Feed Moves Toward Drouth Area

Applications Now Being Taken Here

Drouth-hit Midland County farmers and ranchers can start making applications for emergency feed now, and says County Agent Charley Green, "we hope to have the first shipment of feed in Midland soon."

Green urged farmers and ranchers who need feed to come to the PMA office in the courthouse here to make applications—which will, in turn, be processed by a county drouth committee consisting of W. E. Pigg, chairman, Green, A. G. Bohannon and Bill Hutchison. An FHA representative has yet to be named.

Prices, said Green, will be $35 a ton for cottonseed meal and cake, $1 a bushel for shelled corn, $1.10 for wheat and 50 cents for oats. These prices are FOB the railroad siding nearest the farm or ranch.

Part Of Aid Program
B. F. Vance, chairman of the State Drouth Committee, said the feed for foundation herds in 152 Texas counties declared disaster areas should be moving onto the ranches and farms of West Texas by Monday.

The offer of these feeds at reduced prices is a part of a drouth-aid program announced earlier by President Eisenhower and Secretary of Agriculture Benson.

In offering the feed at the cut rate price, the government hopes to encourage farmers to keep foundation herds of cattle and sheep.

The department's loss on the feeds, and expenses incurred in moving it to drouth areas and distributing it, will come out of the presidential relief grant for the drouth area.

Officials in Washington said there are ample supplies of cotton seed feeds and wheat in and near the drouth area. Corn and oats may have to be shipped in from government stocks stored in the Midwestern corn belt.

As the July sun burned on Southwestern livestock ranges, some of them reduced to barren sand in four rainless years, the Senate and House moved to speed further aid.

Disaster Area Extended
President Eisenhower extended his disaster area proclamation for Texas and Oklahoma Wednesday to include parts of Colorado, New Mexico, Kansas and Arkansas.

Livestock men will share an $8,000,000 emergency fund to help them buy government-owned cottonseed meal, oats, corn, wheat and other livestock feed at below-market prices.

The railroad's Western Traffic Association in Chicago put into effect a 50 per cent reduction in freight rates on livestock feed shipped into designated drouth areas.

The government began buying canned beef to support sagging prices.

In Washington, chairmen of Senate and House Agriculture Committees planned to begin hearings Monday on identical bills setting forth the Administration drouth relief program and proposing special loan programs. Doubt had been expressed that the government could (Continued On Page Eight)

Skelly Gets Oil Show In Mississippian At Wildcat In Yoakum

Skelly Oil Company found a good show of oil in the top of the Mississippian dolomite at its No. 1 Alton Webb, Central Yoakum County wildcat, four miles southwest of the town of Plains.

The show came during a three-hour drillstem test at 11,200-277 feet.

Recovery was five feet of 35.8 gravity oil, and 60 feet of drilling mud cut with oil. The oil content of that mud was estimated at 60 per cent.

Tentative Top Given
Open flowing bottom hole pressure was from 645 pounds to 680 pounds. Shutin bottom hole pressure after 20 minutes was 980 pounds.

Unofficial and tentative top of the Mississippian is at 11,190 feet. Elevation is 3,722 feet. The prospector is to make more hole.

The Skelly No. 1 Webb is 330 feet from south and 2,318 feet from east lines of section 475, block D, John H. Gibson survey.

It is one and one-quarter miles south of the nearest production in the Branahay field from the San Andres-Permian from above 5,300 feet.

The No. 1 Webb had a good show of possible production in the San Andres.

NW Midland Wildcat Shows Free Oil On Basal Simpson DST

United States Smelting, Refining & Mining Company No. 1 M. F. (Forrest) King, wildcat four miles northwest of the northwest edge of the city of Midland and in Northwest Midland County, developed free oil on the recovery after a drillstem test in the basal Simpson.

Interval tested was 13,280-318 feet. Tool was open four hours. Recovery was 2,500 feet of slightly gas-cut water blanket, 60 feet of 53-gravity oil and 180 feet of gas-cut and slightly oil-cut mud.

No formation water was recovered.

Flowing pressure ranged from 1,115 to 1,135 pounds. Shutin pressure after 15 minutes was 2,900 pounds.

Operator was preparing to drill ahead.

The prospector, 1,980 feet from east and 660 feet from south lines of section 10, block 40, T-1-S, T&P survey, will drill until tests of the Ellenburger can be made.

Magnolia Project In NE Midland Sector Is Flowing To Test

Magnolia Petroleum Company No. 1 Oldham, wildcat in Northeast Midland County, was flowing to test through perforations opposite the Pennsylvanian at last report.

The project had flowed 39 barrels of new oil and 11 barrels of acid water in seven hours through a 16-64-inch choke and perforations at 10,390-400 feet.

Gas-oil ratio was 2,030-1 and gravity 44.8 degrees. Tubing pressure was from 400 to 500 pounds.

Operator re-acidized the above perforations with 5,000 gallons. After swabbing out 75 barrels of load oil and 20 barrels of acid water, the well kicked off and flowed 52 barrels of new oil and 50 barrels of acid water in seven hours through a 24-64-inch choke.

Gas-oil ratio was 9,720-1.

Location for the possible new field opener is 10 miles east of the city of Midland and 660 feet from north and west lines of section 38, block 37, T-1-S, T&P survey.

Humble Scheduled To Drill Wildcat In SW Gaines Area

Humble Oil & Refining Company spotted location for an 8,100-foot wildcat in Southwest Gaines County four miles northeast of the Welner (Clear Fork) field.

It will be drilled as No. 1-B Angela Brumley and others.

Drillsite is 660 feet from south and east lines of section 2, block A-12, pal survey. It is one mile north of Humble No. 1 Brumley and others, active wildcat drilling below 9,813 feet in line.

Ex-Minister Charged In Slaying Of Tenant

By COPE ROUTH
William M. Olliff, a gaunt, 52-year-old member of a religious sect steadily opposed to bearing arms in war or peace, was charged Thursday with murder in the slaying last Sunday of a 31-year-old World War II veteran.

And, as he was freed under $5,000 bond after spending a night in jail, he disclosed he had been "dis-fellowshipped" from Jehovah's Witnesses, which he served as a minister.

The charges were filed following the death Wednesday afternoon of Richard William Alexander, Jr., who was shot in an argument over rent with Olliff, operator of a trailer park at South Weatherford and West Florida Streets.

Olliff already had been charged with assault with attempt to murder as Alexander lay in a Midland hospital, a gunshot wound in his abdomen.

Church Ousts Him
He was arrested again Wednesday afternoon by Capt. Billy Patterson and Lt. Roy Merket, a few minutes after Alexander died at 2 p.m.

"I am no longer a member of Jehovah's Witnesses," explained Olliff.

"The officials of the group called me in Monday and told me there was no place in the organization for a gun."

On April 27, seven days after the accident, Ector County sheriff's deputies placed the three men in jail on charges of disturbing the peace and Grace Marie was given the first of seven blood transfusions.

The young woman, recovered and now married, is living in Midland. Charges against Olliff and his sons were dropped.

Plans Are Cancelled
Late last week, Olliff and his wife were making plans to leave in mid-July for New York to attend an international meeting of Jehovah's Witnesses in Yankee Stadium.

"We had even bought a new automobile just for the trip," said Olliff, "but now we have canceled plans for the trip."

On Sunday afternoon Olliff heard Alexander, who had been renting trailer space, had moved from his trailer park.

Sought To Scare Him
A short time later, he found Alexander and, in the ensuing argument, Alexander was shot with a .38 caliber revolver which Olliff said he took from the front seat of his automobile.

"I didn't mean to shoot him," Olliff said, "I wanted to scare him."

"At first I didn't think I'd even hit him. But I guess I did."

Funeral services will be held in Weiner at 2:30 p.m. Friday for Alexander with interment in the Johnson Cemetery at Munday.

Services Scheduled
A native of Haskell, Alexander moved to Midland two years ago and was associated with the W. E. Pittman Trucking Company.

He participated in several major campaigns during his three and a half years in the European Theater during World War II.

Surviving are the widow; a son, Larry; a brother, Winford of Weiner; three sisters, Mrs. Frances Sanders of Gorman, Mrs. Edith Almond of Midland and Mrs. Sue Nell Harmon of Munday, and the parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Alexander, Sr., of Midland.

Assistant Secretary of State Walter Robertson would not mean the door is closed on a U. S.-South Korea truce alliance. They said Rhee apparently would have to show a real change of heart if Robertson is to stay any longer.

Rhee knows there will be no more overtures by the U. S. before a truce is signed if he doesn't agree with Robertson.

Secretary of State Dulles has made it clear the UN will proceed with a truce and will not change its basic position to satisfy Rhee.

Neither Rhee nor Robertson would comment after their sixth secret meeting Thursday, but a reliable source said the talks are stalled while both sides consider their stands.

No time was set for the next meeting.

Rhee apparently is demanding unification or more war, and the U. S. is holding out for unification by negotiation.

The aging South Korean leader maintains it will take arms, not words, to unify Korea.

Air Force Budget Showdown Nears

WASHINGTON—(P)—The House Thursday approved a 22 billion dollar budget to run the Army and Navy this year. This is one billion dollars less than President Eisenhower recommended.

It also approved funds to start a third 60,000-ton super-aircraft carrier.

The actions plunged the House then into consideration of the controversial 11 billion dollar Air Force budget, a figure representing an Administration cut of five billion dollars from the amount former President Truman asked.

Funds for all the armed services and the Defense Department are in one big bill for $34,434,140,500 as it came from the House Appropriations Committee.

The committee's recommendations as to the Army and Navy were accepted when these sections of the bill were read and no one raised objection.

They provided:
Army—$12,892,000,000. This is $688,000,000 less than Eisenhower requested but almost $900,000,000 more than recommended by Truman, because the total includes Korean War costs.

Navy—$9,384,663,000. This is two billion dollars under the Truman budget and $398,280,000 less than the Eisenhower request.

Republican leaders counted heavily on a direct appeal by Eisenhower to beat back a Democratic attempt to boost the Air Force budget.

Committee Backs Ike
The big issue is whether the House should add $1,175,000,000 to the $11,048,000,000 recommended by the Appropriations Committee for the Air Force.

The extra money, provided in a series of amendments drafted by Representative Mahon (D-Texas), is the amount Gen. Hoyt S. Vandenberg, retired Air Force chief of staff, has said is the minimum needed to attain a goal of 143 Air Force wings by 1957.

The committee and most House Republicans are supporting the Eisenhower-backed 120-wing Air Force. The showdown is due late Thursday.

Rattler Bites Youth Visiting In Midland

An Oklahoma youth was in Midland Memorial Hospital Thursday after being bit on the leg by a rattlesnake while on a rabbit hunt 30 miles south of Midland about 9 p.m. Wednesday.

Clifford Tillman, 19-year-old high school senior of Panama, Okla., has been visiting his uncle, Sam Mack of Midland, who works as a roughneck for the Velma Petroleum Company.

Tillman went out to a rig with his uncle Wednesday and decided to hunt rabbits. The rattler bit him when he stepped on a clump of grass which hid the snake.

The youth was placed in a car and rushed to the hospital within 20 minutes after he was bitten. He was resting well in the hospital Thursday.

City Bank Deposits Total $65,186,811

Midland bank deposits totaled $65,186,811 at the close of business last Tuesday, officials of the two Midland banks—the First National and The Midland National—reported Thursday in response to a national bank call by the comptroller of the currency.

The figure is $2,419,302.71 under the June 30, 1952, total but $609,643.68 over the April 23, 1953, deposits. Combined deposits a year ago were $67,606,114.44, and $64,577,168.05 last April 23.

Loans and discounts totaling $17,885,294.21, were up $1,941,795.17 over a year ago, but $56,970.48 under the April 23 figure. Loans a year ago amounted to $15,943,469.04, and $17,942,264.69 a little more than two months ago.

Deposits of The First National Bank last Tuesday totaled $42,633,958.61, as compared to $44,984,310.72 a year ago, and $40,821,342.41 at the date of the April call.

The Midland National Bank deposits Tuesday totaled $22,552,853.12, as compared with $22,221,803.72 on June 30, 1952, and $23,755,825.64 last April 23.

Loans and discounts of The First National Bank amounted to $10,245,481.49 at the date of the recent call, as compared to $9,005,510.98 a year ago, and $10,044,065.31 on last April 23.

The Midland National Bank reported loans and discounts totaling $7,639,812.72, as compared to $6,937,988.06 on June 30, 1952, and $7,898,199.38 on April 23, 1953.

Rev. R. J. Snell Resigns As Rector Of Midland Church

The Rev. Robert J. Snell Thursday announced his resignation as rector of Trinity Episcopal Church, effective August 15, to assume the rectorship of Trinity Church at Lumberton, N. C.

Mr. Snell assumed his pastorate here in May, 1941, commuting from Big Spring, where he was rector of St. Mary's Episcopal Church. At that time Trinity Church was a parish in September, 1943, and Mr. Snell was called as its first rector. Mr. and Mrs. Snell and family moved to Midland in May, 1944.

During Mr. Snell's residence here the church has grown from a membership of 106 communicants to 720. The church school has increased its membership from 50 to 350 members. In the 12 years of Mr. Snell's ministry, 464 persons have been presented for confirmation.

The Snells have three sons, Robert, William and Richard.

Mr. Snell has been active in affairs of the Kiwanis Club and in Girl Scout and Boy Scout work during his residence in Midland.

July Fourth To Find City Celebrating

Thousands of Midlanders will begin a long Fourth-of-July weekend Friday with busy plans for picnics, parties and cross-country trips.

For some the weekend will extend through Monday with some downtown offices closing on Friday and others closing on Monday.

The Midland County Courthouse will be closed Friday and Saturday while offices in the City Hall will be closed on Saturday and manned only by skeleton staffs Friday.

While many families will leave the city for the weekend others will remain at home and take part Saturday afternoon in a gala Fourth of July party planned by the Lions Club at the Midland Fairgrounds.

The Lions Club party will include a gigantic fireworks display early in the evening and an old fashioned country party during the afternoon. The Midland Indians will play at Big Spring Saturday and the more ardent fans will drive there to see the baseball game.

1,318 Midlanders Undergo X-Rays

Midlanders continued the parade to the portable X-ray machine Thursday as the current chest X-ray campaign went into its second day.

Workers reported that a total of 1,318 persons had been X-rayed up to 11:30 a.m. Thursday.

The machine will be in operation again Friday on the first floor of the Midland County Courthouse, then will be closed down until Tuesday.

The campaign will continue through July 11.

Cattle Sales Cut Sharply; Prices Rise

FORT WORTH—(P)—Stockmen have reduced sharply their marketings of cattle this week and prices have advanced moderately.

The average price of stockers and feeders here has increased about $2 from the low point of $13.66 reached June 18. The latter average compared with $26.81 a year previously.

Dealers said stockers and feeders have shown the greatest improvement. On slaughter classes, bulls have gained slightly, while steers and yearlings have about held their own, although the declining trend appears to have been halted.

A principal cause of the declining trend of the last few months has been the heavy receipts occasioned by drouth and by inability to finance the heavy cost of feeding. With the government now ready to provide feed at low cost in so-called disaster counties, traders said they expected the receipts to return to normal or perhaps decline a little. This in turn could give strength to prices. But it was pointed out that packers' warehouses are bulging with beef and there was little prospect of sharp price increases in the next few months.

Officials in Washington said there are ample supplies of cotton seed feeds and wheat in and near the drouth area. Corn and oats may have to be shipped in from government stocks stored in the Midwestern corn belt.

TV Station Plans Shape

A television station for Midland was approved officially Wednesday by the federal government and its backers said the station probably will go on the air with TV programs by November 1.

"We are studying several plans," said H. R. Drury of Lawton, Okla., one of the station's backers, "and we will decide within a few days just which one we will develop."

"We definitely are going to build the station here and, if everything goes well, we will be on the air by November 1."

The Midland station was assigned Channel 2, regarded as the best in this area for transmission and reception of TV programs.

Record Tax Fails To Avert Deepest U. S. Dip Into Red

WASHINGTON—(P)—The government collected more taxes in the last 12 months than in any other year in the nation's history, but still ran up a deficit of $9,389,000,000.

And it is going to start off the new fiscal year, which began

Wednesday, by borrowing $5,500,000,000 to $6,000,000,000—the biggest new borrowing since the war.

Senator Byrd (D-Va.), noting these figures, said in an interview Thursday he doubts the Eisenhower Administration will be able to make good on tax reduction promises next year without budget cuts deeper than now planned. Unless there are economies not now in sight, Byrd said, he fears this fiscal year's red ink entry will be almost as large as last year's.

"I just don't see how there can be any new tax reductions in the face of these tremendous deficits," the Virginia senator said. "The loss in revenue from the reductions automatically scheduled to take place on January 1 apparently is not going to be offset by reductions in spending."

Personal income taxes are due to drop 10 per cent on January 1. And

Bogey Blasts 3-D Pictures, Hollywood's Glamor Queens

By BOB THOMAS
HOLLYWOOD —(AP)— Humphrey Bogart, Hollywood's great dissenter, is back in town and delivering a blast at 3-D pictures.
Bogart has an opinion on everything. He even knocked the Academy Awards after he had received one for "The African Queen." Just back from Europe for one picture and getting ready to leave for Hawaii on another, he said of 3-D films:
"I think they stink. They're going to ruin the movie business. Take a look at the movie ads and see all the junk they're putting out in the guise of entertainment. Men from Mars and all that baloney!
"It was the same way when talkies came in. Any picture that talked could go out and make a mint, no matter how crummy it was. So they just ground out lousy pictures, knowing the gullible public would snap them up. The same guys who cashed in on the talkie craze are doing it now.

"As a result, the real creators of the business—the men with taste and ability—are left out in the cold. They aren't going to tinker with these gimmicks. So the quality of pictures is going to hit a new low."
Bogart said that he and John Huston were ready to start their European venture, "Beat the Devil," when the 3-D revolution broke out.
"We were in Italy when we read a copy of Variety telling all about it," he recalled. "Big panic! Everything is a crisis to John and he was running around trying to get one of the new lenses. Finally, cooler heads prevailed, and we shot the picture 'flat and black.'
"But we got a good picture. I think the public still will buy flat and black pictures—if they're good."

While he was in an argumentative mood, Bogart added another blast at Hollywood glamor girls. I trust this does not include his wife, Lauren Bacall.
"They should take a lesson from the European actresses," he said scornfully. "Like Gina Lollobrigida, who was in our picture. What a doll! That girl can do anything. She can make her own wig. I don't mean just put them on; I mean make them! She can make her own eyelashes too, and she wouldn't think of asking anyone to put on her makeup or costumes. She does it all herself.
"Can you imagine these Hollywood hot-house flowers being asked to do something for themselves? They'd probably faint dead away."
Bogart returned to his Hollywood haunts looking fairly healthy—for him. He is ready to hop off again for Hawaii, to film locations of "The Caine Mutiny," in which he'll play the infamous Captain Queeg.

Nutty Squirrels Drive Telephone Executives Nuts

LOS ANGELES—(AP)—Some squirrels—an estimated 20,000 to 30,000 of them—are driving the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Company slightly nuts.
The squirrels cost the company about $30,000 last year in the San Fernando Valley, and the valley squirrel population is doubling every year.
Jittery squirrels—ill, adolescent, just plain nervous—chew holes in the protective lead sheathing around telephone cables, allowing moisture to interrupt service.
Dick Teague, in charge of his company's fight against the squirrels, said Thursday:
"Cable-grawing seems to be related solely to nervous temperament. Healthy adult squirrels never chew cables." The only effective defense, "tape-armored" cable is in short supply and expensive.

Singer Lina Romay Marries Rail Heir

HOLLYWOOD —(AP)— Jay Gould III, grandson of the late railroad financier, is honeymooning Thursday with singer Lina Romay.
They were married Tuesday at the Westwood Lutheran Church, with only members of their families wedding. Miss Romay said a larger wedding had been planned later but explained:
"Our new house was ready, and we suddenly made up our minds not to wait."
The bride, 29, daughter of a Mexican consular official in Los Angeles, formerly was married to John Lawrence Adams, an investment broker. She entered movies after singing with Xavier Cugat's orchestra.

Wind-Blown Check Returned To Owner

NEW YORK —(AP)— A paycheck whirled away by a tornado at Worcester, Mass., and lost 21 days has been returned to railway mail clerk Charles F. Nowlin.
Rain-streaked but still legible, the check landed 60 miles away at the South Weymouth Navy Base, near Roxbury, Mass. It was found by John J. Landry, a sailor, and returned to Nowlin.
The twister flattened Nowlin's house.

Engagements, Weddings Mark Close Of Pecos' June Activities

PECOS—Maintaining its reputation as a month for brides, June closed here with a flurry of weddings and engagement announcements.

The engagement of Patsy Sue Turner, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. W. M. Turner, to Lt. John Edward Pasche, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Pasche of Dallas, was announced at a tea given by the bride-elect's mother.

Dr. Turner and Dr. Alton Reed of Dallas will officiate for the wedding on September 4 in the First Baptist Church.

Miss Turner is a junior student at Baylor University, Waco, Lt.

Pasche, who is stationed at Scott Air Force Base in Illinois, was graduated from Baylor in March with a Bachelor of Arts degree in radio.

Mr. and Mrs. Lowery Walker have announced the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Wanda, to Staff Sgt. John David Pegrum, son of Mr. and Mrs. James H. Pegrum of Princeton, Ind.

The wedding will be held at 4 p. m. on August 16 in the First Methodist Church, with the Rev. Ray McGrew officiating.

Miss Walker was graduated from Hereford High School in 1948 and attended West Texas State College, Canyon. She received her degree in nursing from St. Anthony's Hospital School of Nursing, Amarillo, June 3.

The prospective bridegroom is stationed at Amarillo Air Force Base. He was graduated from Princeton, Ind., High School.

After a reception, the couple left for a wedding trip to Ruidoso, N. M. When they return, they will live in Andrews, where the bridegroom is employed with Gulf Oil Company.

Mr. and Mrs. Dale Toone, who have returned from a wedding trip to Colorado, have established a residence here.

They were married June 16 in the Methodist Church in Las Cruces, N. M.

Mrs. Toone is the former Bette Sue Payne, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd C. Payne, and is employed at Reeves County Motors. The bridegroom, son of Mr. and Mrs. John B. Toone, is engaged in farming. He attended Texas Western College, El Paso, and spent two years in the Air Force.

Andrews Couple Holds Golden Anniversary Party

ANDREWS—Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Fort celebrated their golden wedding anniversary Sunday in their home.

Approximately 60 persons called at the Fort home between 2 p. m. and 4 p. m. and dinner was served at noon to members of the family.

Mr. and Mrs. Fort were married June 29, 1903, in Athens, where they lived until they moved to Andrews County 13 years ago. Fort is a retired county employe.

All of the Forts' children were present for the anniversary event. They are Mrs. Velma Orell, John Fort and Louis Fort, Andrews; W. H. "Bud" Fort, Monahan; Mrs. Bobby Moxley, Roswell, N. M.; Mrs. Virgil Kirk, Troup, and Mrs. Lois Tremble, Lovington, N. M.

4—THE MIDLAND REPORTER-TELEGRAM, THURSDAY, JULY 2, 1953

E. J. Elliott Is Hostess To Writers

Letters from two club members were read, reports were made and a program on stories was given at a meeting of the Midland Writers Group Wednesday evening in the home of E. J. Elliott, 1602 West Kentucky Street.

A letter from Patte and Billy Abbott, written enroute home from Europe, was read by the members and reports on sales of manuscripts were given.

During the program, Mrs. Brandon Rea discussed the works of the literary agent.

Mrs. Edmund Borys read a synopsis for a story and Miss Elliott read parts of a Western story. The climax and conclusion of a short story, entitled "Golden Wedding," were read by Mrs. E. L. Ricketts.

It was announced that Mrs. Leonard Swords' first cartoon idea for the "Will-yum" cartoons by Dave Girard will appear Monday. She also sells ideas for cartoons to Martin Blanchard of the Saturday Evening Post staff.

During the business meeting, members decided to discontinue meeting until August 28.

Mrs. Joseph Carl was a guest. Members present were Mrs. Ernest Sidwell, Mrs. Ricketts, Mrs. Walter Mork, Mrs. Borys, Mrs. Swords, Mrs. Rea and Miss Elliott.

Kenneth Whites, Wed In Snyder, Will Live Here

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Whites, who have returned from a wedding trip to Oklahoma, have established a residence in Midland.

The bride is the former Velda Ann Mobley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Mobley of Snyder. Whites, who is associated with the Superior Oil Company in Midland, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. O. White of Snyder, formerly of Andrews.

The couple was married June 21 in the Union Baptist Church in Snyder, with the Rev. L. V. Ratliff officiating. The reception was in the home of the bride's parents.

24,000 Hear Graham In Lubbock Stadium

LUBBOCK—Evangelist Billy Graham preached Wednesday night to the largest crowd ever gathered in Jones Stadium on the Texas Tech campus.

More than 24,000 filled the stadium and overflowed onto the field. He had 430 converts. The night before, at Amarillo, 595 were converted.

"This is the greatest hunger for God that I have seen in years," Graham said. He ends more than a month's stay in Texas Thursday night with a sermon at Wichita Falls.

Air Line Adds New Service For Permian Basin Patrons

Midland had recorded another chapter Thursday in its unparalleled aviation development.

The city's first north-south non-stop service came into being Wednesday with the inauguration of a new flight by Continental Air Lines. Continental is utilizing its Super Convair Liners, 44-passenger flying giants, on the flights originating at Kansas City and including Tulsa, Oklahoma City, Wichita Falls, Midland and El Paso.

Mayor W. G. McMillen greeted Stanley O. Halberg, vice president of traffic and sales, and other Continental officials when the big plane arrived here at 8:48 p.m. The flight continued at 9:05 p.m.

Joining McMillen in greeting the Continental officials were Clyde

Eisenhower Signs 'Freedom' Brochure

WASHINGTON—(AP)—President Eisenhower Thursday signed a solemn declaration that "the heritage of freedom which we cherish as Americans is from God."

The signing of the large leather-bound brochure touched off a year-long "March of Freedom" sponsored by the National Association of Evangelicals "to emphasize the fact that freedom depends on faith in God."

The President issued a proclamation also calling on Americans to observe July 4 as a day of penance and prayer.

Young Officer Dies During Medical Test In Pressure Chamber

SAN ANTONIO—(AP)—An autopsy was conducted Thursday in the death of Lt. Richard Rhamy, 24, of Wabash, Ind., who died in a high altitude testing pressure chamber at the School of Aviation Medicine at Randolph Air Force Base Wednesday.

Rhamy and several other student medical officers were taking the test.

The purpose of the tests are to indoctrinate doctors so they will know conditions under which flyers go through in high altitude flights. The "cabin" is pressurized to simulate conditions as high as 40,000 and 50,000 feet, but a spokesman for the school said he doubted the pressure had been built up to this extent when Rhamy was undergoing the test.

Rhamy reported to the school June 1. His widow and child survive.

Youth Gets 99 Years In Mass Assault Case

HOUSTON—(AP)—Rudy Esquivel, 17, one of four youths accused of assaulting a stenographer, received a 99-year prison sentence Wednesday.

The woman, 27, testified she was forced into an auto March 2 while on her way to early morning mass. She said four men took her to an "East Houston park and assaulted her by turn."

Two teenagers accused in the case have been placed in the Gatesville Training School for boys. Henry Parrish, 20, is awaiting trial.

Reds Drag Out Aged Leader In Move For German Unity

BERLIN—(AP)—The Russians dragged East Germany's aged President Wilhelm Pieck out of obscurity Thursday to sound another call for German unity. Pieck's resurrection looked like new testimony that all still was not well across the Iron Curtain.

The Red Army newspaper devoted its whole front page to the 77-year-old titular head of the East Zone government—photographs of him talking to party comrades in Russia, a flowery tribute and an article, signed by him, calling for: An end to the economic and political ailments which brought on the bloody workers' uprising in the Soviet Zone; and Creation of the necessary atmosphere for all-German approaches—Communist version—to the reunification of the divided country.

For months Pieck has been completely in the background while East German Premier Otto Grotewohl and the Communist Party's boss, Secretary General Walter Ulbricht, have had all the headlines. The Reds said Pieck left Berlin April 27 for a "rest cure," giving rise to subsequent rumors that he was mortally stricken or even had been shot.

The Red paper's flowery tribute to Pieck and his "qualities of leadership" made no mention of Grotewohl or Ulbricht. Nor did Pieck's article name any of the Commu-

Churches To Include Prayers For Rain In Sunday Services

Most Midland churches contacted Thursday have planned no special services Sunday in connection with the day of prayer for rain asked by Governor Shivers—but will include prayers for rain in their regular services.

The governor said that "in all humility" he was asking "ministers of all faiths and their congregations throughout the state to participate in this spiritual endeavor."

"We have no special service planned," Dr. Luther Kirk, pastor of the First Methodist Church, pointed out, "but we will indeed give this effort special mention in our Sunday prayers."

This view also was voiced by the Rev. J. Q. Woodard, associate pastor of the First Baptist Church, the Rev. Henry Stafford, associate pastor of the First Presbyterian church, and other Midland church leaders.

Bomb, Power Failures Hail Royal Visit To North Erin

BELFAST, NORTHERN IRELAND—(AP)—Irish extremists bombed a railroad bridge and Belfast's power supply went dead Thursday, apparently in protest against Queen Elizabeth's state visit to the British-held northern part of divided Ireland.

A bomb on a rail bridge near the southern border blocked rail traffic between Dublin and Belfast for several hours. It was an apparent attempt to stop special trains bringing Southern Irish to see the queen, but the excursions went through on time.

Hours later trouble at Belfast's main powerhouse brought streetcars and trolleys to a halt. Thousands were delayed coming into the city to watch Queen Elizabeth II and the Duke of Edinburgh in a royal procession.

The royal pair arrived Wednesday for a three-day visit as part of the queen's coronation celebrations.

A minority of the Northern Irish are antiroyalist. They oppose continued partition of the six North Irish counties—a part of the United Kingdom—from the Irish Republic.

A municipal corporation official said the power failure "is serious and may take some time to repair. Engineers are working feverishly to put things right."

Bridge Not Damaged

He refused to say just what the cause was and would not comment when a reporter suggested sabotage.

The bombed rail bridge was near Newry, 50 miles from Belfast. Except for shifted tracks, there was no damage, railway officials said.

Though police reinforced their guard on the 90-mile route the royal train takes Friday from Belfast to Londonderry, the bombers apparently meant no personal harm to the queen. At the closest point, her route is 40 miles from the blasted bridge.

TO KERRVILLE

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Master-son, Mrs. Louise Miller and Juanita Robinson, left Wednesday for a few days' vacation in Kerrville.

Improved Air Service Asked For Wide Area Of Southwest

WASHINGTON—(AP)—The Dallas Chamber of Commerce asked the Civil Aeronautics Board Wednesday for better local-service air line connections with most major Southwestern cities.

The plan called for Dallas to intervene for a route and cities in the application, Dallas' new approach grew out of the Southwest local air service conference in the Texas city last month.

Air line connections between Dallas and cities in Texas, Louisiana, Oklahoma, Arkansas and New Mexico are inadequate and improperly adapted to present the future needs, the Dallas application said. Dallas asked for:

- Hop To Abilene
Non-stop schedules, not now available, to Abilene, Beaumont, San Angelo and Texarkana.
- Single-plane, limited stop (meaning only one or two stops, with no change of plane) to and from Big Spring and Plainview; Albuquerque; Bartlesville, Enid and Stillwater, Okla.
- Single-plane, limited-stop schedules, not now available, to El Dorado and Fort Smith, Ark., Lafayette and Lake Charles, La., Roswell, N. M., Lawton, Okla., and Harlingen, McAllen, Pampa, Stamford and Vernon.
- Single-plane, multiple-stop schedules, not now available, to Fayetteville and Magnolia, Ark., Hobbs, N. M., Chickasha, Norman and Okmulgee, Okla., Coleman, Huntsville, New Braunfels and Taylor, Texas.

Service To Midland
In the near future—competitive non-stop service, not now available, to Austin, Corpus Christi, Lubbock and Midland; single-plane limited stop schedules to Santa Fe, N. M., and Lamesa and Victoria, and single-plane service to Camden, Ark., and Borger and Brownfield.

Coleman and Lubbock also filed petitions with the CAB for improved service. Coleman asked the board to reconsider its June 3 denial of scheduled air line service and petitioned to be restored to Trans-Texas Airways' San Angelo-Dallas route.

Lubbock and its chamber of commerce asked the board to reconsider its recent decision on Amarillo-El Paso air service and the certification of Snyder as a stop between Lubbock and Abilene. Lubbock took issue with the board's finding that service by Continental Airlines for Roswell-Lubbock and Lubbock-El Paso is adequate.

Porter Hangs Carpetbagger Label On Touring Mitchell

BEAUMONT—(AP)—The national Democratic Party chairman, on tour of Texas, was called a "carpetbagger" Wednesday by the Texas national Republican committee.

But Stephen Mitchell continued his speeches and conferences aimed at returning Texas to the Democratic fold.

Jack Porter, Houston Republican, said Mitchell is making "his present carpetbag expedition into Texas" under the auspices of "the left wing element of the Democratic Party."

Mitchell said in a speech here Texas is one of the most important spots in the future of the Democratic Party.

"The Democratic Party today is a strong, vigorous and virile organization. Our duty is to build the cleanest party with the best leadership that we can find," he asserted.

The Mitchell tour, with stops today in Bryan and Waco, drew Porter's comment after Mitchell said the Republicans were planning a national sales tax.

Porter called Mitchell's utterances "a gross distortion of truth." He said Mitchell represents only a "disgruntled minority" and believes in the Americans for Democratic Action (ADA) faction.

"I hope he is successful in convincing the people of Texas what the ADA stands for," Porter said. "Because then it will be no trouble for us to carry Texas in 1956."

Mitchell praised the minority leadership of Rep. Sam Rayburn and Senator Lyndon Johnson.

UN Covenant Called Way To 'Go Broke'

The United Nations' Covenant of Human Rights Wednesday was called the quickest route to U. S. bankruptcy—and the proposed Bricker Amendment the only way to stop such a move, when Frank Bezon, Midland attorney, spoke at the Wednesday noon meeting of the Lions Club in Hotel Scharbauer.

that all party nations bring their maximum resources to play in an effort to raise the standards of those nations.

This requirement, Bezon contends, would mean bankruptcy for the United States.

If adopted by the United Nations and ratified by the U. S. Congress, the covenant would become, in effect, a treaty.

First, Bezon emphasized, the covenant would ruin the U. S. economy, and second, he said, the United States would be charged with treaty violation if a "payment" were missed.

Arkansas To File Action Challenging Tidelands Decision

LITTLE ROCK—(AP)—Arkansas plans to bring suit in Federal Court next week challenging the new law giving title to the Tidelands to the states.

Attorney General Tom Gentry said Wednesday he will file the suit in the name of the State of Arkansas in Washington.

Gentry said he would allege the act violated the Constitution in that it exceeded the powers granted Congress to dispose of property of the United States.

The Bricker amendment, on the other hand, gives the Congress treaty-making powers, but only if the treaty does not violate or conflict with the constitution.

Covenant Parts Opposed

"I oppose those parts of the covenant which make it obligatory for all nations adopting it to make available to the limit of their resources equal opportunities in education, housing, food and the like," Bezon pointed out. "This would mean that the United States would have to pay the bill to raise the standard of living of all the other nations, or be in the attitude of violating a treaty."

"It is impossible for us to raise the standards of all the peoples of the world up to ours. The result of such an effort would be that our standards would be lowered to a status between the poverty-stricken state of other nations and the present situation in our nation."

"It might be of worthwhile interest to note that Russia and her satellite nations have never opposed the 'resources' articles of the covenant—but have opposed the articles which would provide for freedom of speech, press and assembly."

"The Reds will never oppose the other items. They're willing to see us go down the road to bankruptcy—and they would accuse us of violating the treaty at the first opportunity."

Bezon pointed out that the Texas Legislature in its recent session passed a resolution condemning the covenant and recommending the adoption of the Bricker amendment.

Oil Thefts Revealed; As Oklahoman Jailed

OKLAHOMA CITY—(AP)—The director of the Oklahoma State Crime Bureau says he has uncovered a hot oil syndicate dealing in stolen crude from leases in at least four Oklahoma counties.

"We don't believe we have scratched the surface yet," said O. K. Bivins Wednesday. He said his agents in Stephens, Garvin, Tillman and Carter Counties have established the theft of about 200,000 barrels of crude in two years.

"The syndicate has its own transport trucks and contracts with four refineries in Oklahoma and one in Texas," said Bivins. He did not name the Texas refinery. He said one man is under arrest.

With Democrats providing the bulk of the votes on the key test, the Senate leadership turned back all reductions before the body passed the authorization measure late Wednesday.

However, Senate Republican Leader Taft of Ohio and other top Republicans assured their colleagues they were perfectly free to vote to cut later when the foreign aid money bill comes up.

The authorization bill merely fixes the ceiling for sums that can be appropriated for the program in the fiscal year which began Wednesday.

Representative Victory

However, the initial Senate action represented something of a victory for the Eisenhower Administration.

The president had submitted a $544,000,000 bill to Congress as a rock bottom figure. The measure passed by the Senate was only 156 million under this request.

The house voted 320 millions less than the Senate, or $4,988,000,000. The differences now will be compromised in a conference between

Oil Thefts Revealed; As Oklahoman Jailed

OKLAHOMA CITY—(AP)—The director of the Oklahoma State Crime Bureau says he has uncovered a hot oil syndicate dealing in stolen crude from leases in at least four Oklahoma counties.

"We don't believe we have scratched the surface yet," said O. K. Bivins Wednesday. He said his agents in Stephens, Garvin, Tillman and Carter Counties have established the theft of about 200,000 barrels of crude in two years.

"The syndicate has its own transport trucks and contracts with four refineries in Oklahoma and one in Texas," said Bivins. He did not name the Texas refinery. He said one man is under arrest.

Bank Says High Business Level Will Maintain Pace

DALLAS—(AP)—Business will generally be good the second half of this year, the Dallas Federal Reserve Bank says, although the drought is hurting.

In its mid-year business review Wednesday the bank forecast "few, if any important signs x x x that would indicate any serious softening of business conditions."

There might be moderate adjustments in some industries and in agriculture, however, the report advised. The bank urged businessmen to conduct operations "in a most efficient manner to enjoy most profitable results."

In the Southwest, the bank said drought is hurting agriculture but other segments of the area's economy, with some exceptions are generally holding up.

For example: Crude oil production for the first half of 1953 rose four per cent over the similar 1952 period. Non-agricultural employment in

Lawyer Berates Texas Laws On Labor, Flays 'Business'

EL PASO—(AP)—A Dallas lawyer berated Texas labor laws and the "front groups fighting labor" in an address to the Texas Federation of Labor convention Wednesday.

Nat Wells, lawyer for the federation, asserted the unlimited resources of big business are behind foes of the labor movement in Texas.

Delegates elect a president Thursday. The incumbent, William Harris of Dallas and H. S. Brown of San Antonio were nominated. Most other officers were elected by acclamation Wednesday.

Wells said big business is backing the law suit of 14 workers in Amarillo for the "right-to-work" for the Santa Fe Railroad. Wells said that if the 14 win the suit, "the infamous Texas right-to-work law will become a part of the American Constitution."

The El Paso Catholic bishop, the Most Rev. Sidney Metzger, told the 600 delegates labor unions should work with the church to stop the threat of world communism.

Candidates for contested posts in Thursday's election were W. T. Ozmer of Borger and L. A. Wilson nominated for fifth district vice

Paper Mill Strike Violence Flares Anew

ELIZABETH, LA.—(AP)—A blast ripped a motor car to bits Wednesday in the fourth violent incident since Saturday in the Elizabeth paper mill strike.

The car belonged to a non-striker. The dynamiting took place at nearby Mamou at the home of Elwood Brignac, police said.

Texan's Craving For Juicy Melon To Be Satisfied

VICTORIA—(AP)—When she was a girl in Texas, she loved watermelon. Now she's married and expects a baby in two months—and craves watermelon.

Mrs. Donald McCarn, 20, and her Air Force husband live near London.

So a 40-pound watermelon went on a plane to Mrs. McCarn Thursday.

McCarn, 21, even tried to raise some melons under glass, but the English weather has been so cold he said they won't make it before winter arrives.

Mrs. H. D. McCarn of Port Lavaca wrote the Victoria Advocate about her son and daughter-in-law, and the newspaper took over.

Advocate workers talked with Trans-Texas Airlines, a watermelon grower and financial backers. Ed Loox, a farmer, will give the melon. Morris Roberts, publisher of the Advocate, will pay the shipping cost.

SPORTS PARLEY

By CHARLEY ESKEW

Carlsbad's Merv Connors, who in civvies, hat and a lip-hung fag could chill down any Bogart in tough-guy appearance, has been trying to maintain such a character on and off the field.

He seldom smiles and rarely talks. And in repose, Connors appears more of a type to be quietly considering the odds to an inside straight or how might Jamie K. or Native Dancer fare in next week's race.

He's baseball man through and through at any rate. Midland fans so noted while Merv was batting in the recent Indian-Potasher series. Once, at bat, he might have jumped down the faces of both Art Bowland, Midland catcher, and Umpire Harper if he'd got one more strike called he thought was bad.

Connors Says The Unexpected

Of the playing in 1951—carries a bigger chip on his shoulder than a bat. Connors, an off-season truck driver in California, once stopped along side Bowland and the umpire and glowered. "You guys musta held a meeting this morning and decided you were going to get Connors tonight."

Off the field his remarks are just as spontaneous and extraordinary. After Sunday's game, when he went one for five, he ordered (always seriously): "Tell that scorekeeper that wasn't a hit; I want to be 0 for 14." He thinks Harold V. Ratliff of The Associated Press one of Texas' best baseball men after learning that the AP sports editor had said Connors, although a home run hitter, batted defensively around first base. Big Merv, who works pretty hard at leading in such a case admitted, "It takes a sharp baseball man to see that."

Brown Headed Toward Pennsylvania

Bill Brown, Indian outfielder, almost closed out his baseball career because of an admirable choice of his. He and Hayden White alike were being considered in the trade to Big Spring for Mickey Diaz, a defensive move for Midland. Brownie, admitting he didn't think he could adjust to the Bronco squad, nevertheless said he would go, for he knew White was more disappointed in such a move.

The likable Brown tried and couldn't get along at Big Spring, then packed to go home to Pennsylvania. However, he was called again to Midland when White was swapped to Temple for Pitcher Prentiss Rainey. Lee Velarde, the only native Midlander on the Tribe squad, got a good-luck round of applause from home fans at Odessa Tuesday in his first professional appearance. He was nervous, naturally, as rookies will be, but didn't go for either of the two bad pitches from Jim Carson before Mickey Diaz was caught off the first base for the out that ended the game.

Velarde, who still will be a rookie in 1954 (by having less than 90 days to go on this season's contract), isn't the first ex-Midland Colt player to get a tryout with the Indian team. Martin Benavides, infielder, and Romeo Collasso, outfielder, were okayed by Harold Webb in 1948 but both, having families, couldn't sign because of the small salaries offered.

Indians Seek Revenge In Twin Bill

Oilers Win, Face Tribe Aces Here

ODESSA—Midland tries to recoup two losses to the Odessa Oilers in a single night Thursday when Fred Rodriguez and Max Newcom take the hill for the Indians in a double-header which begins at 7 p.m. in Indian Park.

Odessa added the second loss to the records Wednesday by a 5-4 count as the Indians fumbled away chances—both offensive and defensive—to hand Darío Jimenez his first defeat this year.

Instead, Jimenez won his sixth game and helped pave the way for Glenn Selbo's first loss as a Midland Indian. Jimenez scored the first Odessa run in the fourth inning following a leadoff triple. The Oilers took up the play from there and went on to their victory.

Manager Jay Haney is calling up Rodriguez (1-2) and Newcom (2-2) to face the Oilers' Wes Ortiz and a moundsman yet to be named. The Oilers came up short-handed when Jim Ackers quit the club.

Rodriguez and Newcom both chalked up victories in the recent Midland four-game streak. Newcom, particularly, was effective. He gave up eight hits and struck out 10 against Carlsbad. Rodriguez had an easier time in beating Artesia, 18-8, but he also had the batters swing, whiffing nine.

Midland got off to a fast start against the Oilers scoring twice in the opening frame as Tex Stephenson singled and moved into scoring position on a passed ball. Scooter Hughes singled him home, but Art Bowland and Julio de la Torre grounded out, Hughes moving to third. Bill Brown then walked and the pair worked a double steal.

Bob Martin's home run over the left field fence in the sixth tied the score at 2-2, and the Oilers went out front, 8-2, in the seventh on two hits, two walks and an error. Meanwhile, Jimenez had settled down and was getting the Indians to ground out and fly out. Bowland and De la Torre backed up the Odessa outfield on long flys, but no one seemed able to get into scoring position.

Brown led off the seventh with a double and was out trying to reach third when the relay from right field was wild. The Indians came to life with one away in the ninth when De la Torre stretched his hitting streak to 18 games by singling. Brown singled to keep the rally alive, but Dawson went down. Mickey Diaz singled De la Torre across and Roger Dalla Betta's timely hit scored Brown and sent Diaz into scoring position, but Selbo grounded out, ending the game.

The loss was Selbo's first in his first appearance this season, but the Indian favorite pitched respectable six-hit ball and was tight in the clutch except in the seventh inning. He had won two regular season games and two playoff games last season with the Tribe to post a perfect 4-0 record.

Cosgrove, Maryland Center, Joins Colts

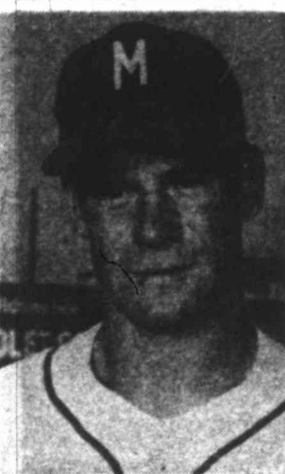

BALTIMORE —(P)—The Baltimore Colts announced Thursday they had obtained Tom Cosgrove, crack University of Maryland center and key witness in the bribery conviction of a fellow student, in a trade with the Cleveland Browns.

The Colts said they had obtained the six-foot-three, 230-pound Cosgrove "in a trade involving an undisclosed draft choice" in the National Football League picking party next year.

Last Fall Cosgrove and two teammates created a sensation by reporting a Maryland student had tried to bribe them to hold down the score against Louisiana State University.

CARLSBAD, N. M. —(P)—The Carlsbad Potashers snapped a five-game losing streak Wednesday night behind the three-hit pitching of Hank Williams, who returned to the mound after a two-week absence due to a sore arm. The Potashers downed Artesia, 9-1, moving back to second place ahead of the Drillers.

Williams pitched no-hit ball for five innings. Carlsbad pounded Herman Reyes and Fidel Alvarez for a total of 18 hits with every man in the batting order getting at least one and Williams getting three. Williams struck out nine men.

An overflowing crowd of 3,475 witnessed the game. Carlsbad scored two in the second when Pedro Osorio walked with two out and scored on Ike Jackson's double to left field. Williams sent Jackson across with a sharp single. The Potashers tallied four times in the third after two were out. Elias Osorio singled and took second on a wild pitch. Goidy Gholson singled to right scoring E Osorio and Bob Hobbs tripled to left scoring Gholson. Pedro Osorio then lofted a homer over the left field wall scoring Hobbs ahead of him. Hobbs homered in the seventh with none on.

Ex-City Champ Is Abilene Medalist

ABILENE—The field of 280 West Texas golfers starts match play Thursday in the twenty-seventh annual Abilene Invitational Golf Tournament after Bill Horton, Abilene city champion in 1939-40-41, fired a five-under-par 66 Wednesday to take medalist honors.

Horton finished three strokes ahead of the co-runners-up, Bob Craig of Colorado City and Bob Rice of Abilene.

Midland had two entries in the field, which is 40 shy of last year's entry list. E. H. Dunn of Midland qualified with an 80 and plays Jack Simpson of Pecos, who had a 76, in his first match Thursday in the championship flight, which is expanded to 64 for this tourney.

Jack Shier of Midland plays Albert Hudson of Abilene in a third flight match. It took better than 80 for most of the entries to gain the championship flight. Several who had 80's were picked—names drawn from a hat—to round out the field. Winds and crisp, fast greens played havoc with the golfers.

Ed Hopkins, who established a new course record over the 71-par, 6,101-yard Abilene Country Club course with a 61 Tuesday, and Ernie Vossler of Fort Worth, last year's runner-up to Lee Pinkston of Abilene who was exempt from qualifying, were the only others to break par. They turned in 70's.

Those in the championship flight play two matches Thursday while the other flights play one. First-round losers in the championship flight will drop out and form the first flight. The Country Club course, is short and places a premium on accuracy and ability to hit into the wind. A drive pushed off line means certain trouble. Long approach shots must be accurately placed or they will fall into one of the many traps surrounding the greens.

JayCee List 27 Swimmers On City Team

The JayCees, sponsoring the city swim team, have 27 practicing on the squad these days, and want more.

Bill Montgomery of the JayCee sports committee announced Thursday that the first week brought 27, mostly among the younger groups, onto the team roster.

"We'd like to get more swimmers and instructors too," he said. Currently, the sponsors are trying to arrange for meets against neighbor cities for the near future.

Ben Looney, Tim Dunn, Bill Walker, Ed Dillon, Henry Shaw, Jim Watson and Montgomery at present are coaching the youngsters in Monday-through-Thursday sessions from 5:30 p.m. to 6:30 p.m. at Pagoda Pool. They also hold workouts from 9 a.m. until 12 noon on Saturdays.

The roster:
Age group, 11 years and under—Mike Collins, Rodney Shultz, Chris Duncan, Bruce McElligott, Johnny McElligott, Charles Leeper.

Ages 12 and 13—Ray Pierce, Mike Northrup, Curt Stuart, David Dardis, Tommy McElligott, Billy Brown, Francella Brooks, Jerry Hyde, Jonnell Booker, Gerry Chastain, Sam Rosson, Roger Walker, Tom McNeil, Jerry Herndon.

Ages 14 and 15—Bucky Herndon, Olin Davis, Martha Nell Chastain. Ages 16 and older—Mary E. Herndon, Simone Walker, Henry E. Castro, Jim Ely.

Montgomery said that a number of former swimmers from the last few years are expected to strengthen the squad soon. Some of them, he said, will receive medals won last year and that were not distributed earlier.

Duren Twirls TL No-Hitter

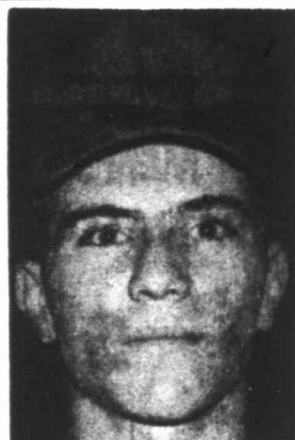

By The Associated Press

In the Texas League Wednesday night shutout pitching and Ryne Duren's no-hitter completely overshadowed the league race.

Doyle Lade hurled Shreveport to a 1-0 victory over Houston and Jose Santiago, Dallas, stopped Fort Worth on two hits, 2-0, but last-place San Antonio momentarily stole the league play with Duren's no-hit performance.

The 23-year-old, 6-foot-2 right-hander pitched the Missions to a 4-1 first game victory over Beaumont, throwing seven hitless innings.

Duren, a fast-ball pitcher, struck out seven and walked 11, forcing in the only run with a base on balls in the sixth inning. Beaumont came back to whip the Missions in the second game, 6-4, with Earl Brucker's two-run ninth inning homer settling the outcome. Oklahoma City topped Tulsa, 6-4, with Bill Greason winning in relief.

OWN SUPPORT—Larry Cooper, Traveler hurler in the Midland Pony League, proved his own best friend in winning over the Kiwanis, 3-0, this week. The Trav pitcher turned the league's first shutout by tossing an 18-strikeout no-hitter for seven innings.

Braves Break Slump; Yanks Keep Tumbling

By BEN FLEIGAR
Associated Press Sports Writer
The New York Yankees, who usually don't have to ask anybody for anything, might consider borrowing Charlie Grimm's Milwaukee textbook on "how to start winning when losing."

The Yankees go into Thursday's game at Boston with a chance to set a new "second best" losing record for the club. Their all-time mark is 13 in 1913. The next worse is nine in 1945 and equalled by the 1953 edition in Wednesday's 4-0 defeat at the hands of the Red Sox.

The Braves went into a tailspin the same day the Yanks did and they lost eight in a row before righting themselves Tuesday night. Wednesday they won again with ease, 10-2, over Cincinnati.

It looked for awhile Wednesday night as if the Braves would vault back into first place but Brooklyn rallied for two runs in the last of the tenth to nip the Philadelphia Phillies, 5-4, and keep their half-game edge.

The third-place St. Louis Cardinals overpowered Chicago, 10-5, to stay two and one-half games behind, Hal Rice homered in the eleventh to give Pittsburgh a 3-2 decision over the New York Giants.

Although they lost again, the Yankees preserved temporarily their vanishing five-game American League lead because the second-place Cleveland Indians also were beaten. Detroit stopped the Tribe's six-game winning rush towards first place, 4-2. Chicago's third-place White Sox moved to within five and one-half games of the pace-setters as they trampled the St. Louis Browns, 13-4. Washington defeated Philadelphia, 5-3.

The Yankees looked a beaten and bedraggled ball club all the way in bowing at Boston. Their attack was non-existent, producing only four singles off the stopgap slants of Mel Parnell. Five New York hitters went down swinging and two more were called out on strikes.

They were charged with only one error but the defensive play was generally sloppy.

Card Hurler Fans 13 In Perfect Game

Bobby Fisher, regular starting pitcher of the Cards' Little League team, Wednesday became the second youngest to spin a no-hitter in this week's Midland baseball league races.

Eddie Curtis, who helped pitch for the Eagles, appeared as the steady Eddie, defensively that is. He handled five chances and turned a double play without miscue.

And he went the other—Larry Cooper of the Travelers' Pony League club—much better. His, while the Cards whipped the Eagles, 12-0, was perfect.

Freeman stepped up with bases loaded and the score tied in the ninth and laced a liner into left where the fielder played it closely. It bounded away free while the three marginal runners scored.

Freeman's Late Hit Enables Kiwanis To Nip Traders, 5-2

Tommy Freeman, who batted in four runs all told, cleaned the filled bases with a last-inning double to boost Kiwanis to a 5-2 win over the American Traders in Wednesday's Pony League game.

The Kiwanis, on the win, took first place.

Freeman stepped up with bases loaded and the score tied in the ninth and laced a liner into left where the fielder played it closely. It bounded away free while the three marginal runners scored.

The seventh inning spree enabled Jim Owens, a reliever, to score the pitching win after only two innings work.

Until Freeman's rap, John McNeil of the winners had allowed four hits and teamed with Owens against James York in a rugged pitching duel.

Newsome Extends String To 34 Tilts

By The Associated Press
Lubbock led with its stopper on Pampa in the West Texas-New Mexico League Wednesday night and Charley Garmon came through for the league-leading Hubbers with a 10-7 win. It was his thirteenth victory.

"Good-as-Gold" Garmon needed some help from Bill Fayette however, as the Oilers rapped out a total of 16 hits.

Ray Newsome, with a triple, double and single hit safely in his thirty-fourth consecutive game with Lubbock.

Lubbock increased its lead one game-to three and a half—as the Albuquerque Dukes blew a 12-8 decision to Clovis.

Last-place Abilene whipped Plainview 4-3, ending a six-game losing streak.

A five-run rally in the seventh inning enabled Berger to smash Amarillo 17-4.

League-leading Galveston clipped Laredo, 9-5, on Mike Conovan's sixth-hit pitching.

Old Pro Vic Ghezzi Equals Record 66 To Lead In PGA

By HUGH FULLERTON, JR.
BIRMINGHAM, MICH. — (AP) — The predictions about the thirty-fifth Professional Golfers Association Championship are coming true—but with a reverse twist.

The predictions were that the par of 36-35-71 for the compact, rolling Birmingham Country Club course would take a beating and that the men who win the weekly open tournaments might be submerged pro who only take an occasional fling at the circuit.

After the first qualifying round, look who's ahead. Instead of the "unknown" it's the old men.

No. 1, with a course-record-equaling 66, tall Vic Ghezzi of Inwood, N. Y. Vic gave his age as "41 right now" when he came of the eighteenth green after taking the lead in the steaming 98-degree heat. The record books show him a few months younger. He won the PGA back in 1941, usually lasts until the late rounds and was a quarter-finalist last year.

Ghezzi played in only about half a dozen Winter tournaments, barely winning expense money, and couldn't qualify for the last 36 holes of the Open at lengthy Oakmont. He was rock-steady in Wednesday's round, where missing the narrow fairways could be costly.

Tied for second at 67, Jimmy Hines, 48, of Glenview, Ill., and Jim Browning, 38, of Weston, Mass. Sharing third at 69, Chandler Harper of Portsmouth, Va., and Johnny Palmer of Badin, N. C. Then in the 69 bracket two of the top touring pros, Sammy Snead and Dutch Harrison, along with less-known Felice Torza and Pete Cooper.

And the day's summary—19 players out of 136 starters under par and 64 with scores of 74 or better. That indicates that the prediction of a medal-winning score of 137 and a requirement of 147 to get in match play Friday were just about right.

Hines has gone to the PGA semi-finals twice, the most recent time 15 years ago when he beat Byron Nelson and Denny Shute and then

Hogan missed practice Wednesday and there were more than 2,000 people at the Carnoustie course waiting to watch him. It was the first time Ben has missed since arriving. He has been shooting mostly sub-par rounds.

lost to Snead, who threw four straight 3s at him on the last four holes to gain a 1-up victory. That was when Snead, who now owns three PGA titles, took a beating from Paul Runyan in the finals.

Last year Jimmy passed up the PGA Championship to play in the British Open and he finished fourth there.

Browning, a chubby club professional, made his first appearance in the championship last year and failed to qualify. He tried the tournament circuit once and said he collected nothing but experience.

Harper is a former PGA champion, but his 1950 victory was regarded as something of a freak. Since then the balding, 39-year-old Portsmouth, Va., golfer has blossomed out as one of golf's snappiest dressers, head of a new-golf-equipment manufacturing concern and a fairly regular winner on the Winter tour.

Palmer, who might have been a lot better off but for an over-par six on the last hole, will be 35 Friday.

Little Mo Connolly Tips Dorothy Fry From Wimbledon

WIMBLEDON, ENGLAND—(AP)—Defending Champion Maureen Connolly of San Diego and Doris Hart of Coral Gables easily against the final round of the All-England Lawn Tennis Championship Thursday.

Miss Connolly eliminated Shirley Fry of Akron, 6-1, 6-1. Miss Hart defeated Mrs. Dorothy Head Knode of Alameda, Calif., 6-2, 6-2.

Thornton's Hit Wins For Conoco, 10-9; Tide Water Victor

Tide Water upset second-place Gulf, 17-6, Wednesday in an American League JayCee City Softball game behind the four-hit pitching of Trimble. The game, however, was played under protest from the middle of the fourth inning on. The score at the time of protest was, 8-4, in Tide Water's favor.

Thornton's home run to lead off the bottom of the seventh gave Conoco its victory over the Phonemen. Bell had knotted the score in the top of the sixth with Cross' double and Christian's single following a hit by Ethridge, an error, a hit batsman and a walk. The barrage produced three runs.

Schlumberger, the team which has fun in losing, had much to rejoice about for they bowed again. This time 11-1 to Texas Company, Conoco downed Southwestern Bell, 10-9, in the opener of the triple-header.

Left Fielder Wes Gibson rapped out his fourth hit of the night, a single to left, to score Frank Scarpace with the winning run.

Palmer, who might have been a lot better off but for an over-par six on the last hole, will be 35 Friday.

Tyler lost the lead on his 7-3 reversal by Austin. Longview lost, 7-6, to Paris before winning, 6-2.

Come to think of it, the top of this list is no place for youngsters. Snead and Harrison are in their 40s, Cooper 38, Torza 33.

Four batters got two hits—Mills, Collis, Kurts and Williams.

Percy Must Steel Himself To Peril Of Panty Peeking

DERBY, ENGLAND—(P)—Percy Potheary, 23, was driven berserk by the sight of a pretty cyclist's panties, his lawyer told a judge Wednesday.

Potheary was charged with striking Margaret Blair, 16. His lawyer said Miss Blair had cycled past Potheary on a windy day. He added:

"The wind was blowing the girl's skirts above her knees, revealing her underclothes. Potheary was shocked and upset by the spectacle. He can't bear to see young ladies indecently dressed."

Judge F. E. Sandlands sentenced Potheary to three months, remarking "If everyone who saw undies exhibited took the same course as you did, most young ladies in this country would be assaulted at one time or another."

Bullet Tested In Clark Case

FORT WORTH —(P)—Officers checking the William Clark murder case awaited Thursday results of ballistics test at Austin on a rifle and bullet thought to have been the death weapon and missile. The gun was on a chair near the body of the wealthy oil man when the slaying was discovered May 22. The bullet, imbedded in a carpet under heavy blood stains, was located last week.

Rangers called into the investigation have been searching the 22-room mansion in an effort to uncover clues. No arrests have been made.

A butcher, 40, was questioned Wednesday and refused to take a lie detector test. He is related by marriage to a woman questioned in the case.

Tidelands Parliisan Says Supreme Court Oversteps Authority

FORT WORTH —(P)—The Supreme Court should be made to understand that it is not "all powerful" but must respect the Constitution and be made to stay out of the sphere of legislating and the fixing of national policies, Robert Lee Bobbitt of San Antonio said Thursday.

Bobbitt, chairman of the Tidelands Committee of the State Bar Association, spoke about the court in the committee's report to the bar association.

Bobbitt declared that if the theorists and radicals in and out of the government had succeeded in establishing their wild theories of "further centralizing governmental power and the socialization of industry" through unprecedented and illegal actions in the Supreme Court, "our country would have suffered a most serious, if not permanent injury."

The committee recommended that the Supreme Court should be made to return and adhere to its solemn and important duty of "judging" and otherwise performing its judicial duties in accordance with the Constitution and the laws.

Independence Day Program Presented At Rotary Meeting

Members of the Midland Rotary Club heard the Declaration of Independence read as a special feature of an Independence Day program presented at their regular meeting Thursday noon in Hotel Scharbauer.

John Perkins, Midland attorney and veteran Rotary Club member, was the principal speaker. He was introduced by Cecil Smith, program chairman. Carroll L. Thomas, new president of the club, presided.

Perkins, in his address, explained that the Declaration of Independence actually was adopted on July 2, 1776, but it was not until July 4 that the written resolutions were adopted.

The speaker reviewed the settlement of America, beginning in 1607, and discussed the growth of the idea of freedom in this country. He read the first written compact ever made in America (1620), and the Connecticut Constitution, which was adopted in 1661. He explained that the Connecticut Constitution embodied "some of the seeds" of the U. S. Constitution.

He concluded his address by reading the Declaration of Independence of America, beginning in 1607, and discussed the growth of the idea of freedom in this country.

G. W. Breneman announced the chest X-ray campaign which now is underway here.

"If You Can Keep It"

Oh, may not be by thy sword, O Freedom! Not yet close thy lids in slumber. For thine enemy never sleeps. And thou must watch and combat.

—William Cullen Bryant

As Benjamin Franklin left Independence Hall, a woman asked him, "Mr. Franklin, what kind of a government have you given us?" He answered gravely, "A Republic, madam, if you can keep it." In painting this Independence Day scene in Hometown, U.S.A., the artist, E. Franklin Wittmack, has found an echo of Franklin's warning in a quotation from the poet William Cullen Bryant. The historic scene of Magna Charta, the signal light on old North Church Tower, the embattled "rebels" of a great new nation—symbolize the hard-won victories, and the priceless freedom, which, on Independence Day 1953, are given every Home town in the land—not done to celebrate, but to protect.

JULY FOURTH RIDE—Midlander youngsters such as these will "come a ridin'" Saturday at the Fourth of July carnival, beauty revue and fireworks show at Midland Fair Park. These Tom Thumb ponies will go a long way toward creating the carnival atmosphere of the festival designed to make Midland's a safe Fourth of July. A charge of $1 per car (no matter how many occupants) will be collected at the gate. Darkness will set the scene for the fireworks show.

Youth Admits Brutal Knife Slaying Of Wisconsin Pair

SHELBYVILLE, IND.—(P)—A husky, 14-year-old Wisconsin youth has admitted the fatal stabbing of a newspaper publisher and his wife at Sturgeon Bay, Wis., but he says, "I don't know why I did it."

"I know it's too late to be sorry," the six-foot, 185-pound youth said Wednesday as he signed a statement admitting the slaying of Sumner Harris, 53, publisher of the Door County (Wis.) Advocate, and his wife, Grace, 50.

Shelby County Sheriff Robert Meltzer said the statement was made by James A. Duranty, who was arrested here Wednesday by two policemen who found him sleeping in a restroom at the courthouse.

Duranty was booked at police headquarters on a charge of vagrancy, after telling police he was Joe Mead and that he lived in Michigan.

Car Tips Identify His identity was not established until Sheriff Meltzer was called to investigate the report of an abandoned car in a ditch 3 1/2 miles northeast of here.

The car, a late model sedan with Wisconsin plates, contained two suitcases and an eyeglass case with the name "Harris" written in ink on the inside cover.

The sheriff confronted the boy at the jail with the eyeglass case and a suit coat which matched the tweed trousers he was wearing. Then he admitted his identity, the sheriff said, and stated:

"I don't know why I did it. Something up there told me to do it." He pointed to his head.

Meltzer said Duranty signed a statement after Wisconsin authorities were notified of his arrest. A first degree murder warrant already had been issued against the boy in Wisconsin.

The sheriff said the boy's statement told of how he went to the Harris home Monday evening and knocked on the door. He said he attacked Mrs. Harris as soon as she answered the door, attempting to gag her with his hand.

Denies Sexual Attack His statement said she broke loose and he chased her into the kitchen but she got free again and tried to telephone police. He grabbed a knife "and stabbed her several times," Duranty said. "I think she must have died instantly."

He denied he abused her sexually, the sheriff said. Reports of

METER FINE IN PACKAGE

A woman motorist had her own peculiar revenge Thursday on police who gave her a ticket for overtime parking.

"How much will this ticket cost?" she asked Lt. Dewey L. Hockett as she appeared at police headquarters.

"One dollar," answered the police officer.

As she reached into her pocketbook, Lieutenant Hockett wrote out a receipt and handed it to her. In turn, she handed him a handful of something or other wrapped up in a paper napkin and left quickly.

It was 75 pennies and one quarter.

Sabre Jets Plaster Communist Tanks

SEOUL —(P)— U. S. Sabre jet fighter-bombers surprised 30 to 40 Communist tanks in a camouflaged valley just behind the western front Thursday and saturated the area with 1,000-pound bombs.

Black smoke filled the valley, making an accurate count of wrecked tanks impossible, the Fifth Air Force said.

Not since early in the war has a comparable concentration of Red armor been spotted so near the front in Korea.

The Eighth Army, meanwhile, reported that heavy fighting cost the Reds 36,000 killed and wounded last month—the equivalent of about three Red divisions.

The front was relatively quiet.

Sneeze Seige Still On After Four-Day Run

KANSAS CITY —(P)—A woman has been sneezing for four days, sometimes at the rate of 30 to 40 sneezes a minute.

Mrs. Louise Turner, 38, has been in a hospital since Tuesday. Her physician said Thursday that she had been sneezing continuously at a high rate except when under the influence of a sedative to make her sleep.

Her husband, M. B. Turner, said: "Louise just started sneezing very suddenly. She didn't know what started her off and still doesn't know. She never did any sneezing more than the average person. About three years ago she had a spell of the hiccups that lasted about a day and a half but that wore off."

Boykin Arrested In Armed Robbery Of Dallas Concern

Robert Marion Boykin, facing a 15-year prison term for the slaying of Charles (Treetop) Smith, was in trouble again Thursday.

He was charged formally in Dallas with armed robbery in the $1,802 robbery of a Lone Star Gas Company office here on May 1.

Boykin has been free on bond after his conviction on a murder charge here and his appeal recently was denied by the Criminal Court of Appeals.

On May 1, the cashier of the gas company was caught by an armed bandit as she was leaving her office and forced back inside the building to lie on the floor as he went through the cash drawer.

Shepperd To Talk With Californian On Tidelands Case

AUSTIN —(P)—Attorney General John Ben Shepperd flew to San Francisco Thursday to confer with California Attorney General Edmund Brown, on a complaint filed in Federal Court there to stop retention of tidelands funds to coastal states.

The suit, said Shepperd's office, was filed by a Californian who charges the recent quit-claim tidelands legislation passed by Congress is invalid.

Shepperd also will meet with the Permanent Subversives Committee of the California House of Representatives to discuss control of Communists.

He will speak at Portland, Ore., July 4 to the opening of the convention of Disciples of Christ.

Permian Basin Oil And Gas Log

It was finalized for a daily flowing potential of 125.85 barrels of 44.5-gravity oil plus two-tenths of one per cent water. Gas-oil ratio was 200-1.

Production was through a 16.64-inch choke and from open hole between 4,502.25 feet, which is east of 5 1/2-inch casing, and total depth of 4,560 feet.

Top of pay was picked at 4,512 feet on derrick floor elevation of 1,896 feet. Flow was natural. Tubing pressure was 110 pounds and pressure on casing was 200 pounds.

Operator will dually complete the well from the Canyon.

Location is 875 feet from north and 685 feet from east lines of section 397, block 1-A, H&TC survey.

Ledge Prospector In West Crockett Finaled As Opener

Ledge Petroleum Company, Inc. of Dallas has completed No. 1-A Bouscaren Heirs as a Clear Fork discovery and new pay opener for the Noelke field of West Crockett County.

The well was completed for a daily flowing potential of 60.01 barrels of 41.6-gravity oil through 3/4-inch choke and casing perforations at 3,565-580 feet.

No water was made on the potential test.

Gas-oil ratio was 900-1. Flow was natural.

Location is 630 feet from south and 350 feet from east lines of section 57, block GG, TC survey.

Wildcats In Four WT Counties Quit

Wildcat failures in Scurry, Upton, Concho and Schleicher Counties have been abandoned and plugged. A location for a wildcat in Schleicher County which was announced several weeks ago has been abandoned without any digging having been done.

In Central-North Scurry County, Rowan & Hope and E. W. Gill No. 1 Vernon B. Cox drilled to 7,310 feet in barren lime.

It found no shows for commercial production and has been abandoned.

Location was six miles northeast of Fullerville and one and one-quarter miles southeast of the one-well Vernon Cox (Canyon Reef) field.

Location Listed

The drillete was 467 feet from south and east lines of the southwest quarter of section 656, block 97, H&TC survey.

Black and Rodman No. 1 Carney, Southwest Upton County wildcat, seven and one-half miles northeast of McCamey and one mile east of the shallow McCamey field was plugged on a total depth of 2,444 feet in dry lime.

Location was 330 feet from north and 2,310 feet from east lines of section 20, block 1, MK&T survey.

No Shows Found

Hubert Stokes No. 1 R. A. Hafner, Concho County wildcat drilled to a total depth of 3,003 feet in an unidentified formation. No shows for production were reported.

The drillete was in the Blasing Albrecht survey No. 1,850.

Richard King, Jr. and John J. Eisner No. 2 Ben Meckel, Central-North Schleicher County wildcat, 11 miles north of Eldorado bottomed at 7,191 feet in dry Ellenburger. It found no shows for making an oil well.

Tops Called

Top of the Strawn was called at 6,640 feet and top of the Ellenburger was at 6,910 feet. Elevation was 2,567 feet.

Location was 2,003 feet from south and 660 feet from east lines of section 45, block TT.

It was four miles northwest of the Huldale field and two miles southwest of the Neva West field. Both areas produce from the Pennsylvanian lime.

Locations Abandoned

Texas Mid-Continent & Southern Oil Corporation No. 1 R. L. Henderson, which was slated to have drilled to 8,000 feet in Northwest Schleicher County to test into the Ellenburger, was never spurred.

The location has been abandoned. It was 14 1/2 miles northwest of Eldorado and three miles southeast of the one-well Dove Creek (Wolf-camp) field.

It was to have been located 467 feet from north and east lines of section 1214, E. McCrohan survey, abstract 1359.

Gulf To Plug Back For Tests Of Lime Section In Upton

Gulf Oil Corporation was preparing to plug back to approximately 5,400 feet for tests of a lime section, possibly Clear Fork in No. 1-N McElroy Ranch Company, Ellenburger failure at 13,290 feet.

The prospector is three and three-quarter miles southeast of the McElroy pool in Upton County. Some shows for possible production were logged on a drillete test

Cities Service Will Drill Dakota Sand Wildcat In Sandoval

Cities Service Oil Company has staked location for a shallow wildcat on the east side of the San Juan Basin in Sandoval County, New Mexico.

It is No. 1 Government and is located in the center of the northeast quarter of the northeast quarter of section 30-18n-1w and 17 miles south of Cuba.

Drillite is located on a block of 5,700 acres and is 42 miles east of the Hoshpah pool, nearest producing area.

It will be drilled to 1,800 feet for a test of the Dakota sand. Operations will begin at once.

Ohio Spots Offset To Cisco Discovery In S-C Nolan Area

The Ohio Oil Company announced location for a one-half mile west outpost to Jones & Stasney and others No. 1 Cochran, recently completed Cisco sand discovery in South-Central Nolan County.

The new test will be drilled as No. 1 James R. Cochran, 660 feet from north and 1,980 feet from west lines of section 112, block 1-A, H&TC survey.

It is to go to 4,200 feet.

Dallas Man To Drill SE Concho Wildcat

Ronald R. Perkins of Dallas No. 2 Enno Behrens is a new wildcat in Southeast Concho County.

Drillite is 330 feet from north and 1,263 feet from west lines of section 76, J. W. Francis survey and eight miles southeast of Eden.

Projected depth is 3,000 feet. Cable tools will be moved in and drilling will begin immediately.

Shallow Wildcat Staked In Garza

W. A. Stockard has staked location for a 3,000-foot rotary wildcat in East-Central Garza County.

It is No. 1 Esther Bird, guardian, and is located 330 feet from south and east lines of the northwest quarter of section 82, block 5, GH&H survey.

That makes it one and three-eighths miles northwest of a San Angelo lime discovery and one and five-eighths miles east of the depleted Post (San Andres) field which produced from pay topped at about 3,155 feet.

NW Reagan Field Gets New Tester

Southland Royalty Company of Midland has filed application with the Railroad Commission of Texas to drill its No. 1-44 O. F. Boyd one-half mile east of production on the south side of the Aldwell portion of the Spraberry Trend Area in Northwest Reagan County.

It is located 660 feet from north and east lines of section 44, block B, L&SV survey and 25 miles northwest of Big Lake.

Rotary tools will be used to drill to 7,500 feet, beginning at once.

Solon Charges Production Cutbacks Used To Boost Oil, Gasoline Prices

WASHINGTON (AP)—Representative Wolverson (R-N.J.) said Thursday state oil production controls "can and have been" used to fix prices on oil and gasoline, now at high levels in some areas.

Wolverson is chairman of the House Commerce Committee, which

Wednesday launched an inquiry into why the price of gasoline at corner service stations has gone up at a time of apparent oil surplus.

State oil production controls are in the hands of regulatory state agencies, as part of an interstate compact among oil producing states.

Wolverson said he thought this system "can be used as a price fixing device, and I don't hesitate to say that it has been used as such."

"You can't reduce production without it having an effect on price," he said.

Wolverson said the recent gasoline price increases "follow a period of successive cutbacks in the amount of domestic production allowed, and have come at the very time that stringent reduction of oil imports is being urged."

Congress is considering a proposed policy of restricting oil imports. The major oil companies oppose such restrictions.

"Are the higher prices for crude oil the result of some understanding reached to avoid enactment of a policy restricting imports?" Wolverson asked.

At the outset of the hearings, Wolverson posed the question whether state oil conservation agencies—particularly the Texas Railroad Commission—have "manipulated" production rates so as to keep oil supplies below demand. He offered no reply, but said:

"Starting with November, 1952, the amount of oil allowed to be produced in the State of Texas, a state that customarily contributes about half the domestic total, was steadily reduced during the succeeding seven months by the action of the commission."

"Why has the Texas Railroad Commission, since the increase in the price of crude oil, now raised the amount of oil which may be produced, although stating that production still exceeds demand by 400,000 barrels daily?"

Marketers and users of gasoline, especially wholesalers and transportation operators, protested to the committee that recent price increases had put the squeeze on them.

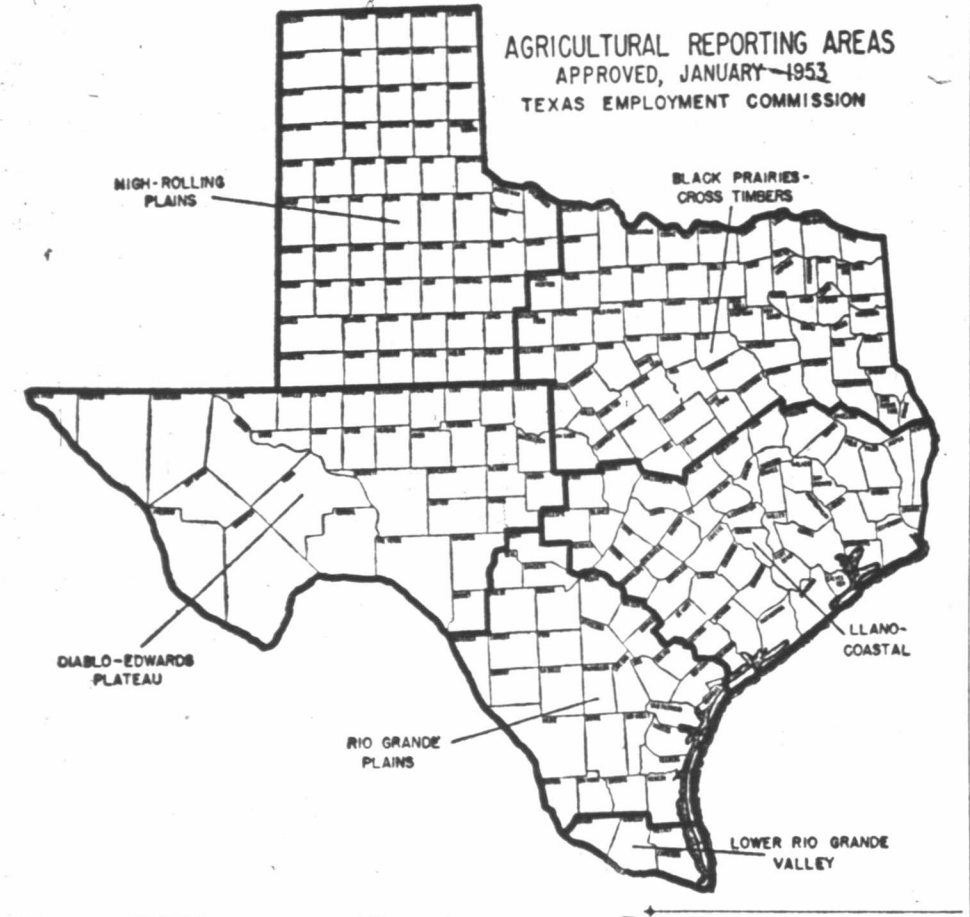

Representative Springer (R-Ill.) said the preliminary inquiry "indicates quite a difference in prices in various parts of the country," and added:

"I believe the investigation will determine whether there has been any concerted price fixing policy and any violation of the anti-trust laws on these matters."

John Dressler, executive secretary of the New Jersey Gasoline Retailers Association, told the House committee:

"Nothing justifies the increase of prices on the consumer at this time. A little dose of free competition and free enterprise would go a long way to curing the troubles we have."

The hearings are in recess until Monday, when spokesmen for the major oil companies appear.

Red Tape Snipped For Labor Pacts

AUSTIN—If Texas cotton cannot be harvested by local labor this year and farmers are forced to contract for Mexican Nationals to get the job done, they will find a considerable amount of red tape snipped from old procedures, the Texas Employment Commission announced Saturday.

Effective July 1, the procedure, which originally took from five to six weeks to obtain Mexican Nationals, will be shortened to the extent that farmers will be able to get these workers in a week or ten days, TEC said.

Not only has much red tape been eliminated, but the farmer's cost has been reduced—from $15 per worker to $11 on the original contract and from $7.50 to $5.50 for recontracting, the agency pointed out.

Under the old contracting procedure, farmers submitted orders all the way from 30 to 60 days in advance of actual need. This procedure worked a hardship on the farmer because information given today possibly would not be valid 30 or 60 days hence because of weather, crop conditions or some other reason. On top of all this, the order for Mexican Nationals had to be reviewed and approved by the Washington office of the Bureau of Employment Security. This delay was cumbersome and irritating to the farmer.

This plan has been junked for one more workable. Now, the farmer needing workers goes to an office of the Texas Employment Commission and places an order. If TEC determines that local or migratory workers are not available to do the job at the time and place specified by the farmer, then the local office will prepare an "Authorization to Contract Mexican National Agricultural Workers." The farmer will then select one of three Reception Centers—El Paso, Eagle Pass, or Harlingen—where he intends to pick up his workers, and the local office of the TEC then mails the authorization to that point. The farmer then must send his check ($11 per worker) to that Reception Center.

As soon as the check is received by the Reception Center, machinery is set in motion to get the workers from the interior of Mexico. The farmer is notified by the Reception Center when the workers are available, TEC said. The farmer must also submit a "Statement of Housing and Facilities," which describes the housing and living facilities offered. These must meet minimum standards for the number of workers he needs.

A farm employer who used Mexican Nationals in 1952 will not be required to furnish such Statement this year, provided he does not re-employ more workers than he had in 1952. If he does need more workers than he used in 1952, a new Statement of Housing and Facilities will have to be furnished, TEC said.

As under the old procedure, workers are contracted to individual farm employers and associations on the basis of individual need, however, under the new system, allocations are made on the basis of a total agricultural area need. The state has been divided into six agricultural areas set up on the basis of similarity of crops grown, climatic conditions, type of soil, the traditional movement of farm labor, and certain other factors. The areas are High Rolling Plains of the Texas Panhandle; Black Prairies-Cross Timbers areas; Diablo-

Edwards Plateau; Rio Grande Plains; Lower Rio Grande Valley, and the Llano-Coastal areas.

If, after determining the number of workers locally available, and migrant workers who normally flow into the area, it is found that no shortage exists, Mexican Nationals cannot be contracted in that area.

If a shortage results after taking the above facts into consideration, a ceiling or quota of Mexican Nationals will be allocated to the area sufficient to offset the shortage.

Whenever crop conditions or other factors in an area create a change of 10 per cent or more in supply or demand, the ceiling for Mexican Nationals may be reviewed and revised if necessary.

Farmers desiring additional information concerning the contracting of Mexican Nationals should go to the nearest local Texas Employment Commission office.

Washington (AP)—Congressional hearings on proposals to alter the formula for dividing among the states the national cotton acreage if production quotas are re-imposed in 1954 were in recess Thursday as legislators studied an alternate plan.

The House Agriculture Committee's hearing will be resumed Friday. The Senate committee is to hear more witnesses July 9.

The House committee will hear further testimony from Frank Woolley, legislative counsel for the Farm Bureau Federation, who Wednesday outlined a plan agreed on by his organization's directors.

This plan, regarded as a compromise, would retain the present five-year base formula and set the national acreage allotment at 21,500,000 acres plus almost 500,000 acres in "adjustments" to go to Western states.

Scott McLeod, State Department security officer, in a letter to the House Government Operations Committee.

It was made public by Representative Brownson (R-Ind.), who sought the report recently.

McLeod also said in reply to a direct inquiry that the department does not have any records identifying the 57 persons who were referred to by Senator McCarthy (R-Wis.) as Communists in a February, 1950, speech.

McLeod said he realized his answer "is not completely responsive." But the fact was, he said, a search of all files has "failed to disclose such a list."

Only Numbers Quoted

"I might point out that Senator McCarthy did not identify the individuals except by number in his speech," McLeod added.

McLeod told the committee he was "reluctant" to come up with "a categorical answer" to the question: "Are there any Communists now employed in the State Department?"

"I must always presume," he wrote, "that the Soviets are attempting to penetrate an agency as sensitive as the State Department, and . . . I may never conclude that their efforts have been unsuccessful."

He Gives Breakdown

"I believe that it goes without saying that no Communists, known to the security officer as such, are on the rolls of the department at this time."

Of 107 dismissals this year, 74 followed investigations of homosexuality, McLeod said, and involved some security questions. He gave this breakdown:

Dismissals for homosexuality — 54 in 1950, 119 in 1951 and 134 in 1952; dismissals for security reasons—12 in 1950, 35 in 1951 and 70 in 1952.

107 Sex Deviates, Red Risks Removed From Federal Jobs

WASHINGTON (AP)—A House committee learned Thursday that 107 State Department employees have been fired this year as a result of investigations concerning homosexuality or questionable security.

The information came from R. W. Scott McLeod, State Department security officer, in a letter to the House Government Operations Committee.

It was made public by Representative Brownson (R-Ind.), who sought the report recently.

McLeod also said in reply to a direct inquiry that the department does not have any records identifying the 57 persons who were referred to by Senator McCarthy (R-Wis.) as Communists in a February, 1950, speech.

WASHINGTON (AP)—The government opened Thursday a new kind of medical research center devoted to conquering such killers as cancer and heart disease.

Secretary of Welfare Hobby dedicated the 64 million dollar clinical center of the National Institutes of Health.

The 14-story structure is in the rolling countryside near Bethesda, Md., a Washington suburb. Congress provided funds for construction, and will vote money for operating costs.

The center's first patients, eight women with cancer, will be admitted Monday—the first of a capacity of 500 non-paying patients.

"They will be the best-studied patients in the world," said Dr. Henry Sebrell, head of the National Institutes for Health, an agency of the Public Health Service.

"This is not a hospital. You don't get in just by being sick. You don't get in for medical care. You get in for research."

Bobby Soxer Held In Texas Slaying

DECATUR (AP)—A pink-cheeked Idaho baby-soxer who told skeptical psychiatrists she killed a hitchhiker in Texas was charged with murder Wednesday in the year-old slaying of an unidentified man near here.

Virginia Pugmire, 17, of Pocatello was in jail, unable to post $5,000 bond. She underwent a lie detector test.

Sheriff Rook Ramsey brought the girl here Wednesday from Idaho. She had been in the Idaho State Industrial School.

Ramsey said the girl told officers she was traveling in a stolen car when she picked up a man near Texarkana. After getting rid of the body, she said, she threw away his suitcase and billfold north of here.

The body of an unidentified man, about 50, was found in a ditch near this North Texas town last July 30. He had been shot several times.

Snyder Man Burns To Death In Home

SNYDER—Harvey Barnett, about 40, burned to death about 10:45 p.m. Wednesday when the tin building in which he was living burned to the ground here.

Barnett, a part-time carpenter, lived alone in the small building which was behind his parents home here. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Barnett, were the only known survivors. The building was demolished by the fire. The cause was undetermined.

Funeral arrangements are pending at Bell Funeral Home.

Midland-Area FFA Youths To Receive Star Degrees

At least 20 Midland-area Future Farmers of America will be among the 652 who will receive their Lone Star Farmer degrees during the 25th Annual Future Farmer convention July 22 to 24 in the Texas Hotel, Fort Worth.

Some 3,000 delegates representing the 40,000 Texas FFA members will be on hand to celebrate the organization's silver anniversary.

Presentation of the degrees, work for which the boys have been working for more than two years, will be made July 23 at the Lone Star Farmer Banquet.

Monte Griffin of Lamesa, 1953 Star Farmer from Area 2, will be honored at the banquet.

Qualifications for becoming a Lone Star Farmer include 24 months of instruction in vocational agriculture, an outstanding program of supervised farming, an investment of at least $250, outstanding leadership ability and a satisfactory scholastic record.

Applicants from this area include Derwood Blagrove, Delbert Joe Davidson and Travis Fryar, all of Big Spring; Bobby Holman, Jay Humphreys, Bobby Northcutt, Charles Small, Elvin Stinson and Tommy Walker, all of Colorado City; Bryant Harris of Garden City; Richard Lackey and Gary Monroe of Iraan; Robert Barron, Melvin Fielder, Shelby Graham, Bill Phinizy, Mone Griffin, Bud Hale and Reams Schofer, all of Lamesa, and Lewis Earl Eisenwine of Pecos.

Other West Texas cities to be represented are Brownfield, Dawson, Fabens, Flower Grove, Haskell, Jayton, Loop, Meadow, Post, Rochester, Rotan, Rule, Sanderson, Snyder, Tahoka, Wellman and Wilson.

Cool Air Relieves Burning Heat Wave In Upper Midwest

By The Associated Press

Cool air from Canada and the Pacific brought relief to Northern Midwest areas Thursday but hot and muggy weather continued in most other sections in the eastern half of the country.

The cool air moved eastward and southward and there were indications the north-central states might get some relief Thursday night and Friday. The refreshing breezes early Thursday extended from the upper Mississippi Valley southwestward through Eastern Nebraska to Western Kansas.

However, hot and humid weather appeared in prospect for wide areas in the eastern half of the country through the Fourth of July holiday weekend.

A cooler air mass also covered most of the Great Plains westward to the Pacific Coast but it continued hot in the central section of California.

No break in the sizzling heat appeared in the Southwest and over Texas, Oklahoma and most of Kansas.

Temperatures again Wednesday were in the 90's and above 100 over the wide areas in the Southwest and plains states.

Hoover Backs Ike's Surplus Food Plan

NEW YORK—(AP)—Former President Herbert Hoover says President Eisenhower's proposal to send American surplus food abroad "will bring results in saving human life and building friendship."

Hoover, head of European food relief after World War I, said Wednesday in a statement:

"Twice before, after both World Wars I and II, the skill and energy of the American farmer and the generosity of our people have saved uncounted lives."

Describing as a "constructive recommendation" the President's request to Congress for authority to distribute surplus food to famine areas overseas, Hoover added:

"An additional reason could be given. These surplus food accumulations of our government are perishable, and to withhold them until they spoil is unthinkable."

The council also estimated that 40 million American motorists who will burn up about 27 billion gallons of gasoline in traveling a total of about four billion miles during the two-day holiday.

"Speed is the principal factor in serious accidents," said Ned H. Dearborn, council president. "It works two ways—gives you less time and less control in an accident situation and greatly increases the chance of death or serious injury if an accident does happen."

"Speed control is self-control. So slow down and live."

Second-Line Reds Denied Heat Relief On Coney's Beach

NEW YORK—(AP)—A federal judge says—heat or no heat—the 12 second-string Communists free on bail pending appeal of their conspiracy convictions cannot go to Coney Island.

They asked Wednesday through counsel if they could get some heat relief by traveling to Coney Island beaches via subway.

Judge Sylvester J. Ryan denied the application. He said Coney Island is part of Brooklyn—in the Eastern Federal District of New York—while the 12 were convicted in Manhattan, in the Southern Federal District.

If they leave the boundaries of the Southern District, Ryan noted, they would be skipping bail.

And, the judge added, there are "many fine beach areas" in the Southern District.

Southwestern Life's First Policy Issued 50 Years Ago

Southwestern Life Insurance Company on July 4 observes the 50th anniversary of its launching in Texas as a going business concern.

It was not until July 4, 1903, that the first Southwestern Life policy, for $5,000, was purchased by Sam P. Cochran, well-known Dallas business man who helped to organize the company, although its business charter had been granted by the State on March 10 of that year.

The company's first newspaper advertisement appeared in Dallas on July 5. It announced that the company was "ready for business" and that it had applications on file for $300,000 of insurance. It also urged readers to "keep Texas money in Texas," a slogan which was to become familiar to Texans during the succeeding years up to World War I.

During the half century which followed, one policy became more than 300,000 policies and $5,000 became more than one billion dollars of insurance on the lives of South-

Deep Plowing Saves Moisture In Ground, Whitlow Article Says

Deep plowing to "stockpile" water, "old stuff" in Midland and Martin Counties, got a good plug in the current issue of The Farmer-Stockman.

Written by Sam Whitlow, Texas editor of the magazine, the story outlines the advantages of deep plowing proven by farmers in Midland and Martin counties. Listed as gains are the saving of water, plowing under of weeds (too deep to grow through) and bringing clay bearing subsoil to the top to help control wind erosion.

Charley Green, Midland County Agent, and Ray Hastings, and Charles Daniel of Martin County, helped Whitlow gather information for his story.

Deep plowing in the Midland area, Green told Whitlow, started about three years ago as a fairly general practice. Cost of plowing an acre 24 inches deep is about $10. The FMA has been paying half the cost. Depths in this area range from 15 to 24 inches.

5,000 Miles For Biscuits

MORGANFIELD, KY.—(AP)—52-year-old Sharis Kymbie Wayne traveled 5,000 miles alone by plane during the last three days with visions of getting some of Grandma's biscuits.

She came from Augsburg, Germany, where she had been living with her stepfather and mother, Sgt. and Mrs. Bobby Segers. A family friend met her in New York. She will start school here in September.

Her grandmother, Mrs. Rose Eickert, said Sharis told her she wanted some of my good biscuits. Said the only thing she could get over there was toast.

Congress Holds Key To Wheat Cutbacks

WASHINGTON—(AP)—Congress held the key Thursday to the size of the cut in production which wheat farmers will be asked to make next year under rigid government marketing controls.

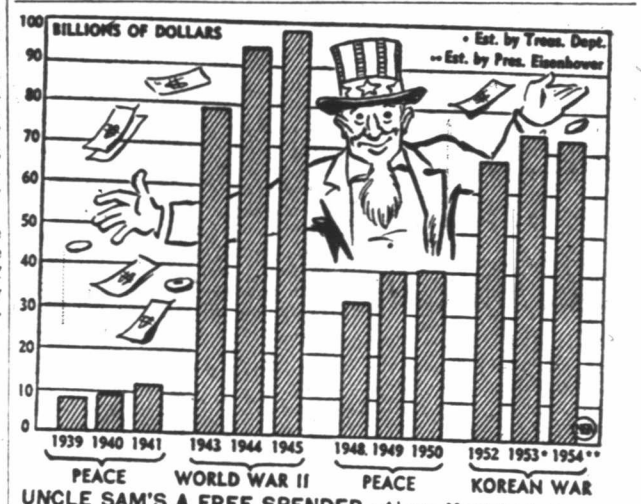

Secretary of Agriculture Benson Wednesday issued a proclamation invoking marketing quotas on the 1954 wheat crop to prevent an increase in surpluses.

But he held off announcing the size of planting allotments and marketing quotas to give Congress additional time to pass legislation which would make the cutback less severe than the 30 per cent the present law requires.

UNCLE SAM'S A FREE SPENDER—Above Newschart shows U. S. expenditures in four periods from 1939 to the present. Spending during World War II was about 10 times as high as the preceding peace years, with a high of almost 100 billion dollars in 1945. Spending tapered off in the intervening peace years, but with the start of the Korean War, spending rose quickly to an estimated high of about 75 billion dollars for 1953. All figures are for fiscal years ending June 30.

Freed Prisoners Join ROK Forces

PUSAN, KOREA—(AP)—About 400 anti-Red North Korean war prisoners recently released from UN stockades reported to the South Korean Army replacement center near Pusan Thursday.

They were identified as former prisoners by district officials at Pusan.

More of the POW's remaining in Pusan were expected to follow suit.

The North Korean youths, wearing folded national flags of South Korea across their breasts, sang patriotic songs and waved their hands and small paper flags as they passed through Pusan streets in at least 15 trucks.

They were on their way to the replacement depot in Tongnae, 10 miles north of Pusan.

Officials of neighborhood wards said they were former war prisoners who had been taken care of by residents of Pusan.

An estimated 27,000 North Korean anti-Communist war prisoners were released June 18 and thereafter on order of President Syngman Rhee in a move that stalled the armistice talks on the verge of signing.

The Communists have charged the prisoners would be impressed into the South Korean Army and have demanded the recapture of all 27,000.

High ROK military authorities here declined immediate comment. A conscription officer would neither affirm nor deny that the youths were ex-POW's, but said:

"So long as the volunteer is a loyal citizen of the republic and eager to serve for the freedom of the country the Army is ready to accept him and will not care whether he is an ex-prisoner of war or not."

Bid For Affection Brings Only Death To Farm Wife

SAN JOSE, CALIF.—(AP)—Police Thursday probed the story of a middle-aged farmer who reported shooting his wife after she told him to stop hanging out the laundry and "make love" first.

Joseph L. Gaugier, 51, told police he wandered about his farm for a day before deciding to give himself up and tell how he killed his wife Decia, 40, with a shot from a 25-20 rifle.

He was booked on suspicion of murder.

The farmer said he was busy with the washing chore Monday night when his wife asked him to stop and "make love." He said he refused and Mrs. Gaugier struck him with a hot towel.

Gaugier said his wife then ran into the house and fired several 22 rifle shots at him through the window. When she wouldn't stop, he explained, he went to a closet, got his gun and fired at the window twice.

Gaugier said he heard a thud and found his wife dead on the porch with a bullet through the eye.

Sheriff's Capt. James Cunningham said the story would be difficult to verify.

Creaky Working Power

As result of the Italian general elections, Premier De Gasperi and his center coalition may be said to have won a creaky working margin in parliament.

It is a sad thing that he came so close to winning much more decisive control. His coalition of parties drew 49.79 per cent of the popular vote in the important Chamber of Deputies, gaining a narrow 16-seat edge.

That advantage would have assured Italy of reasonably stable government for the next five years. As it is, it will be touch and go, with De Gasperi having to be on his mettle every step of the way.

His margin in the Senate, 14 seats, is no greater comfort.

Yet the disappointment over this outcome must not be allowed to obscure the fact that De Gasperi is in control. With skill and ingenuity, which he most certainly has, he may be able to carry on his programs pretty much as before.

The most vital of these, naturally, is approval of the European defense pact, plus general support of NATO and Western policies. The West has no firmer friend than the Italian premier and it would be a serious loss if somehow his hands were to be tied.

De Gasperi is bitter at voters who went to the expelled almost 11,000,000 votes, no small share of the 27,000,000 total. But the percentage—40—was off eight points from the last election in 1948. That spelled a loss of 44 seats in the Chamber and 17 in the Senate.

Who gained? The Communists and Left-wing Socialists together garnered 35 per cent of the vote this time, as against 31 per cent in 1948. But more damage was done by the extreme Right, where Monarchists climbed four per cent and Neo-Fascists almost as much.

De Gasperi is bitter at voters who went to the extreme Right, believing they exercised their voting privilege capriciously. From this distance it certainly would appear that they were not overanxious to reward good government.

Fundamentally, the result reflects the same questionable conception of democratic government which the French adhere to so maddeningly—the notion that any deviation of principle, however minor, ought to justify the founding of another party.

With its plague of splinter parties, the European multi-party system is proving itself an unconvincing exhibit of the virtues of the democratic way.

Why ask for advice if you're going to resent it when it's unfavorable?

Praise for a good day's work is what makes the worker lose interest when it isn't given.

The Washington Merry-Go-Round

By Drew Pearson

Washington (Copyright, 1953, By The Bell Syndicate, Inc.) Drew Pearson says: U. S. has chance to harass Reds with bread and butter gift; Can unload surplus and win rioting Berliners; Ex-Quaker Wilson resists brass-hat guidance.

WASHINGTON—When German crowds faced Red peoples' police in East Berlin, threw rocks and logs into the tracks of tanks, burned the pictures of Stalin, one complaint they hurled at their Red masters was "butter."

East Germany long has been the food bowl of Germany. West Germany, with its heavy industrial population, depended on East Germany which overflowed with wheat, milk, butter.

But under Red rule East Germany's food wealth has been: 1, siphoned off into Russia; 2, trampled in the mud of discouragement by Soviet farm quotas. Last winter in Berlin I talked with refugee after refugee who had left family farms owned for centuries—all because Communist quotas were impossible to meet.

The above is written by one who two years ago went to the Czech border to help release freedom balloons to the Czech people. Those balloons, carrying mere messages of friendship, stirred up the nation, caused a Czech freedom train to bolt across the borders, unquestionably contributed to current ferment.

Most interesting, also perhaps the most important battle involving any one cabinet member, is of General Motors' Charles Erwin Wilson, who as secretary of defense has the rough, tough job of commanding and tangling with—the armed forces.

A good many civilian secretaries of War, Navy and Defense have tried to ride herd on the admirals and generals, but invariably have ended up either on their ear, or eating out of the brass hats' hands.

Wilson started by practicing what his Quaker grandmother used to say to him: "Erwin (she always called him by his middle name) thou hearest me but thou dost not heed."

When he first took office, Gen. Omar Bradley, chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, dropped in to tell Wilson that he would brief him on certain days of the week at a certain time.

Wilson's defense budget is the biggest in government and therefore has the most fat, the most leanness, and some budget pruners are pretty good at getting the two mixed up.

Commuter Kemper's Yacht... President Invited Japan's Prince... Sporty Government Workers

WASHINGTON—(NEA)—James S. Kemper of Chicago, recently nominated by President Eisenhower as the new U. S. ambassador to Brazil, is one of the few people in the world who have commuted to and from work in a private steam yacht.

People on the public beaches of an evening used to watch the graceful Kemper yacht cruising along. It would anchor 500 yards out. Then a motor launch would be swung alongside and come up to the lowered boarding ladder.

Owner Kemper would hop into his seat. The launch would accelerate with a roar as it curved toward the dock, with its bow in the air and sky showing under the prow. After depositing Kemper on the shore, the launch would put-put slowly and unemotionally back to the yacht with the crewmen seated.

Though it hasn't been announced officially as yet, the visit to Washington this Fall of Japanese Crown Prince Akihito is being made in response to a special invitation from President Eisenhower.

The Japanese emperor's son and heir is scheduled to arrive in Washington September 8. He will spend two nights at Blair House and will be entertained officially by President Eisenhower and Secretary of State John Foster Dulles.

Biggest social event of the visit, however, will be an official white-tie reception at the Japanese embassy. One guest already invited to this affair is Mrs. Elizabeth Pray Vining, an American woman now living in Philadelphia. For two years, in

The possibility of distracting the Indian was equally out of the question.

So They Say

My life is ending, hers in only beginning. —George L. Miller, 61-year-old Chicagoan offers his eyes to a blind 16-year-old girl.

A distraction meant noise, and noise meant an alarm. There was only one chance of success in getting to Zad Barnes and taking away the keys to Nate's prison.

Boldness was the only choice. It was dark enough that the Indian, if he happened to be sleepy, might mistake Pete for one of Zad's men coming in on business. Pete drew a long breath and walked straight across the court.

Q—Who was the author of "Be sure you're right, then go ahead?" A—David Crockett.

Q—What is the origin of the expression, "a mare's nest?" A—It is from the Anglo-Saxon mara, meaning "an evil spirit, or goblin."

Q—How old must a person be in order to make a will? A—Local laws govern the age at which a person may make a valid will.

Q—When did steel pens replace quills for writing? A—In the 1820's.

Q—What was the attitude of Alexander Hamilton toward dueling? A—He was a despisier and hater of the institution of dueling.

By BOYCE HOUSE The celebrated criminal lawyer, Clarence Darrow, once spoke to the inmates of a penitentiary. He said, "There is no such thing as crime, as the word generally is understood. Nine-tenths of you are in here because you didn't have the money to hire a good lawyer. Some of you might pick me up because that is your trade but outside, everybody picks my pocket, by charging me a dollar for something worth 25 cents."

A guard asked a prisoner what he thought about the speech. "He was too radical," the convict replied.

JACOBY ON BRIDGE

By OSWALD JACOBY Written for NEA Service

"Please explain what is meant by the Stayman Convention," asks a Memphis correspondent. Since many readers from various parts of the country have made the same request, I'll do my best to oblige with an illustrative hand.

After South's opening bid of one no-trump, North has a bidding problem. He is interested in a game at spades if South has a four-card fit for that suit; otherwise North is doubtful as to whether he has a game contract. He has 11 points (nine points in high cards and two points for the two doubletons), and knows that South has at least 16 points for the no-trump opening bid.

South makes the game at spades with great ease. He wins the second club trick with the king, draws three rounds of trumps, and then develops the diamonds. The opponents get the ace of clubs and the king of diamonds, but nothing else.

If South played the hand at three no-trump, he would be defeated. The clubs would be opened and established. West would gain the lead with the king of diamonds in time to run his clubs, and the defenders would thus take four clubs and a diamond.

Q—The bidding has been: South West North East 1 Spade 2 Clubs 2 Dmds. Pass

You, South, hold: Spades A-Q-J-9-8-7, Hearts K-6-3, Diamonds A-Q-2, Clubs 5. What do you do? A—Bid three spades. This shows a long and very strong suit, with substantially more strength than a minimum opening bid. It is almost inconceivable that North will pass, since his first response shows strength and your rebid shows strength likewise.

He replied to the corner of the building and listened. Painter swore suddenly, and Pete's heart sank. But instead of having discovered Pete the fellow had only discovered that he was out of chewing tobacco.

"I'm gonna slip over an' git some," the man muttered, and Pete heard him hurrying away. He would be back soon, but as soon as the other building obscured him Pete stepped around and inspected the front of the cabin. There was one small window, barred by heavy strips of iron wagon-tire. The door was fastened with a massive chain and padlock.

Massacre Mountains

by Frank C. Robertson

WAITING, with his best friend's life at stake, took more out of Pete Morrison than any amount of physical activity could have done, but he forced himself to be patient, nearly an hour before he dared move around the cabin where he could venture even a glance. His first look was discouraging. Herb Painter was pacing slowly up and down in front of a door in the end of a strongly built log cabin.

Since most of the other buildings were of adobe it was evident that this one had been built to serve as a jail.

Pete began to make a wide circle that finally brought him to the other side of the building he wanted to reach. He was now within a few feet of the guard, and he had been able to inspect the back and two sides of the building. There wasn't a window visible. If there was one it was in the end of the building beside the door. He couldn't make any attempt to find out for sure if Nate was inside, for the guard could hear much more easily than could anyone inside.

The time had come to act. How much more difficulty he would admit had he didn't know, and if successful he would have to have time to gain distance before daybreak.

He crept to the corner of the building and listened. Painter swore suddenly, and Pete's heart sank. But instead of having discovered Pete the fellow had only discovered that he was out of chewing tobacco.

"I'm gonna slip over an' git some," the man muttered, and Pete heard him hurrying away. He would be back soon, but as soon as the other building obscured him Pete stepped around and inspected the front of the cabin. There was one small window, barred by heavy strips of iron wagon-tire. The door was fastened with a massive chain and padlock.

"Then get out before they hear you. You can't do anything for me," Pete Morrison said.

"I'll find a bar and try to pry these wagon-tires off the window if I have to, but it'll be noisy. Do you know who has the keys?" "Barnes. But you can't—"

"If I knew where he sleeps I'll have to find out." "Wait a minute," Nate said.

Youth Center Chatter

Back again after a week's vacation. We want to thank Joan right off for the swell job that she did while we were gone that one week. She will be something to look forward to when September comes around.

Congratulations to Virginia Kroenlein who is now learning to type. Virginia has been struggling through the "hunt and peck" system for quite a few years now and, at long last, has discovered that there is a certain place to put her different fingers. We learn new things every day, don't we?

Have you noticed the picture on the bulletin board? The picture is of a little boy feeding a lamb. It is really rather touching.

Keyes Curry visited Texas University campus over the past weekend. Texas U. will be Keyes stomping ground come September.

The Rainbow Girls, on their way back from Galveston, saw Larry and Bill Mayfield in Austin. They like Austin a lot but prefer "good old Midland." They said to tell everyone "hi" for them.

Did you hear the excitement going on at the Youth Center Tuesday night? There was a man from Mars or Pluto. Couldn't really figure it out. He was about, maybe still is, four feet and two inches tall, about three feet broad, brown hair. Last seen walking out of the Youth Center door. No one saw him walk in but if you will locate Roberta Stewart when you see this man again, we will find out more about him.

The day finally got here. Monday, workers started on the new Youth Center building.

Have you played the new exciting game of "Conecto"? If not, you have certainly missed a good game. It is loads of fun and everyone is playing it. Come on down and learn if you don't know how.

Barbara Whitson is back from a vacation with her grandparents. They journeyed to the California coast and from all reports she had a wonderful time.

The National Student Council Convention held in Oregon attracted two Midlanders. Tom Dyer, who is visiting in Washington, was one and Frances Hefren, the other.

It seems as though Fern really likes to read her books. She can be found reading one at all times except when she is driving a car. That is about the only time.

John Crowley must have been reading a good magazine in the Youth Center the other night. He was sitting on the couch and just laughing away.

July 6, a certain person with a lot of influence around the Youth Center will be home once again. Myrt will be home from his vacation with his parents from Denison. They are touring the New England states. A card from Myrt is on the bulletin board.

Carl Bough, Clyde McCandless, and J. T. Grissett seemed to be making plans. What are you up to, boys?

Don Evans and Kenneth Schrum helped out the choir of the Presbyterian Church last Sunday.

Poor Thomas Glenn! He was trying to teach Sylvia Kroenlein and Janice Robertson how to play pool. The old chap was having a rather rough time trying to explain the game to them.

Wonder who Jack Harris was talking to over the phone? He was really in a trance.

Mary Jess and Ruth Ann Dickson have returned from a visit in Hillsboro. They had fun, but were glad to get back.

It seemed that if anyone touches the ping pong table while Addison Young and John Gallee are playing a game, it stops proceedings. No one must be near the table or their "great minds" can't function.

Was Roy Kinsey sunburned or just blushing Tuesday night?

You can sure tell a newcomer in the game of ping pong. Judy Ridge, not the newcomer, was playing Juanita Tibbets, the newcomer, and the score was good. That's okay, Juanita, you will learn after a few more games!

Wonder what the subject of the conversation was between Patsy Guyton, Paula Smith, Pat Hickey, Edwina Thrash, and Jackie and Zella Creswell?

Larry Ann Burnside and Pat Greathouse have returned from a Junior Red Cross trip to Fayetteville, Ark. We are sorry that we were late in mentioning it, but as soon as they returned they went on to Grand Assembly in Galveston with the Rainbow Girls.

Have you missed the bicycle kid this summer? Gail Black is going to summer school at TSCW in Denton. Virginia Lou Wilkinson, Freda on.

Black and Jaynan Edwards are enjoying themselves this summer at Waldemar.

Cheerleaders for the coming year are going to try to be the best ever. They have been practicing every Tuesday since school dismissed. They are working on new tricks.

If you would like to hear some good stories, just ask Raymond Leggett how he obtained his meals at Texas University last year, and what he had to do to get them. It is really hilarious.

Dorothy Black is helping out at La Juerta C. I. T. camp down near San Antonio for the summer. Dot reports she loves it.

Stewart Chancellor will be out of town for the next few days. He is in Oklahoma. Don't know where in Oklahoma, or why he's there!

That is the news for this week, so until next week, "adios amigos."

Bamboo Paper Pulp Process Speeded Up

HONG KONG —(AP)— Research has proved that old bamboo can be converted quickly into high quality paper pulp, the Communist newspaper Wen Wei Po reported recently in a Canton dispatch. It said the technical staff of the industry bureau in Kwangtung province had developed a new process by which old bamboo was turned in a matter of hours into pulp making first-class writing paper.

The old process required three months. The newspaper said the new process reduces cost and increases the output.

Rain Helps Cotton, Sorghum But Falls Too Late For Corn

AUSTIN —(AP)— Timely rains in South Central and East Texas checked deterioration of cotton and sorghum but came too late to help corn, the U. S. Department of Agriculture (USDA) said Thursday.

In South Central and Upper Coastal counties early corn had matured a fair crop but the crop as a whole was too far advanced to be helped. Outting for fodder and silage or salvaging by grazing continued. Prospects continued to decline in North Texas.

The usual deadline for cotton planting passed and most of the intended dry-land acreage in the northwest which is not yet planted will go into sorghums if rains come in time, USDA said.

HOW TO SPEED MAIL SERVICE

NEW YORK —(AP)— The mail is arriving a half hour earlier these days in the city's residential districts.

The reason, acting postmaster Harold R. Riegelman told a meeting of postal employees, was because postmen are walking faster.

Vegetable crops deteriorated, showing the effects of prolonged hot, dry weather in all areas. Movement of cattle and calves to market and to grass in other areas continued relatively heavy, although somewhat below the run of a week ago. Cattle were losing flesh where ranges were practically bare in the drought stricken western, northwestern and southern areas.

Stock water was critically short in a number of Low Rolling (Plains) counties.

Gov. Shivers' Vote Is For Chili

By GAYNOR MADDOX
NEA Food and Markets Editor
AUSTIN—The governor of Texas, Allan Shivers, invited me to the executive mansion for a dish of chili. He and Mrs. Shivers eat it at least once a week, often more. His children eat it, too—at least three of them do. The fourth and youngest is only seven months old and must wait some time to join the Shivers' chili circle.

Like all Texans I met, the Shivers family looks upon chili as one of the major facts of life. The governor took me into the kitchen which looks out on the domed State Capitol building across the park. There he cooked up his venison chili while I made notes and whiffed the wonderful stuff. He said lean beef can be used in place of venison if you prefer.

Daddy Ringtail

Daddy Ringtail Man Of The Mountain

Daddy Ringtail, your monkey friend, was far away from the monkey house. He was walking through a part of the forest he never had seen before. He was going to visit a mountain that he never had visited, and there was the mountain away and in front of him. The mountain was covered with snow at the top.

Suddenly Daddy Ringtail saw a very old man who sat cross-legged upon a rock. The man sat with his arms crossed too as though he were a sitting Indian. He sat as still as the rock itself, staring and staring away at the mountain far in front of him.

"Happy day to you, Mister Whover-you-are!" Daddy Ringtail said in a happy voice.

The man on the rock never moved or said a word. He only sat there staring at the mountain as though he would show it just who was boss. "Can't you even say a happy day?" Daddy Ringtail asked. This time the man answered, but he still kept on looking at the mountain with a stern, stern look.

The man said, "You, like everyone else, will want to know my name. You may call me Man of the Mountain."

Daddy Ringtail thanked the man for telling his name, and then the man said: "You, like everyone else, will want to know why I sit here staring at the mountain. I sit here staring at the mountain because I want it to come where I am." Daddy Ringtail listened to all this so politely that the man explained a little more. He was wanting to stand on the mountain and he would have gone to where the mountain was, of course, but he didn't want to do it. He was going to wait. He was going to wait for the mountain to come to him.

"But why?" Daddy Ringtail asked. "Man of the Mountain, why don't you go where the mountain is for you to stand on it?" But the man of the Mountain was through with talking. He wouldn't say another word. He only sat there cross-legged, arms like an Indian, staring hard at the mountain to try to show it who was boss.

Yes, he was going to sit there to show the mountain he was as stubborn as it was. And so he sits staring there even yet, I guess, poor fellow. Happy day!

Literary Art Runs Into Modernism

Sat down the other evening to do this weekly stint of mislabeled journalism, and while the mind roved hither and thither in search of something that could be inserted in a good ad on Turf Special Organic Fertilizer, or Jacobson Power Mowers, it dawned on us that the house had gotten mighty quiet. We pondered this seemingly quiescent for some moments, and decided we better investigate. We opened the door cautiously (you never know what will happen in this house) and there, propped on a chair, was a sign, "Quiet, Genius at Work." Our elder son is home from college, you know, and we presume that this is part of his scholastic equipment. Anyway, the three kids were gathered around and their peals of laughter helped to wipe that silly, embarrassed look off of Pop's face. You, too, can qualify for this honor, "Quiet, Genius at Work." You would be a "genius" if you got yourself one of these swell Jacobson Power Mowers. You would let yourself out of a lot of "work." And as for the "quiet"—you just ought to hear one of those orange beauties purr as it throws the grass around. Make yours a hero, get one. Oh, yes, the "at"—506 West Wall Phone 2-1211 —(Adv.)

Auto Industry's Optimism Spreads To Tire Circles

By SAM DAWSON
NEW YORK—(AP)—Detroit's optimism is spreading to Akron.
The auto industry, setting a production record in the first half of this year, is boosting its goals for the rest of 1953.
And some in the tire industry—insisting they're undisturbed that stocks of unsold tires are one-fourth larger than a year ago—are raising 1953 sales estimates by three million more passenger car castings.
Counting in truck tires, many in the industry look for 100 million tires to be sold this year.
B. F. Goodrich spokesmen say passenger car tire sales this year should run six million more than last year. The auto industry's spurt gets most of the credit.
E. J. Thomas, president of Good-year, has raised his estimates of passenger car tire sales by three million since his predictions of last November. He believes the auto industry will turn out six million cars this year, giving an original tire demand including spares of 31 1/2 million. He expects replacement sales to be around 49 million, as previously estimated, and export sales to hold around one half million. To these total sales of 81 million, he adds a year-end inventory of two million tires. The 83 million total production would be 12 per cent higher than last year, he says.
Although the tire industry entered the big-sales season with inventories higher than in 1952 or 1951, Firestone spokesmen say stocks are now in normal relationship with sales.

They point out that in the two preceding years, "tire inventories were subnormal because of the tremendous over-buying of tires by motorists in the summer of 1950, a scare that the Korean War would bring back tire rationing."
Firestone, too, expects "record high consumption of rubber this year and a demand for more than 100 million tires." It has been producing tires at a capacity rate on a six-day basis all this year.
Increased military buying of trucks and truck tires has led Thomas to raise by one million his estimates of total truck tire sales this year to 16 million tires. The Good-year president's guess of a total tire production of 99 million, is a little more conservative than others in the industry.

B. F. Goodrich, for instance, thinks the industry will sell 50 million replacement tires for passenger cars this year, one million more than Goodyear's guess. Last year the industry provided 45 1/2 million replacements.
Truck tire replacements will rise moderately to nine million units, B. F. Goodrich expects.
In their optimistic raising of production goals for the balance of this year, the tire companies have one hurdle to face right away.
This week and next the big rubber companies start wage negotiations with the CIO United Rubber Workers. A strike could wreck their plans.
So could any slip-up in the expected big sales of autos for the rest of this year, or a large-scale business slump.

Use Lemons To Bleach Elbows

By ALICIA HART
NEA Beauty Editor
Wrinkled, discolored elbows have lady-like look again after a few nightly treatments with half a lemon.
Bare-armed beauty for your sleeveless blouses and evening gowns is easy to achieve with regular scrubbing, creaming, and in some cases, bleaching.
Bleaching of dark hairs on arms can be done safely with lemon juice. Cut a fresh lemon in half. Squeeze it a little to make it pliable. Then rub it over the arm, gently squeezing out the juice as you proceed. This should take about five to ten minutes. Allow the juice to dry on the arm.
Do this twice a week and, after about four treatments, you'll begin to see lightening of the hairs. (Unfortunately, coarse hair doesn't respond to this treatment.) Shaving would cause stubbly regrowth.
Discolored, rough and wrinkled elbows are another blight on bare-armed beauty. Lemons again are useful. Rub them with lemon halves, or let your elbows sit in bowls of freshly squeezed lemon juice for five or ten minutes per treatment.
Smooth skin on arms is usually

SUPER CHICKEN SOUGHT
DAVIS, CALIF.—(AP)—Poultry scientists at the University of California agricultural experiment station think it may be possible to develop a whole flock of chickens that will lay double A grade eggs. They are in the process of breaking out and testing almost 17,000 eggs in their search for this pullet of the future.
Making chicken or ham croquettes for a Spring luncheon? Try this flavor trick: Add a couple of tablespoons of diced pimiento and a few teaspoons of minced parsley to the croquette mixture before you shape it.

RUTH MILLETT SAYS—

Life Alone Can Be Better Than With Grown Children

A 36-year-old married woman wants to know if she should try to persuade her recently widowed mother to come and live with her, her husband, and their two children.
Her mother has her own home, but she lives a thousand miles away and the daughter feels that perhaps it is her duty to persuade the widow to sell her home and come to live with her.
"First, she ought to ask herself these questions: 'Why do I feel that I should try to persuade my mother to give up her own home and come to live with me?'
"Or is it because I think that if I do urge her to come and live with me I will feel that I am doing my duty, and will have a clear conscience?"
A Different Story
If the latter is the reason, it isn't a very sound one. Approach your problem with common sense. You may come up with a different answer.
Ask yourself what will be best for your mother and your own family.
If you think you can't answer the first question, think of the widows with whom you are acquainted. You may be surprised to discover that the happiest ones are those who are maintaining their place in the community.
They are free to come and go as they wish and to live as they like. They have their own friends, and they don't need to constantly try to fit into another family's way of life.

Then look at the families you know where a widowed mother lives with a married son or daughter. Are they as happy as they might be?
Try to see the situation clearly, from all angles, before you make up your mind.
It is too important a decision for your mother to make without being sure it is the best one for her and a satisfactory one for you and your family.

Midland Girls Make TSCW Honor Roll

Three Midland girls attending the Texas State College for Women at Denton were named on the school's special honor roll for the second semester of the 1952-53 session. A total of 280 students were named.
The Midland students were Jo Dean Downing, freshman education, philosophy and psychology major, who lives at 1206 West College Street; Phyllis Joyce Howell, sophomore sociology major, who lives at 1306 Ohio; and Louise Dee Underwood, June graduate majoring in biology, who lives at 907 West Illinois Street.
Each girl received a letter of congratulations for her scholastic achievements from Dr. Vernon L. Wharton, TSCW dean.

The MATURE PARENT

Mature Parent's Aim: Ideas To Stimulate You To Action

By MURIEL LAWRENCE
A playmate of Gail Rankin owns a toy watch. One afternoon, Gail walks off with it without asking. When the playmate's mother phones to complain, Gail is furious at having to return the watch. Her Aunt Ella, who has dropped in for lunch, advises her mother to spank her for taking someone else's property.
Mrs. Rankin performs the recommended action.
Later, she comes upstairs to find Gail trying to pry loose a pearl in one of her best earrings.
As Gail throws it down and runs down the hall to lock herself in the bathroom, helplessness and frustration overwhelm her mother. She feels a flash of hate for her child who has made her feel them.
"What do I do next?" she thinks—and runs downstairs to phone Aunt Ella for more advice.
"Though you stimulate me to think," writes a reader to me, "you seldom follow through on telling parents what to do with a misbehaving child."
I am not anyone's Aunt Ella. I do not approve of her. I consider her a selfish person. She is not interested in us at all but in acquiring prestige for herself by keeping us dependent on her.
If she were interested in us, she would try to stimulate ideas in us that would produce action of our own. Because she is a selfish person, she has obstructed relationship between us and Gail by intruding between two people who should be expressing themselves to each other. She has created more resentment and alienation between us and our little girl.

If I were to advise readers on action to take toward misbehaving children, I would have the relationship with the children instead of my readers. I would be stealing from them far more seriously than Gail has stolen.
The one that would produce "good action" for Gail is protecting the dignity she has momentarily lost. To protect it, we have to see that by taking the toy watch, she has exposed herself to disrespectful criticism by her playmates, the playmate's family and her Aunt Ella.
We have to see that her defiance and revengefulness see her reactions to the discomfort she already feels under attack by so much disapproval.
Stimulated by these ideas, we are ready to take our action by opening Gail's eyes to the stuff that's coming at her and say, "The watch doesn't seem worth it, darling. We cannot permit all these people to push their ugly thought upon us."
Thus, the idea of protection of Gail's dignity enables us to reach her without the interfering action of that arrogant Aunt Ella.

Test Pilot School Teaches Top Airmen To Take Tough Jobs

EDWARDS AIR FORCE BASE, CALIF.—(AP)—Fifteen men are going to school here with tailless planes and slide rules among their materials and pre-dawn classes a part of their schedules. The students are skilled Air Force pilots. As graduates, after six months, they will be crack test pilots.
The school is the U. S. experimental flight test pilot school, believed to be one of five such schools in the world. The others are operated by the Navy, the British, French and Russians.
Among the 400 graduates of the school are Maj. Charles Yeager, the first human to exceed the speed of sound, and pilots who have broken several other official world speed records.
Besides qualifying as an ace pilot, the students must have had at least two years of college engineering work. At the school they are taught advanced mathematics, physics, and many courses dealing with flight and sound. The men also visit aircraft plants and test ejection seats.

Bare-armed beauty for your sleeveless blouses and evening gowns is easy to achieve with regular scrubbing, creaming, and in some cases, bleaching.
Bleaching of dark hairs on arms can be done safely with lemon juice. Cut a fresh lemon in half. Squeeze it a little to make it pliable. Then rub it over the arm, gently squeezing out the juice as you proceed. This should take about five to ten minutes. Allow the juice to dry on the arm.
Do this twice a week and, after about four treatments, you'll begin to see lightening of the hairs. (Unfortunately, coarse hair doesn't respond to this treatment.) Shaving would cause stubbly regrowth.
Discolored, rough and wrinkled elbows are another blight on bare-armed beauty. Lemons again are useful. Rub them with lemon halves, or let your elbows sit in bowls of freshly squeezed lemon juice for five or ten minutes per treatment.

SUPER CHICKEN SOUGHT
DAVIS, CALIF.—(AP)—Poultry scientists at the University of California agricultural experiment station think it may be possible to develop a whole flock of chickens that will lay double A grade eggs. They are in the process of breaking out and testing almost 17,000 eggs in their search for this pullet of the future.
Making chicken or ham croquettes for a Spring luncheon? Try this flavor trick: Add a couple of tablespoons of diced pimiento and a few teaspoons of minced parsley to the croquette mixture before you shape it.
