Superior Wildcat In NE Borden Gets Free Oil On DST

The Superior Oil Company No. 14-598 Jordan, wildcat one and one-quarter miles southeast of a recently opened Mississippi field in Northeast Borden County and one and one-quarter miles northwest of a recently completed Ellenburger discovery in Northwest Scurry County, found indications of commercial production on a drillstem test in the Mississippi.

The zone tested was from 7,880 to 7,910 feet. Tool was open one hour. Gas surfaced in four minutes. Recovery was 60 feet of 35.8-gravity oil, 130 feet of gas-cut mud, 90 feet of mud-cut oil and 30 feet of oil and gas-cut mud. No formation water was found. Open flowing bottomhole pressure was 150 pounds. Shut-in pressure after 15 minutes was 124 pounds.

Operator was preparing to core more hole. Location is 1,980 feet from west and 800 feet from south lines of section 598, block 97, H&TC survey. This project is in Northeast Borden County.

Upton Wildcat Gets Oil, Gas Shows On DST In Ellenburger

The Wilshire Oil Company, Inc. No. 1-12 Mrs. W. R. Timmins, Northwest Upton County wildcat, is drilling ahead after a drillstem test in the Ellenburger from 13,170 to 13,194 feet.

Tool was open one and one-half hours. A 2,500-foot water blanket was used. Recovery was 1,830 feet of water blanket which was slightly cut with oil, 720 feet of slightly oil and heavily gas cut water blanket, 270 feet of slightly oil and heavily gas and mud cut water blanket and 180 feet of slightly oil and heavily gas cut drilling mud.

Top of the Ellenburger was picked at 13,175 feet. That is on a datum of minus 10,319 feet. Location is 600 feet from north and west lines of section 12, block 41, T-5-S, T&P survey and one and one-quarter miles southwest of the nearest production in the multipay Pegasus field.

Conoco Schedules 6,600-Foot Test In S-C King Area

Continental Oil Company spotted location for a 6,600-foot wildcat in South-Central King County.

It will be drilled as No. 3 Alexander Estate, 600 feet from east and 2,970 feet from south lines of section 22, block F, H&TC survey. It is 15 miles southeast of Guthrie and three and one-half miles east of a 6,300-foot lime failure.

Operations are to start by September 29.

Ike Approves Nixon, Returns To Party Wars

ABOARD EISENHOWER SPECIAL — (P) — Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower and Senator Richard M. Nixon marched side by side back to the political wars Thursday after a dramatically tearful reunion in Wheeling, W. Va. Although Eisenhower took on a heavy whistle stop schedule in West Virginia and Maryland, and Nixon flew west to Salt Lake City, they were teamed solidly by a 107 to 0 vote of confidence by the Republican National Committee in the vice presidential nominee.

Washed out were any doubts that might have been in the mind of Eisenhower, the GOP presidential standard bearer, whether Nixon's acceptance of more than $18,000 in privately-raised expense funds from wealthy Californians should count him out as a candidate. The Democrats were not likely to consider the matter closed, however. In the highest Republican circles, there had been no doubt for days

NIXON RESTS AFTER ORDEAL

WHEELING, W. VA.—(P)—"Absolute privacy" was ordered for Senator Richard M. Nixon Thursday morning. The GOP vice presidential nominee was resting at the Hotel McClure after three days and three nights with practically no sleep, his secretary said.

That Nixon would be retained on the ticket. That verdict was sealed when his national radio-television broadcast resulted in Western Union offices being swamped with telegrams in his behalf.

Nevertheless, Eisenhower maintained the technical position that he, alone, could not decide Nixon's fate. Thus he could not announce publicly that he was keeping his running mate at his side.

He could only say that the national committee, clothed with the final party power, had voted 107 to 0 to keep Nixon on. And Nixon was on, no mistaking that. Out of this whole situation developed a series of scenes as in a play.

Eisenhower saw Nixon's television broadcast. From Cleveland, the presidential nominee summoned his running mate to Wheeling, telling him in advance he was a courageous man.

Nixon flew about 1,700 miles from Missoula, Mont., to land on Wheeling's hilltop airport. Eisenhower, who had been waiting patiently in a

Midland Telegrams Continue On Nixon

Midlanders continued Thursday to support Richard Nixon with a flow of telegrams to the National Republican Committee in Washington, D. C.

Russell O. Smith, Western Union manager here, estimated more than 200 telegrams originated in Midland since Nixon's appeal Tuesday night. Nixon asked that Americans express their opinions in telegrams to the GOP leadership.

THEY KNEW HOW STORY WOULD END—

West Virginians See Drama Unfold As Ike Greet's Nixon

WHEELING, W. VA.—(P)—The people sat in a cold stadium, chilled by a damp wind, knowing how this story would end. They knew that in the final act Ike Eisenhower would stand with Dick Nixon as his running mate on the GOP ticket.

But this was the drama of political history. It had to be played to its last emotional scene. The audience wanted to see it acted out.

The final act began when Eisenhower left his special train here Wednesday night to drive to the Wheeling Airport on the top of Cherry Mountain near the city. He was going to meet Senator Richard M. Nixon of California who had been under fire because he accepted an $18,000 expense fund donated by wealthy Californians. Some said it was "morally wrong." Others defended it.

A motorcade followed Eisenhower

Stripling Plans Talks With Nixon

Robert Stripling of Midland, former chief investigator for the House Un-American Activities Committee, said Thursday he had scheduled a conference Friday afternoon with Senator Richard Nixon, the Republican nominee for vice president, in Amarillo. Stripling, an independent oil operator here, formerly worked with Nixon in the investigation of Communist activities in America. Earlier this week, Stripling wired Nixon to express his confidence in his integrity after Democratic charges had been leveled at the youthful candidate concerning an $18,000 expense fund set up in California.

AMARILLO — (P) — A tight schedule for Senator Richard Nixon, Republican vice presidential nominee, has been worked out for his visit in Amarillo Friday. The senator will arrive by plane at 6 p.m.

In the airport dining room, Nixon will hold a press conference to which only newsmen will be admitted. Robert E. Clements, Republican campaign manager for the 18th Congressional District, said.

Then Nixon will go to the Tivoli State Fairgrounds, where he will speak at 8:45. The speech will be broadcast over all Amarillo stations and the Texas Quality Network.

The senator will spend another half-hour greeting fair visitors and then leave for Tulsa, where he is scheduled for a 9:30 p.m. speech.

Alaniz, El Turko Take Bond Appeals To Top State Court

AUSTIN — (P)—Nago Alaniz and Mario Sapat Thursday asked the Court of Criminal Appeals to free them on bond that had been denied them in 79th District Court at Alice. Alaniz and Sapat are charged with conspiring in the murder of Jake (Buddy) Floyd, Jr., son of a South Texas political leader.

Alaniz, dapper self-styled lieutenant, Sapat Texas political boss George Parr, and Sapat, known as El Turko, are held without bond in the Jim Wells County jail.

The court took no immediate action.

END OF THE ROW—Referee Charles Daggert counts out Heavyweight Champion Joe Walcott after 43 seconds of the thirteenth round in his title fight with Rocky Marciano. Marciano bludgeoned the champ to the canvas to become the first white heavyweight king in 15 years.

'BE NOT SAD, AS HYPOCRITES'—

Truman Calls On Scriptures In Defense Of Adlai's 'Fun'

WASHINGTON — (P)—President Truman said Thursday he believes all top pay government officials should be required to make public accounts of all their income each year.

He took this stand at a news conference, saying he long had favored legislation to that end. The President refused, however, to comment on Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower's assertion that his Republican vice presidential running mate, Richard Nixon, had "completely exonerated" himself by his report on his privately financed senatorial expense fund.

Truman likewise refused to comment on a fund raised by the Democratic presidential nominee, Gov. Adlai Stevenson, to help bolster the salaries of some government officials in Illinois.

Truman said his attitude on funds received by government officials was reflected in a message sent to Congress Sept. 27, 1951.

This was a message in which he advocated publicity on all income received by top-salaried government officials as well as members of Congress.

Connally Deplores Lack Of Progress On West Defenses

PARIS — (P)—Senator Tom Connally (D-Texas) Thursday called on Western Europe to exert more effort in building its security. Connally, finishing a six-week tour of Europe, warned Europeans "not to depend entirely on the United States for everything, such as troops."

The veteran head of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee said the U. S. was concerned over lack of progress in mutual security. He told newsmen, however, that "I do not think war with Russia is imminent. Russia is not prepared for war and doesn't want one. We don't either. Yet a war could easily be provoked."

Texas Cities' Crime Rates Reflect Rise Across Nation

WASHINGTON — (P)—Crime rates in Texas cities increased in the first six months of 1952 as compared with the corresponding period last year.

The FBI reported the increase, which followed a nation-wide trend, on the basis of records submitted by police departments in 101 Texas cities.

For the state, there were 5,400 murders or non-negligent manslaughter per 100,000 population in the January-June period this year, against 5,16 for the first half of 1951.

This year's rates for other major crimes in Texas: Robbery, 21.1; Aggravated assault, 64.4; burglary, 27.4; larceny and theft, 69.1; and auto theft, 130.1.

DIRTY WORK AT CITY HALL

There was dirty work afoot Thursday morning in City Hall. And it involved no less than murder with the Federal Bureau of Investigation and the Midland Police Department participating. Sometime Thursday afternoon a "corpse" was to be found in City Hall and the ace crime detectors called in to study the clues and provide a solution.

It's all part of the police department's in-service training school and the crime and its solution will be directed by Elmer F. Ehrlich, assistant special agent in charge of the FBI office in El Paso.

Weather Pattern Remains Unchanged

By The Associated Press
The weather forecast for Thursday night and Friday called for partly cloudy Texas skies, little change in temperature, and no rain.

It all meant that inhabitants of the Panhandle - Plains country would feel the nip of Fall in the air, that Central Texas would have comfortable weather, and that the South Texas-Mexican border area would continue to have summertime temperatures.

For the most part, that's the way it was Wednesday, too, although squalls of rain—see title to measure—fell at San Angelo, Mineral Wells, Fort Worth, Waco and Abilene.

High temperatures for the day ranged from a cool 83 at Marfa to a hot 91 at the border city of Laredo and at Cotulla in South Texas.

All Identities Are Withheld Until Arrests

RIO GRANDE CITY — (P)—A grand jury probing alleged election fraud Thursday returned nine indictments against 13 Starr County election officials.

District Attorney Homer Dean said names of those indicted would not be released until they are arrested. He said arrests probably would be made later Thursday.

The indictments were returned after a series of events during the grand jury session in which Starr County upheld its reputation as one of the stormiest political areas in the state.

Dean said the grand jury indicted a clerk on a charge of filing five false certificates.

It returned one indictment against two persons on charges of issuing poll tax receipts to fraudulent persons.

Another indictment charged four election officials with exposing voters' ballots after they had been cast.

Six other election officials were named in separate indictments charging refusal to allow qualified persons to vote. These six cases were transferred from district court to county court, Dean said.

The grand jury recessed until 10 a.m. next Wednesday.

French Sub, 48 Crewmen Lost At Sea

PARIS — (P)—The French Navy gave up hope Thursday for the submarine Sibile and her crew of 48, missing in the Mediterranean off the Riviera since Wednesday morning.

"The Sibile must be considered as lost," said a Naval Ministry communique.

The communique came almost simultaneously with a report from the big Southern France naval base of Toulon that an oil slick had been reported in the area where the submarine submerged Wednesday during maneuvers.

Security Cable Broken
The slick was reported off St. Tropez, a Riviera vacation spot and World War II invasion base 40 miles east of Toulon.

The Navy said the sub was believed to have gone down in waters 2,100 feet deep. Its rescue equipment, the Navy explained, could not operate below depths of 150 to 200 feet.

A communique said: "The security buoy of the Sibile was found but the cable linking it to the submarine was broken. The center of the oil slick, which extended over a large area, corresponds with the position which the submarine occupied when last in sound contact."

Search vessels are continuing to patrol the area, the communique added. It said the crew of the sub included five officers, nine non-commissioned officers and 34 men.

Five Counties Added To Texas Drouth Area

WASHINGTON — (P)—The Housing and Home Finance Agency has designated five additional counties in Texas as being eligible for participation in the emergency drouth relief program.

They are Bastrop, Hamilton, Hardeman, Wilbarger and McLennan.

Adlai Keeps Mum On Funds, Hones Fence-Mending Tools

SPRINGFIELD, ILL.—(P)—Gov. Adlai E. Stevenson, silent on political funds and GOP "vindication" sessions, took a look Thursday at Dixie campaign schedules and chances of patching up political troubles in the Southland.

Campaign maneuvers that will reach deep into Dixie were in the final planning stages at headquarters of the Democratic presidential nominee.

Stevenson aides told a reporter that through the middle weeks of October the Illinois governor will be jumping back and forth from his Springfield base to key spots both in the South and in the Midwest.

Senator Russell Long of Louisiana, a staunch Stevenson supporter in a state where fires of rebellion are smoldering among some elements of the Democratic Party, was an overnight lodger at the Illinois Executive Mansion.

But of more immediate concern to Stevenson are a foray into Indiana and Kentucky on Friday and Saturday, a major television-radio speech in Chicago Monday and flying visits to Ohio and Iowa to close out next week.

For the time being, at least, the Democratic nominee had nothing to say about the dramatic reunion at Wheeling, W. Va., Wednesday night between General Eisenhower and his vice presidential teammate, Senator Richard M. Nixon of California.

Nixon accused Stevenson of "blaming up" about a fund raised to supplement the salaries of Illinois state officials.

Stevenson offered no immediate comment on Nixon's remarks or the decision of the GOP high command to keep the California senator on the party ticket.

"The Democratic candidate was standing pat on what he said Wednesday—that it would be 'a breach of faith on my part' to name key state officials whose salaries he said he supplemented with donations from the special fund."

City Water Jobs Granted Dallas Firms

Two Dallas firms were successful bidders in two projects expanding Midland's water system.

Midland's City Council Wednesday afternoon awarded a $185,000 contract to Pittsburgh-Des Moines Steel Company for the construction of a 1,000,000-gallon elevated water tank. Completion time was set at 450 days.

McKensie and Sims of Dallas was awarded the contract to lay a 30-inch pipe line into the city from its McMillen Field. Amount of the bid was $522,248, and completion time was set at 90 days after delivery of pipe.

A spokesman for the company said that because no steel will be available during the final quarter of this year, construction probably would not begin until early in 1953. He promised the pipe line will be in use before June 1.

The councilman also authorized the purchase of a small asphalt mixer for maintenance use, approved certain paving work adjacent to park areas in the Permian Estates addition and disposed of other routine business matters.

Ike Takes Necessary Risk

It is apparent from the strategy General Eisenhower is employing in his first whistle-stop tour that he intends to avoid specific issues as much as he can.

His aides earlier had made it plain this was to be Ike's approach—to hammer away at the Administration on the one hand and on the other to promise a return to what he sees as the fundamentals of good government.

This strategy is being relied upon in defiance of those who have counseled that Eisenhower could not win the election without carefully spelling out what he would do as President.

When he goes to the rear platform of his train, or mounts a rostrum in front of some city hall, he doesn't talk about the Taft-Hartley Act or FEPC, nor does he outline a bold legislative program of his own. He talks about faith, and clean government, and thrift, and efficiency. He stresses youth and its opportunities in a free land.

The general's advisers surely understand the risk of this kind of campaigning. He is matching Home and Mother against a party which has done a great many specific things in the last 20 years and now promises to do more. Men may argue about the quality of Democratic performance, but they do not say things have not been done.

In pursuing this course, Ike and his aides appear to be counting on two things: the general's evident popularity and the conviction that discontent is widespread and people want a change.

At this stage no one dares guess whether they are right or not. That there is genuine interest in the general is unquestioned—his crowds have been immense from the moment he began serious campaigning.

Maybe this reflects deep faith in Eisenhower as a man—faith that will be translated into votes in November.

Possibly, too, the dissatisfaction with President Truman's administration runs deep. The mood of the people in such matters is extremely difficult to measure. What they say does not always indicate accurately how they will vote.

Either one or both of these factors could be potent enough to elect the general. Ike's men think the odds favor their tactics.

But even if they felt otherwise, they might have no real alternative course. For Ike just is not well versed on the specifics of major domestic issues and he will not take positions he does not understand.

(Copyright, 1952, By The Bell Syndicate, Inc.) Drew Pearson says: Ike will explain his friendship with GOP extremists; Senator Jenner will explain his friendship with GOP extremists; Senator Jenner will explain his friendship with GOP extremists.

WASHINGTON—General Eisenhower is scheduled to speak in Baltimore tonight in clarification of the reasons why he embraced some of the isolationists of the Republican Party and tolerated such extremists as Senator Jenner of Indiana and Senator McCarthy of Wisconsin.

The inside story of the general's relations with this wing dates back to his first arrival in the U. S. shortly before the Chicago convention. At that time his personal prejudices vigorously were opposed to the GOP isolationists and extremists.

But his counselors, reminding him that he was a novice at politics, urged that he antagonize no one, but concentrate only on the goal of winning the nomination.

After he was nominated, they said, there would be time to do his political wooing.

That was why the general, in his maiden address at Abilene, tried so delicately, embraced even the McArthur wing of the party.

But in Denver last summer, Ike had another showdown with the extremists—this time over McCarthyism.

His old friend Paul Hoffman had been asked to testify against McCarthy and in defense of General George Marshall in the Benton-McCarthy libel suit. Hoffman asked Eisenhower if the testimony would be embarrassing. Ike replied that it wouldn't.

He also indicated that he might testify against McCarthy himself. Ike is flushed.

This leaked back to Arthur Summerfield, Republican national chairman, who immediately went into a huddle with the general.

Summerfield pointed out that if Eisenhower opposed McCarthy he would also have to oppose Senator Jenner. And if he opposed Jenner he also would have to oppose Senator Cain of Washington, who consistently has sided with McCarthy.

Summerfield argued at length and convincingly. In the end Eisenhower concurred.

When Ike got to Indianapolis, home of Senator Jenner, he experienced one of the most awkward moments of his life.

Marshall had been unable to defend himself when Jenner attacked him, for speeches in the Senate are beyond the reach of the courts or a libel suit. So Marshall's friends had hoped that Senator Eisenhower would be returned would utter some word in his defense.

However, he didn't. Perhaps he couldn't. Perhaps in the new role of politician he was too anxious to please his mentors, the men who coached him what to do and whom to greet.

So Ike, now running for President, made the most of the general's embarrassment, holding up Ike's hand while the cameras clicked, getting in front of the photographers at every opportunity. Ike moved over to another part of the platform, but Jenner followed him. Finally the general sat down.

Speaking later, he endorsed "all the liars in Indiana."

Note—Most people don't know that the other senator who attacked General Marshall, Joe McCarthy, also included Eisenhower in his attack. McCarthy accused Marshall of being part of a "Communist conspiracy, the world-wide web of which has been spun from Moscow" by Marshall, he said was "steeped in blood."

His "every important act has contributed to the prosperity of the enemy" of Eisenhower he said. "In all these attitudes, Eisenhower was Marshall's firm supporter."

JACOBY ON BRIDGE

By OSWALD JACOBY. Nothing delights most bridge players more than a fine deceptive play. Maybe they are pleased by the triumph of mind over matter, or maybe they enjoy seeing a David die out to a Goliath. I suspect that the most important reason is that most bridge players admire larceny for its own sake—in a law-abiding sort of way.

Whatever the reason may be, I'm sure that everybody will enjoy the beautiful deceptive play made by Eddie Lowenthal, one of New York's best players, in the hand shown today. So far it has pleased everybody who has seen it—except the dealer when the hand was actually played.

West opened his singleton diamond, dummy played the jack, and Lowenthal calmly won with the ace of diamonds instead of the queen! He then returned the ten of diamonds.

It's easy to see that South should have ruffed with a high trump. He could then cash the top hearts and ruff two losing hearts in the dummy.

When the hand was actually played, however, South didn't suspect that anything unusual was being done to him. He saw East win the first trick with the ace of diamond, then I took Lucy's arm and we went into the building and through the waiting room to a luncheon at the east end. I ordered a sandwich and coffee.

A loud-speaker was announcing our flight. Lucy said, "Come on." I gulped my coffee, paid, and followed her out. Under the floodlights on the apron, I glanced around, but saw no sign of Governor Warburton; it was quite dark in the observation area. I went on up the steps with Lucy and we found seats together.

I saw the Governor's bulky form moving rapidly across the concrete toward the plane. His collar was up and his hatbrim was down and I might not have recognized him myself had I not known who was coming aboard. He hurried up the steps and moved up front, and a moment later the door was shut and the plane taxied to the runway.

There were only a half-dozen passengers aboard. Lucy looked at me. "You look like a hulk man."

"I'll never write another book," she put her hand on mine. "I'm sorry I said that, Roy. I was just kidding. Of course you're going to write lots and lots of books, just as good as the others."

"How do you know? You never read any of them."

"On the contrary," she said quietly. "I read them all."

I was pleased and surprised, but said, "I didn't think they were your type."

"Just what do you think is my type?" I grinned and said, "Havelock Ellis, maybe, but not biographies."

"Havelock Ellis?" said Lucy. "That has been!"

The plane was taking off. It cleared a blinking light and became a slow, banking turn. The lights of Jackson appeared to our left.

The plane dived on northeastward. I dove a while, and did not come awake until the lights of Atlanta showed below. The plane landed at the airport and we waited in our seats. Two passengers left the plane, and several more came aboard.

IN the air again, I promptly fell asleep, and when I awakened, my head was on Lucy's shoulder. I sat up and she gave me the wise smile of a sleeper on a public conveyance usually receives from his companion on awakening, the sort of smile that makes him wonder what he has said in his sleep.

Lucy asked, "What color is her hair?"

"Whom hair?"

"Don't blush again." "I never blushed in my life," I said.

"Or shaved, either," said Lucy. "And incidentally, you snore. I suppose she's a blonde."

"As a matter of fact, she is," I said. "Her name is Ginny Perkins and she's a pretty sweet, natural kid. So don't make any cracks to her."

Lucy quite needlessly smoothed a seam in her gray tailored shirt; her fingers plucked at a thread I could not see. "You know, Roy," she said, "we like snoring, fat, and all that, but sometimes you disturb me. You say things that make me wonder."

"Wonder what?"

"What you really think of me." I was surprised and said, "I didn't think my snoring would carry any weight with you, one way or the other. But, as a matter of fact, I think you're pretty fat."

"Well, thanks," said Lucy. "You know your job, and you can do it without asking a lot of questions." I said, "That's a pretty rare quality."

"At least I got my bait back," Lucy said wryly. "But I think I'd prefer my qualities well-done, not rare. Have about my legs? They're done to a turn, aren't they?"

"They are," I said.

"And your hair is nice," she said. "It's plenty nice," I said.

"Well!" said Lucy.

"Well and good," she said. "Well and good. And the heck with you, anyhow."

THE tax turned onto a bare stretch of road leading to the airport. I told the driver to stop in the parking area, away from the lighted entrance. The Governor slipped out and walked along a path beside the building to the observation area. We watched his OKLAHOMANS FIND A WAY. OKLAHOMA CITY—Two former Oklahoma governors and Gov. Johnston Murray Thursday confided their secret formula on how to entice qualified men into state government work despite the low pay.

"My solution is to use dollar-a-year men"—volunteers, said Murray.

Roy J. Turner, Murray's predecessor, recalled he once paid an official from his own pocket.

Senator Robert S. Kerr, who preceded both men in office, offered:

"I had to twist the arms of business men pretty hard to get them to devote four years to state business."

Hugh Weaver Heads Daniel Baker Board. DALLAS—(AP)—Hugh Weaver of Fort Worth has been named president of the Daniel Baker College board of trustees.

Weaver was elected Wednesday as trustee of the Brownwood school met in annual session.

Other officers named were W. W. Mayes, Brownwood, vice president; The Rev. James P. Dewolfe, Jr., Fort Worth, secretary, and John Waring, Comanche, treasurer. Five men were added to the board—Edgar L. Phippen, D. Gordon Rupe, Jr. and William R. Clayton, all of Dallas; William Wright, El Paso, and Paul Osborne, San Antonio.

Phippen agreed to head a fundraising drive for the school. The date and goal of the campaign will be decided later.

WASHINGTON COLUMN. Next President's Chief Aides Should Attend NATO Meeting. By FETTER EDSON. NEA Washington Correspondent.

WASHINGTON—First chance for the new President to swing into action on foreign affairs before his inauguration may come at the North Atlantic Treaty Organization meeting now scheduled to open in Paris December 15.

This is a meeting, like the Lisbon conference last Fall, attended by top foreign ministers and defense ministers, as top military leaders.

Secretary of State Dean Acheson, Defense Secretary Robert A. Lovett and Gen. Omar Bradley, chairman of the U. S. chiefs of staff, will head up the American delegation, as usual.

But it would be advisable for their successors to attend this session, also, to get acquainted with their opposite numbers in the 15 European countries and to give their formal approval to the NATO goals which will be set for 1953.

This has raised the question of whether the new President—Stevenson or Eisenhower—will not have to designate his new secretaries of State and Defense will be before the Paris NATO conference opens. They could not be sworn into office, but they could attend as observers or advisers.

Tennessee Senator Estes Kefauver's role in the presidential campaign, in support of Democratic candidate Adlai Stevenson, will be determined shortly after Kefauver returns from Europe.

The tentative plan is to have Kefauver concentrate in states where he made his best showing as Stevenson's rival in the primaries before the Chicago nominating convention. These would be states like Tennessee, California, Ohio and Wisconsin.

One of Senator Kefauver's major projects when the new Congress convenes in January will be presentation of a bill to establish a national presidential primary for 1954. Legislative Reference Service in Library of Congress already has started the research on it.

Senator Paul Douglas of Illinois tried to get through the last Congress a quick, stop-gap bill to set up a national primary for use this year, but Congress turned it down. The Douglas bill would have provided for federal financial aid to the states to pay for the primary election.

State attorneys general would have been empowered to enter into agreements with the U. S. attorney general to authorize the national primary under various state election laws.

This was more or less of an emergency proposal. For a more permanent law authorizing a national presidential primary, it is believed that a constitutional amendment will be necessary.

This would require passage by two-thirds majorities of both houses of Congress and ratification by three-fourths of the state legislatures.

XVI. THE cab moved along Capitol Street and I heard sirens, saw a car by under police escort. I said, "That must be the Governor now."

"That's his car," Lucy said. "He's not in it. Around back, driver."

There was a parking lot at the rear of the hotel, and a car entrance from the hotel that led to it. The cab pulled up to the rear door and instantly a big man, bundled in a topcoat, hurried out and got in the cab with us. I said, "You'll have to give the password."

Governor Warburton chuckled and said, "Meathhead."

"The airport, driver," Lucy said. The Governor turned down the collar of his topcoat and breathed a deep, relaxed sigh. "I feel like a free man, not a politician," he said. "Ah, breathe that air! Look at those stars! Roy, it's a long time since I played hockey."

"Roy, this is the pitch," Lucy said. "We're traveling separately. That is, you and I go together and the Governor is alone. No one would expect Willis G. Warburton to be flying around the country alone, you see."

"Once you get out of Jackson, I think you'll be all right," the Governor said. "Trouble is, people know I'm here in town. What I'm afraid of is someone might recognize me at the airport."

I recalled the layout of the airport and said, "I think we can work that. It's dark now. They have an observation look at each end of the administration building. You can get in one of those, in the dark, and you won't be seen."

THE taxi turned onto a bare stretch of road leading to the airport. I told the driver to stop in the parking area, away from the lighted entrance. The Governor slipped out and walked along a path beside the building to the observation area. We watched his

18 Second-String Commies Face Smith Act Indictments

WASHINGTON—(AP)—Eighteen second-string Communist Party leaders, rounded up by the FBI last week, have been indicted on charges of conspiring to advocate the overthrow of the United States government by force.

Federal grand juries Wednesday returned indictments against seven in Seattle, Wash., and five in St. Louis, Mo. The six others were indicted in Detroit last Monday.

Demos Distribute Booklet In Color To Promote Adlai

WASHINGTON—(AP)—Gov. Adlai E. Stevenson's life story was depicted Thursday in a 26-page, full-color picture booklet.

The Democratic National Committee announced that several million copies were being distributed through state Democratic organizations.

The booklet's color pictures trace back to Stevenson's great grandfather, Jesse W. Fell, "who brought about the famous Lincoln-Douglas debates"; his grandfather, Adlai E. Stevenson, President Grover Cleveland's vice president, and his father, Lewis Green Stevenson, Illinois secretary of state in 1914.

The pictures take Stevenson quickly through grade school, Princeton, Harvard and Northwestern University.

The booklet deals mostly with his service as governor of Illinois, his World War II job and his role in the formation of the United Nations.

A number of pages are devoted to Stevenson's stand on foreign aid, inflation, taxes, "bureaucracy," labor and agriculture.

The 18 party functionaries were picked up September 17 by the FBI in Midwest cities and on the West Coast. They are alleged to have inherited party leadership after the convictions two years ago of the highest Communist officials in this country.

Since it began moving against the party under the Smith Act in 1948, the government has obtained more than 80 indictments and has convicted more than a score of party leaders.

Specific Actions Cited

The Seattle indictment charged the seven defendants with 16 specific overt conspiracy actions. The St. Louis indictment charged the five there with 15 specific overt acts. The six indicted in Detroit were charged with 17 specific overt actions.

The 18 named in the indictments, the Justice Department said, include:

Seattle — Henry P. Huff, 58; William J. Penneck, 37; Karly Larsen, 47; Terry Pettus, 48; Paul Miller Bowen, 30; John Shields Daschbach, 38; Barbara Hartle, 44.

ABILENE—(AP)—An estimated 61 Hardin-Simmons University students and faculty members became ill Wednesday, apparently due to food from the campus dining hall.

RANGER GUARDS DISTRICT JUDGE—

47 Witnesses Fail To Show In Starr Vote Fraud Probe

RIO GRANDE CITY—(AP)—A grand jury probing alleged election fraud was expected to hand down its report Thursday after a series of events in which Starr County upheld its reputation as one of the stormiest political areas in the state.

Starr is a mesquite-dotted expanse on the South Texas border where two opposing political factions—the New Party and the Old Party—are in perpetual battle.

Since the grand jury convened Monday the following events have occurred:

1. Forty-seven witnesses subpoenaed in the election probe couldn't be found, the district attorney said.

2. The judge in the case—his life said to be in danger—was reportedly accompanied by a Texas Ranger, who slept in an adjacent room at night.

3. There were charges that the list of names from which the grand jury was picked was rearranged. The list had to be straightened out before the jury could be empaneled and the alleged rearrangement resulted in contempt of court charges against the district clerk and his deputy.

4. Additional contempt charges were made against the district clerk, a deputy sheriff and a member of the election canvassing board for alleged tampering with ballot stub boxes.

District Attorney Homer Dean reported the missing witnesses Wednesday. Dean said they were listed as poll tax receipt holders in the July Starr County Democratic primary.

The election probe was touched off last week when a petition filed with Attorney General Price Daniel charged numerous irregularities in the primary.

One of the complaints held that more than 40 poll tax receipts were issued to fictitious persons.

The Houston Post Wednesday night said, "Strong rumors persisted in the downtown streets today that Judge (Sam C.) Reams life was in danger. A Texas Ranger had accompanied the judge all day and is sleeping in an adjacent room."

"Reams' home is in Alice but his district includes Starr County. One contempt charge against District Clerk Ernesto Trevino was dismissed Wednesday after Trevino testified he didn't know anything about the alleged rearrangement of names on the jury panel list. Trevino said all he did was read in court the list given him by the sheriff. A similar contempt complaint against Deputy Clerk Morin Garcia was quashed.

Another Charge

But another contempt charge still was over the heads of Trevino, Deputy Sheriff Fred Elliott, Jr., and DeWitt Jones of the Starr County canvassing board. That motion was filed against them for alleged stub box tampering, and Judge Reams set a hearing at 10 a.m. next Wednesday.

Two assistant attorneys general came from Austin to help investigate the case. Willis Gresham and Gates Steen met with the grand jury for about an hour Wednesday.

Judge Reams was quoted by the Houston Post as estimating that 80 per cent of his judicial work during the last two years had been concerned with hearing cases "of a political nature" in Starr County.

Underwriters Slate School For Agents In Permian Basin

A Life Underwriter's Training Council course is to be conducted for members of the Permian Basin Life Underwriters Association, it was announced Thursday by Jim Littlejohn, Midland, president.

The course will begin either October 24 or 25, Littlejohn said. He said information is being awaited from the sponsors, National Association of Life Underwriters, as to the latest date the course could be held to facilitate any life underwriter who might be transferred to another location.

The Permian Basin group includes Midland and Big Spring life underwriters. Members of the Oil Center Association at Odessa also have been invited to participate in the course.

Purpose of the course is to acquaint life underwriters further with the business in order that they might better serve citizens.

Al Dillon of Big Spring will conduct the course. Dillon will be in Dallas this weekend to attend a seminar for instructors.

Life underwriters interested in taking the course should contact Rodney Vick, Midland, secretary of the association.

There's Room For Varying Opinion In GOP, Ike Says

WHEELING, W. VA. — (AP)— Dwight D. Eisenhower says the Republican party embraces the entire membership regardless of whether individuals agree with all of his ideas.

In an address Wednesday night the GOP presidential nominee said the Democrats were trying to "most generously advise me which senators I should work with and which I should disown."

Mentioning no names, Eisenhower obviously was referring to Democratic attacks on Senator Joseph R. McCarthy of Wisconsin and Senator William E. Jenner of Indiana, both of whom are seeking reelection.

"Membership in our party," Eisenhower said, "does not necessarily mean mutual agreement or approval other than on basic objectives and principles."

"To hear them (Democrats) talk," the general added, "you would think the Republican party was something I invented and they own—that they can dictate to me as a course of action and Republican candidates will fall in line."

"If we are to bring new vigor and new ideas into our free government, we must draw upon the energy and intelligence of all those who are joined with us. This drawing together in our cause of the best of the many lies at the heart of the forward movement of the Republican party."

Eisenhower said he welcomes into his "crusade" all of those who "share a common repugnance to the mess in Washington."

Ohioan Attacks Stevenson's Views On Taft-Hartley Act

GRAND RAPIDS, MICH.—(AP)—Senator Robert A. Taft, having stumped the "little Taft-lands" of Michigan, was believed Thursday to have pulled his personal following in this state into the Eisenhower-Wilson camp.

Taft criss-crossed the state about 700 airline miles Wednesday to preach the theme that he and Eisenhower saw eye to eye on virtually all issues. Thursday he went to Wisconsin.

Making his first campaign swing since he climbed on the bandwagon of Dwight D. Eisenhower, Taft fired audiences in the Western Upper Peninsula and in Southwestern Michigan for the GOP national ticket. These areas sent Taft delegates to the Chicago National Convention and stuck to the Ohio senator to the end.

Taft spoke to about 4,000 persons Wednesday.

Part of his tour was devoted to a defense of the Taft-Hartley Law, which is under heavy attack by President Truman and Gov. Adlai Stevenson.

The rest of the time he hammered the theme that excessive federal spending and heavy taxes are wrecking private enterprise, private incentive and liberty itself in the United States.

"I feel," Taft said, "that General Eisenhower believes as I do that we are spending too much on the military and too much on foreign aid."

Conceals His Beliefs

Addressing 1,500 persons at St. Joseph, Taft charged that Stevenson is "concealing what he really believes" when he advocates repeal of the Taft-Hartley Law.

He said that when Stevenson advocated presidential powers to seize struck plants in national emergencies, the Democratic nominee is actually endorsing anti-labor injunctions.

Stevenson has condemned the Taft-Hartley Act as being built around the injunction.

"Stevenson," Taft said, "indirectly advocates even more stringent labor controls than the Taft-Hartley Law, but he is afraid to say so."

Democratic attacks on the law, Taft said, are intended only to win support "of those union leaders whose arbitrary powers were somewhat limited by that law."

Dallas Area Milk Price Hike Okayed

WASHINGTON—(AP)—The Agriculture Department Wednesday approved an increase in milk prices for producers in the North Texas federal milk marketing area.

The order, which must be approved by producers, was based on continuation of extreme drought conditions. Evidence was presented at Dallas September 15.

The increase would raise the estimated minimum producer price for fluid milk in October to $1.33 a hundredweight. The increase would continue from October through March, 1953.

Junior SPCA Keeps Slate Full Of Training Projects

A varied number of projects keeps the Midland Junior Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals active in serving the community.

Organized in 1948, meetings are held twice a month in the home of Mrs. Alden Donnelly, sponsor.

The 1952 officers are: Dorothy (Toady) Yeckel, president; June Melton, vice president; Carol Chiles, and John Hunter, sergeants at arms.

The club is based on the principle of "Good Citizenship", and the club motto is "Kindness Is Indivisible."

Programs consist of studying the care and training of animals, reading animal stories, and helping needy children. The members old toys are repaired and gift-wrapped for Christmas gifts to needy children. Last Christmas, the club gave 281 gift packages, plus two food baskets.

Club members are trained to help teachers handle pet problems at the public schools. Many schools throughout the nation have a regular animal program as a result of the activities and popularity of the Junior SPCA. The SPCA sponsors films that are shown in Midland schools.

The Girl Scouts and Boy Scouts organizations welcome the Junior SPCA work and use it as part of merit grading.

A number of projects are planned the building fund for the new Midland Animal Shelter. When the shelter is completed, the club plans to conduct pet shows.

Members of the club have all types of pets—ranging from small tropical fish to range calves and large saddle horses. Between these are the cuddly kittens and the every faithful dogs—mankind's best friend.

Midland's B Opens Grind At Big Lake

A light and inexperienced group, but one with plenty of hustle, will be fielded by the Midland High School B team when it tangles with the Reagan County Owls in Big Lake at 8 p.m. Thursday.

It will be the season opener for Midland, while the Owls have won one and lost one to date.

Keith Bobo is the backfield coach for the B team, while B. M. Patterson coaches the line. Thirty boys have been working out since school started, and the coaches report the lads have plenty of spirit.

The probable starters include a backfield averaging 140 pounds, while the line average is 180 pounds. Both of the starting ends tip the scales at only 125 pounds. The team is also short of reserves, the coaches said.

Midland will employ the unbalanced wing formation. The Reagan County Owls use the T.

The San Jacinto Junior High football team will get their 1952 season underway at 2:30 p.m. Saturday against Crockett in Odessa.

Brownie Boss Talks Sale Of Texas Club

SAN ANTONIO (AP)—Rudie Schaffer, general manager of the St. Louis Browns baseball club of the American League, will be in San Antonio Thursday to contact groups who have shown an interest in the purchase of the San Antonio club.

San Antonio's Texas League franchise is owned by the Browns.

Schaffer would not reveal the names of persons he intends to talk to here but said all were backed with local capital.

"It's no secret the Missions are for sale and have been for some time," he said. "But as far as me being here to sell the club—I'm just down here to listen to some offers we know are in the wind."

McLaughlin Named Carlsbad Manager

CARLSBAD, N. M. (AP)—Pat McLaughlin, business and field manager this season for the Class C Vernon Dusters in the Longhorn League, has been named business manager of the new Carlsbad club.

The Vernon franchise will move to Carlsbad at the beginning of the next Longhorn season.

Each time Bobo Newsom of the Philadelphia Athletics issues a base on balls he sets a new American League record. He began the 1952 season with 1585 walks charged against him.

Ailing Bulldogs Gain For Game With Poly

The Midland Bulldogs received a break from the weatherman Wednesday, getting in the first good scrimmage of the week.

Coach Tugboat Jones reported "a lot of contact" in a near two-hour session. Rain had kept the Bulldogs inside except for brief periods the first of the week.

Larry Friday was shaken up in the Wednesday workouts but felt Thursday that he'd be ready to go against the Parrots from Poly Friday night. The kickoff is set for 8 p.m. in Memorial stadium.

Friday, a triple threat field general, suffered an injured knee two weeks ago. He had been coming along splendidly this week.

Jones doesn't believe M. A. Rose, cutback ball-carrying artist, will see any service against the Parrots. The 140-pound Rose still carries a bruised knee with recovery slow.

Terry Fuglaar, Kenneth Schrum and Jimmy Mashburn, guards, should be in top condition for the Parrots, Jones said Thursday. All had minor injuries or suffered from colds and similar illnesses last Friday. Mashburn went into the game despite nausea.

Walter Cremin, 160-pound end, still favored a sprained ankle in Wednesday practice. His time in the Poly encounter may be very limited.

Russell Rutledge, alert back, will get a starting berth on the defense for the Bulldogs. He sparkled on a number of plays in the victory over the Lamesa Tornados last week.

Otherwise, the Bulldog offensive and defensive lineups look about the same for the second game of the season for the Bulldogs.

The week's limited drills have devoted special attention to pass defense which appeared weak against the Lamesas. Fundamentals have come in for a share of time in the weather-reduced drills.

Light workouts were on the schedule for the Bulldogs Thursday and Friday afternoons. Jones is to hold "skull practices" for a continuing analysis of Parrot operations off the T formation. He is expected to come up with some new plays and variations in those applied against the Tornados.

The Parrots are due to arrive in Midland by mid-afternoon Friday for a limbering up session at Memorial Stadium. They will arrive by bus after departing Fort Worth early Friday morning.

Predictions from sports writers over the state agree on the Bulldogs as favorites. Some give the Bulldogs as much as a three-touchdown margin.

Coach Jones refused to go along with the forecasts. He believes the Bulldogs will play improved football but was reluctant to foresee a victory for the ailing Midlanders.

Another big attendance is expected for the Parrot-Bulldog game. Tickets sales will continue Friday in the foyer of the high school auditorium from 9 a.m. until 4 p.m. Wesley Martin, director of special services for the public school system, reminded Thursday.

Jimmie Mashburn

Banner Schoolboy Weekend Slated

By HAROLD V. RATLIFF
Associated Press Sports Editor

The biggest weekend of the Texas schoolboy football season starts Thursday night. When the smoke has cleared Saturday night every team in the state will have seen competition.

There are more than 260 games in the four divisions that play to state championships with the stand-out battle of them all being the clash of Highland Park (Dallas) and Lubbock Friday night.

These unbeaten powers, Lubbock a Class AAAA state championship favorite, and Highland Park showing a strength no one anticipated, tangle at Lubbock.

Baytown-Tom Jeff

Of almost as much interest will be a scrap at Baytown between Thomas Jefferson (San Antonio) and the mighty Baytown Ganders. And at Tyler Austin meets Tyler in another stand-out, while Wichita Falls takes on Berger in a game that will tell much in the ratings.

All these games are in Class

AAAA. Class AAA has its top struggles, too, the feature being Temple at Waco. Temple, which has rolled over such strong teams as Denison and Sunset (Dallas) without getting up a sweat, will be expected to scrap Waco, but it might not be easy.

Another big one is the meeting of Wink and Pecos at Pecos. It pits championship favorites of two classes. Pecos is the top-rated outfit in Class AA and Wink is considered the kingpin of Class A. Class A has such features as LeFors at Memphis and Quanah at Crowell among its games matching undefeated teams.

Defending Champion Arlington of Class AA, moves against Irving of Class AAA. Oidings, which won the 1951 Class A title, will play Bastrop. Oidings already has won three games this season and isn't expected to have much trouble with Bastrop. Arlington should tumble Irving.

Of 489 teams in the four classes only about 150 remain with undefeated, untied records. That will be trimmed sharply this week and should be down to a working margin of about 100 by the time the big weekend of football is over.

There are conference games in two classes—AAA and A. In Class AAA Sidney Lanier of San Antonio and Seguin start the race. Harlandale (San Antonio) and Kerrville get together and Saturday night Victoria and Burbank of San Antonio play a conference game.

Eight of the 21 districts in Class A have games counting in the standings.

Harlingen Capitols Make It Two Straight

PORT ARTHUR (AP)—Harlingen, running along on a six-game winning streak, Thursday night adds the home field advantage to its 2-0 series lead when the Capitols entertain Port Arthur in the third game of the Gulf Coast League Playoffs.

The Capitols, who ended in a third-place tie over the season won their second straight over Port Arthur here Wednesday night, 6-2.

GETS TOUGH BREAKS

SYRACUSE, N. Y. (AP)—Mark Hoffman is back playing football at Syracuse after being out a year with five broken bones all received off the gridiron. The junior fullback from New Tripoli, Pa., broke a wrist playing football, fell off a motorcycle and broke two bones in the hand and stepped in a hole on the campus and broke two ankle bones.

Bragan To Manage Cuban League Team

HAVANA (AP)—Bobby Bragan, manager of the Fort Worth club of the Texas League, is in Havana to manage the Almendares baseball team in the Cuban League.

Bragan arrived here Wednesday with his wife and three children. The four-club Cuban League opens its season October 7.

Flashy Wink Seen As Test For Highly Touted Eagles

The Pecos Eagles, a District 8-AA favorite, is up for a big one Friday night when they clash with the flashy Wink Wildcats.

Pecos has mopped up two straight tilts, dropping Brownfield 20-0, and lacing McCamey 47-6 last week. The Wildcats lost a close one to the Monahans Lobos 21-20, and slipped by Kermit 13-12.

Both teams Wink has faced this season are rated fine 8-AA clubs, and the performance of the Pecos Eagles against the Wildcats should be a real test of their power.

Monahans at McCamey Friday night should furnish some comparisons. The Lobos edged Wink by one point in their first contest, and sneaked by the Alpine Bucks with the narrow margin of 13-7.

Monahans should be able to compare their record with Pecos, since the Pecos Eagles flashed by the McCamey team 47-6 the week before.

The Andrews Mustangs will try Denver City at the Cowboys' home grounds. This one should show the Mustangs standing in the circuit, since the Seminole team beat the Cowboys earlier in the season.

Andrews has won one and lost two this season, but has been playing some potent football in spite of losses.

The Kermit Yellow Jackets journey to Winters Friday night still looking for their first triumph of the year. Kermit has lost 14-7 to Hobbs and 13-13 to Wink, both close ones.

Coach Neal Dillman's Yellow Jackets are favored over the Winters group to gain their first victory Friday night.

Seminole, banking in a 49-0 annihilation of Crane last week, will go against a weak Tahoka team. The Seminole Indians, with a swift backfield, have taken two straight wins and will be seeking a third.

Yanks Virtually Wrap Up American Loop Pennant

By ORLO ROBERTSON
AP Sports Writer

Wednesday, September 24, will go into the books as the day of the New York Yankees snapped their Fenway Park doubleheader jinx, the day 26-year-old Mickey Mantle battered the stitches off the ball and the day the world champions virtually closed the books on the 1952 season.

The pennant-winning day can't arrive until Friday in Philadelphia, at the earliest, but a triumph Thursday would assure the champions of at least a tie.

To all intents and purposes the Yanks won their fourth straight pennant Wednesday when they whipped the Boston Red Sox, 3-2 in 10 innings, and 8-4.

Sure, the Cleveland Indians also won, whipping the Chicago White Sox, 6-0, behind the three-hit pitching of Bob Lemon. But it will take a real blow-up by the champions to move the title to Cleveland on Sunday.

The triumphs over Boston—the first Yankee sweep of a Fenway Park doubleheader in five years—increased the New Yorkers' lead to two games. The Indians have only two games remaining, both against the Tigers at Detroit Saturday and Sunday.

The Yankees have four to play, a season's final against Boston Thursday and then three with the tough Athletics at Philadelphia. The Tribe's chief hope lies in a Red Sox victory Thursday and then at least two out of three wins by the A's—themselves battling for third place.

Reynolds on Deck

Allie Reynolds, No. 1 Yankee pitcher with 19 victories and eight defeats, is Manager Casey Stengel's nomination Thursday. He'll be opposed by Sid Hudson, who has a 10 and 13 record.

"We've gotta use our best now," said Stengel after Wednesday's sweep. "Those other fellas (Cleveland) are winning, too, you know. We gotta take care of ourselves."

Lopat (left-hander Ed Lopat) will go in Philadelphia Friday and then we'll see."

Mantle, no longer trying to fill Joe DiMaggio's shoes in center field but playing his own style, had one of his best days of the year in the Yankees' twin-killing. He provided the payoff punch in the first over-time inning of the opener, powdering the ball for a triple after Irv Noren opened with a double off Relief Hurier Dizzy Trout.

Then in the second game he pitched in with another big blow—a three-run homer in the fourth. At the end of the day the books showed he had five hits in nine times at bat and had driven in six runs.

Johnny Sain, who relieved Starter Vic Raschi in the ninth, got credit for winning the first game—his tenth of the season. Sain also came back in the ninth of the nightcap, when the Sox scored across two runs, to help Ray Scarborough over the rough spot. Tom Gorman, the starter, got credit for the victory, however.

The first game was played under protest of Boston Manager Lou Boudreau after the sixth. At the time the Yanks had only a 1-0 lead. Dom DiMaggio opened with a single to short center. Mantle fielded the blooper and, when he saw that DiMaggio had over-run first base, he whipped a one-bounce throw to Joe Collins and nailed the Boston outfielder.

The throw caught First Base Umpire Bill Grieve with his back turned to the play and Boudreau stormed from the dugout after Plate Umpire Larry Napp called DiMaggio out. When his protests were ignored, Boudreau formally notified Napp of his protest. Bob Avila and Al Rosen backed up Lemon's shutout pitching with homers. In winning his twenty-second game, Lemon allowed only one hit in the first seven innings—a double in the third by Pitcher Lou Kretlow. The White Sox got two more in the eighth.

The National League, its pennant winner already decided in favor of Brooklyn, continued its battle for the other first division berth.

The New York Giants assured themselves of no worse than a tie for second place by battering the Boston Braves with a home-run bombardment, 11-9 and 8-2. The third-place St. Louis Cardinals, four games back to the Giants, lost a night game to the Cincinnati Reds, 6-1.

Phillies Advance

The Philadelphia Phillies advanced tonight a game and a half of life cards by walloping the Dodgers, 9-7, as Robin Roberts staggered in his twenty-seventh triumph. He became the first National League pitcher to win 27 since Bucky Walters captured that many for the Reds in 1938.

In the only other game played, Detroit's Tigers blew a four-run, first-inning lead as they bowed Tommy Byrne and the St. Louis Browns, 7-4, for their eighth straight setback.

Tulsa Next Threat To Cowboys' Record

ABELINE—The Hardin-Simmons University Cowboys will be out to protect one of the best records in the nation Saturday when they meet the University of Tulsa at Tulsa in a non-conference game.

The Cowboys have scored in 72 consecutive games. Not since a scoreless deadlock with Texas Tech in 1948 have the Cowboys failed to score.

The contest Saturday will mark the second meeting between H-SU and Tulsa.

Tulsa and the Cowboys met for the first time last season and the Hurricane won, 35-14.

Neyland Embarks On 21st Year

KNOXVILLE, TENN. (AP)—The winningest coach in college football—Tennessee's Gen. Bob Neyland—embarks on his 21st and perhaps last campaign this week.

Neyland, the graying master of the single wing, sends his Volunteers after his 164th win Saturday at Memphis against Mississippi State. On the debit side, Neyland's Tennessee teams have lost 25 games and 11 ended in ties.

The 60-year-old retired brigadier general, who guided Tennessee to the national championship last year only to take a sound 28-13 thrashing from Maryland in the Sugar Bowl, will be matching wits with Murray Warmath, one of his brightest "Jewels."

Neyland calls all former Tennessee players now tugging his "hard tackling, hard blocking" brand of football "my Jewels." As player and coach, Warmath spent 10 years under Neyland before going to Army as line coach. He shifted from West Point to Mississippi State last winter.

While Neyland himself is reluctant to discuss his retirement plans, friends say this may well be his final season as an active coach.

Health may be the chief factor determining when Neyland retires. He has had some trouble recently with his teeth and a virus infection.

Although the dogs sheet calls for Tennessee, rated sixth in the Associated Press pre-school poll to whip the Mississippians handily, the game shapes up as a re-test for the Volunteers.

Since 1948 when the present series began, the two Southeastern Conference teams have split even. Mississippi State was the last team to beat Tennessee in a regular season game, defeating the Vols 7-0, in the 1950 opener.

Southwest Gridders Face Intersectional Foes This Weekend

By The Associated Press

A heavy intersectional schedule faced Southwest Conference footballers this weekend—all except Baylor. And the Golden Bears polished their running and passing game Wednesday in anticipation of trouble against the Washington State Cougars, October 4 in Waco.

DALLAS BRACES FOR HEAVIEST GRID WEEKEND

DALLAS—(AP)—Dallas is bracing for the biggest weekend of football this season or any other season—a triple-header in which all games will be of national interest.

There hasn't been anything like it since the celebrated college double-header of 1950 when two big games were played in the afternoon and night—Oklahoma vs. Texas and Southern Methodist vs. Oklahoma A&M—and attendance totaled 150,000.

Friday night Southern Methodist plays Duke in one of the country's top intersectional games. Saturday night Oklahoma A&M takes on Texas A&M in another intersectional contest of interest among the colleges.

Sunday the Dallas Texans, newest club in the National Football League, play their first game in the professional circuit, meeting the New York Giants.

Atlantic City Track Eyes Official Record

ATLANTIC CITY, N.J.—(AP)—While betting and attendance records are up at most of the national racetracks here are some of the figures officials of the Atlantic City track will be shooting at during the 48-day meeting running until October 4:

Best attendance—36,853, Labor Day, 1951.
Best mutual handle—$2,285,355 Saturday, Aug. 25, 1951.
Average daily attendance—15,002 during 45 days last year.
Single race mutual handle—$301,321, Saturday, Aug. 10, 1946.

'GREATER PUNCHER THAN DEMPSEY AND LOUIS'

Rocky Takes 'Em Better With Punch—Kearns

The following is the first in a series of three articles on Rocky Marciano, the heavyweight boxing champion.

By MURRAY ROSE
NEW YORK—(AP)—"He's a greater puncher than Jack Dempsey and Joe Louis. He takes 'em out better with one punch."

This supreme compliment was handed out by Jack (Doc) Kearns, an eminent authority on power punching, and he was referring, of course, to Rocky Marciano.

and, the newly crowned heavyweight champion.

There aren't many in the game more qualified to discuss sock specialists than Doc, who managed Dempsey in the great days of the Manassa Mauler's fabulous career.

"Maybe he's not much to look at the way he does it, but results are what counts," said the ring veteran. "Doc, did he really say that?" asked Rocky. And that gives you a little tipoff on what kind of a guy the new champion is.

The fight fans want blood and thunder. Rocky, a solidly built athlete who looks like a fighter and likes being a fighter, gives it to them in huge gobs.

He may be the greatest ring attraction of all times as his thrilling scraps are carried around the nation by television, theater-TV and the movies.

The heavyweight champion, especially when he can hit, is the No. 1 pro athlete of the world. Rocky measures up to that. So the story of Rocky is the story of his punch. How did he get his wallop? He always had it. Sounds simple, doesn't it, but it isn't that easy.

Many a youngster with natural power has had it taken away from him by well meaning but unequalled instructors who tried to change his style. Rocky was lucky in that respect. He hooked up with Charley Goldman before anyone could ruin him.

Goldman, a little fellow standing an inch under five feet, is an old-time fighter who is regarded as one of the smartest trainers in the business.

punch impressed us.

"I asked him why he let the guy sock him in the stomach and he told me, 'Gee, I thought that's the way a 'pro' does it. Let the other fellow punch himself out and then you let him have it.'"

"We knew we'd have a lot of work to do with him. We learned one thing. We weren't going to change his punching style with the right. We'd work on his left and maybe refine the right a little. "I told Rocky to come back to the gym when he could and we'd try to help him. He came back. He listened and he remembered. Anytime I want him to do something he does it. Sure, maybe he's not the best-looking fighter in the world today but he's the best. Who's going to beat him?"

TEETH IN IT—Maurel Connolly appeared to be taking a big bite out of the ball in executing a forehand against Doris Hart in Los Angeles. Little Mo once more repelled the Miami, Fla., miss—this time, 6-4, 3-6, 6-1—adding the Pacific Southwest title to her Wimbledon and national championships.

BEAUMONT—(AP)—What will be done with the Beaumont franchise in the Texas League won't be decided until the fall meeting of the Texas League.

Owner Guy Airey has offered to sell the franchise and park for $200,000 but a Beaumont civic committee contemplating purchase of the club has said this is too high.

Thus it has been decided that the negotiations will be reported to the league when it meets this month. T. T. Hunt, president of the Beaumont Chamber of Commerce who is chairman of the civic committee, will appoint two members of his group to represent the city at the meeting.

The league will meet in the Southern Association city that's in the Dixie series. Mobile and Memphis are tied at two games apiece in the Southern Association playoff to name the league's representative in the Dixie Series.

The Dixie Series will open one day after the Southern playoff is completed and on that day the Texas League will hold its fall meeting. The second day will find the Texas League and Southern Association holding a joint meeting.

Airey has decided to dispose of his holdings at Beaumont because of such low attendance he is losing money.

Beaumont's Fate Awaits Fall Meeting

By GAYLE TALBOT
NEW YORK—(AP)—Jersey Joe Walcott, having returned from the shortest retirement on record, will be given a chance to win back his title from Rocky Marciano—but there's some question about the date.

Chicago and Miami have been advanced as the likely sites and January as the likely date. A spokesman for the International Boxing Club says, however, the return go-may not be held until sometime in June.

"Where do you think we're going to put on a fight like that in the Winter time?" he demanded. "It ain't going to be indoors, for certain, unless they put a roof over Yankee Stadium or Soldier Field. And it won't be in Miami. There ain't that kind of dough in Miami."

The June date—which probably would draw a million-dollar gate—would be a tough break for Walcott from a fighting standpoint since at his age he can ill afford the long layoff, whereas the new young champion figures to improve steadily.

Sear To Remain
But regardless of the date, the game old codger from Camden is not ever going to win this title back from Marciano—not after that terrible belt he caught on his chin. The scar of that one must remain if he fights until he's 50, which he more than likely will. He will be gun-shy in the next one.

That might well have been as hard a punch as ever was delivered in the ring. It would be difficult to prove that it wasn't. When a man of Walcott's caliber is chided so thoroughly that he doesn't remember having been hit and has no recollection of anything for close on to an hour, he has been hit.

Having been a charter member of the Joe Louis Marching Club, we made bold to suggest to Charlie Goldman, Marciano's trainer, that the old destroyer lift his prime, would have left Marciano for dead in a couple of rounds.

"I really don't think so," Charlie said equably. "I believe that Rocky could have taken anything that Louis threw, just as he took everything Walcott had, and that he would have worn him down and knocked him out, too."

Goldman is not normally a wild talker, but is a wise little man who has been in the fight game practically forever and whose opinions usually are highly valued.

BORYLA IN PINK
NEW YORK—(AP)—The New York Knickerbockers, who carried the powerful Minneapolis Lakers to seven games in the pro basketball playoffs last Spring, may be stronger this season. At least Coach Joe Lapchick will have Vince Boryla back. Boryla missed 38 games last season, including all 14 playoff games because his right knee required surgery. But now he's in the pink following a Summer of activity in Denver where he operated a boys' camp.

Final Non-District Games Face 5-A Clubs This Week

District 5-A teams will have their final non-district games Friday night before plunging into competition in their own leagues the following week.

In 5-A, the Wink Wildcats have a rugged battle on their hands when they face the Pecos Eagles at Pecos. The Wildcats, who squeaked through the week before against Kermit, 13-12, have a good pigskin platoon. But the Eagles, led by Thomas (Son) Laughton, should be well prepared for them after submerging McCamey the previous week.

Pecos has a well-balanced team, and Wink likewise, but the Wildcats are whispered about as lacking in reserves.

Another 5-A team, the McCamey Badgers, is slated to be the host for the Monahans Lobos of District 8-AA. Pecos trimmed the Badgers last week 47-8, while Monahans clipped Alpine 13-7 in a close one.

The rest of the squads will be up against A or B schools, and there is a straight B aggregation Thursday night in Big Lake.

Alpine, which caused Monahans some worried moments the week before, meets Del Rio at home. The Golden Cranes will take on Osona in a contest at Osona.

Port Stockton will encounter Sanderson on home ground. The strong Sanderson team upset Marfa 20-17 the week before. Marfa will meet Fabens in Short Horn haunts, and the Iran Braves will go to Sonora.

All of the pigskin encounters are set for Friday night except the Big Lake-Midland fracas which is on Thursday night at Big Lake.

Cleburne Pro Takes Post At Mineral Wells
CLEBURNE—(AP)—C. A. DeWes, professional at the Nolan River Country Club here the last 16 months, will leave October 8 to become professional at the Mineral Wells Country Club.

He will replace Marshall Stites at Mineral Wells. Stites is returning to his home in Ohio.

Texas Favored Over 'Heels, Duke Gets Nod In SMU Tilt

By HAROLD CLAASSEN
NEW YORK—(AP)—Some of the season's best football games will be played this weekend, partly hidden by the approaching World Series.

Perhaps these forecasts should be completely hidden. Anyway, here is how the weekend college football games should come out:

Michigan State over Michigan — Last year Michigan State said it was writing off 1951 and looking ahead to 1952—but the Spartans were unbeaten in nine games. Their current team is rated better than its predecessor even though it can't improve its record.

Notre Dame over Pennsylvania—The Quakers have the material, and perhaps, the attack but Notre Dame had the benefit of Spring practice. That could be decisive this early in the season.

Ohio State over Indiana — Gone are the days of the breathers. Both clubs opened their seasons with this one. Ohio State was the defensive team last year but the Buckeyes are score-minded now.

UCLA over Texas Christian — Don Moomaw? outstanding line-backer for the Californians, gives them the edge.

Georgia Tech over Florida — The Tech backfield is rated as the best T-formation foursome ever to play in the South. The 'gators will miss Haywood Sullivan, quarterback, who quit the collegians to play pro baseball.

Princeton over Columbia — This is the game you will see on your TV set Saturday. Mitch Price is Columbia's lone weapon while Princeton is better stocked, although it has no Dick Kazmarier.

Texas over North Carolina — Only because this will be North Carolina's first game using the split-T.

Choly Cross over Dartmouth — Charley Maloy's passing will make the difference.

Duke over Southern Methodist — The Dukes get the Duke in this Friday night affair.

Washington over Michigan — Washington's Don Heinrich, fully recovered from last year's injury again is one of the country's best passers.

Maryland over Auburn — That Missouri scare awakened the Marylanders.

Tennessee over Mississippi State — The only thing in abundance at Mississippi State is inexperience.

Skipping over the others in a hurry:

FRIDAY NIGHT
Boston University over Syracuse; Southern California over Northwestern; Boston College over Richmond; Miami over VMI; Detroit over Wichita.

SATURDAY
East—Cornell over Colgate, Delaware over Gettysburg, Pittsburgh over Iowa, Bucknell over Lafayette, Lehigh over New York University, Rutgers over Muhlenberg, Purdue over Penn State, Army over South Carolina, Harvard over Springfield, Yale over Navy.

Midwest—Bradley over California Poly Tech, Drake over Dayton, Tulsa over Hardin-Simmons, Illinois over Iowa State, Cincinnati over Kansas State, Wisconsin over Marquette, Oklahoma over Colorado, Kansas over Santa Clara.

South—Alabama over Louisiana State, West Virginia over Furman, North Carolina State over George Washington, Georgia over Tulane, Mississippi over Kentucky, Clemson over Villanova, Virginia over Vanderbilt. The Citadel over VPI, Washington and Lee over Davidson, Wake Forest over William and Mary.

Southwest—Arkansas over Houston, Oklahoma Aggies over Texas Aggies, Rice over Texas Tech.

Far West—California over Missouri, Wyoming over Montana, Utah State over College of Pacific, Nebraska over Oregon, Washington State over Stanford, Utah over Idaho, Brigham over New Mexico.

Humble Broadcasts Promise Exciting Football Weekend

Humble Oil & Refining Company goes into its second week of broadcasting this season's Southwest Conference football game with the prospect of an exciting football weekend for fans throughout the Southwest.

Kicking off at 8 p.m. Friday will be SMU versus Duke from the Cotton Bowl in Dallas. The familiar voices of Kern Tips and Alec Chesner will bring listeners a running description of this game over stations KOKL, San Angelo; KSBT, Big Spring; KCRS, Midland.

Broadcast of the Texas-North Carolina tilt begins at 1:30 p.m. Saturday with announcers Ver Box and Dave Smith describing the play from Kenan Memorial Stadium in Chapel Hill, N. C., over stations KREL, Dallas; KOKL, San Angelo; KSBT, Big Spring; KCRS, Midland; KFEW, Lamesa; KWEW, N. M.

John Ferguson and Eddie Barker will bring the clash between TU and UCLA to listeners direct from Memorial Coliseum in Los Angeles at 2:30 p.m. Saturday over stations KECK, Odessa; WFAA-WBAP.

J. D. SHELTON HURT
J. D. Shelton, City Trailer Courts, employed by Ernest Loyd Construction Company, accidentally fell out of a parts house Wednesday and suffered a lacerated left thumb. He was treated at Midland Memorial Hospital.

Seven U. S. vice presidents have succeeded to the presidency because of vacancy in the office.

CAUGHT IN ACT OF CATCHING—Bobbling the ball momentarily, Tom Pearce of the Los Angeles Rams is leveled by the Giants' Harmon Rowe in a pre-championship season benefit night game at the Polo Grounds. The end is taking a pass from Bob Waters. New York won, 30-17. (NEA)

Medical Group Hits Practice Of Splitting Fees For Surgery

NEW YORK—(AP)—The American College of Surgeons denounced fee-splitting between physicians and surgeons Thursday as "dishonest and unethical" and harmful to patients.

Thirteen college officials told of a renewed drive against the doctor kick-backs in a frank news conference with science writers. One good weapon, they said, is to tell the public all the facts.

"They said most doctors are honest, but a few bad apples" split fees, giving medicine a black eye. Some said the kick-back practice is widespread and growing in some areas. But it is hard to prove that any one is doing it. Twenty-three states have laws declaring it illegal.

Fee-splitting means a division of fee between the doctor who first diagnoses a patient's condition and the surgeon who operates on him.

It leads, the college officials said, to these evils: Over-charging in bills; unnecessary operations; "ghost surgery" when a person thinks his own doctor is operating and the selected or "ghost" surgeon does it after the patient is anesthetized; loss of public confidence in doctors.

Dr. Alton Ochsner of New Orleans, immediate past president of the college, said you should be suspicious of fee-splitting if:

Your doctor sends you to only one surgeon and later you get no bill from the physician, just a bill from the surgeon.

Your doctor doesn't give you a choice of surgeons to do the operation. He says it is necessary or does not ask you whom you want to do it.

If you suspect fee-splitting, your recourse is to ask your county medical society to investigate. The societies have committees that do this.

Learn whether your hospital is approved and accredited by top medical organizations. The approved hospitals set up safeguards against kick-backs.

Texas Flood Loss Set At $3,481,000

AUSTIN—(AP)—Central and South Texas flood damage two weeks ago totaled $3,481,000, the State Defense and Disaster Relief Office figures.

Missing are final reports from Burnet and McCulloch Counties. The other county totals: Blanco, $137,000; Kendall, $364,500; San Saba, $744,000; Gillespie, $1,281,000; Comal, $150,000; Hays, $28,700; Gonzales, $205,000; Guadalupe, $400,000; Bee, $70,000.

Chilly Weather Cuts Action On War Front

SEOUL, KOREA.—(AP)—The Korean War entered its twenty-eighth month Thursday with ground and air action curtailed by chilly autumn rain.

UN soldiers drove back several small Communist stabs along the muddy battlefield Thursday. There were brief but brisk clashes near Bunker and Kelly Hills in the West and "Luke the Cook's Castle" in the East.

80,000 Wires Voice Ideas On Dick Nixon

WASHINGTON—(AP)—Republican National Headquarters announced Thursday it has received 80,000 telegrams and 18 sacks of mail on the question of whether Senator Richard Nixon should stay on as vice presidential candidate.

Robert Humphreys of GOP headquarters said no attempt has been made to get an accurate breakdown on how many are for and how many are against Nixon.

"But you have to hunt 20 minutes to find one unfavorable to him," Humphreys said.

MISS BRANNAN ILL.—Evelyn Brannan, Terminal, is a medical patient at Midland Memorial Hospital.

The Bureau of Internal Revenue has informed the college that it won't allow kick-back payments to be listed as income tax deductions in states where fee-splitting is either illegal or not accepted practice or custom.

Fee-splitting was rampant in Columbus, O., six years ago, the surgeons said. A Columbus surgical society was formed and it agreed that every surgeon would have his books and income tax returns inspected by an independent auditor.

Fee-splitting was ended almost overnight, they said.

Briton Figures Atom Bomb Real Bargain In Slaughter

LONDON—(AP)—Killing people with atomic bombs is a very cheap operation, a British mathematician said in a technical journal published Thursday.

It works out at a rate of about one pound ($2.50) a corpse, according to the calculations of Fred Hoyle.

Hoyle said the cost of killing in World War II was "several thousand pounds" a victim. Then he assumed that a well-placed atomic bomb could kill 25,000 persons, so it offers an economical means of wiping out populations.

"But this estimate should not be quoted too precisely, since the supply of human material would very likely run out before all the bombs available could be used," Hoyle said. The bomb, he concluded, "is a grotesquely cheap means of extermination."

Texas Auto Deaths Ahead Of 1951 Pace

AUSTIN—(AP)—Texas traffic deaths so far this year are one per cent higher than in 1951, but when all reports are in they will be four per cent greater.

The Department of Public Safety Thursday reported 1,542 deaths through August compared with 1,523 in 1951.

The 1951 figure is complete. The 1952 figure will grow as lagging reports come in.

August reports so far total 306 deaths, including 28 killed in the bus collision near Waco. In August, 1951, there were 290 deaths.

BRITISH BOOKS RATE IKE EVEN

LONDON—(AP)—A leading British handbook said Thursday a sharp shift in the betting on the presidential election has made Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower an even-money chance in Britain.

Outside lens surfaces are another matter. In rain or snow the smart scope-user can keep them free of water by using those snap-off rubber caps where possible, or even by stretching a circlet of inner tube, cut to the width of his biggest lens, over either end of the scope.

Both get out of the way in a hurry. Regular leather caps are fine protection, but much too slow for woods hunting.

Matter of fact, smearing up the outer lens surfaces usually isn't so catastrophic—you can swipe off the ocular lens with your thumb and see through it pretty well if need be—but even here, the fault is usually the shooter's, not the scope's. Just take care of your scope decently, and it'll take care of your shots all right.

Gahlen Dinkle Gets Recall From Dallas

Gahlen Dinkle, sensational centerfielder for the Indians, has been recalled by Dallas, General Manager Horace Busby announced Thursday.

The Texas League club had optioned Dinkle to the Indians early in the 1952 season. He expects to report for military service within the next few weeks.

Dinkle's glove work was one of the features of the Shaughnessy playoffs which resulted in the Longhorn League championship for the Indians.

104 YEARS ARE ENOUGH

COPENHAGEN, DENMARK.—(AP)—Mrs. Anne Boetche celebrated her 104th birthday Thursday. She says she doesn't want to be 105.

"I don't want to live any more," she said. "I can't do any needlework or read in the Bible."

Texan Doubts Ike's Stand On Tidelands

WASHINGTON—(AP)—Rep. Walter Rogers (D-Texas) said Thursday Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower should restate his views on the controversial "tidelands" question to eliminate any doubt about his position.

Observing that considerable discussion has arisen lately in Texas as to the Republican presidential nominee's position, Rogers told an interviewer:

"Eisenhower has said that so far as it is constitutional he is for the States in their fight for title to the offshore lands.

"There is entirely too much assumption that he is actively behind them. I for one want to hear a flat statement from him as to where he stands.

"He should say plainly whether he will sign a state ownership bill, and whether he will actually push for its passage if the Republicans get control of Congress. The history of the GOP is to never turn loose of an issue that will serve their political purpose."

Reds Release First Jailed Missionary

HONG KONG—(AP)—Francis Olin Stockwell, believed to be the first American missionary jailed by the Chinese Reds, is being deported, the Chinese Communists have announced.

Stockwell, 51, Terry, Okla., was arrested in Chungking Nov. 26, 1950, after more than 20 years in China. Nothing was heard of him until a September 14 announcement by the Reds in Chungking belatedly arrived here.

Villagers Warned To Quit Volcano Area

MANILA—(AP)—Philippine authorities have warned residents at the foot of Hibok-Hibok volcano on Camiguin Island in the Southern Philippines to leave their villages.

A 100-ft continuous landslide slabs huge boulders down the slope, threatening the villages. The volcano erupted with an explosive blast last December and killed almost 1,000 persons. It has been restless ever since.

Connally Undecided On Adlai's Campaign

PARIS—(AP)—Senator Tom Connally (D-Texas) told newsmen Thursday he had not decided whether to campaign actively in Texas for Adlai Stevenson.

"I don't know yet. I'll decide that when I get home," he said. "However, I'm a Democrat and I heartily support Stevenson, though I disagree with him on the Tidelands issue."

WHISTLE STOPPING WITH HARRY—Newsmap above shows the route to be taken by President Truman's special train on a coast-to-coast "whistle stop" tour. The President will leave Washington Sept. 27 for the 24-state trip during which he will make a "give 'em hell" campaign urging election of the Democratic national slate.

SNOOZIN'S AS BAD AS BOOZIN'

BERLIN—(AP)—West Berliners are liable to wind up in a Communist prison these days if they fall asleep on the elevated railway and fail to get off at the last West Sector station.

Police disclosed Thursday that more than 40 West Berliners who did fall asleep and inadvertently crossed the city boundary to the Russian zone were arrested by Eastern People's police within the last week.

President Happy He Fired Caudle

WASHINGTON—(AP)—President Truman said Thursday he has never been sorry he fired T. Lamar Caudle as assistant treasury general.

Caudle, ousted last November, told House investigators this week that Donald Dawson, a White House aide, and Representative Boykin (D-Ala.) told him Truman felt he had done Caudle "a grave injustice."

Truman told a news conference Thursday he had never heard of that. The President added he has never been sorry he fired Caudle.

Truman also said that he had never heard of a "White House clique" Caudle testified about. The President said members of the staff have been called several names, but that was a new one.

Caudle told a House subcommittee Wednesday that former Attorney-General J. Howard McGrath told him a "White House clique" was out to "get" both Caudle and McGrath.

Caudle also quoted McGrath, also fired by Truman, as saying he McGrath "knew enough about the White House to blow it so high the force of gravity would never bring it back to earth."

Truman said he did not know what McGrath meant, that McGrath didn't take him into his confidence.

LIKES THE SERVICE—John C. Bland, who joined the Army at the age of 14, participated in the invasion of Inchon and the recapture of Seoul at 18, dons a Marine uniform at the age of 18. After his enlistment in New York, Maj. Carl W. Hoffman helps the young fighter don dress blues. Despite his combat experience, Bland will have to undergo all phases of Marine recruit training at Parris Island, S. C.

Polio Incidence Sets New Record

WASHINGTON—(AP)—For the fifth straight week, a record number of new cases of infantile paralysis was reported by the Public Health Service Thursday.

Listing 4,192 cases for the week ended September 20, the agency said the total for the "disease year" which started with the week ended April 8 reached 34,291, or 4,058 more than the similar period of 1949, the previous record year.

Last week's total compared with 4,063 cases reported in the week ended September 13.

Mervin Francis Hurt As Fire Razes Truck

Mervin Francis, employed by Thompson Electric Company, suffered a minor head injury at 5:40 p.m. Wednesday when a truck burst into flame at the company office.

Francis was treated at Midland Memorial Hospital. Attaches said he slipped and fell, striking his head.

Midland firemen who answered the alarm said the truck, loaded with rock wool, was damaged badly. The blaze originated from an auxiliary motor, firemen said.

Rail Board Approves Freight Rate Boost

AUSTIN—(AP)—An average freight bill boost of around 12.5 per cent on within-state shipments has been approved by the Railroad Commission.

It brings freight charges within the state in line with interstate charges.

The 12.5 per cent increase is not actually an upped rate, but it is an over-all boost on freight bills granted for a limited period. It expires Feb. 28, 1954.

The 12.5 per cent increase includes a previous six per cent boost.

Texas Checks Quality Of Drouth-Relief Hay

AUSTIN—(AP)—The Texas Agriculture Department is checking on the quality of hay due to be sent here in the government drouth-relief program.

Agriculture Commissioner John C. White has sent three men to Des Moines for an on-the-spot inspection of cattle feed due to be sent to Texas.

'Midland Always Was Good Town,' Wadley Tells Rotarians

"Midland always was a good town," Addison Wadley, pioneer merchant and businessman, told Rotarians at their regular meeting Thursday noon in Miller's Cafe.

Wadley, a Midland resident since 1884 and who terms himself Midland's oldest resident from the standpoint of residence, mixed fun and facts in his talk to the club of which he is a charter member.

Reminiscing over a period of 40, 50 or 60 years back, Wadley related one interesting story after another concerning Midland and Midlanders of the early days. He said he could remember the Midland of fewer than 50 houses and less than 100 population.

Changes which have occurred during the years were mentioned by the speaker, who has seen Midland develop into the headquarters city of the Permian Basin Empire. His experiences in the early day business life of the community also came in for brief mention.

Billy Yeatts announced an inter-city meeting with the Odessa Rotary Club there on October 10. The regular meeting of the Midland club will be held the day previous.

Coffins Suggest Traffic Slogans

UTICA, N. Y.—(AP)—Ruth Rollband thinks the traffic death-rate would be slowed down if the city would display wooden coffins in conspicuous places along main highways with this slogan painted on them: "Don't Rush to Get In."

She got the idea while on a recent motor trip. Immediately after a carload of coffins came down the road in the opposite direction she noticed the cars in front of her got into orderly positions and promptly cut their speed.

In March, 1951, Miss Rollband was the winner of a slogan contest sponsored by the pedestrian safety committee of the Utica Safety Council. Her slogan, "A Careless Step Is a Grave Matter," was painted on the pavement at several downtown intersections.

Houston Man Hurt In Midland Crash

Bruce Barnes, Houston, suffered mouth and chest injuries when the automobile he was driving struck the rear of another automobile at 7:30 p.m. Wednesday in West Highway 20.

Barnes told attaches at Midland Memorial Hospital where he was treated that the other car stopped unexpectedly in front of him.

Woodrow Wilson popularized the slogan, "America first."

Cover Crop Field Day Set By Midland Area Farm Agencies

A field day for the purpose of demonstrating equipment and methods of planting cover crops was planned at a meeting of the agriculture committee of the Midland Chamber of Commerce at 10 a.m. Thursday.

The field day will be held at 1:30 p.m. next Tuesday on the Elm O'Neal farm, three and one-half miles south of Midland on the Rankin highway.

Sponsors will include the C. of C., Martin-Howard Soil Conservation District, county agencies, equipment and seed dealers of Midland.

Decision to sponsor the field day was a result of recent rains which facilitated planting of cover crops as an aid to reducing wind erosion and as fertility improvement for the land.

All farmers and ranchers in this area are invited to attend.

Ike—

(Continued From Page One) car, strode up the plane ramp. As the general walked into the big ship, he said:

"That's my boy," and the two men half embraced, both with tears in their eyes.

Then Eisenhower took the platform to deliver a prepared address in which he said there is room in the Republican Party for men of all shades of opinion, so long as they are united on cleaning up "the mess in Washington."

Announcing he was calling Nixon to the microphone, Eisenhower read this message:

"Dear General: I am trusting that the absolute truth may come out concerning this attack on Richard, and when it does I am sure you will be guided right in your decision to place implicit faith in his integrity and honesty."

"Best wishes from one who has known Richard longer than any one else. His mother."

When the crowd cheered, Eisenhower said he wanted to read a telegram from Arthur Summerfield, chairman of the Republican National Committee.

Announcing that of 138 members of the committee 107 had been reached and all had voted for Nixon's retention, Summerfield said the members' comment was "overwhelmingly enthusiastic" in favor of Nixon.

"Their telegrams reflected a deep conviction that Richard M. Nixon not only deserves the support of every American but is worthy of the highest public trust," Summerfield said, adding:

"Let there be no doubt about it—America has taken Dick Nixon to its heart." Nixon had offered to withdraw if the committee found him politically wanting.

"And now I give you Dick Nixon," Eisenhower intoned as the youthful California senator strode to the lectern amid shouts of "We Want Dick."

Shortage Of Judges Jams Federal Courts

WASHINGTON—(AP)—Untried cases are piling up in many Federal Courts because of a lack of judges, it was reported Thursday by Henry F. Chandler, director of the Administrative Office of the United States Courts.

The docket jam, particularly in civil cases, is growing worse year by year and trial delays are causing some litigants to suffer injustice, Chandler said in his annual report.

WCTU Claims Television Keeps Politicos On Wagon

ST. LOUIS—(P)—Television is putting the nation's political conventions on the wagon, the president of the national Women's Christian Temperance Union said Thursday.
"The Republican assembly at Chicago in July appeared almost bone dry," said Mrs. D. Leigh Colvin of Evanston, Ill. "The Democratic convention was slightly wetter."
"Drinking," Mrs. Colvin said, "obviously was confined to hotel rooms. But even this was reported at a minimum, because as one Texas delegate remarked, 'I never knew when television would show me all over Dallas.'"
Mrs. Colvin, in St. Louis for pre-convention sessions of the WCTU's seventy-eighth annual meeting which opens Friday, said more political candidates this year are drinking fruit juices and soda pop for photographers.
"We hope they will stay as sober if and when elected," she said.

Midlanders Urged To Take Active Government Interest

Lashing out at big government which, he said, is becoming "bigger and bigger," Dr. W. W. Kemmerer of Houston called upon Midlanders Wednesday night to take a more active interest in governmental affairs, lest the factors which made this country great be sacrificed.
Dr. Kemmerer, president of the University of Houston, addressed a ladies night meeting of the Midland Lions Club in the Cowden Junior High School Cafeteria, on the subject, "Freedom—Our Greatest Asset." Members of other service clubs attended as special guests.
The program was presented in connection with the observance of "Citizenship Week," which is sponsored locally by the Midland Chamber of Commerce, in cooperation with the West Texas Chamber of Commerce and the National Cotton Council.
"Let's not worry about the federal grants you may or may not get here in Midland. Let's worry about our freedoms which are threatened on every hand."
"Let's worry about the super-tax system which is killing incentive in the United States today."
"Let's realize that life without freedom is not worthwhile, and that when you lose the will to work, you lose practically everything."

A HORSE NAMED 'UNCLE EDGAR'—Caudle Traces His Troubles To Big Killing At The Races

By RUSSELL BRINES
WASHINGTON — (P) — It's a bright day at Jamaica Race Track, and the assistant attorney general and his wife are there from Washington not knowing the trouble it means.
They go to the track, says T. Lamar Caudle, because a handicapper named Colonel Hallow asked them and he is a "very able handicapper."
"We're sitting there taking in the story like it happened yesterday instead of three years ago, before President Truman lets Caudle go for picking up outside activities.
And a House Judiciary subcommittee is taking it all in too, like they expect to learn something about race tracks and particularly about Jamaica, which is very hard indeed to crack with a nice safe bet."
"If I was a federal official," says Caudle, rubbing his ear, "I would never go to another race track. Some writer said it was unjudicial for me to go to a race track." He stops and chuckles.
"We went."
He says: "The colonel said they had a sorry bunch of horses running that day, but one horse in the seventh race was all right. And he gave us the daily double and thought it would win."
"We went."
"He said they were sorry, trifling horses. We bet on the thing."
Dallas Man's Tax Bill Cut $29,488 By Revenue Bureau
WASHINGTON — (P) — A $29,488 tax claim against a former Dallas business executive whose business was destroyed by misfortune was settled for $6,000.
The Internal Revenue Bureau Wednesday night opened its records on the case of Joseph Polakoff and his wife, Betty, who now live in Chicago. The claim was for the year ending June 30, 1948.
The Polakoffs' offer of $6,000 to be paid out of $125 a month, beginning Sept. 1, 1951, was accepted September 18, this year. The report did not state whether they have been making the monthly payments while they were waiting for their offer to be accepted.
The compromise report said the government was accepting the Polakoffs' offer because it was "in excess of any amount that could be realized from the forced sale of their assets."

...fourth from the lead and I'm holding my tickets in my hand.
Uncle Edgar Comes Home
"I did not put them in my pocket. When that horse stumbled, I think I just mashed them."
"He came around the other curve there and came away in the straightaway and he was about fourth and, all of a sudden, that horse just got out in front and won that race by about six lengths."
"It was the first horse race I ever saw, Mr. Chairman," Caudle says to Representative Chief, who is a Kentucky Democrat and probably hears now and then about horse races.
"Well, this Uncle pays $9.25 for every $2 bet which is a lot of green, and Caudle says he slips most of it into a down payment on a mink coat that his wife is sighing for."
But then the journals start talking about this coat and pretty soon you hear "mink, mink, mink, everywhere," Caudle says. "They even called me the mink man."
And he sighs and you can see he is hurt by what Uncle Edgar does to him.
