FAIR TURKEY SHOW TO REFLECT TEXAS LEAD IN POULTRY

F. Z. Beanblossom, poultry marketing specialist of Texas A. & M. College, has been appointed to serve as superintendent of the Junior Market Turkey Show at the 1948 State Fair of Texas, it has been announced by Ben E. Cabell, general chairman of the fair's livestock, poultry and agriculture committees.

The Junior Market Turkey Show will be held from October 9-14 through October 15th. Record entries are expected from 4-H club members and Future Farmers. All turkeys exhibited will be sold to highest bidders at the Junior Market Turkey Auction on Thursday, October 14.

Walter Burton of Arlington, Texas, will again serve as general superintendent of poultry and turkeys at the 1948 Fair, Mr. Cabell said.

"In the turkey division of the General Poultry Show, to be held October 15 through 24, the State Fair will show an exhibit which truly reflects Texas' position as the leading turkey producing state in the nation," Mr. Burton said.

Innovation for the 1948 Turkey Show will be ten special awards, ranging from $100 to $200 for exhibitors having the best exhibits of thirty turkeys each.

The thirty birds must be of the same variety and must include five each of old toms, yearling toms, young hens, old hens, yearling hens, and young hens; or they may include fifteen toms and fifteen hens of any age.

Still another new feature in the turkey department this year will be a division for record of performance turkey hens, with premiums for hens racking up highest scores according to type and production.

Prospective exhibitors interested in further details on poultry classifications may obtain the 1948 Fair premium list by writing to the State Fair of Texas, Dallas 10, Texas.

Hamilton-Coryell Soil Conservation District News

A "First Planning Meeting" was called last week by Emmett Morris at Gentry's Mill. Local landowners together with representatives of the Soil Conservation Service discussed the need for working together in applying the needed measures in that group.

The following cooperators with the Hamilton-Coryell Soil Conservation District have hairy vetch which is making excellent growth at present notwithstanding the unfavorable weather conditions of a dry late fall, a very hard late winter freeze and a dry spring:

L. C. Pettigrew, 20 miles north-east of Hamilton in the Falls Creek group, 40 acres; Woodson Farmer, 7 miles south of Hamilton in the Trading Post group, 20 acres; Weldon Hodo, 20 miles southwest of Hamilton in the Fairview group, 40 acres; Mrs. Bertie Boyer, 15 miles southwest of Hamilton in the Southwest Shive group, who has 31 acres of vetch with wheat. Nine acres of this crop which followed grain and vetch fertilized with superphosphate is showing a much more vigorous growth without fertilizer than the remaining 22 acres which was fertilized with superphosphate at this planting time, indicating definite soil improvement from vetch with superphosphate.

The following District cooperators have Madrid sweet clover which has made good spring growth and is now in full bloom. They expect to combine these for seed. Sid Dickerson, 18 miles northwest of Hamilton in the Percyville group, has 6 acres. Van Wisdom, 6 miles west of Hamilton in the Lund Valley group, has 7 acres.

Otto Marwitz, 8 miles west of Hamilton in the Southeast Pottsville group, has constructed 2163 feet of diversion. A. M. Erdman, 11 miles west of Hamilton in the Pottsville group, has constructed 19000 feet of large ridge type terraces.

Weekly SURPLUS NEWS WAA

The clearance of surplus in the El Paso area by WAA and slated for June 19 will involve materials originally costing $200,000. In addition to about $100,000 worth of machine tools released by a Government defense committee, some auto parts, cafe equipment, tents, heaters, coolers and medical furniture and supplies will be among 88 lots to be offered the various classes of buyers.

Veterans will be invited to bid on two sets of items at this big clearance: A revolving truck mounted crane and a laundry trailer complete with equipment. Inspection will continue through June 9 at Warehouse No. 22, Fort Bliss. The selling period for veterans, all other priorities and commercial purchasers will commence at 9:00 a. m. June 10.

Forty-seven buildings and fixtures at Majors Army Air Field, Greenville, will be offered first to priorities, then to the general public in a disposal program announced this week by War Assets Administration. Schools and the other institutional and government groups will have until May 31 to make their claims, and remaining buildings will be marketed to non-priority purchasers by means of a sealed bid offering to close June 21.

Offers should be directed to WAA's regional office of real property disposal. This property, including finance, supply, barracks, post exchange, storage and similar structures, is for off-site use only.

BRADLEY TWINS CARRY OFF HONORS AT IREDELL HIGH

Betty Jean Bradley is the valedictorian of the Ireddell Senior Class with a four-year average of 99.9, and Billy Joe Bradley is the Salutatorian with a four-year average of 89.5, according to an announcement this week by Supt. J. M. McCroskey. The two are twins and are the children of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Bradley of Ireddell. Graduation exercises are to be held in the Ireddell High School Auditorium Friday evening, May 28, at 8 p. m. Dr. Duncan Tidwell of Howard Payne College will deliver the commencement address to a class of 13 graduates.

Frank Rowe is the valedictorian of the eighth grade class and Jimmie Wyeche the salutatorian. Graduation exercises for the grammar school were held Wednesday evening with the Rev. Grayson Tennyson, pastor of the Ireddell Baptist Church, delivering the commencement address.

The Hico Review Club held its final meeting of the year on Thursday, May 20, at the Home Economics Cottage. It was a "no hostess" party and each member brought refreshments. During the business session a course of study and projects were discussed.

The Club voted to give full authority for the year's work to the Program Committee. Mrs. L. J. Wood had charge of the program, which was "Reports of Clubs and Club Women." Mrs. Wood very entertainingly and very amusingly made us "club conscious" and we are sure that each member gained a new inspiration to do something worthwhile. We, as a Club, are fortunate in having Mrs. Wood as a member, since she has been an outstanding club woman for many years. The absent members really missed a pleasant hour, and a "treat" by not hearing Mrs. Wood. REPORTER.

Latest in the parade of Texas cities to acquire municipal airports under the provisions of Public Law 289 will be Harlingen, which will soon take over its adjoining surplus Air Force camp, the Harlingen Army Air Field. It has been pointed out that the Southwest is particularly fortunate in being able to secure fine airports for its municipalities, since the Grand Prairie War Assets Administration region contains nearly half of all surplus airport property in the United States.

The sales program for war surplus property in Texas and four adjoining states has already been tentatively scheduled for 112 different locations. This advanced scheduling carries WAA up to June 30, and involves virtually all such surplus in inventory, aside from real property and related material. The WAA has, partly by virtue of the withholding of new surplus declarations by the Armed Forces, already been able to reduce its inventories in the Grand Prairie region to approximately $40,000,000 in personal property from approximately $75,000,000 on hand in March.

MANY CHANGES IN SOCIAL SECURITY RECOMMENDED

Special to The News Review:

WACO, May 25—The Social Security Administration recommended improvements in the Social Security Act as required by the act itself in its 1947 Annual Report, according to R. R. Tuley, Jr., manager of the Waco field office of that organization.

Principal legislative recommendations are summarized below for News Review readers by Jug H. Clepp, who visits Hamilton regularly on the third Tuesday and Meridian on the fourth Monday for the purpose of assisting in the filing of claims, the checking of individual wage accounts, and answering general or specific inquiries on the old-age and survivors insurance program.

1. Coverage of all gainful workers.
2. Changes in the benefit formula to increase benefit amounts, especially low-paid employees.
3. Increase in annual amount creditable for benefit computation.
4. Increase in amount a beneficiary may earn without suspension of benefits.
5. Reduction of qualifying age for payment to age 60.
6. Payment of benefits similar to those for old-age retirement in periods of extended or permanent total disability.

Recommendations in the fields of unemployment insurance, disability insurance, public assistance and welfare services, and children's services are also contained in the report. The Waco office, located at 695 Medical Arts Building, has copies of single sheet summaries of the report and will send them to interested residents of this area as long as the supply lasts, according to Tuley.

A copy of the 1947 Annual Report of the Social Security Administration may be obtained from the U. S. Government Printing Office, Washington, D. C., for 35 cents.

BOY SCOUTS ENJOY PARTY WITH GIRLS AT ELDER HOME

The Hico troops of Boy Scouts and Girl Scouts enjoyed a party given them at the home of Mrs. S. O. Elder, who was assisted in the entertaining by Mrs. Woodard, Mrs. Leeth and Mrs. Grey.

We met at 7 p. m. and got in cars and went up there. We then played several games. One was "Grapes" and there were several others.

We then were divided into three groups and played games in groups.

After playing, we were served with ice cream and cookies. We played some more, then the girls sang a song. Then we came back to the Scout Hall where we formed a Scout Circle and repeated the Scout Oath after Lewis Parsons. We were then dismissed and went home.

SWEETENING UP THE KIDS... A day off from school and candy given them free was the inducement offered German school children to attend a demonstration in Lustgarten staged by the communist-dominated FDGB (Free German Trade Union). More than 70,000 persons attended the meeting. An FDGB representative offers some of the free sweets to the youngsters.

EX-COMMISSIONER WILLING TO SERVE PRECINCT 3 AGAIN

R. W. (Bob) Hancock, who served Precinct 3 of Hamilton County as Commissioner until the first of last year, this week has authorized the News Review to announce him as a candidate for that office again.

On Page 3 of this issue of the paper will be found a message from the former commissioner asking the consideration of the voters.

Before the July Primaries, Mr. Hancock says he hopes to see as many as possible of the voters of this precinct and present his candidacy to them. In the meantime he asks that they keep him in mind, and discuss with him any problems of the precinct.

Veterans' News

Veterans Administration has warned veterans, builders and lenders against the consequences of making or accepting so-called "side payments" in the sale of home properties to veterans with the aid of GI loans.

VA said such side payments—usually made for the purpose of evading the prohibition against sales to veterans in excess of appraised "reasonable value"—are a direct violation of law and subject offenders to possible federal prosecution.

Many cases have been reported in which veterans have been induced to pay the builder or seller an amount over and above the sales price shown on the loan report submitted to VA, and upon which the Government loan guarantee is based.

Veterans who knowingly conspire to evade the law by making such side payments risk loss of their rights under all veterans' laws, VA warned.

VA said that any lender who submits a loan to VA for guaranty while possessing knowledge of a side payment in connection with the sale—even though the payment was made to a third party other than the lender—will be suspended from further participation in the GI loan program. Also, any guaranty issued in connection with the transaction will be invalidated.

Continuing its efforts to prevent overpayments of subsistence allowances, Veterans Administration again urges veteran students and their schools to notify VA as soon as a veteran interrupts or completes his training program.

A veteran student in training under the GI Bill is not entitled to subsistence allowances after the date he interrupts or completes his training. In some cases, veterans stop their training and receive additional payments before VA is notified of their change in status.

All such payments must be refunded to the government. Advance notice is preferable whenever a veteran decides to discontinue his training. However, prompt notice immediately after a break of training will help to prevent most overpayments.

BOBBIE WILSON AMONG LARGE NUMBER GETTING DEGREES AT BAYLOR U.

Bobbie Carolyn Wilson, formerly of Hico, now of Dublin, will receive a bachelor of arts degree with the largest graduating class in the 103-year history of Baylor University at 10 a. m. Monday, May 31, in Waco Hall.

This year's class of more than 500 exceeds that of last year by more than 140.

The four-day commencement season will begin with senior girls' Ring Out Friday, May 28, continue with Alumni Day and annual meeting of the Baylor Historical Society on Saturday and the baccalaureate sermon by Dr. Kyle M. Yates at 11 a. m. Sunday.

Dr. Jim Dan Hill, president of the State College at Superior, Wisconsin, will deliver the commencement address. Dr. Hill is a Baylor graduate, and served in the U. S. Army during World War II and in the U. S. Navy during World War I. In World War II Dr. Hill attained the rank of brigadier general. He now holds the rank of major general in the Wisconsin National Guard. Dr. Hill is also the author of a weekly column which appears in newspapers throughout the nation.

More than half of the graduates, 290, will receive bachelor of arts degrees. Master of arts degrees will be awarded to 16 students,

FARMERS, VISITORS PREDOMINATE AT C. OF C. MEETING

The Hico Chamber of Commerce met in regular session at the High School Auditorium at 7:30 Tuesday evening. There were 10 members and 60 guests present, according to a report from Secretary Bill Norton, who submitted the following report:

After the reading of the minutes and an announcement that the Chamber had purchased a public address system, the President, J. B. Woodard, presented Webb McEver who in turn introduced Mr. E. L. Pierson from the P. M. A. Office in Comanche, Tex. Mr. Pierson introduced R. H. Nelson from the District Field Office, College Station, Texas. He in turn introduced the following: I. H. Lloyd, W. I. Chennault, Mr. Johnson, Mr. Petty, Mr. Gilbreath, Mr. Swabe, Mr. Perkins, Mr. Sharp and Mr. Parish.

Mr. Nelson then presented a color picture and lecture on a field trip in Comanche and Mills Counties. The picture was on legume crops, used to eliminate wind erosion.

Also present at the meeting were members of the Veterans' Agriculture Class, the FFA class and other land owners.

The secretary made the following comments following the meeting: "At this time our hats are off to the boys in the Soil Conservation Program and to the citizens, businessmen and farmers of Mills and Comanche Counties. Through the use of the fertilizer and legume crops many worn-out farms have been put back into production and are now yielding profitably. The farmers in these two counties have cooperated with the program and the businessmen have also cooperated. In Comanche the Chamber of Commerce and the Lions Club have taken the lead and have done much to put this thing over. When the field trip was taken in Comanche County there were 250 cars and about 800 people making the trip, and in Mills County some 350 people made the trip."

Funeral services for James W. Moore, who died at the local hospital last Thursday morning, were held at the Hico Methodist Church Friday afternoon at 2:00 o'clock, conducted by the pastor, Rev. J. L. Ray. Burial was in the Fairy cemetery.

Funeral Services for Early-Day Cowman Held Here Friday

Funeral services for James W. Moore, who died at the local hospital last Thursday morning, were held at the Hico Methodist Church Friday afternoon at 2:00 o'clock, conducted by the pastor, Rev. J. L. Ray. Burial was in the Fairy cemetery.

James Willie Moore was born July 23, 1865, in Jefferson County, Miss., a son of John Andrews and Mary Moore. He moved to Goliad, Texas, with his parents at the age of three years. His early years were spent in Goliad and Victoria as a cowboy, while Texas was still much of a frontier. He helped to erect the Fannan Monument in the early days.

He was married to Mary Katherine Moore July 10, 1887, at Goliad, Texas. They moved to Hamilton County by covered wagon 59 years ago. They remained residents of the Fairy and Falls Creek community for 54 years, moving to the town of Hico five years ago.

His faithful wife had preceded him in death a short time ago. Of the nine children born to them, four survive: Ray L. Moore of Hughson, Calif.; Mrs. Alfred Eubanks of Lubbock, Texas; Miss Mary Moore of Hillsboro, Texas, and Buster Moore of Hico. There are 13 grandchildren and seven great-grandchildren, who along with the other relatives and a host of friends will miss him very much.

LOCAL NAVY MAN TAKES PART IN CEREMONIES FOR LOUISIANA'S GOVERNOR

Fleet Home Town News Center, Great Lakes, Ill.—John W. Higginbotham, USN, son of C. R. Higginbotham, formerly of Route 5 Hico, but now of Midland, serving aboard the destroyer USS Charles S. Sperry, participated in ceremonies at Baton Rouge, inaugurating Louisiana's Governor, Earl K. Long.

The reelected governor is the first man ever to occupy, for a second time, the executive officer's seat in the towering capitol building built by his brother, the late Huey P. Long.

"The Sperry 'dressed ship' for sightseeing tourists. She is no stranger to gubernatorial figures, however, for Harold Stassen, now a presidential aspirant, was aboard her as a Naval officer for a short time in the Pacific.

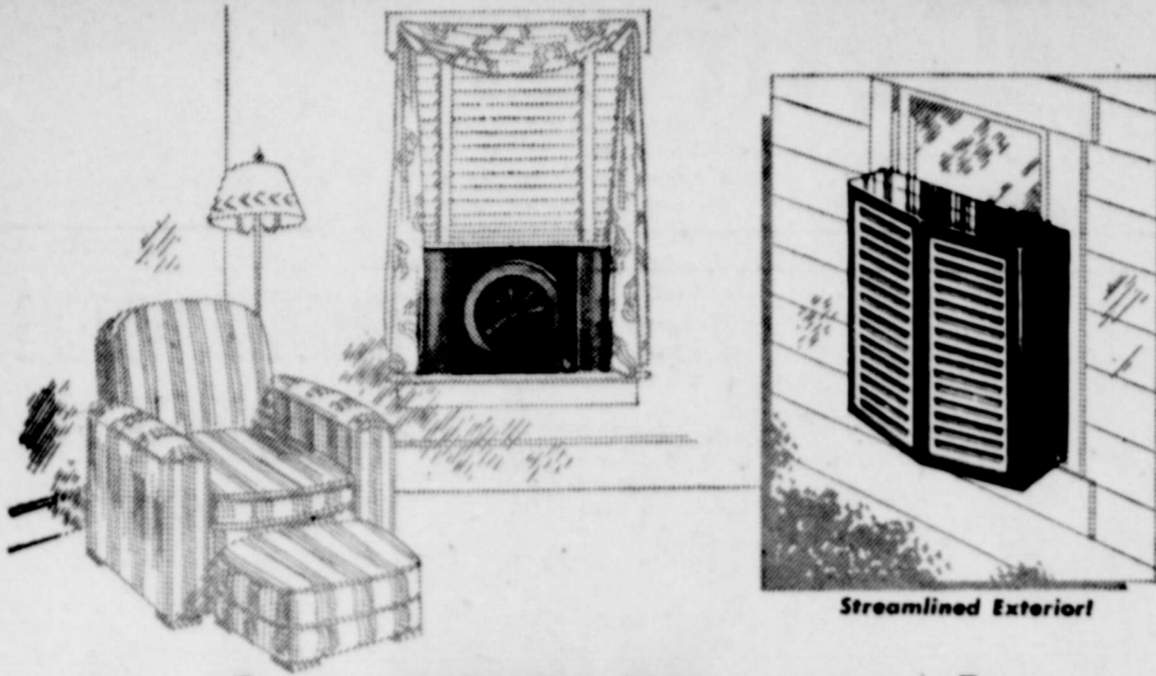

The 2,200-ton warship, regularly attached to Destroyer Squadron 16 at New Orleans, engaged in training cruises for Naval Reservists, marked her fourth birthday, May 17.

SENIOR NEWS

We want to thank Brother Ray, Brother Dawson, and the Deacons of the Baptist Church for their services rendered in our Bacca laureate Service.

Tonight (Friday) we will have our graduation exercises. Although we have trouble getting through high school, we are sorry to be leaving.

JUNIOR NEWS

School is finally out and most of the Juniors are happy about it. We would like to thank Miss Rohne for being our sponsor and going with us on our picnic and helping us with the Junior-Senior Banquet.

SOPHOMORE NEWS

School is drawing to a close, and although we hate to leave our friends at school we are looking forward to three months full of fun.

Our deepest sympathy goes to Mary Moore, whose grandfather passed away last week.

We would like to express our appreciation and gratitude to Mrs. Segrest, who, as our sponsor, has been most patient with us. We have enjoyed our year as Sophomores and hope we do as well as Juniors.

FRESHMAN NEWS

In Mr. Parker's absence, Mrs. Angell has done a swell job as our sponsor. Mrs. Angell seems to have a full time job around this school. She is also Senior sponsor.

She is always willing to help us with anything. We appreciate her guidance and leadership through our freshman year of high school.

HOMEMAKING NEWS

Last week the Homemaking classes reviewed for their final tests. After we finished this we cleaned the cottage.

Friday morning I see Paula and Valma washing baseboards, Miss Rohne and Patsy washing windows, Louise and Pat mopping, Genelle and Betty Lou washing windows in the living room. Other girls are washing and cleaning here and there.

F. F. A. NEWS

We elected our officers for next year. They are:
President, Wendell Burden.
Vice-President, Glenn Ross.
Secretary, Bud Norrod.
Treasurer, Lester Simpson.
Reporter, Bobby Ratliff.
Second Vice-President, Norman Petry.

Third Vice-President, Clynton Roberson.

Sentinel, Benny Collins.

These officers don't go into office until July 1. Three of the officers are in for the first time.

CRYSTAL BALL

What's all the music about? Oh, it's the amateur night. As I look into my crystal ball, I see Pat Meador and Dub French, Myrna Sparks and Delbert Brooks, Miss Rohne and Sandy Ogle, Jo Matthews and Logan Evans, Jeanette Dowdy and Truman Loden, Janelle Dowdy and Ralph Loden, Betty Jane and Paul Allen.

Speaking of couples, Saturday night I see Jo Nell Roberts and O. J. Clark, Mary Moore and Odell Terry, Betty Hicks and Sonny Christian, Myrna Sparks and Delbert Brooks.

There seems to be a mistake about Loretta's ring. We looked and couldn't find one on her finger.

WORM'S EYE VIEW

As school nears the close, Nilly takes one last look around the building. Most of the girls are glad school is out but Nilly is not. He will be lonesome here all by himself, but maybe he will take a visit to the country. As Nilly bids goodbye to all his friends, he sees one certain Sophomore, whose smiling face he will surely miss. The little lady behind the cheerful personality is none other than Jo Matthews, our Texas "Yankee." Jo hasn't been here long, but with her merry laugh and sunny smile she has already made a place for herself in Nilly's heart, and in the hearts of several boys.

Nilly hardly ever sees Jo, but what she has a smile for everyone. She is cheerful about everything, and with her brown hair, blue eyes and freckles she is a treat for any eyes.

And some time this summer if Jo's not too busy, Nilly would sure like to learn to skate, if she will take time to teach him.

After enjoying some good rains during the past week, farmers are very busy. Grain is about an average and corn is looking fine. If one can judge by the amount of land prepared, there will be a large crop of peanuts planted, also a larger acreage of cotton than usual.

M. H. Gillentine was expected to return the first of the week from the hospital at Hico, after undergoing several days of treatment for some kind of fever.

Leslie Earl Anderson and family moved to Coleman Sunday where he will be employed by the Curtis Candy Co.

Stanley Roach, who moved the Andersons, brought back a load of cattle from the San Angelo country where it is very dry. The cattle are sent here for pasturage on the Chas. Hedges place.

W. E. Ledbetter and wife of Fort Worth spent Sunday with Mrs. Ledbetter's father, I. A. Bell, E. B. Price and son, E. B. Jr., were in Granbury last Saturday.

Mrs. Ed Phillips had as weekend guests her mother and her brother.

Mrs. Elmer Giesecke and her mother, Mrs. F. M. Holland, spent Saturday night in McGregor, visiting relatives. They returned Sunday morning, accompanied by E. L. King Jr., wife and children.

Another successful school term will be rounded out Friday, May 28, with a barbecue dinner, candidates' speaking, and two ball games in the afternoon. You are invited.

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh

It's Leap Year, Girls!

First girl in our town to "get her man" on Leap Year was the Cuppers' daughter, Jane, who wed Bill Webster's boy last Saturday.

When I asked Bill Jr. if it was true that Jane really did the proposing, Bill said: No, but she made it plain she'd make an ideal wife.

Instead of looking for diversion or excitement every evening, she was content to chat beside the fire.

"I could plainly see," says Bill, "that we'd really have a happy home life—which is just exactly what I want from marriage."

I know it's usual for older folks to shake their heads over the younger generation. (It's gone on for hundreds of years, now.)

But from where I sit, young people of marrying age today are every bit as commendable as their elders were—in their temperance (a glass of beer for instance), tolerance, and common sense. So to Jane and Bill—the best of luck!

TO THE PEOPLE OF PRECINCT 3--

After so many of you good people over the precinct have asked that I be a candidate for Commissioner of Precinct 3, I have decided to do so and I will ask you for your continued help; your vote and influence will be greatly appreciated. If I am elected I will do my best to put your precinct back in as good a shape as I had it.

I am not going to promise you the seventy-six miles of paved roads that I had lined up when I was beaten, but I will promise you one thing--I will be in there trying, and I will assure you that any paved roads to which we are entitled will not be transferred somewhere else.

I will see that you people get a fair deal in Commissioner's Court in taxes, road pavement, finance and whatever might come up.

Below is a statement of the way I left the precinct when I went out of office.

I respectfully call your attention to the following statement, covering receipts and expenditures from June 27, 1946 through December 31, 1946, and the inventory prepared after appraisal by a reliable machinery company:

With the precinct clear of indebtedness, there remained in the treasury at Hamilton on Dec. 31, $13,487.16. I checked out to my successor a little over $800.00 from the bank at Hico, and a sum of about $900.00 is due on terracing (signed up by the Government). In round numbers this makes a cash balance of a little over $15,000.00 as of Dec. 31, in addition to the equipment and materials listed above.

You will have plenty of time before election day to go to your county treasurer and check and see what kind of shape the precinct is in now.

I am going to try to see each of you personally, but if I fail to see anyone, I still will appreciate your vote and help.

looked fine and also done fine. A short band concert was given and it was fine, and some was very comical. The large crowd enjoyed it very much.

The Baccalaureate Exercises of the graduating class of 1948 were held last Sunday morning. A program of same was carried in last week's paper. Rev. E. L. Potter of Linden delivered the sermon, the text being from Leut. 30th chapter and 19th verse, "Choose Life." He made a fine application of it, what work the Seniors will take they should choose the life of a Christian. Most of the Seniors are Christians and are church members, and workers in the churches. Take Jesus as their guide and they will make a success. The Sermon was fine. All should take this advice that Rev. Potter gave, for if they will choose a Christian life God will help, for I have found out by experience that God helps those who help themselves. A large crowd was there and all enjoyed the service. Benediction was by Rev. Tennyson. Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Echols also had Ralph and wife at the home Sunday to be with Billy and wife. Mrs. Billy Jack Blakley was brought from the Holt Hospital to the home of Billy Jack's parents. She is doing pretty good, but is still in bed. It is hoped she will be well soon.

"Memorial Day"

This Country has, within a generation, been forced into two terrible wars while shamefully unprepared. Both wars have been horrible in the destruction of lives and property from which we, nor the World, can seem to recover.

Let us therefore, firmly resolve to make ourselves SO STRONG that no aggressor will dare add to further grief which this solemn day entails.

BARN DANCE

A Short-Short Story by Papinta J. Knowles

BETTY TAYLOR wished she could walk down town without someone stopping her on the street and saying, "It's the cleverest idea! Are you going? I'll look—well, strange, though, not to see you and Jim Carr together..."

Herb said, "I didn't know you could sing like this Betty. You belong in opera..." Betty laughed, drowning in his voice, until he joined in with his deep bass.

And so there grew up, over a period of time, the forced habit of endangering one's self-respect, and the comfort of one's friends, by the constant consumption of that exudation of the earth's pores—that plant called "Allium cepa"—onion to you.

Betty saw Jim Carr almost as soon as she entered the barn. He was standing by Susan, and they were talking with a group nearby.

"Wonderful! Susan knows how to do the christening ceremony up brown," Betty said, laughing. Susan and Herb had danced off together, and now Betty's eyes searched the crowd for them.

"Know what I heard, Betty?" "Could never guess." "I heard that you weren't coming tonight."

Betty understood Jim's grin. She laughed. "Aren't people silly, Jim? Why, I'm not concerned about you and Susan..."

It was an excuse to talk to me, she thought, with some irritation. He's assuming certain things, but I'll settle him on that score, she vowed.

When the couple came out of the shadows and went into the barn again, Betty's breath sucked inward with surprise.

Jim laughed. "Susan does things up brown in other lines of endeavor, it appears," he said.

"Particularly the kiss she must have given Herb," Betty tried to say lightly. "I'm sorry for you, Jim."

Jim was close, and she didn't draw away from him. "It hasn't been the same since we quit going together, has it, Betty?"

ONIONS

IN yE olden feudal days the lord of the manor got all the goodies which his serfs raised and left the onions for them.

And so there grew up, over a period of time, the forced habit of endangering one's self-respect, and the comfort of one's friends, by the constant consumption of that exudation of the earth's pores—that plant called "Allium cepa"—onion to you.

So E Pluribus grew to meatus, I with a placid disposition and a pleasant presence, and probably wouldn't have even indulged in the last two big wars if some sons of Italy hadn't introduced Atomicus Garlicus to our otherwise respectable gastro-intestinal tracts.

Now there are certain rules and regulations intended to restrain those who would otherwise annoy their fellowmen. One is not allowed, for instance, to smoke cigars in a public airplane—even if they are Owls.

Why then should one be permitted to nauseate the passengers and pollute the upper stratas with exhalations which have been known to frequently cause divorce and sometimes murder?

Campbell and Heintz be permitted to desecrate good canned chicken soup? Maybe some of us would like to taste the chicken!

Successful Parenthood

Childhood Proper Time For Correcting Speech

IF THERE were only some statistics to show how many job opportunities had been ruined by sloppy speech habits, parents might be more aware of their responsibility toward their children's voices and manner of expressing themselves.

Faulty speech begins in childhood. Often this can't be avoided if your child's neighborhood companions speak poorly. But childhood is also the time for correcting unpleasant traits of speech and voice.

In the early years grammar and choice of words are not so important in speech training as voice pitch and diction. A speaking voice that is neither too high nor too low is at least half the result of example. Children can shout at the top of their lungs in play and it doesn't seem to hurt their speaking voices.

Make it a rule to have the children come where you are for conversation of any length. It doesn't hurt, of course, to call upstairs for Johnny to bring you your glasses off your desk—but don't discuss his home work or what he saw at the movies unless you are in the same room.

Occasionally, too, children must be reminded to lower their voices, but this isn't half so effective as seeing it that there is rarely any need at home for their voices to be raised.

As for good diction, you'll have to do some day-to-day training to achieve this. Make it a rule that the child must finish each word before he starts another one. If he begins tumbling them together in "Gimme 'n'apple" fashion, don't think you've done your duty by insisting on a "please" at the beginning or end of his request.

Six-Inch Sermon
↑ REV. ROBERT H. HARPER ↑

By REV. ROBERT H. HARPER
Daniel Stands by His Convictions (Temperance).

Lesson for May 30: Daniel 1: 8-20.

Memory Selection: Daniel 1: 8.
Daniel was among the first group of exiles that Nebuchadnezzar carried into Babylon. With three other young Jews, he was put in a school for training in the public service. Daniel purposed in his heart that he would not defile himself with the king's dainties and the wine served to the young men of the school. But the head of the school refused Daniel's request to be allowed to abstain.

Then Daniel proposed to the steward in charge of himself and his three friends that they be allowed for ten days to eat pulse and drink only water, and see the result. At the end of the ten days the four young Jews were in such better physical condition than the others they were allowed to continue their plain diet. Further, when the young men were examined by the king, Daniel and his friends far surpassed all the others "in every matter of wisdom and understanding which the king inquired of them."

This record of Daniel and his companions is a fine temperance lesson. They who think they must eat rich food and take strong drink to keep up the pace should ponder the lesson well. Most scientists deny the value of strong drink and many do not hesitate to show its evil effects upon body and mind. Only a selfish reason can lead to its defense. The drink habit is taking a terrible toll from our people, and it is deplorable indeed that the habit is being so extended among women, old and young. Are we fast becoming a nation of drunkards? If so, what can the future hold?

Week-end visitors in the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Brown were Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Brown Jr. and son, Robert, Raymond Brown and son and Billie and Frances Shelton, all of Fort Worth and Mr. and Mrs. Albert Brown and daughters, Betty and Judy of Abilene.

Fairy

— By — Mrs. J. O. Richardson

We have had a few real summer days during the past week, and at this writing (Tuesday) we have threatening weather again.

The Bacchante Service was held Sunday night at the gymnasium, with Rev. J. L. Ray, pastor of the Methodist church of Hico, officiating. All enjoyed the message he delivered very much.

Mrs. Gill and daughter, Miss Alice, of Hico closed their work with the Fairy school on Thursday night of last week with a musical recital. Mrs. Gill was instructor of expression and Miss Alice taught music. The program was very nice, with musical numbers, readings, and after the program all remained for a short program in magic, presented by Magician Richard Johnson, brother of Mrs. Gill. We hope the services of Mrs. Gill and her daughter can be secured for another term, for we can see their work has been very beneficial to all their students and will be quite a help in the future to our youngsters.

We had a very nice crowd at singing last Sunday. Visitors were here from Glen Rose, Hamilton, Ohio and Hico. The Glen Rose Singers were accompanied by Raburn Ratliff, a talented musician from Fort Worth, who is quite a help as pianist these warm days. All received an invitation to attend the Bosque and Somervell County Singing Convention to be held at Iredeil next Sunday afternoon.

Ralph Pittman of Lubbock, who spent the week end in Hico visiting relatives, attended singing

A Few Timely Suggestions . . .

1. Clean eggs as soon as possible before any foreign matter becomes dry.
2. Gather twice daily.
3. Get rid of, or pen roosters.
4. Let eggs set over-night before casing, as fillers and flats of an egg case will hold the heat of a new-laid egg.

WE ASSURE YOU---

If we receive your eggs in good condition we will keep them that way until they reach the consumers, and by all of us working together we will again make Hamilton County eggs the best in the State. You will profit, and so will we.

Just Not Being Sick Does Not Constitute Really Good Health

Austin, May 24.—"Although we may not be sick, we may be far from being well. There is a great and vital difference between high and buoyant health and the health of the average person, or one who is only well enough to be out of bed," Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer, said today.

"Unless we have the essentials of health in our daily habits of living, we are sure to pay the penalty of impaired health, sickness and early death as we are of cause and effect in other situations," Dr. Cox continued. "We should ask ourselves, 'How long can I retain my efficiency, both in work and play? Do I want to become incapacitated soon after middle life?'"

The alternative, according to Dr. Cox's statement, is to adjust one's program of living to insure the fundamentals of health and thus, barring accidents, keep young and retain active efficiency to an age of 70 to 80, or more.

The essentials of health are simple: sufficient fresh air and sunlight, good food and food habits, regular exercise and adequate rest. Yet, in checking the health of thousands of individuals who considered their health good, it has been rare indeed to find a single person who does not habitually disregard one or more of these essentials. Therefore, no matter how good or poor our health, we should check our daily program of living for health habits that are essentially faulty but of which we may be unaware.

our own hall of fame

We would like to create a special hall of fame for good telephone users. These are the folks who use the telephone party line sparingly. They respect their neighbors by not talking too long nor too often. They always replace the telephone on the hook after talking. Our hall of fame would include courteous children—considerate teen-agers—neighborly adults. This would be a gallery of really good neighbors—don't you agree?
