Conoco Completes Wolfcamp Opener In C-W Lea Area

Continental Oil Company has completed a flowing discovery from the Wolfcamp-Permian lime in Central-West Lea County, New Mexico at its No. 1-Q-15 State, a wildcat prospector.

This new field opener is 22 miles west of Lovington and 1,900 feet from north and east lines of section 15-16-32e.

It drilled to total depth of 13,688 feet in barren Devonian lime and dolomite. A string of 7-inch casing is cemented at 12,433 feet. Pipe Perforated.

That pipe is perforated at 9,949-69 feet in the upper Wolfcamp lime. The perforated interval had been treated with 3,000 gallons of acid.

On completion test the wildcat flowed 167 barrels of new oil in eight hours through a 40 64th inch tubing choke. That gives the project a calculated 24-hour potential of 501 barrels of oil. There was no water. Gas-oil ratio was 364-1.

Confirmation Test In Central Andres Flows Oil On DST

Flowing oil from the Wolfcamp has been developed at The Texas Company No. 1 Cobb, confirmation test in the recently opened Andrews (Wolfcamp) field of Central Andrews County.

Drillstem test was taken in the section from 8,629 to 8,727 feet. Tool was open four hours and 45 minutes. Gas surfaced in four minutes and oil in two hours and 15 minutes. Gas volume was not gauged. The project made 33 barrels of oil in two and one-half hours of flowing to tanks.

Operator reversed out recovery. It was 52 barrels of clean oil. No formation water was found.

Flowing pressure was from 55 to 1,540 pounds. Shutin pressure was 2,915 pounds.

Operator was drilling more hole. Location for the confirmation test is 600 feet from south and west lines of section 16, block A-46, pal survey and one location east of the field discovery.

Scurry Discovery Is Completed

Robert J. Zonne and Coronet Oil Company, both of Midland, have completed their No. 1-574 E. G. Browning as a small flowing discovery from the San Andres-Permian lime in Northwest Scurry County.

The well flowed 281 barrels of 32.8-gravity oil and 151 barrels of salt water in 24 hours through a one-half inch tubing choke.

Gas-oil ratio was 6,388-1. The production is from open hole between the bottom of the 8 5/8 inch casing cemented at 2,083 feet and the plugged back total depth of 2,200 feet.

Head Used Acid

That section had been treated with a total of 9,000 gallons of acid. The wildcat drilled to a bottom of 8,307 feet in barren Ellenburger. It then plugged back to 2,200 feet for the test which has resulted in the flowing production.

Location is 660 feet from south and west lines of section 574, block 97, H&TC survey. It is three miles northeast of the town of Fluvanna.

E-C Andrews Pool Gets New Producer

Continental Oil Company No. 3 McCollum & Wiebusch has been completed as the third producer in the Wemac (Wolfcamp) field of East-Central Andrews County.

The new one, one location southeast of the field discovery, was completed for a daily pumping potential of 113 barrels of 42.4-gravity oil and 126 barrels of water.

Production is coming through perforations in casing opposite the lower Wolfcamp at 8,897-8,968 feet and 8,883-8,920 feet.

Pay had been treated with acid. Location is 1,982 feet from south and 664 feet from east lines of section 24, block A-44, pal survey.

Howard Discovery Gets North Offset

Drilling will be started at once on a one-quarter of a mile stepout from a recently completed flowing discovery from the Pennsylvanian reef lime in Northwest Howard County.

The new project will be Oceanic Oil Company and Charles C. Green, Jr., and Joe W. McSpadden, all of Midland No. 2 Lou Winans.

Drillate is 660 feet from north and 1,980 feet from east lines of (Continued On Page 10)

Shivers Blasts FBI As 'Snoopers'

Wandering Huntsmen Return Empty-Handed

By COPE ROUTH

My god, can't a kid go hunting without the whole country getting into an uproar.

Two-year-old Riley Pape just couldn't understand it.

"We weren't lost at all," he explained shortly after 4 p.m. Tuesday as he waited for his father to come for him and his pal, 11-year-old Don Warren. "We just went hunting."

For 26 hours the search had been underway as police patrol cars cruised the area and an airplane flew low over the surrounding countryside.

And, then, at 4 p.m. Tuesday, an unidentified motorist spotted the pair headed toward the city on the Andrews Highway, just outside the city limits.

And few minutes later, he flagged down a police car and turned the hikers over to Sgt. Deloss Grayson.

"What's all the excitement about?" inquired Riley as the two were held, pending the arrival of their fathers. N. A. Pape of 2206 West Washington Street and M. W. Warren of 2210 West Washington Street.

Not Lost At All

"Aw, we weren't lost at all. Part of the time we were downtown going through the dime store and last night we even went to the movies."

"We knew where we were all the time."

The big adventure began Sunday afternoon.

"Me and Don started talking then about going on a hunting trip but we didn't get a chance to get away until yesterday," explained Riley.

Shortly after 1 p.m., Mrs. Warren left home to take her daughter to the Girl Scout Day Camp at T. S. Hogan Park.

The two youngsters quickly dumped some extra clothes and an axe into a big duffelbag, which must have weighed 30 pounds.

Headed Northwest

They headed northwest and by late afternoon were about a mile out on the Andrews Highway.

"We found an old shack and went inside," Riley continued. "Then we decided we didn't want to live there at all. So we headed back toward town until we found an empty house."

"We stayed there awhile and then decided we didn't want to live there either."

So they came on closer to town and finally set up headquarters in a building under construction at the Permian Shopping Center.

"It wasn't much of a place," admitted Riley, "because we had to sleep on a pile of bricks."

Shortly before nightfall, they built a little fire.

"We had bought some pork and beans, sausage and crackers and stuff," Riley explained, "and we put these next to the fire to warm up. We were hungry and it tasted pretty good."

After supper, they decided to go to the drive-in movie on the Andrews Highway.

"We hiked across the country and stayed in the picture show only about five minutes," said Riley.

"Coming back," we saw our only rabbit but, darn it, we'd left our guns back at camp and he got away."

Finally the boys settled down on their pile of bricks for the night.

"It was cold," Riley explained, "but it wasn't too bad. I didn't get to sleep until about 2:30, although Don dozed off before that."

Tuesday morning they woke early, fixed some breakfast and went to town. They wandered around the streets in the business district and explored the dime stores.

"Around noon," the younger lad continued, "I went home. I never did go in the house, though. I saw my daddy and got scared I would get a whipping."

The pair returned to camp, explored the country and in mid-afternoon started home, getting a lift along the way from the motorist who turned them over to police.

"Their fathers finally arrived to take them home."

"No," said Pape, "I don't think they'll get a spanking. After what we went through last night, it's too good just to get them back home."

Council Promises South Park Outlet

A paved route from Midland's South Park Addition to the business district was assured Tuesday night by the City Council.

In response to a plea from some 150 property owners in South Park, the council instructed City Manager W. H. Oswalt to proceed with plans for paving at least one street to serve as a route to the downtown area.

The street will be East New Jersey, which was included originally in the current paving program.

But the possibility of eliminating that street from the program appeared last week when the contractor reported property owners had not agreed to participate.

James Zimmerman, 3105 South Dallas Street, appearing as a spokesman for the delegation of about 50 South Park residents, said most of the property owners along East New Jersey Street had agreed to the paving after being contacted.

Plans call for paving the street east from South Main Street to South Terrill Street, bordering the northern edge of South Park, where all streets now are paved.

Health Laws Amended

In other actions, Tuesday night, the council:

Passed an ordinance requiring health cards for employees of grocery stores and other establishments, similar to those required of food handlers in restaurants.

Passed a resolution providing that hangar tenants at Midland Air Terminal carry windstorm and fire insurance on the buildings.

Passed an ordinance requiring panels and switch gear for control of light and cable circuits conform with provisions of the National Electric Code.

Passed an ordinance requiring that doors be removed from abandoned ice boxes and similar containers.

Approved a contract with the Velvin Construction Company of Midland for construction of foundations for a new water storage tank and booster pump station on the western edge of the city.

Union Leader Says Phoners 'May Slay Out Till Christmas'

By The Associated Press

A union leader told a mass meeting of striking Southwestern Bell Telephone Workers at Dallas Wednesday, "We'll stay out until Christmas, if necessary," to beat what he called a "no-strike clause" blocking settlement of the six-state walkout.

The strike by 53,000 CIO Communications Workers entered its seventh day.

At St. Louis, negotiators were deadlocked over a company-proposed clause in a new contract. The company says it was to avoid "quickie" walkouts.

The one stumbling block concerns what the company calls a "protection of service" clause in a new contract. Union spokesmen say it is a "no-strike" clause and unacceptable.

Frank Lonergan, vice president of the union's District 6, called upon the company at St. Louis to sit down and work out a "properly worded grievance clause and a properly worded arbitration clause."

"This issue could be settled with the people on the job," Lonergan said.

A spokesman for the company took issue with Lonergan that the proposed clause would violate the CWA-CIO constitution.

Midland Skipped In Rain Spread

Scattered rain soaked crops in the Rio Grande Valley and along the South Texas Coast a fourth straight day Wednesday, and the Weather Bureau Forecast other sections of the state may get good rains this week.

Midland, however, was left out. Midlanders were to see scattered clouds at 4,000 feet with no threat of rain or blowing sand. Temperatures here dropped from a 91-degree high Tuesday to 67 degrees Wednesday morning.

Mid-Air Collision Kills Bergstrom Pilot

AUSTIN—(P)—A pilot was killed Wednesday when his F-84 Thunderjet exploded and crashed after colliding with another jet.

The other pilot nursed his plane back to Bergstrom Air Force Base for a crash landing. He suffered only a minor leg injury, an officer said.

Names were withheld.

 LATE NEWS FLASHES ***

LAREDO (P)—Families started fleeing their homes Wednesday in the little towns of Falcon and Lopana as runoffs from heavy South Texas rains backed up 25 miles behind the new Falcon Dam on the oncedry Rio Grande.

CAPRI, ITALY (P)—Prof. Auguste Piccard, stratosphere balloonist, failed Wednesday in two attempts to conquer the depths of the Mediterranean off Capri in his bathyscope.

BERLIN (P)—The Communist East German Parliament declared Wednesday it is ready to join with West Germany in forming a provisional government to organize German unity.

A'HUNTING WE WILL GO—Don Warren, left, and Riley Pape only went hunting. But they didn't tell their folks. Twenty-six hours later they turned up safe and sound—but with no game to show for their hunting trip.

Sobbing Secretary Confesses Slaying

NEW YORK—(P)—A pretty Massachusetts stenographer, sobbing hysterically, Wednesday admitted she killed the young sister of a boy friend who broke off with her and married another.

Police quoted petite Mildred McDonald, 25, of Somerville, Mass., as saying she shot the girl, Mary Di Rocco, 14, Monday after the child told her the brother was happy with his new wife.

"The girl had been shot five times, her throat slashed and her body partly burned in the Di Rocco home in Somerville."

A sharp-eyed policeman, George Grace, spotted Miss McDonald near Times Square Tuesday night. He recognized her from an Associated Press wirephoto he had seen minutes before.

For 10 hours, the blonde stenographer protested her innocence. Then near dawn, police said, she admitted:

"I shot her several times."

Police, elaborating on the story Miss McDonald told, quoted her as saying:

"Everything reeled around me. I was just plain crazy."

"She said she went to tell the mother why she was mad at Joe—that, after all, she was humiliated."

"I thought we were going to get married," he quoted her as saying. "Then he brushed me off. That hurt me. That's what I had against Joe and that's what I was going to talk to his mother about."

Returning GI's Say Reds To Repatriate 'Jailed' Americans

PANMUNJOM—(P)—Another 400 UN soldiers returned from North Korea stockades Wednesday amid indications the Reds will send back some Americans handed jail terms and possibly more prisoners than they originally promised.

Two of the 133 Americans who crossed into friendly hands Wednesday said some fellow Americans sentenced to prison for "instigating against the peace" were awaiting repatriation, possibly in a day or two, at Kaesong. Kaesong, just north of Panmunjom, is the Red holding point for Allied POW's.

The apparent switch in the Communist attitude toward these prisoners followed protests by the UN Command that the Reds were holding back dozens of men on trumped-up charges.

Dulles said if framers of the UN Charter "had known that the mysterious and immeasurable power of the atom would be available as a means of mass destruction, the provisions of the charter dealing with disarmament and the regulation of armaments would have been far more emphatic and realistic."

Laughlin Trip To New Mexico To Avoid Arrest Recounted By Hearing Witness

AUSTIN—(P)—Joe Guerra, Starr County Old Party leader, testified Wednesday District Judge Woodrow Laughlin told him he was advised to leave the state last December to avoid arrest and an attempt to keep him out of office.

Guerra said Laughlin considered himself "politically indebted" for the advice.

Guerra testified in the eighth day of hearing into charges seeking Laughlin's removal.

Laughlin named the New Party leader, Manuel Raymond of Laredo, his benefactor, Guerra testified.

Guerra said he had called on Laughlin several times to object to an appointment of A. J. Sanchez as auditor for Starr County.

Guerra said Sanchez once had been tax assessor-collector but had retired from politics when it was learned his funds were several thousand dollars short.

When Guerra called on Laughlin to protest the appointment, Guerra said Laughlin told him he wished he could but didn't see how he could reconsider.

"He said he was under a terrible obligation to Manuel Raymond," Guerra said.

Guerra quoted Laughlin as saying:

"If it wasn't for Judge Raymond, I wouldn't be up today."

"He called me up from Laredo on December 26 and said he had very important information—I had better get over there."

"He said he had word from a Jim Wells County grand jury I would be indicted on December 26 and would be arrested and an attempt made to keep me from taking office."

Agency Chief Replies Texan 'Misinformed'

AUSTIN—(P)—Governor Shivers, who accused the FBI of violating states' rights in some civil liberties cases, told FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover Wednesday he isn't the first governor to complain.

He said the attorney general knows all about it, and suggested Hoover read the minutes of the last three National Governors Conferences.

Living Costs Edge To New Record High

WASHINGTON—(P)—The government said Wednesday living costs edged to a new record high in mid-July. The increase gave a million auto industry workers a one-cent hourly pay boost.

It was the second straight month the government's living cost measurement had hit a record. The index has risen now five months in a row.

Higher prices for food, rent, transportation and medical care were the main items responsible.

The Bureau of Labor Statistics said its index, known as the consumers price index, reached 114.7 per cent of the 1947-49 average. This is two-tenths of one per cent higher than in mid-June, also a living cost peak.

The mid-July level was one-half of one per cent above a year ago and 12.1 per cent above the level at the start of the Korean war.

An index rise to 114.8 would have been enough to provide a two-cent hourly pay boost for the auto workers, whose rates are geared to the government figures.

PANMUNJOM BOX SCORE

PANMUNJOM—(P)—Box score on prisoners of war repatriated in 22 days:

Total Allies—9,826 of 12,763, or 77 per cent.

Total Communist—49,000 of 74,000, or 66 per cent.

Americans—2,128 of 3,213, or 66 per cent.

British—849 of 922, or 92 per cent.

South Korean—5,733 of 6,186, or 79 per cent.

Firemen Sound Own Alarm, But Shoulda Stood In Bed

Midland's firefighters showed excellent form Tuesday night—but 'twas all for naught.

There wasn't any fire.

Can't blame them, though. How'd you feel if you waked up, peered drowsily out a window and saw smoke billowing from a next-door roof?

Excited? That's a calm way of putting it. The fire station "quivered" after firemen looked out and saw the roof of The Reporter-Telegram building wearing a telegram of smoke.

At least six firemen in various stages of dress and undress hopped it across the alley, slammed

Laughlin's trip to New Mexico Just before he took office January 1. He testified it had been a "vacation trip" and that he had taken oath of office from his father-in-law in Alpine before returning to Alice.

A San Diego druggist, Donato Serna, charged from the witness chair Tuesday that it is "strongarm" tactics and economic pressure that keeps South Texas political Boss George Parr's forces in power.

He said fear of those things kept people from voting for the opposition.

Serna and two others told of being subjected to such tactics after they opposed Parr forces.

Charges against Laughlin contend his release of court-imposed general election ballots aided Parr's forces in finding out how people voted.

Manuel Marroquin, a tortilla factory operator, testified he was told if he didn't "get right" politically his business would "get hurt."

Marroquin said political ties of parents were held against children. He said children of anti-Parr parents received no bids on their animals at a county stock show.

On cross-examination Defense Attorney C. C. Small, Sr., asked: "Did you expect George Parr to come out there and bid on them?"

"He was there, but I expected nothing of George Parr. I expected the children all to be treated alike," Marroquin replied.

Fred Garcia, former band master of the San Diego schools, said he was fired after his brother was an anti-Parr candidate last Summer.

Garcia now is attendance supervisor for a Jim Wells County school. "That's a true officer with a degree," he explained.

FATHERS OF FLIGHT—The Wright Brothers—(3)

Orville Wright was nearly 30 and his brother, Wilbur, four years older, when their imaginations were again stirred by the memory of the toy plane their father had given them years before. Working in their bicycle shop in Dayton, they began experimenting with gliders.

A French civil engineer named Octave Chanute provided them with aerodynamics figures whose inaccuracy, oddly, was to be one of the greatest aids to the Wrights' eventual mastery of the air.

In 1901 the Wrights built what they called a "gliding machine." They took it to the North Carolina dune country because of its prevailing winds and the hills for takeoffs. The following year their glider crashed and Orville was slightly injured.

'Back-To-School' Fete For Andrews Pupils Announced

ANDREWS—The Andrews Chamber of Commerce will sponsor a big "back-to-school" party for all Andrews school youths here Monday, two days prior to the opening date of school, September 2.

Andrews merchants are cooperating and a full day of entertainment is planned. The party will begin with a free movie in the morning and free ice cream will be served before noon.

At 2:30 p.m. the Chamber of Commerce will give away a bicycle, camera, leather zipper note book and blue jeans to the students.

The county swimming pool will be opened from 4 to 6 p.m., free of charge.

Frank Elkins, manager of the Andrews Chamber of Commerce, urged the cooperation of all parents to make it possible for their children to participate in the celebration.

HOLLYWOOD TODAY!

MOVIES - TV - RADIO by Erskine Johnson

Behind the Screen: There's a new contract waiting for Van Johnson's signature at MGM, but Van has ideas about his future.

Playing Lt. Maryk in "The Caine Mutiny," Van told us: "I can't make up my stupid mind. One of my big faults is indecision. I didn't realize there were so many exciting things going on in Hollywood beyond studio gates."

For a long time, says Van, he did pictures MGM gave him without much hope of moving into better roles.

"But maybe," he says, "it was my fault. I didn't scream or fight when other actors turned down parts and the boys would say 'Give it to Johnson.' I took the discards and tried to be pliable."

There's no crystal ball to give him the answer, but Van is inclined to think he should be paired with different feminine faces in the future. He groans:

"I was teamed with June Allyson, Esther Williams and Janet Leigh so much that all the freshness went out of things. We'd all know just what we were going to do. There was no fire. A new leading lady once in a while sparks you. It's a stimulant. The whole industry could use a little of it."

Betty Hayden is describing her "reconciliation" with rugged Sterling Hayden with the wordage: "We're not reconciled but we're together. We both hope things will work out."

Bouncing Betty Hutton is admitting her Las Vegas night-club triumph bounced her off the career springboard into a swirling pool of fabulous offers "that has me dizzy. So I'm taking a vacation before I make up my mind about anything."

Where they were lukewarm about the idea a year ago, every studio in town now wants her name on the dotted line for the Sophie Tucker film biography. There was indecision, too, about her TV future but now she's beaming:

"Honey, it's fantastic. They're waving money at us."

With so many stars putting their household furnishing under the hammer, you can almost sum up the career of some movie kings and queens this way:

"Lights. Camera. AUCTION."

There's eyebrow-lifting irony in three signs I've watched go up on a Crenshaw Blvd. movie theater in Los Angeles. The first one put up a year ago, read:

"We're Tired of TV. Too No Commercials Here."

Then the theater closed and the Peter Lorre will star in Robert Rossellini's next untitled film in Italy. But Ingrid will be too busy playing a non-singing role in the operatic version of "Joan of Arc" to take direction from her hubby.

Jack Palance and Joan Fontaine, it now can be told, didn't get along as costars in "Flight to Tangier." No clashes or arguments—just bristling.

The John Kerr who will be Deborah Kerr's leading man in "Tea and Sympathy" on Broadway is the son of June Walker, a famous silent screen star.

Stage Beauty Cindy Heller, writing about her marriage to comic Joey Adams in See Magazine, insists that Joel changed the marriage vows to read, "Love, honor and applaud."

"Hattie" Carlsson Arrives In Midland For 3-Day Fashion Showing Starting Thursday Noon

Fall fashions at their best will be shown at Hinkel's when Hattie Carlsson arrives from Albuquerque tomorrow with her collection of fashion firsts in coats, suits and dresses styled for fall wear.

Miss Carlsson, coat, suit and dress buyer for Hinkel's of Albuquerque, has just returned from a buying trip in New York City where she has picked up the style feeling and fashion magic of the big city salons.

Her collection that will be on view here for three days is sparked by original jewelry, hand-crafted in the modern manner by Albuquerque artists Peg Nelson and Bob Hooten of Workshop Originals in Old Albuquerque.

The sophisticated line and modern design of the jewelry accents the smooth styling of the exciting fashion makers included in Miss Carlsson's collection. Names such as Edith Small, Adele Simpson, Adele of California, Jules Originals, Charles Cooper and Werle Originals stamp her collection with the high fashion details that make this fall such an exciting time in designers' showrooms.

Miss Carlsson points out that color and fabric highlight the style picture this year. Inevitably the coronation has captured the imagination and left its impression of richness and quality—particularly in fabrics, Miss Carlsson says.

"Fabrics are wonderful this year—they're imported, they're rich and they're soft."

These fabrics are most exciting in the beige to brown, or "The well-done tones," Miss Carlsson says, "very good for the fall picture."

The costume look is another thing Miss Carlsson likes about the fall picture. The costume-look is a well-matched look where top, suit, dress and coat complement each other in color, fabric and line.

In the collection, the Silk Silhouette of the long, smooth, sleek line will be contrasted with the full flowing line of the coats that have come from the Parisian drawing boards this year.

In the spirit of the Southwest where Miss Carlsson will tour with her collection, full fiesta dresses by Albuquerque Originals are featured with all the brilliant color and wealth of decorative detail that has made the Southwest's fiesta dress a fashion novelty from Alaska to Fifth Avenue.

The showing will be directed by Miss Carlsson with the help of models who will be on hand throughout the informal fashion staged by Hinkel's.

Clumsy Propaganda Effort No responsible Western statesman takes seriously the new Russian note on the unification of Germany. It is accepted widely as a transparent and rather clumsy device to influence adversely the chances of Chancellor Adenauer in the September 6 West German elections.

A possible second aim is to boost the prestige of the faltering East German puppet regime, which demonstrated June 17 in the celebrated riots that it holds power only through the support of the Russian army.

The reaction of Western diplomats to this latest Soviet proposal was that it contained nothing really new and simply was a stale, wearisome repetition of points made by the Russians in March, 1952. In these points are two principal traps.

One is that the Kremlin proposes an all-German provisional government be set up before free elections are held in this country. That government would be formed through a coalition of the present Bonn regime and the thoroughly discredited East German set-up.

The second is that this provisional government then would prepare and supervise the "free" elections to be held. In other words, there would be utterly no international control exercised over the election. To the Russians, this is "foreign interference."

What these two schemes mean in plain English is that the Russians wish to assure participation in any all-German government of the Kremlin's East German errand boys, and through them to make certain that any elections will be rigged in the standard Communist fashion—at least so far as East German territory is concerned.

The West's consistent position has been that free elections, under proper international safeguards, be held first. Any all-German government, in Western view, should be the product of these elections, not the manager of them.

Russia's oft-repeated refusal to accept these terms amounts to an admission that the Reds do not want a truly free, unified Germany largely in control of its own destiny. Moscow simply is trying to arrange for the ultimate Russian domination of a weak, neutralized, unarmed Germany.

It gives the game away with its stress on the necessity for Bonn dropping all plans to join the European Defense Community. The Reds want to crack the whole European unity movement.

Few observers expect these proposals to have any solid impact, even in Germany. The Social Democrats, Adenauer's stiffest foes, themselves insist free elections must be under international control. And the sweet talk about cutting out Russian reparations will fool no one. The Allies stopped reparations long ago.

Satlin's death may have changed many things. But certainly it has not brought to the Kremlin a great new burst of diplomatic inventiveness. This was a fumbling effort.

The Washington Merry-Go-Round

By Drew Pearson (Copyright 1953, By The Bell Syndicate, Inc.) Drew Pearson says: Tom Dewey considers himself on Ike's sidelines; Southwest farmers aren't grabbing for government loans; McCarthy tries to discourage report on his personal finances.

WASHINGTON — Governor Dewey had a significant talk with Democratic Leader Sam Rayburn the other day which indicated that the No. 1 man in obtaining Eisenhower's nomination in Chicago a year ago now is pretty much on the Eisenhower sidelines. Dewey had come to Washington to push his legislation for cleaning up the New Jersey-New York waterfront, and dropped in to see ex-Speaker Rayburn in order to get Democratic support.

Rayburn told him he thoroughly agreed with the legislation and would push it—which he did. But after discussing waterfront problems, Dewey asked the Democratic leader how he thought things were going in Washington and particularly who in the Cabinet was doing a good job.

"Well, this fellow Wilson is no help," Rayburn replied, referring to the secretary of Defense, "and neither is Sinclair Weeks, or this fellow Benson, or John Foster Dulles. However, he's got a good man in Humphrey—and Joe Dodge," continued Rayburn, referring to the secretary of the Treasury and the director of the Budget.

"How's Brownell doing?" Dewey asked, referring to the attorney general, who was Dewey's campaign manager in 1948. "All right," replied Rayburn. "He knows what the score is. But most of the people around Eisenhower don't understand politics."

"And politics," observed Dewey, "is one of the most skilled sciences there are." Rayburn concurred; then made some friendly observations about the fact that Eisenhower needed some good political advice from Republicans who are skilled at politics, such as Dewey.

"There's nothing," observed the governor of New York, "so unappreciated as unsolicited advice." Drouth Loans When Undersecretary of Agriculture Trus D. Morse told President Eisenhower and Southwest farmers in Denver the other day that drought loan applications "had been less than expected," he referred to a puzzling farm phenomenon.

Although Congress appropriated $150 million for the drought emergency, only a trickle of loan applications has been received from parched Southwest farmers. Agriculture Department officials in Washington are at a loss to understand why.

Final results do not reach Washington with much speed, but as of August 7, only 308 loan applications had been received—181 from Texas; 52 from Missouri; 27 from Oklahoma; 21 from Kansas; 20 from New Mexico; 18 from Arkansas; and 11 from Colorado.

confiscated all this machinery. But after the war, under his contract with the Greek government, Hells was required to drill to a sufficient depth prior to Sept. 30, 1953, in order to keep his concessions.

Bill Hells, Sr. now is dead. But Bill Hells, Jr., dropped in to the Greek Embassy to tell Ambassador Politis that he would go through with the necessary drilling before September.

But what pleasantly surprised the ambassador was Hells' further report that he would turn over all royalties from oil and all profits from the venture to a Greek foundation for the promotion of health, education, and closer cultural ties between the Greek and American people.

Thus the son of a Greek immigrant who has succeeded in the U. S. embarks on an enlightened policy aimed to promote democracy between the United States and Greece.

JACOBY ON BRIDGE

By OSWALD JACOBY Written for NEA Service

It is pleasant to report a hand in which each side makes the best play at every turn. Unfortunately, however, few hands are played that well even in expert circles. Today's football game, for example, took place in a very famous New York club. Everybody in the game was an experienced player, of course, and two of them were well-known experts.

The bidding was flawless. South got to a very reasonable contract, and should have made it. West opened the queen of clubs, holding the trick. If he had then switched to a trump, he could have made sure of defeating the contract.

tract. West was afraid, however, that South had the ace of diamonds—in which case it would be vital for the defenders to take all possible tricks in the black suits before giving up the lead.

This was the kind of mistake that an expert might make. There was no way for West to know South had spade strength rather than the ace of diamonds. When West continued with the jack of clubs at the second trick, South should have made his contract.

After ruffing the second round of clubs, South must immediately lead the king of spades. West can take the ace of spades and can lead one trump, but dummy still has a trump to ruff the third round of spades. Q—With both sides vulnerable, the bidding has been:

Statements On U. S. H-Bomb Limited To Scattered Hints

By PETER EDSON NEA Washington Correspondent

WASHINGTON—Soviet Premier Georgi Malenkov's statement that the United States no longer had a monopoly on the hydrogen bomb has raised the question of just what progress this country has made on H-bomb development? There is little real information on this subject in official statements of the Atomic Energy Commission, the Department of Defense or anybody else who knows anything about the H-bomb.

President Truman announced that the United States would proceed with development of the H-bomb on Jan. 31, 1950. But just what is there to show for three and a half years' work? When the huge 350,000-acre Savannah River plant was announced by the AEC in November, 1950, it was said materials for use in fuel reactors, or materials to use in weapons could be produced. The total cost of this plant: $1,500,000,000.

The latest AEC semi-annual report declares simply that "supporting facilities at Savannah River joined the production stream." Congressional appropriation hearings reveal that some 5,000 out of an expected total of 7,100 permanent operations employees are now on the job. But plant construction is by no means complete and no date has been announced for full operation.

Twenty-six thousand construction workers still are employed at the plant site. New Mexico Development Actual development of the H-bomb is being carried on at Los Alamos Scientific Laboratory, in New Mexico. This is where the first A-bombs were built. After 10 years of operation by University of California, it probably is the best equipped physics research center in the world.

Its staff of more than 5,000 scientists is organized to obtain maximum results from group thinking, mass brain power, and coordinated research. Individual credit therefore can't be given for H-bomb development. But the men who run Los Alamos have that responsibility. They include:

Dr. Norris E. Bradbury, 44, a native Californian, MIT educated, now on leave from Stanford University. During the war he served as a Navy commander at Los Alamos and succeeded Dr. J. Robert Oppenheimer, the first Los Alamos director, in 1945.

His technical associate director is Dr. Carol K. Frohman, 46, a native of Washington state. He was one of the 41 scientists in on the original atomic pile experiment at Chicago in 1943.

Another was Dr. Alvin C. Graves, 44, of Washington, D. C., now head of weapons test and director of Eniwetok experiments in 1952, as well as the Nevada tests this year. The No. 1 figure on H-bomb development, however, probably is Dr. Edward Teller, 45, a Hungarian-born physicist who was educated in Germany. From 1935 to 1941 he was professor of physics at George Washington University. He had a part in planning and predicting the functioning of the atomic bomb and in 1946, at Los Alamos, worked out the theory of the fusion process which is the basis of the H-bomb.

After President Truman gave the go-ahead, Dr. Teller worked throughout 1950 on research. His device was supposed to have been tested at Eniwetok in March, 1951.

Reports have been circulated widely that in this fourteenth U. S. nuclear explosion test, a small amount of hydrogen was triggered by an atomic bomb. Other reports have described this as the most violent man-produced explosion in history. But neither of these reports ever has been officially confirmed or commented upon.

And no further tests have been announced. The tests at Eniwetok in November, 1952, were reported again as including "experiments contributing to thermonuclear weapons research." That was all the official announcements said.

Reports have been circulated widely that in this fourteenth U. S. nuclear explosion test, a small amount of hydrogen was triggered by an atomic bomb. Other reports have described this as the most violent man-produced explosion in history. But neither of these reports ever has been officially confirmed or commented upon.

Beside the Laughing Water

A Romance by LOUIS ARTHUR CUNNINGHAM

XXXIII IN the city, the Drama Festival had begun, with the arrival of groups from all over the wide Dominion, from Vancouver, Calgary, Winnipeg, Montreal, Halifax, St. John's. Young, hopeful, serious folks with plays ranging from "The Taming of the Shrew" to "Riders to the Sea." Lillith, in town with Avis Wayland about some business for their own production, saw the invading hosts of culture and revivified a bit her early condemnation of amateurs and her depreciation of the value of such annual orgies of art. Surely from all this eager-eyed enthusiasm, some real good must come, something of real value to a nation's cultural health.

When the Southern Pacific was going to be built, Pease Bill took the contract for the grading. He rounded up 10,000 badgers and put them to digging. He had trouble getting them to go in a straight line and that's why the railroad has those bends and turns.

So They Say

An ornery, curmudgeon type of individual who is alleged to be a personality problem seems more able to ward off the final results of a cancer. Dr. Heller, cancer expert, speculates that Senator Taft succumbed wittingly to cancer because he was a "kindly man." We can foresee no limit to the atomic power that can be packed into our atomic arsenal. Eugene Zuckert, Atomic Energy commissioner. Ex-Presidents are expected to talk about birthdays... but there are more important things than that. Ex-President Herbert Hoover on his seventy-ninth birthday. I don't think there has ever been a President who understood more clearly than Eisenhower that Congress is NOT a rubber stamp. Senator Wm. F. Knowland. Daddy Ringtail

Daddy Ringtail And Big Surprise

Uncle Bunkum went crawling fishing with Mugwump Monkey, the monkey boy. A crawfish, you know, is a little fellow about the size of your hand, usually. He lives in the river. He has legs that wiggle and kick. He has pinchers like hands to pinch people.

Well, Uncle Bunkum and Mugwump caught a bucket full of crawfish. They took the crawfish home to the monkey house. They hid the bucket of crawfish under the bed to be a surprise for Mother Ringtail.

Oh, but the crawfish crawled out of the bucket when no one was looking. "Eeeow!" shouted Mother Ringtail when a crawfish came crawling across the kitchen floor.

with his pinchers waving in the air. She hadn't known that a crawfish was closer than the Whispering River where they made their home. But now she knew. Crawfish were everywhere she turned, it seemed.

She found a crawfish under the table. "Eeeow!" She found a crawfish behind the door. "Eeeow!" She found a crawfish in the hall. "Eeeow!" She even found a crawfish in the bathtub, but Mother Ringtail didn't shout "Eeeow!" this time. Not another crawfish was going to surprise her. She was used to them by this time. When she found the crawfish in the bathtub, all she did was smile and ask Uncle Bunkum please to put the crawfish back in the river.

Uncle Bunkum did put it back in the river, and he explained that he and Mugwump had only caught the crawfish at all for them to be a surprise.

And all day long there were shouts of "Surprise!" every time Mother Ringtail found a crawfish. Everytime she smiled a weak little smile. "This is funny," said Uncle Bunkum, and he laughed and laughed.

Yes, but that night, when Uncle Bunkum got into bed, a crawfish was waiting there for him. It pinched real tight to hold his finger. "Surprise!" shouted Mother Ringtail. Mugwump laughed with a "Ha! Ha!" and a "Ho! Ho!" and you can laugh too, if you want to. Happy day!

Amateur Talent Is Featured By Mummies

Although the Winter presentations of the Community Theater are produced with the help of a regular director, Art Cole, the popular Summer Mummer plays are produced entirely with amateur talent.

W. H. Pomeroy, Jr., director of "The Drunkard," has had a number of years of experience in amateur productions, while Walter Beardsley had his first directing assignment for "Dirty Work at the Crossroads."

All the behind-the-scenes workers this season have fitted their theater assignments into busy schedules.

Serving on the staff for the plays are Mrs. J. S. Roden, advertising director; Dolores Franklin, treasurer; Imogene Hindsg., program chairman; Charles A. Shaw, house manager; Mrs. Ben W. Wiseman, Jr., box office chairman; Charlotte Crawley, Norma Gibson and Mrs. Bruce Shade, hostesses.

Mrs. F. B. Pennycook, wardrobe mistress; Barbara Munson, properties chairman; Bruce Shade, construction director; and Mrs. J. E. Beakley, publicity chairman.

About 20 other workers have assisted with the productions.

The 1953 Summer season of the Mummies will close with the presentation of "Dirty Work at the Crossroads" at 8:30 p.m. Friday and Saturday in the American Legion Hall. The box office is located at Albert S. Kelley, Inc., 113 North Colorado Street.

El Pasoans Say Vows In Midland

Vows were solemnized Monday in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Richmond Grice of Midland for Mrs. Marion Dunn Waller of El Paso and Capt. Eugene Howard Scott, Jr. Mrs. Grice is the daughter of the bride.

Dr. R. Mathew Lynn, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, officiated at the ceremony which was attended only by members of the family. These included Mrs. Stella J. Dunn, mother of the bride, and Ricky, Priscilla and Marion Grice, the bride's grandchildren.

Capt. Scott is the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Scott of Athens, Ga. Now stationed at Fort Bliss in El Paso, Capt. Scott has orders for duty with the Army Aviation Section in Germany, and will report to his port of embarkation September 25. He has completed a tour of duty as a pilot in Korea and also served overseas during World War II.

The couple pledged vows before an improvised altar of greenery and white chrysanthemums. For her wedding the bride chose a pale pink silk shantung dress with a pink linen hat of modified cooile design and a corsage of pink camellias.

Following the ceremony an informal supper was held for members of the family.

Capt. and Mrs. Scott will be temporarily at home in El Paso. The bride is a graduate of Radford School for Girls and now is employed by the El Paso National Bank.

One-Man Forum

By Abe Weiner

You can talk about the Mickey Vernons and the Carl Furillos when you mention the "comeback-of-the-year," but in Midland, we'll pick Barbara Miller's surprising fight from behind in the final of the women's singles of the City Tennis Championships as this year's best performance "from arrears."

The defending champion, Barbara was expected to repeat, but Mrs. Dorothy Craig was regarded highly enough to be seeded second. Both moved into the finals as anticipated, and when Sunday's battle royal opened, Barbara was favored.

These same two protagonists had fought in the finals last year, and so it didn't raise too many eyebrows when each won a set. After an intermission, Mrs. Craig took a commanding advantage from Miss Miller. She led in games, 5-1, after a few minutes and succeeded in reaching match point several times. Barbara was the only person, it seemed, who hadn't conceded the match. She rallied with shots that Mrs. Craig chased from one side of the court to the other, and ere long had gone ahead, 6-5. It was only a matter of time after that, and though she fought valiantly, Mrs. Craig finally bowed, 10-8, in the deciding set.

We believe Mrs. Craig should have been awarded the sportsmanship trophy, however, for at match point on one occasion, she gave Miss Miller the benefit of doubt in calling a high lob in bounds. To us and other spectators nearby, it appeared the shot was out of bounds.

He Deals In Golf Championships

Harvey Penick, the veteran University of Texas golf professor, is to be honored September 5 by the Austin Country Club, of which he has been professional 30 years. Harvey has helped more golfers than any other man in Texas. He has been a member of the University of Texas and produced 17 championship teams in succession before the Southwest Conference fathers deemed it necessary to change the scoring system on him. Even so, he has continued producing champions. He has one national intercollegiate championship to his credit—that produced by Ed White of Houston. In addition, Miss Jameson captured national women's amateur crowns and Miss Rawls took off with two national women's open crowns. Whenever within shouting distance of Austin, both she and Miss Jameson, also a former Penick pupil.

Last Fall before the first annual Betty Jameson Open in San Antonio, Betty gave Penick full credit for developing her game. "Without his help," we recall her saying, "I don't think I'd ever come this far."

Producing Pro Football Exhibition Is Costly

Ever wondered what it costs to finance a professional football exhibition? Roughly, $50,000 to $65,000, depending upon which teams you are able to line up. The competing teams drag off the hog's share of the loot—each club getting $12,500 upwards (generally, $25,000-$30,000). Then, taxes eat up a large share of the gate, the National Professional Football League takes three per cent or so off the cream after taxes, and expenses for referees, two of which must come from the NFL, runs another $750-$1,000. That doesn't even

Tribe Returns Home To Face Ashers After Loss To Colts

SAN ANGELO—Midland's Indians returned home Tuesday night content with the fact that they won't have to meet San Angelo again in regular season play. After taking a doubleheader Monday night, the Tribe returned to its old custom of playing "patsy" for the Colts, bowing, 6-3.

Carlsbad's Potashers, just a game and a half away from the league lead, move into Midland for a two-game stand at 8:15 p.m. Wednesday. The Indians need to win both games to even up their mark against the second-place team this season. Carlsbad has won 11 while Midland has nine victories to its credit.

Steady six-hit hurling by Mario Saldana plus a nine-hit attack enabled the Colts to salvage the final game of the three-tit set against the Indians Tuesday night.

In chalking up his twelfth win against nine defeats, Saldana had to overcome three misplays by his teammates that put him at a temporary deficit. But the Colts broke loose against Glen Selbo in the fifth for three runs and never were headed. Selbo suffered his second defeat without victory.

The Indians jumped to a 1-0 lead in the first on an unearned run. With two out, Shortstop John Jeandron of the Colts erred on Jay Haney's grounder, and the Indians manager promptly stole second and scored on a single by Ted Stephenson.

Glenn Burns knotted the count in the fourth with his thirty-eighth circuit clout of the season, but Midland marched right back in the lead in the fifth on two walks and two hits. Quentin Basco drew a one-out walk and moved to second on a wild pitch. He scored on Lou Dawson's single.

The Colt explosion came quickly in the fifth. Charley Galina opened with a single and moved to third on Steve Follett's double. Galina scored the tying run on John Tayoan's one-baser, and Follett came in for the go-ahead run on Burns' long fly to left, Tayoan moving to second on the throw-in. Rudy Briner bounced out, Tayoan advancing to third. Tayoan scored when Basco muffed John Jeandron's grounder.

Two more Colt runs crossed in the seventh when Burns, safe on a fielder's choice, scored from first on Briner's double. The Colt manager then crossed on Jeandron's single. The final Midland tally came in the eighth, when Art Bowland drew a leadoff walk and scored on Roger Datta's double.

Both Artesia and Roswell head for the date on the road Wednesday night. The Drillers will be at Odessa to tangle with the sixth-place Oilers, while the Rockets will visit league-leading San Angelo.

Drillers Pop Flag Bubble For Rockets

ARTESIA, N. M. — A pair of three-run innings by Artesia more than made up for a five-run Roswell uprising Tuesday night as the Drillers defeated the Rockets, 7-5, to win the three-game series between the two New Mexico Longhorn League rivals, two games to one.

Artesia scored three times in the third and fourth innings, the Drillers' second outburst bringing them from behind to a 5-4 deficit. The Rockets scored their five runs in the top of the fourth.

Starter Pat Monahan received credit for the Artesia victory, although he needed help in the late innings from Fidel Alvarez. Bob Weaver opened on the mound for Roswell, but was relieved by Rolando Muniz in the fourth frame. The latter was charged with the loss.

Both Artesia and Roswell head for the date on the road Wednesday night. The Drillers will be at Odessa to tangle with the sixth-place Oilers, while the Rockets will visit league-leading San Angelo.

Dancer Plans Rest

SARATOGA SPRINGS, N. Y. — (AP)—Native Dancer, back from Chicago where he won the $100,000-added American Derby Saturday will take a vacation until September 25 when he meets Tom Fool in the "dream race" at Belmont Park—the $50,000 Synsonby Mile.

St. Luke's Nine Thunders By First Methodist, 24-1

St. Luke's showed downright disrespect for First Methodist Tuesday night, walloping the regular season champions, 24-1, with a 29-hit barrage.

Included in the rout were six doubles, two triples and one home run. First Methodist contributed only two errors and four walks.

The victory gave St. Luke's the advantage in the best-of-three series to determine the league champion.

While St. Luke's was going on a rampage, First Methodist could muster but five hits off L. K. Stout's "stout" hurling. He yielded only five hits, scattering them until the seventh, when he gave up a single to Barber and a double to Goodwin. That combination produced the only Methodist tally.

St. Luke's made a travesty of the game in the first inning by scoring nine runs on 10 hits. With one down, Walker singled, Frank Ford tripled for one run. Then Hugh McCullough went down, but Payton singled, Lowe doubled and Cheves was on by an error. Mitchell and Stout singled to keep the rally alive, and Rosman doubled ahead of singles by Walker and Ford and McCullough's double.

Rosman's triple and an infield out produced the next run in the third, and a walk to Lowe, and Cheves' and Mitchell's singles added another in the fourth.

Then came two more outbreaks. Mitchell's home run in the fifth featured a six-hit, five-run inning, while doubles by Cheves and Stout highlighted the nine-hit, eight-run sixth.

Walker collected five singles in five trips to pace the attack. First Methodist: 000 000 1-1 5 2 St. Luke's: 901 158 x-24 29 0

Top Pair Defeated In WT-NM Battles
By The Associated Press
The league-leading Albuquerque Dukes had an off night Tuesday, dropping a decision to Clovis, 6-4, but lost little ground in the West Texas-New Mexico race.

Second-place Lubbock also was a victim, bowing to Pampa, 11-5. Lubbock is four games off the Albuquerque pace.

Amarillo smacked over Borger, 12-3, and Plainview drubbed Abilene, 9-4.

Midland Resident Injured In Round-Up
Joseph S. Doakes, long-time resident of Midland, suffered minor injuries in the round-up this week. Doctors said his condition was not serious. Doakes' injuries were described as a series of bruises, contusions, and lacerations received when he stumbled over a lawnmower.

It is said that Mr. Doakes had gotten word that his old lawnmower, regardless of its age, make, or condition was worth $30.00 to him on a trade for a new Jacobsen Power Mower during a round-up of old mowers by a local store. Joe had been struggling with this aged mower for a good many years. He had pushed it by main strength and awkwardness for more than ten years, when, about a year ago, someone gave him a worn-out gas engine which he installed on the thing. Instead of having his troubles, this doubled them, because he not only had to push it, but he had to start it.

Anyway, when Joe heard that he could get $30.00 for the thing on a new Jacobsen, he became so agitated and excited that he fell over the decrepit relic getting his car out of the garage to go to the store.

We visited Joe in the hospital the other day. Told him that we had picked up his "junker," and that when he got to the place he could get around that we would deliver his new Jacobsen to him. Joe smiled painfully and said, "Thanks, chum, that old mower was my worst enemy."

We think our favorite nurse will like that story.

McLaughlin To Pilot Ashers In '54 Season

CARLSBAD — Pat McLaughlin, manager of the first year Carlsbad Potashers of the Longhorn League, will be rehired for the 1954 season, club President Charles Montgomery has announced.

McLaughlin, a former major league, came to Carlsbad in his third job, after Amarillo in 1951 and '52, and Vernon in '52. He so far has pushed the Potashers into second place of this year's race.

McLaughlin's 1954 salary was not disclosed.

Ellis, Crim Dogfight Over Odessa Mark

By CHARLEY ESKEW
Reporter-Telegram Sports Editor
ODESSA—Even before the official beginning of the Odessa Pro-Am Tournament, set Thursday through Sunday, the 100-odd early golfers began a huge assault on the Country Club's layout Tuesday.

Young Wesley Ellis, Jr. former Southwest Conference champion from the University of Texas, tumbled up for the meet with a seven-under-par 65 Tuesday to erase a four-week-old amateur record of 68 owned by Ted Roden of Odessa. The San Antonio boy, doddering right now between a pending call to the armed services or to a medical school appointment, fired one bogey and eight birdies in a round that was acclaimed splendid because the course "is playing harder" since its recent remodeling.

Odessa Gold Rushers

The teams through early Wednesday (pros listed first):
Raymond Gafford, Dallas, and Ed Hopkins, Abilene; Sammy Spear, McAllen, and Dick Goerlich, Beaumont; J. G. Hardwick, Houston, and Buddy Brannum, Midland; Bill Trombley, Dallas, and Harlan Ray, Dallas.

Blackwell, Roswell; Joe Lopes, Memphis, and Rex Baxter, Jr., Amarillo; Jack Johnson, Wichita Falls, and Bill Randall, Wichita Falls; Ralph Irwin, Dallas, and Earl Hoyt, Dallas.

Harry Todd, Dallas, and Don Schumacher, Dallas; Chuck Klein, San Antonio, and Billy Erforth, Lubbock; Frank White, Henderson, and E. F. Crim, Henderson; Homer Widener, Kilgore, and Leon Henderson, Tyler.

Bo Wininger, Oklahoma City, and Don January, Dallas; Herman Coelho, Norman, and Jack Ritter, Oklahoma City; Ray Montgomery, Fort Smith, Ark., and Miller Barber, Texarkana; Gib Sellers, Hot Springs, and Chris Gers, Oklahoma City.

Dudley Bell, Houston, and Fritz Richard, Houston; Woody Kerr, Lawton, Okla., and R. C. Stanley, Lawton; Jerry Robison, San Antonio, and Bob French, Odessa; Frank Stagner, Dallas, and Bill Stamper, Jackboro.

Bo Wininger, amateur winner in 1950 and pro winner in 1952, combined with Don January of Dallas as the team to beat. Wininger played with Billy Maxwell of Odessa last year in setting a record 251 for the four-year-old meet.

GREEN BUT GOOD—Seventeen-year-old Wendy Green of Midland, who teams with Pro Abe Beckman, will be one of four sharp junior players in the Odessa Pro-Am. The others are Rex Baxter, Jr., of Amarillo, Dick Goerlich of Beaumont and Juan Antonio Estrada of Mexico City.

Roberts Only 20-Game Victor Going Into Last Five Weeks

By The Associated Press
At least 11 pitchers still nurse hopes of joining Robin Roberts of the Philadelphia Phillies as 20-game winners this season, but most of them will need Lady Luck on their side to make the grade.

Chicago to Jackie Robinson's two home runs. The Brooklyn pitcher was lifted for a pinch-hitter while trailing, 4-1, but the man who batted for him, Wayne Belardi, started a rally which netted five runs—three of them on a home run by Robinson. In the first game, Clyde McCullough doubled home one run and homered with one on for the other two as the Cubs won their first game in Brooklyn this season.

The strong-armed right-hander posted victory No. 21 Tuesday night, handuffing Milwaukee on five hits for a 6-1 decision.

Clutch home runs by Bob Borkowski in the first game and Roy McMillan in the second gave Cincinnati a sweep at Pittsburgh. Detroit, which seems to play a little better against the Yankees than against the rest of the teams, stayed on even terms with the world champions through 10 innings.

Closest to him in either league is lefty Warren Spahn of the Braves, who won his eighteenth Sunday.

Staley found things easy at the Polo Grounds, where the fumbling Giants committed five errors, Ruben Gomez tamed the Cardinals on four hits for his eleventh victory and third shutout in the opener.

The others with a chance are Mel Parnell of Boston and Virgil Trucks of Chicago with 17 each, Whitey Ford of New York, Mike Garcia of Cleveland with 15 apiece, and Cardinal Harvey Haddix with 16.

Pat Garner Triumphs, 2-Up; Amateur Field Trims To 32

PROVIDENCE, R. I.—(AP)—Midland's Pat Garner, who reached the semi-finals in 1952, advanced with the favorites Tuesday when the U. S. Women's Amateur Golf Championships trimmed its field to 32 remaining players.

Miss Garner ousted Mrs. Carle Robbins of Fort Smith, 2-up, as the field began to take on a better balance after a lopsided draw in first rounds.

Ellenburger Makes Water In Howard

Texas Pacific Coal & Oil Company No. 1-A Tom Spencer, Central-North Howard County wildcat, 14 miles north of Big Spring made water in the Ellenburger.
 It is running electric logs and probably will test a section at 9,850-9,981 feet which made some free oil in a drillstem test.
 The Ellenburger water came in a two-hour drillstem test at 10,055-10,092 feet. Recovery was 2,250 feet

WHY STARVE TO TAKE OFF UGLY FAT?

Why not try the sensible way to reduce? Just ask your druggist for four ounces of liquid Barcetrane. Mix with grapefruit juice as directed on label and take according to directions. If the very first bottle doesn't show you the sensible way to reduce, return the empty bottle for your money back. Nothing harmful in Barcetrane. No dieting—no calorie counting. Nearly five million bottles sold in Texas in nine years.
 R. K. Mitchell, 6503 Minkola St., Houston, Texas, wrote us as follows: "I weighed 216 pounds when I commenced to take Barcetrane. After using two months, my weight was 180. I did not diet in any way. Before using Barcetrane, I was bothered with constipation and had a bloated feeling in my stomach."

of salty, sulphur water, with no shows of oil or gas.
Top is Listed
 The top of the Ellenburger is at 9,880 feet. Elevation is 2,707 feet.
 The wildcat recovered 2,480 feet of clean oil, the 1,000-foot water blanket, which was cut with oil and gas, and 180 feet of drilling mud in a three hour drillstem test at 9,850-9,981 feet.
 That section did not show any formation water. Location is 494.6 feet from north and 1,980 feet from west lines of section 14, block 32, T-2-N, T&P survey.

C-N Eddy Gauges Gas-Distillate Flow

Stanolind Oil & Gas Company No. 1-AB State wildcat 25 miles north of Carlsbad and in Central-North Eddy County, flowed gas at the rate of 10,791,000 cubic feet daily and distillate at the rate of 9.87 barrels of oil per hour on seven and one-half-hour production test.
 The flow was through a choke of unreported size and perforations opposite the Pennsylvanian at 10,102-10,127 feet.
 Tubing pressure was 2,650 pounds and casing pressure 2,606 pounds. Testing continued.

Fisher Areas Get Two New Wildcats

Two new wildcat locations have been staked for immediate drilling in Fisher County.
 P. G. Lake, Inc., of Tyler No. 1 Annie E. Hilburn is a new tester in the southeast part of the county. Location is 680 feet from north and west lines of section 179, block 3, H&T survey and 12 miles southwest of Roby. That makes it one mile northwest of the Claytonville field.

 Rotary tools will be used to drill to 7,000 feet.
 Great Lake Carbon Corporation of Abilene has staked location for a 5,300-foot rotary wildcat in North-east Fisher County.
 Drillate is 6,628 feet from west and 4,764 feet from south lines of Austin & Williams survey No. 355 and two and one-half miles south-west of Hamlin. That puts it four miles southeast of Royston.

Oil & Gas Shows Found in Andrews

Shows of oil and gas developed on a drillstem test at Ralph Lowe of Midland No. 1 Deeprock Oil Corporation, deep wildcat one-half mile northeast of production in the shallow Deeprock field of North-Central Andrews County.
 The shows came on a drillstem test from 4,205 to 4,285 feet. Tool was open one hour. Recovery was 80 feet of oil and gas-cut mud and no water. Flowing pressure was from zero to 40 pounds and 30-minute shutin pressure was 1,050 pounds.
 Operator was to core ahead.
 This wildcat, scheduled for a 12,500-foot bottom, is being drilled 1,980 feet from north and 660 feet from west lines of section 5, block A-46, pal survey and five miles northwest of the town of Andrews.

W-C Lea Wildcat Develops Oil Flow

Four miles southeast of the Townsend (Wolfcamp) field of West-Central Lea County, New Mexico, Western Natural Gas Company and others No. 1 Millard Eldson flowed oil from the Devonian on drillstem test.
 The wildcat was tested in the section from 12,489 to 12,520 feet. Tool was open five hours and 20 minutes. A 1,500-foot water blanket was used. Gas surfaced in one hour and 36 minutes. Oil-cut water blanket came to the top in two hours and one minute and oil sur-facted in two hours and 16 minutes.

 The flow was to pits for 10 minutes. Then to tanks, the well made 66 barrels of approximately 61-gravity oil through one-inch bottom and five-eighths-inch top chokes. Gas-volume was 280,000 cubic feet daily.
 Operator reversed out recovery. It was 56 barrels of oil and no water.
 More hole was being made.
 The Devonian was topped at 12,480 feet, minus datum point of 8,503 feet.
 This project is being drilled 660 feet from north and 1,980 feet from west lines of section 35-16-35a.

SE Midland Field Gets New Oilier

Magnolia Petroleum Company No. 1 Little Midkiff is a new oilier in the Spraberry Trend Area of Southeast Midland County.
 The well flowed 24 hours through a 24/64-inch choke to make an initial production of 370.70 barrels of 37.4-gravity oil and no water. Gas-oil ratio was 1,083 feet.
 Production is coming from open hole between 7,188 feet, seat of 5 1/2-inch casing, and total depth of 7,200 feet. Top of pay is 7,122 feet.
 The pay formation was fractured with 10,000 gallons of fluid.
 Location of the producer is 660 feet from south and east lines of section 36, block 38, T-4-S, T&P survey and 21 1/2 miles southeast of the city of Midland.

Pegasus in Midland Gets New Project

Magnolia Petroleum Company has filed application with the Railroad Commission of Texas requesting permission to drill its No. 2-U TXL three-eighths of a mile southwest of production on the northwest side of the Pegasus (Pennsylvanian) field in Southwest Midland County.
 Location is 660 feet from north and west lines of the southwest quarter of section 25, block 41, T-4-S, T&P survey.
 Rotary tools will be used to drill to 10,800 feet, beginning at once.

SE Midland Field Gets SE Extender

The Driver sector of the Spraberry Trend Area of Southeast Midland County has been extended seven-eighths of a mile east and one-half mile south with the completion of Humble Oil & Refining Company No. 8 TXL.
 The well was finished for a daily flowing potential of 163.61 barrels of 35.7-gravity oil plus eight percent water. Gas-oil ratio was 897-1.

 Production was through a 30/64-inch choke and perforations between 7,140 and 7,260 feet in 5 1/2-inch casing cemented at 7,909.50 feet. Total depth is 8,092 feet and top of pay was picked at 7,140 feet. Elevation is 2,689 feet.
 Pay section was fractured with 4,000 gallons. Tubing pressure was between 10 and 35 pounds and there was a packer on the casing.
 Location is 990 feet from south and east lines of section 43, block 37, T-3-S, T&P survey and 10 miles southeast of Midland.

Magnolia Finals New Parks Well

Magnolia Petroleum Company has completed its No. 2 Claud Beck as a new producer in the Parks (Pennsylvanian) field of Central-East Midland County.
 The well flowed 24 hours through a 16/64-inch choke to make an initial production of 288.28 barrels of 43.5-gravity oil and no water. Gas-oil ratio was 1,266-1.

NEW '53 PLYMOUTH

easy to look at!

All-new styling and balanced designing make the new '53 Plymouth a more beautiful car, and a more spacious car! Inside, there's more head room, more hip room, more leg room—in all, 12 more cubic feet of space for passengers and luggage!

easy to handle!

Plymouth's new HY-DRIVE lets you drive all day without shifting. Hy-Drive, the newest, smoothest, least expensive no-shift drive in the low-price field, gives you instant acceleration with whisper quietness. And you'll be amazed at the new Plymouth's ease of steering and parking!

easy to get in!

The new front seat in two-door models is divided 1/2-1/2—not in the middle. Rear seat passengers don't have to move a large, heavy seat section to get in and out, and they can enter and leave the rear compartment without disturbing passengers in the front seat.

and wait till you feel that truly balanced ride!

It's easy to see why so many motorists say the new '53 Plymouth is the finest low-price car ever built! Why not visit your nearest Plymouth dealer soon, and let him show you all the new value features in this great new Plymouth? Your dealer will be happy to arrange a demonstration for you.

PLYMOUTH — Chrysler Corporation's No. 1 Car

Hy-Drive is available at low extra cost on any 1953 Plymouth

Bandit Uses Kidnaped Tots As Hostages, Robs Grocery

OKLAHOMA CITY (AP)—A cool, nattily dressed bandit kidnaped a supermarket manager's small son and a niece Tuesday then robbed the store of several hundred dollars. A city-wide man hunt Wednesday had failed to unearth a clue.

821 Students Signed Here

New year registration at Midland High School and the two junior high schools had risen to 821 Wednesday morning, with student lines due to keep moving through corridors the remainder of the week.

By 11 a.m. Wednesday, 108 students had signed at the high school to push the total to 413. Juniors will continue to register from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. Thursday.

At San Jacinto High School, the total had reached 224 with 212 being ninth graders and at least 13 being seventh and eighth graders who moved to Midland recently.

Thursday morning will find eighth graders registering, while seventh graders register Thursday afternoon and Friday.

"Only those students who are new to Midland or who have never attended San Jacinto need register," Principal W. R. Houston, explained. "If they want to school here last year, they don't need to register."

At Cowden, the total had risen to 182 ninth grade students. Seventh and eighth graders new to Midland or to Cowden and ninth graders who haven't registered already will sign Thursday and Friday.

CHICAGO (AP)—A late August spell of hot weather continued over wide areas Wednesday from the Rockies to the East Coast.

Temperatures in the 90's were the rule for most sections of the hot belt with the Midwest in for the highest readings outside the South-west desert region.

Two Midwest hot spots Tuesday were St. Louis with 97 and Chicago with 96. It was 92 in Philadelphia and 81 in New York.

Few Ask Deferment Due To Fatherhood
Fewer than two dozen men filed with the Midland Selective Service Board Number 137 for deferments due to fatherhood before the Monday midnight deadline, Nell Roberts, clerk, said Wednesday.

No specific number of deferments was available.
Tightened rules which went into effect Tuesday state that draft-age youths who become fathers now will be ineligible for deferment from military service simply because they have a child.

Headless Body Ruled Not That Of Solon
HAMMOND, IND. (AP)—Police have ruled out the possibility that a headless body washed up on the Lake Michigan shore might be that of Cleon Graver, missing Illinois legislator.

Lt. John Walsh of the Chicago homicide squad said after examination Tuesday he was certain the body was not that of Graver. The 33-year-old Chicago legislator has been missing since his abduction from his home on July 11.

$500 Worth Of Fun Called Poor Bargain By Sad Youth

Wilburn Alcorn, Jr., admitted Wednesday that "you can have a lot of fun on $500."

But, he added, "I don't figure now it was worth it."
Wilburn is an 18-year-old negro youth and the $500 belonged to the Midland Drug Company, for whom he worked as a porter last April.

"I saw the money just lying there in the safe before closing time," he explained, as he was fingerprinted at police headquarters after being returned from Fort Worth, where he was arrested.

"I shoved it in the trash and carried it outside."
Ten minutes later, he grabbed the bundle of $5 and $1 bills from the trash barrel and started out.

He went to Odessa and caught a bus for Abilene and his travels carried him to Fort Worth, Shreveport, La.; Houston, Denver, Colo.; Los Angeles, Calif., and back to Fort Worth.

The manager, Lawrence Dillard, gave up the money on being confronted with a note from his wife stating their two and one-half-year-old son, Michael, and four-year-old niece, Peggy Jones, were held as hostages.

The robber escaped into the city traffic.
About that time detectives, alerted by the children's mother, found the note on a downtown street. They had been released before the robbery, given a half-dollar by their abductor and instructed to buy ice cream.

The robber gained entry to the Dillard home by posing as a telephone repairman.
Mrs. Dillard said she was forced to write the hostage note, which read:

"Please do as these men tell you, they are holding me and the kids. They have Peggy and Michael with them." Her wedding and engagement rings were taken to authenticate the note.

He bound and blindfolded Mrs. Dillard and her sister, Mrs. George Jones, 22, Peggy's mother. He warned them he had "a gang in the car outside," snipped the telephone wires and left with the children. The women finally freed themselves and called police.

IT ALL ADDS TO SAME SUM
FREDERICK VILLAGE, KOREA
—(AP)—The Chinese version of the American wolf doesn't whistle; he just grins.

Pfc. Charles P. Schommer, 19, of Milwaukee, freed Wednesday, said he was questioned by a Chinese who spoke good English and "talked about Marilyn Monroe."
"When he mentioned Marilyn Monroe, he just smiled big."

Russian Maneuver Puts Red Plan First On UN Voting List
UNITED NATIONS (AP)—Russia came up Wednesday with a maneuver to force the UN to vote first on the Soviet proposal for inviting six fighting countries and nine "neutrals" to the Korean peace conference.

The Soviet move came as the General Assembly's 60-nation Political Committee began discussing six resolutions on the Korean problem.
Andrei Vishinsky had put in a revised proposal only Tuesday listing the 15 countries Russia wants to seat. Under normal voting procedure, this would be voted on last since it was the last resolution submitted.

Vishinsky submitted his list again Wednesday as an amendment to a resolution sponsored by the United States and 14 other countries that fought for the UN in Korea.

The latter proposal, recommending that all the fighting countries be invited to the conference, had been introduced first and had priority in the voting. But Assembly rules provide that amendments must be voted first. This means the Soviet list would be put ahead of the U. S. proposal.

Air Search Turns To Canadian Area
KETCHIKAN, ALASKA (AP)—Reports of an unidentified plane and an explosion pointed to Northern British Columbia Wednesday in the wide search for a New Mexico and Texas oil man and his four passengers missing on a flight to the states.

Planes from the United States and Canada converged on the Smithers area, 200 miles east of Anchorage Island, takeoff point of Ellis Hall of Albuquerque and Abilene on a flight a week ago Monday.

The plane, with Hall at the controls, carrying his wife, two daughters and Patrick Hibben, 17, disappeared shortly after leaving the island airport on a flight to the states.

by City Detective Capt. Billy Patterson, Sgt. Wayne Taylor and Sheriff F. S. Buckelew.
"I'm pretty tired of running now and I'd just like to get this thing over with," Alcorn said.

Slight Loss Listed In Midland Flames

A cigarette dropped on a mattress in a residence at 1023 West Dakota Street Tuesday luckily resulted in nothing more serious than total loss of the mattress. Firemen were called to the blaze at 8:10 p.m.

Then, at 10:25 a.m. Wednesday, the fire fighters were called to 116 West Maiden Lane where a fire caused by a short in the wiring was out on their arrival. The blaze caused slight damage.

Reds Release 12 Texans Wednesday

By The Associated Press
Joyous anticipation warmed 12 more Texas families Wednesday. The soldiers, prisoners of the Communists, had been released and had started the long journey back home. The 12 men set free Wednesday (Korean time) brought to 134 the Texans released since the armistice. They included:
Cpl. Curtis A. Thompson of Lubbock, Pvt. Merle Pitt of Canyon, Pfc. Eugene Scott of El Paso, Pfc. Kenneth Nevill of Dallas, Pfc. James Stine of Fort Worth, Sgt. Edwin Vollers of Houston.
Cpl. Lawrence Heard of Waxahachie, Sgt. Gilberto Trego of Rio Grande City, Pfc. Milas Shanklin of Cooper, Sgt. R. P. le Blanc of Port Acres, Sgt. Aniceto del Bosque, Jr. of Kingsville and Cpl. Abraham R. Hernandez of Waco.

VISIT INJURED NEPHEW
Mr. and Mrs. K. C. Smith and Mr. and Mrs. Richard Smith and son, Ricky, have returned from Brady, where they visited Vike Foelker, who suffered serious head injuries when hit by a truck Saturday. The injured youngster is a nephew of Mr. and Mrs. K. C. Smith.

100 New Statutes Now Affect Texans

AUSTIN —(P)— Texas had more than 100 new laws Wednesday. The people most aware were those being sued by some cities for delinquent auto taxes.
The Legislature put a four-year statute of limitations on collections of delinquent personal property taxes, and this was one of the laws which took effect Wednesday — 90 days after the session adjourned.
Another new law modifies the 1951 auto inspection statute. It requires annual inspection only on brakes, lighting equipment, horns, rear view mirrors and windshield wipers.
Jalopies made before 1935 won't have to be inspected if they aren't used on the highways.
Homer Garrison, Jr., public safety director, said 3,000 stations are ready for the new inspection period which begins September 15.
Other new laws do these things:
Provide a mandatory three-day jail sentence for the first offense of drunk driving, with judges authorized to grant six-month probation.
Add to the causes for which beer retailers' permits may be suspended.
Amend the narcotics act to allow a suspended sentence on first offense only and stiffer penalties for repeaters.
Authorize small claim courts, where suits may be brought at minimum expense in cases involving $50 or less. Justices of the peace will preside.
Provide for compulsory treatment of narcotics addicts.
Change the method of computing the economic index which determines how much each county contributes to the minimum foundation school program.

Patent Suit Filed By Oil Service Firm
HOUSTON—K. & G. Tool and Service Company, Inc. and John H. Kirby, II, both of Houston, are plaintiffs in a lawsuit alleging patent infringement, filed with the district clerk here. K. & G. also maintains branch offices in Odessa and Hobbs, N. M.
Carpenter Oil Tools, Inc., and 21 other Texas corporations and individuals are named defendants.
Damages of $200,000 and a court injunction to end the alleged infringement are asked. Hearing is set September 10.
Plaintiffs allege Kirby is the inventor of a magnetic fishing tool used in drilling operations and that he granted exclusive rights to K. & G.

Brother-in-Law Dies
W. E. Miller of Del Rio died Tuesday in a Galveston hospital, his brother-in-law, Jack Harrison of Midland, has been informed. Services will be conducted Friday morning in Del Rio by the Rev. Edward P. Harrison of Greenville, former Midland resident.

A-Bomb Warplane Rides Inside B-36 To Enemy Targets

WASHINGTON —(P)— The Air Force has fitted the long-range B-36 bomber for a new role:
Taking off with an F-84 jet plane in its cavernous belly, carrying it to within striking distance of a target, releasing the fighter for a strike, at more than 600 miles an hour, and then recovering it in midair.
Unofficial sources pointed out that if the big bomber can launch a fighter plane it also should be able to launch guided missiles. Moreover, both the B-36 and the F-84 have been described by the Defense Department as capable of carrying atomic bombs.
The six piston engines and four jet engines of the B-36 give it a speed of more than 435 miles an hour and an overall range of 10,000 miles, assuming a 10,000-pound bomb is dropped midway, or a combat radius of 4,000 miles.
The swept-wing F-84-F, with its speed of more than 600 miles an hour, has a combat radius of about 850 miles.
Increased Payloads
The Air Force said its new development was the first known arrangement for flying a full-size combat plane from a mother aircraft.
The fighter is lowered out of the B-36's bomb bay on a tripod gear before its engine is started. It is not released until its engine has been started.
The Air Force also disclosed that the power of the B-36 has been stepped up in new models so that it can take off at weights up to 400,000 pounds, compared with the previous 358,000 pounds. The new maximum is almost three times the maximum takeoff weight of the B-29, workhorse bomber of World War II.
The Air Force said some B-36 models have had their horsepower stepped up 300 for each piston engine.

CRITICS BROOK NO WRINKLES

CHAUTAQUA, N. Y. —(P)— One of the audience spotted wrinkles in Walter Hendl's suit, so the conductor of the Chautauqua Symphony Orchestra changed clothes before 8,000 concertgoers.
Hendl asked for requests from the audience at this summer cultural center Tuesday night. Someone asked Hendl to wear a suit pressed better than the one he had on.
A fresh suit was hurried to the podium. Hendl changed into it while members of the orchestra held blankets around him.

Prisoners Recount Macabre Hallowe'en

FREEDOM VILLAGE, KOREA —(P)— Two returned American prisoners told Wednesday of a macabre Hallowe'en night when North Korean Communists marched 750 men, women and children to the edge of a rock cliff and threatened to kill them all—then did not fire.
There were 700 captured prisoners of war and 50 civilians—priests, nuns and children.
The priests and nuns sang hymns and prayed. The children wailed. The guards leveled burst guns by flashlight and played the fiendish game four hours before they marched the captives away.
Cpl. James E. Wilson, 22, of Chattanooga, Tenn., and Pfc. Richard S. Snyder, 22, Fayetteville, W. Va., told the story.
Both men were captured in July, 1950, only a few days after they arrived in Korea, with the ragged, outnumbered 24th Division.

Young Woman Dies Under Freight Car

HOUSTON —(P)— Ignoring screams of railroad workers, an attractive young woman, clutching a Bible to her bosom, walked to her death under a moving boxcar here Tuesday.
Mrs. Louise Hademenos, 26, until recently a store clerk, was the victim. Her husband said she had been under a doctor's care.
F. W. Phillips, 42, a railroad switchman, said he noticed the woman walking down the center of the track when the boxcar was about 50 feet away.
"When she saw the boxcar coming she seemed to speed up her walking," Phillips said. "I screamed and shouted and waved my hat and motioned her off the track but she kept right on coming, and walked right into that box car."
The car, just out loose from a switch engine, was rolling to its niche in the yards.
The woman was cut in two.

Midlanders' Father Dies in Missouri

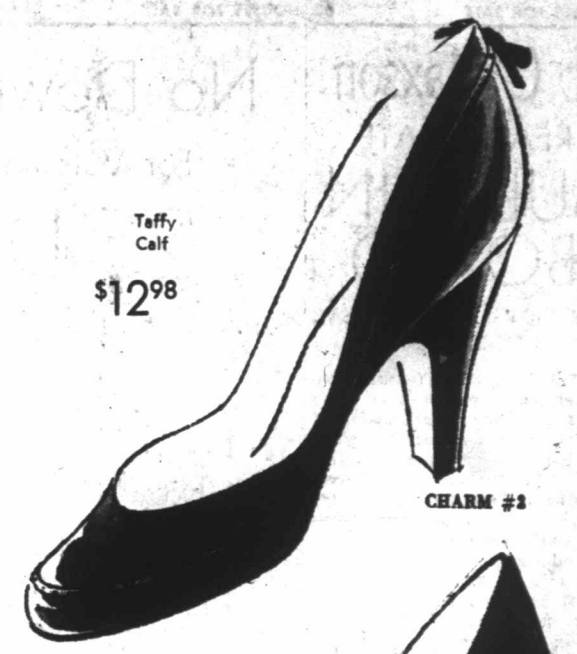

Charles Hall, 62, father of two Midlanders, died Saturday in Lockwood, Mo., after an illness of several years.
Funeral rites were conducted Tuesday in Everton, Mo.

CUPID BOWS TO BUNIONS

PASADENA, CALIF. —(P)— Police officer Peter Ellena, 23, got flat feet after two days walking a beat. But it had its compensations.
He and the chiropodist's nurse, Gail Ledwidge, 19, announced Tuesday they'll be married October 11. They first met when he limped in to get aid for his fallen arches.

Traffic Crash Kills Uptonite

MCCAMEY —Injuries suffered in an August 15 traffic crash proved fatal Tuesday to Ben G. Rogers, 22-year-old McCamey laborer, who never regained consciousness after his station wagon ran off U. S. Highway 87 three miles west of Tankersley.
Rogers, who was driving to visit his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alex Rogers in Eden, when the accident occurred, died at 9:30 a.m. Tuesday in a San Angelo hospital.
The death Tuesday was the first traffic fatality of 1953 in Irion County and the fortieth in the 21-county San Angelo District of the Highway Patrol. The district death toll at this time last year was 50.
Funeral services were to be held at 4 p.m. Wednesday in St. Mary's Catholic Church, Eden, with the Rev. Michael Moore, pastor, officiating. Interment was to be in Eden Cemetery.
Surviving Rogers are his parents, four sisters and three brothers.

Independent Citizens Mean True Security, Wilson Says

True security depends upon the developing of independent citizens capable of standing on their own feet, Will Wilson of Austin, an associate justice of the Texas Supreme Court, told Midland Lions Club members at their regular meeting Wednesday noon in Hotel Scharbauer.
Justice Wilson, who was the principal speaker at the luncheon, contrasted a republic with a monarchy and cited the major differences existing between citizens of a republic and subjects of a monarchy in pointing up the true meaning of American citizenship.
He said any type of dictatorship, to be successful, must control the property and the incomes of the people.
"The people who drafted our Constitution had been subjects of a monarchy and they knew the difference between serfdom and freedom," he stated.
Justice Wilson cited two great dangers to America's freedom, which should keep citizens on the alert, as follows:
1. Any effort to separate the absolute ownership rights of the citizen by the government.
2. Compulsory government deductions from the pay of employees.
The latter danger, the speaker said, could be the opening wedge toward a totalitarian government, and the practice should not be expanded.

New Penney Store To Open For Business Thursday

Modern Building Houses Old Firm

The floors have been polished, the stock has been set in place carefully, the salesmen are all lined up and on Thursday morning the J. C. Penney Company proudly will unveil its new home in Midland.

There'll be an open-house, of course, Wednesday night, but on Thursday morning the new Penney store will settle down to business.

And about the proudest man in town is Jerome G. Grayum, the manager of the Midland store, who on the same day begins his twenty-third year with the J. C. Penney organization.

Serving Family Needs
The new Penney's, explained Grayum, "is over three times as large as our former store and completely equipped to serve many of the home and family needs of folks in this area."

"We know our friends and customers are going to like our new home and they'll find the same grand people serving them here who served them at our former location."

In opening its new building at 212 North Main Street, Penney's is presenting a brand new building incorporating the latest developments in department store design, construction, fixtures and equipment.

Largest In Area
It is the largest Penney store between Dallas and El Paso and will be the most modern in the company's nation-wide chain of stores. It will be, incidentally, the seventh company-owned store building in Penney's nation-wide organization. Other buildings are occupied under long-term leases with their owners. The new Penney home in Midland is a one-story structure which contains over 16,000 square feet of selling space, including a balcony sales area and a basement store.

The front, attractively finished in terra cotta and stucco, features two pairs of entrance doors set in a recessed vestibule, flanked on either side by 12 feet of display windows.

Weather-Conditioned
Windows extend a total of approximately 40 feet along the remainder of the store front, providing ample room for effective merchandise display. A series of small windows runs along the upper right side of the facade and on the left is a "J. C. Penney Company" sign.

Illumination throughout the store is provided by the latest type of fluorescent lighting equipment.

To add to shopping comfort, the store is completely weather-conditioned.

There is an 80-ton refrigerated air-conditioning system for Summer use and a heating system to keep the building cozy-warm in the Winter.

Chill Chased Away
Incidentally, set just inside the front door are grills on each side through which warm air is blown during the Winter time to take the chill off incoming customers and to prevent the front part of the store from being chilly.

In fact, the whole air-conditioning system has been so designed that there is no more than a two-degree variation in temperature anywhere in the store.

The new Penney home will have a timely opening. "Fortunately," said Grayum, "work has been completed in time for us to take care of our customers' seasonal shopping needs."

Separate Departments
"All departments, larger and better equipped as a result of our move into new quarters, are featuring complete lines of merchandise for every member of the family."

Their new building has numerous facilities and departments missing in the old building.

There are separate infants' and girls' wear departments, a lounge and lunch room for employees and an enlarged line of household goods and furnishings.

In the downstairs sales area will be the Basement Store with home furnishings, piece goods and the lay-away department.

On the first floor are the women's accessories and jewelry, infants' apparel, a new girls' department, shoes for the family, luggage for men and boys' clothing and furnishings.

Store Manager
The balcony, overlooking the main sales area, features sportswear, women's coats, suits and dresses, millinery and a maternity department.

The Midland store is one of the 126 Penney stores in Texas and is part of the nation-wide retail organization of more than 1,800 stores. Grayum joined the company on August 27, 1931, in his home town of Paducah.

He had just left Texas Tech and started in as a salesman.

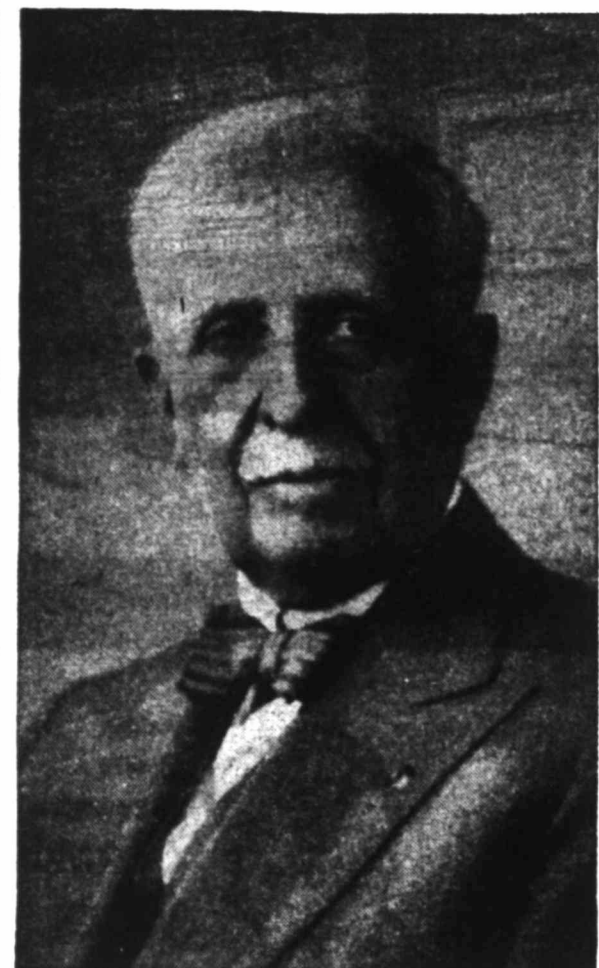

He received additional retailing experience at Wichita Falls, Childress, Plainview, Tyler and San Angelo before getting his first job as manager in Cisco in 1945. He came to Midland as manager two years later.

During his six years in Midland, Grayum has been active in civic work.

He has just finished two years as county chairman of the American Red Cross and presently is a member of the board of directors of the Youth Center, the city Planning and Zoning Commission and the board of stewards of the First Methodist Church.

POPULAR MANAGER—Opening of Penney's new home in Midland coincides with the twenty-third anniversary of its manager, Jerome G. Grayum, with the firm. Grayum started with Penney's at Paducah on Aug. 27, 1931. Grayum is one of the city's most active civic leaders, being especially interested in Red Cross, youth and church work.

FOUNDER—James Cash Penney, chairman of the board of J. C. Penney Company, was born in Hamilton, Mo. During his youth he clerked in a dry goods store, and in 1902 opened a similar store in Kemmerer, Wyo., as one of three partners. Out of this humble beginning grew the present Penney Company with stores in every state. The phenomenal growth of the company is proof of the soundness of Penney's belief in the Golden Rule as the best possible business policy.

'Do It Yourself' Tinkerers Revise Merchandising Aims

By SAM DAWSON
NEW YORK —(AP)—Businessmen are going to give mom more help in getting pop out of his slippers and into old clothes busily sprucing up the place.

"Do It Yourself" isn't a fad any more. It's a market, grossing three billion dollars a year.

Many companies are giving their products a going over to make them more attractive and useful to home fixers and hobby tinkers. Many stores are planning active promotions of materials and tools.

Some manufacturers have formed a non-profit organization, Home Improvement Survey, Inc., to make a six-month study of the home market for power and hand tools, lumber, abrasives, adhesives, and plywood. They will put up $75,000 for the survey, according to its chairman, Ray DuBrucq of the Rockwell Manufacturing Company, Pittsburgh.

At New York's "Do It Yourself" show this Spring 50,000 persons paid to see 63 exhibits of materials and processes they could use in the hours away from their jobs. Los Angeles has held a successful show. Chicago is preparing for a similar one late in October.

Tool manufacturers, hardware lumberyards and various retail stores now look upon home-fixers as a major market.

Shock Comes Later
Home tinkers create heavy demand for materials and for the labor that produces them. Those engaged in egging on the trend contend that most of this type of work at home isn't lost by the professional anyway. It just wouldn't be done if the man about the house didn't do it.

Example: Maybe mom figures the family budget can stand having the bathroom painted only if she can get a brush into pop's hand. The pros add another, and perhaps cynical, reason for families jumping into ambitious projects, like making a playroom in the basement. Often it looks cheaper at the planning stage than after you get into it. More things that are needed keep popping up. The final cost would be an accumulation of expenses which might have been quite a shock if realized before you got going.

VACATION IN THREE STATES

Air Force Levels Mussolini Stadium

WASHINGTON —(AP)—One of Benito Mussolini's thumbprints on history—a magnificent stadium at Tripoli, in North Africa—has been blotted out to make room for modern U. S. air power.

The Air Force said Tuesday demolition of the handsome, modernistic, $1,500,000 sports palace is near completion.

Recent extension of the main runway of Tripoli Airfield, to accommodate the strategic bombers which eventually will be based there, left the 60-foot-high stadium less than 1,000 feet from the end of the runway and only 240 feet off the line of flight—a "very definite hazard to aircraft," the Air Force said.

STORE HOURS, OPENING DAY ONLY... 9 A.M. TO 6 P.M.!

PRESIDENT—A. W. Hughes, president of J. C. Penney Company, joined the company in 1920 as a salesman in the Penney stores at Moberly, Mo., later serving as manager of Penney stores in Eureka, Utah, and Athens, Ga. Hughes succeeded the late E. C. Sams—himself once a salesman behind a Penney counter—as president of the company in April, 1946, when Sams became chairman of the board.

"MOTHER STORE"—It was a small beginning in a real old Western mining town—just one small room on the town's muddy main street. Penney really lived up to the principles involved in the name he gave his little venture, and he further broke with tradition by plainly pricing his goods and then selling at no other figures. Today the company he founded in Kemmerer operates attractive, modern department stores all over the United States, testifying to the wisdom of his fair business practice, based on the Golden Rule.

Britain Introduces Tiny Helicopter Jet

LONDON—(P)—Britain came up Tuesday with the "baby jet," intended mainly as a low-cost engine for light military helicopters. The engine is 47 1/2 inches long. It can be fitted to a Hoverplane's rotors and fueled by a slender pipe into inside the rotor blade.

Narriman Sets Price

CAIRO—(P)—Reliable sources said Tuesday ex-Queen Narriman is asking $11,500 monthly alimony from former King Farouk. He is in exile in Italy.

MIDLAND VISITOR

Lyman Lynch was a business visitor here Tuesday from Dallas.

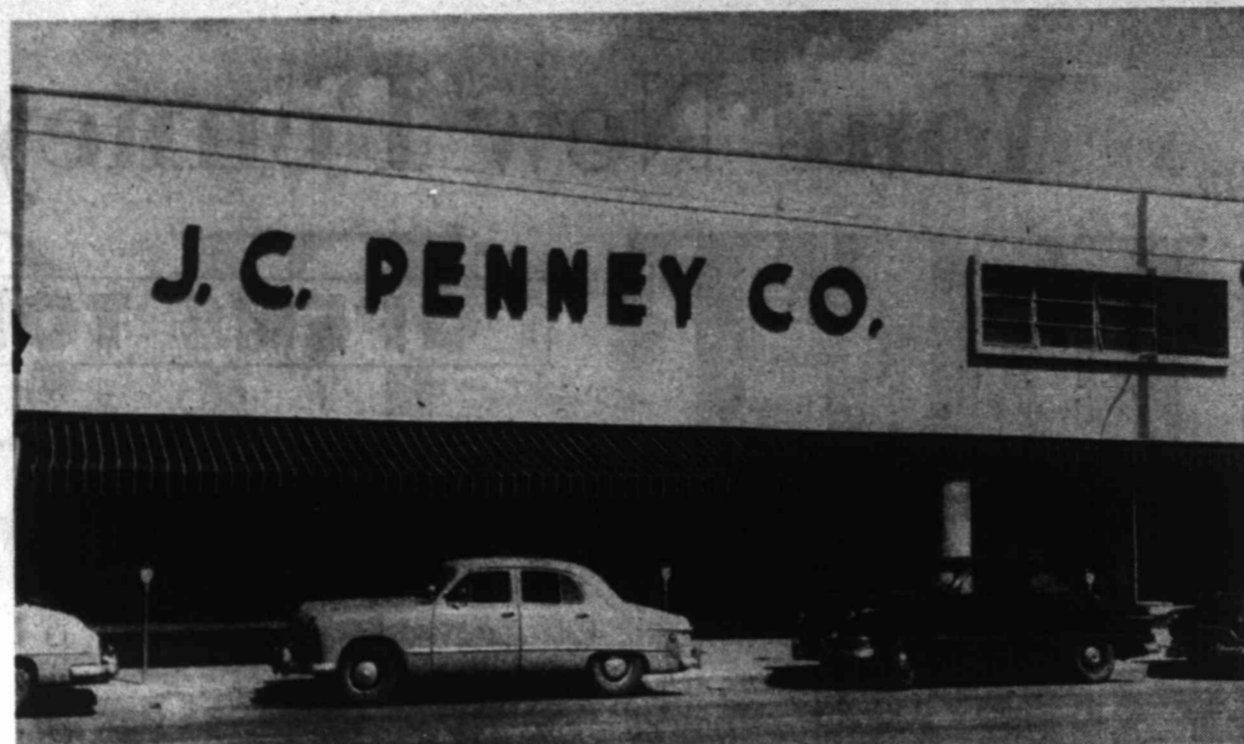

13 Israelis Given Sentences In Prison

TEL AVIV—(P)—An Israeli special military court sentenced 13 persons, including two young girls, to prison Tuesday after convicting them on charges of committing terrorist acts.

The court mentioned two incidents with international repercussions—the hurling of a hand grenade at the Czechoslovak legation last December and the earlier burning of a Soviet legation car.

BUSINESS VISITORS

Visitors in Midland Tuesday from Monahana were Mrs. A. R. Branch, Mrs. J. K. Montgomery and Mrs. Alvin Doss.

MIDLAND'S NEWEST STORE—The new J. C. Penney Company store on North Main Street in downtown Midland is the largest outlet in the chain between El Paso and Dallas and is designed to serve the varied needs of residents in a wide Permian Basin area. It is more than three times as large as the previous Penney store here and will be the most modern in the nationwide group.

Golden Rule Principle Puts J.C. Penney Stores In Lead

In hundreds of cities and towns throughout the United States there are J. C. Penney department stores serving the needs of the average American family. Penney stores from coast-to-coast in every state in the union together form the largest chain of retail department stores in the world. In 1951, the Penney Company did more than a billion dollars worth of business.

Each Penney store, whether in a city like Cincinnati, or in a town like Winnemucca, Nev., with a population of less than 3,000, is a "hometown" store with the same neighborly spirit and dependable values that started the first Penney store on its way to success almost half a century ago.

Avoids 'Metropolis'
In 1902, James Cash Penney opened a cash-and-carry store in a little frame building in the frontier coal mining town of Kemmerer, Wyo. He invested his entire savings—$500—for a one-third interest in the 25 by 40 foot store in this town with a population of 1,000. He had rejected an opportunity to manage a store in Orem, Utah, a "metropolis" of 35,000, because he understood smalltown folks: knew their needs and how to serve them; sympathized with their desire to live simply, but well.

Penney, who today is board chairman of the company he founded, called his first store "The Golden Rule." His idea was to apply the Golden Rule philosophy to business, although he knew it meant pioneering with a new merchandising idea, radical in the cut-throat competition of the early 1900's. He determined to sell his merchandise at prices as low as possible, and introduced the then novel idea of one price to all. Many sales at small profits, he reasoned, were better than a few sales at large profits. He allowed no charge accounts or time payments and made no deliveries of merchandise, eliminating also other unnecessary costs of operation. Quick turnover of merchandise—for cash—gave him a continuous flow of working capital with which to buy new merchandise.

Benefit From Idea
Penney's first customers soon learned they benefited from his idea—values at the "Golden Rule" were better, prices were lower. In the first year in that little store, homemakers bought $26,898.11 worth of merchandise—a remarkable amount for a store of that size at that time.

From the first, Penney hoped to spread his unique ideas of store-keeping to other small communities. He wanted to build a small group of Penney Stores, operating under partner-ownership. He hoped eventually to build "not a chain of stores, but a chain of men, held together by an idea."

One of the first men Penney chose to help him was the late Earl C. Sams. He joined Penney in the Kemmerer store in 1907. After a proving period in that store and in one established shortly after in Cumberland, Wyo., Sams was made manager and part-owner of a new store in Eureka, Utah. Eventually he became president and at the time of his death, in July 1950, he was chairman of the board.

Pooling For Quality
In 1906 Penney gave up personal management of the Kemmerer store and established headquarters in Salt Lake City. This was the first step toward centralized buying, with groups of the more experienced manager-owners traveling to wholesale markets together and pooling their knowledge and experience in the interest of all the stores.

In 1910, eight new stores were opened—the 14 stores now doing an annual business of over half a million dollars. By 1912 there were 34 stores, doing a combined business of more than $2,000,000. In 1913, company headquarters were moved to New York City.

Key to the company's phenomenal growth is its basic policies and method of operating, substantially the same now as they were in Penney's first store in Kemmerer. The Penney Company uses all its know-how to pack the customer's dollar full of value, quality and satisfaction; asks a fair profit and not all the traffic will bear. The company continues to reward its men and women—who are called "associates", rather than employees—through participation in the profits of the business.

MEN'S WEAR—Handling operations on the first-floor men's side of J. C. Penney's new store here will be Tom Hardagree, a Penney employe since 1947. Hardagree, who has been in Midland two and a half years, started with the company in Weatherford.

While each store adapts itself to the needs of the community it serves, the central office in New York is geared to provide whatever a Penney store needs. There is a staff of almost 200 buyers—each an expert in his field who knows his product from the raw fiber stage, through the designing right down to the complicated processes of manufacture of the finished product. Double-checking the buyers' knowledge is the Penney Research Laboratory, which conducts exhaustive tests on new merchandise and makes regular tests throughout the year on staple merchandise to see that it is up to Penney's rigid specifications.

Each buyer seeks the best source for every piece of merchandise. He works constantly with manufacturers, seeking ways to produce quality merchandise at the lowest possible cost. Many suppliers have done business with the Penney Company since the early nineteen-hundreds; close cooperation extending over 30 or 40 years is not unusual. Many small manufacturers have found, working with the Penney Company, an opportunity to build a thriving business.

Leader Among Retailers

The Penney Company ranks as the nation's Number One supplier of many items, notably women's hose, blankets and work clothes. In its particular price range, Penney's sells more women's cotton dresses than any other large retailer. Years ago Penney's was the first to have work clothes sanforized and "graduated" according to size. Penney's was instrumental in developing women's plastic handbags.

Economy For Customers
Both the buying offices and the research laboratory keep close tabs on new industrial developments—as fast as desirable new things are produced, they are tested and checked—and offered, with full information as to their qualities, to Penney stores. In this way, individual store management is relieved of the searching and researching required in the operation of modern department stores.

As it was in Penney's first store in Kemmerer, it is today in Penney stores all over America—nothing is added to price for time payments, charge accounts or costly deliveries. It's strictly cash and carry. The dollar across a Penney counter buys a full dollar's worth of quality.

The basic policies of the Penney Company explain its phenomenal progress. Every step of that progress was sound—because its basic principles, determined in the company's earliest days, have been followed up to the present time. The Penney Company today continues its strong tradition of service, friendliness and cooperation. The progress will go on—encompassing more and more American families—because the company believes there are no limits on progress for a firm whose aim is to help raise the living standards of the average American family.

IN BASEMENT—Garland White, who has been a J. C. Penney staffer since 1948, will be in charge of basement operations in the new Midland Penney store. He was associated with a Penney store in Dallas for three years before coming here.

Staff Of 90 Greets Public

A full-scale staff of 90 persons will be on hand Thursday to greet Midlanders inspecting the new J. C. Penney Store during "opening day" festivities. But, after the opening flurry, the staff will slim to about 50 persons—as visiting sales people and officials return to their respective stores. Sales delegations from Lamesa, Lubbock, San Angelo, Big Spring and other West Texas cities are expected to help out on opening day, and several "visiting dignitaries" will aid in store operations. VIP's on hand will include district manager J. H. Jackson, construction chief Gene Carter, display manager Robert O'Toole and district auditor W. O. Anderson, all from the Penney area office in Dallas.
