Approximately 30,000 veterans of World War II who suffered hearing impairments in service are eligible for a special program of medical rehabilitation that the Veterans Administration has established to help them overcome their handicap.

Eligible veterans may take advantage of this program whether they require medical attention to improve their hearing or whether they need rehabilitation to overcome the handicap of a permanent hearing impairment.

The complete rehabilitation course includes a series of hearing and speech tests, the selection and fitting of a hearing aid if indicated, auditory training, lip reading instruction and speech correction if necessary.

Louisiana State University at Baton Rouge is one of the 26 institutions throughout the nation with which the Veterans Administration has contracts to provide this service for veterans.

Opportunities for careers in forestry are described in a "Handbook of Information on Entering Positions in Forestry" which has been distributed to all Veterans Administration vocational advisors.

Published by the Society of American Foresters in Washington, D. C., the booklet contains descriptions of positions in forestry, duties, working conditions, salaries, requirements for entry and methods of applying for jobs.

The handbook also lists agencies, both private and Government, that employ foresters and persons in related occupations. Veterans desiring to train for forestry positions under the G. I. Bill were cautioned that the field is limited and possibly might become overcrowded.

Approximately 104,000 World War II veterans are learning to become skilled mechanics and repair men under the job-training provisions of the G. I. Bill, VA reported. Of some 600,000 veterans taking on-the-job training, mechanics led the list followed by salesmanship and retail management with 80,000 veteran trainees.

Scouts to Attend Roundup and Baylor-Arkansas Game

Most of the members of Hico Troop No. 99, Boy Scouts of America, were present at the meeting last Thursday night and we had eleven new members. They are: Carl Barnett, Wendell Lively, Sam Collins, Bruce Slaughter, Billy Loden, Donald Prater, Benny Terry, James Terry, R. W. Loeth, Alva Lee Jones, and Robert Ogden. A very impressive candle-light ceremony was put on for the new Scouts. Lights were turned out and as the twelve Scout laws were named, one of the members lit a candle. We enjoyed a good time, playing with our new dart board, pitching horseshoes and trying out telegraph sets.

Plans to attend the Scout Roundup and Baylor-Arkansas football game at Waco October 11 were discussed. Twenty Scouts signed up to go. Each Scout is to pay $1.00, which pays for his grub and all fees. The local school board has given the Scout Troop permission to use a school bus. To our school board we Scouts say thank, and we put you in the class with other good scouts.

During the past week we had some stationery printed for official and personal use. The letterheads carry the Scout emblem, Scout oath, Scout laws, and our motto.

Prominent Speaker For Baptist Meeting At Evant Oct. 8th

R. A. SPRINGER

A world-wide program of relief and evangelism in which each Baptist church in Texas will be asked to participate will be described at the annual meeting of the Hamilton Association in the Baptist Church at Evant Wednesday, October 8.

Representatives from 19 Baptist churches in this area will report on the progress of their various organizations and departments during the past year and make plans for the coming months.

Speaking for the Texas Baptist Mission Board, R. A. Springer of Dallas will stress the need of every church member's sharing in the world relief program soon to be outlined by the Executive Committee of the Baptist World Alliance.

The words of Dr. C. Oscar Johnson, president of the World Alliance who recently spoke in Texas will be repeated by Mr. Springer: "What all of our people can do immediately will not be enough to relieve the starving nations. We must not be selfish in days like these. We need the strength of character that comes from giving."

Dr. Johnson also emphasized that "Every carload of food and clothing sent must be steeped in the gospel. The people in these war-torn countries are hungry physically but more so spiritually." Mr. Springer will urge the representatives of the Association to give emphasis to the stewardship campaigns being conducted in the Baptist churches of Texas this fall, to aid their churches in planning financial programs to meet not only their own but world needs. He will also display new literature offered free to the churches for use in the campaigns.

J. L. Goodman Is New Proprietor of Grocery and Market

J. L. Goodman announces this week the purchase of the T. O. Lowery Grocery and Meat Market from T. O. Lowery, owner of the store for the past few months, and will continue to operate in the same location.

Mr. Goodman, who needs no introduction in this territory, assumed management Monday of this week and will be assisted by his wife. An advertisement in this issue of the News Review carries the information that the store will be closed for one week, October 13 through October 18, for remodeling and restocking, and calls attention of the general public to watch for their "Special Opening" message which will appear in this paper soon.

J. L. plans to leave Saturday for Chicago, Ill., where he will attend a grocermen's convention in that city, hoping to get a lot of new ideas on merchandising and new products. In the meantime, Mrs. Goodman will be in charge of the store and invites all former patrons as well as the general public to come in and get acquainted.

OPERATIONAL TIME LAPSE IN DELIVERY OF REMAINS OF WORLD WAR II DEAD

Colonel C. C. Strawn, Commanding Officer of Fort Worth Quartermaster Depot, announced this week that there will be an operational time lapse between arrival of deceased military personnel at ports of New York and San Francisco and the final delivery of remains to next-of-kin.

The lapse of time may be as great as three weeks, depending upon distance of residence of next-of-kin from port at which remains arrive and the number of rail transfer point and rail connections to be made between port, distribution center and final destination.

Colonel Strawn stressed that next-of-kin will receive positive information from the distribution point nearest residence of next-of-kin as soon as date of arrival at home is known.

Health Program Definite Need of Every School

Austin, Sept. 30.—Every school should have a definite school health program. Situations such as the kind of drinking water, arrangements for the school lunch, the lighting, seating, ventilation and cleanliness of the schoolroom, and the personal practices of the teachers and children are the bases of the school health program, said Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer.

Every school has tremendous opportunities to promote the health of its pupils and of its community. From early childhood to early manhood and womanhood, most children are enrolled in schools and are under the supervision of school staffs for a substantial part of the day for approximately half the days of the year. The conditions under which they live in school, the help which they are given in solving their health problems, the ideals of individual and community health which they are taught and the information and understanding that they acquire of themselves are factors which operate to develop attitudes and behavior conducive to healthy, happy and successful living.

Schools alone however cannot enable children to attain all the desirable goals of individual and community health. Considering the magnitude of the diverse and continuing efforts that must be made to satisfy the health needs of children, it is fortunate that many people and groups, in addition to schools, are greatly interested in promoting health. Parents have a prime responsibility.

Physicians, dentists, nurses, health officers, social and welfare workers and their official organizations, such as medical, dental and nursing societies, health departments and voluntary health agencies are all rightly concerned with health activities of their communities.

Finest Birds In Southwest to Be Featured At Fair

Nine competitive events, in which the finest birds in the Southwest will be assembled, will be featured on the poultry program of the State Fair of Texas when the competition opens October 4 in Dallas.

Starting off the show on opening day will be the Texas Pigeon Show and Junior Turkey Show, both of which will continue through October 7. On October 8 competing will begin in the Junior Poultry Show and the Junior Negro Poultry Show and will continue through October 11.

A highlight will be the Egg Laying Contest, an event which will continue throughout the duration of the fair, October 4-19. On Monday, October 6, the Junior Market Turkey Auction Sale will be held in the Turkey Building.

Prizes, which General Superintendent Walter Burton said will total several thousand dollars, will be awarded the owners of the winning fowls in the various contests. Entries will be accepted until October 4, opening day, he said.

Mr. Burton pointed out that birds may only compete in classes for which they are entered. For example, birds entered in single classes cannot compete with trios or pens, and likewise pens cannot compete with singles or trios.

Basis of judging will be the American Standard of Perfection, and the club standards, supplemented by the A. P. A. Standard of Perfection, will be the guide for judging non-standard varieties, he said.

Cooling of poultry will begin at 10 p. m. October 11, for judging in the General Poultry Show, and entrants have been asked to ship their fowls in time to arrive in Dallas the afternoon of that day.

From those judged, a Grand Champion will be chosen, and a $50 prize, in addition to the Grand Champion banner, will be awarded.

Weekly SURPLUS NEWS WAA

One of the biggest automotive parts sales ever held in Texas will take place at the Red River Arsenal near Texarkana Tuesday through Thursday, October 7, 8 and 9, with $700,000 worth of war surplus parts up for informal bidding. A total of 500 lots will be on display at six warehouses in the arsenal, most of them small for the "little buyer" as well as the commercial dealer. Included will be such materials as engine assemblies, bearings, battery acids, maintenance equipment, oil seals and filter elements. Inspection and bidding has been set for from 8:30 a. m. to 3:30 p. m. next Tuesday and Wednesday, with opening of bid boxes to commence at 8:45 a. m. Thursday.

Creation of a fast-moving sales organization in each of the six War Assets Administration Zone offices to dispose of the remaining inventory of surplus war plants and other real property has been announced by WAA officials. Disposal of surplus real property is now well past the half way mark with $4,789,429,000 disposed of or leased and $3,569,755,000 remaining at the end of August. The new plant is expected to give disposal the final push.

A veterans merchandise section of the War Surplus sales facilities of the WAA's Customer Service Center has been added to the Grand Prairie office. Only very limited stocks of set-aside items for veterans are anticipated for the time being. Under the plan, veterans may buy and take with them merchandise available in this section.

The sale of 562 buildings at Gulf Port Army Airfield at Gulf Port, Mississippi, was recently postponed on account of damage done by the recent hurricane. War Assets Administration has announced that new sales dates would be posted some time in the future.

A lone military chapel at Fort McIntosh at Laredo, Texas, will be sold by WAA October 18. Unlike other chapels, this one likely will be sold "in place" for use on the premises due to the great interest shown by Laredolians in its retention there.

A quantity of construction and farm machinery is being offered by War Assets Administration to both priority and commercial buyers through its Grand Prairie Customer Service Center until November 3. The sale opens October 17. Included in the offering are a tandem road roller, crawler type tractor, towed type grader, drum hoists and booms. The booms are unused; the remainder being used. The equipment is being offered at fixed prices.

Poultry and Egg Rail Shipments Gain In August

Austin, Sept. 30.—A monthly gain in interstate chicken shipments was the main bright spot in the poultry and egg situation in Texas during August, the University of Texas Bureau of Business Research reported.

Total shipments of chickens plunged 65 per cent below August 1946 shipments despite the 18 per cent July-to-August hike. Turkey shipments dropped 36 per cent for the month and shipments of eggs slid downward 32 per cent.

Interstate shipments were light in August. No chicken loadings were recorded. 1 carload of turkeys went out, and egg shipments dropped to 4 carloads.

Interstate shipments accounted for the hike in chicken shipments: turkey loadings sagged 14 per cent and egg shipments lodged up an 11 per cent July-to-August jump in spite of the 44 per cent drop below the August 1946 mark.

Visitors Welcome At Gas Company's State Fair Exhibit

Lone Star Gas Company's welcome mat is rolled out and ready to greet thousands of men, women and children at its air-conditioned exhibit building filled with displays of modern gas appliances at the State Fair of Texas in Dallas, October 4-19.

The exhibit will contain a sparkling array of domestic, commercial and industrial gas equipment, designed for economy, convenience and comfort. Lounges, rest rooms, ice water and music will be available for the comfort and entertainment of visitors.

Trained personnel will demonstrate and explain the uses of gas appliances, and available to visitors will be printed matter on kitchen planning, proper placement of appliances for greater efficiency and more healthful and comfortable living.

Advertised as the "Parade of the Wonder Flame," the exhibit will present all of the newest uses of gas and the improvements and beauty of new gas appliances, and the exhibit is designed to startle and please every member of the family.

The Lone Star Gas Company exhibit building is about a block southeast of the Fair Park Auditorium on First Avenue. It may be spotted by a 70-foot tower atop of which is a giant blue flame with "GAS" lettered out on the four sides in neon lighting.

The exhibit includes four "New Freedom Gas Kitchens," each distinct in design, color and with special features of comfort and convenience. All of the kitchens will be complete in every detail from top of the steel cabinets down to the new floor coverings.

There will be a mammoth display of automatic gas ranges built for perfection in cooking. Also on display and in actual operation to bring comfortable temperatures to the building will be air-conditioning units employing the same gas flame to produce either heating or cooling by hand manipulation of a tiny switch. These units—safely operated by a child without knowledge of mechanics—assure dependable warmth and correct humidity throughout a home in coldest weather; in summer they bring scientific relief from hot sticky weather, providing refreshing and invigorating cold air, and in every season they may direct the flow of live, clean air without drafts while filtering out dirt, dust and pollen. There will be automatic vented heating equipment, automatic dish washers which operate without power other than water pressure, gas refrigerators featuring silent operation and a storage compartment for frozen foods, automatic water heaters and a full line of heavy duty cooking equipment for restaurants and large institutions.

Educational features include a display of photographs telling the story of Lone Star's butane gas service from production to the burner tip, and a projected picture story showing the many jobs required in furnishing dependable natural gas service.

M. & M. CAFE TO OPEN SATURDAY IN REMODELED LANGSTON BUILDING

Clyde Murdock and H. C. Mitchell, formerly of De Leon, have been busy this week at the Langston Building, formerly occupied by Don's Cafe, remodeling, repainting and rearranging the quarters for the opening of a cafe Saturday morning.

Mr. Murdock and his wife and daughter stated that they were going to make their home here, as will Mr. Mitchell and his wife, son and daughter.

Austin, Tex.—Training of teachers in industry and business will be the special work of a committee recently set up in the College of Education at the University of Texas. The committee will make recommendations for the preparation and inservice training of these teachers, Dean L. D. Haske said.

New Minister for Church of Christ Arrives In Hico

ELD. J. P. WILLIAMS

Members of the congregation of the Church of Christ at Hico announced that they had secured the services of Eld. J. P. Williams as full-time minister.

Elder Williams and his wife moved here Wednesday from Bangs, where he had served as Church of Christ minister for the past two years. They come to Hico highly recommended, and are not strangers to many of our citizens as he has filled preaching engagements here previously.

They will receive a cordial welcome to the city, not only from the membership of this active and growing congregation, but from the citizenship as a whole.

Golden Jubilee of Telephone Industry To Be Celebrated

The Independent Telephone Industry, which through its approximately 6,900 companies, now serves 12,999 communities—almost twice as many localities in the United States as the huge Bell System—is commemorating this fall its 50th "Golden Jubilee" anniversary of the founding of the industry's national organization, the United States Independent Telephone Association, at the USITA annual convention in Chicago, October 12-16.

The Gulf States Telephone Company, which operates the telephone service of Hico and its surrounding territory, is one of the companies participating in the celebration at Chicago. Representing the company at Chicago will be Oscar Burton, Vice President and General Manager, who is also Second Vice President and Director of the United States Independent Telephone Association; C. W. Jacobs, Secretary and Auditor; S. J. Neel and Morris S. Burton, Assistants to General Manager. Messdames Oscar Burton, Jacobs, and Neel will accompany their husbands.

The plans for the 50th anniversary celebration in Chicago were announced to the Hico News Review by Miss Fannie Wood, local manager of the telephone company.

Nationally known speakers will deliver the major addresses at the convention.

The Bell Telephone System will honor the Golden Jubilee celebration in its weekly nationwide concert broadcast, "The Telephone Hour," by transferring the program from New York to Chicago Monday night, October 13, as a special salute to the Independent Industry.

Characterized by leading observers as one of the most efficient and successful groups of small businesses in the U. S., the more than 6,900 Independent companies serve six million telephone subscribers from their 12,999 exchanges. Most of the companies are small, yet the industry serves more than 250 towns and cities with 2,000 or more telephone subscribers. The Independent's total investment in equipment and lines is well over three-quarters of a billion dollars. Nearly 40 companies have gross revenues of more than $1,000,000 a year. At the Chicago Convention, the Independent telephone manufacturing companies—which supply the equipment needs of the Independent operating companies—are staging exhibits of the latest modern equipment.

EASTLAND CO. SINGERS TO MEET IN RANGER

Two well known quartets have already accepted invitations to appear at the meeting of the Eastland County Singing Association which will be held in Ranger October 11-12, according to E. P. Robinson, association president.

Some eight or ten invitations have gone out to other quartets of wide reputation and President Robinson feels sure that several of these will also be at the meeting.

The association will have a session Saturday night, October 11, also on Sunday. These will be held in the recreation hall.

Now In Its 63rd Year of Service to Hico and Community

First Meeting of Hico Review Club Held In September

The Hico Review Club held its opening tea at the home of Mrs. E. H. Persons on Thursday, September 11.

Our new president, Mrs. R. B. Jackson, gave an interesting message on the accomplishments of women in other countries, and exploited the opportunities that American women have. The members were inspired to put forth their best efforts into the club work.

The discussion of a new project for the year, centered around the idea of acquiring a permanent meeting place for the Hico club women.

The Club also voted to give their support to the Band and Boy Scout movement to raise money.

After the business meeting a beautiful plate of refreshments, consisting of a drink, angel food squares, and dainty sandwiches was served to the members.

On September 25 the Review Club met with Mrs. Lusk Handall.

The previous discussion of a project was continued and a committee was appointed by the president, consisting of Mrs. Morse Ross, Mrs. S. E. Blair Jr., and Mrs. E. H. Persons to interview the other women's clubs in Hico, and capable business men, on the advisability of trying to build a permanent club house for women.

The afternoon's study was the life and works of George Gershwin. Mrs. Blair Jr. had charge of the program and she gave an interesting account of the author's life. Several musical selections were played, including "Rhapsody in Blue," "Summertime" and "Foggy and Bess." Mrs. Blair also gave an explanation of the music and story.

Following the program a most delicious fudge-but cake and tea were served to the members and one guest, Mrs. Reedy.

Attendance was perfect with the exception of Mrs. Bates, who was ill. We are glad to welcome the new members, Mrs. Eileen Copeland, Mrs. W. W. Carson Jr., Mrs. W. F. Hafer and Mrs. E. Bradley. REPORTER.

CARLTON MAN WINS AWARD FROM INSURANCE COMPANY IN MANAGERS' CONTEST

Jesse R. Reeves of Carlton, district manager for State Farm Insurance Companies, has received a check for $12.50 as the State Office portion of the award for the district managers' contest May 1 to July 31, 1947.

In explanation of the award, Reeves stated: "This was a contest with Carlton and Weatherford districts against the Beaumont district, and the award was made on the basis of percentage of increase of business. The Carlton district climbed from 7 per cent to 51 per cent during this contest. Our company policies are becoming more popular all the time with the people of Hico."

There will be a big special School Kiddies Matinee which will start at 3 p. m., and the complete show will be presented again starting at 8 o'clock in the evening.

Fairy

By Mrs. J. O. Richardson

We have been having ideal weather for farm work the past week, but are beginning to need rain again, especially for gardens and stock water. Some farmers are working in day and night shifts preparing ground and sowing grain.

We were very sorry to learn of the tragic death of Mr. Cecil Kavanaugh of Dallas, which occurred some time Saturday night. He and members of his family had visited in the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Forest Kavanaugh of the Sunshine community, Saturday and the sad news was received shortly after their arrival home. He was about 42 years of age and leaves to mourn his loss his wife (who was the former Miss Eva McClintock of Hamilton) and two sons and a daughter; his parents, two brothers and two sisters. One of his sisters is Mrs. E. Z. Brummitt of near Fairy. There are many other relatives. The Kavanaugh family resided for several years on their farm in the Agee community near Fairy, now known as the S. S. Vaughn place, and Cecil spent a portion of his childhood days there. We extend deepest sympathy to all those bereaved in his passing.

Mrs. T. R. Parks underwent a major operation in the Hico Hospital last week and is reported to be recovering nicely. Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Parks were among those from here visiting her Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Grady Wilson and baby of Fort Worth spent the week end here visiting with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Wilson.

Rev. and Mrs. Oran Columbus are the proud parents of a little son, Roger Perry, born Friday afternoon of last week at the Meridian Hospital. They have one other child, Katy Lou, age seven.

T. L. Betts received a telegram Saturday from his wife at Fort Worth, stating that she was leaving at noon for Eastland to be at the bedside of her sister, Mrs. Lucy Burden, who was very ill. We received word Monday from our sister-in-law Mrs. Oscar Jacobs, that Mrs. Burden had been conveyed to an Abilene hospital Saturday night and was in a serious condition. Mrs. Burden suffered a paralytic stroke some 12 or 15 months ago, from which she has never fully recovered. Her trouble at present seems to be a blood-stream ailment. Mrs. Jacobs stated that she and her husband (who were visiting Mrs. Burden when she became ill) would go to Abilene today (Monday) and that Mrs. Jacobs would remain with her sister indefinitely. We hope to learn soon that she is much improved.

Rev. Marvin Tidwell of Iredell will fill an appointment at the Methodist Church next Sunday. An invitation is extended to everyone to attend.

Rev. Oran Columbus will fill an appointment at the Church of Christ next Sunday. All are cordially invited to attend.

The writer and husband and son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Ray Sellers and Carolyn decided we'd spend Sunday afternoon over in the Duffau country, former home of the writer, and where we first attended grade school. We packed our lunch and started out immediately after church. This being our first visit since the new Chalk Mountain Highway has been put through, we were completely turned around and didn't even know directions.

We traveled that highway a number of times and knew old Duffau was over there in the woods somewhere, but just what direction we knew not. But after making a little inquiry we found it to be to the left of the highway. So we took a second left-hand road, not knowing whether we were on the right road or not, until we came to the old Powell homestead, and we immediately recognized it. The place was vacant. This was the home of one of our primary teachers, Miss Henrietta Powell. We drove on and came to the Woods homestead. The house had been torn down and a modern dwelling erected. Then to old Duffau Creek and concrete bridge, but we forded it then and when old Duffau Creek was up we were absent from school. We drove on to the old rock store building where Elkins Brothers ran a store back in those days when we resided there, from around 1897 to 1902—the doors closed and the town moved up a few blocks. Then to our old home (later known as the Dr. Russell home) where we resided when our dad and Mr. W. P. Pretwell ran a cotton gin. Then on to the new part of town. We missed the old Middleton house, which has either burned or been moved away. The road in front of the Pretwell and McClure homes had been closed and is just an alley now. We drove on to another one of our homes up Duffau Creek by the larger bridge (known by some as the Hancock place), went across the bridge and spread our lunch in a small outlet place near what once was our dad's field. Then our granddaughter heard a cow bell (her first) and came running to us for protection. The cows were in a field near by and the ding-dong of that bell kept her in such fear she almost missed her lunch entirely. Next we drove out to the Nathan Robinette home, another place where we resided for a few months and which we vacated when we moved to Fairy in January, 1963. We stopped here for a brief chat with the Robinettes and her mother, Mrs. Lucy Cornelius, all of whom were former Fairy residents. The Burks home on our way out looked quite familiar. Next we went back to town and on to the school buildings. A brick structure has replaced the two-story wood structure which stood there back in our days. A large gymnasium is an added number. Yes, we'd like to go over some time during the Spring and roam those woods around that school ground and pick wild flowers as we once did. We drove on down the road and saw none other than Elmer Giesecke's name on a mail box, so we soon turned around and came back for a chat there, as Mrs. Giesecke was one of our old-time schoolmates and we think we have had occasion to meet her only once before in the forty-four years of our separation. We also found her mother, Mrs. Holland, there whom we had also met only once since leaving there. After a brief chat here we set out to try to locate another of our dad's places (out near the Blackburn home) which we learn is known now as the Tate place. We drove back toward the highway where we came in, but made a left-hand turn hunting the Tate place. After driving some distance we found ourselves back at the highway at a crossroads, up the highway a short distance from where we had left the highway going in. We crossed the highway and went on down a road we never remembered traveling. After crossing the prairie and getting near the timber, we thought we must be near the Blackburn home, so stopped at a farm home to make inquiry and found we were at the home of Burg Tomlinson, a former Fairy boy. He and his wife directed us on to the Blackburn home, but going up from a backward direction had us quite confused, but as we passed the Blackburn home all was clear. We knew our old home (the Tate place) was the next house on the left and as we drove toward it and could see the red brick chimney, we knew we had at last located it and to our surprise when we arrived up in front, we saw it was the same place we had stopped to make inquiry a few months ago. The Britton family lived there at that time but the house is now vacant and the house quite run down. The place extends to the highway and here we have been traveling this highway in sight of our old home and crossing the old road which we and our sis, Myrtle, traveled on our way to school, and we had never had the slightest idea we were so near. But like the old adage says, "We live to learn." Hope our letter isn't too lengthy and will be of interest to some, and if we have your curiosity aroused as to our identity, we are the former Eunice Newman.

Get Ready For Winter

Regardless of almost everything else, we must keep our homes and buildings well repaired, ready for the cold winter months. After all, living is about our most important job. Comfortable living is important.

REPAIRS—

We have materials here to meet the need of most repair jobs. Not like normal times, of course, but by figuring and planning, we can usually supply most of the needs of our customers. Check your repair needs for fall and call on us for the materials you need.

PAINTS—

Notice how many homes and business buildings are being painted this Fall? Looks like the world is taking a brighter view of life, doesn't it? And you would be surprised how many of those jobs are being done with our paints and varnishes. Figure with us today.

ROOFING—

It's not best to wait for the rains and icicles to fix up that roof that's been neglected for so long. We are now receiving frequent shipments of roofing materials, including wood shingles as well as roll and composition roofing. Why not end all the worry and damage by telling us your roof troubles. Do it today!

Carlton

By
Mrs. Fred Geyer

The many friends of Cecil Kavanaugh were shocked Sunday morning when the message came that he had ended his own life at his home in Dallas Saturday night, shortly after midnight. He, with his family, lived at Carlton for some time before moving to Dallas where he was employed on the police force. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Kavanaugh, live south of town in the Sunshine community. Other relatives are two brothers, Lawrence and C. E., and two sisters, Mrs. Campbell of Dallas and Mrs. Brummett of Fair, and his wife, two sons and one daughter.

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Gee of Electra, Wilfred McLean of Burkburnett, Mr. and Mrs. Odell McLean of Byers, Mrs. Mary Porter and son of Wichita Falls, and Miss Alice McLean of John Tarleton College, Stephenville, spent Sunday with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. McLean and Don.

Mrs. Katie Williams and daughter, Loyce, of Dublin visited Thursday with Mrs. Jessie Finley.

The Carlton business men are sponsoring a roping contest on Saturday, October 4, at 2:30 p. m. at the Carlton Arena. Ropers should write a card or letter to Roping Contest, care of Post Office, Carlton, telling if they want to enter professional or amateur contest. First, second, and third prizes, for both classes of roping, have been donated by the business men of Carlton.

Mr. and Mrs. James Fine and son, her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H.
C. Clark of Roscoe, her sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Jake McGee and daughter of Midland, spent Sunday in Waco visiting their brother and son, Cone Clark, who is in the Veterans Hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Mack Ellison visited Saturday in Dublin with their daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Welch.

Mrs. Sid Clark returned home
Saturday night after a two weeks' visit in Cleburne with her son, John H. Clark, and family and her daughter, Mrs. Clyde Lefevre, and husband. She was accompanied home by Mr. and Mrs. Lefevre for a week-end visit with his parents,
Mr. and Mrs. Ed Lefevre.

Mr. and Mrs. Boyd Cathey and daughter of Grand Prairie spent the week end with his parents,
Mr. and Mrs. Hendrix Cathey.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Stephens of Green's Creek were Sunday visitors with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charley Stephens.

Mr. and Mrs. Luther Burden of Hico and daughter, Miss Mary Louise of Irredell and Mr. and Mrs.
L. D. Sowell Jr. and two sons of Azee visited Sunday with their mother and grandmother, Mrs. Sid Clark.

Mrs. Bill Stevens of Kilgore spent the week end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Sharp Sr.
Her parents accompanied her home for a visit.

Mr. and Mrs. Avery Coffman are remodeling their home northeast of town. The work is being done by Dock Finley.

Frank Stidham and Nolan Geyer of Stephenville spent Sunday with homefolks.

Mr. and Mrs. Charley Proffitt and Melba Jean and Mr. and Mrs.
Adolph Proffitt and daughter, Connie, of Comanche met their daughter and sister, Mrs. Douglas Vaughan and family of Fort Worth in Glen Rose Sunday and enjoyed the day together.

Jeff Rallsback of Lingleville spent Monday with his mother, Mrs. S. C. Rallsback.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Upham and Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Upham Jr. and son Danny of West Columbia were week-end visitors with their mother and grandmother, Mrs.
Jack Upham. Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Upham Sr. remained for a longer visit.

Miss Jenny Reesing of Waco spent Sunday with her parents, Mr.
and Mrs. Orville Reesing.

Rev. Carl McKenzie and sister, Mrs. J. D. Upham, were Waco visitors Wednesday and Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Milton Whitehead and daughters visited over the week end with their daughter, Mrs.
Loys Landes, and family of Shiloh.

T/Sgt. and Mrs. Carl Moss and daughter, Carla, of Fort Worth visited Thursday with her mother, Mrs. Lilla Byrd.

Lee Anderson of El Centro, California, formerly of Wilson, was a Carlton visitor Thursday.

Mrs. Lilla Byrd spent the past week in Stephenville with her daughter, Mrs. Beryl Cozby, and family and her son, Cecil Byrd, and family.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Clark and daughter, Mrs. Jake McGee and family returned Tuesday to their home after a visit with their daughter and sister, Mrs. James Fine, and family. Mrs. Fine and son accompanied her parents home for a visit.

ADDED FAIRY NEWS

Latest word from Mrs. Lucy Burden came Tuesday night from T. L. Betts. When his wife called,
Mrs. Betts stated that Mrs. Burden was very low and that an oxygen tent was being used. At that time all children had arrived at her bedside except her youngest son, Alton. Friends and relatives of Mrs. Burden are deeply concerned about her condition and are anxiously awaiting more encouraging news. REPORTER.

Garden Club To Meet Friday Of Next Week

The regular monthly meeting of the Hico Garden Club will be held on Friday, October 10, at 2:30 p. m. at the First Christian Church, according to announcement from the reporter, Mrs. S. E. Blair Jr.

Mrs. J. C. Felts of San Saba will have charge of the program, which will be a Garden Clinic. Included among the other demonstrations will be flower arranging.

This meeting is open to any who would like to attend. The public is welcome.

BIRTHDAY DINNER HONORS MRS. ASH

There were a number of friends and relatives at the home of Mrs. Eva Mae Ash to celebrate the happy birthday of Mrs. Ash. The 28th marked another milestone along life's way for her.

There was a nice dinner with a big white pineapple cake to take the center of the table.

Mrs. Ash received some real nice gifts, and many good wishes for her future.

Those present to enjoy the day were: Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Linch, Mrs. Maggie Davis, Rev. Dot Corley and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Crist, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. King, Mrs. J. W. Lovell and two granddaughters, Peggy and Lodine, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Chapman and son, W. L., Mrs. M. L. Chapman and son, Marvin Lee, Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Chapman and son, Carl Daniel. One by one they began to leave to go home, wishing Mrs. Ash many more happy birthdays.

There was just one thing that kept the occasion from being a perfect day, and that was that the other three members of the family were absent, but not forgotten. Margaret, Maldee and Charlie sent their gifts but couldn't come.

CONTRIBUTED.

Austin, Tex.—Work on assembling and preparing an exhibit of West Texas minerals will begin soon in the Texas Memorial Museum on the University of Texas campus, Dr. E. H. Sellards, director, announced.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Moemann, Mr. and Mrs. Grady Wilson and baby, and Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Davis and baby, all of Fort Worth, visited their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Davis, over the week end.

Visitors in the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Funk and Loretta Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Funk of Breckbridge, Mr. and Mrs. George Gafford and Cindy of Cisco, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Proffitt of Comanche, and Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Simpson Jr. of Hico.

CARD OF THANKS

I want to take this method to thank Dr. Hodges, Dr. Hafer and the hospital staff for their kindness and good care during my recent illness in the hospital; also my neighbors and friends for the many cards, letters and kind words and deeds which I'll always lovingly remember.

SENIOR NEWS

At last it seems possible that we may get to go to the State Fair at Dallas Saturday the 4th. We will give you an idea of what the Senior class looks like on Monday morning. We see Marlene Adams and Mary Nell B. studying Geometry; Betty Jean Land, Lucy Talley, and Jean Caughey discussing something of great importance; Joan Golightly, Janelle Dowdy, and Jean Gilbert looking at Physics books rather puzzled; Don Eakins and R. W. French discussing football; Hertha Howerton reading. Now and then you see Mrs. Angell peeping in to make sure everybody is still there since we don't have a room teacher. Last, but not least, Royce Grimes rushes in just as the bell rings.

JUNIOR NEWS

We were sorry to see the Tigers so badly beaten, but we wish them luck at their next game which will be Thursday night with the Stephenville B team.

Most of us are looking forward to the Dallas Fair which we hope we will get to go to. “We hope.” There are quite a few with bad colds. Results from the football game.

We will tell you a little bit about one of our members. He is Logan Evans. He is about 5 feet 7 inches tall, has brown hair and the most beautiful blue eyes. He is a new student from Mineral Wells. He plays halfback on the football team and seems to be popular with all the girls. We're very glad to have him in our class.

SOPHOMORE NEWS

Seems as though everyone had a very good time at Charlotte Turner's party, eh, Jimmy B.?

This week we will interview Loretta Funk. She has brown hair and hazel eyes. Her favorites are: Actor, Gary Cooper; actress, Loretta Young; food, chicken-fried steak; dessert, ice cream; teacher, Lady Rohne; subject, History; boy, all of 'em; sport, basketball; hobby, fast driving.

FRESHMAN NEWS

The Freshmen are all excited today, for early in the morning most of them leave for the Dallas State Fair. The boys are all going with the F. F. A. and the girls with the Homemaking class. We expect to spend most of the day at the Fair.

The freshman boys are all working hard so they may become members of the Future Farmers of America local chapter.

The girls were initiated Wednesday into the F. H. A. The freshman boys that are not coming out on the main team played a game with grammar school last Friday evening and won 7 to 0.

Some of the kids attended a party at Charlotte Turner's Saturday night and had a very nice time.

SPORTS

Friday night the Hamilton Bulldogs defeated the Tigers 50-0 in the first conference game of the season for both teams. The Bulldogs played all over the field with the Tigers fighting them all the way.

There were a good many Hico fans there and we would like to have more at the next game.

WOMEN'S EYE VIEW

Nilly's heart is going thump-thump-thump. Naturally no one cares about Nilly's heart, but they might be interested in the cause of the thump-thump-thump. A girl, of course.

First you must realize that hearts are not the only things she causes to go thump-thump-thump. She plays the big drum in the band. All right, now you know. But no pushing—Ray Keller has a priority rating on Joan Golightly's list.

Really, kids, Joan's no square—she's an all-right kid. Ask any one who knows.

And when those long lashes lift from those blue eyes, a fellow's heart does go thump-thump-thump.

CRYSTAL BALL

Come, children, let's dry our tears and remember we are playing Hamilton again next year.

I see that Bobby Jack Rainwater seems to interest some Senior girls every day after lunch.

Jeane Gilbert and Betty Jean Land were seen with Bill Bailey and Marshall Rogers at the show Saturday night.

Bulldog Hill was with Doris Herrin. He also appeared to be recuperating from the game at Hamilton Friday night.

I see Jean C. in that convertible again. That couldn't be a ring on her third finger, left hand, could it?

Coming back on the band bus Friday night together, I see Joy Ann G. and Billy L. Aso Fred S. and Jeanette Dowdy.

My! My! Don't Donald D. and Lois G. find a lot to talk about at noon and going home after school every day?

On Saturday night at the Keeney Chicken Palace I see Mary Nell B. and Harold N.; Carl S. and Loretta F.; and Wendall B. and Shirley Seago.

At the midnight show I see Patsy T. and Stub F.; Marlene A. and Garland L.; Myrna S. and Delbert B.; Charles G. and Mildred E.; Jo Nell C. and Max B.; Clarence Mc. and Doyle N.

Saturday night I see Jasper P. and Nell D. together.

Sunday evening I see Patsy R. and Wendell K. at the show.

At Charlotte Turner's party I see Bob's R. with Charlotte and Paul A. with Betty G. My vision is fading, so I can tell you no more.

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh

How to Tell You're Getting Old

Doc Walters gave me this formula: It's a sure-fire sign you're getting old when you resent other people having a good time.

And the Doc means it hasn't much to do with age. There are old folks in our town who get a big kick out of seeing other people enjoy themselves—seems to keep them young in spirit, with a twinkle in their eyes!

And there are some others who resent the young folks going fishing; who feel that community games and dances are just a waste of time; or who criticize temperate people for enjoying a mellow glass of beer with friends.

They're often well-intentioned folks, too. But from where I sit, the minute we criticize our neighbors for enjoying wholesome pleasures—like a game of horseshoes, a glass of beer, or an afternoon's fishing—it's a sure sign we're growing old (in spirit anyway) no matter what our age is.

Author of
"HOW TO WIN FRIENDS and INFLUENCE PEOPLE"

TOOK TIME TO FIND HIMSELF

I'VE got good news for you today—that is if you are not doing well in school; or if your son or daughter isn't. And that is that the great Sigmund Freud didn't do very well, either.

D. Carnegie

When he was four years old his family moved to Vienna and at six he was started to school. Everybody seemed bright but little Sigmund. He studied chemistry but didn't do very well.

He switched to botany but didn't do very well. It looked kind of hopeless for the lad.

One day he read an essay by Goethe called "The Nature of Things." It inspired him, fired him with a desire for knowledge and an understanding of the world about him. But it was toward medicine and so he entered up in a medical course.

He studied a little of this and a little of that; and it was not until he was 28 that he studied psychoanalysis at all. Mind you, this was Freud who became immortal in this field; he didn't even undertake it until he was nearing 30.

It wasn't until he was 37 that he really got going, for that was his age when he developed the idea of "free association," which I can't explain because I don't understand it thus showing the difference between Freud and the man pecking off these lines. Ah me!

He lived to be 83. After his first vague attempts at study and education, he really became a student and studied all the rest of his life. So the boy who started off kind of fumbling and getting nowhere ended up all right.

ANOTHER person who wasn't seemingly any too bright when he was young was none other than Albert Einstein. He failed so dismally in one school that he had to be moved to another.

Once, when he was a young man in Berlin, he got on the street car and gave the conductor a bill. The conductor pumped away and handed him back a handful of change. Young Einstein counted it but didn't do a good job.

"You've made a mistake," he told the conductor.

The conductor counted the change; the conductor was right and Einstein was wrong.

"What you need," said the conductor witheringly, "is to go back to school."

Well, Einstein turned out all right; and so it may be with your son or daughter who isn't doing any too well at school. Indeed, often the boy who has the fastest up-shooting hand in class is the one that ends behind a wheelbarrow and the boy who didn't seem any too bright is the one who ends up behind the big, glossy desk.

Jiggs and Maggie On Local Screen In 'Bringing Up Father'

Jiggs and Maggie step out of the funny papers and come to the screen of The Hico Theatre at its midnight show Saturday of this week in Monogram's version of the cartoon classic, "Bringing Up Father," with Joe Yule and Renee Riando starred as America's most famous married couple. George McManus, who created the cartoon classic for King Features Syndicate, is also featured in the film. Jiggs had been eating corned beef and cabbage on the sly and ducking Maggie's rolling pin for over a quarter of a century, when they finally crashed Hollywood.

It took seven years for producer Barney Gerard and cartoonist McManus to get the jolly little fat man and his determined wife before the Monogram motion picture camera. Original negotiations were started in 1939, and by 1945 story conferences for the film version of "Bringing Up Father" were begun.

Joe Yule, Mickey Rooney's father, and Renee Riando, international stage and screen actress, were signed for the leads because of their striking resemblance to the cartoon characters. A girl who looked like their daughter was found outside of the acting profession, and June Harrison found herself in a featured role in her first film.

Veteran comedian Tim Ryan was set for the part of Dinty Moore. Others in the cast of "Bringing Up Father" are Wallace Chadwell, Tom Kennedy, Laura Treadwell and William Frambes.

PLAN TO TAKE NON-VETERANS IN ENLISTED RESERVE UNDER STUDY

Washington, D. C.—Enlistments in the Army Enlisted Reserve Corps may be stimulated soon by removal of the barrier against men who had no service in World War II. The matter is currently under study in the Department of the Army and approval is expected. Liberalization of the present policy would put the Enlisted Reserve Corps on a par with the National Guard, the recruiting for which is not confined to veterans.

RESERVE PIGEON COMPANIES

Washington, D. C.—Three pigeon companies soon will be established as affiliated units of the Organized Reserve Corps according to Major General Spencer B. Akin, Chief Signal Officer.

Two of these units will be sponsored by the American Racing Pigeon Union and the third by the International Federation of American Pigeon Fanciers, Inc. Headquarters of the units will be located at Newark, N. J., Chicago and Pittsburg.

FAREWELL PARTY FOR THE WELDON SHAFFERS

The people of the Olin community honored Mr. and Mrs. Weldon Shaffer and baby daughter, who are moving to Sudan, Texas, with a farewell party held in the home of James Sparks Wednesday night, Sept. 24, with Mrs. Sparks and Mrs. Hunter Newman as co-hostesses.

Autumn wild flowers and leaves formed the decorations for the "Progressive 42" rooms where Mrs. O. B. Moore and Edward Basham tied for the high score, while Hunter Newman and Miss Bernice Moore tied for low score. The prizes were: a hand carved wooden cigarette and ash tray, and a bottle of aspirins.

Refreshments consisting of sandwiches and bottle drinks were served to some sixty people.

The Shaffers were presented with a lovely rose-colored woolen blanket as a token of love from their friends and neighbors.

Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Hunter Newman and children, Dan and Margie; Mr. and Mrs. Johnson Patterson, Mr. and Mrs. Verna Knapp and Kenneth, Joe and Kay; Mr. and Mrs. Noble Halle and Tom, Jimmie, John, Bill and Jan; Mr. and Mrs. Richard Tooley and Patsy Ann, Jim and Don; Mr. and Mrs. Emmett Basham and Edward; Mr. and Mrs. O. B. Moore and Bernice; Mr. and Mrs. Fred Gromatzky and Gloria Gene, Mavis Joy and Gerry; Mr. and Mrs. Dan Halle and Danelle and baby; Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Brooks and Delbert, Don and Durward; Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Hale; Mr. and Mrs. William Hix, Mr. and Mrs. Couch and sister, Mr. Turner, Mr. Eppier, Mr. and Mrs. Sparks and Myrna and Katherine Ann.

Duffau 4H Club boys and girls and their sponsors, Mrs. E. B. Price, Mrs. E. E. Minlard and Mrs. Ollie Roach, will attend the Dallas Fair Saturday, which has been declared Rural Youth Day.

Everyone is cordially invited to attend the Duffau Fair October 3, 1947. Judging of exhibits, stock, poultry and swine will begin about 2 o'clock and prizes will be awarded.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Amstutz of Austin spent the week end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Price and family.

Piano lessons will begin October 2. The lessons will be taught in the auditorium by Mrs. M. H. Gillelentine.

The coll. dry weather is ideal. Health is good, and picking cotton and baling hay seem to be the order of events at this writing.

Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Richardson of Fairly were motoring through our community Sunday, visiting at intervals and trying to find some of the old places of interest that Mrs. Richardson knew and loved when a young girl. They were accompanied by their daughter, Mrs. Carl E. Sellers, and husband and small daughter.

The Baptists had preaching Sunday and Sunday night, conducted by their pastor, Jimmie Allen of Brownwood.

The Methodists had preaching Sunday, with their pastor, Rev. J. L. Ray of Hico, doing the preaching.

Uebel Stagner, who is now living in Fort Worth, spent several days here last week putting a new roof on his house.

Jim Witte now has his new home on the old Martin place almost completed. It is a five room house and is modern in every respect.

Carpenters are busy razing the old Koonsman house, and are replacing it with a new structure.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hudspeth of Fort Worth visited Mrs. Hudspeth's mother, Mrs. Hancock, last Sunday.

W. E. Ledbetter and wife and daughter Virginia Sue, attended church here Sunday and visited Mrs. Ledbetter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Eck Bell, Sunday.

E. G. Shaffer and wife of Millerville visited their son, Earl, and family Sunday.

W. A. Ball and wife and daughter, Joan, were visiting in Strawn last week, and Mr. Ball was attending to business.

Austin, Tex.—A recent gift to the University of Texas was a library of 569 books, presented by Mrs. I. D. Fairchild of Lufkin, former regent. The library belonged to the late Mr. Fairchild.
