Texas Centennial Exposition.

Dallas, Tex., Sept. 18. — Ten thousand Texas farm boys, members of the Future Farmers of America, will stage the most comprehensive junior farm exhibition in the history of the Southwest at the Texas Centennial Exposition next year.

The 435 chapters of the Future Farmers in Texas are already organizing for a seven day special show under direction of Paul G. Haynes of Austin, State Director of Vocational Agriculture. County and sectional shows to select the best products for the Dallas Exposition will be held.

Dairy and beef cattle, horses and mules, sheep, goats and swine, all pedigreed animals raised by the junior farmers, will constitute the livestock exhibit. Scientific feeding of livestock will be demonstrated. The agricultural show will display the results of scientific farming. There will be milking contests in the dairy department and egg laying competitions in the poultry section.

The farm boys will converge on Dallas in special trains, automobiles and busses. They will be housed in dormitories built for their benefit. A 200-piece band, composed of young farmers, will provide music.

"Old-age pensions could cost Texas taxpayers as much as $56,073,402 yearly if each of the 233,199 people 65 years of age and over received the full $15 monthly allotment provided for in the recent constitutional amendment," State Auditor Orville S. Carpenter said today.

Requirements made of applicants have been with a view of eliminating those who, although of eligible age, did not actually need assistance. In this way other States have greatly reduced the costs from the amount necessary to pay if all persons of the required age had been included," Carpenter said.

"As there are 41,797 persons 65 years of age and over on the Texas Relief Rolls, this apparently is the minimum number able to qualify for old age pensions. At $15 a month and with 10 per cent administrative cost added, this would be $8,273,826 yearly," Carpenter explained.

Carpenter believed the figure 62,933 most nearly represented the actual number who probably would receive old-age pensions in Texas. He determined this figure by considering the experiences of other states. If 62,933 people in Texas 65 years of age and over were to receive the full $15 a month, the yearly cost to the taxpayer would be $12,556,734, Carpenter calculated.

"The Record that we Made."

The 4th Florida Regiment was organized in the spring and summer of 1861, and its officers were Colonel Edward Hopkins, Lieut.-Col. M. Whit Smith; Maj. W. C. L. Bowen; Edward Badger of Ocala, was its adjutant; W. L. Wheeden, surgeon; James McKay, quartermaster of Tampa.

On May 23, 1862, the regiment was reorganized with John P. Hunt as colonel (he died at Chattanooga, Sept. 1, 1862); W. C. L. Bowen, lieutenant colonel; Edward Badger, major.

The regiment left the State on June 9, 1862, was ordered to Chattanooga from Mobile on July 17, reached Chattanooga on the 23rd, and, with the 32nd Alabama, was left at Chattanooga as provost guard in August; on October 8 it left for Murfreesboro, and in November 5 was under General N. B. Forrest in a raid on Nashville. Col. J. B. Palmer of the 18th Tennessee, the 45th Tennessee, the 32nd Alabama, and the 4th Florida and John T. Morgan's Cavalry, fought December 30, 1862, and January 2, 1863, in Preston's Brigade of Breckinridge's Division, composed of the 26th Tennessee, 1st, 3rd and 4th Florida and 60th North Carolina. From Tullahoma in May this command was sent to Mississippi, where the 20th Tennessee was replaced by the 47th Georgia in M. A. Stovall's Brigade, fought at Jackson on Sunday, July 12, 1863, capturing the flag of the 18th Illinois, and inflicting many casualties without the loss of a man; fought at Chickamauga, Sept. 20, and was in Breckinridge's successful charge which broke Thomas's line at sundown; it captured two cannons. It was the regiment at the foot of Mississippi Ridge, November 25, 1863, losing 172 men, all but 18; six of these were wounded. In December, 1863, it was consolidated with the 1st Florida Cavalry, which had lost all its field officers at Missionary Ridge, and many men, and was known as the 1st and 4th Florida. Then fought at Dalton, February, 24-27; Resaca, May 8-13; Calhoun, May 14-15; Adairsville, May 17; was under fire at Cassville on the 19th, at Dallas from May 15 to June 1; at Acworth on the skirmish line from June 4 to 11; on Pine Mountain 11 to 14; on mainline on the 16th fortified westside at Kennesaw on 17th; in reserve till the 27th, then re-enforced Maney's Tennessee Brigade, when the flag of the 27th Illinois was captured. Held the point of danger at Cheat-ham's dead angle from June 30 till July 2, when we were so near we could throw rocks on the 34th Illinois, who were opposite. Skirmished on Chattahoochee River till the night of July 9, when we crossed and marched to Buckhead.

On Sunday, July 17th, Gen. Hood relieved Gen. Johnston and on the 18th we fortified on the east of Peachtree Road; we fought July 20 at Peachtree Creek; and on the 22nd on to the right of Atlanta. Was in skirmishing until August 3, when we crossed the breastworks and fortified a line at right angles; fought on the 5th and 6th the battle of Eutaw Creek; 27th, skirmished; 28th, followed Sherman's men who had gone to Jonesboro, where we fought on August 31-September 1; skirmished at Lovejoy Station, Sept.

2-5; on the 9th marched to Jonesboro; on the 20th to Palmetto; on 29th left with Hood for Tennessee.

On October 5 we were north of Kennesaw Mountain when Sherman signaled Gen. Corse: "Hold the fort, for I am coming." Marched from then until the 26th and 27th, when we skirmished at Decatur, Ala.; was at blockhouse capture on the 13th in Mill Creek Gap. We were then at Florence, Ala., from Nov. 5 to 21st, when we marched for Columbia, Tenn., and there skirmished on the 26-28. On the 29th we reached Spring Hill, and on the 30th fought at Franklin; December 4 we were at a blockhouse near Stewart's Creek; on the 7th at Wilkeson Pike; on the 16th at Nashville, where our line was broken.

Our last battle was Bentonville, N. C., Sunday, March 19, 1865. On the 9th all Florida troops—that is the 1st and 3rd, 1st and 5th, 6th and 7th Regiments—were consolidated as the 1st Florida; surrendered April 26th, 1865 at Greensboro, N. C. Started home May 3; disbanded in Augusta, Ga., May 14. I arrived home on Sunday, May 21, 1865.

We had 23 at the flag, 16 on detail, 184 in prison, and 182 disabled or sick, of the 426 enlisted men and 47 officers who left Florida June 9, 1862, and about 40 were added to us by the State. I was orderly sergeant of Company K, 1st Florida Cavalry.—W. M. Ives, Lake City, Fla.

Young Republicans Play Leadership of the Party.

The Maryland Federation of Young Republicans assert that they are "simply leading the van" in their denunciation of the GOP leadership in that State. It is claimed their present tactics will be followed by Young Republicans in various other states unless the rank and file realize the purging process that is necessary.

The junior organization in Maryland has been conducting a tour of the State as "missionaries urging all who have the future of the Republican party at heart to save it from wreckage on the political rocks to which it is now headed." Such a regeneration, they declare, "has become increasingly important insofar as concerns the men who represent the party in its national relations."

The militant attitude of the youthful Marylanders is commented upon in political circles as especially significant in view of the fact that the party has been in charge of the State only since last January, after many years of uninterrupted Democratic administrations. "Public charges" issued by the Young Republicans read in part as follows:

"That practically pre-election promises have been wantonly violated, both to the people at large and to the Republican party of the State of Maryland.

"That due to a most disgusting traffic in legislation the party standards have been lowered. The Young Republicans of Maryland repudiate such action.

"That the Republican party today is being controlled and dominated not by any particular faction but rather by a small clique of four individuals who referred to by the rank and file of the Republican party as the 'holding company.'"

Working Girl's Vacations
It is said that 4,734 out of the 300,000 working girls in New York get vacations through churches, social clubs, and societies.

Wooden Flywheel.

After an accident to the flywheel in a large European electric station the superintendent designed and had constructed a flywheel of wood which has a diameter of 65 feet and a rim width of ten feet. The thickness of the rim is about 12 inches and it is made up of 44 thicknesses of beech planks with staggered joints. The boards were glued together and then bolted. The inside consists of a double wheel, the 24 spokes of which are fastened to two hubs. Spokes and hubs are operated at 76 revolutions a minute, which corresponds to a peripheral speed of the rim of 130 feet a second.

The Roots of Altruism.

The three eternal roots of altruistic energy are these: First, the principle of justice; that there is a moral law before which all men are equal, so that I ought to help my neighbor to his rights. Second, the principle of charity; that I owe infinite tenderness to any shape or kind of man, however unworthy or useless to the state. Third, the principle of free will; that I can really decide to help my neighbor, and am truly disgraced if I do not do so. To this may be added the idea of a definite judgment; that is, that the action will at some time or other matter to the helper and the helped.

Assassination of Senator Long Stirs the Nation—Great Britain Ready to Take Sanctions Against Italy—Ickes Versus Hopkins.

By EDWARD W. PICKARD

HURY P. LONG, United States senator and political dictator of Louisiana, is dead, the victim of an assassin's bullet.

Huey P. Long

gave indication that he would not be diverted from his purpose to conquer Ethiopia.

Accepting the advice of his "brain trust," which includes Everett A. Colson of the United States, Senator Hattie Selassie instructed his representatives in Geneva to reject all solutions thus far offered by the powers for settling the quarrel with Italy.

Long's body lay in state in the rotunda of the Capitol building while many thousands passed by the bier.

What will become of Long's "empire" is a question that agitates all his followers, and all the people of the state as well.

Public Works Administrator Ickes and Work Progress Administrator Hopkins got into such a quarrel over the spending of the $4,000,000,000 fund that the President had to call them to Hyde Park.

Others called to the important works relief parley included Daniel Bell, director of the budget; Charles West, under-secretary of interior; Corington Gill, assistant of Hopkins; Fred Ironsides, administrative assistant of Walker, and Col. Horatio Hackett, chief of housing in the PWA.

Mr. Roosevelt was determined to have peace, and told those present that the prime necessity at this time is to make jobs quickly, always keeping in mind the idea of turning workers back to private industry as business warrants.

UNIVERSITY of Michigan is rejoicing over a gift of $5,000,000 for enlargement of its graduate school.

EDWARD L. DOHENY, one of the wealthiest of America's oil magnates, died in Los Angeles at the age of seventy-nine years.

ODDS AND ENDS... Norma Shearer and Helen Hayes lunched together the other day at one of New York's smart restaurants.

REACTION of American business and financial men to President Roosevelt's latest public statement that his basic program has reached substantial completion and industry will have a breathing spell ran the gamut between mild hope and downright unbelief.

Silas Strawn, former president of the Chamber of Commerce of the United States, said: "Business men generally will say that the improvement in some lines of business has been in spite of, rather than because of, the activities of the administration."

Howard had written the President that many business men had become convinced that there could be no real recovery "until the fears of business have been allayed through the granting of a breathing spell to industry and a recess from further experimentation until the country can recover its losses."

THREE men who made independent investigation of the deaths of 256 war veterans in the Florida hurricane reported they found no evidence indicating culpable negligence on the part of any persons.

RESTORATION of the Greek monarchy is coming nearer and presumably former King George will be the man to occupy the throne.

"WE WENT to war on foot, and we're joining the parade the same way," declared about 150 of the grizzled veterans who attended the annual encampment of the Grand Army of the Republic in Grand Rapids, Mich.

STAR DUST

Movie • Radio

By VIRGINIA VALE

JUST at present the radio spotlight is being thrown on Lanny Ross' bride; people want to know what she's like and how she looks and all that sort of thing.

To begin with, as no doubt you know, it was revealed shortly after the announcement of their marriage was made that she's not a bride at all; they were married three years ago.

Just her being his manager was enough for Hollywood, when Lanny went out there to make a picture. Hollywood was accustomed to mothers who managed their daughters, but was quite unprepared for what it got from Mrs. Ross.

As for what Mrs. Ross looks like, I can tell you what was told to me. "The other night," said my informant, "she wore a dress of amber velvet, that awfully heavy velvet, and it had ruffles on it! She wears such strange clothes! And she's plain looking, and older than he is. And awfully jealous, evidently; he hardly dares look at another woman when he's with her."

The radio people are a clannish lot. After a rehearsal or a broadcast they like to go out and eat together, and have fun.

Rudy Valley goes there, too, and frequently takes his dog along. The oyster bar is so attractive that it's no wonder radio stars like it, and it's an excellent place to go to see them just being themselves.

Myrna Loy has made up her spot with Metro, and here's hoping she'll soon be back at work again. It's too long since she made a picture. She hasn't told yet just how much more money she's to get each week, but when she took off in a plane for the coast she seemed to be happy, so no doubt it's plenty.

Speaking of Metro, there's thunder in the air. Irving Thalberg is said to have dashed to New York not merely for pleasure, but to form a new combine because he didn't like the way he'd been treated on the old home lot.

The set-up looks very, very nice. For the other three men are Winnie Sheehan, who ran Fox until Twentieth Century stepped in; Sol Wurtzel, who has no peer in turning out good, cheap program pictures; and has done it for years for Fox, and Hunt Stromberg, who has been supervising and making pictures for Metro.

Funny, but every so often there is one of these shake-ups in the movie business, and first thing you know you have a lot of new companies on hand. Darryl Zanuck started the present landslide when he left Warner Brothers and formed Twentieth Century.

Meanwhile Mary Pickford has joined with Lasky and is at last going to produce pictures. Couple of new contracts were signed recently in Hollywood by Warner Brothers. Kay Francis has one for three years with an increase of $1,000 a week, and Pat O'Brien cashes in on his popularity by receiving $750 a week more than he's been getting, and signing up for three years more.

Whatever you do, don't miss the new Astaire-Ginger Rogers picture, "Top Hat." Astaire has turned into a swell comedian, and audiences are beginning to laugh the moment he appears.

Campus Swank Via Knitted Fashions

By CHERIE NICHOLAS

FOUR thrills that set your blood tingling to your very fingertips, for enthusiasm that goes sky-rocketing to the heights, see the new fall knitted fashions. They are simply grand! Never has a more fascinating chapter been written in knitwear style history.

As to the college girl who is assembling her go-away-to-school wardrobe there is no more direct road to take to arrive at campus swank than via the knitted way.

The new knits are in a riotous color mood. Their bright and handsome hues are as richly colorful and fascinating as the autumnal background against which they are silhouetted. Then, too, pronounced patternings in a bewildering array of checks, plaids and stripes animate the scene in striking display. As to the styling of the new knitted costumes, designers are doing it with incomparable chic and charm. See the three modes illustrated and be convinced.

There is no doubt about the atmosphere of unusual, outstanding and undeniable style that surrounds this trio of chic autumn knits. Consider the spritely checked three-piece suit pictured to the right in the group. It is a stunning affair. It is the sort that is destined to prove the college girl's delight. For that matter every woman will realize in this model her dream come true as to the type of fall costume she has been envisioning for about-town wear. Just the thing for motoring and traveling. This entire ensemble is carried out in a hairy soft yarn in a close jacquard knit. For the knitted suit the latest is a luxurious three-quarter swaggar coat such as styles this outfit. A sensible and graceful mode this, since it enables the wearing of this three-piece until well into the winter season. We see also in this model a fetching example of the plaid-with-plain Vogue which is being so widely exploited.

Typical of the many ensembles for spectator sports that are seen wherever women of fashion gather, is the ravishing three-piece suit centered in the picture. Both skirt and blouse are plain, providing a perfect foil for the colorful striped jacket. Peeping out at the top is the jaunty blouse tie knitted in a wide drop stitch. The frog fastening identifies this model as a last minute creation in that the very newest fashions have these military-looking accents. It is also worthwhile noting that the skirt is finished with a selvage hemline which prevents it from sagging. A pert knitted hat with brim smartly angled at one side completes the ensemble.

What could be more unmistakably style-convincing than the tailored knit outfit to the left? The double-breasted jacket is cut according to best masculine tradition with wide lapels and straight neat fitting sleeves. Across the back is a yoke from which emerges a voguish shirred fullness. A hairy yarn is used for the plaid knit coat as compared to a smooth soft zephyr for both skirt and blouse. The latter sports a crew neck and an initialed pocket. This clever tailor is knitted in stunning color combinations. A most important style point to remember in selecting your fall knit outfit is that soft zephyrs closely knit and worked into figure-clinging "lines" are the new order of the day.

SUEDE SUITS
By CHERIE NICHOLAS

Here's a newcomer—the suede suit. They are stepping out this fall in the most fascinating colors fancy can picture. To attract the more, they are made of suede as soft and supple as fabric and as delightfully wearable, being comfortably and pleasingly lightweight. In the model pictured the skirt has interesting panel inlays and three buttons which unfasten to allow freedom of action. Roomy pockets, wide revers and a fine finesse in tailored detail give to this handsome jacket suit an air of unusual distinction. As to the colors for the new suede jackets and blouses, suits and accessories, they are simply fascinating.

MILLINERS SHOW NEW USE OF VEILS

Milliners have taken liberties with the classic lines of hats this season with the result that some interesting and amusing new features have appeared. An entirely new use of veils has been shown and, by the way, veils have been getting coarser and coarser until they somewhat resemble fish nets.

A little sailor is shown in white grosgrain which has been stiffened to give shape to the brim which stands out at the sides and tilts slightly over the forehead. A coarse veil of black silk is attached at the center of the crown and falls in back somewhat in the manner of bride's veil. Another in coarse straw is shaped like a Mexican sombrero with an upturned brim all the way around. A fish net veil extends over the crown to the edge of the brim where it is dotted with small pompons.

Dramatic Berets Show Up on Autumn Fashion Scene

Those big berets of velvet or pliant felt, made in thrilling rich dark colors, came onto the fall style scene early, but they will be still in good order when we get into our first warmish tweeds and flannels.

They set off a cotton sports dress with a refreshing dash for the present, but they will be the handiest kind of ensemble when we begin to wear all the strange new colors which autumn models are promising.

For a peek at coming tweeds shows muddy violets and sulphurous greens on the way, and plaids made of most unusual combinations—schemes that demand just the right accent in hat and blouse to show them off. These berets have the color, and they are becoming to almost any type of coiffure, besides.

Hoods, Pantalettes

Many hooded dresses and coats are shown in Paris; also some trousered sports and street skirts. Some designers even show satin evening pantalettes instead of petticoats.

Old Fashioned Patchwork Quilts

By GRANDMOTHER CLARK
From all indications quilt makers will be busy this winter making more quilts. Quilts are still very attractive for needle workers, and any suggestion on this work will be welcomed.

Patchwork Quilt making is much easier today than during Colonial days. Patches are more easily obtained. Diagrams and cutouts for patches and books of instruction are printed. All of these make the work easier and more quilts are being made.

Grandmother Clark's Book No. 29 on Patchwork Quilts contains 30 quilts with cutting diagram for patches, also several ways to assemble 12 and 18-inch quilt blocks.

This book contains information and diagrams for the quilts shown above and many other old designs. Send us 15 cents for this book No. 29 and receive it by mail.

PARENTS SHOULD WATCH CHILD'S REPORT CARDS

"Parents should spend more time in analyzing the scholastic report cards their sons and daughters bring home," writes Don Chalmers Lyons in Hygeia in "An Analysis of the Significance of School Report Cards."

Good or bad grades are not so important as is an evaluation of what those grades actually represent as indicators of social adjustment. The grades which appear on the report card are more than mere indicators of scholastic ability; they are key letters to character and, for the parent who is willing to take the time and trouble to analyze them or to have them analyzed by the child's instructors, they may reveal hitherto unguessed phases in the child's mental, physical and emotional make-up.

Harder work and more study are not panacea in every case of scholastic failure. Some students have only a limited mental capacity; beyond a certain point, increased study is of no value because of actual inability to assimilate and correlate knowledge. While such students can obtain fair or even good grades if they are almost certain to fail if they are forced to carry a heavy schedule. It is better to lighten the scholastic load and allow a pupil of this type to take an extra half year or several summer school sessions, if necessary, to complete his high school work than to make him struggle on to failure and the development of a sense of inferiority under an intolerable load.

New Type of Education

Many universities and private institutions now offer for adult students certain courses in which the real professors are children, two, three and four years of age. This new type of school may be called a nursery school, a child institute, a child research center or a preschool laboratory. It makes little difference what it is called. All such schools exist for the purpose of giving the elders an education. In her article "Pupil—or Professor?" in Hygeia, Elizabeth M. Statnaker explains how a group of nursery school children showed by their natural responses the right and wrong ways of training children and how they worked out in truly stimulating and enlightening manner various problems of community life.

The Heavy Burden of Bureaucracy

By RAYMOND PITCAIRN

National Chairman
Society of the Republic

"... has created a multitude of New Offices, and sent hither swarms of Officers to harass our people and eat out their substance."

Is that project familiar to you? It should be. You've read it in the Declaration of Independence, among the array of grievances that drove the American colonies to the desperate lengths of the Revolution.

Thomas Jefferson, who wrote the famous document, and George Washington, who gave it reality, called that sort of thing Tyranny. Today it bears a softer name. We call it Bureaucracy. And we suffer it to a degree that would probably have aroused the colonists to a white heat of indignation.

For Bureaucracy is the enemy of that democracy for which the colonists fought. It is built up of bureaus, commissions and boards that usurp the power which, under the Constitution, is vested in the people. It is growing in scope and in influence. It has become one of the heaviest loads on the back of the American worker and farmer. Why?

Because Bureaucracy has increased the horde of minor officials and federal jobholders who now feast on our personal affairs and consume so large a share of our taxes. Because it is Bureaucracy that functions in the scores of alphabetic commissions which clog Congressional and other authority and add so greatly to the complexities and burdens of government.

Because it is Bureaucracy that tries to tell you how many potatoes you can raise, and for what you must sell them. Because it is Bureaucracy that bores the cost of living—by loading on you not only the expense of its great army of jobholders, but also the waste involved in experimental juggling of prices and production and basic principles of government.

Remember, under our Constitution, the American people never agreed to surrender such powers to appointed officials in whose selection they had no voice. They retained that authority for themselves and their elected public servants. Bureaucracy, therefore, represents an invasion of the people's rights—a departure from the form of government under which America achieved a growth in area, in population and in resources unrivaled among nations. That's why Bureaucracy remains the foe not only of democracy, but of every citizen who retains the American spirit of self-reliant patriotism.

The same friction by which the Indian created a flame caused the easy ignition of the first Friction Match made by the Frenchman, Dr. Chas. Sauria, in 1831. . . . This was a basic discovery that we still use today. But how obsolete a smudging flame now seems in contrast with the convenience, safety and cleanliness of Electric Heat.

Mankind has an innate sense of cleanliness in relation to his food. Hence, the ever-increasing demand for such Electric Appliances as the Range, Electric Water Heater and the Electric Refrigerator. These modern electric appliances can be had on convenient terms, and you will be surprised at the moderate cost of such added superior service.

Do you know that your increased use of Electric Service is billed on a surprisingly low rate schedule ... and adds only a small amount to your total bill?

Huntsag Season for Migratory Birds. Washington, Sept. 19. — Out lining the "most rigid regulation in the history of wild-fowling," J. N. (Ding) Darling, chief of the biological survey, recently said the nation's duck hunters will have 36 days of shooting this fall. Darling said the regulations had been approved by President Roosevelt and that he expected them to save 50 per cent of the increase in ducks this year.

Shooting over baited water or land will be prohibited. No live decoys can be used at any place. Zoning of the State by seasons will be eliminated and the nation will be divided into two zones, northern and southern. Shooting will be permitted only between 7 a. m. and 4 p. m. Possession of more than one day's bag limit, which was reduced from 12 to 10, will be illegal. A three-shell limit on auto-loading and repeating shotguns will become effective. The season opens in Texas on November 20 and closes December 19.
