yacht Williamsburg.

Capital Observes San Jacinto Day

AUSTIN —(AP)— State officials and employees closed their offices Monday in observance of San Jacinto Day, one of Texas' two state holidays.

The day memorializes Texas' sweeping victory of the 1836 Battle of San Jacinto, which assured Texas the independence from Mexico it had declared on March 2. The only other day Texas observes as a state holiday is March 2.

A miniature scene showing the battle of San Jacinto was on exhibit Monday at the Texas Memorial Museum.

Eleventh Jet Ace Emerges As Seven MIG's Bite Dust

SEOUL, KOREA —(AP)— U. S. Sabre jet pilots Monday shot down seven and damaged six Communist MIG jets, the Fifth Air Force announced.

The Air Force said the Russian-made jets were lagged in three separate aerial duels involving 100 Red planes.

The day's biggest fight produced America's eleventh jet ace—Capt. Robert J. Love, San Bernardino, Calif. He shot down two MIG's in a battle involving 29 Sabres and 60 MIG's, the Air Force said. Three other MIG's were shot down—three were damaged and one of the Red's new fast Type 15 jets was hit in this scrap. It raced 30 minutes from 40,000 feet down to tree top level.

The aerial battles started shortly after daylight. In the first, 18

Spreading Convict Mutinies Reported In Michigan Prison

JACKSON, MICH. —(AP)— Rioting spread in beleaguered Southern Michigan Prison Monday while convicts on a mutiny held four guards as hostages.

Three prison guards were injured trying to subdue rebellious convicts in the prison mess hall at breakfast.

Yelling rioters seized the mess hall, driving out the guards, and at the same time another group of prisoners took over a mental ward.

Two other guards were reported hurt in the second flareup. An estimated 400 prisoners were said to be involved in the two new

Rebels Still Hold Out At Jersey Prison

RAHWAY, N. J. —(AP)— With hunger and thirst as their allies, Rahway State Prison officials waited patiently Monday for a break in a four-day rebellion of 231 hard-bitten convicts.

The revolt is the longest in a series of five prison outbreaks in the state. A similar mutiny by 69 convicts at Trenton State Prison, 40 miles to the south, ended Friday after 77 hours. The Rahway uprising equaled this mark at 2 a. m. Monday.

Barricaded in a dormitory wing, the prisoners were promised they would receive no corporal punishment if they surrendered without harming their eight guard hostages.

The desperate convicts, vowing "victory or death" in their mutiny, reportedly were arguing said bickering well into the night as messenger food supplies dwindled.

Water has been shut off in the wing since the riot flared up Thursday night. William Lagay, superintendent of the prison farm, said the rebels might be tapping a pipe prison officials don't know about.

F. Lovell Bixby, deputy commissioner of state institutions and agencies, who sent the "no-corporal-punishment" promise to the convicts Sunday night, said reports of heated arguments came from guards stationed near the barricaded prison wing.

Chants of "We want food" echoed Sunday from the wrecked wing, where huge signs, crudely lettered on bedsheets, hung from shattered windows. On one of the bedsheets was written the mute appeal—"Water."

Boom In Pipe Line Construction Seen

FORT WORTH —(AP)— A government official predicted Monday 1952 would witness "the greatest oil pipe line construction activity in history."

John E. Boice of the Petroleum Administration for Defense said present industry plans call for laying about 30,000 miles of pipe line this year—6,500 miles of crude oil lines and 23,500 miles for petroleum products.

Hearing On Bell Injunction Removed To Federal Court

Hearing on a permanent injunction against the picketing of Bell telephone exchanges in Texas by Western Electric union workers was removed Monday to the Federal District Court in Pecos.

The defense filed a petition in 70th District Court here late Monday morning. Hearing had been scheduled at 2 p. m. before District Judge R. W. Hamilton.

Attorneys explained that the petition lodged for the union workers meant an automatic transfer of the hearing to the federal court.

They also explained that the telephone company—which already had stopped picketing by obtaining a

Motion For Sanity Hearing Is Granted Robbery Suspect

A motion for a sanity hearing for S. M. Miller, Jr., of Odessa, charged with robbery by assault, was granted in 70th District Court here Monday by Judge R. W. Hamilton.

Hearing of the sanity motion, which was signed by Miller's wife, will be held at 10 a. m. Wednesday.

Miller, who is free on $15,000 bond, is charged in the robbery of the Har-Wil Motor Courts here. More than $100 was taken in the robbery.

Miller's case was the first on the docket for the third jury week of the April term of District court, which opened Monday.

The case of Thomas Earl Davis, charged with theft, got underway before noon.

Army And Civilians Fight Grim Battle As Missouri Crest Moves Southward

KANSAS CITY —(AP)— The Army, augmented by civilian workers carried on a grim battle Monday to save the Sherman Airfield of the historic Fort Leavenworth from the unruly Missouri River.

Some 1,600 men sloughed through mud in a chilly rain, bolstering a three-mile stretch of dikes against the tremendous river pressure.

It was a dangerous, hand-to-hand struggle.

Flood waters behind the dikes stood as much as nine feet above the level of the airfield. Lifeboats were kept at hand. Most of the work was done without aid of machines. The field was too soggy for trucks.

Fort Leavenworth is about 35 miles northwest of Kansas City. The critical area along the flooding Missouri now is between St. Joseph, Mo., and Kansas City.

If the dikes at the north end of Sherman Field give way, the water probably will cut a new river channel across the field, leaving part of it an island, flood fighters reported.

The around-the-clock activity was carried on at night under strings of lights.

"It looks like a beach operation in New Guinea," an observer said. "We've got the water and the beach activity. About all we lack is the mosquitoes."

The flood fighters even included instructors at the Army's Command and General Staff School at Fort Leavenworth.

While the Army fought the Sherman Field battle, tricky Missouri Valley weather posed new problems on 700 miles of the flooding river. What worried flood fighters was the question: How much will it rain? And where?

All the experts would say was that a chance of heavy rains exists. But they couldn't tell yet whether it would hit the Missouri Basin, especially the overland area from St. Joseph, Mo., to Kansas City.

Even if it rained a full inch in the Kaw (Kansas) Basin, they said, it would raise the Missouri at Kansas City only about a foot. That still would be well below the level the protecting dikes were built to stand.

The Kaw, a fast-acting river, was what gave Kansas City, Mo., and Kansas City, Kan., their worst flood when it poured into the Missouri here last July. It's rolling along at a low level now.

Brig. Gen. D. V. Shingler, division engineer at Omaha, stuck to his prediction that the Kansas City would be safe this time. But while the downstream battle was not as spectacular as the fight to save Omaha and Council Bluffs last week, it still was a hard one. Men still fought to confine the river which has driven thousands from their homes and caused millions of dollars of damage.

Another weather threat developed on the Northern Mississippi River. A flood crest of 15.3 feet—lower than originally predicted—reached La Crosse, Wis., Sunday.

Wentz dikes held but repair work went on around the clock. Westerman A. D. Sanial said Monday and Tuesday would be critical times there because the river won't start dropping much until Tuesday night.

CRITICALLY ILL — Sir Stafford Cripps, Socialist architect of Britain's post-war austerity now ill of a spinal infection in a Zurich, Switzerland, hospital, is reported "sinking slowly" after drifting into a state of "deep and painless unconsciousness."

West Texas To Get More Flying Sand

By The Associated Press

Thundershowers hit East Texas Monday; sand started blowing in West Texas, and the unfamiliar warning of high water in Texas went up for the upper Sabine River.

It was Texas' weather getting closer to its usual wacky self after a weekend of general rains that eased the prolonged drought situation.

But West Texas still needed more rain. Skies cleared in the El Paso and South Plains area, and by mid-morning Big Spring reported blowing sand in the distance. The Weather Bureau said it would get worse as the day went on.

Mrs. M. S. Hines, Long-Time Midland Resident, Is Dead

Violin, Piano Team To Present Concert

Benno and Sylvia Rabinof, violin and piano team now on their seventh coast to coast concert tour, will appear at 8 p.m. Monday in the high school auditorium.

Their performance will be sponsored by the Midland Civic Music Association.

Rabinof began his career under the guidance of Leopold Auer. At the age of 19 he made his debut in Carnegie Hall with the New York Philharmonic conducted by Auer.

Luncheon Honors Bride-Elect

Gena Mason, bride-elect of John I. Caldwell, was honored with a luncheon and linen shower Saturday in the Ranchland Hill Country Club.

Mrs. Victor Ogden and Mrs. Rufe Bynum were hostesses. The table was centered with an arrangement of yellow snapdragons, daisies and lemon leaves. The bride's chosen colors of yellow and green were used in the decorations. Place for the 30 guests were marked with green place-cards.

A gardenia corsage was presented to the bride-elect. Her mother, Mrs. Ann Mason, and the hostesses wore similar corsages of yellow carnations.

Since that time he has appeared as soloist with the leading symphony orchestras in the United States, Canada and Europe and has made regular radio appearance over the national networks, NBC, CBS AND ABC.

Sylvia Rabinof accompanies her husband on the piano entirely from memory. Before her debut in New York's Town Hall, she had a distinguished career of her own in Paris and Switzerland and since has composed a children's opera and a suite for Chamber Orchestra.

Rabinof's Guarnerius violin is considered one of the finest examples of that master's work. It is one of three singing "sisters" created in 1742. The first of these is preserved in a museum in Genoa and the second belongs to Jascha Heifetz.

The third belonged to Fritz Kreisler before it was given to Rabinof by a friend.

Of a concert given by the violin-piano team; the New York Times said, "Benno and Sylvia Rabinof are an exceptionally well-balanced pair. Their approach was sensitive and full of devotion to some beautiful music. She is an excellently equipped musician. Both are skilled performers. They gave the impression that they had rehearsed often together finding more to love in the music each time."

Chopin, Beethoven, Bach and Paganini are among the composers who will be represented on the program.

The Cancer Crusade

The 1952 Cancer Crusade is underway in Midland and throughout the state and nation, as volunteer workers seek funds to support broad programs of research, services to cancer patients, and public and professional education.

The Cancer Crusade is a finance campaign in which everyone should be interested—interested enough to contribute generously in order that the all-out fight against cancer can be stepped-up to a faster-than-ever pace.

Adequate financing is necessary if the program is to continue as it should. And that is why your donation is the MOST important item in the entire picture.

The Washington Merry-Go-Round

By Drew Pearson. (Copyright, 1952, By The Bell Syndicate, Inc.) Drew Pearson says: Peace can be made or unmade within next few months; Eisenhower's influence needed in Europe; Strength of drive to unify Europe indicated by Kremlin's drive to head it off.

So They Say

There are only two kinds of people in this world, lifters and lifters, and this (Social Security) is one of the laws that manufactures lifters. A nation cannot exist without lifters, and, being a lifter, I intend to die in the saddle and need none of your insurance.

Have a Laugh

By BOYCE HOUSE. A little boy, afraid he would be late to school, was running as fast as he could and praying, "Oh, Lord, don't let me be late." He reached the classroom door just as the "taking-up" bell started to ring. He stumped his toe, fell down, got up, looked around and said, "Well, all right—but there's no need to push!"

JACOBY ON BRIDGE

By OSWALD JACOBY. Two bridge players recently asked me to settle a bidding dispute. They gave me the hand shown today, which they had bid in the manner shown in the diagram.

Bridge hand diagram showing North (D) 21, West, East, South, and North-South vs. West-East cards.

West opened the nine of hearts, they told me, and East won with the ace. Declarer drew three rounds of trumps and led a diamond, knocking out the ace. West led another heart, and the suit was continued, forcing South to ruff with his last trump.

Florida Primary Coming Up, Russell May Go Campaigning

WASHINGTON—Now you take Senator Richard B. Russell of Georgia. There's a candidate for the Democratic presidential nomination who's taking it easy and refusing to get hot and bothered about a single dog-gone issue.

Let Kefauver and Kerr or any of the others go gallivanting around the country as much as they please, kissin' babies and patti' blondes, shakin' hands till they wear off their warts and develop callouses.

End Of Government Controls On Buying Believed Imminent

WASHINGTON—(AP)—An end to government control over installment buying is expected soon, informed officials say.

This would mean there no longer would be any federal regulations over how much you would have to pay down on automobiles, radio and television sets, refrigerators, furniture and other items.

And, too, there would be no limit fixed on how long—or short—a time you would get to pay back your loans.

The officials pointed out, however, there is no move afoot to end government regulations involving down payments and mortgages on houses.

These officials said the Federal Reserve Board is ready to suspend controls on installment buying of consumer goods as soon as it learns what Congress is going to do about control powers.

Two major reasons for an early end to the regulations were cited: (a) a removal of the restrictions might act as a stimulant to lagging sales, and (b) inflationary forces have subsided, for the present, at least.

SCHEDULES REVIVAL SERVICES

The Westside Baptist Church, 1700 West Carter Street, will have revival services each day this week at 10 a.m. and 7:45 p.m. The Rev. Jim Fields, pastor of the First Baptist Church in Penwell, Texas, is the speaker.

Brushing a blanket before washing, during drying, and after it has completely dried is extremely important in preventing and minimizing shrinkage as well as reconditioning badly felted blankets.

Amended Complaint Filed By City In Dean Cafe Charges

City Attorney Len G. McCormick filed an amended complaint in Corporation Court late Friday against Mrs. Mabel Dean, operator of Dean's Cafe at 205 South Main Street.

The complaint amends one dismissed by Corporation Court last Friday on a motion to quash the indictment. Five other cases pending against the cafe operator.

Under the amended complaint, Mrs. Dean can be tried for the same charge which the court dismissed.

Judge Fred Hartman has set a hearing on the amended complaint April 30.

The Dean hearing, along with another involving J. B. Harrison, operator of the Texas club at 112 South Main Street, is seen as a test of the city's new beer ordinance.

The Harrison hearing will go before the court sometime this week but a definite date has not yet been set.

DADDY RINGTAIL

By WESLEY DAVIS

Daddy Ringtail And Gingerbread Bicycle

The Huffen Puffen, the friendly wolf, had bought a gingerbread bicycle. Away he hurried down the Elephant Path, carrying the bicycle on his back, all to show it to Daddy Ringtail. Daddy Ringtail was standing beneath the very tall tree, the one with the monkey house in the top. Said the Huffen: "I have a gingerbread bicycle, I have, I have." The Huffen was happy and proud indeed. "Why, Huffen," Daddy Ringtail said, "it does look like a bicycle."

Huffen was about to sit on the bicycle seat, but Daddy Ringtail shook his head, and said, "Huffen Puffen, nobody can ride a gingerbread bicycle." Daddy Ringtail went on to explain, "Gingerbread really is sort of gingerbread that couldn't be eaten? Gingerbread was made for people to eat, Daddy Ringtail explained, and so the Huffen stopped his being unhappy. Oh, there were lots of people with bicycles to ride, but no one else beside the Huffen had a gingerbread bicycle to eat. He did eat it. Daddy Ringtail helped him do it. They were happy as happy could be, all on a very fine day. (Copyright 1952, General Features Corp.)

New Preventative For Rust Revealed

MINNEAPOLIS—A new device has been perfected to help protect packaged military equipment from rust and corrosion while in storage. A small, highly-sensitive humidity indicator is sealed inside the packages. The indicator has an outside connection. The moisture-content inside is determined by plugging in a small, portable electron meter which activates a gauge. Heretofore, a spokesman for the perfecting company (Minneapolis-Honeywell Regulator Company) said, such packages had to be opened periodically for measurement of moisture seepage.

Pennsylvania's Primaries Tuesday To Settle Nothing In GOP Slugfest

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Pennsylvania's vegetable soup primary Tuesday may leave in doubt until the July Republican convention in Chicago the trend of this state's powerful 70-vote presidential nominating delegation.

As a housewife puts a little more onion and a carrot or two into the boiling soup, Pennsylvania politicians have thrown about everything into this election, in which 1,600,000 voters may participate.

Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower's name is on the ballot. He is opposed by the thus-far weakest Republican presidential aspirant—former Gov. Harold E. Stassen, of Minnesota. But there are indications an unofficial write-in campaign is underway for Senator Robert A.

Taft of Ohio.

Taft has repudiated any such campaign, saying it doesn't mean anything so far as the state's delegation is concerned.

Apparently, Taft has the right slant, because even Senator James Duff, one of the chief Eisenhower backers, has limited his home state predictions to a forecast of a "substantial" vote for the five-star general.

And Gov. John S. Fine, who might have the decision on how the majority of the state delegation goes at Chicago, hasn't said a favorable word for any candidate, with the possible exception of Gen. Douglas MacArthur, who claims he isn't running.

Democrats are just as confused about their primary, in which some 600,000 party members are expected to go to the polls. A million Republicans may vote.

There is no name on the Democratic ballot, a situation in which some party members believe Senator Estes Kefauver of Tennessee will be able to shine again as a write-in candidate.

However, some sentiment has developed here for W. Averell Harriman, the mutual security administrator.

Apparently nobody will be able to agree after the vote on who won the Republican contest unless the unforeseen should happen and Taft should top Eisenhower with a write-in.

A delegate fight in four congressional districts at Pittsburgh, however, might give a slant on how the state's Republicans are thinking.

U. S. Senator Edward Martin, regarded as a Taft backer, is opposed for re-nomination by former Rep. James P. Scoblick of Archbald and Steele Clark of Indiana County.

At stake in Tuesday's voting are 60 Republican and 60 Democratic national convention delegate votes. At-large states of 10 already have been picked by both parties.

In the Republican group, three are inclined towards Taft, two to Eisenhower—including Duff—and five are, uncommitted under Fine's leadership. Twenty-six unopposed candidates among the 60 district delegates to be elected Tuesday refused to say how they stand.

This year's one-sided campaign—a whoop-up for Eisenhower—came to a close with a charge by Edwin F. Russell, state chairman of Citizens for Eisenhower, that the so-called Grundy organization "believes it can deliver 200,000 write-in votes (for Taft) simply by pushing a button."

He alluded to the organization for former U. S. Senator Joseph R. Grundy, which has backed Duff's Eisenhower group. "An overwhelming victory is assured but we dare not let up for one minute," Russell added.

John D. M. Hamilton, Eastern manager for Taft, predicted a light state-wide vote.

The preferential primary voting isn't binding on delegates of either party.

East German Mine Blast Kills 13 Men; Others Are Missing

BERLIN (AP)—A coal mine explosion behind the Iron Curtain in East Germany has killed at least 13 miners and injured 27. An undisclosed number of miners are listed as missing.

An official statement by the East German government said the blast Saturday was in a shaft of a hard coal mine in Zwickau in Southern Saxony, an area closed to West-landers.

The announcement was the first of its kind to come from the Communist government, although it is known copper and uranium mines have exploded in the past. This fact led to speculation that the latest disaster was so great it was felt it could not be kept secret.

State security police, who normally investigate political matters—including sabotage, have been called to seek the cause of the explosion.

Some east zone coal pits work as man as 500 men each. Conditions in many are primitive and dangerous because the Russians stripped them of much equipment as reparations just after the war.

Crime Increases In Nation, With Accent On Youth

WASHINGTON (AP)—Crime is increasing in the nation, says the FBI and—"a tragedy of our times"—the accent is on youth.

FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover Sunday released a compilation of statistics from police departments throughout the country. They show rate increases for 1951 of 5.2 per cent in cities and five per cent in rural areas.

Hoover commented: "A tragedy of our times is expressed in 1951's fingerprint statistics of youthful offenders."

Of 4 persons arrested during the year, he said most were aged 23; 14.4 per cent were under 21; there was a 7.7 per cent increase among the under-18 group, and 44.9 per cent of 20-year-olds had previous fingerprint arrest records.

The FBI estimated there were 1,882,160 major crimes in 1951, an increase of $2,130 over the previous year. Auto thefts led the stolen property list, and felonious homicides averaged 34 a day.

Mystery Explosions Haunt Dallas Area

DALLAS (AP)—Vandals used high explosives Sunday to rip a 8,000-gallon water tank apart at the fashionable home of advertising man J. B. Taylor.

It was another of a series of mysterious explosions set off in Dallas County in recent months and the second within a few hours. A Saturday night blast had ripped a tree southwest of Dallas.

Sheriff Bill Decker said the tree was blasted with a nitroglycerine charge. Persons living in the vicinity said they saw two boys in a car leave the scene shortly before the tree was destroyed.

The blast which ripped the large galvanized iron tank at the Taylor home was the most damaging reported. Others that have sent police scurrying about the county tore up a small bridge and wrecked a giant pecan tree.

Although the Chinese had printed books about 1,000 years ago, such books did not appear in Europe until the 1400s.

Idaho Democrats Pick 12 Delegates

LEWISTON, IDAHO (AP)—Idaho Democrats pick 12 delegates to the national convention Monday with their selection overshadowed by a battle for control of the party in the state.

Senators Kefauver and Kerr made the strongest bid for support of the delegation, which is expected to be unstructured. The Tennessee's supporters were aligned with the liberal wing seeking to unseat the conservative faction which holds the party reins. The convention opened at noon (CST).

Convicts—

hostage at knife-point, was leader of these mutineers.

Brutality, they claim, caused the mutiny. They wanted publicity. They even forced authorities to call in a newsmen to talk to them. They made a hostage guard, a knife at his throat, pose for photographers at a barred cell window.

There are 179 convicts in the five-tier cell block, all but 29 of them there for violating prison rules of discipline. Guards reported, however, that a group of 15 or so seemed to be fomenters of the uprising.

Warden Julian N. Frieble reported nine hours after the guards were seized: "Everything is under control. It's a matter of sweating them out now. The building is surrounded and there is plenty of artillery trained on it."

Officials Deny Brutality

He denied emphatically any brutality. So did other officials.

While claiming brutality caused the mutiny, the rebellious convicts wouldn't say on what terms they would call it off and free the guards.

The convicts denied there was any connection between their mutiny and riots in New Jersey prisons, where barricaded convicts have been demanding an end of alleged beatings, an outside investigation and better food. Currently, 231 are in the third day of a mutiny at Rahway.

Another uprising ended Friday at Trenton.

Hyatt, whose real name is Jack, pulled a knife and attempted to use Gov. G. Mennen Williams as a shield in an escape attempt at Michigan's Marquette State Prison July 8, 1950. A guard, with the governor on an inspection tour, overpowered Hyatt.

He is 29 and is serving 26 to 30 years for armed robbery, having been sent up from Detroit Sept. 18, 1948. He has served two other prison terms and a deportation warrant awaits him, if he's ever released, as an undesirable alien from Canada. He was transferred here Dec. 16, 1950.

Ask For Newspaperman

Grabbing and overpowering the guards at 7:20 p.m. Sunday, the convicts called the prison office on the inter-prison telephone system to announce their mutiny and to make demands.

Gov. V. they said, Assistant Warden George Bacon, chairman of the prison's disciplinary board, and a newspaperman—"a representative of The Associated Press."

Reporter Ed F. Smith of the Jackson Citizen-Patriot was called. He and Bacon conferred across a 30-foot pathway with the convicts. Smith had to convince them he was a newsmen through by-lines in Sunday's paper and to assure them he could get their story to AP and radio stations.

"There was so much yelling and banging we could hardly hear each other until Ward ordered the convicts to quiet down," Smith said, "even though they came outside the cell block to talk to us."

"They assured us the four guards were all right, but said the barber shop had been wrecked, plus a lot of other stuff on the inside."

All off-duty prison guards were called out and 100 state troopers flocked to the scene. Machine guns were turned on the door of the building housing the cell block, which is separated from others inside the walls. Road blocks were thrown up to thwart escapes during the disturbance.

As Smith's story spread newsmen flocked here from Detroit, Lansing and other cities. So did photographers. Warden Frieble let them into the yard, but told them to keep away from the building's front door, "because if it opens somebody's liable to get full of holes."

Hyatt's rioters told their story, parade fashion, shouting to newsmen outside the cell block. They posed at barred windows for photographers. Finally they brought up a guard. Newsmen saw a knife at his throat.

Supreme Court Refuses To Free German Countess

WASHINGTON—(AP)—By a 4-4 vote, the Supreme Court Monday refused to free German Countess Marianna Von Moltke from the prison term she drew on charges that she spied for Hitler's Reich during World War II.

Mrs. Von Moltke's home was in Detroit. Her four-year sentence has been marked by litigation since it was pronounced in 1944.

The Supreme Court's action was announced in an unsigned order which noted only that the tribunal was equally divided. Such tie votes always uphold the lower court. Justice Clark disqualified himself from the case.

San Antonio Gets Lion Hunt Underway

SAN ANTONIO—(AP)—A lion hunt was in progress in downtown San Antonio Monday.

Queenie, a seven-year-old animal, escaped from her carnival cage in the downtown area.

Art Spencer, owner of the Lion exhibit, said she was not dangerous if people would leave her alone.

Police Chief R. D. Allen sent all available policemen and detectives into the area to keep the curious spectators away. People were reported following the beast to see what it was going to do.

Firemen were summoned with nets to be used in an effort to recapture the lion without the necessity of destroying it.

Spencer said Queenie got loose and escaped while the cage was being cleaned.

Midlanders Join Texas In San Jacinto Program

San Jacinto Day, one of the most important days in Texas history, was being observed as a holiday Monday by Midland financial institutions and a few oil companies. For the most part, it was business as usual in this headquarters city of the Permian Basin Empire. A quick check in the downtown district failed to find a single Texas flag unfurled.

Texas A&M ex-students in the Permian Basin area were to muster Monday night in Odessa, an annual highlight of the San Jacinto Day observance.

On April 21, 1836, Gen. Sam

Houston and his small band of Texas soldiers routed Gen. Santa Anna and his Mexican Army in the Battle of San Jacinto, the sweeping victory assuring for Texas the independence it had declared on March 2, 1836.

The outcome of the battle eventually changed the history of the entire Western part of the United States. San Jacinto Day is an official Texas holiday, but today it is not widely observed, even in the Lone Star State.

Some newcomers to Texas wondered why the banks were closed Monday.

Austin Postmaster Gets Revenue Post

AUSTIN—(AP)—Appointment of Austin postmaster R. L. (Bob) Phinney as assistant collector of Internal Revenue for the South District of Texas was announced here Monday.

Phinney's appointment was made by Internal Revenue Commissioner John Dunlap in Washington and announced in Austin by acting collector Kirby Jackson who has served here since the recent resignation of Frank L. Scofield.

HAND LACERATED

Hal-oid Brockert, 311 1/2 North Carrio Street, an employee of the O'Neill Drilling Company, injured his right hand Sunday as he was removing casing protectors on a well in the Spraberry trend. He was treated for lacerations of the right hand at the Midland Memorial Hospital.

Another Midland Auto Inspection Station Approved

The Curtis Pontiac Company, 2600 West Wall Street, has been approved as an official automobile inspection station and has the equipment necessary to begin inspections, Capt. R. D. Hammett, district director of the vehicle inspection division of the Department of Public Safety, said Monday.

Other approved stations here include: Eldes Chevrolet Company, Murray-Young Motors, Ltd., Broadway Motors and Miles Hall Buick Company.

Hayes Motor Service and Eddie Kent Garage should be ready to begin inspections soon, Captain Hammett stated.

High Court Upholds Ruling On Richfield

WASHINGTON—(AP)—The Supreme Court Monday upheld, 7-0 a finding that the Richfield Oil Corporation of Los Angeles violated the anti-trust laws by requiring 2,965 Western service stations to buy only from Richfield.

The finding has been made by U. S. District Judge Leon R. Yankwich of Los Angeles.

The high court's decision was announced in an unsigned order which noted that Justice Clark had disqualified himself from the case and Justice Frankfurter had taken no part because he was ill at the time it was argued.

The illegal agreements affected service stations in California, Oregon, Washington, Nevada, Idaho and Arizona.

No Sabotage Seen In Anthrax Wave

WASHINGTON—(AP)—Dr. E. T. Simms, chief of the Agriculture Department's Bureau of Animal Husbandry, said Monday the government had found no evidence sabotage was involved in recent outbreaks of anthrax among livestock.

Some of the outbreaks among hogs in Ohio, Indiana and Illinois have been traced to commercial feed given the animals. The feed contained bone meal which had been imported from Belgium.

This led to speculation, Dr. Simms said, that enemy agents might have planted the disease in the imported bone meal. The Federal Bureau of Investigation, as well as other government agencies, checked the possibility. But nothing has been found to support any such belief.

Smoke Jumpers Ready For Exercise Desert Rock IV

ATOM BOMB SITE, NEV.—(AP)—History's first atomic smoke jumpers, with one eye on the weather, made final preparations Monday for their spectacular part in Exercise Desert Rock IV.

Scientists and military men promised to provide a nuclear test guaranteed to furnish thrills for more than 300 invited observers Tuesday—if murky clouds and tricky winds will dissipate.

The maneuvers against "enemy" positions behind imaginary hills on Yucca Flat will involve an atom bomb drop of more than ordinary proportions between 11 a.m. and noon (CST).

Almost 1,500 troops—dug into four-foot deep foxholes about three miles from ground zero—will attack the enemy positions. As the troops advance to ground zero, four C-46 planes will drop 120 selected paratroopers of the 504th Regiment, 82nd Airborne Division, well behind the enemy lines.

Then the two elements will combine to wipe out the enemy stronghold.

That's the tactical problem which has been set up. But if winds run more than 35 miles an hour, the paratroopers may stay on the ground. A C-47 medical ship will evacuate any casualties.

Ahead of the dug-in combat battalion will be machine guns, small planes and trucks. They will be inspected before the blast, then re-examined afterward to determine the effects of the thrust, heat and radiation of the bomb.

Press and civilian defense observers will have a grandstand seat seven miles from ground zero on News Nob, the natural promontory just in front of the control building.

After Detonation Before ground troops advance or paratroopers jump, radiological safety monitors will move into no-man's land with ion chambers and Geiger counters to make sure it is safe to occupy. This may be an hour after the detonation.

Brig. Gen. Harry P. Stokes, who plans to be in a frontline foxhole, says the maneuver—besides its tactical aspect—also seeks to brace the morale of the atomic GI's and show what equipment can take in a nuclear blast.

The infantrymen might find their advance guns still usable, General Stokes said, adding quickly however—"If the guns are still there."

Steel Crisis—

chairman of the Wage Stabilization Board, and Ellis Arnall, price stabilizer, met at the White House with the National Advisory Board on Mobilization Policy for a discussion of the steel situation.

Two GOP Proposals John R. Steelman, aide to Truman, now is acting chairman of the advisory board.

Republicans sponsoring the move to cut off funds for government operation of the steel industry claimed growing Democratic support.

They have put forward two proposals:

1. Forbid use of any funds provided by a pending money bill for salaries of officials to run the steel mills under seizure, introduced by Senator Ferguson (R-Mich.)

2. Deny use of any federal funds, regardless of the source, to seize or operate any plant without specific consent from Congress. This tougher version was proposed by Senator Knowland (R-Calif.), a leader in the anti-seizure maneuvering.

The proposed amendments would be tacked onto a $960,000,000 bill to finance operations of most government agencies until June 30. Among them is the Commerce Department, operating the seized steel mills under Truman's orders. The bill now is before the Senate.

MERCURY BEATS ALL COMERS IN MOBILGAS ECONOMY RUN

3 WINS IN 3 YEARS!

Lincoln Again Best in Class—Runs Second in Sweepstakes

Mercury, the car that challenged them all, has done it again... won the grand Sweepstakes prize in this "world series" for automobiles.

weight, ton-miles-per-gallon performance* determines the winner. A 1952 Mercury Monterey Special Custom Sedan with optional overdrive swept the field with 59,718 ton-miles-per-gallon, averaging 25,409 miles per gallon. And the engine that did it is Mercury's famous V-8. The Lincoln Capri Sedan with Hydra-Matic transmission won its class prize with 58,985 ton-miles-per-gallon, averaging 22,353 miles per gallon.

And this isn't the first time! Just look at Mercury's three-year-in-a-row record: three out of three times winner in its price class; two out of three times Sweepstakes winner against all cars in every class! Look at Lincoln, too. Lincoln won Class G first prize, and provided Mercury's closest competition for top Sweepstakes honors.

That's something to think about when you buy a new car. Mercury, which for months has been challenging the industry to match it, has now proved its superiority for economy.

Right now, in our showroom, is a 1952 Mercury similar to the one that won this official, impartial test. Why not stop around and give it a try? No obligation, of course.

*Ton-miles-per-gallon equals the car's weight (with passengers), multiplied by miles traveled, divided by gallons of gasoline used.

GRUELING 1,415-MILE TEST

What a test to prove Mercury and Lincoln superiority! This year's run covers a 1,415-mile course from Los Angeles to Salt Lake City, Idaho—longest and toughest test in Mobilgas Economy Run history. Road elevations range from below sea level in Death Valley to 8,010 feet in Arizona mountains. But the tougher the course, the more evident Lincoln and Mercury superiority. Mercury out-performed all others to win both the grand Sweepstakes prize and first place Class G trophy. Lincoln won Class G and was Mercury's closest competitor for top Sweepstakes honors.

Havana Police Nab Ex-Convict Wanted in Kidnaping Hoax

HAVANA, CUBA — (AP) — Havana police Monday held an ex-convict wanted in Florida in connection with extortion of $15,000 in jewels and cash from a jeweler who thought his son had been kidnaped.

Police Chief Enriquez Fernandez Parjon said Charles Johnson, 35, had been arrested in a hotel here with a quantity of jewels which "seemed to fit the description" of those delivered as ransom by Daniel Richter, Miami jeweler.

Johnson, Fernandez said, denied any knowledge of the extortion plot and claimed the jewels were his. He came here by plane last week, traveling under an assumed name, police added.

Richter left $15,000 worth of jewels and $200 in cash in a bus station locker last Thursday after plotters told him his six-year-old son had been kidnaped. The child had been picked up at school by a taxi driver and taken to a hospital, where the driver and school authorities were told by telephone, the boy's mother was a patient.

The child was found unharmed at the hospital.

Armistice Deadlock Continues Unbroken

MUNSAN, KOREA — (AP) — Each side Monday refused to recognize the other's position on the two deadlocked issues in Korean truce talks. There was no hint of compromise.

Col. Don O. Darrow, a United Nations Command staff officer, said the Communists refused to discuss or even acknowledge "the issue of military airfield construction in Korea in the event of an armistice."

The UNC wants to ban the building of military airfields during a truce. The Reds have called this interference in the internal affairs of North Korea.

A UNC communique said the matter of which nations shall supervise a truce has been solved by the UNC suggestion that only four nations—Sweden, Switzerland, Poland and Czechoslovakia—form the Neutral Nations Supervisory Commission.

The Reds want Russia on the list. The Allies do not.

Staff officers discussing truce supervision stayed in session an hour and four minutes Monday.

Other staff officers conferring on prisoner exchange—third stumbling block to a truce agreement—held an hour and 47-minute-off-the-record discussion.

Both groups planned to meet again at 11 a.m. Tuesday.

UNC-staff officers have told the Communists they "must take some forward step" if there is to be any settlement of the airfield issue.

The Reds replied Monday, a UNC communique said, that no progress will be possible if the UNC "continues to assume its unwilling attitude."

The Allies answered that the "problem" will not disappear by simply calling it "an unreasonable demand," the communique said.

Girl Scout Swept To Death Over Falls

OROVILLE, CALIF. — (AP) — A 15-year-old Girl Scout, playing near the head of one of America's highest waterfalls, slipped into the river and was swept to her death over 640-foot-Butter Falls Sunday.

She was Beverly Fricks, member of a Sacramento Girl Scout troop weekending with adults on a tributary of the Feather River.

UNC-staff officers have told the Communists they "must take some forward step" if there is to be any settlement of the airfield issue.

The Reds replied Monday, a UNC communique said, that no progress will be possible if the UNC "continues to assume its unwilling attitude."

The Allies answered that the "problem" will not disappear by simply calling it "an unreasonable demand," the communique said.

Eisenhower Spends Another Day in Bed

SUPREME HEADQUARTERS ALLIED POWERS IN EUROPE — (AP) — A heavy head and throat cold will keep Gen. Dwight Eisenhower in bed for another day.

Informants said his temperature has dropped to normal but another day of rest is needed to lick an upper respiratory infection.

The general was ordered to bed by his doctor Saturday.

A UNO communique said the matter of which nations shall supervise a truce has been solved by the UNC suggestion that only four nations—Sweden, Switzerland, Poland and Czechoslovakia—form the Neutral Nations Supervisory Commission.

The Reds want Russia on the list. The Allies do not.

Staff officers discussing truce supervision stayed in session an hour and four minutes Monday.

Other staff officers conferring on prisoner exchange—third stumbling block to a truce agreement—held an hour and 47-minute-off-the-record discussion.

Both groups planned to meet again at 11 a.m. Tuesday.

Engineer Patents 'Jet Gas Gun' To Foil Bank Robbers

HALIFAX, NOVA SCOTIA — (AP) — A Halifax marine engineer and master mechanic has invented a "jet gas gun" to mark both bank robbers and their loot.

The inventor, J. Dan Pride, has patented his gun in Canada and has patent applications pending in other countries.

Not intended to kill or injure permanently, it would be installed under tellers' counters in banks. In a holdup, a quick foot movement by the bank employe would blanket the robber with dyed ammonium hydroxide shot from a tiny nozzle under 2,000 pounds of pressure.

The ammonia would blind and sicken the robber. The purple dye wouldn't wash off for several days, and would never come off any money he held.

Pride considered giving the gun a strong, objectionable odor but couldn't figure out how to get it out of the bank after a holdup.

Damage Said Slight in Apartment Fire

Midland firemen responded to an alarm at 813 North Main Street at 10 a.m. Sunday. A couch in an apartment there apparently caught fire from a cigarette.

Firemen quickly extinguished the blaze. Damage was slight. The building is owned by C. F. Hamner.

GOP Hangs Out Welcome Sign To Restless Texas Democrats

By The Associated Press
The badly split Texas Republican Party "agreed" briefly over inviting Democrats—dissatisfied ones—to its precinct conventions, May 3.

Both said over the weekend they welcomed the Democrats into the GOP, but the factions' agreement stopped abruptly right there.

The "I like Ike" boys—said the Taft leaders were misinterpreting the GOP party pledge, and added their own interpretation. Come on and attend the Republican precinct conventions, they said, then—if you can stand it—vote in the Democratic primaries.

That was the effect of words from Alvin H. Lane, co-chairman of the State Executive Committee of the Eisenhower-for-President clubs of Texas. Lane said he could find no basis for the warning of Henry Zweifel that Democrats who take part in Republican conventions may find themselves barred from their own party primaries.

"It may be," Lane added, "that Mr. Zweifel would have the Republican State Executive Committee pass a resolution restricting participation in Republican activities to avowed supporters of Taft."

Zweifel is GOP national committeeman from Texas.

Saturday, he had reminded Democrats that Republicans in the state have adopted their own version of a party loyalty pledge which simply says "I am a Republican and desire to participate in Republican party activities in the year 1952."

He said he hoped a lot of restless Democrats "burned their New Deal bridges behind them." And he added: "If they come into the republican Part, we want them to stay in." He said the signed declarations would be filed with county clerks.

A party pledge also is the big note of dissent in the state Democratic Party.

Last week, the State Democratic Executive Committee said precinct conventions "may or may not require the Democratic Party pledge, after they have organized and by majority vote. The decision was challenged by the "Loyal Democrats," who said they would continue to insist on an iron-clad pledge straight through precinct, county, state and national conventions.

Die-hard Democrats looked to Martin Dies for an announcement for his intentions, if any, in the forthcoming Democratic primaries.

Dies, former chairman of the House Committee on Un-American Activities, repeatedly has said he would run for office this year, either for the seat to be vacated by U. S. Senator Tom Connally or for congressman-at-large.

On April 13, he said he would announce his intentions within 10 days. That gives him until Wednesday to come out under his own deadline.

To date, timid Texas politicians have declined to get their feet wet with an announcement opposing Attorney General Price Daniel, only candidate for the Connally Senate post.

Two At Large After Jailbreak At Alice

ALICE — (AP) — Three men broke out of the county jail here early Monday by escaping through a window over the kitchen.

One of the men—Richard Don Barnes, who was charged with assault with intent to murder in a knife attack on his wife—was caught soon after the break was discovered.

The other two—Andrews (Blackie) Cardenas and Windie Lamar Johnson, both charged with burglary—still were at large.

All are from Alice.

FORD WINS AGAIN!

TAKES FIRST PLACE IN CLASS "A"

IN THE 1952 Mobilgas Economy Run

Ford's the Class "A" Winner for 3rd Consecutive Year!

New Ford Mileage Maker SIX Thriftiest in its Field!

Again this year... as in the past two years... Ford was first in gas economy over all other cars in its price class in the Mobilgas Economy Run. In this toughest-of-all economy test for American stock model cars, a Ford SIX equipped with Overdrive (optional at extra cost) averaged 53.855 ton-miles per gallon and 25.463 actual miles per gallon.

This was a very special triumph for Ford's All-New Mileage Maker high-compression SIX. For now, with its new design providing 101-horsepower and free-running overhead valves, Ford is definitely pound-for-pound the most economical low-priced car to run! Yes... Ford's thrift was clearly proved by the 1,415-mile grind from Los Angeles to Sun Valley... a course that included dense city traffic, below-sea-level desert heat reaching over 100 degrees, and rugged mountain passes up to 8,000 feet with below zero temperatures. And a very important factor contributing to this victory is Ford's Automatic Power Pilot which squeezes the last ounce of power out of every drop of gas.

Cleveland Still Unbeaten; Giants Halt Bums, 6 To 0

By JOE REICHLER
Associated Press Sports Writer

Cleveland's rampaging Indians, baseball's only unbeaten nine, are closing in on the major league record for consecutive victories at the start of a season.

At the same time, Detroit's Tigers are on their way to a record in reverse—that of losing the most games from opening day.

Combining brilliant pitching with long-range hitting, Al Lopez' win-happy Tribe Sunday swept a doubleheader from the toothless Tigers, 3-2 and 7-2, for their sixth and seventh triumphs in succession.

Cleveland needs two more wins to equal the record of nine that the 1944 St. Louis Browns, 1918 New York Giants and 1940 Brooklyn Dodgers reeled off right from the start.

Detroit, without a victory in its first seven games, is more than half-way to its own major league record of 13 successive losses at the start of the 1930 campaign. The Tigers, only big league club never to finish in the cellar, are there now, seven all games behind the pace-setting Indians.

Bob Lemon and Steve Gromek each went the distance to make it five complete games for Cleveland hurlers in seven starts. Lemon yielded seven hits in the opener for his second triumph. Gromek permitted five for his first.

Luke Easter's homer in the ninth, his third in three days, broke up a pitching duel between Lemon and Art Houtteman. The Indians unloaded four round trippers in the nightcap. Al Rosen hit two and Pete Reiser and Ray Boone one each. Reiser subbed for Larry Doby, who pulled a muscle in his right thigh in the opener.

The Brooklyn Dodgers had their unbeaten skid snapped at five when Sal (The Barber) Maglie pitched the New York Giants to a 6-0 victory. Maglie limited the hard-hitting Brooks to two singles. Cincinnati won twice in Pittsburgh, 8-6 and 12-2. Ted Kluszewski, slugging Cincinnati first baseman, had a field day at bat with two homers and two triples to drive in nine runs.

Ned Garver hurled his second shutout in two starts for the St. Louis Browns, who split a twin bill with the Chicago White Sox. Garver held the Sox to two safeties as the Browns won the first game, 8-0. Chicago won the second game, 10-2, with darkness halting it at the end of seven innings. The biggest Browns' home crowd since 1944—25,081—watched the twin bill.

A home run by Pinch-Hitter Billy Goodman with two on in the seventh gave the Boston Red Sox a 6-3 victory over Washington. Boston's sixth win in seven games gave southpaw Mel Parnell his second triumph of the season and his sixteenth straight over the Senators.

The New York Yankees whipped the Philadelphia Athletics, 9-6, to halt a three-game losing streak and extend the Athletics' losing skid to four.

Ferris Fain, American League's leading hitter last year, went hitless. The Philadelphia first baseman now has gone 21 times without a hit this season.

Steve Bilko hit a home run with Enos Slaughter on base in the fifth inning to give the St. Louis Cardinals a 3-1 victory over the Cubs in Chicago.

North, South Field Rated Wide Open

PINEHURST, N. C.—(AP)

—There was no standout favorite as North and South amateur golf tournament qualifying play began Monday, but it was not because of a scarcity of candidates.

Actually, the fast field listed so many potential winners that the fifty-second staging of this event looked like one of the most wide open in history.

Naturally, the defending champion must always be considered, Hobart Manley, long-hitting Savannah, Ga., ace, has the shots with which to repeat.

His 1951 finals opponent, Billy Joe Patton of Morganton, N. C., loser by one-up in 36 holes, also has strong support. Patton, with one of the fastest backswings in golf, comes here after tying South Africa's Bobby Locke over the 72-hole distance for the Carolinas Open title.

Frank Stranahan of Toledo, winner in 1946 and '49 and a finalist two other years, is always dangerous over, the trying 7,007 yards of the No. 2 Country Club course, a par 72 layout.

Pinehurst's Dick Chapman probably holds front rank as sentimental favorite. Now in his forties, Chapman has never been able to win this title. As a matter of fact, he's never reached the finals.

Twice in the last three years the eventual champion has beaten him in the semi-finals. U. S. Amateur king a dozen years ago, Chapman added the British crown last Spring. He leaves soon after this tournament to defend the British title next month.

Two New Yorkers who won previous North and South tournaments, Mai Galletta and Frank Strataci, Texas Dale Morey and Jimmy McHale, Bethlehem, Pa., internationalist, are among others in the field of 180 who are highly regarded.

Monday's 18-hole qualifying play will determine the 64 first round performers. Match play opens Tuesday with two rounds Wednesday, quarter-finals Thursday, semi-Friday and the championship match Saturday. Matches the last two days will be over 36 holes.

Tuesday, other openers find the Lions and Carls playing at South Side Field while the Pirates and Cubs tangle at the Memorial site.

Team sponsors and managers are: Indians: Tailorline. Bert David, manager.

Braves: Midland Realtors. Dan Braudry, manager.

Pirates: Broadway Motors. Ed Vogler, manager.

Cubs: Felix Stonehocker Co. Everette Smith, manager.

Lions: Lions Club. Bell, Prendergast and Whigham, managers.

Little League To Open Play Tuesday

Play begins in the Midland Little League Tuesday with the Indians and Braves meeting at 5:15 p.m. at Memorial Stadium diamond, and the Eagles and Cubs meeting at South Side Field at 8:30 p.m.

Indians, Oilers Open '52 Season

Nicolls, Ortega To Hurl; Capacity Crowd Is Expected

The most colorful baseball game of the year is on tap Monday night, when the Midland Indians and the Odessa Oilers tangle at 8 p.m. here in the official Longhorn League lid-blast.

A capacity crowd of 3,000 fans has been forecast by club officials, for this opening-night tilt which also will bring baseball followers from Odessa.

This one is a natural—opening night, Midland vs. Odessa, the 1952 over-all favorite against the 1951 champion.

The Indians have been named the team to beat by loop sports writers; Odessa won the whole cake in the playoffs last year.

Both managers—Zeke Bonura of Midland and Bob (Pepper) Martin of Odessa—will lead with top hurlers.

Bonura will send Keith Nicolls, limited service hurler who posted a 13-2 record with Erie, Pa., last year, to the mound. Martin will call on Evelio Ortega, southpaw who led Odessa pitchers with a 21-8 record in 1951.

The Oilers have displayed great Spring hitting power. So good has been their stick attack that Catcher Felix Castro—who batted .333 last year—is in the eighth position. Only in hurling depth does the Odessa team appear weak.

Official ceremonies here for the opening game will be brief. Mayor Perry Pickett will toss out the first ball, after a brief introduction of the Midland players.

The Midland batting order will read like this: Tito Santeigo, 1b; Bob Gordon, rf; Stan Wilcox, cf; Hayden White, lf; Julio de la Torre, ss; Bill Brown, c; Bill Crumley, 2b; Woody Pennington, 3b; Keith Nicolls, p.

This is the lineup Martin will start against the Indians: Raul Di-eppa, ss; Barney Batson, 1b; Roman Loyko, cf; Leo Eastham, rf; Bob (Pepper) Martin, 3b; Charles Weber, 2b; Kermit Luckenbach, lf; Felix Castro, c; Evelio Ortega, p.

The Indians go to Odessa Tuesday night for the home opener in Oiler Park. Wednesday night the Oilers return here, with Midland making the trek back to Odessa for a Thursday contest. All these games are at 8 p.m.

Other first-night games in the loop find Sab Angilo at Big Spring, Artoze at Roswell and Vernon at Sweetwater. Tuesday, the scene shifts to San Angelo and Roswell. Vernon plays at Sweetwater, going home Wednesday to open there against the Braves.

Midland Colts Win Over Stockton, 2-1

Midland's Colts nudged the Fort Stockton nine, 2-1, here Sunday in Colt Park in an 11-inning affair.

The Latin-American team loaded the sacks in the final frame, then won when a score was walked in.

Only four hits were banged out by each side. Credit for the win went to Matilde of the Colts.

Ben Jones Back For Derby With 'Poor Little Horse'

By GAYLE TALBOT

NEW YORK—(AP)—Within a few days now the greatest racing writers in America, if not in the world, will gather in a little room smelling of horse over in the stable area at Churchill Downs and go through with the annual skit known as interviewing Ben Jones.

This always is one of the highlights of the pre-Derby program, rivaling the trainers' dinner and the hallowed sightseeing tour through one of Louisville's more famous distilleries. Ben is the world's greatest horse trainer, winner of five Kentucky Derbies, so you may well imagine the verbal sparks which fly when he meets the sharpest minds of the press box. It ought to be on television.

This year Ben, known to some as "Forthright Ben," has another almost certain Derby winner in a magnificent rarer named Hill Gall. Our wife made a packet on him in his maiden Eastern appearance last Summer because she felt the name was loaded with significance. What we have in mind is to supply a preview of the approaching dialogue between Hill Gall's manager and his alert inquirers. It follows:

"Well, Ben, you old chicken thief, it's great to seek you again. From what the boys out West say this must be quite a horse you got this time. Think he'll win it?"

"Well, I'll tell you, he's a pretty good little old horse, all right, but don't go betting any money on him. I wouldn't risk a cent on him, myself. I'll be mighty pleased if we just get a little piece of that prize money."

"But Ben, he was going away from them when he won the Santa Anita Derby, wasn't he? That's a pretty good horse race."

"Didn't have much to beat in that one, boys. You had all the big horses back in the East and down South. My little horse wasn't running against Tom Fool and Blue Man and Gushing Oil and horses like that. I don't know whether he can keep up with that kind of horses."

"Well, look Ben, that was what you told us three years ago about Ponder, but when the race was over you were the fellow who was running around out there on the track waving his hat."

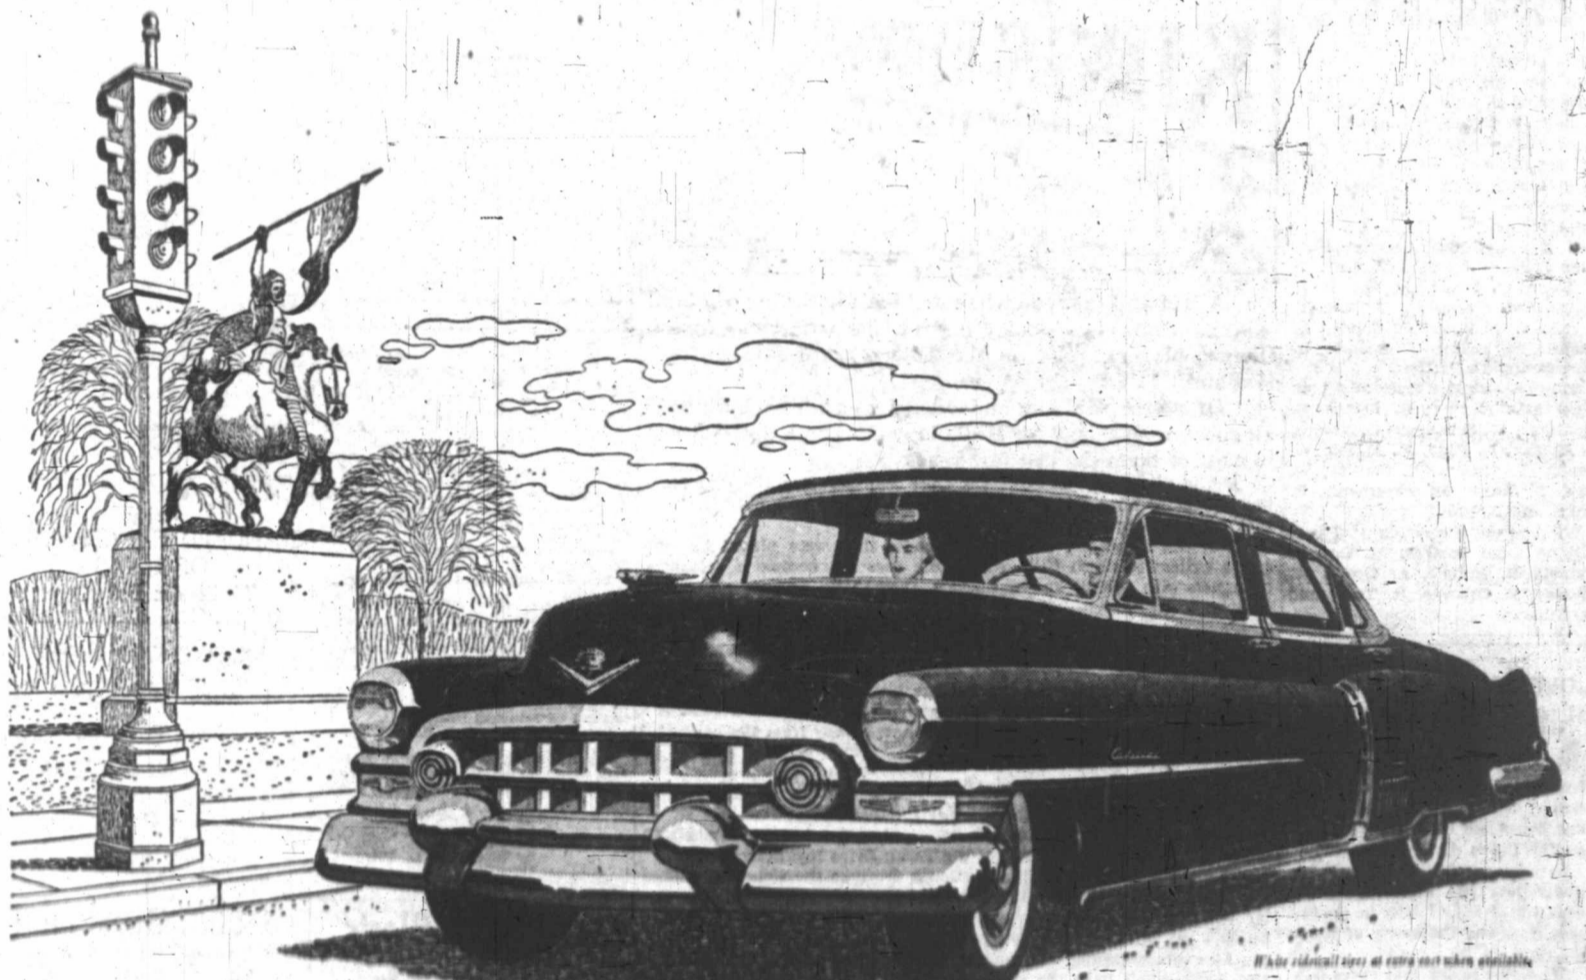

"Boys, that was the greatest surprise of my life, honest. When I saw Ponder coming up there in the stretch and taking the lead I couldn't believe my eyes. But don't go thinking this horse is any Ponder. You'll just lose your money."

"There isn't any doubt about him going a mile and a quarter, is there Ben? We hear he still was full of run when he passed the wire at Santa Anita."

"That's what you never can tell, boys, no matter how long you've been around horses. There's a lot of horses look like world beaters at a mile or a mile and an eighth but they don't like the Derby distance. Hill Gall's a pretty good looking horse but he might die on me in that last furlong. That's what I'm afraid of, anyway."

"Well, thanks, Ben, it's been good talking to you, anyway. You do intend to start him, don't you?"

"Oh, sure, I guess I'll start him, but don't let him cost you any money. What you'd better do is go along and talk to some of those other trainers with the big horses. Come back any time and old Ben will tell you all he can. Always glad to help you press boys."

Air Reserve Inventory Brings Status Changes

The Midland Area Air Forces Reserve Survey is bringing about many changes in the military status of area men.

One man was a supply officer in the last war. After the war he went to school and graduated with a degree in geology. In the survey, he was given a choice of being listed as a supply officer or in a field relating to geology, such as interpretation of aerial photographs.

In addition to this change, the man was given an availability rating of A1 which means that he is in a critical industry. In the event of war, he would be given up to 90 days deferment if he is recalled to active duty. A few men will be given as much as 12 months delay.

Another reservist, a sergeant in the last war, since has qualified as a reserve officer. If recalled to active duty, he will be called as an officer.

Many men who were pilots, navigators and bombardiers during the war have been reclassified as lawyers, doctors, geologists, and engineers. They may still fly, as many prefer to do.

Some men, single in the last war, have brought up to date their list of dependents to show a wife and children. A few have been physically disqualified and discharged from the reserve.

Reeves Democrats Set Groundwork For Conventions

PECOS — Initial groundwork for the Democratic precinct conventions May 3 was laid by the Reeves County Democratic Executive Committee Saturday. Joe B. Pouns is chairman.

Executive representatives from six of the county's nine precincts attended.

Purpose of the meeting was to determine if all the members could assist in the election procedures this year, to ascertain if they could obtain adequate help, and to discuss wage rates for election judges and clerks.

Pouns told the committeemen the bank and in addition read names of political candidates who have filed with him. He reminded the group that May 5 is the filing deadline. Date for the convention is May 6.

Oil Well Fire Still Rages On Lease In Ector

ODESSA — An oil well fire, which broke out Saturday and already has caused $200,000 damages, still was burning 15 miles northwest of Odessa Monday morning.

The blaze was believed started by friction, which ignited casing gas in the air.

Five men, all employees of McQueen and Clevenger, were burned when the fire broke out. They were treated at an Odessa hospital. None of the men were injured seriously.

The well is on a Shell Oil Company lease near Goldsmith.

The rig and derrick were pulled down Sunday in an effort to extinguish the flames. Workers at the fire said they would use steam Monday in an attempt to put out the fire.

The sugar content of the sap of maple trees is from 2 to 7 per cent.

Small Discovery Is In Prospect In Lime In NW Stonewall

A small pumping discovery from a Pennsylvanian lime is in prospect in Northwest Stonewall County at Columbian Fuel Company No. 1 J. D. Patterson.

This wildcat had swabbed at the rate of five barrels of oil per hour from perforated section at 5,738-66 feet.

It is now shut in to install a pump to take potential test and complete.

The discovery is three and one-half miles north of Pecosock and 660 feet from north and west lines of the northeast quarter of section 317, block D, H&TCo survey.

That makes it two and one-half miles south of the Carlisle-Pennsylvanian field.

The wildcat is on a lease secured by Columbian Fuel Company in a farmout deal with The Ohio Oil Company.

American Airlines Net Income Drops

NEW YORK — American Airlines, Inc., reported a sharp decline in net income for the first quarter of 1952, but by reason of higher fares expects the year's gross to advance by about $2,500,000, according to a statement Sunday by C. R. Smith, president.

First quarter net was $964,834, compared with $2,450,000 in the first quarter of 1951.

Smith attributed the decline to "higher operating costs, coupled with some reduction in load factor."

He said, however, that the higher fares recently approved by the Civil Aeronautics Board should increase the gross for the whole year.

Ector Prospect Gets Water In Devonian; Making More Hole

V. A. Brill and associates No. 1 Mrs. Sallie Ratliff, Northeast Ector County wildcat, three and one-half miles east of the shallow North Cowden-Grayburg field found water in the Devonian.

That fluid was developed in a drillstem test at 12,144-181 feet. The tool was open two hours and 45 minutes.

Had No Oil Shows
Recovery was 1,350 feet of very heavy gas cut drilling mud and 1,100 feet of gas cut salt water. There were no shows of oil.

Open flowing bottom hole pressure was 1,300 pounds. Shut-in bottom hole pressure, after 30 minutes was 4,425 pounds. The project is drilling deeper.

Location is 660 feet from north and west lines of section 11, block 42, T-1-B, T&P survey. It is 10 miles north of Odessa and 20 miles northwest of Midland.

No Oil Signs
Top of the Devonian is at 11,870 feet. Elevation is 2,891 feet. That

German Scientist Reported Held By Egypt Authorities

CAIRO, EGYPT — (P)—Egypt is reported holding a German rocket scientist under house arrest Monday after ousting two others of a research team five days ago.

The Egyptians, a reliable informant said, think the scientist spent 150,000 pounds (about $430,000) in seven months on chemical research connected with a rocket project but got no results.

The informant said Kurt Fuellner, identified as the head of the group, was under arrest.

The informant identified the others as Erich Stoetzer and a Miss Weigels, who was described as Fuellner's secretary.

These two reportedly were ordered onto a plane on the Royal Dutch Airlines (KLM), which left for Frankfurt last Wednesday.

No immediate check could be made with KLM passenger lists, nor was there any official confirmation of the report.
