Actress Declared Chronic Alcoholic

LOS ANGELES—(AP)—Dorothy Comingore, former movie actress, is in the psychopathic ward of County General Hospital awaiting a hearing Thursday on the request of her former husband that she be committed to a state hospital for treatment of chronic alcoholism.
 Theodore Strauss, a writer and divorced second husband of the actress, signed the petition for her commitment. She lost custody of her two children by her first husband, screen writer Richard J. Collins, on the ground she was an alcoholic.

So named because of its unusually large ears, the mule deer roams the wildest, roughest and most mountainous regions of the west and southwest.

 Asked if she considers $2,000 a month for life insurance a reasonable request, the former Esperanza Bauer replied:
 "Yes, I do. Suppose Mr. Wayne should die? How would I live? I've got to have some protection—and I think this would guarantee the $12,000 a year I need to live."
 Concerning her request for $40 a month for sports activities, Mrs. Wayne declared she pays a caddy $5 a golf game and usually loses three or four balls worth $1 each.
 "Your honor," said Wayne's attorney, Frank Beicher, "I say any caddy who loses three or four balls a game isn't worth $5."

Borger Rites Held For Midland Woman

Funeral services for Mrs. Cora M. Snelgrove, 82, who died in Midland Monday, were conducted Tuesday at the First Christian Church in Borger with the Rev. Clarence Clayborn, pastor, officiating. Interment was in the Highland Park Cemetery.
 Mrs. Snelgrove came to Midland 18 months ago to reside with a daughter, Mrs. C. H. Paterson, of 1206 South Fort Worth Street. She had lived in Borger since 1929.
 Mrs. Snelgrove was a member of the First Christian Church. She was born in Ohio.

Survivors include three daughters, Mrs. Roy Smartt of Cactus, Mrs. A. J. Southern of Mingo, and Mrs. Patterson; five grandchildren and four great-grandchildren.
 Newell W. Ellis Chapel had charge of arrangements here.

Oatls Scheduled For Hospital Stay

NEW YORK—(AP)—William N. Oatis, Associated Press correspondent recently released from a Czech Communist prison, will enter a sanitarium within a few days for treatment of a lung condition he contracted during confinement.
 He has been pronounced in good physical condition by physicians who examined him, except for a possibility that tuberculosis still is active in a small area. The length of his stay in the sanitarium has not been determined.

Oatis, who originally had been sentenced to a 10-year term on espionage charges, was released by Czech officials May 16. He said his news-gathering activities in Czechoslovakia which led to his trial would have been considered routine in the United States.

Beta Sigma Phi Chapter Closes Year's Work

Secret pal gifts were exchanged at the final meeting of the year of Iota Beta Chapter, Beta Sigma Phi, Tuesday in the home of Mrs. Alton Brown, 2004 Douglas Street.

Mrs. Ray Phillips was in charge of the program, when members held an informal discussion on what they had derived from the chapter during the last year. Hazel Schneider gave a report on the float being constructed by Beta Sigma Phi members for the rodeo parade.

Refreshments were served to Mrs. W. M. Johnson, Mrs. David Bainbridge, Maxine Ebeling, Barbara Fessler, Mrs. W. A. Fetterly, O'Gene Oill, Ina Hubbard, Mrs. Bernie Jennings, Mrs. Erwin Lehker, Barbara Marshall, Betty McWhorter, Mrs. Ralph Mills, Mrs. Joe Mims, Mrs. Ray Phillips, Dana Pirnie, Hazel Schneider, Pat Shuffield, Mrs. Wilbur Stockton, Dolores Waldon, Mrs. Dave Watson, Mrs. Brown and Jessie Mae Whiteside.

Pecos Contributes To Relief Funds

PECOS—Contribution of $258 by the Pecos Church of Christ led the Pecos donations to the Waco-San Angelo relief fund this week.

Returns from a benefit show staged by Al Cook at the Grand Theater are expected to total approximately $300.

The Pecos Enterprise's clothing drive netted approximately 1,000 pounds of clothing and bedding and $30 in cash.

Flattering New 'Italian' Styles Require Expert Cut, Shaping

By ALICIA HART NEA Beauty Editor

The so-called "Italian" hair styles, currently the rage among coiffure-conscious girls, all depend on expert, professional cutting which is done in layers. Each of the layers can be pin-curlled easily as the cut tells the girl exactly where to place each how much hair to select for each pin-curl.

Permanents aren't necessarily given with these cuts, even to girls with perfectly straight hair. The essence of the style is a casually-formed curl that is more natural movement than actual curl. The best of the styles, however, look neat, rather than jagged, even though they are natural looking. The styles come in various lengths. One of the very short styles is parted in the center and set in the salon or at home in the following manner:

Three curls are set on each side of the part, close-to the forehead line. On the right side, you set a curl clockwise, another curl counter-clockwise and the third curl in the series, again clockwise. Do just the opposite for the left side of the part, so that when combed the curls face each other.

Set two little curls in front of Italian hair style (above) is cut in layers. Each section swirls in indefinite curls toward face.

Eisenhower Says Prisoners Won't Be Forced To Return

"Our Allies are in full accord," Eisenhower said.

Red Cross Offers Rehabilitation Aid For Flood Victims

LAKE CHARLES, LA.—P—Necessary victims of a $15,000,000 flood were offered Red Cross rehabilitation funds Wednesday.

Only a few damp places remained from the Calcasieu River high waters which caused 15,000 to flee from their homes.

At Cameron, 50 miles south of here, there no longer was any threat of a flood. Previously the town of 2,000 had been warned the water might rise two or more feet.

Porter Tull, Red Cross director of rehabilitation, said grants would be made for those unable to help themselves but that need had to be shown.

The Red Cross set aside $125,000 for flood relief in the entire state, where almost 9,000 families were affected by floods which lasted more than a week.

But if there was international unity on that issue, there was a sharp dissent from South Korea on the latest United Nations truce proposals. And at home, dissatisfaction was voiced by members of Congress with the current course of events.

Representative Hand (R-NJ) took issue with the no-forced repatriation principle, urged that the Administration stop "splitting hairs" and get a quick truce.

Eisenhower's statement, which the White House said was issued to clear up unspecified misunderstandings, was a firm declaration that the UN will not agree to any plan under which reluctant prisoners will be forced to Communist control.

"Certain principles inherent in the United Nations Command position . . . are basic and not subject to change," the President said.

"No prisoners will be repatriated by force. No prisoner will be coerced or intimidated in any way. And there must be a definite limit to the period of their captivity."

"The procedures used in handling the prisoners must reflect these principles."

South Korea, through Ambassador You Chan Yang, told the State Department late Tuesday the latest Allied truce proposals are "completely unsatisfactory." Rising anger over the proposals, which have not been officially disclosed, was evident in Seoul.

The objection appeared to be a fear that a truce would leave Korea divided, with the Chinese Reds in North Korea indefinitely.

Acting Secretary of State Walter Bedell Smith, according to informants who may not be named, reassured Yang that the U. S. will press for a unified Korea despite plans for an armistice along the battleline.

U. S. officials, disturbed by this criticism, expressed confidence that the South Korean objections would not upset current negotiations. They said the idea of a unified Korea would be pressed at a peace conference, set to follow any truce agreement.

The Panmunjom talks are in recess until the weekend.

Japanese Court Refuses To Block Iranian Oil Sale

TOKYO—(AP)—Japanese District Court Wednesday turned down the appeal of the Anglo-Iranian Oil Company for an injunction to block the sale of 18,000 tons of Iranian oil bought by a Japanese firm.

The Idemitsu Kōsan Company apparently will be allowed to dispose of the oil any way it wishes.

Judge Ryoichi Kitamura handed down the ruling after three hearings.

Kyodo News Service said Kitamura ruled that Iran's oil nationalization law is valid and that the Iranian oil in dispute was pumped up and refined after the nationalization law went into effect.

In his request for an injunction, Anglo-Iranian charged that Iran seized the interests of foreigners without compensation.

Final Truce Offer Seen As Adequate To End War

By DREW PEARSON

WASHINGTON — The White House has clamped a lid on the details, but the final truce offer made by the United Nations should be enough to settle the Korean War. For the new terms are so close to the Communists' own proposal that they will not be able to turn it down without appearing completely insincere about a Korean peace.

All the UN allies fighting in Korea have agreed to the new proposal except South Korea's stubborn President Syngman Rhee, who flatly rejected it. He also instructed the South Korean negotiators to boycott the truce meeting. This could monkey-wrench the entire armistice, since Rhee now commands a South Korean army powerful enough to continue fighting on its own.

In fact, the defiant Rhee was clamoring to launch his own offensive against the Communists until Gen. Mark Clark talked him out of it. The South Korean leader has been so balky that Ambassador Robert D. Murphy, who was all set to come home, has been kept on as an adviser to General Clark for the sole purpose of soothing the ruffled Rhee.

Another handicap to the truce talks is the determined opposition of the small, vocal band of Asia-first senators, led by California's outspoken William Knowland. At this writing, Asia-firsters were trying to arrange a meeting between Senator Knowland and the newly appointed chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, Adm. Arthur Radford, in an attempt to toughen the UN truce terms.

India To Be Umpire

Meanwhile, the detailed truce terms are as follows:

1. India to be chairman of the five-nation armistice commission. Other members: Sweden, Switzerland, Czechoslovakia, Poland. All decisions to be settled by a majority of three. This means India would be the referee, could cast the deciding vote.

2. A 30-month time limit for starting the machinery to screen prisoners of war. Each prisoner would be screened by a full, five-nation board, and each case would be decided by a majority vote. No prisoner would be forced to return home against his will. The question of what to do with the unwilling prisoners would be left to a political conference. If the conference failed to reach a decision, the prisoners would be turned over to the United Nations to be freed.

3. The Communists would have access to their prisoners in Allied camps, but under armed supervision so they could not intimidate prisoners to return home against their will.

4. We rejected the Communist proposal that Poland and Czechoslovakia should send troops to Korea to help supervise the Armistice. Instead we proposed that the policing should be done by India.

The above terms represent a concession from our latest offer, though they are almost the same as last year's Indian compromise which we had accepted. They are so close to the Red terms they should almost certainly lead to an armistice if the Communists sincerely want one. If the Reds reject our proposal, however, the UN has agreed to call for a "permanent recess." This would mean breaking off the truce talks, though without closing the door in case the Communists should change their minds and decide to accept our terms.

It is against the law to honk an automobile horn in Rome, Italy, except in case of emergency.

Nova Scotia Liberals Slip, Retain Control

HALIFAX, NOVA SCOTIA—(AP)—Election returns gave the Liberal party renewed control of Nova Scotia's government Wednesday for the twenty-first straight year, but with a reduced majority in the Provincial Legislature.

The Liberals, headed by Angus L. MacDonald, won 22 seats of 37 in general elections Tuesday. The Progressive Conservatives took 13 and the Socialist Cooperative Commonwealth Federation two.

The Liberals in the last legislature held 27 seats.

She has been an honor student at Odessa College and a member of Phi Beta Kappa, Future Teachers Club and the Shakespearean Club. Planning to attend the University of Wichita next fall, Jean's ambition is to teach handicapped persons.

Los Angeles Mayor Beaten Decisively; Bond Issues Snubbed

LOS ANGELES—(AP)—Congressman Norris Poulson, an Oregon farm boy who came here to try his luck in the big city, has ended the 15-year reign of Mayor Fletcher Bowron.

A staunch advocate of economy in government, the 57-year-old Republican now in his fifth term in the House of Representatives, scored a decisive victory in Tuesday's non-partisan election.

He'll assume the $18,000-a-year job as leader of the nation's fourth largest city on July 1.

Bowron, also a Republican, trailed by 28,781 votes in the semi-official count Wednesday. Returns from 2,800 of 3,641 precincts gave Poulson 227,179 and Bowron 198,398.

The 65-year-old mayor waged a heated campaign to retain the job he's held since 1938. He conceded defeat shortly after midnight, wishing Poulson "every success in the opportunity he has to carry forward the traditions of honesty, integrity, and clean government which the people of Los Angeles so richly deserve."

Two bond issues totaling $60,000,000 failed to get the necessary two-thirds vote for passage. Proposed were a $27,000,000 auditorium and $33,000,000 for airport improvements.

The slam bang campaign for mayor drew a turnout of approximately one-half million voters.

Cardinal Spellman Asks New Italian Letter Campaign

NEW YORK—(AP)—Francis Cardinal Spellman has called for a new letter-writing campaign by Americans to ask Italian friends and relatives to vote against communism in their national elections June 7.

In a letter to pastors of 387 New York Archdiocese Roman Catholic parishes, made public Tuesday, the Cardinal recalled that during the 1948 Italian elections many Americans wrote to Italian friends and relatives "urging on them the importance of voting and, further, of voting for candidates sworn to uphold Christian democracy."

He said the 1948 letter-writing campaign "was a factor contributing to the defeat of the Communists."

Human Error Blamed In Fatal B-36 Crash

FORT WORTH—(P)—Eighth Air Force headquarters Tuesday blamed errors by radio personnel and poor communications for the crash of a B-36 bomber near Goose Bay, Labrador, February 12.

Two airmen were killed, 14 were injured and Sgt. Carroll W. Butin, first thought dead, was found alive after surviving 36 hours buried beneath the plane's wreckage in deep snow.

The growing in Brazil has developed to the point where Brazilians hope to compete with the producers of the Far East.

SHED A TEAR FOR CASEY JONES—
Last T&P Iron Horse Joins
67 Sisters In Scrap Heaps

MARSHALL—(P)—The last Iron Horse—Texas style, Sub—has headed for the final roundhouse, and all the eyes along the Texas & Pacific Railway were not dry Wednesday.

Old No. 650—just a few years ago a mammoth, puffing behemoth that ate up the miles with 100 loaded boxcars in tow—joined 67 sisters Wednesday in railroad history's dust bin.

Last of the Texas-type giants, the 600's were designed especially to haul freight trains over the long, hot rugged miles between Texarkana and El Paso for the T&P.

Technical Designation
Their special wheel arrangement—one pair of small wheels in front under the powerful drive pistons, followed by five pairs of great drive wheels and two pairs of smaller wheels under the cab—gave the 600's their technical designation.

The first, a black shiny giant that thrilled every old railroad worker along the T&P big-rail route, was built in 1925 by the Lima Locomotive Works in Lima, Ohio. In the next four years, 68 more were placed in service.

The fast, heavy and sleek for its day, 600 pulled 60-mile-an-hour merchandise and fruit trains, long oil drags, and speedy refrigerator trains east and west over the T&P's 860-mile run between Texarkana and El Paso. During World War II, the 600's joined the rest of America's hard-pressed transportation system in a steamy, loud-voiced cry of defiance at the Axis powers.

Did War Job
For six long, hard years they heart away Tuesday and Wednesday—and for every cut of the torch there was a new roar on the hearts of the road's oldtimers.

Unpopular Progress
The real-life Casey Joneses, the old boomer brakemen, and the kids that waved along the right-of-way had lost an old friend. Progress that brought the diesels to railroading never was more unpopular.

Thursday, just two 600's will remain—memorials to railroading's hey-day. They are on exhibit at Fair Park in Dallas and on the Will Rogers Memorial Coliseum grounds in Fort Worth.

Albert Spalding, Violinist Of International Note, Dies

NEW YORK—(P)—Albert Spalding, 64, one of the nation's leading violinists and a noted composer and author, died unexpectedly Tuesday night of a cerebral hemorrhage.

Spalding, a member of the famous Chicago sporting goods family, collapsed at his New York apartment as he was dressing to go out.

The famed violinist retired from the concert stage in 1930, telling a crowd of 11,000 at his farewell program in New York's Lewisohn Stadium that he wanted to devote his full time to teaching, writing and composing.

At the time of his retirement, he already had written 60 works for violin, 25 for piano, 30 for voice and four each for chamber music and full orchestra.

He also had authored a novel, "A Fiddle, a Sword and a Lady," Spalding, who won a graduating diploma from the conservatory at Bologna, Italy, at 15, was the institution's youngest graduate since Mozart 133 years before.

He made his debut in Paris in 1905, when he was 17. Three years later he made his American debut at Carnegie Hall.

Spalding was active during both world wars. He was a lieutenant in the U. S. Army Air Service in Italy and France in the first conflict and was with the Italian underground in the second conflict.

He is survived by his widow, the former Mary Vanderhof Pyle, and a brother, H. Boardman Spalding.

Ward Theater Man Loses Court Action

DALLAS—(P)—An instructed verdict of not guilty ordered by Federal Judge W. H. Atwell here Tuesday in the $350,000 anti-trust suit brought by a West Texas theater man against seven film distributors and a chain moving picture exhibitor.

Judge Atwell, in instructing the jury to return the not guilty verdict, said no conspiracy had been proved.

R. E. Rushing, owner of the Ward Theater in Monahans, who brought the suit, contended that the distributors acted in a conspiracy to favor Theater Enterprises, Inc., operators of the rival Texan Theater.

Besides Theater Enterprises, the defendants were Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer, Warner Brothers, Twentieth Century-Fox, Republic Pictures, United Artists, Universal Films and Columbia Pictures.

NOSES NOW, SAYS EXPERT

BALTIMORE—(P)—A small expert says 30 years of research on some 4,000 different noses by his company prove that nothing does the job as well as the human nose.

John Van Bergen, executive of Airkem, Inc., odor control specialists, put it this way: "When the man in the street says 'It stinks,' that is a scientific statement of fact."

He spoke Tuesday at the Annual Air Pollution Control Association conference here.

Reds Execute Four Spies, Charge U. S. Dropped Them

MOSCOW—(P)—The Soviet government charged the United States Wednesday with parachuting four spies—all apparently of Ukrainian or Russian origin—into the Ukraine a month ago. A communique said the four had been arrested, tried and executed.

The announcement from the Ministry of Internal Affairs said the four admitted at their trial that they jumped into the Ukraine, one of the republics of the Soviet Union, on April 26 from an unmarked four-motored American plane.

It said they confessed they were sent in on diversionist, terrorist and espionage assignments.

The communique said the men claimed the American Intelligence Service had ordered them to settle in Kiev and Odessa and had equipped them with radios for contact with American spy centers in West Germany. It said they were ordered to murder Soviet citizens, if necessary, in order to obtain identification certificates to replace forged papers they carried when they jumped.

The men, executed by a firing squad, were identified as Alexander Vasilievich Lakhno, Alexander Nikolaevich Makov, Sergi Iozimovich Gorbunov and Dmitri Nikolaevich Remiz.

The communique charged they had collaborated with German invaders during World War II and had fled to West Germany before advancing Red armies. Arriving there, it said, the four were enrolled at a "special espionage-diversionist school of the American Intelligence" at Bad Wiessee, near Munich.

On April 23, the report continued, an American Intelligence officer took them to Athens, Greece, and they were flown into Soviet territory.

It said they were outfitted with false Soviet passports, forged military papers, firearms, poisons, American-made radio sets, codes, ciphers and other equipment.

Chastened MIG's Refuse Air Battle

SEOUL—(P)—Scores of Allied fighter-bombers pounded Communist communication and supply lines across North Korea without opposition Wednesday as badly beaten Red MIG jets refused to fight.

Deadly swept-wing Sabre jets streaked through overcast skies hoping to fatten their bag of 51 MIG's shot down this month. Sabres destroyed 12 Red jets and damaged another without losing a plane in sky battles Tuesday, the Air Force said.

Some MIG's ventured south of the Yalu River dividing Manchuria and Korea Wednesday, but none would fight.

Solid overcast covered MIG Alley in Northwest Korea between 10,000 and 20,000 feet. Red pilots usually avoid combat in overcast skies.

Only scattered patrol skirmishes were reported along the 155-mile battlefield.

Funeral Rites Held For Water Victim

SEMINOLE—Funeral services were held at 3 p.m. Wednesday in the First Baptist Church here for Frankie Lou Locke, 10-year-old daughter of Mrs. Willie Locke, who drowned Monday while on a family trip to Brush Dam, 30 miles from Monahans.

Interment for the little girl, who had just been promoted to the fifth grade, was in a Seminole cemetery.

Survivors include the mother of Seminole; three sisters, Mrs. Maxine Cook of Rush Springs, Okla., Mrs. Joyce Riebold of Monahans and Mrs. End Elliott of Seminole; and three brothers, F. A. Locke, with the U. S. Army in Japan, and Jackie and Patrick Locke of Seminole.

Rodney Dee Brodie Moves Off Critical List, Plunges Into Role Of Celebrity

CHICAGO —(P)— Rodney Dee Brodie has moved off the critical list and plunged into the rigorous role of a celebrity—and he loves it.

Rodney, the only head-joined Siamese twin to survive a separation operation, was taken from his sheltered life in a hospital room Tuesday and placed before a battery of camera-snapping news photographers.

He faced up to the occasion with a big grin and a loud, "Hi."

The photographs are in preparation for the first glimpse the public will have of the 20-month-old boy whose parents risked all in the hope the twins would have a chance for a normal life. His brother, Roger, died last January 20.

Mr. and Mrs. Royt Brodie have authorized publication of the photographs in newspapers, magazines and newsreels June 4, when their son, Rodney, appears on the March of Medicine program to be telecast from the annual meeting of the American Medical Association.

Lolling in his baby carriage the sun-swept grass court of the Illinois Neuropsychiatric Institute Tuesday, Rodney watched the news photographers go through their paces with an interest sometimes bordering on fascination. He even obligingly waved his rattle at them.

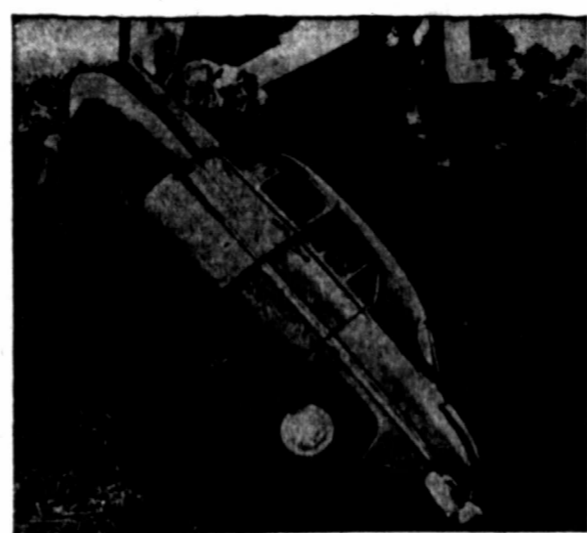

Doctors described Rodney's progress in the last two months as excellent, but he still has a long way to go.

So far, the top of his brain is protected only by a cover of skin and hair. In another two months or so, surgeons hope to build a hard skull roof of bone, metal or plastic and insert it under the skin cover.

The nurses who have cared for him daily say he is as far advanced mentally as any 20-month-old boy and should make it when all surgery and physical therapy is completed.

The doctors say it is too early to tell either way. But they add there is no evidence that his mental capacities have been harmed by the historic, 12-hour separation last December 17.

They described him as "reasonably bright" and say he is improving from a sort of partial left-side paralysis that followed the separation surgery. He has undergone 18 operations.

South Korean Solons Say UN Truce Scheme 'Surrenders' To Reds

SEOUL —(P)— Irate South Korean assemblymen Wednesday called for withdrawal of the United Nations' latest plan to break the Korean War prisoner deadlock. They called it a "dishonorable and surrendering truce."

An Assembly delegation asked for a meeting with Lt. Gen. William K. Harrison, chief Allied truce delegate, to demand that the proposal be scrapped. Harrison said he would try to arrange the meeting Thursday.

In many capitals of the free world, the UN proposal drew favorable comment. Both Britain and India warmly endorsed it. Indian Prime Minister Nehru said he would be surprised if a cease-fire were delayed much longer. The UN plan reportedly follows closely one sponsored by India which the UN adopted last December.

After a meeting with South Korean President Syngman Rhee and other top ROK officials, Assembly chairman Soon Chi Yung implored that pressure from Britain was partly responsible for the proposal which he denounced as a "dishonorable and surrendering truce."

McCarthy Prepares To Quit Washington Probes Temporarily

WASHINGTON —(P)— Senator McCarthy (R-Wis) announced Wednesday he is leaving the city Thursday—perhaps the country—on a 10 day mission for his Senate investigations subcommittee. But he declined to say where he is heading or what he may investigate.

McCarthy turned over to others the handling of his demands for a government crackdown on friendly nations which continue to trade with Red China.

He predicted the Navy Department will modify its refusal to name publicly the British-owned ships McCarthy contends have been used to transport Chinese Red troops during the Korean War.

"The Navy has indicated it may declassify the names of these British-owned ships and the firms which own them," McCarthy told reporters.

Child Loses Life After Finding Gun

DALLAS —(P)— John Edgar Carroll, three, was shot fatally by a pistol his father kept in the glove compartment as he sat in the family car Tuesday.

The boy and his brother, six, were left in the car while the father went into a grocery.

Watches His D's And K's

WASHINGTON —(P)— Representative Bender (R-Ohio) said Wednesday he wants a formal apology from the public printer for what he calls an "incredible garble" in the Congressional Record.

Bender, in a house speech a couple of days ago, talked about President Eisenhower's first four months in office.

The stenographic transcript shows that Bender said: "Unlike his predecessors, he (Eisenhower) believes in work and not pleasant conversation."

But this is the way it came out in the Congressional Record: "Unlike his predecessors, he believes in words and not pleasant conversation."

Brutal Rustler Put In Mental Hospital

BENSON, ARIZ. —(P)— An employee at Jim Finley's ranch at Dragon recently found the remains of a $125 heifer which had been beaten to death with an iron bar. One shoulder of the calf had been hacked off with a broken whiskey bottle.

The rustler, who was arrested by Range Deputy Pete Haverly, was a 67-year-old transient from Texas. He has been committed to the Arizona State Hospital at Phoenix.

A veteran traveler and lecturer listed Bangkok, New York, Paris, Rio de Janeiro, and Washington as five of the world's most fascinating cities.

RED POW KILLED

Bingham, Rutledge Named To All-District 3-AA Nine

Abilene and San Angelo completely dominated the All-District 3-AA baseball team as chosen by the conference coaches in a poll conducted by The Reporter-Telegram.

Except for the front-runners, only Midland and Odessa with two players each managed to gain entrance to the all-star club. Abilene placed six men on the team and San Angelo four.

Midland's selections were Walter Bingham at first base and Rusty Rutledge at catcher.

There were three unanimous choices—Bobby Jack Oliver of Abilene, catcher; Bob Fry, Abilene, shortstop; and Carl Schalsmeyer, Odessa, pitcher.

The questionnaire sent to the league coaches by The Reporter-Telegram requested three pitchers, two catchers, an infield and outfield, and a utility infielder, making a total of 13 players. Special mention was made for Don Peoples of San Angelo, however, swelling the team to 14 players.

Peoples polled two first team votes as a pitcher and two first-team and one second-team ballot as an outfielder. He had more points than any of the three outfielders and more than Teammate Ralph Engler as a pitcher, so he is officially listed as pitcher-outfielder on the club.

Fry and Oliver polled all first-team votes, but Schalsmeyer was named to the second team on one ballot, getting first-team votes on the other five. Jim Spradley of Abilene was a top choice for the mound staff.

The voting was close for second and third base with Don Rhoden of Abilene getting the nod at the former and Jimmy Jackson of Odessa at the latter spot. Jackson edged Bobby Biederman of San Angelo by one point for the third base post, but the San Angelo third base guardian made the selection as utility infielder.

The outfield berths were clear out. They went to James Hopkins and Jim Dan Bourland of Abilene and Nolan Niehus of San Angelo.

Bingham nudged Herbert Biederman of San Angelo for the first-base position, while Rutledge had no trouble landing a berth as a second catcher. Jesse Hatfield and Snoopy Roberts were other Midland players receiving votes.

In determining the total points each player received, two points were awarded for each first-team vote and one point for a second-team vote.

In all, 46 players received votes from the seven participating coaches—Jack Wilkinson of San Angelo, B. L. Blackburn of Abilene, Roy Baird of Big Spring, O. W. Pollis of Lamesa, Jim Daniel of Odessa and Keith Bobo and Louis (Doc) Grevelle of Midland, who made a joint selection.

All-American Match Looms For Finals In British Open

Amateurs played since the war, Harold Ridgeley of Philadelphia beat Ian Calder of England, two and one.

Joe Case of Hendersonville, N. C., defeated Charles Darwin of Cookeville, Tenn., six and four.

Amateurs played since the war, Robert Sweeney of Palm Beach, British amateur champion in 1937 and runner-up in 1946, defeated J. Bennett, an English unknown, one up, in his third round match.

McHale was the first top-rated American eliminated, although Jack Munger, the well-liked Dallas veteran, was put out in the same round Tuesday.

Morning matches Wednesday were played in a heavy downpour. Bill Campbell of Huntington, W. Va., another of the favored American power-hitters, came through into the fourth round with a two and one victory over Dr. G. H. Owens of Scotland.

Ernest Arend, Jr., of Deal, N. J., reached the fourth round when he beat Ralph Duncan of Scotland, one up on the twentieth.

Bruce Thompson of England eliminated Lieutenant Howard Culbreth of Greensboro, N. C., one up. Thus somewhat earlier than usual, the championship evolved into pretty much of an All-American show.

The chances for an All-American final Saturday are extremely bright. The crestfall British, who invented the game and viewed this year's event with more optimism than usual, were pretty well convinced the Yanks would carry the cup back across the Atlantic. American players have won five of the seven

"You Don't Have To Be A Millionaire, Son"

Lots of folks have built financial security for themselves, but the thing you gotta keep in mind is what financial security really is. When you stop to think about it, financial security is actually three things.

First, it's money for a man's family to fall back upon if his life doesn't last long enough to do all that he has planned for them.

Second, it's a rainy day fund—you know, a little nest egg to take care of accidents, illness, and the like.

Third, it's those mighty important dollars to help take care of a fellow when his working days are over—like at my age.

To get this financial security, a fellow's got to start back at your age to set aside a small part of what he makes every month and put it in life insurance. I suggest you call a State Reserve Life agent and let him show you how this small amount can do that mighty big job of providing you with financial security. You'll find that he's a friendly fellow Texan representing a strong old Texas Company.

Scoreboard Takes Rap In 34-3 Tilt

The scoreboard hardly can be read. It's a mess of notes indicating the 34 runs Tide Water made in defeating Schlumberger, 34-3, Tuesday night in the American Division of the Jay-Cee City Softball League.

In comparison, the opener and nightcap were relatively close. Gulf defeated Southwestern Bell, 6-4, in the opener on only six hits. Wildness by Atwood put five runners on base, and all five managed to score. Big blow in the game for the winners was a triple by Hughes. The Telephone men collected nine hits—all singles—but couldn't make them stretch.

Continental took the nightcap from Texas Company, 11-10, with a six-run fifth inning providing the margin. Two walks, five hits and an error figured in the big frame.

Tide Water pounded out 23 hits in their massacre of Schlumberger. Included in the barrage were two home runs by Ragsdale and one by Pittman.

LOOKING BACK ON LEGISLATURE—

Fightin', Feudin' Session Leaves Key Issues Dangling

By DAVE CHEAVENS

AUSTIN —(AP)— The legislative session which ended Wednesday touched off many sharp differences that could not be compromised. One result was stalemate on many key questions, particularly that of pay raises for public school teachers.

The Biennium twin issues of spending and taxation produced one of the longest and bitterest fights in modern legislative history. Administration forces opposing new taxes and battling for increased spending only within bounds of income, held firm control.

Taxes were boxed in at current levels. Spending was increased about $6,000,000 for the next two years but it called for no new revenues.

Filibuster At Peak

Filibustering hit a new peak during the 53rd session. There were four in the Senate. That was more than anyone could remember in any recent session. The longest dragged on 26 hours but the toll road bill it was aimed at finally was passed.

The Legislature broke all the records for fast action on the general state operating budget. It was approved in mid-April at $167,500,000. Most sessions wait until the last minute to clean up the general spending bill.

For the first time in history, the Legislature wrapped into one package a statement of all spending and gave the governor new powers to control the flow of budgeted funds. The total for the next two years will be above a billion dollars—including general revenue, federal funds, fees, licenses.

The 53rd Legislature took many negative or self-cancelling actions.

One, the teachers pay issue, left an aftermath of bitterness that is expected to figure in 1954 political campaign. It's almost sure to come up at the next regular session. The lawmakers voted teachers a $600 a year pay raise, couldn't get together on financing it. That left the teachers with nothing.

Other legislation that was killed

Beasley, Mobley Buy Food Mart

Jack Mobley and C. W. (Cotton) Beasley, new owners of the Modern Food Market (formerly King's Food Market), 211 East Florida Street, will give away 20 baskets of groceries Friday and Saturday during "Get Acquainted" days at the supermarket.

Registering also will begin for an electric refrigerator.

Modern Food Market features complete marketing facilities plus plenty of free parking space. The sign gives Baby Bonds.

Other employees include F. D. Hart, Brady Madry and Floyd May.

outright or died on the vine including bills or constitutional amendments to:

Redistrict the state for the new congressman Texas got after the 1950 census.

Amend the much-assailed Drivers Financial Responsibility Law.

Tighten up on regulations to control loan sharks.

Give the Highway Commission substantial new funds to bring the state's roads up to modern needs.

Re-Codify Some Laws

Re-codify the state's involved and obsolete corporation laws.

Submit a constitutional amendment to let cities and towns build dams to save flood water against times of a drought.

Change the two-year-old election code that permits Republicans and Democrats to join in naming candidates and which will require a Republican primary in 1954.

On the positive side, the waning Legislature took these additional actions:

Passed eight water bills recommended by Governor Shivers, including one for a between-sessions study of the water problem.

Modified the unpopular auto inspection law that kicked up a big row after its passage two years ago.

Gave most state workers $180-a-year pay raises.

Submitted a total of 19 constitutional amendments to the voters, including one to raise the ceiling on welfare spending from $35,000,000 a year to $42,000,000. Another would give Texas soldiers in the regular armed forces the right to vote.

Started machinery rolling to provide for future state office buildings by using the Confederate pension surplus. It would have to be approved by the people.

Tightened the liquor and narcotics laws and set up a state commission to help lick the alcoholism problem.

Provided for new state tuberculosis hospitals.

Set up a commission to make a study to get the most out of money spent for higher education.

Set up a state toll road authority as one means of solving the increasing highway-traffic problem.

POOR EXCUSE MAKES NO HAY

ELYRIA, OHIO—(AP)—Crowford Casbolt, 19-year-old Tennessean, offered this excuse Tuesday in court for stealing an automobile: He borrowed a car in Lorain, Ohio, so he could report to his parole officer in Tennessee. The charge? Stealing another car.

Common Pleas Judge D. A. Cook sentenced Casbolt to the Ohio Penitentiary for the Lorain job.

$825 Still Needed In City's Community Ambassador Project

Community Ambassador Project workers who met at Radio Station KCRS this week found they are still short of the $1,500 needed to send Dwan Estes, San Jacinto Junior High principal, to Yugoslavia as Midland's "ambassador."

Herman Krevit, project treasurer, injected a brighter note, however, by reporting that the Midland Kiwanis Club, of which Estes is a member, had voted $100 in sponsorship aid for the journey.

Letters seeking funds have been mailed to Midland groups and individuals. Krevit continued, in an appeal for project aid. A committee of J. P. Marchioni, E. J. Elliott, James O. Simmons, Jack Petosky and Mrs. John Cooper was named to help in the fund drive.

A camera for the Midland envoy's use in Yugoslavia has been donated by the Midland Drug Company.

Project workers will meet at 5 p.m. each Monday at KCRS until Estes' departure.

Present at the meeting were Marchioni, Krevit, John Grimland, Frances Findlater and Estes.

Amphibious Vehicle Deliveries To Begin

SAN JOSE, CALIF.—(AP)—An armored personnel carrier that is a land tank but can propel itself across rivers and lakes is being made for the armed forces by the ordnance division of Food Machinery and Chemical Corporation here.

Quantity delivery of the TC 39's, as they are called, is scheduled to start this Summer.

Republicans To Ask President For Help In Air Force Battle

WASHINGTON —(AP)— Republican leaders have decided to appeal for new help from President Eisenhower in a battle with congressional Democrats opposing a five billion dollar slash in Air Force fund requests.

Their decision came after Secretary of Defense Wilson reportedly came under critical fire by Senator Margaret Chase Smith of Maine and some others at a Senate Republican Policy Committee meeting Tuesday.

Mrs. Smith, also a member of the armed services and appropriations committees, was quoted by colleagues as having contended that Wilson had "brushed off" senators and had not explained satisfactorily how the fund cuts would be applied.

The woman senator had addressed a series of pointed questions at Wilson, who said he didn't believe that she would press for answers of all of them.

Representative Kilday (D-Tex.)

House Democrats meanwhile have begun their own study of Eisenhower's proposal to slash Air Force funds.

Avails Ike's Word

Kilday, a member of the House Armed Services Committee, said he intended to fight the proposed cuts. He contended they would throw the Air Force out of balance with the other services.

Senator Young (R-SD), a policy committee member who has been critical of the proposed reduction, said he believes the President will have to supplement his defense of the cuts made in a radio address to the nation last week.

"If the President will come out and say personally that the program he has outlined for the Air Force is what we need for our security, I will go along with his judgment," Young said.

June 3 Telecast

GOP leaders want Eisenhower to explain in layman's language, either at a news conference or in his scheduled television program June 3, that the cuts affect funds to be spent two or three years in the future and not the current aviation budget.

The White House has said Eisenhower will participate in a television "program." There was indication others might appear with him.

Senator Byrd (D-Va.), an armed services committee member who helped Eisenhower carry Virginia last November, said he thinks the President ought to spell out just how the appropriation cut-back would affect the Air Force.

War, World Tension Backdrop For Plans Of Midland Grads

By BOB GALLAWAY
Reporter-Telegram Staff

Graduating seniors at Midland High School—like seniors in most American high schools—are letting war and world tension form a "taken-for-granted" backdrop to their plans for college, marriage and a "normal" future.

No, they're not ignoring the possibility of military service or chances of a third World War. Of course not. But today's graduate has known very little but war and tension.

"We'll probably have an all-out war," they say, "and we'll probably have to fight in it—but we'll go on and make our plans for college, marriage and a stable future and then, if necessary, change our plans later."

Today's high school graduate is a more sober, mature person than that of five years ago—or one year ago, for that matter. Six Midland High seniors interviewed on the eve of their graduation reflected the basic maturity of "Graduate, 1953."

They've got the whoopie and fun-loving nature of past graduates—but it's tempered with a sense of responsibility.

Take, for example, John Petty, 18-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Petty, 1006 North Colorado Street.

"I figure everybody's going to have to go into the service sooner or later," he reasoned, "but none of us guys are bitter about it. We use all of America's privileges and rights. Two or three years of service is not a bad payment for all the things we get."

He has mapped plans to study law at Texas Tech and, at the same time, earn his commission through the ROTC.

And then, there's John McGuigan, 18, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. H. McGuigan, 204 Club Drive. He plans to study engineering at Washington and Lee University, and get a commission through the ROTC.

"The draft? It depends on whether I keep my grades up or not," he smiled. "I hope that war doesn't grow into something big like World

"Midland Schools Smell," States School Official

Late last week, in a telephone conversation, it was pointed out to the writer that the Midland Public Schools have an odor. Now that we have your attention, we will proceed with the denouement of the situation.

The school system recently purchased two carloads of that wonderful Turf Special Organic Fertilizer. Turf Special with its 10-5-5 formula had worked such wonders on other Midland lawns that it seemed it should be used on the school property. Texas A&M College also recommended the use of a fertilizer such as this with a 10-5-5 ratio. Two carloads of Turf Special is a good deal of fertilizer. It is 60,000 pounds of it to be exact. Also there is considerable territory to be covered around each of the buildings of the school. Well, Turf Special, being organic in nature, undergoes a breaking down when exposed to moisture and warm weather, and therein lies the odor, and therein also lies its superb results. This breaking down releases the organic nitrogen, and when that happens the fertilizer goes to work.

We are happy to report that the odor has now subsided, but the good results will show for many months to come.

Central Texas will draw Billie Jane Henson, 17, away from West Texas. Baylor University's nursing school in Waco is the attraction. The daughter of Mrs. Burpice Henson, 209 South B Street, Billie Jane won an AAUW scholarship to Baylor and will enter the school next Fall.

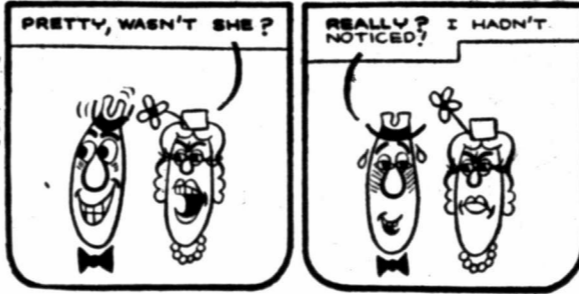

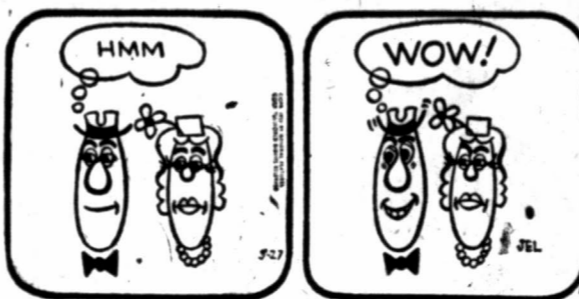

"Marriage? Not for a long, long time," she said. "I want to go on and get my education and then I can think about getting married."

"I think there are quite a few serious people in high school now," she continued. "In fact, most all of the seniors here seem to have more sense of responsibility."

High School Principal Don Mitchell and Dean Jack Mashburn summed up the modern tempo this way:

"This year's graduates are the tops of our careers. They're more stable, more dependable and carry a definite respect for people, property and citizen responsibilities."

Security Is Real Test

There seems to have developed in Congress a blot of lawmakers committed to a "tax cut at any cost." The distinguishing mark of this fraternity is the evident desire to slash taxes without serious regard to the country's needs.

This group, of course, is dimly disappointed at the statement of Secretary of the Treasury Humphrey that the Administration has given up hope of balancing the budget in the year starting July 1.

The tax-cut advocates think this is nonsense. They think it's perfectly sound to ignore the danger of a big deficit and even take the risk of enlarging it.

The alternative implied in this "must cut" philosophy is an arbitrary limit on spending to keep it at a level matching the revenue intake these lawmakers think desirable.

These problems—and the Kremlin's threat to peace—are the real determinants of the size of our budget. In other words, what controls is what we need for the nation's welfare and security—not what congressmen committed themselves to do in a campaign fought last year.

There is a lot of difference between carrying a mortgage and trying to lift one.

Tip to the kids who always have a long argument over mowing the lawn: Cut it short.

England Primps For World's Most Colorful Day Of Glory

By ROSETTE HARGROVE

LONDON—Britain has discarded her bedraggled mantle of austerity and is preparing to deck herself out in gay raiment for the greatest Coronation in her history. Everything is being done to recapture the bluff, boisterous spirit of the Painters spruce up city, including Palace sentry box.

"Merrie England" of Elizabeth the First.

The British have gone all out to show the world that they alone can stage the most gorgeous and spectacular pageant. London disappearing gradually beneath a blanket of gay hangings.

Good Financial Deal

Fluttering flags, pennants, banners already hang from public buildings. Flowers are blossoming from window boxes. Londoners, for the first time since the war, are refurbishing their houses, even if only to the extent of painting doors in bright yellow, blue and red.

The visitor gets the impression that the crowning of Elizabeth II is at once a family occasion, an affair of state and also—because things have changed since Queen Victoria—a good financial deal.

Sleep On Tables

Cost of this, the biggest show in the world, is estimated at 1,500,000 pounds (roughly $4,500,000). It is hoped that this expenditure will, if all goes well, bring in 30 times that amount.

The British Travel Association expects the total number of visitors in London on June 2 will be around 200,000. Add that to some 8,000,000 Londoners plus 1,000,000 provincials and it represents a considerable crowd. Authorities calculate that with television and newsreels more than 20,000,000 people will view the Coronation in Great Britain alone.

There is not a hotel room available in London for the week preceding the Coronation. Many visitors will be housed in the suburbs and in south coast hotels. Many provincial sightseers may have to spend the night in an arm chair or on a billiard table.

Minister of Works David Eccles is responsible for setting up around 100,000 seats along the route. The majority of these have been allocated to official British and Commonwealth organizations. Travel agencies have been allotted 4,000 for their foreign visitors. Prices start at $40. Members of the Commonwealth will pay $12 for uncovered, $18 for covered seats.

There will also be about 150,000 seats available in private houses, banks and clubs. Seats outside the famous London clubs along the route have been drawn by ballot.

Coronation art includes this big emblem for Canada.

The price varies from $30 to $150; some will have a champagne breakfast thrown in.

And Television, Too
A spokesman at the Ministry of Works estimated that about 1,000,000 people will see the procession from public and private stands, windows and pavements. Television, however, may reduce the figure.

Recently Eccles had to advise on an artistic problem of some delicacy—the decoration of comfort stations in Hyde Park for non-seat holders.

These have been erected to the ratio of six for "ladies" and one for "gentlemen"—with auxiliary accommodation of a simpler sort—for each 1,000 citizens expected in the park. The color scheme is red and gray for "ladies," gray and primrose for "gentlemen." Lettering on notice boards will be the traditional blue (for boys) and pink (for girls).

Get There Early

Strict control over seat holders will be maintained. Passports will have to be shown for both public and private stands, and seats are not transferable. Agencies are obliged to supply for police check-up, the names and addresses of their clients. Already in the English ports there is a much stricter control of identity papers.

Between 12,000 and 15,000 police will line the route, plus 2,000 service men, and another 800 troops will assist in traffic control and car-parking. At the last coronation in 1937 something went wrong and many peeps in full regalia waited until 9 p.m. before they could get to their automobiles.

By June 2, seven miles of tubular barrier, plus six-foot high wooden gates across the full breadth of the various streets, will channel spectators and cut off all access to the route at 70 busy intersections.

Daddy Ringtail And Little Miss Mitzi

Remember yesterday? Daddy Ringtail, your monkey friend, met a little girl of the name of Mitzi. She said she was going to see her grandmother. But night was near Daddy Ringtail asked Mitzi to stay for supper.

Mitzi said she would, and because her grandmother wasn't at home to answer the phone, Mitzi even spent the night.

"How little she is!" said Mother Ringtail to see her. Mother Ringtail whispered to ask Daddy Ringtail whether she was big enough to travel by herself, or whether she had run away from home.

Daddy Ringtail didn't know, and he whispered to Mother Ringtail: "If she isn't a smart little girl, I'll have to go with her tomorrow, and see that she doesn't get lost."

Mitzi had been washing her hands. She came in the kitchen just then. She saw the whispering, and said:

"It isn't polite to whisper. You shouldn't do it."

Mother Ringtail smiled at the little girl. She thought Mitzi was very cute. "We don't want to be impolite," Mother Ringtail said, "but here—sit down at the table. You can use the chair that Mugwump uses when he is at home." Mugwump was away to visit the Huf-fen.

Mitzi sat down. She straightened her apron as big as any big girl, even though she was very little. She said again how it isn't polite to whisper. "If you don't want a little somebody to understand you," she said, "then you can spell, if the little somebody does not know how to spell."

Daddy Ringtail laughed. He said, "Mother Ringtail, she surely is a-u-t-e," which meant that Mitzi was cute.

Mitzi laughed. "That's not all," she said, "I'm also s-m-a-r-t," which meant she was smart and knew how to spell.

She knew how to spell as well as anybody, and she really was smart enough to go to see her grandmother all by herself, because her mother had said she could.

And this will show you something, I think, but you decide what it is. Happy day!

 DR. JORDAN SAYS ***
Careful Fitting Of Shoes Is One Way To Curb Bunions
By EDWIN F. JORDAN, M. D.
Written for NEA Service
Bunions are among the most painful ailments of modern life. They are located most commonly at the base of the big toes, and this region becomes enlarged, often red and extremely tender. There are two lines of treatment. One involves an operation and the other is nonsurgical in nature. The first thing to try, of course, is the nonsurgical treatment. This requires the wearing of shoes which are large and round in the toes, thus preventing pressure on the bunion. Complete absence of pressure for a long time is helpful. A hole cut in the shoe may be necessary. Going barefoot is a possibility for those who live in country areas and are not too seriously exposed to the dangers of lockjaw or tetanus. This is suggested by the fact that primitive people who never wear shoes also do not get bunions. These measures may be enough in the early and acute stages of bunions. If the toes straighten out and the inflammation disappears, nothing more needs to be done, except that care should be taken in the future choice of shoes. Surgery may be necessary because the bunion does not yield to other methods. The bunion is associated frequently with the accumulation of fluid in the points lying at the base of the big toe. This fluid can be removed by a needle in some cases. A cut can be made which will allow the fluid to drain off and the swelling to decrease. Finally, the operation which is necessary in bad cases is called a bursectomy. This involves the removal of some of the excessive bone and soft tissue which go to make up the bunion. The operation is usually followed by placing the foot and toes in a plaster of Paris cast which will hold them in a correct position until the wound made by the operation has had a chance to heal. One correspondent recently wrote "The way I feel about having bunions removed, I would like to tell
