

Play Readers Hear Program By Mrs. Barron

Mrs. Elliott Barron was the reader when the Play Readers met Wednesday afternoon in the home of Mrs. Wade Heath, 808 West Tennessee Street.

During a business session, members voted to change the time of regular meetings to 3 p.m. and heard a report on the proposed Woman's Club building by Mrs. Wilson.

Discussed was a petition being circulated in Midland asking for an election on a proposed addition to the county courthouse and library. It was announced that the next meeting will be November 19 in the home of Mrs. Barron, 1909 West Holloway Street, with Mrs. Ray Howard as the reader.

Present were Mrs. Elliott Barron, Mrs. Ralph Barron, Mrs. Bryant, Mrs. John Fitzgerald, Mrs. J. H. Herd, Mrs. Howard, Mrs. Charles Klapproth, Mrs. J. D. Martin, Mrs. W. Pennebaker, Mrs. W. T. Schneider, Mrs. R. D. Scruggs and Mrs. Heath.

Ten Churches Sponsor Training School Opening Thursday Night

Jane McAtee, director of the Week-Day Kindergartens at the First Presbyterian Church, will be one of the instructors for the second annual Community Leadership Training School to be opened Thursday night by ten Midland churches.

Miss McAtee, who is from Brookhaven, Miss., was graduated from the General Assembly's Training School in Richmond, Va., with a masters degree in Christian Education. She also attended the National College of Education in Evanston, Ill., doing specialized study in children's work.

In the leadership school, she is to teach a class on "The Home and Church Working Together for Children."

The course is designed to help leaders understand how daily happenings, trends of the times, atmosphere at home, unusual events and crises, explanations and general conversation, religious practices and activity building a Christian social order contribute to a child's growing religious ideas and behavior.

Other courses and instructors for the school will include "Jesus and His Teachings," Dr. J. Edmund Kirby, superintendent of the Methodist Church's Pampa District; "The Church and Social Action," the Rev. Beverly M. Boyd of Uvalde, and "Understanding Adults," Dr. Noel Keith of Texas Christian University.

The training school, to be held in the First Christian Church, will continue through November 12. Sessions will be held daily, except Saturday, beginning at 7:30 p.m. on weekdays and 3 p.m. on Sunday.

All persons interested in Midland churches are invited to participate. There will be a $1 registration fee. A display of religious books is planned during the school and there will be a nursery and study hall for children of adults attending.

A luncheon for faculty and staff members of the school has been planned for 1 p.m. Friday. Place of the luncheon is to be announced. Sponsoring churches are the Asbury Methodist, Church of the Nazarene, First Christian, First Methodist, First Presbyterian, Westminster Presbyterian, Saint Mark's Methodist, St. Luke's Methodist, Trinity Episcopal and St. Andrew's Presbyterian churches.

Film On Korea Is Featured At DAR Meet

The Lt. William Brewer Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, met Tuesday in the home of Mrs. James C. Watson, 1204 Princeton Street, with Mrs. Frank Elkin as co-hostess.

In keeping with the program theme for the afternoon, "Menaces to Our Liberties," Sinclair Murray showed the sound film entitled "Korea, the Price of Appeasement."

Mrs. John P. McKinley, regent, led the chapter in reciting the scripture and ritual and presided during the business session. It was announced that a percentage of the sales of note paper will be used toward paying for the Texas DAR House in Austin. Members were asked to place advance orders with Mrs. B. W. Golladay.

Assisting with hostess duties for the afternoon was Mrs. Fred E. Foster, Jr., of Odessa, daughter of Mrs. Watson. Mrs. John T. Miller, Jr., was welcomed as a new member and guests were Mrs. Clyde Stone and Mrs. Robert Lindemood.

Others present were Mrs. James Parker, Mrs. C. L. Davenport, Mrs. Douglas Edman, Mrs. Eugene Russell, Mrs. George Kidd, Mrs. Jack Walcher, Mrs. John Perkins, Mrs. Jess C. Ward of Odessa, Mrs. George Abell, Mrs. John E. Cooper, Mrs. W. H. Gilmore, Mrs. John P. Butler, Mrs. W. W. Studdert, Mrs. W. D. Reiger and Mrs. D. A. Ross.

CT Presents First Play Of Fall Season

The oil boom was on in Paris Wednesday night when the Midland Community Theater opened its fall season with "The Madwoman of Chailiot."

The play was presented in the City-County Auditorium under the direction of Art Cole. Based on the improbable plot of drilling for oil in Paris, the project pitted the unscrupulous and powerful interests against the good and simple "little" people of Paris, with the former taking a beating.

The play featured not only one of the largest casts in Community Theater history, but also some of the best acting. Particularly excellent performances were turned in by Gay Madsen as the madwoman of Chailiot, and Arthur Nations, as the rag picker.

Other capable actors included Florence Shiner, portraying Constantine; Mrs. Charles Marsh, Jr., as Gabrielle; Mrs. Leonard Swords, as Josephine, and Bill Key as the President.

Colorful sets and trick effects, the contributions of a hard-working stage crew headed by Lee Shade, were instrumental in maintaining the right atmosphere.

Others in the cast were Dolores Franklin, as Irma; Matina Zanga, as Flower Girl; Alice Swift, Paulette; Elynor Baird, Therese; Thomas King, Baron; Charles Stewart, Broker; Walter Baird, prospector; David Johnson, Sewer Man; Bruce Shade, Sergeant; Don Kirk, Policeman; Bill Shaner, Pierre.

Bob Trawek, Doorman; Randal Gibson, Walter; Eric Madsen, Dr. Jadin; Dick Connolly, Little Man; Walt Sharpe, Singer; Joe Williams, Peddler, and Joe Arthaud, Deaf Mute.

Also participating were Enid Little, Orwyn Bellejeau and Jack Swift.

The humorous fantasy, written by French playwright, Jean Giraudoux, was a hit both in France and on Broadway. It was written during the German occupation in 1942-43 and first produced on December 19, 1945. In December, 1948, it came to Broadway where it ran for 368 performances followed by a 20-week road tour. American critics were divided on the subject. Some hailed it enthusiastically, while others considered it a run-of-the-mill comedy.

The Midland production will continue through Saturday, with nightly performances at 8:30 p.m.—P.A.

Opening Night For MHS Opera Slated Thursday

The Midland High School music, speech and art departments will present the opening performance of the opera, "Down in the Valley," and the one-act comedy, "Box and Cox," Thursday night.

Curtain time will be at 8 p.m. in the high school auditorium. A second performance is slated for Friday night.

"Down in the Valley" deals with the escape from prison of a condemned man, Brock Weaver, who wants to be with his sweetheart, Jennie Parsons, before he dies.

Supporting the cast will be the A Cappella Choir and a 20-piece orchestra composed of the Silver Strings ensemble and teachers and students from the high school.

"Box and Cox," written by John Madison Morton, is the story of complications which arise when two men, unknown to each other, rent the same room.

SCOUT HELPERS NAMED
Mrs. Jess E. Wright and Mrs. H. T. Francis were named as helpers to the leaders of Brownie Troop 73 when the troop met Tuesday in the Lamar School to learn the Brownie song and promise. Refreshments were served by the leader, Mrs. Raymond Nance, and assistant leader, Mrs. Coy Knight.

First Baptist Church Circles Have Programs, Bible Study

The First Baptist Women's Missionary Union met in circles Monday and Tuesday for programs and Bible study.

Mrs. R. L. Denton was hostess to the Le'ha Saunders Circle Tuesday. Mrs. J. H. Moseley presided over the business session and Mrs. C. M. Dunagan led the Bible study. The opening prayer was given by Mrs. L. E. Patterson and the closing prayer by Mrs. Dunagan.

Others present were Mrs. R. L. Denton, Mrs. Morris Hill and Mrs. G. L. Evans.

Mrs. George Johnson led the Mary Martha Circle in Bible study Monday. Her topic was "A Message for Exiles."

The meeting was held in the home of Mrs. T. S. Henderson. Mrs. Nettie Ray gave the opening prayer and Mrs. Johnson, the closing prayer.

Also attending were Mrs. Walter R. Davis, Mrs. James G. White, Mrs. C. C. Mason, Mrs. H. M. Glass, Mrs. J. W. Schroeder and Mrs. J. W. Roberts, a guest.

Others present were Mrs. James Walton and Mrs. J. C. Vandeventer.

Mrs. M. M. Bell conducted the Bible study for the Sarah Bryant Circle Tuesday at a meeting in the home of Mrs. Vernon Yearby.

Mrs. Yearby gave the opening prayer and Mrs. Lloyd Waldron, the closing prayer. Others attending were Mrs. Frank Griggs, Mrs. C. L. Thornton and Mrs. Robert Goff.

Mrs. E. H. Thacker was hostess to the Jackie Short Circle Tuesday. Mrs. W. H. Dempster led the Bible study and the opening prayer and Mrs. Thacker gave the closing prayer. Others attending were Mrs. Don Elliott, Mrs. James Mims, Mrs. James Windham, Mrs. Miller, Mrs. Wristen and Mrs. Marshall Bagwell, a guest.

Lion Tamers Hold Luncheon

Members of the Lion Tamers Club held a covered dish luncheon Wednesday in the home of Mrs. Morris Howard in Terminal, with Mrs. Bill Collins as co-hostess.

Mrs. C. A. Churchill, vice president, presided for the meeting in the absence of the president, Mrs. Victor Horn, who was out of the city.

Mrs. John H. Biggs was introduced as a new member and guests were Mrs. C. L. Chambers, Mrs. R. H. Kitchens and Mrs. B. J. Clark. Members attending were Mrs. T. J. Inman, Mrs. Earl H. Ray, Mrs. John A. Sewell, Mrs. Norman J. Maberry, Mrs. Churchill, Mrs. Collins, Mrs. Howard and Mrs. Allen J. Watts.

The Lockett Circle packed two boxes Tuesday for the circle's charity projects. Mrs. O. R. Phillips led the Bible study.

Hostess was Mrs. O. L. Beville. Mrs. Albert Clement led the opening prayer and Mrs. Shelton the final prayer.

Others present were Mrs. Palmer.

Newspapers Outdo Pollsters In Predicting Ike's Victory

NEW YORK—Several newspaper surveys outdid the professional pollsters this year on the presidential election. However, nobody's ear caught the rumble of the advancing Eisenhower landslide.

The Gallup, Roper and Crossley polls all seemed to give Dwight D. Eisenhower an edge during the hours before Tuesday's election. But none fully picked him.

The only professional poll that did was Kenneth Fink's Princeton Research Service. But his margin was far short of the actual one.

An Associated Press survey of editors across the nation showed Eisenhower the probable winner in 20 states, and with an edge in eight, with a total of 327 electoral votes. He actually carried all 28 states.

Samuel Lubell, who surveyed pre-election sentiment for the Scripps-Howard newspapers, said in advance that Eisenhower "should win." Lubell terms himself a reporter and not a pollster, and he said he rang doorbells in strategic communities. He found a definite switch from those who voted for President Truman in 1948 to Eisenhower in 1952.

"Never Any Doubt"

"There never was any doubt in my mind about Eisenhower," he said after the election gave the general 39 states and 442 electoral votes. Democrat Adlai E. Stevenson got nine states and 89 electoral votes.

Another newsmen, David Lawrence, Washington correspondent, surveyed editors of daily newspapers in every state. In his daily column syndicated by the New York Herald Tribune on November 3, he gave 357 electoral votes to Eisenhower and 149 to Stevenson.

The New York Times published a state-by-state survey the same day and found 23 states with 256 electoral votes favoring or leaning toward Eisenhower. Stevenson was ahead or favored in 18 states with 168 votes. Nine states with 110 votes were listed as doubtful.

The final story of The Associated Press survey, appearing in Sunday newspapers, October 26, started this way:

"Newsmen over the nation believe 1952 would go down as a Republican year with Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower the probable winner over Gov. Adlai E. Stevenson, if the presidential election had been held in mid-October."

Two AP Surveys

"Newspaper editors and political correspondents who made two political surveys for The Associated Press clocked Eisenhower as leading the presidential sweepstakes around Labor Day. They estimate he has picked up strength since then in 30 of 48 states."

In 11 states, The AP survey showed newsmen picking Stevenson the probable winner. These included Alabama, Arkansas, Georgia, Kentucky, Mississippi, North Carolina, South Carolina, West Virginia, which Stevenson did win. Also Missouri, Arizona and Oklahoma, which went to Eisenhower.

Five states—Massachusetts, Tennessee, Utah, Virginia and Washington—were classified in AP surveys as doubtful with an edge to Stevenson. All were taken by Eisenhower.

There were four tossups in The AP survey tabulation. Eisenhower took three of them—Florida, Rhode Island and Texas. Stevenson got the other—Louisiana.

Among professional pollsters, Fink gave Eisenhower a little more than 50 per cent of the popular vote and Stevenson a little more than 48 per cent.

Margin Underestimated

George Gallup, director of the American Institute of Public Opinion, presented pre-election figures which gave Eisenhower a seven per cent edge on Stevenson but listed 12 per cent of the electorate as undecided.

Gallup admitted afterwards he underestimated the Republican victory, but said his poll "stayed within its normal margin of error."

Archibald M. Crossley, director of the Crossley Poll, said a few hours before the election that it "can still go either way."

However, his figures gave Eisenhower about a five per cent edge over Stevenson with 9.9 per cent undecided.

He said afterwards the big Republican effort to get out the vote apparently turned the trick.

Elmo Roper, head of the Roper Poll, did not try to break down the pre-election findings into percentages. He said, instead, "There ought to be enough people still undecided to throw this election either way."

He conceded after the election he was "open to the charge of being overly cautious this year."

"I made no prediction," he added, "and I don't ever intend to make a prediction until those undecided people tell us what they intend to do."

TMA Sees Better Deal For Business

FORT WORTH—The head of the Texas Manufacturers Association believes business will get more attention from the Republicans than it did under the Democrats.

Frank Stevens of Waco, said here Wednesday night he believed the Eisenhower Administration "will have a more favorable attitude toward the problems of business" than its predecessors of the last 20 years.

Stevens was here for the opening Thursday of the 30th annual Conference of Texas Industry of the TMA.

He said he believed a "fair share" for business should include certain curbs on the power of labor unions, including a ban on industry-wide bargaining "monopolistic" practices.

Potter Rites Held In City

Funeral services for John Hildreth Potter, 87, pioneer Midland County ranchman, were held at 11 a.m. Thursday in the First Christian Church. Interment was in Fairview Cemetery under direction of Newell W. Ellis Chapel.

Potter died Tuesday at the residence, 501 North Baird Street, after an extended illness.

Potter moved to Midland in 1889 and started ranching. In 1905, he sold his ranch, located 10 miles east of the city, and moved to the family address. He was married to the former Miss Martha Jane Veach, Dec. 24, 1906, in Midland County. He was owner of three business buildings on North Main Street.

Survivors include the widow; three daughters, Mrs. Herd Midkiff and Mrs. L. T. Sledge, both of Midland, and Mrs. W. S. Crook of Big Spring; two sons, J. W. and Thomas J. Potter, both of Midland; a sister, Mrs. Lizzie Dublin of Midland; five grandchildren, and two great grandchildren.

Accidental Death Of Trucker Unfolds Tale Of Two Wives

TROY, N. Y.—The death of a 31-year-old truck driver has unfolded the tale of his two wives, four children by each wife, and two homes 60 miles apart.

Eugene Wood's seven years of double life were revealed Wednesday when Mrs. Anna Wood of Saugerties and Mrs. Jean Wood of Schaghticoke tangled over his certain rights to his estate.

Wood was killed last September 30 in a collision at Paramus, N. J. Anna's attorney, Max Goldstein of Albany, said that until then neither wife knew about the other.

Goldstein said Wood worked it this way:

He drove for a suburban trucking company, which ships produce to New York City and New Jersey. On trips, Wood stayed with the wife and four children in Saugerties, about 45 miles south of here.

Otherwise he was at home with his family in Schaghticoke, about 15 miles north of Troy.

Goldstein said Wood married Anna in 1941, Jean in 1945. Anna has four children, one to 10 years old, and Jean has four, Goldstein said.

The county surrogate had issued letters of administration in Wood's estate to Jean, who intended to file a negligence suit in connection with his death. Anna, seeking similar letters, asked to have Jean's revoked.

Ike May Lean On Bipartisan Programs With GOP's Thin Control Of Congress

WASHINGTON—(AP)—Congress has returned to Republican control by a margin so thin that President-elect Dwight D. Eisenhower, probably will depend upon bipartisan support to put through many of his policies.

This support, many believe, he is likely to get. While the general was winning with a landslide vote Tuesday, his supporters fought bitterly and in some cases neck and neck for seats in the 83rd Congress, which will consider major international and domestic problems next year.

Eight congressional races went into vote-by-vote counting, with at least three of them dependent upon absentee ballots from throughout the world, including Korea. In some close races, defeated candidates have indicated they may contest the outcome.

Morse On Outside
Complete Senate returns gave the Republicans 48 seats and the Democrats 47. Senator Wayne Morse of Oregon, who resigned from the Republican Party to support Governor Stevenson, was listed as an independent with possibly a decisive vote.

The Democrats held a 49-47 edge in the 82nd Congress. In the last Republican-controlled 80th Congress of 1947, the GOP had a 51-45 advantage in the Senate.

Republicans Tuesday won 220 House seats, two more than necessary for control. The Democrats took 206 but one of these became vacant with the death Wednesday night of Representative Sabath (D-Ill.), dean of the House, who had just been elected to his 24th consecutive term. A House vacancy can be filled only by a special election.

Vote Of Coalition
One independent who usually voted with the Democrats was re-elected, and Democrats were leading in all eight undecided districts. The Democrats held 232 House seats in the last Congress, but this advantage was largely nullified by an anti-Truman voting coalition of Republicans and Southern Democrats.

In 1947, the Republicans controlled the House by a 246-188 margin, with one vacancy. The Democrats carried traditionally Democratic Kentucky in a presidential election? This was the most provocative question left unanswered Thursday from Tuesday's general election, which saw the state elect a Republican senator and retain six Democrats to two Republicans in the House of Representatives.

It looked as if absentee ballots held the answer to whether Eisenhower or Stevenson would carry the state. Returns from 4,011 of the state's 4,135 precincts gave Stevenson, 484,036; Eisenhower, 482,509.

The unaccounted for precincts were in territory apparently about equally divided between Stevenson and Eisenhower. Jefferson County alone had 4,000 absentee ballots. Tabulation of these ballots began Thursday.

TO AUSTIN
Marjorie Simmons accompanied her mother, Mrs. Jarel Simmons of San Angelo, to Goldthwaite and Austin recently on a business trip.

Many of the top Republicans in Congress favored reducing the nation's foreign commitments below the minimum that General Eisenhower, before his nomination, said was safe.

The Republicans captured 23 of the 35 Senate seats at stake, with the Democrats winning 12. This was a net GOP gain of two seats. Four incumbent Republicans were beaten—Henry Cabot Lodge, Jr., of Massachusetts, who was Eisenhower's pre-convention campaign manager; James P. Kern of Missouri; Harry Cain of Washington and Sales Eton of Montana.

But 11 members of the Republican "Class of 1946"—prominent in the last GOP Senate victory—survived. They included Senators Joseph R. McCarthy of Wisconsin and William E. Jenner of Indiana, who drew heavy Democratic fire during the campaign. Four Democratic senators also were overturned—Ernest McFarland of Arizona, the majority leader; the veteran Joseph O'Mahoney of Wyoming; William Benton of Connecticut and Thomas Underwood of Kentucky.

Morse emerged as one of the Senate's most controversial figures because he has not indicated how he will vote. A tie would be broken by Vice President Barkley until January 20 and after then by Vice President Nixon.

Chairmanship Jobs
Senator Styles Bridges of New Hampshire, top-ranking Republican for seniority, will become a key figure in the new GOP majority. He can become the majority leader and also can have his choice of the chairmanship of either the appropriations or Armed Services Committee.

Senator Robert A. Taft, who lost

Tito Cracks Whip On Russia-Lovers

ZAGREB, YUGOSLAVIA—(AP)—Interior Minister Alexander Rankovic, boss of Yugoslavia's Security Police, disclosed Thursday that 11,130 persons have been "punished" for pro-Communist sympathies since this country's break with Russia and the Soviet satellites in 1948.

He furnished his report to the Sixth Congress of the Communist Party of Yugoslavia and told the 2,300 delegates that 4,089 persons of that total still are serving their terms, "doing socially useful labor."

TIPPIE GOES TO CLEANERS

WACO—(AP)—Mrs. A. T. Brisendine bundled up the family wash this week and called the laundryman, who promptly picked up the bundle and delivered it to the laundry.

Shirts, socks, pillowcases, etc., came tumbling out as the bundle was unwrapped. Then came one small dog.

Tippee, seven-week-old part Chihuahua, somehow had got wrapped up in the soiled clothes. He did not travel the rest of the route with the clothes.

Uncounted Ballots May Put Kentucky In GOP Bag Again

LOUISVILLE, KY.—(AP)—Will Dwight D. Eisenhower be the first Republican since Herbert Hoover to carry traditionally Democratic Kentucky in a presidential election?

This was the most provocative question left unanswered Thursday from Tuesday's general election, which saw the state elect a Republican senator and retain six Democrats to two Republicans in the House of Representatives.

It looked as if absentee ballots held the answer to whether Eisenhower or Stevenson would carry the state. Returns from 4,011 of the state's 4,135 precincts gave Stevenson, 484,036; Eisenhower, 482,509.

French Author Wins 1952 Nobel Award

STOCKHOLM—(AP)—The Royal Swedish Academy Thursday awarded the 1952 Nobel Prize for literature to French novelist Francois Mauriac, a leading contemporary Catholic author.

Mauriac, 67, and internationally known for such novels as "The Desert of Love" and "Vipers Tangle," also is a poet, playwright, essayist, biographer and contributor to newspapers. He will receive 171,134 Swedish crowns ($38,037) from King Gustav Adolf at the Nobel Prize presentation ceremony to be held here December 10.

The 1952 prizes for physics and chemistry were scheduled to be announced later Thursday, completing this year's list of honors bestowed under the will of Alfred Nobel, Swedish inventor of dynamite, which established the $9,000,000 foundation which pays the prizes.

The award for medicine, announced October 23, will go to U. S. Dr. Selman A. Waksman of Rutgers University, co-discoverer of streptomycin.

Friendly Congress May Help Ike Bring Speedier Changes

By JACK BELL
WASHINGTON—President Dwight D. Eisenhower probably could count Thursday on a friendly Congress to underwrite the domestic and foreign policy changes mandated by the volcanic eruption of votes that gave him the presidency.

It was not so much that the Republicans had gained practical control of both houses as a result of the general landslide victory. The friendliness of Congress—Republican by only one vote in the Senate and thus far by only two votes in the House—lay in the warmth of regard for the general shared by Southern Democrats in the coalition with Republicans which has controlled legislation the last four years.

This coalition rode intact through the greatest national-wide sweep ever made by a presidential candidate, a 39-state electoral vote total rolled up by the five-star general who turned politician only last Spring. Although most of the Southern publicly supported Gov. Adlai E. Stevenson of Illinois, there was little doubt that many of them felt more closely aligned to Eisenhower's views on domestic problems than to those of the Democratic nominee.

Texas Votes Roll In To Cinch Ike's Capture Of State

By The Associated Press
Votes from the forks of the creeks trickled in steadily Thursday as Texas' largest election in history was finally tabulated.

The figures showed close to two million votes cast, even with less than half of the county reports complete. The Texas Election Bureau predicted the two million mark would be passed before counting was over.

Stevenson and his party were expected to give the states title to the potentially oil-rich submerged lands along their coasts, passed by Congress in the last session and vetoed by President Truman. Eisenhower says he favors such a measure.

Senator Dennis Chavez

Chavez Edges Out Hurley In Second New Mexico Race

ALBUQUERQUE—Democrat Senator Dennis Chavez has won reelection over Republican challenger Patrick J. Hurley for the second straight time. But the result may not become official for weeks.

The last report from the election bureau showed Eisenhower with 53.45 per cent of the votes counted and Stevenson 46.28 per cent. Herbert Hoover carried Texas with only 51.7 per cent of the vote the last time the state went Republican.

With 1,898,579 votes tabulated, Eisenhower had 1,014,814 and Stevenson 878,766. The returns were from 251 of 254 counties, 108 of them complete.

Declining to concede, Hurley, former secretary of War and at one time ambassador to China, had ballot boxes in four Northern counties impounded. The counties gave Chavez about 2,700 votes of his lead.

Eisenhower Takes It Easy For Round Of Golf, Fishing

AGUSTA, GA.—President Gen. Dwight Eisenhower began a 10-day vacation Thursday with a date for golf—a very late date.

The President-elect put aside for a moment numerous pressing problems. His plans for the day included nothing but an afternoon round of golf at the National Golf Club, where he is staying, and his schedule so far embraces more of the same plus some fishing and the complete rest he has not known in months.

He gave no indication of the man he may choose for that assignment. There has been some speculation that he might ask his friend Lewis Douglas of Arizona to represent him. Douglas formerly served as director of the budget. He also served a term as ambassador to Great Britain.

Russia Screams About U.S. Sea Blockade Around Korea

Scouts Begin 'Together Plan' In Thursday Night Meeting

A unified, concentrated effort, labeled the "Together Plan" will be launched Thursday night by the El Centro District of the Buffalo Trail Council, Boy Scouts of America, as organizers and commissioners meet for their first training session. Headed by Mayor Perry Pickett as chairman, the plan will provide the opportunity for any church, school, or civic organization to incorporate Scouting in their service to youth.

Groups who have expressed a desire to use the Cub Scouting, Boy Scouting, or Exploring phase of the program have been invited to send representatives to a special dinner meeting at the First Christian

Mayor Perry Pickett

Church Fellowship Hall on Thursday evening, November 20. At this meeting, information will be given and procedures outlined for establishing a Scout unit in their organization. Trained counselors will be assigned to each interested group to help them with their planning.

Organizers and commissioners will receive training prior to the "Together Dinner" under the leadership of Gilbert Blackenship, Organization & Extension Chairman, W. R. Upham, District Commissioner, and Frank Owens, member of the O&E committee.

Bryan Elder is in charge of the dinner arrangements. Organizers and Commissioners recruited for the effort include R. A. Combs, Ken Griffin, John Kimberlin, Newbie Ellis, Ivan Hood, John Drummond, Sam Coker, H. S. Collins, and R. E. Goff.

Mayor Pickett urges any church, school, or other organization that may be interested in using Scouting in their program to let their wishes be known at Scout headquarters, 318 North Colorado.

TEXAS PROVES OLE MISS JINX

UNIVERSITY, MISS.—P.—Mississippi football teams have tried their luck in Texas on eight occasions and have found it consistently bad.

The Rebels have beaten Texas teams, but never in Texas. In the Lone Star State, against Texas A&M, Texas Southwestern, Southern Methodist and Texas Christian, they've dropped eight straight.

That's the record as Ole Miss gets set this week for its ninth game in Texas with a brand new foe, the University of Houston.

Labor Bosses Ebb In Vote Influence

WASHINGTON —(AP)—Organized labor's long era of special influence in government, such as it enjoyed under the Democratic "New Deal" and "Fair Deal," appears over. The union bosses took a terrific licking in Tuesday's elections.

All the union leaders, with one or two exceptions, supported the Democratic cause and urged the nation's workers to do likewise. But it seems apparent from the record vote and what happened in the big industrial areas that the workers largely ignored the urging of their leaders.

The victory of Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower demonstrated that labor unions lack the power, to a far greater degree than was often claimed, to deliver worker votes in key elections.

What It Means

Most of the union leaders declined any comment when the proportion of Eisenhower's victory, became known.

These are a few of the things

the election results probably will mean for union labor:

1. The unions very likely won't have the same degree of sympathy at the White House under Eisenhower that they had under Presidents Roosevelt and Truman. Eisenhower has pledged to be fair to labor and every other element of the population. But this sounds like a far different approach than the frank partisanship in behalf of labor which the unions enjoyed under Roosevelt and Truman.
2. There won't be any repeal of the Taft-Hartley labor law. Eisenhower has promised to make needed changes in the law, without being specific.

Youth Center Chatter

By NANCY LOU KLINGLER

Half of the first semester of school now has passed and the Seniors are the ones who are the happiest. Jerry Ball, you "villain," you broke our record of the "Bunny Hop."

Wish you would please paste it back so that those that want to hop around like a bunny may do so. Harvey Diemer was all decked out in a white muffler the other night. It looked very nice. By the way, many people who don't know his name have been identifying him as the boy who wears fancy shoes. Well his name is Harvey Diemer, so you may call him by his name from now on.

At Cole and Bill Kurts came to the Youth Center the other night. They are both cases.

Donna Howard and Mary Row gave Jean Corbell a surprise birthday party last Monday night. Jean was seventeen. Happy birthday and congratulations to you, Jean.

We made a mistake in last week's column. Rather we could say that we misunderstood them. Janice and Joy Rowden did not go to Denver City last week as we stated. They are going November 7. They are going for the Denver City homecoming game.

Pretty Maroon Jacket
Nona Lynn was sporting a maroon jacket the other night with a "P" on it. We later found out what the "P" stood for. It stands for Presbyterian. Her elder brother, Bobby, won it in basketball in Houston.

Peggy O'Neal, a former Midlander, was visiting in Midland with her parents last weekend. The O'Neals now reside in Ada, Okla.

We got a letter from three far off Midlanders. At least they are Midlanders at heart. Nancy Warren, Margie Henaley and Ann Ashby all are kind of homesick gals for good old Midland. They all are up in Mt. Vernon going to a Mt. Vernon girl's school. We heard via the grapevine, not the section from the school paper, the Bulldog, either, that they all were well liked up there just like they were here. Glad to hear from you, girls.

Tuesday, the Youth Center was closed. This time we weren't so disappointed about it because teenagers as well as those who are able to vote, vitally were concerned with what was going on in there. Yes, Tuesday was election day in the Youth Center and all over America. Very Attractive, Anyway.

We sure did like Sadie Nugent's shirt she had on the other night. It was one of those rather odd kinds. When we asked who it belonged to she replied that it was her younger brother, Graham. Regardless of who it belongs to it is very attractive.

The GTRI Scouts are planning their annual Christmas dance. The exact date has not been set, but as soon as we find out we will pass it on to you.

Twirp season still is in full swing. We only hope that the girls don't run out of money, because if they do then the boys would have to starve and that would be terrible, wouldn't it?

While speaking of starving, Sunday night Kenneth Schrum, Bill Erskine and Don Evans did far from that.

The Youth Center just can't seem to get rid of that little bug that everyone has. The name of this bug is the dancing bug. Monday night they started dancing and danced until Myrt ran them out.

The broom game still is going on in full swing at the Y. C. We explained how to do this little game last week. Dorothy Black is one of the few who hasn't fallen down yet.

Timber's New Fad
Don (Timber) Forest has started a new fad. He rolled up his pants legs. Timber, we hate to tell you, but there were some girls whistling at your legs.

The football boys looked real happy Monday. The reason was they didn't have to practice Monday afternoon after school.

There is no football game this weekend. There will be one next weekend with Amarillo in Midland. Let's all be saving up our pep for them and really support the Bulldogs to a win.

The Talent Show went off very well last weekend. Many of the great critics that saw it said it was the best that M. H. S. has ever had.

There will be an informal Saturday night dance. Guess when it will be? Saturday! We have been going around telling people there will be a dance Saturday and then they turn around and say, when will the dance be?

Don Evans and Kenneth Schrum seem to be very interested in the slide rule. They both are in the slide rule club and seem to take a very active part in everything that goes on, especially the pictures.

Don and Jean Hudson talked their parents out of moving to Lubbock. We sure are glad they aren't going to move.

Lee Snead told us he was trying desperately to make a hole in one out at the Midland Country Club golf course. Lee is a student who is taking golf. We hope you accomplish your goal, Lee.

Where Are They?
Where were the following people at 5 a.m. Saturday? Mary Jane Miller, Jan Houck, Pat Walker, Tommie Underwood, Atrelle Pace, Lavonne Bell, Betty Bolton, Betty Egford, Gayle Gilliam, Barbara Whitson, Lantia Early, Anna Bess Doyle, Kathleen Elmont, Nell Curran, Mary Jo Hammon, Sylvia Smith, Judy Edwards and Billy Hanson? Better ask them yourselves because they all have different answers.

We saw many Y. C. members at the C. M. A. in the auditorium Sunday afternoon watching the Spanish Ballet.

Thursday and Friday nights of this week the A Capella Choir and the Speech Department will present an operetta and a one-act play, respectively. The name of the operetta is "Down In the Valley" and the one-act play is "Box and Sox."

Remember, it is Twirp season, girls. Harold Wallace, Milton Jones, Jessie Hatfield and Jimmy Counts all seemed to be coming out with hats. It is the new fad to wear hats that fall over the front of your face, boys?

Kenneth Schrum went to Lubbock Monday to get some glasses fitted. He won't get them until next week sometime.

That just about winds up the Chatter for this week, so until next week, drive carefully.

ATTENDING OCS

Roy A. Downey, Jr. is attending Officer Candidate School at Fort Sill, Okla. Downey visited in Midland last week enroute to Fort Sill from Paso Robles, California.

Mrs. Downey, the former Carolyn Cook, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Cook, 408 West Parker Street, is a student in Odessa Junior College.

FROM FORT WORTH
Mrs. Lucille Stedman of Fort Worth visited briefly in Midland Tuesday afternoon.

The Washington Merry-Go-Round

Copyright, 1952, By The Bell Syndicate, Inc. Drew Pearson says: Foreign affairs clamor for post-election attention; Shocking Communist propaganda must be counteracted; Crimes now charged to American G.I.s reminiscent of Katyn murders.

WASHINGTON — With the hectic election period over, the United States will have to give some attention to our badly neglected field of foreign affairs, particularly to the wave of anti-American propaganda now sweeping the various parts of the world.

While the Voice of America is trying to counteract it, its budget, thanks to the pruning of frugal Senator Pat McCarran, has been drastically cut.

Here are illustrations of what the North Koreans are telling Asia about. Ernie Tates North Korean newspaper Minchu Chosen reports this eerie account of UN troops in the district of Echou: "American soldiers picked all the young women out of the crowd of natives and locked them in empty warehouses. All the women then were raped. The American butchers began to brand patches on the women's bodies with heated irons and nails."

"All the women who resisted the ravishers had a wire put through their nose by the Americans and they were led by this wire through the village. The monsters gouged out the eyes of many women and backed lungs of flesh out of their bodies."

"The butchers dismembered several pregnant women who fell into their hands during the temporary occupation of the town of Sarwen." The Journal, New Korea, also reported in a recent issue that American soldiers in the Katyn Forest early in World War II.

Some State Department officials believe that the current G.I. "atrocity" propaganda by the Communists may be their answer to the Katyn murders behind the Iron Curtain.

Our broadcasts on this were so effective, in fact, that Pop Kleser, administrator of the Voice of America, has received numerous requests for reprints from behind the Iron Curtain.

JACOBY ON BRIDGE

By OSWALD JACOBY Written for NEA Service

Perhaps the slam contract in today's hand was too ambitious. Nevertheless, it is difficult to find fault with South's jump to six hearts. North would not go to five clubs without some strength, and there would be a play for a slam if North had as little as two black kings.

South justified his ambitious bidding by careful play. After winning the first trick with the ace of diamonds, South thought deeply about the best way to bring in twelve tricks.

Card Sense puzzle with clues like 'Q-The bidding has been: South 1 Heart West Pass North 2 Hearts East Pass', 'You, South, hold: Spades 6-4, Hearts A-K-Q-8-2, Diamonds A-9, Clubs Q-J-5-2. What do you do?'

And decided that South would have twelve ice-cold tricks if he (East) won this trick with the jack of spades.

When East refused to win the spade trick with his jack, South realized East had made a fine play in order to stop the spades from becoming established. He therefore led a club from dummy and finessed the jack from his own hand.

West won with the queen of clubs and returned a spade. Declarer carefully won in dummy with the king of spades and cashed the ace of spades in order to discard the device clubs. As South had expected, the spades did not break; and therefore fell back on a second club finesse. When the ten of clubs held the next trick, South's slam contract was home.

Some State Department officials believe that the current G.I. "atrocity" propaganda by the Communists may be their answer to the Katyn murders behind the Iron Curtain.

Our broadcasts on this were so effective, in fact, that Pop Kleser, administrator of the Voice of America, has received numerous requests for reprints from behind the Iron Curtain.

WASHINGTON COLUMN

Preparing South Koreans For Self-Defense Is Complex Job

By PETER EDSON NEA Washington Correspondent

WASHINGTON—Worst hangover of the election and campaign is bound to be the Korean war issue. Campaign speech charges have been thrown about so recklessly by both sides that it has been almost impossible to get at basic facts which are indisputable.

Whether or not the infant Republic of Korea could put 15 per cent of its people in its defense forces is debatable.

Two factors are cited in this connection. First, the very cream of Korea's army of 100,000 was largely wiped out in the first Communist assault on South Korea in 1950. Total South Korean casualties now are estimated at more than 210,000, or more than one per cent of the population.

Exact figures on the number of South Koreans now in military service and training are classified. The best figure available at the Pentagon is "over 400,000." They have organized 10 divisions plus one Marine unit of almost division size.

Perhaps the best estimate of the immediate possibilities for increasing the ROK forces comes from Dr. You Chan Yank, Korean ambassador to Washington.

Q—Which U. S. Secretary of State served the longest? A—Cordell Hull, who retired as Secretary of State in 1944. He had served since 1933.

Q—Why is a cat often referred to as a pussy? A—The Egyptians had a cat-headed goddess named Pasht. Our word pussy can be traced to this name.

Q—Are cooperatives an important factor in our economy? A—Increasingly so. Ten million families are members of some form of cooperative.

Q—How many children did George Washington adopt? A—Two—Nelly and George Washington Parke Custis. Their father was John Parke Custis, a son of Martha Washington by her first marriage.

Q—Is the sun a planet or a star? A—Our sun is a typical star.

Daddy Ringtail

★ Daddy Ringtail ★
 The moon rode high in a bright-colored sky. It shone down on a snow-white. The Great Forest was covered with snow—the trees, the rocks, the bushes—even Daddy Ringtail's monkey house, high in the top of the very tall tree.

"Oh, dear," said Mother Ringtail, "the Huffen Puffen left his mittens there on the table, and walked away without them." The Huffen Puffen had come for a visit and some eating of seram-coconuts, pudding for dinner.

Daddy Ringtail said: "Mugwump, hurry to catch the Huffen and give him his mittens."

"Sure," said Mugwump, the monkey boy, and started to go.

"But Daddy Ringtail," said Mother Ringtail, "the night has come and the Great Forest, and the boy can't go alone."

"The moon will light the way," Daddy Ringtail said, "and Mugwump isn't afraid."

Mugwump picked up the mittens and down he slid to the ground. Away he walked up the Elephant Path to catch the Huffen, but oh! he was much too late to catch the Huffen. The Huffen would be at his home by now. Mugwump would have to walk all the way there and back, but he didn't care.

The moon was bright on the snow. The air was happily cold, while Mugwump Monkey was happily warm in his warm clothes. The crisp snow made a noise of crunch, crunch, crinkle-crackle as he walked upon it. Mugwump slipped and ran and ran and walked, crinkle-crackle, and crunch, crunch, crunch. Suddenly he stopped. Ahead of him somewhere on the Elephant Path he heard other feet. Crinkle-crackle, crunch, crunch, crunch. While Mugwump stopped and listened, the other feet stopped as though they too had stopped to listen. When Mugwump walked with a crinkle-crackle, so did the feet ahead of him. When his feet stopped, the feet ahead of him stopped too.

It was almost a little frightening, and a little-frightening is so much fun that I'll wait to tell you the rest of Mugwump's snowy night adventure tomorrow. Happy waiting. (Copyright 1952, General Feature Corp.)

Total Of 66 New Testers Reported In Midland Area

The list of applications to drill new petroleum projects in the Midland district of the Oil and Gas Division of the Railroad Commission of Texas, filed with the regulatory body's office in this city during the last week totaled 66 new projects.

Of those projects nine of them were wildcats. The new ventures were divided three to Andrews and one each to Cochran, Gaines, Howard, King, Motley and Ward Counties.

Cochran County claimed nine of the new field projects and Gaines County followed with seven explorations. Scurry reported five new tests.

Howard, Midland, Pecos, Ward and Yoakum Counties each gained four new projects.

Three new locations were staked in each of Andrews and Ector Counties. Garza, Terry and Winkler Counties each reported two new explorations.

The remaining new drillsites were divided one each among Borden,

Dawson, Hockley and Reeves.

Dollar Still Worth 100 Cents If You'll Spend It In Spain

By HAL BOYLE
MADRID —(AP)— More snapshots from a touring typewriter: Spain today has become the mecca of Europe for vacationing Americans for two reasons:

1. A visitor from the U. S. gets fewer black looks here than in any other European country. Juan Lopez, Spain's man in the street, may think Joe Doakes from Dubuque is crazy—but nice crazy.
2. This is one of the few places left in the world where the American buck still has its oldtime muscle. A 1952 dollar still is worth 100 cents here—and will go as far as it did back home before the war.

This amazing discovery that the dollar has regained its health causes many an American tourist to go on a wild buying jag, stocking up on $60 tailor made suits—made in two days—and beautiful women's leather handbags at 10 bucks that cost at least double that on Fifth Avenue. This low price scale holds for all native-made articles. But foreign luxuries, most of which are smuggled in and are sold on the black market, are ultra-expensive. Thus the visitor seeking to wet his whistle can get a fine bottle of mellow Spanish sherry for 75 cents—but may have to fork out a dollar for a single shot of Scotch whisky. This naturally results in more and more Americans here reconsidering the medicinal virtues of a "dry."

Condition Of Parks Reported Improved

Condition of Roy Parks, Midland County ranchman, was reported improved Wednesday. He is at his home, 1701 Country Club Drive. Parks collapsed Tuesday.

Although the main tourist season is over for the rest of Europe, Madrid still is thronged by late staying Americans and hotel rooms are all but unobtainable.
He's Checked Out
"Porteros"—the hotel key jockeys here—have a magnificent disdain for the English language. If you seek to find a friend lodging at a hotel, it is all but impossible to locate him as the portero's invariable answer is "Mister Doakes? Mister Doakes—he's checked out."

Recently an American woman who had lost her pooch approached a hotel portero and asked, "Have you seen my dog?"

Without even lifting an eye, portero replied suavely: "Mister Dog? Mister Dog—he checked out."

OPS Okays Cigarette Ceiling Price Boost

WASHINGTON —(AP)— The government Tuesday made possible a ceiling price hike ranging from one to three cents on a carton of cigarettes.
The Office of Price Stabilization said it does not expect the action to change the ceiling on an individual pack. Whether the ceiling on carton prices is raised depends on each wholesale or retail distributor.

That minicement with orange juice, heat and serve over cottage pudding or sponge cake.

Cook eggplant slices in a little butter or margarine; pour cheese sauce over them and top with sliced fresh or drained canned tomatoes for a delicious luncheon dish.
Cook a package of frozen rhubarb and combine it with thawed frozen sliced strawberries for a delectable fruit compote to serve after a hearty main course.

Enjoy Tea-Time Honey Scones

FOR AFTERNOON TEA TIME serve tea with Scotch orange honey scones, pastries glazed with honey and grated orange rind.

By VAYNOR MADDOX
NEA Food and Markets Editor

A pot of tea in the afternoon is wonderfully pleasant and refreshing, as we know from long experience in our home. Serve a basket of Scotch orange honey scones along with the tea and you have something pretty special.

Orange Honey Scones

(Makes 16 scones)
Scones: One and one-half cups sifted enriched flour, 3 teaspoons baking powder, 1 1/2 teaspoon salt, 2 tablespoons sugar, 1/3 cup shortening, 1/2 cup quick rolled oats, uncooked, 2 1/2 cup milk.

Sift together flour, baking powder, salt and sugar into bowl. Cut in shortening until mixture resembles coarse crumbs. Blend in rolled oats. Add milk mixing lightly until dough leaves sides of bowl. Add a little more milk if necessary to make a soft dough.

Knead gently a few seconds. Roll dough out on lightly floured board or canvas to 3/8-inch thickness, cut with floured diamond-shaped cutter.

Glaze: Two tablespoons honey, grated rind of one orange. Brush each piece of dough with honey and sprinkle with orange rind. Bake on ungreased baking sheet in a very hot oven (450 degrees F.) 8 to 10 minutes.

Cinnamon-Apple Buns are another easy hot bread that's perfect for the tea or breakfast table. Chopped apples folded into the dough with a spicy cinnamon topping makes this bread special.

Cinnamon-Apple Buns

(Makes one dozen buns)
Buns: One cup sifted enriched flour, 2 teaspoons baking powder, 1 1/2 teaspoon salt, 2 tablespoons sugar, 1 1/2 teaspoon cinnamon, 14 teaspoon allspice, 1 1/4 cup shortening, 1 cup rolled oats (quick or old-fashioned, uncooked), 1/2 cup chopped raw apple, 1 egg, beaten, 1 1/2 cup milk.

Sift together flour, baking powder, salt, sugar and spices. Cut in shortening until mixture resembles corn meal, add rolled oats and apple, mixing thoroughly. Combine beaten egg and milk and add to dry ingredients, mixing lightly only until mixture is dampened.

Turn out on lightly floured board or canvas and knead gently a few seconds. Shape into balls and place on ungreased baking sheet. Flatten balls slightly.

Topping: One-half teaspoon cinnamon, 1 1/4 cup sugar. Sprinkle the above dough with mixture of cinnamon and sugar. Bake in a hot oven (425 degrees F.) 12 to 15 minutes until well browned.

Rare Whooping Crane Dies, Second Injured By Hunter

CORPUS CHRISTI — One rare whooping crane has died on the mid-continental flyway and another has been wounded and is completing his migration from the Arctic Circle to Texas aboard a U. S. Fish and Wildlife Service plane.

The wounded whooper with a damaged wing and a broken leg, which is now in a cast, is enroute to Brackenridge Park Zoo Hospital at San Antonio where Fred Stark, zoo manager, has promised to "do everything we can" for him, Julian Howard, manager of the Aransas Wildlife Refuge, wintering grounds of the world's only flock of whoopers, said Tuesday.

The plane with Ross Hanson, pilot-biologist for the U. S. Wildlife Service; Ralph Sueck, Canadian ornithologist, and the whooper aboard, stopped in Oklahoma City Monday night and arrived in San Antonio Tuesday, Howard said.

The crane apparently was injured by a hunter near Weyburn, Sask., Canada, and a Weyburn veterinarian amputated a portion of the injured left wing and set the broken leg in a cast. The bird was captured on the farm of Percy Ballow, 30 miles southeast of Weyburn.

This was the second casualty on the whooping crane migration, Howard said.

Friday, a wounded whooper was picked up near Sharon, Kan., by two school boys, who took it to a biologist. Superficial examination indicated the injury was not a gunshot wound, Howard was told. Wildlife service personnel flew to Kansas that night and picked up the crane, but it died on the way to Texas.

LUXURY DOLLS IN SANTA'S PACK—With hair that "grows," and wearing mink coats, these dolls are among the more expensive items to be found in Santa's pack this year. First displayed at a pre-holiday show of toys in New York, the dolls' hair is made to "grow" by means of a winding device concealed in each doll's head. Linda Lupini, 5, seems delighted with the expensive playthings, which cost about $300 at Santa's North Pole workshop.

Here's a new idea for garnishing baked ham for a party: Use strips of candied orange peel, sliced some of the ham thin after you place it on the buffet table, then slice more as needed.

Want a good filling for yeast rolls? Just mix a cup of chopped, cooked, pitted prunes with two teaspoons grated orange rind, three tablespoons of sugar and a quarter teaspoon of cinnamon.

Thumbsucking Is Youngster's Retreat From His New World

By MURIEL LAWRENCE

Some time ago I wrote a column on thumbsucking. It is I compared forcible removal of thumbs from young mouths to prying open of buds that have not gathered enough sun or root strength to open of their own accord, I said (forcible removal) was a mistake.

A reader violently disagrees. She thinks such talk contributes to dental deformities in children. She encloses a newspaper item about a group of dentists who agree with her. They recommend placing "miniature boxing gloves" on the hands of all thumbsuckers.

This advice is in direct conflict with that of our child guidance experts. Before we rush to follow it, let's watch that young thumbsucker of ours. When does his thumb go into his mouth?

I bet know. When we've tucked him to bed and turn to put out the light. . . when we're feeding baby sister her bottle, smiling down at her drowsy eyes and milky mouth. . . on Sunday afternoons when the living room is filled with aunts, uncles, neighbors and grownup talk in the doctor's reception room waiting for a checkup of tonsils. . . at the end of the day when we say, "For heaven's sake, go and play, your father will be home in a minute."

That's when the thumb goes into the mouth—the times when the world just gets too complicated for a newcomer to figure it out.

If we watch closely, we actually will see our newcomer begin his retreat from this world. First, vitality will seem to go out of him. Our small Billy will find himself a chair or sofa against whose softness he can lean his head. Then his eyes, ordinarily so alert, will go suddenly, unfocused and unseeing, as though he preferred to be blind to what he can do nothing about. The head droops. The hand moves upward to the mouth—and Billy, with his dreamy, ecstatic look upon his face, begins to suck his thumb for dear life.

He is dreaming. He has temporarily given up on this strange place where smiles are for baby sisters, attention for aunts and uncles, and sleep separates a little boy from his mother. Dreaming Billy has gone back for a little vacation to the lovely, understanding time when other people's strength supported him.

He will stop dreaming when reality is as good as the dreams. He will stop sucking his thumb when we can provide a better source of comfort. Now he needs what he's got. To snatch it from him is a shocking disregard for a present human need. Incidentally my dentist tells me that thumbsucking is a hazard only if it is continued after Billy's second teeth begin to grow. He is a very able dentist.

War In Korea Eats One Third Of Russia's Jet Plane Output

WASHINGTON — (NEA) — An intelligence report estimates that the stepped-up air war in Korea now is eating up one-third of Russia's jet fighter production.

If the sudden upsurge in the number of Russian-made MIG-15's being destroyed in Korea continues, it might, in the opinion of Pentagon experts, pressure Russia to agree to a truce.

The heavy MIG loss, they point out, is the first cost in the Korean conflict which really has hurt the Russians. The cost is so high that the Reds have had to interrupt their program for converting the satellite air forces to jets, according to our intelligence.

Latest Air Force figures put the average number of MIG's being shot down at more than 40 per week. At this rate the total MIG bag for the Air Force will soon exceed 500.

Significance of this development is the belief that Russia was feeling no pain over the Chinese and North Korea losses nor over the expenditure of surplus Russian arms and equipment for the Chinese and North Koreans had to pay cash on the barrel head.

The supplying of MIG's, however, is reported to be a very different situation. Up until the current rate was set of one U. S. Sabrejet to 15 MIG's shot down, the belief was that the Russians considered that loss worth the combat experience which the Red Chinese Air Force was getting. Now it may be a different story.

The Russians aren't getting paid for the MIG's because the Red Chinese just can't afford it. Thus, it's the one cost of the Korean War which the Russians are paying out of their own pockets. And it's not cheap.

A MIG is believed to cost about two-thirds the price of a Sabre. That puts the cost of those being shot down in Korea at many million dollars a week, in terms of American dollars.

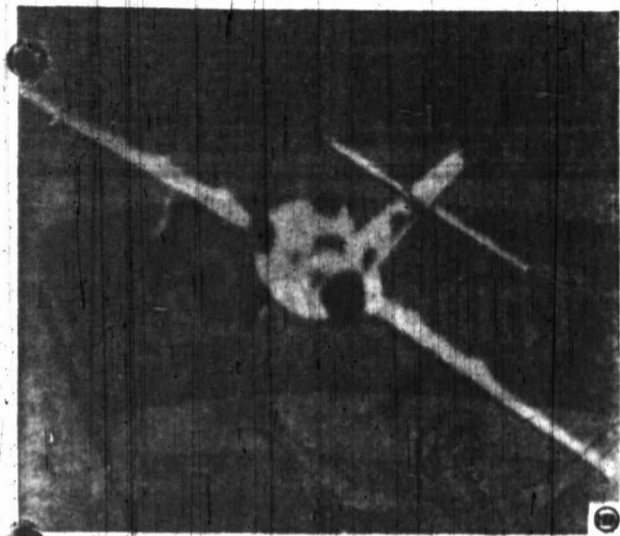

As one Air Force expert states: "If the Russians can be influenced to agree to a truce in Korea on the basis of increasing costs to them of the fighting there, then we are giving them the most potent reason for peace in the sky over Korea right now."

The most disturbing fact to the U. S. Air Force is that, in spite of the heavy advantage which American pilots seem to have now, the Chinese Communist Air Force and pilots are steadily improving.

One of the reasons for the high MIG loss, it is claimed, is the Russian insistence that the Chinese pilots use up all the old MIG's first before any newer models are delivered to them.

There have been consistent reports recently that a few new-type MIG's have been seen over Korea. But they have not been showing up in any quantity because of the Russian theory of using up old equipment before the new.

On over-all figures, the best intelligence reports reveal that Russia today has 20,000 first line aircraft in organized units, with the same number in reserve. Total U. S. military planes now number approximately 30,000 in all categories; but only 40 per cent of these are combat types.

MIG bag gets up by one, as this Russian fighter is caught by a Sabrejet's guns and begins to fall. The camera, synchronized with the guns, caught it at the moment it was hit.

Squirrel Surprises Triumphant Hunter

CENTRALIA, ILL. — (AP) — Hunter Ross Bradley bagged a squirrel, put his prize in his coat pocket and returned to his Willsville home. Later, he took his game out to clean it and it dashed up a tree.

Bradley and neighbors failed to catch the animal. Bradley got his gun and shot it again, this time dead.

Higher Production From Cows Studied

RALEIGH, N. C. — (AP) — The average North Carolina cow being tested under the Dairy Herd Improvement Association testing program returned $197 more profit to the owner last year than the average untested cow.

Marvin E. Senger, state college extension dairy specialist, says it isn't the testing itself that makes the difference but the use of the testing results.

The average cow in the testing program produced 8,156 pounds of milk and 351 pounds of butterfat last year, Senger points out. The average cow in the state not in the program produced only 4,450 pounds of milk and 198 pounds of butterfat.

The testing results enable a dairyman to feed each cow according to her production. Senger says the testing results also show the dairyman how his cows respond to various feeding practices.

BEHIND THE WALLS—

Mary L. Finds That Social Service Is Important Cog In State Hospital System

NOTE: This is the first of a series of articles on Texas State Hospital System, prepared under the supervision of Dr. George W. Jackson, medical director of the Board for Texas State Hospitals and Special Schools, and sponsored by the Hogg Foundation for Mental Hygiene, University of Texas.

By BERT KRUGER SMITH

Mary L. was a pretty girl. Her dark hair was always freshly brushed, and there was an excited look that often sparkled in her eyes and made her look like a kid at a pony ride.

Her eyes had that look the day she got her job with the social service department of a Texas State Hospital. She hadn't hoped to find work the week after she graduated from college.

She sat in the kitchen the night before her job started, watching her mother roll pie crusts, tasting the sugared cherries, and talking. "I'm so excited, Mom," she said. "This is just the kind of job I wanted. I like to feel useful and helpful to people."

That's what Mary thought. It took her a month to realize that the feeling of usefulness soon was mixed with a sense of frustrations. The social service department numbered eight—eight workers and a director. Nine workers. More than three thousand patients. That meant that 340 patients looked to Mary for help in working out their problems of adjustment, for aid in getting furloughed, for help in placement work after discharge.

Training Necessary

As Mary recognized how much training was necessary to do her job well, she enrolled for several courses at the University School of Social Work. She soon learned that willingness and desire could not replace professional training.

This case load was more than the social workers could handle adequately, but Mary tried—just as all of them did. She made her little office as pretty as she could; she tried to see patients and relatives, tried to keep her records of contacts with patients, families and community agencies up to date. The one secretary used all her time writing the required histories and letters.

Mary worked with Herman R., the fellow with baby curls and football shoulders, the man whose liquor bottle had become a crutch. She was delighted the day the doctor permitted Herman to take the job she had found for him, stricken the day they brought him back from the police station too drunk to know her. And Mary blamed herself for Herman's relapse. She had known he would need encouragement on his new job, but she had not had time to keep in touch with him.

Mary wrote careful notes about Willie J., the 16-year-old kid whose dark eyes spoke to her of hidden fears and deep, shaking misery. In the interviews with Willie, she could see him looking at her with hope and pleading. She thought of Willie often. He was the boy to whom grown-up terrors and horrible delusions had come with the first fuzzi of manly beard. When he should have been thinking of footballs and girl friends and square dances, Willie was fighting his phantom miseries behind the walls of nightmare.

Understanding Problems

Mary's supervisor helped her understand Willie's problems, and Mary spent a lot of time with him. It was she who wrote his father when the doctor said Willie was well enough to be furloughed. And it was she who had to face that questioning look, who had to tell Willie that his father didn't want him to come home and bother the younger kids. She had too many patients to be able to get out in the community and find a family who would take Willie into their home. Finally, it was she who wrote in Willie's record, "Patient more disturbed. Privileges removed."

Before long Mary was seeing fewer and fewer patients. Routine jobs, paper work, letters and records ate up her time. She wasn't able to keep complete records, those vital notes so necessary to understanding and aiding patients.

When the director informed them that the social service department would cut their recording to the minimum, the inevitable happened. Working without good records was like trying to fight an opponent in the dark. Recordings were so sketchy that Mary couldn't even review them to help her grow professionally, to help her in helping others.

The social service department is only one bolt in the big engine of the State Hospital System. Doctors need records; so do the research workers. And compiling the information takes man hours.

A hospital cannot plan for the future without comparative records of the past. Doctors cannot know case loads without statistics. Gathering information for weekly statistical reports takes vital time away from patients.

Black words on a piece of paper. Important words. Words that record job placements, discharge number of patients, results of treatments.

IBM machines can speed the work process immeasurably, can free doctors, nurses and social workers for their job with patients.

Knowing all these facts, the Board for Texas State Hospitals and Special Schools has planned better record keeping as the first step on the list of 14 improvement points.

A statistical department was set up in August of 1951 and now is compiling case histories on 20,000 patients, gathering material for a comprehensive annual report. That much has been done.

BUT it takes many people to keep records. And people cost money.

The need is great.

Ask Mary L.

She knows.

Regional Highway Meeting Scheduled Monday In Monahans

MONAHANS— Highway needs and problems of the area and state will be discussed at a regional meeting scheduled at 2 p. m. Monday in the Community Center here.

All persons interested in highway improvement are invited and urged to attend the session. Delegations are expected from neighboring cities.

Virgil P. Patterson

The meeting is sponsored by the Monahans Chamber of Commerce, in cooperation with the West Texas Chamber of Commerce. Virgil P. Patterson, chairman of the WTCC Highway Policy Committee, will lead the discussion.

Charles Switzer, of Monahans, WTCC vice president, will preside, and James F. Melton, manager of the Taxation and Legislation Department of the regional organization, will review the highway matters which will confront the next Legislature.

The Monahans meeting is one of seven conducted over West Texas.

Key Personnel Con Atomic Energy Use

NEW YORK — (AP) — Ten young men representing British industrial firms recently began a course in nuclear engineering at London University, the British Information Service reported here.

They will conduct research into atomic energy and its use in medicine and chemistry. The practical course work will be done in a laboratory 40 feet underground. The students will work under the direction of the staff of Britain's atomic energy staff at Harwell.

The course was started at the suggestion of industrial firms having contracts connected with atomic energy who prefer that key personnel have a knowledge of nuclear physics.

- NON-FREEZING
- INEXPENSIVE

By definition, perlite is a volcanic rock, which when heated quickly to a suitable point in its softening range, expands to form a lightweight, non-combustible, glass-like material of cellular structure. The expansion of perlite rock is made possible by the fact it contains minute drops of water in sufficient quantities to expand several times normal size when heated. This expansion forms a series of cells or voids sealed by microscopic, but strong volcanic glass walls. This unique cellular structure gives Perlite the unusual physical qualities that make it so advantageous when mixed with cement or plaster.

Drivers Tests Given Daily Except Sunday And Monday

Drivers tests and written examinations are now being given daily, except Sunday and Monday, in the county courtroom of the Midland County Courthouse, G. D. Winstead, examiner for the Texas Department of Public Safety, announced Thursday.

The written examinations are from 8 to 9 a.m. and from 1 to 2 p.m. The drivers tests are by appointment when completing the written examinations, Winstead said.

The examiner pointed out that this is an ideal time to have drivers tests made as there are no rush of applicants.

Accounting Personnel Lack Cited In Speech By Leland

"A growing shortage of adequately trained accounting personnel is one of the serious problems facing the business world today," Thomas W. Leland declared at the Ranchland Hill Country Club Tuesday night.

Leland, head of the Department of Business Administration at Texas A&M College, spoke before a meeting of the Permian Basin Chapter of the Texas Society of Certified Public Accountants.

He pointed out that college placement officers already are swamped by personnel officers trying to hire accounting graduates who will enter the business field in 1953. Leland attributed the unprecedented demand to increased business activities, government tax requirements, and fiscal policies that have become more complex.

Blind Man Robbed At Concession Stand

BELLEVILLE, ILL.—A blind concessionaire in the St. Clair County Courthouse, Charles Schrepf, told police some one took $12.50 worth of cigarettes and cigars from his stand in two days.

Courthouse employees passed the hat, collecting enough money to cover the blind man's loss.

Small Families Said Result Of 'Progress'

RALEIGH, N. C.—Probably the main reason why families are smaller today than in grandfather's time is that children are not needed as much as they used to be.

So says Family Relations Specialist Corrine Justice Grimsley of North Carolina State College. So much of the work has been taken out of the home and so many labor-saving devices added that fewer persons are needed to get the work done.

Early American families were held together by necessity but nowadays the families that stick together do so because they want to, not because they have to. The problem now is to develop ways of making the family want to remain intact, she says.

Railway Anniversary Noted In Jerusalem

JERUSALEM —(P)—The Jaffa-Jerusalem railway line, the oldest in the Holy Land, recently celebrated its sixtieth anniversary.

The anniversary coincided with the inaugural runs of the first three diesel locomotives acquired by the Israel State Railways. For the time being they are destined for freight and passenger trains on the Haifa-Tel Aviv line in the coastal plain.

Canada Helps Buy Fishing Boat Fleet

QUEBEC, CANADA—(P)—Pictureque but not-too-safe fishing smacks that dot Gaspe Peninsula Waters soon will be replaced by 40-ton high-powered vessels costing $22,500 each.

The vessels, designed for long-line cod fishing, are 55 1/2 feet long and are powered by six-cylinder, 105-horsepower diesel engines. They'll be offered to fishermen on the installment plan without interest.

The federal government will pay $6,600 on each vessel. The fishermen will make a down payment of $3,500 and give the provincial government 13 per cent of his yearly catch until the remaining $12,400 is paid.

Collins To Review Presidential Vote

Bill Collins, editor of The Reporter-Telegram, will give a post-mortem resume of the presidential election at a dinner meeting of the Midland Jaycees at 6 p.m. Thursday in the Cowden Junior High School cafeteria.

President J. P. Marchionni urged all members to be present to hear the speaker.

Personal To Women With Nagging Backache

Nagging backache, loss of pep and energy, headaches and dizziness may be due to slow-down of kidney function. Doctors say good kidney function is very important to good health. When some everyday condition, such as stress and strain, causes this important function to slow down, many folks suffer nagging backache—feel miserable. Minor bladder irritations due to cold or wrong diet may cause getting up nights or frequent passing urine. Don't neglect your kidneys if these conditions bother you. Try Doan's Pills—a mild, natural, kidney medicine. Used successfully by millions for over 50 years. It's amazing how many times Doan's gives happy relief from those discomforts—help the 15 million kidney tubes and filters flush out waste. Get Doan's Pills today!

BUNTING HUNTING—Although the coronation of Queen Elizabeth II is many months away, preparations go forward every day. Here workmen suspend a banner from a lamp post opposite London's St. Pancras Hall. Similar decorations were put up elsewhere in the area, after which officials looked them all over and chose the "official" banner for the event.

Do You Know Accidents Cost Nearly $8,000,000,000 Annually?

Yet, according to the National Safety Council, accidents cost the nation between seven and a half and eight billion dollars annually. You pay your part of this annual bill whether or not you are involved in an accident. So for your own sake, work, plan and drive SAFELY and use your influence to get others in your family and community to do likewise.

The college instructor told the group of CPA's that the Texas Society of Certified Public Accountants and the American Institute of Accountants are working with colleges and universities to encourage students to take up the study of accounting. Aptitude tests are being devised at a high school level to determine the qualifications of those interested.

Leland, who is also secretary-treasurer of the Texas Society of CPA's, was introduced by Neil G. Hilliard, president of the Permian Basin Chapter.

Announcement was made of an income tax clinic which will be held in the near future by Texas Technological College. Paul H. Laverfy was appointed coordinator here in the attendance drive for the clinic.

Next meeting of the Permian Basin Chapter is scheduled for November 25. Featured will be a talk by a prominent banker.

Officers of banks in Midland and surrounding cities have been invited to attend.

Opticians Schedule Area Meeting Here

West Texas opticians will conduct an area-wide meeting at 10 a.m. Sunday in the Cactus Club, according to B. Charles Rogers, committee chairman.

John Broome of Lubbock, state president of the Opticians Society, will be among the 30 West Texans present.

Membership cards will be distributed at the meeting. Pierson L. Gordon, secretary-treasurer, said.
