Texaco Prospector In Lea Finds Gas, Distillate On DST

Wolfcamp gas and distillate have been found in a prospector in the Moore-Devonian area of Northwest Lea County.

The Texas Company took a drill-stem test in its No. 1-BN State from 8,250 to 8,411 feet. Tool was open one hour and 45 minutes. Mud surfaced in 15 minutes and gas flowed out at the top with a distillate spray in 20 minutes. The gas flow was at the rate of 4,250,000 cubic feet per day. Distillate sprayed at the rate of one-half barrel hourly. Recovery was 150 feet of distillate with no formation water.

Operator was preparing to drill ahead. Flowing pressure on the above test was from 820 to 1,200 pounds. Shutin pressure after 45 minutes was 2,930 pounds.

This project is one-half mile south of Texaco No. 1 Moore, discovery of Devonian production in the area. Exact location is at the center of the northwest quarter of the southwest quarter of section 25-11s-32e.

Breedlove Project Flows Oil Naturally; Is Due To Complete

The third producer is assured for the Breedlove-Devonian field in Northwest Martin County. The new oil well will be completed in the near future. It is Pan American Production Company, Forest Oil Corporation and Houston Oil Company of Texas No. 3 Breedlove.

It kicked off after swabbing and flowed at the rate of 10 barrels of oil an hour naturally from perforations in the Devonian at 12,139-145 feet. There was no sign of water in the fluid which was produced. Has Treated With Acid

Operators have now treated the perforated section at 12,139-145 feet with 500 gallons of acid and are swabbing to clean out, test and complete.

Location is 1,980 feet from east and 2,300 feet from south lines of league 258, Briscoe County School Land survey.

That makes it 2,300 feet northeast of the nearest of the two producers in the field.

Northwest Of Tarzan

On a 13 1/2 miles northwest of Tarzan. No. 3 Breedlove drilled to a bottom of 12,298 feet in the Devonian. It had water between 12,181 feet and 12,298 feet.

Operators plugged back to 12,182 feet and cemented 5 1/2-inch casing at that point. The cement has been left inside the pipe up to 12,150 feet, to be sure that the water is kept squeezed off.

Union Sulphur Re-Completes Martin Opener

Union Sulphur & Oil Company No. 1 Snyder-Arnett, small Spraberry producer and discovery in Southeast Martin County, has been re-completed to 27.59 barrels of oil daily on the pump.

Operator completed the well in July of 1951.

The new completion was from perforations at 8,098-8,096 feet in the Spraberry. No water was made on the potential test.

Gas-oil ratio was too small to measure and gravity of the oil is 35.6 degrees. Total depth of the well is 8,096 feet.

Location is 1,980 feet from south and 860 feet from west lines of section 280, block 36, T-1-S, T&P survey and five miles southwest of Stanton.

It is one-half mile west of 4,300-foot Canyon reef lime production and three-quarters of one mile northwest of 4,000-foot Buzger sand production.

Drillite also is on a block of 25,295.29 acres.

Great Western Finals Third Bahaney Oiler

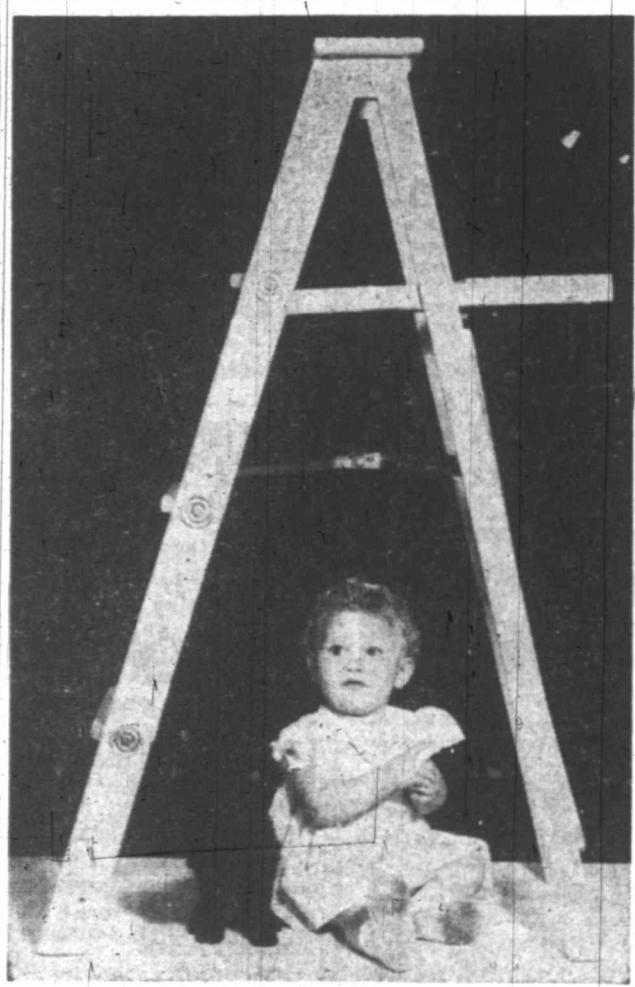

Great Western Producers, Inc. No. 1 Birtie T. Brown has been completed as the third oiler in the Bahaney field of West-Central Yoakum County.

It is one-half mile west of 4,300-foot Canyon reef lime production and three-quarters of one mile northwest of 4,000-foot Buzger sand production.

Drillite also is on a block of 25,295.29 acres.

Operator completed the well in July of 1951.

16-Mile Paving Program Planned

Marilyn Ann Feldman

Friday, Thirteenth, Silly Myth, Insists Midland Miss

Friday the Thirteenth causes superstitious folk to fret and worry, but not Marilyn Ann Feldman—it's her first birthday.

She's the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Feldman, Jr., 306 West Montgomery Street, and she planned a nice little party for her friends. And just to settle this silly myth about Friday the Thirteenth being unlucky, she took her little black cat and plopped right down under a ladder.

Perhaps that had something to do with it. . . . Marilyn's party had to be canceled at the last minute Friday, for she, like General Eisenhower, had developed a slight case of pink eye.

Resistance Of Prisoners On Kojie Cracked, General Says As Moving Slackens

KOJIE ISLAND, KOREA — (AP) — permit construction of new enclosures. Brig. Gen. Haydon L. Boatner said Friday he has cracked the resistance of Kojie Island's 80,000 Communist Red war prisoners.

Communicated POW's knuckled under four times Friday to United Nations authority. Boatner, the tough prison camp commander, then suspended for two or three days operations to break up the large groups of prisoners. This was to

Russians Free One Captive, Hold Two In Berlin Squeeze

BERLIN — (AP) — The Russians Friday freed one German they had kidnapped from West Berlin, but they defied a British protest by continuing to hold two West Berlin newspapermen seized at the same time.

A young West Berlin woman also was arrested by Communist police Thursday night and still was in their custody Friday. She was the first victim of a new Communist decree which extended to Berlin's boundaries the same severe measures which have leveled the East-West German frontier.

This decree, issued Thursday night, was the latest move in the Communist campaign to squeeze surrounded West Berlin, the Allies' last stronghold behind the Iron Curtain.

Midlanders Urged To Mark Flag Day

Saturday is Flag Day in the United States and Midland merchants and businessmen were requested Friday to fly the American flag or have flag displays.

The request came from L. E. (Red) Steele, commander of the Woods W. Lynch American Legion Post here.

"This day," he said, "should mean a great deal to the people of Midland."

"I feel that not enough emphasis has been placed on this day in our fair city—but we can make it 100 per cent Saturday if all business men and merchants cooperate."

Shivers Said Ready To Quit Political Wars

ORANGE — (AP) — The Orange Leader said Friday Gov. Allan Shivers "definitely plans to quit politics when he gets through being governor of Texas."

Shivers, the newspaper added, is engaged in his last political campaign and said he would not be in this one except that he feels the job he set out to do as the state's chief executive has not been finished.

The governor was quoted directly about his plans to become a private citizen again. The story was based on a telephone interview with the governor resulting from a passing remark which he made while speaking at the annual Chamber of Commerce banquet here Wednesday night.

The remark was to the effect that the people of Orange County, in supporting the governor in races for the State Legislature and later for his present office, helped in "getting me started on what I am probably finishing up."

The leader said the statement created considerable comment here and Shivers was reached by long distance telephone Thursday in Yoakum, where he was attending the annual Tomato Festival. Ringing Dewey Curtain

Asked if the remark meant that the governor had definite plans for ringing down the curtain on his political career, Shivers replied, the newspaper said, "That's about it."

Shivers was quoted as adding that he tried to say as much when he announced he would run for reelection this year instead of going after retiring Senator Tom Connally's seat.

"You will remember I said then that I did not want to rear my children in Washington," the governor was quoted as saying.

"If I stay in politics the road inevitably would be in the direction of Washington, and I am definitely not going there."

"I want my children to grow up in Texas—nowhere else."

Rampaging Polio Strikes 80 In Texas

AUSTIN — (AP) — Rampaging polio struck 80 persons in Texas last week and sent the year's total ahead of the comparable figure for 1950, when polio reached an all-time high. Heaviest incidence was in Harris County, where the Houston metropolitan area is located. Twenty-four new patients were recorded there. Bexar County (San Antonio) was the next hardest hit with eight new victims the week ended June 7.

The year's total skyrocketed to 658 compared with 621 in the record year of 1950 and 242 at this date a year ago.

Shirley Temple, Son Leave Naval Hospital

WASHINGTON — (AP) — Shirley Temple left Bethesda Naval Hospital after her seven-week-old son Friday after recovering from complications that followed a caesarean delivery April 28.

The child was born at 11:30 a. m. and weighed 11 pounds, 10 ounces. He was discharged to his parents' home in Washington, D. C., on Friday.

10 Crewmen Missing From Superfort Lost In Pacific

HONOLULU — (AP) — Ten crewmen of a ditched B-29 Superfortress Friday were reported missing in shark-infested waters 175 miles west of Kwajalein.

The pilot of the 11-man crew, an Air Force captain, was rescued by a Naval patrol craft four hours after the plane went down. He had a broken leg. His name was withheld.

The rescued man said the B-29 broke up quickly when it hit the water. He said he believed the others aboard were lost. One sank beneath a wave before he could reach him, the pilot said.

Navy patrol boats and a crash boat from Kwajalein picked up pieces of the crashed plane and continued their search for survivors.

The crew of a sister Superfort reported the ditching and said they had sighted only one survivor, on a life raft.

"Only debris remains on the water," the accompanying plane radioed the Air Force control tower on Kwajalein.

The Hawaiian Sea Frontier said two of the bomber's four engines apparently failed shortly after take-off from Kwajalein for Guam.

The pilot had radioed 16 minutes before the crash that he had feathered two engines and was losing power in a third. His last message said he was ditching-landing on the ocean surface.

TO HEAD AMA — Dr. Louis H. Bauer, above, of Hempstead, N. Y., has been elected president of the American Medical Association, now in session in Chicago. He succeeds Dr. John W. Cline of San Francisco.

Mexico Bares New Details Of Current Bracero Labor Pact

MEXICO CITY — (AP) — The Mexican government made public Friday additional details of the new migrant labor (bracero) agreement announced Thursday.

Under the new agreement, effective until the end of next year, the U. S. farmer employing Mexican labor must feed and house any sick man during his illness and compensate by cashier's check instead of personal check.

The employer can require up to 10 per cent of his workers for another six months after the first six-month contract has expired. These long-term workers will be used to teach new ones and farm routines. Workers who cannot keep up with the rest may be employed on piece work if they are guaranteed an income of at least two dollars a day.

The Mexican migrants must be given a note, in Spanish, every pay day showing the number of hours worked, the amount earned and the deductions, if any.

Shivers has said a number of times in the past that he does not believe in "third terms" and would not desire a third term as governor. If he sticks to that philosophy, that apparently would mean any further interest in political office would be at the national level.

Wife Of Midland Solon Hospitalized After Car Wreck

Mrs. Ken Regan of Midland, wife of Rep. Regan of the 18th District, was in Callahan County Hospital Friday after suffering painful injuries at 12 noon Thursday in a two-car collision at Baird.

While Mrs. Regan's condition was not considered serious, attaches said she suffered multiple contusions and a scalp laceration.

Driver of the second vehicle, Dr. Raymond Scott Jackson of Fort Collins, Colo., received emergency treatment in a Brownwood hospital.

Mrs. Regan was traveling alone to Midland from Washington, D. C., when the accident occurred at the intersection of U. S. Highway 283 and U. S. 80 east of Baird.

Investigating officers said neither driver was able to remember how the accident happened.

Senate Vote Extends Truman's War Powers

WASHINGTON — (AP) — The Senate Friday adopted a house-passed resolution extending the President's war powers until June 30.

Without this action, the presidential emergency powers would have expired Sunday.

Soldier's Personal Effects Arrive In City By Mistake

Personal effects of a soldier, possibly killed in Korea, have arrived in Midland apparently misaddressed.

Mrs. Barney Hightower of 1010 South Terrell Street received the small package from the War Department by Railway Express Friday morning. It was addressed to "Cpl. Billy C. Rhodes" in care of her, giving her proper name and address.

But Mrs. Hightower has never heard of the soldier, and her checks with the Draft Board, telephone directory and other sources have failed to give a clue as to the identity of his next of kin.

The box marked "Personal Effects," remains unopened, and any person knowing Corporal Rhodes or his family is asked to telephone Mrs. Hightower at 2-3578 or The Reporter-Telegram, 2-3344. The War Department has been notified of the apparent error in address.

Mrs. Hightower has two sons in the service, but it is doubtful that the soldier might have known either. Jack D. Hightower is in the Navy stationed at San Diego and previously saw service in Korea. Barney B. Hightower is with Midland's National Guard unit in summer training at Camp Hood. He is expected to return to Midland Sunday.

New Project Is Largest In City History

Plans for the largest single paving project in the history of Midland, calling for 16 miles of city streets, have been completed and will be submitted next week to the City Council.

Details of the Group F paving project, expected to be underway by early Fall, were disclosed Friday by City Manager W. H. Oswalt following months of work by the city's engineering department.

"We hope to have the project ready for bids by August 1," said the city manager, "with work getting underway a short time later."

"About two-thirds of the program consists of streets on which paving has been requested by petition. The other third includes streets we feel should be included in the program."

The entire project, which includes approximately 210 blocks, will cost an estimated $1,000,000, with the city footing approximately $150,000 of the bill.

Bond Issue Required

However, Oswalt pointed out, completion of the entire program will be contingent on the voting of additional bond funds since only about $100,000 now is available from the last street improvement bond issue.

Approximately 850 blocks of city streets have been paved or are now in the process of being paved since the assessment program was started three and one-half years ago.

An additional 250 blocks, said the city manager, have been paved on a voluntary basis, either by individual property owners or by developers.

The following streets are included in the proposed paving program: Community Lane from Garfield to North J; Bedford from Garfield to Country Club Drive; Maberry from Outhbert to Country Club Drive; Bedford from Lanham to one block west; Country Club from Ward to Lanham; Outhbert from Garfield to Ward; Kansas from

Kidnap Suspect Held In Bexar County Jail

SAN ANTONIO — (AP) — A man suspected of kidnaping a Comal County farm wife was held in jail Friday after being picked up on the outskirts of San Antonio.

Mrs. Clyde L. Stevens was abducted from her home near Bracken at noon Thursday. Her kidnaper fired at her with a pistol when she jumped from his car and escaped about an hour later.

The man was drunk when arrested and fought with officers.

Showers Forecast In Midland Area

Occasional thundershowers are expected late Friday afternoon to give Midlanders limited relief from continuing 80-degree temperatures.

CAA observers at Terminal also predicted gusty surface winds with little variation in temperature. Thursday's high was 92 degrees.

Skies continued clear to partly cloudy over Texas Friday. The Associated Press reported. No rain was recorded.

Eisenhower, Taft Fight For Vital Three-State Vote Bloc

By The Associated Press

Pennsylvania's 70 Republican convention vote, a keystone in the party's selection of a presidential nominee, had a picnic date Friday with one top contender and a tentative appointment with the other.

Gen. Dwight Eisenhower played host to the Pennsylvania delegates at his 120-acre farm near Gettysburg, Pa. The general's chief rival for the GOP prize, Senator Robert Taft of Ohio, will confer with them later, time and place as yet unannounced.

Eisenhower's shirt-sleeve outing was his first face-to-face meeting with most of the Pennsylvania delegates. It followed a pattern he set in New York party's week offering himself for questions on campaign issues in hopes replies would cement pro-Eisenhower alignments and win over the others.

Taft was turning his full attention Friday to Delaware's 12-member GOP delegation at a farm near Wilmington. His plans call for a pre-convention swing through the Middle Atlantic states, with visits to delegations in Virginia and Maryland as well as Pennsylvania.

With the convention about three weeks off—July 7 at Chicago—neither Taft nor Eisenhower has the required 604-vote majority sewed up. The Associated Press tabulation, pegged to avowed and conceded preferences, shows: Taft 464, Eisenhower 292.

That is why each vote commands attention. A bloc of 140—the total in Pennsylvania, Michigan and Maryland—could knock a serious nomination battle sky-high. In fact, there was considerable talk of a coalition of those three states.

Maryland's Gov. Theodore McKeldin, pledged his state's 24 votes on the first ballot as a family son candidate, said Thursday night such negotiations are under way. After the first ballot, McKeldin is believed able to swing 18 to 20 of the Maryland votes.

Pennsylvania's Gov. John Fine, credited with control of 22 of Pennsylvania's 70 votes, said he had not proposed any three-state get-together. Arthur Summerfield, Michigan GOP national committeeman, declined to say what he thinks Michigan's uncommitted votes—33 out of a total 46—might do.

An Associated Press survey shows Pennsylvania's delegation divided 29 for Eisenhower, 18 for Taft and 23 following Fine. In Michigan, it's seven for Eisenhower, six for Taft and 29 tied to Summerfield's action. Eisenhower gets a chance to make a pitch for Michigan support Saturday. He will confer with Michigan delegates and party leaders and deliver a major speech in Detroit.

Coke, Six Cents; Inflation Hits Pause That Refreshes

Coca-Cola, the traditional "pause that refreshes," is going to cost six cents a bottle from now on.

Retailers will have to pay a few cents more for the popular beverage beginning Monday, and consumers will have to come up with a few extra pennies, too.

J. Wright-Ligon, manager of the Texas Coca-Cola Bottling Company, said rising costs of bottling operations and spiraling labor costs have combined to make the increase necessary.

Coke will come in a brand-new package in the future, top. It's the new 12-bottle carton.

The new package is made of double layers of durable, water-resistant kraft paper, laminated together for added strength. The new carton is a sturdy replacement for the familiar six-bottle carton which pioneered the home-sales market.

"This new carton is of special value to the housewife," says Ligon. "It makes it possible for her to bring home a double supply of Coca-Cola in one hand, because it is easy to handle and light on the lift."

While most housewives are cutting down on the number of their shopping expeditions each week, the new 12-bottle carton for Coca-Cola answers an obvious need.

Midland is not the first market to get the new carton, although it is among the first cities in this area.

Experience in other markets where the new package has been given extensive distribution indicates that it is a hit with dealers and consumers alike. Carton sales are up wherever the new package has been introduced.

"And, of course," Ligon continued, "we like it. More people will be able to keep their home supplies of Coke at the proper level this way. After all, a product must not only be popular. It must also be easy to get. People here in Midland have always liked Coca-Cola. This new 12-bottle carton will make it easier for them to get all they want."

Midland consumers will find the new cartons wherever they buy Coca-Cola. They are the same attention-getting shade of red and carry the famous trade mark.

At Ceiling Price
"Our increase in price is no more than the Ceiling Price Regulations permit, and retailers are permitted, under these same regulations, to charge not more than six cents a bottle," advised Ligon.

"While retailers may charge any price they choose, within certain limits as prescribed by law on cartons, it is our suggestion that the new carton retail at 60 cents plus deposit and the 24-bottle case at $1.20 plus deposit. Our deposit structure of four cents per bottle remains unchanged, but the new carton will have a deposit of six cents and all the old six-bottle cartons will be redeemed by us at three cents each."

The company is converting coin-operated machines to accept six cents for cold bottled Cokes.

"In the face of higher costs of every phase of our operations, we have tried throughout the years to keep the price of Coca-Cola at the same popular, familiar level," Ligon concluded. "However, when you get caught in a vise something has to give. And we are sure of one thing: Despite the fact that he pays a few cents more for it, the customer will still find a bottle, carton, or a case of Coca-Cola a bargain in delicious refreshment."

Evelyn Keyes Can Bark 'No!' At Wolves In Six Languages

"I'm getting extremely proficient in foreign languages. I now know how to stop the wolves of the international set by saying 'No' in six different languages."

Gregory Peck, scoffing at tales that he's disappointed at losing out on an Academy award:

"Awards or no awards, I'm very happy. One thing about an award—it's no guarantee that your next picture will be any good. You're as likely to make a dog the next time out. It's just my family that keeps feeling sorry for me because I haven't got an Oscar."

Mary Pickford, explaining her new photography hobby:

"I've always been before the camera. Now I'd like to be behind it and master it the way it's mastered me."

Terry Moore, on acting:

"I would like to live on a studio sound stage—and never go home—and just make one movie after another."

Vittorio Gassman, on marriage:

"An American journalist asked me the other day: 'who's the boss now that Shelley and I are married. All I can say is such a question would never occur to an Italian newspaperman.'"

Men Love With Eyes
Zsa Zsa Gabor, on love:

"Men love with their eyes. They love what they see. But women love with their ears. They love to hear what men say to them. That is why the ugliest, shortest, baldest man can make the most beautiful woman in the world fall in love with him."

Roger Kendall, movie producer, in answer to the "Would you hire Ingrid Bergman?" question:

"Would I? You produce her and I'll make pictures with her. I'll bend over backwards. So will exhibitors and the moviegoing public. What happened to Ingrid has been happening to women since the world began."

Susan Hayward, after a sparkling display of wrestling holds in a fight scene for "This Man Is Mine":

"Look, when you raise twin boys, you have to be pretty handy with your head locks and leg snatches."

Broderick Crawford, on being a screen tough guy:

"It has its compensations and its problems. It must be wonderful to be able to walk into a bar without expecting that some character, trying to impress his girl friend, is going to invite you to step outside just to prove how tough he is."

Marta Toren, on reports she'll wed playwright Leonard Bergovici:

"He's a very good friend and that's as far as it goes. I'm old fashioned. When I get married, I want to stay married."

TV Cramps Style
Charles Lemaire, Fox wardrobe director, on censorship of movie queen's gowns:

"Some of the things that they won't allow us to do on the screen are the very feminine things that make a woman different from a man. And what we can't do shows up on television. It's all wrong. The censors don't have the woman's angle. How could they? They're all men and they go by what they like or dislike personally. If there were two women and two men on a board to pass on screen costumes, we'd have a better deal for Hollywood."

Joan Fontaine, about her new movie, "Ivanhoe":

"The horses were beautifully caparisoned. It's a classical setting in gorgeous color and it's going to be tremendously successful."

Diana Lynn, on her career blueprint:

"I want to do stage plays and television as well as movies. You last a lot longer that way, I think. I learned more about acting in one year on TV than I did in 10 years as a motion picture actress in Hollywood."

Anthony Capps, movie dance director, about ballroom dancing:

"When a man and woman dance well together it makes a happier marriage. Dancing is stimulating. The happiest couples dance together. It makes them more aware of themselves."

Mary Castle, on past publicity about her resemblance to Rita Hayworth:

"I was very unhappy about it. Finally the studio stopped arranging interviews with the press. Newspaper people would ask me how I felt to look like Rita and I'd snip at them."

Sid Luft May Leave Wife Judy To Enter Testimony On Suit

LOS ANGELES—(AP)—Bridegroom Sid Luft may have to give up part of his honeymoon with singer Judy Garland for courtroom appearances in the child support suit brought by his former wife, actress Lynn Bari.

Miss Bari's attorney, S. S. Hahn, says he will present a petition to Superior Judge Louis H. Burke next Tuesday, charging that Luft withheld a material fact about his assets when he testified last Wednesday. Luft was ordered to double his $200 monthly payments for support of his three-year-old son, John.

Last Wednesday, the attorney said, Luft appeared in court, pleading poverty. However, Hahn said, under California law the day Luft married Miss Garland—last Sunday—he got half her income. "That makes him a millionaire. Judy can earn as much as a million dollars a year."

"Luft's concealment of the truth misled the court in making a decision," Hahn added. He said he will demand that the support case be reopened and will ask $1,000 a month for the boy.

Jenny Ann To Make Choice Between Lindstrom, Ingrid

LOS ANGELES—(AP)—Jenny Ann Lindstrom, only 24 hours after her graduation from elementary school Friday faced perhaps the most difficult problem of her young life.

The shy 13-year-old must decide between her mother and father when she is questioned in Judge Mildred Lillie's chambers.

The blond girl, whose name was changed from Pia to Jenny Ann by her father, Dr. Lindstrom, is the object of an international battle.

Her mother, actress Ingrid Bergman, left Dr. Lindstrom for Roberto Rossellini, Italian film director, whom she has since married. Miss Bergman now asks court permission for Jenny Ann to visit her in Italy this summer.

Dr. Lindstrom, fearing Miss Bergman might attempt Italian court action giving her custody of Jenny Ann, is fighting his former wife's petition.

Meanwhile, Rossellini was racing against time in his efforts to come to the United States from Italy to answer Dr. Lindstrom's charges that the film director's home is not proper for Jenny Ann. Judge Lillie set a June 30 deadline for Rossellini's appearance.

Testifying in Judge Lillie's Domestic Relations Court Thursday, Dr. Charles O. Sturdevant, a psychiatrist, said Dr. Lindstrom and Miss Bergman "should stay out of courtrooms and mend their difficulties privately. The bitterness between the two should die out so their daughter can get to know her mother as the fine person she can love and respect."

The psychiatrist said it would not be in Jenny Ann's best interests if she were permitted to visit Miss Bergman this summer.

On close examination by Miss Bergman's counsel, Greg Baizer, the psychiatrist said "Jenny Ann told me twice she didn't wish to go and she told Dr. Lindstrom she won't go."

Grandstaff Bound Over To Grand Jury On Burglary Charge

MILWAUKEE—(AP)—A former convict who won his freedom by composing music was bound over to Municipal Court Thursday on charges of burglary and attempted burglary.

Frank Grandstaff denied the charges. A vagrancy charge is still pending.

A watch found in Grandstaff's possession after his arrest May 17 in a Milwaukee tavern was identified in District Court by Harry Meyer as having been stolen. Burdilla Hanson said Grandstaff tried to open her apartment door the same night Meyer said his watch was stolen in the building.

Grandstaff, 50, composed his "Big Spring Cantata" while serving life in prison as a habitual criminal. The governor of Tennessee pardoned him at the request of citizens of Big Spring, Texas, where his cantata was performed. Grandstaff told police he came to Milwaukee to get a job as a night club musician.

TODAY'S WOMEN

Girdle Or Not Is Hot Topic On Fashion Lot

By DOROTHY ROE

To girdle or not to girdle? That is the question at present arousing heated controversy in the salons of fashion.

It started when Designer Charles James announced the other day that the female form looks better uncensored.

That depends, say a number of equally famous designers, on what shape the female form is in. Says Frances Sider, who designs both inner and outer fashions:

"What about the girl with the rubber tire middle? What about the lady with middle-aged spread? What about the one with the drooping bustline and the flopping hips? If you want to see the female form in its natural state, just take a look at Coney Island on a hot Sunday afternoon. You'll have to admit it usually looks far from divine, without a little restraint."

Says Lilly Dache, who has added bras to her growing list of hats, dresses, gloves and hosiery:

"You have to wear a foundation to achieve the uncensored look that's just another of those little deceptions which all smart women practice.

"Nobody wants to look stiff and girlish, like the matrons of a generation or so ago. The natural look is what we are striving for—but it can't be too natural or it looks awful."

Says Adele Simpson, famous for her svelte, sophisticated dress and suit designs:

"I can't agree with Mr. James. Every model in my showroom wears a foundation, even if she's a size ten. I feel it is of the utmost importance, for the sake of posture as well as the figure. A judicious amount of restraint is a good thing, whether it applies to the figure, the diet or the conversation."

Then there is the final question which the girls are firing at James:

"If you don't wear a girdle, how are you going to keep your stockings up?"

Sorry, But Bikinis Won't Garb Lassies At Atlantic City

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J. —(AP)—Sorry gals. Oh, rather, sorry, guys. There'll be no French bathing suits allowed on this resort's crowded beaches this season.

Officials who make the rules for beaches here banned the ultra-scanty swim suit Thursday and required life guards to see that bathers wear "decent attire."

"The French bathing suit is definitely out," said Beach Patrol Supt. Richard Hughes.

Each year there are requests for a ruling on how low, how high and how brief "decent attire" should be.

Because the job of keeping laws in step with ever-shrinking styles in women's beach wear became increasingly difficult, the matter was put on a "decent attire" basis.

So this year, no French bathing suits.

Great Grandmother's Wisdom: 'Duty's Nigh As Good As Love'

By MURIEL LAWRENCE

I just couldn't give it. Then I did my duty. My boys and girls got on alright. You younger folks wear yourselves out to frazzles, as shared you're going to fall your children. Duty's nigh as good as love. Why don't you say so?"

"So I said I would say so and I'm keeping my promise."

Duty is DOING what we are supposed to do.

It is not concerned with feelings but with deeds. Like so many old practical ideas, the idea of duty has fallen among light-minded thieves who have so robbed it of value for us that we no longer credit what it can do.

Duty is to act from moral conviction. Although an act of duty is less noble than an act inspired by love, it still is an act of which we mortals can be quite proud.

Duty comes in handy, for example when Sheila or Bill want to embroil us in excitable defense against an insolent or false charge. It does not require us to feel tenderness for bad temper, but just to do what we are supposed to do.

It calls for the control of the tongue's biting retaliation. It strengthens you and me to leave the room where juvenile anger rages and make a kitchen neat and tidy. It fortifies us to calmly iron the shirt needed for school tomorrow. It sends us to the sewing basket and the angry boy's socks that need darning. Although it cannot assert the divine peace of love, it can assert order of action in the midst of emotional disorder — and order is the root of peace.

If we do not think creatively for ourselves about this fine gift to children, we will continue to regard duty as a smugness and self-righteousness, and fall into the frustrations inevitable when we give nothing because we can't give the best.

Dr. Albert Schweitzer is one of the great loving spirits of our day. In his book, "Memoirs of Childhood and Youth," he recalls a teacher—a man who always had every lesson carefully prepared; who never gave more or less knowledge than he had planned to give; who always returned copy books on the proper day at the proper hour.

"Experience of this self-disciplined activity had a distinct effect upon me," writes Dr. Schweitzer. "That a deep sense of duty, manifested in even the smallest matters is a great educative influence and that it accomplishes what no exhortation or punishment can. Has become with me a firm conviction."

Duty done well is humility and courage. It is both the recognition that we have failed to give the perfect thing and the decision to give the less perfect.

Those who sneer at it are romantic people. While they still are making pretty speeches about love, those of us who have turned to duty when love has failed in us, are enjoying the love the sneerers are just talking about.

The bride's chosen colors of lavender and green were used in the decorations. The table was covered with an ecru lace cloth over green and centered with an arrangement of stock and feverfew on a mirror surrounded by miniature wedding bells. Crystal appointments were used.

The buffet was centered with an arrangement of Spring flowers flanked by lavender candles in crystal candelabra. The entertaining rooms were decorated with Spring flowers.

Approximately 45 guests attended.

'Steel Points' For India

Climatic and economic conditions being what they are in India, there will be another famine in that populous land one day not too far off. When that time arrives, the Indian government may be compelled to seek aid from the United States in the form of grain or money.

And then certain righteous members of Congress will get to their feet and shout: "Why can't these people take care of themselves? Why should this country be burdened with their problems?"

Unless Congress changes its mind now about something the House has just done, the answer to those possible future questions will trace back to the Spring of 1952. It will be fair to say that India is then a burden to us because our lawmakers failed earlier to take some rather easy and not too expensive steps to help the Indians get onto a sound, self-help basis.

Specifically, the House, in its customary blind wielding of the "economy" axe on the foreign aid bill, chopped the Point Four program for India from $115,000,000 to $35,000,000. If this cut should stand, the U. S. will be able to assist only 6,000,000 Indian farmers instead of 22,000,000, as planned. Projected gains in food supply will just about be wiped out.

This program is not a dole, not charity. It is designed to provide technical equipment, advice and certain special materials which India needs to boost its food supply. If these things can be applied successfully, then India thereafter can do a better job of taking care of its own food needs. Famine will become rarer, and so will desperate appeals to the U. S. and other more fortunate peoples.

What India requires are "steel points" for its plows, fertilizer, advice in channeling and using irrigation water, irrigation pumps and other tools.

A ton of fertilizer will add two tons of food in India. A six-pound steel point on a plow, if used to turn under a green crop, can add 40 per cent to the crop yield. Irrigation can mean two crops a year instead of only one.

The proposed plan called for some 400 U. S. technicians to cooperate with 17,000 Indians to teach them sound farming techniques. This nucleus of trained Indians then would help to fit millions of other Indian farmers for a better job of food-raising.

All this now is in jeopardy because the House, eager to pose as economy-minded in an election year, has been whacking away wildly at foreign aid in general and Point Four in particular. House members apparently didn't even know they were hurting the Indian program when they reduced the Point Four total. But that is hardly an excuse, since they are supposed to understand what they are doing.

Conferees on the foreign aid bill have a chance to repair the damage before it seriously is felt. If they do not act, then Congress need only look back upon itself at some future date to find out why India again is knocking on the door for help.

Some folk take advantage not only of their own opportunities but everybody else's.

Battle Of Bunko Hill

The Washington Merry-Go-Round

By Drew Pearson
(Copyright, 1952, by the Bell Syndicate, Inc.)
Drew Pearson says: Senator Russell needs a "Nancy." Gas lobby sabotages chairman of federal power commission; FP Chairman Buchanan was too independent for lobbyists.
WASHINGTON — When Senator Kefauver first tossed his coin into the ring, Washington social tongues wagged that his wife Nancy would be a handicap. The American people, chattered the gossips, would never elect a President married to a British wife.
As the campaign has progressed, however, red-headed Nancy Kefauver has been one of her husband's biggest assets. She has worked night and day, traveled by plane, train and car, shaken hands, mingled at ladies' luncheons, scored a hit everywhere.
Whether she be British, Tennesseean or what, people have loved her. The fact is that Mrs. Kefauver is the daughter of a Scottish ship-engineer who helped design the battleship Hood and the Queen Mary. Her mother was American, and she met Kefauver when she returned to Tennessee to visit her mother's family. After young Kefauver met her, he went to Scotland to pursue the romance and finally persuaded Nancy to marry him.
The other day, Senator Russell of Georgia, whose campaign hasn't been progressing as well as Kefauver's, but who has a strong sense of humor as well as chivalry, was discussing his lagging campaign with friends. The subject came round to Mrs. Kefauver.
"Yess," sighed bachelor Russell, "I guess what I need is a Nancy."
The only federal power commissioner who had the courage to stand up and vote against the natural gas lobby may be quietly axed by the lobby. He is Tom Buchanan, who the President reappointed as chairman of the Federal Power Commission in May, but is now the victim of a quiet conspiracy by the gas lobbyists and certain senators who have played into their hands.
There is good reason why the gas lobby is trying to block Buchanan. There's also good reason why the housewives and all those who have to pay a gas bill at the end of the month should be for him.
Buchanan vigorously fought the lobby in raising gas rates—and lost. Had he won, the price of gas would have been lower.

JACOBY ON BRIDGE

By OSWALD JACOBY
Written for NEA Service
Which would you rather be in today's hand—South, playing the hand at three no-trump, or a defender, trying to beat three no-trump? In other words, should South make his contract, or should the defense beat him?
If West opens a spade, South easily makes his contract. He wins the first spade trick and knocks out a top diamond. The opponents can now do nothing better than continue the spades, eventually winning two spades and two diamonds.
The defense has a better chance if West opens the nine of hearts.

Bridge hand diagram showing North, South, West, and East cards and suits.

If South is unwary enough to win the first heart trick, West hope up with the ace of diamonds the first time that suit is led in order to return his remaining heart.

This knocks out declarer's second heart stopper while East still has a sure entry with his king of diamonds. The defenders will collect three hearts and two diamonds to defeat the contract.

The pendulum now swings the other way. Declarer refuses the first heart trick. If hearts are continued, South can win and lead a diamond. If West wins the first diamond, he cannot lead another heart; if East wins the first diamond, he cannot defeat the contract whether he returns a heart or a spade.

Suppose, for example, that East wins the first diamond and returns a third round of hearts. Declarer wins and knocks out the ace of diamonds. Now South can surely remain the lead to run four clubs, two diamonds, two hearts, and one spade.

The defenders are equally helpless if they switch to spades after winning the first diamond. South wins and captures a spade honor with his ace and knocks out the other top diamond.

The defenders can now take one spade trick, but must then surrender the lead to South's ten of spades. Declarer then has tricks to burn, while the defenders have taken only a heart, a spade and two diamonds.

Now for another swing of the pendulum. When West opens the nine of hearts, South must hold up in order to have any play for his contract. Having thus obtained one heart trick, the defenders must now switch to spades.

South captures a spade honor with his ace and goes after the diamonds. Now the defenders can plug away at spades, defeating the contract with two spades, two diamonds and one heart.

If you have your choice, therefore, you should prefer to be a defender. But you must play carefully to get a plus result.

WASHINGTON COLUMN

Montana In Stew Over Radical Workmen's Compensation Bill

By PETER EDSON
NEA Washington Correspondent
HELENA, MONT.—Montana has a red-hot political issue on the ballot this November in which there is more local interest than who gets elected President. It is a petition for a new workmen's compensation law that would outdo compulsory health insurance and make Britain's cradle-to-grave welfare state tame by comparison.

Opponents of the Montana petition say it might easily bankrupt the state, if approved by the voters and enacted into law. The issue has national interest in that, if Montana adopts it, other states might follow suit.

Authorship of the Montana petition is attributed to Jerry O'Connell. He may be remembered as a Washington state congressman for a brief but hectic career and as the author of a Washington state old-age pension law that almost bankrupted that state, until it was repealed.

O'Connell now is practicing law in Great Falls, Mont. He is a pillar in the tottering structure of what's left of Henry Wallace's Progressive Party of 1948.

For this workmen's compensation initiative petition, O'Connell has the support of the Montana state AFL and CIO organizations. They are operating from Progressive Party headquarters at Great Falls.

Montana miners may have a legitimate demand for revision of the existing workmen's compensation law. Some time safety experts say it does not give adequate protection for injury from silicosis, the lung disease contracted from inhaling mine or quarry dust.

Dynamite Not In Title
The O'Connell proposed law, however, mentions silicosis only once. In the title, it reads:

"An act transferring the burden of payments to those suffering from silicosis from the people of the state of Montana to the industries responsible, therefore making occupational diseases compensable under the workmen's compensation act."

The title then goes on to provide for "increasing compensation for injuries to workmen in cases of temporary total disability, total permanent disability, permanent partial disability for injuries causing death, and for specified injuries."

It would remove "the limitation on the amount allowed for medical and hospital services and other treatment for injured workmen; and

For an employer to refuse to hire a workman having a non-occupational disease would be made illegal and subject to $5,000 compensatory damages.

An employee sustaining temporary total disability would be entitled to $20-a-week minimum to $38-a-week maximum for 90 weeks, which is roughly six years. Compensation would vary according to wage scale and number of dependents.

For occupational injury causing death, benefits of from $20 a week to $38 a week until the widow or widower died or remarried, or until all minor dependents reached age 18.

All hospitalization and medical costs would have to be paid by the employer for injuries resulting from industrial injury.

For specific injuries resulting from industrial accidents, compensation would vary from 250 weeks—five years—for loss of an arm at or near the shoulder, to four weeks for loss of a finger or toe at the first joint.

Insurance companies providing group coverage for these benefits would soon drive them out of business or cause premiums so high no employer could pay them.

Death in the Sierras

By Doris Hudson Moss

THE STORY: Rosemary Curtis, on a picnic in the Sierras, had herself involved in a murder. Mrs. Ordell, wife of a college professor, has been stabbed. Several theories previously Rosemary had been the victim of mysterious threats and had been mistreated by a girl named Elaine Harrison.

AFTER the group seated itself, Dr. Roberts began. "Frankly, I came here to fish and relax. My practice in San Francisco has been demanding and I'm tired. But there will be no rest, because murder has been committed. And before that, poison was placed in a woman's tent. We must clear ourselves."

I broke in. "Did Mrs. James tell you that Mrs. Ordell is the second woman to be murdered? The other was near Horseshoe Springs just before I arrived last night. The old man there told me and was nearly shot for his pains. The proof of the shooting is the bullet-hole in the fender of my car."

"Yes," Dr. Roberts hastened to say. "Mrs. James told us of your story to solve this one."

Rhumba was fixing luncheon. We felt more cheerful at the prospect of food, when suddenly Dick Bannister, one of the university students, snatched up the platter of ham and held it for Dr. Roberts to see.

The ham was coated with a sauce and clinging to the sauce was a thin film of a white, powdery substance.

"Don't eat it!" Dr. Roberts exclaimed. "It looks like the powder on the meat found in Miss Curtis' tent."

Robert's lips closed in a grim line. I agreed with him. I would eat no ham. We all declined to touch the meat and would eat only what came from freshly-opened cans.

I suggested a tray for Professor Ordell and Jeff took it across the narrow court to the Lodge. He was gone but a few minutes when he came dashing again to the kitchen, pale, breathless, and his eyes wide with terror.

"Something's happened to Professor Ordell!" he gasped wildly.
"Frankly we ran to the Lodge. There before the cheerful fire lay the Professor as he had fallen. His right hand on the hearth, his left hand close to his body and tightly clenched.

Dr. Roberts turned him over gently and felt for his pulse. There was no sound except a cruel swelling on the back of his head. He still breathed.

He had been struck by a large, blunt instrument and had fallen forward.

Professor Ordell stared and opened his eyes in a dazed fashion. "She asked for you, James," he mumbled.

Professor Ordell sat up quickly. "A woman in a big, dark colored coat," he said. "She had red hair and called your name, James. She carried a small handbag and I thought she was a guest arriving. I told her you were in the kitchen."

He paused. "Perhaps she struck me. I don't know. But I had been writing down clues to—well to who might have hurt my wife. And the person who attacked me took these notes." He took a scrap of paper from his clenched fist. The only writing on it was the word "Hilda."

Every pair of eyes in the room turned on me.

BY 7 o'clock Mr. James succeeded in reaching the corner by telephone. The sheriff had gone to investigate a murder at Horseshoe Springs, the coroner said, and could be contacted there by phone, so he might reach Gold Lake earlier, although bridges had been washed out by the storm and there would be a delay.

Professor Ordell had recovered from his drowsiness and was talking to Dr. Roberts, who sat near me by the fire. "I'm going to say to me that I had noticed Mr. James tie the canvas straps of the tent flaps before he berded us back to the Lodge after we found Mrs. Ordell. There was a fearful streak of dark red on the tarpaulin which served as a counterpane. To our utter horror, the body of Mrs. Ordell was—gone!

Have A Laugh

By Boyce House
William Jennings Bryan was once being asked about his famous "Cross of Gold" speech which stamped the Democratic national convention of 1896 and he said:
"A colored preacher told his congregation, 'There is three parts to my sermon—the beginning, the argument and the whoop-te-do. I will have out the first two and give you the whoop-te-do.'
Bryan concluded, 'That's what I gave them.'"

RUTH MILLETT Careless Hostess Makes Guest Feel Unimportant, Unwanted

"Casual Doesn't Mean Careless," says the title of a piece about entertaining at home in the current issue of a national homes magazine.

There are quite a few hostesses today who could profitably take a tip from that title.

How about the hostess who invites her guests for a barbecue at seven o'clock and doesn't have the fire built when they arrive? By the time they are finally fed at nearer 11 than seven they have vowed either one of two things: to eat before they come next time or to be sure and be busy the next time they are invited to that particular house for a meal.

That kind of management may pass for casualness with the hostess. But it seems more like carelessness to the hungry guests.

And how about the hostess who overdoes the idea of relaxing at her own party that there might as well not be a hostess around? Guests don't like to be fussed over, but they do like to be made to feel that their comfort is somebody's business.

Doesn't Prepare

And there is the hostess who obviously makes up before-hand preparation for expected guests. She has to clear off a chair before you can sit down, look for the cards if she has invited you for a card game, and she likely as not leaves you to amuse yourself for half an hour while she goes about doing chores that should have been done before her guests arrived.

Then there is the hostess who takes pride in always putting her guests to work. You may find your-

Spilled Gasoline Halts T&P Traffic

LONGVIEW—(AP)—Between 5,000 and 7,000 gallons of gasoline spilled from a storage tank which collapsed at the Premier Oil Company refinery Thursday.

Firemen and company workers pumped most of it into other tanks. Texas & Pacific Railroad traffic was halted several hours to prevent a possible fire.

DIVERS' QUACK MAKES TROUBLE

LONDON—(AP)—The British Admiralty has assigned some of its brightest doctors to stop British sailors—who talk in a clear bass on the surface—from quacking like Donald Duck when they dive deep into the ocean.

A diver plunges into the water breathing a mixture of oxygen and helium—and his elocution is perfect for the first 240 to 300 feet.

But around that depth a sudden change takes place. Try as he will, the best a diver can manage is an angry quack. His speech becomes normal again when he is hauled up.

Makes it mighty difficult for the men listening on top of the water, says the Naval Diving Service.

★ Daddy Ringtail ★

Daddy Ringtail And Two Strong Men

Daddy Ringtail, your monkey friend, came to the side of the mountain to visit with Unos, Dose, and Trace, the three brothers who lived there in the great stone house.

They had built out of huge stones with their own hands. Unos and Dose and Trace were very strong men.

Unos and Dose and Trace were proud of their huge stone house. They were proud of their big strong muscles. They were proud of their leopard-skin suits, but most of all they were proud of the fact that not a single hair grew on the top of their heads.

They had a secret salve that each rubbed on his head each morning. First they would rub the salve on, and then they would polish and shine their heads with a shoe-shine rag. Oh, but one dreadful morning, Trace woke up too late to rub on the salve and shine his head like his brothers, Unos, and Dose. By the time for supper that night, traces of hair had grown all over Trace's head, and so his head wasn't slick and shiny any more.

Worse still, Unos and Dose would not let Trace have any more of the secret salve, even though he begged them on his knees. But no, they wouldn't do it. They were proud that they were two of the strongest, leopard-suit-wearing, shiny-headed-est, fellows in all the world.

Poor Trace was about ready to give up hope of ever being shiny-headed like them again. He was about ready to go away to work at the circus and never live at home any more. But Daddy Ringtail whispered to him what to do, and Trace did it.

"Hah!" said Trace to his brothers. "Two strong men could never rub any secret salve on my head. I am much too strong for them. Two strong men could never shine my head with a shoe-shine rag. I am much too strong for them indeed." But Unos and Dose were angry to hear Trace say that two strong men (such as they were not strong enough to rub secret salve and shine Trace's head with a shoe-shine rag. They would have to show him they would, and they did. What a terrible fight it was, but at last, "Now we are three strong men with the shiniest heads in all the world," the happy brothers said together. Happy day!

Odessa Defeats Rockets To End Long Losing Streak

ODESSA—(P)—The Odessa Oilers snapped a five-game losing streak here Thursday night with an 8-5 victory over the Roswell Rockets.

Left-hander Evelio Ortega registered his tenth win of the season in going the route for the first-place Oilers crew. On the mound for the losing Roswell team was Pancho Perez, who is trying out with the Rockets.

Ortega was tagged for a total of 10 base hits in the victory and was not in top form, although in the clutch he did manage to get the Al Monchak team down without too much damage being done. The Rockets left 11 men stranded on the bases.

The Oilers touched Perez for a total of 11 bingles in eight innings at the plate, with four big tallies in the fifth frame being the deciding factor.

The Oilers took a 3-0 lead at the end of the first three innings and at the end of four it was 3-1. Four tallies in the fifth came on three base hits and a trio of walks.

One home run was poled in the ball game, as Bill Cearley hit for the circuit in the eighth with no one on base.

The same two clubs square off again Friday night in the second game of the three-till series.

San Angelo Wins Pitching Battle With Vernon, 1-0

VERNON—(P)—San Angelo got the best of a good old-fashioned pitchers battle here Thursday night when the Colts edged out the Vernon Dusters on an unearned run, 1-0.

Parks Thomas settled the Longhorn League tail-enders with three bingles while his teammates worked Lefty Walls for 10 scattered safeties. Not an extra base blow was hit during the encounter.

San Angelo scored the lone run of the game in the third frame. With one down, Marty Dooley got a scratch single and stole second. On the steal, Duster Catcher Joe Niedson overthrew second and Dooley scooted right on around to third. Ken Kowalik then got a scratch single to score the runner.

Dog Show Scheduled

September 17 has been approved by the American Kennel Club as the date for the annual show of the West Texas Kennel Club, George Woodford, club president, announced Friday.

Selwyn Harris of New York City, and John Banks of Webster Groves, Mo., nationally known canine judges, have been announced tentatively as judges for this all-breed show, sponsored by the local kennel club and held under the aegis of the national AKC.

A cash prize of $100 was announced for the best dog in show, $50 for best local dog, and $10 for best in each breed. In order to encourage more local entries at the Fall show, kennel club members have started a series of training sessions open to anyone interested in the proper handling of dogs for the show ring. These sessions will be held every Thursday night, starting at 8:45 p.m. in the city park on West Wall Street. Anyone interested is urged to bring their dog and join the group, Woodford said.

Boys and girls interested in entering their dogs in junior showmanship classes also are urged to attend.

American Mermaid To Try Four More Swims, Then Retire

GROESBINGER, N. Y.—(P)—Four more swims and Florence Chadwick is going to call it quits, "win, lose or die."

The only woman to swim the English Channel two ways, the 32-year-old former stenographer is going to take one final crack at the Channel in August in an attempt for the England-to-France crossing.

Before she heads for England this summer, the attractive mermaid has snapped out an ambitious program in which she'll attempt to break three other records.

First on her agenda is a June 28 Catalina Island-to-the-mainland trip. Then she will head for Beirut, Lebanon for a crack at the Hellespont Dardanelles. Once that chore of five miles is over with, she'll move on to Tarifa, Spain, and churn across the shark-infested straits of Gibraltar.

"By then I should be in perfect condition for an August try at Tom Blower's record of 15 hours, 30 minutes for the England-to-France Channel swim," said Florence. "I did it in 16:13 last year."

Fowler Gets Axe As Vernon Pilot

VERNON—(P)—The managerial axe has fallen for the first time in the 1952 Longhorn Baseball League.

Chet Fowler was relieved of his duties as field general of the Vernon Dusters Thursday.

Al Richardson will continue as "temporary manager," according to Marvin Sharp, president of the Wilbarger Baseball Club.

Richardson has been at the helm of the Dusters since June 6, when Fowler left Vernon on a baseball player scouting trip.

Fowler will remain with the club but in the capacity of business manager.

Broncs Push Out Streak

ARTESIA—(P)—The Big Spring Broncos, aided by seven Artesia errors, stretched their winning streak to eight straight with a 10-3 win over the Drillers here Thursday night.

Aramis Arenchita went the distance in taking the win.

The Broncos picked up a single run in the second and scored the rest of their tallies in clusters of three each in the first, sixth and seventh in a game that was punctuated by a total of nine errors.

Only two of the miscues, however, were the direct cause of a run being scored.

A leadoff single by Ricky Gonzales and a walk to Ozzie Alvarez and consecutive doubles by Witty Quintana and Manager Pat Stacey gave the Steeds their first three runs in the initial inning.

Their lone run in the second came when Quintana drew a bases-loaded walk to force in Al Alvarez, on with a single, from third.

The score:

Teams Meet Again Friday Night With Ladies As Guests

Indian Hurler Eddie Jacobs (8-4) will try to pitch Midland to its first win of the 1952 season over the Sweetwater Braves here Friday night before a ladies night crowd. Right-hander Ernie Sadler (8-5) will start for Sweetwater, according to Manager Alex Carrasquah.

Any woman, accompanied by one paid admission, will be admitted free to Friday night's game.

The Sweetwater Braves continued their mastery over the Midland Indians here Thursday night as they patted the Tribe, 14 to 5, with a 17-hit attack off three Midland hurlers.

As if such a number of base hits weren't enough, the Tribe kicked in eight bobbles along in the run marathon, which extended over three hours.

Lean Dean Higgins, a right-handed, side-arm hurler, curbed the Indians into submission, allowing only seven safeties in going the route.

The slender hurler also had a terrific night at the plate, collecting two hits in five attempts, including a mighty homer over the left field wall in the eighth inning with the bases loaded.

It was the fifth time this year the Braves have defeated Midland, while the Indians have yet to beat them.

Balding Al Brosch Shoots 68 To Pace Open; Hogan Has 69

'CONVERSIN' THREESOME—These three American Legion baseball players, all of whom play with the Westerners, are caught discussing some of the finer points of the game. Left to right, they are: Billy Kiser, Gwynn Grisham and Lionel Crisp.

DALLAS—(P)—Respected, balding Al Brosch, a 40-year-old teaching pro from Garden City, N. Y., held an enviable position Friday after shooting an opening round of 68 in the fifty-second National Open Golf Tournament.

That was one of two sub-par rounds manufactured by the field of 162 in the first day of play on the heat-blanketed Northwood course. Ben Hogan, defending champion and winner of three National Open titles in his last three attempts, had a 69.

Three others, all in the middle or past-middle age bracket, fired even par 70's. They were Sam Snead, one of the three top favorites in pre-tournament reckoning; 44-year-old Horton Smith, the PGA president who is playing in his twenty-first National Open, and Dick Metz, who retired last year to run a ranch and returned to tournament golf.

None of the others could buck the combination of 94-degree heat, strong winds and the pressure of playing in a national championship before an opening-day crowd estimated at 12,000. But there were enough of them in the 71 and '72 scoring bracket to threaten Brosch's lead.

Brosch, who celebrated his sixteenth wedding anniversary Friday, doesn't intend to let that happen. He has seen it too often before.

Long known as a player who might win a lot of money if he chose to follow the tournament trail, Al never has finished better than sixth in the Open.

Hogan and Snead both were well-satisfied with their opening rounds. Hogan said he never had putted better in his life.

Snead complained only of one shot—an easy approach that he hit a trifle too boldly.

The 71 shooters on the opening day included Porky Oliver, Dutch Harrison, George Fazio, Ted Kroil and Julius Beays.

Another was Stan Mosel, the North Texas State College sophomore from Twin Falls, Idaho, the only amateur to crash the list of leaders. A member of the North Texas second team—the first includes National Amateur Champion Billy Maxwell, who had a 78—Mosel fashioned a four-under-par 31 on the back nine after going out in 40.

Back, but still in the running were such players as ex-Champion Lew Worsham, Tommy Bolt, Chandler Egan, Jackie Burke, Jimmy Demaret, Jim Ferrier and Con-furgus Lloyd Mangrum.

Mangrum shot a 75, which barely put him in the low 50. After Friday's round the field will be cut to the low 50 and ties for Saturday's 36-hole final.

J. C. Hardwick, formerly of Midland, was among the low scorers in the first round Thursday. He posted a 43-47-94.

Penn State Chokes Texas In NCAA First-Round Tilt

OMAHA—(P)—Unless there are a couple of surprises, that foxey old major leaguer, Jack Coombs, is going to retire with the realization of his fondest dream—an NCAA baseball championship.

The former Philadelphia Athletics hurler is leaving Duke University this season at the age of 70. He wants the NCAA title as a climax to his 32 years of coaching.

On-strength of their performance in beating Oregon State 18-7 in the first round, the Blue Devils appear ready and able to satisfy their coach.

This sixth renewal of the tournament is a double elimination affair. Results Thursday left Duke, Missouri, Holy Cross and Penn State in the winner's bracket and Texas, Western Michigan, Colorado State and Oregon State in the losers' bracket.

Penn State has its chance at Duke Friday night. The Easterners beat off Texas' two-run ninth inning rally in the first round for a 3-2 victory over the Longhorns.

Missouri and Holy Cross take over the second feature spot Friday night. The Big Seven Conference champions battered Colorado State, 18-1, in their first appearance. Holy Cross came up with a nifty job in defeating Western Michigan, 5-1. Texas makes its comeback bid against Oregon State in an afternoon game Friday. Western Michigan and Colorado State are matched in a game to follow.

Indian Bats

First Baseman Pat O'Keefe continues to pace the Tribe batsmen with a .417 average. O'Keefe has collected 20 hits in 48 trips to the plate.

Meanwhile, Center Fielder Gahlen Dinkel, who left Thursday for a pre-induction Army physical, is swatting the ball at a .313 clip, which is good enough for second place.

Dick Cassidy, Indian left fielder, has topped his average slightly to .308 to take over third spot.

Third Baseman Julio de la Torre is fourth with a .303 average, while Bill Brown, who shucked his heavy catcher's harness for the outfield, is sporting a .291 average at the plate.

Dinkel Added To Injured List; Bossenberry Arrives

The injury jinx which has been hanging over the Midland Indians struck again Thursday night when swift Gahlen Dinkel, Tribe center fielder, injured his ankle while trying to make a running catch of a fly ball in the eighth inning.

The Tribe had just learned that Right Fielder Hayden White would be out from a week to 10 days with a right ankle injury, hurt while sliding into second base in Tuesday night's game with Big Spring here.

Dr. Homer B. Johnson, club physician, said Friday Dinkel probably will be lost to the Indians for five or six days. He said the ankle is not fractured but had been hurt on two previous occasions.

White and Dinkel join Catcher Gordon Tanner and Second Baseman Dempsey Albritton on the injury list.

Albritton is expected to be out a week or so longer, but Tanner is expected to be out of action from four to six weeks, and possibly for the season.

The Tribe catcher was to leave for his home in Canada Friday.

Meanwhile Earl Bossenberry, a first baseman signed by the Indians last winter, joined the club late Thursday in time to watch them get trounced by Sweetwater.

Bossenberry, a .305 hitter with New Iberia in the Evangeline League last year, will have to put up a real battle to win the first base position away from Pat O'Keefe.

He has been attending Junior College in Highland Park, Mich.

Ralph Kiner Expects Time To Aid In Catching Sauer

PITTSBURGH—(AP)—Ralph Kiner, bent on catching Hank Sauer in the National League home run derby, figures it's just a matter of time before he catches up with the Chicago slugger or the law of averages catches up with him.

"It's always that way," grinned the Pittsburgh Pirates' outfielder Thursday. "I'm always behind."

What the better meant is that he's usually behind in the home run derby early in the season. He calls it a "pre-season slump."

Some observers figure Kiner may find Sauer a hard man to catch. Sauer has 18 round trippers to his credit in 56 games. Kiner has 10 in 48 contests.

"If Hank beats me, and he's got a good start, I wish him a lot of luck. There isn't a nicer guy in the National League. He's hitting the ball hard and that's what counts."

Dallas, Houston Go Further Out Front In Texas Loop Race

By The Associated Press
Al Papp of Houston and Hal Erickson of Dallas jammed their clubs up front in the Texas League Thursday night, becoming the first two hurriers to win 10 games.

Tulsa had its first company in the cellar after winning from San Antonio, 14-10, and Sereporeport's tripping before Fort Worth, 4-2.

Papal put down Oklahoma City, 8-4, on eight hits.

Erickson twirled five-hit ball to stop Beaumont, 1-0, as Dallas nipped Hank Wyse for seven blows.

Wyse and the two 10-game winners were among five hurriers who have collected nine victories. Dave Hoskins of Dallas will start Friday night in trying to catch the leaders while the other moundsman, Joe Landrum of Fort Worth, is due the call in about two days.

HUSKIE MUSKIE LEARNS LESSON

BEMIDJI, MINN.—(AP)—A huge muskellunge that very evidently had had one too many was found, dead recently on the shores of Lake Bemidji.

A beer can was lodged in the muskie's throat. Anglers opined the fish mistook the shiny container for a fisherman's lure. Walt Ellis, who made the find, estimated the muskie weighed better than 70 pounds. It was 65 inches long and had jaws 9 1/2 inches wide.

Philippine Soldiers Attack Huku; 14 Dead

MANILA—(AP)—The Philippines Army Friday said its troops killed 14 rebel Huku and wounded 12 during the last week on Northeastern Luzon Island.

It said one civilian also was killed and four soldiers were wounded. The Army claimed destruction of five Huku camps.

Texans Swap Les Richter For 11 Men

LOS ANGELES—(AP)—

The more flippant ones decided Friday that the Los Angeles Rams traded a football team for one player when they acquired California's all-America linebacker, Les Richter, from the new Dallas Texans in a big deal.

True, the Texans get title to 11 players and the Champion Rams obtain the agile, 230-pound biter from Berkeley in lieu for another National Football League crown.

Actually, of the 11 men, only two, Fullback Dick Hoerner and Defensive Halfback Tom Keane, may be labeled solid bets. Some are doubtful qualities because of their availability.

Here are the players the Rams traded to Dallas:

Hoerner, 229-pounder from Iowa, five years with Los Angeles; Keane, from West Virginia, four years in the league, who can play end on offense as well as defense.

Center Joe Reid, Louisiana State, and Jack Halliday, Southern Methodist tackle, both rookies with the Rams in 1951.

Halfback George Gabby Sims, ex-Baylor star, formerly with the Rams, now in the Army.

Linebacker Aubrey Phillips, Texas Tech, the Rams thirteenth draft choice this year.

Guard Victor Vasilek, Southern California, who played here in 1950 but was inactive in 1951.

Halfback Billy Baggett, Louisiana State, inactive in pro ball since leaving LSU in 1950.

Fullback Dick McKisick, Southern Methodist star, inactive in pro ball since his college days ended in 1950.

End Dick Wilkins, Oregon, inactive since playing with the old Los Angeles Dons under Jimmy Phelan, now the Texans' coach, in 1949.

NCAA Approves Grid TV Program

CHICAGO—(AP)—By a landslide vote of 185 to 15, members of the National Collegiate Athletic Association have stamped their approval on the 1952 NCAA football television program.

The plan, announced June 3, calls for televising one major college game nationally each Saturday from September 20 through November 28.

Stengel Leads Yankees West On Top, Just As He Forecast

By JACK HANB
Associated Press Sports Writer

Casey (The prophet) Stengel led his New York Yankees west Friday in first place—just like he said he would.

Stopping off in Boston on the way home from his first Western swing, Stengel gave out with the following:

"If we can win anywhere, it's at home. We should be able to go up and grab the lead sometime in the next two weeks."

As the Yankees then nestled in fourth place, five games off the pace, it sounded like a bold prophecy.

Stengel was kidding. Once the Yankees got home they proceeded to blast away at a 12-of-15 pace, winning 10 of 11 from the western teams.

Both the Yankees and Red Sox caught Cleveland—and passed them.

The Yankees' first test of their second western swing won't be long delayed. They bump into the Indians Friday night, opening a four game series. Alie Reynolds 7-3, who has turned in 10 straight complete games, faces Mike Garcia 8-3 in the big battle.

Young Tom Morgan came up with a fine three-hit shutout in Thursday's Yankee Stadium finale, 3-0, over last place Detroit.

It was the first complete game of the year for Morgan. His pitching was backed up by Hank Bauer's seventh homer and three straight hits by Rookie Bob Cerv as the Yankees ran their win string to six.

Sid Hudson, acquired from Washington Tuesday, kept the Boston Red Sox in step with the Yankees, only 13 percentage points out of first place. Hudson needed relief help from young Ivan Delock in the ninth to subdue the enraged St. Louis Browns, 7-5.

The seething Browns played the game under protest because player-manager Marty Marion had been suspended indefinitely because of Wednesday's argument with an umpire.

Hoerger, 229-pounder from Iowa, five years with Los Angeles; Keane, from West Virginia, four years in the league, who can play end on offense as well as defense.

Center Joe Reid, Louisiana State, and Jack Halliday, Southern Methodist tackle, both rookies with the Rams in 1951.

JUST A LITTLE DIAMOND DUST by Bob Adams

Earl Bossenberry, the first baseman who joined the Tribe late Thursday, says his legs are in good shape but he needs to get in a few batting licks to sharpen up the old batting eye.

Actually, with O'Keefe batting the way he is, Bossenberry is needed by the Tribe about like they need a left-handed third baseman.

However, with injuries cropping up on the squad in a variety of places, he might be pressed into service sooner than you think. O'Keefe might chase a fly ball into a light post.

Seriously though, these injuries are no joking matter to the Midland club. They are only allowed to place two men on the disabled list, according to league rules.

However, since Midland is hurting so, Hal Sayles, president of the Longhorn League, said White can be placed on the list also, provided the Midland Indian officials get a doctor's statement, certifying that he is hurt and explaining the extent of his injuries.

Strange how a landscape sets the imagination to work. Right now, looking at this scene, I can imagine all sorts of things. Winged steeds riding to heavy music . . . pioneers in the wilderness . . . castles on the cliffs . . . boating at high speeds. Look at the magic that enables the lake to mirror the rocky mountain peak and the heavens! The vastness and stillness of the scene sets my mind to wondering about time and space and things I will never understand. But in standing here and wondering so, I feel like I've been near God. There is a place where I can find Him always—in Church. Will you come with me?

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

NEW SHOW—In conjunction with the American Medical Association Convention in Chicago, a major operation on the stomach of a 60-year-old man identified only as "Mr. T." reached the homes of thousands through the medium of television. Through a network hookup, viewers from coast to coast were able to see and hear as a team of surgeons performed the operation upon the ulcer damaged stomach of the patient at Wesley Memorial Hospital.

Noted Doctor Gives Advice On How To Live More Years

CHICAGO—A key for long life comes from Dr. Morris Fishbein, one of the busiest men in the nation.

"The key is imperturbability, or calmness. Plus five things you should keep low."

Dr. Fishbein is editor, author, lecturer, traveler, advisor, with perhaps a half dozen to a dozen projects going at one time. Friday at the American Medical Association convention he took time out—he always seems to have time—to tell secrets for health and long life.

In London, he began, he was talking with Lord Horder, as famous in British medicine as Fishbein is here. Dr. Fishbein congratulated Lord Horder on looking so well and being so active at 82.

"Lord Horder asked me, 'How old are you?'"

"I'm 62. I said. He leaned over the table and felt my pulse. 'You will live to be 100.'"

"Wonderful," I replied. "Why?"

And Lord Horder said, "Because you have imperturbability."

"I've practiced imperturbability since I was 16. I told him. I think a person can practice it."

How do you become imperturbable?

"Avoid raising your voice. Don't get angry and shout. All you do is raise your own blood pressure, not the other fellow's."

"Don't get crowded. Take things one at a time. Accept disturbances and annoyances as they are. Don't tear yourself apart because you are not succeeding in some given effort."

"Don't avoid trouble—but meet it with equanimity."

"Don't argue with stupidity. Walk away from arguments over futile or trivial matters. But I would hate to see a world where everyone walked away from arguments that produced facts by discussion."

Dr. Fishbein, whose fame rests partly upon his energetic and sometimes stormy years as former editor of the AMA Journal, then recited "the five lows" for health and longer life.

1. Low blood pressure.
2. Low pulse rate.
3. Low basal metabolism, or rate of bodily process.
4. Low diet, low in total calories.
5. Low threshold for humor.

"Be able to laugh easily, and recognize the humorous aspects of what humans take too seriously."

"I don't mean to slow your life to the speed of a turtle. I'm never happier than when I'm extremely active. But you can accomplish far more if you have equanimity and imperturbability."

Murray Lists Four Issues Blocking Steel Settlement

PITTSBURGH—President Philip Murray of the striking CIO United Steelworkers told his policy-making aides Friday that the union shop issues is only one of four obstacles holding up settlement of the 13-day-old steel strike.

Murray, who also heads the union's parent CIO, declared the steel wage-price dispute has become a political football.

The silver-haired labor leader told a joint strategy session of the CIO Executive Board and Wage Policy Committee:

"I do not profess to know how long the struggle strike will last."

In addition to the union shop, Murray listed these other issues as blocking a final settlement:

1. The steel industry's insistence on a management clause in any new contract. Murray said such a clause, defining management's rights, would allow companies to launch speedups.
2. The question of seniority. Murray said U. S. Steel Corporation wanted all seniority questions resolved to its satisfaction.
3. Incentive pay. The labor chief declared U. S. Steel Corporation also insisted on its version of incentive.
4. The union shop. Murray said the industry falsely gave out the impression that the union shop is the only issue. He called that "a plain undexterated lie."

The strike has cut production of steel, badly needed for defense, almost 90 per cent. It has plunged slightly more than 750,000 steelworkers, miners, railroaders and others into idleness.

AMA Charges Bill In Congress Opens Socialism Attempt

CHICAGO—The American Medical Association says the Truman Administration plans to seek congressional approval of a bill which it said would "be an entering wedge toward socialized medicine."

The association, in a resolution adopted Thursday, protested one provision in an amended bill which AMA delegates said is scheduled to come before the House on Monday.

The bill would increase some social security benefits, including higher payments in old age. However, that AMA objection is to a provision calling for payment of benefits to persons who are permanently and totally disabled.

Dr. Louis H. Bauer, AMA president, said the Association's objection is that Oscar Ewing, federal security administrator, would be given power to determine what constitutes disability.

Bauer said that neither he nor the AMA's House of Delegates is opposing other sections of the bill which liberalize benefits. He said Ewing could write all the rules relating to disability and this would "be an entering wedge toward socialized medicine."

Western Big Three Discuss Conditions For German Parley

By John M. Hightower

WASHINGTON—The Western Big Three powers were reported seeking final agreement among themselves Friday on the precise conditions under which they would be willing to discuss German issues with Russia.

State Department officials said after talks between Secretary Acheson and the British and French ambassadors here that there was no basic disagreement on the subject of a Big Four meeting "provided certain conditions are met."

They did not specify the conditions, but declared that none of the three Western powers was willing to agree to a session on Soviet-dictated terms.

Reds Halted In Toughest Hill Fighting

SEOUL, KOREA—(P)—U. S. 45th Division troops smashed back a counter-attacking Chinese Red battalion Friday on a T-shaped bumpy hill mass on the Korean Western Front.

Fighter bombers, tanks and artillery-mortar batteries helped troops of the 180th and 179th Regiments blast the Chinese off the second knob of the commanding hill west of Chorwon—scene of the hottest year action this year.

The doughboys—with the help of planes, tanks and artillery—won the southern knob of Hill T in a bloody, 14-hour dawn-to-dusk fight Thursday.

Chinese Strike Back
The Chinese counterattacked unsuccessfully twice before dawn Friday. Then flares and illuminating shells showed the Reds were massing on a knob near the Allied-held knob.

Allied fighter-bombers and artillery and mortar fire kept the Reds off balance three hours. The Thunderbird Division troops attacked about dawn and withdrew after a heavy close-in fight.

The Thunderbirds attacked again in mid-afternoon and took the knob. Hill T lies northeast of two other important hills Americans won last Saturday. The Reds have been trying to re-take them ever since.

The fighting that flared around Chorwon last Saturday and grew hotter daily during the week is the heaviest since the war dropped to twilight action last November.

McCarthy Asks SEC Okay On New Firm

WASHINGTON—(P)—A 20 million dollar stock issue to finance oil prospecting, developing and operations was proposed Thursday to the Securities and Exchange Commission by Glen McCarthy, Inc.

The firm is headed by the Texas oil man who built the Shamrock Hotel at Houston.

The issuance of 10 million shares of $2 par value common stock would be underwritten by B. V. Christie and Company of Houston. Christie is a director of the corporation.

The SEC is not expected to act for three weeks on the prospectus which indicates the company's intent to handle oil, gas and other mineral properties in the U. S., possibly in China, and in other countries at a future date.

Ralph E. Fair of San Antonio is vice president of the corporation and Robert E. Manning of Houston is secretary-treasurer. Directors besides McCarthy, Fair and Christie, are: W. Howard Lee, Cecil N. Kirk and Joseph F. Meyer, Jr., all of Houston; and Stuyvesant Peabody, Jr., of Chicago.

Mexico Hail Storm Kills 1,500 Cattle

MEXICO CITY—(P)—The mayor of Anahuac township in Nuevo Leon State near the U. S. border reported a hail storm there killed 1,500 cattle June 10.

He told government officials the rain accompanying the storm had filled Don Martin Reservoir and guaranteed irrigation water for most of the area.

Fleet Admiral Raps Slow Arms Deliveries

WASHINGTON—(P)—Adm. Arthur W. Radford, Pacific fleet commander, said Friday deliveries of military aid equipment to the Chinese Nationalists on Formosa have been "disappointingly slow."

He told reporters that is one of the reasons why he is in Washington for a series of conferences with military officials here.

Senator Announces New Drive To Curb Presidential Power

WASHINGTON—(P)—Sen. Hickenlooper (R-Iowa) announced Friday a new drive to ban sending troops to Europe without the consent of Congress.

An East-West tension increased in Germany, Hickenlooper said a strong effort will be made to write such a reservation into Senate approval of peace treaties with West Germany.

The Iowa senator, a member of the Foreign Relations Committee, told a reporter he believed the treaties could be interpreted as giving the President powers to send more troops abroad at his will.

Chairman Connally (D-Tex) of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee said the treaties carry no such provision or implication.

He added the German pact should not be used to revive the troops-for-Europe issue, subject to the three-month "great debate" in the Senate last year.

Sen. Wiley (R-Wis), senior Republican on the committee, agreed with Connally.

Dr. Henry Cohen, 89, Jewish Leader, Dies

HOUSTON—(P)—Dr. Henry Cohen, 89, a little Jewish rabbi whose humanitarian work made him nationally known, died Thursday.

He was one of the greatest crusaders and inspirational and spiritual leaders in Texas history.

Without regard for religion or race, Dr. Cohen worked for prison reform, refugee relief and education.

His quality of leadership best was illustrated by his role in the 1900 storm which devastated Galveston, the island city where he served as rabbi more than 41 years.

Shotgun over his shoulder, he led citizens in keeping order in the storm's aftermath. He helped organize a Central Executive Relief Commission and concentrated his own strength in hospital work and rehabilitation.

Dr. Cohen voluntarily retired Sept. 13, 1949, from his post as rabbi of Temple B'Nai Israel in Galveston.

The temple he served so long will be the site of funeral services at 5 p.m. Friday.

CAMERA CALL!

Mention fish, and you get lots of different reactions. Some folks think of sea-going barracuda or schools of tuna. Others picture up images of flashing salmon in the Northwest. Still others think in terms of scrappy muskies, or trout or bass. Some even get a beautiful glow thinking of cat-fish....

Actually, we aren't selling any fish. But by going, our sleek here shows a SMILING fish, and we think that is really something!

Of course, it's far-fetched, but we maintain that if we can make a fish smile, then we can do almost anything.

It's like the near-miracles we perform every day in the week. Capture our photo finishing, making wonderful pictures for folks like yourself. Sharp, clear pictures that really show what your camera saw....

DRAWBRIDGE PROTECTS UN GUARDS ON KOJE—Borrowing a device from medieval days, UN guards on Kojé Island make use of the centuries-old drawbridge for protection. In inset, relief guard advances and is recognized by guard in tower. Drawbridge is then lowered over barbed-wire entanglements, and guards change place. The bridge is insurance against sneak attack by escaped POWs, or against any charge against the tower in force.

Reds' USO: All Heroes—And No Betty Grable

SEUL, KOREA (NEA)—Do the Chinese Communists ever take a break in Korea to relax and enjoy some entertainment the way the UN forces do?

Most certainly, according to a story in the Communist-controlled Peiping newspaper, "The Kung Pao," a copy of which turned up in Seoul, judging by the description of the "entertainment," however, it's unlikely that the Chinese Reds feel the same way about it as our own GIs feel about USO-Camp Shows.

The idea behind the USO shows, which have been back in operation for more than a year in Korea and other bases throughout the world where Allied troops are stationed, is to try to give our fighting men a reminder of "back home." Singers, dancers and comedians put on the same kind of performances they do on American stages.

But for the Reds, it's strictly prop-

House Considers Two Bills Extending Government Controls
WASHINGTON—The House Friday had two bills to continue expiring wage-price controls, one passed by the Senate and the other approved by the own House Banking Committee.

The government's present authority for all anti-inflation curbs expires at midnight June 30, two weeks from Monday.

The Senate bill, passed 58 to 18 and sent to the House Thursday, would extend the power eight months to next February 28. It also would add a full year—until June 30, 1953—to authority for credit checks and allocation of scarce materials to industry.

The House legislation, a one-year extension to June 30, 1953, was reported favorably by a 15 to 3 banking committee vote. But it would end all curbs an consumer and real estate credit, a point at odds with the one-year extension of credit restrictions voted by the Senate.

Chapman Backtracks On Offshore Leases
WASHINGTON—The government has decided not to lease offshore oil and gas lands under authority of the Surplus Property Act, Secretary of the Interior Oscar Chapman said Thursday.

"The President concurred in a recommendation that I made to the effect that no further consideration be given to the possibility of such a leasing program," he told the Senate Judiciary Committee.

Chapman said presidential approval would have been necessary for him to act under authority of an undated order signed by Jess Larson, General Services administrator. The order never was made effective.

Chapman told the committee that recent public discussion of the situation would affect adversely the government's interest regarding leases. He said this was the reason the President thought the plan should be dropped.

Truce Zone Violation Charge Backfires On Red Delegation

MUNSAN, KOREA—(AP)—The chief Communist negotiator in the stalled Korean truce talks Friday said the United Nations "is in no position to dictate anything either on the battlefield or in this conference."

The blast by North Korean Gen. Nam Il came at a 16-minute no-progress session at Panmunjom, one of the shortest in weeks. Otherwise, Nam used softer words for the second straight day but remained unyielding on the final issue blocking an armistice—prisoner exchange.

MaJ. Gen. William K. Harrison, the chief Allied negotiator, agreed to another session at 11 a.m. Saturday. But he hinted to newsmen afterward that the UN may impose another recess if the Reds continue their propaganda blasts.

A Red charge that three civilians inside the neutral zone were wounded by Allied artillery last week backfired on the Communists at meetings of liaison officers before and after the main truce sessions. Marine Col. James C. Murray told the Reds they had been keeping combat troops within the zone. Another meeting of liaison officers was set on this question, which was not discussed by the senior delegates.

Harrison again reminded Nam "that your side is in no position to dictate anything either on the battlefield or in this conference. I deem that the sooner your side realizes this fact, the sooner there will be an advent of an armistice."

During the junior delegate sessions, Murray warned the Reds: "The conference area was not established to protect your front-line troops."

Methodist Fund Shortage Blamed On Lay Treasurer

FORT WORTH—(AP)—A Methodist lay leader is accused of being short more than $115,000 in a church account for which he was treasurer, the Star-Telegram reported Thursday.

Hal Cherry, Sr., was accused of the shortage in a report by the Rev. F. E. Riley of Fort Worth at the Central Texas Conference of the church at Waco, Rev. Riley is chairman of the conference Minimum Support Commission.

Cherry, a Fort Worth food products manufacturer, told the Star-Telegram he used church funds in connection with his business.

"I can't say exactly how much the shortage is, but if I could think clearly and had a good auditor and all the records, I don't think it would be much more than about half what they claim," said Cherry.

Cherry was treasurer of the commission from its organization in November, 1940, until he resigned last April 7. The commission was set up to create a fund to raise the salary level of pastors to the minimum scale set by the conference.

Cherry said he had been led to believe the conference would permit him to make restitution which he said he hopes to make in full.

A grand jury is considering the matter, said Dist. Atty. Stewart Hellman. Only the shortages over the last four years can be considered, Hellman added.

Greek-Puerto Rican Group Clears Linguistic Hurdle

WITH U. S. THIRD DIVISION, KOREA—(AP)—The United Nations Army in Korea has its language problems.

A section of tanks from the 65th Puerto Rican Regiment recently was ordered to support Greek troops.

None of the Puerto Ricans could speak Greek. None of the Greeks could speak Spanish or English.

Finally, an English-speaking Korean boy was located in the Puerto Rican unit. And a Greek-speaking Korean lad was located in the Greek outfit.

So messages in English and Spanish were given to the 65th Regiment's Korean boy who relayed them to the Korean boy with the Greeks—who translated them to his unit in Greek.

Americans To Eat More Meat In 1952 As Output Climbs

CHICAGO—(AP)—More meat—some 600 million pounds over 1951—will be available for the American consumer this year, says a livestock official.

R. C. Pollock, general manager of the National Livestock and Meat Board, made the forecast in his report to directors at their annual meeting Thursday.

Pollock said meat production this year is expected to total about 22,500,000,000 pounds. That would permit a per capita consumption of 140 pounds, a gain of two pounds over a year ago.

He predicted the work output is expected to be about four per cent less than in 1951, but said there will be available seven per cent more beef, 12 per cent more lamb and six per cent more veal.

More than 350 representatives of the livestock and meat industry from 36 states are attending the group's two-day meeting.

Polio Victim Leaves Midland Hospital

The Robnett children of Stanton, polio victims, were not reunited for long in a Midland hospital.

While William, Jr., three, was admitted Wednesday suffering from bulbar polio; his big sister, Nancy, six, was permitted to go home Thursday. She had been hospitalized since June 2 with the same disease.

Attaches said Friday that William, Jr., had not been placed in an iron lung yet, which indicated he was "doing nicely."

They are children of Mr. and Mrs. William E. Robnett, Sr.

Midland Marines Receive Charter

The official charter has been granted and the Midland chapter of the Marine Corps League is ready to get together for formal organization.

Stevenson Completes Physical Examination

SPRINGFIELD, ILL.—(AP)—Gov. Adlai E. Stevenson, who was given a series of tests in a physical check-up Thursday, was expected to leave Memorial Hospital Friday.

The 52-year-old Illinois governor entered the hospital Wednesday night after returning to Springfield from a speaking tour. His physician said the governor's illness is not serious.

More Water Found In Ellenburger At NE Andrews Test

More salty, sulphur water was found in the Ellenburger at Continental Oil Company No. 1 University, Northeast Andrews County wildcat, 17 miles northeast of the town of Andrews.

This prospector has not found any shows of oil or gas in any zone it has drilled through. It probably will be plugged and abandoned after electric logs are run.

Sabbath Holds Lead In Billiard Contest

Bill Sabath apparently is the man to beat in the billiard tournament now underway at the Midland Recreation Club. His two-week record is 11 wins against two losses as the competition enters its last week.

Here is the won-lost record as it now stands:

Sabath 11-2; Jackson 10-2; Dismey 10-3; Davis 10-3; White 6-5; Hogan 6-5; Oliver 6-5; Poe 7-6; McCarr 4-8; Walker 3-10; McKnight 2-9; Brownlee 2-9 and Jones 2-11.

There will be a playoff in the event of the tie with the leaders chalking their cues for the championship next weekend, tournament officials announced.

H-SU's Bill Guest Wins Calf Roping At Collegiate Rodeo

PORTLAND, ORE.—(AP)—One college cowboy was trampled on lightly by a Brahman bull and others had a rough time with hard-bucking horses, elusive calves and rain-slicked turf in Thursday night's opening of the National Collegiate Rodeo Association competition.

The injured cowboy, Pete Mitchell of Montana State, was thrown in the Brahman bull riding, then his animal stomped on his neck. He was not hurt seriously.

Dick Barrett of Oklahoma, A&M was the night's only double winner. He won the bareback riding and the wild cow milking.

The slick stadium turf brought a lot of slow times, but Art Fulkerston, Washington State College, turned in a creditable 6.5 seconds in bulldogging, and Bill Guest, Hardin-Simmons, 18.4 in calf roping. Roy Lilly, Colorado A&M, won the saddle bronc go-round; Rod Frary, Colorado A&M, bull riding; and Carol Mosher, Montana State, Texas barrel race. Points also were picked up by riders from Sul Ross College, California Poly, University of Idaho, Oregon State College, New Mexico A&M, and Pierce College.

War Criminal Ends Term, Leads Party

TOKYO—(AP)—Japan's wartime foreign minister who signed the surrender on the Missouri nearly seven years ago Friday became president of the new "Kaishinto" progressive party.

Manoru Shigemitsu, the only major Japanese war criminal who has completed his prison term and been cleared for public office, immediately called a welfare state and limited rearmament.

The veteran diplomat, who was Japan's ambassador to London at the time of Pearl Harbor, urged a two-party system in Japan patterned after those of the United States and Great Britain.

Donna Enjoys Last Party; Cancer Due To End Life Soon

CHANCE, MD.—(AP)—The doomed dating of Chance came to its end Friday as she lay in her hospital bed Friday—after the "best birthday party any little girl ever had."

Donna Daff won't be nine years old until next Thursday, but the party was held earlier so she could make the most of it with her rapidly falling senses. She has brain cancer. And doctors say this is "the beginning of the end."

Almost every nine-year-old in the whole town of Chance came to the party—about 50 of them.

Three times during the day she stiffened and clenched her fists to fight off sudden stabs of pain. Once her mother, Mrs. Thomas Daff, took her inside the house and held her for a while.

Christmas the doctors told the Daffs that Donna would live only another six months. According to their original diagnosis, her time would be up in another week or two.

Former Red Envoy To U. S. Gets New Post In Peiping

MOSCOW—(AP)—Russia announced Friday her fourth major diplomatic switch abroad in two weeks. The Soviet Union named Alexander Panyushkin, former ambassador to Washington, as her ambassador to Communist China.

Panyushkin now is on his way home from the United States. In China he will replace Gen. Nikolai Vassilievich Roschin. Newspapers here reported that Roschin is being relieved from his duties, which have kept him in China since 1948, first as an envoy to Chiang Kai-Shek's Nationalist government and later to the victorious Red regime.

The appointment of Panyushkin to Peiping came as a surprise to foreign diplomats in Moscow. They had expected him to get an important job in the foreign office here.

The China post, however, is considered one of the most important in the Soviet diplomatic service—an advancement over the Washington assignment, if anything.
