Wood, Et Al, Get Flowing Strawn Opener In Mitchell

Robert L. Wood of Midland and associates have a flowing Strawn sand discovery in sight at their No. 1 Ross Dixon, Southeast Mitchell County wildcat.

This project, 20 miles southeast of Colorado City flowed a total of 30 barrels of new oil in 36 hours. It produced the oil from perforated section at 6,234-54 feet in the Strawn sand. No formation water was developed.

The perforated zone had previously been reported as being at 6,232-52 feet. Electric measurements changed those figures.

Has Been Fractured
The perforated section had been fractured with 4,000 gallons.

No gas volume measurement has been taken. However there is sufficient gas to flow the oil steadily. Gravity is estimated to 44 psi.

Top of the Strawn sand is at 6,230 feet. Elevation is 2,096 feet.

The well is now shut in while flow lines are laid and tanks are being erected. When that work is completed the wildcat will take potential test and complete.

Location Given
Location is 467 feet from south and west lines of section 2, block 12, H&TC survey. It is four miles northwest of Sun Oil Company No. 1 McCabe, flowing Strawn sand discovery.

The 36 hours of flowing where the 50 barrels of oil was produced was through two different sized chokes. During the first 12 hours a 14 64th inch choke was used.

Production was 18 barrels of oil. In the next 12 hours the flow was through a 15 64th inch tubing choke and 22 barrels of oil was flowed. In the last 12 hours the 15 64th inch choke was still used. The production was 10 barrels of oil.

All Lead Was Out
All lead and residue from the 4,000 gallons of fracture treatment had been flowed out before the 36 hours of testing was started. Operator representatives say all of the 50 barrels of oil produced during the 36 hours was new oil.

The Wood et al No. 1 Dixon drilled to a bottom of 6,400 feet in Pennsylvania sand. It plugged back to 6,352 feet and cemented 5 1/2 inch casing at that point. That pipe was perforated at 6,234 feet for the testing which has developed the oil.

Vickers Will Drill Ellenburger Test In SE Upton Area

The Vickers Petroleum Company Inc. has announced location for an 11,500-foot Ellenburger wildcat in Southeast Upton County, eight and one-half miles southeast of the town of Raftkin.

The prospecter will be drilled on a Shell Oil Company farmout as No. 1 University, with Gulf Oil Corporation contributing to the drilling of the well.

Drill site is 660 feet from west and 1,980 feet from south lines of section 10, block 5, University Lands survey.

Site is five and one-half miles southeast of Fair and Woodward No. 1 Corbett, Clear Fork discovery and six miles southwest of Sinclair Oil and Gas Company No. 1-126 University, discovery from the Wolfcamp.

Operations are to start by May 1.

San Andres Tester Set For SE Martin

Brown & Wheeler of Fort Worth No. 1 H. P. Morrison is a new San Andres wildcat in the extreme southeast part of Martin County.

Location is 690 feet from north and 1,980 feet from east lines of section 28, block 36, T-1-S, T&P survey and one and one-half miles southwest of Stanton.

Rotary tools will be used to drill the wildcat to projected depth of 4,500 feet. Operations will begin at once.

Drill site is two and three-quarters miles northeast of Union Sulphur & Oil Company No. 1 Susie B. Snyder, small Spraberry discovery completed last year.

Throckmorton Drilling & Producing Company has the drilling contract.

Two Deep Wildcats Scheduled For Lea

McAlester Fuel Company and Western Natural Gas Company have each announced locations for a deep wildcat in Lea County, New Mexico.

McAlester will drill No. 1-CT State as a 12,300-foot project in the north-east portion of the county, two and one-half miles northwest of the King field.

Deal On Ill Prisoners Completed

Two Killed As Tornadoes Rip Midwest

By The Associated Press

Early Spring wind and rain storms spread into the East and South Friday after sweeping across Illinois and Indiana Thursday night, killing two persons and injuring 30.

The storms lessened in severity as they moved into Ohio, Kentucky, Tennessee, Western New York, Pennsylvania and the Central Appalachians.

Small tornadoes skipped across East Central Illinois and Indiana to the Ohio border. The twisters flattened houses and trees in several small communities and rural areas in both states.

The area near Albany, Ind., 12 miles northeast of Muncie, appeared the hardest hit. Mrs. Stella Green, 47, and her son, Arnold, 10, were killed when their small frame home was demolished. Three others in the family were injured. A dozen other persons in Albany were injured.

Eight persons were hurt in the tornado which struck north of Danville, Ill., while two others were injured as tornado winds hit Lincoln, Ill.

Strong winds continued Friday throughout the Great Lakes region and the Upper Mississippi Valley with considerably colder air sweeping in from the West and North across the mid-continent. Rain fell in much of Michigan and Wisconsin while snow was reported in Minnesota and the Dakotas. Storm warnings have been posted on all the Great Lakes.

West Urged To Keep Up Strength Despite Soviet Policy Switch

UNITED NATIONS—(P)—The U. S. warned the free world Friday against abandoning its policy of strength and unity because of conciliatory gestures from the Kremlin.

Ernest Gress of the U. S. told the Political Committee. It was the West's very policy of strength and unity which had brought about such obligations and eventually it would induce Russia to change its policies completely.

"Most of us feel the time will come when the Soviet government will find it necessary to modify its policy. If so it will be because of our policy of strength and unity. We must not abandon that strength," he declared.

Gross deplored reintroduction of an omnibus Polish peace package and said the UN already has rejected all major points in it. He specifically regretted the bringing up of the Korean problem here at this time.

"No resolution on Korea is necessary or desirable at this time," he declared. "We must avoid any action which might jeopardize the talks at Panmunjom."

BOW OF HOPE—This picture taken by Army Capt. Edward Plummer in November, 1951, is symbolic of what many people today hope and want to believe will be true, that the pot of gold at the end of the rainbow will be the successful termination of the armistice talks at Panmunjom. By coincidence, the insignia of "Freedom Village," which houses facilities to care for returned UN personnel, also is a rainbow.

Midland Firms Get Public Safety Building Contracts

Construction on the $487,000 Public Safety Building got a go-ahead sign Thursday when Mullin & Lacy Building Contractors of Midland were awarded the general contract of $284,010.

The City Council gave the nod to Cook Electric Company of Midland on the company's bid of $29,341 for the electrical work on the structure. Twenty-one bidders vied for the four contracts considered Thursday.

Councilmen withheld awards on two items.

Low bidders on the mechanical contract for plumbing, heating and air conditioning are R. M. Wells Co. of Quanah and Neill's Sheet Metal Company of Midland. And for jail equipment, Southern Steel Company of San Antonio and Paisley Jail Building Company of St. Louis, Mo. bid low.

Work on the two-story brick building will start in about two weeks and will be about 10 months in completion, City Manager W. H. Oswalt said Friday. Location for the building is the park area at the triangle of East Texas, South Fort Worth and East South Front Street.

First floor of the building will be completely windowless — to save money in construction costs and cost of heating and air conditioning. On this first level will be housed the police station, Corporation Court and Central Fire Station.

The second story is, in effect, two buildings, in that a solid wall will separate the 60-man jail area and the fire station dormitory.

The jail and court areas, Oswalt pointed out, will be constructed so as to avoid any direct contact between prisoners and the general public.

The cell area itself will be a "block within a block." A wide corridor will separate the cell blocks from the windows of the second floor and prisoners will not be allowed to use the corridor.

Construction of the Public Safety Building, Oswalt explained, will relieve the crowded conditions of the present City Hall and may, Oswalt said, rule out the need for a new one.

And the new jail will eliminate the rent payments of $350 to $700 the city has been giving the county each month for use of the county jail, Oswalt added.

Architect for the building is Hank Avery of Midland.

Midland Scouts Get Full-Time Executive

Midland will have a new full-time district Scout executive within the next two weeks. Joe Niedermayer has been transferred to Midland County after three years of duty in the Pecos-Monahans-Kernit area. He will have his office at the Midland Scout Headquarters at 318 North Colorado Street.

Notice of Niedermayer's transfer was given Thursday night at the quarterly meeting of the Buffalo Trail Scout Council which was held in Midland. P. V. Thorson, council executive, said 25 board members heard Hal Lewman, Region Nine executive, review last year's record of the Council.

Father Kills Wife, Shoots His Daughter In Row Over Haircut

CLEVELAND—(P)—A father killed his wife and wounded his teenage daughter Friday in an argument over bobbed hair, police said.

Mrs. Angelina Falletta, 60, was dead with a bullet through her head when police arrived. Patrolmen were hunting her husband, Peter, 60, an unemployed painter.

Wounded in the left side was Sarah Falletta, 16, who told police the trouble started when she got a "boyish bob" two weeks ago.

Sarah said she heard her father and mother arguing. She telephoned police, and "my father came into the room just as I was hanging up the receiver—then he shot me because I called the police."

"As soon as I was hit I fell to the floor and played dead so he wouldn't shoot me again. Then he ran out of the house and disappeared."

Margaret Truman Says No To London

LONDON—(P)—Margaret Truman's concert manager has declined a London nightclub's offer for a coronation week appearance.

Leonard Hall Chosen GOP Party Leader

WASHINGTON—(P)—The Republican National Committee Friday unanimously elected former Rep. Leonard Hall of New York as its national chairman.

The committee accepted, with expressions of regret, the resignation of Wesley Roberts of Kansas. It gave voice approval of a resolution expressing deep appreciation for Roberts' work and praising him as a "friend of integrity whom we hold in high esteem."

Roberts resigned after a Kansas legislative committee held he had violated the spirit of a state anti-lobbying act by accepting a fee in connection with the sale of a hospital to the state in 1951.

Hall's election put the 52-year-old New York judge at the helm of the party for what speakers described as the critical congressional campaign in 1954.

Coinciding with the election the Democratic National Committee issued a statement asserting that the new chairman had established a voting record in the House of Representatives "in direct opposition to the publicly stated views of President Eisenhower."

The Democrats cited, as examples, a 1952 vote by Hall to cut two billion dollars off foreign aid funds, his 1948 vote against extension of the reciprocal trade agreement program and a 1950 vote to kill federal rent control.

Besides the expected criticism from the Democrats, Hall faces the need to raise money for a party described by some of its members as financially broke despite its presidential election victory last fall.

Winds To Return In Midland Area

Surface winds ranging from 15 to 25 miles an hour were expected to arrive in Midland from the east Friday afternoon but no blowing sand was predicted by CAA weathermen.

Saturday is expected to be fair and partly cloudy with little change in temperature.

The rest of Texas remained dry and only partly cloudy Friday except for light showers which fell in Central Texas early in the day. More rain was promised by the Weather Bureau Saturday in the south central areas.

Midland Residence Damaged By Flames

Fire caused heavy damage to the residence of Inez Dancer, 205 North Jackson Street, at 1:25 a.m. Friday. An oil-burning stove was blamed for loss to the frame duplex.

The Eighth Army's evaluated enemy casualty estimates for the week ending Tuesday totaled only 1,862, the lowest since mid-February.

The figure included 1,140 Chinese and North Koreans killed, 820 wounded and 22 captured.

 LATE NEWS FLASHES ***

WASHINGTON—(P)—The Senate Friday unanimously approved the nomination of Mrs. Oveta Culp Hobby to be the first secretary of Health, Education and Welfare, effective Saturday.

TAIPEH, FORMOSA—(P)—The Chinese Nationalist government Friday night accepted the resignation of K. C. Wu as governor of Formosa and appointed O. K. Yui, a prominent banker and former finance minister, to succeed him.

WHARTON—(P)—The burning No. 1 Kuntz Estate well in Wharton County's Louise field, which had blazed since 6 p.m. Wednesday, was put out and capped Friday by a crew from the M. M. Kinley organization in Houston.

WASHINGTON—(P)—Senator Byrd (D-Va) declared Friday that if the United States military leaders "conduct everything as they have this ammunition shortage, the country can have no confidence of security."

Reds Request Broken Truce Talks Reopen

MUNSAN, KOREA—(P)—The Communists agreed Friday to trade sick and wounded prisoners beginning about April 21, then proposed resumption of the long-stalled armistice negotiations.

Both sides were expected to sign Saturday the agreement calling for the exchange of 5,800 ailing Reds for 600 Allied prisoners, of which 120 are Americans.

But in calling for a return to the armistice table, the Communist officers gave no sign of yielding on the principle of forced repatriation of some 50,000 prisoners who balk at returning to Red rule. It was Allied refusal to return such prisoners that ruptured the negotiations last October 8.

Communist officers, proposing the resumption, declared "the principle of repatriation of all prisoners of war" after an armistice "is unshakable."

And the Communists reiterated that "the Korean-Chinese side does not acknowledge that there are prisoners of war who are allegedly unwilling to be repatriated."

Hill Battles Mark Waning War's Action

SEOUL—(P)—South Korean infantrymen stormed back to the top of Texas Hill on the central front Friday after Chinese Communists hurled three attacks against the key outpost and overran it.

The Reds threw an estimated 250 men into their latest assault against the strategic knob which has changed hands more than a half-dozen times in the past.

A ROK spokesman said the first Chinese force which hit the outpost was wiped out.

In the West, not far from the truce talks village of Panmunjom, the Reds continued their shelling of Carson Hill, which the Leathernecks re-won in a bloody battle after losing it Thursday.

UN warplanes skirted the Panmunjom area Friday on their way north, where they bombed Communist supply and troop areas and battled briefly with Red jets.

One MIG-15 was listed as damaged in dogfights with U. S. Sabre jets.

The Eighth Army's evaluated enemy casualty estimates for the week ending Tuesday totaled only 1,862, the lowest since mid-February.

The figure included 1,140 Chinese and North Koreans killed, 820 wounded and 22 captured.

Midland Residence Damaged By Flames

Fire caused heavy damage to the residence of Inez Dancer, 205 North Jackson Street, at 1:25 a.m. Friday. An oil-burning stove was blamed for loss to the frame duplex.

The Allies agreed to hand over 5,100 North Koreans and 700 Chinese at the rate of 500 daily.

In all, the Reds say they hold about 13,000 Allied prisoners, including 3,198 Americans, about 1,000 other non-Koreans, mostly British, and about 9,000 South Koreans.

The UN Command holds 132,000 captured Reds. About 51,000 have said they would resist a return to Communist rule.

These lists were compiled in December, 1951. Both sides have taken more prisoners since.

Final Drafts Released
The letter containing the detailed Red plan was handed to the chief Allied liaison officer, Rear Adm. John C. Daniel, by his Communist counterpart, North Korean Maj. Gen. Lee Sang Cho.

The letter was transmitted to Harrison and to Clark's headquarters in Tokyo.

The Reds timed the move just as Allied and Communist liaison officers were on the point of signing an agreement to exchange sick and wounded in "Operation Little Switch."

Daniel told newsmen at the end of the day that the only matter left to be cleared up was for interpreters to settle the final draft on the agreement in English, Korean and Chinese.

The exchange operation will begin within 10 days after the agreement is signed and will be over within 20 days, although it is expected to require only 12 days.

If the agreement is signed Saturday, as expected, it is possible he exchange of sick and wounded will get underway next week.

Jamaica Air Crash Brings Death To 11

KINGSTON, JAMAICA—(P)—A Caribbean International Airways plane enroute from Kingston to Grand Cayman crashed into the sea shortly after takeoff here Friday, killing 11 of the 14 persons aboard. Officials said an engine failed.

Among the dead were Wing Commander Owen Roberts, managing director of the airline, three members of the crew and two infants.

New Drug May End Terror Of Black Cancer, Melanoma

CHICAGO—Discovery of 17 humans with melanomas, Dr. Farber said. It temporarily knocked out the cancer in five. The other 12 were persons in whom the cancers already had spread to internal organs.

Work on mice indicates that TEPA might abolish human melanomas entirely if they were caught very early, said Dr. Farber. Melanomas account for about three per cent of all cancer deaths.

TEPA was developed by scientists of the Calco Chemical Division, American Cyanamid Company and first was tried against leukemia, the cancer of the blood. It has little effect against acute leukemia, but by happy accident it was tried upon melanoma.

Sugar first was made commercially from sugar beets about 1800 when France found sugar difficult to import during the Napoleonic wars.

Exhibitors Left Out In Cold As Depth War Gets Hotter

By ERSKINE JOHNSON
NEA Staff Correspondent

Behind the Screen: Hollywood's mad scramble to change the shape and sound of movies in its struggle against television competition has taken on the plot twists of a radio soap opera with a theme song titled: "Polish Up the Round House Doors Nellie, Movies Aren't Square Anymore."

What's going to happen tomorrow? Will Mr. Exhibitor marry Cinerama or 3-D or will he leave both of them waiting at the church while he elopes with CinemaScope? Even Hollywood can't answer the questions. And Mr. Exhibitor is confused.

Confused? Yipe! He doesn't know whether he should install a kidney-shaped screen in his theater, or buy 3,000,000 polaroid glasses, or trade his sound horns for eight bugles a clarinet and a midget, or put a "Closed Until Hollywood Regains Its Sanity" sign on his marquee.

Movies for early Spring Summer and Fall release are in assorted shapes and sizes — three-dimensional movies, wide-screen movies viewed through cellophane films due to be given depth and wide-screen effect via special projection lenses being dreamed up at MGM and at Paramount.

Better stories, too? Sorry, Hollywood's too busy with its technical revolution.

What will tomorrow bring? Don't ask me. Maybe, triangle-shaped movies viewed through cellophane popcorn bags and 8-D movies for people with two heads.

Television stole Hollywood's audience. And now Hollywood is out to lure back the cash customers via something colossal!

As one industry brass-hat summed it up for me:

"Even our good movies failed to make money. Now we're trying gimmicks. If the gimmicks don't work, we're dead."

Hmmmm! How about movie screens in the shape of Marilyn Monroe?

John Barrymore, Jr. and his sister, Dee Dee, are raising eyebrows with their quarrels. They live in the same Hollywood apartment house. Fernando Lamas is having the last laugh, now that MGM has renewed his contract and upped his salary, at prophets who predicted that he was through in Hollywood after his tiff with Lana Turner. . . . Cro's orchestra leader, Dick Stabile, deserves a lion's share of the credit for bringing Dean Martin and his wife together.

Previous Flash Paramount's "War of the Worlds" tops all of Hollywood's science-fiction thrillers in terror and suspense. It's a nightmare in Technicolor.

One of my spies reports he's found the answer to why there are no embracing moments when Arlene Dahl wears those low-cut gowns.

Just before Arlene was to do a bending-over scene in "The Diamond Queen," my spy whispered, a roll of Scotch tape was delivered to her dressing room!

Marilyn Monroe, a tremendous hit in her Las Vegas night-club debut, cracked to her opening-night audience: "I usually work with Bob Hope but who needs Hope after this reception?" Then she added in small type, "I do." But she doesn't.

How-to-get-rich note: A $1,000 investment in the 3-D movie, "Bwana Devil," just brought a Hollywoodman a check for $6,000, with more to come!

Three little Indian boys in blue jeans and plaid shirts were watching filming of "War Paint" at Death Valley when a Hollywood extra, in make-up and full-feathered Indian dress, stepped out of a station wagon.

"Gee," said one of the Indian boys, "Look at the Indian."

MGM and Fox are bidding for "African Fury," a big-game-hunting movie filmed in color by George Michael. . . . Liz Taylor and Michael Wilding are still laughing over the false radio report that they are expecting the stork for the second time.

Shelly Winters on the changes wrought by mammoth:

"I'm not so frenetic about my career now. My husband and my baby mean everything to me and I plan to have more babies. There are other things in life beside acting and I'm just finding it out."

Ros Russell's comedy, "Never Wave at a WAC," is being billed in Spain as "To the Army—With Chauffeur and Maid" in France: "Do Not Kiss the WACs."

Altrusans Hold Luncheon Meet

Mrs. Kay Williams conducted a quiz program for the luncheon meeting of the Altrusa Club Thursday in the private dining room of Hotel Scharbauer.

The occasion was in observance of the organization's Founder's Day, when contributions are made to help rehabilitate older women who must earn their own livelihood.

Mrs. Grace Wallace gave a report on the Latin American girl who is studying in Sul Ross College, Alpine, on an Altrusa scholarship.

Guests were Mrs. N. L. Adams of Fond du Lac, Wis., Mrs. Harold Schram of San Antonio, Mrs. Oren Simmons and Mrs. Elizabeth Julius.

Delta Gamma Club Adds New Members

The Delta Gamma Alumnae Club added four new members at a meeting Wednesday in the home of Mrs. James M. Turner, 1115 Chestnut Lane.

They are Mary Jean Magruder, Mary Helen Ross, Joe Ann Gwynes and Sally Fry.

Plans also were discussed for the summer rush season and amendments to the constitution and by-laws were presented.

Justamere Club Holds Luncheon

Mrs. Nat Terry and Mrs. Ray Wagner were hostesses when the Justamere Bridge Club met Wednesday in the Ranch House for a bridge luncheon.

Prizes for the afternoon went to Mrs. W. E. Nance and Mrs. John Rhoden, Jr.

Attending as guests were Mrs. C. S. Aycock, Jr., Mrs. Rhoden and Mrs. Robert E. Steanson. Members present were Mrs. Joe Bill Pierce, Mrs. Nance, Mrs. Harold Wilson, Mrs. J. S. McNulty, Mrs. Norman Dawson, Mrs. Joe Huff, Mrs. Tom Cowan, Mrs. Charles Jones, Mrs. Hank Avery, Mrs. Jim Puckett, the hostesses and a new member, Mrs. Robert K. Bradley.

Mrs. Albert Gives Program For Writers

Mrs. A. A. Albert, writer of children's stories, gave the program for the Midland Writers Club Wednesday in the home of the chairman, Mrs. Walter Mork, 404 West Jax Street.

The speaker recently moved to Midland from Lafayette, Ind., where she wrote scripts for a program, "Lady Storyteller," for the Purdue University School of the Air.

A former teacher, Mrs. Albert is the mother of two children. She started writing six years ago when her own children asked for stories. She recently had a 10-issue serial, "The Lucky Antlers," a story about Canada, in "Children's Activities." Her newest book was written as a supplementary text for the second reader.

"To me, writing for juveniles is more satisfying than writing adult stories," Mrs. Albert declared, explaining that "a juvenile audience is an enthusiastic audience, one I purely enjoy because a child's outlook is so clear and uncolored by creed or dogma."

Present were Mrs. Edmund Borys, Mrs. Walker Wilkinson, Mrs. Leonard Swords, Mrs. Albert, Mrs. Brandon Rea, E. J. Elliott, Mrs. Mork and a guest, Mrs. Fern N. Thompson.

Next meeting of the club will be April 22, when three members will read from original manuscripts.

Installation Held By Lion Tamers

Mrs. C. A. Churchill was installed as president of the Lion Tamers Club at the monthly meeting Wednesday in the home of Mrs. Harlan Howell, Andrews Highway.

Other officers installed were Mrs. Howell, vice president; Mrs. Carroll H. Cook, secretary-reporter; Mrs. Morris Howard, treasurer, and Mrs. Allen J. Watts, tail twister.

Mrs. J. S. Noland, the organization's first president, presided for installation. Mrs. W. D. Hargrove and Mrs. L. W. Tanner were co-hostesses for the meeting.

A covered dish luncheon was served to Mrs. Victor Horn, Mrs. Cook, Mrs. Earl H. Ray, Mrs. Noland, Mrs. Kit Carson, Mrs. Carl O. Hyde, Mrs. E. M. Watkins, Mrs. James L. Daugherty, Mrs. T. J. Inman, Mrs. Churchill, Mrs. Howard, Mrs. Bill Collins, Mrs. Robert Pine, Mrs. Watts, the hostesses and a guest, Mrs. Duke Jimerson.

Naomi Circle Holds Program Meeting

Mrs. L. C. Locke was hostess for a meeting of the St. Mark's Methodist Naomi Circle Monday in her home at 1603 North Weatherford Street.

Mrs. C. T. Birch gave a talk on "Before the Gospels" and Mrs. Ned Swallow discussed the section on the New Testament from Georgia Harkness' "Toward Understanding the Bible."

It was announced that a WSCS meeting of the Big Spring District of the Methodist Church will be held May 11.

Attending were eight circle members and Mrs. Swallow, president of the church's WSCS.

Progressive Club Hears Program By Mrs. White

Mrs. Charles O. White discussed "The Scriptures of Zoroastrianism" when the Progressive Study Club met Wednesday in the home of Mrs. Donald N. Johnson, 1404 West Kansas Street.

The program was one in a series of studies by the club this year on "Higher Religions."

Many of the precepts of Zoroastrianism are based on Christianity, Mrs. White explained.

The religion, she commented, is based more on prophecy than law, recognizes deeds and action as the source of salvation, and teaches that earth, air and water must be kept free of defilement.

Zoroastrianism is characterized, she said, by a doctrine of dualism, that of good and evil, each of which has its followers.

During a business session, club members voted to donate subscriptions to several magazines to the Midland Memorial Hospital.

Guests for the meeting were Mrs. Wylie Phillips, Mrs. W. H. Oswald and Mrs. R. W. Bybee.

Members present included Mrs. Perry Pickett, Mrs. Sol Bunnell, Mrs. Hugh McCullough, Mrs. E. A. McCullough, Mrs. C. E. Long, Mrs. J. Ford Schrock, Mrs. H. B. Welch, Mrs. White, Mrs. A. A. Jones, Mrs. H. C. Jones, Mrs. R. A. Estes, Mrs. W. C. Kimball, Mrs. George J. Hells, Mrs. W. E. Cox, Mrs. Lindsey Latham, Mrs. John Younger, Mrs. K. E. McFarland, Mrs. Henry A. Wienold and the hostess.

Program Meeting Held By P.E.O.

A program on "Names in the News" was given when the BS Chapter of the P.E.O. met Wednesday in the home of Mrs. C. Bingham, 2600 West Cuthbert Street.

Mrs. John Casselman led the program, with all members present participating. Mrs. D. A. Ross, president, presided.

Others attending were Mrs. Clark J. Matthews, Mrs. C. P. Underwood, Mrs. Russell Ford, Mrs. Dave Henderson and Mrs. Van Camp.

A Good Investment

The American Cancer Society, through its state and local affiliates, again is conducting its annual campaign for funds in Midland and throughout the state and nation.

Many persons, in considering the request for contributions, doubtless will ask themselves just how important it is that they give to this cause.

Some also will say with justification, "I've given year after year and still we're threatened by cancer."

Each man's answer will be his own.

Our answer is based on the one word, "Hope."

It must be remembered that the long hard road of research can turn at any moment. A look at the record of scientific achievement will prove this better than anything else.

The death rate from rheumatic fever declined 53 per cent between 1944 and 1950, the last year for which figures are available. Deaths from pneumonia and influenza declined 47 per cent in the same period.

The over-all death rate in the U. S. was reduced 15 per cent from 1937 to 1950. This represents a saving of 1,763,347 lives.

This tremendous improvement is due directly to the development of the sulfa drugs, penicillin and other antibiotics.

In Pittsburgh, Pa., a scientist, after long years of research, announced a new experimental vaccine which appears to be effective in preventing polio. This same scientist also has discovered a vaccine for preventing influenza.

These wonderful jailers of infection, however, did not leap full-blown from the minds of their creators. They were the results of many patient years of plodding investigations.

And so, too, can it be with cancer. If the public can provide funds to keep the scientists at work long enough they will find the complete answer. Already, half of those who develop cancer could be saved by early diagnosis and prompt treatment.

Take the case of the Odessa lad, about whom we read in Wednesday's Reporter-Telegram. He will graduate from high school this Spring simply because someone knew something about cancer, and because his case was diagnosed and treatment started promptly.

Last year alone more than $4,000,000 was allocated to research by the American Cancer Society. It is planned to increase the figure this year.

Your generous contributions not only will help solve the riddle of cancer, but will help alert Americans to its dangers through an effective program of education.

Cancer can be—it MUST be conquered!

One Time It'd Be A Pleasure To Go Into Action

The Washington Merry-Go-Round

Drew Pearson says: McCarthy and Dulles enjoy diet of Stassen-meat; Hell's Canyon project proves hot spot for Ike; Bureau of Standards should be above party politics.

WASHINGTON—Senator Joe McCarthy was hurrying back to his office. He had just lunched with John Foster Dulles where the secretary of State stroked the Wisconsin senator's fur back into place after Mutual Security Boss Harold Stassen had ruffled it by condemning McCarthy's private agreement with Greek shipowners.

As McCarthy bounced into his office, reporters started firing questions at the luncheon. "Girls," he said to his staff in a loud voice for all to hear, "I'm going into my room. If you hear any news about Stassen jumping out of a tall building, let me know at once."

What did you and Secretary Dulles have for lunch? queried a reporter. "It was very pleasant," replied Joe Stassen-meat." Note—Stassen was the man McCarthy boomed for President in 1948, worked for him diligently at the OGP convention in Philadelphia, Ike's Power Problems.

Genial Donald McKay, the hard-working secretary of the Interior, is having a tough time making up his mind about the biggest remaining water-power project in the United States—Hell's Canyon. In fact, he's very much on the spot.

Probably the reason is that he can't get a definite decision from the White House. During the presidential campaign, General Eisenhower almost took a stand on this dynamite-laden Oregon project between Idaho and Oregon. But he didn't. He still hasn't.

Last Summer Ike was invited to a meeting of Western state governors in Boise at the office of Idaho's Governor Len Jordan, where it was expected that he would come out for private development of the Snake River by the Idaho Power Company.

However, opponents of the private utilities, including his brother Milton, got very busy backstage. The national inspired several newspaper editorials warning Ike that the question of public power vs. private utilities was full of political headaches.

JACOBY ON BRIDGE

By OSWALD JACOBY. Published by NEA Service. "This was a very unlucky hand," said Hard Luck Joe. "The spade finesse was wrong, the club finesse was wrong, and they defended the hand too well."

Bridge score table showing North (D) 10, West, East, South, and North-South v. l. with various card counts and opening lead information.

Let's go back to the play of the hand and see what actually happened. West opened the six of spades, South played the queen, and West paused for a moment's reflection.

Joe needed at least two club tricks to make his contract, so he next led the ten of clubs and let it ride for a finesse. East won with the king of clubs and returned his last spade. Now West could take three spade tricks to defeat the contract.

You have the same evidence that was available to North. As you can see, the spade finesse was wrong, the club finesse was wrong, and West did make a fine defensive play. Nevertheless, Joe would have made his contract if he had played the hand properly. Do you see how?

South can do nothing about the first trick. When East leads the eight of spades at the second trick, however, South should not play the queen. Instead he should finesse the nine!

CARD Sense

Q—With both sides vulnerable, the bidding has been: West North East South 1 Spade 2 Diamonds Pass? You, South, hold: Spades 7-3, Hearts K-Q-5, Diamonds 4-2, Clubs K-Q-J-6-3-2. What do you do?

WASHINGTON COLUMN

Question Is: In Whose Hands Will Loan To Brazil End Up?

By PETER EDSON. NEA Washington Correspondent.

WASHINGTON—The big deal whereby U. S. Export-Import Bank lends Brazil $300,000,000 apparently is going to be completed in the immediate future, but there's still some mystery about who will get this money, eventually, and what for.

The vagueness of detailed accounting on these multi-million-dollar international loans always is a source of wonder to any little guy who ever went to a local bank and tried to borrow a thousand bucks to modernize the plumbing.

In the case of the little guy, the banker will examine everything from his charge accounts to his mother-in-law's false teeth. And not one dime more than what's necessary to pay for the modernization will be advanced. But in government high finance, they don't seem to do things that way.

Brazilian Ambassador Walthor Moreira Salles now has returned to Washington with his government's apparent approval for the terms of the Ex-Im Bank loan to Banco do Brazil. There may be some minor changes made in the bulky document that is the loan contract.

But the expectation is that the deal soon will be buttoned up. This will end some six months of talking about it. At no time, it is understood, did the Brazilians come in and tear their hair demanding a loan. But in September they let it be known that they could use the money, to pay off American firms from whom they had bought more goods than they could pay for, in dollars. And since the Argentines got a loan like this, why not Brazil? Estimate Upped

Last December a delegation from Banco do Brazil, which is 52 per cent government owned, came to Washington to discuss its country's strained finances. At that time it looked as though a mere $100,000,000 would tide the Brazilians over.

In the first two weeks of January two U. S. Ex-Im Bank officials went to Rio to check up. There they discovered that what the Brazilians needed to set their financial house in order was more in the nature of $400,000,000.

At the start of the Korean war, Brazilians had ordered a lot more U. S. products than actually were needed, fearing shortages. On top of that, the Argentine wheat crop had failed and Brazil had to buy $120,000,000 worth of American wheat.

Brazil's normal shipments of coffee and other exports to the U. S. give her an annual dollar-earning capacity of around $800,000,000 a year. But Brazil has an expanding economy, an appetite for more than a billion dollars' worth of American goods a year. Last year, however, Brazilians may have ordered as much as a billion-and-a-quarter dollars' worth of American goods.

Not having earned that many dollars, Brazil couldn't pay for these imports. A loan therefore became necessary. Somehow, it is figured that the Brazilians will be able to earn enough more dollars to get their accounts current by July. They then will be able to order more goods, and under new, free-exchange regulations, it is hoped that everything will be dandy.

When it comes to finding out which American firms will wind up with the American dollars which the Ex-Im Bank is lending the Brazilians, there is only the sketchiest information.

his coat pocket. The cab pulled up just in front of Mannering's car. The walker stopped by the side of it. Mannering looked at the walker, a fellow of medium build, wiry, strong-looking, with sultry dark eyes and a long, narrow chin—a face which it would be difficult to forget. The man rested a slim, saw-toothed hand on the door of the car; the window was down. "Can I help you?" asked Mannering stiffly.

No one else was in sight. Gray houses looked drab and aloof. "Sure," said the other ironically, and raised his right arm, with the elbow crooked. There was an automatic in his hand; that, and the slow, deliberate approach, did odd things to Mannering's nerves. "Get out," the man said.

Mannering smiled broadly, hiding his tension. "But I don't want to get out." "Maybe you don't, but you're going to." So murder wasn't intended. He took out his cigarette case. "You've a nice, direct manner," he said. "Smoke?" "Don't talk so much." The man turned his right side towards the door and showed the gun again; this time, he did not push it back into his pocket. "I want to talk to you. If you won't come—" He didn't finish.

THE cigarette case was warm between Mannering's fingers. He could bring it down on the hand resting on the window and do away with immediate danger. He glanced at the cabby—and saw a gun in the man's right hand. The muzzle rested on the wheel. So they would shoot him unless he obeyed.

BOOKS FOR THE BARON

by Anthony Morton BARON. COPYRIGHT 1952 BY JOHN CRESSY - DISTRIBUTED BY NEA SERVICE, INC.

THIS STORY: John Mannering, who is the Baron, a mysterious figure on the side of law and order, is the great-grandson of the late Lord Philip Lithorn of Lithorn, unwilling to believe her father's accidental death, he travels one evening when she sees her father's body in the library. Mannering, unable to find the corpse, in search over the head of an unknown intruder after he discovers what may be bloodstains. It takes his detective to Superintendent Bristol of New Scotland Yard.

afternoon, Mannering was evasive to his wife, Lorna, about the bump on his head, and he told her he was going back to Lithorn. Suddenly he was gay, enthusiastic. "You must come too," he said. "I may need you."

Lorna looked at him long and levelly, and as she started to say yes, he pulled her close.

MANNERING sat at the wheel of his car, outside his flat. Bristol's interest was aroused, and he had the green light to go ahead. And, despite chorus of satisfaction, there were grounds for thinking Gloria was right. Now if Caldecott and Mary would play—

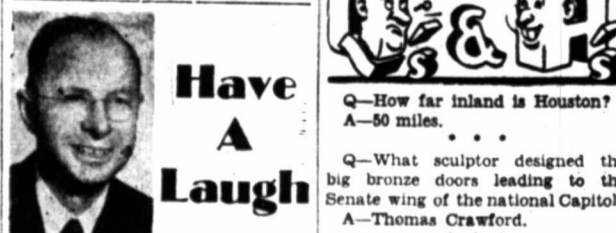

Two years ago, Caldecott had been robbed of some precious folios, including two Shakespeares and Mannering had helped to get them back. Mary Scott, a distant relative of the book collector and dealer, was country born and bred; she was the daughter of a country parson, and Caldecott was worried lest London life palled. Mannering had not thought of Mary until he had reached Scotland Yard.

He saw a man walking slowly towards him on the same side of the road, but paid him no attention. "Sergeant Longley—made a bit of a name for himself when you were chasing after Anstruther's lost Shakespeares folios, didn't he?" "Yes. Books are his hobby."

"Is he a susceptible young man?" "He won't go ogling Gloria Lithorn if that's what you mean."

"Oh, I wasn't thinking of Gloria. But I know a nice young lady who also knows a great deal about books and rare manuscripts, and I think she would be willing to help," said Mannering. "I want to get some young blood into Lithorn Hall, so I'm going to arrange for this young lady to go down to catalogue the books. Your Longley will be an expert, consulted for the first day or two."

When he reached his flat that

Barbara Ann Walden Is Wed To Jack Love McClellan Here

Barbara Ann Walden became the bride of Jack Love McClellan in a ceremony April 3 in the First Methodist Church, with the pastor, Dr. Luther Kirk, officiating.

The newlyweds have returned from a wedding trip to Ruidoso, N. M., and have established residence at 3209 West Storey Street.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. V. Walden, 1109 Mogford Street, and is employed as a secretary for the Midland National Bank.

She attended McMurry College, Abilene, where she was member of T.I.P. social club and served as 1952 editor of the To-Tem, school annual.

The bridegroom, who is a geologist for Gulf, is the son of D. J. McClellan of Lubbock. He was graduated from Texas Technological College, Lubbock, with a bachelor of science degree.

He is a member of the American Association of Petroleum Geologists and at Tech was a member of Silver Key Fraternity.

Attendants for the couple at the wedding were Dolores Walden, sister of the bride, and Jack Henchey.

The bride was wearing a powder blue suit with navy shoes and a white lace hat. She carried white gardenias and white carnations on a white Bible. For traveling, she changed to a tan suit with brown and white accessories and a white gardenia corsage.

The wedding reception was held in the home of the bride's parents.

Mary Ann Adams Feted On Birthday

Observing her thirteenth birthday, Mary Ann Adams, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Emery, 1608 North Edwards Street, was honored with a party Wednesday.

The refreshment table was centered with an Easter lily and the color theme featured the Girl Scout colors, yellow and green.

Games of monopoly furnished entertainment for the honoree and her guests.

Guests were members of Girl Scout Troop 29, including Sally Taylor, Helen Sue Thompson, Betty Barber, Jane Adams and the leader, Mrs. R. E. Taylor. Mary Lou Cassidy also was a guest.

Employe Club Forms Governing Board

ANDREWS—A governing board of five members to direct the club's business and plan entertainment was chosen when approximately 60 employes at the South Fullerton Stanolind Gasoline Plant held a barbecue.

Serving on the board will be Mrs. J. J. Lebeaux, H. H. Tidmore, L. R. Page, A. E. Barnard and J. R. Lee. In charge of arrangements for the barbecue were J. J. Pittman and Tidmore.

CAMERA CALL!

Everybody likes to talk about the weather, and it was Mark Twain who supposedly said that nobody ever does anything about it. But we do . . .

Like a few weeks ago we suggested that you take flash-pictures in the rain.

Or, like now—when we suggest that you take advantage of April clouds. Maybe you never looked at them this way—but "clouds" can be truly beautiful things, especially when you use them as part of the "balance" or "composition" in a picture.

And it's so easy. Just slip a simple "filter" onto the lens of your camera (any camera) and you'll get terrific cloud effects. Also better skin tones on people's faces. And a lot more. And they cost only a buck, maybe two.

Even dark clouds have a silver lining—when you get them in your pictures! Ask us, huh?

Daddy Ringtail

Daddy Ringtail And Save Fifty Dollars

Daddy Ringtail, your monkey friend, lives far away in the Great Forest, up in the top of a very tall tree, right there in the monkey house.

Mother Ringtail had wanted a new radio for Christmas. Nobody had known she wanted it. Nobody had given her one. On the morning I am telling you about, she still didn't have one.

Then the man on the radio said something about Mr. So-and-So, the man who sells new radios. The man on the radio said Mr. So-and-So had real good radios at real low prices.

SIDE GLANCES

"You've embarrassed your father again—you're getting along too far in school to ask him a lot of questions!"

"I have more radios than I know what to do with," said Mr. So-and-So. "Mother Ringtail, you can save fifty dollars if you buy this one."

Mother Ringtail thought about this. Save fifty dollars! What a happy thing to do. The price was fifty dollars less than it used to be.

Mother Ringtail was about to buy the radio. She was all happy with the thought of saving fifty dollars. Who wouldn't be happy to think that? You would be happy too, I'm sure.

"Well," said Mother Ringtail to Mr. So-and-So, "I think I'll buy this radio."

THE WORLD TODAY— Divided Germany Proves Russia Only Talks Peace

By JAMES MARLOW
WASHINGTON—(AP)—There is no clearer illustration of the remoteness of peace with Russia than two statements issued late Thursday, one in New York, the other in Washington.

Premier Malenkov has been talking peace since Stalin died. His representative in the United Nations, Andrei Y. Vishinsky, got up there Thursday and declared among other things:

The North Atlantic Treaty Organization, the Schuman Plan, the European Defense Community and plans for re-arming West Germany must be abandoned; the atom bomb must be banned at once; the U. S. must stop building up its own arms.

The No. 1 trouble with the proposals was that they were not new. Vishinsky had talked the same way while Stalin was alive. What he said showed once again that:

The West's economic and military buildup is bothering Russia. This probably reveals precisely why Malenkov is talking peace so hard: To slow it down or scuttle it before it gets too far advanced.

Free Elections Challenge
In Washington, after three days of conferences among President Eisenhower, West Germany's Chancellor Adenauer, Secretary of State Dulles and other officials, the State Department issued a statement on where they agreed.

All of it involved Germany but in it these officials:

Challenged Russia to show its good intentions by letting the East Germans have truly free elections; said they were convinced there can be no lasting solution of the German problem unless Germany is reunited peacefully and democratically; agreed West Germany must be rearm as part of a single European army and that the U. S. would help West Germany rearm.

Until this statement the Russians had been drenching Western Europe with their peace propaganda without much challenge from the U. S. to get down to cases on what it would do about some of the most important problems.

Eisenhower had told a news conference he would meet the Russians halfway. And Dulles last week said Russia could show its good heart by agreeing on a peace treaty for Austria.

Best Testing Ground
But by throwing Germany at the Russians, since final settlement on Germany is one of the keystones to any real peace, the Eisenhower-Adenauer agreement offset some of the Russian propaganda.

There can be no better testing ground of Russia's earnestness for peace than Germany. Nevertheless, the State Department statement was at the opposite pole from Vishinsky's proposals.

It's possible the East and West, starting from those extreme positions, may some day be able to meet on common ground. It won't be soon.

The Russians run East Germany. Reports from there indicate the East Germans—and refugees from East Germany bear out the reports—are so fed up on the Russians and Communists that in any free election they would turn overwhelmingly against both.

Until now, Russia has balked at letting East and West Germany unite. True, a united Germany some day might be sucked into the Russian camp through trade or through Russian-trained German Communists taking over the government from within.

But future German statesmen, unless they were Communists, hardly could believe they would be able to deal too closely with Russia without wounding up a Russian satellite.

A united Germany, once Russia and the Allies cleared out and if the Germans were able to rearm, might take over the key position in Europe itself by playing off the East against the West. Eisenhower doesn't seem to fear this.

But a united Germany, after its experience with the Russians since the war, might link itself so closely with the West that it would become an impassable barrier against any Russian aggression in the future.

Eisenhower and Dulles seem confident on which side a united Germany would be.

Conferees Labor On Spending Bill

AUSTIN—(AP)—The "compromise" appropriation bill being whipped into final shape Friday may exceed the amount of state spending originally proposed by either the House or Senate, a member of the conference committee said.

The lawmaker is one of 10 assigned by the House and Senate to try to iron out differences on how much to spend for essential state services the next two years.

He said the reason the compromise may involve a larger amount than the Senate's proposed $166,200,000 is that each house had voted for some spending not contemplated by the other.

For instance, the Senate said it wanted to increase state employees' salaries 10 per cent; the House bill provided for no general increase.

The House voted to increase the appropriation for junior colleges $1,400,000, that wasn't in the Senate version.

The Senate voted to spend more than $2,000,000 for a permanent tuberculosis hospital building at Tyler, that was not in the House bill.

The conference committee was working Friday while the House and Senate were enjoying their usual weekend lull.

Sessions of the committee remained secret, but some members talked freely about progress toward final agreement—with the understanding they would not be quoted by name.

The House originally voted to spend $180,600,000 less than the Senate suggested.

Senator Otis Lock, Lufkin, chairman of the Senate panel, and Rep. Max Smith, San Marcos, leader of the House group, were hopeful final, mimeographed versions of the compromise would be on desks of senators and representatives by Saturday.

Unofficial reports said 20 persons had been arrested.

Federal police here said the spy ring was financed by unnamed Eastern powers.

It was believed the suspects also were involved in illegal shipment of strategic materials to Eastern sources.

The police action was taken under the act for protection of the constitution and followed widespread search raids.

West German Red Spy Ring Smashed

BONN, GERMANY—(AP)—West German police reported Friday they had smashed an industrial espionage ring working for the Eastern Communists in West German industrial plants.

Unofficial reports said 20 persons had been arrested.

Federal police here said the spy ring was financed by unnamed Eastern powers.

It was believed the suspects also were involved in illegal shipment of strategic materials to Eastern sources.

The police action was taken under the act for protection of the constitution and followed widespread search raids.

3D Movies Create Local Problem

The first showing of three dimensional movies in Midland caused a great deal of comment. John Henry Smythe felt that they were "interesting, but imperfect."

Joe S. Doakes summed the situation up as follows, "I've been suckered." We're afraid that we have to agree with both of these commentators.

But, it did set us to thinking that we hadn't properly presented this lawn mower problem to the followers of this column. We invite you into the store to see one of these wonderful Jacobson mowers. We can give you a three-dimensional view of it, its length, breadth, and height, but that is as far as we can go. Now, when you come right down to facts, there is a fourth, and even a fifth dimension. The three we have mentioned, which concern the physical size of the mower, and two more—TIME (which Einstein recognizes as fourth) and WORK (which he hasn't yet got around to setting up in a formula).

Our problem, therefore, is to get you to recognize that you can save dimension 4 and 5 by having one of these Jacobson beauties on your own lawn. All you gotta do is say "Send it."

How does LIFE get so TANGLED?

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Sunday	Monday	Tuesday	Wednesday	Thursday	Friday	Saturday
Book	Deuteronomy	Leviticus	Acts	Romans	Romans	I Corinthians
Chapter	5	6	27	2	13	1
Verse	1-21	2-11	26-40	22-31	1-11	8-14
						16-23

Interesting thing about a rope—it rarely becomes tangled when it's serving some useful purpose. It stretches firm and taut... reaching... holding.
But lay the rope aside... waiting without a purpose... and it becomes so tangled you can't even find the ends.
Life is like that! For some folks it seems an impossible tangle of conflicts, worries and disappointments. They haven't discovered how to devote their strand of years to a vital, constant purpose.
But for others life stretches firm and taut from birth to Eternity. The tangles disappear as men reach across time to hold certain the truths by which God would have us live.
Life without tangles... life with purpose... discover it in Church next Sunday!

Municipal Election Vote Gets Official Approval By Council

The results of last Tuesday's city election, in which the voters named a new mayor and three city council members, became official Thursday afternoon.
 The City Council canvassed the returns, found them to be no different than indicated in the complete unofficial returns, and declared J. W. McMillen as the newly-elected mayor and John Hills, R. A. Estes and John Ed Cooper as the newly-elected councilmen.
 The new officials will be sworn into office on the afternoon of April 23.

Texas Reporter Covering Korean War Leaves Mark By Naming Battleground

By The Associated Press
 Bill Barnard's former co-workers in the Associated Press Bureau at Dallas chuckled...
 He smiled in Corpus Christi, too... and in Austin... and in Amarillo and Longview... everywhere they knew Barnard. And in Texas he's well known.
 Because Barnard, AP correspondent covering the Korean War, is a former state editor in the Dallas bureau. And because he loves Texas as so much a piece of Korean real estate—a battle field now—forever will be known as "Outpost Texas."
 Barnard himself to the core, from his infectious smile to his South Texas drawl, Barnard knew Texans would like a hill of their own in Korea, where so many Texans have fought and died.
Barnard Speaks Up
 So, at Wednesday's Eighth Army tactical briefing, when it became apparent that the 2,000-foot hill on the East Central Front where South Korean and Chinese soldiers were fighting would probably become a Korean landmark, Barnard acted. "Let's call it 'Outpost Texas,'" he said. "I've been here a long time and never got a chance to name a hill. This may be the last hill battle before the war ends. I'm sure all Texas would be proud to have it called Outpost Texas."

 The other correspondents, smiling, too, agreed. And Wednesday night it was used in the Eighth Army's tactical summary—making it official.
 The Eighth Army's report said Outpost Texas had been recaptured by South Koreans to climax four days of steady fighting between the communists and the South Korean Third Division.
Texans-Like Fighters
 The Chinese seized the height Sunday and in the next two days

the outpost—Texas now — changed hands four times.
 The South Koreans counter-attacked Wednesday but were driven off by a cross fire and artillery barrage.
 Then came Barnard's name for the blood-strewn bit of rock and dirt—Outpost Texas.
 And in the fighting tradition of the state half a world away, the Koreans struck again shortly after nightfall. In just 45 minutes they stormed to the top and routed the company of Chinese.
 Outpost Texas was back in friendly hands.
 And William C. Barnard, late of Corpus Christi and Dallas, probably went about his work rounding up news for the world—especially Texas—with that same old boyish grin.

In Seoul and Tokyo Barnard has become known as one of Texas' most enthusiastic boosters during his two and one-half years covering the war.
 They say all over the war zone that when Barnard interviews soldiers and airmen, it's a good 10-to-1 wager that there will be a Texas connection.
 Said a former co-worker of Barnard's in Dallas: "Just wait, those South Koreans will be speaking with a Corpus Christi drawl and calling each other 'Tex'."

Permian Estates Plat Given Okay By City Officials

A plat of the second section of Permian Estates, rejected two weeks ago for annexation, was approved Thursday afternoon by the City Council.
 There was no indication if and when the plea for annexation would be renewed, although, at the time of its rejection, Raymond Thomason, Sr., indicated that the proposal might be submitted later.
 The area covers 515 acres immediately west of the present Permian Estates addition.

WTCC Urges Full Rights For States

ABILENE—Elimination of grants-in-aid to states which are not "clearly constitutional obligations of the federal government" and of taxes on "sources of income that rightfully belong to the state," is being urged by the West Texas Chamber of Commerce.
 The organization's position is expressed in a resolution adopted by its directors. It was submitted by the WTCC President B. Wright Armstrong of Fort Worth.
 The Texas Legislature is urged to call upon the Congress to take steps to restore to the states "all rights and privileges that have been taken from them by the federal government." The resolution requests that rightful functions of the states be eliminated from the system of federal grants and aids, but that those which the state and local governments may see fit to continue be financed from local and state taxes.

Ambulances Too Fast, Says Doctor

JACKSONVILLE, FLA.—(AP)—Do ambulances go too fast?
 Some doctors think so and have brought the subject before the Duval County Medical Society.
 "Only 42 per cent of all ambulance patients transported might possibly be called emergencies," Dr. L. L. Parks said in the report of a survey. And, he added,
 "It is believed that if the ambulances were required to observe normal speed limits and not be permitted to break red lights or use sirens, the number of lives lost by observing normal traffic regulations probably would not be more than the number of people injured and killed at the present time by speeding ambulances."

Little Big Horn Boots Are Found

HARTINGTON, NEB.—(AP)—A collector of Western relics claims he has the black cavalry boots worn by Gen. George Custer at the Little Big Horn massacre.
 The collector is Martin Nelson, 77, former Cedar County official and one-time mayor of Hartington. Nelson said he bought the boots in 1915 from an Indian who swore he got them from a survivor of the battle.
 A National Park Service historian said the boots are of the type worn by Army field officers in 1876. The expert said many items of Custer's apparel have turned up since the famous massacre but not the boots.
 The oldest item in Nelson's collection is a six-foot musket with the date "1811" carved on the handle.

Bulldog Nine Seeks First League Win Against Steers

A miserable start warrants a second beginning, and that's what the Midland Bulldogs hope to do Friday when they are host to the Big Spring Steers in a District 3-AA baseball encounter.

The game is scheduled at 4 p.m. Friday in Indian Park and marks both clubs' second venture in district competition. The Steers were vanquished by San Angelo, 16-0, Tuesday while Midland took a beating from powerful Odessa, 9-0.

Midland Coaches Keith Bobo and Louise Grevelle gambled with Boyce McKnight against the Bronchos, but it appeared nothing could stop the Odessa freight from coming through on schedule. It treated McKnight with disdain and carried on against Reliever Snookie Roberts in the same manner.

Coach Bobo announced Thursday he is again calling on McKnight as the Bulldogs seek their first favorable conference decision. Bobo, too, has made two lineup switches in hopes of rejuvenating his club. The changes send Robert Payne to second and Joe Bowman into center field.

The rest of the lineup remains the same. It is Jesse Hatfield in left field, Gwyn Grisham at shortstop, Walter Wingham at first base, Dick Spencer in right field, Bill Kiser at third and Rusty Rutledge behind the plate.

Big Spring pitchers also took their lumps Tuesday. The Bobcats had a heyday at the expense of Frank Long, Heygood and Charley Rose. Rose managed to get off with only one hit in one inning, but the other pair gave up 14 safeties over the first five frames. Meanwhile, Big Spring could touch Don Peebles for only three safeties, one a double by Hayworth.

Indian Errors Pave Way For 2-1 Sinton Victory

By CHARLEY ESKEW

SINTON—Midland's traveling Indians yearned for home and the honors of batting last as they moved into Temple and a night game Friday against the Big State League Eagles of that city.

There's a big chance Midland gets to meet an old friend—former Indian Pitcher Herb Dwire, who is on the Class B club's roster. But until that 8 p.m. game there, Midland was bemoaning that it didn't have last at bat Thursday night.

It was with ninth-inning home honors that Sinton's powerful semi-pro Oilers scored their deciding run in a 2-1 victory over Midland—a second such one-run defeat for the Indians.

Last week, Austin whipped Midland—against the same losing pitcher as Thursday night—by scoring a run in the last of the tenth.

Against Sinton, right-hander Ralph Blair saw his four-hit pitching (and 1-1 ball game) go sailing when he yielded a fifth hit to Tex Auld (former Boston Red Sox player) to start the final half of the ninth.

A sacrifice, by Ken Peacock (Brownsville), failed to bring an out when substitute first baseman Lou Dawson misplayed and threw into the dirt to Roger Della Betta covering first. Both runners advanced.

Blair then walked Ed Peacock (Sweetwater) and gave way to Eddie Jacome on the mound. That appeared a good move for the Indians when Jodie Howington (Waco), the pitcher, bounced a hit back to Jacome, an obvious double-play ball. Jacome, though, threw too swiftly from too short a distance for Catcher Bowland to hold it. It bounded out of his mitt as Auld crossed the plate with the winning run.

Otherwise, the game proved to be the best of the season for both Midland and Sinton. At the start, Manager Haney of Midland said he was shooting the works—trying to use Blair for a complete game and inserting Bowland and Jim Prince into the lineup for their first time. Haney's move worked all the way—considering that Blair was equal to Howington until two fatal errors in the ninth. Then Bowland looked good, netting one hit of Midland's seven, while Prince was the king of them all.

Big Jim, for his first time up this season, drilled a screaming liner into right field—off a left-handed pitcher—for Midland's first hit, in the second inning. He came back later to punch a two-bagger into left field.

But until then, Blair was working on a masterpiece, save for one gopher pitch. The blond bomber put Sinton's Gordon Donaldson (Tulsa), Odie Strain (Kansas City) and Red Borom (Dallas) down in order in the first only to have Dave Pluss (Fort Worth) blast a let-up pitch over the 360-foot wall in right field in the second.

That blow, plus one walk in the same inning, enabled the only Sinton players to get on base until the two Peacock boys, Ken and Ed, hit consecutive singles in the fifth inning.

Midland threatened Howington's one-run game constantly.

In the fourth, Bowland collected his hit, a single, and Prince came to bat his second time and rapped his second hit—the double. It chased Bowland all the way home with Midland's single run. Prince's chance of scoring ended when Hayden White filed to center and Tex Stephenson lined out to left.

Midland threatened again in the fifth when Roger Della Betta, with one out, drilled a single into right field and Scooter Hughes followed with a one bagged past the third baseman.

Howington, however, got Julio de la Torre to bounce into a double play, thus bringing on the final four innings of a tight pitchers duel.

Midland got its lead batter on in mid threats during each of the last three innings.

Bucs Humble Yanks; Raschi Homer Victim

By BEN PHLEGAR

Associated Press Sports Writer

The Pittsburgh Pirates, probably some of the most harmless Buccaners ever to fly the skull and crossbones, were enjoying a hearty laugh Friday after meeting and conquering the vaunted New York Yankees.

They not only conquered the world champions, they humiliated them.

The score at Forbes Field was 10-5 with eight fat Pittsburgh runs coming off the high priced slants of Vic Raschi, one of the prides of the Yankees.

Ralph Kiner, Cal Abrams and Danny O'Connell slashed home runs off Raschi before the fast balling right-hander took cover after seven innings. In all, the Pirates got 13 hits off Raschi and two more off relief man Tom Gorman.

A tremendous home run over the roof of the double deck right field stand by Mickey Mantle was the only solace for the Yankees.

The Athletics pitted their best against their intercity rivals' best at Portsmouth, Va., and came out on the short end as Robin Roberts pitched a five-hit shutout for the Phillies and won, 4-0.

Bobby Shantz gave up only two hits and struck out seven in the five innings he worked for the Athletics, but he gave up the first of the Phils runs and was charged with the loss.

The new Milwaukee Braves got in only two innings against their former city rivals, the Boston Red Sox, and were trailing, 3-0, when a heavy drizzle put an end to the proceedings at Milwaukee.

Cincinnati, which announced Thursday that it intended to be called the Redlegs instead of the Reds this season, belted five home runs off Ned Garver and defeated Detroit, 13-3, at Columbus, Ohio.

At Kingsport, Tenn., the New York Giants picked on the offerings of Bobby Feller for seven runs in the first six innings and outlasted the Cleveland Indians, 7-6.

Against Southern Association opposition the St. Louis Cardinals whipped the Memphis Chicks, 12-5, and the Chicago White Sox blanked Atlanta, 7-0.

In a night game the Brooklyn Dodgers committed four errors as they lost their second straight to the Senators at Washington, 6-4.

The St. Louis Browns and Chicago White Sox called off their game in Kansas City because of wet grounds and cold weather.

Harbert's 68 Pacing Field In Masters

AUGUSTA, GA.—(AP)—Chick Harbert, who has 35 years of golf behind him at the age of 38, hopes he can win the seventeenth Masters Tournament and at long last break into the inner circle of golf champions.

In 14 years as a professional, the World War II Air Force veteran has been in the almost-but-not-quite category when it came to the big ones.

The brassy Detroit pro, an all-round athlete in high school and college, shot an early four-under-par 68 in Thursday's opening round, and sweated it out all day as favorites such as Sam Snead, Ben Hogan and Lloyd Mangrum tried to overtake him.

He held a one-stroke lead at the start of Friday's second round. Tied for second with 69's were Ed (Porky) Oliver and Al Bessiekin, who like Harbert are long off the tee and always dangerous contenders.

Hogan needed only to par the last two holes to tie Harbert for the lead, but the 1951 Masters champion missed short putts on both and had to settle for a 70. Hogan and Milon Marusic were tied for fourth.

Snead shot a 70, too, but his playing partner, Byron Nelson, made a mistake in keeping score and gave him a par four on the eighteenth instead of the three he actually scored with a fine chip shot that hit the cup.

Snead signed the card without noticing the error. There was a lot of excited discussion when the mistake was caught, and the officials ruled Snead had to take a 71 if he wanted to continue his pursuit of his second consecutive Masters victory.

Tied with Snead for sixth were Ted Kroll, Bob Hamilton and Tommy Bolt.

Only three strokes separated the low nine players, and another stroke back at par were amateurs Dick Chapman and Frank Stranahan and Pro Skip Alexander.

WACO —(AP)—Texas outclassed Baylor and Southern Methodist University here Thursday to take a triangular field and track meet with a total of 84 1/2 points.

SMU had 60 for second, and Baylor was third with 25 1/2.

SMU also took the freshman events with 722 3/4. Baylor was second with 44 and SMU had 41 1/3.

Charley Thomas of Texas breezed through sprints taking the 100-yard dash with a time of 9.6 seconds and the 220 in 20.5.

Gerald Scallorn of Texas swept the hurdles taking the 120-yard high hurdles in 14.5 and the 220-yard low hurdles in 23.4.

Raymond Vickery, Baylor freshman, outdid all of the varsity and freshman broad jumpers, leaping 21 feet 10.

In the freshman 100-yard dash, Clyde Hart of Baylor staged the upset of the day, beating Joe Childress Peugh of Texas by coming from behind in the last 30 yards for a time of 9.8. Peugh came back to take the 220-yard dash from Hart.

Wes Ritchey of Texas Christian was not officially competing but tossed the javelin for 186 feet eight inches. The event was officially won by Byron Cox of Baylor with 159 feet, 6 1/2 inches.

"I feel fine and dandy, and I think I could play some golf," she told a sports writer. But when she was asked what her malady was she referred him to her husband, former wrestler George Zaharias.

Zaharias said they wouldn't know until tests have been made. An announcement is expected by Saturday.

SPORTS PARLEY

By CHARLEY ESKEW

SINTON—On rejoining the Midland Indians in Spring training after a two-weeks absence, here's what we find, a lot of capsuled items of news:

First of all, the Indians aren't wishing Keith Nicolls, last year's 20-game winner, any bad luck with Colorado Springs of the Class A Western League, but if he fails to make that club on his Spring tryout, they'll welcome him back with open arms. As things stand now, Midland will welcome any pitcher.

Manager Jay Haney promised his present foursome of twirlers plenty of work when they departed Fredericksburg's Jimmy Tyka Park, the town's one movie house, and one shuffleboard game, to begin a four-game exhibition swing homeward.

Ralph Blair was asked to go nine innings against Sinton. Eddie Jacome gets the same call at Temple Friday, Ben Quintana at Wichita Falls Saturday and Bud Sisk, the big 220-pound rookie, at the same place Sunday.

The prospect of a full game's work, and maybe adding some relief work too, had the Indians on the lookout for another pitcher, consequently they thought of Nicola.

Freddie Rodriguez and Romarico Soto, it seems, won't be able to join the team until just before the season starts if they make it at all.

Midland fans wondering about the team's hitting will take heart in Manager Haney's answer: "We've got the power. In fact, I'm satisfied with the showing of the team all around. We just need to get another pitcher."

He was echoed by Roy Easterwood, Sinton manager and former Oklahoma City great, who told the Indians they were the best balanced team the Ollers have faced. That includes Class A Lincoln, Neb., Class B Harlingen and Corpus Christi and

MHS Teams Off To District Meet

By ABE WEINER
Reporter-Telegram Staff
The Midland High School track team Saturday returns to the scene of one of its most glorious days this season and at the same time to the scene of one of its biggest disappointments.

This, of course, would be Broncho Stadium in Odessa, where the Bulldogs tripped the light fantastic to a 43.2 sprint relay record and to a 3:28.4 mile relay mark in the recent West Texas Relays. The 440 mark was not allowed, however, due to passing out of lane—thus the reason for Midland's disappointment. Occasion for Saturday's jaunt is the District 2-AA track and field meet which finds opposition coming from favored and defending champion Odessa, strong Lubbock, Big Spring and Lamesa.

While Broncho stadium is the scene of the track events, district golf play will take place at the Odessa County Club and the district tennis and girls volleyball are scheduled elsewhere.

Midland's chances of upsetting the Bronchos are exceedingly slim, but there's another incentive besides the team triumph. The first three finishers in each event qualifies for the regional meet to be held at Lubbock two weeks hence.

Coach Edwin Nixon's squad is in tip-top shape with one exception.

Sprinter Jimmy Watson still is favoring an injured foot, but he is expected to compete even though he may not go at full speed.

Nixon pins his hopes for victory in the mile relay foursome of Dale Jobe, Bill Mims, Roddy Braun and Roy Kinsey; in the low and high hurdles where Robert Keisling cavorts; and in the 440-yard run which is Kinsey's specialty. He has hopes of his 440-yard relay team of Watson, Braun, Mims and Kinsey coming through also.

The team which will make the trip besides the aforementioned includes Terry Fuglar and Larry Palmer, pole vault; Ormand Hubbard and Keisling and Palmer, high jump; Jobe, Watson and Jimmy Hicks, 220-yard dash; Braun, Hicks and Watson, 100-yard dash; Lionel Crisp, shot put; Mims and Keisling, discus; Keys Curry and Harvey Diemer, 880; Bob Mace, mile run; Keisling, Paul Moran and Hicks, broad jump.

Midland stands a better chance in golf. Coach Audrey Gill's quartet finished third at Texas A&M last week and should do better Saturday. It is made up of Marcello Moreno, Lee Sneed, David Breedlove and Buzzy Bray.

The volleyball team scheduled to make the trip is Janna Lou Switzer, Billie Jane Henson, Louise Bralley, Betty Bolton, Nancy Creswell, Clea Outbrih, Gay George and Clorita Newsome.

Tennis entries are Ellen DeChicchia, girls singles; Carolyn Farris and Janna Murray, girls doubles; Bill Vandeventer, boys singles; and Jimmy Garvin and Johnny Godwin, boys doubles.

WRITERS PICK YANKEES, BUMS TO WIN FLAGS

NEW YORK—(AP)—If the New York Yankees and the Brooklyn Dodgers meet in the World Series again this Fall don't say you weren't given fair warning. An Associated Press poll of the Baseball Writers' Association shows the experts are stringing along with last year's major league winners.

The Dodgers got the biggest vote as 105 of the 142 participating writers selected them to fly the National League championship colors for the third time in five years.

Eighty-seven said New York's American League entry would make it five titles in a row.

Two Midlanders Still In San Angelo Golf

Two Midlanders—Gloria Ezell and Lou Meadows—fought their way into the second round of the San Angelo Women's Invitational Golf Tournament Thursday, but the end comes for one Friday when they tangle with each other.

A third Midland entry, Lanty Fay Garrett, fell to defending champion Nelle Moody of Sherman, 7 and 6. Mrs. Ezell defeated Mrs. Bernice Carson of San Angelo, 4 and 3, while Mrs. Meadows tripped Mrs. Ruth French of San Angelo by the same score.

The top match Friday pits Miss Moody against Lucy Hunter of San Angelo. Mrs. Hunter defeated Mrs. Ida Mae Powell, medalist, 5 and 3.

Ex-Neighbors Match Pitches In SWC Tilt

FORT WORTH—(AP)—Two promising soph hurlers, former neighbors, will match pitches this week end when Texas A&M and Texas Christian University play a Southwest Conference baseball game.

The young hurlers are Tommy Hill of the Horned Frogs and Joe Hargrove of the Aggies.

They grew up a block apart in Burleson, near here, and used to round up teams for a game every Saturday.

City Bowling Tourney Begins Saturday

Twelve teams literally start the ball rolling at 5:30 p.m. Saturday at the Plomer Lanes in the Midland City Bowling Association annual championship tournament. The tourney continues Sunday with singles and doubles competition and picks up again a week from Saturday with more team play.

The field this year is the largest ever, Secretary Berte R. Haigh said.

Class C Odessa. Sinton won five of seven against those.

Five-foot-six Scooter Hughes, shortstop, at last has found a pro ball player he can call "shorter-than-I-am" and, by that token, the pair give Midland one of the shortest keystone combinations in baseball. Hughes calls Roger Della Betta, second baseman. "Shorty" because both of them are the same height.

Art Bowland, the catcher, looks at the second base twosome and worries about his pegs to their base. He has considered bouncing his throws to them but likes the suggestion of a wag much better—that a catcher not be given an error when he overthrows them on a stolen base try.

Jim Prince's single and double in his first two times at bat this season were a perfect way to end a year and a half's absence from baseball. All he'd had to bat at before arriving in camp Wednesday night were pitches by high school boys and, said Jim, "They tried to put me out instead of throwing so I could get my timing."

Two ex-Midland neemes, from Odessa, had little to offer against Sinton's Ollers in recent games. Evelio Ortega, now with Corpus Christi, was routed in a four-run first inning when Sinton beat the Aces Sunday. Then Al Sokolowski started for Odessa here Wednesday and gave up six runs by wild pitching seven times, walking a half-dozen while two men hit safely. Sinton continuing on to an 8-2 victory over the Odessa club.

Grandfalls Top
Rated In 88-B
Track Saturday

KERMIT—Grandfalls has been nominated as the logical successor to Pyote as District 88-B track champion, but the defending champions have sounded intentions of waging a stiff battle here Saturday before being relieved of their crown.

Besides these two powerhouses, Barstow, Toyah and Balmorhea will be present for the meet.

Pyote is pinning its hopes on workhorse Joe Bill Carter, who is entered in the two sprints, the 880-yard run, the broad jump and the high jump.

Although that's a big task for one youngster, Carter is the favorite in all but the latter. He finished fourth in the state Class B 880-yard run last year but failed to place in any other event. However, he has beaten his competitors in all five events in recent practice meets.

Balmorhea's main threat is Jim Reeves in the high jump, while Gene Hair of Grandfalls is one of the outstanding performers scheduled to be here.

Permian Basin Oil And Gas Log—

Operations are to start at once. Western Natural will drill a 14,000-foot project four and one-half miles southeast of the Townsend (Wolfcamp) field and in the west-central portion of Lea County. Drilling has been staked 660 feet from north and 1,980 feet from west lines of section 35-16a-35e. It will be drilled as No. 1 Millard Edison.

Location is 330 feet from north and 815 feet from west lines of section 35, block 4, H&GN survey. It is 10 miles southwest of Clairmont and two and one-half miles north of the Cogdell field which produces from the Pennsylvanian lime as well as from several higher pay sections.

Phillips Will Test Devonian In NE Andrews Wildcat

Phillips Petroleum Company is preparing to test the Devonian through perforations at its No. 1-RR Texas University, wildcat in North-Andrews County. The wildcat indicated production from the Devonian, topped at 12,450 feet, minus datum point of 9,399 feet, when a drillstem test at 12,460 feet recovered oil and gas cut water blanket and 41-gravity oil. Drilled to 13,853 feet in the Ellenburger, the propped flowed 174 barrels of oil in 15 hours through a one-half-inch bottom and three-quarters-inch top choke on a 20-hour and 15-minute drillstem test of the Ellenburger. The test was from 13,805 to 13,853 feet.

Oil, Gas And Water Developed On DST In Andrews Wildcat

Humble Oil & Refining Company No. 2-0 State University, wildcat in South-Central Andrews County developed oil, gas and salt water from a drillstem test of the Wolfcamp. Interval tested was 8,724-8,746 feet. Tool was open three hours. Gas surfaced in 12 minutes at the rate of 50,000 cubic feet daily. Recovery was 95 feet of 39-gravity oil, 370 feet of oil and gas-cut mud and 560 feet of salt water. More hole was being made below 8,803 feet. Location is 1,980 feet from south and east lines of section 20, block 1, University Lands survey and 10 miles south of the town of Andrews.

Amerada Preparing To Potential Oiler In Yoakum Field

Amerada Petroleum Corporation was preparing to take potential test and complete No. 2 Weems, third producer for the Bronco (Devonian) field of Central-West Yoakum County. Operator tested open hole from 11,780 to 11,812 feet for eight hours. During that time the well made 787.85 barrels of oil, 4.87 barrels of basic sediment and no water. The gauge was through a one-half-inch choke. The open hole section had been washed with 500 gallons of mud acid.

Shell Is To Honor 230 Employees At Saturday Party

More than 230 employees of Shell Oil Company in the Midland area will be honored by the company Saturday night at a banquet in this city. The affair will be held in the Crystal Ballroom of Hotel Scharbauer. The persons who will be honored are members of the Shell "10 And Over Club." They all have 10 years or more years of service with the concern. The Saturday night affair is the annual meeting of that group in this area. The 230 persons are to be honored have a total of 4,366 years of service or an average of 18 years per person. Seven new members will join the group Saturday night. They are persons who have completed 10 years of service and will be paid special honors by H. B. Brooks of Denver City, who will serve as master-of-ceremonies for the party. Senior employe from standpoint of service who will be honored is G. L. Buland who completed 33 years of Shell work on January 1 of this year. Nelson Wallace of Midland is also in the top bracket for long service having finished his 33rd year on March 1. Special guests will be 13 retired Shell employes who live in the Midland area. A musical variety entertainment program will be a feature of the party.

Globe Finds Water In Pennsylvanian Lime In SW Kent

Globe Oil & Refining Company No. 1 Spies, Southwest Kent County wildcat which is projected to 7,500 feet of production in the Pennsylvanian found only a show of gas and water in the top of the Pennsylvanian lime formation. That formation was topped at 6,850 feet on an elevation of 2,233 feet. It drilled to 6,860 feet and took a two-hour drillstem test at 6,850-60 feet. No Shows of Oil. Recovery was 300 feet of gas cut mud and 1,320 feet of salt water. There were no shows of oil. The prospector is now making hole below.

Howard Wildcat To Drill Deeper

Glenn H. McCarthy and S&W Company of Houston No. 1 Doyle Vaughn-Magnolia, wildcat in Central-West Howard County is rising up cable tools to deepen after pumping tests of the Clear Fork at 3,196-3,231 feet recovered 12 barrels of oil per day. The section had been acidized with 1,000 gallons prior to installing pump. Location is 2,970 feet from south and 330 feet from east lines of section 12, block 34, T-1-N, T&P survey and seven miles west and slightly north of the town of Big Spring.

Site Marked By Preacher Brings Byers Salty Water

BYERS, TEXAS—(AP)—Drillers for this dust-dry Northwest Texas town hit water Friday in the well a Methodist preacher told them to sink. It was too salty to drink. Besides that, there was just a trickle of water. But they kept on drilling—hoping to punch through to a good supply. City officials began checking a spring-fed stock tank a mile and a half north of town on a farm owned by J. B. Dunn, father of Mayor Milton Dunn.

They also hunted a 4,000-gallon water truck. Fire Chief W. W. Fleming said if the truck could be found, he could haul enough water daily from a stock tank on Bill Lyons' farm three miles southwest of town for drinking, cooking and sanitation. He estimated that would be about 20,000 gallons a day. The Rev. Eldon Cole, pastor of a Methodist Church at nearby Archer City, Thursday pointed his Y-shaped brass rod a few hundred feet from Byers' dry lake and said, "Drill there."

Officer Talks TCU Students Into Halt On Panty Raid Plan

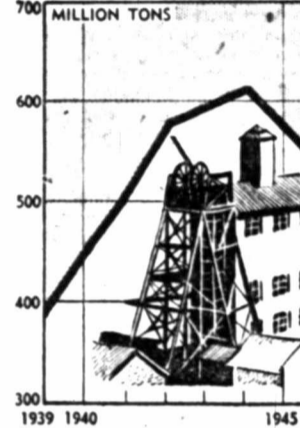

FORT WORTH—(AP)—Policeman E. D. Moyers, a Korean veteran, talked 100 yelling TCU pupils out of their second attempt at a panty raid Thursday night. H hour was scheduled for 11:30 p.m. Moyers drove up just before the jump-off time. Artillery, in the form of a hurled rock, was laid on the approaching police car. But the softening up fire failed as did Wednesday's raid which was dispersed by a line shot fired by a night watchman. Moyers said "I told them fun was fun but I was going to look up the first one who went into a woman's dormitory without permission." A TCU spokesman said Friday that seven boys identified as leaders in Wednesday night's futile foray had been placed on "strict probation."

Training Of Scout Leaders Emphasized In Midland Program

Training of Scout leaders has been getting special emphasis this week in Midland. Charley Grable, deputy regional Scout executive from Dallas, has been in Midland with his mobile training library to aid in the Buffalo Trail Scout Council's program to train new leaders for Scout work. Grable has been working primarily with training men who will in turn train leaders. The council has devised a plan to place a team of three men each for each phase of Scouting in each of the council's nine districts. These teams will aid leaders in mapping programs for Scout training. Harlan Howell, district training chairman of Midland, heads the training program in this area. Heading the individual Midland teams are Bill Price for Cub Scouts, Russell Cotton for Boy Scouts, and Ed Stitt for Explorer Scouts. The team leaders will add two men each to their groups and start their program of training Scout leaders.

BITUMINOUS COAL PILE SHRINKS—The Korean war "peace feelers" have caused many to rejoice, but a great number of bituminous coal miners may lose their jobs should a truce be declared. Some coal-using industries have stopped buying and in anticipation of a production cutback. This would cause layoffs in the mines if and when the war ends. Above Newschart shows production in the bituminous coal industry from 1939 to the present. High point was 1947, when over 630 million tons were mined. Experts feel that production may drop below 400 million tons during 1953, the lowest point since 1939.

Downey Funeral Rites Conducted

Funeral services for Frank James Downey, 62, Midland independent oil operator, were held at 10 a.m. Friday in the First Presbyterian Church, officiating by Rev. Matthew Lynn, pastor. Interment was in Resthaven Park under the direction of the Newell W. Ellis Chapel. Downey, a resident of Midland the last 18 years died Wednesday in a Dallas hospital following an illness of 18 months. Survivors include the widow, two daughters, Mrs. Anson Nash of El Paso and Mrs. Frank Johnson of Midland, and a sister, Mrs. Lula Farley of Lafayette, Ind.

Prison Sentences In Two Of Three Cases Suspended

District Judge R. W. Hamilton continued to hear guilty pleas in 7th District Court Friday afternoon after recording three penitentiary sentences during the morning. Two of the terms were suspended. Van G. Gauvain, 19, member of a pioneer Big Spring family, received a two-to-three-year prison sentence on embezzlement charges. He has served time in the state penitentiary on conviction at San Angelo. A four-year term for Donald Wesley Gulick, alias Charles Wilcox, 31-year-old Midlander, on charges of theft by bailee, was suspended. Ross Bell, Jr., 24, of Odessa, had his two-year sentence on theft charges delayed also.

10 In Midland Area Receive Fingerprint School Certificates

Two women were included among the 10 West Texas law enforcement representatives receiving certificates Friday at the conclusion of the week-long, FBI-directed fingerprint school at Terminal. Harvey G. Foster, FBI agent in charge here, was to present certificates to Betty Mowry and Patsy Roden of the Odessa Police Department as well as Ollie W. Carnes, H. H. Jackson, S. E. Haley, Otis Guy Parker of Odessa, Oscar D. Luttrell of Fort Stockton, Billy J. Mills of Ozona, James Holley of Midland and James D. McDonald, Crane police chief. Holley is assistant identification officer of the Midland Police Department. Midland Police Chief Harold Wallace signed the certificates as sponsor of the school.

Investigation Goes Ahead In Summy Case

CRANE—Law officers here were continuing their investigation Friday of the mysterious death of Herbert J. Summy, 52, former Midlander who was found asphyxiated in his auto near Crane last week. A hose was connected to the exhaust pipe and inserted through the window of his car. A fresh and unexplained cut on Summy's face, however, led Sheriff M. E. Lear to believe he may have been murdered. Summy, an Odessa and Fort Worth drilling contractor, formerly was division superintendent for Sinclair Oil and Gas Company in Midland.

Government Charts Course In Actions On Alleged Cartels

WASHINGTON—(AP)—The Republican Administration has set its course in the projected anti-trust action against an alleged international oil cartel, involving major American companies, which it inherited from the Democratic regime. The proposed civil anti-trust action was announced late Thursday by Attorney General Brownell. He refused, however, to say he would drop a criminal anti-trust investigation, begun by the Truman Administration and now in the hands of a federal grand jury here.

Economic Crisis Erupts In Peron's Argentine Realm

BUENOS AIRES—(AP)—Col. Domingo Mercante, once a trusted friend of President Juan Peron and his late wife, Eva, was ousted from the Peronista Party Friday on charges of being a rumor monger. Seven former members of Congress similarly were removed. This action followed the suicide Thursday of Juan Durante, brother of Eva and Peron's private secretary until he resigned Monday. The news of Durante's action created a sensation in Argentina, which has an economic crisis caused by rocketing living costs. The party's action against Mercante came after vehement charges by Peron that a "rumor campaign" was being waged against his administration. Peron declared such a campaign could not overthrow him. Price ceilings on food went into effect Friday. Peron has threatened to jail profiteers in a move to hold back food prices, which have risen almost 50 per cent in two weeks.

FOUR-BIT COAT NOT LAMENTED

DECATUR, ILL.—Mrs. Don Armstrong was among the workers at a rummage sale Thursday and when she got ready to go home discovered her coat had been sold by another helper—for 50 cents.

Some keys, a driver's license and a small amount of cash were in her coat.

"I hope I get the keys back," Mrs. Armstrong said. "But if the coat isn't worth more than 50 cents I think I need a new one."

West Texas Gas, Humble Fight Bill On Minimum Price

AUSTIN—A committee hearing on a bill to fix a minimum price for gas at the well in the Panhandle was recessed Thursday until Tuesday.

Two more opponents were heard and three are yet to testify. George Dupree of Lubbock, representing the West Texas Gas Company, told the Senate even a one-cent raise would cost the company's 82,000 consumers about $150,000 a year.

"Any increase must be passed on to the consumer," he said. Rex Baker, representing Humble Oil & Refining Company, a gas producer, said he opposed the bill on principle.

"Enactment will open the field to go all the way in price fixing in his state," he said. He admitted some price "levils" but argued demand would correct them.

Michigan Senator Blasts School Grab At Tidelands Money

WASHINGTON—Senator Potter (R-Mich) lashed out Friday at "demagogues who are using education in general, and teachers in particular, as tools" to gain support for federal control of oil-rich offshore submerged lands.

"I shall bitterly oppose those demagogues," Potter said in the sixth day of Senate debate. The legislation would establish state ownership of lands beneath the marginal seas within state boundaries.

Potter's remarks were directed at an amendment proposed by Senator Hill (D-Ala) and others. The proposal would use federal revenues from the offshore resources to finance a system of federal aid to the states for schools.

"I am not impressed," Potter said, "by those who argue that the passage of this state ownership bill would favor three states at the exclusion of others, nor am I disturbed by those who argue that federal ownership is necessary to the best interests of our national defense."

Potter contended all 48 states have valuable resources beneath navigable waters. He said the states are just as much interested in national defense as the federal government.

Lost Coin Spells Death For Chicagoan

CHICAGO—Howard Silverman, 18, was electrocuted Thursday when he attempted to retrieve a quarter. Three friends risked their lives to aid him.

Silverman was flipping a quarter on the platform of a loop subway station when it fell to the tracks. He jumped down, slipped on a wet spot, and fell with his legs across the third rail and another rail, completing an electric circuit.

LIONS BANQUET DIGNITARIES—Past District Gov. and Mrs. James L. Daugherty, left, and Zone Chairman and Mrs. C. Ed Prichard, all of Midland, were among the dignitaries present at the twenty-fifth anniversary banquet of the Midland Lions Club Thursday night in Hotel Scharbauer.

Lions Mark Twenty-Fifth Anniversary At Banquet

A gala birthday banquet held Thursday night in Hotel Scharbauer marked the twenty-fifth anniversary of the Midland Lions Club, which was organized April 9, 1928. More than 175 Lions and their ladies from Midland and neighboring cities attended the function, at which awards were presented to Dr. David M. Ellis and Barney G. Grafa, charter members who still are active in the club. R. D. Scruggs, another active charter member, was out of the city Thursday night.

Dr. Tom C. Bobo, a non-active charter member, was introduced. George Spence of Ysleta, governor of District 2-T-2, Lions International, was the principal speaker, and Frank Stubbeman, a 23-year member and past president of the Midland club, was master of ceremonies. The invocation was given by Claude O. Crane of Durango, Colo., another past president of the club here.

Early History Recalled
Stubbeman, in his introductory remarks, recalled interesting incidents in the early-day history of the club. He introduced Mrs. DeLo Douglas, who spoke briefly concerning happenings which occurred during the years she served as the Lions Club's first Sweetheart. Mrs. Ronald James, current Sweetheart of the club, also was recognized. Special musical entertainment was furnished by the "Sickly Six" of Midland High School.

International Councillors James L. Daugherty of Midland, Joe Pond of Big Spring, and Roy L. Carter of Kermit, all past district governors, and Zone Chairman C. Ed Prichard of Midland were introduced as special guests.

Other out-of-city guests introduced included Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Lipscomb and Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Warren of Wink. Past presidents of the Midland Lions Club in attendance were recognized, including Stubbeman, Crane, Daugherty, Prichard, James S. Noland, Joe Mims, Bill Collins, John P. Butler, R. C. Conkling and J. P. Carson, Jr. L. V. Bassham is the current president, and Duke Jimerson is president-elect.

Lion Tamers Introduced
Receiving special recognition were the past presidents of the Midland Lion Tamers Club, including Mrs. James S. Noland, Mrs. Victor Horn, Mrs. Bill Collins, Mrs. L. V. Bassham, and Mrs. James L. Daugherty. Mrs. C. A. Churchill is the new president of the organization.

Governor Spence, in his address, discussed the overall program, objectives and individual benefits of Lionism.

"Lionism, in which there are no political or religious barriers, promotes a spirit of understanding and cooperation between all men," he stated.

The governor presented a 20-year membership chevron to John P. Butler, and 10-year awards to J. P. Carson, Jr., Ray O. Howard, Harlan Howell, Joe Mims, T. E. Neely and Ernest Sidwell.

Neely Terms Christianity Strongest Anti-Red Weapon

"We are losing the fight against Communism," William B. Neely, former mayor of Midland, warned Thursday night at a meeting of Men of the Church of the First and Westminster Presbyterian Churches.

"We are losing," the attorney said, "because we're trying to out-sell the Communists in Europe, Asia and the rest of the world—trying to out-sell them in products they themselves can provide as well as the United States."

"Our present anti-Communist forces are weaker than the Communist forces in that we deal only in material things—airports, roads, buildings and guns—which the Communists can produce and supply at almost the same rate as we," he said. "But," he continued, "the Communists also are selling a concept, poor as it may be, to those people. Here, they say, 'become a Communist and find a utopia in this world.' And we have yet to bring our strongest and greatest weapon to play."

"That weapon is Christianity," Neely stressed. "Our big mistake is that we don't get around to telling anybody about it," he continued. "We build airports, give land and food and supply guns—but we never give the peoples of the world another concept or belief in which to place their trust. The Communists offer them a belief and we offer nothing," he said.

Serving as master of ceremonies at the banquet-meeting was Otto Deats, president of the men's organizations. Guests laughed at the antics of the "Sickly Six Minus One" band, a group of high school students including Robert Payne, Jr., Jim Ten Eyck, Charles Worthen, Fella Patterson and Jimmy Smith. Bill Crenshaw reported on organization plans after an invocation by the Rev. Henry Stafford, assistant pastor at First Presbyterian Church. Dr. R. Matthew Lynn, pastor of First Church, gave the benediction.

Both Parties Enjoined In Church Row

Picketing of construction work at the First Baptist Church by a local labor union has been forbidden and the construction company has been forbidden to refuse employment because of union membership.

The injunctions were issued Thursday by Mrs. Lucille Johnson, 70th District Court clerk. After Judge R. W. Hamilton entered judgment in the suit of Houston Hill, Inc. vs. Construction & General Laborers Union Local No. 92.

A temporary restraining order was issued against the union February 24. Hill had asked that the union be enjoined from picketing the construction work going on at the church.

After several postponements, the suit was heard by a jury March 26 and a verdict on special issues returned March 27. The jury was to determine the facts in the case.

Three special issues were answered in favor of the construction company. Result of this is order for permanent injunctions against the labor union, prohibiting it or its officers or agents from:

(1) picketing the company, its place of business or the construction site at the church;
(2) "coercing, threatening or otherwise intimidating" any employees into joining the union either as a condition of employment or continued employment; and
(3) "attempting to induce" the company into recognizing the union's collective bargaining agent of common laborers as the "defendant does not represent the majority" of the laborers.

On the other hand, the issue the jury decided in favor of the union has resulted in a permanent injunction forbidding the company from "denying overtime . . . or other employment from any member or members of the union or any union" because of membership in a union.

Union attorneys have given notice they intend to appeal but the motion has not yet been filed, Mrs. Johnson said.

Norris, Acquitted By Jury, May Find His Parole Voided

PORT WORTH—Gene Paul Norris, 31, waited Friday to see whether a revoked parole will send him back to prison even though he was found innocent of robbing two exiled Cubans of $248,000.

Norris was acquitted Thursday of the robbery charge by a jury that deliberated three hours.

Norris stood up and said: "Gentlemen of the jury, I thank you from the depths of my heart. It was a just verdict and I thank you." Then he shook hands with his attorney.

Norris was charged as one of two men who robbed Manuel Madarriga and Candido de La Torre at the Western Hills Hotel October 3. The Cubans testified they came to this country to buy arms for a revolution.

Sam Cresap, 41, and Floyd Hill also are charged in the robbery. Hill escaped county jail February 18 and hasn't been caught.

Life Term Given San Angelo Killer

SAN ANGELO—Rudolph Martinez, 43, faced life imprisonment Friday after conviction of murder with malice in the shooting of his daughter.

A jury took three hours and 55 minutes Thursday to agree in the case. The former Wichita Falls dry-cleaning plant employe was charged with the slaying of his daughter, Dora, 18, on a rural road near here last June.

NOW HE NEEDS CANDLES, WINE

LOS ANGELES—Some burglar is all set for a fancy party.

A market owner told police Thursday the following items, altogether worth $470, were missing from his store:
Six cases of fantailed shrimp, four cases of lobster tails, and two cases of frog legs.

FAROUK 'LOSES FACE'
CAIRO—Egypt's government ordered exiled King Farouk's face off the nation's postage stamps Friday.

PRISONER—Capt. Harold E. Palmer of Swea City, Iowa, double jet ace missing over Korea since April 9, is claimed as prisoner by Chinese Reds in Manchuria.

Stepmother Charged In Beating Child, 10

GALVESTON—A little girl allegedly beaten unconscious with a belt Monday showed slight improvement Friday. Attendees said Jewel Kelley, 10, of Texas City was still in a critical condition.

Her stepmother, Mrs. Frances Kelley, 36, was released under $10,000 bond Thursday on charges of assault with intent to murder. A hearing was continued until the girl can testify.

In related action, the legal custody of two other children of B. K. Kelley, employe at the Texas City Chemical Company, was given to the county welfare unit Thursday. Jewel and the other two children, a girl, nine, and a boy, 13, were by a previous marriage.

Jewel was taken to a hospital after her father was called home from work. Texas city police chief O. M. Beard said Mrs. Kelley told him the child had refused to take some medicine.

Partners Are Fined $20,000 On Hot Oil Violation Charges

NEW ORLEANS—Gravis and Mitchell, San Antonio oil producing partnership charged with running 818,000 barrels of oil in violation of the Connolly hot oil act, has been fined $20,000.

Federal Judge Skelly Wright imposed the fine Thursday, $200 on each count of a 100-count criminal bill. The partnership and three individuals entered pleas of no defense.

Sentence will be passed May 13 on William Pickett of Baton Rouge, James Cox and Mervin Bourque, both of St. Gabriel, La.

The government contended that 818,000 barrels of oil produced in the St. Gabriel Field near Baton Rouge from 1946 to March, 1952, were credited to deficient wells in the field.

Court Fight Looms On Buchanan Legacy To Medical Schools

By The Associated Press
A court fight over some $538,000 from the Buchanan Foundation of Texas loomed larger Friday.

The money has been earmarked by the foundation's trustees for a University of Arkansas medical center in Little Rock, Ark., and the Southwestern Medical School (branch of the University of Texas) at Dallas.

The schools were named as defendants Thursday in an amendment to a suit filed by Texas Attorney General John Ben Shepperd. The amended suit seeks an interpretation of intent in establishment of a trust for charitable purposes by William Buchanan, an oilman of Texas.

Shepperd filed the amended petition in 102nd District Court, Bowie County. It asks the court to enjoin foundation trustees from fulfilling commitments of $500,000 to the Arkansas school and $38,000 to the University of Texas.

Shepperd contends that since the trust was created 23 years ago, the only sums spent in Bowie and adjoining counties totaled but $25,728. The petition said Buchanan intended the trust fund to be used primarily in the Texas-Bowie County area.

REDS PRESSURE STUDENTS
BERLIN—(P)—The East German Communists have begun dismissing high school students who participate in Protestant youth activities unless they renounce their connection, West Berlin church sources said Friday.

COP SEES RED, GALVESTON, TOO

GALVESTON—(P)—Policeman L. W. Miller warned a motorist about driving too fast.

"What's your name?" the officer asked.

"I see Galveston," Miller undeveloped the man to say.

"I see Galveston, too," said the officer doing a slow burn. "I asked you your name."

The motorist pulled out his wallet and showed his license.

It read: I. C. Galveston, 1214 30th Street, Galveston, Texas.

Evening Lions Hear Music By Students

A group of elementary school students, directed by Louise Gorman, presented a musical program for members of the Evening Lions Club at their regular meeting Thursday night.

The student entertainers included Donald Abbott, Jimmy Brown, Jerry Hyde, Ben Neatherlin, Nancy Brooks, Patsy Thompson and Charlotte Jackson.

They sang "Home on the Range," "Down in the Valley," "Soldier Won't You Marry Me," "Dese Bones 'Gonna Rise Again," "Froggie Went a Courtin'," "Cindy," and several other selections.

It was announced the club will sponsor matinee and evening performances of the Hagen Brothers Circus here September 10. It also was announced a women's auxiliary will be organized April 29 at a meeting in the home of Mrs. W. T. Moore, 400 East Magnolia Street.

Campaign Launched On Rheumatic Fever Using New Findings

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J.—(P)—A nation-wide preventive campaign against rheumatic fever was launched Friday.

It is the first large-scale effort to put into general use the recently-marshaled evidence that recurrence of rheumatic fever can be prevented by daily use of penicillin or sulfa drug.

The plan is to have some four million Americans—most of the school children—receive a dose of one of the drugs every day for a period of years.

The project—to be undertaken by the state and local health associations throughout the country—is designed to aid the three per cent of the population who have had at least one "bout" of rheumatic fever.

That's the malady which is responsible for most of the heart disease in children and a large share of heart trouble in young adults. It causes more deaths in the first two decades of life than all other communicable diseases taken together.

Bracero Pact Talks Produce No Changes

MEXICO CITY—(P)—U. S. and Mexican negotiations on the bracero farm labor treaty ended Thursday. No major changes resulted.

The Foreign Ministry said the discussions that began March 25 were amicable and satisfactory, although neither side won any of their major demands.
