Eisenhower Names Three New Members Of Cabinet

NEW YORK —(AP)—Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower Friday designated George M. Humphrey of Cleveland, Ohio, secretary of the Treasury. He named Herbert Brownell, Jr. of New York, attorney general, and Harold E. Stassen, former governor of Minnesota, director of the Mutual Security Agency.

Giant Meteor Lights Up Sky In Flashing Over Southwest

A glowing meteor flashed across the Southwestern sky Thursday night and suddenly disintegrated in a blaze of white light. It was seen by competent observers in four states.

The Oklahoma City Weather Bureau said from the varied reports it had received there was no doubt the fireball was a meteor.

The meteor appeared like a gigantic flare over Southwestern Kansas. Witnesses at Hutchinson and Wichita said it flashed across the sky in a southwesterly direction and then burst into a number of vari-colored pieces like a skyrocket.

Living Cost Index Begins Easy Rise

WASHINGTON —(AP)—The government reported Friday that living costs went up fractionally in the 30 days ended October 25. Its index inched up one-tenth of one point.

A cost-of-living clause in their union contract calls for a wage revision every three months based on changes in index of the Bureau of Labor Statistics.

The October 15 index was 1.9 per cent higher than a year ago, and 12.2 per cent higher than June 15, 1950, just before the outbreak of the Korean War.

Official Canvass Sets Ike's Texas Majority At 232,750

AUSTIN —(AP)—Dwight D. Eisenhower won the presidential election in Texas by an official vote of 1,102,878 to 970,128 for Democratic nominee Adlai Stevenson, the State Canvassing Board certified Friday.

Results were certified in all statewide races except for governor and lieutenant governor, which the Legislature will canvass in January. Certificates also were signed by Ross, Ramsey and Mathews on the vote for presidential electors, two constitutional amendments, State Board of Education, courts of civil appeals, representatives in Congress, district judges and district attorneys.

Terminal Entrance Crash Sends Seven To Hospital

None was injured seriously in a two-car crash late Thursday at the entrance to Midland Air Terminal on Highway 90, which resulted in two persons being hospitalized and five others receiving emergency treatment.

Smith, after halting for a stop sign upon leaving the Terminal, was reported to have pulled into the highway, believing it clear of traffic. His car was in collision with the vehicle operated by Miss Sturges.

UN Priority On End-War Idea Sought

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. —(AP)—The U. S. and seven other countries were reported reliably Friday to have decided to accept India's compromise plan for settling the Korean prisoner-of-war deadlock, subject to two changes.

The eight countries—Australia, Britain, Canada, Colombia, Denmark, France, the United States and Turkey—also have decided to recommend that the Indian plan be given priority over all other Korean resolutions in the UN General Assembly.

India proposed that both the UN and the Reds turn over their prisoners totaling 132,000—to a commission made up of Poland, Czechoslovakia, Switzerland and Sweden. If this commission deadlocked, it would elect or ask the General Assembly to choose an impartial umpire.

The eight decided Friday to recommend that the Indian resolution be amended to provide that if the four did not agree to an umpire within three weeks they would hand the problem back to the Assembly.

Under the Indian plan, the prisoners still on the commission's hands at the end of 90 days would have their fates decided by a political convention called on Far Eastern problems under terms of the draft armistice agreement already adopted.

The eight powers decided to support a suggestion voiced Thursday by British Foreign Secretary Anthony Eden that, instead, they be turned over to a special UN body.

Eden's endorsement in the General Assembly's Political Committee of the plan's general outline, and his suggestions for alterations to clarify its main points, brought the American comment, "We are moving closer and closer to a settlement."

Although the Indians have said they would not have introduced their resolution without reasonable assurance that both Communist and Western nations would accept it, there still was no reaction from the Russians.

But the incoming American leaders of foreign policy—President-elect Eisenhower and his choice for secretary of State, John Foster Dulles—were reported by the New York Times as being very skeptical that any of the proposals now before the UN Assembly could produce a Korean armistice.

The Times said Dulles' skepticism is based on the "unending difficulties" the U. S., and Britain and France had encountered in trying to negotiate an independence treaty for Austria with the Soviet Union.

"After the Western powers gave way on the points previously in disagreement, the Soviet Union brought up the issue of Trieste, and it is understood Dulles feels the Communist would find something else if the Korea prisoner issue were settled," the Times said.

Children's Theater Presents Fall Play

The Children's Theater presented its regular performance of its production, "Mr. Popper's Penguins," Thursday in the City-County Auditorium before a lively audience of Midland, small fry.

The play opened Wednesday night with a special performance for Carver School students.

Action centered around the problems besetting the Popper family when Captain Cook, a full-grown penguin, stepped out of a surprise package from the South Pole. From then on the Poppers learn about penguins the hard way. First, Captain Cook suffers from loneliness, a sickness which is cured by the addition of a new penguin, Greta. This in turn presents the Poppers with more problems. They soon have a whole flock of penguins inside the house and a flock of angry bill collectors outside. The penguin episode turns out happily, however, when Mr. Popper straightens out his finances by presenting a trained penguin act at the Royal Theater.

Jim Wilcox took the part of Mr. Popper and Kay Washburn portrayed his wife. Their children, Bill and Jane, were played by Duncan Williams and Patsy Aday.

Other members of the cast were Julia Marberry, as Roberta; Bob Stuart, as Oscar; Hayden Burns, as Captain Cook; Larry Ann Burns, side Mrs. Callahan; Joe Hills, serviceman; Doug Hampton, veterinarian; Joe Young, Policeman; Sharon Ross, Greta; Bob Blas, first man; Allen McCree, second man; Jack Michener, Special Delivery Boy; Dick Gibson, Mr. Greenbaum; Allen McCree, Expressman; Ed Ratliff, Bill Collector; Nancy Harold, reporter; Judy Pogue, Camera Girl; and Peter Marck, Gary Spivey, Sandra Lovejoy, Mary Ann McCarty, Linda Ricketts, Martha Howard, Patsy Dawson, Conner Ammerman and Julia Herrell, little penguins.

Other speaking parts were taken by Mary Ann Odom, June Dickerson, Janeda Wilcox and Ed Ratliff.

Ed Ratliff served as the student stage manager. Assisting back stage were Joe Young, Joe Hills, and Allen McCree, stage crew; Joe Young, lights; David Stubbeman, curtain; Janeda Wilcox, Mary Ann Odom, Janice Michener, June Dickerson, and Mary Washburn, props; Dorothy Kelly, Linda Sue Woolley, Patti Peck, Carolyn Warren, Carol Wright and Judy Aday, programs.

The play was under the direction of Art Cole. Sponsor of the Children's Theater is the Midland Service League.

Other performances will be presented at 4 p.m. Friday, 10 a.m. Saturday and 4 p.m. Monday.

CLOTHING DRIVE—Collecting clothes for the Children's Service League are, left to right, Jeanie Price, Susan Kelly, Jocelyn Wortman, Paula Deuse and Teresa Byrne, all members of Girl Scout Troop 63. Each year the Scouts collect clothing which the league later distributes to needy children in Midland. The drive will extend through November 26.

Sam Houston Pupils Present Program At P-TA Meeting

Sam Houston Elementary students presented a skit and musical program Tuesday at the meeting of the school's Parent-Teacher Association Unit in the school auditorium.

Pupils of Wanda Stocumba room staged two square dance numbers, "Jingle Bells" and "Golden Slippers." Participating in the former were Stephen Holt, Janet Wilkinson, Johnny Palmer, Sharon Smith, Juli Walton, Nancy Crothers, O. B. Jackson and Susan German.

Those taking part in the "Golden Slippers" dance were Larry Dublin, Vici Thomson, Lee Heila, Sue Milton, Tommy Potter, Janie Marberry, Earl Conner and Dixie Blanton.

Miss Carlson's fifth grade room presented a skit based on "Texas Brags" by Boyce House. Characters were as follows: John Braxleton, Pecos Bill; Billy Brown, Texas cowboy; Chuck E. Vin, announcer; June Melton, skunk; Foy Midkiff, Oklahoma cowboy; Charles Nance, skunk; Larry Newell, New Mexico cowboy; Charles Younger, Widower; Pecos Bill's horse; Conner Ammerman, skunk; Corinne Byhee, Shue-foot; and Pat Holt, Pecos Bill storyteller.

Other parts were taken by Ruff Ahders, David Bass, Delbert Bush, Dick Campbell, Cline Geoffrey, Hugh Dilly, Billy Galbreath, Randy Hilltop, Hilton Kaderli, Joel Lord, Bob McCullough, Ray Puckett, Bobby Schmidt, John Weston, Chester Sutton, Carolyn Chappell, Nancy Connor, Audrey Elliott, Judy Gill, Janice Kimberlin, Patsy Newton, Eugenia Pannell, Linda Porter, Sonora Scott, Rosie Lee Stanton, Anne Ward, Sherry Lanier and Judith Ann Abright.

The Sam Houston Blue Jays, mixed chorus composed of fifth and sixth grade students, also sang several selections. Peter Lekisch was the announcer and Lucia Pearl Penny was the pianist. Soloists were Susanne Martin and Susie Starr. The chorus is under the direction of Norma Shelton.

Approximately 176 persons attended the meeting.

Terminal P-TA Plans Activities

Plans for forthcoming activities and programs were discussed when the Terminal Parent-Teacher Association met Tuesday in the school.

The group made plans to enter a float in the December 4 Christmas parade in Midland and discussed plans for the Christmas parties to be held by the school's home rooms.

Mrs. J. H. Hubbard is chairman for the parties.

The group voted to hold a bake sale December 13. Chairman for the project is Mrs. J. R. Flowers.

Carl Rhanson, principal, gave a report from a committee investigating things being done for the school, and a report was heard on the Halloween carnival sponsored by the P-TA.

Feature of the program was an educational film show by Sue Whitson. Mrs. Bob Evans, first vice president, presided.

About 45 members attended the meeting.

Convention To Hear Past Hi-Y Governor

Ray Parabee, past state Hi-Y Governor, is to address the Texas Congress of Parents and Teachers at its closing session Friday in Wichita Falls.

His topic is to be "Youth Prepares for the Responsibilities of Democracy." Officers are to be installed and a summary of the convention will be given by Dr. L. D. Haske, dean of the college of education at the University of Texas.

Climaxing the day's activities will be a luncheon honoring life members in the Terrace Room of the Kemp Hotel.

Study Club Hears Program By Mrs. Denson

Mrs. Bryan Denson, president of the Modern Study Club, gave the program when the club met Wednesday in the home of Mrs. C. R. Shepard, 601 North Big Spring Street.

Speaking on "We Learned at the Convention," Mrs. Denson gave a report on the Texas Federation of Women's Clubs convention in Austin. She also reported on the eighth district's assignment to aid the Old Ladies Home in Austria as a part of the federation's international relations project to aid Austria.

The speaker was introduced by Mrs. John Casselman, program leader. Plans were discussed for a rummage sale to be held Friday and Saturday in Judges Hall. Plans also were made for the Thursday meeting of the Midland Woman's Club, when the Modern Study Club was hostess group.

Other members attending the study club meeting were Mrs. William B. Ahders, Mrs. J. W. Brown, Mrs. Harry W. Denton, Mrs. Douglas F. Edman, Mrs. Bob Franklin, Mrs. J. T. Gist, Mrs. Earl A. Johnson, Mrs. C. C. Keith, Mrs. Lee B. Parks, Mrs. Brandon E. Rea, Mrs. Ed Shaky, Mrs. Charles L. Sherwood, Mrs. K. C. Slough, Mrs. W. B. Smith and Mrs. Carl Westlund.

Bishop Says U. S. Must Lift Morality

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J.—(AP)—A Methodist bishop says this country must rise above what he called its lax morality in order to be an effective force for world peace.

"We must purge our national life," said Bishop Richard C. Raines of Indianapolis in a report to the semi-annual meeting of the Council of Bishops of the Methodist Church. Citing gambling, drinking, divorce and civic corruption in the U. S., Bishop Raines said there was "no precedent in history for thinking such a nation can be used of God to bring peace and good will to earth."

WOMAN'S FASHION

NEW YORK—The stress placed upon softer lines in Fall fashions means, of course, that there's a new softness in fabrics. To interpret the softer silhouettes, designers have turned to softer fabrics. Thus, we'll see much of the chiffon, tulle, either woven or knit. This includes chiffon tulle, since tulle always is with us in some form, come Autumn.

Similarly, tweed is developed in the fluid, tweedly molded fabric called tweed jersey. Such tweeds are equally at home in town or country, are teamed readily with the sophistication of black velvet or black suede.

Dress in tweed jersey, left, by this same designer for a dress that buttons down the front. Dolman sleeves end just below the elbow. Soft fullness is achieved through two loose panels with slash pockets that begin at the neckline, are belted in by black suede, and fly out from the waistline.

Leper Sentenced For Fatal Knifing Of Colony Patient

CARVILLE, LA.—(AP)—A 35-year-old male victim of Hansen's Disease (leprosy) was sentenced Thursday to three years imprisonment for manslaughter in the fatal stabbing of a woman patient in her private room.

Sidney J. Gallardo entered a plea of guilty before U. S. District Judge Herbert Christenberry. The hearing was held in an auditorium at the U. S. Public Health Service Hospital where both were patients.

Gallardo and Candelaria Hernandez, 38, were found in the woman's private room August 30 suffering with stab wounds.

Federal authorities did not disclose any details of the slaying at the time.

Gallardo's sentence poses a problem for federal authorities. Hansen's Disease patients are prohibited by federal law from leaving the hospital area.

The institution is the only hospital for treatment of leprosy in the United States.

A small jail cell is located on the hospital grounds. It was built in 1927 when a negro was sentenced to 10 years imprisonment in the slaying of another patient. The Hernandez slaying was the second in the hospital's history.

The negro served nine of his 10 years before dying of the disease. Carville is in an isolated section of Louisiana on the Mississippi River about 20 miles south of Baton Rouge, the capital city.

About 400 patients are in the hospital, which was opened by the state in 1894 and taken over by the federal government in 1921.

Texas' Biggest Ranch Boss Asks End Of Cattle Controls

KINGSVILLE—(AP)—The aggressive boss of Texas' big King Ranch—Robert A. Kieberg, Jr.—wants an immediate end of all controls affecting the cattle business.

The colorful Texas cattleman in hard-hitting prepared statement today night said, "the whole meat industry is a disaster to our national economy."

Kieberg presented a four-part program he said would "get rid of this situation":

1. Complete decontrol of beef.
2. Elimination of compulsory federal grading.
3. Termination of arbitrary and wasteful cutting methods.
4. Termination of compulsory distribution methods.

Price Drop Noted

He said the wholesale price of meat now is from 10 to 20 cents under OPS ceiling price and has been dropping the last four months.

Cattleman, over much of the Southwest, have been selling their livestock off in recent months because of drought-depleted pastures and water. Many have said they are keeping only breeding stock because they did not have the feed to maintain their livestock through the winter and could not buy it at present high prices.

Market sources have blamed the drop in price to the abnormally large runs of cattle. OPS has warned that a meat shortage might develop and that prices might skyrocket after the present surplus is depleted.

Kieberg said, "Meat producers of the nation are beset by drought, high costs of production and low prices for meat," and continued:

'Nobody Winning'

"American housewives must pay high prices over the counter. Taxpayers face high taxes to maintain a controls system which is working havoc with the meat and the economy of the nation.

"The OPS is costing the taxpayer $100,000,000 a year.

"The part of this spent for meat control is a total waste. This is all being wasted because it does not benefit anybody—neither the consumer, the producer, nor the taxpayer.

"It has reduced the buying power of the meat producer 33 per cent or more. Wholesale prices are dropping. More cattle are on feed, and the slaughter figures will be higher. The surplus is actually accumulating."

The nation had a surplus of 158,915,000 pounds of beef on September 1, Kieberg said, compared to a 1947-1951 average annual amount in storage of 70,487,000 pounds.

"The more this meat accumulates," the cattleman said, "the longer the meat disaster will be with us and we will have this accumulating surplus until retail prices are low enough that the consumer will buy the meat over the counter and eat it up."

Particularly troublesome to the meat industry, Kieberg contended, is government grading and cutting regulations.

He explained: "Over 75 per cent of government graded meat has dropped 33 per cent in price but still the government is not benefited and black market is moving in and cutting the meat according to the consumer demand."

'Harlequin' Infants Puzzle Science; Body Tints Change

NEWCASTLE-ON-TYNE, ENGLAND—(AP)—Brand new "harlequin" babies who suddenly change color with a sharp line down their middles dividing pale from pink are baffling medical men.

The tots regain normal pinkness all over after a short period and everything seems all right with them—but hospital doctors still scratched their heads in bewilderment as they reported the phenomenon Friday in a medical journal, The Lancet.

In the last year, 21 babies have undergone the strange change, all while lying on their sides.

"Each of us on separate occasions saw a particular baby in the nursery of this hospital undergo a most bizarre and striking baby color change with which we were previously unfamiliar," doctors at Princess Mary Maternity Hospital wrote in the article.

"At the age of three days, she was lying naked on her right side in an oxygen box when the left half of her body became much paler than usual although the right side remained the usual pink," they wrote of one case.

"The dividing line between the two halves was as sharp and straight as if it were drawn with a pencil and ruler, and it ran exactly in a line down the center of the forehead, nose, chin and trunk. This surprising appearance passed off spontaneously after a few minutes."

BEAUTY BLIND, BUT NOT JUDGES

NEW YORK—(AP)—Brown-haired, blue-eyed Joan Marie Malatesta has been chosen the most beautiful blind girl in the nation.

The 23-year-old Philadelphia, a junior at Chestnut Hill College, was selected Thursday from 76 entrants representing 39 states.

Miss Malatesta will share in more than $5,000 in prizes and a two-week visit to New York and Bermuda.

The contest was sponsored by the Associated Blind, Inc. Nine judges made their choice from photographs and biographical sketches.

Generally Lower Meat Prices Seen

DETROIT—(AP)—Livestock and meat prices "are generally expected to be a little lower than in the past year," Economist Henry B. Arthur told the National Industrial Conference Board in discussing the "post-election business outlook" here Thursday night.

Arthur, economist for Swift & Company, said "this is particularly true of beef, with expanded marketings in prospect."

"It may not be true in the same degree with pork, which has been relatively much lower than beef over the past two or three years," he added, saying that the pig crop of last Spring is reported 5 to 10 per cent smaller than a year ago.

Treasury Secretary Explains Connection With Big Tax Case

WASHINGTON—(AP)—Treasury Secretary Snyder, it was disclosed Friday, has acknowledged to House tax investigators that he acted personally to speed up a 20 million dollar tax case—but only in the interest of more efficient administration.

Snyder explained his interest in expediting a multi-million-dollar excess profits tax claim by Universal Pictures, Inc., in a letter to members of a House Ways and Means subcommittee investigating the Internal Revenue Bureau.

Contents of the letter were revealed Friday by committee sources. At the same time, a committee member, Representative Curtis (R-Neb.), demanded that Snyder appear in person before the group "before he leaves office."

In the letter, Snyder said: "My interest in the Universal Pictures Company, Inc., case was no different than I have displayed in many other cases where it seemed to me that the taxpayer was entitled to call on the government for a fair and reasonably prompt consideration of its claims without waiver in any respect of the interest of the government."

Snyder said his interest never extended to the merits of Universal's claim but only to the status of the case.

Aggie Alumni Slate Meeting In Midland

The Texas A&M Ex-Students Club will hold a stag meeting at 8 p.m. Friday in the Elks Club.

Out-of-city guests will include Charlie Jakob, president of the Aggie Club; A. F. Mitchell, president of the A&M Former Students Association; Dick Hervey, secretary of the association; George Morgan, past president of the association; and B. H. (Bones) Irvin, A&M athletic director.

A feature of the program will be a movie on highlights of Southwest Conference football for 1951.

Work Of TB Association In Midland Draws Praise

Two members of the Texas Tuberculosis Association were in Midland Thursday to confer with officials of the Midland County Tuberculosis Association about the 1952 Christmas Seal Sale now in progress, and about other matters concerning the year-round work of the association here.

Mrs. Helen Colburn, director of public information, and Mrs. Rita Clifford, field consultant for the Texas TB Association praised the work of the TB Association here and stated that early returns in Midland from the sale of Christmas Seals compare favorably with other cities they have contacted during the last few days.

The Texas TB Association receives a small part of the funds derived from the sale of Christmas Seals in the county. One of several major projects of the State TB group is the rehabilitation and training of patients in state hospitals who need new skills to return to work after months of hospitalization with tuberculosis.

Eighty-two per cent of the money received for Christmas Seals remains in Midland County to support the work of the local association. Twelve per cent goes to the Texas Tuberculosis Association, and the remaining six per cent is forwarded to the National Tuberculosis Association to finance the national campaign against tuberculosis.

By Friday more than 400 letters containing checks for the purchase of Christmas Seals had been received by the Midland County Tuberculosis Association.

Officials of the Midland TB group have been encouraged by this response to the Christmas Seal appeal by Midland County residents during the first four days of the campaign. If this trend continues, the association may be able to meet its increased responsibilities to an expanding Midland, officials said.

Scientist Praises Foundations' Work

WASHINGTON—(AP)—Congress has the assurance of a famous scientist Friday that the United States has taken world leadership in fundamental research. The witness, Dr. Vannevar Bush, said a lot of credit is to private, tax-exempt research foundations.

Bush, president of the Carnegie Institute of Washington, made that statement Friday to a special House committee investigating such organizations to determine whether any of them are promoting un-American or subversive activities.

He and other educators who have testified in the last three days said they were unaware of any such trends among the foundations.

Dr. Henry M. Wristen, president of Brown University, was called for testimony Friday.

Bush told the committee one of the greatest achievements of the foundation has been "to give us the seeds of a strong, effective system of medical training."

Trend From Socialism

"Here is a trend that is in exactly the opposite direction from socialism," the scientist said.

He was asked to compare Russia's scientific efforts with those in this country. Bush said it is well known that the Soviet Union has been able to develop an atomic bomb and effective jet planes, but the unanswered question is whether they can break new ground in fundamental science.

"Russians must follow the party lines, even in science," he observed. "Great science never prospers under such circumstances. I am very happy personally that Russia has that system."

Representatives of some of the largest of the more than 30,000 tax-free foundations may be heard by the committee next week.

In 1951 U. S. bituminous coal usage increased by about 18 million tons, or four per cent over 1950.

Dulles To Seek Cold War Offensive, Form Foreign Policy 'Super Cabinet'

WASHINGTON—(P)—Creation of a super council in the Eisenhower Administration to mastermind a cold war offensive against the Kremlin seemed assured Friday by the announcement that John Foster Dulles will be the next secretary of state.

Dulles, like President-elect Eisenhower who announced his selection for the post Thursday, has made clear that his first major new goal in foreign policy will be to wrest the initiative in the global conflict from Russia.

Dulles has declared that one way to go about this is to set up a cabinet council, including not only some regular cabinet members but also "ministers without portfolio" charged only with high-level cold war planning.

Word that the veteran diplomat, recently a Truman ambassador in the negotiation of the Japanese Peace Treaty, would get the number one cabinet post next January 30 generally was well received by State Department officials here despite some bitterness toward him resulting from his attacks on Truman foreign policies during the presidential campaign.

Joint Commission Plans Face-Lifting Project On Niagara

TORONTO—(P)—A joint U. S. Canadian commission proposes to give Niagara Falls a face-lifting. It wants the Niagara waterfall to look more beautiful with less water.

Details of the project were disclosed Thursday to Canadian and U. S. parks and power officials by the International Joint Commission. The plans will be submitted to the two governments. If approved quickly, work could be started early next year and completed in 1956.

Unless he goes to Korea with Eisenhower soon—which Dulles has indicated he will not do—these officials expect he shortly will open an office near that of Secretary of State Acheson.

Transfer of Control They believe Dulles will accommodate readily himself to the work of the department and that because of his experience in the field the transfer of control will be smoother than it would have been with almost any other successor.

The commission's plans, developed after two years study by engineers, call for a control dam 1,850 feet long built from the Canadian side a mile above the falls. They also propose dredging the Niagara River bottom just above the brink of the Horseshoe Falls.

Transfer of Control They believe Dulles will accommodate readily himself to the work of the department and that because of his experience in the field the transfer of control will be smoother than it would have been with almost any other successor.

There is hope here that Dulles will be able to advise informally on and observe decisions which must be made by the present Administration in the next two months. Such aid could assist in keeping decisions in line with the aims of the new Administration.

Truman Administration officials have urged closest possible liaison between incoming and outgoing officials, for this and other reasons.

DALLAS—(P)—Nathan Bullard, 40, pleaded guilty Thursday to a charge of maiming.

Such eye-for-eye retribution, Assistant District Attorney Ray L. Stokes told the judge, ought to be enough punishment for Bullard. The judge agreed.

Statistics he presented showed spring flow in Central Texas increased rapidly following torrential rains in the Edwards Plateau area September 10 and 11. Spring flows west of the rain area, however, remained unaffected.

TEACHERS VISIT CITY HALL—Members of the Midland public schools faculty watched municipal government in operation on Business-Education Day this week. Here City Tax Officer W. I. Ike's Interior Secretary Seeks State Control Of Tidelands, Power Projects

SALEM, ORE.—(P)—The appointment of Gov. Douglas McKay of Oregon to the cabinet will give President-elect Eisenhower a man who appears to reflect Eisenhower's domestic views almost exactly.

On that basis he opposed a Columbia Valley Authority. So did the general.

Among those disapproving of McKay was Senator Wayne Morse of Oregon, who has feuded bitterly with the governor.

In an interview Thursday he accused the two of trying to "kick the South out of the Democratic Party" during the national convention.

Also on that basis McKay has participated actively in the Columbia Basin Inter-Agency Committee, a group of federal and state agencies that advises on how to develop the Columbia Basin.

This stand has won him some enemies, especially among liberal Democrats.

On the other hand some Democrats approved his appointment.

Shivers is here visiting a friend, John Wraether, formerly of Longview, Texas.

There were a few cries of "reactionary" when the appointment was announced Thursday, but generally among public office-holders and newspapers of the West com- ment appeared favorable towards the 59-year-old McKay.

Among Republicans of Oregon he generally is considered a moderate —and his stand on public power is cited as an example. He has made his position clear in repeated speeches over the four years he has been governor.

Democrat's Pleas On the other hand some Democrats approved his appointment. "A very fine choice," said Oscar L. Chasman, present secretary of Interior.

Navy's Planes Rule Seas, Floberg Says

SAN ANTONIO—(P)—Naval aircraft are the most significant modern instruments for the exercise of naval power and the conduct of national operations and naval campaigns.

That was the statement here Thursday of Assistant Secretary of the Navy for Air John F. Floberg. He addressed a luncheon here attended by members of the San Antonio Naval Reserve Council and business men.

Naval aircraft, he said, are the Navy's principal weapons for control of the seas.

David-Like Bulldogs Load Slings For Football Giants

10,000 Fans Due To View Midland-Westerner Game

By JIM LINDSEY

With the determination of a sling-shot armed David, underdog Midland will march out Saturday afternoon to challenge the giant of Texas schoolboy football in Memorial Stadium.

The Bulldogs seek to break the 21-game winning streak of the Lubbock Westerners, defending state champions. The kickoff is down for 2 p.m.

More than 10,000 fans will throng through the gates to watch Midland's single wingers clash with Coach Pat Pattison's celebrated 7-landed propelled Westerners. Lubbock needs only a victory over Midland to set up the District I-AAAA championship and move into the state playoffs for another year.

Only end zone tickets remained unsold Friday. Sales indicated almost 11,000 fans may pour into Memorial Stadium. This would be the largest crowd since the 1950 Odessa-Midland game here attracted 12,000 onlookers. More than 3,500 Lubbockites plan to see Saturday's contest.

Westerner Coaches Contend Single Wing Brings Worry

LUBBOCK—Lubbock's Westerners virtually wound up preparations for their clash with Midland by romping through another three-hour defensive session Thursday afternoon, and at the close of the workout Head Coach Pat Pattison indicated that he was fairly pleased with the progress of the youngsters.

The Westerners have not faced a single-wing team previously this season. So the Lubbock mentors have been hard pressed this week to give the squadmen a thorough knowledge of the formation, as it is operated by the Bulldogs. And to make the job more difficult, there wasn't but one boy on the Lubbock squad who had ever played on a single-wing team.

But hours of hard work by End Coach Freddie Brown, who also is the Westerners' chief scout, has given the Lubbock schoolboys a fairly good idea of the Midland attack and the Bulldog personnel.

Saturday Departure

Only a light limbering up drill is scheduled for the Westerners Friday afternoon, then early Saturday morning the Lubbock squad will travel to Midland aboard a chartered bus.

All the squadmen are in good physical condition, despite a few colds, and all key boys are expected to be ready for full-time duty against the Bulldogs.

Approximately 2,500 tickets to the Saturday classic have been sold to Lubbock fans, and school officials report that they could have sold an additional 2,000 without difficulty. So the Westerners will not be entirely without support when they invade the Bulldogs' lair.

Midland's Hatfield follows Welch with 426 yards, or an average of 6.7 yards on 64 tries.

Jimmie Haynie, bruising fullback, makes the core of the Western ground game as well as the aerial circus. He stands fourth among individual offense leaders for the district with 173 yards rushing and 291 yards passing. Hatfield tops this bracket of I-AAAA play with a total of 690 yards divided between 426 yards rushing and 264 yards with passes.

Ward Top Scorer

Lubbock has the third best punter in the district in Buddy Hill, who possesses a total of 634 yards in 19 kicks. This makes an average of 33.4 yards. Only Royce Hillman of Borger and Jim Bourland of Abilene have bested Hill in punting achievements.

Chuggin' Charlie Ward of Odessa leads the conference scorers with 36 points but Lubbock holds second and fourth positions. Haynie has totaled 30 points and Welch 24. Fullback Dick Spencer and Roy Kimsey paces Midland with 18 points each.

Saturday's clash involves the one-two district leaders in team statistics. Midland has gained 1,589 yards compared to 1,577 by the Westerners. But Lubbock is by far the best on defense. The Westerners held the opposition to 857 yards while Midland allowed 1,534.

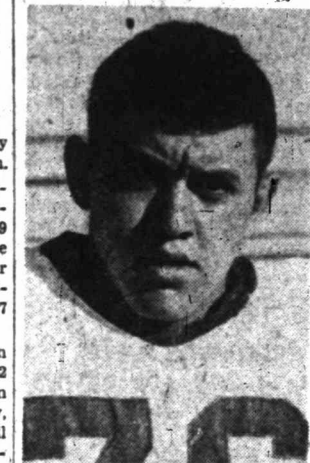

While Lubbock boasts a clean seven-victory book for the 1952 campaign, Midland went down twice in district warfare. Yet few if any schoolboy grid observers will climb out on a limb Friday to predict a lopsided score for Saturday's classic. A majority expects a close game.

As for Coach Jones, he isn't predicting. But he is assuring in one direction.

"We promise to give a good account of ourselves," he said. "The Bulldogs will play them to the hilt." And only Saturday will tell if that is sufficient to dethrone the Wearers of the Texas schoolboy diadem.

ACC's Jimmy Hirth, West Of Texas A&I Stage Scoring Duel

By The Associated Press

Reggie West of Texas A&I and Jimmy Hirth of Abilene Christian are staging a big duel of the Texas Conference football campaign.

As the race goes into its final two weeks, West and Hirth are tied for the lead in scoring with 64 points apiece. West, however, has drawn more than 180 ahead of Hirth in ball-carrying.

West tops the ball-toters with 857 yards on 187 runs. Hirth has 675 yards. His average is higher—7.03—but he's well behind in yardage. West has averaged 4.6.

Melvin White of Howard Payne has moved into the lead in pass-receiving. He has snared 18 for 320 yards. Bert Shelley of Austin College has fallen to second with 11 receptions for 308.

Jackie Fink of Texas A&I has a 65-yard lead in passing. He has rolled up 604 yards. Don Watson of Austin College is second with 529.

Melvin Lindsey of Howard Payne leads the punters with an average of 36.9 yards on 44 kicks. Jack Sportsman of A&I is second with 32.7 on 46.

WESLEY MARTIN . . . Congenial ticket salesman.

Even Salesman Sam Couldn't Furnish Martin With Seats

Bulldog Coach Tubboat Jones isn't the only person with special tickets for Saturday afternoon. Ticket Salesman Wesley Martin needs some sympathy, too.

Tickets for the Lubbock-Midland game went like the proverbial hotcakes Thursday, opening day for sales. Less than 300 reserved seats remained unsold. Heretofore this season, 1,400 tickets have filled top Thursday-Friday demand prior to purchases at Memorial Stadium.

Martin filled three requests from Lubbock for tickets. Additional appeals could not be met. Martin had sent 2,688 ducats before calling a halt. He went the limit, for the director of special services knows that Lubbock will gauge Midland requests in 1953 on what he supplied this year.

Lubbock received a total of 2,688 tickets for Saturday's game. This includes 1,000 for students and 432 end zone seats. All Lubbock fans will occupy the east side of the stadium.

Memorial Stadium affords 10,180 seats for sale. Two bands, pep squad leaders and Midland grid teams will be on the sidelines. Attendance may rise above the 11,000 mark Saturday.

There are always latecomers.

some of them' loyal Bulldog supporters. Martin desires to take care of the crop. But where to put them in seats leaves the congenial, bespectacled special services director without an answer. The seats just aren't available.

Both Games In SWC Saturday Scheduled On Humble Program

With only two Southwest Conference games scheduled for the weekend, Texas football fans' attention will be divided between the SMU-Baylor meet at Dallas and the Rice-TCU game at Houston. Humble Oil & Refining Company will broadcast both football events on its network of almost 50 stations.

Airtime for both games is 1:30 p.m. Action in the SMU-Baylor event at the Cotton Bowl in Dallas will be reported by Kern Tipps and Alec Chesser to a hookup of stations WFMA-WBAP-820, Dallas - F or T Worth; KFET, Lamesa, and Hobbs, N. M.

Announcers Charlie Jordan and John Ferguson will describe the play of the Rice-TCU game direct from Rice Stadium in Houston over stations KORS, Midland; KVKM, Monahans; KIUN, Pecos; KVLV, Alpine; KSET, El Paso, and KBST, Big Spring.

ANDREWS—The Andrews Colts, 1953 champions of District 8 junior high school competition, were honored at a recent father and son banquet.

Members of the team were James Durbin, Gerald Pilgrim, Billy Carruth, Roy Vilij, Billy Parker, Earl Roberts, Lindon Hudgens, W. C. Garver, Bobby Toops, Sammy Galoway, Dwight Sensabough, Wendel Boyer, Melvin Boyer, Ernest Umberson, Mickey Ready, Jimmy Lowther, Waymond Hugen, Joe Rogers and Larry Robertson.

Coach Truman Nix, who served as master of ceremonies, was presented with a 18-gauge Remington-Unionmaster shotgun by team members.

Italians Hold Leadoff Spot In Pan-American Auto Race

MEXICO CITY—(AP)—With the biggest mountains behind, the Pan-American Auto Race swung into its high speed stage Friday.

The first leg from Mexico City to Leon has only one difficult section, the winding descent from the Valley of Mexico to Toluca, a distance of about 30 miles. The second leg, from Leon to Durango is mostly wide-open highway, with gentle curves and few climbs or drops.

The two legs from the capital to Durango make up the longest day's run in the race—a total of 600 miles. The winning speeds were close to 100 miles an hour last year, and are expected to be higher this time.

Italian drivers held the leadoff positions in both the sports and the stock categories, having won Thursday's third leg. Luigi Villorresi in his Ferrari Special headed the sports cars, followed a minute later by Giovanni Bracco in another Ferrari. Bracco was in first place in the general standings while Villorresi was eighth.

Faulkner, Long Beach, Calif., second; John Mantz, Los Angeles, third; and Capt. Bob Korf, Wright Field, Ohio, fourth.

The Lincoln drivers were within seconds of each other in total times. The next contender was Marshall Teague, Taylor Beach, Fla., with a 1952 Hudson, 11 minutes and one second behind Korf.

Ponies Eye Orange Bowl Bid In Saturday Tilt With Bears

By HAROLD V. RATLIFF
Associated Press Sports Editor
The Southwest Conference football race, so far as first place is concerned, may end Saturday.
Baylor's Bears, who aren't going anywhere themselves, could see to it that Southern Methodist doesn't get it.

That's the big game—Baylor vs Southern Methodist at Dallas. SMU will be fighting for two things—to stay in the race for a piece of the championship and to get a bowl bid. Texas, undefeated in conference play and already in the Cotton Bowl, will be more than casually interested. Victory by Southern Methodist and a loss by Texas in its final game of the season—with Texas A&M at Austin next Thursday—could throw SMU into a virtual tie for the lead. Then all SMU would have to do to clinch half the championship would be to beat Texas Christian November 29. Could be.

Reportedly the Southwest Conference runner-up is in line for an Orange Bowl bid. It would be the same for the team that tied for the title but was beaten by the team with which it tied and thus could not get into the Cotton Bowl. Texas Christian and Rice, neither of which can cut any figure in the championship but could finish second, meet at Houston Saturday.

Texas and Texas A&M rest this week getting ready for their traditional Thanksgiving Day battle, while Arkansas, the other member of the conference, closes the campaign with an inter-sectional game against Tulsa at Tulsa.

Tech To Close Border Slate With Arizona U. At Tucson

LUBBOCK—Texas Tech closes out its Border Conference schedule against the University of Arizona in Tucson Saturday night.
Tech, with a 1-1-1 mark in conference play, must still finish up with University of Tulsa November 29 and North Carolina State December 6. Both will be played at home.

Having won four and lost one conference game, Arizona is still gunning for the title. The Wildcats, however, must couple a victory over Tech with an Arizona State (Tempe) loss to Texas Western.

Tyler Apaches Look For Junior Bowl Bid

TYLER—(AP)—Tyler was champion of the Big Six Junior College Conference Friday and looking for a bowl bid. It is believed in line for either the Little Rose or the Potato Bowl in California.

Hardin-Simmons and Texas Western have been the only mutual opponents. Arizona nipped Hardin-Simmons 13-12, and Tech managed a 14-14 draw with the Cowboys, to snap a six-game losing streak last week. Arizona last Saturday blasted Texas Western, 20-14 winner over Texas Tech, by a 55-7 score.

ON GUARD—Elmer Willhoite, left, is a striking example of what makes the Southern California defensive platoon so hard to dent. Ditto Frank Kush, center, who goes both ways for Michigan State. Tennessee opponents testify why Johnny Michels belongs on just about everybody's All-America. All are guards. (NEA)

Saturday Tilts May Name Rose, Orange Bowl Slates

NEW YORK—(AP)—The 1952 collegiate football season, gaining momentum with each succeeding week, reaches a fervent pitch Saturday as top teams collide in "do or die" efforts and "traditional" affairs.
Most of the attention will evolve around those still in contention for a bid to the granddaddy of all post-season classics—the Rose Bowl. After Saturday the situation in both the Pacific Coast and the Big Ten Conference races should be clarified considerably.

The eyes of the nation will be centered on Los Angeles' Memorial Coliseum. There a pair of undefeated grid tians, UCLA and Southern California, clash head-on in a game that will determine the far western representative in the Rose Bowl.
UCLA, rated third in the AP poll, and Southern California, the country's fourth-ranking team, both boast identical 8-0 records. The game appears to be a toss-up with Southern California's reserve strength giving the Trojans a very slight edge.

Three key contests are on the agenda in the Big Ten race. Michigan and Wisconsin are tied for the Western Conference lead with identical 4-1 records. Purdue and Minnesota share second place at 3-1-1.
Michigan plays at Ohio State, Wisconsin is host to Minnesota and Purdue entertains Indiana—and anything can happen.

Texas Tech 'Cinderella Tale' Must Wait Awhile For End

LUBBOCK—With quarterback James Odum sidelined, a happy ending to Texas Tech's "Cinderella Story" must wait a while longer.
Odum's lead who last year earned a tuition scholarship to Texas Tech as valedictorian of Alvarado High School. He obtained his room and board by working in the athletic dormitory kitchen.

Center for a starting berth. Through the Baylor game, Odum had Tech's only touchdown passes and was hitting at the rate of 59 per cent. But along came a sore arm, followed by pneumonia.
Weaver had hoped Odum would be recovered in time for the University of Arizona game Saturday night. He got out of the hospital last week, but the doctor since found a blood clot in Odum's left shoulder. No more football this season, he ruled.

Midland Archery Club Meet Set

Midland men and women interested in archery were invited Friday to attend the organizational meeting Sunday afternoon of the Midland Archery Club.
The meeting will be held at 3 p.m. at the home of Ed Kerr. Kent's home is located just behind Kent's Auto Service on the Andrews Highway.

BOOKIES RIDE WITH CAYUSES

By The Associated Press
If the odds are correct, Southern Methodist will stay in the race for a share of the Southwest Conference football championship Saturday.
SMU is a six-point favorite to beat Baylor at Dallas. If the Methodists do they will retain a chance at a tie for the title.
Rice and Texas Christian play at Houston in the other conference game on the schedule. This is considered so close there are no odds—its five and six and take your choice.
Arkansas plays Tulsa an inter-sectional game at Tulsa. Tulsa is a 14-point favorite.

Cotton Bowl Officials Plan Greetings For Tennessee

DALLAS—(AP)—Three Cotton Bowl officials will carry greetings of the New Year's Day football classic to the University of Tennessee next week.
Otto Eisenlohr, president of the Cotton Bowl, and Ray Beal and Charles Blacklock, directors of publicity, will go to Knoxville, Tenn., not only to pay a social call on Gen. Bob Neyland, athletic director and coach of Tennessee, and other Tennessee officials but to make any arrangements necessary for the football team to come to Dallas to play in the Cotton Bowl against Texas.

The party will fly to Knoxville and remain until Tuesday.
Beal and Blacklock will work out a publicity program.
Eisenlohr expressed some concern over Tennessee's loss of its great fullback, Andy Kozar, and its star tackle, Jim Haslam, and said he hoped this didn't cause Tennessee trouble in its remaining football games—with Kentucky and Vanderbilt.
Kozar was injured last week against Florida and won't play any more in the regular season. He is expected to be back for the Cotton Bowl, however. Haslam was found ineligible for further competition. He played in a game in 1949 when he was supposed to be held out. This made him ineligible.

Midwestern May Get Border Bid

TUCSON, ARIZ.—(AP)—Midwestern University at Wichita Falls, Texas, may get another chance at membership in the Border Conference.
C. Zaner Lasher, secretary-treasurer of the conference, said Thursday he understood the proposal would be brought up at the December 43 meeting in El Paso.
Midwestern was considered last Spring; no invitation was extended. Neither was it denied membership, as was North Texas State.
"The matter was tabled," Lasher said, "I understand it will be brought up again at the next meeting."

Joe Black, Harry Byrd Win 1952 Rookie Of Year Awards

NEW YORK—(AP)—Joe Black of Brooklyn and Harry Byrd of the Philadelphia A's, a pair of fine pitchers, were named Rookies of the Year Friday by the Baseball Writers Association of America.
Black was an overwhelming choice in the National League with 19 votes from the 24-man committee that also placed him third in the most valuable player balloting.
Byrd, a late-blooming hot shot, nosed out two catchers, Clint Courtney of the St. Louis Browns and Sam White of the Boston Red Sox in a three-man race. Byrd got nine votes, Courtney eight and White seven.
Off To Late Start
The feats of Black are known because his relief work largely was responsible for the Dodger pennant. An also-ran in Spring training, Black appeared in only six games up to June 1. Then he started to work.
At stretches, Manager Charley Dressen had the negro ace working every day. He wound up with 56 games, a 15-4 won and lost record and a .300 earned run average of 2.15. That earned run mark was best in the league but it wasn't recognized because he did not pitch 10 complete games or work at least 154 innings. He started only two games, one last Saturday of the season as a tune-up for the World Series opener.
Hoyt Wilhelm, appearing in 71 games on relief for the New York Giants, was second to Black with three votes. Wilhelm had a 15-3 record and his 2.43 earned run mark won the title. He didn't start one but he did work 159 innings, five over the minimum.
Dick Groat, Pittsburgh's shortstop from Duke University, tied for third with Ed Mathews, Boston's third baseman, with one vote each.
The 1951 winners were Willie Mays of the Giants, now in service, and Gil McDougald of the New York Yankees.
Byrd made the big jump from Savannah of the South Atlantic

Arizona Paces Border Loop In Total Offense Statistics

TUCSON, ARIZ.—(AP)—The University of Arizona's unrestrained ground attack against Texas Western last weekend has made it the leading offensive team in the Border Conference.
Arizona shot by Hardin-Simmons by 250 yards with its total of 3,777 yards in nine games.
OTHERWISE, CALL HIM AG
HOUSTON—(AP)—What's in a name? Football games, for instance.
At least that's how James (Froggy) Williams, 1949 All-American and at Rice Institute, explains the middle name of his two-day-old son, Leo Rice Williams.
—Says Williams:
"We had decided that if it were a boy and rice beat Texas A&M last Saturday Rice would be part of the name. Rice won."

Arizona Paces Border Loop In Total Offense Statistics

Arizona State College at Tempe is expected to win the conference title but currently is fifth in total offense and places only two men among the individual leaders. Dick Curran is third in rushing with a net of 607 yards and Dick MacKay is third in punting with an average of 36.4 yards. Arizona State has played seven games compared to the nine games played by the three team leaders.
Ken Cardella of Arizona has raced into the scoring lead with 11 touchdowns and now is fourth in rushing. His average of seven yards per carry is best in the league.
Arizona has the best rushing attack in the conference. Texas Western has piled up the most yardage through the air.
Hardin-Simmons has three of the individual leaders. Rod Williams tops the rushers with 840 yards, Ogden Compton has the best punting record, having completed 40 of 78 attempts for 585 yards, and D. C. Andrews leads the pass receivers by virtue of catching 29 aerials for 435 yards and seven touchdowns.

35 Aspirants Start Crane Cage Drills

CRANE—Approximately 35 boys have reported for cage practice for the Golden Cranes, reports Coach Gerald Rogers. Dan Anderson is assisting Rogers. Harold Riley is mentor for the juniors with 30 boys reporting.
The Golden Cranes have only two non-conference tilts scheduled to date. On December 2, Muskans will invade Crane, and on December 9, Crane will play a return engagement with Lobos.

The District 5-A schedule follows: December 16, Big Lake at McCamey; Iran at Alpine; Marfa at Wink; Fort Stockton at Crane; December 18, Alpine at Big Lake, McCamey at Marfa, Crane at Iran, Wink at Fort Stockton; January 6, Big Lake at Marfa, Alpine at Crane, Fort Stockton at McCamey, Iran at Wink; January 9, Crane at Big Lake, Marfa at Fort Stockton, Wink at Alpine, McCamey at Iran; January 13, Big Lake at Fort Stockton, Crane at Wink, Iran at Marfa, Alpine at McCamey; January 16, Wink at Big Lake, Fort Stockton at Iran, McCamey at Crane, Marfa at Alpine; January 20, Big Lake at Iran, Wink at McCamey, Alpine at Fort Stockton, Crane at Marfa; January 23, McCamey at Big Lake, Alpine at Iran, Wink at Marfa, Crane at Fort Stockton; January 27, Big Lake at Alpine, Marfa at McCamey, Iran at Crane, Fort Stockton at Wink; January 30, Marfa at Big Lake, Crane at Alpine, McCamey at Fort Stockton, Wink at Iran.

Injury List Grows For Texas Western

EL PASO—An expanded injury list will contribute to Coach Mike Brumbelev's woes this week, as he tries to regroup his Texas Western Miners for Saturday night's game against the Arizona State (Tempe) Sun Devils.
Tempe's heavily-favored squad is in a position to clinch the Border Conference title with a victory over the Oregidgers.
The Miners, already operating without their star right halfback, Clovis Riley, added three more starters to the hospital squad during the course of last Saturday's 35-7 drubbing at the hands of Arizona.
Joining Riley on the sidelines were Gene Odell, ace offensive end and defensive halfback; George Clements, Miner co-captain and standout offensive center, and Rene Rosas, hard-hitting regular defensive right end.

State Will Seek Rehearing On Bond For Accused Killer

ALICE—The state will file a rehearing motion on the appeal bond set for Nago Alaniz, one of two persons charged in the slaying of Jacob S. (Buddy) Floyd, Jr.

District Attorney Homer Dean said Thursday records in the case had been sent to Special Prosecutor Spurgeon Bell at Houston so Bell could file the motion for rehearing later this week, possibly Saturday.

The State Court of Criminal Appeals Wednesday authorized bond of $15,000 for Alaniz, dapper Alice attorney, but denied bond to Maria (El Turko) Sapet, also charged in the killing which has been called "a political assassination that went awry."

Young Floyd's father, a South Texas political leader opposed to political king-pin George Parr, testified at hearings for Alaniz and Sapet that his son was mistaken for Dean said Friday's scheduled change-of-venue hearing for Alaniz and Sapet had been cancelled and added he did not know when District Judge Arthur Klein would set it.

Alaniz remained in jail despite his bond setting, because authorities would not release him until a copy of the original appeals ruling had been received.

Sapet was denied bond in an opinion written by Judge Tom L. Beachamp who noted that Sapet's indictment alleges he was convicted March 3, 1950, on a plea of guilty to a charge of murder with malice.

New Defense Boss Assumes Toughest Duties Of Cabinet

WASHINGTON—P—Charles Erwin Wilson's comment about giving the Defense secretary job the "darndest whirl it ever had" can work both ways.

The job has given four men a whirl in the last four years.

Wilson was named Thursday as President-elect Eisenhower's selection as the next secretary of Defense. That the president of General Motors faces a tough assignment is shown by the fact that:

The first secretary resigned and, broken by the immense burden of his job, committed suicide.

The second one was fired.

Turnover Continues
The third one, a soldier by profession, dutifully served out his assignment for a year, then resigned.

The present one let it be known some months ago, before he knew the election would bring a change in Administration, that he intended to leave government. He now says he is more anxious than ever, as he puts it, to go back as rapidly as possible to what he hopes will be moderately prosperous obscurity.

Even the gigantic General Motors Corporation which Wilson heads and which, at Eisenhower's request he is leaving to come to Washington, is dwarfed by the proportions of the business he will manage as Defense chief.

Cut In Pay
There is a noteworthy aspect to Wilson's job change: A much bigger job produces a much smaller pay check. The general impression is that his 1951 salary and bonuses totaled about $626,300. He'll get $22,500 from the federal government—and no bonus.

Of all the executive agencies of government, the Defense Department is the largest, the costliest, the most complex, the most technical. Its responsibilities can be grave. Decisions made by a Defense secretary can be important in how a battle is fought and how men die.

The number of persons who work under the Defense Department and its armed forces approaches the five-million mark—3,600,000 of whom are in the armed forces, the other civilian employees in the farflung enterprises of the military establishment. General Motors has a big work force, but nowhere near that large.

The Bigger Business
General Motors is really big business. In defense contracts alone, not counting the income from commercial sales, it has been doing business in the multi-millions since the start of the Korean War. But the Defense Department spending budget runs about 60 billion dollars a year.

First man appointed to the job after unification of the Army, Navy and Air Force and creation of the Defense Department in 1948 was James Forrestal, investment banker. He worked at a tremendous task of organizing the department trying to settle long-existing rivalries and quarrels among the armed forces and getting the national defenses into shape at a time when national sentiment was cool toward military matters. He got things going but, broken by the burden, left his job and then took his life.

Johnson Criticized
Louis Johnson was named to succeed him. Johnson came into office at a time when the trend was to economy. Actions he took to cut back on military spending in line with economy mandates came in for criticism from congressional quarters and elsewhere. The Korean War burst upon the world. The criticism, by then involving charges the military wasn't ready, sharpened. President Truman ousted him.

Truman turned to a man he had long admired and appointed to previous high jobs, including that of secretary of State. He chose five-star Gen. George C. Marshall. A special exception was made by Congress to a law which would have barred appointment of a military man to the civilian job of Defense secretary. Marshall came back from brief retirement and took the job. He left much detail of administration to his deputies, kept for himself the task of overseeing the whole broad operation of the Defense Department and of making basic policy decisions.

Sense Of Humor
Robert A. Lovett, present secretary, is Texas-born but transplanted to New York. Like Forrestal, he is an investment banker. He works hard at his job but, unlike Forrestal, doesn't worry about it. A sense of humor, sometimes sardonic, saves him. He has been in government work, with only a short break, since early in World War II.

Lovett and Wilson know each other, having met in business meetings during World War II and since. It is a social and business acquaintance, not a first-name friendship.

Immediately upon hearing of Wilson's appointment Thursday, Lovett wired his congratulations and the offer of full cooperation of his office to bring about the transition of administrations in the Defense Department.

WHICH WILSON DO YOU KNOW?

NEW YORK—P—Just to put matters straight on industry's three Charles E. Wilsons—

1. Charles E (rwin) Wilson is the General Motors Corporation president who President-elect Eisenhower announced Thursday as his secretary of Defense.
2. Charles E (dward) Wilson is the former president of the General Electric Company and former director of the Office of Defense Mobilization.
3. Charles E (ben) Wilson is the former chairman of the board of the Worthington Pump and Machinery Corporation. They are not related.

Byrnes Would Accept No Government Post

COLUMBIA, S. C.—P—Gov. James F. Byrnes of South Carolina says he would "under no circumstances accept any appointment" in the federal government.

Byrnes made the statement to a news conference Thursday in answer to reports he might get a cabinet post under Republican President-elect Eisenhower. Byrnes, a Democrat, was an Eisenhower supporter during the presidential campaign.

New Hampshire's Governor To Be Youngest In History

CONCORD, N. H. —(P)—The youngest governor in the history of New Hampshire, Hugh Gregg, will be 36 when he takes office in January.

More people than ever before voted in New Hampshire the day Gregg led the Republican ticket in getting elected—he even ran ahead of General Eisenhower.

The young attorney has been called the "all-American boy" by his neighbors. He is handsome, comes from a well-to-do family, has a pretty wife and two attractive sons. He was a counter-intelligence agent in the Army during World War II and returned home to be elected his city's mayor.

When Gregg took over as mayor of industrial Nashua, the city seemed about finished as a center of high employment. But he, with aid from his father and a group of businessmen, organized the Nashua Foundation and attracted many out-of-state businesses to settle there.

After his term as mayor, Gregg was recalled to active Army duty. He served a year and a half and then resumed his private law practice.

He was persuaded to run for governor and won a smashing victory in the primary over three candidates, two of whom were older and more experienced in politics. One had served two terms as governor.

Gregg in action—on the speaker's stand or at a political rally—is a natural. His good looks are a help; he has great presence of mind and enthusiasm and is quick to turn a phrase.

In his platform he came out flatly for no sales or income taxes in the state. He promised to do what he could to get more industries into New Hampshire.

Gregg was graduated from Yale in 1939 and from Harvard Law School in 1942. He lives quietly with his wife and sons in Nashua, where he raises Newfoundland dogs. He neither smokes nor drinks.

John Nance Garner Is 84; Plans Trip Into Hills To Look For Deer And Turkey

UVALDE —(P)—John Nance Garner, former vice president of the United States, will be 84 years old Saturday.

He'd like to celebrate by going hunting. The deer and turkey season opened last Sunday.

His keen eyes light up at the prospect of a day and night in the South Texas hill country.

But "Cactus Jack" probably won't decide until the last minute. He doesn't have to make any hurry-up decisions anymore.

"I have a friend up there that has the finest place, with the highest fences, big mountains and lots of game," Garner says.

Totes Long Tom

And his bushy eyebrows ride high as he talks of his .25 caliber Remington automatic rifle for deer, and his "Long Tom" shotgun which he uses for turkeys.

Last year Garner and Ross Brumfield, local garage owner and a longtime crony, took to the hills for a night of camping and a day of hunting.

Male and hearty, Garner gives every indication of accomplishing his hope of living to be 92 so that he can say he has spent half his life as a private citizen. His 46 years in public service began as a county judge, then a Texas legislator, a Congressman, speaker of the House of Representatives, and ended with eight years as vice president of the United States.

Support Of Adlai

Garner emerged from political retirement briefly this year to support Adlai Stevenson, the Democratic nominee for president. Stevenson came down to Uvalde to have breakfast with the Texan.

Garner said in a brief speech that the Illinois governor was as capable a man as either party had nominated in 50 years.

Garner's eyesight is good. He is known to be one of the best shots in this section of the Southwest.

Garner spends his time living quietly in his new home, which in reality is an old home, in fact, 68 years old and a former servant's quarters. The house was built in 1884 by the late Judge John R. Shook, of San Antonio.

It is located just back of the now famous Garner home, which Garner and his son, Tully, gave to the city of Uvalde for use as a memorial library and museum several months ago.

Keeps Well Informed
A great deal of Garner's time is spent in reading newspapers, magazines and books, keeping abreast of happenings, and he is well informed on matters of local, state, national and international levels.

Garner always welcomes visits from his friends here, and several drop by for a friendly visit each day. He is an interesting conversationalist, and a good listener. He likes to recount interesting incidents of early days in his section.

Garner's main hobby is his pheasants, turkeys and chickens. He raises four kinds of chickens, bantams, Rhode Island reds, white Leghorns, and one breed he called "Turkey legged dominickers."

Garner farms a portion of the five and one-half acres, raising oats for grazing for his various flocks. And he can be seen most any time out working at his hobby.

Garner keeps regular hours, going to bed early, and rising early, and watches his diet, and his habits. He attributes his good health to his sticking to these regular hours and eating habits.

Since his retirement, Garner does not keep a secretary; therefore, he does not answer letters. He loves his friends and admirers, and likes to have them visit with him. He even likes to receive mail, but does not like to, and will not answer letters.

FROM ODESSA
Mrs. P. D. Smart, Mrs. Oscar Smart and Mrs. Ralph Hightower of Odessa were visitors here Thursday.

Townpeople Give War Hero $30,000 Wedding 'Dowry'

SAN BERNARDINO, CALIF. —

It's not every young bride and bridegroom who get $30,000 to start housekeeping on. But then, not every bridegroom is a Medal of Honor winner.

The fund has been pledged to San Bernardino's own hero, Army Lt. Joseph Charles (Chuck) Rodriguez, 24, and his sweetheart, Rose Aranda, 22, of Colton, Calif.

They will be married Saturday, with a reception to follow in the high school cafeteria, the only place big enough to accommodate all the townfolk who wish to come.

The couple will leave on a Mexican honeymoon arranged by Southern California Spanish-language newspapers. In Mexico they will be entertained by President Miguel Aleman.

When they return home December 17, a citizens' committee intends to hand them a check for $30,000. The "House for Chuck" campaign will swing into high gear after the wedding.

Rodriguez, now stationed at Norton Air Force Base here, won the Medal of Honor in Korea as a private first class. He was cited for "an incredible display of valor" in charging up a hill to wipe out 15 enemy gun positions, killing 15 Communists with hand grenades.

FROM MARFA
O. T. Farmer of Marfa was a business visitor Thursday in Midland.

FINANCE CHAIRMAN—

Wendell Faulkner, Pecos, businessman and civic leader, has been named to serve as finance campaign chairman for the Buffalo Trail Council, Boy Scouts of America in its annual funds campaign in February.

The campaign will cover all 17 counties of the council area, excepting communities with community chests.

Open House Set Sunday As New Addition Starts

An open house will be held at 2 p.m. Sunday at the corner of Midkiff and Storey Streets, for the newest residential addition to Ever-Growing Midland, it was announced Friday by John R. Wilcox, member of the Trend Company, builders.

A model home, furnished by the House of Carpets, will be displayed to the public during the open house.

Trend Acres is the name of the new sub-division, which will be comprised of modern ranch-style homes in the $12,000 class, featuring three bedrooms, bath and a half and more than average living space.

The initial group of Trend Homes will consist of 12 residences on Storey Street.

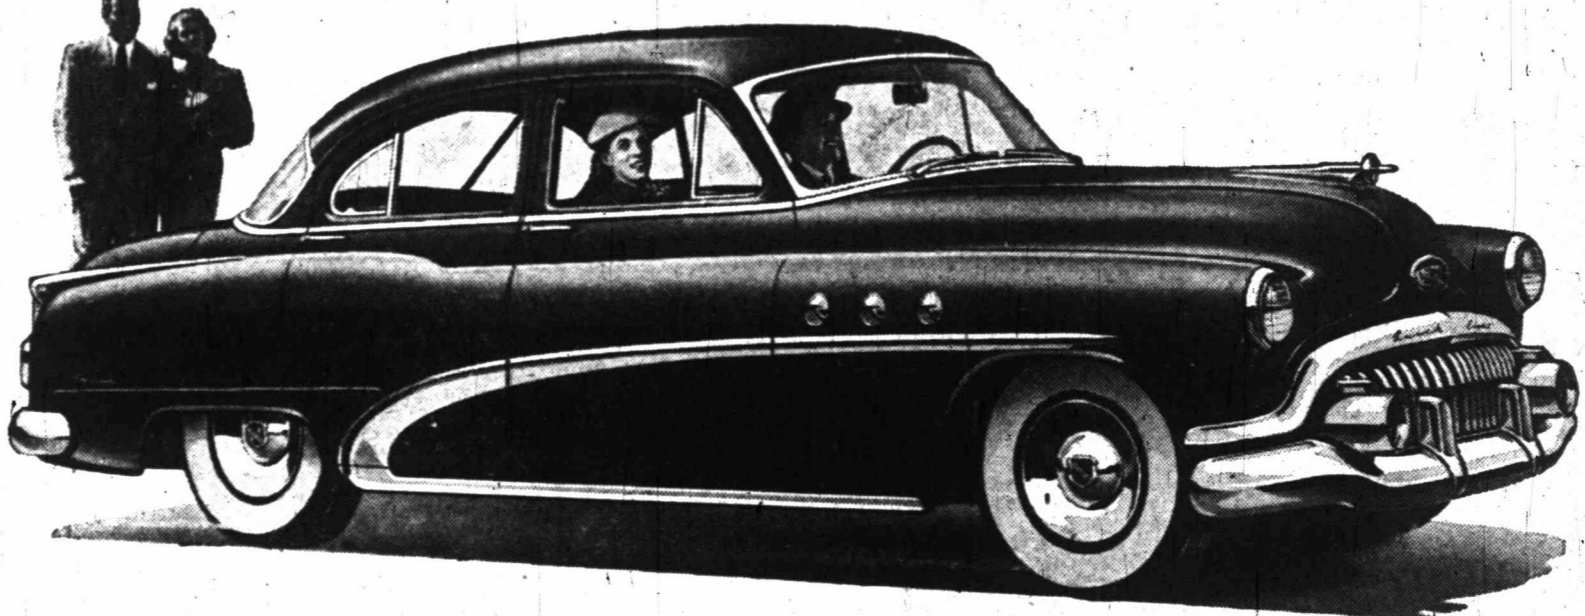

Wilcox said that streets, sidewalks, trees and utilities now are being placed to accommodate an addition of 75 homes in the area.

THEY DIDN'T HEAR A WORD SHE SAID—Members of the crew of the Canadian minesweeper "New Lisard," on liberty in New York, are supposedly listening to a lecture on points of interest to be found at the new United Nations General Assembly building. However, the sailors seem to find the main point of interest to be Mrs. Nina Mines, 29, their UN guide. The pretty, French-born guide is one of 15 young women who shepherd curious crowds through the building.

BUY-WORD in the field of travel

WHEN was the last time you priced the new cars?

When was the last time you matched feature against feature, size against size, horsepower—and discovered for yourself which car really tops the value parade?

We'll tell you this—

If you put any Buick — SPECIAL, SUPER OR ROADMASTER — against other cars of comparable cost, you'll find it the buy-word in the automobile market today.

Not alone on room, and power, and ride—and equipment included in the list price.

But also—and this is where your senses must be judge — in the thrill per dollar you get in a Buick.

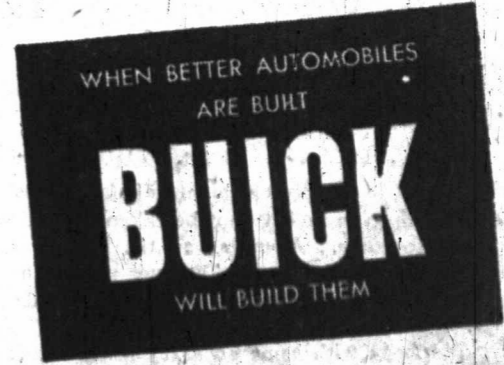

There's no other way to know the lift in spirit you get when a great Fireball 8 Engine is pouring out its high-mileage power, when Dynaflow Drive® is at its silky work, when a million dollars' worth of ride engineering is cradling your travel in ever-level comfort.

We'll tell you this, too—

If you can afford any new car you can afford a Buick. For Buick prices start way down where the so-called "low-priced three" really worry.

Drop in and let us show you the big-thrill buy called Buick.

Equipment, accessories, trim and models are subject to change without notice. *Standard on Roadmaster, optional at extra cost on other Series.

RUTH MILLETT

Being Guest, Then Hostess, Makes Better Friendships

Have you been getting by with being often a guest but rarely a hostess? Then maybe you had better give a little thought to a letter to this column.

"Can't you write something," a reader asks, "about the women who always say 'I'd love to come' and leave with 'I had a wonderful time,' but never do anything in return?"

"Lonely women are particularly negligent about this, it seems to me. A woman will say: 'Call me any time. I can always get away.' And yet it doesn't seem to occur to her that she might take the responsibility occasionally for doing the calling, getting up the party, and playing the hostess."

You Must Pay Piper The woman who is lonely, whose social life isn't as full as she wishes it might be, who feels left out of things, should take that letter seriously.

Rites Conducted For Centenarian

BEAUMONT—(AP)—Funeral services and interment were held here Thursday morning for 102-year-old Anna Reeves Millard who died Wednesday in the home where she had lived 85 years.

Mrs. Millard was the widow of George O'Brien Millard, nephew of Col. Henry Millard who played a prominent part in the Texas Revolution and became Jefferson County's first county judge in 1837.

SKUNK SPARED

PENTICTON, CANADA—(AP)—Ian McKay investigated sounds in his back yard and killed a brown bear with a well-aimed shot. At the same time a skunk appeared on the scene but McKay remained neutral until the skunk disappeared.

PETERSON IN HOSPITAL

Harry L. Peterson, Midland Air Park, is a surgical patient at Western Clinic-Hospital.

United States citizen. Claims Unproved Although both Ochoa and Villalobos have Latin names and claimed to be Mexican citizens, they never proved their claims. The evidence was stronger in the other direction.

That didn't seem to matter. Ochoa found himself in a pretty good spot after he finally landed in the federal jail in Mexico City.

He stayed out of jail for a long time, though. The bodies of Henry Whittenburg, Jr., 31, Laredo cotton ginner, and Air Force Cpl. James Lindsay, 30, of Oneida, Tenn., were found on July 31, 1949. Whittenburg's body lay in a fifth-floor Laredo hotel room. Lindsay's in a tenth-floor room. Both had been shot with the same .32 caliber pistol.

Witnesses told of seeing a scar-faced man around the hotel in the early morning. Police Chief David O. Gallagher discovered that both men knew Mrs. Ochoa, although there was no evidence they knew each other.

"Jealousy," said Gallagher, and a day later he filed a murder charge against Ochoa.

Ochoa Disappears But Ochoa had disappeared, after putting in a debonair appearance at his golf club.

This appearance was in character. Ochoa was a wealthy importer. He inherited the business and it did not demand too much of his time. His friends called him Gavo. He was a flashy dresser but "he took off his shirt at the slightest oppornever a hostess. Nor can she depend for too long on others including her on jaunts if she never plans any herself.

So if you're lonely, ask yourself these questions: Have I entertained as often during the past six months as I have been entertained?

Have I taken advantage of opportunities to ask others to share little excursions? Have I made the effort to share the hospitality of my home with any newcomers to town, or to my neighborhood?

No women can have a satisfactory social life for long unless she is willing to entertain as to be entertained by others.

(All rights reserved, NEA Service, Inc.)

tunity," a friend said drily. He was a fine swimmer and diver, a crack shot, an expert boxer and very good golfer. He was 38 then.

Another friend summed him up this way. "Gavo was a polished gentleman when sober, and a panther on wheels when drunk. He was a gay caballero, blue-eyed and smiling. He was well educated, clever, witty and a devil with the ladies."

But that wasn't the Gavo who showed up on Christmas night in 1949 at the home of a Laredo broker, J. J. Ballesteros. Ochoa looked "terrible"—red eyed and haggard. He demanded money, got none, snatched some cold tamales from Ballesteros' refrigerator and fled back across the border.

All this time the State of Texas and the U. S. State Department were trying to get Mexico to arrest Ochoa. Mexican officers finally did catch him—in a Mexican hotel room on July 11, 1950. He had died his hair blond and registered as Guillermo Vidal.

He was transferred to the penitentiary at Mexico City. There he lived in a private room. He liked to sit up all night playing dominoes. While Gavo played dominoes, his lawyers kept wrapping red tape around the case. The U. S. State Department almost dropped its extradition proceedings when Ochoa said he wanted to be tried in the United States. The joker was that Ochoa wouldn't waive the injunction preventing arrest his lawyers had filed for him.

In June of 1951, a Mexican federal judge said Ochoa would have to go back to Laredo to be tried. Winner Again

But on November 14 of this year, Ochoa, the smooth operator, turned out to be the winner when the Supreme Court issued an injunction against his extradition, deciding "there wasn't enough evidence against Gavo."

The Villalobos case wasn't quite so complicated and was in doubt a much shorter time.

Sheriff O. W. (Blackie) Morrow of Presidio County was shot to death on the lonely road between Marfa and the Texas town of Presidio on March 12, 1950. Skilled trackers followed Villalobos' trail to the border. They got Mexican officers to help and on March 16 caught Villalobos in the mountains of northern Mexico.

After he confessed, he was clapped into jail while the United States tried to extradite him. But in May, 1950, Federal Judge Felipe Galindo Hernandez of Chihuahua City ordered Jose released.

The judge said no order authorizing Villalobos' arrest had ever been issued in Mexico.

Villalobos never went back to jail—at least not on U. S. charges.

FOR HAMMERING DOWN TAXES?—Rep. Joseph W. Martin, Jr., of Massachusetts, who is expected to be named Speaker of the House for the 83rd Congress, swings a double handful of gavels after a recent press conference. The veteran Republican congressman predicted a budget cut for the coming fiscal year, and held out hope for a reduction of taxes.

Daddy Ringtail

Daddy Ringtail Believe It Or Not

Daddy Ringtail, your monkey friend, and Mugwump Monkey, the monkey boy, were about to solve the mystery of the present. The present had come from Uncle Bunkum at the zoo. It had come in a big, big box. But inside the box was another box, and another and another and another and another—six boxes in all, and the sixth box was small enough for Mugwump to hold it in his hand.

"Mercy me!" said Daddy Ringtail, because a letter was fastened to the little box. The letter said: "Six more boxes—twelve boxes in all—and you will come to the present. It's an elephant as big as a house!"

But how could there be another six boxes, and an elephant as big as a house inside? How could these things be inside the box that was small enough for Mugwump to hold it there in his hand? That is what the mystery was, you see.

"I wonder, I wonder, I wonder," said Daddy Ringtail. "I wonder, I wonder, I wonder," said Mugwump. The Huffle Puffen, the friendly wolf, came walking along just then,

With all the campaign specials, whistle stops and commercial radio and television broadcasts, the railroads and radio folks will probably hate to see Election Day come. It'll be sort of like winter ending the nice summer business of a hot dog stand.

other and still another box. This last box was exactly big enough to hold a house, and when Mugwump opened this last box there inside stood a great big elephant as big as a house.

The elephant smiled to see them. What a great big, bright and shiny fellow he was with an elephant trunk and an elephant tail, and a couple of great big floppy elephant ears.

I don't remember was color he was, except he wasn't pink. Oh no! I'm sure he wasn't pink, and this is a story that really happened, play-like. Happy day!

ALMOST ALL DOOR—Front and rear walls of this jet plane hangar in Chicago are actually two huge doors which lift into the hangar's roof at the touch of a button. The rear of the building must be opened to allow escape of the exhaust blast from F-86 Saber jets which can be airborne in four minutes, for aerial defense of the city.

Packs Of Wolves In Polish Forests Menace Peasants
WARSAW—P—Wolves are becoming an increasing menace in Poland's forest areas, where villagers and isolated peasants live in fear for their livestock and even their lives from these wild marauders.
Since the end of the war the wolves have increased in number and boldness in the vast forests of the Carpathian Mountains in the Southeast and the Masuria district of lakes and forest in Northeast Poland near the border with the Soviet Union.
In the Masuria district wolves attack watchdogs a few yards from home and raid livestock in farmyards. Farmers who have wandered too far into the forests unarmed have been killed.
Shepherds have been forced to bring their flocks of sheep closer to human habitation.
Authorities are organizing shooting parties and paying cash prizes for all wolves killed in an effort to combat the wild menace.

McCarthy To Push Federal Clean-Up

WASHINGTON—(AP)—Senator McCarthy (R-Wis.) said Thursday he assumes he will become chairman of the Senate investigating group in the new Congress and when he does, he will push Communist-in-government probes.
McCarthy also told reporters he is convinced President-elect Eisenhower will give the incoming Republican-controlled Congress "anything that is necessary to clean house" in the government.

The MATURE PARENT

Child's Cheating Is Fear Of Rejection By 'Crowd'

By MURIEL LAWRENCE
The current issue of Parents Magazine reports that 81 per cent of a New York suburban high school's students condone cheating on school tests.

This is not a unique statistic. Youth polls show that many teenagers feel the same way.

My friend Bert has an angle on this attitude that may help us understand it.

Bert works in a grocery store where I trade. One day I said, "Tell me, Bert, how's the cheating situation in your high school?"
"Kids do it," he told me cheerfully. "I don't—not any more I quit asking other kids for their answers when I got up enough nerve to tell them to quit asking for mine."

He was giving us important information. He was telling us that adolescent people need for acceptance by others of their kind makes it especially hard for them to resist the coyness involved in the give-and-take of cheating.

He was telling us that this need is so overpowering that a youngster who remembers the date of the Louisiana Purchase simply dares not withhold it from another who demands it. If the other belongs to a "crowd" he admires.

He was telling us that to be "different" is horrible to people of his age—and that a child who possesses the information required by a test may pretend that he hasn't—and ask it from someone else, just in order to reassure the someone that there's nothing queer about him.

Parental pressure to bring home report card A's and B's remains the basic cause of school cheating. However, children whose parents are most conscientious in refraining from pressuring their own ambitions still cheat. They may do so because their intelligent parents have not been intelligent enough. They have not gone as far as they should in exposing pressure by other people as a force for children to reckon with, not just for now in the school test, but for the rest of their lives.

Learning how to resist cooperating with other people's fears is one of the most important lessons the young have to learn. It's not enough to curb our demands that they bring home good marks. They have to understand what pressure itself means, so that they will be able to say when it comes at them from employers, in-laws, their marriage partners and children, "Hold on here, what are you doing to me?"

We have to go patiently with ten-agers in this lesson. Bert's a rare one. Not many people of 16 can rally the nerve to gamble on his friends' rejection of him as disloyal to "crowd" codes.

But just so long as Ellen and Jim know that their cheating is fear of someone's opinion, they'll be okay. We can talk out this fear with them until it is gradually dissolved by a stronger and more resolute self-respect.

Parents used to hold their children's noses and pour it down, or give them a dime to take medicine. Under modern child-raising rules, the discussion can be ended quicker and easier if the parents just take the medicine themselves. © NEA

TURKEYS, thousands of them gathered for one last reunion at the Thayer hatchery at Osgood, Ind., and bobbed mournfully while awaiting their conversion to prime Thanksgiving fare.

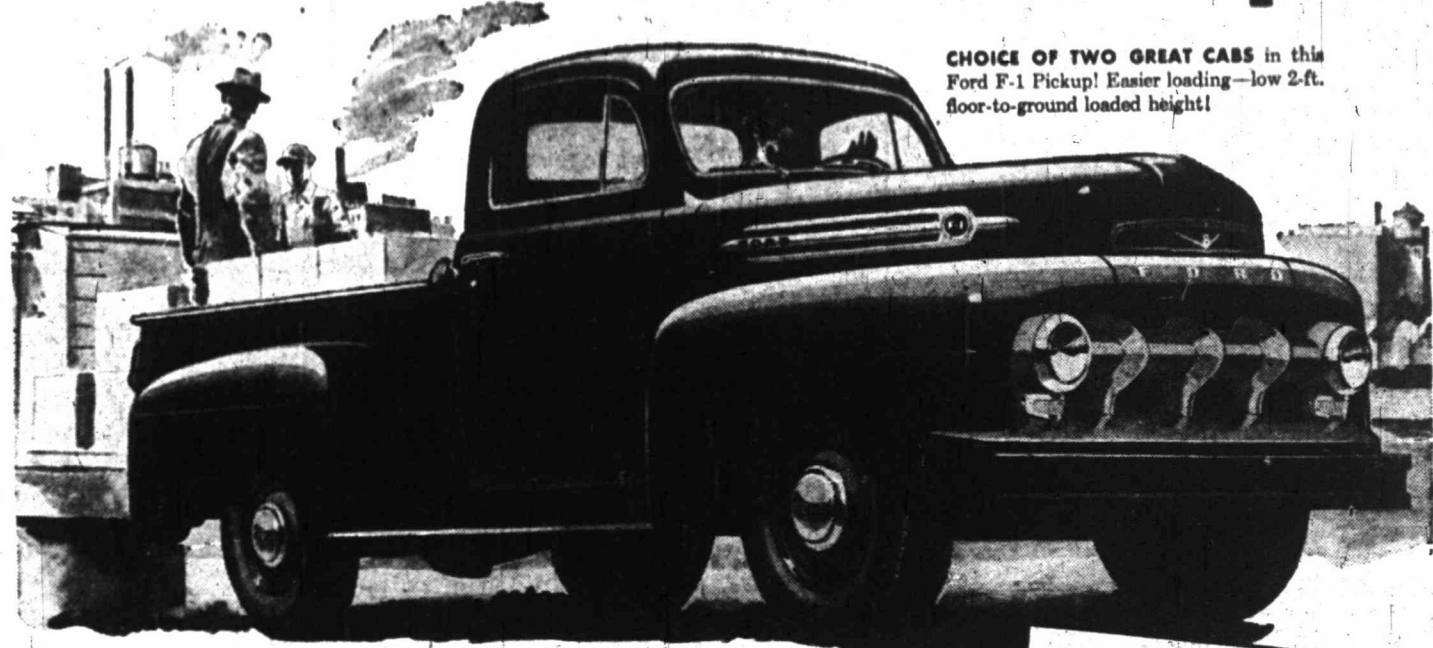

HE DOESN'T APPRECIATE THE HONOR—This gobbler, en route from Oregon to Washington, D. C., hopes his plane never leaves Chicago. The bird knows he'll "get it in the neck" shortly after his arrival, because he's being sent as a gift from west coast turkey growers to President Truman. Frank Cain, of Chicago, holds the unhappy fowl, and Nancy King, of Crete, Ill., wields an axe which foreshadows his eventual fate.

TURKEY—NO DRESSING—Hilda Estever went hunting in cool comfort at Miami, Fla., and came back with a fine bird for her Thanksgiving feast. While Mr. Turkey still has his, several spectators to the "turkey hunt" are said to have lost their heads when Hilda went by in her bird hunting costume.
