

Hammonds Stakes Ellenburger Test In Borden Sector

George S. Hammonds of Dallas staked location for a 10,000-foot Ellenburger wildcat in Northwest Borden County.

It will be drilled as No. 1 Cebul-ske, 660 feet from north and west lines of section 1, block 32, T-6-N, W-6-E survey. Some maps show the survey to be T-7.

Operations are to start by September 15. It is 14 miles northwest of Gall and six miles northwest of the one well North Gall field. It is eight miles northeast of the Borden (Mississippi) field.

The project is being supported by Skelly Oil Company, Magnolia Petroleum Company and The Atlantic Refining Company.

Sinclair Finals New Pay Opener In Borden Area

Sinclair Oil & Gas Company has re-completed its No. 1 Sterling Williams as a discovery from the Mississippian in Northwest Borden County.

Operator reported a daily pumping potential of 98 barrels of 29.6-gravity oil from perforations in casing at 9,903-9,933 feet. Pay had been treated with 3,000 gallons of acid.

Gas-oil ratio was 40-1. No. 1 Williams originally was completed as the discovery well of the Borden (Shuro-Devonian) field.

It is 600 feet from north and east lines of section 45, block 32, T-6-N, W-6-E survey and 11 miles northwest of Gall.

Tucker and Stewart Get Flowing Oil In Schleicher Project

Tucker Drilling Company and J. Ralph Stewart, both of San Angelo No. 1 Jeff Harkey, Central-North Schleicher County wildcat flowed oil at the rate of 14 barrels per hour naturally from perforated section at 4,851-55 feet in a Canyon sand and has shown no water.

It is to take potential test and complete.

The project is the former Hlawaschka Oil & Gas Company and Dan Auld No. 1 Jeff Harkey which was abandoned at total depth of 6,123 feet in barren Ellenburger.

Those operators abandoned the project in September 1951. They tested at 4,823-84 feet in the Canyon sand and developed some flowing oil and gas and also some salt water.

They then abandoned the prospector.

A deal was made recently for Tucker Drilling Company and Stewart, to take the old hole over and clean it out and test the Canyon sand again.

The test reported here where the wildcat has flowed oil from the four foot section resulted.

Location is 660 feet from north and east lines of section 77, block H, G-4-S-A survey. It is 25 miles northeast of San Angelo.

The prospective new field opener is on a lease on which Phillips Petroleum Company has an overriding interest.

Humble Gets Shows For Oil Discovery In San Angelo Wildcat

Humble Oil & Refining Company No. 1 George T. McEwen, Central Tom Green County wildcat, approximately 800 feet north of the north city limits of San Angelo, has found interesting shows for making an oil well and being a discovery from the Palo Pinto-Permian line.

This prospector, located 2,500 feet from east and 1,600 feet from south lines of section 175, W-C-R-R survey, topped the Palo Pinto at 4,800 feet. Elevation is 1,908 feet.

Top Is High Some geologists correlate it to be about 100 feet high on the top of the Palo Pinto to the nearest dip hole in the region which has penetrated into that horizon.

It had its show of oil and gas in a distance test at 4,810-30 feet. The tool was open one hour. Gas surfaced in nine minutes. There was no gauge or estimate of the gas volume.

No fluid came to the surface while the tool was open. Recovery was 60 feet of very heavy oil and gas cut drilling mud estimated to have been 50 per cent oil.

Had Trace of Water There was a trace of salt water in the fluid which was recovered. Open hole flowing bottom hole

Brien McMahon, Key Atomic Leader, Dies In Washington

WASHINGTON—(AP)—Senator Brien McMahon, 48, a Connecticut Democrat with a passion for peace and a key role in the nation's atomic energy program, died Monday of a spinal ailment.

Death came at 9:10 a.m. CST, with members of his family at his side in Georgetown Hospital, where the senator went in June for an operation.

Illness prevented his campaigning as a candidate for the Democratic presidential nomination. Friends from Connecticut gave him 16 votes anyhow at the Democratic National Convention last week. From his hospital bed, McMahon ordered his name withdrawn.

McMahon was a brand new senator in 1945 when the first atomic bomb devastated Hiroshima. Awesomely impressed, he decided this new force must be leashed to save civilization, and dedicated his life to that goal.

Despite his relative inexperience, he became chairman of the Senate Atomic Energy Committee—the voice of Congress on all atomic affairs, the highest lay authority on the subject.

He first won fame as chief of the Justice Department's criminal division. In 1933, he personally moved into bloody Harlan County, Ky., during a war between coal mine operators and union labor.

McMahon was shot at from an ambush but unhurt. Two of his key witnesses were slain and the homes of two others were dynamited, but the New Englander restored law and order after spectacular trials for terrorism.

United States Steel Corporation, producer of one-third of the nation's steel, said one-third of its employees have been recalled. Shipments of finished steel on hand at the start of the strike June 2 are being made. Special emphasis is placed on morning tin plate, used in the manufacture of tin cans.

Jones and Laughlin Steel Corporation said the back-to-normal process is in full swing at its big plants in Pittsburgh and nearby Allegheny, Pa., but is hitting a snag at Cleveland.

Bethlehem Steel, the country's second largest producer, hopes to have its mammoth plant going full blast in seven days.

The back-to-work movement there began in earnest Sunday night.

In the Youngstown, Ohio, district, the first pig iron production in nearly two months was reported.

The first post-strike steel to be made at Buffalo is expected by Wednesday.

Some other companies still are idle. They include firms like Wheeling Steel Corporation and Allegheny Ludlum, which still are meeting with the union in an effort to work out final contracts.

Stanton High School Sports Figure Dies Of Polio In Abilene

STANTON—Martin County had its first polio fatality Monday with the death of Donald Ray Winslow, 16, popular Stanton High School football player, at 4:44 a.m. in an Abilene hospital.

Winslow had been hospitalized more than a week with a severe case of polio.

Eighteen persons have been treated for polio symptoms in Martin County this year.

An active participant in all sports, Winslow would have been a Junior in Stanton High School this fall. Funeral arrangements are pending with Arrington Funeral Home of Stanton in charge.

Survivors include the parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Winslow of Stanton; three brothers, Robert M. and Ed of Stanton, and Yule of the U. S. Army; and one sister, Mrs. Chelan Atchison of Midland.

Police Seek Assailant Of Child, Nine

A nine-year-old Midland girl was beaten and criminally attacked Sunday afternoon while playing near her home.

Suffering from loss of blood, she was reported in a serious condition Monday in a Midland hospital.

For two hours after the attack, the girl refused to tell her parents about it, police said, explaining that she had fallen from a swing.

Detective Sgt. Billy Adair said the girl told him and Lt. Dick Hemingway she was playing on some swings in a trailer court near her home when the man walked up and grabbed her.

She said he slapped her, hit her in the face with his fist and then dragged her, struggling, into a nearby trailer, where the attack took place.

She said he told her that if she told her mother and father about it, he would beat her some more. Two hours later, she finally told her parents what had happened.

Police are seeking the man.

Two Commissioner Runoffs Remain On County's Slate

It was all over in Midland Monday except for the shouting and two county commissioners' races.

More than 6,900 voters went to the polls in Saturday's Democratic primary election and, on the basis of complete unofficial returns, put their stamp of approval on all county officers seeking reelection.

County Attorney Reagan Legg squeaked through in a breath-taking finish, Sheriff Ed Darnell easily overpowered two opponents and County Clerk Roseneale Cherry won a lopsided victory over her lone opponent.

But candidates for County Commissioner from Precinct 1 and Precinct 2 must wait until the August 23 runoff primary to learn who will win those jobs.

In the two-county district attorney race, Midland voters joined those of Ector County in giving a victory margin to 25-year-old Warren Burnett of Odessa.

The total of 6,335 votes did not set a record for Midland County—thereby surprising election officials and other observers—but it was not until after 6 a.m. Sunday that the counting was completed and the results of at least one race definitely decided.

Midland County also contributed heavy majority votes to Allan Shivers in the governor's race, Ben Ramsey in the lieutenant governor's race and Price Daniel in the U. S. Senate battle.

For Russell, Hudson Henry Russell of Pecos carried Midland County in the Court of Civil Appeals race as did Hill Hudson in the State Senate race, although both were defeated when the votes throughout their districts were tallied.

On the precinct level, Alvey Bryant and W. M. Stewart were re-elected county commissioners and Constable Jack Merritt won an easy victory over R. E. (Bobbie) Norton in his race for reelection.

O. J. Hubbard and Earl Ray were ready for a runoff to determine who will be Precinct 1 Commissioner while J. C. Franklin and Bill Brown will battle it out for the Precinct 2 post.

The county's Democratic Executive Committee, headed by Chairman Frank Beoni, will meet Tuesday to canvass the votes in Saturday's balloting.

But here are the unofficial results: Governor—Allan Shivers 4,513, Ralph W. Yarborough 1,511, Mrs. Allene Taylor 116.

Aluminum Strike Threatens As Steel Production Starts

PITTSBURGH—(AP)—A strike threat in the aluminum industry put a new roadblock Monday in the path of America's economy as the nation's steel mills gained speed in their drive to recover from a 55-day walkout.

Contract negotiations between the CIO United Steelworkers and the Aluminum Company of America broke Alcoa said the union is making demands greater than those granted by the steel industry. The union replied with a statement that the USW is out to level off pay differentials in the nine different plants in which it represents workers.

Late Returns Cut Clear Majority Of Leading Candidate

DALLAS—(AP)—More than a million Texas voters turned a political cold shoulder to Washington Saturday as they swept Gov. Allan Shivers back into office and nominated Price Daniel, state attorney general, to succeed Texas' retiring Senator Tom Connally. Shivers and Daniel are anti-Truman Administration Democrats.

Maurice J. Tobin

Secretary Of Labor Tobin To Visit Here

Maurice J. Tobin, secretary of the U. S. Department of Labor, is expected to spend the night of August 6 in Midland as a guest of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce.

The Cabinet member and former governor of Massachusetts is scheduled to arrive here by plane that afternoon enroute to Pecos and El Paso, where he will speak at Mexican labor conferences sponsored by the WTCC and other regional organizations. Secretary Tobin will be in Pecos August 7 and El Paso August 8.

He will be met here by members of his staff, headed by Under Secretary of Labor Michael J. Galvin and William S. Tyson, Labor Department solicitor, and West Texas Chamber officials, including President Frank Kelley and General Manager Fred Hubands.

Secretary Tobin was mayor of Boston from 1938 to 1944, and served as governor of Massachusetts, in 1945-46.

Mexican labor conferences are scheduled earlier in the week at Haskell, Littlefield and Leamesa. Loyd H. Walker, manager of the Agriculture and Livestock Department of the WTCC, is in charge of arrangements.

Meanwhile, it appeared Martin Dies, original chairman of the House Un-American Activities Committee, faced a runoff with former Lt. Gov. John Lee Smith of Lubbock for congressman-at-large. Dies held a majority until early Sunday night, then Smith edged into the picture. The latest tabulation showed Dies with 49.01 per cent of the vote among the seven candidates.

Shivers beat down the double-barrelled challenge of Austin Attorney Ralph Yarborough, backed by the pro-Truman faction of the state Democratic Party, and Mrs. Allene Taylor, San Antonio housewife. Incomplete returns at noon Monday gave him 725,969 votes to 428,106 for Yarborough, who conceded. Mrs. Taylor polled only 33,388.

Daniel was opposed by Rep. Lindsey Beckworth, regarded as a Truman Administration favorite; and E. W. Napier, and unknown Wichita Falls attorney. A Monday noon count gave Daniel 766,396 to 363,400 for Beckworth and 78,511 for Napier.

The voting was in the Democratic primary in which nomination usually means election in heavily-Democratic Texas.

Outlook Still Uncertain The unofficial vote totals in the major state races were slightly more than one million. This compares with 2,337,618 poll taxes and exemptions issued.

The primary results and precinct meetings Saturday left the state Democratic outlook as uncertain as it has been. Another battle between state party factions over the binding of presidential electors to national party nominees seemed a sure thing for the September state convention.

Shivers led the anti-Truman Texas delegation to the Democratic National Convention in Chicago last week. Daniel, a leader in the fight for state ownership of tidelands, called Beckworth a supporter of the Truman Administration. Beckworth denied he had been influenced by the Administration to take up the fight against Daniel.

Dies had a long record of anti-Trumanism. (Continued On Page Eight)

AUSTIN—(AP)—Texas Democrats will count the results of Saturday's primary officially here Monday, August 11.

The canvass, under the election code, will be made by the State Democratic Executive Committee.

County executive committees are scheduled to meet Tuesday to canvass returns in each county. The county chairmen must, within 24 hours after this canvass, mail returns to the state chairman of the party, on state and district races.

These returns then are canvassed by the state committee.

Oklahoman Is Killed, Trio From Odessa Injured In Crash

HASKELL—(AP)—T. L. Fifer, 69, Seminole, Okla., was killed near here Monday in a truck-automobile collision. Four other persons, including three from Odessa, Texas, were injured.

Injured were Mrs. Fifer, 61, as were the Fifers' daughter, Mrs. Mollie May Luck, and two Luck children, Eleanor, 14, and James, eight, of Odessa.

The truck driver, Jimmy Crawford, Haskell, told officers his brakes locked as he tried to pull to the side of the highway, throwing his truck into the highway, where it was side-swiped by the car driven by one of the Luck children, Richard, 18.

The automobile was enroute to Odessa. It overturned and slid 75 or 80 feet.

Clear Skies Send Mercury Climbing Again Over Texas

Clear skies all over the state early Monday brought another day of sweltering temperatures.

Some relief was due in East Texas, where widely scattered afternoon thundershowers were predicted for the south portion.

The high temperature Sunday was 102 degrees at Laredo, Wichita Falls, and Presidio. It was 101 in Fort Worth and Mineral Wells and 100 in Dallas and Cotulla.

Galveston measured 98 inch of rain. Beaumont had .18 and Lufkin .01.

Judge Scores VA Officials For Giving 'Maniac' Liberty

NEW YORK—(AP)—Judge Saul S. Streit Monday accused mental experts of foisting "dangerous maniacs on the public with the most dire consequences."

Accepting the first degree murder indictment of Bayard Peakes in the Columbia University slaying of a young girl, Streit said in an angry statement:

"No action whatever was taken to commit this defendant or to treat him, but the veteran-manic 'pe' permitted to roam at large on an unsuspecting public and to kill this innocent victim."

Peakes, claiming the key to eternal life, shot to death Ellen Fahy, pretty 18-year-old stenographer. She happened to be the first person he met when he invaded Columbia's campus seeking revenge because his weird theories were not accepted.

The judge's statement took harshly to task both state mental institutions and those of the Veterans Administration.

Streit, who won nation-wide attention as a hard-bolled critic of "sordid commercialism" in college sports, said the 29-year-old Peakes had a long record of insanity and doctors described his condition as "fraught with danger."

Continued the general sessions judge: "But the Veterans Administration records disclosed that the killer was continuously insane for several years before the homicide and known to be dangerous but permitted to be at large and in utter disregard of the public safety.

"Such rank negligence and indifference promoted further inquiries. My investigation discloses that this case is only one of many in recent years wherein officials of mental institutions have foisted dangerous maniacs on the public with the most dire consequences.

"I am also of the opinion that the state law and the Veterans Administration regulations are wholly inadequate to safeguard the welfare of the public."

Jacoby On Bridge

By OSWALD JACOBY
Written for NEA Service

Today the major events begin in the national bridge tournament at Cincinnati, and hundreds of famous bridge stars will spend seven or eight hours each day playing bridge and four or five hours each night discussing what might have been. The average bridge fan would probably be amazed to hear some of these discussions.

The hand shown today, for example, provoked quite a bit of post-mortem pow-wow in last year's tournament. And the only hand that was considered worthy of discussion was the West hand—which would make the average player shudder but would hardly stir him to deep thought.

But the whole point of the hand is the selection of West's opening lead. If West would lead the five of hearts (fourth best from his longest and strongest suit), declarer the average player for a very good reason. He plays only rubber bridge, and the difference of 30 points is insignificant. At tournament bridge, however, that difference of 30 points is just as important as bidding a slam on some other hand.

Why should West lead a club rather than a heart? Either lead has about the same chance to come through a king or an ace-queen in the dummy. The heart lead however, is more likely to strike a short suit in dummy or in declarer's hand; so it is less likely to be productive.

A further point is that East is bound to have fair strength if the opponents were correct in not even trying for a slam. If East had a good heart suit, he would have bid one heart over the opening bid of one diamond.

If East had good clubs, however, he might well have been unable to overcall in that suit at the level of two. Hence East is slightly more likely to have good clubs than good hearts.

CARD Sense

Q—The bidding has been:
North East South West
2 N. T. Pass 3 Spades Pass
3 N. T. Pass ?
You, South, hold: Spades K-J-9-7-3, Hearts Q-4, Diamonds K-8-7-4-3, Clubs Q-6-2. What do you do?
A—Bid five no-trump. This is not a mere invitation to slam, since a raise to four no-trump would be enough for that purpose. The jump to five no-trump tells partner to take his choice between six spades and six no-trump.

With a timid partner, however, South should get all the way to six no-trump in order to make sure of getting to the slam.

TODAY'S QUESTION
With neither side vulnerable, the bidding has been:
West North East South
1 Spade 2 Clubs Double ?
You, South, hold: Spades 10-8, Hearts Q-J-9-4, Diamonds J-8-7-4-3, Clubs 6-5. What do you do?
Answer Tuesday

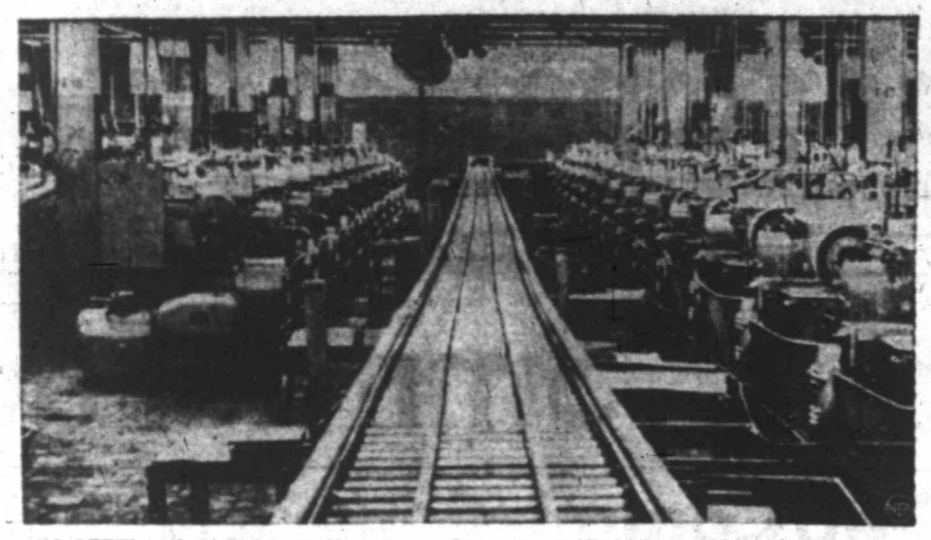

NORTH (D)		WEST		EAST		SOUTH
Q 8 6 3	A K	9 7 4	J 8 5 4	J 2	Q 7 3	A K 10 5	10 8 2
A 7	A 7	10 8	10 8 2	7 4 2	Q 7 3	7 4 2	8 4 3

wins 12 tricks. He wins the heart in dummy, draws three rounds of trumps, cashes the top diamonds and gives up a diamond.

The rest is easy. Dummy can take the club return and cash the two good diamonds, allowing South to get rid of his two losing clubs. South then ruffs dummy's low club, and dummy is high.

If West opens a club, however, declarer makes only 11 tricks. East must get in with a diamond in time to cash a club trick.

This would be small potatoes to

Trellis Mae Returns Home, Reassures Doubtful Wilbur

By HAL BOYLE
HOMETOWN, U. S. A.—(P)—When Trellis Mae Peeble, America's average housewife, returned home from the National Democratic Convention, she found her husband drinking a bottle of milk of magnesia.

house to eat," explained Wilbur. "The sardines gave out Wednesday—and I ate the last of the canned chile yesterday."

"—You poor dear—you begin to fall apart every time I go away," said Trellis Mae, who took her husband's malnutrition as a personal tribute.

She phoned for some groceries, cooked him a square meal, then said: "Well, I suppose you want to hear more about my trip? There is certainly nothing more fun than a political convention. Parties every night. And so cheap, too! I think every housewife in America ought to attend a national political convention."

10 Die Violently In Texas; Traffic Mishaps Claim Two

By The Associated Press
At least 10 persons died violently in Texas during the weekend, only two of them in traffic accidents.

John L. Rudasell, 28, Houston, was shot and killed Sunday in a gun battle with police at a drive-in cafe in Tyler. City Policeman Clyde Harrison said he and two other officers surprised a man trying to pry open a juke box in the cafe. There was an exchange of bullets and Rudasell fell, wounded three times. Justice of the Peace Martin L. Lilly said Rudasell was shot in self-defense.

Arthur Oliver Bankstone, 31, a State Highway Department draftsman, drowned in Lake Travis near Austin Saturday. Bankstone was sailing for minnows when the wind blew his boat away. He swam after it but apparently became exhausted.

A Fort Worth woman drowned at Eagle Mountain Lake Saturday night. Mrs. Faith Thorman, 22, fell out of an outboard-driven boat when it struck a high wave.

Jack Miralles, about 38, Dalhart was working on the motor of his car. The fan blade flew off and severed an artery in his throat. He died shortly afterwards.

Mrs. Jeter I. Dean, 53, was killed near her home at Alto Saturday in a traffic accident.

A car-truck smashup near Corsicana killed Eldon Ray Water, 27, of Corsicana.

Joe Gonzalez Schaffer, 22, died Sunday of stab wounds he received in a fight in a Dallas tavern.

Six Persons Die As Truck Plunges Into Family Auto

PHOENIX, PA.—(P)—Roaring out of control, a heavily-loaded truck smashed head-on into an auto laden with picnickers and killed six persons Sunday at nearby Hopwood.

Cousin In Texas Put John Sparkman On Political Trails

ITALY, TEXAS.—(P)—A pioneer family of this Central Texas town believes Democratic Vice Presidential nominee John Sparkman got his political urge from the late Robert E. Sparkman.

Robert E. Sparkman, described as a "double first cousin" of John Sparkman of Alabama, served several terms in the Texas Legislature and once made an unsuccessful bid for the office of State Agriculture Commissioner. He also was a former Hill County District Clerk and Justice of the Peace here.

The Sparkman family here has always credited Robert Sparkman's political interests with leading the younger John to a political career in Alabama.

Robert Sparkman died in 1946 but his favorite sport—tall tale telling—still is remembered. For several years farmers had trouble getting cotton pickers because of a Sparkman tale that a monstrous snake "lived in the Chambers Creek bottom."

Another favorite story was about an invisible wall into which rabbits would run and break their necks. When a group of club women came to Italy to see the wall, Sparkman explained that the invisible barrier had been taken over by the government in interest of national defense.

THE DOCTOR SAYS

Early Diagnosis, Confinement Important In Polio Control

By EDWIN F. JORDAN, M. D.
Written for NEA Service

Last year I joined the ranks of those who have had a child stricken with polio. Probably no one who has gone through this ordeal will still experience can fully realize the mental anguish which is involved.

Even so, the blind fear which afflicts so many parents during times when polio becomes comparatively common should be avoided, since it does no good.

Although polio can and does cause deaths and severe crippling, the chances that it will not be pretty good. It is now regarded as a disease in which only one in 100—in some cases even less—of those infected become paralyzed. In many of these, the illness is so slight that a diagnosis of polio is not even made.

Another bright side to the picture is that only half of those in whom the diagnosis can be made suffer any permanent paralysis, and even in many of those who do, the paralysis is of a minor nature, and recovery can go a long way.

But it is a terrible disease. What then can be done to prevent it? Polio is now known to be caused by a virus, of which there are several known varieties or strains. This virus is present in the discharges from the nose and throat, and in the intestinal waste of those who have the disease, and of others who are so slightly sick that a diagnosis of polio cannot even be made.

These and other known facts bring polio into the class of contagious diseases, or diseases which are spread from person to person.

The MATURE PARENT

Understand Your Own Motives To Avoid Misjudging Child's

By MURIEL LAWRENCE

Once there was a little girl named Joyce whose mother was a pretty and much-flattered actress. Her mother was also very impulsive and careless. However, since it was to the martial spirit of her refusal to give anything in return was such a problem that she had to seek professional help with it.

It was during this time that she first realized that her refusal to lend her beads had been based on a sound practical reason. She realized that she had not been "selfish" at all. She merely had been afraid that her careless, impulsive mother would either lose her beads or give them away to the first person who happened to admire them.

Thus, this misjudgment of Joyce's motive in refusing to lend her beads had great influence upon her life. She spent many years of it trying to disprove a false charge of selfishness.

Our child guidance books endlessly emphasize the importance of learning why Jimmy chooses an undesirable friend, why Mary is always borrowing her sister's clothes, why Sally boasts of dates she does not have. What they do not tell us is often that we have little hope indeed of learning any of these "whys" unless we have had some experience in unearthing our own.

Without this information, the books' advice only frustrates us and makes us anxious.

How could we possibly expect Joyce's mother to have been interested in her daughter's motive when she had built her own life on evasion of her own? To the end of her days, Joyce's mother firmly believed that her steadily diminishing fortune was due to her excessive generosity to others. She violently would have resisted anyone who suggested that carelessness and an appetite for flattery were responsible.

Like Joyce, many of us operate on misjudgments that we still are trying to disprove, although we think we are grownup and independent.

Because someone once called us "lazy," we take pride in overwork. Because we once were falsely accused of carelessness with funds, we rush to tell everything we know to anyone who asks us a question. Because a blunt and honest comment was severely reproved as "impudence," we find it almost impossible to speak our mind to our child.

Misjudgment of motives in children is destructive and if we wish to spare them, we have no alternative to understanding how misjudgment of our own motives has influenced us.

Do You Know The Answers To The 'Keep Cool' Quiz?

By ALICIA HART
NEA Beauty Editor

To keep your warm-weather life under control, better review this check-list to find out whether or not you are thinking along the right lines.

Rumor has it, when the mercury soars, that you should keep right on working at the usual pace and forget the heat. (False. You'll be attacking the problem on much firmer ground if you slow down all motions to keep circulation from raising your body heat. Walk slowly. Don't run for buses. Avoid spurts of energy. Light exercise is fine, but you can't ignore hot spells. Adjust to them instead.)

You are convinced that several baths a day will keep your pores open. (True. A clean skin perspires more readily and with less danger of offending. Plenty of soapy sudings with each bath refreshes your body and clears the way for cooling off by the evaporation of perspiration.)

Hot weather, you believe, makes it necessary that you wear less clothing and cut down on underwear. (False. It's best to wear porous loosely woven underwear next to your skin to absorb extra perspiration and insulate the body against outside heat. You'll feel a lot safer, too, if you change into freshly-laundered clothing from tip to toe, as often as twice a day.)

Someone has told you that your hair gets so much sun and air in the summer that it doesn't need to be shampooed frequently. (False. Increased perspiration coats your scalp with layers of dirt-catching oil. A clean head of hair is a sure way to coolness. In fact, shampoo your hair much oftener in the summertime to help your scalp "breathe" and keep locks shining with health.)

Many people think there's less soot in the air in the summer, so bed linens and clothes stay clean longer. (False. Body moisture is increased during hot weather. Sticky bedclothes prevent sleep. Change your sheet and pillow slips as often as possible. They can be tossed in the washer and dried outdoors in the sun, without needing to be ironed. Lots of clean turkish towels help to keep bath time sweet and fresh, too.)

You are inclined to eat less because you are sure that will help you to beat the heat. (False. You have to eat enough to keep up with your

The hotter the weather gets, the more imperative it becomes for you to arrange your life so that you can achieve some degree of comfort and relaxation. DON'T, for instance, concentrate on cold foods exclusively, (upper left), or eat less to "beat the heat." You'll only cheat yourself of necessary nutrients and energy sources. DO keep heavy aids in the refrigerator when the house is sizzling (lower left). You'll find it delightfully cooling to use the chilled cosmetics. Whatever you do, DON'T blow your top when the heat is on. Anger will only make you hotter (upper right). And DO include a period in your day for relaxation. Take long, warm, soapy soaks in the tub to dissipate your internal heat. A lazy, feet-up position helps you to feel calmer and cooler (lower right).

Use the sun, without needing to be ironed. Lots of clean turkish towels help to keep bath time sweet and fresh, too.)

You are inclined to eat less because you are sure that will help you to beat the heat. (False. You have to eat enough to keep up with your usual activities. Some people are more active in summer and that means they must eat more. Just cut down on heavy, indigestible foods.)

Keep your cosmetics in the refrigerator. (True. Chill your favorite after-the-bath skin freshener or co-logne before putting or spraying it on. What a cool, cool difference.)

If you don't have air conditioning at home, grin and bear it. (False. Rooms can be "air conditioned" by a trick used in India. Hang a wet turkish towel over the window and let an electric fan blow on the towel. Evaporation from the wet fabric and increased air circulation from the fan's action can actually lower room temperatures considerably.)

Know what you are about this summer. Don't listen to rumors, and above all try to keep calm and collected. Anger brings heat to every part of your body. Go slow emotionally, and stay cool and pleasant.

A Disquieting Report

From Europe come reports, disquieting if true, that France is sliding away from her earlier enthusiasm for a European army and now favors a more nationalistic tieup with England.

The cause for such an action would not be hard to see. France looks with increasing concern upon the continued resurgence of her ancient enemy, Germany, as a European power.

France realizes at the same time that the rise of Western Germany, at least, is due in some part to the United States, which has striven hard to get the Bonn Republic to take a strong place in the European army.

So, seeking some balance against the growing power of Germany, France reportedly is tending toward ties with England, which has stood firm in its position not to join a European army.

This shift in attitude on the part of the French, if such it can be called at this stage, comes at a strange time.

It might be thought that following General Eisenhower's nomination for the presidency, the prestige of that favorite American of the French would make itself felt in sentiment favoring Western European union, one of his favorite programs.

Certainly, if Eisenhower should be elected in November, Western Europe could expect to have an American chief of state as sympathetic to their problems as President Truman has been. And certainly France knows that the way to a man's heart is not by slighting his pet projects.

Every nose stuck into other people's business, says a psychologist, should be snipped off. What a funny-looking race we'd be.

It's funny how many people who always want to start something are never in sight when there's something to be started.

You'll feel better if you stop to think that what isn't is always worse than what is.

Polka dot ties are popular even if it is easy for the men to spot their own.

If women would just remember that figures don't lie, it would be a lot easier to stick to a diet.

Just think things will be better when you really feel they won't and your friends will like to have you around.

The Washington Merry-Go-Round

By Drew Pearson. (Copyright, 1952, by the Bell Syndicate, Inc.) Drew Pearson says: Radar pick-up of strange objects convinces Air Force flying saucers aren't figments of imagination or hallucinations; Admit possibility more advanced civilization keeping this planet under surveillance; Inside story on steel-strike negotiation.

WASHINGTON — While the politicians have been watching the non-e-to-mysterious, conventions some other people, including the Air Force, have been watching a mysterious rash of flying saucers. Furthermore, the Air Force, long skeptical about flying saucers, now has made some official and important admissions.

Admission No. 1 is that they now have detected something that looks like flying saucers on radar at the same time that people have claimed they saw flying saucers. In other words flying saucers are not just cloud freaks or hallucinations. If so they could not be detected on a radar screen.

Admission No. 2 is that flying saucers possibly could be space ships from another planet. The reason for this admission is that it soon will be possible for us to build a space ship to visit the moon if we are willing to spend the money for research and construction.

Senator's Labor Story Is Bizarre Sidelight-Of Meet

By PETER EDSON. NEA Washington Correspondent

CHICAGO—The full story of Georgia Senator Richard Russell's conversion from support to opposition for the Taft-Hartley labor law makes one of the more bizarre sidelights to the Democratic National Convention. It was not just a "sell out" on the part of Senator Russell to gain union labor support for his presidential ambitions, as has been reported. It was a series of more or less accidental developments, one leading into the other, that in the end made a logical chain of events.

The first link was formed by Earle Cooke, Jr., a Georgian, a close friend and campaign manager for Senator Russell, and a former national commander of the American Legion. In his legion work, Cooke had been associated with Harry Guinivan, who had been on the Legion's public relations staff.

Leaving the Legion, Guinivan had been put in charge of the Washington office of Allied Syndicates, a New York and Chicago relations firm headed by David B. Charnay.

Charnay had handled the Franklin D. Roosevelt, Jr., publicity during his campaign for election to Congress in 1950, so he knew something about politics. In talking with Guinivan, Earle Cooke wondered if the Charnay firm could not handle publicity for Senator Russell. There was no money in it, Cooke explained.

Guinivan talked with Charnay, and a deal was made. It so happened that Allied Syndicates had another customer in Washington, and one that paid well. This was John L. Lewis and the United Mine Workers' union. Through a separate office, Allied handled their public relations.

In the course of preparing for his campaign, Senator Russell voiced some concern over the stand he should take on labor legislation. Senator Russell had voted for the Taft-Hartley Act. He also had voted to override the President's veto.

Summer Dream by Irene Ernhart. Illustration of a woman and a man in a landscape.

THE girl who stepped down from the plane at the Capital City Airport was as smoothly beautiful as if she had stepped out of the pages of a fashion magazine instead of flight six from New York. She wore a dove gray suit of sheer woolen and a tiny yellow hat that echoed the lawn golden highlights in her short brown hair and made her dark eyes look even darker. She had a cheerful expectant look on her face, almost eager, and one wouldn't have dreamed that she was, at the moment, running away.

A man standing by the gate hurried to meet her and when she smiled, he smiled back. "You're a real beauty," he said. "Why didn't you tell me you were so good-looking? How nice to see you? Where's Dad?"

"This car in the garage, Laurie, and he phoned and asked if I'd meet you. What a pleasure it is to see you after all this time! You're a real beauty, and all grown up too, and sophisticated. Am I really?" She hugged his arm as they went toward the car.

As Bruno whirled the car down the long road through the valley, Laurie began to think that summer four years ago that she had spent with her father. She had felt quite grown up and worldly because she had just graduated from the academy and would go to Smith in the fall. She had fallen in love that summer too, with a fellow name: Steve Wyson, who lived in a river cabin down below her father's house on the river. It hadn't been Russell on what changes he made in the law, Senator Hill said he wasn't enough of an expert to do it. Again it was Allied Syndicates that supplied the expert. It was Wally Hopkins, attorney for the mine workers. He has had to live with the law, and he handled the cases in which UMW and Lewis were fined for violating Taft-Hartley injunctions.

The two senators and Hopkins met in Guinivan's office, which is only a couple of blocks down "L" street from Lewis's headquarters. Lewis was called and asked if he would not care to join the meeting. He said he would.

Lewis talked for an hour, almost without interruption. Then he rose. He could talk for eight hours, he explained, but he would wear out his listeners. Then he left. After he had gone, Senator Russell is reported to have exclaimed simply, "Well I'll be damned."

Shortly after that he came to Chicago for the Democratic Convention and there he voluntarily issued the statement calling for a new labor law.

Q—How do some trees protect themselves from heat and cold? A—The eucalyptus holds its pointed leaves straight upward, with only the tips facing the sun. The manjaro rubber tree droops each large leaf as noon approaches, and then folds it together like a tightly rolled umbrella. The black jopani, with leaves of many leaflets, partly folds them on cold rainy days, and at night to shut out chilly air.

Q—Which large city in the United States is directly north of the westernmost point of South America? A—Cleveland, O.

Q—What are the three main races of man? A—Negroid, Caucasoid, and Mongoloid.

Q—What name is sometimes applied to the Redbud tree? A—The name Judas tree has been given to a species of redbud because it is believed that Judas hanged himself on such a tree.

Truman To Assist Taylor In Missouri Primary Campaign

KANSAS CITY — President Truman took a vacation from national politics Monday to assist his old Missouri associates in their fight to elect J. E. (Buck) Taylor to the Senate.

Taylor is a candidate for the Democratic nomination for the seat held by Senator Ken (R-Mo.) in a hotly-contested race with W. Stuart Symington, the former Truman secretary of the Air Force and later RFC cleanup administrator.

Truman was expected to drive in from his home in nearby Independence to spend at least a part of the day in the penthouse suite of the Hotel Muehlebach here.

So They Say

The main purpose of the convention is to resolve differences within the party, so that sincere Republicans men and women can reach a meeting of minds.

Turn out the Democrats and save America. — Pennsylvania Gov. John S. Fine.

As long as both sides are talking directly about the problems at hand, there is a possibility of something constructive coming out of the Korean truce talks.

Pair Nabbed After Fleeing Jail, Holding 16 Hostages

HOLYOKE, COLO.—(AP)—Sixteen persons, seven of them children, were imprisoned for hours in a farmhouse on the Eastern Colorado sandhills by two gun-brandishing youths during a short-lived Sunday flight from jail.

The pair, identified by State Highway Patrolman Darold Hartbrook as Glenn Maynard, 19, of Amarillo, Colo., and Ronald Davey, 17, of Indianapolis, apparently believed they had killed Sheriff Harry Clements when they broke jail Sunday. One of the hostages said they talked of the "killing" and warned that there was certain to be a battle at the farmhouse.

Actually, Clements suffered only cuts and abrasions from a beating and was resting at his home in "good" condition when the youths were captured about dusk at a highway barricade.

Saunders, Pinkston To Vie In Martin Sheriff Runoff

STANTON—Complete but unofficial returns in the Martin County balloting Saturday gave County Judge James McMurry 896 votes to 683 for Ed Robnett in the judge's successful bid, for a third term.

R. W. Caton defeated Tom Adams, incumbent, 828 to 776 in the contest for the office of county attorney. Adams is completing his second term in office.

Sealy Hails Shivers Win

The overwhelming vote given Allan Shivers Saturday in his race for reelection as governor of Texas was a "complete vindication and an endorsement of his conservative anti-New Deal program," said Tom Sealy, Midland attorney and delegate to the National Democratic convention.

Sealy said the election of Price Daniel as U. S. Senator was a victory over "Lindley Beckworth, a Truman Administration candidate."

In the county and district clerk race, Mrs. Doris Stephenson received a total of 1,066 votes to defeat Mrs. Nobby Hamilton, who was seeking a fourth term. Mrs. Hamilton received 611 votes.

A runoff between Dan Saunders and W. P. (Bill) Pinkston will determine the sheriff's race. In the five-man contest, the vote was: Saunders 740; Pinkston 547; Noah D. Koonce 192; George Burns 120, and A. L. Frith 65.

Oliver Vaughn was reelected commissioner of Precinct 1, defeating M. L. Graves 368 to 339. Ed Bloomer and Stanley Lewis are in a runoff.

Four Known Dead As Violent Storm Lashes Old Seaport

SALEM, MASS.—(AP)—A brief, violent storm with hurricane gusts up to 85 miles an hour smashed through this famed old seaport Sunday, leaving four known dead and at least three missing. The victims were in small craft capsize in the harbor.

The squall, accompanied by a driving rain, lightning and hail, struck a dozen Essex County communities, capsizing small craft, knocking out power and communication lines and uprooting trees and felling telephone and power poles.

Some 200 craft capsized in Salem Harbor, which bore the brunt of the 20-minute storm. The Coast Guard and private motor launches rescued about 100 persons in small boats. Police identified the dead as John Bolivar, 66, and Isidore Lebour, 87, both of Lowell; Kenneth Drew, 60, of Lynn, and Samuel Weiser, 58, of Malden.

Multitude Of Argentines Pay Homage At Pier Of Eva Peron

BUENOS AIRES—(AP)—Eight persons were reported dead in the crush Monday as thousands crowded up to pay last homage to Eva Peron.

The mournful viewing of the body was accompanied by an unexpected tragedy. Gen. Juan Esteban Vacca, director of the Army's Superior School, suffered a heart attack while visiting the pier last night. He died shortly after.

Temporary interment, at her own request, will be in the hall of the 6,000-member General Labor Confederation (CGT). She was the unofficial head of the CGT, and her following among its members made her the nation's most potent political force after Peron himself.

★ Daddy Ringtail ★

Daddy Ringtail And Pinky Elephant

There was once an elephant-people boy whose name was Pinky. He wore an elephant suit all over. The elephant suit was pink so it would be like Pinky's name, and right in the middle of his head he wore a very little hat of a checker-board color all black and white. Oh, Pinky was quite a fellow. I can tell you, and I do tell you. He lived in the very same forest where Daddy Ringtail, your monkey friend, has all his happy adventures.

Yes, and one day an adventure began to happen to Pinky. But his adventure was not happy at all. Pinky met up with Huffy Tuffy, the monkey boy. Now Huffy Tuffy, in case you don't know, is always the huffiest, and the tuffiest, somebody in the whole forest. He says himself that it's true. But Pinky was the jolliest, and the happiest (and the pinkest, of course) little elephant-people there ever was.

"Happy day there, monkey boy," said Pinky to Huffy Tuffy, and Pinky wagged his tail to pretend he was a friendly elephant all to show that a very friendly, little pink elephant is who he really was.

Huffy Tuffy said not a word. He kicked Pinky on the leg, all for the fun of hearing the "Ouch!" that Pinky would say.

Yes, and Pinky said it. "Ouch!" said Pinky, and he looked at the dirt on his elephant suit where Huffy had kicked him on the leg. Tears came into his eyes because of the hurt and dirt, but did Pinky try to fight back? No sir, he didn't. His mother always had said that a little dirt on an elephant suit should never be enough cause for a fight.

"Ah!" said Huffy Tuffy. "So you don't want to fight, huh?" And with those words, Huffy knocked the checkerboard hat from the top of Pinky's head. The hat rolled on the ground in the dirt. Pinky saw it. He saw the dirt. He remembered how he was the only pink elephant in all the world with a checkerboard hat, and now the hat was dirty. Ah me, there was only one thing to do. Pinky did it. He turned Huffy's nose his knee and walked him good with a pinky trunk. "Ouch! Help! Don't!" shouted Huffy, but he go, the very good walking he ought to have had, and this will show you, I think, how people ought to behave themselves all the time, and never, never knock down a checkerboard hat from the head of an elephant who is pink. Happy day! (Copyright 1952, General Features Corp.)

Tribe, Braves To Meet Here Monday; Haney Makes Debut

Nicolls To Draw Mound Assignment

In what will be their first game under new Manager Jay Haney, the Midland Indians Monday entertain the Sweetwater Braves in the first game of a two-game series, starting at 8:15 p.m.

Haney replaced Zeks Bonura, who was fired as manager of the Tribe Saturday night following the twin bill with the Vernon Dusters here.

The Braves also will be sporting a new manager. He is John Morris, who last week replaced Alex Carasquel as Sweetwater pilot.

The new Midland mentor is expected to call on right-hander Keith Nicolls (17-7) for the mound chores Monday night.

Haney has announced no change in the Midland lineup and is expected to go along with the same team which started against Vernon Saturday night until he has had a chance to observe them further.

The New Midland pilot is not on the active player roster yet but he said Saturday, "If, after observing the team I feel that I can be useful to the squad, I'll get myself placed on active status."

Haney matched the All-Star game at San Angelo Friday night and was in the stands when the Tribe played Vernon Saturday night.

Following the two-game series with the Sweetwater Braves here, the Indians will hit the road for four games, playing Artesia and Brevard, N. M.

Dawson Beats Reed, 1-Up In 40 Holes, For Broadmoor Title

COLORADO SPRINGS, COLO.—Johnny Dawson, a veteran golfer from Palm Springs, Calif., is the Broadmoor Invitational tournament champion, but he had to win his title the hard way.

He was forced to go 40 holes—four beyond the regulation distance—Sunday to defeat youthful Buster Reed, North Texas State collegian, 1-up. It was the longest title encounter in the 32-year history of the tournament and was witnessed by about 2,000 spectators.

The victory brought Dawson his first Broadmoor title. He had not played the course for six years until he came here for the tourney.

Dawson had to come from behind to win the match. With only four holes to play in the regulation 36-hole match, he was three down. But he fired two birdies and a par to win the thirty-second, thirty-fourth and thirty-fifth holes. Both linksmen parred the final hole.

Reed, a member of the National Collegiate Athletic Association championship golf team, made good recoveries to prolong the deadlock.

Reed's drive on the fortieth hole landed in a hollow about 150 yards off the green and he topped two approach shots.

Dawson was down the middle with his drive, got on the green with his second shot and closed out the battle by sinking his second putt.

Fort Worth Moves To Top Spot In Hot Texas League Race

By The Associated Press
The fight for the Texas League lead is so close you have to examine the standings with a microscope to see who's on top.

In five nights the lead has changed hands four times.

Monday, Fort Worth is No. 1 but is only four points ahead of Dallas and nine ahead of Shreveport.

Dallas lost the lead by splitting a doubleheader with Beaumont while Fort Worth was cooling off the hot Shreveport Sports, 9-2.

John Gray set Dallas down with three hits as Beaumont won the first game, 5-0. In the nightcap, Dave Hoskins fashioned a four-hit-ter and Dallas came through, 2-1.

Oklahoma City gained a game, moving two ahead of fifth-place San Antonio, by licking Houston, 11-9 and 7-2.

Tulsa downed San Antonio, 8-6, relieving two runs in the eighth.

SMU Golfer Grows Public Links Crown
BEAUMONT—Ray Moore, high ranking SMU golfer, annexed the Texas State Public Links championship Sunday by defeating a hometown rival, Dick Goerlich, 1-up in their 36-hole match.

Rocky, Matthews Toe Line Monday

By JACK HAND
NEW YORK—(AP)—Sluggier Rocky Marciano and Boxer Harry Matthews risk their careers in one daring gamble Monday night for a September shot at the world's heavyweight title. Marciano is a two to one favorite.

Scouting from a ringside pew at Yankee Stadium will be Jersey Joe Walcott, the 36-year-old champ, who has agreed to meet the winner in the fall.

Forecasters of fair, warm weather were counted on to bring a last minute surge to the box office. The International Boxing Club expects to draw more than 25,000 fans and $250,000 for the show.

There will be no radio, television or theater television of this 10-round, elimination bout, scheduled at 8 p.m. (CST). In the event of rain, it will be pushed back to Tuesday night as a conflict with a baseball game has been cleared up by a mutual agreement.

For Marciano, unbeaten in 41 pro fights, and Matthews, who hasn't lost in 70 starts since 1943, this will be the real crossover. After Monday night, it's on toward the title or back to the clubs in Providence or Omaha.

Marciano, a swarthy 27-year-old from the shootover of Brockton, Mass., is a crunching puncher who fights out of a crouch. A left hook to the body and a long overhand right to the head are his best weapons. Rough and hard to handle, he is built like a wrestler with strong, solid legs and short brawny arms.

Matthews, 29, is a classic stylist with 105 pro fights. A fine boxer with long arms and quick hands, he is a fine counter puncher specializing in short sharp jolts to the body. The pride of the Great Northwest and his home town of Seattle, Matthews scored toward the top under the guidance of Manager Jack Hurley. In one New York appearance against Irish Bob Murphy, Matthews made a lasting impression.

The price fluctuated a bit from two to one up as far as 13 to five over the weekend but is due to steady around two to one.

Because I have seen Marciano do more things than Matthews, because I think his strength and punching power will prove decisive, the pick here is Marciano in a knockout in five rounds.

Hurley expected to bring Matthews into the ring at 182 and Marciano was due to weigh about 187.

Mohday's night games here will reflect that altitude when Humble attempts to clinch third place in a game with eighth-place Continental, the opening hit of a twin bill at Wadley Park, starting at 7:45 p.m.

Hurling for Humble in the last game of regular season play will be Benny Mighthower (2-4), while Bo Wise (1-8) will pitch for Continental.

In the nightcap, Rendezvous will contest American Legion. Rendezvous must win Monday night's game or risk being tied for fourth place in the standings with Phillips. In the event the latter two teams tie, following regular season play, they would stage a one-game, "sudden-death" playoff to determine who would enter the playoff series.

Serving on the mound for Rendezvous Monday night will be Jack Smith (6-4), while Dan Green (1-4) will toss the rubber for American Legion. Green defeated the Rendezvous line in the last time the two teams met.

Saturday night action in the Jay-Cee Loop saw Western Plastic trim Rendezvous, 7-4, behind the four-hit pitching of Jack Dunlap. Wildness on the part of Rendezvous hurler, Jack Smith, cost him the ball game. He walked six men.

Dallas Pro Gridders Get Down To Work
KERRVILLE—The first contingent of pro football Dallas Texans whipped into initial workouts Monday at Schneider Institute.

Oilers Swat Drillers By 20-5 Count

ARTESIA—(AP)—Unleashing a 21-hit attack, the Odessa Oilers mauled the Artesia Drillers, 20-5, here Sunday night to achieve a split in their two-game set with the Drillers.

Head Diappa provided the winners with their big blast, a ninth-inning grand slam home run. He also notched two singles in his night's work. Other hitting stars for Odessa in the massacre here Lefty Loyko and Felix Castro, each with four.

Castro's first hit of the night, a two-run homer in the second inning, gave the Oilers their initial scores. Curt Schmitts punched out a two-run single in the fourth as Odessa overcame a 2-3 Artesia lead.

Then the rampaging Oilers ripped away at Frank Fernandez, Artesia starter and loser, and Bob Pressley for six hits and three walks as they broke the game wide open in the fifth inning with a six-run avalanche.

Continuing to nip away at the offerings of Driller hurling, Odessa picked up four runs on four hits and a walk in the sixth.

Diappa's four-run homer highlighted the victors' six-run ninth inning.

The Drillers jumped to a momentary lead in the second inning on Bill Haley's two-run single and a run-producing single by Paul Halter. That game then a 2-3 margin that soon faded before the lethal Oiler bats.

Evellio Ortega went the distance in taking the easy win. He gave up 11 hits.

The score:
Odessa 20 364 006—30 21 1
Artesia 5 001 100—5 11 3
Ortega and Castro; Fernandez, Pressley and Briner.

Broncs Kick Rockets, 6-3

BIG SPRING—(AP)—Gil Guerra rode out one storm after another to notch his sixteenth mound triumph of the season as the Big Spring Broncs defeated Roswell, 6-3, here Sunday afternoon.

The victory enabled the Steeds to split the two-game series with the Rockets, who won behind the fifth elbowing of Danny Parra Saturday night.

Guerra, in completing his seventeenth game of the season, escaped trouble in only two innings but had the stuff in the clutch.

He struck out Al Monchak with two runners on in the fifth, at a time the Rockets had pulled to within three tallies of Big Spring and seemingly had Guerra on the ropes. In all, he fanned eight batters, bringing his season's aggregate in that department to 188.

The Broncs went out in front in the second when Buddy Grimes delivered a two-run single off Gary Young, the starter and loser.

The Steeds padded that lead in the third when they coupled two bases on balls with four hits, including a two-run two-baser by Juan Visteur, for four tallies.

Roswell got going in the fifth when Young crossed the plate on Stubby Green's single and Bobby West, who had walked, came in on a boot by Caste Alvarez on Wayne Crawford's ground ball.

The visitors added another in the sixth when Frank Calo accepted free transportation to first, moved to third on a hit by Van Huppert and came in on a long fly by Bobby Lemmel.

The score:
Roswell 6 000 021 000—3 7 1
Big Spring 3 024 000 009—6 9 2
Young, Peterson and Calo; Guerra and Valdes.

Clovis Cools Off Red-Hot Amarillo In WT-NM League

By The Associated Press
It took the Clovis Pioneers to cool off Amarillo's hot Gold Sox in the West Texas-New Mexico League.

Amarillo was pushing along beating everybody until it ran into the league leaders. Clovis proceeded to stop the Sox three straight times and as a result Amarillo fell into the second division.

Sunday, Clovis trimmed Amarillo twice, taking the first game, 6-1, and the second, 7-1.

Lamesa slipped past Amarillo into fourth place without playing a lick. The Pampa-Lamesa game was postponed.

Burger whipped second-place Albuquerque, 7-4, although outhit, 14-10.

Ray Machado pitched shutout ball from the second inning on as Lubbock beat Abilene, 9-4, and moved into a tie with Albuquerque for second place.

Abilene Horse Wins Colorado Day 'Cap
RATON, N. M.—(AP)—Colorado horses won four other races but let a Texas entry take the Colorado Day handicap at Raton's La Mesa Park Sunday.

Clay Wright, owned by L. L. Huddleston of Abilene, captured the seven and one-half-furlong handicap, feature of a 13-race program.

Olympic Spotlight Shifts To Tankmen

HELSINKI—(AP)—Japan's swimmers, who performed so sensationally in the 1936 Olympic games, resumed their place in the Olympic spotlight Monday, taking over the record-breaking roles that American track and field stars relinquished.

The Japanese 500-meter freestyle team smashed the third Olympic swimming record in three days of competition in the Olympic pool by winning its qualifying heat in eight minutes, 42.1 seconds. This broke the mark of 8:46 established by the United States team in 1948 and carried out the pattern of record-wrecking that has marked every day of the 1952 Olympic games.

The youthful Japanese team was composed of Yoshihiro Hamaguchi, Hiroshi Samki, Toru Goto and Tei-giro Tanikawa.

Two Records Fall
The United States team also qualified comfortably for Tuesday's final along with Sweden, Hungary, South Africa, Argentina, France and Great Britain.

Other Olympic swimming records broken so far are the men's 100 meters free style, in which Clark Scholes of Highland Park, Mich., was timed in 87.1 seconds in a heat enroute to winning the first tank championship of America, and the women's 300 meters breast stroke.

Two Hungarian women, Eva Szekeley and Eva Novak, have turned in Olympic record times of 2:54 in trials. The final is scheduled Tuesday.

Otherwise it was a quiet morning on the Olympic front.

Track and field competition—always the showpiece of the Olympic games—ended record-breaking run Sunday. Twenty-seven new Olympic marks were stamped into the record books. Nine world records were beaten.

On the first day of the track and field competition he set an Olympic record for the 10,000-meter run, his favorite distance. He came back four days later to win the 5,000 meters in record time, although he claims the three-mile race is too short to please him. Sunday, he had his first try at the marathon—a triple no other Olympic runner ever attempted.

Zatopek dodged Jim Peters of England for the first 30 kilometers, then took the lead. He kept it all the way home to set still another Olympic record of two hours, 23 minutes 32 seconds. This cut more than six minutes off the old mark.

In the unofficial team point standings, Russia continues to hold a substantial lead. The Soviet Union has 496 1/2 points to the United States' 376. Then comes Hungary, 184, Sweden, 150, and Germany, 104. These are the only countries with marathon 100 points.

SPORTS NOTES

BENCH JOCKEY
By BOB ADAMS

Ray Protzman, president of the Midland Pony League, and those persons who helped him this season, are to be commended on the very good job they did in organizing the Pony League in Midland for the first time.

And the fact that the Midland Pony Leaguers earned the right to play in the state tournament Saturday is a further tribute to the accomplishment.

Those youngsters whom we saw perform in the district playoff against Odessa appeared to be well versed in the fundamentals of baseball. They are managed by Bill Nutto and Boyd Crain.

The single game which was played at Borden Field here Friday went off without a hitch. The grounds were in excellent shape for the tilt.

Credit for getting the diamond in shape and laying out the batters box and base paths with lime was the work of Larry Allemen, grounds keeper for the Midland Indians.

Swell job, Larry.

While we're passing out bouquets, we would like to pass one along to John Redfern, commissioner of Junior Baseball in Midland. To Redfern should go the major part of the credit for the force behind the Little League movement here.

John is a tireless and conscientious worker and few people realize the amount of time he devotes toward the Little League program.

The benefit softball games which were held for Don Harrison here Friday night at Wadley Park proved to be a bit of a disappointment—financially, that is.

With the collection taken up among Shell employees, plus the contributions handed in at Friday night's game, only $120 was raised.

Of course, the softball twin bill Friday night was receiving lots of competition, a factor which no doubt held down the size of the crowd. The District TAAF Boxing Tournament was being held in Odessa, the All-Star game was on in San Angelo, and the Democratic convention was in high gear.

The money will be sent to Harrison at the hospital in Kerrville, where he is being treated for his tubercular condition.

Secrets have a way of leaking out. Take the dismissal of Indian Manager Zeks Bonura for example. The Midland Indian board of directors met last Thursday and voted to give Zeks the boot.

Shantz Registers No. 18 For Season

By JOE REICHLER
Associated Press Sports Writer
This is a tale of two southpaws. One leads the National League pitchers. The other leads the American League pitchers.

One is tall, lanky and clever. He is Preacher Roe. The other is short, slight and also very clever. He is Bobby Shantz.

Roe has not lost a single game all year. As a matter of fact, Roe has not dropped a decision since Sept. 27, 1951. On the other hand, Shantz has lost three games. His most recent defeat was on July 6. Roe has won seven straight, Shantz only four.

Offhand, one would opine that both Roe and Shantz are quite the goods out there on the mound. But this Preacher—he must be something special. Now read on.

Roe's record with the first place club is 7-0. He has made 17 starts and finished only six. Three times he's failed to last the first inning. Twice he got only one man out. Eleven times he was either kayped or yanked for a pinch hitter, but always he was saved from defeat by a Dodger rally. His last victory was June 24. Since then, he has started five times but was not concerned with the decision.

Shantz' record is 18-3. He has made 21 starts and finished 19 of them. Once he lasted five innings and once he lasted four. He lost both decisions—to the world champion New York Yankees. His other defeat was a 2-1 setback by the second place Cleveland Indians.

Roe and Shantz pitched Sunday. The 34-year-old Preacher took an early shower in the sixth inning with Brooklyn trailing the St. Louis Cardinals, 3-2. The Dodgers tied the score at 3-3 but the Cards tallied in the ninth to win their third straight from the 'Brooks, 4-3.

Johnny Rutherford was tagged with the defeat.

Shantz, the 26-year-oldster from Potomac, Pa., turned in a five-hit performance, going all the way to defeat the Chicago White Sox, 3-1 in the first game of a doubleheader. The Athletics also won the second, 9-3.

Good Day For Southpaws
Sunday was quite a day for southpaws. Harry (The Cat) Brechen was awarded the victory over Brooklyn, his first over the Dodgers since July 29, 1948.

Harry Perkowski snapped New York's five-game winning streak, pitching the Cincinnati Reds to an Philadelphia 4-4 triumph over the Giants. The second game was postponed by rain, leaving the Giants still four and a half games behind the Dodgers.

Billy Hoelt, 20-year-old Detroit left-hander, handed the Yankees their fifth straight loss, pitching the Tigers to an 8-3 triumph. The Yankees snapped their losing string, longest under Manager Casey Stengel, when rookie Southpaw Bill Miller shut out the Tigers, 6-0, in the second game.

Other left-handers to shine were Alex Kellner, who hurled the Athletics' second game win over the White Sox and Gene Bearden, who pitched the St. Louis Browns to their third straight win over the Boston Red Sox, 8-1. The Red Sox, with Manager Lou Boudreau appearing in the lineup for the first time this year, took the second game of the twin bill, 9-3.

Cleveland used right-handers exclusively to sweep a pair from Washington, 3-1 and 3-2, and climb into second place in the American League, three and a half games behind the Yankees. Boston dropped to third and Washington fourth.

Philadelphia's Phillies swept a twin bill from Chicago, 12-8 and 3-0, to wrest fourth place from the Cubs.

Vern Bickford won his fifth straight as the Boston Braves defeated Pittsburgh, 5-2, in the first game of a doubleheader. The second game was called after 11 innings because of darkness.

The sugar in honey is largely levulose, also called fructose.

Edwards Wins Golf Crown In Annual Texon Tournament

TEXON—Aubrey Edwards of Big Lake Sunday captured the championship of the 20th annual Texon Invitational Golf Tournament. He defeated Troy White of Big Lake, a former tournament champion, 1-up, in a hotly contested foursome final with Neal Scooners of Iran and Joe Johnston of Big Lake.

Eddie McMillan, Jr., of Texon won the championship consolation, coasting by Rastus Morris of Texon, 1-up.

Eddie McMillan, Sr., of Monahans downed Bobby Mac Varnadore of Texon, 1-up, in the first flight championship play.

W. C. Putnam of McCamey won the first flight consolation by turning back C. S. Woods, of Iran, 2 and 1.

Billy Keene of the Texon annexed the second flight crown by beating R. E. Simon of Iran, 4 and 3. Guy Sisco of Denver City was eliminated by Berry Mansell of Rankin, 2-up, in the third flight finale.

County Delegates Will Try To Heal Split Of Democrats

By DAVE CHEAVENS
AUSTIN—(P)—Some Texas "Regular" Democrats seem confused at this point on how far they should go—in boosting the national party's ticket of Adlai Stevenson and John Sparkman.

This uncertainty was evident in reports received from precinct conventions over the state Saturday. It ought to be cleared up considerably before next Saturday, when the county conventions will be held. By that time, Governor Shivers no doubt will have passed the word along on what he wants done.

A cynic approaching the cold shoulder toward the national ticket was expressed by many members of the Shivers delegation returning from Chicago. Final selection of Stevenson and Sparkman came so late in the week that many local Shivers' leaders either hadn't figured out or been tipped off on what to do.

Shivers is silent. Shivers himself was non-committal. He said he thought the Illinois governor would make a strong candidate. Shivers also said he would abide by his promise to see '56 to the Stevenson-Sparkman combination.

Generals To Handle Grow Court Martial

FT. MEADE, MD.—(P)—Seven major generals will sit in court martial Monday to hear charges that a man of their own rank, Maj. Gen. Robert W. Grow, was careless with secret military information.

The charges against the former military attaché to Moscow are that he made personal notes on subjects of a classified nature, then was careless enough to let the Russians steal them.

The Soviets had a propaganda field day with what they said were excerpts from Grow's diary. The material attributed to Grow indicated its author urged immediate all-out war against Russia. Conviction carries a possible five years confinement, forfeiture of pay and dismissal from the service.

tion would get on the ticket in November. That was all. All along the Texas governor has said he would come back from Chicago and report to the homefolks. That report is expected about mid-week. It should clarify things considerably before the county conventions.

The anti-Shivers "Loyalty" organization was already at work beating the drums for Stevenson and Sparkman. Maury Maverick started the ball rolling when the first Stevenson-for-President Clubs at San Antonio. Plans were to extend this all over the state.

Some Shivers precinct conventions adopted resolutions praising the national party's ticket, others laid such resolutions on the table. Precincts controlled by Loyals approved pro-Stevenson statements. Shivers headquarters here was sure of one thing: The governor controlled in the majority of precincts Saturday and will have majorities in most county conventions. That should give the regulars a firm hand on the wheel at the state convention in September.

This ultra-conservative wing of the Shivers organization and of the delegation at Chicago was most unhappy over Stevenson's nomination. They look on him as just another New Dealer.

The delegation itself stuck with Richard Russell on all three ballots, also indicating outright displeasure with Stevenson.

Shivers stopped here briefly Saturday without saying anything to clarify his view of Stevenson. He said he would be back in his office about mid-week, and it was expected a statement would be forthcoming.

One other thing was sure: Shivers and his people felt they stood on firmer ground than ever in view of his clear-cut victory in the governor's race over Ralph Yarborough. The Loyalist element had gone all-out in support of Yarborough.

Yarborough, in conceding Shivers' victory, issued a statement saying he belonged to no faction or clique of Texas Democrats. He said his goal was to unite all factions, and that he hoped to see the day when all factionalism would be laid aside.

Shivers had called Yarborough the candidate of his Loyalist opponents. While Shivers received a decisive majority in defeating Yarborough, the strong party-line Democrats who are fighting him haven't given up. The outlook continues to be for more Democratic turbulence in Texas.

Sparkman Believes South Will Remain Inside Party Fold

CHICAGO—(P)—Senator John J. Sparkman of Alabama, Democratic vice presidential nominee, said Sunday he thinks the South will stick together and stick to the Democratic Party this fall.

He said he is ready to go anywhere in the nation, the North included, and speak to any crowd, on the subject of the platform stand the Democratic Party took on civil rights.

He said this on the CBS television program "Man of the Week" in response to a query whether he would reply to a statement by Senator Lehman (D-Lib-N.Y.). The statement, as reported on the program, was that Sparkman should explain his civil rights views to Northern liberals.

"I think I can assure Democrats in all parts of the country that they should remain in the Democratic Party fold," Sparkman said, adding that he was ready to give the assurance anywhere. He emphasized that the Democratic platform, which he helped write, mentions dual state and federal responsibility in enforcing constitutional guarantees.

Sparkman said he had never felt bound by labels such as Fair Deal or New Deal, and that he was a "No Deal" man. He said he always had voted, during 26 years in Congress, according to his conscience, and that this had led him at times to vote with the opposition.

He said "I believe the South will unite and present a united front, this fall" in the national elections.
