Six-Point Program Offered To Save City Credit Rating

A six-point program designed to maintain "the fine credit rating and financial position" of the City of Midland was recommended Thursday afternoon by the city's Finance Advisory Commission.

The program was outlined in a report of the commission's findings after several weeks of studying the city's fiscal position to determine the rate at which the city should sell its unissued general obligation bonds.

City Manager W. H. Oswalt said the recommendations could be followed without causing any major changes in the planned 1954 municipal improvement program.

The report, formally presented by E. J. Wicker, chairman of the commission, recommended:

1. The ratio between the bonded debt and the property valuations should be kept under eight per cent "in order to get the most advantageous interest rate for the city."
2. Bonds should be offered for sale at a time when there are not too many Texas bonds of cities comparable in size to Midland in the market and, if possible, at a time when no new federal financing is taking place.
3. No further bonds should be sold until the 1953 tax roll is completed and certified and all bonds from previous sales, still in the hands of dealers, are out of the market and in the hands of permanent investors.
4. In the meantime, any essential projects could be handled out of funds on hand in various accounts, to be repaid when bonds are sold.
5. In no event should the city sell enough bonds to cause a further increase in the tax rate or present property valuations.
6. "It is the further recommendation of this commission that the changes that have taken place in our national and local economy indicate that the city should exercise caution on all financial commitments and continue to effect all economy possible in its operations."

Reds Again Attack Free Food Stations

BERLIN—(AP)—Club wielding police commandos smashed new riots by 900 Communist storm troopers against American free food stations in West Berlin late Friday.

Scores of rioters were beaten by 400 commandos "defending" three stations. Thirty Reds were jailed.

A force of 120 police commandos cracked down on the Reds after they had attacked six regular patrolmen guarding a free food center in the U. S. sector.

U. S. State Department newspaper Neue Zeitung said East Germans coming to West Berlin for the American-backed food handout reported new sporadic unrest in the Russian zone.

Neue Zeitung said the Red tanks first called out to quell the June 17 rebellion, had been stationed around "numerous big East Zone factories." There was no indication, however, that violence had developed at any of these potential trouble spots.

Members of the commission, in addition to Wicker, are Robert Wood, Jack Wilkinson, L. C. Link, Barney Greathouse, Clarence Schaefer and J. T. Baker.

The eight per cent debt limit will permit the city to sell about $1,100,000 of the $2,120,000 in unissued bonds it now holds, although it would have no effect on revenue bonds, which are financed from water sale receipts.

Some 200 other commandos rushed to protect two other food distribution points, where 600 Communists had gathered menacingly.

The fight was sharp, bloody and decisive. Police said the Red storm troopers were seeking to steal registration cards of East Germans who had violated Communist orders by accepting free American food.

Tanks Ring Factories

The police smashed back 6,000 rioting Communists with clubs and water hoses at the food distribution centers Tuesday. They had been tipped off in advance the Reds would try new attacks Friday.

Police Grab Parcels

With the crumbling of their travel blockade against the food seekers, the Communist police meanwhile intensified their confiscation drives to strip thousands of East Germans of the food they collected in West Berlin.

Reinforced cordons of Communist "People's Police" surrounding Berlin snatched the food parcels on trains and railway stations and plundered people who used pedestrian crossings back to the Russian zone.

The 1954 plans call for the drilling of eight—and possibly 10—additional water wells at McMillen Field, the construction of a new suburban fire station in the western section of the city, the continuance of a street improvement program (Continued On Page 16)

Six Returned Soldiers Tell Of Defections

FREEDOM VILLAGE—(AP)—Liberated Americans said Friday some American prisoners of war and at least one Briton have swapped freedom for life under Communist rule.

An Ohio soldier said three Americans in his group went back even as their truck rumbled toward the Panmunjom exchange site.

North Korea Brass Swept Up In Purge

TOKYO—(AP)—The Communist Radio at Pyongyang said Friday night 12 high North Korean officials have been prosecuted for planning to overthrow the Communist regime and spying for U. S. secret agents.

Apparently wanted to remain with the Reds.

Many South Koreans also were reported to have chosen to remain in the North, some as the result of intense Communist propaganda, others because they believed Chinese warnings they would be killed if they returned.

Pfc. William Davis of Hearne, Texas, said "10 or 12" Americans were being held in Red camps awaiting trial on various charges—most of them "instigating against the peace."

He said one enlisted man at Fyoktong already had been sentenced to a year and was being held back from the prisoner exchange.

"Special Treatment"

Two U. S. soldiers just released said they knew of about seven Americans who had refused repatriation, apparently convinced by Red propaganda lectures.

Four other repatriates said at least three Americans they knew probably will remain behind of their own free will.

Cpl. James Davis of Bradshaw, Md., said the three got special treatment.

"If you hit one of them you'd be going down the road—two to five" (Continued On Page 16)

Reds Return 392 Prisoners Friday

PANMUNJOM—(AP)—A healthier group of 394 Allied war prisoners came out of Communist captivity Friday and added to mushrooming reports the Reds are holding back some POW's— including perhaps 2,000 to 3,000 Americans.

Eighty-one Americans were among the group released Friday under a brilliant sun at this waxy village in the third day of the Korean war prisoner exchange—"Operation Big Switch."

Although the Reds had promised 400, an unofficial count showed six South Koreans missing from the scheduled 250. There was no immediate explanation.

The Reds also sent back 25 British, 25 Turks, 12 Filipinos and seven Colombians.

More Due Saturday

They said the next group, scheduled at 9 a. m. Saturday (6 p. m. Friday, Texas time), would include 90 Americans, 250 South Koreans, 35 Turks and 25 British.

That will bring the total of Americans released to 311, still only a bare fraction of the 3,213 the Reds have promised to return.

The UN Command sent back 2,753 Communists Friday, a quieter

Bruce H. Beesley, Oil Operator, Dies

Bruce Hampton Beesley, Midland independent oil operator, died at 11:30 p. m. Thursday in a Big Spring hospital.

A resident of Midland the last four years, he and his family lived at 2501 West Brunson Street.

Funeral arrangements have not been completed but services will be held Saturday under the direction of the Newbie W. Ellis Chapel with interment in the Resthaven Memorial Park.

A native of LaFlore County, Okla., he was associated with the Schlumberger Well Survey Corporation before becoming an independent.

Surviving are the widow; two daughters, Carol and Judy Beesley; a brother, Worth Beesley of Idaho, and a sister, Mrs. Woodruff of New Orleans.

The Winner Is The Loser

The 25-year-old negro approached Judge Edwin Stitt as his name was called Friday in Corporation Court.

"You are charged with simple assault," Judge Stitt informed him. "Are you guilty or not guilty?"

"Well, it's this way, Judge," answered the defendant. "My wife jumped on me when I opened one of her letters."

"We got to fighting and I finally got the best of her so I guess I'm the one that's guilty."

Judge Stitt agreed and imposed a $25 fine.

Yarbrough Named Successful Bidder

A contract for relocating a sewer line to make way for the Big Spring Street underpass was awarded contractor Clyde Yarbrough Thursday afternoon by the City Council.

Yarbrough submitted the low bid of $14,675 for the installation of the 10-inch line.

Probers Told Snyder Sped Movie Maker's Tax Refund

WASHINGTON—(AP)—House tax investigators heard testimony Friday that a 21 million dollar tax refund claim by Universal Pictures Corporation got swift, out-of-channel action at the urgent request of John Snyder, then secretary of the Treasury.

Frederick Olsen, an official of the New York office of the Internal Revenue Bureau, testified the 1948 incident was the only case in his experience where strict Treasury review regulations were "violated" in an excess profits tax case.

Although revenue agents recommended refund of almost all the company asked, the sum ultimately allowed was about three million dollars—18 millions less than Universal's claim.

Olsen and other Revenue Bureau officials were before a House Ways and Means subcommittee investigating charges of "undue influence" by high Treasury officials on tax cases during the Truman Administration.

Snyder's intervention in the case was detailed by extracts from the office log of former revenue bureau counsel Charles Oliphant, who resigned under fire.

Sought Speedy Action

Oliphant's log recounted numerous conversations in 1948 with Henry Merry, chairman of the excess profits council of the Treasury, which passes on all excess profits tax refunds, and other officials including Snyder.

The gist of the telephoning was that Snyder insisted that handling of the case be speeded.

Committee counsel John Tobin said the company stood to save considerable money as interest on the unpaid tax claim by getting the case closed out quickly.

Chairman Kean (R-NJ) of the House committee said his group means to see to it that no taxpayers bypass internal revenue officials and get Treasury help at the top level from now on.

Thundershowers Seen For Basin

Widely scattered thundershowers have been forecast for the Permian Basin area late Friday, but the possibility of Midland getting rain is only slight, the weathermen say.

Friday night and Saturday are expected to be clear and warm. The maximum temperature here Thursday was 98 degrees. A reading of 92 degrees was reported by the CAA at 11:30 a. m. Friday.

Elsewhere in the state, thundershowers and high winds which hit Fort Worth two days in a row had calmed down Friday. Winds were gentle and the only cloudiness reported was at Del Rio.

Forecasts call for generally fair skies Friday and Saturday over all of the state except for late showers. Temperatures were expected to remain in the high 90's.

Highest temperature Thursday was 104 at Presidio, Dallas and Alice. It was 103 at Mineral Wells, and 101 at Junction, Cotulla and Austin.

Auto, Stove Fires Ring Alarms Friday

A fire in an automobile and a blaze on a gas stove summoned firemen from the Midland Fire Department early Friday.

Only slight damage was reported by firemen who quenched a small fire in an automobile owned by Sidney Lee of Dallas and parked at the Kangaroo Courts. The alarm came in at 5:10 a. m.

A gas stove on fire at the residence of J. R. Farmer, 604 North Weatherford Street, caused no damage, firemen who answered the alarm at 7:45 a. m. reported.

Toland, Greyhound Agent For Midland, Dies At Age Of 56

Raymond Eugene Toland, 56, Greyhound Bus Lines ticket agent in Midland six years, died at 8:30 a. m. Friday in a Midland hospital, where he had been hospitalized with a heart ailment.

Toland came to Midland from Mineral Wells, where he also was a ticket agent for Greyhound. He was a member of the First Christian Church here and the Fraternal Order of Eagles.

Survivors include the parents and a sister, Dorothy, all of Anna, Ohio. Toland's body will be forwarded to Anna by the Newbie W. Ellis Chapel for funeral services and interment.

President Signs Rubber Plants Bill

WASHINGTON—(AP)—President Eisenhower Friday signed a bill setting up a three-member commission to sell to private industry the government's synthetic rubber plants, built for $18 million during the war.

The measure, hemmed with anti-monopoly safeguards, gives the commission until Jan. 1, 1955, to receive bids and negotiate sales.

Congress then has 30 days to review the sales. It can veto any sale if it finds it does not give the taxpayer an adequate return.

Rough Riders Hold Las Vegas Reunion

LAS VEGAS, N. M. — A street rally opened the fifteenth annual reunion of the Teddy Roosevelt Rough Riders Thursday night. Jesse Langdon, East Rockaway, Long Island, N. Y., just made the meeting in time. He came roaring in from California in his souped-up hot rod. Langdon has been touring the country seeing the old veterans who charged up San Juan Hill in 1886 with Roosevelt at their head. About 35 Spanish-American War veterans showed up for the rally. The reunions began here in 1915 but the series was broken by World Wars I and II.

Piped Oxygen Saves Man Trapped In Ditch

CLEVELAND — A cave-in buried a man 10 minutes under five feet of dirt here Thursday, but he survived because quick-thinking rescuers piped oxygen to him. The walls of a 12-foot deep sewer ditch collapsed and buried Wellington Wilson, 44, a workman. Fellow workmen dug a hole to Wilson's mouth and Dr. Stephen Sheppard of nearby Bay View Hospital piped oxygen to him as the others dug him free. Wilson was taken to the hospital in serious condition.

Singer Dick Haymes Denies He's Wartime Draft Dodger

LOS ANGELES —(P)—Crooner Dick Haymes Friday awaited a hearing in about two weeks that may mean deportation to his native Argentina. Immigration officials arrested the 34-year-old singer Thursday on a charge of entering the United States illegally last June 1 after a Honolulu sojourn with his newest heart interest, actress Rita Hayworth. Haymes posted a $500 surety bond pending the hearing. He said the arrest was just a technicality and expressed belief it could be straightened out. The McCarran Immigration Act, adopted last year, provides that an alien who leaves continental United States may not re-enter. Herman R. Landon, District director of the U. S. Immigration Service, said it would take an act of Congress for the crooner to become a citizen. Landon said Haymes claimed draft exemption in 1944 as a neural alien, a citizen of Argentina. Landon said that when Haymes' Philadelphia draft board honored his claim he signed a statement that "I am forever ineligible to become a citizen of the United States." Haymes denied he claimed Argentine citizenship to evade the draft. He said he twice tried to enlist but was rejected for hypertension (high blood pressure). His estranged wife, Nora Eddington Flynn Haymes, confirmed this and said: "After he was turned down, he went all over the country on USO tours." Haymes said he applied for American citizenship some time ago and has his first papers. The son of an Irish mother and an English father, he left Argentina when he was four months old. The family lived in Paris throughout most of the 20's. Haymes and the former Mrs. Errol Flynn were married in 1949 after his divorce from actress Joanne Drew, by whom he had three children. Nora's attorney said she would postpone a contemplated divorce action until the immigration matter is settled. The lawyer said previously Haymes wants a quick divorce. The crooner has acknowledged he is in love with Miss Hayworth, ex-wife of Moslem Prince Aly Khan. But when a reporter asked Haymes Thursday whether he plans to marry Rita, the crooner halted the interview with "Goodbye!"

Judy's Sid Luft Cited For Failure To Meet Alimony

LOS ANGELES —(P)—Actor's agent Sid Luft has been cited to appear in Domestic Relations Court August 24 to answer the charge of his former wife, actress Lynn Bari, that he is $3,627 in arrears in his support payments. Luft, now the husband of singer Judy Garland, agreed to give Miss Bari 10 per cent of his net earnings under a property settlement signed in 1950, says S. S. Hahn, Miss Bari's lawyer. Luft paid her $90 a month up to the time he and Miss Garland were wed, but Hahn said that based on their joint income tax report, Luft owes $3,627 to Miss Bari from January to July, 1953.

Jane Powell Wins Divorce, Custody Of Two Children

SANTA MONICA, CALIF. —(P)—Jane Powell of the movies has obtained a divorce decree from Geary Steffen, insurance man and former professional ice skater, on the ground that he neglected her for tennis and water skiing. The 24-year-old singer said she was left alone almost every weekend. This, she testified Thursday, constituted cruelty because she had to work all week at the studio. Miss Powell was given custody of their two minor children, $125 monthly support, their Brentwood home, an apartment house and an automobile. Steffen is the son of the one-time world's lightweight boxing champion, Willie Ritchie.

Now Rufus' Face Is Red

NEW YORK —(P)—Rufus the red-necked hornbill now has a red face. Brooding Friday in his pet shop cage, the Oriental, big-billed bird thinks he has a squawk coming. For two days he eluded would-be captors, to the delight of on-lookers in downtown Manhattan. Rufus got loose Wednesday. Thursday he again soared majestically among the Wall Street skyscrapers, giving the bird to his pursuers. Then Rufus got cocky. He investigated a construction on a roof. It turned out to be a pigeon coop belonging to Frank Renda, a rubbish and ash collector, who turned Rufus over to proper authorities.

Navy Tests Carrier Version Of Sabre

WASHINGTON —(P)—The Navy Friday announced the first successful flights of its FJ-3 Fury, carrier version of the Air Force's famed F-86 Sabre jet. The new Fury now is in the preliminary stages of production at the Columbus, Ohio, plant of the North American Aviation Company. The Navy said it has a striking power equal to or greater than other carrier-based fighters. It is powered by a J-45 Wright Sapphire turbojet engine and its speed is rated just under the speed of sound, which roughly is 700 miles an hour.

Stone From Alamo, Travis Letter Copy Due Every County

AUSTIN—Plans are being made at the University of Texas to place a bit of the Alamo in every Texas county. The Texas Memorial Museum on the university campus and the Texas Heritage Foundation will send each county a piece of stone from the famed San Antonio site where 135 outnumbered Texans, commanded by Col. W. B. Travis, fought in 1836 until death rather than surrender to Mexican forces. Facsimile copies of a Travis letter in which he wrote "We shall never surrender or retreat," will be sent with the stone pieces. A Garland Adair, museum curator of history, said: The stones from which the county mementos will be taken were presented in 1939 to the museum by Emma Burleson of Austin, a descendant of Gen. Edward Burleson, commander of Texas forces in San Antonio during the early days of the Texas Revolution. Although it sometimes snows in mid-Summer around Hudson Bay, Summer temperatures in that area sometimes hit 90.

RUTH MILLETT SAYS— Don't Boss Your Husband In Presence Of Strangers

A sensible wife takes good care of her husband. She may even baby him a little in the privacy of their home. But a clever wife isn't so obvious that she makes him look like a baby.

Take Jane for an example. She knows Jim is working harder than he should. She is concerned because he hasn't seemed to be recovering as fast as he should after a recent illness. She wants to help him as much as she can and make him take care of himself. That's fine. But in doing so she doesn't have to make such a point of being the solicitous wife in front of others.

Jane announces they have to leave a party early because Jim simply must get his rest. Jim doesn't appreciate being made to look less robust than the other men present. Though he would have appreciated Jane's getting him away from the party early if she had used some other excuse.

Jane, too, is likely to remind Jim in front of others that he isn't as young as he used to be and that he's simply got to stop working so hard. That's another thing no man appreciates, being reminded of his age.

Must Tell All
Nor can Jim's wife resist the impulse to tell her friends how she insists that Jim do this and that. It was a good idea to talk him into coming home for lunch for some rest before going back to the office, but the reason for his coming home needn't have been announced to all their friends.

Sure, it's important for wives to take good care of their husbands. But their health isn't the only important thing.

Their pride is important, too. And it hurts a man's pride for the world to know his wife is bossing him around for his own good.

The Panmunjom Lesson

When President Syngman Rhee of South Korea released 27,000 North Korean prisoners some weeks ago...

Rhee thought he was wrecking the truce by making it unpalatable to the Reds. He remembered that the prisoner issue was the cause of the long Fall and Winter break in negotiations...

What is more sensible to believe than that the Communists would be outraged by premature release of UN-held prisoners?

Rhee must have been encouraged when Peiping made all the appropriate noises indicating extreme displeasure at his bold act...

The American negotiators, fortunately, kept their heads. They knew the Reds better. They knew that when the Communists want to do something, that fact takes command over everything else...

Russian behavior in UN sessions had presented some instructive examples of this fundamental. Moscow in 1950 was boycotting the Security Council because Red China was being denied a UN seat...

Why did he come back? Because it suited Russian tactics as of that moment, and that is the supreme gauge of Russian behavior.

Thus it was with the prisoner issue and the truce. In 1952 it was an insurmountable obstacle, because the Reds felt no great compulsion to sign.

You cannot forecast Soviet and Communist behavior by imagining they mean today what they said yesterday. The signs which count are those which come with each rising sun.

All Ike Wants To Do Is Build A Bridge

The Washington Merry-Go-Round

By Drew Pearson

(Copyright, 1953, By The Bell Syndicate, Inc.)

Drew Pearson says: Senator Byrd puts debt squeeze on Ike; Higher interest rates partly offset budget cuts; Eisenhower unable to placate Uncle Dan Reed.

WASHINGTON — Senator Byrd of Virginia, supporter of General Eisenhower for election but vigorous opponent of President Eisenhower regarding debt increase...

Finally the President rose, explained that Senator Byrd was waiting upstairs, and joined the senator from Virginia. They talked for one hour and a half.

To fellow senators afterward, Byrd summarized that long conversation as follows:

"I told him: 'Mr. President, I'm going to put the squeeze on you. I'm going to see if you mean what you say. You talked a lot about balancing the budget and getting us on a sound, businesslike basis...'"

Byrd also told the President that it wasn't the Democrats, but the Republicans who were blocking the debt rise.

He expected to get a laugh from the President, but Eisenhower remained stony-faced and glum.

Chief reason for senatorial ire over the debt-increase request was its timing.

"The Treasury thought they would pull a B-B-D-and-O stunt," said one senator, referring to the advertising firm so frequently a butt of Roosevelt gibes.

Another thing irking senators is that the Treasury has increased the interest rates on government bonds. This will counter-balance

JACOBY ON BRIDGE

By OSWALD JACOBY

When you watch a national championship, you usually see very good bridge on all sides. Occasionally, however, you may see some bids or plays that remind you of your Aunt Emily.

The hand shown today is not quite in this class, but I think it's rather amusing when two first class teams reach an "unmakeable" contract of three no-trump and then proceed to make it.

When this hand was played in the semifinal round of last year's National Team Championship, both teams reached three no-trump. In one room, as shown in the diagram, South decided to take a chance on the diamonds when the bidding had a spade suit and the ace of clubs.

He knew that there would be six club tricks as a nucleus, and hoped that North had a diamond stopper, or that the opponents wouldn't lead diamonds, or that the opponents in any case would not be able to take more than four diamond tricks even if they did lead the suit.

This declarer felt pretty miserable for a moment or so when West led the eight of diamonds and the dummy appeared. It looked as though the enemy would be able to take at least five diamond tricks.

Nevertheless, he hopefully played dummy's queen of diamonds and heaved a sigh of relief when this held the trick.

Declarer took no further risks with this hand. He ran his six clubs, the two hearts, and the ace of spades, making a total of 10 tricks.

In the other room North's second bid was two no-trump rather than three clubs, south naturally raised to three no-trump, thus duplicating the unsound contract reached in the first room.

At this table the opening lead was the king of spades from the East hand. Declarer heaved a sigh of relief at not having received a diamond opening, and speedily took a spade, two hearts, and six clubs to fulfill his game contract.

The defenders in both rooms gnashed their teeth wildly when they discovered that they could have taken the first six diamond tricks if they had only known what to do.

Q—With neither side vulnerable, the bidding has been:

North East South West 1 Heart 1 Spade 2 Clubs Pass 2 Hearts Pass ?

You, South, hold: Spades 7-5, Hearts 8-3, Diamonds A-J-8-3, Clubs A-K-J-8-5. What do you do?

A—Bid three diamonds. You must make a second try for game since you have a count of 13 points in high cards opposite an opening bid. Perhaps this show of strength will encourage your partner to try

WASHINGTON COLUMN

Slipshod Treatment Makes Congressional Reforms Slow

By PETER EDSON

WASHINGTON—While reorganization of the executive departments of the federal government has been given Congress a lot of both this year, reforms in congressional machinery are being given only a hit-and-miss treatment.

The serious bog-down of the congressional program this year has made many politicians realize there is room for improvement in the law-making department.

This has not reached the stage of being a movement for another complete reorganization. It is more of a piecemeal approach to patch up specific shortcomings. Nothing may be done about them this year.

Dr. George B. Galloway, a political scientist now in the legislative reference section of Library of Congress has made a convenient summary of some of the shortcomings of the 1946 reorganization. By experience, he is thoroughly familiar with the subject.

Congress still is handicapped by the lack of a modern personnel system, he believes. The congressional work load has not been reduced, but more and better staff aids have enabled it to do a better job.

The judiciary committees still are overburdened with thousands of private claim bills, immigration and deportation bills. Congress still is weighted down by having to serve as city council for the District of Columbia.

The fiscal control provisions of the reorganization law either have been ignored or have proved unworkable in practice, Dr. Galloway believes. Registration of lobbyists has been handicapped by defects in the law and by a federal court decision that it is unconstitutional.

This case now is before the Supreme Court on appeal. It is expected Congress will be asked to clarify the lobby registration section.

A revised draft already has been prepared by the staff of a Senate government operations subcommittee under Senator Margaret Chase Smith of Maine. The committee has not considered the new section, however, and probably will not do so before the next session of Congress, or until it hears from the Supreme Court.

The main problem here is who shall be required to register as a lobbyist. Many organizations refuse to register because they claim their "principal purpose" is not to influence legislation.

Single Money Bill Proposed

A proposal for handling all government appropriations in a single omnibus bill, instead of a dozen separate money bills, has received much support.

As a companion measure, Senator Harry F. Byrd of Virginia has proposed a constitutional amendment which would allow the President to veto individual items in appropriation bills, after their passage by Congress.

These two reforms must be put through together if the legislative budget idea is to be all workable.

Again, as in 1946, there is a strong feeling among congressmen that for a game in no-trump or to indicate in some other way where the best game contract lies.

She came into his arms again believing, trusting, assuring herself that treachery in love, like lightning, doesn't strike twice in the same place.

So she let herself believe what she wanted to believe and was happy and, even if sorrow came afterwards, she would always remember that she had been glad.

MAYBE they did discuss the book that night during the dinner they ate at a log chalet in the hills, but they recalled about as much of that as they did of what they had eaten. In these golden, woodsy hours, the little thing of earth had no smallest place. They lived, these two, in realms of beauty; moved in a world of their own that love had created—a world that each one found in the eyes, the speech, the handclasp of the other.

It had not been like this, she knew—that other love she had known with this man's brother. Perhaps the lift, the ecstasy, the out-of-this-world feeling had been as great—perhaps even more so; but it had had neither the depth nor scope of this emotion. It was young, immature, uncertain.

She was older now. The girl of seven years ago, feathery light and airy and dancing on silver shoes, was the woman of today, wiser, she hoped, formed in the slow turning of the years, able to judge and weigh the worth of the love that was offered.

Nation To Help In Building Shrine To American History

ATLANTA—(AP)—Every state in the nation will participate in building a national historical shrine that may cost as much as 40 million dollars on Pine Mountain near Warm Springs, Ga.

Plans for the gigantic memorial were announced Thursday night by Charles F. Palmer of Atlanta, war-time special assistant to President Franklin D. Roosevelt, whose vacation retreat was near the site.

Palmer, chairman of the Hall of Our History, a non-profit educational corporation organized in 1952, estimated it will take 10 years to complete the monolithic structure.

The shrine to American history will be 400 feet long, 280 feet wide and 90 feet high. It will be in the form of an open hall upon whose walls will be inscribed in high relief a chronological history of the United States.

About $145,000, contributed by two sources of private wealth that prefer to remain anonymous, have spent on research, plans and models for the project.

Evening Lions See Hawaiian Dances

Mrs. Atwood's Dining Room felt the spirit of Hawaii Thursday night when the Evening Lions Club, holding its regular meeting there, saw and heard explanations and interpretations of traditional native dances given by Mrs. Velma Scott. Hawaiian dances, she told the group, have always been misinterpreted by most Americans. The natives, she continued, consider their religious ceremonies and think nothing is complete unless the dance is carried out.

Young and old alike, she pointed out, train to be expert dancers. Members of the young Midland club were told directors would convene following next week's meeting. Accompanying Mrs. Scott to the meeting was Mrs. C. B. McElroy of Graham.

The new law, urged by the President as a cold war weapon against the Communists, was passed shortly before Congress adjourned and only after a long and bitter fight. It falls somewhat short of the legislation originally requested by Eisenhower for admission of 240,000 during two years.

HIS SECRET SMOKED OUT

BUFFALO, N. Y.—(AP)—A fire in Mrs. Victoria D. Johnson's home smoked out the fact that her husband had been married previously, she says.

She testified in State Supreme Court, where she's seeking an annulment, that after the firemen brought her a charred box containing letters and other papers, inside was an annulment decree held by her husband, Bertell, from a previous marriage, she said.

Mrs. Johnson says her husband told her he never had been married before.

Humble To Test Wichita-Albany Shows In Gains

Humble Oil & Refining Company No. 1 Angela Brumley, wildcat in Central-West Gaines County, is to be tested for commercial production in the Wichita-Albany.

Drilled to total depth of 11,092 feet in granite wash, the project will be plugged back to around 8,000 feet for the tests. On last test, operator was preparing to replace wear and five-eighths-inch casing with five and one-half-inch.

Drillstem test in the Wichita-Albany when the formation was being drilled through, developed free oil on the recovery.

The interval from 7,605 to 7,685 feet was tested for an unreported length of time. Gas surfaced in 20 minutes. Recovery was 1.510 feet of 36.6-gravity oil and 89 feet of salt water.

No. 1 Brumley is 660 feet from south and 1,880 feet from west lines of section 8, block A-12, pal survey.

Air Force Reveals Death Of Odessa GI In Germany

ODESSA — Mystery continued Friday to surround the death in Munich, Germany, of R. T. Waddell, Jr., 22-year-old Odessa airman third class stationed there the last two years.

The parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Waddell, Sr., of Odessa, were notified Tuesday of their son's death in a wire from the Air Force in Washington.

The notice gave no cause of death. Ollie Blank, the elder Waddell's partner here, said the parents don't know whether the airman was killed or died of natural causes. They knew of no illness.

The Waddells, members of a pioneer West Texas family, were notified of their son's death while enroute to Columbus, Texas, to attend the wedding of an older son, Dick Waddell.

Waddell attended Baylor University before entering the Air Force. He was born Dec. 28, 1930. His grandfather helped organize Ector County and served as one of the county's first commissioners.

The Waddells bought extensive ranch property in Winkler County in 1926, and at one time lived in Midland. The senior Waddell is a partner in the insurance firm of Waddell and Blank.

Funeral arrangements are pending further notice from the Air Force.

Survivors include the parents, the brother, Dick; two uncles, J. M. Waddell of Kermit and Frank Waddell of Van Horn; three aunts, Mrs. A. J. Coloway and Mrs. J. F. Fernandez, both of Odessa and Mrs. Barbara Wall of Midland; and a cousin, T. B. Harris of Odessa.

Turkish Forces Are Keystone Of NATO's Defensive Power

By GRACE HALSELL
Reporter-Telegram
Special Correspondent

IZMIR, TURKEY—A few years back America never thought its strongest Allies would be down in this part of the world.

In fact, who ever heard of this city—where one of Southeastern Allied headquarters is located?

It's called in that strange jargon of initials, HALFSEE (and the joke here is that you salute with one eye covered) for Headquarters Allied Land Forces Southeastern Europe. Partners here are former enemies, Greece and Turkey, with the U. S. acting as something of a referee.

The site of Izmir (formerly called Smyrna and rich in Biblical historical significance) was chosen and headquarters opened here in September, 1952. And soon afterwards, both the Turks and Greeks announced large contingents being assigned to SHAPE, the Army portions coming under Lt. Gen. William G. Wyman for directions, training standards, guidance and coordinated planning activities.

"Strongest Part of NATO"

To see how progress is coming along at HALFSEE, I called on General Wyman, who came from behind his big desk and took an easy chair for a relaxed, easy kind of interview.

With the Turks and Greeks, we have the "strongest part of NATO," the young (he is 55) general began. He spoke optimistically of morale, of accomplishments, and stated: "We can defend Western Europe very nicely if we get the proper supplies."

He said he wished there could be a "greater consideration" for emphasis on supplies here.

The general would not say, because he does not want to make things easier for the Russians, how many American troops are expected to come to Turkey.

It appears headquarters will expand and that accommodations are being made for some Greek soldiers, as well as Americans here.

It also is the opinion in military circles that one good combat division in Thrace or the Caucasus is worth three in Western Europe as a deterrent to any Communist moves.

General Wyman, who had the first Turkish Brigade in Korea as one of the elements under his command, spoke highly of the Turkish soldier for having qualities of "determination and loyalty of command," but at the same time the general said American soldiers could not be surpassed by anyone.

"You take away the Cokes and candy bars and their automobiles awhile, and give them the proper training and they are as tough and good as any soldier anywhere," the general said, adding that Korea has proved this anew.

Of the current problems in Korea, the general could voice little hope. He expressed grave concern on the apparent hopelessness in the situation.

Turning toward his ideas about the words of goodwill some Communists have been putting out, the general said:

"I frankly do not trust them."

General Wyman, graduate of the U. S. Military Academy at West Point, had part of his Army training at Fort Bliss, Texas.

Justice Department Investigates Recent Gasoline Price Hikes

WASHINGTON —(P)—The Justice Department is investigating recent gasoline price increases in an effort to determine "whether collusive action among the oil companies can be established."

The probe for possible anti-trust law violation was disclosed Friday in a letter received by Senator Humphrey (D-Minn) from Assistant Attorney General Stanley Barnes, who wrote the department was finding it "extremely difficult to collect evidence that would justify an action."

Humphrey said in a statement making the letter public that he had received complaints from "Minnesota gasoline jobbers and consumers against what they termed unwarranted price increases in the face of heavy available stocks" and had referred the complaints to the Justice Department.

Barnes said the Minnesota gasoline price increases to which Humphrey referred "appear to be general throughout the United States east of the Rocky Mountains."

Dr. Kinsey Says Almost All Women Violate Sex Laws

CHICAGO —(P)—Dr. Alfred E. Kinsey, the Indiana University sex researcher, says 85 per cent of American women violate sex laws during their lifetime and would go to jail if they were caught and prosecuted.

Kinsey told a news conference Thursday that only a small fraction of sex offenses are prosecuted because "the laws are so completely at variance with people's actual behavior."

The statement about women was drawn, Kinsey said, from his book, "Sexual Behavior in the Human Female," to be published September 1 as a sequel to his similar volume about men.

Kinsey, director of the Institute of Sex Research at Indiana University, Bloomington, Ind., was in Chicago to address a short course for prosecuting attorneys at Northwestern University.

"I'll be dead in a few minutes, so bury me in a blue suit," he said. She found him unconscious on the floor of his bedroom.

Mexican Authorities Join In Curbing Young Bandits

EDINBURG —(P)—Juvenile thieves who operate in Texas but take refuge in Mexico have a surprise in store for them.

Hidalgo County District Attorney Joe R. Alamia Friday said Mexican authorities have joined forces with the United States in an effort to halt the teenage bandits.

Alamia and Mexico plans to set up an institution at Juarez where the United States may commit these juveniles for rehabilitation. In addition, Mexico plans to establish what it calls "clinics" in the principal border towns to take care of the kids who aren't sent to the institution.

Alamia was informed of the new plan Friday by Heraldo Rodriguez P., chief of the Department of Social Welfare, a division of the Interior Department.

Distinguished Britons Urge European Army Cooperation

LONDON —(P)—Twenty-two distinguished Britons called on the nation Friday to weave a closer association with continental Europe.

They demanded "a gesture from this country to match the enterprise and imagination" of France, West Germany, Italy, Belgium, The Netherlands and Luxembourg—the six nations now working toward European integration.

The 22, who included philosopher Bertrand Russell, Liberal Leader Clement Davies and Historian G. M. Young, issued a statement urging:

1. British participation in the common coal and steel market set up by the six nations under the Schuman Plan.
2. Full exchange of technical information and coordination of capital investment.
3. A British contingent to serve with the projected six-nation European Army and the greatest possible standardization of equipment and organization between other British forces and the European Army.

"We believe it would be in the interest of Britain no less than of Europe and of the British Commonwealth that we should formulate the terms of our association more precisely than we have yet done," the statement said.

Britain has given sideline support to the Schuman Plan coal and steel pool and the European Army project, but has fought shy of actually joining in, partly because of fear that a closer association with Europe might conflict with responsibilities to the British Commonwealth.

Gallows Customer Ready, But Cochín Has No Hangman

NEW DELHI, INDIA —(P)—Authorities of Travancore-Cochin state are going to hang 25-year-old Kelan Madhavan August 30 on a murder charge—if they can find a hangman.

Reports reaching here Friday from Trivandrum, capital of the state in Southwest India, said jail officials don't quite know how to proceed with the state's first execution since Indian independence revived capital punishment there six years ago.

The state hasn't had a hangman since the pre-independence ruler, the Maharajah of Travancore, outlawed the death penalty two years ago.

So far, nobody has been found who is willing to pull the trap. And the jail authorities aren't building a scaffold until a hangman is located.

SPORTS PARLEY

By CHARLEY ESKEW

You just can't erase the fortune of the Midland Indians—after winning seven of their last eight games—as that of plain good luck. For, when you saw the Tribe in June and July, you would have almost marked off their winning even four in a string as something above hope and for them to bypass Artesia into third place as near impossibility.

This year's Midland club, it seems now, is just about like the onrushing Tribes of 1948 and of 1951 and possibly of the stuff that made them champions in 1952. Along that last line, it can be said, that the demanding fans all season long have compared this team—for good or bad—with those fast finishers and unfortunately the conclusion was a mere shake of the head.

Pitchers Became Winners In August

But, do not things—in '53 and '52—actually compare? Wasn't it in mid-season when a trio of players, Scooter Hughes, Glen Selbo and Bill Brown, really found their batting eye and Midland consequently made up 12 of the 14-game deficit over a final month and a half span? (A difference now is that Art Bowland, Lou Dawson and Julie de la Torre are spurring again after July slumps. Wasn't it, also, along at the outset of August that the pitching staff really congealed into a winning unit?)

Rather than make this just an enthusiastic piece of writing about seven August ball games (enthusiastic in that everybody likes a hometown winner), let's check the circumstances of why Midland never got above fourth place especially since we all believed the club always had the talent for a climb toward the top.

For one thing, it's surprising to note that Midland really won as many as 17 of 26 ball games in July and yet made up no ground. Perhaps its merely opinion, considering that many wins, but Midland went through its worst days of play during the month; meaning, Midland actually was on the move only to sustain adverse luck.

Percentages Dropped In July

Afield the Indians skidded in July from first place in percentage to next-to-last and from a club that had been hitting at a near 320 pace to below 300 for a first time. Just about the time winning would have put the Indians within catching distance of Artesia, something always happened.

There may be a clue to what was wrong—with the Indians. Jay Haney, for instance, thought the umpires' calls were going against Midland, for he lost his calm and completely raged at an umpire for the first time in a year. There were, he believed, too many trapped flies caught in the outfield being called as outs and Midland lost two ball games because the opposing fielders received credit for not only amazing, but almost miraculous shoe string retrieves. Even as more calls, along the basepaths especially, went against the Indians, Haney became a freer until he was lost for words just when a pair ofumps here in Indian Park ruled that Artesia high fly to center field

Rendezvous Stars Fall At Brownfield

BROWNFIELD—A pair of walks before a sacrifice and single proved the downfall of Rendezvous Cafe's Midland all-stars here Thursday night in their first game of the Brownfield State softball tournament.

Primm Drug of Brownfield, the overall favorite, subdued the Midlanders, 3-2, by springing across the deciding run in the eighth inning. Until then, Roy Weeks of Stamford, pitching for Midland, held the Drugists to four hits only to weaken. He yielded a lead-off pair of two bases on balls and load the bases in the eighth before Dalton Touchette dropped a one-bagger over shortstop for the deciding score.

Rendezvous led, 2-0, after the first inning when Dwight Fleming's single, a sacrifice, an error and a passed ball netted the first run and Charles Clark, on by misdeed, followed him home on a second passed ball. The host team tied it up in the fifth on two singles, a fielder's choice and an error.

Winner Red Denham, one time All-American, allowed five hits to Midland and struck out nine. Weeks fanned seven while yielding six hits.

Rendezvous' next game in the double elimination meet will be against the Laveland All-Stars-Inco Oil Company of Lubbock loser at 8:30 p.m. Monday night.

The other Thursday results saw Inco Oil whip Atlantic Oil, 13-2, on Randall Raizer's no-hit pitching and the Lorenzo Lions whip Grassland's All-Stars, 7-0, when Weldon Haney tossed a one-hitter.

The Rendezvous score: Midland 200 000 00-2 5 1 Primm Drug 000 020 01-3 6 1 Weeks and Clark; Denham and Lewis.

Inspection Nine Wins On 13 Hits

Western Inspection, out of the low-scoring National League, beat the Tide Water softballers at their own big-hit method Thursday night, 15-5, to even up the city championship series at one game each.

The night before Tide Water, the American League champion, prevailed in a relatively low-run encounter, 6-5.

The Inspectionmen, however, adopted the long ball and whacked nine extra bases blows in a 13-hit spree off Loser Bobby Tremble Thursday. Their own hurler, Milton Montgomery, who struck out six, yielded nine hits to Tide Water.

Tide Batter Keeps Up Big Hit Collecting

Joe Ragdale is setting a terrific hitting pace for Tide Water in that team's bid for the city softball championship and one of his swats may have been the king size hit so far this season.

The observers who saw the Tuesday game, softball co-chairman Martin Alday of the sponsoring JayCees among them, testified that Ragdale's homer which got Tide Water its win was the longest of the year—traveling over the lights beyond the 225-foot fence.

Lackland AB Wins

HOUSTON—Lackland Air Base won the Southwest WAAF softball tournament at Ellington Field Thursday and qualified for the air force-wide tournament starting August 24 in Amarillo.

The Rockets, 6-1, going into the bottom of the fifth, collected four runs to close up and romped out in front in the last two.

San Angelo Blows Big Lead In Losing To Rockets, 14-7

ROSWELL—The Roswell Rockets whipped the San Angelo Colts for the second time in a row Thursday night, 14-7, with a five-run surge in the seventh and a big eighth-inning bonus telling the tale.

Ben Bonine, who won six of his first seven decisions over the Rockets, took the loss for the second straight night. He came on in relief of Mario Saldana in the seventh and couldn't find the key.

Lamesans Advance In Leglon Tourney

HOUSTON—Lamesa is to play Houston and San Antonio in the first round of the state American Legion Baseball Tournament.

Thursday night, Lamesa defeated San Antonio 3-0 and Houston beat Dallas 8-1 in the first rounds of the double elimination tournament.

Odessa Drops 5-3 Game To Carlsbad

CARLSBAD—Audie Malone received 12-hit support from his mates here Thursday night as he spun the Carlsbad Potashers to a 5-3 victory over Odessa in the Longhorn League.

Malone, in moving the second place Carlsbad club to within three games of first place, allowed seven hits to the Oilers whose big spree came in the eighth for two futile runs.

Jaffe, McKay Battle For Tennis Crown

CHICAGO—Top-seeded Mark Jaffe of Bay City, Mich., fought it out with third-seeded Barry McKay, of Dayton, Ohio, Friday for the junior singles championship at the 17th annual River Forest Open Tennis Tournament.

Jaffe moved into the finals when he defeated Charles Russo, of Houston, 6-3, 6-0. McKay advanced with a 6-0, 7-5 triumph over Yves Le Maître of Mexico City.

Magnolia Nine To Test Odessa Team

Magnolia, the team which finished third in the National League softball race, extends its season Saturday with a visit against an Odessa opponent to be named later.

An Odessa church league team will face the Oilers.

Soto, On Hitting Jag, Paces Tribe To Win

ARTESIA—The Midland Indians, on a red-hot winning streak, packed up their best record after several invasions of New Mexico this year and headed home Friday to meet the league-leading San Angelo Colts in a vital series.

On departing, Midland owned four wins in five games, two off Roswell and two off Artesia, with probably the most impressive being a 15-3 victory Thursday night against the slugging Artesia club.

In it, Romario Soto emphasized his bid for a ninth win—the most by an Indian since Eddie Jacobs left in June—by clubbing five of the 20 Indian hits. Until Soto paced this victory and the fourth of the trip, the Indians had been able to capture but six triumphs in 20 tries on New Mexico soil.

Ex-Big Spring Pitcher Ralph Atkinson may make his home debut for Midland when the Indians entertain San Antonio and it's probable Starter Bobby Craig at 5:15 p.m. in Indian Park.

Soto Thursday got the backing of some outstanding defensive work by his outfielders in taking the victory. He gave up 13 hits, but kept them well scattered. The key to his success lay in his ability to get the pitch he needed with men on base. The Drillers left 13 runners stranded.

Soto, in addition to picking up the win, included a pair of doubles in five hits. Lou Dawson had five hits in six trips.

The Indians wasted no time in leaping out to lead, pounding Driller starter and loser Andy Alonso for three runs in the first inning. Singles by Dawson, Art Bowland and Glen Selbo, plus a run-producing triple by Mickey Diaz, gave them the three in the first and they added a like number on a walk, singles by Soto and Bowland and Dawson's double in the second.

They improved their lead to 13-3 in the fourth when five big runs paraded across the plate. A three-run homer by Roger Dalla Beta highlighted the frame, with Dawson lining a triple to drive in another.

The last two Midland runs came in the eighth on a walk to Dalla Beta, Soto's double and Dawson's single, his fifth hit.

Two Midland errors, plus singles by Vince DiGiantomaso, Joe Bauman and Les Mulcahy got two Artesia runs in the third and doubles by Mulcahy and Bill Haley their only other in the fifth.

128 Golfers Open Ranchland Matches

Medalist Red Watkins stacks up as the course's hottest player when he leads 138 entries into Saturday's first round matches of the Ranchland Hill Country Club's member tournament.

The squat filling station operator only admitted that "everything was falling just right" after firing a 69, two-under par, when he won the medalist award last Sunday. But he also scored several sub-par tuneup rounds in preparing to defend his 1952 championship in the same meet.

It is his present streak that makes him favorite over Saturday opponent Odell Nelson as they and the awesome of Doyle Patton, Jr., vs. Carl Peay lead off the 16 championship flight players at 11 a.m.

While Watkins is after a second crown, so are two others. One of them, Bob Wortman, is considered the foremost match play golfer in the tourney after he took the city championship trophy early this year and later received the quarter-finals of the Men's West Texas.

The other, Kit Carson, tackles Bill Hightower in what figures as the best down-to-the-wire duel set in first round play. Actually the Carson-Hightower pair figure right behind four others when favorites are ranked: Watkins at the top, Wortman, Pearl Ward, and Buddy Branum following in order.

Ranchland official Shirley Robbins, serving as starter, will push off the third flight foursome of Marshall Cruse vs. W. Ellis Hall and T. P. Withrow vs. Ed Scott in the first Saturday duels at 9 a.m. Other quarterets in the third flight follow at 10-minute intervals until the second flight begins at 9:40, the first at 10:20, champion at 11, fourth at 11:40, fifth at 12:20 p.m., sixth at 1, and seventh at 1:40.

The winners and consolations start again Sunday in second round.

Gresh Lands In Top Flight Of Lubbock Medal Tourney

LUBBOCK—Marty Gresh, registering out of Midland, joined 50 other topnotch golfers here in the championship flight of the annual Lubbock Invitational tournament Thursday when he fired a two-over 73 in first-day play.

Gresh was five strokes off the leaders' pace when they tackled the second round of the 72-hole medal play championships Friday morning. Arlyn Scott, a Hardin-Simmons University player, from Odessa, Billy Erfurth of Lubbock and Ernie Vossler of Fort Worth whipped par by five strokes with 66's Thursday.

One other Midland golfer, Buddy Branum, found himself in the President's flight when he posted a 76 over the Lubbock Country Club's 6,300-yard layout. It took a 74 or better to land among the top 51.

A big field of name amateurs ranked in the top group, among them Dick Jennings of Lubbock, with a 67; Chris Gers, the 1951 winner from Oklahoma City, who registered a 68; Men's West Texas Champion Jack Williams of Plainview, with a 69; Dwight Weir of San Antonio and Raymond Marshall of Lubbock, with 70's; Stan Mosel and Wesley Ellis of San Antonio, with 71's; Gene McBride of Wichita Falls, with 72, and Fort Worth Champion Dick Patton, with 74.

North Falls In Cage Game

By ABE WEINER
Reporter-Telegram Sports Staff

HOUSTON—Time — that peppy thing that we either have too much or too little of—literally ran out on the North Thursday night with a big fat basketball sitting in an official's hands.

While the clock ticked off eight precious seconds, the North All-Stars waited impatiently for a chance to snatch a victory from the South's hands.

Instead, the Rebels won a hard fought 34-33 victory—its third in nine attempts.

What had the spectators confused was this:

The North had just scored a field goal. A beautiful shot by James Skinner of Irving, South thereby gained possession and it appeared a certain one-point victory. However, Jack McCall of Temple threw wildly to Glen Fields of Big Sandy. And the ball bounced off the speciators in the front row at the side of the court.

Ordinarily, the timekeeper would stop the clock at such an incidence. It's his judgment, however, to stop it or let it run. The referee went to the end line to allow the North to put the ball back into play, but while the eight seconds ticked off, the team had not set up for its play and the clock ran out.

The incident, however, did not detract from the South's victory, for James Swink of Rusk had led an uphill battle which made the game the second most interesting in the eight-year history (nine games) of the affair. (Note: Two games played in 1929).

Favored by a fair-size margin, the South found itself trailing almost all the way. Sheer hustle and determination enabled the North to go ahead, 7-3, with 2:43 left to play in the first quarter.

Although the South tied the score twice afterwards, it wasn't until three seconds were left in the third quarter that the South could regain the advantage. At that time, McCall sank a free throw after a foul by Ramon Towery of Vernon.

The North roared back after the Rebels had built the margin up to 46-41 with Delbert Shofner of Senter sparking the attack. The Yankees caught up at 46-46 on Stanley Arlington's (Bowie) field goal and free throw and Shofner's fielder and went ahead on Shofner's second successive goal from the field.

From then on, it was touch and go with Jerry Mallett of South Park sinking the deciding points with 22 seconds left. Mallett, one of the most heralded of all the stars, had been tied up and inefficient until this time. But with the chips down, he sank two free throws after McCall had sunk a field goal putting the Rebels ahead by one point. Then followed Skinner's basket, the wild throw and the run-away clock.

Swink, the lone spark in the South's attack, was voted the most valuable player of the game. Ellis Olmstead of Galveston and Dick O'Neal of Palo (Fort Worth) offset each other's efforts in the scoring department. Olmstead, who made several steals to thwart the North on those occasions, scored 14 points. O'Neal played the better game, most observers agreed. He tied Olmstead in knots and scored 13 points to boot. He made four of 10 field goal tries while Olmstead cashed in on five of 12 attempts. Swink scored 11 points.

Fred Woods, Pampa's hustling guard, was one of the reasons the Yankees were able to maintain their pace in the first half. He hustled the ball all over the front court, making numerous steals and causing many errant South passes and errors.

LEGION STARS GAME CALLED

A scheduled baseball game between teams composed of American Legion all-star players was postponed Thursday afternoon for a second time.

Rain forced postponement of the slated dual Tuesday. It was called off because of repairs on the diamond Thursday.

Emerson Elevated As Coach At UT

AUSTIN—(P)—Governor Emerson will take over September 1 as football line coach at the University of Texas, succeeding J. T. King.

King's resignation after two seasons and Emerson's promotion from freshman coach were announced Friday by Athletic Director D. K. Bible. King quit to enter business in Austin.

Ed Kelley, head coach at Del Mar Junior College of Corpus Christi, will succeed Emerson as freshman coach.

Emerson played on the 1930 championship Texas team with Ed Price, now head coach, and was an all-pro lineman five of the eight years with Detroit.

Stallion Stakes Set At Ruidoso

RUIDOSO, N. M. — The sixth annual running of the Stallion Stakes at 330 yards will highlight Saturday's racing card at Ruidoso Downs. Eight horses have been named to parade to the post for this second in a series of Quarter Horse stakes for 1932.

Inaugurated in 1926, the Stallion Stakes for 1932 will carry a purse of more than $1,200 by post time Saturday.

A well-balanced card of seven thoroughbred and five quarter horse races is offered for Saturday.

Worsham Captures Two-Stroke Lead In 'World' Action

CHICAGO—(P)—Lew Worsham was roaring for revenue Friday in golf's richest tournament, the $75,000 "World" pro meet at carnival-casino Tam o'Shanter Course.

Worsham carved a 68, seven-under par Thursday for a two-stroke first-round lead in the tourney which last year he apparently had in his hip pocket until the final six holes.

Worsham, 1947 U. S. Open champion, was a bitter, forgotten man in the 1932 "World" after he led by four strokes but then blew apart in the stretch to wind up in a tie for seventh place.

Chasing Worsham in Friday's second round of the 72-hole medal play quest for the $25,000 first prize was Ted Kroll, four-time Purple Heart veteran, who Thursday tamed Tam o'Shanter's layout for a 67.

Then the traffic was terrific with seven players knotted at 68 and eight tied at 69.

The seven players knotted at 68, three strokes off the pace, were Julius Boros, Jack Burke, Gardner Dickinson, Ed (Porky) Oliver, Freddie Haas, Ed Furgol and Tommy Bolt.

Bracketed at 69 were the 1933 PGA Champion Walter Burkemo, Pete Cooper, Al Bessellink, Chandler Harper, Dick Mayer, Wally Ulrich, Shelley Mayfield and Jack Fieck. Lloyd Mangrum, a "World" favorite after his All-American triumph last weekend, was one of a whopping crew of 18 notched at even par 72. Also in this group were such old pros as Sammy Sneed, Chick Harbert, Clayton Heafner and Johnny Bulla.

Only 17 men pros were ahead of Patty Berg, the sharp-shooting Chicago golfer, and an amateur, Joe Conrad, who led the "World" women's pro and men's amateur concurrent competition with identical rounds of 70.

The big surprise in the 18-gal open field was Babe Zaharias, who shared third with Betty Jameson, the defending champion, at 74, two-under women's par.

Mrs. Zaharias, who underwent a serious cancer operation in April, apparently was back on her game after a desultory performance in the All-American meet. "I'm ready to play tournament golf," said the Babe.

Conrad of San Antonio was a stroke ahead of defending Champion Frank Stranahan, seeking his fourth "World" amateur title and Ray Chamberlin.

Clinic Keeps Tugboat Busy

HOUSTON—With all the hustle and bustle of the various Texas High School Coaching Association officials, it would seem that the job of chairman of a selection committee would be a relatively simple one now that the school is in high gear.

It's anything but that, says Tugboat Jones, Midland's contribution to the affair. Tug, who is chairman of the North squad, is one of the busiest men attending the mammoth convention.

His duties require him to be a general handyman for the all-stars and Yankee Coach Dallas Ward of Colorado University.

"Everytime I check my mail box or happen to be near one of the boys, I get something else to do. Naturally, it's a pleasure to be able to serve in some capacity," Tug explained in answer to what his specific duties are.

As an example of what is keeping him so busy—surviving here and there has kept him from attending any of the lectures—Tug Thursday found in his mail box information for the boys on how to line up on the field to start Friday night's game.

To start the week, Tug Sunday introduced Coach Jess Neely of Rice—the official host—to the boys and vice-versa. Then he introduced the all-star coaches to the boys.

Again, Thursday, he found the job of reservations clerk at the bus terminal. He had to arrange for bus tickets for all the boys back to their home towns.

His duties end after the game Friday night, and Tug says he is going to highlight it immediately for his boy's camp in Colorado. Regardless of the numerous tasks, Tug has enjoyed this week.

From his attitude, he seemed to say: "Ooily, it's good to be thinking football again."

LARRY FRIDAY ... Tough task.

Fort Worth Pilot Brings Cats Win With Pinch Hits

By HARRY LINDEMAN
Associated Press Sports Writer

Fort Worth Manager Max Macon who has hit 500 as a pinch-hitter over the season put himself into the lineup Thursday night and promptly belted a ninth-inning, tying home run and a 11th inning, winning single as his Cats whipped Texas League-leading Dallas 3-2.

It was the second straight for Fort Worth over the Eagles. The third-place Cats are now six games from the top but are only two and a half lengths back of second-place Shreveport.

The reports were defeated by Beaumont 10-3 and gained no ground on Dallas, losing some of their margin to Fort Worth.

Dallas commands a lead of three and a half games over Shreveport. Oklahoma City topped Tulsa 4-3 and Houston took San Antonio 3-1.

North Puts Hopes On Fry's Passing

HOUSTON—Dallas Ward of Colorado said in Houston Thursday that he would start Friday.

That's the gist that's going the rounds as the North football all-stars prepared to take revenge for three straight lunkings at the hands of the South.

Midland's Larry Friday has a terrific burden to bear upon his wide shoulders Friday night. The subject of widespread criticism for his selection to the squad, he must make his critics eat their words.

Friday was appointed to the squad through Tugboat Jones' nomination. Jones is chairman of the North team's selection committee. The justification for Friday's selection, of course, was to have a single wing blocking back upon the single wing team.

Other Midland area lads listed as probable starters for the North are Rockie Edmon Gray of Odessa and Guard Alvin Smith of Lamesa. Of course, Ed Mike Brady and Guard Jimmy Gafford of Lubbock's state champions are on the starting array.

The North, which once held an 8-3 margin in the series, hopes to springboard back to success on the strength of Leonard Fry's passing. The Brownwood star is a prominent figure in the North's attack.

The North has the dubious advantage of being ranked as underdogs in the game. The South, with such passing stars as the fabulous Doyle Traynor of Temple and Gerald Orton of Baytown, swift runners like Jack Throckmorton of LaMarque and Connie Orr of Jefferson (San Antonio) is a heavy favorite.

Not since 1944 when Bobby Dodd of Georgia Tech turned the trick at Abilene has the single wing offensive been able to capture a victory. Last year, Dutch Meyer of TCU used the spread and won for the South.

As Coach of the South, Johnny Vaught of Mississippi has an even greater precedent to break. Never in the history of the classic has the single wing been able to win. Secondly, should the South win, it will be the first time in the history of the game that it has been ahead in the series. The South has never won when the series has been deadlocked.

This then is the setting for the nineteenth annual battle.

CHISOX COME TO TOWN—Yanks In Vital Series

By BEN PHEGAR
Associated Press Sports Writer

Mathematicians to the contrary, the New York Yankees have an opportunity this weekend to wrap up their fifth straight American League pennant.

The figure fibbers can show you this isn't so, that no matter what happens in the Yanks' four games with the Chicago White Sox starting Friday all eight teams in the league still will remain potential flag winners.

But if the Yankees should win all four those fellows with the figures are going to have a mighty hard time convincing many folks that the race isn't over.

New York led Chicago by five games going into Friday's contest. Following Saturday's doubleheader and a single game Sunday the Yankees will have 46 games left to play. The White Sox will have 44.

A nine-game lead this late in the season normally is as good as gold. A White Sox sweep on the other hand—cutting the Yankee margin to a single game—would turn it into a real dog fight.

The White Sox are bound to be the sentimental favorites the country over since they represent hope and opportunity against the long-entrenched Yankees. It might seem a lot to expect of them, or any other club, to win four in a row from the Yankees on their own home grounds. The Sox, however, have done it before. They have won their last nine at Yankee Stadium, dating back to July, 1932.

In their fiscal prep for the big series the Yankees defeated Detroit, 5-2, Thursday without much effort while the White Sox rallied for five runs in the eighth to edge Philadelphia, 6-4. Chicago has won eight out of 10 on its Eastern road trip; the Yankees have taken seven of nine on their current home stand.

Milwaukee kept alive its fleeting pennant hopes in the National League with a split against first-place Brooklyn. The Dodgers took the first game, 4-3, on Pee Wee Reese's bases-loaded single in the eleventh inning. Milwaukee won the nightcap as sub Harry Hanebrink turned Frank Merriwell and delivered a triple with two out, the bases loaded and the Braves trailing by two runs in the last of the ninth inning. The score was 3-2.

Warren Spahn, who hasn't beaten Brooklyn in two seasons, blew an early lead in the first game, was saved temporarily when Del Crandall tied the score with a home run in the eighth, and then lost as Billy Cox and Carl Erskine singled and Junior Gilliam walked prior to Reese's single.

Russ Meyer, who shut out the Braves in the first game of the series, almost saved the nightcap as he came on with two aboard and retired the next two batters in the ninth. But Sid Gordon worked him for a walk and he grooved a pitch to Hanebrink that lost the game.

In other National League action Harvey Haddix of the St. Louis Cardinals had a no-hitter going for eight innings before Philadelphia nipped him for a pair of singles in the ninth. He escaped with a 3-0 shutout, his fourteenth victory of the year. New York broke a six-game losing streak at the expense of Chicago, 12-6. Pittsburgh won its third in a row from Cincinnati, 4-3.

Ted Williams returned to the Boston Red Sox as a futile pinch-hitter as the Sox bowed to St. Louis, 8-7, in 10 innings. Bobby Young homered in the tenth. Williams, battling with two on and one out in the ninth, popped out.

Washington dumped Cleveland, 4-1, with Frank Shea winning his ninth game. Jackie Jensen collected three singles as Bobby Feller suffered his sixth loss.

The Giants came out of their slump with an eight run eighth inning that featured three-run home runs by Monte Irvin and Al Dark.

* Daddy Ringtail * Daddy Ringtail And Important Fellows

One bright and happy day, Mr. Fixit was walking along the Elephant Path, on his way to fix a window that was broken at Daddy Ringtail's monkey house. Mr. Fixit is a very little man no bigger than your thumb, and he was singing out his fix-it speech as he came walking along the Elephant Path. Said he: "I can put the feathers back on the birds. I can put the leaves on the trees of the forest. I can fix anything. I can, I can!"

The Huffen Puffen heard Mr. Fixit say it. The Huffen, that friendly wolf, stuck his head out the door of his hollow tree house. Said he: "Wait! Wait! Wait for your old friend, the Huffen Puffen!"

"Can't do it," said Mr. Fixit, and he didn't wait at all. "I have to fix a window now." "But the Huffen was thinking that he was a very important fellow, and that anyone should wait for him. "Mr. Fixit!" he shouted again. "There's a hole in my pocket, and I want you to fix it, I do!" Mr. Fixit kept on walking and didn't stop at all.

The Huffen ran after him. "It's my coat," said the Huffen. "My coat has a pocket in it, and there's a hole in the pocket that I want you to fix, I do!"

But Mr. Fixit said he was much too busy with his going to fix the window that was broken at Daddy Ringtail's monkey house. He couldn't be stopping to fix a coat with a pocket with a hole in it. He was a very important fellow, he explained, and to show you how important he was, he started to say his fix-it speech again.

But the Huffen wouldn't let him say it. It made Mr. Fixit sound too important. Said the Huffen: "I am the most important somebody there is!" And he said he would say his Huffen Puffen speech to show it. Said he: "I am, I am, and I can huff, and puff, and puff, and huff, and even blow houses in, I can."

The Huffen turned around to see what Mr. Fixit thought about this very important Huffen Puffen speech—and to see whether Mr. Fixit would fix the pocket without any more talking, but Mr. Fixit was gone on down the Elephant Path, and it happened to the Huffen because he had to do his talking about how important he was. Poor fellow! Happy day!

Army Worms Raid Hay, Feed, Lawns In Texas Sectors

By The Associated Press
Lawn blighting, pasture destroying army worms—their hordes reinforced by boll worms and leaf worms—pressed their five-week-old invasion of Texas Friday.

County agents and soil experts advised spraying with DDT in the early morning or at night, preferably at both ends.

The army worm infestation was called a "major invasion" in Grayson County in North Texas. Neighboring Fannin and Hunt Counties feared heavy damage to lawns and pastures. The army worm, a species of cutworm, also attacks small grains and hay crops, such as alfalfa.

John Lovelace of the Sherman Democrat said supply houses in Grayson County were selling out of insecticides used to combat the army worms. He said damage was believed heavy already in the area's hay crops but that cotton and sorghums were only slightly touched.

Jere Cox of the Greenville Banner said the Army worms first were discovered July 1 in Southeast Hunt County. Now, he said, they were all over the county, particularly heavy in pastures and along the creeks.

Cox said if the worms were allowed to reproduce the situation could become "very serious." He said spraying had been effective but that the Army worms were in lawns all over Greenville.

Apparently the heaviest concentrations were in Northeast Texas. Tarrant County agent Jack McCullough at Fort Worth said large numbers of boll worms were invading cotton fields in the county.

The Abilene Reporter News had no reports of Army worm infestation "of any consequence" in that West Texas area, but said serious boll worm infestations were appearing where there had been heavy mid-July rain.

Experts warned cotton men to watch for a leafworm threat. Neal Randolph, Texas A&M entomologist, said large numbers of lawns in Central Texas were badly damaged by the Army worm. He said a few fields and pastures had been cut down in spotted sections of Brazos County, but that the worm worked mostly on Bermuda grass.

No Army worms were reported in the Corpus Christi area. Because of the drought, there was nothing there for army worms to eat.

Keen was captured April 26, 1951, about 20 miles north of Seoul while fighting with the 25th Division. What about the future? "I'm going to stay in the service," Keen said.

Spreading Strike Paralyzes France

PARIS — (AP)—France's vast army of two million civil servants slapped Premier Joseph Laniel with a crippling 24-to-48 hour nation-wide general strike Friday. They demanded he cut defense costs instead of upping their retirement age and trimming their ranks.

The protest against the Premier's rumored plans for government economies was France's worst strike since the 1936 days of Socialist Leon Blum's Popular Front government.

Trains ground to a halt throughout the country. Telephones were dead. Gas flickered feebly. Garbage piled up in the streets. Non-government mine workers also joined in.

Paris buses and subways ran throughout the morning, but unions decided just before noon to call out their operators immediately. That left only taxis and private automobiles for capital riders.

The nation's business and commercial life rapidly approached paralysis. It looked like much of it would stay that way until Monday.

This was the strike picture: Postal, telegraph and telephone service—22,000 workers on indefinite strike the last two days; mail and telegrams stopped, telephone communications slashed 90 per cent.

Railroads, mines and municipal services street cleaners, garbage collectors, undertakers, etc.—on 24-hour strike until midnight Saturday; gas and electricity operating on reserves; gas pressure low and expected to drop drastically; electric power likely to decline in some sections; water pressure expected to dwindle.

Unlike most French strikes, this one was not called by the Communists but by the Socialist Labor Force (Force Ouvriere) and the Christian (Catholic) Labor Federation. The Red CGT (General Confederation of Labor) joined in happily, however.

The walkout was ordered to protest reports that Laniel's six-week-old government planned to up the retirement age for government workers from 57 to 62 and lop many employes off the public payroll.

That night while cooking supper she noticed some mosquitoes. She put the smoke bomb on the table, lit it and casually walked away.

Results—A loud wham, shattered nerves, one ruined table cloth, some broken dishes, a box of salt dropped into a pot of peas, and two padded posteriors.

Crazy Clock Holds Jubilee Each 15 Minutes; Tells Time

By RICHARD KLEINER
NEA Staff Correspondent
BROOKLYN — Around Coney Island these days, every man, woman and child is a clock watcher. That's because they've got a clock to watch that is a dilly, even for Brooklyn.

This is the Guinness Crazy Clock, or a reasonable facsimile thereof. The original is in England, where it was the hit of the Festival of Britain. A replica was built and dispatched Brooklynward as a good-will gesture, and this is the clock that is starting the main springs out of Brooklyn.

The Crazy Clock's craziest feature is its show. Every 15 minutes, it presents a four-minute theatrical performance. All sorts of things happen, including, but not limited to, the following:

An ostrich pops out of a chimney. A zookeeper springs out of a well and, for some reason, starts ringing a bell. The doors open and a bunch of toucans (fruit-eating birds of tropical America, family Ramphastidae) dance around a tree trunk. A fisherman leans out of a house and proceeds to catch four fish, which swallow each other. Marionettes revolve around the top of the clock. A Swiss music box plays Swiss music.
Return To Normalcy
After four minutes, everything stops—the ostrich goes back; ditto the zookeeper; the toucans cease dancing; the fisherman calls it a quarter-hour; the marionettes stop marionetting; and the music box calms itself.

For 11 minutes, all that happens is that time is kept. Then, off they go again. Dig that crazy clock.
The clock that will tour America cost $50,000 to build, and has an electrical engineer on 24-hour call. He's Phillip Scherer, who went to London and watched while the replica was built. Scherer knows every quirk to the Crazy Clock's make-up.

Also Tells Time
And there's plenty of complicated insides to the two-ton time-keeper. There are 14 motors, for one thing. These control the operations of the ostrich, toucans, etc., through a series of cams on the main shaft.

The whole business is made out of aluminum and nylon, since it will mostly stand out-of-doors. It's 23 feet high, 14 feet long and six feet deep. A special trailer is being built, to haul it around the country so non-Brooklynites can have a look.
There's one more thing—it keeps pretty good time.

CRAZY CLOCK, copied from original in England for U. S. tour, performs antics like this every 15 minutes, also tells time.

Flood Or Tornado Provide Tax Cuts To Those Affected

By NEA Service

Floods and tornadoes have caused millions of dollars of damage this year. You won't be thinking of taxes if your property is suddenly struck by one of the swiftly moving tornadoes or damaged by a rampaging flood. But afterwards, when the repairing and rebuilding start, it may help to know whether your loss can be used to reduce your income taxes.
Damage caused by sudden occurrence such as fire, floods or storms can be deducted by the owner regardless of whether the property is considered business property or is for the personal use of the owner. But the rules for figuring the loss differ.

How To Figure It
Here's what happens if the damaged or destroyed property is your own home, car or property for your own personal use:
First, let's assume that you keep the property and either have it repaired or left in its damaged state. You can deduct the loss (how to figure the loss is explained below) on your tax return for the year in which the damage occurred provided you do not use the tax table or take the standard deduction. In other words, you must itemize your deductions on Long Form 1040.

Standard Deduction
If, however, your property is destroyed or so damaged that you get rid of it during the year, you will ordinarily have to itemize your deductions if you want to take the loss. But if you should have gains from the sale of other property which are larger than your loss, then you can deduct the loss from your gains and still use the standard deduction or tax table on the return.

You won't be able to tell until the end of the year just how best to handle a casualty loss on your return. Now is the time, though, to jot down information you will need if you decide to deduct the loss when you fill out your return next year.

How It Works
You will need:
1. A brief description and the date of the sudden occurrence causing the damage.
2. A description of the damaged property and its location, together with a description of the damage caused by the sudden occurrence.
3. The cost of the property.
4. The fair market value of the property just before and after the casualty.
5. Any insurance or other compensation, including Red Cross aid, received.
Ordinarily, your deductible loss will be the difference between the value of your property just before and after the casualty, less any insurance or other compensation. In a few cases, however, the difference between the value of your property just before and after the casualty may be more than you paid for the property. In that case, the loss would be the cost of the property, less insurance or other compensation.

Iron Lung Mother Moved To Houston

HOUSTON — (AP) — Mrs. Edwin Boyd, 30, was in Southwest Respiratory Center Friday with polo.
Mrs. Boyd, the former Linouse Lutz of Olney, has been an iron lung patient since September and has spent her time at Wichita Falls general hospital.
She gave birth to her second child a month after she was placed in the lung. The child and Linda Key, six, are being cared for by her mother, Mrs. C. E. Lutz of Olney.
Mrs. Boyd was accompanied here Thursday in her baggage car by her husband and father, both of Olney.
"She has improved a lot in the last two months and we are hoping she will make a lot of progress here," Boyd said.

Midland Sends 55 To Methodist Meet

J. E. Redd, member of St. Mark's Methodist Church, became the fifty-fifth Midland Methodist to join the group which left Friday for the annual Laymen's Retreat at Ceta Canyon, near Amarillo.
Featured speakers at the three-day event will include the Rev. Howard H. Hblowell, pastor of the Oak Cliff Methodist Church in Dallas and former pastor of the First Methodist Church in Midland, and Don Calame, associate secretary of the General Board of Lay Activities, Chicago, Ill.
Jack W. Goddard of Midland, Big Spring District Lay Leader, is in charge of the Midland group.

Charging Bull Hurts Houston Photographer

HOUSTON — (AP) — Lou Witt, Houston Chronicle photographer, was in a hospital Friday with knee injuries, bruises and possible broken legs after an assignment.
He had just taken a picture of a Brahman steer which had escaped from a slaughter house when the animal charged. Witt was knocked against a fence.

FROM SEMINOLE
Mrs. L. T. Barry and Mrs. Carl Mueller of Seminole were visitors here Friday.
