Devonian DST Flows Oil At Yoakum Test

Amerada Petroleum Corporation and associates No. 1 L. R. Weems, Central-West Yoakum County wildcat, 14 miles west of Plains and only a short distance east of the New Mexico line flowed 79.71 barrels of 43-gravity oil in four hours through a five-eighth-inch bottom hole coker from perforated section at 11,850-860 feet in the Devonian.

This was the first flow this wildcat has made from the Devonian which was topped at 11,692 feet. The section from 11,692 feet to 11,850 feet has not yet been tested.

Devonian Cored
The entire Devonian formation so far cut was cored. The cores all showed good signs of possible production. Operators did not try a drillstem test in the Devonian until the casing had been set at the current total depth of 11,880 feet.

The testing was delayed on account of dangers of caving hole and possibilities of other complications if tests had been undertaken in the long section of open hole.

Mississippi Oil
This wildcat has shown for profitable flowing production from the Mississippi. It produced more than 360 barrels of oil in three hours and 23 minutes in a drillstem test in the Mississippi at 11,020-11,095 feet.

No other sections of the Mississippi were drillstem tested.

Since finding the flowing oil and no water in the bottom of the Devonian section which has been penetrated, operators may decide to drill deeper and determine how much Devonian pay the wildcat has above the water level in that formation.

Elevation is 3,813 feet. Top of the Mississippi is at 10,960 feet.

SE Of Gladola
The important Yoakum discovery is six miles southeast of the Gladola field of Northeast Lea County, New Mexico, which has production from the Wolfcamp-Permian, the Pennsylvanian and from the Devonian.

Location is 1,980 feet from south and 690 feet from west lines of section 403, block D, John H. Gibson survey.

Gas To Surface
On the drillstem test in the Devonian through the perforations at 11,850-860 feet, the packer was set at 11,830 feet, up inside the 5 1/2-inch casing which is cemented on bottom at 11,860 feet.

Gas surfaced in 26 minutes and oil came to the top in 66 minutes. The flow of 79.71 barrels of oil came in the next four hours. There were an additional 47/100 of one barrel of basic sediment and 3.40 barrels of drilling mud produced during the four hours.

There were no signs of formation water. Gas-oil ratio was 93-1. Operator was pulling the drill pipe at last report.

Livermore Stakes Shallow Wildcat In SW Lea Area

George P. Livermore will start operations at once on a shallow wildcat in Southwest Lea County. It will be drilled as No. 1-A State, 660 feet from south and west lines of section 1-18-33e.

It is slated for a 4,800-foot bottom.

Location Of Shallow Wildcat In Andrews Changed By Operator

Union-Sulphur & Oil Corporation has filed an amended application with the Railroad Commission of Texas changing the location of its No. 1 Nola Fisher, slated 5,000-foot wildcat in Central-North Andrews County.

Corrected location of the prospector is to be 1,980 feet from south and 690 feet from east lines of section 3, block A-36, psi survey.

Shivers Says Ike To Carry Texas

Adlai Pledges Cooperation Of Government, Enterprise

ENROUTE WITH STEVENSON IN PENNSYLVANIA—(AP)—Gov. Adlai Stevenson pledged Thursday if elected President he would strive to end the "noisy and unnecessary" war between government and business.

The Democratic presidential nominee, in the second day of a whistle stop tour through the farm, mining and industrial areas of important Pennsylvania, told a cheering crowd at Reading there was no basis to claim that businessmen are reactionaries. Asserting that the nation's businessmen are too often neglected during political campaigns, Stevenson said flatly in this Democratic stronghold—the city went almost two-to-one for President Truman in 1948—that "America cannot survive without prosperous business."

He denied there was any of "the creeping, crawling socialism that shows up in Republican oratory."

A brand new wave of optimism swept through the Stevenson camp as he "poured it on" the Republicans. Democratic optimism increased on the heels of a Stevenson charge that Eisenhower was conducting what he labeled a cynical search for votes on proposals for ending the Korean war.

This spurs its spirit came as Democratic leaders sniffed a possible victory next Tuesday from what they interpret as a last-minute surge of sentiment toward Stevenson. Predicts Victory

Court Hearing Set On Attempt To Fix Grid Game's Score

WASHINGTON—(AP)—A municipal judge Thursday put off until November 20 hearing of an extradition claim by the State of Maryland against a University of Maryland student charged with trying to fix a football game.

Government attorneys argued for the delay in order to give Maryland authorities time to prepare extradition papers. Maryland officials want the student, Louis Leonard Glickfield, to answer charges that he tried to bribe a Maryland football star to fix a game last Saturday.

Glickfield did not say a word during the brief hearing before Judge Nadine L. Gallagher. The 21-year-old junior from Hyattsville, Md., surrendered to police here Wednesday night and then was freed in $1,000 bail.

Westbrook, Ousted By Demos, Is Well Known In WT Area

WACO—(AP)—A lot of folks in Central and West Texas know Col. Lawrence Westbrook, ousted assistant chairman of the Democratic National Committee.

The 61-year-old Westbrook, small, balding and bespectacled, once was in the cotton buying business at Waco and operated one of the area's first farm cooperatives.

He served in the Legislature from 1928-1932. Westbrook has relatives in Central Texas and Lorena was named for an aunt who died recently.

During his two terms in the Legislature, he became chairman of the House Agriculture Committee. While heading that committee, he organized the Texas Cotton Cooperative Association.

University officials at College Park, Md., a suburb of Washington, said three bribe offers were made to hold down the score against Louisiana State University in last Saturday's game. They said the other players who told of being approached—now mentioned in the warrant—were Quarterback Jack Scarbath of Baltimore, a top contender for All-America honors, and Frank Navarro of White Plains, N. Y., senior first-string offensive guard.

According to signed statements by the three players, the student approached them individually and offered them a total of $1,500 to win by less than 21 points. This method—controlling the point spread—was a feature of the recent basketball fix scandals.

Four Koreans Killed In Prison Break Try

PUSAN, KOREA—(AP)—Four Koreans were killed and three wounded Thursday when 114 former guerrillas attempted a mass prison escape.

Guards quelled the riot after 45 minutes by firing into prisoners who were attempting to break into a weapons storehouse.

LONDON—(AP)—Foreign Secretary Anthony Eden Thursday said he will fly to New York November 7 to take over leadership of Britain's UN delegation and pay his respects to the American President-elect.

CHESTER, ILL.—(AP)—Acting Illinois Gov. Sherman Dixon expressed strong hope Thursday that 322 mutinous but hungry convicts would end their rebellion, now in its fourth day, at Menard State Prison and release their seven hostages without harm.

SAIGON—(AP)—A typhoon with winds of 120 miles an hour struck the central Indochinese coast Thursday.

LONDON—(AP)—Diplomats and oil men in dusty Saudi Arabia faced a hard Winter Thursday as British sources announced the government there has banned import of any alcoholic liquors, even by diplomatic missions.

Chinese Launch Heaviest Attack Of Hill Warfare

SEOUL—(AP)—About 2,000 Chinese Communists Thursday night hurled probably the biggest attack in weeks at Triangle Hill, even as Allied infantry threw other Reds from the top of nearby Sniper Ridge.

The battle raged into its eighteenth day with no sign of letup. Through the charge and countercharge of ground forces, artillery of both sides churned both central front heights with possibly the heaviest fire of the war.

Torch Death Of Midlander Ruled Suicide

A formal verdict of suicide was entered Thursday in the death Tuesday afternoon of Mrs. Harward Fisher, 29-year-old Midland housewife whose charred body was found on a joppy road seven miles south of the city.

County Attorney Reagan Legg reported that an investigation, including an autopsy, revealed no indications of foul play. Legg said the autopsy was ordered as a routine measure after it appeared that Mrs. Fisher had taken her life by dousing her clothes with gasoline and setting herself afire.

The suicide verdict was entered Thursday morning by Justice of the Peace L. C. Stephenson. Mrs. Fisher's body was forwarded Wednesday afternoon to Woodville for services and interment.

Survivors include the husband, a geologist for University Lands here, and two daughters.

French Push Back Vietnam Commies

HANOI, INDOCHINA—(AP)—French forces crossed the Black River 40 miles northwest of Hanoi Thursday and moved into a village six miles beyond which was destroyed in fighting with the Communist-led Vietminh early last year.

Cities Endangered By Forest Blazes

By The Associated Press
Forest fires continued to plague the East Texas pineclads Thursday and sent chilling terror into towns caught in the path of the leaping flames.

Lufkin, East Texas city of sizeable proportions, narrowly missed a destructive fire, according to a Forest Service report.

District 3 Forester Chief W. W. Talbert said, "If the wind had been right that fire would have swept right through Lufkin and nothing could have stopped it."

It was speaking of the smaller of two disastrous fires extinguished in his district Wednesday. One, in San Augustine County, burned about 3,000 acres and was put out after a two-day battle. The other was a small fire which burned over about 15 acres only two miles north of Lufkin.

Police 'Lose Scent' In Letter Mystery

AUSTIN—(AP)—Police Thursday had "lost the scent" in the mystery of the perfumed letter. A final report on chemical tests at the Department of Public Safety said Wednesday no poison was found in the scented letter they have had under study five days.

City Detective Fred Hooper said the case has not been closed but police are stumped. The letter was mailed to the International Life Insurance Company by a woman in Georgia. While it was being handled in the company's offices Friday, a number of employees became ill, suffering nausea, headaches and pains in the backs of their necks. Four were hospitalized.

There was no direct evidence to connect the letter and the illness. Hooper said checks have been made of gas and air conditioning in the building but no defects were found.

Biggest Vote In All State's History Seen

AUSTIN—(AP)—Gov. Allan Shivers Thursday predicted flatly Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower will carry Texas. In a press conference, the governor also scored government loans to millionaires and said he was "not surprised" at another five per cent deal in the Truman Administration.

"I think General Eisenhower is picking up considerably. I think the trend toward him is larger than I expected," he said, adding:

"I think Eisenhower will carry the state and that it will be the biggest vote the state has ever seen."

On the matter of government loans, Shivers said the Export-Import Bank, a government agency, had on October 17 granted a $3,664,000 loan to the Pan American Sulphur Company, headed by Houston millionaire J. R. Parten.

He said the National Democratic Campaign Committee had announced several days ago Parten and his associates have contributed several thousands of dollars to the Democratic campaign.

Strange Time For Loan
"It is strange in view of the campaign contributions of Parten and his associates that a $3,500,000 loan should be granted just before the election," Shivers said.

Shivers said the Parten company for which the loan was granted operates in Mexico and Parten is financially able to spend his own money on it if he thought the venture was a sound one.

"I don't think government money—tax money—should be used for a venture of that kind when the man is able to use his own money. It is that kind of thing that has caused criticism—the government making loans private business does not consider a good risk," the governor said.

Shivers commented that "the entire affair is regrettable" in the involvement of Col. Lawrence Westbrook in the alleged "five per cent" deal in a tungsten government contract and his being fired as assistant chairman of the National Democratic Committee.

Sorry For Westbrook
"I feel sorry for Mr. Westbrook. I have known him 15 or 20 years," the governor said.

"I regret that a matter of this kind came up."
Then he added:
"I can easily understand that long association with the Truman Administration would lead him to believe that a little thing like a matter of five per cent of $9,000,000 would be perfectly all right."

Absentee Vote Total Skyrockets To 1,226

Midland County's absentee vote totaled 1,226 Thursday morning, according to County Clerk Roselle Cherry.

Of this number, 465 persons had voted in the office and 731 ballots had been mailed out by request. Absentee balloting for the November 4 general election is to continue through Friday.

ACTOR IS DEMOCRAT FOR EISENHOWER— Randolph Scott Adds Voice To Ike's Cause In Midland

Western movie star Randolph Scott galloped onto the Texas political scene Tuesday, arriving in Midland with some decided opinions on the forthcoming presidential election.

He wasn't wearing two six-shooters, and he didn't have his cowboy boots or ten-gallon hat on, but he was ready to "hoot it out" in the battle of words over the political situation.

Scott is a strong "Democrat for Eisenhower," and one of the major reasons for his visit here in West Texas is to lend support to the movement for Ike. He is accompanied by A. A. Cameron, owner of the Cameron Oil Company in Midland. Both of the California residents are strong supporters of the Eisenhower ticket.

The famous Hollywood actor is a big, rugged-looking individual, even in the conservative business clothes he wears in Midland. He estimated that in 20 years in the movie industry he has made close to 75 films, chiefly of the western variety. It was his first trip to Midland in three years, and he said "I think the growth of the city is amazing."

He stated his main reason for support of the Republican candidate for president in his own words as, "I want to preserve the two-party system primarily." He predicted a complete disintegration of the Republican party should they fail to win the coming presidential election. He said people should place loyalty to country above party, and vote Ike.

Cites National Debt
Scott had some pertinent thoughts on the national political picture, showing his keen observation of trends in American politics. He pointed out the case of the overwhelming victory of Senator Taft in the Ohio senatorial race as an encouraging factor for the Republican chances in the presidential contest. And he quoted McCarthy's primary victory as a trend.

He mentioned the national debt of this country as being $1,760 per capita at this time, and he believed that government spending could not be permitted to continue unchecked. He said that Truman has been telling the people that there is no mess in Washington, while Stevenson goes about saying he will clean up the capital city if he is elected.

He believes the women's vote will be a major factor in the coming election, giving as an example the influence they had in the repeal of the prohibition law.

The Western star's latest release is "Hangman's Knot" which is scheduled to be shown next month. Asked if he had been "typed" in the Western roles for his movie career, he gave examples of pictures he had played in that were not of that class, such as "Favorite Wife" and the "Shores of Tripoli," a war picture.

The actor flew to San Angelo Thursday and was expected to return to Midland Friday.

He will be at Hotel Scharbauer until Sunday, when he plans to return to California.

SO SOLLY, WRONG DATE

VANCOUVER, B. C.—For 30 years, Japanese horticulturists have been trying to grow an orange that will ripen in time for the Canadian Thanksgiving trade. This year they thought they did it.

A Japanese businessman arrived here Thursday with 40,000 cases of the fruit—only to find that the Canadian Thanksgiving was October 13, almost seven weeks in advance of two weeks ahead of the American holiday.

The businessman said somebody in his Tokyo office handed him the lemon—the wrong date.

Hayden, Confessed Ex-Red, Continues Filmdom Career

HOLLYWOOD—What happens to an actor's career after he confesses he had been a Communist?

Some actors have fallen to obscurity, others have managed to continue their careers. One of the latter is Sterling Hayden, the tall, rugged ex-seaman who testified last year in Washington that he had been a member of the Communist party for six months in 1946.

Hayden has always been free to speak his mind, so I directed some pointed questions at him:

How did the Washington headlines affect his career immediately afterward?

"If anything, I was in a better position than I was before," he replied. "Before I had testified, there was a cloud over my name, a sort of uncertainty about whether I was 'safe' or not. Producers were naturally afraid to cast me. Afterward, everything was out in the open."

Job At Paramount

"As to the immediate reaction, I don't know. Nobody wanted to hire me, because they didn't know how public opinion would turn. I never heard of any producers who said they would not hire me. There may have been some, but my agent didn't tell me of any."

How did the situation break?

"I went to Y. Frank Freeman head of Paramount, where he had previously been under contract and told him I needed a job. After I left, he called the talent department and then called me. He said the only part he could offer me was a heavy in an adventure picture. He said it would be less money than I had been getting, but if I wanted the job, I could have it. I took it."

Since then he has worked almost steadily. He has made eight pictures in a row, including "The Star" with Bette Davis and his current "Flame of Timberlane" with Ann Sheridan.

Little Reaction

"What was the personal reaction to his confession of Red membership?"

"With two exceptions, I have had no adverse comment made to me personally. The two exceptions were a couple of guys I know in San Pedro and whom I suspect of still being Commies."

"I have had no adverse reaction on the tours I have made all over the country for Compo (the film industry's public relations campaign). As a matter of fact, I found that people generally were unaware of the issue of communism in Hollywood."

"Once it came up during a forum some of us were attending at a drama festival in Rochester, N. Y., someone asked about communism in Hollywood and we had previously agreed that I would answer such a question if it came up. I talked for 10 or 15 minutes on the subject and got a nice hand when I sat down."

Special Funds For Politics Also Taboo In Beauty Race

HOUSTON—(NEA)—Even the candidates for beauty queen are feeling the 1952 campaign heat that's been fanned up over special political funds.

On the campus of the University of Houston, for instance, they take such matters so seriously that a pretty politico named Marian Stafford is being courted.

Nobody would call Marian an "average Joe" without connections. A seasoned office-holder on the campus, where she's a senior art major, Marian has served as ROTC Band Sweetheart, yearbook beauty, junior class secretary and vice president of the sophomore class.

When she ran for Homecoming Queen, she felt about it the way presidential candidates feel about the White House. It was the one contest she'd "rather win more than any other in the world."

She was doing fine, too, until a couple of days before election. Then the roof fell in. The Election Council voted up accounts and said Marian was out.

"It was like a court," she said. "I didn't know I had spent even $15, but they figured differently."

She Used Left-Overs

She figured she didn't have to count the stuff she didn't pay for. The Election Council figured differently.

"I haven't done anything wrong. I just didn't understand the rules," said Marian.

Which proves she knows how to make a political statement, even if she didn't get to be queen.

It wasn't her platform, which is five feet, two inches of shapeliness, topped by long platinum-blond curls. Marian was ruled off the ticket

Movies' Uncertain Love Bugs Have Their 'Outs' And Innings

By ERSKINE JOHNSON

Exclusively Yours: Vera-Ellen is all steamed up over the reports that she will wed MGM's Dean Miller in a matter of months. Not true at all, Vera is snapping. . . . It may not be serious bickering, but the walls of the Leslie Caron-George Hormel vine-covered cottage are shaking.

Jane Wyman has licked that kidney ailment completely and her medics say that major surgery won't be necessary.

Eye-popping sidelight on the date of Actra Dahl and Fernando Lama: Ariens and Lana Turner don't care for each other. The feud started during Ariens' days at MGM.

Considering the youthfulness of Jacques Bergerac, Ginger Rogers' French boy friend, Alan Wilson is wondering whether she will marry him or adopt him.

Edgar Bergen's blushing. He was made a member of the Military Order of Cooties, an honorary AEF veterans organization by Michigan Gov. G. Mennen Williams. But a Los Angeles newspaper printed it as Military Order of Cuties.

Babe Blum, Jack Benny's sister-in-law, and Alan Nixon, ex-hubby of Marie Wilson, ducked the "Marriage, anyone?" question when I spotted them.

"Ask him," said Babe.

Alan told me, "When she gets her divorce, it will be time to talk about marriage."

Bouquet From Leo

Leo Durocher plays himself opposite Tallulah Bankhead in "Main Street to Broadway." The day she started work in the film she received a bouquet from Leo with a note reading:

"The players make me look like a great manager. You can make me look like a great actor."

Zsa Zsa Gabor, on whether she's saving any money:

"Heavens no. I want to live well while I'm young."

Aside to Charles Boyer: Avoid those bearded character roles, quick. You're still in the romantic league and "Don Juan in Hell" proves it.

Louis Cathern is writing a hush-hush book that he describes as "a lot of junk, some of which will be publishable," but he denies that it's anything like the waspish autobiography that his ex-wife, Ika Chase, penned once upon a time.

"Everything that Ika said about me in that book was true and I couldn't deny any of it," the proud-beaked, towering actor shrugged on the set of MGM's "Julius Caesar."

"Odd thing about Ika's book, though. All my ex-wives and ex-sweethearts were in a high dudgeon over the things she said about me. They were all going to lynch Ika for it."

Sultry Mary Castle is denying that she and screenwriter Cy Barrett have set a marriage date.

"The Life of Lili" is being scripted by Oscar Saul of Columbia—the same studio that hit the pack-pot with its Chopin life story, "A Song to Remember."

Selznick Tops King

David O. Selznick is the winner and Director King Vidor the loser in their bitter vendetta over "Ruby Gentry." It was Selznick who directed the final cutting of the picture in which his wife, Jennifer Jones, stars. . . . Comic Gil Lamb is shelving the strictly-for-laughs career blueprints for a straight character role in MGM's "Ghost of a Chance."

Oh, no! A Hollywood theater marquee reads:

80 Cents—Any Time.

Run for the hills. Sam Kataman's forthcoming "The Planet Men" will show flying saucers over the White House, platoons of human robots, and a Dr. Grood from the outer spaces trying mass hypnotism on all earth dwellers.

Well, shut my mouth. Ava Gardner, in the current issue of Motion Picture magazine, confesses that Artie Shaw persuaded her to go to a psychoanalyst, that he offered to pay for six months of her analysis at the time of their divorce, and that she's been going to the tell-me-all expert ever since. I wonder what he's telling her about her marriage to Frankie.

Ruth Conte, wife of Richard Conte, watched hubby kiss Linda Christian for a scene in "Slaves of Babylon" at Columbia, then remarked:

"Now I know how he looks. I've been kissing him for 10 years with my eyes closed."

BEAUMONT—(P)—The trial of three men charged with conspiracy in the theft and conversion of government property from the merchant marine mothball fleet near here began Wednesday.

Defendants Manuel Gonzales, former superintendent of the reserve fleet; Howard J. Gray, former fleet captain, and Emile Schmidt, New Orleans rope dealer, are charged with converting surplus rope on the ships to their own use.

Three witnesses called by the prosecution Thursday described preparing the surplus rope on the ships for sale.

Seven Schools Plan Halloween Events Thursday

Last minute preparations were underway Thursday morning at seven of Midland's public schools where Parent-Teacher Organization units will sponsor annual Halloween carnivals Thursday night.

Annual Halloween events in all the city's schools were scheduled to avoid conflict with the Midland-Ablene football game Friday night. Schools planning Thursday night carnivals include Lamar, S. A. Houston, Terminal, North, David Rockett, South and West. Most of the carnivals will start at 6 or 6:30 p.m. A booth for the Ruth Byrley Pre-School P-TA is to be included in most of the carnivals.

Cowden Junior High School will hold a Halloween supper from 5 until 7:30 p.m. Friday in the school cafeteria, preceding the football game. A supper at 6 p.m. and talent show at 8 p.m. Saturday night are planned at Midland High School.

Opening the series of Halloween events in the public schools was a family night last week in San Jacinto Junior High School.

Theater Opens Final Rehearsals For New Play

Finishing touches are being worked into lines, settings and costumes as the final week of rehearsals gets underway for the Midland Community Theater production, "The Madwoman of Chaillof."

Performances are scheduled for November 5, 6, 7 and 8 in the City-County Auditorium. A dress rehearsal is to be held Sunday evening and there will be a special performance for Midland's negro residents on Tuesday.

A humorous fantasy, "Madwoman" has been compared with "Alice in Wonderland" by one New York drama critic. There is an undercurrent of philosophical thought in the play, which however, may be enjoyed for its humor and entertainment alone if the individual viewer wishes.

Conflict of the plot is between two antagonistic groups. One is a group of "unscrupulous" persons who try to drill for oil in the city of Paris. The other is a group referred to as "the little people," described as "pure in heart, even if dirty of limb or vague of purpose."

Tickets for the production will be on sale next week at Tailorline Clothes, Inc.

Burvin Hines Is Civil Defense Speaker At Study Club Meet

Burvin Hines, assistant manager of the Midland Chamber of Commerce, was the featured speaker for the civil defense program given for the Twentieth Century Study Club Tuesday afternoon in the home of Mrs. W. G. Epley, 1700 West Louisiana Street.

Branding Communism as the threat that necessitates a vigilant civil defense program, Hines listed four types of possible attack—atomic warfare, bacteriological warfare, radiological warfare and traditional, historical techniques of war.

Stressing the need to step up civil defense activities, Hines pointed out that, in the case of an emergency, Midland could be considered a good possibility for an evacuation center.

Mentioning ways Midlanders can help in the program, Hines stressed that one of the most important steps is to develop the right mental attitude—to keep informed on world and national conditions and on what to do in emergencies.

He also mentioned the need for first aid training, explaining that qualified instructors are available in Midland.

Names Coordinator
He reminded club members that the state coordinator for state defense and disaster relief is W. L. McGill of Austin.

Hines, who was graduated from Abilene Christian College, Abilene, and attended Texas Technological College, Lubbock, majored in political science and business administration.

He served as a special agent for the Counter Intelligence Corps on the East Coast and in Europe for three years and completed the advance counter intelligence course in 1951 in Baltimore, Md.

Also featured on the Tuesday program was Genoa Cole, Sweetwater author, who discussed the spiritual aspects of freedom from fear, stressing that happy homes are the basic weapon in the fight against fear.

Mrs. Cole has published a number of religious short stories as well as a book which is a resume of the Bible. She was graduated from Mary Hardin-Baylor College in Belton and the Baptist Seminary in Fort Worth.

Mrs. Frank Key was in charge of the program and Mrs. James O. Simmons, Jr., was co-hostess for the afternoon.

During the business session, Mrs. R. L. Merrill, Americanism chairman, urged members to aid in the get-out-vote campaign. The club is cooperating with the campaign of the General Federation of Women's Club's asking that each federated clubwoman be responsible for getting ten other people to vote in the Tuesday election.

To Aid Austria
Mrs. Robert Donnell, international affairs chairman, announced that members are to bring articles to the next meeting of the club to be sent in a Christmas package to the old Ladies Home Club in Austria. Among the items needed, she said,

RUTH MILLETT We Could All Reap Profit Copying This Generous Act

Maybe you recently read of the generous, open-hearted gesture of a small-town physician.

When the people of his town arranged a big celebration to honor the doctor who had cared for them in sickness for 44 years, gave him presents and publicly thanked him for his service to the community, the 72-year-old doctor rose to his feet and instead of trying to express his pleasure only in words, said: "As of this date, I cancel all indebtedness that may be owed me. We'll start all over again, all of us together, for another 44 years."

That generous gesture must have had a wonderful effect on the man who made it and on those who were in his debt.

And yet, generous as it was, it probably cost him little in actual money. For bad debts usually have to be written off in the end.

The real worth of the doctor's gesture wasn't in relieving those who owed him of the necessity for paying him the money they owed. Many would probably never have paid anyhow. The real worth of what the doctor did was in relieving them of the feeling that they did owe him something.

And at the same time, of course, he relieved himself of the feeling that there were those who owed him.

With one gesture he wiped the slate clean.

All of us, at any time in our lives, could with the same kind of generous gesture wipe the slate clean of all the things we think others owe us and never have repaid, of all past hurts and disappointments in others, of all past failures and disappointments in ourselves.

With one sweeping gesture we could say to ourselves: "As of this date, I wipe the slate clean and start anew."

REDS 'IRREFUTABLE EVIDENCE'—These are portions of "confessions" of American airmen Enoch and Quinn as they appeared in the Communist press. Circled words typify the stock Commie phrases which appear over and over again, ludicrous to any American—but fine for Red Internal consumption.

Finletter Says 'Brainwashing' Technique For 'Confessions' Blackest Mark On Reds

WASHINGTON—(AP)—Secretary of Air Force Finletter said Thursday the extraction of "confessions" from Allied prisoners of war is one of the blackest marks against Communism.

"All members of the American armed forces, and particularly those of the U. S. Air Force, feel an intense revulsion against Chinese Communist methods of forcing false confessions from their victims to provide grist for the Communist propaganda mill," Finletter said in a statement.

"These barbaric methods of endeavoring to 'brain-wash' the minds of soldiers for propaganda purposes are among the blackest marks yet recorded against the Communist regime."

Finletter commented in answer to queries about a charge by the Air Force Association in Air Force Magazine last week that the Communists tortured two U. S. fliers into making false confessions that they took part in germ warfare.

The fliers are Lt. John S. Quinn, 30, Altadena, Calif., and Lt. Kenneth L. Enoch, 27, Youngstown, Ohio. They have been listed as missing in action since their B-28 bomber was lost on a night mission in North Korea last January 13.

Each Point Forces "There is no doubt in anyone's mind that the testimony of Lt. Enoch, for example, was 'forced on every single point,'" Finletter said.

The Communists have circulated photographs of a statement, apparently written by Enoch, saying in part:

"I am beginning to see very clearly just who is the peace lover and who is the warmonger responsible for this inhuman war, and I am determined to struggle for peace against Wall Street capitalism, to clear my conscience of my past crimes."

The article about the fliers called attention to the striking similarity among the extracted "confessions," as published in the Russian radio and press—and to repeated use of Communist stock phrases.

It frankly presented no new evidence that the confessions had been forced.

Other members attending were Mrs. Gilliam Abbott, Billie June Balch, Mrs. Paul E. Haskins, Dorthea Hendricks, Mrs. R. B. Hillin, Mrs. L. R. Lay, Tess Martin, Ruth Slatton and Lunelle Zeek.

Texas Officer Slain In Hill Battle Cited For Medal Of Honor

SEOUL (Delayed by Censor)—(AP)—A Texan who led the charge that carried the U. S. Seventh Infantry Division to the top of Triangle Hill has been recommended for the Medal of Honor.

The heroism of Lt. W. C. Knapp of Lufkin, Texas, was described Wednesday by a Seventh Division officer.

The Seventh was attacking for the second day on the height north of Kumhwa on the Korean central front. The division was pinned down by fierce Chinese artillery fire blast-the height. Lieutenant Knapp rallied his assault company of the 31st Infantry Regiment and led it through heavy fire to win the all-important foothold on the top of the Triangle.

The main Seventh Division force followed. It took over the hill and held.

But Lieutenant Knapp didn't see the end of the battle. He was killed by Communist artillery fire.

Knapp was recommended for the Medal of Honor by his battalion commander.

The Chicago Daily News said the latest odds quoted are seven to five that Ike will win over Stevenson next Tuesday. That means a $7 bet on Eisenhower would win $5 if the general is elected.

A $10 bet on Stevenson would win $11.

Monahans Baby Dies When Fire Razes Apartment

MONAHANS—A six-month-old boy burned to death in his bed Wednesday when fire destroyed a six-unit Monahans apartment house.

He was James Jacobs, son of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Jacobs. Two other Jacobs children, ages two and three, escaped.

Mrs. Jacobs told authorities she had gone to a tourist court office to use the telephone when the fire broke out.

Firemen said the fire started in the Jacobs' bedroom, but cause of the blaze had not been determined.

The body is being held at the Farr Funeral Home in Monahans. Funeral arrangements are incomplete.

MAGAZINE CITES IKE, ADLAI AS PERFECT HEALTH MODELS
WASHINGTON—(AP)—"The two presidential candidates," a national health magazine reported Thursday, "are good models to follow for keeping fit."

The nonpartisan view on the health habits of Republican Dwight Eisenhower and Democrat Adlai Stevenson came from Dr. Howard J. Hoxie and Dr. DeWitt Fox, writing in the magazine Life and Health.

The doctors said both Stevenson and Eisenhower, who have been campaigning at a killing pace in the last two months, "give far closer attention to health habits and well-balanced living than the average person."

Here's how they appraised the health habits of the two men:

newspaper poll and independent surveys. Offsetting this somewhat, Democratic leaders declare—and some political writers agree—that there has been a late trend toward Gov. Adlai Stevenson of Illinois. Whether the shift is enough to overtake Eisenhower is now a question of intense speculation.

Nixon And Warren
Republican strategists, aware of the 856,955 Democratic lead in voter registration, are depending on two of the state's best vote getters, Senator Richard M. Nixon, Eisenhower's running mate, and popular Republican Governor Earl Warren, to throw back any surge to Stevenson.

California has gone to the Democrats in every presidential election since 1928—but by dwindling majorities. President Roosevelt won by 478,000 votes in 1932, 920,000 in 1936, 526,000 in 1940, 476,000 in 1944. President Truman captured the state by a scant 17,865 in 1948.

Republicans say they are not alarmed by the voter registration showing 3,312,668 Democrats to 2,456,713 Republicans, nor by predictions for a turnout Tuesday as high as 90 per cent.

They feel the combination of Eisenhower's personal appeal and the desire for a change in Washington will crack the Democratic ranks. Warren, in gaining three terms as governor, has shown it can be done. So have others.

The 32 Adlai 48
California editors established Eisenhower as the favorite to carry the state in a mid-October survey of The Associated Press. They agreed generally it's likely to be close. The editors in a September survey concluded the outcome was doubtful. Composite opinion of the second poll split the anticipated major party vote 52-48 per cent for Eisenhower.

Eisenhower campaigned through the state once and Stevenson twice. Both drew big and enthusiastic crowds.
Stevenson supporters were cheered by a Democratic registration gain of 80,000 since June and the prospect of a heavy vote. What they didn't mention was a 127,097 drop in their lead over the Republicans since 1948.

Republicans are not overlooking GOP Senator William F. Knowland's reelection victory in the primaries—possible under the state's unique crossfiling law. Knowland, a strong critic of President Truman, amassed over a million Republican votes and 966,000 Democratic to gain both nominations.
The Democrats long have had the bulge in registration. But Republicans hold all but one major state office, both seats in the U. S. Senate and 13 of the 23 in the House.
On election night, both sides will look foremost for returns from Los Angeles County, with 42 per cent of the state-wide registration.
A majority of editors from the area estimated in the AP's mid-October survey that Eisenhower would carry the county. There was disagreement, however.

Editors on two of the largest newspapers, both supporting Eisenhower, figured Stevenson would win in Los Angeles.

Monahans Clubmen Told Marshall Plan Aid Misses Mark

MONAHANS—A young Greek woman told the Monahans Rotary Club Wednesday that the Marshall Plan, although well intended by the Americans, is not producing the desired effect among the people of Greece.

The speaker was Metina Zanga, a native of Athens, Greece, who now is living in Midland. Miss Zanga was guest speaker at the club's luncheon meeting.

Continuing her discussion on the Marshall Plan, Miss Zanga said there is a widespread and deep conviction among the rank and file of the people in Greece that certain few and privileged persons are getting the benefits of the goods shipped under the Marshall Plan and that the common man never realizes any benefit.

"This feeling on the part of the people is causing many of them to turn to communism," she said. "The Russians, who do not send anything to Greece except words and propaganda, encourage this idea of discrimination and corruption and thus further aggravate conditions."

Raw Materials Best
Miss Zanga said she thought it would be best if America would send raw materials to Greece instead of finished products in order that her country could have full employment to build up its own economy and become self-sustaining.
"This would be the best way to prevent the spread of communism," she added.

Miss Zanga was introduced by Henry Glass of Midland, assistant personnel manager of the Shell Oil Company, where Miss Zanga is employed. She is a graduate of Texas Tech, having enrolled there in 1948. She was graduated last Spring as a geology major.
The club's program was under the direction of Dave Suddeth, international contacts chairman of the Rotary Club.

NORTH SACRAMENTO, CALIF.—(AP)—Daylight time expired September 28—except in the local municipal courtroom. That led to a little confusion.

IT'S NOT TOO EARLY—

Overseas Christmas Gifts Should Be Mailed At Once

Too early for Christmas shopping? "Don't you believe it!" says Midland Postmaster N. G. Oates. This year there are more friends, relatives, and sweethearts in our armed forces overseas than at any time since World War II. Their precious gifts and cheery Christmas greetings should be mailed before November 15, and for those to be sent to remote areas mailing by November 1 is recommended, which means now's the time to start, Oates said.

Midlanders Give First-Hand Account Of Forest Fire Wave

The forest fires raging in Northeast Texas and in Arkansas are terrible beyond description, according to Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Dodson, 306 South G Street, who returned early this week from a three-week vacation trip in that area.

Dodson said he and his wife were in light of the fires for hundreds of miles and that in several instances it was necessary to roll up the windows of their car to keep out the smoke while driving on the highways.

The fires are forcing deer and other animals out of the forests in Arkansas, Dodson said. Even the rattlesnakes are invading farm homes, communities and cities to get away from the fires.

Attended Reunion

The Midland man said it is doubtful if the deer hunting season will be opened in the Hope, Ark., vicinity this year.

While in Magnolia, Ark., Dodson's "hometown," the Midlanders attended the annual reunion of the Dodson family. One hundred thirty-seven persons attended.

Enroute to and from Magnolia, Mr. and Mrs. Dodson visited relatives in Fort Worth, Lewisville, Ark., Hope, Ark., and other points in Texas. They also attended the Texas State Fair in Dallas, the Louisiana Fair in Shreveport, and the Prison Rodeo in Huntsville.

Dodson said drought conditions even worse than in West Texas are evident in some parts of Arkansas.

"Nothing makes me so sad," the postmaster declared, "as to forward overseas a Christmas card or package that may not be delivered before December 25."

It's best, of course, to send both parcel post and Christmas cards by air mail, the postmaster pointed out. Overseas air parcels are limited to two pounds and the sender should be sure to include the recipient's full name, serial number, branch of service, organization, and correct APO.

Oates urged that the sender's name and address be placed inside all packages. All parcels should be wrapped securely and tied with strong cord. He advised use of heavy corrugated cartons for added protection during their long journey.

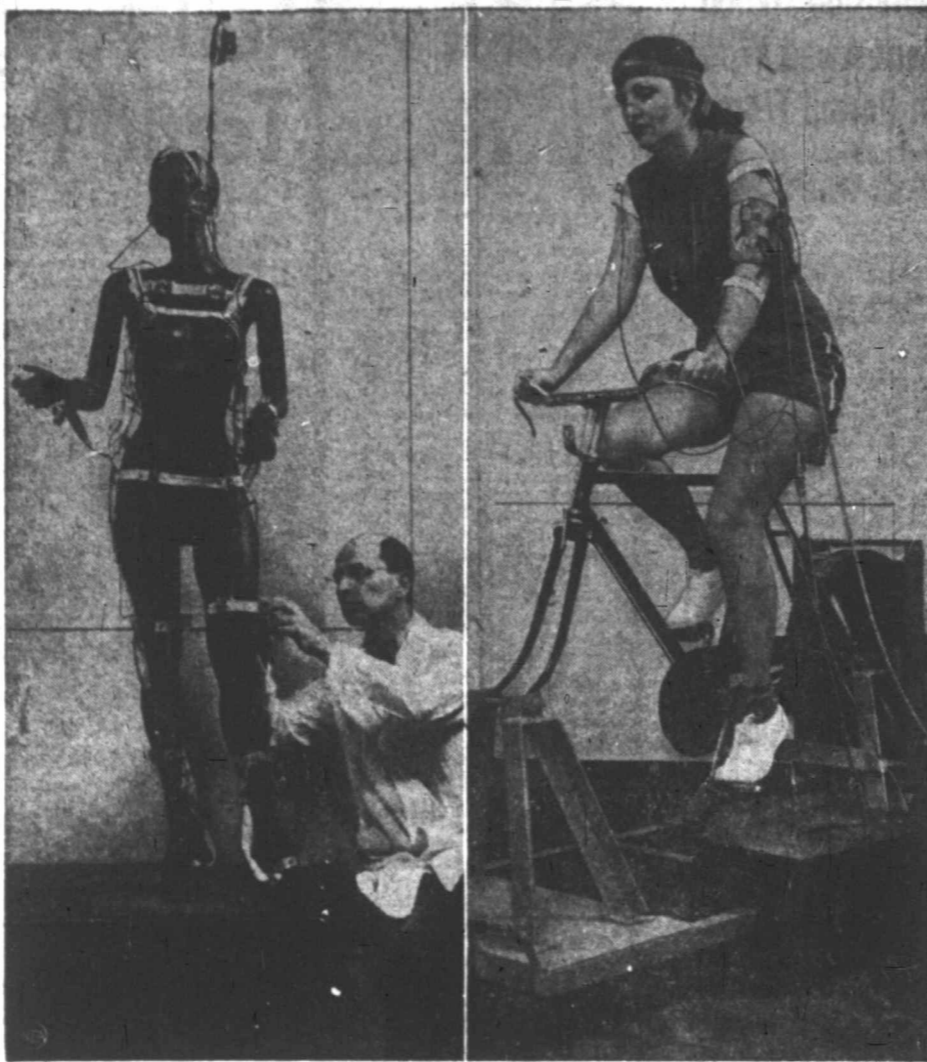

The postmaster pointed out that some foods may be sent overseas, but warned against mailing perishable items. Valuable overseas gifts should be registered or insured.

Delivery of the Christmas mail overseas is a complex operation, Oates said. In some areas, the postal services of our Air Force or Navy will take up where the U. S. Post Office leaves off.

"Your next step," the postmaster said, "is to get ready for Christmas in the U. S. A. Better start checking your Christmas card list right now, for after December 1, the post office will be hard pressed to handle the tremendous volume of Christmas mail."

FAIR WEATHER FOR ELECTION

WASHINGTON—P—The Weather Bureau predicts fair and mild weather over most of the nation next Tuesday—election day. Except for a few showers, the weather will be showery with seasonal temperatures over the Pacific Northwest and in the Northeast.

FOR COMFORT AND SAFETY—Physical comfort on the job has a direct bearing on production-reducing fatigue and accidents, it has been found. Sculpture Of Tombstones Follows Style On Contemporary Ideas Of Type, Design Styles in tombstones and grave memorials change like anything else in this modern world.

Byron Gardner, who owns the Midland Marble and Granite Company here, reports that the trend for the last 15 years has been toward tombstones that are long and low, close to the ground level. Formerly they tended to be tall and narrow at the base.

Gardner said many verses formerly found on many tombstones are virtually things of the past. Most of the messages found on markers of today are short, usually quotes from Biblical passages. Also "born" and "died" are disappearing from use. He pointed out that most tombstones now give simply the years of birth and death for the deceased.

The Midland stoneworker attrib-ed the reduction in the length of the writing on tombstones now to the lack of space on the stone surfaces for drawn-out statements. An innovation in the memorial stone business is the technique used to enlarge a person's handwriting so that his tombstone will have a signature of the individual on it.

Gardner has been in the monument-making business for 25 years, having learned sand-blasting in San Antonio. Names and dates on the tombstones are engraved on the solid stone by gluing a rubber stencil on it and then blowing away the rock with a sand-blasting machine to leave the letters etched on it. Granite and marble are used most frequently for tombstones.

Georgia, Vermont, and Texas are major sources of the granite used in the work. Most of the marble comes from Tennessee, but much of it is imported from Vermont. The tombstones are anchored in cemeteries with a cement foundation when they are installed, Gardner believes granite can stand West Texas weather conditions better, and it is a harder stone.

One of his biggest jobs was a war memorial marker on the courthouse lawn at Monahans. It was dedicated to the war dead, and the massive stone weighed 5,000 pounds.

"Gone But Not Forgotten" and "We Will Meet Again" are examples of the quotations used frequently on tombstones he makes. "Christ Is My Hope" is probably the most in demand, stated Gardner. Only one of the Midland cemeteries allows installation of tombstones, the other one permitting only flat bronze markers.

Most children's markers have lambs, hearts and doves chiseled into them, raised above the surface to stand out. A popular design for the children's markers is the figure of Christ as a shepherd with his lambs etched on the stone.

EPISCOPAL-BISHOP DIES

CEDARTOWN, GA.—P—Bishop John B. Walthour, 47, of the Episcopal Diocese of Atlanta, died of a heart seizure Wednesday night.

First White Girl Born Here Revisits City After 65 Years

The first white girl born in Midland visited the city of her birth Tuesday afternoon for the first time since she left here in 1887.

She is Mrs. A. E. (Lillie Hunter) Spaulding whose father is reported to have built the original Llano Hotel here in 1884.

"I don't remember much about the Midland of those early days, but the Midland of today really is something to behold," Mrs. Spaulding said.

She had with her a picture of the original Llano Hotel, a two-story frame structure, which stood where the Crawford Hotel now is located. The building was destroyed by fire in later years. Mrs. Spaulding's mother and sister are pictured on the hotel's porch.

Mrs. Spaulding said her father, the late C. W. Hunter, came to Midland from Bolivar, Miss., as a building contractor in 1884, the year in which Midland was established. Mrs. Hunter and her three children arrived in Midland a few months later. Mrs. Spaulding said her mother told her she, Lillie, was born in the Llano Hotel, Feb. 10, 1885, the first white girl born in Midland. Her weight at birth was three pounds.

No Doctors Here Then
"There were no doctors here at that time either," Mrs. Spaulding stated.

Mrs. Hunter, according to her daughter, operated the hotel about two years before the family moved to El Paso and then on to San Diego, Calif., where members of her family have resided since.

Mrs. Spaulding and her husband, whom she married in San Diego in 1909, stopped over in Midland enroute back to California, after visiting some of her relatives in Mississippi. Spaulding is mechanical foreman for the San Diego Evening Tribune, having been with that newspaper 45 years. They have a daughter and two grandchildren. The daughter is Mrs. Donald Williams of Los Angeles.

Two other members of Mrs. Spaulding's family still are alive. They are a brother, C. W. Hunter, Jr., age 68, and a sister, Mrs. Betty Bash, 69. Both reside in San Diego. Mr. and Mrs. Spaulding planned to visit other early day Midland residents during their brief visit in Midland.

She recalled that her father sold the old Llano Hotel property (corner of Main and Wall Street) for $300 when he left Midland.

"I wish he had held on to it," she murmured as she viewed the busy and valuable corner it is today. "After all, that is where I was born. Midland is a wonderful little city," she declared.

NEW ARRIVALS BREAK RECORD

Production is up in Midland County.

On babies, that is. According to records in the county clerk's office, there has been an increase of 268 births through Oct. 2, 1952, than during the same period in 1951.

The total for 1952 — through October 2 — was 1,656. For 1951 the number was 1,388.

As for marriage licenses issued, the increase this year is only five over the 1951 total through October. For 1952, licenses issued numbered 209. For 1951, it was 204.

Midland Lions Hear History Of Radio

The history, progress, growth and future possibilities of radio were discussed by Wally Jackson, manager of Station KCRS, at the regular meeting of the Midland Lions Club Wednesday night.

He was the principal speaker on a program arranged by W. Earl Chapman and presented in connection with the observance of National Radio Week.

Jackson, in his address, explained that radio means different things to different individuals in pointing up the fact that radio is an important influence in the lives of the American people.

He mentioned the policies, principles and ethics governing radio and said that a radio station must present a variety of programs in order to reach the largest number of listeners. He reviewed the history and growth of radio and stated it still has not reached the peak in the good it can do.

He spoke briefly concerning TV possibilities in Midland and West Texas.

A tape recording, "Freedom Does Not Just Happen," in which the importance of voting on November 4 was stressed, was presented to conclude the program.

YOUR VOTE IS YOUR OWN BUSINESS— Secrecy Of Ballot Assured By New Texas Election Law

The Midland League of Women Voters Thursday issued a statement to clear up any misunderstanding about Texas' secret ballot law. Mrs. Douglas Edman, president of the League, said numerous inquiries had been received concerning the law.

"The ballot in Texas," said the statement, "is secret if the voter himself takes the proper precautions."

"The law provides that the precinct judge shall thoroughly disarrange and mix the ballots so that they no longer are in consecutive numbered sequence, or in any sequence of arithmetic or geometric progression and then place the ballots face down in a stack or stacks from which each voter shall be allowed to take his own ballot without the number being known to or written down in any manner by the election judge."

"The judge makes a notation on the list that a particular person has voted, but shall not make a record of his ballot number."

"After the voter has voted, he detaches the perforated stub, writes his name on the back of it and deposits it in a separate sealed box, which box is sent to the office of the district clerk on the closing of the polls."

"The box is kept for 60 days (unless the contents of said box involve an election contest)."

"After 60 days have elapsed, the contents are destroyed by fire under the direction of the district judge, in the presence of the district clerk and the county judge."

"The ballot box, locked and sealed, is sent to the office of the county clerk, the key or keys shall be delivered to the sheriff as provided by law."

"Therefore, if the voter takes a ballot from the middle of the pile instead of from the top, he disarranges the sequence himself, thus preventing any possibility of anybody checking to see what number he had."

"The numbered stubs are in a sealed locked box which is sent to a separate place from the ballot box and cannot be opened except on order of the district judge."

Sparkman Says Ike Denounces Federal Welfare Programs

BUTTE, MONT. —(AP)—John J. Sparkman, Democratic vice presidential candidate, is due in Colorado Thursday after calling Republicans the "party of the vested interests" in a rally, address here. He said that under the Democratic Administration of the last 20 years, "the people of America have been able to use the powers of their government to promote their own welfare, better the nation as a whole and prepare for a prosperous future."

He contended that Gen. Dwight Eisenhower, the Republican presidential candidate, in a Western trip "spent his time denouncing this use of the people's government."

"The real trouble, I suggest," he said, "is that . . . the government . . . has been so directly responsive to what the people . . . want that the controlling forces behind the Republican party have grown desperate."

Trueland, Permian Estates Mail Delivery Pends Ruling

Extension of foot delivery service of mail to Permian Estates and Trueland Addition in Midland is awaiting official approval of the Post Office Department in Washington, D. C., Postmaster N. G. Oates announced Wednesday.

Oates said that a request for the mail delivery extensions were submitted October 1 to Washington. He said that delivery service would begin in the affected areas just as soon as approval is received here.

The mail delivery extension service for Permian Estates, located in West Midland, would begin at Midkiff Drive, while deliveries in Trueland Addition, located in Northeast Midland, will be east of Lamesa Road.

The postmaster said that at least two additional carriers will be required if the extensions are approved.

Television Station Plans Await Word On Permit From FCC

Plans for the construction of a television station here will begin immediately if and when a permit to build is granted by the Federal Communication Commission to the Permian Basin Television Company, J. Howard Hodge, president of the company, said Thursday.

The company's application, filed early this month, calls for VHF Channel 3 operation.

Stockholders of the Permian Basin Television Company, in addition to Hodge, are Veda Wells Hodge, vice president and treasurer; Henry S. Griffin and C. R. Guthrie, both of Oklahoma City, trustees for Video Independent Theaters, and Edgar T. Bell of Oklahoma City.

Video Independent Theaters is a partner with Hodge in the operation of Midland Theaters.

Hodge said the antenna for the proposed station will be 1,051 feet in height. It would be located outside the city limits, but a studio would be erected in the city. The estimated construction and equipment cost is $472,040, Hodge stated.

Italian Immigrants Fight Aussie Police

SYDNEY, AUSTRALIA — (AP)—More than 200 unemployed Italian immigrants Thursday battled police who tried to break up a demonstration for immediate employment or repatriation to Italy.

The heavily outnumbered police, swinging batons and handcuffs, prevented the Italians armed with iron bars and timbers from storming the Italian consulate. Within 10 minutes of the clash, 100 police reinforcements restored order.

Barkley's Acid Tongue Adds New Fire To Texas' Torrid Presidential Battle

By CLAYTON HICKERSON
Associated Press Staff

Vice President Alben Barkley injected new charges into the torrid presidential race at Austin Wednesday night by accusing the Ford Motor Company of requiring dealers to contribute to the Eisenhower campaign.

In Houston, about the same time, Gov. Allan Shivers, addressing a Harris County rally for Republican Dwight Eisenhower, accused President Truman of mistating the facts on the Supreme Court's Tidelands decision.

The acid-tongued, wise-cracking, smiling "veep" told his Austin audience that the Ford Motor Company is requiring its dealers to contribute $100 to $500 to the Eisenhower campaign.

Lead Cry Heard
Barkley's accusation prompted a loud cry of "I know it's true" from a man in the back of the audience.

The 75-year-old Barkley, accompanied on a three-city campaign swing by Speaker Rayburn, kept most of his remarks in a serious vein as he developed two main themes:

1. "There is no honorable course which the United States could have pursued to resist aggression in Korea."

2. Texas and the nation have never enjoyed greater prosperity—why should the people vote for a change in administrations?

Barkley brought the crowd in Austin's City Coliseum to its feet cheering with a reference to party loyalty, an issue which has split the state's Democratic ranks and raised GOP victory hopes.

Only a small crowd near the vice president in impromptu remarks at Love Field, his first Texas stop, in Dallas, but crowds of 5,000 heard him at Tyler and Austin. The estimates came from Robert Boulton, chairman of the Tyler rally and an Austin police captain.

Shivers Blast Truman
In Houston, Shivers accused President Truman of deliberately mistating the facts about the Supreme Court's decision on the Tidelands—"either through ignorance or intentionally."

Newsmen estimated the governor's crowd at about 1,000. It was noisy and enthusiastically cheered Shivers.

The governor said he cared not whether the Texas Tidelands were worth $80,000,000, as he quoted geologists saying recently, or only 80 cents.

"It's no less a steal and no less a theft," he shouted.

The governor, heaping scorn on Truman, Stevenson and Speaker Rayburn, said Truman led Texans to believe in 1948 that he accepted the state's Tidelands claims.

"But," added Shivers, "he betrayed that trust like he has almost everything else."

Other Developments
As the Shivers and Barkley speeches crackled over the news wires, there were these other developments in the Texas political scene:

1. It was announced that John two choices only—vote Democrat or vote Republican. "These Republicans and turncoat Democrats," Rayburn said, "would have the people of Texas believe they can either vote Republican or vote Democrat or vote Texas. But the people will not be fooled." He said Texas Ike backers "are afraid to use the word Republican, as shown by their careful avoidance of using the word in advertising, literature or broadcasts."

Mutinous Convicts Bid Governor Luck In Reelection Race

CHESTER, ILL.—There's been no lack of tension at Menard State Prison where seven guards, held hostage since Monday, are still in the hands of rebellious prisoners. But there have been moments of humor too.

Wednesday night as Lt. Gov. Sherwood Dixon, campaigning for governor, left a session with convict spokesmen, an inmate shouted: "Good luck next Tuesday, Governor!"

Dixon, smiling, replied: "Thanks. But I don't think I'll get many votes in this precinct."

Party Fires Rayburn Aide; Five Per Cent Deal Cited

WASHINGTON—(AP)—An official of the Democratic National Committee has been fired for allegedly helping negotiate a nine-million-dollar government contract while working for the committee.

In New York, the Herald Tribune called it "the biggest five per cent deal ever exposed in Washington." It said Westbrook and two other men stood to share a $450,000 commission.

Larson said Thursday negotiations started July, 1951, and the company (Companhia Atlantica) claims the fee arrangements were disclosed in the contract. Larson said he did not remember that they were.

Sunday Designated Official Texas Day Of Prayer For Rain

AUSTIN—(AP)—Texas Sunday will officially observe a day of prayer for rain to end the drought in Texas.

Thought Terms Settled Larson said if the contract had not been canceled already on these grounds "we may have canceled the contract anyway had we known" of Westbrook's relationship with the deal.

Westbrook said he and Pulverman were to split the five per cent, but they were to pay 10 per cent of their total to Hill, who attested the contract. This would have given Hill $45,000, and Westbrook and Pulverman an equal share of the remaining $405,000.

At the time of his arrest, the editor was wanted to serve 15 days in jail for contempt of Congress. His offense was to write to both houses of the Argentine Congress explaining his side of his dispute with President Peron.

Young Prison Rioters Ask For Deportation To Russia

OKLAHOMA CITY—(AP)—Six youthful prisoners made a desperate but futile attempt to avoid a stiff sentence for leading a prison riot Wednesday, declaring they were Communists and wanted to be deported to Russia.

West Texas Farmers Call Off Wage Injunction Plans

BROWNFIELD—(AP)—West Texas cotton farmers, protesting a government boost in wages for Mexican contract workers, have called off plans to ask an injunction against the Department of Labor.

Brownfield meeting decided to table present plans for the injunction and wait to see the results of the new survey. Another meeting of farmers will be held here after the new survey is completed.

The action came at a meeting of 325 growers here Wednesday night after the Labor Department announced it had started a new survey of prevailing wages paid braceros in Dawson, Terry and Lynn Counties.

Wednesday, W. L. Crawford, deputy director in Dallas of the Labor Department's Bureau of Employment Security, said every effort would be made to speed the new survey.

SCHOOLBOY FOOTBALL— More Unbeaten Heads To Bend

By HAROLD V. RATLIFF
Associated Press Sports Editor
Heavy, heavy hangs over the heads of the high and mighty of Texas schoolboy football this week.

Only 34 undefeated, untied teams remain as the campaign pushes into its final five weeks and perhaps a third of those will be on the sidelines when the firing ceases Saturday night.

Unbeaten Temple, Breck, Brownwood Pace AAA Parade

DALLAS—(P)—Temple, Breckenridge and Brownwood continue to lead Class AAA schoolboy football teams in the Dallas News poll of sports writers.

Most prominent to fall will be either Lubbock or Pampa, two of the three undefeated, untied teams left in Class AAAA.

They play each other in the explosive District 1 race where Lubbock, defending state champion, can just about sew things up if it topples the hurrying Harvesters.

Wichita Falls, the third undefeated, untied team in Class AAAA, could run into trouble, too. The Coyotes play Waco at Waco and the latter is a tough one to handle.

In Class AAA the feature game pits Temple with Corsicana in Temple Friday night. Temple is rated the top team of Texas, all classes, considered but it will be opening the District 3 race against a bitter foe. The other undefeated, untied teams in this class are Brownwood, which plays Weatherford, Lufkin, which meets Palestine, Edison (San Antonio), which plays Lanier (San Antonio) and McAllen, which is idle this week.

Burkburnett vs. Quanah. Two games between undefeated, untied teams mark Class AA. Burkburnett and Quanah battle in District 4 and Anson and Stamford lock horns in District 5. Huntsville, another team with a perfect record, goes against unbeaten Humble at Huntsville in a crucial District 20 clash. Humble has a tie to mar its record.

Class A's big game sends Itasca against Clifton in District 11. Both are undefeated and untied. Itasca was unscored on until last week.

All told there are 211 games in the four divisions that play to state championships and virtually all are conference stragglers. Classes AA and A have to decide their district championships by November 22. AAA and AAAA have until November 29.

Hatfield Sets Offense Pace

Jesse Hatfield, the Midland scabback, is the total offense leader for District 1-AAAA.

Latest statistics released Thursday show Hatfield with a total of 265 yards rushing and 232 yards passing for a combined aggregate of 497 yards.

The blond hurricane leads the pack in individual rushing with an average of 7.4 yards per trip with the ball. He has carried 36 times for a total of 265 yards.

Hatfield stands second among individual passers, completing 14 out of 26 tosses. One pass was intercepted. Yards gained hit 232.

Midland End Bill Mims tops the pass receivers in conference competition. He has caught four passes for gains aggregating 107 yards with an average of 26.8.

Midland follows the Lubbock Westerners, who are first in team statistics.

The District 1-AAAA statistics follow:

LARGE HUNTING TURNOUT SEEN

AUSTIN—(P)—A big turnout is expected for duck and goose hunting that begins at noon Friday.

Dodgen said the drought may make it tough on hunters to find birds. Tanks, ponds and some lakes have dried up. Recent mild weather also has postponed the southward movement of the main body of birds.

Record Crowd Urged For 'Survival Game'

It is a question of survival when the Midland Bulldogs and Abilene Eagles clash in a District 1-AAAA game in Memorial Stadium Friday night.

Both teams have been beaten once in conference competition. They cannot afford another setback and remain in the thick of the fight for the 1-AAAA championship.

Pampa has conquered both the Eagles and Bulldogs. The Harvesters, noted by Abilene, 13-7, with a last minute touchdown pass while they were pressed to turn back the Midlanders, 38-26, last week in Pampa.

Midland is given the edge over Abilene in the weekly predictions issued by the Williams Rating System. But Coach Tugboat Jones isn't a devout disciple of the pollsters. He has recent reason to be less of a believer. The Bulldogs were a near-solid favorite over the Harvesters, who haven't lost a game at home since the 1949 season.

Lubbock Favored
Williamson gives Abilene a 92.3 rating value with Midland holding a 94.0. The Lubbock Westerners, with a 95.4, have the numerical edge over the undefeated Harvesters who are rated 95.7.

In other games involving District 1-AAAA foes, Odessa is given the nod over Borger and Amarillo takes a wide margin over the hapless San Angelo Bobcats.

The Bulldogs will be returning home after three weekends on enemy fields. The last appearance in Memorial Stadium occurred October 3 against Yoleta. Since the Bulldogs have performed well in San Angelo, Borger and Pampa.

Midland has an open date next week. This means the next football game here will send the Bulldogs against Amarillo November 14. Lubbock will invade Midland November 22 for an afternoon skirmish and the Bulldogs close out November 27 in Odessa.

School officials and Booster Club leaders urge a record turnout to welcome the Bulldogs back to Memorial Stadium Friday night. Tickets may be purchased from 9 a.m. until 4 p.m. Friday in the foyer of the high school auditorium. Sales will continue at 6:30 p.m., 90 minutes before game time, at Memorial Stadium.

Eagles Lead Series
Abilene will be seeking its seventh victory Friday in a 11-game series with Midland which dates back to 1939. The Bulldogs won the inaugural, 47-7, and edged the Eagles, 7 to 6, the following season. Abilene bounced back to win the next two years, 1941 and 1942.

The Bulldogs chalked up a 26 to 21 victory in 1943 and went down 25 to 19 in 1944 and 27 to 6 July. Midland emerged triumphant 27 to 12 in 1946 but has failed to cross the Abilene goal line since that time.

The Eagles shut out the Bulldogs in 1947 and 1948 by the scores of 20 to 0 and 21 to 0, respectively. The teams have not faced each other since 1948.

The Bulldogs planned to taper off in Thursday's workouts after three afternoons of heavy contact practice. Coach Tugboat Jones appeared pleased with his victory-bent charges, jarred last weekend by a heavier Pampa opponent.

Rumors On Russell Untrue, Says Boss

DALLAS—(P)—Southern Methodist University never has fired a football coach and isn't about to start now, Dr. E. D. Mouson, chairman of the faculty athletic committee, said Thursday.

The head of the group that employs all coaches was answering unofficial reports that H. N. (Rusty) Russell would not be back as mentor of the Methodist football team next season and that Doak Walker, the former SMU All-American, would have the job.

"The Faculty Athletic Committee has not, to my knowledge, mentioned anything having to do with the coaching situation at SMU," Dr. Mouson said. "We are happy with what we have. We think Mr. Russell has done an excellent job. He has a contract signed in 1950 for seven years. We will expect him to fulfill it."

Dr. Mouson said he was at a loss to know how the rumor started and why Walker, who now is playing professional football with Detroit, was brought into the picture. "You know we had reports similar to this when Matty Bell was coach," he said.

There never was anything to it," Dr. Mouson said he thought the football team had done well, that it had played the toughest teams in the country, had many sophomores and had run into a plague of injuries.

Russell's comment was: "I have a contract. I will fulfill it."

Hiskey Shoots 65 For Medalist Honors In Mexican Amateur

MEXICO CITY—(P)—Marion Hiskey, stellar member of the North Texas State college golf team, led the way into the first rounds of the 27th Mexican Amateur Tournament Thursday.

Hiskey's record-smashing 65 took medalist honors Wednesday. He turned in a 32-33-65 over the par-72, 6,615-yard Mexico City Country Club course with superb putting his best weapon.

He had a four-stroke advantage over Don Cherry, New York City, Billy Maxwell, also of North Texas, and Jimmy McGonagill, Shreveport, La., who tied with 69's.

SWC Clubs Point To Title Battles

By CLAYTON HICKERSON
Associated Press Staff
Southwest Conference football teams generally took it easy Thursday, after two days of hard scrimmaging, and pointed to weekend championship battles.

The Texas A&M Cadets worked late Wednesday night in their last hard scrimmage before taking on Arkansas at College Station Saturday night.
Hooper Unlikely Starter
Coach Ray George worked on a method to stop the Arkansas offensive punch from the split T and the deep T. Still out of action—and an unlikely performer Saturday night—was Darrow Hooper, Aggie point-kicking specialist.

Coach Otis Douglas wound up rough contact work at Fayetteville and hoped his team was ready for the Aggies. The Porter coach moved Floyd Sagely to left end on the No. 1 offensive eleven to replace Jerry Bogard.
At Waco, Coach George Sauer of the Baylor Bears said his team would do more passing against Dutch Meyer's Texas Christian defending champs Saturday.
Sauer said the two remaining Bear drills before going to Fort Worth to meet TCU would stress passing and that there would be a lot of football in the air Saturday.
TCU Lineup Changed
Meyer announced he would have a changed line-up for the Baylor game with Gil Bartosh, 1950 All-American, at fullback along with Ray McKown at tailback and Glen Jones and Jack Ray at halves.
Regular TCU half John Harville, sidelined for three weeks with a knee injury, returned to contact work Wednesday, but is expected to see only limited duty against the Bruins.

Rocky Plans Fight A Year After Return With Walcott

By GAYLE TALBOT
NEW YORK—Rocky Marciano will defend his heavyweight title against Jersey Joe Walcott either in March, indoors, or in June under the stars, probably the latter, and from there on the strong boy from Brockton will fight no oftener than once a year.

well for the time being, Rocky and his eager pilot are taking off the West within a few days to harvest the top crop in that region. They start at Dayton, Ohio, the first of next week, and will hit more than a score of cities before they wind it up in mid-December.

All this is on the word of his manager, Al Weill, who is so busy taking in money these days that he has been forced to hire a special accountant, a regular accountant, a secretary and a full-time lawyer just to see that none of the green stuff gets thrown out with the trash.

Harassing injuries kept the potent Texas Longhorns moving with care in Wednesday's workouts. In a brief scrimmage session the Steers divided the time to sharpening the offense and working against Southern Methodist pass plays.

"I've been telling Jim Norris (president of the International Boxing Club) that we should wait and hold it outdoors and draw a million and a half, easy," Al said. "But Jim keeps talking about holding it indoors in the Chicago Stadium in March. Of course, I'm so close to Jim that if he insists I'll go along with him, but I think we ought to hold it right here in June. We would get whole trainloads of Rocky fans down from New England."

SMU Coach Rusty Russell searched for a tackle for the game in Austin against the Longhorns as he sent the Ponies through their longest scrimmage session of the week Wednesday.

"Only drawback about fighting here is that Felix Boechichio, Joe's manager, still hasn't got a license to work in this state, and the return contract that Norris gave him said it would have to be in a state where Felix is welcome. Personally I think that if we want to hold it here, the boxing commission would go along with us this time and give Felix a license."

Five candidates for his outside tackle post have been injured and Russell said he might be forced to start Buford Partee, defensive guard, at the position. The Mustangs have been hampered with injuries all season.

"Rocky and me want to get this commitment off our hands so we can go on and make some real money," Al continued expansively. "We'll fight just once a year. That's plenty often enough for a champion to fight, and besides we can make more getting around the country than fighting every few months."

NTSTC, Jets Play In Cage Headliner
DENTON—North Texas State College will meet the Sheppard Air Force Jets in an exhibition basketball game scheduled as a special feature of the NTSTC, Homecoming Nov. 8.

"Having cleaned out the East fairly easy is the greatest attraction since Dempsey. We're not getting the five grand a night that Jack got when he was champion, but we're doing all right at between $1,750 and $2,000 a show."

Sheppard, coached by Second Lt. Norman R. Pflgrim, who also plays with the team, boasts such players as Bob Alston, four-year letterman at Xavier University; Barry Arney, former star at Arizona State College; and Joe Bradley, who lettered four years at Oklahoma A&M and was named to the All-Missouri Valley Conference teams in 1947 and 1949.

Easy Wink Victory Seen Friday Night In Big Lake Game
WINK—It should be as easy as falling off a log for the Wink Wildcats to slaughter the Big Lake Owls in a District 9-A game here Friday night.

Coach H. G. (Pete) Shands of North Texas will have 10 returning lettermen to use in the game, which is the first of the season for the Eagles.

Routzong Signed As Buff Official
HOUSTON—Art Routzong, 40, veteran of 16 years of baseball front office work, Thursday was signed to a contract as executive vice president and general manager of the Houston Buffs.

The Cats have four straight wins and are fresh from knocking off Alpine last Friday, the only team that seemed to have a chance at knocking Wink from the undefeated list.

Bill Walsingham, vice president of the St. Louis Cardinals, owners of the Buffs, made the announcement here.

The Alpine Bucks will be seeking to get back into the win column Friday night when they go to Crane. Last week the Golden Cranes played Iraan to a standstill for one-half, but in the second portion of the contest lost a 27-7 effort.

Sam Houston Star Beats Loop Record
HUNTSVILLE—Don Gottlob, Sam Houston State's great quarterback, already has beaten the Lone Star Conference total offense record and he has three games yet to play.

Gottlob, the national total offense leader, has averaged 283.2 yards per game.
Already the Bearcat star has 1,701 yards, 1,691 of it by passing. That's almost 350 yards better than the all-time total offense record in the conference.

JIM TURNER

Texas Techsters Hope Turner Gets Going Against Cougars

LUBBOCK—Although Jim Turner is winning his laurels as a defensive halfback, he and his Texas Tech teammates are hoping that he'll have an especially good afternoon as a ball carrier against the University of Houston here Saturday.

Turner, along with most of Tech's other ball carriers, just didn't go in the 6-0 defensive battle won by Houston last season. Five times Turner carried the ball, and when the night was over he netted a measly two yards.

completely "off" night. Houston's rugged line and 10 Tech fumbles and bobbled pitches presented a nightmare for Turner and the rest of the Raiders which they could forget.

As evidenced by his making the only two pass catches Tech managed against the Cougars and his outstanding role as a defender in the clash, Turner didn't have a

Here's what he did against the Baylor Bears:
Besides making his usual quota of tackles—both in the secondary and at the line of scrimmage—Turner intercepted a Billy Hooper pass to end a scoring drive, recovered a Baylor fumble, and twice—after punting—made the tackle. One of these tackles was a last-man affair, the other result of his going downfield fast enough.

Turner still found time to catch a pass and gain 23 yards rushing on eight tries. Nothing phenomenal there, but it's better than some more widely-heralded ball carriers will do against Baylor this year.

That punting, by the way, was good for a 40-yard average on 10 boots. Not a bad job, especially considering how that Baylor line rushes in.

Turner still found time to catch a pass and gain 23 yards rushing on eight tries. Nothing phenomenal there, but it's better than some more widely-heralded ball carriers will do against Baylor this year.

Monahans, Kermit Clash In 8-AA's Headliner Friday

MONAHANS—Traditional rivals—Monahans and Kermit—will clash Friday night in Monahans in the spotlighted District 8-AA game of the week.

While both clubs have been defeated in district play, both hold victories over Andrews, and anything can happen and probably will in the grudge battle.

It will be offense against defense with the victor to share the District 8-AA lead with the Seminole Indians.
The Lobos' better than average offensive crew includes a backfield of Doug Creamer, Donnie Conder, Ray Yeates and John Jordan, and a fifth man capable of sharing the speedy ball carrying chores in Charles Locke.

At times this season the Lobos have been capable of displaying plenty of power, but Coach Scroggins has had a difficult time keeping the team up for every game.
Over at Kermit, Coach Neal Dillman has one of the finest defensive clubs in the district. After a slow start this season, the Yellow Jackets have shown improvement in each game. The Jackets have given up only 33 points in six games.

A comparison of results against common foes determines that the Yellow Jackets walloped Andrews 35-0, while the Lobos defeated the Ponies, 45-6. Monahans edged Wink in the first game of the season, 21-20, while Kermit lost to the same Wildcat team, 13-12. Against Winters, however, Kermit slashed the Blizzards, 19-0, while the Lobos lost, 12-6.

The hapless Andrews Ponies will seek a non-district win Friday night when they go to Sudan.
After tasting defeat at the hands of the Seminole Indians, the Pecos Eagles will enjoy a week off as will Seminole. The pace will speed up in the district next week as Pecos tangles with Kermit, while Seminole challenges Andrews.

Midland B Plays Rankin Red Devils
The Midland B squad will journey to Rankin Thursday for a clash with the Rankin Red Devils varsity eleven. Game time is 8 p.m.
The contest will feature the Midland single wing formation operating against the Rankin version of the straight T. Both teams played the games last weekend.

Midland's B aggregation was deadlocked by the Lubbock Cowhorns, 19-19, while the Rankin Red Devils saw Granddads come from behind to knot the count at 13-13.

Irish Favored Over Middies; UT Gets Nod

By HAROLD CLAASSEN
NEW YORK—Last Saturday's many surprising winners among the college football teams merely reaffirmed that you spell "setups" and "upsets" with the same letters—it is just a matter of placement.

There were 41 correct selections among the 56 decisions, an average of .734. That dropped the season's figures to 193 correct, 55 incorrect for a mean of .778.

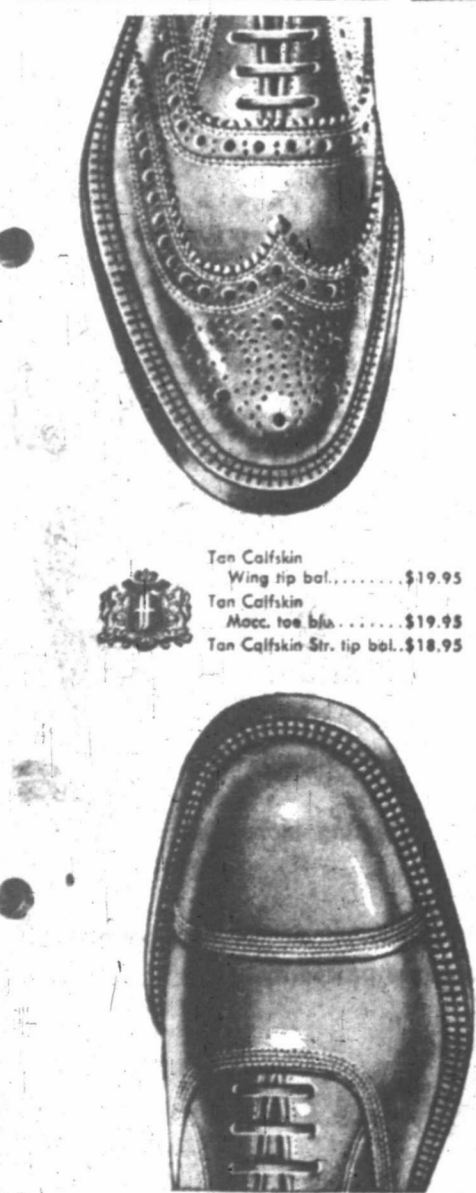

Here are some weekend's selections:
Michigan State over Purdue; Michigan State is shooting for an unbeaten season. Purdue is shooting for the Rose Bowl trip.

Maryland over Boston University; Supposedly a grudge match, if so and Maryland lets down the bars, the score could be fantastic.
Sooners Favored
Oklahoma over Iowa State; The Sooners much too good.

Georgia Tech over Duke; A pair of unbeaten powers.
California over UCLA; Johnny Oscelewski and his mates can't be stopped on successive week ends.
Ohio State over Northwestern; John Borton to be the hero as the rebounding Ohioans break loose. This is the game you'll see on your TV screen.

Notre Dame over Navy; It will be close but the Irish appear to be the better balanced club.
Texas over Southern Methodist; Just on general principles.

Four pros from the Ranchland Hill Country Club, Abe Beckman, Walter Thompson, Dick Trout, and Jerry Green, have started to select their drivers and putters in anticipation of attending the meet. Elmer (Red) Watkins, club champion at Ranchland Hill, plans to enter the amateur division at the tournament. Tom Champion, another proficient amateur from the club, hopes to enter the meet.

The Midland Country Club will be ably represented by one of its two pros, Boyd Huff, at the New Mexico contest. Jim Binford and Roy Minear are two amateur prospects for entry from the Midland Country Club.

Cash prizes totaling $3,000 will be awarded to the competing pros at the tournament, while the amateur golfers will receive merchandise prizes valued at $1,000.

Dick Turner is defending champion at the meet for the pros, while Bob Wortham of Midland is the ranking titlist in the amateur division. Wortham probably will not be present to defend his title at the meet.

The pros are slated to compete in 54 holes of medal play at Carlsbad, and the amateurs will be paired off in match eliminations. Amateurs will qualify November 4, and play their first round matches November 5. On November 6, 18-hole medal play for the pros is scheduled, with the amateurs holding their second

Vishinsky Echoes Terms For Truce

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. —(AP)—Russia's Andrei Y. Vishinsky asked the United Nations Assembly Wednesday night to form an international commission to seek peace in Korea and unification of that war-torn country.

American sources at the UN generally viewed the proposal as the same old Soviet bluff.

On the commission proposed by Vishinsky would be "the parties directly concerned and other states, including states not participating in the war in Korea."

Vishinsky's speech made no mention of just which countries he would include in these categories, but his resolution would open the door for the Soviet Union to become directly involved.

The new Soviet proposal came at the end of a fiery speech in which Vishinsky, for three hours and 39 minutes, lashed back at the American stand outlined last Friday by U. S. Secretary of State Dean Acheson.

Football, even elementary school football is a rough game, but Midland youngsters can take it.

Patient Walks Out Of Clinic, $5,000 In Radium On Face

HOUSTON —(AP)—A man who walked out of his doctor's office with $5,000 worth of radium taped to his left cheek was seen by his home about 3 p. m. Wednesday by his physician, Dr. C. M. Griswold.

He was just "confused," Dr. Griswold said.

The doctor asked for police help in locating the man because the radium could have been injurious. He had about 150 milligrams taped to his cheek as treatment for a skin ailment.

The radium needles were to be left in place for a while, then removed, but the patient walked out of the office at 2 p. m. and did not return.

The husband, a 26-year-old automobile dealer of Denton, was uninjured. The couple was married at the chapel on the campus of Texas State College for Women in Denton last Friday.

Ike Backs Position On Korea With Letter From Van Fleet

NEW YORK —(AP)—Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower campaigned Thursday with a letter from the commander of the Eighth Army in Korea in an attempt to back up his argument that South Koreans are potentially capable of replacing the American divisions now fighting there.

He said the letter, dated October 10, came from Lt. Gen. James Van Fleet and reported the South Korean Army was in "apple pie order."

What Van Fleet wrote, Eisenhower said in a television-radio appearance Wednesday night, was in with his own reason for wanting to go to Korea, if he is elected president. He said:

"I want to study on the spot the conditions we will find there. . . . One of the things I want to find out is how much the Republic of Korea can contribute to its own battle requirements."

Van Fleet's letter praised the fighting qualities of the South Koreans. He said one division, the Ninth, had destroyed four regiments of the 38th Chinese Army, "one of the best." The Eighth Army commander added, "I am confident they will continue to hold and destroy the remaining reserve of that army."

Van Fleet wrote that he had said he would release two American divisions if he could have six more South Korean divisions.

"Or give me four, and I would release one U. S. division, increase, but still no approval to this date," he added.

Several weeks ago, as the presidential campaign mounted in in-

Midland Rotarians Hear Classification Talk On 'Building'

A classification talk on "Building" was given by Frank Mullins, Midland contractor, at the regular meeting of the Rotary Club Thursday noon in the Cactus Restaurant.

Mullins, who was introduced by Newell W. Ellis, spoke primarily concerning residential construction in Midland. He reviewed the home building program here in the past and said he expects residential construction to continue at a fast pace.

Discussing building costs, the speaker said he does not look for a drop in costs, "regardless of who is elected President."

"The material situation is good from both price and availability standpoints," he stated. "The labor situation is about the same from the price standpoint, but availability is better."

Three new club members were introduced—B. H. Spaw by Guy Breneman; Dr. Tom King by J. Q. Woodard, and Earl Johnson by James Mims.

Reds Would Take Over U. S. If GOP Wins, Truman Says

ABOARD TRUMAN TRAIN —(AP)—President Truman, carrying his fighting campaign into Michigan, Thursday declared that if the country follows Republican advice "we'll weaken our defenses" and permit communism to "take over."

He told a train-side audience at Muskegon, first stop on his day-long swing through the state, that Adlai Stevenson, if elected, will continue fighting for a lasting peace.

Truman's move into Michigan followed a two-speech invasion of Chicago, where he poured ridicule on GOP nominee Dwight D. Eisenhower for his "easy" solution "for everything."

In a plain reference to Eisenhower, he told an overflow dinner crowd of the AFL-CIO County League for Political Education, which gave him an ear-splitting welcome:

"Just Plain Fraud"

"No general order is going to eliminate our problems. No superman is going to solve our difficulties for us. And anybody who poses and talks like a superman is just a plain fraud."

The President scheduled additional whistle stop talks at Grand Rapids, Lansing, Trowbridge, Flint, Pontiac and Hamtramck, Michigan, en route to Detroit for a major speech at 9:30 p. m. CST, in the State Fair Grounds Coliseum at Detroit.

As in a number of other Midwestern states, the President was told that the Democrats are facing an uphill fight in Michigan.

He campaigned there for Governor Blair Moody as well as the Stevenson-Sparkman ticket.

Issue Of War

It was a receptive audience Truman faced in the grand ballroom of the Sherman Hotel after an earlier civil rights speech in Chicago's South Side.

They gave him a whistling, hand-clapping, shouting welcome upon his introduction and he had to quiet them down because of time bought for nation-wide radio coverage as well as coverage by television in nine Midwestern cities.

He tore into Eisenhower for making "a partisan political issue" out of the fighting in Korea, for saying this country is "in that war" because of Administration mistakes.

"Low Down Tricks"

Truman said most people blame the Korean fighting on "the evil designs of the Kremlin," and declared Eisenhower, in his recent Detroit speech changed "the facts of history."

"And he did that just as easily as rolling off a log," Truman continued, "and just as easily as he deserted General Marshall."

The President said that Eisenhower, in trying to blame the Department for the withdrawal of U. S. occupation troops from Korea in 1949 took quotations from congressional records "and twisted and distorted them." Then, departing from his prepared text, he added:

"It makes me sad when a man of whom I thought as much of as general will do low-down tricks that in order to get votes."

WASHINGTON —(AP)— Senator Martin (R-Pa.) Thursday asked the Justice Department to investigate the settlement of a $5,166,280 tax claim for $295,000.

Martin said in a letter to Attorney General James P. McGranery that the claim was against the late William Fox, film and theater executive, for 1935 and "all prior years."

The senator said the claim involved taxes, penalties and interest and that from information he acquired "it would appear that the government could have recovered the entire amount."

Martin said that at the time of the settlement in 1941 the FBI was of the opinion that an important stock transfer was not made until four years after Fox said it was made. And, Martin said, the Internal Revenue Bureau knew of the FBI's findings.

Martin said the compromise settlement was accepted by the then Attorney General, Francis Biddle, on Dec. 5, 1941, and the money was paid to the collector of internal revenue in New York on Feb. 10, 1942.

Informed of Martin's letter to McGranery, Commissioner of Internal Revenue John Dunlap released a letter to Chairman Walter F. George (D-Ga.) of the Senate Finance Committee, of which Martin is a member.

Dunlap's lengthy letter, dated June 4, was similar in content to Martin's letter. It said that, before the compromise settlement was accepted, the revenue bureau had "informal" advice that the trust for Mrs. Fox was not executed until 1935. It said that while legal memoranda and correspondence mention an FBI report, no FBI report was on the case apparently was ever received by the Revenue Bureau.

Dunlap said the Revenue Bureau settled for $295,000 because it was that all that could be obtained.

Martin asked McGranery to determine if political pressure was exerted or anything illegal done to obtain the settlement; to learn if any employees who handled the case are now working for the Treasury, Justice Department or Internal Revenue Bureau, and to see if the government could "recover the $4,871,390 loss suffered by the taxpayers."

Hundreds Of Forest Fires Blacken Dixie's Land, Sky

By The Associated Press
Thousands of fire fighters Thursday carried on their battle against forest flames roaring over vast areas in Southern states.
Tennessee, Mississippi, Louisiana, Arkansas and North Carolina appeared to be hit the hardest. Fires were widespread also in Alabama, Georgia and Kentucky and some were reported in Texas, South Carolina, Virginia and West Virginia.
W. R. Hine, assistant regional forester in Tennessee, said, "It would take a hundred years to replace timber that has been burned in the last week" in that state.
In the Northern section of the Cumberland Plateau alone fires had swept over about 100,000 acres in six counties.
In Mississippi, 1,723 separate fires have burned over 62,000 acres since October 1. Wednesday night 191 fires still raged.
Scores of fires raged in about 15,000 acres of Louisiana pine and hardwood forests.
In Arkansas, 38 fires were reported Wednesday night in the Southern part of the state and 10 in the Northern portion.
Alabama reported 10 fires still burning Wednesday night out of 100 that broke out in the last two days. Ninety-six fires were reported in Georgia but all were believed under control except one in Paulding and Cobb Counties.

Kentucky had 165 fires burning Wednesday night on 14,964 acres. About 100,000 acres of timberland have been burned in the state.

Burned Out Family Gets Helping Hand

Two families, including seven children, who lost all their clothing and other possessions when the home in which both lived was destroyed by fire Tuesday, were getting a helping hand Thursday.
Owners of the home, located on King's Ranch in the Greenwood Community, 15 miles east of Midland, were Mr. and Mrs. Archer Scott. The other family's name was unavailable. The seven children ranged in ages from 13 years down through one year.
Neighbors of the families are rebuilding a small home located near the house which burned, and several churches have been gathering clothing and other articles.
The families are living temporarily in a Cityview Rental Home provided by Norman Zachry, and Mrs. Zachry was planning a shower for the homeless families Thursday afternoon.
The fire started about 7 a.m. Tuesday. Scott, who is a farmer, said he believed that the blaze was started by faulty wiring in the home. All 11 of the persons in the house escaped injury.

TEXAS BOOTLEGGING 'ALMOST' LEGAL— Dry Counties 'Irrigated' By Liquor Law Loopholes

By BOB BRAY
Amarillo Globe-Times Reporter

AMARILLO—(AP)—Officers say bootlegging in Texas is a multi-million dollar business and some of them complain it's almost a legal one. If the bootlegger gets caught, odds are he can pay a stiff fine and still make money that month.

The State House Crime Investigating Committee, during its November 6-7 public hearings in Amarillo, will study the bootleg business from a profit standpoint. It also will consider possible loopholes in the law controlling bootlegging.

Officers say one glaring shortcoming in the State Liquor Control Act is that known bootleggers can purchase all the whiskey they want simply by saying it is for their own consumption. Liquor dealers catering to bootleggers have built stores in isolated spots where their illicit trade can continue relatively unnoticed.

Can Be Delivered
One swanky West Texas layout—an alcoholic oasis on the edge of a local option desert—reportedly sells more than $200,000 worth of liquor monthly.

Officers say dealers not only can sell to known bootleggers without violating the law, they also can draw up perfectly legal "false" road manifests and haul beer right up to the bootlegger's front door. Should they get caught unloading the beer, they can be prosecuted.

In order to make manifests legal, a beer wholesaler in Odessa, for example, rents warehouse space and takes out a branch distributor's license in Amarillo. He loads up a couple of hundred cases of beer and issues out a bill of lading for the Amarillo warehouse. This gives him the legal right to haul the beer through the dry counties between Odessa and Amarillo.

Can Be Sidetracked
Should he be stopped by any officer along the way, he simply shows his manifest and tells the officer to go catch someone who is violating the law.

The driver then goes to the bootlegger, say in Lubbock, who ordered the beer and hurriedly unloads it. A couple of years ago a pair of alert officers in Lubbock spotted a semi-truck burdened down with beer parked in front of a club.

Without waiting for any unloading to begin, the officers arrested the truck driver and confiscated his beer and truck. He quickly produced a bill of lading showing the beer enroute to Amarillo and maintained he had just stopped at the club to call his wife.

Despite irrefutable evidence that the club sold beer to its members and a statement by the owner of the Amarillo warehouse that the

Japs Organize Underground In Event Of Soviet Control

TOKYO.—The nucleus of an underground anti-Communist resistance organization aimed at possible Soviet invaders was formed in Tokyo last month and is growing rapidly.

It is called the National Martyrs Youth Corps.

Existence of the right-wing group was disclosed when a corps of National Martyrs beat up Communist squatters at the Foreign Office. The Reds forcefully had been demanding passport visas to attend the Communist-sponsored Asia and Pacific "Peace" Conference in Peking.

Saburo Gotokuji, secretary-general of the Patriotic Youth Volunteers Committee of which the youth corps is a part, said in an interview, "It's high time we prepared for a Red invasion."

"We are going to fight the Japanese Communists openly now," he said, "and underground if the Russians should come."

While the organization says its aim is to "reconstruct Japan," its immediate purpose is to prepare an underground combat network in case of invasion.

Gotokuji said the number of members has increased in less than a month to 800 in Tokyo and 3,000 throughout Japan.

"Healthy Spirit"

Asked about the use of violence in his anti-Red campaign, Gotokuji said it was "out of bounds and entirely unnecessary."

The youth corps leader contended that intense physical training, including judo, fencing and boxing, for all his corpsmen was merely for self-defense purposes and to create "a healthy spirit in a healthy body."

Resistance methods used in Europe during World War II are being studied.

Asked why his youth corps doesn't join the national defense forces, Gotokuji explained:

"Fighting with arms is one thing, fighting with thought is another. Our mission is the latter, and it's a great mission."

No Magic Formula

To charge any responsible American political leaders with either seeking or welcoming war as a means of maintaining prosperity is to strike pretty low.

Attacks on the Administration that carry to this extreme ought to be ended forthwith. We have already had too much of this kind of thing.

Yet it is not unfair to point out that our greatest wave of prosperity—the boom that began in 1939-40 and still is going—has for the most part been an accompaniment of war or the upsurge of civilian output in its immediate aftermath.

The Administration is fond of harking back to the Great Depression, and of claiming credit for curing it. Yet it is a provable fact that the Democratic Party did not solve the basic element of the depression—unemployment. In 1939, just before World War II began, the United States still had 8,000,000 people without jobs.

Historians generally sympathetic to the aims and accomplishments of the Roosevelt era concede this freely. In the most practical sense, the depression was cured not by remedial New Deal measures but by war.

The real essence of the New Deal was a series of social reforms designed to protect farmers, workers, home owners and others from the devastating effects of depression.

But in constructing this protective framework, the men of the New Deal never found the formula for stimulating the economy to full production.

Since war descended in late 1939, we never have been beyond its shadow. The flush of early postwar times reflected pent-up buying power held back by war. Here and there signs developed of a real tapering off, but before any conclusive evidence could be had the Korean war sent us off on another big upsurge.

Today the entire economy is on a vastly greater scale than in 1939. All kinds of legal safeguards exist to shore up sagging income, as for example farm price supports. Possibly there now are elements at work which can keep the economy on a reasonably self-sustaining basis without the stimulus of war or its preparations.

All anyone can say fairly about this important question is that we do not have the answer. The idea never has been tested, and it cannot be until we are free of war and major defense activity that is close to it. In the meantime, the Democratic Party ought not to be allowed to claim it has some magic formula to assure prosperity. There is no magic in this boon, of ours.

Your luck may be bad, but a golfer in Indiana made a hole in one and it was on the wrong green.

The world lies before the man who doesn't himself.

'Twas Ever Thus

The Washington Merry-Go-Round

By Drew Pearson
(Copyright, 1952, By The Bell Syndicate, Inc.)

Drew Pearson says: Nixon declines further comment on his record; Get loan from man in firm whose war contract he negotiated; Senator was absent for veterans votes.

WASHINGTON —(AP)—Walter Winchell has just made public affidavits alleging that Harry S. Truman was a member of the Ku Klux Klan in 1922. Most significant thing about these affidavits is that they were obtained in October, 1944, when Harry S. Truman was running for vice president.

However, they were not published by Winchell at that time. If so, the voters would have had an opportunity to pass on their validity when they could have influenced an election, not eight years later when the question of Truman's early background is purely academic.

Various editors have complained since 1944 that the press did not properly report on many other activities of the man then running for vice president, now the President. They argued that the job of vice president can be just as important as that of President, and that Veeps usually are unknown men, picked by a handful of party bosses during the busy closing days of a convention.

In view of this, and in view of the fact that Senator Nixon not only was handicapped but relatively unknown either to Eisenhower or to the public, here are some little-known facts in the record of a man who could be President.

First, let it be said that Senator Nixon has been approached for comment on these facts, but has not made himself available. His press relations officer has stated not only to this column but repeatedly to the press that Nixon will not answer further questions on his finances nor publish his tax returns. He has refused to hold press conferences.

War Contractor Loans
However, here are some further facts on which the public is entitled to clarification:
1. Loan from war contractor — During the closing days of the war, Nixon, an attorney in the Navy, was given the job of renegotiating the contract of Eroco, at Riverdale, Maryland. This was an assignment which could mean money saved for the taxpayers. The renegotiating officer, sat as virtual judge and jury empowered to decide on a rebate to the government or a rebate to the contractor.

While renegotiating the Eroco contract, Nixon let drop the fact that he wanted to go back to California to run for Congress and borrowed money from Eroco to pay his expenses home. Later he repaid the money. It may have been purely coincidental, but Eroco received a refund from the government on its war work.

2. Office expense — In making his radio report to the nation, Nixon stated that he had used his $18,000 expense fund to pay office and travel expenses, thus saving the taxpayers money.
Despite this, the senator claimed $1,294.05 in deductible office expenses in 1951 beyond his $2,500 tax-free allowance. Part of this was a claim of $600 for taking constituents to lunch.

In 1950 he also claimed a deduction of $1,471 for office expense, part of which was $260 for constituents' lunches.
Yet the Price, Waterhouse audit of his $18,000 expense fund for the same years listed "meetings and luncheons at California hotels, $410," also "meals, taxicab fares and parking charges paid for visitors, $382.52."

Obviously the Price, Waterhouse audit and the senator's own expense deductions which were charged to the taxpayer conflict.

3. Tax exemption — In March, 1951, Mrs. Nixon filed on behalf of herself and husband a sworn statement in California that their joint property did not exceed $10,000. This was to enable them to take advantage of a California tax reduction whereby a veteran in reduced circumstances is given a tax exemption of about $200.

In July of that same year, Nixon purchased his $41,000 house in Washington, making a down payment of $20,000. Earlier that year he had acquired a smaller house in Whittier, Calif.

If he lacked $10,000 in March of 1951, when did he get the $20,000 in July? This is a question the public has a right to ask of any candidate for office.

4. Veterans record — The best way to judge a Senator's record is by his work on committees. Nixon belongs to the Labor and Public Welfare Committee, an important group because it handles the Taft-Hartley Act, labor legislation, health, education.
Out of 18 full committee meetings during the last session, however, Nixon attended only four.

He also is a member of the subcommittee on veterans affairs, which investigated the veterans' medical care program, found it bogged down and inadequate. Thanks to painstaking work by this committee, the veterans' medical care program was reorganized completely and revitalized.

However, this was done with no thanks to Nixon. Although a member of the American Legion and publicly active at veterans' rallies, he had the worst attendance record of any member of the subcommittee.

When real work for veterans was being done, Nixon wasn't around.

JACOBY ON BRIDGE

By OSWALD JACOBY
Written For NEA Service

In today's hand South must open the bidding in a suit even though he has balanced distribution and stoppers in each of the four suits.

With 20 points, South is too strong for an opening bid of one-no-trump (showing 15 to 18 points) but too weak for an opening bid of two-no-trump (showing 22 to 24 points). The solution is to open with a suit bid and make a jump rebid in no-trump.

North has a very poor hand but realizes that South's bidding shows a very strong hand. North has seven points in high-cards and knows that South has at least 19 points in high-cards. Hence North is not afraid to go on to game.

South wins the first trick with the queen of spades and counts his values. He can be sure of only one spade, one club, and three hearts. He therefore needs four diamond tricks in order to make his contract.

The diamonds must be developed in such a way as to shut East out. At the second trick, therefore, de-clears a low diamond to dummy's king and returns a diamond towards his own hand. When East follows suit with a low diamond South must finesse the nine.

The finesse happens to succeed, and South therefore runs the entire diamond suit, making 10 tricks. Even if the finesse had happened to lose (with the cards differently divided, of course) South would still be sure of four diamond tricks and his contract.

It is important to note that South would be defeated at his game contract if he played the diamonds in the "normal" manner. Suppose, for example, that South wins the first spade, continues with the ace of diamonds and then tries to run the diamonds.

East can win the fourth round of diamonds with his jack and return a spade. West then takes enough spade tricks to defeat the contract.

Murder she yelled

By Joseph Shelle

THE STORY: Rocky Stone, a small-time racketeer, was a thinking enough to get himself arrested at Rick Hill's vacation resort, and the proprietor, Al Kemmer, was so pleased with his place's good name by moving it to a rival summer lodge. It is a great, happy ending. It is intensely jealous of Mrs. Burnett, a great.

W HILE Al Kemmer went to talk to Kitty Lane, I captured Midge. She didn't seem over-anxious to dance with me and even after I told her Ritchie just wasn't her type, I hadn't softened up anything in her face. She said she had the next dance with Ritchie after we made a few half-hearted turns and the record spun to its end.

I didn't stay to watch her cross over to Ritchie. I went out on the cool, dark porch. I walked past the row of huddled nature-lovers.

Twenty yards away across the grass, the office window showed an oblong of light. Al was having himself a session with Kitty. I stepped off the porch. It didn't make sense for me to go over there. But there was a hard, vicious feeling in me—I wanted to see another man taking a licking. From a woman, particularly.

Before I could hear what he was saying, another man's voice broke in. "Suppose you were in my position..."

I pushed through the partly open door—no inhibitions around High Hill. Seated beside the desk, his swung me a look. His forehead was ruffled, a washboard.

Dave held out his hands, palms up, taking me into the gesture. "You people are his friends. Maybe he'd listen to you a lot sooner than to somebody in his own family."

"I'm sorry," Al said. "I got my own worries, with out getting mixed up with the Fields family."

"Just a word to him, just a reminder once in a while, that's all I'm asking you to do."

Al shook his head. "The crazy

WASHINGTON COLUMN

Which President Will Address Congress Is Guessing Game

By PETER EDSON
NEA Washington Correspondent

WASHINGTON—There's considerable argument shaping up over just which President—the old one or the new one—will deliver two of the three important messages which the White House customarily sends to a new Congress.

The Constitution says the President shall advise the Congress on the state of the union "from time to time." While the "state of the union" message usually is sent up to Capitol Hill, or delivered in person by the President right after Congress convenes, the timing this year may make that difficult.

Congress convenes January 3. Inauguration day is January 20. Truman could deliver a state of the union message which would in effect be his farewell address. Or he could skip it. No White House decision on this yet.

The new President could spell out his new program in his inauguration day message, or he could send up one or more special messages to Congress, "from time to time" later on.

On the annual "economic message," the Full Employment Act originally specified that it be sent up to Congress by the President within the first 60 days of a new session. That was amended in the Reorganization Act to provide that the message be sent up "at the beginning of each regular session."

Again the retiring President might send up an economic message to tell in what good economic shape he was leaving things. The new man could come along later—say at the beginning of the second quarter of the year—with another economic message to tell how he could make things better.

The budget message, by law, has to be delivered in the first 15 days of the new session of Congress, which means Truman will do it.

First Christmas cards of the year have come to Washington from Hawaii, before election day. They're headed "Mele Kalkimikua," which is Hawaiian for "A Merrier Christmas and a Happier New Year."

The cards show, for decoration, a red Christmas tree decorated with baubles that spell out, "I like Ike." Whether this is subtle propaganda that Ike will head another Santa Claus administration isn't explained. The message on the cards reads:

"Christmas greetings from Hawaii are being sent early this year. As you know, we cannot vote in the Territory for the most important office in our government, the presidency of the United States," etc., which is a plug for Hawaiian statehood.

The catch on sending these to Washington, however, is that citizens of the District of Columbia can't vote, either.

Well more than a million dollars will be spent by Republican and Democratic organizations in the final week of the campaign for radio and TV time. Best estimates available in Washington put the Republican time purchases at $650,000, the Democratic at $350,000.

The figures include estimates for preemption payments to commercial sponsors who will be giving up their time to the politicians. The figures

Paul Brown Nomed To District Bench

AUSTIN —(AP)—Appointment of Paul G. Brown of Henderson as district judge of the Fourth Judicial District, in Rusk County, was announced by Governor Shivers Wednesday.

Brown will fill the unexpired term of the late R. T. Brown of Henderson. The two men were not related.

schmo was laying for me. I thought it's Kitty sitting in here, but it's this hard-luck Charley."

NEXT morning after breakfast, I went to the office. Al was lost in another subject. What it was startled me no end.

"That little Burnett—" he said, "she's an absolute dream." His mouth drooped tenderly; his deep brown eyes were soft and liquid.

"You planning to marry her?" I growled.

His eyelids leaped. "No, I don't be crazy." Then his eyes came reflective again. "But if I did get married, I'd more want it to be somebody like her than ... I'll tell you, Morrison, I just discovered there's a difference between women."

"You're getting sophisticated." "You don't understand what I'm talking about. What I mean is, they have a different effect on your nerves. This Burnett girl—I noticed when she was singing last night—she relaxes me. Like a phenobarbital. Now, Kitty—I didn't realize it before, but she actually makes me more nervous. She's a nice kid, but—"

"Kitty give you a hard time?" I inquired. He hepped open a stick of gum and put it in his mouth.

Al glanced up at me, then down at the gum wrapper he was crumpling. "Always headaches. . . . In a way, I don't blame Kitty. She's been with me a long time, and . . . You know, this Burnett woman, she flipped the wrapper across the room and leaned back wearily in his swivel chair. "Morrison, I'd like to do something for Kitty—something nice. All these years she's worked for me. . . . Anyway, Kitty's young—only 37—she ought to get herself a nice fellow to take out a license."

Al was eyeing me weirdly. "I'd be willing to settle a nice piece of change on the right fellow," he said softly.

"This's swell, I'll look around for you. Sure—say—I've got somebody for you. Leo Ritchie. Perfect."

"I said a nice fellow, not a jerk that can't pay his bills." (To Be Continued)

"Say, Bill, what are you going to do Sunday night? I wonder if you would like to go to the show with me. We will double with . . . and I will pick you up about 7:30."

Bill says, "Okay, I don't have anything to do and I will go with you."

The girl walks away like she is upon a cloud in the sky.

Yes, it is TWIRP SEASON time once again at good old MHS. This is the time of the year when the girls ask their "dream men" for dates. It is the time when the boys don't have to reach into his pocket book or go by for a date in his car. The girl has to attend to these matters.

This is your chance girls! Don't be bashful about it because it will be gone before you know it.

Roberta Stewart has added another year to her age. Yes, Roberta now has reached the ripe old age of sixteen. The Catholic Staff had a birthday cake and Cokes for her. Then when she got home Tuesday afternoon her mother gave her a surprise birthday party.

There are some new style hair cuts sprouting around on Bill Erskine, Jay Schlichting, Bill Leonard and Don Hudson. They are cut in a square shape and are very unusual. Guess they look becoming. Don't you?

Pertaining to the above, Bill Leonard said he would give anyone a hair cut like his for only 25 cents. Bill claims the title of being the "best barber" in town. Hope you get a lot of business, Bill.

Camera Bug Bites

We seem to have a camera bug in our midst. Atrelle Pace has the bug. Really though, Atrelle, people just love for you to take their pictures even though the flash bulb stings their eyes for a few minutes.

Dona Ingham would make a very good announcer we think. Dona was talking over a broken microphone Tuesday night. She was telling everything she knew.

Penny Jones, Retta Hazlip and Shirley Henderson spent the weekend in Pampa. They said they had an enjoyable time and they met a lot of nice people up there.

Wednesday, MHS had a paid assembly. It was given by some people from Holland. They put on a very good show and we would welcome them back any time they are here.

Don Dickinson from Allen Military Academy, Dalton Breyer from New Mexico A&M, and Freddy Bilbo from McMurry College were those that were home this weekend. They all like their schools. Dalton made the varsity team, football that is, and is doing very well up there. Glad to see you once more, boys.

The "NEEWOLLAR" Dance is scheduled Saturday night. It is a Halloween Dance. It will be from 10 till 12 (midnight). It will start right after the talent show at the high school. Everyone must have on a mask and have a noise-maker with them, which incidentally must be furnished by the girls, before they will be admitted to the dance. It has fun in store for everyone. So, gals, be sure and drag a boy to it. Boys, if you don't have a date come on stag anyway, and the same goes for girls.

The P-TA is having a supper Saturday night in the cafeteria. The food is to be furnished by mothers of the sophomores and juniors. Immediately following the supper the Talent Show will be held in the high school auditorium. Correction: The talent show will not be going on during the supper, as we said last week. It will be immediately after it. Sorry!

Still more and more junior students are coming to the Center. They are coming from both schools. We are very glad to have you.

The San Jacinto Mustangs won their game from Lamesa last Saturday. They played a very fine game and are to be congratulated.

Another dance will be held after the ball game with Abilene this Friday night.

Let's all go out to the football game and support the Bulldogs to a victory over the Abilene Eagles. Let's exterminate the Eagles!!!!

Politicians To Be

Many teen-agers were seen at the airport Monday when Senator Richard Nixon delivered a short campaign talk. Within the next few elections we too will be able to vote, so it is nice that teenagers are getting interested in politics. Everyone is urged to get their parents to vote. Voting is a privilege that was fought for by our forefathers. Everyone be sure and vote next Tuesday.

Flash . . . They will be at the high school auditorium Saturday night. Yes, the Zigfield Personal Five are to be on stage. They are Sylvia Smith, Carol Garrison, Ardith Campbell, Judy Le Fever and Mary Hannon.

We have a new member in our Center, Rickey Shelton, who hails from Ackerly, moved here recently. Glad to have you, Rickey.

Mary Jane Miller was seen sprouting a football jacket of a few years back. To those of you who are wondering to whom it belongs, we shall solve the mystery for you. It is her older brother Kent's.

Ruth Nell Kuykendall spent last weekend in Denver, Colorado, with a former Midland family—the Stalcupps. "Kitty" said the Stalcupps said to say hello to everyone they know—so, "Hi" from them to you. While there, she also saw another former Midlander. She saw George Blake. He also had a friendly hello for everyone.

In order to be a hundred per cent booster of the Bulldogs, you should buy a bangle each week.

The picture show will be on Thursday of this week. The name of the film is "Big Fix." It is another murder mystery. It starts at 7:30 p.m. The fifth chapter of "The Green Archer" also will be shown.

Nell Curran and Betty Bolton have changed names. So when you see Nell call her Betty and when you see Betty, call her Nell. That makes them very happy and we like to see people happy.

Another New Game

Myrt have given forth with another new game. You hold a broom above your head about two feet and look at it around the band. You are supposed to turn around twenty times then throw the broom down on the floor and try to stomp on it. It might sound easy, but ask these people the results of it: John Petty, Jay Schlichting, Tommy Johnson, Paxton Howard, Bill Erskine, Jim Ten Eyck, Fella Patteson and Robert Payne.

We have some very sad news. The Hudsons, Don and Jean, are moving back to Lubbock this weekend. We sure hate to see them leave and want them to be sure and come back to see us a whole bunch cause we will miss them.

Mary Jane Miller surely does have an interesting Plane Geometry book cover. It has drawings all over it.

Last Friday, San Jacinto Junior High had the privilege of having some high school students perform for them. Charlie Worthe, Jim Ten Eyck, Fella Patteson, Robert Payne and Jim Smith made up a fine Hillbilly Band, which performed for the Junior High students. The band will perform this Saturday night at high school.

Janice and Joy Rawdon are going to Denver City, their old home town, this weekend for the homecoming game. Hope that they win.

Anna Bess Doyle and Barbara Whitson went with Barbara's father, to the Baylor-Agrile game last weekend in Waco. They sure did like the way the Aggie band marched. They also were pleased with the way the game ended up. While in Waco they saw Daphne Tabor, who was out on the field marching at half-time. "Daffy" is a sophomore at Baylor.

Rainbow Girl Trippers

The Midland Rainbow Girls attended a meeting at Big Spring Saturday. Those going were Shirley Robertson, Sue Talkington, Sandra Morrison, Meredith Mae Nipp, Linda Breith, Gwyn Campbell, Martha Nell Chastain, Laura Beth Greenlike. They were accompanied by Mrs. J. T. Klingler, Sr., and this columnist.

Now to the more serious side of the column. There is a large bowl at the end of the counter on the snack bar. This bowl is for the needy people of Midland so that they may have a happy Thanksgiving. Now, it is very important that everyone contribute. It is called the "kitty." So be sure and give to the kitty for it is for a worthwhile cause. You are asked to contribute at least a penny for each year that you are old. Don't forget this for we want to have at least six baskets and more if at all possible.

So until next week we remain your Youth Center Chatter Reporter bidding one and all a very happy week, and to all Twirps, good luck!

Cocoanut Grove
of the Ambassador Hotel

says "MEXENE gives the true "South-of-the-Border flavor to Chili Con Carne" and here's his recipe preferred by gourmets the world over

GENUINE CHILI CON CARNE

1 lb. chopped beef	1 onion, chopped fine
1 lb. chopped pork (or 2 lbs. beef)	2 tsp. MEXENE seasoning
1 tbp. shortening	2 tbp. flour
1 bulbion garlic, cut fine	salt to taste

Fry onions, garlic, meat in shortening, until brown, stir in flour, add 1 pint water. MEXENE seasoning; simmer 30 minutes or more, until tender. Add 2 cans of red beans, or chili beans, after chili con carne has simmered 15 minutes. It may be necessary to add more water while cooking. If canned beans are not available, use any good red bean, California pink, pinto, or Idaho red bean. Soak 2 cyps beans in 4 cups of water one hour or more. Cook beans, salted to taste, in covered utensil on surface burner at moderate temperature until tender. Add additional water as needed, while cooking.

Daddy Ringtail Feather Shoes

Daddy Ringtail lives in a monkey house. He lives high in the top of a very tall tree, right in the middle of the Great Forest. Down on the ground his chickens live in a chicken house.

There was once upon a time in the long ago when the chickens had trouble, trouble, trouble. Their trouble was the Featherman. All the Featherman could think about was feathers, and more feathers. He would snatch away feathers the chickens were using. He would take the feathers home to feather his nest. He lived in a nest instead of in a house.

Imagine! What if you had been a chicken? What if you had lived in the Great Forest in the faraway day I am telling about? Why, you might have been walking around in your chicken yard, pecking away at bugs and buglets on the ground, scratching around for a worm even. Maybe you didn't dream that trouble was anywhere near, and then—of a sudden—sneak! A Featherman jumped from behind a tree and grabbed away one of your very fine feathers that you weren't through with using.

You wouldn't have liked this at all. Nossir, you wouldn't. Daddy Ringtail's chickens didn't like it, either. They didn't like it so much—they were so worried, and so treated—they wouldn't even open the door of the chicken house for Daddy Ringtail to come in and get the eggs.

Daddy Ringtail knew he had to do something. He gave the Featherman a talking-to, but it didn't do a bit.

Daddy Ringtail thought and thought, and at last he decided. He watched and waited for the Featherman, and there he came, slipping along through the trees. Long white whiskers—long green coat—oh, this was the Featherman, all right, and his feet made never a sound to warn the chickens that he was coming.

That is why Daddy Ringtail gave the Featherman the fine pair of Feather Shoes. When the Featherman walks in them now, the air is filled with feathery, Featherman music, and the chickens run and hide. Happy day!

Corned Beef With Cauliflower Is Nice Change From Old Standby

Corned Beef Dinner

As a change from corned beef and cabbage, why not serve corned beef with cauliflower? For an attractive dinner platter, cook the cauliflower whole, top with pimiento cheese sauce and serve with sliced, hot corned beef. Simmer corned beef in water to cover until tender, three to four hours.

The recipe calls for 1 corned beef brisket, 1 bay leaf, 4 whole cloves, 1 clove garlic, 1 whole cauliflower, 1 cup medium white sauce, 3/4 cup grated American cheese and 2 tablespoons chopped pimiento.

Wash corned beef thoroughly and cover with cold water. Bring slowly to boil and cook for five minutes. Skim, add remaining ingredients, cover and reduce heat. Cook slowly three to four hours, or until very tender. (Allow 45-50 minutes per pound.) Add additional hot water as needed.

Cook cauliflower in boiling, salted water until tender. Prepare white sauce. Add cheese to hot sauce and stir over low heat until cheese melts. Add pimiento and pour over hot cauliflower.

Don't Toss Off Child's Fears; Discuss Them Frankly, Calmly

By EDWIN F. JORDAN, M. D.
Written for NEA Service

Probably every child at one time or another develops some fear which causes him great distress. The child may be afraid of the dark, of dogs or cats, of witches, of hobgoblins, or of almost anything else real or imaginary.

Such childhood frights should not be tossed off by responsible grown-ups just because they know the fears are not justified—they are real enough to the child.

If the true nature of the fear can be coaxed out by the parents, the situation usually is made better merely by comforting affection and reassurance. Often simply telling a child that the witches and hobgoblins are not true is quite enough to relieve them of one of the big worries in their little lives.

Children who carry the imaginary fears of the daytime over into the sleeping hours often groan and mumble in their sleep and sometimes wake up covered with perspiration and crying with terror.

When this happens, a special effort should be made to get at the nature of the fear and to discuss it frankly and calmly. Occasionally, if the nightmares cannot be prevented in this way, something more serious may be responsible which requires definite medical treatment.

A fairly common source of fears of this kind is one which parents often have difficulty in finding out about or even understanding when they do. If one of the children in a family seems to get more peevish, affection, or attention from the parents, another child may develop a fear that he is adopted or is not wanted in the family group.

Insecurity Causes Fears

A feeling of insecurity in the home causes many of these fears. This clearly is a problem for the parents. Also, some children are born with more sensitive nervous systems and more imagination, and such youngsters are more susceptible to trouble of this kind.

Indeed, peculiarities of behavior may stem from fears which a child is concealing. Parents must be alert to such possibilities.

City Church Plans Homecoming Service

The service will be preceded at 2 p.m. by a radio program.

The homecoming services concludes a "FAN Roundup" campaign in the Sunday School Department. Lunch will be served in the church at noon Sunday.

Five Red Prisoners Killed By Comrades

UN PRISONER OF WAR COMMAND, KOREA.—(AP)—The United Nations Prisoner of War Command headquarters Wednesday said five Communist POW's were beaten Monday by fellow prisoners at a camp at Yongchon, Korea.

The announcement said the five apparently were trying to formulate plans to escape when other prisoners and a compound representative found them.

The incident occurred in a compound housing officers who have sworn to resist repatriation to Communist territory.

FROM CLARENDON
Mrs. H. L. Riley of Clarendon arrived in the city Wednesday for a visit with her daughter, Mrs. Elmer Logsdon and family, 1008 South Colorado Street.
