

RUTH MILLETT SAYS—
It Isn't Liquor He Misses
But Tavern Pals He Knew

The problem of the husband who drinks too much isn't solved when the husband gives up drinking. Here is the problem left in one marriage after the husband's drinking stopped. His wife writes:

"I've got a good husband, one of the best, and I love him very much. We have been married almost 10 years. He drank quite a bit before we were married and kept it up afterward. But as our children grew old enough to notice things I finally persuaded my husband that we couldn't give them the right kind of home unless he quit stopping at a tavern every night on his way home from work."

"I grew up in a home where my father's drinking created all kinds of problems and unhappiness—and I couldn't bear to see my own children go through the same kind of childhood. My husband promised to quit drinking and he did. We joined a church and have been fairly active in church activities. It may seem as though I haven't any problem and I guess I wouldn't have if I didn't love my husband so much that his happiness is of deep concern to me."

A Rosy Picture
"Here's the catch. Once in a while when we are talking in the evening he will say: 'One thing you'll find in a tavern that you never find any—where else is real friendliness.' Then he'll go on to talk of the friends he used to have who would have done anything in the world for him. 'That's not how I remember them, of course. I remember all the times they borrowed money, had to be put up for the night because they were afraid to go home, their rough talk when they were drinking, etc. 'But I don't bring that up because I don't want to start quarreling over something that is past. 'What keeps worrying me is that I don't want my husband to become frustrated and to feel caged, or feel sorry he ever married and look upon his family as a burden. I've seen men like that.' Apparently it isn't the drinking your husband misses but the companionship he found in taverns and believes doesn't exist anywhere else. Perhaps you can help him find that companionship in other places. On hunting trips, fishing, on a golf course, at ball games, anywhere that he can get away with a group of men. Encourage him to replace the tavern companionship he has given up with out-of-doors companionship and you may both be happier. (All rights reserved. NEA Service, Inc.)

Mrs. Herrington Gives Program

Mrs. R. R. Herrington was in charge of the program on ministerial relief when the Greenwood Baptist Women's Missionary Union met Monday in the church. Speakers on the program and their topics were Mrs. Palmer Evans, "The Kingdom Established in Texas;" Mrs. O. N. Reed, "Ambassadors for the King;" Mrs. B. T. Graham, "Our Royal Heritage;" Mrs. Johnnie Morgan, "The Coronation," and Mrs. B. A. Rogers, "Our Pledge of Allegiance."

Mrs. W. O. Graham gave the devotional and Mrs. Reed sang a solo, accompanied at the piano by Mrs. B. T. Graham. Opening and closing prayers were given by Mrs. Alvey Bryant and Mrs. Evans. Refreshments were served by Paisy Morgan and Barbara Graham.

More Hearings Set On 'Book Burning'

WASHINGTON—(AP)—Senator McCarthy (R-Wis.), wading back into the controversy over "book burning," said Tuesday he plans more public hearings designed to show whether some of the authors involved were Communists.

McCarthy said his Senate investigations subcommittee will call 18 or 20 more authors whose books have been used in U. S. information libraries overseas for public questioning about possible Communist affiliations. He announced no date.

McCarthy had demanded that the State Department take from the shelves of the libraries, maintained overseas to give native readers access to U. S. literature, what he termed 30,000 "Communist books."

The New York Times, on the basis of a survey in 30 foreign capitals, reported Monday that several hundred books by more than 40 authors had been removed. It said there had been six confidential directives on the subject from the State Department since February 19, and that interpretation of the orders varied from capital to capital.

The Times listed these as among the better known authors whose works were removed in at least some libraries: Lillian Hellman, Clarence K. Streit, Langston Hughes, Walter Duranty, Dashiell Hammett, Howard Fast and Edgar Snow.

The Times said it found only one library, in Tokyo, where it was contended that in the early stages "many" books and periodicals had been "burned or scrapped for publishing."

Only 18 authors, the Times said, have been listed specifically by the State Department in its book-culling operation.

President Eisenhower spoke out on June 14 against "the book burners," and there was some speculation he had McCarthy in mind. The senator said he had burned no books and didn't think the President could have been referring to him.

California Governor Signs Anti-Red Law

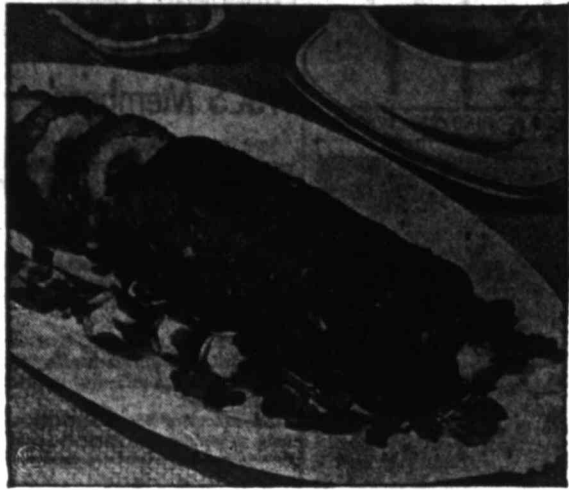

SACRAMENTO, CALIF.—(AP)—Gov. Earl Warren has signed into law a bill intended to outlaw the Communist Party in California.

The bill declares a political party will not be recognized if it advocates violent overthrow of the government, or sabotage against it. It was signed Monday.

The Communists have not been on the California ballot for years.

MEAT ROLL of veal and pork is stuffed with mashed potatoes the way Maine cooks do it and is served with mushroom sauce.

Try Tasty Meat Roll Stuffed With Potatoes

By GAYNOR MADDOX.
NEA Food and Markets Editor

Here's a grand dish from Maine cooks. They are proud of their potatoes and know how to enjoy them in a variety of ways.

Baked Stuffed Meat Roll
(Yield—Six to eight servings)

One pound potatoes, 3 tablespoons melted butter, 1 1/2 teaspoons salt, 1/2 teaspoon celery salt, 2 eggs, 1 tablespoon minced parsley, 1/2 pound chopped raw veal, 1/2 pound chopped raw pork, 1/4 cup minced onion, 1/8 teaspoon pepper, 1/8 teaspoon rosemary, 1/4 cup catsup, 1/4 cup quick-cooking rice cereal.

Peel and cook potatoes. Drain well and mash. Add butter, 1/2 teaspoon salt and the celery salt. Beat and add one of the eggs. Add parsley and whip lightly until smoothly mixed. Cool slightly.

Place chopped veal and pork in mixing bowl. Add remaining egg, the onion, remaining 1 teaspoon salt, pepper, rosemary, catsup and rice cereal. Mix well.

Pat out in even layer on sheet of waxed paper, about 8 x 12 inches. Spread potato mixture over meat to within 1/2 inch of the edges. Roll up like jelly roll. Place on greased shallow baking dish. Bake in moderately hot oven (375 degrees F.) until meat is thoroughly done, about one hour.

Serve cut in slices, accompanied by a mushroom cream sauce, or a creamed vegetable.

Several readers have asked—just how do you do hashed brown potatoes? Here's the way we do them at our house:

Hashed Brown Potatoes

Use either salt pork cut into cubes or 1/2 cup bacon fat. If salt pork is used, saute until brown and remove scraps. Add 4 cups of finely diced cooked potatoes, salt and pepper. Mix thoroughly with fat. Cook until the underside is brown. Fold the way you do an omelette, turn onto a hot platter and sprinkle with minced parsley.

UN Leader Cables Message To Rhee

UNITED NATIONS—(AP)—Lester Pearson, president of the UN Assembly, cabled Syngman Rhee Tuesday that he is shocked at the release of the North Korean prisoners of war. He called on Rhee to cooperate in determined efforts for an armistice.

The message was released at UN headquarters as Pearson and Dag Hammarskjold, UN secretary general, made plans for a conference in Ottawa Friday on the Korean crisis.

"As president of the General Assembly of the United Nations, I have been shocked to hear of the unilateral action which you have sanctioned in bringing about the release of nonrepatriable North Korean prisoners from the United Nations prisoner of war camps in Korea," Pearson said.

Pearson reminded the South Korean president that the United Nations hurried to the assistance of his government when the Communists attacked in 1950. He said that in view of the collaboration of three years, "it is most regrettable that you have taken action which threatens results already achieved in the prospect of a peaceful solution of remaining problems."

"I hope and trust that you will cooperate with the United Nations Command in its continuing and determined efforts to obtain an early and honorable armistice," he added.

The release of the North Korean prisoners, Pearson said, violated an agreement reached between the UN Command and the Communists June 8 and it occurred at a time when hostilities were about to cease and when the question of the unification of Korea could be dealt with by a political conference.

Nehru Opponent's Death Sets Off Rioting In India

NEW DELHI, INDIA—(AP)—Club-swinging police and Hindu extremists battled in the streets of India's capital Tuesday in the wake of the death in political captivity of Syama Prasad Mookerjee, a major opponent of Premier Jawaharlal Nehru.

Police officials said constables charged a mob of 1,000 demonstrators and arrested 20 after four policemen were "seriously wounded."

Police took special security measures throughout the capital.

Mookerjee, 52, died early Tuesday in Srinagar, capital of Kashmir, where he was jailed five weeks ago for defying a ban on his entering the state. Seizure of Hindu lands by the predominantly Moslem Kashmir state government had caused agitation and violence by the Jan Sangh in the neighboring Punjab. Officials said a heart ailment, following an attack of pleurisy, caused Mookerjee's death, and that he had been moved from jail to a nursing home as soon as he became ill.

A spokesman for Mookerjee's Jan Sangh faction said until details were forthcoming, his group could say nothing, but "when we know more, rest assured we will have a great deal to say." Mookerjee's supporters were expected to charge the Nehru government had killed their leader.

Marianna Proves Fraulein, Not Scow; Divorce Refused

BIRMINGHAM, ENGLAND—(AP)—Who or what was Marianna? A husband-stealing fraulein from Hamburg? Or an old German scow? A scow, insisted Frederick Bradford.

A fraulein, ruled Judge Arthur H. Forbes.

And Mrs. Bradford won her divorce suit.

It all began last year when Bradford, an employe of the Allied Control Commission in Hamburg, wrote home asking his wife for a divorce.

"I have met a girl with whom I am sure I can be happy," said the letter, read in court. "I am 31 years old and Marianna and I have known each other for two years now. That is long enough to prove this is no light flirtation."

In due course, having no satisfactory reply, Bradford returned to Birmingham and sued his wife for divorce on grounds of desertion.

His wife sued him right back, same grounds, and offered his letter in evidence.

Bradford protested that he invented a sweetheart to make his wife jealous and took the name Marianna from a boat which plies the River Elbe.

"I think the truth was that there was a Marianna and that he fell violently in love with her," was Judge Forbes' finding.

He denied Bradford's suit, granted his wife's, and gave her custody of their son, Davis, eight.

NOTABLE RELIC—This U. S. Treasury note, dated Aug. 19, 1861, has been identified as the first federal security sold to finance the Civil War. It was first purchased by Frank Taylor and was redeemed, cancelled, and returned to him years ago. The note was acquired by the Riggs National Bank from his grandson, also named Frank Taylor, and is now on display in the Treasury Department archives in Washington.

Hizzoner Finds Lawbreaking Isn't Always What It Seems

OKLAHOMA CITY—(AP)—Hizzoner the judge was in a legal tizzy Monday.

He accidentally violated a city statute, and as he frantically tried to patch things up, he came close to breaking another law.

It all started with a broken water pipe at Judge Everett Crismore's home. His wife woke up and told the judge the lawn was soaking up a lot of water.

Ordinarily, that wouldn't be anything to get excited about.

But in drought-dry Oklahoma City, where the water supply is disappearing faster than apple pie in an orphan's home, a wet lawn can be embarrassing. A city statute says lawn watering is out this Summer.

With visions of irate neighbors swimming through his mind, the judge leaped into his car at 5 a. m. and raced for the nearest plumber.

Sleepily, the plumber told him all he had to do was take a cutoff tool and stop his water supply. He gave the judge the proper tool.

As Crismore fished for the water valve, he suddenly remembered another city statute. Only a plumber or a water department employe is permitted to touch the gudget.

The judge put the wrench down and called the water department, waiting patiently for the emergency man to show up. Meanwhile, neighbors with raised eyebrows began hopping into their cars to go to work, driving past the shimmering green Crismore lawn.

The water man came, turned off the supply, and told the judge when the pipe was fixed he would turn it on.

Crismore, back at the bench, was a little more lenient with the accused defendants that afternoon. He said he now knew first hand what it meant to be caught in a web of circumstantial evidence.

McCarthy Claims New Lead On Red Plot To Kill Him

WASHINGTON—(AP)—Senator McCarthy (R-Wis.) said Tuesday Senate investigators have found two men who may shed additional light on a reported Communist plot to kill him.

He told reporters both will be called before his Senate investigations subcommittee for questioning, but declined to name them or discuss what testimony they might give.

He said both attended Communist meetings at which the alleged conspiracy was discussed.

Joseph D. Mazzei, who said he was a former FBI counterespionage Communist, testified last Thursday he had heard a Pittsburgh Communist boast last December 4 of being under Communist party orders to kill McCarthy "when the time comes."

Mazzei named the man as Lou Bortz, Bortz, pleading that his answers might tend to incriminate him, refused to testify whether he ever had received or mentioned such orders.

Children Ride On Ancient Tab

ELM GROVE, W. VA.—(AP)—Eighty-nine-year-old Mrs. Jesse Baird took her two grandchildren on a five-mile choo-choo ride Tuesday with a couple of train tickets more than 50 years old.

Mrs. Baird recently wrote to the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad headquarters in Baltimore saying she had the ancient tickets. She explained she'd like to give her grandchildren their first train ride with them.

The B&O said okay since there wasn't any date of expiration. So Mrs. Baird and the children took the 13-minute trip from here to Wheeling.

ROCKETEER'S DREAM—Sketch shows "baby" space station which could be built and sent aloft within 10 years, according to Dr. Werner Von Braun, one of the world's foremost rocket authorities. In a Collier's Magazine article, he claims this space station, which would contain a maze of scientific instruments, could be sent aloft to circle the earth for 60 days at a 200-mile altitude and speed of 17,200 miles per hour. The machine would also carry television so earth watchers would be able to see how three highly intelligent Rhesus monkeys react in their air-conditioned quarters aboard the station.

House Votes Big Reduction In Taxes For Own Members

WASHINGTON—(AP)—The House of Representatives, which since last February has kept bottled up a bill for individual tax reduction, has voted to give its own members substantial tax relief.

But the Senate may knock the plan in the head, as it did last year.

Without debate and with no audible opposition, the House voted Monday to allow members of Congress to deduct all their Washington expenses when they figure out their tax bills. They could deduct lodging, food, taxicabs, telephone charges and so on for themselves but not for their families.

For tax purposes, their legal residences would be in their home districts, and all Washington expenses would be considered business expenses and deductible for tax purposes. Congress members may now deduct up to $3,000 a year as Washington expenses.

The tax relief proposal was written into the annual appropriation bill to finance Congress. It was proposed by Representative McCormack (D-Mass.), who long had advocated a pay raise for congressmen on the ground that they have difficulty making ends meet on their present $15,000 official income.

A similar proposal was added by the House last year to the same bill, but the Senate knocked it out and the result was the compromise allowing members of congress to deduct up to $3,000 as business expenses. The McCormack proposal in effect would remove this limitation.

Senator Williams (R-Del.), who led the Senate fight against the proposal last year, said he would fight it again this year.

Some members of Congress, Williams said, have large outside incomes which put them in the bracket taxed at 90 per cent of income. He estimated that these members spent at least $20,000 a year while in Washington, and if they could deduct all their tax bill would be decreased by 90 per cent of that amount, of $18,000.

The House-voted plan, he said, "gives the most relief to those who need it least."

McCormack estimated that the average congressman spends at least $4,500 on business expenses while attending sessions of Congress.

Other members said that was a conservative estimate.

It's only fair, he said, that the lawmakers be treated the same as anyone else coming to Washington on business and be allowed to deduct their necessary expenses.

Negro Bloc Seeks Total Integration Of Minority Groups

ST. LOUIS—(AP)—The National Association for the Advancement of Colored People now seeks "a total integration of negroes and other minority groups." Walter White, executive secretary of the association, says.

Speaking at a news conference Monday, White said progress toward achieving equal educational opportunities for all races, particularly in the South, brought about the change in the NAACP's goal.

He said the organization has abandoned the "separate but equal" theory.

White added many persons "are awakening to the tremendous cost of equal but separate education for the races."

White is here for the forty-fourth annual convention of the association, opening Monday night.

Political Foe Says Rhee Hurt Country

SEOUL—(AP)—A political opponent of President Syngman Rhee said Tuesday South Korea might be isolated from the free world as a result of Rhee's unilateral action in releasing more than 27,000 war prisoners.

Dr. Chough Pyung Ok, former home minister and defeated vice presidential candidate, did not propose that the prisoners be returned to UN stockades, however. He told a news conference anti-Communist North Koreans should have been freed one or two years ago.

Chough called Rhee's action "unwise at this time."

Cattle Slaughter Talked As Drouth Loss Climbs

By The Associated Press
Texas' damaging drouth has become so bad they're talking of slaughtering cattle.

Concerned officials discussed the possibility Monday in Washington. Jack Porter of Houston, Republican national committeeman from Texas, met with congressional leaders. They talked of what could be done about drouth in Texas and other Southwest States.

One idea discussed with Representative Hope (D-Kan) was a cattle slaughter program. It was to be taken up with Agriculture Secretary Benson Tuesday.

Representative Poage of Waco, member of the House Agriculture Committee which Hope heads, said he would support cattle slaughter "on a sound basis." Poage said he introduced legislation two months ago which would provide for buying up cattle and selling them abroad.

Such a program would be in addition to aid in the form of cheaper feed and easier credit for stock raisers.

Benson called a conference of livestock men, retailers and farm credit representatives Friday. Benson wants to prevent dumping beef cattle from Southwest drought areas on the market.

Benson is scheduled to visit drouth areas late this month. He will be in Lubbock for the Cotton Congress this weekend.

A scorching sun has seared pastures. Farm officials are concerned that stock raisers—finding grazing land burned away—will overload markets. This could cause sharp price drops.

Cattle receipts at Fort Worth have run almost 90 per cent ahead of last year.

Library Group Head Urges Anti-Intellectualism Fight

LOS ANGELES —(P)—A firm stand is necessary against a wave of anti-intellectualism in the United States, says the president of the American Library Association.

The attitude, Robert B. Downs told the association's 72nd annual conference, is manifesting itself in "attacks on books on free speech, freedom of inquiry, freedom to teach and all those rights which we have long held to be guaranteed by the First Amendment to the United States Constitution."

Downs told the 4,000 librarians: "A virulent disease, presently diagnosed as McCarthyism, but antedating the distinguished senator for whom it is named by centuries, is infecting almost every segment of our governmental structure, from national down to local levels."

Downs said individual librarians "have a responsibility in the explosive situation with which we are confronted. When our colleagues are under attack, we should come to their defense in every feasible manner."

Among books which have fallen under suspicion and investigation, said Downs, are those by such prominent Americans as Adlai Stevenson, the Rev. A. Powell Davies, Judge Learned Hand, George Gerahwin and Secretary of State Dulles.

Downs did not identify the books by title, but he said: "It is not difficult to imagine the impression which the audience whom the information libraries are trying to reach is gaining of freedom of speech and of the press in the United States."

Funeral Rites Held For Ex-Midlander, Mrs. Mattie Love

Funeral services were held at 10 a.m. Monday in the Newline W. Ellis Chapel for Mrs. Mattie Reagan Love, 84, former resident of Midland and mother of Mrs. Bertha M. Rhodes of Midland, who died in Brownwood Sunday after a long illness.

The Rev. J. Q. Woodard, assistant pastor of the First Baptist Church, officiated. Interment was in Resthaven Memorial Park.

Mrs. Love, who was born Aug. 18, 1869 in Round Rock, came to Midland 16 years ago from Livingston. N. M. She was in ill health for the past three years, and during that time lived in Brownwood rest home. Her husband, S. O. Love, died March 5, 1940 in Livingston.

Surviving Mrs. Love are her daughter, four sons, Sidney O. Love of Tulsa, Charles Elton Love and James L. Love, both of Amarillo and Ernest W. Love of Fort Worth; and nine grandchildren.

Palbearers were Eddie Frank Conner, Dr. Glenn Walker, Clint Myrick, James Mims, Malcolm Davis, O. W. Hatfield, Ellis Conner and E. W. Watlington.

Red Loudspeakers Again Air Forecast Of Truce Thursday

SEOUL —(P)—Communist troops jabbed lightly at Allied lines across Korea and patrols prowled through no man's land Tuesday. Both Allied and Communist armies appeared to be awaiting the outcome of tangled armistice negotiations.

Communist loudspeakers on the central front again blared their prediction that an armistice will be signed Thursday—third anniversary of the war. The Reds had predicted a truce on June 25 for days before an armistice was jeopardized by South Korea's release of more than 27,000 anti-Communist war prisoners.

The biggest Red probing attack Tuesday was in company strength, the Eighth Army reported.

Overcast skies and rain grounded most Allied warplanes.

The Eighth Army said more than 10,000 Communists were killed last week, most of them in the bloody fighting on the central front. The total was the biggest since the battles for White Horse Mountain and Triangle Hill last October.

Allied casualties for the week were not disclosed, but UN losses presumably were heavy.

Louisianan Defends States' Rights To Share Shelf Oil

WASHINGTON —(P)—The Senate Tuesday again was debating a law for administration of submerged lands.

The bill would authorize the secretary of Interior to develop the oil, gas and sulphur deposits of that part of the continental shelf beyond the states' seaboard boundaries.

Texas Wheat Loan Authority Received

COLLEGE STATION —(P)—The State Production and Marketing Administration Committee has received authority to make distress loans to Texas wheat farmers.

Loans will be on wheat stored on ground and in the open in counties south and west of Wichita Falls, committee Chairman B. F. Vance said. Producers east of Wichita Falls must get prior approval on an individual basis from county PMA committees.

Agriculture Secretary Benson recently said the program would be expanded to Texas because of a shortage of storage. Any Texas producer is eligible for a loan on temporarily stored wheat.

TO EL PASO
Mrs. Tom W. Harrison and sister, Mrs. Nora Bates, accompanied Mrs. R. T. Smith to El Paso Monday. Mrs. Smith, daughter of Mrs. Harrison, had been visiting in Midland a week.

MIDLAND VISITORS
Mrs. H. R. Elliott and Mrs. Jim C. Black of Stanton visited here Monday.

The bill is a follow-up to the inner shelf states' ownership measure.

That previous legislation gave the states title to submerged resources within their boundaries but left undecided the administration of resources in the outer area of the shelf.

Under the pending bill, the secretary of Interior would adopt as federal law the rules of the abutting coastal states for application in outer shelf areas.

Senator Cordon (R-Ore) opened debate late Monday with a description of the bill.

He told the Senate he would have preferred to see existing federal laws applied outright to the territory. He said the majority of the Interior Committee felt it would be more practical if the laws of the abutting states were adopted.

A provision states that adoption of the state laws as federal laws is not intended to in any way increase the claims that any state might make for control or rights in the outer shelf area.

Senator Long (D-La) was the lone signer of a minority report of the committee opposing the bill.

"The bill," he wrote, "by denying the states any power of taxation and refusing them any portion of the revenues which might be derived from the outer continental shelf, fails to recognize the tremendous financial burdens which operations in the area will place upon the states concerned."

He said the families of workers at the offshore wells would reside on land, and that they and the oil companies would use the schools, highways, bridges and other public-financed services and facilities.

Graham, Green To Attend Contests For 4-H Club Boys

One Midland 4-H Club boy, Ronnie Graham, will be among some 1,300 Texas club members who'll be seeking winner crowns Thursday at the state judging and team demonstration contest at Texas A&M College.

Graham will represent the 26-county Extension District 6 in the tractor operators contest. At least 17 other contests are scheduled at the state meet.

"Many of the winners at A&M will go into national competition," said County Agent Charley Green, who will accompany the Midland team.

"Prizes for the national events include such things as college scholarships and other awards."

Green and Graham will go to A&M Wednesday, arriving in time for the first event, "share the fun." Finals in this program will be the featured entertainment for the evening and will be held in The Grove.

All other contests begin Thursday morning with results being announced at 6:30 p.m. at the awards dinner.

Hawaiian Workers End Protest Strike

HONOLULU —(P)—Hawaiian longshoremen were expected to return to work Tuesday, ending a mass walkout of waterfront and sugar workers protesting a guilty verdict in a Communist conspiracy trial.

Sugar workers returned to their jobs late Monday.

About 24,000 members of the International Longshoremen's and Warehousemen's Union (Ind) left their jobs after a Federal Court jury Friday convicted union leader Jack Hall and six others of plotting to teach and advocate violent overthrow of the government.

Summer's Business Siesta Is Prelude To Fall Revival

By SAM DAWSON
NEW YORK —(P)—Business is getting ready for its usual Summer siesta. The question this year is: At what level will it start up again in September?

A number of important industries will close down largely during part or all of July for the annual vacations. This practice is spreading through industry. Each year more plants join the vacation shutdown move.

This year some plants are extending the vacation closings for a week or two longer, because new orders aren't too abundant—one of the increasing signs that the economy may be backing away from the peak activity of the long boom.

A Summer slowdown, of course, doesn't go for all industries. Some expect to boom this Summer as never before. These are the ones that cater to America-on-the-move.

Directory Publishers Move District Office To Midland

The Gulf Directory Publishers Corporation has established permanent West Texas district offices in Midland, John L. Echols of San Antonio, president of the firm, announced here Tuesday. The district office was moved to Midland from Abilene, with Hildreth Jordan as manager.

Echols also announced plans of the company for the immediate production of a Midland Street Guide and Traffic Code Handbook.

The proposal is to publish a pocket-sized directory which will furnish 10 points of service to automobile operators, both resident and transient. An ABC of the oil industry of Midland, a city street guide, and city and county maps showing routes of state and federal highways and county roads also will be included.

Other features will include city bus routes and messages of welcome to newcomers from city and Chamber of Commerce officials.

Free Distribution
The guide will be distributed free of charge by the Chamber of Commerce and various city offices. Three thousand copies will be provided these offices, Echols said, with an additional 2,000 copies available for distribution through advertising merchants.

It is hoped to have the handbook in circulation by September 1.

Gulf Directory Publishers Corporation is contractor to a large number of the 325 independently-owned companies in Texas, Echols stated. The firm also specializes in city directories, street guides, traffic code books, office building directories and other features in the directory publishing field.

NEW RULE HELPS MRS. MESTA— Russia Opens Wide Areas To Travel By Foreigners

By THOMAS P. WHITNEY
MOSCOW —(P)—The Soviet government has opened wide areas of European and Asiatic Russia to unrestricted travel by foreigners. The new visitor to benefit from the new freedom will be Mrs. Perle Mesta, President Truman's party-giving minister to Luxembourg.

The relaxation was disclosed Monday night in an official note delivered to all foreign diplomatic missions in Moscow. It was regarded as a significant step since even foreign diplomats until now have been limited in their movements. The order gave no indication that the Soviet's tight policy on admission of foreign visitors was being relaxed. In recent years only carefully screened—and usually sympathetic—travelers have been given entry visas.

There was no immediate indication from Washington that the Soviet move would be followed by similar U. S. action. Countering Moscow, the U. S. since March, 1952, has required all Soviet officials to get State and Defense Department permission before traveling more than 25 miles from Washington or New York City. Other NATO nations have followed suit.

Part Of Same Pattern
Mrs. Mesta, who arrived here June 13 for a visit, plans to leave soon for the Zaborozhe section of the Ukraine, home of the Zaborozhe steel plant and the Dnieper Dam. Although her trip was okayed before the travel bans were relaxed, observers here figured both were part of the same pattern.

The new order apparently clears the way for foreign residents to visit much of European Russia and vast sections of Siberia but it still lists many restricted areas. It also bans automobile journeys of more than 25 miles outside Moscow, except to three places—the monastery town of Zagorsk, the Tolstoy Museum at Klin and the Tolstoy Museum at Yasnaya Polyana, south of Tula. Even these cannot be visited by car without previous notice.

The new regulations also specify 18-mile-deep forbidden zones along the Soviet Union's borders with five neighboring countries—Northway, Finland, Turkey, Iran and Afghanistan. There are no such zones, however, along borders with such Soviet Allies in Eastern Europe as Poland, or along the Chinese-Russian frontier in Asia.

Polga Trip Possible
Despite the remaining restrictions, it apparently is possible now to travel the entire length of the Volga River to its mouth on the Caspian Sea at Astrakhan, and to ride the Trans-Siberian Railway all the way to Vladivostok. Areas of European Russia in which travel is now permitted include:

1. Most of the Soviet Union's Black Sea coast, including the Crimean Peninsula and such resort centers as Yalta—scene of a famous wartime Big Three meeting. Sochi, Adler and Gagra. Only three Crimean cities, Sevastopol, Kerch and Fedosya, remain on the restricted list.
2. The arctic ports of Murmansk and Archangel.
3. All of the Ukraine except the western regions and the Black Sea port of Nikolaevsk. The order removed previous restrictions on visits to Kiev, the Ukrainian capital, and apparently means that the Dnieper Dam and the industrial Donbas region also may be viewed.
4. All of Byelorussia (White Russia), including its capital city of Minsk. This Soviet republic takes in the border area just east of Poland. All of Soviet Armenia. This region is in the Caucasus, just north of Turkey. Some Areas Still Closed

All of Soviet Azerbaijan, except the southern area near the Iranian border. Train travel from Baku, oil port on the Caspian Sea, to Tbilisi (Tiflis) also will be permitted. Although some districts in Central Asia still are on the restricted list, it now will be possible for foreigners to visit such storied cities as Samarkand, blue-domed capital of Tamerlane; Bokhara, and Tashkent.

Other areas now available to the visitor include all the Turkmen Republic, except for the City of Krasnodar on the Caspian Sea. This republic lies just north of Iran on the Caspian's eastern shore.

All of Uzbekistan, except for the Tashkent region, is open. So is the city of Tashkent itself. Uzbekistan lies north of Afghanistan. Among the sections still closed to foreign travel are:

The Baltic republics of Latvia, Estonia and Lithuania. The maritime district in the extreme eastern part of Siberia, although transit is permitted through Vladivostok. The Gorki region in European Russia, except for travel through the city of Gorki, an industrial and transportation center 200 east of Moscow. The Mordovian and Udmurt Republics in European Russia and the cities of Molotov, Chelyabinsk and Sverdlovsk of the Urals. The Taimyr region in the extreme north of Siberia and important areas around Omsk, Novosibirsk, Krasnoyarsk, Irkutsk and the Yenisei River in Siberia.

The Kamchatka Peninsula, which points southward from Northeastern Siberia toward the Japanese islands.

Oklahoman Protests Plan For Civil Service Shakeup

WASHINGTON —(P)— Senator Monroney (D-Okla.) called Tuesday for a senatorial inquiry into plans of the Eisenhower Administration to strip civil service protection from thousands of government jobs.

Chairman Philip Young of the Civil Service Commission announced Monday President Eisenhower soon will issue an executive order for a review of about 134,000 jobs, 68,000 in this country and 66,000 overseas, to determine whether they should be stripped of civil protection.

Young said posts involved will include specialists' jobs brought into the civil service in 1947 by an executive order of former President Truman.

Young said he couldn't guess how many present job holders might be replaced, but said veterans won't be affected. He added, however, that 1,800 of about 8,000 government attorneys in the group may be let out.

Monroney said in an interview he thinks the Senate Civil Service Committee, of which he is a member, should call Young before it for an explanation of the order, affecting what civil service calls "Schedule A."

"I think old line civil service employees who are placed in 'Schedule A' by department heads who wanted their specialized services should be protected against a patronage grab," the Oklahoma senator said.

"I know that many of them were so classified in the Defense Department because of the secret nature of their work and these career people should be protected."

Monroney said he has found it difficult to get jobs for party constituents, in many cases because the appointees of the previous administration who hold the posts are protected by civil service.

Wedding Unites Exiled Royalty
TUXEDO PARK, N. Y.—(P)—The Archduke Rudolph Hapsburg marries the daughter of a Russian Czarist count Tuesday, joining two noble families that have lived in exile from two fallen empires since World War I.

The list of 110 invited guests glitters with princely and archducal titles.

The bride is Xenia Czernichev-Besobrasov, daughter of Count—now Mr.—Serge Czernichev-Besobrasov and the Countess Elizabeth Chermetteff. Xenia was born in exile. He works for an American-Canadian banking firm in New York. His widowed mother is the former Empress Zita.

Bishop Fulton J. Sheen was to perform the ceremony at Our Lady of Mount Carmel Church.

Some oil wells cost as much as a million dollars to drill.

WAREHOUSE BLAZE DESTROYS RUBBER, LEATHER STOCKPILE

PHILADELPHIA —(P)— FBI agents and city fire officials Tuesday probed ruins of a five-story warehouse which collapsed and burst into flames, destroying tons of baled rubber and tanned leather from government stockpiles.

Hundreds of firemen fought the stubborn blaze for hours Monday as clouds of black smoke befogged North Philadelphia and temporarily halted service on a Reading Railroad line overpass alongside the warehouse site. Many firemen were treated for smoke inhalation or minor injuries.

Intense heat fanned attempts to probe the rubble of bricks, wood and blazing rubber bales for possible victims.

Some reports said 12 persons were trapped when the structure suddenly collapsed. But an employee of the warehouse said he was the only one in the building when he felt a shaking like an earthquake, saw flames, and fled to safety before the cave-in.

The FBI, denying reports that sabotage was considered a probability, said it was investigating to ascertain whether "any violation of statutes" effecting destruction of government property was involved.

The government had stored the baled rubber in the building—owned by the Alba Warehouse Company—under a lease contract. There was no immediate indication of the cause of the fire.

One-Man Crime Wave Finds Wet Wash His Big Mistake

CHICAGO —(P)— Detectives seized a youth—later described as a one-man crime wave—as he walked along a South Side street Monday carrying a bundle of freshly washed sheets and pillow cases.

As the detectives questioned Louis Hilton, 20, about the wet wash, a woman appeared demanding the sheets and cases, saying they had been stolen from her clothes line.

Capt. Albert Anderson said after questioning Hilton at Hyde Park station his arrest had solved more crimes than the arrest of any other 25 criminals in Chicago.

"He is a one-man crime syndicate," Anderson said. "He's been stealing for four years except for a few short stretches in jail."

Anderson said Hilton identified scores of complaint sheets involving a variety of crimes. They included robbery, burglaries, larceny from autos and accessories from autos, larcenies from hotels and railroad stations, purse snatching, pocket picking, assault with intent to rob and thefts from milk wagons and other types of delivery trucks.

Hilton told police he made between $24 and $40 a day by selling the stolen articles. Laundry has been one of his favorites, he said, because it sold so easily.

"Up to now I've always waited until the laundry was dry on the line," Hilton told police. "But today I got impatient. I can see now where that was a mistake."

Democrats Show Total Unity In Squashing Controls Bill

By JACK BELL
WASHINGTON —(P)— The Senate's 47-42 rejection of an Administration economic controls bill indicated Tuesday that Democrats will have a strong hand in the final fashioning of any major legislation passed by the GOP Congress.

In a striking demonstration of minority party solidarity, 48 Democrats joined with three Republicans and an Independent Monday to override 42 Republicans and send the controls bill back to conference with the House.

Republican Senators Langer of North Dakota, Williams of Delaware and Young of North Dakota voted with the Democrats. So did Senator Morse (Ind-Ore).

Involved was a GOP effort, approved by the House, to create a new Small Business Organization (SBO) to make loans of up to $100,000 to smaller concerns. These loans now are handled through the Smaller Defense Plants Administration (SDPA).

Democrats charged this was a "patronage grab" designed to provide jobs for Republicans. The Republican leadership's defeat was attributed in some quarters to the absence of Senator Taft (R-Ohio) at the critical stages when a compromise might have been perfected and a showdown vote avoided.

Taft, receiving medical treatment for an ailing hip, wouldn't comment on this aspect, but he said in an interview he believes a compromise still can be worked out which the Democrats will support. On the other side, Senator Maybank (D-SC) said the life of the SDPA will have to be extended for a year or there won't be any small business loan agency at all.

While Taft discounted the lasting effect of the vote, there seemed little doubt that Democrats would be striving to attain such unity again on major legislation.

The minority obviously had in mind the possibility of upsetting a much more important Republican, apparent in legislation to extend the reciprocal trade agreements program for a year.

Administration leaders got the bill passed in the House only by a compromise with GOP members who wanted to revise the whole trade program. This was done with an amendment to increase the Tariff Commission from six to seven members, a move aimed at giving Republicans control.

Senator Lyndon B. Johnson of Texas, the Senate's Democratic leader, said that if the bill comes out of the Senate Finance Committee in this form, Democrats will fight vigorously against the seven-member provision. Senator George (D-Ga.) said the proposal would put tariff decisions "in the hands of a political commission and I'm opposed to it."

Two Steeplejacks Die In 175-Foot Plunge

TEXAS CITY —(P)— A cable hoisting two steeplejacks high up the side of a water tower snapped Monday and the men plunged 175 feet to their deaths.

The victims were J. C. Sanderson of Houston and Frank Gates of Biloxi, Miss. Both were about 60. The men were to paint the tower at Monsanto Chemical Company.

Awakening Giants Start Series Against St. Louis

By BEN PHLEGAR
Associated Press Sports Writer

Leo Durocher's reluctant Giants, finally exhibiting signs of arousing from their Spring doldrums, move in on the St. Louis Cardinals Tuesday night for their second straight showdown series with a first division club.

Flushed with success after gaining two victories and a tie out of a four-game series with the league-leading Milwaukee Braves the New Yorkers have a chance to prove to their faithful followers that even yet they may fulfill pre-season predictions.

Leo's lads generally were picked to finish no worse than third. But most of their battling so far has been to keep up to the 500 mark and somewhere within striking distance of first division.

Durocher has switched his lineup so much he already has qualified for a master's degree in juggling, but he's going back to one of his old reliable formulas in an attempt to whip the third-place Cards. He's sending lefty Dave Koslo to the mound.

For several years Koslo has been no mystery to the other clubs but he has baffled the Red Birds regularly. This season his magic has been missing. He's tried twice and failed against St. Louis, but he won a game in Cincinnati last week.

If Leo can get by with him Tuesday night, he will know there's hope for his club yet.

The Giants will be meeting St. Louis during one of the Cardinals' better periods. In the current home stand the Cards have won six out of seven including a 4-3 verdict over Pittsburgh Monday night.

Brooklyn continued its miserable Western trip with a 9-4 loss to the Chicago Cubs while in the American League the off-and-on Cleveland Indians won a pair of 5-3 contests from the Washington Senators. The rest of the clubs in both leagues had the day off.

The Dodgers' loss showed them three full games behind the Braves and left them only a game and a half in front of the Cardinals. Cleveland trails the New York Yankees by 10 1/2 games.

Gerry Staley joined the so-far select group of 10-game winners as he checked the Pirates on eight hits. Enos Slaughter drove in three runs with a double and another one with a single.

Texas Nines Go On Block, Seek Buyers

By The Associated Press
Baseball in Texas was in an uncertain state Tuesday. Two clubs have been put up for sale, another is changing hands and a fourth is making plans to bloom anew at its old stand next year.

Laredo and Fort Arthur of the Gulf Coast League will be sold when buyers are found.

Bryan is expected to take over the Greenville Franchise in the Big State League. Bryan had raised $10,000 in cash and commitments, all fence advertising signs had been sold and 200 box seats and several blocks of tickets disposed of. A temporary organization set up will handle the franchise in a meeting Tuesday with League President Howard Green if the transfer of franchises is to be made.

Dick Burnett of Dallas, Greenville franchise owner, is giving it to Bryan provided he can keep title to the players. He is pulling out of Greenville because of lagging attendance.

No agreement was reached Monday night between the Laredo club and its former owner, Nick Canavati, regarding sale of the club. Louis Kowalski, Sr., president of the Laredo Baseball Association, said two other parties were interested.

Port Arthur, charter member of the Gulf Coast League, may change hands Wednesday. A prospective purchaser will be interviewed then. A. J. Ippolito, president of the club, said. The club was put up for sale because of an attendance slump.

Waco apparently will be back in the Big State League next year. The club had to be moved to Longview when its home field leveled by a tornado. A. H. Kirksey, park owner, has agreed to rebuild when a contract is signed with Pittsburgh, owner of the franchise, to lease the park three years.

Rickey said the club at Longview was a temporary arrangement.

Oilers Down Rockets, 8-5

ROSWELL — (P) — Odessa's Oilers poked away steadily, collecting 17 hits, and scored in every inning but the fourth and sixth in taking the Roswell Rockets, 8-5, Monday.

A large crowd, lured by down Murray O'Flynn, saw the rockets move into a tie in the sixth when Ose Alvarez slammed out a two-run homer, making the count 4-4.

But the Oilers collected a run in the seventh when starter and loser Tito Arencibia wild pitched in Barney Batson with what proved to be the winning run.

Leo Eastham added another with a solo homer in the eighth and a double by Dario Jimines, who went the distance in winning, and a single by Raul Dieppa added another in the ninth.

Jimines spaced 10 hits well enough to win, though Buddy Orimes seemed to have his number. The Rocket centerfielder had a four-for-four night, including a double and a triple.

The Oiler win gave them a 2-1 nod in the series.

Lubbock Increases Margin At Front Of WT-NM Race

By The Associated Press
Lubbock swept a doubleheader from Borger Monday and now stands ahead of the West Texas-New Mexico League by three games.

Pampa moved into second place, wallowing Clovis, 18-1.

The Hubbers' Charley Garmon won the opener, 11-0, and then came back in the fifth of the second game to hold off the Cassers. Lubbock won the finale, 9-2.

Bob Featherstone belted two homers in the first game for Lubbock.

Pampa banged out 18 hits and scored 18 runs off Clovis hurler Roy Parker.

Mike Gasella held the Albuquerque Dukes to four hits and Abilene won, 3-1.

Western Inspection Nips Humble, 6-5, On Pinch-Hit Double

A pinch-hit double by Woody Montgomery in the bottom of the sixth gave Western Inspection a 6-5 triumph over Humble Monday in the National League of the Jay-Cees City Softball League.

Humble had fought from behind a 5-4 deficit to tie the count in the top of the sixth without the aid of a base hit. The Oilers drew three consecutive walks, and after a strike out and a fielder's choice which saw the lead runner out at home, O'Donohoe was hit by the pitcher to force across the tying marker.

The victory boosted Western Inspection's mark to 14-1 for the year.

Earlier, Rotary had beaten Magnolia, 11-2, behind Burrows' three-hit pitching. One of the blows was a solo home run by McCullough in the fourth inning.

In the opener, Ransdewer held onto third place by downing cellardwelling Phillips, 10-4, by coming from behind for four runs in the fifth and five in the sixth when they eluded Braham for six hits and drew one walk and a Phillips error.

Negro Given Prison Term

Eighteen-year-old Roy Lee White faced a 30-year prison sentence Tuesday for the dice-game shooting on May 26 of Charlie Clem Walker. The slender negro was convicted Monday afternoon by the 12-man jury which deliberated only one hour before the verdict was returned to Judge R. W. (Bob) Hamilton by Foreman J. P. Carson, Jr. The 30-year sentence was recommended by the jury.

White admitted he carried a gun when he walked into the negro Elks Club early on the morning of May 26 but denied he planned to shoot anybody.

He explained, under questioning by Defense Counsel Bill Abbott, that he had lost his $16 in the dice game a short time previously and had been shoved back from the dice table by Walker, who began playing. "I went and got the gun so I could soak it and get some more money to play with," he said.

When he walked into the crowded room, another player, Roe Sadler, grabbed his arm and during the scuffle the automatic pistol went off, the bullet hitting Walker in the back.

The death penalty was not demanded by District Attorney Warren Burnett and County Attorney Reagan Legg, who represented the state.

'Boxcar' Vanishes With Seven Aboard

TOKYO —(AP)— A C-19 Flying Boxcar vanished in a rainstorm Tuesday with its crew of four and seven passengers. The big transport was part of the airlift taking the U. S. 187th Regimental Combat Team to Korea.

The pilot radioed shortly after taking off from Southern Japan's Ashiya Air Base that the gyro-compass had failed and he was returning to base. It was his last message.

Optimist Club Hears Man's City Duties Outlined By Pastor

A man has not one but many places in his community, Weldon McCormick, assistant pastor of the First Methodist Church, told 29 Optimists and two guests at their noon meeting Tuesday in Hotel Scharbauer.

"Man," said McCormick, "has a place as a parent, a political place, a moral responsibility and a duty as a citizen. Some men, however, just think about their place, yet do nothing about it."

McCormick called the present lack of morals on the part of youngsters and oldsters alike one of the most pressing problems of a community.

"The moral tenor of a community gauges itself by the morals of the people, its central source of rule," he said. "Moral attitudes rise and fall according to conflict, both local and national, and according to the moral temper of the citizens."

In other business, the Optimists announced that two boys, Don and Bob McMillen will be sponsored at Eagle Mountain Lake Camp from July 4 through July 11. Two new directors have been chosen. They are D. C. Baldwin, one year term, and V. H. Van Horn, two year term. Members of the Opt-Mrs. will meet at 8 p.m. Wednesday in the Bob Meyer home at 700 North Marlenfeld Street.

August Draft Call Is Texas' Lowest

AUSTIN —(AP)— A draft quota of 1,235 men from Texas for August, lowest this year, was announced Tuesday.

State Draft Director Paul Wakefield said local board quotas will be mailed the first week in July.

The quota is Texas' share of the national August call for 23,000 men. Texas' July quota, announced previously, is 1,268. The June call was for 1,749.

Only 48 of the state's 137 local boards received calls for pre-induction examinations in July, Wakefield said. He said it was doubtful if all would receive examination quotas in August.

The August call is to be filled with men 20 years old or older where possible, but boards will be authorized where necessary to fill calls from men under 20, he said.

Eight Lucas Trial Jurors Selected

COLORADO CITY —(AP)— Four jurors were needed Tuesday to complete the panel to try Joseph Lucas, 20, for murder in the death of an Amarillo service station worker.

Eight jurors were selected Monday.

Parents of the Tamaqua, Pa., youth, formerly stationed at Amarillo Air Force Base, sat in the crowd. Lucas appeared calm. He wore brown slacks, a white shirt and tie.

The state indicated it would ask the death penalty. Defense questioning indicated a plea of insanity. Lucas and Earl Robertson, 21, an Amarillo plumber, were charged in the death last January 6 of Victor Smith. Robertson was convicted May 29 and given life.

Few Objections

Few disagreements and objections were sounded as three jurors were chosen from the first 28 men questioned. They are Ray Coleman, 38, shoe store operator; Wayne Koonitz, 26, a farmer; and W. T. Belew, 43, life insurance salesman.

Judge Victor Lindsey of Lubbock recessed shortly after 6 p.m.

Whitaker was stationed at Reese Air Force Base near Lubbock when he started dating Joyce. Shortly after she disappeared he was transferred to Lackland Air Force Base at San Antonio.

He was arrested at Lackland AFB and taken to Lubbock to point out the spot where the body was buried. Officers quoted him as saying he loved a Swiss exchange student who had lived at his parents' home.

Living Costs Again Climb Upward Path

WASHINGTON —(AP)— The cost of living edged upward another three-tenths of one per cent between April 15 and May 15, the Bureau of Labor Statistics (BLS) said Tuesday.

This was the third straight month the index rose.

The bureau said all major living cost items showed slight increases, except transportation.

The new index showed retail prices for city families with moderate incomes were 114 per cent of the 1947-1949 average as of May 15.

This was nine-tenths of one per cent higher than in May a year ago and 13 per cent above June, 1950, when the Korean war broke out.

Several major labor wage contracts are geared to fluctuations of the cost of living index but none are affected by this report.

The largest increases were in food, which rose one-half per cent, and medical care, which went up four-tenths of one per cent.

Porter Asks Drouth Aid

WASHINGTON —(AP)— Jack Porter, Republican congressman from Texas, said Tuesday he will ask that drouth-stricken regions of Texas, Kansas, Nebraska and Western Oklahoma be designated as major disaster areas. That would qualify them for federal aid.

Porter said at the White House he would call on Secretary of Agriculture Benson later in the day and ask the cabinet officer to recommend that President Eisenhower take the necessary action.

Porter conferred at the White House with Sherman Adams, Eisenhower's chief assistant. He said afterwards that Adams "gave me encouragement that a program is going to be worked out to give these people some relief."

He described the drouth situation as "really desperate."

Porter said he had no definite information on what kind of federal aid the stricken areas might receive. He said hearings starting Thursday by the House Agriculture Committee might supply an answer.

Porter expressed confidence the Eisenhower administration will support prices for basic farm commodities "to the full extent of the law."

He said Eisenhower promised to do that during the campaign and many times since, and added: "When President Eisenhower says he is going to do something, he is going to do it."

Two State Hospital Chiefs Appointed

AUSTIN —(AP)— New superintendents for state hospitals at Abilene and San Antonio were named by the Hospital Board Monday.

Dr. W. L. Starnes, senior psychiatrist at the San Antonio State Hospital four years, was appointed head of that institution.

Dr. Vernon Watley, recently returned from military service, was named head of the hospital at Abilene. He served one year in private practice in Denver before entering military service.

Ex-USDA Official Exonerated By Jury

WASHINGTON —(AP)— Clevie Walker, former director of the Agriculture Department's cotton branch, has been exonerated by a jury of wrongdoing in connection with the buying of Egyptian cotton.

A Federal jury, after less than five hours, acquitted Walker late Monday of charges that he conspired to give an Egyptian friend an illegal advantage in offering cotton for sale to the government.

HOW ADVERTISING AFFECTS YOUR JOB

Raises, Cuts, Promotions, Layoffs Often Depend on How Much the Firm Sells

NEXT time you hear or read advertising, just stop and analyze how it affects you.

Its purpose is to sell goods or services. More sales mean more work to be done. That means more jobs in the firm that advertises... and more jobs in the hundred and one firms with which it does business. It's a never-ending chain.

Now when more jobs open up, that means more security for everyone. It means promotion to many, with wage increases. It means opportunity—particularly for friends and sons and daughters of present employees.

Whether or not you work for a firm that advertises, remember that this modern method of mass personal selling affects your company's business and its future. Hence it affects your job and your future.

Advertising, by selling goods, starts businesses humming, makes them bigger. That's how advertising affects your job. For tomorrow, it creates opportunity... for today, it makes your job more secure.

Law Favors Possession

SAN BERNARDINO, CALIF.—(P)—A woman told police she left her daughter, two, in her auto while she went into a store to shop Monday. When she came out, Mrs. Betty Benedict said, the child had opened her purse and was tossing greenbacks happily out the window. Noting another car beside hers, Mrs. Benedict said she walked around and discovered a woman picking up the bills. "That's my money," said Mrs. Benedict. "It was yours. It's mine now," the other woman said as she hopped into her car and drove away. Mrs. Benedict estimated the loss at $80.

President Keeps Speech Man Busy Redrafting Talks

WASHINGTON—(AP)—Writer Emmet Hughes has the most illustrious editor in the country. The man who blue-pencils his work is President Eisenhower.

"He's an excellent editor," Hughes tells you as he stokes his pipe. "He knows just what he wants to say, and he knows the exact words to say it."

In a quiet office overlooking the White House front lawn, Hughes turns out the President's speeches, messages to Congress, proclamations. Other Presidents have had two or three writers and on occasion a whole team. Hughes, 32, is the youngest man on Eisenhower's

White House staff and the only writer.

Around The Clock
He works from 8 to 6 unless there's a special job. Then he may work around the clock or a weekend. The foreign policy speech which the President made to editors is an example.

"I've forgotten how many conferences we had on that," says Hughes. "It was confidential until released. So I either carried my draft home for work, or it was locked up."

"Some evenings the President had it. He works over my drafts in the (Continued On Page Five)

Air Force 'Business' Sends Texan To Royal Rites

By GRACE HALSELL
Reporter-Telegram
Special Correspondent

LONDON, ENGLAND — "I just happened to be in London that day," Airman 2/c Charles Mallory remarked, in an off-handed way, "so I stayed and saw the Coronation."

Everyone thought he was joking, but he said, "It was all a matter of coincidence. If anyone had told me the day before I was going to see the Coronation, I wouldn't have believed him."

As it happened, Air Force business took the Texas boy from his station at Brine Norton into the city on June 2 . . . and he had a good vantage point to watch the procession.

The son of Mr. and Mrs. Felix Mallory of Rockdale, the 21-year-old airman attended Webster High School, later lived in Bryan. He has a sister, Mrs. Herman Bell in Kil-keen.

Asked how he liked England, he gave a typical serviceman's answer: "Best thing about England are the English girls."

Texas lost a good blacksmith when Airman Jack McClellan came overseas to England.

"Our blacksmith shop in Pearsall served three counties—Medina, Frio and LaSalle," the Texan proudly related.

He worked in the shop with his father, W. H. McClellan, of Pearsall. The tall, handsome, 20-year-old airman left the states in 1952. He will be over here until January, 1955.

Of England, he says: "It isn't bad. But you can put it this way. I'd rather be back in Texas."

He has four sisters, Mrs. Jess Tais and Mrs. Howard Lowry, both of Amarillo; Mrs. Lester Parr, San Antonio; Mrs. Richard Munk, Pleasanton; and two brothers, Julian of Alice and James W. of Pearsall.

From what he has seen of English horses, not as many of them get shoes as the Texas horses. "And that's too bad, too. Horses need shoes."

1953 Powder Puff Derby Set July 3

NEW YORK —(AP)— The seventh annual Women's Transcontinental Air Race from Lawrence, Mass., to Long Beach, Calif., will start July 3. Mrs. Barbara Jones Cloud, 31-year-old "flying housewife" of Boston, Mass., announced Monday. About 100 women are expected to take part in the 2,678-mile race.

Mrs. Cloud said it will be an elapsed time handicap race based on average plane speed. The route, which will be flown only in daylight, will be over Albany and Rochester, N. Y.; Detroit, Mich.; South Bend, Ind.; Peoria, Ill.; Kansas City, Mo.; Wichita, Kan.; Amarillo, Tex.; Albuquerque, N. M.; Winslow and Prescott, Ariz.; and Palm Springs, Calif.

There are $2,000 in prizes, including $800 for the winner, $500 for second and $400 for third.

Mrs. Cloud plans to enter the race.

Reds Boast Oil Mark, Shun Production List

SAN FRANCISCO —(AP)— The Chinese Communists say they now have an "abundance" of petroleum in China, but give no production totals. The Peiping radio, in a broadcast heard by The Associated Press in San Francisco, said the present output of crude oil was 12 per cent above the highest pre-war levels; gasoline was up 231 per cent and kerosene 687 per cent.

The figures, however, meant little because China's pre-war petroleum output was limited mainly to Kansas province and production there was not large. (Only 18 wells with Japan.)

SPLIT PERSONALITY STREET

PARIS —(AP)— An example of France's split political personality is to be found in the avenue running west from the suburb of Neuilly, four parts of which have different names. The avenue starts out as the Avenue Gen. Charles de Gaulle, then after a few blocks, becomes the Ave. President Wilson, then changes to the Avenue Georges Clemenceau, then finishes up, as it branches to the right, as the Avenue Josef Stalin.

Age Not Important To Aussie Fathers

SYDNEY —(AP)— Each year nearly 20 Australians over the age of 70 become fathers, according to a survey by the Acting Commonwealth Statistician in Canberra. The survey, based on birth, marriage and death certificates for 1950, shows that of the 18 men who were fathers at the age of 70 or more in 1950, one was 80 and another was the husband of a girl aged 20.

One youth became a father at 15, and 156 girls had become mothers at that age. Three of the girls were only 12 and nine were 13.

The percentage of births outside wedlock, (3.84) was the lowest for 10 years. One firstborn child in five was born within eight months of the 17th child. Another had her 15th child in as many years of marriage.

Experiments have shown that orange juice can be dried and still retain its health-giving vitamins after long periods of time.

Steno-Author Nets Pretty Neat Salary

OTTAWA —(AP)— A pretty Ottawa secretary took five years to write a book, but it has netted her $15,000 and she considers her efforts well worth while.

Susanne Butler's book "My pride My Folly" is set in 19th-century Canada. For two years while she was writing her book, Miss Butler worked as a teacher at a girls' school in Montreal; for three, she was secretary of the Association of Canadian Clubs in Ottawa.

She did her research at night in McGill University.

'Moving Headache' Can Be Eased By City Transfer an

Moving household goods and furniture is the biggest headache a Midland resident has when transferring from one location to another—but the City Transfer and Storage Company, 2001 West Florida Street, has the answer.

The firm is equipped to handle efficiently the entire move of either a homeowner or business place, from the smallest article to the largest item with speed and skill. Another featured part of City Transfer and Storage Company service is storage facilities. With headquarters in a modern, fireproof building the personnel can guarantee safe permanent or temporary storage.

The firm is owned and managed by T. E. Shelburne, Sr., and his son, T. E. Shelburne, Jr. Both are known popularly as "Gene."

The business was started in 1947, and recently moved from 313 South Baird Street, when expansion of their service necessitated larger and better equipped quarters.

Local moving and storage is not all—both intrastate and interstate shipments of merchandise, household goods and furniture are provided by the City Transfer and Storage Company.

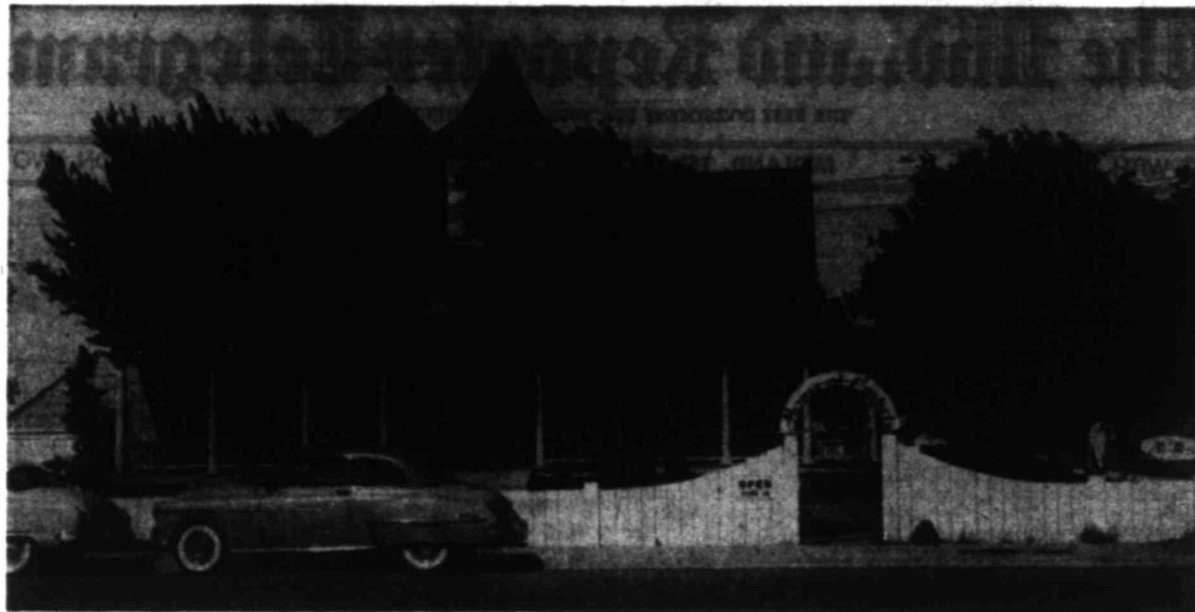

The firm acts as the Midland agent for the Alamo Motor Lines in intrastate moves and the Gillette Motor Transport Company on interstate transfers of goods.

Alamo gives overnight service to and from Midland to Houston and San Antonio, plus intervening points, among its services to Midland.

The Gillette organization can provide movements of materials from Midland to other states, or from other states to Midland.

For the protection of their Midland customers, City Transfer and Storage Company is bonded fully and insured in its operations.

Instant advice and assistance on moving problems may be obtained by dialing 3-3821 for fast, efficient service.

HOUSE OF CARPETS—Home owners have but to pass through the gateway and into the House of Carpets at 1502 Lamesa Road to find everything that's handsome and new to meet their carpet and drapery needs. Owned and operated by Mrs. Winifred Beal and Felix Welmaker, the House of Carpets specializes in adding the magic touch to Midland homes. Also featured are the new Sun Vertical Blinds which give a dramatic touch to the modern home.

Major Building Jobs Here Keep Hill Employees Working

Houston Hill, Inc., Midland's largest building contractor, has approximately $2,500,000 worth of construction work presently underway in the Midland area.

Among the large jobs now being constructed here are the Masonic Temple which is nearing completion, the new First Baptist Church which should be finished next year, and two new buildings and three additions to the Midland Schools.

Houston Hill is president of the corporation and his son, James Hill is vice president. The firm has been established in Midland since 1936.

More than 100 persons in all phases of the building trade are now employed by Houston Hill, Inc.

finished a $300,000 addition to the Central office building of the Southwestern Telephone Company in Big Spring.

All classes of commercial work are handled ably by Houston Hill, Inc., and inquiries regarding building problems will be answered courteously by calling 4-8229 or coming by the office at 307 South Mariefeld Street.

Pauline Meads of San Angelo was a weekend guest in the home of her cousin, Mrs. Chester Merriman. Sunday visitors in the Merriman home included her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Pat O'Brien of Odessa.

Building accomplishments of Houston Hill, Inc. in the last year include the erection of the San Jacinto Junior High School which was finished in October, and the St. Andrews Presbyterian Church completed in May of 1952.

Red Women Seek Money From Hong Kong Relatives

HONG KONG—(P)—Press reports say the Chinese Communists have issued an increasing number of round-trip tickets to women crossing into Hong Kong from red China to demand money from their relatives here.

Iron Curtain Drama Gives Author Fidgets

The scribe of this so-called column took in a movie the other night. He chose one called "No Time for Flowers," thinking it was something light and fluffy, but, as has been pointed out before, one can never tell about a movie by the name. This gimmick turned out to be a struggle between the "good-uns" and the "bad-uns" in Russian-occupied Austria. We weren't in the mood for same, but we got interested in it, and we found a lesson.

No matter how bad it might seem here, we ain't got no troubles at all in comparison with those poor folks.

Just suppose that every word, every glance, every motion that you make was being spied upon, and for any reason at all, some big lug could come and haul you off to jail at night. Brother, we have our troubles, but you and I can lay our heads down at night and get a good rest. You can even make up your mind to come to the store tomorrow and get yourself one of those handsome, powerful, smooth-running Jacobsen power mowers without asking the Gestapo or the Ogpu if you may. And maybe you ought to do it.

Designer Shys Away From Truck Traffic On Pakistan Roads

BOISE—Abul Majid Zahirul Haque Mazumber cringes every time he sees a big logging truck on Idaho's roads.

"I'm afraid because I know what we would have to do to all our highways if such trucks were allowed in my country," says Abul, as he prefers to be called.

A native of Pakistan, Abul has joined the staff of the Idaho Highway Department as a highway designer. He plans to work here for about two years and then return to Pakistan to do highway work.

Pakistan's topography is similar to Idaho's, he says, and road construction problems are much the same.

However, Pakistan doesn't build its roads as heavy as Idaho. Hence his concern for roads when he sees them bearing the big trucks.

There's also a difference in the cost of gasoline—75 cents a gallon in Pakistan, of which 20 cents is tax; around 30 cents a gallon in Idaho.

Colonel's Wives Give Actress Competition For Prima Donna

By GRACE HALSELL
Reporter-Telegram Special Correspondent

MUNICH, GERMANY—Anne Baxter is in this city to do what she terms her "most violently dramatic part" since "All About Eve."

The picture, "Carnival" will be shot in its entirety here.

A couple of American businessmen, Frank and Maurice King, are the producers.

They are storming around showing slower-moving Germans how to produce on assembly-line tactics.

"Carnival" will be produced, not once, but twice.

First, actors will say their parts in English.

Immediately after a scene is shot, involving for instance, Miss Baxter and Steve Cochran, they will step aside and their German counterparts will come forth and say the same lines in German.

This will give a German-spoken dialogue, will prevent the costly and never completely satisfactory "dubbing" of the film.

Over cups of tea in the "Four Seasons" hotel in downtown Munich, Miss Baxter said the film represented a great challenge to her.

"I am in almost every scene, and I know I will be working from morning until night."

Her role is that of a carnival girl who is arrested for pick-pocketing. Unlike her "Eve" role of a good girl who was bad, this one is a so-called bad girl who really is good.

She has a high-diving act in "Carnival" and Miss Baxter says she actually will do many of the dives.

"Swimming is my sport," she explained.

She added: "This is a wonderful part for me." She also expressed good words, as all stars usually do, about the intelligent casting, and the director, Kurt Neumann, a German director who has been in Hollywood 25 years, and the cameraman, Ernest Haller, who did "Gone With the Wind."

Pig Crop Decline Forecast For Fall

WASHINGTON—(AP)—The Agriculture Department Monday forecast a Fall crop of thirty-three million pigs, a decrease of five per cent from last year's Fall crop.

It also reported that this year's Spring crop totaled 50,726,000 head.

"Carnival" will be filmed in technicolor, with the colorful parades and daring feats set against a background of bombed-out Munich. The contrast should be something to see.

"We plan to do most all of the shooting out of doors," one of the King Brothers producers, Frank, said "Why be in Germany and shoot on a stage setting—you can do that in Hollywood."

The brothers originally showed the American film industry, with such pictures as "Dillinger" and "Gun Crazy," that movies need not cost a fortune to produce.

"Preparation" is secret.

They say their secret in saving millions is in "preparation." Script for "Carnival" for instance has been studied three years. American methods are undergoing a few changes in Europe, however.

"I could do in an hour what it takes me weeks to accomplish over here because the people move so slow, they never give you a definite 'yes' or 'no' . . . and they don't like to change their methods they've had for a 100 years," Maurice King commented.

Miss Baxter, who has been touring Europe with her mother before starting work on "Carnival," said she last was in Texas with the film, "I Confess." She spoke glowingly of television facilities she saw in Texas, and even more rapturously of a newspaperman she met while there.

Miss Baxter used to be an actress who was plump, a little that is, had brown hair and was married to John Hodiak. Now she is a slim 106, has dyed her hair blond and is separated from Hodiak.

She stands five feet, four inches.

When I interviewed her, she was wearing a brown, Dior-copy suit, with no blouse but chunks of jewelry at her throat and the same type repeated in a bracelet. She had red pumps and a small red hat.

She and her mother had just come in from shopping expedition in the rain. They were wet and a little tired. Nevertheless, Miss Baxter was extremely courteous and helpful, and was polite when an American Army wife came over to gush and go.

The American explained she was a colonel's wife and could, no doubt, do quite a bit for Miss Baxter.

The actress looked suitably impressed by the rank, and still politely, she said: "Well, maybe you can help me. I have a 22-month-old child, and would like to see about a nurse."

The colonel's wife said she'd find out what she could and leave a message.

"What name shall I ask for?" the Army wife asked.

"Miss Baxter?" she continued, and went into a giggle. "Miss Baxter, imagine that . . . with a 22-month-old child."

Miss Baxter said nothing.

The colonel's wife kept talking, asked for an autograph for her son, and after assuring us she "knew" the right people and was a "good" friend of some general's wife, she finally departed.

Movie stars over here can't afford to be prima donnas.

Too many colonel's wives around.

Vices Of Experience

Hughes has to reply to dozens of clubs and cities or towns asking special messages from the President to mark some anniversary or special project. He either writes the messages (which the President okays) or he declines gracefully.

Hughes is a serious person with a deep voice, a high forehead and black hair already touched with gray.

He has had concentrated assignments in the foreign affairs he now must write about. In 1942-46 he was with military intelligence in Madrid. Mercury now brings you POWER STEERING

3 times easier handling Whenever more than finger-tip pressure is needed on the wheel, power steering goes to work . . . removes the strain from parking and turning, yet doesn't sacrifice that safe "feel of the road."

POWER BRAKES

50% easier stopping An ounce of toe pressure is multiplied hydraulically into pounds of braking power. Your foot pivots effortlessly from accelerator to the closer, lower brake pedal, giving faster, smoother stops.

4-way POWER SEAT

MOVES up and down, too New first-in-class 4-way power seat gives you the position from which you can see the best, drive the easiest. Handy for raising you out of the sun's glare and shifting your position for more relaxation.

Power steering, power brakes, 4-way power seat, white side-wall tires and full-disc hubcaps optional at extra cost.

Three big reasons for adding Mercury to your list to see and try. Mercury's new power steering removes the real work from driving and parking. Mercury's power brakes take little more toe pressure than the accelerator. And Mercury's power seat adjusts four ways for new driving comfort.

With these new features—plus years-ahead styling, famous economy, proven V-8 engine backed by our exclusively V-8 history, and a reputation for the highest trade-in value in its field—you get more for your money with Mercury. Better drop around and try a Mercury real soon. How about right now?

A Fantastic Proposal

There have been some striking examples this year of Congress attempting to practice foreign policy by reprisal, a sort of "slap hands across the sea" approach.

Admittedly the European Defense Community is a major objective of the total Western defense program.

Imagine the furor that would arise in Congress if America were being asked to join an international army.

Evidence indicates the Senate will show a keener appreciation of this fact than many House members have exhibited.

Fair-minded Americans probably are hoping that this will be the last misguided effort by the Congress to rap European nations on the knuckles with a ruler.

And God called the firmament Heaven. And the evening and the morning were the second day.—Genesis 1:8.

Churchill Sees Peace Coming In His Time

LONDON—(REA)—Sir Winston Churchill will go to the Bermuda meeting of the U. S., Britain and France appearing confident that the historic moment has arrived for the West to meet with Russia—and possibly with Red China.

Overjoyed Britons regard the Red "concessions" in Korea and Europe as convincing proof that this time Moscow and Peking really want an accord with the West.

And British Labor circles apparently in touch with Moscow are certain that an East-West meeting—with or without the U. S.—will take place this summer or in the early fall. Berlin and Paris are mentioned as possible sites of the conference.

With the coronation now but a glorious memory—a flicker of Britain's vanishing imperial grandeur—Britons are awakening to the realities of life.

London is again its normal self. Only rain-soaked scarlet banners and fading golden arches gleaming in the city's rare sun still stay on as a reminder of the medieval pagantry that was the coronation.

Said the Evening Standard, more in sorrow than in anger: "In London's face is its fortune. In its dirty face is now its shame."

All British eyes now are turned on Russia and Red China. South Korean President Syngman Rhee for a time even displaced Senator Joseph R. McCarthy as "warmer" No. 1 in British eyes. For the common Briton hopes against hope that the Korean truce may be the first step to world peace.

After two devastating world conflicts in one generation, Britain's man-in-the-street (like the common European everywhere) is in mortal fear of war. In the U. S. an atomic war is a threat. In Britain it is a paralyzing presence.

Sir Winston will thus speak at Bermuda for the overwhelming majority of the nation.

He also will have the backing of the entire British Commonwealth whose prime ministers agreed at a meeting, just concluded in London, that no chance should be missed of reaching a settlement with Russia.

The consensus of practiced U. S. observers in Britain is that, should President Eisenhower refuse an early meeting with Soviet Premier Georgi M. Malenkov, Britain's prime minister might "go it alone."

Sir Winston is a man in a great hurry. The prime minister is 78 years old. Since the death of President Roosevelt and Stalin he is the lone survivor of the wartime Big Three.

The coronation was a great moment for the aged prime minister. Sir Winston sees the British Empire light up again whenever he looks at the monarchy: Olive marches again and the thin red line of the Brigade of Guards stamps majestically through the Middle East.

Now Sir Winston has made it known that having played a leading role in winning the war his final great aim in life is to win the peace.

Anglo-American relations—and Western unity—will thus be put to hard test at the Big Three Bermuda meeting.

Disagreement between the two countries has been steadily mounting since the death of Stalin—with the inauguration of Moscow's current peace offensive.

Experts on Russian strategy fear that what the Kremlin hoped would happen actually is happening. The U. S. and Britain, the two wartime allies and key NATO powers, seem to be falling out.

The recent Russian moves in Korea, Austria and Germany make it plain that the Kremlin is bent on exploiting Anglo-American friction in order to widen the split in the Western coalition.

Moscow's primary objective is to impede the formation of the European Defense Community and prevent West German integration into Western Europe.

Four basic issues will divide the

U. S. and Britain at the Bermuda meeting:

1. When and how to deal with Russia.
2. Britain's demand for the admission of Red China into the United Nations.
3. America's high tariff policy or, as Britons see it, the problem of "trade, not aid."
4. Britain's insistence on trading with Red nations.

Sir Winston also will make a bid for world leadership at Bermuda. Britain is wary of the Republican Administration's foreign policy. If the British can no longer be sole leaders, they want at least to be, with the U. S., co-leaders in the settlement of world, especially Far Eastern, questions.

The future of Anglo-American relations will depend in a large measure on what agreement is reached on these issues.

Taxis Turn 'Jitneys' During Rush Hours In Rio De Janeiro

RIO DE JANEIRO—(AP)—Rio de Janeiro is attempting to ease its transportation problem by authorizing taxis to become "jitneys" during rush hours.

The municipality has granted taxi drivers permission to carry passengers from the center of the city to the suburbs during the noon and evening rush hours. The price will be a flat five cruzeiros.

Another plan under consideration is to authorize private car owners to perform the same service. Since the city depends entirely on surface transportation, some workers have to wait as long as two hours before finding even standing room in an omnibus.

Multiple Sclerosis Symptoms Depend On Where It Attacks

By EDWIN F. JORDAN, M. D.
Written for NEA Service

It has been some time since this column has discussed multiple sclerosis, but questions on the disease continue to come in. No astonishing new developments in treatment or in the understanding of its cause have occurred, but the increasing interest in the disease and the additional amount of research being done on it offer great encouragement for the future.

Twenty or 30 years ago multiple sclerosis was considered to be a rather rare disease in the United States. Today, while still an unusual condition, there are many reasons for believing that it is much more common than was formerly the case. Even if it had remained an extremely rare condition, however, it would have been important to those who had it, and a solution to its prevention and treatment would have been needed urgently.

Multiple sclerosis affects the nervous system. It usually progresses slowly, with periods of great improvement. Any one or several different parts of the nervous system may be attacked. This is what has given the disease the "multiple" part of its name.

Because the location varies from patient to patient, there are no absolutely typical symptoms. What symptoms there are depend on what portions of the nervous system have been attacked.

A trembling motion when trying to pick up some object, a disturbance in walking, seeing double, often for only a short time, perhaps are the most common symptoms. These may be absent entirely or only one or two of them may be found. A person should not try to make a diagnosis on himself just because such signs are present.

There have been many theories concerning the cause of multiple sclerosis. Although a good deal of research work already has been done on the disease, it has not yet been possible to find the cause with any degree of certainty.

Aids In Research

In an effort to speed the solution of this problem, a group of interested citizens and physicians have organized the National Sclerosis Society, 270 Park Avenue, Suite 1-G, New York 17, N. Y. This organization has held conferences and has contributed to the support of several promising research projects.

As long as so little is known of the disease, the treatment will remain unsatisfactory. At present complete bed rest generally is considered wise during any acute stages of the disease. Protection from infections and sometimes residence in a warm, comfortable climate seem to increase the number of good periods and help to prevent the bad ones.

They'll meet again: Dwight D. Eisenhower still was President-elect when British Prime Minister Winston Churchill visited him in New York last January. They'll meet again this month in Bermuda for a Big Three conference.

Air Conditioning Is Strictly For Birds

MANQUIM, OKLA.—(AP)—Everyone goes for air conditioning now, even the birds.

Charles Miller checked his air conditioning system and found a nest of five baby birds atop the machine.

Before Miller could get the air, he had to give the birds the air. He put the nest in a cigar box; taped it to the side of the conditioner.

The ancient Egyptians used ostrich feathers for ornaments.

This Is The New Medium-Priced Car
For Folks Who Want a Lot of Car for Their Money

The New Packard CLIPPER

If you've reached the point where you want more car... a larger car, a smarter car, a finer car... here it is!

MATHE you're saying: "Wait a minute! I've got to keep it around twenty-five hundred dollars. Why isn't a dressed-up, low-priced car about what I want?"

We're glad you said "about what you want" because you'd soon discover that a low-priced car dressed up like a "big car" is still a lighter, smaller car by a good deal than a Packard CLIPPER.

And besides, a Clipper gives you the choice of adding power steering, power braking or power shifting . . . all three, if you want them. These are real big-car features really needed for today's tough, teeming traffic.

"Is this Clipper really big?"

Well, check the dimensions: 128-inch wheelbase, 218-inch over-all length. Big as it is, it's still perfectly parkable in tight places. And out on the open highway, you'll find that it's a big-car riding dream!

You ask, "Has it got a good engine?" Yes, sir!—the most famous engine in automotive history—a Packard engine.

Has it got big-car feel on the road? Why not try a ride for yourself—with you at the wheel, and over a road of your own choosing.

So, if you've reached the point where you want more car . . . be sure to see and drive the new Packard CLIPPER and compare it with other medium-priced cars. The Packard dealer nearest you is listed below—see him soon!

In addition to the Clipper, PACKARD is building today a car so beautiful and fine that it is applauded everywhere as "America's new choice in fine cars."

anyone could make some more of himself—some more people just like him, you know.

The directions said to pick up the more-of-myself machine and take it outdoors.

"Play like we did it," said the Huffen.

The next directions said to dump the more-of-myself machine out in the water, and row out in the water where the water was deepest.

"Play like we did it," said the Huffen.

And then the directions said to hurry home and stand in front of a mirror and look at yourself and then step out from behind yourself, and there would be two of you.

"Huff!" asked the Huffen.

Daddy Ringtail read it again. He read: "Stand in front of a mirror—and look at yourself—and then step out from behind yourself, and there will be two of you."

The Huffen hurried to a mirror to do it. Daddy Ringtail hurried to watch him. And tomorrow I'll tell you what happened next. Happy day!
