City Annexation Battle Explodes

Upton Water Proposal Hit By Midlander

By BOB GALLAWAY
Reporter-Telegram Staff

RANKIN—Attorneys for a group of oil companies and ranchers in North Upton County prepared Wednesday afternoon to wifid up their parade of witnesses opposing the formation of the 291-square-mile Upton County Water Control and Improvement District.

A spokesman for the battery of attorneys representing the opponents to the plan said they would present their last witnesses Wednesday afternoon before Judge Garland Casebier of Fort Stockton in the legal battle over the district's formation.

But the trial threatened to go on several more days as County Attorney John Menefee and Attorney David C. Tinsinger of Austin said they planned to call "a lot of witnesses."

The district, calling for a water production and distributing system extending from Rankin to Midland, was formed after the presentation of a petition signed by 150 taxpayers and it was presumed that many of these would be called.

Midlander Steals Spotlight
As the parade of witnesses continued, however, the spotlight was stolen by H. F. Neal of Midland, who said he had operated a ranch in Upton County since 1937.

Vehemently opposing the plan, Neal told Tinsinger under cross-examination that he refused to "assume the plan would work."

When warned by Judge Casebier he must answer, Neal replied: "I can't assume a lie. Even assume."

Two Odessans Hurt In Pegasus Mishap

Two Odessa roughnecks were in the Medical Center Hospital in Odessa Wednesday after being injured by a rotary bushing which fell from a rig on which they were working in the Pegasus field, 25 miles southwest of Midland.

William H. White received an injury to the head when the bushing struck him from above, and cut a deep gash. He was in fair condition.

M. T. Goodgame received lacerations when the bushing hit his shoulder. The hospital reported he was in good condition.

The accident occurred at 6:45 a.m. on the Magnolia Petroleum Company No. 9-A Windham. An Ellis ambulance from Midland carried them to the Odessa hospital.

Speeding ambulances from Midland and Odessa caused unfounded rumors of an oil field explosion in the area.

BODIES HIDDEN IN PANTRY—

Scotland Yard Seeks Clerk In Murder Of Four Women

LONDON—(AP)—Discovery of a fourth rotting female corpse Wednesday in a London "house of death" apartment spurred a Scotland Yard hunt for the quiet little clerk who had rented the lodging.

The bodies of three women were found walled up in a pantry in drab Notting Hill District Tuesday. The fourth, like the first three still unidentified, was under the floorboards of the same room.

One of the dead women was believed by police to be the wife of the central figure in the general manhunt underway—55-year-old John Christie, the last tenant of the apartment.

REDS ON RAMPAGE—3,500 Chinese Communists are waging their heaviest attack in five months on four UN hill positions. Allied defenders have recaptured Pork Chop and T-Bone, but the Reds continue to hold the rainy, windswept slopes of Old Baldy.

Chinese Repulse American Sallies

SEUL—(AP)—Fighting in a rain of American fire, Chinese Reds broke up a two-pointed U. S. attack Wednesday in the bloody trenches of Old Baldy.

At nightfall, the Americans were back where they started, about 125 yards down the bare, windswept western front hill.

The fighting, now in its third day, was vicious and deadly.

One officer said the Americans drew Red fire "every time they popped their heads up."

As darkness fell, infantry fighting eased off while the big guns of both sides slugged it out.

The Reds swept over Old Baldy Monday night and the Americans have been trying to get it back since.

One American attack force pushed off Wednesday morning toward a Red trench network on the northwest and was stopped cold.

Another lashed out toward the northwest. A division officer said this one "got close" but was finally ordered back in the afternoon "when the going got too rough."

It was trench fighting, a blaze of close-quarter grenades and small arms fire.

The officer said there are apparently two Red companies on Baldy holding two trench networks. The Americans hold the other.

Associated Press Correspondent Stan Carter reported from the Seventh Division that American tanks pushed around the flank of the hill to cut up Chinese reinforcements.

Gen. Maxwell D. Taylor, commander of the Eighth Army, flew to the front Wednesday to watch from a forward observation post. He was accompanied by Lt. Gen. Paul W. Kendall, First Corps commander, and Maj. Gen. Arthur Trudeau, commander of the Seventh Division fighting on Baldy.

Trudeau told Associated Press Correspondent Stan Carter, "We have no doubt we will retake Old Baldy and soon, but we want to do it in a well-planned operation and not throw away lives."

The Midland office of Pioneer staffs 21 persons, he said.

The action came about when more than 450 of the company's employees in Texas and New Mexico were put on furlough notice last week by the air line after its president announced a possible suspension of the entire operations due to a reduced mail rate.

Of the nine daily Pioneer flights at Midland, two have been cancelled, Morgan said, one incoming and one outgoing.

A police post-mortem indicated the first three women found—all between 25 and 30 years old—had been strangled.

Police with shovels and crowbars searched other rooms and began digging in the garden patch behind the house.

Three of the women were believed to have been dead several months and the other a few weeks.

Police Arrest Pair, Unravel Six Lootings

Two 22-year-old McCamey youths were being held Wednesday as city and county authorities reported the solution of a half a dozen burglaries in Midland and the surrounding area during recent weeks.

Charges of burglary were filed Tuesday afternoon against the pair, identified as Murrell Kelley and Aris Lee, after questioning by Lt. Billy Patterson and Sgt. Wayne Taylor of the police department's detective division, and Sheriff Deputies F. S. Buckalew and Earl Horton.

Denied Fender Is Clue
A dented fender and a sharp-edged service station operator led to their arrest, according to Sergeant Taylor.

He said two youths drove into Larry Service Station on the night of March 19 and ordered $1 worth of gas. Both of them looked the place over carefully and the attendant became suspicious.

After the place was entered that night and cigarettes and $2 in cash were taken, the attendant told officers the two youths, driving a car with a dented rear fender.

An area-wide broadcast was put out and an Odessa policeman spotted the car and arrested the pair Sunday.

Sergeant Taylor said, when questioned, they admitted two other service station burglaries here and similar burglaries in Andrews, Midland and Midway.

Blue Skies Smile Down On Midland

Prospect of big blue skies smiling down on Midlanders Thursday seem likely, say CAA weathermen at the Midland Air Terminal, who expect no big winds, no extreme heat and no blowing dust.

Residents didn't really start perching until late in the afternoon Tuesday when the high reading for the day, 82 degrees, was recorded at 8:30 p.m. Wednesday's low was 49 at 5:28 a.m.

Unofficial forecast for Thursday indicates clear skies, and a slight south wind in the afternoon.

Ike Said Willing To Accept Emergency 'Freeze' Powers

WASHINGTON—(AP)—The Eisenhower Administration said Wednesday the President would "accept" authority to clamp a 90-day freeze on prices and wages in an emergency but wants no detailed standby economic control law.

Acting Mobilization Director Arthur Fleming delivered to the Senate Banking Committee the Administration's specific requests for extension of mobilization powers.

Fleming asked:

1. A one-year extension, until June 30, 1954, of priority and allocation powers sufficient to protect production for the military and atomic programs.

2. Abandonment of the emergency power to requisition and condemn private property needed for defense, and elimination of the requirement that scarce materials be allocated among civilian users, except in special cases.

3. Extension of the authority to aid industrial expansion for defense by loans, loan guarantees and long-term purchase contracts.

4. Extension of rent controls until September 30 in areas which have requested federal ceilings, and until April 30, 1954, in defense housing critical areas.

5. Extension of the government's program to aid small business for one year, as now operated by the Small Defense Plants Administration.

Committee Chairman Capehart (R-Ind.) is pushing a bill which would give the President power to clamp on price, wage and rent ceilings for 90 days in a declared war emergency. During that period, Congress would decide whether or not to enact comprehensive controls legislation.

"Mr. Speaker, I rise to move adjournment of the House. I have with great regret to make the announcement that Queen Mary has died."

A few cries of dismay from public galleries broke the quiet.

In Ottawa, Prime Minister Louis St. Laurent announced the death to the Canadian Commons.

Real Estate Board Bucks New Addition

A bitter battle over the proposed annexation of almost a square mile of new territory, which flared into the open Tuesday night before Midland's City Council, headed for a quick decision Wednesday afternoon.

The council, which Tuesday night heard spokesmen for both sides in the controversy, was summoned by Mayor Perry Pickett to a special session at 4 p.m. Wednesday in the Midland County Courtroom.

The mayor said the council probably will reach its decision at this meeting.

At stake are: First, the annexation of a total of 621 acres, including 515 acres in the Permian Estates No. 2 and 80 acres in Sherrell Park, both located just outside the western city limits of Midland.

Second, a proposal to triple the city's pro rata charges on sewer and water lines to meet the full cost of such installations.

Should the council adopt the annexation ordinances on first reading, it must wait 30 days before the second reading and final action, presumably to permit time for a public hearing.

But both sides made their stands clear Tuesday night.

Several members of the Midland Real Estate Board warned that further expansion of the city's housing facilities would flood the market and might create a ghost city "like they had in Abilene."

A spokesman for the group seeking annexation stated, on the other hand, that "housing prices here in Midland have been notoriously high and are still notoriously high."

"You hear it said," asserted Raymond Thomson, Jr., one of the Permian Estates developers, "that there are vacancies in Midland. There should be. That is a healthy condition."

Thomson, along with his father, Raymond Thomson, Sr., and his brother, Monty Thomson, developed the original 660-acre Permian Estates Addition and other Midland contractors have joined them in actual home construction.

Thomson said his group was committed to develop the north half (Continued On Page Seven)

Boy, Five, Burned Seriously In Play; Tips Boiling Water

A wild chase after a baseball ended in near-tragedy Wednesday for a five-year-old negro boy.

The boy, Billy Wayne Davis, son of Wallace Davis, 608 North Mineola Street, was reported in serious condition at Western Clinic-Hospital with serious burns of his body and left leg.

Police Officer John Luper said the boy was playing ball in his backyard and chased a ball into the yard of a neighbor, Eleanor Hemphill, who was boiling clothes in an iron pot.

The boy crashed into the pot and it overturned, spilling the boiling water on him.

He was rushed to the hospital by a Newline W. Ellis ambulance.

"While sleeping peacefully, Queen Mary died at twenty minutes past ten o'clock."

President Eisenhower sent his deep personal sympathy and recalled: "Queen Mary was a good, great queen. Free peoples the world over will mourn her loss."

Similar expressions from other chiefs of state poured in to her monarch-granddaughter at Buckingham Palace.

Three of the old queen's six children survive her—Windsor, the Princess Royal, a 77, Dowager Countess of Harwood, and the Duke of Gloucester.

She also is survived by nine grandchildren and three great-grandchildren.

Texas Gulf Has Finaled Extender To Elkhorn Field

Texas Gulf Producing Company has completed its No. 1-K University of Texas as a one-half mile north extender to the proven limits of the Elkhorn (Ellenburger) field of Northeast Crockett County.

The well flowed 634 barrels of oil and no water in 24 hours on the completion test. The flow was through a one-half inch tubing choke from perforated section in the Ellenburger at 7,271-7,331 feet.

That interval had been washed with 500 gallons of mud acid and then treated with 3,500 gallons of regular acid. Flowing tubing pressure was 100 pounds. Casing pressure was 225 pounds.

Gas-oil ratio was 240-1. The gravity figure was not reported. This new well is 15 miles northwest of the town of Ozona and 440 feet from south and 330 feet from west lines of section 28, block 36. University survey. Total depth is at 7,335 feet. The 5 1/2-inch casing is cemented on bottom.

Devonian Top In Headlee Stepout High To Discovery

Texas Gulf Producing Company No. 2 E. V. Headlee, one location northeast of the discovery of the Headlee (Ellenburger) field in Central-East Ector County is approximately 118 feet high on the top of the Devonian to the same marker in the Texas Gulf No. 1 Headlee, the field opener.

No. 2 Headlee is now coring below 11,639 feet in porous Devonian lime which is topped at 11,240 feet. Elevation is 2,917 feet. This top is picked by samples.

It is being correlated against the Devonian top in the No. 1 Headlee which was called from electric logs. There might be a slight change on No. 2 Headlee when it takes electric logs.

Texas Gulf No. 2 Headlee will go on down and test and try to complete from the Ellenburger.

The No. 1 Headlee has good shows of possible production in the Devonian. It completed, however, from the Ellenburger for a 24-hour potential of more than 600 barrels.

Location of No. 2 Headlee is 1,980 feet from south and west lines of section 8, block 41, T-2-S, T&P survey. It is four miles northeast of Odessa and 17 miles southwest of Midland.

Magnolia Swabs Oil From Deep Zone In Reeves

Magnolia Petroleum Company No. 1 J. Marvin Rape, Central-East Reeves County wildcat, 23 miles southeast of the town of Pecos swabbed 32 barrels of new oil and no water in 16 hours.

The petroleum came from open hole in a lime section at 10,085-10,097 feet. That zone, thought to be Wolfcamp-Permian, had been washed with 500 gallons of mud acid.

Operator will continue swabbing for a short time and will then probably re-acidize and test further.

This wildcat had also logged some shows of possible production in the Delaware sand between 6,038 feet and 6,069 feet.

Location is 660 feet from south and west lines of section 24, block C-1, pal survey.

Midlander Schedules Shallow Wildcat In S-C Ector Region

J. Y. Francis of Midland No. 1 M. S. Foster is to be drilled as a 470-foot wildcat in South-Central Ector County.

The project is one and one-quarter miles southwest of production at the south side of the Cowden field.

Site is 330 feet from north and east lines of the southeast quarter of section 24, block 43, T-3-S, T&P survey. It is seven miles southwest of Odessa.

The project is to be drilled on a farmout from The British American Oil Producing Company.

Operations are to start at once.

2—THE MIDLAND REPORTER-TELEGRAM, WEDNESDAY, MARCH 25, 1953

High School P-TA Observes Dad's Night

Fathers of Midland High School students took over the regular meeting of the school's Parent-Teacher Association Monday night, as the unit observed Dad's Night. Stanley Eskine, president, with Don Sivalls serving as treasurer.

As a highlight of the evening, the 1953 Life Membership Award was presented by Karl Nichols to John Tom "Myrt" Baker, director of the Midland Youth Center. Baker was chosen for the award as the "adult in Midland who has contributed the most to the welfare of high school youth in the city during the last year."

Officers Named
Unit officers for 1953-54 were elected during the business session. They are Mrs. J. J. Black, president; Mrs. Phyllis Howard, first vice president; Mrs. Raymond Leggett, second vice president; Mrs. W.

V. Odom, secretary, and Mrs. Mamie Kroenlein, treasurer.

The unit approved a recommendation to sponsor a Midland showing of the French film, "Passion for Life," a "heart-warming story of the effect of modern educational methods on a small village in France."

The movie, which ran one and one-half years on Broadway, has had only two previous Texas showings—in Tyler and San Antonio. It will be shown about May 1 in the Midland High School Auditorium.

It also was announced by Raymond Leggett that the film, "This Is Your High School," made by the unit this year will be ready for showing at the meeting on April 27.

Program feature for the evening was a symposium on "Counseling and Guidance in the Physical Education Department of MHS," led by Charles Mathews, director of curriculum for the city's public schools. Assisting were the coaches, "Tugboat" Jones, Frank Ford and Edwin Nixon.

Symposium members stressed that team work is the greatest lesson learned in high school athletics and that citizenship training is a main objective.

It was pointed out that all students physically able, except band students and junior and senior a cappella choir students, are required to take physical education. The department also strives constantly to stimulate greater participation in the sports program—in football, baseball, basketball, tennis, volleyball, golf and track—in which approximately 150 of the 888 high school students now participate.

Mathews stressed that the physical education department is a strong link in the chain of the guidance services of the high school. Examples were given of instances when the counseling of coaches made the difference between a boy leaving school at high school age and going on to obtain a college degree.

Opening the evening's meeting, Coach Nixon conducted a spelling bee "to see how well the schools had taught the Dads to spell." A devotional, "Thought For the Night," was given by a student, Royce Measures.

Air Force Reserve Officers Get Commission Reminder

AUSTIN—Air Force reserve officers who have not signed their permanent commission oath of office, have only a few more days to do so, Col. B. W. Warren, commanding officer of the third Air Reserve District, said Wednesday.

"Time is running out," said Colonel Warren, "and those officers who have not returned completed forms by April 1, 1953, will find that their commissions have expired." Officers who received the commission applications had 60 days in which to fill them out return them to Headquarters fourteenth Air Force, for processing.

The permanent commission replaces the old five year term commission in the Air Force Reserve, by signing the oath of the office the reserve officers protects his commission indefinitely.

The appointment of a reserve officer not holding a indefinite term appointment, will automatically terminate on April 1, 1953, or on expiration date of his current five year term appointment, whichever is later.

"Reservists who have not received tender of reappointment," Colonel Warren added, "should apply immediately to the Commanding General, 14th Air Force, Attn: Drons, at Robins AF Base, Ga., and insure their reappointment."

Mrs. Taft Hostess To Mrs. Eisenhower

WASHINGTON—(AP)—Mrs. Robert A. Taft, who might have been first lady if the political winds had blown differently, is hostess Wednesday at a big party in honor of Mrs. Dwight D. Eisenhower.

Senator Taft will be on hand to greet the President, Mrs. Eisenhower and other guests.

It is the first major entertainment by the Tafts since Mrs. Taft suffered a stroke about three years ago, from which she has not yet fully recovered.

The passenger pigeon, now extinct, outnumbered every other kind of bird on the North American continent in the middle of the 19th Century.

Stressing that the individual inertia of the citizenship is the greatest threat to the American democracy, the speaker reminded his audience that no democracy ever has fallen before a force from without.

He pointed to the recent national election as indication that the individual American is taking an increased interest in good citizenship and his government.

Urging continued study and interest in governmental affairs, Bezoni urged that "we must leave a heritage of hope and peace for the following generation."

Bezoni is president of the Midland Kiwanis Club and is Midland County Democratic chairman.

Manners MAKE FRIENDS
"I want you to be sure to look up a friend of mine." Remember when you utter those words you may be putting two of your friends to a lot of bother. The one who promises to look up your friend and the friend who has to "do something about" the one who looks him up, so don't sic one friend on another lightly.

One quick way to lose your friends is to ask too much too often in the name of friendship.

Bohlen Speaks His Mind

This nation was unfortunate in not having an expert top-level observer on the Moscow scene in the crucial days immediately after the death of Joseph Stalin.

Bohlen is one of the genuine professionals on the subject of the Soviet Union. On top of that he is a career diplomat, not one pulled out of a coin-filled campaign hat...

The long delay by the Senate Foreign Relations Committee in approving Bohlen ostensibly was due to feelings among some Republicans that he had been "too closely identified" with the policies of the former Democratic secretary of State, Dean Acheson.

Bohlen had served as an interpreter for President Roosevelt at Yalta in 1945, and he also was present at the Potsdam Big Three meeting later that year.

But this argument was not the real one, since any career diplomat worth his salt would be expected to show loyalty to the regime in power, as Secretary of State Dulles pointed out. Furthermore, in his valuable service in Paris during the early days of NATO in 1951, Bohlen had been very close to President Eisenhower, then NATO commander.

The real sore point was Bohlen's failure to agree with the contention of some Republicans that Yalta and Potsdam were total disasters for America and "sell-outs" for the Poles, the Nationalist Chinese, and others.

In the end, however, most Republicans supported the President and Dulles in their evident conviction that Bohlen's qualifications for the Moscow post outweighed any possible handicaps from past associations or other factors.

One thing Bohlen established unmistakably in the Senate hearings: his basic honesty. He knew how easy it would have been to please some senators by saying the right thing. Instead he spoke his mind at risk of failing to win confirmation.

Within the limitations always imposed by Russia on foreign diplomats, Bohlen now may treat the U. S. government to this same kind of honest reporting from Moscow, attuning his especially sensitive antennae to the most critical spot on earth for determining the issue of war or peace.

Regardless of what season it is, it always comes at the wrong time of year, according to the pessimist.

Barking at friend wife is a very good way for most any husband to get himself ignored.

Some folk are so afraid of taking a good lacing that they hesitate to start anything on a shoestring.

Backdrop To Perdition

The Washington Merry-Go-Round

By Drew Pearson

(Copyright, 1953, By The Bell Syndicate, Inc.)

Drew Pearson says: Chip Bohlen is best choice for Kremlin mission; Ike is willing to meet Malenkov in Berlin; FBI gave Chalmers bill.

WASHINGTON—If what Senator Tobey calls "the willful group of little men" opposing Chip Bohlen to be ambassador to Moscow knew all the facts about him, they probably wouldn't be so vehement in their opposition.

Real fact is that John Foster Dulles, campaigning for Dewey in 1948 and expecting to be the new secretary of State, told friends privately that one of the first things he would do when he took over the State Department would be to "exile" Bohlen. He had in mind a long period of service in some pleasant country such as Guatemala or Tanganyika.

The fact that Dulles now is strong for Bohlen is due first to the fact that he recognizes a man of ability; second, the fact that Bohlen is by all odds the best man to undertake a difficult diplomatic sounding mission with the new Kremlin.

This sounding is a plan for a big three meeting of Eisenhower, Malenkov and Churchill.

Eisenhower has decided that he would be willing to meet Malenkov halfway, preferably in Berlin, in order to discuss peace in Korea and a possible truce in the cold war.

Behind Big 3

The idea for such a meeting has been debated back and forth inside the White House ever since Stalin died. Some Ike-advisers have cautioned that the new Kremlin is much more anxious than we are for a truce and that it would be better to wait for them to come to us.

Other advisers have urged that Ike leave no stone unturned, should by all means sit down with Malenkov. They believe that even if the Big Three conference gets nowhere it would have two important advantages:

- 1. Ike would get a chance to size up the new boss of Russia.
2. The new boss of Russia would have an opportunity to get acquainted; to see that we're not as bad as we're made out to be. Malenkov never has been outside the Soviet Union, knows few Westerners, has the reputation of hating Americans.

In addition, political advisers impatiently are reminding the White House that it now has been three months since he went to Korea, and four months since he campaigned on a pledge of doing something definite about Korea. Yet so far nothing has happened.

So They Say

I would like to visit Russia but I reject the political banishment. We have no desire to enjoy the fruits of socialism where we did not work for them.

—Convicted Communist leader Mrs. Elizabeth Flynn.

The way our population is increasing while our fertile land is washing and blowing away, your children and mine and your grand-children and mine can face starvation.

—Soil Conservation official Waters Davis.

I would like to assure our friends abroad that we will not ask for aid in ground forces from any nation to achieve our own goal.

—Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek.

If the new American government has the will to terminate the Korean war, they should resume the Panmunjom peace talks unconditionally.

—Red China Premier Chou En-lai.

partment security director, had refused to clear Bohlen, even though Dulles gave him a clean bill of health to the Senate Foreign Relations Committee.

Such are the wheels within wheels surrounding a confirmation fight almost as bitter as anything in Truman's day. In brief, petty politics continues to be petty politics.

Note—Bohlen's greatest asset is a perfect knowledge of the Russian language and of Russian characteristics. He has translated Russian for Roosevelt, Truman, Jimmie Byrnes and others. He also understands Russian quirks, peculiarities and politics. Such a diplomat is rare in any foreign office.

Q—Have scientists accepted the idea that Mount Everest is growing higher all the time?

A—The world's highest mountain has grown 608 feet above the altitude officially accepted and established by precise measurements. The official altitude is 29,022 feet but its summit is now 29,610 feet above sea level.

Q—Who made the first spherical globe-maps in the United States? A—James Wilson in 1810.

Q—What is the gravity of Venus? A—About 85 per cent of earth.

Q—What is Australia's most famous song? A—The folk song, "Waltzing Matilda."

Q—What is the ratio between snowfall and rainfall? A—Snowfall of 10 inches equals one inch of rainfall.

LITTLE LIZ

After dinner, they all built up a big bonfire on the hillside, and gathered about it. There was much singing and sky-larking of the youngsters. It was a time of celebration.

There was much excitement, but the boys gradually got their story told.

Out of Los Angeles, the boys had taken 66 eastward, just as Ish remembered so vividly he had done in the days following the Great Disaster, when he had not been much older than the boys were now. The highway across the desert was easy and open, except for an occasional stretch where sand had blown across. They had gone along with no more trouble than blowouts here and there. The Colorado River bridge they had found shaky, but still passable.

The next community was apparently at one of the old Indian pueblos near Albuquerque. From what he could make out from the boys' description, Ish concluded that the dominant spirit must be Indian, because their pattern of life was based on growing corn and beans as the Pueblo Indians had done for many hundreds of years. Only some of the older people talked English. This community, also had drawn inward upon the strangers. The people there had horses. They did not drive automobiles.

From there, the boys had swung north to Denver, and then eastward across the plains.

"We followed a road," said Bob. "It's like 66, only just part of it." He paused, hesitant. Ish thought for a minute, and then realized that the boy was trying to describe Highway 6. Bob had sensed that they were the same shape as he numerical on 66, although there was only one of them.

Highway 6 had led them on through the corner of Colorado, one of these things out of a store.

JACOBY ON BRIDGE

By OSWALD JACOBY Written for NEA Service

Practically every bridge player has heard of the Blackwood Convention. You bid four no-trump, and your partner is supposed to show you how many aces he holds by bidding five clubs to show no aces, five diamonds to show one ace, and so on.

This convention is a highly useful device, but it must be used with discuss it every day of four no-trump is conventional. Sometimes a player intends this bid merely as a general slam invitation, and sometimes that player simply wants to play the hand at four no-trump.

In today's hand, for example, South just wanted to play the hand at four no-trump. Since the hand was being played in a match-point tournament, South correctly decided there was little profit in doubling West at four spades. (West would have been set only one trick.)

Instead South bid four no-trump, hoping his partner would pass and that he could thus score over 600 points for the vulnerable game.

Unfortunately for South, his partner was the sort of player who thinks that a bid of four no-trump can mean only one thing. North has only one ace but decided his void suit justified an immediate jump to slam. East promptly doubled, and North-South got a very poor score for their unsound slam contract.

West opened the queen of clubs, and East took the ace of clubs and returned the suit. Declarer drew two rounds of trumps and speculated briefly on whether it paid to try a double heart finesse in the hope of discarding his remaining club. He finally decided (wisely enough) not to make this try for his contract. Instead he led his remaining club, thus establishing dummy's eight of clubs for a heart discard. He was set one trick.

Was there any sure way for North to know South's bid of four no-trump was not meant as a conventional slam try? The tip-off came at South's second turn when he tamely passed over East's take-out double. If South had held the sort of powerful hand he would need for a slam, he would have redoubled or taken some other strong action.

Since he failed to act strongly at that time, it should have been clear that his later bid of four no-trump was just an attempt to play the hand at that contract.

There have been no votes taken around the table to determine a course of action. Instead, what the quakers call "a sense of the meeting" has been reached to express the consensus of those present. Many questions have to be tabled for further study.

At some of the Cabinet meetings there have been briefings by department heads. Secretary of State Dulles and Mutual Security Administrator Harold Stassen, for instance, made a report on Europe with maps and charts and everything after their post-insurance trip abroad.

Considerable primary political education of the Cabinet has been done since only a few of the Administration leaders, like ex-Governor McKay of Oregon, Adams of New Hampshire and Stassen of Minnesota, have had previous political experience and none of this has been in Washington.

A—Bid five hearts. You have 11 points in high cards, two for the doubleton, and one point for your fifth spade. North's strong rebid shows about 20 points, so that the combined total may easily be enough for a slam.

You can afford to suggest a slam by bidding five hearts, not caring greatly whether North understands this as a general slam invitation or as an ace-showing bid.

WASHINGTON COLUMN

News Of Cabinet Meetings Is Scarce, But Enlightening

By PETER EDSON NEA Washington Correspondent

WASHINGTON—News about what goes on in President Eisenhower's Monday sessions with congressional leaders and Friday Cabinet meetings has been extremely scarce. The conferees have been reluctant to reveal what takes place, although there is said to be no rule of secrecy imposed by the President.

At these meetings President Eisenhower is described as being extremely relaxed and very much unlike a commanding general. The usual military leader's way is to listen to his staff reports, then announce with finality and without appeal what the strategy will be. President Eisenhower isn't like that now, although he may have been when he was commander in chief in Europe.

For the Cabinet meetings, an agenda, now is prepared every Thursday afternoon by "the Assistant President," ex-Gov. Sherman Adams of New Hampshire. Cabinet members are called by his office and asked if they have anything they want to bring up next day.

A list of nine or 10 items, some of which may have been put on the agenda by the President himself, is typed and placed before each official's chair around the Cabinet room table in the executive office. The subjects are taken up one at a time and in order. Anyone who wants to contribute an idea is free to do so, whether it's in his field or not.

Internal affairs of each department are not discussed by the Cabinet as a whole. Each secretary has been left free to run his own department with fully delegated authority.

Only matters of national or international interest, in which an Administration policy must be determined, are brought before the entire group. For instance, the better support price problem was submitted by Secretary of Agriculture Benson and the Tidelands oil issue was brought up by Secretary of Interior McKay.

There have been no votes taken around the table to determine a course of action. Instead, what the quakers call "a sense of the meeting" has been reached to express the consensus of those present. Many questions have to be tabled for further study.

There will be a fight over an across-the-board cut of this size. The usual reliance will be placed on Western-state congressmen to prevent the large economy hack.

The hunches which President Eisenhower has arranged for groups of congressmen have done wonders in promoting better relations between the White House and Capitol Hill. But there still are a number of congressmen—Republican as well as Democratic—who do not completely trust the Eisenhower program. Their fear is that the new President may be more like Theodore Roosevelt than like William McKinley.

Senate Votes Slight Increase In Spending

By DAVE CHEAVENS

AUSTIN—(AP)—The multimillion dollar general spending bill bounced back to the House Wednesday after streaking through the Senate in exactly one hour and ten minutes.

The senators cut a slightly more liberal economy pattern than the House. The House is expected to lose no time in turning down the Senate version.

That would throw the job of re-writing the bill into a joint conference committee of House and Senate members.

A huge Senate majority successfully resisted every effort to add more than authorized money to its 166 million dollar bill. It provides money for state departments, colleges, courts, junior colleges and hospitals for the next two years.

The session still has to face another related issue, taxation. The strong push there will come to the demand for a public school teacher pay raise—an item not included in the general spending measure.

Water Bill Passed
A substantial raise for teachers would make new taxes necessary. Rumors were flying that the teachers pay raise block might start its drive soon.

Other topflight legislative action Tuesday:
1. The Senate approved and sent to the House a bill reorganizing the Board of Control—the state's purchasing housekeeping agency—under a full-time paid director, with three part-time board members. It now has three full-time members.

2. The senate sent to the House a bill creating the Northeast Texas Municipal Water District to serve Marshall, Mount Pleasant, Avinger, Jefferson, Hughes Springs, Lone Star, Ore City, Gilmer and Pittsburg from Ferrell's Bridge Reservoir.

Claims Court Approved
3. A House Committee recommended passage of a bill creating a small claims courts where citizens could bring such lawsuits without an attorney.

Hospital Included
The Senate bill also included $3,500,000 for a new tuberculosis hospital at Tyler and funds for reestablishment of a state police narcotics bureau.

Efforts to extend the pay boost to administrative personnel in the colleges and to give the state deaf school $1,800,000 for buildings were beaten down in the Senate. Finance Committee Chairman Otis Lock opposed both additions, saying they were worthy but the Treasury just didn't have the money.

Election of the President of the United States has been thrown into the House of Representatives and there decided in two instances, Jefferson and John Quincy Adams.

Old MacDonald has a farm, as I see I did! Morning now had come to the farm. This was the morning after the night before.

Why, last night, Old MacDonald had gone out to give his cows their supper. He always went out at night to give his cows their supper. But this time, there was a new cow in the pasture. A new cow is a happy thing to have, but this new cow was purple!

"Help!" cried Old MacDonald, because he had never seen a purple cow before. He was frightened to see it. "Help! This cow is purple!"

Old MacDonald ran away fast to his farmhouse. He crawled beneath his bed. He slept there on the floor all night. The rooster crowing next morning is the thing that woke him up.

"Hah!" said Old MacDonald to himself. "And what am I doing here under my bed? Why, I'm waking up from a sound sleep. That's what I'm doing." Old MacDonald rubbed his eyes to wake up better. Then he remembered the purple cow.

"Ooooooh!" he said to himself to remember it.

Old MacDonald went to the kitchen. He cooked himself some breakfast. "Never be scared when you're hungry," he said to himself. "Always eat something first," and so he ate his breakfast.

Then he went out to the pasture. He went out to see about the purple cow. "I don't know what I'm going to do, if the cow is still purple," said Old MacDonald to himself. "I just don't know what I'm going to do."

Well, when Old MacDonald went

City Annexation—

"We plan to start within 10 days," he said, "on building homes in the last 234 B-zone lots we have left in that area."

"We have 169 A-zone lots left and now are in the process of consummating a deal with a Midland builder to construct these houses."

"He added that of the 234 B-zone lots, "we already have sales contracts on 142 of them with escrow money on deposit."

The Thomasons, he explained, already have spent $25,000 in planning, engineering and ground planning the proposed new addition.

Outstanding U. S. Market
"Here in Midland there still is a tremendous market," he added.

"I attended a recent convention in Chicago of the National Home Builders association and everybody there knew about Midland. They claim it is the outstanding housing market in the United States."

The new addition, he said, provides for 1,711 lots and "the mortgage money for its development is now available."

A similar appeal for annexation came from Richard Brooks, Midland attorney, representing the Dell Laurence Construction Company, developers of the proposed 80-acre Sherrell Park, which features a "slightly larger house than offered by the Thomasons."

"We are prepared," he said, "to install our own utilities system at our own expense, and meet city specifications."

He said the Laurence house is for "the family which needs more floor space but is unable to afford the Park Hill or Grafaland class of housing."

"We can proceed immediately with the construction of 55 homes," he continued, "and feel that, if this area is annexed, we can continue at that rate and probably faster."

New Homes, Not Acreage
"This is not a request to annex raw acreage. It is a request to annex new homes."

"I, for one, can testify from 12 years of experience, that housing in Midland has been notoriously high and still is notoriously high."

Then came the opposition. Barney Graf, long-time Midland real estate developer, said it was his opinion that there already is enough undeveloped land within the city limits to meet demands.

"Property values," he said, "have gone down from 10 to 20 percent and it is time that we stop and look to see whether we are getting overbuilt."

As he spoke, one of the Thomasons produced a full-page newspaper ad announcing plans for Graf's newest addition—McCall Place.

"I see it," said Graf, noticing the newspaper, "but the kind of house I'll build there will be a credit to Midland and one they'll be proud of."

Board Offers Survey
C. E. Nelson, another Midland real estate man, urged the council to study the situation carefully.

"I'm afraid," he said, "that Midland already is overbuilt."

He offered the services of members of the Real Estate Board in making a survey to determine the percentage of vacancies in Midland housing units.

Another speaker was Paul James, one of the developers in the original Permian Estates Addition and owner of 80 acres of land lying between the proposed Permian Estates No. 2 and Sherrell Park.

"Naturally," he said, "I would benefit by these being brought into the city."

"But I feel we need to clean up what we have here in the city before bringing in any new areas."

He said at least two apartment projects in Midland now are facing the possibility of bankruptcy and that "when you get above the $47 down payments, there's hardly a real estate sale being made in Midland today."

Ablene Case Cited
He said Ablene had gone through the experience of over-expanding and overbuilding.

"Until this airfield came back over there," he added, "Ablene was dead. I'm afraid Midland is heading the same way."

"I feel there is more undeveloped property in the present Permian Estates than can be built and occupied in 1953."

C. C. Boles, another real estate operator expressed the fear that the cost of bringing in new areas would use up all available bond funds for water and sewer line extensions.

Tied in with the possible annexation fixed at 50 cents a front foot for sewer lines and $1 a front foot for water lines.

Oswalt told the group that it actually costs $1.75 for sewer lines and $2.50 for water lines.

Sundown Teacher's Trial Slated June 2

LEVELLAND —(AP)— A plea of innocent has been entered by Jack Killingsworth on charges he maliciously murdered a fellow teacher.

Killingsworth's trial has been set for June 2.

He is charged with murder with malice in the fatal shooting of Richard McChristal, 37, Sundown High School vocational agriculture teacher.

The shooting occurred last February 28. McChristal, witnesses said, was called from a practice session of a school murder play. Killingsworth later told police and newsmen the shooting came after Mrs. Killingsworth said the older man forced her to have improper relations with him.

Church Picketing Order Due Court Airing Thursday

A battle to keep in force a restraining order issued a month ago against the picketing of the million-dollar First Baptist Church construction project will be resumed Thursday in 70th District Court.

A 12-man jury, selected and sworn in 11 days ago before Judge R. W. (Bob) Hamilton, has been ordered to report at 10 a. m., when the first testimony will be presented.

The restraining order was issued against the Construction and General Laborers Union on petition of Contractor Houston Hill after pickets had halted work on the project at Louisiana and Garfield Streets.

Members of the jury are Stanley C. Moore, J. S. Lock, Roy E. Walker, John N. Castner, Robert L. Hardin, Gordon Elderkin, W. L. Wooley, Harry Denton, R. J. Holbrook, Donald Cottler, Troy E. Foley and Bryant Huggins.

First settlers in Massachusetts were Pilgrims, not Puritans. They were the first company of Separatists to come to America, landing at Plymouth.

AFTER 127 MISSIONS AND 12 MIG'S—

Baker Gets Whole Day Off Before Round Of Welcomes

MCKINNEY —(AP)— After 127 missions in Korea where he bagged 12 MIG's to become America's No. 1 jet ace, Col. Royal N. Baker was back home Wednesday for one day of rest before starting a round of homecoming activities that includes an appearance before the Texas Legislature.

Wednesday was "family day" for the Air Force pilot. For the first time in almost a year, he was reunited with his wife and four little Bakers.

Three of the four Baker children—Page, eight, and her brothers, Bobby, six, and Benny, four, were at Love Field, Dallas, to greet their father when he arrived with Mrs. Baker by commercial airliner from California Tuesday night.

But it wasn't until after they motored to McKinney shortly after midnight that the family was reunited. Sally, two, hadn't been feeling well and remained here.

Greeted By Mother
"There's nothing like a Texas homecoming," the soft-spoken 34-year-old ace said as he was surrounded by friends, relatives and a delegation of fellow citizens from McKinney at the airport.

One of the first to greet the returning flier was his 57-year-old mother, Mrs. J. W. Strikes, Galveston.

She said she hadn't worried about her son.

"I knew he would come back safe," she said. "He went through the other war and came back and I knew he'd do it again."

Colonel Baker has 399 combat missions in the two wars.

Assigned To Ohio
Mrs. Baker, who Friday flew to the West Coast to meet her husband, was glad to learn his next assignment is not Korea again, but Wright Field near Dayton, Ohio.

But before he reports back on duty he has homecoming dates in Texas. Thursday he will appear by invitation before the Legislature and April 9, McKinney citizens are planning a county-wide celebration.

The colonel said the Yalu River limitation on air activity is "awfully frustrating."

USCC Speaks Out Against Compulsory Labor Arbitration

WASHINGTON —(AP)— The U. S. Chamber of Commerce Wednesday opposed compulsory arbitration of national emergency labor disputes.

A day previously such arbitration of disputes big enough to threaten national safety had been proposed by a top AFL union leader.

Powell C. Groner, president of the Kansas City transit system and spokesman for the Chamber, told the Senate Labor Committee that invoking compulsory arbitration is inconsistent with collective bargaining.

Under compulsory arbitration, a dispute is referred to a third party or board, whose decision is binding on the disputants.

The House Labor Committee received testimony from Al J. Hayes, president of the AFL's International Association of Machinists, recommending compulsory arbitration as a method of settling big strikes threatening the nation's health and safety.

Under the present Taft-Hartley law, such strikes can be held up by 60-day court injunctions, but there is no method of settling the basic employer-union disputes involved. The committee is considering proposals for changes in the law.

Methodist Revival Attracts Midlanders

Large crowds are attending the revival services being conducted this week in the First Methodist Church by Dr. Clovis G. Chappell of Waverly, Tenn.

Services are scheduled at 10 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. daily, through Friday.

Dr. Chappell, outstanding religious author and Methodist minister, was ordained in 1908 and has served as pastor of a number of leading churches in the South. He is the father of Clovis G. Chappell, Jr., Midland attorney.

Survivors include the husband, three sons and three daughters.

Jim Daugherty Gets Life Membership In Lions International

James L. (Jim) Daugherty, longtime member and past president of the Midland Lions Club and an outstanding civic and church leader, was awarded a Life Membership in Lions International by members of the Midland club at their regular meeting Wednesday noon in Hotel Schaubauer.

The award, recommended by the club's directors and voted unanimously by Lions attending the luncheon, was presented "for community service beyond the normal call of duty and for outstanding and unselfish leadership."

Band Presents Program
C. Ed Pritchard submitted the resolution concerning Daugherty and listing the many and varied club and community activities in which he has participated.

Daugherty, a past governor of District 2-T-2, now is serving as a counselor of Lions International.

The Midland High School Band, under the direction of Ralph Mills, presented a special concert as a feature of the Wednesday program.

President L. V. Bassham announced the club will stage its silver anniversary banquet April 9.

Scurry Unitization Hearings Postponed

AUSTIN —(AP)— Hearing on proposed amendments to field rules for the recently unitized Canyon Reef Pool in Kelley-Snyder field and part of the Diamond "M" field, Scurry County, was postponed Wednesday until 9 a. m. April 27.

Postponement also was ordered on the application of Sunray Oil Corporation and Magholla Petroleum Company for permission to begin an injection project in the unitized area.

Upton Water Proposal—

summing the plan would work, I know it won't."

"Would you prefer cheaper water if you could get it," asked Tinsinger. "I suppose so," retorted Neal. "But the point is that they can't put water on my land at less cost than I can produce my own."

"Besides, the price is not important. It's what you get for the price. If you get what you paid for, then it's a good deal."

Wouldn't Buy Water?
Tinsinger kept hammering away at him on the subject of cheaper water.

"It can't be done," snapped Neal, "and I wouldn't buy the water if I was paid to do it."

Under plans for the district, bonds would be issued by the district with landowners throughout the entire 291 square miles helping to pay the resulting tax bill estimated at eight cents per $100 valuation.

"Do you know the persons who signed the petition," asked Glen Lewis of San Angelo, representing the Plymouth Oil Company.

Neal answered that he did.

"Are any of them that you know landowners in the disputed area?" asked Lewis.

Neal said that, to his knowledge, none of them lived outside the City of Rankin.

A technical battle boiled momentarily over the introduction by Horace Burton of Midland, representing the Phillips Petroleum Corporation, of aerial photographs of the area.

Objections Overruled
Judge Caselber overruled the objections and permitted them to be introduced. The pictures were identified by E. G. Bell of Midland, who accompanied Harry Hecht on the aerial flight.

Opponents of the water district rounded out their case Tuesday afternoon by calling four men connected with the Plymouth Oil Company's gasoline plant and housing area in Upton County.

They are W. W. Hutchison, field superintendent for the area; Paul Cruse, business office employe; C. C. Hickie, gasoline plant superintendent, and W. D. Lane, Plymouth's West Texas superintendent.

All contended that neither the plant nor the company camp had faced a water shortage.

Lane said he hoped the present water supply would last as long as the $7,000,000 gasoline plant is needed.

Hickie asserted that the district's water supply would not be dependable and that any failure would result in near-disaster to the plant.

Tax Man Testifies
The first witness Wednesday morning was J. J. De La Garza, assistant tax man for Plymouth, who testified he had examined the tax rolls of the Rankin Independent School district, within which boundaries the water district lies.

The school district's rolls total $18,459,000, of which property in Rankin bears $806,800. The assessed value of the land owned by the opponents to the district approximates $9,500,000, he said.

Other witnesses Wednesday morning included B. R. Cox, independent oil operator of Rankin; W. C. McDonald, commercial water well operator, and L. L. Roberts, production foreman for Republic Natural Gas Company in the Benedictum field. All testified in opposition to the district.

Plans Are Rushed For Two New Parks

Plans for two new parks—complete with swimming pools, picnic grounds and tennis courts—were approved formally by the City Council Tuesday night.

The council instructed City Manager W. H. Oswalt to proceed with plans for the swimming pools so they can be constructed and in operation by July.

One of the parks will be located in East Midland to serve Latin American residents while the other will be in the negro section of the city.

The approval came on recommendation of the Park Advisory Commission.

Oswalt, president of the Permian Basin Chapter of the Texas Society of Professional Engineers. Gibb Gilchrist, chancellor of the Texas A&M College System, will present Chiles with a plaque Monday at the annual professional engineers banquet in Hotel Scharbauer.

Chiles Announced 'Engineer Of Year'

H. E. (Eddie) Chiles, Jr., of Midland has been named "Permian Basin Engineer of the Year for 1952." Chiles, president of the Western Company and El Capitan Oil Company, was honored because of his outstanding work in the field of oil recovery and his interest in the welfare of his community. W. H. Oswalt, president of the Permian Basin Chapter of the Texas Society of Professional Engineers, announced Wednesday.

Chiles A&M College System, will present Chiles with a plaque at the Basin professional engineers banquet in Midland Monday. Ben Wooten, president of the First National Bank of Dallas, will be the principal speaker at the annual get-together at 7 p.m. in the Scharbauer Hotel Ballroom. All West Texas professional engineers, with wives and guests, are invited to attend.

Reservations may be made with J. M. Orman, Box 831, Midland, or phone 4-8661. Chiles was born in Itasca, Texas. He graduated from the University of Oklahoma in 1934, with a degree in Petroleum Engineering. He was a member of the Sigma Alpha Epsilon social fraternity, Sigma Tau honorary engineering fraternity, and an honorary member of Pi Epsilon Tau.

After graduation, he joined Reed Roller Bit Company as a Trainee Engineer. In November, 1934, he was made field engineer in Ada, Okla. The following year he was sent to Rodessa Oil Field in Northern Louisiana as a sales engineer. In 1937 he was assigned to Reed's main office as Chief Rock Bit Engineer, in charge of design and development of Reed Rock Bits.

In April, 1939, Chiles resigned from Reed to organize the Western Company, an oil well acidizing concern, with headquarters in Seagraves. Starting with five employees, including himself, he has built Western into a large technical service organization, employing over 400 persons and operating from ten offices in four states. In recent years, the company has expanded into the service fields of fracturing, perforating, well logging, radio active tracing and related services.

Western's general offices now are in Midland. Chiles is active in civic enterprises and is a former member of the Midland City Council. He has been an active member and officer in a number of technical organizations. He is a member of the Regulatory Practices of the Interstate Oil Compact Commission.

Chiles is a member of the board of directors of the new Midland YMCA, is active in the Presbyterian Church, and serves on the Aviation Committee of the Midland Chamber of Commerce. He was chairman of the Special Gifts Committee during the 1952 Midland Community Chest Drive.

Texas Employers' Insurance Report Talked In Meet Here

A. H. Piyer of Dallas, vice president and secretary of the Texas Employers' Insurance Association, was the principal speaker Tuesday noon at the company's annual policyholders' meeting in the Hotel Scharbauer Ballroom here.

More than 150 policy holders or their representatives in the Midland area attended the function, which was presided over by William L. Kerr, Midland attorney.

Among other company officials and personnel introduced were B. J. Pittman, vice president, public relations, Dallas; Alfred Webber, field vice president, Fort Worth; Ed Locke, Dallas; and John McConnell, Midland regional manager; Tom C. Younger, regional claims manager, and W. C. McConnell, regional safety manager, all of Midland.

The luncheon was one of a series for policyholders being held throughout Texas by the company, which writes only workmen's compensation.

Piyer, who reviewed the thirty-ninth annual report on the firm's activities, said earned premiums of the association, Texas' largest casualty insurance company, for 1952 reached an all-time high of $20,139,168.89, a ten per cent increase over the previous year. Assets were increased from $15,809,466.39 to $18,845,336.42. Surplus to policyholders increased $855,000 and at the close of the year amounted to $5,234,218.47.

In spite of this record, Piyer pointed out that 1952 was a most difficult year in workmen's compensation insurance. He called attention to the fact that the association's incurred losses for 1952 were 69.9 per cent of the earned premiums, compared with 65.6 per cent for 1951. However, this difficulty was not confined to the association, he said. Practically all of the principal writers of workmen's compensation insurance in Texas were faced with the same situation.

"In attempting to discover the reason for the continuing upward trend in incurred losses, we discovered two significant facts," Piyer said. "One cause was the delayed reporting of claims, and the other the attributed to the continued impact of inflationary factors in our economy which made it impossible to settle claims in accordance with previously established estimates of value based on disability." Commenting further on the serious claims situation, Piyer said: "During the year, we have attempted to bring to the attention of the various trade associations representing industry an up to date report of what was transpiring in the field of workmen's compensation insurance. More publicity is being given this important insurance problem with some encouraging results. Much remains to be done so that insurance rates can be brought back to a more equitable level."

In spite of the increase in the loss ratio, Texas Employers' was able to decrease its operating expense ratio from 20.2 per cent in 1951 to 19.8 per cent in 1952, Piyer stated.

Total earnings from underwriting and from investments amounted to $2,694,232.34. Guaranteed cost discounts of $1,804,295.99 were deducted by policyholders during 1952.

Moscow Beams New Radio Peace Appeal To America, Britain

LONDON—(AP)—Moscow radio made another direct peace appeal to Americans Wednesday and offered British "peace, cooperation and friendly competition" in trade with the Soviets.

In Bonn, West German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer challenged the Kremlin to back up its peace talk by agreeing to the unification of Germany and by releasing 300,000 German war prisoners he claimed still are being held in Russia.

The Soviet broadcast to America—part of a stream of assurances of peaceful Russian intentions that began after the death of Joseph Stalin—declared Moscow is spending so much money on "economic and cultural development" that it could not possibly be preparing for a third world war.

But the Soviet offer to Britain spoke less conciliatingly of the U. S. That broadcaster said unfortunately there were influential circles in America "which claim there must be no cooperation with the Soviet Union and the people's democracies."

This broadcast said what these American circles want is rearmament and war profits.

Circuit Judge Wayne Allen wrote the meat order into an agreement of $15 a week for support of Toby and Anita Orling.

The judge didn't stipulate the kind of meat to be delivered, but observed: "They are your children and I assume you wouldn't send them gristle."

Chrysler Cuts All Auto, Truck Prices

DETROIT—(AP)—Chrysler Corporation cut the prices on all its cars and trucks Wednesday.

The automobile company, one of the "Big Three" of the car industry, said the government's abandonment of price controls was a factor in its decision.

It was the first major price change in the auto industry since the removal of controls.

The cuts range from $87.50 on four-door cars in the moderate-priced field up to $278.80 on one deluxe model. All cuts are on the factory retail prices at Detroit.

Truck prices also were cut. Chrysler said these average $40.

President L. L. Colbert of Chrysler cited a 32 per cent increase in recent production by his company.

"Now that higher volume is being achieved and we may reasonably expect it to continue, we are lowering prices accordingly," he said.

Midlanders To See Rare Holy City Film Friday

The taking of pictures in Mecca, Islam's holy city, ever has been forbidden, but Abdul Ghafur Sheikh, who will speak here Friday night, managed to take and bring out of that city color pictures which will be shown in connection with his lecture here.

The lecture, "Into Forbidden Mecca," will be presented at 8 p.m. Friday in the Midland High School Auditorium, under the auspices of the Permian Basin Rifle & Pistol Club.

Sheikh, who visited in Midland about two years ago as the guest of John I. Moore, is a Moslem who has been studying in the United States the last five years. He is a graduate of Dartmouth College and now is attending Harvard University. He will return to his native Nalrool, British East Africa, in June to take an active part in the work of the famous Sheikh Fasal Ibrahimi Charitable Trust, which was established for the betterment of mankind by Sheikh's distinguished father.

Last year, Sheikh made his third pilgrimage to Mecca, the city for which men for ages have risked all to see what was there. Sheikh concealed a camera and film case beneath his robes, taking pictures of religious rites and of Moslem shrines.

Sheikh is 22 years of age, handsome, and an able speaker with a command of six languages.

Tickets for the lecture now are on sale at the Chamber of Commerce, Lones Travel Agency, Albert C. Kelley, Inc., Athletic Supply, Midland Hardware & Furniture Company, and Basin Supply. They also may be obtained at the door Friday night.

Volunteers Near Atom Blast Escape Detonation Unhurt

LAS VEGAS, Nev. — Military men are getting downright chummy with atomic blasts, have ventured safely within less than a mile and a half of one.

Nine daring volunteers who huddled in five-foot trenches 2,500 yards from Tuesday's detonation thus were closer than any humans since nuclear destruction hit Hiroshima and Nagasaki in 1945.

Brig. Gen. William C. Bullock, commander of Camp Desert Rock and military exercise commander, later may be proved right in his claim of last week that troops can survive above ground, lying prone, within two miles of a blast.

It was Bullock who selected four Army, four Navy and one Air Force officer from a group of volunteers for Tuesday's close approach. In the civil defense test last week, 1,500 troops and military observers and 20 newsmen were in trenches 3,500 yards from the explosion. Tuesday, 1,300 troops were 4,000 yards away.

The second shot of the Spring series was from a 300-foot tower on Yucca Flat in the vast Nevada Proving Grounds 65 miles northwest of here.

Airmen Learn Roles

It was accompanied by expanded Air Force participation, 53 planes in all, including 12 B-36 bombers which flew near enough to get a jolt from the blast. A Navy AD-2 fighter drone plane, controlled by two mother ships, was flown into the thermal envelope or heat waves and back to land safely at Indian Springs Air Force Base.

An Air Force spokesman said of the B-36 crews: "We want the lead crews of bombers which might some day be involved in a real atomic operation to know at first-hand what a blast is like. We want to make sure that they don't suffer from buck fever. . . we plan the same sort of training for crews of other planes at later dates."

'Every Inch A Queen' Pays Cockney's Homage To Mary

By RICHARD KLEINER
NEA Staff Correspondent
(First of two dispatches)

In her 85 years, Dowager Queen Mary was many women. She was a gay golden-haired princess. She was a proud, regal queen. She was a beloved queen mother. But, most of all, she was a family woman.

For her, the path to the throne, the years she sat on it and the years after she left it were often marked by personal sadness. But she triumphed over tragedy because she had her family to share her grief. Mary always regarded the duties and privileges of a wife and mother as important as those of a queen.

Era Of Queen

In spite of that—or, perhaps because of that—she became one of the most universally revered queens Britain ever had. Her lifetime spanned the reigns of six monarchs, from Queen Victoria to Queen Elizabeth. It spanned British history, as she saw England at its most powerful, saw it fight two world wars, saw pieces of the Empire break off, saw it in glory and in austerity.

Through the decades of transition, Mary remained the same. She was haughty when a queen should be haughty, but she could weep with the wives of trapped miners. When she sat on the throne, she looked like she was cast for the part by Mother Nature herself, but she could tramp through bomb-blasted cities for hours without growing tired.

Cockney Salute

She was, as a Cockney woman in Mile End Road, a poor section of Stepney, once told her, "Every inch a queen!" Even at 85, she was as straight as a scepter and as royal as a crown.

Princess Mary of Teck was born in Kensington Palace, London, on May 26, 1867. There was royal blood of great nations in her veins. Her great-grandfather was George III of England. She numbered, among her ancestors, rulers of Scotland, Hungary and many German states.

Striking Beauty

But her own family was not wealthy, by regal standards. In her childhood, she was frail and her mother nursed her herself. Princess May, as she was called—her baptismal name was Victoria Mary—called the happiest years of her life. They lived in a small cottage on the royal Sandringham estate in Norfolk. It was so small, she liked to recall, that it had no spare bedroom.

Close To Housewifery

It was a happy home. And it was there that five of her six children were born. The smallness of the house gave the family an intimacy many royal families lack. She had many state duties, but she was able to run her home in as close an approximation of housewifery as any princess has ever done.

That changed in 1911, when the Prince and Princess of Wales became King George V and Queen Mary, and their little cottage was swapped for a royal castle. There were more rituals and ceremonies and appearances to be made.

A War To Win

And there was a war to go through. As Queen, she became a symbol of a way of life. She won the admiration of her people without reservation. The love of her subjects was demonstrated in 1935, when the Royal Jubilee, marking 25 years on the throne, found millions hailing her warmly.

But a few months later, she became a widow. And a new set of tasks opened up for her. As Queen Mother—and, unofficially, Queen Grandmother—she became a kind of elder stateswoman to the royal family. She was always standing close by, ramrod-straight, on the balcony at state functions. She gave her sons and her grandchildren advice and comfort and love.

Outwardly Serene

During the 18 years after her husband died, she and England went through much together. There was, first, the romantic but trying episode involving her eldest son, Edward VIII, and Mrs. Wallis Simpson. And there was another, even more terrible, war. There was the post-war period of austerity and the decline of Great Britain from its former power.

Yet, outwardly, Queen Mary remained the same, a link with past glory. She always rose at 7:15 in the morning, and worked hard at her job. She never forgot for an instant that she was royal.

Whatever she felt, in her heart, on the surface she was still a queen.

Dowager Queen Mary of England

Spiritual Diary for Lent

Righteousness exalteth a nation: but sin is a reproach to any people.—Proverbs 14:34.

Today's Message

There is but one remedy for the evils that threaten us today. It lies in a revival of the spiritual forces in men and women, and the application of these forces in our daily living in accordance with the teachings of Christ. Today, let us ask ourselves these questions, for, in the final analysis, we have a personal responsibility to our families, our neighbors, our nation and our world:

Am I doing the right thing, in my own heart, to make myself the kind of person Christ would have me be? Am I exerting an influence for good in my own household? Am I doing unto my neighbor as I would have him do unto me? In my town, or city, am I an aggressive power for good—in my business relations, civic and social activities in the community? Do I do my utmost to carry over my ideals of honor and integrity into local and state affairs?

If all of us could answer these questions in the affirmative, the onward march of evil would be not only halted but destroyed. This beloved country of ours would be awakened to that spiritual faith that would make us worthy to lead the nations of the world to a glorious new day.

—CHARLES W. TOBEY
U. S. Senator from New Hampshire

Today's Prayer

Eternal Father, grant that we may do our part in helping to establish Thy Kingdom on earth. Help us to pattern our daily lives after Christ's blessed example, that ours may be a nation in which dwelleth righteousness. Amen.

36 Visitors Get Samples

WASHINGTON — It probably was the first visitor to the Treasury who asked, "Do you give samples?" Maybe as many as nine out of 10 visitors since have asked. Thirty-six visitors got samples Tuesday—crisp dollar bills.

But it isn't a new policy. The money came from the personal funds of Secretary Humphrey.

The 36 dollar bills went to Humphrey's grandson, George M. Humphrey II, and 33 of his schoolmates from Lindhurst, Ohio, who are visiting Washington.

The secretary autographed a dollar bill for each of the visitors.

A Boy, A Dog, A Cat And The Signs Of The Times

One day last week, a youngster came to his dad and said, "Pop, I'm gonna put a sign on Mickey (the cat) for the benefit of Ike (the new pup): the sign will say 'YIELD'."

The pup may not be able to read, but he might catch on. Our attitude is that you ought to "YIELD" to the general trend, and make yourself a real fine lawn with that gorgeous organic fertilizer that comes in the red bags, Turf Special.

There are no cats and dogs about Turf Special. It is especially compounded for West Texas—the right formula, half of the nitrogen being in an organic form that lasts and lasts. It promotes the growth of the best grass in town.

Give us a ring, we'll deliver.

We still want to give you a free sample of the stuff so that you may see for yourself. Come in.

The shop is pretty full, but we can still take on your lawn mower for a course of treatment that will leave it real sharp and cutty. It's pretty worthwhile.

Golfers Ask Reinstatement

DENTON — (AP) — North Texas State golfers, four of whom lost their amateur status with the United States Golf Association for a trip to Mexico City and two of whom were suspended because they helped teach the game, were due to send in applications for reinstatement Wednesday.

Coach Fred Cobb of the three-time national intercollegiate champions was advising the young men to take this course and said he was hopeful that their pleas would be granted immediately.

Joe Conrad of San Antonio, Don January of Dallas, Marion Hickey of Pocatello, Idaho, and Stan Mose of San Antonio were suspended because of a trip the golf squad made to Mexico City in December to play in the Mexican Amateur although Cobb said January didn't even go. The USGA took the action because the boys did not pay their own expenses. Cobb said that the college paid them.

Bobby Maxwell of Big Spring, Texas, and Ray Ferguson of Breckinridge, Texas, were suspended on grounds they took money for teaching golf to other students at the college. Cobb said this was not true—that they were at North Texas State on athletic scholarships and had merely helped out in teaching a class of 200. "They would have been here whether they helped in teaching or not," Cobb said.

Billy Maxwell of Odessa, Texas, who, while a member of the North Texas State golf team, won the National Amateur championship in 1951, also was suspended. Maxwell, who played on the team last year and made the Mexico City trip, now is in the Army at Fort Hood, Texas. He has a semester to go at North Texas State before getting his degree.

The USGA rule is that a college golfer's expense can be paid when he participates in a tournament sponsored by institutions of learning and the military service. But in the case of a tournament like Mexico City, which is not college sponsored, the boy must pay his own expenses. A boy also can not teach on the basis of his golf ability and receive compensation for it.

The normal waiting period before the boys can regain their amateur status is two years but the executive committee of the USGA can waive this suspension if it so desires. Cobb was hopeful that it would although the suspensions will not prevent his team playing in the National Intercollegiate this year. The colleges allow golf scholarships and have no rules against payment of expenses or teaching golf. Cobb said the USGA forbids a boy to go to college on a golf scholarship but that he could go to college and play golf on an athletic scholarship handled by the college like all other scholarships.

The boys can't play in the National Open, National Amateur or similar events sponsored by the USGA, unless their suspensions are lifted.

Texas League Action Takes Typical Turn

By The Associated Press

Two Texas League exhibition games Tuesday were decided in the ninth inning.

It was typical, hell-for-leather Texas League action.

The Houston Buffs, showing more power with almost every game, rallied for two runs in the ninth to down the Dallas Eagles, 7-5.

Dallas had tied up the game with a five-run spurge in the eighth, but the Buffs came right back with their two game-clinching runs in the top of the ninth. That was all for the Port Arthur fans watching the contest.

Beaumont Edged

At Galveston, pinch-hitter Joe Damato broke up a 3-3 tie game Tuesday night by doubling across the winning run as Oklahoma City edged Beaumont, 4-3.

Damato's blow came in the last of the ninth with two out and two strikes against him.

New Orleans of the Southern Association used a 16-hit attack and took advantage of three Tulsa errors to down the Oilers, 14-7, in a game at Alexandria, La.

Brewton-Parker advanced at the expense of La Junta, Colo., 65-53, while East Central, from Decatur, Miss., dropped Wahpeton, N. D., 99-78.

El Dorado upset Lon Morris of Jacksonville, Texas, one of the top-ranked entries, 54-52, after trailing for three quarters.

In other first round tests, Eastern Arizona of Thatcher staged a 10-point fourth period surge to trip Fairbury of Nebraska, 63-57, and Howard College of Big Spring, Texas, edged Oklahoma A&M, 80-78.

The Texans needed two overtimes to do it, with Casey Jones' fielder in the last three seconds of the second extra session tipping the balance.

Justice Department Says No Probe Set Into Browns' Case

WASHINGTON—(AP)—The Department of Justice says it is investigating charges of violation of the antitrust laws in the field of sports—but is not planning an immediate inquiry into the case of the St. Louis Browns.

The statement was issued after two Maryland congressmen wrote to Attorney General Brownell asking him to look into the refusal of the American League club owners to let the St. Louis Browns move to Baltimore.

Red Sox Defense Fails In Payoff

By BEN OLAN AP Sports Editor

The Boston Red Sox, not long ago the vaunted power club in the American League, are going in more for defense this season. But their new tactics aren't paying off.

The Red Sox were shut out by the New York Yankees, 9-0, Tuesday as Ray Scarborough and Bob Kuzava limited them to only four scattered singles. Outfielder Jim Piersall, third baseman George Kell and shortstop Milt Bolling were the only Boston players to hit safely.

The Sox now show a mediocre 8-9 exhibition game record.

Best evidence of Boston's decline in the long-distance hitting department is seen in their home run figures over the past three seasons. In 1950, the Sox's sluggers hit 161. In 1951, they slumped to 127 and last year their output was only 113 homers.

Gernert Hite Three So far this Spring, Red Sox players have connected for the only eighth with first baseman Dick Gernert accounting for three of them. Gernert, with 19, was their top man in 1952, when the club dropped to sixth place.

Besides Gernert, Manager Lou Boudreau can count on only outfielders Hoot Evers and Clyde Volmer and catcher Sammy White for the occasional long ball. Evers produced 14 homers last year, Volmer 11 and White 10.

The Milwaukee Braves, the Red Sox' city rivals until last week, fared somewhat better Tuesday. The Braves broke open a tie game in the eighth with three runs and added two in the ninth to whip the Philadelphia Athletics, 6-1. Rookie Don Liddle, Ernie Johnson and Lew Burdette turned in a combined four-hit pitching effort for Milwaukee.

Young Harvey Haddix hurled seven scoreless frames as the St. Louis Cardinals edged the Cincinnati Reds, 2-1, at St. Petersburg, Fla. A walk, Red Schoendienst's triple and a long fly accounted for both Cardinal runs in the sixth inning.

A run-scoring single by outfielder Mel Clark with two out in the ninth inning gave the Philadelphia Phillies a 5-4 victory over the Washington Senators. Eddie Yost and Mickey Vernon homered for the Senators while Jack Mayo slamed one for the Phils.

Dark Cornets The run-scoring pitcher Al Corwin and shortstop Alvin Dark broke a 3-3 tie and provided the New York Giants with a 5-3 triumph over the Chicago White Sox. Right-hander Earl Harriet, recently acquired from the St. Louis Browns, was the victim of both drives. Corwin, who worked the last four innings, was credited with the win.

At Tucson, Ariz., the Chicago Cubs pounced on three Browns' pitchers for 17 hits and a 10-7 decision. All St. Louis runs came on homers—by Vic Wertz, Roy Sievers and Bob Elliott. The latter, released by the Giants last fall, is in the Brownie camp on a look-see basis.

Rookie John Podres solidified a Brooklyn starting berth by pitching seven scoreless innings against the Montreal Royals, the Dodgers' farm club. Podres gave up only three hits and his successor, Ron Negray, two in the 3-0 white-washing.

The Cleveland Indians defeated San Diego of the Pacific Coast League, 11-3, in a night game.

861 Entered In Texas Relays

AUSTIN—(AP)—The field for the 26th Texas Relays grew to 861 athletes from 74 schools Wednesday and a flock of records appeared likely before the onslaught of an Olympics-sprinkled brigade of stars.

The big news was that Wes Santee, Kansas' great distance runner, would anchor three relay teams. Santee, NCAA champion at 5,000 meters last year and also on the American Olympics team, starred here as a sophomore last season. Winging Wes will be clean-up

Relays In Chicago To Attract Array Of Olympic Stars

CHICAGO—(AP)—A glittering array of Olympic performers, headed by Mal Whitfield, will be among 250 athletes competing Saturday night in the Chicago Relays, last big indoor track meet of the season.

More than 15,000 fans are expected at Chicago Stadium for the 17th annual event sponsored by the Chicago Daily News.

Whitfield, two-time winner and record holder of the Olympic 800 meter is entered in the 800 and 1,000-yard races.

In the shorter race, which the former Ohio State star has won for the last two years, the 900-meter point on the oval board track will be marked off and manned by timers. A similar arrangement will be made at 800 meters in the 1,000-yard event.

Whitfield thus will have a chance to better four records in the two races.

Araujo, the No. 1 contender for the title now held by Jimmy Carter, never has been stopped in 81 bouts. He won 48, lost two on points and had one draw.

CBS-TV will carry the bout across the nation starting at 9 p.m. (CST).

Scientific Teamwork Cited As Builder Of Oil Reserves

HOUSTON—(AP)—Advances in exploration methods and teamwork among oil scientists should assure the U. S. adequate petroleum and reserves for a long period, a prominent geophysicist said here Wednesday.

Henry Cortes, Magnolia, Dallas, said increased teamwork among oil-finders since 1940 has resulted in the discovery of important oil and gas reserves.

"Novel or more direct oil finding methods may possibly be discovered or perfected," he said. "It is more probable, however, that the future of exploration geophysics will be primarily in the continued refinement of the present known methods."

Cortes spoke before a joint convention of the Society of Exploration Geophysicists, the American Association of Petroleum Geologists and the Society of Economic Paleontologists and Mineralogists, Mexican Find Told.

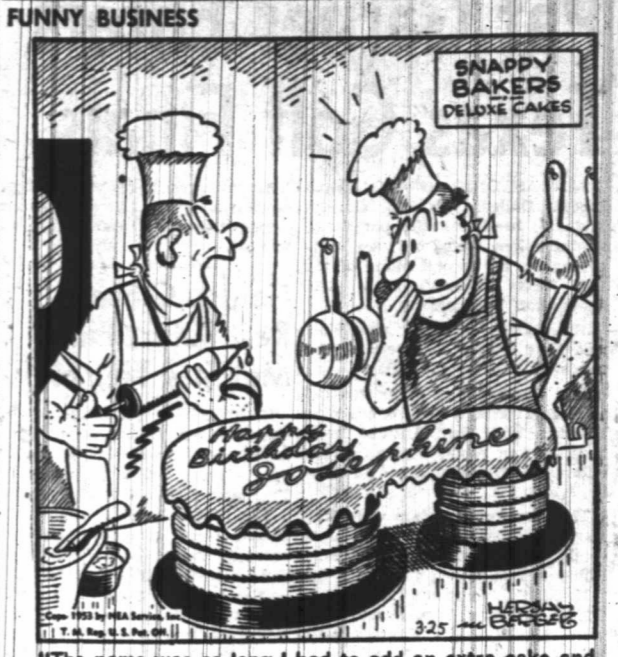

"Advances in exploration geophysics and geology, along with teamwork, should insure adequate production and reserves within the U. S. for a long period," he said. "This is predicted on our nation having competitive, free enterprise, which has been responsible for the leadership of this country in oil finding, producing, transporting and refining techniques."

The 8,000 oil-finders also were told that geophysical explorations have played an important role in discovery of new oil resources in Mexico.

D. W. Rockwell and Antonio Garcia Rojas, Mexico City, said a 10-year exploration program, employing gravity and seismic surveys, led to last year's discovery of the Etzequel Ordonez Field near Veracruz.

Warren Baker, editor of World Oil, Tuesday said restrictive laws and insecure political atmosphere are stumbling blocks discouraging the search for oil in a number of countries.

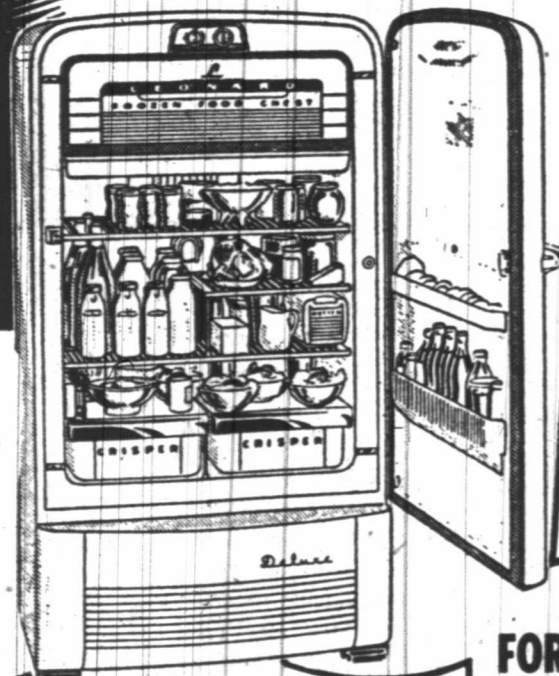

"Few areas have been blessed with as much excellent oil prospecting territory as Soviet Russia," Baker said. "Under private, business, it was the world's leading oil producing areas before the turn of the century. Yet, this giant nation today produces only 850,000 barrels daily, about an eighth as much as the United States."

"The name was so long I had to add an extra cake and build a breeze-way!"

Police Hospitalize Teenage Mother After Bank Robbery

FORT WORTH —(AP)—A husky blonde 19-year-old mother—admitted baby-carrying robber of two banks—was confined in the U. S. Public Health Service Hospital Wednesday.

Police moved her to the federal hospital as a precautionary measure after sobbing Mrs. Helen Mecke attempted suicide in a City Jail cell.

Her infant son beside her, the young woman was captured Tuesday by motorcycle officer Paul T. Vaughn about 30 minutes after the First National Bank in suburban Handley was robbed of $1,709.

Later, in an hysterical condition, she admitted to FBI agents and police that she was "Piano Legs," the woman bandit who last November 23 robbed the North Fort Worth State Bank of $600.

The young woman was arraigned before U. S. Commissioner Bob Milam Tuesday afternoon on two charges of bank robbery. Before her arraignment, she tried to strangle herself with her blouse but jail matrons subdued her and stripped her of her clothes to prevent a second suicide attempt.

"I'm not going to be here to be tried," the sobbing girl told Milam. Later she procured an attorney and entered a plea of innocent.

Her husband, A. L. Roy H. Mecke, a native of New York City stationed at Carswell AFB here, attended the hearing. "No, no, no, get him out of here," the distraught girl said when she saw him.

Mecke rushed to her and she fell into his arms crying. "I didn't want you to know, honey. Oh, honey, how could I have done it?"

The husband, whom officers said apparently knew nothing of his wife's actions, has been stationed at Carswell since July, 1950. The couple were married a little more than two years ago. She is a Dallas native.

Threatens Baby Mecke said his wife lost their first baby and was "terribly worried that something would happen" to the infant police say she had with her when she robbed the Handley bank.

"Piano Legs" entered the bank just before noon Tuesday carrying a baby bundled under her arm in a white blanket.

The bandit was wearing the same blue jeans and red scarf she wore in the November holdup. The jeans were rolled about halfway to her knees.

She stepped up to Mrs. G. L. DeVore, cashier, shoved a brown sack at the woman and said, "Fill this sack with tens and twenties, or I'll shoot the baby!"

Says Baby Kidnaped She told the cashier the baby was kidnaped and she cared nothing for it.

Mrs. DeVore handed over the money and the bandit walked to the door while Mrs. DeVore telephoned police.

Officer Vaughn, who had just heard the woman's description by radio, spotted her car, gave chase and made the arrest.

Officers said Mrs. Mecke used the same method in robbing the North Side Bank. That was a month before her baby was born but police said she substituted a doll that time.

A search of her car produced the money taken from the bank—and a toy pistol.

Fire Destroys Farm Buildings Near City

The Midland Fire Department went out on a second call Tuesday afternoon, following the first-up of an oil soaked street in the morning that started downtown Midlanders.

A feed barn and tool shed blazed up at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Dublin, near Midland, at 3:15 p.m. Firemen blamed spontaneous combustion of stored hay.

The shed was a total loss, in addition to quantities of hay and some farm implements. The clouds of white smoke were visible miles away from inside the city limits of Midland.
