The new oil well is one location northeast of the discovery well of the area which is four miles northeast of Odessa and 17 miles southwest of Midland.

On the potential test the well flowed 24 hours through a 14 64th inch tubing choke and made 644 barrels of 33.5 gravity oil. No water was evidenced.

From Perforations
Gas-oil ratio was 837-1. Flowing tubing pressure was 1,350 pounds. Casing pressure was 900 pounds.

The production was from perforated section at 13,338-410 feet. That zone had been washed with mud acid and then treated with regular acid. Exact amount of acid used has not been reported.

Location is 1,980 feet from south and west lines of section 8, block 41, T-2-S, T&P survey.

The new oiler was completed for a daily pumping potential of 113.71 barrels of 27-gravity oil (at 85 degrees) from open hole section at 2,041-3,107 feet. Pay was fractured with 1,500 gallons.

The new field opener is one and one-half miles south of production in the shallow Westbrook field and four miles west of the town of Westbrook.

Drillstem test was taken in the Pennsylvanian from 8,567 to 8,611 feet. Tool was open two and one-half hours. Recovery was 4,770 feet of gas in drillpipe and 360 of free 33.6-gravity oil, and 90 feet of oil and gas-cut mud. A 1,000-foot water blanket used also was recovered.

No formation water was developed.

Top of the Pennsylvanian was called at 8,362 feet, with no elevation reported.

More hole was being made below 8,617 feet.

Three WT Openers Find More Flowing Pay Zone On DST's

Gulf Oil Corporation reported three more flowing drillstem tests on three of the concern's prospective new field openers in West Texas.

Gulf and Stanolind Oil & Gas Company No. 1-EH State, which had already flowed oil from the Waddell sand of the Simpson, uncovered flowing production from the Council sand on a drillstem test from 11,801 to 11,871 feet.

This prospect is in Northeast Crane County and 1.871 feet from north and 660 feet from east lines of section 9, block 30, University Lands survey.

On the test, tool was open nine hours and 38 minutes. Fluid surfaced in one hour and 35 minutes. The well flowed 148.56 barrels of clean oil and no water in eight hours. Operator was preparing to reverse out recovery.

LATE NEWS FLASHES

CHICAGO—(AP)—Deputy Secretary of Defense Roger Kyes said Tuesday the Truman Administration's effort to achieve a partial mobilization in a short time after the Korea War started "created a state of indigestion" for both the military and for industry.

VANCOUVER—(AP)—A Royal Canadian Air Force Lancaster bomber, presumably with a crew of seven aboard, was reported overdue Tuesday on a flight from Vancouver Island to San Diego.

NAIROBI, KENYA—(AP)—Security forces Tuesday announced the slaying of the Mau Mau terrorist leader called Simba (the Lion) and two of his followers in a cave hide-out to which they had carried the head of a Somali farm hand, killed in an attack on a white man's farm.

TWO MORE FOR JABARA—Sabre Pilots Bag 12 Commie Jets

SEOUL—(AP)—U. S. Sabre jets shot down 12 Communist MIG's and damaged another Tuesday, boosting their MIG kills this month to 51—just 12 less than the war's one-month record set last September.

The sharpshooting pilots bagged two MIG's each in savage sky battles over North Korea.

Maj. James Jabara of Wichita, Kan., the world's first jet ace now serving his second combat tour in Korea, got two and boosted his total kills to nine. Maj. Jack E. Mass of Red Bank, N. J., doubled his score with two MIG's.

The war's one-day record is 13 kills, one probably killed and seven damaged on July 4, 1952. Tuesday's bag was the biggest since May 18, when 12 Red jets were destroyed.

Five MIG's were shot down Tuesday morning and seven after noon, the Air Force said.

Night-flying B-26 bombers wiped out 90 Communist trucks, destroyed a locomotive, seven boxcars and a railroad bridge in pre-dawn strikes, the Air Force said.

Texas Draft Calls Continue Downward

AUSTIN—(AP)—With a July call for 1,268 men, state draft quotas still are on the downgrade, headquarters said Tuesday.

The figure is the smallest in Texas since September. The June call was for 1,740 men, and May for 2,822, now almost filled.

Local quotas for July will be mailed by June 1. Quotas for July physicals will be mailed May 27.

Less than 50 of the 137 local boards will receive physical examination calls in July. Only 1,125 men are scheduled to be sent for physicals that month, 2,678 less than in June and 3,733 less than in May.

Mrs. Doswell Goes To Prison, Starts Serving Life Term

DALLAS—(AP)—Rebecca Doswell, 33, went to prison Tuesday to start a life term.

The widow of a wealthy Dallas oil man she was convicted of murdering almost two years ago rode in a van with 29 other prisoners consigned to Huntsville State Prison.

The only woman, she was allowed to sit alongside the driver.

Mrs. Doswell was wearing a black print dress with matching hat and well, white gloves, dark shoes and a pair of ornamental earrings. She wore tinted glasses and carried an expensive handbag.

She smiled at onlookers before the van pulled out but said nothing.

Mrs. Doswell was a widow when she married Thomas Doswell in 1948. He was slain Aug. 20, 1951.

The widow testified a 38 caliber pistol accidentally discharged as she handed it to him in the driveway of a residential home.

Investigators found the pistol had been fired twice.

AS TIME RUNS OUT—Hope For Court Bill Still Burns

AUSTIN—A special conference committee of House and Senate members worked feverishly Tuesday to agree on last-minute legislation which would give Midland County a separate district court.

"We met this morning," said Rep. Hulon Brown of Midland, "and we meet again at 1:30 this afternoon, when we hope to get all our differences ironed out.

"Right now, it looks pretty good, unless a filibuster keeps us from getting formal action before the Legislature adjourns tomorrow."

While the proposed legislation would give Midland a separate district court, there was little hope for a separate district attorney until January 1, 1955.

"The counties can pay for a district judge," explained Brown, "but the Constitution says that the states must pay the salary of a district attorney. So the county will not be able to do that.

"If the bill goes through, candidates for the district attorney's job could run for election in next year's campaign and take office January 1, 1955."

Midland County Commissioners Court agreed Monday afternoon to meet the additional district court expenses, if the legislation is approved. County Judge Clifford Keith pointed out that the Legislature has not set up funds for the additional cost and thus it would be up to the county.

This would involve half the judge's annual salary of $9,000 plus half the (Continued On Page 12)

Reefers Hint Of Marihuana Activity Here

A federal narcotics agent Tuesday joined city police officers in investigating the possibility of a marihuana-smuggling ring operating in the Latin American section of Midland.

The federal officer was called in after two 20-year-old Latin American youths were arrested shortly after midnight Sunday outside a Latin American night club.

One marihuana cigarette was found in the pocket of one of the youths while two cigarettes were found in the automobile driven by the other one.

Both still were being held Tuesday morning pending further investigation.

The youth with the cigarette in his shirt pocket told Detective Lt. Billy Patterson he had found it lying on the ground and picked it up without knowing what it was.

"I was standing outside the night club," he said, "and picked it up and stuffed it in my pocket without thinking."

The two youngsters were in a group of four arrested for drunkenness by city police. All four pleaded guilty to the drunkenness charges Monday in corporation court and the other two were released after paying a fine.

Proposal To Remove 30-Minute Parking Ready For Council

A proposal to eliminate 30-minute parking in the shopping areas of downtown Midland, replacing it with one-hour parking, will be presented formally Tuesday night to the City Council.

Chairman Lester Short of the Retailers Committee of the Chamber of Commerce said his group would be present at the meeting, scheduled to begin at 7:30 p. m. in the County Courtroom on the second floor of the Midland County Courthouse.

A petition bearing the names of 55 merchants and asking the change to either one-hour or two-hour parking already has been placed in the hands of City Manager W. H. Oswalt.

Councilmen have indicated they would follow the merchants' recommendation.

DA Says Oil Man Clark Murdered
FORT WORTH—(AP)—Oil man William Clark was murdered, District Attorney Howard Fender said Tuesday.

Fender said an autopsy report disclosed that Clark, found shot to death Friday at his 22-room mansion, could not have committed suicide.

Sizzling Heat Again Almost Drains Supply

A new appeal for water conservation came from city officials Tuesday after water consumption, with the help of continued 100-plus temperatures, soared Monday to a new record mark for the year.

A total of 10,650,000 gallons, only a quarter of a million short of the all-time peak, was used during the day, according to H. E. Nunn, city sewer and water engineer.

Three-Lane Traffic Trial Slated Here

A six-day trial of a third lane—to be used exclusively for vehicles making left turns—will begin Wednesday at Main and Wall Streets.

City Traffic Engineer Jack Kees said workmen will lay out the design of the turning lane Tuesday night and it will be placed in operation Wednesday.

The trial will require the elimination of parking for 100 feet on the right-hand side of each of the four approaches.

Pyramid markers will guide through traffic and right-turn traffic to the two outside lanes while vehicles turning left will proceed along the lane nearest the center strip.

The tests will be conducted from 8 a. m. until 6 p. m. each day through next Tuesday.

The tests authorized by the City Council, will be held to determine the effectiveness under those conditions of the left-turn indicator on the traffic signal light at the intersection of Main and Wall Streets.

Dice Fight Leaves Midland Man Dead

Luck ran out early Tuesday for 18-year-old Roy Lee White and 34-year-old Charles Clem Walker.

Their luck, naturally, ran out over a dice table in the negro section of the city.

Walker was dead and White was in the Midland County Jail while officers continued their investigation Tuesday.

It all started shortly before 3 a. m. Detective Lt. Billy Patterson explained, when White lost all his money in the second-floor dice game at 307 North Lee Street.

Walker, who lived at 204 North Lee Street, wanted to take his place at the dice table but White shook his head.

An argument and a fight ensued. The other players finally separated the pair and White, who lives at 201 South Jefferson Street, left the place.

He didn't go home, though. Patterson said.

Instead, he went to the home of a friend and a few minutes later stalked back into the room and the startled dice players quickly grabbed the hand in which he was brandishing a 38 automatic pistol.

They scuffled awhile and suddenly a shot rang out.

Walker crumpled to the floor, a bullet hole in his back. He died within a few minutes. Justice of the Peace L. C. Stephenson said the bullet pierced his heart.

White disappeared and all available officers, under the command of Lt. Roy Merket, fanned out through the neighborhood.

Officers Gordon Smith and Rogers Walker found him an hour later, walking along a country road five miles away. He surrendered peacefully.

Back at headquarters, Lieutenant Merket began writing out the report on the Case of the Unlucky Gamblers. He checked the number on the previous complaint report and then started on his own:

"Complaint No. 1313," it read.

Plans For World Championship Rodeo Due To Get Final Polishing Thursday

Midland Rodeo plans will receive a final touch at 2 p. m. Thursday when members of the Rodeo Committee of Midland Fair, Inc. meet in the office of President Marion Flynt in the Midland Tower.

Secretary-Treasurer L. A. Bartha said progress reports will be reviewed and action taken on last-minute matters affecting the staging of the World Championship Midland Rodeo, June 3-7.

Members of the committee, in addition to Flynt and Bartha, are John Dublin, Jr., Clarence Scharbauer, Jr., Buster Cole, John Nobles, Jr., Frank Cowden, Jr., Gerald Nobles and Courtney Cowden.

Meanwhile, interest in the big area attraction continued to mount in Midland and throughout the Permian Basin Empire as opening day neared.

Event Well Publicized
Delbert Downing, publicity chairman, said Midland Rodeo is well publicized throughout the territory and that large crowds from over the area are expected at each of the five night shows. He predicted record crowds at each performance.

Reserved seat tickets will go on sale at 9 a. m. Monday in the lobby of Hotel Scharbauer, George Cone, ticket sale chairman, announced.

The huge grandstand and the rodeo grounds at Midland Fair Park on East Highway 80 are being readied for the big show. The parking area also is being cleared and smoothed.

The first shipment of tough rodeo stock is expected to arrive here Thursday or Friday and will be unloaded at the fair grounds. The remainder of the broncs, Brahman bulls, steers and wild cows will arrive over the weekend.

Parade Plans Complete
Everett Colborn, producer and managing director of the rodeo, is expected to arrive Saturday or Sunday from his Lightning O Ranch headquarters near Dublin, Texas.

The finishing touches are being made on plans for the opening day parade by Duke Jimerson and members of his committee.

The procession, the longest, most complete and most colorful in the history of Midland Rodeo, will move through the downtown section at 4 p. m. Wednesday, June 3.

"A good rain right now is all we need to assure the success of the 1953 show," one rodeo official declared.

Midland Member Will Seek Presidency Of FFA District

At least five Midland FFA members will be in on the competition Thursday through Saturday at the Future Farmers of America Area II officers meeting in Alpine. They'll join teams from Garden City Pecos and other cities in the big four-district event. Midland will send Gary Waters as candidate for area president, plus the campaign band of Harold Jennings, Don Sorge, Harold Logan and Jay Norwood, who'll also seek the entertainer's spot in July at the state convention in Fort Worth. Garden City, on the other hand, will send Jan Burns, sweetheart of the El Rancho district, to compete for area sweetheart and thus open the way for competition at the state meeting. Jan is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kelly Burns of Garden City. The Garden City chapter band also has been invited to play at the Alpine meeting. In addition of the sweetheart and band, Garden City will send Wilburn Bednar, area reporter and M. A. Barber, chapter adviser.

Earl Esenwine, president of the Pecos group, as the Star Lone Star Farmer will compete for the area title in Alpine. In other Midland area FFA developments, Pecos has named district officers and Garden City has reviewed its year's record and named new chapter officers. Elected to district offices for the 1953-54 term were these Pecos lads: Louis Waters, district president and Joe Taylor, secretary. Harry Blenden and Lloyd Rumsey, vocational agriculture teachers, were named district advisers. Returning from a fishing trip to Buchanan and Inks Lakes, the Garden City chapter pointed to the following progress in group activities. First of all, the chapter helped construct a barn valued at some $7,500 for use of chapter projects. Chapter members also constructed highway welcome signs on each highway into Garden City. Elder Chevrolet Company of Midland furnished a pickup for the Garden City chapter's use. The group's feeding program closed with these awards listed: two of the three champion lambs at the Garden City show, a reserve champion in the San Angelo show, sixth places in Odessa and Fort Worth and 11th and 14th places in El Paso. New officers who'll guide the Garden City chapter include John L. Phillips, president; Bill Johnson, first vice president; Truett Newell, secretary; Gary Mitchell, treasurer; Lewis Mitchell, reporter; Jimmy Smith, parliamentarian; John L. Daniel, centinel; Marion Carter, historian; Eugene Jammy, second vice president and Jimmy Don Cotter, third vice president.

President Of Giant Banking Corporation Quits Post In Huff

SAN FRANCISCO —P—Sam H. Belgrano resigned as president of Transamerica Corporation Monday because of "unhappy association with some board members" of the vast banking empire. Husbands quit as the board elected Frank N. Belgrano, Jr. president of the First National Bank of Portland, Ore., to the board chairmanship. Belgrano succeeds James F. Cavanaugh, who also resigned, Cavanaugh quit to concentrate on private business and recommended Belgrano as his successor. Cavanaugh remains a board member. Husbands' successor as president was not named. Husbands gave as reasons for his resignation (1) "arrangements made by certain board members to elect Belgrano without consulting Husbands and (2) continued unhappy association with some board members." He would not elaborate. Husbands had headed the 300 million dollar firm, founded by the late A. P. Giannini, since June 1, 1948. Belgrano, a member of the board, has been associated with the corporation since 1928. Robert Louis Stevenson died in the South Pacific and was buried on the peak of Vaea in the Samoan Islands.

Ailing Red-Party Chief Wins Battle To Escape Trial

NEW YORK —P—William Z. Foster, American Communist Party chairman, has won a new and probably lasting stay from standing trial on charges of conspiracy to teach and advocate violent overthrow of the government. Federal Judge Sylvester J. Ryan Monday granted an indefinite continuance in the case after saying a trial might kill the 73-year-old Foster, who had a bad heart. SANTA MONICA, CALIF. —P—Suit for divorce has been filed by Actress Diana Lynn against John C. Lindsay, architect. The complaint, filed Monday, alleges cruelty. She and Lindsay, 34, were married in 1948 and separated last January 5. They have no children. MAKE FRIENDS

"I just didn't get a chance to telephone you that I couldn't keep our appointment." There is rarely any excuse for that kind of feeble alibi. Remember that the other person's time is just as valuable as yours and you won't excuse yourself so easily for neglecting to do the thoughtful little things that take only a few minutes.

You can make the "chance"—if you want to.

Library Plans Special Activities For City's Youth

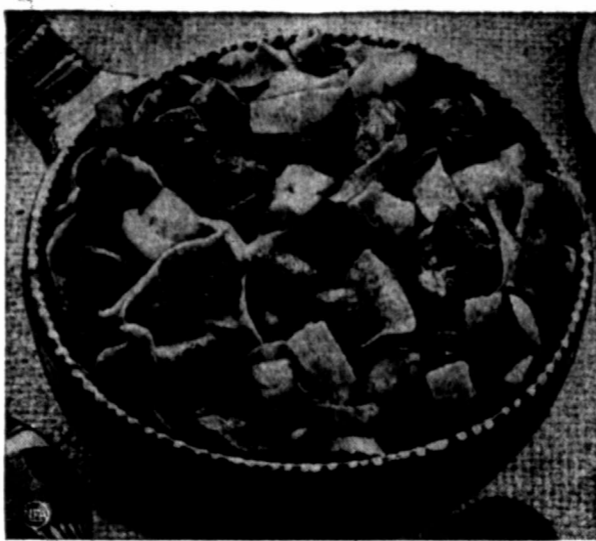

Plans to assist the young people who wish to enjoy the books and periodicals of the Midland County Public Library during the vacation months have been announced by library officials.

For those who wish to participate, the library will conduct a "Bookland World Tour." The games involve reading ten books, and participants will be issued their "passports" any time they wish to join after June 1.

Each Monday at 4 p.m. in the children's room an hour long program will be presented. There will be story-telling, and a motion picture will be shown. Children will discuss their current reading with other children and a library assistant. Members of the newly-organized Friends of the Library will assist with this program.

Next Monday, at 4 p.m., the film, "Children of Japan," will be shown. Leona Mettesser, children's librarian, will tell a Japanese legend and exhibit dolls which she recently brought from Japan. She will wear a Japanese costume.

The regular story hour on Saturday morning at 10:30 a.m. for younger children, age five years and older, will be continued through the summer. Storytellers for this program are members of the Midland Service League.

VAQUERO GUISADO, once a favorite chuck-wagon stew of Texas cowboys, is now modernized and served with corn chips.

Try Cowboy Stew, Corn Chips

By GAYNOR MADDOX
NEA Food and Markets Editor
SOUTHWEST, TEXAS—Most of the Texans I saw on my 1,000-mile tour of the Lone Star State were tall, lean, handsome. There's a spurious rumor that many of them—especially the cowboys—were raised on chuck-wagon stew.

Neil Morris, recognized authority on Texas cooking, says the stew's rightful name is "Vaquero Guisado." Years ago, the majority of the Texas cowhands were of Mexican origin, she explained. Guisado is Mexican for stew and Vaquero is Mexican for cowboy.

On the huge South Texas ranches which sprawled over millions of acres, the hot stew was served from the chuck wagon, especially during round-ups and branding times, to as many as 100 ravenous men at a time.

But everyone hasn't a cowboy's appetite. So Miss Morris has brought her recipe for "Vaquero Guisado" into line with the American menu of men and women who don't roam the Texas ranges, and has added the crunchy touch of corn chips, another Texas specialty.

Vaquero Guisado with Corn Chips (Serves 6)

One pound chuck or lean beef cut into 2-inch cubes, 3 tablespoons flour, 4 tablespoons cooking oil, 1 1/2 teaspoon monosodium glutamate, 1 teaspoon salt, 3 tablespoons horseradish, 2 cups canned tomatoes, 2 medium onions (quartered), 2 medium potatoes (cubed), 2 medium carrots (cubed), 1 cup lightly crushed corn chips (measured after crushing).

Salt beef, dredge in flour and brown in cooking oil in skillet. Add seasonings, tomatoes, onions, potatoes and carrots. Place 1 1/2 of corn chips in a casserole, then add the beef mixture. Top with the remaining corn chips and cover. Bake in moderate oven (350 degrees F.) for one hour.

MHS Seniors Are Honored At Dinner-Dance

Mr. and Mrs. P. R. Hargrove entertained with a dinner-dance in Ranchland Hill Country Club honoring Yvonne Shain and Dick Spencer, Midland High School seniors.

Emphasizing the school colors, the dinner tables were decorated with arrangements of gold gladioli and purple asters.

Guests included Martha Frick, Jerry Lands, Mary Jane Miller, Tom Dyer, Carla Mae Lea, Clinton Noble, Carol Garrison, John Petty, Anna Bess Doyle, Wesley Pittman, Ann Graham, Charles Worthen, Shirley Green, Harold Paden.

Ohanna Gadberry, Milton Jones, Betty Bolton, Robert Keating, Barbara Whitson, Don Hudson, Lanetta Early, Benny Bedford, Grace Bales, Orman Hubbard, Pat Frack, Bill Burks, Helen Zant.

Walter Cremin, Joan Fitzgerald, Kess Curry, Jean Corbell, M. A. Rose, Margie Neill, Don Forrest, Mary Ann Hill, Robert Stubbsman, Betty Shavels, John McGuigan, Billie Shephard, Charlie Crises, Frances Hefren and Larry Friday.

Members were asked to bring donations of seasonable used clothing to the parish house by Friday to be sent to an Indian mission in New Mexico.

It was announced that the auxiliary will not meet again until the Fall. A tea will be held September 28 and a general meeting October 26. Mrs. Ross Boseman will be arrangements chairman for the tea.

A question and answer program was conducted by Mrs. George Turner, and Mrs. C. O. Puckett led the devotional. Mrs. Hal Rachal presided for the meeting.

YOU WOULDN'T KNOW HER, JOE--

London Of War Years Fades Into Brilliant City Of Cheer

By HAL BOYLE
LONDON—(AP)—An open letter to any ex-G. I. Joe from the London he used to know:

Dear Joe,
I came over here to see the queen get her crown, and I've been here three whole days, and not one little kid has said, "got any gum, Chum?" I tell you, it gives you a lonesome feeling.

The old town sure has changed from wartime days when a guy in an American uniform with a carton of cigarets under his arm could walk the streets and feel like a king.

Remember how beat-up and battered London looked then? Well now she looks like some old family aunt who has come into a little money, got her face lifted, put on a new paint job, bought herself some glad rags—and started looking for a boy friend. It's fun to see the old girl smiling and having a good time, after all the years of tears.

The British are going about this coronation the same way they fight a war or make tea, methodically and thoroughly.

You know how fast we throw up some wooden stands in America for some local festival, such as running the mayor out of town. Well, the coronation stands look like they had been built for the ages. They are held up by miles of metal piping, and the English have taken as much care in building them as the French did with the Eiffel Tower.

That Old Potato
I guess it's hard to say which has really stirred them up more, the coronation or the strain of three days of perfect weather. They are looking up the history books to see if they ever had three straight days of sunshine before, and the unseasonably probably will remain until the next fog arrives.

But Joe, you should be here now. I got news for you. Brussels sprout are out of season. In the restaurants they ask you if you wouldn't like some fresh strawberries. How do you like that, Joe? Strawberries instead of Brussels sprouts. You were here 10 years too soon, kid. But that boiled potato you left behind you is still on the menu, 10 years soggy.

Ex-Paratrooper Tumbles 11 Floors, Suffers Broken Rib

CHICAGO—A husky ex-paratrooper "just relaxed" when he fell 11 stories from a building under construction Monday and suffered only a broken rib.

"Hey, I must have forgotten my parachute," grinned Thomas Grace, Jr., 37, as fellow workers rushed to his aid.

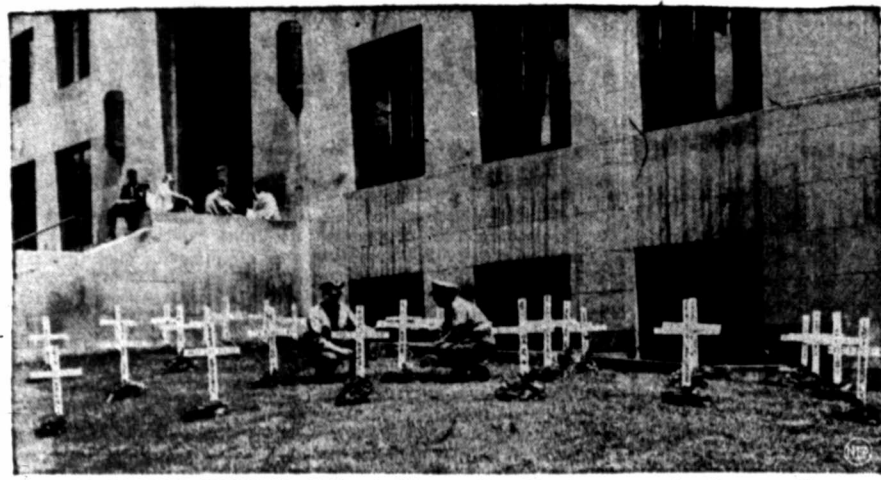

Grace, a pipefitter's apprentice, joking about his fall, said: "I was in the paratroopers in World War II and I learned how to fall. I twisted my body so my head wouldn't hit. That saved me."

Grace was drilling a hole at the eleventh floor of the skeleton building when the handle of the electric drill came off and the vibration tossed him out into space.

At the third floor level his left side smashed against a brick-layer's scaffold.

"I got a look at the faces of some of the bricklayers," laughed Grace. "Boy, were they surprised!"

Grace landed between two manholes under construction and missed bricks and rubble in the area.

GRAVES REMIND DRIVERS—Police in Kansas City, Mo., have opened a "graveyard" to remind motorists of the deadly dangers of bad driving. Police Chief Bernard Brannon, left, and Lt. Col. Frank Collins place a white cross, representing the 33rd traffic fatality, on the police station's front lawn. The city's total for the entire year of 1952 was 31 traffic deaths.

Russia Rejects West's Bid For Austrian Treaty Talks

LONDON—The Soviet Union has turned down a Western invitation to reopen talks Wednesday on an Austrian independence treaty. President Eisenhower had called for Soviet agreement to such a pact as a sign of the "sincere intent" of Russia's post-Stalin peace talk.

Soviet Deputy Foreign Minister Jacob Malik, who also is ambassador to Britain, spurned the Allied offer to reopen the long-stalemated negotiations in a letter to the general secretary of the Big Four's Deputy Foreign Ministers. The letter was published Tuesday in Moscow newspapers and broadcast by Moscow radio.

There was no immediate official reaction to the brusque turn-down. The U. S., Britain and Russia agreed at a Moscow conference in Washington, London or Paris.

Britain on May 11 had asked the other nations concerned with the treaty—the U. S., France and the Soviet Union—to reopen the talks here Wednesday. The deputies already have met 256 times—the last time February 6—during the last five years in unsuccessful efforts to write a treaty which would give Austria complete independence.

Malik blamed the Austrian question should be considered "through diplomatic channels by means of a relevant exchange of opinions" but did not specify further what he meant by this.

He said also that the meetings of the Deputy Foreign Ministers on Austria were "not a permanent four-power organ" and that they should be convened by the Council of Foreign Ministers of the Big Four powers, a group organized at the 1945 Potsdam Conference.

Malik blamed the deputies' failure to agree on the treaty at previous meetings on "the attitude taken by representatives of the three Western powers." His words echoed a Soviet foreign policy statement in Moscow's Pravda Sunday that "direct responsibility for delaying the settlement of the Austrian treaty problem is borne by the governments of the U. S. A., Great Britain and France."

1943 not to consider Austria as an enemy country but as one to be liberated.

The U. S. State Department issued a pamphlet Monday recalling this and blaming Russia for delaying the treaty.

Under agreements already reached, Russia on conclusion of the treaty would withdraw her "supply forces" from the satellite countries separating her from Soviet occupation troops in Austria. Most Western authorities consider this the chief reason for Russian reluctance to finalize the treaty.

The deputies by last year had ironed out their differences on most problems, but progress abruptly halted when the Soviets demanded that the whole question of Trieste be settled in the same treaty.

Ford Ends Supplier Strike By Hiking Pension Benefits

DETROIT—The Ford Motor Company did General Motors one better in voluntarily revising its five-year contract with the CIO United Auto workers early Tuesday. It gave the union the best major pension plan in the industry—a maximum of $137.50 a month.

Before it did so, however, Ford demanded and was given assurance that the crippling strike of UAW workers at its Canton, Ohio, forge plant would be halted immediately. That five-week-old tieup had idled $3,000 of Ford's 135,000 production workers and virtually shut down the vast Ford production system.

Jobless Musician Plunges To Death After Slaying Wife

NEW YORK—A jobless musician made his last appearance Monday before an audience—some 250 curious passersby who watched him plunge to his death a half-hour after he killed his wife with a hatchet.

His stage was a roof six stories above Broadway at 184th Street. He shared it with his teen-aged daughter, who had covered in horror as he killed her mother. The girl then vainly tried to talk him off the roof.

The saxophone-clarinet player, Joseph DeMa, 40, brought down the final curtain on his life 10 days after being released from Bellevue Hospital. He had undergone psychiatric examination there following a quarrel with his wife, Wanda, 37.

Monday, the two argued again. The climax of the fight came when he hacked his wife with the hatchet. Their daughter Barbara, 16, witnessed part of the attack and then fled for police.

When she returned, her father was on the roof for his last act. He clutched a television aerial, then lost his grip and back-flipped from the roof.

Ford and the UAW wound up two long days of secret, top-level negotiations by announcing formally the contract changes shortly after midnight. Ford President Henry Ford II and UAW and CIO President Walter P. Reuther led the talks.

The big boosts in pension payments—$12.50 to $35 a month—came as somewhat of a bombshell after General Motors, the industry's biggest producer and traditional labor pattern-setter, had signed a supplemental agreement with the UAW only Friday without any pension improvements.

Contracts with GM, Chrysler and virtually all other automotive firms provide maximum pensions of $125 a month. Both this and the new $137.50 Ford figure include federal Social Security benefits. All apply at age 65 after 30 years' service. The $35 boost at Ford will apply to 20-year men who now will get $115 a month instead of $80.

Other Benefits

The revised Ford contract also provides other benefits not found elsewhere in the industry:

One group of skilled workers—500 die sinkers and pattern makers—will get 20-cent an hour wage boosts.

Otherwise the new benefits in Ford and GM contracts are identical.

Nineteen of the 24-cent net gain picked up under cost-of-living wage hikes since the contracts were signed.

Filipino Diplomat Forms New Party To Oppose Quirino

MANILA—A diplomat turned politician and an aggressive Communist Huk-buster, both of whom bolted President Elpidio Quirino's Liberal Party, will run against their former boss in the Philippines' November election.

Carlos Romula, former ambassador to the U. S. and former delegate to the United Nations, made certain of that Tuesday.

He announced formation of the Democratic Liberal Party with himself as the standard-bearer in the November 10 election.

Popular Ramon Magaysaysay, former Defense secretary who broke with Quirino last February, heads the opposition Nacionalista Party ticket and has started his campaign.

Vice President Fernando Lopez, who joined some 200 Romulo supporters in storming out of Sunday's Liberal Party nominating convention, will be the smooth-talking diplomat's running mate.

Federal Job List Continues Decline

WASHINGTON—The number of federal government workers dropped another 21,700 during April to reach a May 1 total of 2,506,600, the Civil Service Commission reported Tuesday.

The commission said most of the cutbacks came among civilians employed by the armed services and in the Economic Stabilization Agency, the economic controls bureau now going out of business. Part of the reduction was offset by a seasonal boost in Agriculture Department payrolls.

Wartime Physicist To Succeed Stassen As University Head

PHILADELPHIA—An atomic physicist who during World War II aided in knocking out—with submarines—the last sea route from Japan to the mainland of Asia is to be the new president of the University of Pennsylvania.

Dr. Gaylord P. Harnwell, 49, was nominated Monday to succeed Harold E. Stassen and, in accordance with University rules, the Board of Trustees will elect him formally to the job June 10. He will take office July 1.

Stassen resigned January 19 to become Mutual Security director in the Eisenhower Administration.

A native of Evanston, Ill., Dr. Harnwell joined the faculty of the university in July 1938, and has been chairman of Penn's physics department since then.

During World War II he was granted a leave of absence and from 1942 to 1946 he served in the position of director of the University of California Division of War Research, U. S. Navy Radio and Sound Laboratory, San Diego, Calif.

It was for his work then that he was awarded the Medal for Merit for being "directly responsible" for severing the sea route from Japan to the mainland of Asia.

Tens Of Thousands Walk Path Set Aside For Queen's Parade

LONDON—(AP)—The most popular recreation in giddy London Tuesday was to "walk the Queen's six miles."

It's the route through streets and parks along which Queen Elizabeth's coronation procession will pass just a week from Tuesday, she riding splendidly in the gold and purple state coach drawn by eight sleek Windsor Orays.

A-Cannon Passes First Examination With A-Plus Grade

LAS VEGAS, NEV.—(AP)—The atomic cannon is an established reality Tuesday in America's defense plans. Nuclear scientists have compressed the virtual equivalent of a standard A-bomb into a shell only 11 inches in diameter.

These appear to be the principal results of Monday's highly successful first firing of a nuclear shell from the Army's 280 millimeter gun.

JUST ANOTHER WRONG NUMBER

NEW YORK—(AP)—A mysterious buzzing coming from two packages sent from the same place made employees at the Brooklyn General Post Office suspicious Monday.

So the police bomb squad was called. The officers took the packages to a nearby vacant lot and carefully opened them.

West Texas Cities Receive Recognition On Traffic Safety

Four West Texas cities are among 799 U. S. areas with more than 5,000 population to win places on the National Traffic Safety Contest Honor Roll for going through the entire year of 1952 without a traffic fatality.

According to figures compiled by the National Safety Council, which sponsors the contest, Pecos, Big Spring, Alpine and Colorado City came through the year with a clean fatality slate.

The largest no-death city, says the Safety Council, was Evanston, Ill., with a population of 73,600.

Hobart, Okla., a city of 5,400 which state records show never has had a traffic death since its incorporation in 1901, kept its perfect record through 1952 for the longest sustained performance among cities of more than 5,000 population.

Top honors among cities of more than 10,000 went to Belmont, Mass., 27,400 population, with a record of six consecutive death-free years.

The royal standard again flew from the palace flag pole Tuesday, showing that the Queen had returned from a breather at the secluded and pleasant royal lodge at Windsor. Even during her absence the crowds stood, shivered and milled about, watching the maneuvering of the brightly uniformed guards and occasionally catching a glimpse of trim horses being taken from the royal mews for rehearsals of their coronation day maneuvers.

At one time Monday night police reinforcements were called to clear away crowds pressed against the palace gates.

Republic Of Korea Denounces Secret Allied Truce Proposal

SEOUL—(AP)—Authoritative South Korean sources Tuesday revealed that the secret new Allied truce plan would give the United Nations General Assembly the final say in determining the fate of war prisoners who refuse to return to their Red homeland.

The informants said the proposal handed the Communists Monday at Panmunjom was clearly unacceptable to South Korea. One government official called it "nothing but an Allied defeat by the Communists."

The proposal also incorporates some features of previous plans offered by both the Reds and Allies, said the sources, who would not allow use of their names.

The UN Command—which reportedly requested the new black-out on Monday's truce session—would not comment on the plan. It even refused to acknowledge the offer was made.

Back Door To UN

Some observers in Tokyo said the Allied proposal possibly is being used as tempting bait to Red China, which long has wanted to get into the United Nations.

By accepting the plan, they said, it would give Red China a foothold in the General Assembly—through the back door.

Communist Peiping radio for the second straight day treated Monday's truce meeting in a reserved manner—in contrast to previous denunciations of the Allied proposals.

It said the UN Command asked for secret talks "for the sake of free discussion," but did not say the Allies made a new proposal.

The truce talks were recessed after Monday's session until June 1—apparently at Allied request—so Red negotiators can send the plan to Peiping, or even to Moscow.

The South Korean sources said the new plan reverses the Allies' May 13 proposal under which 34,000 balking North Korean prisoners would be released as civilians immediately after an armistice.

Rhee Not Consulted The final disposition of these and 14,500 Chinese captives who refuse to return to Red rule is the last major roadblock to a truce in the almost three-year-old Korean war.

The ROK sources said South Korean President Syngman Rhee—who insists his government will not accept any armistice that would leave Korea divided—was not consulted before the plan was drafted.

Nor was Maj. Gen. Choi Duk Shin, South Korean delegate to the truce talks, the sources said. Choi boycotted Monday's truce session—probably on orders from Rhee.

South Korea's Cabinet met Tuesday, but government spokesman Dr. Karl Hong Kee said there was "no discussion of an open break" between South Korea and the United Nations over truce negotiations. He said the cabinet did not discuss any phase of the talks.

Final Decision By UN The ROK informants said the new Allied plan:

1. Drops the Allied May 13 proposal that North Korean POW's be freed in South Korea after an armistice. The Reds bitterly oppose this.

2. Retains the Red-proposal five-nation commission to take over the 48,500 reluctant prisoners after a truce. Red agents would have 90 days for "explanations" to the balking captives.

3. Turns over to a post-war political conference all prisoners who still refuse to go back to communism. It was not learned how long the conference would take for this matter, but the original UN plan fixed a 30-day period. Finally the remaining POW's in custody would be handed to the UN General Assembly.

4. All decisions would be made by majority vote. The exact meaning of this provision could not be immediately determined but presumably it applies to the five-nation commission.

Fechteler, Carney To Exchange Posts

WASHINGTON—(AP)—Adm. William M. Fechteler, the U. S. chief of Naval operations, and Adm. Robert B. Carney, commander-in-chief of Allied forces in Southern Europe, are going to swap jobs.

Fechteler's new appointment was announced through the White House Monday by Gen. Matthew B. Ridgway, supreme commander of the North Atlantic defense forces. Ridgway himself had been named Army chief of staff effective this Summer.

Carney's success as new U. S. Naval chief to succeed Fechteler was made public recently as part of President Eisenhower's move in naming all new Joint Chiefs of Staff.

Monday's White House statement said Fechteler's appointment to the Southern Europe post was okayed by "the national authorities concerned"—the U. S., Great Britain, France, Italy, Greece and Turkey.

Fireworks Loom In Senate Probe Of Chavez' Vote

ALBUQUERQUE—(AP)—The U. S. Senate Wednesday starts a first-hand probe into New Mexico's 1952 senatorial election.

Three members of a Senate Elections subcommittee will open — if legal snarls permit—a giant recount of almost a quarter of million votes cast by New Mexicans last November.

The seat held by Senator Dennis Chavez (D-NM) is the issue in the recount, which follows a several months investigation by a staff representing the subcommittee. Chavez was certified the victor in the senatorial race by slightly more than 5,000 votes. The loser was Patrick J. Hurley, soldier, statesman and diplomat making his third bid for the Senate.

Hurley filed a contest with the Senate, alleging widespread election irregularities.

Three New Mexico county clerks face certain legal trouble at the outset of the recount effort. They have been directed by District Judge R. F. Deacon Arledge to retain possession of ballots and registration records until ordered otherwise by his court.

The three clerks—and Arledge—have been served Senate subpoenas, directing them to turn over the records. Arledge was directed by the Senate to appear Wednesday morning to turn over keys held by him to the state ballot boxes in three counties.

Arledge has declined to say whether he will make the directed appearance, or subject himself to a possible Senate contempt citation. The clerks face similar citations if they do not relinquish records and possible contempt citations by Arledge if they do.

Members of the subcommittee expected to arrive late Tuesday for the showdown are Senator Frank Barrett (R-Wyo), chairman; and Senator Charles Potter (R-Mich) and Senator John Hennings (D-Mo).

Jurors Are Chosen At Vernon To Study Amarillo Murder Case

VERNON—(AP)—Handcuffed George Robertson, 21, watched solemnly Tuesday as attorneys sought to complete a jury for his murder trial.

Robertson is accused in the death of an Amarillo filling station attendant who was beaten and stabbed to death.

He and Joseph Lucas, 20, are charged in the slaying of Victor Smith, Amarillo filling station attendant, January 6, and in the January 8 killing of Harold Gibbs, 60, Amarillo cab driver.

Four jurors remained to be selected. The eight selected were qualified for the death penalty.

Robertson is being tried now only in the death of Smith. The trial is on a change of venue from Amarillo. No trial date has been set for Lucas, an airman AWOL from Amarillo AFB at the time of the murders.

Robertson sat shackled at the defense table. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Robertson, farmers from near Floydada, sat nearby with two other sons.

Wrangle Grows More Bitter On Cuts In Air Force Funds

WASHINGTON—(AP)—Representative Price (D-Ill) Tuesday termed President Eisenhower's military budget "an invitation for an enemy attack." He called upon Secretary of Defense Wilson to "give real assurance to the American people that defense was the primary objective" in cutting funds for air power.

And influential Senate Democrats, declaring open warfare on Administration military policies, aimed at substituting foreign aid cuts for proposed Air Force economies.

Senator Russell (D-Ga) and Senator Maybank (D-SC) said in separate interviews they will vote within the appropriations committee to cut back Mutual Security Administration (MSA) funds while opposing a reduction in aviation funds.

Price, an armed services committee member, suggested in a speech prepared for the House that "accountants" in the Bureau of the Budget may have overruled Wilson and ignored the Joint Chiefs of Staff in setting the $36,171,288,000 military budget for the year beginning July 1.

The figure is $5,247,128,000 less than former President Truman recommended. But it includes an increase of more than one billion dollars for the Army, largely to finance the Korean War.

Naval Air Power

Price said $919,134,000 was trimmed from naval aviation in addition to $5,000,000 slashed from Air Force funds. He said that made the air power cuts about six billion dollars. Eisenhower has said that 60 cents of every defense dollar next year will go to the Air Force and the Navy for air power.

Gen. Hoyt S. Vandenberg, Air Force chief of staff on his return from a trip to South America, told newsmen Monday night he attended a meeting of the National Security Council at which the final decision was made to accept proposed fund cuts.

"I was there to answer questions, but was not asked for my opinion and did not give it," Vandenberg said. "There I neither approved nor disapproved."

Russell Saracenic

He declined immediate comment on the effect of the cuts.

Senator Russell joined other Democrats in scoffing at Secretary Wilson's contention that air strength will be built up despite the proposed appropriations slash.

"If Mr. Wilson had found a magic formula by which we can cut our plane building program and still increase our air strength, Congress ought to be told about it," Russell said sarcastically.

"If he can perform such feats of legerdemain, the logical sequence would be to cut the air power requests 10 billion dollars and get twice as much defense."

NOW HE KNOWS—Blind since birth, Michael Goldstein, 5, of Brooklyn, "sees" a lamb for the first time in his life. Before his trip to the Wonderland Farm Zoo in New York with a group of 60 other blind children, the only lamb Michael knew was in a poem "Mary Had a Little Lamb."

Maybank said he, for one, isn't going to vote to spend $5,800,000,000 to supply military and other assistance to U. S. Allies while reducing the amount available to America's own air arm.

He said he thinks the MSA program can stand a slash of two billion dollars.

Price based his conclusions on a letter from Budget Director James M. Dodge to Wilson, dated May 7. Price said it indicated that Wilson had not shaved enough from the Administration's stated policies and budget objectives.

The Bureau of the Budget is the President's spokesmen on fiscal matters and has the final voice on all budgets before they are sent to Congress.

Voice of Experience

Price said Dodge's letter raises these questions: "Whether the advice of the Joint Chiefs of Staff has been followed" and "is Secretary Wilson himself, in full accord with the proposed cuts?"

He added:

"Are we to plan our defense and defense of future generations on the recommendations of accountants, adding machines and computers rather than on the recommendations of men who have spent their entire adult careers in the study of military problems? ...

"Have we suddenly found out," he asked, "from some mysterious source that Russia also can be covered by penny-pinching efficiency better than it can be by an air force which is equipped to deliver the atomic bomb at any designated target in the world?"

"Corporal's Guard"

A number of Democrats, and a few Republicans, have questioned the wisdom of the proposed cuts in new Air Force funds. Several GOP senators, however, have dared the Democrats to seek restoration of the funds.

Representative Brownson (R-Ind) said in a speech at Baltimore Monday night that "a corporal's guard of heavy spenders" is "pitting their limited knowledge of the high level military needs of the country" against Eisenhower's judgment.

Senator Douglas (D-Ill) suggested on an MRS radio program Monday night that Eisenhower is in a difficult position "when his Republican conferees begin to twist his arm and say, 'we want a reduction in taxes.'"

Senator Lyndon B. Johnson of Texas brought up traces of a Democratic honeymoon with the Eisenhower Administration to an end with an attack Monday on Republican military, financial, farm and labor policies.

Addressing the Women's National Democratic Club here, the Senate Democratic leader said the people are "bewildered." He said the President hasn't shown any leadership yet.

Does our Defense Department believe that fewer ships, fewer guns and fewer planes mean greater strength to defend our country against communism?" he demanded.

Senator Carlson (R-Kan) said he thinks Johnson was "just talking politics," particularly with reference to Air Force money cuts.

Forum Plans Discussions On Senator

Facts Forum, meeting at 8 p. m. Wednesday on the second floor of the Midland Tower, will take a look at the pros and cons of Senator Joseph McCarthy, then eye the question of whether Midland should organize a civil defense group.

McCarthy, tagged the most controversial man in America, has been called a greater danger than communism, a great crusader, the victim of a vicious smear and an "unimportant" headline seeker. Fact Forum will study each of these descriptions through informal discussion.

The recent tornadoes at San Angelo and Waco have sparked study throughout the state of the good and bad features of a civil defense organization. The Midland group will ask opinions on whether a civil defense unit would be a practical addition to city machinery for use if a similar disaster should strike here.

The public is invited to the Facts Forum discussions.

Senate Hearings On Continental Shelf Oil Plans Near End

WASHINGTON—(AP)—The Senate Interior Committee Tuesday neared the end of its studies on legislation for the development of resources in the lands of the continental shelf beyond the states' seaward boundaries.

It heard Monday the last of public witnesses on a bill authorizing the secretary of Interior to develop the outer shelf area.

Only conferences with government officials remained before the committee begins final drafting of a bill.

Two spokesmen for the offshore oil operators told the committee Monday they could get along all right whether state laws were applied to the federal offshore territory, or whether new federal regulations were enforced there.

They were James Cosgrove, chairman of the Continental Oil Company, and Clayton Orn of Houston, Ohio Oil Company official serving as chairman of a legal committee for offshore oil operators.

Among the last witnesses was William Carr, executive secretary of the National Education Association.

Speaking for the NEA, which says it represents 500,000 teachers, Carr supported the "oil for education" amendment introduced by Senator Hill (D-Ala). The amendment would dedicate all revenues from the outer continental shelf to education, by grants in aid to the states.

Many Bills Termed Vital May Remain On Shelf When Congress Finally Quits

WASHINGTON—(AP)—Indications are growing that Congress may settle this year for less legislation than Republican leaders and President Eisenhower originally programmed.

Nothing official has been said, but it appears at least highly possible that both the Hawaiian statehood bill and an extension of the Reciprocal Trade Agreements Act still may be on the shelf when Congress quits for the year.

Revision of the Taft-Hartley Act also appears to be in some jeopardy.

Following Monday's White House legislative conference, House Speaker Joseph Martin (R-Mass) listed both statehood and reciprocal trade as "must" legislation.

But considerable sentiment was reported in the House to let the Trade Agreements Act expire and then write a new law after a special commission to study the whole question of tariffs has reported to the President. The President asked Congress to authorize such a commission. The Senate has okayed the idea; the matter is pending in the House.

Eisenhower asked also for a one-year extension of the Reciprocal Trade Act beyond June 12, but some legislators are reported to feel no great harm would be incurred by allowing the present law to expire.

Expiration would not affect present tariff levels. It simply would take from the President the right to enter into new tariff agreements with foreign nations. The Administration has said it plans none now.

Some Southern senators were reportedly prepared to talk at great length against the Hawaiian statehood measure. Senate Republican Leader Taft of Ohio has conceded the house-passed bill to make Hawaii the forty-ninth state would be before the Senate for a long time.

Taft-Hartley revision has cleared the public hearings stage but is bogged down in both Senate and House Labor Committees. Congress has not yet heard from the White House on how the present law should be changed and Senate Democrats are insisting on Administration recommendations before they start the task of rewriting the 1947 law.

Senator Alexander Smith (R-N.J.), Senate Labor Committee chairman, tried unsuccessfully Monday to get the job started. But too few members turned up, and Smith rescheduled the meeting for June 3.

Not one of a dozen government money bills has yet gone to the White House. The House has passed half a dozen to run the executive branch for the year starting July 1; the Senate only one. These bills, together with new tax legislation and the foreign aid program, stand at the top of the Administration's "must" list of legislation.

The President's request to extend the excess profits tax for six months to December 31 comes before a decidedly unenthusiastic House Ways and Means Committee Monday. The foreign aid authorization still has not cleared Senate and House Foreign Relations Committees. Once passed, there must be a separate bill providing the actual money.

Still pending, too, and scheduled for Senate action Wednesday, is the President's plan to reorganize the Agriculture Department. Despite strong opposition to it, the plan is given a better than even chance of getting through. Forty-nine Senate or 218 House votes are needed to kill it.

Drouth, Floods Grip Texas At Once; Panhandle Worries

By The Associated Press

The condition of the water supply in Texas ranged Tuesday from poor to excellent.

The water-soaked flood-stricken southeast was crying for dry weather.

The poorest conditions probably were in the Lower Rio Grande Valley and several water-short counties in the Texas Panhandle.

Irrigation water was under strict rationing in the valley with the river at near-record low flow.

In the Panhandle, 150 farmers from several drouth-stricken counties voted approval Monday of a fight to secure continued natural gas service for irrigation wells.

"Dooms Irrigation"

Farmers had said that action of Phillips Petroleum Company in deciding not to furnish cheap fuel for the wells "doomed irrigation farming" in the area.

The farmers' steering committee met in Amarillo Tuesday with A. M. Rippel, head of Phillips' gas division.

Phillips said that to continue furnishing gas would place it in violation of federal regulations.

Farmers contend that without cheap natural gas for fuel it would be impossible for them to continue irrigation in the region. Other fuels would be prohibitive in cost for deep-well pumping.

Sabine Area Different

Southeast Texas especially near the flood-gorged Sabine River, prayed for dry weather. Rain in the area and upstream as far north as Mineola has had the usually placid Sabine in a flood several days.

Similar conditions though not so acute, also have existed near the mouths of the Trinity and Neches Rivers.

Rains in April and May put enough water in reservoirs in many places to offset several months of drouth. Notable among these were Dallas, Terrell, San Angelo and Corsicana.

Dallas Eases Up

Dallas long embarrassed by a water shortage relaxed water restrictions Monday after its county council heard a report on the improved water situation.

The council said that if more rain does not come later in the year, the water restrictions—curbs against swimming pools, lawn watering and air conditioners—will be restored.

City Manager Elgin Crull told the council that Lake Dallas, principal source for the city, now holds 33 billion gallons of water. Last November the Lake Dallas supply was down to six billion gallons. Other sources, Crull said, now boost Dallas supply to 38 billion gallons.

Wichita Falls clamped on its first mandatory water restrictions in the city's history. Residents may water lawns and shrubs every other day.

Marshall Wife Files Appeal For Return Of $12.57 Levy

NEW ORLEANS—(AP)—One of the rebellious "Marshall housewives" asked the U. S. Fifth Circuit Court of Appeals Tuesday to return $12.57 the federal government took from her bank account to pay for social security for her domestic servants.

Mrs. Carolyn Abney and her husband argued the law forcing them to pay social security taxes on servants is unconstitutional.

The case is a test balloon sent up by 11 women of Marshall, Texas, who have gained national attention as the "Marshall housewives" or the "Marshall girls."

All 11 refused to pay the tax required by the Federal Insurance Contributions Act.

The wives are Eleana Bradford, Mary Hicks, Winnifred Furrh, Mrs. Joy Quinn, Mrs. Dorothy Martin, Mrs. Celeste Clemons, Mrs. Ethelora Bangler, Mrs. Jennie Abney, Mrs. R. B. Buthrop, Mrs. Ruby Peis and Mrs. Carolyn Abney.

Mrs. Carolyn Abney's case is an appeal from Federal Court in Dallas, where Judge William Atwell ruled against her request for the $12.57 refund.

The case began in 1951, when the Marshall wives refused to pay the taxes for the first three months of the year. This amounted to $2.51 in Mrs. Abney's case.

The government seized the $2.51 from her bank account. She appealed but lost and then brought suit in Federal Court.

For six more months, Mrs. Abney refused to pay the taxes. The government said she should have paid $10.06 and took this amount from her bank account, making $12.57.

Industrialist Thinks European Union Near

NEW YORK—(AP)—Jean Monnet, president of the six-nation Western Europe coal-steel pool, says he thinks a United States of Europe is closer than most people believe.

Monnet, a Frenchman, and Franz Etzel, former German president of the pool, arrived here Monday aboard the Queen Mary for two weeks of talks with U. S. officials at the request of President Eisenhower.

The Maoris are believed to have immigrated to New Zealand in a great fleet of canoes in the 14th Century.

Those who saw Rookie Dick Young Saturday night are convinced the 22-year-old right-hander has a tremendous future. Young has all the equipment to make the major leagues providing he has the desire to go with it, veteran observers claim.

Pat McLaughlin, Carlsbad manager, and Jay Haney both are high on Young.

"He's the finest looking rookie I've seen in many years," said McLaughlin and Haney echoed those same sentiments.

Young was released from service only March 10, and during his two-year tour of duty which included overseas service, he didn't play a single game. Add to this the fact that he hasn't pitched anything but semi-pro ball, and it's amazing to see the way he handles himself under fire. He has tremendous speed and a good curve ball.

Art Bowland says that the Potashers were hitting good pitches off him Saturday night when they picked up nine hits and six runs in two and two-thirds innings off his offerings. Young admitted tiring fast, but it's only to be expected since he had driven for two straight days to reach Midland by Saturday.

Driving for long periods is no novelty for Young, however. He's a truck driver in the off season—taking after his dad, who has a 22-year safety record.

Could Be a Loser And Still Make The Majors

Haney says that Young is the type of player that could make the big leagues even though he had a losing record. "He could have a 5-15 record and still go up while some other pitcher might have a 20-3 record and never get the chance," Jay asserted.

Scooter Hughes is all for playing all Midland games at night after his string of hitting safely in 14 straight games was broken Sunday. "They can have this day baseball," he said, "I never have liked it."

Incidentally, Scooter is shopping around for a new lucky piece. The rattler someone had given him seems to have lost its charm. He was still carrying it in his hip pocket, however.

Look for the Indians to start climbing after June 1 when help is due to arrive. The appearance of veteran Pitcher Fred Smith and

You Gotta Be Ahead To Play Own Type Ball

Some Midland fans who have been beefing about Haney's rare use of the hit-and-run and bunt pitched up some Sunday and asked "Why not use it more often?" Simply enough, when you spot a team three-four runs every game, you can't afford to play for one run. You have to go for the big inning. But when you have the lead, you can shoot for one or two runs an inning and keep adding to the margin. It all boils down to pitching. When you don't get it, you stand little chance unless you happen to have one of those nights where you can outpitch the opposition. Playing catch up is hard on a team's nerves.

One of those manager's nightmares occurred in Sunday's game when Hayden White tagged up on second and made a dash for third on a flyout to center field. He made it, but if he hadn't, Haney would have caught him Columbia from the fans. All the while, Jay was trying to hold White at second.

As it was, Haney heard several comments on the play. "Julio de la Torre was complaining about the heat after Sunday's game, so someone asked why it bothered him." "It gets hot in Cuba, too, doesn't it Julio?" "Yeah," Julio replied, "but in Cuba it is hot up here (bringing his hand across his brow), but today, it is hot down there (stomping his feet and pointing to signify he could hardly stand still during the game)."

OH, HAPPY DAY!—As the Midland Indians go, so goes B. F. Forman's Tribesman. When the Indians win, Forman allows everyone to see his smiling face, but when the Indians lose, the clay doll is turned around to face the wall. You know, the old naughty "Go stand in the corner" idea. Visitors to Forman's office in the Humble Building have taken quite an interest in the symbol. Recently, when the Indians took a shellacking from Carlsbad, some joker sneaked in and had the Tribesman standing on his head facing the wall.

Sandy Sights At Langlois After Victory
BROOKLYN — (AP) — Randy Sandy, a 22-year-old middleweight with only one defeat on his record, Tuesday set his sights on Pierre Langlois, the Frenchman who has been beating most of the middleweight contenders.

But first he has a date with Ted Murray of New York two weeks from now at Ridgewood Grove. "After that one, we're going after Langlois," said his manager Hymie Wallman after he whipped Tuzo (Kid) Portuguez of Costa Rica Monday night at Eastern Parkway Arena.

Sandy, who had lost only to Willie Troy, was the 2-1 favorite and fought like it, although he got overconfident in the eighth and was caught with a right to the chin that sent him reeling across the ring. Otherwise, though, he was complete master of Portuguez.

Sandy weighed 156 1/2 to Portuguez' 160 1/2.

RALPH KINER ... Home run swatter

Ralph Kiner Hits No. 300 Off Corwin

PITTSBURGH — (AP) — Big Ralph Kiner boasts 300 home runs Tuesday—a feat he accomplished faster than any other great slugger in major league history—even the mighty Babe Ruth.

Kiner, Pittsburgh Pirate outfielder, attained the goal Monday by belting a 1-1 pitch—a curve ball—off Pitcher Al Corwin of the New York Giants in the fifth inning with two teammates aboard.

That gave Kiner the distinction of joining the ranks of 11 others who have hit 300 home runs or more. They are:

Babe Ruth 714, Jimmy Fox 534, Mel Ott 511, Lou Gehrig 494, Joe DiMaggio 361, Johnny Mize 356, Hank Greenberg 331, Ted Williams 324, Al Simmons 307, Rogers Hornsby 302, and Chuck Klein 300.

Kiner is the only active National League to hit 300 roundtrippers. Mize, the aging first sacker of the New York Yankees, collected some in the National and the others in the American League.

"It's a wonderful feeling to hit 300 home runs," remarked the 30-year-old Kiner. "But it would have been a lot nicer if we would have won the game."

The Giants mauled three Pittsburgh pitchers for 12 hits and a 6-3 victory—the ninth in the last 11 games.

The ball that Kiner belted for his three-hundredth roundtripper and the sixth of the season was presented to him by Frank Hiller of the Giants.

Hiller caught Kiner's wallop in the Giants bullpen—340 feet from home plate.

Jacome Rips Rockets As Blair Folds, 10-8

ROSWELL — (AP) — Midland rallied behind the steady pitching of Eddie Jacome and fought off a last-inning rally to hand the Roswell Rockets their fourth straight loss, 10-8, here Monday night.

Jacome came on in relief of Ralph Blair in the second inning, trailing 5-2, and picked up his second victory in as many nights. His mates kept pecking away at the serves of Bob Weaver until they chased him with a three-run blast in the sixth and took an 8-5 lead that was never headed.

Roswell managed eight hits off Jacome, but the Indian ace kept them well scattered to stay out of trouble until the ninth. He got the first two men in the final inning and was enjoying a 10-7 lead before Buddy Grimes got a single.

Then the Indian defense fell completely apart. The Ladies Day crowd of 1,200 was halted on the way to the exit when Ricky Gonzales was safe on an error, and saw the bases loaded with another Indian miscue. Still another error, the third in a row, let a run and the bases were still loaded.

Jacome decided that was enough of the nonsense, and took matters in his own hands, striking out Pinch-Hitter Juan Del Toro on a 3-2 count to end the game.

Colts Nip Carlsbad To Grab Loop Lead

CARLSBAD, N. M. — (AP) — San Angelo replaced the Carlsbad Potashers in the lead of the Longhorn League here Monday night as they edged the locals, 2-0, in a torrid mound duel.

The Colts pushed over their two runs in the top of the ninth on a pair of doubles—two of the seven hits Hank Williams yielded. With one out, Steve Follett doubled to left. Williams hit Joan Jeandron in the face with a pitch, and John Tayoan slashed a double down the third-base line to bring in the runs.

Gil Guerra retired 15 men in a row during one stretch of the up and down game, before he walked Pedro Ocorio with two away in the seventh inning.

Ike Jackson, Carlsbad catcher, got his tenth consecutive hit in the first inning, but his string was snapped in the third.

The Drillers kept pecking away at Reguerra's offerings, picking up a lone run in the fourth and another in the sixth, with Jack Wilcox hitting a one-run homer in the seventh and Joe Fortin a solo round tripper in the eighth to tie it up.

Here Comes Webb! Lobos Drop Oilers

LAMESA — (AP) — Lamesa fans hoped Monday night's victory over the Odessa Oilers was a good omen. For with the victory, Owner Manager Hal Webb returned from a long player grabbing junket and announced that the Lobos had a working agreement with the Dallas Eagles of the Texas League.

The win, eight for the year for Lamesa, still leaves them a game and a half in the cellar, but it's a start for the long climb up.

Jon Miller hurled the win, being in hot water most of the way with three fast double plays—two of the first to short to first variety—pulling him out of jams.

Norman Childress, first of three Odessa hurriers, took the loss. Odessa 010 201

HUGE SUNSPOT

Largest sunspot ever observed appeared in January, 1947, and covered an area of 6,300,000,000 square miles, or about 30 times the surface of the earth.

OLD CUSTOM

It still is the custom among sentimental European peasantry to place the bridal finery in a chest, and take it out again only for the purpose of shrouding the wife when she dies.

AMERICA AFRAID OF HIM?—

Europeans Hear 'Fascist' Tones In McCarthy Tunes

By GRACE HALSELL
Reporter-Telegram Special Correspondent

VIENNA, AUSTRIA—Europeans compare the popularity of Senator Joseph McCarthy in America with the rise of some of their Fascist leaders.

They are alarmed by his power. All over Europe he is talked about. "Why is America afraid of him?" one is asked.

Writing in the "Mundener Illustrierte," something of the "Life" periodical for Munich, a correspondent predicts McCarthy will be America's next President.

"Everything which helps him to reach that goal is right for him," the article states.

The German paper says he is working "for his own party, which will nominate him for the presidency," and that his primitive formula is: "Who is not for me—he is a Communist."

The article further adds that like the former Nazi leaders, "Denunciation is the big word in his political repertoire."

McCarthy has received "bad press" all over Europe.

Here are typical comments gathered from European newspapers:

SWITZERLAND: "Joseph Raymond McCarthy is a very big problem and a phenomenon. He was born 43 years ago on a farm in Wisconsin. His way is covered with ENGLAND: "It is a horrible kind of way how the demagogue McCarthy labels whole groups of peoples, bringing in the new expression of McCarthyism. He has the same defaming phrases and methods of Adolf Hitler."—The Observer.

Recently I attended a press conference on the retirement of Lt. Gen. George P. Hays, commanding officer of the U. S. Forces in Austria. The general paid his respects to the conscientious, hard-working people of the State Department overseas and stated he hated to see some innocent people smeared by irresponsible persons. Everyone knew whom he had in mind, so a reporter asked: "Would you name McCarthy by name?"

The general backed off: "Oh, no. . . I certainly wouldn't want to say that." No wonder Europeans ask: "Who is this man of whom America is afraid?"

In the United States, the plane tree is known as sycamore and buttonwood and is the most massive tree in the eastern portion of the country.

Public Accountants Schedule Meeting

SAN ANTONIO—More than 400 are expected to attend the thirty-eighth annual meeting of the Texas Society of Certified Public Accountants to be held in San Antonio May 31-June 2.

Top-flight authorities in the fields of accounting will take part in the meeting. The first session will be held at 9:30 a.m. June 1, with J. Raymond Jordan of Houston, president of the society, presiding. Sessions will be held in the Plaza Hotel.

Maurice H. Stans of Chicago, will deliver an address on "The Future of Accounting." He is an international authority on the subject and a partner, Alexander Brant and Company of Chicago.

Chiles To Attend Chicago Conclave

H. E. Chiles, president of The Western Company and newly elected vice president of the Young President's Organization is joining with this national group for a two-day meeting to be held in Chicago Thursday and Friday.

Purpose of the sessions is to plan an action program for 1953-54 for the group which now numbers 532 top executives of firms in 39 states doing at least $1,000,000 a year.

scandals . . . This demagogue without scruples may be compared with a "raubritter" (German word for robber of the early Middle Ages). Some people call him the North American Goebbels, and this really truthfully describes him."—Schweizer Illustrierte.

GERMANY: "The distaste of the 'Great Inquisitor' and the destroyer of the democratic principles of the freedom of opinion seems to be the same no matter if he is an European or an American . . . One hears very often now that McCarthyism is a new version of Fascism."—Christ und Welt.

FRANCE: "Shouldn't the 'Great Inquisitor' McCarthy be cleaned up himself? But it seems the U. S. press is too afraid to attack him."—Le Monde.

NORWAY: "There is a good founded suspicion that McCarthy makes his political actions to prepare a platform on which he can act as the next candidate for presidency. People say that an oil king from Texas offered the senator $1,000,000 to back him to his goal."—Afterposten.

College Graduates Find Jobs Galore Waiting At Higher Pay

By DAVID TAYLOR MARKE
Education Reporter

NEW YORK — (AP)— There are plenty of jobs waiting for the June college graduates.

North, south, east and west, college placement officers report business and industry scrambling for seniors. Jangling pocketsful of offers, the graduate's concern often will be which job to take.

Only in such "glamor" fields as radio, television, public relations and advertising is work in short supply. In some others, such as journalism, personnel, fine arts, high school and college teaching, jobs go begging because salaries are often low.

Draft-Bait Welcomed
Otherwise, draft-bait or not, he is made welcome by most large firms and many smaller ones.

A survey by The Associated Press of 50 representative colleges and universities around the country paints a rosy picture.

The seasonal push for budding collegiate talent is described by Dean Fred Ajax, placement director at Georgia School of Technology Atlanta as "the biggest boom ever." He estimates the demand at Georgia Tech is a "conservative 75 per cent ahead of 1952."

Five Jobs Each
Other colleges' claims are more modest, but all report the demand at least as heavy, often heavier than last year.

At Alabama Polytechnic Institute Auburn, every senior has received "at least five job offers"; at the University of Illinois (Urbana), the demand is 25 per cent greater; at Chicago, 10 to 12 per cent; at Stanford, 22 per cent.

Southern California, Los Angeles, reported "10,000 job referrals, more than ever before"; Colorado Denver grads have a choice of several jobs at Illinois Institute of Technology Chicago—"There are two jobs for every senior."

At Columbia, Long Island and

New York Universities and at Harvard the demand for graduates is greater. Only the universities of Kentucky, (Lexington) and Texas (Austin) reported their demands no greater than last year.

Without exception, placement officers report, the demand for engineers and scientists exceeds the supply 5 to 1. Starting salaries are up $25 to $50 a month over last year, with holders of AB.

Benson To Address Lubbock Gathering

LUBBOCK—Secretary of Agriculture Ezra Taft Benson will be the principal speaker in the fourteenth annual session of the American Cotton Congress, to be held here June 25, 26 and 27.

Burrus C. Jackson of Hillsboro, general chairman of the organization, has announced that the theme of the program will be "Cotton's New Frontiers."

"That is the logical theme for the first meeting of the Congress in the High Plains of Texas, which has become one of the world's leading cotton producing areas," Jackson said.

EARLIEST ICE SKATE

The earliest known ice skate was that of the bone runner, and was found at Bjorko, Sweden, a town which flourished between the eighth and 10th Centuries, according to the Encyclopedia Britannica.

Harry Truman Finds Being An Ex-President Can Be Full Time Chore, But It Has Rewards

By CLARENCE A. JOHNSON

KANSAS CITY —(AP)— His office telephone is Baltimore 6190, and it's no private, unlisted number. The door to his three-room office suite on the 11th floor of the Federal Reserve Bank Building is always open—and there's a constant stream of people in and out.

As Harry S. Truman, ex-President of the United States, explains it: "Many people feel that a President or an ex-President is partly theirs—and they are right to some extent—and that they have a right to call upon him."

So Harry S. Truman makes himself accessible.

Pleanty Of Work
The man who left the White House four months ago is working overtime in his new job as private citizen—putting in as many hours as he did when he held what many consider the toughest job in the world.

So far he has followed these self-imposed restrictions to the letter. They have helped keep him away from controversy.

But he can't and won't fence himself away from people. That is not his way of treating folks who have long been friends and supporters.

Recently he has relaxed a bit on public appearances, but he still feels that his presence creates too much fuss.

Most callers address him as "Mr. President," others as "Mr. Truman," a few close friends as "Harry."

Here To Stay
"I don't care what they call me," he says, "as long as they don't call me an unprintable name to my face."

He is affable, smiles readily, but when he says "No" there is no doubt he means it.

For awhile, his favorite greeting was: "Where are you moving me today?"

But he has no intention of moving. Independence, near here, is his home and he says he and Mrs. Truman will remain there.

Bodyguard Withdrawn
Usually by nine he is at his Kansas City office. Recently he has been driving his new car, a Dodge. Until he was withdrawn from a bodyguard assignment, Sgt. Arthur Izell of the Missouri state highway patrol did the driving.

Letters go out on a plain letterhead: Harry S. Truman, Federal Reserve Bank Bldg., Kansas City 6, Mo.

Between dictation and telephone calls, Truman receives his visitors. Frequently, he'll usher one out of his private office, come into the reception room to invite another in. There is no stiffness, no formality.

Walks To Lunch
At noon he walks to a hotel or club for lunch. At first he was so besieged by autograph seekers that little time was left to eat. Friends stop by his table. Often strangers, occupied by other things look back and exclaim: "Why, that's Truman!"

With his light hat, brim curved upward, and his hook cane, many people pass him by on the street as another cattleman in town with a load of stock.

Usually he leaves the office around 4 p.m. for home.

This is his castle, his refuge from demands on his time. His telephone number here is secret.

Gadgets Guard House
The 14-room house has an iron fence around it. Electric eyes, installed while he was President, still work. In the garage, once occupied by Secret Service men, Independence policemen are on duty 24 hours a day.

The police took over when the Secret Service men ended their tour, January 30.

After dinner he listens to a news-cast or two on the radio, and digs into his reading of history. This, he feels, is vital to obtain the proper perspective on the policies he pursued while President. It is a major task in the preparation of his forthcoming memoirs.

Picture Of Health
Books and papers for evening reading are with him in a large suitcase as he leaves the office. He doesn't snack at bedtime.

"I eat on regular schedule," he says.

His weight is 176, the same as when he left Washington, but he admits he'd like to take off six or seven pounds.

He is well tanned, a complexion acquired on his month-long vacation in Hawaii.

Asked about his general health, he'll sometimes put the questioner on the spot with a grinning: "What do you think?"

He looks the picture of health, the kind you see in the life insurance ads. He moves briskly. He talks the same way. His hair is greying, and receding a bit. His barber still is Frank Spina, the barber of Battery D, which Truman commanded as a Captain in World War I.

Piano Is Silent
As for relaxation and recreation, he sticks to walking.

His piano, a favorite subject of cartoonists while he was in the White House, is ignored.

"I haven't touched it since I got back," he says.

As for a session of poker with the boys:

"I would if I could," he says. "I just don't have time for it."

His double-breasted suits run to blues and greys. He habitually wears his World War I service button in his lapel.

In contrast to the average citizen he's trying hard to emulate, Truman isn't talking about what goes on in Washington, Moscow or Peking.

On Political Call
He has announced this policy: "I'm not commenting on anything in the way of national or international affairs. I want to be as charitable as I can in this period of adjustment for the new Administration. I know what it is to be in that situation myself."

After his sixty-ninth birthday earlier this month, he said he had enough years left to be of some political use to the Democratic party in the future, recalling "I've had some of the most terrific political battles of my manhood."

For the 1954 congressional campaign he is completely on call.

Library Project
"I am a Democrat by environment and conviction," he said. "I believe that the Democratic party policies are the best for the most people. It has been mighty good to me. If they want my services I'll be glad to furnish them."

Another project that keeps him busy is the Truman Memorial Library which he sees as a research center where students of government may come to look over the papers of his administration. Among documents sent there for safekeeping will be some 400 four-drawer filing cases now stored in the Jackson County Courthouse.

Then there is his 420-acre farm, devoted largely to livestock. But this requires little attention. His nephews, the sons of brother Vivian Truman, are raised first class farmers around Grantview.

When he left the White House he had many opportunities to cash in on the office he had held. He disclosed he had one offer of $100,000 a year on an eight-year contract. Another was a $100,000 a year post as a sales manager. There were lesser ones, such as $10,000 to appear on a radio program.

He rejected all of them, because he didn't want to do anything to capitalize on "the world's most honorable office."

As an ex-President, Truman receives no pension. But as a retired National Guard and reserve officer he gets $111.35 a month. It is based on his active duty in World War I and his reserve service since then.

JACOBY ON BRIDGE

By OSWALD JACOBY

The National Championship will be held in St. Louis during the first week of August, and it isn't a bit too early to warn all of the contestants: Watch out for the local experts!

One of the Missouri players who will have to be shown by the rest of us is David Carter. Today's hand shows Dave stealing his ambitious contract from under the noses of his opponents, and if we don't watch out he'll do that with some of the National Championships this August.

Carter's opening bid of two no-trump was eminently sound, but North's raise to three no-trump was slightly ambitious. North should have held at least another jack for this raise, and if he had been able to supply this extra jack the contract would have been made without great difficulty.

West opened the five of clubs, dummy played low, and East put up the king. Dave Carter, playing the South hand, won with the ace of clubs and wondered where nine tricks were going to come from. He could count four spades and one trick in each of the other suits, but from there on the going got tough.

For lack of a better plan Carter returned a low club, and West won with the ten. East discarded the five of hearts, hoping to encourage a shift to hearts, but West returned the deuce of clubs instead.

Dummy won with the nine of clubs, and East completed his signal by discarding the deuce of hearts. Carter next led a low heart from dummy, and East played a low heart for fear that South had all three of the missing cards in that suit.

South won with the king of hearts and read the situation correctly. East's violent signal in hearts indicated a probable sixcard suit, so that West was now out of hearts. Carter continued by running off his four spade tricks, and then led the jack of clubs! West could take two club tricks, but was next obliged to lead diamonds.

Card had saved three diamonds in the dummy and three in his own hand.

Q—With North-South vulnerable, the bidding has been:

West	North	East	South
3 Dms.	Double	Pass	?

You, South, hold: Spades K-J-9-3, Hearts 9-8-7-3, Diamonds 5-2, Clubs Q-9-5. What do you do?

A—Bid three spades. You have a choice between the majors, as in the case of yesterday's hand, but this time you must bid your stronger major suit. If your partner has to pass your response, you will be much better pleased with a contract of three spades than with three hearts.

Steak House Takes On New Look; Foods Keep Known Quality

The Steak House, located at 606 West Wall Street, favorite gathering place of Midlanders after nightfall, is undergoing extensive remodeling and interior decorating. Mrs. Ruby Somerford, owner and manager of the popular dining spot, chose a harmonizing color scheme of rose and cream pastel shades, carried out in all the inside furnishings, which completely changes the interior.

Wall booths have been covered with plastic materials in the new designs. Dining tables have been painted with bakelite enamel in the light cream color. And new tile floors have been installed.

To complete the renovation, the extensive counter has been repainted and the stools covered with a soft pink plastic material.

But changing the external appearance has not been all at the Steak House. Mrs. Somerford has brought in a new stainless steel refrigerated cabinet to store pies and perishable foods in, among other new kitchen facilities.

Eventually the Steak House will have all stainless steel equipment, designed for sanitation and cleanliness. New dishwashing machines have been installed as part of the remodeling program.

The Steak House does not look the same, but the same fine foods are available. Specialties at the restaurant are sizzling hot Peyton steaks and a variety of spicy Mexican dishes.

As in the past, the Steak House will continue to remain open 24 hours a day for the convenience of Midland customers. Any order desired can be served up quickly by the efficient, trained staff of the restaurant.

Telephone orders are a specialty also at the popular eating place. Midlanders can dial 4-9281 and either drop by a few minutes later to pick up the tasty food or have it delivered to their homes by taxicab.

A complete variety of breakfast, dinner and supper menus is served in the Steak House at all times.

Summer Insects Can't Win Against Brush Applied Killer

When warm weather comes, crawling insects can't be far behind. During the winter months, these pests are dormant, but with the first sign of Spring, they multiply in frightening numbers. So every housewife should know about the modern scientific way to get rid of roaches and ants — with a new discovery called Johnston's NO-ROACH.

Roaches and ants, pests that they are, are usually found near food and cooking utensils where you should not use bombs or sprays. And no need to either, when you can brush Johnston's NO-ROACH just where you want it around cabinets, sink, baseboards, or wherever these bugs are found.

Johnston's NO-ROACH is colorless, odorless, and stainless. Insects that walk across the invisible coat-

City Body Shop Restores Value To Ailing Autos

City Body Shop, located on East Highway 80, specializes in miracles — taking the shattered hulks of wrecked automobiles and trucks and restoring them to new "life" and prolonged usefulness.

Perhaps miracle is a strong word to use, but anyone who has not seen the "before and after" of smashed-up vehicles at City Body Shop would be surprised to see what skilled workmen can do to repair a wreck.

H. L. Hoover, owner and manager of the firm, has been a resident of Midland since 1911. He has 25 years of experience in rebuilding auto and truck bodies behind him to qualify his shop for the work.

Hoover believes in using trained technicians in the difficult task of salvaging wrecked vehicles. His personnel are all experts in their part of body work done at the City Body Shop.

The firm is prepared to tackle any restoration on a damaged car or truck, regardless of how badly shattered the vehicle may appear to be. City Body Shop features fast service on wrecks.

A specialty at the firm is baked enamel paint work on car or truck bodies. The painting service is set up to allow the Midlander to bring his car in at 8 a.m. and take it out, shining like new at 5 p.m. the same day. The big bake oven is equipped to cover the auto with a permanent beautiful paint coat of smooth texture in all the popular colors.

Hoover said nothing will improve the appearance and value of an old car like a brand new paint job, eliminating scratches, faded areas, and the worn-out original paint.

Free estimates on body rebuilding, repairs, or paint jobs can be secured promptly by picking up the telephone and dialing 2-4162, the telephone number of the City Body Shop.

Objectionable noise, long a complaint against air conditioning, is absent in the Carrier Room Air Conditioner. Balanced and cushioned parts, acoustically insulated in the cabinet, keep sound at a minimum.

A built-in thermostat, exclusive humitrol to regulate humidity, special weather sealer, and a glass cloth filter are but a few of the outstanding features of the Carrier Room Air Conditioner.

Italy's De Gasperi, Friend Of West, Faces Hot Election Battle

Italian Premier Alcide de Gasperi faces a double threat in the coming general election, first one since the historic vote of 1948, when the very real danger of Italy's going Communist was averted. At that time, de Gasperi's position was threatened by left-wing parties. Today, he also is threatened from the right. More than 70 different parties have registered for the coming election. But most of them stand no chance. The election will be a three-way fight among eight parties. On the left are the Communists and left-wing Socialists. In the center are de Gasperi's Christian Democrats, the Liberals, Republicans and right-wing Socialists. On the extreme right are the Monarchists and the neo-Fascist Italian Socialist movement. When these three groups fight it out, a very close election is expected. Past trends show that the moderate Christian Democrats have been losing popular votes in every election, while the right-wing extremists have been increasing their strength. Pictures and maps below show some of the personalities involved and factors that will influence the voting.

Vote-ometer shows strength of major parties in 1948 and what's expected in 1953.

Palmiro Togliatti spouting the Moscow line will need help to gain control.

Socialists led by Pietro Nenni could be troublesome if they join Reds.

Right wing headed by Rodolfo Graziani poses real threat to De Gasperi.

Threat of Communism will be exploited by De Gasperi and right wingers.

Mass unemployment continues to be a weakness that lays the De Gasperi government open to attacks by both left and right wing parties.

Demand that Trieste be returned will be exploited by right wing parties.

Government land reform of 1.7 million acres will be criticized by all parties.

Medical Opinion Is Divided On Change Of Life In Men

By EDWIN F. JORDAN, M. D.
Written for NEA Service

A correspondent who signs herself "Puzzled" writes a sad but interesting letter which I shall quote at some length.

"My husband and I are in our early 50's. I have been going through the change of life and am pretty well along except that my nerves are still a problem. This condition is aggravated by my husband's abuse the last few years. He seems to me like a woman going through the change.

"Please tell me if this is making him as he is, as I have been told that a man also experiences a change. He is moody some days and gets peeved over trivial things. He starts arguments, and I find that I can't defend myself or he gets furious at me. I have told him he needs medical care, but can't get him to go."

It must be almost intolerable living with a man like that. He may be just naturally ornery, but it is possible that his age also is making him worse.

The question of a change of life in men is complicated, and medical opinion is divided as to whether or not there is a rapid decrease in the functioning of the sex glands in men in any way comparable to that which occurs in women. Certainly many men do not have any symptoms at all which can be attributed to it.

Some, however, do show fairly definite physical or emotional changes some time in their 50's. Feelings of tension which are made worse by excitement or fatigue are sometimes described. There is a tendency for excitement to be exaggerated and unfavorable news, arguments, or slight disturbances which would not bother a person ordinarily may cause extreme nervousness.

Sex Gland Function

These symptoms, including quarrelsomeness, and possibly difficulty with sleeping, decreased ability to concentrate, mild depression, and the like, are perhaps—but not certainly—associated with decrease in the function of the sex glands.

Authorities have studied the effect of injections of the male hormone—testosterone propionate—in men complaining of such symptoms as those mentioned. The value of this still is doubtful.

As one authority put it, "sex hormones should not be administered to men and women of climacteric (change of life) age with the idea of stimulating increased sexual potency; if this is the object of treatment, disappointment will result in the great majority of instances."

FIRST PLANNED CITY

Mexico City was planned by Cortez and approved by King Ferdinand of Spain in 1519. First planned city in North America, it replaced pillaged Tenochtitlan.

More than 6,000 residents of the United States die from burns each year, one of every three victims being a child under the age of five.

THEY YEN NOT FOR DRENCHING

TOKYO —(AP)—Modern day brides in Kyushu have asked the attorney general's office to do something to halt the old southern Japanese custom of teasing water on the bride as she goes to her wedding. Centuries ago somebody, possibly a prophet, figured that wetting down a bride would bring her luck.

Covered Bridges Fade From American Scene

HARTFORD, CONN. —(AP)—Covered bridges once dotted the Nutmeg landscape but today there are only three remaining. One is the Comstock Bridge of the boundary line of the townships of East Hampton and Colchester, Conn. The other two are Bull's Ridge in Kent, and the West Cornwall Bridge in Cornwall.

In Japan, the diner in a restaurant often cooks his own food in an iron skillet set on the dining table, according to the Encyclopedia Britannica.

Texans In Europe Fuss About Phones

By GRACE HALSELL
Special Reporter-Telegram Correspondent

VIENNA, AUSTRIA—Ask a Texan like Lt. Col. Frank J. Hainse what he misses most in Europe and he likely will answer:

"American telephone operators." Thousands of other tourists and American employes over here will agree.

"We call telephones over here 'ancient instruments of torture,'" Colonel Hainse of Amarillo commented. Robert Keller of Waco and Fort Worth moaned: "You give the operator a number . . . and an hour later you are still waiting."

Within a city, say Paris, one might expect to get a local call immediately, but after giving it to the hotel operator, you always get a polite: "I will get the number and call you back in five minutes."

You are lucky if the five minutes isn't 30 minutes.

Better In Germany
In Germany, the telephone situation is better than in many countries, but one can get into difficulties calling "civilian" and military numbers.

And in Vienna, Alexander Gramham Bell would not guarantee his invention. Viennese can dial a telephone and get all sorts of services. They can get weather reports, a tune for a violin, lullabies for their babies, and dictation for practicing stenographers.

All that sounds fine. But an American still trying to call Joe Doakes has troubles.

Brazil Plans Index

RIO DE JANEIRO—(AP)—Brazil is planning a national "cost of living" index like that published in the United States.

The Ministry of Labor has started preliminary studies for the index, in preparation for a new law establishing minimum salaries in Brazil's various regions.

Especially if he tries to call long distance from Vienna.

The Soviets censor your calls . . . and your party sounds like he's 20 feet under the Atlantic. Texans and others agree—there is nothing like an American telephone—and U. S. A. operators.

INVESTMENT PLAN
for CAPITAL ACCUMULATION
HARRIS, UPHAM & CO.
112 OFFICE FROM CHASE TO CHASE

TO HELP YOU INVEST WISELY!

Most of us realize that the first step in planning for a brighter future is to start putting money away regularly now. What is not so fully realized is the need for a workable plan for both the actual saving and for the productive employment of dollars as they accumulate.

The Harris, Upham booklet called "Investment Plan for Capital Accumulation" tells about an effective, voluntary plan to help build your "nest egg." It's a practical program, capitalizing on tested investment principles, and requiring from as little as $25 per month to maintain it. It is not, however, in any sense a "get-rich-quick" scheme.

It will only cost you a stamp, or a phone call to learn about this plan. So why not send in the coupon, or give us a call, today?

Daddy Ringtail

Daddy Ringtail And Smart Girl

Daddy Ringtail, your monkey friend, was sitting beneath the very tall tree with his monkey house in the top. The sun was warm on the Elephant Path. The flowers were bright and gay. Daddy Ringtail was not going up for supper until supper was ready.

While he was sitting there, thinking of the sun and the flowers, there came a someone walking toward him. She was a little monkey girl. Daddy Ringtail thought she was much too little to be out by herself, although no one in the Great Forest would ever have harmed her.

"My name is Daddy Ringtail," Daddy Ringtail said.

"My name is Mitzi," said the little girl. "I live down by the sea, and I am going to see my monkey grandmother. She lives on the other side of the Great Forest."

Daddy Ringtail said he thought this was nice. Mugwump often visited people. And of course a visit to see a grandmother is a happy visit indeed—even though she is a monkey, if you are a monkey too. But

The little girl said she would, and so they climbed up to the monkey house. They phoned the little girl's grandmother, but she wasn't at home and wouldn't be back until tomorrow.

"There now," said Mother Ringtail, "you will surely have to spend the night with us now."

"Yes, thank you," said Mitzi. "She's so very little," Mother Ringtail whispered to Daddy Ringtail. "Do you suppose she is really a smart little girl who is big enough to travel by herself? Or can she have run away from home?"

Daddy Ringtail didn't know, and I don't know either, but I'll find out and tell you tomorrow. Happy day!

"I know," said Mitzi. "Very well, then," said Daddy
