Marines Recapture Bloody Vegas

Reds Maintain Grip On Reno, Top Of Baldy

SEOUL—(AP)—Grim U. S. Marines, recoiling from a surprise 3,500-man Chinese Red onslaught against 10 outposts, Friday night regained one of the two western front hills where other Marines had died to the last man.

Recapture of bloody Vegas, one of two outposts yielded in Thursday's Chinese human sea attack, came after 10 hours of fierce hand-to-hand combat.

India, Burma Termed Goals Of Red Drive

WASHINGTON—(AP)—Premier Rene Mayer of France said Friday his nation has "positive proof" Communist-led forces in Indochina are battling to bring Burma, Thailand and India "within the reach of international communism."

Mayer said in a speech prepared for a National Press Club luncheon that French and loyal Indochinese troops have "been able to frustrate" this new enemy drive thus far, but:

"It is apparent that in Indochina the major objective of the Vietnamese at this moment is not simply the Gulf of Tonkin but also the Gulf of Siam and the approaches to India."

The visiting French leader took time out from his talks with President Eisenhower and other top officials to make his speech. Among other things, called for:

1. A world-wide economic and monetary conference to help the free world plan for increasing trade.
2. The U. S. to sponsor "a great program for the construction of low-cost housing" in France aimed at curbing communism.
3. The U. S. and France to "pull" the experience gained in fighting the Reds in Korea and Indochina to the common advantage of Americans and Frenchmen. "The French government," he said, "calls earnestly for a close coordination of our strategy and methods in the Far East."

'Kindly Old Lady' Has Own Idea Of McCarthy Cocktail

WASHINGTON—(AP)—Lady Nancy Astor says she's no Lucretia Borgia but, if a Midwest editor wants her arrested for saying "Too-bad it isn't poison" about Senator McCarthy's drink, she's all for it.

"They wouldn't have to serve a warrant on me," the Virginia-born former member of the British Parliament said. "I'd fetch it."

John Chapple, editor of the Ashland (Wis.) Daily Press, demanded her arrest Thursday in a telegram to U. S. Attorney Charles M. Kelan. Chapple sent a copy to The Associated Press.

The wire recalled Lady Astor's said gibe at the Wisconsin Re-

Supporters Of Upton Water District List Damage Suffered During Drouth

RANKIN—Testimony continued here Friday in the marathon court fight over formation of the Upton County Water Control and Improvement District, with attorneys for the district striving to erase the strong case presented by the ranchers and oil companies opposing the plan.

District Judge Garland Casbeer got no rest Thursday as the opposition rested its case shortly after lunch and the water district group took up the call.

David Tistinger of Austin and John Menefee of Rankin, attorneys for the water district, are attempting to prove a desperate need of water in Rankin and Upton County and the worth of a water district for the 261-square-mile area. The opposition spent two and a half days presenting witness after witness who denied a shortage of water and who emphatically opposed creation of the water district.

Humor found its way into an otherwise grim hearing when Bur-

Hail, Rains Rake Midkiff, Pass Midland

Midkiff (Hadacol Corner) was peppered with hail stones and rain Thursday while most of West Texas continued its usual dusty life.

Adrie Carr, assistant postmistress at Midkiff, said the hail and rain started at about 2 p.m. Thursday. The rain, she said, outlasted the hail by half an hour. Though the hail stones were "pretty big," she said, there was no damage reported.

Midland, however, remained dry Thursday, and weathermen here say the rainy "cold shoulder" will continue.

A slight cold front moved into the Midland area Friday, but did little but change the wind direction to northerly. Weathermen looked for winds up to 30 miles an hour Friday afternoon. Temperatures, they say, will not reach the 86-degree high of Thursday.

North Texas had weather akin to that of Midkiff Thursday and Friday as thunderstorms drenched the northern part of the state. High winds, hail and electrical storms which raced hand-in-hand with the thunderstorms moved into East Texas before clearing up, the Associated Press said Friday.

At least an inch and a half of rain was reported in Prosper, Collin County, plus a six-minute hail storm. McKinney had 1.11 inch and Sherman 1.05.

Bonham had an overnight rainfall of 1.15 with an electrical storm and high winds. No damage was reported.

Mickey Jelke Given Three To Six Years To 'Orient' Thinking

NEW YORK—(AP)—Minor F. Mickey Jelke, vice heir convicted in a safe society vice case, was sentenced Friday to serve three to six years in prison.

He was convicted on two counts of compulsory prostitution—legal terminology for living off the earnings of call girls.

Jelke was sentenced to from three to six years on each count, with the sentences to run concurrently.

General Sessions Judge Francis L. Valente said it was "unpleasant to deprive anyone of liberty" but that it was necessary in this case to "orient" Jelke's thinking.

Four Downed Fliers Saved From Pacific

SAN FRANCISCO—(AP)—A transport plane, enroute to Honolulu, was forced down on the Pacific in darkness Friday, but the four men aboard were rescued by the Swedish motor-ship Bataan.

The DC-4's civilian crew of three men and a military courier took to rubber life rafts after engine trouble crippled the plane.

Coast Guard planes flew to the scene, some 300 miles west of San Francisco, and circled overhead.

Then the Bataan, which only Thursday had been forced to return to San Francisco with an injured crewman, arrived on the spot and took the four men aboard. It transferred them to the Shanks, a Navy craft, for return to San Francisco.

Bohlen Confirmation Expected Late Friday

WASHINGTON—(AP)—With President Eisenhower's prestige directly involved, the Senate stood ready Friday to vote ringing approval of Charles E. (Chip) Bohlen's nomination as ambassador to Russia.

Barring unexpectedly lengthy debate which might delay a showdown, a rollcall was likely late in the day.

Worker Describes Union Threats In Labor Hearing

Judge R. W. (Bob) Hamilton turned down a union plea for an instructed verdict Friday morning in the trial of the First Baptist Church strike injunction case moved to the halfway mark before a 12-man 70th District Court jury.

The motion for the instructed verdict was presented by Nat Wells of Dallas, attorney for the General and Construction Workers Union, which had been enjoined from completing the million-dollar construction project.

It came after attorneys for Houston Hill, Midland contractor on the church project, brought to the stand the last of their witnesses, who related incidents leading up to the February 23 strike.

The presentation of the union case was expected to get underway shortly after 1 p.m.

The contractor's case was rested Friday morning after a negro laborer on the church project testified, under questioning by William Browder of Midland and Leroy Jeffers of Houston, that he had been threatened with the loss of his job if he did not join the labor union, identifies union agent.

He identified J. E. McDonald, business agent for Local 924 of the common laborers union, as the one who made the threat.

The worker was Levi Reed, who said he had been working on the church project since last October and had been approached by McDonald concerning membership in the union.

"He came out several times," Reed testified, "and asked if I had ever belonged to a union. I said yes and he wanted to know if I was a member now. I said no and he wanted to know why."

"I told him I joined the union once but I got stuck."

Reed said McDonald asked him to come to a meeting but added that he never did.

"Was anything ever said about joining the union or not working?" asked Browder.

"Yes," answered the negro.

"What was said?"

"He came out and said, 'If you don't join I'll bring some of my men who have union cards and put you off the job.'"

Reed said McDonald told him it cost $25 to join and the monthly dues were $2.

"He said 'I'm going to talk to Mr. Houston and if he talks right I'll let you in for $10,'" Reed continued.

Hill, himself, appeared as the first witness when the trial opened Thursday afternoon to determine whether the injunction issued a month ago shall remain in effect.

Hill said he was president of Houston Hill, Inc., and had been in business in Midland since 1937.

He explained he held the contract for the new First Baptist Church plant on the basis of cost plus a seven per cent fee.

He explained that, while his company employed union workers, he did not require that any of the men—whether unskilled or skilled (Continued On Page Nine)

YMCA FUNDS REMAIN HERE

Midlanders were reminded Friday that funds contributed in the first annual YMCA finance campaign will be spent entirely in the city.

Curt Inman reported that more than $5,000 had been collected toward the goal of $20,000.

Inman emphasized that the Y program will be for women and girls as well as men and boys.

Contributions may be mailed or left at the Chamber of Commerce offices. Volunteer workers are continuing efforts to reach the goal as soon as possible.

Tiny Accident Victim Dies Despite Air Mercy Mission

BIG SPRING—A last minute effort to save the life of the tiny daughter of a Midland serviceman failed late Thursday when Alice Anne Cooper, 16 months old, died in an air evacuation plane enroute from Webb Air Force Base to Lackland AFB at San Antonio.

The little girl, daughter of S/Sgt. and Mrs. William J. Cooper, Webb AFB, was struck accidentally by an automobile in front of her home near the military reservation.

She was rushed to the Webb AFB Hospital with skull injuries.

An Air Force air evacuation plane was due at Webb at any moment, so little Anne was readied for a flight to Lackland, where the needed surgery could be performed. The plane landed at Webb just before 7 p.m.

Mrs. Cooper and a Webb flight surgeon, along with the plane's flight nurse, accompanied the stricken child to San Antonio.

The evacuation ship left Webb at 7:30 p.m. but the mercy flight was in vain. Anne died at 8:49 p.m., 27 minutes before the ship came down at Lackland.

Sergeant Cooper is the son of William J. Cooper, Sr., Midland. Mrs. Cooper is the former Jessie B. Wright, 307 North Fort Worth Street, Midland. Cooper had seen Korean service before being assigned to Webb in January, 1952.

The Coopers have a son, Jackie R., age four.

City police at Big Spring said the little girl was hit by an auto operated by Walker Lee Waldrop, 25, of Big Spring.

Waldrop lived across the street from the Coopers in the Ellis Holmes Addition. He told air police that he and his father-in-law entered a parked automobile in front of his residence, and that both men checked "to be sure" no children were around the car since several were playing in the area. Evidently, Waldrop said, little Anne was directly in front of his car, and she was so small, neither of the men could see her. A front wheel passed over her.

Big Spring police reported no charges filed against Waldrop.

Funeral arrangements were pending Friday morning at Ellis Funeral Home, Midland. The child's body will be returned to Midland for burial.

Reds Dared To 'Produce' Germ Proof

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y.—(AP)—The U. S. Friday challenged Red China and North Korea to send all American military personnel who allegedly have confessed to waging germ warfare to a neutral area for U. N. questioning.

Opening a campaign to beat down Red charges that the U. S. is guilty of bacteriological warfare, U. S. Delegate Ernest A. Gross denounced Communist use of "extorted confessions" and proposed that those from whom they had been obtained be sent to countries which did not support UN action in Korea.

After a period of "rest and recuperation," he said, those men would be questioned by an impartial UN commission to verify or deny the statements they allegedly made while Red prisoners.

The commission would be established under a resolution which Gross submitted to the 60-nation Political Committee.

The U. S. submitted this draft just after the committee turned down—15 in favor to 40 against, with five abstentions—an Asian-backed Soviet demand that representatives of Communist China and North Korea be invited here to repeat their charges.

Chief's Just An Ol' Killjoy

NEWARK, OHIO—(AP)—If you dropped into the Newark fire station, put a nickel into the soft drink machine and received an empty bottle, you'll be interested to know why.

Three firemen—James Derringer, Gene Malloy and Gene Rose—loaded the machine from top to bottom that day—all with emphyse. It was a joke.

Then they sat back and watched fuming customers scream and yell.

When Fire Chief Stanley Shaw heard about it, he screamed, too. He suspended the three men three days each, but reinstated and cut the suspension to one and one-half days.

Earthquake Rattles Connecticut Section

NEW YORK—(AP)—An earth tremor was felt in a large area of southwestern Connecticut and adjacent Westchester County, N. Y., at 3:51 a.m. Friday. It wakened thousands and caused reports of a "terrific explosion."

The Rev. Joseph Lynch, director of Fordham's Observatory here, said the shock was centered about 23 miles northeast of New York City. There was no report of damage.

"Monthly Pains" stopped or amazingly relieved

In 3 out of 4 cases in doctors' tests! Chances are you're putting up unnecessarily—with the functionally caused pains, cramps and weakness, "no good" feelings of menstruation!

For, in actual tests by doctors, Lydia Pinkham's Compound brought complete or striking relief from such distress in 3 out of 4 of the cases!

Lydia Pinkham's is modern in its action! So get Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound—or new, improved Tablets with added iron. See it—taken through the month—it doesn't give relief from those backaches, headaches, you feel better before and during your period! Or—if you suffer from functional "hot flashes" or "chills of life," find out how wonderful Pinkham's is for that, too!

It has a quieting effect on irritating contractions that often cause menstrual pain!

Experts Disagree On Value Of A Full, Three-Man CEA

WASHINGTON—The question of whether President Eisenhower is to have a full Council of Economic Advisers or just one economic adviser has stirred up a junior-grade controversy among experts.

Balanced Diet Or Budget

In Paris, Ill., a man died not long ago and willed $40,000 for the care of 18 dogs. He also specified that if there were anything left over from his estate, it should go to the Democratic Party.

Now the man's relatives are asking the court to set the will aside on the ground he was not sound of mind or memory.

From the brief newspaper accounts, it's not plain what the evidence for this might have been. Nor is it clear just how the relatives think the will ought to read.

Maybe they feel the Democrats should have gotten the $40,000, with the dogs taking the crumbs. Or, since Paris lies in good Republican territory, maybe they think it's all the same—dogs or Democrats—and that both should be frozen out.

The question for the judge: Does a man who wants to help 18 dogs balance their diet and the Democrats to balance their budget have an unbalanced mind?

Reed Finds Voters Patient

Rep. Daniel Reed of New York, chairman of the House Ways and Means Committee, is a veteran lawmaker. As such, he understands the forces which play upon major legislation in its course through Congress.

The wonder is Reed held out so long. Apparently he believed that if he persisted, public opinion would compel President Eisenhower and his congressional lieutenants to bow on this issue.

But the evidence indicated that public opinion supported the President in his view that budget balancing—or near balancing—must precede tax cuts. When Eisenhower repeated this conviction at his latest press conference, Reed yielded.

Under House rules, he could have forced his tax cut proposal to the floor for debate despite the leaders' objections. But regulations then prescribe that the measure shall be wide open to amendment—not a customary procedure with a complicated tax measure.

Reed bucked the Administration so long because he felt the victorious Republicans had a mandate to slash taxes. But the President never had promised to lighten the tax burden before cutting federal expenses.

Reed's bill would make a lot of us ordinary citizens temporarily happy. But it would be legislating in a vacuum. The President has acknowledged that cutting the budget is a terrific problem.

If Congress were to ignore the complex spending picture and swing the axe wildly on taxes, the lawmakers might find it necessary to come back in less than a year and slap the present or even higher tax rates back on.

The Republican leadership obviously intends to keep faith with the voters on taxes at the earliest practical moment. That ought to be enough assurance for a while.

The Washington Merry-Go-Round

By Drew Pearson
Copyright, 1953, By The Bell Syndicate, Inc.
Drew Pearson says: Greeks rebuild merchant fleet with cheap American Liberty ships; Wealthy Greek shipowners now haul contraband goods to Communists.

WASHINGTON—In May 1951, almost two years ago, this column revealed that certain greedy Greek shipowners who bought American Liberty ships on a shoestring, called them under a dozen different flags to escape taxes, then repaid American generosity by hauling contraband goods to our enemies behind the Iron Curtain.

Reason this country sold the ships at knockdown prices was to help the struggling Greeks rebuild their merchant fleet and restore their war-wrecked economy. Instead, the high-handed Tsaldaris government turned the ships over to a few private friends who lived in the St. Morris Hotel in New York, paid practically no Greek taxes, and transferred most of the ships to Panamanian and Honduran flags.

These money-minded Greeks then proceeded to grow fat and wealthy on the post-war boom and forbidden trade with the enemy. They parlayed their shoestring fleet into one of the world's largest, and lived like potentates in New York, London and Buenos Aires.

Probably the largest Greek shipowner has become a post-war millionaire at Uncle Sam's expense. Stavros G. Livanos. This column revealed on May 14, 1951, how he finagled enough certificates from Greek government to buy 12 bargain-rate Liberty ships by making a paltry down-payment of $21,780 per ship.

This column also listed in 1951 a number of dummy corporations in England and Panama, used by Livanos to acquire several more Liberty ships. Usually, his financial interest as obscured, as in the case of the Compania Internacional De Vapores, a Panamanian shipping company, which bought a number of ships through front men who were American citizens.

Sheikh, noted young Moslem who now is studying at Harvard University, will describe the mystic rites of the Islamic religion and explain the customs and traditions of the Moslems in his address here.

The lecture is sponsored by the Permian Basin Rifle and Pistol Club, of which John H. Moore is president. Proceeds will be used to finance the building of a new shooting range for the club.

At least 28 of Livanos' American-bought ships have been spotted entering or leaving Communist ports. For example the W. B. Rodgers, renamed the Akti, unloaded contraband cargo at the Russian-controlled port of Dairen, Manchuria, in June, 1951, and made another trip to the Chinese Communist port of Tsing-tao in July, 1952.

These same ports were visited regularly by other Kukulundis ships still under U. S. mortgage, including the former J. Maurice Thompson and Josiah Cohen. Kukulundis also owned this country $306,000 on the John F. Myers, renamed the Dairen, while it was sailing to Dairen and Tsingtao with supplies for the Chinese Reds.

This column also put the finger on several other get-rich-quick Greek shippers, including John M. Carras and Constantine Hadjipateras, who bought Liberty ships on credit from us, then used them to visit Red ports.

Under the mortgage contract, this government cannot reclaim the ships unless the Greeks make a payment. And the Greeks, now making money hand-over-fist, are careful to miss no payments. However, the United States ought to be able to bring enough pressure on the Greek government to stop Greek citizens from dealing with the enemies of both our countries.

Note—Four of the bargain-rate Liberty ships that the United States sold to the French government have been delivering cargo behind the Iron Curtain as late as October, 1952. They are the Beatis, formerly the Andrew Carnegie; the Orfanis, formerly Henry George; the Morialis, formerly Stephen Johnson Field; and the Oyonnax, formerly Wilbur O. Atwater.

All of our European allies, it should be noted, have been trading behind the Iron Curtain, though with the understanding that this trade not include strategic materials. If it does include strategic materials, the State Department undertakes to cut off foreign aid.

Another fabulous Greek shipper, exposed two years ago by this column, was Manuel Kukulundis, who started with four of the original Liberty ships and built up a far-flung shipping empire that stretched to Panama, Canada, Britain and the United States. Kukulundis' record is almost as bad as Livanos'.

For example, the United States still held a $310,700 mortgage on Kukulundis' ship Hadotis, formerly the St. James M. Courts, while it was delivering contraband cargo to such Iron Curtain ports as Odessa, Russia, in July, 1950; Gdynia, Poland, in September, 1950; Odessa, Poland, in December, 1950; and Novorossiak, Russia, in November, 1951.

These same ports were visited regularly by other Kukulundis ships still under U. S. mortgage, including the former J. Maurice Thompson and Josiah Cohen. Kukulundis also owned this country $306,000 on the John F. Myers, renamed the Dairen, while it was sailing to Dairen and Tsingtao with supplies for the Chinese Reds.

after we went home, quite a while. He'd been drinking a lot, you know —talked pretty freely. And now Ezra glanced toward the boys, as if realizing that they, poor half-savages, would not know really what a civilized man was discussing. "He told me quite a bit about himself, which was what I was after."

Again he paused, and Ish could not remember Ezra ever having been like this before. "Come on, Ezra," he said. "Tell us. This is just us."

Suddenly the bonds of Ezra's reticence broke. "This guy, Charlie, he's burst out. He's gotten inside as a 10-day fish. Disgrace."

Ish saw the news visibly shake George's big body as if it had been a jolting blow on the chest. He saw the flush spread over Ezra's creamy-colored face. To the boys the news was nothing. They did not know what Ezra was talking about.

EZRA would not even try to explain to the boys until Em had left the room, and then he had difficulties because the whole conception of disease was hazy to the boys.

As Ezra tried his explanation, Ish sat feeling his thoughts run by him fast. He knew vaguely that lepers had been restrained by law. Now there was no law.

"That's something that neither the old life nor the new held precedent. "Let the boys go," he said suddenly to Ezra. "This is for us to talk over and decide on." The boys, he realized suddenly, were disqualified in two ways—they did not know the dangers of disease to a community, and they did not know the force which any society was privileged to exert in its own defense.

The three older men turned to each other again after the younger ones had gone. "Let's get Em back in," said Ezra. Em joined them, and then there were four. "Well, what about it?" said Ish, knowing that he must take the lead again.

Once the silence was broken, they discussed the situation fully. (To Be Continued)

Q—The bidding has been: North East South West 1 Heart Pass 1 Spade Pass 4 Spades Pass 7. You, South, hold: Spades A-J-7-5-4, Hearts 5-3, Diamonds K-6-3-2, Clubs K-5. What do you do? A—Bid five spades. You can afford to try for a slam since you have 11 points in high cards, two points for the doubleton, and one point for the fifth spade. North's strong rebid shows about 20 points, so that the combined total puts you in the slam zone.

EM was waiting for him. He laid down the hammer. He took her into his arms, or perhaps she took him into hers. But after that he felt suddenly a new confidence. Sometimes she did not agree with him. They had argued just the night before about Charlie, but in the end he knew that he would renew his confidence from her.

"You sat on theavenport, and he pointed out the story. She spoke at last: "Yes, shouldn't we have done it? You should have had the boys to back you. He might have shot you right there. You're strong at thinking and knowing things, not in meeting a man like that."

"Then it was she who began to take the next action. "Go get Ezra and George and the boys," she said. "No, I'll send one of the children. No one can move in on us like this, and say what he and we are going to do!"

George was the first to come, and after him, Ezra. Ish caught the movement as Ezra's quick eyes shifted from George to Em and back again. "He has something," Ish thought, "he wants to say to me alone." But Ezra made no attempt to gain the opportunity. Instead he ended by looking at Em in a half-embarrassed manner.

"Molly's had to lock Evie up in so that the upstairs rooms," he said. Ish could tell that a hard matter it was for Ezra, a highly polite and civilized person, to have to speak in public thus about the burst of passion that had suddenly come upon a half-witted girl at a man's caresses.

At the boys' coming there was a little relaxing, and people began to sit down and make themselves comfortable. In a moment, Ish knew they would all expect him to begin to say something and he felt again that this was all happening too rapidly. What he was actually facing was almost like the

Mrs. E. L. Ricketts conducted a program on "The Construction of the Novel" when the Midland Writers met Wednesday in the home of Mrs. Brandon E. Rea, 1503 North Main Street.

Giving a survey of five best-selling novels, she pointed out that each is a melodrama written by a woman; all the women characters are scheming; each heroine loves one man who is a "violent lover," and that in each book the man is killed or is unobtainable for the heroine.

Following the discussion, Mrs. Joseph Carl read excerpts from the manuscript of a novel written by a friend.

Members voted to donate $15 to the Community Ambassador Project.

Others present were Mrs. John Powell, Mrs. Fred Wright, Mrs. Leonard Swords, Mrs. A. A. Alberts and E. J. Elliott.

Daddy Ringtail

Daddy Ringtail And New Shoe Blues

Mugwump Monkey, the monkey boy, came walking down the Elephant Path with new shoes on. He was coming back to the monkey house from the store where shoes are sold.

"Tup! Flippity! Flip! Flippity!" was the noise of Mugwump walking along with the new blue shoes. They were blue all over. They were long as Mugwump was tall. "Flippity! Flippity!" The shoes were much too long. That is the why of the flip and flippity-flip.

"Mercy me!" said Daddy Ringtail when he saw the new shoes of blue all over, each as long as Mugwump was tall. "Mercy me!"

Daddy Ringtail moved out of the way while Mugwump turned to the side with his very long shoes. "Tup! Flippity! Flippity!" Mugwump stepped three steps and then sat down to rest with his back against a tree.

"Phew!" said Mugwump, because he was tired from all his work of walking in the shoes.

Daddy Ringtail sat down beside him and said: "Oh, Mugwump." "Did you say something, Daddy Ringtail?" Mugwump asked.

Daddy Ringtail answered that he was wanting something indeed. He the boy like Mugwump. Daddy Ringtail said they shouldn't. Yes, and he said he was going right down to the store—right now—to give the folks a talking to. But he didn't. He waited to hear the explanation, which is always a happy thing to wait for.

Mugwump explained how the store didn't have the shoes he had really wanted. He hadn't bought any himself. The shoes he was wearing really belonged to Flippy-foot, a big monkey with very long feet. Flippy-foot had given Mugwump a whole big dime for Mugwump to wear the shoes until they were soft and happy to wear. Happy day!

Berserk Patient Stabs 12 In Seattle Hospital Spree

SEATTLE—(AP)—A young priest doctors said Friday all are in good condition.

"I'm glad you came, father," Rucero said as he spotted the priest. "Now I can die, father."

Slowly and coolly, Father Knelken talked to Rucero. Finally, Rucero said:

"I trust you, father," and agreed to go with him to jail. There, Rucero gave up his long-bladed spring-type clasp knife and explained his action to Sheriff Harlan Callahan: "Everybody was against me . . . They kept sticking needles into me . . ."

Early settlers of Cape Cod built the barn onto the house so that they would not have to wade through snow in winter to reach it, hence "Cape Cod" house.

Joint Committee Starts Task Of Compromising Money Bill

AUSTIN—(AP)—A joint House-Senate committee set to work Friday on the state budget for the next two years.

Liberals watched them with a wary eye.

The Conservative, no-tax gang had the reins.

Senate and House members on the committee were appointed Thursday before the two chambers quit for the weekend. Not a Liberal was among them.

Right after the House quit, the liberals called in their troops at a formation in an Austin apartment.

Sewell Leads Liberals

Then several of them went to the Capitol press room with County Judge Jim Sewell of Corsicana to announce the formation of a citizens committee for a fair pipe line gas tax. Sewell said the committee was open to anybody who believes natural gas going into pipe lines should pay its fair share of the state government's revenue.

Mrs. Perle (Call Me Madam) Mesta To Quit Post April 13

LUXEMBOURG—(AP)—Perle Mesta, the American lady diplomat whose career hit the musical comedy stage and the movie screen, announced Friday she is leaving her post as minister to Luxembourg on April 13.

She was appointed by President Truman after a headline-making career as a Washington hostess and Democratic Party campaign worker. She arrived here Aug. 17, 1949.

In a prepared statement Friday, Mrs. Mesta said: "I am leaving April 13, but hope to be able to return many times for unofficial visits."

Along with other Truman diplomatic appointees, she submitted her resignation before the inauguration of President Eisenhower. There had been some speculation, however, that she might continue on in the post. Eisenhower and his wife frequently visited her here while he was NATO military commander in Europe.

Mrs. Mesta was the inspiration for Irving Berlin's Broadway hit musical, "Call Me Madam," starting on April 13.

The House Appropriations Bill calls for 169.6 million dollars in state spending the next two years; the Senate's for 166.2 million.

The liberals would like to add pay raises, more money for state hospitals, more money for schools and teachers to that. They say it can be paid for by a natural gas tax.

Take Pay Stand

Conservatives stood pat with the bill worked out by the House Appropriations and Senate Finance Committees.

Members of the Joint Conference Committee are Senators Otis Lott, Lufkin, Crawford, Martin, Hillboro, A. M. Alkin, Jr., Paris, Wardlow, Lane, Center, and Jimmy Phillips, Angleton, and Reps. Red Patrol Ambles Across Ice To Get Close-Up Of Alaska

JUNEAU, ALASKA—(AP)—An armed three-man patrol which apparently originated on Russia's Big Diomedes Island in the Bering Straits approached to within a mile and a quarter of American territory two weeks ago, a National Guard colonel has revealed.

The incident was reported Thursday night by Col. Larry Johnson, adjutant of the Alaska Guard, who said the patrol first was sighted proceeding across the ice toward Little Diomedes Island, owned by the United States.

Esikmo scout battalion members quickly manned defense and look-out positions, Johnson said, and the trio returned to Big Diomedes, three miles distant.

The Eskimos said two of the men were wearing white uniforms and carried a submachine gun and rifle and the third in dark clothing, was not armed visibly.

Fanatic Mau Maus Butcher 100 Men, Women, Children

NAIROBI, KENYA—(AP)—Fanatic Mau Mau terrorists swept into a native village almost on the outskirts of Kenya's capital Thursday night and massacred at least 100 pro-British Kikuyu tribesmen, women and children.

All the victims were members of the Home Guard or government servants and their families.

It was by far the biggest attack of the fanatic secret Mau Mau society in its campaign of terror to drive the white man from Britain's Kenya Colony.

Almost 300 persons, most of them Africans who refused to join the Mau Mau, have been killed in the last year by the terrorists.

Among those killed in the latest attack was Chief Luka, a Kikuyu leader. He was slashed to death, together with three of his wives.

Women were disemboweled in front of their children and the tots then also hacked to pieces.

The Mau Mau stackers—believed to be members of a group recently shifted from a terror-infested area as part of the government drive to stamp out the society—first set fire to the village huts.

Many Burn To Death

Tribesmen who rushed out to escape the flames were hacked to death with axes, knives and short swords. Many, however, were unable to escape from their huts and burned to death.

One intended victim, Chief Makeni, fought off the men attacking his hut, shooting one of them dead. Thousands of natives have been detained or moved in the anti-Mau Mau campaign since the government declared an emergency throughout Kenya last October. In addition to killing their native opponents and isolated white farmers, the terrorists have maimed cattle and destroyed buildings and property.

The Mau Mau tribesmen reportedly take a blood oath to drive out the whites who virtually have monopolized the cool highlands of the territory—one of the few areas of Central Africa in which they can live comfortably.

Bomb Blasts Home Of College Teacher

GALESBURG, ILL.—(AP)—A small, homemade bomb Thursday night blasted the front porch of a Knox College professor who attributed it to enemies he's made in "law enforcement activities."

Alvin C. White, 41-year-old economics professor and secretary of a group known as "Galesburg Laymen," said the bomb "probably was meant to scare me." He said the laymen are interested in enforcement of laws against gambling and crime.

The professor, his wife and four children escaped injury. The explosion wrecked the porch, broke windows and cracked plaster. White estimated the damage at $300 to $400.

Spiritual Diary for Lent

And Jesus, answering, sayeth unto them, Have faith in God.
—Mark 11:22

Today's Message
A doctor found it necessary to use a local anesthetic in order to perform a delicate operation upon a little girl. In kindness he pressed a shiny half dollar into her hand and said, "Hold onto this and think about it. It's yours. It will help you." The operation proceeded successfully. When the doctor visited his little patient the next day, she said, "Thank you so much for the wonderful words on the pretty coin—'In God We Trust.' I think about them all the time. They help me. They must help others, too."

Too many in our time are trusting in the face value of the coin alone and dismissing the expression of faith in God that is engraved on it. Where is your faith? Unless the object of your faith is right and mighty you will never reach your objective. Until you place your complete trust in Jesus Christ, who loved you and gave Himself for you, Heaven will elude you and earth will be a tangled maze in which you struggle hopelessly.

To heartbroken Martha at the grave of Lazarus, Jesus said, "If thou wouldst believe, thou shouldst see the glory of God." In those brief words is the eternal principle that faith will be rewarded here and hereafter.

—OLIVER W. HURST
Cleveland Park Congregational Church, Washington, D. C.

Today's Prayer
I do not ask, O Lord, that life should always be a pleasant road; I do not ask that Thou shouldst take from me aught of its load. . . . For one thing only, Lord, dear Lord, I plead, lead me aright, though strength should failer and though heart should bleed, through faith to light. Amen.—Adelaide Anne Proctor

Worker Describes Threats—

workers—be union members.
"Have you ever had a labor dispute since you have been in business here?" asked Browder.
"No, sir," he replied.
"Have you ever had any complaint about working conditions or wages?"
"No, sir."

He explained that he paid a minimum wage of $1.35 an hour for common labor, describing that as the standard paid by all contractors in this area.

He told of the work stoppage on February 23, when two pickets appeared on the project site, and related that work was resumed the next day after a restraining order had been issued by Judge Hamilton.

Under cross-examination, he said that Jewell Russell, his general superintendent, had told him of conferences with McDonald, when McDonald asked that his union furnish the common labor, that a check-off system be established for payment of dues and that time and a half be paid for overtime.

"He told you these requests were turned down, didn't he?" asked Wells.
"He did," answered Hill.

"And that was done with your full consent and approval, wasn't it?"

Marines—

Reno when the Reds hit was presumed dead or captured.

The number was not reported, but presumably was small. Front line reports said casualties in the fight back up the slope were far greater.

The Marines smashed through a ring of trenches circling the hill to regain Vegas, after a day of bloody hand-to-hand combat with the Red defenders. Marine searchlights criss-crossed the battlefield to pinpoint Red positions.

The Reds still clung to Reno and Old Baldy, 52 miles north of Seoul. Old Baldy was captured Wednesday from the U. S. 7th Infantry Division. Allied warplanes since have dropped hundreds of tons of bombs on the height in a virtually steady stream.

The Marines opened their first counter attack on Vegas at noon but were beaten back. The victorious attack began at 6 p. m. under cover of withering rocket and tank fire.

Walt said the Marines who won back the outpost were from the 3rd and 2nd Battalions.
Walt estimated the Reds fired 30,000 to 35,000 artillery and mortar shells at Vegas alone.

"Yes, sir."
Hill also said a Wage Stabilization Board had issued an order, setting minimum wage and setting up job classifications in this area.

Under re-direct examination he testified that out of the approximately 45 common laborers he employed, only two were members of the union.

"Did anyone ever come to you purporting to represent a majority of the common laborers and seek to negotiate with you," asked Browder?
"No, sir," replied Hill.

Russell, the general superintendent, took the stand to tell of conferences with McDonald in which the union demands were stated and then rejected three days later—three days before the pickets appeared.

Bob Martin, job superintendent on the church project, testified that he employed workers without regard to union membership.

Other witnesses Friday included Virgil (Blue) Till and David Jackson, negro workers, who told of being approached about joining the union.

They testified under cross-examination, that no threats ever were made against them by McDonald.

Another Scotch-lite Planned In Midland By Junior Chamber

Midland JayCees decided Friday at their noon luncheon in Hotel Scharbauer to launch another drive to equip Midland cars with the popular Scotch-lite safety strips.

Attached to the rear bumpers of autos, the red strips reflect light when another car approaches from the rear. Previous drives by the Midland JayCees resulted in more than 1,000 autos being equipped with the safety devices. W. D. Elliott, chairman of the drive, stressed the need for more JayCees to participate in sale of the Scotch-lite strips.

JayCees will work on the east side of the County Courthouse from 1 to 5 p. m. Saturday with the Scotch-lite equipment. Passing motorists will be urged to purchase the strips. J. P. "Mac" Marchionni, retiring JayCee president, was in charge Friday. He announced plans for the JayCee installation banquet at 7:30 p. m. next Friday in the Scharbauer Hotel.

Joseph F. Turpen, Jr., program chairman for the day, presented a Shell film, "The History of the Helicopter."

BUSY TIME—Top Pecos High School tennis twosome, Macine McMillan, right, and Ellen Jayne Maris found Friday one of their busiest days. The two high school juniors competed in the Odessa Invitational Tennis Tournament and then returned to Pecos to appear in the junior class play, "Dirty Work at the Crossroads," Friday night.

First Feature-Length 3-D Film Opens In City Friday

The revolutionary first feature-length movie in three dimensions, "Bwana Devil," will be at the finger-tips of Midlanders for the first time starting Friday at the Tower Theater. The show runs a week.

The natural vision 3-D movie is in color and gives the audience the feeling that they are actually "in" the screen right up next to the action rather than "looking at" a conventional movie on a flat surface.

The depth effect is achieved through a new method of motion picture making involving three cameras. Each is trained on the subject from a different angle. When the movie is shown the images are converged on the screen to give the movie-goers the effect of "living" in the story.

Robert Stack, Barbara Britton and Nigel Bruce are the stars of "Bwana Devil" which was produced by the master of the unusual, Arch Oboler.

Navy Reserve Unit Lauded

The Naval Reserve Ordnance Group, Company 8-12 of Midland was commended Thursday night by Captain H. R. Wright of Washington, D. C. for its phenomenal growth.

The unit under the command of Lt. Cmdr. Ned Shelton of Midland, was organized in January of this year and is the largest Naval Ordnance unit in the Eighth Naval District. Company 8-12 has 22 members.

Also meeting with the Midland unit was Naval Reserve Ordnance Group, Company 8-13, from Odessa. Captain Wright, who is head of the Naval Reserve officers branch of the Bureau of Ordnance, Washington, D. C., said that there are 18 Naval Ordnance units in the district.

He reviewed the recent Armed Forces Reserve Act and discussed the ready, standby and retired reserve and how they fit in the new act. With Captain Wright was Lt. (JG) G. L. Hemphill of New Orleans.

Police Identify All Victims Of Depraved London Sadist

By HAL COOPER
LONDON—(AP)—Police flying squads combed cheap rooming houses in this huge city Friday, seeking a sex sadist who hid the strangled corpses of four women in a grubby West Side flat.

Pupils Are Blamed For Houston Blaze

HOUSTON—(AP)—Juveniles were blamed Friday for a $15,000 early morning fire at an elementary school.

"It's definitely conclusively arson," Investigator Alous Greer said after checking the smoldering ruins of a room in the 35-year-old Franklin Elementary School.

Greer said a number of books had been piled in a corner of the room and set on fire.

A general warning was issued that the killer may strike again at any time.

Doctors who examined the bodies said the victims had been subjected to "uncontrollable outbursts of passion" by the slayer.

Scotland Yard detectives described their quarry as a middle-aged man of abnormal sex tendencies who practiced sadism of "a peculiar type."

The last of the four bodies was identified Thursday as that of Mrs. Ethel Christie, 45, last seen by neighbors just before Christmas.

She had lived in the murder flat almost 20 years with her 55-year-old husband, John, a trucking clerk. Mrs. Christie's body was found Wednesday buried under the floor.

Upton Water-

tional risk. The city of Rankin never did have 300 gallons of water in storage during the Summer months," he said.

"Sometimes," Hogan continued, "we'd open fire plugs around the city and not even get a little drop out of 'em."

Other business men who told of losses during the water shortage were Ray Mathews, Rankin laundry operator, and Gordon Steele, who operates a trailer camp in Rankin. Both said low pressure and "water hours" had trimmed business operations and income to a minimum.

More ranchers took the stand in support of the water district plan. A. D. Magill thinks the pressurized water line listed in the proposed water district would be a boon to ranchers.

Under cross-examination, Magill conceded that he would either build windmills or buy piped water through a water district—which ever was cheapest—if he were seeking additional water. Water district backers have been hammering at the point that water through the proposed water district would be cheaper than that produced through individual wells.

Also appearing before Judge Caselberger was Bud Cummins, water superintendent for Rankin. Cummins told of the city's well system of five wells now in use and a sixth soon to be ready for use.

Citizens of Rankin, he testified, still are under water rules forbidding watering of lawns with city water and other so-called "wasteful" uses of city water. "Turn the people loose," Cummins said, "and we'll need three times as much water as we've got now."

Attorneys on both sides of the dispute expressed belief the hearing will end Saturday, probably around noon, and that Judge Caselberger will deliver his judgment at that time.

SPORTS PARLEY

By CHARLEY ESKEW

FREDERICKSBURG—When Art Boland, the perennial high pressure pounder from Abilene, became obligated to sign a Midland contract this week, he complicated the Indian setup as far as keeping within the limit of veteran players allotted.

It's a problem, but who cares, say the Indians. Manager Jay Hasey likes the complication. For, first off, that means where there are seven veterans now, two must go—and look at the huddle that'll cause the old-timers to generate. On top of that, every position right now is knee deep in national defense service men, rookies and limited service players. At shortstop and on the mound, perhaps, a veteran is safe from contention.

Let's take for granted that Spotter Hughes sticks at shortstop and Eddie Jacome and Freddie Rodriguez keep their pitching positions. That leaves openings

Cowden, San Jac Run In Odessa Track Meet

Midland's two junior high schools, Cowden and San Jacinto, tackled their first track competition Saturday by traveling to Odessa for a four-team meet.

Bowie and Crockett of Odessa will be the host teams when the races begin at 9 a. m. in Broncho Stadium.

Only two American League players hit homers in every park during 1952. They were Luke Easter and Larry Doby, both of the Cleveland Indians.

for two vets. Which of these are the ones:
ART BOLAND—The big slugger will have to compete with Gordon Tanner, Ed Menapace and Freddie Lu-Jan, all limited service, and Charles (Tex) Stephenson, NDS, to stick with the club. Of course, when the Indians sought him first, they were sure he would.

JIM PRINCE—Competing with the rookie of the Spring, Milton (Speedy) Wallendorf, a 230-pound slugger, and limited service outfielder Hayden White, who is making himself at home around first, means much competition for the one-time king of stat for all pro baseball. Prince may have to step up his at-home training program so when he reports April 8, he'll be competition to the youngsters.

JULIO DE LA TORRE—His position, despite his .200 average of 1952, his golden arm and his eagerness, is shakiest of all the veterans. Young enough for trade bait, Julio (or Julian) may go, for Lou Dawson, NDS player and converted outfielder, is taking to third base like a detective to a keyhole. If he fails, there's also Quentin Basco, NDS too.

On the squad also are veterans Glen Selbo and Earl Bossenberry, but each has his own particular problem. Selbo supposedly is dickering with semi-pro ball and an outside job and, after all that, can not report until June 1. That's the same time Bossenberry could show up, although he has a handover for a business career. The first sacker, however, has graciously notified Midland officials he would report if they needed him.

Disregarding the final two, then, Midland still can not spare room for one or two of the veterans—and Prince, De la Torre and Boland are the ones who'll have to shoot the works to get a job.

Oklahoma A&M Starts Drive To Avoid NCA Blacklisting

CHICAGO—(AP)—Oklahoma A&M began working against a 30-day deadline Friday to avoid academic blacklisting by the North Central Association, the nation's most powerful accrediting agency.

In a surprise move, the NCA granted the Aggies 30 days to produce documentary substantiation that the institution is in conformity with the association's athletic program.

This action came Thursday night and was based solely on a plea by the school's president, Oliver S. Williams, who sent this telegram to NCA officials from Stillwater, Okla.

"I have conferred with the board of regents for Oklahoma A&M College. We will comply with all criteria governing intercollegiate athletics and expect to improve faculty salaries and competency. Immediate steps will be taken. Believing the commission of NCA misunderstood our intentions."

The NCA, with a membership of 368 colleges and universities in a 19-state area, had taken steps to disaccrredit the Aggies on a charge alleging the Missouri Valley Conference school had subsidized athletes, stressed athletics as a means for securing public support and lacked faculty control of athletic policy.

Bobby Dykes To Try Martinez Next Week

SAN ANTONIO—(AP)—Bobby Dykes will return to the San Antonio ring next week when he meets Jimmy Martinez of Phoenix, Ariz. They are middleweights.

Dykes lost a 10-round decision to Pierre Langlois of France at Dallas last week. Martinez boasts a record of having lost only four fights in 50 ring appearances.

Oil Capitol is the only horse to win both the Flamingo and Widener Stakes at Hialeah.

Central Little League Sets First Tryouts

Six tryout sessions within four days—the first one set at 4:30 p. m. Friday at Memorial Field—are on schedule for Central Little League prospects.

League officials announced that the first group, made up of eligible sixth grade boys from North, West and Sam Houston schools, will begin playing at 4:30 p. m. Friday.

All workouts are being conducted at Memorial Field.

The rest of the tryout schedule:

1. At 9 a. m. Saturday—fifth graders from the above schools.
2. At 10:30 a. m. Saturday—fourth graders from the above schools.
3. At 2 p. m. Saturday—All eligible boys within league boundaries from San Jacinto and Cowden junior highs and St. Ann's.
4. At 4:30 p. m. Monday—Third graders from North, West and Sam Houston schools.
5. At 4:30 p. m. Tuesday—Makeup for boys who are unable to attend other tryouts.

Mims Joins Bulldog Foursome Seeking New Mile Relay Mark

Midland High Friday placed its hopes on setting a second mile relay record this year on a "good, strong boy" when the track team departed for the Bluebonnet Relays at Brownwood.

About 50 schools are entered. Bill Mims, junior letterman, is the key for Midland's mile entry. He subs for injured Bob Keisling to help form the four who will try to erase the time of 3:32.3 which is the current Bluebonnet mark.

Mims, one of nine Bulldogs entered, also takes part on the sprint relay team and his busy day finds him a vital part in two of Midland's best efforts. He ran second lap as the Bulldogs recorded an exceptionally 43.2 in the West Texas Relays Quarter-mile relay last week. That time repeated would establish a new standard over the 43.6 that exists now.

Although Mims was an alternate on the mile quartet before, his subbing for Keisling isn't expected to slow down the team a bit. The six-foot-three speedster was planning a challenge for a place on the foursome when he was moved automatically onto the team this week.

"He's a good, strong boy who can run," Coach Edwin Nixon said, pointing out that Mims finished only two yards behind the relay teams' anchor man, Roy Kimsey, in a Wednesday race.

Kimsey and Mims are two of a nine-man team that also lists Dale Jobe, Keisling, Roddy Braun, Keys Curry, Bob Mace, Larry Palmer and Jimmy Watson. They departed from Midland at about noon, with their first competition scheduled for 1 p. m. Saturday. The relays finals are set for Saturday night.

Coach Nixon said that Keisling had recovered sufficiently from his injury, suffered at Odessa last Friday, to enter the discus throw Saturday. "His injury (an abdominal muscle injury) doesn't affect his discus throwing," the Bulldog mentor said.

Besides the relay team, Midland's best bet appears in the dashes and the 440. Braun and Jimmy Watson will enter the 100-yard dash while Kimsey, the Border Olympic quarter-mile king, and Jobe seek the 440-yard title.

'Soft' Tigers Say Standings Tell No Lies

ST. PETERSBURG, FLA.—(AP)—"Yeah!" the Detroit Tigers chorused Friday. "Tell that Jimmy Dykes to take a gander at the Grapefruit League standings."

Dykes, manager of the Philadelphia Athletics, told a newspaper interviewer Thursday: "The Tigers look like the softest touch in the American League, although they do have good pitching."

WARD RETURNS TO FIELD
MESA, ARIZ.—(AP)—Preston Ward will be in center field for the Chicago Cubs against the St. Louis Browns Friday after being released from military service.

BUMS HATH CHARM
BRADENTON, FLA.—(AP)—Manager Charlie Grimm Friday called on his ace, Warren Spahn, to help break the jinx exercised by the Brooklyn Dodgers over the Milwaukee Braves. The Dodgers won 19 of 22 league games against the Boston Braves last season and have copied three exhibition games from them this Spring.

WEST P. L. M. BEACH, FLA.—(AP)—The Philadelphia Athletics made their first squad cut Friday, sending Pitcher Tom Tyson and Catcher Paul Simmons to Savannah, Ga., of the Class A South Atlantic League.

TWO SOUTHPAWS SHINE
TUCSON, ARIZ.—(AP)—Ever since the days of Gene Bearden, the Cleveland Indians have needed a steady southpaw pitcher. Judging from Spring training results, they now hope they have one again in Lou Brissie, and maybe another in Al Aber.

CARDS SHOW POWER
ST. PETERSBURG—(AP)—The St. Louis Cardinals are showing signs of breaking out of the batting slump that has plagued the club since the start of Spring training.

Every Cardinal regular with the exception of Del Rice had at least one hit as the Cardinals blasted the New York Yankees 16-2 Thursday. Ray Jablonski had a double and two singles. Solly Hemus rapped out three singles, Stan Musial had two singles, and Enos Slaughter and Steve Bilko each collected a double.

Joe Adcock, new first baseman for the Boston Braves, was a star basketball player at Louisiana State University.

Milwaukee Boasts Victorious Team It Never Has Seen

By The Associated Press
The Braves apparently already are benefiting by a change of scenery even though they haven't moved out of Florida.

As far as the Spring season is concerned Boston lost a losing baseball club. Milwaukee has inherited a winning one.

It hasn't been a big change, and even the Braves' brass admitted the club didn't have much choice of direction when it came to the question of going up or down; from last year's dismal seventh place finish. But in the even games since the switch was official the Milwaukee Braves have won four. Earlier, the Boston variety of the Braves, won only four of 11.

Destined For Losing Start
These won and lost figures follow the whims of Orver Lou Perini, who, when told that his ball club had lost on the day the National League approved the move, said: "Tomorrow we become the Milwaukee Braves."

Perini's calendar juggling didn't really matter since the Braves promptly lost the following day to Cincinnati, 4-3.

Thursday they got revenge for the loss to the Reds as they battered four Cincinnati pitchers for a 10-2 victory. The brightest spot in the Milwaukee attack was the one-time Cincinnati outfielder, Joe Adcock, now the Braves' first baseman.

Adcock, who went to the Braves during the Winter in the four-club deal that sent Russ Meyer to Brooklyn and Earl Torgesen to Philadelphia, honored, doubled twice and singled against his club. Suggests were the rule in the grapefruit league Thursday. The day's six games produced 26 home runs, 12 by National League clubs.

The St. Louis Cardinals pounded the Alle Reynolds of the New York Yankees for 13 hits in six innings and thumped the world champions, 10-2. Homers by Al Rosen and Jim Hegan plus a dozen other safeties gave Cleveland an 8-4 decision over the Chicago White Sox.

Five home runs were blasted at Phoenix, Ariz., as the St. Louis Browns whipped the New York Giants, 6-5. Three Brownie homers each came with a runner on base.

The Philadelphia Phillies ended the Brooklyn pitcher's run of scoreless innings at 30 by scoring in the first at Clearwater, Fla., but the Dodgers eventually won out in the eleventh, 8-7.

The Boston Red Sox scored their first run in 24 innings at the expense of Washington at Orlando, Fla., and edged the Senators, 4-3, in the only other game played.

During the 1952 season Joe Collins of the New York Yankees made five unassisted double plays at first base.

Broncs Trip MHS Second Time, 9-8

Odessa High's baseball team knows the secret of beating Midland's Bulldogs now—let their luck run out. That formula, applied a second time Thursday, put the Bronchos two up on Midland in two non-district games. Odessa slipped from behind with a three-run outburst in the sixth inning, powered by Louis Ray's run-scoring single and Ken Wineburg's one-on homer, to nip the Bulldogs, 9-8, Thursday in Indian Park. It was the third straight victory for the Bronchos, and in each, they came from behind to win. Last week against Midland, a two-run spree in the fifth earned a 5-4 verdict. This time, however, Odessa proved more potent at bat, rapping 12 hits off two Midland pitchers instead of three as the Bronchos accumulated last time. Midland once again started fast in the first inning and moved ahead, 4-0. Jesse Hatfield's single, two walks, a single by Don Hudson and Dick Spencer's double for two runs sparked the rally. Hurley Jay Garland of Odessa then stepped to blank Midland for the next two innings while his teammates made it 4-3 with three runs in the third. Midland mixed in three errors with a double by Tuffy Zellars and Keith Tyler's single to provide the runs. Odessa routed started Snookie Roberts with five hits in the next frame for a 6-4 lead, but Midland wasn't out of luck as yet. McKnight, the relief pitcher, singled in combination with a walk and a run producing single by Billy King to narrow the margin. Then Hudson doubled for two runs and a 7-6 margin. Rusty Rutledge, who doubled, tallied the last Midland run in the fifth inning before Garland fanned six of the last eight batters to record the victory. Behind 8-6, Odessa spurred out-front for good when Tuffy Zellars tripled; Ray singled and Wineburg followed with his round-tripper, all off McKnight, in the sixth. The line score: Odessa 9 003 303 0-9 12 3 Midland 4 00 310 0-8 9 8 Garland and Fannin, Baggett; Roberts, McKnight (4) and Rutledge.

A Boy, A Dog, A Cat And The Signs Of The Times

One day last week, a youngster came to his dad and said, "Pop, I'm gonna put a sign on Mickey (the cat) for the benefit of Ike (the new pup); the sign will say 'YIELD'." The pup may not be able to read, but he might catch on. Our attitude is that you ought to "YIELD" to the general trend, and make yourself a real fine lawn with that gorgeous organic fertilizer that comes in the red bags, Turf Special. There are no cats and dogs about Turf Special. It is especially compounded for West Texas—the right formula, half of the nitrogen being in an organic form that lasts and lasts. It promotes the growth of the best grass in town. Give us a ring, we'll deliver. We still want to give you a free sample of the stuff so that you may see for yourself. Come in. The shop is pretty full, but we can still take on your lawnmower for a course of treatment that will leave it real sharp and cutty. It's pretty worthwhile.

Howard Quint In Semi-Final With Kansans

HUTCHINSON, KAN.—(AP)—El Dorado and Arkansas City will try Friday night to set up an All-Kansas finale for the 16-entry double elimination National Junior College Basketball Tournament. El Dorado, one of the giant killers of the big meet, plays Hannibal-LaGrange of Missouri and Arkansas City is paired with Howard College of Big Spring, Texas, in championship bracket semi-finals. The Texans squelched a series of menacing Eastern Arizona rallies to defeat, the Thatcher, Ariz., school, 80-74, Thursday night. Arkansas City surged ahead from a 65-41 deadlock with two minutes remaining to down Brooklyn (NY) State Tech, 76-68 in the other top flight second rounder. A new tournament team scoring mark was set Thursday when East Central Mississippi State of Decatur, Miss., racked up 114 points to Brewton-Parker's 79 in a losers' bracket quarter-final test. Brewton-Parker is from Mt. Vernon, Ga. In 1952 Hank Sauer became the only player in the history of the Chicago Cubs to hit three home runs in each of two games in one season.

Stripling of Fort Worth. Mrs. Wellbacher pulled the major upset of the thirty-second annual event Thursday when she defeated Pat Garner, Midland, 1-up. The tournament is being played over the 6,318-yard San Antonio Country Club course. In a previous match, Miss Garner had defeated Mrs. O. P. Reidel of Dallas, the defending champ, who last year bested the Midland girl in the finals. Mrs. Stripling had to come from behind to defeat Mrs. R. C. Lipscomb, another San Antonian, Thursday. She went ahead on the sixteenth and took the match, 2 and 1, when she won the seventeenth.

Texas Relays Open With Prelim Show

By HAROLD V. RATLIFF AUSTIN—(AP)—The huge Texas Relays open Friday with a raft of preliminaries, eight finals and prospects of at least three records the first crack out of the box. A glittering duel in the university class sprint medley relay between Kansas and Oklahoma A&M features the initial round while Kansas will be after the record in the distance medley, an event already conceded to the long-striding Jayhawk. Best chance of a record appears, however, in the university-college division shot put where Olympics Star Darrow Hooper of Texas A&M will be seeking to better his own mark of 54 feet seven and three-fourths inches. Hooper flipped the iron ball over 57 feet after setting the record here last year. Only preliminaries will be held in the shot put Friday. Kansas already holds the record in the distance medley with 10:06.0 and is back with another top quartet featuring Art Dalsell and Wes Santee, who ran on the team last year. Broad-Jump Mark Set There are prospects of a record in the university-college broad jump, for which finals will be held Friday. Neville Price of Oklahoma, who won it with 25 feet two and one-half inches in 1952, returns. The record is 25-7. Nine hundred individual entries from 98 schools have been posted in the five-division meet with more expected Friday. Texas Among Favored Kansas, Oklahoma A&M and Texas are expected to be the big winners in the university class with Texas A&M sweeping into the picture in the combined university-college division, mainly because Hooper is expected to win both the shot and discus, and other Aggies should finish high. The university class has 17

Class B Seahawks Scuffle Fine Dallas Mark With 8-6 Win

By The Associated Press DALLAS' Eagles, winners of 10 out of 13 games in pre-season exhibitions, fell before Fort Arthur of the Class B Gulf Coast League Tuesday night. The 8-6 loss was the day's only defeat of a Texas League member by an outside team. In other games, Tulsa walloped Augusta, Ga., of the Sally League, 10-3, at Alexandria, La.; San Antonio defeated Toronto of the International League, 5-1, at Dunden, Fla.; and Houston whipped a member of the Texas League family, Oklahoma City, 11-9, at Galveston. Houston and Oklahoma City engaged in a slugfest that produced 29 hits, 29 runs and five errors. The Indians outbit the Buffs, 15-14, but seven walks and four errors were too much for Tommy Tatum's boys.

Midland Tennis Squad Faces Large Field In Odessa Meet

Among the teams entered from the Permian Basin area are Midland, Alpine, Andrews, Big Spring, Bowie of Odessa, Crane, Crockett of Odessa, Kermit, McCamey, Monahans, Odessa and Potts. Elementary schools, junior highs and senior highs compose the tournament's three divisions with finalists in each to be decided Saturday. FOR SALE
9.745-acre ranch in heart of West Texas. This ranch is located in Crockett County, Texas, and is very highly improved with two sets of improvements, REA, butane gas, well watered and fenced and cross-fenced with wire, low rolling hills with plenty of shrub mesquite brush, and shiners and some leaved divide country. This is one of the best cow, sheep and goat ranches in Texas. Very high in minerals, oil and gas on two sides of it but no well drilled on this place yet. It is now leased for oil and gas with exception of about 1,015 acres in which owner reserved, and is scattered around over the ranch in several sections. All of leased land is now paying 50c annual rental. The mineral rights are worth one-half of more of what the sale price is on this place. Owner only wants to reserve one-fourth of mineral. Well, you can't have this. Reason for selling is that owner has chance to buy larger place. There is good hunting and plenty of deer. I have in my office legal description of this ranch.

Ward Boy Fighting Illness Seeking Return Of 'Jeepo'

In Monahans a boy's dog has been stolen—and the boy, little nine-year-old Olen Ray Mallow, who has never been to school because of a three-year fight with chronic nephritis, wants his "only friend," Jeepo, back.

Olen Ray and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Olen H. Mallow, live at 304 South Lee Street in Monahans. After an exhaustive three weeks search for the small black and white rat terrier with a natural length tail, Mrs. Pauline Marler of Midland and sister of Olen Ray, appealed to The Reporter-Telegram for help.

"Jeepo barks at passersby in a peculiar way," wrote Mrs. Marler, "he sounds like a hysterical woman."

That bark attracted Olen Ray's attention about 11 o'clock one night three weeks ago. "We heard him and a little later we heard a car drive off. We didn't think anything about it then." The next morning Jeepo was gone.

"Surely if the people who took him know about Olen Ray's illness and how much he depended on the dog, they would bring Jeepo back. Nobody could be heartless enough to keep him," said Mrs. Marler.

Anyone knowing about the dog is asked to contact Mrs. Marler who lives at 1112 North Lamesa Road, Midland or telephone 3-3630.

Olen Ray has been told by his doctor that he may never go to school because of his affliction and he can't play with other children because of the danger of colds and other contagious diseases.

For more than two years the youngster was given transfusions of blood every six weeks and the treatment ended only recently. The question that rests heavily on the hearts of Olen Ray's parents is "Who would take this boy's best friend?"

Somebody, somewhere, please return Jeepo.

Water Rates Drop In Crane As City Council Okays Cut

CRANE—An ordinance lowering the water rate here was passed recently by the Crane City council when it was learned that the financial status of the city had reached a condition satisfactory enough to warrant the decrease.

The council was told by Superintendent J. K. Price that the holders of the bonds, against the water and sewer systems of the city, had agreed to the decrease.

W. W. Payne, president of the First of Texas Company, which holds the bonds on the water system, commended Superintendent Price and the City Council for the efficient management of the city's affairs which brought about the favorable financial condition.

Water rates in the city limits, monthly for January, February, March, April, October, November and December of each calendar year will be $2.50 minimum for the first 2,000 gallons; and $1 for each 1,000 gallons used over 2,000 gallons.

Rates for May, June, July, August and September of each calendar year, will be $2.50 minimum for the first 1,000 gallons; $1 per 1,000 gallons for the next 4,000 gallons; and 75 cents per 1,000 gallons for all over 5,000 gallons.

The second helicopter following Taylor's was caught in an updraft and overturned, striking the rotor of Taylor's craft.
