

News of Hico happenings and items of personal interest to citizens of this community may be heard on "The Hometown Editor" broadcast each Saturday at 1 p. m., over Radio Station KGKO, 570 on your dial, Dallas.

The new KGKO public service feature, written and presented by Bert Halling, is dedicated exclusively to hometown news, fathered from Texas and Oklahoma cities located within the KGKO listening area.

Highlighting the 15-minute program will be a guest appearance each week of a newspaper editor from a Texas or Oklahoma City.

Not to be confused with Halling's new program is his first-love, "Suburban Editor," over WRAP, 820 on your dial, every Sunday morning at 10 o'clock.

Ted Gouley is the present skipper of "Suburban Editor," and like his predecessors and contemporaries, has been mighty nice in giving publicity to worthwhile local events and happenings, at the same time having a little fun for himself out of some of the articles we publish in a lighter vein—like what happened to a non-subscriber, the piece that Cecil Coston sent us and caused so much commotion.

Readers tell us often that we have been on the air, but it has been hard to get up early enough Sunday to hear Suburban Editor. Maybe the NR editor can make the Saturday date with Haling on Hometown Editor. At least maybe our readers can, and after all they may hear their names called out now and then over the kilowatts.

This week, April 13 through April 19, cities and towns all over America will be asked to observe a Chamber of Commerce Week.

A great many citizens who have come into contact with the progressive thought, ceaseless energy, and self-effacing service of their Chambers of Commerce will know what they are commemorating. The majority of citizens will not.

To the uninformed citizen, the Chamber of Commerce in his town is a vague organization of business men organized simply and only to increase the sales or volume of business in a particular trade or trades. This was perhaps true in 600 A. D., when the Chamber of Commerce has its origin in the English guilds, trade groups which saw fit to band themselves together for their own benefit and protection. It is not true now.

Gradually the Chambers of Commerce have grown, extended their fields of endeavor, expanded their boundaries of activity, enlarged their vision. Within the last fifty years they have become such a necessary part of the living community, such a concentrated center of community service, such a backbone of community enterprise and common welfare that there is no field of community good in which they do not work and work hard. These "Chambers of Citizenship" have gained in strength and prestige. Their greatest lacks today are man-power and money.

The task of building communities for tomorrow rests, in very large measure, with the Chambers of Commerce. It behooves every citizen, therefore, to inform himself of the scope of their labors and to ally himself with those labors. This week is a good week to do just that.

Six-Inch Sermon by Rev. Robert H. Harper

Lessons for April 27: 1 Kings 3:5-9; 5:13-16; 11:4-9.

Memory Selection: Proverbs 3:3

The caption could also be the Rise and Fall of Solomon, for with him came national glory and decay. Celebrated for his wisdom, Solomon closed his life in sinful folly.

In the beginning of his reign, Solomon asked God for wisdom. And in addition to his fame in the Scriptures, his name is almost revered for wisdom in oriental countries to the present. He was certainly the wisest man of his age, surpassing the wise men of the east, and of Egypt, and contemporary scholars in his own country.

But his wisdom did not include the right ordering of his own life and the wise ruling of his own people. Instead of living a simple life in a simple court, his pride led him to outshine the splendour of other monarchs. Instead of oppressing his subjects with hard labor in the mountains and the laying of exorbitant taxes upon them to support his great armies, erect magnificent buildings, and maintain a splendid court, he could have secured his kingdom by dealing justly with his people.

His pride, love of display, and moral weakness led him to sinful ruin as a man and his great kingdom to weakness and division. His hundreds of wives, many of them foreign, turned Solomon's heart to false gods, and he set up heathen altars in Jerusalem and offered sacrifices.

LET'S PLAY EDITOR—At the Texas Scottish Rite Hospital for Crippled Children in Dallas, the patients take their editing mightily seriously as they buckle down to getting out their four-page play newspaper, "Little Scotty" which goes to 57 hospitalized subscribers, "every so often." During the long periods of treatment and convalescence the children find much pleasure in preparing cartoons and copy for their tiny paper. Pictured are "City Editor" Kenneth Garner, 4, of Cisco a polio victim of the 1946 epidemic; Sharon Erenbrack, 9-year old San Antonian, undergoing treatment for a bone infection, and Barbara Allison, 10, another polio patient whose home is in Texarkana.

The Scottish Rite Hospital, which is supported by individual contributions, offers the best possible medical care and treatment at no cost to Texas crippled children whose parents are unable to provide for adequate medical services.

THE BOBO BOYS ARE TAKING IT EASY, FOR DIFFERENT REASONS

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Bobo have received mail from their two sons in the service, recently. A Western Union Easter greeting, followed by a long letter from James Ray, Seaman First Class, of Dutch Harbor, impart the news that he is still standing watch at the radio station, serving on a four-section watch, with eight hours on duty and twenty-four hours off duty. (James Ray, we're afraid you're going to get lazy at that.) With plenty of snow still in Alaska, he states that two-foot drifts had already accumulated from a new snowstorm which had just begun.

Private First Class LeRoy Bobo of Trieste, Italy, writes that he is in the hospital with a good case of measles and would have to stay there for three weeks. LeRoy inquired, "Am I in the news much?" and said, "Be sure to read the Mirror each week, and if there's anything about last year's Senior class or me, be sure and keep the clippings." And he added, "You can start sending me the Hico News Review now, since I've recently found out that I'll be here until at least next Christmas."

Staff Sergeant Douglas Helvey came in Monday and was accompanied back to Bergstrom Field at Austin Tuesday by his wife, who had spent the past week here with her parents. Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Ellington, Doug, whose duties with the Air Corps keep him moving about the country a lot, had just returned to Austin after two trips to California.

A card from Mrs. W. M. Grant, now living at Dublin, imparts the news that their son, Clovis, is now a Private First Class. Clovis is with an Air Engineer Squadron, and gets his mail in care of Postmaster, San Francisco. He is another of the Hico boys followed by the Hico News Review, and Mrs. Grant said he sent word to tell all the Hico folks hello for him.

PRIVATE FIRST CLASS GRIFFITHS REPORTS ON THINGS AT BOCA RATON

Boca Raton Army AAF, Boca Raton, Florida, April 14, 1947.

Dear Mr. and Mrs. Holford:

Just a note to tell you of a slight change of address.

I am now in my third week of a 13-week course. I was casual for three months before getting back in school. During that time, I not only pulled K. P., but also drove in the motor pool and worked as a bartender in the Officers' Club. I will be leaving here in July unless they jerk me out for an instructor. If they should, I'm sunk. I hope you people are having some better weather now. From what I've heard it has been a terrible winter. Of course it has al-

Fire Department Members Organize Soft Ball Club

At the regular meeting of the Hico Volunteer Fire Department Monday night it was decided to organize a soft ball team to participate in the city league.

Bill Norton was elected manager of the club and 13 men were signed up as desiring to play. Those whose names will appear on the line-up are: Sherman Roberson, Pete Turner, Bill Norton, Bob Dodd, George Griffiths, Charlie Meador, R. E. Collins, Herman Leach, Harvey Howerton, Alvin Casey, Ernest Jacobs, Roy French (Chief), and Ollie Davis. There are others in the department who will be on hand to assist and cheer the boys along, and do some of the necessary "pig-tail" work.

The City League has been organized for several weeks and a few games have been played at the High School Stadium. At the present time there are only three teams, namely: Texaco Team, Western Auto Team, and the newly organized Fire Department Team. There is a need for at least two more teams and a sponsor is needed for the new teams we hope to get. There are plenty of good players around, so all we need is a sponsor.

The purpose of the Soft Ball League is to provide recreation for those desiring to play, and to offer to the population of Hico and the trade territory some good clean and thrilling soft ball. Games are being played each week at the High School Stadium between the local teams and out-of-town teams as well. No definite schedule has been arranged, so just watch for the lights each evening about 7:15 and come on up.

Any one not already playing in the league and desiring to participate is requested to see Johnnie Thompson, Ralph Boone or Bill Norton and they will sign you up to play on somebody's team. The more we have, the more fun we have.

Later: Mr. H. E. McCullough has agreed to sponsor another soft ball team for Barnes & McCullough and Paul Wren has been duly assigned the enjoyable job as manager. So those interested in playing may also see him or any of the lumber yard gang.

ready begun to get hot here—terribly hot. I played softball all afternoon and now everyone wants to know what Indian tribe I belong to. I'm as red as any beet you've ever seen.

It was rather nice down here during the winter, but we did get cold. A drop to 42 degrees made two-inch headlines in the Miami Daily News. I saw several men going to chow of mornings with everything on that they had, including overcoats.

We even had frost on the tops of our barracks two or three mornings, so you can see how cold it actually got.

Well, it is time for lights out, so I must close. Wishing everyone in my old home town the best of everything, I remain

Rep. Sid Gregory Reports On Affairs In The State Capitol

Austin, Tex., April 16, 1947. Dear Friends:

The trend in the past twenty years has been toward extending the arms of government in any and all directions. In both state and national governments, boards, commissions, bureaus, etc. were set up for every conceivable purpose.

The usefulness of many of these has expired; many have overlapping duties, and with the great burden of taxation growing heavier, time is over-ripe for economy in the operation of government.

With this in mind, the House passed a bill yesterday written by Representative Jim Wright, myself, and others, that will allow a Director of the Budget to examine every agency and branch of state government.

A thorough study will be made for the purpose of finding sources of waste of the state's money, finding overlapping of state agencies, and recommending ways the state may eliminate unnecessary boards and bureaus. Minnesota saved 19 million dollars a year after instituting a similar program.

Owners of valuable dogs may rest easier now. A bill is on its way through, making it a felony to steal a valuable dog. Also passed yesterday was a bill allowing dog owners to tattoo their dogs and register their brand of ownership.

Men in Austin representing the medical profession are reported this morning to have accepted a "grandfather" clause in the Basic Science Bill. This is seeming to revive the bill and some say insures its passage. I am supporting it.

This clause will allow all present practicing chiropractors to continue to practice without taking the basic science test, but will require all future chiropractors to take a basic science test given by medical doctors before beginning their study of chiropractics.

Sincerely, SID. GREGORY, Rep., 94th District of Texas

HICO WINS IN TENNIS AT JOHN TARLETON COLLEGE

Stephenville, April 17.—Bill Estes, Hico's tennis and scholastic representative to John Tarleton Agricultural College, has just finished winning his second set of tennis matches for the school.

Bill has competed in varsity matches against TWC of Fort Worth and North Texas Agricultural College and has won 6-2, 6-1, 6-0, 6-1. Teaming with Fred Ferguson he also won in debate by defeating ESTC's team 5-1, 7-5.

Freshman Estes is a Physical Education major at Tarleton and has been doing fine in his studies.

John Rusk was returned home last Saturday by ambulance from Dallas, where he recently underwent a major operation.

DONATES MILLIONS . . . Hugh Roy Cullen, wealthy Houston, Tex., independent oil operator and his wife, Mrs. Lillie Cullen, who have announced gift of oil estimated at $160,000,000. The money will be used for Texas educational, medical and charitable institutions. They say they want to see the money spent while they are still alive to see the good effects.

Veterans' News

The Veterans Administration has reviewed more than a third of its disability compensation cases in Texas, Louisiana and Mississippi in the Congressionally-authorized program to establish more accurate ratings for disabled veterans. VA reported this week.

Of the 297,000 compensation and pension cases in VA's Dallas Branch Area subject to review under the new disability rating schedule approved by the last Congress, VA has reviewed 75,353 cases, slightly more than 26 per cent.

VA said virtually all veterans drawing compensation for service-connected disabilities will have their cases reviewed under the new schedule. Reviews are automatic, therefore, VA requested disabled veterans not to make inquiries about their cases while they are pending.

Although the new schedule provides increased ratings for certain types of disabilities and decreases for other types, it does not make any blanket change in rating. However, the increases far outnumber the decreases.

World War II amputees eligible for free automobiles, who intend to apply for them, should file their claims immediately because funds for purchase of the cars will not be available after June 30, VA said.

The appropriation authorized by the 79th Congress for the purchases expire on that date.

VA cannot purchase a car until the claim has been filed, the veteran declared legally eligible and a sales agreement made with a car dealer. Since this processing requires considerable time, veterans who intend to apply should file now so that money for purchase of the cars can be enumerated before the appropriation expires.

Veterans who suffered the loss or loss of use of one or both lower limbs at or above the ankle during service in World War II are entitled to the cars. They must be able to obtain an operator's license. So far, 1,376 World War II veterans in the Dallas Branch Area of Texas, Louisiana, and Mississippi have filed claims for cars. Of these, 990 have been found eligible. Nearly 600 veterans have received delivery of their cars at an average cost to the government of $1,576 per vehicle.

"Public Health Nursing Week" In Texas April 20-26

Austin, April 14.—The State of Texas is planning to celebrate national "Public Health Nursing Week" April 20 to 26, as proclaimed by President Harry S. Truman.

The purpose of the week, according to Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer, will be (1) to recruit more public health nurses; (2) to increase understanding of the fact that much needless sickness and suffering can be prevented or reduced by using public health nursing services; (3) to encourage greater understanding of public health nursing as a service for everybody regardless of size of income; (4) to encourage development of public health nursing services wherever needed, and (5) to increase citizen participation in public health nursing services.

From the beginning of this work more than thirty years ago public health nurses have been concerned with the total health situation of the family including sickness, disease prevention, and health protection.

In setting aside April 20 to 26 as "Public Health Nursing Week" for America, health administrators and all other friends of nursing should exert their efforts toward the extension of public health nursing services, so that there will be enough qualified nurses to meet the needs of all the people, and thus help in maintaining a maximum health level throughout the nation.

Hico F. F. A. Boy Places Third In Judging At JTAC

Stephenville, April 17.—Charles Goughly of Hico placed third with a score of 360 in the Beef Cattle Division in the 19th Annual F. F. A. Judging Contest at John Tarleton Agricultural College, April 12, 1947, according to results released by A. J. Spangler, Division Head.

Approximately 450 boys attended the contests from 50 schools.

MEETS WITH COMMISSIONERS

W. W. Carson Jr., president of the Hico Chamber of Commerce, was in Hamilton Monday to meet with the Hamilton County Commissioners Court, in regular session, in regard to road matters. Mr. Carson and his committees have been quite active lately, especially in efforts to secure and maintain good roads to and from Hico over this section.

650 Dead and 3,000 Hurt As Texas City Digs Out of Shambles

Mrs. T. B. Perry, Hico, has heard through her son, W. C. Perry of Meridian, that their daughter and sister, Mrs. Henry Land of Texas City, and other family members, are safe. Mr. Perry went to the scene of the catastrophe Wednesday and sent word to his sister here, Mrs. Homer Wilson.

No other reports have been received by the News Review from others who were known to be in the explosion area.

Miss Virginia Ramage, registered nurse making her home now with her parents in Black Stump Valley, was in Hico Wednesday night to answer a radio call for volunteers to serve in the blast area. She was instructed to hold herself in readiness for further orders, pending transportation.

Miss Ramage was on terminal leave until February 8 of this year, after having held a captain's commission and served overseas in Japan and the Philippines.

TEXAS CITY, April 17.—Rumbling oil fires sending walls of black smoke a mile high crept close to eight leaking tanks of high octane gasoline here Thursday and Texas City, rocked Wednesday and Thursday mornings by five major explosions, waited tensely for more.

The death toll stood at an estimated 650, with 3,000 injured, according to Dr. Clarence Quinn, medical co-ordinator appointed by Mayor J. C. Trahan.

Deputy Constable Herbert Whitmore of Galveston County said all of Texas City was in danger. He said if the wind shifted to the south, "Texas City is liable to go." The harbor area has been evacuated for relief workers. No effort is being made to extinguish the oil fires, but firemen are keeping them from spreading to near-by residential and business sections.

The city's 15,000 residents had dwindled to about 1,000 Thursday, A. R. Duncan, Houston policeman said. Many made homeless have moved to a near-by Army camp and to Galveston, Houston, and other towns.

The fear of chlorine gas Wednesday night caused others to leave. A false rumor spread that an official evacuation order had been issued, and caused hundreds to move. The gas is still a threat Thursday, and gas masks are being worn.

Highways leading to Texas City are blocked and no one is allowed to enter the razed ghost town except on official business.

The weather was clear but cool, and blankets were being worn Indian fashion by hundreds.

The task of embalming the 223 bodies at the improvised morgue in the school gymnasium was completed early Thursday. More bodies are still being found and moved to the gymnasium, still decorated with wailing hunting from a recent school party. Lines of dazed citizens stand outside, waiting to enter a few at a time to identify relatives.

Willis E. Hammonree, chief boatswain's mate of Maryville, Tenn., Wednesday alone brought 107 of the 223 bodies to the morgue in a five-ton Army truck.

One Looter Caught

Only one instance of looting was reported. Highway patrolmen picked up a nigger Wednesday night. They found $6,000 in cash on him, and took him into custody.

Little effort was being made Thursday to clear up debris. However, Al Dopking, Associated Press staff writer, said they were "scooping up plate glass like snow" in the business area.

Three New Blasts

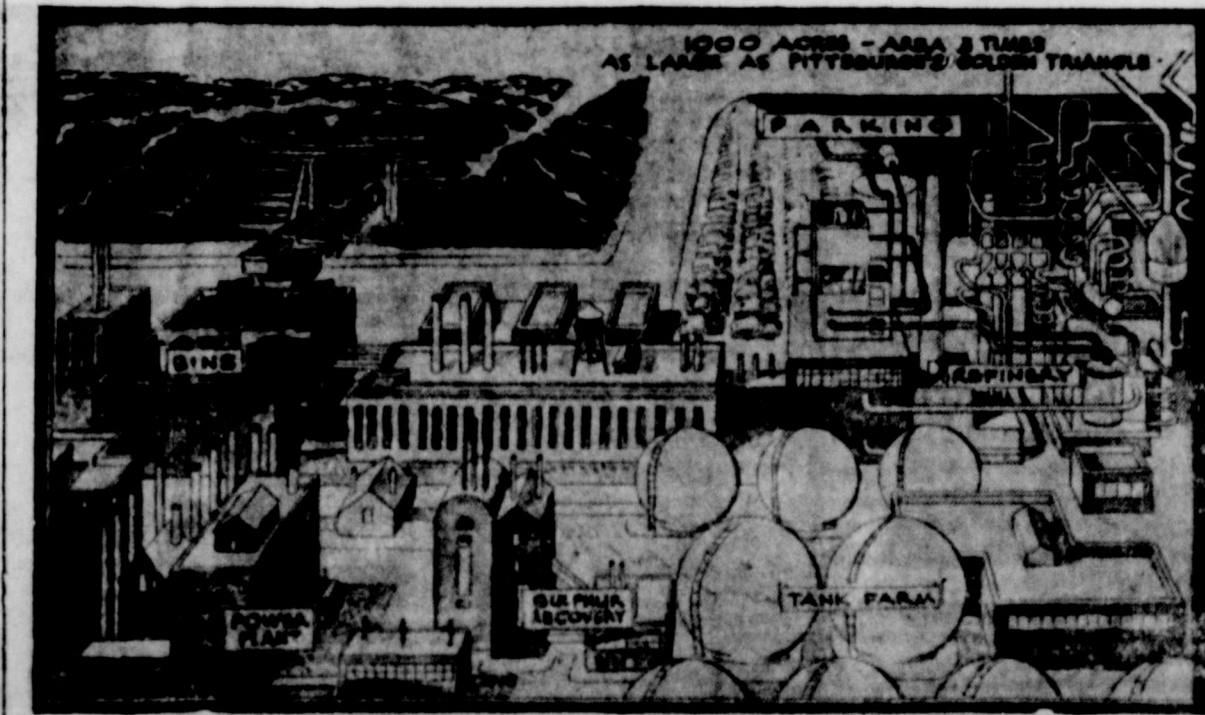

Three new explosions rocked this Texas coast industrial city Thursday. They followed the two Wednesday morning at 9:12 a. m. that set off the chain of disaster and tragedy described as the worst in Texas in half a century.

After conferring with the Red Cross, Quinn said that 400 were known to be dead and that another 250 dead were believed to be in the debris along the waterfront. He said that 3,000 were injured.

Other estimates of the dead ranged from 223 to 1,200. At dawn a blanket of billowing black smoke covered the city, the result of new oil fires caused by the newest explosions of the Liberty ship High Flyer.

Officials were watching closely the progress of rescue workers who for the first time since shortly after Wednesday morning's explosions, penetrated the Monsanto Chemical Company plant, located in the immediate vicinity of the initial explosion on the French vessel, the Grand-Camp.

Only a comparatively small number of the 800 employees of the company reportedly have been located.

CONVERT RAW COAL INTO HIGH-TEST GAS . . . A project which is expected to start within two years when in a mammoth plant will convert 6,000,000 tons of raw coal annually into huge quantities of high-test household and industrial gas and high test gasoline will be erected at Pittsburgh at a cost of $120,000,000. Photo is an artist's conception of the proposed plant.

"The Frozen Corner"

By BILL NORTON

As Spring and Summer approach and the prices of food and other necessities of life continue to BOOM skyward, it's time we take a lesson from the ants. As pesky as they may be, they are smart and store up all that is available for the day when food is hard to get.

With your frozen locker you can do the same thing. With Spring and Summer comes the delicious berries, peaches and other fruits, and wholesome and nutritious vegetables. All of these can be put in your locker for consumption next winter, and can be frozen so as to retain that delicious flavor, color, vitamin content and aroma. Serving all of these on some winter day will be to the amazement and delight of yourself and your friends.

The preparation of fruits and vegetables for your locker is simple, but must be correct for best results. Both are prepared just as if you were going to serve them today. After the food is washed and ready for cooking your simple processing begins. Each fruit and vegetable is processed a little differently and this correct method can be found at your local locker plant.

Your local Frozen Food Locker has complete instructions on the preparation of all foods, so see them and get the proper methods well established before you begin your preparation. Available at your local locker plant are cartons and Sharp Freezing facilities.

Frozen Foods are Fresh Foods — in Flavor, Texture, Color, Aroma and Food Value.

SENIOR NEWS

If we live over our six weeks' tests, we are planning to go to Tarleton Friday for "Senior Day." We have started on the second act of our play. Here's an idea of what happens just before practice: Velton F. and Ralph E. forget that we are to practice and go play baseball; Mildred T. goes to remind them of this important engagement; Billy Jackson is gazing out the window to a beautiful form, a motor scooter; Margie L. and Louise H. are trying to learn how to cry without crying; Wendell K. has gone to work; and Frances A. and Annette P. are trying to entertain Willa Dean H. with some of the latest names they have thought up.

SOPHOMORE NEWS

This Monday is extra blue, a cold rain and those awful tests. But why be sad, just six more weeks of school and the sun is bound to shine again.

Would you like to know what goes on this beautiful Sophomore room every morning? Patsy and LaVerne are busily talking about something—I guess you know what: Melvin is studying so-o-o-o hard; Maldee is working diligently on her Algebra; Vernon is trying to make excuses to go somewhere else; Wanda and Margie are having a good time in general; Charles is rushing in and out; and Mrs. Segrest is trying to be patient but getting a little upset at which is called the beautiful Sophomore class.

FRESHMAN NEWS

As I gaze around on this wonderful rainy day, I see running around like a chicken with its head cut off—a very sweet and likable Freshman girl who goes by the name of Myrna Sparks. Myrna has brown hair, green eyes; she is five feet three and one-half inches tall and her favorites are as follows: Food, quail; dessert, ice cream; subject, Algebra; teacher, Mrs. Segrest; sport, swimming; and color, lavender.

CRYSTAL BALL

Again we see Zingara coming from behind the front of the gym. Guess you are wondering what she has seen in the C. B. for this week. Just keep reading and you will find out.

The first picture is that of Betty L. and Wesley going to the show Saturday and Betty H. and Bobby O. waiting for her outside. But I think they were enjoying themselves.

I see Ray K. and Joan G. got the corner of the show again Saturday night, as well as Paul A. and Betty Jane G.

Why does "Stub" have so much trouble with his girls? Every time you see him, he has one of them mad at him because he looked at another one. Guess that's why he has been staying home on Saturday nights. Also there are too many girls that want to wear his pin.

Pat and Ralph passed the time away Saturday night with Wendell, Patsy.

Well, look what's coming up next. It's Louise and Alford—looks as if the "bug" had struck again. With them are Margie and Billy.

So Jean C. didn't get to go anywhere Saturday night. What good is a boy friend if he doesn't take you somewhere. Isn't that what you say?

We see Leion W. telling Annette P. he doesn't know Flossie B. As a matter of fact, he says Leion is his brother. How could that be?

Now I see a certain boy hanging on to a certain gate-post and screaming, "Please, please. Just let me stay a little longer." We want to know why the 15 panes of glass in Annette Phillips' front door vibrated for an hour Friday night.

WORM'S EYE VIEW

The other day Nilly was prom- enading down the hall when his attention was attracted to the Senior room by loud noises and bangings. The source of such commotion turned out to be one Billy Jackson. He's the fugitive from a leaky faucet who looks like a Freshman, acts like a first grader, and is a Senior. But for all his crazy and peculiar mannerisms, he has a few we kind of admire, such as his attraction for Freshmen, his imitations of radio commercials, and his fondness for Bugs Bunny. If you look twice, you might find he's even human.

REFLECTIONS

In the quiet home of one of the most aristocratic families of Gundyville, Catazulum County, is the setting of the Senior Play, "Brides to Burn" Miss Letitia Gundy.

portrayed by Willa Dean Hancock, anxiously awaits the return of her long-lost explorer-nephew, played by Wendell Knight. Miss "Fish" has decided that "Gil" must stop globe-trotting and settle down in Gundyville with the woman of her choice, "Trudi" Borland, otherwise known as Margie Land. Gil refuses, but when his aunt threatens to disinherit him, Gil quickly changes his tune. Suddenly two women, if you can call them that, appear on the scene claiming to be Gil's brides, whom he married while he was suffering from amnesia. One of his "lovely" young brides is Lolita, a fiery Mexican girl; and the other is Princess Boogie Woogie from the heart of Africa. If you want to see Gil wiggle out of this predicament come to see "Brides to Burn" on May 2, 1947, at the High School Auditorium, and laugh yourselves silly.

Hamilton-Coryell Soil Conservation District News

Hugh James, Conservation Group Leader of the Fairview group, has seeded 3 acres to bermuda grass which will be utilized to receive terrace water as well as for grazing with livestock.

L. A. Cook of the Star group has seeded 3 acres of terrace outlet pasture to buffalo grass.

Loy Gene Brown of the Liberty group is using the following legumes in his regular crop rotation as a source of farm income as well as for soil improving: 12 acres of biennial Madrid sweet clover as a legume hay and soil improving crop in 1947 and as a hay, seed and soil improving crop in 1948. Thirty-eight acres of inoculated and fertilized vetch and rye as a winter cover and grazing crop and seed production. Ten acres of inoculated hubam on oats as a hay and seed crop.

Among the farmers who have recently reported good stands and good growth of hubam clover overseeded on oats are: W. J. Rickel of the Star group, 30 acres; Edgar Williams of the Union group, 10 acres; Roy Baker of the Fairview group, 30 acres. All of these men expect to produce seed for their own use with the surplus for sale in the Hamilton-Coryell Soil Conservation District until the local demand is met.

Van Wisdom, conservation group leader of the Lund Valley group, has planted 10 acres of biennial Madrid sweet clover in his conservation rotation and will have some seed for his group after harvest in 1948.

Earl Sargent of the Evergreen group has with the assistance of the Soil Conservation personnel completed a coordinated conservation plan on his farm and has signed a cooperative agreement with the Hamilton-Coryell District. Some of the practices agreed upon to meet the needs of the land on his farm are: Retire to permanent original blue stem grass 30 acres of rather steep and severely eroded land; seed and sod terrace outlets to erosion resisting grasses; divert water rolling hills away from cultivated fields; construct terraces and contour plant cultivated fields; plant at least one-half the cultivated land each year in soil improving legumes until the soil productivity is built up; defer and restrict livestock grazing on permanent pastures to encourage the natural reseeding of the original adapted grasses and to permit the maximum growth of the most desirable pasture grasses. Mr. Sargent has already begun the application of these measures by: seeding and sodding his terrace outlets; constructing diversions and terraces; reducing his livestock to provide for properly stocking his range; and is now ready to plant his summer legumes for beginning his soil improvement program.

Poetry of Local Club Member Wins National Recognition

In a recent nation-wide poetry contest conducted by the General Federation of Women's Clubs, a local resident, Mrs. W. J. Moore of Route 5, Hico, won recognition and honorable mention with a poem, "In Quietness." As a consequence the poem will be read when the awards are made at McKinney on April 18, at which time and place District Two of the Texas Federation of Women's Clubs will hold the Annual Convention. Mrs. Moore is a member of the Hico Review Club, and is also a member of the Poetry Society of Texas.

The prize-winning poem follows:
IN QUIETNESS
Quiet thoughts, like gentle rain,
Refresh and stimulate the brain.
Quiet deeds without applause,
May help to win a lost cause.
Quiet lives that gently flow,
May deepest satisfaction know
Quiet prayers from a sincere heart
Rich blessings to the soul impart
In quiet paths my Savior leads,
In quietness supplies my needs.
—Blanche Savage Moore.

The KNOTHOLE

By LYN CONNELLY
NWNS Radio-Screen Editor.

WHEN Garson Kanin was discharged from service he didn't return to his movie directing tasks, but instead wrote "Born Yesterday" and put it on Broadway. . . . Since then companies have opened in Chicago and London, and in all three cities the play has been a smash hit.

Jan Sterling, a delightful stage actress, practically steals the show as Billie Dawn, a stupid ex-chorus girl friend of a millionaire junk dealer. Thrown into the political limelight Harry Brock, as played with zest by Richard Rober, finds that the object of his affections is jeopardizing his hard-earned position through her lack of finesse, to say nothing of her lack of brain cells, but he is too fond of her to say goodbye. In an effort to have his cake and eat it, too, he hires a newspaper reporter to educate Billie.

Billie not only learns the art of conversation, but is also advised by her tutor of Brock's evil role in the world of today. . . . Needless to say, she soon realizes Brock is not the hero she had pictured him to be and in a rollicking scene informs him that he cannot intimidate the people who "inhibit" the earth and go on unchallenged. . . . She finds refuge and new love with the reporter and everyone is happy but Brock. While the play never preaches, with a little imagination the moral of the entire proceedings is this: Billie represents the indifferent public which thinks a new figure rising to the top by Machiavellian tactics is harmless—until it suddenly begins to read about him. There's plenty of food for thought in the laugh-provoking sequences if people will stop to analyze them and interpret the message directed at them.

Hollywood has already purchased screen rights and producers need go no further for a top cast than Chicago. . . . Miss Sterling is deliciously refreshing and is not only attractive, but possesses a figure that would give Hollywood's pseudo-glamor girls a run for their money. . . . Rober, resembling facially Dana Andrews of the movies, seems to enjoy his role as the boisterous, domineering and egocentric Brock.

No one has to worry about depression when agriculture is healthy. The stock market may get a little fever. We might get a little gastritis in the price section, but the business body is going to be all right as long as the agricultural heat of the body keeps healthy.—Secretary of Agriculture Anderson.

Deep-rooted legumes such as sweet clover or alfalfa should remain at least one full year in the rotation soil research men declare. It takes this long for their roots to push down into the subsoil to open it for crops following in the rotation. Then the soil is a better "blotter" for water and carries more oxygen, so necessary for plant growth.

OLIN H. D. CLUB MEETS WITH MRS. CECIL GUEST

The Olin Home Demonstration Club met Thursday afternoon, Apr. 10 in the home of Mrs. Cecil Guest, with County Agent Miss Ethel Hander of Hamilton giving a demonstration on "Pressure Sauce Pan Cookery."

Miss Hander prepared a whole meal calling attention to the fact that it was a balanced meal with special emphasis on "color combination and that it took only one hour of preparation.

The eleven members and two guests present requested that the recipe for the "Lemon Cake Pudding" served, be published in the news so that all might have copies. The recipe follows:

LEMON CAKE PUDDING
Flour, 1-4 c.; sugar, 1 c.; salt, 1-4 tsp.; lemon rind, 1 1/2 tsp (grated from one lemon); lemon juice, 1-4 c.; eggs, 2; milk, 1 c.

Sift flour, sugar and salt together directly into mixing bowl. Stir in grated lemon rind and juice. Beat egg yolks until light and lemon-colored. Add milk and stir slowly into flour mixture. Mix well. Fold in stiffly beaten egg whites. Pour into shallow buttered 8 or 9 in. baking dish and set dish in pan of hot water (having water reach about 1 in. up on dish). Bake 35 to 45 minutes in moderate oven (350 degrees). Serve plain, or topped with sweetened whipped cream. Recipe makes 6 servings.

NOTE: Pineapple juice may be substituted for lemon juice, or even some of the milk to get stronger pineapple flavor.

The club will meet next with Mrs. Weldon Pierce on the afternoon of May 1. There will be a "Flower Seed and Plant Exchange" and the program will be on "Yard Improvement."

Those present for the demonstration besides the above mentioned were: Mesdames Hunter Newman, Fred Grohatsky, T. J. Hale, L. W. Eppler, A. J. Patterson, Noble Halle, Dan Halle, Weldon Shaffer, O. L. Halle, James Sparks, and our visitors were Mrs. Hubert Berkley and Miss Bernice Moore. CLUB REPORTER.

Angina Pectoris

By Dr. J. B. Warren

The pain generally starts in the region of the heart, up the left side of the chest and often down the left arm. The patient stops still wherever he is—stands erect or bends his body backwards, raises his chin, supports himself with one hand and places the other hand over his heart. The pain usually lasts a few seconds. This is true angina pectoris, and it comes on during effort, exercise or work. If it comes on when patient is at rest it may be rheumatic or a gas pain.

A hard steady pain lasting for hours could be heart disease.

The snow was all banked up, 8 or 9 feet high. She and the children were at the home of a neighbor, and no telephone—all was dark. It was bad.

Mrs. Allen Dawson, Mrs. Clem McAden, Mrs. Jack Blakley, and Miss Mittie Gordon were in Stephenville Friday.

Sunday, April 13, was a good day at the Methodist church. Rev. Johnson, the district superintendent, preached at the morning hour. His sermon was fine, and was enjoyed by all. When services began his daughter, Elaine, did the playing. Her music sure was fine. Rev. Johnson's wife also came. Lunch was served and there was plenty of it and all was fine and was enjoyed by all. Some lunches were sent to some sick people. The Quarterly Conference was held and good reports were heard from all the departments. This was the last conference to be held, as Annual Conference will be held on June 5. Those that are not in the other Sunday schools, we welcome them at the Methodist. Some visitors were here at the conference from Lantham and Fair.

A few days the past week a quart jar was in the front of B. L. Mitchell's store which was very interesting. The jar was full of water and some white balls (they looked like moth balls) were in there and were going up and down. It was very interesting and attracted the attention of a good many. Bascom would come to the window and stand and laugh; didn't tell what it was.

Billy Royce Newsom, who is in John Tarleton, spent Sunday here. He was accompanied by his girl friend, Miss Dorothy Stigler of Stephenville.

Fairy

By Mrs. J. O. Richardson

We received something like two inches of rain the first of the week, which will be beneficial to grain and row crops.

We were very sorry to learn of the tragic death of Mrs. Houser's son-in-law, who was killed Saturday when he fell from an oil derrick. Funeral services were set for Tuesday, April 15, at Hamilton. He was Charlie Garfield, Reich and they were residing at Odessa. He was 25 years old, and is survived by his wife and infant baby. Mr. and Mrs. Houser reside on the Charles Moore place near Fair.

We extend sympathy to all those bereaved.

J. O. Richardson returned home Saturday from Glen Rose, where he has spent the past two weeks. Elton Samford has also been a patient at a Glen Rose hospital for a few days recently.

Mrs. Jessie Flowers and daughter, Carolyn Sue, of Fort Worth were here for the cemetery working last Friday week. Mrs. Flowers is the former Miss Sybil Blakley of Fair.

All are extended a cordial invitation to attend services at the Methodist church next Sunday. Marvin (Murf) Tidwell of Iredeil will preach. He is a former resident of this community, now Charge Lay Leader, and it is hoped that he will be given a good hearing. Members are expected to be in their places and visitors are welcome. From where I sit... by Joe Marsh

A Great Bunch — Those Ex-G.I.'s

Willie Wells and a bunch of the boys from our town went to Pound Ridge Saturday to a reunion of their old regiment.

There were about two hundred and fifty boys who came from miles around to a good old feast in Farmer Collins' barn. I expect they seemed a lot different to each other out of uniform. But they had a great time, spinning yarns, drinking beer, and talking over the old times in South Africa and Italy and the Aleutians.

I went over to cover the meeting for the Clarion, and one thing that sure impressed me was the good behavior of these boys—their preference for a moderate beverage like beer—their friendly spirit.

From where I sit, our ex-G.I.'s are making as good a showing in peacetime as they made during the war. And they're setting a mighty good example to the rest of us—in tolerance, and moderation, and good fellowship.

SUMMER-LONG cool comfort can be yours, too, if you install attic ventilation now.

An attic fan draws in refreshing outside air through the windows... circulates gentle, cooling breezes throughout the house... blows hot, stale air out through attic vents. It provides a constant, stimulating air movement that makes your entire home as cool as a breeze-swept open porch.

By ordering your attic fan now, you can arrange for installation before hot weather arrives in earnest. It's forehandedness that will pay off in cooler days and cooler nights for you and every member of your family.
