Alaniz Lawyer Asks Quashing Of Grand Jury

ALICE—(P)—A defense attorney Monday asked for dismissal of grand jurors who met to study charges in the alleged mistaken murder of Jake (Buddy) Floyd, Jr.

Percy Foreman, counsel for Alice attorney Nago Alaniz, said he would offer testimony to support his motion to quash the grand jury.

He told Judge Arthur A. Kline of 5th Judicial District, Cameron County, that he wanted the jury commission, the grand jurors and the district attorney to remain in court for the testimony.

Judge Kline, who replaced District Judge Sam G. Reams to present the charge to the jury, recessed court to study the motion.

Reams disqualified himself and did not appear in court. He had been named in examining trial testimony as an intended victim of a plot that went awry and resulted in young Floyd's death instead of that of his father, prominent Alice attorney and political adviser.

Reams charged with murder in the death of young Floyd and with conspiracy to murder his father, Jake Floyd, Sr. They are not accused of firing the shots that killed the University of Texas student as he walked to the family garage the night of September 8.

Foreman moved to throw out the grand jury as soon as Judge Kline opened court.

Sapeta's counsel is Fred Seman of San Antonio.

At examining trials for Sapeta and Alaniz, the elder Floyd said he had been warned that both he and District Judge Reams—foss of the South Texas political regime of George Parr of San Diego—had been marked for assassination.

At examining trials for Sapeta and Alaniz, the elder Floyd said he had been warned that both he and District Judge Reams—foss of the South Texas political regime of George Parr of San Diego—had been marked for assassination.

Persons planning to attend the luncheon should make reservations in advance.

L. E. (Ed) Patterson, president of the WTGS will preside.

A short business session will be held during the luncheon. Several important matters will be discussed.

First Since Consolidation

The Tuesday luncheon will be the first held since the West Texas Geological and the Midland Geological Societies were consolidated several months ago.

Heretofore the West Texas Geological Society had the responsibility of presenting technical programs and the Midland society had sponsored semi-monthly luncheons and the service and social activities of the geological profession in Midland and this sector of West Texas.

Under the new arrangement, brought about by the consolidation, all those items will be handled by the WTGS.

Small Discovery Is Completed In SE Garza Sector

R. S. (Dick) Anderson of Midland No. 1-39 Clyde Miller has been completed as a small pumping discovery from the San Andres in Southeast Garza County.

It was completed for a daily pumping potential of 28 barrels of oil plus 67 per cent water from open hole pay at 2,429-2,624 feet.

Gas-oil ratio was too small to measure. Gravity of the oil is 37 degrees. The pay section had been treated with 15,000 gallons of acid.

Location is 330 feet from north and west lines of the southeast quarter of section 39, block 6, H&GN survey and two miles southwest of Justiceburg.

Operator has suggested RSA as the name for the newly opened field.

Amerada Explorer Is Indicated As Saunders Extender

Amerada Petroleum Corporation No. 4-8C State has indicated as a five-eighths mile southwest extension to Pennsylvania production in the Saunders field of West-Central Lea County.

Five-hour and 32-minute drill test was taken in the interval from 9,874 to 9,905 feet. Gas surfaced in four minutes, mud in 43 and oil in 52. It flowed 62 barrels of oil and 10 barrels of mud in five hours. Gas volume was 800,000 cubic feet daily. Gas-oil ratio was 1.67-1 and gravity was 42-1.

Recovery was 11 barrels of oil which was reversed out and 330 feet of oil and no water below the circulating sub.

Another drillstem test was taken from 9,925 to 9,975 feet. Tool was SCOUTS GIVE HAND TO CHEST DRIVE—Midland Boy Scouts and Girl Scouts are helping with the current Community Chest campaign. ### U. S. Bosses Bent On War, Say Red Congress Leaders

MOSCOW—(P)—Georgi M. Malenkov told the world's Communist Sunday night "bosses" of the U. S. are bent on world domination through a war with the Soviet Union and the USSR therefore "is strengthening and will strengthen its defense capabilities."

Joseph Stalin looked on as Malenkov (along with V. M. Molotov considered a probably heir to the Stalin mantle) delivered an hours-long address to the opening session of the 19th Congress of the All-Union Soviet Communist Party. He denounced U. S. "ruling circles" and laid down the Communist program for the future.

Malenkov portrayed President Truman and other American leaders as plotting world domination and driving the capitalist world toward economic breakdown and war. But the USSR is prepared to cooperate with the U. S. and other powers for peace, Malenkov said.

On the surface, at least, this appears to contradict the words of Stalin published Thursday. Stalin said there was more likelihood of war between capitalist nations than between the USSR and the capitalist world because of contradictions in the capitalist system's competition for markets. However, the point Malenkov appears to be making is that the Soviet Union will continue to build its "defensive" might to the utmost, to thwart plans of would-be "imperialist aggressors."

Program For Future

Keynoting the first such party Congress in 13 years, Malenkov laid down this program for the future:

In the foreign field the USSR will "fight against plans for instigating a new war," while incessantly strengthening the defensive might of the Soviet state so that it can "crush and repel any aggressors."

On the economic scene the USSR

T. L. Beauchamp Funeral Services Set For Tuesday

T. Lawrence Beauchamp, 60, pioneer Midlander, died Sunday at a Midland hospital after an extended illness.

He was born June 22, 1892 at Beckville. He moved to Midland in 1914 from a ranch at Judkins. After World War I service, he was employed at Midland Hardware until 1938. He was well known throughout West Texas from his association with Midland Memorial Hospital. During World War II he was with the U. S. Engineers.

Funeral services will be held at 10:30 a. m. Tuesday at the First Methodist Church. The Rev. Weldon McCormick will officiate. Interment will be in Fairview Cemetery under direction of Newline W. Ellis Chapel.

Survivors include the widow; two daughters, Mrs. Tommy Kathryn Crabb of Greenville and Mrs. Joyce Van Horn of Midland; a sister, Mrs. Ailsa Jung of Fort Worth; a stepson, Wayne Hill of Wichita Falls; three brothers, John S. Beauchamp of San Diego, Calif., and Newell and Marvin Beauchamp, both of Midland, and seven grandchildren.

NO PARTISAN POLITICS HERE

HOUSTON—(P)—The Zeitlinger brothers, Hal and Mike, who run a filling station on the Gulf Freeway, believe in letting people know how they stand on the presidential race. So they fired up a banner 20 feet long and five feet high.

Hal is for Ike; Mike is for Stevenson.

Yep. One side of the banner booms Eisenhower and the other urges the election of Stevenson.

Yanks Again Tie Up Series With 3-2 Win

BROOKLYN—(P)—A pair of mighty homers by Yogi Berra and Mickey Mantle matched a pair by Brooklyn's Duke Snider Monday but the Yankees beat the Dodgers, 3 to 2, in the sixth game of the World Series and squared the series at three victories for each team.

The final game of the Series will be played Tuesday at Ebbets Field, Brooklyn.

The score:

NEW YORK (AL) 000 000 210—3 9 0
BROOKLYN (NL) 000 001 010—3 8 1

Truman Says GOP Can't See, Understand Red Menace; Takes Credit For Successes

ABOARD TRUMAN TRAIN—(P)—President Truman asserted Monday that the Republican Party appears unable to "see or understand what it takes to meet the menace of Communist aggression and subversion."

Whistle—stopping eastward through Utah in behalf of the Stevenson-Sparkman Democratic ticket, the President hit anew at the GOP, and its presidential candidate, Dwight D. Eisenhower, in a speech prepared for delivery at Brigham Young University in Provo.

The Democrats, he said, can take credit for the United Nations, the Marshall Plan, the North Atlantic Treaty, the Japanese Peace Treaty and the Point Four program of assistance to retarded areas.

"We had a lot of Republican help on these programs for a while," Truman said. "But we also had a lot of Republican opposition.

"If the Republican opposition had prevailed, I have no doubt that France and Italy and almost all of Western Europe would be under Communist yoke today."

Eisenhower, Truman asserted, "has swallowed isolationism whole."

He also denounced Republican talk of "government by crony" in Washington as "sheer poppycock—and politics."

Meanwhile, Truman's campaign strategy board worked on two new speaking itineraries for the "give 'em hell" campaign.

Tentative plans call for a whirlwind tour of New England—highlighted by a major address in Boston—and still another Midwestern tour carrying Truman into Pennsylvania, Ohio and other states on his way home to Missouri to vote.

Truman's current $500 million, 15-day coast-to-coast trip winds up in New York Saturday with two speeches. Before that he will stump upstate New York from Buffalo, where he speaks Friday night.

Into New England

The second trip into New England with speeches likely in Hartford and New Haven, as well as Boston, will follow within less than a week Truman's return to Washington Sunday. The Midwestern trip likely will wind up the campaign.

The President made his biggest Monday speech at Provo. His 15-car special train made an earlier stop at Salt Lake City for a rear platform appearance by Truman.

Other whistle stop speeches were scheduled at Helper, Utah, and Grand Junction, Rifle and Glenwood Springs in Colorado. The special train will lay over Monday night at Glenwood Springs.

The President laid off campaign speeches Sunday under his no-speaking on Sunday rule.

Loot Grabbed At Fort Worth Still Missing

FORT WORTH—(P)—Arrest of a Fort Worth convict Monday completed the roundup of the key figures in the largest robbery in Fort Worth history—the $248,000 Tommy gun holdup of three exiled Cubans reportedly planning a counter revolution in their homeland.

Gene Paul Norris, 31, was captured at 5 a. m. in a Duncan, Okla., tourist court by FBI agents. They said he offered no resistance. The raid was led by D. A. Bryce, agent in charge of the FBI in Oklahoma.

Better known as Paul Norris, the Duncan machine shop operator was charged before U. S. Commissioner R. F. Milam with interstate transportation of stolen property.

The two Cuban victims of the Friday morning robbery, Manuel F. Madarsaga and Candido de la Torre, spent hours Sunday viewing more than 3,000 photographs of hoodlums.

They singled out Norris as the man, previously identified as Johnny, who was in the room with them before a scar-faced man with a sub-machine gun relieved them of $240,000 intended to finance an anti-Fulgencio Batista move in Cuba and $8,000 of personal funds.

Orval Lindsey Chambless, 35, was taken into custody Saturday night at Oklahoma City.

Agent Bryce said, "All I'm authorized to say is that Chambless surrendered to me at 8 o'clock Saturday night."

Sudden Fall Norther Hits All Of Texas

By The Associated Press

Texas' first real cool spell of the Fall blew into the Gulf of Mexico Monday after kicking up dust in the Plains and tossing off a few disappointing drops of rain.

The norther failed to make its mark as a genuine cold snap. The forecast had called for the first freeing weather of the season early Monday, but the lowest reading the Weather Bureau could find was 36 degrees at Dalhart, high in the Panhandle.

Northerly winds of 20 to 30 miles an hour had puffed sand into the air, reducing visibility at Big Spring and Childress to four miles.

More sand blew around Midland and Odessa and along the Red River Valley from Childress to Wichita Falls.

Early Monday, thunderstorms rattled in the Fort Worth-Dallas area, northward into Oklahoma and northeastward to Texasarkana. But the only measurable rain was 1/16 inch at Dallas and Mineral Wells.

Late Sunday night, the cool front worked up a thunderstorm in the San Angelo area but couldn't squeeze out any moisture.

By mid-morning, the front was past Victoria and moving into the Gulf. Victoria had a comfortable 66-degree temperature.

Some pre-dawn readings included: Amarillo 47, Salt Flat 55, Dallas 56, El Paso 60, Lubbock 45, Midland 49, Big Spring 51, Waco 59, Austin 64, Galveston 76, Brownsville 70, Tyler 55, Lufkin 64 and San Antonio 62.

Puerto Ricans Suffer Heavy War Casualties

WASHINGTON—(P)—Puerto Rico accounted for 138 of 301 American battle casualties in Korea, identified by the Defense Department Monday. A new list (No. 664) reported totals of 25 killed, 210 wounded, 46 missing and 20 injured.

Puerto Rico's share was five killed, 71 wounded, 44 missing and 13 injured.

United Drys Talk Of Vote On State-Wide Prohibition

By The Associated Press

An official of the United Texas Drys says state-wide prohibition may be voted on soon in Texas.

After three elections Saturday in which two more areas in the state were voted dry but one stayed wet, the Rev. Albert Tucker, Dallas, executive secretary of the drys, said:

"We have already seen the trend toward prohibition. I predict that the question will be settled in the near future—one way or another—so that those who believe in state-wide prohibition for Texas will be given the democratic privilege of voting those sentiments."

Tucker said the Drys were "naturally very happy about the outcome of elections in Grand Prairie and Limestone County."

After a brisk election campaign Grand Prairie residents Saturday voted dry by a 438-vote majority with 3,124 votes cast in the town's four boxes. Limestone County went dry with a 240-vote margin out of 6,000 votes cast in the East Central Texas region.

Wets Win In Orange

The wets, however, were victorious in Orange County, Precinct 3, which voted, 654 to 452, to continue sale of all alcoholic beverages.

Tucker said there has been a movement for several years for a state-wide prohibition election and that several drives were underway elsewhere in the state to bring prohibition to wet or "damp" counties.

The Dry leader said 142 of Texas' 254 counties now are totally dry. In another 82 counties, he said, some precincts are wet. Some others permit only the sale of beer and not hard liquor.

Only 39 counties now permit the sale of beer, wine and hard liquor.

★ LATE NEWS FLASHES ★

WASHINGTON—(P)—U. S. District Judge James R. Kirkland Monday refused to discharge a special grand jury organized here last month to investigate an alleged international oil monopoly.

SPRINGFIELD, ILL.—(P)—Gov. Adlai Stevenson Monday announced a hard-hitting campaign schedule which will carry him 15,000 miles across 23 states, including eight television-radio broadcasts, before election day.

MOVIE STARS ALSO VOTE—
Hollywood Figures Devote Extra Time To Assist Ike

By BOB THOMAS
HOLLYWOOD —(P)—As in the rest of the nation, the main topic of conversation in Hollywood today is politics.

No previous campaign has evoked so much interest and activity as the 1952 race. To report Hollywood's part in the election, I visited the local headquarters of both sides and talked to some of the campaigners.

First, alphabetically, came the Eisenhower group.

Hollywood's drive for Ike is directed by the Entertainment Industry Joint Committee for Eisenhower-Nixon. The nature of this group was explained by Mickie Kies, who is in charge of the office.

Officials And Stars

"The committee was formed in August," she remarked. "It is composed of two groups—the Hollywood Republican Committee, which was formed in 1947, and the Independent Volunteer Committee, which was organized last Spring to promote Eisenhower's nomination. Since the latter comprises many former Democrats and Independents, it was felt a new group should be formed apart from the Republican committee."

The GOP group lists such officials as George Murphy, Robert Montgomery, Walt Disney, Ginger Rogers, Adolphe Menjou and Leo McCarey. The volunteers are headed by powerful studio heads J. L. Warner, Samuel Goldwyn and Darryl Zanuck. Members include Fred Astaire, Irving Berlin and Clifton Webb.

The Republicans boast other well-known supporters such as Esther Williams, who sports a diamond-studded "I like Ike" pin. Jeanne Crain has done the first political campaigning of her life, speaking at a women's meet called "Coffee Hour for Eisenhower," along with Hedda Hopper.

The purpose of the joint committee, it was reported, is: (1) to raise money; (2) to provide talent for Republican programs. Sample assignments are Irene Dunne to a women's rally in Long Beach; Dennis Morgan in a fund-raising drive in Beverly Hills. Also active are Lucille Ball, Dick Powell, June Allyson and Hoagy Carmichael.

Head of the Republican group in Hollywood is hard-working ex-hooper George Murphy. He managed the campaign sendoff for Richard Nixon in Pomona and last week introduced Gov. John Lodge of Connecticut in San Diego and El Centro, Calif.

"We are now working on plans for the Eisenhower speech here on October 8," Murphy told me. "Producers Mervyn Leroy, Joe Pasternak and Arthur Freed are putting on the show. It will be a typical Republican rally, because we represent Hollywood, USA. It's no longer Hollywood, Calif."

The Republican committee sends stars wherever they are needed to whoop up spirit and raise money. Stars also are set for some radio and television appearances.

Most stars under contract to studios are barred from TV, but there are indications they will be allowed to appear on TV for political purposes. The argument is that such appearances involve their rights as citizens, in contrast to their restrictions as performers.

Church Juke Box Plays Hymns Free For Daily Prayers

HARRISON, N. J. —(P)—A juke box in a church?

You'll find one in St. John's Lutheran Church here, and when you make a selection, out pours the soothing strains of a hymn.

The church's pastor, 37-year-old Rev. Theodore Bornhoft, was concerned because there wasn't enough of a response to a new policy of keeping the church open all day as a place for prayer and meditation.

So the juke box, with its flashing lights, was installed about a month ago in the choir loft, and, according to Rev. Bornhoft, is fast becoming one of the most played music machines in town.

Visitors pay nothing for the musical selections.

Vow Chaplin Foresaw Trouble; Leaving U. S. 'Saddened' Him

By ERKINE JOHNSON
NEA Staff Correspondent

Hollywood and Grapevine: Hollywood biggies who attended that farewell party for Charlie Chaplin vow that he smelled trouble ahead in leaving the U. S. Chaplin addressed the gathering on his lack of patriotism for this or any other country and added:

"Home is where I hang my hat. But I must say that this time I am overcome with sadness at leaving the place where I have hung my hat for so long."

Strikes us that Chaplin hung himself instead of his hat this time.

Although MGM is suing Mario Lanza for wrecking "The Student Prince"—which has been shelved—his contract has not been dissolved; Mario still can report to the studio and demand work plus pay. Meanwhile, the word's leaked out that it was Betty Lanza's doctor who ordered Mario to leave the house.

At any rate, Mrs. Lanza went through a medical crisis that was kept secret from even the closest friends of the couple.

To Marilyn Monroe—who else?—goes the Number One spot in Motion Picture Herald's twelfth annual Stars of Tomorrow poll of America's motion picture theater owners. Debbie Reynolds, Marge and Gower Champion and Mitzel Gaynor were runners-up.

Two temporary bachelors were exchanging their woes at Bob Dalton's. "My wife is spending the season in Las Vegas," one said.

"With me," said the other, "it's slightly different. My wife is spending in Las Vegas this season."

Cold Snap

It's eyebrow-lifting, but newlyweds Michael Wilding and Liz Taylor are scrapping like old married folks in public yet.

Ginger Rogers insisted on changing the ending of her new Paramount starrer, "Forever Female," from a tragic to an everybody's-happy climax. And the moan around the studio is that Ginger is cheating herself out of an Oscar nomination by the switch. It's the story of an aging stage actress who insists on playing girlish roles and finally has to step aside for a younger emotee.

Pat Wymore's father is planning a luxury Western motel not far from Flynn's Inn (Errol's project) at booming Apple Valley. More proof that the Flynn-Wymore marriage is solid.

For a fellow who visited the studio only twice during the four years he owned it, Howard Hughes did all right. His RKO profit, after selling out to a syndicate headed by Ralph Stolkin, was two million dollars. And he still owns Jane Russell's contract.

Sick Of It All

The James Masons, the Sewart Grangers and the Ronald Colmans are clam-ups on the subject of the latest blast at Hollywood stars by British Actors' Equity, but David Niven, a British subject, doesn't mince words in yelling "For shame!"

Boiling over charges from London that such Yankees Doodle Dandies as Alan Ladd, Joel McCrea, Rock Hudson and Jeffrey Hunter are taking movie jobs away from British stars, Niven told me:

"I have no time at all for British Equity. I suffer terribly because of this jealousy of American stars. The statements and actions of British Equity are unforgivable. If it were a case of 500 American chorus girls replacing 500 British chorus girls, it would be different."

"But the truth is that there would be very little film production in London at all without the American companies that go over. For every three or four Hollywood names, 400 British actors are used as extras. Yet American actors are pilloried. I'm sick of these attacks."

The day the price of haircuts was upped to $1.50 in Hollywood, Paul Henreid reported for work on a barber shop set of the 725 A. D. vintage in "Siren of Bagdad" at Columbia. A sign reading "Haircuts and Blood-letting" caught his eye.

"Ah," said Henreid, "barbers have not changed a bit."

If Tony Curtis learns all of Houdini's tricks for "Houdini," he'll be a sensation at Hollywood parties. Houdini could sit in a chair and tie knots with his toes.

FIRST SUCH REPORT EVER PUBLISHED ABOUT ANY CIGARETTE

A responsible consulting organization has reported the results of a continuing study by a competent medical specialist and his staff on the effects of smoking Chesterfield cigarettes.

A group of people from various walks of life was organized to smoke only Chesterfields. For six months this group of men and women smoked their normal amount of Chesterfields—10 to 40 a day. 45% of the group have smoked Chesterfields continually from one to thirty years for an average of 10 years each.

At the beginning and at the end of the six-months period each smoker was given a thorough examination, including X-ray pictures, by the medical specialist and his assistants. The examination covered the sinuses as well as the nose, ears and throat.

The medical specialist, after a thorough examination of every member of the group, stated: "It is my opinion that the ears, nose, throat and accessory organs of all participating subjects examined by me were not adversely affected in the six-months period by smoking the cigarettes provided."

Soviet Proposal Rejected

The Western Big Three—the United States, France and Britain—once again have made it clear to Russia that they do not intend to be misled into selling West Germany down the river.

By firmly rejecting Moscow's proposal that the German unification problem be considered at a four-power parley in October, the Western capitals now have left the next move plainly up to the Russians.

For more than a year now, the roadblock to the German unification movement has been the question of free elections. The West has insisted that no unification talks can be held until plans have been worked out to permit the East and West Germans freely to elect a unified government.

Agreeing to unification without prior assurances that such elections would not be interfered with by any outside power, argue the Big Three, quickly would result in Red dominance of East German polling and make the new government overwhelmingly Communist.

Moscow has agreed to the free elections point in principle and says it now is willing to bow to Big Three demands that a commission be created to work out the details. But it has insisted that such a commission should be composed entirely of Germans, or of members of the Big Four, and that it should not be set up until after the unification agreement.

The West has turned down this proposal flatly, claiming that any commission made up of Germans or representatives of the Big Four could not be impartial. They suggest, instead, that an unbiased investigation be conducted by disinterested UN members.

The Western capitals have little faith in Soviet assurances that free elections can be held in the Red-dominated East German sector without impartial supervision and have bluntly said so.

It has been learned "by hard experience in recent years," said their most recent note to Moscow, "that terms such as 'free elections' have one meaning in common parlance and another in the official Soviet vocabulary."

Big Three observers interpret the Russian interest in an immediate unification conference as an attempt to divert West German attention from the cementing of its new ties with the European defense community.

This Fall, the Bonn Republic must ratify the six-power Western European scheme for forming a single defense force and also must act on the new arrangements that have been drawn up with the West to restore it to near sovereignty and freedom.

By holding up the bait of an independent and neutral Germany, thus wooing Germans who yearn for national unity, as well as the Western Europeans who fear Germany and hope that a settlement could relieve world tension, the Soviet apparently hopes to disrupt these arrangements.

Certainly it is clear that Moscow's aims for a unified Reich are not motivated solely by the high ideals to which it gives lip service. Otherwise, there could be little justification for its stand on the free-election issue. And the West is working in the best interest of the German people, as well as for its own benefit by refusing to be fooled.

Horse On The Reds

Some good news for the U. S. came from Panama recently when a former national police chief named Jose Antonio Remon was administered the oath of office as president.

Campaigning on a platform of friendliness for Americans, Remon was endorsed by all five of Panama's major political parties in last Spring's national elections and won by a large majority.

Remon is a former student at the U. S. Army Cavalry School at Fort Riley, Kan. If he is able to reverse the tide of anti-American sentiment in Panama by promoting U. S.-Panama trade and improving diplomatic relations, it will be a horse on the cocky Canal Zone Commies.

The Washington Merry-Go-Round

By Drew Pearson (Copyright, 1952, By The Bell Syndicate, Inc.) Drew Pearson says: Careful examination of Nixon expense fund and his financial situation reveals family fortunes improved since he became senator; Public has right to know facts, although Nixon won't disclose income-tax returns.

LOS ANGELES—When General Eisenhower announced last week that he would publish his income-tax returns, it was presumed that his running mate, Senator Nixon, would do likewise.

However, just two hours after the Eisenhower announcement, a statement was issued by Nixon headquarters that GOP vice presidential candidate would not publish his tax returns and that he considered the matter a closed incident.

In view of Governor Stevenson's complete financial disclosure for 10 years, and the pledge that Eisenhower and Senator Sparkman would do the same, Nixon is left in a position where the public now has a right to ask considerably more questions concerning his financial position than the brief details he gave in his nation-wide telecast.

In that telecast Nixon stated that he had been cleared by the law firm of Gibson, Dunn and Crutcher. However, this law firm happens to represent some of Nixon's biggest and most active donors, among them:

Have A Laugh By BOYCE HOUSE A stranger was killed by a train in a California town. A small group gathered in the funeral chapel and the undertaker asked, "Would anyone care to say something about this poor, unfortunate man?" There was silence, then a man arose and said, "If no one wishes to say anything about the deceased, I would like to say just a few words about the wonderful climate of California."

The man was accused of horse stealing. His lawyer made an eloquent speech and the jury freed him. As they were leaving the courtroom, the client asked, "Does that mean I get to keep the horse?"

JACOBY ON BRIDGE

By OSWALD JACOBY Written for NEA Service

The eyes of the world's bridge players will be fastened on New York three weeks from today, when the world championship match begins in that city. If your eyes go that way, keep them on George Raape, one of the stars of the American team. If you blink for an instant you may find out that George has chosen that moment to steal a trick.

For example, take today's hand—which was played in a rubber bridge game recently. Raape was my partner, and the opponents were two of the best known bridge players in the country. That didn't stop George from getting to an ambitious contract which should have been set except that he made it.

West was at his brilliant best when he led the deuce of spades. If he had opened the five of hearts,

Table with columns for NORTH, WEST, EAST, SOUTH (D), and a section for Opening lead. It lists various cards and their positions.

Raape would have had time to develop the diamonds and also the king of clubs. The defenders would get two hearts, a diamond, and a club, but declarer would take the rest.

The spade opening was far more troublesome. Raape played now from dummy, and East played the queen guard against the possibility that South had the doubleton ace-jack. Raape won with the king of spades and nonchalantly made the key play of the hand.

Just in case you haven't worked out that key play yourself, let's go through Raape's lightning analysis at a slower pace. If the diamond finesse is going to succeed (actually, it won't, but South doesn't know at this moment), South will easily make two spades, two hearts, and five diamonds.

If the diamond finesse is going to lose, there are only eight trick tricks, and a ninth trick will be needed. It will do no good to go after the diamonds immediately, since the enemy will continue spades. Then the fat will be in the fire and there will be no chance to develop the ninth trick later on.

The only chance was to go after the ninth trick immediately in the hope of stealing it. So Raape led the three of clubs at the second trick.

West would have been a hero if he had hopped up with the ace of clubs and returned the jack of spades. But West wasn't sure that the spades were only one trick from establishment, so he played a low club, allowing dummy to win with the king of clubs.

That was only the second trick of the hand, but it was actually Raape's ninth trick. He could now safely switch to diamonds, losing a finesse to the king, and make his game with two spades, two hearts, four diamonds, and that very valuable stolen club trick.

SECOND MAN on the Ticket

I stared at her. "You're from a small town?" "Smaller than Hydetown, as a matter of fact," Lucy said. "I got out of there fast, and if you ask me, I think your little you-all friend has the same idea."

"But what's wrong with that?" "There's nothing wrong with that," said Lucy. "Except the way I did it, I went to the city and got myself an honest job."

"Well," I said. "I expect there are lots of good jobs in Washington, don't you?" Her grin broadened. "If you know the right people, I mean."

"Ginny's not that type," I said, irritated. "She's not the opportunist type."

"Either she's that type," said Lucy, "or Mr. Mason is sadly deficient in appeal, poor fellow, to yield the field to competition like Clyde McDonald."

I GRUNTED and walked on to the Governor's room. If Lucy were right, I saw what I was up against. It would not be easy to prevent Ginny from telling Clyde McDonald all she knew, if that information had a market value. But I did not believe that Lucy was right. Lucy had spoken from personal bias. Because she had been a small-town girl with itchy feet herself, she imputed similar motives to Ginny. The caustic, cynical opinions one woman passes on about another generally make me impatient, but I could not altogether overlook what Lucy said.

I knocked on the Governor's door, and his cheerful voice called, "Yes, I'm ready." The Governor opened the door. He had shaved and changed his clothes. He had had the forethought to cram an extra suit into the Gladstone that had been traveling with him about the country, by plane and John Mills's car. I said, "I think we got away with it, Governor."

GOP Ticket Aim Fat Pitch At Undecided Negro Voters

By PETER EDSON NEA Washington Correspondent

WASHINGTON—Republican headquarters is making a bigger pitch for the negro vote this year than it ever has made before, but the outlook still is said to be not too optimistic.

In 1948 the GOP figures it got 30 per cent of the negro vote. Sample polls taken in 104 areas north of the Mason-Dixon line, where there is a heavy negro population, indicate that the GOP percentage may be up to 36 or 37, as of September.

That still isn't a majority. So Republican headquarters, with a negro vote section under Val Washington of Chicago, is starting a one month's intensive campaign to see if the percentage can't be raised to more than 50 by November 4.

First piece of ammunition in this drive is a new handbook, "The Republican Party and the Negro," for campaign speakers and workers. Twenty-five thousand copies of this pamphlet have been prepared for distribution in the North and West, wherever the negro vote is an important factor.

"The question and answer period has become a lot more important than it used to be," says Washington. "The old practice was to write a speech for any candidate campaigning in a negro ward, then let him read it. When he read it, it was through, and if anybody asked him a question he was finished."

Negro voters are a lot smarter than they used to be, Washington explains, and they want to know the answers to some of the claims made by politicians whom they don't believe. "It's to supply this information to speakers that the new political handbook has been prepared. Main Arguments

Its main arguments are that while the Democrats have promised negro voters the most, they have delivered the least. It is the GOP claim that Republican politicians have done more than their opponents to aid the negro people. Here are some of the arguments:

World-wide publicity was given to the report from President Truman's Committee on Civil Rights in 1947. The committee's recommendations largely were responsible for the Democrats winning the negro vote in 1948. Yet not one single law was enacted in the Democratic 81st and 82nd Congresses to carry out the Democratic platform promises on civil rights.

Even without this legislation, it is claimed by the negro Republicans that President Truman by executive order could have abolished segregation.

Of the 26 negroes who have been elected to the U. S. Congress, 23 have been Republicans.

In the entire federal government service of the Democratic administration there is today only one negro holding an important, policy-making post. He is Dr. Frank S. Horne, assistant to the Housing and Home Finance Administrator on racial relations.

The Civil Rights voting record of Senator John Sparkman of Alabama, Democratic candidate for vice president, is taken apart by the Republicans. Their record shows that he has voted against such legislation 16 times out of 18 in the Senate and before that, seven times out of seven in the House.

While it is admitted that progress has been made in eliminating discrimination in the Army and Air Force, 90 per cent of the negroes in the Navy are assigned to duty as mess attendants.

GORDON IN ENGLAND PLYMOUTH, ENGLAND —(AP)—Lincoln Gordon, new chief of the United States foreign aid program in Britain, arrived Monday on the French liner Liberte.

MELVIN FISHER raised his thin eyebrows. "Only the press?" he said. "I'm the mayor of Hydetown, young man, come to pay my respects to Governor Warburton."

"After the broadcast, Mel," John Mills said. "Come back after the broadcast."

"But a genial voice interrupted. "Why, if Mel wants to listen, I don't see why he can't." Governor Warburton came forward, smiling. "I guess I can stand it if Mel can. How are you, Mel?" Fisher gingerly put out a hand and the Governor shook it. The mayor said, "Welcome home, Willie. I had a little speech I was going to make when I met you at the train tomorrow, but I haven't practiced it up yet." He showed his thin smile again. "Matter of fact, I want to talk to you about that. I'm wondering what the plans are for tomorrow." He added hastily, "We're all mighty upset about Ruth."

"We'll have to call the reception off, Mayor," I told him. "Willie, it's pretty near time," John Mills warned. "Better get in to the microphone." (To Be Continued)

THEY LOOK BEST WHERE LIFE IS WORST— Might Forays By Infantry Group Keep Reds In Tizzy

By GEORGE A. McARTHUR
SOMEWHERE IN KOREA —(P)—
They call it an outfit that doesn't look its best until life is at its worst.
It's a raider platoon, specializing in night patrols. When it is in action it does more than half the patrolling of no man's land for the First Battalion of the U. S.
38th Regiment, Second Division.
In one 14-day period, men of the raiders made 30 patrols. Only three were wounded. Two were shot in the legs. Another was creased by a slug from a Red burr gun.
"They do it mainly by aggressive action," says the battalion executive officer, Maj. Jack Dunlap of Charleston, S. C. He organized the raiders.
Here's how they work:
One dark night recently a patrol from the raiders went through a Chinese position with all guns firing. The surprised Reds lost about 12 men. The patrol went on to its objective, then came back unharmed.
All volunteers.
"They just barreled through,"
said Dunlap.
The big reason the platoon gets through is because of the men themselves. All are volunteers.
It has men like Pfc. Dale Hunter, a 19-year-old, red-haired kid from Los Angeles who is on his second Korean combat tour. He was wounded in the Chinese Red offensive of May, 1951. After six months in a hospital at home, he volunteered to come back.

There is Pvt. George Henderson of Brooklyn, N. Y. He says he doesn't want to be anything but a private. When he comes off patrol he returns to the front to take pot shots at the Chinese.
The platoon leader, Lt. George A. Hoyem, Missoula, Mont., was selected because the battalion executive officer "liked his attitude."
Despite a blond mustache, he's sometimes known as "Babyface."
"He knows what he's doing," said the executive officer. Hoyem never had been in combat before he took the platoon.
When the outfit was formed, the men had only one week's training together. From then on it was experience that did the teaching.
"We buddy up," explained Sgt.
Thomas Briggs of Lobo, Kan.
"When we go out in small groups each group does a good job."
The men choose a partner on pa-trois. It makes for teamwork that has brought patrols out of tight spots.

The raiders were called out in a hurry shortly after midnight recently to rescue another patrol that had run into trouble, and had one killed and several wounded.
In Add Out Again
The raiders found the wounded and brought them back through bursting mortar shells and a stream of machine gun fire, shooting all the way.
"The Old Boy upstairs had a lot to do with that," said Cpl. Ronald Pike of Beloit, Wis.
The wounded all had to be helped back. The Chinese had moved behind the patrol. In the darkness and confusion the trained raiders kept the group of wounded together, slipped by the Chinese who had cut them off and came out without having a raider hurt.
The raiders travel light when they move at night. Some don't even carry canteens. But they all wear the new armored vests issued to patrol units.
"Wouldn't go without 'em," Pike said.

Ship Runs Reds To Death; It's Cheaper Than Firing

ABOARD U. S. DESTROYER
WALKER OFF KOREA—(P)—
Lookouts on this destroyer spotted North Korean work parties trying to clear debris of a bomb-wrecked train near Songjin recently.
The Walker fired its five-inch guns. The workmen fled at the first flash. Soon they were back.
Again the Walker's guns flashed and the workers scattered.
Ensign Dennis O'Connor, Honolulu, suggested flashing the searchlight on the beach, five miles away. It worked. Time and again the Reds ran for cover at the quick flick of the 24-inch searchlight beam.

The destroyer's skipper, Comdr.
Marion C. Walley, Honolulu and Richard, Miss., messaged the near-Canadian destroyer Iroquois:
"Have discovered that searchlight flashes shoreward scatter workmen very effectively. Am conserving ammunition and possibly running them to death. Request services of two Indians and a blanket to furnish smoke to go with searchlight flashes."

Rotation System Cuts Down On Self-Wounding In Korea

WASHINGTON—(P)—In the Korean War, as in all others, there are some soldiers who deliberately wound themselves to get out of battle or out of the Army.
But the Army believes, although it can't prove it one way or the other, that the number in this war is comparatively small.
In response to questions, the provost marshal general's office Monday made a spot check of records of the Far East Command from the period of July 1, 1951, to June 30, 1952. The office said that showed only seven cases which were established definitely as self-inflicted wounding.
However, other Army officers with long experience in such matters point out that it is difficult to detect and prove an actual case of self-inflicted wound. Almost the whole burden of evidence rests on the surgeons in the field who treat wounded men and on checks made at the scene by investigators.
And they must rely primarily on the type of the wound, including whether suspicious powder burns from close firing of a weapon and the location of the wound and on testimony of the man and his comrades to show conclusively the act was intentional.
But if a case can be proved, the going is rough for the soldier who tries it.
He is guilty of violating Article 115 of the Universal Code of Military Justice, dealing with malingering and the avoidance of duty. There is a maximum sentence of seven years hard labor and dishonorable discharge possible—and in time of war the maximum provision may be suspended and even heavier sentences imposed.
If investigations show the man was of sound mind at the time he deliberately wounded himself, he receives no disability payments upon discharge.
Act Of Desperation
Self-wounding is an act of utmost fear of battle which the soldier hasn't yet experienced.
"Old timers of the Army say they have noticed the majority of cases are among men who have not yet seen much action. The soldier who goes through his first engagement and finds that he and most of the men in his outfit are alive and unharmed, has passed his most desperate anxiety and fear.
There is one feature of the Korean War which may help to explain the apparent low incidence of self-inflicted wound cases.
In World War II there was no rotation system. The rotation system in Korea, under which the average man can figure he will start home anywhere from 11 to about 14 months, makes a difference in soldier thinking, say the experts.

Employe Division Of Chest Campaign Sets Tuesday Meet

Members of the Employe Division of the Community Chest Finance campaign will launch their program of solicitation Tuesday following a breakfast scheduled at 7:30 a. m. in the high school cafeteria. More than 200 persons are expected to attend.

John Perkins is chairman of the division and E. N. Gideon and James L. Daugherty are section chairmen.

Chairmen and volunteer workers who will be in charge of solicitation in their respective business firms are invited and urged to attend the breakfast. The Community Chest story will be related and campaign literature and pledge cards distributed.
An effort will be made to solicit every salaried employe in Midland for a Community Chest contribution.
"Give at least a day's pay" is the common plan.
Campaign officials stressed the fact that pledges payable over a 12-month period are being accepted this year for the first time.
The Advance Gifts and Special Gifts Division already have their drives underway, and the General Division is scheduled to launch its work October 14.

Second Mass Jet Flight Spans Ocean For War Duty Tour

HONOLULU —(P)— Forty-two F-84 Thunderjet fighters flew non-stop from Travis Air Force Base, Calif., to Hawaii Sunday in the second trans-Pacific mass jet flight in history.
Their commander was Col. Donald J. M. Blakeslee, 35, Fairport Harbor, Ohio.
The Thunderjets were refueled in the air by Boeing aerial tankers.
The planes are part of the 27th Fighter Escort Wing of the Strategic Air Command, based at Bergstrom Air Force Base, Austin, Texas.
Thirty-three more, the remainder of the wing, are due Monday from Travis.
The 75-plane group is scheduled to leave for Japan next week for a three-month tour of duty with the Far East Air Force, replacing the 31st Fighter Escort Wing, which made the first historic trans-Pacific flight last July. The 31st will return to its base at Turner, Albany, Ga.

'EMPLOY THE HANDICAPPED'—Governor Shivers signs the proclamation designating this week as "National Employ the Physically Handicapped Week" in Texas. # Marines Repulsed In Six-Hour Battle For Twin Peak Crest

SEOUL, KOREA—(P)—U. S. Marines fought through six bloody hours of Chinese Communist artillery and machinegun fire Monday in a futile effort to recapture an important hill position on Korea's western front.
Leathernecks of the 7th Marine Regiment slugged their way close to the crest of the low outpost hill, but the Reds held fast. Chinese troops captured the hill Friday.
Most of the action along the 155-mile battlefront Sunday night and Monday centered on the sensitive western front. Patrol clashes were reported from the eastern end of the line.
The armor-vested Marines launched their attack on the battle scarred hill northwest of Kuranpo shortly after dawn Monday. Almost immediately Red artillery and mortar shells rocked the area.
For four weary hours the Marines clawed up the slopes, only to be pinned down by Communist machine-gun fire. The battle continued at close range for two hours more before the Marines withdrew.
The hill is the western half of twin peaks. The Reds on top overlook Marine positions on the eastern height.

Services Conducted For Infant Hall Twins

Funeral services were held at the Fairview Cemetery at 10:30 a. m. Monday for the infant twins of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest L. Hall, 611 South Dallas Street.
The twins—Robert Dale and Donna Gail—were born Friday at Western Clinic-Hospital. The girl died Saturday and the boy died Sunday.
Survivors include the parents, five brothers and two sisters.

All Crewmen Safe As B-25 Crashlands

AMARILLO —(P)— A B-25 skidded to a belly landing in a plowed field Sunday but the eight aboard escaped injury.
The plane was on a routine training flight from Chanute Air Force Base, Ill.

Governor To Name Judge For Contest Of Mrs. Gray's Will

MONAHANS—A special judge will be named by Gov. Allan Shivers to hear the contest of a will of Mrs. Rebecca Estes Gray, owner of extensive oil interests, who died here September 11.
Mrs. Gray, in a will dated June 12, 1951, and bearing a codicil dated Aug. 9, 1952, left the bulk of her estate to four institutions. William L. Kerr and John P. Butler, both of Midland, were named executors without bond. They filed the will for probate on September 12.
No immediate close survivors were left by Mrs. Gray.
Seven first cousins, with two joined in the suit by their husbands, are contesting the will.
While no estimate of Mrs. Gray's estate has been made, it was understood to include four sections of land on which there are 180 oil wells.

Daddy Ringtail And Baseball Boy

Mugwump Monkey, the monkey boy, was now a friend with the amazing Mr. Stick. Mr. Stick looked like a broomstick, but he could talk when he wanted to talk. He could bounce along with a hop even faster than Mugwump could run. When Mr. Stick wanted to, he could stand in a corner and pretend to be just a plain, ordinary stick that wasn't alive at all.

Mr. Stick lived with Mugwump. Mr. Stick slept in the corner of Mugwump's room. Mr. Stick was happy to do it. When he slept outdoors, or when he got wet, he began to swell and ache with rheumatism.

"Look!" cried Mugwump one day when he looked out his window. Mr. Stick hopped over from the corner where he, too, could look out and down to the sands by the Whispering River.

A bunch of strange monkeys—very big fellows—were down there playing baseball. A great big monkey was throwing the ball to the batter, "Zoop!" The ball looked like a streak of light, because the big monkey threw it so hard. "Swing!" The batter swung with the bat, but he didn't hit the ball, oh no! The catcher caught the ball, but he skidded six feet when he did it. The ball pushed him back, you know, because it was thrown so hard.

The catcher threw the ball back to the pitcher. Again the pitcher got ready to throw, "Zoop!" "Swing!" Miss, because the batter couldn't hit it.

"Hah!" said the stick to Mugwump. "Mugwump, my boy, you could hit the ball, all right, all right, if you tried to do it."

"Sir," said Mugwump, and the stick said again that Mugwump could hit the ball if he tried. The stick explained how he would be a baseball bat for Mugwump. "Just hold me in your hand," said the stick, "and when the pitcher throws the ball, I will do the rest."

"Oh no!" said Mugwump. "You will hurt yourself, you will, if you play like a baseball bat."

"My boy," said the stick, "some of the best people in my family have been baseball bats, and do you want to be a baseball boy, or don't you?"

Mugwump said he did, and away they hurried down to the ground, and the thing that happened next is the story I'll tell you tomorrow. Happy day!

Two Texans Share Engineering Award

CLEVELAND, OHIO—Richard D. Cheverton of Fort Worth and Thomas W. Muslewite of Arp, Texas, have been declared top winners in the James F. Lincoln Welding Foundation's fifth annual engineering design contest for college undergraduates.

The two, both attending Georgia Institute of Technology, will share the prize of $1,130.

They won with their joint design of a sub-caliber mount for a recoilless rifle. The design has aroused the interest of Army officers. Foundation officials said the design shows how a .22 caliber barrel can be mounted in a 75-millimeter rifle for training purposes.

In addition to the prize money for the two students, Georgia Tech will get four $250 scholarships for its department of mechanical engineering.

MIDLAND STUDENT IS BAYLOR CADET CAPTAIN WACO—Robert E. Montgomery of Midland has been promoted to the rank of cadet captain in the Air Force ROTC at Baylor University. The promotion was announced by Col. Ernest B. Maxwell, professor of Air Science and Tactics.

Terrific Weekend Texas Traffic Crush Sends Death Toll By Violence Zooming

By The Associated Press

Fast, heavy traffic and a flurry of drownings and shootings claimed the lives of at least 31 persons over Texas during the weekend.

The grim total—of which more than half were from auto accidents—was one of the highest weekend marks in recent months.

Fires, drownings, shootings, knifings and a plane crash contributed to the death toll. Traffic alone claimed 18 lives.

Casimir Franczak, 38, Cleveland, Ohio, a member of the food service squadron at San Marcos Air Force Base, was drowned in Lake McQueeney in the San Antonio vicinity Sunday. Franczak, unable to swim, apparently fell in a deep hole.

Two airmen stationed at Fort Sill, Okla., died Sunday when their military liaison plane crashed and burned near Scotland, Archer County. They were identified as First Lt. J. R. Tatum, 23, Wichita Falls, and Second Lt. Alfred F. Summy, 21, Hebronville.

Bill Watts, 39, Mineral Wells, was killed Sunday night when his car overturned near the city limits of Mineral Wells. A passenger in the car, Airman David Purcell of Camp Wolters, was injured critically.

Mrs. Ray Battles, 18, San Antonio, died in a Floresville hospital Sunday night of a fractured skull after falling from a car a few hours earlier. Officers ordered an investigation of the death.

Clyde Bedingfield, 25, Fresno, Calif., was injured fatally Sunday when his truck left the highway and crashed into a telephone pole two miles west of Grand Saline. He was employed by Rocky Ford of Midland.

Hershey Hilton, Longview negro, was shot to death Saturday night on Longview street. Officers jailed negro for questioning.

Car-Bus Crash

Clyde Glass, 17, Valley Mills, was killed Saturday night when the car in which he was a passenger collided with a Texas Electric Bus about two miles south of Italy.

Two persons were killed when two cars collided head-on early Sunday near the south city limits of Hillsboro. Dead were E. A. Dobbs, Waxahatchie, and her son-in-law, Lloyd R. King, Fort Worth.

A 15-year-old negro girl, Laverne Bonner, died in Dallas Saturday of burns received when she tried to kindle a fire with kerosene in her home.

Chester Lee Patton, 43, Abilene, died in a Sweetwater hospital Sunday of injuries received Saturday when his car overturned nine miles east of Sweetwater.

Two San Antonio boys drowned in the Guadalupe River near New Braunfels early Sunday while on a fishing trip. They were Clarence Laskowski, 18, and Theodore Zainis, 13.

Durwood Hunter, 19-year-old Baylor University student from Laredo, was killed when his car, driven by a fellow-student, went out of control and crashed eight miles from Temple early Sunday.

Billy Eugene Epperson, 21, Temple, was fatally injured early Sunday when his car went out of control and overturned near Holland, Bell County.

Raymond Polk, 30-year-old negro, was stabbed to death on a Dallas street Sunday. Police jailed a 36-year-old man who said he attacked Polk with a butcher knife after an argument over an $8 dice game debt.

Two persons were killed and five injured when two cars crashed head-on about 10 miles west of Big Spring Saturday night. Dead were William C. Shows, about 20, of Waynesboro, Miss., and Mrs. Lee Jones of Midland, a negro.

Mrs. Wilma Lee Gallier Singleton, about 27, Beaumont, was killed and seven others injured when a car driven by Mrs. Singleton crashed into a flatbed truck near Beaumont Saturday night.

J. F. Smith, 91, died Saturday night when hit by a truck while crossing a Lubbock street.

The body of Thomas Franklin Stephenson, 48, an employee of the Texas Confederate Home, was found near midnight Friday on a road near the state home. Officers are holding a 40-year-old man for questioning.

Murder charges have been filed against William Fred Jones, in the Friday death of Joe Carl Hill, 60, nightwatchman at a federal housing construction project in Paris.

Mechanic Kills Wife

In Houston Saturday, a 50-year-old mechanic shot and killed his wife, seriously wounded her mother, and then shot himself to death. Dead were Mrs. Adell Clemmons, 41, and Cecil E. Clemmons, a 15-year-old son who saw the entire shooting said his mother and stepfather had been separated.

Edwin Eugene Plummer, 22, white life photographer for the State Game and Fish Commission, burned to death near Elgin Saturday when his car overturned and burst into flames.

R. Dow Ernst, 89, president and general manager of the Manchester Terminal Corporation, Houston, was found shot to death in the attic of his Houston home Saturday. Officers said they found a shotgun by his side.

Truck-Car Accident

Earl H. Nettle, 44, Streetman, was killed Friday night in a truck-car collision near Angus in Navarro County.

Richard Burk, McCulloch County clerk, drowned Friday night while on a fishing trip to Buchanan Lake near Burnet.

The body of W. P. Simpson, Sr., 72, Waller cattleman, was found Saturday morning in thick brush after an all night-search of his ranch near Houston. Relatives said he apparently was thrown from the saddle and dragged to death by his horse.

Donald Cracknell, 17, San Antonio, was killed Sunday when he lost control of his motorcycle in a race at a dirt track near San Antonio. As he fell from his machine, another motorcycle hit him.

Texas Vet Returns To Korean Battles After Junk Home

WITH U. S. SECOND DIVISION, KOREA—(P)—A man who saw his outfit overrun by Chinese in December, 1950, asked for reassignment in Korea after nine months at Fort Hood, Texas.

He was back in Korea Sunday with his same old artillery battery. He is Sgt. Orr Brooks of Coleman, Texas, who first landed in Korea July 31, 1950, with Battery A of the 15th Field Artillery.

Brooks was one of seven survivors when Chinese overwhelmed the battery at Kunu. He escaped because he had taken a vehicle to the rear for repairs just before the attack started.

He returned to the U. S. in August, 1951, but got tired of stateside duty.

Mr. and Mrs. Marvin E. Davenport of Duncan, Okla., were Sunday visitors in the home of their daughter and family. Mr. and Mrs. Jim Lindsey, 2613 West Storey Street, The Davenports drove here from Stamford where they attended the Midwestern-AAC football game. A daughter is an instructor at Midwestern in Wichita Falls.

MODERN GIRLS LIVE SO LONG?

LOS ANGELES—(P)—Mrs. Annie Tobin celebrated her 100th birthday by singing "In a Little Spanish Town" and "Little Brown Jug," but said she'd rather fly to Halifax, where she lived in a light-house for 25 years.

She celebrated the occasion Sunday with six of her children, 32 grandchildren, 68 great grandchildren and four great-great grandchildren.

Her observation: "Worry doesn't get you anyplace," and "Modern girls show more intelligence for not working as hard as girls did in my day."

Reno Judge Says He'll Keep Hands Off Binion Battle

RENO, NEV.—(P)—If Gambler Benny Binion asks for a hearing to fight a federal warrant ordering him returned to Texas, Federal Judge Roger Foley says he will disqualify himself.

Foley said he would take himself out of any Binion matter because his son, Tom Foley, had acted as Binion's lawyer in a previous federal tax evasion case.

Binion was indicted in Dallas last Friday by a federal grand jury on a charge of federal income taxes.

To a similar charge on his 1949 income tax, Binion pleaded no contest and received a two-year suspended sentence and a $15,000 fine.

Texas officers want Binion returned to Dallas on the federal indictment in order to arrest and try him on a Texas indictment charging gambling.

KELLY JOE PROCTOR TO RETURN FROM ARMY DUTY

Kelly Joe Proctor is expected to return to Midland Tuesday after serving two years in the armed services. He entered the service October 9, 1950, and has been an instructor in the Army Chemical Corps at Fort McClellan, Ala. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ira Proctor, 1407 West Ohio Street.

Misunderstanding, Not Persecution, Blamed In Italy

DALLAS—(P)—Misunderstanding rather than persecution caused a recent religious controversy in Italy involving the Church of Christ, a Dallas member of the church said Sunday.

The member, Orville McDonald, was one of a three-man church-appointed investigating group which returned Sunday from Rome.

McDonald, Don Hines, Houston newspaperman, and James Nichols minister of a Church of Christ in Abilene, made up the committee.

The controversy centered over police action which stopped or hindered services of the American-sponsored church in Italy.

"It's my personal opinion that there is not a great deal of persecution," McDonald said, "but a great deal of misunderstanding." He refused to expand on his statement.

Dodgers Gain Series Edge With 11-Inning Victory

Carl Erskine

Duke Snider

Clutch Pitching By Erskine, Snider Hitting Brings Win

NEW YORK—Duke Snider's blazing bat and Carl Erskine's clutch pitching brought the Brooklyn Dodgers an 11-inning, 6-5 victory over the New York Yankees Sunday in the fifth game of the World Series and gave the National League club 3-2 edge in the best-of-seven competition.

Snider and Erskine were great. They had to be or the day's honors would have gone to Johnny Mize, 39-year-old first baseman of the Yankees, whose bid for a second home run that would have tied the score in the seventh was frustrated by a spectacular leaping catch by Carl Furillo.

Erskine pitched a 1-0 game, striking out 10 batters. He was aided by a double play in the eighth inning.

Snider's booming bat drove home four big runs on a two-run homer, single and the winning double. Snider retired 19 batters in a row after the Yankees had counted five runs in the fifth, three of them on a Mize homer.

Erskine's clutch pitching brought the Brooklyn Dodgers an 11-inning, 6-5 victory over the New York Yankees Sunday in the fifth game of the World Series and gave the National League club 3-2 edge in the best-of-seven competition.

VIC RASCHI

Pafko, Furillo Catches Stun Yank Skipper

BROOKLYN—(AP)—The official World Series program says on Page 25 that if Duke Snider gets hot "he can break this series wide open."

They can write that again. Sunday, the Duke, along with Dodger outfielders Carl Furillo and Andy Pafko, hit a torrid pace in Brooklyn's 11-inning, 6-5 victory over the New York Yankees.

If the series wasn't broken wide open, at least it was severely bent. Manager Charlie Dressen tapped Billy Loos to try to wrap it up. He told the youngster to rear back and fire the ball instead of trying to out-think the Yank batters as he did in a disastrous relief stint in the second game.

Vic Raschl went to the mound for the American League champions. The job the Dodgers did Sunday on a couple of second-line Bomber throwers, Ewell Blackwell and Johnny Sain, was a beaut.

That was all Casey Stengel could talk about—Pafko and Furillo going up in the stands and practically mingling with the crowd in right field to rob his team of two home runs.

Fielding Praised "You saw it," said the Yankee manager after the game. "There's nothing I need to tell you. That fellow Erskine doesn't get that kind of fielding behind him, we win it. Never saw two better catches anywhere. That fellow got better as he went along, but he didn't get that kind of fielding we beat him."

Which was absolutely true. Erskine didn't permit another Yank hit after Johnny Mize unloaded his three-run homer to put the Bombers out in front 5-4 in the fifth.

Some thought that Pafko made the greater catch when he leaped to make a one-handed stab of Gene Woodling's long belt in the second inning. Others thought Furillo's robbery of Mize for the second out in the eleventh won the prize.

To a man, the Dodgers conceded that they were dying while Mize's eleventh-inning blast sailed out there. They thought it was going in, sure.

The Bulldogs, incidentally, came out of the Yuletide game without a noticeable scratch and will be in top shape for the San Angelo game.

Tugboat Doesn't Pamper Bulldogs

The Bulldogs of Midland High School, making their first appearance this year in the tough AAAA football competition, have run up a total of 149 points in three games.

And all the fans are wondering just how good these young upstarts are.

But not even Coach Tugboat Jones knows the answer to that one. "I'd like to think they are that good," he said Monday, "and maybe they are. I just don't know."

"I know they have been playing sharper football than I have ever seen them play before. Everything has clicked pretty well and they have been impressive."

"But I don't know whether it's just that they've been running into extremely poor opposition in teams which should be better than that."

San Angelo Next The Bulldogs make their debut in District 1-AAAA play this week but the game is not expected to give much of an insight on the team which faces an otherwise tough seven-game district schedule.

"Everybody knows we should beat San Angelo pretty easy," said Jones, "but there's always that fear that they'll catch on fire when we go over there Friday night."

"I've seen it happen too many times. On paper, you can rate three or four touchdowns better than a team, on the basis of their score against a mutual opponent. And then when the game comes along, it doesn't work out that way at all."

Nevertheless, the Bulldogs, who chalked up a 21-6 victory over the San Angelo Bobcats last year, reign as odds-on favorites to run up an even wider margin this week.

A large delegation of fans, accompanied by the Bulldog Band and pep squad, is expected to make the trip.

Jones has no plans for letting his squad loaf through the week in preparation for the game.

"That's one of the things that worries me," he admitted.

Little Action Seen "During the last two games, the first string team hasn't played very much. Last Friday, they saw little more than one quarter of action."

"I like to play all the boys on the bench but I never know then whether the first team will be able to keep up their drive for the entire game or not."

"We're going to have some tough workouts this week—particularly for the first team. They're going to make up in practice scrimmages for the action they missed in Friday night's game."

The Bulldogs, incidentally, came out of the Yuletide game without a noticeable scratch and will be in top shape for the San Angelo game.

Texans See Easier Road

DALLAS—(AP)—The Dallas Texans figure Monday the rest of the journey in professional football's major league should be easier than the two weeks they've just gone through that generally are conceded to be the best in the two divisions of the National Football League.

They lost to the New York Giants of the American Conference, 24-6, and Sunday they took a 37-14 pasting from the San Francisco 49ers of their own National Conference.

Next Sunday they play the Chicago Bears at Chicago.

San Francisco exhibited a great offense and a rock-ribbed defense Sunday in piling over the fighting Texans. Hugh McElhenny ran up 170 yards carrying the ball, including an 89-yard touchdown dash. He also caught a pass for a second touchdown and his 36-yard run set up a field goal for the 49'ers.

Meanwhile Y. A. Tittle was completing 12 passes for 133 yards and two touchdowns while Frankie Albert was connecting on two for 85 yards and one touchdown.

Cameron Aggies Remain Unbeaten

By The Associated Press The Cameron Aggies remain the only unbeaten team in the Big Six Junior College Conference that has teams from three states.

The Aggies last week poured it on Decatur Baptist College, 35-0, to keep a spotless record. They have won four games.

Other members of the conference continued to take their lumps.

No player on the West Virginia baseball team batted .300 this season. Nevertheless the Mountaineers tied for second in the Southern Conference northern division.

CARL FURILLO

reach base since Big Jawn hit his long home run in the near-fatal fifth.

The lights, glowing down from the start of the 10th, seemed even brighter in the gathering darkness as Mize again faced this willowy little fellow from Anderson, Ind.

Two strikes and two balls was the count as Erskine came down with another pitch. Big Jawn swung and the ball curved in a high arc toward the same stands where he deposited his homer in the fifth.

Yogi Fans Furillo, playing back near the wall, timed his leap perfectly and nabbed the ball just as it was about to disappear into the seething mass of fans.

Throwing his 165-pounds into every pitch, the 25-year-old Erskine then curled a called third strike past Yogi Berra to end the game.

Sale Of Beaumont Franchise Hangs Fire

BEAUMONT—(AP)—A meeting of Beaumont civic leaders Monday was to arrange for a $50,000 loan to Allen H. Russell for aid in the purchase of the Beaumont Texas League baseball club.

Russell is negotiating with Owner Guy Airey for purchase of the franchise and physical properties at a sum around $150,000.

Russell, president of the Houston Texas League club, will sever his connections with the St. Louis Cardinal chain, Houston club owners, if he obtains the Beaumont outfit.

Gulf Coast Teams Facing Tough Week In Non-Conference

By The Associated Press Gulf Coast Conference teams face probably their toughest week of the non-conference schedule.

There are no unbeaten teams left in the three-member circuit and there is small prospect of any of them winning this week.

Trinity University, winless in three tries, takes on Texas Christian of the Southwest Conference at San Antonio Saturday night.

Midwestern will be battling Hardin-Simmons of the Border Conference at Wichita Falls. North Texas State plays Mississippi State at State College, Miss.

Midwestern tumbled last week before Abilene Christian College of the Texas Conference, 21-0. North Texas State lost to Dayton, 20-14. Trinity was lashed, 33-7, by Hardin-Simmons.

Green reported that all matters discussed at Sunday's Fall meeting were of a routine nature.

In 1948, '49 and '50 the opening games of the World Series were 1-0 games. The shutouts were hurled by Johnny Sain of the Braves and Alie Reynolds and Vic Raschl of the Yankees.

Watkins Beats Wortman, 1-Up, For Golf Title

Red Watkins ended a 20-year search Sunday for a golf championship. He became the 1952 titlist at the Ranchland Hill Country Club by beating the defending champion, Bob Wortman, 1-up.

Watkins, bespectacled Midland service station operator, reached the finals by winning over Kit Carson, 1950 club champion, 2-up in the 18-hole semi-finals Sunday morning. Wortman moved into the finals with a 1-up victory over Bill Hightower. Wortman was medalist.

SOUR GRAPES ON THE SIDE?

PHILADELPHIA —(AP)— The dining room of a downtown hotel has been listing "Empire Sherbert" on its menu since the World Series began.

Ray McKown Proves SWC Offense Star

DALLAS —(AP)— Ray McKown, Texas Christian's do-everything man, dominates Southwest Conference offense and the way he's going he'll take over all of the department.

When McKown passed for a mighty 266 yards against Arkansas Saturday he went far ahead in the aerial show. And when he rolled up 70 yards on the ground he moved into the top 10 ballcarriers.

McKown leads in total offense with 657 yards on 139 plays—163 yards better than Ray Graves of Texas A&M, the second-place man. Graves got 176 yards passing against Kentucky but he was held to only 45 yards rushing.

Passers Paced McKown leads the passers by 189 yards. He has completed 40 in 73 throws for 347 yards. Graves is second with 34 connections with 53 attempts for 258.

Dick Coburn of Texas gained 45 yards against Notre Dame and held his ball-carrying lead. He has made 208 yards on 53 runs. Graves is second with 148 on 34 tries. McKown ranks tenth with 110 yards on 64 runs.

Jerry Norton of Southern Methodist tops the punters with an average of 43.8 yards on seven kicks. Bob Raley of Texas is second with 40.4 on 20.

Joe Boring of Texas A&M is the leading punt returner, averaging 13.5 yards on four runs. Joe Schero of Arkansas are tied for second with 11.3 yards on four returns.

Blair Snare's Em Bob Blair of Texas Christian snare seven throws for 180 yards against Arkansas to move into first place in pass-receiving. He now has taken 19 passes for 220 yards. Tom Stohlhandke of Texas is second with 10 for 217.

Don Ellis of Texas A&M is best at kickoff returns. He has taken four back for an average of 31.0 yards. Ray Haas of A&M is second with 29.0 on two.

HURLY-BURLY 1-AAAA TO EXPLODE— Top Schoolboy Division Opens Play For Keeps

By The Associated Press They start playing for keeps this week in the top division of Texas schoolboy football with most of the action in hurly-burly District 1, where state Class AAAA defending Champion Lubbock battles arch-foe Odessa.

Two other districts have conference games but the major interest rests on District 1. Pampa goes to Amarillo, Midland to San Angelo and Borger to Abilene as sideshows to the Lubbock-Odessa clash.

Just eight undefeated, untied teams remain in Class AAAA and none of them meet each other this week. That doesn't mean, however, that the teams with perfect records won't fall. Seven were kicked out last week with Ray of Corpus Christi downing Port Arthur, 19-6, in the feature battle of the unbeaten.

Just Nine Left Class AAAA's undefeated, untied string fell to nine as five teams took the plunge but Temple, the top favorite in this class, had no trouble at all trouncing San Jacinto of Houston, 41-7.

Left on the undefeated, untied list in Class AAAA are Lubbock, Midland, Pampa, Amon Carter-Riverdale (Fort Worth), North Dallas, Wichita Falls, Ray (Corpus Christi) and Baytown. Beaumont is undefeated but has been tied.

Class AAA numbers Brownwood, Grand Prairie, Paris, Lufkin, Bryan, Temple, Edison (San Antonio), Alice and McAllen. McAllen is untied and Freeport, Harlandale (San Antonio) and Edinburg are unbeaten but tied. Alice plays Edinburg this week in a District 3 conference game.

Class AA has 32 undefeated, untied teams: Dumas, Phillips, Floydada, Burkburnett, Quanah, Anson, Stamford, Littlefield, Seminole, Pecos, Comanche, Arlington, Diamond Hill (Fort Worth), Jackboro, Nocona, Mesquite, Terrell, Mount Pleasant, Paul Hewitt, Center, Cleveland, Mexia, Humble, Killen, Huntsville, Gonzales, Bellville, Caldwell, Alvin, Uvalde, Refugio and Donna. Uvalde hasn't been scored on. LaPorte, Edcouch-Elsa and Memphis are undefeated but have been tied.

There are 34 teams with undefeated, untied records in Class A. They are: Panhandle, White Deer, Springlake, Sudan, Abernathy, Lockney, Fort Stockton, Iraan, Dublin, Wylie, Itasca, Clifton, Farmersville, Wilmer-Hutchins, Van Alstyne, Bogata, Jefferson, Edgewood, East Mountain, Troup, Hemphill, Groveton, Sour Lake, Fairfield, Columbus, Oldlands, Missouri City, Palacios, George, Floresville, Hebronville, Boerne West, Benavides and Prentiss. Undefeated but tied are Abert, Chillumoche, Whitewright, Van, Cedar Bayou, Dayton, Burnet, Hull-Dalsetta, Llano, Northwest, and Pilot Point.

There are 31 games on the schedule in Class AAAA with the top interdistrict clash sending Temple of Class AAA to Arlington Heights (Fort Worth). The Class AAAA schedule by districts:

1—Friday: Pampa at Amarillo (conference), Odessa at Lubbock (conference), Midland at San Angelo (conference), Borger at Abilene (conference).

2—Thursday: Highland (Albuquerque, N. M.) at Jefferson (El Paso); Friday: Austin (El Paso) at Breckenridge, Bowie (El Paso) at Snyder. El Paso High at Ysleta (conference).

3—Thursday: Stephenville at Fort Worth Tech; Friday: Temple at Arlington Heights (Fort Worth), North Side (Fort Worth) at Cleburn, Amon-Carter-Riverdale (Fort Worth) at Lamesa; Saturday: Gladewater at Poly (Fort Worth); 4—Thursday: Gainesville at Forest (Dallas); Friday: Paschal (Fort Worth) at Woodrow Wilson (Dallas), Croser Tech (Dallas) at Dennis, North Dallas vs. Highland Park (Dallas).

Shell-Shocked SWC Outfits Eye Second Rough Weekend

By HAROLD RATLIFF Associated Press Sports Editor The shock of a near shutout in intercollegiate football lingered with Southwest Conference teams Monday as they recouped battered forces for another try.

Prospects aren't very bright that they can do any better this week than last when only Baylor, which wasn't supposed to beat anybody, came through. It left the Golden Bears the only undefeated team in the league.

Dropping four games out of five against foes from other areas, conference saw its intercollegiate record for the season fall behind. Teams for this circuit have won six and lost seven.

Texas A&M, set down, 10-7, by Kentucky for its first loss of the campaign, tries Michigan State, the nation's No. 1 team, at Lansing, Mich., Saturday. Rice, which was whipped, 7-7, by Louisiana State, goes to Los Angeles to play a UCLA outfit that slashed Texas Christian two weeks ago.

Texas, which succumbed to Notre Dame, 14-3, engages an Oklahoma team that has just finished clouting Pittsburgh, 49-20. Southern Methodist, which felt the lash of Georgia Tech, 20-7, goes to Columbia, Mo., to play tough Missouri.

Baylor doesn't have to worry about its intercollegiate record this week but it has worries just the same. The Bears, who slammed Washington State, 31-7, last week, engages the Arkansas Razorbacks at Little Rock Saturday night in a conference game.

Texas Christian, winner of the only conference game played thus far—a 13-7 decision over Arkansas—gets down-trodden Trinity University at San Antonio Saturday night. Trinity hasn't been able to beat anybody yet and hasn't played a team as strong as Texas Christian.

The Texas-Oklahoma game will be the high point of the schedule. Regardless of how these two teams fared in a season, their struggle at the State Fair in Dallas each year always packs the Cotton Bowl.

5—Friday: Tyler at Longview, Denison at Wichita Falls. 6—Friday: Waco at Austin, Ray (Corpus Christi) at Laredo (conference), Beaumont at Miller (Corpus Christi), San Antonio Tech (San Antonio), Lamar (Houston) at Jefferson (San Antonio).

7—Thursday: Freeport at Jeff Davis (Houston); Friday: Breckenridge (San Antonio) at Milby (Houston), Nicholls (New Orleans) at Reagan (Houston). 8—Friday: Orange at South Park (Beaumont), San Jacinto (Houston) at Baytown, Port Neches at Galveston, Conroe at Pasadena.

Texas Tech Raiders Absorb 42-21 Loss In Coast Battle

PHOENIX, ARIZ.—(AP)— Passes and fumbles played a big part in Border Conference football games Saturday night.

As none of the eight teams played each other, there was no change in conference standings, but the University of Arizona, with a smashing 27-0 victory over the University of Utah at Salt Lake City, proved its right to be among the three leaders.

Arizona, Arizona State at Tempe, and Texas Tech have won one conference game and have no losses. Arizona was the only one of the leaders to win its non-conference tilt Saturday. ASC Tempe fell at home before San Jose State, 21-14, and Texas Tech absorbed a 42-21 trouncing by College of Pacific at Stockton.

Fumbles on the part of the Utes set up all four of Arizona's touchdowns. At Tempe, the story was reversed. The Sun Devils suffered severely from fumbleitis, while San Jose's brilliant passing attack kept the Devils off balance.

ASC Tempe scored first in the first quarter when Halfback Marvin Wahlin capped a 29-yard drive by a plunge from the one-yard line. San Jose evaded matters when End Stan Wachols took a 61-yard pass from Quarterback Lynn Apla-

Far West Elevens Roll Over Big Ten; Southwest Falters

NEW YORK —(AP)— Things may be different at Rose Bowl time but right now football fans in the Far West are very happy about the way Pacific Coast teams have been walloping the Big Ten this year.

Stanford's thrilling 14-7 victory over Michigan and California's 49-13 trampling of Minnesota made it four straight for coast teams against the Big Ten. This sort of thing could mean the end of the Midwest's six-game winning streak in the Rose Bowl January 1.

Bob Mathias bulled over from the one-yard line for Stanford's winning touchdown. Big man for California, ranked fourth nationally in the Associated Press football poll, was Halfback Don Johnson with four touchdowns, one of them an 84-yard dash.

Wisconsin was the Big Ten's leading contender for the Rose Bowl trip after Saturday's 20-6 victory over Illinois. They're saying the Badgers should sweep through the rest of their conference schedule if they get past Ohio State this week.

One Midwestern team, Michigan State, had a narrow squeak out west. The Spartans rated No. 1 in the nation, downed Oregon State 17-14 on a field goal by Eugene Lektanta in the last two seconds of play.

Gloom Down Texas Way Texas teams had a gloomy time of it Saturday in intercollegiate contests. Notre Dame, looking like the powerhouse of old, led the invasion with a second-half surge that buried Texas, No. 8 nationally, 14-3.

Other Southwest Conference scores: Georgia Tech 20, Southern Methodist 7; Kentucky 10, Texas A&M 7; Louisiana State 27, Rice 7; Baylor 31, Washington State 7. It was No. 17 in a row for Tech, the class of the Southeastern Conference, and it now appears that the Engineers' clash with Duke November 1 will be for the championship of the Southland. Duke, Southern Conference kingpins, conquered Tennessee by holding the Vols' heretofore mighty ground attack to 25 yards while punching out a 7-0 victory.

The non-conference championship of the Southern Conference has been settled, by the way, by Maryland's thoroughgoing 28-0 shellacking of Clemson, Maryland, ranked third in the AP poll, was suspended from the conference, along with Clemson, for playing in bowl games last New Year's.

After Navy's 31-7 thumping of Cornell, however, the Terrapins may have trouble winning the championship of their own state. They meet the Middles, October 28.

Princeton Wins No. 24 Princeton, preparing for its key Ivy League clash with Penn next Saturday, rolled to a 61-19 victory over Rutgers, its 24th in a row, while Penn had to struggle to down Dartmouth, 7-0, on a 56-yard pass from Walt Hynoski to Bill Deuber.

Southern California, which hopes to dispute the Pacific Coast title with California and Stanford, solidified its eighth-place poll ranking with a 22-0 victory over game but outgunned Army, while Kansas, No. 9, whipped Colorado, 21-12.

If Wisconsin does falter in the Big Ten race, Purdue will be right on their heels. The Boiler-makers made a recovered fumble, blocked kick and intercepted pass off with a 21-14 victory over Ohio State, stretching their string of conference victories to four. They haven't lost to a conference foe since a 31-7 loss to Wisconsin last year, but the two aren't scheduled this year.

UT FILMS SCHEDULED Films of the University of Texas-North Carolina football game will be viewed by members of the Longhorn Club and Texas exes at 7:30 p.m. Monday in the Magnolia Building.

Week's Upset Registered By ACC Gridders

By The Associated Press For the first time in a month, Texas Conference football teams broke even in the win-loss column in their four games last week.

Abilene Christian chalked up its second victory in four games while Howard Payne registered its first triumph in three efforts, McMurry, winless in three efforts, managed for a tie. In the first month the conference teams have established a 218 mark in 16 games with non-conference opponents.

Abilene Christian pulled the upset of the week by tumbling powerful Midwestern University, 21-0, at Stamford. In their series with Midwestern, ACC has won four and tied one. Touchdown runs of Jimmy Birch in the second half led the ACC to victory.

Freshmen Triumphant Howard Payne's freshmen found the winning stride by tumbling East Central State of Ada, 28-7. McMurry tied Eastern New Mexico University at Portales, 7-7. Texas A&I dropped a 7-6 game to Fort Sam Houston at San Antonio.

Four games are scheduled in the final week before conference play opens October 18. Austin College tries the gargantuan feat—playing two games in a six-day period. Austin meets National University of Mexico in the Dallas Cotton Bowl Monday night and then Saturday night entertains the East Central State Tigers at Sherman.

Howard Payne meets Texas Lutheran at Seguin and Texas A&I plays Sam Houston State at Huntsville in Saturday's games. Abilene Christian and McMurry are open this week in preparation for their annual intra-city battle, October 18.

Auto Hits, Kills James Cunningham, Hurts Odessa Man

James Lofton Cunningham, 49, of Midland was killed early Sunday when he was struck by a car while walking across Highway 80 just east of the Odessa city limits. He was thrown 30 feet by the impact. The radiator was driven into the fan of the car.

A companion, W. O. Johnson, 48, of Odessa suffered a compound fracture of the right leg when struck by the car. Hospital attaches listed his condition as serious.

Cunningham's body was taken to his parents' home in Levelland Sunday by the Griffith Funeral Home. Services are pending.

Houston Reports Two New Cases Of Polio

HOUSTON—(AP)—Two new polio cases were reported to the city health department Monday.

The weekend cases include one each from the city and county. There are five "possible" victims listed by hospitals.

Cuban Holdup

"I'll make those guys catch a rabbit when I get back to Fort Worth." There's something rotten some place.

"There's a hell of a lot of this thing that hasn't come out in the newspapers. I'll make those guys eat 'a' words."

Whereabouts of the loot remained a $248,000 question Monday.

Police are working on the theory the fortune is cached in Oklahoma since the third wanted man, Sam Brown Cresap, 40, Fort Worth car salesman, was taken into custody less than an hour after the robbery.

The Cubans came to Fort Worth last week to buy munitions with $240,000 given to them by Carlos Prio Socarrá, ousted Cuban president, at New York City Wednesday.

The Fort Worth man and Jose Duarte, Cuban munitions expert who joined the Cubans later, went to Dallas Thursday night supposedly to inspect munitions.

Paul Norris remained behind and played cards with Madarega while De la Torre retired.

Steel Contracted For Wink-To-Coast Pipe Line Project

LOS ANGELES—(AP)—Consolidated Western Steel Division of U. S. Steel announced Monday it has completed firm agreements for 40 per cent of the pipe needed for a 960-mile crude oil pipe line from Wink, Texas, to Norfolk, Calif.

Consolidated said Ebasco Services Inc., New York, agents for West Coast Pipe Line Company has agreed to supply the 210,000 tons of 24 and 26-inch diameter pipe and deliveries are scheduled to begin by January.

Reformation Day Plans Expanded; Big Crowd Urged

Plans for the Reformation Day Service October 26 were expanded in a breakfast meeting of committee members Monday at the First Methodist Church.

An outstanding speaker is assured for the service at 3 p. m. in the high school auditorium, the Rev. R. J. Snell, chairman of arrangements, pointed out in reviewing committee assignments. Bishop Charles C. Seaman of the First Methodist Church will discuss "Why I Am a Protestant." He is a former president.

A widespread campaign shaped to publicize the Reformation Day Service. Regular media will be used, including press and radio. Church organizations including women's groups are to be enlisted in the move to bring out a record attendance.

McHargue Outlines Tideland Issue

Jim McHargue, former president of the Keep the Tideland Association, described means and objectives of that organization Monday afternoon at the weekly luncheon meeting of the Kiwanis Club.

McHargue asserted that the government doctrine of paramount rights "could well mean the doom of this country." He said his organization will campaign toward regaining the tidelands for the state.

The speaker was introduced by Frank Beznoli, program chairman. President Herschel Ezell presided. The meeting was conducted at the Cactus Club on West Highway 80.

Methodist Group Stages Walk-Out

MEMPHIS, TENN.—(AP)—The definition of "perfect love" has split the 50,000-member Evangelical Methodist Church.

An indefinite number of the 250 delegates to the annual conference walked out Sunday when Dr. W. W. Breckbill, Altoona, Pa., quit the church.

Breckbill followers said almost 100 joined the indignant exodus. Backers of Dr. J. H. Hamblen, Abilene, Texas, said the minority faction amounted to about 40.

Crane News

CRANE — Mr. and Mrs. B. L. Haley and daughter, Barbara, moved from Crane to Haskell where Haley will manage the movie theaters. Replacing Haley as manager of the theaters here will be Jimmy Winters, formerly of Haskell. The Crane High School handbooks have been distributed among the students according to an announcement by Student Council officials. The publication is sponsored by the Student Council.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugo Huffman were honored last week with a tea in the home of Mrs. Vernon Pettis. Mrs. Darrel Keltner was co-hostess. Mr. and Mrs. Huffman are moving to McCamey where he will serve as superintendent of the Upton County hospital.

The Fireman's Auxiliary held a make sale Saturday for the benefit of the Crane Iron lung fund. The Crane Well Servicing Company held its monthly safety meeting and family night recently in the Community Hall. Students of the Bethune School presented the program.

Mr. and Mrs. Hawley Van Court are among the West Texans attending the World Series in New York this week.

Dr. Edwin Parker, pastor of the First Methodist Church in Odessa, was the speaker Tuesday at the special service held in observance of the publication of the new Revised Standard Version of the Bible. His topic was "The Word of Life in Living Language."

The first edition of The Crane, high school newspaper, was issued last week under the direction of Paul Patterson, journalism teacher. The paper is published on alternate Tuesdays.

What Truman's Trip Costs Taxpayers Proves Too Complicated For AP Reporter

By ERNEST B. VACCARO
ABOARD TRUMAN TRAIN—(AP)—How much is President Truman's 8,500-mile, 24-state campaign tour for Adlai Stevenson costing the government?

This was the query, relayed to this correspondent about the 16-car special train taking the President from whistle stop to whistle stop coast-to-coast.

An editor of a newspaper wanted to know. The answer to that question is beyond the determination of a reporter without the power to subpoena witnesses and compel their testimony and time in which to record and weigh it.

The answer would involve a decision as to exactly where a political action starts and an official action begins.

Party Pays Part
It would require a complete record not only of the salaries of everyone aboard the "give 'em hell" presidential special, but of many others along the route it travels.

The Democratic National Committee has announced it is picking up the check for this 15-day speaking tour by Truman with an estimated figure of something under $25,000.

That apparently covers the railroad transportation, meals, hotel and other such expenses of the President, his speech writers, stenographers, secretaries, clerks and others.

It does not cover the expenses of the Secret Service men. The law requires that they be with the President at all times, wherever he is and whatever his mission, and no invitation is involved insofar as the National Committee is concerned.

Experts Are Needed
Whoever happens to be President at the time gets the advantage of the Secret Service protection in a campaign year. No political party could raise enough money to provide the services that fall by law to a President.

Because they must assure his protection at all times, they send out agents in advance to go every step of the route he must travel. How much is this service costing, in terms of salary, Pullman accommodations and per diem up to a maximum of $9 a day?

Truth Squad Says Truman Can't Blame GOP For 'Tragedies'

SAN FRANCISCO—(AP)—Three Republican senators accuse President of attempting to "unload some of his tragic errors in foreign policy" onto the shoulders of the GOP presidential candidate, Dwight D. Eisenhower.

Describing themselves as a "truth squad," Senators Homer Ferguson (Mich.), Bourke B. Hickenlooper (Iowa) and Francis Case (S. D.) issued a statement in answer to Truman's Saturday foreign policy speech in Oakland.

The President had charged that Eisenhower "was personally involved in our decisions about Berlin and Korea," which led to the Berlin blockade and the North Korean invasion.

"He can explain from now until doomsday," retorted the senators, "but the blame for Berlin and Korea is his. Mr. Truman cannot wipe out his facts. He cannot shift the blame to those who had no choice but to carry out and execute his foreign policy decisions."

R. Steele Johnson Named Director Of Power Association

R. Steele Johnson, who is in charge of power sales for the Midland District of the Texas Electric Service Company, was named a director of the Petroleum Electric Power Association at its twenty-fourth annual convention held last week in Tulsa, Okla.

Another Permian Basin Empire resident, George F. Buckles of Monahans, addressed the convention, speaking on the subject, "Advantages of Electric Power and Water Flooding Projects." Buckles is a consulting engineer.

Other featured speakers included H. B. Fell, executive vice president of the Independent Petroleum Association of America; Warren Baker, editorial director of "World Oil," Houston; Ted Workman, president of the Ted Workman Advertising Agency, Dallas, and other industry leaders.

"Government Is Your Business" was Fell's topic, while Baker spoke on the subject, "Oil's Future in the Southwest."

Kansas City, where the association was founded 24 years ago, was chosen as the meeting place for the 1953 Silver Anniversary convention.

Ridgway Says NATO Power 'Inadequate' To Deter Russians

NEW YORK—(AP)—Gen. Matthew B. Ridgway says the North Atlantic Treaty organization's military strength is "dangerously inadequate" and is surpassed by the Soviet Union's.

Ridgway and Dr. James B. Conant, president of Harvard, were honored Sunday night by Freedom House, a private organization dedicated to the "one world" idea of the late Wendell L. Willkie.

In his speech, which was recorded, the supreme Allied commander in Europe asserted that he rejected "as unjustified and dangerous and promise that potential aggressors do not want war, are not ready for war and will not precipitate war."

"There can be no excuse for any slackening of effort in building NATO defenses," Ridgway said, "until the present power ratio between Soviet capability for attack and ours for defense" swings to NATO's favor.

Stevenson Leaves Prosperity Theme, Talks Red Problem

SPRINGFIELD, ILL.—(AP)—Gov. Adlai E. Stevenson's campaign for the presidency reached a crossroads Monday with a shift in emphasis and issues.

From using a deft sharp needle largely around selling the idea that another Democratic election victory will mean continued prosperity, the Democratic nominee turned to drafting a major address on the menace of communism.

The prosperity theme ran through speeches Friday and Saturday in Ohio, Iowa and Minnesota. The communism issue, on the basis of present plans, is to be the topic of a major address in Detroit Tuesday night—the first major address of a five-day aerial sortie into seven states in the Midwest and Deep South.

From using a deft, sharp needle to jab at the GOP and at Republican candidate Dwight D. Eisenhower, Stevenson apparently has switched to a sledgehammer approach.

For its size, the praying mantis is one of the most predatory animals in existence. They have enormous appetites. An adult mantis has been known to eat 10 cockroaches in less than three hours.

You do not have to have an appointment with us to find out where our listings are. Just phone. The best buys, right now, are GI homes, for you get a 4 per cent loan and do not have to be a GI. You see what you are buying and know exactly what the cost is, and how much the payments are. Homes cost more, now, to build than one or two years ago. You get copper plumbing, extra, built up yards and most of them are on the pavement. Also close to schools.

AT LEAST, COMPARE BEFORE YOU BUY!

KEY, WILSON & MAXSON'S REAL ESTATE Bulletin Board
REPORTING THE TOP NEWS IN REAL ESTATE
As I was saying before space rudely cut me off... doesn't make much difference now. It SOLD.
THE GREATEST REWARD GIVEN TO YOURSELF and your family is a friendly home with friendly neighbors. Removed from the tumult and the scream of the city, this home invites the friendly phrase: "I'm going home." And this home means three spacious bedrooms, large and relaxing living room, separate dining room, family kitchen and a bath which is as large as most bedrooms. Two elongated porches, huge 2-car attached garage. Ever see pecan floors? This one has them, together with central heating and air-conditioning. 128x171, completely fenced in lawn—with tile brick. Eager water will feed the hungry landscaping. It is a source of pleasure to please you through this home. Escort by appointment only.
STOP BEATING YOUR WIFE. After all, maybe she hasn't heard of KEY, WILSON & MAXSON. Besides, she might not like it. But here's a home that can't be beat. Located in the N-W section, it's got the 3 bedrooms that you've been beefin' about, 1 1/2 baths, 32 feet of den-kitchen combination, and attached garage. Distributed heating, central air-conditioning, some carpeting. Rustic kitchen cabinets and hardware, and the den portion is paneled and has a picture window. Large corner lot with paved street. It's only a year old, and priced at $17,500.
I'M NOT PARTICULARLY ELOQUENT when it comes to ad writing, so I call this home the SMORGASBORD house—because it has a little bit of everything good in it. Neatly constructed of JOHNS-MANSVILLE asbestos (lowers the insurance rate), it has two nice-sized bedrooms, lovely large living room, charming bath. The kitchen is wainscoted in pearl MASONITE, and is about 18 feet in length. Beautiful oak floors, mahogany doors, and natural-finish woodwork throughout. It ain't even had one birthday yet! Even the price is a little bit $6,550. Can be handled for $1,750 down.
IS YOUR HOME A MODEL "T" House? Unlike wine, do not improve with age. Let's swap yours in on one which has nothing old about it except the builder's long experience. Constructed of rustic Grandbury stone (imported from that foreign town called Ft. Worth), it has 3 lovely bedrooms, large living room and dining room arrangement, delightfully designed tile bath, and attached garage. The kitchen is a dream in Technicolor, with tile wainscoting, natural-finish cabinets, pantry, rustic hardware, and is offset by a breakfast area. Large trellised rear patio overlooking deep lot. It's on Michigan $17,500.
DID YOU LOSE BY BETTING ON THE World Series? Well, here's where you can save enough to lose for the next 50 years. Located on a lot big enough for a baseball diamond (or putting green), this exquisitely attractive pink brick home has two huge bedrooms (one is 15 feet and the other is 15x17), a 13x25 delightful living room with simulated fireplace, full dining room, and a DREAM kitchen (with picture window in the breakfast area). Pastel-colored bath fixtures, diversified heating, washer connection, and Vent-A-Hood. Copious water well, fenced yard, crescent driveway to front door. The luxurious carpeting humbly bends to your every step. You will feel proud of this purchase at $17,500.
POT POURRI (1) 2 bedroom Haydie brick in Town North. Only $11,966 down on a full price of $8,730.
(2) Magnificent 3 bedroom and 2 tile bath priced at $28,500 and can be purchased for $7,500 and assume 4 1/2% loan.
(3) Lovely 3-bedroom on E. Estes with beautiful lawns and 50 trees, priced at exceedingly low $10,900.
(4) Attractive 2-bedroom asbestos home with rental unit in rear yard which rents out for $50 per month, priced bargain-basement at $10,500.
(5) A 2 bedroom beauty on Oak with Youngtown features, attached garage, all in excellent condition, priced at $10,500. Many others for your BEST deal. It takes but one phone call to locate the best in Midland.

WTCC Convention To Talk Soil, Water, Oil Problems

WICHITA FALLS—Surface water resources legislation and conservation-management programs operating in West Texas will be top subjects of the 35th annual convention of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce here October 19-21.

J. B. Thomas of Fort Worth, chairman of the state-wide water committee just activated by Gov. Allan Shivers, will be one of the principal speakers on the convention program. He is credited with initiating the movement that led to creation of the Colorado River Municipal Water District to provide water for Big Spring, Odessa and Snyder. The district's reservoir on the Colorado River has been named Lake J. B. Thomas.

Frank H. Kelley of Colorado City, WTCC president, has announced that "soil, water and oil" will be the basic subjects for study and discussion.

Other speakers will include J. S. Bridwell of Wichita Falls, soil conservation crusader; Dr. W. R. White, president of Baylor University, Waco, and Dr. William W. Fifield, pastor of the First Congregational Church, Los Angeles. Dr. White will deliver the sermon in union church services at the First Methodist Church at 7:30 p.m., October 19, and Dr. Fifield will speak at a banquet at Midwestern University Monday evening.

Convention registration will begin at 1:30 p.m. Sunday at the Kemp Hotel. Early arrivals will attend a buffet supper there at 6:30 p.m. Sunday.

"JEEP" HELICOPTER MAKES ITS BOW—This is the American Helicopter Company's radically new HX-36 helicopter, making its first public appearance at Torrance, Calif. The tiny aluminum craft, weighing less than 300 pounds, is powered by pulse-jet engines at the ends of its rotor blade. Designed for one-man military reconnaissance, the collapsible 'copter can carry more than its own weight at 80 miles per hour.

Supreme Court Reconvenes To Face Weighty Decisions

WASHINGTON—(AP)—Confronted by legal controversies of far-reaching importance, the Supreme Court reassembled Monday to start another historic term.

The eight-month session is expected to produce a ruling on the old and burning issue of segregation of negro and white children in public schools. Negro parents in two appeals have asked the tribunal to strike down segregation as an unconstitutional "badge of inferiority."

A decision also is looked for in one major phase of the hot issue of public vs. private power development. The court has agreed to rule whether private industry or the federal government should build a big hydroelectric plant at Roanoke Rapids, N. C.

In appeals filed during the Summer recess, the court has been asked to grant hearings on these issues: Conviction of Julius Rosenberg and his wife on charges of being atom spies. If denied a hearing, only President Truman can save them from execution in New York's Sing Sing Prison.

The right of the Atlantic Coast Line Railroad and other Southern lines to require segregation of negro and white passengers in coaches. Constitutionality of the new federal law requiring gamblers to buy a $50 tax stamp.

Validity of the new Federal Lobbying Act, which was intended to regulate persons and organizations seeking to influence congressional legislation.

First Session Formalities
The right of Dr. Edward A. Rumeley to deny to Congress the names of purchasers of books put out by his Committee for Constitutional Government.

By long tradition, Monday opening sessions are mere formalities. The court will admit attorneys to practice, hear anew routine motions, and then adjourn for a week.

During the week the justices will hold closed door conferences to discuss the appeals filed during their vacation time. Their decisions on which cases will be reviewed will be announced the following Monday.

Dr. W. A. Felsing, UT Professor, Dies

AUSTIN—(AP)—Funeral services were held Monday for Dr. William A. Felsing, 61, University of Texas professor of chemistry, who died Sunday.

A native of Denton, Dr. Felsing had been a member of the university faculty 35 years.

Dr. Felsing was the author of several scientific works. In World War I he served with the chemical warfare branch and in World War II he was with the Underwater Sound Laboratory at Harvard.

Colonel Post Dies; Pioneer In Aviation

NEW YORK—(AP)—Col. Augustus T. Post, 78, pioneer of the air and gasoline age, died here Saturday night.

He became an advocate of balloon travel in 1900 after going aloft in a 52-passenger balloon.

For years he piloted racing motorcycles and automobiles, and he was the thirteenth man to fly a plane in this country.

Swiss Mountaineers Begin Final Effort To Conquer Everest

NEW DELHI, INDIA—(AP)—Six Swiss mountain climbers toiled up the bleak slopes of unopened Mt. Everest Monday for a final struggle toward the snow-covered summit, five and a half miles high.

No man has ever climbed this world's tallest peak and returned to tell about it.

It was the second attempt this year for the Swiss party. One of the team, Raymond Lambert, climbed to within 900 feet of the summit May 28 before fierce storms drove him back.

The six men left their base camp, 12,200 feet up in the high Himalayas, Sunday. Two men will be chosen at the last advance camp to make the final effort to reach the top.

Their success or failure likely will remain unknown to the world for at least three weeks after their final climb toward the peak. Their only means of communication is by special runners from the base camp to Katmandu, Nepal's capital, 170 miles away.

Nine previous unsuccessful assaults have been made on the peak.
