

LABOR'S MAGNA CHARTA

TO any labor union member who studies it carefully the Taft-Hartley act should—and probably does—become his Magna Charta.

All labor leaders are not tyrants—nor are all capitalists; but it appears to be impossible for any human to voluntarily relinquish power once he has felt the fascination of it. When business was deprived of some of the privileges which it had abused many a financial heart was broken, though now it is recognized that most of the restrictive regulations were wholesome. Now that labor leaders are being deprived of some of their inequitable powers there is more wailing and gnashing of teeth; threats of reprisal are heard on every hand and large sums of money are reportedly being allocated to fight the congressmen who promoted labor's "Declaration of Independence." And "Declaration of Independence" is just what the T-H act was for tabulations have strongly indicated that the labor vote led the "Revolution of 1946."

The T-H act protects the worker from coercion by employer but also from coercion by unions. It relieves him of the necessity of joining a union in order to GET a job—though he may still be compelled to join in the majority of the workers vote such a requirement. It forbids all the unfair labor practices by employers which the Wagner act banned, while it allows the employer at least to defend himself from calumny; and it emancipates the American public.

The T-H act has gone a long way toward returning freedom of action to the union member. When he goes to the polls to vote he will be voting to retain that freedom or to throw it away. He will vote for the candidate who will preserve it for him or for the candidate whose platform will be—"Kill the Taft-Hartley Law!"

It seems safe to predict that the harder the big labor leaders press the fight to save their thrones the greater will be the electoral sweep for the men who had the guts to emancipate the common laborer—and the American public!

● In periods of drought, the alfalfa plant often sends its roots as much as 17 feet below the surface of the soil to reach moisture.

● This spark killer will make haying and other near-the-barn chores a lot safer when installed on the farm tractor or truck. The funnel is 20-in. deep and 12-in. in diameter at the top. Outlet pipe extends down 6-in. inside the funnel. Hot carbon sparks are kept whirling until they become harmless dust.

● When soybeans are harvested with moisture above 14 per cent, it is recommended that they be disposed of or that they be dried down before being stored on the farm. Soybeans absorb moisture easily, and small bin leaks may cause some spoiled grain.

● The farm workshop is not complete without welding equipment. "Lessons in Arc Welding," Lincoln Electric Co., Cleveland, Ohio, $9.50, is a complete guide, one that will prove a necessity to any welder. The book is being used as a text book in many schools.

● The better the clover, the more nitrogen and organic matter there will be for the other crops to follow.

● To save little pigs from being smashed by sows, install guard rails in farrowing pens.

Food Conservation Promoted Through Use of Proper Diet

Austin, Nov. 3.—Commenting on the food conservation program now being stressed throughout the nation, Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer, today emphasized the importance of including the proper food requisites in the daily diet, as being important to the maintenance of health.

"Food conservation is an absolute necessity and all Texans are eager to assist in this program; but eliminating needless basic foods will only result in undernourishment and illness, which can be avoided by observing the Texas Food Standard in daily meals," Dr. Cox said. "This food standard will enable Texans to utilize available foods, eliminate waste, cooperate in conserving food and spend their food dollar wisely."

The Texas Food Standard, recommended by Dr. Cox, provides all necessary food elements, and for each individual includes daily servings of: 1 pint to 1 quart of milk; 1 egg or substitute; 1 serving of meat, poultry or fish; 1 serving of potatoes; 1 serving of green or yellow vegetables; 1 serving of citrus fruit or tomatoes; 1 serving of other fruit; 1 serving of whole-grain products; other enriched cereals or breads; small amount of butter or margarine with vitamins added; some sweets or desserts in moderate quantities.

"Good nutrition is based upon the observance of good food habits, practiced every day," Dr. Cox declared. "This is important at any time, but especially now, when it will not only maintain good health but assist in the conservation of food supplies."

FOOD CONSERVATION . . . Charles Luckman, chief of food conservation, has been having his troubles trying to get industry, agriculture and all factors together on his food program.

Hico Angler Snares Bass With $125 Tag At Possum Kingdom

Mineral Wells, Nov. 5.—Fishing was good on Possum Kingdom Lake Wednesday and especially good for M. C. Lowry of Hico.

The Hico man, fishing at Neely's Camp on the south end of the big lake, caught a 2½-pound bass that carried tag No. 10 in the Possum Kingdom Fishing Rodeo. That tag was good for prizes worth $125 which Lowry promptly collected.

Security Payments Possible On Reburial Of Soldiers' Bodies

Social security payments may be possible in connection with the reburial of the bodies of servicemen brought back to this country, R. R. Tuley Jr., manager of the social security field office in Waco, reported this week.

"If the serviceman was insured under the Social Security Act at the time of his death," Tuley said, "and if he were not survived by widow, children, or parents, who have already filed claims, a lump-sum payment probably can be made."

These payments when made, will be to private individuals who pay funeral expenses over and above what is paid for or furnished by the War Department.

"Those most likely to receive payments," Tuley added, "are people who made inquiry at the time of the serviceman's death and who were told by the Social Security Administration that there could be no payment because there had been no funeral expenses."

Deadline date for filing claim for these payments, according to Tuley, is August 9, 1948.

Majority Sign to "Shut Up Shop" For Armistice Day

Bill Norton and Paul Neel, functioning as a Hico Chamber of Commerce committee to ascertain the wishes of local business and professional men concerning closing up on holidays during the remainder of this year, made their report this week.

After contacting as many as possible of the representative owners and managers of business houses, they said that opinion seemed almost unanimous for closing next Tuesday, Armistice Day; and on Thanksgiving, Christmas and New Year's Day, 1948. The census also included voting on closing the day after Christmas, which received more negative votes than affirmative.

Service stations and cafes interviewed also showed a divided opinion on the matter, the committee reported. It was indicated that some of them would close, but that a sufficient number would remain open to take care of the local public and tourists.

The committee pointed out that they had made an earnest effort to see as many as possible, but that through no intention of theirs some might have been overlooked.

A list of those signing in the affirmative for closing on November 11 appears below. A majority of these signatures also applied to closing for Thanksgiving, Christmas and New Year's. Announcement will be made later about the majority decision on the latter-named dates.

Names of those signing up to close next Tuesday are:

Boy Scouts Go Out For Fun and Have It Thursday Night

At our meeting last Thursday night we had only a few absent and we feel that they all had good excuses as none of us want to miss the fun and training that takes place at our Scout meetings.

We played a few games inside at our pre-meeting session, then discussed the possibilities of a Soap Box Derby for Hico. We are waiting for the national rules so we can compete anywhere if we get our cars rigged up. Early in the meeting the troop was divided into four patrols with a Scout from the senior patrol as leader and Sammy Sisemore in charge, and we were sent to the City Park. Here at the park each patrol built a small camp fire and we sat around discussing various things of interest to us. One patrol had a round of songs.

We returned to the Scout Hall at 9:00 o'clock and had a few troop songs and then formed our Scout Circle and Poncho Ross, our newest Tenderfoot Scout, led us in the Scout Oath.

Carnival's Success Draws Thanks From Faculty and Students

The faculty and the students of the Hico Public School wish to take this opportunity to thank all those who helped make the Halloween Carnival an overwhelming success.

Donations from merchants and school patrons provided most of the prizes and articles for sale; the school provided the hard work; and the general public took part in the fun. This combination produced a highly satisfactory profit—$3.69. This sum is to be divided between the athletic and library funds.

Prissy's Got a Man!
(Maybe)

Yesterday Sis Martin, our librarian, found an article cut from their file copy of the Clarion. When she compared it with another copy that I gave her she found it was my column on "How to Keep a Husband Happy."

Nothing unusual about that. Except the last person seen reading the paper was Prissy Hoskins (our town's proverbial Old Maid)!

Well, if Prissy has finally got a man, more power to her. And more tolerance to both of them ... because that's what my column was about: Tolerance of a husband's taste for old hats, old pipes, old friends, and mellow beer. And tolerance on the husband's part of a wife's tastes and habits.

From where I sit, nobody begrudges Prissy taking that clipping from the Clarion. But I'd like to hint that if she'd just subscribe, she'd get my thoughts on tolerance firsthand. And in return I'll treat her to a glass of beer.

F. F. A. NEWS

The Chapter has finished setting up its program of work. We think we have set up some worth-while goals.

Some of the officers are going to attend a district meeting and banquet at San Saba Thursday night, November 4.

 We will have our meeting on Wednesday night. We have set our regular meeting time for the first Wednesday night of every month.

— H H S — HOMEMAKING II NEWS

We are all sewing as fast as we can on our dresses so we will be ready for the style show November 5.

Now we'll have a look around the room and see what's happening.

We see Myrna Sparks ripping out her sleeves that she's sewed on for the past week. Over here's Patsy weepin' and wailin' because she has to iron her skirt. Now Imogene, Clarice, and some other girls bunched around Miss Rohne and while all of these girls are around Miss Rohne we see Mary Moore, Betty Hicks, Betty Lou Alexander, and Pat Duzan slipping into the living room. By the time the noon bell rings Miss Rohne is worn to a frazzle.

I think everyone will agree that the Halloween Carnival was a big success.

Tonight is the night to play Glen Rose. Good luck, boys.

— H H S — SOPHOMORE NEWS

In case all you people would like to know what the Sophomore room is like early Monday morning, here it is:

Betty Alexander runs announcing she went to church Sunday. Betty Hicks is showin' Mary Moore some boy's bracelet. Whose? Pat Duzan is starry-eyed about a certain Junior. Wendell Burden is busy writing something, important it seems. Lois Grey and Frances McCullough are discussing Halloween. Patsy Tooley and Myrna Sparks are discussing their dates Saturday night. Well, there's some of what happened last Monday morning.

Everyone enjoyed the Halloween Carnival, although our candidate didn't win.

— H H S — FRESHMAN NEWS

We are glad that the Halloween Carnival was a big success. We hope that everyone had a good time. Our only disappointment is that our candidates did not win in the race for king and queen.

The Hico football team will be the first to play Glen Rose under their new lights, and we hope that we win the game.

— H H S — WORM'S EYE VIEW

Nillwonowlin had a fine time at the Carnival Friday night. Nilly took his girl friend, and boy—did he have a lot of fun!

At the Carnival I saw a pretty brown-headed girl with a frown on her face. Now I don't know why this pretty girl should have a frown on her face, but it seems that she does quite often. "Punk"—that's Jimmie Lee Barnett—does have a cute smile when she chooses to use it.

Nilly's girl friend started to ask her what she does to her hair to make it so pretty. But Nilly told her it was no use, that she could never have hair that long and that beautiful.

Altogether "Punk" is a cute girl but, oh, what she needs is a smile. So take advice from a worm that's in the know—smile, smile, smile.

— H H S — PEOPLE YOU'D LIKE TO KNOW

Melvin Jaggars—Blonde? Lady-charmer with a gay personality. A fellow everyone would like to know.

Jo Nell Roberts—A quiet little freshman with a very winning personality. Her smile is radiant and friendly.

Frances McCullough—A very cute girl with lots of vim, vigor and vitality!

Dolores Roberson—A red-head with lots of friends.

Mrs. Angeli—A swell teacher, who everyone likes.

Margie Dorrick—Sweet as they come. She always has a smile that makes you feel just "swell."

Paul Allen—That nice, big, handsome football player.

Valma Norrod—A friend to everybody.

Delano Johnson—That little guy who has a way with the girls.

— H H S — CRYSTAL BALL

Hey, kids, did you see any person or thing that was all dressed up at the Halloween Carnival? Well, that wasn't me. That was Mr. Lincoln.

Ninety-eight surplus buildings at Camp Fannin, near Tyler, Texas, were purchased in two hours at a speedy War Assets Administration sale of the structures recently.

Sales figures for the various structures which ranged from mess halls and storage rooms were consistently high, according to a report made on the sale.

A preliminary tally of the prices paid indicated they were in line with those obtained at three similar offerings held in other parts of the state.

Butane and Propane users! Now IS THE TIME TO INSTALL A LARGER Butane or Propane System

If your butane or propane tank is not large enough to last four winter months without refilling, you may be without fuel when you need it this winter. The Texas Butane Dealers Association asks every user of heating gas to take stock of his present system at once.

Many people have added new appliances—ranges and refrigerators—until they've outgrown their gas systems. The war developed new industries which use butane and propane gas on a year-round basis, while domestic users burn four to seven times more in winter than in summer—but your dealer can furnish you very little more gas in winter. To ease this high winter demand, heating gas users must tank-up with a full four-month's winter supply.

It's the age-old question of "stocking up" early. Farmers have always stored summer grain for winter, just as housewives do their summer canning. And it's "Winter-Insurance" to store your heating gas ahead. Your four-months supply will be in your own tank when you need it most. You'll also help your dealer make deliveries more economically and efficiently when road conditions are worst for gas delivery.

The Texas Butane Dealers Association urges you to drop in and see your local gas dealer as soon as possible. He knows butane—propane, and he will do everything to help you get ready for new winter—now.
Before you buy any heating gas system, see your local gas dealer first!

VETERANS QUESTION BOX

Ed. Note: This newspaper has arranged with the Washington Bureau of National Weekly Newspaper Service, 1616 Eye St. N. W., Washington 6, D. C., to answer questions pertaining to servicemen and veterans. These questions will be answered in this column if addressed as above. No replies can be made by mail, but this paper will print answers to all questions received.

Q. Can a veteran borrow money on his permanent life insurance policy?—J. McD., Jonesville, Ark.

A. Yes, permanent policies provide for loans at any time after the first policy year and before default in the payment of any subsequent premium, in any amount not exceeding 94 percent of the cash value at an interest rate not to exceed 5 percent.

Q. I am a widow. My son, V.C.Z., XC-3-696-925, RVSB, was our only support as my husband died three years before they took my son in service. I have two children, a boy and a girl. I get a compensation for myself, as he was killed on August 4, 1944. He entered service Sept. 3, 1943. The two children were cut out as soon as he was killed and he was all we had to depend on. Now they are seniors in high school next year. I don't see how we can make it. He kept them while he was living. Isn't there a pension they are entitled to? I am not able to work and they are too young to earn anything even if they could work. Please help me as I am a lone woman with these two to look after. We own nothing outside our furniture.—Mrs. H. L. Z., Ravenswood, West Virginia.

A. There is no provision in the law for pensions for dependent brothers or sisters for deceased World War II veterans. The law provides only for widows, children and dependent parents. You as a dependent parent should have collected his insurance and a pension for yourself for life.

Q. In October of 1946 I was married to a young sailor who not only lied under oath but also submitted a self-made and forged naval identification card to the minister stating that he was 23 years old, but he is only 20. Five months rolled by and while I was deathly ill, flat on my back in the Jacksonville naval hospital, he walked out on me, forwarding a letter which I have saying that he no longer cares for me and wants to make a clean cut of it. He doesn't like the idea of having to support me. So he has stated that when he ships over, my allotment will automatically stop. He says the paymaster had informed him that any man with the rate of third class or below ships over he will not be eligible for an allotment. He states that no man is entitled to be married until he is of 2nd class PO rate or above. All this sounds an absolute untruth to me. Should I inform his personnel officer of this childish threat or what is the best advice to follow?—E. A. M., Jacksonville, Florida.

A. This column can only advise you as to the naval regulations and not as to conduct of your private life. Naval regulations for reenlistments now are that family allowances will be paid up to six months after official end of the war. A man in the navy can make an allotment out of his own pay at any time, if his pay is not encumbered in any way by fines. There are no such regulations concerning marriage.

Fairy

— By —
Mrs. J. O. Richardson

We received our first real cool spell of the season over the week end.

Our hearts were again made sad on Tuesday of last week when we received word of the death of Mrs. Effie (Driscoll) Talley of Fort Worth. Mrs. Talley, a former resident of Fairy, was found dead in bed on Sunday, October 26, by her son, Arthur, who made his home with his mother. She had written her daughter, Miss Bernice Talley of San Antonio, to meet her in Waxahachie at the home of their daughter and sister, Mrs. Ida Porterfield, where they would be joined by their son and brother, Elyn Talley. She had set her alarm clock for 6:00 a. m. on Sunday morning in order to catch a bus for Waxahachie, and had shut off the alarm, her hand being near the clock. Arthur was working on a night shift job; came in early and carefully slipped out to avoid disturbing his mother as usual and went to his room and to bed, but never awoke until past 12 noon. Then he happened to go to her room for something and found her. Her clothing to be worn by her on the trip was lying on another bed in her room. She died of a heart attack, and had suffered several attacks previously but was thought to be improving. Funeral services were held Wednesday at Polytechnic Methodist Church where she was a faithful member. Mrs. Talley, like my dear husband, had a host of friends. She was 73 years of age, yet looked much younger, and leaves to mourn her loss: three sons and three daughters, namely: Mrs. Alice Porterfield, Waxahachie; Miss Vivian Talley, Chicago, Ill.; Miss Bernice Talley, Fort Worth; Arthur Talley, Fort Worth; Odis Talley of Nevada, and Elyn Talley, whose address we did not get. A short service was held at the graveside in Fairy cemetery near the tomb of her late husband, Louis Talley. The following neighbors and friends here acted as pallbearers: S. F. Dickerson, B. J. Parks, J. J. Jones, Bill Lackey, Andrew Hutton, and T. L. Betts. The floral offerings were large and very beautiful. Mrs. Talley is also survived by two sisters, Mrs. Ollie McCage and Mrs. McAllister, and a number of nieces and nephews, grandchildren and great-grandchildren, to all of whom we extend our heartfelt sympathy.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Sills have moved to the Coy Parks farm vacated by Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Moore.

Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Hoover spent Saturday in Stephenville to be with their daughter, Miss Patsy Ann who underwent an operation for removal of her tonsils early Saturday in the Stephenville hospital. She reported she was very sick Saturday, but is now recovering nicely.

Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Allison and family of Dublin spent last Saturday night and Sunday here visiting in the home of her mother, Mrs. J. O. Richardson, and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edd Allison, and other relatives.

Work on the farm-to-market highway is progressing rapidly. The crew seems to be working out the low places and branches first before winter weather begins.

Waymond Allison of Baytown spent a few days here recently visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edd Allison, and family. He came up to attend funeral services for Mr. Richardson and to bring his brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Allison of Dublin, who were visiting friends in Houston when they received the sad news of her father's death. They had accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Edwards and daughter, Betty, of Hico who were going down for a check-up of their daughter at a spastic institution there.

Mr. and Mrs. Jess Fulton have moved to the Cecil Parks place at Agee.

Mr. Will Jones has gone to Kerrville for treatment. We hope he will soon be much improved.

Mr. and Mrs. T. R. Parks have been doing quite a bit of improving at their farm home by addition of rooms and a modern roof.

Mrs. Gladys Cox spent Wednesday of this week in Austin, for a visit with her new grand-daughter, born to Mr. and Mrs. Charles Price of that place. Mrs. Price is the former Miss Marcelle Cox. The little miss will probably be christened Cheryl Kay. We did not learn her weight, but will give a more definite report next week.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Ray Sellers and Carolyn visited Sunday afternoon with his brother, Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Sellers of Pecan. While there their brother and wife were called to the home of her parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Cates, nearby, who had been in a car wreck near Littleville. Both were somewhat bruised, but not thought to be seriously hurt. Their car was badly damaged.

We had our children with us for Sunday dinner, but there was a missing link, and those playful jokes with the grandbabies which makes us all so sad.

In Memory of My Dear Husband, James O. Richardson

A loved one from our home is gone,
We miss his smiling face,
We miss his footsteps all along
About this lonely place.

He's gone where all the true and blest
Go, when this life is o'er
And some sweet day he'll awake
From rest

And we'll meet to part no more,
We miss him so since he's gone
Away

And we're left to carry on below,
Though ups and downs we meet
From day to day
Without you, Dear, the going's drear and slow.

But since the Master wrought the piercing blow
And your life quickly ebbed away
Yet if we ask in faith He will bestow

Just what we need to strengthen us, but oh!
The aching void within our heart
will say,
“We miss you so.”

HICO FROZEN FOOD LOCKER

Hico, Texas

Dear Locker Patrons and Friends:

Will you please accept this printed letter as a personal one as I have something to say that I am sure you will appreciate, and it will help you in your food problems in time to come.

This letter is about Home Freezers and I want all of you to have a fair understanding of their uses. A Home Freezer is a fine and convenient instrument to have in your kitchen and it will bring you good food and much pleasure if it is used correctly. A Home Freezer, regardless of the brand, is designed for Storage and not for Sharp or Quick Freezing. None of these Home Units will Quick Freeze in large quantities, and Quick Freezing is the whole secret of frozen foods, along with proper packaging. By proper packaging I mean, they must be air-tight. If you put large quantities into your Home Freezer, it will not Quick Freeze properly, and at the same time you raise the temperature on the food already frozen and this has a bad effect on the storage life of this food.

Food should be frozen at 5 to 10 degrees below zero in still air, and stored at zero degrees for maximum results in storage. You do not get this low temperature in your Home Freezer for sharp freezing, if you put in large amounts.

Here is the main point: At our locker plant, or any locker plant, we are equipped with heavy duty freezing equipment and are able to Quick Freeze at 30 degrees below zero, and lower the temperature in less than 30 minutes through the necessary vital point in Quick Freezing. If you attempt this in your Home Freezer, it will take you hours to do the same job, as a result: icy foods, and shorter storage life for your Frozen Foods. Then, you have lost all that you are attempting to preserve in Frozen Foods.

My Plan Is This: Put a Home Freezer in your Kitchen for modern convenience and pleasure, but keep a locker at your locker plant and have them do your processing and Quick Freezing, and use the locker for storage, taking home a hundred pounds when it is needed. BUT, leave enough room in your Home Freezer to freeze a few packages of Fruits or Vegetables, and some “Left-overs.” Why throw out good “left-overs” when you can freeze them in your Home Freezer and serve them again weeks later? Here is something else: Why not do your Sunday baking early in the week and put it in your Home Freezer, then enjoy Saturday in town or on the creek. Then all you have to do on Sunday is to warm it up and serve it.

I have the AMANA and TYLER lines of Home Freezers to sell. Both companies make several different sizes and all sizes carry the five year guarantee. With the purchase of any make or model I will give you one year's locker rent free and will pick up your food and store it in case your unit fails, or even if your power fails. These things can happen, but your food must be preserved.

Remember, a Home Freezer used properly is the ideal home appliance, but to use it improperly, is the sure way to become dissatisfied with frozen foods. So keep your locker at the locker plant, use their services and enjoy the convenience of a home freezer, and delicious foods the year around.

Here in Hico we have other dealers in the Home Freezers. Listed below are their names and each is co-operating to give you Frozen Foods at their best, and convenience and pleasure through your Home Unit. Each of these dealers has a good Home Freezer and they all carry the five year guarantee. So buy the one you like best.

Hatcheryman Sees Purina's Missouri Research Farm

Webb McEver of McEver & Sanders at Hico was one of a group of 225 Texas feed dealers traveling by special train to the 738-acre Research Farm of the Ralston Purina Company at Gray Summit, Mo., recently.

One of the largest privately-owned livestock and poultry research projects in the world, more than 15,000 birds and 3,000 animals are studied each year. The Purina Research Farm has pioneered many advanced practices such as year-round production of turkeys, dry feeding for calves, life-cycle feeding program for dairy cows, complete dry feed for dogs, special starting mash for baby chicks and other poultry, and many others.

McEver saw the grade-stock dairy herd which has doubled its production under the Purina program of careful sanitation, sound management, good breeding and good feeding.

Rabies Prevalent In Winter More Than During "Dog Days"

Austin, Nov. 3.—Contrary to popular belief, rabies is more prevalent in winter than in the so-called "dog-days" of the hot summer months.

In a statement released this week by Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer, it was disclosed that of all animal brains submitted for examination by the State Laboratory in January, 1917, 23 per cent tested positive for rabies, while in the mid-summer month of July only 18 per cent were positive.

"If all stray dogs were destroyed, and all pets vaccinated for rabies, it would go far toward stamping out this justly feared, and always fatal disease," Dr. Cox said.

The doctor stressed that dogs suspected of having rabies should not be killed immediately, but should instead be confined ten days for observation to see if the disease develops. If a dog sickens and dies during the observation period, the head should be packed in ice and sent to the State Health Department for examination. Freezing the brain, or killing the dog prematurely, or in such a manner as to injure the brain may make correct laboratory findings uncertain, if not impossible.

Dr. Cox declared that after a dog is confined ten days and then killed, there is still a safe margin of time for a victim of his bite to be treated for rabies prevention, but he cautioned that if the disease is found to be present in the dog, the victim should then begin treatment without further delay.

Six-Inch Sermon

REV. ROBERT H. HARPER

A Call to High Living (Temperance Lesson)

Lesson for November 8: 1 Peter 1:12-21; 4:1-5.

Memory Selection: 1 Corinthians 10:31.

Temperance in conduct depends upon right standards of living. As men look to right things, and bend all their moral energies their way, through God's help, they have no time for evil things. And holiness of life answers to the essential relations between men and God. As He who calls men is holy, so must they be holy in all manner of living.

For this holiness demanded men must remember the manner of their redemption. Not with corruptible things, as silver and gold, but with the precious blood of Jesus, as of a lamb without blemish. Such a lamb is a sacrificial one, slain for sin. The Lamb of God is lifted up to take away the sin of the world. They who believe in Him receive power to overcome sin.

Men are exhorted to have the mind of Christ. In faithful imitation of that mind, they are armed against all the wiles of the devil. They walk no more in the ways of lust and impurity. Above all, they who call themselves Christians should ever think of and be prepared for the great day when account must be made.

They who would exploit their neighbors' vices for their own gain can meet, at least to their own satisfaction, some of the arguments against beverage alcohol, for example, and in so doing delude many. But they cannot answer the fine argument of a redeemed life, of a man who is superior to all the lusts of the body and in sobriety possesses his soul.
