

More Pay Found In Devonian At Andrews Wildcat

The Texas Company has found more possible pay section in the Devonian at its No. 1-AB State of Texas, indicated discovery from that formation in Northeast Andrews County.

Last drillstem test was taken in the interval from 12,633 to 12,648 feet. Tool was open two and one-half hours. There was good flow of air throughout the test. Recovery was the 2,000-foot water blanket and 4,324 feet of free oil. There was no formation water.

Open flowing bottomhole pressure ranged from 1,015 to 2,515 pounds. No buildup pressure was recorded.

The project now is at total depth of 12,878 feet, taking another drillstem test.

Location is 600 feet from west and 1,900 feet from south lines of section 23, block 3, University land survey. It is three miles due west of Texas-1-S State, recently completed as a Devonian discovery.

Humble Swabbing Some Free Oil At Tom Green Yester

Humble Oil & Refining Company is swabbing some free oil from the Paleozoic-Pennsylvanian line at its No. 1 Green T. McEwen, Central Tom Green County, Texas, less than one mile north of the north city limits of San Angelo.

The oil is coming from perforated section at 4,808-24 feet. That interval had been washed with 900 gallons of mud acid.

After operator had swabbed out most of the acid load and residue the section was swabbing at the rate of two barrels of fluid per hour. No water.

Of that two barrels 63 per cent was new oil and 35 per cent was acid residue. There were no signs of formation water.

Swabbing is to continue until the section was thoroughly cleaned of acid residue and then another injection was to be given to the pay zone.

This possible new field opener is 2,500 feet from east and 1,000 feet from south lines of section 175, WCRB survey.

It had drilled to a bottom of 6,360 feet in barren Ellenburger. Operator had plugged back to 5,920 feet and had cemented 5 1/2-inch casing at that point.

The Strawn lime zones were tested through perforations all the way up through that formation. Each Strawn zone tested developed water with slight shows of oil and gas.

All the section below 4,824 feet is now squeezed off with cement. Operator is expected to complete the wildcat in a few days from the zone at 4,808-24 feet. That is the best show for production logged in the exploration.

Marlowe Is To Drill Clear Fork Wildcat At C-E Yoakum Site

Marlowe Oil Company of Midland is to start operations at once at its No. 1 More estate, which is to be a 7,500-foot wildcat in Central-East Yoakum County.

It is to be 600 feet from north and east lines of section 486, block D, John H. Gibson survey. That makes it six miles east of the town of Plains.

The prospector will be one and one-half miles west of the north side of the Ownby field, which produces from the San Andres-Permian above 5,350 feet.

The projected designation of Marlowe No. 1 More of 7,500 feet is calculated to take it into the Clear Fork-Permian line.

Mason In Loving Extended South By Hanlon-Boyle

Hanlon-Boyle, Inc. of Tulsa has extended the production area of the Mason field of Northwest Loving County one-quarter mile to the south and staked location for another south extension try.

The completed well is the concern's No. 1-D TXL, 330 feet from west and 900 feet from south lines of section 21, block 55, T-1, T&P survey.

It was finished for a 24-hour flowing potential of 117.62 barrels of 41.1-gravity oil plus 144 per cent water. Production was from open hole at 3,960-3,968 feet. Gas-oil ratio was too small to measure. Tubing pressure was 128 pounds. Pay was fractured with 1,500 gallons.

The stepout venture is No. 1 Mrs. Ed Kyle, 330 feet from north and west lines of section 28, block 55, (Continued On Page 10)

25 Persons Face Jury Indictments

Indictments ranging from murder to forgery were returned late Thursday against 25 persons after two days of deliberations by a Midland County Grand Jury.

The true bills were handed shortly after 8 p.m. to Judge R. W. (Bob) Hamilton in 70th District Court and the grand jury was recessed until further call.

MALIK STEALS HARRY'S WORD

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. — (AP)—Rasala's Jacob A. Malik Friday introduced President Truman's word "snollygoster" into the UN.

In a speech before the Security Council, the Soviet delegate threw the American slang word into a Russian-language attack on American political leaders.

"These are the snollygosters," he said. "The hypocrites who try to use everything to their own end."

Truman used the word "snollygoster" during a recent whistle stop speech, in referring to supporters of Senator Robert A. Taft (R-Ohio).

District Attorney Enters Hospital

Hart Johnson of Fort Stockton, district attorney, was admitted at 2:25 p.m. Thursday to Midland Memorial Hospital for treatment of a heart ailment.

Attaches said Friday that his condition was "good."

Mother Held After Autopsy Shows Tot Died By Starving

AMITE, LA.—(AP)—Authorities in two states sought to determine Friday whether a five-year-old girl was dead or alive when placed on a Louisiana-bound train in Chicago.

The girl's mother, identified by Sheriff Tom Sanders as Mrs. Ann McSherry, 34, insisted little Ann Teresa was alive when she left Chicago early Tuesday.

At Chicago, Lt. John Golden, head of the Chicago Homicide Bureau, said there was no doubt that the child was dead before the trip began.

"In 30 years of police work," Golden added, "I never ran across anything even similar to this case."

Sheriff Sanders said Mrs. Snee, an attractive brunette, and her mother, Mrs. Arthur McSherry, both of Chicago, were held in the parish jail of this little Southeastern Louisiana farm town without charge pending an investigation.

Sanders said Chicago authorities also asked that the two women be held.

Both women were arrested at Hammond, 30 miles south of here, where the girl was interred after funeral services late Thursday. Hammond is 40 miles east of Baton Rouge, the state capital.

Sheriff Sanders said that when the mother and grandmother arrived at Hammond Tuesday, they immediately took the child, wrapped in a bundle like a small infant, to a funeral home.

No Death Certificate
When the funeral home learned that the mother could not produce a death certificate, it notified Sanders who ordered the body sent to New Orleans for an autopsy.

Council, Air Force Reach Final Accord

Midland was ready Friday for the roar of engines and the flash of Air Force wings over its Airpark.

The City Council Thursday afternoon put its stamp of approval on an agreement providing for the joint use of the airport north of the city and for a sharing of the expense of maintaining the facility.

And, at Big Springs, Col. E. F. Waskwitz, commanding officer of the Webb Air Force Base, said Air Force operations on a full-scale basis will be underway within 60 days.

Long Battle Ended
Beginning of operations, he said, necessarily will await completion of a minor maintenance program being developed by the city and Air Force authorities.

Colonel Waskwitz expressed pleasure at the action of the council, which marked the end of a month-long battle over the Air Force's proposed use of Airpark as an auxiliary landing field.

City Manager W. H. Oswalt outlined before the council the provisions of the agreement, under which the Air Force will pay its share, based on the ratio of the weights of its planes to those of civilian planes using the field, of the maintenance expense.

Oswalt said that, on a conservative estimate, the Air Force thus would pay 80 per cent of the maintenance costs.

In addition, the city will receive its three-cent-a-gallon tax on all gasoline used by the 30 planes which will be based here.

Three More MIG's Tumbled From Skies

SEOUL, KOREA.—(AP)—Some 20 swift UN Sabre jets Friday shot down three Communist MIG's, probably destroyed one and damaged three, the U. S. Fifth Air Force said.

That raised the two-day toll to 16 MIG's destroyed, one probably, and six damaged.

Allied losses, if any, will be reported in a weekend summary.

The U. S. fliers Friday engaged the Russian-built MIG's in seven dogfights over North Korea.

Other UN warplanes plastered a North Korean mining center and supply dumps.

UN infantrymen and artillery hurled back eight Chinese columns which staged desperate new assaults on blood-soaked bunker Hill in a flareup on the long-dormant Western Front.

U. S. Eighth Army staff officers estimated 400 Reds were killed or wounded in two hours of bitter pre-dawn fighting.

Shivers Reneges On 'Fishing' Plans

AUSTIN.—(AP)—Gov. Allan Shivers of Texas Friday took back his statement that he was "going fishing" and not vote in the November general election.

Shivers said he could not vote for Democratic Presidential Nominee Adlai Stevenson. He also said he was not going to vote the Republican ticket, but that he was going to vote.

Henry H. Fowler Is Designated New Mobilization Chief

WASHINGTON.—(AP)—President Truman Friday named Henry H. Fowler, Washington and Virginia attorney, as director of the Office of Defense Mobilization.

Fowler, now defense production administrator, thus moves up to the top job in the government's civilian agencies connected with the preparedness effort.

His new job formerly was held by Charles E. Wilson, one-time president of the General Electric Company. Wilson resigned last March 31 after a dispute with the Administration over methods of handling the steel strike.

John E. Steedman, presidential assistant, has been acting as the defense mobilizer since Wilson quit. Fowler will take over the post Monday.

Late Registrations Boost Enrollment

Late registrations pushed the total number of students in Midland Public Schools to 7,459 at the close of school Thursday, Supt. Frank Monroe announced Friday.

The total registrations Thursday represented an increase of 1,448 students in Midland schools, as compared with the same day last year, Monroe said.

The superintendent pointed out that despite increased enrollments, schools are not crowded. New classrooms have been occupied and the faculty increased since last school year.

★ LATE NEWS FLASHES ★

HARTFORD, CONN.—(AP)—The Connecticut Republican Convention Friday nominated Prescott Bush of Greenwich for the vacancy in the U. S. Senate created by the death of Democrat Brian McMahon.

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y.—(AP)—Russia's Jacob A. Malik, in an address before the UN General Assembly Friday, scoffed at the peace declarations of American presidential candidates and accused Dwight D. Eisenhower of planning aggression against the Soviet Union.

LONDON.—(AP)—The United States, Britain and France have drafted identical notes asking Russia to attend a Big Four parley in London soon in a new effort to restore the independence of Austria, official sources said Friday.

DALLAS.—(AP)—Tommy Yates found a new playmate, a new home and a new family Friday and it was love at first sight all the way around.

Nurses at Baylor Hospital, where Tommy has been since Christmas Eve when he was beaten unconscious by his mother, were anticipating a scene when the four-year-old had to leave. But the bright-eyed little boy fooled them all.

When O. D. Frost, operator of the Sunshine Home in Vernon, and B. J. Woodington, Wilbarger County welfare officer, appeared at the fourth floor desk to drive Tommy to his new, if temporary, home, the little boy was all smiles.

He grinned and laughed, all the way to the waiting car.

Tommy's mother is serving a 10-year prison sentence for the holiday beating which damaged the youngster's brain so his entire right side was paralyzed. The little boy, when admitted to Baylor, was covered with bruises, was thin and could not talk.

Tommy today is a far cry from that very sick little boy. Although his right leg is in a steel brace and his conversation still is limited to a very few words, he is the picture of a bouncy, healthy little brown-haired boy.

His white boxer shorts were starched stiffly and he wore a red and white striped T-shirt.

No one told him he was leaving the hospital for good, but all the nurses, the elevator girls and janitors called a cheerful "goodbye" to the unfortunate little boy who virtually had adopted.

Frost, who in addition to operating the home is a candy salesman, carried Tommy down to the car where a motherly Mrs. Frost and their adopted son, Larry, six, waited.

Larry was the second child ever to enter the Vernon Sunshine Home. After he was there for awhile, Mrs. Frost couldn't bear to see him leave, so they adopted him.

The two little boys hit it off right from the beginning. Larry took Tommy's hand protectively and the latter grinned and put his arm around Larry.

Then Frost picked Tommy up in his arms and walked over to the waiting car where nurses were loading a huge box of clothes and toys. The box contains Tommy's only possessions, gifts from folks who read about the little boy who was so badly beaten.

What happens to Tommy now? It's not definite. Tommy is a ward of the state and under the jurisdiction of the Wilbarger County Welfare Department. It's up to District Judge Jesse Owens of Vernon to decide whether the child can be adopted.

"Christmas in Vernon" In the meantime, the crippled children's division of the State Health Department will bring Tommy back to Dallas for checkups.

The money donated by sympathetic folks, totaling $1,800, virtually is gone. Baylor doctors donated all their services and the hospital itself absorbed a great deal of the youngster's expenses.

One thing is certain, however, Tommy is going to have his Christmas, even if it's a belated one.

"Just before we left," Mrs. Frost said, "a man told me we're going to give Tommy a Christmas he'll never forget."

Then the car drove off with Tommy's hospital staff waving goodbye to a happily smiling little boy.

Tommy Yates was headed home.

Son Born To Actress, Oil Man Jack Wrather

SANTA MONICA, CALIF.—(AP)—Actress Bonita Granville gave birth to a seven-pound, seven-ounce son at St. John's Hospital Thursday night.

She and her husband, millionaire Texas oil man Jack Wrather, have one other child, a daughter, three. The couple was married in 1947.

Daily Mail Service Slated For South Oil Field Areas

Mail service for hundreds of residents in the oil field areas south of Midland will begin operation September 16, Postmaster N. G. Oates announced Friday.

Oates said he had been informed that on that date post offices will begin operation at Spraberry and at Midkiff, formerly known as Hadaoui, and star route delivery service out of the Midland Post Office will begin operation in that area.

"Persons living along the route," said Oates, "need to put up a mailbox to get daily delivery service out of Midland six days a week."

The star route carrier, he said, will leave Midland at 9 a.m. daily and will follow this route: Midland to Spraberry on Garden City Highway, then to Tex Harvey gasoline plant, to Driver Corner, to Sohio Camp, to Digby Corner, to Sohio Camp, to Tidewater Camp, to Midkiff, to Humble Camp, to Scharff, Corner, to Midway on the Rankin Highway and back to Midland.

The carrier is scheduled to arrive at Spraberry at 9:25 a.m., at Midkiff at 12:25 p.m. and back in Midland at 2:30 p.m.

Persons installing mail boxes, with their names on them, should report to the "Registry" window in Midland's post office before September 16 to get address slips and change of address cards.

These will be left in the mailbox when the service is started and each boxholder will be assigned a box number by the mail carrier.

Money Ample, Right-Of-Way Being Bought

Midland County, after a moment of indecision, is moving right ahead with its plans for the construction of the Big Spring underpass and already has purchased almost one-half of the right-of-way.

"There is no longer any doubt about the plans for the underpass," said County Judge Clifford C. Keith, "for once we have purchased one piece of the right-of-way we are committed to purchase all of it."

Judge Keith said the county already had negotiated for 48 per cent of the right-of-way.

And, in spite of early fears that prices would skyrocket and hit the county's pocketbook a paralyzing blow, the values recommended originally by the county's appraiser have prevailed in the purchases already completed.

Bond Sales Set
Judge Keith announced Thursday that $350,000 of the outstanding $600,000 in road improvement bonds will be sold September 29, when bids will be opened.

"We still will save about $500,000 in bonds to pay the county's share of the actual construction of the underpass," he said.

State Highway Department officials said this week that plans for the underpass are nearing completion and, as soon as the right-of-way is turned over by the county, the project will be scheduled for an early letting of the contract.

For the project, the county needed to acquire a total of 830 running feet of right-of-way and 350 feet already has been acquired at a cost of $71,230.

Tidwell Tract Sells
This includes $24,200 for 100 feet from Luther Tidwell, $10,637 for 75 feet from Mrs. Alpha Lynn Tillman, $10,453 for 75 feet from Newell Farmer and $25,750 for 100 feet from L. C. Stephenson.

Negotiations for 280 additional feet are nearing the final stage and probably will be completed within the next few days.

At the same time the county sells the $350,000 in road improvement bonds, the Greenwood Consolidated Common School District will accept bids on $65,000 worth of bonds, the remainder of a $225,000 issue authorized at an election in April, 1951.

Combined Fleets Of Eight Nations Slate War Drills

OSLO, NORWAY.—(AP)—More than 100 Allied warships including eight big aircraft carriers begin maneuvers off Scandinavia next week, warning Russia that the West is ready to defend the seas even up to the Arctic Circle.

Officially known as "Operation Mainbrace," the 13-day war games will be one of the largest displays of Allied Naval might since World War II.

The ostensible purpose of the vast, eight-nation exercise is to give the participating navies an opportunity to cooperate in maneuvers with their North Atlantic Treaty partners.

Joe Dickerson, Oil Official, To Head '52 Chest Campaign

Joe Dickerson, vice president of the Shell Oil Company, was named general chairman of Midland's 1952 Community Chest finance campaign at a meeting of Chest directors Thursday afternoon.

F. R. Hargrove, Community Chest president, presided at the session, which was held in the directors' room of The Midland National Bank.

Chest officials expect to launch the annual finance drive early in October. Campaign headquarters will be located on the second floor of the Petroleum Building in space made available by Dickerson.

Dickerson is active in civic affairs here and is serving as membership chairman of the Midland Chamber of Commerce. He was active in Community Chest affairs in Houston before moving to Midland. He will appoint chairman of the various campaign committees within the next several days.

A special committee to review the budgets of participating agencies and to receive applications from other groups who would like to be included in the Community Chest, was named by Hargrove. Members of the committee are Don Oliver, chairman, Mrs. William Pomeroy, Miles Hall, A. H. Vineyard, Hartman McCall, Karl Nichols, Mrs. Ronald Jarrett and Euton Brown. Committee Meet, Slated

The panel will meet at 7:30 p.m. Wednesday on the twelfth floor of the Petroleum Building. Recommendations of the committee will be submitted to Chest directors at a later meeting.

Agencies now included in the Community Chest are the Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, Youth Center, Latin American Youth Center, Salvation Army, Colored Day Nursery and Goodfellow. Other organizations desiring membership are invited to submit applications to the special budget review and membership committee promptly.

John Reid was named a Community Chest director to fill out an unexpired term at Thursday's meeting of directors.

Children's Torch Death Ruled Accident

SAN ANTONIO—(AP)—An accidental death verdict returned Thursday in the fatal burning of two negro children brought the release of an 11-year-old boy.

The boy was taken into custody by juvenile authorities Wednesday for questioning in the deaths of Mary Louise Cunningham, 12, and her brother, Lindsey, eight.

The two children were burned to death in the attic of their home. A sister, Esther, 11, was burned critically when she tried to put out the blaze with a pan of water.

Justice of the Peace B. B. Brotherton returned the accidental death verdict. He and juvenile Detective Jack Jurney said two witnesses had changed their stories to say that they had not seen the 11-year-old boy toss kerosene on the children, and light it while they were in the attic.

ADLAI GETS NEW BROGANS

BROCKTON, MASS.—(AP)—The mayor of this famous shoe city doesn't like to see a fellow-Democrat going around with holes in his shoes, particularly when that man is a candidate for President.

Mayor C. Gerald Lucey saw The Associated Press Wirephoto of Gov. Adlai Stevenson on the speaker's platform at Flint, Mich., with a hole in the sole of his right shoe—so he sent him a new pair of shoes Thursday night.

"Brockton shoes are best for standing on a good Democratic platform," said Lucey's message accompanying the shoes.

Favor, Opposition Greet Continental Bid For Expansion

WASHINGTON—(AP)—Both support and opposition greeted Continental Airlines' bid to extend its system to the Fort Worth-Dallas area of Texas at a Civil Aeronautics Board hearing Thursday.

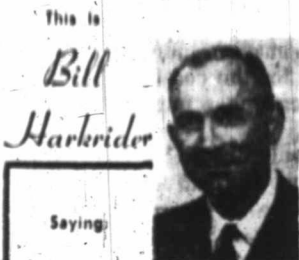

Chamber of Commerce officials from Wichita Falls, Wichita, Kan., and Albuquerque, N. M., urged approval of the application.

But Edward L. Colby of Lubbock voiced opposition.

Colby said the extension would create unjustified and detrimental competition to air carriers now serving his part of West Texas.

But Russell Willis of Wichita Falls claimed his city's rapid growth has upped the demand for air service to Fort Worth, Dallas and other cities now on Continental's route.

Sacked Gridders Disprove 'Athletic Bum' Accusations

(Editor's note: This is the third of seven Reporter-Telegram dispatches from NEA Staff Correspondent Murray Olderman on what has happened to 90 West Point cadets since their ignominious dismissal a year ago in the cribbing scandal.)

By MURRAY OLDERMAN

A West Point officer called the Army football players who were accused of cribbing "a bunch of athletic bums." Their records at civilian institutions hardly seem to bear him out.

Tramp athletes generally don't major in engineering, the toughest course of all to mix with collegiate football. Nine of the 17 who will play again this Fall are carrying full engineering programs. Only one—Bill Rosekamp of Missouri—is enrolled in the traditional physical education course most football players take.

And in his case it's legitimate. Bill wants to be a coach.

Men like Elmer Stout of Oklahoma A&M, J. D. Kimmel of Houston, Jim Peyton of West Virginia and Bob Haas are top-flight football players and competent engineering students at the same time.

Stout was a prominent pick for linebacker on the pre-season All-America team of 1951. The hard-hitting 188-pounder likely will see action as an offensive fullback, too, for the Aggies.

Why did he pick Oklahoma A&M? Stout's home is in South River, N. J., also the hometown of 1951

Cowpoke Fullback John Grabko, an outstanding student as well as football player.

Both Stout and Lew Ziegler, a West Point tackle who also will play regular at A&M, are the antithesis of athletic bums," say Aggie officials. "They're quiet, serious-minded youngsters."

They got in solid with their mates by serving as scrimmage fodder for last year's varsity.

Kimmel is an above-average mechanical engineering student at Houston. The six foot four, 230-pound defensive tackle, a regular at West Point and a potential All-America, is from nearby Tyler, Texas, and has a full athletic scholarship. He works part-time off campus as an electrician.

At West Virginia, they call stocky Jimmy Peyton, another "Bob Ward," (Maryland's '51 All-American guard). Coach Art Lewis says he will be one of the greatest in West

Water Must Come Ahead Of Industry, Geologist Advises

COLLEGE STATION—(AP)—A leading geologist Thursday advised Texas industrialists and community leaders they'd better solve their water problems before going after new industry.

Paul Weaver of Houston put this question before almost 100 delegates at the second annual Industrial Development Conference at Texas A&M College.

"Are you prepared for an industry that will increase your present consumption of water 18 or 20-fold, if we can't take care of the citizens now in a town, how can we hope to take care of the increased population coming in with an industry...?"

Gracie Allen Comes Through With One On Flying Saucer

HOLLYWOOD—Latest TV verse: If I die from a comic's joke, Just give me a simple burial, And kindly mark my grave With a half-mast TV serial.

Old, but worth reviving: A gentleman with a cocker spaniel on a leash went to a movie theater box office, purchased two tickets and then led the dog to a pair of aisle seats. The dog was a terrific audience—applauding, laughing and crying at just the right moments.

Fascinated, the theater manager whispered to the gent: "Do you mean to tell me your dog likes this movie?"

"Yes," said the hound's owner. "And I'm surprised—he didn't care for the book at all."

A new maid just hired by a movie king left him the following note: "Miss Anna Linn telephoned. It took the actor all that day to figure it out. He had received a call from his female psychoanalyst."

Gracie Allen held a flying saucer in her hand for 15 minutes on an air line and couldn't see anything to make such a fuss about. The coffee cup in the saucer was very ordinary, too, she said.

Somebody took a black crayon and changed the "Every Once an Actress" line in the theater posters for Marilyn Monroe's new starlet, "Don't Bother to Knock."

It now reads: "Every BOUNCE an Actress."

A brunet star who doesn't like Shelley Winters purred it when somebody mentioned at a party that Shelley was going to appear in a Hollywood stage production of "A Streetcar Named Desire": "The Marlon Brando part?"

Cunningham Rites Held In Abilene

Funeral services for W. J. Cunningham, 82, of Abilene, father of W. J. Cunningham, Jr., of Midland, were held at 8 p.m. Thursday at the First Baptist Church in Abilene. The Rev. W. C. Ashford, retired Baptist minister, officiated. He was assisted by Dr. James L. Sullivan, pastor of the First Baptist Church. Interment will be in the Odd Fellows Cemetery.

Cunningham died at 9:30 p.m. Wednesday in an Abilene hospital after an illness of more than two years.

He had served as state senator and had held the office of 42nd District Court attorney before elected justice at the peace in 1930. He had served as justice of the peace in Abilene until 1951.

Tejas Gardeners Make Plans For Year's Projects, Activities

Projects and plans for the year were discussed when the Tejas Garden Club held its initial Fall meeting Thursday morning in the home of Mrs. Frank Wood, 708 South L Street. Mrs. R. L. Spencer was co-hostess.

Mrs. D. E. Smith, program chairman, led a discussion of projects and it was voted to have each member purchase a pot plant to care for and study throughout the year.

Reporting from the Civic Committee, Mrs. J. L. Smith suggested that the money to be given for landscaping the Optimist Boys Club house be used, instead, for replacement of equipment lost during the fire at the clubhouse.

Members were requested to bring old magazines to the club for monthly distribution to the Midland Memorial Hospital Library by Mrs. Conrad Reeves, chairman of the club's committee for the hospital library.

It was announced that Mrs. P. D. Taylor is to be in charge of magazine sales.

Book Planned
Mrs. J. D. Dillard told members of the Donna Garden Club book, "Arrangements on Parade," which will include pictures of outstanding flower arrangements.

A suggestion was approved from the Garden Club Council that markers be placed on highways leading into Midland, co-operating with a district-wide project to place markers at the entrances to each town having a garden club.

Concluding the business session, Mrs. John Mills was elected as the representative to the Midland Woman's Club.

Featured on the program was a talk on "Iris on Parade" by Mrs. S. M. Slaye. The club will hold a soiled meeting at 9:30 a.m. Tuesday in the home of Mrs. A. J. Olsen, 940 North Fort Worth Street, to purchase iris bulbs.

Peace-With-Freedom Effort

At long last, and high time too, an organization in the western world comes forth with a plan for peace to counter the one being peddled by the Communists.

The organization is a new one called the World Veterans Federation. When founded less than two years ago it had a membership of 8,000,000 in six different nations.

Today its membership totals more than 15,000,000 in 16 nations, plus the International Confederation of Ex-Prisoners of War.

Member organizations in this country are AMVETS, the Disabled American Veterans, the American Veterans Committee, and the Blinded Veterans Association.

The program of the world organization is two-fold—peace with freedom, as compared to the peace with tyranny offered by the Communists, and the rehabilitation of disabled veterans.

The federation feels that its big strength for peace lies in the fact that its members all know first hand what war is like, and also that most of its key members in various countries are war heroes whose voices will be listened to.

Federation officials emphasize it is by no means a peace-at-any-price movement, but rather peace with freedom, and only that way.

The organization has a consultative voice in the United Nations and one of its principal aims is to strengthen the UN by giving the millions of federation members a voice in UN proceedings.

Harold Russell, the amputee veteran who is past national commander of AMVETS, represents the United States on the federation's nine-member watchdog commission for preserving peace.

One function of the commission is to go personally to world trouble areas and report back to the United Nations and to the federation on the situation as war veterans unencumbered by the policies and red tape of an official government fact-finding body.

Within the United Nations the federation is pushing for a world-development authority. The purpose of the authority would be to recommend measures for relieving poverty in various parts of the world as a step towards relieving the discontent and strife which can lead to war.

Summing up federation peace aims, one of its officials says, "We want to attract those millions of people throughout the world who sincerely want peace but who, unable to find another peace banner to rally under, have been trapped by what the Communists are offering."

An aim such as that seems commendable enough in itself. But when combined with an active and going program of concrete aid to the world's war wounded, it gains even more strength.

The United States branch of the federation is out to raise $1,000,000 this year for its share of the work.

There's always a touch of humor in it when a husband sends his wife a vacation card saying, "Wish you were here."

"Places, Everyone!"

The Washington Merry-Go-Round

By Drew Pearson

where the stone forts of the Union Army once looked across at the Johnny Rebs on the other side in Virginia.

The sharpened trees that were pointed down the hill toward the river to keep the Johnny Rebs from crossing are gone now; but some of the stone ramparts still remain.

And sitting near them in the moonlight on those nights when I was not too exhausted even to sit, I could almost see the ghosts of men maneuvering for position in the shadow of the oak trees in that bloody, futile war 90 years ago.

The Potomac still flows on serenely in the moonlight. The fish jump in the moonlight. And if you toss a pebble from the cliff along side our farm, its ripples spread out in the moonlight as if no blood had ever stained its waters—as if no war or fear of future war ever ruffled its surface on the way past Washington, past the White House to the sea.

I do not know how many sons and grandsons have marched forth to war as a result of decisions made on the banks of the Potomac. I cannot predict how many more may march in the future. I only know—as I am left with strict instructions on how to feed two rabbits—that we of the present generation have a greater obligation than perhaps we realize.

And if we can instill among our fellow men some of the love and faith of our grandchildren; if we can banish hate, deception, fear; then the wars that have been fought along the Potomac and elsewhere some day may be no more.

Removal From Corruption

So before I get back to the grind of being the tough, hard-boiled poker under the political rocks looking for the worms of corruption, I hope I may be forgiven if I say just a word about life with a young man who has scarcely heard the word corruption and who aside from "influencing" himself out of taking a bath at night wouldn't know what the word means.

For if you ever want to relive your youth . . . If you ever dream of the birds' nests you used to find, the trees you used to climb, the garter snakes you used to catch and take to Sunday School to scare little girls . . . The frog's legs you used to fry in a skillet out of doors . . . The streams you used to dam up to make a waist-high swimming hole . . . The giant hay-loads you used to ride, sitting way-up so high you got scratched by the branches as you came up the lane to the barn . . . Or the baby rabbits you used to catch after the mowing machine had uncovered their nests in the hayfield . . .

If you have, and want to recapture your youth, then just take your grandson out on a farm for two weeks and all those memories will come crowding back, more vivid than ever. And you'll be so tired at night, you won't be awake thinking about the problems of the world.

My two weeks were spent on a farm on the banks of the Potomac

Q—What is the present name of the ancient Rubicon River in Italy? A—Many Italian historians believe that the Fiumicino River is the river that was known as the Rubicon in ancient days.

Q—How does the Belgian Congo compare in size with Belgium? A—Belgium's great colony is almost eighty times the size of the mother country.

Q—What were the names of the two thieves crucified beside Christ? A—The name of the good thief was Dismas, according to the early Christians. The thief who mocked Christ is said to have been called Gestas.

Q—Was Dresden china ever made at Dresden? A—The china was named after the German city of Dresden, where it once was supposed to have been invented. But Dresden china actually is produced at Meissen, 14 miles from Dresden.

Q—When was the Bodleian Library at Oxford, England, established? A—Sir Thomas Bodley founded this famous institution in 1602. A copy of every book copyrighted in Great Britain must be sent to this library, according to law.

JACOBY ON BRIDGE

By OSWALD JACOBY

When West led the jack of diamonds in the hand shown today, South had no doubts about the location of the king of diamonds. For one thing, West probably had some sort of leadable holding in hearts, and would have chosen it if his diamonds had been headed by the king.

What's more, West happened to be a gentleman who prided himself on not leading away from kings. (Bridge players are improving, but there are still some of these left.)

Since the diamond finesse was hopeless, declarer put up dummy's ace of diamonds at once, and drew two rounds of trumps. He then tried the club finesse, losing to East's king.

East, very properly, returned the five of hearts, and South went into a huddle with himself. Was East leading from the ace or from the queen? He reasoned that East had already shown up with the king of clubs and almost surely held the king of diamonds.

Somehow this seemed to indicate that East would not also hold the ace of hearts. South thought it was unlikely that all of the high cards would be held by the same opponent.

This reasoning had no basis in either logic or mathematics, and South's play of a low heart cost him the contract. West won with the queen of hearts, and promptly switched back to the ten of diamonds. Now South had lost two diamonds, two hearts, and a club.

South should have put up the king of hearts because it was his only chance to make the contract. If West could win a heart trick, he would return to diamonds, and the defenders would surely take at least one heart, two diamonds, and a club.

Note that if South properly plays the king of hearts, he has no further trouble. He can then get a discard on one of dummy's clubs, thus winning five trumps, three clubs, a diamond, and a heart.

Q—The bidding has been: North East South West 1 Heart Pass 2 Diamonds Pass 2 Hearts Pass

You, South, hold: Spades A-J-10, Hearts 7-6, Diamonds A-K-J-10-4, Clubs 8-6-3. What do you do?

A—Bid two spades with a good partner; otherwise you must stab at two no-trump. It is very unlikely that North will raise spades, even he probably does not have four-card support for that suit.

Your spade bid will help good partner to bid or to avoid no-trump. If your partner is upset by "fancy"

WASHINGTON COLUMN

U.S. Editors Support Ike 4 To 1; Say He Will Win In Close Race

By PETER EDSON

WASHINGTON—U. S. daily newspaper editors are supporting Republican Dwight D. Eisenhower for the presidency by a ratio of four to one. But approximately one editor in six is supporting neither Eisenhower nor Gov. Adlai Stevenson, the Democratic nominee.

The same majority of the editors believe that General Eisenhower will win the election. An average of their predictions gives the Republican nominee a margin of 81 electoral votes—361 to 260.

Two hundred and sixty-six of the 881 electoral votes are necessary for victory.

On the popular vote, editors believe the Republican plurality will be a little more than 2,500,000. The average of their predictions is for a total Republican vote of 28,400,000 as against a Democratic vote of 26,400,000.

This would mean a total vote of more than 54,800,000 in 1952. It would be considerably above the 48,000,000 votes cast in 1948. But it would be considerably below the 60,000,000 total vote hoped for.

These are the highlights of a poll of the 700 U. S. newspapers recently listed in this column. The editors of these papers were asked 15 questions on the prospects, trends and issues in the 1952 campaign.

More than 250 editors replied to the questionnaire. This 50 per cent return is considered a good result for this kind of a mail survey of opinion. Replies came from every state in the union and were well-balanced geographically. So the poll gives a good cross-section of editorial opinion two months before the election.

The replies make possible an interesting comparison of editorial opinion in six main U. S. areas: New England and the Middle Atlantic States; the South, east of the Mississippi River; the South, west of the Mississippi; the Prairie states, west of the Mississippi, and the Rocky Mountain and West Coast states.

Only in the Southeast and the Southwest does the Democratic ticket have strong editorial support. But even here only 43 per cent of the editors said they were supporting Stevenson and Sparkman.

In the Southeast, 45 per cent are supporting Eisenhower and Nixon. In the Southwest the Republicans ticket has 36 per cent of the editorial support. But in this area, 24 per cent of the editors say they will support neither candidate. This also is the sentiment of 18 per cent of the editors in the Southeast and 18 per cent in the Midwest.

By contrast, the Republican ticket is supported by 73 per cent of the papers in the Midwest, 64 per cent in the Prairie states, 64 per cent in the far West and a high of 83 per cent in the Northeast.

The nationally totals show 68 per cent of the papers for the Republicans, 17 per cent for the Democrats, 13 per cent supporting neither and only three per cent not having decided as of August 15 whom they will support, if anybody.

On predicting the results of the election in both popular and electoral college votes, the editors' views varied vastly. About half the editors admitted frankly that it still was too early in the campaign to tell.

Of those who did make a guess, the range was from a prediction for a Republican landslide of 408 electoral votes out of the 531 made by the Reflector-Chronicle of Abilene, Kan., Ike's home town, to a Democratic victory of 275-126, predicted by the Parkersburg (W. Va.) Sentinel.

Midwest Sees GOP Flurry

Northeast and Midwest editors leaned more towards a bigger Republican victory, which was only to be expected. But an average of Southeastern editors' predictions gave the Democrats a victory by only three electoral votes—287 to 264.

The same Southeastern editors guessed that the Democrats would win by a popular vote margin of less than a million—27,700,000 to 27,800,000. If this prediction is borne out, it will be one of the closest races in history.

On the other hand, an average of Midwestern editorial opinion gives the Republicans a victory by a plurality of more than 4,000,000 votes—29,000,000 to 25,000,000.

Only a few papers, like the Lead (S. D.) Call, Batesville (Ark.) Gazette, Alva (Okla.) Review-Courier and the Eastern (Pa.) Express, thought that the total vote would get up to the 60,000,000 mark, with a 35,000,000-vote for the Republicans. The Newton (Iowa) News raises this to 40,000,000, GOP; 20,000,000, Democratic.

The general theory of Democratic politicians has been that the bigger the vote, the better the chance for a Democratic Party victory. This is represented in the opinion of editors like Tom Humphrey of the Portland (Ore.) Journal, who predicts a 30,000,000 to 25,000,000 victory for Governor Stevenson.

The Douglas (Ariz.) Dispatch, Edmond (Okla.) Enterprise, Keyser (W. Va.) News and Collins (Ohio) Standard and others share this prediction. But far more papers feel that there will be a considerable "stay home" movement. This, and other aspects of this survey of editorial opinion, will be reviewed in this space in the next issue.

At a party you find yourself talking to a person to whom you were introduced, but whose name you did not catch.

WRONG: Make no effort to find out his name.

RIGHT: Say, "I'm sorry but I didn't catch your name when we were introduced."

And some woman—a wedding guest—asked me to do pictures of a family dinner she's giving tomorrow night.

He seemed too big for the room. Had he grown a couple of inches since this afternoon?

"That wedding was beautiful. And the house! It was everything I never had in a wedding. Or in life," he added.

"That's probably why the pictures turned out so well. You saw things in a romantic light. Did Greg Schaefer see the proofs?"

"Yes! That's the best part of all. He took on like I was Fabian Bacrach himself. Said I could have a pretty job if I wanted."

"I hope you said yes!"

"Oh, you bet I did! David's laugh cracked with excitement. "Only thing is, what'll I tell my old boss!"

"Just phone him in the morning, and tell him you've got another job. By the way, I phoned about that room. Landlady said you could move in Jan. 1, a week from today."

"Great!" said David, pulling off his coat. "Guess you think I'm a foot giving up such a good-paying job. I'll probably never make that much money again. But somehow, it doesn't seem important now."

I SPENT New Year's Day helping I David get settled in his new room. The art student who was the previous tenant had painted two walls elephant gray and two walls coral, and the Renor looked right at home against the gray expanse. It was a tiny room, irregularly shaped, but cheerful and clean.

He opened and closed bureau drawers and looked in the infinitesimal closet. "I never had it so good."

I drove him over to his old apartment to pick up the rest of his possessions. "There won't be much stuff," said David. "Just my Army discharge papers and my watch and some books."

Revelation took hold of me as we climbed those scabrous steps to David's apartment. He rapped so the door.

THE next morning there were six inches of new snow and that best of all imaginable odors—roasting turkey. I peddled into the kitchen and took a look. Brown as a new saddle, and glistening. I basted it with orange juice, then went back to shave; David was still asleep on the living room couch.

Karl had come in at some deep hour of the night, and was now hurrying around putting on his best suit, getting ready to go to Betty's house for a Christmas dinner with her family. Before he left, he asked me, "What goes with David?"

I told him briefly, and he gave a low whistle. "Millions of women," he marveled, "and a nice guy like David has to pick out one like that."

David woke up as Karl was leaving. "Let's not eat breakfast, so we'll be real hungry," he said. "Dinner was a peaceful meal, with green candles rising from an island of spruce boughs in the middle of the table, and a good Italian Chianti, and a broadcast of Christmas music coming on the air just at 1 o'clock."

"I never had a Christmas dinner like this," said David, twirling his crystal wine glass. "Wish I lived like you do. Tomorrow this balloon will burst. I'll be jockeying a 10-footer at 1 in the morning. The last few months I've been hating my job. I shouldn't. It worries me. But what else can I do? Nobody hires you unless you got a high school diploma."

"What would you like to do?" "Photography more than anything, I think."

I slipped open the telephone book. "Maybe you can," I said. "Greg Schaefer might need some extra help around this time of year. Schaefer Studios do all the work for the Museum, and I know Greg fairly well. His firm has been growing lately. I think he has a staff of five or six photographers working for him now."

It was easy. Everything was arranged like a flash. Yes, Greg was desperate for extra help; six weddings, a christening and four parties booked for that afternoon. David's camera was broken? No matter, tell him to come right down to the studio and Greg would have a camera waiting, and show him any mechanical things he needed; to know, Greg was happy I called. Tell David to rush; he could use him for a wedding at 3 at St. John's Episcopal.

DAVID'S face was ashen when I hung up the telephone. "Wh-what did you tell him? I was a good photographer for? I'm only a rookie. It'll be a strange camera, too, and I'm dumb about new things. One look at me and they'll know I'm an amateur."

"Oh, can that stuff," I said. He struggled into his gray gaudy raincoat and left, his mouth clamped in a tense line.

I waited around all evening for him to come back; 11 o'clock passed and he didn't appear.

Rayburn's Plea For Adlai Support Adds Fuel To Texas Political Fires

By CLAYTON HICKERSON
Associated Press Staff

The Texas campaign for the National Democratic Party's Stevenson-Sparkman ticket had a full head of steam Friday with fuel from Speaker Sam Rayburn and former Attorney General William McCraw.

Rayburn made a state-wide radio speech from Dallas Thursday night while McCraw spoke at a Stevenson-Sparkman rally in Corsicana.

At the same time, Jonathan Daniels, former Democratic National Committeeman from North Carolina, said in Raleigh that Gov. Allan Shivers violated a pledge given the credentials committee of the Democratic National Convention.

Daniels, a big-wig Democrat in the Franklin D. Roosevelt Administration, issued his statement on Shivers' refusal to support Gov. Adlai Stevenson of Illinois for the presidency.

'Slap-dab Wrong'

But in Austin, an aide to the governor said Daniels was "absolutely, slap-dab wrong" and that Shivers had violated no pledge.

In answer to a query from Woodville J. Rogers of San Antonio, member of the Shivers delegation from Texas seated at the national convention after a contest before the credentials committee, Daniels said:

"... Governor Shivers gave me his word in public sessions of the credentials committee that if seated he personally would regard himself in honor bound to stand by the majority decision of the convention. I regret to say that I regard the governor's present course, as reported in the press, as a violation of the personal pledge which he gave the credentials committee at Chicago."

Rayburn Talks Tideland

Rayburn told Texans in his 19-station radio address that they might lose the "Tidelands oil ownership fight and their committee holds in it they bolt the party and help elect a Republican President.

Reminding his listeners he has always voted for state Tidelands ownership, Rayburn said he admired Democratic Presidential Nominee Stevenson for being frank about his position.

"General Eisenhower, the Republican nominee for President," has taken three positions on this matter," Rayburn said, "and I wonder what his position is now."

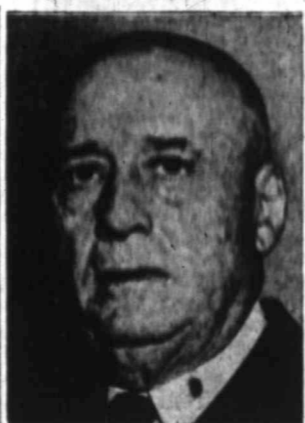

At Corsicana, McCraw devoted a large part of his rally speech to the Tidelands question with the charge that there has been "double talk" and "lack of frankness" about the Tidelands.

McCraw Asks 'Truth'

"Why not tell the truth?" the Dallas lawyer asked. "We have collected some nine million dollars for leases and royalty payments. This is ours. Even the Supreme Court decision approves this."

And McCraw continued: "There has been spent millions by oil companies in drilling exploration, but you have not been told that the Texas Tidelands offshore leases of 1947 have not produced a single barrel of oil in the last five years."

"The school fund has every penny of the lease money. Despite all the political talk about 'robbing the school children,' every dollar is ours and there are no claims to the contrary. It is true that since the Supreme Court decree revenues have been impounded. This fund is less than $500,000. We will get this if we fight and win."

No Pledge Violated

Governor Shivers, just back from Banff, Canada, where he attended business sessions of the interstate oil compact commission, was not available late Thursday night for comment on the Daniels' charge.

But the aide, who asked not to be identified, said, "actually, the governor has not violated any pledge at all," and continued:

"It was Shivers who forced the credentials committee to make the pledge read so that inclusion of the Stevenson-Sparkman ticket on the general election ballot in Texas was all that was necessary to get the Texas Shivers delegation seated."

"The only pledge that Shivers made at the national convention was that he would see to it that the national party's nominees were on the ballot."

"And as for Daniels' saying he broke a pledge... well, that's absolutely, slap-dab wrong."

Wrong Paper, Maybe

Shivers and such state Democratic leaders as Attorney General Price Daniel and Rep. Lloyd Benenson, Jr. of McAllen have said they could not support the Stevenson-Sparkman ticket because Stevenson advocates federal Tidelands ownership.

The governor's aide, noting that Daniels, information on the Shivers stand came from press dispatches, said, "Mr. Daniels is a mighty fine gentleman. Maybe he's just been reading the wrong newspapers in North Carolina."

In his speech at Dallas, Rayburn, too, noted the Shivers pledge.

"We are to have a state convention in Amarillo on September 9," the speaker said. "Governor Shivers stated at Chicago that he would come back to Texas and try to see that the Democratic nominees were placed at the head of the Democratic ballot. This the Democrats of Texas expect him to do and believe he will do. What the real Democrats of Texas want is a clear-cut issue."

Farm Vote Appeal

"The real Democrats want to vote for the Democratic nominees for President and vice president, and if there is any other ticket of any kind we want those who desire to vote against the Democratic nominees... to have the opportunity to do that."

Rayburn made a strong appeal for the Texas farm vote. "In 1932," he said, "the net income of all the farmers in the U. S. was one billion 800 million dollars. In 1951, the farmers of the U. S. had a net income of more than 15 billion dollars."

Turning to the oil man, Rayburn said, "Many of the oil people are very much opposed, or say they are, to the Democratic Administration. In the first three months of 1952 at the close of the Republican administration, their oil was selling for 10 cents a barrel and the average for the whole year of 1952 was 25 cents a barrel."

Gives Oil Price

"Today crude oil selling for $2.58 a barrel, and the oilmen still have their 27 1/2 per cent depletion allowance."

"Have we bankrupted the oil industry?... do we want a change, and if so, from what to what?"

Lubbock 'Copter Pilot Saves Three Airmen From Sea

TOKYO —(AP)— The Air Force Friday told how a Texan and his helicopter rescued three U. S. airmen from the sea off Northwest Korea Thursday.

Lt. Laverne G. Stange, Minneapolis, Minn., parachuted from his crippled Sabre jet after downing enemy MIG jet.

Two rescue helicopters flew to the scene. One was piloted by Maj. Roy A. Thompson, Lubbock, Texas, and the other by Ens. Theron Ray, Richmond, Calif.

Ray arrived first but while maneuvering to pick up Stange his helicopter crashed into the sea. With Ray was his crewman, F. C. Dwayne of Kansas City.

After repeated trials, Thompson and his co-pilot, Lt. Thurman Lawrence, Jr., Beaufort N. C., lifted the three men to safety on a hoist and took them back to Allied lines.

August 26 Democratic runoff primary was filed in McLennan County with incumbent Commissioner Dr. Shockley, beaten by 11 votes, charging that an election judge was a supporter of his successful opponent, Louis Graham.

Governor Shivers had an invitation to Port Arthur if he goes fishing on November 4. That's general election day, the day Shivers has said he won't support Adlai Stevenson and "just might go fishin'."

Father Of Hinkel's Manager Provides Melon For Feast

Employees of Hinkel's Department Store will cut a melon—a 139-pound watermelon—one day next week.

When it was decided to have a watermelon feast, Manager Bill Green, formerly of Hope, Ark., knew just where to get a melon of sufficient size to take care of the situation.

It just so happens that Hope is widely known as the "Melon Capital of the World," and Bill remembered some of the better melon patches from his younger days.

He dispatched a letter to his father, Joe B. Green, at the Arkansas city, and sure enough the huge watermelon arrived by express Thursday. (Shipping charge, $7).

The melon will be on display in the store window a few days before it is placed in cold storage. How long does it take a 139-pound melon to chill?

Veteran Italian Anti-Red Leader Carlo Sforza Dies

ROME —(AP)—Italy Friday mourned her senior diplomat, Count Carlo Sforza, who died Thursday night after a half century of liberal, anti-Fascist service in world politics.

Sforza—a cabinet member without portfolio at the time of his death and twice in the past a foreign minister—died in a Rome clinic after a year's serious illness. He would have been 79 on September 25.

The cause of his death was not announced, but reportedly he was under treatment for phlebitis. He was said to have suffered a blood clot Thursday morning.

His funeral will be held Saturday. Premier Alcide de Gasperi cut short his vacation to attend the services along with the country's other top leaders and foreign envoys.

Abroad, Sforza's fellow statesmen voiced their regrets. In Washington, U. S. Secretary of State Dean Acheson described his Italian colleague as "a great statesman and a distinguished scholar" who "staunchly supported throughout his lifetime the principles of freedom and justice for which he worked unflinchingly."

Returns From Exile

After 17 years in voluntary exile during the totalitarian regime of Benito Mussolini, Sforza returned to his homeland after the Allied landings in 1943 and played a leading part in lifting the nation from defeat to its present partnership with the Western democracies.

As foreign minister under De Gasperi from 1947 until last year, Sforza signed the European Recovery Program Pact with the United States in 1948, the Atlantic Pact on behalf of Italy in 1949 and the Schuman Plan Treaty for a West European coal-steel pool. He was an active booster for Western European unity.

Sparkman Pounds Away At Eisenhower In Southwest Tour

SANTA FE, N. M. —(AP)— Senator John Sparkman of Alabama swung southward through New Mexico Friday, taking his bid for the vice presidency to towns in the populous Rio Grande Valley.

The Democratic candidate leveled his guns at critics of the present Administration's foreign policy, describing it as "strongly and hopefully positive."

He accused Dwight D. Eisenhower, Republican presidential aspirant of poor hindsight and foresight both, as far as Russian-U. S. relations are concerned. On at least two occasions, Sparkman said Eisenhower said Russia wanted friendly relations with the U. S.—at a Moscow news conference and before a congressional committee in 1945.

Bipartisanship in foreign affairs, Sparkman said, is necessary if the United States is to reform the role of leadership it has assumed.

Sparkman hit New Mexico in a series of quick visits to some key areas.

His party stumped toward Las Cruces Friday, stopping at Belen, Socorro, Truth or Consequences and other towns along the route. Another speech is scheduled Friday night at Las Cruces.

Galveston Recount Produces No Change In Runoff Outcome

GALVESTON —(AP)— A recheck of Galveston County voting machines completed Thursday did not change the totals previously reported and Congressman Clark W. Thompson still leads T. W. (Buckshot) Lane, Wharton County sheriff.

Lane contested the August 23 Congressional election results in Galveston County after he was defeated in the Ninth District runoff election by 253 votes.

The recount of 121 voting machines in Galveston County totaled 14,150 for Thompson and 4,235 for Lane. That is the same total as previously reported by the County Democratic Committee.

Austin Straw Vote Goes Ike, Two To One

AUSTIN —(AP)— Dwight D. Eisenhower would lead Adlai Stevenson two-to-one in Austin if the general election followed results of an opinion poll just completed by the Austin American-Statesman.

The newspaper said its poll showed the two candidates would about break even in the rest of Central Texas.

Second Nix Store Holds Open House

Open house will be held Saturday for the formal opening of Nix Trading Post No. 2 at 501 East Florida Street, it was announced by Tom Nix, Jr.

The new store will feature new and used furniture, hardware, army surplus, clothing and housewares.

This is the second of its type to be operated by Nix in Midland. The No. 1 store is at 302 South Main Street.

The No. 1 store was founded by Tom Nix, Sr., in 1943 on $500 borrowed capital. Nix, Jr., was manager of a store in Marshall at that time. After serving with the armed services, he returned to Midland and purchased the store from his father in 1950.

Prices are so much higher than they were two, three or five years ago, Aunt Sally Peters says she's ashamed of her complaints at those times. Such prices would be bargains today. She's now reached the point where she may try to trade in her old sewing machine for a few pork chops.

WELL, IT'S LIKE THIS, PARDNER—Edward Weyman, 111 East Maiden Lane, Midland, left, is shown giving his impressions of a trip to Britain to Bob Giles, British Broadcasting Company reporter. Weyman, a student at Texas Technological College, climaxed a European tour with a visit to Limey Land. The famed Tower of London was the first scenic spot to be visited by the boot-clad West Texan.

Palsied Children Clinic Scheduled At Lubbock Center

A clinic for the examination of cerebral palsied children will be held Monday, September 22, at the Cerebral Palsy Treatment Center, 3502, Avenue N, Lubbock.

Specialists present to examine children will be Dr. E. T. Driscoll, Midland, Dr. R. Q. Lewis, Lubbock, and Dr. R. E. Donnell, Plainview, orthopedists; Dr. R. K. O'Loughlin, Lubbock, neuropsychiatrist; Dr. J. M. Reynolds, Lubbock, dentist; Dr. E. E. Moss, Lubbock, eye specialist, and Dr. J. D. Donaldson, Lubbock, pediatrician.

Cerebral palsy, sometimes referred to as spastic paralysis or birth injury, is evidenced by the child's inability to sit or stand alone or walk or hold objects at the age these things are accomplished by the average child. Research has shown that treatment is most effective if started within the first few months of the child's life although children respond to treatment begun at a much later age.

Parents who plan to bring children to the clinic are requested to register the children at the center before the date of the clinic. Information regarding the clinic may be obtained by writing Dr. Esther Snell, director or calling Lubbock 5-6541.

Leading JayCees To Receive Awards

The two most outstanding Midland JayCees for the first six months of 1952 will receive key medal awards at a meeting of the club at 6:30 p.m. Friday at the Midland Country Club, J. P. Marchioli, president, has announced.

Certificates of merit and honorable mentions will go to other members for their civic activities during the first half of this year, Marchioli said.

Pins will be presented to current officers, new membership buttons distributed at the general business session.

Sid Nicks of Monahans, regional JayCee vice president, will be principal speaker.

Twin Guides To Better Motoring, Longer Car Life

Here are two of the most familiar signs on Southwestern highways. One says "Chevron Gas Station," and the other right next to it says "Standard Oil of Texas Products." Together, they offer motorists maximum assurance of top car performance and protection.

World-famous Standard Oil petroleum products, including Chevron Supreme Gasoline and New RPM Motor Oil, plus the trained, conscientious Car-Saver Service that Chevron Gas Stations are noted for, is a combination that makes thousands of car-owners Chevron "regulars."

And the fact that all Chevron Gas Stations feature nationally-popular Atlas Tires, Batteries and Accessories is another big Chevron plus.

It will pay you to make Logan's Chevron Service Station sign your regular stop sign. Find out for yourself why Chevron men say—"We take better care of your car."

Boyle Tells How Kindergarten Teaches Best Lessons Of Life

By HAL BOYLE
NEW YORK—(P)—Kindergarten is what makes or breaks a man. Millions of future little American husbands, trudging to school for the first time, will learn that this month.

A kindergarten is a "garden of children." But it is also a wilderness where small two-legged bits of protoplasm—part elf, part demon, part angel—speed up their sad and wonderful transformation into human beings.

It separates the boys from the girls, and sets them forever upon their separate paths. There a young fellow will meet and have to try to cope with all the adventures he will encounter in later life—love and loss, victory and disaster, achievement and failure, pride and fall, and golden friendship, ever betrayed, ever rekindled.

Life in kindergarten

1. Don't wear a cap.
 2. Never hit a person of the opposite sex when she's down, even if she is bigger than you—and particularly when somebody is looking.
 3. Don't lend your last marble, because if you do you won't have anything left to play the game yourself.
 4. Never tell all you know. I made the mistake of confiding to a pal I had a crush on a little girl in kindergarten—a talented creature, she could toe-dance at five. The next day even the big bullies in the second grade were teasing me about it, and I had to call off the whole affair.
 5. Don't brag about your galloping.

In our kindergarten galloping was a high art, and I was the best. I still think so: One day while we were wheeling around the room . . . gallop . . . gallop . . . gallop. I called over to the teacher, who was pounding the piano. "Look at me, Mrs. Steele, look at me now!"

Just then my flying boot hooked the big flat hoof of a red-haired little filly ahead of me, and down she went on her fat little face—and up again she came in tears, with both fists swinging. I don't recall ever galloping in public again.

Yes, a wise man can learn most of what he needs to know about life in kindergarten.

Attorney Denies Trade-Out In Binion, Urban Tax Cases

DALLAS — (P)—U. S. Attorney Frank Potter Friday denied that any agreement had been made to transfer Nevada Gambler Benny Binion's income tax evasion case to Nevada in return for a guilty plea from Harry Urban of Dallas.

The Fort Worth Star-Telegram Thursday quoted Potter as saying he had made such a trade with Nash Adams, Matur Hughes and the late Ted Monroe, Dallas lawyers.

"I did agree with Nash Adams on a plea of guilty in Nevada," Potter said in an interview with the Dallas News, "because I felt extremely doubtful that a conviction could be had in the Binion case."

Adams is a Binion lawyer.

"Later," said Potter, "I conferred with Mr. Monroe, representing Urban, about a plea of guilty for his client. Mr. Monroe felt as if he was in a bind."

I did that the government's case against Urban was strong and that Urban might receive a lighter sentence on a plea of guilty.

"From the standpoint of prosecution, I felt that the government would be saved the expense and trouble of a costly trial. And a conviction is a conviction, whether it results from a plea of guilty or a contested case."

Potter said the Star-Telegram was correct in that he made the two agreements.

But he maintained there was "no trade," that neither agreement was contingent upon the other.

Check For $99,103 Said Lost In Mails

BRISTOL, R. I.—(P)—A check for $99,103.78 is missing somewhere in the U. S. postal system.

The check, representing net proceeds of a $100,000 town sewer bond issue, was mailed to the Town of Bristol July 23 by the Rhode Island Hospital Trust Company.

The Town Council gave up trying to track it down Thursday night. It authorized a bond to indemnify the bank so it could send the town a new one.

Mamie Eisenhower Views White House As 'Second' Choice

PHILADELPHIA —(P)—Mamie Eisenhower says she and her husband, Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower, now consider Gettysburg, Pa., their "permanent home" no matter where they may go in the future—even the White House.

Talking with a group of Pennsylvania girls from the Young Republican Club while the GOP presidential candidate was touring Philadelphia, Mamie said of their farm at Gettysburg:

"The house is mine and I love it and the trees around it. Some of my friends are trying to persuade me to build a new place on one of the hills but I fell in love with the old house first."

The Eisenhowers are co-owners of a farm at Gettysburg with George S. Allen, one-time adviser to President Truman.

New York Watches Postmen On Parade

NEW YORK —(P)—Some 3,000 marching mailmen won a Fifth Avenue crowd's stamp of approval Thursday as they celebrated the thirty-eighth biennial convention of the AFL National Association of Letter Carriers.

A 33-block parade was enlivened with floats, bands and banners. One of the latter, featuring a revolving world, advised:

"You write. We'll deliver."

$2,449 For Polio Given By Audiences

Audience collections in Midland theaters from Sunday through Tuesday for benefit of the Gonzales Warm Springs Foundation amounted to $2,449.12, it was announced Thursday by Delmar J. Adas.

The funds raised will be used by the Texas institution for treatment of polio victims.

In connection with the audience collections, a film was shown in Midland theaters depicting facilities and treatment offered by the foundation. Joan Crawford, a native Texan, starred in the film.

Final Rites Held For Cattle Official

UNION, IDAHO —(P)—R. J. Kinser, prominent Hereford cattle official, was interred Thursday in nearby Bangor cemetery.

Kinser, 78, for many years secretary of the American Hereford Association at Kansas City. He became chairman of the board when he retired four years ago.

Kinser was born and reared in the Bangor community. He had resided in Florida since retiring and died August 30 at Plant City, Fla.

House Group Calls Special California Tidelands Meet

WASHINGTON —(P)—A special House Interior subcommittee appointed to investigate and recommend policies on the nation's seaward boundary will hold a public hearing in Los Angeles October 3-4.

Representative Engle (D-Calif.), chairman of the subcommittee, said the Los Angeles session "will largely concern the position of the State of California and California interests on the seaward boundary of that state."

The resolution authorizing the committee investigation was introduced by Representative Yorty (D-Calif.) and $15,000 was appropriated for committee expense.

Yorty has proposed that the seaward boundary of the United States, in the interest of national security, should be fixed in accordance with a recent decision of the International Court of Justice in a fisheries case involving the coastline of Norway.

In that case, the court held that the boundary of Norway extended from the shore around the outer edge of rocks and islands off the coast.

In a case pending in the Supreme Court, the U. S. Government contends that the seaward boundary of California follows the shore line, and that water areas between the shore and off-lying islands are not inland waters. The California case involves offshore oil lands beneath the marginal sea.

Texas Legislature Next

Engle said he is seeking to engage competent counsel to assist the committee in organizing material.

After the Los Angeles hearing, he said, the committee probably will have another hearing in Louisiana or Texas and a third one in Washington to take testimony from representatives of the State, Defense and Justice Departments.

On the basis of the hearings, he said, the committee will prepare an interim report to the House from which it can be determined whether the inquiry should be continued in the next Congress opening in January.

Members of the subcommittee include Representatives Regan (D-Texas), Bentsen (D-Texas), Yorty, Poulson (D-Calif.), Harrison (R-Wyo.) and Budge (R-Idaho).

Critic Of Truman To Support Adlai

OCEAN CITY, MD.—(P)—Senator O'Connor (D-Md.), who freely has criticized the Truman Administration, says he will take the stump for the Democratic presidential nominee, Gov. Adlai Stevenson of Illinois.

O'Connor is retiring from his Senate seat after a single term. In announcing last January he would not seek reelection, O'Connor said he wanted "to be free to speak frankly and bluntly" about proposals of the Truman Administration for "socialism of medicine, of education, of public utilities and other economic activities."

His endorsement of Stevenson made it obvious he feels a Stevenson Administration would be quite different from the Truman Administration.

O'Connor said that in an exchange of letters, Stevenson had asked for his "all-out aid."

Car-Truck Collision Kills Three Women

LAS VEGAS, N. M.—(P)—Three Denver women were killed Thursday when their convertible collided head-on with a dump truck filled with blasting asphalt.

Mortuary attendants identified the dead as Mrs. Georgena A. Seeline, 54, her daughter, Linda, 17, and Carroll Holting, 17.

The women were enroute to Tucson, Ariz., where the young women were to enroll in the University of Arizona.

Texas Pilot Gets Two MIG Kills

SEOUL, KOREA —(P)—The U. S. Fifth Air Force Friday credited a Texas pilot with a double kill in Thursday's jet fights that cost the Reds 13 MIG's over Northwestern Korea.

The two MIG's destroyed were the first by Lt. Ira Proctor of Houston.

Eight other pilots were credited with one MIG kill each.

Jacome Ends Bronc Win Streak, 3-2; Tribe Opens Last Home Stand Friday

Roswell Final Foe In Twin Games Here

The pennant-hungry Midland Indians will inaugurate the last home series of the 1952 campaign at 7 p.m. Friday. The improved Roswell Rockets offer opposition in the doubleheader at Indian Park.

The Warriors will shut the door on regular season play in the Midland wiggam Saturday when the finale in the three-game set with the Rockets gets underway at 8 p.m.

Manager Jay Haney has not announced his starting pitchers for Friday's twin bill. The injury-reduced Indian pitching staff left him little choice. With Ace Keith Nicola out for the remainder of the regular season, Haney likely will turn to Rookie Right-Hander Herb Dwyer (8-6) in the first game. He could bring in Glenn Selbo from his regular position in right field. And Ed Santa is available.

It will be Appreciation Night for the Indians, who have become the hottest team in the Longhorn circuit under the guidance of easy-going Haney. Special gifts will be presented between the games.

Presentation of the Longhorn League opening night attendance award also is set at the intermission. Mayor Perry Pickett will do the honors, representing League President Hal Sayles of Abilene, who will not be able to attend.

Friday night's doubleheader is the first of three in four days for the Indians. They close the season in Artesia with twin bills ticketed for Sunday and Monday.

Playoffs Open Tuesday
The long trip back home faces the Tribe before the Shaughnessy play-offs start Tuesday night. Ticket sales for the flag-seeking series continue from 1 to 4 p.m.

Midland fans were urged again Friday night by the club management to make contributions to the Indian Pennant Fund. A $2,000 goal has been set. Downtown gifts are being accepted at the Chamber of Commerce offices in Hotel Scharbauer.

Slubby Greer Bats Rockets To Victory

SWEETWATER —(P)—Hayden (Slubby) Greer, temporary Roswell manager during the absence of Al Monchak who was injured recently, led the Rockets to a 5-1 victory over Sweetwater here Thursday night to give his team a clean sweep of its final two-game set with the Braves.

Greer drove in four runs with a triple, double and two singles and scored the other Roswell run himself on an error.

Andy Alonso spaced eight hits for his eighteenth win against nine losses. He struck out seven and walked only one.

The score: R H E
Roswell 000 080 101—8 19 3
Sweetwater 100 000 000—1 8 1
Alonso and Crawford, Calo, Merritt and Finley.

CIRCLED IN SPORTS FRAMES—

Through The Lindsey Lens

By JIM LINDSEY
Longhorn League cities this week have honored their teams or individual members.

Odessans paid tribute to Oiler Manager Bob (Pepper) Martin Thursday night. Big Spring fans showered gifts on Gil Guerra, ace pitcher with 26 victories this season. Earlier, Roswell staged Al Monchak Night.

Around the circuit it's appreciation time.

Midland appears lukewarm so far to the current Pennant Fund drive for the Indians. The response has been lagging. Little more than $800 is in on the $2,000 goal.

The Chamber of Commerce will accept the fund contributions. Its offices in Scharbauer Hotel are convenient for downtown folks. Two appreciation fans dropped in Thursday to leave gifts. One was $50, the other $25. They set an example. Hundreds of loyal fans should come through for the Indians. They deserve the home-going lift.

Attitude of Midland fans will be helpful in baseball years ahead. Baseball players like to perform in cities where followers treat them with gratitude. They try harder where fans exhibit a genuine support with that extra push.

FRIDAY'S SCHEDULE
Longhorn League
ROSSELL AT MIDLAND.
Artesia at Sweetwater.
Big Spring at Sweetwater.
Vernon at Odessa.

The Pennant Fund provides an opportunity to continue a high standard of baseball for Midland by attracting the best players with a spirit of friendliness and appreciation.

Tommy Hart, Big Spring sports scribe, notes that the Indians won their first 18 home games under Jay Haney. Then he comments: "To say the Tribe caught fire under Haney is putting it mildly. The Warriors put the league to the torch."

Pepper Martin, the wise Odessa skipper, will winter in Crosbyton, South Plains city east of Lubbock. He will be in the cotton business again. Last year the Martins lived in Stanton.

Midland is the first club in the six-year history of the Longhorn League to host three 30-game winners in one campaign.

Keith Nicola and Eddie Jacome had attained membership in the "30 Club" before Israel Ten made it by beating San Angelo last week-end.

Only twice before did two hurlers from the same club turn in 30 or more decisions. Jacome (22-19) and Gerald Fahr (21-8) of Vernon in 1948, and Ray Knoblauch (20-7) and Al Sokolewsky (25-9) of Odessa in 1950.

One of the top topics in the Longhorn League this week is the major league debut of Mike Fornieles, star pitcher for the Big Spring Broncs in his start for the Washington Senators, beating the Philadelphia Athletics, 5-0.

The 20-year-old right-hander won 17 games and lost six for Big Spring. He wound up with an ERA of 2.84. Fornieles has been with Havana, Cuba, this season.

Four Midlanders are listed on the football roster of Texas Western College at El Paso where Mike Brumbelow, general grid taskmaster, is beginning his third season as head coach.

Jack Burrus and Jerry Culp of Midland are sketched under the heading, "Miners To Watch '53." Both are sophomores.

Culp is a tackle and will be used mostly on offense. Burrus developed into a first string left halfback at the end of last season. He is exceptionally fast and runs with power. Johnny Kennedy and Bill Medart are others from here on the Miner rolls.

Oilers Regain Lead; Ump, Tayoan Brawl

ODESSA—(P)—Scoring three runs in the home half of the ninth inning to tie up the ball game at 3-3, the Odessa Oilers went on to drop the San Angelo Colts, 4-3 in 11 innings, to move back atop the Longhorn League standings.

The run scored in the eleventh inning was something of an anti-climax for Odessa fans who saw a Pier Six brawl staged on the middle of the diamond between Base Umpire Eckstein and Johnny Tayoan of the Colts. The fight, which saw Tayoan first push Eckstein and then jump on his back, came about when the Colts protested a ruling at first base which saw Oiler Manager Pepper Martin sacrifice Leo Eastham and then slide into the base, allowing Eastham to go to third. This eventually led to the winning tally.

After a series of wrestling holds, the two involved in the fracas were parted and Tayoan was removed from the field via police escort.

Getting back to the ball game, Ben Quintana started for the Oilers and pitched three full innings before Carlos Perez finished the effort for the victory in a fine relief job.

For Angelo, Mario Baldana started and went eight and one-third frames before Clarence Tinkler came on to finish the contest and take the loss. The winning run crossed home plate for the Oilers when Fabian singled home Eastham from first.

In the ninth, Odessa counted three runs when Bill Cearley doubled with the bases jammed.

One home run was hit in the game, coming in the top half of the ninth. Ronnie Dacko smacked one over the left field wall with one mate aboard.

The score: R H E
San Angelo 001 000 002 00—3 10 0

ODESSA—(P)—The $7,500 Odessa pro-amateur golf tournament moved into its second round Friday with a pair of steady-swinging Oklahomans in the lead.

E. J. (Dutch) Harrison and Charley Coe fired blistering 10-under-par 61's Thursday to jump into an early two-stroke lead.

Right behind them with 63's were Bo Winger-Billy Maxwell and Ray Gafford-Bill Roden.

Harrison, Ardmore, Okla., profesional, shot three birdies and an eagle while teammate Coe parred five birdies. Each clipped five strokes from par.

Winger is another Oklahoman now playing as a pro from Atlantic City, N. J. Maxwell is 1951 National Amateur champion from Odessa.

Gafford is a Dallas pro and Roden and Odessa amateur.

Saturday, the 77-team field enters its third round. The low 40 teams will fight it out in Sunday's final 18 holes.

Temes' Bat Aids In All Indian Runs

BIG SPRING —(P)—Eddie Jacome brought the Big Spring Broncs' seven-game winning streak to an abrupt halt here Thursday night when he pitched Midland to a 3-2 decision over Bertie Beas and the home club.

Manny Temes was instrumental in all of Midland's runs. His first of two doubles in the first inning scored Scooter Hughes and Glenn Selbo. Hughes had singled with two away and Selbo drew a base on balls.

In the fourth inning, Temes led off with a double and charged home on a one-out single by Bill Brown into right field.

The Broncs counted a run in the first when Rick Gonzalez doubled, went to third on an infield out and scooted across the dish when Witty Quintana sliced a ground ball to Hughes, who went for the out at first.

Steads Score
The Steeds counted an unearned tally in the second when Earl Bosenberry dropped a throw from Second Backer Woody Pennington to permit Buddy Grimes to tally from third.

The Broncs loaded the sacks with one away in the fourth but Al Valdes hit into the game's only double play to end the threat. Valdes drove a sizzling liner straight at Temes, who had moved into second, and Manny whipped the ball to first in time to catch Al Costa.

Jacome, who achieved his twenty-first win of the year, hardly gave the Steeds a look-in after that.

Texans Acquire Ex-Loyola Star

KERRVILLE —(P)—Jimmy Phelan, coach of the Dallas Texans of the National Football League, said Friday he had obtained Don Klosterman, the former Loyola of Los Angeles star, in exchange for a future draft choice.

Needing a quarterback and especially passing, Phelan said he felt acquiring Klosterman in a trade with the Cleveland Browns would "help us a lot."

Klosterman, who played for the Browns in 1951, was a star quarterback for the Loyola football team in 1949 and 1950.

Phelan said Klosterman is a "big, tough, hard-hitting" player who can pass and run.

Klosterman is expected to be available for the Texans' training camp in Dallas in late September.

The Texans are currently in the playoffs of the National Football League.

BOMBERS WHALE TAR OUT OF SHANTZ—

Yanks Beat Athletics, 12-2, As Reynolds Records No. 17

By The Associated Press

Allie Reynolds has achieved two of three feats a pitcher dreams about—a no-hit game and a World Series triumph. Friday the 33-year-old New York Yankee right-hander stands a good chance of realizing the third—a 20-win season.

Reynolds, one of the game's best "money pitchers," turned in his seventeenth victory of the season Thursday night as the Bombers whaled the tar out of Bobby Shantz and the Philadelphia Athletics, 12-2. This enabled the Yanks to protect their three-game American League lead over the Cleveland Indians.

The Indians, behind Mike Garcia, had turned back the Detroit Tigers, 2-0, in the afternoon. In other seven-under-par 62.

Runner-up to Fred Haas of New Orleans and Mike Roma of Rye, N. Y., both of whom shot 64's.

Alone at 66 was Billy Shields of Albany, New York State Amateur Champion and a former holder of the course record.

Slammin' Sammy Beas, the pre-tourney favorite, fired a 67 for a tie for fifth.

Jim Ferrier of San Francisco led the par-breakers in the opening round of the $15,000 Empire Open Golf Tournament Thursday with a blistering 62.

Michigan State Gets Scribes' Nod As Top U. S. Grid Outfit

NEW YORK—(AP)—Before a music has been flexed in serious competition, Michigan State has been selected as the No. 1 college football team of 1952 in The Associated Press annual pre-season poll.

The Spartans edged out the potent Maryland eleven in what amounted to a two-team race for the top spot, the 214 sports writers and sportswriters participating in the poll piling up 1,730 points for Coach Biggie Munn's team to 1,696 for Maryland.

Georgia Tech was a fairly respectable third choice with 1,233 points but was not even close to the first two when it came to first-place votes.

BEPUDDLED—Manager Stengel was befuddled when a downpour struck New York and washed out an important game between his Yankees and the Red Sox. Making things worse, Yankee Stadium was sold out. (NEA)

What do the Yankees want with Keller? The 34-year-old fielder apparently had outlived his baseball usefulness as a Yankee back in 1949. The summer he underwent an operation for a ruptured spinal disc. Manager Casey Stengel supplied the answer:

"Charley looked pretty good working out with us and we can use another pinch hitter. You never can tell, maybe he'll deliver one that could mean a lot to us."

Maybe Stengel figures Keller will provide his club with a psychological lift. The sight of King Kong Keller at the plate has sent shivers running down plenty of pitchers' backs.

Ike, Stevenson Head West As Political Pace Quickens

By The Associated Press
Dwight Eisenhower and Adlai Stevenson hit the trail west Friday as the tempo of the presidential battle began to quicken.

Stevenson took off for Denver where he'll speak Friday night on the Republican cry that it's time for a change. Up to now, the Democratic candidate pretty largely has ignored the opposition accusations.

Eisenhower went to Chicago for policy conferences.
The paths of the candidates will cross Saturday at one of those rare political occasions, a gathering at which both standard bearers speak from the same platform the same day. This will take place at the National Ploving Contest at Kasaan, Minn.

Eisenhower, fresh from a triumphant two-day airplane tour of the Southland, got an enthusiastic reception Thursday night from 17,000 men and women who gathered in Philadelphia's Convention Hall to hear him talk on foreign policy. To a wildly cheering throng the GOP presidential nominee said: "Let's sweep this country with such a wave of resolve, determination and action that the little men, the defeats, the false prophets of the false doctrine that it can't be done, will be tossed out of power and the real America given a chance to move in."

On that theme—and offering a 10-point peace program of his own—Eisenhower formally launched his presidential campaign.

In at least one speech, and possi-ly others, the Democratic presidential candidate intends to carry the fight to the Republicans, answering arguments, and attempting to now down some of their major contentions.

Stevenson's campaign manager, Wilson Wyatt, said he will "pay his respects for one or more of the catch phrases and slogans of the Republicans."

Wyatt described the reports of Eisenhower's high powered drive through the South as merely "interesting." He added, "It hasn't worried us."

Stevenson, along with some 65 correspondents accompanying him on the Western trip, watched a television broadcast of Eisenhower's Philadelphia speech. The political writers were guests of the governor for dinner.

They deserted the tables en masse, however, when the broadcast of Eisenhower's appearance began. So did Stevenson, leaving before the ice cream appeared.

Eisenhower Lists 10 Points To Achieve Peace In World

PHILADELPHIA—(AP)—Here is Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower's 10-point program for peace:

1. An administration in Washington "which we ourselves can trust."
2. An administration "that puts its trust in the people."
3. A foreign policy with "clear and positive goals."
4. Allies in Europe, South America, the Middle East, Asia and Africa who "must be bound to us in friendship."
5. The aid "by peaceful means" of the right of everyone "to live in freedom."
6. "Unwavering support" of the United Nations.
7. An America economically strong and growing daily in productive strength.
8. An America strong militarily but striving for permanent peace "with general disarmament."
9. "Imaginative and practical use of every other means for preventing war," including "power of truth" and "able diplomacy."
10. "Root out of government those who would betray our system or abuse our confidence."

THE PHILADELPHIA STORY—

Ike Wins Feminine Voters As Yanks Beat Bob Shantz

PHILADELPHIA — (AP)—GOP Presidential Candidate Dwight D. Eisenhower is using his famous twinkling eyes and big smile along with campaign oratory to win the women voters of the country.

Perhaps partially because of this effort, more than half the 250,000 persons who cheered him on Philadelphia's downtown streets Thursday along his 40-block route were women. Some of them ran alongside his car shaking hands and wishing him well.

And again Thursday night at Convention Hall where he made his first big political speech of the campaign, a majority of the audience were women. Reporters traveling with the candidate in his two-day tour of the South said they noted the same trend.

Youth Dies In Steam Chamber At Cannery

SALEM, ORE. — (AP)—A high school student pushed a load of beans into a huge steam room at a cannery Thursday night, inadvertently was locked inside and scalded to death.

The boy was Charles Ross Hughes, 17, Salem, who was working at the California Packing Company plant here this summer. Other workers did not see him push the last load of beans into the 25-foot-long room, apparently just before the doors were locked.

The steam was turned on, keeping the room at 260 degrees. Forty-five minutes later the doors were open and his body discovered.

The two fellow workers who opened the door collapsed.

Egyptian Premier Reshuffles Cabinet

CAIRO, EGYPT. — (AP)—Premier Aly Maher shook up his cabinet Friday but retained for himself responsibility at the insistence of the Army for the important posts of foreign affairs, interior, war and navy.

He ousted two ministers and brought in five others, including a member of the extreme anti-British National Party.

Maher established two new cabinet posts—minister of municipalities and minister of reconstruction. The latter ministry will be in charge of the extensive land rehabilitation program to be undertaken by the government.

Maher was put in as premier on July 24 by Maj. Gen. Mohammed Naguib, the Army's strong man and the real power behind the current government.

Two days later King Farouk was forced to abdicate in favor of his infant son, King Faud II. Maher had named a non-party cabinet. He had announced previously that he planned to reshuffle it.

Youth Gang Sought In Whipping Attacks

HOUSTON — (AP)—Police said Friday they hoped to track down a juvenile gang through a whip used in one of their attacks on other juveniles.

Three beatings occurred in three days this week, apparently the work of the same youths, officers said.

The latest, reported Thursday to Lt. Alex Bartling of the Crime Prevention Bureau, concerned three 15-year-old boys who were beaten and kicked by three young men who had forced them into an old-model car.

The youths were 17 to 20 years of age, the victims reported.

Police said they believed the attackers were the same as those involved in the bullwhipping of 11-year-old Verone G. Stringer, Jr. The boy said the whip-wielder was accompanied by three other youths.

Hunter Condition Reported Improved

Condition of Duane Hunter, 16-year-old Midlander who was injured in an automobile accident near Phoenix, Ariz., last Saturday, was reported Friday to be "slightly improved." He is in a Phoenix hospital.

His parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Hunter, who are at his bedside, advised friends here that Duane now is responding to treatment but that his condition still is critical. The youth's father is expected to return to Midland Saturday.

Space Scientists Call Flying Discs Optical Illusions

STUTTGART, GERMANY — (AP)—A group of scientists who seriously expect man someday to rocket to Mars say that flying saucers may be nothing but optical illusions. And they are not space ships from another planet.

The 200 scientists from 12 countries gathered here for the Third International Astronautical Congress agreed almost unanimously that the "saucers" aren't men from Mars or any other body out in space.

The experts also said they did not believe the reported flying discs were a new weapon—but they did not rule out that possibility completely.

Most of the scientists at the congress said, however, they felt the illusion theory probably was correct.

They also agreed it would take man many more years of research before we can fly rockets into outer space. But they firmly believe travel between the planets will be possible—someday.

Two More Billions Required For U. S. Civilian Employees

WASHINGTON — (AP)—Uncle Sam's civilian payroll for the last fiscal year that ended June 30 soared almost two billion dollars above the previous year to a total of more than nine and one-half billions. Senator Byrd (D-Va.) reported Friday.

Byrd also said 2,500,122 persons were on the government's civilian payroll during July, an increase of 2,960 over June.

Both the fiscal year costs and the July totals are based upon certified reports made by the scores of federal departments, commissions, and agencies to the Congressional Committee on Reduction of Nonessential Expenditures.

It is known as the Byrd Committee because he is the chairman and founder.

For the last fiscal year (1952), the committee said payrolls of government civilian workers totaled $5,541,000,000, an increase of $4 per cent or $1,222,000,000 over the previous 12 months.

The increase was due to pay raises voted federal workers by Congress during the 12 months, and the fact there are more government workers.

Civilians employed by the military establishment received $4,639,000,000, an increase of 22 per cent or $1,136,000,000 over fiscal 1951.

Workers in civilian agencies were paid $4,902,000,000, a gain of 16 per cent or $666,000,000 over the previous year.

Most of the July increase in civilian government workers was military establishment, which gained 2,329 during the month.

The report showed 184,317 civilians employed outside the continental United States in July.

Newsboys To See Carlsbad Caverns

That small newspaper salesman on Midland's downtown streets has his day Saturday.

The Reporter-Telegram circulation department will be host to about 20 of the newsboys on an all-day trip to one of the wonders of the world, Carlsbad Caverns. They leave by auto at 4 a.m. Saturday.

Three members of the circulation department will accompany the youngsters on the trip, reward for outstanding sales. Chaperons will be Leroy Stewart, street sales manager; Jim Stephens, city district manager; and Polly Henderson of the office staff.

Two Persons Suffer Only Minor Injuries When Car Overturns

Two persons suffered only minor injuries when the automobile they were occupying overturned several times at 12:30 a.m. Friday on West Highway 80 near Midland.

Charles Giles of Midland, serving in the U. S. Navy, driver of the late model Chevrolet, was treated at Midland Memorial Hospital for a lacerated head.

Betty Jean Giles of Coronado, Calif., was treated for an injury to her left foot.

LIKE DEWEY IN '48?—

Poll Reveals U. S. Daily Newspapers Back General

NEW YORK—(P)—Republican Nominee Dwight D. Eisenhower has more support among the nation's press than any GOP presidential candidate in recent history, the trade publication Editor and Publisher says.
On the basis of questionnaires returned by 918 daily newspapers in an Editor and Publisher poll, newspaper support shaped up like this: Eisenhower, 75.16 per cent; Democratic Candidate Adlai Stevenson, 15.97 per cent.
Independent or undeclared, 9.37 per cent.
Polled by Editor and Publisher were 1,773 daily newspapers. The 918 which responded represented 81.78 per cent of those polled.
Newspapers supporting Eisenhower,

Editor and Publisher said the unprecedented support of Eisenhower largely was the result of a switch by many Southern newspapers which traditionally had supported Democratic candidates.
Editor and Publisher said it would continue to make later surveys during the campaign.
The publication's final poll in 1948 showed:
GOP Candidate Thomas E. Dewey was supported by 65.17 per cent of the daily circulation.
President Truman was supported by 15.38 per cent of the dailies with 10.63 per cent of the circulation.
Editor and Publisher said Eisenhower's major numerical and circulation support comes from states with the big metropolitan cities, while Stevenson's support is scattered.

Tax Compromise Talks Irks Dunlap
MILWAUKEE—(P)—John B. Dunlap, U. S. commissioner of internal revenue, says he's "tired of hearing innuendoes about improper settlement" of income tax liabilities.
"The law says the bureau can compromise tax liabilities and that's all we do. Dunlap said in an interview here Thursday. "When a taxpayer gets bankrupt or into receivership, the government does not forgive his tax liability," said Dunlap. "It merely settles on a cold blooded business basis by taking every dime the taxpayer's net worth reveals he has. If it shows he has assets of $5,000, the government takes $5,000."

Permian Basin Oil And Gas Log—

T-1, T&P survey. It is one-quarter mile south of No. 1-D 735L. It is slated to drill to 4,000 feet or production above that point. The Mason field is nine miles northeast of Orta.

Union Extends Glorieta Pool In NW Gains

Union Oil Company of California has extended Glorieta production in the Brown field of Northwest Gaines County one location south with the completion of No. 1-BB Jones.
It was final for a daily pumping potential of 149 barrels of 32.4-gravity oil plus 10.3 per cent water from perforations in five and one-half inch casing at 6,027-6,084 and 6,094-6,140 feet.
Pay was treated with 1,000 gallons of acid. Gas-oil ratio was 90-1. Location is 660 feet from north and west lines of section 1, block A-8, pal survey.

Dual Producer Is Reported In Moore Area Of NW Lea

Amerada Petroleum Corporation reported the first dual completion for the Moore (multipay) field of Northwest Lea County.
It is No. 1-MA State north offset to the Devonian opener of the field.
The Devonian section in No. 1-MA State potential for 813 barrels of 46.6-gravity oil daily through a 3/4-inch tubing choke and perforations at 10,450-800 feet. That section was washed with 500 gallons of mud acid. Gas-oil ratio was 29-1.
From the Wolfcamp, the well was completed for 1,460,000 cubic feet of gas, plus 40 barrels of 56-gravity distillate daily through perforations at 8,180-85 feet. That set had been washed with 1,000 gallons of acid. Gas-distillate ratio was 17,000-1.
Location is in section 24-11s-32e.

W-C Kent Venture Deepening After Reef Lime DST

Newman Brothers Drilling Company and Crane Oil Company of Texas No. 1 Bill Wyatt, wildcat in West-Central Kent County, is deepening after a drillstem test in the reef lime.
The test was taken from 6,704 to 6,718 feet. Tool was open one hour. Recovery was 200 feet of gas cut mud. Flowing pressure ranged from 400 to 550 pounds and shut-in bottomhole pressure was 1,950 pounds in 15 minutes.
No. 1 Wyatt topped the reef lime by samples at 6,704 feet, which is 131 feet high to Kewanee Oil Company No. 1 Wyatt, a failure one and one-half miles to the southeast.
Location for the Newman and Crane wildcat is 467 feet from south and 660 feet from west lines of the southwest quarter of M. D. Barnett subdivision, psi survey and 14 miles northwest of Clairmont. It is two and one-quarter miles northwest of the Salt Creek (Canyon) field.

C-E Borden Wildcat Gets Water In DST In Dolomite Section

C. I. Herring No. 1 H. L. Mack-Amerida, wildcat in Central-East Borden County, is drilling below 8,667 feet in dolomite, probably in the Ellenburger.
Operator took a one-hour drillstem test from 7,874 to 7,905 feet. Gas showed at the surface in 30 minutes and sulphur water came to the top in 40 minutes. There was no estimate of the flow.
Final recovery was 7,900 feet of sulphur water.
Location 600 feet from south and west lines of section 139, block 25, H&TC survey and 15 miles southeast of Gail and four and one-half miles northwest of the Von Roeder pool.

Lone Star Test In Lea Shows Gas On Three DST's

Lone Star Producing Company and others No. 1 State-King, wildcat in Northeast Lea County, N. M., was drilling below 5,906 feet in lime after taking three drillstem tests.
Tool was open two hours. Gas flowed at the rate of 194,000 cubic feet daily. Recovery was 578 feet of heavily gas-cut mud plus 150 feet of oil and gas-cut mud.
Open flowing bottomhole pressure was 45 pounds and 30-minute shut-in pressure was 1,570 pounds.
The second test from 4,792 to 4,822 feet lasted two hours. Gas surfaced in five minutes with estimated volume of 337,000 cubic feet daily. Recovery was 285 feet of gas-cut mud and 196 feet of heavily oil-cut mud. Open flowing bottomhole pressure was 108 pounds and shut-in pressure was 1,565 pounds after 30 minutes.
Last Test
Third test was in the interval from 4,822 to 4,873 feet. Tool was open three hours. Gas surfaced in three minutes with no estimate reported on volume. Recovery was 88 feet of oil and gas-cut mud with some free oil. Open flowing bottomhole pressure was 50 pounds and shut-in pressure after 30 minutes was 275 pounds.

Location is two miles west of the Cross Roads field and 660 feet from south and 1,080 feet from west lines of section 16-2s-35e. It is slated for a 12,250-foot bottom.

Snowden, Pembroke Extend Spraberry Field In E-C Upton

James H. Snowden and others and Ralph Pembroke No. 2-8 Doris Way has been completed as a one-half mile north and one-quarter mile northeast extension to the Pembroke field of East-Central Upton County.
It was finalized for a daily flowing potential of 440.70 barrels of 38-gravity oil. Gas-oil ratio was 860-1. Tubing pressure was 125 pounds. Pay section is from 7,180 to 7,254 feet.
Location is 660 feet from south and west lines of the northwest quarter of section 9, block N, HE and WC survey.
Ashland Oil & Refining Company will drill No. 1 J. D. Merchant as a link project in the North Pembroke field of Northeast Upton County.
Site has been set 660 feet from south and east lines of section 11, block A, H&B survey.

Weiner Will Drill Ellenburger Test In Scurry Sector

I. Weiner of Big Spring has staked location for an 8,000-foot wildcat in Southwest Scurry County two and one-half miles southwest of production in the Sharon Ridge (multipay) field.
It is No. 1 Hoyle C. Cary and is located 467 feet from south and east lines of section 111, block 97, H&TC survey. This makes it 14 miles southwest of Snyder and on a 160-acre lease.
Projected depth is calculated to take the venture into the Ellenburger. Rotary tools will be moved in and drilling will begin immediately.

Official Potential Reported On Plymouth Wildcat In Martin

Plymouth Oil Company has completed its No. 1 W. R. Morris, Southeast Martin County wildcat as a small pumping producer from the lower Spraberry sand and shale.
The prospector reported a 24-hour pumping potential of 30 barrels of oil and no water. The oil came from perforations in the casing above the total depth of 7,946 feet.
This new oil well is one and three-quarter miles northeast of the town of Stanton and one and one-half miles southeast of the Ryan Consolidated Petroleum Corporation No. 1 Willie Peters, another small pumping discovery from the Spraberry.
Location is 660 feet from north and west lines of the southwest quarter of section 7, block 35, T-1-S, T&P survey.
Previous reports on this completion failed to give the amount of oil produced.

SE Borden Field Extended South By Standard Oil

The Hobo (Pennsylvanian) field of Southeast Borden County has been extended one-half mile to the south with the completion of Standard Oil Company of Texas No. 12-6-C T. L. Griffin.
It was finalized for a calculated daily flowing potential of 446 barrels of 45.7-gravity oil and no water through a 14 1/4-inch tubing choke and from open hole at 7,066-7,099 feet.
Gas-oil ratio was 1,148-1. The potential was based on an actual 11-hour flow. Tubing pressure was 625 pounds and casing pressure was 500 pounds.
Location is 1,023 feet from south and 660 feet from east lines of the southwest quarter of section 39, block 25, H&TC survey.

Two WT Counties Get Dry Wildcats

Wildcat failures have been plugged and abandoned in two West Texas Counties.
Brooks, Turner and Blankenship No. 1 Sugs, wildcat in Northeast Reagan County, was abandoned at 2,260 feet.
The project reported no shows of commercial production.
Location was 262.5 feet from north and 757.5 feet from west lines of section 41, block A, TCRR survey and 25 miles southeast of Garden City.
In Southeast King County, Frank Wood & Associates, Inc. of Wichita Falls quit No. 1 G. M. Gillespie at 6,590 feet in barren lime.
It was located 467 feet from north and west lines of section 107, block PM, H&TC survey and 15 miles south and slightly east of Guthrie.

Reservations For Conference Of MNGS Must Be Made Quick

Persons who plan to attend the New Mexico Geological Society 1952 Field Conference are urged by representatives of that organization to make their hotel or motel reservations at once.
It has been revealed that all requests for reservations for the trip must be mailed on or before Saturday if they are to have any chance of being filled.

Dates Given
The conference is to be on October 3, 4 and 5. The trip will cover the Rio Grande trough of Central New Mexico.
The trip is to start at Santa Fe and other night stops are to be at Albuquerque, Socorro and Truth or Consequences.
Requests for room reservations for the trip should be put in the mail not later than Saturday night and should be addressed to John A. Frost, secretary-treasurer, New Mexico Geological Society, P. O. Box 187, Artesia, N. M.

Crowded Considerations
Frost has advised that there is very little likelihood of any reservation requests which are mailed after Saturday being accepted at Albuquerque. That city will be crowded during the time of the geological field conference on account of the New Mexico State Fair being in session on the same dates.
All reservation requests sent to Frost must be accompanied by $5.00 for each person for whom the accommodations are desired.

Atlantic Abandons Outpost In Reagan

The Atlantic Refining Company No. 1-D-46 University, one-half-mile northwest outpost to the concern's recently completed Ellenburger discovery in Southeast Reagan County, has been plugged and abandoned on total depth of 9,788 feet in the Ellenburger.
Last drillstem test was from 9,758 to 9,788 feet. Tool was open one hour. Recovery was 20 feet of drilling mud with no shows.
Location was at the center of the southeast quarter of the northwest quarter of section 19, block 44, University lands survey.

Saxon Abandons Rannels Wildcat

Saxon Exploration Company No. 1 Noyes Estate, wildcat in Southeast Rannels County wildcat as a small pumping producer from the lower Spraberry sand and shale.
The prospect reported a 24-hour pumping potential of 30 barrels of oil and no water. The oil came from perforations in the casing above the total depth of 7,946 feet.
This new oil well is one and three-quarter miles northeast of the town of Stanton and one and one-half miles southeast of the Ryan Consolidated Petroleum Corporation No. 1 Willie Peters, another small pumping discovery from the Spraberry.
Location is 660 feet from north and west lines of the southwest quarter of section 7, block 35, T-1-S, T&P survey.
Previous reports on this completion failed to give the amount of oil produced.

Conkling Reported In Better Condition

Robert N. Conkling, 309 East Maple Street, who is undergoing treatment in Parkland Hospital in Dallas, is much improved and out of the critical stage, attending physicians have informed relatives here.
Conkling was flown to Dallas Sunday after he became critically ill. Although he is showing improvement, he still is expected to be in a serious condition one or two weeks.
With Conkling in Dallas are his wife; his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Russell C. Conkling, and a brother, Joe Conkling.

Foreign Policy Issues Bog Down In Sematic Wildwood

By JAMES MARLOW
WASHINGTON—(P)—A brief and clear statement by President Truman or Secretary of State Acheson on precisely what our foreign policy is would be helpful to everyone's understanding.

Both men have stated that policy in different ways at different times. Yet, it has been a many-sided, developing policy. Starting with aid to Greece and Turkey, moving on to the Marshall Plan, it went into the Atlantic Pact, arms for Europe, defense of Korea, and huge rearmament.
Now that the policy has been made an issue in the presidential campaign by General Eisenhower and his advisor, John Foster Dulles, it rapidly is getting fogged in semantics.
Acheson indicated he may soon make a statement on foreign policy, although an aide said later he does not think it proper for a secretary of state to get involved in a political campaign.
In general the foreign policy can be said to be this: It's aimed at stopping Russia from going any further or gobbling up any more people. Eisenhower and Dulles, in general, agree with that.
But Eisenhower, in his speech to the American Legion, indicated the policy doesn't go far enough to suit him, although he himself was pretty vague on what he'd do to make it work better.
Will Not Rest
He said we should tell Russia we'll "never rest" until the people in the satellite nations are freed. Would we go to war to free them if Russia ignored us? He didn't say so. He didn't say how we could free them.
This statement caused concern in Europe and questioning here. Yet Acheson himself had said pretty much the same thing in a speech March 17, 1950, although not speaking as baldly as Eisenhower.
Among steps he said Russia could take to give the rest of the world some reason to believe there might be peace, he suggested Russia withdraw its arms and its pressures from the satellite countries, leaving them independent.
Two days after Eisenhower spoke Dulles undertook to explain what the general meant. He said Eisenhower didn't mean violent revolution in the satellite countries but "quiet" methods as passive resistance, non-cooperation, discontent, slowdown, industrial sabotage.

Rebel Yells Make Impression On Ike

PHILADELPHIA—(P)—GOP Presidential Nominee Dwight D. Eisenhower apparently is convinced that many Southerners are ready to revolt against the Democratic Party.
In formally launching his campaign here Thursday night, Eisenhower recalled his two-day Dixie tour and said:
"I have said and will say again and again that there is only one issue in this campaign. That issue is the mess in Washington.
"The spoken and shouted response received in the Southland was a heartening one. I'll remember the rebel yells for a long time. Thousands of aroused citizens of the South—irrespective of party—stand ready to rise up in wrath to help us clean out the Washington mess."

Grand Jury Indicts Methodist Leader

FORT WORTH—(P)—The Tarrant County Grand Jury Thursday returned 12 indictments against Hal H. Cherry, 67, well known Texas Methodist lay leader, charging him with misuse of church funds.
Eleven indictments charged Cherry with forgery by indorsement of checks totalling $18,978.78.
Bonds of $1,500 were set on each charge.
The twelfth indictment of embezzlement charged the Fort Worth foods products manufacturer with converting to his own use "on or about Jan. 24, 1950" eight U. S. treasury bonds of a total value, with accrued interest, of $4,600.
Bond in the embezzlement charge was set at $5,000.

Telephone Operator's Quick Thinking Saves Stricken Man's Life

SANTA MONICA, CALIF.—(P)—Two quick-thinking telephone operators probably saved Gene Everett's life Thursday.
Everett, 38, suffered a heart seizure while lying in bed talking to his wife on the telephone. She was in Dallas.
His wife heard Everett gasping, got the Dallas operator on the line and explained what happened. The Dallas operator quickly called the Santa Monica operator, who in turn telephoned police and firemen. Everett was revived by an inhalator squad.
