Midland Wildcat Shows Oil On DST Of Devonian Zone

Union Oil Company of California was coring in the Devonian after finding interesting shows of possible production on a drillstem test in No. 1 Terry Elkins, Central-North Midland County wildcat two and one-half miles east and slightly north of the city of Midland.

The interval tested was from 11,585 to 11,618 feet. Tool was open two hours. There was a strong blow of air throughout the test. Gas surfaced in 40 minutes and blew strongly the remainder of the test.

Recovery was 125 feet of heavily gas-cut mud and 35 feet of heavily oil and gas-cut mud. No water was present.

Devonian top was called at 11,581 feet. No elevation is available.

Location is 1,980 feet from north and west lines of section 33, block 38, T-1-S, T&P survey.

Superior To Run Oil String And Final Scurry Test

The Superior Oil Company was preparing to set casing for completion attempt in a possible Mississippian discovery in Northwest Scurry County.

The prospective producer is the concern's No. 1-616 Eva F. Laws and others. Total depth is 8,240 feet. The seven-inch casing will be cemented at 8,189 feet. Completion try will be from open hole.

Location is 660 feet from north and 1,980 feet from west lines of section 516, block 97, H&TC survey.

Superior was drilling below 8,237 feet in lime and chert at No. 13-578 R. H. Jordan and others, Mississippian failure in Northwest Scurry County. Operator plans to drill to 8,360 feet for tests of the Ellenburger.

If that formation proves non-productive, operator will go back up the hole and test a section in the Pennsylvanian which showed oil when drilled through.

Location is 660 feet from south and west lines of section 578, block 97, H&TC survey.

Phillips Is To Drill San Andres Wildcat In C-N Glasscock

Phillips Petroleum Company is to start drilling at once on its No. 1-C McDowell, which is to be a 2,700-foot wildcat in Central-North Glasscock County.

It is 11 miles north of Garden City and two miles south of the nearest completed oil wells in the shallow Howard-Glasscock field.

To Use Cable Tools

Drillsite is 1,979 feet from north and 1,974 feet from east lines of section 31, block 33, T-3-S, T&P survey. It is to be drilled with cable tools.

The prospector is four miles southwest of Lees. The projected destination of 2,700 feet is calculated to take the venture into the San Andres-Permian lime.

Phillips Releases More Information On Pecos Opener

Additional information has been released on Phillips Petroleum Company No. 1 Glenn, Texas' deepest producer in Southeast Pecos County.

Phillips officials revealed the wildcat had made gas on three sections of the Ellenburger. Production tests indicate the well will make 100,000,000 cubic feet of gas daily.

No. 1 Glenn is located at the approximate center of the 33,000-acre Glenn block of full interest leased owned by Phillips.

A total depth of 14,522 feet, the well had penetrated 917 feet into the Ellenburger dolomite topped at 12,995 feet, with 598 feet of fractured dolomite carrying gas from 13,294 to total depth. In addition a tighter gas zone was encountered between 13,707 and 13,817 feet. It is expected that several hundred feet of this formation should be encountered below the present depth.

After setting casing to 14,485 feet, the bottom 37 feet of open hole had a potential of 9,000,000 cubic feet per day natural and 60,000,000 after acidification.

A test of a 40-foot section through casing perforations at 14,400-14,460 feet, showed a potential of 20 million cubic feet per day natural.

A third test of a perforated section of 195 feet at 14,090-14,285 feet gave a potential of 18 million cubic feet daily natural. Shutin pressures (Continued On Page 12)

City Water Use Again Sets Record

Storage Tank Level Drawn To New Low

Midland's water consumption neared its estimated capacity mark here Monday as residents, sweltering under a 96-degree temperature, used a record-breaking 10,960,000 gallons.

Henry Nunn, city sewer and water engineer, reported Tuesday that the heavy demand left low pressure in scattered sections of the city and drew the water level in one major storage tank down to a season low of 13 feet.

Planes Again Hammer Red Power Plants

SEUL, KOREA—(P)—Air Force and Navy fighter-bombers teamed up again Tuesday to hammer four of the five Communist hydroelectric plants smashed Monday in the biggest air raid of the Korean war.

Almost 200 Navy planes from big fleet carriers off Korea's east coast joined Air Force planes from dozens of Korean bases to hit the shattered generating stations for the second straight day, Navy headquarters announced.

Complete Destruction

None of the planes returned to the smoldering Suho power plant just south of the Yalu River boundary. But the Air Force said F-84 Thunderjets "completed destruction" of two power stations near Changjin Reservoir and two on the Songchon River in Eastern Korea.

The U. S. Eighth Army reported increasing patrol action along the 155-mile battlefield Tuesday. One Allied patrol battled almost two hours with a Red unit west of Chonwon, the scene of bloody fighting during the last two weeks.

As Allied experts studied gun film to evaluate destruction done by Monday's big raid on North Korean power plants, there were strong hints that more Red targets are marked for attack.

Meeting Scheduled On City Clean-Up

Plans for the staging of a city-wide clean-up campaign will be discussed at a joint meeting of Health Department representatives with members of the Health and Sanitation Committee of the Chamber of Commerce at 4 p.m. Thursday in Hotel Schaubauer.

Wilbur C. Mays, city sanitarian, will preside at the session. The clean-up drive will be conducted under the direction of Dr. C. A. Pigford, director of the Midland-Howard-Ector County Health Unit.

Sponsors said representatives of other civic and service organizations are invited to attend the session.

Zweifel Charges Ike Forces Are Real Delegate Rustlers

FORT WORTH—(P)—Henry Zweifel of Fort Worth fired another blast Tuesday in the battle of the charges over the Texas delegation to the Republican National Convention.

Zweifel renewed his charges that Eisenhower backers, led by Jack Porter of Houston and Alvin Lane of Dallas, were the ones who really tried to "steal" in Texas by running Democrats in to take over Republican precinct conventions.

In Houston, Porter answered Zweifel by saying, "The one and only issue remains: Is Senator Taft going to demand stolen delegates to aid in his effort for nomination?" Zweifel said:

"I see by the morning papers that Alvin Lane now says that his advertisements of May 3, were 'simply a statement of the Texas law governing participation in party elections.'"

"Who does he think that he's kidding at this stage of the game? The Supreme Court of Texas has categorically held since at least 1921 that only those holding a present party allegiance and having a bona fide intention to support the party nominee can participate in party action."

Caught Red-Handed

"Yet now that the Porter-Lane group are caught absolutely red-handed with their own written representation of the Texas law, they are trying to pretend they did not make those fraudulent misrepresentations. Now they are trying to make people think that they didn't entice the Democrats in—that they did not advertise all over Texas that Democrats could vote in the Republican convention, then vote in the Democratic primary and go right on being Democrats."

"Now they don't have the courage to admit their own acts. Now that everybody is beginning to realize that the real steal in Texas was by the Porter-Lane gang of rustlers, they are starting to cry that they didn't really mean to do it."

"But they did do it. Let them stand up like real Texas men and take their medicine. For that is what we are going to give them at Chicago when we present our evidence, item by item, document by document, and starting in with their own writings."

LATE NEWS FLASHES

LONDON—(P)—Labor Party leaders protested in the House of Commons Tuesday that the attacks on the Yalu River power plants threaten to extend hostilities in Korea.

DALLAS—(P)—Lie detector tests given here have eliminated a 45-year-old Wichita Falls woman as a suspect in the mysterious murder of Dan Merckson Perry, 44, an oil field worker, Texas Rangers reported Tuesday.

LOS ANGELES—(P)—Superior Judge Mildred Lillie Tuesday ruled against Ingrid Bergman's application to have her 13-year-old daughter, Pia, visit her this summer in Italy, where she lives with her present husband, Roberto Rossellini.

WASHINGTON—(P)—The Senate Foreign Relations Committee Tuesday approved a move to put West Germany into the Western Defense Alliance and at the same time, rejected by an 8-4 vote a provision that would deny the President the right to send troops abroad without the consent of Congress.

WHERE ARMADAS STRUCK—Bomb blasts on the newsmap above spot the areas where 500 Allied warplanes smashed the huge Suho Dam along the Yalu River and four other hydro-electric plants in North Korea. More than 200 planes combed the same areas in a second smash Tuesday.

Meet Called Wednesday On Housing

Home builders and others concerned with the housing industry have been asked to meet at 3 p.m. Wednesday in the council chamber of the City Hall to discuss the Veterans Administration "four-mile" ruling.

Jack Wicker, Chamber of Commerce president, said Tuesday.

The VA ruling says applications for appraisal of homes to be financed through GI loans will be forwarded directly to Washington instead of to regional offices if the proposed building is within four miles of an airport. Almost all of Midland is within four miles of the Airpark and scores of new homes are affected.

To Map Campaign

Wicker and others have been in communication with Washington during the last week, and the Wednesday meeting will serve to concentrate information so gathered as well as to formulate future steps in combating the problem.

The Chamber of Commerce last week drafted a resolution protesting the order and asking that it be rescinded. The order and its attendant confusion has delayed indefinitely much of the building work in Midland.

Rep. Ken Regan and Senators Tom Connally and Lyndon Johnson have promised their cooperation in tackling the problem in Washington, and the VA has agreed to study Midland as an individual unit with a view to "clarifying" the directive as it applies here.

Wicker said all builders, contractors, insurance men and others concerned are invited to the open meeting.

Foes Plan Death Blow To Controls

WASHINGTON—(P)—Foes of price and wage controls were reported Tuesday mapping plans to deal a death blow to the already battered controls extension bill.

The Defense Production Act, which gives the President authority to control wages, prices, rents and production, expires Monday unless Congress extends it.

And strong sentiment for letting the law die was expected to be voiced by Republicans and Southern Democrats, who already have stripped the measure of most of its effective price control powers.

They appear to have the votes to get their way, too, when the bill comes up for action Wednesday.

Representative Spence (D-Ky), chairman of the House Banking Committee, said his Administration forces would make an all-out fight against a probable let-it-die movement.

A decentral amendment by Representative Fails (R-Iowa), overwhelmingly adopted last Friday, would require that price controls be lifted on goods which have sold below ceilings for three months or are in adequate supply—that is, not rationed or allocated. No goods now are rationed.

This was followed by a vote to abolish the present Wage Stabilization Board and replace it with an agency limited to policy matters and without authority to make recommendations in labor disputes.

All House actions so far are only tentative and still subject to final rollcall votes.

11 Believed Dead As Bomber Crashes

MILDENHALL, ENGLAND—(P)—A U. S. Air Force B-50 medium bomber with 11 men aboard crashed and burned Tuesday minutes after taking off from its base near this Suffolk County town. A police spokesman said there were no survivors.

A U. S. Air Force official said the plane was on a training flight.

The plane was one of a number which had come from Walker Air Force Base at Roswell, N. M., for a tour of duty on the big bomber bases in Britain.

Midland National Employs Promoted

Jack Wicker, vice president of The Midland National Bank, Tuesday announced the promotion of four employees to the position of assistant cashiers.

They are Foy Brantley, Leland Foster, Don Maples and A. E. Smith. They have been serving the financial institution as tellers.

Midlanders Say Livestock Price Slumps Not Alarming

Livestock prices have dipped $1 to $4 in Midland, but cattlemen, reported Tuesday that the drop is seasonal and prices will begin to climb again later in the summer.

The Midland slump follows a nationwide trend which last week caused the Clovis (N.M.) Stockyard Association to launch an "investigation." The group decided the slump is seasonal and will reverse itself when cooler weather arrives.

It was the rate of the plunge, with prices in some instances falling almost a dollar a day, that caused most of the concern in New Mexico. And statistics indicated the Texas slump approached something of a record.

Midland cattlemen say trading is light here currently, much of the cattle having been shipped to Oklahoma, Colorado and other grasslands to avoid the drought. The shipments have led to selling on the major markets of Fort Worth, Kansas City and Chicago, thereby throwing the common level of supply and demand temporarily out of kilter.

One dealer, B. A. Harmon, summed it up in simple terms:

"It's getting to be that season of the year when folks prefer to eat fried chicken and potato salad rather than steaks. When the demand for cattle drops, so do the prices. It's a seasonal slump, not serious, and as Fall approaches the demand—and the prices—will rise again just like they always do."

First National Bank Plans Modern Auto Teller Service

Worth and Midland is the architect. The contract calls for completion of the job within 120 working days.

The tunnel, which will be used by employees only in taking cash to and from the teller windows, will extend eastward from the bank under Main Street, under the Eastham property known as the U&C Cafe, across the alley and behind the Eubanks Auto Parts building into the parking lot property now owned by The First Mortgage Company.

The First National Bank, Butler said, will acquire the property by lease from The First Mortgage Company, and will erect two completely modern auto bank teller windows on the east side of the property. The remainder of the property will be used as a customer parking lot.

The tunnel will be of concrete and steel construction and will be approximately 400 feet in length.

"The Auto Teller program is another new and progressive step by The First National Bank in bringing to Midland and the Permian Basin Empire additional modern banking facilities, to relieve downtown parking congestion and at the same time to provide a more efficient and convenient banking service for West Texans," Butler said.

"Two auto teller windows will be located in an attractive building of brick and tile construction. The windows, each nine feet and four inches by eight feet and four inches, will be enclosed with bullet-proof glass and equipped with Mosler steel auto bank teller window installations. They will be heated electrically and cooled by individual mechanical air-conditioning units. Toilet facilities will be provided.

Butler said two automobiles may be accommodated at the same time in the driveway while waiting to be served.

"It is the latest and most convenient thing in banking service, and we are proud to announce this new and modern facility," Butler declared.

Disappearance Of Defendant's Wife Postpones Trial

The disappearance of 28-year-old Ida Abington Boykin forced the postponement Tuesday morning in 70th District Court of the scheduled murder trial of her 48-year-old husband, Robert Marion Boykin.

The trial was postponed until September 22 after attorneys for the former Midland bricklayer told Judge R. W. (Bob) Hamilton all efforts to locate the woman, needed as a principal defense witness, had failed.

The continuance was granted after a special jury venire had been summoned and qualified and District Attorney W. O. Shafer announced the state was ready to proceed with the trial of Boykin on a charge he murdered Lardell Charles (Treetop) Smith last March in a Wall Street restaurant.

Defense Counsel W. G. (Bill) Abbott testified that a subpoena had been issued for Mrs. Boykin on June 16 but officers, unable to locate her, returned it unserved.

Boykin himself took the stand to testify that he had not seen his wife since 18 days ago, when she disappeared with their 14-month-old son.

Now a resident of Odessa, Boykin has his eight-year-old son with him.

In a short hearing Tuesday, he said his wife had gotten in some trouble in Odessa and returned home after he paid her fine and obtained her release from jail.

She stayed at home a few days and then disappeared, he said.

He immediately notified his attorneys, Abbott and Pete Turner, and the subpoena requiring her presence as a witness was issued.

In pointing to the importance of her testimony, attorneys said Boykin had been driven temporarily insane after Mrs. Boykin told her husband of having an affair with Smith.

They indicated Boykin also would plead self defense in the March 9 shooting of Smith in the Steak House Restaurant.

Judge Hamilton also granted a continuance of the scheduled rape trial of Willis S. Stewart, indicted early this month.

The continuance was granted after attorneys Merritt Hines and Fred Hartman, appointed by the court two weeks ago to defend Stewart, explained they had not had sufficient time to prepare the defense.

Acheson, Eden Talk Behind Closed Doors

LONDON—(P)—U. S. Secretary of State Dean Acheson and British Foreign Secretary Anthony Eden discussed their problems in Europe and the Middle East behind closed doors Tuesday.

A spokesman said the Western diplomatic chiefs made a general review of the situation in those two areas in a two-hour morning meeting.

They resumed their talks in the afternoon, when Acheson met the heads of British diplomatic missions in the Middle East who are winding up a separate four-day conference here.

The Acheson-Eden talks are a prelude to a Big Three foreign ministers' meeting Friday, when French Foreign Minister Robert Schuman will join in the discussions.

TAFT APPLAUDS PLANT ATTACKS

HERSHEY, PA.—(P)—Senator Robert A. Taft of Ohio said Tuesday he does not believe the bombing of the hydro-electric plants in Korea will lead to a third world war.

"We should have done it long ago," he added.

Top Stars To Perform In Grand Ole Opry Here

George Morgan and other outstanding stars of the Grand Ole Opry will appear at 8:30 p.m. Monday.

George Morgan day in Midland Memorial Stadium in a two-hour show for the Civitan charity fund.

Morgan wrote and recorded "Candy Kisses," a song hit that sold more than two million copies. Folk music fans know him also for his "Please Don't Let Me Go," "Rainbow In My Heart," "Room Full of Roses," "Cry Baby Heart" and the religious song, "Mansion Over The Hilltop." His latest recordings are "Almost" and "Be Sure You Know."

Jim Willis is chairman of the Midland Civitan Club committee bringing the Grand Ole Opry stars here. He is assisted by Bob Whitehead and Harold Wallace.

Willis said the show also will feature the nation's leading steel guitarist, Jerry Byrd, and Decca vocalist Autry Inman. The Callahan Brothers and their sons will provide comedy entertainment in the night's performance. Morgan's Candy Kids will furnish music for most of the acts.

Dramatic Summer Experiment May Finish Conquest Of Polio

By ALTON L. BLAKESLEE AP Science Reporter

NEW YORK—A way to prevent paralysis from polio is being tested this summer in a great and dramatic human experiment.

Time and 60,000 children will tell whether it works.

Very soon in a few cities hit by polio, children will line up for injections.

Half will get a magical medicine from human blood—gamma globulin or GG. In monkeys, the GG shots prevented polio paralysis.

The other half will get the injections that look the same but lacking the GG.

Late this fall, the answer will be known. Was there less paralysis or even no paralysis among youngsters getting the GG? Did the GG block the polio virus and stop it from hitting human nerves?

If the answer is yes—we have a fairly practical way of taking the dreadful paralytic sting out of polio. But until the human trials are run, America's parents and children and doctors will never know whether GG can do for humans what it does for monkeys that get the polio virus.

The vital experiment is being supported by the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis. It will start any day now.

The success of the trial, say foundation officials, depends greatly upon parents' calm and willing cooperation and their understanding of all the facts.

These are the basic facts as known now from research:

Huge Corpus Christi Refinery Scheduled

NEW YORK—(AP)—Plans for a proposed 15 million dollar oil refinery to be built near Corpus Christi, Texas, were announced here Monday.

The plant, scheduled for completion by late summer of 1953, will be built for Sunlite Refinery Company, newly organized subsidiary of Sunray Oil Corporation.

With a daily capacity of 25,000 barrels daily, it will enable Sunlite to ship products by tankers to the East Coast, by barge into the Mississippi River, and by rail, pipe and tank truck to other inland markets.

Reds Say Screening May Extend Fighting

MUNSAN, KOREA—(AP)—Communist truce negotiators Tuesday warned the United Nations that continued screening of prisoners at Koje Island may "extend the Korean War."

"You are taking dangerous steps which show that you do not hesitate to extend the Korean War," said North Korean Gen. Nam Il. Maj. Gen. William K. Harrison replied, "We cannot and will not barter the right to freedom of any individual. We recognize the individual as possessed of free will, not a slave bound without choice to a lifetime of servitude."

Nam's warning came during another brief no-progress session at hot, dusty Panmunjon.

Harrison suggested another recess, to let the Reds "reconsider and adjust" their position, but Nam insisted on another session at 11 a.m. Wednesday. Harrison agreed.

Seizure Of Steel Industry Under Draft Act Urged

PHOENIX, ARIZ.—(AP)—Sen. Richard Russell (D-Ga.), candidate for the Democratic presidential nomination, Monday night advocated government seizure of the strike-bound steel industry under authority of the 1940 Selective Service Act.

Russell, who arrived here by private plane for a round of political appearances, said seizure would be legal under a provision of the law dealing with industries involved in defense production.

"The American people have got to push this arms program," he asserted. "It's the main issue before the country."

Lions Get Taste Of Open Spaces

LAREDO—(AP)—The angry roars of disgruntled lions were heard Monday night along the Pan American Highway.

The American Automobile Association office here said many delegates to the Lions International Convention in Mexico City failed to make reservations and had to spend the night in the open.

Lee Larkin of the AAA border office said they did not realize the trip from the Rio Grande to Mexico City requires two or three days, including mountain driving.

He said 7,000 persons crossed the border here with 2,000 entering Mexico at El Paso and other gateways.

Mossadegh Cheered On Return To Iran

TEHRAN, IRAN—(AP)—Premier Mohammed Mossadegh returned from The Hague Tuesday to a tumultuous welcome as the "savior" of Iran—and to an uncertain political future in his near-bankrupt nation.

Thousands of Iranians jammed the route from Tehran's Mehrabad Airport to the city to cheer their 72-year-old leader who argued his country's contention that the World Court has no jurisdiction over Iran's oil nationalization dispute with Britain.

The aged premier is expected to submit his resignation in keeping with parliamentary tradition. But he may try for reappointment because of the nation's precarious financial situation.

Scurry Assessments Due For Reduction

SNYDER—(AP)—Property assessments in Scurry County will be 25 per cent lower this year, the commissioners court said Monday.

The court said the tax reduction is the result of a $3,900,000 increase in property valuation.

FBI NABS DELINQUENTS

WASHINGTON—(AP)—The FBI said Tuesday it has located more than 19,000 draft delinquents since the peacetime service law went into effect four years ago.

Cicero Trio Fined As Result Of Riots

CHICAGO—(AP)—The chief of police and two policemen of suburban Cicero were fined a total of $2,500 Monday as the result of riots last July, touched off when a negro family attempted to move into the all-white suburb.

Federal Judge Walter J. Labuy fined Chief Erwin Konovsky $2,000 and Sergeant Roland Brani and Patrolman Frank A. Lange $250 each.

The three were convicted by a federal jury on June 4 of denying the civil rights of Harvey E. Clarke Jr., a negro who attempted to move his family into a Cicero apartment.

The jury also found Konovsky guilty of conspiring to deny the civil rights of Clarke.

Idea To Film Lon Chaney Story Wins Approval Of His Family

By ERSKINE JOHNSON NEA Staff Correspondent

HOLLYWOOD—Behind the Screen: Interest in a movie biography of the late Lon Chaney—the screen's man of 1,000 faces—is beginning to mount on flicker row. One independent producer already has approached Lon's son, who's carried his father's name through 190 films, on the idea.

There will be no family objection to putting the story on the screen, Lon Chaney told me on Warner's "Springfield Rifle" set.

"My mother objected to some articles written about my father after his death," Lon said, "so we've avoided any talk about a movie until now."

Lon on the subject of an actor who could play his father: "Paul Muni in his heyday would have been perfect. I wouldn't insist on playing it myself. I couldn't do it unless they'd let me act like my old man did instead of directing me."

Richard Burton, the sensational British actor who will play the young hero opposite Olivia de Havilland in "My Cousin Rachel," flunked the screen test he made for Fox with a scene from the best-seller. But George Cukor showed Darryl Zanuck a print of a British movie that Burton made, "Woman of Dolwyn," and the actor was signed pronto.

Reports from Europe say that Joan Fontaine's movie, "Decameron Nights," is so torrid in content—it's taken from Boccaccio's spicy tales—that it should be retitled, "The Candid Decameron Nights."

Never Fear
There will be no love scenes between Ethel Merman and Donald O'Connor in the movie version of "Call Me Madam"—just in case you're worrying about how Ethel and Donald would look in a clinch.

The Coconut Grove's 30th anniversary brought back a flood of memories—of Bing Crosby warbling there for $80 a week—when he showed up—and the quick-sketch violin. The manager needed entertainment for the Grove, found some South American musicians and the artist, Xavier Cugat, became an orchestra leader.

Busty, blonde Cleo Moore, due for a Marilyn Monroe buildup by Columbia, will star for Producer Hugo Haas next in "The Guest From Hell." It's a modern version

Wirephoto Assists Beaumont Sailor In Getting Bride

SANTA MONICA, CALIF.—(AP)—A worried sailor from Beaumont, Texas, had help getting married Monday from The Associated Press Wirephoto system.

Electrician Lynn K. Marsden, 22, stationed at the San Diego Naval Air Station, wanted to marry Elaine Patina, 18, of Venice, Calif. He was on a three-day pass.

The marriage license bureau could not issue Marsden a license because he didn't have a birth certificate.

The Santa Monica Evening Outlook and the San Diego Evening Tribune, both AP newspapers, cooperated with Marsden. They arranged to get a statement from Marsden's commanding officer in San Diego certifying his birth date. The Navy record was transmitted by Wirephoto and accepted by County Clerk Harold J. Ostly, who issued the marriage license.

The couple met on a blind date in Venice five months ago.

First Methodist Pastor And Wife Leave For Kansas

The Rev. R. Luther Kirk, pastor of the First Methodist Church, and Mrs. Kirk left Tuesday for Wichita, Kan., to attend the South-Central Jurisdictional Conference of the church.

Mr. Kirk is an official delegate to the Wichita meeting to represent the Northwest Texas Conference. The meeting will start Friday and conclude next Monday.

The eight-state South-Central Jurisdiction is one of six jurisdictions created when Methodism reunited in 1939.

Each jurisdiction has a conference every four years after Methodism's General Conference (which meets every four years) for the purpose of adopting and promoting the work and program of the church on a jurisdictional basis.

Bishops and persons who will represent the various jurisdictions on the church's general boards are elected in jurisdictional conferences.

The conference is composed of an equal number of ministerial and lay delegates who are elected by ballot without nomination in their respective annual conferences.

Mr. and Mrs. Kirk will return to Midland early next week. The pulpit of First Methodist Church will be filled at the Sunday morning services by the Rev. Weldon McCormick, associate pastor.

The Rev. Clarence Collins, pastor of the new Methodist Church being organized in West Midland, will preach at the First Methodist Church Sunday night.

Bad News For Reds

From George Sloan, head of the U. S. Council of the International Chamber of Commerce, we get a refreshingly optimistic report of the economic condition of Western Europe.

Just back from a meeting with foreign businessmen in Paris, Sloan says only Greece and Austria currently are plagued by a critical inflation.

France especially is adjudged to have moved several steps ahead toward a sounder economy. And Sloan found that even Britain was not so bad off as some recent gloomy accounts have suggested.

He found a general mood of confidence, a belief that real progress had been made and more soon would be. He discovered, too, that emphasis had been shifted from production alone to include the whole economic structure.

To what does Sloan ascribe this improvement? Primarily to the cumulative effects of American assistance, which has proved sufficiently steady and ample to convince most Europeans that we intend to see them through to recovery and to assure their real defense against communism.

In this regard, Sloan learned that General Eisenhower had been a great factor for strengthened morale. He breathed optimism and confidence, and it was infectious.

Sloan indicated, too, that we have been applying our policy of aid in Europe with sharper aim in recent months. There has been keener understanding of what needed to be done to produce lasting gains in the European economy.

Naturally the continent has benefited also from new leadership among the recipient countries, most particularly from the program of Premier Pinay in France. There are some who say Pinay has given France its best government since the war ended.

It would be wrong to overlook, however, a negative element that has worked favorably. The defense production goals of major Western nations have been pushed back, as compared with earlier deadlines. This "stretch-out" has served to ease the burdens of the moment.

So what it amounts to is this: Europe is being asked to do less than originally was called for. And it is in much better shape, both production-wise and in morale, to perform the economic and defense tasks newly assigned to it. All this is bad news for the Soviet Union. Free nations moving soundly and confidently toward greater strength are the best assurance we can have that Russia will be deterred from its persistent notions of conquest.

Natural Result Of Mistaking Fairness For Weakness

The Washington Merry-Go-Round

Washington Merry-Go-Round. Copyright, 1952, by The Bell Syndicate, Inc. Drew Pearson says: Arkansas Congressman Harris reverses mail pay vote after Pan-Am entertains; White House passed word to "Stop Kefauver"; Taxpayers profit by defeat of McCarran amendment.

WASHINGTON — Congressman Oren Harris, Arkansas Democrat, tried to laugh off a $200 dinner date with Pan-American Airways' vice president, J. Carroll Cone, as reported in this column.

In 1950, Harris voted against Pan-Am on the question of separating mail pay from government subsidies. But this year, Pan-Am's representatives paid the check for Harris and his wife at the $100-a-plate Jefferson-Jackson Day dinner. After that dinner, Harris reversed his vote on the mail pay question, and even took the initiative in the secrecy of the committee, of introducing the Pan-Am substitute.

After these facts were brought to light by this column, Harris was kidded about it at a closed-door meeting of the House Interstate and Foreign Commerce Committee.

"At least the Democratic Party got the money," was Harris's flippant reply. While it is true that the Democrats got the $200 and the congressman got a free dinner—Pan-American Airways stands to get $17,000,000 at the taxpayers' expense.

Stop Kefauver. Inside facts about the Harriman-Kefauver race in the District of Columbia was that President Truman had passed out word that he wanted to use this to stop Kefauver at any cost. Mr. T. egged on by those around him, still is smarting over the way the rank Tennesseean trounced him in the New Hampshire primary.

And, to get even, the President passed word down to the local Democratic machine, also delivering a ringing civil rights speech at Washington's leading negro college, Howard University, at the height of the Kefauver-Harriman campaign. There were two results: 1. Immediate result was to put

Holding the West cards, Mr. Sanders opened the king of spades and continued the suit until South won the third round. South then led the queen of clubs. Mr. Sanders had to take this trick with his ace since South's opening bid of one no-trump made it perfectly clear that declarer had all of the missing high cards.

PETER EDSON'S Washington News Notebook

Europeans, In Opinion Poll, Call USSR Most 'Warlike And Aggressive'

WASHINGTON—(NEA)—Not all of the polls being taken this year have to do with "who's going to be the next U. S. President. International public opinion samplers have been beating the bushes overseas to find out what Europeans really think of America, American foreign policy, themselves and of Russia.

United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization—UNESCO—ran something called an International Tensions Project. It showed a list of 12 adjectives to represent people in nine foreign countries and asked them to pick out the words that best characterized other nations, and themselves.

The European majorities regarded themselves as "Brave, Intelligent, Peace-loving." The Americans were characterized primarily as "Practical, Progressive and Generous," but also as "Materialistic, Self-centered, Nervous." Russia was characterized as the most "Warlike" and "Aggressive" except by Communist sympathizers, who put Russia first as "Peace-loving."

International Public Opinion Research, Inc., ran a more detailed and specific poll on European attitudes towards U. S. foreign policy objectives.

It showed West Europeans did not regard American policies with complete trust. British, West German and Swedish people were found to be much more pro-U. S. in their views than Frenchmen and Italians. Fewer than 10 per cent of the people interviewed in all these countries said they "mistrusted" the U. S., however.

Seventy-four per cent of the British and West Germans, 68 per cent

What's RIGHT?

A friend starts to tell you a long involved story that she has told you before.

WRONG: Feel you must pretend that you are hearing it for the first time.

RIGHT: Say: "Oh, yes, you told me about that." The one time when it is really necessary to listen to the same person tell the same story to you is when the person is old and forgetful. Then you would embarrass him by saying that he had told you the story before.

Death in the Sierras

By Doris Hudson Moss. With thick, curly Auburn red hair and Irish eyes.

WHEN we came within sight of the lodge, Professor Ordell and Miss Hansen rode ahead to prepare Mrs. James for the shock. The sheriff, Bob, Dick, Edmund and the officers were waiting, as well as the Alberts family, Pete Dupres, and old Jed Downey from the gate house.

Mrs. James was pale but had herself under control. Bob seemed the most hurt. Dr. David Roberts patted her shoulder comfortingly. Within an hour Duncan came clattering up to the lodge on horseback. "Found your car, Miss Curtis," he said. "Figured that whoever shot at you at Horseshoe Springs probably wanted to get that bullet out of your car. He was the same person, maybe, who is responsible for the other dirt around here."

"Where'd you find it?" I asked. "Down on the rocks below the cliff. It's a mess, and the bullet's gone." He hesitated a moment and added, "I guess you know Elsie Martinson drove a car like yours." After the sergeant left, I thought of Mrs. Ordell, still imprisoned in the cave, of her husband, still grief-stricken over the belief that she was dead. Perhaps David had gone to Mrs. Ordell now.

I looked at the Professor who stood by the window, stooped, tired, his pale face set in sad lines as he watched party white clouds gathering over Old Baldy. My sympathy and natural liking for him overcame my memory of Mrs. Ordell's request for me to tell Bob of her imprisonment in the cave and not to tell the Professor. On impulse, I decided that I would be the one to tell him the glad news.

I opened my lips to speak when a commotion and voices on the lodge porch stopped me. Sergeant Duncan entered escorting a woman by the arm. She was a large, rather coarse looking woman, pretty after a fashion, of business?" Economy Bloc On Spot. Air Force Association, the most active civilian organization of fifty boys and aviation industry representatives, is pressuring the Senate to increase Air Force appropriations from $20,000,000,000 to $25,000,000,000 for next fiscal year.

The House-passed Air Force appropriation bill now before the Senate cuts Air Force funds from the requested $20,000,000,000 to $19,000,000,000. Senator Lyndon Johnson's latest preparedness subcommittee report, emphasizing inadequacy of U. S. Air Force and its inferiority to Russian airpower, comes just at the time to support the drive for more plane money.

Senator Robert A. Taft's political campaigning for a bigger Air Force also puts the economy bloc in Congress on the spot to appropriate more money or else keep still about American air weakness. Air Force Secretary Thomas K. Flaitter has testified U. S. Air Force could be built up to the desired 143 wings by 1954 for an additional $3,500,000,000. Air Force Association raises this figure to $5,000,000,000.

Harold Stuart, president of the Air Force Association, quotes Air Force chief of staff Gen. Nathan Twining, as authority for the statement that the U. S. now has only 25 modern combat wings, equipped with jet fighters. The original goal for 1952 was 80 combat wings with modern fighters.

No GI's In Indo-China. No United States troops are being requested by France for service in Indo-China, according to Minister of State Jean Letourneau, who has been in Washington negotiating on future U. S. aid for Vietnam, Laos and Cambodia.

The French fear that if U. S. troops appeared in Indo-China, it would be an invitation for Chinese Communist "volunteers" to join the Viet Minh revolutionists under Ho Chi Minh.

The U. S. has agreed, however, to step up its aid to Indo-China. The purpose is to permit France to devote more of its resources to European defense. Of this year's $4,000,000,000 French military budget, more than $1,000,000,000 goes to Indo-China.

The three Indo-Chinese states now have four divisions of native troops under arms. The plan is to build up this force to eight divisions, of 200,000 men, by 1954. France will supply light equipment. U. S. will be asked to supply heavy equipment.

U. S. economic aid to Indo-China is $24,000,000 this year. It was budgeted for next year at $30,000,000 economic aid plus $25,000,000 military support, before congressional cuts.

This is the time of year to study fancy travel folders before deciding to spend your vacation pointing the house.

the rocky wall, all but indiscernible in the dim light. He stepped forward to greet us. He was wearing a pair of faded overalls and a blue work shirt, which though unironed, were clean. His hair was slicked down in a rather neatly as a school boy's. He was clean shaven and one could see that he had dressed very carefully.

He came quietly to meet us. I remembered my abject terror the first time I saw the cave. Yet this man who stood before us was not at all frightening. Just a rather small, stocky countryman with one of the saddest faces imaginable.

David spoke quickly as he heard the group coming through the passageway to the cave. "Miss Curtis, this is Sam Burdick. Mr. Burdick saved Mrs. Ordell's life and deserves a great deal of credit."

Again confusion confounded me. Here before me stood the man I had reason to believe might be Mrs. Ordell's assailant. This man whom I had believed to be nothing less than a monster extended his hand and so strong is the urge of convention, I shook his hand.

Then the Professor saw Mrs. Ordell. "SILENTLY he stared at her for a long unbelieving second. Then with a low sob he ran to her and threw himself upon his knees beside the bunk, catching her gently, but oh so protectively, in his arms.

"Mamie," he wept. "Oh, Mamie, you are safe. Oh, thank God. Why did you not send word to me that you were here? Has this man hurt you? Who hurt you, my darling? Oh, my dear, how can I ever make up to you for such neglect?"

His words tumbled from his lips as his voice shook with tenderness and emotion. Mrs. Ordell gently smoothed the hair on his head as tears slowly ran down her pale cheeks. Dr. Roberts interrupted this pathetic scene. "Now, Professor, will you and the others seat yourselves and we will get through this as quickly as possible. We all have some explaining to do."

Aircraft Accidents Delay Mesquite Brush Spraying

A temporary delay in a program of aerial spraying to control mesquite brush in Midland County has been caused by a series of freak mishaps to planes being used, County Agent Charles Green said Tuesday.

The control work was to have started last Tuesday on the Tom Elrod Ranch, located 25 miles southwest of Midland.

PATIENT ENDS FLAGPOLE SIT

LIMA, OHIO—(AP)—Hungry, tired and sun-baked, a 23-year-old mental patient climbed down from a 100-foot water tower Monday night after threatening for 10 hours to jump to his death.

Gayle Bender, 23, of Cleveland, threatened suicide because "I'm afraid of those treatments." He had been undergoing shock treatments at the Lima State Hospital. Bender refused to budge even after officials promised to stop the treatments. He sobbed when his parents arrived from Cleveland. They finally persuaded him to descend.

J. K. Jamison, employed by the Tex-Harvey Gasoline Plant, suffered a severe sprained left ankle when he fell off a ladder on a cooling tower Monday. He was treated at Western Clinic Hospital.

Stops Laxatives regains youthful regularity

"For thirty years, I took so many kinds of pills and laxatives to relieve constipation. Since I started eating ALL-BRAN every day, those troubles are over," says busy Bethany, 50, woman. If you, too, suffer from irregularity due to lack of dietary bulk, try toasty ALL-BRAN. It's helped thousands to regain youthful regularity. Rich in iron, high in cereal protein, provides essential B and D vitamins. Not habit-forming. It's the only type ready-to-eat cereal that supplies all the bulk you may need. Millionaire Tells Of Bedroom Hideout By French Divorcee

CARSON CITY, NEV.—(AP)—Millionaire La Vere Redfield says the French divorcee he befriended must have cased his bedroom for a $1,500,000 burglary while she was hiding there.

Petite Jeanne d'Arc Michaud, 36, freely has told the FBI and reporters she planned the bold February 29 burglary of Redfield's Reno home for revenge. She is on trial in Federal court on a charge of transporting $147,634.50 of the loot across state lines.

The 54-year-old millionaire, wearing his customary blue jeans and an open-collared cowboy shirt, testified Monday. He had been arrested in Northern California and put under $50,000 bond to appear after the prosecution charged he tried to evade a subpoena.

Redfield testified Mrs. Michaud presumably discovered his safe one day last January when she hid in his bedroom to evade unexpected visitors. Mrs. Redfield was in Canada.

Mrs. Michaud, who has ambitions as a fiction and song writer, had come to his mansion to request a loan, the millionaire told the jury.

After the bedroom hideout, Redfield said, he accused Mrs. Michaud of snooping through his other trousseaus—"My dress jeans, that is."

"Then I told her, 'You'd better not see me again as I don't like snooks.'"

That was the last he saw of her, he said, until he encountered her in downtown Reno just before the burglary.

'I Struck Out,' Moans Gal Banned From Pro Baseball

HARRISBURG, PA.—(AP)—Carol Channing can sing all she wants about diamonds being a girl's best friend but she could never convince Eleanor Egan of it—not baseball diamonds anyhow.

Disappointed Eleanor was back pounding a typewriter in the state capital Tuesday—her dreams of playing in organized baseball blasted by an official edict.

The curvaceous Eleanor lost her chance to play professional baseball when Minor League Coach George M. Trautman issued a firm "no."

"Trautman threw me a curve and I struck out," moaned the pretty brunette stenographer. "What's he mean I'm a 'travesy'?"

Trautman, in a ruling Monday agreed to by Baseball Commissioner Ford Frick, said "such travesies" as the signing of women players will not be tolerated, and that the clubs signing, or attempting to sign, women players will be subject to severe penalties.

Dallas Insurance Executive To Talk At Midland Event

Charles Gaines of Dallas, vice president of the Great National Insurance Company and professor of marketing at Southern Methodist University, will be principal speaker for the installation banquet of the Permian Basin Underwriters' Association at 7:30 p.m. Friday, July 11, at the Ranchland Hill Country Club.

Jim F. Littlejohn will be installed as new president of the association, which includes Midland and Big Spring life underwriters. George Vannaman is retiring president.

All life underwriters of the Midland area are invited to attend, regardless of whether they are association members or not.

Delroit Man Heads Kiwanis Of World

Officers of the Kiwanis Club of Midland have been informed that Walter J. L. Ray, president of the Standard Federal Savings and Loan Association of Detroit, Mich., has been elected president of Kiwanis International.

Ray was named to the office at a meeting of delegates to the 37th annual convention of Kiwanis International at Seattle, Wash. A Kiwanian 24 years, the new president will assume office August 1.

Midland delegates to the convention included Joe Kogler and Father Ed Murray.

Expansion Okayed For Gas Company

WASHINGTON—(AP)—An expansion program costing $108,580,164 was authorized Monday by the Power Commission for the El Paso Natural Gas Company, in El Paso, Texas.

Under the proposed expansion, the company would supply additional natural gas to customers in New Mexico, Arizona and California, and serve a new wholesale customer in Nevada.

Committee Okays Rio Grande Fund

WASHINGTON—(AP)—The Senate Appropriations Committee Monday approved $150,000 for the Interior Department's use in the Rio Grande region of Texas and New Mexico.

The amount was included in a total of $560,582,364 approved for the year starting July 1.

Charges Are Filed In Highway Deaths

SANTON—(AP)—Charges of negligent homicide were filed here Monday after an auto struck and killed four pedestrians.

Pedro Martinez Roldan, 19, of Sandia, was accused after a car failed to make a curve in Mathis Sunday.

Mrs. Flavia Gomez, 40, and Mrs. Maria Refugio Garza, 49, were killed when struck by the careening car. Mrs. Gomez' children, Evangelina, eight, and Oracelina, six, died early Monday in a Mathis hospital.

Air Force Deserter Still In Jail Here

Pending arrival of Air Forces authorities, an Air Force deserter—25-year-old James Zorens—still was being held in the Midland County Jail Tuesday.

Zorens, who had been working in the oil fields here the last three months, was arrested in downtown Midland Saturday afternoon. He deserted the Air Force at Sheppard Field June 11, 1951, immediately after taking basic training.

Atomic Plant Due For Ohio Valley

WASHINGTON—(AP)—The atomic Energy Commission plans to build a new atomic plant, probably somewhere in the Ohio Valley, at an estimated cost of $1,197,350,000.

It also proposes to spend another $1,500,000 to expand two existing atomic plants and two others now under construction.

The proposals are part of the development contemplated when President Truman asked Congress recently for $3,191,000,000 for a stepped-up atomic weapons program. They were disclosed Tuesday in publication of testimony before a House appropriations subcommittee on a supplemental appropriations bill.

Big D Makes Like Circus, Carnival As JayCeers Swarm

DALLAS—(AP)—The JayCeers reported to be 12,000 silver dollars. They intended to sprinkle part of the coin among lookers at a parade Tuesday. "Lucky" persons who stop one of the silver dollars will have to furnish their own doctors.

What's left of the money when the Nevada JayCeers leave Dallas will be used for scholarships. It was raised, a spokesman for the colorful Nevadans said, by benefits and projects like car raffles.

The area around the principal hotels looked and sounded like one big carnival and circus combined. But the JayCeers said the high-jinks barely had started.

It was the annual convention of the National Junior Chamber of Commerce. About 6,000 delegates are expected to attend before the week is over.

Some Dallas residents Monday night decided all of them were already in the Baker-Adolphus Hotel area. An automobile was being auctioned off in front of one of the hotels. A character in what passes for cowboy clothes was haranguing passers-by to "buy this slick convertible for a dollar."

Indians Put Double Whammy On Dusters; Hit Road

Nicolls And Israel Braves Beat Ten Add Notches To Tribe Streak

Sporting a five-game win streak, the Midland Indians departed Monday for the land of the heavy hitting Artesia Drillers, where they open a six-game road trip by playing three games.

The Indians extended their win margin to five Monday night by taking both ends of a twin bill from the last-place Vernon Dusters for a sweep of the series.

Indian strike-out Ace Keith Nicolls notched his twelfth win of the season against only five batters in the opener by fashioning a neat, two-hit, 3 to 0 win.

In the nightcap, Israel Ten, working with only two days' rest, was hard hit but managed to beat down in the rough spots to pick up his eighth win of the season against five losses.

Face 21 Men
Stel-nerved Nicolls, who hardly ever gets ruffled in a game, gave up a single to H. C. Sargent in the third and a one-batter to John Reimold in the fifth frame, but otherwise coasted to the win, facing only 21 men in the seven-inning stint.

Vernon's Al Richardson held the Tribe scoreless for the first five innings, allowing only five safeties but in the sixth frame the Indians launched a five-hit attack which included Earl Rosenberry's single, Bill Brown's double, Pat O'Keefe's single, Julio de la Torre's sacrifice and singles by Gahlan Dinkel and Floyd Martin for the three runs.

Duster Manager Pat McLaughlin shuffled his line-up for the second game in the hopes of finding a winning combination.

And the shuffling appeared as though it would pay dividends when the first four men up walked, singled, doubled, and doubled in that order to plate three runs for the visitors.

Ten Rests Side
However, Ten, undaunted, struck back and forged the ball in, forcing the next three batters to line out meekly to the infield to retire the side.

The Dusters picked up two runs in the third and a single tally in the seventh but they never could get a big rally going off the little Furto Rican.

In the nightcap, the Tribe scored two runs in the first frame, five in the second, two in the third and one in the fourth to run up a sizeable margin before Relief Ruler Audie Malone came on to hold them scoreless the last two frames.

The Indians' leading hitter, Pat O'Keefe, continued to slug the ball at a torrid pace, collecting five hits in seven trips, including four for four in the second contest.

Included in O'Keefe's safeties were a home run over the right field wall in the first with one aboard and a triple in the fourth inning.

Dallas Texans Add Finnell, Humble
DALLAS—(P)—Weldon Humble, veteran guard of the Cleveland Browns and two other National League Football League players were traded Tuesday to the Dallas Texans. Coach Jimmy Phelan announced.

In return, the Texans gave the Browns Sherman Howard, an experienced fullback.

Coming to Dallas with Humble will be Bob Finnell, 185-pound Xavier University halfback, who was the Browns' ninth draft choice last winter, and the best tackle to guard the Browns released this fall when they cut their squad to the legal-size of 33 players.

Westerners Suffer First Shutout At Newcomer's Hands
In the first shutout of the season in the American Legion League, Darrell Koenig Monday afternoon hurled the Eagles to victory over previously undefeated Westerners, 2-0.

The Westerners still remain in first place in league standings, but had their lead narrowed by being defeated by the cellar Eagles.

Koenig, who recently moved to Midland from Colorado, was pitching his first game for the Eagles and turned in a superb performance in striking out 18 batters.

Don Smith was on the mound for the Westerners, striking out 14. A couple of overthrow errors by the Westerners spelled the difference in the score.

Pete English of the Eagles led the scoring in getting two for three. Next game in the league will be Wednesday between the Westerners and Hornets.

Jack Schaff, rookie center for the Washington Redskins in the NFL, is a park policeman in Gary, Ind., during the off-season.

Braves Beat Colts Twice

SWEETWATER—(P)—Sweetwater swept a double-header from San Angelo here Monday night blasting out 17 hits to win the opener, 16-3, and uncorking a 10-hit attack to cop the nightcap, 8-6.

Rocky Carlini slammed his thirteenth home run of the season with two men on base to put the Braves into a 3-0 lead in the first inning of the first game.

The Braves batted around during the first three innings as three San Angelo pitchers failed to stymie the big bats. Manager Mark Christian held the Braves to one run during the final three innings.

Charlie Tuttle hit his fifteenth homer in the third with one on. Tuttle topped his sixteenth homer in the second game with one mate aboard as Gil Grajeda relieved John Miller in the fifth inning with the bases loaded and killed the Colts scoring threat.

New Artesia Hurler Trips Oilers, 7-3
ARTESIA—(P)—Scoring all their runs in two big innings, the Artesia Drillers completed a sweep of their three-game series with the Odessa Oilers, nipping the league leaders, 7-3, here Monday behind the three-hit hurling of newcomer Irvin Armin.

Armin, a left-hander newly acquired by the Drillers from Clovis, gave up only three scattered singles to Odessa, but three errors by his teammates ruined his bid for a shutout.

BIG SPRING—(P)—Reggie Corrales won his seventh straight pitching victory Monday night as the Big Spring Broncos defeated Roswell, 8-1, in a Longhorn League game.

Pat Stacey whammed a triple in the third to score three runs and put the Broncos ahead to stay. The Big Spring manager added two doubles to his night's work.

The Rockets collected 10 hits off Corrales but were unable to score more than the one run in the sixth inning.

Abilene, Pampa, Albuquerque Win
Clovis' leading pitchers weren't able to defend their long-margin hold over the West Texas-New Mexico loop Monday night because dust and high winds cancelled their game with Borger, but Clovis picked up half a game anyway.

Lubbock, in second place, was victimized by Abilene, 14-2, and fell off the pace by seven games. In the other games, Pampa outlasted Lamesa, 18-17, in a 46-hit scramble and Albuquerque stopped Amarillo, 10-9, in 10 innings.

Legion And Humble Win Softball Tilts
The American Legion softballers steamrollered the Independents, 24 to 4, in a City League tilt played Monday night at Wadley Park and Humble downed Shell, 11-3.

Williams homered in the second inning for the Legion crew. Howard got credit for the win and Collins was the loser.

O'Donohue was credited with the Humble win and Rogers was the loser.

Freshmen Have Field Day In Rain-Restricted Major Loops

By JOE REICHLER
Associated Press Sports Writer
Rookie Sammy White, 23-year-old Boston catcher, banged out three hits and drew a walk in four times at bat to lead the Red Sox to a 12-6 victory over the Detroit Tigers Monday. Sammy struck his fifth homer of the season in the third inning followed by a pair of singles in a big 11-run fourth to drive in four runs.

Eddie Mathews, the fun-faced third baseman of the Boston Braves, rapped his twelfth homer of the year in the sixth to put his team on even terms with Pittsburgh and scored again as the Braves rallied with five runs in the eighth to down the Pirates, 9-3. The 20-year-old slugger ranks fourth in the National League in home runs.

Bob Nieman batted in three runs on three hits for the Browns but could not stave off a 17-hit spree by the Yankees that gave New York a 14-10 win over St. Louis. In the day's only other action, Washington whipped the Chicago White Sox, 6-4.

Yankee Book Shines
Another freshman, Jimmy Brideweser, starting his first game for the Yankees, slapped three singles and drove in a pair of runs to play a prominent role in the victory. Brideweser played second only because Billy Martin had a pulled tendon in his right leg.

Ivan DeLoach, the young right-hander from Scranton, coasted to his fourth victory once the Red Sox broke through for their 11-run outburst against Ted Gray, Billy Hoelt and Hal White. Eight singles, a double, three walks and two Tiger errors produced the second biggest inning of the American League season. The league record is 14 for a single inning by one club. The victory moved the Red Sox into second place, two and one-half games behind the pace-setting Yankees.

Nine pitchers went to the well as the Yankees and Browns pounded out 33 hits and drew 10 bases on balls in the three-hour and 22-minute game under the St. Louis lights. Joe Collins, who almost was traded away before the June 15 deadline, continued his bombardment with a pair of home runs and a double to drive in four Yankee runs. Phil Rizzuto also batted in four with a double and two singles.

The Senators stopped the White Sox rush as Frank Shea pitched and batted them to their 6-4 win. The veteran right-hander singled in what proved to be the two winning runs and gained his fifth victory although he needed help from Joe Haynes in the seventh.

Rain washed out other scheduled games.

DENTON—(P)—A 10-game 1952 football schedule for North Texas State College was completed here Tuesday, with the signing of a home-and-home contract with Hardin-Simmons College.

Maybe it shouldn't happen to a dog but when Fort Worth goes to Dallas in the Texas League, the Cats are the leader's best friends. Fort Worth Monday night, playing at the Eagles' field, found it the same old song, sixth verse. Dallas won 3-2 to run its unbeaten home string of victories against the Cats to six straight.

Houston kept alive its hopes of catching Dallas as the second-place Buffaloes stopped Beaumont, 4-2, while in the other games Tulsa tipped Oklahoma City, 7-2, and Shreveport blasted 15 hits in beating San Antonio, 11-7.

Indians Sign New Hurler; Release Dempsey Albritton

Horace Busby, business manager of the Midland Indians, Inc., announced Monday the acquisition of a new pitcher and the outright release of a veteran ball player.

The new hurler is a left-hander by the name of Pat Waters. He has been playing with a Paris, Ill., club.

A personal friend of Indian player Pat O'Keefe, Waters was issued a uniform before the club left for Artesia Monday night.

He is 30 years old and is a limited service player. Released was Second Baseman Dempsey Albritton, who has not seen action since receiving an ankle injury in the Big Spring game approximately two weeks ago.

Although he was hitting better than .300 at the time of his release, Albritton was dropped to bring the squad down to playing strength allowed by Longhorn rules.

The Indians already are carrying six veterans, the league limit. Included among the veteran players on the squad are hurlers Keith Nicolls, Eddie Jacome and Israel Ten; infielders Julio de la Torre and Scooter Hughes and Outfielder Pat O'Keefe.

Virtual Unknowns Tangle In PGA Semi-Final Matches

LOUISVILLE—(P)—You can tab a big cigar-chewing fellow named Bob Hamilton and a wiry little guy named Ted Kroil as two of the coolest customers on the 180-acre steam bath known as the Big Spring Golf Club.

Neither expected to reach the semi-finals of the 34th PGA Championship.

Tuesday Kroil clashed with swarthy little Jimmy Turnesa in one of the 36-hole semi-final matches. Hamilton, winner of the title in 1944, encountered Chick Harbert in the match.

Turnesa knocked out his sharp-shooting Westchester County, N. Y., neighbor, Clarence Dozer, 2 and 1. Harbert rallied to beat Lanky Fred Hays by the same margin and then Hamilton, who plays little tournament golf nowadays, outlasted Frank Champ, the Houston driving range operator for another 3 and 1 victory.

Bathing Revue To Mark New Swim Pool Opening

Two bevy of bathing beauties will parade before the judges Saturday afternoon when the Ranchland Hill Country Club holds ceremonies formally opening its new swimming pool.

The first batch of beauties will be of the abbreviated type—the top age limit is six. "Little Miss West Texas" will receive her crown at the climax of the contest.

The second parade of pulchritude will be the accepted adult type—but instead of the more striking Bikini model swimming garment the curvaceous entries will appear in Gay Nineties beach apparel.

Club President John Mills said the program will get underway at 1:45 p.m. with a water show, swimming and diving exhibition. Mayor Perry Pickett will speak the words which formally open the events, and Delbert Downing, Chamber of Commerce manager, will act as master of ceremonies.

After the beauty contests the club members will be served a barbecue dinner, and a 9 p.m. dance is scheduled with the Lee Powers orchestra on the bandstand. Jim Bob Pool is chairman of the entertainment events.

The new swimming pool is constructed along modern lines. It has underwater lighting, high and low diving boards and a wading pool for children. Depth is graduated to an 11-foot maximum, and outer dimensions are 95 by 35 feet. Two experienced lifeguards will be on duty, and water in the pool is changed constantly through four filter plants.

The club recently completed construction of a new paved parking area for members, and a playground for children is underway. Other improvements are planned in the near future, Mills said.

The 18-hole golf course will be open throughout the day on Saturday prior to the ceremony opening the new pool. Dressing and locker rooms used in conjunction with the golf course will serve for swimmers, Mills said, but those facilities will be expanded as the need arises.

Two Dead, 35 Hurt As Truck Carrying Workers Overturns

DALLAS—(AP)—Two persons died when a truck crammed with 37 cotton choppers careened off a road south of Dallas Monday night and rolled down a 100-foot embankment. Louis Rodriguez, 48, Dallas, was killed almost instantly. Damian Miranda, 14, Dallas, died early Tuesday from injuries.

The others were injured, and five of them were in critical condition. Joe Castillo, 37, the driver, said a sudden shift in the weight of his passengers caused him to lose control.

After Day's Work
He said he was bringing the passengers to their homes in the Dallas-Fort Worth area after they had finished their day's work on a farm near Midlothian, south of Dallas.

Passengers, including many women, teen-agers and one eight-year-old boy, were scattered over a wide area. A passerby who discovered the wreckage, Billy Boshier, 27, of Dallas, summoned aid. "It was awful," said Boshier. "I could hear the kids squalling and screaming and a lot of the women were praying."

Compromise in Korean Political Feud Shapes

PUSAN, KOREA—(AP)—A compromise solution to South Korea's bitter political feud appeared to be shaping up Tuesday. Prime Minister Chang Paik Sang was reported to have won support for a compromise plan from middle-of-the-road assemblymen and opponents of President Syngman Rhee. Details were not divulged.

Eisenhower Labels Taft Air Force View Strictly Isolationist

DENVER—(AP)—Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower said Tuesday "I fervently hope" that a foreign policy plank can be written into the Republican platform which would be acceptable both to him and to Senator Robert A. Taft of Ohio.

The general told an early morning news conference: "I don't want to see a bitter convention fight over this point."

This statement came after Eisenhower had pitched his campaign on a peace or war issue with Taft. He had grouped Taft among the nation's isolationists in a major foreign policy speech Monday night. A reporter asked if he was "trying to put Taft on the defensive" in the final stages of the campaign for the Republican presidential nomination. Eisenhower replied, "No, no. I just believe that someone must preach the truth about these things."

In reply to another question he made it clear he believes that Taft is among those who would "sit at home with Air Force to be done."

This program, however, contains only a small percentage of the work needed to control flies and other insects. Since it is on a wholesale participation."

Midland Prepares Strong Defenses To Meet Polio Creeping Over State

Polio, creeping across the state with a record list of victims, will find Midland prepared to meet it with a strong defense.

City employees are at work every day with spray units, attacking insects which might be polio carriers. An appeal has been issued for all residents of the city and county to take up their weapons and join the battle before polio can gain a foothold here.

Dr. C. A. Figford, director of the Midland-Ector - Howard County Health Unit, outlined Tuesday the defensive strategy:

"The city's fly control program which was instituted during the middle of May is proceeding daily. Activities are under the direction of a sanitarian especially trained for this work and who has two spraying crews under his direction."

"This program, however, contains only a small percentage of the work needed to control flies and other insects. Since it is on a wholesale participation."

Perjury Talk Heard As House Airs Probe Of Liquor Industry

WASHINGTON—(AP)—A House Republican raised the possibility of perjury proceedings Tuesday in the wake of conflicting testimony about the lack of anti-trust action against big liquor distillers.

Representative Keating (R-NY), senior minority member of a House Judiciary subcommittee, mentioned perjury prosecution after the group heard a charge and a denial that the Justice Department issued a "whitewash" report on the liquor industry.

On this and on other subjects, Keating told newsmen, there was "square, clear-cut conflict" between Monday's witnesses. He added, however, "We will have to wait until we've heard from other witnesses before we reach a decision on the matter by perjury."

Several new witnesses, representing the cooperative whisky barrel industry, were called to testify Tuesday.

Inez Dudley Rogers reported on her book, "A Monument Not Made With Hands," at the Boys Camp meeting last week near Fort Davis. The book, written in play form with authentic sketches of pioneer costumes, is the story of the first Boys Camp meeting which was held on the frontier in 1890. Accompanying Mrs. Rogers to the meeting were Mrs. Elizabeth Lewis and son, Nelson.

Sgt. Raymond C. Talley, now serving with the 28th Division in Gablinger, Germany, helped his outfit stage a carnival recently to raise money for the Red Cross. Talley is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Alva Talley.

Airman second class Jerry Joplin has been assigned to Shaw Air Force Base in South Carolina. Before his new assignment he participated in Operation Longhorn.

Sue Wilson won a trip to Texas A&M College and participation in a short course there as a prize for taking first in the 4-H Club's speech contest. She was accompanied to the contest by her mother, Mrs. John Wilson; her brother, Cary, and her grandmother, Mrs. Norma Hunt of Fabens.

G. C. Mitchell, Midland, painter for Mitchell Painting and Construction Company, suffered contusions and sprain of his right wrist Monday when he fell from a ladder. Treatment was given at Western Clinic-Hospital.

Beverly Cappel, Rankin, is a medical patient at Midland Memorial Hospital.

Robert Cole, 604 North Big Spring Street, has been admitted to Midland Memorial Hospital for surgery.

Leonard Thomas, Jr., 707 1/2 East Wall Street, has been admitted to Midland Memorial Hospital for minor surgery.

Ben Strickland, 62, of Coleman, who died Sunday after a series of heart seizures, were conducted Tuesday at the Coleman First Baptist Church.

He is survived by the widow; a son, Burl, a teacher in the Crane public schools, and a granddaughter, Skann.

Two Seizure Bills Given Panel Okays

WASHINGTON—(AP)—The Senate Labor Committee Tuesday approved the Humphrey bill to permit President Truman to seize the strike-paralyzed steel industry. Along with this measure, sponsored by Senator Humphrey (D-Minn.), the group also approved a bill proposed by Senator Morse (R-Ore.). It would allow the President to seize any defense-vital industry—subject to congressional veto—to avert a strike. Both the Humphrey and Morse proposals were rejected by the Senate earlier this month when offered as amendments to legislation continuing wage-price controls.

ARC Gets Free Oil From Dean Sand At Glasscock Wildcat

American Republics Corporation No. 1 Buckner Orphan Home, Southwest Glasscock County wildcat found some signs of production in a drillstem test of the Dean sand. The test was at 7,898-8,050 feet. The tool was open nine and one-half hours. Recovery was 25 feet of free oil and 60 feet of oil cut mud. There were no signs of formation water. The wildcat is drilling deep. Top of the Dean sand is at 7,885 feet. Elevation is 2,705 feet. Making More Hole. The prospector is making more hole. Location is 660 feet from south and west lines of section 17, block 35, T-5-S, T&P survey. The No. 1 Buckner is outside of the proven area for production in the Spraberry. It failed to find any shows of commercial production in that formation. The wildcat was started out under a permit to dig to 8,475 feet to explore into the Wolfcamp-Permian time. It is 17 miles southwest of Garden City.

McCulloch, Sutton Report Dry Holes

W. M. Coats (formerly Lee Hays) No. 1-A Hirschfield estate, wildcat in North McCulloch County, has been plugged and abandoned at total depth of 1,838 feet in lime. Location was 1,840 feet from south and 2,960 feet from east lines of block 1080, J. Patton survey. In Sutton County, C. L. Norworthy, Jr., has quit his No. 1 Mrs. Harold Fries at total depth of 7,100 feet in lime and chart. It was in section 112, block 14, TW&NG survey.

Permian Basin Oil And Gas Log—

(Continued from Page One) averaged approximately 4,450 pounds per square inch. The company is proceeding to test two additional zones within the Ellenburger. In addition to the Glenna block, the company has in numerous large lease blocks totaling over 200,000 acres. No. 1 Glenna is the third deepest producer in the United States. Deepest is Standard Oil Company of California No. 5 Mushrush, completed from total depth of 15,530 feet in California. The only other producer deeper than No. 1 Glenna is Shell Oil Company No. 1 Gonstulin in Louisiana which was finished from total depth of 15,336 feet. Location for No. 1 Glenna is 665 feet from north and 661 feet from west lines of section 28, block 101, TC survey, and 25 miles southeast of Fort Stockton.

Texas Crude Finals Spraberry Oiler In Undeveloped Area

The Texas Company of Midland and Fort Worth has completed its No. 1-4 Dudley as a producer from the Spraberry in an undeveloped area of Southeast Midland County. The project potentialled with a 24-hour gauge of 594 barrels of 39.2 gravity oil, plus nine per cent water. The production was through an 8 1/2 inch tubing choke. Gas-oil ratio was 666-1. Flowing tubing pressure was 250 pounds. The pay section had been fractured with 4,500 gallons. Top of the pay is at 7,888 feet. The 5 1/2-inch oil string is cemented at 7,888 feet. Total depth is at 7,921 feet. The new producer is 30 miles southeast of the city of Midland and 660 feet from south and west lines of section 4, block 37, T-5-S, T&P survey. It is an undrilled area between the Driver, Midkiff and Welter-Floyd fields. All of these areas are Spraberry reservoirs.

Production Gauge Is Reported From C-E Lea Extender

Tide Water Associated Oil Company No. 1-V State, assured one-half-mile west extender to the East Lovington (Strawn) field in Central-East Lea County, was shuttin for potential test. Last gauge was 392 barrels of high-gravity oil in 24 hours through a three-eight-inch choke, and perforations at 10,890-11,000 feet. This project is 660 feet from north and west lines of section 5-17s-37s.

C-N Kent Prospector Makes Water In Test Of Ellenburger Zone

General Crude Oil Company No. 1 C. V. O'Keefe, Central-North Kent County wildcat, six and one-half miles southwest of hard developed sulphur water in the Ellenburger at 7,317-7,422 feet. That zone was drillstem tested for one hour. Recovery was 105 feet of drilling mud and 150 feet of sulphur water. There were no shows of oil or of gas. Top of the Ellenburger is at 7,318 feet. Elevation is 2,086 feet. Now Waiting On Orders. The project is circulating while waiting on orders. Location is 660 feet from south and west lines of section 22, block 1, H&GN survey. It is six and one-half miles northeast of the Salt Creek-Canyon field—the nearest producing area. This failure had a slight show of gas in the Pennsylvanian at 6,966-90 feet. The Pennsylvanian did not carry any shows of commercial oil. It probably will be plugged and abandoned.

WHEN YOU TRY POWER STEERING .
HERE'S WHERE TO COME FIRST!

You've heard about it and read about it. Now, if you haven't felt what Power Steering does for you in city driving or out on the highway, we invite you to try it first in a Chrysler New Yorker... where you will find full-time (not partial) Power Steering!

What happens is this... You handle the steering wheel in normal fashion. But 4/5 of all the work is done for you by hydraulic power, constantly at your command. Also, you turn the wheel 1/3 less distance now for every maneuver... the feeling you get of utter control is as wonderful as it is new.

Even at a standstill you can turn the wheel easily. Now, parking is shorn of its troubles (and fatigue!)... and you can negotiate traffic, awkward drives, and garage doors precisely and with ease.

You can double the longest day's drive you've ever known... end up free from arm and shoulder strain. Rough roads, soft shoulders, snow, mud?... the power that helps you steer now prevents the car's wheels from "steering back" at you. The course you set is held, at any speed, till you want it changed. Yet, with this 5-times greater control, "wheel feel" is always the same. Why not come try it? Learn for yourself why growing thousands of motorists say they'll never be without Full-time Power Steering from now on!

INSIDE THE DEMOCRATIC PARTY — NO. 1

Majority Status Gives Demos Edge In Forthcoming Elections

By JOHN GUNTHER
Written for NEA Service

That's inside the Democratic Party

First, the heritage of Roosevelt. Second, the paternal influence, whatever it may be worth, of Mr. Truman.

Third, rival candidates, none of whom hate each other quite as much as do the leading Republican candidates.

Fourth, baffling uncertainty who the candidate will be.

Fifth, important sectional differences.

Sixth, confusion.

Seventh, in spite of Ike and everything, some modicum of hope.

The greatest single overriding advantage the Democrats have in the campaign about to be fought, with no holds barred, is the fact that the balance of power between the parties has changed drastically, with the result that the Democrats are now apparently the majority party in this country, not the Republicans.

Recent Gallup polls are illuminating. The Democrats can expect to poll 39 per cent of the total vote in 1952, and the Republicans 34 per cent.

Independents — people who say they have no party choice — make up remaining 27 per cent and will obviously decide the issue.

In 1948, the independent vote went 57 per cent Democratic, 43 per cent Republican. But a poll taken in March, 1952, topped the Republicans (among independents) to 45 per cent, while the Democrats dropped to 38 per cent, with 19 per cent still undecided.

Even so, to win the Democrats will need to take only six million independent votes on the basis of an estimated total electorate of 55 million. The Republicans must take nine million.

Figures, like delegates, are not fixed objects. They may change radically between now and November. The impact of a fresh, glowing personality like Eisenhower might make millions of voters move about. The Democrats don't know who their own candidate will be, and quite possibly he will be somebody very weak.

So unprecedented fluid is the whole political picture and so uncertain is the long-run future that I heard one esteemed specialist say, "No matter who gets in, he will be a one-term president."

The second great advantage the Democrats have, according to their own special view, is that the country is prosperous, most people are getting along fine, and the average voter is better off than he has ever been before. Hence, he is going to vote for the status quo. So reason the Democrats.

The Democrats — with substantial aid from events — have kept employment full, and both farm prices and wages dizzying high. They have not only given a new measure of security to people at large; they are in a position to promise more and continuing security.

It is mostly the rich who howl about taxes, say the Democrats. As the poor, they are infinitely better off, and, no matter whether you like it or not, there are more poor

Penetrating Series

How much do you know about what's happening inside the two major parties as convention time approaches? Here's the penetrating story on the struggle for political power, detailed by John Gunther, one of this generation's best-known reporters. This is the first of his four articles on the Democratic Party, written exclusively for NEA Service and The Reporter-Telegram. They will be followed by five more "inside" reports on the Republican Party.

Inside the Democratic Party: The heritage of FDR, left, the influence of HST, center, and hope despite Ike, right.

people in this country than rich. Simply look at comparative income figures.

Thus the first of the so-called Democratic advantages merges into the second. The American left-wing electorate outnumbers the right wing, and the Democrats — so they say — have the left wing sewed up.

Another presumptive advantage to the Democrats is that a whole generation of voters has grown up knowing nothing but Democratic rule. Many slightly older remember as a living, glaring fact the crash and depression that preceded Roosevelt. That crash can still be whooped up into a fluorescent topic.

Next, look at issues. The chief Democratic issue will be the substance of what I have just mentioned — security for the under-possessed, good times for all, the welfare state. The Democrats will attack the Republicans as "the party of the rich and the privileged few, who will forget about the working people and bring on another Hoover depression with bread lines and millions of unemployed."

Rebutting the Republican charge that they are going to "socialize" America, the Democrats will say that, on the contrary, their reforms will benefit the free enterprise system, and that the net result of the New and Fair Deals has been to produce the most prodigious national income any country has ever known.

On budget and taxes, the Democratic viewpoint is defensive. Just let a Republican administration try to run this country without high taxes they say.

Third, communist and foreign policy. The Democrats will attempt to repudiate the Republican accusation that they have been soft to communism, and will say that, contrarily, they have done a tremendous job in combating world communism.

They will cite the Truman Plan for aid to Greece and Turkey, the Marshall Plan, the European Recovery Program, which undoubtedly made it harder for communism to function in western Europe, and the attempt to stop predatory communism dead in its tracks in Korea.

The Democrats assert that the Republicans, particularly if Taft is the nominee, would try to pull out of Europe, cut foreign aid, and endanger world peace. They say Taft's

CORPORAL WOOD IS WED IN BED

SARATOGA SPRINGS, N. Y. — (P) — After two previous wedding postponements, Cpl. Floyd Wood has headed home recently with two service men buddies to get married when their car overturned and landed the prospective bridegroom in the hospital.

The couple decided to get married anyway and the ceremony was held in the Saratoga Hospital with a Methodist pastor officiating and with the bridegroom in bed. The best man had a patch over one eye the result of a shrapnel suffered in the accident.

The third soldier, who was more seriously injured, was in bed in the same hospital room as Corporal Wood.

Tall, Frosty Glass Of Bubbling Spring Water Erases Heat

"What could be better on these hot summer days than a tall, frosty glass of sparkling clear spring water," asks B. H. Spaw, manager of the Ozarka Water Company, 402 South Big Spring Street.

Midland housewives are buying the handy five-gallon bottles of the soft, clear water sold by the Ozarka Water Company, because they have discovered it can be used for a variety of purposes.

Women use it for washing their hair and even for washing their face and hands because its soft quality is good for their complexion. Mothers use it in babies formulas because it is recommended by many local doctors. Some of the mothers bathe their babies in the water.

It can be purchased in many Midland stores, or Ozarka Water Company will gladly bring it to the home.

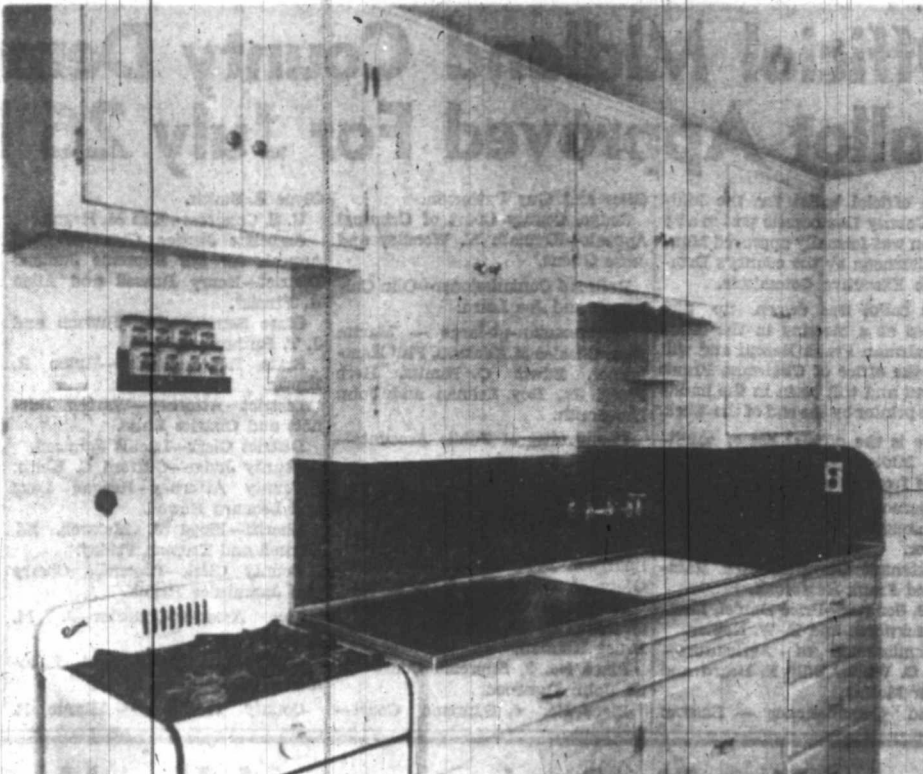

If delivery service or rental of water coolers is desired, telephone 2-1372.

With its diuretic and slight acid properties, Ozarka water is especially valuable in all gastric disturbances due to acidity and hyperacidity.

Spaw said it is excellent for both the sick and well. A resident of Midland 22 years, Spaw has been associated with Ozarka the past seven years.

The water flows from the base of a lofty limestone and granite mountain. After the water is tested for purity, it is shipped to Midland in glass-lined tank cars. Here it is tested again before being bottled.

Bulletins On Cancer Help Teach English

SAN DIEGO, CALIF.—(AP)—The Chinese-language bulletins of the American Cancer Society are doing an extra job among this city's Chinese population.

In addition to teaching them about cancer, the bulletins are used by the Americanization classes of the Chinese Community Church to teach English. The more advanced students in English help newcomers translate the pamphlets.

Set Of Great Books Presented To School

DALLAS—(AP)—Southern Methodist University has been presented a set of the Great Books of the Western World as an addition to its library.

The volumes, said to contain every great non-technical idea of man, were presented to University President Humphrey Lee by William J. Brown, president of a business firm. It has been estimated that 10 years would be needed to absorb all the ideas contained in the books.

Because snow blanketed roads to Baltimore in December, 1831, only 135 delegates attended the first Republican, or Whig, convention. Like the Anti-Masons, the Whigs wrote a party platform, named a rules committee, and gave a unanimous vote to the delegate with a majority.

He was Henry Clay, sure Kentucky fond of bourbon, poker and horse-racing. Nick-named the "Cocaine Candidate," and depicted with Kefauver-type coonskin cap by cartoonists, Clay favored western expansion and internal improvement at government expense.

The following May, in Baltimore, the Democrats held their first national convention, signaling the death of the caucus system by which Congressional and State legislators had nominated candidates. Their nominee was President Andrew Jackson, rough-hewn, half-educated Tennesseean of Indian-fighting fame. "Old Hickory" beat Clay handsly.

Before You Choose Baby-Sitter Know Her Full Background

This baby sitter ties on a bonnet for a small girl before they go out walking. The sitter's mother lives nearby and is on hand to give her daughter advice in the case of an emergency.

EDITOR'S NOTE: This is the fourth and last article for teenagers—and parents—by a newspaperwoman who is also a mother and who has made a long study of the problems of baby-sitting.

By EDRIE VAN DORE
Written for NEA Service

HARTFORD, CONN. — The person who employs a baby-sitter has certain very definite responsibilities toward the sitter, the sitter's parents and her own children.

She should know, first of all, what kind of home the sitter comes from, who her parents are, how old she is, her general state of health, and what previous experience she has had or families she has worked for.

If the girl is new at baby-sitting, the employer should ask about her general reputation and disposition. No child who has ever shown any inclination toward meanness, or cruelty should be hired as a baby-sitter.

Generally speaking, sitters of 15 and 16, high school or college students are preferred. If younger children are employed, there should be some other responsible person within reach—a neighbor or their own parents.

The sitter should be told what time she is to arrive, and what time you will return home. If you cannot get there at that time, telephone her. She should be taken home or invited to spend the night, in which case her own mother must be notified.

You must tell the sitter where you are going and give her the telephone number plus seat numbers if your destination is a play or concert.

See that your doctor's telephone number is written down where she can see it easily, even in a panic, and the number also of some other relative. We hope she won't need it, but let it be there if she does.

It's nice but not necessary to leave your teen-age sitter a little snack or something, or tell her what she may have out of the ice-box. If she will appreciate it. This is hospitality to a guest—it is not a part of her pay, and she should be paid promptly at the end of the evening. Don't ask her to wait until the next time. It isn't fair. If you can't afford to pay a sitter, don't have one.

The sitter will take it for granted that she can use the radio or television, caution her against turning them up too loud. Tell her whether or not she can bring a girlfriend, but ask her not to entertain boys or a crowd of young folks. Your home is no place for her to have a party.

Never engage a sitter who has a cold or any other illness. You'd do better staying home than to expose your children to sickness. If your children are ill, be sure to consult the sitter's mother before asking the girl to come. A teen-ager who hasn't had measles or mumps may contact them from small children.

Don't coax the sitter to come and care for your children on a school night unless you have a bed or cot where she may go to bed at her regular hour. Even this is not recommended. Teenagers are sound sleepers and not apt to wake if a baby cries or an accident occurs.

Don't expect too much of the baby sitter. If you want her to wash dishes or do housework, she should be given extra money for it.

Teach your children to respect the sitter and do what she tells them to. She may make mistakes—if she does, tell her so privately, not in front of the children. For

Did You Hear The One About Cat Which Hired A Hen For Job Of Baby-Sitting?

HORN LAKE, Miss. — (NEA) — R. D. Womack's old red hen is at it again. She is mothering another litter of kittens. This is her fourth.

Three Summers ago outlandish things began happening in the feed house of Womack's dairy near Horn Lake. A New Hampshire hen had a nest in an unused feed bin.

And she was trying to "set," although she didn't have any eggs under her. The Womacks had eaten the eggs so fast as she laid them.

One day the barn cat slipped into the darkened feed room, hopped up in a bin next to the hen's and gave birth to four kittens. The hen peeped over the partition, saw what had happened, and decided that if she couldn't have chicks to mother she'd take cats. She moved over into the nursery bin.

The hen and the mother cat battled for custody of the babies. First one would win, and then the other. So, in time, they worked out a compromise. They'd both mother the kittens. There was plenty of room in the bin for all of them.

It worked out nicely for the mother cat. She had a permanent baby sitter, and was free to hunt mice and prowl around.

The arrangement also suited the mother hen. The kittens seemed to love her more than they did their real mother—except, of course, at mealtime. She covered them with her wings at night, and sometimes she covered them and the mother cat while they nursed.

PROVES SATISFACTORY
It all worked out so satisfactorily in fact that the next time the cat had kittens they repeated the relationship. And then another time after that—three times in all, twice within one year.

And now the hen is at it again, mothering her fourth litter. The old cat, however, has passed on, and a new cat has taken her place in the feed house. Those kittens are her first—only two.

Since this new cat didn't know just what the old hen was up to, there was another hot battle. It was tough on the kittens till the cat and the hen signed a truce and decided to be friends instead of enemies. Now mother cat can come to the bin and feed the babies any time she thinks they need nourishment. They get along fine.

A good egg is R. D. Womack's old red hen. She's an auxiliary mother to her fourth litter of kittens.

The MATURE PARENT 'Independence' Often Just A Fancy Name For Anger

By MURIEL LAWRENCE

On Friday, Bob Ames came home from college for the weekend. Everything was fine, until Saturday afternoon when he and his father locked battle in the external argument over the use of the family station wagon.

Upstairs sorting laundry, Mrs. Ames heard her husband roar something about a "spoiled, irresponsible pup." She stood still listening to her son's shouted retort, "okay, that tears it! I'm quitting school as of now. I'm going to be independent of anyone who feels like that about me. I'm going to work for my own keep."

When his mother opened his door with a pile of clean shirts, he was ripping suits from his closet.

"Go away," he said. "You can't talk me out of going to work this time. Go away. This time I mean business. I want independence."

"Who's trying to talk you out of anything?" asked his mother, calmly stuffing soiled underwear in her laundry bag. "Go on—quit school. Just don't make speeches about 'independence,' that's all. How dare you talk about 'independence' when you let Dad's impatience tell you what to do with your life? You don't want to quit school—you're just mad! Nobody's independent when they let what other people say make up their minds for them."

Bob went back to college. What's more, he graduated. He went back because his mother knew what "independence" does and does not mean. To be independent, we must be self-governed, not governed by reaction to what others say or do.

If Bob had left college, his act would have been dependent, not independent. It would have been motivated, not by his own wishes but by his resentful reaction to his father's impatience. As reaction is related to the act that begets it, Bob's action would not have been his action at all, but merely the creation of somebody else.

Someday Bob may have to work for an impatient and demanding employer. Will he be independent if he permits his reactions to his boss' displeasing conduct to deprive him of realistic advancement in his chosen work? Will he be self-governing if he allows these reactions to displace him from a position that he needs and wants? I think not.

He will be self-governing only if he can resist making moves dictated by his reaction to his boss and make them only when they promote his growth and progress.

Bob's mother was right in not permitting her son to glorify his angry reactions with the name of "independence."

By using the word, they seek to justify the anger that makes them resign jobs too quickly, that sends them into hasty and ill-advised marriages. The use of the word promotes thoughtlessness and the glib excuse for the failure to know themselves.

Anger can't hurt us badly when we know its name. It gets its work in when we call it by fancy ones.

Daddy Ringtail And If I Had A Map Like Yours

Daddy Ringtail, your monkey friend, one day received a letter from a friend who lived across the sea. The letter said: "Daddy Ringtail, I am ready. I am coming to see you. Remember the secret signal."

"Mercy me!" said Daddy Ringtail, because he must hurry now to go down in the forest to meet this old friend. Oh, but the friend was grown-up now, and he had changed since he was a boy. And so how would Daddy Ringtail know him when he saw him? Well, that is what the secret signal was for. Down Daddy Ringtail slid to the ground. Sigh! There he saw a stranger coming. "Happy day to you, Stranger," said Daddy Ringtail. "But if I had a map like yours—" "What would you do if you had a map like mine?" asked the stranger. "Well," said Daddy Ringtail, "I would dig a hole in the ground to bury it in."

The stranger was very angry to hear these words. They were really the secret signal words, but the stranger didn't know it. He thought they were silly words, and so away he went in a huff.

Daddy Ringtail waited, and pretty soon, along came another stranger. Could this stranger be his old friend? Daddy Ringtail would find out. He would say the secret signal words. He said, "Happy day to you, Stranger, and if I had a map like yours—" "What would you do if you had a map like mine?" asked this stranger.

"I would dig a hole in the ground to bury it in," said Daddy Ringtail. "Where would you dig?" the Stranger asked.

New Mexico's Elmer Caught In Long Distance Tug-Of-War

By HAL BOYLE

SANTA FE, N. M.—Elmer, New Mexico's most famous horned toad, is caught in a transcontinental tug-of-war.

He is being pulled northeastward by a group of Massachusetts school children who earnestly want him as a pet. He is being held firmly in place in his native Southwest by two New Mexico state statutes regarding horned toads.

Under these laws Elmer can't be exported. He is restricted from the wondrous influence of travel by a kind of reverse tariff.

The whole question has the state government mildly concerned, as no official in an election year wants to be caught falling to enforce even a statute designed only to keep a voteless horned toad on its home sands.

The issue arose when third grade pupils of the Davis School in West Newton, Mass., wrote and asked for a horned toad.

"What do you feed a horned toad?" they asked. "We will take very good care of it. We will pay the postage if you send it."

The inquiry passed through due channels of government to the Bureau of Business Research at the University of New Mexico. The bureau parried the query by writing back and telling the third graders that horned toads were out-of-season, that is the weather wasn't warm enough for the harmless little lizards to crawl from their desert hideaway.

The determined Massachusetts kids immediately sent a letter saying:

"We would be happy to accept the horned toad. Our school closes June 20 but our teacher will take care of the toad this summer."

That rather put the Bureau of Business Research on its pride. It located a toad named Elmer, a gentle, thoughtful-faced toad steeped in New Mexican traditions and rather resembling an uncombed Ralph Waldo Emerson.

Bureaucrat Steps In

The bureau was all ready to fly him East when an over-eager bureaucrat discovered the whole project was illegal.

As a matter of fact, it was an official of the State Game and Fish Department.

There probably are more horned toads than voting citizens, and always have been. Nobody fretted much about them until some novelty manufacturers starting encasing baby horned toads in plastic and selling them to tourists as souvenirs.

An outraged Legislature in 1941 passed a law prohibiting the killing, selling, or out-of-state shipping of the gentle toads.

These two laws rather put Gov. Ed Mechem, who would like to send Elmer as a good will envoy to New England, in a difficult position.

There is a movement under way to escort Elmer to the Texas line, get him to cross it voluntarily, then fly him on East. The trouble with that is that no one here can think of an inducement that would get a proud native of New Mexico to cross the Texas border without a return passport.

HIS BLOOD IS HIS LIVING—For 15 years, Wilhelm Klein, 52, of Frankfort, Germany, has lived on the money he receives for his blood. The former pastry cook stands beside 26 jerry-cans which represent the 520 liters of blood which he has sold. Members of the medical profession are astounded by the fact that Klein can give transfusions on an average of twice a week, as blood donors usually can only give blood every six or eight weeks.

There is a movement under way to escort Elmer to the Texas line, get him to cross it voluntarily, then fly him on East. The trouble with that is that no one here can think of an inducement that would get a proud native of New Mexico to cross the Texas border without a return passport.

Hero's Son Starts In Father's Steps

SAN ANTONIO —(P)— He wants to follow in his hero father's footsteps and he already has a good start.

Ten-year-old John Michael Kearby was recently named as the best drilled student for his age at the Moys Military School. He knows all the 53 commands of infantry drill. A straight-A student, he was named honorary sergeant.

His late father was Congressional Medal of Honor winner Col. Neel E. Kearby, who shot down 22 enemy planes before being killed in an air battle over New Guinea in 1944.

Young Kearby wants to go to West Point and then become an aviator like his dad.

The garden is on the eighth story of an office building here. The garden is set in 6 feet of soil. Its base is the seventh floor ceiling. The concrete was waterproofed before the soil was put in.

Program Would Wage War Against Hunger In World

ROME —(P)— FOA rush three ERFU Bengal.

That sounds like a wartime code, doesn't it? Well, it is. It's a proposed code to action in the United Nations' Food and Agriculture Organization's war against hunger in the world.

ERFU means emergency reserve food unit. Each ERFU would feed a billion people for a month. They would be used to lick famine, or emergency food shortages anywhere on earth from war, crop failure, flood or misfortune.

The plan was snipped at Rome during sessions of the guiding council of FAO. It will be given final action within a year by the whole 64-nation food organization.

The plan is for an international food bank—a world-wide application of Joseph's interpretation of the Pharaoh's dream of seven fat years and seven lean.

How It Would Work

Here's how it would work: FAO member nations—that means almost all of civilization outside the Iron Curtain — would contribute money or supplies to establish a world food reserve.

This would be stored in ERFU—emergency reserve food units—each capable of providing 1,200 calories per day for a million people for a month.

FAO recognizes that people need 1,800 calories per day, but it calculates that even in case of local disaster the affected area could scrape up the remaining 700 calories per day from available supplies.

To Keep In Storage

An ERFU would cost $1,655,000 to assemble and about $50,000 per year to keep in storage.

It would include 7,000 metric tons of wheat, rice, corn and millet; 1,500 tons of soy beans, flour, peas and beans; 500 tons of dried skim milk; 500 tons of fats and hydrogenated oils and 500 tons of sugar.

To Keep In Storage

An ERFU would cost $1,655,000 to assemble and about $50,000 per year to keep in storage.

It would include 7,000 metric tons of wheat, rice, corn and millet; 1,500 tons of soy beans, flour, peas and beans; 500 tons of dried skim milk; 500 tons of fats and hydrogenated oils and 500 tons of sugar.

The world can afford it, says

Ancient City Found In Desert Of Russia

LONDON —(P)— Soviet archaeologists have excavated a 2,300-year-old city in the Kyzyl-kum Desert, near the Aral Sea in Soviet Central Asia. Moscow radio reported. The town of Koi Krylgan Kola was one of the monuments of the ancient Khorezm state.

Built in the third or fourth century B. C. it consists of a fortress surrounded by a wall with battlements. Many pieces of decorated porcelain have been uncovered and an inscription on one clay vessel is regarded as the most ancient inscription in Central Asia.

Women Should Renew Active Interests During Menopause

By EDWIN P. JORDAN, M. D. Written for NEA Service.

The change of life, or menopause, usually begins about the age of 45 and takes several years before the adjustment is complete. Most women pass through it without either physical or mental disturbances of any serious nature.

The menopause is more than the ending of one physiological function. Actually, it represents the development of a new balance between the various internal glands which is caused by gradual slowing down of the functions of the ovaries.

The most obvious reflection of these changes is the cessation of the menses and the impossibility of further reproduction. Neither of these need produce any concern in the great majority of women. Nature has provided these changes for reasons which seem desirable both for the individual woman and for mankind as a whole.

Many women are greatly concerned about the possibilities for conception during the latter stages of the menopause. It is indeed difficult to tell exactly when conception is no longer possible, and many pregnancies have occurred up to 52 or even 55 years of age.

However, it has been stated, that there is comparatively little chance of conceiving when a year or more has passed since the last period.

When symptoms do develop, the most common are hot flashes, abnormal menses, a tendency to melancholy, putting on weight, headaches and sleeplessness. Glandular products now are available which can be given by injection or by mouth which will help most of those whose symptoms are severe enough.

They act by supplying some of the internal secretion which the patient's own glands fail to supply. The possibility of adjusting the size of the dose to the need is particularly helpful.

Chance For Enjoyment

This is a period when many women have leisure—often for the first time in many years. The menopause ushers in a period of life which has special opportunities for enjoyment.

During the usual two or three-year period of adjustment a woman should be active both mentally and physically. It is not too late to renew old interests which have perhaps fallen by the wayside while children were small or to develop new interests which a woman can follow the rest of her life.
