

Four Of Seven On Missing Boat Are Found Dead

BELLINGHAM, WASH.—(P)—The wind-whipped wake of one of Puget Sound's worst yachting tragedies has revealed the bodies of four of seven persons who were aboard the 35-foot sailing sloop Prelude when it vanished Sunday.

An extensive search for the other three persons—now presumed dead—and the wreckage of the mysteriously missing boat was continuing Wednesday.

The bodies of Mrs. Ellen Fordyce, her son Kenneth, 12, Ed E. Jukes and Mrs. Donald W. Card, were found Tuesday in the waters between here and Orcas Island, some 15 miles to the southwest. Only Jukes was not wearing a life preserver.

Still missing are Paul Fordyce, the owner of the yacht, Donald Card and Mrs. Jukes. Only a mattress, lifeboat paddles, two seat cushions and an ice box door from the Prelude have been found.

Pordyce, an expert yachtsman, had years of experience sailing the waters in which the Prelude disappeared—and in much worse weather than was experienced Sunday night when moderate winds were blowing.

Those who have joined in the widespread search feel that only by finding the boat's wreckage can they answer the question—what was the Prelude to disaster?

Senate Clears Way For McGranery To Take Justice Post

WASHINGTON—(P)—A lopsided Senate vote cleared the way for James P. McGranery to walk into the Justice Department Wednesday and take over as the boss.

By a 52 to 18 vote, the Senate Tuesday night confirmed Truman's nomination of the 66-year-old Philadelphia jurist to succeed J. Howard McGrath as attorney general.

All the votes against the appointment were cast by Republicans, but 14 other Republicans joined the 38 Democrats in voting for confirmation.

Duff, Martin Approve Pennsylvania's two Republican Senators, Duff and Martin, were among those voting approval.

McGranery, a former house member, has been a federal judge in the Eastern District of Pennsylvania since 1946. During the war he served as the No. 2 official in the Justice Department as assistant to the attorney general.

TCU President Calls For Reemphasis Of Religion

CHICAGO—(P)—Dr. M. E. Sadler, president of Texas Christian University, asserted Wednesday that any school which does not teach the existence of God is "actually teaching atheism."

"Our schools have proceeded on the entirely false assumption that if they did not teach religion, they would be neutral," he said.

In a talk to the International Convention of Disciples of Christ, the church that controls Texas Christian University, he said: "As applied to our education, we have interpreted the great principle of religious freedom to mean freedom from religion, and have permitted the development of an educational system which has produced a secularized, materialized society."

"A system of education which does not teach religion nor strengthen faith in God would have been most displeasing and disgusting to those who wrote our constitution."

He said that all schools, including state supported schools, could reemphasize pure religion, adding: "The privately-controlled, voluntarily-supported, church-related colleges and universities should lead the way."

He said that in the last three quarters of a century—"the consciousness of God as a controlling factor in life has been high completely lost from our lives."

The solution, he added, "involves a complete conversion, a new direction, a return to vital religion as the focal center of all sound education."

Discussing "the threat of government dominance and control," he said most authorities on education feel that "only the most favored non-government colleges and universities have much chance of survival."

"I would also like to express here the conviction that unless these private colleges and universities survive there is not even a possibility for the survival of any other type of private enterprise."

He said if those who are interested in private enterprise "could see the indispensable relationship between private enterprise and private higher education, we would soon have completely adequate endowment resources."

The Rev. Dudley Strain, pastor of the First Baptist Church, Salem, Ore., told the delegates that "education for courage, by means of a self-imposed discipline, is one of the great responsibilities of Christian education."

LIFE IS JUST A DIZZY WHIRL

CLEVELAND—(P)—A nest of young robins at Euclid Beach Park may fly in circles when they grow up. Their mother built their home on a merry-go-round.

The nest is on an electrically lighted bulb at the top of the device and rotates at a slower pace than the cars carrying the children.

Baptists, Disciples Hold Unprecedented Prayer, Hymn Meet

CHICAGO—(P)—Members of the American Baptist Convention and the International Convention of Disciples of Christ held an unprecedented joint meeting for prayers and hymns Tuesday night.

The joint session was attended by more than 15,000 persons.

The two groups plan to meet again Wednesday night and in a joint communion service Thursday evening, but their leaders say there are no present plans to unite.

Speaking for the Disciples, the Rev. Hampton Adams, of the Union Avenue Christian Church, St. Louis, told the meeting "We are merely friends and... are not contemplating marriage."

Speaks For Baptists Dr. Edward Hughes Pruden, pastor of the First Baptist Church, Washington, D. C., speaking for the Baptists, said the joint session showed the degree of mutual understanding which already exists.

If the Baptists could be assured that in a fellowship of churches they would have the same liberty of conscience and freedom of choice which they now enjoy, this assurance in itself would go a long way toward removing a great many of the objections some Baptists now voice to all proposals for closer Christian unity."

Both groups are holding week-long annual meetings simultaneously so they may have fellowship in several joint sessions.

Glamor Dolls Are Sloppy Sues, Wails Fox's Wardrobe Chief

HOLLYWOOD—Behind the screen: Movies may be better than ever, but not the rating of movie queens as sloppy dresser.

Hollywood glamor dolls, wailed Charles LeMaire, Fox's natty and impeccable wardrobe director and designer, still are on a Sloppy Sue tear and it's hurting movie sales at a time when it could stand a boost.

"Most stars forget that they owe something to the industry when they appear in public," LeMaire sadly remarked. "They forget that Hollywood is a tourist town and that thousands of people see them and talk about them to the people at home."

"An actress can't be a Jekyll and Hyde in this business. She has to be as glamorous after hours as she is in front of the camera. If she wants to look like a housewife, she should stay at home."

Two Zeres Equal Nothing Howard Hawks, who discovered him, is denying a reported feud with Montgomery Clift. He told me: "Absolutely untrue. I didn't use him in 'The Big Sky' because I didn't think he was worth his salary demand. Not with the financial structure I had on the picture. It's one thing to pay a big salary when a star has two smash hits behind him. It's another thing when he's had two flops."

Novelist Erich Maria Remarque wouldn't agree to sell the movie rights of his "Spark of Life" to Jose Ferrer, via trans-Atlantic telephone so Jose will go to Switzerland to close the deal with Remarque.

Harmon After what Hollywood did to "Arch of Triumph," you can't blame Remarque for being cautious.

Aldo Ray, who starred with her in "The Marrying Kind," is doing a flip-flop over Judy Holiday. He told me: "I've heard that some actors can't get along with her. I don't know why. She'd do her scenes on the first take. Me, I'd have to have 10 takes before I'd get it right. She's a great actress and a great woman. Nobody else would have had the patience with me."

Biding Her Time Loretta Young is confessing that she's knee-deep in talks with NBC and CBS executives on the subject of a TV series—"Not to mention a smaller company"—and that stay-at-homes will definitely be seeing her as a full-fledged video queen.

"I'm taking my time and not rushing, though," confided Loretta on the set of UFA's "Magic Lady." "It's no good doing anything half-baked just because I'm enthusiastic about television and think it's a wonderful new medium. I'll be in it as soon as I finish the right project. Nobody can ignore TV. I look at it all the time. Even when it's bad."

John Huston won't film "Moulin Rouge" at Paris's famous Moulin Rouge but at Moulin Les Gallettes in Montmartre, because the latter looks more like the public's conception of Moulin Rouge. More and more episodic films are being slated to slip up for television later on are on the way. The latest is "Tales of Cairo," to be filmed in Egypt, with Dan Duryea and Paul Henreid slated to star in an episode each.

SAN FRANCISCO —(P)—A Pan American Clipper pilot, 600 miles out over the Pacific, glanced down and "suddenly saw this scrawny tall, I made a grab, but whoosh—out jumped a monkey."

Cargo attendants discovered six other monkeys running loose in the baggage compartment.

Two hours and four blues later, all the monkeys were re-caged.

No Courts-Marial Planned For Dozen Stay-Down Airmen

WASHINGTON —(P)—Twelve of the 14 reserve air officers who refused to fly are being dismissed under honorable conditions and without court martial.

The Air Force said Tuesday the 12 will be relieved of their commissions by administrative action because their cases had not reached the formal court martial stage.

Two other officers were convicted by court martial. However, first Lt. Verne Goodwin of Peabody, Mass., was allowed to resign and his sentence was cancelled. Capt. Carl J. Izard of Hazelhurst, Miss., was sentenced to dishonorable dismissal but his case is being reviewed by top officials.

Ten of the 14 saw combat duty during World War II. Ten were involuntarily recalled to active duty and four volunteered. Only two drew pay for reserve activities prior to recall. They were stationed at Randolph Air Force Base, Texas, and Mather Base, California.

The Air Force list of the 12 to be dismissed include First Lt. Robert P. Hasbrook, 28, of Dallas, Texas.

THEY FIND JOBS OR MAKE THEM

CHICAGO —(P)— Police Tuesday seized two men at work replacing a plate glass window which, officers said, they had helped break.

Police Capt. George Barnes said the two men also had helped to break other plate glass windows because, they said, business was slack and they are working only four days a week.

Two other men were held by police in connection with hurling bricks through $1,400 worth of windows on South Side stores. Barnes said charges of malicious mischief were to be placed against Thomas O'Connor, 29, and Francis Quigley, 27, arrested at work replacing a window, and Russell Eregovac, 26. Russell Palmer, 28, was held without charge. Barnes said O'Connell and Quigley admitted smashing several windows.

Taft Gains Seven Votes In Montana

HELENA, MONT. —(P)—Senator Robert A. Taft won seven more Republican national convention votes from Montana Tuesday night. Backers of General Eisenhower salvaged one after beating down a move to instruct the state's delegation for the Ohio senator.

Democrats, holding their state convention at the same time as the GOP, instructed their delegation of 20 to cast Montana's 12 Democratic convention votes as a bloc for one candidate. They didn't specify the candidate. They left that up to majority vote of the delegation at Chicago.

Masked Hijackers Rob Postal Truck

LONDON —(P)—Seven masked men ambushed a British postal truck Wednesday and made off with loot estimated in press reports at up to 100,000 pounds ($380,000).

Three guards attempted to fight off the robbers. They were black-jacked into submission. Two of the gang then drove away with the truck, followed by their five accomplices in a black sedan.

The robbers stopped the truck by swerving their car across the truck's path.

Ridgway—

This senator said he saw little chance for world peace or even a trend toward it from conditions the general reported.

Senator Russell (D-Ga.), presiding at the session, told the general that the Koje Island affair has brought shock and a sense of shame here at home.

Ridgway, given a celebrity's welcome to the Capitol, was technically before the Senate Armed Services Committee, which Russell heads.

However, all senators had been invited to attend and more than one-third of the membership was on hand when the doors were closed.

While this meeting was going on, it was announced that Ridgway will address a joint meeting of the Senate and the House Thursday.

Ridgway is enroute to Europe to replace General Eisenhower as head of North Atlantic Treaty Organization forces.

Bridges told a reporter he believed Ridgway should be given a temporary fifth star. He pointed out that the general has replaced two five-star generals, first Gen. Douglas MacArthur in Japan and now Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower in Europe.

In NATO, Ridgway will be outranked by two of his deputies, British Field Marshal Bernard L. Montgomery and French Field Marshal Alphonse Juin.

Bridges said the promotion should come from the President and the Pentagon.

House Told European Allies To Raise Army Of Four Million Troops Next Year

WASHINGTON.—(P)—Rep. Richards (D-SC) told the House Wednesday that American's European allies will "raise and support" about 4,000,000 soldiers and will produce $3,500,000,000 worth of weapons next year.

This force, if placed on active duty, would be an increase of approximately 1,800,000 men over present European strength.

Richards said Allied forces already have more than 5,250,000 men under arms or quickly available throughout the world. The active armies of the Soviet Union, including satellite forces, total around 4,000,000 men, according to recent estimates.

Richards, chairman of the Foreign Affairs Committee, opened the fight for House approval of $6,880,100,000 in foreign military and economic aid for the year starting July 1.

The bill, already $1,000,000,000 less than President Truman requested, faced strong demands for further cuts. Reductions of another $1,000,000,000 have been predicted.

Committee officials said Richard's outline of European troop strength included Greece and Turkey, which have a total force of around 500,000.

Richards said in a prepared speech the active forces of Western Europe, excluding Greece and Turkey, totaled 1,800,000 in January, 1952.

Therefore a buildup to 4,000,000 men would mean an increase of about 1,800,000.

The total world-wide force of active and mobilizable troops, Richards said, has increased about 1,500,000 in the last two years.

"It seems to me," the chairman added, "that only the most stubborn defeatist could fail to be immensely encouraged by the increase and improvement in allied military strength over two short years."

Richards took note of an expected test of strength between Republican supporters of Senator Robert A. Taft and General Eisenhower over the final total of the bill.

"Even Mr. Taft has said that the mutual security program must not be killed and abandoned," he said.

Taft supporters are expected to propose deep slashes with Eisenhower backers proposing lesser cuts.

Richards said Congress has voted its support of mutual defense by appropriating $162,000,000 since 1948 for domestic and foreign military programs and economic aid abroad.

Richards said that those who vote to "cut deeply" may be voting to throw away the one best chance of avoiding World War III."

Vermont Senator Charges Grain Prices Forced Down By Political Manipulators

WASHINGTON —(P)—Senator Aiken (R-Vt) charged Wednesday that political manipulators forced grain prices down a billion dollars in 1948 and declared, "They're not going to do it again this year if I can stop it."

Aiken was carrying along his attack on Secretary of Agriculture Brannan, as the cabinet officer began testifying before the Senate.

Brannan brought on Aiken's outburst by charging that some of the difficulties of his department with grain storage were caused by limitations which he said Congress put in the Commodity Credit (COC) Charter Act in 1948.

He said these prevented his department from taking effective action to expand storage facilities for huge 1948 crops it had to buy up under the farm price support laws.

Aiken, who headed the Senate agriculture group in 1948 in the Republican-controlled 80th Congress, immediately declared Brannan had given an entirely erroneous view of the 1948 law.

He said that actually the Agriculture Department agreed with what was done and helped to draft the law.

"But then," he said, "someone got the idea to spread it around the country that there was a lack of storage space. The price of grain was forced down a billion dollars and they put the blame on Congress. They played a dirty trick on the farmers. They lost a billion dollars for purely political reasons. They're not going to do it again this year if I can stop it."

Chairman Ellender (D-La.) of the committee, the only Democratic senator present at the hearing opened, told Aiken "That's your opinion of what happened in 1948.

The committee has been going into a variety of cases.

Some cases have involved alleged misconduct of agriculture department employees; most were concerned with losses on grain and other commodities stored under the farm price support program.

Lab Technician Held After GI's Poisoned By Hangover Remedy

LOS ANGELES.—(P)—A young laboratory technician was booked on suspicion of attempted murder Wednesday after two Marines were poisoned, police said, at his apartment from a hangover remedy he gave them.

Under arrest is Richard McAllister, 22, Privates First Class Keith Loran, 22, and Leon Ticknor, both of Camp Pendleton, Calif., became critically ill in McAllister's apartment, said Lieutenant Carl Lee of police homicide detail.

Lee's report said McAllister told him he had taken the drug, bichloride of mercury, for hangovers himself. A police chemist said there is nothing in the drug to relieve alcoholism, and he had never heard of it being so used. He called it a "slow-action, corrosive, very deadly poison if taken in quantity."

The officers said McAllister admitted he invited the Marines and their companion, Pvt. Billie Tucker, to his apartment for drinks after meeting them in a bar.

Lieutenant Lee quoted McAllister as saying he gave the two ill Marines capsules from a bottle marked poison. Lee said the bottle contained bichloride of mercury, ordinarily used in cleaning surgical instruments.

The Marines first were treated here and then transferred to Corona Naval Hospital.

Official Declares Proposed Routes Would Help Pioneer

DALLAS —(P)—Proposed new routes and extensions of present routes would mean $9,413 passengers a year to Pioneer Air Lines, a company vice president predicted Wednesday at a Civil Aeronautics Board hearing.

"Pioneer's proposals would not result in an appreciable competition to any other carrier," Harding Lawrence said, "because Pioneer's objective is to provide local service to communities along the proposed routes."

Pioneer and Trans-Texas Airways are applying for new or extended routes. The hearing on the proposals began May 13 and is expected to continue until the end of the week. The two airlines are asking for similar routes. Objecting airlines are Braniff, Central, Continental, Delta, Eastern and Mid-Continent.

Lawrence claimed existing routes operated by Pioneer have provided only 98 per cent competition factor, a much lower estimate than made by the intervening air lines.

In building his case, the Pioneer spokesman contended Pioneer's government mail subsidy is lower than the Trans-Texas subsidy.

HOW ADVERTISING AFFECTS YOUR JOB

Raises, Cuts, Promotions, Layoffs Often Depend on How Much the Firm Sells

NEXT time you hear or read advertising, just stop and analyze how it affects you.

Its purpose is to sell goods or services. More sales mean more work to be done. That means more jobs in the firm that advertises . . . and more jobs in the hundred and one firms with which it does business. It's a never-ending chain.

Now when more jobs open up, that means more security for everyone. It means promotion to many, with wage increases. It means opportunity—partic-ularly for friends and sons and daughters of present employees.

Whether or not you work for a firm that advertises, remember that this modern method of mass personal selling affects your company's business and its future. Hence it affects your job and your future.

Advertising, by selling goods, starts businesses humming, makes them bigger. That's how advertising affects your job. For tomorrow, it creates opportunity . . . for today, it makes your job more secure.

Other Ways Advertising Helps You:

1. Brings you better goods for less money.
2. Makes shopping more pleasant and easier.
3. Has given us the world's highest standard of living.

MECHANIC—I like advertising. It sells goods. And when sales go up, our shop is plenty busy. My wife and I can then have real peace of mind.

WAITRESS—Advertising my boss does means more tips in my pocket. Advertising other firms do means more business, steadier jobs for my customers and bigger tips in my pocket. So I'm all for plenty of advertising.

BOOKKEEPER—I know what a difference advertising made in my firm . . . made our volume four times as big in five years. Now instead of just being a clerk, I have seven people working for me.

Advertising . . . BY SELLING MORE GOODS TO MORE PEOPLE

Makes your job more secure

Chinese Prisoner Killed By UN Guard In Koje Island Camp

KOJE ISLAND, KOREA—A Chinese prisoner was killed by an Allied guard Saturday in the third prisoner-of-war incident reported in a four-day span on this riot-ridden rock.

The other two occurred at a woman's POW camp and a prisoner hospital.

The shooting of the Chinese prisoner—announced only Wednesday—was the first fatality reported from the tough Koje stockade since Brig. Gen. Hayden L. Boatner took command a week ago.

Boatner said a preliminary investigation indicated the prisoner was shot when he resisted search on his return from a work detail outside an enclosure holding 5,000 Chinese Communists.

Members Of Feuding Expeditions Flown Out Of Brazil Jungle

RIO DE JANEIRO, BRAZIL—Members of two feuding expeditions to the wreckage of a Pan American Stratocruiser were being flown one by one Wednesday out of the thick Brazilian jungle where they had been taking turns holding each other prisoner.

The bizarre sequel to Brazil's grim air disaster appeared to be ending happily after an aerial shuttle service began flying out the two men left from the official Brazilian-American search party and the remnants of 35 or so armed members of a private expedition financed by a wealthy presidential prospect.

Latest reports said all but two of the official party have been hauled by helicopter back to their base at Lagoa Grande. Still in the jungle were Brazilian Air Force Maj. Miranda Correa and Scott Magnus, U. S. Civil Aeronautics Authority official from Miami, who reportedly were held hostage for a time by the freelance group as insurance for their own rescue.

Three plane loads of parachutists dispatched to rescue the hostages were called back to Rio De Janeiro after the pair radioed their captors had released them.

At the same time the company announced the opening of a central buying office in New York, where all buying for the chain will be handled.

The initial Fedway store will open in Wichita Falls, October 1, to be followed by the opening of a store in Corpus Christi October 15. Six other stores will be opened in 1953, one each in Amarillo and Longview, in February, one in Midland, and others in Albuquerque, N. M., and Westwood-Los Angeles. Location of the sixth store planned for 1953 has not yet been decided, but it too will be in the Southwest, it was said. Morris Ginsburg, president of the chain, said each individual store will be a "complete department store."

CRANE WOMAN IN HOSPITAL
Mrs. Boda Owens of Crane has been admitted to Midland Memorial Hospital for surgery.

Boatner said he conferred with a prisoner spokesman, Maj. Wei Ling, shortly after the shooting. On the camp commander's order, Wei returned to the barbed wire enclosure and within 35 minutes halted a demonstration begun by Chinese POWs within minutes after the shooting.

The U. S. Eighth Army at Seoul Wednesday said combat-wise American infantrymen used concussion grenades and a show of force to put down violence Tuesday at a Pusan POW hospital.

The Army said the Red rioters were armed with makeshift spears, barbed wire flails, rocks and similar weapons. Concussion grenades are designed to stun their victims. They do not burst into many small, sharp flying pieces as do deadly fragmentation grenades.

One prisoner was killed in the vicious fighting at the hospital in Camp No. 10. The Army did not say how he died, but correspondents in Pusan said he may have been bayoneted.

Eighty-five POWs were injured. Half their injuries were minor. One American guard suffered a minor injury. The Army said segregation of prisoner orderlies from prisoner patients, which touched off the outbreak, proceeded Wednesday "without incident."

25 Women Injured While On Hayride

REDDING, CALIF.—Twenty-five women, on a gay hayride, were injured Tuesday night when an automobile plowed into their wagon and the horses ran away.

One victim was reported in critical condition. The careening runaway wagon spilled the women along the roadway.

"L" OF A NOTE—John N. Green, of Chicago, puts up a big kick at what to him seems an intolerable situation. Elevated train service to his suburban neighborhood has been suspended, and he resents having to break a 30-year commuter's record. One suit has been filed in court by another irate patron to force re-opening of the line.

RAMBLING CAFETERIA—Something new will soon be rolling along over British railways. The cafeteria car, above, is first of a fleet which will be built to give British commuters quick and economical service, if the experimental model makes a hit with the traveling public. Car seats 48 passengers.

Playwright Tells Committee She Is Not Communist

WASHINGTON—Playwright Lillian Hellman Wednesday told the House Un-American Activities Committee she is not a member of the Communist Party and hasn't been for two years.

But she refused to testify on her associations prior to that time.

The gray-haired, husky-voiced author also refused to answer all other questions on the grounds to do so might be self-incrimination. Miss Hellman, author of "The Children's Hour," "The Little Foxes," "The Watch on the Rhine," and other hits, was named as a member of the Red organization last year by Martin Berkeley, a screen writer, during committee hearings in the movie capital. Miss Hellman referred to a letter she sent the committee on Monday, saying she was "most willing to answer all questions about myself" but unwilling to talk about other persons. "I have nothing to hide from your committee and there is nothing in my life of which I am ashamed," she wrote.

Collegiate Pantie Raiders Pounce Again In Quest Of Lacy Souvenirs

By The Associated Press
The collegiate pantie raiders hit again in many sections of the nation Tuesday night but co-eds and police stymied most of their efforts to filch lacy souvenirs.

Co-eds cooled off University of Kansas raiders with buckets of water tossed from upper windows. Several hundred men sought to enter two dormitories but only a few got in.

Twelve University of Tennessee students were arrested during a wild demonstration. Carloads of students toured the campus area shooting out street lights but no attempt was made to repeat the pantie forays of the previous night.

Police halted a potential raid at Auburn (Alabama Polytechnic Institute) when several hundred students gathered. About 25 students rushed photographer Paul Robertson and reporter Bill Bates of the Montgomery (Ala.) Advertiser, destroyed films and told them to get out of town.

Students at Washington State College reported some success in their forays at Pullman, Wash. About 250 students invaded five housing units and picked up undies in four. Co-eds drenched some with water and two raiders were arrested. At Columbia, Mo., the entire police force, armed with night sticks and tear gas, patrolled the streets but no unusual incidents were reported. A National Guard unit also stood by. The mobilization was ordered after women at Stephens and Christian Colleges and the University of Missouri received anonymous telephone calls that another raid was planned.

Damage estimated at thousands of dollars was caused at the three schools during a wild series of raids Monday night. Minor damage to women's quarters was reported during a foray for films at the University of Washington in Seattle.

Other demonstrations Monday night occurred at Kansas State College, Temple, West Virginia University and the Universities of Arizona, Georgia and Alabama. In Tucson, 500 University of Arizona students stormed girls' dormitories and sorority houses.

Led by ROTC cadets who had just received their Army commissions, the shouting, gesticulating crowd surged across the university grounds and broke into Yavapai Hall, a girls' dorm.

They were partially repulsed by sheriff's deputies who had been tipped off of impending trouble, but quickly reformed and moved on to two other girls' dorms and the Delta Delta sorority house in turn.

Patrol Actions Flare Along Korean Fronts
Truce Deadlock Continues As Reds Air New Protests

SEUL, KOREA—A United Nations tank-infantry patrol fought a six-hour battle with Red forces east of the Panmunjon truce site on the Korean western front Tuesday.

A U. S. Eighth Army staff officer said the Allied tanks ran into small arms, mortar and rocket fire from a Red force of undetermined strength. The UN force dug in and pounded the Reds with artillery mortar and tank fire before disengaging.

A delayed reports from the central front said a Red ammunition storage bunker was destroyed and 31 other were damaged by UN tanks Monday. Another UN tank force on the central front battled the Reds twice on Tuesday.

Three Communist rebel attacks were repulsed on the eastern front. Night-fly B-26 pilots reported the destruction of 67 Communist trucks.

Condemned Negro Given 20-Day Stay
AUSTIN—Acting Gov. Ben Ramsey Wednesday granted a 20-day stay of execution to Booker T. Reed, sentenced to die for murder. The action moved the execution date from May 22 to June 11.

The State Pardons Board recommended the stay on advice from the Court of Criminal Appeals that an application for a writ of habeas corpus in the case has been set for submission to the court on Wednesday, June 4.

Reed was convicted in the axe slaying of Boy Adorn Lovelace in a North Dallas cabin last June 9.

The truce delegations will meet again Thursday.

SILLY DAYS STEP IN WITH PANTY-PILFERING—Despite official efforts to keep it undercover, there are more than scanty reports that Spring fever has inspired the collegian to father a new fad, the lingerie foray. Object of the game, which has won the campus set more notoriety than did goldfish gulping in the 1930's, is, in brief, to raid girls' dormitories and see who can acquire the most unmentionables. At top, Columbia University students wave trophies garnered in a foray on Barnard College dormitories. Similar raids at Nebraska, Iowa, Florida, Miami and other universities have sparked debates as angry as the house-mother of a besieged "dorm." Essence of arguments condemning and condoning the new fad is pictured below.

'WELCOME WEEK' PLANS—Final plans for "Welcome Week" at Humble service stations in this area, May 23-30, are made by company representatives. Left to right, they are Zolus Motley, division sales promotion manager; Travis Roberts, agent, and Jack Kimbrough, district sales manager.

'Welcome Week' Celebration Planned By Humble Stations

HOUSTON—Humble service stations are busy getting ready for a big, neighborly celebration to be known as "Welcome Week," May 23-30.

"The purpose of 'Welcome Week' is to give Humble station operators all over the state a chance to say, 'Thank you,' to Texas motorists for their friendship, and for the privilege of being good neighbors in the communities they serve," officials of the company said.

A lot of work has gone into planning for the week-long event. Stations have been given an extra good Spring cleaning, with rest rooms coming in for particular attention.

Station managers have been inviting folks by letter and in person to stop by during the week. The campaign is being accompanied by a vigorous advertising schedule in more than 500 newspapers in the state, and all stations will wear bunting and banners to lend festiveness to the occasion.

Pecos Rodeo Schedules Beard-Growing Contest

PECOS—Razor blade sales were expected to drop sharply here with announcement of a world-wide beard-growing contest, opening Thursday, to continue until opening of the West of the Pecos Rodeo, July 3.

The contest, offering handsome prizes to the best three contestants, is open to everybody who can grow a beard, with the exception of permanent beard-growers.

Although the rules are somewhat flexible, provisions have been made only for male entries.

Sponsored by the Pecos Lions Club, the event is under the direction of Aubrey Shoemaker, chairman; Glenn Stafford and Doc Rhodes.

Judges, quite naturally, are to be three attractive young women, Wilma Langham, chairman, assisted by Martha Holmes and Thelmaeane Hutchins.

Types and styles of beards are left to the contestant's discretion, although it was pointed out that a mustache must accompany the Van Dyke beard. The bearded forests may be trimmed and shaped in any fashion.

Judging will be held at the Judge Roy Bean shack immediately after the rodeo parade July 3.

First place prize will be a pair of cowboy boots; a hat goes to the second place winner, while third place wins a Western shirt.

Shoemaker has offered free shaves to the three winners.

Pecos Policemen Gain Promotions

PECOS — Two city policemen gained promotions last week and a third man joined the force to work on the night shift. Chief Sam Walding announced.

Joe Hill, who has served as patrolman on the night force the last several months, was advanced to assistant chief. He replaces Cecil O'Neil, who recently resigned to further his campaign for Reeves County sheriff.

G. L. Fox, who recently transferred to the day shift, was promoted to the rank of captain. A former investigator with the sheriff's department in Abilene, Captain Fox replaced Johnny Lewis after the latter's resignation several weeks ago.

Newest member of the police force is Guy Cook, who serves as a patrolman on the night shift. Cook is a former member of the Border Patrol.

Mrs. Lesley G. Love of Pecos recently was employed as dispatcher. Mrs. Love works the 3 p.m. to 11 p.m. shift.

Other members of the force include Lt. Harry Clinton, Patrolman Blakely Wingo and Blackie Willborn, and Dispatchers Ernest Travland and Barbara Schmid.

★ Daddy Ringtail ★

Daddy Ringtail And Kingdom For A Horse
 "A horse! A horse! My kingdom for a horse!"
 Mugwump Monkey was saying the words, pretending that he was a king who wanted a horse so much that he would give his kingdom for one. But Mugwump Monkey was not a king. He didn't have a kingdom.

Instead he was little like a man's thumb, and his head was the size of a thimble. It was all happening in a dream, because he had started with wearing a dreamaday cap on his head. Yes, and as soon as he was small for his name to be Thimble-Thumb, out he had started in the world to seek his fortune. He had a piece of sewing thread for a rope, and a sewing needle for a sword.

But he was so small, and his legs so short, he feared he would spend the rest of his life walking to whatever place his fortune might be. He needed a horse. He needed a horse the size of a mouse for him to ride.

By WESLEY DAVIS

Better still, he needed a mouse to be his horse for him to ride.

Thimble-Thumb lay down on a leaf to think of where he might find a mouse, and then, very luckily, he saw a mouse who was sleeping in the sun.

Thimble-Thumb swung the sewing thread around his head in just the way that a cowboy swings a rope. He threw the rope so that the loop fell around the neck of the mouse and he jumped on its back before the mouse was hardly awake. How that mouse pitched and bucked like a wild horse, but somehow, Thimble-Thumb managed to stay on even without a saddle. At last the mouse saw who was the master, and so the mouse agreed to be a horse and to serve Thimble-Thumb faithfully.

Thimble-Thumb was about to ride away to seek his fortune, but suddenly a large cat jumped out from behind a bush all ready to carry away the mouse and the rider, too.

But, Thimble-Thumb, even though he was small like a man's thumb, had a brain like real people. He waved his sword just as though it were a real sword instead of Mother Ringtail's sewing needle. He shouted out the brave words of "Charge! Charge!" and the mouse charged forward at the cat with Thimble-Thumb riding and waving the sword.

The sight was more than the bravest cat could stand to see. The cat turned and ran up a tree, while Thimble-Thumb, and his faithful mouse, galloped bravely away for more adventures. I shall be telling you about them. Happy day!

OUT OF DOORS with Field & Stream

By AL McCLANE
Fishing Editor

The Beaverkill, Pine, Broadhead, Housatonic, the Deerfield, and Musconetcong, Tenasee—all the time-honored names in the trout game—are standing muster once more. Brown trout are in the deep pools, in and around log jams or undercut banks. Brook trout are in the river headwater sections and up the small tributary streams. The restless rainbows are on their spawning runs. The lake trout is in the shallows, around reefs and bars; watch for him over gravel and jagged rock bottom.

Down East the cry of "ice-out" sends wires, cards, letters, and party-line phone calls streaming from the woods. Land-locked salmon nudge the surface gulping big drags of oxygen and snail-baited hooks. Tongue and squetals follow the spawn-laden smelt through the shallows, and a well cast streamer fly will tease the big boys into a tussle.

The puddle-pounders are waving their Grey and Green Ghosts, Barnes' special, and all those green, gray, white and silver combinations that make a land-lock lick his chops. Watch for them in closer to shore, and as the weather warms, follow the fish out into deep water. Whether the trout will rise to a fly or not depends on stream temperature the turbidity. If the water reaches 50 degrees or more, the chances of hitting a midday rise are good. The Quill Gordon, Dark Cahill, Hendrickson, March Brown, and Leadwing Coachman can handle any of the fly-hungry fish. The traditional and most popular approach is to meet the trout armed with worms, spinners, a few flies, and for a firm base of operations—hobnailed waders. The waders are more of a problem for most people than the fish.

When buying waders, make certain that the inseam is of correct length, and that the waist size is roomy. Just getting the right foot size is not enough.

You should be able to lift the foot of one leg at least opposite the knee of the other without straining or pulling the fabric. You should also be able to touch the floor (provided you can normally) with your hand, and not have the waist creep up and bind tight in the crotch.

The foot size of a boot-foot wader should be a full size larger than your shoe size. This permits wearing heavy wool socks for cold-weather fishing.

In warm weather, you can wear light cotton socks and take up the extra room with a pair of thick felt insoles. I generally keep an extra pair of socks in the large inside pouch in front of the waders and change in midday.

Stocking-foot waders require the use of wool socks to be worn under the brogues (wading shoes), to keep sand and other abrasives from wearing out the wader foot.

Whether this type of wader is superior to the foot foot or not, is a matter of personal preference. The felt-soled boot foot is superior to the rubber-bottomed boot foot, however and will hold firmly in all types of streams.
