

Rehabilitation programs are being inaugurated in many industries and organizations.

Uncle Sam offers a plan for the vocational training of veterans which is broad and calculated to help them learn a trade which will enable them to make a living in the brave new world they fought for.

To date the editor has been unable to ascertain the facts and figures concerning the government's offer. But he hasn't quit trying, and has learned enough about the program to appreciate the opportunities offered.

As soon as available, the details will be passed along. Meanwhile, if you have information, please be so kind as to pass it along yourself.

Pending such time as a definite deal between Uncle Sam, Buck Meador and the News Review is worked out, don't be surprised if you are greeted by a fair-haired, personable young man who wants to get started at something useful.

While the application forms are being awaited, Buck said he'd like to hang around the office and get the feel of the printing business. So far he's been right on the job, and a handy man to have around.

The only threat of trouble has been in the fact that the publishers can't be as punctual in getting to work as the recently-discharged under-voting-age young Naval petty officer has proved to be.

He's rapidly showing signs of progressing beyond his self-styled limited ability merely to swab the deck and clear the ports. Give Buck a hand, for he's willing and anxious to operate in the mysterious and manifold ways expected of a country printing office hand.

Maybe if you'll encourage him a little he can see a ray of light in this disgusting rotten racket. (It's past midnight and the paper is far from out. We'll feel better after it's in the mails).

The author of the following contribution is definitely known to the editor. But his name is withheld for reasons which will be apparent after you read it.

The editor acknowledges the fact that he had it coming. He won't even pull out any of the frazzled excuses he's been using.

Be at least as good a sport, and meditate on the thoughts therein without getting mad:

"I went," the message reads, "to the Hico Gym Thursday night, Feb. 7th, and I saw two good ball games — one school board member — four business men — four teachers — lots of kids — a few farmers, and a very few town folks . . . not even the Editor."

"I went," it continues, "to Hamilton Gym Tuesday night, Feb. 12th, and I saw two good ball games, a gym packed full of board members, teachers and business men, with a few farmers and lots of kids."

"What's the matter with Hico? 'ONE WHO CARES.' Dunno, Mister. You figure it out. We used to say blame it on the war—but that won't work now."

Ex-G. I. Candidate

WILLIAM L. BLANTON of Albany, Texas, who recently announced himself as a candidate for Congress from the 17th District, which was served for a period of 20 years by his father, Thos. L. Blanton. Bill, now serving as county judge of Shackelford County, recently was discharged from the U. S. Army, with which he served as a staff sergeant in the Counter-Intelligence Corps in India.

National Magazine Lauds Senator Tom Connally of Texas

Chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee Tom Connally, holds a position in foreign affairs second only to the Secretary of State. As cited in an article, "Texas Peacemaker" in the February Coronet Magazine, it will be his job to steer the Senate through the treaties and agreements of enduring peace.

Because of all this, what "Tawn" Connally says carries weight. But that's not the only reason the visitor's gallery is packed when he speaks. Many people come to hear how he says it. For Big Tom is a magnificent orator of the Old School. But although he gives the appearance of an old time Shakespearean showman, Tom's booming voice is pure Texas-American. It says what Tom thinks in the vernacular of a shrewd but simple country boy.

For Thomas Cherry Connally is a country boy. Coronet tells us of Marlin, Texas and Falls county, where his ready tongue and his thin legs earned him the nicknames of "Talking Tom" and "Double-Barrel Shotgun." His father often said: "Tom, I never had your chance, I'd run for Congress."

So, in 1916 Connally ran for Congress . . . and he's been in Washington ever since. But he brought a bit of Texas with him to the Capitol, where the seat and his wife are famous for their Sunday breakfasts of sausage, pink grapefruit, peach preserves, and smoked ham; all from Texas.

After World War I, Connally was an advocate of the League of Nations and the World Court. Washingtonians remember that when Senator Nye charged President Wilson with duping the country, Connally challenged Nye to a fist fight.

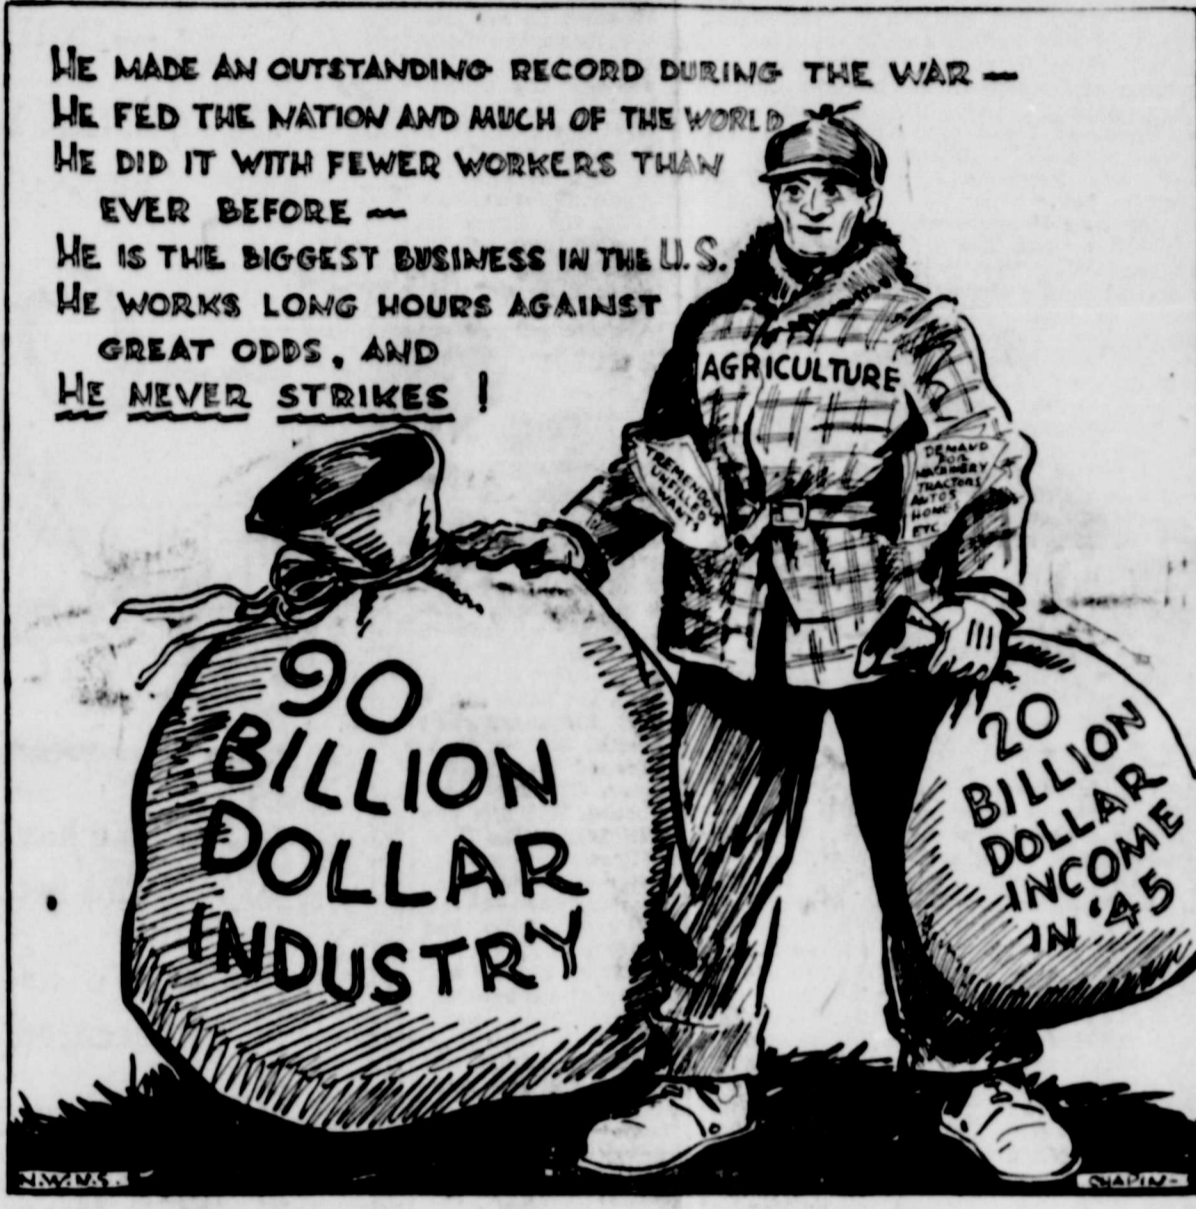

The years haven't diminished that spirit, and the galleries soon will be crowded again to hear Big Tom orate for a new world organization to keep the peace. It's not every man — nor every country, concludes Coronet — that gets such a second chance.

Funeral Services Held Tuesday for Alex S. Warren, 96

Funeral services were held at the Barrow Funeral Home here Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock for Alex S. Warren, who passed away Feb. 11, 1946 at the home of his son, Andy Warren, in Crystal City, Texas. Rev. O. D. Carpenter, pastor of the Hico Baptist Church, officiated.

Born in Georgia, April 17, 1849, Mr. Warren came to Texas about 50 years ago. He was converted and joined the Baptist church early in life and remained faithful to the end. He was married to Miss Mary Hobbs, who preceded him in death some 25 years ago. Six children are left to mourn his going. They are: H. A. Warren, Mrs. Lula Fellers, and Mrs. Lizzie Alexander, Hico; Mrs. Pearl McElroy, Iredell; Andy, Warren, Crystal City, and Mrs. Laura Fellers, Willis Point. Also one brother, Rube Warren of Iredell, and a host of grandchildren, great-grandchildren, and great-great-grandchildren survive.

J. B. Pool Announces For Office of Judge, Hamilton County

With this announcement I am asking the people of Hamilton County to make me your County Judge. Twenty days ago I had no idea that I would do this. I had supposed that other men — possibly some who have been in the Service — would seek the Judgeship. But no one has announced. A lot of good men from all over the County have urged me to run and have promised me their support. These men say they want some things done for Hamilton County that I want to do. Therefore I have decided to offer my candidacy to you.

The term: "County Judge" is a mis-nomer for this place. "Chairman of the Commissioners Court," or "Financial Agent" would be better. Because not one fifth of the County Judge's work is concerned with matters of law. The other four fifths of his time ought to be spent in handling the financial affairs of the County and in efforts to improve the business opportunities of its citizens. The County Judge ought to be as active as a Chamber of Commerce Secretary in getting every good thing for Hamilton County that may be secured.

Accordingly I would try to get Highway 22, already set up from Indian Gap to Cranfills Gap, under actual construction at the earliest date possible. I would work to get Highway 36 completed at once. Then I would want the Commissioners to repair their road machinery, which in war times has necessarily run down, but needed additional equipment and get an all weather road by each man's farm in the County. This can be done with no additional tax. Of course we will seek every Farm to Market Road that the Highway Commission can be induced to build.

Since gasoline rationing is over, we will be getting some money from Austin from the one-half cent of Bond Assumption gasoline money. I would want this spent in putting asphalt on each Precinct's most used roads. It is possible in six years to have 80 per cent of the roads in Hamilton County hard surfaced — and nobody be out an additional tax dime.

I want to help build up the soil fertility in Hamilton County. In my thinking the world is on the threshold of the "Chemical Age." We have sadly depleted and criminally wasted our soils. They are worth more than an oil field or a gold mine. I believe that good sense, hard work and chemistry can build them back. I want to cooperate in the effort.

I want to make Hamilton County a recreational center and a tourist's Paradise. We have the location, the natural beauty and can develop everything else that it takes. With a little more road work a tourist may come from Augusta, Maine or Portland, Oregon and never get his tires muddy. We got to build parks and courts and cafes to attract them. The tourists can be lured to bring

HICO CORPORAL ABOARD STATES-BOUND VESSEL

PEARL HARBOR, T. H. — Cpl. Olen D. W. Wright of Hico, Texas is one of 1,530 Army veterans returning to the States aboard the S. S. Azalea City, which left Yokohama, Japan, January 19, and was scheduled to arrive in Seattle on or about February 3.

The S. S. Azalea City is one of many Merchant Marine ships which assisted the Navy in maintaining supply lines to island bases seized throughout the Pacific.

Grady Truett Coston, who had served in India at two different intervals, returned to the States recently and was discharged last week end at Fort Bliss. He is spending some time here with his wife and other relatives, expecting to visit soon in Oklahoma with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Coston. After his return to the States early last year on furlough, he was sent back to India with the Signal Corps to work with some secret equipment. Before coming home from overseas he served for a time in occupied China.

Wendell Grimes, who has been in the Navy for nearly two years, returned to Hico Wednesday with a discharge, having wound up his current business with Uncle Sam at Camp Wallace the previous day. Windmill, who held the rate of Fireman Second Class at time of discharge, says he expects to hang around for a bit to see what might happen in the old burg. He recently returned from a tour of duty in the Pacific which took him to Manila.

In writing to change their address to Carlton, Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Oakley revealed the information that their son, Donald, was at Malsach, Germany, when last heard from. "He had to be quarantined 7 days, and was he sore!" the card continued. "He is fine and is sure tired of traveling in crowded boxcars. He thinks he will be stationed at Munich, and wants to hear from all of his old friends."

L. D. Ramey is back home again in Cleburne with his family. He returned on the USS Hinsdale from Sessha, Japan, and landed in San Francisco Jan. 23, receiving his discharge at Camp Wallace, Texas, on Jan. 31. He is eligible to wear five ribbons and two battle stars. L. D. and family spent the week end here with his mother, Mrs. Bettie Ramey, and family.

Firemen Receive Donation Toward Papering of Hall

The following report of a meeting of the Hico Volunteer Fire Department, held Monday night, Feb. 11 at the fire hall, is taken from the minutes of the secretary, J. R. Bobo:

"Before the 14 members present, Roy French made a report that he had a check for $35.00 that the Business and Professional Women's Club had given him as a donation to paper the fire hall. We certainly do want to thank the ladies' club for this donation—it is so kind of them and is appreciated by all the firemen.

"Motion was made by L. J. Chaney, seconded by Rufus Phillips, that we hire Clarence Spaulding to haul sand and replace the back wall of the fire hall. Motion carried.

"Sherman Roberson made a talk on papering the fire hall. A motion was made by J. C. Prater, seconded by Rufus Phillips, that we appoint Sherman to order the paper and take charge of the repapering work. Motion carried.

"Ernie Jacobs made a talk on finishing the plumbing of the two rest rooms we are installing, and it was decided to meet later to finish this work.

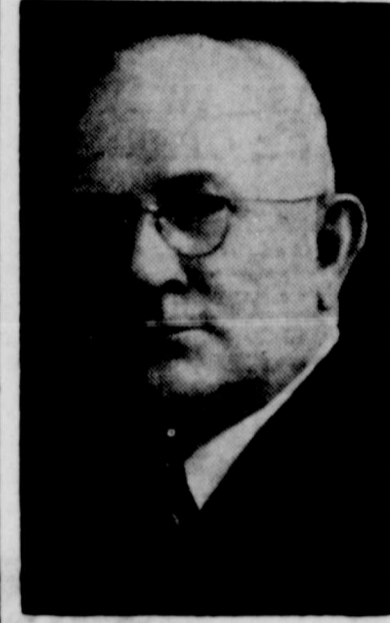

"Meeting adjourned subject to call by Chief Charlie Meador."

GRANDDAUGHTER OF HICO PEOPLE WED IN FORT WORTH

The following account from the Fort Worth Star-Telegram concerns the recent marriage of the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Brown of Hico, who has visited here frequently and is well known in this section:

Miss Frances Brown, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. Raymond Brown, 1600 Stella, Fort Worth, and Mr. W. L. Shelton Jr., son of Mr. W. L. Shelton Sr., 929 Alston and Mrs. Edith Shelton, 1121 E. Richmond, were married Saturday, Feb. 9. Rev. J. Travis Gibson read the ceremony at his home, 1617 E. Vickery.

Mrs Grace Eakins Died Suddenly At Taylor This Week

Mrs. Grace Eakins of Taylor died suddenly Tuesday, Feb. 12, at 5:30 p. m., while at work in a store in that town where she was employed as a saleslady. Although she had been in ill health for a number of years, her death came as a great shock to her family and friends.

Services were held at Taylor, conducted by Rev. Boyd, pastor of the Taylor Methodist Church, and the remains were brought to Hico Wednesday night by Forwood-Condra undertakers. Additional services were held Thursday at 3 p. m. at the Hico Methodist Church, conducted by the local pastor, Rev. J. F. Isbell, who was assisted by a former pastor, Rev. Floyd W. Thrash of Clifton.

Burial was in the Hico Cemetery with the following serving as pallbearers: Buddy Randal, B. B. Gamble, Tyrus King, Sim Everett, John Lackey, and George Powledge.

Mrs. Eakins was born to the late Mr. and Mrs. Robert French of Hico on April 5, 1894. On April 23, 1914, she was married to Ira Eakins, who preceded her in death in October of 1936. Mr. and Mrs. Eakins made their home in Hico until 15 years ago when he was transferred to Taylor as cashier of the M-K-T Railroad Company, with whom he had been employed for a number of years here.

Mrs. Eakins was a lifelong member of the Methodist Church and was active in the work of the Order of the Eastern Star.

Surviving are one sister, Mrs. Roy Havens, Temple, and three brothers: R. B. French, Fort Worth; E. A. French, Richmond, Calif.; and Roy French of Hico.

Among the out-of-town relatives here to attend the services were: Mr. and Mrs. R. B. French and their son, Robert French, and family, Mr. and Mrs. Ed French, Mr. and Mrs. Tommie Bridges, Mrs. Clay McMurray, Mrs. Elmer Cole and daughter, all of Fort Worth; Mr. and Mrs. Roy Havens and Mr. Ed Byers, Temple, and Mr. and Mrs. Byers and son of San Antonio.

Notes From Office Of County Home Demonstration Agt.

Women will probably find this a good time to do the inside jobs before gardening calls them out-of-doors.

Mrs. Bernice Claytor, specialist in home improvement for the Texas A. & M. College Extension Service, states that faded draperies and slip covers and worn tablecloths can be rejuvenated in numerous ways.

Mrs. Claytor suggests dyeing draperies or slip covers a deeper shade of the original color. It is easier to deepen the shade successfully than to change the color. However, if you wish to change the color or if you wish to dye a striped or floral pattern with many colors in it, remove the old color first and then dye the material the desired color. Goods handled in this way are more apt to get an even dye.

If you don't want to dye your draperies, you may be able to hide the faded parts by turning the draperies inside down. Or if you have some draperies on the shady side of the house that haven't faded much try putting them on the sunny side of the room for better effect.

Interesting History Of Local Hatchery And Poultry Farm

In the summer of 1921, G. C. Keeney who had fought through World War I, was back in the States with a wife and son—and no job.

He, like many other veterans, decided he wanted to farm, so he purchased 125 acres of land near Carlton, Texas. He and Mrs. Keeney decided the proper thing to do was to go down to A. & M. College for the summer short course offered to farmers, and learn what the college had to offer.

During the time they were there College officials "played up" the chicken business in a great big way. Suffice it to say that when the Keeneys headed their Model T toward home they were the proud owners of a "mammoth" 12,000-egg incubator. Their enthusiasm was short-lived, however; just as soon as word got around about the purchase, interested neighbors and friends began dropping in to see this "gigantic" machine. Without exception they predicted that within two years' time the country would be so overstocked with chickens that there would be absolutely no sale for hens or eggs.

The Keeneys, very much discouraged by these sanguine predictions, began plans to increase demand for poultry. After much study and planning they decided the only way to do this was to develop a strain of Leghorns that would make more money for the people who owned them, so began the mad search for better breeding stock. After visiting the outstanding breeding farms they purchased their first flock of 20 hens at $20.00 each, and one cockerel for $125.00 from a nationally known breeder in the state of Washington, Mr. Tanager of the Tanagered Leghorn Farm at Kent, Wash.

Trap nets were set up and accurate records kept on these hens. At the end of the first laying season the Keeneys found they had hens that would produce more eggs but the hens were entirely too small, weighing around three to three and one-half pounds. So back to A. & M. they went and bought 100 two-year-old hens that had size, and enough male birds to mate with the Tanagered pullets. This search for better size and better production went on for years before they finally developed the type bird and got the production that they felt like they were getting anywhere.

In 1935 Mr. Keeney's health failed and he advised him to get off the farm, so they sold the farm and moved their then two 12,000-egg machines to Hico, purchased 18 acres just inside the city limits, and began building a modern poultry farm.

They now have new hatchery equipment with a capacity of 68,000 eggs. On the farm they have 11 modern buildings to house their laying hens. The latest addition is a tile house 22 x 150 that houses 800 New Hampshire hens that seem to be an answer to prayer for those people who are looking for a dual purpose bird. These birds have the size of Rhode Island Reds, mature early and lay as young as the Leghorns, and about as many eggs, according to Mrs. Keeney who has charge of the Hico business. She is very enthusiastic about this breed on account of the good production and the livability of these birds.

Two years ago Keeney's became interested in the breeding of turkeys. They followed the same plan that they did with their chickens, purchased the best poults available and grew them to maturity. These birds then were selected and blood tested and put in four pens to be trap-nested. The reports show them to be making some outstanding records.

The management and trapping of these birds is under the supervision of Leland Johnson, who has charge of the west side of the farm where the Leghorn hens and the Bronze turkeys are kept. Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Keeney Jr. and son, G. C. III (Butch to you) have charge of the east side of the farm where 180 White Holland turkeys are kept for eggs and all of the heavy breed chicken hens.

Mrs. Keeney's records show that their chicks have been shipped to 14 States and one foreign country. A special invitation is extended to the public to visit the hatchery or the poultry farm at any time.

MISS RAINWATER IN NEW DEPUTY AT STEPHENVILLE

Miss Elva Jo Rainwater, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Rainwater of Hico, is the new deputy Erath county clerk, taking the place of Mrs. Sally Jay, who resigned last week.

Mrs. Jay received word Wednesday afternoon that her daughter, Mrs. Bill Bagwell, Marblehead, Mass., has had a very serious operation, and Mrs. Jay left to be with her daughter during her illness. Mrs. Jay expects to make her home in Marblehead.

Miss Rainwater has been a deputy county clerk before, having left that position to go with a local abstract concern. — Stephenville Empire-Tribune.

SUGGESTIONS FOR More Egg Profits

1. GATHER OFTEN.
2. FEED REGULARLY.
3. HOLD IN A DRY PLACE.
4. KEEP EGGS AND CASE AWAY FROM KEROSENE OR OTHER ODORS.
5. KEEP HOUSES AND NESTS CLEAN IN WET WEATHER.
6. CONFINE LAYING HENS UNTIL NOON.
7. MARKET OFTEN.

These are recommended practices which we pass along to poultry raisers for their earnest consideration. Whether we buy your eggs or not, we want you to produce marketable eggs that will bring you the most money. Naturally we want you for a customer, for that's the kind of eggs we are interested in.

At this writing (Tuesday) we have indications of more rain. The Home Demonstration Club met with Mrs. Orrin Williford Friday afternoon of last week. Despite threatening weather, a nice crowd was present and all enjoyed the program for the afternoon.

Mrs. Gladys Cox and Mrs. Wyley (Mose) Jones left Wednesday of last week for a few weeks' visit with relatives at San Diego, and other points in California.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Brunson visited Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Beck and son Charles.

Mrs. Carl Ray Sellers and little daughter, Carolyn, visited Sunday afternoon at Lanham in the home of her husband's sister, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Jones and family, and also with Mr. and Mrs. Leota Jones. Mrs. Raymond Jones was conveyed home that afternoon from the Holt Hospital and Clinic at Meridian, with her new baby daughter, Joice Fay, who made her arrival Friday afternoon of last week. The mother is the former Miss Prudence Sellers.

Mr. and Mrs. Dave Brunson and family of the Dry Fork community were visiting with relatives here last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Noland and little daughter, Wanda, of Blue Ridge were business visitors here Thursday of last week, and were guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Brunson.

George Glenn has purchased the interest of T. L. Betts in the Texaco Service Station here and has resumed operation of same. George recently received his discharge from the Navy. Mr. W. L. Jones, former employee of the station, has accepted a position at the produce house.

It will be remembered that they lost their little daughter, Anna, age 6, in 1915 and in October of 1918 the flu took the life of their eldest son, Arthur, of Topeka, Kansas, and in January, 1919, just three months later influenza claimed the life of Russell, near Carlton. Arthur was 31 years old and Russell 22 past.

Misses Daphne and Patsy Ann Hoover of John Tarleton College spent the week end with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Hoover. Daphne has accepted a position as secretary to the Dean of the College, and assumed her duties Monday of this week.

Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Hoover are expecting their son, Charles Darwin, home from overseas soon, having received some of his mail which has been forwarded home and also a short note from him stating that he expected to sail for home about Jan. 24. He has been in the service almost three years, two of which have been spent overseas, in both the Pacific and European Theaters. He was employed by the Santa Fe Railroad at Winslow, Arizona, before entering the service.

FIRST CHOICE of New Home Planners

They are Specifying: A NEW FREEDOM GAS KITCHEN

There is no special and costly installation job to add to the price of an automatic gas range. It is as simple to install as it is to use.

A famous women's magazine survey reveals that in 98 per cent of American homes the housewife does all the home work. Perhaps this is why gas in the kitchen is practically the unanimous choice of Southwestern homemakers. So in their remodeling or new home plans they are specifying "A New Freedom Gas Kitchen."

They know that flame cooking is accurate, clean, fast; that gas refrigeration is silent, trouble-free; that gas automatic water heating provides adequate instant hot water for the automatic dishwasher; and that the New Freedom Gas Kitchens are designed to save steps, and bending and stooping. Gas is the choice for the ultra-modern kitchen.

LOOKING AHEAD at ELECTRICAL LIVING

No more stay-at-home washdays
... when you get your new

Automatic Washer

You can say goodbye to Blue Monday when you get your postwar automatic washer. No longer will you have to spend weary hours over steaming tubs and a stubborn wringer.

With an automatic washer, you simply put in soiled clothes, add soap, set the controls and the washer does the rest. It fills itself, tumbles clothes clean, thoroughly tumbles rinses, spins clothes damp dry, empties itself and shuts off... automatically. You don't even have to put your hands in water! And you can leave your house or busy yourself with other tasks while the washing's being done to snowy-white perfection.

Yes... the automatic washer is a boon to busy homemakers... and so are many other new and improved electrical servants soon to be available. Plan now to add the appliances you need. Enjoy better living electrically!

Electrical Living Is Better Living

Gone are the days when homemaking meant an endless round of monotonous, time-consuming household tasks. Today, electric servants take the hard work out of housework at the snap of a switch. And the cost for each service performed is measured in pennies or fractions of pennies per day. It costs little to live better electrically!

SENIOR NEWS

The Seniors have been busy preparing orders for invitations and caps and gowns. We have not yet selected the color for our caps and gowns but we hope to have this attended to by the end of the week. By the time you read this we probably will have selected our play. Watch The Mirror for full details of Junior and Senior plays.

JUNIOR NEWS

I want to thank the people who bought sandwiches at the game Thursday night. As you could probably see there are only a few of the class interested in helping us fatten our pocketbook. Most of them are more interested in something else and I intend to be at the game Friday night, Feb. 15 to see who is really interested. We will have more sandwiches for sale, so please help us by buying them. I'll be looking for all of you readers who can possibly come.

The Junior Class finally selected a play which we hope is good. The name of it is "The Crazy Smith Family."

Lee Roy Brooks has been helping around for the past week or more. He was hurt while playing at noon several days ago. Bonnie Haley and Yvonne Williams have also been suffering from sprains received while playing basket ball.

I would like to congratulate the person who wrote Determination in last week's edition. There was only one place where I could see a mistake and that was that the girls were not mentioned in the field of basketball and studies. I know some one who had rather play ball than to study and I am sure you do, too. Education is more beneficial and they know it. I can't understand it.

Although our class decreased last week, it increased again this week. R. C. Walker joined us on Monday. We are happy to have him.

SOPHOMORE NEWS

The Sophomore Class gave Billy Rex Jackson a farewell party Saturday night in the band room.

We are sorry to lose Billy Rex and hope he has good luck wherever he goes.

SPORTS EDITION

Last Tuesday the Tigers went to Larkin to play ball. They won, one and lost one. The girls lost by a large margin and the boys won by a large margin. Many of the boys saw action in the game. Last Thursday the Bearcats came to the Tiger's gym for their return conference game. The girls lost to the Bearcats, and the boys took their game with little trouble. Again most of the second string boys saw a great deal of action in this game.

IN THE CRYSTAL BALL

Are we nosey? No, I don't think so! Zingara and I only try to supply you with interesting facts and news concerning people. Even if we do speak of you in our column, others are just as curious about your business as you are about theirs. Right?

Now to see what the C. B. has for us this week.

There was a "Wendell" (could it be W. S.?) who was turned down several times Sunday night. For instance by Betty D. and M. N. I. Perhaps there were others (boys) included in this. Who knows?

I see Billy Rex Jackson with Bobby Jean Jaggers Saturday night; however this seems to be connected with the Sophomore party Saturday night in honor of Billy Rex who is leaving.

Wonder what happened to Jack Neel, who disappeared so mysteriously after the ball game last Thursday night?

I see Joan with someone whose name is George—or are we mistaken?

Hmmm! Betty Jean Land is seen going around with letters postmarked Iredell and Alexander.

If you saw Sammy Campbell Sunday, you probably were wondering why she was running all around barefoot on such a cold day. So do we.

I see Maldee Ash going around with a smile from ear to ear. Could it have been anything to do with a letter from Bryan, Texas?

Comanche seemed to be a fairly popular place with Wendell S. and Jack N. Friday and Saturday nights. However Jack was back in Stephenville Sunday night.

I see Don G. in Stephenville Sunday night, but no Dale. I wonder who knows where she was.

us more dollars than did cotton when Hico was literally covered up with bales.

With special respect to Hico's trade territory, Hico with its railroad has some special advantages. Some modest industries such as a Sand and Gravel Company, Dairy Products or Food Packing could grow into big things. Egg handling and turkey egg shipping are already going pretty big. I want to work to secure and expand such as these.

We are already getting a lot of fine people who have made money elsewhere. They have bought here and are building fine Country Estates. We want more of them. Good churches, good schools, good roads and a fine citizenship added to REA, butane gas, private sewerage, abundant good water and farm refrigeration offer these people who demand the best all that they want EXCEPT good rural phone service. I want to work especially to overcome this one handicap.

If you would like all these, I ask your vote. I can not say absolutely that I will get all these good things. I do say that I will work to get them.

Ratliff

Market and Grocery

1—Keep in stock always the items you need in the way of groceries and meats. Sometimes this is impossible, but with the connections we have formed over a long period of years we are able to bring to our store most of the things our patrons call for.

2—Keep our prices down to the lowest minimum. Although present conditions have greatly increased our operating costs, we constantly strive to keep in mind the responsibility we owe those who have helped to make this store the successful institution which it is today. Ratliff's will never raise its price above normal standards — based on the cost of the items placed in our shelves.

3—Continually maintaining quick and alert delivery service — to the very best of our ability. And to grant our customers the courtesy of charge accounts.

4—In every way to operate this store so that it will continue to be known as one that can be depended on for fairness and courtesy.

5—To always appreciate your confidence and patronage.

[Opinions expressed in this weekly feature are the writer's, and not necessarily those of the News Review.—ED.]

"Vote the Democratic Ticket and Eat Black Bread!" "Give Your Heart to God and Your Business to the Bureaucrats!" (Pardon me, folks, I mean Bureaucrats.)

Well, now, you don't have to make fun, do you? Heck, anybody could have made that mistake. They both smell, don't they?

Here I have been getting that blamed "lazy donkey" all my life, picking the cockle burrs out of his tail and brushing him from head to foot and I'll be doggone if he hasn't got to where he won't eat anything but my "greenback."

Now, folks, "he can't do that to me" and get by with it. There's going to be another one of them "big auctions" here before much longer, when candidates will get up on soap boxes and auction off just such things as that, and, believe me, if he fools with me much more like he is doing now, he's gonna be sold. I'll buy me a darned good "elephant" and just start life over.

Of course, I don't expect to find an elephant that doesn't have a few blemishes on him, but I could feed him on hay and I'm beginning to wonder if it wouldn't be better to own an elephant that kept his long nose in a bale of hay than to own a donkey that kept his blamed nose in my hip pocket all the time.

That four billion, seven hundred million dollar so-called loan proposal to Britain has just about split me wide open. So long as "kings ride in chariots" and one-legged American war vets tread the streets in the vain hope of finding shelter, I will be found opposed to my country "playing second fiddle" to any nation. If that is called isolationism, then, believe me, brother, I sure have a real case of it. Money will buy neither love nor friendship, and no amount of it will make "Royalty beat Four Aces" where I played last.

I, too, am willing to be "cousins" to the British people, but I certainly don't want them to mistake me for their "rich uncle."

After "reading between the lines" on the recent report of a "food scandal" in Greece, I am inclined to believe that there would be far more American food for starving Greeks if British troops were stationed on the British Isles.

11 a. m., Preaching. Subject, "First Healing and Then Service."

7:15 p. m., Preaching. Subject, "Things Which Make Us Doubt."

Methodism is entering a new era in America and in the world. She is not trying to dictate the policies of this nation and the nations of the world, but she is trying to get men and women into an experience of conscious salvation.

Are we, as individual members of the Methodist church, going to relax and let the world go by? Are you going to let this movement for Christ fall by not doing your part?

"I will be seeing you at church Sunday."

Texans Asked to Donate Books for Health Library

Austin, Feb. 11.—The Texas State Department of Health is in need of a library of its own so that all those interested in giving Texans the best possible health service may keep abreast of the advanced ideas in their line of work. Many of the problems encountered in dealing with public health require a great deal of research and information. These books are also needed for use by those interested in health questions and by students.

No money has been appropriated for a library and Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer, believes that public spirited citizens, industry and organizations in the State will donate enough books so that the State Department of Health may have a first class library without spending tax money.

Books are needed on the following subjects: Public Health, Medicine, Laboratory Technics, Nutrition, Pediatrics, Sanitary Engineering, Nursing and all subjects allied to those mentioned.

The Texas Society for Crippled Children has made the first donation of one hundred dollars worth of books, dealing with the crippled child. Some books are needed more than others so anyone wishing to buy books to donate should ask for a list from Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer, of those needed most urgently. Books should be sent to the State Department of Health, Austin.

Former Army non-coms may now reenlist and retain their rank in the Regular Army at any time within three months after discharge.

TO ALL OUR PEOPLE INTERESTED IN THE UPKEEP OF OUR CEMETERY:

To maintain our cemetery and keep it as it should be kept and as we want to keep it requires the full time and services of one man. To do this requires an expenditure of not less than Seven Hundred Dollars each year.

The Hico Cemetery Association is endeavoring to maintain our cemetery but the income from investments and other sources is not sufficient. Outside income has dropped off so that the situation is alarming.

To continue this work will require each and every one interested to contribute toward its maintenance. Your contribution may be made monthly or in any other manner you may desire, to Mrs. Webb McEver.

The Hico Cemetery Association is a corporation fully authorized to continue for all time and is managed by a Board of Directors, its present Board consisting of Dr. Chas. M. Hall as President; Judge E. H. Persons, and E. H. Randals.

Our investments consist of legacies made by good citizens of our community. These legacies are placed in our permanent fund and the principal may not be used for maintenance purposes — only the income may be used. The permanent fund is invested in high grade Municipal and Federal Bonds.

HELP US MAINTAIN OUR CEMETERY — YOUR CEMETERY — by making as liberal a contribution as possible.

Here's the current Katy-sponsored ad appearing in prominent national business magazines spreading the fame and fortune of a greater South-west. You further the cooperative partnership between the people of the Southwest and their pioneer railroad when you "Ship Katy—Travel Katy."

Open Country for Business Heroes

You can win the approval of your firm, and recognition for yourself by being one of the forward-looking executives to first investigate, then advocate the attractive profit possibilities of a plant or branch in the new Industrial South-west.

For here is a land offering every opportunity for commercial expansion . . . a land flowing with vast and varied reserves of raw materials for nearly every type of industry. Here you'll find power, water, fuel in cheap abundance . . . a climate that is mild, healthful and friendly year 'round . . . willing native labor sharpened by wartime skills . . . rich home markets of progressive people going places and buying things.

The pioneer railroad which first blazed a steel trail from the North into this land of industrial opportunity is the Katy—a closely-knit, friendly Class 1 railroad, devoted exclusively to the service and development of its strategically-located Southwestern corridor. The Katy serves the South-west well because it knows the South-west well. This is why Katy's Industrial Research Staff is in a unique position to furnish essential data, quickly and in confidence, to help you and your firm plan to relocate or expand in this most favored area.

Mrs. Bob Shannon

Martha M. Hudson was born Oct. 15, 1861 in Georgia. She was married to Bob Shannon in 1885 in Alabama. She departed this life Feb. 3 at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Bud Cunningham of Abilene.

Mrs. Shannon spent several years of her life close to Iredell. She was loved by all, for she was a fine old lady. It was an inspiration to anyone to be with her. It was my happy privilege to know her and I loved her. She was blind, had been for 20 years. She was converted and joined the Baptist church in her young days and had lived a devoted Christian life. Her membership was with the Rural Grove Church.

The sweet influence that came from her life will live on. She was cheerful, although blind, her eyes of faith were bright, for she could through the eyes of faith see the beautiful home that was prepared for her. She had been ill for a few months but now her sufferings are over and she is at rest.

She had many friends and all were her friends. She attended church services as long as she could.

She is survived by three children: Malchus Shannon of Stephenville, Mrs. Cunningham of Abilene, and Mrs. Pearl Waldrip of Lubbock; and 13 grandchildren. Also four brothers, Joel Hudson, Iredell; Jim Hudson, Cleburne; Bunyan and George Hudson of Walnut Springs, and one sister, Mrs. Maude Seals of Keene.

The funeral of this good woman was held Monday afternoon in the Iredell Baptist Church. On account of the rain the crowd was a little small. The funeral was in charge of the undertakers from Abilene. The floral offerings were large and beautiful. The funeral message was delivered by Rev. Smith of Stephenville, assisted by Rev. Potter. The pallbearers included Messrs. C. L. Tidwell, W. W. Oldham, Abe Myers, T. M. Tidwell, Euell Thompson, and Bud Smith.

The remains were laid to rest in the new cemetery by the side of her husband who passed away several years ago. Her son, Malchus, was ill and he couldn't attend the funeral.

The out of town relatives who attended the funeral were Mr. and Mrs. Bud Cunningham and family of Abilene, Mr. and Mrs. Aubrey Shannon and son of Bryan, Mr. and Mrs. Loyd M. Shannon and Mrs. Malchus Shannon of Stephenville, Mr. Jim Hudson and Mrs. Phil Carr of Cleburne, Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Hudson of Hico, Mr. and Mrs. George Hudson of Walnut Springs, and Mrs. Pearl Waldrip and daughter and husband of Lubbock.

Sympathy is extended to the bereaved ones by their friends for she is gone but not forgotten.

The Right Time and the Right Place

... Is often a perplexing question!

• In good times and bad we are maintaining a steady market for poultry raisers and dairymen of this section. We believe that the person who establishes and maintains a good flock of hens and a herd of milch cows will win out if he stays with them over a period of years.

Food is an important item these days — and there is no better food than good clean, well handled Poultry, Eggs and Cream.

Do Not Wait Too Long

Do not put off having your car lubricated. Even if you are planning a trip in the near future, have your car ready. The longer you wait, the more the parts of your car wear. The more they wear, the greater the expense.

Do not run your oil too long between changes. Oil and grease are always much cheaper than parts.

tria. He has lately enjoyed a week spent seeing the sights of Paris. Sergeant Henry A. Knight, as he is now known, expects to be leaving the ETO by the first of July.

Sergeant Roline Forgy called his mother, Mrs. George B. Gollightly at Hamilton Wednesday, Feb. 13 from Fort Worth that he will report to Tyler today for his discharge. Forgy has last been stationed at the Columbus Army Air Field, Mississippi, where he was in the administrative department of the Air Corps. He and his wife, who has been living in Fort Worth, will spend the coming week here and his present plans are to enter college this fall. —Hamilton Herald-News.

A little bird told the editor that Walter Ramey was headed home for an expected discharge. If this information is correct, which it apparently is, we know some folks who will be made happy over Walter's return from service with the Navy in the Atlantic and more recently in the Pacific.

Ted Roberson made a flying trip to San Antonio and return in his Ford last Sunday. However, he's always going somewhere, so that ain't news. Doesn't that sailor with the saltwater boots have more fun than anybody you know?

We know several guys around here whose re-enlistment furloughs are about to expire. But that's about all we know about their business. More later when we are better informed.

NAVY MAN BRINGS BRIDE HERE FOR A SHORT VISIT

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Locker, who were married at Post, Texas, Thursday, Feb. 7, have been visiting for several days at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Roy E. Locker, Hico Route 1. They expect to be temporarily located here until the expiration of his leave March 11, when he has to report back to Dallas.

The bride, the former Mary Ella Fautt, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. E. Fautt of Stockton, Calif.

The groom, who lived between Hico and Iredell before his entry into the service, has spent 19 months in the Pacific, having been shore-based in the Philippines for 15 months. He holds the rating of Seaman First Class.

Their many friends wish for the young couple much happiness and success in their married life.

Virginia Ramage, 1st Lt. ANC, who has been sitting around at Randolph Field waiting for something to happen, slipped up home last week end for a short visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Ramage. The winsome young flight nurse has business with the Air Corps for the rest of this year, and may get to visit around quite a spell overseas.

Seaman First Class Royal Jordan, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Jordan, received his discharge at Camp Wallace, Texas on Feb. 7 and is enjoying a visit with his parents. He served 27 months with the USNR, 14 months of which were spent overseas, in the Admiralty Islands in the Southwest Pacific.

Mrs. W. O. Holton received word this week that her grandson, Cpl. T. J. Luckie Jr., had returned to the States and received his discharge last Saturday in San Antonio. He is now at home in Lubbock with his parents. Corporal Luckie has been in Yokohama, Japan, for the past eight months with an engineer battalion.

Pvt. William B. Prater left Sunday for Fort Ord, Calif., after spending his 16-day furlough here with his wife and son, Floyd. Private Prater entered the service last July and received all of his training at Camp Hood except for three weeks spent at Camp Robinson, Ark.

Ferguson System Dealer Gives Tips On Care of Tires

All mechanized farm operators should use part of their time during the winter months to check the tires on their tractors. In the opinion of Clyde Weatherby, Ferguson System dealer for this territory.

He points out that longer life and more economical operation are based upon simple precautions like putting anti-freeze into water-filled tires, repairing injured tires, keeping accurate tire pressure and storing the vehicle properly.

Denatured alcohol or calcium chloride are satisfactory anti-freeze agents, according to Mr. Weatherby. Calcium is practical as it is heavier than water when dissolved, adds to the weight per gallon, and does not harm the tube. He warns that in preparing the solution, water should be poured into the container first, then proper amount of calcium chloride added.

Injured tires should be taken to a reliable service station for permanent repair, the Ferguson System dealer states, although temporary repair may be made by the farmer. If the side wall or tread rubber is cut through and fabric exposed, the cut should be washed out with gasoline and filled with tread-cut repair gum to prevent moisture and dirt working in and damaging the fabric.

Makeshift repair for cuts and cord breaks can be made by installing a cement cord patch on the inside, and filling in the outside of the injury with tread-cut repair gum.

Pointing out that both over-inflation and under-inflation are harmful to tires, the Ferguson dealer urges that a low-pressure gauge be used to check pressure at least once weekly.

As unprotected tires will deteriorate nearly as rapidly while idle as when in normal use, the tractor should be jacked up and the tires covered with old sacks when not in use.
