OOC And G&M Complete Flowing Howard Discovery

Oceanic Oil Company and Charles C. Green, Jr. and Joe W. McSpadden, all of Midland, have completed their No. 1 Winans, flowing discovery from the Pennsylvanian reef lime in Northwest Howard County. The new field opened flowed 24 hours on the official Railroad Commission potential test and produced 1,763.64 barrels of oil. The flow was natural and was through a three-quarter-inch tubing choke. There was no water and flowing tubing pressure was 300 pounds. From Open Hole The production came from open hole in the Pennsylvanian reef lime. Top of the pay is at 8,140 feet. The 1 1/2-inch casing is cemented at 8,138 feet. Total depth is at 8,196 feet. This discovery is one-half of a mile south of the Vealmore town site and one and three-quarters miles west of the Vealmore (Pennsylvanian) field. The location is 680 feet from south and west lines of the northeast quarter of section 25, block 3, T-3-N, R-2-P survey. It is 18 miles north-northwest of Big Spring.

Turner, Et Al, To Drill Clear Fork Test In Howard

A. K. Turner, Jr. et al. Producing Company of Coahoma, No. 1 C. L. Jones is to be a 3,500-foot wildcat in Northwest Howard County, 19 miles northeast of Big Spring. It will be two and one-half miles south-southeast of the Coronet (2,900) field and 330 feet from north and 2,310 feet from east lines of section 34, block 26, H&TC survey. The project is to test into the Clear Fork-Permian. Drilling with rotary tools is slated to start at once.

Schermerhorn Oil Finals Yates Sand Discovery In Pecos

Schermerhorn Oil Corporation of Dallas has completed its No. 1 R. A. Montague as a Yates sand discovery in West-Central Pecos County. The well was completed to pump 104 barrels of 27-gravity oil per day. Production was through perforations from 3,065 to 3,100 feet, after fracturing with 3,000 gallons. The new pool opener is 2,850 feet from north and 330 feet from east lines of section 106 1/2, block OW and 10 miles west of the town of Fort Stockton. That makes it three and one-half miles southwest of the Fort Stockton field.

Hamon, Et Al, To Dig Devonian Wildcat At C-W Terry Site

Jake L. Hamon of Dallas and Midland and associates are to start operations immediately at their No. 2 Atlas Life Insurance Company, slated 12,750-foot Devonian wildcat in Central-West Terry County. It will be 12 miles west of the town of Brownfield and 660 feet from south and west lines of section 93, block D-11, C&MR survey. This exploration is one location southwest of Hamon and associates No. 1 Atlas Life Insurance Company. Clear Fork Discovery That project is the discovery well and lone producer in the Atlas (Clear Fork) field. It drilled into the Devonian and had a very good show for a discovery from that formation. However it drilled on down to granite and in so doing encountered a water zone. When operators tried to complete the wildcat from the Devonian they found that the water from below the pay in that formation had come up and they were unable to eliminate the water. The project then plugged back and completed as a producer from the Clear Fork pay.

Russia Urges Neutrals Join Korea Parleys

UNITED NATIONS—(AP)—Russia proposed Tuesday that the Korean peace conference be made up of five so-called neutrals plus the countries who fought. The Soviet resolution called for inclusion of the United States, Britain, France, Russia, Communist China, India, Poland, Sweden, Burma, North Korea and South Korea.

Iran's Royal Couple Joins Exile Colony

ROME—(AP)—The shah and queen of Iran's tottering Peacock Throne flew here from Baghdad Tuesday, joining Italy's growing colony of exiled royalty. "I am not going to abdicate now," the shah said. Asked if he planned to go back to Iran, the young shah replied, "Probably, but not in the immediate future." The handsome Mohammed Reza Pahlavi, 34, and his green-eyed queen, Soraya, 20, fled Tehran after a royal-backed attempt of the imperial guard to oust aging Premier Mohammed Mossadegh had been thwarted. None of the five former rulers now exiled in Italy met the royal refugees. The most noted of the royal exiles here is the shah's former brother-in-law, Farouk, of Egypt. Another is Parouk's 19-month-old son, Faud II. Other exiles are Mihail of Rumania, his mother, Helen of Greece, and Aman Ullah, former king of Afghanistan, exiled 30 years ago.

August 20 Rumored Telephone 'S-Day'

ST. LOUIS—(AP)—Federal conciliators entered contract negotiations Wednesday with 33,000 CIO employees and Southwestern Bell Telephone Company Tuesday. A union spokesman said a strike date had been set. Frank Lonergan, vice president of District 6 of the Communication Workers of America, refused to comment on a report that August 20 was "S-Day." But he did say, "The time and date have been set." A company spokesman said negotiations had "reached sort of a stalemate." The conciliators held separate preliminary conferences with the two parties Monday. The company's wage offer ranged from $1 to $250 a week. Union officials said the offer was "an average of three and a half cents an hour" and was an "insult."

Water, Sewer Line Relocation Begun

Water and sewer line relocation, made necessary by the Big Spring Street underpass project, has begun. City Manager W. H. Oswalt said Tuesday. Contractor Clyde Yarbrough of Odessa is handling the sewer construction, while Roger Smith, Waco contractor, has the water line project.

Czechs Free Edgar Sanders; Briton Speeds Toward Home

NICKELSDORF, AUSTRIA—(AP)—Edgar Sanders, British businessman jailed by Communist Hungary almost four years as a spy, crossed into Austria Tuesday a free man. The Red Hungarian government pardoned the Briton, 47, Monday night and expelled him from the country where he and American Robert Vogeler were sentenced in February, 1950, on charges of espionage and sabotage. Vogeler was released in April, 1951. Russian tanks on maneuvers and Austrian farm combines cluttered the narrow road he traveled on the Austrian side of the frontier. Sanders crossed the frontier in a car of the British Legation in Budapest. He looked pale, wore his customary glasses and a grey suit. Shortly after Sanders crossed, the Italian legation car bearing Vincenzo Sciotta, an Italian, also reached Austria. Sciotta was convicted of espionage and sentenced to four years in prison in 1951. Sciotta covered his face with his hand. Sanders, a cousin of film star George Sanders and accountant for the Budapest subsidiary of the International Telephone and Telegraph Company, and Vogeler, East European representative of IT&T, were arrested in November, 1949, and sentenced after trial the following February. Sanders was sentenced to 13 years in prison and Vogeler to 15 years.

ORANGE—(AP)—A strike which has idled about 10,000 carpenters and tied up more than 50 million dollars in construction in Orange and Jefferson Counties since July 13 appeared to be ending Tuesday as two of three local unions in the Sabine Area Council of Carpenters accepted a pay increase offer from one of two groups of struck contractors.

Solo Gunman Robs Bank Of $165,000

FLORAL PARK, N. Y.—(AP)—A daring thief grabbed a branch bank manager on the lawn of his Long Island home Tuesday and used him as a shield to get into the bank and steal more than $165,000. The bank manager was taken along in his own car as a hostage and dumped out a few miles away in a residential section of Queens, in New York city. His car was found abandoned nearby. The manager, Eric Gronewall, 44, said the husky, dark-haired young gunman may have gotten away with as much as $200,000 from the bank vault and teller's cage. The exact amount will not be known until a tally is completed of remaining funds in the bank, a branch of the Franklin National Bank. Gronewall told this story: As he left home Tuesday morning, a man stepped out of the bushes, jammed a gun in his ribs and ordered him into his car. As they drove to the bank, Gronewall said another car followed with another man in it. At the bank, the gunman forced him to open the vault, took the money and then ordered him back into the car and drove him to New York City's Queens County, where he was thrown out. Gronewall said during the ride to the bank, the gunman said sternly, "Don't you dare turn around." The gunman, about 30, dark haired and medium height, chatted as they drove along, said he had been in the Army and before that had worked in a bank, but didn't say where. He had planned while he was in the Army to rob another bank, he said, but when he got out found it had closed. Arriving at the Franklin branch in Floral Park, a prosperous Long Island community, the gunman marched Gronewall, 44, into the bank, forced him to open the vault and after taking the money marched him back to his car again. They drove to Bellmore in Queens. Gronewall was told to get out. He never got a good look at the man in the other car, he said. His own car was found a short distance away after he notified police of the holdup. Police put out an alarm for a 1947 car with two armed men in it.

Marshall Wives Lose Tax Appeal

DALLAS—(AP)—The United States Fifth Circuit Court of Appeals ruled Tuesday that the Marshall wives must pay social security taxes on their servants pay, the Times Herald said. They had refused and sued. The opinion was handed down in a case in which Mrs. Carolyn Abney and her husband brought suit seeking the refund of $12.57 which the government seized after they refused to pay the taxes. They appealed a ruling of Federal Judge William Atwell in Dallas June 30, 1952.

Draft Board Sends 10 Into Military

Ten men, four of them volunteers, having been inducted through Midland's local Selective Service Board No. 137, left Midland Tuesday for Abilene, where they will be assigned training bases. The four who volunteered are George Laird, Marshall Meeks, Monte Joe Bradley, and Franklin Castleberry, all of Midland. Others included Lloyd Griffin, Richard Koch, Leo Hatfield and Charles Lineberger, all of Midland; Henry Bliznak, Jr., Sterling City, and Edward Swinson, Tulsa, Okla. All will serve at least two years, said Mrs. Nell Roberts, clerk.

Four-Year Vigil Ends For Family

LONDON—(AP)—Almost four years of anxious waiting ended Tuesday for the 45-year-old wife and three pretty daughters of Edgar Sanders, British businessman pardoned by Hungary's Communist government. "It's wonderful," Mrs. Winifred Sanders cried at her home in the East Coast resort of Frinton as she heard the news by phone that her husband had left a Red prison after almost four years there. "We have been hoping so long that it's difficult to know what to say now it has come true," she added.

Mashburn Condition Described As Fair

Jack Mashburn, dean of students at Midland High School, was reported in "fair condition" Tuesday by officials of Weld County Hospital, Greeley, Colo., where he was hospitalized last week after a severe heart seizure. Mashburn, however, remained on the critical list.

75 More GI's Stream Back To Freedom

PANMUNJOM—(AP)—Seventy-five more Americans streamed back to freedom Tuesday as the great Korean war prisoners exchange entered its third week. Besides the Americans, the Reds turned back 75 British and 300 South Koreans—50 more than the 400 daily the Reds originally promised.

Again Wednesday, the Communists planned to step up deliveries. They said they would return 456 Allied captives—75 Americans, 75 British and 306 South Koreans. It will be the largest single group returned. In 14 days, the Reds have returned 1,106 of the 3,313 Americans they claim they held, a figure far less percentage-wise than the number of British—570 of 921—returned. Brig. Gen. Ralph Osborne, chief of the Munsan Provisional Command, said the number of Americans repatriated probably will increase when the Reds start emptying the next prison camp. Several liberated Americans said they believed the next POW's would come from Camp No. 3 at Chong-sung. One prisoner estimated it holds 200 to 300 Americans captured in the early months of fighting. Two days of bad weather, the UN Command reported, prevented shipment of Red prisoners from Koje Island to Panmunjom and will cut deliveries to 600 North Koreans Wednesday and none on Thursday. The daily average had been about 2,400. The UN Command said it hoped to resume regular schedules Friday or Saturday. Tuesday's liberated Americans and British came back smiling, but their gaunt bodies showed the effects of months in North Korean stockades.

Boy Hit By Auto In Driveway Here

Donald Gerald Forrest, three-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Forrest, 2705 West Kentucky Street, was admitted to Midland Memorial Hospital Tuesday, having been injured in a traffic mishap near his home. The boy apparently ran into the driveway of a next door residence and was struck by an automobile driven by Mrs. Paul Hickey, 2707 West Kentucky Street. Mrs. Hickey, backing the car out of the driveway, said she thought the way had been cleared. The accident occurred about 10 a.m. An attending physician said that the child suffered bruise burns of the face, chest and shoulder, and apparently is not in serious condition. X-rays were to be made Tuesday afternoon.

Churchill Resumes Duties Unexpectedly

LONDON—(AP)—Prime Minister Churchill turned up unexpectedly Tuesday at No. 10 Downing Street, his official London residence, and called a cabinet meeting for Tuesday night. SALT LAKE CITY—(AP)—Foliceman Dick Hoagland, returning from a police call, spotted a skunk in an apartment hallway. Hoagland snared the animal. The skunk wrenched loose and ran into an apartment, where Hoagland cornered it a second time. That's when he learned the skunk was wild, not a pet. Hoagland said Tuesday he has a uniform for sale—cheap.

Edward J. Flynn, 61, Former National Democratic Chairman, Dies In Ireland

DUBLIN—(AP)—Edward J. Flynn, 61, former national chairman of the U. S. Democratic Party, died here Monday night. Many gave him credit, together with James A. Farley, for winning Franklin D. Roosevelt the presidential nomination in 1932. The cause of death was not made known. He had been ailing some time. His condition worsened while on vacation here. He sailed from New York for Ireland July 25 aboard the Mauretania. He went aboard the liner in a wheelchair. His wife and daughter, Sheila, 17, sailed with him. The Flynn's were staying here at the home of Chief Justice Connor Maguire, long a close friend. Flynn's long political career hit its high spot in 1932, when he was a key figure at the Democratic convention. With Farley, he was credited with getting the nomination for Roosevelt despite the opposition of Tammany Hall. He succeeded Farley as Democratic national chairman in 1940 and directed the President's precedent shattering and successful third term campaign. Flynn currently was pitting his strength against the reelection bid of Mayor Vincent Impellitteri. Flynn and Tammany Hall Leader Carmine de Sapio backed Robert Wagner, son of the late U. S. senator, for mayor. Three other county leaders backed Impellitteri in the September 15 primary. Flynn entered politics in 1917 at 26 as a member of the New York Assembly. He had four terms there and four years as sheriff of the Bronx. When Roosevelt was governor of New York state, he named Flynn secretary of state. He frequently was the target of sharp criticism. When Thomas E. Dewey was running for governor in 1938, he said Flynn, while sheriff, appointed Arthur (Dutch Schultz) Flegenheimer, a notorious underworld character, as a deputy sheriff. Flynn accused Dewey of "half truths" and asserted Schultz was appointed a deputy sheriff before he was known as a racketeer and the badge was confiscated after six months. The Dutch Schultz appointment and a charge that he used city employees and material to pave the antique Belgian courtyard of his Lake Mahopac, N. Y., country home were used against him by Republicans in opposing his confirmation as U. S. ambassador to Australia. Flynn finally asked Roosevelt to withdraw his name. The widow and three children survive.

Fathers or expectant fathers must file an affidavit from their doctor (or some other proof of parenthood) on or before midnight August 24 to be classified in 3-A. After that, fathers no longer will be eligible for deferment because of dependency.

Redmon was driving the loaded coal truck across the span when it collapsed; the passenger car, coming in the other direction, stopped abruptly at the collapsed section, teetered momentarily and then plunged into the river.

MOVIES - TV - RADIO
by Erskine Johnson

Behind the Screen: Guy Madison, who will emerge as one of the year's top box-office stars when the take for "The Charge at Feather River" is counted, owes his comeback as a movie king to the nine-year-old daughter of a movie executive.

No matter what you've heard before, here's the real story: The young daughter of Warner executive Steve Trilling is Guy's greatest fan and never missed an installment of "Wild Bill Hickok" on television. One Sunday she insisted that her father watch the program with her.

"I'm busy, darling," said Trilling. "Please," begged the child. Trilling decided to humor her and sat down in front of the TV set. As he watched Guy, he realized that the young actor who had risen to stardom after playing a bit role in David O. Selznick's "I'll Be Seeing You" and had plunged into obscurity after a stungon push finally had matured as an actor in video.

He obtained 16-mm. prints of the TV show and two others in the television series, and set up an appointment for Jack Warner to see the picture in a studio projection room.

The result: Guy's return to movie big-time, his current assignment in a new Warner flicker, "Rear Guard," and a contract for three more westerns.

Behind the camera dialog reported from Denver, Colo., where U-I is filming "The Glenn Miller Story":

Woman: "What in the world are these people doing?"

Man: "I've never seen such a thing before. What's it like?"

Man: "Well you've seen television, haven't you?"

Woman: "I certainly have."

Man: "Well, this is television on an open-air screen."

Looks like a gill-gilded career for Maureen O'Hara's handsome brother, Charles Fitz-Simons. His agent is about to wrap up a couple of big movie roles.

Katherine DeMille, on the mend after serious surgery, will join Anthony Quinn in Rome late this month. And that ought to stop the rift rumors.

Lena Horne's daughter, now as tall as her famous mother, shows signs of developing into a real beauty.

Some theaters, playing the re-release of "Trader Horn" bill Duncan Renaldo as the star of TV's "Cisco Kid." Hollywood economic note: One of the "flouziest" enterprises in movietown will do an el foldio if the owner can't sell the place. Stars no longer can afford the steep prices and those who can are complaining about the tourists who are being allowed to enter the premises.

Don't blame Hollywood if you've seen 3-D movies that are out of focus or fuzzy. Twenty-five per cent of theaters showing depthies, it's said, are having faulty projection characterized as "growing pains."

Robert Q. Lewis about Las Vegas: "They even have a crap game going at the poorhouse—which gives you an idea of how rich the poor people in Las Vegas really are."

Eddie Cantor has signed Billy Daniels, who does the brilliant choreography and dancing on Cantor's "Comedy Hour" stanzas, to a long-term contract.

Agnes Moorehead's mother, who underwent surgery for the third time in Wisconsin, is on the road to recovery.

Suzan Zanuck will make a movie for another studio—not Papa Darryl's 20th Century-Fox plant—and tells it: "You know how these things are, I can't give out the name of the picture. But it will happen in another month."

Paulette Goddard's reasons for stopping in Amsterdam before going to Switzerland to be within yodelling distance of Erich Maria Ramarque's chalet: To sell some of her old masters. She needs the money... Wildest party in Hollywood in many a moon was the Laurel Canyon shindig tossed for Katharine Dunham and her dancing troupe... Columbia won't sell "Frontier," the screenplay based on "Frank Harris' "Reminiscence of a Cowboy" to MGM or any other studio. Reason: Spencer Tracy is yelling at MGM for a loan-out to Columbia to do the picture. The role originally was set for the late Walter Huston.

The Gene Barry-Rosemary Clooney vendetta may be over, but another feud between Director Mitch Leisen and Producer Pat Duggan that started during the first shooting days of Paramount's "Red Garters" is still on. George Marshall replaced Leisen on the picture after the first few days.

Chuck Miller says a new wide-screen process is so wide the villain falls out of the screen and into the lobby every time he shot.

Children Like Chores When Mom Joins In

By KAY SHEERWOOD
NEA Staff Writer

Children and chores—both are very much with us in late Summer. The novelty of no-school freedom has worn off. Little playmates vanish on vacations. Youngsters restlessly ask what to do with the time on their hands. Meanwhile, mom is hustling harder than ever to keep up with routine chores and the ripening harvest of vegetables and fruits to be canned and frozen.

Perhaps, suggests consulting psychologist Peter Siegle, the best way to handle the situation is to put children and chores together.

"You'll be doing the children a favor," he told me. His many community studies have convinced him that children enjoy the responsibility and sense of accomplishment of completing a household chore.

I pricked up my ears because Mary has been standing around sucking her thumb lately.

But, I learned, there's a big if in his suggestion. If chores are geared to ages and abilities. If the job can be completed in a short time. If parents lead by persuasion and cooperation, not dictatorial demands. If rewards are lavish praise.

If leisure gained is spent in family play. Then the idea works to everybody's advantage.

What chores can a child do? Preschoolers have an eagle eye for scraps of paper on the floor. Mary enjoys sorting white from colored clothes and counting out three sheets to a load. A clothesline-strung within reach makes hanging up the socks and hankies her project.

Fifteen Attend Training Course

Fifteen persons attended the initial session of the Training Course for Girl Scout Leaders Monday when it met in the Little House.

Deryl Bishop, Girl Scout field director, conducted the program on "What Does Our Community Expect From Day Camp?" She also took up the question of what Day Camp means to the children and to their parents.

The course is being offered particularly for the purpose of training leaders for the Day Camp which will open Monday. The course will be continued from 9 to 11:30 a.m. Wednesday and Friday, respectively.

It was announced 113 girls have signed up so far for the Day Camp. Rally Day will be held Thursday to give more girls an opportunity to register.

The camp will be open to any girl, whether she is a Scout or not, upon payment of $1 entrance fee. Buses will leave the Little House at 8 a.m. enroute to the camp and will return at 1 p.m. after the daily sessions are over.

Procedure Course To Open Wednesday

The first session of the two-day Parent-Teacher Procedure Course will be held from 10 a.m. until 3 p.m. Wednesday in the Sam Houston Elementary School.

The second session will be held at the same time August 26, Mrs. J. J. Black, president of the High School Parent-Teacher Association and immediate past president of the P-TA's Sixteenth District, will be the director. Consultants will be Mrs. T. J. Smith and Mrs. Stanley Erskine.

Lunch will be served at the cafeteria, and a nursery will be provided.

Members of the planning committee are Mrs. Waldo Leggett, P-TA Council procedure chairman, and Mrs. Ed Smith, education for family living chairman, P-TA council.

Luncheon Honors Bride-Elect

Mrs. Martin Neill and Jane Neill were co-hostesses Saturday at a luncheon for Mary Jane Neill, bride-elect of Joe R. Cochran, Jr.

The party was held in Mrs. Martin Neill's home at 400 Sunset Boulevard. Decorations featured the bride-elect's chosen colors of aqua and yellow.

The honoree is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Neill, 2617 Delano Street. Parents of the prospective bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. Joe R. Cochran, Sr., of Fort Worth. The couple plans to be married August 28 in the First Presbyterian Church in Midland.

Guests at the luncheon, in addition to the honoree and her mother, were Marjorie Cramer, Shirley Harrison, Marjorie Forrest, Mrs. Ernest Neill, Margie Neill, Sue Johnson, Suzanne Young, Mary Jo Hejl and Iris Neill.

Manners MAKE FRIENDS

Mrs. Brown was entertaining her sewing circle with tales of her newly-married daughter's run-ins with her mother-in-law. She had an interested audience, all right. But it's a pity she doesn't know that it's poor taste for a mother to broadcast the personal problems of her children.

Her audience listens to her, but doesn't admire her.

RETURN FROM VISIT

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Dawson and children have returned to Midland after a visit in Greenville. They were accompanied home by Mrs. Dawson's father, Al H. Birdsongs.

Strike Talk Swells As East Texas Bell Walkout Continues

By The Associated Press
Around 1,000 telephone workers stayed off the job again Tuesday in the Beaumont area. No progress was reported in a meeting of company and union officials.

Early Scruggs, company official at Houston said he expects the next conference would be on the state level in Dallas.

The CIO Communication Workers of America would have to request such a meeting, he said.

The dispute over Southwestern Bell Telephone Company's hiring of an employee in Port Arthur began last week.

Port Arthur employees struck Friday and were joined Saturday by 400 Beaumont workers and others at Orange, Nederland, Port Neches, Liberty, Silsbee and Jasper in sympathy with the Port Arthur union members.

Supervisors were handling long distance calls.

The public, management and at least some segments of the union wondered what would happen next in negotiations on a new contract between CWA-CIO and Southwestern Bell.

The contract talks have been on since June 3.

Strike talk was rampant in the big exchanges in Dallas.

Reds Produce Own Variety Of Prisoner Horror Tales

TOKYO—(AP)—Communist propagandists are turning out an array of Red brutality and mistreatment told by American prisoners repatriated at Pannumun.

The Peiping radio has broadcast a batch of agony yarns about Communist prisoners. One heard here Tuesday by The Associated Press charged that the UN Prisoner of War Command fed a North Korean captive to a couple of hungry bloodhounds.

The Red radio quoted a repatriated North Korean, Cha Dong Hwan, as saying a fellow prisoner on Kojedo Island was caught by the camp guard drawing the Korean Communist flag on a wall.

He was stripped by the Americans of all his clothes and thrown into a pit surrounded by a barbed wire fence seven meters high. The Americans then let in two bloodhounds to attack Mu Ki Na. Mu screamed in death agony as piece after piece of his flesh was bitten off by the ferocious animals. He died a virtual bleeding skeleton and the pit was soaked with his blood.

The Red radio continued "All this time Cha Dong Hwan was only a short distance away from this ghastly scene. He began cursing loudly and was shot in both legs by an American guard. He came back today—a crippled man."

The Communists told too, of "another martyr" on Kojedo. This one was named Bak Kim Son, who was elected by the prisoners to announce to the camp authorities their determination to return to their motherland in July of last year.

"He was hanged," the Red radio said. "His dead body remained on the scaffold for three days. The killers wrote on his back—This is the fate of those who want to return to North Korea."

Annulment Cancels 10-Year-Marriage

BALTIMORE—(AP)—The 10-year marriage of the parents of five children has been annulled.

The marriage of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Robbins of Baltimore was annulled Monday on grounds Mrs. Robbins was not divorced at the time she married her second husband.

Judge S. Ralph Warnken awarded custody of the three boys, three, four and eight years old, to the father. Custody of the two girls, one and seven, went to the mother.

The husband sought the annulment.

To protect the five children, Judge Warnken declared them legitimate.

Leaking Chlorine Gas Sickens 36

PUSAN—(AP)—Thirty-six persons suffered gas poisoning Monday night when a supposedly empty cylinder leaked chlorine into the holds and engine room of the American freighter Sea Coronet in Pusan harbor.

The 36, including 15 crew members, 20 Korean dock workers and an American soldier, were released from hospitals after treatment.

Maj. Charles W. Dutreau of Oklahoma City, port chemical officer, closed off the cylinder.

Escape From Communist Hell Hole Brings Stretch In Pit For Noel, Pal

Editor's Note—Frank Noel, AP photographer and Pulitzer Prize winner in 1943, came back from more than 32 months in a Communist prison camp August 9. In this second of a series of three stories, he tells of the thwarted plan of an American pilot with whom he escaped to steal a Russian-made MIG-15 jet fighter and fly it to an American base.

By FRANK NOEL
As told to Olen Clements
TOKYO —(AP)— In the minds of prisoners—whether it is Leavenworth or a Communist hole in North Korea—escape always is running through your mind.

Four times I planned to escape. Once I did.

It was with a pilot, Capt. Zachary Dean of Kansas. It happened in August, 1951.

I had been a prisoner of the Communist then almost a year. Dean, an F-51 pilot, was shot down in April, 1951. He was a bridegroom of six days.

Dean, a lanky Kansan with the guts of a lion, wanted to steal a MIG-15 and fly it back to an airfield in South Korea. Being Air Force he knew how much those things were worth. So we planned to swim the Yalu, sneak down around Antung, Manchuria, lie up around the airport a few days, and watch the Chinese security guards. Eventually he planned to snatch a hot jet and fly it away.

Three Plan Break
I was going to steal a fishing boat or bribe or clobber somebody and get out the best way I could.

There were three of us involved in the escape plot.

We began to connive, scrape food bowls for leftovers and horde up everything we could lay hands on that we could eat or use for trading or bribery.

Communists are easy to bribe.
We knew the route from the camp we were going to take. It was through a corn patch. But the corn wasn't high enough. So we watched that corn grow, kept an eye on the moon and bided our time.

One stormy night looked like the night. We were ready.

The third man had just come down with yellow jaundice.
Dean and I decided to go it alone. That is not good because in that country you might sprain an ankle tripping over undergrowth. It is best that three men go together just in case of illness, injury or to keep watch while the other two slept.

But Dean and I were eager.
We sneaked out into that corn patch.

We had all our possessions—Dean's wrist watch, two or three fountain pens, about $10 in greenbacks I had borrowed from Turkish prisoners, a straight razor Dean had stolen from the company barber shop, a Boy Scout knife I had, a couple of rocks and the cover for a sleeping bag which we were going to use for a sail on any small boat we might steal.

Night Blindness
We got through that corn patch all right. Then we hit a wood and tripped over the undergrowth and I slid down an embankment that left my derrier bare. I think it was an open grave the Reds had dug. We floundered around there and got going again.

It was black a pitch. We didn't know it but we had night blindness due to a lack of vitamins. We stumbled and pretty soon we came to a little opening. Blindly I walked on, fell over a fence and right into a pig sty.

Well, that pig wanted no human company. He squealed and mouthed around there until he woke up the Korean farmer. The farmer poked his head out of a window, a cigarette glowing, but he never did come out.

We held our breath.
Nothing happened. We would have killed that pig if we had a weapon.

The rain was beating down on those corn stalk leaves, making a sound that is conducive to sleep. That lulled the pig and that North Korean. The pig quit squealing. The Korean quit smoking. Dean and I stole silently away.

First Long Mile
It took us most all night but we swam the half-mile-wide lake and got over on the other side of it. Probably all night long we walked. Yet we didn't make more than a mile from the camp. But we had the lake between us and the camp.

It was raining and we were wringing wet.
We were heading for the Yalu, going to swim across.

Trails in that country all have security guards on them. We traveled only at night, of course, and we couldn't see much on account of this lack of vitamins. We almost bumped into two or three guard huts but escaped.

That night we had a talk.
Dean said:

"I'm going to steal a MIG. MIGs cannot carry any passengers. And I'll have to go it alone. What are you going to do?"

I said:
"I'll stick with you until you take off then I'll go on down the coast, steal a boat, bribe a fisherman or something and try to make it south of the 38th Parallel or hit an Allied carrier or something out in the Yellow Sea and go aboard it."

Miserable, But Free
We decided we would stick together until the MIG stealing because you can never tell, a guy might get sick, break a leg tripping around at night like that or something. You know how it is.

Our tobacco was wet. The book Dean brought along so we could tear the pages out of it to roll cigarettes was all wet.

We were miserable.
But we were free.

That night we stumbled right into a Korean road block.
There were a couple of guards in the hut and they heard us. They stumbled into in their underwear, carrying those bamboo pike spears of theirs and making a lot of noise because they were scared. Like a couple of schoolboys in a graveyard at night.

They looked around, went back into the hut and closed the hut door.

Dean and I took off in high gear. We jumped in behind a high clay embankment facing the lane. Ten or 15 minutes later the Koreans came yak-yaking down the road.

We were trying to roll cigarettes and were not paying any attention to the noise the Koreans were making coming down the road. They were scared of their own shadows, and we knew it.

We just shut down everything. They walked right past us. Their wet tennis shoes squeaked.

Jaundice Strikes
Then we sneaked up on a hill, hid in some bushes all day, because we knew we had been detected.

It was good and dark when we stirred. Only Dean had a watch.
Dean began to get sick. His back hurt. There was a swelling in his groins. It was jaundice. Dean had. There was no mistake.

Dean was very sick.
"I can't go any farther," he said. "We've got to find a hiding place for a couple of days."

We had to find a place to hide.
We were on a high hill. The clouds went floating by.

Finally we saw a cowshed and crawled in there. Dean felt bad. He wanted to smoke and so did I.

We had been three days and nights in a torrential rain. We were cold. We wanted warm food. We saw the farm compound.

We decided we'd take a chance. Maybe they wouldn't turn us in. Dean could get two or three days rest.

Fatal Mistake
We made a mistake.
There were about seven families in it. That's where your communism comes in. One of them turned us in. We'd taken a long shot and lost.

They did give us warm food, kindness, dry tobacco. Then the inhumanity of communism reared its ugly head. They had to tell the restapo. Too many people had seen us.

It was that old snitch government, that shotgun diplomacy again. The Koreans could not trust their fellow Communists. Somebody had to report us, we knew. So we started to leave.

We got out on the road. We didn't know it but we were only six kilometers from the Yalu. We knew its direction and we started that way. These Koreans said we should go the other way.

We said we are going our way.
Dean offered them his watch. They grabbed us.

Dean was much taller so two of the three men who were trying to detain us grabbed him and one grabbed me on the left shoulder.

I grabbed his thumb and doubled it up. It must have hurt him to his elbow. He was at my mercy.

Dean whipped out this razor he stole from the company barber and he made a couple of swipes at his two tormentors. They retreated to the embankment.

Found By Children
Dean who was free, said:
"What the hell are we going to do?"

I said:
"Let's get over in that cornfield and fight them if they find us."

So we made a couple of "S" turns and dived into that cornfield and under some climbing bean vines the Koreans always have in their cornfields. We lay there in the mud for about an hour.

Then they found us. The kids found us.
They turned about 50 boys between 10 and 12 loose to look for us. They found us and raised hell.

We were captured by a bunch of kids. We didn't want to kick their little teeth out.

Then the grown folks moved in. They bound our arms behind us and bound us together with ropes. Dean told them he'd give them his watch. If we had had two, we'd have been free.

When we walked, we almost goose-stepped. We must have looked ridiculous.

Then Dean broke out with dysentery. It was bad.

Tied Together
There we were tied together.
They never let us loose until we got back to the camp.

Then they threw us in the hole—Dean for two months. I got six.

Neither of us served the full sentence but the Communists never let us forget that we still had part of our sentence hanging over our heads.

Dean served about 32 days in that hole—an abandoned, uncleaned latrine.

I served about 42 days, because Dean's sentence originally was shorter than mine, in a better hole which was not a latrine. But it stank.

They gave us flea-laden uniforms and those fleas hit us like they had fish hooks for snootles. It was bad.

But we were lucky. We thought we'd be shot.
One thing I'm pretty proud of

Rhee Offers Gift To U. S. Children

WASHINGTON —(AP)— Syngman Rhee, 78-year-old President of South Korea, is making a gift to the children of the United States—two bear cubs.
The cubs, caught by soldiers of the Korean 1st Army Corps and kept as pets on the presidential grounds at Seoul, are to go to the Washington Zoo.
Rhee offered the cubs, on behalf of the children of Korea, during the recent visit to Seoul of Secretary of State Dulles. A State Department spokesman said the Air Force would fly them here.

was when those sentences were pronounced.
There was a small (maybe I imagined this) but it seemed a very small amount of applause rose from the 1,600 men in Camp 5.

There was complete silence from the officers.
I was a prize reactionary.

But when I hit the hole, and I shall be ever grateful for this, the officers, with whom I had been quartered, sent a petition to the Reds saying that I was down to 125 pounds and they did not think I could survive a six-month sentence in the hole.

Well after that the Communists would bring me out of the hole, in which neither of us could stand up, lie down or relax, and they suggested that I write to my correspondent friends at Panmunjon and my newspaper friends, including some publishers in the United States.

They put 60-watt lights in my face. They wanted strictly favorable propaganda. That is communism.

The pearl is the only precious stone to come from the sea and the only one produced by a living process.

THIS TRIP IS NECESSARY

THE ONLY WAY that natural gas service can be maintained is for new supplies to be discovered to replace gas now being consumed. And the only way that gas can be discovered is to drill for it.

Pushing pipe a mile or more into the ground is hard, expensive work. The men who do the drilling (they call themselves "roughnecks") refer to the lifting and lowering of drill pipe as "making a trip."

It costs $100,000 or more to drill down a mile. Sometimes gas is found. But, based on the national record of exploration for oil and gas, an average of eight dry holes are drilled before one producer is completed. To find gas, you have to keep trying. This type of trip is costly, risky, but necessary for your service.

Democrats Dispute Republican Claims

WASHINGTON—(AP)—A Republican claim that the GOP will strengthen its control of the House next year brought a Democratic retort Tuesday that it's too early to make predictions on the outcome of the 1954 voting.

Democrats are counting heavily on tradition to recapture House control in November, 1954. Tradition says that the party in power loses seats in an off-year election, in which there is no presidential contest.

Only once in modern times, in 1934, did the voting deviate from that tradition.

Right now Democrats trail Republicans in the House by six seats. Rep. Richard M. Simpson (R-Pa.), who is chairman of the Republican Congressional Committee, has the job of directing the GOP's bid for continued control of the House, claims Republicans will pick up 25 more seats next year.

He conceded, in an interview, the possibility of some Republican losses but said there would not be enough to change the balance of power.

Simpson said about 15 present Republican seats might be called "shaky." These include seats in which the Republican margin of victory last year was five per cent or less.

Simpson's Democratic counterpart, Rep. Mike Kirwan of Ohio, chairman of the Democratic Congressional Committee, wasn't available for comment but his top political aide, Victor Hunt Harding, said:

"I am making no predictions at this time. It's too early to make predictions on an election more than a year away."

Other Democratic strategists claim that preliminary reports indicate President Eisenhower, while still popular with the voters, isn't as strong as he was a year ago.

Louisiana To Aid In Tidelands Fight

BATON ROUGE—(AP)—Attorney General Fred LeBlanc said Louisiana will cooperate with Texas and California in helping the federal government fight a Tidelands fight. LeBlanc said the attorneys general of the three states met with U. S. Attorney General Brownell this month and pledged him their assistance.

"Mr. Brownell appeared to be highly pleased by this offer," LeBlanc said. "My staff and I are giving the constitutional issue very close study and we hope to have a memorandum in the hands of the attorney general of the United States in a very short time."

The suit attacking the act was filed by Arkansas. The suit attacked the constitutionality of the act restoring to the states the rights in the offshore oil lands.

Hopalong Calls Ike's Young Pal

DENVER—(AP)—Six-year-old Paul Haley, who physicians fear will die shortly of cancer, is getting chummy with all his heroes.

He had a telephone call from Hopalong Cassidy in Hollywood Monday night, little more than 24 hours after President Eisenhower paid him a personal visit.

His mother had been tipped off in advance, but the call came as a surprise to Paul.

Paul listened incredulously, then smiled broadly and talked five minutes to Hoppy, who's actor William Boyd in private life.

ATOMIC COOK KEEPS SECRET

FREEDOM VILLAGE, KOREA—(AP)—Cpl. Harold E. Humphreys figured his Communist captors would decide he knew all about the atomic bomb if he told them he once worked in a restaurant inside an A-bomb reservation. So he kept his mouth shut.

"I knew I'd be in for a rough time," Humphreys, of Harriman, Tennessee, said Tuesday following his release at Panmunjom.

Byrd Says Solvency Of U. S. In Danger If Debt Limit Rises

WASHINGTON—(AP)—Senator Byrd (D-Va.) said Tuesday he regards the controversy over lifting the ceiling on the national debt as "one of the milestones in the preservation of the solvency of our government."

"If we increase the debt limit now to 290,000,000,000 it will reach that and then go to 300,000,000,000 and then over the precipice of financial disaster," Byrd said in a copy-righted interview with the U. S. News and World Report.

"I feel it is vitally important not to exceed the present debt limit because I think if we do we will go to greater expenditures and greater deficits."

"If we can retain this present debt ceiling, there is some hope of balancing the budget. But if we keep on borrowing the money, there's no hope at all."

Byrd was one of the 11-4 majority of the Senate Finance Committee which voted down President Eisenhower's request to Congress to hike the legal debt limit from $275,000,000,000 to $290,000,000,000. The debt now is about $212,500,000,000.

Byrd said he saw no reason why the Administration can't manage its fiscal affairs so as to avoid having to raise the debt ceiling.

Kansan Asks Court Set Aside Lawsuit For Campaign Bill

WICHITA, KAN.—(AP)—U. S. Senator Carlson (R-Kan.) has asked district court to set aside a $50,000 damage action suit against persons in charge of the Eisenhower-for-President campaign last year.

The action was filed by Duke Andrews, leader of a choral group known as Duke's Quintet. Andrews contended Carlson engaged the quintet for the campaign and indicated it would be paid. He charged Carlson and other members of the Republican Party organization have failed to acknowledge repeated requests for payment.

A motion to quash the action filed Monday contended Carlson is a resident of Cloud County, Kan., and that the district court here—in Sedgewick County—has no jurisdiction.

Police Called To Put Down Indiana Bell Strike Riots

INDIANAPOLIS—(AP)—Indiana state police were ready to protect workers in the reopened Clinton telephone exchange Tuesday and the Indiana National Guard was alerted to move against any further violence in the Indiana Bell Telephone strike.

A cable cutting left Munice with most teletype and long distance service dead. It was the second time that city of 60,000 had been isolated by a severed cable, and it occurred just after a power failure had blacked out three-fourths of the city.

Several more persons were arrested after incidents on tense picket lines. The strike by the CIO Communications Workers of America was in its twenty-eighth day.

Gov. George N. Craig sent state police to Clinton Monday afternoon to escort workers into the telephone building. Service in the Western Indiana city of 6,000 had been shut down for the second time during the strike. Clinton does not have dial service.

The city was quiet as the state officers led workers and supervisors into the building and remained on guard. The building still had broken windows and light bulbs from a disorder Saturday.

E. R. Moore, head of the company's engineering department in Clinton, said he believed the damage was caused by young hoodlums not by strikers.

At Kokomo, seven girl pickets were charged with assault and battery after a fight outside the exchange in which a nonstriking operator said her clothing was torn.

Company spokesmen said chains and barricades which had been used to bar nonstrikers from leaving the Kokomo building had been removed.

At Evansville, a 27-year-old striking operator was charged with disorderly conduct, accused of hitting a temporary operator.

The CWA is on strike at Indiana Bell's 22 exchanges seeking higher wages and a contract to replace one that expired June 2.

New Rules Restrict Free Dental Service For Many Veterans

WASHINGTON—(AP)—Thousands of veterans who have been promised free dental treatment by the Veterans Administration aren't going to get it.

This was disclosed Tuesday by a VA official who asked not to be named as the VA announced new, stricter rules for giving dental treatment to veterans.

Under the new rules, a veteran may get treatment for dental trouble he can trace directly to his military service or found to be aggravating a disability he received in service.

Under the old rules, he could also get free treatment if he could trace his dental trouble to a condition which showed up within a year after he left the service.

At the direction of Congress, the VA must apply the new rules to a backlog of 250,000 veterans who already have been promised treatment under the old rules, but who did not receive treatment because the VA didn't have enough money.

The VA estimated that about 80 per cent of the 5,000 veterans will be found ineligible for treatment under the new rules. Ineligibles will be notified.

Tierney originally was charged with felonious assault. This later was reduced to simple assault.

Ralph Blair, the Sooner State right-hander leaving Midland for the first time in four years of professional baseball, might find his change to Plainview — due to be made Tuesday—the right antidote.

BIG HORSE—Tom Fool, above, the handiwork of Ted Atkinson up, is expected to put Native Dancer, the three-year-old champion, to his greatest test in the Sysonby Mile at Belmont Park, September 26.

TEN GETS AROUND WELL
Izzy Ten, who'll be a teammate of Blair's now, found new parks to his liking this year—three times in fact. He won his first trial when he joined Lamson in April, also his first game with Abilene in June and only last week won a four-hitter in his first effort with Plainview.

PENN AT IRAN
PERSONALS—O. C. Penn, the ever-lauding ex-Midwestern University griddy who taught and coached three years at San Jacinto Junior High, departed Monday for Iran and his new line coaching duties under Charles Kitchens at the high school there. He had been reported in The Reporter-Telegram as headed for a coaching post at Monahan, in error.

And another departure, all-American cager Gerald Tucker of last year's Phillips 66 squad here, is now at work with the Bartlesville, Okla., home office. He becomes assistant basketball coach with National Industrial League Oilers when cage season opens and after his apprenticeship will take the top coaching job in "66."

INDIAN CAR PARTING
Jim Carson, the Odessa lefty whom Shreveport bought and shipped to Clovis in time to twirl a two-hitter just last week, won't be long out of West Texas. He's rushing right back for Fall work in the Ector County capital as soon as baseball season is over.

Hicks Qualifies For Dash Finals

Midland's junior cinderman, who had to unravel a maze to find a sponsor for the trip to Houston for the Junior Olympic track meet, highailed it early Monday morning for the coastal city when they discovered that some of the preliminaries were being held that night.

Wait Davis, Olympic high jump champion, failed in three tries to set a new world's mark of seven feet. Davis holds the world's high jump record with a leap of six feet, 11 1/2 inches. His best last night was six feet, 11 inches.

Lufkin Bumps McCamey Out Of Regionals

AUSTIN—A crew of Lufkin Little League who looked like a junior edition of the Yankees' Murderers Row of the 1930's thrashed a luckless McCamey crew here Monday night, 20-0.

The game, which was played in Austin's Shippe Field, was a strong indication that whoever wins Tuesday night's match between Little Rock, Ark., and West Side of Corpus Christi will face a rugged, uphill road if it plans to win the Region 7 title and go to the Little League World Series at Williamsport, Pa.

The Lufkin youngsters won the first game in the regional contest simply by being superb in every category: pitching, hitting and fielding.

Pitcher David Skinner struck out 15 of the McCamey team, and didn't walk a man. The Lufkin team also collected 13 hits, including four home runs, and didn't make a single error.

This was in sharp contrast to the usually sound McCamey team, which nervously made three errors, walked nine Lufkin men, and could manage only one hit.

The individual star of the game was undoubtedly Skinner. In addition to his sparkling one-hitter, he also managed to get two hits in five times at bat along with three runs-batted-in.

Lufkin will play the winner of Tuesday night's tilt at 7:30 p.m. Wednesday.

Yanks, Brooks Bid Now For 100 Wins

By The Associated Press

Now that the New York Yankees and the Brooklyn Dodgers virtually have run off and hidden from the rest of the clubs, they're working on a little intramural competition to hold their interest.

Their new goal is 100 victories each, well within range but still a mark that will keep them hustling.

The Dodgers with 39 games left need to win 22 to hit the century mark—a figure reached by only two other Brooklyn clubs in history. The Yankees will have to win 21 of their last 38 Yankee teams in the past have reached 100 or more eight times, but not in the last 11 years.

McMurry To Field Veteran Eleven In Midland Encounter

ABILENE — McMurry College will have 18 returning lettermen—four of them all-Texas Conference performers—on hand when it opens the football season against Sul Ross College in Midland at 8 p.m. September 12.

Wilford Moore, head coach at the Methodist college, will also have an experienced bunch of squadmen and transfers on the 1953 Tribe roster—plus a fair crop of freshmen.

"The way it looked in Spring training," Moore says, "our line could be the best we've had since the 1947-48 era." McMurry came in first in the conference race in 1948 and '49, after sharing first place with Midwestern University in 1947.

The four returning all-Texas Conference players are linemen, Ed Ammons, Levelland, end; W. T. Stapler, Hamlin, tackle; Bernard Weems, Rotan, guard; and Gerald Watson, Levelland, center.

McMurry will have weight, speed experience and depth in the line this year.

In the backfield also, the Indians should have more speed and experience. Moore's biggest problems right now are finding a replacement for the all-conference fullback from Winters, Buddy Fornes, and breaking in a new quarterback. Fornes and both of last year's quarterbacks were lost to the military service.

The man-under spot in McMurry's wing T will likely be shared by a couple of transfers—Joe Bill Fox (Fort Worth) from Tarleton and Lonnie Crosley (Claco) from Claco Junior College. Elroy Payne, sophomore from Ballinger, will probably get the fullback job.

A couple of returning lettermen, Otis Ratliff of Plainview and Bill Anderson of Gatesville, and Bob Garley and Bill Atkins, two Henderson County Junior College transfers, both from Dallas, are other top prospects for the McMurry secondary.

In the line Bill Hawthorne, a 6-3, 230-pound right guard from Nacogdoches and left Guard Weems will be backed up by Jim Henderson of Sherman, transfer from San Angelo J. C., and David Sullivan of Woodson, Ranger J. C. transfer.

Allan Holliday, Waco letterman, and Bill Curry, Plainview squadman, will understudy Watson at center. At the tackles it'll be Grant Teaff of Snyder, transfer, Joe Bob Martin, soph letterman from Rotan, and Gary Berry, Anson. Charles Keese of Lockhart, letterman tackle in '50, is just back from the service.

With Ammons at the terminals will be lettermen Kenneth Mays, Anson; Jim Bales, Borger; and Bobbie Jack Price of Haskell.

Almost every man on the McMurry roster is a double-duty player, with experience on both offense and defense.

Dukes, Hubbers Score Wins In WT-NM Race

By The Associated Press

The West Texas-New Mexico League was short on action Monday night with only two games being played. Rain ruined two.

The league-leading Albuquerque Dukes didn't let up though, crushing Abilene, 12-2. Second-place Lubbock also kept up its pace by scoring over Borger, 4-0. Three games separate the two top clubs.

Clovis at Pampa and Amarillo at Plainview were washed out.

City Tennis Tournament Draws Small, Select Field

Midland's City Tennis Championship Tournament opened Tuesday afternoon with a small but strong field.

Chick Harris, by far the strongest entry in any of the various divisions, opens against John Runge in the feature match of the day. Harris is expected to walk right through to the finals without much opposition. There he will run into one of the other three seeded players, Stanley Bellows, Bob Barns or Frank Ford.

The men's singles and junior singles divisions drew the highest number of entries with the men's doubles next in attraction. In the latter division, Harris teams with Pat Paterson to form the top-seeded team. Charles Davis and Arch McCall are second-seeded.

The tournament is being run off on three courts—San Jacinto and Cowden Junior highs and Midland High School.

The tournament committee ruled Monday that anyone unable to play a match at the scheduled time might contact Myrt Baker at the Midland Youth Center between 2-5 p.m. to make other arrangements. The telephone number at the Youth Center is 2-1382.

All matches will be the best two out of three sets. Referees and line-men will be furnished in the semi-final and final matches only. Balls, however, will be furnished by tournament officials at the courts.

Scores must be reported to tournament officials immediately following a match, or the winners will be disqualified, the committee ruled.

Entries who have not paid their entry fees should contact Bryan Elder, tournament chairman, at the courts.

Crowning achievement of Ford Motor Company's 50th Anniversary—20 Years Forward on the American Road

Father, Son Separated 39 Years, Reunited At Andrews

ANDREWS—A reunion took place here recently between a father and his son after 39 years of separation, each thinking the other dead.

William M. (Bill) Mayfield, 68-year-old Sulphur Springs farmer, rode a taxi from Big Spring to Andrews after talking to a nephew in Big Spring who knew of the son's whereabouts.

The son, Marvin W. Mayfield, is a pumper here for the Fuhrman Petroleum Company.

Marvin was three months old when Mayfield and his mother separated. This was the last time the elder Mayfield saw his son for 39 years.

He received occasional reports of his son until World War I, when he lost contact with him. Later, he learned the former wife had remarried and heard the son was dead.

When Marvin was 15 years old he set out to find his father but was told by the sheriff of Sulphur Springs he had been killed in a car wreck in California. The search was called off but later investigation revealed that another Bill Mayfield had been the traffic victim.

Two years ago, the father was told by a distant relative that the boy still was alive and that the Big Spring nephew knew where he was. Before the father could get to Big Spring he entered a veterans hospital and finally was sent to the Big Spring Veterans Hospital.

The elder Mayfield couldn't wait four hours for a bus to take him from Big Spring to Andrews and hired a taxi for the trip last week. Marvin has lived here since 1946.

the actual countries who participated in the fighting, as the United States has been demanding.

Vishinsky said he would propose to the General Assembly the seating of Reed China as a member of the U.N.

The seat of China can and must be occupied by the representative of the central government of the People's Republic of China," Vishinsky asserted.

U. S. Delegate Henry Cabot Lodge opposed Vishinsky. He said there is no reason for Pelping or North Korean acting in the selection of the UN representatives to the peace conference. The armistice agreement makes it clear, he said, that the two sides were to choose their own representatives.

Sir Percy Spender, Australian delegate, backed up Lodge.

Lodge opened the general debate with a strong plea that the peace parley be limited to the "two sides" as opposed to the round-table idea. Soviet Idea Gains Support.

He said it was a question solely for the UN to determine which countries should sit on its side and that the Communist aggressors should pick their own representatives.

Most of Russia's support in the voting came from the Arab and Asian countries. Abstentions included Mexico.

Lodge said he had no objection to Russia's participation if the North Koreans and Chinese Reds want it.

Britain and France advocated a broader representation than that sought by the United States.

British Minister of State Selwyn Lloyd said Britain "does not wish to perpetuate this concept of two sides, to have the peace conference as a kind of political Panmunjom." He urged the inclusion of India.

Maurice Schumann, French foreign undersecretary of State, said his country would participate in the negotiations should, in all good logic, be invited.

Texas Squad Drills On Passing Attack For Oil Bowl Game

WICHITA FALLS—The Oil Bowl game between Texas and Oklahoma schoolboy all-star teams Friday night may stack up as a power vs. passing game if first workouts are any indication.

Coaches sent their young stars through drills Monday for the first time.

The Texans, coached by Floyd Wagstaff of Tyler Junior College and Max Bumgardner of San Angelo College held a passing drill. All-American schoolboy star Doyle Traylor passed to his squad of ends and reminded onlookers of the young Sammy Baugh.

German Farmers Bombard Capital In Plum Barrage

BOON — West Germany's government was bombarded with plums Tuesday as farmers dramatized their plight from a phenomenal harvest.

With West German orchards so glutted the farmers find the plums hardly worth picking, they sent 15 carloads of the fruit to the capital.

The gift fruits went to refugee camps and youth centers.

Being the huge crop on weather which delayed the early crop until it ripened alongside the late, the Agriculture Ministry stopped imports from Italy. It cut taxes on plum brandy, hoping more would be drunk so distillers would buy more plums to make more brandy.

CHICAGO—Pleasant weather was recorded in most sections of the nation Tuesday.

Temperatures were around seasonal levels except for some cool spots in the Great Lakes region. It was near freezing early Tuesday in Peleton, Mich. The reading in Gila Bend, Ariz., was 93.

Heaviest rainfall was in southern sections. Falls measured two inches at Norfolk, one and one-half inches at Charleston and about one inch at Miami.

City Provides Site For Archery Range

The City of Midland has provided a 40-acre site on the Wadley tract north of the Ranchland Hill Country Club for a range to be used by Permian Basin Archers.

Construction started this week. Richard Atkins, one of the organizers of the archery club, reported Tuesday.

The next meeting of the archers has been set tentatively for 7 p.m. Thursday at the home of Ferris Hamilton, 111 North F Street. Officers will be elected.

Atkins said considerable interest has been manifested in archery. Interested persons were urged to mail postcards with names and addresses to Atkins at 1308 North Carrizo Street.

Two Die As Trucks Crash In Rainstorm

DICKENS—J. C. Williams of Fort Worth and Sammy Noley, 19, of Lubbock were killed Monday night when two trucks collided in a driving rain two miles west of here.

Doyle Weir of Lubbock, riding in the same truck with Noley, was injured critically.

Narriman Demands Farouk Pay Alimony

CAIRO—Ex-Queen Narriman is suing ex-King Farouk for alimony, her lawyer said Tuesday.

The claim is being made through a Moslem court and the custodian of Farouk's assets in Egypt, the lawyer said.

Under Moslem law a wife separated from her husband is entitled to sue for alimony, even though no divorce has been obtained. The law also provides that the husband may contest the claim and seek his wife's return.

The lawyer refused to comment on a report that Narriman intends to claim custody of her son, Ahmed Laud II, who was King of Egypt until the Republic was proclaimed last June.

Airmen See Volcano Blast Through Surface Of Pacific

TOKYO—The crew of a U. S. military plane said Tuesday night they saw a volcanic eruption and a crater appear in the Pacific Ocean 200 to 300 miles southeast of Tokyo.

Ray Fadich said smoke "like an atomic bomb blast" rose out of the sea.

"We were flying at about 12,000 to 13,000 feet," Fadich said, "when the pilot saw this tremendous column of dark smoke. We estimated it reached 23,000 to 24,000 feet into the sky."

"After the dark smoke disappeared, a white steam began to come out of the crater. We circled it once and estimated it was about 90 yards in diameter. There didn't seem to be much of the volcano out of the water."

Fadich said the navigator could not find any islands charted in the area.

The pilot, Lt. Darrel Reckling, said the huge cloud of smoke "mushroomed like those A-bomb pictures."

"There was that mushroom at the top, then the long, slender bottom," he said. "There was a dark bulge about half way down."

"We passed within one mile of it," Reckling said. "It looked just like the top of a volcano. Boulders were spewing out. We could see the dark masses rise up and then fall down."

Early in 1952 a volcano erupted.

Helicopter History Reviewed In Films Shown To Optimists

The helicopter's centuries-long climb as an important means of air transportation was portrayed in a Shell Oil Company film shown at noon Tuesday to the Midland Optimist Club, meeting in Hotel Schaubauer.

Beginning with ancient attempts at a vertical flight, the movie, shown by Ted Wemple, program chairman, outlined by pictures the progress from cumbersome and unworkable models to the modern "whirly-bird" seen quite often in Midland skies.

The Optimists will not meet at noon next Tuesday, but will hold their annual picnic at 7:30 p.m. that day in Cole Park.

In other business, John Grimland, club president reported on a recent some meeting in Abilene, and a meeting of football game workers was scheduled for 7:30 p.m. Wednesday in the office of Cliff Torgeson.

'Cruel' Americans Force Red To Bathe

PANMUNJOM—A top Red Cross official from a neutral nation Tuesday described Communist prisoner atrocity charges as "ridiculous statements by silly boys."

He gave this example by one Chinese POW: "He talked impassionately for an hour and it added up to the fact that he had been forced to take a bath."

"Then they cut his hair—and with scissors."

Man Jailed, Fined For Kicking Puppy

HUNTINGTON, W. VA.—William Jones, watch repairman at a jewelry store, was sentenced to six months in jail and fined $50 for kicking a puppy to death.

He testified he was furious when the dog bit his son, three, on the nose. Jones was nipped on the hand.

Magistrate Harold Kitchin imposed the fine and jail sentence Monday. Jones will appeal.

TOKYO—Damage was estimated Tuesday at about $40,000,000 in a flood that killed or injured scores of Japanese last week in a suburb of Kyoto.

Popped Rock Mushrooms Midland Firm

Perrite—the popped rock—is the basic ingredient of an ever-expanding industry in Midland with some 128,000 four-cubic-foot bags of various forms of perlite being shipped from here last year.

Wright Cowden, owner of Perrite Industries in Midland, explains that the company turns out the material for several purposes in the form of concrete aggregate, plaster aggregate and aggregate for oil well cementing and lost circulation.

The concrete aggregate is used in lightweight roof decks, floor fill, radiant heating floor base and other construction work and the plaster aggregate is used in most types of plastering work, especially in larger buildings where it helps eliminate excessive weight.

The Midland plant receives shipments of the volcanic rock, crushed and screened and processed the material in special kilns located at Midland Air Terminal.

Heat up to 1,800 degrees in the last of two kilns expand the material—thus the idea of popping the rock.

The blocks, similar to concrete tile blocks, are extremely light. The concrete aggregate can be sawed or mated like wood.

Pat Lipscomb, general manager of Perrite Industries, says he feels the blocks should be one of the best and most economical sound-proofing materials that can be had.

Dawson Discovery To Test 50 Feet Of New Section

Seaboard Oil Company of Delaware and associates No. 1 Pettaway, flowing discovery from the Pennsylvania reef line in Southeast Texas County has cut 50 feet more hole to a new bottom at 8,083 feet and is preparing to drill pressure test from 8,023 feet to 8,083 feet.

The section at 8,023-83 feet was cored. The section showed signs of oil and some porosity.

This wildcat had already proven 148 feet of oil pay between the top of the reef at 7,885 feet and 8,023 feet.

No Water So Far

It has flowed oil in prolific amounts from that zone. So far no formation water has been found. Location is 960 feet from north and 1,500 feet from west lines of section 40, block 34, T-5-N, T&P survey. It is nine miles southeast of Lamesa.

Seaboard, Phillips Petroleum Company, Plymouth Oil Company and Forest Oil Corporation all have interests in the well and in the 40-acre unitized block surrounding it.

Gravity of the oil being produced is approximately 40 degrees. A previous report that it was 29 degrees was incorrect.

Stanolind Slated To Final Second Bond Field Oiler

Stanolind Oil & Gas Company is slated to complete its No. 2 Burton as a location southeast extension and second reef line producer in the Bond field of Northwest Howard County.

Acidized with 3,000 gallons through perforations from 8,896 to 8,933 feet, the well kicked off and flowed 242 barrels of oil and 22 barrels of salt water in 10 1/2 hours through a 32 3/4-inch choke after which the flow died.

Operator swabbed and the well kicked off again and made 131 barrels of oil and eight barrels of salt water in 22 1/2 hours on a 24 3/4-inch choke.

It is 11 miles northwest of Big Spring and 600 feet from north and east lines of section 27, block 33, T-2-N, T&P survey.

Magnolia Finals NW Extender To Pegasus Area

Magnolia Petroleum Company has completed its No. 1-B Ora Holzgar, as a one-quarter of a mile northwest extension to the proven area for production from the Pennsylvanian lime in the Pegasus multiple field.

The well is in the Northwest Upton County side of the field and only a short distance south of the Midland County line. It is approximately 26 miles southwest of the city of Midland and 600 feet from north and east lines of section 26, block 41, T-4-S, T&P survey.

On the completion test it produced 205 barrels of oil in 10 hours flowing through a 16 3/4-inch tubing choke for a calculated 24-hour potential of 492 barrels.

The production was from perforated sections in the Pennsylvanian at 10,550-575 feet and at 10,580-623 feet. Gas-oil ratio was 1,470-1. Gravity was 43.8 degrees. The pay sections had been treated with acid.

Ashland, Felmont Sutton Wildcat Is Flowing To Test

Ashland Oil & Refining Company and Felmont Oil Corporation No. 1 W. D. Wallace, Strawn discovery in Southeast Sutton County, was flowing to cleanout and test at last report.

During the last 24 hours of flowing, the project made 108 barrels of oil through an 18 3/4-inch choke plus 15 per cent basic sediment and water.

The oil is coming from the upper pay section through perforations at 5,006-5,026 feet. The lower pay section, from 5,078 to 5,088 feet, is blocked off. As soon as the upper pay is tested thoroughly, operator will decide whether to go back and test the lower pay again.

The water being made with the oil is believed to be coming from the water zone below the upper pay and not from the oil bearing section.

Although operator representatives believe the cement job made to shut off the water zone was successful, the small amount of water being made still could be coming through channels in the cement.

Location for the wildcat is 1 1/2

Rothschild Refuses To Answer Probers

WASHINGTON (AP)—Edward Rothschild refused Tuesday to say whether he is a member of the Communist Party or whether he ever stole secret documents from the Government Printing Office. Rothschild, a bookbinding machine operator at the government printing plant, told the Senate investigations subcommittee he might incriminate himself. Chairman McCarthy (R-Wis.) told the slightly built, bushy haired witness the charges made against him in secret testimony before the subcommittee are perhaps "the most serious charges ever made against any government official."

"We have testimony to the effect that you stole secret documents from the government printing office—among other things that you stole a secret code," the Wisconsin lawyer said.

"Extremely Slipshod" Both Rothschild and his wife Esther were named Communists by witnesses who testified before the Senate group Monday.

One of Monday's witnesses, Mrs. Mary Markward, former undercover agent for the FBI, identified the Rothschilds as active Communists. Rothschild declined to comment Tuesday and then, in a ready voice,

FBI AGENT MARKWARD
... Points to Rothschilds.

Heavy Drouth Feed Shipments Reported

DALLAS—Some 125,425 tons of cottonseed meal, pellets and cake have been shuttled into the drouth disaster areas of West Texas during the first month of the government's emergency relief program. The Production & Marketing Administration said here Monday.

In addition, 1,037 cars of oats, 821 cars of corn and 53 cars of wheat also have been shipped to those areas. C. H. Moseley, regional commodity director for the PMA, said, Rothschild declined to comment Tuesday and then, in a ready voice, said he has had an "extremely slipshod" security set up in the past.

Possible Prosecution The inquiry is aimed to determine whether secret information has leaked from the plant which handles many confidential government documents.

Rothschild declined among other things to say whether he knew one of his printing office co-workers, James Phillips, who testified Monday he knew Rothschild to be a Communist in the late 1930's.

Rothschild refused even to say whether he works at the printing office. Committee Lawyer Roy Cohn agreed that Rothschild was entitled to refuse an answer.

Hunting, Fishing Licenses Available

Hunting and fishing licenses for the new year are on sale now in Midland sporting goods stores—but they're not any good until September 1.

Until then, hunters and fishermen still have to buy "old" licenses.

The new season will reveal a few changes in present license regulations.

Out-of-staters, for example, may now buy a five-day permit to hunt migratory waterfowl for $5. In the past, non-residents had to buy the normal $25 hunting license to shoot ducks and geese.

And, if they plan to shoot anything but ducks and geese, non-residents must buy the $25 non-resident hunting permit.

The non-resident five-day fishing license, at $1.65, is still available. The new five-day waterfowl license can be bought at most sporting goods stores, deputized to handle the licenses, or from the game warden in the area.

Warden for this area is Nolan Johnson of Terminal, who came to this area 18 months ago after a year of duty in South Texas.

Midland firms handling hunting and fishing licenses are Athletic Supply Company, Basin Supply, and Midland Hardware and Furniture Company.

Of top interest to Midlanders are, of course, the main hunting license which costs $215 and the standard $1.65 fishing license. Both of these are available at the three Midland firms.

Regulations governing antelope hunting were outlined Wednesday by Warden Johnson.

"Hunters," he said, "must write to the Texas Game and Fish Commission in Austin for applications. The hunter then must fill out his application and mail it and $5 to the commission.

"A drawing will be held in the near future to determine which hunters will be given permits. The number of antelopes to be shot during the short season. Only one hunter per antelope is allowed.

"If the hunter is chosen, a ranch is assigned and he must appear there by the second day of the season or forfeit his right to hunt. Ranchers may charge up to $40 for hunting privileges.

"Antelope season, Johnson explained, is October 1 through October 9. Statewide this year, 28 different kinds of licenses are available, ranging in costs from 50 cents for a duplicate to $200 for a wholesale fish dealer's license.

Midlanders, though, will be eyeing the $215 and $1.65 output for hunting and fishing aops.

American Jailed For Effort To Rob Court In Mexico

NEUVO LAREDO, MEXICO.—(AP) —A man identified by an American passport was arrested following a daring attempt to rob the Second District Court. His name was withheld.

This is the story officials told: Some 500,000 pesos ($57,800) had been deposited in cash with the court in a suit involving the Mexican treasury, a bank, and several agencies. Then money was deposited in a Laredo bank.

During a recess Monday a man, apparently thinking the cash still was in the court, entered a window and was looking for the money when Judge Manuel Flores returned looking for a fountain pen he had left behind.

Flores sought to arrest the suspect, who fled. In his haste, he dropped a United States passport.

Mexican Police traced the owner of the passport and arrested him.

French Strikers Ignore Ultimatum

PARIS.—(AP) —Premier Joseph Laniel threw down the gauntlet before France's strikers Tuesday, telling them he would negotiate no more until they went back to work.

The Christian (Catholic) Workers Federation (CFC) called on its members to continue their walk-out. The Socialist Workers Force (FO) said they would take the matter over. But the deadline hour passed Tuesday morning without any union move to get the strikers back to work.

The Premier served his ultimatum in a radio speech Monday night. Demanding that the union workers who have snarled France's communications and transportation for almost two weeks report back to work Tuesday morning, he declared:

"The government has heretofore definitely fixed its line of conduct. There will be no more talks with those who do not return to work today.

"There will be nothing more left but a vast national effort directed toward the necessity of assuring the country's essential services—no matter what the cost."

Another threat to Laniel's strike-beset Cabinet developed with a summons by National Assembly President Edouard Herriot for the Assembly steering committee to meet Friday to decide whether the lawmakers should be recalled from vacation for a special session.

Communists and Socialists have demanded parliamentary intercession. It is considered possible the government might even be forced out of office.

'Toby' Character Achieves Enduring Fame In Theater

Adding interest to the Summer Mummer productions this month are the Toby characters, one of the oldest character types in American comedy.

Although Toby has disappeared from the big city theaters, rural Americans know and love him and Toby tent shows still are being played in the Southwest and Midwest.

Although he has many names, Toby always is the country bumbler who blunders through to save the day for the pretty girl, the debt-ridden homestead and the fallen hero. He usually is played with a red wig, freckled face and a blacked-out front tooth.

Many of the country's famous actors started their careers in Toby roles—Hippo Marx, Milton Berle, Lou Costello, and in a slightly different version, Charlie Chaplin.

The Toby characters in the Summer Mummer productions are William Dowton in "The Drunkard," played by William L. Adam, and Mookie Maguignin in "Dirty Work at the Crossroads," played by John Scott Alcorn.

The two plays are being presented on alternate weekends throughout August. "Crossroads" is to be given at 8:30 p.m. Friday and Saturday in the American Legion Hall.

The box office is located at Albert S. Kelly, Inc., 113 North Colorado Street.

President Believes Armistice Will Last

DENVER — President Eisenhower's top aide says the Chief Executive believes the Korean truce is going to last. The president will leave Denver for the signing of the truce as the Administration's "greatest deed" during its first seven months in office.

Adams, former governor of New Hampshire, arrived at Eisenhower's vacation headquarters here Monday and will remain a few days. The President will leave Denver by plane Tuesday night for New York where Wednesday he will take part in dedication of a 32 million dollar federal housing project, register for the New York municipal elections to be held this Fall and hold a round of conferences. He will fly back to Denver Wednesday night.

Adams talked about the Korean truce in a radio interview over a nationwide network Monday night. He was asked whether he believes the Administration can make the Korean armistice last. He replied that he thinks it will last, and that Eisenhower also believes "the truce is going to stick."

Adams also declared that: "He believes Eisenhower can avoid calling a special session of Congress to consider increasing the 275 billion dollar national debt ceiling, "but it is going to be nip and tuck."

2. His (Adams') "purely wild guess" is that an additional five to 10 billion dollars can be pared from the $178,600,000,000 budget which former President Truman proposed for the fiscal year which started July 1. The Administration says a 13 billion dollar reduction already has been made.

Adams talked of further savings through "internal reductions" in "current departmental expenses," but he did not elaborate.

3. Eisenhower is bearing up "amazingly well"—both temperamentally and physically—under the heavy burdens of the presidency.

Solon Asks Study Of Grants-In-Aid

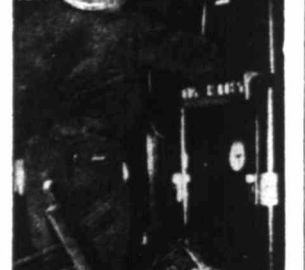

WASHINGTON (AP)—Senator Hendrickson (R-N.J.) said Tuesday the new Commission on Intergovernmental Relations should examine every federal grant-in-aid program to see whether it should be continued.

More than $2,000,000,000 a year now is poured out from Washington to the states under these programs. The grants make up about one-fifth of the state revenues.

Hendrickson, who has been appointed to serve on the commission, said he would press for a close study of every one of the grants-in-aid fields: highways, agriculture, health, public housing, municipal airports, hospital construction and several others.

BETTER GO THISAWAY

PHILADELPHIA—A truck rolling through Philadelphia had these words, for the benefit of passing motorists, printed on the rear:

COOL TYPIST—Virginia Panlan knows how to keep cool in an office that's hot as an oven, as a fireman searches for source of heat and smoke.

That's no figure of speech—hot as an oven—as a defective oven unit caused all the excitement in a Detroit, Mich., restaurant.

GIVING US THE "BOOT"—Members of the Tudeh (Communist Party) in Iran demonstrate their anti-Western feelings in a Tehran parade. Poster at left shows a local boy giving Uncle Sam and John Bull the "heave-ho." About 100,000 people gathered to celebrate the first anniversary of the riots that ended the four-day premiership of Ahmad Ghadavm and returned Mohammed Mossadegh to power.

Big Spring Marine To Receive Congressional Honor Medal

BIG SPRING (AP)—The wife and mother of Medal of Honor winner George H. O'Brien, Jr., took news of the award calmly Monday night. Said young Mrs. O'Brien: "Wonderful. Wonder if this will get him home any sooner?"

And said the elder Mrs. O'Brien: "They can have the medal if they'll just send him home."

The Marine Corps lieutenant was awarded the nation's highest military decoration for "indomitable determination and valiant fighting spirit" displayed in Korea last October 27.

Presentation of the award will be made by the President when he returns to Washington next month. Beyond Call Of Duty.

The citation praises O'Brien for "conspicuous gallantry and intrepidity at the risk of his life above and beyond the call of duty" as a rifle platoon commander of Company H, Third Battalion, Seventh Marines, First Marine Division.

The citation said: "With his platoon subjected to an intense mortar and artillery bombardment while preparing to assault a vitally important hill position on the main line of resistance which had been overrun by a numerically superior enemy force on the preceding night. Second Lieutenant O'Brien leaped from his trench when the attack signal was given and, shouting for his men to follow, raced across an exposed saddle and up the enemy-held hill through a virtual hail of deadly small arms, artillery and mortar fire.

Hit By Red Fire. "Although shot through the arm and thrown to the ground by hostile automatic weapons fire as he neared the well-entrenched enemy position, he bravely regained his feet, waved his men onward and continued to spearhead the assault, pausing only long enough to go to the aid of a wounded Marine."

"Encountering the enemy at close range, he proceeded to hurl hand grenades into the bunkers and, utilizing his carbine to the best advantage in savage hand-to-hand combat, succeeded in killing at least three of the enemy. Struck down by the concussion of grenades on three occasions during the subsequent action, he steadfastly refused to be evacuated for medical treatment and continued to lead his platoon in the assault for a period of almost four hours, repeatedly encouraging his men and maintaining superb direction of the unit.

Tends Wounded Men. "With the attack halted, he set up a defense with his remaining forces to prepare for a counter attack, personally checking each position, attending to the wounded and expediting their evacuation."

Dieting Puts Worried Look On Faces Of Bread Makers

By SAM DAWSON
NEW YORK (AP)—Bread bakers have a troubled look today. A new wave of dieting threatens their slipping sales. A persistent minority say today's packaged bread isn't as tasty as grandmothers baked.

The flour and baking industries are anxious for you to believe: 1. Bread doesn't deserve banishment from the fare of the over-plump but is readily necessary in a balanced diet.

2. Today's enriched bread is much better for you than the old-fashioned home baked loaf, having iron and three essential vitamins added and having lost no real nutriment in the bleaching process.

Many still can remember how bread made at home in grandmother's day outstripped modern packaged bread in two ways: You could smell it baking and you could eat it hot.

Bleaching flour to make bread whiter is the result of housewives' preferences, says George Morrison, president of General Baking, which turns out 8,000,000 loaves of white bread a week. He says the miller uses a process similar to that used in purifying drinking water and that this removes none of the important food elements.

To combat any complaints about the tastiness of the ordinary loaf, there is a growing movement in the baking industry to bring out premium breads, higher priced, but aimed at every variety of taste or diet. These now account for about five per cent of the daily sales of some 40,000,000 loaves of bread a day.

Ward and General, among others, bring out low-calorie breads. Peppridge Farm is one example of premium bread, with specially rich ingredients.

Dieting is the most worrisome threat to the bakers. The American Medical Association holds that 30,000,000 Americans are overweight and life insurance companies claim the mortality rate among the overweight is 150 per cent of the rate among the normal weight.

Illinois Democrat Criticizes Failure To Alter T-H Law
WASHINGTON (AP)—Senator Douglas (D-Ill.) Tuesday criticized the first session of the 83rd Congress for failing "to act on a number of issues of central importance to labor and the American people."

Douglas, a member of the Senate Labor Committee, termed "desirable and long overdue" a series of possible changes in the Taft-Hartley law listed by the White House for consideration. The list went to chairman of the House and Senate Labor committees three days before Congress adjourned August 3, but ensuing protests forced its withdrawal, reportedly for good.

The proposals, the substance of which became public, were said by the White House to be only a working paper of possible changes in the law.

The blast occurred as workers were salvaging old ammunition stores.

Riled Neighbors Do Battle Over Remains Of Dead Duck
LOS ANGELES (AP)—Everything was ducky until Ducky Sue—a fowl of questionable temperament—came between neighbors.

Ducky Sue belonged to Joseph Hajj; that is, he did until Jack Stewart dispatched Sue to duck heaven. Stewart said he killed the bird after she nipped his infant daughter's fingers. Hajj said nonsense, the duck was the pet of his two daughters and never had nipped their fingers. By the time several squad cars arrived on the scene, police reported Stewart was struck on the head by a stove grate. Hajj's wife was welding kitchen utensils, and Stewart's wife countered with a garden hose.

Stewart planned to charge Hajj with assault and battery. Hajj said he would go the same for Stewart. All over one dead duck.

Auto Theft Papers Served On Suspect In Comfort Robbery

BOERNE (AP)—Charges of car theft were served Tuesday on William Adley, 27, father of two who is being held on charges of robbing the Comfort State Bank of $1,730.

Sheriff Douglas Kubel said Ranger Zeno Smith asked him to hold Adley for arrest on charges of stealing a car at Cameron. The car is alleged to have been the one used in the Comfort Bank robbery.

Kubel said considerable sympathy and support has developed here for Adley, whom the sheriff described as of good reputation with no criminal record.

Adley, divorced several years, said he needed money for his children, four and six.

The children visited their father in jail Sunday. They were wearing new clothes, bought with the $20 contributed by Lawrence Goforth, president of the robbed bank.

Prisoners Badger Commie Newsman

FREEDOM VILLAGE, KOREA (AP)—American prisoners waiting at Kaesong for shipment to freedom at Panmunjom "just about mobbed" Communist newsman Wilfred Burchett Monday, Sgt. 1/c Gordon L. Madson of Gowrie, Iowa, said Tuesday.

"I was afraid some of the guys were gonna get in trouble," Madson said, "but no one dared hit him."

The smiling Iowan said Burchett of Ce Cor, Paris, was trying to convince returning POW's they had been treated well in the Red stockades.

"But he was surrounded by about 100 GI's and the British too. He didn't get a chance to say anything. We flats told him what we thought about the Chinese, the Communists and everything else.

"He couldn't get out of the circle. But the Chinks finally rescued him. It was a big fiasco for them."

Returnees Throw Red Cross Parcels To 'Reactionaries'

FREEDOM VILLAGE (AP)—American war prisoners headed south for liberation tossed their Red Cross packages over the fence at a prison camp for "reactionaries"—Communist haters, an Ohio soldier said Tuesday.

"We threw off the Red Cross bags because there was a rumor the Red Cross wasn't going to get to see them (the 'reactionaries')", said Cpl. Christopher Penagopoulos of Cleveland.

"We went through there about 2 in the morning and everybody broke out in a big yell to let them know we were going home."

Renewed Talk Due On Austrian Treaty If Kremlin Agrees

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Big Three Western Powers have agreed to Russia's demand that work be resumed on a comprehensive peace treaty with Austria—if the Soviets are willing to stick to the issues and finish the job.

Reds Free Seven More Texans, Eight Reported As Dead

By The Associated Press
Seven more Texans were returned to freedom in Korea Tuesday and eight others were reported to have died in Red bondage.

This brought to 46 the Texans who died while under the Reds and 74 who have been freed.

Pfc. Edwin King, 23, was the first white Fort Worth resident freed by the Communists.

These other Texans were returned: Sgt. Robert Hinojosa, Weslaco. Sgt. John Minchew, Mart. Sgt. Marcus Palacio, Brundage. Pfc. Robert Wanier, Rockport. Cpl. Milburn Stargess, Amarillo. Cpl. Lester Williams, Keman. Those reported dead were:

Cpl. Davey Bart, Houston. Pfc. Vestein Bell, Jr., Fort Worth. Cpl. James Bowers, Corpus Christi. Lt. Richard Coke, Dallas. Lt. Phillip Glenn, Gunter. Sgt. Harold Main, Gordon. Pfc. Kenneth Miller, Wharton.

Stick To One Issue
In another note on August 4, the Soviets had said that "it goes without saying that a possible successful solution of the German problem could also help a solution of the Austrian question."

In reply, Monday's U. S. note said it was assumed this did not mean that hope for an Austrian treaty would be deferred "until other unrelated conditions are met."

If the Russians should insist on a German settlement first, indications were that completion of an Austrian treaty would be long delayed.

Jim Fihds Gadget Sizzles Mightily But Won't Whistle

HICKORY, N. C.—(P)—There'll be no more whistles for little Jimmy Preslar—not for a while. Jimmy saw a whistle on the floor of Zion Lutheran Church. Well, he thought it was a whistle. The four-year-old, idle while his parents cleaned the church rug, picked up the whistle and placed it in his mouth. His father glanced around to find Jimmy down on his knees, his face buried in the carpet. The child was pinned fast by 120 volts of electricity from the plug of a vacuum cleaner extension cord which he had placed in his mouth. Fred Preslar jerked the cord from the socket, freeing his son. Jimmy wound up in Hickory Memorial Hospital with severe burns of the mouth—and no whistle.

Tedious Truce Replaces Yo-Yo Battles As GI's Set Up Cautious Housekeeping

By FRED SPARKS
NEA Staff Correspondent

ON THE KOREAN TRUCE FRONT—The tedious truce has replaced the yo-yo war. Since May, 1951—when Douglas MacArthur said the Korean conflict "has reached a stalemate"—we yo-yoed up and down a string of hills like Old Baldy and Heartbreak Ridge, gaining only obituary notices, wary notices.

Now a mountain climbing journey along the front will show you an army doing nothing much—but in a most military manner.

A handful of GI's "keep watch on chopsticks," wearing towels around their necks like scarves to sop up sweat.

Phone, Don't Bayonet
Blonde Pfc. John Thatcher, 19, of Portland, Me., regularly focuses binoculars on the neutral zone, looking for any enemy which might be advancing under the flag of double-cross. In a nearby mountain stream, Thatcher thoughtfully has parked four cans of beer. Unless any approaching Communists open fire or try to shake hands with bayonets, Thatcher will reach for his phone instead of his carbine. He will report "unfriendly" in forbidden strip. Said report will be rushed to the Armistice Commission. Neutral Swiss or Swedes, the only ones with legal tickets to No Man's Land, will investigate.

Wall Of Corn Flakes
Officers merely will be given a black mark in public opinion. Last month I inspected the armistice line between Israel and Arab Jordan. The fear of being labelled "aggressive" by the commission re-strains mischief makers there about like a wall of corn flakes.

Unfortunately, the idle hours of truce offer time for memories of friends cut down in the last days of battle. Sitting hip-high in the same stream that cooled Thatcher's beer, GI's recalled a corporal who fell to a grenade here just before the truce deadline.

Memories And Pinups
Said one kid as he soaped his hair, "He was the best friend I ever had, he'd share anything with you."

Another scrawny GI wearing a sock like a glove while washing it said, "That's right, he was built like a tank, and when I got pooped climbing Pork Chop Hill he carried my gear."

A third, trying to cup a nervous mmmow, said, "Damn! Why did he have to go after that? Think? He could have let him get away. Now it doesn't make any difference." Everybody is housekeeping at the truce front now. Most GI's are prettying bunker walls with magazine cutouts of shapely girls.

Too Silent To Sleep
Koreans wise in the ways of the loose GI buck call on the chopstick watchers peddling rope floor mats, mirrors in hand-painted frames, and water glasses that are delightful after the tummy taste of canteen cups.

I noted one enterprising mamasan lugging a crudely painted sign reading "God Bless Our Home." It sold as fast as our atomic blueprints would sell in Moscow.

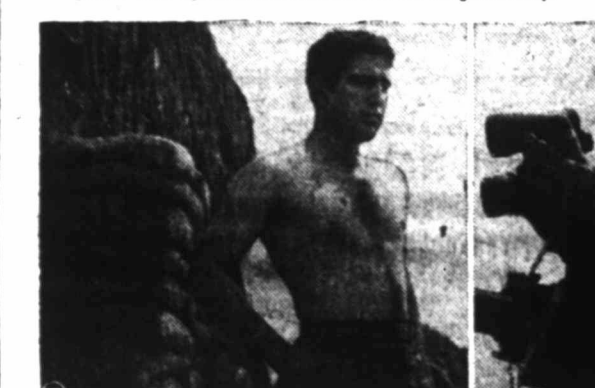

After dark the watch on chopsticks doubles, and the demilitarized zone is lighted by curious searchlights.

These are strange silent nights, after endless months punctuated by whoomph, bam, whoomph, bam, of artillery.

"No kidding," says Thatcher, "it's hard to sleep. Every so often I wake up suddenly and wonder why it's so quiet—what happened?"

In the shade of a tank on the Korean truce front, NEA global reporter Fred Sparks, left, interviews a GI on guard duty.

Bunkers are still home for soldiers like this one on duty at truce front . . . Where duty is vigilance with binoculars to maintain the "watch on chopsticks" . . .

WHY WAIT FOR DR. KINSEY?—

Pett Report On Females Sticks To True Facts Of Life

By SAUL PETT
NEW YORK —(P)—The Kinsey report on women will be out Thursday. Why wait? The Pett report is out today. It is based on interviews with women, even argument—on 35 years of non-objective observation, on rumor and gossip, on prejudice and bias regardless of race, creed or color, and on long conversations with many men.

The Pett report shows that: 68.8 per cent of all married American women object to being kissed behind the ear while baking a cake. 51.3 per cent of all married women know as many cuss words as their husbands but only .009 per cent admit it.

74 per cent of all married women wear shoes that are too tight. 22.3 per cent of married women throw their dishes at their husbands and 22.2 per cent miss. During courtship, 88.4 per cent of women of all ages talk only of marriage, a home and children. After the wedding, 72.8 per cent complain that if they hadn't been rushed into marriage they might have had a promising career.

74.8 per cent of married women, while visiting their husband's office, can't resist looking at his desk calendar. 84 per cent of women under 25 overuse the word "cute."

53.5 per cent of married women would have more children if only they had a full time maid. 34 per cent of women of all ages say "yes" more often than men because men aren't asked as often. 78 per cent of the women who wear low cut dresses pretend to be annoyed when men stare. 53.9 per cent of married women think that 98.9 per cent of the other married women are better off. 74.2 per cent of the women in America who play poker play with all the red cards wild. 68 per cent of women of all ages snore in bed, but only .09 per cent admit it.

96.8 per cent of the women who turn away from an off-color joke at a party insist on hearing it later from their husbands. 78 per cent of women over 25 overuse the phrase, "I can't stand it (or her or him)."

83 per cent of women of all ages have fewer inhibitions than men about money. 99.8 per cent of women of all ages will disagree violently with what they just read.

High Quality Foremost Milk Now Sold Over Midland Area

Today Foremost Milk makes its debut in Midland and surrounding trade territories. Recognized nationally as one of the finest quality milks in the nation, Foremost Milk takes the place of the Banner brand of milk, which has been distributed in West Texas for the last 27 years.

John T. Hassell

Banner Dairies became Banner division of Foremost Dairies the latter part of May and now processes and distributes Foremost Milk throughout an area of more than 50 counties in West Texas. Starting today, the red Foremost Homogenized Vitamin "D" Milk carton will be a familiar sight in food and dairy product stores in Midland and surrounding territory. For health purposes, 400 units of Vitamin "D" are added to every quart. Foremost Milk, as well as Foremost Ice Cream and other dairy products, has the Good Housekeeping Seal. It also has the Seal of Acceptance of the American Medical Council on Foods and Nutrition.

Heading up the Foremost activities in Midland, Odessa, and a surrounding area of about 10 counties is John T. Hassell, plant manager, with headquarters in Midland. He was transferred here July 1 from Abilene. Mr. and Mrs. Hassell are living at 3321 W. Storey Street. They have two daughters and a son, Johnette, 10; Marvin, five; and Denise, three.

Seves With Engineers
After serving in the U. S. Army Corps of Engineers in World War II, Hassell joined the Foremost Dairies organization on Feb. 3, 1947, as a sales representative at the Shreveport, La., division. He was transferred to Abilene in April 1950, where he remained until coming to Midland last month.

Plans are already under way for extensive improvements and modernization of the Foremost plant and equipment in Midland. Foremost was established 22 years ago and is one of the fastest growing dairy products organizations in the country. The company has processing plants for milk, ice cream, and other dairy products from coast to coast and has always made its major objective to provide the public with products of the very finest quality and at reasonable prices.

Milk for processing in the Midland plant is bought from farmers, ranchmen, and dairymen in the surrounding counties, and this is a national policy of the company. Current expansion of Foremost operations will continue to provide a good and growing market for milk producers throughout West Texas, Hassell pointed out.

A schedule of large advertisements of Foremost Milk will run once a week for the next several months in The Midland Reporter-Telegram to familiarize the public with the good qualities of this nationally famous brand of milk.

As late as 1900 almost 99 per cent of the world's rubber came from Brazil.

NEW FOREMOST TRUCKS HERE—With the inauguration of Foremost Milk in the Midland area, a new fleet of trucks will be seen delivering the products of one of the finest quality dairies in the nation. Here is A. G. Pittman, one of Foremost's routemen, who will join with other routemen in the delivery of Foremost milk through Midland, Odessa and surrounding area of 10 counties.

WHY DO CHICKENS CROSS THE ROAD?—Don't be a cluck! These smart birds, who live along U. S. route 70, between West Memphis, Tenn., and Lehi, Ark., wouldn't think of crossing the road. They scratch tasty tidbits from gravel shoulder of the high-speed highway, and pay no-never-mind to the hurtling traffic. Only creatures who are "chicken" are the drivers, who momentarily expect a prize pullet to dash in front of their autos.

American Men Defy Captors To Conduct Religious Services

By FRED SPARKS
NEA Staff Correspondent

INCHON, KOREA—They tried to deny God to our young men in Communist prison camps, but they didn't succeed.

In secret meetings recalling early Christians in Roman caves, American soldiers in Red custody displayed their faith with none of the comforts offered the occasional Sunday church-goer back home.

In an ugly Chinese compound at Pukong one Sunday, a group gathered to sing "Onward Christian Soldiers."

Screams Like Animal
A Communist guard approached, fingering his pistol, and as Warrant Officer Dwight Cox of Fresno, Calif., remembers it now, "I never saw a man so furious in my life. I thought sure he would shoot us. He screamed at us like a hysterical animal."

Later, in a strange form of defiance, the men gathered again in a lonesome part of the camp and held a service without audible words, looking at each other with moving lips as they read from tattered Army Bibles hidden during their capture.

As Americans released from Communist cells pour into this port city after hasty greetings at Pannun-jom and Munsan, they tell endless tales of religious conviction made stronger by denial.

Two Chaplains Die
Coxe told of two chaplains, one Catholic, one Protestant, who suffered countless privations to try again and again to hold proper services. The Reds accused them of being agitators and propagandists. Both chaplains, under 35 and strapping physical specimens, died under strange circumstances.

After the chaplains died, GI's with no formal training presided over clandestine gatherings while friends kept watch for English-speaking guards.

Men would stand around on Sunday mornings as if they were having a bull session and sing in a sort of whispered murmur.

Given No Aid
It wasn't until after the truce talks began that the Communists stopped trying to block religious demonstrations. They gave the prisoners no material aid, but allowed them to gather on holidays for prayer.

Among the lay preachers who arose in this strange situation was Sgt. James Davis of Mullins, S. C., who will be known for all time as "Brother Jim." He came back to the American lines on a stretcher, a sick youth, but until his collapse he not only presided at services but also would be called from bed at all hours to visit the ill and depressed.

Goes Outside Fence
Brother Jim had a magnificent way of praying with stricken men, giving them something to hold on to. After weeks of pleading, he was allowed to go outside the barbed wire to say a few words at the shallow graves of the too many young men who succumbed to diseases they could not battle on the meager prison diet.

A slight, medium-sized man, Brother Jim would preach quiet sermons to comrades of all denominations while an English-speaking Chinese guard stood by with a fat notebook.

Line Of Hope
It was not a polished text Brother Jim spoke, but he always plugged the line of hope. He talked one day in an open field in sub-zero weather about the resurrection of the Lord and how the hungry, shabby Americans could come back to a new and greater world.

It must have been a sight to them—Brother Jim standing on a mound of frozen dirt while his friends huddled together in thin garments with sports sneakers their only protection against the snow.

Prayers And Guns
Over Brother Jim's head, silhouetted against the cold sky, was not a cross but a tower with the warning snout of a machine gun trained on the congregation.

At Inchon, I saw returnees awkward in fresh uniforms and tan oxfords shuffle into the day room past a jazzing radio for their first regular service. Chaplain William Downey of Temple, N. H., began with words that all of us in the hall of returned prisoners felt deeply.

"I feel so humble," the chaplain said, "before you who have suffered so much. He suffered too. He said, 'I walked through the shadow of death.' You have walked through the shadow of death, and God was with you."

One Special Hymn
Then Chaplain Downey asked if anybody wanted a special hymn. Sgt. Junior Dunlap, of McCorkle, W. Va., a tall, handsome dark-haired boy who had been a POW for 32 months and eight days, requested "Amazing Grace."

With a deep fullness never heard in a church back home, the returnees sang the words: "... how sweet the sound that saved a wretch like me."

Then the service was over, and the boys who knew they were really back gathered around the chaplain. "The Lord really brought us through," Sergeant Dunlap said, softly.

No Single Remedy Relieves Itching—Causes Are Many

By EDWIN F. JORDAN, M. D.
Written for NEA Service

A reader recently requested a column on pruritis. This medical word merely means intense itching. The inquirer gave no further information concerning the location or the cause.

The subject of itching, however, is a most interesting one. It is hard to see how, except in the most unusual circumstances, itching can serve any useful function. Few of us escape the sensation of itching, either in some particular location, or even more or less all over.

Another interesting thing about itching is why the reaction to it should be to scratch, since scratching, while it often brings a little relief, is likely to damage the skin still further.

There are a great number of possible causes for itching, and only a few of them can be discussed in this column.

Some people itch all over after bathing. Although the itch usually disappears after the clothes have been on for a while, this is a most annoying form of itch. It is hard to know what to do for it, but one woman wrote me that her husband had obtained relief by applying a half glycerine-half water solution on the skin immediately after the bath.

Winter itch is a closely related condition in which people complain of severe itching all over the body when undressing for the night or shortly after retiring. It goes away when the weather gets mild. The skin looks perfectly all right—except for scratch marks.

Insect bites almost always cause itching. Cooties or lice are among the worst. Unlike that for many other insect bites, the treatment for lice is not just to put on some soothing lotion and wait for the itch to go away; lice have to be got rid of or they will stick to the body and multiply.

The seven-year itch, better known as scabies, is another cause of itching. This is caused by a tiny parasite which burrows its way into the skin. Here, too, the parasites have to be killed before the itching will stop.

Accompanies Diseases
Hives, or urticaria, always causes itching. This can be recognized easily by the sudden appearance of raised reddish spots accompanied by an irresistible desire to scratch.

Itching of the skin may accompany such diseases as diabetes Bright's disease, and especially jaundice. In jaundice particularly, the itch is most unpleasant and difficult to relieve; in fact, it often persists as long as the jaundice.

Because there are so many possible causes for itching, no single lotion or ointment can be counted on to bring relief. Severe, long-lasting itching presents a problem of finding the cause and attacking it.

Permanent Pastry Crosses Atlantic; Baked For Queen

APPOMATTOX, VA. (AP)—It was quite an operation—getting this piece of cake to Mrs. John C. Moore. But eat it? Not on your life.

The four by six inch slice of fruit cake topped with lemon icing is something special. Here's how Mrs. Moore happened to get it.

She received the cake from Mrs. Annie Truman of Beckley, W. Va., whose daughter married Mrs. Moore's son. Mrs. Truman has a sister who lives in London and her son is a member of the guard at Buckingham Palace.

And the cake is a slice of the one baked especially for the coronation of Queen Elizabeth. Each guardman was given a slice, and this particular guardman's mother sent it to Mrs. Truman who sent it to Mrs. Moore.

Failure To Lift Debt Limit Will Not Make U.S. Go Broke

By FRANK O'BRIEN

WASHINGTON (AP)—Is the government going to go broke in the next few months because Congress won't raise the debt limit? It is not. A set of figures given to Congress by Secretary of the Treasury Humphrey during the debt limit battle showed:

The Treasury planned borrowing that would have raised the debt to $277 billion dollars by December, but would have had a cash balance at the same time of five and a half to six billion dollars. Thus, it is evident that by using cash in the till instead of borrowing during December and January the debt can be kept under the limit of 275 billion dollars. But cash in hand will sink to two to three billions.

Temporary Borrowing
However, if present estimates are correct, the government will finish the present fiscal year next June 30 with a debt of 273 billion dollars and temporary borrowing needs of five-10 billion dollars in the next eight months. That would indicate a new debt limit crisis.

But whether the Administration has to appeal again to Congress for a higher debt ceiling, the present narrow scrape points up a long series of financial bumps the Eisenhower government has taken since last January, and more trouble ahead.

It took office amid talk of sounder money, longer term borrowing, reduced spending and tax cuts. Since then it has:

Battle In Congress
1. Turned to short term borrowing, which it condemns as inflationary.
2. Waged a bitter battle in Congress for a six months extension of the excess profits tax on corporations, the tax new Administration officials hated worst of all while they were businessmen.

Economic Perdition
But the men who are Eisenhower's chief financial and monetary advisers—Secretary of the Treasury Humphrey, Deputy Secretary W. Randolph Burgess, Under Secretary Marion Folsom and Federal Reserve Board Chairman William McChesney Martin—believe as firmly today as last January that unless all policies are aimed at ending inflation and producing a stable dollar, the country is headed to economic perdition.

If there is any radical change in their outlook, it appears to be that they now regard getting control of the budget through reduced spending as considerably more difficult than they once believed.

Tax receipts this Spring proved to be disappointing, so the Treasury turned up with a $9,389,000,000 deficit, adding three and a half billions to the borrowing load.

3. Accepted, as a friendly and needed gesture, action by the federal reserve system to unfreeze a large amount of bank lending power. This was an "easy money" move with inflationary possibilities.

4. Announced that although economies have been made the government will again run heavily in the red in the fiscal year that ends next June.

5. Asked Congress to raise the limit on the national debt by 15 billion dollars.

Has the Eisenhower Administration forsaken the stony anti-inflation, hard money road for the primrose path of inflation, or does it still have its January objective?

The new Administration has had to give a lot of ground before the hard facts of running the biggest government in the world, with half the world hanging to its coattails and the other half pointing a gun at its breast.

But the men who are Eisenhower's chief financial and monetary advisers—Secretary of the Treasury Humphrey, Deputy Secretary W. Randolph Burgess, Under Secretary Marion Folsom and Federal Reserve Board Chairman William McChesney Martin—believe as firmly today as last January that unless all policies are aimed at ending inflation and producing a stable dollar, the country is headed to economic perdition.

If there is any radical change in their outlook, it appears to be that they now regard getting control of the budget through reduced spending as considerably more difficult than they once believed.

Tax receipts this Spring proved to be disappointing, so the Treasury turned up with a $9,389,000,000 deficit, adding three and a half billions to the borrowing load.

Humphrey said he needed one month's cash—six billion dollars—each month. Eisenhower asked Congress for a new ceiling of 290 billions. The Senate Finance Committee turned him down, and Congress went home.

What now?
1. The federal reserve system will probably continue its "easier money" policy until sometime next year, or until the Administration can balance its income and outgo.

Promised Tax Cuts
2. The Treasury probably will have to postpone any large scale effort to shift the short-term debt (about $2 1/2 billion dollars of U. S. securities were issued for 15 months or less) into the hands of long term investors for months, perhaps until next Spring.

3. The size of spending even after sharp pruning efforts will spur the Treasury's study of tax revision in the direction of maintaining a high income to the government. If ways can not be found to reduce spending, promised tax cuts for individuals, corporations and in the excise field may have to be put off, or altered. No decisions will be made here until the Treasury knows and yields from present taxes, more about prospective spending

McMurry Students Report For Fall Term September 8

ABILENE — McMurry College, sponsored by the Methodist churches of the Northwest Texas and New Mexico Conferences, will open its thirty-first formal session September 8. First and foremost objective of the college is educating, training and preparing teachers, ministers of Christian faith, and well-adjusted laymen in every walk of life. McMurry is a West Texas bulwark of man's faith in God, America, and individual initiative. It is a focal point of Western Methodism.

Dr. Harold G. Cooke, president of the college and the man largely responsible for its progress over the last decade, further has strengthened McMurry's religious life and education program. An outstanding religious leader has been obtained for the dual capacity of directing student religious life and serving as minister for the Methodist Church on the campus. A head of the Bible Department, an associate professor of religion, and a director of town and country life who guides the field work of McMurry's ministerial students and deputation teams, round out the staff of the Department of Religion.

Ten years of progress under Dr. Cooke's presidency was the theme for McMurry's annual Willson Lectures last March, which drew 5,000 visitors to Abilene. Total value of McMurry College when Dr. Cooke became president in 1943 was $45,566. Since then it has added four new permanent buildings to its physical plant. Its capital assets are approaching the four million dollar mark. Successful capital endowment and living endowment campaigns are under way, and long-range plans for new construction and extensive grounds improvement are being carried forward.

McMurry College continues to grow physically, academically, financially, spiritually—in pace with the growth of the great Southwestern region of which it is a vital, Christian part.

OKAY, SO HE CAN'T SPELL

NEW YORK (AP)—An anonymous letter received by the city collector disclosed that somebody has a conscience—but can't spell so well.

The envelope, postmarked in Brooklyn, contained a note and two crisp $100 bills. The note told of damage done to life-guard boats at Jacob Rites Park several years ago and added:

"This is a debt of conscience (sic)"—and concluded: "Your truly, ananamous." (sic).

Fire Prevention Booklet Published By University Unit

AUSTIN—A publication designed to help those working in the field of fire prevention, "Survey of Texas Laws on Fire Prevention and Control," has been issued by the University of Texas Institute of Public Affairs, a research and service agency.

The Houston Chamber of Commerce fire prevention committee initiated the project and sought assistance of University Law Dean Page Keeton. Four law students, Phillip B. Goode, William M. Cotton, Lewis A. Schiller and Jackie L. McMicken, did the research and prepared the original manuscript.

"One of the basic objectives of the Institute of Public Affairs is that of encouraging and facilitating research by members of the faculty and graduate students in the social sciences at the University," Dr. Stuart A. MacCorkle, Institute director, said.

Corwin W. Johnson, associate professor of law, supervised and directed the students' work. Lynn F. Anderson, assistant director of the Institute, read the manuscript.

Copies are available at $1 each from the Institute of Public Affairs, University of Texas, Austin 12.

Reservists To Talk Unit Administration

Capt. Randolph Hurt will lead a seminar of unit administration work at the weekly meeting of the Headquarters Flight, 9815th Vart Squadron.

A film, "Dangerous War Trophies," also will be shown at the reservist meeting at 8 p.m. Thursday at 319 East Texas Street.

Daddy Ringtail

Daddy Ringtail And The Ten Fingers

The Huffen Puffen, the friendly wolf, should never have been afraid to go to bed in a room that was dark. The dark can never hurt anyone, but the Huffen didn't know this. He decided to let the light stay on all night.

He got into bed, there in his hollow tree house, and pulled the cover up around his shoulders. The light bothered him at first. It shone in his eyes, but the Huffen knew out. And then the rest of his head. Oh me! The Huffen shivered all over to see it.

Down near the foot of his bed he saw ten fingers that were stuck up in the air. I mean they looked like ten fingers. "Ooooooh!" cried the Huffen. But he was too frightened to say it very loud. He reached over to the table by the bed to get the great big stick he kept to use if ever he needed it. He hit as hard as he could with the stick at the how to fix that without turning off the light. He pulled the cover up and up around his ears and over his eyes. Soon he was fast asleep with the light burning there in his room.

I don't know what awakened him. It wasn't anything dangerous, and it might even have been Dr. Snoring running up the Elephant Path to see a someone who is sick. But something woke the Huffen, way in the middle of the night very late. The Huffen was frightened at first with the cover all over his head, and then he stuck his nose things that looked like fingers that were ten.

"Ahoosoooo!" howled the Huffen Puffen. "Ouch and two ouches and oh me!" And the Huffen jumped out of bed and began to dance around on one of his feet and then the other.

The fingers weren't really fingers, you know. They were toes that were sticking up out of the cover. The toes belonged to the Huffen, and that's what he got for pulling the cover up over his head and letting his feet stick out. Oh, but it hurts to hit your toes with a stick. But it would never have happened if the Huffen hadn't been so much of a fraidy wolf, scared of the dark. Why, everyone knows that the dark can never hurt anyone. Happy day!
