SMILING COWBOYS—Manager Jay Haney, left, and Julio de la Torre of the Indians don Western hats. Members of the club received the hats as gifts from S&Q Clothiers in ceremonies at Indian Park Friday night. The Longhorn League trophy for the best attendance on opening night this year also was presented Indian President Marion Flynt during the ceremonies.

A ruling of the state land commissioner that a vacancy exists on a strip of land running through oil-rich West Texas was held invalid here late Friday by District Judge R. W. (Bob) Hamilton.

Korean War Front Roars In New Fury

SEUL —(P)— Communist guns roared their heaviest barrage of the Korean war Saturday night and Sunday and bitter ground fighting surged ominously all across the 156-mile battlefield.

Communist mortar and artillery shelling accompanied vicious Red attacks—apparently well planned and coordinated — that knocked Allied troops back in the East, West and center of the war-torn peninsula.

The heaviest infantry action was on the western front, not far from Panmunjon truce line. There a Chinese battalion overran an Allied outpost east of Bunker Hill and forced UN defenders to withdraw from several other advance positions.

On the central sector, Chinese Reds captured Capitol Hill after blasting Allied positions with 10,800 rounds of mortar and artillery fire. The hill position is west of the Pukhan River.

Not far away, the Chinese fired about 4,500 rounds and drove UN troops from another position in bloody hand-to-hand combat.

A reinforced company of North Koreans attacked an advanced American position on the Eastern Front near Heartbreak Ridge shortly after midnight. Troops of the U. S. 25th Division hurled the Reds back in a bitter moonlight battle.

The U. S. Eighth Army reported 21,000 rounds of Communist artillery fire and indicated many thousands more fell but were not counted. The previous high fired by the Reds was 21,000 last August 9.

NO RESERVED SEAT FOR HIM

KELSO, WASH.—(P)—A Victoria, B. C., man, Donn Hall, completed a wild train ride successfully Saturday, coming in with two hands and a prayer.

Hall dashed for a Union Pacific streamliner at Vancouver, Wash. He was late and grabbed the hand-rails of a car as the northbound train pulled away from the station.

He was unable to attract the attention of anyone on the train and it picked up speed to 70 m.p.h.

Not until the streamliner pulled into Ridgefield, 14 miles away, did brakeman E. R. Penney see Hall clinging outside.

Tells Voters Split Ticket Is No Crime

AUSTIN—(P)—Gov. Allan Shivers gave up as hopeless Saturday his search for a "legal and honorable" way to let Texans vote for Dwight Eisenhower as a Democrat.

Shivers said he's still bitterly opposed to Adlai Stevenson because the Democratic presidential nominee favors federal ownership of Tidelands.

But he urged a clear-cut, Republican-Democratic contest in the general election on November 4. He called for the State Democratic Convention in Amarillo next Tuesday to certify Stevenson as the only Democratic presidential nominee on the Texas ballot.

The governor said he had given up the idea of having both Stevenson and Eisenhower listed as Democrats in separate columns of the ballot, in addition to the Republican column headed by Eisenhower.

He reminded voters they can split the ticket, scratch both candidates, or stay home on election day.

Shivers said he could not vote for Stevenson and would not vote in the Republican column.

Up To Convention He said, at his unexpectedly called press conference Saturday, that he will ask the convention to name delegates pledged to cast the state's 24 electoral votes for Stevenson.

While final decisions on Shivers' recommendations will be up to the convention, there now appears little likelihood his wishes will be ignored.

Some of the most conservative Democrats, including Governor Markham, members of the convention toward the national Democratic Administration. But a majority of the convention is expected to stick with Shivers, who has exercised strong control over party machinery this year.

"A lot of good lawyers, including the attorney general (Price Daniel), have tried to find some legal way of allowing voters to vote for Eisenhower on the Democratic ticket," said Shivers.

"I don't think there's any other way. I'm going to recommend to the convention that we just have two straight tickets — Democratic and Republican.

"I feel duty bound to say also to the convention . . . that I think we have been dispossessed by the ADA (Americans for Democratic Action), labor bosses and city bosses. I sincerely wish there was more we could do about it."

Shivers' opposition to Stevenson crystallized when the latter sided with President Truman in favor of federal ownership of Tidelands.

However, Shivers also dislikes Stevenson's view on FEPC.

Shivers refused comment "at this time" on whether he would join in a campaign of Texas Democrats to carry the state for Eisenhower by educating voters on how to split the ticket.

LITTLE APPLAUSE AT PLOWVILLE— Ike, Adlai Match Insults Before Silent Farm Crowd

KASSON - DODGE CENTER, MINN.—(P)—Dwight D. Eisenhower and Adlai Stevenson battled Saturday to what looked like a toss-up decision in their first major bids for the nation's farm vote in November.

The two presidential nominees didn't touch off any prairie fires with the farm programs they put before a vast throng of more than 100,000 persons at the National Plowing Contest site in the open fields near here.

Major Hoople Dares All To Oupick Him

Here we have Major Amos R. Hoople, of Our Boarding House, pounding out his astounding annual weekly football forecasts, which will appear on the sports pages of The Reporter-Telegram.

On this point Eisenhower pledged attentive and apparently judging one man against the other without a single roaring outburst during the day.

Point for point, the program offered by Eisenhower at noon was roughly the same which the audience heard from Stevenson three hours later when he spoke from the same platform.

The candidates matched polite insults which drew greater response than the programs they outlined for the future prosperity of the farmers.

Eisenhower declared that agricultural autocrats—he coined a word "agricrats" from this—have "been in power too long—far too long" in Washington. And the crowd cheered.

Stevenson drew applause when he quipped that it seemed "my distinguished opponent, General Eisenhower, decided to plow under the Republican farm platform altogether" in his earlier speech.

The two opponents' programs looked so nearly identical that it took a lot of digging to find the differences.

In the tremendously important field of price supports, Stevenson stood solidly on the Democratic platform calling for support prices at not less than 90 per cent of parity. But he said the 90 per cent program is not necessarily permanent or the only answer to the farm problem.

27 Persons Killed When Jet Explodes

FARNBOROUGH, ENGLAND — (P)—Britain's spectacular new jet fighter, the De Havilland 116, blew up in a faster-than-sound flight over an airfield swarming with 130,000 spectators Saturday and killed 27 persons.

Sixty-three spectators were listed officially as injured.

John Derry, 30, Britain's ace test pilot, and his observer, Tony Richards, died in the flaming wreckage of the twin-tailed, all-weather craft, and 25 spectators were killed by falling debris.

Among the thousands who watched horrified was Derry's young wife, who had been waiting nervously at the pilots' tent of the Farnborough Air Show.

Just four years ago, Derry made history by becoming the first British pilot to exceed the speed of sound—around 15 miles a minute—and live to tell about it.

The grey, two engine jet blew up just as Derry leveled it off from a screaming, eight-mile dive. Observers heard a couple of "booms" as the heavy plane, crackling through turbulence in the sound barrier, flashed by at 700 miles an hour.

The two glowing jet engines, each weighing more than a ton, and hulks of exploded wreckage thudded into a hillside thick with people. Bits of the plane sprayed the crowd like machine gun bullets.

Derry appeared only 300 to 500 feet high when the plane pulled sharply upward and then went to pieces.

The swift flight was one of the highlights of the big British air show, sponsored by the Society of British Aircraft Constructors. Present were scores of Western aviation experts.

A student at Wesleyan Conservatory of Music in Macon, Ga., she received the Miss America crown from last year's titleholder, Colleen Kay Hutchins, former Miss Utah.

The Georgia beauty with shoulder-length hair was cheered by the crowd of 15,000 in huge Convention Hall as she stood clad in a white gown with flaring skirt to receive applause.

"I'm very humble and thank you very much," she said as she accepted the award.

Miss Langley will receive a $5,000 scholarship, $4,000 in cash, a number of gifts, including an automobile and a chance to earn thousands of dollars in personal appearance fees.

Fifty-five beauties from this country, its territories and Canada had vied for the title in the Street City grand.

Timothy Taxpayer Starts Out To Learn What Goes With Midland's Bond Money

By COPE ROUTH Timothy Taxpayer banged his fist down on the desk and glared at City Manager W. H. Oswalt.

"What," he roared, "is the meaning of this?"

The little fellow reached into the pocket of his well-worn coat and pulled out a copy of a newspaper.

"What in heaven's name," he shouted, "did you do with that other money I gave you?"

"It hasn't been hardly two years since I shelled out $3,500,000 and that was supposed to last five years. You mean it's all gone now?"

The city manager rubbed his hand wearily across his forehead and studied the little fellow in front of him.

Midlander Injured In Fall From Car Northwest Of City

Nineteen-year-old Tille King, a secretary for the Tide Water Oil Company, was injured Saturday when she fell from an automobile 15 miles northwest of Midland.

Although suffering severe abrasions and bruises, attendants at Midland Memorial Hospital said Saturday afternoon her condition was "satisfactory."

Miss King fell from the automobile as she and her mother, Mrs. William Fletcher Speed of Odessa, were driving to Lubbock.

She said she had started to pass another automobile when the second vehicle swerved to the left. Her own car struck a post and the door flew open.

Miss King, who was driving, fell to the ground as the automobile rolled some distance before coming to a stop.

NATO Army Plans Force With Support Of Atomic Weapons

SUPREME HEADQUARTERS, ALLIED POWERS IN EUROPE—(AP)—Gen. J. Lawton Collins, U. S. Army chief of staff, said Saturday North Atlantic treaty forces in Europe eventually will be supported by atomic weapons.

The general told a news conference that discussions are under way for integrating weapons, including artillery and guided missiles, into the European forces.

He added, however, that such weapons "were not immediately available."

Collins said such weapons "can add materially to the ability of Western Europe to defend itself."

He warned, however, that "it would be a mistaken idea to believe that the number of divisions immediately required in Europe could be reduced" by use of new weapons.

Collins said the weapons would, of course, lessen the size of future defensive forces but that for the present Europe will need to live up to its schedule of military expansion, in order to be more effective in defense against possible attack.

Collins refused to say how soon atomic weapons would be coming off U. S. assembly lines but conceded it will be in "less than 10 years."

Egyptian Cabinet Members Sworn In Amid Crisis Rumor

CAIRO, EGYPT—(AP)—Premier Aly Maher's reshuffled cabinet was sworn in Saturday after a behind-the-scenes clash which almost brought on a crisis.

Informants said the dispute involved Nureddin Tarrat, new municipality minister and leader of the British-hating Nationalist Party. They said Tarrat's insistence that British troops be ousted from the Suez Canal zone and the Sudan be unified with Egypt brought loud protests from Maher.

Maher reportedly told the Army, which backed Tarrat, that he did not want a party man in his cabinet and certainly not a member of such an anti-British group. However, the Army, which put Maher in power last July, reportedly told him it was solidly behind Tarrat's nationalist aspirations, and did not consider them anti-Western.

Sham 'Red' Attack Fails To Destroy Bridges On Rhine

FRANKFURT, GERMANY—(AP)—An American paratroop attack in Russian style on the Rhine River bridges at Mainz failed Saturday as aggressor tanks appeared westward in U. S.-French maneuvers in Germany.

Sixty men were dropped from low-flying U. S. planes with theoretical orders to blow up the Rhine bridges and cut off the retreat of defending French-American infantry from the vicinity of the Soviet zone frontier.

Directors of "Exercise Rosebush," in which four U. S. and French divisions are engaged, said all 80 quickly were captured by Mainz defenders.

The airborne assault was patterned on what Allied strategists think the Russians might try to do in an invasion from East Germany. It was carried out only on a small scale, however.

But when they got home, she said an argument started and she threatened to kill her. She fired seven shots and Bay died at Jefferson Davis Hospital.

Mrs. Bay was charged with murder.

Police records showed Bay served two terms in the state prison for burglary.

Things To Come

It's a commonplace of the stock market that big events are anticipated days and sometimes weeks in advance. Thus discounted ahead of time, the events usually produce little shock when they actually occur.

Paraphrase these discrepancies between forecast and event wouldn't arouse too much concern if the erring observers simply acknowledged mistakes and vowed they wouldn't happen again.

But some of the experts insist on blaming the participants in the events, instead of themselves, when things don't work out as they predicted.

Certainly it never was easy to foretell activities in the realm of practical affairs. There is no accurate barometer for human behavior.

Nowadays the confusion of affairs vastly has complicated the task of predicting. That very complexity is the prime excuse for error by the experts.

But the difficulties of digging for even that part of the facts which one man can unearth fairly have tended to discourage too many. A lot of them therefore have become little more than collectors of surface impressions, and rather jaded collectors at that.

There is no cure for this condition but hard work. Because the world is harder to understand does not mean we can abandon the project.

Instead of talking events to death before they occur, our experts ought to spend their time scanning thoroughly the groundwork for those events—talking to all the people they can, reviewing past history where it has a bearing, getting and keeping the feel of the country where the events will be made.

Less talk and more action on the observers' front wouldn't eliminate forecasting errors. But it might make the surprises less frequent.

Unlamented Passing

Representative Rankin, Mississippi Democrat who has served in the House of Representatives 32 years, finally has succumbed to defeat. No ordinary adversary ever was able to beat him, and no extraordinary ones wanted to try.

But the 1950 census took a House seat away from Mississippi and forced a congressional redistricting that put Rankin and Representative Abernathy in direct competition this year. Rankin wasn't equal to that test.

It is unlikely that the American people will mourn his departure from the political scene as the regrettable loss of a statesman.

The trouble with most inventions to end wars is that they shoot in all directions.

Progress is stopped by folk who use an office to look for sleep they lost the night before.

Folk who are too busy raising children to look for happiness usually find plenty of it.

Even at the age of one, the younger generation has a habit of staying up all night raising Cain.

What you see through some glasses all depends on how many times you fill them—and with what.

The Presidential Handicap

The Washington Merry-Go-Round

By Drew Pearson (Copyright, 1953, By The Bell Syndicate, Inc.)

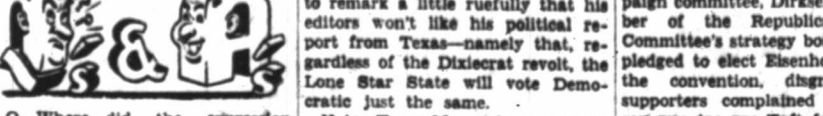

Drew Pearson says: Texas is biggest test for Stevenson in South; Governor Shivers plans to put Eisenhower's name on Democratic ticket in Texas; Speaker Sam Rayburn opposes Dixiecrats.

WASHINGTON—Toughest test of Gov. Adlai Stevenson in the South comes Tuesday when the Lone Star State of Texas stages its Democratic convention. At it, Gov. Allan Shivers and others plan a move to put the names of General Eisenhower and Senator Nixon on the ticket not under the Republican label but as Democrats.

In the first place, the Shivers plan is to put two Democratic tickets on the ballot—one a national ticket featuring Eisenhower and Nixon; the other a Texas Democratic Party listing local candidates. This is contrary to Texas law, which clearly states that the ballot cannot list two parties with similar names.

Second, local Texas officials do not relish the idea of running on a separate ticket. Rayburn Revolts. Third, Speaker Sam Rayburn and ex-Congressman Mervyn Dymally plus a big block of Fair Deal Democrats are all set to contest every move made by Governor Shivers and his state convention at Amarillo Tuesday. And it seems likely that the Texas Supreme Court, already reported fed up with Shivers' proposed distortion of the law, will back them up.

Meanwhile, Dan Moody, one of the top lawyers of Texas and a pro-Eisenhower leader, has advised that Shivers cannot legally put the Republican candidates' names on the Democratic ticket and that the court would throw the Shivers plan out. Instead he proposes that Gov-

Q—Where did the expression 'true blue' originate? A—The Scotch Covenanters of the 17 Century chose blue as the color of their emblem in opposition to the royal red, and from this came the expression 'true blue,' originally applied to a loyal Presbyterian.

Q—How does the ruby rank among gems? A—It is the rarest, and in large sizes, the costliest of the gems.

Q—What is the name of the oldest doll in America? A—'Lettie Penn' is probably the oldest doll in America. It was brought from England to Philadelphia by William Penn in 1699. Made of wood, it is dressed in a gown of brocade and velvet like a lady of the English Court. The doll is on exhibit in the Smithsonian Institution.

Q—Is the fez still worn in Egypt? A—Yes.

JACOBY ON BRIDGE

By OSWALD JACOBY Written for NEA Service

If I ever write a book called "What Every Bridge Player Should Know," I will surely include the correct play by East at the first trick in today's hand. When this hand was actually played, East hadn't read my book and therefore came up with the wrong answer.

West opened the six of spades, and East won with the ace. He didn't see anything wrong with this play, since he had been taught "third hand high," at his mother's knee.

East continued with the queen of spades and South held off. South won the third spade and promptly went after the clubs. East could take the king of clubs, but there the defense unwillingly rested. East could not lead another spade, and South easily won the rest.

Table with columns for NORTH (D), WEST, EAST, SOUTH, and North-South vul. It lists various card holdings and scores.

As everybody has noticed by now, I hope, the correct play by East at trick one is the queen of spades. If East makes this play naturally and automatically, South will be compelled to take his king immediately.

If he fails to do so, he runs the risk of winning no spade contract at all. For he can tell, West has the ace of spades, and this is his only chance to stop the suit.

After South wins the first spade trick, he cannot make his contract. He needs at least two club tricks and he will therefore quite naturally try the club finesse. East will then play the king of clubs, lay down the ace of spades, and lead a third spade, permitting West to take the rest of the suit.

The whole point is that East loses nothing by playing the queen of spades at the first contract. If West has the king of spades, East's queen will win the first trick. If South has the king of spades, he is bound to win a trick with it sooner or later, and the defense should make every effort to force South to win the trick sooner rather than later.

CARD Sense

Q—The bidding has been: North 1 Heart, East 2 Spades, South 2 Hearts, West 3 Spades. You, South, hold: Spades 7-6-2, Hearts 7, Diamonds A-K-J-9-4, Clubs A-J-10-5. What do you do?

A—Bid three clubs. This bid at the level of three by the responding hand is forcing. If partner can take care of spades he may be able to try for game in no-trump.

TODAY'S QUESTION

The bidding is the same as in the question just answered. You, South, hold: Spades 7-6-2, Hearts 7-5, Diamonds A-K-J-9-4, Clubs A-J-10-5. What do you do?

WASHINGTON COLUMN

Only Northern Editors Think GOP Can Crack Solid South

By PETER EDSON NEA Washington Correspondent

Washington—Answers to half a dozen riddles will determine the result of the 1952 presidential election campaign. These are the riddles, all of which have been put to the 700 U. S. newspaper editors receiving this column for a national poll of political trends and issues:

What Southern states will Republicans be able to carry, if any?

Will Taft Republicans support Eisenhower, or not vote?

Will the Dixiecrats support the Democrats, or Eisenhower?

Will Northern negro majorities vote Democrat or Republican?

Which farm policy plank has the greatest appeal to rural voters?

What are the determining issues for the independent voters who hold the balance of power to swing the election one way or the other?

A fourth of the editors replying to this questionnaire believe the GOP will carry no Southern states. These editors come mostly from the Southwest, the Midwest, and the border states of the Midwest, are most familiar with local politics. It is the editors of the North who think the Solid South can be cracked.

Thirty-four per cent of the editors believe the GOP will take Texas and the highest Republican hopes are on the Lone Star state. Twenty-two per cent think Virginia will go Republican, 15 per cent pick Florida, eight per cent South Carolina, seven per cent Louisiana. A scattered three per cent think Georgia, North Carolina, Kentucky, Tennessee or Alabama might quit the Democrats for Ike.

Of the Texas editors themselves, 55 per cent thought the Republicans could carry the state, but most added, "Maybe." Forty-five per cent of the Texas editors think the GOP will carry no Southern states. The other five per cent said it was too early to tell.

Dixiecrats Go Democratic? In the South itself, 31 per cent of the editors think Texas might go Republican, 16 per cent pick Virginia, 13 per cent Florida and South Carolina, 10 per cent Louisiana, seven per cent Mississippi, the rest scattered at less than five per cent.

To the query of whether the Dixiecrats would vote Republican, vote Democrat or stay away from the polls, a fourth of the editors—almost all in the North—declined to answer for lack of information.

Of those who did reply, 35 per cent said the Dixiecrat majority would vote Democrat. Fifteen per cent thought there would be a heavy Ike vote in the South. Only three per cent of the editors thought Dixiecrats would stay away from the polls in protest and two per cent thought the vote would split about 50-50.

On the reverse question in the North—Will Taft Republicans support Eisenhower?—the answer is overwhelmingly "yes" by 85 to 15.

Another 60 per cent of the editors thought military spending was a major issue but only two per cent seemed worried about China policy. Asked to write in any other issues they considered important, seven per cent thought present prosperity was an important factor. But only five per cent listed "the need for a change."

Corruption and the Truman record were listed as most important issues in every section of the country. Spreading bureaucracy, the trend to socialism, Tidelands, the United Nations, General Eisenhower's inexperience and opposition to having a military man in the White House got only token mention. Nobody mentioned "peace," which General Eisenhower has said is the number one issue.

Since the farm vote swing to President Truman was held largely responsible for his victory in 1948, this issue is weighted far more important in the farm belt than the 16 per cent rating above would indicate.

Forty-three per cent of the editors in this poll thought the Republican farm policy planks better, to 31 per cent favoring the Democratic platform. Only in the South was the Democratic program the favorite, 59 per cent to 17 per cent.

As one editor commented anonymously, "Farmers were never more prosperous, but they still out for all they can get and the party that promises the most will win their vote."

What's RIGHT?

You are talking with a couple who have been dating for a long time, and you wonder if they are planning to marry. WRONG: Ask in a joking manner, "When are you two going to get married?" RIGHT: Never embarrass a couple by any such personal question or remarks.

Project Pygmalion

By Grey MacMillan Copyright 1952 by NEA Service, Inc.

When no one answered our knock, we waited in. The shades were drawn and we could hear water running in the bath room. Ida was singing. David raised the shade and the cold winter light filled the apartment. A man was asleep on the couch, his mammoth belly rising and falling. He was dressed in shoes, socks, rumpled trousers and a dirty undershirt. David waved his hand at the couch. "That's Bobo," he said. "Too much New Year's Eve."

A mangled looking kitten was asleep on a newspaper in the middle of the littered floor. Its head resting against a dirty dish. As David crossed over to the bureau, he did not see the kitten, and accidentally kicked it. An agonized miaow rent the air, and it ran under the bed. David got on his knees and tried to coax it out.

"Well, if it isn't the Boy Scout's said Ida. She had come out of the bathroom, and stood facing us, grinning. She wore a padded cotton housecoat, with big red roses printed all over it, and a pair of ostrich-feather mules.

"Happy New Year," said David, standing up. "It came to pick up the rest of my things. Ector's got his car outside to help me."

"That so?" she said. "Whereabouts you moving?"

"Got me a little room across town. I won't take anything but the rest of my things. You can have all the rest."

He began putting things in a cardboard box. Teetering back and forth on her high-heeled mules, she watched David as he worked. "I know, honey," she said presently. "I'm gonna charge desertion in the divorce suit."

"Do whatever you like," shrugged David, not looking at her. "When are you gonna get the divorce?"

Project Pygmalion

By Grey MacMillan Copyright 1952 by NEA Service, Inc.

"Well, it may take two-three months. We've gotta drive to Nevada, and both get jobs. Soon's the divorce is final, we'll get married. We may even decide to stay there if we like it. Nevada'll be good for me. The rheumatism came back something awful in my left arm. That's why the place is such a mess—I couldn't clean it up the way I felt."

"I thought I caught a flash of pleading, of something akin to tenderness, in her voice."

"That's too bad, Ida. . . Well, I guess I've got everything now. All except one thing—I can't find my watch anywhere."

"What'd you expect—you run off and leave me without any money. Here, I'll give you the pawn ticket."

She picked up a chipped patent leather purse from the jumble of objects on the bureau, rummaged in it, and came up with a green slip of paper. "Here, fella. Don't say I never gave you nothing. And, by the way, you owe a month's rent here—we have to give 30 days notice when we move, you know."

"Okay," said David dully. "I'm going now. If you ever want to send me a letter, use my folks' address. When Bobo wakes up, give him my regards. I hope you and him will be happy together."

He was standing at the door, the box in his arms, as he said this.

"Thanks," Ida said, and unexpectedly burst into a storm of tears.

We went down the stairs.

IN February Betty had a birthday, so Karl threw a party for her. He baked the cake himself (a process that involved every dish and pan in the kitchen) and invited a dozen or so people. David volunteered to contribute pictures of the occasion.

The living room was clogged with conversations and smoke, and was bending over the record player talking to Jill Ormond—the girl from my art class—when I observed a girl who worked in the library with Betty detach herself from a group and wiggle over to David. I'd met her once or twice before, and didn't care for her particularly. Bleached hair, bedroom eyes, an uplift that lifted impossibly high. Ida's type.

David had put away his camera and was balanced on the wide window sill drinking black coffee when this mouse suddenly confronted him.

"Are you a doctor, too?" I heard her ask David.

"No, I'm just trying like crazy to be a good photographer," said David, with his disarming smile. "Oh." She stared at him with her little blank face for a moment. "I had a friend once who worked his way through college taking pictures."

"I'm not that far along yet," said David simply. "Right now, I'm going to night classes to get me a high school diploma. Just give me time, is all. 'Scuse me, will you."

She watched his retreating back with something akin to dismay. She wasn't used to the brushoff.

I GOT to thinking about David again last night. Because I was awake most of the night, sitting in the kitchen boiling water on all four burners, holding Pamela in my lap. She's had a cruppy cold for three days now, and steaming's the only way to relieve her breathing. She cuddled against my shoulder and patted me from time to time. She's six months old now, and big for her age. I sat up with the baby because Jill's been up last night when Pamela woke crying. I told Jill I'd take over.

You're the bestest husband, I murmured. Jill, my former art student, and went back to sleep instantly. I bent and kissed her cheek. She was wearing a pair of my pajamas, and she smelled of good soap.

Along toward morning, the baby seemed better, and went to sleep. I hope she's all right by Saturday, because David's coming over to take some pictures of her.

Speedy Delivery Of Drouth-Relief Hay Promised To Texans Through U. S. Aid

By The Associated Press
Agriculture officials started the ball rolling Saturday to get federal aid hay, possibly within a week, for drouth-stricken farmers and ranchers in 73 Texas counties.

B. M. Vance, chairman of the state production and marketing administration committee for the U. S. Department of Agriculture, made a "rough estimate" that the farmers need one-half to three-quarters of a million tons of feed to keep foundation herds going the next three or four months.

Following a conference with Governor Shivers and State Agriculture Commissioner John C. White, Vance said his office would message initial orders to the Community Credit Corporation's Chicago office Sunday.

He said the hay made available by President Truman's declaring Texas a drouth disaster area will sell at the following prices: legume hay, $34 per ton; mixed hay, $33; and grass hay, $28.

Vance estimated the average would be "six to eight to ten dollars cheaper" than what farmers have been paying.

Order In Country
Farmers will place orders with county agriculture committees, which will relay them to the State Agricultural Mobilization Committee, also headed by Vance. Actual delivery of hay from northern points will be handled by local feed dealers, who will get a nominal handling fee, White said.

Vance said farmers must agree not to re-sell the hay. He promised an intensive effort to prevent black marketing of the feed.

Vance said initial orders will be about 100 tons per county, with farmers and ranchers limited to approximately a 30-day supply until all eligible persons have received a supply.

Orders already have been received from Brown, Taylor and Erath counties, three of the hardest hit areas, said Otis Cawser, assistant to Vance.

"No doubt there will be a flood of orders by Monday," Vance predicted.

Cash On Barrel Head
He anticipated other counties might be added later if their condition became more critical.

Farmers will be required to make a deposit of $5 per ton with each order and will have to pay "cash on the barrel head" when delivery is made.

Asked if the cheaper hay amounted to a government subsidy, which the governor has said he opposed, Vance replied: "You can call it a whatever you want to." In view of prices now being paid in West Texas, ranging from $40 to $65 per ton for legume hay, Vance predicted "the government's going to lose money on it."

The government will buy the hay and pay the freight, Vance thought the hay would come mostly from Iowa, Wisconsin and Minnesota.

Meanwhile, there was no sign of a break in the drouth, although cooler temperatures brought some relief from the prolonged August heat wave. There has been no extended rain in the state since the Middle of May.

Uvalde, Val Verde, Wise, Young, West Texas farmers and ranchers have been hit harder than any other section of the state.

Cotton Crop Cut
Kennedy N. Clapp, in charge of Anderson, Clayton & Company West Texas operations, said cotton estimates in his region have reduced from 118,000 to 124,000 bales.

The only West Texas area reported in good shape is that around Lubbock where irrigation from deep wells has kept crops green.

Johnson's Group To Study Carswell Storm Precautions

FORT WORTH—A Senate committee began probing into the circumstances surrounding Monday's wind disaster at Carswell Air Force Base Saturday as Maj. Gen. S. E. Anderson, Eighth Air Force chief, reported that 40 per cent of the field's B-36's were back "in commission."

The investigation was started by the Senate preparedness subcommittee, headed by Senator Lyndon Johnson of Texas, to determine what precautions were taken at Carswell against such storms as the one which buffeted the base.

General Anderson reported at a press conference Friday that the B-36's seen in the air since Monday's storm have been principally on test flights. He added, however, that a regular simulated combat mission set for Tuesday will be carried out on schedule.

The six worst-damaged B-36's will require about six months to repair and the least-wrecked of the "several" classed as major casualties will be back on flying status within a month, Anderson said.

He added that no monetary damage figure was available.

Two-Year-Old Boy Struck By Tractor

Norman Pemberton, two years old, Route 1, suffered only bruises Saturday when he was struck by a tractor.

He was admitted to Midland Memorial Hospital for treatment. X-rays were being studied Saturday afternoon for possible fractures.

Child Rescued From Flames

While a distraught, screaming mother was restrained by kindly neighbors, another neighbor, J. J. Cullen—dashed into a flaming, smoke-filled trailer house Friday afternoon and rescued a three-month-old child.

Mrs. C. W. Martin was pinning clothes on a line near her trailer home in the Halliburton Oil Well Cementing Company camp. Her husband, was at work, while their baby son, Rodney Glenn, slept peacefully in his crib inside the trailer house.

"Suddenly, a neighbor screamed that my trailer house was on fire,"

Mrs. Martin told a Reporter-Telegram reporter.

"I turned around and saw flames and smoke billowing from my trailer house," she said. "I started screaming and attempted to go inside the trailer to get my baby, but neighbors held me back."

Cullen, employed as a hydrate operator by the Halliburton company, dashed inside the trailer and brought the baby out. Cullen was overcome momentarily by smoke that filled his lungs while making the dramatic rescue.

Another neighbor, identified as a Mr. Williams, breathed into the child's mouth and applied artificial respiration. Afterwards, the youngster was rushed to Midland Memorial Hospital for treatment.

Flames Grow Higher After Ike's Tour Of Dixie Ignites Political Tinderbox

ATLANTA—(P)—Dwight D. Eisenhower may or may not have gained a hand-hold on some Southern electoral votes with his foray of this week but there's no doubt he stirred things up for both parties down in Dixie.

The size and enthusiasm of the crowds—running to about 150,000 for six speeches—which turned out for the presidential nominee in Georgia, Florida, Alabama and Arkansas sent Republican hopes bubbling to a 34-year high.

GOP spokesmen were pointing even more boldly at specific states they hope to win, with most attention focused on Texas, Florida, Virginia and Louisiana which have a combined electoral vote total of 56.

ATLANTA—... an administration by too many men who are too small for their jobs, too big for their breeches and too long in power"

Not since 1936 when Herbert Hoover carried seven southern states have the Republicans looked so hopefully toward Dixie.

Demos Officially Calm

Some Democratic leaders are maintaining an official calm, viewing the Eisenhower turnouts as a normal public tribute to a famous war leader. They argue that the best Ike can hope for is to roll up respectable minorities instead of the usual 10-1 or 20-1 linnings given GOP nominees in the 13 "solid South" states which have a total of 146 electoral votes.

But others see the general's swift, triumphant tour as a challenge that can be met only by having Gov. Adlai Stevenson make a similarly vigorous drive in Dixie—where Democrats traditionally never have conducted more than token campaigns.

Still another result of the Eisenhower showing was to encourage Southern Democratic leaders like Gov. Herman Talmadge of Georgia to warn Stevenson that he must check what they regard as a swift swing to the left if he is to hold the solid South.

Talmadge has criticized recent Stevenson statements on offshore Tidelands ownership, civil rights legislation and Senate filibusters which have blocked passage of such legislation.

Governor Allan Shivers has indicated he will not vote for Stevenson because of the Tidelands issue, and in 6,000 letters from Texas citizens, they supported his stand by a 10-1 ratio. He declined to comment on Ike's chances except to say Texas is in the "doubtful column."

At least one prominent Florida Democrat shares the opinion that Eisenhower may carry Florida. Senator George Smathers said his impact on the South "is a matter of concern for Democrats."

The senator noted that President Truman got less than 50 per cent of the Florida vote in 1948 and said he believes there is a possibility for the Republicans to carry his state this year. He strongly urged Stevenson to campaign in Florida.

Rift In Virginia

Party leaders in Virginia divided sharply on the situation there. GOP State Chairman S. Floyd Landreth and National Committeeman Ted Dalton both said Eisenhower's Southern trip has won him a substantial number of votes and his later train trip through Virginia will win that state.

On the Democratic side, State Chairman T. Nelson Parker said he did not think Eisenhower's trip changed the situation there or that Stevenson's statements have hurt him. Gov. John S. Battle, who has endorsed Stevenson, declined to comment.

In Alabama, where Republicans got 19 per cent of the 1948 vote and the Democrats none because they weren't on the ballot, Gov. Gordon Persons compared Eisenhower's invasion of the South with Gen. William T. Sherman's devastating march through Georgia during the civil war.

Other Alabama Democrats thought Ike's welcome was just a tribute to a distinguished citizen, but GOP Chairman Claude O. Vardaman said "40,000 people don't come out solely from curiosity." Gessner T. McCorvey, state rights leader, predicted "countless thousands" of Democrats will stay away from the polls in November.

In Mississippi, Sam Farrington, campaign manager of the Mississippi Eisenhower Democrats, claimed Eisenhower's tour "showed traditionally Democratic South well on its way out of the Truman-Stevenson bag." He said his headquarters had been deluged with calls, telegrams and letters since Ike's Birmingham address.

TAMPA—"I am talking about the mess in Washington, and we want to clean it up fully—we must clean it up."

Ex-Olympic Heroine Held As Shoplifter

GLENDALE, CALIF.—(P)—Stella Marge Walsh, 41, woman sprint star of the 1932 Olympic games, was arraigned Saturday on a charge of shoplifting.

The former holder of seven American and three world track records was arrested Friday and accused of slipping a half pound of butter, a carton of cottage cheese and a jar of peach preserves into her purse while shopping at a market. The items totaled $1.44.

Trailer Damaged

While the interior of the trailer house was ruined by fire, the Martin's clothing inside a closet was not damaged.

Cause of the blaze was undetermined. Mrs. Martin said she believed it originated from defective wiring.

Louisiana Governor Breaks From Demos To Support Ike

BATON ROUGE, LA.—(P)—Gov. Robert Kennon of Louisiana broke away from the national Democratic ticket Saturday and said he would vote for GOP Presidential Nominee Dwight Eisenhower.

Kennon, arch foe of "Trumanism," said, "I am a Democrat, but first I am an American—the latter transcends party politics."

The Dixie Democrats said Eisenhower "appears to me to have the courage and desire to end the Truman era of mink coats, deep freezers, payoffs and rackets in our federal government."

Louisiana hasn't moved into the Republican column in a presidential election since 1876. A majority of voters refused to support President Truman in 1948 and backed the States' Rights ticket.

Kennon, who won a landslide victory in the Spring gubernatorial election, said:

"I have given this deep thought. I have made my decision that the present party leaders have deserted the Democratic principles."

The Louisiana governor, who floor-managed his delegation's battle against the "loyalty pledge" at the Chicago convention, scored Gov. Adlai Stevenson for embracing "the Truman-Humphrey federal compulsory FEPC," "the Truman anti-states rights' position on Tidelands," and "Truman's plan to limit debate in the U. S. Senate."

Besses, City Machine

He said, "Beneath the scholarly Wilsonian accent of the Democratic nominee is the reality of Trumanism and bossisms—the stark tones and cracking whips of party bosses and their city machines."

Kennon's support of Eisenhower draws the line in state politics for another scrap with his most outspoken opponents, members of the dynamic Long family, powerful in Louisiana for two generations.

When Kennon led the Louisiana fight against the "loyalty pledge," it was U. S. Senator Russell Long, who took a dramatic stand in opposition to Kennon's uncle, former Gov. Earl Long and Dr. George Long, have announced for Stevenson.

Sleeping Sickness Outbreak Reported In Panhandle Area

AMARILLO—(P)—At least eight persons have been stricken in an outbreak of encephalitis in the Panhandle-South Plains area.

Encephalitis, known as sleeping sickness, is a livestock disease that is contagious to humans.

Five persons are being treated in Plainview hospitals and one in Lockney. Two other persons were discharged from the Lockney hospital recently.

The outbreak began the early part of August in the southeast section of Floyd County. At one time as many as 500 had of cattle were affected. Most of them recovered.

Bridges Conviction Affirmed By Court

SAN FRANCISCO—(P)—The Federal Appeals Court Saturday affirmed the 1950 perjury conviction of longshore leader Harry Bridges. It also upheld the order revoking his U. S. citizenship.

Bridges, native Australian, was convicted of swearing falsely at his naturalization hearing in 1945 that he wasn't a Communist.

Two fellow-officers of the International Longshoremen's and Warehousemen's Union were convicted with him—of conspiracy only. They were his naturalization witnesses.

Rapist Sentenced To Die In Chair

PALESTINE—(P)—Jimmy Richardson, 30, a negro yardman, received the death penalty here Friday after being convicted of raping a 15-year-old Palestine white girl.

The girl testified she was dragged from her bed the night of July 18, beaten into unconsciousness and carried to a spot near her rural home and assaulted.

Rushed To Hospital

Hurricane To Blow Away Hotel's Bills

MIAMI BEACH, FLA.—(P)—The next hurricane that roars into Miami Beach is going to blow some good for a large number of people—namely, the guests of the fashionable old MacPadden Deauville Hotel.

Manager Peter Niles said Saturday that every day the wind reaches 70 miles per hour, the hotel will throw all the day's room bills out the window.

Big Spring Takes Slugfest, 9 To 6

SWEETWATER—(P)—With each side sending three pitchers into the conflict, Big Spring defeated Sweetwater, 9-6, in a wild slugfest here Saturday night.

The Broncos stood an early 7-0 lead, saw the Braves shave the margin to 7-6 with two runs in the fifth and fourth in the eighth inning, then added a pair of insurance tallies in the ninth for a split in the two-game series.

Regal Corrales, who replaced Big Spring's starter, Bert Estrada, in the fifth inning with the bases loaded and one away, received credit for this 11th victory although he had to call on Bert Baez for help in the eighth stanza.

The lanky right-hander pulled himself out of hot water time after time as his teammates co-operated by turning, in two double plays and a spectacular ground-ball triple play which had the fans gasping.

The rare triple killing came in the fourth inning when Audie Malone bounced a grounder to Julio de la Torre. De la Torre stepped on third to force Wayne Crawford, fired at second to force Van Huppert and Manny Temes relayed the ball on to Earl Bosenberry at first for a close decision.

Twice the Rockets loaded the bases only to find themselves without a run as Dwire skimmed through to put an end to the rallies.

The Indians picked up their lead in the opening inning when Bosenberry doubled into left center field and scored on Gahlen Dinkle's solid single into right.

They added two more in the second by combining De la Torre's single with two walks and two wild pitches that hit Dinkle and Brown to give them a free trip to the bases.

Roswell picked up its only run in the third inning when Stubby Greer slammed a line over the left center field wall with no one on base.

Midland came back in their half of the fourth to score on Gordon Tanner's single. Dwire's sacrifice bunt and Bosenberry's single into rightfield.

In the sixth inning, Malone gave up hits to Tanner and Temes and walked Dinkle and Brown and then retired to the showers as Johnny Grayham finally put out the Indians after they had scored four runs.

The Indians added one more in the eighth inning when Bosenberry sent one sailing over the left field fence.

SAN ANGELO—(P)—The San Angelo Colts turned Artesia's own weapon, power, loose Saturday night and downed the Drillers by 8-0.

Hal Swearingen, Colt pitcher, who Friday night was able to finish but 1 1/3 innings against the Drillers, hurled four-hit ball in capturing his third win against one defeat.

Three home runs rattled off the Colt bats as they sent Bob Presley to his eighth defeat against a like number of wins.

The New York Giants, bent on pulling off another miracle, plastered a double defeat upon pressure-burdened Brooklyn Saturday, 6-4 and 7-3, to slice the Dodgers' once-healthy National League lead to four games.

PHILADELPHIA—(P)—Del Ennis' home run to open the seventh-inning longest National League game of the season—gave the Philadelphia Phillies a 7 to 6 victory over the Boston Braves Saturday night in the opener of a twilight doubleheader at Shibe Park.

The game will be completed from this point Sunday afternoon at Shibe Park.

Pennsylvania curfew law caused the halting of the contest, and National League rules require that it be completed from the exact point where it was stopped.

CHICAGO—(P)—Pitcher Grady Hatton's eighth inning fly scored Ted Kluszewski with what proved to be the winning run Saturday as the Cincinnati Reds edged the Chicago Cubs in a 3-2 thriller before a "ladies" day turnout of 10,996 in wind-blown, 84-degree weather.

ST. LOUIS—(P)—Enos Slaughter's 1,900th hit of his major league career came Saturday night as a three-run tenth inning homer that gave the St. Louis Cardinals a 7 to 4 victory over the Pittsburgh Pirates.

DETROIT—(P)—Rookie Shortstop Harvey Kuenn bobbled an eleventh inning grounder and second baseman Johnny Pesky threw away a potential double play ball to permit the Chicago White Sox to score the winning run in a 4-3 battle Saturday that saw the Chicago Sox 19 players and the Detroit Tigers 15 players.

The Detroit Tigers, who went down fighting in the opener, were duck soup for Hearn's fireballs in the second. Big Jim walked three, fanned five and did not give up a hit following Reese's single 'in the fifth.

CHICAGO—(P)—Rookie pitchers Bill Connolly, Hoyt Wilhelm and Al Corwin shared the pitching duties in the thrilling first game. Connolly gained credit for the victory, his fourth without a loss since reporting from Charleston of the American Association late last month. But it was Corwin who nipped a Dodger rally in the eighth and put down another uprising in the ninth.

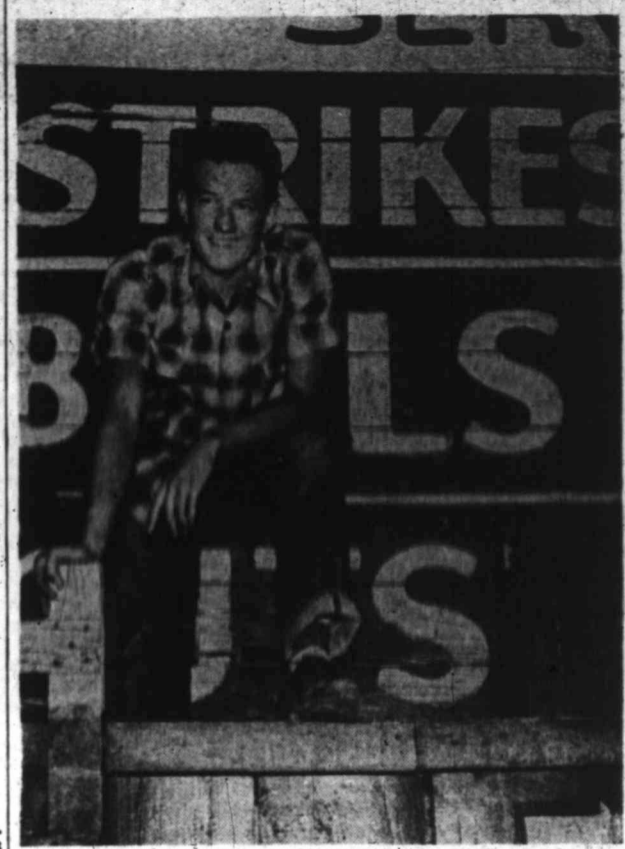

The Dodgers scored once in the ninth and had the tying runs on second and third but Jackie Robinson lined into a double play and Roy Campanella struck out to end the game.

Yanks Hold Lead By Thumping Sens

WASHINGTON—(P)—Effective relief pitching by rookie Tommy Gorman, who followed winner Ray Scarborough and Ed Blackwell to the mound, enabled the New York Yankees to defeat Washington, 5-2, Saturday night.

The Yankees had been given Stengel some stiff talk by Manager Casey Stengel Friday night after they had dropped a 5-3 decision in Philadelphia.

Mickey Vernon led the home teams 10-hits attack with four singles as they remained a threat until the final out, but they collapsed in tense situations to wrap up the game for the Yankees.

The league-leaders were on top 3-2, in the ninth inning when Eddie Yost's fumble of Gorman's grounder allowed two runs to score but Eddie's miscue had been preceded by other disastrous miscues by his teammates.

Mel Hoderlein, filling in at second base for ailing Floyd Baker, bobbled a double-play grounder in the first inning to set up two New York runs, one unearned, and in the sixth inning Mickey Vernon injected a thoughtless hit of base-running to take the Nats out of a rally.

BULLDOGS BUCKLE DOWN—Faced with potent 1-AAAA opposition, Midland High School's Bulldogs dug in early this season. The already-busy training program will be extended and accelerated this week. The accompanying photos mirror stages of the first week's training which concluded with two sessions Saturday. Above, the offense sets itself. Over the ball is Don Evans with Roy Kimsey ready to receive it. Left to right, the other backs are Darrall Spivey, Bill Erskine, Harold Paden and Jesse Hatfield. The potential first string line comes under the eyes of Coach Audrey Gill in the picture at right. Left to right, forward wall members are Bill Mims, right end; Jerry Ball, right tackle; Keys Curry, inside tackle; Bill Leonard, right guard; Melton Jones, center; Terry Fuglaar, guard, and Robert Kealing, end.

Drills Grow Stiffer For Bulldog Crew

The Midland High School Bulldogs move into their second week of training Monday with Coach Tuboat-Jones planning to lengthen and speed up drills.

Saturday was far from a day of rest for the young griders who face some of the state's stiffest competition as a member of District 1-AAAA this year. Coach Jones and his staff of assistants had them out for morning and afternoon sessions.

"The training has been stiffened day by day," Jones said Saturday. "We'll speed up next week, too."

Picture-taking interrupted Saturday morning's practice which centered on kickoff and punt return work. It was back to fundamentals Saturday afternoon.

"We've been doing a little of all of it," Jones pointed out in reviewing the first week's progress.

Jones was pleased with the way Roy Kimsey is developing his passing. In talks to civic organizations last week, the likeable Tuboat repeatedly referred to the lack of a much-needed passing attack.

Kimsey, as a left-handed passer, Jones believes, "can make the offense at least 25 per cent more deceptive. The 175-pound Kimsey is a senior."

Shifting of Darrall Spivey, the big-legged guard, to fullback, appears to be paying off. Jones likes his performance in the secondary.

"Spivey has shown a lot of power," he declared.

Less than two weeks remain for Jones and his staff to have the Bulldogs ready for the 1953 opener against Lamesa in Midland. The date is September 19.

And soon thereafter, the Bulldogs must turn giant killers. Down the line, the opposition includes Lubbock, selected by several observers to repeat as state schoolboy champions; Amarillo, Pampa, Abilene, Borger and San Angelo.

Larry Friday, veteran tailback and signal caller of Jones' single wing attack, is expected to return to limited workouts this week.

The hefty Bulldog star twisted his knee in a freak accident the first of last week. His knee gave way while fielding punts. He was not involved in contact with any other players.

A two-year letterman, Friday was a regular on last year's Bulldog team which captured the District 1-AAA championship.

Cardinal Rookie Pitcher Started Out As Catcher

NORTHAMPTON, MASS.—(AP)—"A pitcher who has two important tools, a good fast ball and courage," was Roger Hornsby's remark the first time he saw Stuart Leonard (Stu) Miller, St. Louis Cardinal rookie righthander.

Hornsby, manager of the Cincinnati Reds, was a spectator the day Miller made his major league debut with a six-hit, 1-0 shutout over the Chicago Cubs. Hornsby was scouting the Cubs—and the Cards—for his team.

It was one of the many comments on the 24-year-old, 5-11 1/2 Miller who won his big game two days after being called up by the Cardinals from their Columbus, Ohio, farm team.

Miller, who weighs only 154 pounds, became interested in baseball as a mere strapping. His father gave him a miniature, baseball bat about the time Stu began going to school. Stu and brother Gordon would bat a rubber ball around the house.

Tris Liked Him At 10 When he was eight, he became a member of a sandlot league team. At 10 he drew raves from Tris Speaker, the Hall of Farmer who was conducting a baseball school here. At that time, Speaker said "Miller has a lot of natural ability as a catcher."

It was as a catcher that Miller first began to play with sandlot teams. After the coach at Northampton High said Miller was not good enough to make the team the lad turned to the Young Men's Club, a church-sponsored team.

His new coach, Ernie Grohmund, worked with the boy and persuaded him to put aside catching togs and become a pitcher.

After Miller left high school in 1948 he continued in sandlot ball. He joined the Navy that fall and after boot training was assigned to the USS Salpan. He played the outfield, infield, caught and pitched for the ship team and helped his club win a service championship in 1947.

After his discharge he tried his hand at YMCA basketball here. In 1948 he continued in sandlot ball. He joined the Navy that fall and after boot training was assigned to the USS Salpan. He played the outfield, infield, caught and pitched for the ship team and helped his club win a service championship in 1947.

After his discharge he tried his hand at YMCA basketball here. In the Summer of 1948, the St. Louis Cardinals conducted their first try-out school on one of the city's playgrounds. Miller was one of the 50-odd aspirants who reported to Pop Kelchner and Joe Cusick, St. Louis scouts at the camp.

Kelchner, who discovered Stan Musial, instructed Cusick to sign Miller.

In 1949 he made his debut in organized ball with Salisbury, Md., in the class D Eastern Shore League.

New Cardinal Threat Has Sidearm Control

ST. LOUIS—(AP)—Mike Clark, a Collinswood, N. J., youth who recently joined the St. Louis Cardinals, came up heralded as a sidearm control pitcher.

During the first part of the season while pitching for Houston in the AA Texas League he had not thrown a wild pitch or hit a batter in 17 games. He compiled a 9-5 record with the Buffs. In 129 innings he walked only 34, fanned 70 and permitted only 33 runs.

In his first major league game, Clark pitched four innings as a starter against Brooklyn in Ebbetts Field. He retired due to the heat after yielding two runs.

Kroll Goes Beyond Ten-Grand Minimum

CHICAGO—(AP)—Ted Kroll, golfer from New Hartford, N. Y., is making ends meet, thank you. Kroll last Spring said "a pro golfer would have to win between $10,000 and $12,000 on tour to make it worth while." Kroll recently passed the $10,000 mark in earnings for the year when he finished ninth to gain $400 in the Canadian Open.

Kroll is the fourth male golfer to pass that figure this year. The others have been Gary Middlecoff, the leader, Jack Burke, Jr., and Lloyd Mangrum.

Realignment Propositions On WT-NM, Longhorn Fail

ABILENE—(AP)—West Texas-New Mexico and Longhorn Leagues in separate and joint sessions here Saturday night failed to reach an agreement on realignment propositions and recessed the joint meeting until 9 a.m. Sunday.

In the Longhorn League meeting, directors voted approval of the franchise switch from Vernon to Carlsbad, N. M.

West Texas-New Mexico League directors voted to permit replacements by Albuquerque of two regular players injured in action recently for participation in the championship playoff series. Bob Lammel, Rowell rookie infielder and voted Longhorn League rookie of the year, will be permitted to replace injured Hal Abbott in the Duker infield. Tommy Munoz, rookie first baseman who started the season for the Dukers, will rejoin the club in the playoffs.

Representatives hit a snag in the proposed interchange of WT-NM and Longhorn members. In separate meetings, it had been agreed to release Lamesa and Abilene from the WT-NM provided proper swaps could be arranged. One of these indicated that either Abilene or Lamesa would be swapped for Rowell in the Longhorn League. The trading out reached a temporary impasse when a second deal could not be worked out immediately.

The Arizona-Texas League represented by Tom Love of the El Paso club offered a package deal involving El Paso, Juarez and Chihuahua, Mexico. While the WT-NM League seemed favorable toward the entry of El Paso, it could find no immediate place in the plans for the two Mexico clubs. The 1953 status of Sweetwater in the Longhorn League was not settled at the meeting. A. C. Gonzales, operator of the Sweetwater franchise told league President Hal Sayles by phone that he expects to operate a club in the league next season. He did not state specifically that it would be Sweetwater. Gonzales said that he would arrive in Abilene for talk Sunday.

Roscoe Tabs A Touchdown Victory Over Andrews Team

BY ROBERT MOORE

ANDREWS—The Roscoe Plowboys scored a touchdown in the second quarter Saturday night to down the Andrews Mustangs, 6-0, in a non-conference game before a large season-inaugurating turnout.

The Plowboys of District 8-A crossed the goal line on a sustained drive which started on the Andrews 33-yard stripe. Cliff Burnett, tailback, plunged over from the one-yard line.

Node Buckner's try for the extra point from placement failed. The Mustangs charged back in the third quarter and held the edge in a seesaw struggle through the period. The last play was all Andrews.

Mustangs Threaten The game ended with the Mustangs knocking at the touchdown door from the eight yard line. Halfback Don Huestis had snatched a pass and unrelieved a long run to place the ball within the shadows of the Roscoe goal posts.

The Plowboys totaled 18 first downs to nine for Andrews. The visitors piled up 236 yards rushing compared to 138 for the Mustangs. Andrews led in the passing department, completing two heaves for a total of 64 yards. Eight passes were attempted by the Mustangs. Roscoe gauged only nine yards from two successful passes. Seven were attempted.

By positions, Badger candidates include: Ends—Lowell Wallace, Robert Ford, Jimmy Condra, Darrell Baker, Buddy Howard, Billy Shepherd and Carrol Bolin.

Tackles—Bobby Joyce, Tommy Sudderth, Bobby Jones, Shelby Hudson and Bob Joyce.

Guards—Eddie Halamlock, Duane Kamstra, Jesse Acuff, Randy Spicer.

Centers—Clifton Bode and Durwood Rowell.

Backs—Howard Wolf, Carrol Turney, Don Jones, Charles Dixon, Billy Ward Huffman, Jack Bryant, Floyd Cole, Paul Brown, Scottie Howard, Mickey Stephens, Ronnie Locklin and Mark Woodson.

Andrews Football Club Names Reed

ANDREWS—James Reed has been named to head the Andrews Quarterback Club this year.

Charles Pinnell was named to head the program committee. Serving on the committee will be Charles Roberts, Sr., W. M. Peoples and Neal Taylor.

Billy Wyatt and O. L. Shirley will head the foods committee. Coach Neal Taylor outlined season prospects for the Mustangs.

Politician Gets Mouse

Fistcuffs aren't unusual in a hot political campaign, but when the puncher is a candidate for Vice President and the recipient of a "mouse" (black eye) is a political foe, it's an extremely rare case. Such is one of the many hilarious situations in the story about a political campaign by one of the outstanding modern fiction writers.

Santa, Selbo Register Wins

The Midland Indians reached deep down into their bag here Friday night to come up with a pair of hurriers and sweep both ends of a doubleheader from the Roswell Rockets.

Little Ed Santa, who has pitched only two games for the Indians, won the first contest by a 3-1 score. And in the second game, Manager Jay Haney called on slugger outfielder Glenn Selbo, who shut out the Rockets, 4-0, with a four-hit performance on the mound.

Lamesa Playoff Bid Rides Skids Again; Lubbock Trips Lobos
Lamesa's bid for a playoff position went on the skids another time Friday night in the West Texas-New Mexico League when Lubbock's Ray Machado downed the Lobos on seven hits.

LAMESA PLAYOFF BID RIDES SKIDS AGAIN; LUBBOCK TRIPS LOBOS
Lamesa fell off the fourth-place pace by two and a half games. Amarillo showed alongside of third place Borger by dividing a twin-bill with Albuquerque. Gus Voelkel of Amarillo salvaged the second game of the card with a seven-hit 9-2 triumph. In the opener, Jesse Priest recorded his 18th decision as he took it 4-0 for Albuquerque.

SANTA GETS FOLDING MONEY—Diminutive Ed Santa reaches for a bill from a Midland fan Friday night after he pitched the Indians to victory in the opener of the doubleheader with Roswell. Santa received $53 in picking the grandstand wire. Glenn Selbo, who blanked the Rockets in the nightcap, stacked in some folding money, too.

Net Finals Pit Sedgman And Mulloy

FOREST HILLS (AP)—Gardnar Mulloy, the 38-year-old Floridian, Saturday softly stroked his way into the finals of the National Tennis Championships opposite Frank Sedgman, 23, defending champion from Australia.

The oldest campaigner ever to reach the last round in the 71 year tournament history, the Miami veteran treated a packed crowd of 15,000 to a brilliant exhibition of baseline control as he whopped Hamilton Richardson, 19, former junior champion from Baton Rouge, La., 10-8, 6-0, 8-6.

Dallas Texans Beat Redskins
SAN ANTONIO (AP)—The Dallas Texans had their first victory in National Football League competition Saturday and everybody felt better, especially about the quarter-back situation.

That had been the weakness of the new team in the national pro league until Friday night. Then Bob Celery played the kind of football that had been expected of him. His passing and generalship and Buddy Young's brilliant running brought the Texans a 27-14 victory over the Washington Redskins in an exhibition that drew 19,025 fans.

Sweetwater Braves Splash Big Spring Pennant Campaign
The Sweetwater Braves, who have not made enough victory dents in the Longhorn League standings to settle a slow stream, splashed a 3-0 defeat on Big Spring's pennant hopes Friday night.

Nicolls Availability For First Playoffs Doubtful
By JIM LINDSEY
More than one person has his fingers crossed on the immediate recovery chances of Indian Ace Keith Nicolls. Just when the 24-game winner can return to the mound remained a question Saturday. Only time will tell.

Longhorn League umpires haven't had a picnic in the closing days of the 1953 season. The Ekstein-Tayoan rumpus in Odessa eliminated a series of incidents involving the arbiters.

This Five-Year-Old Knows Her Indians

When the umpire yells "play ball" at Midland Indian Park, you can "bet your bottom dollar" that one of the youngest and most enthusiastic fans of the Indian baseball team will be there rooting for a victory.

For five-year-old Lu'ann Reeder, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles N. Reeder, 507 North San Angelo Street, aspires to "grow up and be a baseball player."

While other little girls usually had rather stay at home and play with dolls, Lu'ann tells her mom and pop to "take me out to the ball game."

Still a bit young yet to attend school and learn to read, Lu'ann's father has taught her to identify her favorite players by the numerals on their uniforms.

Two home runs slammed over the fence in one game rates Bill Brown, who is identified by the No. 5 on his uniform, as one of Lu'ann's favorites, but she likes them all. Other top favorites of the young fan include Scooter Hughes and Manager Jay Haney.

CAN HORNED FROGS REPEAT IN '52?
Replacements For Flowers, Floyd Are Top TCU Problem

FORT WORTH (AP)—With experience, good manpower and some additional speed, the Texas Christian Horned Frogs should be slightly improved over 1952. But there are some questions that will have to be answered favorably before the Christians can hope to retain their Southwest Conference football championship.

On offense, the Frogs will operate exclusively from Coach Dutch Meyer's spread formation. Some new plays and refinements have been added. Use of the spread, of course, means the tailback position again will be of top importance. For he will be the passer, punter, runner and play selector.

Culberson Will Be Speaker For D&D Meet Wednesday

Olin Culberson, chairman of the Texas Railroad Commission, will speak at the dinner meeting of the Midland Desk and Derrick Club Wednesday at 7 p. m. in the high school cafeteria.

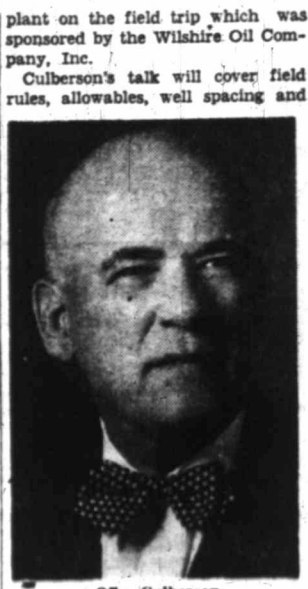

Culberson is serving his second term on the commission. He has been nominated by the Democratic Party of Texas for another six-year term as a member of the commission.

That nomination is practically the same as an election and he is due to begin the new term on January 1, 1933.

Many Midland D&D members heard him speak at the dedication of the McElroy-Wilshire gasoline plant on the field trip which was sponsored by the Wilshire Oil Company, Inc.

Culberson's talk will cover field rules, allowances, well spacing and various other matters which the commission governs in the oil industry.

All members of the club are urged to mail their reservations by Monday, to Mary Phillips, Box 1509, Midland.

Almost 1,000 Wells Fined In Midland

Midland County had 933 producing oil wells as of August 1, according to a count made by the Midland Map Company.

Majority of the producers are from the Spraberry Trend's Teaharvey and Driver fields.

Other formations yielding oil in Midland County are Grayburg, Wolfcamp, Pennsylvanian, Beah, Fusselman, Devonian and Ellenburger.

Ellenburger Wildcat Set For Reagan

The Atlantic Refining Company and the Superior Oil Company spotted location for a 10,000-foot Ellenburger wildcat two miles southwest of Big Lake in Central-South Reagan County.

It will be drilled as No. 1-B-11 University, 600 feet from west and 1,900 feet from south lines of section 17, block 11, University lands survey.

14 Persons Claim Spindle Top Money In Chicago Lawsuit

CHICAGO —(AP)—Fourteen persons are suing a Chicago executive to recover $38,500 in oil investments involving land in the Spindle Top oil field, Jefferson County, Texas.

The federal court action was filed against Paul O. Mann, an executive and part owner of the Consolidated Wire and Associated Corporations of Chicago.

The plaintiffs, all of New York, asserted Mann was not registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission when he sold them the securities in October, 1931.

The suit said Mann was owner of 100 acres and one-half acre in the Spindle Top field and that he sold the 14 plaintiffs various percentages of working interest in oil and gas rights on the property.

Herman Chilli, attorney for the plaintiffs, said none of his clients ever received money for oil produced in the field.

Bighorn Will Drill Clear Fork Test In NE Garza Area

Bighorn Corporation of Midland has staked location for a Clear Fork wildcat in Northeast Garza County as its No. 1 Rex Welch and others.

Location is 2,310 feet from west and 990 feet from south lines of section 2, block 4, K. Aycock survey and 13 miles northeast of Post.

Rotary tools will be used to drill to projected depth of 3,500 feet. Operations will begin at once.

Drill site is on a 120-acre lease. Estimated elevation is 2,358.5 feet.

Oil Sustains Economy Of Midland Territory, Houston Editor Says

"A frequent wisecrack you hear out here in this headquarters of the vast Permian oil basin is that every time you sink a well in this drought-stricken area, darn it, you get oil instead of desperately needed water," is the way Don Hinga, leads off on a Midland-dated story appearing in Thursday's issue of The Chronicle.

Hinga, roving editor for the Houston newspaper, goes on to say, "That is not strictly true but the Midland section, which has been without adequate rain since 1941, could use plenty of water."

Hinga visited Midland last week gathering information for a series of articles on drought conditions in Texas. He talked with several business, agriculture and oil leaders while here.

The Houston editor points out in his Midland story that while crops in this area thirst for water, oil sustains the economy of the Midland area. The feature story cites the rapid growth and development of Midland along all lines.

Lawless To Dig Ellenburger Wildcat In E-C Hale Sector

Lawless Drilling Company, Inc. of Odessa is to start drilling by September 15 at its No. 1 Harmell estate which is slated to be a 10,500-foot wildcat in East-Central Hale County, 12 miles south of Plainview.

The test is projected to the Ellenburger, unless it finds the granite before drilling to that formation, or unless it gets commercial production in the Pennsylvanian lime reef.

Location is 330 feet from south and west lines of the northwest quarter of the southeast quarter of section 5, block R, EL&RR survey.

Will Start Soon

Lawless is slated to start moving in rotary drilling equipment early in the week and drilling will be started as soon as the tools are ready to operate.

Humble Test In Tom Green Still Swabbing

After re-acidizing the Palo Pinto lime with 2,000 gallons of No. 1 George T. McEwen, Humble Oil & Refining Company was swabbing the section at the hourly rate of one barrel of fluid. That fluid was 65 per cent acid water and 35 per cent oil.

Perforations in this Central Tom Green County wildcat are at 4,908-24 feet. That interval previously had been washed with 500 gallons of mud acid.

This project is 2,500 feet from east and 1,000 feet from south lines of section 17B, WCRW survey.

It drilled to a bottom of 6,960 feet in barren Ellenburger and was plugged back to 5,920 feet where five and one-half-inch casing was cemented.

The Strawn lime zones were tested through perforations all the way up through that formation. Each Strawn zone developed water with slight shows of oil and gas.

All the section below 4,894 feet is squeezed off with cement.

Texas Allowable Hits All-Time High

AUSTIN —(AP)—An all-time record Texas oil allowable of 3,250,130 barrels a day was reported by the Texas Railroad Commission Saturday, the end of the first week under the September permitive.

The previous record was 3,194,082 barrels daily on March 29.

Last week's allowable represents a jump of 268,500 barrels a day over the permitive flow at the end of August.

While the allowable climbed, the number of new Texas wells completed this week was only 127, the smallest total for any week this year. The year's total of 7,590 compared with a year ago figure of 7,447.

Five gas wells were brought in, raising the year's total to 610 compared with 564 a year ago.

Wildcat drilling found 19 oil wells and 73 dry holes.

Operators plugged 137 dry wells, two gasers and 116 oil wells.

Honolulu & Signal To Build Gasoline Plant In SE Hockley

Honolulu Oil Corporation and Signal Oil & Gas Company are to start construction at once on a gasoline plant to be built in the Ropes (Pennsylvanian) field area in Southeast Hockley County.

The plant, to be operated by Honolulu, will have an initial capacity of from 1,000,000 to 1,500,000 cubic feet of gas daily. It will handle gas produced from 14 Pennsylvanian producers in the Ropes field.

As new wells are completed in that area, capacity of the plant can be enlarged.

Plant site is approximately four miles north of Ropesville.

The unit will make casinghead gasoline and liquid petroleum gases which will be utilized in the immediate area of the plant.

It is one of the first gasoline plants in the Permian Basin to make gas by a refrigeration process. Most plants in this area are the absorption process type.

Hudson Engineering Company of Houston has been given the contract. Completion date has been set for Dec. 1, 1952.

Owner representatives point out that this plant is a step to help conserve natural gas produced in the Permian Basin.

Core Descriptions For 75 Scurry Wells On Open File

Descriptions of cores from 75 oil wells in the Scurry Reef, West Texas, have been placed on open file for public inspection, Secretary of the Interior Oscar L. Chapman announced.

Such features as the composition, texture, fossil content, sedimentary structures and type of porosity of the rock have been recorded, presenting a detailed picture of the reservoir of the great oil field.

The work was done as a part of a reservoir study made by the Geological Survey and the Bureau of Mines, United States Department of the Interior, as an aid to the Petroleum Administration for Defense.

The report, called "Descriptions of Cores from 75 Wells in the Scurry Reef, Scurry County, Texas," by Howard E. Rothrock, is not available for sale or public distribution, but may be consulted at the Midland County Library, Midland at Geological Survey offices, at the Oil-Campus Research Center in Austin, at room 1033 and room 4540, General Services Administration Building, Washington, D. C., and at the Bureau of Economic Geology of the University of Texas at Austin.

Good Oiler Is Extender In Reagan

Southland Royalty Company No. 1-32 Boyd has been completed as a good producer and one-half-mile east extension to the Aldwell field of Northwest Reagan County.

It was finished for a full 24-hour flowing potential of 823 barrels of 41-gravity oil from open hole at 7,398-7,420 feet in the lower Spraberry.

Gas-oil ratio was 850-1 and tubing pressure was 400 pounds. Pay was topped at 7,400 feet. The 24-hour flow was through a one-quarter-inch tubing choke.

Location is 600 feet from south and 1,900 feet from east lines of section 32, block B, L&SV survey.

Hanley Completes Spraberry Oiler In Reagan Sector

Hanley Company of Midland No. 1-C TXL is a new producer in the Weisberg (Spraberry) field of Northwest Reagan County.

Operator reported a 24-hour potential of 415.86 barrels of 40-gravity oil through a three-quarter-inch choke and from open hole at 7,743-7,822 feet. That section had been fractured with 6,000 gallons.

Gas-oil ratio was 998-1. Pay was topped at 7,760 feet.

Location is at the center of the southeast quarter of the northwest quarter of section 37, block 37, T-3-S, T&P survey.

The same concern spotted locations for two edge wells in the Driver (Spraberry) field of Southwest Glasscock County.

No. 1-AB State will be drilled at the center of the southeast quarter of the northeast quarter of section 25, block 37, T-4-S, T&P survey.

Hanley No. 1-AA TXL will be dug 600 feet from north and west lines of section 19, block 36, T-4-S, T&P survey.

Both are to drill to 8,000 feet.

Veteran Operator Believes 'Little Guy' Can't Get Rich Quick In Oil Nowadays

LITTLE ROCK, ARK.—(AP)—How can the little guy make a fast buck in the oil business? He can't, anymore.

At least that's the opinion of one of the oil business' more substantial independent producers.

"It wouldn't take his money," says Durwin Bond of Little Rock.

"In the old days the little man could make a deal, but only in rare instances can he do it today."

The Little Rock oil man defined a little man as one who has several hundred or several thousand dollars to sink into what could very well be a dry hole.

There's Easier Way

Bond puts it this way: "Why would I go out and talk my brains out to get 20 men to put up $1,000 each, when one independent outfit bigger than myself or one of the major companies would come in for the lump sum?"

"We've got hundreds of thousands of acres of land in Arkansas, Louisiana, Mississippi and Oklahoma. It takes at least $50,000 now to drill an oil well. If the prospects are good another company will come in right away—they are looking for those deals."

"If you get down to 3,000 feet and nothing has happened, the little man might not want to put up any more money. But the big company won't stop. He's got too much at stake."

Bond also explained you would have to talk long and loud to the average person today because he has been duped so often by "shysters" that he is leery of putting anything in an oil venture.

Then, too, Bond said "the big companies have the technical know-how, the geologists who are always there and know what's going on."

The best advice to the little man who wants to get rich in oil, Bond says, is "let it alone."

There is some hope, but not unbounded excitement, that the Ar-

Seismograph Service Declares Dividend

A dividend of 20 cents per share for stockholders of Seismograph Service Corporation was authorized Friday by the directors of that concern.

The dividend will be payable on September 25 to all stockholders of record on September 18.

Announcement of the dividend was made in Midland Saturday by Lou Cornish, district manager of the region for Seismograph Service.

"FLAMING ONIONS" — These are new-type napalm rockets, called "flaming onions" by Royal Australian Air Force men in Korea. Although only a fraction of the size of the napalm tanks used by UN fighters, they are regarded as more economical against some targets.

More Than 5,000 Attend Gulf WT Party Saturday

More than 5,000 persons attended the annual West Texas Gulf Day Saturday at the Ector County Park in Odessa.

The program started early in the afternoon with various sorts of exhibitions and contests and was concluded with a barbecue dinner and a dance Saturday night.

All Gulf employees in West Texas and their families attended the affair. A number of guests also were present.

Several Gulf executives came out for the Saturday affair. They were from Pittsburgh, Houston and Fort Worth.

Geological Picnic Set For Saturday

The annual picnic of the geologists of Midland and West Texas will be held Saturday (September 13) at Cole Park in this city.

The food serving will start at 5 p. m. Tickets are on sale at $1 per person. Children under 12 years of age will be admitted to the party without tickets.

All geologists, their ladies, and their children are invited and urged to attend the affair. It is sponsored by the West Texas Geological Society.

Barbecue To Be Served

The food will be barbecued and other items generally served with it.

Persons planning to attend are requested to secure their tickets not later than Thursday. That is important as the committee will need to know how many to provide food for.

The tickets may be secured from the following persons:

Clem George and Booker McDearmon, at Anderson-Prichard Oil Corporation in the McClintic Building; Bill Gibson at Gibson and Keyser in the V&J Tower; Rex Goodwin at Seaboard Oil Company of Delaware in the McClintic Building.

Other Salesmen

Fred Furward at Phillips Petroleum Company in the Permian Building; Bob Gains at The Ohio Oil Company in the Midland Tower; H. L. Fisher at University Lands in the Leggett Building, and Charles P. Henderson in The First National Bank Building.

An attendance of several hundred persons is expected.

LUNCHEONS OF WTGS ARE TO START SOON

Luncheon meetings of the West Texas Geological Society are tentatively scheduled to be resumed during the first week of October.

Detailed information regarding the matter will be available in a short time.

The geological society luncheons were suspended at the beginning of the summer.

Heretofore the semi-monthly luncheons have been sponsored by the Midland Geological Society.

That organization was consolidated with the West Texas Geological Society early in the summer and in the future it will be the WTGS which will stage the luncheons and also present night programs on technical and semi-technical subjects.

Sohio Finds Porosity In Upton Test

First porosity in the Ellenburger has been found in Sohio Petroleum Company No. 1 Eli Bernstein, wildcat in East-Central Upton County.

Operator cored from 12,725 to 12,790 feet. Recovery was 25 feet of dolomite. The porosity was found in the bottom two feet of the core. No shows of oil or gas were reported.

No. 1 Bernstein is 800 feet from south and east lines of section 5, block N, HE&WT survey and in the producing limits of the Pembroke (Spraberry) field.

Rinehart Manager Resigns To Join Another Concern

W. C. (Bill) Blum, Jr., district manager for Rinehart Oil News Company of Dallas, has resigned to become a partner in the A-B Letter Shop of Dallas.

His resignation will be effective September 18. Blum has been with Rinehart's since November, 1945.

In addition to being an oil editor, Blum was a vice president and a director of Rinehart.

Holman Selected For Fair Award

DALLAS —(AP)—Eugene Holman, 37, president of Standard Oil Company of New Jersey, has been selected as the recipient of the first annual State Fair of Texas "Texas of Distinction" award. D. A. Hulley, chairman of the selection committee, announced Saturday.

Holman has accepted an invitation to speak at the State Fair annual banquet the night of October 7, when the award will be presented, Hulley said.

The award will be made each year to a native-born Texan who has lived at least 15 years of his life in Texas and who has distinguished himself in industry, science or the arts on a national scale, Hulley explained.

Holman was born in San Angelo May 2, 1895. He was graduated from Hardin-Simmons University at Abilene with a Bachelor of Arts degree in 1916 and received his master's degree in geology from the University of Texas in 1917.

He joined Humble Oil & Refining Company in 1921 and worked his way up to the post of chief geologist by 1928, when he went to work for Standard Oil of New Jersey.

PBGS To Hold First Fall Meet In Midland Tuesday

The Permian Basin Geophysical Society will hold its first fall meeting Tuesday at 8 p. m. in the Cowden Junior High School Cafeteria in Midland.

Chief speaker will be Charles J. Charaka of the research section of Humble Oil and Refining Company, Houston. He will talk on "Seismic Velocity Logging," taken from a paper which he wrote in collaboration with W. D. Mounce, C. L. Hubbard and H. P. Koppers, all with Humble at Houston.

Charaka's paper will discuss an instrument containing a sound source and a pair of receivers which measures the time required for a pulse to travel vertically one foot through the earth.

These travel times are recorded at the surface at a rate of approximately 10 feet per second as the instrument is moved continuously through a borehole. Examples of logs made in several different geologic provinces are given, and comparisons with other logs and with cores will be shown.

Charaka is a native of Peccos. He received his B.S. degree in electrical engineering from Texas A&M College in 1924. Upon graduation he joined Humble in geophysical field work.

He supervised a seismograph party in the Dutch East Indies from 1928 to 1929. In 1929 he joined the Navy as a sonar design engineer, and he now holds the rank of lieutenant commander in the Naval Reserve. He returned to Humble after the war in 1945.

A color film entitled "Desert Venture" will be shown and coffee and doughnuts will be served. The society cordially invites all those interested in oil exploration to attend whether they are members or not.

Leslie H. Johnson, Honoluli Oil Corporation, Midland, president of PBGS, will preside. Other officers for the remainder of the year include George A. Grimm, Tide Water Associated Oil Company, first vice president and program chairman; Paul C. Reed, second vice president and chairman of the arrangements committee; R. H. Nugent, Magnolia Petroleum Company, treasurer; and L. Decker Dawson, Jr., Dawson Geophysical Company, secretary.

WASHINGTON OIL— 'Hold-Price-Line' Moves Greeted With Dismay By Oil And Gas Producers

By JOSEPH HUTTLINGER

Reporter-Telegram Washington Oil Correspondent

WASHINGTON — The government last week put some more weight onto the lid holding price ceilings on crude oil and products and natural gas.

At the same time, Economic Stabilizer Roger L. Putnam gave a speech interpreted as all but inviting oil workers to come and ask for higher wages.

An important hold-the-price-line move came from Interior Secretary Oscar L. Chapman, who also is Petroleum administrator for Defense.

He said it will be slow to help oil men get higher prices from government. In his first statement on prices, he added:

"There are, of course, those who say we could forget all about our worries about such balances of supply and demand; if only petroleum prices were decontrolled. There even have been sharp criticisms of PAD for not vigorously urging either sharp rises in ceilings or complete decontrol. But these criticisms miss a basic point, which is that price is not within PAD's province.

"We can concern ourselves with prices only under one of two conditions. First, if the prices have a direct, immediate and far-reaching effect on supply. It was on that basis we intervened in the East Coast heating oil situation. Second, if the Office of Price Stabilization asks our opinion on prices. Duties Defined

"These are the only conditions under which we can enter the price field, and we cannot concern ourselves with any inequities price ceilings may cause. Ours is, after all, a supply agency, not a price agency. Our duties are clearly defined; our limits of authority are firmly marked."

The OPS asked PAD's opinions recently on price requests from oil producers in Pennsylvania and California. In reply, it was disclosed, the PAD gave little or no help to the Pennsylvania producers, but advised OPS that higher prices would help get out more crude oil in California. The OPS is yet to act on these cases.

A second hold-the-price-line action came from retiring OPS Director Ellis G. Arnall in the field of natural gas ceilings.

After months of behind the scenes jockeying he put out a 34-page statement insisting on a ceiling of 10 cents a thousand cubic feet for gas in the Woodlawn Field, Harrison County, Texas. Stanolind Oil and Gas Company, Continental Oil Company, and other producers had asked 12 cents.

The chief importance of the case lies in the fact that it is a "pilot" case. And in his opinion, Arnall implied he is ready to cut across escalator clauses over the nation if they call for more than 10 cents.

A tremendous amount of study by OPS went into the pattern-setting case. First, OPS had ruled for 10 cents. There were protests. The OPS turned it over to a board of review. The OPS board came out for 11.5 cents.

Then Arnall, as disclosed last week, overturned his own board explaining "the proposed price is higher than all the other prices established in that area." He added: "To accept it as a proper ceiling price would distort the price structure in the Southwest and would most certainly lead to a general upward movement in natural gas prices."

In the field of wages, however, the government had a different story. Economic Stabilizer Putnam, addressing the Oil Workers International Union at Philadelphia, spoke out for "flexibility" in wage controls. It is a "misconception" to feel that wage stabilization means a wage freeze, he added. "I don't have to explain to you that that is not what it means."

Those who favor the wage freeze said Putnam "are generally people who, for themselves believe in the incentive system. They believe that in order to increase production, you have to make it worthwhile to them, but as far as labor is concerned, they seem to believe that there should be increased output without giving the worker any opportunity to improve his share in the national increase of production."

The statement is regarded as significant as the oil workers say they are out for higher wages next year to cover both higher living cost and increased productivity.

The round of statements was greeted with dismay by Washington representatives of oil and gas producers.

Pending with OPS since March is a plea of the Independent Petroleum Association of America for decontrol of oil and gas prices. The OPS, which was to write a rejection a month ago, may be nudged into prompt action by the implied support of the PAD.

AIME Fall Meeting Slated To Start In Houston October 1

Houston—one of the world's chief oil centers, the nation's largest metropolis—is the target of hundreds of the country's leading petroleum engineers who will converge there October 1 for the three-day Annual Mid-Continent Fall Meeting of the Petroleum Branch, American Institute of Mining and Metallurgical Engineers.

Upwards of 1,200 engineers are expected to check in at the South Texas city's top hotels for three days of technical and business meetings and informal tours of the area's petroleum equipment manufacturing and service company facilities. A program of 42 technical, economic and business papers has been written and will be presented by some of the industry's most outstanding scientists, engineers and executives.

No. 1 Wilson had flowed oil from the Pennsylvania rock lime through perforations at 5,846 to 8,000 feet. The flow came after perforations had been washed with 600 gallons of mud acid. It flowed 93 barrels of fluid, mostly new oil, in 12 1/2 hours. At the end of that period the flow died.

Operator swab tested the interval after the flow, but was unable to make the well kick off and flow steadily. It was decided the project would not make a commercial producer. Last 24-hour swabbing test resulted in 8.36 barrels of oil and 25.64 barrels of salt water. Location is 1,263 feet from north and 660 feet from east lines of W. W. Miller survey.

A U. S. Geological Survey team started in Texas and moved along a predetermined line into Louisiana, Arkansas, Kentucky and into Tennessee. The hunt was for bauxite. Apparently no bauxite was found, but there was a magnetic reflection in northeast Arkansas which was believed by some people to be possible oil-bearing rock structure.

The geologists came back two years ago for a detailed study in that part of Arkansas. The result was that some of the major companies have moved into the area. One well is down to 3,000 feet and they are still drilling.

Among Top Ten Producing states, Arkansas is among the top ten in the U. S. since oil was first discovered in Ouachita County in April, 1920, the bulk of the state's oil has been produced in Southern Arkansas. About 300 wells still are drilled in that area each year.

In 1950, the last year for which complete figures are available, Arkansas produced 30,897,176 barrels of oil, an increase of 1,092,753 barrels over 1949.

Add the State Oil and Gas Commission estimates Arkansas has 330 million barrels of recoverable oil and gas distillate.

Engineering Awards Boost Texas Building AUSTIN—(P)—Engineering awards paved the way for a $26,329,296 building week in Texas last week.

Engineering contracts accounted for $11,822,410 of the total; residential, $7,439,500; and non-residential, $7,057,286, reported the Texas Contractor, building trade magazine.

The year's cumulative total reached $730,408,632.

Fowler Prospector Flows Ellenburger Oil On Two DST's

Humble Oil & Refining Company No. 1-AB State, project in the Fowler (Ellenburger) field of Southeast Lea County, flowed oil from the Ellenburger on drillstem tests. First test was taken in the interval at 10,284-334 feet. Tool was open three hours and 27 minutes. It showed gas at the surface in six minutes. Volume was 663,000 cubic feet per day. Oil surfaced in 41 minutes. It flowed to pits 46 minutes and then flowed 53 barrels of 45.7-gravity oil in two hours. Gas-oil ratio was 1,042-1. Recovery was reversed out. Another test was taken from 10,344 to 10,409 feet, with tool open two hours and 31 minutes. Gas surfaced in seven minutes. Volume was 908,000 cubic feet daily. Oil surfaced in 22 minutes and was flowed to pits nine minutes and was then turned to tanks. It flowed 84 barrels in two hours with a gas-oil ratio of .896-1. Location is 1,980 feet from north and 660 feet from east lines of section 16-24a-37c.

Colleges To Unite In Appeal For More Financial Support

DALLAS —(P)—Texas' privately supported colleges—faced with money problems—are preparing a united appeal for help from big corporations. The executive board of the Baptist General Convention of Texas has given a go-ahead for seven Texas Baptist senior colleges to join the Texas Foundation of Voluntarily Supported Colleges and Universities. The foundation is being organized by more than a score of higher educational institutions in the state, most of them sponsored by religious groups. The foundation's purpose would be to solicit money from big corporations. The Rev. L. D. Morgan, pastor of the First Baptist Church at Pasadena, Harris County, said the foundation would ask funds from "reputable corporations." "The schools are having a mighty hard time financially," Morgan added. He is a member of the Baptist Executive Board's plans and policies committee. He explained that 60 per cent of the money contributed to the foundation would be distributed equally among member institutions. The rest would be divided among the schools on the basis of enrollment. The foundation is scheduled to be organized formally on September 29 at Baylor University in Waco.

HARTFORD, CONN. —(P)—The Connecticut Democratic Convention Saturday unanimously nominated U. S. Representative A. A. Ribicoff of Hartford, for the short term U. S. Senate seat. The nomination, made by acclamation and without a record vote, came just 24 hours after a Republican convention in the same hall had nominated Prescott Bush of Greenwich to be Ribicoff's opponent. They will battle for the seat left vacant by Senator Brien McMahon, Democrat who died July 28. McMahon's term expires in January, 1957. The 43-year-old Ribicoff, a one-time New Britain newspaper, is ending his second consecutive term in the house. The convention nominated him after hearing a keynote speech in which Averell Harriman said Dwight D. Eisenhower's foreign policy speech in Philadelphia was "a 10-point program of 'me-too' generalities."

Plans call for raising $1,000,000 from collections September 28 in most of the 2,000 churches affiliated with the Baptist General Convention of Texas. To that amount would be added $500,000 from well-to-do laymen and $1,000,000 from bond sales. FROM MINERAL WELLS —Fred Brown, Mineral Wells hotel manager, was a Midland visitor Saturday.

Natural Gas Gains As Fuel For Generating Electricity

WASHINGTON —(P)—A report just issued by the Federal Power Commission tells the statistical story of the growing trend toward use of natural gas instead of coal in generating electricity. The report shows that use of natural gas by electric utilities throughout the nation reached a monthly record of 98,700,000,000 cubic feet in July, a gain of 10.5 per cent over the June record of 89,200,000,000 cubic feet, and 18.6 per cent over the $2,200,000,000 used in July of 1951. Production of electricity from coal, on the other hand, decreased 2.3 per cent in July of this year as compared with July, 1951. It was 31 per cent over June of this year, however. Generation of electricity from water power and from oil, the other two principal sources of energy, was about the same in July as in the corresponding month of 1951. Coal still leads as by far the main source of electric power in this country, according to power commission data, furnishing half the output in 1951. Of the total of 370.7 billion kilowatt hours of electricity produced in the year, 185,200,000,000 came from coal; 69,800,000,000 kilowatt hours, or roughly 26.9 per cent, from water power; 56,600,000,000 kwh, or 15.3 per cent from natural gas; 28,700,000,000 kwh, or about 7.7 per cent, from oil. During July of this year a total of 4,379,714 barrels of oil was consumed in generation of electricity, down slightly from the 4,438,387 barrels used in July of 1951. Hydro electric power in July amounted to 8,700,000,000 kilowatt hours. The total production of power by electric utilities throughout the nation reached a record high of 386 billion kilowatts during the year ended July 31, up 8.4 per cent over the 12-month period ended July 31, 1951. Texas Consumption Up —Texas led all states in the consumption of natural gas in generating electricity in July, using 21,300,000,000 cubic feet for that purpose. The amount used in Texas in July of 1951 was 18,900,000,000 cubic feet. Next was Illinois, where the demand in July of this year totaled 9,900,000,000 cubic feet. This was more than double the 4,600,000,000 cubic feet used in July of 1951. Louisiana used 7,200,000,000 cubic feet, up from the 6.1 billion used in July of 1951; Oklahoma used five billion cubic feet as compared with 5,100,000,000 in the same month of 1951.

Bent Must Return To Kansas Prison

HOUSTON —(P)—It's back to Leavenworth penitentiary for 26-year-old Joseph F. Bent, one of the nation's 10 most wanted fugitives until FBI agents captured him in Texas City August 23. An order returning Bent to finish a 28-year sentence for armed robbery of a postoffice in Grand Junction, Colo., was signed here Friday by Federal Judge Allen B. Haanay. In December, 1948, Bent was freed from Leavenworth after he submitted a motion attacking his indictment as faulty. A U. S. Appeals Court ordered Bent taken back into custody in June, 1949. But Bent was at large, wreaking violence over the nation. Before his capture in Texas City he was wanted in Texas, California, Wyoming and Ohio for armed robbery or attempted murder.

Conservation Work In Andrews, Gaines May Be Combined

Petitions for the annexation of Andrews County to the Gaines soil conservation district were being circulated among landowners this week.

This step culminates several weeks of work by County Judge Milton Ramsey, Joe Allbright, PMA committee chairman; Gene Irwin, county commissioner and rancher; and Pete Milligan, county agent, in promoting the organization of a soil conservation district in Andrews County.

Curtis Bell, representative of the State Soil Conservation Board at Temple, and Cal Boykin, Jr., soil conservationist of Midland, were in Andrews County Thursday helping with details of the organization.

Promoters of the new district have decided to seek annexation of the area to the Gaines district, which already is operating, rather than form a separate district. They met recently with the board of supervisors of the Gaines district and found them agreeable to this plan.

A letter has been mailed to all farmers and ranchers in Andrews County by County Agent Milligan explaining the organization and functioning of a soil conservation district. If more than 50 landowners sign the petition the state board will call a public hearing to determine the feasibility of the organization.

Air Force Praises Midland Cadet After Crash Landing

A/C Robert W. McDonald.

Aviation Cadet Robert W. McDonald, formerly employed by Shell Oil Company here, has been credited with a crash landing that "saved the taxpayers a good lump of cash," McDonald, who is training for jet flying at Webb Air Force Base in Big Spring, walked away from the crash with no injuries.

He had been flying in a four-ship formation with other cadets in a training flight near Lamesa when the engine of his propeller-driven T-28 plane sputtered a few times, then conked out.

"Faced with an emergency that might panic even an experienced pilot, McDonald calmly put his plane into a normal glide, surveyed the terrain below and selected the site for an emergency landing," Webb officers said.

Minutes later he plopped the trainer down in a gentle wheels-up landing in a cotton field.

Air Force officers said the only damage to the plane, which weighs almost three tons, was minor—some rumpled aluminum skin on the underside of the ship, bent propeller blades and slight damage to the wing flaps.

Capt. Beau Hickman, flying safety officer of the Big Spring base, said, "McDonald kept cool and turned in an excellent performance. His fine landing saved the Air Force and the taxpayers a good lump of cash."

The cadet's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. N. McDonald, reside in Odessa.

Midland Officials Attend Big Spring Water Celebration

Ferry Pickett, mayor of Midland, and Delbert Downing, manager of the Midland Chamber of Commerce, attended a ceremony Friday night at Big Spring, marking the official opening of an additional water supply from Martin County wells.

Big Spring participated in a program with Odessa and Snyder for a pipe line supply of water from wells in Martin County.

A severe shortage of municipal water was eased with completion of the pipe line system to Big Spring, and city officials urged citizens to use water in abundance.

Following announcement of water restrictions in the city, members of the fire department sprayed gallons of water on scores of bathing suit clad youngsters at Steer Stadium.

Frank Kelly of Colorado City, president of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce, spoke on "Course of Citizens in Developing their Own Resources."

J. B. Thomas, president of the Texas Electric Service Company, who originated the idea of the pipe line water supply system and assisted in initial engineering research, was presented.

Representatives from Lamesa, Snyder, Colorado City, Sweetwater, Odessa, Fort Worth, Dallas, Mineral Wells and Midland attended.

North Texans Kills Wife, Self; Bullet Injuries Landlady

HOOKS, TEXAS —(AP)— Three shots from a 30-30 rifle took the lives of two persons and critically wounded another here Friday.

City Coroner Spencer Reed said 30-year-old W. C. Hadlock of Houston, killed his estranged wife, wounded her landlady as the woman ran for help, then shot himself to death.

Reed, who ruled the deaths murder and suicide, said no motive for the double slaying has been established.

Deputy Sheriff Bud Kestler said Hadlock was seen Friday morning hiding in the weeds near the home of Mrs. J. T. Burson near here, about 15 miles west of the Texas-Arkansas border city of Texarkana.

He said a neighbor told him Hadlock "vanished" from his hiding place. The man apparently lurked near the back door of the house until his wife appeared, the deputy said. He said Hadlock shot the 27-year-old woman, went through the house and shot Mrs. Burson as she ran down the highway for help and then committed suicide.

Kestler said Hadlock was free on bond from an attempted robbery charge filed on complaint of the Bursons.

Police said he apparently had followed her here from Houston, where the couple previously lived.

CAN YOU KEEP THEM SMILING?

"The happiest years of their lives," you say of your teen-agers. But these youngsters you love so deeply can go on being happy through all their lives. It all depends on you.

They are like tender, growing plants. You have to give them the right kind of soil to grow in. You have to feed and water them. You have to cultivate them, keeping down the weeds—choking weeds of questionable character and evil—until they can rise above them.

You have to protect them from rigorous storms until they are strong enough to stand by themselves. And their roots must sink deep—deep into fertile soil such as that found only in the spiritual teachings of the Bible.

Give your children rich, well-balanced lives through religious as well as secular education. Go to church with them regularly, and you'll all have reason to keep smiling.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake, (2) For his children's sake, (3) For the sake of the community and nation, (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

State Fair Sets Day To Introduce Santa Gertrudis

DALLAS—(AP)—For the first time its history the State Fair of Texas will give recognition to Santa Gertrudis cattle breeders as an organized group this year.

October 5, has been designated Santa Gertrudis Breeders' International Association day at the fair.

Santa Gertrudis cattle, a big cherry-red breed, were developed by the King Ranch.

A group of Santa Gertrudis will be exhibited by the King Ranch at the fair this year, but they won't compete for premiums. Some of them have been at the Texas Research Foundation at Renner in connection with grass experiments the foundation is carrying on in cooperation with the King Ranch.

Rocksprings Called World Goat Capital
 ROCKSPRINGS, TEXAS—(AP)—Rocksprings calls itself the Goat Capital of the World.

It's headquarters for the American Angora Goat Breeders Association, whose secretary is a Rocksprings housewife, Mrs. Thomas L. Taylor. She's the one who registers goats.

It costs 25 cents to enroll a goat if he's registered before December 31 of the year of its birth; thereafter, cost is 50 cents each. A total of 5,269 goats was registered in 1951.

Several other breeders are expected to exhibit Santa Gertrudis also.

Walter W. Cardwell of Luling is president of the Santa Gertrudis Association and Dr. J. K. Northway, an executive of the King Ranch, is chairman of the promotion committee.

Dirt, Squirr and Quirt
 — FARM, DAIRY AND RANCH NEWS —

The cattle market was strong and active at the Midland Livestock Auction Company's regular weekly sale Thursday. Most all classes sold 90 cents to $2 a hundred higher than the week before. Receipts were light from drought-burned ranges around Midland.

Texas history will be made November 10. This is the date when the first "Miss Wool" will be chosen to reign over the 37th annual convention of the Sheep & Goat Raisers' Association of Texas.

To obtain models for this style Show, the San Angelo Chamber of Commerce is conducting the contest throughout Texas. It is similar to the one staged for the Maid of Cotton. The girls will be selected from letters of recommendation, photographs and the completed application form. Entry forms may be obtained from Chambers of Commerce throughout Texas.

Last week's cool weather surely was fine, Pardini, but it would have been much better if it had been accompanied by moisture.

Still better keep that slicker handy, Pard, because this may be the wet month we have been looking for so long now. A good soaker would fit in mighty good right now.

The Martin-Howard Soil Conservation District supervisors have purchased a grain drill with fertilizer attachment to be rented to farmers in Midland and Martin Counties for the purpose of seeding cover crops this Fall. The supervisors also have ordered a legume seeder to be used in planting legumes in the irrigated sections of the two counties. W. H. Yater, irrigation farmer and member of the board of supervisors, who farms four miles west of Stanton, will be in charge of the equipment.

Gaston Bishop, employe with the Midland Production Credit Association, recently planted two acres of buffel grass on the C. C. Davis farm south of Midland. Bishop plans to irrigate the grass and harvest seed for more plantings in this area.

J. D. Crawford has planted five acres of Austrian Winter peas for soil protection and improvement on the R. O. Brooks farm north of Midland. Crawford reports that some of the guar he planted last month is doing well.

Dr. W. L. Sutton has harvested 100 pounds of blue panic grass seed on his farm southeast of Midland. The grass has furnished grazing through most of the Summer.

DSQ joins others in Midland and adjoining counties in welcoming Ben Osborn, formerly of San Angelo, who has assumed his new duties as conservationist for the Soil Conservation Service here. He is working with Cal Boykin, Jr., SCS staffman.

Counties included in the district are Midland, Howard, Martin and North Glasscock.

Pecos will stage its annual Kid's Rodeo October 4-5, according to information received here. A parade the morning of the fourth will open the attraction. Performances are scheduled afternoon and night the first day, and afternoon only the second day.

The champion cowboy and cowgirl will receive saddles and the top contestant in each event will get silver and gold belt buckles. Contestants must be under 18 years of age.

Contests include calf roping, steer riding, calf herding, Shetland pony race, bob scramble, boy and girl team goat roping, and barrel race.

County Farm Bureau leaders from this area will gather in Big Spring Friday for a sub-district meeting, one of 24 such sessions being conducted throughout the state by the Texas Farm Bureau Federation. It has been announced by J. Walter Hammond of Tye, president of the organization. In attendance will be Marvin Carter, federation organization director, and O. R. Long, field representative, American Farm Bureau Federation.

C. H. DeVany of Coahoma, state director for this district, will preside. The all-day meeting will be held in the Settles Hotel beginning at 10 a.m.

In announcing the sub-district meetings Hammond emphasized the importance of county leaders meeting with state officers and staff members to discuss current issues and policies vital to farm and ranch people. Long will discuss the organization's program of work this year and the responsibilities of local leaders. Carter will present the enrollment plan which has been recommended to counties for use in their annual membership enrollment drive scheduled for the week of October 10-17.

It appears that San Angelo yet may stage its 1953 fat stock show and rodeo.

A group of businessmen there is considering underwriting the annual event, according to news dispatches from the Genco city. It previously had been announced that the stock and rodeo might be cancelled next year due to drought conditions and a reduced Board of City Development budget.

When Rodeo Manager Albert More blows the whistle that signals the opening event, the Mad Brambling, Sunday, October 6, the 51st Annual Prison Rodeo will be under way at Huntville. The two hours of rodeo action that follow promise to be the fastest, wildest, most thrill-packed 120 minutes of whirlwind action any rodeo fan could desire.

The wildest horses and meanest Bralman bulls are being rounded-up in the river bottom pastures throughout the Texas Prison System and are being shipped to Huntville for the big show.

Inmates, who apply for a chance to ride in the rodeo, are being selected for a try-out rodeo to be held one Sunday this month. Rodeo Manager Moore says only the best riders and performers on that day will be selected for the appearance in the arena when the show begins.

Top-flight specialty performers of 'outside' rodeo circuits have been contacted and booked for appearance between convict riding events.

Special guest performers for each Sunday's presentation, such as the University of Texas Longhorn Band which is scheduled to appear on opening day, have been invited to attend and execute their specialties. Rodeos will be presented each Sunday in October.

Premium lists for the 35th Annual Panhandle South Plains Fair, scheduled September 29 through October 4 at Lubbock, have been distributed throughout the area to 3,000 exhibitors, county agents, home demonstration agents, and vocational agriculture leaders.

Entries in the livestock division of the fair were coming in earlier than ever before. The fair officials interpreted this to mean another record breaking fair for the South Plains.

A record attendance is forecast this year. Last year's mark of 144,527 visitors was the first attendance record since 1938, which was 143,379.

Leading agriculturists from Lubbock and the South Plains make up the fair's list of superintendents.

Terry Eikins, who farms east of Midland, reports his trial planting of Guar is looking good now and about knee-high. This annual Summer legume, new to this area, has made a good soil cover on this field.

STEER PUTS UP BIG BEEF—Pete Williams of Rhinebeck, N. Y., is having troubles with his steer. Pete wants to wash the animal's face, so the Hereford will look its best in competition at the Duchesne County Fair. The steer isn't interested in the project, and is putting up a futile beef.

County Agent Hails Junior 4-H Course For Leadership

"One of the best I have ever attended."

That's the opinion of Midland County Agent Charles Green regarding the Texas 4-H Junior Leadership Training Laboratory at Bastrop State Park August 25-30.

Green and Pauline McWilliams, county home demonstration agent, accompanied six Midland County 4-H boys and girls to the training laboratory.

They are: Carl Rayford Calloun, Charles Paton Graham, Jackie Don Rethardt, Carol Franks, Donna Howard and Iga Mae Livingston.

Green said the training received by the six 4-H youngsters will be of invaluable aid in having a well-rounded program this year.

The 150 4-H youngsters attending the camp operated as one big community during the week, planning activities and serving as leaders.

Green had high praise for the diligent work performed by Midland County representatives at the training laboratory.

"Even when the time came for a swimming break, and we didn't have our activity program work completed, they stuck with me until it was completed," he said.

"Each of the youngsters that attended are fully capable now of serving as Junior 4-H leaders," he said.

Activities during the training laboratory included round-table sessions of "4-H Records," Emmy Nelson, representing the national committee on 4-H club work; "Planning a Program of Recreation"; Lucile Moore, recreation specialist; "Youth Leads," Dr. Dan Russell, rural sociologist of Texas A&M College; and "The 4-H Club and Community," Floyd Lynch and Erma Wines, Texas 4-H Club leaders.

PICTURE WINDOWS ALLOW BOLD COLOR PLANNING

Large, light-admitting picture windows give homeowners an opportunity for bold color planning often not practical with dim, artificially lighted rooms. With sunshine flooding the room, walls may be painted with deeper colors—particularly cool colors like blues and greens. Colorizer paint experts advise caution in the amount of warm reds and yellow-oranges used in such rooms. White, because of its high light reflection, should also be employed judiciously.

Bricklayers' Pay Shows Wide Range Among Texas Cities

ATLANTA, GA.—(P)—Bricklayers get better pay per hour than any other members of building trades unions in Texas.

Even so, the wage rate varies considerably from city to city—from $2.975 an hour in El Paso to a high of $3.438 in Dallas. Houston bricklayers get $3.175 an hour and those in San Antonio a straight $3.

The figures are from a recent summary from the U. S. Department of Labor's southern regional office here. They are based on union scales as of July 1, 1952.

The scale for carpenters varies from $2.20 an hour in San Antonio to $2.488 in Dallas. Electricians' hourly wage ranges from $2.50 in San Antonio to $2.875 in Houston. Plumbers—often but erroneously thought to be the best-paid building trades workers—get from $2.612 in Dallas to $2.75 in Houston.

OLD HOME . . . YOUTHFUL CHARM—Does it pay to modernize? These pictures are a Californian's answer to that question. They show the conversion of an over-age farm dwelling, above, much the worse for wear and showing signs of obsolescence, into a trim, attractive home, below. New siding of asbestos-cement shingles effected the major transformation, plus making the house more weather-tight and adding to its fire safety. Breaking the roof with tiny dormers permitted the addition of second story windows and better utilization of the living area. A modern entrance gave the final touch.

Proper Nailing Helps To Assure Good, Sound Floor

If you are planning to have a home built under contract, one of the points well worth checking on is the installation of your oak floors. Make sure they will be nailed in accordance with approved methods. That's the advice of flooring experts, who point out that while floors of oak are noted for life-long beauty and service, they should be nailed adequately if they are to give the complete satisfaction expected. Faulty nailing can result in annoying squeaks due to loose flooring pieces.

Use of the right type and size of nails, together with proper spacing of them, is essential to a good nailing job, according to the experts.

The National Oak Flooring Manufacturers' Association recommends 8-penny light flooring nails for 25-32-inch flooring, the thickness used most extensively. While ordinary wire flooring nails or cut nails are satisfactory, screw nails are preferred. Flooring nails of the latter type are spirally grooved and are said to have superior holding power. They are being used widely nowadays by floor layers in various sections of the country.

Application Hint
In application of flooring 2 1/4 inches or 3 1/4 inches wide, one nail should be driven every 18 inches. Twelve-inch spacing is sufficient for 25-32-inch flooring of 1 1/2 inch width.

For flooring 1 1/2-inch thick, the recommendation calls for 6-penny nails spaced 10 inches apart. Flooring of 3/8-inch thickness should receive one 4-penny nail every eight inches.

Proper nailing of wood subflooring is equally important. Boards of four or six-inch width should be nailed solidly at each bearing point with two 10-penny nails. Should wider boards be used, extra nailing is advisable. Three 10-penny nails should be driven at each bearing point, for example, in eight-inch boards.

Plumbing Should Be Checked Carefully When Buying House

"Taking a look at the working parts" makes sense no matter what you are buying. Such an inspection is fairly easy to make in the case of a major appliance or an automobile, but the average buyer usually is stumped when it comes to appraising that important part of any house—the plumbing system. Here are some pointers on checking both its visible and hidden parts:

1. Test water supply by turning on faucets on ground floor and letting them run while you turn on those of the second floor. A small flow may indicate piping clogged by corrosion, too small pipes or low pressure.
2. Check drainage of fixtures. If it is slow, pipes may be corroded or too small. If fixtures drain quickly, waste pipes are of adequate size.
3. Examine ceilings under bathrooms. If they are stained, leaks probably exist around fixtures.
4. Check bathroom floor and wall finishes closely. Waterproof materials such as clay tile mean permanent walls and floor that will not need decorating or replacing.
5. Watch for rust in water from faucets, and rust stains in bowls of wash basins and in the bathtub. They mean future trouble. Shutoff valves under fixtures usually are index of a good plumbing job.
6. Check tilting around the tub. If there is a tub-shower, the clay tile work should extend to the height of the shower curtain bar or to the ceiling. When tilework is too low, surfaces above it will be damaged by water and require frequent redecorating.

Texas Farm Women Wage War Against Accidents in Home

COLLEGE STATION. — Texas farm women are setting an example for the rest of the nation by conducting a war against accidents in the home. The drive has enlisted 43,000 members, of whom more than 27,000 already have removed accident hazards from their homes, according to Mrs. R. M. Almanrode, president of the Texas Farm and Ranch Safety committee.

Some of the members have eliminated a major fire hazard by replacing combustible roofing with asbestos-cement shingles, she said. Others have repaired stairways, mended leaky pipes to insure full water pressure in case of fire, put anti-slip rubber mats in bathtubs, replaced worn electrical equipment, checked gas and electrical connections on stoves, and cleared their homes of combustible debris.

The kitchen, the committee reported, is the most dangerous room in a farm house. It advised farm women to: wipe up spilled grease at once, keep hot liquids and matches out of reach of children, lift covers of steaming utensils away from the body, use pans that do not tip easily and use hot holders that are thick and dry.

Home demonstration club women and 4-H club girls are cooperating in the campaign.

There probably are more species of insects on earth than of all other animals combined. The National Geographic Society says about 800,000 species have been catalogued in museums.

THE GOONIES KEPT ON COMING—

Wounded GI Tells How Red Troops Attack Bunker Hill

AN EVACUATION HOSPITAL, WESTERN FRONT, KOREA—(AP)—The wounded soldier looked up from his cot with sad, bleary eyes and said softly: "It was slaughter."

The youth lay, quiet but pain racked, in an evacuation hospital filled with casualties flowing down from Bunker Hill, where Chinese troops hit in darkness Friday.

His arm was shattered by mortar shrapnel.

He said bugle blasts and the screech of whistles pierced the darkness as the Chinese infantrymen surged toward UN positions.

Another patient, his head wrapped in white bandages, leaned over and said, "Those bugles sounded like horns from a string of Model-T Fords." Their names were withheld pending notification of relatives.

The attack started about 1 a.m.

with the thunder of Red artillery and mortars.

Like "I Surrender"

"Those shells came down like a steel screen," said the soldier with the riddled arm.

"I was on a machine gun, but we never got to fire it."

A mortar shell landed near his post, killing one and wounding three others.

"We could see the goonies coming over the top. They kept coming right through their own shell fire. That killed a lot of them. But those goonies were in front of us, on our flanks and behind us. They got in our trenches. Some of our guys got it from bayonets. It was slaughter."

Hand grenades filled the air. Corpsemen moved him out of his bunker when the fighting quieted.

"I counted about 15 Chinese bodies sprawled on the ground around us," he said.

38 Sleepless Hours

A corpsman lying on a cot nearby said he had not slept for 38 hours. Some of his buddies were killed while carrying litters off Bunker Hill because—

"Those goonies have our trails zeroed in with their mortars."

On another cot, a blond machine gunner with a broken knee said it was the worst battle seen on Bunker Hill. His hands were stained with dried blood.

"The goonies came at us from all sides. He and his crew had to leave the protection of their bunker."

"They started coming at us from behind. We put our machine gun on top of the bunker, but a mortar round got us."

Navy doctors at the evacuation hospital got little sleep. Their busiest hours are at night and early morning, because it is difficult to get wounded men off Bunker Hill in the daylight when Chinese can spot litter bearers.

Two of the surgeons are Lt. William S. Ogle, Corpus Christi, Texas, and Lt. Louis E. Shirley, Jennings, La.

Shirley said the doctors credit blood and the new armored vest with saving the lives of many soldiers.

"That vest has proved invaluable," he commented. "We have few chest wounds now."

The helicopters, which often pick up wounded under enemy fire, have speeded treatment of casualties.

He said two patients with major

Chinese Farmers Protest High Tax

HONG KONG—(AP)—One press dispatch to an independent newspaper says 400 farmers have been arrested in South China for refusing to pay Summer grain taxes.

The Communists blame the famine conditions on the weather.

Press accounts say farmers were refusing to pay the grain taxes because they would not have enough rice left over to carry them through the year.

St. Ann's Group Has Sewing Bee

The women of the parish of the St. Ann's Catholic Church held a sewing bee Thursday in the home of Mrs. Ray Kelly.

The group worked on garments for the Family Fair to be held September 27.

Shirley Carol Trivett Is Wed To Frank Hejl In California

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Hejl, 704 West Louisiana Street and their son, Goodrich, have returned from Sacramento, where they attended the wedding of another son, A 1/2 Frank Eugene Hejl, and Shirley Carol Trivett of Arlington, W. Va.

The wedding was held at 3:30 p.m. August 31 in the Westminster Presbyterian Chapel in Sacramento. Vows were repeated before an altar banked with white gladioli.

For her wedding, the bride chose a navy suit with white accessories. She carried an orchid, which was surrounded with Marconi daisies.

Assisting the couple in receiving guests at the reception in the church patio were the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Sand Trivett, and brother, David Trivett, all of Arlington, W. Va., and the bridegroom's parents and brother.

When they return from a wedding trip to Eugene, Ore., the couple will be at home at Mather Air Force Base in California, where the bridegroom is stationed.

Mrs. Hejl was graduated from high school in Arlington and attended George Washington University. The bridegroom is a graduate of Midland High School and attended Abilene Christian College, Abilene, before entering the service two years ago.

Evelyn Easley Wed To Former Midlander

The marriage of Evelyn Easley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Easley of Brownwood, to S. Sgt. Harry Leighton Bauer, son of Major and Mrs. Toney Bauer of Brownwood, formerly of Midland, was solemnized Saturday night in Brownwood.

The Rev. Phil M. Runner officiated for the double ring ceremony held at 8 p.m. in the First Christian Church. Organ music was furnished by Freda Reaves and soloists were Mrs. Alan King and Chester Parks.

Church decorations featured asters, gladioli and chrysanthemums, with candelabra forming an archway at the altar.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She was gowned in a white, demi-length dress of nylon tulle and chantilly lace. The gown was designed with a full, ruffled skirt of nylon tulle and a pleated, strapless bodice. The bolero of chantilly lace had long sleeves ending in points over the hands and was fastened down the front with self-covered buttons. The collar was of Queen Anne style and was outlined with seed pearls.

The bride's shoulder-length veil fell from a halo hat of chantilly lace, encrusted with seed pearls. She carried a bridal bouquet of white orchids.

Nancy Barnes was the bride's maid of honor, and bridesmaids were Joy Barnett and Peggy Wood. Flower girl was Kathleen Weekley. They were gowned in identical dress of nylon net over taffeta in aqua blue, fuchsia and gold. She carried bouquets of carnations.

Attendants Named
Attending the bridegroom as best man was James Self, with Pat Weekley and Alvin Turner as groomsmen. Candelighters and ushers were Wayne Turner and Don Hayes. Serving as ring bearer was Frankie Alan King.

The bride's mother wore Monterey rose lace over wine taffeta with silver accessories and an orchid corsage. Dress for the bridegroom's mother was of beige lace over gold taffeta, with gold accessories and an orchid corsage. Both dresses were demi-length.

The reception was held in the home of the bride's parents. Centering the refreshment table was a double wedding ring cake. The punch was served from a block of crystal-clear ice with flowers frozen in the center.

Live In San Antonio
When the couple left on a wedding trip, the bride was wearing a cocoa-brown, silk faille dress, trimmed in chocolate brown velvet. Her accessories were chocolate brown and she wore an orchid corsage. The bride is a graduate of Brownwood High School and attended Texas Christian University, Fort Worth.

Mrs. Harry Leighton Bauer

The bridegroom was graduated from Midland High School and now is stationed at Lackland Air Force Base in San Antonio, where the newlyweds will make their home.

Rev. Yearby Begins Eleventh Year As Baptist Pastor Here

The Rev. Vernon Yearby Sunday will start his eleventh year as pastor of the First Baptist Church which has become one of the leading churches of the Baptist General Convention of Texas in the last decade.

Present membership is 2,908. More than 2,000 members have been added under Mr. Yearby's leadership in the city's fluctuating population.

The church has contributed almost $1,500,000 for all causes in the last decade. This includes $233,253.77 to missions, $504,390.39 for operational expenses and $75,238.98 in building fund gifts.

The First Baptists now are erecting a new $1,000,000 church plant at the corner of Louisiana and Garfield Streets. Its occupancy is expected within a year.

Mr. Yearby will outline plans for the church in the next 10 years in his anniversary sermon Sunday morning. His subject will be "The Second Decade." The First Baptists soon will launch plans for establishing new churches in Midland.

Two New Churches
Since Mr. Yearby assumed the pastorate, the church has organized two others, Bellvue and Terminal. The Terminal Baptists, in turn, sponsored the Strawberry organization.

The Sunday School of the First Baptist Church has grown from 335 to almost 900 in enrollment since 28-year-old Mr. Yearby arrived here in September, 1922, from Eagle Lake where he had been pastor for several months. He was a sophomore in Hardin-Simmons University at Abilene when he preached his first sermon at Penwell in September, 1923. All of his pastorates have been along the T&P Railway except for the time spent at Eagle Lake. "Midland's strategic location for continual growth and the faithful and loyal membership have been responsible for the church's growth," Mr. Yearby said Saturday. "I just stepped back and watched it grow." Mr. Yearby has been pastor of the 68-year-old First Baptist Church longer than any other minister with

The Rev. Vernon Yearby one exception. His 10-year tenure is surpassed in West Texas Baptist circles only by the record of the Rev. Dick O'Brien at Big Spring.

Mr. Yearby has been honored frequently by selection to responsible Baptist positions. He is now a member of the Board of Trustees at Hardin-Simmons, Moderator of the Permian Basin Association and a director of the Piasano Baptist Encampment. He has been on the executive board of the Baptist General Convention of Texas for several years and was on the committee on committees at the most recent Southern Baptist Convention.

Mr. and Mrs. Yearby reside at 901 North B Street. They have two daughters, Rosanne, 15, and Harriet, 13.

Baptist WMU Elects Officers

Mrs. W. O. Graham was named president of the Greenwood Baptist Woman's Missionary Union Thursday when it met in the church for a business session.

Other officers elected were Mrs. J. B. Branham, vice president; Mrs. Johnnie Morgan, secretary-treasurer; Mrs. Alvey Bryant, program and literature chairman; Mrs. Branham, community missions chairman; Mrs. Palmer Evans, Bible and mission study chairman; Mrs. Lester Newsum, stewardship chairman; Mrs. R. B. Harrington, benevolence chairman; and Mrs. Eugene Burrow, publicity chairman.

The group voted to send a sock shower to the Texas Baptist Children's Home in Round Rock and the Mexican Baptist Orphans Home in San Antonio. The Mary Hill Davis week of prayer and offering for estate missions will be held September 22-26. It was announced.

A Royal Service program will be held Monday in the church with Mrs. Branham in charge.

Others present were Mrs. L. A. Broussard, Mrs. Floyd E. Camp, Mrs. O. N. Reed and Mrs. B. T. Graham.

Midland Couple Wed In Baptist Church

In a double-ring ceremony Friday in the First Baptist Church, Lola Frances Farnsworth of Midland became the bride of James W. Kerr, also of Midland. The Rev. Vernon Yearby, pastor, officiated.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Farnsworth of Canadian. Kerr's parents are Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Kerr of Midland.

White gladiolus and white asters with jade greenery formed the background for the ceremony. The candelabras were entwined with asters.

Mrs. Joe Mims, organist, played a program of nuptial music including "Liebestraum," "Last," "Indian Love Call," "Benedictus," "Romberg," "O Perfect Love," "Barnby," and the traditional wedding marches.

Mrs. Gene Shelburne, Jr., soloist, sang "Through the Years," "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer."

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a dress of white slipper satin fashioned with a full skirt which extended into a train. The bodice of the dress was covered with chantilly lace and the yoke was trimmed with seed pearls. A veil of illusion was caught to her lace bonnet which was trimmed with forget-me-nots. She carried a colonial bouquet of lily-of-the-valley and stephanotis, centered with a white orchid.

Mrs. Lloyd Garrison of Bowie, sister of the bride, was the matron of honor. She wore a hyacinth blue dress styled like the dress of the bride. Her crescent bouquet of white asters was trimmed with white satin bows and illusion.

Bridesmaids were Jean Godfrey of Midland and Mrs. Pete Grady of Canadian, sister of the bride. Their dresses were styled like the matron of honor's. Flower girl was Annie Lee Garrison of Bowie, niece of the bride. She wore a hyacinth blue dress and carried a basket of white asters.

Herbert Farnsworth of Roswell, N. M., brother of the bride, served as best man. Ushers were Lewis Wingo of Fort Worth and George Pearson, Othniel Aloop and W. E. Brown of Midland. Aloop and Brown also were the candlelighters.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs.

Farnsworth chose a navy suit with black accessories and a corsage of gardenias. The bridegroom's mother wore a navy dress with dusty rose accessories and a gardenia corsage.

Reception Here

The reception was held in the home of the Rev. and Mrs. Vernon Yearby. Assisting the couple in receiving the guests were Mr. and Mrs. Fred Farnsworth, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Kerr, Mrs. Lloyd Garrison, Jean Godfrey and Mrs. O. R. Grady.

Other members of the house party were Nellie Clark, Betty Clark, Verla Lee Goina, Mrs. Joe Wright, Rosalyn Magee, Jean Akins, Jewell Garret, Rosanne Yearby, Marilyn Dunsagan and Darla Adamson.

The bride's table was centered with an arrangement of white and blue asters, flanked by candles. Baskets of asters completed the decorations.

For a wedding trip to Colorado the bride chose a beige and brown crepe dress with a short beige jacket and accessories of brown and burnt orange.

The bride was graduated from Howard Payne College and Southern Baptist Seminary in Fort Worth. She is employed as educational secretary at the First Baptist Church.

Kerr was graduated from Midland High School and Draughn's Business College in Lubbock.

The couple will be at home at 1215 Lynn Street following their trip.

Out-of-city wedding guests included Vera Mims of San Angelo; Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Sorens, Seguin; Sue Hamilton of Fort Worth; Mr. and Mrs. Mallins Senter, Rankin; Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Farnsworth and Celeste of Roswell, N. M.; Mr. and Mrs. Fred Farnsworth and Mrs. Pete Grady and Mils of Canadian, and Mrs. Lloyd Garrison, Annie Lee and Tommy, of Bowie.

LOST 33 POUNDS WITH THIS HOME RECIPE

Boretracte is the original grapefruit juice recipe for taking off 33 lbs. fat. It's simple. Just go to your drugstore and ask for four ounces of liquid Boretracte. Pour into a pint bottle. Add 12 ounces of grapefruit juice. Then take just two tablespoonsful twice a day. That's all there is to it. If the year long battle doesn't show the simple, easy way to lose belly fat and help regain beauty, have a refund. No other diet pills and tonics of excess fat don't seem to do it. Boretracte, a natural like mango, from California, is safe, pleasant, high caloric and asked just returns the empty bottle for your money back. No starvation diet. Boretracte way.

LOST 33 POUNDS

"I cannot praise Boretracte enough," writes Mrs. Lila Butler, 218 Washington Ave., Waco, Texas. "I had done wonders for me. I don't have that tired, worn-out feeling any more. I weighed 170 pounds when I started to take Boretracte. I now weigh 137."

★ TEEN TALK ★

By VIVIAN BROWN
A.P. Newfeatures

That first year in a new school can be a gay or ghastly experience. It all depends on you.

If you start out on the right foot, school days should be pleasant. But if you are shy or sloppy or prefer to be sophisticated and snobbish, attitudes which discourage others from seeking your company, your school days may be dreary.

It is easy to get along with new acquaintances, and easy, too, to weed out undesirable so that new friendships can be made. Keep in mind these pointers which might make school days happier:

1. Be pleasant. A smile is as big as a handclasp when you are making new friends. A sour looking face will discourage others from becoming friendly. You need not, of course, grin all the time in idiotic fashion to impress others that you are good humored. Situations might occur to challenge your disposition. Try to stay on the bright side of the ledger.

2. Be helpful. If a school friend has a problem and asks your advice, don't reply with a "who-me?" attitude. Even if it taxes your time or energy, take an interest in those who seek help. Don't limit your good counseling to favorites.

3. Be a good sport. If you are Miss Moneybags and have a bigger allowance than others in your group, don't try to impress your less fortunate school mates with your wealth.

4. Be congenial. When invited to a party, don't act prudish. When games are played, cooperate with the group even if you are bored with that type of entertainment years ago. If you aren't having a good time it is better to go home than spoil the fun of others.

5. Be energetic. Even when studies seems to bore, don't inflict your lassitude on your chums. Nobody wants to sympathize with a girl who can't take it. Everybody has his own job to do, so if you must study hard to keep up with bright classmates, take it in stride.

6. Be cooperative. If you are on a committee, do your share of the work. There can be no team work if everyone acts like a general. Take your orders from the committee head, and do the best job possible. If you do an effective job as a committee worker, perhaps your co-workers will seek you to head a future enterprise.

7. Be kind. Whenever you think of gossiping about a school chum, ask yourself how you would feel if the same news was circulating about you. Often, too, school gossip can snowball until a minor incident is made to sound like a major tragedy.

8. Be tactful. Rude retorts to those you feel superior to are unnecessary and will put you in the snob class. Sometimes it turns out that the girl you haven't made a fair estimate of becomes a class leader, and you'll be left holding the bag when other class mates rally round her.

9. Be friendly. Go out of your way to do something nice for a school chum, occasionally. An invitation to your home is a nice gesture to a new friend or a lonely classmate.

10. Be fair. If you are called upon to take sides in an argument, beg off on the grounds that three's a fight. If a matter of principle is involved, however, do not hesitate to state your views, but try not to be arrogant.

If you've been spoiled by your family it will be difficult at first to get used to the idea that you are supposed to please others. Once you've tried, however, you'll be thrilled with the happiness you've brought to some less fortunate friend.

If you want to cook a whole small head of cauliflower, soak it—head down—in cold salted water for at least one-half hour. Serve with a butter-lemon sauce and sprinkle minced chives or parsley.

Mrs. Jay Haney

Life Is Both Hectic, Exciting For Baseball Manager's Wife

By Tess Martin
Life with a baseball player was no surprise to Jerry Haney when she married Jay Haney, new manager of the Midland Indians.

Mrs. Haney is from a well-known West Texas sports family. Her father and his five brothers were professional baseball players and her father was playing pro ball in Midland at the time she was born.

The former Jerry White, she is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louie White of Lamesa.

Rigid schedules and frequent moves make life "kinda rugged" sometimes for a ball player's family, Mrs. Haney admits, quickly explaining, however, that there is excitement to make up for any inconvenience.

Mrs. Haney is an avid baseball fan, who also loves football. A petite blonde she doesn't participate in sports, herself, although she played some tennis in high school.

Mr. and Mrs. Haney met in Lamesa, Jerry's home, and were married there in 1941, when Jerry was 18. Haney had come to Lamesa as a rookie the first year there was an organized team in that city.

Jerry had graduated from Lamesa High School and was attending Draughon's Business College in Lubbock at the time of her marriage.

Brooklyn had purchased Haney's contract and he was being farmed to Olean, N. Y., in the Pony League. It was a question, Mrs. Haney laughs, of marrying Haney and going with him or continuing school. So-school wasn't so important.

The couple stayed in New York for one season before Haney entered the Navy for three years of service.

Even in the Navy they followed baseball. Haney was an athletic specialist, playing with teams organized to entertain servicemen. Their last assignment with the Navy was with the V-5 at the University of Texas, Austin.

After the Navy, they were with the Fort Worth Cats one year, the Tulsa Oilers three years, and in Lamesa for the four years Haney was manager of the Lobos.

In addition to keeping up with the baseball team and making a home for her family in Lamesa, vivacious Mrs. Haney found time to participate in club and church activities.

She was a member of the '48 Delphian Club, and served as commentator for four of the club's semi-annual style show-dessert parties, one of the city's most popular social events. A bridge and canasta enthusiast, she was a member of a canasta club. She and Haney were also members of the Lamesa Country Club.

This year, she was named secretary of the Woman's Society of Christian Service and president of the Wesley Workers Class of the Lamesa First Methodist Church.

Dramatics is also a hobby for Mrs. Haney, who has several friends in the Midland Community Theater. Mr. and Mrs. Haney and their two blond, young sons—Stevie, five, and Craig, two—now are driving back and forth to Midland from Lamesa for the home games of the Indians.

They plan to buy a home and move to Midland when the baseball season closes—and, Mrs. Haney laughs, when Haney will have time to help with the move.

ANDREWS—A reception honoring members of the Andrews school faculty and school employes was held on the lawn of the home of Rev. and Mrs. Everett S. Martin. Co-hosts were Dr. and Mrs. E. W. Hutchinson. Heading the receiving line were Supt. and Mrs. Thomas D. Hamilton. Approximately 200 guests attended.

Ruth Smith of Houston is a guest of Delores Martin. Mr. and Mrs. Russell Johnson and children have returned from a two-week vacation visit in Corpus Christi, Richmond, Va., and Washington, D. C.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Roberts, Sr., and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Roberts and daughter have returned from a vacation trip to Canada. They arrived in time to attend the annual Roberts reunion at Brownfield honoring Mrs. William Roberts on her eighty-third birthday. Mr. and Mrs. Harold Roberts, formerly of Glasgow, Mont., have returned to Andrews to live.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Underwood have returned home after spending the summer in Oregon with their daughter, Mrs. A. F. Fisher.

Jerry Fuson was treated in the Permian General Hospital and Big Spring Hospital for a fractured skull. He received the injury when he fell from the family automobile.

City Secretary and Mrs. L. B. Parrish are planning to leave this weekend for Ogden, Utah, where they will visit Mrs. Parrish's parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Lusty, and other relatives.

Bunny Martin has returned home from Ridgcrest, N. C., where he was a staff member at the Baptist Assembly for the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Gillihan and baby of Shepard Field, Wichita Falls, are spending a 30-day leave with Gillihan's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Gillihan, and other relatives.

Guests in the E. E. Denny home are Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Stark and sons of Sedan, Kan. The visitors are planning a trip to the Carlsbad Caverns and to Juarez, Mexico, where they will see a bull fight.

Top Shakespearean Artist To Appear In Filmed Role

HOLLYWOOD—John Gielgud, one of the world's two greatest Shakespearean actors, has been lured to Hollywood. To his own surprise, he likes the town. Gielgud and Sir Laurence Olivier are the top exponents of Shakespeare. The difference between them is that Gielgud has limited his classic acting to the stage, whereas Olivier's also has been on film. That may or may not account for Gielgud's decision to take an offer to play Cassius in the film version of "Julius Caesar."

"I find the climate unusually pleasant, the people congenial and the work enjoyable," he remarked on the movie set. "What's more I have found a house to rent and I don't have to pay a fortune for it."

He explained his reluctance to try movies: "I had a previous experience of doing films in England back in the '30's. I was in five or six and they were dismal. I decided that films were not for me. "But then I had the offer to play Cassius. It was a part I had played before and was therefore familiar with. Since it was Shakespeare, I presumed that they could not do too much tampering with the script."

Faith In Director
"And I also had faith in Joe Mankiewicz, the director. I had talked with him when he visited England. I had also seen his "All About Eve" and "Five Fingers" and liked them."

"One other factor helped me decide—the international market. No matter how accomplished an actor is, he does not have an international market unless he is in films. I saw that happen with Olivier." His experience here has whetted his appetite for more films. He said he would like to try his hand at writing pictures, as well as acting in them. But he has no ambition to direct, a function he performs in the theater.

Indochina Now Has
'Boys Town' Refuge

HANOI, INDOCHINA — There's a "Boys Town" in Indochina, too. It's right here in Hanoi—headquarters city for the French Union forces warring against the Communist-led Vietminh.

The real name of "Boys Town" is "Cite du Christ Roi"—the City of Christ, the King. It's an institution run by Catholic priests and sisters to help orphaned boys—whether they drift in from territory held by the Vietminh or the French Union forces.

Father Paul Seitz, of the Paris Foreign Missions, is hopeful that "Boys Town" may someday have quarters for 1,000 war orphans. Right now, 450 boys make up its "citizens."

Midland Women Hail From Many Lands

As Midland continues to grow, women from many lands are moving here with their families and contributing to club, church and civic activities.

Typical of this group of enthusiastic residents are Mrs. W. S. Key, Jr., Mrs. T. F. Harris, Mrs. Robert Bogardus and Mrs. Malcolm Brennehan.

Civic activities are an important interest to Mrs. Key, who is formerly from Hungary. She is a member of the executive boards of the League of Women-Voters and the Auxiliary of the Midland Memorial Hospital.

Mrs. Key, who with her family, has lived in Midland since November, 1949, is the former Kamilla Hiller of Budapest, Hungary. Her mother, Mrs. Margaret Hiller, is also living in Midland.

Meet In Budapest

The Keys met in Budapest during World War II, when they were both working with the Allied Control Commission for Hungary. Mrs. Key later came to America as a member of the first Hungarian diplomatic mission to the United States after the war.

The couple was married in March, 1944, in Washington, D. C., when Key was back in the United States on leave. He is from Oklahoma City, Okla.

The Keys now have a young daughter, Patricia, who is 18 months old. In Midland, they own and manage the Western Motel.

Mrs. Brennehan and her husband met in Florence while Brennehan was stationed there with the Air Force. She was employed in the Post Office at the time.

After Brennehan returned home, Mrs. Brennehan also came to the United States and they were married in Alpine on Feb. 14, 1947. They have two children, Brenda, four, and Bruce, who is seven months old.

Exhibit Of Wall Decorations, Paintings Will Open On Sunday

An exhibit of paintings and wall decorations from the W. R. Fine Galleries of Dallas will open Sunday in the House of Carpets. It has been announced by Mrs. Winifred Deal and Felix Weimaker of the House of Carpets.

Milton Fine from the Dallas galleries will be in Midland to conduct the show.

Included in the exhibit will be Paris street scenes by Maurin, Western paintings by Wiegman, shaped fan cases and antique fans, modern and traditional mirrors, antique glass, landscapes by English artists, etchings on satin, mirrored frames and an antique glass cocktail table.

Mr. William Penn gave a reading of the comedy, "Jane" when the Ladies Golf Association of the Midland Country Club held a luncheon Friday in the club.

Hostesses for the occasion were Mrs. J. Oliver Gooch and Mrs. G. Frank Aldrich.

Approximately 60 women attended.

In the country, bucolic scenes are waiting for the artist's eye to capture them. Cows and sheep, pigs and horses, farmers on tractors, birds, bees and wildflowers offer incentive to the creative.

The exhibit will be open from 2 until 6 p.m. Sunday and from 9 a.m. until 6 p.m. Monday through Saturday.

The W. R. Fine Galleries, which has been in operation in Dallas for 37 years, was started by Mr. Fine when he was 19 and employed with an oil company. Today it is established in a modern building with 4,500 square feet of gallery space and is described as one of the finest establishments of its kind in the Southwest.

Olaf Wiegman, whose work will be included in the Midland exhibit, is well-known for his paintings of horses and Western scenes.

A native of Denmark, he has loved horses since he was a child. After coming to America, he served three years in the 6th U. S. Cavalry, stationed at Fort Bliss in El Paso, and for 20 years with the New York Mounted Police. During his last few years in New York, his paintings were exhibited in several of the leading galleries. He is now living in El Cajon, Calif.

Medical science lowered the death rate from measles, diphtheria and whooping cough by more than 90 per cent in one generation.

Midlander Weds In Hobbs, N. M.

Dorothy Jennivie Webb of Hobbs, N. M., and formerly of Midland, became the bride of Herman Edward Wendt Saturday in a double-ring ceremony in the Rectory of St. Helena's in Hobbs.

The couple exchanged vows before a background arrangement of white chrysanthemums and lemon leaves.

Mrs. Herman Edward Wendt

The bride wore an ivory white ballerina length gown of bridal lace over taffeta styled with a lace jacket featuring a high neckline and a fly-collar and worn over a fitted halter bodice.

Her finger tip veil of French illusion fell from a coronet of seed pearls. She carried an old-fashioned bouquet of white roses with satin streamers.

Elizabeth Underwood of Midland was the maid of honor. She wore a pink velvet dress styled with a fitted bodice and a dinner length skirt. She wore a matching pink feather hat and carried an old-fashioned bouquet of white roses with green satin streamers.

William E. LaRoche of Midland was the best man. Following the ceremony a reception was held in the couple's future home in the Tide Water Oil Camp.

Cake Centers Table

The bride's table was covered with a hand crocheted white cloth and was centered with a tiered cake topped with miniature bride and bridegroom figurines. White chrysanthemums and lemon leaves completed the decorations.

Mrs. Donald E. Grove served the punch, assisted by Lily Gilbert of Midland and Betty Ackroyd.
